THE COUNCIL ON WAGE and Price Stability charged Amerada Hess of New York, a major oil company, with violating President Jimmy Carter's price guidelines. Chairman Alfred Kahn indicated that 10 other oil companies are being accused of exceeding wage-price guidelines, and that gasoline prices have risen more than 12 cents a gallon this year. The council specifically stated that "these price increases are far larger than can be explained by the increases in domestic and imported crude petroleum prices alone." According to the council, gasoline prices went from 69.5 cents a gallon in January to 73.3 cents in March to 78 cents in April with drivers now paying up to 82 cents a gallon at the pump this month.

Friday, June 1

A U. S. DISTRICT Judge has ruled that President Jimmy Carter overstepped his constitutional power when trying to enforce his wage and price guidelines by refusing government contracts to certain companies that do not abide by the guidelines. Judge Barrington D. Parker said in a 24-page decision that "President Carter has exceeded the authority conferred on him by the Constitution by seeking to control incomes and thereby prices through the procurement power."

THE UNEMPLOYMENT RATE in the U.S. remained steady in May holding at 5.8 percent, the same rate reported in April. Michigan's unemployment rate, however, dropped from 8.6 percent to 7.2 percent, according to the Michigan Employment Security Commission. Commission Director S. Martini Taylor said the May unemployment rate meant "a return to a more normal spring pattern of lower unemployment following April's unusually high jobless rate." The end of the Teamsters strike and the increase in construction jobs because of the warmer weather also helped to decrease the May unemployment rate in Michigan.

Sunday, June 3

POPE JOHN PAUL II returned to his native Poland where approximately one million Poles were on hand to greet the Pontiff. His trip marked the first time that a Pope visited a Communist country. The statement "you cannot exclude Christ from the history of the earth" from the Pontiff brought eight minutes of applause from the cheering crowd who came to see the Pontiff in 90 degree heat. The Pope is expected to remain in Poland for about nine days.

Monday, June 4

PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER is refusing to fire energy chief James Schlesinger despite beliefs from White House aides that he should be fired. The President maintains that Mr. Schlesinger is being used as a scapegoat for the energy shortage. There has not been any formal recommendation to the President on the part of the aides because of Mr. Carter's staunch support of the energy chief. However, aides have discussed with the President that Mr. Schlesinger is causing "political problems." Former president Gerald Ford fired Mr. Schlesinger in 1975 when he was defense secretary.

Tuesday, June 5

SOUTH AFRICAN PRESIDENT John Vorster resigned in disgrace after a 72-page investigative report found he covered up a multi-million government scandal. Michigan newspaper publisher John P. McGoff also was cited as being a leading figure in the scandal.

Eleven Hopefuls Vie for Two Board Seats

The 1979 race to fill two open seats on the Board of Education has to be one of the most crowded ever. Eleven candidates are competing for election on Monday, June 11, and none of them are incumbents. The candidates are, in the front row, (from left to right), ERNEST BUECH-

New Fare Planned For Punch

Transition in Programming Scheduled to Transpire with New Manager; Clean Up Immediate Priority.

By David Kramer

A return to a more community-oriented showplace is the aim of new Punch and Judy Theater manager Mark Etter, who's leading off the cinema's schedule with a slate of old-time movies.

Co-owners Robert G. Edgar and Dick Crawford waved goodbye to the theater's recent fare of predominantly musical live shows, including what some termed "punk rock" when they removed former manager Chris Jaszczak last week for failure to pay his rent.

He also reportedly neglected to maintain the old building, as the basement was flooded and the boiler ruined when the new tenant moved in.

Get Interest Back
Mr. Etter, who presently works for his brother's and Mr. Crawford's firm, said his first job will be to clean up the place, both physically and image-wise.

"It's a fabulous old building," he said. "We want to get the interest back in the theater and we'll do that by booking films everyone wants to see."

St. Paul Rededication Set One Year after Fire

A year and a day after the disastrous fire that closed its doors, Saint Paul On-the-Lake Church, 157 Lakeshore road, will be reopened to the entire community at an ecumenical service of thanksgiving and rededication on Sunday, June 10, at 4 p.m.

Interior restoration of the 61-year-old church has been completed. Only landscaping and repaving of damaged walkways remain unfinished as the parish welcomes its members and neighbors to an afternoon program of worship and music, followed by an outdoor reception on the lawn of the church facing Lake St. Clair.

Monsignor Francis X. Canfield, pastor, will conduct the service of thanksgiving and will make presentations to

New Park Beautification Commission Making Plans to Get Underway

Councilwoman MacDonald Will Orient The Group Toward A Citizen Advisory Concept; City Manager Crawford Cites Several Areas in Which It Can Help

By Joanne N. Gouleche

What does a master gardener, an architect and a self-made expert on elm trees have in common? For starters they all have been appointed to the newly-created Beautification Commission in The Park.

They also, with five other individuals, recently received the approval of the Park Council to join the commission.

The idea of a beautification commission has been discussed since last summer when Mayor Matthew C. Paterson asked Councilwoman Ann M. MacDonald if she would be interested in initiating such a group.

Acts As Advisor
She agreed, and since that time, the council only received communications from the State of Michigan on beautification projects with any thoughts of a beautification commission stopping there.

Mrs. MacDonald will act as an advisor from the council to the commission, orienting the group toward a citizen advisory concept.

The commission is solely voluntary and non-funded.

The eight commission members appointed by Mrs. MacDonald are Judy Aichler of Balfour road, Cynthia Brooks of Windmill Pointe drive, Mary Jane Grady of Three Mile drive, Michael Krag of Grayton road, Kathleen McGovern of Balfour road, Doris Miller of Nottingham road, John Stevens of

To Bless Fleet At Farms Pier

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club will sponsor its Annual Blessing of the Fleet Sunday, June 10, at the Farms Pier Park at 1 p.m.

All residents of The Farms are invited to participate in the ceremonies at which Fr. Albert Hillebrand of Saint Linus Church and the Rev. Robert Wollard, chaplain of Ford Hospital, will officiate.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary also has volunteered its services for the afternoon and will conduct free motorboat safety examinations on request. They will make recommendations where needed and award a decal to those boats fulfilling all the requirements.

Interest Seen In Cable TV Proposal

Three Pointes Agree to Name Council Member to Group Which Will Explore War Memorial Plan

Three Pointes have indicated their interest in a Pointe-wide cable TV system with the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association as the catalyst in establishing it in the community.

John M. Rickel, first vice-president, chairman of the association's cable TV committee, reviewed the organization's proposal to coordinate a community-wide system encompassing all the Pointes, with an eye also on Harper Woods.

He appeared before both the Woods and Farms Councils on Monday, June 4, and the Park Council on Tuesday, May 29, and requested that each city name one of its council members to a joint group to review and explore the proposal, while asking each to consider a community-wide franchise in cooperation with the War Memorial.

At the same time, he indicated the City Council has expressed an interest in the idea.

"Much to Gain"
While The Woods agreed to the joint group concept, the council didn't name a delegate, (or possibly even an alternate), pending the availability of a member to attend several sessions over the next month.

Meanwhile, The Farms selected Councilman Jack Cudlip and The Park named Councilman Douglas G. Graham to the group, with the latter indicating, "We have nothing to lose and much to gain."

For his part, Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stressed even if the council agreed to the request, it wasn't a firm commitment, only an expression of interest.

A key question which should be answered by all the communities, according to Mr. Rickel, is this — "Is an all Grosse Pointe system appropriate and, if so, should the War Memorial do it?"

At the same time, he indicated it was necessary to have a specific consensus of opinion prior to Tuesday, June 19, at which time the Shores Council, which has already voted to grant a franchise to Cox Cable, a subsidiary of the General Electric Company, is scheduled to finalize its plans with Cox. School Crossing Improvements Set in Farms

Council Approves Additional Overhead Traffic Signal Heads, Pole, Signage But Declines Request for Adult Crossing Guards at Ridge-McKinley Intersection

By David Kramer

The Farms Council, accused by numerous parents of "ducking" adult school crossing guards, responded to requests for a guard at Richard School by opting instead to improve the traffic signals at the intersection in question.

The decision came upon the recommendations of Police Chief Robert Ferber, whose findings were confirmed by a study conducted by the Automobile Club of Michigan, done at the request of the school's safety committee.

Improvements to be made at the intersection of Ridge and McKinley roads, where two school children were injured in a six-month period, will bring the signals up to 1982 state traffic signal requirements.

Up for Bids
Improvements will include the addition of two more overhead signal heads, (there are currently four), and the installation of pole mounted "walk-don't walk" signals.

The Farms remains the only Pointe with schools to not utilize adult crossing guards.

The council, at its Monday, June 4, meeting, voted unanimously to proceed with the police chief's recommendations and put the project up for bids with the objective of having the improvements completed by the next school year. Preliminary estimates for the changes are about $12,000.

Chief Ferber, in making additional recommendations for an improvement of the school's own safety program, acknowledged his study "indicated a weakness in our (police), traffic safety program for the year," and said it would be improved.

Richard Principal James Flowers agreed that a problem existed with the safety patrol, especially because the school has been forced to "dip down" to fourth graders in order to get enough members.

"We will do everything we can," said Mr. Flowers, acknowledging there was "confusion on the corner," but adding "the man in blue" is much more effective with the kids than a teacher.

Blood Drive Slated Friday

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Assumption Cultural Center, 21800 Martlet road, Friday, June 8, from 2 to 8 p.m. Potential donors may call the center at 779-6111 to schedule donations.

Support is vital if the Red Cross is to meet the needs of all community residents.

Park Endorses Innovative Projects Program on Mack

By Joanne N. Gouleche
"Mack Avenue in The Year 2000: A Strategy to Prevent Penetration of Mack Avenue Blight," the Community Development Block Grant Innovative Projects Program for Mack Avenue, was endorsed by the Park Council at its rescheduled meeting Tuesday, May 29.

The endorsement by the council only means, however, that it has agreed to consider participating in the program. It's objective is toward preventing blight along Mack Avenue and, according to information prepared by Gerald Luedtke and Associates, Inc., blight "has now crossed Alter road and is beginning to penetrate the portion of Mack Avenue which trans-verses Grosse Pointe Park." The program won approval from the council with the exception of Councilman George J. Verdonck, who indicated he was somewhat leery over the whole project, feeling that the Mack-Concord project initiated sometime in the early 1950's to prevent blight didn't prove to be very viable for that area.

He then showed the council pictures of how he felt the study really didn't prevent blight at all.

Councilman Douglas G. Graham stated that council should proceed with the program "at no cost to Grosse Pointe Park" and Mayor Matthew C. Patterson also gave his total support to the program. (Continued on Page 6)

Candidates Air Views At Forum

Eleven Citizens Seeking Two Seats, While Some 10 Percent of Voters Will Cast Ballots at Different Locations

By Susan McDonald
A League of Women Voters candidates forum Monday, June 4, added a bit of spice to what has been called an "issue-less" race for two seats on the Board of Education.

Nine of the 11 candidates met with well over 100 people for the league's annual question-and-answer session at the War Memorial. It was the last major gathering for the candidates and the public before voters go to the polls Monday, June 11.

A similar meeting was held Wednesday, May 30, by the PTO Council at Brownell Middle School.

Precinct Change

About 10 percent of local voters will cast their ballots at different locations in this election due to a recent realignment of school system precincts. Those affected by the change will be notified by the school system. Voters with questions may call 343-2050 for more information.

Monday's winners will fill seats currently held by businessmen William Huetteman and Robert Warner, who decided not to seek re-election after eight years on the Board.

The election attracted an unusually large number of candidates and, also, a large number of educators. Six of the 11 hopefuls are current or former educators, two of whom are associated with Grosse Pointe public schools.

Several have focused upon issues that have been close to the schools during the last three Board elections—administrative overhead, teacher morale and, indirectly, the school system's superintendent Dr. William Coats.

Dorothy Kennel, 57, a retired Grosse Pointe teacher, has campaigned for a cut in administrative overhead.

"In the last several years, our enrollment has dropped nearly 25 percent, yet we've added administrators," she said Monday evening. "I think Dr. Coats should be asked to come up with a way to reduce that overhead."

Views Redefining

Cari Anderson, 36, administrator of the St. Clair Shores Adult Education Program, said he agrees that the number of administrators should be reduced if enrollment continues to decline. (Continued on Page 2)

Land Use Plan Hearing Slated

A public hearing will be held to consider a revised, proposed land use plan for the Year 2000 in The Woods when the Planning Commission holds its next regular meeting Tuesday, June 26, in the council chambers, 20025 Mack Avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

The commissioners at their regular meeting Tuesday, May 22, unanimously agreed to go with the hearing on the 26th if there were only minor objections to the proposal or to forgo it if any major changes were felt necessary for inclusion.

Commission chairman Charles Van Hove, who told his colleagues to contact him by Sunday, June 3, to share their views, said no major concerns were stated and what little difficulties there were could be discussed at the meeting. "We'll see what the public has to say," he added.

Half of the proposal had to be rewritten from scratch, while the land use plan map had to be totally redrawn, by planning consultant Brandon M. Rogers after the commission, based upon several thoughts in February, approved a combined, estimated total of over 30 motions on April 10 and 24.

School Board Election Set for Monday

 Charles Thompkins III, 32, echoed those sentiments, attacking a recent proposal that two administrative athletic director positions be added to the budget.

For his part, Ronald Dalby, 39, said he thinks there may be a need to redefine the roles of some administrators.

"I've heard from parents that we have administrators in some positions that do not seem to be contributing as much as they could in other areas," he said.

Brian Killian, 32, a North High School teacher who will leave the system at the end of the semester, has been the only candidate to focus specifically on the issue of teacher morale, which he claims is at an all-time low in Grosse Pointe.

He insists it must be improved so "the contract doesn't become more important than the textbook" to teachers.

Other candidates, including Mr. Anderson and Mr. Dalby, have dealt more mildly with the issue, calling for more cooperation between teachers and administrators.

"Sphere of Influence"
 Sharon Vasher, 35, says if teacher morale is an issue, "parents are the ones to blame. Do they let teachers know how much they appreciate what's being done for their children?"

Mrs. Vasher, a former Lansing teacher, strongly attacked as "illogical" the common charge that teachers are not qualified, because of their special interests, to sit on the Board. She lambasted a suggestion by Mr. Tompkins that outside consultants be hired to monitor school system achievement as "too expensive."

She made a veiled cut, directed to the number of candidates and Board members associated with Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, as well. Three current trustees and four candidates, Mr. Dalby, Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Kennel and Mr. Tompkins, belong to Memorial.

"I think one church in Grosse Pointe may be over-exerting its sphere of influence," she said.

Mr. Dalby, president of a construction firm, has presented himself as the natural successor to the business-minded Mr. Huetteman and Mr. Warner. Two other candidates, Mr. Tompkins and Leonard Witulski, 32, have projected similar images.

Mr. Witulski, a CPA, charged Monday that the current Board has "camouflaged" funds in its budget by "telling us they're spending money on buildings and then shifting it to salaries and supplies."

"As a CPA I can see behind these kind of things and make sure money is being spent wisely."

In addition to Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Kennel, Mr. Killian, and Mrs. Vasher, there are two other educators on the slate of candidates—Dr. Ernest Buechler, 44, and Virginia Rader, 31.

Dr. Buechler calls himself an "education expert" but promises, at the same time, to respect parents' ideas about their kids' education. He holds several degrees in administration and curriculum development and currently works as an elementary school principal in Detroit.

Mrs. Rader, currently a part-time teacher at University Liggett School, has avoided any critical issues, saying she is generally very pleased with the school system. She was unable to attend the league forum Monday evening, but did speak at the PTO gathering last week.

Can Offer Insight

Jeffrey Kirkman, 18, is one of the youngest candidates ever, but already has an impressive string of accomplishments behind him including a Congressman's Medal of Merit and Rotary Service Award.

He has campaigned enthusiastically, telling voters that as a product of the school system, (North High Class of 1978), he can provide unusual insight to Board discussions.

The final candidate, George Fitzgerald, has been unable to attend either of the forums because of an illness. He has refused to give his age, and has suggested a "community referendum" for decision of major issues, and a re-emphasis of basic skills in the schools.

ELECT HAUSMANN

Frank W. Hausmann of McMillan road has been re-elected to the 12-member board of directors of Nationwide Corporation based in Columbus, O. Mr. Hausmann is senior vice-president in charge of the trust department at National Bank of Detroit. Holder of Bachelor and Doctor of Law degrees from Loyola University, he is a director of the American Diabetes Association and a member of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce and Economics Club of Detroit.

Interest in Cable TV

On the dispersing of profits if the War Memorial receives the franchise, Mr. Rickel, in responding to the question from Mr. Pinkos, cited the figure of around 33 percent of profits of companies. He pointed out that Cox, for instance, has a pre-tax return on equity in excess of 33 percent, i.e., of a $7.50 monthly charge, approximately $5 represents cost and $2.50 represents profitability.

He told the Woods Council The Pointe has an estimated 20,000 households and, if roughly half subscribe to cable TV, a significant profit should be realized.

"The War Memorial is totally flexible in dealing with this issue," he stated, while noting the Center's board, city and school representatives, et al., could explore this question. In fact, he felt the cable TV group should even view this subject.

Mr. Rickel suggested monies could be returned to the community via lower subscription rates or through activities at the War Memorial or even to the municipalities themselves via revenues.

Ordinances Needed

He also indicated for the five Pointes the capital outlay would be in the area of $3.3 million and if Harper Woods was included, it could be between $4.5 to $5 million.

The idea, too, would be to form a subsidiary of the War Memorial Association which would serve as a general partner.

Mr. Rickel pointed out that officials should consider an ordinance from the communities appointing the War Memorial, (or its subsidiary non-profit corporation), to install and operate a cable TV system in the area, if the War Memorial is to provide the system.

 feel in the restoration of Saint Paul's."

The musical portion of Sunday's service, under the direction of Edward J. Person, Saint Paul's organist, will feature the church's combined choirs, orchestral selections and vocal solos.

A tent will be erected in front of the church as the focal point of the reception that will follow the service. Refreshments will be served.

Saint Paul's was reopened and its regular schedule of Masses and services resumed in early March. The formal rededication was deferred to the Sunday nearest the first anniversary of the fire to allow for further progress on the exterior restoration and to permit an outdoor reception to accommodate the large numbers of people who are expected to participate.

Woods Planners Table Colonial Road Proposal

A proposal from a St. Clair Shores builder to construct two homes in Colonial road (Lot 23b of Lakeshore Road Subdivision)...

At that time, the commission approved a motion to table from John Kennedy, who cited "the lack of a definite proposal for us to act on" and the number of "ifs" toward resolving the "complex issue."

Commission chairman Charles Van Hove suggested that Mr. Sfire meet with City Administrator Chester E. Petersen and the city engineers to explore the proposal. However, Mr. Petersen stressed, "We can't perform services for a private developer. It's up to the developer to bring in a plan to accomplish what the council wants."

Like the commission, the council felt it needed more specific information on the proposal, wherein Mr. Sfire indicated he wished to live in one of the homes and sell the other.

Several citizens spoke in favor and against the plans on the 7th, with the main concern alleviated, i.e., with the street.

Honorary Park Permits Okayed

The Woods Council unanimously approved the issuance of Honorary Park Permits for 1979, with the list being trimmed from last year's total of 69 down to 39.

This action was taken by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, May 21.

In a memo to the solons, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen pointed out that Ford Estate personnel have been reduced from two other deletions of individuals also were proposed, making the total 35.

However, Councilman Robert E. Novitke offered a substitute motion to Councilman Dan Grady's motion to approve the list, suggesting that the two judges, city attorney and assistant city attorney of St. Clair Shores be added inasmuch as the Lake Front Park is located in that community.

As part of his motion, he also stipulated that a husband, wife and their children be permitted to enter the park, (with the children having to accompany either spouse), with no additional guest privileges.

Mr. Petersen informed the council that last year only the individual and his spouse were permitted to enter the park, unlike previous years, and that some individuals didn't visit the park because they couldn't bring their children.

Officials in the past have emphasized the aspect of good public relations regarding such honorary permits and this year the breakdown is as follows:

Ford Estate, two; St. Clair Shores, 16; Harper Woods, eight; Lochmoor Club, five; and Miscellaneous, eight.

In the cases of both St. Clair Shores and Harper Woods, the list mainly includes city officials, while the miscellaneous category encompasses representatives from Pate, Hirm, and Bogue, Inc., city engineers, the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's Office, Sens. John Hertel and Gilbert J. DiNillo, Rep. William R. Bryant and the Rev. Joseph P. Fabry.

Parishes Set Fund Drive

Fr. Thomas Krell of The Pointe's Saint Ambrose Parish, and William Ross of Saint Juliana Parish, Detroit, are coordinating the 1979 Archdiocesan Development Fund, (ADF), for Grosse Pointe area Roman Catholic parishes.

The ADF is now underway in the Archdiocese of Detroit. It is an annual appeal which provides for works of religion, education and charity in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Lapeer and St. Clair Counties.

Cardinal John H. Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, has set a minimum goal of $2-400,000 for the 1979 ADF. Local Catholic parishes belong to the Detroit-Grosse Pointe Vicariate of the Archdiocese.

The minimum combined goals of parishes in the vicariate total is $227,449.

Opinion on State Law Sought

• All meetings of a public body shall be open to the public and shall be held in a place available to the general public. All persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting except as otherwise provided in this act.
• All decisions of a public body shall be made at a meeting open to the public.
• All deliberations of a public body constituting a quorum of its members shall take place at a meeting open to the public except as otherwise provided in the act, (eight exceptions are included but none have any specific application to the question raised by Mr. Freeman).
• Decisions of a public body shall be presumed to have been adopted in compliance with the requirements of this act. The attorney general, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the public body serves or any person may commence a civil action in the circuit court to challenge the validity of a decision of a public body made in violation of this act.
Admittedly, there are some grey areas in relation to Mr. Freeman's question, with both Mr. Catlin and Vince

Leone, attorney general, acknowledging this. For his part, Mr. Leone puts a solid emphasis upon "quorum" and "deliberation" in relation to open meetings. In citing a grey area, Mr. Catlin said if a meeting is, for example, a dinner session where mutual problems are discussed, and if the deliberations lead to a judgment (or judgments), it should be open. But, in interpreting an opinion from the Attorney General's Office, if officials only explore areas of concern, he felt it didn't necessarily have to be open. But the question, said Mr. Catlin, is "Where does one leave off and the other start?" Hence, the haziness of the situation.
Mr. Leone in citing this particular opinion indicated it's one from which the Attorney General's Office is striving to retreat, saying it permits a public body to listen to concerns of an ad hoc group which appears before them. He felt it applies only to an extent, while citing the aspect of discretion.
Offers Example
As a hypothetical example, he said if citizens come in to talk to The Woods about an amusement park or dog racing, it would be appropriate for the council to listen, period. However, if an exchange of ideas ensue and the merits of the issues are explored, it must be an open meeting.

If public business is considered and discussed, why exclude the people?, he asked.
In citing some continuing controversies over similar questions, Mr. Leone said he has personally fought to get rid of working sessions and executive sessions, et al., while stating the law makes no such distinctions between them, i.e., such sessions are open to the public.
The key word is "quorum" along with the deliberation toward, or rendering of, a decision, he continued, while noting if it's less than a quorum, the body becomes one of an advisory nature, i.e., making recommendations to the full body for its consideration and action.
If two public bodies meet, appropriate notices should be posted with the requirements of the act being followed, he explained.
"It's difficult to accomplish a dinner meeting without complying with the act, although it's not impossible," said Mr. Leone, who noted that such a session should be available to the public.
If it's in a restaurant setting, the question becomes how do you do it?, he asked.
Main Perspective
For Mr. Leone, it comes down to the following, semantics notwithstanding: Any time a quorum of a public body gets together to deliberate toward, or to decide on, (some officials, he noted, have said, "We are just discussing"), a public policy, other than a social or chance gathering or conference not designed to avoid the act, (e.g., a seminar situation), the body has to follow the act.
He admitted some situations, e.g., a restaurant setting, may not be compatible with the Open Meetings Act, while in other cases the press may attend a certain session in which it may be difficult for the public en masse to participate.
But the main perspective of the Attorney General's Office, he indicated, is this: If the topic is public business, all concerns should be shared before the people.

Punch's New Fare

Show" on midnights, Fridays and Saturdays, the theater had such bookings this week as "The Great Train Robbery" and "Invasion of The Body Snatchers." Showing tonight through Sunday, June 10, will be a double feature of Marx Brothers films, "Animal Crackers" and "Duck Soup."
Helping in the project are Peter LaVoy, assistant manager, who will run the box office, and Larry Lyman, former partner with Mr. Jaszczak, who will now book films for the theater from his downtown office.
Many Possibilities
Mr. Etter, a graduate of Northern Michigan University with a degree in Drama and English, is the former stage manager for the National Children's Theater, working over 500 shows with that group. He presently is service manager with Crawford, Etter and Bruce, residential builders.
He also hopes to be having live shows in the future, although emphasizing they won't be in the near future. "There are endless possibilities," he said, declining to speculate on what kind of shows were likely.

One live show, however, will go on as planned, due to its booking by Mr. Jaszczak. The Average White Band, a rock group, will appear on Monday, June 18.
Mr. Etter said he hopes to be in the operation for "a long, long time." That would suit Mr. Edgar fine, as he indicated he has no desire to get into the operation of the theater.
Periodic Pressure
It was a somewhat abrupt end for Mr. Jaszczak, who was under periodic pressure from the Farms Council and neighbors to quell late night noise, traffic and parking problems caused by the often youthful crowd at the Punch.
Mr. Jaszczak failed to return numerous phone calls, and was unavailable for comment.
"Things were going from bad to worse with Chris there," said Mr. Edgar. "He wasn't doing the things he said he was going to do, and he wasn't paying his rent. We were getting half-truths from him."
The Farms Council had entered into an agreement with Mr. Jaszczak last fall limiting the types of entertainment permitted at the Punch. Since the theater owners refused to sign such an agreement, it would apparently have to be renegotiated with the present tenants if it were to have any force.
The council, however, at its Monday, June 4, meeting, felt there was still some question as to who the present tenants are, and they passed a resolution stating the agreement reached with Mr. Jaszczak would not set a precedent for future tenants.
The solons cited the failure of the theater owners to enter into the agreement with the city as reason for their move.

HAVE ODD FEET
Not many outsiders have seen them, but strange stories persist about a tribe of people called the Yanyai who have feet with only two toes each. They live in Rhodesia's Zambezi Valley. Their toes are each about six inches long. One juts straight forward, the other sticks out at a right angle from the center of the foot. The Yanyai, who number 700, are said to be fast runners. Their odd feet are believed to be hereditary, caused by interbreeding among the tribe during the past 300 years.

New Park Commission

(Continued from Page 1) program appears to be one goal of the commission with Mrs. MacDonald explaining that businessmen would be awarded for improvements to their buildings.

For instance, awards for the best improvement to an exterior facade or for the best floral arrangement in front of a building will be considered by the commission.

The commission will be involved in activities all year around.

"We need to pay attention to how things look in the winter, too," Mrs. MacDonald said.

Jean Rice, chairman of the Beautification Commission in The Woods, praised Mrs. MacDonald's efforts to form a similar group in The Park.

"I commend her highly," Mrs. Rice said. "I think a beautification commission is a very important thing."

Mrs. Rice indicated that she hopes other Pointe communities will take the initiative and begin their own beautification commissions.

The Woods' commission was formed in 1976.

Mrs. MacDonald is now hoping for a public hearing of the commission sometime this month wherein Park residents may learn how to beautify their own homes.

Zoo Welcomes New Exhibit

Pointer Lawrence D. Buhl Jr. dedicated the new Dr. William E. Johnston Marine Mammal Exhibit at the Detroit Zoological Park at a ceremony Wednesday, June 6.

The $250,000 exhibit will house seals, sea lions and other marine mammals. Future plans for the exhibit include a show similar to that at Sea World in Florida.

Funds for construction of the pool, dens, breeding pens and salt water pond were provided by the widow of the late Dr. William E. Johnston in his memory.

Dr. Johnston was an ardent conservationist and was associated with the Department of Surgery at Ford and Hutzel Hospitals.

Mr. Buhl, president of the Detroit Zoological Society, said the group is "deeply grateful to Mrs. Alice Mourand Johnston for her generous gift."

School Crossing Improvements

(Continued from Page 1) uated and trained properly no crossing guard is going to be able to control them," said Mayor James Dingeman.

Both Chief Ferber's and the Auto Club study indicated the school's safety patrol engaged in "horseplay" while on duty. Suggestions by several councilmen that school dismissals be staggered were discounted by Mr. Flowers because of contractual arrangements with teachers which spell out dismissal times.

Chief Ferber said he had "never heard more vicious comments" from McKinley residents in his nine years in the city, accusing the council of uncaring attitudes toward the problem. Several of the residents attending the meeting questioned his statement that approximately 30 parents at the recent Richard ice cream social made "very derogatory remarks" about the council.

The chief emphasized the Auto Club study was done solely at the request of the school, and without his knowledge.

To Add Signs
 "Unbeknownst to me, an independent traffic safety organization reinforced every recommendation of mine," he said.

Signals at the intersection will be operational from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. school days, and will have a push button phase for pedestrians in the off hours.

Signs warning motorists of the intersection will be added, and others repositioned to make them more effective.

Traffic Safety Officer Joe Belanger's recommendation of an overhead lighted school crossing sign at McMillan and Ridge roads was not concurred with by the chief because he felt it would contribute to increased sign pollution and be a nuisance to surrounding residents.

"I don't want to be a part of stopping anything that would prevent blight in Grosse Pointe Park," he said.

The Park was the last Pointe community to indicate interest in the program. The council tabled the matter at its Monday, May 14, meeting because the solons wished to study the program further.

At this stage, the application has been filed with the county for review.

The strategy to prevent Mack avenue blight calls for cooperation from The Woods, Farms, City, Park and Detroit.

The Woods, however, would be the managing municipality and would enter into a contract with Luedtke at a total cost of $99,000. This breaks down to $84,000 for the actual contract and $15,000 for cost of administration and supporting work by participating communities.

Any funds that are spent by individual communities will be reimbursed.

Specifically, the "proposal will develop a strategy to prevent penetration of blight into that portion of Mack avenue between Nottingham and Vernier before blight occurs."

The proposal notes that Mack avenue is a principal thoroughfare in The Pointe and in Detroit and for the last 35 years or so, has begun to succumb to blight as evidenced by vacant buildings, disrepair of commercial buildings, a high business failure and a high crime rate.

What the proposal further points out is that if the blight on Mack avenue continues at the pace it has been going for the last 35 years, "blight should reach Vernier, (Eight Mile Road), by the Year 2000."

Knights Hold Big Meeting

Thomas Fahrner of Woods lane participated in the 79th annual state convention of the Michigan Knights of Columbus Thursday through Saturday, May 24 to 26, in the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island.

The theme of the convention was "to serve" with emphasis upon serving the family, church, community and life itself.

Mr. Fahrner, the state director of special projects for the organization, noted there are many Pointers who are members of the Knights of Columbus.

BROKEN PROMISES
The trouble with the "curious" borrower is that he always keeps everything but his word.

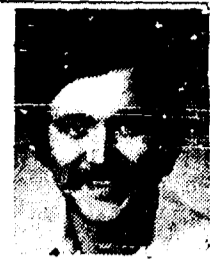

by John Lundberg

The 1977 French grape harvest, claim wine growers, was one of the best ever. The weather, which was not too promising during the summer, with few sunny days to bring grapes to their full ripeness, held on to give late fall sunshine and beautiful grapes. Wine growers predicted wines as good as those of other great vintage years, like the 1966 and 1970 Bourdeaux, and they were right. Since 1977 wines had to be bottles and aged, we had to wait for 1978 for our first tastes. As you know, the wait was worth while.

The wait is over! Come to PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, Corner of St. Clair, Detroit, where you will discover what you have been waiting so long for. For an excellent selection of wines and beverages combined with the related items that will enhance your palate the mood is set, the inventory is complete and the staff of PARKE'S PARTY SHOPPE is waiting to assist you in your selection. For the beverages of your choice, for your pleasure, the place to come is PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE. Open 10-10 Mon.-Thurs., 10-11 Fri. & Sat., noon-10 Sun. Tel. 885-0626

WINE WISDOM:

Only exceptional champagnes have vintage years, so do not worry about a champagne's year. Simply select according to your taste.

Man Sentenced On Sex Charge

A Farms man who pled guilty to fourth degree criminal sexual conduct after being accused of performing repeated sexual acts on a 16-year-old male resident of the Oakland County Youth Home was sentenced to two years probation with the first 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction.

Sentenced before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Victor J. Baum on Thursday, May 31, James F. Steiner, 36, of Muir road also was assessed $330 in court costs, and ordered to undergo psychiatric treatment at his own expense for a period of no less than one year.

The 16-year-old claimed he suffered almost daily sexual advances from Steiner, a licensed foster home operator, for the nearly one-month period he lived with Steiner in Muir, according to Det. Samuel Cardella, who handled the case.

Proposed Fishing Pier Recommendation Eyed

The question of a fishing pier at the Lake Front Park, which hasn't been an agenda item for the Woods Council in around two years, was discussed by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, May 21.

Both a possible pier or dock had been discussed before by officials, and in April 1977, the council unanimously concurred in a committee of the Whole recommendation to refer the possibility of a proposed fishing dock, in lieu of a pier because of cost factors, to the Citizens Recreation Commission for its study and recommendation.

At its meeting last month, the commission recommended the construction of a combined fishing pier and pleasure boat basin, 325' by 155' with 38 boat slips at a cost of $450,000. Members also recommended that the council consider issuance of general obligation municipal bonds to meet the cost.

Councilman Robert E. Novitke, commission representative, pointed out a majority of the commission felt it was more feasible to include boat wells as a revenue producing item along with the pier. He added that the commission also wanted some direction from the council on this subject.

In reviewing a report from Pate, Hlrm and Bogue, Inc., city engineers, the commission compared the combined pier and boat basin with a 350-foot long, 10-foot wide, pier with hand rails and wood deck.

A majority of the group felt, in eying the shortage and high cost of commercial wells in the area, plus the income which could be realized from rental, that it would be short-sighted not to include boat wells.

Thirty-eight wells rented at $400 per season, (called a conservative estimate by Mr. Novitke), would bring in $15,200 per season.

As it turned out, the entire matter was referred to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen for his review, with a report back to the council. He said his report, which will focus upon costs and methods of financing, should be ready within 30 days.

The last time the fishing pier issue came before the council, prior to the Senior Citizens Commission recommendation in April 1977 that the council appropriate sufficient funds to build the structure, was in the summer of 1976.

At that time, the solons voted 4-3 not to place this subject on the November election ballot.

Considered then was a motion which would have placed a referendum question on the ballot asking voters if they were willing to pay an additional mill for one year for the construction of the pier.

If the motion had passed and if the voters had approved the question, the one mill would have raised around $180,000 which would have went along with some $100,000 tentatively set aside from the Lake Front Park bond issue at that time. The estimated, total cost of the project would have been around $280,000, including engineering and contingency fees.

Early in 1976, the council authorized City Engineer Larry Pate to formulate engineering plans for a proposed pier and to research the project. The ultimate result was a cost estimate of some $250,000, plus a concern, if enough monies weren't available, that costs would increase if the project faced several construction phases.

Since the council vote mixing the ballot proposal, the question of a fishing pier remained in limbo — until the recommendation from the Senior Citizens Commission.

In another recommendation to the council, the convenience which street corner sidewalk ramping offers cyclists was discussed, with some curbs along Mack being ramped while others are not. The group felt that a speeded up program of ramp curb replacement should be considered.

Mr. Petersen pointed out all curbs are ramped when sidewalks are replaced, while noting the city's 1979 Community Development Block Grant program application contained a $4,000 request to ramp curbs at intersections in the northwest area.

He added the ramping along Mack is the responsibility of the Wayne County Road Commission, with the community paying for some ramping along Mack with the road commission scheduled to reimburse the city. However, he stated, they have failed to do so up to now.

The commission also recommended to the council that the magic square at Ghesquiere Park be used for a skating rink, if new tennis courts are constructed on the site of the present rinks in the future.

New Savings Office Opens

Standard Federal Savings has opened a new branch office at 19700 Mack avenue, at the corner of Blossom lane.

Charles William Gauss III, manager of the new office, said, "We are looking forward to serving our customers in the Grosse Pointe area. We are providing complete mortgage processing and closing service to better serve the mortgage financing needs of this community."

A full range of savings programs also are available at this office.

Standard Federal Savings is one of the nation's largest savings associations with assets of over $2 billion and it now operates 44 branch offices throughout the Metropolitan Detroit area.

Fund Drive Set By Kiwanians

A generous contribution to the Independence Day solicitation letters soon to be distributed to residents of this area is being sought by the Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe.

Within the next few weeks the solicitation letters will be distributed asking for contributions to be mailed in an envelope addressed to the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis.

Michael A. Shaheen, chairman of the fund raising committee states that rising inflation affects the amount of money available for distribution to the recipients of Kiwanis' aid in the Pointes.

Grosse Pointe Kiwanis hopes to raise enough money this year to fund its continuing programs of financial aid, plus replenish the funds used to purchase the new bus which is already in use in The Woods. We also are seeking out other areas of financial aid beneficial to our community.

All residents who will be contacted are encouraged to make a special effort to raise their contribution this year, officials add.

Some Kiwanis past projects have included free blood pressure check clinics, an auction to raise funds for the new art wing at the War Memorial, the "Eyes and Ears" program for safety patrol boys and girls for all Pointe schools, the purchasing and distribution of the Emergency "E" window cards and support for the Foundation for Exceptional Children.

Thieves Strike Harvey's Again

Thieves hit Harvey's Complete Traveler, 345 Fisher road, for the second time in six months sometime between 5:45 p.m. on Wednesday, May 30, and 10 a.m. the next morning.

The thieves netted about $225 in cash and a camera and clock worth about $130, according to police. Their method of entry apparently was identical to that used in the last robbery, in December 1978.

Police said the thieves broke through a meshed glass skylight over the rear store room and climbed down storage racks to the floor.

Four local juveniles, from The City, Farms and Park, were arrested in connection with the December crime. The youths also made total restitution for stolen articles.

Bike Safety Shown in GPF

Today is the last day of The Farms' annual bicycle safety program, sponsored by the police department and conducted by Traffic Safety Officer Joe Belanger, with assistance from the safety patrol at area schools.

Bikes are inspected for safety at each of the city's schools, Kerby and Richard, Saint Paul's and the Grosse Pointe Academy with grades one through six. Several prizes are raffled off at each school, including a brand new bike.

Officer Belanger said bikes are inspected for the condition of brakes, chains, tires, and the tightness of handlebars and the seat.

Other items necessary for bikes include a license, a rear reflector and handlebar grips, as well as a signal device of some sort.

Officer Belanger said the timing of the program is to remind the kids of bike safety during the summer months. He said that minor tightening of loose parts of the bikes would be performed during the inspections.

Offers Citizens Consumer Aid

The Michigan Consumers Council recently issued a consumer card to help make calling the Guideline, its toll-free telephone service, easier.

"Merchants have long used the business card to help prompt people to shop at their stores or to use their services," said the council's executive director Linda Joy in a news release. "We thought consumers also should have a card to remind them that they have a place to call toll-free for answers to consumer queries and for counseling on consumer problems."

"We've found that consumers can often resolve their own complaints if they have the right kind of counseling and information," she explained. "That's exactly what we try to provide. And the Guideline allows every Michigan consumer to call for advice at no charge."

The card will help consumers keep the Guideline number and its list of services handy by the telephone or in their wallets.

She said the Consumers Council Guideline has helped thousands of consumers since its February opening.

"During the first two months of operation, we averaged 85 calls a day from all over the state. We've also received many calls and letters from consumers who let us know that our counseling helped them resolve their problems."

Five consumer counselors answer the Guideline, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Guideline can be reached by calling 1-800-292-5680. Those who live within the Detroit city limits should call 953-6806.

The cards are available at no cost by calling the Consumers Council Guideline or writing the council at 414 Hollister Building, 106 West Allegan, Lansing 48933.

Strike Slows Construction Of New Building at South

By Susan McDonald

Work on the new building at South High School could resume on Monday, but the $2 million industrial arts building faded last week when Teamster cement drivers rejected management's latest offer to settle their four-week-old strike.

Workers had just begun pouring concrete into the gaping underground site next to the school in Fisher road when the strike began on April 30, cutting off the supply of cement. The cement workers are members of Teamsters Local 247, Transit Mix Drivers.

So far, the strike has put the industrial arts project about a month behind schedule, according to the school system's Director of Support Services Ben Zenn.

Pointers Named To New Posts

Two Pointe residents have been appointed to new vice-presidencies for Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

Alfred R. Glancy III of Cloverly road has been named vice-president, Marketing and District Operations, for the utility and Maurice N. Day of Woods lane has been named vice-president, Gas Operations.

The appointments, effective last month, were announced by Charles R. Montgomery, the utility's president.

Mr. Montgomery said the appointments are part of an overall restructuring of Michigan Consolidated's top management to assure that the Detroit-based utility will be able to continue dealing directly with areas critical to the company and its 1,000,000 customers in the state.

In his new position, Mr. Glancy will be responsible for all of Michigan Consolidated's gas marketing programs as well as operations of the utility's Western and Northern Districts, headquartered in Grand Rapids and Mount Pleasant, respectively.

As vice-president for Gas Operations Mr. Day will have responsibility for the acquisition of gas supplies in Michigan and the operation of gas pipelines and gas storage facilities as well as providing all engineering for the company.

Barnes Ready For Big Social

The 17th annual Barnes Elementary School Ice Cream Social will be held on Monday, June 11, from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Senior citizens and little league teams are especially invited to enjoy entertainment by the Banjos East Barber Shop Quartet, old fashioned relay races and games, the ever-popular cake walk and, of course, ice cream with a variety of toppings.

General co-chairmen of the social are Dr. and Mrs. Howard Joondeph and Mr. and Mrs. David Wenzler.

With "house" wood, auto and metal shops for industrial arts and vocational education programs, was to be completed in August, in time for the opening of school next fall.

At best, school officials are now hoping for a November completion date, which will force them to find new classrooms for industrial arts students in the already-crowded South High building.

South Assistant Principal Donald Messing said they plan to keep all the students at South next fall, instead of moving them to a different facility for the special classes as was earlier suggested.

To accomplish that, every single room in the building will be put to use, including the girls gym, the auditorium and Cleminson Hall, according to Mr. Messing.

Because he's planning to move industrial arts students into the new building later in the semester, Mr. Messing said he does not believe the curriculum will be curtailed by the make-shift classrooms.

In the meantime, Mr. Zenn said he is working with the general contractor, Andries, Storen, Reynaert, to find ways to work around the strike. More time may be devoted to a companion project at South, the renovation of the old industrial arts wing so it can accommodate art, drafting and photography classrooms.

While that wing is being renovated, South will lose the use of 17 classrooms, which will compound the crowding problem, according to Mr. Messing. That renovation is scheduled for completion in January 1980.

The South High School site also will get a new $100,000 all weather track and outdoor concession facility this summer. Work on that project should be completed in time for the track season next fall.

What we provide is a working laboratory in the real business world—an opportunity for them to become involved, firsthand, in the many facets of banking and finance. In exchange, they perform very real services for us. We're all pleased at the program's continued success. In fact, several of our former co-op students have chosen to make banking their career. We're proud of our long-standing role in helping young people make better-informed career choices.

Many of our bank personnel are personally involved in community service activities. One of our Assistant Managers is Treasurer of the Soroptimist International of Grosse Pointe. Neighborhood Interest is taking an interest in Grosse Pointe students.

For 14 years, we've been cooperating with the Grosse Pointe school system's Co-op program, under the supervision of Paul Pierron of Grosse Pointe schools. Each year we've hired, on the average, three high school seniors to work in the bank. Our co-op students this year, as shown above, are Mayssa Attia, Kevin Freeman and Lori Neil. These energetic young people each put in a minimum of 20 hours-a-week as seniors at Grosse Pointe North High School.

Leadership Training Eyed By School Representatives

Headed by The Pointe's secondary schools, public, private and parochial, together designated student leaders from each school, met at the War Memorial Wednesday, May 23, to form a steering committee for a Leadership Training program to be held in late September.

The program will endeavor to instill self confidence and self awareness in leaders, train them to formulate a set of values and to communicate effectively, to develop positive thinking and guide and elicit support from groups, particularly in their own schools.

An important facet of the program will be the discovery and training of future leaders.

The student leaders felt the program should apply concretely to their own school situations and still be oriented toward developing a community leadership transcending individual school interests.

Rev. George Andrews, chaplain and student advisor, University Liggett School, (ULS), will moderate the program. He hopes the students participating will come up with a more exciting title than Leadership Training in the fall will be modeled after that of the International Student Leadership Institute held last year at the University of Notre Dame. On Monday, June 18, the student leaders and faculty counselors' and administrators from the various schools will meet at the Center from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. to formulate the program for the fall workshop.

The Rev. Tom Chambers, who ran the Leadership Institute at Notre Dame, will be flown in to address and advise the group on the practical steps to be taken and materials to be used and developed for the fall.

Present were William Mogk, principal, South High School, and John Cammett, president of South's Varsity Club, John Gillooly, president of South's Student Association, and Greta Lintvedt, president of South's Class of '80.

From North High were principal Bruce Feighner, assistant principal Florence Miller, Senior Class president Kathy Heck, Student Association president Christopher Lynch and Junior Class president Scott Turnbull.

Our Lady Star of the Sea was represented by Donald Sloan, principal, Sister Adele Marwacki, guidance counselor, Diane Alessi, president, National Honor Society and co-editor of yearbook, Cathy Boyle, vice-president, Student Council, and Ann Van Hollebeke, Student Council sophomore representative.

Rev. Andrews led the contingent from ULS along with Carolyn Danaher, '79 Junior Class president, Andrea Feesser, Student Council representative, and Bill Mackey, fair chairman, 1980.

Present from the War Memorial were Mrs. David Richardson, program coordinator, James Schrage of the program committee, and John Lake, director.

Health Council Elects Officers

Members of the Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe recently elected Eleanor Pugliesi of Webber place to a two-year term as president.

Joining Mrs. Pugliesi will be Elaine Feesser as vice-president for programs, Sandy Cleland, recording secretary, Sylvia Sanders, corresponding secretary, and Clare Jursek, co-treasurer. Juanita Gaynor also serves as co-treasurer.

The Health Education Council conducts a number of programs in the community aimed at improving general health. It works closely with the schools, providing fluoride treatments, clinics and volunteers to staff medical clinics.

The youth, Steven McCann, of Lincoln road, will spend the next three weeks in traction and another eight weeks in a cast, according to his mother.

No charges will be filed against the driver of the car, police said.

SJH Seminar Views Stress

The Patient Education Center of Saint John Hospital, (SJH), 22101 Moross road, Detroit, is offering a two-day seminar on "Stress Management."

It is open to the general public and will be offered today, June 7, and tomorrow, June 8, from 1:30 to 5 p.m., in the lower level conference room of the education center. The charge for this two-day seminar is $10.

Included in this seminar will be a written "Stress Experience Test," a series of professionally produced films viewed on coping with stress, anxiety, relaxation skills, exercises, diaphragmatic breathing and a myriad of suggestions, experiences, and literature on how to more effectively handle stress in your daily life.

Reservations may be made by calling 343-3870.

System Offers Massive Show

"Genesis," the one-of-a-kind movie now showing at the Detroit Science Center Space Theater, owes its spectacular realism to the most advanced motion picture projection system in the world.

The heart of the system is the Omnimax, which throws an enormous image through its fish-eye lens, covering an area approximately 7,300 square feet and literally engulfing the spectator.

Omnimax, a one-ton projector that cost over $500,000 and requires an elevator to lift it 13 feet into position for showing "Genesis," projects an image 10 times larger than the conventional movie theater screen. The 70 mm film covers a 180-degree horizontal plane and 120-degree vertical plane.

A distilled water cooling system keeps the 12,000 watt Xenon lamp from overheating. The film rides through the projector on a cushion of air and can be run over 6,000 times before it will show signs of wear.

The film, which stretches out two miles, 900 feet, moves through the projector.

TARPINIAN ELECTED
Harry Tarpinian of Bishop road has been elected president of the Torch Club of Detroit. John J. Schonenberg Jr. of McMillan road was elected treasurer of the group and Dr. Roger McNeill of Windmill Pointe drive became a director. Other Pointers serving as directors are C. Richard Abbott of University place and Richard Huegli of Radnor circle.

at 5.5 feet or 24 frames a second. It runs for 35 minutes and requires 15 minutes to rewind. The movie cost $10,000 a minute to produce, and the film reel weighs 300 pounds.

The "screen," which covers the entire dome of the space theater, is perforated sheet metal covered with vinyl. The perforations allow light to pass through so there is no glare.

The theater accommodates 244 — and there isn't a bad seat in the house. The seats recline at appropriate angles so that the entire audience has the same view.

The sound is provided by a six-channel stereo system, using four tracks for music and special effects and two for narration.

The only theaters in North America able to accommodate the Omnimax projector are located in St. Paul, San Diego, Detroit and Monterey, Mexico. Another is now under construction in Japan.

Although the film surrounds the viewer, filling his entire field of vision, the images have remarkable clarity, without fuzziness or distortion.

"Genesis" is booked at the Detroit Science Center through next February for a year's run. Science Center officials expect a record 300,000 children and adults to enjoy the film during this time.

For times of showings and other details, call the center which is located at 5020 John R street, at 833-1892.

FARMS-CITY MAJORS

By Joe Fromm

The Tigers rallied for four runs in the bottom of the seventh to defeat the Yankees, 11-10, on Sunday, June 3, to win the first half championship with a record of 7-3. The Tigers came out of fourth place two weeks ago and won their last four games to take the title.

Only one game separated the next three teams. The Yankees were second with a record of 5-4-1, followed by the Indians at 5-5 and the Red Sox at 4-5-1.

The White Sox with a record of 2-6 knocked the Red Sox out of second place with an exciting 6-5, ninth inning win on Saturday, June 1.

The Tigers spotted the Yankees a 10-1 lead in the first two innings in the title game. The Tigers narrowed the margin to 10-7 with six runs in the fourth and went into the bottom of the seventh trailing 10-7.

The Tigers scored two and had runners on third and second with one out. Todd Pierce laid down a perfect suicide squeeze bunt to score the tying run. Mike Hall, the runner on second, rounded third and scored the winning run easily as Pierce was thrown out at first.

Hall pitched the first two in the seventh inning to get credit for the win and raise his season's record to 3-0. Pierce pitched four scoreless innings between Hall's two appearances on the mound.

The Tigers downed the White Sox 10-6 on Monday, May 21. Tim Shope collected four singles and Chris Treiber two doubles for the Tigers. Mike Downs singled twice for the White Sox.

The Tigers defeated Fluid Systems of the Woods, 7-3, on Wednesday, May 23, as John Conway drove in two runs with a triple and a squeeze bunt in addition to scoring two runs. Tim Shope of the Tigers made a run saving diving catch in right field and converted a single to right into the game ending out with a perfect throw to first base.

The Tigers defeated Matthews Hargraves of the Woods, 5-3, on Monday, May 28, with a three-run rally in the top of the seventh. Dan Doyle drove in the tying and winning run with a two-out single.

Pat McKee with three hits and Don Keller with two aided the Tiger cause. Todd Pierce pitched three innings of scoreless ball in relief to chalk up the win.

The Yankees won a close 2-1 decision over the Indians on Wednesday, May 30, as Dave Fitzgerald held the Indians to one hit. Jim Fitzsimmons drove in the tying run for the Yankees in second and Bill Hoey singled in the winning run in the sixth.

The Indians overwhelmed the Red Sox, 20-6 on Wednesday, May 23. John Cook had a two-run homer and two singles for the Indians. Dave Weible of the Indians and Mike Palazzola of the Red Sox also homered.

The White Sox won their first game of the season on Sunday, May 27, with a 13-7 win over the Yankees. The White Sox hitters were led by Mark Martinelli, Steve Wayman and Gord Farquhar with two hits each. David Fitzgerald hit a bases-loaded triple for the Yankees.

The White Sox had to come from behind twice before downing the Red Sox in nine innings on Saturday, June 2. Todd Clavola doubled in the bottom of the seventh to drive in two runs and tie the score at 4-4.

The Red Sox took the lead in the top of the ninth but the White Sox came back with two in the bottom to win, 6-5. Paul Martinelli's sacrifice fly brought in the winning run from third on a close play at the plate.

In the first 10 games of the inter-league play against The Woods, The Woods won six and the Farms-City, four. Pioneer of the Woods downed the Indians 5-4 on Monday, May 27.

The Indians lost their second game to a Woods team losing to Simon, 8-4, on Thursday, May 31.

Every team except for the Yankees have won one game in the second-half of the season. The Indians downed the Yankees, 8-6 on Saturday, June 2, and the Red Sox defeated Pioneer of the Woods on Friday, June 1.

The White Sox defeated the Tigers, 15-2, on Friday, June 1, and the Tigers bounced back on Sunday, June 3, to defeat Seymour of the Woods, 10-1.

The senior Babe Ruth travelling team of the Farms-City for 18-year-olds and under will open its season on Sunday, June 10, at Kerby Field in a triple header. Grosse Pointe will meet Bishop Foley at 12 noon.

West Bloomfield at 2 p.m. and Grosse Pointe will meet West Bloomfield at 4 p.m.

The team is a member of the Suburban Federation of the Amateur Baseball League playing in the Connie Mack Division. All games will be played at Kerby Field. The team is coached by Joe Maul.

FARMS-CITY ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE

By William Haring

The Rangers have surged into first place on the strength of a seven-game win streak. The Rangers are now 8-2, good for a full game lead over the Angels at 7-3. The Brewers are 6-3, and remain a serious contender in spite of a two game losing streak during the week of May 21. The improving A's under new manager Max McKee are in fourth place at 3-5-1, followed by the Twins at 2-6 and the Reds.

Bad weather over Memorial Day weekend forced the league to play a full schedule on Sunday, May 27, including a doubleheader for the Angels. In the first game Angels ace lefthander Mike Wood pitched a no-hitter and struck out 14 Twins in a 4-2 victory.

Wood had three hits and two RBIs in the best all-around performance by an All-American League player so far this season. Clay Vandembusch of the Twins also "turned in" an excellent pitching performance by limiting the Angels to only five hits.

The second game of the doubleheader saw the Rangers nip the Angels, 6-5, with a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh. Paul Naimish of the Rangers pitched five strong innings and drove in the winning run with a single in the bottom of the seventh.

Golf Tourney Aids St. Paul's

Over 150 golfers, including sports and television celebrities teed off at Great Oaks Country Club, Rochester, on Tuesday, June 5, in the fourth annual Bull Market golf tourney in an effort to raise funds for Saint Paul School's Athletic Fund.

William Anton, Detroit area restaurateur who is once again acting as chairman of the event, said, "Last year we were able to realize nearly $4,500 from the tournament to help further the tremendous athletic programs for the children of Saint Paul's. We hope to do even better this year."

A field of 140 participants paying $100 each to compete in the tournament and 30 celebrities hit Great Oaks' fairways in a Texas Scramble event.

The Texas Scramble, a long-time tourney feature, allows all members of a foursome to hit each shot along the fairway from the best lie achieved by any player in the group.

Let's Talk Real Estate. Talking with a friend the other day and the subject of how Grosse Pointers were taking care of their lawns and landscaping. My friend didn't think we were doing a very good job so I challenged her to come with me and show me what she was talking about. When we went to the area she was surprised to find that the area wasn't as bad as she had thought. So you might say this is a rumor that was choked before it traveled all over the country.

When we went down the streets of the area she was complaining about the lawns were really mowed. It was as if everyone on the street decided to mow on the same day. The continuity of lawn after lawn all mowed at the same time and height was almost breathtaking!

Since this experience we've noted how badly an overgrown lawn can look when compared with a neat trim neighbor. This brings us to a heck of a good idea—Let's have each Friday be "Lawn Mowing Day"! This will give us a neat trim weekend and even throughout the week it'll be nicer!

Sometimes our neighbors are out—and if they don't have a service it wouldn't hurt the neighbors to mow his lawn—after all it helps keep his lawn and home beautiful.

And now that we have Friday as our "Lawn Mowing Day" so they have someone design a schedule for us to water our lawns so let's stay full, rich and green!

"Lawn Mowing Day!" Another innovative idea from your Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087.

Grosse Pointe Babe Ruth Results Listed

The A's Paul Nelson fashed out of the season thus far when he threw a three-hit 5-0 gem at the Brewers on May 27 at Elworthy Field. Nelson walked only one Brewer, struck out three and was never in serious trouble.

Singles by Nelson, Emery Audretsch and Jeff Boettcher gained two runs for the A's in the fourth. The A's added a run in the sixth on a single by Bill Kallardos and two more runs in the seventh on singles by Mike Fridholm, Brian Withers and a Brewer's throwing error.

The Rangers defeated the Brewers, 4-3, in a tight, well-played game at South High on Wednesday, May 23. A pitcher's duel between Rangers' Greg Restum and the Brewers' Karl Doelle was decided in the bottom of the sixth when Paul Saylor singled in the tying run and Jody McAlister singled in the winning run.

Restum and Doelle both struck out eight batters and the Rangers' Jamie Burke contributed a great defensive play at short when he went deep in the hole to snag a ground ball and nip the Brewers' John Tien at home with the would be tying run.

The Brewers blasted the Twins 17-6, on Wednesday, May 30. Gilder Jackson gained the win on a five-hitter and Dave Isaac stroked three singles. Dave Crockenberg, Stark Langs and Ray Stocking had two hits for the Brewers, and Scott McCarty stroked a two-run triple for the Twins.

The Reds and Rangers went nine innings on Thursday, May 31, before the Rangers' Tom Cook scratched an infield single to score Skip Waterfall with the winning run in the bottom of the ninth. The Rangers scored eight runs in their second inning and seemed to have picked the game away.

However the Reds' Hal Brown took over mound duties in the second, stopped the rally and shut out the heavy-hitting Rangers for the next six and two-thirds innings before Cook's scratch hit won the game, 9-8. Waterfall relieved Ranger starter Naimish in the sixth and picked up the win with three innings of shutout pitching. The Rangers seventh straight victory came on Saturday, June 2, when a big 10-run first inning sank the Twins, 16-6. John McDonald and Will Jackson each had two hits for the Rangers.

The Brewers broke out of their slump on Sunday, June 2, when Karl Doelle pitched a two-hitter and defeated the Angels, 6-2. The Angels' Mike Wood took the loss in spite of pitching a six-hitter himself.

Wood's wildness and four RBIs by the Brewers' Dave Crockenberg were all Doelle needed to gain his third win of the season. Les Linder and John Vismara shared the pitching duties as the Angels defeated the A's, 9-6, on Tuesday, May 22. A six-run Angel second inning featuring singles by Bob Celmer, Kurt Allen and Vismara proved too much for the A's to overcome. Jeff Boettcher's two hits and two RBIs led the A's attack.

Paul Saylor pitched and batted the Rangers to a 7-6 victory over the A's on Tuesday, May 29, at Kerby Field. Saylor pitched two shutout innings in relief and won his own game with a two-out single to score Tom Cook with the winning run in the seventh.

Paul Nelson of the A's won his third game of the season on June 2 with a 12-8 victory over the Reds. The Reds' Chuck Kaess and Rob Pytell each touched Nelson for two hits. Nelson, Emery Audretsch and Ned Sparrow had three hits each for the A's.

Letters to The Editor

The NEWS welcomes letters to the editor from its readers. However, all letters must contain complete information, e.g., name, address, city and telephone number. It's the NEWS' policy to publish letters with name, address and city. However, a name will be withheld upon request provided the reason is a good one and the NEWS knows who the letter writer is. The NEWS also reserves the right to not run any letter submitted.

To the Editor:

In the May 31 edition of the "Grosse Pointe News," a certain article caught my attention. The article entitled "School Election Nears" presented Dorothy Kennel and Ronald Dalby as the forerunners in the race for School Board seats.

In this article, which was meant to inform your readers on the race, you presented some very biased opinions. I was taught that the feature and opinion, or editorial, pages were to present opinions, not the front page on which only facts are presented.

I wonder how many of your readers caught on to your mentioning that Mrs. Kennel and Mr. Dalby both belonged to the same church, which... "coincidentally..." candidate Carl Anderson and Board members Joan Hanpeter, Jon Gandelot and Mrs. Adussi" all belonged to.

Now, I don't know what that means to some people, but isn't even mentioning that fact in such an influential community paper suggestive of a certain mixture of church and state, a practice which is firmly denied in the Constitution of the United States of America?

I also wonder if your readers noticed that Mrs. Kennel and Mr. Dalby were the only candidates to advertise in the "The Grosse Pointe News" in the above mentioned issue.

I see no reason for you to base your conclusions about the forerunners in the race from anything printed in this article, and therefore, the mere observation of this fact leaves little doubt in my mind of the sincerity of this paper to its readers and the responsibility it possesses toward its readers to present a fair and non-influenced opinion about the qualifications of each candidate.

Merely advertising in your paper does not denote a forerunner in any election. By presenting such a biased opinion on your front page you not only damaged the trust of the people of the Grosse Pointe communities have placed in your paper, but you also hurt the campaign of those running for any type of political office by presenting space which was seemingly bought by them by advertising in your paper.

Hopefully, in issues to come, the elections of any kind will be presented in such a way as to provide each candidate with a fair and equal chance to gain any office for which they so choose to run.

After all, it is the people who ultimately must make the decision as to who we, as a community, must depend upon to represent us.

No amount of propaganda can truly lose a race for a good candidate, but it can kill any and all chances for one not so promoted.

Sincerely,
Lorraine M. White,
Student,
South High School,
Class of 1980,
Of Somerset road,
Grosse Pointe Park

To the Editor:

In reference to your article about Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation, (CPR), I think it's a great idea to put trained personnel in Grosse Pointe high schools to teach CPR. This type of activity has long been needed. The one concern I have about this program is the way in which it's taught.

I went through the course myself and feel that just about anyone may pass. I realize the idea behind it is to have large numbers of people learn CPR, but the way our course was designed, it was possible for a student who doesn't know CPR very well to be passed. And the passing of this student may mean more damage done to an injured person.

If the requirements for passing were raised there may be fewer students passing, but they would be better qualified.

Sincerely,
Bob Masi,

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

I don't want to stay home this summer. My idea of a vacation doesn't include cleaning out the garage, fixing the roof or washing windows. I want to get out of town, to see the world or at least a small corner of it.

Now the threat of not enough gasoline to keep the family car going or planes from flying is cause for some concern. I know my patriotic duty is a vacation close to home, but still I'm going away by hook or by book.

First stop is Nantucket Island, located out in the Atlantic off the southeastern coast of Massachusetts. The venerable Daniel Webster described Nantucket as "the unknown city in the ocean."

Two centuries ago Nantucket was the greatest whaling port in the Colonies. When the whaling industry ended a century ago, the town fell asleep only to be rediscovered in the 20th century.

The charm of Nantucket town is to be found in the restored dwellings and dignified mansions that the whalers built. In the summer months tourists mingle with the 4,000 permanent residents and all enjoy the invigorating climate, its sailing and swimming opportunities, and its miles of sandy beaches. The basic quality of its appeal is the historical background of the old town.

Edouard A. Stackpole and Peter H. Dreyer have combined their writing and photography talents to produce an unusually fine book entitled NANTUCKET IN COLOR. (Hastings House, 1973). The book is a part of the Profiles of America series. Facing each page of text is a full page photograph by Mr. Dreyer depicting the beauty of Nantucket. From Nantucket to the Big Apple is but a full day's drive but it is a world away in life style.

Bearing in mind the warnings that there would be long lines of cars waiting to purchase gas in New York City, I will take along Helen Hanff's book APPLE OF MY EYE, (Doubleday, 1978).

Ms. Hanff has outlined a number of walking tours of the city. Of course you have to take an occasional ferry boat ride or a subway to get to all the interesting places she writes about. It would take two months to complete the New York City tour outlined in the book, so I'll hit only a few places I've never seen and then I'm off to the Nation's Capitol.

Walking again is the best way to see the Capitol. I can find out all about walking tours by reading A GUIDE TO THE ARCHITECTURE OF WASHINGTON, D.C., (McGraw-Hill, 1974).

Each tour is built around architecturally important buildings, bridges or monuments. Tour A is naturally enough a walking tour of Capitol Hill. The Federal Triangle is covered in tour D, while Alexandria is left to tour T. I'll never last that long and besides I've seen Alexandria.

Before my three week vacation ends, I'll visit Cooperstown, N.Y., to see a real baseball game, Isle Royale to talk with the animals and walk the Appalachian Trail at least for a few miles.

As my fancy strikes me I'll go to New Mexico, San Francisco or perhaps even Alaska — I'll go wherever I want by hook or book.

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

This year's annual school election will be conducted on Monday, June 11. On that date two of the 11 persons who have declared their candidacy for the Board of Education will be selected to serve four year terms as trustees.

Although it is somewhat unusual to have so many candidates for the Board, the 11-person field presents Grosse Pointe voters with a variety of alternatives.

Another unusual feature about this year's election is that there are no incumbents among the candidates. Trustees William Huetteman and Robert Warner have chosen not to seek re-election following the expiration of their second four-year terms on June 30.

Both men were elected in 1971 and have faithfully served the residents of this community in carrying out their responsibilities as Board members since that time.

The contributions of Bill Huetteman and Bob Warner to the school system are far too numerous to list in this space and their experience, knowledge and leadership in dealing with educational issues will be missed by all who have had the privilege of working with them over the past eight years.

The successors to Mr. Huetteman and Mr. Warner will be on a Board that has to deal with some critical issues in the operation of the school system. Contracts with all of the system's employe groups expire at the end of June and we are now beginning the negotiation of new contracts.

Before the end of the 1979-80 school year the total millage package for the public schools and libraries will expire requiring next year's Board to determine a millage rate to present to the voters. These two areas are in addition to policy, curriculum, personnel, property and business decisions which have to be made as a matter of course in the efficient operation of the school system.

Voters should study the issues and the positions of the candidates on those issues. On a seven-member governing body like our Board of Education, two persons can have a significant influence on the decisions of the Board.

Consequently, it is imperative that voters select the individuals whose views and commitments are most congruent with the educational attitudes, hopes and aspirations of this community.

To allow participatory democracy to work to the maximum, it is necessary that all voters take advantage of their right to cast ballots at the polls on June 11. The democratic process only works when the right to vote is exercised. Every vote is important—do your part on June 11!

COSTLY TRAINING
More than 85 percent of the nation's public, private and parochial schools offer driver training. The cost of teaching the 2.8 million young people who enroll totals approximately $200 million annually.

Pointers Facing Pleasant Problem in Board Election

The largest number of candidates in the recent memory of school administration officials are seeking two, four-year seats on the Board of Education on Monday, June 11. This expression of interest on the part of 11 citizens is decidedly commendable and all are to be complimented for their initiative.

Voters now have the problem, (albeit a pleasant one), of narrowing down the field to the pair of winners. The reason is because at least seven candidates, the NEWS feels, are qualified to serve on the Board with three in particular, Carl Anderson, Ronald Dalby and Dorothy Kennel, showing solid merit. At the same time, Dr. Ernest Buechler Brian Killian, Virginia M. Radar and Sharon J. Vasher, also deserve consideration.

Presently the administrator of the St. Clair Shores Adult and Continuing Education program, Mr. Anderson's emphasis upon improving the cooperative spirit among all segments of the school community, plus his interest in future educational planning, is worthy of note. He also has proven to be a hard worker and articulate in addressing areas of concern.

Mr. Dalby, the president of a residential development and construction firm, and a commercial arbitrator, stresses an analytical approach to problems affecting the school community, with an objective of reaching decisions beneficial to all.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Kennel, a retired educator, has shown consistent interest in the entire school system, e.g., attending many Board meetings over the past several years, and is familiar with the total operation. She knows the system, its curriculum and has a good working relationship with people.

While several candidates are current or former educators, (see story, page 1), the NEWS feels this shouldn't be a major concern for the electorate. Rather, the perspective, drive and interest shown by the individual, his or her thoughts on improving the educational system and addressing problems affecting it, should be a primary consideration.

For the pair who are elected to the Board, it will be a growing and learning process—for none are incumbents. They will have an opportunity to show their mettle and take the necessary actions toward the betterment of the entire educational process in the community. May they always strive for that goal during their time of service.

GP Park Tables Pictures Of Demonstration House

By Joanne N. Gouleche

A request to take some 2,000 pictures of the Demonstration House at 1094 Lakepointe avenue for purposes of showing residents the before and after effects of renovation was tabled by the Park Council at its rescheduled meeting Tuesday, May 29.

City Manager John R. Crawford told the council that the cost of a visual aid promotional presentation entailing slide presentation, cost narration and art work of the Demonstration House would be about $2,500, a bid received from Corporate Communications, Inc., of Centerline.

Councilman Charles S. Tompkins stated that he "wouldn't want to sit around and look at 2,000 pictures" and further indicated to the council that he "shouldn't be spending that much money."

Mayor Matthew C. Patterson maintained, however, that the pictures would demonstrate to the public what the house looked like before renovation.

The need for so many pictures was questioned by Councilman George J. Verdonck as he understood that the public is going to be invited to view the house personally before and after renovation.

"It's a waste of my tax dollars and it's like throwing money out of the window," Mr. Verdonck stated.

But Councilwoman Ann M. MacDonald informed the council that the $2,500 would be taken from a $50,000 Community Development Block Grant to fix up the Demonstration House.

Whatever monies are not spent on the Demonstration House will go back to the federal government.

Mr. Crawford explained that the pictures would be displayed in every room of the house showing what each room looked like before renovation so residents would be able to view the actual work done on the house.

He cited an example whereby photos of newly installed insulation would be shown and the cost data of such explained with graphics.

Mr. Patterson reiterated his support for the request, while Councilman Douglas G. Graham moved that the request be tabled until lower bids could be received.

"I think we should get back to basics and only be concerned with what the house looked like before and after" (renovation), Mr. Graham added, so, as a result, Mr. Crawford will seek further bids on the project.

Besides Mr. Graham, others voting for the motion were Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Verdonck, while Mr. Patterson and Mrs. MacDonald voted in opposition. Councilmen Clayton P. Alandt and Dr. Roger F. McNeill were absent during the time of the vote, although Dr. McNeill later joined the council.

Assistance League Guard Changes

The Grosse Pointe Club was the setting Wednesday, June 6, for the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center's annual meeting and luncheon during which outgoing president ELLEN (Mrs. Douglas)

COOKE, (right), presented a check for over $40,000 to DR. JONATHAN YORK, NEGC director, then turned over her gavel of office to FRAN (Mrs. Anthony) PASTORIA.

The league's 275 members volunteered over 16,000 hours in addition to uncounted hours given by board members and project chairmen to accumulate their 1978-79 donation. Part of the money provided funds for children to attend the circus, and funds for toys and new furnishings for the center.

In addition to working on fund raising projects, league members serve as volunteers at the center, assisting with secretarial tasks, with tutoring, with Child and Adult Day Treatment and Mental Health Week promotion.

At yesterday's luncheon, the league honored current board members, project chairmen and four special members who have given outstanding time, service and energy to the NEGC over the years: Charlotte (Mrs. Troy)

Maschmeyer, Inez Moore, Nancy (Mrs. David) Olson and Mary (Mrs. George) Shammass.

The new slate of officers headed by Mrs. Pastoria includes Lisbeth (Mrs. Gregory) Oates as president-elect and Marion (Mrs. V. J.) Lisotto, first vice-president, (projects), Sharon (Mrs. Hugh) Nelson, second vice-president, (membership), and Judy (Mrs. Thomas) Konwinski, third vice-president, (service).

The post-luncheon program featured Star of the Sea Choral Group.

Incoming president Fran Pastoria invites anyone in the community interested in mental health to contact the director's office at the NEGC, 824-8000, for information on Assistance League membership.

Schedule Concerts For Pro-Musica

Internationally Acclaimed Soprano Jessye Norman Featured in Concert Planned for Orchestra Hall; Pianist And Instrumental Trio Also Will Perform

Living up to its 53-year commitment to present composers and artists who are on the threshold of world renown, the Pro Musica society of Detroit will bring three attractions that meet these criteria for its 1979-80 season. The announcement was made at the recent Pro Musica annual dinner.

The young Soviet Georgian pianist, Alexander Toradze, will be featured Friday, November 30. He won the Silver Medal of the 1977 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition.

A new instrumental ensemble called Musica Camera will perform at the second concert Friday, February 29, 1980. Its members are cellist Tanya Remenikova, a past pupil of Rostropovich at the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatoire, Alexander Braginsky, pianist and also a graduate of the Moscow School, and John Anderson, clarinetist and graduate of the University of Michigan Music School.

Barney Childs, American composer and professor of music at the University of Redlands in California, will appear with the trio who will perform his composition, dated 1976.

Both of these concerts will be held on Friday evenings in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts at 8:30 o'clock.

of Michigan School of Music. Because of the anticipated demand for seats and the outstanding power and beauty of Miss Norman's voice, the program will be held in the acoustically superb Orchestra Hall.

All three programs will be followed by the traditional afterglow when the audience can meet to talk and greet the artists.

The annual election held at the dinner resulted in the following Pro Musica members being elected to three year terms as directors.

They include Pointers Edward P. Frohlich, Mrs. Paul J. Kelley, Mrs. Nicholas Kondak, John P. Miller and Mrs. Pierre V. Heftler.

In the board meeting that followed, the following incumbent officers were re-elected for another year: Alexander Sucek, president, Thomas LoCicero, first vice-president, Mrs. George Zeitz, of Dearborn, second vice-president, Mr. Frohlich, treasurer, and Mrs. Berj H. Haidostian, of Birmingham, secretary.

In a special departure from tradition, the membership of Pro Musica accepted an invitation from Maestro Antal Dorati of the Detroit Symphony to participate in (Continued on Page 22)

Goodwill Juniors Enjoy Soiree in May

The stately and beautiful Lakeshore road estate built by Edsel and Eleanor Ford was the setting for the Junior Group of League for the Handicapped-Goodwill Industries' "May Soiree" cocktail dance.

Guests were welcomed in the elegant reception hall by Mrs. Robert H. Kennedy, incoming president, and co-chairmen Mrs. William Marshall and Mrs. Roger McNeill.

From there, they drifted into the drawing room overlooking Lake St. Clair, the study, the library and the formal dining room, an especially popular gathering spot where the hors d'oeuvres table with its tiered centerpiece drew unanimous approval.

Music was provided by Art Quatro's Trio in the gallery. Among those enjoying the late afternoon party were Pointers Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, the William A. Champions, the Robert E. Dices, Mr. and Mrs. George Tarakis and the John W. Hamals.

Port-party, the Juniors have been busy sorting, marking — even assembling furniture—for League-Goodwill's annual Pre-Summer Sale, which opened yesterday at the Goodwill Building in Brush street, Detroit, and will run from 10 in the morning to 3 in the afternoon today and Friday, June 7 and 8.

The sale offers a variety of merchandise contributed by Detroit area retail establishments and office furniture from various industrial firms. Some is in excellent condition. Some is sold on an "as-is" basis.

All items are sold cash and carry, and all sales are final.

Lawn furniture, desks, tables, hall trees, large and small appliances ranging from radios to microwave ovens, television sets to pocket calculators, are available.

As part of their volunteer service activities, the Juniors act as sales clerks during the three-day sale. All proceeds are used by the agency to further its program of evaluation, training and employment of handicapped men and women.

Although League-Goodwill no longer collects contributed articles from the home and does not operate retail outlets on a regular basis, it continues to open its Brush street facility, with parking available next to the building on the corner of Milwaukee, periodically, to enable the public to purchase contributions of an unusual nature.

Junior Group Meets Friday

A board of directors meeting of the Junior Group League Goodwill was convened at 10 o'clock in the Lakeland avenue home of Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, Friday, June 1.

Luncheon was served following the meeting.

Royal Bradley's grandmother, who was Christina Leggett before she married James Anderson in 1888 in the township of Hinchinbrooke in Quebec.

Following that grand entrance, the fashion scope looks down through the years with a 1904 wedding dress belonging to Mrs. William G. Butler's daughter, made from her paternal grandmother's gown.

Wendy Cope, daughter of Mrs. Henry P. Cope, will wear her father's mother's 1917 wedding gown. The year 1930 provides Mrs. Maguire's own wedding dress, 1936 that of Mrs. Mark Loush.

Mrs. Peter Tocco will model the gown she wore at her own wedding in 1947. Two gowns will represent 1948: one owned by Mrs. Lester Maurer, the other owned and modeled by Mrs. Felix Resnick, wife of the Grosse Pointe Symphony's conductor.

Mrs. Elmo L. Joseph will wear her own 1949 gown. Then, skipping forward a few years, Nicky Bertram will appear in the gown worn in 1955 by her mother, Mrs. Karl Bertram, and Mrs. Kim K. Lie will wear her 1957 wedding dress.

A few more years . . . and it's 1962, with Mrs. Robert Butz wearing her mother of the bride dress and Judi Hunter modeling the wedding dress of Mrs. Butz's daughter, Mrs. Andrew Adsit.

The 1963 gown worn by Mrs. Terance W. Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Edward F. Suits, comes next, while 1964 puts Mrs. Frank A. Germack, Jr., in the spotlight in her own wedding gown. A few more years . . . and it's 1968, a memorable year for Mrs. Michael Bucciero who will wear her own wedding gown.

Into another decade, 1978 produces Mrs. Walter J. Baval in the mother of the bride dress she wore to the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Brian Scott, who will model her own gown. Also representing 1978 will be Mrs. Jeff Miller, a guest at the Pointe Symphony's Women's annual luncheon meeting, who will wear her own wedding dress.

Other association members whose mother of the bride dresses will be modeled or worn by their owners are Mrs. Frank Seydler (1956), Mrs. Lyndle R. Martini (1964), Mrs. Michel A. Skaff (1970) and Mrs. Marshall E. Collins (1974).

There will even be a mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Mertz, in the dress she wore to her son's wedding in 1966. And no wedding review is complete without a flower girl: next Thursday she will be Viviane Tawile, daughter of Mrs. Nabil Tawile.

Viviane will wear a dress from Mrs. Bucciero's wedding. Young Drew Woodruff, son of Mrs. Thomas B. Woodruff, will be the ring bearer.

show. Mr. Mayer also will offer hints on how to keep rose bushes blooming throughout the hot summer months. He is recognized as one of the better rose growers in the metropolitan area and, in 1978, was awarded the Queen of Show and Best Rose in Show trophies for a hybrid tea rose, Turo, at the annual Great Lakes District

Women's Art Is on Display at Museum

The first exhibition by members of the Michigan Chapter-Women's Caucus for Art is on view in the Art Rental Gallery of the Detroit Institute of Arts through this Sunday, June 10.

The juried show presents 59 paintings, sculptures, photographs, prints, ceramics and fiberworks by 42 artists, principally from the Detroit-Ann Arbor-Lansing area. They were selected from more than 257 works of art submitted by members of the MCWCA, a newly-formed chapter of the national organization which represents some 3,000 professional women in art.

Jurors were Jackie Feigenson, of Detroit's Feigenson-Rosenstein Gallery, Mary Jane Jacob, associate curator of Modern Art, the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Lee Ann Miller, chair, department of Art and Art History, Wayne State University.

All works are available for rental and sale through the Art Rental Gallery, a service for members of the museum's supporting organization, the Founders Society.

The gallery permanently stocks some 900 original works by Michigan artists — framed paintings, prints and sculpture—and 1,300 framed reproductions.

The Art Rental Gallery, in the museum's Ford Wing, is open from noon to 4:45 o'clock Tuesday through Sunday.

From Another Pointe of View

Parked in front of the Country Club on this special day will be three handsome, old cars in the best "get me to the church on time" tradition.

Mrs. Mertz has arranged for the display of the Mertzes' own 1937 Rolls Royce Phantom III and the nine-passenger, 1947 Packard limousine belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scharfenberg.

Dr. R. John Bradfield is loaning his bright green, 1929 Model A Ford roadster. It will be parked on the terrace, ready for a honeymoon getaway complete with tin cans, old shoes and a "Just Married" sign.

William B. Lafer, of Jacobson's Store For The Home, plans to set two tables-for-two in the club, one using gifts from the 1933 wedding of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bradshaw, set in strictest Emily Post propriety, the other very contemporary, featuring the latest china, crystal and flatware patterns.

The Dried Flower will provide bouquets for members of all wedding parties and there will be a charming collection of wedding memorabilia on display, including a fragile veil loaned by Mrs. Wilfred Casgrain, that has been used in 12 family weddings, and a 50-year-old wedding cake ornament loaned by Mrs. Augustus Christie.

In charge of it all is Mrs. Joseph, program chairman. Mrs. Carl Weideman will serve as fashion show commentator. Mrs. John W. Nelson, former chairman of the association, will accompany songs by Mrs. Ellwyn Gilbert. Mrs. Lyndle Martin, retiring president, will preside.

Social affairs chairman is Mrs. Henry Drettmann. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Richard Bohan. The hostess committee includes the Mesdames Lie and Tocco, Mrs. Filberto Cavazos, Mrs. George Cotichio, Mrs. Armand De Gaetano, Mrs. John R. Edgar, Mrs. Louis Mushro, Mrs. John E. Young, Jr., and Mrs. Michael K. Zylak.

Association models in the fashion review not previously mentioned are Mrs. Drettmann, Mrs. Raymond J. Foresman, Mrs. John Lazar and Mrs. Bernard Whitley. Guests who have volunteered their services as models are Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Don Sweeney and Miss Marianne Skaff.

The backstage committee includes Mrs. Marshall E. Collins, Mrs. Bertram, Mrs. Robert E. Kennel and Mrs. Henry P. Cope. Serving on the program committee are the Mesdames De Gaetano, Zylak and Butler, Mrs. Elmer Barber and Mrs. Harold Lee.

The meeting begins at 11 o'clock with annual reports of officers and chairmen of standing committees, presented in book form. They promise to keep it brief.

Cocktails will precede luncheon, and immediately afterward the fashion show will begin.

More than 400 invitations have been mailed out, requesting the pleasure of the company of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Association membership, but as the maximum number of reservations is 150 anyone who hasn't made formal plans is advised to cross her fingers and call Miss Rose Barton, 885-3605, NOW. Tickets are $8.50 per person.

Women's Art Is on Display at Museum

The first exhibition by members of the Michigan Chapter Women's Caucus for Art is on view in the Art Rental Gallery of the Detroit Institute of Arts through this Sunday, June 10.

The juried show presents 59 paintings, sculptures, photographs, prints, ceramics and fiberworks by 42 artists, principally from the Detroit-Ann Arbor-Lansing area. They were selected from more than 257 works of art submitted by members of the MCWCA, a newly-formed chapter of the national organization which represents some 3,000 professional women in art.

Jurors were Jackie Feigenson, of Detroit's Feigenson-Rosenstein Gallery, Mary Jane Jacob, associate curator of Modern Art, the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Lee Ann Miller, chair, department of Art and Art History, Wayne State University.

All works are available for rental and sale through the Art Rental Gallery, a service for members of the museum's supporting organization, the Founders Society.

The gallery permanently stocks some 900 original works by Michigan artists—framed paintings, prints and sculpture—and 1,300 framed reproductions.

The Art Rental Gallery, in the museum's Ford Wing, is open from noon to 4:45 o'clock Tuesday through Sunday.

VERY DESIRABLE BRIGHTON AREA

Magnificent 11 room, 3 bath Chalet Estate Home on 7 acres of high rolling wooded terrain, lavishly landscaped.

Less than three miles from city of Brighton, ten minutes from access to U.S. 23 and I-96 freeways.

Oak-stained ring-sawn cedar panelling and 2 lovely winding staircases, plus 2 uniquely designed imposing fireplaces express a feeling of grace and warmth.

Two-story high cedar-beamed cathedral ceilinged living room has 36 foot long cedar balcony overlooking large outdoor pool, lanai and cedar stockade.

Lower level family room leads to walkout stone patio and stone steps to pool.

Gorgeous private meadow and pond view from master bedroom and through doorway to small balcony outside. Another delightful view from loft down into the huge living room, green-house dining room and open island style kitchen.

Three-stall auto barn and parking for several cars.

At the end of a quarter mile treed private lane, all on the property, this indescribably beautiful home could never be duplicated anywhere, nor could its surroundings. Its cedar, shake roof with the four perfectly scaled dormers, is in itself a masterpiece.

If you are looking for a one-of-a-kind hideaway estate in the $300,000 range, please phone me at 313-1-229-8600 during business hours, Monday through Saturday or 1-227-7333, evenings or Sunday.

My dear wife, the inspiration for this custom fashioned 1970 home, died tragically last November. I have finally decided to dispose of the home, complete with all furnishings, appliances, utensils, tableware, linens, etc. all hand selected and of finest quality, so the new family can ease right into ready made luxury.

Final price and terms can be negotiated. Possession can be immediate as I'm planning a move to our retirement home in Arizona.

There is much more of interest to tell about this secluded, one of a kind estate that would add to its value, enjoyment and charm.

Stand by fares on carpet cleaning save 25%

Another great idea exclusively from Steve Hagopian, the leader in carpet cleaning:

Sometimes our carpet cleaning units are busier than others. If you can wait a week or so, or maybe even a day to accommodate our schedule, you can save 25% on any residential carpet cleaning job. Just like standby air fares, there's always the possibility our unit can come the very day you'd prefer. And you'll still save 25% if you're on standby with us. When it comes to carpet cleaning, come to Steve Hagopian. 21711 West 10 Mile Road, Southfield. Phone today. 353 1910

Miss Lakin Bride Of Mark Morley

She Wears Mother's Wedding Gown of Chantilly Lace and Illusion, Is Attended by Three Sisters

Cynthia Marie Lakin and Mark Allen Morley wrote the ceremony for their wedding Friday evening, May 18, in Christ United Methodist Church, the same church in which the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Donald H. Lakin, of North Rosedale court, were married.

The 6 o'clock rites at which Dr. Clyde E. Smith officiated were followed by a reception at the Gourmet House.

The newlyweds who are at home in Mount Pleasant, where they will complete their senior year at Central Michigan University, plan a delayed wedding trip in August.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of Chantilly lace and illusion, with a matching veil. She carried a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

July Bride

Plans for a July wedding are being made by GERALYNN ANN LE MIEUX and Leslie Arthur Day whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Le Mieux, recently of Saddle lane, now of The Shore Club.

The bride-elect, a graduate of University Liggett School, attended Eastern Michigan University and is assistant treasurer of the Q & Q Printing Company.

Les, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Day, of Woods lane, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and Michigan State University. He is presently a marketing analyst for Ford Motor Company.

The Mark Morleys

In Christ United Methodist Church Friday evening, May 18, CYNTHIA MARIE LAKIN, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald H. Lakin, of North Rosedale court, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Morley, son of the Archie J. Morleys, of Frankenmuth.

formed their bouquets.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie J. Morley, of Frankenmuth, asked his father to act as best man.

Guests were seated by Dave, Ray and Greg Morley, brothers of the bridegroom, and Mike Wootton. Candlelighters were Shawn and Bill Lakin, brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore an ankle length dress of sapphire blue chiffon. Her corsage was a lavender orchid. The bridegroom's mother selected a mint green gown and a white orchid corsage.

Coming from Switzerland for the ceremony were Regula and Gian Baumann. Regula was an exchange student with the bride's family 10 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lanfer, the bridegroom's grandparents, and his aunts, Mrs. Richard Wille and Mrs. John Walker, came from Florida. Another out-of-town guest was Mrs. Luella Katke, great-aunt of the bride.

Planning an August 11 wedding in Denver, Colo., are DIANE JEAN SLAVIK and Duane S. Osborn whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin J. Slavik, of Peachtree lane.

Miss Slavik, a 1976 Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, received her Dental Assistant certification from the Colorado College of Dental Assistants last year.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Osborn, of Sioux City, Iowa, has completed his management training with Standard Oil and is serving the company in a management capacity.

A 'Big Break' for Performers

That legendary "big break in show business" may really happen for some talented Detroit area singers and dancers when New York-based American Theatre Productions, Inc., holds auditions at Detroit's Music Hall next Thursday, June 14.

ATP, one of the country's largest producers of touring Broadway shows, is holding the auditions concurrent with the opening concert of one of its musicals, "Your Arms Too Short to Box with God," at the Music Hall.

Other Broadway hits among ATP's most recent touring productions are "California Suite," "The Wiz," "My Fair Lady," "Equus," "Da," "Same Time Next Year" and "Bubble Brown Sugar."

To apply for an audition appointment, call Susan Anderson at the Music Hall, 863-7622.

Before-You-Go-Planning

Advice given by Aesop in a fable 25 centuries ago makes real sense for the traveler headed for Europe this season.

"It is thrifty to prepare today for the wants of tomorrow." Veteran travelers feel the same way. They have learned from experience that before-you-go-planning on the basics can mean savings in time, money and general wear-and-tear on the nervous system.

If you are a do-it-yourself traveler it's a good idea to have a confirmed hotel reservation, at least for the first city on your itinerary. That will get you off on an upbeat note. It's best, however, to let a professional travel agent arrange the details of your trip. This can save you time and even money.

TRAVELWORLD's experienced staff can assist you with any travel plans. Stop in at 21127 Mack Avenue (N. of Vernier) or call 882-8190.
