Farms pool still open

By Brad Lindberg Staff Writer

Grosse Pointe Farms has extended the pool hours at Pier Park from Labor Day through Sunday, Sept. 12.

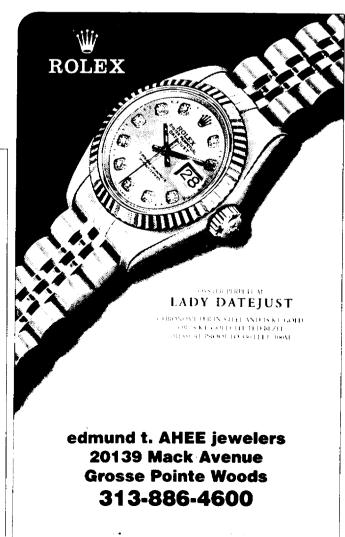

The extra week of swimming was suggested recently by councilman Farms Kneiser. "With all the money we've spent on the park and pool, it makes sense to keep it open to the maximum extent possible for people of all ages in the community," he said.

Pool hours, weather permitting, will be 4 to 8 p.m., Sept. 7-10. Hours on Saturday and Sunday are noon to 8 p.m. Only the large swimming pool will be open. The kiddie pool will be closed.

Huhn said swimming at the beach will be at your own risk.

Court reversal on vouchers in Cleveland

Cleveland federal judge who last week had blocked several thousand children in Cleveland from getting public funds through vouchers changed his mind a few days

Judge Solomon Oliver Jr. had first ruled that there is probable cause to believe that the school voucher program violated the constitutional separation of church and state.

But after viewing the disruption his opinion had aroused in the schools and elsewhere on the eve of school openings, the judge reversed himself and conceded that his ruling had caused more disruption then he had anticipated.

The Cleveland program, created by the Ohio Legislature in 1995, pays up to $2,500 in tuition costs for children in lowincome families.

For the 1999-2000 school year, about 5 percent of the 77,000 children in Cleveland's public schools were signed up for the voucher program.

The judge had first said he would block the voucher program in Cleveland until he has time to consider a lawsuit challenging its constitutionality, but added in his first opinion there is "no substantial possibility" that he would ultimately rule in favor of the program.

Supporters of vouchers in Cleveland were heartened by Judge Oliver's second opinion, although the next step in the court proceedings has not yet been deter-

Earlier this month, Michigan Gov.

John Engler said he had not yet made up his mind on the voucher program, saying that vouchers "may or may not" be the right answer to improving education in Michigan.

An organization called "Kids First! Yes!" is collecting signatures to put the issue of the use of school vouchers on the November 2000 statewide ballot in Michigan.

The group would remove the state's constitutional prohibition on indirect aid to private schools and make vouchers of about $3,100 available to students in districts where the school dropout rate exceeds 33 percent.

When the Cleveland case is finally adjudicated, it may affect the Michigan proposal or it may not, depending on what the judge still has to say on the new tax program to raise about $40 million a year to benefit cultural institutions in Wayne and Oakland counties may be on ballots in both counties by August 2000.

New metro art tax in works

Proposals for a metro Detroit arts tax began a decade ago when arts supporters were surprised by Gov. John Engler's cutbacks in state contributions to the arts in his first term.

In 1991, according to the Detroit Free Press, metro-Detroit's major institutions were getting more than $40 million a year from Lansing.

Engler's order led to an outcry in the metro area, and some restoration of state funding was approved. But local arts backers have long sought some consistent financial support.

Preparatory to putting a proposal on the ballot, Marketing Resources in Lansing is conducting a poll for Detroit Renaissance. a non-profit think tank for revitalizing Detroit and southeast Michigan.

Apparently as a result of legislation passed last year, tri-county residents can vote to pay a one-half-mill yearly property tax. The Free Press estimated the tax at $25 on a house with a market value of Likely beneficiaries of the proposed tax apparently would be the symphony orchestra, the art institute and the public television station.

Business boosters of the tax emphasize that keeping the arts and culture healthy attracts new jobs, top-notch employees and even conventioneers to metro Detroit.

The tax issue will appear on the ballot only after approval by the county boards of commissioners, plus the approval of the Detroit City Council.

Under a tentative plan, the tax would raise no more than 18 percent of each institution's annual operating budget.

Battle seen over test ban emocrats reportedly are ready for a tough fight with the GOP to save the test ban treaty in the Republican-controlled Senate.

Without the treaty, President Clinton has warned the Senate and the nation that "countries all around the world will feel more pressure to develop and test weapons of ever more destructive varieties and sizes.

A series of unsettling international developments are blamed for the new concern in the United States about the future of the test ban treaty.

Among those developments are India's and Pakistan's growing nuclear ambitions, the possible test-launching of a long-range missile by North Korea, and the possibility that China has upgraded its atomic arsenal using stolen American nuclear secrets.

Republicans, however, do not want to go forward with any new treaty until they are assured that the country will quickly build a limited defense against long-range missile attack.

But Russia, on the other hand, wants the United States to slash its nuclear arsenal before it will consider changes to a landmark treaty that bars such a shield.

But David Littmann, chief economist of Comerica Inc., told the Free Press that Michigan could suffer more in the next recession than ever before.

He noted that Michigan's per capita personal income last year was about 2 percent below the national level, in part because of the GM strike.

He added that at this point in a business expansion, Michigan historically has been several points above the national average.

That means that, in Littmann's opinion, the state could be starting the next recession in a weaker state than during previous downturns.

Since about 1960, auto manufacturing has accounted for a smaller share of the state's employment, dipping from about 30 percent to about 15 percent now.

Keep cable

To the Editor:

I am writing to all of the Comcast Cable customers in the Pointes. We have just been given another price increase, effective Sept. 1. This increase brings the total rise in cable rates in the past 3 1/2 years, from March 1, 1996, to over 35 percent for the Total Basic Package, from $22.80 to Applause to all $31.23, not including franchise

That works out to an incredible 10 percent per year. Inflation during this time has been running about 2 percent per year.

Comcast pricing is no longer regulated due to Telecommunications Act of 1996. That law was supposed to bring us competition which was supposed to keep prices down.

In the Pointes we have no competition. We could buy a satellite dish, but would then lose our local broadcast stacompanies that do not want week goes forward. Sadly, she has no true competition and the networks

The politicians all tout the supposed benefits of the 1996 Act, which we did not get. Comcast says the price increases are all within the law, saying that they have upgraded the system and added more channels (in some of which they have an ownership stake), all of which I did not ask for, and the FCC says we citizens no longer even have the right to complain to them!

We can only complain to our local franchise authorities which are our local city halls. They then can complain to the FCC. I believe the Pointes may be able to work together for relief from the price gouging of the "Evil Empire" of Comcast, but only if you ask them to. Please call or write your local franchise authority at once.

For those of you who follow the occasional courageous and controversial cable channel. Showtime, you know its madefor-TV movies match some of the best that Hollywood can put out. And you can watch the movie in the comfort of your own home, saving the trouble of driving, parking and in line for popcorn a pop. You can actually settle down for two hours of serious try's attitude toward the "not "entertainment" without commercials and in the comfort of guilty" jury decision in the your own home.

Several months ago, Showtime did the remake of "Lolita" with Jeremy Irons as Humbert, a production which was closer in spirit and mood to Nabokov's classic novel than Kubrick's of the early "Lolita" was a novel that was banned for a long time because staid editors were too upset by the theme of an apparently dirty old man sexually exploiting his ward, a pubescent girl. With the sexual revolution, values changed and more and more taboo and explicit sexual themes appeared in media productions, from plays to movies to television serials and sitcoms. and so the book was published and the movies were made.

Last Sunday (Aug. 29) Showtime aired another controversial film, "Strange Justice," which dramatized the Clarence Thomas-Anita Hill hearings, which were telecast across the nation and world 10 years ago.

The intense and labored controversy between liberal Democrats and conservative Republicans riveted the nation. It was a classic "he said, she said"; there was no way to know the truth. There was no palpable evidence for Anita Hill's allegations of sexual harassment and there were no eye-witnesses. The country had to face the prospect of deciding who was telling the truth, and the decision was usually made along ideological lines.

Liberals and feminists feared that stacking the court with conservatives would be the end of freedom to have abortions on demand. Thomas, supported strongly by the religious right, was feared as resorting to "natural law," which might deny the right to abortion in many cases. Significantly, the movie

To the Editor:

This letter is in response to Dr. Kevin Prush's Aug. 19 "By the teenage girl who broke her fascination with making yourself dizzy or passing out." We girl Dr. Prush is referring to in his factually incorrect article and would like to share the true tragic story of what really occurred.

This summer has turned into a horrifying and painful one for our entire family. We discovered a dangerous and potentially life-threatening activity that many young adolescents are engaging in without any knowledge of its consequences. This activity does not involve drugs or alcohol. What it does involve is an individual hyperventilating, and then someone else either pressing on the individual's neck or doing the Heimlich Maneuver to them.

These unknowing boys and girls do not understand that this activity can result in dizziness, amnesia, disorientation, loss of consciousness, fractured bones and teeth, lacerations, paralysis, and even DEATH.

As a result of losing consciousness after taking a deep breath and then someone pressing on both sides of her neck, our daughter fell and is the problem," I used the fractured her lower jaw in three places, broke several teeth, and lacerated her chin which required 40 sutures.

What is a little frightening is her belief that the Grosse Pointe News should censor views that it might not hold. I have to assume that she not only does not like the freedoms ensured by the Second Amendment, but feels the same way about the First Amendment, unless it is her views which are being printed.

In any event, I am glad she felt strongly enough to, at least, voice a response to my letter — even though it was off point. Other than getting emotionally upset over "my jumping for joy" comment, which tion, not a key point in my letter, and as such perhaps in hindsight merits some criticism from the "Politically Correct," I couldn't help but notice she ignored the basic points set out in my letter. But, character assassination is usually the tact taken by gun control advocates.

The fact is, there is evil in this world. Being armed for self-protection is an inalienable right of a free people. Those who do not care to protect themselves can try to rely on 911 — it is often adequate.

Deja vu again

A 43-year-old house painter from Detroit with a taste for the good life was arrested twice within three days last week for shoplifting at a store on Mack and Moross in the Farms.

On Tuesday, Aug. 24, at 11:45 a.m., a store manager said he caught the suspect walking "past the register and toward the exit" with a $2.79 box of chicken drummettes and $3.29 bottle of wine hidden under his shirt. The suspect posted $500 bond and was back in action before the end of the week.

On Friday, Aug. 27, at 2:45 p.m., the same manager caught the same suspect trying to leave the same store with a bottle of the same brand of wine. The only differences: the wine was in his pants and there was no chicken. Police took the suspect back to the same jail where he posted another $500 bond.

The New Friends and Neighbors Club is an example of the many small, specialinterest clubs in Grosse Pointe.

New Friends and Neighbors will celebrate its 20th anniversary this month at a luncheon at the Country Club of Detroit.

From October to April, NF&NC meets monthly for a luncheon and a presentation. Most meetings are at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and are open to all women, even lifelong residents. Monthly excursions are planned to places of interest in the metropolitan Detroit area. The club arranges babysitting too.

"We encourage any woman in Grosse Pointe to attend these luncheons," said Beth Quinn, president. "These meetings are a great way to meet other women because everyone attending is eager to welcome new people." Members are diverse, from full or part-time professionals to stay-at-home Moms.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian David Michalak

Giroux-Michalak

Heather Christine Giroux, daughter of Joseph and Cheryl Caramagno of Grosse Pointe Farms, married Brian David Michalak, son of Ronald and Janet Michalak of Grosse Pointe Woods, on June 5, 1999, at St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

The Rev. Joseph McCormick officiated at the 5:30 p.m. ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The bride wore a floor-length white satin sleeveless gown with a train that featured pearls in an embroidered floral design on the collar, waistline and hemline. She carried a bouquet of white roses and

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Shannon Giroux of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Bridesmaids were Smith and Jennifer Ingrao, both of Columbus, Ohio; and Julie Sander of White Lake. Samantha Michalak of Clinton Township was the junior bridesmaid. Ashley Michalak, also of Clinton Township, was the flower girl.

Attendants wore floor-length maize sleeveless chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Michael Zolik of New York City was the best man.

Groomsmen were Nadeem of Buchanan; and Adam Loosvelt of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Depression: Treat It. Defeat It.

The Pastor's Corner

Our good news

By the Rev. John Corrado Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church

A few years ago I was presented with a daunting task: write a litany for an intergenerational worship service to be held at a continental convention which will capture the beliefs of Unitarians and Universalists.

Got it?

What follows seemed to work, for it has been reprinted and repeated across the country. It certainly applies to what we profess at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Here's our good news:

• We believe there is a place at God's table for each and every child of earth.

• We believe the Giver of Life has been given many names and loves the givers of all of them.

 We are more interested in getting heaven into people now than getting people into heaven later. We believe religious scriptures are open doors rather than sealed vaults. We believe there is some holy writ yet to be writ-

We believe true evangelism is more preaching practiced than practiced preaching. We believe peace and justice are not just words we form with our lips but realities we shape with our lives.

• We believe in one race — the human race.

· We believe we are one with stars and trees and tigers and rivers and all the stuff of life.

We believe our lives are all about growing hearts that love, minds that seek, and hands that

Stressed-out children need down time

By JoAnne Denison Special Writer

Today's children may be following a bit too closely in their parents' footsteps when it comes to having too much to do and not enough time in which to do it.

A recent study by University of Michigan researcher Sandra Hofferth found that since 1981 children under age 12 are spending 30 minutes less a day, on average, in free

There is even clinical evidence suggesting that some stressed-out children show symptoms similar to attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) without actually having the clinical diagnosis. These children typically crave constant movement, have short attention spans and have difficulty entertaining themselves.

Parents need to keep in mind that free play or unstructured playtime can enhance creativity and help children learn social skills.

The origins of this behavior may have begun in infancy. Many wellmeaning parents read everything they could on how to raise the perfect child. They learned that if they regularly stimulated their infants with various sounds, colors and touches they would improve their odds of having an exceptional child.

To a degree, early stimulation does help in brain development. But infants also need quiet time alone to learn self-

Then, beginning as early as elementary school, many children hop on the competitive train that takes them through college and into the work force. They learn early on that getting good grades is a good thing.

Pushing children too hard, however, can simply burn them out. Plus, some children's self-esteem may be tied to how well they perform. They may fear Mom and Dad won't love them as much if they don't do well. Rather than only focusing on a child's accomplishments, it's helpful instead for parents to acknowledge the child's efforts by saying, "You tried your hardest on that test," or "You really swung the bat well that time.'

How much is too much?

How do parents know if they've overscheduled their

That depends on the youngster. Some children may need to limit their involvement to one extracurricular activity at a time during the school year. Doing well in school and having time to complete homework should come first.

However, parents should be careful not to discourage a high-achieving child. Some children are able to handle many tasks, including school, sports and music. In households where there is a high achiever and an average achiever, parents shouldn't compare the two.

Signs of burn out

Children often will give easy-to-read signs that they are involved in too many activities:

• They suddenly may not want to participate in an event they used to really enjoy.

 They may show signs of feeling overwhelmed and unable to get their homework done because they have to practice a sport or a musical instrument.

• Signs of stress may include sleep disturbances,

Don't hesitate to seek professional help

Parents who recognize the above symptoms in a teenager need to pay special attention if they persist. It's normal for teens to be combative and moody, and the need for sleep increases during the teen years because a teenager's body is changing so drastically. But if a teen becomes withdrawn for an extended time, parents need to reach out to him or her. A simple statement like, "You're not interested in things like you were," may open the door for discussion.

If the problem persists, it's wise to seek professional counseling. A clinical social worker or psychologist who specializes in adolescents can easily assess whether the symptoms are part of normal development or something to be concerned about.

Holiday travel — here's how to cut through chaos

Special Writer

Just about now, as you are paging through this section of the Grosse Pointe News, a thought is rattling around in the back of your mind: Should we travel over the coming holidays or shouldn't we?

The new millennium only compounds the question.

It is a dilemma.

The decision is easier when you consider that you probably travel over the holidays for one of two reasons: Either you want to be with people or you want to get away from them!

I asked one of my traveling friends with a wry sense of humor what advice he would give about holiday travel. His answer:

- 1. Don't.
- 2. If you must, try to go a day earlier; return a day later. 3. Book far, far, far in
- 4. Practice one-small-bag packing.
- 5. Buy tickets for friends and/or family to fly and visit you; let them suffer holiday

His advice brings to mind the first rule of holiday travel: Keep your sense of humor!

Why is this so important? Because holiday travel is stressful, particularly for couples, because you both get frazzled and end up taking out your frustrations on each other. You soon discover that whether you are heading home to celebrate Christmas, Chanukah or Kwanzaa, sometimes it is hard to keep the spirit. If this is a holiday honeymoon or you are traveling with children, all of these factors are compounded.

For some folks, holiday trav el is a fact of life; they do it every year. For others, it's an occasional experience and so it is a bit more daunting. Never fear. We'll help you

Here are some tips to keep your holiday travel safe, sane and loving.

• Book flights now. If you haven't already made them, make airline reservations right now. Today!

Otherwise, you will be stuck with overnight "red-eyes" and other odd-timed flights. If you were hoping to use frequent flyer miles, know that most airlines have heavy blackout periods around both

Thanksgiving and Christmas when free tickets cannot be

However, many people do not know the airlines generally do not black out

Thanksgiving day and Christmas day. In fact, flights are often wide-open and airports are empty. If you are heading to the Caribbean for a get-away, for instance, consider leaving late on Christmas day. My family has made a tradition of flying in and out on Christmas day for years because it is so easy. Note my friend's advice: Leave a day earlier, come home a day later, if possible.

 Nail down your seat assignments. The good seats go fast, so get yours early.

• Look for last-minute deals. If your trip is to get away from the holiday brouhaha, then you might check with your travel agent to see if there are any last-minute deals available.

Right about now, most cruise lines and tour operators will be discounting any holiday spaces they have left for this season, especially those much-touted millennium pack-

• Reconfirm all of your arrangements. About a week before your departure, get on the phone and reconfirm all of the details of your trip. Flight times do change; hotels sometimes mistakenly cancel reservations and tour operators change departure times. Double-check your seat assignments. Be sure to carry all of your confirmation slips with you when you travel; they can be invaluable when you are dealing with a surly front desk clerk at midnight. Be sure to take along the home/night phone number of your travel

· Prepare yourselves mentally. Before you ever leave home, the primary players should whip up a platter of pasta, open a bottle of wine and have a serious discussion about how you are going to handle the irritations of the upcoming trip. Agree not to snipe, blame or otherwise aggravate the other. Plan to be mutually supportive, to hold hands a lot and kiss him, her or one of your little darlins whenever you are even thinking of making a nasty comment. Think of some little signal you all can use when you feel tempers begin to rise. (Our family favorite is to strike a yoga pose, with eyes closed and palms up. Invariably, it brings on a laugh and breaks the tension.)

 Get to the airport early. Yes, you've heard it before but it can't be emphasized enough. Parking will be precious. (In fact, get a ride and skip those jammed lots and interminable shuttles altogether.) Flights will be overbooked. (Yes, you could lose your seat.) Weather could delay flights, causing further confusion. Remember that roads get clogged, too.

There is no more secure feeling than to be safely ensconced at the airport, all checked in, boarding passes in your pocket and a Bloody Mary in your hand — some 45 minutes ahead of the flight. Then you can chuckle as you watch all those latecomers scramble for seats. For international flights, get there three hours before and be the first people checked in and avoid those long lines.

Bring a good book. A month before, set aside a book that you have just been dying to read and save it for this trip. Nothing can bail you out during a long wait during travel than a juicy novel. Make sure that everyone with you has one, too.

· Carry food. Unfortunately, the quality of American airline food has deteriorated to a dismal state. Much of it is barely edible and many flights offer no more than a pack of peanuts or pretzels. String a few of those short pretzel flights together and you can encounter some massive hunger pangs. Hunger makes you irritable — just what we don't need in the season of holiday cheer. Then you are left with snatching a hot dog or piece of pizza between gates, which is not particularly satisfying. Instead, bring along some healthy food for your day of travel. Pack a couple of deli sandwiches, fresh fruits, some carrot and celery sticks, gorp or granola bars. Always carry a bottle of water. You'd be amazed how good it all tastes when the munchies hit and how smug you'll be when those around you look on envi-

• Keep baggage to a minimum. If ever you have packed light, this is the time to do it. Remember black and taupe go with everything. Losing baggage is a major pain, especially at this time of year. If you can make do with one roll-on bag, go for it. Airlines are now setting strict limits on carryon baggage so you won't be able to tote all the gifts on board, too. Send gifts ahead. • Try to sleep on the plane. You will be tired but excited, which can make it difficult to sleep. If you have a flight or a drive that is at least a few hours long, consider taking an over-the-counter sleeping medication (doxylamine succinate). Just a half of one of those little 25 mg. tablets will usually help you get to sleep without making you too groggy after you wake up. Bring along one of those funny-looking pillows that fit around your neck, too. They really work.

• Pack a present. Pick out some little thing for your partner and the kids — maybe a CD, a paperback by a favorite author, a funny deck of cards. Jewelry is always a good choice - and take the time to wrap it up purty. Stuff it in your carry-on. Then, when your flight gets canceled, whip it out and present it, with a

It's a sure-fire way to perk up any situation.

 Expect things to go wrong. During the holidays the threat of things going awry is quadrupled. Leave for your trip with the positive attitude that, yes, a few things may go wrong but I'm going to have a wonderful time.

And you will!

When Harry met Betty ...

This is it. The big one. The last official holiday weekend of the summer.

Most of us have digested enough hot dogs and hamburgers to last until 2000. Brace yourself for one more dog. Labor Day has become a holiday that has a different impact on different families, as opposed to many years

Some children have already started back to school. Fall sports are back in full swing. Those of us who are lucky won't have to work on Labor Day and we'll all be juggling our schedules to fit in one last barbecue.

This week's feature is a new take on old cold bean salad that won't take too much time out of your busy weekend. Harry's salad should be made at least one day ahead of serving. My aunt, Betty Wirwille of Detroit recently sent me the

I phoned her to find out who Harry is. Harry Garabedian has been Aunt Betty's next door neighbor for more than 30 years.

> Harry's Salad 1 1/2 cups sugar 1 1/2 cups white wine vinegar 1/2 cup peanut oil 1 15 oz. can of each of the following: wax beans; green beans; butter beans; red kidney beans

1 cup celery, chopped 1 cup onions, chopped 1/2 cup green pepper, chopped

1 2 oz. jar (or 1/2 cup) chopped pimento (you may substitute red pep-

fresh or dried parsley for garnish

Begin by making the dressing. Combine the sugar, vinegar and oil in a medium sauce pan. Bring to a boil and immediately remove from heat, stirring until the sugar is dissolved. Set aside and cool to room temperature.

Meanwhile, chop the onions (white or red will do), the celery and the green pepper. The size of the chop is up to you. However, I suggest chopping by hand rather than using a food processor. Place the chopped veggies in a large sealable container and add the pimento. Open and drain each of the cans of beans and toss into the veggie mix.

When the dressing has cooled to room temperature, pour it over the bean salad. Seal and chill at least for 24 hours

The bean salad will be swimming in the dressing. To serve the cold bean salad transfer the bean mix and some of the dressing (a cup or so) to a serving bowl. Sprinkle with parsley and use a slotted spoon for serv-

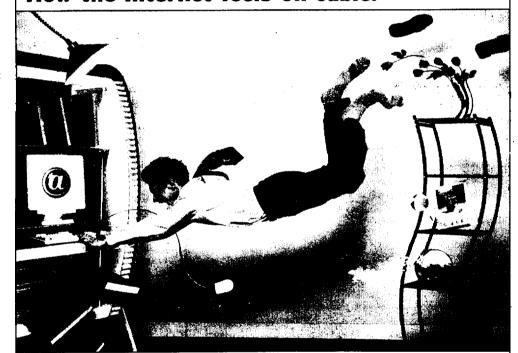

The white wine vinegar gives this mix of beans and vegetables a smooth finish. Don't be afraid to leave this dish out on the buffet table. Harry's salad will bring a needed change of pace to your late summer barbecue. According to Aunt Betty, Harry has been a wonderful neighbor over the years. He is also a great cook who has several other recipes under his hat.

With any luck, I'll get my hands on a few of them.

Enjoy this special recipe at your Labor Day get-together. Of course you'll also need some chips and beer and . . oh yeah . . . some hot dogs.

East got the second half kickoff, but it was three downs and out for the Eagles. ULS got the football and moments later, Maitland put a move on the East cornerback, cut to the outside and raced 48 yards for a touchdown.

Mark Brammer, who was playing his first high school football game, kicked the first of his five extra points.

"That's where we broke their backs," Hills said. "That's how you win football games, by taking the game away from the other team. We've concentrated a lot on focus this year. These kids staved focused throughout the game. We're not going to win with just four or five guys doing the job. We need all 24 guys to do their ULS dominated the first quarter. East ran only four offensive plays in the period, but penalties kept the Knights from taking control of the game even more.

Anthony Legree recovered a fumbled punt to set up ULS' first touchdown on Maitland's nine-yard run.

Legree played well in his first game at quarterback and also keyed the defensive effort from his linebacker position.

"He's the best-conditioned athlete I've coached," Hills said. "He should have been dead tired after the game, but he was sitting in front of his locker with a big smile on his face and said, 'I've never had so much fun.'

Hills praised the play of the Mike Elanges, Ross Lewicki, Andrew Critchell and Chip Fowler. Other strong performances on defense came from Hawasli, Jim McBride and freshman linebacker Leython Williams. The defense forced five turnovers — four fumbles and an interception — while the Knights' offense only turned the ball over once.

Williams received the "bone" award for the hardest hit when he made a jarring tackle on a kickoff return.

Notre Dame scored its only touchdown on a long drive that consumed nearly seven minutes, but South completed its scoring late in the second quarter on a 20-yard pass from Tocco to Lochirco.

The 17-6 halftime lead stood up for the rest of the game, thanks to South's strong defen-

'Notre Dame scored its touchdown on a fourth-down play and in the third quarter they had first and goal from the two and we stopped them," McLeod said.

"We got a lot of outside pressure from our defensive ends -Henderson, James Missant, Fragel and Josh MacEachern - and our inside people also did a good job. Notre Dame likes to run the trap and they weren't successful with it because we were mucking it up inside. Peppler and Hriday Santos did a nice job at linebacker. Once when Hriday injured his finger and had to come out of the game, sophomore Luke Parchment replaced him for five plays and had two tackles for losses.

South had one interception, by Andy Hill, who picked off a pass that was deflected by Mark Yeskey.

McLeod was pleased with the performance of Tocco, who made his first varsity start at quarterback.

"He only threw five passes but completed four of them,' McLeod said. "He also had a couple of nice runs, one where he got a first down."

Wrosch, Matt Jarboe and Michael Prieur shared most of the ball carrying and did a good job. McLeod also said that tight end Doug Liska, who caught one pass, had a good

South will play its first Macomb Area Conference White Division game Friday night at Utica at 7 p.m.

"They're big and they're good," McLeod said of the Chieftains. "If we win this one, we'll win it in the lines.'

Norsemen are early favorites in MAC White

By Chuck Klonke Sports Editor

Grosse Pointe North's football team isn't going to sneak up on anybody this year.

Not that the Norsemen would anyway because the North program has been traditionally one of the strongest on the East Side through the regime of former coach Jim Krucki and for the last 19 seasons, under Frank Sumbera.

But this season, North is pretty well established as the preseason favorite to win the tough Macomb Area Conference White Division.

"We've gotten a lot of pub (publicity), but that doesn't win football games," Sumbera said. "You still have to get the job done on the field.

"This is a tough division with Port Huron, Romeo, Grosse Pointe South, Utica, Sterling Heights and Dakota. I can't point to one league game and say it's going to be easy."

If there is one break for the Norsemen, it's that the non-league schedule isn't quite as tough as it was a year ago when North played MAC Red foes Port Huron Northern, Ford II and Stevenson.

Ford II is on the schedule again this year, but the other non-league games are against Detroit Finney and East Detroit.

North finished 6-3 last season with its defeats coming to Fraser, Ford II and Stevenson. Both Fraser and Stevenson were unbeaten during the regular season in 1998.

Under the new state playoff format, six victories would have qualified the Norsemen for the postseason round, but under last year's old rules, North just missed the playoffs. One of the strengths of this year's North team is experience on offense where Sumbera has eight starters returning, led by senior quarterback Scott Koerber.

"I'm glad he's on my team," Sumbera said of the 6-foot-4, 205pound lefthander. "He's big and strong and runs the option well. His passing has improved, too."

Not that he was bad last year. Koerber passed for 813 yards and six touchdowns. He was also the team ast season with 11 receptions for an 18.3 average per catch. He leads a solid receiving corps that includes Will Sumbera, who averaged 11 yards per catch last year; Michael Luzi, who caught a pair of touchdown passes; and Jason Rusko, who saw spot duty a year ago.

"We have four excellent wideouts and Brian Bigham is back at tight end," coach Sumbera said.

Bigham, a 6-2, 215-pounder, had seven receptions for 230 yards and two touchdowns last season. He is also an excellent blocker.

Brian VanDenBerghe, who moved into the starting lineup at midseason, returns at fullback. He rushed for 235 yards and a pair of touchdowns last well," Sumbera said.

Two players from last year's unbeaten junior varsity squad have been moved to tailback this season. Devin McKenzie was the JV fullback last year, while Bill Dickerman quarterbacked the JVs, but their chances of getting playing time improved with the position switch.

North's offensive line is a blend of experience and youth.

"He has great intelligence and Cleary was North's leading receiver blocking skills," Sumbera said of the 6foot-3 1/2, 255-pounder.

Another veteran is Joe Callies, who moves from tackle to left guard. The 6the defensive line and right now is North's only two-way starter. "We'll have some others who'll play both ways in certain situations and in Joe's case we'll rest him occasionally," Sumbera said. "He won't play every series both ways."

Center is being handled by sophomore Paul Jacobs, a 5-10, 240pounder, who reminds his coach of John Trupiano, who played the position so well the last two seasons.

Carlo Cardani saw some starting action last year and goes into the season as the starter at right guard. Lee Andrus (6-2, 250) moves up from the

Blue Devils are deep in running backs, but small in line

By Chuck Klonke

Sports Editor
There's going to be something of a new look to Grosse Pointe South's offensive backfield this season.

There will be three running backs lined up with quarterback Jack Tocco and any of the three of them could wind up with the football in his hands.

"We have great backs and we have to get them all into the lineup," said Blue Devils coach Mike McLeod. "They have good size — they're almost as big as our linemen — and they're all pretty quick."

Tailback Michael Prieur and fullback Drew Wrosch are a pair of seniors who played on the varsity last year as South posted a 6-3 record that including a season-ending victory over Eisenhower.

Halfback Matt Jarboe is a junior who played on the junior varsity squad a year ago.

South has an experienced offensive

tine, but it's still a youthful group.
Last year's center, Sam Henderson, moves to guard this season while junior Doug Orttenburger takes over at center. Another junior, Mark Fragel, will play one of the tackle positions.

Both Orttenburger and Fragel saw quite a bit of varsity action as sophomores last season.

Rounding out the line are senior guard Brian Krall and either Bill Fortune or Hriday Santos at the other tackle spot. Krall was on the varsity last year, while Fortune and Santos are both up from the junior varsity

Bob Dindoffer is injured, but will see plenty of action on both sides of the line when he returns.

"Our line isn't very big," McLeod said. "Our biggest guy is 240 pounds, but this is the strongest line we've ever had. We have several guys who can squat more than 700 pounds."

There was a three-way battle at quarterback and Tocco, who was the signal-caller on last year's JV team, emerged as the leader.

"He's the most experienced after playing all last year," McLeod said, "but if something should happen to Jack, we shouldn't miss a beat."

Andy Hill, who'll start at free safety, and Andrew Vlasak, who was injured last season, were the others battling for the starting job.

There's also a solid corps of wide receivers with returnees Tony Gatliff and Chris Cotzias and JV graduates Brian Berschback and Paul Lochirco.

Defensively, the Blue Devils will use several players.

"We have always used a lot of people on defense because we want to have as many fresh players as we can," McLeod said. "This year we have one of our biggest squads, too. We have 58 kids out for the varsity. That's the most in a long time."

Henderson returns at defensive end, white Wrosch is a three-year starter at strong safety.

The rest of the defensive corps has some experience, but a lot of the players are fresh off the JV squad.

Among the defensive linemen that McLeod and defensive coordinator Dan Loria will rotate are Lukas Morawski, Matt Garver, Nick Rotondo, Krall, Fortune, Doug Liska, Henderson, James Missant, Fragel, Josh MacEachern, Dindoffer, Jarret Svendsen and Sean O'Sullivan.

McLeod has been impressed with the early performance of Hill at free

"He has looked very good. He really hits," the coach said.

Tocco, George Kordas, Berschback, Lochirco and Mike O'Neill are also going to see a lot of playing time in the secondary.

One of the most pleasant surprises of the preseason has been the play of inside linebackers Mark Peppler and Santos.

"Both are very strong and quick and weigh between 195 and 200 pounds," McLeod said. "Santos takes after his brother (Shanta)." The outside linebackers are Julian Danko, who will also back up Wrosch at fullback, and Justin Mitchelson.

Most offensive linemen can only dream of moving to a position where they get to carry the football.

In the case of University Liggett School's Anthony Legree, the has become reality.

"He's going to be our quarters and Knights coach Gary Hills. "We wondered how we were going to replace A.J. (Stachecki) but when I saw Anthony throw the football at the end of last season, I knew we had our man."

Legree has never played quarterback before this season. He has been a starting guard at ULS since his freshman year and last year was an all-Metro Conference selection as an offensive guard and linebacker.

But now he's going to be the triggerman for the ULS offense and Hills and offensive coordinator Tracy Sewell aren't the least bit concerned that Legree will make the transition.

"He's looking good," Hills said. "He lives and breathes football so he'll know what's going on."

Hills dreamed all summer about seeing Legree lead the Knights' sweep.

"He's 6-3, 195 pounds and runs a 4.75 (for 40 yards)," Hills said. "I can't wait to see him lead the blocking on the sweep. When he hits the cornerback for the first time, he's not going to want any part of Anthony the next time.

want any part of Anthony the next time.

"Then all Nick (Maitland) or Charles (Lowe) have to do is just make sure they stay in bounds."

Hills said that the players like the idea of Legree playing quarterback.

"It has everybody excited," the coach said. "They know he has a strong arm. The linemen love it, too. Now they're protecting one of their guys."

Hills is pleased with his backfield.
Maitland and Lowe provide the speed,
while Jim McBride and Jack Elsey will
share fullback duties.

McBride is still a relative newcomer to football but Hills envisions him as a two-way force for the Knights before the season ends.

"He can be a 6-1, 235-pound full-back," Hills said. "He's worked hard to improve himself. I'll predict right now that he'll be an all-league defensive tackle."

ULS has a solid corps of receivers in flanker Waref Hawasli, split end Matt Benca and tight end Trevor Broad. Elsey can also play at one of the receiver spots.

"We moved Waref to flanker from split end in order to get him more involved in the offense," Hills said of his leading receiver from last season.

The offensive line is solid, but there are some concerns.

"We have no depth at all," Hills said.
"Until we get people back from injuries, we have several positions where there are no backups. But the one advantage we have is that everyone in the line knows the other positions."

The line is anchored by senior center Chip Fowler, a 5-11, 225-pounder who was a starter a year ago.

Right now, Lewicki is the only offensive lineman who isn't going both ways, but that could change when Colin Fenton and C.T. Charlton return from injuries.

The Knights' defense will have a few new wrinkles this seasaon.

"We're going back to the 4-4 we used in our championship year (1997)," Hills said. "We have the line-backers to do it. The kids are excited about it. The juniors and seniors remember that we used it when we won and the sophomores and freshmen have heard them talk about how effective it was, so they're confident in

Others who will provide depth are first-year senior Fielding Fleming, a 6-5, 150-pound tight end, sophomore Nick Benca, and freshmen Curtis Lowe, Audi Moss, Ayhern Hawasli and Chris Metry.

"It might take us a couple of games to get things rolling, but I think we can have a good team," Hills said. "These kids have a great attitude. This is the best group I've had as far as living and breathing football goes.

"We're in great shape, too. Ken Welch has done a great job with the conditioning. There's not a fat kid on the team. We'll be strong for four quarters."

Sports Editor The Harper Woods football team is geared up for what hopefully will be another banner season.

"We believe we can play with every team on our schedule, even though we had to fill some big shoes," head coach John Moher said. "I think we have a fine football team and our goal is to win them all, but of course we'll take them one at a time and not get ahead of our-

They were 8-1 overall, but lost to Unionville-Sebewaing in the first round of the state playoffs to finish 8-2.

"We've made the playoffs four years in a row, but now we want to take a step further and get to at least the second round," Moher said.

Leading the charge is an experienced offensive line consisting of junior tight end Jason Rhoades (6-feet, 2 inches, 200 pounds), junior guard Steve Rhodes (6-feet even, 225 pounds), junior center Matt Barranca (6-feet, 1 inch, 280 pounds), senior guard Bill Vlahakis (5-feet, 8 inches, 190 pounds), junior tackle Mitch Stachaunis (5-feet, 10 inches, 220

pounds) and sophomore Anthony DiSantis (5-feet, 10 inches, 150 pounds) will rotate at runningback. Junior Mike Whateley (6-feet, 1 inch, 175 pounds) is the split end for the Pioneers' run-oriented offense. Junior wingback Ryan Deramo (5-feet, 7 inches, 165 pounds), and senior Jason Otto are also an important piece in the offensive puzzle.

"I know our offensive line will control the line of scrimmage," Moher said. "We want to grind out the yards and control the clock, which wears out a defense, especially in the second half."

Lutz anxious to get Cavs' football on winning track

By Bob St. John

Don Lutz takes over as the head coach of South Lake's varsity football

For the past few seasons, he was an assistant coach, but after Don Roda left, he took the reigns.

"I'm looking forward to the season," Lutz said. "We have some good kids who are working hard and enthusiastic."

Things can only get better for the Cavaliers, who suffered through a 2-7 overall record last season, including 0-7 in the Macomb Area Conference (MAC) Silver Division.

"Last year wasn't much fun," senior John Danta said. "Things didn't go too well, but now, we have another chance to get back to winning."

Danta (6-feet, 3 inches, 280 pounds) is one of the division's top lineman, who will team with senior Jeff Schueler (6-feet, 2 inches, 290 pounds) to form a strong blocking tandem.

"We have some solid lineman with whom to run our offense behind," Lutz said. "Keeping the defense away from our quarterback and tailbacks is going to be a key to our success."

Senior offensive guard/nose tackle Sam Paciero, who was all-county and all-league first team last season, and junior quarterback Jon Ren have stepped into the leadership roles for

"Sam and Jon are the team captains them," Lutz said. "The team lacked leadership last season and it hurt in our overall scheme."

Senior Luke Smigels (6-feet, 3 inches, 200 pounds) is a strong tight end, and the duo of juniors Frank Buonbrisco and Neal Angst will share the tailback duties.

Senior Chris Jens is the starting fullback and defensive end, who will use his speed and strength to excel at both positions.

Seniors Sam Vacante and Jason Sorgeloos give the Cavaliers a lot of heart. Both players will be looked upon to deliver the big hit and make the big catch late in games.

South Lake scored only 113 points (12.5 a game) last year, which included being shutout twice (49-0 by Warren Fitzgerald and 28-0 by Richmond).

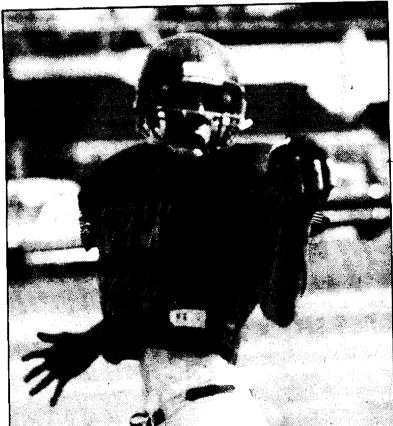

Ren is a mobile quarterback who has a solid throwing arm. His athletic talents will be an asset for the team.

"Offensively, we have to move the ball and control the clock," Lutz said. "We fell behind too many times last year and had to throw the ball the entire second half, which is tough to do for high school programs."

The Cavaliers plan to utilize the Iformation, but they will also spread things out to give the defense something else to look at.

"We have to keep the defense guessing," Lutz said. "Jon's versatility makes the offense better." Defensively, the Cavs will play a 4-4

Center Line is the favorite to win the Silver Division, but the rest of the playing field is pretty even.

We have to play well in every game to win, which is true for every team," Lutz said. "Mistakes cost us last season and our opponents took advantage of those and turned them into touchdowns."

South Lake has only eight scheduled games, but four of those are home against league opponents.

In non-league games, the Cavs travel to city rival Lakeview for the season opener and St. Clair for the season finale.

"I think we can win football games," Danta said. "We're practicing hard and we do have a team with some good athletes. "We just need to play better."

The South Lake football team will have played one game when this edition is printed, but next on the schedule is its home opener on Friday, Sept. 3, against Lincoln.

Three years ago, during week No. 8 of the 1996-97 season, the Cavaliers blasted Lincoln 27-6 to earn a share of the MAC/MOAC championship.

South Lake, Lincoln and Center Line each finished 2-1 in the division, which also included Warren Fitzgerald.

That was the season after the Macomb Oakland Area Conference disbanded and South Lake re-entered the MAC.

Lutheran East looks to sure-up defense in '99 season

By Bob St. John

The Lutheran East football team suffered through a 1-8 record a year ago, including a 1-7 mark in the Metro Conference.

Long-time head coach Bruce Tuomi saw few bright spots during the season as mistakes, turnovers and penalties allowed the opposition to score 38 points per game.

They gave up 41 points to Cranbrook Kingswood, 36 to University Liggett School, 49 to Livonia Clarenceville, 42 to Marine City Cardinal Mooney and 54 to Hamtramck.

"We moved the ball, but allowed the opposition to score too many points," Tuomi said. "Everyone worked hard in the off-season and we're confident the extra work will pay off on the field."

The offense scored 188 points (20.9 per game), which was enough to win more than one game.

"We have some experienced kids coming back and that will help the offense produce points," he said.

Seniors runningback's Steve Lewis (5-feet, 11 inches, 160 pounds) and Robert Quinnie (5-feet, 8 inches, 170 pounds) each ran for more than 400 yards a year ago, while junior David Pokiey (6-feet, 2 inches, 200 pounds) will start at tight end.

Junior Drew Jablonowski (6-feet, 2 inches, 240 pounds) and senior David Budowick (6-feet, 3 inches, 270 pounds) are returning starters who will strengthen the offensive line, while seniors Alex Kyler (6-feet, 1 inch, 160 pounds) and Alex Furchak (5-feet, 10 inches, 150 pounds) are back at wide receiver.

"We're not deep, which means we can't afford injuries," Tuomi said. "These kids want to win because they're not satisfied with last year's results."

Junior Jon Kollar (5-feet, 10 inches) gets the starting nod at quarterback. He led the Eagles to their only win a year ago.

"We're behind a week because of in the same boat," Tuomi said. "We have some experienced kids who have worked hard and our junior varsity has 25 kids, 19 of which are freshmen.

"Our overall numbers are up, but we carry only 18 players on the varsity."

Defending league co-champions Harper Woods and Lutheran North are both strong again, while Hamtramck and Livonia Clarenceville are improved.

"Every team is improved from a year ago." Tuomi said. "I think all of the teams in our conference have done some good things to get better."

The new playoff format means six wins and you're in, but can the Eagles get the six victories?

"We want to be competitive," Tuomi said. "Our goal is to play better than last year and take our schedule one game at a time."

The Eagles play eight league games and they host Detroit Benedictine on Friday, Sept. 3, in their home opener. "We have some tough games at the early start, but I think every team is home, which will be in our favor," Tuomi said. "We expect to be a better overall team, especially defensively."

Lutheran East's season finale is set for Friday, Oct. 22, at home against city rival Harper Woods.

The Eagles hold a huge advantage in the all-time series, but Harper Woods has had the upper hand in recent years.

"Playing Harper Woods is always a big game for us, but it's been in their favor recently," Tuomi said. "It's a very hard-hitting, but clean game that usually is played early in the season.

"It's going to be nice to play them in the final game of the season and hopefully, a playoff position will be on the line."

The Lutheran East football team opened its season last Friday against University Liggett School, but next on the schedule is the home game against Benedictine.

Each of the nine Metro Conference squads play nonconference games against Catholic League schools.

The Fightin' Irish haven't had a winning season in more than a decade, including last year's 3-6 overall mark.

They ended the season on a high note, beating Pontiac Notre Dame Prep in the final two weeks. They started the year 0-5, but beat Bishop Foley 35-24 in week No. 6.

"We put $10,000 into new weight training equipment, paint and other stuff for the weight room, which hopefully will get more kids interested in athletics," Belcrest said.

Belcrest turned Hamtramck St. Florian's program around, leading them to two Prep Bowl's and Warren Mott, which won a Macomb Area Conference (MAC) title after beating Grosse Pointe North.

"We can do the same thing here at Notre Dame, but we need discipline and the will to win," Belcrest said. "I want the guys to have fun, but to take pride in themselves, their teammates, teachers, friends and family."

A young offensive line is going to have to play well, protecting senior quarterback Carl Saad. Senior Nick Ventimiglia will play split end, while senior Brian Greaves is the tight end.

First-year players Joe Morasso, Tim Baywai and Clarence Barrett, all seniors, will play in the backfield, while junior Phil Cartin (6-feet, 3 inches, 235 pounds) is one of the new young guns who will block for the senior trio.

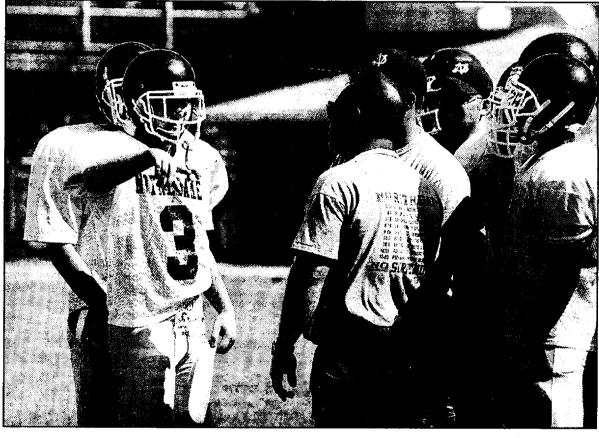

"Our offensive and defensive linemen will not go both ways," Belcrest said. "We need freshman linemen in the second half to compete with the likes of Brother Rice and St. Mary."

A year ago, the Irish averaged only 15.1 points a game, while giving up 24.7.

"Our defense is way ahead of the offense in terms of execution, but that's to be expected due to the week less of practice we get before the opener," Belcrest said. "Defenses and turnovers are going to dominated the season openers."

The Irish will now run a pro-style offense, which should produce more than two touchdowns a game.

Defensively, Belcrest will implement the 4-3. Three of the four defensive

"We need to be aggressive and force teams to change their game plan," Belcrest said. "We play some tough teams, but the competition will make us better."

Notre Dame finished 1-3 last year in the Catholic Central East Division, losing 47-14 to Orchard Lake St. Mary, 23-12 to arch rival Warren DeLaSalle and 35-0 to Birmingham Brother Rice.

As mentioned, their only league win was over Bishop Foley.

"We would love to get a shot at the Prep Bowl, but we're going to have to play some solid football and not kill ourselves with poor play."

The last Notre Dame gridiron division-winning team was in 1976.

"It's been far too long since Notre Dame was able to stand tall and win a division title," Belcrest said. "We want to change that."

St. Mary and Brother Rice should battle for the division title, while Belcrest's squad has the potential to be .500 or better in the Central East.

"We have a tough stretch of games that will show us what kind of team we have," Beicrest said. "But right now backs return, which will help keep the we're concentrating on a tough opener

Norsemen are early favorites in MAC White

By Chuck Klonke

Sports Editor

Grosse Pointe North's football team isn't going to sneak up on anybody this year.

Not that the Norsemen would anyway because the North program has been traditionally one of the strongest on the East Side through the regime of former coach Jim Krucki and for the last 19 seasons, under Frank Sumbera.

But this season, North is pretty well established as the preseason favorite to win the tough Macomb Area Conference White Division.

"We've gotten a lot of pub (publicity), but that doesn't win football games," Sumbera said. "You still have to get the job done on the field.

"This is a tough division with Port Huron, Romeo, Grosse Pointe South, Utica, Sterling Heights and Dakota. I can't point to one league game and say it's going to be easy."

If there is one break for the Norsemen, it's that the non-league schedule isn't quite as tough as it was a year ago when North played MAC Red foes Port Huron Northern, Ford II and Stevenson.

Ford II is on the schedule again this year, but the other non-league games are against Detroit Finney and East Detroit.

North finished 6-3 last season with its defeats coming to Fraser, Ford II and Stevenson. Both Fraser and Stevenson were unbeaten during the regular season in 1998.

Under the new state playoff format, six victories would have qualified the Norsemen for the postseason round, but under last year's old rules, North just missed the playoffs.

One of the strengths of this year's North team is experience on offense where Sumbera has eight starters returning, led by senior quarterback Scott Koerber.

"I'm glad he's on my team," Sumbera said of the 6-foot-4, 205-pound lefthander. "He's big and strong and runs the option well. His passing has improved, too."

Not that he was bad last year. Koerber passed for 813 yards and six touchdowns. He was also the team leader in rushing touchdowns with six. Koerber also punted for a 37.5 average.

Koerber's backup could probably start for most high school football teams. Junior K.C. Cleary is going to see plenty of action as a receiver and defensive back, but if something should happen to Koerber, he'd step in as quarterback.

"I just wish there had been two years between the two of them instead of just one," Sumbera said. "K.C. went to the All-American quarterback camp at Albion during the summer and impressed everyone there."

Cleary was North's leading receiver last season with 11 receptions for an 18.3 average per catch. He leads a solid receiving corps that includes Will Sumbera, who averaged 11 yards per catch last year; Michael Luzi, who caught a pair of touchdown passes; and Jason Rusko, who saw spot duty a year ago.

"We have four excellent wideouts and Brian Bigham is back at tight end," coach Sumbera said.

Bigham, a 6-2, 215-pounder, had seven receptions for 230 yards and two touchdowns last season. He is also an excellent blocker.

Brian VanDenBerghe, who moved into the starting lineup at midseason, returns at fullback. He rushed for 235 yards and a pair of touchdowns last year.

"He's running well and blocking well," Sumbera said.

Two players from last year's unbeaten junior varsity squad have been moved to tailback this season. Devin McKenzie was the JV fullback last year, while Bill Dickerman quarter-backed the JVs, but their chances of getting playing time improved with the position switch.

North's offensive line is a blend of experience and youth.

"He has great intelligence and blocking skills," Sumbera said of the 6-foot-3 1/2, 255-pounder.

Another veteran is Joe Callies, who moves from tackle to left guard. The 6-3, 242-pound Callies is also a fixture in the defensive line and right now is North's only two-way starter.

"We'll have some others who'll play both ways in certain situations and in Joe's case we'll rest him occasionally," Sumbera said. "He won't play every series both ways."

Center is being handled by sophomore Paul Jacobs, a 5-10, 240-pounder, who reminds his coach of John Trupiano, who played the position so well the last two seasons.

Carlo Cardani saw some starting action last year and goes into the season as the starter at right guard. Lee Andrus (6-2, 250) moves up from the JV team to take over at right tackle.

Andrew Rabe and Dave Kapoor also figure to see quite a bit of playing time in the offensive line.

Defensively, the Norsemen are most experienced in the secondary where starters Phil Kozlowski and Cleary lead a group that also includes converted linebacker Josh Dry and Jimmy Ellis, who saw a lot of action in a back-up role last season and started one game.

Kozlowski was one of the key members of North's defense last year as he made 38 tackles from his safety position.

Steve Hardin provides depth at both wide receiver and in the defensive secondary, while Dickerman might also see action at defensive back.

Inside linebackers are Rob Karlik, a backup last season, and a pair of JV graduates, Donovan Wright and Chandon Waller.

North's down linemen on defense will include Callies, who is the only one with varsity starting exper earn a spot as the place kicker.

"He tried out last year, but we had Gene Baratta so Chris played soccer," Sumbera said. "We're glad to have him back. He can kick field goals from inside 40 yards and he's decent on kickoffs."

Blue Devils are deep in running backs, but small in line

By Chuck Klonke

Sports Editor

There's going to be something of a new look to Grosse Pointe South's offensive backfield this season.

There will be three running backs lined up with quarterback Jack Tocco and any of the three of them could wind up with the football in his hands.

"We have great backs and we have to get them all into the lineup," said Blue Devils coach Mike McLeod. "They have good size — they're almost as big as our linemen — and they're all pretty quick."

Tailback Michael Prieur and fullback Drew Wrosch are a pair of seniors who played on the varsity last year as South posted a 6-3 record that including a season-ending victory over Eisenhower.

Halfback Matt Jarboe is a junior who played on the junior varsity squad a vear ago.

year ago.
South has an experienced offensive line, but it's still a youthful group.

Last year's center, Sam Henderson, moves to guard this season while junior Doug Orttenburger takes over at center. Another junior, Mark Fragel, will play one of the tackle positions.

Both Orttenburger and Fragel saw quite a bit of varsity action as sophomores last season.

Rounding out the line are senior guard Brian Krall and either Bill Fortune or Hriday Santos at the other tackle spot. Krall was on the varsity last year, while Fortune and Santos are both up from the junior varsity squad.

Bob Dindoffer is injured, but will see plenty of action on both sides of the line when he returns.

"Our line isn't very big," McLeod said. "Our biggest guy is 240 pounds, but this is the strongest line we've ever had. We have several guys who can squat more than 700 pounds."

There was a three-way battle at quarterback and Tocco, who was the signal-caller on last year's JV team, emerged as the leader.

"He's the most experienced after playing all last year," McLeod said, "but if something should happen to Jack, we shouldn't miss a beat."

Andy Hill, who'll start at free safety, and Andrew Vlasak, who was injured last season, were the others battling for the starting job.

There's also a solid corps of wide receivers with returnees Tony Gatliff and Chris Cotzias and JV graduates Brian Berschback and Paul Lochirco.

Defensively, the Blue Devils will use several players.

"We have always used a lot of people on defense because we want to have as many fresh players as we can," McLeod said. "This year we have one of our biggest squads, too. We have 58 kids out for the varsity. That's the most in a long time."

Henderson returns at defensive end, while Wrosch is a three-year starter at strong safety.

The rest of the defensive corps has some experience, but a lot of the players are fresh off the JV squad.

Among the defensive linemen that McLeod and defensive coordinator Dan Loria will rotate are Lukas Morawski, Matt Garver, Nick Rotondo, Krall, Fortune, Doug Liska, Henderson, James Missant, Fragel, Josh MacEachern, Dindoffer, Jarret Svendsen and Sean O'Sullivan.

McLeod has been impressed with the early performance of Hill at free safety. "He has looked very good. He really hits." the coach said.

Tocco, George Kordas, Berschback, Lochirco and Mike O'Neill are also going to see a lot of playing time in the secondary.

One of the most pleasant surprises of the preseason has been the play of inside linebackers Mark Peppler and Santos.

"Both are very strong and quick and weigh between 195 and 200 pounds," McLeod said. "Santos takes after his brother (Shanta)."

The outside linebackers are Julian Danko, who will also back up Wrosch at fullback, and Justin Mitchelson.

Don Martz, who grew up in South Africa, is battling with O'Neill and Vlasak for the nod at punter, while Peppler, O'Neill and Russell Linclau-Miller will do the kicking.

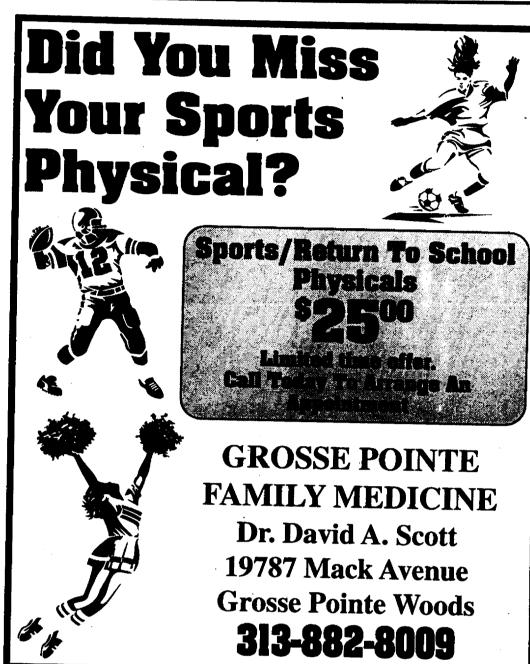

"I've been real pleased with our strength program," McLeod said. "We've also added some equipment to improve our speed and that seems to be paying off."

Among newcomers to the coaching staff are veteran offensive coordinator Don Stuckey, who has some 40 years of coaching experience, and his son, Steve.

"The experience of those two is going to be a big help," McLeod said.

Ex-lineman turned QB gives ULS a new look on offense

By Chuck Klonke

Sports Editor

Most offensive linemen can only dream of moving to a position where they get to carry the football.

In the case of University Liggett School's Anthony Legree, the has become reality.

"He's going to be our quarters and Knights coach Gary Hills. "We wondered how we were going to replace A.J. (Stachecki) but when I saw Anthony throw the football at the end of last season, I knew we had our man."

Legree has never played quarterback before this season. He has been a starting guard at ULS since his freshman year and last year was an all-Metro Conference selection as an offensive guard and linebacker.

But now he's going to be the triggerman for the ULS offense and Hills and offensive coordinator Tracy Sewell aren't the least bit concerned that Legree will make the transition.

"He's looking good," Hills said. "He lives and breathes football so he'll know what's going on."

Hills dreamed all summer about seeing Legree lead the Knights' sweep.

"He's 6-3, 195 pounds and runs a 4.75 (for 40 yards)," Hills said. "I can't wait to see him lead the blocking on the sweep. When he hits the cornerback for the first time, he's not going to want any part of Anthony the next time.

"Then all Nick (Maitland) or Charles (Lowe) have to do is just make sure they stay in bounds."

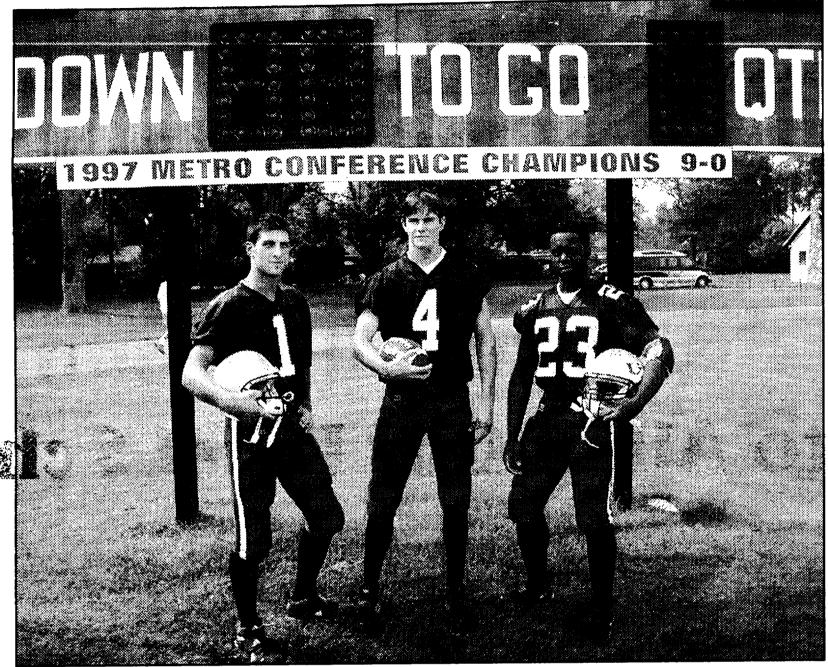

Hills said that the players like the idea of Legree playing quarterback.

"It has everybody excited," the coach said. "They know he has a strong arm. The linemen love it, too. Now they're protecting one of their guys."

Hills is pleased with his backfield.
Maitland and Lowe provide the speed,
while Jim McBride and Jack Elsey will
share fullback duties.

McBride is still a relative newcomer to football but Hills envisions him as a two-way force for the Knights before the season ends.

"He can be a 6-1, 235-pound full-back," Hills said. "He's worked hard to improve himself. I'll predict right now that he'll be an all-league defensive tackle."

Flanker Waref Hawasli (1), quarterback Anthony Legree (4) and running back Nick Maitland are three of the four captains who'll lead University Liggett School's football team this year. Missing from the photo is lineman Mike Elanges.

ULS has a solid corps of receivers in flanker Waref Hawasli, split end Matt Benca and tight end Trevor Broad. Elsey can also play at one of the receiver spots.

"We moved Waref to flanker from split end in order to get him more involved in the offense," Hills said of his leading receiver from last season.

The offensive line is solid, but there are some concerns.

"We have no depth at all," Hills said.
"Until we get people back from injuries, we have several positions where there are no backups. But the one advantage we have is that everyone in the line knows the other positions."

The line is anchored by senior center Chip Fowler, a 5-11, 225-pounder who was a starter a year ago.

Right now, Lewicki is the only offensive lineman who isn't going both ways, but that could change when Colin Fenton and C.T. Charlton return from injuries.

The Knights' defense will have a few new wrinkles this seasaon.

"We're going back to the 4-4 we used in our championship year (1997)," Hills said. "We have the line-backers to do it. The kids are excited about it. The juniors and seniors remember that we used it when we won and the sophomores and freshmen have heard them talk about how effective it was, so they're confident in it."

Fowler, Legree, Elsey and freshman Leython Williams are going to be the starting linebackers.

Hills predicted a bright future for Williams.

"I've never had a faster linebacker and at 5-10 and 200 pounds, he isn't afraid to hit people," Hills said. "He reminds me of LT (Lawrence Taylor). He's a freshman who can make an immediate impact on our team."

The front four includes Lowe and Critchell at the ends and McBride, Metry and Elanges at tackle.

Hawasli returns to play free safety, while Jeff Legree and Benca are the cornerbacks. Maitland could also see a lot of time in the secondary before the season ends.

Broad returns as the punter, while Mark Brammer takes over the place-kicking chores.

Others who will provide depth are first-year senior Fielding Fleming, a 6-5, 150-pound tight end, sophomore Nick Benca, and freshmen Curtis Lowe, Audi Moss, Ayhem Hawasli and Chris Metry.

"It might take us a couple of games to get things rolling, but I think we can have a good team," Hills said. "These kids have a great attitude. This is the best group I've had as far as living and breathing football goes.

"We're in great shape, too. Ken Welch has done a great job with the conditioning. There's not a fat kid on the team. We'll be strong for four quarters."

Harper Woods gets 'defensive' about playoff drive

By Bob St. John Sports Editor

The Harper Woods football team is geared up for what hopefully will be another banner season.

"We believe we can play with every team on our schedule, even though we had to fill some big shoes," head coach. John Moher said. "I think we have a fine football team and our goal is to win them all, but of course we'll take them one at a time and not get ahead of ourself."

Last year, the Pioneers earned a share of the Metro Conference title, pounds) and senior tackle Butch Schoof (6-feet, 4 inches, 301 pounds).

"The offensive line is the strength of the team," Moher said. "They're going to have to protect our quarterback and open some nice holes for our runningbacks to gain some yardage."

Junior Ryan Wise (5-feet, 11 inches, 180 pounds) takes over the quarter-back duties from his brother Shaun, who graduated in June.

In the backfield, junior Justin Datillio (5-feet, 11 inches, 180 pounds) is the fullback, while senior Ryan Sullivan (6-feet even, 180 pounds), junior Vinny

"Lutheran North always has a ton of kids and Hamtramck has (Aaron) Brock back, who rushed for 2,000 yards last year," Moher said. "There's no question we are one of the teams to beat, but overall, our conference is improved and it will take a solid offensive and defensive game to win."

A year ago, the Pioneers scored 302 points, averaging 30.2 per game, and they gave up 167 points (16.7 per game).

"The game's at our place, which will generate a good-size crowd. We're looking forward to the challenge."

finishing 7-1, along with Lutheran North.

They were 8-1 overall, but lost to Unionville-Sebewaing in the first round of the state playoffs to finish 8-2.

"We've made the playoffs four years in a row, but now we want to take a step further and get to at least the second round," Moher said.

Leading the charge is an experienced offensive line consisting of junior tight end Jason Rhoades (6-feet, 2 inches, 200 pounds), junior guard Steve Rhodes (6-feet even, 225 pounds), junior center Matt Barranca (6-feet, 1 inch, 280 pounds), senior guard Bill Vlahakis (5-feet, 8 inches, 190 pounds), junior tackle Mitch Stachaunis (5-feet, 10 inches, 220

Scalabrino (5-feet, 7 inches, 145 pounds) and sophomore Anthony DiSantis (5-feet, 10 inches, 150 pounds) will rotate at runningback.

Junior Mike Whateley (6-feet, 1 inch, 175 pounds) is the split end for the Pioneers' run-oriented offense. Junior wingback Ryan Deramo (5-feet, 7 inches, 165 pounds), and senior Jason Otto are also an important piece in the offensive puzzle.

"I know our offensive line will control the line of scrimmage," Moher said. "We want to grind out the yards and control the clock, which wears out a defense, especially in the second half."

Harper Woods is once again the king of the conference, but Hamtramck points (13 per game) in the nine regular season games, but yielded 50 in the loss to Unionville-Sebewaing.

"Defense wins football games," Moher said. "Our kids take a lot of pride in their ability to stop opponents.

"Offensively, we don't have the explosive back like Aaron Cooper from last year, but our backs will get the job done because the offensive line will open a lot of holes for them."

Harper Woods' non conference game is against Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes on Friday, Sept. 24, at home under the lights.

The Harper Woods football team played its season opener last week; next on the schedule is the home opener on Friday, Sept. 3, against Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook Kingswood.

Harper Woods, which struggled to even post a winning record from its inception as a varsity sport in the mid 1950s, has an overall record of 32-9 over the past four campaigns.

The Pioneers won their first-ever playoff game against Brown City, but has lost the next four.

Lutz anxious to get Cavs' football on winning track

By Bob St. John Sports Editor

Don Lutz takes over as the head coach of South Lake's varsity football

For the past few seasons, he was an assistant coach, but after Don Roda left, he took the reigns.

"I'm looking forward to the season," Lutz said. "We have some good kids who are working hard and enthusiastic."

Things can only get better for the Cavaliers, who suffered through a 2-7 overall record last season, including 0-7 in the Macomb Area Conference (MAC) Silver Division.

"Last year wasn't much fun," senior John Danta said. "Things didn't go too well, but now, we have another chance to get back to winning."

Danta (6-feet, 3 inches, 280 pounds) is one of the division's top lineman, who will team with senior Jeff Schueler (6-feet, 2 inches, 290 pounds) to form a strong blocking tandem.

"We have some solid lineman with whom to run our offense behind," Lutz said. "Keeping the defense away from our quarterback and tailbacks is going to be a key to our success."

Senior offensive guard/nose tackle Sam Paciero, who was all-county and all-league first team last season, and junior quarterback Jon Ren have stepped into the leadership roles for Lutz.

"Sam and Jon are the team captains and I know the team will follow behind them," Lutz said. "The team lacked leadership last season and it hurt in our overall scheme."

Senior Luke Smigels (6-feet, 3 inches, 200 pounds) is a strong tight end, and the duo of juniors Frank Buonbrisco and Neal Angst will share the tailback duties.

Senior Chris Jens is the starting fullback and defensive end, who will use his speed and strength to excel at both positions.

Seniors Sam Vacante and Jason Sorgeloos give the Cavaliers a lot of heart. Both players will be looked upon to deliver the big hit and make the big catch late in games.

South Lake scored only 113 points (12.5 a game) last year, which included being shutout twice (49-0 by Warren Fitzgerald and 28-0 by Richmond).

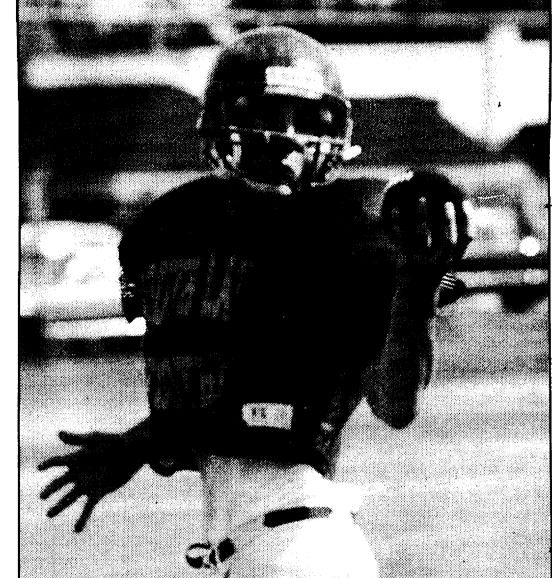

Ren is a mobile quarterback who has a solid throwing arm. His athletic talents will be an asset for the team.

"Offensively, we have to move the ball and control the clock," Lutz said. "We fell behind too many times last year and had to throw the ball the entire second half, which is tough to do for high school programs."

The Cavaliers plan to utilize the Iformation, but they will also spread things out to give the defense something else to look at.

"We have to keep the defense guessing," Lutz said. "Jon's versatility makes the offense better."

Defensively, the Cavs will play a 4-4

Junior Jon Ren, above, moves from wide receiver to quarterback this season in the hopes of leading the South Lake football team back to the .500 mark.

or 5-2, depending on the situation.

Last season, they gave up 240 points (26.7 a game), including 226 (32.3 a game) in their seven league losses.

South Lake beat Lake Shore 27-14 and Detroit Urban Lutheran 35-6 last season.

Unfortunately, injuries and bickering set the team into a tailspin toward the final few weeks of the season.

"We're on the same page this year," Lutz said. "Things got a little crazy last year, but the guys on the field are hungry to win football games."

South Lake remains in the MAC Silver Division with Lincoln, Mount Clemens and Algonac. Center Line and Clintondale dropped down from the Gold Division, while St. Clair and Lakeview moved up.

"Our schedule is familiar to us, which will help in game preparations," Lutz said. "We are anxious to start the season."

Center Line is the favorite to win the Silver Division, but the rest of the playing field is pretty even.

"We have to play well in every game to win, which is true for every team," Lutz said. "Mistakes cost us last season and our opponents took advantage of those and turned them into touchdowns."

South Lake has only eight scheduled games, but four of those are home against league opponents.

In non-league games, the Cavs travel to city rival Lakeview for the season opener and St. Clair for the season finale.

"I think we can win football games," Danta said. "We're practicing hard and we do have a team with some good athletes.

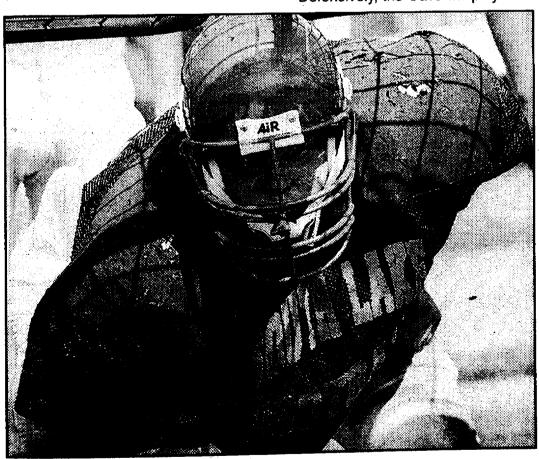

"We just need to play better."

The South Lake football team will have played one game when this edition is printed, but next on the schedule is its home opener on Friday, Sept. 3, against Lincoln.

Three years ago, during week No. 8 of the 1996-97 season, the Cavaliers blasted Lincoln 27-6 to earn a share of the MAC/MOAC championship.

South Lake, Lincoln and Center Line each finished 2-1 in the division, which also included Warren Fitzgerald.

That was the season after the Macomb Oakland Area Conference disbanded and South Lake re-entered the MAC.

The Lutheran East football team suffered through a 1-8 record a year ago, including a 1-7 mark in the Metro

Long-time head coach Bruce Tuomi saw few bright spots during the season as mistakes, turnovers and penalties allowed the opposition to score 38 points per game.

They gave up 41 points to Cranbrook Kingswood, 36 to University Liggett School, 49 to Livonia Clarenceville, 42 to Marine City Cardinal Mooney and 54 to Hamtramck.

"We moved the ball, but allowed the opposition to score too many points," Tuomi said. "Everyone worked hard in the off-season and we're confident the extra work will pay off on the field."

The offense scored 188 points (20.9 per game), which was enough to win more than one game.

"We have some experienced kids coming back and that will help the offense produce points," he said.

Seniors runningback's Steve Lewis (5-feet, 11 inches, 160 pounds) and Robert Quinnie (5-feet, 8 inches, 170 pounds) each ran for more than 400 yards a year ago, while junior David Pokley (6-feet, 2 inches, 200 pounds) will start at tight end.

Junior Drew Jablonowski (6-feet, 2 inches, 240 pounds) and senior David Budowick (6-feet, 3 inches, 270 pounds) are returning starters who will strengthen the offensive line, while seniors Alex Kyler (6-feet, 1 inch, 160 pounds) and Alex Furchak (5-feet, 10 inches, 150 pounds) are back at wide receiver.

"We're not deep, which means we can't afford injuries," Tuomi said. "These kids want to win because they're not satisfied with last year's results."

Junior Jon Kollar (5-feet, 10 inches) gets the starting nod at quarterback. He led the Eagles to their only win a year ago.

"We're behind a week because of the early start, but I think every team is in the same boat," Tuomi said. "We have some experienced kids who have worked hard and our junior varsity has 25 kids, 19 of which are freshmen.

"Our overall numbers are up, but we carry only 18 players on the varsity."

Defending league co-champions Harper Woods and Lutheran North are both strong again, while Hamtramck and Livonia Clarenceville are improved.

"Every team is improved from a year ago," Tuomi said. "I think all of the teams in our conference have done some good things to get better."

The new playoff format means six wins and you're in, but can the Eagles get the six victories?

"We want to be competitive," Tuomi said. "Our goal is to play better than last year and take our schedule one game at a time."

The Eagles play eight league games and they host Detroit Benedictine on Friday, Sept. 3, in their home opener.

iday, Sept. 3, in their home opener.
"We have some tough games at home, which will be in our favor," Tuomi said. "We expect to be a better overall team, especially defensively."

Lutheran East's season finale is set for Friday, Oct. 22, at home against city rival Harper Woods.

The Eagles hold a huge advantage in the all-time series, but Harper Woods has had the upper hand in recent years.

"Playing Harper Woods is always a big game for us, but it's been in their favor recently," Tuomi said. "It's a very hard-hitting, but clean game that usually is played early in the season.

"It's going to be nice to play them in the final game of the season and hopefully, a playoff position will be on the line."

The Lutheran East football team opened its season last Friday against University Liggett School, but next on the schedule is the home game against Benedictine.

Each of the nine Metro Conference squads play nonconference games against Catholic League schools.

Belcrest ready to light Fightin' Irish's football fire

By Bob St. John

Discipline and enthusiasm is back at Notre Dame, thanks to first-year head coach Ed Belcrest.

"I graduated from Notre Dame in 1981 and I want to help get the football program back to where it used to be," Belcrest said. "So far, the kids have been very enthusiastic ábout our program."

The Fightin' Irish haven't had a winning season in more than a decade. including last year's 3-6 overall mark.

They ended the season on a high note, beating Pontiac Notre Dame Prep in the final two weeks. They started the year 0-5, but beat Bishop Foley 35-24 in week No. 6.

"We put $10,000 into new weight training equipment, paint and other stuff for the weight room, which hopefully will get more kids interested in athletics," Belcrest said.

Belcrest turned Hamtramck St. Florian's program around, leading them to two Prep Bowl's and Warren Mott, which won a Macomb Area Conference (MAC) title after beating Grosse Pointe North.

"We can do the same thing here at Notre Dame, but we need discipline and the will to win," Belcrest said. "I want the guys to have fun, but to take pride in themselves, their teammates, teachers, friends and family."

A young offensive line is going to have to play well, protecting senior quarterback Carl Saad. Senior Nick Ventimiglia will play split end, while senior Brian Greaves is the tight end.

First-year players Joe Morasso, Tim Baywal and Clarence Barrett, all seniors, will play in the backfield, while junior Phil Carlin (6-feet, 3 inches, 235 pounds) is one of the new young guns who will block for the senior trio.

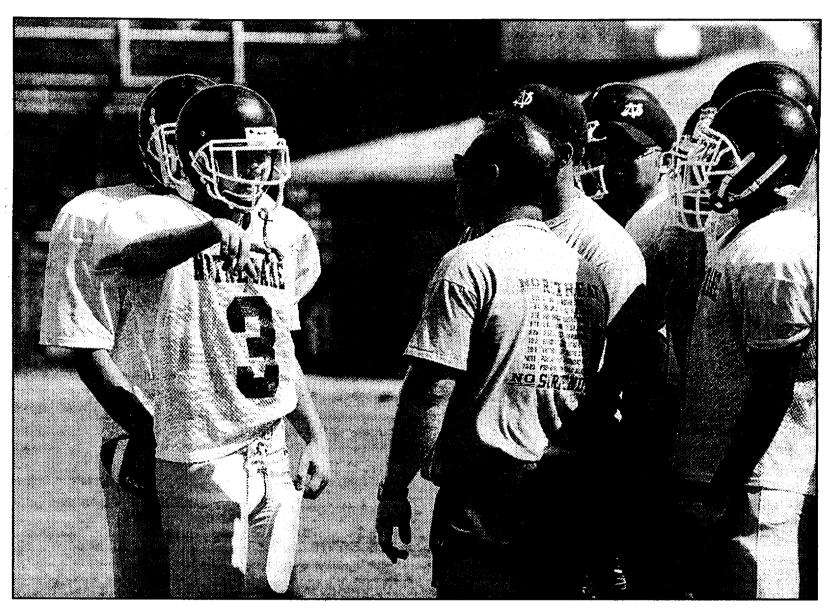

"Our offensive and defensive linemen will not go both ways," Belcrest said. "We need freshman linemen in the second half to compete with the likes of Brother Rice and St. Mary."

A year ago, the Irish averaged only 15.1 points a game, while giving up 24.7.

"Our defense is way ahead of the offense in terms of execution, but that's to be expected due to the week less of practice we get before the opener," Belcrest said. "Defenses and turnovers are going to dominated the season openers."

The Irish will now run a pro-style offense, which should produce more than two touchdowns a game.

Defensively, Belcrest will implement the 4-3. Three of the four defensive backs return, which will help keep the opposition from effectively throwing the ball.

"We need to be aggressive and force teams to change their game plan," Belcrest said. "We play some tough teams, but the competition will make us better."

Notre Dame finished 1-3 last year in the Catholic Central East Division, losing 47-14 to Orchard Lake St. Mary, 23-12 to arch rival Warren DeLaSalle and 35-0 to Birmingham Brother Rice.

As mentioned, their only league win was over Bishop Foley.

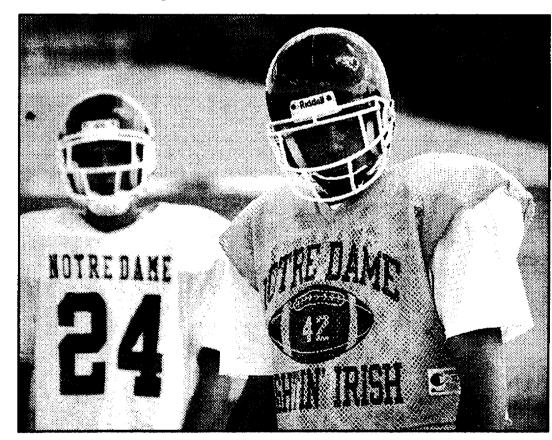

"We would love to get a shot at the Prep Bowl, but we're going to have to play some solid football and not kill ourselves with poor play."

The last Notre Dame gridiron division-winning team was in 1976.

"It's been far too long since Notre Dame was able to stand tall and win a division title," Belcrest said. "We want to change that."

St. Mary and Brother Rice should battle for the division title, while Belcrest's squad has the potential to be .500 or better in the Central East.

"We have a tough stretch of games that will show us what kind of team we have," Belcrest said. "But right now we're concentrating on a tough opener with Grosse Pointe South."

The Irish's non league opponents are South, U-D Jesuit, Dearborn Divine Child and Notre Dame Prep.

"It's going to be a fun season for the Fightin' Irish," Belcrest said. "We will bring winning back to the program."

The Notre Dame football team played its season opener last week; next on the schedule is an away game on Saturday, Sept. 4, against U-D at Royal Oak Kimball.

Bishop Gallagher sets sights on A-Intersectional title

By Bob St. John

Bishop Gallagher's football team would love to make a return trip to the state championship game on Thanksgiving weekend.

Last year, the Lancers played in the finals, but lost 21-20 to Fulton-Middleton.

"Last year, we had a young team that wasn't expected to even make the playoffs, yet we made it to the championship game," head coach George Sahadi said. "I thought we had a better team two years ago and finished at .500, so try and figure it out."

Optimism is high, especially with more than a dozen key players returning

"We have a lot of kids coming back, which creates hope as the season starts," Sahadi said.

Last season, the Lancers finished 11-2, beating Marine City Cardinal Mooney (50-13), Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes (14-0) and Lawrence (48-7) in the playoffs before bowing out to Fulton-Middleton.

"Last year's success naturally makes the guys anxious to work hard in the off-season and come into camp in tip-top shape," Sahadi said. "Unfortunately, we have one less week to practice and a very tough opening opponent to prepare for."

The Lancers' top returning players are seniors Markus Curry, who earned all-state honors last year, Tony Collins, Tauren Lewis, Cedrick Louie, Aaron Grays, Melvin Moss, Patrick Linsdau, Harry Brown, Josh Bohlinger, Joe Curry and Willie Hallman.

Juniors Jeff Masserang and Sam Martinisi are back, as are sophomores Darnell Hood, Damien Brown, Kevin Ratliff, Andrew Sandoval, Linell Summey, Terry Canty, Kevin Ratliff and Norman Tillman.

Newcomer Bob Strother, who transferred from South Lake, is one of the Lancers' best athletes, who will play receiver on offense and defensive back on defense.

"Bob will fit in nicely in our system," Sahadi said. "He gives us an added dimension that will make the team better."

Martinisi takes over the quarterback duties from 1999 graduate Steve Slowke. Collins is the fullback, while Hood gets the start at tailback.

"Sam has worked hard to become a good quarterback," Sahadi said. "We have confidence in his ability to lead the team."

The offense scored 446 points last year (34.3 per game), scoring 87 in the first quarter, 170 in the second, 118 in the third and 71 in the fourth.

Martinisi and company should be able to put up big numbers again this season as an experienced offensive line will give him time to throw and for the backs to gain big yardage.

Hood led the Lancers in rushing a year ago as a freshman, gaining 1,069 yards on 150 carries and scoring 13 touchdowns. Collins had 419 yards on 88 attempts, scoring eight times.

was Curry, who caught 55 passes for 960 yards with 16 touchdowns.

"We lost a couple from the line, but overall, they should play well," Sahadi said. "I'm a little worried about the lack of practice time, but I'm sure the guys will perform."

Defensively, the Lancers put the clamps on opponents last year, giving up only 124 points (9.5 per game),

They gave up one touchdown or less in eight of the 13 games, including three shutouts (26-0 over Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, 47-0 over Lutheran North and 14-0 over WOLL).

"Our division is tougher than a year ago," Sahadi said. "We're going to be in for a fight in every league game."

 Gabriel Richard, Cabrini and Lakes have strong teams, but Gallagher is the favored team.

The Lancers' non league schedule has Fowler at the Pontiac Silverdone, Genesee, Ontario East Sandwich and Lutheran North.

With the new state playoff format, the Lancers need to win at least six games to qualify for the playoffs.

"We're not thinking about winning six games, but taking them one at a time like last season," Sahadi said. "You get into trouble by looking ahead at the schedule and I don't want my players doing that."

The Bishop Gallagher football team played Fowler last week, but next on the schedule is an away game on Friday, Sept. 3, at Genesee, which is East of Flint.

Genesee competes in the Mid-State Athletic Conference with Ashley, Morrice, Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart Academy, Burton Valley Christian Academy, Vestaburg and Webberville Community.

Huskies mentally ready for push in MAC Gold Division

By Bob St. John

Lakeview's football team is ready for a new challenge this season — competing in the Macomb Area Conference (MAC) Gold Division.

"We're excited to move up a division," second-year head coach Jim Glovac said. "We've had success the past couple of seasons, which has carried over to this year."

Two years ago, the Huskies finished 5-4 overall and last season, they were 6-3.

In the MAC Silver Division, the Huskies were in third place with a 4-3 mark, beating South Lake (34-12), Algonac (21-12), Mount Clemens (21-14) and Richmond (17-16).

Their league losses were to Warren Lincoln (26-13), Warren Fitzgerald (34-14) and St. Clair (34-12).

"We've had success in the Silver Division, which meant we had to move up to the Gold," Glovac said. "The competition will be tough, but our kids are up to the challenge."

The Huskies lost a load of experienced seniors, but this year's corps is ready to step in and lead the squad.

Senior Richard Kirby takes over the quarterback duties, while senior Chad Johnson is the new fullback.

"I moved Chad from the offensive line to fullback," Glovac said. "He's a great blocker and I think he can get 10-12 carries a game and bowlover would-be tacklers.

"His experience, as well as Richards, is an asset that will help the game take off.

Senior Scott Brohl and junior transfer student Marcus Johnson are battling for the starting tailback slot. Both backs love to run over people, which is needed in Lakeview's offense which utilizes power.

Senior right tackle Phil Garofalo (6feet, 1 inch, 240 pounds) is the only returning letterman, while junior right guard Steve Chernisky (5-feet, 11 inches, 230 pounds) is up from the junior varsity.

At center, junior Steve McKay (6feet, 2 inches, 230 pounds) gets the

"Our offensive line will get better with each game," Glovac said. "They have to play well for our offense to work."

Seniors Steve Swaitek (6-feet, 1 inch, 190 pounds)) and James Pelak (6-feet, 1 inch, 220 pounds) will get most of the playing time at tight end, while seniors Eric Vincent (6-feet, 1 inch, 185 pounds) and Jim McDade (5feet, 10 inches, 165 pounds) will start at the wide receiver positions.

"We're very happy with the offense," Glovac said. "It has some size on the line and aggressiveness at the skill positions."

One thing that will help the Huskies is having different offensive and defensive lines, which will keep them fresher for the fourth quarters.

Last year, the Huskies scored 198 points (22 points a game), which is the highest this decade.

They scored a season-low 13 points against Lincoln, and a season-high 48 against city rival Lake Shore.

Defensively, Glovac wants to run a 4-3 with Swaitek joining junior Tom Goodin (6-feet, 3 inches, 240 pounds), senior Justin Tackett (6-feet, 2 inches, 240 pounds) and junior Travis Goodin (6-feet, 1 inch, 190 pounds).

Sophomore Brian Thom (6-feet, 1 inch, 190 pounds), along with Pelak and Chad Johnson will start at linebacker, making a formidable front

"We need to put pressure on the quarterback and we have the best people to get the job done," Glovac said.

Sophomore Jon O'Hara will start at one cornerback spot with Vincent at the other. Brohl and junior Haskel Canter will battle for the strong safety spot, while McDade and Kirby will switch at free safety.

"We're going to see some powerful offenses in our new division, so we have to be a sound defensive team," Glovac said.

Last year, the Huskies gave up 162 points (18 points a game), giving up a season-high 34 twice (Fitzgerald and St. Clair).

The state's new playoff format allows teams with six wins to automatically qualify for the postseason.

"Our goal is to make the playoffs," Glovac said. "Our schedule is tough, but we realize that to be a playoff team means beating good squads.'

The Huskies' five MAC Gold games are against Warren Fitzgerald (Sept. 3), Warren Woods Tower (Sept. 10), St. Clair (Sept. 24), Marine City (Oct. 1) and Marysville (Oct. 8).

In non-league action, the Huskies face Algonac and Birmingham Detroit Country Day, plus traditional rivals South Lake and a season-finale against Lake Shore on Oct. 22.

"The guys are pumped up to play at Country Day," Glovac said.

Marine City and Marysville are the favorites with two-time MAC Silver champ Fitzgerald being a serious con-

Lakeview has a chance to win this division if it can stay in the game in the fourth quarters against these perennial playoff contenders.

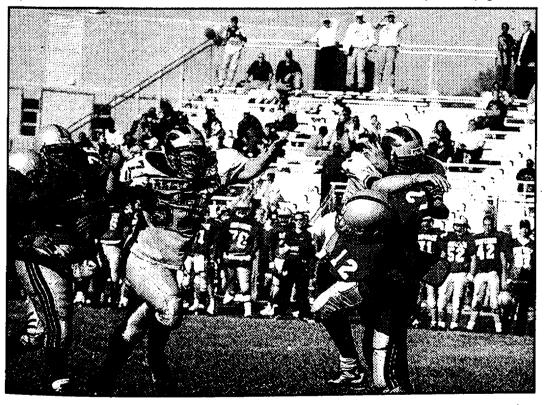

"This is our chance to maintain our recent success against top-notch competition," Glovac said. "We've had a great first week of practice and everyone in the program is upbeat and excited."

If the game comes down to a field goal, junior Chris Chlada has the place-kicking duties.

"He's getting better with practice," Glovac said. "He has a strong leg and if the outcome is decided by a field goal try, he's the one."

Lakeview played South Lake last week in its season opener, but next on the schedule is the MAC Gold Division opener on Friday, Sept. 3, at Fitzgerald.

The Huskies lost twice to Fitzgerald in the past two years.

The Lakeview defense is going to have to put constant pressure on opposing quarterbacks if the Huskies are to compete for a MAC Gold Division title.

Lake Shore looks to Bowers to right football program

By Bob St. John

Sports Editor

Rich Bowers is back in St. Clair Shores after a three-year hiatus. He last coached city rival Lakeview four years ago.

"I'm looking forward to coaching again in the Shores," Bowers said. "I've come into a good situation here at Lake Shore and we're anxious to get into the win column."

The Shorians haven't won a game in more than two seasons, but they're senior-oriented and hungry for a victory.

"The main thing for the team is to play well in our opener," Bowers said. "A strong effort will carry over to the next game."

The offense scored 70 points (7.8 per game) last season, but that should pick up with returning seniors Pepe Agrusa (center), Jay Puidokas (guard), Dave Krenzer (guard), Jeff Algoet (tackle) and Don Kenyon (tight end), plus junior Jason Lacy (tackle).

"Having an experienced offensive line will be one of our strengths and that will help the offense move the ball," Bowers said. "We started a little slow in our first scrimage, but the offense picked up the pace and really moved the ball."

Senior Frank Valenti gets the start at quarterback, but junior Joe Corona is a quality backup.

"I like our quarterback situation," Bowers said. "Frank is our senior, but Joe is capable of getting the job done."

Bowers implemented the Delaware Wing-T offense so the backfield will start senior Kevin Hash at wingback, senior Justin Shaw at fullback and Ken Hough at halfback. Senior Blake Phillips is the starting split end.

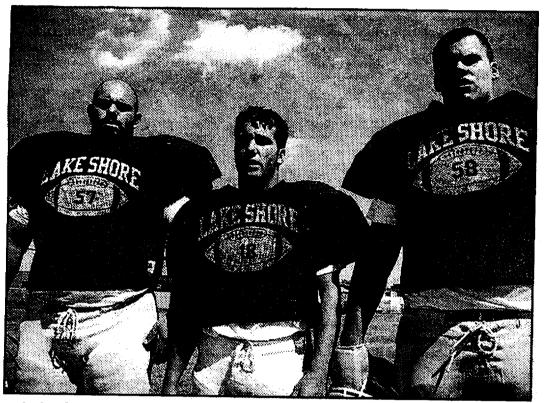

Defensively, the Shorians gave up 357 points (39.7 per game), including 51 to Marysville, 48 to Lakeview and 48 to Imlay City.

Most of the starting offensive players will also play defense, but the squad has depth for the first time in a few years.

"I know how bad these kids want to win and they will this season, that's for sure," Bowers said. "Our new offensive scheme will hopefully control the clock and our defense is going to be aggressive and make the opposition beat us by throwing the ball."

The Shorians' basic formation will be a 5-2, but several different sets can be implemented from that.

"We want the guys to hit hard and go for the quarterback sack," Bowers said. "You win by establishing the run and it's going to be the defenses' job to stop the run."

"The divisions aren't always aligned properly and Lake Shore didn't belong in the Gold Division," Bowers said. "I like our position in the Silver Division and yes, I think we have a chance to win it because people won't expect much from us after not winning a game for quite a while."

The Shorians' experience does make them a darkhorse, if (and that's a big if) they play up to their potential.

"Our linemen have been lifting weights the entire off-season and they're in the best shape of their lives," Bowers said.

Center Line, who was also in the Gold Division last year, is the favorite to win the Silver and Clintondale fields a solid team.

Lake Shore's other league foes are Mount Clemens (home on Thursday, Sept. 2), Algonac (home on Friday, Sept. 10), Warren Lincoln (away on Friday, Sept. 17) and city rival South Lake (away on Friday, Sept. 24).

"Every team in our division is capable of beating everyone, which will make for some tough, close football games," Bowers said.

The Shorians' non league opponents are Marine City, Warren Woods Tower and a season-ending grudge match with city rival Lakeview.

"I love having that game as the final one on the schedule," Bowers said. "It's going to be weird to coach against the team I coached a few years ago, but I'm a Shorian now, not a Husky."

Hopefully, having the game on the final weekend will ignite the rivalry and UCLA vs. USC.

"Both teams will play hard and it will be a clean game, that's for sure," Bowers said. "I have a lot of respect for Lakeview and its coaching staff and I know they have the same respect for us here at Lake Shore.

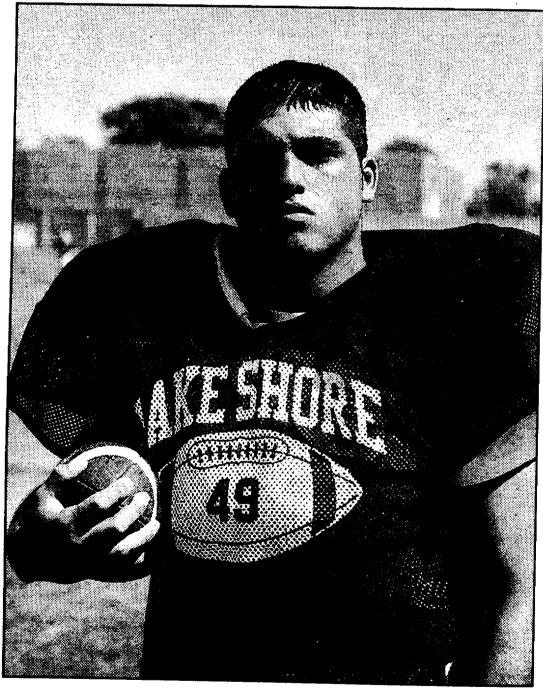

"It will be a fun game, but we want to win."

What might make the stakes even higher is that either Lake Shore or Lakeview might be gunning for a sixth victory, which would qualify them for the state playoffs.

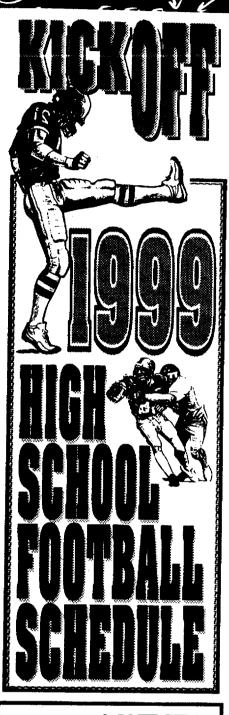

"If that should be the case, then may the better team win, but it would make the game very interesting," Bowers said.

"We have a tough non-league schedule, but we're shooting for a win to get us moving."

The Lake Shore football team opened the season against Marine City last week, but next on the schedule is the Shorians' league opener today, Thursday, Sept. 2, against the Mount Clemens Bathers.

Lake Shore senior Frank Valenti, above, has earned the starting quarterback position under first-year head coach Rich Bowers.

Poor water pressure or restricted pipes?

Q. Mr. Hardware, we live in a very old home with a mixture of copper and galvanized plumbing. The problem is only one person can shower at a time and if someone flushes a toilet the person in the shower gets scalded. We have had the pressure checked and there is almost 50 pounds per square inch, (psi) available at the meter. A booster pump has been recommended and we are interested in your opinion on this matter. Chris.

A. Chris, I don't think you have a problem with water pressure — 50 psi is more than enough to satisfy household needs. It sounds like your problem is with volume. If there is enough water volume available you should be able to operate all your faucets and still have adequate pressure.

I had a similar problem at a previous house I lived in. After replumbing the house I had the same problem as you. Even though there were no restrictions or inadequately sized lines in the house plumbing system, I had a problem with "water sharing." Whenever a second faucet was turned on the first one lost onehalf of its pressure, and worse if a third was used.

The problem was with the water service; not enough water could get from the water main to the house. That house had a 70year-old lead line from the water main to the house. The main could deliver 50 psi but only had enough diameter to deliver say "3 gallons per minute." A shower needs about 2.5 gpm so if that is all being used the shower is fine, but if a toilet is flushed now each appliance will only get 1.5 gpm each.

However, your problem could be in the internal water lines because you do have a mixture of copper and galvanized, which is not good. Electrolysis happens wherever dissimilar pipes are connected, often restricting water flow. Also, the old galvanized lines are probably clogged. I would recommend converting the rest of the house to copper plumbing before considering changing the water main. Then if water sharing is still a problem you could consider changing the water main from the house to the city. The bad news here is you are responsible for that line. The cost of replacing it is usually your obligation alone. It might be a good idea to check with city records to see if you can find the date and type of line installed. This information will help in your decision. For now skip the booster pump; I don't like to use a "motor and controls" to do something that should work fine without.

Basement remodeling seminar

Macomb Community College in cooperation with Oakland Builders Institute will offer an eight-hour Remodeling Basement seminar on Piesdays, Sept. 14, 21 and 28, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. The course will be held at Fraser Center, 32101 Caroline, Fraser.

The seminar is designed to help people make better use of valuable space in their homes by planning and completing a successful basement remodeling. The instructor will explain the many facets of basement remodeling including planning, meeting building codes, insurances, permits, estimating materials as well as the basics of home construction.

The instructor will also discuss working with subcontractors, finishing techniques as well as tying into existing plumbing, electrical and heating systems. The seminar costs $95 plus a textbook fee of $8.

Preregistration with payment is required no later than Friday, Sept. 10, to Macomb Community College. Call (810) 498-4000 to register.

The instructor is a licensed builder who can answer questions related to all facets of remodeling.

It's the time of year to repair your lawn

Q. My lawn looks real bad. What can I do to bring it back?

A. This summer has taken its toll on many lawns. During the summer many lawns have developed dead patches due to either drought or disease. The good news is that most of these lawns are repairable. Now is the best time of year to repair the damage from the summer. The days and nights are cooler and we will receive more rainfall.

Fertilizing your lawn throughout the rest of this year will promote grass growth. A slow release fertilizer such as Green Power or 39+ now will do wonders for your lawn. Then in about six weeks it will be time to apply a fall winterizer fertilizer. Greenveiw Winter Green applied in the fall will push root growth and strengthen the lawn before winter hits. Spring and fall are the most important times of the year to fertilize your lawn.

If your lawn has dead spots larger than 6 inches, a light top dressing of soil and seed will help fill in those spots even faster. Using compost to top dress the lawn will also help break down the thatch layer of the grass.

Prep the soil by raking in soil over the bare spots in the lawn. Bagged topsoil works fine if you only have a few spots. If you have Peat moss is finely shredded organic matter that does a great job holding on to the surface moisture so the seed can germinate.

Shores, between Nine at Phone (810) 776-2811 information. E-mail liere@prodigy.net

Water the seeded spots every day just enough to keep the areas damp. You should start to see the grass seed sprouting in about two weeks. Do not use any weed killers on the newly seeded areas for about two months.

Don't miss the last Gardening in the '90s

The Master Gardener Association of Wayne County will hold its 11th annual educational event for the community, Gardening in the '90s, on Saturday, Sept. 18, at Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn.

Geared toward everyone interested in gardening, the conference will feature keynote speaker Nancy Szerlag of The Detroit News and WDIV-TV. Full-day attendees will choose three additional classes from an offering of at least a dozen options, such as roses, native perennials, trees, plant names, soil pH, ponds, herbs, composting, seed-saving, making a garden plaque and closing a garden.

The popular half-day children's program, Budding Botanists, offers lots of fun and educational projects for kids to do while parents attend class. The day will also include a gardener's marketplace and plant sale. A box lunch and a gift are included in the $35 conference registration fee.

Gardening in the '90s is a great day of learning, sharing and shopping with gardeners. You won't want to miss it. (And, yes, next year the conference will have a new name!)

Book reviews: Gardening with style

It sometimes seems as if there's a gardening book for every pot of petunias. This season's crop is more about style than how-to, which is not at all a bad thing for those in search of inventive ideas.

a lot of spots, it is less expensive to get compost by the cubic yard delivered to your home. Raking in about a one-half inch over the bare spots will give the new seed

"Martha Baker's Garden Ornaments: A Stylish Guide to Decorating Your Garden" (Clarkson Potter, $40) offers plenty of elegance. This is a dreamy "what if?" kind of read — think penthouses and country estates — but Baker's sophisticated creations can inspire even those of us who don't have room for grand statues or trellises:

For more grounded pleasures, there's Indiana gardener Susan McClure's "The Free-Spirited Garden: Gorgeous Gardens That Flourish Naturally" (Chronicle Books, $18.95). It's full of suggestions for producing exuberant plots of perennials. Whether you prefer delicate, long-stemmed beauties or hearty, drought-resistant flowers, this book is bursting with fun and cost-conscious possibilities.

Don't let such a minor inconvenience as the lack of a garden stop you from planting. In James Cramer and Dean Johnson's "Window Boxes: Indoors & Out" (Artisan, $27.50), we learn that a window box is anything that can hold dirt, including wagons and tin buckets. This book is off-the-chart creative — how about a box filled with fragrant nicotiana, petunias, and geraniums above your bed? — and outlines do-it-yourself projects for every season, some perfect for kids.

"Gardenhouse: Bringing the Outdoors In" (Chronicle Books, $24.95) and "The Garden Room: Bringing Nature Indoors" (Clarkson Potter, $24) offer starkdifferent approaches. Gardenhouse, by Bonnie Trust Dahan, shows how to enhance sleek, neutral rooms with such natural touches as tree limbs, weathered watering cans, even a vintage tricycle. The look is clever and very clean.

Treading more rustic turf is Timothy Mawson's "The Garden Room," in which we enter the homes of real — and, in some cases, fairly eccentric — people who have fused their own histories with their love of nature. Filled with personal treasures, these beloved homes are imperfect, chaotic, and charming.

Dolls, toys, advertising giveaways and other memorabilia based on characters in comic strips have been made since the introduction of the first comic, "The Yellow Kid," in 1895.

Sometimes the doll represents a minor character in the strip and its identity is unknown. "Little Lulu" was a comic that first appeared in 1935 as a singlepanel cartoon. By 1945, it was a comic published by Dell, and in 1955, it became a syndicated newspaper comic strip.

Lulu was a typical little girl who had exaggerated problems and an overactive imagination. Her friends included Tubby Tom, a boy who was part of many of her adventures; Iggy; Gloria Darling; Alvin Jones; and Annie Magee. Few can identify any of the characters except Little Lulu and perhaps Tubby Tom.

Little Lulu was featured in a long-running ad campaign for Kleenex that introduced her face to many who never read the strip.

Prices for collectible comic toys are based on supply and demand. Tubby Tom is worth more than Little Lulu because fewer were made.

Q. My great-grandmother had a pair of diamond-pendant earrings that now belong to me. In her jewelry case, there is also a pair of small, hinged, hollow metal balls that snap closed over the diamonds to make them look like gold earrings. What was the purpose of the hollow balls?

A. The hollow balls are earring covers designed to protect expensive earrings from thieves. Women would keep the covers on their earrings while they were en route to social events. When they arrived, they would remove the covers to show off their expensive jewelry. Earring covers were patented in 1878 by a New Yorker named Anthony Hessels.

Q. My great-grandfather had a German beer stein of porcelain with a pewter lid. If you empty the stein and hold it to the light, you can see a scene in the bottom. It is a picture of a dog and three people. How was it made?

A. The picture in the bottom of the stein is a lithophane. That is a porcelain picture made by casting the clay in layers of various thicknesses. When held to the light, the picture is visible because of the shadows. The makers first made a picture using translucent beeswax. It was placed on a lighted glass shelf, and the wax was carved to show the picture. The wax was then used to make a plaster mold. Clay was cast in the mold for the stein. Lithophanes have always fascinated people. They were most popular between 1825 and 1875.

One of our major problems involves what to do with our three dogs when we want to go away. The National Association of Professional Pet Sitters (NAPPS) has the answer:

A pet sitter should be bonded and carry commercial liability insurance. Make sure this person is a professional and check all references. Call past clients for more confirmation. Ask for prices describing services and starting fees in writing. Make sure to get a written contract clearly spelling out services and fees.

These sitters will even stay in vour home for an extra fee and not only pet-sit, but house-sit.

To find an NAPPS pet sitter in your area, call (800) 296-PETS. Certification by NAPPS does not automatically guarantee quality services. It does state that an individual has met certain objective criteria through a course of study and/or testing as a professional pet sitter.

Kudos to the New York State legislature! They recently passed a bill that would require at least two years of prison time for people who abuse animals. Gov. George Pataki is said to be in favor of this, so we await his signature to make this the law of the state.

Various animal organizations, such as the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) and the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) pushed hard for this bill. They deserve our congratulations and thanks as well.

It is a fact that people who abuse, torture and kill animals often become murderers of human beings. They are psychopaths people with no conscience or remorse. Too often, animal cruelty is rewarded simply with a slap on the wrist.

It is our fervent hope that this becomes the law not only of New York, but of the entire country as

How to turn your house into a home

Whether purchasing a new home or just freshening up an existing one, most homeowners need the answer to the age-old question of, "Where do I begin! What can I do to turn this house into a home?"

Strangely enough, when homeowners need advice in various areas of the home, professionals are called in such as consultants in plumbing, heating/cooling, landscaping and cleaning, to name a few. Why then do so many homeowners still shy from using the services of a professional interior decorator when making important decorative decisions and purchases for the home? "Once considered a luxury for the wealthy, decorating services are more of a necessity for today's busy homeowner who can't afford to make costly mistakes," says Carol Donayre Bugg, ASID, author of "Smart & Simple Decorating" (1999, Time/Life).

With so many products available to consumers, most find the options overwhelming and do one of two things: rather than tackle a project making difficult decisions. they will put off an important project or move forward, many times making costly mistakes.

To ensure homeowners, new or old, get off to the right start, Bugg offers seven keys to great decorating:

1. Be a Keen Observer — make note of what catches your attention. Consciously note what catches your eye as you flip through decorating magazines, watch decorating shows on cable TV, or you may even cneck out interesting Internet sites on the home such as homearts.com or take a virtual tour of room makeovers on decoratingden.com. Make note of the colors, patterns and designs that attract you. Clip pictures and start a file; you will then be better able to draw a conclusion on your taste and style.

2. Take an honest inventory — Determine which room or rooms you would like to improve and take an objective inventory of what you already own. Assess your furnishings. Next, take out your camera and take snapshots of the room(s). Study the photos carefully, and keep the furniture and accessories you truly love. The easiest and least expensive way to make a notable change is to move some pieces to another room - for both function and design.

3. Make a work-in-progress — Is there a special family event or holiday coming up that you would like your project completed by? Determine your time projection for decorating. A simple, written plan in a loose-leaf binder will help you remain on track. While making the work in progress consider the scope of the project: A simple coat of a new wall color to complete room makeover with new window treatments, paint or wallpaper, a few furnishings, etc. No matter how small or large the project, ideally at this point you should schedule a complimentary at-home design consultation with a professional. A professional will ask questions and assist you in determining not only your design style but your functional needs as

4. Balance practicality with panache - In decorating terms, panache is that personal touch you give the ordinary by turning it into something uniquely your own. Adding fringe shades to an average chandelier, displaying a special personal collection gathered over the years, painting a wall an unusual bold color — all are examples of how to personalize your surroundings with your own dash of panache. Best of all, panache does not have to be expensive, and practicality does not have to be mundane.

5. Study the French — Fabulous fakery has always been a part of French design. Faux finishes are ever popular and can be implemented in many areas of the home. It is popular for walls, fabrics and accessories. For example: do you wish to wake up a bare wall with a window with a pretty view but don't think you can afford the renovation and landscaping? Have a local artisan paint one.

6. Give change a chance — Redecorating can be as simple as simply removing a piece of furniture, or the most dramatic change usually comes from introducing a strong new color or a different pattern. Just remember that all change — even for the better requires a period of adjustment.

7. The joy is in the doing — Don't allow the constraints of the size of your house or your budget stop you from living beautifully and well. There are decorating schemes, furnishings and accessories for every situation and for every budget. Decorating is an ongoing and evolving state. Start by doing one thing that will revive a tired room, even if you just paint the walls a new color. Remember, the first step is the hardest.
