DUCK HUNTERS ARRESTED

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, November 1

TWO KEY WATERGATE TAPES are missing and the White House claims they never existed. The missing tapes include a four-minute conversation between the President and former campaign director John Mitchell, in addition to an hour-long conversation Mr. Nixon had with former White House aide John Dean. U.S. District Judge John Sirica called a special court hearing to announce the non-existence of the tapes as a matter of public record.

Friday, November 2

PRESIDENT NIXON claims he will allow newly-appointed special prosecutor Leon Jaworski a free reign to do whatever he sees fit regarding the Watergate investigation. Jaworski begins his job Monday morning with a presidential promise that he won't be fired without the approval of congressional leaders. But, congressional leaders are still planning to create a special prosecutor to be appointed by Judge John J. Sirica, who will be completely independent of the executive branch.

Saturday, November 3

PRESIDENT NIXON knew at least five weeks ago that he would be unable to comply with a court ruling to turn over the Watergate tapes, according to an assistant White House attorney, however, did not inform Judge John Sirica that two of the nine tapes were never recorded until Wednesday, October 31. Presidential assistant Stephen B. Bull testified last Friday that Mr. Nixon first learned of the missing tapes on September 23. Court hearings resumed on Tuesday, to learn how it was possible that the two tapes, sought by subpoena since July 26, should suddenly be discovered missing.

Sunday, November 4

FORMER BACKERS OF PRESIDENT NIXON, uneasy over his sinking credibility, are calling for his resignation. The latest revelation with regard to the missing Watergate tapes has shaken Republican politicians and commentators who were previously loyal to Mr. Nixon throughout the Watergate affair. The Detroit News, one of Nixon's staunchest supporters in the past, published an editorial asking the president to resign, once Gerald Ford has been confirmed as Vice-President. Other newspapers, including the New York Times and the Denver Post, also published editorials calling for the President's resignation.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN faces a heating crisis as winter approaches. Although state officials are confident that home-heating services will be maintained through the cold months ahead, problems in supplying businesses and institutions have already cropped up. The energy problem first became apparent in Battle Creek, where the gas company announced last week it was cutting off natural gas orders to 51 industrial, commercial and institutional customers. Canada announced on the same day that it will stop supplying fuel oil to Detroit area distributors.

Tuesday, November 6

DETROIT VOTERS go to the polls to select the next mayor, nine councilmen, a clerk and a treasurer. They must also decide on a new city charter proposed to replace the one that has governed the city since 1918. A 65 percent turnout is predicted at the polls, and analysts say, a large turnout would favor Young, who held a slight lead over Nichols as the campaign came to a close Monday.

To Improve Joint Fire, Police Radio

Federal Grant Helping Pay Costs of Bettering Performance

The Farms council, on Monday, November 5, approved appropriations amounting to a total of $34,241, for the payment of bills and the awarding of contracts to successful bidders, including three bids for the construction of a new, high-powered emergency radio tower. The Farms is the center of, and the controlling community for the Pointe-Harper Woods Police and Fire Emergency Radio System.

On recommendation of City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., the solons consented to award a contract to the Hun-Ray Tower company for the installation of a $6,575 antenna tower; The Sinclair Radio Laboratories, Incorporated was given the contract to build a Multi-Coupler and Duplexing System, for the bid price of $2,939.85; and Motorola Communications and Engineering will install a voting system for $5,495.

The total amount of the contracts amounts to $15,189.25 and is part of the approximately $34,000 allocated for improved police and fire aid protection to the six cities under a Federal Government grant, which is being administered by the State of Michigan.

The first phase of this improved emergency radio system is to bring about a better radio wave reception over police and fire radios, and a

Quiet 'Devil's Night' Halloween Reported In All Areas of Pointe

Parents, Schools, Police and Volunteers Credited With Great Improvement in Behavior of Celebrating Young

By Roger A. Waha

"Devil's Night," the evening before Halloween, seemed to become "Angel's Night" in the Pointe this year. "We are really very pleased to report the schools experienced the least amount of vandalism on 'Devil's Night' and Halloween Night in the last 10 years," said Ben Zenn, director of administrative services, Grosse Pointe School System.

"We're grateful for the fine cooperation of the schools, the PTA groups, the Youth Service Division, the police departments of all the communities, including Harper Woods and all auxiliary police, and all municipal officers who helped," he continued.

And not without a touch of humor, Mr. Zenn noted the "contribution" of the weatherman, too, regarding the dampness of "Devil's Night" and the rain on Halloween Night.

"In addition, we're grateful to the parents for their help in redirecting some of their children's energies and seeing that some children were kept home," stated Mr. Zenn. "There was a minimum amount of activity in and around our buildings on both nights."

"I want to stress the success of everyone's efforts and thank all residents for a Halloween that was safe, sane and free from wanton vandalism."

As many Pointers know, some 200 teenagers created what Woods police called a "near riot" situation last year in the area of Barnes and Our Lady Star of the

North, South Grid Teams Set to Clash

Both Elevens Unbeaten and Untied as They Go To Showdown

Grosse Pointe South's 14-6 win over Port Huron Northern Friday, November 2, and North's 21-0 whitewash of Mt. Clemens Clintondale Saturday, November 3, added luster to the upcoming cross-town clash between the two prep powers Saturday, November 10.

Both schools will enter the game unbeaten and untied. Both are ranked among Michigan's top Class-A powers. Each is a champion in its own right, South winning the title in its first venture in the Eastern Michigan League, North nailing down its third Bi-County League crown in the past four years.

Coach Russ Heppner's Blue Devils fought back from a 6-0 halftime deficit to earn the win at Port Huron on Barry Fielding's 14 and 55-yard scoring runs in the third quarter. South's Mack Isley led the comeback victory effort with 150 yards rushing on 30 carries.

At Memorial Field, Gary Maher rambled 33 yards to score on North's first offensive play and went on to pick up 110 yards on 14 carries to lead the Norsemen to their eighth straight win. North added fourth quarter touchdowns on a one-yard run by John Puleo and a 10-yard pass from the senior quarterback to Mark Johnson.

A crowd upwards of 3,000 is expected for next Saturday's showdown battle. North will be seeking its first unbeaten season on the gridiron; South its first clean slate since laying claim to the mythical State title in 1959.

Meanwhile, University-Liggett lost a tough one to Detroit Country Day, 7-6, on Saturday. Trailing 6-0, Country Day scored a TD in the second quarter and netted the conversion kick for the margin of victory.

Boerner's Name Stays on Woods Election Ballot

Judge Maher Says His Court Lacks Authority to Order Removal; Petition for Writ of Mandamus Denied

By Roger A. Waha

At a Wayne County Circuit Court hearing Wednesday, October 31, before Judge Richard Maher, the court denied a petition for a writ of mandamus filed by attorney Jack C. Chilingirian, Thaddeus K. Ketchum and the Citizens to Elect Jack C. Chilingirian in the plaintiffs' efforts to have Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner's name removed from the Tuesday, November 6, election ballot.

Mr. Chilingirian, a candidate for a four-year seat on the council, filed a lawsuit against The Woods and its city administrator-clerk Friday, October 26, to have Mr. Boerner's name taken off the ballot.

The court's decision "upheld my opinion," said City Attorney George Catlin, that "the court is without authority to order Mr. Boerner's name off the ballot."

In an earlier letter to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, Mr. Catlin said it was his opinion "that the State Statutes do not provide for removal of an elected city official for conviction of a Federal felony nor do the State Statutes preclude such a person from seeking public office on the State or local level."

At the same time, the city attorney said that the City Charter, Section 5.1, provides in part that "... the Council shall be the sole judge of the election and qualifications of its own members." The "old" council could not have decided the issue but the "new" one can, (those elected to the council on November 6).

Mr. Boerner, a former HUD employee, pled guilty to conspiracy to bribe in Federal Court Thursday, October 11, before Judge Cornelia Kennedy. (After his guilty plea, and prior to the election, Mr. Boerner reportedly did not resign his seat or withdraw from the election).

Comments Judge Mr. Chilingirian said Judge Maher ruled on the law but "explored the situation since it does leave certain gaps." Mr. Chilingirian had earlier told the NEWS that Mr. Catlin's decision was based on the law as it exists. In this regard, Mr. Chilingirian stressed a "gap in the law" regarding State law not covering a Federal felony in this case, but a State felony.

He called Judge Maher's decision a "good and potent one. I will commend him. It was a tough decision to make." But Mr. Chilingirian said he was left with no remedy "for me as a candidate because of the state of the law."

"A convicted felon should not be on the ballot," stated Mr. Chilingirian, who also questioned, "What happens if I lose the election?" In this

Trio Caught In Violation Around Lake

Federal Officer Charges Three With Hunting in Baited Area

By Nancy Kramer
Lakefront residents who have been battling it out with duck hunters for the past month finally scored a decisive victory with a little help from a pair of federal agents on Tuesday, October 30.

Not only did agents of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service make three arrests, but they made City police and the public aware of a law that should insure some measure of protection for residents who make a habit out of feeding ducks.

Previously, boat owners, City park visitors and people who live along the lake were told that hunters who sought their prey along the shoreline of Lake St. Clair were within their legal rights, and they are, provided they shoot in a safe and legal manner. Some hunters, however, weren't being discriminatory about where they aimed their weapons, and as a result, citizens had to put up with occasional stray pellets striking their property and dead or wounded ducks floating in the area.

Police Were Unsure
City police and park guards, not really sure whether violations were occurring, since the law was not clear to them, were reluctant to tread on unfamiliar ground and listened to residents' and visitors' complaints, but were unable to do much about them.

But law enforcers' hands are no longer tied. On Tuesday, October 30, Harold R. Boyer, whose family owns the island located between the Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park pier and the Grosse Pointe (Little) Club, saw decoys set up between the island and the seawall on his property. Mr. Boyer had posted warning signs to hunters that the area was a feeding place for ducks.

After Mr. Boyer realized the decoys belonged to an individual with whom he had earlier had a confrontation, he telephoned the Fish and Wildlife Division of the Department of the Interior in Lansing, and complained to agent William Fuchs.

Mr. Fuchs and an associate, agent Von Dane, immediately set out from Lansing, arriving in the Pointe

Burglars' Loot Just 4 Dollars

Two burglars were frightened away by the voice of a woman who thought the noise downstairs of her house was being caused by her daughter. The thieves escaped with only four dollars in currency.

According to information released by Farms authorities, the intruders entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander McCormick-Goodhart, 90 Tonnancour, at 3:57 a.m., on Wednesday, October 31, while the family was sleeping.

The burglars gained entry through an unlocked garage door at the rear of the building, investigating officers said. Once inside the garage, the thieves entered the building proper through an unlocked door into the kitchen. They took four one dollar bills from a wallet in Mrs. McCormick-Goodhart's purse on the kitchen table, then proceeded to pull out the hi-fi set from the living room, when the noise awakened the woman of the house. She got out of bed and went to the stairwell of the second floor.

Mrs. McCormick-Goodhart said that she thought her daughter was downstairs and called out to her. The daughter answered from her bedroom on the second floor. The voices of the mother and daughter apparently frightened the intruders who fled from the house.

Supreme Court Decision Awaited in School Case

By Kathy Duff

It's now up to the U.S. Supreme Court whether or not to hear the Detroit School Desegregation Case. Legal briefs, or petitions, have been filed by both the Grosse Pointe School System and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP), and the Court is expected to decide this month if it will accept the case.

The petitions, each numbering five pages of discussion, argue two diverse positions. The NAACP feels that the Court should not accept the case because the issue has not been resolved at the lower court levels. The School System believes that the Court should accept the case to make a ruling on the legal issue of a Metropolitan plan for school desegregation.

In the petition, an attorney for the Grosse Pointe School System, Douglas H. West, quoted the Court of Appeals recent decision to stress the urgency of a Supreme Court hearing on the desegregation case. In its decision, the Court of Appeals ruled, "a plan for desegregation beyond the boundaries of the Detroit School District is... essential to a solution of this problem."

Mr. West is a member of Hill, Lewis, Adams, Goodrich & Tait, the law firm which represents the Grosse Pointe School System.

Burglars Visit Home in Woods

A 30 caliber M-1 carbine and a large diamond dinner ring, reportedly a family heirloom, were missing after the burglary of a Lennon road residence sometime between 7:40 a.m. Monday, October 29, and 12:20 a.m. Tuesday, October 30, according to Woods police.

Besides the rifle and dinner ring, both of unknown value, the culprits took two 15-round clips, 200 rounds of 30 caliber ammunition, and older model General Electric black and white portable TV, several rare coins from a jewelry box, a diamond brooch, of unknown value, and $80 in cash.

Police said entry was gained through the back porch and then into the home via a rear door. Pry marks were discovered on the frame and the door itself, while glass was broken adjacent to the door knob.

STOLEN EXTINGUISHER

City park superintendent Robert Kuhn complained to City police on Wednesday, October 31, that someone had stolen a fire extinguisher off a wooden dock in the boat harbor, on either Tuesday, October 30, or Wednesday morning, October 31. The glass enclosure around the extinguisher had been shattered.

Teachers Meeting Today To Consider Strike Move

By Kathy Duff

At 4 p.m. today, Grosse Pointe teachers will meet at South High School to review the progress of contract negotiations and to vote, if necessary, on a strike move.

Carl Lord, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, did not use the word "strike" in discussing the teachers' position. Instead, he referred to "services being withheld" if the teachers are not satisfied with the School Board's latest contract offering by the time of the meeting Thursday, November 8.

Teachers are now in their 10th week of working without a contract. Mr. Lord repeatedly has stated that the teachers returned to school last September only because they believed a settlement was imminent.

However, the situation might not be as critical as it appears. The School Board and the teachers have moved a step closer to settlement after going through a "fact finding" process. Each party was asked to present its case, backed by relevant statistics and interpretations, to state labor official Leon Herman.

Mr. Herman made public his interpretation of the problem and his recommendations for contract settlement at the end of October. Since that time, there have been two meetings between School Board officials and the teachers' representatives. Both

WINDOW SMASHED

City Police received a complaint from Keith D. Cunningham, on Saturday, November 3, that his car window was smashed by someone when it was parked on Neff road. Cunningham parked the Chevrolet, two-door in front of the residence at 542 Neff road at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, November 2. When he returned at 12:30 a.m., he discovered the window on the driver's side of the car had been smashed.

Lakefront Duck Hunters Arrested

about two hours later to find three hunters in the area of the Boyer island. The agents issued violations to Christopher and John Carlisle, both of 12 Mile road in Roseville and Allen Wire, of Wayburn avenue, in The Park, and charged them with hunting in a baited area. The three were later slapped with $100 fines, ordered to turn in their hunting licenses for a year and told to appear in federal court within the week.

A Clear Violation

Agent Fuchs said the hunters were clearly violating the law. "We had firsthand knowledge that the area was a feeding place for ducks," he explained, "and there were warning signs posted.

Ironically, the trio had been forewarned. City Chief of Police Andrew Teetaert received a complaint about the three earlier in the day from a Cameron road resident. The Chief, along with Officer Dennis Van Dale, rode down to the lake and informed the hunters of the possibility of their being issued a violation.

The warning apparently went unheeded and the two agents from Lansing, after they made the arrests, stopped in at the City police station to tell the Chief what had transpired, and to issue him a copy of the law that should deal with the problem from now on.

Published in Guide

The law, coincidentally, is published in the Waterfowl Hunting Guide that is given to hunters when they get their licenses. According to the regulation, hunters are prohibited from attempting to take migratory game birds over, or near, a baited area. Neither are hunters allowed to lure or attract fowl by means of bait.

Specifically, bait refers to corn, wheat, or any other kind of grain, salt or feed, distributed to attract birds to a certain area.

The law goes on to say that any baited area remains off-limits to hunters for a period of ten days, following complete removal of any feed that has been placed there. Hunters must be extra cautious, since the baited area does not have to be posted as such. "It is up to the public to make sure that where they are hunting is legal," said agent Fuchs.

Have Power to Act

City police have the power to enforce the law and intend to do just that, now that they are aware of its existence. "We're glad the situation finally came to a head," said Lt. Robert Van Tiem. They don't plan to have officers making special checks of the lakefront area, but Chief Teetaert said, "If we hear any reports from people, the violators will be cited." He also noted that police haven't had any complaints or trouble since Tuesday, the day the arrests were made.

However, Agent Fuchs and Conservation officer Richard Sawkin expressed fear that people will use the clarified baiting regulation as a means for getting back at hunters. Both Fuchs and Sawkins stressed that the careless hunter is the exception, rather than the rule. "People shouldn't feed the ducks to keep the hunters away," Fuchs said, "If they do, they are depriving them of their rights."

Conservation officer Sawkin hopes people don't get the mistaken idea that the regulation is a sure-fire protection against an irresponsible hunter. "You can't just throw food out someplace and say you have a baited area," he commented. "You're dealing with the fine points of a law here."

Both men still feel the public should refrain from feeding the ducks while the hunting season is open. "By feeding ducks, you're opening a can of worms," agent Fuchs explained. "People are being put in jeopardy and wild game is being tamed to be unafraid of people. It just isn't fair to the legitimate hunters, or to the birds."

Of all the football stadiums in America today, did you ever wonder which is the oldest? Answer is Harvard Stadium, which was the first concrete stadium built in the United States. It was opened in 1903. However, the Big Crimson was dealt a heavy blow on Oct. 27th when their undefeated Ivy League record was ruined by an underdog wild bunch from the bushes of New Hampshire.

What's the farthest a man can throw a football? There's no official record but most experts say that under game conditions the farthest a pro quarterback can throw the ball in the air is about 70 yards. But in practice sessions, without any linemen charging and with plenty of time to get set, some players in football history such as Jack Kemp and Kenny Washington have been reported as being able to throw more than 80 yards. And some players say quarterback Rudy Bukich, the former Bear quarterback once threw a ball 100 yards in the air. Wonder what George Washington could have done with a strong wind blowing on the Potomac?

Suspect Bound Over for Trial

An 18-year-old Roseville youth was bound over for trial in Macomb County Circuit Court after his Monday, October 29, examination before Shores Municipal Judge Douglas L. Paterson in the Macomb Court, according to Shores police. No Circuit Court arraignment date has been set as yet.

John Anthony Durso, who's charged with assault with intent to rob and steal while armed, is being held in lieu of $5,000 bond in the Macomb County Jail. He was arrested Saturday evening, October 20, by Woods police in the area of Jefferson and Westbury drive, St. Clair Shores, after GP Shores police had broadcast a description of the suspect over the radio.

Police said Durso, after entering a Fairlake lane residence, (located in Macomb County), pulled a pair of scissors on two complainants in an apparent robbery attempt. The suspect left the home after one of the complainants picked up a pair of scissors from a table. At that time, he said it was a joke before walking to the front door and leaving, police added.

Woods Decides Against Bag Purchase Litigation

The Woods has had some problems with Anjo Products, Inc., who accepted a bid from the city to supply 180,000 plastic rubbish bags. But after furnishing 60,000 bags, the city was notified of a proposed price increase which it refused to accept, so another supplier was secured.

However, the net difference in cost to the city totalled $414 in securing bags from the second source.

In a letter to the council, which was on the agenda at the regular meeting Monday, November 5, City Attorney George Catlin said this price differential could be collected by legal action.

However, Mr. Catlin advised, "Since this differential is minimal when spread over the cost of 120,000 bags and litigation would be necessary to collect the sum, it is my recommendation that this matter not be pursued."

So the question was, "To litigate or not to litigate" to recover the $414. After a discussion on the matter, the council declined litigation by a 3-1 vote.

Mr. Catlin told the council this subject was a "matter of cost practicability." He noted the cost could be minimal if Anjo didn't contest the matter but if they did, it was possible the cost could go over $414.

Councilman Rodger A. Graef, who voted the one "no," felt it was necessary to take legal action to fulfill an obligation to Woods citizens.

However, while agreeing with Mr. Graef's viewpoint, Councilman George S. Freeman offered a motion against pursuing litigation because he felt the city attorney could be directed in other legal action which could be of more benefit to the citizens.

In supporting Mr. Freeman's motion, Councilman Conrad A. Naegel stated it was possible that the cost of litigation could surpass any recovery on the city's part. Mr. Naegel added that Anjo should not be considered in the future as potential bidders.

In his letter, Mr. Catlin also said, "I have written several letters to Anjo Products and discussed the matter of $414 with Mr. DaCunta, president of Anjo.

"It is their position that they did not intend to supply bags during the 12-month period involved in our order if their cost of materials increased to the point where no profit was available to them.

"Mr. DaCunta claims that it was for this reason that he could not complete our 180,000 bag order. He indicates that he feels no obligation to pay the city the sum of $414, which is the additional cost incurred by the city for the balance of the bags."

PROMOTED

John H. Redic, of McKinley avenue, was recently promoted to the position of Vice-President in the National Bank of Detroit's United States Division. Woods Okays Skating Pact

The Woods Council unanimously approved an agreement with University Liggett School for use of the McCann ice skating rink for its citizens this winter. This is the ninth year of such a program for Woods residents.

Under the terms and conditions of the agreement, Woods citizens will have exclusive use of the rink on 15 Wednesdays from 7:10 p.m. to 10 p.m. beginning November 28 and ending March 6, "as well as additional Wednesday nights made available as weather permits prior to November 28."

The school will collect $1 for each session from each citizen, regardless of age, who uses the rink. The funds will be used by the school to defray the cost of the facility's operation. At the same time, the school will be responsible for the maintenance and staffing of the building and ice rink at each session.

For these privileges, the city will pay $1,500 to the school for the season, at the rate of $100 per Wednesday night session. An additional $100 would be paid for each session before or after the minimum 15-week season, weather permitting.

The city will assume all public liability for any injury or damage to its residents who use the rink, according to the agreement. And the city will have an employee in attendance at each session who will check admission to the facility and restrict it to Woods residents.

Finally, the following understanding was reached between the city and Anthony B. Fruhauf, business manager, University Liggett: "If the University School Skating Club is unable to extend to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods use of the rink for the regularly agreed hours on any Wednesday within the minimum 15-week season, because of mechanical failure within the facilities, the City will not be held liable for the $100 charge related to that evening."

When this proposed agreement came before the council at an earlier meeting, the solons requested further exploration of this matter regarding liability in case a Wednesday night session would be cancelled.

Offer Seminars At North, South

Three days of creative writing and lecture seminars will be conducted by Dr. Arnold Johnston of Western Michigan University, at North and South High Schools, under the auspices of the Joanne P. Bokram Memorial Arts Fund.

Dr. Johnston, who will be in Grosse Pointe from Monday, November 12, through Wednesday, November 14, is a writer of prose fiction, plays, and songs. He will spend one and one-half days at each school, in general sessions with large groups of students and in small workshops with selected students who have submitted creative writing to him in advance.

Students have applied for the sessions through the English departments. Dr. Johnston's visit was coordinated by Alma Fleming, chairman of the English Department at South High School.

The Bokram Fund was established as an enrichment program for the Grosse Pointe schools, particularly at the high school level. It has sponsored several arts events, the most recent being the appearance of the Interlochen Jazz Quintet, whose members conducted music seminars at the schools.

The Bokram Fund is administered by the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Academic Enrichment, 32 Lake Shore.

In The City, the three councilmen elected to four-year terms include David Robb, Robert Nugent and George Henry. Mayor John King was unopposed in his race. The proposed charter amendment, which increases retirement allowances for all full-time employees, was approved, 49 to 174.

The use of various kinds of glass bricks and blocks has become fairly common in this country. Such materials have distinct advantages. They permit light to enter and provide exterior decoration as well. Glass is especially necessary, as most people will agree, when the view is a major source of interest in the house—the more glass, the better view. Glass blocks are valuable when light is needed but not sight of what's outside.

HELPFUL HINT:

Rugs should be thoroughly vacuumed several times a week to keep them grit-free.

Plan Eastern High Reunion

Many a Grosse Pointe resident will be interested in the Fourth Annual Eastern High School Alumni Banquet at the Bayview Yacht Club Friday, November 30, because in the early twenties and during the World War I era, a good part of the Eastern student body came from The Pointe area. The affair begins at 6 p.m.

In those pre-bus and pre-student-car days the students from the Pointes rode the old interurban street car down Jefferson avenue. When the car reached East Grand boulevard that was the end of their ride, because there was no transportation on the boulevard.

It was quite a sight each morning to see the horde of students trooping up the Boulevard — with their destination the school at the corner of Mack.

This year the honoree will be George Jaglowicz, long known as "Mr. Basketball" in amateur basketball circles. He starred in both basketball and football at Eastern and at the University of Detroit. He also played on, managed and sponsored a host of basketball teams over his quarter century association with the sport after graduating from U-D.

A tribute also will be paid to Ray Chauvin, one of the founders of the annual banquet. His specialty was football, and he starred in both high school and college. He was an active participant in last year's affair, but passed away last winter.

Gus Howard, nationally known comedian, and former Eastern High School cheer leader, skating, swimming and gymnast competitor, will be master of ceremonies.

Retired Judge David C. Vokes has taken the late Edward Piggins' place on the banquet committee.

All Eastern alumni are welcome, and tickets can be obtained from Dorothy Ullman, 1270 Montclair, Detroit 48214, at ED 1-6874.

Wounded Duck Finds Pal

City park guard DAVE GILLETTE tries to get his new-found pal to look at the camera, but the duck, shot by a hunter, and left behind, obviously has other ideas.

Dave Gillette inadvertently acquired a pet on Thursday, October 25. While on duty as a guard, down at the Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park, Gillette was presented with a wounded duck by a boat owner, who found him, left behind by a group of hunters that had been out the night before.

Gillette wasn't sure the duck would survive, but fed him and put him in the park swimming pool. "I wasn't sure he would make it this morning," he said, "he was pretty weak." But by late afternoon, Gillette was optimistic. "He's perked up and he's paddling around now," he commented.

Even though Gillette stresses that inconsiderate hunters are a minority, he is surprised by the amount of dead or wounded ducks left behind. "There were a lot of dead ones from last night that the hunters didn't pick up," he noted.

And as for wounded ducks, Gillette makes a habit of befriending them. "I've done this maybe a half-dozen times this year," he explained, "and most aren't any wilder than this one."

Parcells Sets Free Concert

Parcells Middle school will host the 50-member Olivet College Orchestra on Thursday, November 8, at 8 p.m. The orchestra, currently on tour, will perform under the direction of David C. McCoy.

The concert, consisting of standard orchestral works of general interest, is being sponsored by the music departments of North and South High Schools.

The program is open to the public, free of charge.

Poor Drivers Find It Costly

Park Judge William E. Speer accepted a plea of guilty made by Russell Licavoli, Jr., of 339 Sonia, Madison Heights, at a court hearing held on Wednesday, October 31. Licavoli was charged with sudden acceleration of his automobile.

The judge ordered Licavoli to pay a fine of $20 and court costs of $5 and placed him on probation for six months, with no driving the first 60 days of the probation period.

Keith Kennedy of 17670 Lincoln, East Detroit, pled guilty to leaving the roadway and striking a fixed object (Edison pole). He paid a fine and court costs totalling $50, with the alternative of no driving for 60 days. He paid the fine and costs.

Patricia Ann Culbertson of 3135 Coplin, Detroit, pled not guilty to speeding 51 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone, and was found guilty of doing 39 mph in a 30 zone, for which she paid a fine and court costs of $20.

Donald Ferguson of 2496 LaBelle, Detroit, pled not guilty to speeding 44 mph in a 30-zone and was found guilty as charged. His fine and court costs amounted to $30.

Joan Dzbanski of 2108 Burns, Detroit, entered a plea of not guilty to traveling 35 mph in a 25-zone and was found guilty. Her fine and court costs came to $20.

Frances Danna of 712 Berkshire, paid a fine of $10, after pleading guilty of failing to yield the right-of-way and causing an accident.

Queen Esther Hawkins of 3883 St. Jean, Detroit, pled guilty to driving 35 mph in a 25-zone and was fined $25.

Raymond Knoebel of 798 Berkshire, pled guilty to not having his operator's license on his person. He paid a fine of $25 and was placed on probation for six months and his license is being held by the court for 30 days.

Bernard Kendrick of 59 Seward, paid a fine and court costs of $20 after he was found guilty of speeding 30 mph in a 25-zone.

Miriam Dulzo of 19719 Searisdale, St. Clair Shores, failed to appear in court to answer for speeding 40 mph in a 30-zone and the court ordered her bond of $25 forfeited.

Waymon Lovett of 1749 Robson, Detroit, was found guilty of driving 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone and it cost him $20.

Shirley Blumke of 12612 Hampshire, Detroit, forfeited her bond of $25 for failing to come to court to answer to a charge of speeding.

Thomas McCarthy of 1169 Newport, Detroit, paid a fine and court costs of $20, for driving the wrong way on a one-way street, Whittier. He was found guilty.

Philip Matous of 19266 Syracuse, Detroit, pled guilty to speeding 30 mph in a 25-zone. His sentence was suspended.

Ann Marie Skowronski of 11735 Payton, Detroit, accused of failing to yield the right-of-way and causing an accident, pled guilty to the charge. The court suspended her sentence.

Edward Trout, 913 Lakewood, Detroit, pled guilty to parking in a no parking zone, but because of unusual circumstances, he was given a suspended sentence.

Janet Briggs of 2665 Springle, Detroit, pled not guilty to speeding 40 mph in a 30-zone and was found guilty and ordered to pay a court cost and fine of $20, or no driving for 30 days. She chose to turn her license over to the court for 30 days and not drive.

Fifteen persons failed to come to court to answer to charges against them and Judge Speer signed warrants for their arrests.

In the final analysis it's the results that count — not big plans or broken promises.

Library Offers Family Movies

FUTURE SHOCK, one of the library's newest film additions, is scheduled to be shown at the Grosse Pointe Public Library tonight, November 8, during the second program of the Family Film Night series. This timely film, based on the runaway best seller, FUTURE SHOCK by Alvin Toffler, has received exceptionally fine reviews and is narrated by Orson Welles.

It demonstrates what is happening to man today in the way of rapid change in such quantity and at such a pace that he cannot absorb it completely. Thus, we are in shock over a future that is rushing upon us, and reshaping man's very conception of himself. The film runs 45 minutes and is in color.

Also on the program is THE NATIONAL ANTHEM, a fast-moving and unusual film presentation of the STAR SPANGLED BANNER which covers, in less than three minutes, stirring and colorful highlights of American history.

The third film of the evening is VERY NICE, VERY NICE, 10 minutes, black and white, in which tongue-in-cheek attention is given to the sporadic fears, doubts and anxieties that are commonly suffered by twentieth century man.

Showtime is 7:30 p.m. in the Exhibition Room at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval, and the general public is invited. This series is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the library. For additional information, please inquire at the Circulation Desk, or call the Audio-Visual Department at the Central Library, 884-2260.

Viewers will go from land to sea as Merrill Mudge presents his 16 MM color film of Great Lakes Adventure. The film documents a trip the freighter William Clay Ford made from River Rouge to Lake Superior.

Mr. Mudge shot the film in collaboration with three other men and it includes both action on board as well as the passing scenery from Dearborn to Duluth.

Joseph E. Barrett, director-producer of the Great Lakes Adventure, will be the speaker. Host and hostess for the evening are Mr. Frederick Stempfle and Mrs. Carol Seltenraad. The public is invited to attend.

League Offers Double Feature

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League presents a double feature tonight, November 8, in the Alger House of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The program begins at 8 p.m. with railroad buff Harold Hammond presenting his slide program entitled The National Parks Special.

The slides were taken on a summer of 1972 railroad trip that encompassed nearly 6,000 miles. Travelling with a group, Mr. Hammond rode the Burlington Northern Railroad from Chicago to Seattle and back. Bus trips were made to Yellowstone, Glacier and Olympic National Parks.

Ferry crossings of the Puget and Georgian Sounds as well as the Strait of Juan de Fuca are also covered in the slides. The cities of Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver are featured as well.

All Pointes Report Quiet Halloween

to break them up." Numerous public safety officers worked overtime on "Devil's Night." The director estimated some 50 men, including auxiliary officers, were on the job. "If they saw more than two or three kids in a group, they would move in and break it up," he added.

Calm in City
City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert said it was "very quiet" in his community. "We've been fortunate here. We have a darn good police department which has held activity to a minimum."

The chief cited a few "Devil's Night" related reports including one where a cherry bomb was placed on the police station window, (it caused no damage).

A short time later, officers arrested six 17-year-olds and one 14-year-old juvenile on disorderly person charges, (possession of fireworks). The six youths were released after posting $25 bonds, while the juvenile was released to his parents.

"Werewolf" Strikes
Chief Teetaert said two incidents were reported Halloween evening. In one case, three 14-year-old Detroit boys, harrasing "trick-or-treaters," were warned by police and, according to the chief, were "booted" back to Detroit.

Then there was the case of the "werewolf" with a knife. Police received a call around 8:15 p.m. from Cottage Hospital where a St. Clair Shores resident was being treated for a minor stab wound in his thigh.

Police reported the man told them he was stabbed in a phone booth on Mack avenue east of St. Clair by a person wearing a werewolf's mask. The complainant said the knife-wielder opened the phone booth door and demanded a dollar, which the resident refused to give him. So the "masked man" stabbed the citizen in the thigh and then escaped.

Stresses Support
Farm Police Chief Robert Ferber said it was "extremely quiet" in his community on "Devil's Night."

He stated a few egg throwing and firecracker incidents, along with one or two MDP reports, were noted but these were "nowhere near the amount we received last year."

In fact, the chief said there were 90 percent less "Devil's Night" related reports this year in comparison to 1972.

Chief Ferber, in stressing "tremendous community support," felt credit should be shared between parents, civic groups and the school system.

Not As Bad
Meanwhile, Park Police Chief Henry Coonce said it was "relatively quiet" in his city. The chief stated no schools were damaged, although he mentioned some destruction to parked cars and incidents of painting on vacant buildings.

Park Detective Sergeant James LaPratt estimated the department received 20 reports of "Devil's Night" related activity. He said there were eight MDP reports including a rock through a window, a broken car antenna, the throwing of wine bottles at a house, plus some firecracker complaints.

"The worst MDP incident, according to the sergeant, was the damage of statues in a fountain at a local residence, causing around a $500 loss.

"It wasn't as bad as it has been in the past," said Sergeant LaPratt. "We had the situation pretty much under control." He also wanted to give credit to parents for their assistance in this regard.

Serene Shores
Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale said there was "very little vandalism" in his municipality.

Two complaints were received on "Devil's Night" — one was for egg throwing, while the other was for two open hydrants, (which were quickly recapped).

On Halloween Night, one incident was reported. A Lake Shore road resident told police someone shattered three thermo sliding doors with large pieces of ledge stones.

In the past, the director said the Public Safety Department had received a few reports of leaf fires but none look place on "Devil's Night" this year.

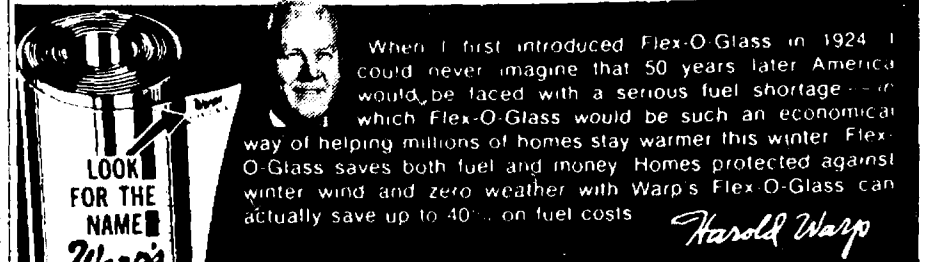

Youth Service Division Agent Michael Ferrence, who covered The Woods and Shores on "Devil's Night," said he saw many patrolling officers, and emphasized, "We're going to do it again next year."

"It seems there must have been some effort on the part of parents to keep their children off the streets," stated the agent, who noted that there wasn't "the volume of kids on the street" this year.

Torch Drive money acts as seed money—attracting service funds from other sources. Last year, the more than 140 United Foundation agencies had total operating budgets of $100 million, the first $29 million of which came from Torch Drive funds.

PLAIN TALK About The FUEL SHORTAGE!

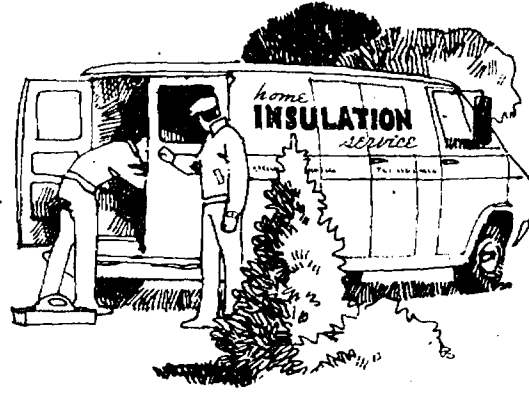

When I first introduced Flex-O Glass in 1924 I could never imagine that 50 years later America would be faced with a serious fuel shortage... which Flex-O Glass would be such an economical way of helping millions of homes stay warmer this winter. Flex-O Glass saves both fuel and money. Homes protected against winter wind and zero weather with Warp's Flex-O Glass can actually save up to 40% on fuel costs.

More heat is lost through windows than from any other part of the house. In fact a 1/8" crack around a standard size 3 ft. by 6 ft. window equals a 3 inch square hole in the glass. That's why it pays to seal drafty windows by covering them with Warp's Flex-O-Glass.

Don't delay! Our new low-cost home insulation program can cut gas heating costs up to 17%.

In just a few short weeks, many of our customers around Michigan have taken advantage of a new program to hold down heating bills and help save Natural Gas, too. The program was developed at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which is seeking ways to conserve Natural Gas and hold down utility bills by the wise use of energy.

To assist you in the project, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has even prepared a helpful booklet that shows just how to do the job.

Secondly, you can call a contractor of your choice and arrange to have the work done. Or call Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. We'll have one of our participating insulation subcontractors install it for you, which can also be easy on your budget. Many houses with up to 1,000 square feet in the ceiling area can be insulated for less than $200. And, there's a payment plan to suit most every customer. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay just 20% down at the time the contract is signed—then simply have the remaining cost included in your gas bill. Pay it off on your next three gas bills with no interest or carrying charges.

Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

Whichever you choose, you'll be taking an important step toward holding down your heating bills. And cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. Why not plan on doing it now. Contact us today for additional details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

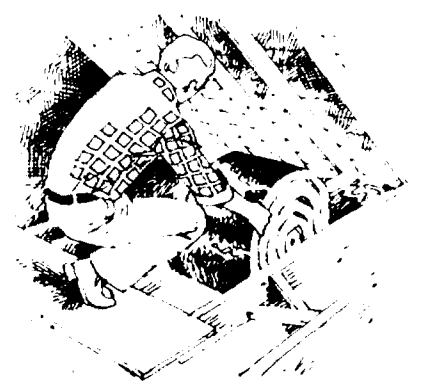

found that many homeowners could achieve fuel savings of as much as 17% by having six inches of insulation in their attics. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and your heating habits.

To help you realize fuel savings in your home, we've designed an easy home insulation program. Here's how it works.

First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple do-it-yourself project—and the most economical way to put in ceiling insulation. Many customers can accomplish the task for less than $100.

Men Gardeners to Hear Boell

Edmund J. Boell, assisted by Henry O. Warde of the Floriculture Unit of Detroit's Parks and Recreation, will be the main speaker at the Thursday, November 15 meeting of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club, according to Stan Remus, club president. The session is scheduled to be held at Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte, at 8 p.m. Boell is one of the founders and a past president of the local organization. He is a graduate of Michigan State University and has been employed for many years on the floriculture staff by the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation.

Boell and Warde will demonstrate how to make home Christmas decorations, including roping wreaths, swags and baskets for outdoors; and indoor decorations, such as centerpiece, mantel and table arrangements and Christmas terrariums.

"The entire meeting will be centered around Christmas decorations," Remus said. "There will be a very complete demonstration on how to make many of your own decorations and their uses. This is a very popular program and we are very fortunate to have it scheduled."

Remus said that the meeting promises to be a very entertaining and instructive program for both the club members and their wives.

Laymen Slate Open Meeting

The Greater Detroit Chapter of Laymen will hold an open meeting on Sunday, November 11, at 3 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road. Speaker is James Cochran, editor of "The Presbyterian Layman," and a social hour in the fellowship hall will follow the talk.

Teachers

(Continued from Page 1) sides admit that the settlement gap has narrowed significantly. Mr. Lord has even stated that the difference equals less than $175 per teacher over the three-year proposed contract.

The fact finder's reports recommended that both parties agree on a three-year package of $1,627,000. The Board has accepted the recommendation; however, the teachers have made it known that they are holding out for an additional $90,000.

The $1,627,000 is to be used to pay all increases in compensation including annual salary schedule step increases, increases in longevity benefits, increases due to higher levels of training, larger stipends for extra-curricular assignments, improved fringe benefits, as well as over-all improvement to basic salary schedule annually.

Board President Robert D. Warner stated, "The Board is willing to accept Mr. Herman's recommendation even though it exceeds what we have felt was needed for an equitable salary settlement. We do so because the Board recognizes the overriding importance of keeping our schools open and the education of our children uninterrupted. Meeting this responsibility is of primary importance to all of us."

Mr. Lord recently commented, "We have continually reduced our demands to accommodate the Board. We are currently suggesting proposals that fail to keep pace with the rising costs in the market place. I am afraid that teachers will not continue to offer services under these conditions."

All-day meetings were scheduled for Wednesday, November 7, in an effort to reach contract settlement before the teachers meeting today at South High School.

The examination for a 28-year-old New Baltimore woman, who's charged with embezzlement of over $100, will be resumed Wednesday, December 5, after it was adjourned from Wednesday, October 31, Woods police reported.

Sandra Randall is being charged on the basis of a $462 check which she allegedly converted to her own use, police said.

The suspect worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the Mack avenue offices of two doctors whose books were found to be $20,692.88 short by a professional auditing firm in July.

Your heart produces two sounds with every cycle of beating. The first sound is dull and is caused by vibration and contraction of some parts of the heart. The second sound is sharp and is caused by sudden closing of some of the valves in the heart. Diseases can often be detected by the sounds of the heart. If they are abnormal, it may be due to some disease-caused abnormality. You wouldn't think two simple sounds could be so important!

higher frequency reception over the portable receivers carried by policemen and firemen on duty.
It was disclosed that of the amounts awarded through the bids, 75 percent of the cost will be paid from the Federal grant, and the balance will be spread among the Pointes and Harper Woods, according to appropriation payments among each city.
In awarding another bid the solons approved the purchase of a demonstrator model West Coaster, Model 975, refuse collection vehicle, from Buyri Hill, Incorporated. The firm offered to sell the truck for $2,400, the lowest offer submitted.

Also on recommendation of the city manager, the council awarded the low package bid of Michigan Mutual Liability company which offered to furnish the city with specified insurance coverage (fire, general, marine, etc.) for the total cost of $26,070.

The solons agreed to honor a payment of $761.50 to Villan-Lehman and Associates, Incorporated for professional community planner consultant services as agreed upon last April regarding the Cottage Hospital Business Area Study.

In further action, the council approved the city manager's request that he be authorized to hire a clerk-typist in the Public Service Department; and set Monday, December 3, at 8 p.m., as the date and time of public hearing for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Staats of 260 McMillan road, who are appealing the denial of the Building Department for a permit to enclose a screened porch at the rear of their house to make a family room.

North Harriers Win State Title

North High School won the State Class A high school cross-country title in action Saturday, November 3, at Grand Blanc.

The Norsemen took first by a slim two points over Ann Arbor Pioneer, 109-111. Kalamazoo Loy Norrix finished third with 140 points.

Those helping North to victory include Tom Hammer, Ed Brennan, Jim Fisher, John DiMercurio and Dave Maisteller.

Supreme Court Decision Awaited

The Grosse Pointe attorney argues that "The Court of Appeals opinion could not have been more clear in its declaration that there will be a metropolitan plan, and because the District Court's final order on that issue was affirmed, review by the Supreme Court now is appropriate, without the necessity of considering any plan details."

In pressing the Court to accept the case, Mr. West pointed out that over 85 school districts, containing nearly 1,000,000 students, were enmeshed in similar desegregation hearings. He stated that the Court should make known its position to aid the lower courts in deciding the issue.

In the two parties' briefs, it is often mentioned that the Court of Appeals has allowed the school systems to present additional information. Mr. West made it clear in his brief that the lower courts have been ordered not to refuse additional evidence, but that he doubts if additional evidence will be allowed to sway greatly the original decision of the lower courts.

In closing the petition for a hearing, Mr. West writes, "The school districts have been and will continue to be denied due process of law by the Courts below, unless this Court, (the Supreme Court), intercedes."

In contrast, attorneys for the NAACP argue that the Supreme Court should not accept the case because, "No actual plan of desegregation has been approved or even considered by the courts below; no defendant has been ordered to do anything except to participate fully in planning and to join in the hearing in the district court."
"There is no reason to depart from this Court's established practice of refusing to review school segregation cases in the absence of a plan, especially when . . . the resolution of issues depends upon the evidentiary contribution both of petitioners and of newly added parties."

In closing its arguments, attorneys for the NAACP reason that a petition for a hearing at this stage is premature since the schools should wait for a final decision by the lower courts before they appeal.

"It may well be that after the hearings in the district court, the form, scope and indeed the source of the remedy would be markedly different from that described in these petitions. Under these circumstances, a decision at this stage . . . would virtually require an advisory opinion," the NAACP argued in its brief in opposition to a hearing.

The Supreme Court is expected to act on the two petitions by the end of November.

Councilman Boerner's Name Stays on Election Ballot

(Continued from Page 1) respect, he expressed his concern about the possibility of votes being taken away from him, and other candidates, with Mr. Boerner's name on the ballot. He said, "It violates my equal protection rights." Guided by Advice Mr. Chilingirian, who felt he did something "therapeutic" in this instance, said, "The case is far from over." But he didn't know what specific action he would take until after the election is over. "I could appeal the decision and have the election overturned at a later date," he said, although he's not certain if he will take this avenue.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, in reacting to the court's decision, said, "It's a reflection upon his (Mr. Catlin's), professional esteem," and stressed the fact that "my office had to be guided by our city attorney's opinion and council in this matter—it lends credence to the decision made based upon Mr. Catlin's advice."

"The reason why Mr. Boerner's name was not taken off the ballot by my office was based upon the opinion of our legal counsel and the recent court decision proves our point," he continued. "My office was correct in requesting the legal opinion and abiding by it."

Court's Opinion
The court's opinion, quoting in part, says, "There is no law in this state clearly spelling out that one who commits, (or pleads to), a felony during the period of his candidacy is thus barred from the ballot. The law does provide that one who has committed a felony prior to his candidacy may not only be a candidate but be elected and retain office. (See Attorney General Opinion 2393, 1955)."

"The rationale for this apparently is that the electorate knows or has an opportunity to find out about the candidate's background and if they choose to elect such a man that is their privilege. But when a man commits a felony while he is in office, the people have had no opportunity to reject such a candidate with full knowledge of his background. In that event the law provides a remedy; removal by the Governor . . ."

"The question here is does the petitioner have a clear legal right to compel the defendants to remove the Councilman's name from the ballot. The answer under the present statutes is 'no'."

"If the law is deficient in this respect, it is for the legislature to remedy the situation. If the Councilman had been removed in accordance with the legal procedure provided by statute, the writ then could issue, for then, clearly, the Councilman would be ineligible to run for election and his name could not be on the ballot. At the moment, since there has been no removal, the court is without authority to grant the relief requested."

Discusses Statute
"M.S.A. Section 6.1938 sets forth that if any candidate for public office at any election . . . shall be convicted of a felony . . . the election of such candidate shall be void," but this statute does not bar the candidate from running. Implicitly it says he may run.

"In fact the statute was undoubtedly created by the legislature to deal with the very problem this court faces today, i.e., what happens when a person becomes a candidate for public office and while still a candidate but prior to election commits a felony?"

"The balance of the statute answers this question when it states that if he is elected 'the election of such candidate . . . shall be void; and if he shall enter into the office for which he was elected, any information in the nature of a quo warranto to oust him from such office may be filed in the Supreme Court or the proper Circuit Court'."

"It would appear then that while the law may be deficient in preventing the candidate from remaining on the ballot and continuing to be a candidate, it makes it very clear that, if elected, the candidate cannot hope to serve in that office."

"One may wonder, under these circumstances, why the candidate wants to run, or why a voter would cast a ballot for a candidate who, in all likelihood, will be unable to serve. But such is the state of the law. In the last analysis, the electorate may render the question moot—at least as to the next term."

Focuses on Rationale
"Much time was spent by both counsel on their briefs discussing the question of a distinction between a conviction of a felony in the Federal court and a conviction of a felony in a State court. This question need not be answered in arriving at this decision but it is clear in the mind of this court that there is no distinction."

"A careful reading of M.S.A. Section 6.1327, M.S.A. Section 6.693, and M.S.A. Section 6.1938, together with Attorney General vs. Montgomery 275 Mich 504, would indicate that one who is convicted of a felony in the Federal District Court for the Southeastern District of Michigan is no less subject to removal, ouster, etc. than one who is convicted of a felony in a State court."

"To reason otherwise would be to imply that an office holder or candidate could be convicted of, for example, Armed Robbery of a national bank and be allowed to hold public office while one who is convicted of Armed Robbery of a supermarket could not continue in office. This rationale is absurd . . ."

Cites Statute
In his letter to Mr. Petersen, Mr. Catlin said, regarding M.S.A. 6.1938, that it "defines certain acts pertaining to election frauds and tampering as felonies and provides for removal of any candidate who was involved therein."

"This statute provides, in effect, that election-related felonies, committed prior to the candidate assuming office, can be grounds for removal. The definitions contained therein do not mention Federal offenses," noted Mr. Catlin.

Mr. Boerner was reportedly charged with conspiring to rig awards of HUD home repair contracts to favored contractors and in return taking kickbacks from the contractors who delivered the bribes to the offices of his real estate firm.

He pled guilty to accepting kickbacks of five percent of the dollar amounts of six contracts awarded through rigged bids to three contractors in 1971. Mr. Boerner was employed by HUD as an area management broker in the 1962-73 period to supervise repairs of homes repossessed by the agency after foreclosure on mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

It's a busy month for members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra whose meeting yesterday at the Little Club was a triple-feature affair.

The Juniors applauded kickoff information on their Christmas Walks, to be presented in Birmingham-Bloomfield December 6 and right here in The Pointe December 13.

They enjoyed informal modelling of clothes from Gerri's Boutique during luncheon.

They settled back for some delightful harmonizing by the Grunions, including an especially loud and rousing—or was it carousing?—rendition of Blue Moon, featuring tenor John Prost "incognito" courtesy of huge sunglasses and a Shirley Temple wig.

We hate to say this John, but a second Jim Bailey you'll never be.

Many of the ladies at yesterday's luncheon were among a group of nearly 150 Juniors and their husbands who gathered at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club last Friday to view the latest in HEAD ski fashions for men and women, presented by the J. L. Hudson Company, plus a delightful array of tennis fashions, plus a sneak preview of HEAD's 1974 sportswear collection, with forkfuls of fondue and glasses of wine punch for accompaniment. Chairman of the evening was Mrs. Eric Wiltshire, who doubles as a local ski instructor and first vice-president of the Junior Women's Association.

The Juniors will be getting together again next Tuesday at each other's houses for a city-wide Bridge Marathon benefitting the Symphony.

There'll be dessert, and coffee, and prizes. Co-chairmen of the project are Mrs. Joseph Greiner, of Middlesex boulevard, and Mrs. Paul Lay, of Southfield.

Then on Wednesday, November 14, the day after the Marathon, a group of Juniors will take up their stations at Ford Auditorium, acting as hostesses for the first 1973-74 Symphony Lecture-Open Rehearsal program.

For a rundown on the Who, What, Where, When, and Why of the Lecture-Open Rehearsals, check out this week's "Pointer of Interest," Mrs. Henry Domzalski, chairman of the 1973-74 series.

That's just about all the Juniors are doing. This month.

Pointer To Guide Opera Season '74

Noel Gamble Will Serve as General Co-Chairman of Metropolitan's Performances in Detroit Next Spring

At the Women's Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association's annual fall orientation meeting Wednesday, October 24, at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, Mrs. Elliott M. Estes, general chairman of the 1974 Metropolitan Opera Season in Detroit, announced that Mrs. David L. Gamble, of Ridge road, will serve as general co-chairman of the 1974 season.

Noel Gamble has a history of involvement with the community and the arts. A life-long Detroit area resident she is a graduate of Kingswood School, Cranbrook.

She studied Drama and Music at Pine Manor Junior College, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Her father Philip C. Baker serves as a member of the board of directors of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, as did the late Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Gamble is a past-president of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Theatre Arts Club of Detroit, Libri and the Village Garden Club.

She has served on the boards of directors of the Symphony Women's Association, IbeX, Fine Arts Society and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra itself.

Noel has worked actively with the American Red Cross, the Family Life Education Center of Grosse Pointe, Saint John Hospital and the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Mrs. Gamble, unable to be present at the luncheon meeting, sent a statement sincerely pledging herself to the ultimate good fortune of the 1974 Detroit Season "not only as a separate cultural entity but as a continuation of the renaissance of our city and its progress, development and growth toward its rightful place in the world's community of fine arts."

Mrs. Estes expressed her pleasure at having "such a talented and dedicated" person as general co-chairman and introduced Wilber H. Mack, of Country Club drive, president of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, who spoke on the future of the Metropolitan Opera Company's visits to Detroit.

"We are particularly gratified to have the Metropolitan coming to Detroit in 1974," he said, "especially in view of the financial problems that have beset every form of cultural endeavor. We are diligently working toward guaranteeing the Met's return in future years."

"To provide that guarantee, however, we must find some answers to the financial problems that continue to trouble us both here and in New York."

Mr. Mack appealed for increased support from corporations and individuals, necessary to offset the increased expense of bringing the Metropolitan to the community.

Frank W. Donovan, of East Jefferson avenue, chairman of the board of directors of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, outlined performances to be presented in the 1974 Season.

The Metropolitan will offer seven performances at Detroit's Masonic Temple Auditorium April 29 through May 4. "We are indeed fortunate to have such stars as Marilyn Horne, Joan Sutherland, Sherrill Milnes, John Marurdy and many others performing in Detroit this season," Mr. Donovan stated. The Monday evening benefit performance will be Rosini's "L'Italiana in Algeria."

Performances for the remainder of the week include Mozart's "Don Giovanni," Verdi's "I Vespri Siciliani," Puccini's "Turandot," Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier," Puccini's "Madama Butterfly" and Offenbach's "Les Contes d'Hoffmann."

Mrs. Estes introduced chairman of the many activities and projects sponsored by the Women's Committee throughout the Season, including Pointers Mrs. Neil Snow, in charge of advertising, and Mrs. Mary Teachout, advertising co-chairman.

Chairman and co-chairman of the annual "Supper with the Stars" are, respectively, Mrs. William H. Christensen and Mrs. Gary L. Cowan, both of Grosse Pointe. Many area and community chairmen throughout the metropolitan area attended, as well as women from several other cities including Lansing, Bay City, Midland and Saginaw.

Fortunately some families don't have to pay taxes on the income they're living up to.

from the community for almost 20 years.

And ever since the Foundation began it has relied heavily on volunteer help for the success of its program.

Volunteers donate their time in varying amounts at the Foundation's weekday sessions at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Some help a day or two a week. Others give a few hours one or more days per week.

All help is appreciated, and there are never enough volunteers.

So . . . if your children are in school, if you think there's something lacking in your leisure time . . . why not consider the Foundation? You don't have to be a former teacher or an experienced parent.

A desire to help those who need your help is the only requirement.

Prospective volunteers may contact Ruth Hall Govostes or Dorothy Martens either in person or by phone, 885-8660, between 9 and 2 o'clock.

Pick up that phone. You'll be doing yourself and the Foundation a favor.

Reveal Secrets Of Patchwork

The old yet new "in" art of patchwork quilting will be subject of an illustrated lecture Monday, November 12, at 1 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Georgine B. Carlson will cover the history and background of quilting, give tips on making and caring for quilts and show slides of some of the finer examples of this delicate craft.

Mrs. Carlson studied crewel embroidery with Erica Wilson in New York and has taken courses in canvaswork under Joan Pryor and Bucky King. Her work has won awards on national and local levels.

An accredited teacher with the Embroiderer's Guild and the National Standards Council of American Embroiderers, she has lectured throughout the country and been chosen one of the teachers for the National Seminar of the Embroiderer's Guild of America.

Fee for her lecture is $2 per person.

The following Monday, November 19, Mrs. Carlson returns to the Center to conduct an all-day workshop, strictly limited to 20 participants so she can give individual attention to each student.

Those enrolled will be provided with a basic pattern and batting kit. They will learn how to cut a basic pattern, to trace and to applique.

The workshop begins at 9 and will continue through 3:30 o'clock, when students will have learned enough about the craft to finish their quilts at home.

They are asked to bring a sack lunch, (complimentary coffee will be provided by the Center), and four 14-inch wooden stretcher frames which can be obtained at art supply stores, thumbtacks, a pencil and 12-inch ruler, a thimble, (a must for quilting), two pairs of scissors, (one for cutting paper), #60 white cotton thread and a few pins.

Charge for the workshop is $10 per person, plus 75 cents for the kit. The lecture and workshop combined are $11.

The collection of works in all media features local artists as well as a selection of oils, graphics, etchings, sculpture and watercolors by famous-name artists. Each picture is framed.

Bidding may start as low as $1 and will be stopped when it reaches retail value.

Mrs. Edward Graham is chairman of the event. Pointers Mrs. Thomas D. Rinehart and Mrs. Philip F. Greco are among Macomb Lawyers Wives members who have previewed the 1973 auction collection.

Admission is $2. The public is invited. Tickets or reservations may be obtained in advance by calling Mrs. Graham at 939-8568. Tickets also will be available at the door.

Explain Circuit Court Services November 14

A workshop—Adult-Continued Services—Adjunctive Services of the Circuit Court will be presented by the Michigan Inter-Professional Association on Marriage, Divorce and the Family, Inc., Wednesday, November 14, from 4 to 6 o'clock at the Wayne County Medical Society.

The three basic social service arms of the Wayne County Circuit Court, Friends of the Court, Probation and Marriage Counseling Services, have attracted national and international attention and have been closely studied by such countries as Japan, Great Britain and Australia. A delegation from the Canadian National Department of Health, Education and Welfare recently conducted an in-depth study of these services as a potential model for Canadian Courts.

Four officials of the Wayne County Circuit Court, L. M. Jacobs, Court administrator, John Paul, director of Probation Services, Fred Haller, Friend of the Court, and Edward Staniec, director of Marriage Counseling Services, will describe their work in detail.

Two practicing Wayne County attorneys, Ivan E. Barris and Arthur J. Heidt, will respond to the presentation in terms of the effectiveness and the weakness in the Court social service structure.

There will be an opportunity for audience questioning and small group discussion.

Registration may be made and further information obtained by telephoning the Association Office, 963-8840, between 9 and 3:30 o'clock.

Hilberry Preview Launches Season

The President's Preview of Ferenc Molnar's "The Play's The Thing" at the Hilberry Theatre Friday, November 2, brought together a record crowd of Sponsors to celebrate the start of the Theater's second decade.

The Hilberry was established in 1963 to provide a training and performance center for outstanding advanced theatre students at Wayne State University.

Hosts for the occasion were WSU President and Mrs. George E. Gullen, Jr., and members of the Understudies, the women's committee which raises funds for the Theatre through donations by Sponsors.

This year the Understudies, under chairmanship of Mrs. Stanley Winkelman, have raised $32,500, well over their $25,000 goal. All funds are contributed to the Fellowship Fund for the Hilberry Graduate Repertory Company.

Two hundred and forty-four Preview guests gathered for cocktails and dinner at the Standard Club before the performance.

Arrangements were made by committee members Mrs. John D'Ascenzo, Mrs. Joseph A. Vance Jr., Mrs. Lynn Townsend, Mrs. Emmet Tracy, Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker, Jr., Mrs. Edward St. C. Thomas, Mrs. David M. Tabashnik, Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Gullen and Mrs. Winkelman.

Following the performance guests joined the cast at a champagne reception in the foyer which was decorated with stage vignettes, costumes, properties and photos highlighting the current season, which runs through May.

Among Understudies and their husbands seen at dinner or in the audience were Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow, Dr. and Mrs. L. Murray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag and Mr. and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

Discuss Plans For Le Bal Musette

Among Sponsors spotted were Mr. and Mrs. Walker L. Cisler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Wilkinson.

Special guests of the President included, among others, The Reverend and Mrs. Erwin A. Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Danaher, Jr., John R. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Midnener.

Funds raised by the Understudies help support Hilberry Theatre's repertory company of 43 graduate students who have come from 20 states, the District of Columbia and one foreign country to pursue studies toward Masters or Doctors degrees and to participate in the Theatre's intensive training and performance program.

The company this year is performing seven productions in weekly repertory over eight months.

"The Play's The Thing" officially opens to the public tonight Thursday, November 8, at 8:30 o'clock.

Other productions in the 1973-74 repertory include Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and "Julius Caesar," Peter Barnes, "The Ruling Class,"

Moliere's "Tartuffe" and revivals of "Cat Among the Pigeons" and "The Crucible."

Further information is available from the Theatre Box Office, 577-2972.

New Staging for 'Streetcar'

Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize-winning "Streetcar Named Desire" opens at Meadow Brook Theatre tonight, Thursday, November 8, at 8:30 o'clock, in a tribute to the 25th anniversary of this American masterpiece. It will run through December 2.

The production is directed by Dr. Charles Nolte whose earlier stagings of "Inherit the Wind" and "The Andersonville Trial" at Meadow Brook broke box office records.

"In addition to the surging vitality and excitement of the plot," says Dr. Nolte, "one reason for 'Streetcar's' enormous popularity is that it contains four splendid acting roles.

"One of them, Blanche, is perhaps the finest part created by an American writer in this century."

The role of Blanche DuBois will be played by Debra Mooney who has created it in productions at the Mani-
