Thursday, April 26

PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER'S standby gasoline rationing plan was rejected by the House Commerce Committee, despite a plea by the President. The scheme would have limited most motorists to 1.6 gallons a day in the event of a serious energy shortage. It was the third of the President's four standby conservation plans to be turned down by the committee in two days. Mr. Carter called the rejection "a very sad mistake" and warned of gasoline shortages this summer and bigger ones next year.

A FEDERAL GRAND JURY charged the Velsicol Chemical Company, makers of the fire-retardant PBB, and two of its employees with covering up the contamination of animal feed with the toxic compound in 1973. The indictment charges the company and Charles L. Touzeau of St. Louis, Mich., and William Thorne, now living in Ohio, with lying to inspectors of the Food and Drug Administration who were investigating the cause of the accident.

Saturday, April 28

FIVE SOVIET DISSIDENTS were flown to the United States from Russian prisons in exchange for two convicted Soviet spies held in the U.S., the White House announced. The dissidents include well-known Alexander Ginsburg, a human rights activist who had been sentenced to eight years of hard labor for his anti-Soviet protests. The two spies were convicted of trying to steal U.S. defense secrets. Negotiations had apparently been proceeding since their convictions.

Sunday, April 29

DETROIT'S HUD housing program has been suspended and is under investigation, claims a copyrighted article by the "Detroit News." Detroit and federal officials are looking into violations of federal rules that include profiteering by ostensibly non-profit firms, shoddy repairs to bring buildings up to code, involvement of persons in the program who figured in the previous HUD scandal of the early 1970's, delays in the program and failure of contractors to obtain building permits.

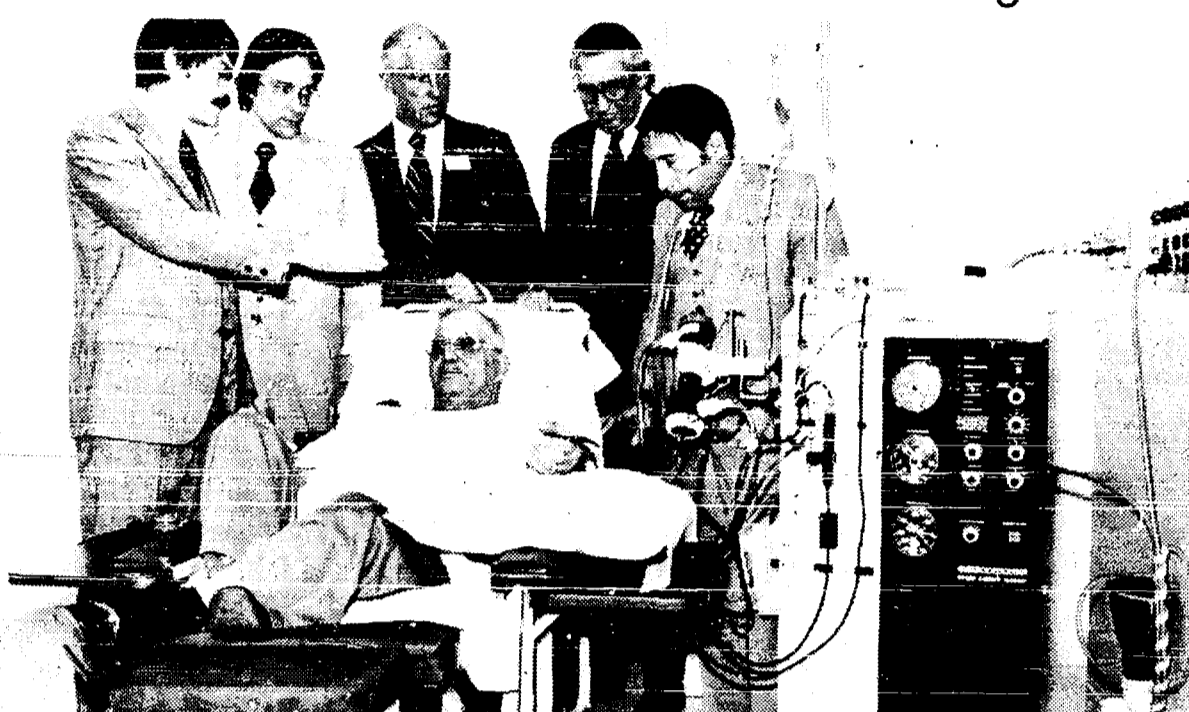

Monday, April 30

A FOUR-MONTH LONG SEARCH for a Grosse Pointe man and two companions missing in a two-engine plane crash ended with the discovery of the wreckage about five miles from Lake Placid, N.Y. All three occupants were apparently killed instantly in the crash, which occurred during a snowstorm last Christmas day. The wreckage was found about three-fourths of the way up a steep slope of 4,000-foot Mount Nye. During the search which followed the crash, rescuers had apparently come within a quarter of a mile of the plane without spotting it.

Tuesday, May 1

SEN. EDWARD KENNEDY, (D-Mass.), accused President Jimmy Carter of knuckling under to pressure from the oil lobby to de-regulate oil prices. Speaking to the American Society of Newspaper Editors, Mr. Kennedy also called Mr. Carter's new tax proposal on windfall profits "a token" resulting from the oil lobby's intimidation of the administration. Asked about the charges at a press conference, Mr. Carter replied, "That is just a lot of baloney."

New Provider Aids in Renal Disease Fight

A landmark move to provide treatment for persons afflicted with end stage renal disease was announced Friday, April 27, by the board of trustees of a new provider, the St. Clair Renal Center Corporation. It is sponsored jointly by the St. Clair Health Services and the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital Corporations. This not-for-profit, non-hospital based, 18-station major chronic-maintenance and home-dialysis training facility, will be used for the treatment of patients who are afflicted with end stage renal disease, a chronic irreversible kidney disease. The center is located

GP's Take Good Look At Cable TV

Most Officials Feel Joint Meeting to Explore Various Proposals Is Good Idea

By Joanne N. Gouleche
The Park appears to be taking a similar stand as The Woods concerning cable television as both desire to meet jointly, (and possibly with other Pointe communities), to discuss authorization of a cable TV franchise in their respective cities.

Mega Vision Company of Detroit approached the Park Council at its regular meeting Monday, April 23, to discuss the feasibility of The Park installing cable TV. Another cable TV franchise, Cox Cable Communications, Inc., of Atlanta, Ga., will make its presentation to council members at their regular meeting Monday, May 14.

Include Schools
Mayor Matthew C. Patterson indicated to Mega Vision that instead of "spending any time" discussing cable TV with The Park individually, a Park representative should meet with other Pointe officials at some later date to further explore cable TV possibilities.

City officials in The Woods also have recommended a joint meeting. A Mega Vision representative present before the Park Council stated, however, that he would like to see the strong support of all the five Pointes and would participate in the action.

GP Symphony Features Gordon Staples on May 13

The final concert of the Grosse Pointe Symphony's current season will be played on Sunday, May 13, in the Parcels School auditorium, 20600 Mack avenue, at 3:30 p.m. It features violinist Gordon Staples, concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Staples, who was born in Los Angeles and began playing the violin at age six, has had a distinguished career in this country and in Canada. Following his family's move to Vancouver, B.C., and several years of intensive study, he started to give concerts at 13, and at 14 was staff soloist for the Canadian Broadcasting Company, performing weekly on the Trans-Canada network.

Continuing Lakeshore Road Battle Now Being Fought on Two Fronts

County Commissioner Steiner Initiates Class Action Suit in Circuit Court Against Road Commission, While St. Clair Shores Lawyer Brings Claim to Farms

By David Kramer
The Battle of Lakeshore Road is presently being fought on two fronts: in the Farms Municipal Court and Wayne County Circuit Court, where suits have been brought accusing the Wayne County Road Commission of failing to adequately maintain the road.

Wayne County Commissioner Ervin A. Steiner has initiated a class action suit in circuit court. And a St. Clair Shores lawyer who commutes to work via Lakeshore has brought a claim for $300 against the commission in The Farms court. The latter action alleges his car was damaged when it fell into a pothole in the thoroughfare last spring.

The court actions are the latest developments in the ongoing dispute between the road commission and The Farms and Shores, which have steadfastly refused to share any portion of resurfacing the badly deteriorated roadway.

Watch It Fall
Mr. Steiner, who said he has filed the suit at his own expense, is hoping that city attorneys from both The Farms and The Shores will join him in the action. The commissioner says he, too, has blown out a tire on his car from hitting a pothole in the road, and refrained from making a claim only because of his status as a county employee. "I've solicited (the cities) support on many occasions,"

GP Voter Drive Set by LWV

The League of Women Voters (LWV), of Grosse Pointe is sponsoring a voter registration drive for young people on Monday, May 7, at both North High School, 707 Vernier road, and South High School, 11 Grosse Pointe boulevard. Scheduled from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at both locations, the drive is to aid students in registering for the June 11 Board of Education election, with the last day of registration for the Board race set for Monday, May 14, at 5 p.m. Young people must be 18 by June 11, a U.S. citizen and a resident of the municipality in which they plan to vote. Representatives of all the Pointes are scheduled to participate in the drive.

YSD's Fate In 1979-80 Is Tenuous

Continuance of Bureau in Present Form Hinges on Several Factors Including Schools' Participation

By Roger A. Waha
The fate of the Youth Service Division, (YSD), in its present form appears tenuous for the 1979-80 fiscal year as both school and city officials ponder questions in relation to the division's proposed budget of $174,812, an increase of 7.26 percent over the current year.

What may happen, (or not happen), to the YSD, which currently has four officers, two in the North High School district and two in the South High district, depends, as a starting point, on what action the Board of Education takes this month on a request that the schools pay 30 percent of the total YSD budget.

Prior to the 1978-79 year, when the Board was asked to pay 25 percent of the budget, the school system had previously paid around 20 percent of the cost, i.e., the salary of one public safety officer, his fringe benefits and a share of the YSD's part-time counseling program.

Slim Outlook
However, the division's board of managers, (including all Pointe city managers and a School Board representative), approved a motion earlier last month, based upon a request set forth last March, that the school system pay the 30 percent figure.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats is scheduled to make his recommendation to the Board at a conference session Monday, May 7, with Board members then considering his recommendation and the 30 percent request at their meeting Monday, May 14.

From the feelings shared by Dr. Coats and Board President Laurance Harwood last week, the chances of the Board approving the 30 percent figure appear slim.

In noting his recommendation will come to the public's attention on the 7th, Dr. Coats expressed a concern over the 30 percent request, saying he wants to carefully analyze the entire situation. Indicating a 25 percent figure would be more palatable, he said, while looking at

Grosse Pointe Teachers Vote To Join Local I

Decision Via Margin of 252 to 228 Ends over Year of Controversy on Representation of Educators; Superintendent Coats Says Officials Will Work in Positive Manner with Union

By Roger A. Waha
Grosse Pointe teachers, in a Michigan Employment Relations Commission, (MERC), supervised election Wednesday, April 25, at Brownell Middle School, voted to join the umbrella Local One unit of the Michigan Education Association by a 252 to 228 margin, thus ending over a year of controversy as to whether the Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), or Local I would represent teachers and librarians for future collective bargaining purposes.

With this action, Pointe educators have joined forces with an estimated 3,500 teachers in 15 Macomb County districts.

Local union president Clarence Lang expressed pleasure over the final outcome, while feeling the closeness of the vote, (in comparison to the wider 310 to 176 margin in a union-supervised election last May), was the result of a "barrage" of anti-Local I material allegedly sent to teachers by Board and/or administration members at the "11th hour."

Meets The Test
"I think Local I was truly tested," he said while pointing out that all of the teachers who voted, (around 80 didn't), cast their ballot for either Local I or the GPEA—a fact which he felt was significant.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, who felt that the election last May wasn't sufficient to change bargaining agents, while urging that a legal election supervised by MERC be held in The Pointe, said he always viewed the situation as an internal matter for members of the bargaining union.

At the same time, he stated, "We will work in a positive manner with Local I." Board President Laurance Harwood, meanwhile, reiterated a school administration theme by saying, "I still feel strongly that local control was the issue. I'm sorry to see local control diluted."

As part of the material sent out prior to the election, Mr. Lang cited a letter from Mr. Harwood, who said he did send out a letter reminding teachers of the local control issue. Mr. Harwood also stated he believed he was the only

Correction

Last week's story, "League of Women Voters Play Active Role in Area," submitted by the league, said that the local LWV was organized in 1950 as the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe Park following a request to the late Mrs. Clyde Gehrig from a citizen concerned over some serious local problems. The name as listed was incorrect. It should have read Mrs. Edward Gehrig.

Major Milestone Viewed In New Farms' Budget

By David Kramer
The Farms will pass a major milestone this year, if its budget for 1979-80 holds true. It will be the first time any one department, in this case, the police, will be appropriated more than $1 million for operating expenses. While the main inflationary factor is salaries, gasoline and oil also have risen dramatically, as has the cost of equipment. The city is leaving room in the next fiscal year for pay raises in the 30-man department, while officials and the officers await the determination of an arbitrator for this fiscal year's salaries, a decision which would be retroactive to last July 1. Out of a total budgeted expense of roughly $4.3 million

Initial Step Finished on Document

Woods Planners Finish Review, Make Adjustments; Revised Text Scheduled for Drafting

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Planning Commission at its meeting Tuesday, April 24, completed its initial examination of the city's preliminary land use plan for the year 2,000, with a major part of the discussion centering around the Seven-Mack Shopping Center and the need for both local officials and Saint John Hospital representatives to explore the future use of the center together.

After the plan took on a new shape in March, e.g., altering residential districts from categorical housing type definitions to a density of dwelling units classification, the commission met on Tuesday, April 10, and, after over 20 motions, concurred with most of the plan's content in areas north and south of Vernier road.

Then, on the 24th, the commission completed its exploration of the proposal, with a focus on areas along Mack avenue. With this action, which is of an advisory nature, now completed, planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers will prepare a revised draft of the document based on the motions which have ensued.

Eyes Agreement

This draft is now scheduled to be considered by the commission at its meeting Tuesday, May 22, and then, in compliance with the law, a public hearing on the document prior to the plan's adoption must be scheduled with at least 15 days notice being given.

City Attorney George Catlin said then necessary implementation and recommendations on zoning changes, which have to be modified based on new adjustments in the plan, will come before the council.

As the commissioners worked their way down the eastern and western sides of Mack, south of Vernier road, the major focus turned out to be the Seven-Mack Shopping Center, which the plan specifies as commercial, parking and medium density residential, (defined as eight to 12 dwelling units per acre).

In eyeing the possibility of some medium density residential structures, Commissioner Peter Gilezan urged that the council, City Administrator Chester E. Peterson,

Center Drive Catching Up

The War Memorial's 1979 Annual Family Participation Campaign needs over $15,000 to reach the necessary goal of $155,000 by Memorial Day May 29. The drive is catching up to last year's pace, falling only $4,000 behind.

Follow-up letters and telephone calls are being effective and receipts are arriving in gratifying number, officials say. In addition to telephoning by the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe and other volunteers, board members are going to add their efforts to the phoning during May.

John R. Nicholson, president of the War Memorial Association, and John M. Rickett, vice-president and campaign chairman, are confident that the drive's goal will be reached in time for a successful announcement on Memorial Day. They expressed their gratitude to the many donors, who have given their support to the Center this year and in the past, while hoping many more citizens will join in supporting the War Memorial's activities and services.

Officials Complete Initial Step on Land Use Plan

 The commission and Mr. Rogers to meet with hospital authorities to develop a plan to reflect both the interests of The Woods and the hospital on how that property can be properly developed.
 Saint John announced in early March that the hospital had entered into a lease acquisition agreement with shopping center owners. The pact includes an option by the hospital to acquire the center at the end of five years, with the decision of when to acquire depending on the hospital's long-range plans.
 The hospital has been leasing a portion of the shopping center for parking for over 10 years.
 Hospital officials had earlier indicated, in eyeing the five-year period, that authorities were currently in a "holding pattern" in relation to any proposed long-range plans, which would be geared to meet community needs.
Must Take Action
 Mr. Gilezan then moved that the commercial, parking and medium density residential criteria be approved, while stipulating the need for city officials to work with the hospital toward developing a long-term plan for the property. His motion, after some discussion, was unanimously approved.
 "I'm in the dark on the hospital's plans," said Mr. Rogers, in viewing the lease acquisition agreement. Saying he would hate to think of any potential phase out of stores, with the center being devoted to hospital use entirely, Mr. Rogers stated how hospital officials look at economic development and reinvestment, "I don't know."
 In citing the center as the only location with a downtown identity, he stated it has extra wide right-of-ways, is a major center of employment and is part of an area which contains no motels or hotels, (outside the Parkcrest Motel in Harper Woods).
 "(Officials) can't sit back and let Saint John Hospital take it over and turn it into a big medical center," stated

Mr. Rogers, who felt this would take acres of land off the tax base. "It behooves Grosse Pointe Woods to initiate, not knee-jerk react, and force some joint-planning undertaking."
 We must have leadership from city officials and not let the advance planning be done by the hospital, continued Mr. Rogers, who viewed the location as more of a neighborhood center, "a small community type of center," as against the sprawling Eastland.
Guide Own Destiny
 Agreeing that the city should take some initiative in this matter, Commissioner Joseph Parthum said he had no idea what Detroit is going to do, (part of Seven-Mack is in that city), while adding he was ashamed of the shopping center as it now is.
 "It's incumbent upon us to do something with Saint John Hospital authorities. Lacking that, we should develop a plan that is attractive to developers. We need a plan to avoid deterioration," stressed Mr. Gilezan.
 "It's incumbent upon us to become masters of our destinies in this area."
 Interjecting, Mr. Rogers said, "On zoning, you can guide your own destiny. Even though Saint John Hospital buys property in Grosse Pointe Woods, commercial zoning, (for example), precludes hospital usage."
 In other areas discussed, from Lochmoor boulevard to Torrey road on the east side of Mack, the land use plan recommendation of low medium density residential, (from six to seven dwelling units per acre), commercial and parking was approved.
 From Torrey to The Farms' boundary, the plan's recommendation of office was approved.
 On the west side of Mack, from Vernier to Fleetwood, the commission adopted the plan's proposal of commercial, while the recommendation from Fleetwood to Hunt Club of medium density residential also was approved.
Maintain Greenery
 Meanwhile, from Hunt Club to Littlestone, some disagreement of the recommended office classification was shared regarding a portion of the city hall property south to the end of the property line.
 "Originally, a portion of the property was viewed in relation to medium density residential, specifically regarding senior citizens housing. However, it was decided, because of the proximity of the fire house and ensuing sirens via fire apparatus and the ambulance, that an office classification would be better.
 Mr. Gilezan pointed out an objective of the land use plan sub-committee was to break up Mack in various categories to ease traffic congestion, while eyeing the office emphasis for tax base "pure and simple."
 Commissioner John Kennedy, however, felt the area around city hall should be maintained as it is today with appropriate greenery and his substitute motion to accept the plan's recommendation from Hunt Club to Littlestone as office, minus the city hall area which would remain as is, was approved by a majority of the commission.

 From Littlestone to Bournemou, now commercial, the commission approved the plan's recommendation of low medium density residential.
 Moving west to Allard and Stanhope over to the expressway, medium density residential was okayed. For the area bounded by Vernier on the north, to the Harper Woods boundary on the west, to Bournemou on the south, to Mack on the east, excluding city hall property, the plan's recommendation of low medium density residential was approved.
Housing for Seniors
 In noting that two elections for senior citizens housing at Ghesquiere Park were defeated, Mr. Kennedy moved that such housing be excluded from the location, which would be maintained as a green area, and his colleagues unanimously agreed.
 On the subject of seniors' housing, Bert Francis, president of SOC, (Seniors Onward for Change, Inc.), and a member of the Woods Senior Citizens Commission, wanted assurances from the commission that there would be ample opportunities for such housing in the future.
 "I'm concerned that under no circumstances should anything be done to preclude opportunities for senior citizens to live in the city," he said. "Many have homes, lifelong alliances and their organizations and we want to spend the rest of our lives here."
 Noting that some seniors are finding it difficult to live in their homes from the standpoint of costs and physical problems, Mr. Francis emphasized the need for such housing, while seeking a further understanding of the land use plan from officials regarding potential sites.
 Mr. Kennedy pointed out the designation of a site at the Seven-Mack Shopping Center, while saying the plan itself provides several locations throughout the city for high density residential, which doesn't exclude housing for seniors.
Seven-Mack Nixed
 For his part, Mr. Gilezan cited the northwest area and the possibilities of such sites as Mason and Parcels Schools, if they cease to exist in their current capacities.
 Saying the proposal provides a basis for such housing in the community via high density areas, Mr. Gilezan indicated it would be impossible to select a particular site without knowing the specifics of financing, size, et al., of any proposed complex.

 Mr. Francis, in viewing the designated site at Seven-Mack, wanted it eliminated from any consideration, while calling the location "a high crime area."
 As a result, the commission unanimously voted to delete any reference to seniors' housing at Seven-Mack as it could go in any area designated high density residential.
 Meanwhile, Irene Sutton, chairman of the Senior Citizens Commission, in saying she has never given up on seniors' housing in The Woods, urged the commission to consider its elderly citizens.

Youngsters Play 'Annie Get Your Gun' Students Share In Mock Drill

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater, which is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year, is presenting "Annie Get Your Gun" Fridays, May 11 and 18, and Saturdays, May 12 and 19, in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road. Getting into the mood of the action

Kid's Theater Ends Season

If you have not seen a performance of the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater this year, don't miss the group's offering of "Annie Get Your Gun" on Fridays, May 11 and 18, at 8 p.m. and Saturdays, May 12 and 19, at 1 p.m.

Performances will be at the William Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

The young actors transmit all the color and zest of an old-time wild west show. Sharp-shooter Annie aims to be the best shot in the world, and get her man at the same time.

Through the years, many talented Children's Theater actors and actresses have gone on to careers in stage and screen. A few of the many alumni include WXYZ TV's Suzanne Geha, George Kappaz of the Hilberry Theater and Gwen Humble from the ABC series, "Doctors' Private Lives," who's soon to play lead in TV special, "The Rebels."

This year the Children's Theater and its director, Sally Reynolds, will celebrate their 25th anniversary. The wild and wooly production of "Annie Get Your Gun" is the last play of the season.

Tickets are $3 for adults, $2 for children and group rates are available. All tickets are sold at the War Memorial. For further information, call 881-7511.

GP Park Group Sponsors Dance

A request for a pool side dance at Windmill Pointe Park, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Park Civic Association for Saturday, June 16, at 8 p.m. was unanimously approved by the Park Council at its regular meeting Monday, April 23.

"Disco Cruise" will be the theme of the dance, which will feature disco dancing for adults.

Proceeds from the dance will go toward a Fourth of July Parade.

Advisory Group Named in CPW

The naming of members to a Citizens Advisory Commission as required for participants in the Community Development Block Grant program, was finalized by the Woods Council at a recent regular meeting.

Thomas Fahrner will be the council representative, while other "reps" include Charles J. Van Hove, Planning Commission, Doris Rabaut, Citizens Recreation Commission, and Othello Colechia, Beautification Commission.

Students Share In Mock Drill

Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls from Defer School, 15425 Kercheval avenue, participated in a disaster drill Wednesday, April 18, at Deaconess Hospital, 3245 East Jefferson avenue.

The drill was designed to recognize the girls' strengths and weaknesses in the event that a real disaster should occur.

Students were made up with simulated blood and splintered bones imbedded in clay donated by Yorkshire Food Market, 16711 Mack avenue, to make them look like real disaster victims.

Girl Scouts who participated in the drill were Ann Amberg, Cathy Amberg, Laura Barrette, Charlyn Carrier, Julie Harbold, Beth Knight and Ann Maury.

Other scouts who volunteered their time were Lisa Mazur, Maria Minadeo, Ann Moellering, Margaret Nord, Julie Sielaff, Teressa Trokey and Sally Wilson.

Camp Fire girls who participated were Lynn Armbruster, Kerry Bruce, Wendy McAllister, Kathleen Keelan and Tessa Raymo.

The longest day of the year is the day before payday. Self-discipline is the key to happiness and contentment.

Woman Hurt In Car Mishap

A 28-year-old Brys drive woman, (seven months pregnant according to Woods police), escaped serious injury after her vehicle was struck by a truck at the intersection of Marter and Hampton roads Thursday morning, April 26.

Mary Ellen Kirles was taken to Bon Secours Hospital suffering from facial lacerations and was scheduled to remain in the hospital for a few days for observation. The hospital reported on Friday, April 27, that both mother and unborn child were in good condition.

According to police, Mrs. Kirles was travelling north on Marter, when the truck, driven by Rex Glen Burmaster, 18, of Coplin, Detroit, going west on Hampton, went through the stop sign at Marter.

Officers reported the driver said that his foot slipped off the brake pedal and he drove through the stop sign. He was given a violation for failure to stop, and is scheduled to appear in court on Wednesday, May 9.

Lt. Peter Thomas said Mrs. Kirles' car was hit broadside, receiving extensive damage to its side. He also described the truck as a little larger than a pick-up,

Lakeshore Road Battle

Sugo said the agency's legal department was aware of Mr. Steiner's suit and "will be looking very closely at it."

While declining to comment further on the case, Mr. Sugo said complaints on potholes and chuckholes are given as much attention on Lakeshore as they are on other county roads.

"We have an historical interest in the Lakeshore project," he said, explaining the cost-sharing policy was one the commission adopted in 1975 and has applied uniformly throughout the county.

As for Mr. Howes' suit, Mr. Sugo said it is just one of many claims which are filed daily.

Seeks Participation
"Each case is handled on its own merits," he said. "Certainly we've made settlements before but just because a claim is made doesn't mean it's valid."

In the case of Howes vs. the road commission, a hearing was held yesterday, Wednesday, May 2, (after press time), on a motion to set aside a default judgment against the county. Road commission attorneys apparently forgot to show up the first time the case was heard, claiming they weren't notified, Mr. Howes said.

Shores Village Attorney William Killebrew was out of town and unable to be reached for comment on the Steiner suit.

Lawrence Campbell of The Farms city attorney's office told the council at its Monday, April 16, meeting he wasn't sure if The Farms' participation in the suit would be a help to its cause.

"A class suit is more persuasive and more appealing than one brought by a city," he said. Reached last week, he acknowledged Mr. Steiner had been contacted, but no decision by the city has been made whether to join the action.

Mr. Steiner felt that any legal help would be beneficial to his suit, and asked interested lawyers to join in.

Additional Funds Help
"Somebody is wrong. My lawsuit is going to find out who's wrong," he said. "I agree with the position of The Farms and Shores but somebody has to get off dead center. Everybody is dragging their feet on this."

The Farms and Shores have been requested to pay a small percentage, (8 1/2%), of the total cost of resurfacing Lakeshore road between Moross and Vernier roads. That percentage has been lowered from the original one-third requested by the county in 1975, when it first instituted the local share policy.

Since the policy has been in effect, The Farms and Shores remain the only communities in Wayne County which have refused to go along with the cost sharing.

The receipt of additional federal funds last fall was responsible for the lowering of the municipalities' requested shares, so that The Shores, (using 1976 estimates), would be asked to pay $29,000 of a total cost of $348,000, and The Farms, (using current estimates), would be asked for $12,500 out of $112,500 for the portion of Lakeshore between The Shores and Moross.

While the only preliminary estimates exist for the entire county-owned stretch of Lakeshore in the Farms, approximately $38,750 would be asked from the city for a project totalling $465,000.

Chamber Music Season Closes

The Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe are bringing their season to a close on Friday, May 11, with their annual meeting and dinner in the Crystal Ballroom of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Burt E. Taylor Jr. of Ridge Road is president, and vice-president Mrs. Fred W. Pangel of Aline drive has arranged a program of song and dance by a group of her pupils.

The program is open to the public and admission is $2. The dinner and evening is $7 and by reservation only.

Woods Planners Agree To Raise Fee for Appeals

By Roger A. Waha
 A motion to increase Board of Appeals fees in The Woods from $25 to $75 for the R-1 (single family residential) district and from $25 to $150 for all other classifications was approved by the Planning Commission at its regular meeting Tuesday, April 24.

The subject of fee schedules, not only in relation to Board of Appeals hearings, but also encompassing site plan review, subdivision review and rezoning petitions, has been discussed for around two years by both the commission and the council.

With the commission's action, the council will now consider the recommendation, possibly at one of its meetings this month.

In viewing a council recommendation made last month to increase the Board of Appeals fee from $25 to $100, City Attorney George Catlin pointed out that it costs the city money to place appropriate legal notices in the NEWS, for paper and postage regarding mailing notices to affected property owners and for clerical work to get them out.

Officials also felt the figure of around $100 was needed to break even.

Commissioner Peter Gilezan said the city shouldn't be in a profit position while indicating the community also shouldn't be subsidizing Board of Appeals hearings.

He expressed a concern over a flat fee in the sense that some Board of Appeals items only involve proposed adjustments to residences and are fairly straightforward, while other cases may involve complex issues, e.g. in viewing multiples and the commercial district, thus entailing more time and work.

Commissioner George Rinaldi asked Building Inspector Earl Wakely if a citizen requests a Board of Appeals hearing regarding some potential work on his home, e.g., an addition, wouldn't that increase his tax base, with the city ultimately recouping some of the additional costs.

Mr. Wakely responded in the affirmative and Mr. Rinaldi then moved that the fee remain at $25. However, his motion died for lack of support.

For his part, Commissioner John Kennedy said he agreed with both Mr. Gilezan and Mr. Rinaldi, suggesting that the $25 fee be retained for the R-1 district, while a fee of $100 could be charged for more complex requests.

The commissioners were informed that an estimated 10 to 12 such requests, both residential and commercial, are made during a year, with Mr. Catlin noting, since he has been affiliated with the city for some 13 and a half years, the $25 fee has remained unchanged.

Commissioner George Couillard moved that the fee be upped to $100 on all requests with the exception of the R-1 district, but Mr. Gilezan felt the city would be subsidizing R-1 requests and at least should recover its out-of-pocket costs.

Commissioner Joseph Parthum said all costs are increasing, while Commissioner Philip Patanis interjected that some other communities charge anywhere to $300 to $700 for requests.

Some communities may abuse their right in this respect, said planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers, who cautioned against such an action. At the same time, he noted other cities don't even charge a nickel with a suggesting such fees should be treated as a cost of government and that out-of-pocket costs should be recouped.

He also mentioned that when the areas of rezoning and site plan review costs are considered, a developer could even help pay.

With that, Mr. Gilezan offered a substitute motion and his colleagues agreed, 7-1. Mr. Rinaldi cast the lone dissenting vote.

State Honors Pointe Seniors

Four students from South High School and three from North High were the recipients of a $1,000 Legislative Merit Award for graduating high school seniors with outstanding academic records, according to a release from State Rep. William R. Bryant, Jr., House minority leader.

In 1976, the legislature enacted into law Public Act 228 creating a program which provides one-time scholarship awards of $1,000 to students without regard to family financial circumstances.

Only one recipient is from Harper Woods and he is Edward A. Boesiger of Danbury lane, a graduate senior of North.

The other six award winners are all Pointe residents. They are Peter Prokopowicz of Hawthorne road and Richard D. Zenn of Prestwick road, also of North.

The recipients from South are John D. Dinka of Lakepointe avenue, Mark W. Miller of Lakepointe, Michael G. Obryan of Rivard boulevard and Carole F. Ruward of Deming lane.

For the current fiscal year the legislature has appropriated $150,000 for this program, and 150 outstanding students have been selected based on their performance on the State Scholarship Examination. Attractive Certificates of Recognition have been prepared for all the winners.

John W. Porter, superintendent of public instruction, State Department of Education, stated it should be noted that this program of Legislative Merit Awards is distinct and separate from the regular State Scholarship and Tuition Programs.

Watches Taken In Woods B-E

Someone smashed a front window of the Lochmoor Jewelers, 20926 Mack avenue, and took an estimated nine watches early Wednesday morning, April 11.

Woods police received a burglary alarm at the store at 12:35 a.m. and Officer Donald Schmitz found the window, next to the entrance door, broken out in an apparent "snatch and grab" break-in.

Police said the watches were valued at around $1,325, and the department learned that the cost of replacing the broken window with tempered glass is $800.

Film on France Set for May 16

The War Memorial Adventure Series will present Ted Bumiller narrating his travelogue on France Wednesday, May 16, in the Fries Theater, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

Dinner will precede the film at 6:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom.

The film covers France from the beaches and cliffs of Brittany in the North through the fields of Normandy to the chateaux country of the Loire Valley. The French Alps also is featured.

The complete evening, dinner and show with tax and service included is $10.75. The narrated film show is only $3.

Board Adopts Policy

By James J. Njain
By a close 4-3 vote at a special conference meeting held by the Board of Education on Monday, April 30, no letters or notes will be dispatched to teachers or members of the school staff on official Board stationery, without the full consent and knowledge of the entire body.

A resolution to that effect was adopted by the narrow vote to prevent giving an authoritative overtone which might be construed as an official sanction by the Board.

The resolution was presented for adoption by Trustee William F. Huette-man and seconded by Trustee Joan R. Hanpeter.

Mr. Huette-man took issue regarding a letter sent to school system teachers by Board President Laurance Harwood, in which Mr. Harwood wrote that he strongly felt that in the teachers' Wednesday, April 25, election to join Local One of the Michigan Education Association that local control was involved.

The Board president sent a letter to all teachers in which he voiced an opinion that he felt strongly "that local control was the issue. I am sorry to see local control diluted."

Mr. Harwood admitted that he was the only member of the Board to send such a letter on official stationery, but in a prepared statement, he gentlemanly expressed his apologies to the full Board and to the citizens in attendance at the session, as well as to all the personnel of the Grosse Pointe School System.

He stated it was not his intention at any time to create the impression that he was speaking for the Board, but that the feeling was his own.

The resolution that was adopted emphasized the following: "That no member of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education shall use stationery of the Board of Education to communicate to another, (except the routine acknowledgement of correspondence without further comment other than a reply will be forthcoming after the next School Board meeting) or words to that effect, or the routine messages communicated at times of illness or death, without the concurrence of a majority of the School Board obtained at the next special or regular meeting of the Board of Education."

Others voting for the resolution were Trustees Ann Arducci and Robert Warner, while those voting against were Mr. Harwood and Trustees Jon Gandelot and William Fleming.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

So often when purchasing a new home the buyer will call a few lending institutions and ask what their "closing" costs are and interest rates are. Usually they will stop their inquiring at that point of information.

We say there is more you could and probably should ask. All mortgages today have a clause regarding assumption of that mortgage. Basically it says that the lending institution has the right to review the credit rating of the person that would be assuming your mortgage and also to adjust the interest rate if they desire!

Now there is what we would suggest you ask the mortgage company. We would like to hear their answer to how seriously they enforce that clause. Some lenders say that it also means if they refuse the proposed buyer that you cannot enter into a land contract or any agreement that concerns selling your property. Some feel you can rent your property but even then the lease must be under three years!

This puts a great restriction upon the ownership of your property. This could stop you from selling your house for three times what you paid if you had such a client.

So we say ask the lending officer to give you his analysis of the "assumption" clause. Some say we ignore it, others say they follow it to a "T". In today's market this could be far more valuable to you than a quarter percent on the interest rate.

The associates at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 study Real Estate—and know it thoroughly! If you're in the market you would be interested also in knowing some inside thoughts on listing your property. How you do it can mean thousands of dollars to you!

Local I

Board member who sent out any communication, while adding he knew of no letters sent out by a member of the administration. I understand other letters went out, he added, via members of the GPEA.

The election itself became a reality after the local union agreed to hold a second election with MERC supervision, with leaders saying this action was taken to help move contract negotiations along.

Such talks are scheduled to begin sometime this month as the teachers' three-year agreement, reached in the fall of 1976 after a state fact-finder became involved, expires this June.

The Pointe now joins other Local I districts including Anchor Bay, Cedar Point, Chippewa Valley, Clintongale, Fraser, Lakeview, L'Anse Creuse, Mount Clemens, New Haven, Richmond, Romeo, South Lake and Warren-Woods.

When asked if Pointe teachers will automatically strike if another Local I district decides to strike, Mr. Lange replied, "No, not at all. This is a misconception which we've tried to lay to rest. Grosse Pointe teachers will not be called upon to strike when another district strikes."

He then pointed out two types of strikes, a district approach and an area-wide approach. If a district decides to strike, the district will take the initiative, he said, while indicating he hopes an area-wide strike never occurs.

However, if the latter happens, Mr. Lange said local teachers will still have to vote on the matter.

MISS ELIZABETH A. CAMPAU
Services for Miss Campau, 58, of Neff road were held on Tuesday, May 1, in Christ Church, Detroit. Arrangements were handled by the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died on Saturday, April 28, in Saint John Hospital.
Miss Campau, a 1939 graduate of Liggett School, devoted much of her time and work to the school as its alumnae secretary. She was a direct descendant of Jacques Campau, one of the area's earliest settlers, who came to Detroit from Montreal in 1708. Another relative was Joseph Campau, for whom the Detroit street is named. The Campau family once owned Belle Isle, under its previous name, Hog Island.
Miss Campau was a member of the Fine Arts Society, Sigma Gamma Association and Christ Church, Detroit, where she was a member of the choir and altar guild. She had no immediate survivors.
A reception was held at University Liggett School following the Tuesday services.
Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery, where several generations of Campaus are buried.

MRS. IRENE BALDWIN
Services for Mrs. Baldwin, 76, of Rivard boulevard will be held today, May 3, in the Verheyden Funeral Home and Saint Philomena Church at 10 a.m.
She died on Sunday, April 29, in Cottage Hospital. Prior to her retirement,

Three other selections will be featured on the program, under the direction of Felix Resnick.
They include Mendelssohn's "Ruy Blas Overture," which was written for a well-known Victor Hugo drama depicting the court of Charles III of Spain and was first performed in Leipzig in 1839; "La Valse" by Ravel, one of France's greatest composers, known for his remarkable lucidity of form, clarity of structure and refinement of style; and "Serenade in E minor for Strings" by England's renowned composer, Sir Edward Elgar.
Ticket prices are $4 for adults and $1.50 for students. They may be purchased at the box office just before the concert or reserved in advance by phoning Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin at 822-7141 or Mrs. J. Ross Bush at 821-9558.

Establish Priorities
 "Anything we do is above and beyond what a school system normally does," stated Dr. Coats.

For his part, Mr. Harwood stated, "I think we're being taken." Feeling that the responsibility for the YSD is more of a community responsibility than one for the school system, he said, "People have been more prone to push it on the school side."

While admitting the 25 percent figure would be more acceptable, Mr. Harwood also cautioned that the request last year just "squeaked through."

As for 25 percent in lieu of 30 percent for 1979-80, he added, "I can't answer that without talking to all the Board members."

Aware of the feelings of school officials on the 30 percent request, Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, YSD coordinator, in feeling the entire matter was up to the School Board and the participating communities, indicated the board of managers were of the opinion that the school district benefits the most from the YSD and that the system should pay the 30 percent.

"If the School Board sees fit not to increase its participation to 30 percent, then the board of managers has to make a decision and establish priorities for the communities regarding whether or not the YSD has played its role in the community, and that now is the time to quietly withdraw and have each city go on its way," he said.

Other Considerations
 While the fate of the YSD, which became fully operational in August 1970 to combat at that time a significant and growing problem of substance abuse and has since developed into an integral community service, hinges in large part on the School Board's action, that isn't the only factor affecting its survival.

Another consideration is the ongoing concern of the Shores Council over the current method of allocation to the communities based on state equalized valuation, (SEV).

Officials have pointed out in the past that the Village's contribution via the SEV method was too high because few cases are sent from the Public Safety Department to YSD offices for follow up.

Rather than follow the SEV route, Shores officials feel costs should be allocated on a population basis.

Yet another consideration is the fact that the various municipalities are facing another tight budget year, (the effects of the Headlee Tax Limitation amendment notwithstanding).

To Meet Again
 When the board of managers first considered the YSD's proposed budget for 1979-80, with most of the increase stemming from salaries/wages and fringe benefits, Mr. Petersen didn't include a cost breakdown per community via SEV, or any other format, in his budget information sheet as has been done in the past.

This area will be viewed again after the School Board makes its final decision on the 30 percent request at which time the board of managers is scheduled to meet and discuss that decision—and what it means to the YSD.

For the current year, the division's budget is placed at $162,973. Under the SEV method, The Woods is paying about $41,000, (in round figures), The Farms, $31,000, The Park, $23,000, The City, $15,000, and The Shores, $13,000.

The School Board is paying around $41,000, i.e., 25 percent of the total budget.

New Farms' Budget Contains Major Milestone

 posed to $20,000 budgeted), mainly as a result of labor negotiations. Because new contracts must be bargained with all employ groups this year, the budget for legal fees next year has been upped 25 percent.

Well over its budgeted amount for last year were salaries in both administration and police departments, with police falling short by $20,000 of its projected figure this year.

Salaries for other employ groups fell fairly close to budgeted figures, while the fire department is expected to wind up with more than $10,000 in surplus at the end of the fiscal year, chiefly as a result of the department being one man short for over six months. City Manager Andrew Bremer said tests are currently being conducted to find a new fireman.

In a memo to council members, Mr. Bremer said that, due to recent changes in CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), regulations, it appeared The Farms will be out of that program by September. (The Farms currently has two CETA employees, whose salaries are subsidized by the federal government.)

Mr. Bremer noted that the hiring of a parking enforcement specialist, (Angela Kubek), last year resulted in a substantial increase in parking meter violations. A dual effect of the hiring was the release of police officers for other duties such as speed enforcement. The net result has been a 50 percent increase in court and traffic fines.

The fire department stands to receive a new five-inch hose system, that is expected to cost $5,000. Mr. Bremer notes, however, the city will require a demonstration of the new system before it purchases it.

The Farms plans to buy four marked and one unmarked patrol car next year. Mr. Bremer, in response to a question from a council member, stated the marked cars would have to be full size models, explaining there wouldn't be sufficient room for police equipment in smaller vehicles.

Paving maintenance funds have been increased for next year, from $7,500 to $13,000, in the hope that by maintaining the city's streets better, the more costly job of repaving may be needed less frequently.

The tree maintenance account has been increased by one-third, (from $30,000 to $40,000), "due to what seems to be a recurring pattern of severe winter weather, and the adverse effect of this weather upon our tree population," Mr. Bremer said.

Refuse disposal costs are currently approaching $80 a ton, he said, while citing the increase in costs as "illustrative of the types of cost increases over which the city has little control." The city's garbage bill will go up about 35 percent this year, "due mostly to federal and state pollution control mandates at the Pointes' refuse authority incinerator plant."

The public improvement account has been increased some $40,000 for next year, up to a figure of $180,000. Of this, $50,000 is planned to be spent on the painting of the sheet piling and other maintenance at the Pier Park. Within the improvement funds is an amount for the study and installation of a storm water metering system to determine the actual flow of this water. This is designed to clear up discrepancies in

Park Discusses Budget

 increase of burning refuse at the Grosse Pointes-City Refuse Disposal Authority.

A matter of discussion that concerned the council was the Youth Service Division, (YSD), with the budget calling for an increase of $1,200 over last year's allocation of $22,800.

Councilman George J. Verdonck called the YSD appropriation "a waste of money."

Mr. Crawford, however, was quick to point out that Park youths benefit from YSD services. He further indicated that if The Park discontinued its affiliation with the YSD it would mean the hiring of a youth officer.

The city, however, is keeping a close watch on the YSD and may be fast approaching the need for its own youth officer, Mr. Crawford added.

Reimbursement of approximately $30,100 is expected to come through to the city from the federally funded CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), program. Under the program, the city can hire nine people. At the moment, the city only has eight CETA employees. The federal government stipulates that employees must reside in The Park and be unemployed for a period of 15 weeks.

The council is planning another working session with the date of that meeting not as yet scheduled.

A public hearing on the 1979-80 proposed budget will be held Monday, May 14, at 5:30 p.m.

Cable TV

 larly like to see a system designed and specifically built for The Pointe.

Councilwoman Ann M. MacDonald proposed that a School Board representative also meet with Pointe officials in a coordinated discussion on cable TV.

The Woods up until now has been approached by three cable TV companies, including Mega Vision.

Cox and MacLean Hunter Cable TV Limited of Rexdale, Ont., Canada also are proposing franchises to Woods officials.

Shores Eyes Pact
 Woods citizens indicated to the city in a special election in March that they would approve of a council investigation into cable TV and the possible authorization of a franchise via an advisory vote.

Meanwhile, in The Shores, there are strong indications that the city will accept a franchise with Cox Cable, according to Village President Gerald C. Schroeder.

Mr. Schroeder stated that The Shores hasn't signed any agreement with Cox at this point, but is presently negotiating with the company.

Cox and Mega Vision are similarly in the process of presenting their proposed franchises to officials in The City and The Farms.

City Manager Thomas W. Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City indicated that, while officials haven't reviewed either franchise proposal, it would make "good sense" to review them with other Pointe communities to see what each cable company has to offer.

Farms City Clerk Richard G. Solak said officials will review each proposal sometime in May when they are brought before the council for consideration.

Fire Damages Home in Woods

Woods officers responded quickly to a one-alarm fire at the Arthur Arnoske residence, 657 Hollywood avenue, on Thursday, April 26, confining the blaze to the wall between the garage and the living room.

The alarm was called in at 12:45 a.m. when a resident smelled the smoke as it filled the house.

Officers, under the command of Lt. Allen Selby, promptly doused the blaze, but not before there was extensive smoke damage throughout the entire residence. There also was some damage to the wall separating the garage from the living room.

The fire was blamed on a faulty outlet in the wall as the outlet shorted and ignited combustible material in the garage.

There were no injuries reported.

The extent of the total damage will have to be determined by insurance adjusters, officials added.

Wine Lines

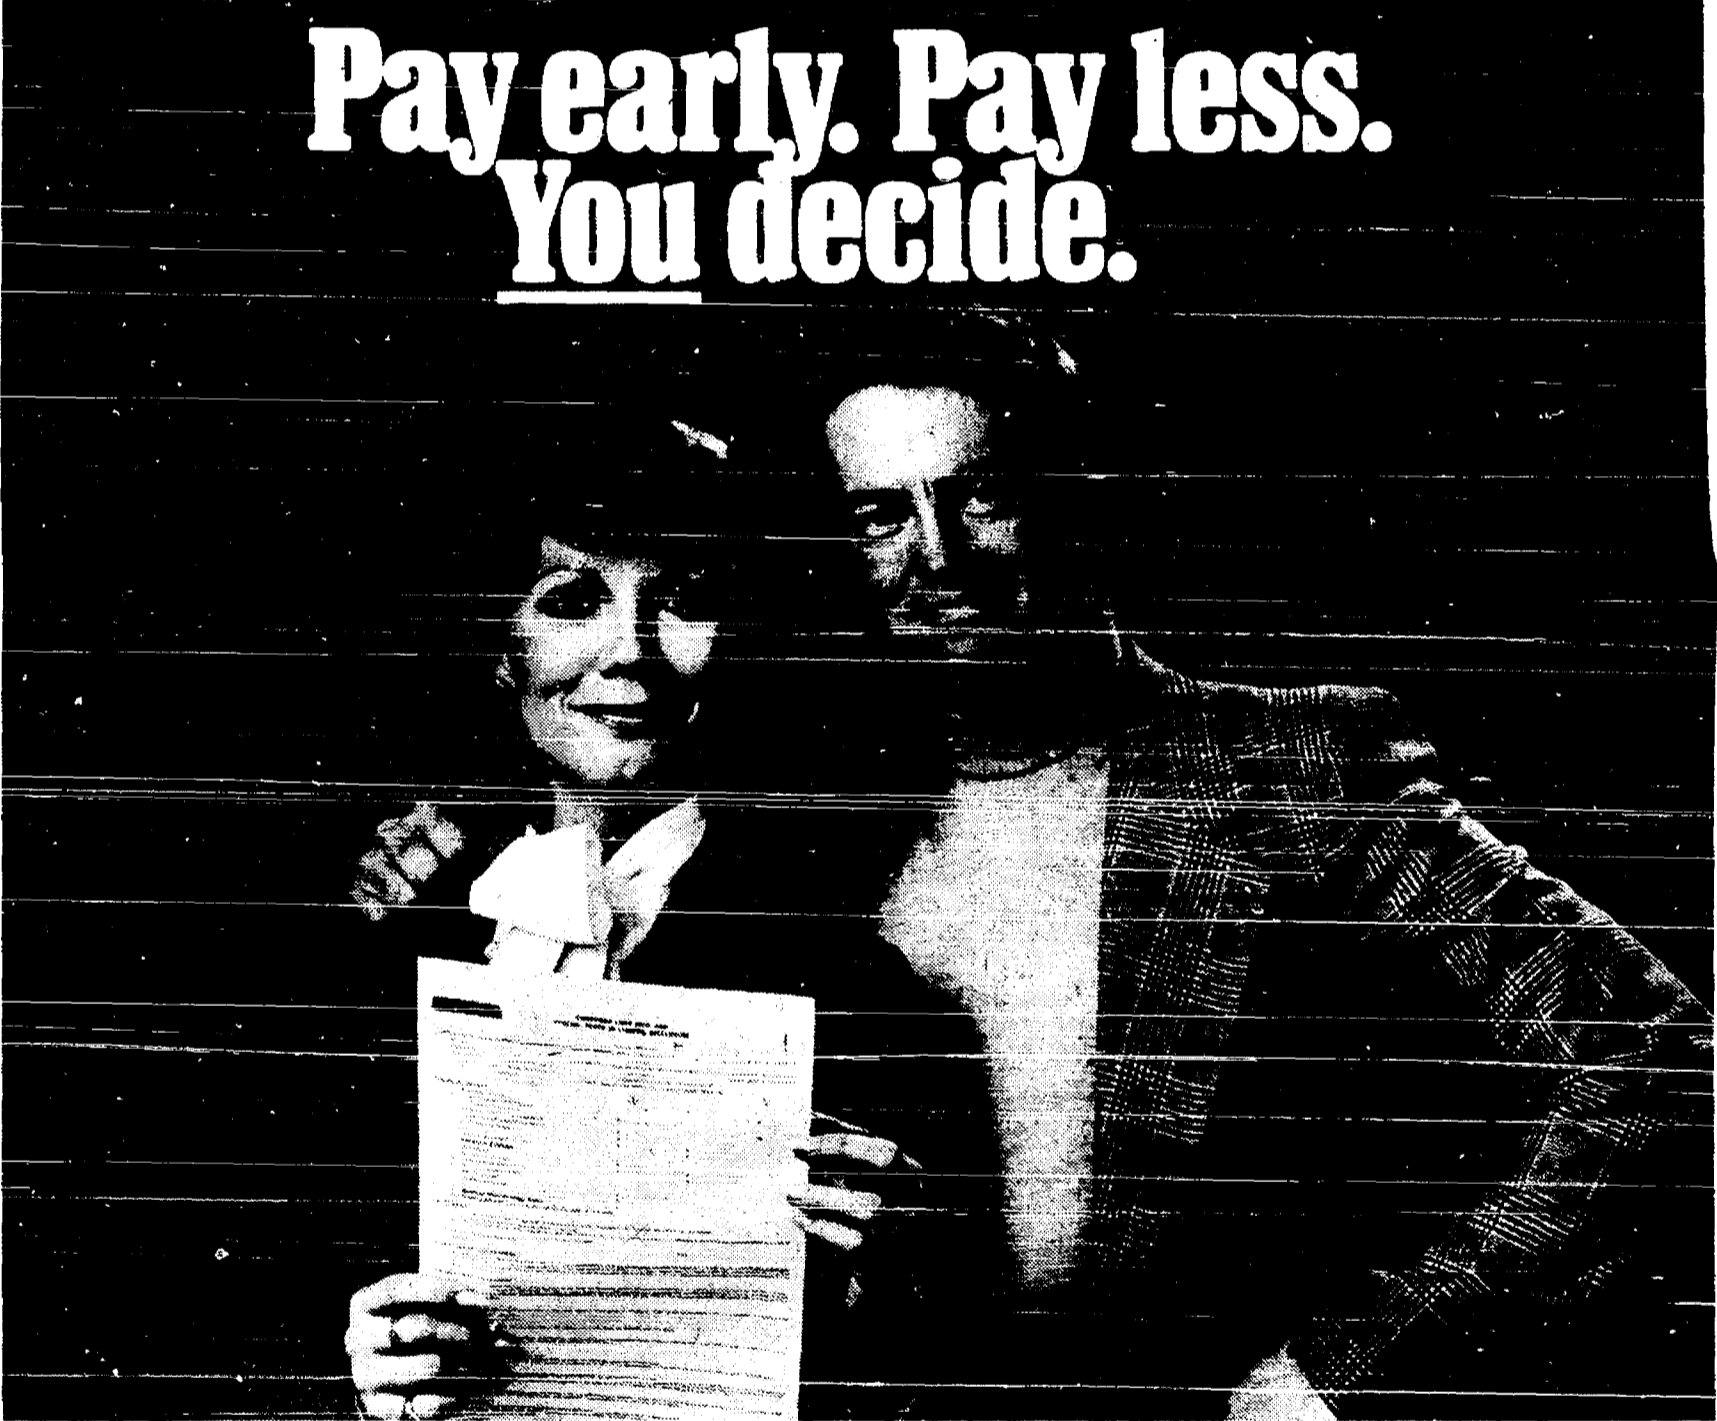

by John Lundberg

You might say that wine has three lives, including the vineyard, the vat, and the bottle. The quality of vineyard life has to do with soil, weather, and vine, as well as the care taken by the vineyard proprietor. Vat life depends on timing, fermentation, and from what the vat is made. Bottle life depends on time again, coolness, and stability. But, I think I forgot one important life, the life of the wine in your mouth. That depends entirely on your taste and is the ultimate test of any wine.

The ultimate test of any beverage is the pleasure and satisfaction it brings to the consumer. Whatever your particular taste may be, you will find a pleasing selection at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair. We feature the drinkable delights that provide the satisfaction to all tastes. So live a little, taste a little, and we are sure you will find something you like at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE. Introducing the Plain and Simple Loan.

It's different from the traditional type of installment loan. With our new Plain and Simple Loan, you have flexibility. The faster you pay, the less you pay. It's up to you. Here's an example:

The simple interest loan
VS.
The traditional loan

Compare how you can save.

- You borrow $4,500 for 36 months.
- Your ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is 12.87%.
- Your total FINANCE CHARGE is $944.64.
- Your payments are $151.24 per month for a total of 36 monthly payments equaling $5,444.64.
- You decide to make extra payments. Three months after the loan you make an extra payment of $300. 12 months later you make another $300 extra payment.
- With our Plain and Simple Loan, you save $186.40 in interest costs.
- With the traditional loan, you save only $8.52 in interest costs.
- With our loan, the difference in savings is $177.88.

It's another way Manufacturers can help you make it.

Our exclusive new Plain and Simple Loan actually rewards the borrower who pays early. Because the faster you pay it off, the less interest you pay.

You decide how you pay ...how much you save.

You only pay interest for the actual number of days you have the loan. So if you make an early payment—say, five days early—or if you choose to make a lump sum prepayment—say, after a windfall like a tax refund—your balance is reduced instantly and the FINANCE CHARGE is then figured against the new, lower principal. And if you pay off the entire loan—say, six months early—you save six months of FINANCE CHARGES. So you can save a lot of money. It's up to you.

You understand exactly what you sign.

All our loans are written in such plain language, you'll never have to wonder again what you signed to get the money you want.

There's more. We'll send you a final statement, so there are no surprises on your last payment. We'll tailor payment terms to fit your budget. We offer you an optional low-cost credit life insurance policy. We have an automatic repayment plan. And, upon request, we'll send you an annual tax report.

See your dealer or see us.

Our new Plain and Simple Loan. We think it's a better kind of loan, and it's the only kind of loan we make. It's flexible, fair, understandable, and gives you more control over your money. So for your next car, boat, home improvement or for any worthwhile purpose, see your dealer and insist upon the Plain and Simple Loan from Manufacturers Bank. Or visit any of our more than 70 offices.

ULS Beats Tennis Powers to Capture Invitational

University Liggett School, (ULS), took on the two defending state champions in Class A and B and five other top ranked Class A Michigan tennis powers and came away a winner.

ULS, last year's number one ranked tennis team for all high schools in Michigan, finished with 26 points to narrowly defeat Grand Blanc, which finished with 25.

The rest of the field finished as follows: East Grand Rapids, 19, Kalamazoo Loy Norrix, 14, Rochester Adams, 14, Ann Arbor Huron, 12, Midland, 12, and Grosse Ile, 4.

ULS, East Grand Rapids

and Grand Blanc each won two of the seven flights. However, ULS placed five individual or doubles teams in the finals and this depth provided the final narrow margin.

ULS winners were Paul Van Wallegheem in the number one Singles and Drew Mascarin in the number three Singles.

University Liggett finalists were Gar Knight in the number four Singles flight and the number two and number three doubles teams of Matthias Oertle and Jason Ekelman and Tim Finkenstaedt and John Doerer. Other members of this year's ULS varsity tennis team are Kris Robbins, George Peck and Doug Rose.

"In my 14 years as varsity tennis coach at University Liggett, this was definitely one of our biggest wins," commented coach Robert Wood. "We have played in many tournaments, but this invitational consisted of the top tennis powers throughout the entire state.

"This tournament fits into my philosophy as a coach and athletic director, and that is, 'Every time our players walk onto a court they will be tested.' Today's high school tennis player wants the challenge—a 6-0, 6-0 match benefits no one. "Of course, it certainly is a thrill for all of us connected with University Liggett to take on the best Michigan has to offer and come out a winner."

Trio Represent Pointe In Big Tennis Event

Three Pointe tennis champions will help represent Michigan in the "Seventeen" magazine fourth annual Tennis Tournament of Champions, Tuesday through Saturday, May 15 to 19 in Mission Viejo, Calif.

They are Susan Mascarin of Webber place, Elizabeth Wachter of Lewiston road and Evelyn Lucido of North Oxford road.

Winners and runners-up will receive trophies in each of three age divisions, 14-and-under, 16-and-under and 18-and-under. In addition, a "most promising junior player of the year" will be announced at the tourney, selected from the field of 208 players by a committee of executives from the United States Tennis Association and the Brinker Foundation.

The most promising player will be awarded a trophy and a travel grant to cover tournament expenses for one year. Such players as Tracy Austin and Anne Smith, both now highly-regarded professionals, have captured this title in the past.

Susan, 14, was the winner of last year's 14-and-under

Liggett Nine Post 2 Wins

The University Liggett School, (ULS), baseball team maintained its unblemished record by posting victories over Hamtramck and Detroit Country Day last week. ULS currently stands atop the Metro Conference with a 4-0 record.

Offense was the name of the game against Hamtramck as the Knights pounded out 12 hits in a 9-7 triumph. Hamtramck had taken a 5-3 lead after three innings, but then Liggett bats went to work.

Jack Roberts drove in three runs with a three-for-four day, while Tom Hastings and John Hindle each had two hits. Hindle and Mike Malloch drove in two runs apiece.

Senior Dave Popkey posted his first victory of the season as he relieved Jeff Karash in the fourth inning.

After a slow start which saw the Knights fall behind by two runs, ULS rallied to score the next two runs against Country Day. The game ended in the bottom of the fifth inning by virtue of the 10-run rule.

Roberts upped his record to 2-0 with a fine pitching performance. He limited Country Day to three hits while striking out eight batters. Bill Fleischmann began the scoring parade with a clutch two-run single in the third inning.

The game was tied in the fourth inning as ULS sent 12 men to the plate in a seven-run spree. Kevin Wohlfield drove in the winning run in the fifth inning with his second hit of the day.

ULS will play the co-leader of the Metro Conference, Harper Woods, at the Liggett field in Cook road tomorrow, May 4, at 4:15 p.m.

Liz is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Telesforo Mascarin. Liz, 15, will compete in 16-and-under play. A ninth grade student at South High School, she won the state high school finals championship, playing in the number one position for the team.

Ranked number 10 in the WTA 14's and number 44 in the country, Liz was the winner of the Michigan State Closed 16's last June. She reached the third rounds of both the Western Closed 14's and the National Girls' 14 Clay Courts, and the round of 16 during the International Orange Bowl 16's in Miami, Fla.

Liz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wachter. Evelyn, 14, is an eighth grade honor roll student at Our Lady Star of the Sea School. She is ranked number six in the WTA 14's and number 43 in the country. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lucido, Eva will compete in the 14-and-under division in the "Seventeen" event.

Playing in the National Indoor Girls' 14 Championships last November, unseeded Eva upset top seed Lori Kosten and advanced to the semifinals, finishing fourth.

Liggett, SHS Are Net Powers

Rankings compiled by the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association for the week of April 30 shows University Liggett School, (ULS), with South High, (SHS), in the fourth spot.

ULS, a class D school, is judged superior to Class A schools Grand Blanc and Kalamazoo Loy Norrix, (second and third in the rankings, respectively).

For the discerning buyer

Truly a house for all seasons our newly-listed offering just off Windmill Pointe Drive has three lovely fireplaces to beautify and chase the chill from a cool Spring evening. For Summer days a beautiful Marlex pool, landscaped to perfection with patio and gas grill. The included lot provides a rare opportunity for the purchaser's choosing—whether it's to be just plain elbow-room, tennis court or smart investing... A new Mutschler kitchen, with breakfast area overlooking the pool is a plus for entertaining as is the large step-down living room and family room. This gracious home offers the superb combination of irreplaceable elegance in style and dimension and up-to-date convenience and maintenance.

Here is a large, lovely family home at a small-house price. For under $130,000, you'll find an immaculate brick-front colonial, beautifully landscaped with large private patio, five big family bedrooms, an especially large and gracious Master bedroom and bath, 2 1/2 additional baths and lav in basement satisfies the needs of even king-sized families. The kitchen is spacious and modern and the basement is finished with paneled recreation room and wet bar. Service stairs and attached garage are features to save steps and lessen wear and tear. This is a happy house a big family can be proud of.

Price reduced to low sixties. Walking distance to schools. There are very few houses of this size and charm which will be sold in the low sixties in Grosse Pointe Woods this year. You are missing a real bargain if you are in the market for a three bedroom home and don't make an appointment to see this home.

Racewalkers Compete at North High School

North High School's track was the site of another American racewalking record on Sunday, April 22. The late Bill Walker had set the American record for the 50-mile event there in 1974. He was murdered this past winter while driving his cab in Detroit.
 The race on the 22nd was the Michigan AAU's 20 kilometer, (12.4 miles), championship. The winner was Jim Heiring of Racine, Wis., representing the University of Chicago Track Club.
 Second was his teammate, Chris Hansen, Detroit fireman Martin Kraft was third, with his time of one hour, 32 minutes, 35 seconds establishing a new standard for Michigan.
 Heiring's time of 1:30:04 bettered the 1:30:10 set by Larry Young in 1972. Young was the bronze medal winner in the 1968 and 1972 Olympics.
 Jeanne Bocci of The Park, girls track coach at North High, was the first woman finisher, with a new Michigan record of 1:57:41. In second was Barb Carroll of the Ohio Track Club. Third place went to Mrs. Bocci's Motor City Strider teammate, Woods resident Sally Mader.
 The team championship was taken by the Motor City Striders' team of Kraft, Ward Freeman and Roger Loder.
 Others taking part in the competition included four-time Canadian Olympian, Alex Oakley of Oshawa, Ont., and two-time U.S. Olympian Ralph Weinacker from the Detroit area.
 The next walking competition will be held in conjunction with the Michigan AAU Masters track and field championships to be held at the Macomb Community College South Campus track, 12 Mile and Hayes, on Sunday, May 20.

Know Your Schools
By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Recently published statistics show that 62.8 percent of persons 18 or over had jobs in 1977. That was the highest percentage of Americans working in recent history and authorities indicate that even more people would have jobs if they were properly trained for available positions.

We believe that schools have a responsibility to prepare students to enter the world of work, and have developed career awareness goals focusing on that belief.

Some of these goals, such as acquiring information about specific occupations and understanding the contributions different careers make to society, apply to all grade levels. Other goals such as becoming aware of the education and training needed for various occupations are designed for students in specific grades.

Throughout this school year several teachers of the early elementary grades and staff members from middle and

Jaycees Bike-a-Thon Fights Reye's Syndrome

A "Ride-for-Reye's" Bike-a-Thon will be sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Jaycees, starting at the Three Mile Park, at the foot of Three Mile drive and Essex. The event is scheduled for Saturday, May 12, with the starting time set for 9 a.m. and ending at 2 p.m.

In the event of inclement weather, the date will be shifted to Sunday, May 13.

The Bike-a-Thon is to raise funds for Reye's Syndrome Research, so if you wish to participate, sponsor sheets are available at all schools and churches in the Pointe area. Honorary chairman of the event is Jerry Hodak of Channel 7 News.

There will be three starting points for rider convenience, North High School, Brownell Middle School and Defer School.

Persons interested in volunteering their time may register on May 12 from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Bikers may ride as long as they desire during the five-hour period. Participants should turn in their sponsor sheets when they register and pick them up after they have completed their ride.

Anyone can be a sponsor. A rider may have as many sponsors as he or she can get. A sponsor agrees to contribute, in the rider's name, an agreed amount for each kilometer cycled. After the Bike-a-Thon, the rider collects the money from each sponsor, using the envelope and forms provided at registration after the ride has been completed.

A special event in which all students will take part. The poster must display the three starting points, date and time of the event, the theme "Ride-for-Reye's" and the student's name.

All posters will be judged at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, today, May 3, at 4 p.m. The contest is open to students of all ages and many prizes will be awarded, including a bicycle.

Event chairman is Thomas Fitzgibbon, whose organization is sponsoring the Bike-a-Thon in conjunction with Children's Hospital and The Pointe community.

In the 1978 Bike-a-Thon, a total of $5,500 was raised for the research program with approximately 200 persons taking part. It is hoped that that sum will be equaled or bettered in this year's event.

On completion of the event, potato chips and soft drinks will be available at Brownell, the central check point.

Reye's Syndrome is a severe illness which attacks children and usually follows influenza, and the survival percentage is low. At least one Pointe child has died of the disease in recent years.

'Topics for Today' Starts May 17

A new three-part seminar presented by the public schools' Division of Instruction-Continuing Education is designed to help local residents cope more effectively with problems facing them in their everyday lives.

"Topics for Today: Energy, Investments and Consumerism" features experts in these crucial areas in classes set for three successive Thursday lighted stocks that increased their dividends at a much higher rate than the inflation rate in a 10-year bear market.

"Now, about weathering the 'Storm of '79' with stocks that can counteract or at least retard the crippling effects of inflation, I expect to share with students my philosophy of the 'five pertinents' which must be considered when one invests in these times," Mr. Holley comments.

A former vice-president and director of Holley Carburator Co., he currently operates his own business, Holley International.

The third session will be instructed by Marilyn Gunther, associate director of the Michigan Consumer Education Center at Eastern Michigan University, whose topic is "Be A More Sophisticated Consumer!" She will devote a major portion of her presentation to the consumer laws that affect each citizen.

few centers in the United States dedicated to research of the illness.

Reye's Syndrome has grown to be the second largest viral killer of children in our country, and Michigan's children have incurred 11 percent of all cases reported nationally.

LWV Explores Its Program

As part of its local program for 1979-80, which was recently adopted by its membership, the League of Women Voters, (LWV), of Grosse Pointe is exploring several areas including recreation and education.

On recreation, the league supports the establishment of a recreational planning committee for the five Grosse Pointes composed of representatives from the municipalities, community institutions and citizens involved in recreation.

It also supports all communities, the Grosse Pointe Public School System and local organizations in working for equity in financing of, and access to, recreational facilities without regard to sex, (and for individuals as well as organized groups), and increased enrollment in physical fitness activities to be enjoyed by all ages.

In viewing education, the league supports the concept of community education.

It also supports and encourages the public schools to do the following:

- Provide appropriate class size for effective teaching.
- Obtain funds to meet building needs.
- Provide an adequate school social worker program.
- Meet the needs of children with special requirements.
- Maintain an accurate census of atypical children.

The league also supports Wayne County Community College.

Any person who subscribes to the purpose and policy of the league is eligible for membership. Citizens interested in becoming members, or who have any questions, should contact Eleanor Tacke, 885-9276, (after 6 p.m.), or Cathy Weyhing, at 885-1251.

SNOWMOBILE SALES

The snowmobile industry started a climb back to respectability in sales during the past winter, after suffering several years of doldrums. Overproduction in its heyday was one of the snowmobile's problems as sales dropped to 197,000 units in 1977, some 67 percent below previous normal years. Heavier snowfalls in the last two years have helped materially to start sales on an upturn. The availability of more trails in national parks also has been a plus factor.

GETTING THEIR START

Two out of three major ball teams sponsored by the American Legion, which is celebrating its 60th anniversary, are celebrating its 60th anniversary of junior baseball.

Part I Crime Falls in GPW

The Woods Department of Public Safety is off to a good start as the March departmental crime report showed a drop in Part I offenses, (classified as more serious crimes), during the first quarter last year.

In comparison to the 118 offenses reported through March 1978, 94 have been recorded through this March.

In fact, Public Safety Director John Dankel in an information sheet to the troops said it is encouraging to note that during the first quarter of 1979, total FBI Part I crimes have decreased 20 percent in comparison to the same period last year.

"The most dramatic decreases have been in burglary which is down 47 percent, (from 30 reports to 16), and auto theft which is down 77 percent, (from 13 to 3)," he said.

Meanwhile, the total miles of street patrolling has increased from 52,765 to 62,935. He felt the increased, aggressive patrol was having some positive effect in the reduction of Part I crimes.

"Looking at the first quarter, total traffic enforcement has increased 13 percent and now approximately equals the average of the last four years. At the same time, traffic accidents have decreased 17 percent," the director stated.

On the fire front, he added total alarms have increased from 26 to 35, while actual fires decreased from 11 to 10.

Seniors' Nutrition Site Welcomes New Manager

By Roger A. Waha

The Pointe's Out-Wayne County Nutrition Site for senior citizens, housed in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, has a new full-time manager.

She's Mary Waligora, 21, of Whittier road, Detroit, who's majoring in gerontology and social work at Madonna College.

She's replacing Mary Aley and Diane Heavner, who will now be able to give their full attention toward developing the SOC, (Seniors Onward for Change, Inc.), program in the community. Both are co-directors of the program.

The site isn't an unfamiliar place to Miss Waligora, who interned there for several months late last year and early this year. She will remain at the post until September and then will return to complete her studies prior to a December graduation.

Miss Waligora officially started on Monday, April 23, and is in the process of becoming oriented to her surroundings. "I enjoy working with the elderly," she said, while noting many seniors remembered her from her internship period.

While planning to continue the variety of classes, e.g., humanities, sewing, exercise, currently given at the site, Miss Waligora hopes to add some new ones such as powderpuff auto mechanics. At the same time, she plans on incorporating further entertainment for the citizens to enjoy.

Besides the pleasure she sets in meeting and working with seniors, she has an inherent sympathy with them, stemming from her widowed mother, who's unable to drive, and the fact that she's the youngest of 11 children.

In an effort to obtain experience in her chosen field, she also completed an internship recently at the Lasher Hills Nursing Home, Southfield, working with the activities director.

Kari Wins 'Maire Faire' Contest

Third grader, KARI DEIRKES, OBERMEYER, a first grade teacher in charge of judging, Kari won a recent "Maire Faire" Poster Contest, discusses her poster with ELEANOR

Other prize winning posters were created by kindergartners Laurie Tyrrell, and Mathew Hunt; first graders Andrea Chapin and Jimmy Alderton; second graders Laura Macdonald, Becky Hunt, Anne Tipp and Katie Bower; and third graders Chris Langs, Corey Smith and Stacey Simonson.

Award-winning fourth grade poster makers were Katherine Hardwick and Kurt Van Tiem, Laura Plankner, Donna Emery, Paula Thompson, Julie Kressbach, Ester Van West and Julie Jones were the fifth grade prize winners.

Sixth grade winners included Chris Ledbetter, Jim Dinverno, Catherine Boyer and Joe Carion.

The United Nations International Year of the Child provided the theme for this year's "Maire Faire," which will be held on Saturday, May 12, at the school, 740 Cadieux road, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In keeping with the theme, each class selected a particular country for study. Classroom decorations will feature that country's art and artifacts. The United Nations was contacted for extra information and materials.

The event will feature 44 games with nearly 20,000 prizes for the children. There also will be an International Cafe in the gym and families are invited to enjoy lunch or a snack.

Prizes include a family dinner at the Summit restaurant, an AM/FM cassette radio, a tape recorder and a professional quality skateboard.

If you would like a Barber-shop Quartet or a piano player to perform at your next party, you also could win them at the Silent Auction Slave Market.

Other slave talents to be silently auctioned include baby-sitting, viola lessons, math tutoring, hair frosting and original art works.

Proceeds from the PTO sponsored "Maire Faire" will be used to purchase materials and programs not included in the regular budget.

In past years, the event has made possible additional playground equipment, scholarships for class trips, calculators, audio visual equipment, special musical and dramatic assemblies, a nature center and supplementary reading materials.

Boehm Bird Migration Due May 8

Members of the Saint Paul Altar Society will welcome a spring migration of new bird and floral sculptures from the world famous Boehm Porcelain Studios Tuesday evening, May 8, at a champagne reception hosted by Jacobson's in the Boehm Gallery. The group is especially interested in bas-relief sculptures of Religious sculptures have always been a part of the late Edward Marshall Boehm's legacy, and his widow is now devoting her efforts to re-creating significant art of important world cultures and religions for today's collectors.

Collections of Egyptian, Chinese, Israeli, Pompeian — and now Christian — sculptures are the beautiful results of Mrs. Boehm's inspiration.

Joe Roetter is coming from the Boehm Studios in Trenton, N.J., to discuss the new collection and speak on the history of porcelain.

LES R. BELTZ, of Lakeland avenue. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. DONALD O'KEEFE, of St. Clair Shores. At home is big brother DANIEL MARK.

SALLY FRAKES, daughter of MR. and MRS. JOHN FRAKES, of Blairmoor court, is an Albion College freshman and was a cast member of the college's production of Jack Heifner's "Vanities" presented April 19 through 22. She is a Grosse Pointe North High School 1978 graduate.

Check Presented By DSO Women

Group Raises More Than $100,000 for Orchestra Through Special Projects And Sale of Season Tickets

Highlighting the annual meeting and luncheon of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, held in mid-April at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, was the presentation of a check for $109,940.08 by Mrs. H. Wayne Nelson, association president, to DSO board member Walter T. Murphy who accepted it on behalf of the symphony.

This year's check represents the profit from special projects conducted by the Women's Association on behalf of the orchestra throughout the year, together with money raised through the sale of season tickets.

From Another Point of View

By Janet Mueller

It's time again for one of Grosse Pointe's most popular parties, the traditional Derby Day cocktail buffet sponsored by Bon Secours Assistance League Group VI.

Once again, there'll be television sets scattered hither and yon around the Lothrop road home of Henry C. Murray.

Once again, there'll be delicious food, delightful camaraderie and, when they're off and running in the Kentucky Derby, the rooting will reach epic proportions. That's not an educated guess: it's a dead certainty.

It's all great, good fun on Derby Day, Saturday, May 5, and it runs from 4 to 7 o'clock, and there's no need to worry about "where will we go out to dinner afterward?"—the buffet is more than ample!

The Group VI ladies who put it all together are the Mesdames Addison Bartush, Charles Bayer, William Carroll, Fred K. Cody, James Coyle, Patrick Crowley, Charles T. Fisher, Jr., Thomas Fitzgerald, Robert Frear, Don T. Galvin, Jr., John B. Hastings, Herbert G. Henchel, John L. King, Leo Kulka, Jr., Daniel LaFerte, John Leonard, Harry J. Mack, Leo A. Marx, John H. Mueller, Richard Schrage, Edward Shumaker, Guy Willetts and Thomas Williams.

Another Spring Tradition

Once again, it's time to "Be an Angel and Come" to the benefit luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Friends of Stapleton Center.

It's set this year for Thursday, May 17, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. It starts at noon, and will feature fashions by Maria Dinon.

It raises funds for the facility at Agnes and Parkview avenues, Detroit, that is home for 62 elderly persons who reside in 50 studio and 10 one-bedroom apartments.

And Stapleton Center truly is a home. Residents have a lovely, landscaped courtyard in which

Rose Society Meets May 9

The Grosse Pointe Rose Society will meet next Wednesday, May 9, at 7:30 in the evening at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road, to hear Angelo Taveggia, of Lakepointe avenue, explain his method of fertilizing and watering roses.

Mr. Taveggia emphasizes that roses like to eat and drink. In his presentation next week he also will cover the proper ways to prevent mildew and blackspot, when to thumb prune and disbud and the proper way to handle blind growth.

The speaker is recognized as one of the premier growers of fine roses in the American Rose Society's Great Lakes District. His garden contains over 375 plants of the varieties that grow best in this area.

Mr. Taveggia is a Consulting Rosarian, an accredited judge and a winner of trophies in most of the categories that are offered in local and state rose shows.

In 1972 he was selected as the Outstanding Consulting Rosarian of the Great Lakes District.

The Grosse Pointe Rose Society, an organization of over 170 growers and rose lovers, extends an invitation to anyone interested in growing roses to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served following Mr. Taveggia's program.

Tea Is Topic For Fox Creek

The Windmill Pointe Chapter of Quarters' Charlotte Gorning will present a "History of Tea and Teapots" to members of the Fox Creek Chapter today, Thursday, May 3, at their 1 o'clock meeting in the Chalfonte avenue home of Mrs. Kenneth Steketee who will be assisted by co-hostess Mrs. Robert Reas.

July Wedding Date Is Made

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Vander Weel, of Union Lake, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kelly Denise, to Francis Kenneth Rayl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Rayl, of Bedford road. A late July wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, a Walled Lake Central High School alumna, is attending Oakland Community College, studying for a degree in Court Reporting. Her fiancé, a Grosse Pointe South High School alumnus, attends Macomb Community College, studying for a degree as a Mechanical Engineering Technician.

He is with Efficient Engineering Company. In his senior high school year he was regional vice president for Vocational Industrial Clubs of America.

Slate Chrysanthemum Society May Meeting

The May meeting of the Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society will take place Sunday, May 6, at 2 o'clock in the Tel-Twelve Mall Community Room.

Paul E. Machuga, National Chrysanthemum Society director and permanent national judge, will present a program on Proper Preparation of the Garden and Planting of Chrysanthemums.

Mr. Machuga is the Detroit society's horticulture chairman. He supervises and teaches chrysanthemum gardening at the society's Greene Haven project in Milford.

Mrs. Joseph Neaton will discuss various new varieties in the current plant list prepared for the society's annual plant sale, scheduled for Saturday, May 26, at her Dearborn home, and will have available chrysanthemum plants for growing cascade and Bonsai styles.

The meeting is open to the public. There is no admission charge. Parking is free at the Tel-Twelve Mall.

Fall Bride

The engagement of JANET MARIE HAMMER and James Neville Fisher was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammer, of Heather lane, at a family dinner Sunday, March 4. An October 12 wedding is planned.

The bride-elect and her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dawson Fisher, of Peach Tree lane, are both Grosse Pointe North High School graduates.

She is a member of Sigma Kappa, attended Central Michigan University and was graduated from Carnegie Institute, Troy, as a Medical Assistant.

He expects to be graduated this month from Central Michigan University where he majored in Journalism, minored in Business and is News editor of Central Michigan University Life.

Engaged

The engagement of SUSAN J. REINHARD and David P. Thomson has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Reinhard, of Lexington road. An early October wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, a 1974 Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and Economics and Business Administration from Hillsdale College, where she affiliated with Chi Omega Fraternity, last year.

She is currently employed by Owens-Illinois, Inc., in Pittston, Pa., where she is in charge of Special Projects and Auditing.

Mr. Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Thomson, Jr., of Tenafly, N.J., also was graduated last year from Hillsdale College, with a Bachelors degree in Economics and Business Administration.

He is a Tenafly High School alumnus. His fraternity is Alpha Tau Omega. He is a sales representative for Thomas J. Lipton, Inc., in Boston, Mass.

Edson-Creagh Troth Is Told

Mrs. James G. Creagh, III, of Notre Dame avenue, is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Nancy Elizabeth, to Petty Officer Arthur L. Edson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Edson, of Pompano Beach, Fla. A June, 1980, wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, who is also the daughter of the late Mr. Creagh, is employed by Burroughs Employees Credit Union. Petty Officer Edson is currently stationed aboard the USS Forrestal.

Betrothed

The engagement of JUDITH LYNN DOMZALSKI and Lance K. Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Olson, of Renaud road, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Domzalski, of Windmill Pointe drive. A late summer wedding is planned.

Judith is a graduate of Wayne State University with a year of studies at the Sorbonne in Paris. Lance holds a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Michigan.

Season Ends For Villagers

Villagers Dinner Dance Club members and their guests anticipate a balmy evening this Saturday, May 5, for their final event of the season.

Cocktails will be served at 7 o'clock on the veranda of the Detroit Yacht Club. Dinner, featuring prime ribs of beef, is at 8, and the group will dance the night away to music by the Blue Note Quartet in a return engagement.

The dinner dancers will be greeted by Mr. and Mrs. William N. Montgomery, immediate past-presidential couple, and other club officers.

Macomb Secretaries Honoring Mary Lou

Mary Lou Regan was honored as Secretary of the Year by the Macomb Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) at a National Secretaries Week banquet Wednesday evening, April 25, (National Secretaries Day), at Pat O'Grady's.

Mrs. Regan, currently executive secretary to Roger W. Cox, general manager, Large Accounts Marketing, Business Machines Group, Burroughs Corporation, received her Associate degree in Legal Secretarial Studies from Macomb County Community College in 1973.

She is now a junior Marketing major at the University of Detroit, working toward a Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

She has served the Macomb Chapter of the National Secretaries Association as vice president, editor of the chapter bulletin and chairman of the Certified Professional Secretary committee, and as a member of several other committees, and is and has been for the past four years a sponsor for the Lakeview High School Future Secretaries Association.

Five Pointes Seats Officers

Mrs. A. John Kirsch opened her Whittier road home Monday, April 15, at 12:30 o'clock for Five Pointes Garden Club's annual meeting and luncheon. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Harold Heffner and Mrs. Gordon W. Long.

The program featured election and installation of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Kirsch will serve as president, Mrs. Franklin E. Quale as vice president, Mrs. Mark Loush as recording secretary, Mrs. Jerome N. Seaton as corresponding secretary and Mrs. Heffner as treasurer.

C. R. Williams to Claim Bride

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Burton Atwell, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and John's Island, Vero Beach, Fla., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Amy Louise, to Charles Rockwell Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Williams, of Provencal road. An October wedding is planned.

Mrs. Atwell, a graduate of The Ellis School, Pittsburgh, and Smith College, was presented at the Cinderella Ball in Pittsburgh in 1972. She is a member of the Junior League of New York City, where she is an account manager with Architectural Digest.

Her fiancé, an alumnus of Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, Mass., was graduated cum laude from the University of Virginia where he was a member of St. Elmo Hall. He is associated with Cuisine Magazine as an advertising representative.

New Suburban Women Golfers Year Has Begun

Suburban Women Golfers Nine Hole Group, one of the oldest and largest organized golf leagues in the area, opened its season yesterday, Wednesday, May 2, at Parkridge Creek Golf Course.

The social season had begun in February with a luncheon at The Wellington chaired by Marilee Williams, a member of the 1979 board headed by Bernadine Sunday, president.

Other board members are Ruth Schatzberg, Ester Bologna, Gloria Bickler, Ruth Lane, Nancy Trefzer, Peg Carty, Barbara Florck, Barbara Krauss, Shirley Persson, Fran Fox, Dottie Tiedeck and Marge Quinn.

June plans call for a Scotch Ball tournament for members and their husbands. Another tournament is on the July agenda, and September will bring a Fall Festival and Dinner honoring the tournament winners.

Prizes will be awarded following a September tournament for members, and in October there will be a fall Prize Award Luncheon for season play.

DBE Prepares for 70th Anniversary

The state board of the DBE, representing 11 chapters, will observe the anniversary at their annual Founders Day Luncheon, scheduled for Friday, May 11, at noon at Dearborn Inn, where the biennial convention of the National Society DBE will be in progress. Many Michigan members will be attending the sessions, and the state board will be hosting members of the National Society at the luncheon.

Mrs. Russell H. Skitch, M.B.E., of Balfour road, is the National DBE's current president. Mrs. William A. Kooztz, of Mount Vernon road, national first vice president, is social chairperson for the convention.

Other officers who will be present are the Mesdames F.D. Fletcher, Walter Jinka, Ralph Close, Raymond Palarchio, John Burtwell and Ralph Edwards.

Mrs. William N. Appleyard, Michigan DBE president, will preside at the luncheon. Mrs. Skitch will bring anniversary greetings from Queen Elizabeth II and from Michigan's Governor William G. Milliken.

A.H.S. Linton, M.V.O., British Consul-General, will bring greetings from the United Kingdom. Mrs. Linton, honorary president of the Michigan DBE, will be a guest of honor.

Canadian Consul T. Frank Harris will bring greetings from Canada, and Mrs. Harris will be a guest of honor. Mrs. Donald L. Waddell, regent of the Windsor and Essex County Municipal Chapter of the IODE, the DBE's sister organization in Canada, will bring greetings.

Mrs. Elmer D. Lincoln, national president-elect, will be an honored guest. The Reverend Wilfrid Holmes-Walker will give the invocation.

The program will feature a Parade of Flags, songs and British traditions. A professional musical review will follow lunch, and there will be prizes, collected by a committee including Mrs. Appleyard, Miss Rose Barton, Mrs. Beverly French and Mrs. Alfred Montbriand, prepared by a committee including Mrs. W.J. Wharton, chairperson, Miss Barton, Mrs. Kenneth Bolton and Mrs. Henry Heatley.

Officers of the state board, regents and members representing state chapters will serve as hostesses.

Husbands, friends and guests are invited to share in the celebration. Further information may be obtained by calling 882-8292.

The Daughters of the British Empire, founded in 1909 in New York, is an organization for women of British ancestry living in the United States. The DBE supports regional homes in the United States for senior citizens, and contributes to local charities.

MARGARET L. MARTIN, daughter of MR. and MRS. ROBERT MARTIN, of Lochmoor boulevard, has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Albion College where she is a senior French/Spanish major.

Faculty Wives Plan Luncheon

Grosse Pointe Faculty wives have scheduled their annual business meeting and spring luncheon for Saturday, May 5, at noon at Gino's Surf Lounge.

The gala traditionally honors the group's retiring officers: Mrs. Roger McCaig, president, Mrs. Charles Hitch, vice president, Mrs. James Haskell, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Gutow, treasurer.

Officers for 1979-80 will be elected. Co-chairing the day are Mrs. Ernest Hurst and Mrs. Maynard Leigh.

East Pointe Adelines Seek More Members

Women, (ages 18 and over), interested in singing are invited to consider membership in the East Pointe Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., and may call Pat Kimel, chorus president, at 821-8766 or 527-7100, or Ellen Newark, 881-8807, for further information.

The group recently entertained Easter shoppers at Macomb Mall. Future spring performances include a mother-daughter banquet and Girl Scout and Camp Fire functions.

Local Church Women to Meet

Mrs. Bernice Bates, president of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational/American Baptist Church, will conduct the group's monthly business meeting at 11:15 o'clock next Tuesday, May 8, in the church lounge.

Luncheon, served in the social hall by the Mary Group, will follow and a varied afternoon planned by Mrs. Robert Choate, program chairman, begins at 1:30 o'clock.

Members have been asked to bring baby pictures of themselves, and there will be a contest to determine who can "match up" the babies with the grown women. Prizes will be awarded.

The women also have been asked to bring clippings, slips or plants from their homes or gardens to sell at the meeting; a "share your plant with others" idea.

William Perry, of the Evangelical Home in West Outer drive, has been invited to speak and show a film, "One Hundred Years of Service."

Reservations should be made at the church office before noon next Monday, May 7. The program is open to all women. Baby sitting will be available.

Seminar Will Feature Options for Moving Up

Working women and women wishing to enter the work force will be especially interested in Wayne State University's one day seminar "Options for Moving Up," to be held Tuesday, May 22, in McGregor Memorial Conference Center on the WSU campus.

Pointers among the committee members and seminar participants include Susan Hall, Helen Hart, Leonine Cadieux, Nola Tutag, Karen Salome and A. Joan Tertocha.

Ms. Salome is the conference coordinator, and may be reached at 577-2400 for further information.

Fee for the seminar, offered in cooperation with the Detroit News with resource persons from WSU and business, is $20, including lunch, a coffee break, information materials and transportation by chartered bus or free campus parking.

The chartered buses will leave from Eastland, Northland, Lafayette Park, Fairlane and the Tel-Twelve Mall promptly at 8:30 in the morning and will depart from campus for the return trip to each location at 3 o'clock.

Private buses may be arranged for groups of 50. Registration deadline is Friday, May 11, and confirmation for sessions and bus transportation will be mailed to registrants by Tuesday, May 15.

The seminar focuses on educational and career opportunities and will run from 9 to 3 o'clock with 10 sessions, each of which will be repeated three times.

Session topics include "Moving Up/Promotion" with Ms. Tertocha, assistant vice president, director of Personnel Development, National Bank of Detroit, among the presenters, and "Money Matters," (Financial Planning), with Ms. Hall, of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, among the presenters.

Dr. Hart, director, Department of Staff Development and Teacher Training, Detroit Public Schools, will be among the presenters of "How to Package and Market the Product: You."

Dr. Tutag, associate professor and director, Weekend College Program, College of Lifelong Learning, WSU, will moderate the session on "Non-Traditional Programs Leading to a Degree."

Other session topics are "No One Ever Knows I'm Afraid," (Coping with Stress), "Emerging Career Opportunities for Women," "Time Management/Juggling Roles," "Identification of Life and Career Goals," "The Working Woman and Prescriptive Drugs" and "Interpersonal Relationships in the Business World."

Nancy Scharbach, senior therapist, Sinai Hospital, will give the keynote address on "Balancing Women's Roles."

Caroline Bird whose most recent book is "The Two Paycheck Marriage" will be the luncheon speaker. Her topic is "How Women at Work Are Changing Life in America."

Elizabeth Cass DAR Meets Next Monday

Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its annual meeting next Monday, May 7, at 11:30 o'clock at the St. Clair Shores home of Mrs. Bliss Thomas where dessert luncheon will be served by Mrs. William Hill and Mrs. Robert Peterson.

There will be reports on the DAR's National Continental Congress, held recently in Washington, D.C., during which the chapter received the Gold Honor Roll Award.

Following reports on the year's activities by chapter chairmen, officers for 1979-80 will be installed. They include Mrs. Cyrus Weatherby, regent, and Mrs. Robert Becker and Mrs. Robert Hale Peterson, first and second vice regents, respectively.

Chaplain is Mrs. William Sampich. Recording and corresponding secretaries are, respectively, Mrs. Sterling Sanford and Mrs. R. J. Hummel. Treasurer is Mrs. Hill, and librarian is Mrs. Myron Dikeman.

Geranium Sale To Aid Hutzel

Pointe area residents purchasing geraniums through the Hutzel Hospital Auxiliary's annual sale will have the advantage of picking up their baskets of flowers in Grosse Pointe, according to Mrs. Frank P. Jacobell, of North Rosedale court, member of the auxiliary and wife of the hospital's executive vice president-director.

Delivery of the blooms will be made at the hospital in the Detroit Medical Center Tuesday, May 22, with the additional depot in Grosse Pointe for the convenience of local patrons.

Each #8 basket contains eight individually potted geraniums in bloom and ready for porch or patio or transplanting in lawn or backyard. A choice of three colors, Irene red, dark salmon pink or light salmon pink, is available.

Deadline for placing orders is Friday, May 18. Additional information and the specific Grosse Pointe address where orders may be picked up is available by calling the auxiliary office, 494-7013.

Proceeds from the sale will be part of the auxiliary's annual contribution to the hospital for renovation of facilities and purchase of medical equipment. This year's goal is $90,000.

May Is Time of Fellowship

Church Women United of Detroit will celebrate May Fellowship Day tomorrow, Friday, May 4, at the Grosse Pointe Congregational/American Baptist Church in Chalfonte avenue.

Registration is at 9:30 in the morning. The program begins at 10 o'clock. Theme for the day is "Our Children: Our Promise." Church Women United are reaffirming, in this International Year of the Child, that the well being of today's children is of concern to all people; that the conditions of life for today's children are inseparably linked with the peace and prosperity of tomorrow's world.

Speaker Dr. Elizabeth Hood, an associate professor at Wayne State University, will address this subject.

Michigan Lehigh Club To Hold Spring Meeting

The annual spring meeting of the Lehigh University Club of Michigan will be held Friday, May 11, at the Chamberlin Restaurant in the Dearborn Holiday Inn, where a reception at 5:30 will precede dinner at 7 o'clock. Special guest speaker will be Dr. Eric V. Ottervik, Lehigh's vice president for Administration and Planning.

Vintage Autos Are On Display

Renewing a long-standing tradition, the Detroit Historical Museum has offered its Dodge Hall as exhibit space for historic automobiles owned by members of the Detroit Chapter of the Veteran Motor Car Club of America who meet monthly at the museum.

"Motor Album" opened Friday, March 9. The show also gives the museum an opportunity to display some of its own automotive collection's most recent acquisitions.

On display from private collectors are a 1919 Ford Model T Touring Car, a 1926 Dodge, a 1928 Ford, a 1936 Ford and a 1955 Dodge.

And as March marks the 83rd anniversary of the first appearance of a horseless carriage on the Streets of Detroit, the museum has added to the collection its replica of that car, built and driven by Charles Brady King in 1896.

In the show are six of the museum's recent acquisitions. From the Detroit Fire Department comes a 1948 GMC Foam Tender, from a local donor five Indianapolis 500 type racing cars, including one from the 1930's as well as a 1960's vintage turbine racer.

The museum, located at Woodward and Kirby in the Cultural Center, is open from 9:30 to 5 o'clock Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from 1 to 9 o'clock Wednesday and from 1 to 5 o'clock Sunday. The telephone number for more information is 833-1805.

Planned Parenthood provides a broad program of medical and educational services geared to low income families. It serves men, women and teenagers—8,000 patients in 1978 alone—in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties with contraceptive medical services, cancer detection procedures, screening for hypertension and administration of tests for venereal diseases.

With the growing epidemic of teenage pregnancies, the league's Community Education Department is giving special help in its clinics to youth, plus providing educational programs and workshops in schools and churches, presentations through the media and rap sessions at The Teen Center in Puritan avenue, Detroit.

Serkin to Play Three Concerts

Music Director Antal Dorati will be joined by pianist Rudolf Serkin in performances at Ford Auditorium with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this evening, Thursday, May 3, Saturday, May 5, and Sunday, May 6.

The Thursday and Saturday performances are at 8:30 o'clock. Sunday afternoon's Kresge Family Concert starts at 3:30 o'clock.

The program consists of two works by Beethoven: The Symphony No. 4 and the Fourth Piano Concerto.

Rudolf Serkin was born in Eger, Czechoslovakia, in 1903, and educated in Vienna where he studied piano with Professor Richard Robert and composition with Joseph Marx and Arnold Schoenberg.

At the age of 12, he made his debut with the Vienna Symphony. He began concertizing at 17 with a Berlin debut under Adolf Busch.

The New York Times has called him "by unanimous consent the outstanding living exponent of the German Romantic piano tradition."

This is his eighth appearance with the DSO. He first appeared with the orchestra in February of 1945. His last appearance with the Detroit Symphony was in January of 1976.

Tickets for the Thursday and Saturday evening performances are available at $10, $8, $7, $6 and $4. A limited number of $2 tickets for these two performances, for students and senior citizens, will be available at the door starting at 7:30 o'clock on concert nights.

Tickets for the Sunday afternoon Kresge Family Concert are available at $7, $6 and $5.

Tickets may be purchased at the Ford Auditorium box office. Master Charge and VISA charge card customers may order tickets by phone at 962-5524.

Rudolph Serkin made his first appearance in the United States in 1933, playing with the Busch Quartet for a specially invited audience at the Coolidge Festival held at the Library of Congress.

His formal debut in New York, with Toscanini and the New York Philharmonic, followed in 1936.

Set Summer Pops Program at Meadow Brook

Meadow Brook Music Festival's nine-week Sunday Pops Series will feature the Detroit Symphony Orchestra performing five concerts, plus a variety of popular conductors and performers on four other Sunday evenings this summer.

Stuart Hyke, the festival's managing director, explains the focus of the 1979 Pops Concerts programming: "We've designed this year's Sunday Pops Series as ideal family fare. Our programs will offer a wide range of entertainment—music, magic and much more. We're hoping that families will pack up their picnic suppers and come out to the festival grounds on Sunday evenings to relax and enjoy our concerts. It's a delightful way to end a summer weekend!"

The season begins Sunday, June 24, with Michael Tilson Thomas conducting the DSO in an all-Gershwin concert entitled "That's Music By George!"

Selections will range from Gershwin's Broadway hits to his symphonic compositions. Featured pianist will be Earl Wild, known for numerous Gershwin recordings.

The festival offers a patriotic Independence Day program July 1, as Leonard B. Smith and the Detroit Concert Band present "An Evening With John Philip Sousa." All musicians will dress in authentic Sousa-era band costumes.

An added attraction will be the Meadow Brook Estate, a group of Oakland University singers and dancers. In traditional Fourth of July style, a gigantic fireworks display will follow the concert.

Richard Hayman, a favorite pops conductor with Meadow Brook audiences, returns July 8 to lead the Detroit Symphony in a concert entitled "Duelin' Hermonicas."

Hayman, well known for his talents on the harmonica, will be joined by world renowned harmonica player Larry Adler. The two will play several selections together, as well as performing individually.

Ethel Merman makes her first Meadow Brook appearance July 15. She will sing an extensive medley of her greatest hits, accompanied by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra conducted by Eric Knight.

The mood changes to ragtime July 22 as the popular New England Conservatory Ragtime Ensemble led by its founder, Gunther Schuller, a noted interpreter of ragtime music and a highly respected contemporary composer, performs "A Salute to Ragtime."

Anna Moffo's performance July 29 will include a variety of selections, from Viennese operettas to Broadway hits by Rogers and Hammerstein. European conductor Franz Allers will lead the DSO in accompaniment.

The festival will depart from its usual offerings August 5 to present the unique and highly entertaining Blackstone Magic Show. Harry Blackstone, Jr., one of the modern day masters of magic, will perform with the assistance of an unusual, multi-talented cast including an elephant, a tiger, a donkey and a chorus of singers and dancers.

The Meadow Brook spotlight shines on Barbara Cook, one of the outstanding Broadway singers of all time, August 12. Her concert, "The Great Songs," will include many of her most famous Broadway hits. Wally Harper, Miss Cook's music director, will conduct.

The Promenade concerts, or Proms, are the English equivalent of our Pops concerts, and a highlight of each Proms season is the final program.

This year, Meadow Brook will celebrate its own grand finale August 19 with "Last Night at the (Meadow Brook) Proms."

English conductor Neville Marriner, the festival's artistic director, will lead the Detroit Symphony in a concert including works by Rossini, Rachmaninoff and Haydn.

Featured soloists will be pianist Gary Graffman and Donald Green, principal trumpet of the DSO. Free carnations will be presented to the ladies as Meadow Brook ends its memorable 1979 season.

All Sunday evening concerts begin at 7:30 o'clock and are held in outdoor Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus in Rochester. Further program or ticket information may be obtained by calling the Meadow Brook Music Festival box office, 377-2010.

St. Mary's Moms, Dads Set Polish Country Fair

The Moms and Dads Club of Saint Mary's Preparatory School will present its annual Polish Country Fair Friday, June 1, from 5 to 11 in the evening. Saturday, June 2, from noon to 11 o'clock, and Sunday, June 3, from noon to 9 o'clock on the Orchard Lake Schools' campus.

Games, entertainment, prizes and Polish ethnic food will be featured, as well as tours of the campus and a documentary on the visit of Pope John Paul II to Mexico, plus Mexican entertainment courtesy of the Mexican government.

YWCA Meeting Draws Pointers

A pair of Pointers, Bessie Hunt, executive director, and Barbara Locke, will be among 23 members from the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit joining 2,500 fellow participants in the 28th national convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States, to be held May 17 to 22, Thursday through Tuesday, in Dallas, Tex.

Before, during and after official plenary sessions, the women will meet to introduce and resolve positions on a variety of national issues affecting the lives and destinies of all American women and their families.

They also will address themselves to the concrete goals and objectives of the national YWCA during the next three years.

Among national issues taking the spotlight will be inflation, government spending, employability of women and teens, sex and age discrimination and affirmative action programs, racism, marital and sexual relationships, wife and child abuse, juvenile delinquency, cancer prevention and United States positions in world relations.

Many of these concerns are reflected in community YWCA programs throughout the country.

The YWCA structure is completely pluralistic. Proposed actions and plans for the next triennium, 1980-82, will be introduced and voted on by the entire delegation during the convention.

Their determinations serve as a mandate for the national board of the YWCA, which is comprised entirely of volunteers from all parts of the United States, women representing a cross section of the country's population in terms of age, race, socioeconomic status, education and geography.

The national staff, headquartered in New York City and spotted regionally and in Washington, D.C., carry out the directives and goals

Exhibit Days Begin at Pewabic Pottery

Winners of the Michigan Ceramics 79 competition will be collecting $1,000 in prizes this Sunday, May 6, as the Michigan Pottery Association opens two shows in Michigan State University's Pewabic Pottery.

Michigan Ceramics 79 drew 400 entries from 140 artists, 41 of whom had work selected for the competition exhibit in the gallery of the historic pottery in East Jefferson avenue.

The free public show will be open from noon to 4:30 o'clock Sunday, and Mondays through Saturdays thereafter through May 26.

At the same time the potter's association will offer approximately 2,500 pots at its spring sale in Pewabic's tile loft.

A third attraction for visitors is the exhibit of Pewabic tiles and pots in the second floor Pewabic Museum.

The next courses offered at Pewabic Pottery by MSU's Lifelong Education Programs start May 21. The schedule for the seven-week summer term includes both avocational and credit courses.

Sharing the Michigan Ceramics 79 prizes donated by local and national firms are Mary Jo Bole, Tom Phardel and Andree Valley, of Ann Arbor; Cynthia Boughner, of Birmingham; Jessica Straus, of Bloomfield Hills; John Glick and Joe Zajec, of Farmington; and Maurice Chandler, of Utica.

Chandler was one of the six Pewabic Pottery alumni to have entries selected for the show. The alumni entries came from as far away as Traverse City. Others included some from the Upper Peninsula.

Jurying the entries was Wayne Higby, a potter and of the national board. Delegates to the convention will represent YWCAs at work in 5,000 locations and student YWCAs on United States campuses. The Detroit Association is the largest YWCA in the country.

The YWCA is a Torch Drive Agency.

Enjoy Sunday Detroit Strolls

The first in a series of Sunday Strolls sponsored by the Detroit Historical Society will take place May 20.

"Sunday Stroll Through Downtown," conducted by Thomas Holleman, historian/archivist with the architectural firm of Smith, Hinchman and Grylls, will cover some of downtown Detroit's most unique architectural gems, such as the Wayne County, (Traffic Court), Building and the Guardian, (Michigan National Bank), Building, as well as the public art which dots the area.

"Detroit's architectural beauty is often blurred by the fast pace of our automobile society," states Holleman. "The only way to really appreciate what this city offers in public art and architecture is to get out of the car and walk!"

Those interested in participating in the Sunday Strolls should register with the Detroit Historical Society, 833-7934. Reservations are limited to 35 people.

The fee is $3.50 per person per "stroll," ($2.50 for members of the Historical Society).

Sunday Strolls scheduled for June and July include tours of Elmwood Cemetery, Corktown and the Cultural Center. Brochures and registration forms may be obtained by contacting the Historical Society.

Oakland's Art Focus on Gifts

The Meadow Brook Art Gallery of Oakland University's new exhibit, "Recent Gifts to the University Art Collection," opened Sunday, April 15, and will run through Sunday, May 20. It is free and open for viewing from 1 to 5 o'clock Tuesday through Friday, 2 to 6:30 o'clock Saturday and Sunday and 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock on evenings when there is a Meadow Brook Theatre performance.

The gallery is closed Mondays. The show closes the current season.

A majority of the gifts on exhibition in the gallery in Wilson Hall are prints by contemporary artists, including Alexander Calder, Pierre Alechinsky, Karel Appel and Richard Lindner.

Among the works are Appel's series "The Sunshine People," Lindner's "Shoot" series and Edward Ruscha's organic screenprints containing "News," "Mews," "Pews," "Brews," "Stews," and "Dues." There are also prints by Mark Tobey, "Mandarin and Flowers," "Chinese Memories" and others.

Two paintings by European artists on view are the work of German Karl Pfahler and Michael Challenger, of Britain.

Included too are sculptures by the American pop artist George Segel, an op construction, "Black Moving Planes," by Mon Levinson and a wood carving by K. M. Chung, a Cranbrook graduate.

The university has received a number of the artworks in this exhibition from individuals in Michigan. Also, through the efforts of the Martin S. Ackerman Foundation of New York, the gallery has received works from collectors in New York, Connecticut and Paris, France.

Gowanie Golf Ladies Busy

A busy month began for the Gowanie Ladies Golf Association Monday, April 2, with a coffee at the Balfour road home of Marion Mauer, past-president, to welcome new member wives.

Attending were Bernice Bitterman, Katheryn Burlingame, Esther Carne, Laura Daugherty, Dolly Fernstrum, Norma Goltz, Dorothy Kirchoff, Rachel Stein, Michaeline Vitale, Josephine Chojnowski and Toula Panourgias.

Barbara Durling and Caroline Kosinski served as hospitality hostesses, with board members Bonnie Scratch, Trudy Vincent, Ardeth Brown, Shirley Worthman and Jeanne Zink.

At a general breakfast meeting the following Thursday, April 5, Lucille Grenzke, president, welcomed all members and Mrs. Vincent, golf chairman, presented the golf schedule for the coming season.

Luncheon speaker the following Thursday, April 12, at a program for members and guests was Sandy Bishop, golf professional, and the next Thursday, April 19, Jack Clark, Gowanie golf professional, held a general ladies golf clinic.

La Strega Boutique presented a parade of styles modelled by professionals plus Gowanie members Irene Cornillie, Beverly Kjos, Linda Lester, Lee Miller, Ardith Sellers, Doreen Skantz and Mrs. Vincent Thursday, April 26, at the association's spring fashion show and luncheon.

Opening day for Gowanie ladies golf is today, Thursday, May 3.

Genealogical Research Society Meets May 12

Program for the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research's meeting Saturday, May 12, at 2 o'clock in the Explorer's Room of the Detroit Public Library will be a slide lecture and presentation, Tombstones and Brass Rubbings, by Mary Jane Trout, of the Michigan State Library.

Cottage Ladies Prepare for Bake Sale

Looking through dozens of cook-books is half the fun of preparing for the Cottage Hospital Auxiliary's Bake Sale next Tuesday, May 8, from 11 to 4 o'clock at the Cottage Nurses Residence in Ridge road. MRS. CHARLES MERRILL, chairman, MRS. WILLIAM GRIESEBECK and MRS. BORDEN BAUMGARTEL (standing, left to right), MRS. PAT

WALLER and MRS. GEORGE BROCK, (seated, left and right), and fellow auxiliaries are joining forces to make "The Cottage Country Kitchen" a sweet success. Cheese, jams, jellies and pickles will augment the stock of delicious baked goods. Special prize is a made-to-order, beautifully decorated birthday cake from Josef's French Pastry Shop.

Annual Metro Detroit Girl Scout Meeting Held

Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit focused their attention on The Outdoor Experience at their 1979 annual meeting yesterday evening, Wednesday, May 2, at 8 o'clock. The program, open to all Girl Scouts, their parents, adult volunteers and interested community members, was held at the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue.

Recognizing this International Year of the Child, the GSMD Council has proclaimed "every child should have an outdoor experience," a year-long priority.

A special award was presented to General Motors Environmental Activities Division for its cooperation in developing a Girl Scout Summer Camp booklet. The award was given by Dr. Phyllis Robinson, member of the GSMD board of directors and chairman of the Program Services committee.

The Outdoor Experience as it relates to Girl Scout summer camp was the subject of a presentation by the three men who work at GSMD camps as rangers: Walter Lemke, of Camp Metamora, Gerald Serace, program ranger, and Mike Szymanski, of Camp Innisfree.

Senior Scout Pamela Thomas, of Redford's Troop 1176, gave the invocation. The opening flag ceremony was conducted by Girl Scouts from Neighborhood 119, located on the near east side of Detroit.

The primary item of business at the annual meeting is the election of council officers, board and nominating committee members. Special awards, in the form of Thanks Badges and Appreciation Pins, are presented to outstanding volunteers.

Former GSMD president Mary Cross conducted the awards presentation.

Plan Lawyers Wives Dinner

Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives' progressive dinner, an annual event designed to provide an opportunity for members and their husbands to become better acquainted, will begin with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at 7 o'clock this Saturday, May 5.

Dinner follows in the homes of several members, and the grand finale will be a dessert buffet and coffee. The evening is open to all Pointe Lawyers Wives members and prospective members.

Plan Panhellenic Day Program at GPYC

The Detroit Alumnae Panhellenic Association will hold its annual meeting and luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club next Wednesday, May 9, starting with a social hour and boutique at 11 o'clock.

Luncheon at noon is open to all sorority members and their guests. Mrs. James Onthank is accepting reservations at 547-7952.

Martha's Closet will present a fashion show, with models including Sally Burns, Delta Zeta, Eileen Church, Sigma Kappa, and Sally Remus.

Gamma Phi Beta. The four recipients of Panhellenic scholarships, Kathleen Bego, Our Lady of Mercy, Caroline Cole, Cass Tech, Melissa Gregory, Dearborn High, and Lori Weber, South Lake High, will be honored by committee chairman Mrs. Stanley Remus.

'Girls' to Lunch at Boat Club

Assisting Marilyn McCafferty, chairman of the Detroit Boat Club's mother-daughter luncheon set for Saturday, May 5, are Helen Cope, Marilyn Engstrom, Jan Engel, Mary Lou Miller, Mary Huxtable, Shirley Saylor and Mary Davis.

As members and guests gather for cocktails at noon they will view Mexican favors obtained by Elena Doetsch and pink geraniums brought by Elsa Smoke.

Luncheon at 1 will be followed by Azteca de Oro's fashions for sun and fun.

Featured will be playclothes for tots and prom dresses for teens, party clothes for mothers and grandmothers, evening dresses — and a wedding gown.

Julietta Wood has arranged for a strolling guitarist to add to the Mexican holiday mood.

Baroque Music Festival Set at Cranbrook

Cranbrook Festival '79 celebrates its 14th season Thursday through Saturday, May 10, 11 and 12, at Christ Church Cranbrook with three consecutive evenings of Mozart, Haydn and Bach.

The baroque, classical music festival this year features the third appearance of the Boston Symphony Players, principal artists of one of the world's greatest orchestras, as well as the inaugural performance of the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Dennis Russell Davies, music director.

It is the only full time professional chamber orchestra in the United States and is recognized as one of the major chamber orchestras in the world.

Pianist Gilbert Kalish, one of today's finest interpreters of baroque classical music, will perform in the Thursday evening Mozart program.

Armando Ghittala, principal trumpet of the Boston Symphony, will highlight the Friday evening Haydn program.

New Children's Center Officers

Max Gardner, M.D., of Barclay road, a practicing psychoanalyst in The Pointe area, was recently elected president of the board of directors of The Children's Center, the largest and oldest community based provider of mental health services for children, (infants through teens), in Michigan, with headquarters on Alexandrine East in Detroit's Medical Center.

Alfred E. Reuther, also a Pointer, the center's immediate past-president, has been elected chairman of the board.

Mrs. Jack Pickering, of Rivard boulevard, has been re-elected vice president, and Mrs. Perry TeWalt has moved from secretary to vice president.

Other directors who reside in The Pointe are Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall and Mrs. Edward Gushee, both re-elected to three-year terms, Donald E. McKnight, now an associate member, Richard E. Hinks and K. Peter Knudsen.

Dr. Gardner, who has been a Children's Center director more than 12 years, is a past-president of both the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club and the Family Life Education Council.

In commemoration of its 50 years of service, (1929-79), to the Detroit metropolitan community, The Children's Center will hold a two-day educational conference, "The New Frontier: Inner Space in the Inner City," (Treatment Methods and Issues with Children and Families in the Urban Environment), Wednesday and Thursday, May 23 and 24, at the Rackham Memorial Building.

Further information may be obtained by calling 831-5535.

Offer Meadow Brook Movie

In observance of the 50th anniversary of one of southeastern Michigan's most picturesque historic sites, a new color film is available for civic organizations that want to include it in their programming plans.

"Meadow Brook Hall" is a 13-minute presentation on the background and preservation of the 100-room home of the late Alfred G. and Matilda Dodge Wilson, who was the widow of auto pioneer John Dodge.

The hall was completed in 1929 at a cost of $3.5 million and was given to the State of Michigan with a 1,400-acre estate which is now the campus of Oakland University.

The historic significance of the hall was officially recognized in 1976, when the Michigan Historic Commission named it to the State Register of Historic Sites.

The 16mm travel/documentary was made possible by a $10,000 grant from First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

In addition to a filmed tour of interior rooms, "Meadow Brook Hall" contains seldom-seen aerial views of the exterior and grounds.

Actor Lew Ayres makes a featured appearance in the movie, having volunteered his professional services in personal support of preservation for Meadow Brook Hall. Joe Weaver of TV-2 produced and narrated the film.

Information on reserving "Meadow Brook Hall" for group presentations may be obtained by calling 377-3140.

May Meeting Date For Belle Biscayne

Belle Biscayne Chapter of the American Business Women's Association has scheduled its regular monthly meeting for next Thursday, May 10, at the Polish Century Club, where cocktails at 6:30 will precede dinner at 7 o'clock.

The Cancer Society will provide the guest speaker. Vocational speaker is Mary Bialk and, as May is ABWA's Scholarship Month, the chapter's scholarship recipient, Donita Simpson, a Wayne State University student, will tell how the scholarship fund has assisted her to pursue a college education, describe her progress and discuss her goals.

Guests are welcome. Interested business women may contact Barbara Meerschardt, chapter president, evenings at 371-7456, days at 755-0900, Extension 210, for further information.

LINC Family Enjoys Dinner

Most of LINC's, (Linking Individuals to Needs in the Community), functions are fund raisers, but on the last Saturday in April members of the LINC family of volunteers and their husbands enjoyed a progressive dinner: a chance to become better acquainted in a strictly social setting.

Cocktails were sipped in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Metry and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Marston. Then the two groups split into three, for Cornish game hens with all the trimmings at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bania, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanPelt and Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett.

As the grand finale, the three groups merged into one for dessert and an afterglow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Perkins.

REAL ESTATE SALES

McBREARTY & ADLHOCH, REALTORS, is a professional and aggressive real estate organization. As members of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Board, as well as the Metropolitan Listing Service and McEDRA Multiple Listing Service, we are able to furnish our sales associates with the most up to date information. Our sales commission plan realistically reaches the point where the sales associate receives 75% instead of the usual 50-50 split. If you are now licensed or have thought about selling real estate and wish further details, please call Mr. William McBrearty or Mr. William Adlhoch at 882-5200. All replies will be held in strictest confidence.

Seminar Slated At 5:30 May 16

Saint John Hospital (SJH), as part of its ongoing program of community information, is presenting a "Personal Estate Planning Seminar."

The program is slated for Wednesday, May 16, in the Peter A. Whyte Memorial auditorium in the lower level of the hospital, at 22101 Moross road, Detroit, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Members of the Manufacturers' Bank Trust Department will provide the expertise. They include vice presidents and trust officers Edmund R. Sutherland, Clark W. Carnaby, Gerald L. Vogel, Gordon G. Wright and trust officer Michael L. Oblyou.

Vincent E. Butterly, Saint John Hospital consultant for Marketing and Development, said, "This will be the first annual seminar offered as a community service. Too often what people intend to happen when planning their estate just doesn't happen."

"We also want to inform them of the many opportunities they have to save their estate monies."

"This seminar is geared toward keeping people informed of the ever-changing tax laws as well as toward helping them update their personal estates. So often business and personal situations change and these changes should be reflected in personal estates."

Following the formal presentation, speakers will answer questions from the floor.

Free parking will be available in the west lot adjacent to the hospital. No reservations are necessary.

Mr. Butterly indicated that the seminar was a part of the on-going program on Personal Estate Planning Saint John Hospital has conducted throughout the year.

He added that literature on this subject may be obtained by writing Vincent E. Butterly, Development, Saint John Hospital, 22101 Moross, Detroit.

BEEF STILL KING

Despite high prices, Americans insisted on having their trimmed and processed beef in 1977 at the rate of 43.2 pounds per capita, compared to 73.6 pounds in 1965. Chicken consumption rose to 44.9 pounds from 33.1 and fish climbed to 12.2 pounds from 10.9.

21Z—SNOW REMOVAL & LANDSCAPING

YAZOO 60 inch cut $1,500. Locke $900. Both ready to work. 776-2370.

County Needs Additional Spotters for Skywarn

There's a need for additional spotters in The Pointe area for the Wayne County network of amateur radio operators, with all spotters having to be trained before they can participate in the Skywarn Program, reported Mitchell B. Kozak, director, Wayne County Office of Emergency Preparedness, last week.

A tornado spotter training session is scheduled for Friday, May 4, at South Lake High School, in Nine Mile road between Harper and Mack, St. Clair Shores, at 7:30 p.m.

ULS Students Cited in French

University Liggett School, (ULS), eighth grader Monica Brane recently placed third in the metropolitan area in Level IA of the National French Contest, sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of French, (AATF). She will be honored on Friday, May 11, at "Prize Day" held each year at Wayne State University and supported jointly by the Alliance Francaise of Detroit and the AATF.

On "Prize Day," the Alliance Francaise of Detroit will award prizes to the following students for their outstanding achievement in French this year: eighth graders Jordan Melick, Lee Salot and Susan Parkinson; seventh graders Tessa Barroll and Ron Hull; and sixth graders Peter Dahling and Eric Pinder.

The Alliance also will recognize seventh graders Katherine Hein and Tessa Barroll for their outstanding French essays submitted in a national essay contest.

The accelerated eighth grade French class spent Tuesday afternoon, April 17, as guests of Mrs. Robert J. Sillery of Lakeland avenue. Mrs. Sillery, who was born in Morocco, gave the students a tour of her home to view the numerous articles from Morocco and from France to learn more about the culture of these countries.

GP Park Home Hit by Thief

Stereo equipment and a calculator were reported stolen from a Wayburn road home Thursday afternoon, April 26.

Harold Robinson told Park police that as he was entering his home, he saw a young black male, about 15-years-old, exit through the rear door and head for the alley.

Mr. Robinson said the youth was carrying some objects later described as the stereo equipment and calculator.

There are no suspects at this time, police said.

Dominican Sets Arts Festival

Another "first" for Dominican High School, 9740 McKinney avenue, Harper Woods, a Neighborhood Festival of Arts, will be held on Sunday, May 6, and Monday, May 7.

From 1 to 8 p.m., on Sunday and from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Dominican students and students from as many neighboring schools as possible, will share their talent in the visual arts, crafts, ceramics, photography, dance, instrumental music, (solos or ensembles), choral music, and drama.

Besides the art exhibits, performing student artists will bring in a wide variety of talent in musical selections, dance, et al., performed throughout the day in the auditorium.

All of the light-hearted joy of springtime will touch students winning blue ribbons, and everyone is invited to participate in the event.

GP Clown Corps Slates Sign-Up

The Grosse Pointes Clown Corps will be holding a membership drive on Thursday, May 31, in the community room at Woods Public Safety Department headquarters, 26025 Mack avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

Chairman Arthur J. Kuehnel urges all interested young people to participate in the drive, with corps members taking part in a variety of activities including parades, birthday parties and other events.

For further information, call Mr. Kuehnel at 881-8186.

HIGHWAY TOLL

Almost two million people have died and 132 million have been injured in 672 million highway accidents in the U.S. during the last 50 years, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Park INVITATION TO BID

Sealed bids will be received by the City Clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan until 10 A.M. May 10, 1979 in the Municipal Building, 15115 E. Jefferson Avenue, for the fencing of four (4) tennis courts at the Windmill Pointe Park.

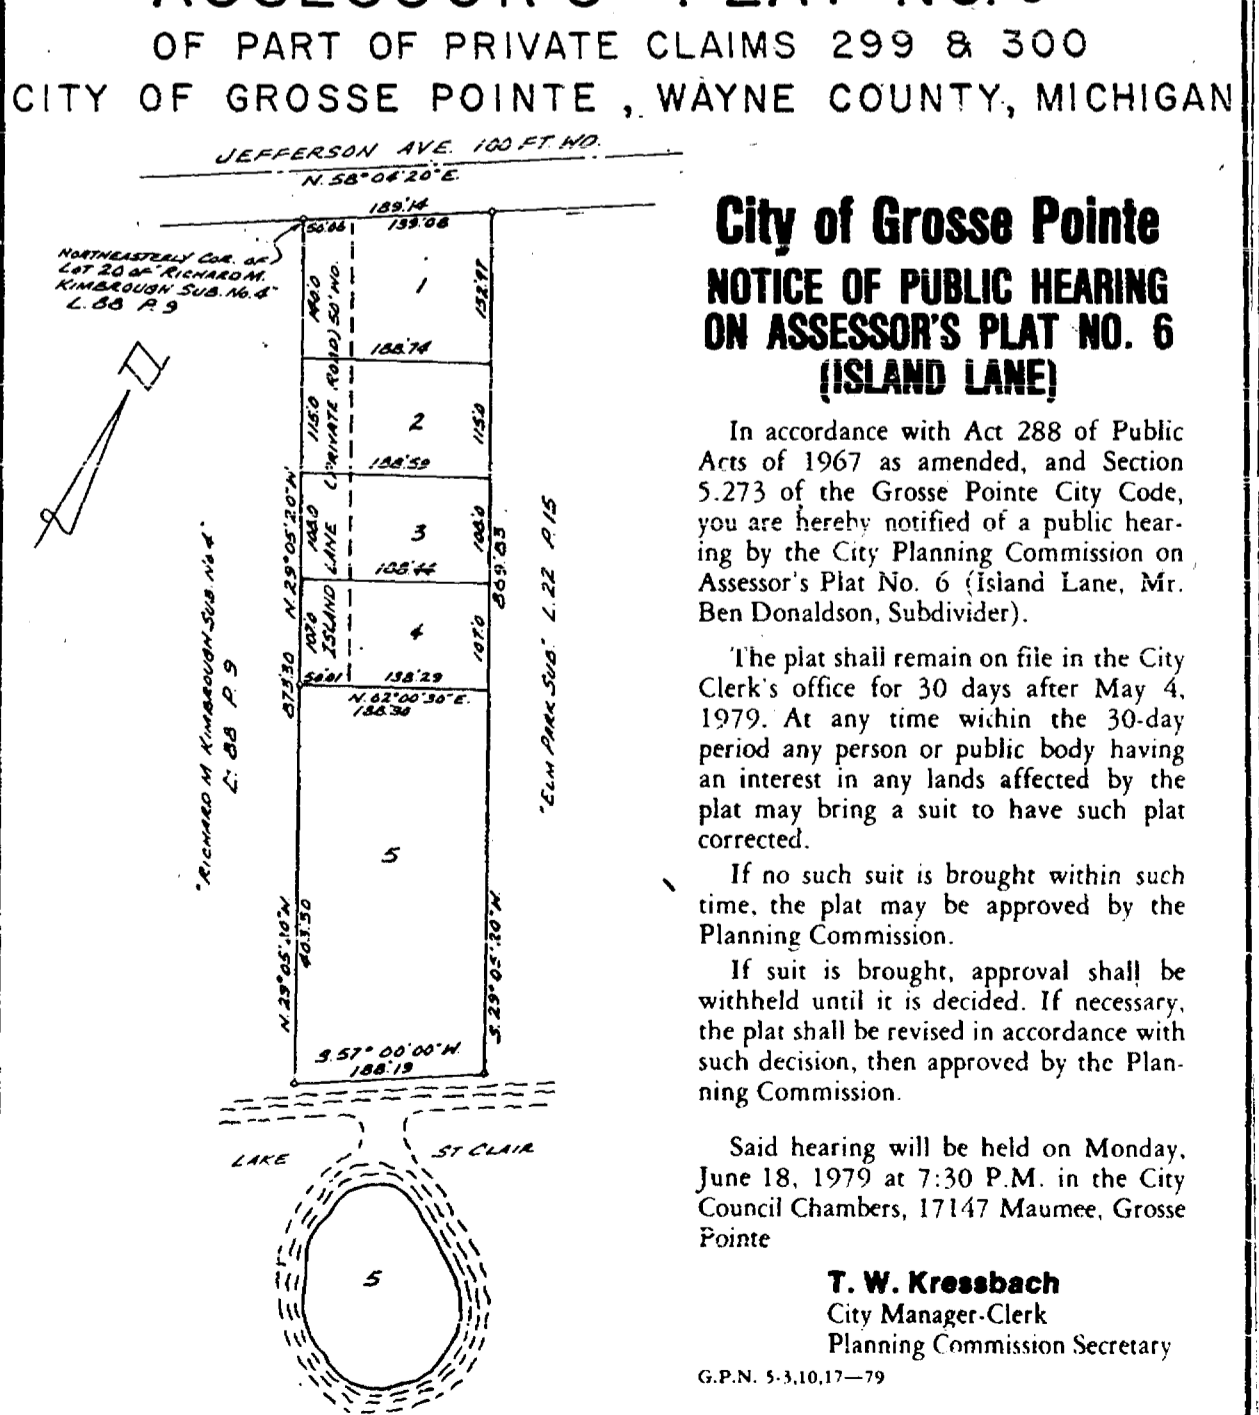

Bid envelopes shall be plainly marked on outside of envelope "Bid on Tennis Court Fences", and directed to the attention of N. J. Ortisi, City Clerk.

Detailed specifications will be available in the Public Service Department of the Municipal Building.

The City of Grosse Pointe Park reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, or any part thereof.

Diane Von Furstenberg . . . has a new look in her line. It's the traditional shirt dress. At Walton-Pierce see her all cotton voile type fabric . . . light as a breeze. It comes in lilac, is styled with an elasticized waist and a circular skirt. The other shirt-dress is a subtle windowpane plaid on white. The dress is piped in red and the skirt is straight and slender. From the Kohler Collection for women who wear half sizes there is a lovely short dress for after five. It comes in a heavenly blue or green crepe and is styled with three diagonal tiers. Nat Kaplan's silky polyester dress and jacket is printed with a fresh green, rose and white floral. A sophisticated black and white abstract cotton print dress with black buttons down the side and black patent at the waist is great for going to important meetings or business. The new shipment of Gabar swimsuits includes a three piece . . . bra, pants and skirt suit that is daisy printed. Many other pretty prints are available in this popular style. A two piece pant and bra looks great in navy with white. A one piece suit in black is scattered with white butterflies. Other Gabar one piece suits feature print skirt-tops that are slit to show color pants. There are many swimsuits that have been selected for post-mastectomy patients. Florence Riley and Marianne Sialoff will be attending Mastectomy Update, a seminar sponsored by the American Cancer Society, May 23. Pointer of Interest

MRS. ROSS T. KOGEL, OF HAMPTON ROAD

By Janet Mueller

"We're all terrific readers. It's part of being part of our family." And that's obvious, for in the Kogel house there are books everywhere, on bookshelves built by Lynne. She's a terrific woodworker, too.

All the tools, (table saw, lathe, et al.), in the basement are hers. The dollhouse she made for the Grosse Pointe Fall Art Festival sold for $200. Unfurnished.

But well worth the price, for it was beautiful: a tall box with beamed and stuccoed ceilings, wainscoting, a third floor with random plank flooring . . .

When Lynne Kogel does a thing, she does it right.

As chairman of the Michigan Mayflower Society's education committee, she's been sending a copy of the Mayflower Compact to every school in Michigan that requests one. It's a project she began when she took on the education committee chairmanship, and she's been sending out five to ten thousand copies every year, for just about every school she contacts says "Yes, please."

Help Wanted
She's been doing it herself, but she'd like to get some helpers. Doing it herself means she can't contact every school every year, which is obviously the RIGHT way to do it.

Of course, before Lynne began to do it, it hadn't been done at all.

Her maiden name was Alcott — Louisa May is a relative — and her father, a genealogist, has traced the family back, to the Mayflower and beyond, to the Bay Colony in present at the signing of the Magna Carta, to Charlemagne and beyond him, back to the fourth century.

Lynne and Ross have contributed three twigs to the family tree: Kristin, 11, Gretchen, nine, and seven-year-old Ross. They're all at Mason, "A wonderful school," Lynne says. "I give it four stars."

Lynne Alcott's Grosse Pointe elementary school was Maire. Her family moved to The Pointe when she was a sixth grader. From Maire she moved to Pierce, then to THE High School, (South High now), graduating in 1960.

And then she really moved. A business transfer took her father to London, England, and Lynne went to school in Switzerland, ostensibly to learn French. "Actually, I learned to ski and mountain climb."

Europe at Her Feet
She was 19, and all Europe was her backyard. She had a lovely time.

Then it was back to The States, to California, where the East Coast and the Bahamas. We've cruised Maine and Nantucket." There's more than a hint of the wanderer in Ross, who took a post-college year off to meander through Europe, North Africa and the Middle East.

That suits Lynne just fine. More than a hint of the wanderer remains in her, too.

Family pets are minimal. "We have a bird and snails." Music is big, Kristin plays the violin, young Ross the cello. Gretchen tried piano, but has decided literature is her forte. She writes wonderful stories.

Lynne is a Girl Scout leader, troop organizer for Mason School. Her involvements in Adult Christian Education at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church have included a four-year commitment as a Bethel Teacher.

And there's always woodworking. Not content with building bookshelves all around the house, Lynne whipped one up for her husband's office.

She finds working with wood very satisfying. "And it gives me a great excuse to read, because all sorts of books have been written on it."

Library Patrons
Not that any Kogel needs an excuse to read. "The first thing we do when we move someplace is get a library card."

Lynne is a director of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, in charge of promotion and recognition. "Primarily," she explains, "in charge of Library Week."

That's next week, and activities start Monday, May 7, and will flow through Saturday, May 12, and each day there's something happening. The week's schedule has been designed to appeal to all interest and age groups.

Memorial Church's Boy Scout Troop 96 will open Library Week Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, with a program in the Children's Area at the Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road.

The annual Friends Dinner is set for 7 o'clock Tuesday, May 8, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Speaker will be Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maestro Antal Dorati.

Special honor will be paid during the evening to "someone who really uses the library a lot." It's the first time this has been done, and it may/may not become an annual award. "This year, it just seemed a nice thing to do," Lynne explains.

Something for Seniors

HELEN and ANDREW NICHOLS, of Colonial road, recently hosted DR. MATINA HORNER, president of Radcliffe College, their cousin, as their dinner guest. She was guest speaker at a recent symposium commemorating the college's 100th anniversary for area alumnae and friends.

DONALD J. FERGLE, son of Pointers MR. and MRS. DONALD FERGLE, is a finance chairperson and junior class representative at Central Michigan University and a member of the Student Association board of directors.

Pointer JOANNE ISBEY, an associate professor of English at Mercy College of Detroit, has organized Old Norse Studies for the 14th International Congress in Medieval Studies to be held at Western Michigan University May 11. She also will present a paper.

Missouri Military Academy cadet MICHAEL MISZCAK, son of the EUGENE J. MISZCAKS, of Shoreham road, was the recipient of the Eagle Honor Medal for his contributions as a staff member of the school newspaper.

for Citizens Day. The Musical Artists Band, (its members range in age from 60 to 77), will appear from 2 until 3:30 in the afternoon in Central Library's Main Reading Room. The Kiwanis Bus will provide transportation to the library for senior citizens.

The Grunions are singing upstairs at Central Library Thursday evening, May 10, and on Friday evening, May 11, there'll be a special film showing for the whole family upstairs at Central. The movie is "The Silver Streak" and there'll be free popcorn and pop accompanying it.

Saturday, May 12, is Children's Day. Other Things and Company, directed by Carol Halstead, will present a musical review, "Dancing Pants," at 10:30 in the morning at Central Library, 1 o'clock at the Woods Branch and 3 o'clock at the Park Branch.

At all performances, there will be helium balloons for all attending.

Through the week, the Grosse Pointe Historical Society will have a special display in the case at Central. Bookmarks, with a list of famous people who were native Detroiters on the back, will be given out. Librarians will visit Grosse Pointe's public schools, telling about the library and talking about what Library Week is all about.

It's All Free
And this is all, (with the exception of the Friends Dinner), free. The only thing you can buy during Library Week is a plastic-lined bookbag with a charming, child motif. The bookbags are available at $5 each.

Proceeds from bookbag sales go, of course, to the library. That's where all monies raised by the Friends go. The Grosse Pointe Library has the largest group of Friends in the nation, and those Friends recently donated $27,500 for refurbishing, refurbishing and landscaping at Central Library.

That's extra, in addition to Friends' sponsorship of on-going programs through the year, such as the Family Film Series, and annual events, such as Library Week.

"And don't forget: the to relax and reminisce. There's a fountain in the courtyard, and the garden theme reflects the four seasons of the year: spring, summer, fall and winter.

A large gazebo in the summer scene was furnished by the Friends, who also provide monthly birthday parties and aid in celebrating holidays throughout the year.

Mrs. William P. Chester, Friends president, has invited Florence Neyer to chair the spring benefit.

She is being assisted by Mrs. Joseph Shaheen in charge of reservations, which must be in by next Thursday, May 10, and by Mrs. Richard Mrowczynski, invitations; Mary Marshall and Mrs. Fred Schreiber, prizes; Mrs. Robert Thibodeau, models; Mrs. Charles T. Fisher and Mrs. Harry Mack, decorations; Mrs. Joseph E. Bejin and Rosemary Downey, finance; Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan, publicity; and Rachael Ryan, who will provide the music.

MCF Says 'Thank You'

A highlight of the Michigan Cancer Foundation's third annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner yesterday evening was the presentation of honorary awards, including a special plaque to Grosse Pointe's Murray MacDonald, honoring him for a lifetime of service to cancer patients and their families.

Mr. MacDonald, a retired vice president of Detroit Bank and Trust and a well known financial manager in Michigan, played an important part in the formation of the MCF.

He has served on the foundation's board of directors and as its treasurer, and as president of the Detroit Institute of Cancer Research before its merger with MCF.

He is an honorary life member of the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Also cited for special recognition was the Colony Town Club, which received a plaque honoring its special caring for cancer patients for over 33 years.

The club originated the Cancer Loan Closet Foundation in 1946. Since then, it has provided the Loan Closet with over $200,000 in equipment—any item needed to serve the cancer patient at home, from wheelchairs to hospital beds and dressings—and medication.

All supplies and equipment are distributed through the MCF's offices in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Monroe counties.

Spring Is Flower Time . . .

. . . and what better way to order your Impatiens, by the flat, and Geraniums, by the basket, than through the Tau Beta Camp Flower Sale?

Not only do you get perfectly beautiful plants at very reasonable prices, ($11.50 per 48-plant flat for Impatiens, $8.50 per eight-plant Geranium basket), but your money goes to a very good cause: The Tau Beta Camp for diabetic children.

This year's sale chairmen are Mrs. Benjamin Chapman, III, and Mrs. George Reindel, III, 885-0286, who is taking orders through next Tuesday, May 8.

The plants will be delivered to the McCann Rink in Cook road Saturday, May 19, where they will be available for pick-up between 9:30 and 10 o'clock. For $1 extra, Tau Beta will see that your order is delivered to your door.

ple buys a lot of BOOKS for the library," says Lynne Kogel. Frills are fine, but when push comes to shove, that's what it's all about. "A library is books," Lynne ideally, be more . . . Lynne to zero in on the heart of the matter, then work outward. It's her style. Doing it right.
