HEADLINES

of the WEEK

THE U.S. MISSION to negotiate the release of some 65 American hostages in Iran remained doubtful after Ayatollah Khomeini refused to meet with former U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark to discuss the crisis. Militant Iranian students stormed the U.S. Embassy in Tehran earlier in the week indicating that the Americans would not be released until exiled Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi is returned to Iran for trial. The White House has remained firm on not releasing the shah, who is hospitalized in New York for cancer.

CALIFORNIA GOV. EDMUND G. BROWN JR. stepped into the race for the U.S. presidency, announcing his candidacy in Washington before the National Press Club. Brown, 41, said "the times call for discipline — and for vision." The California leader, now officially campaigning against Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and President Jimmy Carter, said that if elected, he will push for federal takeover of oil importation. Brown acknowledged that he will have to do well in the New England states to be a credible candidate.

FINAL APPROVAL CAME through the Senate for a $30.3 billion energy package that will assist poor people with their heating bills this winter. The package also provides for $19.9 million to develop synthetic fuels and $1 billion to develop solar energy. The Senate sent the money bill to President Jimmy Carter's desk for his signature shortly after the House approved the bill by a 271-46 vote. Under the synthetic portion of the bill, only $2.2 billion could be spent this year.

Sunday, November 11

AYATOLLAH RUHOLLAH Khomeini remained firm on the imprisonment of 60 American hostages in Tehran after rejecting a plea from Pope John Paul II to release the Americans. President Jimmy Carter ordered the Justice Department to deport those Iranian students who have improper visas. There are estimated to be about 50,000 Iranian students in this country. A recent delegation to Tehran of four foreign envoys reported that hostages were unharmed. Meanwhile, demonstrators across the U.S. called for the death of Khomeini.

Monday, November 12

MORE THAN 20,000 residents of the Ontario city of Mississauga fled their homes when a freight train carrying over 70 tons of chlorine gas derailed late Saturday night, while traveling through the city. Several tank cars caught on fire, but no injuries or deaths were reported. Canadian police indicated that the evacuation was the biggest in the history of North America. Although the chlorine gas was only leaking in small amounts, police said the evacuation was "merely a precautionary measure."

Tuesday, November 13

IN DECLARING THAT the United States will not give in to economic pressure or terrorism in Tehran, President Jimmy Carter ordered that Iranian oil be cut off immediately. The move was to suggest to Iranian students holding 60 American hostages that this country will not "weaken our stand on basic issues of principle." Iranian oil imports to the U.S. amount to about four percent of daily American consumption. Students are demanding that the U.S. return exiled Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi for trial.

Sophisticated 'Super Van' to Save Lives

The Park's second ambulance is finally in service after its purchase was approved by the Council in August. Fire Chief PHILIP M. COSTA, (right), calls the 1979 Prestige Ford Supervan a "sophisticated piece of equipment" that will allow his department to provide quicker service to residents of The Park and The City. Also pictured is Mayor MATTHEW C. PATTERSON, (left), with City Manager JOHN R. CRAWFORD inspecting the inside of the van.

Le Cafe Owners Take to Road For Support of Tavern License

By Susan McDonald

There are traditional ways of campaigning for votes in Grosse Pointe: going door to door with your best smile, handing out flyers, attending afternoon teas and evening candidates' forums.

And then there are the not-so-traditional ways. Like decking out a van with a classy table setting of linen and flowers. And driving that van around and around the precincts on a cold, drizzly election day serving gallons of soup and hot rolls to soggy voters.

It's the kind of approach you might expect from a man like Chef Charles Moraco, and it worked.

Chef Charles is owner of the tiny gourmet restaurant, Le Cafe Francais in The Woods. Surrounded by shops in the Kimberly Korner complex, Le Cafe serves traditional French cuisine in an intimate atmosphere of classical music, polished silver and candlelight.

A Glass of Wine

It was Charles who came up with the idea of putting the restaurant "on wheels" election day. And he was pleased with the result. Voters gave solid approval to a ballot question authorizing the Woods Council to issue one more tavern license in the city, and Mr. Moraco is hoping that license will go to Le Cafe.

He and his partner Ronn Serba put the question on the ballot with a petition drive last summer. They say it's a matter of "life or death" for their small, well-reviewed French restaurant.

Despite its reputation for fine food, diners have been staying away from Le Cafe, largely because of a "raid" last spring by Woods police.

The officers, working undercover, posed as patrons and brought their own wine to the restaurant. When it was served other officers rushed in for the raid.

Since the incident, diners have been prohibited from bringing in their own bottle of wine to enjoy with gourmet offerings like the poulet en croustade with orange rice stuffing and cognac sauce, that Chef Charles is planning for Thanksgiving.

Without wine, business has suffered, so much so that the restaurant is on the brink of closing, Mr. Moraco said last week.

Half Way There

But things are beginning to look up. The ballot question was approved by voters 2,452 to 1,680 on November 6. "We were just delighted with the results of the election—it was almost 2-1 in favor of us," Mr. Moraco said.

He adds, however, that the battle is only half over. The Woods Council must now decide just what to do with the new license authorized by voters. They may issue it to any qualified restaurant in town or decide not to issue a license at all.

The council and The Woods' new mayor George S. Freeman are scheduled to begin discussion of the issue next Monday, November 19. Le Cafe won't be the only restaurant making a bid for the license then.

There are at least nine other applications on file for tavern licenses in The Woods, according to Administrator Chester Petersen. The council will set a date for a public hearing on November 19 and will consider all the

Council Drops Controversial 'Hours' Law

Punch and Judy Theater Supporters Rally to Oppose Farms Ordinance

By David Kramer

In a repeat performance of last year's consideration of an ordinance restricting hours of operation of businesses, the Farms Council unanimously decided to turn down the controversial measure.

Actually the ordinance never was voted on, when, after a public hearing dominated by supporters and management of the Punch and Judy Theater, the measure died for lack of a motion.

A large portion of the cast at the council meeting of Monday, November 12, was the same too, including four of the council, and many of those speaking in behalf of the Punch. But the Punch would only have been one type of business affected. Others include restaurants, drug and food stores, and service stations.

Rocky Helps

Full council chambers listened to and applauded Philip Leon of Lakeshore Road, as he again spoke in behalf of the Punch and its contribution in theater fare.

"We have an institution in Grosse Pointe that should be a pride to the community," he said. "It's way is paid by an eccentric motion picture. I really am concerned that we have culture in this community, and it's a bewildering to me that, (the ordinance), is being considered again."

Marc Etter, manager of the Punch, told council members the theater couldn't survive without the Rocky Horror Picture Show, a "cult" film which patrons return to again and again, and that the success of that show is dependent upon its midnight show time.

Still No Clues In Halloween Murder Case

State Police Hypnotist Called in to Interview Witnesses

Two weeks after the brutal Halloween night slaying of a Farms woman, police, after combing through hundreds of tips, are still nowhere near solving the mystery. Police are interviewing and re-interviewing those persons in the case who were close to the victim, Jeanne Carol Clynne, 44, of McMillan Road, and those whom she made the last persons to see her alive.

Helping out in the questioning process this week is a State Police hypnosis specialist. While hypnosis is a relatively new police technique, Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said he felt the hypnotist just may be able to help witnesses recall things such as portions of license plate numbers and descriptions of suspicious persons on the night of the murder.

Reductions Proposed By CHP Council

Bon Secours Withholds Comment Pending Formal Notice

By David Kramer

Cottage Hospital, one of two area facilities facing large cuts in bed capacities under a plan drawn up by a regional health planning council, reacted angrily this week to reports that it could lose 62 of its 155 beds.

That cut, representing a loss of more than one-third, was recommended by a committee of the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan, (CHPC), a group formed as a result of federal legislation to find ways to cut health care costs. Its membership consists of both hospital management and consumers.

Bon Secours Hospital, according to the CHPC proposal, would lose 21 of its 320 bed capacity.

Cut Costs

The authority itself has no enforcement powers. However, after approval of the plan by its board of directors, and public hearings, its recommendations could be reviewed and adopted by the Statewide Health Coordinating Council and the State Department of Public Health. At any one of the above stages, the proposal for bed reduction could be modified or rejected.

News reports said the called for reduction of a total of some 2,412 beds in Southeastern Michigan could force as many as 25 hospitals to close or merge. Estimates by Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield indicated that up to $140 million in health care costs could be saved by an overall 10 percent reduction in bed capacity, the reports said. The CHPC plan calls for an 11 percent reduction.

Messner Field Named to Honor Grosse Pointe Educator

By Susan McDonald

A former student, Dr. Frank Parcells, remembers him as a gentle man. "He had an abiding faith in the long, long time it takes to grow a tree straight."

Others remember him as an ardent nature lover and conservationist. Indeed, he was responsible in part for preserving much of the open land that still exists today in The Farms.

The late Clarence Messner left a lot of fond memories with generations of Pointers he came to know during his 32 years as principal of Richard elementary school.

And, thanks to a group of friends and former students formed shortly after his death last May 3, memories of Clarence Messner will live on — in a most appropriate way.

The large stretch of land adjacent to Richard along Ridge Road, known as the McMillan Field, got a new name Monday, November 12, from the Board of Education. It's the Clarence Messner Field.

It's appropriate because Dr. Messner played a big role in keeping the field out of the hands of developers in the post-war building boom years. He had hoped, according to a colleague, to turn the field into a nature center. Today the field is used almost around the clock for baseball, football, soccer and free play.

Naming the field for Dr. Messner "just seems fitting," according to Carol Kaloger, a teacher at Richard, chairman of the school's 50th Anniversary Committee, and admirer of the late principal. "Dr. Messner's big interests were nature and conservation. That's why we have a nature sanctuary at the school today," she said.

"He was enthusiastic about teaching children to appreciate the beauty and wonder of nature. In a way, he was a man before his time."

Dr. Messner, Students in Early 50's

BALLPOINTS HAVE WON
Be careful what you throw away when cleaning out overstuffed desk drawers. Fountain pens have become collectors' item, Collectors News says. Old pens you saw in the flea market for 25 or 50 cents a short while ago are now bringing $3 to $6, it is claimed.

Famed Author Had Hangup
Hans Christian Andersen, Danish author made famous by his fairy tales published in 1835, had a hangup about his weak chest. He stuffed newspapers beneath his shirt to build up an appearance of manliness.

Murder Still A Mystery

Police on a number of "sex-related assaults," some of which occurred recently in the Seven-Mack shopping center, but that questioning "produced nothing worthwhile." He declined to reveal the man's name, pending charges being brought in Detroit, but indicated the lead didn't look too promising.

The man's m.o. reportedly involved parking a car a few blocks from the crime scene, then posing as a jogger.

Mrs. Clyne's body was found alongside the sidewalk on Kercheval between Merriweather and Lothrop about 6:40 p.m. on October 31. She had been stabbed 11 times in the left side and neck with a thin-bladed instrument, most probably a shears, according to the medical examiner's report.

She had left the office of psychiatrist Dr. Douglas Sargent On-the-Hill at 6 p.m. and was to walk a route along Kercheval to Kerby, Kerby to Charlevoix, and Charlevoix to her home. Mrs. Clyne, a frequent walker, took that route home often, police said.

Weapon Search
She and her husband, J. Michael, both worked at Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield, she as a technical writer, he as a group planner. Mrs. Clyne formerly worked as a reporter at the Detroit News.

A pair of scissors was found by police at Kenwood road and Kercheval, but was proven not to be the weapon by the medical examiner's finding that the 11 stab wounds had to be made by an instrument with at least a 4-inch blade, he said.

All sewer catch basins on Kercheval between Kenwood and Tournaine were checked for metal objects with a heavy magnet, Sgt. Van Tiem said. The results were negative.

Seek Woman
Sgt. Van Tiem is supervising a four-man farm unit including Dets. Earl Field and Samuel Cardella, and Cpl. Joseph Miller. The other Pointes and Harper Woods have been sending men to the department, and a State Police homicide investigative team of four men will be working with the department "as long as we need them," Sgt. Van Tiem said.

"We're looking for everything we can get using everything we can," he said. "There are a few people in the area who we feel may have some pertinent information."

One tip police are particularly interested in is the report that a woman was seen walking on the north side of Kercheval near Moran about 6:15 p.m., or about 20 minutes before Mrs. Clyne's body was found about a block and a half further east along Kercheval. The report said the woman was carrying a bag of groceries.

Sgt. Van Tiem said police are seeking that woman, as she may have seen or heard something. Those with information are asked to call the detective bureau.

False Lead
In addition, Police Chief Robert Ferber said police are "vitally concerned" in finding the drivers of two cars seen near the murder site between 6:30 and 6:40 p.m. that day. One, seen on Kercheval near the site, was described as a red or maroon color newer model with a square appearance.

The other vehicle was seen on Merriweather at about the same time. Both vehicles were parked with the headlights on, the chief said.

Chief Ferber also said he is seeking the aid of "The Detroit News" through its secret witness program.

While rumors have been flying that the murderer may have been a patient at the Cottage Hospital psychiatric unit, police have discounted that possibility.

Hospital Public Relations Director Madge Lawson said the unit's security is far from lax, and that temporary passes from the hospital after 5 p.m. are given only by a doctor, and release made only to family members. Patients are counted at shift changes and at the dinner hour, she said, and specific staff members are assigned to certain patients.

Park Vote

Neill, said he now hopes all the groups in The Park will work together "to do something good for the community." Dr. McNeill followed Mr. Prost by 520 votes.

Mr. Prost said it is his intention to work hard in the area of improving communications between the council and the community.

A new voice — in opposition to the city's involvement in the CDBG program — is Mr. Spada, who has openly spoken out against The Park's dealing with HUD.

"But I was not a one issue candidate. I will address myself to it, (HUD), in the future, but there are certainly other problems facing this community," Mr. Spada said.

Messner

"I was anything but an enthusiastic student at that time, so I had occasion to spend some time in Dr. Messner's office," Dr. Parcells recalls.

"He was a very kind man, an extremely patient man and believe me, I gave him every provocation to be impatient."

"The man played a very important role in my life and I am just delighted they're naming the field for him," Dr. Parcells said.

Friends of Richard School plan to dedicate the field to Dr. Messner sometime this spring, during the school's 50th anniversary celebration.

Cottage Fights Cutbacks

Ralph L. Wilgarde, in a prepared statement, said the hospital "will make every legal economic effort to us to fight bed reduction at this hospital."

Claiming the hospital has had a 103 percent occupancy rate through 1979, he said that at times patients have had to double up in private rooms and triple up in doubles, to accommodate them.

Unfair Bias
Mr. Wilgarde cited other statistics, including the fact that 86 percent of patients come from Detroit and its northeastern suburbs, excluding Grosse Pointe. It has one of the lowest daily bed charges of any hospital in the Detroit area, he said, and "has maintained these low charges despite rising costs in an effort to keep down health care costs and to demonstrate that hospital efficiency can result in lower costs to the patient."

"We believe that the criteria of evaluation are unfairly biased against hospitals under 200 beds and are a direct attempt to drive them out of business," Mr. Wilgarde continued. "We believe it is not necessary to duplicate all medical specialties at every hospital and the expensive equipment which they require. Too little emphasis has been placed on the quality of care which affects families, the elderly and the terminally ill."

Three Reports
Mr. Wilgarde argued that many questions asked of hospitals in the bed reduction questionnaire were "arbitrary and irrelevant." For example, he said one criteria was the age of board members.

Cottage follows "utilization review" and cost containment procedures, he added, to ensure beds are used only for the seriously ill.

Wanda Walls, director of public relations at Bon Secours Hospital, said the hospital has received three different reports from CHPC ranging from a two to a 21 bed recommended reduction. She said the hospital didn't care to comment until the exact figure was known, although she did supply helpful information about the process.

Saint John Hospital, a much larger facility than either Cottage or Bon Secours, was not mentioned in the bed-cutting report.

Hours Law

said that while noise complaints around the Punch have continued to come in to the police, they have been fewer in recent months.

Saying there were two ways to cope with noise from the business community at night—building barriers and making "ordinance barriers"—Chief Ferber called the Punch "a victim of a lack of parking surrounded by a residential area."

He said he supports the efforts of The Farms and the School System to construct a parking lot on the Richard School lot adjacent to the theater.

Michael Burns, president of the Hill Association, said a vote of member merchants showed they did not support the hours ordinance in the form drafted by the council, nor did they wish to have the Punch included in it.

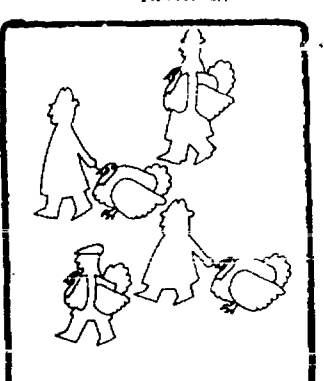

But Max Jacobs, owner of Kent Drug, said he had mixed feelings about the ordinance, since both times his store has been broken into have occurred on nights the midnight show has been running. He felt that perhaps the noise caused by patrons of the show may have served to mask the sounds of the break-ins.

This year's award lauds Dr. Houghton for his development of a "Glen Lake Plan" which assigns roles to members of the coaching staff in case of an injury. GPW Responds to Concern Of Parcels School Group

By Roger A. Waha

Council members of the Parcels Middle School Parent-Teacher Organization about the safety of school children and traffic problems at the Mack Avenue-Vernier road intersection were shared with the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 5.

Edward Williams, PTO president, expressed particular concern over youngsters crossing illegally at a marked crosswalk at Vernier and Sunningdale and requested the presence of a public safety officer at key times in the morning and afternoon to prevent the children from using the unsupervised crossing.

Woods officials said they were aware of the problem and had requested the AAA make a recommendation on this matter.

Public Safety Director John Dankel said last week the department received the AAA report. Several actions were then authorized including the following:

- The crosswalk markings at Vernier and Sunningdale will be removed from the pavement.

- All associated pieces of sidewalk including the median in the middle of the street will be removed.

- Signs will be erected indicating that particular location isn't a school crossing.

- A post and chain fence will be extended to cover the crosswalk area.

Director Dankel also has asked school system officials to extend the Parcels fence further east toward Sunningdale.

As an additional precaution, Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook has been instructed to give the area special attention.

At the meeting, Director Dankel told PTO representatives that use of an officer in such a situation wasn't warranted and that he couldn't guarantee one every morning or afternoon.

He suggested that a crossing guard would be better and noted that use of a meter maid, from a philosophical point of view, wasn't satisfactory.

New Council Meets Nov. 19

The Woods' new mayor and councilmen are scheduled to be sworn in at the council's regular meeting on Monday, November 19.

Former Councilman George S. Freeman defeated past Councilman George Cueter in the mayoral contest on Tuesday, November 6, and incumbent Councilman Robert E. Novitke was elected along with council newcomers Frederick Lovelace and William Wilson.

With the changes, the new mayor will now have to make some adjustments in various council committees, e.g., including naming a replacement for Mr. Cueter who was the council representative to the Senior Citizens Commission.

Mr. Freeman said last week a main priority for the new council is the northwest area traffic problem and a planned meeting with Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores officials to explore solutions.

The council on Monday, November 5, requested that City Administrator Chester E. Petersen arrange such a meeting within 60 days and authorized copies of the Goodell-Grivas, Inc., traffic study of the area be given to Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores officials for their review.

League Views Rileys' Voyage

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present "10,000 Miles Under Sail," a color slide presentation by Chuck Riley, who met in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road, Monday, November 19, at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend the program without charge.

In June of 1977, Prudy and Chuck Riley and three children, Dawn, 13, Dana, 11, and Todd, nine, departed the Grosse Pointe Park Pier aboard the 36-foot schooner "Fire Fly" bound for the Atlantic Ocean, and, hopefully, the Caribbean Sea.

Just over one year later, "Fire Fly" returned to Lake St. Clair having successfully completed a voyage of nearly 10,000 nautical miles. Adjectives used by the skipper and crew to describe the trip varied from entertaining, to educational, to fantastic.

Stops en route included New York City, America's Cup Racing off Newport, Nantucket, the coast of Maine, the Chesapeake, Bahamas Islands and most of the West Indies from the Virgin Islands to Grenada. Some of the favorites included the Dutch Volcanic Island of Saba, the dense jungle on Dominica and international yacht racing in Antigua and Saint Barthelemy. The longest offshore passages were 1,000 miles in seven days from the Bahamas to Saint Thomas and from San Juan to Nassau in six days.

Each of the children maintained their studies throughout the year and moved ahead in school upon their return. Many good friendships developed with children from many nations and other cruising families.

Regular communications with home were maintained through a ham radio on board and regular telephone calls with Warren Pierce when they were aired on WJR radio.

The entire trip is presented on film with dissolve projectors, sound effects, music and live narration.

A social hour limited to Cinema League members follows the program.

Sladen Speaks to Rotarians

Gov. Frank J. Sladen Jr., leader of Rotary International District 640, will make his official visit to the Grosse Pointe Club on Monday, November 19, at 12:15 p.m., said Mark Valente, club president for 1979-80.

The local club is one of 47 in District 640, which comprises Wayne, Monroe and Lenawee Counties in Michigan, and Essex County in Ontario. There are more than 2,500 Rotarians in these 47 clubs.

Rotary International was founded in 1905 in Chicago by Paul Harris and a few other business friends who recognized the need for an organization to help promote the concept of service to others, better ethical values in business and friendship and fellowship for the members.

Mr. Sladen, owner of the "Book Shelf" On-the-Hill, has been a Rotarian for 21 years. As training for his present position, he served all key offices in his own club in Grosse Pointe and then, several important chairs in the district.

He is particularly interested in enlarging the concept of quality in all facets of Rotary activity, including members, projects and image in the Rotary community.

"Frank Sladen is a remarkable citizen, community activist and Rotarian," said Mr. Valente. "All of us in the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club are looking forward to our day with him so that our future efforts here will be in tune with the times, and in line with Rotary's course of service."

Star Girls Get Involved

By Cathy Pieronek

Community service is an essential aspect of "Practice in Beatitudes," an 11th grade religion class at Our Lady Star of the Sea High School.

The Beatitudes program was initiated three years ago as an alternative to traditional, structured religion classes. The juniors meet one day per week in class to discuss the Beatitudes. During the rest of the weekday class sessions, at lunch and after school, the girls participate in volunteer service in the community.

"Practice in the Beatitudes is an eye-opening experience. It helps us to realize that there is more to life than just 'me and mine,'" added Sister Martha.

The program has been very successful at Star. The 60 juniors who participate in the class enjoy their volunteer service. Both the students and the community benefit from "Practice in the Beatitudes" in a very positive way.

The girls participate in the community by volunteering their services at Georgian East and Bon Secours Hospital, visiting the patients and aiding the nurses. They work with youths at

Seniors View Free Parking

By Roger A. Waha

A proposed free parking program for resident senior citizens was recommended for adoption by the Woods Senior Citizens Commission at its meeting last month.

However, inasmuch as a requested recommendation from the Grosse Pointe Merchants Association wasn't received as yet, the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 5, referred this subject to the Committee of the Whole for further study.

City Administrator Chester F. Petersen, in feeling such a program would be beneficial to the seniors, originally presented the proposal to the council in August but it was tabled at that time.

However, in September, it was referred to both the commission and the merchants association for their review and report back.

Mr. Petersen felt the program would be helpful not only in the moderate cost savings to people on limited incomes, but also would allow seniors additional time for their shopping trips and medical appointments without the threat of an expired meter.

As proposed, an application to participate in the program indicates that a parking sticker would allow all resident seniors the right to park free in all metered spaces within the city. A seal would be placed on the lower right hand corner of the windshield.

It would be registered to the owner's present car license number and would be reissued when the citizen receives new license plates.

Only qualifying resident seniors would be able to utilize the free parking privilege, not family members borrowing the car.

ULS Students See Art Clues

Michael Farrell, Detroit Institute of Arts' Curator of Education and a professor of art history at the University of Windsor, spoke to University Liggett Middle School students on Friday, November 9.

Mr. Farrell explained to the audience of sixth, seventh and eighth graders how to "read" a work of art through its visual clues.

The assembly, arranged by parent Mrs. J. J. Huebner, also served to reinforce positive assembly behavior of the Middle School students.

Saint Ambrose Play Continues at Center

The Saint Ambrose Community Players have extended their production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's family musical "The Sound of Music" for a second weekend at the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

Performances are scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 15 to 17, at 8 p.m.

"The Sound of Music" is based, of course, on the inspiring story of the Trapp Family Singers. The leading role of Maria, the postulant who takes a leave from her religious order to become the governess for the seven Trapp children — and later their stepmother — is being played and sung by Suzie Idziak.

Captain Von Trapp, the widowed father of the family, is played by Jim Smith of Lakepointe avenue.

Other principal roles are taken by Margaret Ahee, (Mother Abess), Marty Peters, (Max), Ginger Hupp, (Elsa), and Dennis Kummer, (Rolf). The children of the family — the real "stars" of the evening — are led by Jeanne Ryan as the eldest, (Leis). The remaining children are playing their parts on alternate nights: Joe Vermeersch and Ian Hirt, (Frederich), Chris Peters and Ann Murphy, (Louisa), Matt Smith and George Ayrault, (Kurt), Susie Farrell and Katie Ament, (Brigitta), Kerry Peters and Lisa LoCicero, (Marta), and Emily Hoffman and Emilie Ayrault as the youngest Gretl.

The musical is being directed by Merrie Gay Ayrault of Lakepointe avenue. Married and the mother of six, Merrie Gay also works at the Park branch of Grosse Pointe Library. She directed the Players' last musical production, "Fiddler on the Roof," and had a featured role in the comedy, "God's Favorite."

Producer for the show is Steve Linne of Maryland avenue. Steve has handled various technical aspects for all the Players' productions and is an active member of Grosse Pointe Theatre.

"Sound of Music" tickets, priced at $4 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12, may be obtained at Saint Ambrose Rectory, 15020 Hampton road, or at the Box Office at Fries on the evenings of the performances. For information or reservations, call 823-5544 or 822-2814.

The production is the fourth for the recently formed Saint Ambrose Community Players. Their first musical "Godspell" was staged in the sanctuary of Saint Ambrose Church. Subsequent productions of "Fiddler" and the Neil Simon comedy, "God's Favorite" used the facilities of the War Memorial and North High School's Center for the Performing Arts.

The group was founded, according to its charter, "To provide family entertainment to the community, to offer teens and adults an opportunity to explore the performing arts and to encourage neighborhood participation in theatre that proclaims the values of the gospel and of Christian Community."

Membership is open to all who are interested in becoming a part of or helping to support this kind of community theater endeavor.

Doctor Speaks To Youngsters

Dr. Anthony Southall was guest speaker at an October, University Liggett Lower School assembly program. Gearing his talk to third graders, Dr. Southall focused on the science unit the group was studying.

With the aid of slides, he demonstrated the anatomy and function of the ear and nose. His audience of second and third graders was particularly fascinated with the otoscope and the four tiny ear bones he circulated among the audience for their inspection.

Shutterbugs Meet Nov. 20

Color and black and white prints along with nature slides will be discussed at the next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club on Tuesday, November 20, at 7:45 p.m.

Visitors are welcome to attend the meeting at Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte avenue.

LINC Plans Two Fund-Raisers

By Tim O'Neill

Operation LINC, whose main function is to help the needy, needs help in providing a place to sleep for unfortunate people without beds.

All volunteers have to do is provide a mattress, supports for a mattress, blankets, pillows, or anything, to help someone who does not have something to sleep on. LINC says that there are many people in the Wayne county area who have to sleep on the floor because of the lack of a bed.

Clinics at many hospitals in the area say that teenage mothers leave the hospitals with their babies, and go home without a bed for the baby.

So LINC urges people to help them in their crusade to get beds for the needy.

LINC is holding a raffle to win a six by eight foot playhouse, potting shed or hobby house, donated by Active Industries, on Thursday, December 13. Tickets are $1, or six for $5, and are available from Dianne Miller at 886-7588, or from the LINC office at 14920 Hampton road.

Also in an effort to raise money, LINC is having a Poinsettia sale. Plants are available at $8.75 each. They can be obtained until Thursday, November 22, by sending a check to: Mrs. Beckie Cipriano, 23265 North Rosedale court, St. Clair Shores, 48080, or by calling LINC at 331-6700.

The fund raisers are an opportunity for everybody to give a little to the needy. "Not only are you getting a beautiful plant, but you are making life a little nicer for others who are not as fortunate," commented Sue Albright, LINC president.

Psychologists Name Leaders

The recently-formed Grosse Pointe Psychological Association has elected a new slate of officers for the year including president Dr. Lorri F. Colletti, president-elect Dr. John Clancy, secretary Dr. Dennis Zarega and treasurer Don Paynter.

The group is a local chapter of the Michigan Psychological Association. Its membership is composed of psychologists in industry, private practice, in universities and public schools.

It hopes to serve as a resource to the community and, as such, maintains a roster of speakers and consultants.

For more information, call Dr. Colletti at 774-8050.

AT 55 MPH IN A VOLVO YOU COULD STOP IN TIME.

We don't suggest you try stopping for gas on such short notice. But before you buy a car made only to prevent frequent trips to the gas lines, why not consider one that could also help you avoid the obstacles in between?

A Volvo family sedan has a stopping distance of less than 160 ft. from 55 mph. And superior braking and safe handling aren't the only important things you get.

Room, comfort, visibility and the kind of quality workmanship seldom seen anywhere are also integral parts of Volvo's value. And the nicest part is that it won't cost you barrels of money at the gas pumps—or at our Volvo dealership. Stop in soon and see for yourself. VOLVO

Manufacturers Bank introduces Neighborhood Interest.

It's the highest bank interest allowable in Grosse Pointe.

Earn more interest on your savings in a shorter time. Our Money Market Time Deposit offers you the highest interest rate currently available to individuals on a short-term deposit. Just make a deposit of $10,000 or more with us for 26 weeks. The interest rate is tied to the auction average of U.S. Treasury Bills, on a discount basis, and changes weekly. But the rate established at the time of your deposit remains constant until maturity.

For example:
the interest rate for this week (Nov. 15 to Nov. 21) is 11.945%
Your earnings after 26 weeks, $603.89.

The higher rate of interest results in higher earnings for you, when left to maturity. No bank or savings and loan institution can pay you more. There are restrictions, however. Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal of funds, and prohibit the compounding of interest. The certificates are renewable at maturity at the then prevailing rate.

Players Plan Cactus Flower

By Lorr White

Tradition will be broken this year as Grosse Pointe South's Pointe Players present a romantic comedy, "Cactus Flower" as the fall production.

"With the new music department in South we just didn't want to start out with the burden of a musical," Mr. Bruce Kefgen, club sponsor and play director commented.

Despite the name of the play, "Cactus Flower" is not a western. It's a sophisticated romantic comedy which may best be remembered as the play which re-introduced Lauren Bacall to the Broadway stage.

A new idea being incorporated in this play is the "Modified Trust" stage. This is where the stage is built out into the audience at a regular floor level. The audience must become a part of the scene and part of the action taking place on the stage. In order for this type of stage to work, the actors must be convincing.

Seniors Scott Patterson, Cathy Connell, Jeff Eisenbray and sophomore Betsy Hirt have leading roles. Cathy and Scott have the difficult job of portraying middle aged people, and in high school theater, there is no greater challenge.

Other members of the cast include seniors Terry Gibney, Mike Mahon and Brian Sullivan. Junior Dianne Crae and sophomores Lisa Keegan and Ted Parr.

Both cast and crew have worked hard. Turn out for workers on all committees was overwhelming. As Jane Spencer, makeup committee head stated, "I had so many people who wanted to be on makeup work days in order to have every one get a chance."

Tickets for the shows, scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 15, 16 and 17, are $2 for children and $2.50 for adults.

The Players also are opening their dress rehearsal Wednesday, November 14, at the special price of 50 cents. Tickets may be purchased at the school or at the door the day of the play.

A gymnastics class at the War Memorial is being repeated beginning on Monday, November 26, at 10 a.m. under the direction of Ricky Dove of London, England.

Classes last for 10 weeks for a fee of $40.

Police Begin Fund Drive

Grosse Pointe Lodge No. 102, Fraternal Order of Police, with a membership composed entirely of officers of the five Grosse Pointe communities and Harper Woods, is presently conducting its Annual Widows', Orphans' and Benevolent Fund Drive.

The Fund was established for the express purpose of providing supplementary financial assistance to the families of retired members, to permanently disabled members, and to the widows and minor children of deceased members.

The Fund also maintains an Educational Assistance Program through which children of deceased or disabled members may, upon evidence of superior scholastic potential and specific need, receive financial aid to further their education.

This is the only fund drive benefiting all of the police officers of the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods. Should there be any question regarding any police fund raising, call your local police station for information regarding the solicitation.

CP Clown Corps Keeping Active

The Grosse Pointe Clown Corps is planning a new member registration drive Wednesday, November 28, at The Woods city hall, 20025 Mack avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

Corps chairman Arthur J. Kuehnel said the group also is planning to participate in the J. L. Hudson Thanksgiving Day parade.

Last month, the corps conducted a bake sale and raised $48 for the fight against Reye's Syndrome. Mr. Kuehnel said he would like to thank J. C. Penney's for letting the group use its facilities, the Grosse Pointe Jaycees and their wives for baking goods for the sale.

GPW Accepts Pair of Quotes

Quotations for the replacement of a water main in Elford court and for exterior lighting for the municipal building were unanimously accepted by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 5.

A total of 154 feet of six-inch main will be installed in Elford court, by Salvatore and Sons, Inc., which quoted a price of $6,925.75. The money will come from the water-sewer fund.

DPW Director Leonard Ocelnik said during the past two years there have been five main breaks in the Torrey road-Elford court vicinity. Three of the breaks occurred under a driveway in Torrey road and two have occurred at an Elford court home.

Noting the main was in bad need of replacement, Mr. Ocelnik said it posed a continuous problem.

At the same meeting the quote of Gerald S. Fouchey in the amount of $1,475 was accepted for exterior lighting work.

Mr. Ocelnik pointed out that the existing four flood lights on the grounds were damaged and in need of repair. He suggested, for emergency conservation, two Mercury vapor light replacements and a vapor light to shine upon the city hall porch from the horseshoe drive. As a result, two floodlights on the peak of the porch roof will be eliminated.

This installation, he noted, also will give plug outlets for Christmas decorations in the driveway.

At the same time, there will be three outlets on public safety offices with photo cell controls for yule trimmings, thus eliminating unsightly extension cords from office windows and heat loss from having such windows open.

South's DECA Names Leaders

The Distributive Education Club, (DECA), has opened its year at South High School by electing new officers.

The purpose of the organization is to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution. Students apply practical business habits with the hope of making intelligent career choices.

Newly elected officers include president Rick Jacob, vice-president Dennis Holder, secretary Star Spilos and treasurer Heide Roetz.

Others assuming leadership roles are Connie Little as reporter and Mary Ann Greenfelder as parliamentarian. The club sponsor is Maynard Leigh.

Woods Okays CDBG Pact

A Community Development Block Grant, (CDBG), Special Needs Project contract for the Seniors Onward for Change, Inc., (SOC), minor home repair program was approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 5.

The $26,500 contract will be utilized to fund the program for the 1980 year.

Originally, The Woods requested a total of $69,000 in behalf of itself, The Farms and The Shores. However, because of the demand for funds, the bid was trimmed.

Besides the allocation to The Woods, $11,000 will benefit to the tune of $26,500 from an application from Harper Woods and $25,000 from The City.

Springer Is Lion for Life

Harold Springer, of Robert John road, was bestowed a life membership status by Lions International when the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club met Thursday, November 8, for a 25th anniversary celebration.

Mr. Springer began his work with the Lions 30 years ago as a member of the Northend Lions Club where he was vice-president and treasurer.

POP PAYS
Gifts that delight the average family are very apt to deplete the average father's savings.

By John Lundberg

There are many guidelines concerning which wines to drink with which foods. Many people dismiss these suggestions saying they will go by taste rather than "rule or tradition." Wine drinking tradition is based on taste and texture and how good a particular wine is with a particular type of food. The average wine connoisseurs recommend hearty red wines for steak and roast beef is because they suit each other's taste and texture, bringing out the best qualities of each. The same applies to white wines and shell fish.

From connoisseur and gourmet to a next door neighbor seeking a relaxing night time beverage, the answer is PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, Corner of St. Clair, Detroit. From genuine draft beer to the delicacy of a fascinating wine to the pleasing tastes of soothing liquors, PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE offers the beverages that will go with any meal and will please most any taste. Open 10-10 Mon.-Thurs., 10-11 Fri. & Sat., noon-10 Sun. Tel. 885-0626.

Shops Offer Yule Gifts Planned for Handicapped

Buying Christmas gifts for those who have everything is a problem. Buying a special gift for someone who has a physical disability can be a real challenge.

But there are a number of stores in the Detroit area where helpful gifts can be found for the handicapped. In addition to the standard handicapped-assist items such as canes or braille watches, there are many new items this year that help the handicapper enjoy more independence.

"As with any gift for a friend, the gift-giver is limited only by his imagination, pocketbook and knowledge of a friend's lifestyle," says Helen Lacatis, director of Volunteer Services at Detroit's Rehabilitation Institute. "Consider a CB radio. Handicappers have special problems when they encounter trouble on the road."

The Rehabilitation Institute's own gift shop is one place where you can start your holiday shopping. It has scores of products specially designed for handicappers, including buttoning aids, zipper pulls, shoe lacers and comb extensions. The Institute is located at 261 Mack boulevard at John R in the Detroit Medical Center.

Handy Aids, 6522 Brush, caters to the needs of the blind and visually impaired.

Director Elaine Minder says the store stocks over 300 items including games, watches, tools, bowling balls, crossword puzzles, pressure cookers, table ranges, cookbooks in braille, timing devices and fry pans.

Braille writers also are available through Handy Aids but must be ordered in advance.

Norton Surgical Supply, 3377 Ford street, Lincoln Park, stocks a wide range of aids, including a flexible plastic cord with clips to fasten and pull hosiery over the heel and up onto the calf. It is used by people who are unable to reach their feet to pull on stockings.

Other items available include a combination fork and knife that makes it easier to eat with one hand and costs less than $10. It is an appropriate gift for people with arthritis or any disability which limits finger, hand or arm movement. Or, maybe a specially designed jigger to serve liquor is appropriate.

In the $15 to $50 range you can select such novel items as a spring-loaded billiard cue, or a bowling ball pusher. If money is no object, consider a wheelchair with all the options.

Catalogues are available from Fashion Able, Rocky Hill, N.J., 08553; Fred Sammons, Incorporated, Box 32, Brookfield, Ill., 60513; and Cleo Living Aids, 3957 Mayfield Road, Cleveland, O., 44121.

All of these catalogues have a variety of items which range from a door knob helper, to turn a knob by pushing down on a lever, rather than gripping and turning with the wrist — to the bowling ball pushers and a handle grip bowling ball — available from Flaghouse, Incorporated, 18 W. 18th street, New York, N.Y. 10011.

Department stores or variety stores frequently have holders for a hand of cards or needle threaders. J. L. Hudson's carries a Scrabble board of a lazy-susan with squares that are recessed to make it easier for someone with limited finger movement to play.

Perhaps an equally satisfying, and more affordable, gift for your friend would be a subscription to "Accent on Living," a magazine for the handicapped. It costs $4 for a one-year subscription. The address is Box 700, Bloomington, Ill., 61701. "Paraplegic News," 933 Coastline Dr., Seal Beach, Cal., 90740, costs $4.50 for a one-year subscription.

Lung Ailments Kill Young, Too

Barring unforeseen disasters, three-quarters of the American babies born today can expect to live to be 65. One-quarter should even make it to 85. But the first year of life remains the most hazardous period until age 65.

In one recent year, for example, almost 70,000 youngsters under the age of 15 died; 50,000 of them were in their first year of life.

According to the American Lung Association, respiratory disease is the leading cause of death for babies in their first year. Respiratory disease for children in general causes more disability and deaths than any other illness. Episodes of lung disease account for more hospitalization, more time lost from school or play, and more disruption of family activity than any other illness.

During 1979, the entire world has focused on children and how to improve their physical and emotional well-being. Says Jean Young, the head of the U.S. Commission on the Child, "We want to celebrate childhood in all its incredible beauty."

"We want to enjoy and love our children. We want to highlight their achievements and glory in their accomplishments. We want to learn to love and appreciate children from diverse and varied cultures throughout the world and know the beauty of this diversity."

Preventing and treating children's lung disease is one of the priorities of the American Lung Association. And this fall the Christmas Seal people are redoubling their efforts to prevent more lung disease by encouraging a smoke free generation.

To help the Lung Association create a future for children that is free of lung disease, answer your Christmas Seal letter.

Public Prefers SEMTA Travel
 Southeastern Michigan residents have continued to turn to public transportation for their travel needs.
 During the first three months of fiscal year 1980 (July through September 1979), Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEMTA), ridership increased by 21 percent over the comparable period in fiscal year 1979 according to a recent news release. The 21 percent figure includes regular bus, small bus and commuter rail increases.
 Regular bus ridership increased by 22 percent. The authority carried over a half-million more passengers during the first quarter of 1980 than during the first quarter in 1979.
 SEMTA average weekday ridership during the first quarter increased by 26 percent. To accommodate the additional riders, the authority operated 18 percent more miles of service. Service miles during the first three months of 1979 totaled 2,193,341, compared to 2,594,025 during the first quarter of 1980.
 Commuter rail ridership during the same period increased by 27 percent. The authority averaged over 15,000 more commuter-rail passengers per month than just two years ago during the first quarter of the 1977 fiscal year.
 Small bus ridership also continued to increase in 1980. The three-month small bus totals were nine percent higher than July to September 1978. A total of 309,427 passengers were carried on SEMTA's elderly and handicapped and general public small bus systems during the first quarter of 1980.

Offers Advice On Yule Mailing
 Postmaster Joseph J. Loukotka is reminding customers that for the best service this Christmas season they should use ZIP Codes, place their return address in the upper left hand corner of the envelope and use proper postage.
 "By following these suggestions, customers will be assured good mail service this holiday season," he said.
 It is important, he continued, that families "double check" envelopes and cards to be certain that proper postage is affixed. Envelopes without postage will be returned to senders, if possible, or delayed by postage-due procedures.
 When the return address is placed on envelopes bearing holiday greetings, it also helps remind friends of one's current address.
 And, if the family to whom a holiday message is sent moved more than a year ago, it cannot be forwarded. With a return address, Mr. Loukotka said such letters are returned to the sender with a notation that the following "order" has expired.

Jobson Holds Sail Seminar

If the appearance of Jack Frost in mid-November leaves you daydreaming of warmer days, then the University of Detroit has the tonic for your post-summer blues.

The U of D, through its division of continuing education, will host a special one-night sailing seminar with world renowned sail and yacht racing expert Gary Jobson. The seminar will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday, November 16, at the Troy Hilton Hotel Ballroom.

Jobson, the tactician for Ted Turner's six-meter yacht "Tenacious" and his 12-meter yacht "Courageous," will present to Detroit area sailing enthusiasts some of the most exciting moments in boat racing history.

As the tactician, charged with making all of the critical decisions during the races, Jobson will recreate the experience of the 17-member Turner crew during last August's Fastnet Race in the Irish Sea.

Although he helped guide "Tenacious" to victory in the 306-mile race, the event was marred by tragedy when a sudden gale arose, taking the lives of 18 sailors and forcing the sinking or abandonment of 30 of the 306 yachts that started the race.

Jobson will feature slides and photographs of that race in his presentation, including some exclusive photos taken by a photographer who was positioned on top of the Fastnet Rock.

Jobson's discussion also will include his experiences aboard "Courageous" during its 1977 victory in the America's Cup, and preview plans for the defense of the America's Cup in 1980.

A member of the U.S. Olympic Yachting Committee, Jobson also will offer important insights on our country's chances for yachting medals during the 1980 Olympic Games in Moscow.

Jobson is currently working on his third book — one that instructs beginners in the art of sailing. His lecture will include techniques for beginning sailors, and for sailing in foul weather.

A resident of Annapolis, Md., Jobson also works as a sail racing trainer. He has coached the sport at both the Naval and Merchant Marine academies. A graduate of the New York Maritime College, where he was a three-time All-American sailor, he is the only person to be twice named collegiate sailor of the year.

Jobson writes a weekly sailing column in Annapolis, and is a frequent contributor to sailing and yachting magazines. He is author of the "USYRU Sailing Instructor's Manual," and co-author, (with Ted Turner), of "The Racing Edge."

Tickets for the sailing seminar are $7.50 in advance and $9 at the door. For further information, contact the University of Detroit Division of Continuing Education at 927-1027.

RECEIVES HEAVY MAIL

Following the issuance in the summer of 1978 of its draft evaluation statement concerning the addition of 15 million acres of federal lands to its present 19 million acres of wilderness, the Forest Service received 264,093 letters of comment containing 359,414 signatures. It was the greatest response ever on a national policy issue. Slightly more than twice as many comments favored no more wilderness as favored substantially more wilderness.

Robinson Is Running Star

Merrill Robinson of The Farms is one of two members of the successful Kenyon College cross country team who will compete in regional and national post-season championship events.

Robinson, one of four female members of the 1979 Kenyon team, qualified for the national Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIWA), meet on Saturday, November 17, in Tallahassee, Fla., by finishing 12th in a time of 19:31 in the Midwest regional AIWA 5,000 meter run at Michigan State University earlier this month. She was second in the field of 41 women, in 19:20, in the three mile women's event at the OAC meet in October.

"Robinson has been running for only 18 months and has continually improved, so I'm guessing she could finish somewhere in the middle," coach Nick Houston said.

The 1979 Kenyon cross country team compiled an 11-1 dual meet record and finished seventh in the OAC meet and eighth in the All-Ohio meet.

Hindle Leads WMU's Scorers

For the third straight season, Margaret Hindle, a junior forward on Western Michigan University's field hockey team, has led the squad in scoring.

Hindle scored two goals and assisted on a third in helping the Broncos to a second place finish at the state AIWA tournament at Marquette last weekend. One goal and the assist came in WMU's 3-0 shutout of Eastern Michigan, while the other goal came in the finals against Michigan State, a game won by MSU, 3-2.

Hindle shared team scoring honors with freshman Mary Cavanaugh, notching 10 goals and one assist. She also led the team in 1978 with 14 goals, and had 22 goals in 1977. She is a graduate of University Liggett High School.

Western, coached by Jean Friedel, posted a 13-7 record this season.

Drivers Should Watch for Deer

November, in Michigan, is the month with the greatest number of car-deer accidents, the Michigan Department of Transportation, (MDOT), reminds motorists.

"As we enter November, let's all keep in mind that this is the time of the year when Michigan's deer herd is on the move more so than any other time," said State Transportation Director John P. Woodford. "A little extra care, extra alertness for the sudden appearance of deer on the highway will go a long way in reducing the number of car-deer accidents and the resulting injury and damage."

Mr. Woodford noted there were more than 17,000 car-deer accidents in Michigan last year "and 26 percent of them occurred in November."

Michigan's deer herd is estimated at slightly less than one million. Wild deer can be found in every one of Michigan's 83 counties. The firearms deer hunting season, November 15 to 30, brings approximately 700,000 hunters into the woods.

Movement of the hunters through the woods, in combination with the mating season for deer, causes deer to be on the run at this time of year, more so than any other time.

The most critical times for car-deer accidents are just after dusk and just before dawn. Motorists are asked to drive more carefully and cautiously in wooded areas and to slow immediately when sighting a deer on or near the road ahead.

World's Deadliest Insect: The mosquito, says National Geographic magazine, is the world's most deadly insect, annually claiming countless lives by spreading disease.

Cagers Wrap Up

By Catherine Snyder
Star of the Sea High School's varsity basketball team lost their last game to Pontiac Catholic on November 2, 47-44 in overtime play. The high scorers were Catherine Snyder with 15 and Barb Simon with 11.

Star finished the season with four wins and eight losses in league play. They will play in the state district tournament, starting Tuesday, November 27, at Lutheran East High School.

Three varsity players received league recognition. Snyder was named to the All-League team, while Simon and Karen Molitor each received an honorable mention. The junior varsity won its last game against Pontiac Catholic, 40-32. Maureen Boyle led the scoring with 12 points. Star's JV captured the division championship for the fourth straight year, with a record of eight wins and four losses.

Natators Split

By Connie Molitor
Star of the Sea High School's swim team swam a tri-meet against Mercy and Shrine High Schools on October 29. Star split the meet by losing to Mercy, 68-16, but then topped Shrine in a close race, 42-41.

In the Star versus Shrine meet the 200 yard medley relay team of Nancy Drolshagen, Karen Strong, C.C. Bourget and Kathy Roarty took first place.

Strong again placed first in the 200 yard individual medley relay and the 100 yard breaststroke. Roarty took first in the 100 yard freestyle and second in the 100 yard back stroke.

North Athletes Honored At Fall Awards Night

By Wright Wilson

More than 150 athletes from five teams and three cheerleading squads were honored at the first fall sports awards night, held last week at North High School.

Each season, North has two awards nights to accommodate the large numbers of students participating in athletics. On Wednesday November 7, the boys' basketball team, the girls' basketball team, the tennis team, the golf team and cheerleaders were honored. On Monday, November 19, (scheduled so that more teams have a chance to finish their schedules), the girls' basketball team, the boys' swimming team, the boys and girls cross country teams and timettes will receive awards.

At last week's ceremonies, the freshman football team received awards first. Coach Bill Kurovich presented participation certificates to 41 players. The team played its 1979 season with a 4-3 overall record, and 3-1 within its league.

Following were the junior varsity football squad, with 24 players getting participation certificates from coach Larry Aceto. The JV team finished fourth in the Bi-County League with a 1-4 record, and 3-6 overall.

The golf team was next to be honored. Although golf is not a Bi-County League sport, North's team compiled an 11-7 final record.

Of eight team members, six won letters. Junior Curt Marshall won his third letter; second letters were won by senior Paul Quasano and sophomore John Briski and Burke Huey. Junior John Baraglia and freshman Alex Rothis received their first letters.

In addition, coach Ray Ritter gave out special awards: Marshall was selected as most valuable, Huey got most improved and Briski received the coaches' award.

Fourteen letter winners helped the girls tennis team win the Bi-County League with a 10-0 record, 11-2 overall. Receiving letters from coach Elizabeth Manojlovich were third-year letter winners Cathy Brown, Marilyn Biretta, Becky Keeney and Mary Jo Arpin; second-year letter winners were Beth McMahon, Cathy Carr and Mary Kay Matyn; and Renee Krickstein, Nancy Kohler, Mia Bryce, Chris Hayashi, Sandy Jayakar and Julie Stevens, who won letters for the first time.

Renee Krickstein, Brown, Rachel Krickstein, Kohler, McMahon, and Biretta were all named to the All-Bi-County league tennis team. Concluding the ceremonies was the varsity football team. With a 6-0 record, they were Bi-County League champions, also compiling an 8-1 overall record. Coach Jim Krucki awarded 31 letters.

Both sophomores on the team, Jerry Bockstanz and Dave McCarron, won first year letters. Eight juniors also won a first year letter. They were: John Caputo, John Clem, Mike Eugenio, Gregg Langone, Mark Palazzo, Dave Simon, Bruce Stewart and Scott Turnbull.

All 21 seniors on the team lettered. 10, for the second time. Kevin Calandro, Brian Fitzpatrick, Jim Kozik, Gary Ludwiczak, Bill Moesta, John Stewart, Sam Agosta, Bob Brown, Brian Engel and Jeff Mattes won second letters.

Seniors who won first letters were Bob Baker, Vic Cavatio, Paul Eaves, Vince Fazio, Craig Jurnisco, Jeff Lindeman, Dave Mestdaugh, Chris Rogers, Jim Rothis, Joe Steepe and Don Tischbein.

Two Easy Wins For SH Cagers

By John Schultz

South's girl cagers experienced a change of pace from their usual late-second victories as they netted two easy wins to raise their record to 15-2 and move a step closer to an Eastern Michigan League championship.

The Blue Devils, (8-2 in the league), will face L'Anse Creuse North, (9-1), on Tuesday, November 20. They dealt the Crusaders their only defeat earlier this year, 60-58; and this time they will have the home court advantage in a game that will likely decide the league championship.

The girls beat Port Huron Northern 47-38, on Tuesday, November 6. Gini Bruce led the scoring with 16 points. Anne Day and Anne Rosasco added 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Friday, November 9, the Blue Devils came home to defeat Mt. Clemens, 54-45. After a 10-10 first quarter deadlock, South's strong offensive rebounding and excellent outside shooting enabled them to open up a three-point halftime lead, and a 44-37 advantage after three quarters.

Mt. Clemens' scrappy defense in the fourth quarter kept it close, as the team pulled to within four points late in the game; but South used an effective stall and Day converted five free throws in the last two minutes to ice the victory.

Bruce scored 14 first-half points and finished with a game high 16.

Lochmoor Holds Big Tennis Event

Lochmoor Club will be hosting the third annual Michigan Open Men's Doubles Indoor Professional Championship this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 16, 17, and 18 in its tennis house. Tournament hours are 7 to 11 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, and 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. Pictured are defending champions (from left to right), PHIL NORVILLE and JON HAINLINE, Lochmoor pro, with DR. HERB KRICKSTEIN, tournament chairman. The public is invited to attend the event.

Short Takes at South High

South vs. North

By Mark Clark

The stage was set. It was to come down to the last event to decide who had the best girls swim team in Grosse Pointe and it was South who squeaked by rival North High. 88-84 in a thriller.

It was Maureen Cross who won the meet. She took the 500-yard freestyle by two one-hundredths of a second; then she swam the anchor leg of the 400-yard freestyle relay, giving South the second place finish by .4 seconds to preserve the win.

The Norsemen did not lose it without a fight; they almost swept the last relay when a gallant swim by anchor person Jennie Elie fell just short of the tie.

Two pool records were smashed when South swimmers Sara McLeod went 1:10.8 in the 100-yard breaststroke and the 200-yard medley relay team of Whitney Semple, McLeod, Kathi Eley and Lara Measelle won in 1:55.3, also a school record.

North, scoring with great depth, won four out of 11 events. Winners were Frances Shook in the 200-yard individual medley in 2:20.5, Elie in the 50-yard freestyle in 25.6, the 400-freestyle relay of Amy Rentschler, Lisa Mediodia, Chris Truhol and Jane Beck in 4:02.1, and diver Colleen Walter with a score of 192.75.

South tri-captain Semple also took two individual events: the 200-yard freestyle in 2:05.3 and the 100-yard backstroke in 1:05.4.

Other winners for South included Kathi Eley in the 100-yard butterfly in 1:02.8 and Measelle in the 100-yard freestyle in 58.0. Ryndy Dittmars also took an unexpected second place in the diving with her best score this year of 157.75.

TIP TO MOTORISTS

On your vacation trip this summer drive carefully — you may want to get away from it all but not out of it.

South Soccer Is Popular

By Lynn Puskas

Soccer is growing fast in popularity in the high schools in Grosse Pointe. There was proof of this when at least 40 students from South High School showed up for intramural soccer practices at Brownell Middle School. These practices were held after school at 5:30 p.m. and went on for nearly a month before a game was even played.

Games were held against North High every Tuesday and Thursday. The series ended with each team winning one game while the other two games ended in ties.

The soccer team was separated into two divisions, the varsity and JV. Both teams showed great enthusiasm for the sport.

One of the ways to achieve success is to remember not to believe everything you hear.

Pact Approved By GP Teachers

Grosse Pointe teachers voted almost 3-1 to approve a new two year contract with the Board of Education on Monday, November 12, at Parcels Middle School.

The School Board voted that evening unanimously to approve the pact as well. The agreement calls for 4.5 percent pay increases for two years on top of Cost of Living Allowances, capped at 4.5 percent for each year.

Teachers voted 326 to 122, (about 73 percent in favor), on the contract. Local union president Curt Lange said the most of those voting against the pact were not satisfied with the economic package.

The contract was tentatively settled on Sunday, October 14, just hours before a scheduled strike by Grosse Pointe teachers was to begin.

In addition to the pay raise, teachers will receive improved dental insurance coverage and one less work day a year, although they will be in their classrooms with students for one more day a year under the contract.

The schools have not yet reached agreement with two other employee groups, plant and cafeteria workers and office workers, according to personnel director Ronald Tonks. Talks are continuing, he said.

Nicholson to Lead Hunt Club

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:

As a new resident of this community, I have found that the "Grosse Pointe News" is an excellent source of information and community news. I would like to present a problem which I feel should be of interest to you and the Grosse Pointe community.

The basic issue of concern is transportation, particularly mass transportation provided by SEMTA, (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority), within the community.

When we moved into the Marier-Vernier area, we did so for a definite reason. My husband who doesn't drive could get back and forth to Eastland utilizing public transportation. Within eight months of our move, SEMTA transportation to Eastland was discontinued.

The regular passengers wrote letters, called SEMTA and several aired their complaints to GPW city hall. Nothing seemed to help.

I went so far as to contact Mr. (Gerard) McNamara at city hall. He referred me to several people at SEMTA. Everyone seemed anxious to help, very courteous and pleasant, but could make no changes.

They claimed that the Eastland, (Marier road), run in the early morning and back home from work was unproductive. But so are the day-time runs on Marier, Mack and Vernier. Why hinder the passengers who regularly use the line to and from their place of employment? After all, don't they support the system through their tax dollars?

Finally, I was told that routing was a political matter which they had no control over!

We have read where SEMTA lines have bolstered their service in the area. Yes, all these lines lead to downtown Detroit. I guess the conclusion you can draw is if you need good public transportation from SEMTA, get a job in downtown Detroit.

Now I am forced to waste energy and drive my husband back and forth to work every day. We are currently seeking, (through advertising), a ride with anyone driving in the area.

My question is are the one time regular passengers of SEMTA forced to do the same thing?

Sincerely,
A Woods resident who requested that her name be

QUALIFIES FOR TOURNEY

Jackie Ranger, formerly of The Farms, now of Paradise Valley, Ariz., has won the Arizona "Seventeen Magazine" qualifying tournament in the girls 14 division. She will be flown to Mission Viejo, Cal., next May to compete in the magazine's 17th annual national tennis tournament. Participants are given various gifts including a new wardrobe. Each state sends four representatives, one in each age division, (14, 16, 18 and 21), to the tourney.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

In last week's column I reviewed some of the findings of the annual Gallup Poll of the public's attitudes about schools. The poll showed that the public's evaluation of schools dropped for the fifth consecutive year even though this year's drop was the smallest of the five years.

Although we haven't taken a similar poll of the Grosse Pointe public's attitudes about our schools, we continually hear the word "quality" used when people comment about our school system. We too believe that we have a quality school system.

But, what is meant by the term "quality" as a description of educational programs? Undoubtedly many criteria to determine quality could be applied, but a policy statement from the Education Commission of the States, (ECS), might serve as an appropriate guide.

According to ECS, good schools depend upon a committed community, competent staff, and wise leadership, but also must include the following five main components:

1. SCHOOLS PLACE A HIGH VALUE ON THE UNIQUENESS OF THE INDIVIDUAL. Schools are small enough to allow personal interaction, and educational options and alternatives are provided. Teachers find and emphasize strong points.

2. ACHIEVEMENT IS THE SCHOOL'S FOCUS. Instructional time is protected from interruptions, time structures permit a high degree of flexibility and students are given the time they need to complete their tasks. Attention is given to aesthetic, moral and social development as well as intellectual growth. Expected learning is made clear to students and instructional quality is monitored and evaluated for quality.

3. ACTIVITIES USE THE RESOURCES OF THE TOTAL COMMUNITY. Students, parents, and community members make decisions about school processes, and the teacher's role is that of "designer" and "coordinator" of activities.

4. THE SCHOOL IS REALISTIC IN ITS UNDERTAKINGS, RECOGNIZING ITS LIMITS. School people try to do specific things well and take responsibility for the "schooling process" only. Staff expectations are realistic in terms of staff training and abilities, and the principal is the key person in the school.

5. BALANCE IS ACHIEVED BETWEEN DIFFERENCES OR OPPOSING FORCES. The focus is on the needs and goals of the students, and students with diverse backgrounds are brought together. Organization without bureaucracy is provided.

Whether or not one would totally accept the ECS criteria for quality schools, there is little question that the five components listed above are important to quality education. I believe that our instructional programs contain these five components and will use future columns to explain in more detail the nature of each component as it occurs in Grosse Pointe schools.

COSTS THE MOST U.S. cities spend the most on schools, a Census Bureau study finds. Education consumes 14 percent of city revenues or about $56 per person. Police protection, which takes 12 percent or $47 per person, is a close second.

Saint John Hospital Names New Trustees

Hugh C. Daly, chairman of the board of trustees of Saint John Hospital, recently announced the appointment of three new board trustees.

They are William P. Vittoe, vice-president of finance and comptroller, Michigan Bell; Sister Joyce Ann DeShano, staff chaplain, department of oncology, Harper Hospital, chaplain from department of Pastoral Care; and Sister Suzanne Zieske, regional coordinator of the Sisters of Saint Joseph.

Mr. Vittoe has been responsible for all of Michigan Bell's accounting and financial operations since 1977.

He joined the Bell System in 1961 as a traffic assistant at Indiana Bell in Indianapolis and held several positions with that department before being named district traffic manager in 1964.

Mr. Vittoe was appointed division traffic supervisor in 1966 and later that year transferred to American Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York City.

Returning to Indiana Bell in December, 1966, he was appointed division traffic manager and in 1970 became division commercial manager.

He said he plans on taking a "two-year sabbatical," and then "I may possibly become involved again in politics."

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The rafters will be ringing at the Detroit Club next Wednesday night as The Omicron Literary Association, alumni organization of the DKE fraternity at the University of Michigan, continues a tradition begun before the turn of the century: the annual Thanksgiving Eve Stag Banquet.

Some Brothers travel from as far away as Chicago to gather on that evening and sing old Deke songs.

Some simply have a 20-minute trip, downtown via East Jefferson avenue, for Grosse Pointers have always figured prominently in this organization. The fraternity's current strength is attributable in no small measure to the efforts of the late Wilfred V. Casgrain in the early 70's.

This year, the evening takes on an added significance as Pointe board members David K. Easlick, Jr., and John W. Lambrecht detail the proposal for a new investor-owned fraternity house (Continued on Page 32)

An Autumn Event To Aid Dominican

Royalty House of Warren Will Be Setting for Auction Dinner Dance a Week from Saturday; Reservation Deadline Is Today

Worn but still warm Tiger cleats and jerseys, retired from such baseball notables as Jack Morris, Lance Parrish, John Wockenfuss, Jason Thompson, Phil Mankowski and Alan Trammell . . . two old, wooden telephone booths . . . an original oil painting . . .

Those are just SOME of the items going up for bids at Dominican High School's third annual auction dinner dance.

It's set for a week from Saturday, November 24, at Royalty House of Warren, where the fun begins at 5 with a silent auction and continues until 1 in the morning when the dancing stops.

In between there'll be the oral auction, cocktails and dinner. Music will be by The Changing Times. The Classes of 1959 and 1964 will meet in their 25th and 20th reunions. There'll be a boutique of handcrafted gifts and a special prize "Wheelbarrow of Cheer."

The holidays are providing the decor theme. Final date for ticket purchase is today Thursday, November 15. Reservation information, ($40 per couple, $20 per person), may be obtained by calling the Dominican Development Office, 882-6503.

JoAnne Brume Spring, Class of '52, is general chairperson. Her assistant is Paul Atkinson. Robert W. Williams will act as auctioneer.

Others serving on the party committee include Sister Barbara Rodriguez, O.P., Dominican principal, Sister Mary Kay Homan, O.P., assistant principal, Sister Geraldine Maloney, O.P., treasurer, Sister Mary Alice Nator, O.P., alumnae moderator, and Charlotte M. Power, development director.

More are Darlene Otto Miller, Marion Cardinali Capp, Patricia McKolay Cosgrove, Mary Jane Perkins D'Angelo, Shirley Laya, Jane Klatt Rose, Sister Bev McEachin, O.P., Christine Atkinson, Patricia Vaughn, Robert Clark, Rosemarie Miller McClain, Barbara Breen Bennett and Ralph Miller.

Now for a few more items from the to-be-auctioned list. How about an evening of sailing on Lake St. Clair or the use of Coleman Young's Box for a Tiger baseball game? How about a handmade mohair rug? How about a car? We could go on, but we're sure you get the picture.

Dominican High School has been an active force in education in our area for 39 years. Five hundred and 30 young women comprise its current student body.

It is also a center for community services. Its enrichment program includes Adult Education courses, a Travelogue Series (some programs are accompanied by ethnic dinners), a Spring Fair and a Family (adult community) Theatre group.

New Board Structure for The DSO

The board of directors of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Inc., has announced a major restructuring of the board, its executive and standing committees.

Acting on the recommendation of the nominating committee, chaired by Alan E. Schwartz, the board has elected 14 vice-presidents, 10 of whom will chair newly established committees.

The vice-presidents, plus the presidents of the two DSO Women's Associations, will now comprise the executive committee of the board along with a pair of Pointers: John B. Ford, who was re-elected chairman, and Robert B. Sempie, re-elected president.

"This re-alignment and restructuring of the board and the executive committee will more intimately involve our directors in all aspects of the orchestra's operations," Mr. Sempie said in a statement to the board. "It will enable us to carry out the increased responsibilities as directors of the growing Detroit Symphony and also will assist the entire organization in accomplishing its artistic, financial and administrative goals."

Next week, Thanksgiving, and after that... well, you know what's coming. It's time to think of decorating your home for the holidays, and holiday decorating thoughts generally include poinsettias, and one way to make sure of getting lovely ones is to order them through LINC, (Linking Individuals and Needs in the Community), which this year is offering red or white plants, seven to nine blooms per plant, at $8.75 each. Watching BECKIE CIPRIANO, (seated), list the latest orders is SUE ALBRIGHT, current president of Operation LINC. When the plants are gone, that's it! Delivery date is Thursday, December 6. Place is Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, where those who have ordered plants may pick them up between 11:30 in the morning and 6 in the evening. Evening Wedding for Patricia Davis

Reception in War Memorial's Alger House Follows Early Summer Rites at Which She Is Wed to Thomas Von Hagel

Bride, Patricia Lynn Davis wore her mother's wedding gown of antique lace and a beige veil trimmed with pearls and lace for her marriage Saturday evening, June 9, to Thomas A. Von Hagel.

White gardenias, baby's-breath and fern formed her bridal bouquet. Her dress was princess style and featured a sweeping train.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Straley Davis, of Fairholme road, Davis was honor maid for her sister. Bridesmaids were two other sisters, Gayle Christine and Julie Ann Davis, and Carol Louise Von Hagel, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore identical dresses of rose petal pink Quana, styled with scoop necklines, shirred shoulders, cocoon sleeves, Empire waists and tulip hemlines.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon A. Von Hagel, of Sioux City, Iowa, asked Michael Baldwin, of Sioux City, to act as best man. Ushers were Michael LaVasseur, of Sioux City, and Craig Steven Davis, the bride's brother.

Also coming from Sioux City for the ceremony were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mrs. Albert Von Hagel and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Heyl.

The bride's mother wore a peach colored dress, floor length and bloused style. The bridegroom's mother selected a long gown of mint green chiffon. Gardenias formed both mothers' corsages.

The newlyweds vacationed in the east, visiting the Appalachians. They are at home in St. Paul, Minn.

Living Look at Yesterday

Yesterday-on-Tour, the popular outreach program from Historic Fort Wayne, is being offered again this year to schools and groups throughout the Detroit metropolitan area, thanks to support from the Detroit Historical Society and the Michigan Council for the Humanities.

The "hands on" living history experience—a field trip without the cost, labor and expense of travel—offers two programs: Hardtack and Coffee, depicting life during the Civil War, and Les Francais a Detroit, dealing with Detroit's 18th century French heritage.

In Hardtack and Coffee, Craig Collicott plays William Collicott, a Civil War soldier, and Beverly Ritchie plays Sarah Decker, a woman of the 1880's. Their depiction of that era includes discussions of Civil War army and domestic life, especially women's active contributions to the war effort.

In Les Francais a Detroit, Collicott as Claude Duvall and Ritchie as Michelle LaRamble detail the day-to-day experience of the "habitants" and "coureurs du bois." Two Yesterday-on-Tour returnees from last year, Dennis Charboneau and Jean LaViolette, play Denis Godfroi and Madame Godfroi.

The response to the program has been excellent this fall, according to William P. Phenix, curator of Military History at Historic Fort Wayne, who lists Grosse Pointe as among the school districts in which it has already been scheduled.

Yesterday-on-Tour is available to school grades three through eight and for limited adult presentations. Each program lasts approximately 45 to 60 minutes and is adaptable to shorter lengths.

Fee for one presentation is $35, but the cost is reduced when more than one presentation is scheduled at one location. Further information may be obtained by calling 849-5763.

Autumn Wedding for Lisa Pellerito

She Speaks Vows to John Clark Bibbler in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church; They Are at Home in Grand Rapids

Lisa Angela Pellerito chose a high-waisted gown of chiffon, styled with a Queen Anne neckline, a Swiss lace yoke and a chapel train, for her marriage to John Clark Bibbler.

Lace appliques accentuated her soft skirt and cathedral length veil. White Sweetheart roses, Stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy formed her bouquet.

She is the daughter of the Joseph Pelleritos, of Devon-mony. The newlyweds vacationed in Carmel, Calif., and are at home in Grand Rapids.

Lynn Pellerito was her sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids were Kathy Bibbler, the bridegroom's sister, Lee Haddas, Carol Monson, Cindy Reynolds and three sorority sisters of the bride: Alicia Heidenreich, of Grand Rapids, Karen Oberdorsten, of Royal Oak, and Julie Taylor, of Battle Creek.

Heavy, crocheted type applique rimmed the necklines of their honey colored dresses, styled with flowing skirts and split sleeves. Each carried an arm bouquet of tangerine carnations and baby's-breath, the honor attendant's accented with white daisy mums.

Mr. Bibbler, son of the Richard Bibblers, of Grand Rapids, asked Paul Warner, of Grandville, a fraternity brother, to act as best man.

Ushering were other fraternity brothers, Cliff Griffin, of Warren, Frederick McMann, of Royal Oak, Roger Skirvin, of Grand Rapids, and Rusty Wyatt, of Bloomfield Hills, with Joseph, Paul and Christopher Pellerito, brothers of the bride, and Thomas Holmes, of Marshall.

The mother of the bride wore a long gown of pale beige chiffon. Her spaghetti-shouldered bodice of Swiss lace was covered by a chiffon jacket. Yellow cymbidium orchids formed her wrist corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected a pale blue, floor-length dress with a chiffon bodice, and a wrist corsage of yellow Sweetheart roses.

The Alpha Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, (Macomb County area), is taking a big step this year, from Ritual of Jewels to Exemplar degree, and with the change in degrees comes a new name for the chapter: Xi Alpha Zeta.

The change became official last Thursday, November 8, at the Macomb County Council of Beta Sigma Phi's Exemplar Day Dinner at Zuccarelli's Country House.

The chapter has been active since 1969. Social activities include an annual Anniversary Dinner at a restaurant known only to the social committee, which provides transportation to the restaurant for other members. In this 10th Anniversary Year, husbands and escorts have been invited to join the ladies for dinner.

This month's social event is a Grosse Pointe Theatre performance of "The Sound of Music." A Christmas party is scheduled, and Xi Alpha Zeta will entertain a fellow Macomb County Council chapter in January.

February brings the annual Valentine Dinner Dance. March plans center around an afternoon of shopping downtown, with lunch at Renaissance Center. April is the month for the Annual Founders Day Dinner. May brings the Mothers Day Luncheon.

As a service project, the group gives a Thanksgiving basket to a family in the Detroit area. The chapter also has helped furnish the Ronald McDonald House, a residence facility for parents.

Grosse Pointe's Tracy Tingley reported on the Alumnae Council, held October 7 through 9 in Aurora, N.Y., at the Wells College Club of Detroit's fall luncheon and meeting in mid-October at the Dearborn Inn.

WSU's Thomas N. Bonner Presents Presidential Citation to Doris Brucker in Recognition of Her Work for Understudies

Doris (Mrs. Wilber M., Jr.) Brucker, of Merriweather road, was honored Friday evening, November 9, at the 17th annual President's Preview at Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre.

Doris received WSU's Presidential Citation from WSU President Thomas N. Bonner, who, presenting it, expressed the university's appreciation for her 12 years of service as a member of the Understudies women's committee for the theatre, especially for the last four years during which she has served as chairman of the committee.

Although Mrs. Brucker is stepping down as chairman of the Understudies, she will continue as a committee member.

In her response to the presentation she introduced her successor, Olga (Mrs. Irving) Dworkin, and thanked all 60 members of the committee for their breaking fund raising efforts. The committee this year has raised more than $80,000 for the Hilberry Theatre's graduate fellowships—over $10,000 more than last year's record amount.

Doris also introduced her family, her husband and son, mother-in-law and parents, and thanked them for their support during her term as Understudies chairman.

The President's Preview, at which contributing Sponsors of the theatre are guests, featured a performance of Brian Friel's "Philadelphia, Here I Come!" which opened officially Wednesday, November 14.

Nearly 300 of the guests gathered for dinner at the Standard Club in Renaissance Center prior to the performance, which was followed by a champagne reception with the cast in the Hilberry foyer.

Among the special guests was C. Walter Hodges, chairman of the advisory committee and designer for the Globe Theatre reconstruction project which has been undertaken by WSU and the City of Detroit.

Understudies and their husbands attending the President's Preview included Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald K. Dalby, Dr. and Mrs. T. N. Evans, Dr. and Mrs. C. Jackson France, Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Lohmann, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hadley Mack, Mr. and Mrs. A. David Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward St. C. Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. L. Murray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Vinci and Justice and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

Among other Pointers spotted in the crowd of Hilberry friends and supporters were Mrs. Vollrad J. von Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stoezler and the Arnold Lungershausens.

The President's Preview annually culminates the Understudies fund raising drive for the support of the Hilberry Graduate Repertory Company, which this year in-

Center Hosts Holiday Ball

Christmas begins at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial with the annual Viennese Ball, set this year for Saturday, December 1, from 8 o'clock until midnight, with music by the Johann Strauss Waltz Orchestra under the direction of Allen Warner.

Christmas decorations will be in place in the Crystal Ballroom, Christmas lights twinkling through the formal garden. Per tradition, there will be an interlude of Austrian carols sung and played on guitar and accordion by Alex and Maribel Sucek, originators of the ball, with party-goers invited to join in the choruses.

Refreshments will be available through the evening. In keeping with the setting, black tie is suggested — though not mandatory.

Bear Schubert Congress Fruit

Results of research by two Viennese music scholars, first presented at the International Schubert Congress in Detroit last November, have recently been published in two musical journals.

Musicologists Otto Biba and Eva Badura-Skoda read their papers at the congress held under joint auspices of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and Wayne State University with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Biba's paper described his research into the conditions of public music-making in early 19th-century Vienna and how well Schubert was able to make a living as a composer.

A transcript of his talk, "Schubert's Position in Viennese Musical Life," was published in the "Music Journal," (December, 1978). Biba is archivist of the Gesellschaft der Musikfreunde in Vienna. Badura-Skoda told of her re-discovery of "A Schubert Life Mask" in the July 1979 issue of "The Musical Times," (London, England). She identified the bronze relief of Schubert's face at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia.

Ms. Badura-Skoda has published much of her research into the music of the Viennese classics, including a book with her husband, pianist Paul Badura-Skoda, on performance of Mozart's keyboard music.

Anticipate Met Opera's May Visit

Thanksgiving's not here yet, (not to mention Christmas), but the Detroit Grand Opera Association is already looking ahead to spring. The DGOA, sponsor of the Metropolitan Opera's annual visit to Detroit's Masonic Auditorium, inaugurated activities for Metropolitan Week in Detroit, May 26 through 31, 1980, at its annual meeting in mid-October at Masonic Temple, during which WILBER HADLEY MACK, president of the DGOA, announced the appointment of fellow Pointer LUCY (Mrs. David K.) EASLICK as general chairman of the 1980 opera season, and the appointment of Virginia (Mrs. Paul S.) Mirabito, of Birmingham, as general co-chairman. Together, they will share a wide variety of responsibilities for insuring an artistically and financially successful opera season.

President Mack also announced the slate of operas scheduled for presentation by the Met in Detroit next spring.

The season opener Monday, May 26, will be Verdi's "Un Ballo in Maschera" featuring tenor Luciano Pavarotti. Benjamin Britten's "Billy Budd," performed in English with Richard Stilwell in the title role, will be presented the following night, and Wednesday, May 28, will bring Tchaikovsky's "Eugene Onegin" starring Teresa Kubiak, Nicolai Gedda, Michael Devlin and Jerrold Hines.

Scheduled for Thursday, May 29, is Bizet's "Carmen" with Florenzo Cossotto as Carmen and Detroit's Shirley Love as Mercedes.

Verdi's "Aida" will be presented Friday, May 30, with Rita Orlandi-Malasina, Mignon Dunn, Giorgio Lamberti and Cornell MacNeil.

Met Week closes Saturday, May 31, with a matinee in English of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" with Gail Robinson, Brenda Booser and Shirley Love, and an evening performance of Donizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore" with Judith Blegen and Nicolai Gedda.

Both Mrs. Easlick and Mrs. Mirabito are active in other civic affairs.

Lucy, wife of the president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company, served as general co-chairman of last year's opera activities.

She is a native of Ann Arbor and attended the University of Michigan. Currently, she belongs to the Women's Association for Boys Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, Women for the United Foundation, the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Women's Division of Project HOPE and the Michigan Lung Association, for which she co-chaired last year's

BARNES ELEMENTARY, STAR OF THE SEA, AND THE HUNT CLUB ARE JUST AROUND THE CORNER...

Open
Sunday

654 PEACH TREE

If you like the location, you're going to love the residence... four family sized bedrooms with two full baths up. Family room with country hearth fireplace just off the modern kitchen and a new drastically reduced price in the mid one-fiftys, plus the possibility of a short term land contract... Put this "gem" at the top of your list!

FIRST OPPORTUNITY, A TASTE OF GREENFIELD
GROSSE
FARMS

Here is the antique collectors dream come true! A home with that special "turn of the Century" authenticity and charm ideally suited to properly present your treasures! The restoration of this authentic farm Colonial near Kerby School is virtually a work of art... from modern kitchen into a warm and spacious family room with large fireplace. There's a formal dining room, parlor, and four bedrooms up. If you can afford $91,500 and you feel that "the best of yesterday" is what you desire, a private showing at your convenience will be arranged!

OTHER FINE HOMES FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

DON'T BE FOOLED BY THE APPEARANCE
THERE'S A SEPARATE APARTMENT
FOR YOUR MOM, DAD OR LIVE-IN HELP!

If you need a very nice apartment for Mom or Dad, then this fine newer custom built Colonial is absolutely perfect! It's like two residences in one, and perfectly legal for an immediate relatives use. Talk about quality; when a skilled carpenter builds his own home it shows! Attached garage, large rooms, handsome family room with fireplace, and a beautiful landscaped yard with a patio are just some of the many exciting extras you're going to see... and don't forget to bring Mom or Dad... it's that nice... $92,500!

JESSE JAMES WOULD HAVE LOVED THIS DEAL! Here's the story: The owner of this nice 3 bedroom California Ranch on Avalon in St. Clair Shores near Mack is transferred. He tells me he wants a fast sale (like yesterday) I tell him price it right... a few thousand under the market. He does. ($44,900) Then he tells me he's got this great big assumable mortgage ($27,900 at 9%), central air, convenient location too. Yes, Jesse would have loved this deal it's almost like stealing...

IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY

LIKE RIGHT NOW! This surprising split level ranch is located in an exclusive section of Grosse Pointe Woods near Liggett School. This is an "active family" home. There are two family rooms and a library! And since laundry is an activity too, there's a big cheerful laundry room to compliment this 3 bedroom delight... priced right and the owner's restless!

GAS... 49¢ A GALLON

Remember 2-3 years ago? There were lots of nice house values then; $58,000 bought a lot of house. Have we got a surprise for you... it still does! This three bedroom 1 1/2 bath home is unique; it's low price includes a fine, modern kitchen; there's even a "sitting room" off the dining room, and a location close to Defer and Parcels!

1990 CONTEMPORARY... 1979 PRICE

Here is an exciting living concept; a daringly different residence with a strong California flavor. Wait until you see the master bedroom with its exposed ceiling and private studio loft; wait until you see how a master bath should be done. And the kitchen... when you see the "European flavor" kitchen with its clean lines and imported cabinets, you know it's been worth waiting for. Better yet, stop waiting; let us open the front door, and you step into tomorrow!

WHY OWN RENTAL PROPERTY?

If you've priced Grosse Pointe Rentals lately they're going up just like everything else. Why not stop renting and start "capitalizing" on the inflationary economy! This all brick two family is an ideal place to start. Now vacant and ripe for redecoration, with a much lower price - why not let a tenant pay you for a change?

ROSEVILLE

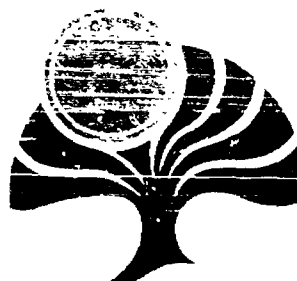

If a fairly priced 3 bedroom all brick home with a fenced yard, mature trees and big 2 1/2 car garage sounds interesting read on! There's a beautiful new kitchen and a nice recreation room too... almost too good to believe at $47,900!

BIG VALUE DETROIT HOME

with 3 bedrooms, living room with fireplace, dining room, new furnace and newly decorated. A delight at $26,900.

DETROIT FOUR FAMILY APARTMENT

Excellent rental is now generating $685 per month - think of the tax shelter! $54,900.

A Very Special Award

Each year, since 1972, the Society of Automotive Historians has presented two very special awards: one for the year's most outstanding book and one for the most outstanding article on any facet of automotive history published during the year.

They are the Cugnot Awards, named for Nicholas Jean Cugnot who briefly ran a steam vehicle on the roads of France in 1769. It took a century and a half for Cugnot's idea to catch on, but he is indisputably the Father of Today's Automobile.

This year, at its annual meeting held in Hershey, Pa., the society chose as the most outstanding magazine article a story entitled "Locke & Company, Custom Body Builder, 1902-1932 New York City and Rochester, N.Y."

It appeared in Torque, published by the Michigan Region of the Classic Car Club of America. Its author is Pointer Harold H. Emmons, Jr., who has restored and owns numerous classic cars, including a 1929 Locke-bodied Lincoln.

The committee was especially impressed by the amount of research exhibited in producing the Locke piece. There were no known histories of the firm extant, and Mr. Emmons combed corporate archives, private and public libraries, hundreds of journals, books and documents, including the Yale University Alumni records, to put together his fascinating article.

The committee believes his work is representative of the many fine automotive histories that are being produced on a volunteer basis as a labor of love for the car club magazines.

A Very Special Commission

The Hotel Pontchartrain has commissioned 300 signed, original paintings and prints by a trio of Michigan artists for placement in guest rooms and suites, and among the three selected for this very special commission is Grosse Pointe's Virginia Durbin Thibodeau.

She's a super choice, for although she loves the South of France and Italy, (she's won awards there for her work, as well as in the United States), Detroit is her first love and frequent subject.

Happiness for Ginny is a day, with a sketchpad, at Eastern Market. Later, in her studio at the Grosse Pointe Academy Artists Complex, the sketches blossom into full-blown, glowing works of art.

Mrs. Thibodeau is an accomplished painter, sculptor and enamelist. She has 18 one-woman shows to her credit, including invitational exhibits at the Toledo Museum of Art and The Smithsonian in Washington, D.C.

Her works are included in public and private collections, and she is a member of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters and a founding member of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association.

Some Very Special Candy

We'll bet that Queen Sofia of Spain never tasted better sweets than the American ones she received from Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maestro Antal Dorati following the DSO's recent concert in Moscow, for they came from the Windmill Pointe kitchen of Maralyn (Mrs. Henry M.) Domzaiski, who cooks just as well as she does everything else.

dome road, attended a week-long flute seminar at MSU given by ISRAEL BORUCHOFF, an MSU flute professor.

Mr. and Mrs. Loos, wed in Bingham Lutheran Church, near Bad Axe, renewed their vows August 11

Let's Get DePetris Fund to The Top!

JOHN WORCESTER and FRAN (Mrs. Charles A., Jr.) PARCELLS use a pyramid chart to show members of the DePetris Fund committee the progress of their campaign to raise funds for the support of the Trial Gardens at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The drive, which began in early summer with a selected solicitation, followed in late July by a benefit concert by Elizabeth Parcels, then general solicitation, is entering its final stages, with hopes of reaching its goal, $30,000, by the end of the year. The Grosse Pointe Garden Center believes that many more Pointe residents will want to support this project. Contributions may be sent to the DePetris Fund, Grosse Pointe Garden Center, 32 Lakeshore road, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan 48236. They will be most gratefully accepted.

MOT Reveals Season Plans

David DiChiera, general director of Michigan Opera Theatre, has announced that MOT's 1980 season at the Music Hall will open September 12 with a gala production of Johann Strauss' "Die Fledermaus."

The remaining repertoire will include, in English, the North American premier of Shostakovich's "Lady Macbeth" in its original version plus Mozart's "Don Giovanni" and Verdi's "Rigoletto." MOT's dual language presentation, with three performances in English and two in Italian.

DiChiera also announced that, as a result of an audience survey, MOT will continue its consolidated season but will change its opening night from a Monday to a Friday evening.

The four operas will run September 12 through November 1. All performances will be at Music Hall, with the MOT orchestra in the pit.

"We are very excited about the four operas for our coming season," DiChiera notes. "Our production of 'Lady Macbeth' marks the first time this Russian masterpiece will be performed in its original version on the North American continent."

"This version is not only a milestone in the evolution of Russian opera but could be considered one of the most controversial operas of the 20th century. It was the work that led Stalin to promote his doctrine of socialist realism and artistic oppression in Russia."

Elaborate plans to celebrate MOT's 10th anniversary are underway and will be announced later in the year. Season ticket holders can renew their subscriptions by mailing their subscription stubs to Peter Robbins, ticket coordinator, 350 Madison avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Further information on MOT's 1980 season may be obtained by calling 963-3717.

Honor Special Blood Donors

Among the more than 500 special blood donors honored by the Southeastern Michigan Chapter, American Red Cross, last Sunday, November 11, at the third annual Pheresis Recognition Reception were Pointers Elizabeth Baker, Lawrence Neibar, Frederick Howell, Robert Ruedisell, Jon Lechner, Gregory Pischeau, Eugene Perniz, Franklin D. Smith, Hazen Vanliet and Thomas Krell.

Their service award pins were presented by Dr. A. William Shafer, the chapter's Blood Services director, and Dr. Shobha Shah, medical director.

"Pheresis is an unusual kind of blood donation," explains Dr. Shafer. "Instead of giving whole blood, as in regular donations, a pheresis donor gives a specific component of blood, such as plasma, platelets or white cells."

A pheresis donation takes two or more hours. Blood is drawn from one arm and passed through a blood-separating instrument that separates and collects a single blood component. The remaining blood components, including the red cells, are returned to the donor.

Inflation Hits Drivers

Due to inflation, a reappraisal of the financial considerations of car ownership is needed, say the Michigan Certified Public Accountants.

If you have been taking the standard mileage allowance of 17 cents as the deduction for your business driving, this might be the time to start keeping track of your actual expenses, the CPAs say, with a view toward itemizing. With gasoline above a dollar a gallon and other car costs up almost as much, the 17-cent allowance (10 cents after the first 15,000 miles) is unrealistic for many drivers.

Although state taxes on gasoline are no longer separately deductible on federal income tax returns, they can still be included as a deductible business driving expense when such expenses are incurred.

With inflated driving costs, some employers have been prompted to pay more for use by employees in commuting and from work. The employees share operating costs with the driver riding for nothing. Employers not only get investment tax credit on the van, but the need for parking space is sharply reduced.

Car poolers enjoy savings that can total hundreds of dollars a year. If they commute in a company-owned vehicle, the CPAs say, they may be eligible for an additional saving such as reduced insurance premiums on the family car. This is offered by some insurers on low-mileage automobiles.

With the values of some used cars, notably fuel-efficient ones, not dropping as far nor as quickly as they once did, CPAs suggest continuing collision insurance coverage beyond the two or three years many car owners buy such protection.

Torch Drive Tops Goal, Nets Over $45 Million

The United Foundation last week reported its 31st consecutive Torch Drive victory. Campaign leaders at the UF's annual Victory Dinner reported a grand total of $45,251,423, which is 101.7 percent of the year's campaign goal of $44,500,000.

Metropolitan Detroit Torch Drive leaders are proud of the outstanding Torch Drive result, which was accomplished despite the reduction of an estimated 60,000 employees in the automotive and related industries.

Presiding at the Victory Dinner at the Detroit Plaza Hotel were Torch Drive General Chairman Louis R. Ross, vice-president of Car Product Development, Ford North American Automotive Operations; and UF Board Chairman Joseph L. Hudson, chairman and chief executive officer of Hudson's.

The 1979 Torch Drive will support 137 health and community service agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

"This year's Torch Drive has been a great challenge, and I would like to express my deep personal gratitude to all who have worked so hard to produce the results," Mr. Ross commented.

Mr. Ross also announced that the United Foundation's 1979 Urban Progress Fund (UPF), campaign has raised to date $2,273,583 to support the 1980 activities for New Detroit, Inc.

The UPF campaign, which solicits funds from selected Detroit-area corporations and foundations, has been conducted concurrently with the Torch Drive since 1969.

The Benson Ford Trophy to recognize the regular chapter campaign unit achieving the highest percentage of quota was presented to Pointer C. T. Fisher III chairman of the Torch Drive's Commercial Unit.

Final totals and percent of quota figures for other chapter campaign units are: Industrial Unit chaired by John W. Day — $5,035,460, 100.1 percent; Service Unit chaired by J. Roy Henry — $5,185,089, 100.5 percent; Schools, Government and Professions chaired by Dr. Arthur Jefferson — $4,113,102, 100.4; Metropolitan Unit chaired by Mervyn H. Manning — $401,774, 107.5 percent.

The Automotive Manufacturers Unit chaired by Philip Caldwell raised $23,929,838. Community Campaigns chaired by Barbara Gattorn raised $951,202, 103.2 percent of quota.

Special Gifts chaired by Peter P. Thurber raised $947,735, 102.1 percent of quota.

Mr. Ross gave special thanks to this year's Torchlighters and to Miss Torchey for 1979, Julia J. Sena, a graphics design operator for Burroughs Corporation.

The 1979 Torchlighters, who all have benefited from Torch Drive-supported agencies are: Hilary Jones, 8, of Detroit, YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit; Danny Wagner, 13, of Mt. Clemens, Kidney Foundation of Michigan; Lynsey Muehl, 4, of Westland, Kenny-Michigan Rehabilitation Foundation; David Gill, 6, of Ferndale, Michigan Heart Association; and Todd Teetaert, 5, of The Woods, Detroit Institute for Children.

Mr. Hudson presented Mr. Ross with a silver tray whose inscription expressed "the gratitude, affection and appreciation of all the people of metropolitan Detroit."

Guest speaker at the Victory Dinner was nationally syndicated columnist Cleveland Amory.

Costs for Victory Dinner and all Torch Drive report luncheons are met through the United Foundation's Meeting Sponsorship Pool. Members of the group are local businesses, labor unions and organizations who pay UF meeting costs with "plus" contributions in addition to their Torch Drive gifts.

Department Reports Record Number Have Two Jobs

A record three out of every five husband-wife families reported to have two earners in 1970. Slightly over half of all children under 18 lived in two-earner families. At least two family members were earners during the previous year, the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported.

Since 1970, the member of these multi-earner families has increased by more than 3 million, reaching 28.4 million.

The rising number of multi-earners families has been one of the most important socio-economic developments of the 1970's. Almost exclusively responsible for this rise have been the steep annual increases in the number and proportion of working wives. Over the decade, their number has grown by about 5.5 million. By March 1979, nearly half of all wives 16 years old and over were working or looking for work.

Another striking change during the 1970's was the sharp rise in the number of working women solely responsible for the maintenance and welfare of their own families. About one of every nine women in the March 1979 labor force, (5 million in all) was either a divorced, separated, widowed, or never-married woman who maintained her own family. Principally because of the rising incidence of divorce, the number of families maintained by women increased substantially over the decade so that, in March 1979, they totaled 8.5 million, or one of every seven families.

Children under 18 were present in about 5.3 million of 63 percent of these families; 66 percent of the mothers in these families were in the labor force.

The number of children whose mothers worked or looked for work rose sharply during the 1970's even though the total number of children in families declined as a consequence of falling birth rates. By March 1979, 30.1 million children had mothers in the labor force, almost 20 percent more than

To Celebrate Thanksgiving

A verse from First Thessalonians — "In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" — is the opening text of a Thanksgiving service at First Church of Christ, Scientist, next Thursday, November 22, at 10:30 a.m.

Hymns of thanksgiving and expressions of gratitude by members of the congregation will be included in the meeting at 282 Chalfonte avenue as well.

Rose Lu DeWindt and F. Gerald Smith, presently serving as Readers of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, will conduct the service. All are welcome and care will be provided for very young children.

Citizen Seeks Lakeshore Elms

A Lakeshore road resident appeared before the Shores Council last month to request that the diseased elms on Lakeshore be replaced.

Al Nick told council members that he would like to see a master plan devised for the one and a half mile strip in The Shores because, in his opinion, Lakeshore will look completely barren in a few years.

A number of trees are scheduled for removal along Lakeshore. Village President Gerald C. Schroeder said, however, that Wayne County has been very slow in removing the trees.

Actions Taken to Ease Traffic

Based upon a request from citizens to alleviate traffic problems on Hollywood avenue, west of Mack, the Woods Department of Public Safety took two recent actions.

Public Safety Director John Dankel said additional signs prohibiting trucks and commercial vehicles on Hollywood have been posted and left turns from the north-bound alley behind Arnold's

Drug Store onto Hollywood have been prohibited.

Helen Jarac of Hollywood and other area citizens submitted a petition to the sub-commission in September seeking relief of what they felt were traffic hazards in the immediate area. The petition was then referred to the Public Safety Department for its review and action.

History Group Cites Business

The Historical Society of Michigan is continuing its search for centennial businesses operating in the state. As a Bicentennial project in 1976, the society sponsored a contest to locate the oldest business in Michigan.

Because of the enthusiastic response, the recognition of centennial businesses has been integrated into an ongoing program of the Society.

The oldest business located to date is that of George Jerome and Company, a Roseville engineering and surveying firm founded in 1828, nine years before Michigan became a state.

According to Frank C. Wilhelm, executive director of the society, more than 350 centennial businesses have been located through an intensive search conducted by local historians throughout the state.

"This most exclusive group of businesses has been honored in community ceremonies sponsored by historical societies and chambers of commerce," Mr. Wilhelm said.

"Ceremonies include a presentation of a handsome, personalized certificate officially designating the company as a Michigan Centennial Business."

"We hope that the contest has also stimulated an interest in preserving important commercial and industrial buildings throughout the state," Mr. Wilhelm added. "These structures serve as significant visual links with our past."

The society is especially interested in locating all businesses celebrating their centennial in 1980. These businesses will be honored at the annual Salute to Michigan's Business Pioneers, a celebration dinner for centennial businesses scheduled for May 21, 1980, in Lansing. Businesses celebrating their 125th and 150th anniversaries also will be recognized at this gala dinner.

Applications for centennial business certificates should include the complete business name, address and phone number, the name and title of the chief executive officer, documentation, (or xerox copies of documentation), of founding date and the name and address of the person submitting the application. Applications should be mailed to The Historical Society of Michigan, 2117 Washtenaw avenue, Ann Arbor, 48104.

Business program is supported by funds raised from the Salute to Michigan's Business Pioneers.

A nonprofit organization, the Historical Society of Michigan promotes the preservation of state and local history throughout Michigan. It is supported by more than 6,000 members. It serves as a major clearing house of information to assist more than 270 local historical and preservation organizations in Michigan.

Seeks Help For Cambodia

Detroit area contributions to the Cambodian relief effort have reached more than $8,000, according to a recent news release from the Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), and the United Nations Children's Fund, (UNICEF), are coordinating the large-scale emergency relief operation to aid the starving population of Cambodia.

The ICRC has called upon all peoples and their governments that wish to alleviate the suffering of the Cambodian people to give their support to the relief operations that are now underway. The ICRC and UNICEF estimate that the joint relief operation for the next six months will cost $111 million U.S. dollars.

Interested persons and organizations wishing to assist the ICRC-UNICEF relief efforts should make checks payable to the American National Red Cross and earmarked "For Cambodian Relief." Funds mailed to "Executive Office, American Red Cross, Southeastern Michigan Chapter, Box 351, Detroit, Mich. 48232" will be forwarded to the ICRC by the American Red Cross.

Accountants Suggest Investments to Cheat Inflation

"A penny saved is a penny earned" may have been solid advice in Benjamin Franklin's day, but in these inflationary times it would have to be updated to: "A penny saved at less than nine percent is a penny that's shrinking fast."

For the money we put aside is just as susceptible to inflation's shriveling effect as what we spend. If it doesn't grow as fast as inflation, it diminishes.

Tapping their pool of experience as advisors to the money managers of the business world, members of The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants offer some pointers that industry follows and which might help families, too, save and invest profitably in a period of heavy inflation.

An Association spokesman emphasized that while CPAs rarely are investment counselors, they do frequently help clients weigh the myriad combinations of interest rates, appreciation, liquidity, safety and tax consequences that various investments offer and advise which type of package is most likely to suit a client's particular situation.

Business firms, they say, feel that in these times especially they must be relentless in pursuing advantageous ways of keeping otherwise idle cash busy producing income. Some companies even have staffs of people—cash managers—who spend most of their time on the telephone running down desirable places to "park" funds not immediately needed in the business. Some of these short-term investments, such as Eurodollar certificates of deposit, may be too exotic, or risky, for the average individual, but they should be explored.

The important fact for the individual saver or investor to remember, say the CPAs, is that there are alternatives to E-funds and low-interest savings deposits, and if the individual wishes to emulate business investors he will devote time and effort to finding what his options are and examining their suitability for him. Even if you leave your money in a savings account, there are different types of accounts and different rates of return. Banks can be surprisingly flexible, so shop around.

Suitability is affected by the degree of risk an investment entails. Also by its liquidity; if, to earn high return, funds must be tied up in something that can't be quickly or easily sold, the investor may find himself unable to deal with a financial emergency or to take advantage of another, better investment opportunity that may come along.

In inflationary times, investments in physical things—commodities, real estate, or collectibles such as art works, for example—and securities backed by physical things, such as mining stocks, often tend to keep pace with the inflation rate. But there's something to keep in mind about investments in jewelry, paintings, antiques and other collectibles: as a non-dealer you are likely to buy at retail and sell at wholesale.

For the average family, an investment in real estate—at least to the extent of owning its own home—may be the best inflation hedge. It forces you to save—to build equity. If it's well-constructed and located in a good neighborhood, it appreciates in value.

Thanks Service Set at St. James

Saint James Lutheran Church on McMillan road will hold its traditional community service on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 22, at 9:30 a.m.

Pastor George Scheiter will preach the sermon and Pastor George Kurz will conduct the service. The Saint James Choir, under the direction of Herman Clein, will assist in the service.

Singing by the congregation will include such favorites as "God Bless Our Native Land," "America, the Beautiful" and "God Bless America." The nursery for small children will be conducted as usual during the service.

Citizens are invited to celebrate Thanksgiving Day with the Saint James congregation.

HAVE THE ABILITY
Deep sea octopuses have the ability to create light biologically through their digestive glands, in the belief of Smithsonian Institution researchers. The theory is that they eject a luminescent substance into deep, cloudy waters, to confuse and distract enemies, much as their fellow species do with clouds of ink at shallower depths.

Bottom Fish Are Coming

Now that fish market customers are stubbornly passing up such high-priced entries as salmon, halibut, and other former "standards," U.S. commercial fishermen are beginning to go after bottom fish. These trash fish, as they are sometimes called, abound in huge quantities off the Pacific Coast, where they have been taken for many years by Russian, Japanese and Korean fishermen. The new two years old, 200-mile zone gives American fishermen a needed break.

SEMTA gears up to carry one million more passengers in '80.

DETROIT— Lots of people in the Detroit area are rediscovering a mode of transportation they haven't used for perhaps decades: the bus. In this age of dollar-a-gallon gasoline, folks are finding out that the bus can be a most satisfactory way to get to and from work or wherever. It can be prompt, comfortable, and reliable. And, most important, you don't have to buy the gas—or worry about where to park, or be hassled by driving in traffic.

No wonder, then, that the SEMTA bus is enjoying a fast-flourishing popularity among Detroit-area commuters. During the past year, SEMTA carried 9.3 million passengers on its scheduled bus lines, or about 36,000 per week-day. And the way new passengers are showing up daily, SEMTA's gearing up to carry a million more people this coming year.

One important way we're doing it is by adding new buses to the fleet. Forty-five of them, to be exact. Of these, 40 will go directly into service, and five will be held for maintenance reserve. The new buses will be utilized to give the best possible service to SEMTA's growing family of customers. Some will be added to overcrowded routes. Some will serve new Park & Ride routes. And others will provide new "reverse commuter" services.

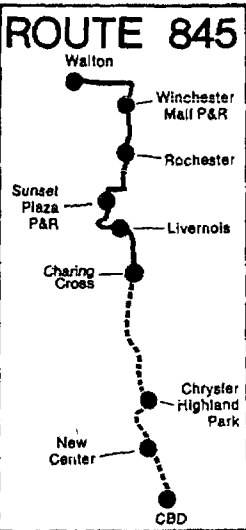

Further, to communicate the new expanded service to help its passengers, SEMTA has installed informative new signs wherever they were needed, including 2,700 bus stop signs and 150 Park & Ride signs. Also, every SEMTA bus will soon carry an up-to-date and very readable destination sign. It's just a little more evidence that SEMTA is dedicated to doing whatever is required, small things as well as large, to serve this area's transportation needs.

December 10 date for nine new SEMTA buses in Oakland County.

Oakland County commuters will benefit from nine new buses, which are scheduled to report for duty near the end of November. They will be added to existing routes. Following is a list of the existing Oakland County routes receiving new buses and the number of buses to be added to each:

NEW BUSES	EXISTING ROUTES
4	405 Orchard Ridge
3	406 Woodward
1	430 Clawson
2	495 John R
1	851 W. Bloomfield Park & Ride
1	850 Birmingham-Southfield Park & Ride

Revised Park & Ride bus and train to serve Rochester-Troy.

The revised Rochester Park & Ride service will make commuting by SEMTA bus convenient to residents of both Rochester and Troy. In addition to the current locations — Winchester Mall at Rochester and Avon Roads, and Sunset Plaza at Long Lake and Livernois — the revised route will provide new parking locations (to be determined in the near future). For route details, see map at left.

More "lifts" to help handicapped ride.

A new element present in all the service improvements and expansion this year is accessibility for the wheelchair handicapped. Sixteen of last year's new buses had wheelchair lifts, and all of this year's new buses have lifts. To insure the maximum possible use of the lifts, we are designating some routes and trips as accessible to people using wheelchairs.

- 560 Gratiot (which was accessible last year)
- 740 12 Mile
- 510 Van Dyke (Some trips)
- 750 Pontiac-Arrow
- 440 Woodward (some trips)
- 809 Michigan Avenue Park & Ride
- 185 Westland-Ecorse Crosstown
- 200 Westland (some trips)

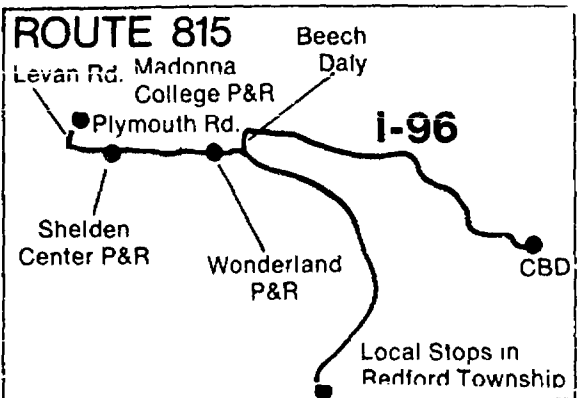

A major training program is going on for SEMTA drivers in the use of the lifts, which involves a film, slides, demonstration and practice. All SEMTA drivers will be fully qualified before using the lift.

SEMTA adds 17 new Wayne County buses Nov. 5.

Wayne County will receive 17 new SEMTA buses to be assigned to the largest number of routes. Three of the new buses will serve on a new Wayne County Park & Ride route. The remaining 14 buses will be assigned to existing routes as follows.

NEW BUSES	EXISTING ROUTES
1	140 Ecorse-Taylor
1	150 Wick-Taylor
2	200 Michigan
1	260 Cherry Hill-Westland
1	250 Ford Road-Westland

Western Wayne County to be served by new Park & Ride.

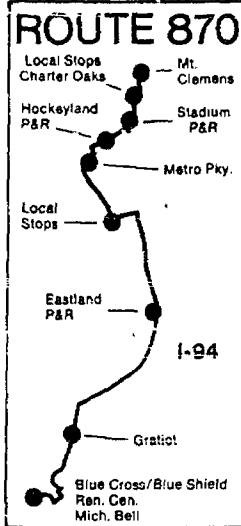

Effective November 5, a new Western Wayne County Park & Ride route will offer commuters service to downtown Detroit, as well as to local stops in Redford Township. Parking will be available in three lots with a capacity of 100 cars each: Madonna College at I-96 and Levan, Shelden Center at Plymouth and Farmington Roads, and Wonderland Center at Plymouth and Middlebelt Roads. See map above for details.

14 additional SEMTA buses went into service on Macomb County routes October 22.

Macomb County was the first to receive the additional new SEMTA buses which were ordered for delivery this year. Eleven of the new buses have been added to present routes to help relieve overcrowding. The remaining three buses will be assigned to a new Park & Ride route serving Macomb County residents. The regular SEMTA routes and the number of buses each will receive are listed below.

ROUTE	NEW BUSES
• 560 Gratiot	3
• 580 Harper	1
• 610-615 Kercheval-Mack	2
• 620 Charlevoix	1
• 625 Marter	1
• 630 Jefferson	3

New Clinton River Park & Ride to serve east-siders.

People who live in eastern communities such as Mt. Clemens, Fraser, St. Clair Shores and Harper Woods will be conveniently served by the new Clinton River Park & Ride. Starting October 22, it provides parking in three locations with a total capacity of upwards of 350 automobiles: Stadium Parking Lot at N. Rose and Groesbeck, Fraser Hockeyland Lot at Utica Road south of 15 Mile, and Eastland Shopping Center Lot at Eight Mile and Kelly Road. From these lots, Park & Riders will be whisked, via I-94 and Gratiot Avenue, to downtown Detroit. See map at left.

"Reverse Commute" helps people who work in suburbs.

More and more people are riding SEMTA buses from the central city to employment locations in the suburbs. Woodward Avenue buses, for example, carry almost as many passengers going in that direction as regular commuters. And "reverse commuters" will be further accommodated by these new SEMTA services: The Plymouth Center at Five Mile and Sheldon can now be reached by a transfer from a D-Dot or SEMTA Dial-A-Ride bus at Seven Mile and Grand River to a regular SEMTA bus on Route 350. Another new service that seems headed toward becoming a major "reverse commute" route runs out Mound Road via Chene and Joseph Campau, Route 500.

IF SEMTA'S GETTING 45 NEW BUSES, HOW COME YOU COULD STILL FIND YOURSELF STANDING?

Sad, but true. We're putting 45 new buses into service by January 1. A total of around 2,000 additional SEMTA seats. But the way our business is growing, it won't be nearly enough. We're also adding three new Park & Ride locations and changing some of our schedules to reduce the time between buses. But, in spite of everything, some of you will be riding standing up during peak commuting hours. We're sorry, and we hope you'll bear with us.

OUR POPULARITY IS A PRESSING PROBLEM.

It all boils down to this: The rising cost of gasoline has caused a lot of people to give us a try as a way of getting to work. And many of them obviously liked us. For instance, we are carrying about 25% more passengers than we were a year ago. During that time, our fleet has increased by 17%. You can readily see the problem. Our family of customers is simply growing a lot faster than we are.

YOU HAVE SOME STAGGERING POSSIBILITIES.

There are some things you can do to help us help you get to work as comfortably as possible. Asking your employer to stagger your working hours is one thing. Say 7:00 to 3:30 instead of 8:00 to 4:30. That lets our buses make two rush hour trips instead of one. More trips, more seats. Another idea along the same lines is flex time, which allows employees to set their own hours within certain limits.

WE'LL GLADLY HELP YOU START YOUR OWN "BUS SYSTEM."

We figure that if our bus system isn't the answer, maybe a bus system of your own is. Meaning, of course, a van pool. So, SEMTA has contracted with Van Pool Services, Inc. to set up a van pool test program. It'll involve up to 42 vans over an 18 month period, and will serve small employers in office complexes in the Southfield area. With this experience under our belts, we'll be in a better position to judge the practical merits of van pooling. You see, we're not just in the business of selling seats on buses. We're here to do whatever has to be done to help you get the transportation you need. We think that's what a good public transit authority is all about.

SEMTA
There's a lot riding on us.

Seven Honored by Society

The Historical Society of Michigan has presented its 1979 Awards of Merit to seven individuals and two organizations. The awards are given to recognize contributions to the presentation, preservation and appreciation of state and local history.

Mildred Haawin, director of the Ella Sharp Museum in Jackson and chairwoman of the Society's awards committee, announced the awards at the Society's annual meeting Oct. 6 in Monroe. William S. Schindler of Detroit, president of the Historical Society of Michigan, presented the awards.

Award winners include: Michael J. Anuta, honored for his efforts to preserve the history of Menominee County.

Esther Bystrom, for her 17 years of leadership in local history activities in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. J. Dee Ellis, for his recent book, "Pioneer Families and Heritage of Lapeer County, Michigan."

Donald L. Katz, for his book, "The Settling of Waterloo, Michigan: the Schnackenberg-Katz Families."

The La-Z Boy Chair Foundation, represented by Herman F. Gertz, president for its generous support of historical preservation in Monroe County.

Robert and Elaine Lund, for establishing the American Museum of Magic, an important collection of magic memorabilia in Marshall. E. Hardy Luther, for his efforts to preserve the history of Jackson County.

Dominic P. Paris, for his book, "Footprints to Freedom: the Story of Livonia."

The Michigan State Organization of Quarters, represented by its president Eleanor Garrett, for the important contributions the group has made to preserve Michigan's historical landmarks.

In addition to the awards presentation, the annual meeting featured a series of lectures and seminars about the French influence in southeastern Michigan as seen through genealogy, archaeology and architecture. Reid H. Lewis, director of La Salle Expedition II, delivered the Burton Memorial Lecture about the eight-month recreation of La Salle's 1831-32 expedition through the Great Lakes.

A nonprofit organization, the Historical Society of Michigan promotes the preservation of state and local history throughout Michigan. It is supported by more than 6,000 members. It serves as a major clearinghouse to assist more than 270 local historical societies and preservation organizations in Michigan.

Lucas to Speak At I-F Series

What role does the community play in crime prevention? Unfortunately, this question has been made extremely relevant by a tragic murder several weeks ago in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Although anxiety about crime is prevalent, thoughtful discussion about ways to prevent crime is rare. This Tuesday, November 20, 8:30 p.m., at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, Sheriff William Lucas, chief enforcement officer in Wayne County, will highlight a program called "The Role of the Community in Crime Prevention." There will also be a short presentation by two officers of the Jefferson-Alter-Kercheval Block Club.

The discussion is the second of an ongoing series of evening discussions sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice. The series is called "Promoting Racial Understanding II: Critical Issues for the 1980s."

The session will consist of a 30 to 45 minute presentation by Sheriff Lucas and a brief presentation by Sister Helen Edward and Sue Bracey of the JAK Block Club to be followed by a question and answer period.

The Crime Prevention Task Force of the Inter-Faith Center is presenting this program to inform the community about practical solutions to preventing crime. The Task Force also is involved in assisting neighborhood residents and the Detroit Police Department in the expansion of the Neighborhood Watch crime prevention program in Detroit.

The public is invited to the session and admission is free.

For more information on the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center, the work of the Crime Prevention Task Force, (which is made up of citizens who volunteer their time), or on the remainder of the Tuesday evening series, call the Center at 824-0350.

TRANSFER POINTERS

Four Pointers have begun immunology work in the newly-created E. Walter Albachten Department of Immunology at the Michigan Cancer Foundation in Detroit. The Foundation transferred its existing Laboratory of Immunology to the new department, renaming it the Laboratory of Cellular Immunology. Those Pointers involved in the transfer were Dr. Jean Hager, Dr. Gloria Heppner, Dr. Bonnie Miller and Dr. Fred Miller. The Immunology Department was established with donations from the Walter E. Albachten Trust. Studies in the immunology laboratory involve the system by which the human body combats, or fails to combat, the growth of cancer cells.
