Long War Against Law Violators Bears Fruit; Accidents Cut 45 Per Cent

Group Halts Purchase of Raid Sirens

An Open Letter to Chief Thomas V. Trombly, Grosse Pointe City Police Department.

Dear Tom, I know you're very busy with F. B. I. schools, air-raid inspections, and catching speeders, but there is a little matter of gambling that's going on in the Municipal building, across the street from the police station, which I think you ought to check into.

Drawings are held every week and I'm really surprised that you haven't made any arrests yet. Here is the story. Six of the municipal employees, Norbert Neff, clerk; Neil Blondell, treasurer; Fred Baker, building commissioner; and Ann Fraser, Rogemyr Schaefer, and Louise Nagel, secretaries, are holding weekly drawings for a prize of $180 worth of defense stamps. Every day all six kick in a nickel apiece and this is held until Saturday when the stamps are bought and the gambling, (which you ought to check into), begins. Miss Fraser writes out the six names on slips of paper... the drawing is held, and the first name drawn wins the stamps for that week.

The contest has been going on for three weeks and so far Miss Fraser has won each time, which of course casts reflections on the manner in which the drawing is conducted. Anyway Chief, I thought you'd be interested in knowing what's going on almost under your nose. I know it's a swell idea and for a swell cause... but you as Chief, ought to look into it. In fact you might even kick in a nickel each day yourself. Sort of an accessory to the crime, you know.

Sincerely yours, BOB LUEBECK, Staff Reporter, Grosse Pointe News.

Four Months of War Bring Many Changes Into Lives of Most Pointe Residents

Civilian Defense Classes Fill Many Hours Formerly Devoted To Pleasure and Relaxation

Tuesday marked the fourth month since America's entry into the war, and it might be well this time to pause and take stock of Grosse Pointe's home defense effort.

Most of the Pointe's citizens are now busy with their work, and their leisure time is spent in various ways. Many have taken up hobbies, and some have joined in the various civilian defense classes. The war has brought about many changes in the lives of the residents, and it is interesting to see how they are adapting to the new situation.

In The News A Year Ago

Superintendent of Public Schools Dr. E. R. Van Kleek announced several large gains in the school system. Dr. Van Kleek's report was sent as a letter to all parents of children in the system.

Henry Ford II was classed Wednesday as a potential I-1, pending his final physical examination. (Ford later enlisted in the Navy as a Ensign).

Alfred Garska, former Park president, denied ownership in a Park gambling house. The testimony came out as the State examined him in the Graft-Conspiracy trials.

The wedding date was scarcely a week away for Marion Zwozick and Tommy Hammond, pointe socialites. Many parties feted the engaged pair.

George Fink, Jr. ordered to take draft physical. George F. Fink, Jr., 22, who was granted two deferments as a Class 2A recruit with Local Draft Board No. 7, was ordered to appear for a preliminary physical examination Monday.

Young Fink's deferments expired in January, at which time he notified the Draft board he was applying for a conscription exemption. He is an assistant manager in the alloy division of the Great Lakes Steel Corp., of which his father is president.

Fink passed the physical examination, but his exemption was inducted at an early date. He is unmarried and lives on Cliverty road.

Bans Receive Some Credit For Big Drop

Results of Uniring Work by Many Groups Strongly Reflected

Grosse Pointe's continuous effort to reduce automobile accidents has at last borne fruit, as the Grosse Pointe News' quarterly annual Traffic Accident Survey shows a decrease of 45 per cent in the number of accidents during the first three months of this year as compared to 1941's total.

The survey, made in co-operation with the police departments of the Pointe, shows that only 160 traffic accidents were reported to police in the period from January 1 to March 31, 1942. Last year over the same 90-day period, 292 traffic accidents were reported to the various police departments. Another encouraging note is that there were no fatalities from the three months' period in both years.

Figures Give Hope The survey's figures should give a good insight into the success of social leaders who, for the past year, have been continually campaigning for safer driving in Grosse Pointe.

All five police departments are patrolling the streets on every automobile traffic in Grosse Pointe Park, for instance, Chief Henry W. Ford has ordered his men to look out for the main arteries of traffic during the heavy early morning and late afternoon periods. The Grosse Pointe Safety Council was formed late last year and this group has been working in hand with police officials.

Schools Form Council The public schools also formed a traffic safety council, and are instructed to confer with police departments and iron out any problems that may arise.

The Board of Education has also instructed its members to see that the youngsters and the departments are kept abreast of the latest traffic news. The Board of Education has also instructed its members to see that the youngsters and the departments are kept abreast of the latest traffic news.

Army in September of that year, obtaining a leave of absence from the department. He served with the army for two years and was stationed with the Army of Occupation in France and Belgium. During that time he spent many vacation days in Grosse Pointe and his family.

Servicemen Need Sports Equipment

Summer Ahead for Boys at Custer and Other Camps Unless Many Donations are Soon Received

Fort Custer, Michigan's greatest military establishment, and other Army and Navy posts and stations throughout the state are badly in need of athletic equipment of all kinds. And if citizens of Michigan don't do something about it, their fighting men will have a dull Spring and summer season, from the standpoint of enjoyment of the building, morale-building sports.

The gloomy prospects motivate the Grosse Pointe Sports Committee and its fellow members of the Sports Committee of the Army and Navy Recreation Service to take some direct steps to help the boys. It was born the campaign, led by the Detroit Tiger coach, to help the boys and their contributions of athletic equipment—new or used, but in good condition—for use of Army and Navy enlisted men.

Suitable Refreshment

Refreshment of athletic needs of fighting men is one of the major sport at Army and Navy camps and stations this summer. With baseball and football, basketball, tennis, and other outdoor sports are being discussed with a great deal of interest by all concerned.

Refreshment at its Best!

Business Leaders Set For China Relief Drive

"It is high time we gave tangible evidence of our friendship to the Chinese people," Paul G. Hoffman, national chairman of United China Relief said today, in announcing a campaign in Detroit April 10 to 25 to raise $250,000 for Chinese relief.

Mr. Hoffman spoke to a group of 25 Detroit business leaders, summoned to a pre-campaign meeting by Charles B. Crouse, Detroit-Chiefman of the campaign.

"China has been fighting almost five years, and there are 5,000,000 casualties, 2,000,000 and 800,000 refugees as proof of the terrific struggle the Chinese are being through," Mr. Hoffman said. "They have kept fighting despite the fact that they have had little except words from our people to help them.

Kid-Bits

By Doty Vining

Last Saturday night, from 10:30 till 2:30, The Book-Cadillac Hotel, Tony Pastor and his orchestra supplied the music for a social dance.

You guessed it—the Big Four. It was good. Very good. If you could see around people you could see kids you knew dancing—if the kids could find a vacant inch or two to dance in. That's what is of a turnout the dance had.

Jo Ann Anderson and Bob Brown, Mary Jane MacKenzie and Ed McPhee, Mary Jane Harrows and Bob Kimer, Gerry Whitlock and Jim McKeown, Rozanne Rupp and Earl Edwards, Mary Jane Burns and Doug Mahoney, and Jean McCauley and Bill Rogers were just a few of the dates you were apt to see.

After the dance, Johnny Park had a little party in his home on Lexington. His date, Julie McNeil, Judy Whitlock and Harry Cole, Ann Frenhauf and Freddy Stuart, Jim McKeown and Bob Scott, Billy Cole and Chuck Fletcher, Jane Uni and Bob Rodgers, Joe Cole and Tom Hatcher, Carol Gausburg and Joe Jennings, Fitz-Jones Stantell and Dick Barnett, and Gayle Heron and Renny Semmler were most of the guests there.

There's one other guest worth mentioning—plenty worth mentioning, and that's Tony Pastor. The popular orchestra leader came out to the party with Ann Frenhauf and Freddy Stuart.

Guess where Millie Maliszewski of Mexico, no less. She left Friday night for a ten day stay, which means she'll miss Jane! This bridge-luncher, among other things. That comes of today.

Janet was hostess to 17 guests, and they had their luncheon at the Hawthorne House after which they went to Janet's home on Nell road for bridge. The guests were Doris Zeno, Jo and Shirley Anderson, Mary Jan. Barrows, Jean McKeown, Andrea Quail, Jean Bennett, Ann Johnston, Marjette Lennon, Shirley Slicker, Dottie Oth, Jane's cousin, Jeanette Hindley, Doris Clark, Betty Harn, Madeline Hicker, and Doty Vining.

Handy Newberry, flew up from Scott, Field, Illinois, Friday night, and left Tuesday afternoon. Needless to say, Ann Power was one mighty happy and busy gal those three and a half days.

The Pointe needs air raid warden. Have you volunteered?

Blood Donors Badly Needed

Red Cross Mobile Unit Appointments Being Made

Pointers wishing to make blood donations to the American Red Cross are urged to call the Fifth road branch, Tuesday 2-7850, and make appointments to be on hand when the mobile unit comes to the Pointe April 21.

The unit will be sent from the Blood Donor station at the Red Cross to the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, where it will remain on that day from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. It is estimated that about 100 donations can be taken during the period.

Lives Depend On It Lives of American soldiers and sailors are depending on transfusions of the blood. Even under the best conditions of battle this new product of modern science can be administered to men suffering from shock resulting from injuries, burns and hemorrhage. There is no way of telling in advance the blood type of a victim or donor. Processed in dried powder form, the liquid content of the blood or plasma, can be kept almost indefinitely and used immediately when dissolved in the fluid of distilled water packed with each unit.

Ships Were Supplied When war was declared, capital and hospital ships of the Pacific Fleet were already supplied with blood plasma prepared in the Red Cross program, and further supplies were on hand in the Philippines for use by the armed forces there.

Although the current Red Cross program calls for 1,000,000 donations, war conditions will demand a much greater supply. The people of Grosse Pointe can be proud of the opportunity to give literally themselves in this vital phase of national defense.

MURDER STILL UNSOLVED Nothing new has developed in the R. G. Richards murder case of four weeks ago in Grosse Pointe Woods. Authorities revealed, however, that an arrest may be made soon.

Discuss Wedding Plans

JANE MALCOMSON and EDDIE STROH found that a stroll on Easter Sunday afternoon affords an excellent opportunity to discuss their plans. Their engagement was announced at a family tea on Saturday in the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Malcomson, of Yorkshire road. Eddie is the son of Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinman, of Harvard boulevard, and the late Edwin R. Stroh. The wedding date is yet indefinite, but Eddie is leaving in two weeks to join the Merchant Marine.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Troy, of St. Clair avenue, took advantage of the Easter holidays for the celebration of their wedding. Ann Fraser Troy at Church Church. Those present at the ceremony gathered at the Troy's for cocktails and afterwards a group went on to the Little Club for dancing and dancing.

Among the Troy's friends celebrating the event were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Gillis, Jr., Mrs. William A. Coombs, daughter of Mrs. William A. Coombs, of Yorkshire road, Eddie is the son of Mrs. J. Mary E. Coombs To Wed Soldier

Announcement is made of the engagement of Mary E. Coombs, daughter of Mrs. William A. Coombs, of Yorkshire road, and the late William A. Coombs, to Lieutenant Charles F. Gullford, of Fort Benning, Georgia, son of Mrs. Frank N. Gull, of Detroit, and the late C. A. Gullford.

Miss Coombs attended Miami University and was affiliated with the Delta Delta Delta sorority and studied at Arts and Crafts in Detroit. Lieutenant Gullford is a graduate of Lehigh University and a member of the Sigma Phi Fraternity.

Just to illustrate their point, here's a letter along the same tenor: "Our language is being up in bed, in the very nicest room, surrounded by flowers, wearing my prettiest nightgown and bed jacket, with an orchid on my left shoulder" and NO VISITORS ALLOWED! The Mrs. in the glass cage had nothing on on."

Two of the Pointe's top-flight society matrons were on a California-bound train not so long ago when they realized a group of movie people further down the car was discussing them.

Following a furtive glance by one of the women from Hollywood they caught the movie-widger "The Duke looks like the Duchess of Windsor."

Whereupon a second sneaked a peek at the Pointe pair, shook her head and solemnly stated: "Oh... more like a lady byer."

Among those from the Pointe who were on hand to hear the good news were the Hamilton O'Connors of Ford court, the Sherman Filistomons of Stephens road, the Paul Melkins of Moore road, the Lloyd McCreath of Yorkville Drive, the Almon Allen of Lincoln road and the William Westinghouse of Rosemead place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman J. Filistomons of Stephens road are entertaining with a supper party tonight in honor of Mrs. Filistomons' brother, Joseph Collins, and his fiancée.

Mrs. Collins is scheduled to be sent to Fort Custer, Friday, as a member of the Selective Service Army.

Gardening Round Table to Be Held

The Detroit Garden Center is holding a Victory Gardening meeting on Monday, April 13 at 8 p.m. at the Lewis E. Moore School, 740 Cadillac road, Grosse Pointe.

This meeting is for the benefit of the many new gardeners who want to have Victory Gardens, with vegetables and flowers so that they will be attractive as well as useful.

Mrs. Horace B. Peabody, vice-president of the Garden Center and Mrs. George T. Bardin, director, will be there to advise these ambitious gardeners. William Marsh, who has had many years of experience in gardening in a vacant lot near his home, will have practical advice to give. There will be an informal round table meeting and everyone interested is invited to come to learn or to give help.

Members of the Grosse Pointe Horticultural Council will come to sell of the assistance this council will be able to give to these home gardeners.

St. Joan of Arc Unit Plans Victory Lunch

League of Catholic Women in Midst of Membership Drive; Successful Solicitors Will Be Guests

The St. Joan of Arc unit of the League of Catholic Women are sponsoring a Victory Luncheon to be held at the Activities building on Parsons street, Tuesday, April 14. All solicitors of new memberships who have obtained ten or more new members, will be the guests of the unit at the luncheon.

Mrs. C. W. Olmwall, head of the membership drive, suggests that due to the many defense demands on everyone at this time, some prospective memberships may not have been solicited.

She urges that in such cases, the solicitor be contacted, and the membership will be picked up. Solicitors include Mrs. Ben Haven of Fleetwood drive, Mrs. Ed McCauley of Shattuck avenue, Mrs. C. G. Moffet, of Hampton road, Mrs. Julia Ballew of Hawthorne road, Mrs. John Whilly of County Circle, Mrs. John Paul Lee of Lancaster avenue, and Mrs. Leo Manning of Beattishaven avenue.

Enough copper for 3,816 BOMBERS

Salvaged by The Detroit Edison Company last year

SALVAGE of critical materials—doubly important in wartime—has made possible worthwhile economies in our business for the last twenty years. In striving to furnish the best possible service at the lowest cost, we have constantly sought new methods of achieving more efficient operation. The economies we have made—through salvage and in other ways—have been passed on to our customers in the form of lower electric rates.

Aluminum is not the only metal needed in the construction of fighting planes. One type of bomber requires more than 200 miles of copper wire to "keep it flying." Another needs 500 pounds of copper per plane... a quarter of a ton of the metal. Last year The Detroit Edison Company's Salvage Division reclaimed 1,908,395 pounds of copper—enough for 3,816 bombers. The Company also salvaged 1,358,193 pounds of lead... and various other metals such as scrap iron, aluminum, brass, zinc, etc.

During the coming months, Detroit Edison service will undoubtedly be restricted in several ways, because so much of it will be needed by the government for the war effort. With rubber tires, cars, etc. being rationed, we are adjusting our work to meet wartime conditions. Because we have no priority rating on tires for delivery trucks or the ordinary light cars with which we do most of our business, you may be inconvenienced to a certain extent. But emergency service—storm, wires down, etc.—will be handled as promptly as ever. On other types of service—where you may have to wait a little longer—we ask your patience.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY
