

Patch a quilt at the Center

You don't have to live in Indian Village to learn Seminole Indian patchwork quilting. There will be a patchwork quilting workshop at the War Memorial on Saturday, Nov. 15, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. taught by Mrs. Candice Demaggio for a fee of $15 plus $1.25 charge for materials.

A graduate of the University of Detroit, an instructor with the Detroit Board of Education and former teacher in Massachusetts, Ms. Demaggio has held seminars and workshops on Indian patchwork quilting in Minnesota, New York and Toronto as well as the Detroit area.

Step by step instruction in five different patchwork techniques will be taught.

Workshop members will also learn to draft their own quilt patterns piece by piece either by hand or on a sewing machine while familiarizing themselves with curved seams and applique. Class members can make tote bags, pillows, or decorate table cloths or clothing.

Materials that are needed include 1 1/2 yards of solid color trigger, kettletcloth or weaver's cloth and one-half yard of harmonizing cotton material. Members should also have three, one-half yard swatches of prints or other solids. Matching thread, pins and needles, sharp pencil, ruler, compass, scissors and glue stick are all necessary.

Sign ups should be made in advance, if possible.

Pointes suffer some loss of state gas tax revenues

State revenue for work on Michigan's highways, county roads and municipal streets fell by 11 percent in the third quarter of the year compared with the same period of 1979, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) reported last week.

Gas and weight tax proceeds for public transportation and railroad preservation programs decreased by a like amount.

The decline was the sharpest in a single quarter since the outbreak of World War II.

Steeper fuel prices and reduced driving, coupled with the trend toward lighter, more fuel-efficient automobiles, all contributed to the downturn, says the MDOT.

Another factor was the reduction this year in the state tax on diesel fuel used by trucks from nine to five cents a gallon.

"Fuel and weight tax revenues are the source of nearly all the money available for road and highway work and for other forms of transportation," said Department Director John P. Woodford.

"The continuing decline comes at a time that the state, counties and cities are confronted by fast-rising costs for maintenance and construction.

"The unavoidable result will be another reduction in the level of service. Municipal and small-business systems throughout the state will suffer the same result, as will other transportation programs."

Gas and weight tax revenues also fell in the Grosse Pointes:

- Grosse Pointe City — from $25,667 to $22,884
- Grosse Pointe Farms — from $46,357 to $41,326
- Grosse Pointe Park — from $56,893 to $50,730
- Grosse Pointe Shores — from $12,890 to $11,489
- Grosse Pointe Woods — from $79,103 to $70,540

The yield from all fuel taxes fell by 13.8 percent. Gas tax revenues declined by 11.5 percent, down from $126,912,012 in the July-September period of 1979 to $112,350,809 in the same quarter this year.

Diesel fuel revenues fell by 51 percent, from $8,001,767 last year to $3,920,160 this year.

Part of the revenue loss was made up by $3,262,423 collected from the new carrier tax imposed on diesel-powered trucks when the fuel tax was reduced.

Weight taxes collected through the sale of license plates increased 15.4 percent in the third quarter, going from $9,267,285 last year to $10,691,081 this year. Part of the increase resulted from conversion of plate sales to the date of the owner's birthday, extending the licensing period beyond the previous 12-month limit for one time only.

Interest earnings, fell 21.6 percent to $1,786,409 and other miscellaneous revenues dropped 4.6 percent to $3,029,817.

All the revenues go into the Michigan Transportation Fund for support of the state's transportation programs. Gross receipts were down 9.4 percent, declining from $149,691,165 to $135,653,276.

Collection costs and various grants took $12,519,867 from the fund, up by 9.8 percent. That left $123,133,408 available for distribution to the state, the counties and municipalities and the Comprehensive Transportation Fund, which supports bus, rail and port development programs in addition to streets, roads and highways. The amount distributed for the same quarter last year was $138,284,194.

The State Trunkline Fund for construction and maintenance on the state highway system will receive $46,804,675 as its 38.4 percent share of the fund. State-financed public transportation and rail programs will receive $10,161,739 as their 8.3 percent portion.

The 83 county road commissions will collect $42,440,903 as their 34.3 percent share, compared with $47,640,430 they collected a year ago. The 531 incorporated cities and villages will get $23,726,090 as their 19 percent share, down from last year's $26,581,619.

Together, the state, counties and municipalities maintain nearly 117,000 miles of highways, roads and streets.

December ground-breaking for Hill Project

According to Bologna, the idea of a new office building at this location has been in the works since August, 1978.

"We thought it would be a shot in the arm for the area," he said. "But, with fluctuating interest rates and a million details to work out, it's taken us this long to reach this point."

One of the details concerns the alley running between the commercial establishments and parking lot west of Kercheval. With the new structure completed through to Muir Road, public access to Muir via Kercheval would be cut off.

"That will be taken care of with a 'deeding' of the existing alley to us from the city, with us in turn deeding property to the Farms, which we originally obtained from Cottage Hospital," said Bologna.

"We will, in turn, extend the existing alley straight through to Muir Road, providing the public with the needed access to that street."

Bologna hopes to have the building, now unofficially titled the "Hill Pointe Building," "on stream" by fall 1981, with some retail stores open by late summer.

"WE BELIEVE this building is a needed plus for the community," said Bologna. "We've run into no honest opposition to the project. Everyone, including the Hill Association, has been behind us on this. We really appreciate their cooperation and confidence."

Puppets introduce kids

The kids got a chance to experience what it's like to be blind like the puppet Renaldo. A scarf was tied around the head of a third grader and he was given Renaldo's "white lightning" cane to find his way around the classroom. Renaldo's braille watch felt "like a bunch of bumps" to the students.

Grosse Pointe Director of Special Education, Reg Sienkiewicz, is encouraged and impressed by the response of young people to the "Kids around the Block" program.

"It's very appealing to young people who suddenly lose their inhibitions toward handicapped people. Yet it seems they very easily bridge the gap and sometimes think of the puppets as real people."

Casa Maria comes to Star

By Elizabeth Cosgrove Star of Sea Fifty-seven children dressed in Halloween costumes ran through the halls of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School on Oct. 28. The youngsters, ranging in age from six to 13, belong to the Casa Maria Center, located in Detroit, and came to Star to celebrate Halloween.

For the past 11 years Star's National Honor Society has sponsored the annual celebration. This year's party was coordinated by N.H.S. President Annmarie Monahan, Vice-President Lucie Cooper, Secretary Margaret Mayer, and Treasurer Kelly Mullaney, along with Sr. Adele Karwacki, O.P.

Star's gymnasium was decorated and filled with games and activities for the children. In addition three classrooms were used for treasure hunts, apple bobbing, face painting and bowling. Children won prizes and received favors provided by Honor Society members, all dressed in costumes for the event.

Debbie Vargas, an adult worker at the center, noted that "the children just love coming to Star. They started talking about the party last July."

'Touch' Theater

A sensitive approach to child abuse

"Touch," — an unusual community education program addressing the subject of child sexual abuse, will be presented by the Illusion Theater Thursday, Nov. 20, at Parcels Middle School Auditorium (Mack at Vernier).

There will be no admission charge for the presentation which will begin at 7:30 p.m. Adults and children 6 and older are welcome.

Statistics show significant numbers of children in the U.S. are victims of child sexual abuse or inappropriate touching regardless of socioeconomic level. Sometimes such instances occur with strangers, but quite often they involve relatives or family friends. Children need the tools and adult support to deal with this confusing experience.

The Illusion Theater program, "Touch," is one of the most successful and innovative educational presentations dealing with the subject. The material was piloted in the Minneapolis Public Schools to deal with the sensitive issue of sexual abuse in a positive way.

Using skits and pantomime, the eight actors of the Illusion Theater portray different kinds of touching from nurturing to confusing, to exploitive.

"Touch" is unusual because it offers children, as well as parents, teachers, social workers, legal and medical personnel, ways to talk about the issue of sexual abuse. The presentation provides everyone with the tools to effectively prevent such situations and to compassionately deal with them when they do occur.

The Junior League of Detroit, Inc. is sponsoring the program which has received the endorsement of the Northeast Guidance Center, The Grosse Pointe Health Education Council, Grosse Pointe Education Association, Family Life Education Council (FLEC), Children's Aid Society, The Grosse Pointe Rotary, and the Office of Children and Youth Services of Michigan Department of Social Services.

Three Woods homes hit by robbers

Burglars plundered three Grosse Pointe Woods homes last week and made off with jewelry and silverware worth, in one case, $5,600.

The resident of a home on Littlestone Road left home at noon on Wednesday, Nov. 5, and returned at 7:30 p.m. to find a broken pane of glass in an open rear porch door. She called police from a neighbor's home.

After investigation, Officer John DeLora said a set of sterling silverware valued at $5,600 was taken from a dining room cabinet and several pieces of jewelry were taken from the bedroom.

Also on Wednesday, a resident on Elford Court came home from work about 8 p.m. and found a screen door ajar and the rear door unlocked. The home had been ransacked and it was not immediately determined exactly what was missing.

On Monday, Nov. 3, a woman living on Morning-side found a window next to her front door broken. Police determined that someone had reached through the window and unlocked the front door. The culprits took sterling silverware settings for 12 and various jewelry from the bedrooms.

Detectives are investigating the incidents.

Pointe election results

Rep. William Bryant was even stronger last Tuesday. Bryant outpolled his Democratic opponent Bernard Simbole in Grosse Pointe by 85.4 to 14.6 percent, with 27,345 votes to Simbole's 4,674. District-wide results (including Harper Woods as well as the Pointes) show slightly more support for the Democrat, with a 29,785 to 7,903 result.

The race between Republican Barbara Gattorn and Democrat Anita McIntyre to represent District I on a charter commission to reorganize Wayne County followed a similar pattern.

Mrs. Gattorn won her seat with a 24,184 (77.8 percent) to 6,903 (22.2 percent) margin in the five Pointes. District-wide her margin was slimmer—24,214 to 11,242 votes.

The only Democratic candidate to pull in more than 30 percent of the Grosse Pointe vote Tuesday was Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas, who received 45 percent of the local vote in his bid to return to office. Still the majority in the Pointe (54 percent) went to his Republican opponent J. Vida. Lucas was returned to office with a 3-1 margin county-wide.

On the seven state ballot propositions that faced voters Tuesday Grosse Pointe voters followed the state trend to defeat, with one exception—Proposal G, a little publicized measure designed to change the legislators' legal status that would make legislators subject to arrest for certain civil offenses, such as traffic violations and unpaid bills. Now lawmakers are immune from such actions.

Grosse Pointe voters approved the measure by a 51.3 percent margin while rest of the state rejected it by 62 to 38 percent.

LOCAL VOTERS were in the mainstream voting "no" on all other ballot proposals by the following margins:

- Proposal A (Smith-Bullard tax plan) 85 percent.
- Proposal B (lower drinking age) 63 percent.
- Proposal C (Coalition tax plan) 75 percent.

• Proposal D (Tisch tax plan) 62 percent.

• Proposal E (Tax for prison construction) 57 percent.

• Proposal H (Restrict authority of Lt. Governor) 54.8 percent.

Local voters rejected four county tax proposals J, K, L and M by at least 4-1 margins.

Flexitime — wave of the future?

How would like a three-day weekend—every weekend?

Before making a hasty judgment ("I would love it!") consider that you may not be able to afford it. That's right. The experience of some of those switching to the 10-hour day, four-day week, has shown one of the negative factors to be that the workers run out of money for leisure time activities before they run out of weekend. Many have found they have to adopt a simpler life style in order to stay within their budget.

That's one of the observations of economist John Owen, a specialist in the flexible work week which has been dubbed "flexitime."

Owen recently published a book on the subject called "Working Hours: An Economic Analysis" (Lexington Books).

A professor of economics at Wayne State University, Dr. Owen has been invited to appear before several Congressional committees on the value to society of flexible work scheduling practices. Several branches of the federal government, including Labor and Defense, have introduced flexible work schedules to obtain a variety of advantages.

"An important benefit from the government's point of view, is the opportunity it offers to successfully meet affirmative action goals," Owen says.

Women, he explains, are more apt to enter the work force, and stay on the job longer, under one form or another of flexitime. One obvious benefit for families with two working parents is that it insures that one parent or the other will be home when the children leave for school and arrive back home.

"There is a wide range of options under flexitime," Owen explains, "but under the most liberal option, the employee simply sets his own schedule for a 40-hour week. Generally speaking, though, there are 'core' hours, say 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., when all employees must be on the job. Under most systems, too, the 'band width,' the earliest time of arrival and the latest departure, are established by management."

Under some schemes, the worker can opt for an occasional four-day week making up the time missed by extending his work days.

Local governments in some cities, notably Washington, D.C., and New York, have discovered several important benefits to flexitime schedules; Owen notes. Working through local businessmen's organizations to promote flexitime and other non-standard work weeks, officials have found that flexible work schedules reduces rush-hour traffic.

This may simultaneously reduce pressure on government to build new roads and make other traffic-flow improvements. There are also possible energy savings, because gasoline is not wasted in stop and go commuter traffic tie-ups.

"The federal government has been authorized by Congress to introduce flexitime schedules for up to two million people," Owen says. "They've been exempted from applicable labor laws to experiment with the four-day work week and other new schedules."

While data are not yet available, Owen estimates that hundreds of thousands of government employees are on some form of flexitime right now. It's long been popular in European countries, especially Germany and Switzerland.

Private sector firms, too, including several large insurance companies, have introduced flexitime with good results. They find it enables them to attract women, the elderly and students who might otherwise not enter the labor market. Some estimate that as many as 6 percent of all American employees have flexitime.

ULS hosts AIMS meet

Over 600 professionals from Michigan's independent schools met on Nov. 5 at University Liggett School to participate in a variety of workshops led by an impressive list of speakers. More than 35 different offerings were scheduled for teachers on all facets and disciplines of learning.

The conference was organized by the Association of Independent Michigan Schools (AIMS). Talking about "teaching without squeelching creativity" was Eric Johnson from Germantown Friends School in Philadelphia. The Director of the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum, Dr. Kerry Joels, focused his address on the social values of an informed population in an age when science greatly influences our lives. From Boulder, Colorado, Dr. Robert Samples led discussions on the left-right functions of the brain.

ULS teachers also played a prominent role in leading workshops. Upper School art coordinator, Ed Jacomo, devised a group of activities designed to flex the "creativity muscle."

Gene Overton of the ULS Science Department helped teachers to make friends with computers through a hand-on experience. In a workshop entitled "From Passover to Plato" Upper School English teacher, Eric Linder, led faculty on an exploration of Ancient studies at the Middle School level.

Participants to the AIMS Conference commented enthusiastically that the sessions were very stimulating and the pace allowed valuable exchanges to result.

'Best Boy' at Punch benefit

The Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Citizens will present a benefit performance of the Academy Award winning film "Best Boy" at the Punch and Judy Theatre Nov. 19.

The sensitive documentary focuses on Philly, a 52-year-old retarded man, as he makes the transition from living with his aged parents to moving into a group home. The GPARC welcomes this opportunity to acquaint community residents with the unique lifestyles and problems faced by retarded citizens.

The benefit evening begins at 7 p.m. with a free wine and cheese party, followed by the film at 8 p.m. Proceeds from the evening benefit the GPARC, a non-profit organization which serves the needs and interests of retarded citizens in the Grosse Pointe community.

Tickets at $7 per person are available through the GPARC, c/o Huxtable, 784 Berkshire, Grosse Pointe Park, 48230 or at the Punch and Judy box office located at 21 Kercheval in Grosse Pointe Farms. For further information, call the theater at 881-4510.

Seniors bid to North High of Detroit voters that proved to be the significant difference.

"All of Detroit is in my brother's (Sen. John Hertel) and my district and they knew us," Hertel said. He added he was confident up until the last minute that he would win by a thin five percent margin.

Caputo cautiously called his loss a moral victory. "There's no doubt that we did open up the political process and included hundreds of people in the process that never would have been involved," Caputo said echoing some of his campaign rhetoric.

CAPUTO ALSO saw the closeness of the race as an affirmation of his belief that people are looking for a change in government: "Obviously when a race is this close, people are looking for a change of philosophy."

Caputo said he is exploring a variety of career options and has not been discouraged from running for office again in the future.

Schools receive two gifts

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education recently accepted gifts from two groups, the Friends of the Library and Foundation for Academic Enrichment.

The Friends of the Library donated $10,500, most of it designated to purchase books with an emphasis on large print publications for patrons with limited sight. About $900 is earmarked for rental of feature length films to be used in the Friends' Film Forum Series at the Central Library.

The Foundation for Academic Enrichment also made two gifts. One, of $250, will be used to support a program at North High School's Art department which will allow advanced students to take Saturday trips to sketch scenes which may be used to develop a portfolio.

Another $500 gift from the Foundation will support a program that brings local jazz artists into the Humanities and American Studies classes at North High School. Last year the program was evaluated to be highly successful and brought musicians such as Jack Brokensha, Tom Saunders and Bess Bonnier to North.

Mensa is offering two regional scholarships and local awards. The scholarships, offered by American Mensa, are for $500 and $100. The awards offered by Southeast Michigan Mensa are for $50 each.

Any person who will be enrolled in a degree granting institution in 1981-1982 is eligible.

Mensa is an international society whose only qualification for membership is a score in the top two percent on a Mensa authorized intelligence test. Mensa sponsors a gifted children program, does research into the nature of intelligence, and provides social contact for its members.

All requests must be accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Ferry moms keeping busy

The Ferry Book Fair will be held Nov. 20, 21, 24 and 25 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the school, 748 Roslyn Road, in the main hall by the school office.

The books are high quality paper backs, many unavailable at local stores and sell from 49 cents to $4. They include a wide range of reading levels, and many have been educator-tested to encourage reluctant readers and reinforce basic skills.

The public is invited to come and browse anytime during the fair.

Ferry also had an October Festival, chaired by Judy Sheehy, benefitting the Ferry Nature Center and the Ferry "Read at Home" Magazine event.

The subscription event was chaired by Sue Strickroot, Valerie Kotsonis and Sharon Cavataio. Ferry mothers also sponsored a bake sale to election goes Nov. 4 chaired by Mary Jo Eleczko.

Looking ahead to Christmas, Ferry will hold its annual "Breakfast With Santa" on Saturday, Dec. 13. Aida DiPasquale, Linda Von Gunten and Marty Thomalla have arranged for Santa to be there in person.

Children will also be able to shop in the "For Children Only" gift shop, chaired by Pam Priske and Barb Zeiger.

Thieves hit City homes

City police reported at least three burglaries last month in which thieves made off with an Oriental rug, silver and $1,200 in cash.

Police believe two different groups are responsible for the burglaries.

A Jefferson Avenue resident reported the $1,200 missing after someone entered the home through an unlocked door Oct. 27. A 70-year-old Rivard man told police someone entered through the rear door of his home and took an Oriental rug and 87 pieces of silver mid-afternoon Oct. 28.

Stereo equipment, cash and credit cards were reported missing from a Lincoln Road home Oct. 30 after the owner discovered thieves entered his home through a rear door.

Police say they have some suspects in the incidents, but have made no arrests.

Music is a 'must' for South High's Miller

With seven children in the family all playing musical instruments and occupying first chairs in their local school orchestras, the Miller home on Harvard Road literally had its own brass band.

Dad played accordion, mom was vocalist and four young Millers played trumpets, one the flute, another the organ and yet another the trombone.

With a background like that, it's no wonder that Ralph, one of the trumpeters in the group, grew up to become musical director at South High School.

Miller attended Grosse Pointe schools, including Pierce and South High, where his teachers were Richard Snook and Russell Reed. Private lessons on the trumpet since elementary school helped him earn first chair in South's orchestra.

After graduation he attended Eastern Michigan University and majored in music education with a minor in trumpet. It was there he met his future wife, Yvonne Bgian, who played flute in the university band and received a degree in education.

After college, Miller taught music on all levels in the Romulus School System before entering University of Illinois Graduate School, where Yvonne's uncle, Dr. Harry Bgian, former conductor at Cass Technical High School, Wayne State and Michigan State, was working.

Miller's respect for Dr. Bgian drew him into the Illinois music program and he became supervisor of student teachers and consultant on teacher placement. He received his Master's degree in music education.

Being involved in the placement office, Miller kept an eye on school positions that might be challenging to him. When his former teacher Russell Reed announced he was leaving Grosse Pointe, he knew he had found his slot, despite his recognition that Russell Reed would be a tough act to follow. For 20 years, music groups at South had earned first division ratings at state festivals. Excellence was expected.

Miller joined the South staff last September and has managed to maintain that standard with the variety of groups he manages, including the Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band and Jazz Band.

O. R. nurses have their day

All five Grosse Pointe mayors have issued proclamations proclaiming Friday Nov. 14, as "Operating Room Nurse Day."

The Lakeshore Chapter of the Association of Operating Room Nurses has over 10 members representing 14 hospitals. They include Saint John, Bon Secours, Cottage Children's, Holy Cross, Saratoga, South Macomb, Doctor's, St. Joseph East and West, Harper, Bi-County Troy-Beaumont, Harris Community, and Deacons. President of the Lakeshore Chapter is Mary Jacobson of Cottage Hospital, and Chairman of the Committee for "Operating Room Nurse Day" is Grosse Pointe Michele Le Anderson of Saint John Hospital.

Of all the masked faces hovering over the patient during surgery, the operating room nurse has a special role. The operating room nurse speaks for patient when they cannot speak for themselves.

Heading the O. R. nursing team is the registered nurse. When patients arrive in surgery, the nurse is there to greet them and provide emotional support as they are anesthetized. Then they manage the patient's nursing care during surgery. The nurse anticipates needs of the other team members to avoid any delays in the surgical procedure.

O. R. nurses guard a sterile environment. They know the patient's health history and special needs, the surgical procedure being done with local anesthesia, the R. N. may monitor vital signs, blood pressure, heart rate, and breathing.

Surgery does not really begin and end in the operating room. Before surgery, patients may be fearful or distraught. Afterward they need to know how to participate in their own recovery. Increasingly, registered nurses are coming out of operating rooms to meet with patients before and after their operations. They explain what the operating room will be like and they will be cared for. A surgery, they may visit patients to see how they are doing and to evaluate nursing care given in the operating room.

"Operating Room Day" is sponsored by the Association of Operating Room Nurses, a professional specialty nursing organization with more than 28,000 members nationwide.

Immunization date is March 2

The Grosse Pointe Public School System has set Monday, March 2, 1981, as the date on which the students in grades and eight and nine who have not complied with the County Health Department's immunization requirement will be excluded from school.

The Health Department guidelines say that school districts must establish by Nov. 14, 1980, an exclusion date for students in grades eight and nine who fail to meet State Health Department immunization requirements.

Children's Book Week celebration at libraries

The Children's Department of the Grosse Pointe Public Library has planned a number of activities for local kids in celebration of Children's Book Week, Nov. 17 through 23.

There will be a special showing on Saturday, Nov. 22, of the film "The Railway Children" based on the classic of Edith Nesbit. The film will be shown at all three li-

MACLD parents meet Tuesday

Educational Planning Consultant Diane Dingman will speak at the next meeting of the local chapter of Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities (MACLD) on Tuesday, Nov. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at Central Library, 10 Kercheval.

Mrs. Dingman will discuss new laws governing special education in Michigan.

MACLD will skip its December meeting.

braries at the following times: Park branch, 15430 Kercheval, at 10:30 a.m., Woods branch, 20600 Mack, at 1 p.m. and Central, 10 Kercheval, at 3 p.m.

During that week, the children are invited to vote for their "Favorite Book Characters and Best Books Ever." Results will be tallied and published in the Grosse Pointe News. Voting has already started and the "voters" are anxiously waiting to find out which candidates will be the big winners. Here is your chance to pick a "best seller."

In keeping with the book theme for the week, there will be a special contest in which the children will be asked to identify pictures embroidered on a beautiful "storybook" quilt on display at the Central Library. Each square depicts a scene or character from a familiar picture book.

Paperbacks will be awarded as prizes for each of the age categories — pre-school (help from parents acceptable), Kindergarten through second grade, and grades three through six.

Special displays will be another feature of the week's activities. The Park Branch will have a unique display of books and memorabilia related to Alice in Wonderland. The Woods Branch will highlight books by Laura Ingalls Wilder. The Central Library will feature a special exhibit of Wall Hangings depicting scenes from well known children's picture books.

All the hangings are the talented work of Dorothy Harwood, member of the Needlethreaders of Oak Park.

In addition to programs for children, the Children's Department is also presenting a special program for the teachers of Grosse Pointe. On Wednesday, Nov. 19, Dr. Gloria Blatt, Associate Professor, Oakland University, will speak.

2nd Regiment rides again

Merle Davies (right), made a historical presentation at a recent Sons of the American Revolution meeting about "De-Troit in the American Revolution" dressed in the uniform of the 2nd Canadian Regiment, which was known as "Congress Own." He took some time out to explain the function of a military musket to Sons' President Howard Trenkle.

Police arrest purse snatcher

Detroit police nabbed a 17-year-old man last week moments after he allegedly stole purses from two women leaving the Christian Reformed Church, 1444 Maryland.

The man, Theodore Gussman of Detroit, was later arraigned in Park Municipal Court for armed robbery. Gussman was bound over to Wayne County Jail on a $20,000 bond pending a Nov. 13 preliminary exam.

According to police, the two women were getting into a car when they were approached by two young black men, one carrying a knife, the other a gun. Police said the two thugs demanded the women's purses and jewelry and then fled.

Detroit police patrolling in the area caught up with a man matching the description of the alleged purse snatcher in an alley near Charlevoix. Police searched the suspect Gussman and found several rings in his pocket, including a knife. Police said they are still looking for Gussman's accomplice.

Cinema League goes to Tallieu's Italia

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present "Italia," a 16mm movie by Leo Tallieu, Monday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore Road.

Area residents are invited to attend the program without charge. The social hour following the presentation is limited to Cinema League members.

The film offers spectacular views of the Italian Alps and the beautiful Italian Lake District.

Milan's magnificent Gothic cathedral, with its spires, stained glass, and 3,000 statues is photographed, and peaceful churches are shown in Assisi, birthplace of St. Francis.

There are delightful scenes in Venice, city of canals and gondolas, and in picturesque medieval Siena.

Of special interest is a visit to Carrara to see marble quarried and statues being made.

The mountainous island of Capri, with its fantastic grottos and deep blue waters is filmed, and in Florence there are views of the Uffizi Art Gallery, which houses one of the richest collections of masterpieces in the world.

Featured in Rome are spectacular fountains, ancient ruins, monuments, and beautiful views of the Borghese Gardens. The movie shows the grounds of the Vatican, its museums, and the awe-inspiring Church of St. Peter's.

ULS singers in Honor Choir

Eight Upper School singers from University Liggett auditioned in October for membership in the Michigan School Vocal Association's Regional Honors Choir. They competed with some 400 other singers from Southwestern Michigan High Schools.

Tony Alcantara and Elizabeth Endicott were chosen for membership and are now busy memorizing six songs for a performance with the Honors Choir on Dec. 6. During the rehearsal for that performance, Alcantara and Endicott will audition for the state Honors Choir.

Seminar examines the neighborhood

How often has urban deterioration and neighborhood decline hurt a community, diminished the ranks of membership of a church, isolated a professional agency? Are there alternatives to such a negative scenario?

For the last three years, neighborhoods throughout the metro Detroit area, and specifically on the east side, have made a dramatic comeback. How did they do it? What can we learn from the lesson of these areas in re-birth?

"Strategies for Revitalized Neighborhoods" is a five-part seminar exploring the problems presented and techniques for neighborhood revitalization. Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice, the course will include a neighborhood tour (on a date to be arranged), and four evening sessions on Tuesdays, Nov. 18, 25, Dec. 2, 9 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Instructor Ed Ignatios, executive director of the Inter-Faith Center, explains, "For several years we have emphasized the theme that the future of Grosse Pointe and the future of our neighborhood Detroit are linked together."

"Demonstrating this through a review of nearby neighborhoods and their impact upon our community is the purpose of this course. We are particularly focusing this seminar to assist pastors with their neighborhoods and to help citizens who want to do more to improve their community."

Egnatios listed other areas to be discussed including avoiding neighborhood deterioration, institutional forms of racism destructive to neighborhoods, racial change, and key elements to developing prosperous, safe, multi-racial neighborhoods.

The cost of the seminar is $35 which includes the tour, all material, and ongoing consultation (contributing members of the center may receive a reduced rate). For more information or to register for the course, contact the center by phone at 882-6464 or by mail, 17150 Maumee, Grosse Pointe, 48230. All sessions will take place at the center.

"The seminar is designed for practical persons to begin to improve their neighborhood immediately. We have seen great results from our work and we feel those taking the seminars will also," said Egnatios.

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice is a coalition of churches dedicated to education and action to promote racial understanding in the five Grosse Pointes, Detroit's east side and Harper Woods.

Red Cross needs special donors

A critical ongoing shortage of type "O" blood is reported by the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Blood Services. According to the Red Cross, the shortage is not localized but nationwide.

Dr. A. William Shafer, director of Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Blood Services, considers a type "O" blood donor as a "special" donor. "Special because type 'O' blood is in greater demand and special because their blood can be used for transfusions for patients who have other blood types," he said.

About 45 percent of Americans have type "O" blood, 38 percent have "O" Rh positive and only 7 percent have "O" Rh negative.

"Because type 'O' blood is in such great demand," continued Dr. Shafer, "a donor who has type 'O' blood has a greater responsibility to the community to give blood as often as possible."

Type "O" blood donors who have not given blood in the past eight weeks are urged to do so at the earliest convenient time.

Blood can be donated by anyone between the ages of 17 (with parental permission) and 65 and in good general health.

For donors' convenience, evening and weekend appointments are available at their nearest donor center. Regional centers are located in Detroit, Oak Park, Roseville, Livonia, Dearborn, Wyandotte and Bloomfield.

ADA offers blood tests

Free blood tests to detect diabetes will be offered by 165 Michigan hospitals and health centers during Diabetes Detection Week on November 16-22. The statewide testing program is co-sponsored by the American Diabetes Association-Michigan Affiliate (ADA-M) and is open to persons 18 years or older.

According to Dr. Nancy Caputo of Detroit, ADA-M's Detection Chairman, diabetes can produce severe complications if left untreated and yet may be present without symptoms. An estimated 200,000 persons in Michigan year for diabetes.

Persons who run a high risk of developing diabetes are over forty, overweight, and related to diabetics. They should be checked once a year for diabetes, advises Dr. Caputo.

The symptoms of diabetes, when present, may include frequent urination, abnormal thirst, unusual hunger, rapid weight loss, itching, fatigue, blurred vision, and slow healing of cuts and scratches.

Since diabetes is best detected after a meal high in sugars and starches, one of the following suggested meals should be eaten two hours before taking the test, to ensure an accurate reading.

Breakfast: Fruit or juice, cereal with milk and sugar.

Two slices of buttered toast with jam, and coffee or tea.

Lunch: Bowl of soup, a sandwich, cake or pie, and a glass of milk.

The meal should be eaten within a 15-minute time period with nothing else taken before the test, except for water.

In this area, test sites and hours are as follows: Bon Secours Hospital, 468 Cadieux Road, Monday through Friday, Nov. 17 to 21, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.; Cottage Hospital, 159 Kercheval, Monday through Friday, Nov. 17 to 21, 9 a.m. to noon; St. John Hospital, 22101 Moross Road, Tuesday through Thursday, Nov. 18 to 20, 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Police report suspects in burglaries

Park police are saying they may have some suspects in the burglaries of three homes last week.

Police said thieves entered two homes on Kensington through the rear and removed several items of sterling silver and jewelry. Also reported missing by owners were camera, stereo and lawn equipment.

An Audubon resident told police someone entered through the rear of his home and stole a pair of sterling candlesticks.

Meanwhile, police said they are looking for other suspects in the burglary of a Pemberton home last week. Police said thieves entered the home with a hidden key and stole a microwave oven, two purses, three coats, a TV set and camera equipment. The owner's 1977 Ford Granada was later recovered in Highland Park stripped of its tires.

Prime Time

For Senior Citizens

By Marian Trainor

There are those who, when they reach retirement age, have so many interests and activities which have been part of their life all during their working years that after a few months away from the job can exclaim "I don't know when I had time to work."

But there are others for whom work was a consuming interest. Work was their job and their hobby. For them retirement comes suddenly. They have not thought about it. They are not prepared for it. They dread it. But with some adjustments, they can enjoy it if they relax, set goals and do the things they want to do.

Setting goals after retirement may seem inappropriate but when you consider how the life span has been extended, you realize how much good living there is left.

No one can set goals for another person or even suggest them. They must fit perfectly into each individual's life plan and needs. But general guidelines can help to give a perspective to the view of life that lies ahead.

IF YOU ARE not a 'joiner', club memberships are not for you. If your five fingers have always operated as five thumbs, then you will probably want to skip crafts. If you translate travel into a tiring experience or if planes terrify you, then that is not your answer.

Sometimes newly retired persons find it helpful to write out a daily or weekly schedule. Doing so gives them purpose and more or less duplicates the work routine.

Other suggestions might include visiting with a friend, shopping, taking a class, reading, or just walking and taking time to window shop, enjoy nature or study the faces of passersby.

Another way to determine what you can do to make leisure years profitable is to take stock of yourself. Ask yourself:

- What sort of activities did I enjoy in my youth?
- Which of these pleasures did I give up because of my family or my job?
- What in my job did I find most satisfying?
- What interests or activities would I like to know more about?

In planning retirement time try to achieve a balance. Include quiet and active pursuits; spend time alone but also socialize; do for others as well as yourself. Cultivate hobbies that demand mental and some physical events. Broaden your horizons. Read up on other countries, current events, music, the arts.

Set up daily chores. Don't depend too much on your family to fill your time.

Prove that you are an independent person, able to take care of yourself and to contribute to the community.

MAINTAINING good health is important. Schedule regular checkups. Certain diseases are more easily treated, controlled and even cured if spotted early.

The Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University advises that if you have a hearing loss, be sure to have a hearing aid evaluation in a reputable non-commercial clinic and if a hearing aid will not help to try lip reading. They say that there are many people today with no hearing impairment who have taken up the study of lip reading both as a precautionary measure and as an interesting activity. Instructional materials and teachers are available to those who desire to learn from The Speech and Hearing Clinic, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Mich.

If your eyesight is not as good as it used to be, you are advised to have an eye examination and to check the quality and quantity of light in your house. The Home Service people with the utility companies might be a source of information.

Sleep is important to the extent of what your body requires. Since people vary as to the sleep that they require, the amount of sleep is not as important as what you do about it. Plan to use the extra hours when you cannot sleep reading or in some constructive way.

As for exercise, consult your doctor about the degree of exercise that is right for you.

WHEN IT COMES to eating, plan a varied diet. Try to keep meals interesting. Experiment with new recipes. Shopping for food and cooking can become an enjoyable hobby with the extra benefit of good nutrition. There is challenge and skill in getting the most-for-your-dollar in these

A NATION OF BANKS

Every time an old building is torn down in this country, and a new building goes up, the ground floor usually becomes a bank.

The reason for this is that banks are the only ones who can afford the rent for the ground floor of the new buildings going up. Besides, when a bank loans someone money to build a new building, it usually takes an option for the street-floor facilities.

Most people don't think there is anything wrong with this, and they accept it as part of the American free-enterprise system. But there is a small group of people who are fighting for Bank Birth Control.

This is how Huddlestone Hubbard, the BBC's chairman, explained it:

"Whenever you see an old building torn down," Hubbard said, "you usually see a candy store, a dry cleaner, a delicatessen and possibly a florist torn down with it. These shops are all replaced in the new building with a beautiful glass, aluminum, wall-to-wall carpeted money factory.

"Now from an aesthetic point of view, a bank looks better than a dry-cleaner, a candy store, a delicatessen and a florist. But from a practical point of view, it's a sheer disaster. If you want a newspaper, a candy bar or a chocolate milk shake, you can't get it at a bank. Nor can you run out to a bank for a pound of Swiss cheese and a six-pack of beer when you have guests coming over.

"A bank is great if you want to buy a car, but it's useless if you want to have your dress cleaned.

"And while a bank might buy flowers to give itself a human image, it doesn't sell any when you want to make up with your wife."

by
ART BUCHWALD

"What you're saying, then, Mr. Hubbard, is that every time a bank goes up, something in all of us dies."

"Exactly. One of the reasons kids are getting in so much trouble these days is that there are no candy stores to hang around anymore. When they tear down a delicatessen, the tangy smells of potato salad, salamis, corned beef and dill pickles are lost forever. Unless you're trying to make a loan, no one ever salivates in a bank."

"It's true," I said.

"The situation is more crucial than anyone thinks," Hubbard said. "At the rate they're tearing down consumer stores and replacing them with banks, we estimate that in ten years it will be impossible to buy a loaf of bread in the country. What good is it to get seven percent on your money if you starve to death?"

"Then what you're saying is that it isn't a question of not taking it with you. It's a question of staying alive while you have it," I said.

"Something like that," Hubbard agreed. "We're trying to get the public to wake up to the fact that it's better to have a store that sells screwdrivers than a bank that gives away alarm clocks."

"What's the solution?"

"A government decree that a bank has to supply the same services of the stores it tore down on the same property. If it's a bakery, they have to sell cake; if it's a photography shop, they have to develop film; and if it's a dry-goods store, they have to sell warm underwear. If they provide the services of the store they tore down, then we'll let them do a little moneylending on the side."

Voyage of the Griffin

Doorways to the past: Historic haunts of Grosse Pointe

By Margie Reins Smith

Lake St. Clair has always been one of Grosse Pointe's prime assets.

Three hundred years ago, only a handful of renchmen knew that Lake St. Clair existed. They sailed through this small body of fresh water their way to explore the upper Great Lakes.

Indians—mostly Hurons and Ottawas—knew Lake St. Clair intimately. The Hurons called it tsiketa, which means sugar or salt—evidently a reference to the salt springs near the Clinton River. Some early French maps refer to it as Lac Chandiere, or Kettle Lake, because of its shape. Other old maps label it Kandekio or Ganatchio.

But Lake St. Clair it is, because a group of Frenchmen sailed into it on a warm, sunny day, August 12, 1679—which happens to be the feast day of Sainte Claire.

THESE FRENCH sailors built a ship under an explorer named LaSalle, in spite of wilderness hardships and Indian opposition, at a spot above Niagara Falls, during the winter of 1678-79. LaSalle was a 35-year-old French explorer of unbelievable energy and ambition in the New World. He wanted to build a string of French forts along the shores of the Great Lakes. His objective was to monopolize the lucrative fur trade.

LaSalle's ship was finished in the summer, and on August 7, 1679, he set off into the uncharted waters of Lake Erie. Father Hennepin was the chaplain of LaSalle's ship, and he kept the journal that gives us our knowledge of the voyage. He also named Lake St. Clair.

LaSalle's ship was christened the Griffin—an allusion to a mythical creature, half lion and half eagle, on the coat of arms of LaSalle's friend, the Comte de Frontenac. Many of LaSalle's men thought the 45-ton two-masted sailing vessel should be dignified with the name of a saint. They predicted tragedy for a ship named after a mythological monster. LaSalle laughed at their superstitions. He did not have the last laugh.

When the voyage began, Father Hennepin wrote copious notes in his journal. The Griffin passed Pointe Pelee on August 9, the Three Sisters Islands on August 10. It sailed up the straits, (now erroneously called the Detroit River), past Grosse Ile and Belle Isle. He described marshy shoreline and spacious open plains along the straits. He noted many wild animals—deer, bear and wild turkeys. He named the types of trees in the forests—walnut, chestnut, plum and apple.

ON THE FIFTH DAY of the voyage, Father Hennepin christened the small circular lake at the head of the straits "Lake Sainte Claire," after the saint whose feast day fell on August 12.

The Griffin and its crew sailed on to Mackinac Island and to Green Bay. There LaSalle set out on foot to explore the western and southern shores of Lake Michigan. The Griffin, loaded to the brim with furs for the return voyage, was never seen again. It is presumed that the ship was lost in a violent storm, but many legends persist that ponder the fate of the superstitious crew and the precious cargo.

In 1890, a lighthouse keeper on Manitoulin Island discovered six skeletons with some 17th century coins and jewelry, and parts of an old wreck containing a 17th century bolt. Perhaps these were the remains of the Griffin and its crew.

By the early 1700's there were a few French canoes and a few French settlers scattered along the shores of Lake St. Clair. During this century Frenchmen purchased long narrow farms, called ribbon farms, along the Lake St. Clair shoreline. Some of these farms were as narrow as 192 feet at the shore, but stretched three miles inland.

By the 1750's a windmill stood at the point of land we now call Windmill Point. It was used by Indians and settlers to grind corn and wheat.

IN 1778, Grosse Pointe had its first tavern—called Hudson's House, located approximately at the foot of Fisher Road. The tavern served frog legs caught in the Grand Marais—the great swamp near Windmill Point.

By the 1880's, the modest French farmhouses were disappearing and sumptuous Victorian mansions were taking over the lake shore road in Grosse Pointe. Most were built as luxurious summer homes for wealthy Detroit families. Later they became year-round residences. The climate of Grosse Pointe was known for its healthful qualities and the beauty of Lake St. Clair was one of its prime attractions.

In 1886, a long dock extended into the lake somewhere near present-day Newberry Place. It was used as a fishing dock, as well as a mooring place for the yachts of Grosse Pointers.

Grosse Pointe businessman, Alfred E. Brush, kept his yacht Lilly docked there. The steam yacht Truant was owned by residents John S. Newberry and James McMillan. Another, the Leila was owned collectively by 12 Grosse Pointers who commuted to Detroit on weekdays by yacht. The Leila left at 8:30 every morning and returned at 4 p.m. The commuters then drove home by carriage or dog-cart.

Today, Lake St. Clair is a focal point for fresh-water boating and water sports in southeastern Michigan, and particularly in Grosse Pointe. It attracts people for pleasure boating, racing, swimming and water sports. In addition it is one of the connecting links in the world's largest fresh water transportation route. From Duluth, Minnesota, the farthest Western city in the Great Lakes system, a ship can travel 2,342 miles through fresh water to reach the Atlantic Ocean.

THE ENFIELD

Truly a clockmaker's masterpiece, the impressive Enfield features an etched brass dial with individually-mounted numerals and 24-karat gold plated corner spandrels behind a full-length beveled glass door. From the regal crested pediment to the tall reeded columns and pedestal base, the Enfield is finely crafted from lustrous cherry with overlays of Carpathian Elm Burl. The magnificent polished brass lyre pendulum regulates the cable-wound triple rod chime movement, which plays three of Europe's most beloved carillon tunes—Westminster, Whittington, and St. Michael. Auditions for the Grosse Pointe Theater production of "The Fantasticks" will be held on Nov. 15 and 16 from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the GPT Studio at 1933 Vernier in the Pierce Insurance Co. building.

"Because the three principle characters in 'The Fantasticks' are so demanding vocally, we encourage all interested persons to study and practice the music from the show," according to director Donna DiSante.

There are eight characters: El Gallo, baritone; Luisa, soprano; Matt, low tenor; two fathers, baritones; Henry, very little singing; Mortimer, non-singing; the Mime, non-speaking but important role.

For more information, call Miss DiSante at 881-3259.

Trophies taken from Liggett

Gold and silver trophies valued at $5,000 were stolen last Thursday or Friday from a display case in the gym at University Liggett School, according to police reports.

The school's plant manager told Grosse Pointe Woods Officer John Albrecht that a custodian found the trophy case damaged about 7 a.m. Friday, Oct. 31.

The glass in the case was broken and 10 old cups and bowls were removed. Several newer trophies were untouched.

School officials said they don't believe the theft was a Halloween prank.

One of the larger businesses associated with wine making in the late nineteenth century in California was counterfeit label printing. The wine makers did not have quality products. As a result, they put quality labels, which were imitations of well-known European labels, on their bottles. The wine itself was often heavily sugared to hide defects. Often grape brandy was added to give a wine taste. Obviously, California wines have come a long way since those days. Now their labels are respected and desired all over the world.

For the wines and other beverages well respected and in demand, come to PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, Corner of St. Clair, Detroit. From the popular titles to some not so well known, we offer the variety that will meet the demanding tastes of even the most discriminating. At PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE you will discover the quality beverages for qualitative tastes. Open 10-10 Mon.-Thurs., 10-11 Fri. & Sat., noon-6 Sun. Tel. 885-0626.

Prime Time for seniors

(Continued from Page 10A) inflated times. There is deep satisfaction in preparing an attractive, well prepared meal, a feat that can make mealtime one of the most enjoyable and relaxing times of the day. You deprive yourself of pleasure if you allow mealtime to settle into a rut.

Feeling a part of a family or feeling that someone cares is an important component of happy retirement. Differences can and do arise between generations. As an older more experienced person, try to work for harmony when difficulties arise. Be a good listener and accept the fact that people who need our direction are few. There is a difference between interest and interference. Advice should be given only when it is requested.

It is wise not to complain too much. There may be reasons to do so but it is easier on the family if you keep your ills to yourself. If you do, when you really need to share your worries, you will find more willing listeners. Be generous. Sometimes a money gift or an offer to relieve an overworked mother is deeply appreciated. Cultivate new friends. As the years roll by, old friends become less numerous. There are many lonely people who need and want friendship.

Good management of time, taking stock of yourself, keeping physically fit are important goals. So also is an honest assessment of yourself as a person. Some people are old-old. They consider their active life over at retirement. Others are young-old. They consider retirement a time for new and exciting experiences.

How can you build or maintain esteem as an older citizen?

ONE WAY to avoid feeling let-down is to view the cutting off of responsibility as a relief from work and worry. There are responsibilities attached to every phase of life but in retirement, you are free to choose those you wish to assume.

Don't sell yourself short. Consider your many accomplishments. Your skills and contributions may be many. Keep on learning. You probably have a list of many subjects you would like to know more about. Stretch your mind with ideas that seem beyond you.

When it comes to appearance, be realistic. Dress and act your age. Older people can have a distinctive beauty and charm. Extra time spent on grooming and selecting appropriate clothes can add something to the appearance that nature may have taken away. Sometimes a new outfit can really make a difference.

Students learn leadership

Family fun at South High

The Neighborhood Club of Grosse Pointe and the public school system's Department of Community Services have scheduled a Family Fun Night for all residents at South High School from 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 21.

Activities will include badminton, basketball, ping-pong, swimming, tumbling and volleyball for all age groups, and crafts and movies for younger children. Admission is $3 per family or 50 cents per person, with a charge of 50 cents for crafts. Children must be at least 3 years of age to participate, and those 16 and under must be accompanied by at least one adult.

Bush, Bosell win awards

The medical staff of Bon Secours Hospital presented Semmes Awards to Christopher E. Bush, M.D., and Robert T. Bosell, M.D., during a meeting held on Nov. 5.

The Semmes awards were established by the Prewitt and Valerie Semmes Fund and are presented twice yearly to honor the house officer whose overall performance of his or her duties and whose genuine interest and sympathetic attitude toward patients and their families best exemplifies the spirit of the Sisters of Bon Secours Hospital.

'Les Papillons' dance

In a dramatic performance on Sunday, Nov. 2, at the Kirk of Our Saviour in Westland where they presented a visual sermon on "The Raising of Lazarus," the Liturgical Dance group, "Les Papillons" opened its 1980-81 fall and winter season.

Later, the group will appear in performances at St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church in St. Clair Shores; the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, which sponsors this innovative dance team. "Les Papillons" is also funded logical University. A senior majoring in mechanical engineering, Barr was trained in human relations skills, first by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

In addition to the varied repertoire which they presented last year they have added several new dances which will be performed this season for the first time.

Under the direction of choreographer Eunice Whitaker, the dancers present episodes from the life of Christ, interpretations of psalms and hymns and group or circle dances performed to the reading of scripture as well as to music or combination of the two.

Their technique combines elements of ballet and modern dance with forms used in both ancient and modern Israeli dance. "Le Papillon," the butterfly, was chosen to represent this group because it symbolizes the resurrection and the transforming power of Christ in the church and in the world today.

This year "Les Papillons" are Lynne Batchelor, Brooke Bessert, Lizzie Bolden, Jenny Eshleman, Ellen Probert, Nancy Reed, JoAnne and Sue Spencer, Wendy Heavner and Mary Lee Strother.

League kicks off Follies '80

If it's November, it must be show time in the Pointe. This year the Assistance League will be performing its fourth live stage production, FOLLIES '80, from Nov. 20-22.

Last year's performances were virtual sellouts well before the first night curtain went up. This year, performances are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights Nov. 20, 21 and 22 at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center at Grosse Pointe North High School.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE (MARY) SHAMMAS of Saddle Lane, (above), will be this year's honorary chairmen and act as host and hostess of the Patron Party after the Friday night performance.

Ticket prices range from $6 general admission to $10 patron, (name printed in the program), to a $15 Friday night special which includes admission to the post-performance cocktail party at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Senior citizens will have an opportunity to purchase reduced tickets for Thursday night's performances.

Tickets may be obtained by calling 824-8000, ext. 246 or at Jacobson's Credit Office. Any that remain unsold will be sold at the door on performance nights, but anyone who waits until then is taking a BIG chance.

The transition from housewife to showgirl and businessmen to stroller-with-the-bowler began Oct. 29, when the director arrived with musical scores and a head full of choreographs.

Sidney Lipton, a mysterious messenger and trespasser, is the provocative role taken by Aaron Drucker. Devoted live-in servants, Mady and Morris, are played by Dorothy and Bill Ludwig.

Rehearsals have been held at the Kenneth Kurtz' home, with some taking place at the Albert Bertel and John Diebel residences.

The William Ludwigs are producers for the show, aided by Bonnie S. Denler as stage manager and costumer. Dr. Stephen Shrader is the set designer, and stage dressing is being handled by Benjamin Gravel and Robert Elvidge.

Co-chairmen of the event are Anne Curtis and Thomas Peters. Sally van Deventer is in charge of properties and Dr. Frank van Deventer is handling the lighting.

Lawrence leads DIA's series

Kenard Lawrence, veteran broadcaster, has been named coordinator and master of ceremonies of the 47-year-old World Adventure Series at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Lawrence's appointment was announced by Dr. Audley M. Grossman, Jr., curator of the museum's Performing Arts Department.

Lawrence, 51, joined the World Adventure Series last February after an award winning 25-year career in radio and television, much of it in Detroit. His new duties will include the selection, scheduling and introduction of travel film speakers at the Sunday afternoon series.

A Michigan native, Lawrence is also a travel film lecturer and the author of travel articles on Michigan and the cities of Europe. His most recent project took him to Tunisia, North Africa, for the filming of "Mediterranean Discovery—Tunisia Holiday". It will be a feature of the 81-82 World Adventure Series.

World Adventure Series, now in its 47th year at the Detroit Institute of Arts, was founded by George Pierrot in 1933 and operated by him until his death earlier this year. The series presents travel and adventure on the big screen of the auditorium narrated by the filmmaker.

World Adventure Series ticket information is available by calling (313) 832-2730 or writing the series at 5200 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, MI 48202.

Miss Engstrom wed to Terry Gutermuth

Newlyweds will vacation in St. Croix and St. Thomas and will make their home in the Woods

St. James Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday, November 1, for the candlelight wedding of Wendy Lee Engstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Engstrom, of Three Mile Drive, and Terry Richard Gutermuth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gutermuth, of South Bend, Ind.

Pastor George E. Kurz officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Detroit Boat Club.

For her wedding, the former Miss Engstrom chose a white silk-satin A-line dress featuring a sweetheart neckline and chapel train. Alencon lace re-embroidered with de chine over which they wore matching jackets edged in satin wore honor attendants Mrs. Edward Welsh, of Bloomfield, and Mrs. Emilio DiPietro Jr., of Columbus, Ohio, sisters of the bride, and bridesmaids Jeanne Martin, of Schaumburg, Ill., Pam Orem, of Green Bay, Wis., and Leslee Hampton Chafee, of Charlotte, N.C., sorority sisters of the bride.

Each attendant carried a bouquet of pink miniature mums and roses and wore matching flowers in her hair. The same colors accented the flower arrangements at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mr. Gutermuth asked his brothers, Stephen Gutermuth, of Arlington Heights, Ill., and Scott Gutermuth, of Indianapolis, Ind., to serve as best men. Guests were seated by Brian Milleman, of LaGrange, Ind., Tim Haney, of Uica, and Gary Barth and Rick Connors of South Bend.

The mother of the bride wore a Chantilly lace jacket over her knife-pleated gown of champagne crepe de chine. The bridegroom's mother chose a long sleeved gown, lilac in color, featuring a banded bodice and full skirt. Out-of-town guests included the bride's step-grandmother, Mrs. E. Q. Smith Sr., of Boynton Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Emilio DiPietro Sr., of Columbus, Ohio, Sue Emery, of San Jose, Calif., S. MOT plans opera troupe

The Michigan Opera Theatre has announced plans to re-vitalize its original title, "Overture To Opera," and apply it to a new traveling entertainment package featuring singers and other creative talent from the Detroit area. Auditions have been set for early December, and bookings for the new program are being accepted beginning in early February.

The new Overture to Opera troupe will be utilized in a variety of ways. Under the joint direction of Karen DiChiera, MOT director of Education, and Dwight Bowes, director of Productions for the opera company, Overture to Opera members will develop and perform a number of musical programs.

Some programs will be aimed at schools, demonstrating the variety and appeal of musical theatre; others will feature arias, scenes and one-act operas for adult audiences at malls, senior citizen centers, club meetings, etc.

Auditions will be held — by appointment only — on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 10 and 11. A variety of musical talent, including singers, dancers, musicians and a piano accompanist, is sought.

"What we discover in auditions," explains Warren DiChiera, "will help determine the direction and content the program finally takes."

Interested persons can call MOT at 963-3717 to arrange an audition time.

MSU sourcebook profiles Michigan family life

Michigan residents are having fewer children, delaying marriages and finding it more difficult to afford single family homes, according to trends highlighted in a 301-page "Michigan Family Sourcebook," published this year by Michigan State University.

A joint project of MSU's College of Human Ecology and the Cooperative Extension Service's Family Living Education Program, the book brings together a wealth of statistics, compiled mainly from census reports and state agency documents.

Subject areas covered include population, families, income and employment, education, health, housing, nutrition, energy use, recreation and quality of life.
Dr. Mary Andrews and Dr.

Robert Boger from the college's Institute for Family and Child Study, compiled the data. "There has been a real need for this information in a comprehensive form," Andrews explains.

Among the figures cited is a census report showing a three percent increase in the state's population from 1970-1978, compared to a 13 percent rise from 1960-1970.

In 1976, a record number of men and women were single. The average age for a first marriage is now approximately 23 for men, 21 for women, according to sourcebook data.

Although 74 percent of Michigan's families owned homes in 1970, the growth in home ownership seen in the 1940s and 1950s has come to

August wedding for Nancy Noble

The Michael C. Dodges vacation in London; Are at home in Ann Arbor

A reception at the Country Club of Detroit followed the Saturday, August 2 wedding of Nancy Alane Noble and Michael Carlton Dodge in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robert Noble, of North Deeplands Road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dodge, of Jackson.

The Reverend William Tudor presided at the 4 o'clock ceremony for which the bride chose an Empire-waisted gown of ivory chiffon featuring a chapel length train.

Brussels lace accented her attached capelet and finger tip length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white Sweetheart roses and baby's-breath.

Honor maid Sandra Leigh Noble, sister of the bride, wore a full-skirted gown of dotted voile, blue in color, which featured a hi-rise waist and double ruffle bodice.

Dressed identically were bridesmaids Carol Ann Dodge, sister of the bridegroom, of Jackson, Elizabeth Carol Lee, of Wyncote, Pa., Oberlin College classmate of the bride, and Sheridan Ann O'Brien, of Ann Arbor, University Liggett School classmate of the bride.

Each attendant carried an old fashioned bouquet of daisies, bachelor buttons and baby's-breath.

The bridegroom asked his Oberlin College classmate, Philip Pearthree, of Tucson, Ariz., to act as best man. Ushers included Mark Mitchell Noble, of Marina del Rey, Calif., brother of the bride, and John Scheinfeld, of Brown Deer, Wisc., and Edward Kleinman, of Ardmore, Pa., more Oberlin College classmates.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of apricot silk crepe with a matching shoulder scarf. The bridegroom's mother's street length dress was a long sleeved silk in pale rose. Each mother pinned a Cymbidium orchid to her purse.

William Charles McMillan III, of University Place served as acolyte for the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ransom Noble, of Muskegon, cousins of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Grieger Jr., formerly of the Pointe, who now reside in Hillsboro Beach, Fla., and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Veller, of Jackson.

The newlyweds vacationed in London and are at home in Ann Arbor, where the bride attends the University of Michigan Medical School and the bridegroom is with the research library of Warner Lambert-Parke Davis.

Among those elected to three-year terms as members of the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan was BENJAMIN JEFFRIES, MD, of the Pointe.

American art collectors loan to Art Institute

Choice 19th century American paintings owned by area collectors are making a rare public appearance at the Detroit Institute of Arts through April, 1981.

The 17 works, on long-term loan to the museum are displayed in gallery 237 of the American Wing.

The first phase of "Selections from Detroit Collections" includes several artists not presently represented in the museum's permanent collection. Two are famous for the depictions of the vanishing American frontier: Frederic Remington's "Apaches" and Henry Farny's "Toilers of the Plain."

Another notable work is Fitz Hugh Lane's "The Fort and Ten Pound Island, Gloucester, Massachusetts." Nancy Rivard Shaw, curator of American Art who arranged the display, considers the painting a beautiful early example of Luminism — the lyrical exploration of light and atmosphere which dominated American painting from 1850 to 1875.

Other artists new to the galleries are: Thomas Birch — "Winter Scene in Pennsylvania"; Jerome Thompson — "The Haymakers, Mt. Mansfield, Vermont"; Frederick Bridgman — "Cleopatra on the Terraces"; Will Low — "Basket of Oranges"; Charles C. Curran — "Breakfast for Three."

Loans to compare with paintings by artists already in the museum's extensive American collection include: Sanford Gifford — "Marshes of the Hudson"; Martin Johnson Heade — "Sunset, the Harbor at Rio de Janeiro"; Eastman Johnson — "The Reprimand"; Worthington

Whittredge — "Seascape"; Albert Bierstadt — "Oregon Trail"; William Merritt Chase — "Flying Clouds"; Louis L'Amour — "Autumn, Lake George"; George Caleb Bingham — "Watching the Cargo by Night"; John George Brown — "Sidewalk Dance."

Shaw believes collectors of traditional American art will be encouraged by this display, because all the paintings are anonymous loans from members of the Association of the American Wing.

One of the chief functions of the AAW, Shaw says, is stimulating interest in American art. For this purpose the auxiliary group of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts also offers a program which includes lectures, seminars and tours of other museums and collections. Information may be obtained by writing to the Department of American Art or calling (313) 833-4025.

Detroit Review Club meets for special interest day

Traveling when there is a special interest involved, can be a real joy, according to Edith Kovach, guest speaker for the Detroit Review Club's Tuesday, Nov. 18 meeting at the Holiday Inn, 480 Riverside Drive West, Windsor, Canada.

Official hostess for the luncheon and short business meeting will be DRC president, Mrs. James Mullane, of Hillcrest Road. Luncheon arrangements are being handled by social chairman Mrs. Leonard Wise of Shoreham Road. Cocktails at 11:30 a.m. and luncheon at noon.

Laura Mackeben, chairman for the Day, will introduce the speaker following the luncheon. Laura understands the 'joy of traveling, when there is a special interest'—as she is a member of a National Archeology Club. Her last visit to such a special interest was last year's trip to China.

Edith Kovach, professor of Classics and Education at the University of Detroit, also has taught in the Detroit Public Schools and at 15 different colleges or universities in summer workshops and institutes for teachers.

She is a product of Detroit schools, with two degrees from Wayne University and two from the University of Michigan, plus study in Rome and Heidelberg. This summer she taught at Cornell College in Iowa.

A member of the National Humanities Faculty, she worked with teachers from 15 high schools throughout the country on programs and disciplines in the Humanities.

During the world trips Miss Kovach has made, she has taken special interest in the classic look in ancient architecture as well as the modern derivative. Her topic will be: "The Classical Look from Athens to Detroit," which includes slides from Athens, Rome, Washington and Detroit.

Wherever she travels she carries camera equipment, an easel and sketch pad. For DRC members who are widely traveled her talk should be somewhat 'nostalgic'—and for those who haven't it could be an eye-opener! Guests of members are welcome.

Windmill Pointe Questers meet

The Windmill Pointe Questers chapter number 385 will meet on Monday, Nov. 17, at 9:30 a.m. in Miller Hall, Christ Church, 16 Grosse Pointe Boulevard. Mrs. Fred Carter, chapter president, will chair the business meeting.

Mrs. Leo Hardwick is in charge of the program. She will be assisted by co-hostess Mrs. Murray Filkin. The program includes a slide presentation, "Doll Houses, under the Christmas Tree." The slide illustrates the miniature play toys of yesterday's children that are now the sought-after collectibles and play toys of today's adults.

Opera group sings for IBEX

Mrs. Donald F. (Joanne) Chamberlin, drama chairman has invited the members of IBEX and their guests to gather at her Lewiston Road home to meet her cousin, Lorraine Santore, a Juilliard graduate.

Miss Santore and "Opera Options," a small traveling company, will present "The Four Note Opera" on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

The hour-long program was written by Tom Johnson, a Manhattan composer-critic, as a spoof on opera.

Johnson picked a cast of four characters, wrote a libretto that does nothing except describe itself, and using only four notes, (A, B, D and E), created a deadpan score. The work began consulting opera fans in May of 1971 and has been performed from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera Studio.

In addition to performing for IBEX, the touring group will be appearing at Detroit Orchestra Hall.

Auxiliary hosts holiday fairs

The Auxiliary of Samaritan Health Center of Detroit will sponsor two Holiday Fairs in November. The first Holiday Fair is tomorrow, Friday, Nov. 14 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Unit, 2200 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit.

Deaconess Hospital Unit at 3245 East Jefferson Avenue is the site of the second Holiday Fair, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 18.

Proceeds from the fairs will be donated to the hospitals. Booths include home baked goods, boutique, toys, Christmas decorations, plants and a raffle.

Pointers aid National Cathedral project

Delegates to the annual convention of the National Cathedral Association held in Washington during the last week of September were first to hear the Rt. Reverend John T. Walker, Bishop of Washington, announce the resumption of stone-setting at the National Cathedral, (pictured above). There has been no stone-setting since May, 1977.

Eastern Michigan delegates attending the 1980 convention included Mrs. Alexander Wiener, of Woodland Place, Mrs. Henry Kinzie, of Beaupre Avenue, president of the chapter, Mrs. George Syler, of East Jefferson Avenue, Mrs. Anthony J. Vinci, of Lakecrest Road, the Reverend John H. Hayden and Mrs. Carl Hayden and Charles Barth, of Saginaw and John H. Coleman, of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Wiener, who retired as first vice-president of the national association after a three-year term, was named liaison for the trustees and the Capital Campaign Committee.

Bishop Walker said, "I believe the limited resumption of construction will have a positive effect on the larger capital campaign now under way."

The campaign to raise $15.5 million to pay off debts incurred in completing the nave in 1976 and endow future program and construction of the "Pilgrim Gallery" began in 1979. Today, the cathedral stands 90 percent complete, with only the Pilgrim Gallery and the twin towers of St. Peter and St. Paul to be finished.

The National Cathedral Association, the nationwide membership organization of friends of the cathedral, has chosen to make the Gallery a special priority. At the annual meeting, a gift of $1,250 was presented by the Eastern Michigan Chapter. The funds, raised last May in a Grosse Pointe brass rubbing session, will pay for a tracery stone to be set in the Gallery.

Sixteen hundred stones designated for the Gallery remain to be set and are available to donors as memorials or gifts starting with an ashlar at $250.

The Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul is called the National Cathedral because it "seeks to serve the whole nation, offering its ministry on behalf of all churches."

On Oct. 31, the U. S. Postal service issued a Christmas Stamp based on a stained glass window in Washington Cathedral, Washington, D.C.

PRIVATE COLLECTOR will pay absolute top dollar for quality watches. I especially need watches by the following makers: PATEK-PHILLIPE, VACHERON, HENRY CAPT, AUDEMARS, A. LANGE, CHAS. FRODSHAM, H. MOSE, HOWARD and all repeaters. Also any high quality wrist watches by above makers. Also buying gold watch chains, fobs and gold cased U.S. pocket watches.

Knights lose lead, game

An early 14 point lead wasn't enough Saturday, Nov. 1, as the University Liggett School football team lost to Marine City, 20-14.

Senior running back Kevin Jackson returned the opening kick-off 85 yards for a touchdown. Manager-place kicker Dwight Kalsey followed with the placement kick to make the score 7-0 only 15 seconds into the game.

Marine City moved the ball across midfield on its first offensive series only to have a fumble recovered by defensive back Dave Van Elslander.

The Knights offense, aided by a 34-yard reverse pass from flanker-back Van Elslander to end Dave Chamberlin moved the ball to Marine City's two-yard line.

Kevin Jackson scored his second touchdown for the day on a one-yard plunge and a perfect Kalsey kick gave the Knights an early 14-0 first quarter lead.

Marine City was not to be denied. In the closing minutes of the second quarter, the Marine City quarterback made the score 14-6 on a three-yard run. The touchdown was set up by two key penalties and a 25-yard screen pass.

In the third quarter, Marine City narrowed the margin to 14-12 with a 30-yard touchdown run. The conversion pass failed, but from there it was all down hill for the ULS Knights.

Penalties kept the ULS offense bogged and on the second play of the final quarter, ULS attempted the quarterback option play. The pitch was bad and a Marine City lineman picked up the ball and raced 35 yards to the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown. A protested conversion pass was successful and Marine City was now ahead 20-14.

ULS moved the ball to midfield and for the second straight game was intercepted in the closing minutes.

The seven seniors playing their final high school level game were: Charlie Culp, Robert Green, Kevin Jackson, Mike Kirkpatrick, Joe Walker and the injured Jerry Parks and Coit Ford.

The Knights ended the season with a 5-4 loss record.

University Liggett School football players who received varsity letters at the Monday, Nov. 3 Awards Assembly included: seniors Charlie Culp, Coit Ford, Robert Green, Kevin Jackson, Mike Kirkpatrick, co-captain Jerry Parks and Joe Walker; juniors John Cannon, Bill Hoey, Gil Jackson, Mike McCarthy, co-captain Jeff Peters, Ron Schocker and Dave Van Elslander and sophomores Dave Chamberlin, Steve Jackson, Dwight Kalsey, Phil McCormick, J. T. Parks and John Polizzi.

Parks received this year's "Most Valuable Player Award" while Jackson and Kirkpatrick were selected as co-Most Improved Players. Parks was selected as the ULS "Most Valuable Player" although a leg injury kept him "sidelined" the last four games.

His five game statistics included: offensively (tailback)—74 rushes for 552 yards, (7.5 yard average), 10 touchdowns and 60 points including an 85 yard touchdown kick-off return. Defensively as a linebacker—73 tackles, one blocked punt, two fumble recoveries and a 101 yard touchdown interception return.

ULS record with Parks was 4-1 compared to 1-3 without him.

Jackson's selection as "co-Most Improved Player" could be credited to his versatility to effectively fill in at numerous positions. This made him extremely valuable as the season progressed and injuries mounted.

Converted from end to tailback, Jackson's last four game statistics included: 49 rushes for 331 yards (6.8 yard average), three touchdowns including an 85-yard touchdown kick-off return.

As a defensive safety, his nine game statistics totaled: 49 tackles, seven interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

Kirkpatrick, a fine two-way performer, developed into ULS's most consistent blocker as an offensive tackle and became the team's hardest hitter on defense. His nine game defensive statistics included 81 tackles, one interception and two fumble recoveries.

The football portion of the Awards Assembly was concluded with the announcement of next year's co-captains. They are junior center-linebacker Jeff Peters and sophomore quarterback-safety Jeff Parks.

Star cagers win league championship

By Margaret Spindler
Star of Sea Coach

Our Lady Star of the Sea High School's varsity basketball team captured its first league title in seven years by defeating a strong Pontiac Catholic squad, 44-43 last week.

For the last six out of seven seasons, Star finished in second place behind some very competent opponents. This year's team fought, worked and dedicated itself to a goal—the league title. The development of fundamental skills, team unity and school spirit poured forth throughout the regular season right up to the final game.

In its first encounter with Pontiac Catholic, ranked number five in the state, Star beat Pontiac, 54-53 with 18 seconds left on the clock. Senior Cathy Fox sank an 18-foot shot to cap the victory.

In a very similar fashion, the second game proved to be just as exciting. Star's starting five played a powerful defense, preventing any inside shooting.

Senior Catherine Snyder played a superb defensive game against Pontiac star, Janet Dooley.

With 39 seconds left, Pontiac took the lead, but much to their dismay, Star's point guard Mary Beth Biermann, brought the ball down the floor and passed to Cathy Fox.

Fox shot a 16-foot jump with five seconds on the clock to complete a dream play and season.

Special recognition goes to Marisa Ventimiglia, Maureen Boyle and Zoila Ruiz for outstanding offensive and defensive play. Senior Mary Beth Biermann led the team offensively with 14 points.

Our Lady Star of the Sea varsity basketball players received special honors at the completion of the regular season. Sophomores Marisa Ventimiglia and Maureen Boyle, along with seniors Ruth Barcus and Zoila Ruiz, received honorable mention awards.

Seniors Cathy Fox, Mary Beth Biermann and Catherine Snyder received All League honors. Out of approximately 75 candidates these three girls were selected on the basis of their overall play throughout the season.

All-Catholic honors went to an outstanding player, senior Catherine Snyder, who one of 10 selected from a field of 30 players. Snyder has been averaging 11 points and 13 rebounds per game.

Congratulations were given to all members of Star's team for a championship season and to coach Margaret Spindler and assistant coach Sue Snover for their dedication, their instruction, their motivation, and their friendship.

G.P. Bruins tied for lead in Adray League play

Results of play last week left the Grosse Pointe Bruins Bantam A travel hockey team tied for first place in the Adray Community League.

Coach Tom Costello's squad bested St. Clair Shores, 4-2, before dropping a 6-4 contest to Sterling Heights.

The Bruins are 4-1-1 in six league games.

Rick Roberts led the team in the victory over St. Clair Shores with his two goals. Bob Nelson and Mike Brykalski added a goal each. Roberts opened the scoring in the first period when he converted passes from Keith Barich and Greg Henchel.

After St. Clair Shores tied the game, defenseman Nelson scored on a hard slap shot from the blue line. Brykalski's goal increased the lead to 3-1. Roberts scored into an empty net in the final seconds after St. Clair Shores had narrowed the lead to 3-2.

The loss to Sterling Heights wasted a great Grosse Pointe comeback. Trailing 3-0 midway through the second period, the Bruins scored four goals to take a 4-3 lead into the third.

Defensive lapses cost the Bruins a victory as Sterling Heights tallied three late goals, the last into an empty net. The loss dropped the Bruins into a first place tie with Sterling Heights.

Chris Luongo, John Hirschfield, Brykalski and Nelson scored for Grosse Pointe. Dan Follis earned two assists and Barich assisted once.

G. P. Marlies split in Toronto

The Grosse Pointe Marlboro Travel Hockey club spent last weekend in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, for fun and hockey competition. The Marlies were the guests of the Royal Nationals, the top Pee Wee AA travel team in the Metropolitan Toronto Hockey League.

Each Grosse Pointe boy spent Saturday night at the home of one of the "Royal Nat's." The competition was outstanding, with Toronto winning Saturday's encounter 2-1 and Grosse Pointe coming out on top 4-3 on Sunday.

Andrew Roy provided the Marlies' only goal in Saturday's game when he rifled in a left-wing shot after taking a pass from Mike Amore. Roy's goal gave the Marlies a short-lived tie as the Royal Nat's scored late in the game to win.

On Sunday, Nov. 9, the Marlies dominated the play.

even though the score was close. Kevin Tisdale opened the scoring for Grosse Pointe early in the first period when he deflected a shot from Joe Sullivan past the sprawled Toronto goaltender.

Roy gave the Marlies a two-goal lead when he converted a perfect centering pass from Richard Pisogna. After the Royal Nat's tied the game in the second period, Sullivan again put Grosse Pointe in front when he completed a picture play from Tisdale and Brian Nettle.

The game winner came early in the third period when Pisogna scored after taking passes from his Marlie teammates Roy and Gerry Rogers.

The Marlies will entertain the Toronto Royal Nationals here in Grosse Pointe during the upcoming Thanksgiving Turkey tournament.

Ski Club proving popular

By Al Crim South High

If students spending the night in South High School's parking lot just so they can be assured a membership in the Blue Devil Ski Club doesn't prove its popularity, how about having former students coming back just to take ski trips with the Club?

Over the years, the South Blue Devil Ski Club has proven to be the most popular club at South. According to sponsor Burl vonAllman, "It's the only club that has a waiting list. There's no doubt about it."

The ski club is scheduled to have its introductory meeting sometime this week. It is expected, as usual, that kids will flock to the meeting in order to register. But vonAllman doesn't like the idea of having people sleeping in the parking lot.

"This year I think I'm going to tell the students that I'm going to set a date and they're going to line up at my room at 3 p.m. I'm going to have three or four seniors outside to see that people don't cut in line."

"We won't have it in the morning because people have slept overnight in the parking lots; they've come here at 2:30 a.m., and I don't want that."

This year, the club plans on a minimum of five trips starting when there is enough snow. They will take a maximum of two busloads of skiers and will depart South at 3:30 p.m. and return at 10:30 to 11 p.m.

"One nice thing about skiing with the club is that the better skiers will help the beginning skiers. It's not necessary to have skied prior to coming into the club. If you're interested in the sport and you want to learn, you can take lessons and progress. People in the club will help you and you can have a good time," said vonAllman.

Members in the club are required to ski only at their ability level. In order to ski bigger, more challenging hills, they must pass the lesson test (novice, intermediate, or advanced) that is required for those hills.

Each year, the club takes a trip to Blue Mountain, a Canadian Ski Resort, for a three day ski trip. Last year went extremely well, vonAllman said. "I've got so many people that want to go again this year, it's incredible. I even have alumni that call me up and want to go."

The club leaves for Blue Mountain on Thursday, after school and skis all day Friday, Saturday and part of Sunday. The club returns to Grosse Pointe in the evening.

Because of the popularity of the ski club, it is impossible for everyone that wants to become a member. If one can't get into a ski club, he/she may become a reserve member. A reserve member is someone who doesn't ski regularly with the club. If a regular member can't go, he/she sells his/her ticket to the reserve member. The reserve member is entitled to all the privileges a full member is entitled to, including the Blue Mountain trip.

The ski club is a non-profit club, sponsored by Burl vonAllman, who is assisted by Greg Hefner, a former South teacher who now teaches at Brownell and Pierce.

Whatever the reason for the ski club's tremendous success, vonAllman is very proud of it. "It's a way to improve your skills and talents, and abilities in skiing, and it's also a very fun club—and I think that's one of the reasons why it is so popular at South."

"It's a chance to get away from school yet participate as members of the school. It's a chance to have a good time together and feel that you belong to a very special group, the Blue Devil Ski Club, for which we're all very proud."

Sports at North

Fall sports teams are winners

The Grosse Pointe North fall sports schedule has come to an end for all but two of the seven varsity teams and their over-all success has been remarkable.

North teams took three Bi-County Championships, two regional championships and three teams placed in the top five in the state.

The two cross country teams may have been the most successful this year as both the boys' and girls' went undefeated in dual competition, winning the Bi-County Championship as well as finishing first in the state regionals.

The boys' team went on to take second place at the state finals, while the girls captured fifth. Nine North runners were named to the All Bi-County team, five boys, sophomore Joe Schmidt, and seniors Dan Hammer, John Pamerleau, Mark Rolain and Jeff Toepler; and four girls, Martha Witaker, Beth Gudsen, Patty Mehan and Cathy Schmidt. Joe and Cathy Schmidt were also named as their team's most valuable throughout the year.

The varsity football team finished third in the Bi-County with a 2-2 record and were 4-5 overall. Although it was North's first losing season in 11 years, there were plenty of bright spots throughout the schedule.

John Clem's performance against Brablec when he threw four touchdown passes, and was eight of ten for 231 yards setting a new school record for most points in a game was certainly a highlight.

Another highlight was Mike Eugenio's record tying four touchdowns against Midland. Much like the cross country teams, nine members of the football team were named to the first All Bi-County team, including junior Jerry Bockstanz and seniors John Caputo, Mike Eugenio, Gregg Langone, Jeff Roberts, Dave Simon, Bruce Stewart, John Clem and Mark Palazzo.

Two juniors, Dave McCarron and Tom VanPelt, were also named to the second team.

The junior varsity team also finished with a 4-5 overall record, taking second place. The freshmen team went 5-0 in league play, finishing first in the Bi-County.

North's golf team also competed in the state playoffs where they finished 16th. Most valuable player John Briski and Curt Marshall led the team to a 17-3 record as well as to the second place finish at the regionals.

The girls' tennis team easily won the Bi-County Championship with an 8-0 league record while finishing second at the regionals and fourth at the State Finals. Cathy Brown received an excellence award and was named to the All Bi-County team, as was Nancy Kohler, who also won the most valuable player award. Others named to the Bi-County team were Eva Lucido, Marilyn Biretta, Beth McMahon and Sandy Jayakar.

Although the recent season is the first for North's soccer team, they have been no exception to the success of North's teams. In fact, the soccer team has unquestionably been the surprise team of the year.

The Norsemen's 6-0-1 record in conference play won them the "new team" division championships in the Metro Suburban Soccer League. They are still involved in divisional playoffs which run until mid-November.

The team's only loss came against highly rated Northville in its first match of the State Playoffs on Oct. 27. Their overall record is 11-1-2.

The remaining two teams, the girls' swim team and the girls' basketball team will play until the middle of December but both are in very good shape in the Bi-County. The swim team is now in first place and the basketball team is in second.

Cross-country teams show promise

By Ron Fournier North High

Another successful cross country season ended with the "team of the 70's" showing promise for the 1980's.

In what was supposed to be a rebuilding year with a fifth or sixth place finish in the state, North's harriers captured a second place just behind the powerful Flint Kearsley squad. The girls' team, in just its second year of existence, placed a very respectable fifth.

The boys' team, with its rookie coach David McEvers, got off to a slow start by failing to win an invitational until late in the season.

The first three invitationals were all second places with the exception of West Bloomfield where the harriers finished behind two other teams. The season finally turned around with a victory at Oxford which gave way to a stunning upset over the second-ranked Cousino squad in a classic dual meet competition.

The Cousino romp was a moral victory more than a physical one since Cousino was supposed to easily wipe out the North team. Since the defeat, Cousino has fallen apart with a third place in their league and a 14th in the State.

Perhaps the brightest spot in this year's performance was the dazzling running of North's two sophomores in the top seven spots. Joe Schmidt was consistently at the top for the harriers while Scott Cooper came on strong in the end with a 45th place finish in the state competition.

Other hopefuls are Doug Schepke, who nearly competed at state, Mark Przeslawski, who looks as strong as his old brother and Mark Denis who, if he stays healthy, could be a mainstay in North's future.

The girls were brilliant this year, considering they have been a team for just two years. Like the boys' squad, they started out slowly by barely finishing in the top ten of the first three invitationals. With a lot of hard work, they managed to peak at the state meet to be the fifth best team in Michigan.

Schmidt finished by obtaining All-State honors.

Girl's swim team is undefeated

By Mark Clark

Two wins last week climaxed an undefeated season for South's girls swim team last Tuesday as they trounced rival North, 103-69, and beat East Detroit on Thursday, 119-53. The girls final dual-meet record is 10-0.

North, South's "toughest" meet all season, turned out to be another easy victory for the Devils as they took eight out of 11 events.

Triple winners for South were Sara McLeod and Sara Brieden; McLeod winning the 200-yard individual medley and 100-yard breaststroke, and Brieden the 50 and 100-yard freestyles.

McLeod and Brieden teamed up with Cheryl Chase and Lara Measelle to capture the 200-yard medley relay.

Other winners were Maureen Cross in the 200-yard freestyle; Gretchen Reom in the 100-yard butterfly, and Sarah Bernard in the 500-yard freestyle.

In last Thursday's meet against ast Detroit, Brieden displayed a fine exhibition of talent, cracking the state meet cut-off barrier in every event she swam.

She recorded a 2:08 in the 200-yard freestyle; 56.4 in the 100-yard freestyle, and 3:54.1 in the 400-yard freestyle relay. That relay included outstanding performances from Measelle, Cross, and McLeod.

Winners in other events were Sue Parker in the 100-yard backstroke; McLeod in the 100-yard butterfly; Bernard in the 500-yard freestyle, and Randy Dittmars in the diving.

Commenting on the victories coach Tim Kennary said, "The girls are really starting to drop their times and have been swimming really well in these past meets."

South is the overwhelming favorite to win the Eastern Michigan League meet and it will be the last chance for the Devils to qualify swimmers for the state championships.

The EML meet will be hosted by South and finals will take place at North today, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m.

South varsity net team is honored

By Jeff Measelle

The most successful varsity team at South, the girls' tennis team, brought to a close its 1980 season last Wednesday with a team banquet in South's cafeteria.

Just two weeks ago, the team won its fifth straight Class A State Championship, demonstrating why it is South's most successful varsity team. "We had a very fine season," commented Stephani Pritchko, the team's coach. "I am very pleased."

It would appear that the girls had more than just a fine season. Not only did they win the state meet held in Kalamazoo and at University Liggett School, but they also won the Regionals, held at North, and the league championships, held at Balduck Park, by winning all seven flights.

Just as impressive is the team's dual meet record. The Devils finished their season with 11 wins and no losses.

Last Wednesday the team held its banquet at South. The purpose of the event was to honor the team and their outstanding season, as well as to give out individual awards.

Paula Reichert, who has been on the team in each of her three years at South, received the Sportsmanship Award. Lydia Barry was the recipient of the Most Improved Award.

Mother-daughter netters at ULS

The ULS Middle School girls' tennis team concluded its season on Tuesday, Oct. 28 with its annual Mother-Daughter Doubles Tournament.

The chill in the October air was ignored as all 32 participants courageously fought through 16 matches. Dori Adair and her mother stroked their way to a victory.

NH soccer team in semi-finals

By Bob Waldeck

North's varsity soccer team shut out Roseville High, 3-0, in a first round divisional playoff match last week. The win carries the Norsemen into the semi-finals against Roseville Braltec in the one-game elimination tourney on Wed., Nov. 12 (after press time).

The white wash gave North's fledgling kickers 10 shutouts on the season. They have compiled a record of 12 wins, one loss and two ties. The lone defeat came against Northville in the state invitational tournament in late October.

Marc Tirikian opened the scoring on a penalty kick midway in the first half before Andy Hetzel made it 2-0, Mike Azar assisting.

Tirikian added the final goal in the second half, unassisted. The Norsemen could easily have scored several more goals in the one-sided contest, outshooting Roseville 16-2, but many good close in scoring chances were kicked or headed wide of the net.

SH girls end cross country season 7-3

By Kara Ott

South's girls' cross country team wrapped up its season last week at the state finals, and they had a lot to be proud of.

Led by coach Steve Zaranek, the girls finished with a 3-1 league record and went 7-3 overall.

South's strongest runner throughout the season was senior Jane Wilson. She consistently placed well in meets, most of the time taking firsts. Wilson earned All League and All State honors.

Coach Zaranek said he was "really pleased" with the girls' running this season, especially in the bigger meets — the invitationals, regionals, the league meets, and the state finals.

"We are hoping to have this year's runners return, and also to get some fresh ninth graders."

ULS Kickers make playoffs

The Knights clinched a spot in the MSSL (Metro-Suburban Soccer League) play-offs on Nov. 4 by defeating Southfield Christian, 4-0.

The Knights controlled the play throughout the game. Their first goal was scored by senior Kris Robbins midway through the first half. Later in that same half, senior Tony Alcantara scored to make the halftime score 2-0.

The beginning of the second half was scoreless, but at the midpoint sophomore Marty Wittmer broke through for ULS.

Near the end of the game, sophomore Larry Van Kirk added icing to the cake as he scored the final goal of the game.

South harriers miss EML title by three

By Dawn Lecniskar

Missing EML glory by just three points, South's varsity boys' cross country team was narrowly beaten by Mount Clemens, 35-38, on Oct. 28 in the Eastern Michigan League meet at Baldock Park. The team finished out its season on Saturday, Nov. 1 when Bill Peattie competed in the state finals in Flint.

Runners earning all-league honors in EML competition were John Platj in second place overall with a time of 16:59, and Peattie in fourth with a time of 17:13. Other top runners were Chris Pelletito in ninth place; Dave DeRonne in 11th; Ken Smith in 12th.

The junior varsity was more successful, winning its version of the league championship. Top runner for the JV Blue Devils was George Reindel with a time of 17:59.

Closing out the season was Bill Peattie who competed in the state finals as the boys' lone representative. He finished 72 overall, with a time of 16:58.

Coach Ed Bonne commented, "I've never had, in my eight years at South, a season I've felt so good and confident about as this one. I'm really proud of everyone."

Torch Drive surpasses goal in fund raising drive

United Foundation volunteers announced their 32nd consecutive Torch Drive victory Thursday, Nov. 6 as they reported raising a grand total of $42,399,066 this year. This amount represents 102 percent of the 1980 campaign goal of $41.5 million. The funds raised will support 137 charities in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. Metropolitan Detroit Torch Drive leaders announced the outstanding results at the Victory Dinner celebration at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Dearborn. Presiding at the meeting were Torch Drive General Chairman, H.L. "Pete" Smith, vice-president and group executive, Power Products Group of General Motors Corporation and UF Chairman of the Board, Alan E. Schwartz, senior partner in the law firm, Honigman, Miller, Schwartz and Cohn.

"The 1980 Torch Drive, with its goal of $41,500,000 has been a particularly great challenge, and I would like to express my deep personal gratitude to everyone who has worked so hard to produce tonight's results," Smith told the audience of more than 1,000 campaign volunteers.

He added that he was truly inspired by the campaign and the volunteers and contributors who made it happen.

"The willingness to work together as a team, the commitment to a common goal and the unselfish desire to help others have opened my eyes to the dynamic spirit of our metropolitan community," Smith said.

He also announced that the United Foundation's 1980 Urban Progress Fund (UPF) campaign has raised $2,445,258 to date to support the 1980 activities of New Detroit, Inc.

The UPF campaign, which solicits funds from selected Detroit area corporations and foundations, has been conducted concurrently with the Torch Drive since 1969.

The Benson Ford Trophy, to recognize the regular chapter campaign unit achieving the highest percentage of quota, was presented to the Service Unit which was chaired by Walter J. McCarthy, Jr., president, The Detroit Edison Company. The Service Unit raised $5,582,327 or 101.9 percent of quota.

Final totals and percent of quota figures for other chapter campaign units are: Industrial Unit, chaired by James K. Bakken, vice president, Operations Support Staff, Ford Motor Company, $4,619,961 or 96.4 percent of quota; Commercial Unit, chaired by Donald R. Mandich, president, DETROIT-BANK Corporation, $6,100,426 or 101 percent of quota; Schools, Government and Professions Unit, chaired by Major General Oscar C. Decker, Jr., Commanding General, U.S. Army and Tank Automotive Command, $4,162,731 or 101.8 percent of quota; and the Metropolitan Unit, chaired by Mervyn H. Manning, vice president-general manager, Ford Tractor Operations, Ford Motor Company, $438,114 or 101.8 percent of quota.

Slate donkey basketball game for Nov. 14

On Friday, Nov. 14, the booster club at Lutheran High School East will host its annual Donkey Basketball game in the school gym beginning at 8 p.m.

Plenty of action and an enthusiastic crowd are expected as members of the Lutheran Grade Schools saddle up to oppose their counterparts from the Lutheran High School East faculty.

While the riders will be engaged in active combat over the outcome of the contest, the real excitement figures to be generated by the donkeys, who frequently are engaged in their own battles against their riders.

Advance tickets are available at the Lutheran East office 20100 Kelly Road, Harper Woods (phone 371-8750)—as well as from participating teachers at Lutheran Grade Schools in the area.

Advance ticket prices are $1.75 for adults and $1.50 for grade and high school students. Tickets purchased on the day of the game will be 50 cents extra. Seating will be arranged on a first come, first served basis.

In connection with this event, Lutheran East's guild will also be hosting an all-you-can-eat spaghetti dinner in the school cafeteria prior to the game. Doors will open at 5 p.m. Come early and bring the whole family to enjoy a reasonably priced meal followed by some unusual family entertainment.

"Why Are We On a Diet While Others Go Hungry?" will be the topic for the Third Thursday Forum on Nov. 20 sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice.

The forum will feature a special preview of "Broken Promise," a new film produced by Focus: Hope (to be shown on national TV in January). This major documentary addresses the issue of hunger and the senior citizen.

Eleanor M. Josaitis, associate director of Focus: Hope will introduce the film and lead a discussion on the problem of hunger in America and how we can solve it.

"People often feel guilty when they hear about 'the hungry,'" says Ms. Josaitis. "But guilt trips don't help. What can help is a determined approach to the problem."
