Discusses Plan on Cooperation of Pointes

if just one community did this."

At the same time he felt, "These services are provided on an area-wide basis and do not deprive the communities of their independence and identity."

On this basis, Mr. Petersen said, "we can possibly expand programs and services within the community to realize additional savings for taxpayers."

Centralized Units
As part of his "Condominium Governmental Plan," he listed various functions, each of which would have one Pointe as a managing municipality:

- Centralized police - fire dispatching center.
- Centralized detective bureau, and centralized police records.
- Centralized building, plumbing and electrical inspection bureau.
- Combining all Pointe police and fire departments into one department.

Mr. Petersen said if all these functions could be put into effect, an annual, estimated savings of $1,000,000 could result.

He also noted these functions would be a step in the direction towards the possible consolidation of the five Pointes into one without actually consolidating the municipalities.

Not Ready Yet
On the subject of consolidation, Mr. Petersen stated, "The Pointes are not ready for such consolidation yet. Each takes great pride in its government." But while noting, at this time, that the communities may not be receptive to consolidation, financial conditions may bring this about.

"This is why I spoke on furthering inter-city cooperative efforts towards service and the saving of dollars."

In relation to "financial conditions," Mr. Petersen said at the outlet of his address, "The most challenging and pressing problem faced by six local government is providing adequate financial resources for its operation," and in "providing additional financing for any new municipal services."

He stressed inflationary increases in his city's budget, and in the budgets of other cities. "This indicates to me that a great and comprehensive review of local governmental operations is needed." For example, he felt cities can't rely upon increasing evaluations of property regarding their assessment program.

Great Potential
Of the functions listed in his "Condominium Governmental Plan," Mr. Petersen said the dispatching center "has the greatest potential to be implemented within the next year if all communities could get together on this."

He added that civilian personnel could be utilized as clerk dispatchers. He said each community, (the five Pointes and Harper Woods), currently provides, at six different locations, a radio dispatcher to service each particular municipality. Mr. Petersen estimated around 23.6 individuals are now needed to man dispatching centers around the clock.

With the centralized center, the total number of personnel needed could be reduced to about seven individuals, which would result in an estimated $300,000 savings to Pointe communities, he felt.

"All calls would come through one centralized agency. It wouldn't be necessary for other Pointe communities to have their police headquarters open at night. I envision that other stations would have telephones and a televised mechanism where a walk-in would be covered by the central dispatching center."

This would be done via a closed circuit television screen where walk-in and dispatcher would be able to converse over the phone and see one another on the screen.

The central dispatching center, in Mr. Petersen's opinion, "would provide one unified telephone number for emergencies throughout the Grosse Pointe area," (similar to Detroit's "911" number).

Discusses Obstacles
Mr. Petersen has been thinking about the "Condominium Governmental Plan" for about three years and has a tentative organizational approach for the entire concept. While he obviously feels the plan has great potential, he also realizes possible obstacles towards it.

The major obstacle, he feels, revolves around employ pension and retirement plans. "Each city has its own pension and retirement system plans which would prohibit the transfer of existing personnel into one of these units which would be under the jurisdiction of the managing municipality."

He stated a referendum vote, to put employees of all five cities under a unified pension plan thus amending each city charter, could take place.

A second obstacle centers upon involved personnel who, as their new functions were incorporated under this proposal, could be reassigned. Mr. Petersen said another obstacle focused upon each city's independence and resulting political aspects. He felt the politicians wouldn't want their influence and duties diminished. (Under the "Condominium Governmental Plan," each city would retain its mayor and councilman.)

At the meeting, the Rotarians were interested in what the city administrator had to say, and in the few minutes remaining after his address was concluded, members had time for some questions which were quickly answered.

SEMTA to Buy Five Buses

At the meeting, it was noted that General Motors, the primary bus manufacturer in the United States, builds about 5,000 new buses each year and has no plans at present to increase production.

"SEMTA hopes to obtain 350 new buses in the fall of 1974 for the six county area that it serves. The buses will be allocated based on need. Mr. Lipscomb stated that about half of Lake Shore's buses will be replaced by new buses in the fall of 1974," said Mr. Reuther.

Bus Shelters
On another subject, "Mr. Morrill announced SEMTA would be willing to construct bus shelters in the Grosse Pointe-St. Clair Shores area provided they were requested by the communities where they were to be located. Each city would be required to clean and maintain its own shelters," stated Mr. Reuther. SEMTA also promised to return the original $78,000 invested in the bus line by the participating communities over two years ago, he continued.

"The refund item would be part of its 1975 fiscal budget that would become effective on July 1, 1974. The payment would probably be made to each of the communities in August 1974."

Adjourn Exam Of 2 Suspects

The examination for a 19-year-old Detroit man and a 28-year-old Detroit woman, both of whom are charged with two counts of larceny, has been adjourned from Wednesday, December 5, to Wednesday, December 19, reported Woods Police.

Walter Durand Trombly and Sadie Mae Harris are each charged with larceny over $100 on the first count, and larceny in a building on the second count.

Both allegedly took numerous wrist watches from Bob's Drug Company, 21034 Mack avenue, on Monday evening, November 28. The suspects were arrested the same day by police, who then confiscated watches and plastic watch containers.

Promoted

Two Pointe residents were named to executive positions by Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Associates Incorporated, Detroit architects, engineers and planners.

John V. Sheoris, FAIA, of Grayton road, was promoted by the SH&G Board of Directors to be a vice-president of the firm. He is presently Director of the Health Facilities Division, and a leading architectural designer in the hospital field. Sheoris is also a member of the Grosse Pointe Park Planning Commission.

Charles J. Parise, AIA, of Hollywood avenue, was made an Associate of SH&G. A senior technical advisor for the firm, he has been with SH&G since 1964.

Students Join Energy Battle

As an attempt to encourage conservation of energy, students at South High School went through the Park, City and Farms Sunday, December 9, requesting that people turn off ornamental gas lamps.

The 32 students bicycled and walked in pairs. Each twosome had instructions on how to turn off the lamps, plus ditto sheets giving the necessary information to leave in case no one was home.

The results were impressive, as over 50 percent of the lamps were either shut off or were promised to be dealt with soon.

The group called itself Grosse Pointe Youth for Conserving Energy, and its organizer, South senior Kevin McDonald, said he was pleased with the results. "Although some people didn't want to turn off their gas lights," he commented, "they were, nonetheless, confronted with the need to conserve energy."

Most Grosse Pointers were cooperative with the students. In the bargain, kids and adults learned something about communication with one another about a common problem.

As one student put it, "It was fun to talk with adults about the crisis and about the many other ways people are conserving energy."

Kerby Scouts Give to Others

Cub Scouts and Webelos of Pack 481, (Kerby School), held their annual Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 11.

This year, the scouts stressed the idea of giving to others. The scouts purchased gifts with money they earned themselves.

These gifts will be donated to the Department of Social Services Foster Care Program. In this way, the boys hope to help foster parents so they will have gifts to give to their foster children.

Woods Delays Possible Suit

The Woods had planned to file suit against the Metropolitan Detroit Water Department and the Wayne County Road Commission in Wayne County Circuit Court Monday, December 10, over a collapsing meter pit near the entrance of the Mack-Seven shopping center.

However, City Attorney George Catlin told the NEWS Monday afternoon that Detroit Water Board personnel have a proposal for the city to study on this subject so no suit was filed at that time.

The problem revolves around who is to pay for pit repairs. Mr. Catlin said the city feels repairs should be paid for by the water department, while the department feels the city should pay. The Road Commission was included in the proposed suit because of the condition of the road. Mr. Catlin said it was their responsibility to keep the roadway up.

The eight-by-12-foot pit contains a meter that measures the flow of Detroit city water into The Woods. This pit, Mr. Catlin said, has been in this condition for one and a half to two years. He stated the estimated repair costs would be between $10,000 to $30,000.

A steel plate is currently over the section of collapsing roadway, he added.

Bingo Night Set For Dec. 17

The next Grosse Pointe Jaycees-sponsored Bingo evening at the War Memorial is Monday, December 17, beginning with "early bird" games at 7:30 p.m. and then regular games at 8 p.m., with a chance at a $400 jackpot.

After the 17th, other Monday Bingo nights are scheduled for January 7 and 28, February 4 and 25, March 4 and 25, April 1 and 22 and May 6 and 20. A $1 charge is required for two cards.

There are 364 days every year for making resolutions—no need to wait for New Year's.

Get your husband a Toro Snow Pup for Christmas. It's good for him.

Heart Nature gave everybody only one. It has its limits.

Spinal discs. When they slip—boing! That's trouble.

Back muscles. You've heard of "Oh, my aching back"? You know the problem.

Shovel not. Just put this 22-lb. Snow Pup against a drift and lean on it. Away the snow flies.

Hangs up like a shovel. It can be stored hanging from a hook in a garage. Yet it can clean a 50-foot driveway of 4-inch snow in about 15 minutes.

20 lbs. is what a shovelful of snow can weigh. Try flinging 50 shovelfuls some morning.

Squeegee-like paddles. They look a little funny, but they throw snow up to 15 feet!

The Toro® Snow Pup® snow thrower comes in two sizes: a 14-inch model for a suggested $129.95 retail price, and a 21-inch model for a suggested $144.95 retail price. See the Snow Pup and other Toro snow throwers now in time for Christmas.

School Head Firing

 Anderson. He said that he had had five children in the school system and that he was very satisfied with Dr. Anderson's leadership.

Woman 'Astounded'
 Some residents were not as easily quieted. One woman said that she was "just astounded" that the Board would not give any reasons.

However, the Board stood firm in its policy of never discussing an employee's qualifications. Mr. Huetteman emphasized that they had discussed the dismissal at length with Dr. Anderson.

"Everyone had to commit his comments to writing and I discussed these comments with Dr. Anderson last June. I stressed that he could say anything he wanted, but that the Board would not make any comments until it was necessary," Mr. Huetteman said.

One of the residents asked if Dr. Anderson wished to say anything at the meeting regarding the situation.

'No Reason to Resign'
 Dr. Anderson did have a few comments, after assuring the residents that the Board's actions were entirely legal. He said that he knew he could have resigned, but "I feel that I have no reason to resign."

 The superintendent also said that Mr. Huetteman had discussed the dismissal with him, supported by written comments, yet that he had not left a copy of the comments.

"I was also told that the decision of the Board members was irrevocable," Dr. Anderson concluded, even though the Board was to vote on the dismissal Monday night.

Mr. Huetteman rose to the defense of the Board. "I said that I did not think that the Board would change its decision."

'Voters Want to Know'
 Dr. Brennan had a final question to pose before the Board. "We, as voters, would like to know if it is a question of policy that Dr. Anderson's contract is not being renewed. We would like to know this when we vote for trustees at the next election."

Speaking for his Board, President Warner stressed that the trustees would discuss at length any other issue other than school issues, other than the dismissal of an employee.

'It's a question of business ethics,' Trustee Laurance J. Harwood added.

At the close of the discussion, the trustees voted unanimously not to renew the superintendent's contract. Mr. Warner then announced that a public search would begin to find a new superintendent.

All the trustees were in attendance at the Monday night meeting.

Anderson Praised
 In regard to the Friends of the Library resolution in favor of Dr. Anderson, which was not discussed at length at the Monday night meeting, the Friends executive board asked the School Board to reconsider its recent action.

The resolution, which was sent to M. Warner, said that Dr. Anderson had maintained a strong academic program for seven years in the midst of a difficult period of school financing, student and teacher attitudes. They found him "vigorous, industrious and well qualified" and questioned his dismissal three years before his regular retirement.

After asking the Board to reconsider, the Friends asked the Board to make proper open disclosure of its reasons for dismissing Dr. Anderson at the next Board meeting. The Friends also said that the superintendent was a strong advocate of the library system and had helped them in recent millage campaigns.

North High's Harriers, Gridders Cited by Woods

The athletic prowess of North High School's cross-country team and undefeated football squad were cited by The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, December 5.

For the solons unanimously concurred in a Committee of the Whole recommendation authorizing Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos to sign two proclamations commemorating both sports activities.

As part of his motion, Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen authorized City Administrator Chester E. Petersen to place signs at the north and south entrances to the city on Mack avenue saying, to the effect, that The Woods is the home of the Michigan State High School Class-A cross-country champions, (after permission is obtained from the Wayne County Road Commission).

North's harriers brought the school its first State championship in athletics Saturday, November 3, when the team finished first in the State cross country meet in Grand Blanc.

The proclamation citing the cross country team says the city "desires to express its appreciation to the members of the team, and to the staff, for the outstanding performance which enabled them to achieve this coveted honor," and that the city "feels that such efforts should be acknowledged by the citizens of the community as being beneficial for the development of future citizens of the community."

In commemorating the football squad, the proclamation notes that "the development of sportsmanship and teamwork through participation in competitive athletic events, such as the Grosse Pointe High School Varsity Football Team, is valuable training for boys and provides a wholesome outlet for youthful energy."

Park Honors 17 Employees

Seventeen municipal employees of the Park, including two administrators, were honored by the Park council on Monday, December 10, for their many years of service to the community.

A special award, The Vincent DePetris gold cup, was presented to Mayor Matthew Patterson by City Manager Robert Slone on behalf of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club. The mayor, who will keep the cup for one year, was awarded the trophy for growing a prize chrysanthemum for 1973.

Prior to the presentation of the cup, Mayor Patterson gave out pins and tie clasps to the employees, whose services to the city totalled 175 years.

Receiving awards for 15 years of service, were the highest ranking members of the Administrative Office, Slone and City Clerk/Comptroller Nunzio J. Ortisi.

Jeanne D. Mentor, assistant to Director of Public Service Herbert Heger, was given a gold pin for her 25 years with the department.

Presented gold tie clasps for 25 years of service, were: Department of Public Works Supervisor Thomas Stack; Charles Robert, DPW foreman; Andrew Chauvin, DPW mechanic II, and Firefighter John Streberger.

Honored for serving 20 years, were: Richard Robb, DPW foreman; Walter Kolar, DPW Maintenance III; and Firefighter William Hiner.

Given awards for 15 years with their respective departments, were: Fire Sgts. Anthony LaBonty and Lee Failures; Firefighter Michael Clancy, and Police Sgt. Bobby McAlister.

In other business before the council, the solons approved the reappointment of Philip C. Dickinson of Grayton road to his second three-year term as a member of the Merit Board; and Herbert Schumann of Balfour road to his third three-year tenure on the Board of Review.

Sentence Man for Shoplifting

A 26-year-old Detroit man, who pled guilty to attempted larceny in a building, in Wayne County Circuit Court Monday, November 5, was sentenced to two years' probation and $330 court costs on Wednesday, December 5, according to Woods police.

John Reynolds, dressed in woman's clothes, was arrested by Farms police for shoplifting at J. C. Penney's, 19251 Mack avenue, on Wednesday evening, August 8. After being taken to The Woods station, he told police his name was "Karen Hughes."

Police recovered several articles of clothing from Reynolds, including a dress inside his outfit, plus other items discarded prior to his arrest.

Reynolds was taken to Saint John Hospital after complaining of heart palpitations. He subsequently escaped and was rearrested by Woods officers shortly after midnight Thursday, August 9.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you by TED EWALD

Here's one of the most fascinating football stories of all-time. Perhaps you know it, perhaps you don't. Back in 1942, Boston College was the number one team in the country. They were undefeated going into the last game with Holy Cross. They were heavily favored, and made reservations to hold a victory celebration after the game at a place called the Coconut Grove. However, in one of the greatest upsets in football history, Holy Cross not only beat Boston, but they beat them by the unbelievable score of 55-12. The crushed Boston College officials naturally cancelled the "Victory" party.

Then, that night the Coconut Grove burned in one of the worst disasters in history with 492 people losing their lives. The Boston College football players all might have been killed except for the fact that they lost a football game that afternoon. Fate plays strange tricks, doesn't it?

As testimony continues, the examination for a 28-year-old New Baltimore woman, who's charged with embezzlement of over $100, will be resumed Wednesday, January 9, after it was adjourned from Wednesday, December 5, Woods police reported.

Sandra Randall is being charged on the basis of a $402 check which she allegedly converted to her own use, police said.

The suspect worked as a receptionist and bookkeeper at the Mack avenue offices of two doctors whose books were found to be $20,692.86 short by a professional auditing firm in July.

"BE IN HEALTH"
The word "wassail" derives from the Anglo-Saxon "waes hael" which meant "Be in health." Wassail was a mixture of mulled ale, eggs, curdled cream, roast apples, nuts and spices.

It's not too bad if your views are one-sided — providing you look on the bright side. Perhaps some day our statesman will discover that honesty is also the best politics.

Ye Olde Fire Truck

However, Chief Beaupre said, when the Farms fire-fighters arrived, they found that the "Woods" personnel and equipment had arrived at the scene, and the new truck, which has a 200-gallon tank filled with water, returned to the station.

Making the first run in the new aerial truck with the Farms firemen, was Gene Vernier of Clintonville, Wis., factory representative and instructor. The fire vehicle was manufactured in Clintonville.

Delivery Accepted

The fire chief said that he and City Manager Andrew Bremer went to Clintonville, on instructions of the city council, to accept delivery of the truck, which was not to have been completed and delivered before July 1974.

The chief said he drove the fire engine from Clintonville to Illinois and Vernier drove it from Illinois to the station house, just 10 minutes before the Collins house fire alarm was sounded. The factory salesman representative will remain in town long enough to instruct all personnel of the department's three shifts on how to operate the new equipment.

Chief Beaupre said that the new aerial ladder truck is about four and one-half feet shorter than the 1951 vehicle, has a rear-mounted 100-foot sectional folding ladder, and a pumping capacity of 1,250 gallons per minute. Like the old truck, which had only a 65-foot ladder, it has a 200-gallon reserve tank for water for immediate use at any fire.

New York Gets #1

It was disclosed at a recent city council meeting, that Seagrave had constructed the new truck ahead of schedule because New York City had ordered 61 similar vehicles, with the same specifications as that required by the Farms, except for the pumping capacity. Company officials ordered the Farms truck to be made at the same time.

If completed by next July, the Farms could have paid the full $85,000 cost of the truck, but the city council authorized only $30,000 a year, over a three year span, for a total of $90,000 to pay for it.

However, when notified by the manufacturers that the new truck was ready, the Farms had only $50,000 set aside toward its cost. According to the contract between the Farms and the Firm, delivery was not to have been made until next July, at which time the company would be paid in full.

Arrangement Reached

The council authorized the chief and the city manager to speak to the company officials regarding the terms of the contract and to make it known that the city did not have to accept the truck until due date. However, if Seagrave was willing, the farms would pay the $50,000 now, and the balance when it is funded in the 1974-75 fiscal budget. The firm agreed to accept the money on hand and to accept $3,600 trade-in value on the old truck.

"We now have two new fire trucks, a 1972 pumper with a 500-gallon reserve tank capacity, delivered last year, and now the new aerial truck," Chief Beaupre said.

"We have the only 100-foot aerial ladder truck in the Detroit area," he pointed out. "Even Detroit does not have one, and the closest city that does is Lansing. I am proud to say that we now have fire fighting equipment second to none in this area. Our firemen are highly trained in all phases of fire fighting and with this new equipment, we are able to give our citizens, and our Mutual Fire Aid Pact partners, the best type of service possible."

Chief Beaupre said that he wished to express thanks on his behalf and on behalf of the departmental personnel to the members of the Farms council and to City Manager Bremer for the fact that they recognized that a new ladder truck was needed, and for negotiating for its immediate delivery, although the full purchase price was not available.

"The old truck was on its last wheels" so to speak," the chief said, "and it could have broken down at any time."

South Offers Yule Concert

The Choral Music Department, under the direction of Leonard L. Riccino, will present the annual Christmas Concert in South's Gymnasium, Wednesday, December 19, at 8 p.m.

Featuring 200 vocalists, the program offers a variety of traditional and unusual music.

The mixed chorus will do two serious works, "Kyrie Eleison" by Schubert and "And The Glory of The Lord" by Handel, as well as lighter fare.

The Girls' Glee Club will offer some Alfred Burt Carols and a piece by Praetorius.

The Towerbelles and The Crazy Eight, a new, male octet, will also sing.

The A Cappella Choir will sing a Latin Motet, "O Magnum Mysterium," a contemporary piece by Ives, "The Sixty-Seventh Psalm," which is sung in two keys at the same time; and two carols arranged by students David Coolidge '74 and directed by him with an instrumental ensemble.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from any vocalist or at the door. Proceeds will go into the scholarship and travel fund for the choral department.

Records by the A Cappella Choir will be sold at the concert or may be purchased at Doubleday or Fisher's in the Village.

Police said entry was gained through a porch door, from which point the culprit smashed a pane of glass along the side door knob and then unlocked the inner door.

Thief Gets $47 in Woods B-E

Someone burglarized a Kenmore road residence Tuesday, December 4, and took $47 in cash, Woods police reported.

The citizen told Public Safety Officer Albert Abend she left home at approximately 11:50 a.m. and returned around 2:30 p.m. to discover the break-in.

Funds Sought By Symphony

Approximately $400,000 is needed from the community at large if the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is to meet its $1.6 million 1973 Quest for Excellence Campaign goal by December 31, Harold G. Warner, general chairman, recently reported.

The $1.2 million raised to date is most encouraging, Mr. Warner observed, but he cautioned against complacency by pointing out that the Campaign began with a great number of pledges and a few large gifts bolstered the $1.2 million total pledged to date.

To meet goal by December 31 the Orchestra is making a broad appeal through mass mailings and advertisements to the total Detroit metropolitan area.

These activities back up personal follow-up solicitations by the Campaign's corps of approximately 200 volunteer workers.

"If we add up all the money the Detroit Symphony earns from ticket sales, concert fees and grants we only have 40 percent of the money needed to keep the Orchestra in business," Mr. Warner noted.

"Last year we received 1,350 contributions—not many considering the size of Detroit. When you consider that the Detroit Symphony plays for over 500,000 music lovers in this area, surely a larger number of contributions could be expected."

Contributions may be sent to the Quest for Excellence Fund, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Ford Auditorium, Detroit, Michigan 48225.

All gifts are tax-deductible. Checks should be made payable to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The 1973 Campaign is the second-year phase of a $4.5 million fund drive launched in 1972 to help assure continuance of the Orchestra as a major community cultural asset.

Approximately $1.3 million was raised in 1972.

Neighborhood Club Kept Busy

The Women's Bowling League is finishing up at East Warren Lanes, reports the Neighborhood Club.

Trophies were presented to Janet Ford, (most improved player), and Dorothy Woodard, (high game of 179). The champs were Janet Ford, Dorothy Woodard and Sheila Okonoski. The league will continue in January with a babysitting service at the Club.

The Club's ski trips for sixth thru ninth grades will be held at Mt. Brighton this winter. Trips are planned for January 19 and 26, and February 9 and 16.

The package deal fee for four trips is $40, ($55 with rental). The individual trip fee is $12, ($16 with rental). Skiers leave the Club at 7:30 a.m. and return at 4 p.m. This gives the child approximately five hours of ski time.

Package deals are only accepted until January 5; limited individual trips will be taken after that date. Registrations must be paid at the Neighborhood Club. No mailed registrations are accepted.

For further information, call the Club at 885-4600.

The Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of the Council of Adult Stutterers will meet Monday, December 17, at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in classrooms A and B on the 10th floor.

This local chapter is managed by adult stutterers. Pointers interested in membership information should call Ann Heath Walmsley, Speech and Language Pathology Department at the hospital, at 549-7000, ext. 216 or 384.

Membership is open to any adolescent or adult interested or associated with the communication problems of stuttering.

Suspect

Woods police are seeking an armed robbery suspect, fitting the composite picture above, who held up a 31-year-old Hollywood avenue woman and took her purse containing $171 in cash, plus other sundries, early Tuesday evening, December 4.

The picture is based on a description of the subject given to police.

After leaving her house, the woman walked to the family car with a baby in one arm and the purse and diaper bag on her other arm. As she came to the rear of the auto, parked in the driveway, she saw a youth about three houses west of hers. Then, after placing the baby, purse and bag inside the car, she turned to discover the culprit standing behind her, with a black gun in his hand. The youth, who talked in a shaky voice, demanded the purse which the resident gave to him. He then ran towards the front of the house and headed west on Hollywood.

The woman grabbed her baby, returned to the home and told her husband what happened. He immediately jumped in the car to chase the thief but never saw him. Police searched the yards between Hollywood and Roslyn, and between Helen and Mack, but the large, black purse, with a shoulder strap, was nowhere to be found.

The youth was described as between 14 and 15 years of age, 5'7", 125 lbs., tall, of slight build and with medium dark, messy looking hair which covered his ears. He was reportedly wearing a leather jacket and jeans.

If anyone has seen this individual, based on the composite picture, call the Detective Bureau at 886-2700.

Shores Officers Slate Meeting

At the last meeting of the Shores trustees, three members of the Public Safety Department were commended for their outstanding service. Receiving letters of commendation were Officers Robert Bensinger, Bruce Darlington and Harry Hamilton.

Officer Bensinger was recommended for commendation by Chief Joseph Vitale for his action April 28, 1973. At about 3:45 a.m. the officer noticed a white light illuminating from the rear of a 1965 green Chevrolet. In the rear seat of the car, Officer Bensinger noticed what appeared to be items from a burglary. Investigation revealed that they had just burglarized the home of William Mitchell, 757 Sheldon road.

Bruce Darlington was cited for risking his life when he

Pointer Places In Big Meet

Twelve-year-old Lauri DeSantis was the only Pointer girl who placed in the Eighth Annual Cincinnati Pepsi Marlin Swim Club National Invitational Meet held Friday-Sunday, December 7-9, in Cincinnati, O.

Around 865 natators from across the country participated.

Lauri finished third in the 100-yard breaststroke event for girls 11 and 12. Her time was 1:14.7.

jumped into Lake St. Clair October 38, 1973, trying to save a person. A vehicle had plunged into the lake at 3:15 p.m. He was cited for the rescue attempt in spite of the low water temperature, cold winds, rain and high waves.

Officer Hamilton was cited for disarming a man who had recently shot another motorist. The incident happened at 3:30 a.m. March 21, 1972. The officer noticed two vehicles speeding south on Lake Shore road. At Vernier road, both cars stopped for a red light. Suddenly, one driver fired a shot at the other driver, slightly wounding him. Officer Hamilton took the 38-caliber revolver from the gunman.

"We are very proud of the work of these three officers," Chief Vitale commented. "Two of the events happened this year while the third, Officer Hamilton's, happened over a year and a half ago. We wanted to wait until the trial was over so as not to influence the judgment."

Fund to build and equip the Medical Library in the greater hospital, according to Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., chairman of the Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bishop have asked that the library, which will be located on the first floor of the new construction now in progress along Notre Dame stand in memory of his daughter, Emmy Bishop Murray.

The Medical Library will serve as the central repository for textbooks, journals, tapes, slides, films and publications covering the wide range of medical science and related fields.

These and the many other expanded services of the library will be utilized not only by staff physicians and those in the internship and residency program, but also by the ongoing inservice education programs for nurses, technicians and other hospital employees.

In accepting the gift, Mrs. Gehrke commented, "This fine example of generous understanding of the urgent need for new hospital facilities to serve the families of this area is warmly appreciated."

"Coming as it does at the very outset of our building fund campaign, it not only represents substantial progress toward our objective but will also certainly serve to inspire our committee members and those upon whom they will be calling."

The chairman added the committee expects to be able to make further announcements of participation in the fund shortly.

Commodore

Members of the Detroit Yacht Club have recently named WAYNE J. DUPUIS, of Briarcliff drive, as Commodore for 1974. James Alexander will serve as Vice Commodore and Robert Cousino as Rear Commodore.

Other officers include: Secretary, George Pearson; Treasurer, Robert Van Cleave; Fleet Captain, John Uznis; Fleet Measurer, Wayland Weaver, and Fleet Surgeon, Dr. Stuart Wheeler.

Newly elected directors are Donald Baker, Dennis DeSantis, Henry H. Dewey, Edwin Joswick, James Miller, Harry Pratt and Vladimir Sedlar.

Single Parents Book Speaker

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners will hold their general meeting on Friday, December 14, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. There will be a coffee hour starting at 7:30 p.m. followed by a short business meeting and guest speaker at 8:45 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Allan Chisholm, a member of the Grosse Pointe Chapter, who will speak on The Rights of Women and Children in Workmen's Compensation Cases. Mr. Chisholm is a trial referee at the Workmen's Compensation Commission and has custody of his seven children.

Any person who is a parent and single due to death, divorce, separation, or unmarried status is eligible for membership. Eligible guests are cordially invited.

ACED OUT

When fame and fortune are traveling companions, fame often has to take the back seat.

Dismisses Lawsuit

Part of the Court's indecision resulted from a changing of the guard when Justices Charles L. Levin and Mary S. Coleman assumed the bench. At the time of their election, Justices Eugene F. Black and Paul Adams retired. The two new justices would not side with the three remaining judges who had ruled the present system unconstitutional. Justice Levin even wrote a 21-page dissent and argued that educational opportunity could not be measured simply by the financial resources available to the schools.

Ever since the lawsuit was filed against the three school districts, Grosse Pointe, Bloomfield Hills and Dearborn, there has been question whether the school financing problem should be handled in the courts or in the Michigan Legislature. The Court's action throws the ball back to the Legislature.

The Legislature approved a new system of school aid this year designed to lessen some of the financial inequities Governor Milliken and Attorney General Kelley criticized in their lawsuit. More legislation is expected in the coming year to help standardize the funds spent per pupil in each school district.

Mr. West said that the decision was good news for the school system.

"What this means for Grosse Pointe residents is that we don't have to worry about a state-wide system of school financing," Mr. West said. "It would, of course, remove local control over school financing and local control of the schools. Secondly, it looks like the Supreme Court is not going to enforce 'equal dollar per scholar' which would limit the amount each school system could spend per pupil."

"There was a recent case before the United States Supreme Court, Rodriguez v.

Texas, where the Court upheld the property tax system of financing as constitutional."

The case, originated over a year ago, cost the three school systems an estimated $400,000. However, the State voted to pay the costs since the Governor and Attorney General originated the lawsuit.

Council Hosts Skating Party

The Youth Council of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is sponsoring a roller skating party on Thursday evening, December 13, from 8 to 10 p.m.

Any Pointers from seventh grade on up to interested adults are invited to join the Council when they take over the new Skateland Roller rink located at 15 Mile and Harper roads.

Tickets are priced at $1.50 and may be purchased at the War Memorial.

If enough people are interested and sign up in advance, a charter bus will run from the Center to Skateland, leaving at 7:30 and returning at 10 p.m. Cost for that service will be $1.25, skate rental included.

Woods Studies Sign Ordinance

The Woods Council unanimously referred an amendment to Ordinance 108, (which permits and regulates the placing of signs upon public streets, and requires written permission of the adjacent property owner or tenant for sign placement), to the Committee of the Whole for further study.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, December 3, when the C-W originally recommended adoption of the amendment to the council.

Consideration of this item stems from the September 20 council meeting when Mary E. Currie and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Ban, both of Vernier road, expressed concern over the "plague or overuse of real estate advertising signs at certain home sites, particularly corner sites," such as Vernier and Marter road.

Mrs. Currie told the council at the December 3 session that signs should be placed near places that are open rather than on someone else's property. She said certain places are "picked on" regarding the placement of signs. This, Mrs. Currie said, was a "big nuisance."

"I'm not trying to deprive real estate men of display signs but they should place them near the property that is for sale," she stated.

The proposed amendment says signs not exceeding 24- by 30-inches may be placed between the sidewalk and curb upon the streets, highways and public places of the city advertising homes for sale, provided that the signs are "so placed so as not to create a traffic hazard, or a nuisance or inconvenience to the neighborhood."

It also notes the signs shall not exceed two in number and that they shall be placed only during the period the premises advertised are open for inspection. However, no signs may be placed prior to 10 a.m., and they must be removed by 9 p.m.

Finally, no sign shall be placed without the expressed written approval for such placement from the owner or tenant in charge of the private property immediately adjacent to the area wherein the sign is to be located.

Youth Groups Slate Meeting

The Youth Council of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial has invited representatives from all the various youth groups in the Pointe to a discussion session on Monday, December 17, at 7:30 p.m.

The purpose of the gathering is to enable the groups to become familiar with one another and share ideas. It is hoped a student paper will be formed in order to spread the word of what's going on for young people.

Included among the groups invited are: the Student Associations of North and South High, student government officers from Austin, Our Lady Star of the Sea, and University-Liggett, the Alliance of Christian Athletes from North High, Woods Presbyterian Teens, Tuxis, Miller Hall representing the young people from Christ Church, the teen clubs from St. Paul and St. Ambrose, the ski clubs from North and South High and the Future Teachers and Key Clubs from South High.

All other youth groups in the community are also invited to send their representatives.

Parcells Group Chicago-Bound

Saturday, December 15, will be a very special day for 43 vocal music students from Parcells. A trip to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago has been planned by Donald McNew of the music department.

At the museum, the students will see Christmas as it is observed in 28 countries around the world. The exhibit is in its 32nd consecutive year and includes performers from varied ethnic groups as they depict their Yuletide customs through music, pageantry, holiday meals and a forest of colorfully decorated Christmas trees.

The students, without asking either their parents or the Board of Education for funds, raised all of their travel expenses through approved fund-raising efforts. After they completed their fund-raising, they found that they had enough to cover a German holiday dinner in the museum's dining room.

Accompanying the class as chaperones besides Mr. McNew are Mrs. Raymond Kenneally, Mrs. Richard Kasly and Morris Hanzek.

Austin Pupils Good in Test

Michael R. Mullane of Audubon road and Charles Bayer of Grosse Pointe boulevard, both pupils at Austin Prep, finished in the top four percent of students who entered the first part of the Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition. They are among 1,000 students statewide who took the final examination on Wednesday, December 5.

The competition is sponsored by the Michigan section of the Mathematical Association of America and is designed to foster a wider interest in mathematics. Mr.

Lawrence Rancillo, chairman of Austin's math department serves as high school supervisor for the two students taking the exam.

Extra care in engineering...it makes a big difference in small cars.

Which small cars

- have more trunk space than 3 Pintos
- have 20" more total hiproom than Maverick
- can save you as much as $62 in ignition maintenance alone
- are priced lower than Volkswagen's most popular model
- and can go farther on a gallon of gas than Nova?

These small cars from Chrysler Corporation are the answer.

DODGE DART SPORT

PLYMOUTH DUSTER

Small cars are not created equal.

A lot of people seem to think that all small cars are sluggish, cramped and plain, and have tiny trunks. Naturally, they also think that you just have to put up with these inconveniences if you want to enjoy the handling and economy advantages of a small car.

But that's not the case at all. Forget the stereotype and take a look at these two Chrysler Corporation small cars—Plymouth Duster and Dodge Dart Sport. They not only give you what you want in a small car, but a lot of things you'd expect only in a big car.

For example, they're all surprisingly roomy. Dart Sport and Duster seat 5 comfortably. And they have more hiproom—front and rear—than Maverick, Nova, Hornet and, of course, Mustang II, Gremlin, Vega and Pinto.

Fuel economy. But not at the expense of performance.

Recently published test results by Popular Science show our "Slant Six" engine can go farther on a gallon of gas than Nova, and you get a "Slant Six" engine standard in all our small cars. That means you get power for passing and acceleration. What's more, this "Slant Six" engine gives you more miles per gallon than other comparable size small cars like Maverick, Comet, Ventura and Apollo.*

A trunk, not a cubbyhole.

Another thing that steers some people away from small cars is luggage space. What good is an economy car on a long trip if you can't take your luggage with you?

When you see the trunks on Plymouth Duster and Dodge Dart Sport, you won't believe they're small cars. We have the largest luggage capacity, by far, in the small-car field. More than Nova and Maverick, twice as much as Vega and more than three times as much as Pinto. And that's real, honest-to-goodness, locked-in-the-trunk space. Not on the roof, not behind the seat, but in the trunk. Out of sight and out of the way.

Economy, plain or fancy.

Many people also feel that economy cars are too plain. That you can't dress them up. Well, on our small cars, you can get many of the options available on our big ones.

You can tailor your car to your specific needs by adding as many of the options as you really want. Power steering. Disc brakes. Automatic transmission. Air conditioning. Custom seats and trim. Electrically heated rear window defroster. Even a sliding sun roof and folding rear seat are available.

Small cars. But big on engineering.

Something else you get with our small cars is the following list of engineering features—which are standard on every Chrysler Corporation car built in this country.

- Electronic ignition for up to 35% more starting voltage than conventional systems.

- Unibody construction and torsion-bar suspension.
 - Reduced maintenance. There are no ignition points or condenser to replace. Spark plugs last up to 18,000 miles under normal driving conditions.
- So, in terms of recommended ignition maintenance alone, you can save up to $62.00 every 24,000 miles over competitive 6-cylinder engines and up to $27.00 over competitive 4-cylinder engines.

Price: The economy feature you care about most.

By now, we think you'll agree that nobody packs more features and value into a small car than Chrysler Corporation. And, ordinarily, you'd expect to pay more to get more. Not necessarily so.

See your Dodge and Chrysler-Plymouth dealer. You'll be surprised how little it costs to own one of their small cars. The suggested retail price is less than Volkswagen's most popular model, believe it or not.*

Admits Kidnap-Beating Story Was Hoax

After reaching that city, the alleged victim said, the "kidnappers" turned around and drove back to the Provençal-Kercheval intersection, forced him out of the Olds and into his Thunderbird, and ordered him to drive back to Toledo, leaving the Olds at the scene.

Miller said that based on this information, the Detroit Federal Bureau of Investigation was immediately notified because of the claim of the kidnapping and that the victim was driven over state lines.

The Detroitier said he was held prisoner in Toledo from Tuesday, December 4 until he returned to Michigan on Saturday, December 8 and entered the Mt. Clemens Hospital for treatment of the so-called beating. The Farms detective said he was informed by doctors at the hospital that there was no evidence of any form of beating or mistreatment of the "victim."

Miller called Det. Van Lanot to find out the status of the young man and was told by the detective that the man was being held without bond.

The Farms officer returned to the Provençal-Kercheval area and questioned residents living in Provençal, who told him that the car was seen on the day of the alleged kidnapping, and then it was gone. It was returned later, prior to the time the detective questioned the residents.

Car Found Clean

The Detroitier claimed that the blacks had been smoking marijuana constantly during both trips to and from Toledo, Miller said, but a check of the car's interior disclosed no evidence of the weed in any form.

"In fact," the detective said, "the interior of the Thunderbird was as clean as a 'whistle' when we checked it out. There were no ashes, cigaret butts or anything else in the car. The ash trays in the auto were so clean they indicated they had never been used."

Miller said he even processed the Thunderbird for fingerprints and found only those of the alleged kidnap victim. In checking further, the policeman found that the vehicle, which cost $6,700, had been recently purchased with a phony check. The odometer showed that the auto had been driven only 1,300 miles. It was towed to the Farms station and impounded.

Quizzed Two Hours

Miller said that on hearing that the young man had been released pending further investigation and disposition of the three communities wanting him on the outstanding warrants, he went to the man's house on December 10 and questioned him continually from 12:10 p.m. to about 2:30 p.m.

The officer said that the man was incoherent in giving his answers, but finally broke down and confessed that the kidnapping and beating were lies.

"I spent two full days investigating this man's claim of being kidnapped and beaten," Miller said. "I had to check out the matter thoroughly, since it was said to have occurred in our city, and whether it was true or false, the investigation had to be done. That is my job. I am certainly glad it was not true. I am not pressing false report charges against the man, not only because of his mental condition, but because the information came from another law enforcement agency."

"A lot of time and effort was put into this investigation, but I am very glad that this reported crime did not really take place, especially in our city," Miller emphasized. "Clearing up the matter is what makes all this work worthwhile."

NO DETERRENT

The futility of giving out free advice to others doesn't seem to be much of a checkmate.

More folks eat themselves to death than die of starvation.

Christmas Programs Set in Every Pointe School

By Kathy Duff

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas in the Grosse Pointe School System. Virtually every school has planned Christmas activities ranging from Trombly's annual "stained glass" windows in the upstairs corridor to South High School's traditional Christmas Concert.

Starting with the elementary schools, where children can barely think of anything but Christmas during December, Monteith has scheduled its Christmas tree decorating for this Friday, December 14. The tree lighting ceremony will be held on Monday, December 17, for children in kindergarten, first and second grades. The school has also planned a Christmas tea, room parties and a special assembly.

The true spirit of Christmas will be realized by the children of Barnes school as they have decided to donate gifts to children in the Foster Care Unit of Wayne County Department of Social Services. Instead of exchanging gifts among their friends, the children will be compiling 500 gifts to go to the less fortunate children. The school has also scheduled a Christmas Sing on Friday, December 21 at 1 p.m. followed by class parties.

Ferry School is conducting its second Food Drive to benefit the Indian people in the Detroit area. Last year's drive was a tremendous success with over 3,000 cans collected. The children are also looking for used dining sets or individual tables and chairs. The school will also hold traditional Christmas observances.

A Christmas Family Open House has been scheduled by Mason School for Wednesday, December 19. Special highlights include a Christmas Songfest in the gym and an appearance by Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus giving out candy canes. Among other seasonal activities, Carolyn Harwood's second graders will sing Christmas carols at the Georgian East Convalescent Home.

Everyone associated with Kerby School is looking forward to "Christmas at Kerby" to be held on Tuesday, December 18. A program of Christmas music, co-ordinated with a visual presentation of student art work, will be presented. The school rooms will be open to enable parents and friends to see the many seasonal decorations made by the children.

Students at Defer School, as the students at Barnes, have voted not to exchange gifts among themselves but to give gifts to the less fortunate. Defer students are collecting clothes and personal items for the 130 patients at the Jefferson Manor Convalescent Home. All collected items will be taken to the Home on Tuesday, December 18.

Maire School's third and fourth graders are presenting a Christmas play Tuesday, December 18, that they wrote themselves. The annual Christmas sing will be on Friday, December 21, at 10:45 a.m.

Christmas activities have been planned in each of the Poplard classrooms. A first grade class is putting on the play "The Tree Angel." Some classes are also bringing gifts for residents in nursing homes, foster care units and the Caro State Home.

Richard kindergartners have already had a visit from Santa when he came for lunch Wednesday, December 5. The instrumental music students played Christmas music on Tuesday, December 11, and the entire school will join in Christmas sings on Thursday and Friday, December 20 and 21.

The Christmas season is heralded at Trombly again this year by two large "stained glass" windows, made by the students, in the upper corridor. Other activities planned are Christmas Sing, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 19 to 21, and a short play, "The Day Before Christmas" given by the sixth grade. The third grade class will be giving a Christmas party for the patients at St. Ambrose Center and some classes will be contributing gifts to foster care children.

As far as the middle schools, Parcels seems to have jumped right into the Christmas spirit. The school is busily organizing its annual "Toys for Tots" Fun Night on Friday, December 14. The usual ticket of admission is a toy plus a small entrance fee. The school's Christmas Concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 18.

Pierce Middle School has scheduled its Christmas Stroll and Music Concert for 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 20.

Following an Open House from 7:30 to 8 p.m., Brownell Middle School will hold its Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 13.

Back on the north end of town, North High School students are conducting a Christmas food collection to be distributed to needy families in

Math Students in Competition

Twenty-three Grosse Pointe South High School students finished in the top four percent on Part I of the Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition and are among 1000 Michigan students who competed in the final examination on Wednesday, December 5. Grosse Pointe South math students who qualified for the second test were: Joseph Briggs, Elizabeth Carey, Cathy Carion, Randy Christofferson and William Erwin.

Others include: Taryn Finerty, Sue Fordon, Jim Fox, Steve Gilbert, Martha Gray, Colleen Kelly, Judy Kienle, Stuart Kurtz, Brian Litch, John MacFarlain and Scott McCaig.

Still more are: Carol Marinch, Beth Miller, Cathy Nowosielski, Jim Peabody, Elizabeth Race, Blair Tily and Dominic Vermet.

The competition is sponsored by the Michigan Section of the Mathematical Association of America and is designed to foster a wider interest in mathematics, to focus attention on the necessity for mathematical training in most professions and trades, and to identify and provide scholarships for capable mathematics students in the State of Michigan.

The 100 winners of the competition will be honored at an Awards Program sponsored by Michigan Bell Telephone to be held at Western Michigan University on Saturday February 23, with 40 of the winners receiving a total of approximately $7,000 in college scholarships. Contributions to the scholarship fund include the Kuhlman Corporation and the Michigan Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

North, South Tankers Busy

North High School natators finished fourth in the 17th annual Royal Oak Kimball Swimming Relays in recent action. South High finished in a seventh place tie with Grand Blanc.

The Norsemen had 138 points in the 17-team field, and came in behind Birmingham Groves, 212 points, Birmingham Seaholm, 182 points, and defending champion Dearborn, 163 points. South chalked up 94 points.

Shores Officer Misses Again

Sumner has it that a Shores Public Safety Sergeant went deer hunting with Shores Chief Joseph Vitale and missed, for the second year in a row, a four-point deer. Possibly this should suggest to the police chief that he should send his sergeant back to the practice range so that the sergeant may become a good shot, if not a big shot before the next hunting season! Of course, the NEWS would be the last publication in the world to divulge the sergeant's name.

Youths Trapped by Attempted Sale of Stolen Goods

(Continued from Page 1) brother, who had purchased them from another boy, also 14. Field said that charges have been filed with Juvenile Court authorities accusing the 14-year-olds with possession of stolen property. The name of the older boy is being withheld, since he has been named as a co-conspirator, not as a defendant, the detective said. The 17-year-old supplied the data resulting in the recovery of the stolen goods, the officer added.

The older youth informed Field and Kendall that his brother had told him that the other lad had cutting torch equipment for sale. The first juvenile, when approached, allowed the 17-year-old to use a torch and tank and other welding items. Later he sold him a complete unit for five dollars, the older lad claimed. The 17-year-old said that on November 25, he picked up a complete second unit and seven gas tanks for $20, on condition that he would make payments over a period of two to three weeks.

Field said that he stopped at the home of the brothers and found nine empty acetylene tanks in the garage on the property. These were confiscated as evidence and taken to the Youth Division office. Going to the home of the other young lad, the detective said, he found more tanks and torches. Under questioning, the boy claimed he was walking in the alley between Kerby and Belanger when he "found" the items.

"I talked to the young man, along with Agent Kendall, and the boy claimed that on two other occasions, he walked by the same location and found more such equipment," the Farms officer said. "The youngster had nothing to say when I pointed out that it was very coincidental that each time he passed this particular area, that the items happened to be at the same location."

Field said that he spoke to the boy's mother, a school teacher, and asked her if she did not think it was strange that her son had so much of this equipment at home. The mother merely shrugged her shoulders and said her son is always "finding" something and bring it home. Some of the welding equipment had been stolen on December 2, from a van truck belonging to Harold G. Doubles of 441 Madison, parked at the rear of a service station located at 18480 Mack, near the Bartone firm. These units, as well as those belonging to the Bartone plumbing firm were confiscated, the Farms detective said. The mother, whose husband is a university professor, was informed that her boy will have to be taken to the station for questioning and that charges will be filed against him with Juvenile authorities.

Field said that the mother could not understand why, since the items had been "found."

The detective said he stopped short in his tracks, as he was about to leave the house, when the mother stated that her son was always lucky in "finding things," and that recently he had found a camera and other photographic equipment and brought them home.

The Farms officer said that he took possession of these items pending further investigation, on the possibility that these, too, were stolen.

"I find it very hard to believe, that the father and mother of this boy, both of whom are supposed to be highly intelligent, since they are associated with a school system and teaching younger people, did not think anything was amiss, when their son had all those items in the garage and in the house," Field said. "I am simply astonished that the father, who teaches at a university, and the mother, who is a fifth grade teacher, did not question their boy, or even make an effort to find out, where he obtained all that stuff he brought home. I just can't believe it."

Both Henry Bartone, of the Farms firm, and Doubles, identified all their equipment. Total value of all the items amounted to approximately $900.

Value of the photographic items is not known.

Gas Company Offers Refund

Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has announced it will make a refund of approximately $2.5 million to its customers during December.

Hugh C. Daly, president of the utility, said the refund will average about $1.25 for customers who heat their homes with gas, and 25 cents for non-heating residential customers. Commercial and industrial customers will also share in the refund.

He said the Michigan Public Service Commission has approved the company's proposal to return the money to its customers as a credit on their December bills.

Mr. Daly said the refund results from a temporary decrease in the rates of Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company, the utility's principal gas supplier. The pipe line increased its rates November 1, 1972, under rules of the Federal Power Commission which provide for refunding if upon final order, the Commission sets lower rates.

Michigan Consolidated passed the higher wholesale costs on to its customers at that time, under refund provisions established by the M.P.S.C.

On July 24 the F.P.C. ordered a slight temporary reduction in the pipe line's rates, going back to November 1, generating the refund. The pipe line reduction enabled Michigan Consolidated to immediately reduce its rates about one-half cent per thousand cubic feet.

However, the rates went back up to their previous level on September 1 following an order from the F.P.C. to Michigan Wisconsin to alter its rate schedules.

Request Action In Busing Case

Congressman Lucien N. Nedzi, (D-Mich.), joined by a bi-partisan group of seven Michigan congressmen, has asked the Justice Department to intervene in the crucial anti-busing case soon to be considered by the U. S. Supreme Court.

The Solicitor General should file a brief arguing against the decision of District Judge Stephen Roth, Congressman Nedzi said.

The congressmen, all from the southeastern Michigan area, are Nedzi, James O'Hara, William Ford, John Dingell, and Martha Griffiths, Democrats, and William Broomfield, Robert Huber, and Marvin Esch, Republicans.

"This case has implications of grave national significance," the group said in a letter to Acting Attorney General Robert Bork.

"Every urban-suburban community is affected.

"The lower court ruling, if allowed to stand, would create enormous chaos, needlessly and recklessly accentuate community antagonisms, and do severe damage to education."

Congressman Nedzi said the Solicitor General of the Justice Department should intervene against the Roth decision as he did in the Richmond case. In the latter instance, a 4-4 U. S. Supreme Court decision had the result of preventing cross-district busing in the Richmond, Va. area.

"The Metropolitan Detroit case is certain to be a landmark decision because of the wider scope of the issue in dispute," Congressman Nedzi added. "Richmond involved three school districts. The Michigan case involves 86 independent school districts. Besides, all nine justices can be expected to participate this time."

The case is expected to be argued before the U. S. Supreme Court early next year.

Brownell 'B-Line' Gives Scoop on School Affairs

By Kathy Duff

After reading one issue of the Brownell Middle School newspaper, "B-Line," you will be right back in junior high school. You will know what's wrong with the cafeteria this year, what activities are going on for the school orchestras, and what items have been recommended for teachers' Christmas gifts, (they range from face-lifts to a kiss from Ryan O'Neil).

The eight-page publication, the first of four newspapers written by Brownell journalism students, was distributed to all Brownell students at the end of November. Called the "Holiday Issue," the green cover shows a Colonial woman in the midst of Thanksgiving meal preparation.

"The kids start asking when the 'B-Line' is coming out in the first few weeks of school. Everyone reads the paper," Mrs. Sue V. Spencer, Brownell English and journalism teacher, said.

"The day the 'B-Line' is distributed, the assistant principal makes the announcement in the morning. My students are very responsive over putting together a newspaper, even though it does take the first issue to get up steam."

Reporter Donna Camp wrote a very thorough report on the Instrumental Music activities. Students attended a String Bass Clinic held by the Detroit Symphony at North High School and the Detroit Symphony's Children's Concert. Currently, band and orchestra members are busily selling placements to raise money for their scholarship fund and preparing for the concert Friday, December 14.

Layout editors Amy Hartman, Amy Oleszko, Michelle Buck and Kim Pierce have realized the need to balance materials on a page by placing Carol DeMars and Karen Nelson's advice column on the same page. An average entry is as follows: Dear Grapevine,

"Why can't students chew gum in school?" Dear Gumchewer, You can't chew gum in school because students put it under desks and on chairs and it becomes a sticky situation.

Glad we Could Help Grapevine

The page also contains a historical piece by Jill Graham on the first Thanksgiving and current student opinion regarding the holiday.

For those interested in the language classes at Brownell, there are your men Pablo and Jacques in the Spanish and French classes, respectively. Pablo reported that the Seventh Grade classes are studying Spanish food and seeing slides on Mexico. Jacques reports that Miss Cary hopes she can teach the students enough so they will "pass the course."

In the article on the school cafeteria, Chris Bartlett wrote that "There have been many changes in the cafeteria this year. To start with, everything in general has gone up about five cents, due to cost in the supplies needed to make the food."

"The milk has doubled in price from five cents to 10 cents. The specials have risen from 75 cents to 85 cents."

"The staff has been cut by one person in the cafeteria due to money, and if someone is sick, they cannot get any substitutes to fill in so everyone has to work twice as hard."

"Mrs. Proctor, the head of the staff, has cut down on the making of food. She only makes the food that the people like, to save money."

Several students also put on critics' hats and reviewed new record releases, sports events and current movies. Stephen Controulis, in reporting on records, said that Led Zeppelin after its recent concert tour is expected to make $30,000,000 by the end of 1973. That has to be a record.

Some space for editorial was allowed. In her article, Assistant Editor Grace Piku wrote, "What do young people learn while teachers are striking? They are not learning the three R's, reading, writing and arithmetic. They might be learning the three U's though, unreasonable, unwilling and unnecessary attitudes that may stay with them the rest of their lives."

However, the newspaper ends on a gay, holiday note. The following poem is by Julie Trombly:

"That time of year again has come, When the tree is put up and the stockings are hung. We take out the ornaments and bulbs with care, And put them on the tree 'til there's no more to spare. The tinsel glistens in the light, And makes the pine look gay and bright. Decorating the tree is a lively affair, And laughter and happiness fill the air."

Dismiss Charge Against Youth

A Woods youth, charged with unnecessary noise and hitch-hiking, pled not guilty and was found not guilty to the noise charge, which was dismissed in The Woods Municipal Court Wednesday, November 21. Michael Anthony Juif also pled not guilty but was found guilty of hitch-hiking, and paid a $10 fine, according to court reports. The charges stemmed from his arrest on Friday, August 31.

South Cagers Drop EML Opener to Roseville, 51-50

By Mark Emery

After Tuesday's home game (December 11), against rival North, South's Blue Devils will play host to East Detroit in their second Eastern Michigan League game of the season. The Devils lost their EML home opener to Roseville, 51-50, last week.

South will entertain East Detroit tomorrow Friday, December 14, at home as the Devils try for their first league win of the season. The Shamrocks are rated among the EML's top contenders as they are returning with four starting players from last year's team. East Detroit is rated next to Stevenson in the EML title race and will prove to be stronger than Roseville.

Roseville was underrated as they came into South's home court. They are participating this year for the first time in three years, with a varsity basketball program.

It looked at first as though South would have the edge with an established basketball program, but Roseville came to South with a polished and organized team for the upset. The game was close throughout its entirety as South trailed through most of the first half.

Again the Devils inability to score cost them the game as they went scoreless for three minutes into the first quarter. However, Roseville's offense also stalled and South trailed by the end of the first quarter by only two points.

South then began to mount an offense and at the half went into the locker room with a two-point lead.

The game began to get close as South's three point lead in the third quarter diminished to a four point deficit at the beginning of the fourth period, 39-35.

In the fourth quarter South began to battle back as the Devils led by five midway through the fourth period. Costly fouls and turnovers be-

Bruins Victors on Canada Ice

The Bruins were victorious in four games during a recent weekend in the Toronto area. On Friday, November 16 they faced Unionville and after trailing 2-0 for two periods they exploded in the third for five goals. Allen Taber scored first on a power play with Bill Seaver and John Schuster assisting. He again scored with linemates Mike Burkheiser and Matt Costello in on a pass play. Burkheiser and Schuster turned on the red light for goals 3 and 4. Kevin Moore scored the final goal with Seaver assisting.

The following day the Bruins were hosted by Stouffville, Ont. and in a high scoring game were victorious 9-5. Burkheiser scored the "hat trick." Taber and Joe Sehee scored twice with Costello and Ben Amore putting in the other two goals.

On Sunday the Bruins faced two all 12-year-old teams. In Bradford, Ont. they played

HOT COOKIE
City firemen responded to a report of a kitchen fire at the home of a St. Clair avenue resident on Monday afternoon, December 3. By the time the firemen arrived, the resident had managed to put the fire out, but the crew was astounded when they discovered that the cause of the combustion was a cookie that caught fire while it was baking in the oven.

"All Things Work Together for Good to Them that Love God"

Romans 8:28

Trusting God for all good, you can see a pattern of progress in your life. Even trials become opportunities for healing and for improvement, as the Bible shows.

At our testimony meeting this Wednesday, you will hear others tell how they've drawn closer to God and felt His gentle control of their lives. And often they tell how their understanding of God has healed them of sickness, grief, loneliness, fear, lack.

We hope you'll visit soon.

Library Offers Family Films

The next program in the Family Film Night series will be held tonight, December 13, at 7:30 o'clock in the Exhibition Room at the Central Library. Co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library, the following four films will surely provide for a festive evening.

Flash, The Teen-age Otter, 48 minutes, color, is a Walt Disney film about a capricious and fun-loving otter, who manages in one year to have a series of adventures which would last any other otter a lifetime. A delightful story—appealing to all. The Great Toy Robbery, 7 minutes, is a spoof of the wild west—a color cartoon starring the world's most-wanted good guy, Santa Claus. As in all westerns, good wins over evil, but not before robbers and robbed have romped through some odd situations. Paul Revere's Ride is a 10 minute, color, animated cartoon version of Longfellow's famous poem. Visit From St. Nicholas, 4 minutes, color. "Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house..." The nostalgic and much-loved poem about the midnight visit of St. Nicholas brought to the screen in charming animation.

The general public is cordially invited to attend. For additional information, please inquire at the Circulation Desk, or call the Audio-Visual Department at the Central Library, 884-2200.

Pointers Swim for NYC Team

The Detroit Yacht Club Swim team placed 17 Grosse Pointe area swimmers in the St. Clair Shores Swim Club's meet Saturday-Sunday, December 8-9, in Lakeshore High School's pool.

Most of them swam events they had never done before and most came out with excellent times. This qualified them to swim in the next higher classification meets.

Barrie Fires really came through in probably his last meet as an eight-year-old. He took a first in the 25 breast, (22.3), a fifth in the 25 free and a sixth in the 25 back.

He teamed up with fellow Pointers Ken Bacilius, Hans Brieden and Bill Hohmann, (all of whom are only seven-years-old), to place third in the 8 and under boys 100 free relay. Second only to Barrie was 12-year-old Chris Neros who won the 11 and 12 year boys 200 individual medley, (3:02.5), and also took home a fourth place in the 100 back.

Showing her diversification in all strokes was 15-year-old Norene Slawski who placed in every event she entered: 500 free — third; 100 back — third; 200 free — fourth; 200 IM — fifth; 50 free — sixth, and 100 fly — 6th.

Dale Gannon, 14, in his AAU competition debut, brought home two red ribbons for his 13 year and over boys 200 breast and 50 free.

His little sister, Cindy, placed fourth in the eight and under girls 25 free and sixth in the 10 and under 50 free.

Cindy teamed up with Denise DeSantis, Molly Riley and Kathy Coughlin to win third in both the 8 and under girls 100 free and 100 medley relays.

David Wittwer, who just turned nine, placed sixth in the boys 10 and under 200 free. Mimi Storen, who just moved into Michigan from out state, proved her prowess in placing fifth in the girls 10 and under 50 fly and 100 IM.

Two sets of swimming sisters were in the top six in their events. The Sobieski girls, 16-year-old Carol and 12-year-old Margaret, showed their penchant for longer events by placing third and sixth in the 200 free.

The Austerberry sisters, Terri, who just turned 11, placed fourth in the 200 free and Mary, having just turned 13, showed her strength by placing second in the 200 breast, fourth in the 200 IM and fifth in the 500 free in the 13 and over age group.

Other NYC Pointe area youths who swam new events and chalked up faster times were Gay Storen, Laurel Bacilius, Ruth Hohmann, Bob Brownell, Patrick Coughlin, Shannon Riley and Brett Karmey. This was the first AAU meet for Brett, nine, and 12-year-old Patrick.

Carpeting

Make a list of all the things you want and feel you must include in your home. Then classify the list, either by eliminating the least important, or listing the most essential thing that you need. In this way you will spend a minimum of funds on objects which really don't belong, and ultimately will be discarded. Your reaction to any object in a room is really the most important measure of whether it is a necessity or not.

An important item when making your home decorating list should be carpeting. At ED MALISZEWSKI CARPETING, 21435 Mack, 776-5510, we have one of the largest and finest displays of quality carpeting at very reasonable prices. Choose from Lees, Milliken, Cabin Crafts, to name a few, or select an oriental rug or a fur area rug. We also sell and install commercial carpeting. Open: Tues., Wed., Sat. 9:30-6; Mon., Thurs., Fri., 'til 9. In continuous service since 1913.

GPSC Natators Do Well In Patton Club's Meet

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club "A" Team competed in the meet at the Patton Aquatic Club in West Detroit Saturday-Sunday, December 8-9. This was the 14th year that Patton has held an "A" meet in the month of December. The Patton Club is the only active AAU Club in Detroit.

Grosse Pointe Swim Club Natators came home with many laurels. In girls 10 and under Cathy Brown took third in the 50 breast. She was on the 200 medley relay team that took a sixth place along with Wendy Watts, Lynn Mollahan and Kitty Berg.

In Boys 10 and under, Wally Bernard took third in the 200-yard freestyle and he combined with Jeff Colton, Jim Strong and Dave Center for fifth place in the 200 free relay. Jeff Colton placed fourth in the 100 butterfly.

The 200 medley relay team in girls 11 and 12 took a second place. Swimming were Pam Rinke, Julie Eugenio, Margaret Wittmer and Frances Shook. Julie Eugenio took second place in girls 11 and 12 breaststroke.

In boys 11 and 12, Wally Kilgore was first in the 50 freestyle and sixth in the 50 breaststroke. Tom Shook took second place in the 50-yard breast, and Wally and Tom joined with John Burchett and John Hessburg to place second in the 200 free relay and 3rd in the 200-yard medley relay.

In girls 13 and 14 both free and medley relay teams posted thirds. The team was comprised of Patti Hallman, Megan Montagne, Abbie Frame and Debbie King.

Megan Montagne took a fourth place in the 100 fly, a third in the girls open backstroke and a second in the 50 free in 27.6. Megan also was sixth in the 100 breast, and Patti Hallman was third in the 100 breast at 1:18.5.

In girls 15 and 17 Laura Rinke was first in the 100-yard breast at 1:16.5. Laura was on the 200-yard free relay that placed third along with Marsha Maurer, Connie Robinson and Beth Boerner. In men's open 200 yard relay, the club's relay of Augie DeLuca, Alex Mueller, Jim Ketzler and Rex Boyce took fourth place. It was the first time in Michigan that an all-Masters relay competed in an open event. All of these swimmers were over 30-years-old and members of the Grosse Pointe-Swim Club Masters Program.

In other Masters events, Carolyn DeLuca won the women's 100-yard butterfly with a 1:16.4, and she came back with a first in the 200 yard freestyle.

In the men's 200-yard free, Augie DeLuca was second and, in the 100 yard breaststroke, (age 35 and over), Jim Ketzler was fifth and Alex Mueller, sixth. Jack Shook was ninth in the same event.

GPSC's "B" team will go to East Detroit this weekend and the "A" team will start the new year out with the Michigan Stingray meet in January.

Coach Tim Kennary and all of his age group and Masters' swimmers wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

SH Frosh End Winning Year

During a cold windy rain, South's freshman football team beat Warren Fitzgerald, 14-0, in recent action.

Quarterback Skip Dawson threw a 30-yard pass to end Tom Heidt to put the ball on Warren's nine-yard line. On the next play Paul Genter slashed off end for the score.

Dawson then passed to Heidt for the two-point conversion.

South scored later after Rocky O'Hare recovered a fumble in Warren's territory. With John Beebe, Doug Skip and Brian Meyers grounding out yardage to the four, Meyers capped the drive by scoring on a dive over guard. South missed the extra point. South's strong defense recovered six Warren fumbles, stopping their every effort to score. Outstanding defensive players included Al Jones, Grant Piche, Chris Fielding, Rocky O'Hare, Tom Gutwald and Nino Tocco.

The frosh, coached by George Dudich and Tom Bailey, finished with a record of 4-2-1. This included four shutouts.

Grosse Pointe's Newest Condominium

Your neighbors will include an award winner of one of the highest civic honors; a distinguished Detroit attorney; a member of an outstanding Detroit banking family; a well-known connoisseur, restaurateur; a sportsman, who is an international winner in yachting circles; an outstanding advertising executive; a retired board chairman, those who take an active part in the city's industry and social life and one of Detroit's leading realtors and land developer who knows a great place to live when he sees it.

Why They Bought. Some bought before the building was finished. Others have looked around and thoughtfully compared condominium living to home ownership and apartment renting, they then made their move to the Jefferson Apartments.

They were influenced by the convenient prime location, all new construction and truly gracious living. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, natural fireplaces, individual heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet.

The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. Residents are homeowners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

A network of the most modern security systems guard them their home and possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the Owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touch-tone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of an intruder into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives supervised protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment.

Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman stationed around the clock resident caretakers.

The Jefferson Apartments is located 2 blocks from a local bus stop with boat slips, 3 blocks from Grosse Pointe Village shopping, 20 minutes from downtown Detroit by bus.

Don't worry about selling your home. Visit us and learn of our new trade-in program for your home, and our new pricing policy.

The model apartment is open 12 to 5 daily except Wednesday. Later on Neff or St. Clair Roads. Priced from $69,000.

What's Going On Here?

A prolific burglar, who was convicted in June 1969 of the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling in The Shores, is scheduled for parole on February 9, 1974, after serving over five years of a 7 1/2-15 year prison sentence.

Shores Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza, the investigating officer in the November 30, 1968, break-in of a Greenbriar road home, is furious at the pending release of Detroit Irving Goldfarb.

Goldfarb, who has been in and out of jail much of his life, has a criminal record dating back to his days as a juvenile in 1936. He has been convicted of breaking and entering, larceny from a building, possession of burglary tools and police reported he admitted being involved in 39 break-in cases in the Detroit area prior to his conviction in 1969.

Police said one public servant called Goldfarb "one of the worst burglars in the State of Michigan."

Sergeant Mustazza, considering Goldfarb's criminal record, questions why he is being paroled and not serving the maximum sentence. "Why did they, (the parole board), pick on the minimum sentence? Why did they consider his minimum sentence rather than his maximum? This is ridiculous," he emphasized.

In calling Goldfarb a "very poor risk," Sergeant Mustazza felt his record indicates he can't be rehabilitated, and that the people are the only ones who are going to suffer.

And it seems, of late, the people are doing quite a bit of suffering: not only specific victims of crime who go through the often agonizing court process culminating in a trial where the accused is found guilty or not guilty, but in such cases where law-abiding citizens read or hear of incidents, (for example, the Goldfarb situation), where a chronic repeater is scheduled for release... to possibly repeat.

Now, do not mistake this, we are not talking about someone who has been convicted once of a crime, or even twice, (in each hypothetical case assuming that the person, via his motivation and attitude, wants to, or has been, rehabilitated), but of an individual, roaming the streets after numerous convictions, who poses a definite threat to the well-being and public safety of the community.

Is common sense vanishing from the annals of law enforcement? Do some laws, encompassing enforcement via various agencies, have to be rewritten to make certain it is the criminal who pays and not the potential victim?

It makes one wonder how long the people are going to stand for this claptrap before they take some thoughtful, constructive and decisive action.

R.A.W.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor: To my delight and chagrin, two students from Grosse Pointe South High School appeared at my front door this weekend and, stating that they were most concerned about the energy crisis, asked if I would be willing to turn off my outdoor gas light during the holidays to ease any potential lack of heating energy during a time of year when every household is operating at capacity.

Points have always rallied to a cause and I fervently hope that they will do so again this holiday season. Lavish outdoor lighting displays will be in the minority—candle power is in! If you doubt, go out to the Christmas Walk at Greenfield Village with the blazing hearths, fresh greens and candles in the windows. You suddenly drop a century. Not a breath of plastic or electricity to be seen and it's so lovely that one is suddenly smitten by all manner of "weltschmerz."

Congratulations to the students of South High in their efforts to promote energy to necessary use instead of unnecessary waste. The darker house this Christmas is the home where people care. Merry Christmas! Nettie Duffield Mrs. G. Wm. Duffield Vice-President, E.A.N.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

"It's the only national cultural event that comes to Detroit every year. We've got to save it." Phyllis (Mrs. Neil) Snow, of McKinley avenue, dropped by last week to talk about her Favorite Thing, opera, specifically about the rising costs attendant upon bringing the Metropolitan Opera Company to Detroit.

The Detroit Grand Opera Association has had to guarantee the Metropolitan $66,000 more in 1974 than it did in 1973, when the Association was forced to dip into reserves to make up a loss of more than $8,000 on the Detroit Season.

So now what's going to happen?

Well... Phyllis Snow, advertising chairman of the Detroit Grand Opera Association Women's Committee, and Mary Teachout, of Saint Paul avenue, co-chairman, and their committee members throughout the metropolitan area are going to get out and sell more Opera Program ads than ever before.

They need your help. You've got to buy.

"We'll be working on getting ads through the end of February. We'll be contacting more small businesses and corporations. We need the big businesses and corporations, of course, and they've always been extremely responsive. But we need, too, to widen our base of support."

The Mesdames Snow and Teachout were hostesses to metropolitan Detroit and outstate women, representing the various area advertising committees, at a luncheon meeting at the Country Club the last Wednesday in November.

The Mesdames Snow and Teachout, aided by Noel (Mrs. David L.) Gamble, of Ridge road, co-chairman of the 1974 Metropolitan Opera Season in Detroit, explained the situation.

The Opera Association is counting on increased advertising revenue from the Program, which is distributed without charge to opera-goers during the Met's annual visit here, Noel emphasized.

Phyllis urged each member present to encourage each Women's Committee member in her area to sell at least one new advertisement for the Program.

"We need to sell at least $30,000 worth of advertising to break even on printing and distribution."

Santa (BILL DRAPER) dropped by a few days ago to check on Lochmoor's boys and girls in advance of his official appearance at the Club's Children's Christmas Party this Saturday. He discovered that MARK MATHEWS, 2½, JOSEPH IMPASTATO, II, 4½, ERIN SNYDER, 2½, and JULIE MATHEWS 4½, (foreground to rear), are representative of the Lochmoor children, all of whom have been very good indeed. Especially lately: the youngsters have known Mr. Claus was just about due to arrive.

WALD, a Grosse Pointe South High School graduate son of MR. and MRS. JOHN P. DEWALD, of Alger place.

DR. and MRS. KENNARD JONES and MR. and MRS. KENNETH LOCKE, of Barclay road, have returned from a month's trip around the world with the Nomads Flying Club, visiting Portugal, Greece, Iran, India, Thailand, Hong Kong Taiwan, Japan and Hawaii.

PHIL PORTER, son of the WILLIAM C. PORTERS, of Hampton road, has been elected president of the senior class at Kenyon College.

United States Air Force Major JOHN H. SLEVIN, a Vietnam veteran who holds the aeronautical rating of senior navigator, son of DR. and MRS. JOHN G. SLEVIN, of Whittier road, has arrived at Bergstrom Air Force Base, Tex., for duty as chief of the Office of Information. A 1949 University of Detroit High School graduate he received his Ph.D. degree in Economics in 1954 from the University of Detroit and was commissioned there through the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

Among Pointers on hand when Michigan's First Lady MRS. WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN unveiled a Glen Michaels mural in the Detroit Medical Center Thursday, December 6, was MRS. G. JAN BEEKITUIS, of Balfour road, co-chairman of the Friends of the School of Medicine Art committee which commissioned the work for the Wayne State University School of Medicine's Gordon H. Scott Hall of Basic Medical Sciences.

MR. and MRS. ALFRED STEINER, II, came from their home in Fairfield, O., with ALFRED F. STEINER, III, born August 18, so the baby could be baptized November 23 in Saint Paul Lutheran Church. Mrs. Steiner is the former PAMELA ANNE SCHNEIDER, daughter of the MICHAEL SCHNEIDERS, of Broadstone road. Paternal grandparents are the WILFRED STEINERS, of Westchester road, and great-grandfather is ALFRED F. STEINER, of Eastland Village. NELSON and SHERI STEINER, of Tampa, Fla., are the newest Alfred Steiner's godparents.

Navy Fireman Apprentice ARTHUR, TOMASZYCKI graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School in 1972, son of the CHESTER E. TOMASZYCKIS, of Nottingham road, has deployed for the Mediterranean where he will participate in training exercises with the Sixth Fleet aboard the dock landing ship USS Hermitage.

Elected members of Peace Lutheran Church's 1974 board of directors are JULIAN MAIRE, JR., of Anita avenue, who will head the board of deacons, ROBERT JEN-SKE, of Lakepointe avenue, chairman of the board of Christian Education, JACK YOUNKE, of Kenmore drive, head of the Stewardship board, and JERE BERKEY, of Lakepointe avenue, new board of directors treasurer.

Member of the Wayne State University College of Pharmacy silver anniversary class which was honored Tuesday, November 13, at the luncheon of the WSU Pharmacy Alumni Clinics Day program at the Engineering Society of Detroit, was PETER DESPIRIT, of Anita avenue.

Senior Center 20 Years Old

Christmas Spirit will mingle with nostalgia at today's Senior Center Christmas Party, scheduled to begin at noon at the Church of the Covenant in East Grand boulevard.

It was 20 years ago, (December 1953), that the Junior League of Detroit, with $22,000 raised via a Junior League Follies, opened the doors of the original Senior Center.

Some of the people present on that opening day will be special guests at this year's Christmas Party.

They include Center past-presidents and original board members Mrs. Frank Sladen, Mrs. William Lane, Mrs. Theodore Buttrick, Mrs. William Crim, Mrs. Donald Flintermann, Mrs. Ripley

Schemm and Mrs. Edward Possellus.

Joining the Junior League of Detroit with donations to help make 1973's party "the best ever" are Brownie Troops 1012 and 84, Mrs. Harry Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Smith.

Mrs. Jack Roach and Mrs. Douglas West are contributing their musical talents. President George Nelson and Mrs. Edward Allardice, executive director, will be on hand to greet the Seniors and honor guests.

As chairman Mrs. J. Peter Smith remarks, "This is one activity where the donors truly become the receivers. Everyone who works on this party leaves with a happy heart and a real surge of Christmas Spirit."

This is a smile.

Most of our customers wear one when they leave our salon. We don't change their lives, but we do change their looks and often their outlooks. Their hair shines and sparkles and shapes up beautifully. And they feel that something marvelous that only a simply marvelous hair-do can make a female feel. If you'd like to leave a beauty salon wearing a smile on your face, see us. We specialize in putting one there.

Phyllis noted, too, that the advertising effort is the major financial contribution the Women's Committee makes to the DGOA, and that a strong advertising showing this year will go far to support the Opera Association in its determination to keep the Metropolitan Opera visits a major part of Detroit's cultural scene.

"For opera buffs," says Phyllis Snow, looking ahead to the reason why her advertising committee is working so hard now, "1974 is one of the most exciting seasons ever."

Phyllis knows what she's talking about. She and Neil have been attending every Met performance in Detroit for years.

When Detroit is promised Sutherland in four roles, the Snows know the Season can't miss. Of course, it never has . . .

Christmastide Begins at NYC

The Christmas season officially begins at the Detroit Yacht Club this Sunday, December 16, with members invited to join Commodore Wayne J. Dupuis, of Briarcliff drive, past-commodores, fleet officers, directors and their wives at an Open House from 3 until 5 o'clock.

A magnificent 10-foot Christmas tree trimmed with handmade ornaments donated by members will be in place. Past-commodores' wives will pour at a tea table decked with pine cones, pink and red ornaments and silver candelabra.

The following Sunday, December 23, NYC children gather at the Club for their annual Christmas party, featuring a special Christmas luncheon and entertainment by Professor Bloono with his balloon tricks and by Christmas Carol.

Santa is scheduled to arrive via horse-drawn sleigh at the Main Dock during the afternoon. There will be presents and candy for all.

Christmas Walk In Pointe Today

Six Holiday-Decorated Homes Are Open to Public for Annual Tour Sponsored by Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony

There's still time to pull on your walking boots and sally forth on the 1973 Grosse Pointe Christmas Walk, scheduled from 11 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon today.

Mrs. John W. Fleck and Mrs. Michael B. Disgr are general Pointe chairmen of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra project.

Tickets, at $3.50 each, are available at all six holiday-decorated homes on the tour.

Symphony Juniors will be acting as hostesses in each house.

Head hostess at the Barrington road home of Dr. and Mrs. C. William Young is Mrs. Robert McKendrick. The Young home is extremely contemporary, furnished with many Danish modern and teak pieces.

Oriental rugs are foils for modern paintings, including some by Catherine Latham. The piano, originally in Mrs. Young's family, was re-finished by Dr. Young. Copies of altar piece paintings from a 16th century Catholic song-book are among the treasures here.

Down at the foot of Woodland place is a glorious house built by Robert Derrick in 1928, re-built in 1940. It's now the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Wilkinson.

Mrs. James Barker is head hostess at the Wilkinson home, where the dining room features antique Flemish furniture, the library a unique collection of lead soldiers, the living room a Japanese lacquer screen originally owned by Mr. Wilkinson's grandparents.

Be sure to look closely at the 1815 handcrafted camp-horwood trunk from India. It's a beauty.

And be sure to plan on a few minutes' "listening break" at the Wilkinson home, too. The woodwind and brass ensembles from Grosse Pointe South High School are playing here.

The Cameron place residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Van Pelt is a new house, (built in 1968), on a new street. Mrs. Van Pelt, who helped to design it, calls it "a traditional home furnished with many antiques."

One of the Van Pelt's treasures is a Captain's Prayer Chair. Original antique scroll prints are among other notable treasures.

Mrs. John Renick heads the hostess corps at the Van Pelt's.

Mrs. David Olson is in charge of hostesses at the Bedford road home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sieber, French-Belgian Colonial on the outside, an eclectic blend of contemporary and traditional designed to fit the desires and needs of Mrs. Sieber, a professional decorator, her husband and their children within.

The living room's monochromatic cold color scheme is brightened by white velvet furniture with chrome and glass accents. The Christmas tree features angels hand-crocheted by Mrs. Sieber.

The white pedestal dining room table and chairs were designed by Eero Saarinen, the playroom features a McPherson plaid carpet imported from Scotland and the kitchen combines dark oak cabinets with crewel-textured wallpaper.

Upstairs in the master bedroom, done in browns, the two etageres do double duty as headboards and night stands.

Mrs. Carl Allison is head hostess at the Oldbrook lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazen Pingree, a comfortable Colonial individualized by the Pingrees who designed and added a Country French family room. Among the antiques to note in their dining room are a Sheraton period table and a Hepplewhite half-round sideboard. Another fascinating Allison piece is a 17th French armoire, and they have a beautiful diel wood Queen Anne mantel.

There's warm punch available for walkers at the Sunningdale drive home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bauer where Mrs. Richard Campbell is head hostess.

The Bauers have done extensive re-modeling within their 1926-built English Tudor house. The game room reflects Mr. Bauer's hunting and sailing interests and features, on an antique game table, the glazed and gold-leafed ceramic chess set Mrs. Bauer made for her husband.

The curved stairway in the entrance hall remains gracefully intact.

Receiving an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Wayne State University during winter commencement exercise December 11 was RAY W. MacDONALD, of Lochmoor boulevard.

Holiday Buffet Slated By Xi Alpha Omega

Xi Alpha Omega joined other Beta Sigma Phi chapters in the South Macomb County Council to observe Exemplar Day recently at Sheppard's Inn.

At the conclusion of dinner Xi Alpha Omega members Betty Grebe and Jean Moore were among those who received the Exemplar Degree. The Order of the Rose also was bestowed upon Mrs. Robert Dolson.

The South Renaud road home of Mrs. Richard White was setting for the recent farewell party given by Xi Alpha Omega and Preceptor Alpha Eta chapters for Mrs. Arnold Barrette, of South Brys drive, whose family is moving to the Buffalo, N. Y., area.

Mr. and Mrs. White will host Xi Alpha Omega's Christmas party for members and their husbands or friends this Saturday, December 15. An international buffet dinner is planned.

Bowdoin College has awarded a varsity soccer team numeral to Pointer DAVY T. HOAG.

Hetu Returns To Symphony Tonight

Former associate conductor Pierre Hetu returns to Ford Auditorium tonight to conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock in a concert program including Debussy's musicaly-impressionistic La Mer.

Hetu, who left the Detroit Symphony at the conclusion of the 1972-73 season, is currently music director and conductor of the Edmonton, Ala., Symphony Orchestra.

Brilliant young American cellist Stephen Kates will make his debut appearance with the Orchestra as guest soloist in Dvorak's Cello Concerto.

Winner of a Silver Medal in the 1966 Third International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, 30-year-old Kates has been described as "an artist who is an exception in an exceptional generation of cellists."

As previously announced, Kates replaces violinist David Oistrakh who, for reasons of ill health, was forced to cancel his entire American tour this fall.

Stravinsky's neo-baroque Dumbarton Oaks Concerto in E flat completes the program, replacing the originally scheduled Suite No. 1 in C major by Bach.

Tickets for tonight's concert are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson and Grinnell's ticket offices.

A limited number of $7.75 tickets for students and senior citizens is available at Ford Auditorium Box Office beginning at 7:45 o'clock this evening.

After a Christmas recess the Orchestra resumes its regular schedule of subscription concerts January 3 and 5, when former music director and conductor Sixten Ehrling returns as guest conductor.

Commodore's Ball Begins GPYC Yule

Old-Fashioned Christmas is Theme for Party Honoring Club's Newest Commodore Frank P. McBride, Jr.

Past-Commodore Paul I. Moreland gave the toast to Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's newest Commodore Frank P. McBride, Jr., last Saturday, as GPYC welcomed the start of the holiday season with its traditional Commodore's Ball.

Mrs. Moreland, in salmon, chiffon embossed with pearls, and Mrs. McBride, in emerald peau de sole and gold brocade, beamed as they looked on.

It is not often a GPYC Commodore father-in-law gets to give the official Commodore's toast to his daughter's husband.

Peggy McBride, in keeping with the sentiment of the evening, chose to have the Walton-Pierce gown originally purchased by her mother for the 1962 Commodore's Ball, when Paul was GPYC's newest Commodore, remodeled for Frank's party.

With it, she wore the jewelry Charlotte Moreland had worn in 1962.

Mrs. Moreland chose amber bugle beads to complement her 1973 costume.

Ball decor theme throughout the Club was an Old-Fashioned Christmas, with a huge "Rejoice" above the fireplace in the main ballroom setting the mood for the room and the party.

Live trees and natural greens, red velvet streamers and bows and twinkling lights decked GPYC's entrance hall, where a red runner led to the receiving line in the rotunda, its fountain banked with live poinsettias.

More greens and poinsettias dotted the dining room where Ball guests gathered for cocktails, and a large Christmas tree was focal point for rotunda decorations.

The Commodore's Ball marks the first official appearance of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's officers for the new year. The 1974 roster, headed by Commodore McBride, includes Vice Commodore George L. Beard, Rear Commodore Harold S. DeOrlow, Secretary William D. Plante and Treasurer Donald A. Curtis, all of whom, with their ladies, were on hand to greet guests.

On hand too were Fleet Captain and Mrs. Harvey C. Fruehauf, Jr., Fleet Surgeon Dr. John P. Bremer, M.D., and Fleet Measurer and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Jr., and directors Paul A. Egan, Jerry K. Girschner, Dr. Frederick J. Lepley, Peter O'Rourke, James L. Taylor and Edward W. Wilberding.

Commodore McBride's personal guests included the Bryan Briedens, the Horace C. Fords, the Raymond Whites, the George Vans, Grosse Pointe Club Vice Commodore and Mrs. Leslie P. McDougall, the Roy Leinwebers, Bernard J. Reilly and Ms. Linda Auger.

Dr. Stuart Smith whose parents, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, former Pointers who have been making their home in Harbor Springs, were in town for the party, headed an usher corps including G. Sheldon Vell, J. Michael Hughes, Michael J. White, E. Blay Schoenherr and Mark Gregory.

Vice Commodore and Mrs. Beard were chairman of the 1973 Commodore's Ball committee. Mr. Vell served as master of ceremonies.

Work was invented by people who are too nervous to sit still.

Milles Benefit Draws Pointers to Studio 4

Pointe members of Detroit-Swedish Council traveled to Birmingham the first Wednesday in December to view the film "The New Land" at the Studio 4 Theatre, engaged by the Council for a Carl and Olga Milles Cranbrook Academy of Art scholarship benefit performance.

Last year's scholarship was awarded to four second year students at the Academy. A check for $2,000 was presented by H.R.H. Princess Christina of Sweden to the Cranbrook Academy of Art on behalf of the Council, to be used for students Joseph Bavaro, of California, Kathryn Kennedy, of Norwich, Conn., Walter Swales, of Philadelphia, and John Wood, of Utah.

Detroit-Swedish Council scholarship chairman is Mrs. E. Jan Hartmann.

Among Pointers participating in the benefit evening were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Buerig, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Johanson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Koebel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cassman, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wood, Mrs. Sixten Ehrling, Arvid Lundell, president of the Council, and Swedish Consul Marvin R. Anderson.

Lucia Festival Set at Church

The traditional Lucia Festival will be observed at Immanuel Lutheran Church tomorrow, Friday, December 14, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Ohman, of Shoreham road, is coordinating the section of the Lucia Queen with the assistance of Pastor Constantine Trued, who is also selecting the "Lady of the Year."

Pointers Julie Cehula, Karol Hookes, Lisa Unger and Mary Elizabeth Ward, with Amy Cramer and Lorna Rose, will serve as members of Lucia's Court.

Star girls are Karen Sauer and Monica Fett. Jay Frater and Paul Ballew have the Tomte roles.

The first Lucia, the Roman Empire maiden for whom the day was named, lived in the city of Syracuse on the island of Sicily. As the day that should have been her wedding day approached—so the story goes—she gave her dowry to poor Christians. Her defiant fiancé informed officials that Lucia was a Christian, and the Emperor Diocletian condemned her to be burned at the stake.

But though fire was all about her she remained unharmed, until finally her heart was pierced by a

Carol Concert at Harmonie This Saturday

Members and their guests will gather at the Harmonie Club this Saturday evening, December 15, for the Harmonie Chorus' traditional Christmas concert program, directed by Kris Dorjath, accompanied by Pointer Christine Schlorff.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, served at 6 o'clock, will be followed by dinner at 7. The concert begins at 8:30 o'clock. The last half of the program will be devoted to candlelight singing of Christmas carols.

Charles A. Windt, Chorus president, will officiate during a brief salutatory ceremony. George William Richardson and Mary Spranger will participate as soloists in two of the choral selections.

Dancing to the tune of Joe Casby's society band will end the evening.

Pointers who serve on the Harmonie's board of directors include Leonard Bantleon, James S. Harland and Alfred R. Tapert. Others are Kenneth C. Davies, John Paul Leahan and Loren E. Sabrosky, president.

Among Pointe members and guests expected to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Bantleon, Miss Rose Bachmann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Harland, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Heigel, Mesdames Eugene Kirsaborn, Mr. and Mrs. Val Carlsson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rapalew, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Streck, Mr. and Mrs. Win Streck, Mr. and Mrs. Tapert, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Thompson, Misses Rita and Ceclia Visnaw and Roy Visnaw.

sword.

The people of Sweden chose to make her their heroine, and through the years they have sung her praise and honored her day.

Lucia and her court are dressed in long white robes with red or gold sashes tied around their waists. Each member of the court carries a lighted candle.

Lucia processes with a crown of lighted candles on her head, carrying a tray of hot coffee and cakes.

After the Church presentation International Christmas Handicrafts will be demonstrated in the Fellowship Hall. Pointer Ann Parsons lists the following activities for the evening:

Swedish Candy Wrapping—Julgranskarameller—will be shown by Pointer Alice Unger. These lovely Christmas candies decorate the traditional Swedish Christmas tree along with red ripe apples. After the holiday festivities a tree "dressing down" party is held, and the candy and apples are divided amidst dancing and singing.

Sausages, made in the old Swedish manner by Keith and Renee Jones and their grandmother, Mrs. Ebba Nelson.

Klenater—deep fried traditional Swedish Christmas cookies—made by Anna Landstrom.

Mrs. Lola Fornell will demonstrate the delicate art of weaving heart-shaped baskets, to be filled with nuts and hung either on the tree or, if very large, on the door.

Popcorn and cranberry stringing also will be demonstrated.

During the workshop activity the Jul-Tomtes (good spirits of the house), will distribute candies made by a group headed by Anna Karlsson.

Janet Johnson is in charge of the Swedish refreshments, assisted by Dorothy Hammer. Immanuel Lutheran Church is located on the corner of Chandler Park drive and Dickerson, in Detroit. June Jones is coordinating the entire program.

Miss Cracchiolo Wed In St. Paul's

Late Afternoon Ceremony at Which She Becomes Bride of Thomas Peter Misuraca Is Followed by Reception at Gourmet House

In Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore Friday, November 23, with Father James F. Cronk presiding at the 4:30 o'clock rites, Bernadette Anne Cracchiolo spoke her marriage vows to Thomas Peter Misuraca.

She is the daughter of the Sam Cracchiolos, of Kenwood road. The Dominic P. Misuracas, of Harper Woods, are the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds, who left to vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after a reception at the Gourmet House, will make their home in Prestwick road.

The bride's ivory English net gown was appliqued with Alencon lace studded with pearls and beads. Matching beaded lace appliques accented her bouffant mantilla and she carried an arrangement of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and roses.

Her attendants' ruby velvet frocks were trimmed with ivory peau de soie. They carried baskets filled with pink, bride's cousins, Marie Misuraca, the bridegroom's cousin, Denise Bologna and Helen Karay.

Junior bridesmaids were Annita Cracchiolo, the bride's sister, and Joanne Misuraca, the bridegroom's sister. Best man was Dan Zablocki. Guests were seated by Sam, Jim and Tim Cracchiolo, the bride's brothers, Tony Misuraca and Sam Mannino, the bridegroom's cousins, Peter Cracchiolo, the bride's cousin, Steve Slattery and Lee Padula.

Flower girl and ring bearer were Carolyn Moran, the bridegroom's cousin, and John Cracchiolo, the bride's brother.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pale green silk chiffon with all-over gold beading, the bridegroom's mother a pale blue silk gown fashioned with a beaded bodice and cuffs. Both mothers chose white orchid corsages.

Cut-of-town guests included the Emil Massaros, of Fort Lauderdale, and the William Elliotts, of Minerva, O.

Holiday Event For Youngsters

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is inviting all Pointe children, (nursery school through third grade), to a special free Christmas show, to meet Santa Claus and enjoy complimentary refreshments in the Center's Fries auditorium and ballroom on the afternoon of Sunday, December 16, at 2 o'clock.

The Center's Youth Council will host the party.

In the auditorium Sy Sims will put on a Special Christmas Magic and Puppet Show and two Disney Christmas shorts, "The Littlest Angel" and "Raggedy Ann and Andy," will be shown.

The children then will be invited into the ballroom where Santa Claus will greet them by the big Christmas Tree and Santa's Helpers will distribute candy canes, cocoa and cookies.

Complimentary tickets are available now at the Center's office.

Pointers Dance In 'Nutcracker' Ballet

The Contemporary Civic Ballet Company under the direction of Rose Marie Floyd will perform The Nutcracker Ballet, Act 2, with the Mount Clemens Symphony Orchestra under the direction of James Tamburini, of Grayton road, Saturday, December 15, at 8:15 o'clock at Mount Clemens High School.

Special guest artists will be Gay Wallstrom and Ramon Segarra. Gay will dance the Sugar Plum Fairy. Mr. Segarra will be the Cavalier. Gay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Wallstrom, of Lochmoor boulevard.

She has danced professionally in solo parts with New York City Center's Joffrey Ballet Company for four years, and has toured with the Company throughout the United States and Europe.

She also has danced with the New York City Opera Company at Lincoln Center and appeared on the Joey Bishop TV Show.

During her school years Gay's ballet teacher was Miss Floyd. Gay danced with the Contemporary Civic Ballet for five years and was the lead dancer in Miss Floyd's production of Midsummer Night's Dream at Utah State University.

Ramon Segarra, just returned from a year as ballet master and principal dancer of the Hamburg State Opera, Germany, is former associate director, ballet master and principal dancer of the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre.

He has danced with Balanchine's New York City Ballet, (four years), and with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, the National Ballet of Canada and the Pennsylvania Ballet.

He is presently assistant to Andre Eglevsky, has aided in re-staging full-length Sleeping Beauty and Coppelia ballets for the Eglevsky Ballet Company, and is associate director of the Ballet Hispanico of New York.

Also appearing in The Nutcracker will be Michele Kapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kapp, of Edmonton drive, and Susan Wallstrom, members of the Contemporary Civic Ballet.

Michele and Susan performed in Coppelia with the Company December 9, with the Oak Park Symphony Orchestra. Both girls are students at Grosse Pointe North High School.

Tickets for the performance, adults $3, students $1.50, may be purchased at the door.

Set Christmas Pops Program in Symphony Yule Festival

Songs of the season, past and present, will be included on the Christmas Pops Concert program presented by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra as part of its 1973 Christmas Festival tomorrow, Friday, December 14, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Richard Hayman, popular Pops conductor-arranger, will be on the podium. The Concert also will feature the Rackham Symphony Choir under the direction of Charles Heard.

The program includes a touch of the classics with Shostakovich's Festival Overture, a generous portion of such popular favorites as Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer and The Little Drummer Boy and Hayman-arranged medleys of traditional carols.

The program also includes excerpts from Alfred Newman's score for the film The Greatest Story Ever Told and a segment entitled Sleigh Rides Past and Present—1773-1973, featuring works by Mozart, Prokofiev and Leroy Anderson.

Holiday surprise selections will be included too, of course.

Tickets are priced at $2.50, $4 and $5.50, with half-price admission for children 12 and under.

Saturday, December 15, 11 and 2 o'clock performances of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Detroit Severo Ballet Company will repeat the enchanting brilliantly-staged production that is a Detroit holiday tradition.

The Nutcracker played to standing room only audiences on December 8.

Guest conductor Samuel Jones will be on the podium for the Christmas classic Saturday.

Tickets, priced at $1.50, $2 and $3, are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

Christmas Pops tickets also are on sale at these locations: Handel's Messiah concludes the 1973 Christmas Festival with performances at 8:30 Saturday evening, December 15, and 3:30 Sunday afternoon, December 16.

Matthias Bamert, associate conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra, will conduct. Guest soloists include Doralene Davis, soprano, Barbara Windham, alto, Waldie Anderson, tenor, and Fredric Moses, bass.

The Kenneth Jewell Chorale will join the Orchestra for these performances, both of which were sold out well in advance.

Regina High Mothers To Present Bake Sale

Regina High Mothers' Guild will conduct its annual Christmas Bake Sale Tuesday, December 18, from 9 in the morning through the evening in the lobby of the High School in Kelly road, Harper Woods.

Home-baked breads, cookies and pies will be supplied by the Regina Mothers and the nuns under the direction of Sister Lucinda, are again baking their delicious peanut butter cookies.

Factory-baked bagels will be available. Chairman is Charlotte Miklas.

Vacationing recently at Sun City, Ariz., were MR. and MRS. GRANT EVANS, of West Kings court.

Children's Theatre to Present 'Hobbit'

"Live" Dragon Will Be Featured on Stage as Youngsters' Dramatic Group Launches Its 20th Season Saturday in Fries Auditorium

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre launches its 20th season Saturday, December 15, at 11 and 2 o'clock, with a production of J. R. R. Tolkien's "The Hobbit," a musical dramatization of the famous fairy tale about hobbits, those happy gnome-like creatures who are only half as tall as normal men and have curly hair on their feet.

The play, presented by and for children, will be staged in Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

Tickets may be obtained at the War Memorial and Punch and Judy Toyland on the Hill, or by calling TUXedo 5-6219 or TUXedo 4-4678.

Price is $1 for children, $1.50 for adults, and 85c for groups of 20 or more.

"Hobbit" producer is Mrs. Syd Reynolds, founder of Children's Theatre. Guest director is Dennis Wickline, an alumnus of the group and a 1973 Michigan State University graduate. Musical director is Mrs. John Mazer.

Two actors alternate in the major roles, one performing at 11, the other at 2 o'clock. Thus an actor is always available in case of illness of his partner.

The story line centers on hobbit, Bilbo Baggins, played by Jeff Austin and Tom Wiselley, who is convinced by Gandalf the wizard, played by Kevin Conley and Dennis Wickline, to accompany him and 13 dwarves on a daring adventure.

The dwarves, led by Thorin

Oakenshield played by Ellen Alpert and Laura Bentley, are off to recapture a lost treasure which was stolen from them by the evil dragon Smaug.

Along the way Bilbo, Gandalf and the dwarves run into trolls, goblins, elves and a frog-like creature called Gollum.

Cast members include Rick Berg, Jerry Michaels and Bob Coyle as the trolls, Marguerite Judge and Barbara Wood as the Elven Queen, Tom Keydel as the great Goblin and Randy Higgins as Gollum.

Dwarves are played by Karen Alpert, Jennifer Biel, Patricia Lees, Gretchen Dietz, Cindy Wallace, Camille Nowosielski, Marie Trombley, Christie Roberts Don Emmerick, Theresa Trombley, Richard Valente, Denise Wickline, Lisa Henrichs, Jean Lambrecht, Tammy Lapo, Lynn Ann Pellerito, Becki Roberts, Mitzi

Clark, Amy Lehman, Keegan McCarthy, Evelyn Scoville, Cindy Warner, Chris Laffer and Paul Bockstanz.

Bilbo's Hobbit neighbors will be played by Kim Mascar, Carrie Mascar, Molly McCarthy, Carolyn Elvidge, Denis Guevara, Diane Tubbs, Jackie Dupree, Susan Anthony, Sarah Townsend, Karen Thomas, Vicki Webers, Phoebe Wall, Allyson Messer, Diane Szabo, Nancy Repp, Andrea Pastoria, Cathy Trog, Jean Hannan, Mark Graham, Julia Healy, Wendy Weaver, Katey Mercier, Michele Ladd and Gary Lash.

Special features include a "live" dragon on stage and Peggy Sieradski's spider dance.

Ballet Program Set at Center

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Corps de Ballet will present a holiday ballet recital in Fries Auditorium Friday evening, December 21, at 8 o'clock.

The production will be choreographed and directed by Mary Ellen Cooper with Mrs. Irene Cooper as accompanist.

The evening will be divided into three divertissements.

The opening group will dance a traditional ballet on points to Beethoven's Sonata Opus 10, No. 1. Advanced members of the troop including Sarah Bleich, Pat Blinkhorn, Katy Eisey, Sally Face, Judi Fennessee, Mary Christine Foely, Gail Hammond, Julie Helin, Marie Leithausser, Mimi Bookman, Anna Piatt and Kathy Rowe will perform.

The second divertissement will feature dances from Bizet's Carmen including the Children's Chorus from Act I, a Habanera danced by Gail Hammond and the Smuggler's Scene and Gypsy Dance.

The final group will be a children's ballet of story book characters with Julie Helin as Alice in Wonderland welcoming the Pied Piper, Cinderella, the Three Little Kittens and other old friends.

Ballet recital tickets are now available at the Center at $1.50 for adults, $1 for children under 12.

Candlelight Rites For Miss Schueler

William Brian Ferrys Vacation in Toronto after Their Evening Wedding and Reception at Lochmoor Club

At a candlelight service Friday evening, November 23, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Susan Lynn Schueler, daughter of the Robert Schuelers, of North Oxford road, spoke her marriage vows to William Brian Ferry.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce Ferry, of Littlestone road. The 7:30 o'clock rites at which Dr. John Oiert presided were followed by a re-

Lauretta Fogt To Be Bride

Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Fogt, of Neff road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lauretta Lee, to Lawrence Hodge, son of Captain and Mrs. Harry A. Hodge, of Tamarac, Fla.

Miss Fogt is presently teaching in the Fraser Public School System. Mr. Hodge is vice-president of Marketing and Design Consultant with Avantec, Inc., of Miami. The wedding is planned for April 27.

reception at Lochmoor Club.

The newlyweds vacationed in Toronto and are making their home in Warren.

Cluny and Venise lace accented the high neckline and full Bishop sleeves of the bride's satin organza gown. Matching lace covered her bodice and formed a front panel on her skirt.

A lace baby doll cap caught her lace-edged illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of gardenias and stephanotis.

Attendants, in multi-colored tapestry skirts and ivory crepe blouses, were honor matron Mrs. Robert Schueler, Jr., and bridesmaids Mrs. James Schueler, Jr., of Kalamazoo, the bride's cousin, Mrs. John Beckman, of Benton Harbor, Mrs. M. Steven LaCroix, of Lexington, Va., and Mrs. James Pontitz, of Holland, Mich. Each carried a votive

Children's Asthmatic Classes Scheduled

Children's Asthmatic Classes are now being scheduled by the Metropolitan Society for Crippled Children and Adults in connection with the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan.

The classes are for youngsters between the ages of 6 and 12 years and are held at Metropolitan Society headquarters in Schaefer highway, Detroit. Each class will continue for 8 to 10 weeks.

A physician's referral is necessary to gain admittance to the program.

Classes are aimed at educating the child and his parents about asthma and teaching the child a series of breathing exercises to enable him to cope with his problems.

In the near future the program will include a parent's group, meeting monthly to hear a speaker and discuss related topics. A workshop is being organized to train therapists to instruct asthmatic classes.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mary Kesteloot at 341-4900 or Sue Gibson at 961-1697.

League-Goodwill Workers Honored

Junior League of Detroit's Annual Holiday Dinner and Party for Handicapped Employees is Being Presented Today

A traditional turkey dinner and the "Blue Figs" highlight the annual League for the Handicapped-Goodwill Industries Christmas party today, Thursday, December 13.

The party, honoring 400 handicapped workers, begins at 11:30 o'clock at the League-Goodwill Building in Ash street, Detroit.

It is sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit which founded the Detroit League for the Handicapped in 1921. Business firms throughout the metropolitan area have donated prizes and gifts.

Ladies' corsages have been made by the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club, Windmill Pointe Farm and Garden Club, Chapel Hill (Continued on Page 25)

Merry Widow Opens Jan. 18

An unprecedented demand for tickets has moved Michigan Opera Theatre to schedule an extra performance of its January production "The Merry Widow."

The additional performance is set for Sunday evening, January 20, at 8:30 o'clock. Other dates for "The Merry Widow" are January 18, 25 and 26 at 8:30 o'clock and a matinee January 23 at 2:30 o'clock. All shows are in the Music Hall Center.

Ticket prices are $3, $5, $7 and $9. Student and Senior Citizen discounts are available.

"The Merry Widow" stars Catherine Christensen as Anna and John Reardon alternating with Charles Roe as Danilo. Canadian favorite Jan Rubes and newcomer Mary Wakefield are featured.

Stage director and choreographer is Lois Bewley, formerly of the New York City and Jerome Robbins Ballet Companies.

Tickets for this popular turn-of-the-century musical play by Franz Lehár are available at the Music Hall Box Office, 963-7680.

Yule Lunch Planned By Retired Teachers

Mercy College Conference Center will be setting for a noon Christmas luncheon hosted by the executive board of the Detroit Retired Teachers Association tomorrow, Friday, December 14.

The Mumford High School Choir will present a program of holiday music. Reservations are required.

New Album For Symphony

Dr. Paul Freeman, conductor-in-residence of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, conducted the Orchestra in its first recording session in over 10 years Monday, November 26.

This was the Orchestra's initial album in the historic 20-album Black Composers' series to be released on the Columbia Masterworks label.

As artistic director of the project Dr. Freeman is slated to conduct all the albums. He already has completed three records with the London Symphony Orchestra. The Columbia series, presently known as the "Recorded Anthology of Music by Black Symphonic Composers," will be released in sets of four albums over a five-year period.

It will trace the history of Black symphonic music through a 200-year period, including composers of many nations.

Other major American and European orchestras will record in this series along with the Detroit Symphony.

"The number of commercial recordings of music by Black composers on the market is very small," says Dr. Freeman, explaining the project.

"While there are 16 different complete sets of the Beethoven symphonies alone available on commercial records, the Schwann's Catalog lists only 13 single recordings by six Black composers. And most of these are on non-commercial labels.

"Since the curriculum of most urban public schools and many universities is now including consideration of Black cultures — and the schools and universities are frustrated and handicapped through lack of recordings of Black composers—this project addresses itself to music educators as well as the general public."

The extensive volume of recordings is being produced in collaboration with the Afro-American Music Opportunities Association.

The Irwin-Sweeney-Miller Foundation of Columbus, Ind., is providing the initial planning grant.

Chief consultant for the project is Dr. Dominique-Rene deLerma, associate professor of Musicology and Music Librarian at Indiana University.

Detroiters were treated to a preview of part of the recording session Friday and Saturday evenings, November 23 and 24, when Dr. Freeman conducted the Detroit Symphony in concerts that included one of the selections to be recorded, the Violin Concerto by Afro-Panamanian Roque Cordero played by New York Philharmonic violinist Canford Allen.

Also presented were Respighi's "Ancient Airs and Dances" Suite, Medea's Meditation and Dance of Vengeance by Barber and the Sinfonie No. 1 in G by Saint-Georges, a French African of the 18th century.

The Saturday concert was on the Orchestra's regular subscription series.

The Friday night program was part of the new Zodiac Series which featured a "plus" at 7:30 o'clock in the form of a Prelude panel discussion, "The Black Influence on Symphonic Music."

The panel included composer Cordero, Dr. deLerma, (who edited the Saint-Georges symphony), and Josephine Harrel Love, director of Your Heritage House.

Sr. Cordero and Dr. deLerma came to Detroit especially for the concerts and the recording sessions.

Dr. Freeman, fast becoming one of the country's top recording conductors, has completed three albums for Orion Records this year.

Alencon Lace Trimmed With Pearls Accents Bride's White Satin Gown; Matching Lace Headpiece Catches Her Veil

David B. Van Pelt, Jr., son of the David Van Pelts, of Cameron place, claimed Carolyn Ann Barker, daughter of the Robert William Barkers, of Mount Carmel, Conn., as his bride Saturday, November 17 in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

The Reverend Charles MacDonald presided at the noon rites which were followed by a reception at The Royal Footman, Hamden, Conn.

The bride's gown of white satin and Alencon lace trimmed with pearls featured a high neckline and Cathedral length train.

Her veil fell from a matching lace headpiece and she carried a cascade of mixed foliage, white roses, stephanotis and statice.

She was attended by her Saint Joseph's College, Bennington, Vt., classmates, Jayne DeLeo, of Stamford, Conn., as maid of honor, and Colleen Kenna, also of Stamford, Pamela Cizmiesia, of Hanover, N.H., and Anna Condon, of Pittsford, Vt., as bridesmaids.

Their cotton faille frocks were floral-printed on an ivory background.

Best man was David Bruce. The bridegroom's brother Bruce Van Pelt, the bride's brother Edward Barker and James Cadwell ushered.

The newlyweds are making their home in Sterling Heights. The bridegroom,

Phase I Plans Dance Program

The International Dancers from the International Institute will perform at a meeting of Phase I at 7:30 o'clock this Sunday, December 16, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Singles between the ages of 20 and 40 are invited. A social hour will follow the program.

Phase I will attend Christmas at Greenfield Village Sunday afternoon, December 16. Interested singles are asked to meet in the Memorial Church parking lot at 12:30 o'clock.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

who attended Roger and Williams in Rhode Island, is now a student at Macomb College. The bride received her Associate in Arts degree from Saint Joseph's.
