Thursday, February 6
THE HOUSE WAYS and Means Committee today approved a $20.15 billion emergency tax cut bill which would include rebates of up to $200 for 1974 taxpayers. The bill was supported by an overwhelming bipartisan majority and is substantially bigger than the $16 billion cut requested by President Ford. The bill is aimed primarily at middle and low income taxpayers. It calls for a 10 percent tax rebate with a maximum $200 refund and a minimum of $100. It would be scaled so that poorer families get the larger rebates. Also included would be an $8.4 billion cut in 1975 taxes and $3.8 billion in corporate tax relief.

THE MICHIGAN HOUSE of Representatives voted yesterday to remain on standard time until April 27, almost two months after most of the country will have switched to daylight savings time. The vote to switch to fast time on February 23, when most states will move their clocks ahead, defeated the measure 55-51. A new vote can be held and daylight savings time supporters say they will press for another vote soon. The Michigan Senate adopted the measure last week.

ART THIEVES are demanding a $4.8 million ransom for the return of three priceless Renaissance paintings stolen from the Urbino Ducal Palace in Italy. One painting is by Raphael and the other two are by Piero della Francesca. The paintings were stolen Thursday. Two ransom demands were made but Prosecutor Savoldelli Pedrocchi said one was considered a hoax. Authorities said they expected a ransom demand since the paintings are too well-known to be sold.

SEVERAL HUNDRED former U.S. Special Forces soldiers and other retired Vietnam War veterans are being recruited by a private American contractor to train Saudi Arabian troops to protect oil fields. The Pentagon is handling the $77 million contract which will be paid for by the Saudis. The Vinnell Corp. of Los Angeles, was awarded the contract which it said is the first ever given to a private American company to train a foreign army. The training is to be done over a three-year period.

FORMER CIA DIRECTOR Richard M. Helms has admitted he gave incomplete testimony on two occasions to a Senate Foreign Relations Committee about CIA activities in Chile. He said he felt disclosure of certain CIA operations against the government of Chilean President Salvador Allende could have further damaged relations between the U.S. and Chile. Helms, now U.S. Ambassador to Iran, could face a prejury investigation. The testimony in question was made in 1973 when he said the CIA did not pass money to opponents of Allende or try to overthrow that government.

PRESIDENT FORD said, before some 500 oil men, the only way Congress could substitute gas rationing for his comprehensive energy program would be "over my dead body." The president told the group it is better to conserve fuel by raising prices rather than a government rationing program. He said rationing would be unfair to consumers and would not stimulate higher domestic production. Mr. Ford wants to reduce imports by a million barrels a day and use tariff increases to raise prices and cut consumption.

Crashes through Window of Surrounded House, Leaps into Lake and Changes Mind

A 30-year-old Warren man is being held in the Wayne County Jail under a $10,000 bond on a charge of breaking and entering a Farms residence Monday, February 3.

Farms police caught up with Edward Anthony Martichuski, of 7012 Hudson avenue, Warren, after he had jumped into Lake St. Clair and began swimming toward Canada.

The suspect decided to return to shore after officers fired warning shots into the air over the lake. After he swam to shore he was taken by ambulance to Saint John Hospital where he was treated for exposure and injuries sustained when he jumped through a window in the Farms residence, police said.

Farms police received a report from a Lakeshore road resident about 1 a.m. that someone was in the home. Farms and City officers went to the scene and surrounded the home. They observed a man crash through a rear window leading to the backyard, fall to the ground then get up and run from the house, police said.

Parking at Post Office Sprags Renovation Plans

By Barbara Bruno
Contractors who were denied a building permit for proposed renovations at the United States Post Office branch in The Farms brought their appeal before the Farms Council Monday, February 3, but a decision on the matter was delayed until the Post Office can outline what allowances have been made for improved parking in the area.

City Manager Andrew Bremer said the branch office is a desired convenience for residents but poses problems as well. "We like the service the Post Office provides for our citizens but we sit in meetings time after time with the parking problems. The city must stand up now against

Pair of Blazes Damage Two Woods Residences; Two Men Suffer Injuries

Hot Water Heater Ignites Oil from Ruptured Tank; Shores Firefighters Assist at Both Fires on Feb. 2 and 3

Firefighters battled a pair of blazes in The Woods for over an hour on Sunday, February 2, and Monday, February 3. Two persons were injured, one in each blaze, and both were treated and released at Saint John Hospital.

Woods firemen also learned from an insurance company that an estimated total of $75,000 in damages occurred in a fire at Werthmann Group Inc., 1933 Vernier road, early last month.

A total of 25 firefighters, including Woods auxiliary officers, fought a blaze at 1831 Prestwick road on the 2nd, while 26, including auxiliaries, battled a fire at 894 Hidden lane on the 3rd.

Oil Tank Blew Up
In the Prestwick blaze, Lt. Peter Thomas said in his report that officers, upon their arrival, were told an oil tank had blown up in the basement, which was full of burning oil. Investigation revealed that the entire home was fully charged with smoke and heat.

The house was vented on the main floor and in the basement by removing several windows. Contributing to the extinguishment in the basement was the fact that the house was shut and the water heater sprang a leak, releasing a large amount of water in the area, the lieutenant said.

A contractor, Edward Sharp, 70, of Detroit, was removing oil from a tank in the basement when it somehow ruptured, allowing fuel oil to spread throughout. The oil then ignited, probably from the open flame on the hot water heater, stated Lt. Thomas.

Treated in Hospital
Mr. Sharp was burned when he attempted to put the fire out. He was treated for second degree burns on the forehead and hands at Saint John.

High heat in the home also melted the solder on the gas meter causing a gas leak. The gas company was notified about this. Officers added the flames spread on the ceiling and wall finish of the basement.

Dr. Stephen Kay was treated for smoke inhalation and minor burns from the fire, the cause of which is undetermined, at his Hidden lane residence.

Lt. Allan Selby reported, upon his arrival, that a large amount of smoke was emitting from the house, while flames were flashing from a bedroom window. The attack was made in this area

Shores Fire Losses Rise

The Shores fire loss during 1974 increased more than 1000 percent, according to information released by Joseph Vitale, chief of the Public Safety Department.

The chief said that the grand total loss last year was $39,259, which included the destruction of a large cabin cruiser valued at $15,949. He said that last year, fire damage to dwellings amounted to a total of $21,000, and to the contents in the dwellings, $2,410.28. Chief Vitale said that his department, which is an integrated police and fire department, responded to a total of 75 alarms last year, of which nine were false. In 1973, he said, the total fire loss in the Village amounted to only $3,179. The department responded to 51 alarms in that year, he added.

Symphony's Concert Set For Feb. 23

Mrs. Harriet Gerlach, Pianist, Will Be Soloist at North High Performing Arts Center

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra has set Sunday, February 23, as the date for the third concert of its 22nd season. The concert, under the direction of Felix Resnick, will begin at 3:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center of North High School.

The orchestra will present as its program The Overture to La Gazza ladra, by Rossini, the Schumann Concerto in A minor for Piano and Orchestra, and the Symphony No. 4 by Tchaikovsky.

Guest soloist, playing the Schumann piano concerto, will be Harriet Gerlach. Mrs. Gerlach is an active member of the Detroit Tuesday Musicales and the Four Octave Club. She also serves on the Board of the Mount Clemens Community Concert Series and teaches privately in her home in Utica.

Mrs. Gerlach began her formal piano lessons when she was eight years old. At 14, while coaching with the late Dr. Rudolph Ganz, she won an audition to appear with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra performing the Beethoven Piano Concerto No. 1.

Mrs. Gerlach received her Bachelor in Music degree from Ithaca College, New York, followed by post graduate work at Yale University.

Plan Reception
A reception follows the concert, giving members of the audience an opportunity to meet the guest soloist, conductor, orchestra members and friends.

Mrs. Louis Duenweg, Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee member, is in charge of the reception. Other committee members who will pour are Mrs. William G. Self, committee chairman, Mrs. Franklin D. Carr, Mrs. Charles Ewing, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Elmo L. Joseph, Mrs. Peden A. Meikle and Mrs. Thomas Newsletter.

More are Mrs. Russell D. Reed, Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, Mrs. Frank J. Weston and Mrs. Gardner Strawbridge. Tickets for the concert are available at $3 for adults and $1.50 for students. Further information may be obtained by calling 885-8861.

Seniors at SHS Continue Battle To Avoid Exams

Pair Go Before Board with Proposal Suggesting Alternative to Mandatory Finals Reinstated Last Year

By Nancy Kramer
South High seniors again brought the question of final exams before the Board of Education at a regular meeting Monday, February 10, and discussion on the matter took a more positive tone as two students, Kim Duross and Julie Tennyson, proposed a constructive, though perhaps unfeasible, alternative to mandatory finals.

In the past, a number of students have suggested the Board do away with the mandatory finals for seniors. At last month's regular meeting another South student appeared before the trustees to find out what steps she, as chairperson of a finals removal committee, should take to have the exams made optional as they were in the past.

Reinstated Last Year
For some time senior finals had been optional, but the tests were re-instated by a Board policy decision in February 1974.

The students generally feel senior finals don't figure heavily in the college admissions picture since, by the time they are given, most pupils have already been accepted by universities.

Kim reiterated that point at Monday's meeting and said the students she spoke for felt some sort of senior project program would be a more valuable learning experience than a year-end review for final tests.

Though her group's proposal was, by her own admission, quite vague, Kim said, as an alternative to an exam, a student could make his project a real culmination of what he had learned during the year.

An example she cited was that a pupil who planned to go into art might prepare a complete portfolio as his project.

"We feel a student would benefit more from this sort of thing," she explained, "than if he went home and memorized everything for an exam."

Students Divided
Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams asked Kim to estimate how many of her classmates would opt for the project she had described over a final exam.

"I would say about half," she replied. Kim also felt teachers and career counselors would be receptive to the idea.

FARMS MEETING CANCELLED

The regular Farms Council meeting, scheduled to be held Monday, February 17, has been cancelled since that day is Washington's birthday and city offices will be closed. The Farms Council voted to cancel the meeting at the council meeting held Monday, February 3. The next meeting of The Farms Council will be on Monday, March 3.

A reception follows the concert, giving members of the audience an opportunity to meet the guest soloist, conductor, orchestra members and friends.

To Submit Ordinance To Neighbor

Hope to Solve Problem Created by Fact Recreation Site Is in St. Clair Shores

By Roger A. Waha

In an attempt to reach a solution to a nagging problem regarding the enforcement of rules and regulations governing the Lake Front Park, The Woods Council unanimously agreed to submit an ordinance regulating conduct in privately owned parks for St. Clair Shores officials to consider. This action was taken at a special council meeting Monday, February 10.

A main aspect of this problem is the fact that the city's park is located, not in The Woods, but in St. Clair Shores. Flowing from this are ensuing jurisdictional complications.

A city representative, (or representatives), is planning to give a presentation on this matter before St. Clair Shores councilmen, possibly within a month.

"They (St. Clair Shores), suggested this might be an answer to our problem and they would consider an ordinance if we submitted one," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

Has Own Ordinance
Last August the St. Clair Shores Council approved an ordinance putting its park rules in writing. However, in his reading of the law, City Attorney George Catlin said there was no application to private parks owned by other communities.

But now, with the drafting of this private park ordinance for St. Clair Shores' consideration, this problem could be alleviated, with SCS' approval.

Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann said, if the measure is (Continued on Page 2)

Wooten Praised For Brave Deed

Farms Cpl. Ronald B. Wooten has been recommended for a departmental Award of Valor for his exceptional bravery in rescuing a man from a vehicle that had been involved in an accident and was resting near hot wires from a utility pole.

The accident occurred January 26, at 1:28 a.m., in front of 258 Moran. Cpl. Wooten and Officer John Kraiza were at the scene and observed the vehicle resting on the top of a sheared-off Edison pole.

Police said a man in the car, David Anderson, was seriously injured in the face and there was a possibility he had seriously bodily injuries as well.

Wires near the scene were arcing and there was danger of the vehicle being electrically charged. Officers said the man tried to exit the car several times but they were able to talk him into remaining in the vehicle. Police said flames then appeared in the engine compartment of the car and the man was in great physical danger.

Officer Kraiza, in recommending his partner for a commendation, said Cpl. Wooten used a great amount of courage and risked his own life by pulling the subject from the electrified vehicle.

He said that less than a minute from the time the man was removed, the passenger compartment of the car burst into flames.

Officer Kraiza made a request to his shift commander that Cpl. Wooten be cited for an act performed above and beyond the call of duty. He noted that without the corporal's actions, Mr. Anderson may have been electrocuted or burned in the explosion of the vehicle.

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber agreed and passed on his recommendation that the citation be awarded.

Second Graders Express Many Definitions of Love

When Barnes Elementary School teacher Irene Lowther noticed a few of her second graders passing love notes in class, she decided to make something out of it. "What is love?" she asked the students.

"It was a spur of the moment thing really," Mrs. Lowther explained, "an assignment given during one of last week's morning classes."

The children's written responses to her question are taped on to the rear wall of the classroom now and with Valentine's Day being celebrated this Friday, it looks as if the second graders have made a fitting contribution to their classroom decor. The "essays" show surprising originality. Many are decorated with drawings of families, boats and hearts. One more worldly-wise youngster portrayed a couple standing alongside a tree exchanging a kiss.

Some of the answers, each containing the students' own unique sentence structures and spellings, are printed below. Title of the assignment was "All About Love." To Jennifer Cook, love seemed happy.

"Love is a speshle feeling. A feeling of happiness. And a feeling of sharing love is being kind to other people. Love is helping other people. Love is something everyone has. You can't see it but you can feel it with your hart." (Continued on Page 2)

Shores' 1974 Crime Rate Up Slightly, Chief Reports

Continued cooperation between citizens and the Public Safety Department, and the quick response of police to phone calls by residents, is the reason The Shores is still categorized as a "peaceful community" by Chief Joseph Vitale.

The chief said that the village had a good year in 1974, although there has been a crime increase which, he pointed out, "was minimal." "I think our officers have done a good job in 1974, and are continuing this trend in 1975," Chief Vitale said. "Even when making traffic arrests, our officers go out of their way to extend every courtesy to offenders." The chief said that crime has gone up a little in the Shores, but nothing to speak of. For instance, burglaries, which went from five in 1973 to 10 last year, and attempted break-ins, which rose from three to seven.

Larcenies went from 54 to 78 bicycle thefts from 22 to 41, and stolen car thefts from one to five, but in each case, the vehicles were recovered.

Armed robberies in 1974 were two, whereas in 1973, it was one, but vandalism cases showed a decrease, 56 last year as compared to 62 the year before.

Drug cases also showed a drop, the chief pointed out, from 37 in 1973 to 21 last year, which indicates that the "kids are starting to realize how dangerous hard drugs are and are getting away from it."

In the traffic violation situation, Chief Vitale said, last year the number of tickets issued was 1,797, as compared to 1,966 issued in 1973. Village ordinance violations, however, rose from 71 in 1973 to 80 in 1974.

In both 1973 and 1974, there was one traffic fatality, but accidents that involved injuries rose from 16 to 25 and non-injury accidents went from 31 to 42. The number of runs with the Village emergency ambulance remained nearly the same, 103 in 1974 and 105 in 1973.

Chief Vitale is optimistic about the future.

Park Ordinance Drafted by Woods

(Continued from Page 1) okayed by St. Clair Shores, park personnel would have necessary support in enforcing present park rules and regulations.

New Set of Teeth
In a nutshell, the "rules and regs" would have a new set of "teeth" regarding enforcement. As a result, life would be more pleasant for recreation department personnel and for citizens of the community.

As approved for submission to St. Clair Shores, the ordinance's purpose is to regulate the use of privately owned parks and park property in that city "in order that such parks may operate without creating a nuisance and to protect the rights of those owning property adjacent to such parks."

The measure contains eight different parts including definitions, control of vehicles, park property, recreational activities, nuisances and behavior, permits, park operating hours, and a part centering upon entrance to private parks, ejection from the park, penalties and the effective date, (which is conditional upon St. Clair Shores' approval).

Under "control of vehicles," there are various sections including those on vehicle and traffic laws, direction of traffic, operation of vehicles within private parks, special provisions applicable to bicycles, tricycles, motorcycles, scooters and mini-bikes, plus parking.

Sections governing buildings and other property, trees, shrubbery and lawns, protection of wild animals and sanitation are found under "park property."

Meanwhile, under "recreational activities," there are sections viewing swimming, boating, fishing, water skiing, firearms and dangerous instruments, picnic areas and use, camping, fires, animals and pets, (no domestic animals or pets are permitted unless a written permit is obtained from the park director), and games.

Beverages Controlled
"Nuisances and behavior" contains several sections including alcoholic beverages, (no person shall bring into, consume or sell such beverages in a private park except as authorized by the park owners), drunkenness, gambling, contributions, restroom and bathing facilities, noise, exhibition of permits, merchandising, advertising and signs and language and gestures.

On ejection from the park, the proposal says "any person found violating any provision of this chapter shall either be arrested or ejected from the park and/or have their permit confiscated and park privileges suspended for a period to be determined by the director."

Finally, anyone charged with violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, "and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, or imprisonment up to 90 days, or both," the measure states under the penalties section.

Finally, several members of the group recently spent two days in an IRS training seminar to learn how to assist others in preparing income tax forms. Mrs. Sutton cited this as an example of serving the community through the organization.

Those who participated include Adele Ryder, Nora Blix, Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenburg.

FLEC to Fete Its Volunteers
The board of directors of the Pointe's Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), will host a "thank you" reception for volunteers Saturday, February 15, from 2 to 4 p.m., at the Ballantyne road home of Mrs. Kenneth Adler. Mrs. Myles Griffith, a volunteer in the FLEC office, is reception chairman.

John H. Williams, M.D., FLEC president, notes that "FLEC programs could not function without volunteer assistance. Volunteer nurses and volunteer doctors run the Voluntary Medical Clinic at Center Point.

"Volunteer nurses and volunteer pharmacists have played a vital role in the previous FLEC Methadone Withdrawal Program. Trained youth volunteers man the phones at Center Point Crisis Intervention Center, and the FLEC office could not function without its volunteers."

Volunteer adults and youths also play a major role in the planning and operation of new FLEC programs and short-term projects.

The most recent addition to FLEC services is Dialogue, a "hotline" for adults who need help but don't know where to turn. It is open Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and can be reached by calling 881-0270.

Trained volunteers offer a listening ear plus information and referrals on family problems. All inquiries are confidential.

Further information can be obtained by calling the FLEC office at 885-3510.

Seniors Slate Busy Schedule

Members of the "Woods Heritage Group," senior citizens organization, are continuing to roll along with many activities for residents.

Dr. Wayne Jens from the Detroit Edison Co. will address the citizens at their second monthly meeting Thursday, February 20, at Saint Michael's Episcopal Church, 20475 Sunningdale, at noon. A nuclear physicist, Dr. Jens will speak on atomic energy.

Around 100 citizens attended the group's Thursday, February 6, session at Saint Michael's. At that time, John Montgomery spoke on antiquing new and old frames. His demonstration was so well received by members that Mr. Montgomery agreed to come back again in the future.

The seniors have planned a variety of activities, including several trips for this year. They will visit North High School Friday, February 21, for dinner, (at $3.50 per person), in the cafeteria at 5:30 p.m. before viewing a production of "Romeo and Juliet" at 8 p.m.

On April 12, the organization is planning a two-week trip to Hawaii, and on May 8-13, a tour of the Grand Ole Opry in Tennessee is scheduled. A four-day trip to Toronto is planned for June 4, and then, a big 17-day journey to Alberta, British Columbia and Alaska will take place July 16. Finally, the group will go to Mackinac October 7-8.

Love Is . . .

For Jeff Figley, love meant a boy-girl relationship: "Love is when a boy likes a girl very very much and a girl likes a boy very very much."

And John Cobau pointed out one of love's mythological connotations: "They say cuped shoots arrows of love and makes people love each other . . ."

Aaron Krickstein demonstrated his willingness to get involved: "It is sharing and I show love by helping people and wen people need help I help them and I like helping people and love is fun and loving is good and I am filled with love."

And, finally, at least one member of the class, David Balcarzak, was not afraid to bring his commitment out into the open: "Love is sharing. And helping that is love. And loving is good. And loving can do lots of things did you know that? And there is a girl in my room that I love."

Appeals Board Slates Hearing

The Woods Council unanimously set a Board of Appeals hearing date of Monday, February 24, on a variance request by the Woods Sport Shoppe, 20559 Mack avenue. This action was taken at the Monday, February 3, regular meeting.

At its Tuesday, January 28, session, the Planning Commission voted to recommend to the council that the proposed single story addition to the existing building be approved.

Andrew Bonior, in a letter to the council, requested a variance in the off-street parking requirements in connection with the proposed addition.

Park Council Adopts New Law on Charity Soliciting

The Park Council on Monday, February 10, adopted an ordinance, to become effective 10 days after publication, which will grant churches and charitable organizations the right to solicit funds by house-to-house canvassing. Soliciting will be restricted to the hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday only.

The ordinance, (actually an amendment to be added to the Business and Trades Ordinance of Grosse Pointe Park), specifies regulations governing charitable solicitations, and was drawn up and presented to the council by City Attorney Richard Rohr. Solicitations will not be allowed unless a permit is approved and obtained from City Manager Robert Stone, or any one authorized by him to act.

The amendment reads that the words "solicit" and "solicitation" shall mean any oral or written request, directly or indirectly, for money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value for, in whole or part, "charitable" purposes, by house to house canvass, by means of personal interview, handbills, pamphlets, books, circulars, tickets, or by any other means.

The word "charitable" shall mean and include patriotic, educational, social, religious, philanthropic, civic, public, fraternal or eleemosynary, (of or pertaining to alms, charity, or charitable donations), either actual or purported.

The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to any persons organized exclusively for religious purposes if solicitations for such persons are conducted solely among members voluntarily and without remuneration for making such solicitations.

Applications for permits should be filed with the city manager at least 15 days prior to the solicitation, and all questions must be answered correctly. On receipt of the application, the city manager, or his authorized agent, will make a complete investigation to determine if the facts are true, before a permit is issued.

Persons intending to hold showings, hold meetings or any other type of events for the purpose of raising money for charitable purposes, within the residential districts of the Park, cannot do so without first obtaining a permit approved by the city manager.

HIGH DECIBELS

As a comparison of the intensity of various sounds, officials of the Belstone Crusade for Hearing Conservation point out that noise above the 120 decibel level — such as are commonly generated by jet aircraft at takeoff — are one billion times as great as the sound level least audible to most humans.

Church Marks 35th Birthday

In conjunction with activities commemorating the 35th anniversary of the founding of Christ the King Lutheran Church, 20338 Mack avenue, 32 persons were welcomed into membership at services Sunday, January 26.

The charter members comprised the congregation in January, 1941. Present membership numbers 875. The church was first located at Lancaster road and Mack avenue until 1953 when a new structure was built at the present location in Mack avenue at Lochmoor boulevard. That building underwent expansion in 1964.

Members of the anniversary planning committee are Pastor Joseph Fabry, Pastor Walter Geffert, Howard Ford, congregation president, Mrs. Carol Droege, Marie Schultz, Michael Pastor, Clyde Gross, and Vern Aljets.

Goodfellows, normally do, and still must, apply to the city council for permission to sell products for their charities. This, it was pointed out, is because these groups sell newspapers, etc., on public right-of-ways to raise funds.

Violation of this new ordinance, shall, upon conviction, be punishable by not more than 90 days in jail and/or a fine of up to $500.

Many questions pertaining to the functioning of governmental bodies and public officials are raised by "Why don't they . . . ?". observes Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, president of the Grosse Pointe League of Woman Voters.

Believing this same phrase is just as properly directed at organizations, the local LWV chapter is devoting its February unit meetings to a series of "Why don't they . . . ?" questions.

Mrs. Stephen Orban will encourage members and guests to contribute ideas to the committee which is studying whether to alter the Grosse Pointe League's organizational structure.

Mrs. Charles R. Kinnaird will report on her Action committee's frustrations in the recycling area, while Mrs. Tom R. Mason and Mrs. Thompson will solicit members' priorities regarding local study topics for next year.

"A Study of Local Land Use and Zoning Policies" is still in the primary stage, and Mrs. Sanders anticipates its re-adoption for further research.

The education chairman, Mrs. Thomas McCleary, expects to seek a change in title for this study — one which

ULS, Academy in Art Show

The Points's two independent schools, the Grosse Pointe Academy and University Liggett School, are participating in "The Detroit Area Independent Schools—Student Art Exhibition" which features the work of students in grades one through 12 in a display at Somerset Mall from Sunday February 16 through Saturday, March 1.

The third annual exhibit, sponsored by the Parents League of Independent Schools of Greater Detroit, represents an effort to coordinate and share experiences developed through inter-school and parent student relationships.

ULS Senior Lynn Sales, daughter of the Murray Sales, of Audubon road, was singularly honored when her poster was selected to promote the event throughout the metropolitan area.

The show will feature works in a variety of media, including metal, clay, fabric, painting, sculpture and drawing.

The Middle School Girls Choir from the Academy will sing during the exhibit opening ceremonies, Sunday at 2 p.m. The choir, composed of 57 girls, will use Orff musical instruments to accompany their selections.

Carl Orff, a contemporary German composer, assembled instruments with tonal emphasis for classroom instruction of young musicians. Glockenspiels, marimbas, tone bells, drums and assorted other hand instruments are used to help students create tonal compositions of their own.

Mrs. Kenneth Chrisner is music director.

A string quartet from ULS will also perform during opening ceremonies.

Academy students whose work will be on display in the exhibit include Laurie Evans, Carolyn Johnston, Laurie Kahle, Gar Knight, Dan LaFerte, Palao Luptak, David Meachum, Nancy Meachum, William O'Brien, Susan Ward and Marc Wollard.

Representing ULS are Matthew Cooke, Frances Stroh, Yvonne Champagne, Susan Anslow, Billy Cadieux, Amy Frost, Charles Wood, Jeff Reitmeyer, Sarah Stewart, Carola Weil, Ellen Hickey, James Tait, Kurt Yeager, Trip Denton and John Parke.

MAKES HER 'POINT'

South High School graduate Mary Ann Duika of The Farms is a member of Wayne State University's women's fencing team this year. Miss Duika, 19, a junior, had a 5-1 mark in her team's first three starts this season.

The Wayne County government chairman, Mrs. Howard Hush, will seek a minor rewording of the GPLWV position concerning the league's campaign for establishment of the office of county executive, even if true home rule isn't politically realistic at the present time.

The board is anxious to hear member thinking on next year's program prior to a special board meeting called for Wednesday, February 26.

The schedule of unit meetings from which to choose includes Tuesday, February 18, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Everett, 70 Woodland shores; Wednesday, February 19, at 9:30 a.m. at Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375 Lathrop road, and at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. C. B. Conover, 1003 Berkshire road.

The same program will be presented at each unit. Prospective members may call Mrs. Conover at 499-1950 or Mrs. Thompson at 882-3214 for further information.

would be more consistent with the direction her committee has taken.

Another point of consideration is the question of whether present positions should be maintained in the areas of school finance, children's services and recreation. Completely new study ideas will be welcomed, with members weighing their importance against the current work load for the local league.

WATCH COLD WEATHER

Cold weather can present special hearing ability hazards, and parents should be particularly alert in helping protect small children from such hazards, warn officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. They stress that medical attention should be obtained when earaches and severe headaches are encountered.

Fires Damage Woods Homes

The lieutenant entered the living room and discovered Dr. Kay leaning against a wall near the front door. He was dragged to the front porch where oxygen was immediately administered to him.

The bedroom and the connecting hall received flame damage, while severe smoke and heat damage occurred throughout the home. A small amount of fire extended to the attic area directly above the bedroom.

Lt. Selby added that a mattress was almost totally consumed by fire and a nearby window was shattered by the heat.

In the Werthmann Group blaze, which occurred January 7, officers said the estimated contents loss of the commercial photo service business which specializes in advertising, is $40,000, while the estimated property loss was placed at $35,000.

Officers said the cause of the fire, which spread to a second floor office area, was the ignition of combustibles (supplies or stock), placed too close to the furnace. One officer suffered a minor injury while fighting this blaze.

Parking at Post Office

Mr. Brauning contended his firm is only attempting to upgrade the building to meet fire and safety codes and to make it a more comfortable place for employees. He said no work is being done on the exterior of the structure except for the raising of a canopy in the rear.

"The space is remaining the same and the operations within the building will be the same," he asserted.

Cottage Honors 17 Employees

Seventeen Cottage Hospital employees were honored for their service to the hospital at a dinner held Tuesday, February 11, at the German-American Cultural Center in East Outer drive. The Cottage Hospital Board of Trustees hosted the dinner for the employees whose combined service totals 210 years.

Attending the dinner, which was arranged by board member Mrs. Elliot H. Phillips, were trustees, retired employees, department heads and previous award recipients.

Service awards were presented by John N. McNaughton, president of the board, and Cottage Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde congratulated each person on his achievement.

Leading the list with 20 years of service to their credit were Harlan Lacy, of St. Clair Shores, and Prentice Jones, of Detroit.

Four persons received awards for 15 years of service. They were Robert Barnwell, Mrs. Mary Eisbrenner and Mrs. Miriam Roff, all of Detroit, and Mrs. Olga Larsen of Mount Clemens.

Ten-year awards went to Mrs. Mary Birjkovff, of East Detroit, Mrs. Helen Bruder and Mrs. Roma Dinda, of St. Clair Shores, Mrs. Mary Louise Sharp, of The Park, Mrs. Geneva Williams, of Mount Clemens, Mrs. Flossie Chambers, Mrs. Mary Granville, Mrs. Verna Hewell, Mrs. Evelyn Nowak, Mrs. Louise Posavetz and Mrs. Clara Steinbauer, all of Detroit.

SHS Seniors

Board President Mrs. Joan Hanpeter suggested the students put some more research into their proposal and take the matter up with their principal. "We are receptive to your ideas," she stressed.

Dr. Adams agreed that the students should see their principal about their idea and he said he would discuss it with his Advisory and Professional Study Committees.

America's Number 1 Lottery Game is now two ways better: 1. New instant payoff for $25 winners. 2. You know instantly if you're in the Million Dollar Drawing.

Starting with the February 27 weekly drawing, every ticket holder has a chance to advance automatically to a Million Dollar Drawing. Weekly $25 winners can collect their prize, in cash, the same day.

Here's how it works: $25 Winners: Two 3-digit Regular Numbers are drawn each week. If you match one of the Regular Numbers in either box in the lower right-hand corner of your ticket, you win $25. Turn in your winning ticket at a participating Lottery Sales Agent within 30 days from date on ticket. The agent will pay you $25 immediately. (If you do not claim within 30 days, you must take the ticket to a Lottery Claim Center and payment will be mailed.) Please note that starting with tickets dated Feb. 27, matching one 3-digit number and winning $25 does not get you into the Million Dollar Drawing. You must match exactly the Million Dollar Number at the top of the ticket.

Super Winners: If you match both of the 3-digit Regular numbers in the boxes in the lower right-hand corner, you are in a Super Drawing! Take your ticket to a Lottery Claim Center. You will compete for prizes ranging from $10,000 to $200,000!

Million Dollar Drawing: Starting February 27, 1975, every 50¢ "Green" Game ticket has a chance to advance to the Million Dollar Drawing. You don't have to win $25 first. Look for the 6-digit "Million Dollar" number at the top of the ticket. If your ticket for that drawing matches the 6-digit Million Dollar Number exactly as announced, you are in the Million Dollar Drawing with a chance to win prizes up to $1,000,000! Take your ticket to a Lottery Claim Center for instructions.

Bonuses: Frequently, extra numbers will be drawn for many additional Bonus prizes—cash, cars, merchandise, etc.

St. James Sets Vesper Service

The high school youth of St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan road near Kercheval avenue, have structured an evening Lenten Vesper service for Wednesday, February 19, at 8 p.m. Working under the leadership of Mrs. David Smith, the worship task force has designed a service where the young people will serve as worship leaders.

The teaching will be by Stuart Dykstra. His subject will deal with Christian companionship, treating the question asked of Peter at the time of the trial of Jesus: "Did not I see you in the garden with him?" (John 18, 26). Although the service has been prepared by the young people, it is for people of all ages.

Farms Council Discusses Rising Costs of Audits

The Farms Council unanimously approved paying the bill for this year's audit of city records but didn't do so until a representative from the auditing firm came before the council to explain why audit fees keep rising.

Edward Klasney, of the firm of Ernst & Ernst, Certified Public Accountants, came before the council at the regular meeting Monday, February 3. The firm charged the city $10,000 for their examination of financial statements for the year which ended June 30, 1974, and for preparation of data relative to water pumping and filtration costs for that same year.

The $10,000 sum was the maximum limit agreed to by the city when Ernst & Ernst first made their audit proposal last year. It represents a $2,500 hike over the fee paid to the firm last year.

The council had requested a meeting with a company representative to review for members the scope of services provided by the firm.

"I'm not going to take the time of the council to explain exactly what an audit is," Mr. Klasney said, but he did point out the highlights of his firm's work for The Farms.

He noted the various tests and controls that are implemented to see if the city is functioning properly. He said the basic auditor's report this year amounted to a 32-page report of the city's financial status with analytical data included. The firm also prepared a water rate study, a commentary letter on work done by The Farms administration, advised the city of pertinent financial legislation and provided a report for the federal Treasury Department.

He said reporting formats have changed in the past few years but basically, the work done by the auditors remains constant. He said about 500 hours is spent preparing the annual audit and that actual hours spent on The Farms are recorded.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman remarked that the job should not get any harder over the years if the same firm continues to do the work. She said that in reviewing audits since 1969 she found very little difference in their character.

"And yet the costs have gone from $5,600 to $10,000," she said. "Have your costs increased that much?"

Mr. Klasney said that inflation has taken its toll on costs as it has in most businesses. He also said the Ernst & Ernst firm has been using a very low collection rate for the municipality for years and felt the firm's profit margin was not substantial enough.

The council voted unanimously to pay the submitted fee this year and to discuss the retaining of a firm to conduct next year's audit at budget time.

Fence Smashed By Hit-Runner

An unknown driver did damage to a Fisher road resident's yard and tore out a 10-foot section of stockade fencing early Saturday morning, February 8.

The incident was reported to City Officer Donald Boyer at 3:54 a.m. by a neighbor of James Pike, the person whose property had been damaged.

According to police, the car drove through the fence and into the complainant's yard, coming close to the fence on the other side of the lot. The auto then backed out and was last seen traveling east on Goethe from Fisher.

The neighbor who reported the occurrence said the car had left the scene before he could get downstairs to check on the license number. It's believed the vehicle involved was a Chevrolet with a white bottom and dark top.

Police looked in the area for a car with a damaged front end but could find nothing.

HIGHWAY NOISE

A combination of engine noise and tire hum can prevent serious noise problems on highways according to officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. They point out that at expressway speed, a semi-trailer truck can produce a potentially hazardous noise level as far as 50 feet.

AUTO FACTS
by KEN MEADE

The modern automobile is supposed to have a useful road life of at least 100,000 miles — almost a decade of driving for the average motorist, assuming that its various systems and components are kept in good repair. Best left to specialists are some crucial maintenance and repair tasks. These include work on brakes and steering, as well as jobs that require special equipment. There are many advantages to doing minor jobs by yourself. By shopping for your own parts, you can buy them for less money than a dealer or repair shop would charge you, but be sure you know what to shop for and where to shop.

With The Clincher, your new automobile has a warranty for one year on parts regardless of mileage. Come to POINTE DODGE, INC., 118001 Mack Ave., 881-7210 and let us show you in writing what we mean. You are responsible for maintenance and proper care of the vehicle and for repairs required as a result of misuse, abuse, accident or negligence; we will handle without charge for parts or labor any factory installed defective part.

Personalized Gift... WINES ... from California. Good For Any Occasion!

Are you one of the 40 million people who will retire without a pension?

Now there's good news from NBD. If you have no employer-sponsored retirement plan, read how we can help you take advantage of a new tax shelter to create a substantial retirement income for yourself.

Under a new federal law, millions of wage and salary earners can now set aside as much as $1500 of tax-free income annually for their retirement.

To help you take maximum advantage of this new tax shelter, National Bank of Detroit now offers Individual Retirement Accounts—special savings accounts that can multiply a surprisingly modest investment into a substantial retirement nestegg.

A double tax savings.
The boon of an NBD Individual Retirement Account is that both the money you put into it, and the interest your money earns while on deposit, are tax exempt until the time of withdrawal.

This means you can take a tax deduction on the amount deposited into your IRA each year, allow the earnings to accumulate tax-free, then withdraw your money when you retire and are more likely to be in a lower tax bracket.

As you can see from our chart, this can mean a spectacular savings compared to an ordinary savings account.

End of Year	Example 1	Example 2	Example 3
1	$1,500	$1,125	$750
5	$8,456	$6,155	$3,982
10	$19,771	$13,824	$8,598
15	$34,914	$23,382	$13,949
20	$55,178	$35,293	$20,153
25	$82,297	$50,136	$27,344
30	$118,587	$68,633	$35,682

Example 1: $1500 of tax-free income put into an IRA each year. Example 2: A person in the 25% tax bracket puts what's left of $1500 each year, after taxes, into an ordinary savings account on which the interest is taxed. Example 3: Same as Example 2, except the individual is in the 50% tax bracket. All figures computed on a conservative 6% annual interest.

Who qualifies.

Anyone who is not now covered by an employer-sponsored retirement plan, may open an Individual Retirement Account at NBD. 15% of your income tax-free.

By new law, you may put away as much as 15% of your annual earned income—up to a maximum of $1500—into an IRA. This means that you can choose any of our NBD savings plans that best suits your needs. Our Time Deposits, for example, earn you a full 5-1/2% interest, are automatically renewable, and may be started with as little as $50.

Lady Thwarts Bicycle Thief

Park authorities are proud of the fact that a woman, Mrs. Shirley Hefty of The Park, took the time to follow a bicycle thief and recover a bike taken from the Trombly School grounds recently. She followed the thief into Detroit, but the youth made good his escape on foot. According to Lt. Gordon Duncan, Mrs. Hefty was in the vicinity of the school, waiting in her car, when she saw three teenagers, two on one bicycle and a third riding alone. She witnessed the trio go to the rear of the school and then emerge. However, this time, all were riding bikes and leaving the school yard. She then followed them in her auto. Mrs. Hefty approached the one who had been riding double and demanded to know whose two-wheeler he was riding. The boy claimed the bike was his, that he had forgotten it at the school and had returned for it. Somehow the boy's answer didn't sound convincing and she followed the three to Fairfax and Lakepointe. From that point, she watched them leave. Then, as she was driving on Alter at Jefferson, she spotted the same three again. She caught up to the one who was riding double and followed him to Jefferson and Philip, to the rear of the National Bank of Detroit, Detroit. Mrs. Hefty trailed the one lad who had the stolen bike to an alley at the rear of the bank building. The boy leaped from the two-wheeler and fled. The woman, unable to get out of her automobile in time to give chase on foot, recovered the bike, placed it in the trunk of her car, took it to The Park station and released it to the authorities. Police had been alerted by a gas station attendant at Alter road and Jefferson as Mrs. Hefty asked him to call. The bike was returned to a nine-year-old Park resident and student at Trombly School to whom it belonged. "We are certainly proud that we have someone who is concerned, and who was alert enough to realize that something was wrong," Lt. Duncan said. "In most cases, a man becomes involved enough to do something like this, and it's very unusual to find a woman concerned enough to take the trouble in helping to clear a crime. She's to be highly complimented for her part in this affair."

In a majority of cases, people just refuse to take time out to become involved, and let things happen without doing anything about it, the lieutenant said. Mrs. Hefty is the kind of a citizen the community should be proud of, he added.

'Family Film Night' Slated

A way to fight the February blahs will be presented tonight, Thursday, February 13, at 7:30 p.m. at the Central Library as The Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library presents its "Family Film Night."

With the addition of a fourth film, "The Dentist," not listed on the brochure, something for every member of the family will be shown. For the adventurers and the young at heart "Solo," a film essay on mountain climbing, will be seen. For those who enjoy a good laugh, there's "The Dentist," a W. C. Fields favorite.

In the animated story "Ben and Me," a poor church mouse assists Ben Franklin with some of his experiments, while cooperation between Morris and Balsam, who have opposite problems, is the order of the day in "Morris the Midget Moose," a Walt Disney production.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the circulation desk or the Audio-Visual Department at 884-2200.

Officers shouted for the man to stop but he continued to run and then jumped into the lake. After the warning shots were fired he swam back to shore, was placed under arrest and was taken to the hospital.

The complainant told police she was asleep in her second floor bedroom when she heard glass breaking downstairs. She told police she thought she heard someone walking up the stairs to the second floor but felt the subject heard her calling police and so ran back downstairs.

Martichuski was arraigned at 6:12 p.m. Monday, February 3, before Farms Judge Robert H. Pytell.

Camera Club Meets Feb. 18

19 Pointe Girls Entered In Scholarship Pageant

Nineteen young ladies have entered the Miss Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant, which will be held Saturday, April 5, in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, said George A. Williamson, the event's general chairman and publicity director.

The announcement of participants came after a "kick-off" tea for the pageant on Sunday, February 2, at Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375 Lothrop road.

At the gathering, which was attended by Kathleen Ann Lewis, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1974-75, members of the pageant's steering committee and interested parents, rules and regulations were reviewed and everyone was shown an official film from the Miss America Pageant centering upon entering a local event.

Jaycee president "Ric" Rutan spoke on the importance of getting involved on a local level and how it helps the participants mature. Through facilities provided by the R. P. Hermes Co., the crowning of Miss Lewis was presented on video tape and slides of last year's rehearsals also were shown.

"The committee who put on the tea did a beautiful job," said Mr. Williamson, "and the girls seemed to be enthusiastic." The first rehearsal for the pageant was held Friday, February 7, and they will continue every Friday until technical and dress rehearsals in early April.

Area participation is going well with "the community getting behind us," commented Mr. Williamson, regarding advertisement sales for the program book. Interested businesses may place $25, $50 or $100 ads by contacting Ed Serwach at 774-1210.

The pageant steering committee includes Mr. Williamson; Mrs. Jack Chivas, auxiliary chairman; Mrs. George Firmschild, official hostess; and Rick Stafford, director. Co-chairmen for the tea were Pris van Horne and Mary Jo Knight, while those serving on the committee include Maureen Pettit, Marian Kingwill, Terry Dorn, Jeanne Bunn, Mary Pratt, Marnie Reynolds and Marilyn Ruh.

The young ladies who have entered the event are Patricia Blain, 16, a South High School junior; Jean Ciesliga, 17, a North High School senior; Kathy Elsey, 17, an Our Lady Star of the Sea senior; Eileen Fleming, 17, a South senior; Charlene Friend, 16, a junior at South. More are Lori Gloss, 16, a South junior; Cheyenne Kessler, 17, a senior at South; Elizabeth Lesene, 17, a University Liggett senior; Karen Mann, 16, a South junior; Barb Maxon, 17, a North junior; Karesa McElheney, 17, a junior at North; Janice Mendelson, 17, a South senior; Jeanne Rutan, 18, a Michigan State University freshman.

Others include Judy Savage, 17, a North junior; Julie Sibley, 23; Susan Siewert, 18, a North senior; Sue Stichman, 18, a senior at North; Marsha Sweany, 17, a North junior; and Joanna Tworek, 17, a South senior.

An elimination will be held Friday, February 21, at which time the group will be cut to the 10 finalists.

Mr. Williamson added tickets at $3.50 for patrons, $2.50 for adults and $1.75 for students will be available around the first week in March.

Each year sorority members sell little heart lollipops at Valentine season to raise money for this cause. Young people, costumed as he or she children from the recent "Alice in Wonderland" production, will sell these candies to those present at the show with proceeds going to Saint John Hospital's cardiac unit.

Tickets for the performance may be purchased at the War Memorial. Special group rates for parties of 20 or more also are available by calling 886-1926.

Hosts and organizers of the cotillion are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Forrest. Scheduled dates are Monday, February 24, March 24 and April 28. Memberships, priced at $35 for married couples, $20 for singles, are being taken now at the Center's office, 32 Lakeshore road.

'Red Shoes' Set for Saturday

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater, sponsored by the War Memorial, has put the final touches on its Valentine Package, a three-act version of Hans Christian Andersen's immortal fairy tale, "The Red Shoes."

Two performances will be given on Saturday, February 15 at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Fries auditorium.

"The Red Shoes" is the story of a young homeless girl who is led to steal a pair of red shoes through the deceit of the devil, disguised as an old soldier. Because the shoes are bewitched, she cannot take them off or stop dancing until she repeats her ways in the final scene.

The cast includes 40 members ranging in age from 6-17 from various schools in the Pointes. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Reynolds, who's also the founder and producer of the Children's Theater.

Those attending will not only be supporting the Children's Theater but also will be benefitting another worthy cause. In addition to her interest in children's theater, Mrs. Reynolds also is a member of the Alpha Phi Sorority, which is currently holding its yearly drive for cardiac aid.

ULS Players Put Energy, Dedication into Next Show

By Nancy Kramer

"The real asset we've got is the excitement of the play," reflects Nancy Noble, leader of the University-Liggett Players. But her statement shouldn't be misconstrued to mean the group's latest production, "Two Gentlemen of Verona," doesn't have a lot of other things going for it.

There's teamwork for one. Eight or so dedicated kids, among them John Peracchio, Darlene Blackburn, J. Michael Clabault, Steve Bohn, Curt Pruett and Kurt Yeager, who gave up most of their free time during the Christmas break to construct a set that would cater to the spirit of the play.

Tim Heidmann designed it. Technical advisor was Doug Werkema, head of ULS' math department and someone the kids call an "amateur carpenter." There's nothing amateur about the set. It's a work of art consisting of various odd levels of platforms and walkways, all solidly constructed of wood and stained. There's a webbed type backdrop, also of stained wood and the two walls skirting the stage have been altered with huge frescoed faces, painted black on white cinder block.

"The platforms can be used again and again," Tim notes, "and the neutrality of the set gives it versatility." Even though the action of the play occurs in a number of different locations, the kids assert their set will carry them gracefully through all the different scenes.

They're relying heavily on lights to make transitions smooth and quick. Kevin Shea, lighting director, will be in charge of handling what the kids call the "most elaborate, complicated and different lighting" they've attempted thus far.

It involves the use of about 50 lights, the placement of which has still to be worked out. "We have a ski weekend coming up," Tim observes, "so we'll apply ourselves to that then."

The Players feel their lighting situation is somewhat better than it was in the past because they recently bought a dimmer board. This $1,500 instrument was purchased with profits from previous plays and some kind of nebulous distinction has been attached to it since "our dimmer board was once Alice Cooper's dimmer board."

The shadow of Alice Cooper notwithstanding, other talents figure into the production. Besides the proven acting skill of the entire cast which includes members of all the upper school classes, the unique creativity of Dwight Jones has been employed.

He has been responsible for designing all the costumes which relate in style to the time and setting of the play but feature touches that make them current. "They use modern ideas," Dwight explains, "but still have an Elizabethan style."

Nancy coordinated Dwight's renderings and transformed them into reality, assisted by a crew of a dozen seamstresses. "Because of the neutrality of the set, we wanted to make the costumes really stand out," she explains.

So they chose elaborate materials, brocades and velvets in vivid colors. "We tried to execute them so they were as close as possible to the original drawings," she says. "It was something new for me... we made our own patterns."

Dwight says dreaming up the series of costume designs took him about a week. It took about the same length of time to actually sew one of the outfits. When the play is done, they'll all be displayed in the school.

The work the Players have done for "Two Gentlemen of Verona" represents, to them, no less than "a total commitment."

"The excitement of the play makes you want to do it well," they point out, "and

Mr. Schwab makes you want to do the best."

They refer to their director, Richard Oliver Schwab, who, since his arrival at ULS this past fall, has put the Players through a lot of changes.

"We have theater with a whole new environment now," the kids testify. "We're really set up to be a theater group and we've become an exceptional part of the school."

Nancy and Dwight are seniors and Tim is a junior. None of the three have any plans for a career in dramatics though Nancy would like to continue working on theatrical productions at college.

Dwight isn't sure but he thinks he might like to be a fashion designer. He's applied to a number of colleges, among them Rhode Island School of Design. "It's a competitive field," he acknowledges, "but I think I can do it."

Tim has definite inclinations toward a career in computer science. "I won't be much time for theater in the future," he explains, "so I'm getting into it now."

One thing Mr. Schwab did was put the Players on a pretty tight schedule: three productions a year with, at most, three months between each.

Keeping up academically and athletically might logically pose a problem but the hard-core workers see otherwise. "You still seem to find the time," Nancy maintains. "Although a lot of the actors will be in one play and not the next, it would be impossible for me to take a play off."

Dwight nods in agreement and then, as an afterthought adds, "Even if it takes too much time... you end up doing it anyway."

"Two Gentlemen of Verona" will be presented on Thursday, February 20 and Saturday, February 22. A benefit for the Foundation for Exceptional Children is scheduled for Saturday, March 1. All performances begin at 8 p.m. Tickets, at $2 each are available from Mrs. E. Paul Casey, 1045 Cook Road, 48236.

SH Swimmers Roll On

By Rick Thomas

With wins over North High School and Dearborn Fordson, South High varsity swimmers all but wrapped up their second consecutive Eastern Michigan League swimming championship.

The Devils have only three remaining EML meets this season, and none are expected to give South much difficulty. On Friday, February 7, the Devils defeated North, 51-32, a victory that served as an excellent confidence builder for the rest of the season.

Winners for South in the North meet were, in the 100-yard medley relay, Mike Gaitley, Craig and Steve Swanson and Stan Smith.

In the 160-yard individual medley, Alex Szirmal took first, while Eric Rodin was second.

The 40-yard freestyle relay was won by the team of Rick Spear, Mike Scott, Kevin MacConnachie and Craig Swanson.

Gary Jackson won the diving competition and Pete Saggau was second.

In the backstroke, Gaitley was first and Mickey Montagne was second.

Eric Rodin won the breaststroke while Steve Swanson was second.

And Drew Pillsbury placed first in the butterfly event.

In the 50-yard freestyle, MacConnachie was third and Gaitley finished fourth.

The 100-yard free style saw Scott in second and Craig Swanson in fourth.

Scott also finished third in the 20-yard freestyle, while Mike Bernard finished fourth.

Bill Brownell was second in the 500-yard freestyle, and Drew Pillsbury was third.

On Tuesday, February 4, the Devils visited Dearborn Fordson and came away with a 53-30 victory and two new swimming records.

One of these records came in the 200-yard individual medley where Pillsbury set a new varsity and Fordson pool record time of 2:10.0. Rodin was second.

Accidents are most likely to occur when the driver is fatigued, sleepy, careless, discourteous, emotionally upset, or ignorant of traffic regulations.

Pointers Tied in Last Minute

The Pointe's Sherwood Forest Hockey Club and Lucan, Ont., both of whom are fighting for a playoff spot in Canadian Blue Water League play, battled to a 4-4 tie Saturday evening, February 8.

Everything was feature in the game including fast up and down hockey to a full team donnybrook.

After Sherwood jumped to a 2-0 first period lead on goals by Joe Gerbe and Mike Stecko, Lucan tied the score in two second period tallies. Midway through the final period Lucan jumped ahead, 3-2, but Sherwood rallied on goals by Rich Nadow and Paul Nadow to regain the lead.

However, Lucan pulled its goalie in the final minute of play and scored the tying marker with only 34 seconds remaining.

First place Watford, Ont., plays Sherwood Saturday, February 15, for the season's regular game finale at the Norshore Arena, St. Clair Shores at 2 p.m.

Maronites Pick New Patriarch

The Most Rev. Francis M. Zayek, bishop of the Maronite Diocese, Detroit, U.S.A., whose official residence is at Three Mile road and Jefferson avenue, was among 14 Maronite bishops from throughout the world, who went to Lebanon to elect a new Maronite Patriarch of Antioch.

Elected in secret session on Monday, February 3, much in the same manner that a pope is selected in Rome, was Archbishop Antoine Khorai- che, who became the 67th consecutive Maronite Patriarch of Antioch. The Patriarchate dates back to the second or third century.

His Beatitude, who was enthroned on Sunday, February 9, in Bkerke, Lebanon, succeeds the late Peter Paul Cardinal Meouchi, who died January 11, at the age of 81. He will go to Rome within a few days, where he will be presented the Papal Bull, or seal, a formal papal document, from the hands of His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, to whom His Beatitude will submit his pledge of obedience to the spiritual head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Bishop Zayek and the other bishops who are expected to be present during this ceremony, have already given their vows of submission to the new patriarch who has jurisdiction over all Maronites throughout the world; a people who have been in continuous unity with the Holy See in Rome since the third century.

His Beatitude, Patriarch Khorai- che, was enthroned on the Feast Day of St. Maron, from whom the Maronite Rite takes its name.

The new patriarch was born in Ain Ebel on September 20, 1907; ordained a priest on April 12, 1930; Bishop-elect of Tarsus on April 25, 1950; and consecrated by the late Patriarch Antoun Arida on October 15, 1950.

He was appointed Patriarchal Vicar General under the late Patriarchs Arida and Meouchi; appointed Ordinary of the Diocese of Saïda, a seaport in southwest Lebanon, (the site of ancient Sidon), on November 24, 1957, and again, made Patriarchal Vicar General on April 11, 1974.

Vetere Pros Seek Crown

The Pointe's Vetere Pros, who boast an 18-1-2 record, are representing the area in the current Squirt House State Championships. And they are off to a good start.

They played the longest game in Michigan Amateur Hockey Association history Saturday, February 8, against the Southfield Seminoles, and emerged victorious. It was 1-1 after regulation time with Rick Stroebe netting the Pros' goal.

After almost six complete overtime periods, (of eight minutes each), Jim Trybus set up a play for Marc Andris who netted the winning goal. When that happened, 15 tired boys swarmed around goalie Robbie Bowen.

On Sunday, February 9, the Pros edged Birmingham Car Parts, 5-4, in a see-saw battle. Goal scorers included Stroebe with three, and Trybus and Eric McMichael with one each. Andris had four assists, while Trybus had two and Scott Nelson and Chris Bowen, one each.

The Pros have a busy schedule with games almost every day this week in preparation for the semi-final round of the districts against the Warren Hustlers Saturday, February 15.

McCool 'Chills' South Cagers

By Mark Emery
As far as the regular season is concerned South High School cagers no longer have a care in the world — and they owe it all to Jerry McCool.

McCool is all-conference and it seemed as though he was all over the court when Sterling Heights Stevenson faced South Friday, February 7.

He scored an awesome 35 points and pulled in 16 rebounds to hand the Devils a defeat which eliminated them from contention in the Eastern Michigan League championship race, 74-56.

"At 6'4" McCool is an elusive guard and South had no one to match him. Not Tim Kramer with a scoring average of over 20 points a game, nor Tim Corbett or Dave Ferris, who both have outstanding defensive abilities which defy comparison.

The Devils were never really in the game, although South's coach Charles Hollosy noted, "It was not an easy game for Stevenson. They took the lead after the first quarter and we never got any of it back. They came out at the half and ran up their lead and we could do nothing. McCool is a tough player to defend because of his quickness."

The Devils returned home after Friday's loss to face cross-town rival North and were obviously drained. North ran off to an early lead and found themselves on top at the close of the first quarter, 18-10.

But the Devils regained their strength to tie the score, 31-31, at the half and later went on to win, 60-52.

South couldn't work the ball inside to Kramer or Kevin Kovanda against the Norsemen and desperately needed strong outside shooting.

Making Progress Towards Hockey at High Schools

By Roger A. Waha
Interest is running high in the community, especially in ice circles, regarding the establishment of varsity hockey in 1975-76 at both North and South High Schools, said Bob Mueller, a member of the steering committee working towards this goal.

Mr. Mueller said pledges totalling around $1,800 have already been raised and this isn't even "scratching the surface." Both he and Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody, committee member, cited the fact of keeping high school age skaters in the area after they "graduate" from Grosse Pointe Hockey Association, (GPHA), teams. (Around 600 Pointe boys currently participate in the GPHA).

We often lose them to other individual clubs when they reach high school age, and we would like to see them stay in the area, commented Mr. Mueller. "There's an influx of good hockey players reaching high school age and where will they go?", asked Judge Moody.

In this regard, it's not inappropriate to view the GPHA as a big farm system for local high school hockey, if such a program is established. Mr. Mueller felt once such a program got underway, more monies could be raised for high school hockey than for football.

Judge Moody said several representatives will present an in-depth brief outlining such a program to Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams this week. It will include a detailed background of facts and figures on what other high schools are doing in this area and a "conservative" budget proposal. The judge felt cooperation towards this goal is developing well within the community, financial support looks good and several college coaches have expressed their willingness to speak to the School Board. We hope to put monies back into the athletic programs via hockey gate receipts, he added.

The steering committee met on January 11 and at that time the Blue Line Club, a booster organization for the development and support of hockey teams at the schools, was established with Louis A. Rossetti installed as president.

Other members of the committee include Weldy Olson, Bob Palmer, George McHugh, Joe Griffin, Don Johnston, Tom Kydd, Jim Farquhar, Ray Rivard and Dave Seaver.

Defense Aids ULS in Wins

By Bob Holmes
ULS's defense rose to the occasion last week in two cage wins. On Tuesday, February 4, they trounced Allen Park Intercity Christian, 51-38. Two days later, they rolled over the Cosmos of Hamtramck, 60-46.

With the two wins ULS has now held 10 out of their 16 opponents to under 50 points, and five of those were held to under 40 points.

This is a remarkable feat when one considers that Liggett plays only schools that are bigger in size. Many of ULS's opponents are Class "B" schools. Liggett now stands at 10-6 overall.

Against Allen Park, the Knights went ahead 12-6 after one quarter and were never headed the rest of the game. At the half it was 32-21 with Liggett on top.

Mike Solomon put in 13 first half points on his way to a 20 point night. Many of his points came off assists from Todd Greer.

The third quarter was played even but in the last period, Allen Park ran out of gas. Greer hit for 15 points to go along with Solomon's 20. But the real story was the Knights' defense which once again held an opponent to under 40 points.

Against Hamtramck, the Knights were coming up against one of the best shooting teams in the Metro Conference. However, the Cosmos were halted by the one-two punch of Dave Jansen and Solomon.

Jansen had his best defensive effort of his career as he pulled in 21 rebounds and thoroughly dominated the defensive end of the floor. Solomon took care of the offensive end by pouring in 30 points.

Only a sophomore, Solomon is averaging 21 points a game over the last seven contests.

Drew Miller helped Solomon in the scoring department by netting 15 points. The win gave ULS a 5-4 Metro Conference mark. Lutheran West leads the conference with a 9-0 record followed by Country Day at 7-1. The Knights' next game was Tuesday, February 11, against Harper Woods.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

I am not certain what to call this week's column but the phrase "odds and ends" seems to come the closest. Here are six totally unrelated books covering six totally unrelated topics.

I selected these titles at random to illustrate the wide variety of subject material to be found on our shelves. The only thing these books have in common is that they are all new, and they are all available at your Grosse Pointe Public Libraries.

Although we appear to be made of flesh and blood, we human beings are composed of the same raw material as the stars. For "the universe brought us forth, and it maintains our being," says Haimar von Dittfurth in his book CHILDREN OF THE UNIVERSE, (Atheneum). It is the story of man and his place in our universe that Dittfurth tells.

No one today can hope to do more than barely keep abreast of the discoveries rapidly being made in the various branches of natural science. Dittfurth is for these readers still unfamiliar with, say, the non-brake and the metabolism of galaxies, with the solar wind and gravitational collapse, and with those impotent stellar systems whose atomic oven will no longer light.

CHILDREN OF THE UNIVERSE is science writing at its best — compelling, interpretive, solidly informative, and most importantly, understandable.

Since the publication of the late Eric Berne's first papers on Transactional Analysis, millions of people have read about and experienced the benefits of his thinking. "TA" as it is now called has captured the public imagination as a psychological school rarely can.

IN A GUIDE FOR SINGLE PARENTS: TRANSACTIONAL ANALYSIS FOR PEOPLE IN CRISIS, (Celestial Arts), author Kathryn Hallett is writing to help others deal with the effects of human loss. It will enable parents to help their children through partings. It will enable the parent to turn personal grief—caused by death, divorce or separation—into a new beginning.

SEA SENSE, (International Marine), by Richard Henderson is a book "dedicated to keeping people out of trouble on the water." The author covers safety afloat in terms of sail, power and multihull boat design, construction, rig, equipment, coping with emergencies and boat management in heavy weather.

Henderson recognizes, though, that even with foresight, planning and knowledge on the part of the boatman, the sea may find an opportunity to damage a vessel. So this book tells how to deal with emergencies and casualties as well as how to prevent them.

This is a book for boatmen everywhere, whether they go offshore or stay inshore, whether they move under sail or power, and whether they go to sea for profit or for pleasure.

Authors Eric Hosking and John Gooders are hunters who have changed the gun for the camera and, in photographing wildlife, have found that pitting their wits against a dangerous animal or a timid bird simply to obtain its photograph, brings ample excitement and reward.

Their book WILDLIFE PHOTOGRAPHY, (Praeger), is a practical guide as well as a handbook to be taken into the field—even if the field is only a backyard or the nearest zoo. In addition, it is designed to help in the planning of photographic expeditions—small or large. It is also a book to be enjoyed by the camera buff who never leaves his favorite reading chair.

Everyone knows that Hitler had plans for the invasion of Britain. Few Americans know that Nazi troops actually landed on British soil. Still fewer can imagine the details of invasion, defeat and occupation.

In his book IF BRITAIN HAD FALLEN, (Stein and Day), Norman Longmate asks the author's ultimate question: "What if?" — and bases the answer on known fact.

What would have happened to the King, to the Government? What would the U.S. have done? Would Canada and Australia have been able to come to the rescue? Would the British people have come to accept the occupation? Would deportation of friends, the flying of the swastika from the buildings of Parliament have incited docility or brave resistance?

Longmate's view is an exciting—indeed frightening—vision of a country that actually did teeter on the brink of defeat.

Have you ever thought that you would like to learn how to make a real horseshoe? Alexander Weygers will tell you how in THE MODERN BLACKSMITH, (Van Nostrand). He will also show you, with text and excellent illustrations, how to set up a complete blacksmith shop and make such things as hinges, fire-place tongs, milling augers, stonecarving tools and wrenches.

The student of pure blacksmithing will find this to be a no-nonsense book. Practicing the author's steps will result in an independent craftsman, able to make "things" out of "nothing" in his simple shop.

Weygers states that "the promise of success is limited only by the talent and enterprise of the beginner, and not necessarily by the lack of expensive or elaborate equipment and materials."

North Cagers Split 2 Games

By Bob Evanski
With coach Ray Ritter back at the helm, North recently swept by Lake Shore, 59-54.

The Norsemen were in high gear for the first three quarters as they built up a commanding 16-point lead. But the fourth quarter saw North fighting for the victory as the Shorians staged a desperate comeback. They outscored North 23-12 in the last eight minutes.

North was paced by the sophomore duo of Bob Brown and Dave Beyer, as they had 21 and 12 points, respectively. Mark Johnson added 10.

North evened its record against Lake Shore to 1-1 and now stands at 7-3 in the Bi-Country League. Lake Shore holds an 8-2 mark.

The next time out in non-league action, cross town rival South defeated North 60-52.

In the first half, the game looked like a typical North-South matchup, very close and rough. Tim Kramer and Mark Johnson both continued their physical contact, challenging each other for rebounds. Brown was hitting his shots, and the score was a 28-28 deadlock at halftime.

The next half was trouble for North when South deployed a zone defense. The Norsemen could not hit from the outside with any regularity and they could not penetrate the inside.

With North continually stymied by the defense, the Blue Devils gradually pulled away to take the victory.

Brown wound up with 16 points and Johnson had 11. South has beaten North twice in a row. North's cheering section, led by Julie Mitchell, must be praised. They never stopped making noise until the end of the game. They were fighting all the way for a Norsemen victory. Julie's voice could be heard throughout the gymnasium.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Among the eight metropolitan-area women who received the community's most coveted volunteer service award Tuesday at the eighth annual Heart of Gold Award Luncheon is Grosse Pointe's own Jean (Mrs. Arthur) Johnson, of Pemberton road.

It couldn't have happened to a nicer person. Jean was honored, specifically, for her work with the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, particularly in the area of fund-raising and the organization of volunteer usher teams for the Meadow Brook concert series.

She's been an active volunteer in other areas as well. Her husband is a urologist and she feels that, as a doctor's wife, she should work in a supportive way in conjunction with his life work.

Accordingly, she has served in the Wayne County Medical Society, Harper and Hutzel Hospital auxiliaries and her outstanding fund-raising abilities are well-known in all three groups.

She organized a luncheon and fashion show for the Medical Society ladies one year. It's a traditional event—but under Jean's aegis the party raised the largest amount in the auxiliary's history. Proceeds went for medical and nursing scholarships.

During her tenure as a Hutzel auxiliary board member a fund-raising campaign for a Surgical Intensive Care Unit was highly successful.

Dr. and Mrs. Johnson are parents of a teenage son and daughter and many of Jean's community activities are directed toward the welfare of children.

She's been a volunteer worker at Pierce Middle School and represented the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers Club board at the Board of Education during a difficult time in the School Board's history.

Her paper, "Adies Syndrome—Some Characteristics of Patients Who Develop Tonic Pupils," is based on her research in the University of Iowa's summer science training program last year in which she sought to better define the eye disorder. Brenda intends to pursue a career in science and will enter Lyman Briggs College at Michigan State University next fall.

Proceeds from the 1975 Alpha Phi Lollipop Drive will go to Saint John Hospital's Cardiac Care Unit.

Lick Lollipops To Help Hearts

Helping to lick heart disease is the aim of the 1975 Alpha Phi Lollipop Drive. The heart-shaped lollipops available now at shops, hospitals and shopping centers provide delicious Valentine treats and contribute to cardiac care.

Donations will be given, as they were last year, to the Cardiac Care Unit at Saint John Hospital.

Two new systems used in prevention and care of heart disease are Echo Cardiology which measures and obtains physical details of the heart and its components through the use of ultra sound, (it may also be used to identify valvular heart problems and arterial aneurysms at no risk or pain to the patient), and the 12-hour dynamic EKG examination used when a patient's symptoms indicate a standard EKG might have missed cardiac irregularities.

In this latter procedure the patient wears a portable EKG recording device for 12 hours while going through normal activities of daily living. At the completion of the 12 hours a tape from the portable unit is placed in a special analyzer which can identify any irregularities which may have occurred during the day.

This procedure may be used following a heart attack to indicate if and when the patient may return to activities involving stress.

During January and February active and alumnae members of Alpha Phi all over the United States conduct their Lollipop Drives for the benefit of Cardiac Aid projects.

Chairwomen of the local drive this year are Mrs. Richard Dietz, of Washington road, and Mrs. Floyd Nixon, Jr., of Lochmoor boulevard.

International Day for DRC

The Detroit Review Club will present a program with an international flavor Tuesday, February 25, at the Women's City Club.

Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin, DRC president will open the meeting at 1:30 o'clock in the club's Executive Suite.

Mrs. Robert McLaren and Mrs. John Wigle, of Windsor, will present slides of their "Visit Extraordinaire to Tanzania, Africa."

Mrs. James G. Gustin, chairman of the International Relations committee, will introduce the speakers.

Both Mrs. McLaren and Mrs. Wigle took pictures and will tell of their experiences. Mrs. McLaren's daughter Daphne Allen, her husband Don and their family were teaching in Tanzania under auspices of the Canadian International Development Agency when the two women decided to visit them.

Before joining the Allens the ladies from Windsor visited Athens and Nairobi. Daphne Allen met her mother and friend in Nairobi, about 700 miles from Dar es Salaam, where the Allens lived. Enroute there the trio visited three game parks.

Three weeks in Tanzania's capital proved educational as well as entertaining. Tanzania is the former British colony of Tanganyika which gained its independence in 1961.

Its name was changed to Tanzania in 1964, when the British protectorate of Zanzibar and Tanganyika formed a union.

The educational system in Tanzania is quite different from that of Canada and the United States. Pupils there MUST study and work hard to maintain not only their standing but their physical place in the school.

Any student who does not keep up with the class, for any reason, is replaced by a student willing to work. Once out of school education ends.

In this way, because there aren't enough places at elementary, secondary and university levels and everyone in Tanzania can't go to school, only the best and brightest students are advanced.

John McLaren, now Canadian Consul in Chicago, was serving Canada in Nairobi at the time of his mother's trip, so members of the Detroit Review Club will see colored slides of many lavish parties given both in Nairobi and Dar es Salaam during her stay.

Mrs. Wigle's son John, now an Anglican rector in Youngstown, O., formerly served at Bloomfield Hills' Church of the Advent.

The Wigle and McLaren sons attended school, (through university), together. Robert McLaren is now Canadian High Commissioner to Bangladesh... so there will certainly be an "international" flavor to the slides and talk at DRC's February 25 meeting.

Inside the Mothers Club

Since its inception the purpose of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers Club has been to provide communication between school and home and support on matters to do with programs, social functions and scholarships.

It has certainly been effective in implementing some programs which would otherwise have been impossible to afford.

South High's Dad's Club is known for its interest in, and support of, the sports activities of the school, and there is a parent group whose main interest is the Band and Orchestra, and another whose main interest is the Choral Department.

Yet there are still parents at South High who do not consider themselves a part of any of these organizations.

With this in mind it has been suggested that a South High Parents Club might be a solution to the problem. The idea was discussed at length at the February Mothers Club board meeting.

It was pointed out that such a club could include more parents and serve a broader area of interests, with representation from the various groups now operating separately.

Not only might it provide a

Farms Boaters to Honor Commodores

Von Furstenberg Collection at Himelhoch's

Biene Blechschmidt, couture model, radio and T.V. personality, will be at Himelhoch's in Grosse Pointe to present Diane Von Furstenberg's spring collection on Monday, February 17th, with informal modeling from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The photo shows Biene in a typical Diane Von Furstenberg fashion.

Diane Von Furstenberg epitomizes today's new woman — intelligent, confident, successful and elegant. Born in Brussels 27 years ago, she is a dedicated mother of two, fluent in five languages, and an enormously successful business woman. What makes her line so exciting is the choice of prints and styles that transcend age and life style. And, best of all, they are realistically priced.

Recognizing the difficulty in finding clothes that "feel as good as your skin," Diane decided to design her own. Four years ago, she traveled the country with a suitcase filled with her first line of form fit dresses, and that was the beginning of Diane Von Furstenberg Ltd., now a twelve million per year manufacturing company.

All of her designs are original and she personally selects and designs fabric and prints that emulate her code of combining femininity with practicality and comfort with clothes that caress and hug the body.

Diane's spring collection has been described as delightful, daring and dramatic for D in Diane. And, feminine, fashionable and functional for F in Furstenberg. D might also stand for dresses, for that is what Diane brought back to women.

Her collection emphasizes soft, subtle dresses with twelve variations and as many prints. Strong for spring are her prints on white backgrounds including the Sea Gull, Herb, Rose, Art Deco Fan, Coffee Bean and Trellis prints.

Her lengths vary from skimming the knee in one-piece silhouettes to ever so slightly longer in her two-piece styles.

Her philosophy of simplistic elegance is evident in her styling. Her wrap and shirt dress have been updated with dress maker detailing and look all new in their spring printings.

New this season is her version of the chemise—an A-line with the gathered string tie neckline. Also, very new is her two-piece with princess line top and flip skirt, plus a one-piece A-line with again the gathered tie neckline. The simplicity of her designs carry through to her pantsuits with wrap and shirt tops and her two-piece evening looks.

Come in and let Biene show you why Diane Von Furstenberg has been called the first lady of fashion for the new woman. And, why you will feel like a new woman in one of her designs.

Mrs. Marge Fischer, commenting on several School Board items, asked that the public be reminded to return the questionnaire recently sent to all residents. She noted the sizable reduction in state aid (down from $343,148 to $121,448), due to removal of the four percent sales tax on food.

It was announced that Charles Keller, an authority in the field of Humanities and professor emeritus at Williams College, will be brought to South High for a spring lecture.

This lecture is provided by the Jerry Gerich Fund under auspices of the Foundation for Academic Enrichment.

It is one of the special enrichment programs to be offered from time to time, and the schools are being asked for suggestions to guide future selections.

Society News Gathered from the Pointes

She's devoted many hours to school elections and issues, organizing block workers, planning election-watching at the polls and helping educate voters on bond issues.

She's been active in Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education.

She's served as a United Foundation Torch Drive area chairman for two years now. The volunteer Meadow Brook usher corps she organized in 1964, when the outdoor summer concerts were just beginning, is still running smoothly.

The Kaleidoscope concerts initiated by the Symphony Juniors under Mrs. Johnson's direction were forerunners of the Symphony's super-successful Lecture/Open Rehearsal series.

Excursions in Music, the program through which Symphony members travel to schools to play and explain their instruments, was also started under Jean Johnson's direction.

No wonder she's wearing one of the gold heart-shaped charms symbolizing extraordinary community service, presented annually by the Heart of Gold Award Council comprised of 40 leading women's organization working with Women for the United Foundation!

"The more effort I put into something, the more reward I get out of it," Jean maintains. She was brought up, she adds, in a "helping hand" atmosphere. Her parents were always quick to aid neighbors and friends who needed them.

She's passing on her values to her children. Son Bob, offered a fee for a math tutoring job, turned it down saying he'd rather be a volunteer.

She's held in high esteem by her fellow volunteers: "I'd take ANY volunteer job in an organization if Jean Johnson were involved," one of them noted. That about sums it up.

The old Toonerville Trolley has nothing on Harper Hospital Division of United Hospitals of Detroit where a Book Train, powered by batteries and reaching speeds as high as three miles per hour, makes regular stops every Tuesday and Wednesday at patients' rooms.

Once upon a time Harper Auxiliary volunteers pushed a traditional Book Cart through the halls. Then the Hospital's new $50 million, 435,750-square-foot Webber Wing was opened—and that meant a

Serendipity Singers Arrive February 21

Their Performance Will Climax This Season's Lighter Side of Life Series at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial

The Serendipity Singers, one of the most exciting and refreshing new young singing groups on the international scene, originally scheduled to appear on the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Lighter Side of Life series in November but forced to postpone due to a transportation breakdown, will provide the Lighter Side's grand finale Friday, February 21.

The evening begins with cocktails at the Grosse Pointe Hunt

Club's new Tennis House at 6 o'clock, continues with a black tie dinner in the Center's Crystal Ballroom at 7:30 and ends with the main event: the Singers Show on the Fries Theatre stage at 9 o'clock.

As defined in the dictionary "serendipity" is a discovery of a new and happy event.

Used in the colloquial sense it is the ability or art of doing many things well at the same time, the faculty of making desirable but unsought-for discoveries by accident as did the three princes of Serendip who, in the fairy story, looked for one thing and found another.

The Serendipity Singers were formed at the University of Colorado in 1963. They moved to the Bitter End in New York, hit the Ed Sullivan show and were launched on every major television show including Dean Martin, the Kraft Music Hall, Bell Telephone Hour, Johnny Carson and Mike Douglas.

They have played in every state and 15 foreign countries. They travel in their own custom $125,000 flexible bus complete with living room, kitchen and bath.

Tickets for the complete evening, cocktail party, dinner and show at $22, or for the show only at $11 may be purchased at the Center's office, 881-7511.
