BY AN OVERWHELMING majority, the House voted to keep some 125 acres of Alaskan wilderness for national parks and wildlife refuges — thus protecting the land from oil, mining and timber companies. A 390-65 vote passed the conservationist-backed bill and was called "a decisive victory" for President Jimmy Carter and the environmental protection movement. Interior Secretary Cecil Andrus stated that "ample land has been left open to assure Alaska the opportunity for robust development and economic vitality." The bill is expected to face some difficulty in the Senate.

A PROPOSAL BEING drafted by House Democrats would require that motorists stay off the streets one day a week and also would allow drivers only a $5 fill up per car at a time to prevent motorists from "topping off" their tanks. The plan is all part of the effort to curb a gasoline shortage this summer. In addition, motorists would have to display a sticker on their windshield bearing a number from one, (Sunday), to seven, (Saturday), indicating what day of the week they should be off the road. According to the proposal, which would apply nationally, motorists would pick the day while states would distribute the stickers.

THE MONTREAL CANADIENS, who defeated the New York Rangers, 4-1, on Thursday, went into Saturday night's fourth game with a 2-1 lead in Stanley Cup finals competition. As it turned out, the Canadiens took the contest in overtime, 4-3, setting the stage for the final outcome on Monday. At that time, the Habs won their fourth straight cup, defeating the Rangers, 4-1, and stalling the effort of the Broadway Blueshirts to win their first cup since 1939-40.

U.S. JUSTICE DEPT. investigators spent a week in Detroit during April searching for new evidence that may support another NAACP lawsuit to implement cross-district busing. A Justice Department civil rights attorney said cross-district busing was only one way to effect a change in the segregated nature of schools, now 84 percent black in Detroit. A top NAACP lawyer said the organization would go ahead without the support of the Justice Department or the Detroit Board of Education if it felt it had a chance in court of mixing city and suburban schoolchildren.

IRAN CALLED a U.S. Senate resolution condemning executions by Islamic firing squads "a clear interference" in its affairs, and asked the United States to delay sending its new ambassador to Tehran "until such time as the political atmosphere between Iran and the United States is cleared," said the country's official news agency. Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini issued a scathing response to recent U.S. criticism of his regime, calling American government "an injured snake."

What can an average person do to help a suffocating baby? These young ladies, 10th graders at North High School, know exactly how to handle such a situation thanks to the work of volunteers such as parent BARBARA DAVIES, (far right). Mrs. Davies was one of a team of volunteers led by the Health Education Council who trained every 10th grade class at North and South High in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, the Heimlich maneuver and infant resuscitation this spring. City Okays New Fiscal Year Budget

However, No Final Decision Reached on Status of Backyard Rubbish Pickup Service

By Susan McDonald
The City Council this week approved a $2.3 million budget for the 1979-80 fiscal year but skirted the issue of possible cutbacks in the rubbish collection service. Instead of making the cuts immediately, the council on Monday, May 21, said it will consider charging residents for the service later this summer.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach earlier recommended the city switch from backyard collection of trash to regular curbside collection as a cost saving measure. To Lose Funding But two council members said they had received a great number of calls from residents — especially senior citizens — urging them to maintain the service. A preliminary study indicates the city could raise about $40,000 for the service by adding a $5 quarterly charge onto residents' water bills. Some kind of measure is urgently needed before this fall when the city will lose funding for three garbage collection workers currently funded by CETA. (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), according to Mr. Kressbach. Changes in federal CETA regulations will make the City ineligible for the program. (Continued on Page 2)

War Memorial Sounds Out Cable Television Plan

Local Officials Considering Proposal Which Center Representatives Say Would Provide Service at Lower Cost to Subscribers, While Maintaining Community Identity

By David Kramer
Pointers may soon be able to watch their city councils in action without leaving their living rooms. That's just one of the possibilities available with a cable TV franchise proposed by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, which recently joined four other companies in vying for operations in The Pointe. The War Memorial would provide the service at a lower cost to subscribers, while maintaining community identity and still possibly turning a profit for the association, their proposal states. Funds for the project, which the association says it has presently, would come from the more than $2 million in securities it holds. At a breakfast meeting held Tuesday, May 15, officers of the War Memorial met with mayors and administrators of the Pointes. Association representatives included John M. Rickel, first vice-president and chairman of the cable TV committee, and John Nicholson, president. Shores Holds Off An outline of the proposal drafted by Mr. Rickel cites the advantages of the local control inherent to a War Memorial operated system, where community standards could be applied in the selection of program material. A private corporation would send much of its programming from a central location. The outline calls Grosse Pointe "an excellent economic environment for cable TV," since pole installation of the cables is less costly than underground, household density is reasonably high, residents can afford the service and a higher than average utilization rate can be expected. Pointe officials indicate they're receptive to the idea, though a problem exists with The Shores, which has already voted to grant the franchise to Cox Cable, a subsidiary of General Electric Company that has already received a franchise in neighboring St. Clair Shores. The Shores has given the War Memorial until its next regular meeting, (June 19), to draw up a more complete program before it finalizes its plans with Cox. Cox's plan reportedly calls for the rebate of some profits to the municipality. On Monday, May 21, the Farms and City Councils both indicated their receptiveness to the War Memorial proposal, but declined to commit themselves to any plan until more details were known. The Woods Council is scheduled to discuss the proposal with War Memorial officials later this week. Early Stage Several Farms councilmen said they liked the idea of a community controlled system, while three City councilmen agreed one license should be granted by all five Pointes. Mr. Nicholson said that, depending on how many subscribers the service had, "there could be some revenues generated" to be used for the bringing in of further programming. (Continued on Page 8)

Clear Way For Vernier, Mack Work

School Board Approves Sidewalk Easement, Right-of-Way Dedication for Improvements Project

An intersection that was the scene of a tragic auto accident that took the life of a 13-year-old Harper Woods boy last year will be reconstructed this summer with the cooperation of the federal government, the school system and The Woods. Engineers say the changes to be made at the Mack-Vernier junction, where the accident occurred, will appreciably improve its safety for pedestrians and the flow of traffic. The way was cleared last week for construction to begin when the Board of Education on Monday, May 14, approved sidewalk easement and necessary right-of-way dedication so the corner may be reshaped. Cost at $175,000 Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the city hopes to have the project completed in time for the opening of school in September. The federal government last month agreed to pay for 90 percent of the estimated $175,000 project. The Woods will pick up the rest of the tab. A $7,500 allocation approved earlier by the School Board will not be needed, Mr. Petersen said. The intersection handles about 60,000 cars a day, according to traffic studies, and it is the most frequent scene of reported accidents in The Woods, police say. Parcels Middle School is located on the corner and daily pours hundreds of children out of its doors to cross at Mack and Vernier. The school will not lose any useable playground area because of the changes in the road bed, island and sidewalk, officials said. To make the area safer for pedestrians the sidewalk will be moved about 40 feet away from the current road. The radius of the corner nearest the school will be improved to make a more gentle turn. In addition, Vernier will be straightened to eliminate a jog in the road that tends to congest traffic and the island turn-around on the thoroughfare will be enlarged. Changes Should Help "Of course there's no way we can make any intersection 100 percent safe," said Mr. Petersen. (Continued on Page 8)

Youth Service Division Stays Alive in '79-80

Board of Managers Unanimously Approve Bureau's New Budget Incorporating $6,000 Deficit, While Planning Several Meetings Before Next February 15 to Explore Future of Operation

By Roger A. Waha
The Youth Service Division, (YSD), will stay alive in its present form, with four officers, two in the North High School district and two in the South High district, in fiscal year 1979-80 as the division's board of managers unanimously approved the bureau's budget on Thursday morning, May 17, at a meeting in The Woods. Faced with a proposal to phase out the YSD's operation beginning June 30, 1980, the board, (including all Pointe city managers and a School Board representative), as part of Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer's motion to okay the budget, approved a stipulation governing the operation's review which will encompass several planned meetings by the managers. The officials will ultimately decide whether to (1) continue the YSD in its present form, (2) reduce it in scope or (3) phase it out. Such a decision will be made on or before next February 15. At this time, the managers are scheduled to hold their first meeting in the fall. Lawyers' Wives Help The new budget, as presented by Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, YSD coordinator, is placed at $174,812, a 7.28 percent increase over the current figure, incorporating a $6,000 deficit. Based upon a request from a majority of the board of managers set forth last March, the school system was asked to pay 30 percent of the total budget in 1979-80, five percent more than the system is paying during the current year. But the Board of Education at its Monday, May 14, meeting nixed the bid, feeling that the 30 percent figure was too high, while agreeing to contribute 25 percent, i.e., $43,703 in 1979-80. Council Approves Grant Application for Study; Neighboring Communities Express Support

By Roger A. Waha
A Community Development Block Grant, (CDBG), Innovative Projects Program focusing upon "Mack Avenue in The Year 2000: A Strategy to Prevent Penetration of Mack Avenue Blight" is being sought by The Woods in cooperation with neighboring communities this year. The council at its regular meeting Monday, May 21, unanimously authorized City Administrator Chester E. Petersen to file the necessary application for the project, which will cost $99,000, including $34,000 for a contract with Gerald Luedtke and Associates to prepare the innovative study and $15,000 for the cost of administration and supporting work by participating communities. "I think it's one of the most important studies, benefiting the four Grosse Pointes, (also including The Farms, City and Park), which are adjacent to Mack, to come about in my whole tenure, (in the city.) It will affect the future of the Grosse Pointe communities," said Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who came to the community in 1977. Meets A Test "It can be very exciting and challenging to the Grosse Pointe communities in demonstrating to Wayne County, the State of Michigan and even the United States an innovative way to stop creeping blight along a major commercial corridor. I feel this study will offer an opportunity to do just that." While the council approved the filing of the application, that's no guarantee that the project will be approved. James P. Curran, director, Wayne County Office of Program Development and Coordination, said 14 communities proposing a total of 17 projects are currently being considered. A total of around $620,000 in funding is available this year. In noting a decision should be reached by the end of June on all applications, Mr. Curran said, while he hasn't reviewed all the proposals as yet, "The Woods' program meets the test of new ways in which communities can work together with its focus upon a strip commercial district. "I think it's a good idea," he added. Initial indications from Park, City and Farms officials also are favorable. "It offers a real opportunity, (for the communities), to work together to correct a situation which in the near future could be a problem to all the Grosse Pointe communities if not addressed immediately," said Park City Manager John Crawford. Saying his council tabled the matter at its Monday, (Continued on Page 2)

I-F Center Cites Four For Community Service

Four outstanding citizens will receive the 1979 Distinguished Community Service Award from the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice at the group's 11th annual dinner Thursday, May 31, in the Fries Ballroom of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road. Dinner begins at 8 p.m. Recipients are Detroit Councilwoman Erma Henderson, Rev. Msgr. Francis X. Canfield, Martha Wylie and Dr. Robert C. Linthicum. In keeping with its 1979 program theme—"The Future of Grosse Pointe and the Future of Detroit are Linked"—the center is honoring the four special guests for their work in strengthening both communities by furthering the goals of human justice and dignity. Ms. Henderson is president of the Detroit City Council and won the position in 1977 after receiving the largest number of votes ever given a candidate. "Through her dedicated work as chairperson of the Michigan Statewide Coalition on Redlining, Erma Henderson has made an outstanding contribution to the goal of insuring healthy, vital neighborhoods for people in all communities," according to the center. Ms. Henderson also is founder and director of the Women's Conference of Centers, which recently held its seventh community-wide annual meeting. (Continued on Page 4)

Park Council Approves Budget of $3.6 Million

By Joanne N. Gouleche
A $3.6 million budget increasing property taxes by about $76 per year was approved by the Park Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 14. The $76 increase applies to those homeowners with a $30,000 state equalized valuation, (SEV), and taxes can be higher or lower in any given instance depending on the SEV of an individual home. A tax levy of 19.50 mills remains unchanged, but the mill rate is applied to a 10 percent increase in SEV assessments and thus accounts for the tax increase. Of the 19.50 mill rate, 18.39 is for operating purposes and 1.11 is for debt service. Last year's mill rate of 19.50 specified 18.70 for general operating and .80 for debt service. The total 1979-80 budget of $3,625,000 is some $341,000 more than the current budget of $3,284,000. The $341,000 increase between the current budget and the 1979-80 budget. In the course of three budget study sessions the council voted to create a separate water and sewer expenditure fund beginning fiscal year 1979-80. (Continued on Page 8)

Woods Council Applies for Innovative Grant

May 14, meeting for further study. Mr. Crawford indicated his hope the council will adopt a resolution in favor of the proposal.

At this point, The Woods, which will act as the managing municipality in the project, is seeking written endorsements from the neighboring communities and has already received one from The Farms, with the other communities indicating theirs would be on the way, said Mr. Petersen.

For his part, Farms City Clerk Richard Solak, who, like representatives from the other affected communities, attended a meeting earlier this month to explore the program with Woods officials, said, "I feel the plan has merit and has come use to Grosse Pointe Farms in the long run."

Meanwhile, City Manager Thomas Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City stated he would recommend to his council support for the application, noting, "It makes a lot of sense to pursue it."

In a letter to Mr. Curran, as part of the city's application, exploring the program and in seeking a 10-day extension to the submittal deadline of Tuesday, May 15, inasmuch as the council couldn't take official action until the 21st, (such was approved), Mr. Petersen said the proposal directly affects the Mack avenue corridor north of Alter road and includes a multi-jurisdictional area consisting of The Park City, Farms, Woods and Detroit.

Contract Viewed
Noting the proposal includes the neighborhood strategy areas of The Park City and Woods, he said, "We have been verbally informed that a substantial percentage of the residents of the Mack avenue corridor within the City of Detroit would meet the low to moderate income requirements of the CDBG program."

In eyeing The Woods as managing municipality, Mr. Petersen pointed out that his city will enter into a contract with Luedtke to perform professional services.

He said the proposal requests administrative costs for The Woods and requests funds to reimburse cooperating cities for their expenses incurred during the data gathering phase.

Besides the indications of support from the affected communities, Mr. Petersen stated, in addition, the city has received the support of Saint John Hospital, "which is not only a major employer but is in control of significant property in the Mack avenue corridor as well as one of the potential redevelopment areas."

Along with the letter to Mr. Curran, a proposal from Luedtke exploring Mack in the Year 2000 was included in the city's overall application to the county.

Occurs in Advance
Calling Mack one of the principal commercial and industrial thoroughfares serving the City of Detroit and the Pointes within Wayne County, the proposal says during the past 35 years, Mack has been undergoing a process of steadily-progressing blight.

"Blight is evidenced by commercial buildings in a state of physical disrepair, economic obsolescence, high vacancy rates, high business failure rates, a high percentage of marginal businesses and high incidences of crime," the document states.

During the early 1950's, Detroit planning personnel were already aware of the rapidly-spreading blight along Mack, with the city initiating the Mack-Concord Conservation Project to try to prevent the rapidly-emerging blight on Mack between Bellevue and Van Dyke, the proposal notes.

"Since the early 1950's, the linear progression of blight along Mack avenue has been dramatic. Commercial blight has now crossed Alter road and is beginning to penetrate the portion of Mack avenue which transverse Grosse Pointe Park."

Several observations are then shared including the following:

- The blight on Mack extends at a predictable rate in a linear fashion. If the well-established trend of the past 30 years continues, the blight should reach Vernier by the year 2000.

- Commercial blight along Mack occurs in advance of the decline of adjoining residential areas. "Any realistic planning approach must be based on taking action before blight appears," the proposal says.

The Innovative Projects Program grant proposal will develop a strategy to prevent penetration of blight into that portion of Mack between Nottingham road and Vernier before blight occurs.

At the same time, the proposal notes that an "imaginative and realistic strategy which communities can put into effect in advance of the occurrence of blight will be an extremely valuable tool to these communities."

In eyeing the relationship to national community development objectives, the innovative project will (1) provide a comprehensive program to prevent the occurrence of blight, (2) eliminate blight conditions which will cause the future occurrence of blight within the Mack avenue corridor and (3) contribute to the preservation of the sound housing inventory adjacent to Mack by the prevention of commercial blight penetration.

The proposal adds, "This innovative grant proposal will really be the first comprehensive attempt to plan for the prevention of blight in the county's commercial corridors. As a pilot study, it should be very useful to all Wayne County communities."

City Okays New Budget

gram after September, (the end of the federal fiscal year).

Except for the proposed rubbish collection cuts, The City's 1979-80 budget maintains all services and manpower levels currently in effect.

The Headlee Tax Limitation amendment forced The City to reduce its general operating millage rate by 1.06 mills to 21.74 mills next year. Although the legislature hasn't interpreted Headlee into law yet, city administrators guess they will be held to a 7.7 percent increase in local property tax revenues by final legislation.

The City's debt retirement millage will increase from 1.61 to 2.1 mills in 1979-80, largely because of a voter-approved bond issue to renovate Neff Memorial Park and bond issues for the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority.

Increase in Fees
The net effect on The City's tax rate will be a 0.51 of a mill reduction. (A mill equals $1 for every $1,000 of assessed valuation.)

To help the city live within Headlee's limitations, Mr. Kressbach has recommended a number of increases in various fees charged to citizens.

The council took action on one of those recommendations Monday, May 21, raising tennis court charges from $1.50 to $2, and court light fees from 75 cents to $1.

The city plans to spend a total of $2,283,190 out of its general fund next year. About 77 percent of the revenue will come from local citizens through property taxes and service charges.

Water Color Class Slated

Health Education Council Spreads Lifesaving Skill

By Susan McDonald
 There probably isn't a 10th grade student in Grosse Pointe who hasn't learned on the chest of the suffocating Resussa-Annie at least once during the past five weeks. Close to 1,000 students at North and South High Schools have taken their turn with the charming "Annie" since April, thanks to a team of Health Education Council volunteers intent on spreading the lifesaving skill of cardiopulmonary resuscitation, (CPR).

Making sure each and every 10th grader passed the four-day course to receive a Heart Saver Card was a mind-boggling job for the 12 volunteer instructors. But according to Marilyn Doyal, who directed the project, each and every one of the 700 volunteer man hours was well worthwhile.

Mrs. Doyal is president of the Health Council, which is dedicated to promoting good health throughout The Pointe with a wide range of programs. Their volunteers take fluoride treatments to elementary schools, man school health clinics and conduct courses in nutrition, breast self-examination and sex education.

The Heart Saver Course, including instruction in one-man CPR, the Heimlich maneuver and infant resuscitation, is right up the council's alley.

It was probably one of the most ambitious programs the group has ever taken on. Of course, "Annie" helped out a lot. "Annie" is a fascinating mannequin that is used widely.

Parents to Hear 11 Candidates

The PTO-PTA Council will host a "Meet The Candidates" night Tuesday, May 29, at Brownell Middle School, 280 Chalonte road, at 8 p.m. All 11 candidates for two School Board seats have been invited to give short speeches and answer questions from the audience. The election will be held Monday, June 11.

Winners Are Announced!

Pat Sands of Fraser won first prize in the Guess the Diamonds contest at Tony Cueter's Bijouterie in connection with his grand reopening in his new location at 20445 Mack in Grosse Pointe Woods. Eleven Grosse Pointers were winners including Pam Erhart, Virginia Di Luizi, Hank Auch, Louise Matouk, Kathleen Emery, Cathy Salvaggio, Marney Brown, Karen Anderson, Douglas Schubert, Julie Miller, and Michael Schneider.

Six other winners included Henry Balboni, Denise Joseph, Mary Asher, B. Habib, Laura Kocis and Sylvia Viviano.

by the American Heart Association for CPR training. "Annie" simulates basic life signs that a person administering first aid. Her eyes dilate to indicate the amount of oxygen to the brain, her lungs expand when they fill with air and her pulse beats to signal the heart has resumed pumping.

She's expensive, though, and during the last five weeks the Health Council's models have had a lot of wear. (Any tax-deductible donations to help replace the equipment would be appreciated.)

Parent clubs from both high schools have already clipped in. Bon Secours Hospital has helped, too, through Ray Ingham, head of the cardiopulmonary service department, and Cherie Trembly.

The Park Fire Department sent a crew of trained instructors to help when volunteer lines drew thin. They helped train instructors from the community, including Barbara Davies, Dickie, Joanne and Susan Penoyer, Edna McFarlane, Robert Smith, Lisa Loush, Judy Warner and Nancy Entwistle.

The volunteers broke into four- or five-man teams to work with classes of 30 kids at a time. The students responded well to the advice. "Don't think of getting an 'A,' think of saving someone's life," according to North High counselor Joe DeVine.

Using "Annie," students can practice all the motions used to revive a stricken patient—artificial resuscitation, stimulation of the heart and the Heimlich maneuver.

The council needs more volunteers if the course is to be extended to next year's group of 10th graders, according to Mrs. Doyal.

Interested persons can take the basic course at various times throughout the year at Bon Secours Hospital, the War Memorial or Saint John Hospital.

Students participating in YMCA World Ambassadors pay their own expenses so that they not become a burden in the developing countries. The Latin America team is one of six teams that will be abroad this summer in Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America.

North Changes Concert Date

North High School senior class musicians will have their last hurrah at the annual Senior Concerto Night Monday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m. The concert was postponed from the original Wednesday, May 30, date. It will be held in the performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road.

Children playing with matches is being blamed for a fire that caused considerable damage to the back porch of a Lakepointe road home Sunday evening, April 15.

The Park Fire Department responded to a call at 1245 Lakepointe, a three-family flat owned by Christina Hamilton, and found that foam rug padding sitting in a pile on the back porch had been ignited.

The fire was discovered by occupants of the third floor. No one was hurt.

Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa said, in addition to the heavy damage to the back porch, there was smoke damage throughout the home.

Chief Costa indicated that the same home suffered a very large loss about two years ago when a fire ripped through the basement.

Fire officials were never able to determine the cause of that fire.

FRINGE BENEFITS RISE
 American workers are receiving an average of nearly $4,700 in benefits each year in addition to salary or wages, says the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. This is an 18 percent increase over average fringes in 1975.

Brother-Sister Team Has First

A brother-sister team, David Fleig and Julie Fleig, of Kerby road have been accepted for the Latin America '79 Team of YMCA World Ambassadors.

Not only is this the first brother-sister pair ever to participate in this international service program but they are the first ever to be selected from the Pointes, according to the state YMCA of Michigan in a news release.

The YMCA World Ambassador Program is a summer travel service/study program for college students conducted annually in over 20 overseas countries. It is sponsored by host YMCAs overseas, the International Division YMCA and the State YMCA of Michigan.

Groups called "teams" determine the countries in which they desire to work and spend from five and a half to seven weeks in these countries. Generally the service projects are camp counseling, youth and recreational leadership, the teaching of English and community development work camps.

David and Julie will serve in the Panama Canal Zone in a work project rebuilding a YMCA camp in the jungle. After two weeks, they travel to Bogota, Colombia, where they will work with the "Gaminas," (street children), for two weeks at YMCA Camp Bochica. They will spend 2-3 days in an intercultural exchange visit in Quito, Ecuador, enroute to Brazil.

Their next assignment will be in the metropolitan city of Sao Paulo where the ference at Cobo Hall. The citizens organization enables hundreds of Michigan women to address themselves to a variety of social concerns from education to land use to crime prevention.

Ms. Wylie of Washington road also is a recipient of the 1979 Distinguished Community Service Award.

She is founder and chairperson of Project START, a community-based corrections program, which provides a combination of employment and support to legal offenders under supervision of Wayne County Circuit Court, Detroit Recorder's Court and the Michigan Department of Corrections.

Project START is a proven alternative to the traditional, and costly, pattern of incarceration and repeated offenses, center officials note.

Ms. Wylie is a former member of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission and currently serves on the Michigan State Advisory Committee on Civil Rights, (to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission).

She is a past president of the Junior League of Detroit and a past board member of numerous Grosse Pointe community organizations including the War Memorial. She received the Spirit of Detroit Award from the Detroit City Council in 1977.

Ms. Wylie currently serves in leadership capacities in several local and national organizations including the National Urban League, New Detroit, Inc., Merrill Palmer Institute Corporation, Michigan League for Human Services and Legal Aid and De-

The budget also calls for establishment of a bi-lingual program for Arabic students, more adult education and community services classes and expansion of the high school vocational program.

Two Nurses Eyed
 Superintendent Dr. William Coats asked the trustees to consider two additional improvements that were not included in the budget proposal.

Dr. Coats suggested the Board contemplate hiring two nurses to supervise clinics at North and South High School next year. That request received enthusiastic support from Health Education Council President Marilyn Doyal.

Health Council members currently staff clinics at all the public schools, but Mrs. Doyal told the Board the group is having a rough time finding volunteers for the high school posts.

"The job in the high school clinics is generally much more difficult than at the lower levels," Mrs. Doyal told the trustees on Wednesday, May 15. "The injuries are more severe, there is a larger staff and student body and more drug and alcohol problems that are very difficult to handle," she said.

"I think a nurse is needed at each school," she concluded.

The proposal will cost the schools a total of $20,700, according to Dr. Coats.

"Great Potential"
 The superintendent's second request for additional funding is for two high school athletic directors who would be removed from the teachers' bargaining unit and relieved of any teaching or coaching responsibilities.

The athletic directors "have great potential for improving our athletic program," Dr. Coats told the Board.

"We need to find a way to ramrod our athletics. Right now we have mediocre coaches in some of our sports because the directors just don't have the time, with their coaching responsibilities, to go out and recruit new coaches," he said.

The directors would cost the schools $13,500 a year, according to Dr. Coats.

Board members are set to discuss those additions next week, along with a suggestion that cuts be made in a proposed $90,000 deficit in the school lunch program.

fender's Association. Another award recipient in Grosse Pointe is Msgr. Canfield, who has served as Pastor of Saint Paul Church in Lakeshore road for over eight years. He holds an MA in English from Catholic University and a PhD in English from University of Ottawa.

A widely published scholar and editor, Msgr. Canfield's past leadership includes positions as rector of Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit and chaplain of the Detroit Police Department.

In the Grosse Pointe community, Msgr. Canfield has served on the Board of the Friends of Grosse Pointe Public Library, as past president of the Grosse Pointe Ministerial Association, executive committee member of the Inter-Faith Center Hunger Coalition and is currently an active member of the ecumenical consortium in the Pointe.

"Msgr. Canfield's brand of civic and community leadership has been spiritually reflected in his deep respect for the needs and concerns of people. In extending the boundaries of his church's activities and commitments, he and his parish have demonstrated beautifully that a faith community must not be limited to simply a geographic location," the center said.

Throughout his years at Saint Paul, Msgr. Canfield has worked closely with a broad coalition of community groups and individuals to enhance the quality of life throughout metropolitan Detroit. During the last year, however, Msgr. Canfield had a special challenge. After a fire at Saint Paul, he was given the task of rebuilding parts of the famous landmark.

Dr. Linthicum, also a recipient of the 1979 Distinguished Community Service Award, is a scholar (author of two books on church planning and two books soon to be published on the Bible), urban planner and citizen advocate as well as the spiritually inspiring senior pastor of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

In a relatively short time he and his congregation have become catalysts in community leadership to address community concerns. Through a number of concrete service and educational efforts, GPW Presbyterian has demonstrated its Christian beliefs through action. They have sponsored service programs for parent education and senior citizen activities.

Dr. Linthicum's special contribution was the application of his planning and survey skills to direct two major studies of the community.

In 1977 and 1978, he undertook a comprehensive study of the problems of senior citizens in the Grosse Pointes. This study, commissioned by the newly formed "Seniors Onward for Change," provided the foundation for the development of services by that organization.

Dr. Linthicum directed another study for the Grosse Pointe Ministerial Association. Completed in 1978, this study produced three reports and involved over 15 churches and 150 lay persons who assisted in data compilation and interpretation.

"Bob Linthicum's dedication to this study of the Grosse Pointes assisted the entire community in thinking about the future and the directions needed to prepare for that future," according to the center.

Co-chairs for the 11th annual dinner are Kathy McGovern of Balfour road and Gail Urso of Westchester road. Committee members include Susan Francis of Yorkshire road, Rick and Pat Drabant of Balfour road, Katie Elsiila of Three Mile drive, and Tim Cavanaugh, of Cook road.

The 1979 Annual Dinner is open to the public. A cash bar opens at 6:30 p.m. and dinner will follow.

Tickets are available at $15 per person, $30 per couple. Tables can be reserved. For reservations or additional information, call the Inter-Faith Center at 824-0350.

Daring Holdup in Farms Nets Gunman over $2,000

A daring one-man holdup of the Colonial Federal Savings branch, 63 Kercheval, On-the-Hill, on Tuesday, May 17, netted a gunman over $2,000, while police from at least two departments were baffled by his elusiveness.

Several witnesses saw the man enter and exit the building very calmly, drive down Kercheval avenue to Fisher road, wait for a red light to change and make a right turn onto Fisher. Farms detectives, waiting for the robber at Mack and Fisher, never saw the car.

According to police, the man entered the bank at about 2:20 p.m., walked to the teller window and demanded money. When the teller replied, "You've got to be kidding," the man put a shoe box on the counter and opened it to display a blue steel automatic pistol.

When the teller responded, the man grabbed the money from her and put it in the shoe box, walking out the Kercheval door to his waiting car. Several witnesses gave conflicting reports on the year and make of the vehicle, ranging from a 1966

Grand Prix to a 1974 Ford LTD.

A license plate number was obtained, but unable to be located with vehicle registrations in Lansing. Farms Det. Earl Field speculated the plate was either not a current Michigan one, or else it had been bent in such a way to make it unreadable.

Det. John Albrecht of the Youth Service Division joined Farms detectives in helping to obtain a composite drawing of the suspect. Film from the bank's surveillance cameras was sent in for processing, with results unavailable at press time.

Dets. Field and Samuel Cardella were aided in their processing of the crime scene by five agents to the scene.

The two bank tellers described the holdup man as white, 29 to 30 years of age, 5'10" to 5'11" tall, of a slim to medium build, between 150 and 160 pounds, with mustache and glasses, wearing a tan jacket and pants, green shirt, a rust tie and a blond wig.

However, two women who the holdup said the man was 6'1" to 6'2" and husky. They described the wig as a "Harpo Marx" type.

The car was described as either a 1966 or '67 Pontiac Grand Prix, a 1968 Buick LeSabre, or a 1973 or '74 Ford LTD. All witnesses agreed it was a two-door white convertible.

Farms police would like anyone who witnessed the robbery or the escape to call 885-2100.

When the word "mountain" is printed on a bottle of wine, it usually means that the wine came from grapes grown on hillside vineyards, rather than in the valleys. Hillside vines generally get better sun and have more drainage than do those from the valley and so may often be better than their cousins from the low lands. But there is no assurance of that either. For the most part, "mountain" is simply a marketing term. We suggest that you rely on the advice of your wine expert for guidance. Although individual tastes are personal, broad categorizations are easy to make.

Glusac Named to Big Post

Michael M. Glusac, of Meadow lane, executive director of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, (SEMCOG), was recently elected to the 33-member board of directors of the National Association of Regional Councils, (NARC), during the NARC annual convention at the Detroit Plaza Hotel.

Mr. Glusac's election to a two-year term came during the annual business meeting of the 350 regional councils which make up NARC, according to a SEMCOG news release.

"I belong to the school of thought that believes no single mold or structure will suit all regional councils, and that we should continue to be tolerant of the diversity in regional councils," said Mr. Glusac.

"Further, we should strive to heal and breach between urban and rural interests, between city and suburban interests, for in truth most of our regional councils have most of these interests within their geographic areas.

"Because structural changes in local government are not likely to occur, regional councils are essential. They can bridge the differences between city and county, between urban, suburban and rural, and provide a forum for the resolution of these differences as well as mutual problems," said Mr. Glusac.

"I'm looking forward to working with the board of directors to shape cohesive regional policies which councils across the nation can implement."

Mr. Glusac has been executive director of SEMCOG since 1974. During that time, the council experienced a 30 percent growth in membership to the current level of 134 local units of government in Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

Prior to that, he was corporation counsel for the city of Detroit from 1970-74, and was a councilman and mayor of Highland Park from 1963-70.

In addition, he has been a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, was president of the Michigan Municipal League and was engaged in the private practice of law for 14 years.

SEMCOG is a voluntary association of some 130 governmental units in Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne Counties. Its principal function is long-range planning for transportation, housing, land use, recreation and open space, public safety and the environment.

Woods Okays Bid of GPSC

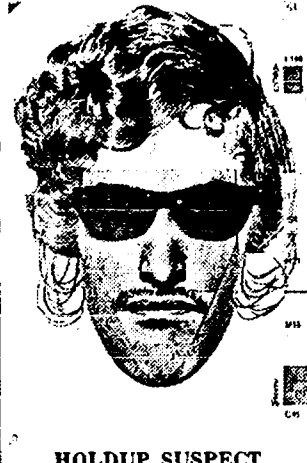

A request from the Grosse Pointe Swim Club, (GPSC), to use the 50-meter pool at the Lake Front Park was unanimously approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7.

The GPSC's officers and board of directors requested to use the pool from June through August at last year's time of from 6 to 8 a.m. A list of swimmers who are registered with the club and who will participate in the summer program will be provided officials.

At the same time, the club will pay $27.50 per day and be responsible for liability insurance.

"This program aids in keeping our high school swimmers in training and competition over the summer months, readying them for the arduous meets in the fall," said Arthur W. Cotton, president of the GPSC.

The club's coaching staff includes John Spire, head coach, Chet Ricker, assistant coach, and Tom Teetaert and Carl Schoessei, consulting coaches.

Park to Build Police Canopy

A canopy will be constructed at the police station entrance of The Park Municipal Building soon as council members accepted the bid of Martin Batts, a Park contractor, to build the canopy at a cost of $1,650.

City Manager John R. Crawford told council members at their regular meeting on Monday, May 14, the ice and snow that fell from the roof of the building this past winter was dangerous to police officers, residents and others who used the rear entrance of the municipal building.

Construction of the canopy should begin within two weeks, according to Public Service Director James Ellison.

Shutterbugs Set Banquet

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will hold its annual banquet featuring a show by John and Kitty Kohout on Friday, June 1, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 6:30 p.m.

The Kohouts are internationally-known nature photographers from Chicago. Their unusual presentation is called "From Season to Season."

A unique introduction based on an original outdoor song will mark the beginning of the 45-minute program. Opening with dramatic winter scenes accompanied by symphonic background music, the program reviews all the seasons and their phenomena with beautiful close-ups and panoramic views.

The program also will include a showing of the best prints and slides submitted by members during the year and the presentation of awards to those who have done outstanding work.

The banquet is open to anyone interested in photography. For more information or tickets, at $8, call Ruth Curtis at 779-2237.

MORE TIRES ON FARMS

Although the number of farms has decreased steadily — from 5.5 million in the mid 1950's to 2.6 million today — tire sales have increased, due to the mechanization of larger farms. A leading tire manufacturer predicts U.S. farmers will spend a record $380 million for tires in 1979, a 12 1/2 percent increase over the previous year. A year ago the average farmer spent $300 to $400 for tires. Next year, according to forecasts, he will spend $500.

 80. As it turned out, each municipality's share was based on the Board paying 30 percent of the total cost and that's the way the budget was approved.

Under the state equalized valuation, (SEV), criteria, (the actual cost to be prorated on the 1979 equalized valuation), The Woods will pay around $40,834.33, The Farms, $30,567.63, The Park, $22,258.81, The City, $15,063.55, and The Shores, $13,644.08. This totals $122,368.40.

Along with the school system's 25 percent contribution, a Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives donation of $1,000. (This organization has supported the YSD in past years with contributions of equipment), plus a reappropriated surplus of $1,740, the overall total of $168,812 is reached, leaving the $6,000 deficit.

Curtain Raised
 Before the discussion began, Mr. Petersen told the board of managers, "It's the recommendation of Grosse Pointe Woods as managing municipality that we continue the YSD in 1979-80 and phase out the operation as of June 30, 1980."

At that time, he suggested that the three vehicles assigned to the YSD be sold to offset the deficit, while noting that all other equipment used by the division was principally donated by the Lawyers' Wives, with a typewriter being donated by a Woods neighborhood group and all office equipment being supplied by The Woods.

Mr. Petersen suggested if the board of managers wished to reconsider the division's full operation that the managing municipality be advised of this by February 15, 1980.

On the proposed June 30, 1980, phase out, Mr. Petersen cited the apparent feeling on the parts of a large segment of citizens, the School Board and some of the cities that the YSD has served its useful purpose in the community.

With the curtain raised on the proposal, the board of managers explored the division's operation from a variety of perspectives including need, service rendered and cost factors.

Alternatives Eyed
 Setting the tone for much of the reaction, Mr. Bremer, in saying The Farms is going to participate again in the new fiscal year, questioned the proposed phase out of the YSD next June. "I want to take a look at our own operation. We should have several meetings and try to determine if the division has lost out its usefulness."

Supporting Mr. Bremer's viewpoint, Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, School Board representative, agreed that the board of managers should hold several meetings prior to any phase out decision, while Mr. Petersen interjected that the community should realize, unless the mood changes, the YSD will be phased out.

While realizing that phasing out the operation was one alternative, the board of managers also recognized that others included each entity coming up with its monetary share, along with the restructuring of the division in relation to personnel.

On any restructuring, Mr. Petersen felt the allocation formula also should be considered, e.g., in citing The Shores' feeling that a population criteria, rather than SEV, would be a better method.

In eying a feeling of his council, Park City Manager John Crawford viewed cost factors in relation to services rendered by the division, while indicating it was possible his city's police department might be able to provide similar services at less cost. However, he wasn't certain that this might be the case, while feeling this matter should be further explored.

"Done Great Job"

After learning that YSD services to parochial and private schools was minimal, (about 33 hours per year), and not sufficient to warrant any potential contributions on their parts, Mr. Crawford wondered what the cost per case would be to any participating municipality.

It was pointed out by several members that this would be difficult to determine.

In noting one member of his council raised a similar question, Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis indicated there was no way to determine such a cost.

On Mr. Petersen's phase out proposal, Mr. Jefferis said he didn't know if the Village started it regarding its view on the allocation method, (if so, he felt that was a "little tough"), while stressing, "We don't want to disband it. The YSD has done a great job."

I agree with my council that the method of allocation is perhaps unfair but this is the way the contract is written, he said, while adding he felt the trustees would be in favor of Mr. Bremer's viewpoint.

Mr. Jefferis then indicated the school system might be hard-nosed on the 25 percent proposal.

In response, Dr. Spagnoli, speaking for himself, said no one thinks the YSD is a waste of time and that many would be sad to see it go. But he noted the service it provides to the communities and the benefits such a concept has for The Woods and The Farms, (both of which have high schools within their boundaries), while feeling the 25 percent figure was fair and equitable.

Tight Cost Picture
 Responding to a question from Mr. Crawford on what the school system would do if the YSD was disbanded, Dr. Spagnoli said the School Board could employ one or more individuals equal to the amount of money the system contributes to the division or do nothing, perhaps letting the municipalities handle the situation.

Mr. Petersen pointed out "the YSD is there" where youth gather in the community, e.g., at athletic events, dances, concerts, et al. "In having a high school in our community, that service is disbanded, the School Board could be faced with hiring off-duty police officers, added Mr. Petersen.

In citing tight cost pictures for the municipalities, (the Headlee Tax Limitation amendment notwithstanding), City Manager Thomas Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City said, in viewing limited revenues for all municipalities, all expenditures must be scrutinized and determinations made on priorities. "Some may be cut out, while others may be adjusted downward," he said.

There appears to be some doubt in the minds of the city managers and councils in The City, Park and Shores regarding their communities receiving a proportionate share of the service but we don't feel this way, interjected Dr. Spagnoli.

"The school system serves all the communities and the kids in those three communities also go to public schools. If there's a financial problem then you have to establish priorities," he said, while feeling they were receiving their share of the service.

Two over Three

"I'm against any reduction in manpower," said Mr. Bremer. "We should look at the YSD to see if it's still a valid operation and make a determination if we can still afford it or make arrangements within our own departments to pick it up."

On using three rather than four officers, Mr. Petersen, in responding to a question from Mr. Crawford, said, "My people say it wouldn't work out as well. I'd rather go with two rather than three because some may feel one school district, (with three), will receive a disproportionate share of the services."

After doing some figuring, Dr. Spagnoli unofficially pointed out that with three officers in the division, an estimated $2,000 difference would be gained by The City during the next fiscal year in viewing some concerns expressed by Mr. Kressbach.

For his part, Dr. Spagnoli felt the difference in cost wasn't really worth any manpower adjustment.

However, Mr. Kressbach said the situation might be stabilized with three officers in 1979-80 and two the following year. "Three or two is better than none," he stated.

Feeling that these points were academic, Dr. Spagnoli said the immediate issue confronting the board of managers was the new budget. With that, Mr. Jefferis supported Mr. Bremer's motion and the YSD's operation in 1979-80 was assured.

This is the same wide world we've always lived in, but we're living on a narrower margin.

Let's Talk Real Estate

Our talk in last week's column about having small homeowners associations was a dud—I thought—but the response that finally came was more than gratifying. The arising thing about the people who inquired about how to form an association was that they all lived in some of the finest of our Pointes. The usual story is that the more affluent community the less interested they are in keeping it that Strange isn't it?

We are preparing a map to indicate where and how each association might be. This way there should be no overlapping or arguments over territorial jurisdiction etc. Associations are good for any community for a number of things. They allow people to voice themselves and be heard by the municipality. They cure or stop immediately "creeping" problems start so innocently, but are devastating to property values. A good example of this is certain types of rental property. And is traffic and parking!

There are lots of things that can be done in an association that either maintain the status quo or even look ahead to greener things that can be done to improve property values and community beauty. Try the association idea—you'll like it. As said if you'd like to know more about starting up an association in your area call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087.

Pair Released In Robberies

Two youths who were picked up by police after a robbery in two robberies, one an apparent armed robbery and the other an attempt, were cleared by Youth Service Division (YSD), detectives and released.

YSD Det. James Fowler said other suspects are being questioned in the cases, which occurred on Friday, May 4, in The Farms.

A nine-year-old Lincoln road resident told police he was stopped on the corner of Fisher and Ridge by two youths, one of whom pulled a knife and ordered the boy to empty his pockets or else he would kill him. The boy complied, giving the robbers $1.60, and watched them flee south on Fisher road. This incident occurred at 9 p.m.

Earlier that day, (at 5:15 p.m.), a nine-year-old Moran road boy was walking on Charlevoix road when two youths approached him, pulled a knife and asked him if he had any money. When the boy said "no," the youth with the knife said "just kidding" and they both walked away.

The pair were described as 17- to 18-years-old wearing thin blue jeans with one wearing a tan leather jacket and the other a blue jean jacket. Both were said to have collar length brown hair.

Farms Dets. George Van Tiem and Samuel Cardella were cruising the On-the-Hill area on Tuesday, May 8, and spotted two youths, 15- and 16-years-old, fitting the descriptions of the suspects.

They were placed under arrest, patted down and a hash pipe was recovered from each, along with a two-and-a-half inch bladed knife from one. They were taken to the station and were subsequently turned over to Det. Fowler for questioning.

Woods Planners to View Colonial Road Proposal

A request from a St. Clair Shores builder to construct two homes in Colonial road, (Lot 23b of Lakeshore Road Subdivision), near The Shores' boundary was referred by the Woods Council to the Planning Commission for its review with a report back to the council.

This action was taken by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, May 7, on the bid of Robert Sfira.

Mr. Sfira proposed to build the homes on the lot, with plans calling for him to live in one and sell the other. However, three variances were needed including the following: a variance from the lot coverage requirement of 13,000 feet, (the lots each have approximately 11,265 feet); a variance from a requirement for 30 feet for a front yard setback; and a variance from requirements for utility easements.

The Board of Appeals hearing ran around 80 minutes with several area citizens speaking in favor of the proposal, with a main concern that, with the construction, Colonial road wouldn't be going through to Morning-side drive with the potential creation of congestion and safety problems.

At the same time, some residents expressed opposition to the proposal, with one lady feeling two homes would give a "cramped" look and another man questioning the adequacy of planned easements.

Councilman George Cueter felt the plans as presented weren't in enough detail, i.e., a lack of elevations, while expressing concern over potential problems of water runoffs to adjoining property.

In relation to any potential agreements with adjoining property owners regarding access, Mr. Cueter said a current homeowner might not be living at the residence years from now, with a potential problem between a neighbor and the city ensuing in the future.

Other concerns expressed by the council viewed the front setback with some preferring that the homes be set further back, plus the need for further specifics on water main and sewage line installation.

Councilman Thomas Fahrner felt a Turn around at the end of the street, rather than have citizens turn around in someone's driveway, should be something that the commission could explore.

The council felt more specific information should be forthcoming and that some feedback should be obtained from the Planning Commission, while suggesting that Mr. Sfira submit more detailed plans.

War Memorial Offers Cable TV Proposal

He emphasized the preliminary nature of the proposal, saying the association's board will decide whether to continue with the proposal at its Tuesday, May 22, meeting (after press time).

"We're at a very preliminary stage of investigating the possibilities. There's still a lot of groundwork to be done," Mr. Nicholson said.

He stressed the community service aspect of the proposal, noting a commercial operation may not be able to include such things as discount rates to seniors and significant local programming. If one or two of the Pointes decided to go with another company, the War Memorial would probably drop any proposal, he said.

Farms Mayor James Dingeman, who said the original meeting was held "some-what at my suggestion," felt cable TV would be a valuable asset to the community, providing a broader programming, including the possibility of local coverage of civic events and programs at the Center.

"I think the War Memorial, being a community undertaking, should be given the opportunity to become in-involved in cable TV," he said.

Park City Manager John Crawford, while having reservations as to whether the Center has the necessary manpower to staff the system, was receptive to the idea, both because programming would be locally controlled and because of its possibilities as a revenue source to the Center.

Mr. Crawford said he would prefer to see the War Memorial operate the system itself, rather than subcontract it out.

City Mayor David Robb suggested an ordinance be adopted by each city providing public access to cable TV channels. He felt the Center would be better capable of handling the technical and financial questions involved with the system than would the cities, and thus the proposal deserved further study.

"It behooves us to try and have a uniform approach to this system," he said I just don't think it makes sense to fragment it."

The cable TV system would provide numerous channels from outside the Detroit area, possibly from New York or California, plus a virtually unlimited number of channels carrying a variety of programming ranging from such possibilities as 24-hour financial news to two-way medical and security emergency channels.

Other possibilities would be a local billboard of events, religious and educational programs, and even classified ads.

As its name implies, a cable TV system would necessitate the stringing of cables from a central antenna to the homes of subscribers. In the Pointes, this would most likely utilize the current utility poles used by Edison and Michigan Bell. Any cable TV outfit must obtain community approval for the stringing of wires, as do the utilities.

Cost of the system would not exceed the lowest quoted commercial price, ($7.50 per month for basic service plus a $15 installation charge. Prompt service would be available at no charge, and customers could elect to drop the service at any time.

A summary of the Center's proposal states "The War Memorial, our community center, has the economic capability, the responsible board membership of local citizenry and record of management to provide the system."

The other primary firm in the Pointe cable TV market is Detroit-based Mega-Vision, a company composed largely of Pointe residents. They have approached the other cities with their plan.

Gets Prison On 2 Charges

A 19-year-old Detroit youth was sentenced to from three years, four months, to five years in prison on an attempt breaking and entering charge stemming from his involvement in the break-in of Lochmoor Jewelers, 20926 Mack avenue, in February.

Woods Det. Charles Phillip Hamel reported that Michael Dennis Hudson appeared for sentencing on the charge Monday, May 14, before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge William Giovan.

The youth also was sentenced to from three to five years in prison on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100 stemming from the burglary of the Alaska Fur Factory, 19525 Mack, also in February. He appeared before Circuit Court Judge Michael Stacey for sentencing on this charge.

Det. Hamel said that Hudson wore a fur coat reportedly taken from Alaska during his Woods hearing on the break-in charge and was subsequently charged with receiving and concealing.

Raymond Ivey, 25, of Detroit, who, like Hudson, pled guilty to attempt burglary in the Lochmoor Jewelers case, was placed on probation by Judge Giovan, the detective said.

Another suspect, Keith Garette, 24, who's allegedly involved in the Lochmoor break-in, didn't appear for his court hearing and a capias was recently issued for his arrest.

Park Approves Budget

(Continued from Page 1) City Manager John R. Crawford indicated in a letter to Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and the council that inflation and the energy crisis were two issues facing the administration in preparation of the 1979-80 budget in addition to the Headlee Tax Limitation amendment.

"The counter forces resulting from these conditions create a sort of crunching effect on municipal budgets and fiscal management," Mr. Crawford stated.

The city manager also indicated that wages, which represent the largest segment of the budget, "are calculated at current levels since all union labor contracts expire June 30, 1979."

After the study sessions, the council opted to reduce the proposed 1979-80 budget of $3,750,000 by $125,000 via a decrease in the capital improvement fund.

Items eliminated from that particular fund included a jeep broom, roto mist for elm trees and a salt storage bin.

While the elimination of a jeep broom and a roto mist may not seem important to The Park taxpayer, it does mean that continual deferral of these items will only "compound problems in future years" according to Mr. Crawford.

"Nobody wants to pay increased taxes, but at the same time, we cannot continue to ignore the need for new equipment," Mr. Crawford stated at one budget study session.

The two biggest departmental expenditures reflected in the new budget are police and fire.

Comprising 23 percent of the approved $3.6 million budget is the 32-man police department, with a figure of $827,300, a 3.65 increase over last year's $798,142.

Out of the budgeted $827,300, $10,000 is earmarked for operating the inter-municipal radio system, while $24,000 has been allocated for the Youth Service Division.

The fire department makes up 13 percent of the total budget with a figure of $470,700 out of which $443,000 is marked for salaries for the 21-man department.

The bulk of The Park's estimated revenue of 3.6 million is represented in property taxes of $2.24 million, or about 62 percent of total expected revenue.

Other revenue will come into the city through business licenses, parking meter revenue, building permits and the Windmill Pointe Park concession.

Federal revenue sharing in the amount of $60,000 will help pay for street lighting.

Following is a breakdown of some of the 1979-80 expenditures in the general fund:

- Recreation — $170,600;
- Rubbish Disposal — $368,000;
- Employee Hospitalization Insurance — $130,000;
- Worker's Compensation — $100,000;
- Highway Fund — $82,000;
- Improvement Reserve Fund — $69,000.

Clear Way

The Woods Council on Monday, May 7, unanimously approved a resolution acknowledging the city's obligation to pay 10 percent of the costs of the improvements project, while budgeting and allocating such monies from its Major Street Fund Account when notified by the state Department of Transportation that such action is required.

Then, on Monday, May 21, the council approved certification affidavits for the improvements, authorizing Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos to sign them.

One certifies that the city will comply with federal regulations when acquiring the necessary right-of-way for the project, while the other certifies that the city has complied with federal statutes in the acquisition of necessary right-of-way from the Grosse Pointe School District.

Subject of Borderline Taxpayers Eyed in GPW

Several recommendations from the Citizens Recreation Commission were considered by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7.

The one which received the main attention revolved around park passes for borderline taxpayers, with the city already accomplishing the transfer of properties with The Shores and St. Clair Shores having affected lots assessed in one community only.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said any exchanges with Harper Woods probably won't be settled until the next fiscal year.

Once such transfers occur, borderline taxpayers who are assessed in another community will no longer be eligible for park passes.

At the meeting, the council unanimously passed a motion that all borderline taxpayers, to obtain park passes for the Lake Front Park, must pay a minimum of $70 per year in city property taxes, (as against the current $25 figure), and if such taxpayers pay less than $70, the citizen must pay the difference between the amount of city taxes paid and the $70 sum.

Part of the motion also stipulated that City Attorney George Catlin prepare an amending ordinance to the city code on this subject.

City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher said the municipality has exchanged around 30 pieces of property with St. Clair Shores, (about 15 apiece), and has transferred four pieces to The Shores, while expecting "a couple" the other way next year.

He also noted with the borderline situation that affected cities really gain nothing, indicating that there are now taxpayers who pay only $1.50 in property taxes to the city while it takes over $10 to process each tax form that the community sends out.

Jean Johns of Brys drive, a real estate agent, took issue with the proposal, questioning, if such transfers would reduce property values for affected citizens. She stressed that such citizens should be notified and have some say in any adjustments. The solons indicated affected residents would be notified.

In other action, the commission recommended several improvements for the Ghesquiere Park tennis courts. However, the council referred this subject to the Committee of the Whole for its review and report back to the council.

The commission reviewed the cost estimates of Pate, Hirm and Bogue, Inc., city engineers, and recommended that the magic square courts be removed with the area then landscaped, that six new courts be built in the area of the skating rinks and that two courts be left at the south side of the park.

According to the firm's estimate, the six new courts would cost around $120,000. Meanwhile, landscaping of the magic square would be less than the estimated removal and landscaping cost of $14,500.

On the subject of gaining tax exempt status for the Lake Front Park, the commission agreed that the city shouldn't seek tax exempt status, while also agreeing that the proposal to charge for park entry wasn't a workable solution.

The commission's recommendation on the proposed tax exempt status for the park was unanimously deleted from the council agenda.

Then, on honorary park passes, the commission, after studying the list of 1978 honorary park permits, noted that 31 of the 69 permits were issued to persons classified under "Ford Estate."

The commission recommended that a review of those permits by the solons be ordered, and the solons agreed, referring honorary park permits for the 1979 summer season to the Committee of the Whole.

Finally, on drywell lot storage at the park, the commission recommended that the council continue this procedure at least for this year, and the council concurred.

Dr. Adams will join Mr. Harper and ULS Upper School Assistant Head Marlene David in awarding the contest's 80 prizes.

Mr. Manos will emcee the show, which begins at 10 a.m. on Saturday. The judging will begin promptly at 10:30 a.m. There is a fee of $0.30 for entering a pet in the contest. Registration forms are available at the reception desks at ULS's two campuses, 1045 Cook road and 850 Briarcliff drive.

Admission to the pet show on Saturday is included in the $5 admission charge of $1 for adults and 50 cents for those under 18. The Fair ride tickets are available at a 20 percent discount through Thursday, May 31, at the two ULS campuses and at the Stroh's Ice Cream store On-the-Hill.

The 1979 University Liggett School, (ULS) Fair, to be held Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2, will feature a pet show again this year.

"Detroit News" writer Charlie Manos and Detroit Red Wing defenseman Terry Harper will assist with the event, which offers an opportunity for children to show off their family pets — regardless of size, shape or pedigree.

Panel Cites Bon Secours

Bon Secours Hospital has received the American Hospital Association's Certificate of Recognition which acknowledges Bon Secours' efforts to effectively monitor costs and productivity.

Through participation in a management information program provided by the American Hospital Association, Bon Secours is able to compare costs and productivity with hospitals of comparable size across the nation, state and metropolitan area.

This information, useful in cost management, also provides a statistical basis for long-range planning to meet community needs.

This month Bon Secours will begin utilizing a new American Hospital Association Program, Monitrend, designed to provide even more cost control information.

Property, two, and unlawful driving away of an auto, two, involved 17 male juveniles, one female juvenile and three male adults. Ten cases have been suspended, while two remain under investigation.

Meanwhile, assaults, seven reports, involved five identified male juveniles, five male adults and one female juvenile. All these cases have been cleared.

Four violation of controlled substances cases included three marijuana or hashish incidents and one possible procurement and sale.

Runaways, three reports, involved four boys, two of whom were arrested and transported to the Wayne County Juvenile Home. Two others voluntarily returned to their respective homes.

Sixteen applications for petition filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court, three of which have received court action. Four of the 18 applications for petition filed in March have received court action.

YSD officers also were called upon by the Park Police Department for assistance in the video-taping of an investigative interview.

In class presentations last month, division detectives visited both North and South High School, along with Maire, Richard and Mason Elementary Schools and Brownell Middle School. Topics included "Substance Abuse," "Juvenile Delinquency," "Police Career," "Constitutional Rights," "Adult Courts," "Laws of Arrest" and "Search and Seizure."

Youth Bureau Has Busy Month

A total of 99 reports, one of which proved to be unfounded, were received by the Youth Service Division, (YSD), for investigation last month.

This makes the total case load for the first four months of the year stand at 305, one less than for the same period last year.

Malicious destruction of property, 25 reports, led the list, with 10 male juveniles being identified. Of the 25 cases, 15 have been suspended and three were closed without charge.

Larceny, 17 cases, burglary, four, possession of stolen

GPW Amends Law on Signs

An ordinance defining and prohibiting blinking and animated signs was unanimously approved by the Woods Council at its second reading and final adoption stage on Monday, May 7.

Prior to the new measure, the city's ordinance prohibited both blinking or animated signs, noted City Attorney George Catlin, with the amendment clarifying what constitutes such visuals.

The proposal originally contained, under the definition of blinking, a time span of 120 seconds or less regarding a visual's oscillation, cycling or flashing span. However, this was ultimately deleted, with Councilman John Sabol noting that the time span created an opening for someone to erect a moving sign of some sort.

Under the definition ultimately approved, blinking means the apparent or actual oscillation, cycling or flashing of any sign or portion, whether such apparent or actual oscillation, cycling or flashing is made, created or occasioned by mechanical, optical or electrical means.

Meanwhile, a animated means the actual or apparent movement of any portion of a sign, including replicas or statues of persons, animals and cartoon style characters, whether such replicas or statues contain or appear to contain moving parts or not.

The measure becomes effective 20 days after its enactment date.

Youth Charged in Bike Theft

The examination of a Detroit man charged with larceny from a building was waived for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on Friday.

Mark K. Sackrison, 20, was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge Beverly C. Grobbel on the larceny charge Tuesday, May 8, and was later released on a $2,000 personal bond.

Park police officers Eugene Adamczyk and Andrew Meeker observed Sackrison riding a girl's bicycle very early Tuesday morning near Jefferson avenue and Maryland road.

After checking the registration of the bike, it was discovered that it had been stolen from a Berkshire road home without the owner knowing it was missing.

Center Campaign $4,500 Short of $155,000 Goal

With Memorial Day, Monday, May 28, just four days away, the Center's 1979 Annual Family Participation Campaign is still $4,500 short of the $155,000 goal necessary to operate in the new fiscal year beginning August 1.

While this year's campaign returns have caught up with those of 1978, due to inflation $5,000 more is needed this year than last to balance the budget.

"Some 250 givers of record still have to respond and those who are not givers of record are being encouraged by telephone to participate. No gift is too small, all are appreciated and all are income tax deductible," officials say.

While the Center hopes that the needed monies come in by Memorial Day, gifts will be received after that date and anytime.

The Center is one of the most beautiful facilities in the country with its handsome buildings and beautiful gardens and grounds in their lake side setting, officials note. It costs The Pointe communities nothing, being gifts in perpetuity from the Russell Alger family and William Hayes Fries.

It uses no tax monies and yet is one of the busiest cultural and community centers anywhere, serving over 250,000 people annually. The Center, officials say, provides the finest of meeting places for community groups, offering concerts, theater, lectures, films and exhibits and a host of educational opportunities in class and workshops.

Free hospital equipment is on loan as is blood in case of emergencies and braille transcription and aids to Children's Hospital and cancer patients are effected.

The Center houses bronze plaques to commemorate the service and sacrifice of Pointers in national conflict, but it is much more meaningful than a shaft of stone, according to officials, who note it is a living memorial to honor Pointers who fought and died in the World Wars, Korea and Vietnam.

Memorial Day Service Slated

When Pointers attend the Memorial Day Service Monday, May 28, at 11 a.m. to honor those who fought and died in the World Wars, Korea and Vietnam, they will pay their respects at a brief but meaningful service on the lake side lawn or in the Fries building in case of rain, report Center officials.

They also are assured of a concert by the 4th Marine Air Wing Band which will be flown in the day before the occasion.

With Frank P. McBride Jr., former War Memorial president, acting as master of ceremonies, dignitaries at the service will include Brigadier Gen. Robert S. Raisch, USMCR, assistant wing commander of the 4th Marine Aircraft Wing, and Col. Lawrence R. O'Grady, USMCR, commanding officer, MTU-17, 4th Marine Aircraft Wing.

Others are Leon Burd, commander, Grosse Pointe American Legion Post 303, Edward Krecht and Lawrence Light, commander and past commander, VFW Alger-Hoffman Post 393, and Rev. Allan A. Zaun, chairman, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Veterans Committee and pastor of Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church.

More include the Right Rev. Monsignor Francis X. Canfield, pastor, Saint Paul Roman Catholic Church, John R. Nicholson, president, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, and City Mayor David Robb.

Assisting in the service will be the Auxiliary of VFW Alger-Hoffman Post 393; Boy Scout Troop 156, Christ Church; Girl Scout Junior Troop 124; and the Firing Squad of the U.S. Navy Marine Corps Reserves, Broadhead Naval Armory, and the U.S. Marine Recruiting Station, Detroit.

Mr. Nicholson will give the principal address and Mr. Robb will present the Honor Roll. The Band Concert will be directed by William H. Cox, CWO-4.

Cycle Guide Views Safety

A nine percent jump in motorcycle fatalities in Michigan during 1978 has prompted the Automobile Club of Michigan to mail a 32-page booklet entitled "Guide to Motorcycling" to 12,000 of its members insuring cycles through the organization.

"The purpose of this manual is to help reduce motorcycle accidents by providing information necessary to operate a motorcycle safely," said Auto Club President Richard R. Dann in a news release.

In Michigan, 175 persons were killed and 7,264 injured in motorcycle mishaps in 1978. A cyclist's chance of being killed in traffic was four to seven times greater than a motorist's last year.

In 1975, the Auto Club released "Portrait of a Motorcyclist," a study based on Michigan's motorcycle fatalities.

The report cited youth, alcohol, lack of training and the apparent inability of motorists to see two-wheelers as major reasons for the growing safety problem.

It also showed that motorists were the cause of 40 percent of the fatal mishaps. Three out of four of those accidents were caused by motorists who made left turns in front of oncoming cycles or failed to yield the right-of-way.

"Guide to Motorcycling" stresses being seen and looking for trouble while riding in traffic. Some of the safety tips include:

- Keep the headlight on at all times. One study shows that during the day motorcycles become up to one and a half times more noticeable to oncoming drivers when the headlight is on.
- Wear bright colored clothing and reflective helmets. Yellow, orange and red are the most noticeable colors.
- Use the horn in a potentially dangerous situation. In case you can't be seen, be heard.
- Try to ride where you can see the rearview mirror of the car ahead and don't ride in another driver's "blind spot."
- Look ahead to check the road surface for slippery spots, bad bumps, broken pavement, loose gravel, wet leaves or objects lying in the road.
- Check rearview mirrors every few seconds especially when slowing down, changing lanes, turning or stopping suddenly.
- Keep at least two seconds distance between the vehicle ahead and move from one side of the lane to another to increase lateral distance.
- Don't share lanes with a car or drive between rows of stopped vehicles.
- Reduce speeds on slippery, uneven, sloping, grooved or grated surfaces.

Programs Set To Aid Students

The Grosse Pointe Learning Center, 63 Kercheval avenue, was founded to assist the needs of the "Individual Student." The faculty includes certified teachers, many having advanced degrees in their respective fields, with the center providing services to those students with academic problems.

Educational therapists offer a detailed and prescriptive program of study to facilitate the special needs of each student. The philosophy of the center is based on the premise that each student has the right to succeed.

The center was established to assist the classroom teacher and extend services to those students who need extra help outside the classroom situation.

The summer programs at the Learning Center for grades one through 12 include developmental Reading, a Math Clinic and special programs designed for Language, Writing and Organizational Skills.

Summer programs are for six weeks beginning Monday, June 25, and ending August 2. For further information, call 343-0836 or 881-8281.

Robber Takes $597 in Woods

A total of $597 was taken from an employe at Little Caesar's, 19619 Mack avenue, early Sunday morning, May 20, by a knife-wielding man as the woman was closing for the night.

The employe told Woods police as she was locking the front door, with a gold cosmetic case containing the night deposit drop bag in her hand, she was approached by the suspect who carried a knife approximately six inches long.

After demanding, and taking the money, he entered an older model black over blue vehicle which went south on Mack toward Morris road.

The suspect was described as black, around 6' tall, about 220 pounds and wearing blue jeans and a light blue, ripped shirt. The driver of the vehicle was reported to be a black male.

In such cases where employes lock up for the night and are planning to make a deposit, police advise contacting the department ahead of time so arrangements may be made for an escort.

Of all the things you wear, your expression is most important.

GPW Okays Pool Repairs

Concrete walk repairs around the Lake Front Park swimming pool received the unanimous approval of the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7. It was pointed out that such work would have to be done before Macomb County inspectors visit the park.

Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann in a memo to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the walk around the pool has been settling for the last year. At the present time, in many areas, it has settled to a distance of one and a half inches, leaving a sharp edge around the pool.

Pate, Hirn and Bogue, Inc., city engineers, felt the sharp edge should be ground off. The firm has at this time Cougar Cutting Products, Inc., of Livonia, who will do the work for $750.

After grinding work is done, the gap should be filled in with a rubber compacting compound, Conco Midwest, Inc., of Little Rock, Ark., will sandblast and clean the 1,311 feet of area to be caulked for $2,753.10 including the caulking, Mr. Hallmann said. The rubber caulking is recommended by the city engineers.

John DeBusscher of Pate, Hirn and Bogue isn't certain how much more the concrete around the pool will settle, but he does feel that in the future some portions of the concrete walkway will need to be replaced, added Mr. Hallmann.

BARR PROMOTED
Woods resident Leonard J. Barr II has been named vice-president and senior investment officer at Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. Mr. Barr of Hollywood avenue attended Wayne State University and Detroit College of Business. He is a member of the Financial Analysts Society of Detroit.

RURAL LIVING RISKY

Last year an estimated 5,400 farm and ranch residents were killed and another 480,000 disabled from work, home, recreation and traffic accidents. The cost was almost $4 billion.

Using Solar Energy...

Come see how Detroit Edison is using the sun's energy to heat space and water in its experimental Jubilee Solar Home.

Visit the Jubilee Solar Home and see how Detroit Edison is experimenting with the sun's natural energy to help keep your future bright.

Fortunately, Detroit Edison customers have plenty of electric power available. Today, and many years into the future. It's a result of a lot of planning, development and investment and the fact that more than 84 percent of Detroit Edison's power is generated from coal, our nation's most abundant fuel. The balance is generated by other fossil fuels.

Looking far ahead, Detroit Edison is conducting research on other energy sources that may prove to be practical in our geographic area. While it may be some time before solar energy developments make possible economical applications for people's homes, the Jubilee Solar Home already will have begun to determine if the sun's energy may someday be a useful replacement for the oil and natural gas now used for heating so that these fuels may be saved for other uses where only they will do.

The Jubilee Solar Home looks like a traditional house. But if you walk around to the back you'll see the solar collectors on the roof. Heat from the sun is captured by the collectors, stored in the water, then distributed by air to heat the home. Solar-heated water also warms water for bathing, laundering and cleaning. Solar energy is expected to fulfill 20 to 30 percent of the space heating requirements and 80 to 90 percent of the water heating requirements.

On days when the sun doesn't shine or when more heat is needed, an energy-efficient heat pump moves the natural heat, always present in the outdoor air, inside the home. Electric elements provide additional heat as required. In warm weather, the heat pump reverses automatically for energy-efficient air conditioning.

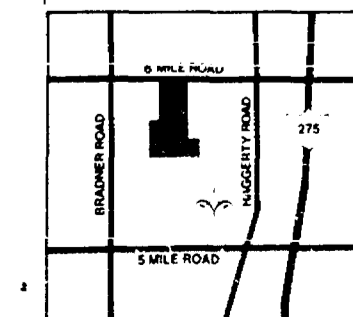

The Jubilee Solar Home is exceptionally well insulated to keep heat inside in winter and to make air conditioning more efficient in summer. All doors and windows, and even the fireplace, are designed to be energy efficient.

When you visit the Jubilee Solar Home, be sure to examine some of the new ideas in electric appliances and lighting selected for energy efficiency, convenience and safety. And note the interior lighting and outdoor security lighting system, designed to use little electricity.

Detroit Edison's Jubilee Solar Home was built by Fred Greenspan Development Corporation in cooperation with the Builders Association of Southeastern Michigan.

Keeping plenty of power in your hands.

GPW Approves Park Requests

Two requests for utilization of the Lake Front Park were unanimously approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7.

One was from Reginald Sienkiewicz, director, special education services, public school system, and the other was from Shirley A. Callahan of the Grosse Pointe Cooperative Nursery.

"We are planning to continue in the summer of 1979 the recreation program for retarded children in our community which has been held every summer since 1966," said Mr. Sienkiewicz. "If you will recall, you graciously consented to permit these children to use your wonderful park and pool facilities, (in past years), at specified times during the few weeks of the program."

Many of the youngsters enrolled in the program are Woods residents, and he requested park and pool usage from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon on the following dates: June 22, 25 and 29, July 2, 6, 9, 13, 16, 20, 23, 27 and 30 and August 3.

Meanwhile, the cooperative nursery requested a special pass for the park on June 1 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. for its spring picnic.

It was pointed out that 75 percent of the mothers and children involved in the nursery are Woods residents, with the remaining 25 percent residing in the other Pointes.

Holiday Traffic Record Predicted

Approximately 77 percent of Michigan service stations along major tourist routes and 48 percent in the Detroit area plan to operate during the Memorial Day holiday to serve motorists expected to log a record 722 million miles in the state, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Auto Club's survey of 300 outstate stations showed 230 planning to operate. The remaining 70 were uncommitted, citing the uncertainty of gasoline supplies.

Forty-eight of 100 Detroit-area stations checked plan to operate. The other 52 also were uncommitted because of the gasoline situation.

Last year, motorists set a record of 720 million miles travelled on Michigan roads during the 78-hour Memorial Day weekend.

"Early indications point to another travel record in 1979," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager. He predicts a mileage increase of 3 percent over last year. "Travel inquiries from our members are up more than four percent in the first quarter of this year and requests for Michigan Tour Books are up almost six percent over last year," he explained.

Department of State Highways and Transportation figures for the first three months of 1979 show a six percent increase in statewide travel over a year ago.

The Memorial Day weekend is the year's first big travel weekend, and Auto Club urges drivers to use extra caution on Michigan roads to help continue the downward trend of traffic deaths for this holiday. Last Memorial Day, 25 persons were killed on state highways compared to 31 in 1977 and 34 in 1976.

Alcohol was a major factor in last year's Memorial Day weekend deaths, with 55 percent of the 22 at-fault drivers either known or suspected to have been drinking. Approximately 60 percent of the fatal mishaps occurred within 25 miles of drivers' homes.

For the 15th consecutive year, Auto Club's "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" Holiday News Service will provide hourly traffic and tourism bulletins to 160 Michigan radio stations. The service, designed to aid motorists, will operate Friday, May 25, from 3 to 11 p.m. and on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 26 to 28, from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Hours for the 230 outstate stations planning to operate show the following:

Friday—100 percent open daylight hours, 45 percent after 9 p.m. and 14 percent after midnight.

Saturday—100 percent open daylight hours, 43 percent after 9 p.m. and 13 percent after midnight.

Sunday—73 percent open daylight hours, 37 percent after 9 p.m. and 13 percent after midnight.

Monday—88 percent open daylight hours, 40 percent after 9 p.m. and 13 percent after midnight.

Hours for the 48 Detroit-area stations planning to operate show the following:

Friday—100 percent open daylight hours, 46 percent after 9 p.m. and 27 percent after midnight.

Saturday—83 percent open daylight hours, 38 percent after 9 p.m. and 25 percent after midnight.

Sunday—52 percent open daylight hours, 35 percent after 9 p.m. and 29 percent after midnight.

Monday—54 percent open daylight hours, 35 percent after 9 p.m. and 23 percent after midnight.

Aircraft Club Cites Pingel

The fifth Aercraft Club Directors' Award was presented to Pointer John S. Pingel, president of Ross Roy, Inc., at the club's recent luncheon meeting at the Troy Hilton.

Before making the presentation to Mr. Pingel, Aercraft Club President Jack Ryan said, "Aercraft Club Directors Awards are not handed out promiscuously. Only four persons have received them until today. They are Ross Roy, Ernie Jones, Tom Adams and Dave Gillespie.

"The award is simply a way of telling the recipient that the Aercraft Club board is aware of what he has accomplished and that we commend him for it," Mr. Ryan continued.

The plaque reads: "The Aercraft Club of Detroit Directors' Award is presented periodically to persons whose outstanding personal achievements have reflected honor and distinction upon the Detroit advertising community.

"By unanimous vote of the board of directors, this award is hereby conferred upon John S. Pingel, in recognition of his 19-year association with Ross Roy, Inc., during which he has made significant contributions to his community and to the American advertising industry, through his activities with a number of prominent organizations."

Nix Occupancy In Mack Avenue

Petitions containing over 70 signatures in opposition to a proposed occupancy at 20331 Mack avenue by Mr. C's Deli was unanimously received and placed on file by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7. Merchants and citizens, in wanting the city to take such action "as may be deemed necessary" to prevent such occupancy, cited insufficient parking facilities, littering with refuse of the surrounding area "by customers attendant of a fast-food establishment" and an objection to the transfer of a beer or wine license to Mr. C's Deli.

At this time, it was pointed out that Mr. C's Deli had not moved into the aforementioned location and, in fact, were considering another spot.

In a related matter, the council unanimously denied an SDM license, (permitting the sale of beer and wine for consumption off the premises only), from 21016 Mack avenue, (Cheese and Wine Basket), to 20331 Mack for the reason that the new location fails to comply with zoning ordinance requirements, i.e., insufficient parking.

The motion also stipulated that the Liquor Control Commission be so notified.

Pointers Named Merit Scholars

Seven Pointe high school students have been selected recipients of National Merit Seniorships based upon their performance on a nationwide testing program.

Winning a college-sponsored, four-year scholarship to Wesleyan University was Elizabeth F. Jones of Stephans road, a University Liggett school student who is a member of the school's Cum Laude Society, Jazz Ensemble, Choral Society and Science Club.

Winners of $1,000 National Merit Scholarships are Michael G. O'Bryan of Rivard road, a South High student who plans to study pre-law; Debby M. Stalker of Lakeland avenue, a Phillips Exeter Academy student who plans to study creative writing; and Carole F. Ruwart of Downing lane, a South High engineering student.

Others winning $1,000 scholarships were William Fleischmann of Lakeshore road, Richard D. Zenn of Prestwick road and Edward A. Boesiger of Danbury road.

FARMS AAA

By Phil Frame
To say that Denver cruised through its first-half schedule in the Grosse Pointe Farms AAA League would be an understatement. "Blitzed" would be a better word to use.

Denver remained undefeated and won its sixth straight game Saturday, May 19, pulling away from an 8-8 tie with an 11-run fifth inning to beat Newark, 19-8.

John Birch led Denver's attack with three hits, one a triple, and teammate Vann Fleming went two for two with a three-bagger. Scott Frame was three-for-three with a double and a triple and Mark Gall and Phil Rahm had two hits for Newark.

Louisville, (1-4), became the only team to hold Denver to single-figure scoring all season Tuesday, May 15, but still lost to the leaders. 8-2, Jed Reghani and Joel Palombo had two hits for Newark, while Brian Wagner had Louisville's only hit. Reghani, Palombo and Bill

VanDerWyngaard each pitched two innings and combined for 15 strikeouts.

While there was good news for Denver, there also was good news for Phoenix, which went into last week's action without a victory. Phoenix won both of its games last week, beating Portland, 14-7, on Wednesday, May 16, and Hollywood, 20-2, on May 19.

Pahl Zinn was the star in both games, leading Phoenix (2-3), with two doubles and a single against Portland and going two-for-three with a three-run homer, (his first) against Hollywood, (1-4). Peter Riley went three-for-three for Portland in Wednesday's game and Frank Buti had Hollywood's only hit on Saturday.

Liz Sutherland's double, triple and four RBI's led Hawaii to a 13-6 victory over Newark on Monday, May 14. Kirk Haggarty tripled for Newark.

However, Hawaii's luck didn't hold up May 19, as it lost to Portland, (3-2), 9-3. Riley continued his hot hitting for Portland, going three-for-three for the second-straight game. Mike Donath, Kevin Monahan and Mike Kozak each had two hits for Portland, while Sutherland and Bill Reuther had two apiece for Hawaii, (3-2).

FARMS CLASS C

By Dave Shrake

Syracuse reported two losses this week, dropping the first to Albany, 19-9. Syracuse was victimized by excellent pitching and hitting from the Albany team. On the mound for Albany were Taras Gracey and Joe Mooney, who combined to strike out 12, walked 14 and allowed only two singles, by Mike Shrake and Jeff Hayes.

On the mound for Syracuse for five innings was veteran Mike Calcaterra, who walked 10, struck out 13 and allowed eight hits. Among those hits were Mooney's two home runs and a double and Gracey's homerun and single.

Collecting doubles were Rick Weithas and Dan Monahan. On Saturday, May 19, Syracuse was blanked by Richmond, 10-0. Excellent Richmond pitching struck out 14 and allowed three walks and two hits.

Syracuse rookies Hayes and Bill Leonard collectively pitched only nine innings, walked 14 and allowed seven hits, all singles. Joe Agle, Scott Fleming and D. J. Honstain had two each.

Miami scored its second win on Saturday by putting the breaks on league leading Albany, 10-6. It was Albany's first loss. Gordy Maitland and Bill Huntington each pitched three innings for

ULS Nine Tied for First After Five Straight Wins

The University Liggett School, (ULS), baseball team won five straight games last week to increase its season record to 15-1. Liggett is currently tied for first place in the Metro Conference with Harper Woods High School.

The Knights began the week by defeating Lutheran North, 4-1, in a defensive struggle. Each team had only two hits, but Pete Worcester drove home two runs for Liggett with a two-run triple. Jack Roberts pitched four perfect innings in recording his fifth win for ULS.

Hamtramck Immaculate Conception proved to be no match for the booming bats of the Knights as the final score was 15-2. John Hindle and Tom Hastings homered for ULS as the team rapped out 15 hits in five innings.

Roberts, Mike Malloch and Worcester each had two hits. Junior Jeff Karash pitched three hitless innings to record his second win of the season.

ULS then pushed across a run in the bottom of the eighth inning to edge past Lutheran West, 3-2. West led 2-0 for five innings, but Liggett rallied to tie the game in the bottom of the sixth inning.

Kevin Wohlfield pitched six strong innings before giving way to Roberts who picked up his sixth win of the season. Hindle drove in one run and scored two others including the game winner when an errant throw eluded Lutheran West's centerfielder.

Liggett's arch-rival, Detroit Country Day, was humbled for the second time this year as the Knights won the five inning game, 17-2. The Knights pounded out 12 hits and benefitted from 10 Country Day errors.

Allen Taber blasted a grand slam homer and Wohlfield added a three-run round-tripper. Karash recorded his third triumph in this lopsided affair.

Finally, ULS survived a first inning three-run spree by Servite and went on to post a 6-3 win in the state tournament pre-district round. Liggett rallied for three runs in the sixth inning to put the game out of reach.

Karash homered for ULS to tie the game in the fifth. Roberts went the distance, raising his record to 7-1.

ULS will play Wyandotte Mount Carmel in an away game on Friday, May 25, in the second game of the pre-district round of the state tournament. Directions to the field are available by calling the ULS Athletic Office at 884-4444.

Club Spikers Hold Playoffs

The Neighborhood Club men's Power Volleyball Tournament finals were held last week at Brownell Middle School.

The teams were equally matched but the Armadillos came out ahead, defeating Brook Bar three games to one in a best of five games match. It was a close match all the way with two games going into overtime.

The 1978 tournament final had the same two teams playing against each other with Brook Bar winning.

This season had 11 teams participating, with each team playing seven regular season games. All teams were invited to the post season double elimination tournament.

The regular season ended with a three-way tie for first place, Brook Bar, Wolverine Oil Company and the Spikers all had 6-1 marks. Second place was held by Battzes Electric Dutch Masters and The Armadillos. Both teams had a 5-2 record.

They were followed by The Jocks, 4-4, Sibley Lumber Snarks, 3-4, Dandy Bar and Watusi, 2-5, and McMillan Office Outfitters and the Coneheads, 0-7.

ULS Netters Win Regionals

University Liggett School's number one ranked tennis power, scored a perfect 28 points to win the state tennis regionals last weekend. It marked the 13th time in the last 14 years that ULS has won the regionals and the second year in a row they have won all seven flights.

Individual winners for ULS were Paul Van Walleghem, number one singles; Kris Robbins, number two singles; Drew Mascarin, number three singles; Gar Knight, number four singles; Doug Rose and George Peck, number one doubles; Matthias Oertle and Jason Ekelman, number two doubles; and Tim Finkenstaedt and John Doerger, number three doubles.

ULS has one dual match remaining with Flint Southwestern and then it's on to defend their state title on Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2. ULS has won the last seven state championships and 10 of the last 13.

Schools Slate Many Activities

A variety of activities is available to school district residents through the Grosse Pointe Schools' Department of Community Services.

Programs in basketball, gymnastics, track and wrestling will begin Monday, June 18. A gym-swim-crafts program for Learning Disabled students and those in Adjusted Learning Programs also is scheduled for June 25 through July 27.

Informational flyers and detailed schedules may be obtained at the public libraries or by calling 343-2160.

Small talk is not necessarily confined to small occasions.

GP Swim Club Ends Season

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club was represented by two master swimmers at the 1979 Masters Swimming Championships at Lansing Community College late last month.

In the 50- to 54-year age group, Dave Howell took first place in the 200-yard and the 50-yard breaststroke events. His effort in the 200-yard breaststroke lowered the state record by five seconds.

Greg Boerner was fourth in the 200-yard and fifth in the 100-yard freestyle events in the 25 through 29 age group. Greg and his brother, Mark, won the consanguineous relay trophy. This award is given to a related person relay team which places first based on a weighted scoring for age and speed.

The state championships conclude the indoor season for this year. The Masters Swimming Program will resume in the fall and will again be looking for new serious swimmers, particularly those interested in competing in the various masters swim meets.

Many parents who bear their children, aiming to correct them, too often miss their aim.

FARMS-CITY MAJORS

The Yankees overcame their first place with three wins last week including a thrilling come from behind victory over Pioneer of the Woods in the first inter-league game. The Indians are one half game back with a 4-2 record.

The Red Sox, at 3-2, and Tigers, at 3-3, trail close behind. The White Sox are winless in five games.

The Yankees went into the bottom of the seventh trailing 8-3 and came up with six runs to win, 9-8. John Strabel tripled to drive in two runs and pinch-hitter Dave Christofferson drove in the tying run with a single. A walk to Mark Brooks with the bases loaded brought in Garry Lange with the winning run.

Rookie John Foran was the winning pitcher. Foran was driven off the mound in the fifth as Pioneer scored five runs but came back in to pitch the seventh inning and get credit for the win. Foran and Strabel of the Yankees and Dave Babcock and Dave Wittwer of Pioneer each collected two hits.

The Yankees downed the Red Sox, 6-1, on Tuesday, May 15, as Dave Fitzgerald struck out nine and gave up only two hits for his first win. Strabel with three hits and Foran with two led the Yankee hitting attack. Fitzgerald was helped by his defense that turned in three double plays.

The Yankees defeated the White Sox, 9-3, as Strabel and Foran led the hitting with two hits each. Rick Parsons at second and outfielders Beau Burton and Scott White turned in outstanding defensive plays. Mike Downs of the White Sox came in for relief after the Yankees scored eight runs in the second and pitched five good innings.

The Indians downed the Red Sox, 6-1, on Thursday, May 12, behind the six-hit pitching of Dave Weinkle. Rookie Mike Wilds of the Indians and Fred Chave of the Red Sox picked up three hits each. Good defensive play by John Cook and Rich Suhr-heinrich in the outfield helped Weinkle in several tight situations as the Red Sox stranded 13 runners on base.

Dave Dysert went the distance to pick up his first win as the Indians defeated the White Sox, 8-4, on Saturday, May 19. Tom Keane of the Indians and Gordy Farquhar of the White Sox each collected three hits.

The Red Sox went eight innings to beat the Tigers, 5-4, on May 19. Brad Lange's single in the top of the eighth drove in the winning run. Mike Palazzolo went the full eight innings for his third win of the season to lead the league in wins. Palazzolo and Dave Chamberlin of the Red Sox and Dan Doyle of the Tigers each had two hits.

The Tigers defeated the Indians, 6-2, on Monday, May 14, as rookie Mike Hall went the distance for his first win. Dan Doyle picked up three hits and Don Keller, Chris Treiber and Tom Pierce of the Tigers and Mike Connell of the Indians each hit safely twice.

FARMS-CITY ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Brewers held on to first place by remaining undefeated at 4-0. The Angels are 3-1, followed by the Rangers at 3-2. The Twins dropped to fourth at 2-3 followed by the A's at 1-3-1 and the Reds at 0-4-1.

The Rangers won both their games last week. On Monday, May 14, they defeated the A's, 10-7 with a 10-hit attack and some excellent relief pitching by Greg Restum. Ranger starter Skip Waterfall tired in the sixth and Restum slammed the door on an A's rally with two strikeouts after walking in a run.

The Rangers' Tom Persing and Paul Naimish each had two hits. Rusty Trivillian had two doubles for the A's.

In spite of the 10-7 score there were several excellent defensive plays. John Benz of the Rangers made a great catch of Paul Nelson's liner in the third to quell an A's rally. The A's executed two pickoffs and a double play. The Rangers picked up their third victory of the season by a 19-6 score over the Reds on Saturday, May 19. Paul Naimish got the win with assistance from Joe McAlister. The Reds' Hal Brown made two excellent catches in rightfield and Jamie Burke of the Rangers played an outstanding game at short.

The Brewers squeaked by the Twins in a 12-11 see-saw thriller Tuesday, May 15, at Elworthy Field. The Brewers' Dave Crockenberg and Twins' Scott McCarty were locked in a 2-2 pitchers duel until the Twins rallied for four runs in the bottom of the fourth, featuring a two-run triple by Clay Vandenburg.

The Brewers tied the score at six all with four runs in the fifth inning on key hits by Sean McGillen, Karl Doelle and Gilder Jackson. The Twins promptly took the lead again with two runs in their fifth inning. The Brewers scored four in their sixth but the gritty Twins tied it again with two runs in their sixth.

The Brewers scored two in the seventh and the final Twins rally fell one short of sending the game to extra innings. Dave Crockenberg had a perfect day at the plate with three hits and two walks.

The A's won their first game of the season on Thursday, May 17, by a 12-8 score over the Twins at South High field. Paul Nelson gained the victory with a save going to Emery Audretsch. The A's jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first by taking advantage of Twins starter Mike Donnelly's wildness and a RBI single by Nelson.

The A's increased their lead with two runs in the second when Brian Withers contributed a key double. The Twins closed the gap to 6-5 in the third when John MacLeod unloaded a grand slam home run.

The ball stopped rolling nearly 400 feet from home plate in deep right center field. The Twins tied the score in the sixth on singles by Scott McCarty and MacLeod.

Audretsch relieved Nelson with the bases loaded and shut out the Twins for the next two innings. The A's put the game away in the sixth on a four-run rally which featured a key RBI single by Dave DeWalls.

The Angels won their only game this week when they scored 11 runs in the fifth inning for a 13-10 victory over the Reds on Wednesday, May 16, at Kerby field.

Woods Seeks Drain Funds

The Woods Council at its regular meeting unanimously approved a resolution for presentation to Charles N. Youngblood, Wayne County drain commissioner and chairman of Grosse Pointe Woods Drain No. 1, to enable the city to receive all funds in the drainage district.

Such funds will then be deposited in the Drainage Debt Fund to help reduce the tax rate for next year, said City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher.

In the measure, the city requests and petitions the Grosse Pointe Woods Drain No. 1 Drainage Board to relinquish jurisdiction of the No. 1 Drain and the No. 1 Drainage District to the city.

It also notes that the council, on behalf of the city, agrees that upon transfer of the jurisdiction of the drain and the drainage district, it will assume the maintenance, jurisdiction, control and operation of the drain.

The resolution will be presented to Mr. Youngblood for further action and consideration and for the return of any surplus monies in the drainage district's drain fund, pursuant to provisions of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan of 1956, as amended.

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
In a recent NEWS "Know Your Schools" report, Superintendent (Dr. William Coats) points with seeming pride to the schools' accomplishments in career education.

Knowledgeable individuals are not impressed. The legislature passed the Career Education Act, (P.A. 97), on May 7, 1974. This mandated that "Beginning with the 1975-6 school year each local education agency shall have a comprehensive Career Education plan..." This plan was supposed to be in effect the following school year.

Consequently, the superintendent's statement that "several teachers of the early elementary school grades and staff members from middle and junior high schools have not been meeting, (this year) ... to develop instructional activities" does not convey the impression of blinding speed in development.

(As a point of information, the Michigan plan provides for self-awareness activities in the elementary grades, career awareness activities in the middle grades and career decision-making activities in the upper grades.)

Further, career education activities should be designed so that they permeate the entire curriculum and not be taught entirely as separate units. Therefore, the establishment of Career Resource Centers — though laudable — is not enough.

All teachers should be helped to recognize the importance of career development so that they may, as the Michigan Department of Education recommends, "infuse" career education into the curriculum.

Career decision-making is hardly touched on by the superintendent. This should be carried out both in classroom groups and in conferences with guidance counselors — who, unfortunately, are saddled with many quasi-administrative duties such as attendance.

Let the reader in this college-oriented community make the mistake of thinking that career education is synonymous with vocation education, let me point out that 850,000 students drop out of four-year colleges annually — most of them because of problems related to lack of direction and career choice.

I have yet to see, by the way, a comprehensive follow-up study of Grosse Pointe high school graduates, the type that should be reported to citizens annually.

Yours truly,
George E. Leonard

To the Editor:
When May comes to Michigan, we all rejoice in its beauty, in the vivid green of lawns, the delicate tracery of misting green branches and in the special joy of flowering trees.

Each year we are treated anew to the glorious explosions of color from our crab apples and every year I think it is due to the garden clubs program of selling them at a reasonable price that we are the beneficiaries of all this beauty.

I have observed Grosse Pointe is unique in its concentration of flowering crabs. Because so many of each variety were sold, it gives continuity to the landscape which makes the Grosse Pointes one single garden by the shores of our beautiful inland sea.

I would like to express my appreciation to the garden clubs for this happy achievement.

Sincerely,
Marion Tousey,

What Goes On in Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Pottery making is the oldest surviving craft practiced by man, except for the making of weapons.

The earliest technique for making pottery, invented about 5,000 B.C., was the freehand forming of a vessel from a lump of clay. A later development was the coil technique, whereby the pot was built up from a number of strands of clay. Near the end of the fourth millennium B.C. the potter's wheel was invented.

Today the basic techniques of pottery making developed thousands of years ago are still in common use.

Three of many excellent books on the art of pottery making that are on the public library shelves include POTTERY ON THE WHEEL, (Farrar, Strauss and Giroux, 1975), by Elisabeth S. Woody. The author teaches ceramics and also maintains her own studio in New Jersey.

The only topic covered in this book is the techniques of throwing ceramic forms on the wheel. It is intended for the beginning potter working at home or in the classroom.

It tells and shows in clear language and over 250 explicit photographs every step of the way from clay to a finished product. All of the photographs was done by Steven Smalcker, a freelance photographer.

Glenn C. Nelson is author of the fourth edition of CERAMICS, (Holt, 1978). This book is intended as a basic how-to manual for the beginning and intermediate potter, as well as a reference source for the more sophisticated craftsman.

While the main focus of the book is on ceramic technique, photographs both in color and black and white of masterworks by past and contemporary artists from around the world show the myriad possibilities inherent in the art.

Penland School of Crafts is located in the mountains of North Carolina. The school offers creative instruction in the major craft areas, taught by residents and visiting instructors among the finest in the world. In the book THE PENLAND SCHOOL OF CRAFTS BOOK OF POTTERY, (Bobbs-Merrill, 1975), the artist-craftsmen of Penland reveal their pottery techniques.

YSD Is Worth The Cost

The Youth Service Division, (YSD), will continue in its present form with four officers for at least another year as the bureau's board of managers approved the division's 1979-80 fiscal year budget last week. (See story, Page 1).

That's good news, not only for the YSD per se, but most of all for the total community.

Despite some differences, on the sharing of costs and the method of allocation used, between members of the board of managers, (including all Ponite city managers and a School Board representative), now and in the past, the managers are to be commended for continuing the YSD for another year.

This doesn't mean in future years that the division's budget will be approved or that the bureau will remain as it is today regarding manpower or, for that matter, (a chilling thought), that it will exist at all.

During the exchanges which occurred at the meeting, it was apparent that a feeling which surfaced, perhaps more so on the parts of some members than others, was that deep down none of the managers truly wanted to see the YSD completely wiped out. Granted, while this is a subjective reaction on the NEWS' part and impossible to totally document, the feeling did appear.

The division's primary objective when it became fully operational in August 1970 was to combat a growing drug abuse problem among Ponite youth. However, in ensuing years, it has evolved and developed to meet a wide variety of youth-oriented needs.

While investigating and attacking juvenile-oriented crime remains a main objective, the YSD has become, as a natural outgrowth of its creation, a preventive and educational force, (both actually go hand-in-hand), in the community.

A question was raised at the managers' meeting on the possibility of pinpointing what the cost per case would be to any participating municipality. The answer was that this would be difficult, if not impossible, to determine. The NEWS feels, despite many tangible and known plus factors, that the same holds true for the total value of the YSD operation, with its emphasis upon one-on-one contact.

Despite two critical years of discussion and debate over the division's proposed budget, there has been no identified groundswell of support in the community for the bureau's continuance, a point cited by Woods City Administrator Chester B. Petersen, YSD coordinator. The NEWS believes such support is there among certain organizations and individuals, who may very well be talking in their own inner circles as against contacting their own local officials or sending "letters to the editor" on the issue.

(One exception is the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe. See this week's "letters" column.) Then, again, perhaps many in the community don't really care if the division exists or not.

The NEWS, like the board of managers, should know more later this year when members again are scheduled to hold meetings to determine if the YSD continues as it is today, is reduced in scope or is completely phased out.

At this time, board members feel the division is worth the cost and the NEWS agrees. However, what the future holds is an unknown factor at this time.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

For the past few weeks I have been using these columns to explain the nature of several committees working in various areas of the instructional program. The final column in this series is about our Professional Study Committee, or PSC as it is more commonly known.

The Board of Education and professional staff recognize that the instructional program and related matters need continuing study and improvement. Joining together in PSC for this purpose, teacher representatives and members of the administrative staff cooperatively study issues assisting the Board to bring about desirable changes and innovations in teaching methods and techniques, class composition and other curriculum issues.

Each of the faculties of our 15 schools and the Department of Special Education have a representative on PSC. Meeting with these teachers are Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent for instruction, and members of his administrative team.

Other members of our staff and resource persons from educational institutions and the community also meet with PSC when issues related to their areas of responsibility and expertise are being studied.

PSC meetings are held once each month of the school year and are conducted by co-chairpersons, one administrator and one teacher representative. In these meetings periodic reviews of curriculum areas are conducted; suggestions for school system instructional goals and objectives are made; instructional materials and methods are studied; new courses and units are considered; results of testing measurement, and evaluation programs are discussed; and instructional research is reviewed.

Members of PSC are responsible to communicate in-

GPB Won't Cut Big Water Bill

The Farms Council on Monday, May 7, turned down a request from two realtors that it agree to a settlement of a $924 water bill resulting when a home in Kenwood court was left vacant for about a year between owners.

Instead, the council voted to send a letter to all area realtors explaining the need to make a final reading before closing.

The present owners of the home, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hartmann, were stuck with the huge bill because the brokers involved in the sale, Strongman and Associates and Higbie-Maxon, did not have The Farms make a final reading at the house before closing on it.

The bill was apparently the result of a leak that went undetected for a year because meter readers were unable to get inside while unoccupied.

The former owner, Gary Barbeau, now living in Texas, had offered to pay 50 percent of the bill, or $554. Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman moved that this settlement be accepted, saying the matter called for "some leniency" since "the ones who get hit are always the ones who stay in our city."

Several councilmen, however, pointed out the cost of the bill would be shared by city taxpayers if not paid, since the city is billed by Detroit for sewage charges which represent over half the water bill.

Mrs. Waugaman's motion failed, 6-1.

City Controller Carrol Lock suggested that realtors should be sure to have a reading taken before closing, a practice which apparently is not adhered to in the Pointes.

Schools Ready for Summer

Many opportunities for students to review basic skills and become involved in various enrichment activities are available in the 1979 Summer School program scheduled by the public school system from June 25 through July 27.

Information about the classes and activities is contained in a brochure mailed to residents of the school district earlier this month.

Elementary classes reviewing basics and enrichment activities from computer math to creative writing are available for students entering grades two through six. Middle school review classes also are offered, as are several special-interest activities. In addition, instrumental and vocal music classes are scheduled for both elementary and middle school students.

At the high school and adult levels several classes are offered for review credit in English, mathematics and social studies, while other classes in several subjects are available for enrichment credit. Six day mini-courses are planned for all levels to provide intensive instruction in several basic skills and enrichment areas from August 14 through 23.

Driver and special education classes and a variety of sports programs have also been scheduled by the schools for the summer months. Information about those activities can be obtained by calling 343-2178 or 343-2160.

Junior class members selected president Deborah Wade, vice-president Kurt Buhler, treasurer Patricia Clark and secretary Margaret Mercier.

Leading the sophomore class will be president Diane Crea, vice-president Kathleen Keith, treasurer Joseph Yott and secretary Dawn McCloud.

Woods Okays 'Blinking' Sign

A request from Standard Federal Savings, 19700 Mack avenue, for authority to install a ground sign with time and temperature attachment in front of its branch was approved by the Woods Council via a 4-2 vote.

A variance from the city's sign ordinance was needed because the sign was considered to be animated or "blinking."

With this action, taken by the solons at their Monday, May 7, meeting, Standard Federal becomes the second institution in the community to receive permission for such a visual.

Colonial Federal Savings and Loan Association on March 19 received the council's approval to install a time-temperature sign at its new branch at 20589 Mack avenue.

No citizen spoke in opposition to Standard Federal's request at the hearing while Dr. Edward L. Wallace, who owns property abutting Standard Federal's, spoke in favor of the visual.

As it turned out, the council gave its approval to a time-temperature cycle of 15 seconds, i.e., changes will occur four times a minute, similar to the cycle granted Colonial Federal.

It also was pointed out by Standard Federal representatives that the building will shield the illumination from residential property and that the institution will probably turn the cycle off around the midnight hour.

Voting for Councilman Thomas Fahrner's motion were Councilmen George Cucter, George S. Freeman and Robert E. Novitke, while Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilman John Sabol voted in opposition. Councilman Dan Grady was excused from the meeting.

For Clara Brucker, of Vendome road, Easter is special in Washington, D.C.

Clara is—as you know—the widow of The Honorable Wilber M. Brucker, former Governor of Michigan, Secretary of the Army from 1955 to 1961, Grandmaster of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States the year before his death.

He's buried in Arlington National Cemetery where, each year, Knights Templar from all over the country participate in the Easter Sunrise Service.

Clara likes to be there as the Knights Templar pass his grave, tipping their colors en route to the amphitheater for the Sunrise Service.

She was there this Easter, and the Easter before this, and both were "special" special occasions.

Last year, on the day before Easter, the Wilber M. Brucker Hall in Fort Myer, Va., was formally dedicated, and Joseph Maniscalco's six-foot painting of Clara's husband was formally unveiled.

It hangs in the central foyer of the building designed with two auditoriums, one for the United States Army Band, founded by General John J. Pershing, and one for the Army Chorus, founded by Mr. Brucker.

Harbor Springs will be home for Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carleton DeFries, who vacationed on Bermuda following their wedding Saturday, April 28, in Petoskey's Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

The 7 o'clock ceremony at which The Reverend James Hempstead presided was followed by a reception at the Bayview Inn.

The bride, the former Nancy Elizabeth Shaw, daughter of Howard A. Shaw, of Harcourt road, and the late Mrs. Shaw, wore the Empire-waisted, princess style wedding gown of ivory peau de soie previously worn by her sisters.

Her short sleeves were fashioned of scalloped, point de Alencon lace, a motif repeated in the deep border of her cathedral length skirt.

More lace outlined her cathedral length, illusion mantilla, caught by a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. John H. Frank was honor matron for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. F. R. Sutherland and Patricia Shaw, two other sisters, Gale DeFries, the bridegroom's sister, Mary Duke Harlan, of Lake Bluff, Ill., and Kathy Palmer, of Kansas City, Kans.

They wore kelly green and white floral printed voile sundresses, with shawls, and carried cascades of white daisies and baby's-breath.

Mr. DeFries, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Fritz DeFries, of Grosse Pointe Farms, asked Thomas R. Norman, of Petoskey, to act as best man.

Guests were seated by Edward Shaw, brother of the bride, John Frank and Michael Roualey, both of Petoskey, Louis Mettler, of Charlevoix, and Douglas Royer, of Atwood, Mich.

Emmy Chance for Beethoven

A Beethoven Festival with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and DSO Music Director Antal Dorati has been nominated for a national Emmy award.

The unique television series premiered the week of January 8 on the Public Broadcasting System. It was produced by Detroit's WTVS/56 through a grant provided by the Ford Motor Company Fund.

The series features Maestro Dorati and the DSO performing all nine of Beethoven's symphonies, as well as interpretive commentary by Dorati and host E.G. Marshall.

A Beethoven Festival marks the first time the entire symphonic repertory of a major composer has been contained in one television series.

The Emmy is the highest award made by the television industry. According to the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, the awarding organization based in New York, the series will compete in the Daytime Emmys area division.

A Beethoven Festival was originally made available to PBS stations during the daytime on Sundays. It was shown on some 220 public television stations nationwide this past winter.

A Beethoven Festival will be repeated on Channel 56 on Tuesday nights at 8 o'clock, beginning June 19.

Concert Band Sets Festival

America's flagship professional concert band — the Detroit Concert Band, under the direction of Dr. Leonard B. Smith, and headquartered in Grosse Pointe — embarks upon its 34th annual Summer Festival Series Wednesday, June 20, at 7 o'clock at Hart Plaza near downtown Detroit's Renaissance Center.

Its programs contain broad samplings of the best in classical and popular music featuring overtures, waltzes, concert pieces, excerpts from operas and Broadway shows, novelties and marches from the DCB's repertoire of more than 2,000 different compositions.

The Band will present 15 concerts at Remick Memorial Band Shell on Belle Isle in the unique setting that frequently moves out-of-town visitors to pen rhapsodic "thank you" notes for the pleasurable musical experiences provided there by the Detroit Concert Band.

There will be six concerts in all at Hart Plaza, with six more at Michigan State Fair Grounds.

The DCB moves to Meadowbrook Music Festival July 1, where it will highlight our nation's birthday celebration, complete with choral music and fireworks display.

Printed season schedules will be available Friday, June 1. To receive them by mail, send a stamped, pre-addressed envelope to Detroit Concert Band, P.O. Box 36163, Grosse Pointe, MI 48236.

Association Aids Its Music Hall

Gourmet Dinner Extraordinaire at Detroit Plaza Hotel Scheduled for May 29 Is Group's Next Fund Raising Event

Hardly had the curtain gone up in 1976 on the first year at the newly created Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts when a group of enthusiastic volunteers organized themselves as the Music Hall Association.

Their goal was to assist the fledgling theater to establish itself as a major cultural force in metropolitan Detroit.

Association activities are as varied as the shows presented on the Music Hall stage. Members have sold season tickets to Music Hall shows. They have assisted with the mailing of thousands and thousands of fund raising and subscription sales brochures.

They organize and maintain the theater's "archive" scrapbooks, and have opened their homes and hearts to Music Hall's visiting artists and performers, making Detroit a warm, personal memory for many traveling entertainers.

As the work force behind dinners, theater parties and social events ranging from a Garden Party in the Sky to an Evening with Ginger Rogers to the upcoming Gourmet Dinner Extraordinaire at the Detroit Plaza Hotel, the association makes possible contributions to the theater's operating expenses as well as specific donations, such as a Baldwin concert grand piano, the association's gift to Music Hall in 1977.

The Gourmet Dinner will really be extraordinary. It's a $250-per-couple affair, limited to 125 couples. It's set for Tuesday, May 29, in the Detroit Plaza's fourth level Renaissance Ballroom.

It's a reprise affair for Music Hall at the Detroit Plaza, for it was in June, 1976, that more than 1,000 Music Hall patrons gathered in the then under-construction complex for the Renaissance Center Preview Party.

"It is most appropriate that Music Hall, the first to use to benefit from the special gourmet gala planned for May 29," says Chris Marker, Detroit Plaza managing director.

Henry Ford, II, is serving as honorary chairman of the evening. Co-chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. M. Morton Barak and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dewar.

Billy Barak, long time Music Hall supporter and idea lady, is being assisted in her efforts to create an exquisite garden backdrop for the haute cuisine and after dinner dancing by party designer Tom Newby and floral display creators Nature's Way and Planterra.

Further information on the party may be obtained by calling Music Hall, 963-7622.

Music Hall Association's current president is Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of South Deeplands road, vice-presidents are Mrs. Barak, Mrs. Ronald K. Darby, Mrs. David M. Gaskin and Mrs. Donald S. Young.

Secretaries are Mrs. Harry Scharf and Mrs. Walton A. Lewis. Treasurers are Gerry Ross and Benjamin H. Davis, III.

From Another Point of View

In a glass case on one side of the foyer are displayed the original Army Flag Mr. Brucker designed plus other items of his personal memorabilia, Clara Brucker's gifts to America.

There are two alcoves in the entrance hall. One holds a bust of General Pershing. The other waited all last year for a companion bust of Secretary Brucker—and this Easter, the Brucker bust was formally put in place.

Clara Brucker was there, of course. She always is, and she was called on for a few remarks as she unveiled the bust with sculptor Liz Hart, who brought it with her on the plane from Dallas, Tex., several days before the unveiling, to be sure it would be at Arlington for Easter.

Liz and Clara are fellow alumnae of the Class of '72 of Northwood Institute's Distinguished Women, members of Northwood's board. They received their "degrees" in California.

The bust was contributed to the Wilber M. Brucker Building by the Chrysler Corporation and the Ordnance Department. "Tom Morrow, as a Chrysler executive, worked with my husband on the Jupiter missile," Clara explains.

"Chrysler Corporation put up the first Army satellite, the Explorer, for the United States during the Eisenhower Administration, while Mr. Brucker was Secretary of the Army.

"For that reason, Mr. Morrow was eager to have some of the Chrysler and Ordnance people show their appreciation by donating the bust." It was unveiled in a special ceremony April 14, 1979—the day before Easter.

The Army Chorus gave a stirring concert, tracing the Life of Secretary Brucker in song and (Continued on Page 30)

Lori Linzell Will Be Bride

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School 1974 graduate, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Fashion Merchandising from Western Michigan University last August.

Mr. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Stewart, of Bath, O., holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science from the University of Cincinnati.

An early July wedding is planned.

TRAVELWORLD
BY DICK D'ANDREA

Hawaii's superlative Isle—Kauai

There's nothing second rate about Kauai. Aged more than five million years, it's the oldest island in the Hawaiian chain; with 485 inches of rain annually at Mt. Waialeale, it's the wettest spot on earth; and of the four major islands, it's the least commercially developed.

Because of its natural beauty, jagged peaks and steep cliffs, prolific vegetation and cascading waterfalls, Kauai has been an ideal backdrop for many movies. South Pacific was filmed at Hanalei Bay on the north coast, and other films have included a range from The Hawaiians and Islands in the Stream to de Laurentiis' King Kong and The Wreckless Ship in the Navy.

Travelworld's staff can assist you with your travel plans to Hawaii or any other destination. Stop in at 21127 Mack Avenue (North of Vernier) or call 882-8190.

The weekend begins for Phase I, the organization for young, single adults, ages 20 through 39, which meets regularly Sunday evenings at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, tomorrow night, Friday, May 25, with volleyball games starting at 7:30 o'clock in Memorial Church's Fellowship Hall.

Everyone is welcome. The number to call for more information on this continuing Phase I event, which has proved extremely popular, is 839-5418.

Phase I's Pessimists Picnic begins at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening, May 27. It's an indoor event, designed for those who are sure it will rain over Memorial Day weekend, and will take place in Memorial Church's third floor lounge — unless the pessimists prove wrong, and skies are bright.

Then the group will move outdoors, to the grassy slope overlooking the lake, behind the church.

In either event, Phase I will provide the hot dogs, buns and trimmings, plus the ice and pop, but participants are asked to bring a dish of food to pass plus $1 each, to help cover expenses.

Pointers ANNE HENRY MATERS and STUART EPINGER are members of the Kenneth Jewell Choral that recently toured Washington, D.C. and New York with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in the production of Richard Strauss' opera, "Die Aegypische Helena."

Miss Porter's School students BETSY DANCE, of Washington road, has been named to the lacrosse varsity team. KATIE HIGBIE, of Provincial road, is a member of the tennis junior varsity team.

My dear wife, the inspiration for this custom fashioned 1970 home, died tragically last November. I have finally decided to dispose of the home, complete with all furnishings, appliances, utensils, tableware, linens, etc. all hand selected and of finest quality, so the new family can ease right into ready made luxury.

Final price and terms can be negotiated. Possession can be immediate as I'm planning a move to our retirement home in Arizona. There is much more of interest to tell about this secluded, one of a kind estate that would add to its value, enjoyment and charm.

Hound Ears Club. A little above everything else in the mountains.

High up in the magnificent Blue Ridge Mountains, in a class all by itself, is one of America's finest four-season resorts. Woods Views Share of Grant

A written report from the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's Office on The Woods' pro-rata share of the costs in regards to a Milk River Drain Step One application was unanimously approved by the council at its regular meeting Monday, May 7.

Two communications from Richard Hinshon, chief, Grants Administration Section, Water Quality Division, to Charles N. Youngblood, secretary, Intercounty Drainage Board, were viewed by the council.

In one letter, Mr. Hinshon said, "As lead applicant for a Step One application for a facilities plan, the board is required to pass and submit a resolution designating an authorized representative for the project before the Step One application can be certified."

"In addition, the board must cite the State Act which gives the appropriate governmental unit the legal authority to subsequently construct and manage a waste treatment facility."

He then requested that documentation to meet such requirements be sent to his office so the review of the Step One application may continue.

In the other communication, Mr. Hinshon indicated The Woods, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores have been included in a final Plan of Study Area, dated December 13, 1976, Facilities Planning.

"For the state to certify the Step One grant request to do facilities planning for this area, each governmental unit involved in the project must pass a resolution agreeing to the designation of one governmental agency as the lead applicant and pay its proportional share of the cost of the project."

He wanted Mr. Youngblood to send a copy of these resolutions as soon as they are available to his office so the review may continue.

Inspection Set By Boat Club

The Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club will hold its annual Coast Guard Inspection on Saturday, June 2, at The Woods Lake Front Park. Members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary will offer courtesy boat safety inspections and will apply 1979 Coast Guard decals to all boats meeting current safety requirements.

The event will be combined with the club's annual Pancake Breakfast and "White Elephant Sale" of boating equipment and accessories. Breakfast will be served from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. All boating residents of The Woods are invited to attend. There is no charge.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club was formed 20 years ago for Woods residents to further interest in pleasure boating by providing organized activities and promoting water safety. Membership is $12 per year per family and is open to all boat owners in the city.

Events range from hayrides, bowling and a Commodore's Ball in the winter to picnics, predicted log contests and cruises to St. Clair, Chatham, Sarnia and other locations in the summer.

Further information regarding membership may be obtained by calling Commodore David Clark at 882-6145.

Arson Committee Declares War on Most Costly Crime

Michigan officials are declaring war on the nation's most costly crime — arson — but unfortunately, except for the few dedicated police and fire officials, not many seem to care.

In Michigan alone, more than $40-million in proven arsons go up in smoke every year, about $5 for every man, woman and child in the state. And that's only for provable arsons since all too many go undetected.

The Michigan Arson Committee, comprised of government officials, adjuster and insurance groups and police and fire officers, has initiated a public awareness program to help focus attention on arson, according to a committee news release.

"Arson is now considered a major crime," declared Capt. William Rucinski, the State Police Captain who chairs the state-wide anti-arson group as well as being the state fire marshal, "and this helps."

"But, because arson is often a difficult crime to prove and few persons are willing to step forward and tell authorities about an arson, proving and prosecuting persons who deliberately set fires is often the big problem."

There are several other problems connected with successful prosecution of arson felons, Capt. Rucinski said. Few police and fire department officers are adequately trained in arson detection and often local arson strike forces are left with the dregs of their budget needs to do an adequate job.

He cited two recent examples, the curtailing of the State Police Strike Force on arson and the budget cuts in the City of Detroit for this function.

Beefed-up legislation has helped. The Michigan Legislature amended existing laws during the past year to create the State Police Arson Strike Force. In addition, insurance companies were mandated to report suspicious fires to the State Fire Marshal with immunity granted insurance companies which share information with investigators, providing the companies do not act maliciously.

To help stimulate action against the arsonist, the Michigan Arson Control Committee has been paying out rewards of up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of anyone on arson charges. Persons knowing of such arsons are asked to write to Box 23, Holt, Mich. 48842, or call collect (517) 322-0469, Monday through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Arson is not only costly, but it's a crime which causes increased property damage rates on insurance policies, inflated property taxes to support expanded fire and police department activities, property damage or destruction for which there is no replacement, and, the worst problem of all, the loss of life or serious injury, often of innocent children.

Before Congress voted this year to make arson a class one crime which must be reported in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting System along with other felonies such as murder, rape, armed robbery, larceny, burglary, aggravated assault and motor vehicle theft, arson was not on the FBI list because fire departments rather than police departments were responsible for detection and investigation.

Proven arsons are a fraction of the deliberately set fires, Capt. Rucinski said. Only about 9,000 out of the 82,000 fires in Michigan last year were positively identified as arsons although many others were listed as "suspicious."

Types of arson fall into several categories: The most frequent arson is vandalism, often with juveniles at fault. These can be serious, but most often fall into categories such as "torching" abandoned houses, garages and other buildings. The reason is often simple boredom.

The next most common type of arson is revenge, often triggered by family and other domestic disputes. These range from simple crimes to more serious ones where there is not only loss of property such as a home, but lives and personal injuries.

The mentally disturbed pyromaniac is at fault in some fires. But he generally has a pattern and is eventually caught.

Often the most difficult arson to prove is that which is set for profit because it may be the work of the professional. Financial gain is usually behind such arsons in both business and residential properties, and sometimes, motor vehicles. In businesses, arsons are usually set at companies whose products were not selling well, have been rendered obsolete or which cannot meet certain standards.

Capt. Rucinski said one of the top priorities of his statewide committee is education, both of investigators and the public to recognize many of the "tell-tale signs of arson" and to provide for thorough, knowledgeable investigation.

An arsonist can receive up to 20 years in jail if convicted. But proving arson can be most difficult. Investigations take months, often longer.

If fire inspectors suspect arson, they usually find more than one spot where the fire started. If a flammable or incendiary substance was used, it generally leaves "tell-tale" signs for the trained arson investigator. A fire which is deliberately set also generally spreads very quickly.

So, he puts strong emphasis on training of arson investigators, whether police or fire officials or investigators for insurance companies. The Arson Control Committee has held seminars for police and other officials and plans a renewed effort to establish these training workshops.

"But the public must help," the captain said. Even with renewed emphasis, convictions for arson are rare. For every 100 fires which are classified as incendiary or suspicious, only nine persons are arrested, a mere two convicted and only one receives a prison term, according to the U.S. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Students Take Latin Honors

Thirty-four University Liggett School, (ULS), Latin students have received honors commendations for their achievement in the National Latin Exam contest sponsored annually in March by the National Junior Classical League.

Over 18,000 students nationally wrote the examination covering topics such as grammar, history and daily life in classical times. Of those ULS Middle School students who took the exam, 10 received "cum laude" certificates and 10 received "magna cum laude" certificates.

Eighth grader David Wu was awarded a "maxima cum laude" certificate and will receive a silver medallion presented by the Classical League at the Middle School Closing Exercises on Friday, June 1.

Four ULS Upper School students took honors on the Latin III Prose examination. One "cum laude" and two "magna cum laude" awards were given. Sophomore Curtis Doly won a "maxima cum laude" silver award, to be presented at the Upper School's Class Day exercises on Tuesday, June 5.

Luncheon Held By Girl Scouts

The annual awards luncheon for all adults of the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Cluster of the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit was held recently at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

It was sponsored by Neighborhood 116 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edwin English with the assistance of committee members Mrs. William Deitz and Mrs. Richard Moellering. The leaders of Defer and Trombly Schools acted as hostesses. Daisy name tags were made by the Girl Scouts of Troop 777 from Trombly School, while Troops 519, 216 and 891 of Defer School created attractive handmade flower centerpieces.

Awards were presented by the respective neighborhoods to the outstanding adults in the Girl Scout Program. Among those receiving awards were Mrs. Thomas Rochford and Mrs. Bert Bowen III also for 25 years of service. Mrs. Donald Unger also was a recipient of a 25 year award.

Mrs. Henry Grinvalski and Mrs. Edward Kay both received awards for 35 years of outstanding service, while Mrs. Paul Blackburn received an award for 45 years of outstanding service. The scouts also enjoyed approximately 80 delicious salads prepared by everyone while the hostesses provided dessert and beverages.

Formula Eyed For Gas Sales

An "odd-even" formula for gasoline sales in Michigan in the event of a shortage was urged by Richard E. Manning, chairman, Wayne County Board of Commissioners, in a news release.

In a resolution submitted to the full board on Thursday, May 17, Mr. Manning proposes that Gov. William Milliken effect a program that would allow gasoline sales to privately owned vehicles on odd or even numbered days of the month, depending on the last digit in the vehicle license tag.

He said the Governor should invoke the program whenever statewide gasoline supply falls below 85 percent of the volume available in any one month period during 1978.

"The 'odd-even' formula would help to assure equal distribution to all residents, regardless of income or place of residence," Mr. Manning said.

"With so many Michigan residents dependent on the auto for transportation, an orderly and equitable method of allocating gasoline is essential in the event of shortage," he stated.

The chairmen of Board of Commissioners in Oakland County, (Wallace Gabler), and Macomb County, (Robert Ver Kuilen), were asked to sponsor similar resolutions, he added.

SHS Students Get Involved

South High School environmental science students are showing they care about Detroit with two nature-oriented projects this month.

The 45-member class, under instructor Greg Heffner, travelled to the Detroit Zoo Thursday, May 17, to present a $1,400 check to the "Adopt An Animal" program. The kids raised the money from their fellow students during February and March.

Later this month the students plan to participate in the state-wide Operation Cleansweep by helping clean up Belle Isle and Baldock Park. The students plan to spend two days on the project, showing "they care about Detroit," according to Mr. Heffner.

North Students Hear Jazz Demo

The difference between New Orleans jazz and the Chicago style was recently demonstrated by Tom Saunders and his Surf Side Six Dixieland Band to a group of humanities, American studies and music students at North High School.

The demonstration was made possible by funds donated from the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Academic Enrichment and was third in a series of studies in jazz forms at North High.

Mrs. Bess Bonnier, Joe LoDuca and the Austin-Moro Band gave presentations in the past. Jack Brokenshaw, Bess Bonnier and Joe LoDuca concluded this series with a demonstration workshop/clinic on Wednesday, May 9, in North's auditorium, 707 Vernier road.

The original thrust for the program came from funds donated by the Grosse Pointe North Parents' Club. Additional monies were granted by the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Academic Enrichment, the Musicians' Performance Trust Fund and the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Mr. Saunders of Wayburn road is a graduate of South High School. He formed the Surf Side Six in 1963 and has since become a jazz fixture in the Detroit area playing not only in the style of the late Eddie Condon but also everything from Armstrong to Ellington.

Other members of the Surf Side Six are Danny Masouris on drums; Earl Stuart, clarinet and tenor sax; Dave Jones, valve trombone; Jim Knight, piano; and Clarence Isbell, bass.

Young Adults Eye Toronto

Anyone interested in joining the Young Adults, ages 19 through 30, should call Marie Randazzo at 892-0053 or 885-9224, Geri Dawood at 822-6094 or 962-7742 or Tim Finan at 821-9589.

UNIVERSITY LIGGETT SCHOOL STUDENTS DAVID M. TYLER, JR., AND ROBIN BUSHNELL

By Ann Wallace

Spring—synonymous with better weather (barring an ice storm or two), greening lawns, tulips, robins—also conjures up thoughts of all types of outdoor events for most of us. Golf, tennis and gardening might be some of those activities, and for children of all ages, from infancy to those still young at heart—fairs!

University Liggett now is making final preparations for its 20th fair for those youngsters of all ages. It's planned for Friday, June 1, and Saturday, June 2. Robin Bushnell and David Tyler are ULS seniors and student co-chairmen of the fair, sponsored by the alumni board of directors. Their duties mainly concern the sale of prize tickets among the entire student body of the lower, middle and upper schools.

It is their senior project for their final term at ULS and they both agree it has been a challenge. "It is a job," explains David, "that entails much responsibility as all the funds raised help toward financing scholarships here for deserving students through the ULS Enrichment Fund."

On Scholarship
"Essentially, all the students are on scholarship. Even though individual scholarships are given to students based on academic achievement and financial need, the funds also are used to lower the tuition for everyone."

The prizes for which these two students are selling chances will be awarded at about 9 o'clock Saturday evening, June 2. The prizes have been donated by merchants and individuals throughout the area and include a restaurant package, paintings, sport equipment, $3000 toward the purchase of a new car, a motorized bicycle, tickets for sporting events and much more.

"The tickets will be sold up to the time of the awarding," adds Robin, "so that everyone can have as many chances of winning as possible."

"The enthusiasm in the schools for the fair is really super. To help that enthusiasm for the students, there are bi-weekly contests in the middle and upper schools."

Prizes such as record coupons, pizza coupons and a very popular one — $40 toward the purchase of gasoline — are given to those who have sold the most tickets in two-week periods.

Give Stickers
"The enthusiasm in the lower school is just fantastic," continues Robin. "Ice cream parties and movies for the homerooms selling the most tickets are some of their prizes."

"We also are giving them free fair ride tickets and 'R2D2' (from 'Star Wars' fame) stickers, for achieving various goals in selling tickets."

Robin adds that one little guy has already sold 105 tickets. He has 26 stickers. (one is given for each four books of tickets sold).

There were 80,000 tickets printed. Both Robin and David hope all of them will be sold.

cents for students), to enter the fairgrounds across the street from the ULS campus in Cook road. Free parking is available.

Faiguers, upon admission, will have their hands stamped so that they may return the same day without having to pay another admission.

Family Ties
"We truly are looking forward to a bigger, family oriented fun time for all who attend," encourages David Tyler. "So all come!"

Both David and Robin have been University Liggett students since their early grades, "since the second grade for me," says David.

"I have appreciated all that has been done for me through my education here. Being chairman has provided me with an opportunity of giving something back to the school. I feel has given me so much."

"I have been a student here," says Robin, "since the first grade. I, too, am grateful for all the opportunities and education given me here at ULS."

"My family has had ties with the school for many years. My mother, Elizabeth Whelden Bushnell, is an alumna of a forerunner of ULS, Grosse Pointe Country Day School for women only."

Some years ago, that school joined with Grosse Pointe University School, then with Liggett School, to form the University Liggett School.

Robin's older brothers also are alumni. George was graduated in 1970 and now attends law school in Atlanta. Christopher, a 1973 graduate, works for Senator Ted Kennedy in Washington, D.C.

College Bound
"This position of working with many people in the planning of the fair," notes Robin, "has been great because I have always had a great interest in people."

"I plan to continue my education at Ohio Wesleyan University in Springfield, O., where I will major in Psychology. My favorite subjects at ULS have been English and history, and I plan to continue study in those subjects as well."

Robin, 18, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bushnell, Jr., of Vendome road, also enjoys field hockey, which she hopes to continue at Ohio, lacrosse and squash.

"Squash is a new sport at Liggett this year," says Robin, "and it is really fun. It involves teams of both boys and girls."

Her plans for the summer include being a counselor at the ULS summer camp where she worked with the second grade boys last summer.

"They were a good group and very enthusiastic," Robin notes, "and I am looking forward to being with them again this summer."

David, his summer busy with pool maintenance, is looking forward to his college career at Bucknell, where, he says, the enrollment is not too large.

"I just don't want to be a 'number,'" explains David, "as would be the case in a large school. I look forward to a more personal relationship with the professors."

"I, too, at Liggett, have enjoyed both English and history. Since I plan a career in Business Management, possibly law school eventually, these courses have been very valuable."

Enjoys Sports
David enjoys sports very much and was captain of the football team, participated in lacrosse and was president of the Liggett Student Council.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. David M. Tyler, of Sheldon road, and his older sisters are ULS alumnae. Debbie, a 1973 graduate, is a student at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass. Claudia, who attends Wellesley College in Wellesley, Mass., was graduated from ULS in 1977.

Both these co-chairmen appreciate all the assistance they have received from all those involved on their committee, "especially that of Mrs. Ethel Burwell, who has helped us in keeping our records accurate and up to date," they note.

W. Clark Durant, a 1967 alumna of Liggett, is the adult chairman of the fair, adds David. Mr. Durant oversees the whole operation, coordinating all efforts to produce the "biggest fair in the history of the school," the traditional spring event, a project of school's alumni, parents, students and faculty members.

Spring — flowers, birds, warm'h, smiles — and fairs! Come one, come all, on June 1 and 2.

From Another Pointe of View

ending with the Army Song, which he had written. The eulogy at the Easter Breakfast was given by General Bruce Clarke.

Through it all, Clara proudly represented the family, for the Wilber M. Bruckers, Jr., present at the dedication ceremonies a year ago, were unable to make it to Washington this Easter.

Through it all, Clara remembered . . . and marveled at the fittingness of it all: that her husband, who had served as a Lieutenant in the 166th Infantry, 42nd, (Rainbow), Division under General Pershing in World War I, should now share accolade honors with his former Commanding General.

Both were committed to the idea of music as essential to the soldier's morale. For both, the Wilber M. Brucker Hall is a fitting memorial.

It is a marvelous facility: a $2 million training center for the United States Army Band. Its key elements are the rehearsal halls: the Major Music Studio which seats 400 persons and can accommodate the entire band, and the Minor Music Studio which seats 200.

Both are acoustically perfect for all musical activities. In addition, there is a library, focal point for the Army Band's staff of arrangers, composers and copyists. Thousands of musical scores, from priceless original manuscripts to anthems of every country in the world, are on file.

And there is the administrative office, center of activity for the Army Band, where day-to-day business is conducted by the Sergeant Major and administrative personnel.

Clara Brucker especially likes the building's location. From her husband's grave, where two Knights Templar in uniform provide an honor guard every Easter morning, she can look out on the Wilber M. Brucker Hall.

It's quite a sight. It honors quite a man.

Caricatures at Lochmoor

Lochmoor Club's gallery this month features a display of caricatures by a club member, Bogdan Baynert, who has an impressive art background.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wayne State University where he majored in Fine Arts as well as in Art Education, focusing on such subject matter as arts, crafts and art history.

In addition he studied with Sarkis Sarkissian and John Cornish at the Society of Arts and Crafts, (now the Center for Creative Studies), and did graduate work at the University of Michigan.

He taught art at the University of Connecticut, University of Wisconsin and Purdue University, and is presently teaching a course in cartooning at the University of Michigan.

He now devotes himself primarily to being a freelance artist, and maintains a studio in his home.

Mr. Baynert has had one-man shows in various parts of the country. Much of his work is now housed in WSU's archives. He and his wife, Mary, a pianist, are involved in many of the community's fine arts activities.
