

Pointe High School's Tennis Team Takes Regional Crown

Ball Team Keeps On Winning Side

Golfers Beat Royal Oak Then Lose Out in League Matches and Weaver Goes Into State Track Meet in Lansing

By BILL CECIL
Completely dominating the regional tennis tournament, Grosse Pointe High yesterday took added to their league championship, a regional championship. The Blue Devils placed first and second in the singles and first in the doubles.

On other sports fronts, G. P. golfers licked Royal Oak 9 to 6, but fell by the wayside in the league meet, and finished third behind that same Royal Oak outfit and Mt. Clemens. The ball players continued their victory march by defeating Wyandotte 2-0. With only three runs entered, Pointe tractors were able to get one third place, Roy Weaver in the 40-49 dash, in the state meet at East Lansing Saturday.

Handliner Stars Again
At the regional tennis tournament, played on Grosse Pointe courts Friday and Saturday, Bob Kundinger, showing the same form that has made him the most consistent winner in the league this year, bested out of the singles title. But the real thrill in the regional came Friday afternoon, when Doug Macreuter and Mike Ware, who had played together for a little over a week, beat out Eugene Waggoner and from Marlin of Ferndale, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. This match was acclaimed by all as the finest played on Grosse Pointe courts this season. The Ferndale lads had not lost a match in dual or regional play for the last two years. In fact the only match in which they had ever lost was in the semifinals of the state meet last spring. The Pointe boys showed a lack of confidence in the first set, but Mike's amazing forehand drive then the expert licks needed in the second set and brought triumph.

With Only Two Games Left to Play
Blue Devil ball players may have their victory string to eight straight, but left a league championship hanging over the fire last week Saturday at 10 o'clock the league championship will probably be decided at Fordson's dust box.

Local Saturday at Wyandotte
The G. P. batters had themselves a field day at the expense of poor, innocent Wyandotte pitchers, collecting two home runs and doubles for nine runs to help for the Bears. Free batters for the day were Fredrickson, Lee Layton and Silent George Graham. Graham's circuit shot came in first with two on the sacks, and Henry has had Carlo since January, and as far as is known he is the only Great Pyrenees dog in Detroit, and probably in Michigan. Carlo's disposition is as gentle as his frame is huge. When Henry and his pet go out for a jog around the Pointe streets, crowds collect. And Carlo loves the admiration he never fails to elicit.

Pointe Players Give "Evening of Plays"

Parents and Alumni Are Guests at Entertainment in High School Auditorium; Readings by Betty Pratt Make Hit

BY MARCIA NETTING

The second "Evening of Plays" presented by Pointe Players was held in the high school auditorium Friday evening for the entertainment of the parents of Pointe players and alumni of the Club.

Patty White, Shirley Anderson, and John Shields were the cast for "The Great Gatsby" which was read by Betty Pratt.

Between plays Betty Pratt kept the audience amused with readings. Her first was of a pithy girl at a formal dinner, and her second told of a proud mother reading a letter from her beloved colleague to her bride table friends.

Patricia Mullin, faculty sponsor of Pointe Players, directed the one-act play "Everybody's Doing It." Ann Johnston, Patricia Robin, Anne Marie LePrieux, Doris Martin, Mary Caroline Wade, Jacqueline Hilt, and Carol Sanford played the roles of the women in the waiting room of a plastic surgeon's office.

Thomas Fennell won praise in his role as James Joyce in "The Valiant." His performance was definitely worthy of note and showed promise of unusual talent.

The refreshments served to all guests in the girls gym immediately following the performance, were arranged by Martha McCray and her committee of Jacqueline Hilt, Carmen Johnston, Nanette Emery, Mary DuBois, Pat Tobin, Ann Leverenz, Patty White, Janet Hunter and Sarah Kanter.

Ted Souris was head of the house committee, and his ushers were Barbara Nixon, Elaine Rais, Robert Hanke, Mike Gallen, Allen Harwood, Peggy O'Neill, and Bob Glenwallis. Invitations to the program were sent out by Mary Caroline Wade and her assistants.

Pointe Players will give another "Evening of Plays" on June 10, 1941, at 8 o'clock.

Churchman Pounds Pacifists In Fiery Attack on Germany

Treaty of Versailles Termed Fairest That Came Out of Europe in 1000 Years; Witnessed France's Suicide

A full house greeted the Rev. Frederick Beekman, who for 23 years has been dean of the American Cathedral in Paris, when he lectured under the auspices of Bundles for Britain, Inc., in the High School Monday night, before the Dean gave his attack, through the courtesy of Maurice Lord, the movie "Thimble Up" was shown.

The speaker, who bore such historic scenes as the burning of the guillotine, the flaming ruins of London, and the attack upon a busy carrying American ship to the British shore. The latter picture was a satire to show that the contributions to the British war effort are accepted, accepted, accepted, and gratefully received.

Dean Beekman said his audience had been told that the treaty of Versailles was the fairest that came out of Europe in 1000 years, and that it was the treaty that had led to the present situation.

Dedicate Memorials At Christ Church

Dr. William Densmore Mason and Mrs. Charles B. Warren Are Paid Tribute with Bronze and Flag Presentations

Two memorials were dedicated at the morning service in Christ Church Chapel Sunday. A bronze head of Dr. William Densmore Mason, the late Rector Emeritus of Christ Church Parish, was placed in the Chapel North.

The work was done by Madeline Williams, daughter of Dr. William Densmore Mason, and a duplicate of a head dedicated at the Parish Church Sunday, given by Mrs. Mason's children.

A new American flag was carried in the procession and placed in the Sanctuary in memory of Helen Williams, daughter of Dr. William Densmore Mason.

The flag was presented by the Committee of the Chapel of All Saints' Memorial Fund and was made possible by contributions to the fund from the parishioners of Christ Church.

The traditional Sunday School party that Mrs. Warren has always held at her home in June, will be held this year as a memorial by her sons Robert, Charles, and John, Saturday, June 7.

Summer Fever Starts Pointers Heading For Lake Side

Pointe Aux Barques One Popular Place

James McClintocks Are Doing Over Old Government Coast Guard House for Coming Season

Although your plans for Memorial Day may not include a trip to the country, summer fever is definitely here.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew A. Vandorck who have been spending their summers at Pointe Aux Barques for the last 18 years, are spending as much time as possible there this season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wallace Toles will open their summer home there for the season on Sunday, June 1. Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClintock have bought the old government coast guard house at Pointe Aux Barques, which originally stood on the shore of Lake Michigan in 1850. In 1865 the clipboard building was moved across the lake and its present site is on the point overlooking the lighthouse.

Partitions separating the two boat wells in the front have been removed to provide a large living room across the front of the house. The doors have been replaced with large windows to give an excellent view of the lighthouse. A new fireplace has been built in the living room and weather signal flags decorate the walls, while the office was made into a kitchen. The crew's quarters on the second floor have become the new master bedroom.

A loose rug on a waxed floor caused a young woman to slip and fall. Her damage suit resulted in the property owner being obliged to pay a large verdict, though he argued that rugs are on waxed floors in many homes.

Silhouettes

Since making her debut in 1939, she has been a very busy young lady. A member of the Junior League, she has spent a great deal of her time doing good work for the Red Cross, she has done some expert knitting. At the present time, she is in charge of Vogue's office in Detroit, and loves her job.

Her favorite sports are swimming, tennis and sailing. She has done quite a bit of the latter, at Georgian Bay, and can handle a sailboat with masculine authority. She likes swing bands and is a baseball fan. In fact, she has a complete scrap book of the Tigers and all their doings; a hobby which she started about five years ago.

Her favorite clothes are sports tops, in blue, yellow or gray; the always wears Nylon stockings; abhors large picture hats with stiff brims. She likes walking in the rain because it "smells" so good; doesn't like people who criticize her bridge; dislikes housework and people who "gush".

Two of the first perfumes she ever used are Blue Grass and Tweed—both of which are still her favorites. She's a very natural person, with intelligence, charm and wit—a combination that makes for popularity. Her friends call her "Fran".

Her name, Frances Baker, daughter of the Edwin W. Bakers of Lincoln Road.

Dorothy Lamour, the gal who wears everything well, no matter how little it may be, tries a new costume in "Road to Zanzibar," opening Friday in the Cinerella theatre. Dottie is modeling her latest, a fern job, as she poses here.

Lamour Enchants Crosby and Hope

Famed Trio Back Again on Another Delightful Trip in Cinerella Film, "Road to Zanzibar," "Kit Carson" Is Other Feature

Pull on the seven-league boots, bare your funny bones, movi-goers, for you'll be going on another gag and globe-trotting journey when Paramount's new magic carpet of comedy and melody alights Friday at the Cinerella Theatre.

Showing you the sights and sounds on your journey will be those three happy-go-lucky guides Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour, who know how to make geography lessons so enjoyable.

Exchanging the nautical clothes they wore in "Road to Singapore" for safari outfits putting their roles in "Road to Zanzibar," Bing and Bob are seen as a couple of carnival and pitch men in Africa—the idea being, perhaps, that Bing pitches "em and Bob catches 'em. It's all carnival stuff—until they meet up with a tribe of man-eating cannibals, whereupon it becomes serious. Getting so close to the steep-top in all this Dottie and her girl friend, Una Merkel. The boys rescue Dottie from the hands of day-tenders by buying her for one hundred and fifty kopeks. What they don't know is that it's all a money-making scheme devised by the girls to raise money enough to take them to Zanzibar, where Dottie intends to marry a rich tea heir. In the action-filled story unfolds some of the spectacular episodes in the life of the great American adventurer who joined forces with John G. Freemon to survey and map the shortest overland route to California, in the days when travel often meant fierce attacks from the Indians and the merciless slaughter of women and children.

"A Rhumba Fantasy" Is Vogue Feature

Phil Brestoff and Orchestra Delight Audiences on Stage While "The Lady Eve" Is Big Attraction on Screen

Music holds away this week on the Vogue stage as Phil Brestoff, the popular dance maestro, features "A Rhumba Fantasy," one of the more unusual dance arrangements of the present crop—while on the Vogue screen is the comedy hit of the year, "The Lady Eve."

The Vogue Theatre also continues its policy of presenting fine vocal vaudeville acts, two excellent feature films, and Phil Brestoff and his orchestra with Frankie Connors.

A beautiful girl, magnificent clothes, smart fast dialogue, all merge to make "The Lady Eve" an outstanding comedy film.

The fact that the film was written and directed by Preston Sturges, is undoubtedly the reason for the great performance which was turned in by Miss Stanwyck and Henry Fonda.

The story itself is said to be the funniest yet penned by Sturges, a concern of the hilarious pale young man and a comely female leader of a band of card sharks. A short, sharp, snappy interlude for a plucking at the card table.

The honeymoon scene is the most comedy-filled scene yet produced.

Follies Held Over Again

Popular Show at Club Royal Being Kapt Third Straight Week by Request

The Maytime Follies have proved such a hit at the popular Club Royal on Eighth Mile road near Gratiot that they are being held over for the third straight week.

Margie Knapp, youthful singing star, leads the parade of hits. Fresh from Ed Wynn's Broadway show, "Boys and Girls Together," Margie sings hits from that production and other new tunes.

Donald Novis stays on as master of ceremonies and continues to delight the patrons with his handling of songs that have made him famous on the air and screen.

Winnie Fowler and her dancing girls are repeating the success which they scored at New York's Hurricane restaurant, with such outstanding production numbers as the "Banquet Service."

The Four Hollywood Blondes are a sensational roller skating troupe who had many exciting adventures before they caught a refugee ship home from Finland, the last American act to leave. Lloyd and Willie are going ballet top stylists, while Stan Norris and his orchestra grow in popularity each night.

VERONICA LAKE

Starring Ray Milland, William
Holden, Wayne Morris and Brian Donlevy, "I Wanted Wings" features the most sensational newcomer, Veronica Lake, already called the "blonde bomb", and lovely Courtney Moore. Made with the complete co-operation of the Army Air Corps, the film tells the personal stories of three aviation trainees and the women in their lives. The men who want wings are Milland, Holden and Morris, the women are the as-streamlined Miss Lake and beautiful Miss Moore.

Mar-Jo Books To Be Seen On Punch Screen Big New Show

The Gaylords, America's Dancers of Charm, move into the Mar-Jo club this Friday to headline another great popular place swept with cool lake breezes. The address—Nine mile road and the lake.
Arthur Nelson brings his grand marionette revue which has in-lighted thousands, and Guy Cherney, singing master of ceremonies, will guide the whole program
smoothly and add his talent.
Merritt Lamb and his Ambassadors continue to play for dancing,
and it asked nicely, the saxophone player will give you his version of "My Blue Heaven" . . . very good.
In addition to all this entertainment, the Mar-Jo, which is one of the coast places with lots of room you've ever seen, serves an outstanding roadhouse dinner. Food and liquor are plentiful.

ing one breath-taking moment after another.

"Honey-moon For Three"
Companion feature to "I Wanted Wings" is the hilarious remance, "Honey-moon for Three,"
with George Brent and Ann Sheridan in the respective roles of an author and his secretary. Mr.
Brent is on a lecture tour and a long lost sweetheart shows up after five years, and the door which she has married and harassed a long suffering husband with glowing reports about Mr.
Brent. Starts a romantic marathon that is said to provide one of the season's greatest laugh hits.

Getting Around With The Points Knight

In spring Grosse Pointe's fancy turns to things fancy—bells of offering fine and new. New and old favorite places to go are populated for the reason that Pointers like to dine and dance in places where they can enjoy the best of both worlds.
It is celebration week at the Club Mayfair, Mack and Seven mile road. Phil Olsen and his orchestra are now playing their 100th week at this popular night spot. Besides Mr. Olsen's orchestra, the Mayfair is offering five star acts introduced by Al Samuels, the new M.C.

On these warm spring nights
many Pointers take advantage of the Parkside Grill with its Chickens in the Rough and Frog legs in the Basket. Also the Parkside Grill and Cocktail lounge is the only building of its kind entirely air-cooled at 77.
Harry Stewart, the manager of the Parkside, has announced that Barry Greene, popular Novachord artist, will return this week.

The Whittier announces that it will serve a special Memorial day dinner. Patrons are also invited to the lovely water front gardens. The Whittier offers picture the advantage of eating in a place which is almost perfectly air-cooled by the breezes off the Detroit river.
