U.S. AND SOVIET space men met in space today with handshakes, bear hugs and big grins. The greetings, which came at 3:19 p.m. (Detroit time), two minutes behind schedule, were broadcast over live television. "Glad to see you," said astronaut Thomas P. Stafford, an Air Force general from the plains of Oklahoma. "Very, very happy to see you," replied cosmonaut Alexi Leonov, a Soviet Air Force colonel and Communist party member from a small Russian village.

A 20-YEAR-OLD woman gave birth to five healthy but small babies, while her husband was trapped in a hospital elevator, today in Dallas, Tex. The quintuplets were born to Mrs. Debbie Davis six weeks prematurely but Dr. Jack A. Pritchard said all went well. "They were born wide awake and everything is fine," Jerry Davis, a mechanic for a trucking company, did not know he had a son and four daughters until he stepped off the stalled elevator at the delivery room, after being stuck there for close to 40 minutes. "I guess I'm to have a basketball team," he said.

PRESIDENT FORD announced today that he will join leaders of 34 other nations in Helsinki, Finland. Administration officials said Mr. Ford also plans to visit West Germany, Poland, Romania and Yugoslavia this month. He will be in Helsinki from Wednesday-Friday, July 30-August 1, for the largest summit meeting ever attended by a U.S. president. Signing of the broad treaty by Mr. Ford, Soviet Communist party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev and leaders from other Warsaw Pact communist countries and the rest of Europe will wind up the European security conference.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES were waiting today to question the seriously injured, lone survivor of an unexplained auto accident in which five teenagers and a woman were killed on a rural road near Aubion. Calhoun County Deputies said they did not know who was driving the 1969 Plymouth which slammed head on into a tree off 25 1/2 Mile road, southwest of Albion, at 1 a.m. The mother of the sole survivor—Alan Sebastian, 17, of Marshall, who is in serious condition in the Foote Hospital in Jackson—said the youths were coming back from a stock car race in Butler. She said she thought her son was driving the car.

Monday, July 21

TWO SOVIET cosmonauts landed safely in a central Russian wheat field today, bringing home a new trophy for mankind—an awakened spirit of space cooperation. The Apollo sailed on, alone, towards a Thursday splashdown. Alexi Leonov and Valeri Kubasov were safe and well after their landing. The bell-shaped craft touched down in a cloud of dust seen around the world on the first live telecast of a Soviet space return.

Tuesday, July 22

PRESIDENT FORD fired another salvo Monday in his battle with Congress over energy policy by vetoing a measure which would have rolled back the price of new U.S. oil and maintain the current price for old oil. Mr. Ford urged Congress to approve his plan for the gradual removal of all price controls on domestic oil production, warning that failure to approve the plan would result in skyrocketing prices in this country. The House is scheduled to vote on the plan this week.

Working Together to Beautify South High

A community beautification project got underway recently with the donation of $1,500 by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council to the Board of Education for use in improving the Fisher road entrance to South High School. Gathering for a recent planning session were, (from left to right), BEN ZENN, the school system's director of support services; MRS. URBAN BORESCH, publicity chairman of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council; DAMIAN KISKA, vice-president of South High's Student Association; MRS. H. JAMES GRAM, president of the Garden Club Council; DR. JAMES A. ADAMS, superintendent of schools; MRS. EDWARD C. HANPETER, president of the Board of Education; and MRS. H. A. POWELL, vice-president of the Garden Club Council.

New Plan On Docket For Schools

Pilot Reading Program on Elementary Level to Begin in September for One Year Period

The elementary schools in the Grosse Pointe Public School System will begin a pilot reading program for one year beginning this September. The program will utilize three series of textbooks recommended by the elementary textbook committee.

Textbooks to be studied this year are the "Bookmark Reading Program, 1974," by Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, "The Holt Basic Reading System, 1973," by Holt, Rinehart and Winston, and "The Houghton Mifflin Reading Program, 1974," by Houghton Mifflin.

Superintendent of schools Dr. James A. Adams commented that the firms are three of the outstanding reading companies in the nation. He added that the materials are available for public inspection in the Department of Instruction in the Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue.

Work for Months
The books will be used in all 10 elementary schools. Some schools will have as many as 12 teachers using the materials although most will have between six and eight teachers participating. (Continued on Page 2)

Park Police Apprehend Two Break-in Suspects

Good police work on the part of Park officers resulted in the apprehension of a 17-year-old Park youth and a juvenile after they attempted to break into successive garages early Sunday morning, July 13.

Allen Burgess, of 1251 Bishop road, the older youth, was arraigned in the Park Municipal Court Monday evening, July 14. City Municipal Judge Stanley Kazul presided in the absence of Park Judge John Urso.

City Police Chief Offers Advice for Residents on Preventing Bike Thefts

Andrew Teetaert Stresses That Citizens Should Protect Their Bicycles As Much As They Protect Their Cars; Two-Wheelers Should Be Locked At All Times

By Teri Mageau
No one has to remind you that bicycle thefts are on the increase. All of us probably know someone whose bike has been stolen, or maybe one of our own has been taken. More and more bicycles are reported missing every day to Pointe police departments.

And it isn't necessarily because there are more bike thieves running around, although this certainly is true. And you can't really attribute it to the fact that there are more bikes being purchased every day, although that also has some bearing on the case.

The main and most important reason more bicycles are being stolen is because people do not lock them. During a one week period the beginning of this month in the City, for example, 11 bicycles were stolen. Of that total, nine were not locked.

Cites Problem
"The problem," said City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert, "is we haven't created enough of an impression that people should protect their bicycles as much as they protect their cars. No one leaves their keys in the ignition because they know that's a sure fire attraction to car thieves."

"In the same way, no one should ever leave their bike unlocked. You're just asking for trouble. I would give a 10-speed bike, left unlocked, about a 50-60 percent chance of being stolen. "A lot of times the person doesn't want to take the time to lock the bike," he continued, "because he feels that there won't be any thieves around and feels embarrassed to ask a friend if he can conceal his bike in the backyard or in the garage."

Of course, concealing a bicycle isn't everything. Just because you put it in the garage or behind the house does not mean it is necessarily safe.

Daylight Thefts
In the month of June, for instance, close to 70 percent of stolen bicycles were taken from garages or side drives. People think that no one would come right up to the house and take a bike, but that's where a majority of thefts occur, according to Chief Teetaert.

Another misconception is that bikes are only stolen during the dead of night. During the previously mentioned week, more than half

Officer Kraiza Aids Passenger
Even while on vacation, Farms Officer John Kraiza maintains his sense of public duty. While on a Nordair flight from Aruba Saturday, July 5, Officer Kraiza gave assistance to an ill passenger for about one hour and 15 minutes.

He performed mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and exterior heart massage while on the plane.

Garden Club Gives $1,500 To Project

Donation to Supplement School Board Funds for Improvement of South High Site; Further Contributions Needed

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council has donated $1,500 to supplement Board of Education funds for improvement of the South High School site.

Mrs. H. James Gram, council president, indicated that the Garden Club Council will get the project started, while hoping to enlist support from the community as well as from students to increase the fund.

Contributions for construction, grading and planting near the Fisher road entrance are now being solicited, noted Mrs. Gram. She said gifts may be sent to the Garden Club Council's treasurer, Mrs. Henry Ledyard, 101 Lewiston road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Gift Most Welcome
Work on the project must begin soon to be completed before the September school opening.

John Langel, president of the South High Student Association, indicated pleasure that South High students are being included in the project. He was represented at a recent planning meeting by Damian Kiska, association vice-president.

"I am pleased that the Garden Club Council has chosen to work closely with the Board of Education and staff on the beautification of South High School as part of the community's Bicentennial observance," said Mrs. Joan R. Hanpeter, president of the School Board, in accepting the gift.

Dr. James A. Adams, superintendent of schools, said the gift will be most welcome. Dr. Adams estimated that a total of $3,500 will be budgeted for grounds work at South during the 1975-76 fiscal year.

Main Concerns
He indicated that since most of this is needed for regular care for the playing fields as well as the grounds, additional financial contributions to the Garden Club Council will be vital to complete the Fisher road entrance plan as envisioned. "The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council has been in existence for 27 years. (Continued on Page 4)

GP City Okays Participation in Highway Plan

Council Votes Unanimously to Take Part in Programs Under Federal Act Allowing for Improvements on Traffic Signs, Signals, Plus Pavement Markings

The City Council voted unanimously to participate in programs under the 1973 Federal Highway Act which would allow improvements on traffic signs, signals and pavement markings around the community. This action occurred at the regular meeting Monday, July 21.

City officials recently met with Michigan Department of Highway and Transportation officials to discuss this matter and were reminded that there are both Federal and State requirements which establish standards concerning traffic control devices on public roads.

Target dates for compliance with these regulations vary from December 31, 1975, to December 31, 1977.

Funds are available for the City's use to improve their warning and regulatory devices not on the Federal Aid System on a 90 percent Federal and 10 percent local cost basis.

Could Be Less
State officials estimated that it would take $25,000 for an area the size of The City to meet sign and signal standards. This estimate is based on Statewide data but City Manager Thomas Kressbach would not be so great as most of the streets in The City are residential.

An actual inventory of The City's needs would help define cost, Mr. Kressbach added. The Automobile Club of Michigan has offered to assist in conducting the inventory by supplying certain equipment and personnel. Mr. Kressbach estimated that The City's share would be about $2,500.

The above costs do not include traffic signal modernization, some of which also is required. Funding for this is available on a 90-10 percent basis, but under a different program. Both programs will probably be carried out over a 12-24 month period representing two budget years.

Alter Compensation
In a response to the steadily increasing costs of workman's compensation insurance, The City Council also voted unanimously to convert its present insurance program of a fixed dividend (Continued on Page 2)

Youth Group Seeks Clowns

The Youth Division of The Grosse Pointe Woods Bicentennial Committee is seeking clowns for next year's celebration.

Arthur J. Kuehnel, chairman of the clown procurement committee, requests all young people in elementary, junior high and high schools, who would like to participate, contact him before August 31 at 881-8188.

Larceny/Theft Cases Lead YSD's June Total

A total of 80 complaints were processed by the Youth Service Division, (YSD), last month with the larceny/theft classification being reported as the category of highest incidence. (20 such cases were handled).

Last month's total showed an increase of 31 cases over the May figure and was exactly the same as the amount in June 1974.

The overall total of reported incidents through June is 394, an increase of 16 over the same period last year. The YSD says the incidence rate is high every June due to the seasonal hike in bicycle thefts.

The 20 larceny/theft incidents involved 25 male juveniles and seven female juveniles. Related categories

Facilities Set to Debut On Saturday

Woods Officials Express Pleasure over Completion of First Major Phase of Construction Work

By Roger A. Waha

The eight new tennis courts, which are a part of the almost $2 million Woods Lake Front Park improvement project, are scheduled to open Saturday, July 26, at 8 a.m., weather permitting. In case of inclement weather, they will open "as soon as possible," said Burl von Allmen of the Parks and Recreation Department.

With the completion of the courts, the first major phase of construction work is over. Now, most eyes are cast in the direction of the new swimming pool complex and bathhouse.

In his June monthly report, Donald J. Hallmann, parks and recreation director, noted that Ted Ackley, general supervisor in charge of construction, said, "They are ahead of the construction schedule and if all progresses as planned, the keys to the new facilities will be turned over to us on approximately September 15."

New Guidelines
Not only will residents and their guests have eight more courts but they also will have some new rules and regulations to observe regarding court usage. These rules will apply to the park's 10 courts.

Mr. von Allmen said many hours of work went into the preparation of these rules which incorporated suggestions from residents, tennis enthusiasts and the best from other systems.

The main difference between the new and old rules rests in the mode of registration. Under the old system, which drew many complaints, citizens could only sign up 15 minutes before the hour in which they wished to use a court, he said. This often caused waiting periods which spanned from one to two hours.

However, under the new format the entire process will be speeded up as residents, for instance, can sign up in the morning for use of a court in the evening.

Park Removes 68 Dead Elms

The Park Council authorized contracts with two tree firms to remove diseased elms on public property at its regular meeting, Monday, July 14.

City Manager Robert Stone disclosed that James Tree Service submitted the low bid of $4,175, using its own dump site, to remove and dispose of 25 dead or diseased public-owned elms.

A second contract was given to Cal Fleming Landscaping and Tree Service to remove 43 diseased trees at a cost of $9,955, using its own dump site. The first firm offered to do the job for $9,847.

Mr. Stone said that since the first bid was submitted for the removal of the first 25 trees, a survey disclosed that 43 additional elms were found to contain the Dutch Elm Disease. He recommended that the latter be removed as fast as possible and that the contract be given to Cal Fleming.

The city manager said that the James firm could not possibly start removing the 43 extra trees until it has fulfilled its commitment to remove the 25 elms, and this could cause the disease to spread.

By awarding contracts to both firms, work on the removals can be started simultaneously, the city manager said. Both firms began work on the trees the following day.

New Tennis Courts to Open at Woods Park

(Continued from Page 1) made on the day a court is desired. All reservations must be made in person by one of the parties seeking court time; no telephone reservations will be accepted. Finally, reserved time will not be accepted prior to 8 a.m. on the morning of the day a reservation is desired.

Everyone Excited
If the courts open as planned this Saturday, an attendant will be stationed between the new courts for the "premiere" sign-up.

"We've been waiting for this for a long time," said Mr. Hallmann, regarding opening day. "We're really excited about it," chimed in Mr. von Allmen. "I feel our park is going to be a park second to none." Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, Parks and Recreation Committee chairman, stated he was "absolutely thrilled" with the announcement.

Echoing their enthusiasm, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen stated, "This will, if the courts open on Saturday, be a great benefit for our residents for the remainder of the summer months. We will have eight of the finest courts in the area."

He also complimented Brenca Contractors, Inc., for proceeding to complete the courts so citizens would have time to use them.

The new courts are all regulation size with their pitch and specifications right up to standards, said Mr. von Allmen, who added professional matches could readily be played on them.

Need Cooperation
All are lit by mercury vapor lighting, (the old courts are awaiting a new "glow"), all have four inches of asphalt, appropriate draining facilities and are covered with two coats of plexipave and one final coat of plexichrome.

Their surface is green with white stripes, while the apron surface is red.

"Our aim is to provide the people with the best facilities, while keeping them in the best order we can," stressed Mr. von Allmen. But to do this, he said, would require the help of all citizens.

He asked everyone to abide by the rules and urged bike riders and people with hard heel shoes to stay off the courts.

At the same time, Mr. von Allmen requested that citizens stay off the green vinyl coated fencing surrounding the playing area.

Other Rules
Besides making reservations in person the day a court is desired, other regulations governing usage include the following:

- Reservations may be made by Woods citizens on-

- Regulation soft-soled shoes must be worn while playing.
- A regular or tennis shirt must also be worn while playing.
- Smoking isn't permitted on the courts or while using the courts.
- Jumping on or over the nets, leaning on, pulling or kicking the nets is prohibited.
- Residents must display their park permits upon request of the tennis court attendant or park personnel.

- Parties playing doubles may reserve a court for a period of 1 1/2 hours. Parties playing singles may reserve a court for a one hour period.
- When seeking reserve time, all parties must be listed by name on the reservation sheet. The purpose, here, said Mr. von Allmen, is to check passes and prevent cheating.

- At the time of play, a resident will be required to display a validated park pass to the court attendant prior to being issued a court permit. Reserved time or court permits are not transferable.
- Reserved time must be claimed by one of the parties listed on the reservation sheet at least five minutes prior to the reserved time or court time will be forfeited. A sign-up sheet for those seeking to fill in for "no show" parties will be available with the court attendant. Players will be taken from this sheet on a first come, first serve basis.

ly. Residents under 18 years of age may reserve court time up to 4 p.m. daily except Sundays when adults will have priority. Adults, 18 and over, may reserve courts for any time of the day or evening.

are numbered four through 10.

Attendance Rises
In other news, attendance figures at the park are showing a big increase this year in comparison to 1974, according to Mr. Hallmann's June report.

"In spite of the fact that the beginning days of June consisted of less than ideal weather conditions, the attendance at the park increased appreciably over that of a year ago. We had a total of 52,494 people, which when compared to the figure of 45,090 shows an increase of approximately 14 percent," he said.

Mr. Hallmann attributed this hike to the "continuous and ever growing popularity of the park and the facilities available for recreational use."

The single high day was June 22 when 4,218 people entered the park. This is a jump of 528 over last year's high day in June when 3,690 individuals utilized the facilities.

Favors are usually doled out on credit, and many find mighty high interest rates attached.

AUTO FACTS

by KEN MEADE

Buying a used car entails a systematic plan for inspecting the car and detecting hidden faults. When examining the outside of the car, for example, look for new paint. The acrylic paint sprayed on new cars at the factory is capable of surviving almost any sort of weather conditions for at least three years. So if you find new paint on a late-model used car, it is a pretty safe bet that it is covering a repaired body. Look for a different color on the inside edges of the door frame, or under the hood.

Look for your new car at POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave., 884-7210, where you get "The Clincher". Chrysler Corporation's one-year unlimited mileage new car warranty and service policy. It's a program designed with today's smart buyer in mind.

New Program for Schools

(Continued from Page 1) The textbook committee, consisting of one teacher from each elementary school, a principal, a remedial reading teacher and a resource teacher, studied various materials for several months. In all, 18 publishers forwarded textbooks.

Criteria prepared by the Department of Instruction was used to evaluate the books. It rated such areas as character traits and occupations of males, females and minorities, skills development, vocabulary, literary quality of the readings, the overall value of instruction in reading, illustrations and support materials as well as other areas.

Nab Suspects

The officers discovered attempts were made to forcibly enter garages at 1000 and 1004 Bishop. They confined their search to that street. Patrolman Konefke spotted Burgess and the juvenile coming from the rear yard of 1014 Bishop as Sgt. Petrie and Officers Michael and Molitor were looking in other backyards. He ordered the pair to halt and placed them under arrest.

Burgess and the juvenile were taken to the station, where Burgess was detained until his arraignment. The parents of the juvenile were called and the boy was released to them. The parents also were informed they will be contacted by Youth Service Division detectives regarding their son's alleged activity.

Highway Plan

(Continued from Page 1) plan to a sliding scale. Mr. Kressbach said this alternative plan provides a desirable potential savings in comparison to the losses that The City has been experiencing in the last four years.

The City's insurance broker and consultant, Johnson and Higgins, advised that a savings in annual premium for this insurance coverage could be realized by assuming a small portion of the risks in terms of retroactive premium adjustments.

The exact cost of such retroactive plans will be known at the end of the policy period, June 30, 1975, (the end of the fiscal year), after actual claims are analyzed.

Have Big Time at Bicentennial Confab

Gov. WILLIAM MILLIKEN and Lt. Gov. JAMES DAMMAN flank North High School students TIMOTHY MUCCIANTE, (left), and DAVE REED, chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Youth Division of the Woods Bicentennial Committee. The State's two highest officials gave the young men personal acknowledgement of the fact that the youth division was cited as the youngest officially recognized Bicentennial committee in the State. This occurred at the Michigan Bicentennial Commission's two-day conference last month.

Two Youths in Woods Group Meet Governor

Two members of the Youth Division of the Grosse Pointe Woods Bicentennial Committee, which was cited over two months ago by the Michigan Bicentennial Commission as the youngest officially recognized Bicentennial committee in the State, received personal acknowledgement of this recognition from Gov. William Milliken and Lt. Gov. James Damman. This occurred at the State Commission's two-day conference at the Detroit Heritage House last month.

The members, Timothy Mucciante and David Reed, both of whom are 16 and juniors at North High School, attended the conference as youth representatives and talked with Gov. Milliken and Lt. Gov. Damman. Julie Fish, secretary of The Woods Bicentennial Committee who assists the youths, also was in attendance.

Mr. Mucciante and Mr. Reed, who are chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the youth group, heard speeches by Gov. Milliken and Lt. Gov. Damman and took part in a series of workshops which were designed to help local Bicentennial commissions on the planning front.

"We picked up a lot of information on fund raising, handling publicity and getting people involved," said Mr. Mucciante who obviously was thrilled at meeting the State's two top officials.

They also attended workshop luncheons and a reception for conference participants in the penthouse of the Veterans Memorial Building. The reception was hosted by the Detroit Bicentennial Committee, who also hosted the Freedom Train in Detroit.

Besides that, the trio previewed a Michigan Tourist Council film focusing upon traveling in Michigan for the Bicentennial.

Of the several workshops they attended, The Woods "reps" paid particular attention to the workshop, "Youth and the Bicentennial," given by Russ Gibbs, director of Youth and Education for the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. Mr. Gibbs commended the youths for their interest and participation in the Bicentennial, said Mr. Mucciante.

The Youth Division has seven official members and invites other Woods young people between 13-18 years of age to become involved. For further information, call Mr. Mucciante at 881-5675.

Pointers Lose Player, Game

The Pointe police softball team dropped its first game in Metro Police Softball League play Sunday, July 20, but far worse than this is the loss of another player to injuries.

Woods Officer Thomas Hunke, who broke his ankle after trying to get back to first base after a single, will be in a cast for around five weeks, according to Shores Officer John Trevillian, co-manager.

Ironically, Officer Hunke was placed in the cast Monday, July 21, the day before Shores Officer Mike Kenyon was scheduled to have his removed. Officer Kenyon suffered a break in the lower part of his leg some six weeks ago.

Despite the 7-5 loss to the Macomb County Probate Court, the Pointers wrapped up the division championship with a 12-1 mark. "We lost too many men on base," said Officer Trevillian, who added men died at third in four different innings.

Board Requests Title I Funds

The Board of Education unanimously voted to apply for $39,311 in Federal Title I funds under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act to be used in improving the program for the students at the Children's Home of Detroit, 900 Cook road.

The school system has been receiving Title I funds since 1967 and has used them for the Children's Home program for the last five years.

The funds will enable the system to add a full-time perceptual-motor specialist, two teacher aides, a part-time psychiatrist, part-time psychologist and increase the instructional supplies available.

The funds also will allow for a contracted summer tutorial program to be conducted at the home.

The trustees will consider the application at the Monday, July 14, School Board meeting.

GP Foundation Picks Officers

The Foundation for Exceptional Children elected trustees to serve on the Board of Trustees for 1975-76 at its recent annual meeting. They are Dr. J. E. Tapert, president; Maurice Vermeulen, first vice-president; Dr. William J. Scott, second vice-president; John L. King, secretary; and Dr. Patrick Jewell, treasurer.

Offers Advice on Bike Thefts

(Continued from Page 1) of the bicycles were stolen during the late afternoon and early evening hours. "Those are good hours for bike thieves," says Chief Teetaert, "because that's when all the bikes are out. No one ever thinks it's necessary to lock up bicycles in broad daylight, but that's when it's especially necessary." But you can't just lock your bike; it has to be locked to something. "Many thieves have big vans and they just pick up a bicycle and stick it in the back," observes the chief. "Nowadays, they even use trunks of cars. Before, trucks were too small and you'd have a wheel or a handlebar sticking out, but now the whole bike can fit and no one would even suspect."

Police stress the fact that the lock and chain should be case hardened and long enough to wrap through the frame, both wheels and around a stationary object. Sometimes even that doesn't prevent the bike from being stolen. The police have in their possession several chain cutters that bicycle thieves use to break locks and chains.

"There's very little that can stop those cutters," claims the chief. "But anything that is sure fire deterrent is better than nothing. The police constantly patrol the area and notify people who leave their bikes out that there are thieves in the community. But the rest is up to the people."

Besides protecting your own bike, the chief urges everyone to help others protect theirs by reporting anything suspicious.

Offers Reminder

"If you ever see someone putting a bike in a trunk of a car, or in a van, notify us immediately. If you go to buy a used bicycle from someone and they're selling a $125 bike for $25, then you know something must be wrong, so contact the police."

"Whenever you are buying a used bike, the best thing to do is to know who you are buying it from," he asserts. "If you don't know the person, ask to see the original bill of sale or at least its registration. That's the only way you'll be certain that you're buying a legitimate bicycle."

Chief Teetaert reminds residents that any person who willfully purchases a "hot bike," can be charged with purchase of stolen merchandise, which ranges from a high misdemeanor to a felony, depending on the value of the bike.

One of the reasons Chief Teetaert gives for the often lackadaisical attitude on the part of bicycle owners is the facility of replacement by insurance companies.

"If your bike is stolen and is covered under your home insurance, the insurance company will usually replace it. Because of this it seems people are not as cautious enough. What they don't realize is that their insurance rates will go up."

Chief Teetaert believes that you cannot classify the bicycle thief.

"There are different kinds," he said. "There are the ones that just want it for themselves; the ones who need an immediate means of transportation, then after they've gotten to where they want to go, they dump the bike; and there are the organized ones, the ones who will steal bikes and then sell them so that they can purchase other items—usually narcotics."

The chief emphasizes the point, though, that the amount of thefts would be much lower if people would take the time and effort to lock their bike in the proper way.

But as one police sergeant commented, "the best way not to have your bike stolen is to not have one at all. At least not a fancy 10-speed. I'll never buy my kids one; there's just too much of a chance that it'll be stolen."

Lochmoor Tee Tourney Has 320 Participants

The 32nd Annual Invitational Tournament, held at the Lochmoor Club Wednesday-Sunday, July 16-20, is generally recognized as the finest event of its kind in the country.

This year's tourney drew a strong field of 320 golfers, assembled from all over the nation.

The event consisted of 10 flights, each of which included 16 two-man teams.

In the premiere match, the championship flight crown went to Shores resident Alex Venettis and his partner Terry Shook, of Burning Tree Country Club. They defeated Max Hrabon, of St. Clair Shores, and George Whitmore in an extremely close match which was decided on the 17th hole. Mr. Venettis previously won the championship with Don Hibbard in 1973.

Another highlight of the tournament was a hole-in-one scored by Pointer Doug Brown. This accomplishment won him a new car, courtesy of Bill Farrah Lincoln-Mercury.

Mr. Brown used a five iron on the 160-yard 16th hole for his first ace in 30 years of golf.

Bob Brest, of Pine Lake Country Club, earned the use of a new auto, courtesy of McCullagh Leasing, with a shot 4¾ from the pin on the same hole, edging out former State amateur champion Glenn Johnson, of Grosse Isle Country Club, by a margin of an inch. In a special driving contest, Mr. Shook won over a strong field with a poke of 250 yards. He also won an additional prize when host professional, Jim Picard, failed to best his drive by a single yard.

The winners in other flights include:

First flight — Fred Wolf, Woods, and Al Blomberg, Great Oaks Country Club.

Second flight — Lou Corte, Shores, and Ron Otto, Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Third flight — Warren Weller, Woods, and Glenn Krusell, Grosse Ile Country Club.

Fourth flight — Dave Hall, Woods, and Fred Longe, Dearborn Country Club.

Fifth flight — Bob Crawford, Woods, and Jay McDonald, Blackhawk Golf Club, New Brighton, Pa.

Sixth flight — Rupert Atkin, Woods, and Bob Love, unattached.

Seventh flight — John Nehra, Woods, and Chuck Holt, Gowanee Country Club, Mt. Clemens.

Eighth flight — Mac Scott, Woods, and Bob Gamble, Detroit Golf Club.

Ninth flight — Al Santino, Woods, and Jim Boutros, unattached.

Pair Convicted in City Incident

A City man and his 17-year-old son were found guilty of assault and battery and illegal discharge of a firearm within city limits, respectively, at their Wednesday, July 16, hearing in The City Municipal Court before Judge Stan C. Kazul. John P. Frazer Jr. and John P. Frazer III, of 17111 East Jefferson avenue, after pleading not guilty to the charges, were convicted and given a sentencing date of Wednesday, August 13. They both could receive up to one year's imprisonment and a fine.

Frazer and his son were arrested on April 29 after police responded to a call that persons at the Frazer apartment were "causing a nuisance." Upon arriving at approximately 4 a.m. police warned Frazer III that he and his friends should stay out of the halls as the management was complaining. The officers then decided to take a 13-year-old Park girl who was in the company of Frazer III and his friends to her parents.

The son reacted by using abusive language thinking that the girl was being arrested, police said. As the officers were explaining that this was not the case, the father pulled up in the car and, according to reports, "exited his car screaming obscenities" at the officers.

Police stated the father then struck one of the officers and a scuffle resulted, after which he was handcuffed and taken to the station.

As the scout car was leaving the parking lot, gunshots were heard from inside the apartment building. After a search, the son was apprehended and a shot gun and a box of assorted shot gun shells were confiscated from the Frazer basement.

Both Frasers contained in court that it was a case of police harassment.

Police said there is a possibility the Frasers will appeal the decision.

SEMCOG Report Shows Pointes Gain 64 Homes

The number of residential building permits issued during 1974 for new housing construction in Southeast Michigan slumped nearly 38 percent below the same activity for 1973 according to a recently completed report from the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, (SEMCOG).

The decline marks the third consecutive year that new housing activity has dropped in the region. It is believed to be the lowest decline reported in 20 years for this area, according to the "1974 Residential Construction in Southeast Michigan" report.

Permits were issued for construction of 22,238 new dwellings, including single-family, two-family and multi-family housing units.

Wayne County, including the dwelling construction permits issued by the five Pointes, reached 4,630.

A total of 64 homes were gained by the Pointes.

The following is a breakdown of the number of permits granted by the respective municipalities:

The Woods: detached single family units, 10; two family units, none; multifamily units, none; net total, 10.

The Park: detached single family units, two; two family units, none; multifamily units, none; net total, two.

The Farms: detached single family units, eight; two family units, none; multifamily units, 43; demolitions, six; net total, 45.

The City: detached single units, none; two-family units, two; multifamily units, none; gross total, two; demolitions, four; net total, minus two.

The Shores: detached single family units, 12; two-family units, none; gross multifamily units, none; gross total 12; demolitions, three; net total, nine.

The SEMCOG report was compiled in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and counties within the region.

YSD Report

Two incidents of arson occurred at North High School, neither of which have been cleared at this time.

There were two incidents of drunkenness, involving four youths, while there were two cases of minors in possession of alcohol, involving four youths.

The YSD also said there was one incident of a disturbed youth who came to the station seeking help.

A total of 19 petitions were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court with five being authorized for court action at this time.

Through the first six months of the year, the total number of cases referred to the YSD for action from the Pointe police departments show increases in referrals from all but The Shores in comparison to last year.

The breakdown shows The City, 34 cases through this June and 33 through last June; The Farms, 78 this year, 78 last year; The Park, 123 through June 1975, 100 through June 1974; The Shores, 11 this year, 22 last year; and The Woods, 148 through this June, 147 through last June.

Clear Break-ins

Most of the items were recovered with the youth making restitution for those goods which haven't been, said the detective. He added that nothing was taken from some of the cars although glove boxes had been ransacked.

The youngster will not be charged with the eight illegal entry incidents since he was charged on the aforementioned counts.

During a custodial search of the youth at the station after the stolen truck incident, a small vial of tablets was found. Det. Baum said a Michigan State Police crime laboratory analysis of the tablets revealed the presence of PCP, an animal tranquilizer.

For success in any endeavor the right proportion of prudence and boldness is needed.

Woods Okays Funds Request

The Woods Council in a 3-2 vote approved the request of the Grosse Pointe Woods Little League and Babe Ruth League for funds not exceeding $2,500 for work on the grounds of Ghesquiere Park and Parcels School.

This action, which was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 7, stipulated that such monies would come from the municipal improvement fund.

In a letter to the council, chairman Bud Engel said last year, with the city's financial aid and hundreds of hours of volunteer labor, the leagues accomplished their goal to make Ghesquiere Park "an outstanding sports facility for all to enjoy."

The leagues wanted to continue their efforts in 1975-76 at Ghesquiere and expand their work to include the playfields at Parcels.

For materials and equipment, they requested a total of $2,500, while citing the donated labor total was $2,100.

The breakdown at Ghesquiere for materials and equipment as indicated by Mr. Engel shows: sod infield fringe at diamonds two and three, $700; grading diamond three, $250; grading interior grass areas to drains, $200; and installing a drinking fountain at the little league building, $200.

At Parcels, the cost of materials and equipment for raising the grade of three diamonds, (two Babe Ruth, one softball), was placed at $1,150.

Mr. Engel, a contractor, said such improvements at both locations were long-term. He stated many groups use the diamonds at Ghesquiere Park and stressed the leagues desire to get the areas up to the quality they should be.

"We're not doing this strictly for the leagues. We're trying to do something for the entire park area which is used by the majority of citizens," he emphasized.

Mr. Engel added that a focus of work was in the area of drainage at both sites. He said, for example, the area at Parcels was very low, drainage was poor and that personnel would work this month and next month on the diamonds and grading.

Voting for the request were Mayor Pro Tem George S. Freeman, Councilman Ronald R. Keagen and Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan. Nixing the request were Councilman Rodger A. Graef and John Sabol. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilman Conrad A. Naegel were excused from the meeting.

City Firefighter D'Hooghe Retires after 30 Years

By Bernice Wozniak
Boyhood dreams encouraged Lt. Parnell D'Hooghe's career with The City Fire Department and after 30 years with them he doesn't plan to take retirement sitting down.

In fact, as though 30 years as a firefighter isn't enough, Lt. D'Hooghe is looking for a part-time job. "I'll need something to keep me busy," he says.

His final day as a firefighter was Monday, June 30.

"I've had a very good career with the department—no complaints. Yet just as sad as I am to leave, I'm looking forward to retirement."

Married 22 years to Rosemary D'Hooghe, the lieutenant and his wife have no immediate plans for travel or vacations. They have a daughter, Susan, 19, who is majoring in English at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids and studying to be a reading specialist.

A sergeant in the United States Air Force, Lt. D'Hooghe spent three and one half years in Central and South America flying part-time armament. He says since his return to the community and the department in 1945, he's seen many changes.

He noted the smaller fire equipment that's easier to handle, the introduction of radio use during fire calls and new building sites that have been developed.

"The department's entering the union in 1970 was a very important change here," Lt. D'Hooghe commented. "With it came many long-awaited benefits. Hospitalization, increased vacation days, increased wages and paid holidays were the best."

Lt. D'Hooghe feels The City department is now able to respond more quickly to fire calls.

"There are less fires today, though, than there were years ago. I think people are much more careful than they used to be."

He recalls the largest fire which occurred during his career was in 1962 when the Murphy house in Lakeshore road burned to the ground. "It was owned by William Clay Ford but was empty at the time," the lieutenant remembers. "It's not certain by vandals. The fire started about 11:30 p.m. and was finally extinguished after noon the next day. The house was completely destroyed."

As far as making changes in The City Fire Department, Lt. D'Hooghe has some thoughts. "We could use more manpower. When I started, each shift had seven men. Now there are only five."

This number will be even smaller this summer since a replacement has not yet been named.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said more information on this situation will be available at a later date since the city at present is in the midst of wage negotiations and budgetary considerations.

"As of yet there has been no decision made to replace Lt. D'Hooghe or not to replace him," Mr. Kressbach said. "In the event one of the shifts is short of men with vacation days coming up, we will move men from other shifts to make up."

Mr. Kressbach commended the lieutenant on his long and successful career with The City.

"He's been with us for 30 and a half years," the city manager said. "He's had a very dedicated public service career. We're all proud to have worked with him. He has risen through the ranks to lieutenant and has held that position for 12 years. "We all wish him the best in his retirement."

Board Okays YSD Payment

The Board of Education unanimously approved the payment of $24,897 as the school systems' share of the Youth Service Division's (YSD), operating budget for fiscal year 1975-76.

The amount is an increase over the $22,200 paid last fiscal year by the board. It includes the board's 20 percent share, ($720), of the cost of the part-time YSD counseling program which was proposed to be dropped but was continued this fiscal year via a decision of the YSD's Board of Managers, (including all Pointe city managers and a School Board representative).

Board president Joan Hanpeter said the School Board feels the YSD has been effective in providing a much needed service for the schools and the community.

The payment approval was given at the Monday, July 14, School Board meeting.

Know Your Schools
By James A. Adams
Superintendent of Schools

In a recent column I alluded to the fact that much behind-the-scenes planning, so necessary to the successful operation of the schools during the September to June year, is conducted by the central staff during July and August. One high priority project which will be on the agenda of the Board of Education at its regular August meeting is the school district's goals and priorities for 1975-76.

Many residents of the community, civic and municipal leaders, trustees and PTA and PTO leaders, as well as staff members, are aware that during the past year we have been attempting to gather a great deal of data on the school system.

The Community Educational Assessment, to which all residents had the opportunity to respond this winter, plus other observations by staff and trustees, provided us with a tentative listing of goals and priorities for the coming year.

Prior to the end of the school year all teachers were asked to respond to this

Set Ordination For Woods Man

Dennis Ortman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Victor J. Mansor of The Woods, will be ordained to the Catholic priesthood tomorrow, July 25, at St. Mary's of Redford Church.

Father Ortman attended Sacred Heart Seminary High School and College and completed four years of theological studies at the North American College in Rome, Italy.

During the past year, Father Ortman has served as a Deacon at Our Lady Queen of Hope Church in northwest Detroit.

document and to help me by rating the tentative goals and priorities by using a numbered scale: 1—Not Important; 2—Somewhat Important; 3—Average Importance; 4—Important and 5—Most Important.

In our quest for community reaction to our proposed goals and priorities, we also queried community leaders and PTA/PTO officials. One of the most scholarly and thoughtful jobs of reacting to the material came from the PTO of Brownell Middle School.

In his letter of transmittal, David H. Greenspan, president, said that he had taken the various priorities set by the individual board members and had attempted to reach a median distribution, since this would be more reflective of the board's thinking than an average would be.

You will not be surprised to learn the Brownell parents' top priorities, I am sure. The group polled rated eight items, (out of 115), with a 5-for Most Important.

1. "Improve student learning in specific skill areas, particularly in reading, language arts and elementary mathematics, including the metric system."
2. "Prioritize the life skills in mathematics in the elementary mathematics program and select the necessary materials. Incorporate the metric system into the basic curriculum. Prepare a computer-program for individual assessment and evaluation."
3. "Identify new ways to serve students with special needs, i.e., gifted, slow learners, under-achievers and turned-off learners."
4. "Work for legislation which represents the best interest of the Grosse Pointe students, staff and community."
5. "Strive to allocate additional financial resources for the purchase of instruction supplies in an effort to provide up-to-date textbooks in all areas and the materials teachers need to meet the demands of the total instructional program."
6. "Monitor, plan and implement for improved student learning in language arts in these areas: oral expression, written expression, mechanics of written expression, grammar, usage, vocabulary, listening, spelling, reading."
7. "Work with special education personnel in the Trainable Mentally Impaired and Learning Disabilities Program in an effort to expand their knowledge and skills of instruction."
8. "Work to improve the disabled child's self-concept, whether placed in a special education classroom or in a regular classroom."

Although other groups and individuals were asked to respond, few of them did the effective and thorough job that came from Brownell. We are most appreciative of the time and effort that went into their composite answer.

Pipers I Ties for Loop Title

Bill Demorest's Pipers Alley I coasted to a 12-2 victory over previously unbeaten Wood Motors to tie Woods for the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club Slow-pitch Softball League Division I championship on Wednesday, July 16.

Pipers I was paced by Greg Christi's two-for-four performance with five RBI's and an inside-the-park home run. Roger ("Binaca Blast") Bohn added two homers and four RBI's.

Mark Brecht, a Farms policeman, had three hits for the winners, while teammates Bo France, Phil Frame and Jack Calas had two hits apiece. John Nahas led Woods Motors with a home run.

In another game on Wednesday, Terry Fuller was five-for-five with two home runs and four RBI's and John Griffith also had a perfect performance with four hits in four trips, including two homers and five RBI's, to pace Harper Sport Shop to a 2-4 drubbing of Edgar and Associates.

Ron Angel, Jim Miller, Tom Szudarek and Jill Mackris had three hits for Harper Sport. John Pierce had two singles for Edgar and Associates and John France accounted for two of the team's four runs with a double.

In other Division I games on Thursday, July 17, Tom Jaeger topped off a nine-hit

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Experts in Real Estate will tell you you get top dollar if your house is in top shape when you sell. Everyone knows this but we wonder for sure if they really believe it. A worn stairway carpet can cost $300.00 to replace but it can return you a thousand. Cracked ceiling and walls can lose you a sale yet they cost only about $50.00 to repair before painting. New Formica counter tops in the kitchen plus a stainless steel sink can run about $500 but it can make your kitchen look $3000 better! A new kitchen floor—the best can't cost more than $500 yet it can return at least a thousand dollars for your trouble.
Spend three thousand dollars before you sell your house and you'll get six thousand back. This isn't just idle chatter and should be taken seriously—even if you have to borrow the money from your Mother-in-law!
The representatives at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087 are familiar with the tricks of getting top dollar for your home. What's more they can arrange discounts and "at cost" repairs for you. If you're considering selling your home have one of their experts tell you their success story.
HELPFUL HINT
Never attempt to decide yourself what it takes to sell your home for top dollar, sometimes it's difficult to see the forest for the trees—or something like that!

When your home needs more than paint...

Look past tomorrow. Will you sink hundreds of dollars into painting your house every few years? With famous Alcoa® Building Products—Siding, Gutters and Down spouts, Soffits and Fascia, Shutters and Railings—you can completely renovate your home. Make it the show place of your neighborhood. And you'll reduce periodic upkeep costs. In fact your home will be fresh and new looking for years with little maintenance.

Skate-A-Thon To Fight MD

It's that time of the year again for the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Drive and telethon that will be broadcasted over local television stations in September.
Judy Taube, president of The Farms, is one of the co-chairmen for this cause via a 24 hour skate-a-thon being sponsored by the Mount Clemens Fun Center, 140 Macomb street.
This special event will take place Friday, August 21, at 8 p.m. and all proceeds will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association to help fight this disease.
Everyone is invited to participate. Pledge sheets may be obtained at the roller rink or additional information can be received by calling 468-4022.

THE CAR YOU LEASE SHOULD BE AS ECONOMICAL AS THE CAR YOU'D BUY.

Just because a leased car is often a business expense (and tax-deductible) is no reason to lease a gas-burner. The tax money you save with your gas deduction is never as much as the money you shell out at the gas pump. So Uncle Sam isn't paying for your extravagance... you are.
Lease a Volvo from us and you can lessen the impact of the high price of gas. By burning less of it. For example, our 164 tested by the EPA got better mileage than full-size domestic models (15-22), which compares very favorably with domestic compacts.
Stop in. We have other Volvos even more economical, and a variety of leasing plans to choose from—any one of which could reduce your gas deductibles while increasing your bank depositables.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

It is only in recent years that the culture and heritage of the American Indian has received wide attention. It is also only in recent years that books about the American Indian have been published in any great quantity.

This week I would like to bring to your attention some of the books recently purchased by your Grosse Pointe Public Library that tell the fascinating story of the red man — is both authoritative and comprehensive.

The hundreds of photographs and illustrations, most in full color, speak more eloquently than any words of "the Indian as he was—his beliefs, his customs, his appearance — and what he is today."

Thomas C. Sanders' and Walter W. Peek's LITERATURE OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN is a well-documented, comprehensive anthology. The material is arranged chronologically and by literary form, each chapter beginning with an excellent essay on the topic and genre covered relating it to Indian culture and world literature of the same period.

The authors, both Indians, have produced a versatile volume that will give the reader access to the vast range of Indian mythology, poetry, essay and biography.

IN THE PORTABLE NORTH AMERICAN INDIAN READER, (Viking), editor Frederick W. Turner seeks to introduce the reader to the traditions and historical realities of the North American Indian.

It is Mr. Turner's purpose to present the Indian as human, neither better nor worse, and he succeeds marvelously. The myths, poetry, oratory and essays spanning the centuries from pre-white colonization to the present speak of very human feelings and reactions.

In all, this is an excellent anthology of literature by and about the American Indian. A rewarding choice for research, casual dipping or cover-to-cover reading.

THE INDIAN IN AMERICA, (Harper and Row), by Wilcomb E. Washburn traces the extraordinary story of Indian in America, from pre-Columbian times to our own day. Mr. Washburn traces Indian social structure and beliefs — separating myth from fact.

For something a little closer to home I would recommend GREAT LAKES INDIANS: A PICTORIAL GUIDE, (Baker Book House), by William J. Kubiak. While not a brand new book, (it was published in 1970), I am including it in this list because it deals specifically with the Indians of our area.

With text and excellent illustrations, the author has put together a graphic survey of the history of the Indians of the Great Lakes. Although imagination played its part, Mr. Kubiak has presented these Indians as they actually dressed, hunted, ate and fought.

This book makes a genuine contribution to a better understanding of the Indians who lived near the Great Lakes.

I have yet to see a more beautiful, sensitive book on the native American than THE WORLD OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN published by the National Geographic Society.

The text—which spans the entire history of the Indian on this continent, from his trek across the Bearing land bridge, to the development of the various American cultures, to confrontation with and adjustment to the white man — is both authoritative and comprehensive.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

The month of July is nearly over, meaning that the new fiscal year of the State is nearly a month old, and there is no new budget.

The costs, not just the sheer availability, of medical malpractice insurance is a crisis and yet no meaningful measure has been enacted by the legislature to reduce premiums.

The governor has proposed a revamping of the business tax structure to encourage industrial expansion and that has not been enacted or rejected.

Teacher strikes are more numerous in Michigan, even though illegal, than in any other state and the senate up to this week has been unable or unwilling to enact a strong teacher strike bill.

Campaign and political reform is demanded by many and until this week neither house had passed any campaign reform bill.

So here is the Michigan legislature with a brand new three-fifths plus Democratic majority and the longest session on record and little accomplished.

The most important single reason, to me, is that the legislature has been in shock since January, unable to fully understand the whats and whys of the recession and unable to decide what, if anything, we could or should try to do about it.

And that is understandable when we see how little agreement there is between all the expert economists and recognizing that Michigan is the hardest hit of all states and that recession does mean more demands for State programs and less revenues to fund those programs. But there is more to it, more explanation for the failure of the legislature to complete its work in timely fashion.

Part is new majority leadership and new committee chairmen feeling their way along. Part is getting sidetracked off the budget and on to malpractice availability and now on Common Cause's campaign bill, where public pressure to act in a major area will not allow normal legislative processes to function.

And part is the sad show by a self-indulgent Senate squaring off against an indignant press and public, barking at each other about the use of taxpayer money on carpets, drapes and wallpaper for Senate offices.

Hopefully, the legislature will adjourn at the end of July and give the people of the State a rest, for although I am your state representative, I am also a true believer in the quote, "No man's life, liberty or property is safe while the legislature is in session."

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
This letter is addressed to five complete strangers who helped to save my life. They were blood donors.

With each unit I received, I sent up a "praise the Lord" for those five who took the time and cared enough to give to their blood bank.

I single out these five because they seem a personal part of me. I do feel that the many, many thousands who have received blood from the "anonymous ones" must share my feelings.

So—my deep, deep gratitude—may God bless you all.

Nero to Play Sunday Night

Pianist Peter Nero, "the Horowitz of the popular field," returns with his Trio to the Meadow Brook Music Festival for the first time in two years this Sunday evening, July 27, at 8:30 o'clock.

The versatile entertainer who appeared at Meadow Brook with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in 1973 will occupy center stage by himself this year, accompanied by bassist Richard Nardita and drummer Gary Mure.

The program will include some of Nero's own compositions as well as George Gershwin favorites.

Often referred to as "a musical category unto himself," Peter Nero is equally at home with jazz, the classics and popular music.

He began piano lessons at the age of seven; by the time he was 14, he had won numerous piano competitions, appeared with several major symphony orchestras and won a Juilliard scholarship.

For almost six years he played in clubs and bars, then, while in Las Vegas, formed a trio. In 1960 RCA signed him to his first recording contract. For eight years and 23 albums he remained one of their most consistently successful artists.

His association with Columbia Records began in 1968. Since then he has produced five albums and the million-selling Gold Record "Summer of '42."

Nero now divides his time between composing, conducting and performing at over 100 concerts per year.

Officially installed as president of the Independent Accountants Association of Michigan June 16 was Pointer WILLARD E. ELLIOTT.

The Meadow Brook Music Festival grounds, lawn and picnic area will be open from 4:30 o'clock, with meals and refreshments available at Trumbull Terrace. Parking on the Festival grounds is free.

Concert tickets at $7, $8 and $5, ($3 for lawn seats), are available from the Festival Box Office, 377-2010.

family dinner at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Ruth and Bert Shover were married June 27, 1925, in Allentown, Pa. Bert was on the faculty of the Episcopal Academy in Philadelphia at the time; he taught in the Academy's Middle School for 13 years and coached many championship baseball and football teams.

In 1936, Ruth and Bert

Ruth became well-known during 25 years of substitute teaching at Bert's school. She also tutored many Pointe children in her home; they recall her fondly for her encouraging ways, the hard work she made them accomplish—and her little sack of candies!

Mrs. John F. Scherer, the Shovers' youngest daughter, came from Ann Arbor with her husband and four children to greet the many guests at the Golden Wedding reception. Mrs. Walter Kennedy, Mrs. Shover's sister, and her husband came from Buffalo, N.Y., to celebrate the occasion.

From New York, the "Land's End" group, college friends of granddaughter Bobbie Brucker, came to play and sing for the festivities.

A scrapbook with a multitude of messages from friends and photographs of the party is Ruth and Bert's special memento of their Special Day.

Two of the company's principal dancers, Joanne Danto, who will dance in "Concerto Barocco" Thursday and Friday evenings, and Lawrence Rhodes, who will dance in "After Eden" Thursday evening and "Carmina Burana" Friday and Saturday evenings, are natives of the Detroit area.

The Pennsylvania Ballet brings a total of seven productions to Meadow Brook. In addition to "Carmina Burana," choreographed by John Butler to Carl Orff's cantata and featuring the singers and chorus Friday and Saturday evenings, the ballets are: "Concerto Barocco," choreographed by George Balanchine to Bach's two-violin concerto in D minor, (Thursday and Friday evenings); "Concerto Grosso," a humorous group of gymnasium calisthenics, including a Karate Minuet, choreographed by Charles Czarny to music of Handel, (Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday morning).

"After Eden," an exploration of Adam and Eve's emotions after the Fall, choreographed by Butler to music of Lee Hoiby, (Thursday evening).

"Scotch Symphony," Balanchine's famous ballet to Mendelssohn's Third Symphony, (Thursday evening).

"Zig Zag," choreographed by Lar Lubovitch to music of Stravinsky, (Saturday morning and evening).

"Madrigalesco," choreographed by Benjamin Harkavy, artistic director of the Pennsylvania Ballet, to two concertos of Vivaldi, and suggested by several Italian Renaissance paintings.

The Pennsylvania Ballet, an enormous success at Meadow Brook in 1972, has been hailed as "a superb company" by Clive Barnes of the New York Times. It has performed nationally and has become a particular favorite of New York audiences and critics, appearing in regular series at the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

The ballet performs in a wide range of styles from classical to modern. Dream-come-true of executive artistic director Barbara Weisberger, it grew from a ballet studio in Wilkes-Barre to a regional company, and was established by Mrs. Weisberger with the aid of George Balanchine, of the New York City Ballet, who encouraged her and helped pave the way for grants from the Ford Foundation.

Will Wed

Plans for a November wedding are being made by DENISE BOLOGNA and Donald Brideau, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bologna, of Washington road. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Ronald Crippen, of Kerby lane, and the late Donald Brideau.

Members who completed the course during the year are Mrs. Joseph Dancy, Mrs. Fred Kolowich, Mrs. Duane Leininger, Mrs. Earl Lowery, Mrs. Edward Loye and Mrs. Donald Satterlee.

Special luncheon guests were Miss Harriet Helms, former coordinator of Children's Services for the Grosse Pointe Public Library, Mrs. Jay McCormick, head of the Library's Circulation Department, and Geraldine Petcoff and Sullen Nemzak, who teach blind children at Marquette School. Miss Rust, who teaches a visually impaired class of seven second to sixth graders bussed in to Hiattema from Romeo, Richmond, New Haven and St. Clair Shores, is a native Detroit. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Western Michigan University. She spoke of the great need for volunteer braille transcribers and showed color slides of her students, assisted by Chuck Pettke, a 10-year-old fifth grader. Chuck, though blind, is a sports enthusiast. He spent many hours this past winter skiing at Pine Knob, and has now taken up bowling.

Chuck read a letter from one of his classmates, Carla D. Earles, explaining how important braille is to her. It's important to Chuck, too: he's an avid reader, and was presented at the luncheon with a braille copy of "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" for his personal library. Miss Rust thanked the Pointe Volunteers for the textbooks they have transcribed for her students, books which enable them to be integrated into a regular schoolroom and perform as sighted children do.

In the past seven years, the Volunteers have transcribed 39,000 pages, (600 volumes), of braille, including textbooks for junior high school, high school and college students, foreign language books, (French, German and Spanish), poetry, scripts for plays, medical pamphlets, price lists for stores and fiction for adults and children.

This summer they are busy transcribing 22 books requested by schools in Michigan and neighboring states. Members of the last class working on manuscripts for the Library of Congress visited the Marquette School Wednesday, May 7, to observe and learn techniques used in teaching blind children. Last October, 28 Pointe Volunteers traveled to Rochester to visit the Leader Dog School.

The Volunteers are deeply indebted to Mrs. Thomas Gibbons, Mrs. Irma Van Slambrouck, Mrs. Cyril Verbrugge, Miss Helms, Mrs. Alfred Wilson, Mrs. Clayton Dietrich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLaren, Mrs. John McCarthy, Mrs. George Jobbitt and the Braille Class of 1973-74, whose generous contributions in the past year helped members not only to produce a greater volume of bound books, but to do so without interrupting their work for the solicitation of financial aid.

The Pointe Transcribers are indebted, too, to Mrs. David Sherwood, Mrs. S. R. Yerge, Fran Renaud, Mrs. Norman Gilbert, Anna Husband, Mrs. Clayton Amluxen, Mrs. Ruth Ritter and Mrs. Sara Ladd for their donations of braille materials during the past year.

Braille Transcription Classes resume in September at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, with Mrs. McNamara, voluntary teacher for the past 10 years, again serving as instructor, assisted by Miss Carabell who has been a volunteer for the past eight years.

Further information on the class may be obtained by calling 881-9566.

Fall Bride

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Glynn, of Emory court, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, PATRICIA to William Haarz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Haarz, of Clairview court.

The bride-elect attended Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and Northwood Institute. Her fiancé was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and the University of Michigan.

A fall wedding is being planned.

Miss Biretta Speaks Vows

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick P. Ventimiglia, of Rosedale, St. Clair Shores, received his degree in Business Administration from WMU in 1973.

The newlyweds vacationed in San Francisco, Hawaii and Las Vegas, and will make their home in Mt. Clemens.

The former Miss Biretta chose a princess-line organ wedding gown featuring long sleeves and an illusion neckline of embroidered Brussels lace. Applied lace and pearls accented her bodice, hem and skirt front.

More lace edged her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of silk and dried roses.

Honor attendant Linda Wahr wore a pale pink knit, sleeveless, high-waisted and styled with an A-line skirt, and a dark pink jacket, long-sleeved and hooded.

Bridesmaids, in pale knits and medium blue jackets, were Angela Ventimiglia, the bridegroom's sister, Gloria Jenio, Debbie Rodgers, Gerrie Ciaramitaro and Marilyn Biretta, sister of the bride.

They carried color-coordinated arrangements of silk and dried flowers.

Paul Ventimiglia and his brother's best man, Eric and Gary Biretta, the bride's brothers, Frank Billardello and Nick Zerilli, the bridegroom's cousins, and Frank Migliazzo ushered.

Christine Biretta was flower girl for her sister, Jackie D'Aleo, the bridegroom's cousin, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a long-sleeved, high-waisted knit of apricot Qiana, the bridegroom's mother a long-sleeved, silver-grey Qiana knit. Both wore orchid wrist corsages.

Indiana University student ANTHONY BUFFA, of Bal-four road, is studying in Bologna, Italy, this summer.

Farms Okays Pier Cookout

The Saint Paul Men's Bowling League will hold their annual family cookout at the Farms Pier Park on Tuesday, August 19, following approval of the activity by the Farms Council.

Dr. Donald J. Hogan, chairman of the event, requested permission for use of the picnic grounds which were the site of last year's cookout. Close to 500 persons attended last year. The council members voiced some concern that a roster of names of those attending couldn't be provided before the event. City Manager Andrew Bremer said a church member does record the names as guests arrive. Councilman Mark Stevens moved the request be approved since Saint Paul's is in a unique position in the community and draws members from areas other than The Farms. The council gave unanimous approval to the request.

Car Wash Set By Teen Club

The Teen Club of the Foundation for Exceptional Children will be holding a car wash in the parking lot behind the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, on Saturday, July 26, from 10 a.m.-2:30 p.m. It is being held to raise money for an outing to Pine Knob to see the Fifth Dimension. The cost is $1.

The bloodmobile will be in The Pointe on Thursday, August 14, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, from 2-8 p.m. For further information, call 885-9857. Shores Police Nab Foursome

A motorist and his three passengers were forced out of their car on Sunday, July 23, after police smashed a window of the vehicle. They were charged with interfering with a lawful order of a Shores public safety officer. The driver also was charged with having open alcoholic beverage containers in the confines of his auto. Accused under both charges was Phillip W. Sluma, 19 of 19716 Country Club, Harper Woods. Charged only with interfering with a lawful order given by a public safety officer, were Kurt W. Wentclas, 19 of 19661 Lochmoor boulevard, Harper Woods; Keith J. Rickerman, 19 of 1054 Hollywood and Ronald E. Nickens, 20 of 19978 Lancaster, Harper Woods. Sluma was released after posting bond of $150, while his three companions were permitted to go with him after they posted bonds of $35 each. The foursome are scheduled for a hearing in The Shores Municipal Court on September 10. Sgt. Donald Jacob said he was parking his scout car at the rear of the station at 1:55 p.m. when he was stopped by a man and his wife, who said from East Detroit. Sluma and his companions followed them, trying to force them off the road, while yelling obscenities and shouting at them. One of the passengers threw an object that hit his car, he husband said. The sergeant told the couple to go into the station and make out a statement to Desk Officer Richard Polen. The visibly upset man and wife complied. In the meantime, Sgt. Jacob observed Sluma turn from Vernier road into Michaux lane and switch off his motor and lights and wait. The sergeant said he ap-

Citizens Learn 'All's Well That Ends Well'

A situation in which one expects the worst to happen doesn't always turn out that way. Take the cases of two Woods citizens, for example. One man felt his $500 diamond tie-tac was lost, while another resident felt her Siamese cat had been snatched. The man, while breakfasting at the Landmark Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue, Wednesday, July 9, spilled food on his tie and suit coat. In the cleaning-up process, the citizen said he removed his tie-tac, placed it on the table and forgot to pick it up before leaving for Grand Rapids. While traveling along I-96, south of Lansing, he remembered the missing tie-tac. So he called the restaurant because he felt a waitress may have found it while cleaning off the table. However, two employees denied any knowledge of the article. As it turns out, no one had the tie-tac except the resident. The following day he called police and said it was found in the lining of the coat he was wearing when the spillage occurred. Meanwhile, the woman told police on Friday, July 15, she let her cat outside and when she went to find it minutes later, the feline was gone. She spotted a city employee walk up the driveway of a neighbor's home as this was large trash day. The man's truck was parked in front of the complainant's home. As a result, the woman felt the employee possibly took the cat as he was the only person she saw in the area at that time. Police called the highway department to see if any employee's working that block had found the cat, but without success. Then a half hour later, the woman called the department and said her apparently finicky feline had returned home.

16 Pay Fines in Woods Court

Sixteen persons were fined when Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis convened court Wednesday, June 25. Ten bond forfeitures, five dismissals and 43 warrants for failure to answer summons were issued. Thomas Paul Fuller, of 377 Hillcrest, pled not guilty but was found guilty of having improper lights, and was fined $2. Joanne Lee Flanagan, of 32424 Huber lane, Fraser, pled not guilty but was found guilty of failing to yield, and was fined $10. Martin Joseph Follis, of 785 Lakeshore road, pled guilty to a speeding charge. He was fined $20. Jerome Russel Garr, of 1678 Aline, pled not guilty but was found guilty of creating excessive noise, and was fined $25. Vahan Kalousian, of 19735 Negaunee, Detroit, pled guilty to a speeding charge, and was fined $5. Cora Owens, of 5142 Montclair, Detroit, pled not guilty but was found guilty for driving on a suspended license, and was fined $50. She also pled not guilty but was found guilty of speeding, and was fined $10. Anna Grace Giordano, of 18120 Collinson, East Detroit, was fined $14 after pleading guilty to disobeying a stop sign. Steven Alan Marlow, of 2515 Ford, Roseville, pled guilty to driving without an operator's license, and was fined $100. Sheila Marie Kirkland, of 4479 Beniteau, Detroit, pled not guilty but was found guilty of consuming liquor on public property, and was fined $15. Paul Isca, of 767 Fairford, pled not guilty but was found guilty of speeding. He was fined $15. Karen Ann Wittmer, of 2143 Hawthorne, was fined $10 for failing to stop at a stop sign. She pled guilty to the charge. Michael Robert Howard, of 4177 Kensington, Detroit, pled not guilty but was found guilty of driving under the influence of liquor. He was fined $100. He also pled guilty to driving without an operator's license and was fined $10. He was fined another $10 after pleading guilty to an unlawful display of his license. John L. Barlow, of 763 Sunningdale, pled guilty to driving without an operator's license, and was fined $10. In his top volunteer post, Mr. Seder will direct the solicitation of over 2,000 service-oriented organizations in the metropolitan Detroit area. The Service Unit, one of the six chapter campaign units that raise more than 90 percent of the Torch Drive's total goal, includes insurance firms; utilities; hotels, motels and restaurants; the communications and transportation fields; and all elements of the construction and construction supply field. This year's campaign runs from October 14-November 6 to raise operating funds for nearly 140 health and community service agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties. GROSSE POINTE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM RETIREES CLAUDIA GREENHOE, LEON ENGELHART, EVELYN KYZIVAT, (FRONT ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT), AND MANERVA JOHNSON, (BEHIND MRS. KYZIVAT)

By Janet Mueller

"I have mixed feelings," admits Evelyn Kyzivat, taking early retirement after 26 years' service with the Grosse Pointe Public School System. "I'm looking forward to the leisure, and the time to do some volunteer work, but I know I will miss the fun of the young children. It's been challenging, exciting . . ."

Mrs. Kyzivat, born in White Pigeon, Mich., graduated from high school in Athens, Mich., holder of a Western Michigan University Bachelors degree, (she also studied at Wayne State and the University of Michigan), came to the Grosse Pointe Public Schools in 1949 as a kindergarten teacher.

She'd taught previously in Greenville, Mich., and at Grosse Pointe Country Day. Now she's taught her last kindergarten class at Kerby, and she's looking ahead.

Plans to Travel
One of her first projects will be a trip to Europe, in the fall, in the off-season, when all the un-retired teachers are back in school. Then she wants to see Hawaii, and more of Mexico. She's been to Arizona and California repeatedly; she sees no reason not to keep going back.

But she'll maintain a base of operations here. A widow, she sold her home in the Farms and moved to the Shore Club. That's where she intends to stay, to travel from, return to: "I have no present plans to move."

From the time she was small, she always wanted to be a teacher. Actually, she wanted to be a music teacher, and she studied piano quite extensively, even taught it while she was still in high school, but went to college during the Depression when music jobs were scarce. Someone suggested she combine Music with Early Elementary Education. That way, she stood a better chance of getting a job.

Evelyn has never regretted acting upon that suggestion. Mrs. Kyzivat has one son, Paul, a Massachusetts Institute of Technology graduate who works as a research engineer in systems planning at Ford Motor Company, Dearborn, and lives in Ann Arbor. Paul is the father of a daughter, Kristin.

To Work on Golf
"I love to read, do some sewing, enjoy music and play a VERY CASUAL game of golf." Now that she has time, she intends to work on moving that golf score down a notch or two, and rejuvenating her piano skills.

"I'm resolved — again! — to practice faithfully." If that goes well, she may even study some organ.

Manerva Johnson has been at home in Fairfield, Iowa, several weeks now. School ended June 12; June 13 she was on the plane.

"I always wanted to go back to Iowa," Manerva explains. "I came here in the first place because I wanted to be around water, but I am basically a small town person. I like to come to the big cities, to shop, to go to the theater, the symphonies — and then to go home!"

Miss Johnson was born in Fairfield, where she's returned now to live with her father. Her ancestors came out to Iowa in covered wagons. Manerva is a life member of the Iowa Historical Society, a daughter of the Delta, a P.E.O. and a Delta Kappa Gamma.

She earned her Bachelors degree from Parsons College, her Masters from Drake University and pursued additional studies at Michigan and Wayne State Universities, American University and the University of Michigan.

Women of Wayne.

Somehow, one doesn't see Claudia leading a sedentary life as a retiree.

"I want to travel. I'd like to go back to Europe, and to see the little bit of the United States I haven't seen. I want to travel in the proper seasons: I'd like to see the Berkshires in October, in color . . . I want to go to Hawaii."

She has no specific plans for the future, however, other than to stay in The Pointe, to continue with all her current activities — and to enjoy herself. "I think I'll take a year to kind of unwind before deciding what I'll do next."

In that year, in her spare time, she'll keep busy with gardening, she'll play bridge, perhaps she'll do a bit more needlework than she was able to while she taught.

Looking Ahead
Claudia, like Manerva, is basically happy to be retiring. "I will miss the youth, of course. I think they keep you young at heart. But I'm looking forward to doing all the things you can't do when you have a busy professional schedule."

Leon Engelhart finished college thanks to teaching. It was Depression time, and Leon took a year off before his senior year to teach in his hometown. "I did it strictly to earn enough money to go back to college. I was paid $640 for eight months' teaching."

Out of that, he managed to pay his parents a modest bit of board, run the family jalopy, buy a table model radio — and save enough to complete that final year at Illinois College in Jacksonville.

Armed with a Bachelors degree, he still wasn't sure he wanted to make teaching his career, was, in fact, waiting around in Gary, Ind., for U.S. Steel to hire him, when an opening came up in the Jacksonville Schools. "Since the Superintendent was also my college teacher, and he wanted me, I headed right back and got the job."

Eventually Mr. Engelhart, born in Jonesboro, Ill., Phi Beta Kappa in college, picked up a Masters degree at the University of Michigan. He's taken additional courses at Wayne and Michigan State Universities.

To Pointe in '41
He came to Grosse Pointe in 1941, after five years in Jacksonville, as a Math teacher at Grosse Pointe High School. He's taking early retirement, after 34 years of Pointe service, as Dean of Boys and Assistant Principal at Parcels.

He was active in the Old Brownell Junior High, junior high chairman when Brownell was housed in the Grosse Pointe South High building. He looks back with great interest and pride on his years as a counselor, years in which he played an important role in the initiation and development of the Guidance System in Grosse Pointe.

He and Marlon, (she's from Nebraska; they met in college), live in Hawthorne road. They have no plans to move at the moment, although they'll probably make more use of the cottage near Traverse City they've enjoyed for many years. "I doubt if I will do things I haven't done before. I enjoy reading, puzzles, poetry . . . and I love to hike. That's one of the things I'm looking forward to in retirement: being able to resume the outdoor activities I once thought I had."

He intends, too, to renew some old acquaintances — "even, perhaps, to become acquainted with my neighbors!"

Quartet Of Sons
The Engelharts have four sons, all Grosse Pointe School System alumni. Larry, the oldest, is in graduate school. Robert, the youngest, received his undergraduate degree this year. Neil lives in Saginaw, Edwin in Cleveland.

Mr. Engelhart finds himself feeling a little sentimental sometimes when he considers retirement, a little sad . . . but there's also a peculiar "up" kind of happiness: "a sense that, maybe, the aches will disappear, I'll somehow be younger — although I know that can't be true."

He doubts if many of the modern generation will remain in teaching as long as, or longer than, he has. He thinks the strains and tensions are greater now, and that the students deserve young teachers. "You have to remain young in spirit, or you'll sink." But he likes and enjoys today's students. "The only trouble with the modern kid is that he's too much like his parents, too much like us."

He's always treated his students with respect. "My greatest satisfactions have been being able to maintain the self-esteem of a young person."

South High School graduate who has received a Medallion of Excellence from Eastman Kodak Company for his photograph "La Poissonnerie." The black-and-white picture, snapped in a European fish market, was judged best picture entered in the photography division of the South-eastern Michigan Regional Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition, selected from among photographs of three area finalists whose work was forwarded to New York City for national judging.

"This picture was a candid shot," Mark explains. "The fish market, with the large, open trays of fish under the large awning, caught my eye."

"I leaned against the building on the right side of the photo to change lenses; then I waited quietly for the man in the dark coat to lean forward in order to balance the composition with the tray in the foreground."

Mark, chief photographer for South High's yearbook, started taking pictures when he was 12. At 15, he set up his own darkroom. He currently freelances wedding and newspaper photography, and plans eventually to go on to an art school to study photography.
