FIRE IN LA SALLE HOTEL, Chicago, which cost 58 lives in the early hours of yesterday morning, being investigated by six different agencies... fire which appears to have originated under an elevator while below street level, snuffed out many lives or floors far above any point actually reached by the flames by dense smoke which poured out of elevator shaft... a blind woman is lead down a fire escape for 11 floors by her seeing-eye dog... Mrs. Julia Berry, a 44-year-old telephone switchboard operator, sticks to her post, warning people to leave their rooms, after she had been told by a hotel official to leave, and is found dead at her post of duty. A fire marshal says he sent hotel officials a list of 10 violations of city fire prevention ordinances on May 10, but Mayor Kelly says that as far as he knew none of these caused the fire... he says, however, 15-20 minutes lapsed between the discovery of the fire and the sending in of the first alarm to the city fire department... The loss of life greatest in Chicago hotel history.

FRED M. VINSON, Secretary of the Treasury, becomes the thirteenth Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court by appointment by President Truman, announced at a press conference yesterday afternoon... at same time says John W. Snyder, Director of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, will be the new Treasury head... Snyder's present office has been given the "kiss of death" and will be allowed to slide gradually out of business. Snyder is a Missourian and life-long personal friend of the President.

A CALIFORNIA JUDGE sets a new pace in divorce proceedings in the Golden State by telling Mrs. Jay Gould III, that the matters she alleges in suing for divorce are insufficient. ### High School Commencement Speakers

The three students chosen to give the annual commencement day speeches at the Grosse Pointe High School graduation exercises Thursday night, put the finishing touches on their work. Left to right are BUTCH SKAU, MARY LOU EWING and DAVID SUTTER. They will speak on the topic, "Educated Men." They were chosen by teachers and their fellow students.

Mystery of Many Missing Items from Boyer Residence Solved with Maid's Arrest

Quantity of Loot Found in Her Room; Earrings Valued at $3,000 Had Been Pawned for $200

The mystery of the disappearance of jewelry and clothing from the Harold R. Boyer home at 17700 East Jefferson avenue, has been cleared up.

The Grosse Pointe City police a week ago Monday arrested Laura M. Cameron, aged 22, in a boarding house on Trumbull avenue, Detroit. She had been a maid in the household for the past 14 months. In the room of the Cameron girl they recovered two bedspreads, eight or ten dresses belonging to Mrs. Boyer, 20 pieces of table linen and other fabric articles. They also found a pair of earrings valued at $450.

They got a complete confession from the girl. The valuable earrings reported as worth $3,000 to $4,000, mentioned in the first accounts of the robbery, she had sold to a combination pawn and jewelry shop in the Capital theater building for only $200. These were quickly recovered by the police. The whole proceeding of the firm were in legal order, however, even to the reporting of the purchase to the police.

The Cameron girl had already given away to girl friends various articles of clothing and smaller jewelry.

Mr. Boyer is convinced that it was the operations of the girl in the household which accounted also for the disappearance last October of a valuable gun and a wrist watch belonging to him.

Although the girl is an inoffensive looking little person she is being disclosed as an old timer at this line of work. She was in trouble in Chicago two years ago on identical charges. How it was settled there is not yet known.

She came originally from Toronto but is now an American citizen. She is in the county jail awaiting prosecution.

Bells Muffled At High School

The bells were muffled at Grosse Pointe High School on the night of June 7-8.

Police investigating a break-in and entering report there, found 18 nickel, class-dismissal bells, had been stolen from the walls of classrooms on the first floor of the building. They were located in an unused locker and each was individually wrapped in a towel.

Three other bells stolen from the Arts building behind the main structure are still missing.

Brilliant Student Discovers Good Marks Produce Payoff

Harry D. Garber, 1338 Bishop road, Grosse Pointe Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Garber, may take his choice of three top-ranking colleges in a year when college entrance is presenting a puzzling problem to many young people.

Harry has been awarded scholarships to Harvard College, Yale University, and the University of Michigan. He has accepted the Yale grant and expects to undertake a law course there in the fall.

An outstanding student at Grosse Pointe High School, Garber was active in sports and the various school affairs, ranking in the upper ten of his class of approximately 300.

The "total aid" freshman scholarship awarded by Yale University for the two terms of the

Hospitals Get Oxygen Tents From Rotary

Service Organization Presents Equipment to Cottage and Bon Secours

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club has presented both the Bon Secours and Cottage Hospitals with a complete oxygen tent outfit. They are greatly appreciated by the management of each institution and will supplement their facilities for handling emergency cases requiring oxygen treatment.

The tents with supplementary equipment cost $585 each.

Purse Snatcher Collects $25

Margaret Shepard, employed in the Murray Sales household at E. Jefferson and Lincoln, stepped off a bus just before midnight Thursday, and was proceeding to the house when a purse snatcher grabbed her hand bag and ran towards Jefferson.

Miss Shepard screamed and followed him a few steps. She thinks he was concealed in some of the heavy bushes which line the Lincoln side of the property.

Her only description of the man is that he was about 5' 7" tall, weighed apparently about 140 pounds, was a white man and wore no hat. Police scoured the neighborhood for a long time but were unable to locate any possible suspect. Miss Shepard had about $25 in cash in her purse.

Wallets Stolen At Farms Pier

Two wallets were stolen from a locker at the Farms municipal dock on June 10, according to a report to the village police.

William Cattermo of 4603 Neff road, said his missing wallet contained a dollar. Another, stolen from Charles Wendels of 5402 Hereford, contained $9. Wendels said he also lost a lighter.

Traffic Victim

A dog belonging to the A. H. Tuscany family at 1060 Berkshire was run over by a car and killed in front of 1134 Beaconsfield on Thursday evening.

300 Will Get Diplomas at High School

Institution's Proudest Graduation Scheduled to Be Held Tonight

One of the most unique and proud graduation exercises the Grosse Pointe High School has ever held, or probably ever will have, however long it carries on, is scheduled for tonight. Weather permitting, the exercises will be held on the High School grounds; otherwise they will be held in the Pierce Auditorium.

What gives this June '46 event its special distinction is the fact that along with the 225 12A's there will be about 75 veterans. These young men who have been matured in war, have given the

Tickets Required For Commencement

Reserved seat tickets issued for Grosse Pointe High School Commencement must be presented to obtain reserved seats if the program is held on the school grounds.

If it is necessary, because of rain, to hold the program at the Pierce Auditorium, the same tickets, of course, must be presented to obtain reserved seats there. The reserved seat section on the school grounds is identical in arrangement with the seating plan at Pierce Auditorium.

Reserved seat tickets must be presented to obtain reserved seats whether the program is held on the high school grounds or at Pierce.

normal years of their life which would have been spent in the peaceful study of the class room, to the service of their country in the greatest war in all its history.

Needless to say the boys and girls who are graduating in the regular schedule of their years, will recall forever after with pride and thrill the day they got their diplomas along with their "classmates" from the far Pacific and the battlefields of Europe.

And the fighting men themselves, with the tolerance and understanding born of the maturing environment of their past few years, will suffer no chagrin at receiving their diplomas in company with the youngsters, many of them recall as mere small boys and girls, maybe actually in company with kid brother or sister.

This circumstance, which may never be repeated in the Grosse Pointe High school, is going to make this commencement a never-to-be-forgotten thrill above and beyond all of the usual moving experiences of this high spot of young lives.

Decorations, music, the lists of proud parents, all will hold but a feeble place in memory's niche compared to being a part of the same group on this great day.

The class has specially requested that the processional and recessional marches be "Pomp and Circumstance" rendered by the band. The invocation and benediction will be given by the Rev. Andrew F. Rauth.

The Girls' Glee club will sing "Glory of the Dawn" and "A Tiny Seed Becomes a Shrine".

The diplomas will be given out by Dr. Paul L. Essert, superintendent of Grosse Pointe schools, and the awards and scholarships will be named by Walter R. Clemenston, principal of the High School.

The traditional awards to be given out are the American Legion Citizenship Medal and Certificate, the Bausch and Lomb Award, the Mothers' Club Honor Cup and the Trinity College Alumni Award.

Farms Council Meets Tuesday

The regularly scheduled Farms Council meeting which was to have been held next Monday night, June 17, has been postponed until 8 p. m. Tuesday night, June 18, because of a lack of quorum, it has been announced by Harry Furton, Village Clerk.

CPA Denies Pointe Permission to Build School on Vernier

Permit for Constructing Quonset Hut Library on High School Grounds Is Also Refused by Government

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education, after making strenuous efforts to secure the permit to build an 18-room section of the new school building proposed to be erected on Vernier-Mack, received a formal notice from the Civilian Production Authorities that the application had been denied.

Application for constructing a Quonset Hut library building on the high school grounds on Kercheval Avenue, to take the place of the present City Branch Library from which the Board of Education has been ordered to move, was also rejected.

The application of the Board of Education for permission to build a 4-room Quonset Hut addition to the Vernier School was approved.

Application for the 18-room section of the proposed school building on Vernier-Mack was submitted on April 30, together with a complete statement of needs and the urgent need of the use of this building to relieve congestion of school population in the east end of the school district.

The Superintendent of Schools and the staff of the Board of Education have subsequently had several conferences with the Civilian Production Authorities, in an effort to secure this permit. In the discussion regarding the permit the CPA has pointed out that they are permitting building only where the entire school district shows an average class size of forty pupils per classroom.

"We have tried to show the authorities," said the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Paul L. Essert, "that, while the class size in Grosse Pointe as a whole has not and does not tend to reach forty pupils per classroom, it could, nevertheless, be shown fairly reliably that by September 1947 most of the classes in the schools in the east end of the district will have reached approximately forty pupils per classroom, if all of them were attending school in that section of the district. It has furthermore been pointed out that we have practically reached the limit of our capacity in other school buildings in the district for transporting pupils."

However, the CPA in their rejection have stated, "The shortage of materials and facilities required for construction makes it imperative that all deferrable and less essential construction be postponed in order that the Veterans' Housing Program may go forward to completion. We are compelled, therefore, to deny authorization at this time for your proposed construction."

The permit to construct the Quonset Hut addition of four rooms at the Vernier School has opened the way for the Board of Education to receive bids for this construction. Bids for the erection of the Quonset Hut addition at the Vernier School, which will be located at the rear of this small school building, will be opened on June 20. It is

Court Will Rule On Street Fight

Testimony concerning a fight that occurred on Oak street on the night of June 6 will be heard in Farms police court on June 19.

According to the police report, uncomplimentary remarks were passed outside of the Punch and Judy bar between Herbert Fenton, 20, of 8100 East Jefferson, John Herdeggen, 19, of 60 Kenwood, and William and Harry Michaels, 48 and 43 respectively, of 157 Oak street.

Fenton and Herdeggen are said to have followed the Michaels brothers to Oak street, where the fight started. Fenton is reported to have thrown a coat over William's head, then broken his nose, following which he turned on Harry and broke his glasses. Herdeggen did not strike any blows, according to the report.

The Michaels have signified they will sign complaints and the hearing has been set for June 19.

Thousands Flock to Opening Of New Woods Supermarket

If Jack Laurie, president of Wrigley Markets, ever doubted the soundness of his judgment in picking Grosse Pointe Woods as the location for his newest and largest store, all his qualms must have been dispelled at the grand opening on Wednesday.

Mack avenue, from Moross road north for half a mile or more, was crammed with cars of those who came to see and to buy.

Plans called for opening the store at 9 o'clock. But by 8 a. m. such a crowd had gathered that Mr. Laurie figured he'd better open at once. A capacity crowd was admitted, with a line a block long still waiting its turn.

The new market is probably the largest in the entire Pointe area. The very latest equipment has been installed in this supermarket. Delicatessen, dairy and produce departments are self-serve as well as the other standard departments. Open top refrigeration is used to keep vegetables garden fresh and still allow the customer to help himself.

Those flocking to Wednesday's opening were delighted to find the new market well stocked with hard-to-get items. A loud speaker system was used to direct customers to the products they were seeking. Mr. Laurie greeted his many new friends at the main entrance.

Nick Ritter is the store manager of this market, No. 18 in the Wrigley chain.

A parking lot large enough to accommodate the cars of all customers is being developed next door to the market.

Closing Date Now Shifted To July 15

Study Group Cites Growing Interest and Diversity of Opinion in Pointe

The essay contest being conducted by the Permanent War Memorial Study Group of Grosse Pointe, which was to have been terminated on June 15, has been extended one month.

Announcement of the extension was made by the Group during the weekend in the following statement:

"Because of the growing interest and the diversity of opinion over just what form the Grosse Pointe War Memorial should take, it has been decided by the Permanent War Memorial Study Group of Grosse Pointe to extend the deadline for turning in essays in connection with the $300 War Bond competition until July 15, 1946. This additional time will give more opportunity for discussion at the meetings of the various Grosse Pointe business and social groups and the expression of these groups and residents at large will facilitate the awarding of the prizes and the final recommendation of the Permanent War Memorial Study Group."

Many Pointe organizations have shown an interest in the movement to determine what form the memorial will take. Most active has been the Varsity Club of Grosse Pointe High School, whose members past and present have campaigned for a field house or gymnasium.

The Pointe branch of the American Association of University Women and the Pointe Friends of the Library have both gone on record as favoring a library.

Love Almost Finds a Way

Tinkling Glass Disturbs Young Couple's Frantic Search for Privacy

A citizen living in the vicinity of Mack and Whittier was awakened shortly after 1 o'clock Tuesday morning by the sound of breaking glass. He saw a man and girl running away from the vicinity of the nearby voting booth.

The police found the window broken but further ingress into the solemn sanctum of the electorate had been barred by a tough window screen.

The police nonchalantly remarked that there was less embarrassment for young lovers in the welcome seclusion of a voting booth than in the ordinary spooner car, which the police of the Pointe have a mean habit of peering into.

Unwanted Car Awaits Owner

Mrs. Frederick Young of 16222 St. Paul has had her curiosity much piqued by a strange car that has been parked in the family garage for the past several days. The orphan car has been there since June 3. Some one had left it there without so much as by-your-leave.

She reported it to the police and they found it was listed as belonging to a Florence Wellwood of 8100 E. Jefferson avenue; but no Florence Wellwood could be located at that address nor any other place. So they hauled the car out of the garage and parked it in the rear of the police station to await developments.

Wicking Wins School Post

Bert H. Wicking, candidate for election to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, was given 142 votes of the total of 150 cast at the school election on Monday, June 10. He was unopposed.

Jackson says the Court was divided into two factions with Black, Reed, Daughass and Murphy on one side and Frankfurter, former Justice Roberts and himself on the other... says in one passage of his six page blast that if Black and others were declaring war on him, he "proposed to wage it with the weapons of an open warrior and not those of a stealthy assassin"... # Park Planning Body Miffed Over Apathy Of Village Fathers

Mrs. John Pear Resigns; Commissioners' Defend Their Failure to Attend Meetings of Organization

The Park Village's Planning Commission which was launched some months ago with high hopes for the progressive development of the village along modern lines, has run into a snag.

This was brought into the open at the Commissioners' meeting Monday night when the resignation of Mrs. John R. Pear, of 707 Trombly road, the only woman member of the Planning Commission, was presented.

Mrs. Pear's resignation prompted Commissioner Joel C. Sage to speak at some length on matters which have handicapped the Planning Commission's work and led to a deal of discontent within that body.

This situation can be explained, at least in part, by reference to the nature of its constitution. The present planning commission owes authority on all their acts and recommendations.

As it is now, the planning commission feels that it is not more than a sort of sub-committee working under the jurisdiction of the Board of Village Commissioners, who themselves do not deign to even attend its meetings.

While the matter was under discussion Monday night all of the village commissioners spoke most appreciatively of the fine work the planning commission has done. Commissioner Gillett gave them credit for the painstaking and complete job they had done in drafting the present building code.

Commissioner McMillan spoke of its fine work in other directions. Commissioner Bloodworth defended the planning commission strongly and sympathized with their grievances. It was apparent that all of the commissioners sensed their lack of cooperation with the planning commission.

It is understood that Bruce Tappan, the president of the planning commission, thinks that it should have been created under state law already in existence which provides an official basis for such bodies. This was never done in the Park village, where the consensus of opinion among the village commissioners was that the planning commission should be directly responsible to them, who are in turn responsible for all financial commitments of the municipality.

When this theme was resurrected at the informal discussion Monday night Commissioner Bloodworth strongly maintained that the ultimate authority of the village commission would not be impinged upon if the planning commission was erected on the state law.

It is quite possible also that the feelings of the planning commission were somewhat ruffled by the fact that the recommendation which it made some weeks ago that the 'teen aged group of youngsters should have dances, with juke boxes, candy bars, et al, at public expense, was ignored. This recommendation was made by the planning commission as an antidote for the growing juvenile delinquency.

This recommendation thus far hasn't got out of the pigeonhole. It was agreed that President Parshall should have a talk with Mr. Tappan and other members of the planning commission to get closer to their viewpoint.

But so far as surface indications go at the moment it is looking as if the Park village might soon be without the services of the group of citizens who have given of their time unselfishly to make plans for the coming "City Beautiful" which all hoped the Park might be at some not too distant day.

Park Tax Rolls Now Completed

The Park village tax rolls have been completed and bills will go out on July 1. The penalty is supposed to go on, on August 1 but the usual practice is to grant an additional month.

This means then, a penalty of 1 per cent will be added on September 1 and 1 per cent on each succeeding month for October, November and December. Those taxes remaining unpaid by the first of the year are certified over to the County Treasurer for collection as delinquent taxes.

The millage in the Park this year is 18.16 per thousand of assessed valuation. This is 1.88 mills higher than last year. The assessed valuations remain practically the same.

SPEEDING COSTS $25

Edward J. Herman of 1141 Nottingham was before Judge McNally in Park Traffic Court on June 5 for speeding on Jefferson avenue. The police confided that they clocked him at the virile speed of 62 m.p.h. at one burst, but were willing to let the charge stand at 50 m.p.m. For this Mr. Herman was fined $20 and $5 costs.

There was a garage fire at the Muir B. Snow, Jr. at 460 Rivard Sunday afternoon. It was extinguished without material loss by City firemen.

Sessions in Summer School Start Monday in High School

Registration Starts Friday and Term Will Last Through Final Examinations on August 8

The Grosse Pointe Summer School begins its 1946 session next Monday morning, June 17, at 8 o'clock in the High School building. Registration will begin tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. in Room 114 and will continue on Saturday morning and through the first part of next week.

Mr. Selmeier, the summer school principal, has urged that students be enrolled on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning, whenever that is possible, in order to avoid any unnecessary delay in getting started. The fee of $7 a course for students resident in Grosse Pointe, or $14 for students who are non-resident, must be paid in order to complete enrollment and enter any classes.

The summer school term is for eight weeks with final examinations being held in all high school classes on Thursday, Aug. 8. With each class meeting for 90 minutes daily, the student thus covers the same essentials of each course as he might in any semester of the regular school year.

However since this rate is so much more rapid for each night of homework the student must necessarily limit himself in the amount of work he undertakes. Discontinuing the wartime speed-up program with its afternoon supervised study period, the post-war student will be limited to 13 hours of work for credit. Less work is recommended.

Classes are scheduled in most of the major fields of school work. Unfortunately there will be no instrumental music classes this summer as no qualified instructor could be secured. With teachers engaged for all the other courses, no further curtailments are expected.

While the majority of summer school students will enroll in high school subjects, three rooms on the first floor are being reserved for special instruction in arithmetic, spelling, and reading for pupils in grades three to six. These courses are not organized on the credit basis common to the high school years but are planned to give individual attention and drill to the younger boys and girls in the fields where most attention is needed.

Many hearing defects in children can be prevented. The Michigan Department of Health urges parents to take a child to the physician at the first sign of trouble: ear ache, "running ears", tenderness around the ears.

Facts Out of Russia

The opinions of Eddy Gilmore, Associated Press, correspondent in Moscow for the past six years, should go far to calm the dithers of a lot of persons in this country on the possibility of war with Russia.

He says that to a man who has lived closely and intimately with the Russian people for so long, including the taking of a Russian girl for a wife, it is difficult to understand the agitation of the American mind.

To him the most significant argument against the possibility of conflict between the democracies of the west and the Russians is that the Russian people from the highest officials of state down to the lowliest peasant passionately desire peace.

Her devotion to the economic development of the country ever since she first emerged from the chaos of the revolution, with their successive five-year plans, is proof from recent history of the Russian peoples' genuine dedication to peace. War and economic development are irreconcilably opposed.

This known policy of the Russian state, added to the loss of millions of lives and billions in materials which she suffered in the war, adds up to the irrefutable argument that war is the last thing on the Russian agenda.

Mr. Gilmore does not question the sincerity of their devotion to communism as a political system. But this is a question for the peoples of other states to settle within their own borders.

If Russian relations with the rest of the world are viewed with reasonable calm, her many recent acts which appear provocative, are better understood. She knows that eventually the time must come when the states of the world will have to sit around the council table to make the final dispositions which presumably are to stand for a very long time. She reasons that to maneuver herself into a strong position prior to the peace council is the legitimate prerogative of any forward looking state. There can be no quarrel with this purpose by any other country which is sufficiently wide awake to plead its own interests first. America cannot consistently quarrel with this policy.

The Russian heads of state were obviously never greatly impressed with the altruistic theories of political and social regulations which Mr. Roosevelt wrote into the Atlantic Charter and which Mr. Churchill, with a keen understanding of political expediency, accepted with a wry face.

If our statesmen can bring themselves to deal with the Russian situation realistically and not fear to urge our views politely but significantly as becomes the greatest power upon earth, many of these annoying and complicated impasses which our Muscovite friends delight in raising for their benefit, or our fancied intimidation, we may predict, will quickly melt away.

But we must not try to underwrite a cure for all of the injustices and ills of mankind. Particularly, we should get away from the habit of imagining that every delaying tactic that comes out of Russia is a studied prelude to war. Patience and common sense, coupled with firmness on the proper occasion and at the proper time, will dissolve a lot of this trouble which the perspective of a few years hence will show to have been greatly magnified.

Our New Chief Justice

If the qualities of honesty, common sense and strength of character commonly attributed to our new Chief Justice are true he will make a good Chief Justice. It is of lesser importance that he is not a master of law and a profound student of its higher realms of expression.

Honesty and common sense and a rugged understanding of the basic principles which the founding fathers sought to write into and interpret in our constitutional law are the needs of the time.

Latterly it has become one of the Chief Justice's major responsibilities to hold the personnel of the Court together as a dignified, working judicial unit above the plane of prejudices which unfortunately mark the work of many of our courts of lower jurisdiction. In this Vinson's predecessor, the late Chief Justice Stone, was peculiarly successful.

The blast which Justice Jackson hurled at Justice Black this week which dragged into the open the feuds and bitterness which have permeated our highest court dramatically visualizes the weight of the burden which Chief Justice Stone carried.

The people's reaction to the Jackson-Stone episode will be a resigned better late than never attitude even though impeachment proceedings might be the only end to the road. In the restoration of working harmony in the Court and its elevation again to public confidence the new Chief Justice faces a task of supreme importance to the whole American people. For them to have to surrender the confidence they have so long held in our highest Court would be a major disaster which our American scheme of government could scarcely survive.

If Frederick M. Vinson has these qualities, with which he is credited, and strength within himself to bring them to bear on a supreme bench which has undergone an obvious deterioration in the last two decades, he will be a great Chief Justice, and future generations appraising these evolutionary times through which we are living, will so rate him.

The Jewel Stealing

It is a matter of general humiliation that officers in our army should descend to the same level of thievery as the Nazi leaders. Hitler's and Goering's monumental stealing was one of the commonest items of reproach we used to hurl at the then German leaders.

The stealing of the royal jewels from the Kronberg Castle bore a striking similarity to the processes pursued by Herman Goering in amassing his priceless 'art collection.'

It is up to our Army and courts of justice to squelch this tendency in its beginning. We can do no less if our program for the rebuilding of the German political morality is to carry through.

DOMESTIC LIFE

One of our weaknesses is the appreciation of naive maids who "tell all" to all and sundry over the telephone. Added to our vast collection of Domesticobelia are the following tidbits picked up this week.

We had occasion to telephone a veddy chic matron and were told by the handmaiden that Madam couldn't take the phone because she was in a hurry to go out. We said it was important, then held the line while she screamed this information to Madam . . . and incidentally, we could hear Madam screaming back! Finally, the maid informed us. "You'd better tell ME what you want. Madam is in a rush to get to a meeting and she's running around naked." (We always wondered how the other half lived!)

Whipping into another snarl on our list, we encountered a maid who told us both her master and mistress were out. When we asked what time we might call to reach either one . . . she said, "Oh! I don't think they'll be home until bed time." This information gave us pause for thought, since we have both friends and acquaintances whose bedtime varies anywhere from 9 p. m. to 4 in the morning.

A local woman we know told this true story recently. Having planned a sizable dinner party and having had her choice maid disappear at the last minute, she frantically called several sources of domestic fillers-inners and finally got a butler, said to be a prize. And a prize he was, indeed!

At 8 o'clock, he "stalked" into the living room and announced to the hostess and guests in a loud voice, "Ladies and Gentlemen . . . dinner is ready, and it's ready NOW!" As usual, nothing happened to move the guests (or the hostess), so about five minutes elapsed before he came back again, coughed very indistinctly and shouted . . . "DINNER IS READY . . . and the hot food isn't getting any HOTTER!"

P. S. Like one person the guests arose to their feet and paraded to the dining room. Nothing like a dire threat to the inner man . . . we alluz sez.

MEN'S DEPT.

Do youse all wanna grow hair? Well, pull up a chair and read this carefully. Several months ago, a local gent who was toying with the hairlessness of middleage, began to grow "fuzz." Naturally, his equally bald friends were curious, but he wouldn't give with the secret. The sleuth in our bald head department went to work and found the source of the mystery tonic. A few years ago, a farmer in Oregon gave his pigs a concoction for something or other and found that they all grew hair like mad.

The astounded farmer, dumb like a fox, decided to capitalize on this phenomenon and did. After going through all the usual routines of growing hair on his friend's heads, perfecting the stuff, getting a patent, etc., he finally got it on the market. It is called "Brandenfel's Scalp and Hair Treatment" and can be bought at a Detroit chain store . . . which we can't mention here . . . so you know this ain't an "ad."

If you go to the Country Fair today and see some really chic things in the "White Elephant" booth, many of them are due to Junior Leaguers who have spent many hours fixin' em up. White Elephants are, as you must know, things you wouldn't give house room to . . . but your next door neighbor would give her eye teeth for them. The "Jay Ellers" have taken impossible looking objects and have painted and decorated them so that they are really fascinating.

Several women who gave White Elephants felt so embarrassed about them (on second thought), that they called on the W. E. group to get them back . . . but when they saw what the gals had done to them, they were SO impressed, they REALLY wanted them back . . . and were good enough sports to suggest buying them back at the Fair.

It has always been a conviction of ours that most people don't listen half the time to what anyone has to say. They nod politely, make the correct replies, interject polite 'umms' but their minds are usually on what THEY are thinking of. In one of our pixie moods last week, we attempted to prove our point, when we met one of Hollywood's outstanding actresses, who is doing her stint here for the Jubilee. Having heard many people address a well-known person (just after meeting her), "Miss Jones . . . may I call you Mary?" . . . we decided to reverse the procedure. We said (to this big-shot whose name we choose to disguise here) . . . "Mary, may I call you Miss Jones?" She turned her large blue eyes on us and in the dulcet tones for which she is noted, said, "PLEASE DO!" So we did.

Storm Water

The downpour of more than two inches of water that fell on the Pointe area a week ago last Friday has given rise to a deal of natural criticism from the residents whose cellars were flooded. What it couldn't tell to the average householder was the tremendous problem in storm water disposal that exists for every community occupying a level terrain whenever the heavens open their flood gates. Even with the most adequate man-made provision to meet such an emergency, they are apt to fail temporarily under the sudden overload.

There are, however, causes often contributing to a great degree which are directly traceable to the human failure. There was for example considerable flooding of cellars and basements in the Park village. The Park village itself has provided a surface water pumping station of large capacity, ample to meet any emergency that might arise, even the one of May 31. But this water has to be forced into the Fox creek drain and if that is of insufficient capacity to meet the overload, trouble is certain to occur.

This is what happened then. In 1938 the City of Detroit entered into a contract with the Park village to enlarge the vent through Fox creek into the lake to permit of sending through it 2,000 cubic feet of water per second.

This flow it was agreed by the Village and Detroit would be sufficient. It would be, even for such a downpour as the latest one. However with the war quickly following and for other excuses alleged by Detroit, this has not been done.

One of the first steps to be taken on the flood problem in the lower Pointe section is to see that Detroit fulfills its eight year old agreement.

Michigan Mirror

By GENE ALLEMAN

Tighter enforcement of Michigan liquor control regulations is resulting in a new campaign by wets to get the state out of the liquor business. Robert D. Wardell, former Detroit state representative who led a drive against the 18th amendment, is spearheading the 1946 movement. Wardell proposes a super-state commission of 17 members, each getting $7,500 salary and $2,500 expenses. Liquor dealers would buy direct from the distillers instead of from the state of Michigan which now takes a 30 to 35% "cut" of profits. The retailers' profit would be boosted about 100 per cent, and the consumer would pay more for each bottle—estimated now at 67 cents.

A fair sample of the enforcement campaign of the state liquor control commission:

Licenses cannot transfer their liquor license to another person for a period of one year after they have been obtained.

New applicants must take a written examination—first of its kind in the nation.

A minimum 30-day investigation period now prevails for transfer requests.

The assessment to defray cost of investigation into license transfer is raised from $10 to $35.

More strikes in Michigan are in the offing as a result of the 18½ cents per hour pay boost given to automotive, steel, electrical, railroad and coal mining workers. John P. Boyce, chairman of the regional wage stabilization board at Detroit, recently completed a survey of post-war wage increases in Michigan. A study of 1080 applications involving 200,000 workers revealed that only 15 per cent asked for 18½ cent increases. Why only 15 per cent? Employers had already upped wages and a less amount was required to equalize the rise in cost of living. That is where the trouble will begin. Coal prices are expected to rise from 35 to 60 cents a ton. Wage increases must be paid by the consumer. The Reuther theory of wage increases being paid out of industrial profits is an economic fallacy. Ask the OPA!

The legislative bonus committee will meet June 26 at Lansing to consider its final report. It is likely that the voters will be given an opportunity to authorize or reject a bond issue. State government cannot issue bonds without first getting the voters' approval by referendum. A suspicion: Candidates for office are more interested in a bonus than are the veterans themselves.

Michigan peach and sour cherry prospects are good for 1946. Anticipated are fair crops of apples, pears, plums, grapes and strawberries. Bean acreage is 28 per cent less than the 10-year average. The new price raise for dairy products is due to increased feed costs and a determination of Congress to slash food subsidies.

Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, says fewer roads and bridges will be built this year because of the coal and steel strikes. Contractors are unable to get steel for bridges or for reinforcing concrete pavement. Michigan cement plants are idle. Planned for 1946: $26,000,000 road improvements.

Approximately 100 war veterans have re-joined the Michigan State Police. A week's refresher course was given for them June 3 and June 10. During Commissioner Oscar Olande's absence in Japan where he is on temporary assignment, Capt. Donald Leonard is in charge.

A banner season is forecast this summer for Michigan's 70 state parks and recreational areas. State sales tax income is still soaring. May collections for April sales were 50 per cent higher than a year ago. The annual income rate is now $116,000,000 according to Louis M. Nims, state revenue commissioner.

If Republicans win control of the house of representatives at Washington in November, Michigan representatives are in line to get important chairmanships.

House banking and currency—Jesse P. Wolcott, Fort Huron. House committee on expenditures in executive departments—Clare E. Hoffman.

The Michigan Federation of Labor proposed to consolidate all state agencies now dealing with labor into one labor department. At present independent agencies: State labor mediation board, state compensation commission, state unemployment compensation commission and the state labor department. In recent years the labor department has been headed by a leader of organized labor either from the A. F. of L. or the C. I. O.

Conservationists in northern Michigan are agitating a change for the trout season whereby the opening date would be May 15 and the closing date Sept. 15. Arguments: A later opening date would coincide with the pike season; most trout violations occur prior to May 15 and are committed by hungry pike fishermen; the later closing date would help the tourist industry.

Frank Davis, secretary of the East Michigan Tourist association, confided to us his favorite recipe for cooking perch. It's this: Soak the perch overnight in an egg batter, well seasoned with salt. Frank proved his point by taking us to lunch at Bay City last week. Yes, the perch were marvelous!

Health note: More than 100 cases of malaria, all confined to convalescent war veterans, have been reported in Michigan since Jan. 1.

The centennial of journalism in the Upper Peninsula will be observed by the Michigan Press Association on August 2 and 3

Ingersoll, the fourth president of the state press association. Its location was at Copper Harbor on the Keweenaw peninsula. The date: July 11, 1846. Ingersoll later moved the newspaper to Sault Ste. Marie.

Park to Survey Vehicular Needs

At the Park council meeting Monday night Commissioner Gillett made a motion, which was approved by the council, requesting the village manager to prepare a survey of the probable needs of the village in its vehicular equipment covering a long range period.

This would include every type of vehicle the village uses, including police cars, fire apparatus, garbage and street vehicles. The purpose is to arrange a schedule of probable replacements and the cost thereof as a basis of estimating the costs for the future.

Guesstimating

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

Some of the greatest, the wisest, men have said: "Who am I to determine the cause of, and treatment for, a disease which may affect me?" And they might well have continued by saying:

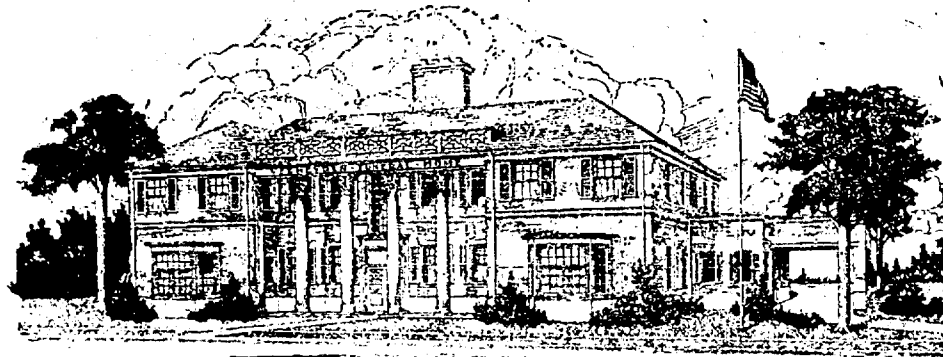

"Only a physician has the qualifications of long training and experience necessary to diagnose symptoms and prescribe treatment of the various diseases."

When you consult a physician you avoid the uncertainties of self medication. You place the responsibility where it can best be met.

When you patronize a trusted pharmacist you are assured of proper prescription compounding.

Season's Buds Ready For Social Splurge

Calendars Crammed with Dates for Dances, Dinners, Teas and Other Gay Functions for Young Things

They aren't officially called "debutantes" this season (our social spies tell us), but "they" are definitely going to have a season and it sounds like a whirl. We mean the young ladies whose mothers will be presenting them to society this month.

In the first place, there's a great deal of excitement over the announcement that feting the debutants of the season, and complementing their brother, William Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Benson Ford have planned a dance at the Grosse Pointe Club. The important date is July 2.

And now for some of the June dates:

Mrs. Armin Rickel of Edgemont Park has issued invitations to a garden tea which will take place next Monday afternoon, introducing her daughters, Gloria and Lorone.

On Tuesday, June 18, Mrs. Wilfred V. Casgrain and Mrs. Edward H. Murphy will present their daughters, Isabelle Casgrain and Maureen Murphy at a 4 till 6 p. m. reception in the Casgrain home on Willow lane.

Mrs. Wylie W. Carhart's luncheon for her debutante daughter, Gretchen, and also for Susan Duckett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ward Duckett, is scheduled for June 19 at the Country Club. That evening, Charlotte Nichols, who bowed earlier in the month at a Country Club reception, will be honored at a ball, also, at the Country Club, being given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott E. Nichols of Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Butler Higbie will give a dinner at the Country Club on June 21 for her debutante niece, Lizi Murphy, preceding the dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shelden will present their daughter, Cary, at the club.

Barbara and Nancy Hughes, will be the debutantes of June 22, when their mother entertains for them in their University place home at a reception from 4 until 6 o'clock.

It will be a reception from 5 until 7 o'clock on June 25 when Mr. and Mrs. Owen R. Skelton of Ridge home introduce their daughter Joyce. The following afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart Hudson will be hosts at a reception for their daughter, Julie. The Hudson party will be given in their Lothrop road home. That same evening, the twenty sixth, Julie Hudson, will also be honored at a dance by her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Buhl and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl Jr. in the Ellair place home of the Henry Buhls.

The deb crowd will be attending another dance on June 28

MISPLACED

Mrs. Hoffman, of 226 Fisher road, momentarily placed her purse on the trunk rack of her car last Saturday. Shortly after her son drove the car to the market center on Kercheval on an errand. Somewhere between Fisher and the shopping center on Kercheval lay a purse containing a small sum of money.

STONE THROWER ESCAPES

A stone was thrown through a window at the Hendrie estate on Fisher road on Jefferson, the caretaker, Bart Furtan, told Farms police on June 11. He said he had seen a boy throw it, but Officers Sylvester and Beaupre were unable to find him.

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

When we called one of our special favorites the other sultry afternoon to find out her Summer glamor plans...

She said to us, "Pardon me just a moment... I'm lighting my pipe"...

Mrs. Lester Ruwe is the only feminine pipe smoker we know and the addiction came innocently enough a few years back when the lovely lady was trying to cut down on cigarettes... someone suggested a pipe...

The pipe was better than cigarettes, as you knew it would be... and the most charming thing about the whole situation is that although first timers watching Mrs. R. invariably startled to see her lighting a pipe... she always looks startled, too... and it's a picture of which we never tire...

LESLIE DEVVOY LEAVING FOR CAMP

Well, it develops that Mrs. R. has already done a bit of early Summer traveling...

She's just back from St. Louis... where she collected the cutie, Leslie DeVoy, her niece, at Visitation Convent...

Leslie will leave the first of July for camp on Easthampton, Long Island.

RUWES WEEK-END AT AMHERSTBERG

Summer for the Ruwe family always means a series of delightful week-ends at their lodge at Amherstberg... just over the border...

Joining them on many of the week-ends will be their daughter in law, Mrs. James E. Scripps II... who will occupy the Scripps cabin on the adjoining property...

Incidentally the young man... Lieut. (j. g.) Scripps, is in this country for a few days before setting forth on the high seas again in the line of his Merchant Marine duties...

Understand Jimmy will remain with the Merchant Marine until he gets his captain's papers...

Most recently he's been to Bremen, Germany... where the wood carvings in the famous beer halls never cease to be objects of his admiration...

OF PLANE TRIPS AND CRUISES

Add lazy Summer fun:

The Donald R. Mitchells of Touraine road... left by plane this week for their summer home at Leland, Mich...

They'll be gone for the entire season...

It's a familiar sight to see the good ship Pam... sailing away from Little Club docks... of a Summer evenings...

Its owners... the Addison Holtons... cruise with friends several evenings each week... usually going up to the Flats for dinner and the moonlight trip back to the shores of the Pointe...

BEHOLD THE TENNIS VICTORS

Results of the tennis tournament at the T. D. Buhl's last Sunday were highly satisfactory to everyone...

But especially to Robert B. Edgar... Mrs. William Curran... George E. Schenck... and Mrs. John O'Keefe...

Mr. Edgar and Mrs. Curran were winners of first prize in the mixed doubles tournament... Mr. Schenck and Mrs. O'Keefe were runners-up...

Mr. E. won a handsome pen and pencil set... and Mrs. Curran received a silver bowl, both engraved with "T. D. Buhl's Tennis Tournament Winner, June 1946" and all...

The runners-up were awarded silver matchboxes to hold those wonderful kitchen size matches which Pointers consider best of all.

MRS. REILLY VISITS BUHL'S

Mrs. H. E. Reilly of Brooklyn is...

Here visiting her son-in-law and daughter... the T. D. Buhl's... at their Ridge road home...

Mrs. Reilly will be here until about the twentieth of the month...

When she'll motor back to her home in the East with Mr. Buhl...

DON'T FORGET THE COUNTRY FAIR

Don't forget the Junior League Country Fair... going on the very day...

At the estate of the late E. L. Ford...

We thought it an interesting note... that Ann Whitehead and her bridegroom-elect, Woody Crouse...

Politely but graciously refused any parties in their honor the day...

The advance publicity on the Fair sounded so good to them they couldn't bear to miss it...

Hope you feel the same way... for the cause is a great one...

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, dean of Michigan riding organizations, will present the first postwar full-dress three-day horse show in Michigan at its 35th annual exhibition June 21, 22 and 23.

The show, which will be open to the public at the Cook road club grounds, will devote the entire first day to a junior show, with 17 classes ranging from exhibitions of fine saddle horses to exciting jumping events.

Included is a tri-club hunter challenge trophy event for junior members of Grosse Pointe Hunt, Bloomfield Open Hunt and Chagrin Valley Hunt of Ohio. Interest is intense in this class because the rivalry goes back to the days when the Bloomfield Hunt was organized originally as a branch of the Grosse Pointe club.

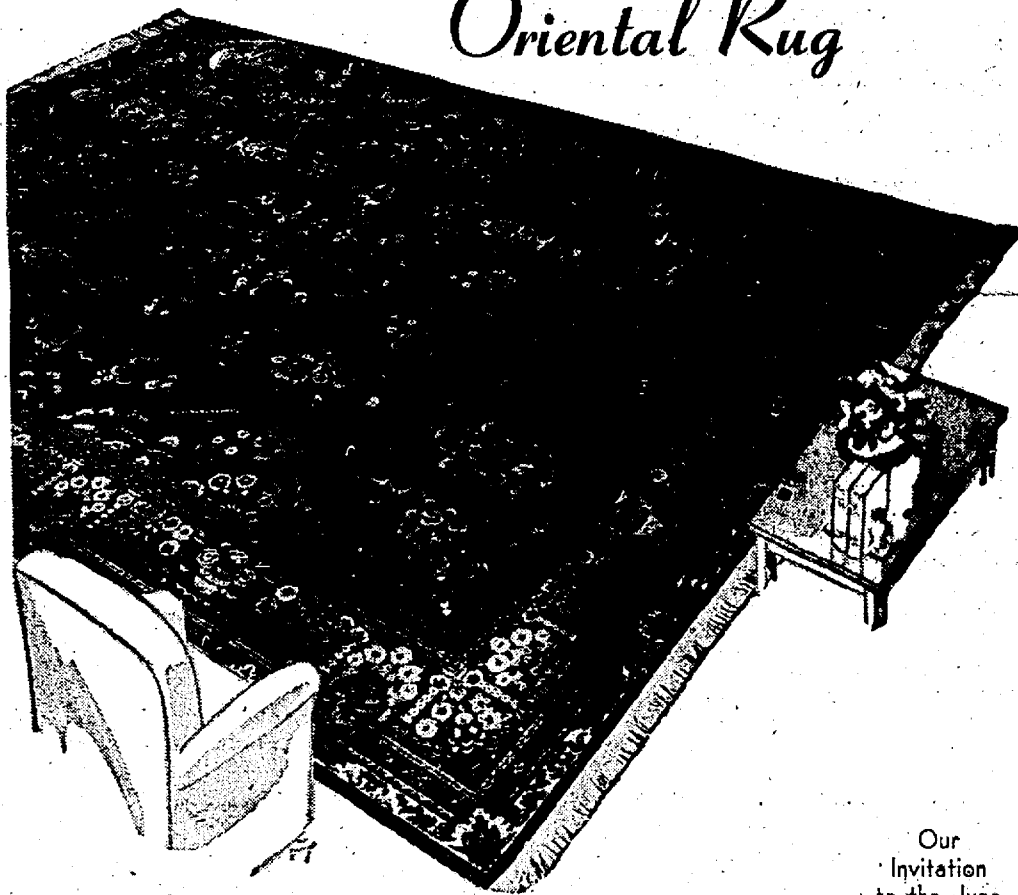

Events of more than usual interest in the hunter classes will be the Corinthian, to be ridden in full hunt livery or by officers of the U. S. Army in uniform, and the hunt teams to be ridden under the same conditions but in pairs.

Included for the first time in the Grosse Pointe Show will be a class for Tennessee Walking Horses, a breed of saddle horse that is becoming increasingly popular on the bridge paths of the North since its importation from the South a few years ago. It was originally developed as a plantation horse by those who spent long hours in the saddle and desired a steed that provided ease for the rider without distress to the horse under trying conditions.

There will be classes for parent and child, riding together in similar tack and dress; fine harness classes, and the exciting touch-and-out and knockdown-and-out in the hunter and jumper classes, in both of which perfect performance over the fences is the only standard of judging.

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club was founded in 1911 by an enthusiastic group of horsemen living in the district who felt that the interests of one were the interests of all. George Lothrop, Capt. Burns Henry, Elliot S. Nichols, Col. Fred M. Alger, West son Seyburn and many others whose names were woven into the history of Detroit, were among the first group.

Felicitations to the June Bride

Our Invitation to the June Bride

It takes what it has to provoke, in praise, from the lips of the critic and the lay, the oft repeated expressions in such exclamatory terms as these: Beautiful, lovely, excellent, grand, precious, luscious, valuable, practical. It has an illustrious history, filled with admiration, by Ancient and modern civilizations: Royalties, old and new, have glorified its name; it has graced the walls and floors of palatial households throughout the five grand divisions of the earth; financial and business houses utilize it to lend an atmosphere of dignity, exclusiveness, and excellence to the rooms of their presidents and board of directors; museums, search the uttermost parts of the earth for its best specimens, buy and safekeep them for future generations; learned professors study its ingredients, the wool, silk, linen, dye, and weaving to ascertain its proper value; connoisseurs, those critics of all arts, speak of it reverently and lavishly, reading the symbols representing its pattern and its place of origin; brides of all ages longingly hope for one or more of its kind to add to their prized possessions; weavers, especially the female species, win their future husbands through the excellent work done on their dowerly rugs; exporters, importers, and dealers tell a thousand tales while extolling its merit and virtue; domestic rug and carpet manufacturers, to enhance the selling value of their product, copy its patterns and colors; the layman citizen, that middle class of human beings, constituting the greatest majority of the average Mr. and Mrs. home owner, craves with a burning desire, to "some day" convert that bond, bank account or other valuables into cash for the purpose of purchasing one or more of those Oriental heirlooms; and if I have failed to give you a more complete picture of its beauty and grandeur, let me add my humble seal of approval of all its worth and excellence—Yes, that's it—

The incomparable Oriental Rug.

We would like to have the privilege of showing to you our vast collection of Oriental Rugs—The finest in Michigan.

A NEW BOOK BY GROSSE POINTE AUTHOR

Let's Go to Australia by GEORGE F. TAUBENECK

AN exciting new book on this Down-Under Land—its cities, peoples, sports, industries and politics—interestingly, fascinatingly told. It pictures the Australia of today as an "object lesson" in Labor-dictated economics with which every thinking American should be acquainted.

The New Deal borrowed many of its false ideals and concepts from Australia—and that which has happened in Australia portends what can happen in our own country. In this book an interesting parallel is drawn for the reader between the Labor-dictator legislation of Australia and its effects, and the similar, disastrous course now being followed by the United States.

Kid Bits
By Betsy Bachmann
Well, kids, I guess this column will pretty well round up all the doings of the school year. Just to get an idea of all the things that are going on around these parts, you may want to read this before you hop that plane for the coast, or pile in the automobile and head north.

Grosse Pointe Country Day School has been having one long line of parties. Primmy Groch celebrated both her graduation and her birthday with a luncheon for the seniors. The Prom, of course, was last Friday, and Dawn Osius and Martha McClintock entertained the crowd beforehand. Then on Saturday the girls all went to the Yacht Club for luncheon, with Sally Critton and Pat Mason hosting. Barbara Dill chose Tuesday to entertain with a graduation tea. Joyce Mulkey gave a dinner party on Wednesday, just before the graduation exercises, and on the next night the girls will be at Nancy Wensinger's, where she and Mary Bird will prepare an informal dinner. The whole crowd will trek up to the Old Club with Jo Collins on Saturday, and from there they will head for Flo Spaulding's cottage for the week-end. Next week you'll see them at the Boat Club with Betsy Wheldon on Monday, and the Yacht Club with Sally Sutherland on Tuesday.

As for the Liggett gals, they've been busy the whole year with special senior parties and such. Their graduation took place last week, and afterwards some of them left for Adrian, and Marion Hardy's house party. Thursday they'll all be back in time for luncheon and swimming at the Golf Club. Then on Saturday, Hermine Roby has invited them all to a dancing party which will be held in her garden.

The kids from the high school have been just as busy as ever these days. Last Wednesday the class had the senior picnic, an annual affair. On Friday night the girls assembled at Marilyn Lamb's and on Saturday afternoon they were all invited to Adele Gillette's for tea. There were two teas on Tuesday, one given by Rosemarie Johnson and Betty Brooks, and the other by Jo Reinstein, Sue Malson and Donna Hardleben. The class banquet was on Wednesday. Joe Cobane will give a dinner party before commencement exercises on Thursday, and Bill Boales will entertain the crowd afterwards. Some of the boys will leave immediately for a rousing good time up at Higgins Lake with Joe Hickey.

On Sunday the girls from the Convent swam at the Yacht Club with Joan Roney and Nancy Foster. On Wednesday they lunched with Mary Thompson and Joan and Jane Taylor and dined with Janice Olivier and Lois Metz. Sue Fitzsimmons, Ann Haggerty, Sue O'Leary and Martha Bigley will serve dinner before commencement on Thursday, and on Friday they will leave for Joanne Maas' cottage.

By this time the Kingswood crowd should be home. On Friday they had their Junior-Senior Banquet, and the Kingswood Formal, and on Saturday the commencement exercises were followed by a tea.

TUXIS CLUB members and their dates gathered together on June 2 for their last meeting of the year, the Retreat at Rochester. Those who arrived in time to partake in the swimming, football, baseball, eating, and the final game of capture the flag included Beth Klaver and Don Hiles, Jo Russell and Doug Krieger, Barb Stoerkel and Phil Skillman, Macky Macpherson and Dave Kaiser, Mitz Cronin and Don Winslow, Barb Klenk and Ray Schumann, Marge Stoerkel and Doug Buck, Mary Ann Queen and Jerry Thiede, Ingrid Koebel and Jim Flom, Annie Davis and Ed Isby, Bunny Kitson and Mike Chagot, Nancy Macpherson and Loyal Jodar, Marilyn Lamb and Bill Queen, Janie Gehlert and Paul Friese, Margie Simons and Don Drader, Marilyn Smith and Buster Knope, and Bonnie Lee and Rich Winkler.

Betrothal Told By Joy Ternes

Joy wore a frock of sunlight yellow with orchids at her shoulder for her engagement party. Assisting Mrs. Ternes at the tea table were her mother, Mrs. Anthony Maitello and her sister, Mrs. James Merriam Barnes.

Joy is a graduate of Marygrove and her fiancé, before entering the Air Corps with which he served in the European Theater, attended the University of Detroit. During his service, Capt. Klebes received the Purple Heart, Air Medal, Silver Star and SFC. They plan a summer wedding.

Gardens Furnish Vitamin Supply

With such items as cream, butter, cheese and liver more difficult to obtain today, it is increasingly more important that housewives look to the vegetable garden for an adequate supply of vitamin A in family diets. According to Marion A. Wharton, foods and nutrition specialist in the school of home economics at Michigan State college, there is an abundance of this vitamin available.

Vegetables which are abundant in vitamin A include green and yellow varieties and tomatoes. The green vegetables include: beet, dandelion, mustard and turnip greens; Swiss chard, collards, endive, kale, spinach, watercress, green beans, broccoli, green asparagus, Chinese cabbage, green lettuce, peppers, peas and parsley. The yellow vegetables which are good sources are: sweet potatoes, carrots, yellow corn, yellow-fleshed squash and pumpkins. Tomatoes and cantaloupe fall in to neither the yellow or green classes, but are abundant in vitamin A.

The ordinary preparation of vegetables destroys little of their vitamin A value, Miss Wharton says, so these can be depended upon both in cooked and raw condition. Canning and freezing also destroys very little of the vitamin A content, but drying and storage, especially by the usual home methods, causes much greater losses.

Those homemakers who make good use of their vegetable garden while it is fresh, and who preserve an adequate supply for winter months, have no reason to fear a vitamin A deficiency, the specialist believes.

Antiques Stolen From Art Studio

Shoplifters who visited the de Grime Art Gallery on Kercheval avenue in Grosse Pointe Farms on Friday, stole a beautiful antique hand carved ivory tankard and a genuine old Capo di Monti candy box.

The two pieces have been valued by Mr. de Grime at $400. He says they are irreplaceable at any price. The theft was reported to the Farms police, who sent out a message on the telephone.

MORE VANDALISM
Ten more windows at the nursery building of the Country Day School on Grosse Pointe boulevard were broken during the night of June 7-8. This makes a grand total of something like 50 windows that vandals have destroyed in the building which was just completed two months ago.

Pointer Gets Ringside Seat At Atom Bomb Test at Bikini

Robert S. Wehmeier, MM 3/C, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wehmeier of 780 University place, is in the thick of the atomic bomb tests at Bikini Atoll.

Stationed at San Diego, Cal., he was one of 20 demolition men selected there to go on "Operations Crossroads". Selected on

ROBERT WEHMEIER

May 16, he and the others were flown to San Francisco on May 19 and the following day sent by air to Pearl Harbor.

He has been assigned to the USS Mt. McKinley as a radio operator. In a letter sent to his parents when he was three days at sea out of Pearl, he said his ship would be eight miles from the blast, where the scientists can take pictures and watch the proceedings.

Bob was a student at Grosse Pointe High before joining the Navy. He served at Okinawa. He is an expert underwater demolition man.

In another letter received by his parents, his ship had reached Bikini on the first of June. His letter was written on June 3. He says: "It was really quite a sight to see all those ships and to think that in about a month they will feel the effects of atomic energy. The battleship Nevada in her coat of orange is quite outstanding. The Jap battleship Nagato looks as though she will sink before the test rolls around."

Bob also found at Bikini that the APA Brule, which carried his team from the States to Pearl on his first trip out, and then took them to Maui, is also slated to be a guinea pig in the atomic test.

Young Wehmeier refers to classes which he is attending and informs his parents that he has been second highest in his class in both tests taken.

Bob says the reason expert demolition men were wanted for the radio work was because they could tell best what was going on and the life and death of a lot of personnel could depend on their past experience. He also says there is an acute shortage of radio operators and they are being flown to Bikini as fast as the Navy can get them.

HURT IN CRASH

Emily P. Baumei, of 1525 Elmhurst, Detroit, collided with a Lakeshore Ford bus at Charlevoix and Somerset Tuesday afternoon and Mrs. Mary Clifford, aged 82, of 1887 Waverly, who was riding in the car with her was taken to Bon Secour hospital for treatment for possible fractured ribs on her right side. Mrs. Baumei was given a ticket for appearance at traffic court.

Driver Rescued On Woman's Tip

The Park police station received an anonymous phone call from a woman Monday morning saying a drunken man was trying to start his car on Beaconsfield near Mack and she thought it was not safe for him to drive.

Patrolmen A. Conlon and Slusser who went around for a look-see agreed completely with the lady's opinion. They took the would-be driver and car around to the police station where Sergeant Vernier ordered the man locked up and the car held until he safely came to.

Alertness by citizens to such cases and their instant report to the police would prevent many a major traffic accident.

Nocturnal Noise Jars Residents

A barbershop octette made the early morning air sweet, or hideous, on the streets in lower part of the Park last Saturday in the hours when most vocalists have called it a day and are steeped in slumber—or beer.

Neighbors relayed several calls to the police station. The first call came in at 2:44 a. m. Saturday. The music (?) came to a sudden stop at 2:48 1/2.

Detroit Driver Causes Crash

Two cars were badly damaged in an accident at Ridge and McKinley on the morning of June 11. Merwin Luria of the Hotel Seward, admitted to Farms police that he didn't stop at the sign before crossing Ridge, and crashed into a car driven by John Goward, Jr. of 262 Kerby road.

Damage to the Luria car was estimated at $150 and to Goward's, $100. Luria said he was insured and agreed to pay for the damage.

WHILE CHILDREN STARVE

With flour so scarce that it is difficult to buy bread, someone found enough to use for a childish prank in the Farms on the night of June 8.

Donald R. Mitchell of 180 Touraine road, notified the police that he found his car covered with flour at 11:25 p. m. on that date.

Carey Appointed To Church Board

Announcement has just been made by the Christian Science board of directors of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, that Archibald Carey, C.S.B., of Grosse Pointe, has just been appointed to the Christian Science board of lecturership.

Mr. Carey received the degrees of A.B. and LL.B. from the University of Michigan. He entered the legal profession in Detroit and eventually became the senior member of a firm engaged largely in the practice of corporation law.

He became a member of the Mother Church in 1917, and later received primary class instruction in Christian Science. He retired from the practice of law to become an advertised Christian Science practitioner. In 1931, upon receiving instruction in the normal class of the Board of Education, he became a teacher of Christian Science.

Mr. Carey is a member of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Detroit, and has served this church as First Reader, chairman of its board of directors, and in various other capacities.

Lane Cancels Quebec Trip

Park Village Manager Everett B. Lane notified the Board of Commissioners at the meeting Monday night that he had decided to give up attendance at the International City Managers' Conference at Quebec on June 16 to 21.

He stated that the pressure of work on his office at the moment had made it most inconvenient at this time to attend. The Park village is making every effort to let contracts for the initial work on the sewers in the back part of the village in the Mack-Charlevoix area between Grayton and Whittier and he felt that these and other urgent matters demanded his attention here.

The Board of Commissioners expressed appreciation of his decision to place home emergency work ahead of the Quebec meeting, beneficial as that is to municipal managerial work.

We hear talk of balancing the budget from Washington, which does contain some fair-to-midling jugglers—The Eagle, Milton, Ore.

Bride-Elect

MISS JANET HUNTER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hunter of Washington road, whose engagement to Edward E. Cramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer of Roslyn road, has been announced by her parents.

Budding Singers Get Big Chance

Opening of the third annual "Vocal Auditions," the contest to discover the best vocalists between 16 and 29 years of age in the metropolitan area, is announced by the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation.

This contest will give local singers a chance to be heard by competent judges and the best ones will be rewarded with a debut for each as concert soloist at the Belle Isle shell during the summer season of concerts by the Detroit Federation of Musicians Band.

As in previous years the public will be invited to the final auditions when the 25 best voices will be heard for the deciding auditions and the winners will be determined by the judges.

Singers who are interested in entering the contest are asked to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Vocal Auditions, Department of Parks and Recreation, 806 Water Board Building, Detroit 26, and application blanks will be mailed to them giving complete instructions.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

"Rows per inch," in this language of carpeting, means the number of rows of pile tufts running crosswise of a carpet, counted in the lengthwise direction.

Park Gets Lone Bid for Truck

Only one bid was received at the Park council meeting Monday night for the garbage truck and packer for which the village advertised a short time ago. The figure presented was for a Mack truck and auxiliary equipment costing $8,055.86. Nor could delivery be guaranteed within less than eight months.

The council was well pleased with the make of the apparatus offered and Commissioner McMillan was of the opinion that the matter might as well be closed up at once. It was decided to have the village manager make further inquiry for figures, on the same specifications, leaving it up to him to decide after getting other offers, if any.

There was some criticism on the escalator clause in the bid, but it was realized however that all bids for such equipment received at this time of uncertain prices and costs would probably contain the same clause.

Detroit Drivers Pick Pointe for Accident

Two Detroit automobile drivers got into a tangle on Grosse Pointe streets simultaneously late Friday afternoon.

Donald E. Burger of 10959 Roxbury, going east on Mack, tried a left turn into Lakepointe and cut across the path of George F. Krueger of 3430 Bewick, also going east. There was no personal injury but both cars were badly mangled up. Berger got a ticket.

NEW HOUSES WATCHED

More damage was reported done at the house under construction at 18 Radnor circle on the night of June 7. Three windows were broken and a number of boards pulled down. There have been previous reports of damage at this address and the police have been asked to keep a watch over this and two other new buildings in the vicinity.

Marriages in Michigan hit an all-time high during the first three months of 1946 when 15,379 were recorded. This is an 88 per cent increase over the same period of 1945 and well above the five year average of 9,478. In 1942, Michigan's peak year for marriages, there were 11,652 marriages reported to the Michigan Department of Health during the first three months.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

So many women who "do" things have that "done in" look but not our very active HELEN DEAN. Her philanthropic and political interests keep her constantly on the move, but she always has time to be gracious and radiates vitality. She looked stunning, as usual, in a yellow and brown conventional print with a beige background. And the hat worn with this was high-crowned, oh so high, black with slate grey roses saying, "howdy" in the front.

SUE EARL was glimpsed, isn't that a lovely word? well, a glimpse was all I caught but it was enough to tell me that she was wearing a smart black suit with a white linen blouse, with a HUGE grey and black monogram, very chic, as the fashion writers say, so I guess I will.

ADD TO THE LOOK ALIKES

ELLIE WIENER and PEGGY MONRO, STASH BUHL and LAUREN BACALL, CHRISTIE NEWBERRY DARLING and GERALDINE FITZGERALD.

PILFERING

Have you heard of the client who called the law firm of O'Brien, O'Brien, O'Brien, Schlossel & O'Brien, asked for Mr. O'Brien and was told: "Mr. O'Brien is in Washington" . . . "Then let me speak to Mr. O'Brien," he continued—and was told: "Mr. O'Brien is home sick" . . . "He is?" Then let me speak to Mr. O'Brien . . . "Sorry, but Mr. O'Brien is in court right now," was the answer . . . "Is Mr. Schlossel there?" the caller asked and was told: "Mr. Schlossel is busy on another phone" . . . "Well then, how about Mr. O'Brien?" he asked. The answer came: "Speaking."

PLEASANT RUMORS

The library of the WILLIAM JOY home is panelled in pine waxed to a lovely beige shade, which is further set off by the contrast of the robin's egg blue of the ceiling. A bay window at one end of the room is curtained with hand block printed linen with a steel grey-blue background having a floral pattern of rust and yellow with green leaves. The sofa is upholstered in the same linen.

A window box filled with ferns is recessed in the bay, and before this stands a ladder table with a leather top holding a lamp with a base made of leather books. Several chairs are upholstered in a yellow rough fabric, and two are in a grey, blue color.

The fireplace is most interesting as it is set in robin's egg blue tiles made by the noted "Bishop," each tile picturing a different type of duck. On the mantel is a rectangular gilt bowl in which is concealed the indirect lighting focused on a beautiful water color of men, salmon fishing, by Pleissner. There is another interesting Pleissner, a fishing scene on one of the walls. On either side of the mantel are antique white and gold vases.

One end of the room contains recessed book shelves, containing besides the books, several small bowls filled with greenery and six wooden glasses, having hand painted ducks on the sides, by Reinbold.

On either end of the sofa are tables with matching lamps, having wooden and china bases upon which are painted ducks. On the wall above are two Roland Clark watercolors; a "Black Duck" and a "Pintail Drake," in beautiful colors.

On the desk is a lamp, the base of which is made in the shape of a ship's steering wheel with a barometer in the center, and having a gold anchor at the base. The waste basket of brown leather has ducks embossed on the side. There are many feminine touches such as Lowestoft bowls and porcelain ash trays and vases used in this charming room, but it should not be hard to determine the spots most interesting to the Joys.

Pointers of Interest

MR. CHARLES H. HALL, IRIS SPECIALIST

By Fred Runnells

Mr. Hall became interested in iris eight years ago, when his uncle, Mr. David F. Hall, a director of the American Iris Society, noted for his iris varieties, sent him a few rhizomes. From these few Mr. Hall derived such pleasure that his interest was stimulated into making hybridization of iris his hobby.

When he was transferred from the New York office of The American Telephone and Telegraph Company to Detroit in 1941, he arranged to have the iris shipped to Michigan. Since that time Mr. David Hall has sent him from time to time his latest introductions until he now has approximately 80 varieties.

This year he has 88 seedlings which were produced by hybridizing two varieties of iris that have bloomed in his garden on Kerby road. Some of these may develop into a new variety. Mr. Hall says that "hope springs eternal" in a hobby such as his.

Iris are hybridized when in bloom and the resulting seed pods are gathered as they dry, about a month after the blooming season. The number of seeds in one pod may vary from two up to 51, one never knows. It's like a game containing the elements of suspense and surprise. The seeds are then placed in glass containers and kept until ready to be sown in late September.

They are sown in raised beds, and thrive in sandy loam; should be covered during the winter with about six inches of leaves or hay.

In the spring, when the seedlings reach a height of about five inches they are transplanted in beds about six inches apart. They bloom the following year; thus the seeds are planted in the fall of one year, partially mature during the following year and bloom the following spring.

Some of the most unusual iris in the garden with the blue violet coloring are the "Admiral" and the "Lullaby"; the giant whites are called "Katherine Fay" and "Gudron"; a lovely apricot shade is represented by "Samovar"; "Tapestry Rose" and "Sentinel." The flamingo pink are gorgeous, "Flora Zenor" being one of the most outstanding. If you are a lover of yellow, you will be interested in "Crown of Gold," "Golden Eagle" and "Buttercup Lane." There's a lovely violet and white variety called "Amigo," of which you'd be a friend on sight.

The reds shade from mahogany to scarlet in "Firecracker," "Royal Scott," "Cheerio," "Red Valor" and "Display."

The new iris introductions in this country today range from $10 to $25 per rhizome or bulb, as they are more commonly known. For instance, "Katherine Fay" and "Firecracker" cost $15 and "Flora Zenor" $25 per rhizome. If you have ever seen any of these expressions of beauty, you know that they are worth much more than the money invested in them. There is something so regal in their bearings, it is easy to understand why the former royal family of France chose the "fleur de lis" as their heraldic device.

Mr. Hall is interested in introducing new varieties of iris, it is well that he can take care of this at time when it will not interfere with his other hobbies, trout fishing and hunting, to which he devotes several weeks each year.

Mr. Hall says that one of the greatest pleasures he has had in the growing of iris has been the pleasure he has been able to give to others, in that he gave in 1945 to 18 different individuals 245 iris rhizomes, and of course it would be impossible to estimate the people who had the joy of seeing these gorgeous blooms. Once seen the seed of desire to have a few iris of one's own is planted, and this may be fulfilled with many varieties with but a small investment. This hobby provides exercise, expectation, adventure, achievement and beauty all rolled up in one. I was going to say one ball, but I guess it's one rhizome.

Questions and Answers Forum

By Mrs. Anthony

Dear Mrs. Anthony:

In your column of two weeks ago, you printed a letter from someone asking that something be done as a 'group' movement to curb child delinquency here in the Pointe. The writer suggested certain groups of people to handle the situation, and since I am not a member of any of the groups mentioned, I don't feel qualified to say anything on the subject. However, as a mother who has had to put up with the seemingly 'popular' behavior of my own children (as well as my neighbors'), I should like to say that I think the idea is a good one.

My husband and I have done all the things we have thought would be a good influence for our children, but they continue to behave badly sometimes and I don't just mean the ordinary "pranks" of growing children. We have often felt that they were influenced by their friends, but find on talking to the parents of their friends, we get little or no cooperation.

We heartily agree with Chief Trombly that the parents are the ones who ought to be informed and called to time before it is too late. I would like you to publish this letter. I sign my initials only, because I know from past experience that if my name were published, the neighbors' children would "take it out" on my children! That's the way it goes.

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. M. F.
Thank you all for your interest and your letters. We wish more mothers would take time to write us.
Mrs. Anthony.

Dear Mrs. Anthony:
Could you give me any advice as to the best means of house-breaking a cocker puppy? I have heard that there are places to take dogs for this purpose, but we do not wish to give the dog up, not being sure of the treatment he might receive during the training. As you may imagine our house is being rapidly wrecked by our little darling, so will appreciate any suggestions you may make.

MRS. G. R. F.
This is a difficult problem but can be solved by patient and persistent effort. I should advise your procuring a book called "Especially Spaniels" by Gladys Taber, which will answer all your questions as to care of dogs in a simple and unprofessional manner. Not only that but it makes delightful reading, and as the cover page says, it is "A book for every one who likes dogs." The only difficulty is that after reading you can hardly resist the temptation to go out and get more cockers!

June 4, 1946

Dear Mrs. Anthony:
Your article in the May 30th issue of the Grosse Pointe News, dealing namely with the subject of juvenile delinquency and its correction possibly through educational channels, is in my opinion, a good subject.

However, insofar as Grosse Pointe proper is concerned, I do not believe we have a juvenile problem. I speak from the standpoint of criminal offenses, such as burglaries, automobile thefts etc.

Recreational facilities in Grosse Pointe cover the needs of our children of all ages. Grosse Pointe then cannot be compared with blighted areas where the juvenile involved appears before the police department with the opinion that he isn't to blame, but the community is. Personally, I believe that too much emphasis has been placed on the juvenile problem. Apparently, the one problem existing in the Pointes is the ma-

GROSSE POINTE ARTISTS SHOW

The water colors in this year's annual show make a very fine contribution to the exhibition. Some of the old names are missing, but new members have captured two of the water color prizes.

The well-merited first prize was given to Melinda Barrett for "The City." She possesses a quality of feeling in her technique in water color which is soft but still maintains a transparency. The refreshing spot of white makes a fine unity with the mat.

The second prize was given to Frank Williams for "Beside Still Waters," a sunny shack near the water's edge. He has induced a feeling for sunlight and the wet quality of quiet water.

Another new member, Elizabeth Dalmage, was given third prize for her crisply executed "The Lantern," which is a well-united composition, and is handled with a definite dexterity for the medium. Stewart Fredericks has brought the essence of spring in the yellow forthrightly, which he calls "Spring Window."

Grace Henry's "Hollyhocks and Tiger Lilies," in which she handles pastel with great sensitivity to the plastic possibilities of the medium, she has produced all the velvet qualities of flower petals. Louis Murphy's offerings carry the war with us; her soldier reading the news from home in "Home Paper." In "France 1944," she uses color for symbolism and dynamic line to produce emotion. Mary Kerr in "Windy Afternoon" has infiltrated wind, sand and sunlight in her painting.

In sculpture, Marjorie Walker's piece "Grief," which was given second prize, has expressed by linear carving of horizontal line, all the emotional accompaniments of grief. It is simply and beautifully executed. Margaret Gifford's offerings of the "Chinese Man and Chinese Woman" which was given first prize has not the usual impersonal quality which usually characterizes this fine artist's work. One feels sentiment in the execution, and not quite the usual strength. John Pear's portrait of an officer falls carries the war with us. It is capably executed in its planes but one feels that patina will bring out its strength.

Madeline Maxon's "Garden Figure" of a little child who is so appealing that even a little bird longs to play with her, has caught the full import and appeal of childhood. This could be greatly strengthened by simplification.

Dallas Hamilton's family of seals suggests all the supple and agile movements of her subject. This received the third prize in sculpture.

Licious destruction of public and private properties. Any contemplated program should deal directly with this subject and if possible, some educational approach to the parent.

Very truly yours,

Pointe Counter Points

by OLIVE H. LARNED

Did you know that there is only one genuine "Deepfreeze"? It is made by Motor Products Corporation, and sold by HAYDON HOUSE, INC. located at Kercheval and Beaconsfield. Surely I don't have to tell you the joys of having a "Deepfreeze" in your home, but perhaps you did not know that the "Deepfreeze" has an exclusive patented feature in that the entire wall of the food storage barrel is freezing surface. This is responsible for maintaining a uniformly constant cold within the "Deepfreeze" and eliminates moisture being drawn out of the food, as often happens in ordinary refrigeration mechanisms. This is a great money saver as you may buy your food when it is at its prime and lowest in cost and know that it will be preserved at its freshest. HAYDON HOUSE also carries General Electric's complete line; refrigerators, washers, ranges, toasters, mixers and roasters (when available). Doubtless you've heard that "when available" line, but this is one line worth waiting for.

It's play time and JACOBSON'S is making a play for you with their one piece blouse and shorts combinations with detachable skirts in every conceivable material and color. If you feel "strenuous" there's a combination to intrigue you and catch all eyes, a black bra with yellow, aqua, or pink shorts, detachable skirt and short jacket. A play suit such as Grandmother never wore, but she would have liked to, comes in a cotton that looks like peppermint candy stick, has a ruffled bloomer that's pretty coy and a ruffled skirt to be tied over when you wish to be a lady. Pay Foster has gone artistic with an Indian print, hand screened in stunning patterns of green, tomato and black. Cool batiste-like material has been treated against creasing which is an added virtue. Smart tennis costumes consist of one piece white pleated models with short sleeves and pleated shorts, vastly becoming and only $10.95, and with detachable skirts for $16.95. If you're interested in shorts by themselves, I said "shorts," they come in white, yellow, and navy for $3.95 and in a denim-like material, blue, brown, green and tan for $5.95. Corduroy shorts may be had in Hunter's green, Alice blue, brown and ocrea for $13.5. JACOBSON'S has all types of play shoes in all colors, to match any play you can think of.

KAY PARCHER has a new shipment of hand made pottery (decorative pieces) in lovely colors, white, grey and turquoise and in a variety of shapes, just like us poor humans! Only you can plant vines and flower plants in these clay shapes, and they are much prettier than most human forms. They will be an addition to your rooms, be they period or modern. "Chinese pillows," the term used by those in the know, applies to my tall rectangular shape, not including Charlotte Greenwood! The Chinese pillows I speak of, can be found at KAY PARCHER, and are made of polished copper, not advised as a beard rest, but flowers will rest beautifully in them. Also interesting bowls and pitchers with that "nice old look" to give you that nice young look.

"To cut or not to cut" that is the question! Fashion decrees that the anod and "horse's tail" arrangements the femmes have been sporting are definitely out. The successful New York musical "Billion Dollar Baby" started the vogue for short bobs as worn in the '20's and it won't be long now, before the long "page boy" bob will be a thing of the past, I fear. Sad, sad, I call it as I think that style of "hair do" did more for more people than any other hair arrangement. At least you'll agree that the long bob (when not carried to the extreme of being worn as a fur tippet is youthful and "soft" looking. Well, whether you wear it short or long, BLANCHE AND CYRIL, HAIRDRESSERS and their expert staff are fully qualified to not only advise, but execute. In other words they'll give you the works, but at BLANCHE AND CYRIL'S you'll like it.

SCHETTLER'S have Schaeffer's fountain pens, and pen and pencil sets from $6.50 to $21. Getting as how every one has to write in some manner, from the grocery order, or laundry list, to the telephone numbers in the man about town's book, a pen and pencil set are a necessity, and are good thoughts for gifts. Speaking of writing, surely you owe someone a letter, and have you seen the new, very good looking stationery SCHETTLER'S has for you? Sizes to answer all purposes for all sized members of the family. You "gamey" people will be glad to know that Congress playing cards are available once again, 85 cents for a single deck and $1.75 for a double dip.

PEPPET AND BLOCKERT have lots of suggestions to make as to "gifts" for graduation, weddings or anniversaries, come this time of the year. One good suggestion has to do with lucite picture frames, 5 by 7, (not "Mr. 5 by 5") for $9 and 7 by 9 for $11. Another nifty: sets of lucite coasters carved so that glasses will not stick to the coasters, and the moisture is absorbed. The set of 4 for $6, packed so that the top cover may be used as a cigarette box, and a set of 8 for $10. Plastic hand-painted ones with an ivy design for $2.25 and other floral patterns for 75 cents. Such a darling bridge table cloth I saw at PEPPET AND BLOCKERT with miniature stars, four-leaf clovers, elephants, lady bugs, wish bones, horse shoes, galloping dominoes showing "7-11" and a royal straight flush in the loveliest shades of crushed raspberry and green. Could be a "lucky piece for you!"

More and more vegetables and fruits are appearing at HENRI'S MARKET as they are coming into season, and due to Les's early A. M. session at the produce market we can have them fresh from the garden. Freshness in humans is annoying, but in food it is necessary. Isn't it fun living in this age, when we can have melons, grapes, figs and red raspberries from California, just 28 hours after picking? These fruits are so modern they insist upon travelling by air! And that's the way they can come to us "garden fresh." HENRI'S MARKET figures the best is none too good for you; and I trust that this meets with your approval.

The Fixies are afoot! Where? At PETER PAN, Inc. on Kercheval. They may be had in white, black, red, grey and red, white and brown, and beige and brown; ought to suit all tastes. Children's and Misses sandals in red and white leather at $3.95. Have you a ballet dancer in your home? Elieen has created such lovely suede ballet slippers in red, green, beige and brown for $5.95. You may have "Foot Pleasure" in black patent, red, white or brown and white call for $5.50. Other tot-to-teen styles include perforated strap sandals and thong sandals to keep the toes cool, moccasins, loafers slippers etc. need no word from me, they can stand on their own feet at PETER PAN'S, but prefer yours!

Each Scout patrol will bring its own food and camping equipment, and will arrange its own transportation to the camp entrance on Hall Road (highway No. M-59). From this point the boys will walk in and set up their own camps.

A feature of this year's Camporee will be an Army display of rescue equipment including boats, emergency radio communication, and food packs. Approximately 400 tents will occupy the area during the two days.

WIND RIPS TREES

Complaints of heavy limbs of trees breaking off in the high wind and encumbering the sidewalks, came into Park police headquarters Saturday afternoon from in front of 1231 Beaconsfield and 1253 Balfour. Both were quickly removed by the street crews.

ODD FACT

When pigeons became so numerous at the Detroit, Mich., airport that on one occasion they grounded an airliner, the Police Department announced it would enlist the aid of its sharpshooters in reducing their numbers. A former farmer who asked to be allowed to join the rescue squad proved the best shot of all. His weapon was a slingshot.

Sewer Work Bids Sought

Park Commissioners Hear Bitter Complaints Against Chronic Floods

The Park village Commissioners at the meeting Monday night authorized Village Manager Lane to advertise for bids for the sewer work in Section 1 in the Grayton-Whittier-Mack-Charlevoix area. This is in the lower part of the village which has experienced much trouble from storm water in recent rainfalls. A lateral sewer is being installed on Grayton and a main on Charlevoix.

Mr. Lane stated that these sewers would afford relief to the properties served against moderate rainfalls but warned that in the event of torrential falls such as occurred on May 31, when more than 2 inches of water fell in two hours, they would not furnish the relief that property owners might expect. This would not be because of the inadequacy of the installation however, but for the reason that no installations made by the Park village, would suffice as long as the outlet from Fox Creek remained unenlarged.

This, as had been explained many times, was the work Detroit had promised to do under a contract made between it and the Park eight years ago.

Samuel Frame, Mr. Shover from Grayton road and E. W. Shaldrick of Yorkshire road were present at the meeting with strong complaints against the storm water nuisance from which they had suffered a long time, and particularly in the recent flooding.

Mr. Lane explained: "The storm water relief system of Grosse Pointe Park is designed to handle 3.8 inches per hour of rainfall and all storm water after all the lots in the Village have been improved. Our records show that on May 31, 2.03 inches of rain fell, which was a very unusual rain, however, it did not overtax the capacity of our pumping station."

"A backing up of the large relief sewers was due to the failure of the Fox Creek outlet to discharge the quantity of water our pumps were delivering. Three pumps delivering approximately 750 cubic feet per second operated six and one-half hours pumping 17,550,000 cubic feet of storm water."

"When it was found that the water level in the large relief sewers in Grosse Pointe Park were rising to a dangerous height an attempt was made to engage an additional pump, but this pump cut out after a few minutes of operation. This was an indication that the three pumps were pumping all the water the discharge chamber and the outlet could handle."

"The communities of Grosse Pointe City, Grosse Pointe Farms and the northeast sections of Detroit depend on the Fox Creek drain for storm water relief. A large storm water sewer, 9 ft. in diameter, running south on Bedford road through the Village of Grosse Pointe Park, and an interceptor at Cadieux and Mack, drain the north and northeast section of Detroit. This storm water and the water from Grosse Pointe City and Grosse Pointe Farms is emptied into the underground Fox Creek conduit running southwest through the Village of Grosse Pointe Park to the Fox Creek station at Ashland and Jefferson avenues, and then into the open Fox Creek channel. This volume of storm water combined with the discharge from the Grosse Pointe Park Pumping Station, causing extremely high level in the Fox Creek Channel which is the direct cause of our flooding problem.

"During the storm of May 31, the City of Detroit and other communities did their utmost to relieve the flooding conditions. Due to the intense rainfall the discharge chamber at the Fox Creek Station carried a height of 20 feet of water, the Cadieux Station, 32 feet and the Conners Station, which is the largest station and outlet, 29 feet. A 14 ft. main from Ashland and Jefferson, running south to the Conners relief station, could not relieve the head of water which was causing the difficulty in the Fox Creek Channel."

Stupidity is not the only form of incompetence. Add obstinacy, cupidity, maliciousness and fear.

Small Turnout at Gathering To Pay Tribute for Taking Border City League Honors

Annual Banquet Suggested to Encourage Boys and Instill Interest in More Pointe Parents

A small group of Grosse Pointe Dads answered the call to the High School last Friday night for the specific purpose of paying tribute to Grosse Pointe High's young athletes who turned in a magnificent job in sports in the last year.

By having the highest number of points in all athletic contests throughout the last two semesters Grosse Pointe won the All-Sports Sweepstakes Trophy which is awarded each year to the Border City League school that excels in all sports.

It is true the announcement for this get together was on short notice, which accounted for the small turnout for the hastily prepared program which had as the guest speaker All-American Johnny Pingel of the Michigan State College football coaching staff.

The meeting was started off with a series of reports from Coaches Bill Healey, Frank Banach, Larry Westerville and Pat Kaulitz, who reported on the success or failures of their respective teams.

All coaches were able to report successful seasons with the exception of Kaulitz, who piloted the baseball team. The baseball squad took it on the chin this season by dropping seven out of 12 contests for last place in the BCL standings. This was explained by Kaulitz. The team was as green as they come, the members being all tenth graders, and because they lacked experience they were jittery when crucial contests were at stake. It was pointed out that in other years when Grosse Pointe won the Sweepstakes trophy that it was the baseball team which led the school through a victorious campaign.

Following the coaches' reports and a short speech by Principal Walter Clemenson, who revealed himself as a rabid sports fan, Pingel gave a little talk on his alma mater and then showed movies of the first half of the Michigan State-Pittsburgh football game; the last half of the Michigan State-Marquette football game, which was in technicolor, and part of the Notre Dame-Michigan basketball game.

Following the movies the group retired to the girls' gymnasium for refreshments and found the students surrounding Pingel and bombarding him with questions.

The gesture by the Grosse Pointe Dads' club was a step in the right direction in honoring our high school athletes. BUT, it should be a bigger affair. The civic leaders of the Pointe should get together with the merchants and make this meeting a regular annual affair and pay tribute to our young athletes in a proper manner. It could be another father and son night, as the boys are the only ones who participate in major athletics.

If an annual banquet could be arranged and be made elaborate enough it would not only entice more boys to go out for sports at the school on Fisher road but it would create interest among the parents in the Pointe and they too would attend this annual banquet.

This suggestion could be food for thought for our civic leaders during the summer and they might possibly get something started along these lines before next fall.

"Big Ten" "Big Nine"

Chicago's Resignation Accepted; State and Pittsburgh Turned Down

Big Ten Conference faculty representatives have decided against selecting a replacement for Chicago in the conference membership, at the meeting at Champaign, Ill., last week, and Michigan State and Pittsburgh put away their hopes of joining the select circle for another year.

Representatives of the two schools had been prominently on hand as coaches wrangled over the 1947 football schedule. The schedule was finally approved after some of the liveliest bickering in the past generation.

Michigan State bid officially for the place left vacant by Chicago, and University of Pittsburgh officials indicated they would be glad to accept an invitation if one was tendered. The long disputes by the faculty dimmed their hopes and the door was closed to the two schools for another year.

State's strongest allies at the meeting were Coach Fritz Crisler, Michigan athletic director, and Prof. Ralph W. Aigler, Wolverine faculty representative. Both declared they favored the Spartans as a successor to Chicago.

The meeting thus marked the passing of the Big 10 (at least temporarily) and is now known as the Big 9, as Chicago's resignation was officially accepted.

Chicago was invited to meet Big 9 schools in all sports but Chicago indicated that the sports program would be nothing more than an extensive intra-mural program.

The 1947 football schedule will provide play on the wartime basis of six conference games for each school, three at home and three away, with the exception of Indiana, which has two at home, and Ohio State with four at home.

After the struggle to solve the 1947 schedule, the coaches did not announce a 1948 or 1949 card thus leaving the way open for the addition of another school in the conference in the future.

An Open Letter

A group of Grosse Pointers have taken it upon themselves to work up a hard ball schedule and organize a balanced league with supervision of the highest type. Playing under the banner of the Metropolitan club and with things well under way they learn that the various communities are against the plan, if not in spirit by refusing to allow hard ball playing in either the Park or the Woods.

The plan is to bring organized ball to the Pointe and keep the boys off the street. In the Park the entire playground back of the Pierce Junior High School lies idle because a few house owners object to baseball. Other property owners on Nottingham offer no objection to the Defer playground, but it is claimed that an agreement was made with property owners on Nottingham and Balfour, between Kercheval and St. Paul to keep ball playing off the fine large Pierce Field. Can this be true? If so, who on the Park board can stand up to such a situation? Why must boys play on the street or not play at all just because a handful of residents want to tie up a large recreation field. If that is possible, talk is now going on to close the Defer playgrounds on the same grounds.

In the Woods, a scheduled game on Wednesday was not played at the Mason School because of the rule against hard ball. Why can a few stop this work with boys? Is it possible that a chosen few have extra rights in the Pointe?

—Pointe Sports Fan.

By WINNING 18 and losing 2, Michigan's baseball team posted the second best record Ray Fisher has attained in 26 years of coaching at Ann Arbor. Last year his team won 20 and lost 1. Fisher's record now stands at 202 wins and 76 defeats for a .727 average.

Sailors Pan Power Boats

Lake Skippers Also Object to Finishing Down River to Suit Clubs

By FRED RUNNELLS

Throughout the war years down river members of the Detroit River Yachting Association complained with all the war regulations regarding yachting in Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River. War regulations forbid any yacht (power or sail) from crossing the shipping lane in the lake and in the Detroit River.

To conform with these regulations the down river members laid out their triangular racing courses, for scheduled DRYA regattas, on the west side of the ship channel and everyone concerned seemed happy because they weren't required to sail their craft down the river to complete the course.

Since the war time ban has been lifted our down river members have charted their respective courses so that the finishes of the regattas are in front of the respective clubs. Why this is done no one seems to know but it is the popular belief that these clubs want the finishes in front of their clubs so that their members can see them.

This sort of thing is swell for a club but from the number of members witnessing the regatta finish at the Detroit Yacht Club Memorial Day it is just a waste of time for visiting skippers to sail their boats way down in the river, because the DYC dock was void of spectators.

If regatta finishes must be down river then steps should be taken by these clubs to have patrol boats out to keep the course clear of rattle headed power boat skippers who seem to take a great delight in circling a sailing yacht thus creating unnecessary seas which make racing impossible.

This is the biggest objection of competing skippers against down river finishes and something should be done about it. Race chairmen of Edison Boat Club, Bayview, DYC and DBC can become very popular with the sailors if they will make an effort along these lines to make the down river finish more inviting.

People who hold back do not stand out.

Grosse Pointe High's Crew Jumps Back Into Spotlight With Record-Breaking Race

Beats Ecorse in Winning Senior Eight Event Rowed From Detroit Yacht Club to Boat Club at 38 Beat

A few weeks ago the Detroit Boat Club rowing aggregation traveled to Philadelphia to the scholastic championships to defend its title won in 1945. After the regatta things looked pretty black for the Grosse Pointe crew which manned the DBC shell. They had been thoroughly trounced and shorn of their title.

Last Sunday this same crew covered itself with glory when it won the senior eight event in record-breaking time over the mile course from the Detroit Yacht Club dock to the Boat Club dock.

The record breaking crew rowed 38 strokes per minute, a low beat for D.B.C. crews, over the entire course, which was fast due to a following wind.

"We never before rowed that high a stroke," Coach Judd Ross said. "We try to row a low beat, like Ecorse did. But the boys were really eager to win. I doubt if we ever will row that high a beat again."

Ecorse rowed a steady, low beat that carried them from last to first place by the time the final quarter mile was reached. The early leader was Roosevelt High, but its crew could not meet the challenge of Ecorse and Grosse Pointe as the finish line neared. Grosse Pointe flashed across the line winner followed closely by Ecorse, Roosevelt High and Technical High of Buffalo in a blanket finish without open water showing between the first and fourth place boat.

Old timers on the river said they had never seen a rowing race on the river to equal the senior eight-oared event before.

Sitting in the Grosse Pointe shell, which was trained by Judson O. Ross at the DBC were: Bow, Peter Klaver; No. 2, Walt Pesamaska; No. 3, Dick Jackson; No. 4, Earl Lapp; No. 5, Ron Dykstra; No. 6, Don McPhail; No. 7, Bill Moll; stroke, Harrison Blair, and coxswain, Chuck Quarnstrom.

Although they were, barely beaten in the eight-oared event, Ecorse scored an upset when the Ecorse four defeated Roosevelt's junior scholastic champions by a half boat length. The winning time was 5:10-3.5.

Cancer Campaign Behind Schedule

Industrial setbacks, conflicting humanitarian projects and tardiness on the part of corporations and individuals counted upon to give generously to the cause have all slowed up the progress of the annual fund-raising campaign of the American Cancer Society, stated campaign chairman, John J. O'Brien, of Kercheval avenue, Grosse Pointe. He added however that the little girl is doing his part as never before with double the number of small donations received as were in hand a year ago at this time.

Mr. O'Brien attributes the will-igness of the average individual to subscribe to cancer control to the fact that very definite and tangible progress has been shown in this area as the result of last year's contributions.

Culehan Offers Platform As Candidate for Congress

Miles Culehan is asking the people of the 14th District to elect him to Congress. He is running on the Republican ticket under the slogan "Put the Shirts and Meat Back in the White Market."

Culehan has very pronounced ideas on what is wrong with various phases of the government now. He claims that bureaucratic regulations must be removed from businessmen or they can't continue to operate.

Many regulations which were good during the war are now hindering all business from returning to a peacetime economy, he believes. Rules should be elastic enough to take care of the majority and prevent people from dealing with black markets, he states.

Mr. Culehan has cited the restrictions on building as one factor contributing greatly to the housing shortage. He states that only one-half of one percent of the returning veterans have been able to get home loans and says if the rules were right there would be at least 1,000,000 veterans now with approved applications for home building.

Mr. Culehan is also strongly against socialized medicine. He believes it would kill private initiative and do away with personal attention people want.

Taxation on production should be reduced to permit the expansion of business, this candidate states, holding that it would

Change Needed; Kirby Believes

"The people of Michigan would do well to use extreme care in the future selection of the members of their State Senate and House if they are to profit from the exposure of the Lansing graft scandals which rocked the nation," declared William G. Kirby, Grosse Pointe Farms Councilman and candidate for State Senator, First District at the Primary Election, next Tuesday, June 18, on the Republican ticket.

"Another important duty of your future legislators," continued Mr. Kirby, "is to pass legislation for an equitable distribution of the millions of dollars of sales tax surplus in the state treasury to Michigan Municipalities, most of them struggling under a terrific tax burden. My service on the Farms Council made me realize how much good a distribution of these funds could do to alleviate large municipality tax burdens," continued Kirby, "particularly in view of the unprecedented tax rate just announced by the City of Detroit."

McLaughlin Seeks Sheriff's Post

A veteran of World War II, and a native Detroit, George J. McLaughlin is being boosted for Sheriff of Wayne County, for which he is a candidate on the Democratic ticket, by hundreds of his Wayne County friends, and numerous labor, fraternal, and veteran groups.

McLaughlin was born on Detroit's East Side 42 years ago and has always lived and worked here. He has always been a staunch Democrat, serving for many years as Delegate from District 26 of the 21st Ward. During the War, he served in the U. S. Navy, enlisting in December 1941.

In regards to his candidacy, McLaughlin stated, "If I am elected to the office of Sheriff I will build my staff from those respected and know for their police and disciplinary ability. I am a Democrat, interested in seeing the Democratic party successful in Wayne County, but I will not fill the Sheriff's Department with inefficient workers, regardless of party affiliation."

McLaughlin lives at 1055 Philip Avenue, is married, and has a 19 year old daughter.

Temptation Yawns For Five Small Boys

Workmen doing inside work on a new house in the 1000 block of Balfour left the rear door ajar when they quit for the day and immediately five boys ranging from 10-15 years of age took over.

They were engaged in a fine job of exploration, or worse, when a timely call to the police department brought reinforcements who expelled the boarders.

Two suggestions to bathers for preventing the skin infection known as "swimmer's itch" come from the Michigan Department of Health. (1) Swim in deep water; it's the paddlers in shallow water who are infected. (2) Rub the skin briskly with a rough towel immediately after leaving the water.

Meredith Seeks County Office

A. L. Meredith, Wayne County attorney, is Republican candidate for the office of Wayne County Drain Commissioner at the primary to be held on June 18.

Mr. Meredith has been a resident of Wayne County for 30 years and a practicing attorney and property owner for 19 years.

Mr. Meredith has not only been active in business affairs, but has found time to be actively associated with Wayne County Civic affairs, having served as National Speaker for the Red Cross, speaker for War Chest and Community Fund Drives, for the Treasury Department in War Bond sales and for the office of Civilian Defense.

He has been an active worker in Boy Scout work for over 19 years, having served successively from Scoutmaster up to being a member of the Executive Board of the Metropolitan Area Council. He was an organizer of the Boys Club of Redford and one of the first officers. He has served twice as president of the Sanilac County Association.

Sherman Raps Drift to Left

"The drift to Communism and Socialism in this country can be stopped by removing the obstacles that are preventing our industry from performing its production miracles," says Arthur G. Sherman, Republican candidate for Congress.

"Our production capacity is so great that human want can be banished from this country. The idea of the Democratic party that we must divide up the wealth of the rich to create prosperity or banish want is utter folly," he states.

"The trouble with this country is not that we have too many rich people, but that we have millions too many poor."

Sherman says he is prepared to propose to Congress the necessary steps which should be taken to usher in an era of unlimited production and consumption. This will banish mass unemployment, depression, and the danger of economic collapse and Communism.

Fair Cyclist Tangles With Backing Motorist

William Miller was driving a car out of the alley near Weyburn north of Jefferson Saturday afternoon, when a fair lady cyclist rode along on the sidewalk and bumped into his front fender, knocking herself to the ground.

She claimed she was unhurt and refused to be taken to a hospital for a checkup. The police learned that the woman was riding a rented bicycle and from the agency where she got it learned her name. They learned also that she was suffering from abrasions on her left knee.

Kennedy Against "Fee Racket"

A. Peter Kennedy, speaking to the General Improvement Association says the Fee System in the County Clerk's office should be eliminated and the office placed on a straight salary basis as the other county offices. Make service the watch-word of this office instead of electing Mayors and building up political machines, he says.

Kennedy is a war veteran of World War I, past commander Wayne County Council American Legion, and Charter Member of Charles Learned Post No. 1. Kennedy was the Republican nominee and standard bearer in 1944 for County Clerk.

A director of the Detroit News-boys Association and Chairman of the Goodfellows of the Wolverine Auto Club, Commander of the Servicemen League and former President of the Bigger, Better and Brighter Detroit Club, are among a few of his activities.

Love Honored At Assembly

Republicans from the 14th Congressional District assembled Monday night at 15412 Mack Avenue, to pay homage to Harold O. Love, Republican candidate for Congress in the 14th District. Love in thanking those assembled for their attendance touched upon his qualifications for the office which he seeks.

Harold O. Love is a graduate of the University of Michigan, an attorney, a veteran, former president of the Detroit City Plan Commission and former member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

FURNISHES GLOWING WARMTH

No need to fire up the furnace these chilly spring mornings when an electric heater will give instant warmth... where you want it... when you want it. Safe, clean, economical, an electric heater is ideal for warming your dressing room, bathroom, or other small rooms.

Just a Few Cents an Hour is All It Costs... but unlimited use can cause abnormally high electric bills. For example, a 1000-watt heater at residence rates, costs only 17¢ a week when used one hour daily for seven days. The same unit used 8 hours daily costs $1.40 a week, and adds $10.20 to your two months' bill. Consult a reputable electric dealer who can recommend a heater of sufficient wattage to suit your particular needs. He can also tell you just what it will cost to operate.

With the Boys

Pfc. George A. Allard of Grosse Pointe Woods is home from the war. He was in the army for an 18-month tour of duty and crowded a lot of hard service into that comparatively brief period. He is only 21 now.

He was in the Pacific area and was in the hard fighting at Saipan, Okinawa and Leyte. His unit was a rifle company of the 96th Division of the 10th Army.

Referring to the hard fighting at Okinawa he said "We lost our General there." The officer he referred to was General Simon Bolivar Buckley, who was one of the highest ranking officers in our army killed in battle.

George received two wounds, one in the knee and a second one through the abdomen shattering his pelvis. This one had him near death for many weeks. Before he got home a few weeks ago he was released from the Billings General Hospital at Indianapolis. He is the son of Philip Allard the City Clerk of Grosse Pointe Woods, and himself a veteran of World War I.

LT. J. G. GLENN H. FRIEDT, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Friedt, 756 Pemberton road, Grosse Pointe Park, who served as Executive Officer aboard LST 1073 in the Pacific theatre returned to the states about a month ago. After a short furlough spent with his parents at their winter home, Villa Serena, Fort Lauderdale, Florida he was assigned to temporary duty decommissioning landing craft at Jacksonville, Fla. He expects to be discharged and return to Detroit the first part of June. Glenn attended Trombly grade school and was graduated from Grosse Pointe High.

Veterans Given Break on Taxes

Veterans of World War II are getting more liberal treatment in the matter of tax reductions. The old State law as enacted three to four years ago granted them a reduction of the assessment on their properties, when occupied as their own homes, of $2,000 on a property which was assessed at a valuation of $5,000 or less.

Under an amendment to this law, enacted within the year, the reduction of $2,000 remains the same but it is now made applicable to properties as high as $7,500 in value.

The reduction in assessment runs until a year after their discharge from the armed forces or, in the case of physical disability, for life.

VETERANNEWS

From the OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS
LANSING

Amendment of the Surplus Property Act provides for setting aside for sale to veterans of World War II exclusively, either for personal or for business use, selected items in heaviest demand and in short supply. It also advances to a general priority second only to that of Federal agencies veterans' former preference in the purchase of any goods for use in establishing their own small enterprises.

Existing procedures generally will continue to govern certification. Applicants must furnish proof of honorable release from service and a description of the property sought.

Veterans holding appropriate certificates may purchase items on the Set-Aside List for their own personal use as well as for use in a small business or agricultural or professional enterprise. Certificates already on file which include items placed on the Set-Aside List will be honored whenever such items are available. However, since all items on the Set-Aside List are in critically short supply, applicants will generally be limited to a single unit.

Certification for personal use will be limited to items on the Set-Aside List. Such certification will not be made for items previously certified for use in a small business, professional or agricultural enterprise. However, the restriction against more than one certification may be modified to permit additional certification for items not previously requested which are on the Set-Aside List. For example, a veteran already certified for a tractor, finds typewriters in the Set-Aside List, and wants to buy one. He may be certified additionally for a typewriter.

Application for any item on the Set-Aside List will be accepted, even though the applications already on hand exceed many times the available supply.

Certification Officers have been instructed to inform applicants fully regarding the ratio between the approximate number of applicants and remaining stocks of the item requested.

Whenever any item on the Set-Aside becomes available, offerings will be made to the holders of Personal Use Certificates in the same proportion as their total number bears to the total number of certificates on file for small business or agricultural or professional enterprise.

For example: There are thirty trucks available. The Regional Office has 100 old certificates and 10 Personal Use Certificates on file, or a proportion of 1 to 10. Notification will be sent to the three applicants for personal use whose certificates bear the oldest dates, and the twenty-seven applicants for non-personal use whose certificates bear the oldest dates.

If a veteran holding a Personal Use Certificate does not exercise his priority upon notification that the property requested is available, he does not lose his place in the chronological file, but will be notified a second and third time, after which his certificate will be placed in an inactive file.

Veterans will be notified by mail or by local public notice where and when they can buy items for which they have been certified. Notice will concern availability of the item requested, location, opportunity for inspection, prices, lot sizes, etc. There will be no need for veterans to call in person to check the progress of their applications.

Certification on a new form must be obtained for purchases for personal use. These and all other certifications should be applied for at the nearest War Assets Administration office. In Michigan they are 424 Boulevard Building, Detroit 2; 310 Keeler Building, Grand Rapids 2; 321 People's Building & Loan Building, Saginaw.

If you are thinking of buying material to have your furniture upholstered, or slip covers made, you will have to have measurements of each piece before ordering the fabric. Following is a general chart which may give you some idea of the amount of material you will need: Using 50-in. material for a large sofa, you will need 10 yards; 9 for a small one; 6½ for a love seat.

Report Heard On Park Garage

The committee named by the Board of Commissioners of the Park some time ago to look into the village municipal needs, reported to the Board Monday night that the enlargement of the municipal garage in the rear of the main building on Jefferson avenue, would cost about $22,000.

The committee consists of Commissioners Sage and Gillett and Manager Lane.

It was decided to ascertain whether building materials could be obtained for the work under government permission and if this was found possible, to have plans and specifications prepared.

The small additional work to be done in the main clerical work room of the Municipal building was authorized at a cost not to exceed $500. This work consists of merely placing partitions in the main workroom so as to provide separate space for the officials.

As it is now Village Manager Lane and Controller William Johnson have their own offices, while Clerk Stanman and Treasurer Charles Heise have not, Manager Lane believes the new arrangement will conduce to greater efficiency in the public service.

Mackinac Island Is Mecca For Summer Vacationists

Old Fort Mackinac spreads its tasseled walls high above the business section of that island paradise, fitly called "The Bermuda of America."

By THE OLD AAA TRAVELER
Michigan's great summertime paradise of Mackinac Island is being furnished for its annual influx of beauty-lovers from all over the United States, and indications are that 1946 will set a new high record in visitors on the island, just as new high records in every Michigan playground is indicated.

Long before the white man came into what now is Michigan, the Indians called it "The Great Turtle" because it rises out of the blue waters like that creature so sacred to the red man. Today it's looked upon as one of the continent's scenic gems, and certainly the most historic single spot in all of Michigan. And its beauty is as well known in Europe as it is right here at home.

Family allowance for dependents and a new 20-year retirement plan are only two of the many advantages of the new Regular Army. Men 17-34 apply at any Army Recruiting Station.

the island is so much like that emerald gem set in the warm waters to the southward. Others, a bit more poetic, have called the island a cross-section of Paradise. And all of them are right, for Mackinac Island stands today as one of the most beautiful spots on this continent—and it would be extremely difficult to find another spot so rich in history.

The Indians knew Mackinac Island literally centuries before the white man arrived, and council fires burned on its heights, and ceremonial chants rose to the star-studded heavens long before the first explorer headed in that direction.

Jean Nicolet, the Frenchman, probably was the first white man to sight Mackinac Island, for he canoed through the Straits of Mackinac around 1634 as he hunted a new waterway to the Orient. In later years the high cliffs of the island were seen by missionaries, voyageurs and fur traders, but it was not until 1670 that the island really began to attract attention. In that year Father Claude Allouez mentioned the island in a letter, and a year later Jacques Marquette founded a mission at St. Ignace and canoed across the Straits to visit the island. A few years later LaSalle landed on the island when he passed through the Straits in his ill-fated Griffon. The Indians called the Griffon, the first sailing vessel on the Great Lakes, "The Great White Bird."

Well, let's sort of jump over the years and have a looksee at the Mackinac Island of today. The first thing to strike you, of course, is the absence of automobiles—you'll explore the island in a horse-drawn vehicle. You'll see St. Ann's Church, and on that church a bronze plaque tells you that this was the first parish in the United States dedicated to the memory of the mother of the Virgin Mary. That was in 1895.

The original St. Ann's, of course, was built on the mainland within the original Fort Michilimackinac, and when the fort was transferred to the island, the church was dismantled and transported log by log, across the ice of the Straits for rebuilding. Then there's Arch Rock, over on the eastern shoreline, a rock bridge 149 feet above the lake, with a span of 50 feet, which the early Indians believed was built by the fairies as a gateway to the island. And, of course, there's the towering pinnacle known as Sugar Loaf, which the Indians will tell you—even to this day—was the wigwam of Manabogho, who re-created the world after the LeLuge.

Another "unforgettable" on the island is Skull Cave, a cave which got its name when one Alex Henry, a fur trader, fled from the massacre of Fort Michilimackinac, the massacre which was one of the highlights of Pontiac's Conspiracy. Henry was guided to the cave at night by a friendly Indian, and he slept the dreamless sleep of exhaustion through the night—and the next morning found that he had slept on a bed of human bones! It is believed the bones were those of captives executed by the earlier Indians, possibly devoured at war feasts.

All aers, of course, have their Lover's Leap, and the island is no exception, for there is the high point from which, so legend has it, a beautiful Indian princess leaped to her death when she heard that her lover had died in battle.

High on the hill stands old Fort Mackinac. It was built in 1780. And you also see the old Astor Trading Post, which was the beginning of the fabulous Astor fortune.

Through the summer months Mackinac Island is a veritable flower garden, with fences festooned in roses, burgeoning home gardens, the trails bordered with flowering shrubbery, Grand Hotel's vast grounds one great formal garden, and over it all the brightest golden sunshine in all the world. The air over the island always is fresh and clear, with the tang of rare old wine, and somehow the entire atmosphere is one of soul-healing beauty and contentment—the beauty of blue water and green trees and peace!

Lafayette Books "Meet the Wife"

"Meet the Wife," a spicy comedy which played at the Shubert Lafayette theater for a limited engagement starting Sunday night, June 9, will have Mary Boland in the starring role.

Miss Boland, one of the country's outstanding comedienne of stage, screen and radio, started her career in Detroit, with the old Pike Stock company, which staged its productions in the old Lyceum theater.

"Meet the Wife," which was first presented in New York in 1923 with Mary Boland in the leading role, was one of the hit shows of that season and brought Miss Boland to stardom overnight. Appearing with Miss Boland at that time were Clifton Webb and Humphrey Bogart.

"Meet the Wife," which was written by Lynn Starling, has been brought up to date for its revival.

The plot centers around a small town social leader (played by Miss Boland) who faces the task of entertaining a visiting literary luminary. The writer bears a rather embarrassing relationship to other characters in the play. It is the clash of this relationship and the social leader personality that causes many merry complications. There is, among other things, a love theme in which the social matron's daughter and a newspaper reporter are the principals.

Pointe Schools Badly Hurt By Reason of Wayne County Allocation Board's Action

Fifty Cent Increase Granted County with Resulting Decrease to Schools and Townships

At a meeting of the Wayne County Allocation Board on Monday, June 10, members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools appeared, together with school officials from most of the school districts in the County, to protest the action of the Wayne County Allocation Board in allocating an increase of fifty cents to Wayne County, resulting in a corresponding decrease in revenues under the 15-mill limitation available to schools and townships.

Under the 15-mill limitation amendment to the constitution, the 15-mill limit in Grosse Pointe must be shared by the county, the Grosse Pointe Township and the school district. In 1945-46 the amount available to each unit, determined by the Wayne County Allocation Board, was 8.65 mills for the school district, 1 mill for the township and 5 mills for Wayne County or a total of 14.65 mills, leaving a balance of 0.35 available for distribution among the three governing agencies for 1946-47.

Wayne County by their appropriation of 0.50 mills to the county, not only consumes all of the remaining balance but cuts into the amount available to the township and school district for 1946-47.

Members of the Board of Education in an appeal to the county along with the appeals of many other government officials pointed out that this represents an actual reduction for the 1945-46 allocation of the schools and township of approximately $15,000. The official protest of the local school officials went on to point out that this was a reduction in the face of the fact that the budget of the public schools for 1946-47 reflects an actual increase of $130,000 for operating, exclusive of building or debt service, which is approximately an 11% increase over 1945-46. Of this increase, $18,000 is for salaries and personnel. The salaries were increased on the average by approximately 10% over 1945-46. The increase in salary schedules since January, 1941, is approximately 30%. It is apparent, stated the formal protest of the Board of Education, "that even if the entire amount of 0.35 mills, available to three units of government for 1946-47 had been allocated to the schools, it would not have been sufficient to finance the budget increase stated above.

However, if we recognize that all units of government are equally and seriously pressed to meet rising costs, it would have been reasonable and just to expect a proportionate share of the available 0.35 mills under the 15 mill limit. Most conservatively the schools should be allocated at least 0.10 to 0.15 mills of the 0.35 mills available under the 15 mill limit.

"In order to provide additional revenue to finance the budget increase of 11% and to provide some reserve for future increases beyond 1946-47, the voters of this district authorized the Board of Education to exceed the 15 mill limit for general operating revenue by 1.5 mills. The voters assumed, as they had every right to assume, that this amount together with a modest share of the 0.35 mills available to three government units would be sufficient to provide the necessary increases for 1946-47, with a very small reserve remaining for increases during the four-year period from 1947 to 1951.

"The action of the Allocation Board removes the last hope that any reserve will be available for

Science Has Happy Tidings For American Vacationists

Science has happy tidings this summer for American vacationists allergic to that "Dracula" of summer vegetation known as poison ivy. The good news comes in the form of a new war-born chemical called 2, 4-D (Dichlorophenoxyacetic acid), now available to operators of vacation playgrounds and owners of summer homes and camps.

When sprayed on poison ivy plants, this new running mate of the other new chemical wonder, DDT, will render the obnoxious weed totally harmless. The nasty stuff collapses soon after spraying, as the chemical penetrates to the very roots of the plant and actually strangles it to death. Experiments conducted by Sherwin-Williams scientists show that 1,600 square feet of a weed-infested area can be covered with approximately $1,000 worth of the chemical 2, 4-D, or Weed-No-More.

Each year additional thousands who have never contracted ivy poisoning before find themselves no longer immune; therefore cutting or pulling the plants and roots out by hand is a chance not worth risking. It has also been proved that ivy poisoning may be contracted merely by contact with smoke from fires in which the plants are being burned. Killing them by spraying not only is much simpler and more effective but eliminates any danger of a person's becoming sensitized.

Once the ivy poisoning enters the blood stream the victim is usually faced with six more years of summer misery before it "burns" itself out. Merely being near the plant growth, even without actual contact, often causes a recurrence, according to published case histories.

It is indicated that in summer to come, vacationing nomads can wander through sprayed woodland areas in most sections of the country without fear of this vacation-spoiler, proving that science has marched on ahead.

HAVE YOU A ROOM THE SUN MAKES "LIKE AN OVEN"?

KOOLSHADE* Sun Screen will make it delightfully cooler!

Put an end to sweating in rooms on the sunny side.

It's Sun Heat pouring through windows that makes some rooms unbearably hot. KOOLSHADE* stops that heat outside... often keeps rooms 12 degrees cooler! This breeze fabric (made like a tiny Venetian blind—as fine as insect screen) is automatic completely effective. No glare, reduces sun-bleaching. Full view and ventilation. Keeps out insects.
