WHEN JUDGE GOLDSBOROUGH fined John Lewis and his miner's union $10,000 and $3,500,000 respectively in Federal Court yesterday, Lewis attempted the same insulting bluff and bluster he has practiced so many times successfully in his conferences with private employers in the past but is promptly slapped down by the judge, who warns him that he can be in contempt of court again and promptly Lewis sits down assisted by his own lawyers tugging at his coat-tails. . . . the judge frankly said Lewis ought to be sent to jail but deferred to the judgment of Assistant Attorney General John F. Sonnett, that such an act would make a martyr out of Lewis.

RIFT IN THE LABOR clouds on the West Coast appears in the A. F. of L. union leaders in Oakland, Calif., agreeing last night to call off the general strike and return to work immediately if the Retail Merchants Association would limit wage discussions to the two stores originally involved. . . . Dave Beck, international vice-president of the Teamsters' Union, orders Oakland teamsters back to work on Thursday (today). . . . the act a stunning surprise to A. F. of L. leaders in Oakland area.

MOLOTOV takes a seven-league step towards effective disarmament by saying Russia wouldn't prevent international armament inspectors from checking up within her own borders.

THE PROMISE of warmer weather for the next 10 days by the Weather Bureau, is welcome news to Detroiters who are scraping the bottom of their coat bins.

LEO DONOVAN, Free Press automotive writer, writing from New York says a strong move is afoot among the National Manufacturers Association to oppose drastic changes in existing labor laws.

HOUSING EXPEDITER Wilson A. Wyatt resigns, following a long struggle with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. . . . trouble revolved largely around the use of the Dodge plant in Chicago. . . . Wyatt wanted it for the construction of pre-fabricated houses; others planned it for the making of automobiles.

C. E. WILSON, president of General Motors, says GM has cancelled orders for dies for 1948 models of Chevrolet, Pontiac and Oldsmobile cars.

INDUSTRIAL MICHIGAN threatened with a greater relative setback than any other state in the union because of the coal strike. . . . 85,000 Ford workers will be idle in a few days as manufacturing ceases in that plant at midnight tonight. Freight embargo responsible for 20,000 of the idle.

SAN FRANCISCO favored as permanent home of the United Nations but Russia says she will not go there.

Friday, Dec. 6

FRANK X. MARTEL, president of Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor, discloses that AFI is considering a one-day A. F. of L. general strike in Detroit in sympathy with the miners. . . . Philip Murray, head of CIO throws support of his union behind Lewis, but at the same time William Green, head of A. F. of L., with which Lewis' miners are affiliated, urges the Government to arrange for negotiations between the union and private mine owners. . . . Lewis files appeals against his conviction.

SECRETARY OF STATE BYRNES reluctantly agrees to Molotov's insistence for increased reparations from satellite countries and increased reparations. (Continued on Page 21)

Christmas Shopping Becomes a Pleasure for Pointe Males

—Picture by Fred Runnels

NEXT MONDAY night, December 16, from 7 to 9:30 has been set aside For Men Only by a group of 19 stores in the Kercheval shopping center between Neff and Cadieux roads. Only an infinitesimal number of the various items to be found in these 19 stores, are shown in this picture. The merchants are providing full staffs to help the men make their selections. Shopping can be a pleasure. Get out your Christmas list and visit these stores next Monday night. Gift-giving worries will be dispelled quickly and pleasantly.

Pointe Branch To Be Formed By Officers

Commissioned Men of Army, Navy and Marines, Invited to Meeting

The organizational meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association will be held in the Neighborhood Club Monday, December 16 at 8 p.m. for all reserve officers of the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Corps of these branches of the service.

The purpose of the association is to secure military legislation which is beneficial to reserve officers and to the country as a whole. The R.O.A. wants to organize quickly, and wants important new legislation to be taken up by the 80th congress, such as a retirement bill for inactive duty pay for reserve officers and training requirements, all of which are vital to R.O.A. and national security.

Temporary chairman of the Association is Major Charles F. Delbridge Jr., who can be called at Niagara 0714 for further information.

BADLY BITTEN

Robert Downey, aged 14, of 1023 Wayburn, was bitten by the bulldog belonging to Dr. V. P. Moisides of 15215 Windmill Pointe drive, last Tuesday, so severely that both of his legs bore bad puncture wounds.

Satevepost Article Hangs Laurels on Pointe Writer

The December 14 issue of the Saturday Evening Post carries a long article concerning Harry V. Wade of 334 McKinley road. They refer to Mr. Wade as "the keenest wit now writing newspaper editorial paragraphs."

Mr. Wade works for the Detroit News and in 60 other cities his paragraphs appear under the pseudonym, Senator Soaper. Editorial paragraphs are the little two and three line announcements which appear between the major pronouncements on an editorial page or in a separate column.

Mr. Wade has had 25 years of experience at this type of writing. He was born in Boston, studied for the law, and worked on three Boston newspapers. He served throughout the first World

Big Jewel Robbery in Park Solved After Louwers Gets Single Faint Finger Print

FBI in Washington Link Lone Clue to Man Held in Chicago Jail; Some of Loot From Evans Home Already Recovered

A major burglary that occurred in the Dr. William A. Evans home at 842 Three Mile drive on October 25, is headed for solution, thanks to the vigilance of Chief of Police Arthur Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park, and the scientific aid of the F.B.I. at Washington.

When the robbery occurred the chief was able to obtain only a faint finger print on a small bit of broken glass, but it was enough for the scientific sleuths at Washington to decipher exact information at a later date.

Come the morning's mail on December 5 and a letter from the F.B.I. at Washington was laid on Chief Louwers' desk bearing the interesting information that the person whose finger prints were

Park Again Plans Christmas Bonus

The Park village is going to give the same Christmas bonus to its employees that it has for the last two Christmas seasons.

This is a $50 U. S. bond to each employee who has been in the service of the municipality for more than one year; a $25 bond for those in service more than six months and less than a year and $12.50 for all of the others.

Bounding Nudist Frightens Caller

A woman who lives at 6084 Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit, experienced an unscheduled surprise as she went up the steps of the house at 1463 Wayburn Thursday night, Dec. 5, for a call.

On the porch of the house at 1463 was a man wholly unadorned with the exception of a white turban-like affair. As she came in sight she screamed and ran down the steps. He darted between that house and the one next door out towards the street. This was he last saw of him. She reported the incident to the police and they hunted without avail for the half hour following 8:30 for a man in his birthday clothes.

Pointe Stores Planning Nite For Men Only

19 Merchants in Kercheval Shopping Center Catering to Males' Whims

The stage is all set for Grosse Pointe's first Men's Night, to be conducted next Monday, December 16, by 19 stores in the Kercheval shopping district between Cadieux and Neff roads. Plans have been completed to enable Pointe men to fill all their Christmas shopping needs, quickly and pleasantly, in this one shopping area.

The stores participating in the innovation are: Kopp's Pharmacy, Jacobson's, Peter Pan, Inc., Davidsons, Henri's and McMillan Markets, Grosse Pointe Drug Company, Notre Dame Pharmacy, Hamilton's Treasure Chest, Pon-graz Jewellers and York Jewellers, Judy's Gift Shop, Proper's Men's Shop, Peck and Beck, Eyon's Juvenile and Sports Wear, Junior League Little Shop, Lingeman's Florists, Peppert and Blockert's fine linen and blanket shop, and Louis for Hair Styles.

It would be difficult to find any item on a man's shopping list that cannot be purchased in one or more of these stores. Merchandise carried includes all manner of women's wear from lingerie to evening dresses and furs, all kinds of men's clothing, cosmetics and perfumes, costume and fine jewelry, silverware, time pieces, liquor and wines, fancy Christmas baskets of food, fruit and candy, beautiful linens and blankets, flowers, toys and games, stationery, shoes, slippers, an endless variety of specialized gifts ranging through china and glassware to desk sets, ash trays, waste baskets, lamps, etc.

The stores will be open For Men Only from 7 to 9:30 p. m. No women will be allowed. Augmented staffs will be on hand to see that the male's every whim is considered. Models will show the men what the better dressed women will wear in this and coming seasons. Cigars and cigarettes will be on the house. Rumors are flying around the Pointe that there will be more women "window-shopping" on Monday night, December 16, than the community has ever seen before.

Christmas comes but once a year but the needy must live 365 days every year.

Propose Ordinance To Collect Wheel Tax from Bus Co.

Park Group Expected to Make Move; Hope Expressed That All Villages and City Will Join in Common Action

There are indications that the Lake Shores Coach Lines, Inc., will not much longer be permitted to occupy the favored position it has long held of operating its buses in the Pointe free of any local taxes whatever.

A few days ago a group of gentlemen high in the affairs of the Park village were discussing the matter and the suggestion was made by one of them that an ordinance be prepared at an early date which would levy the same per bus mile tax, commonly called a wheel tax, as that levied by Detroit.

This amounts to $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ per mile per bus for each mile of travel over the streets of the village.

It was agreed by those participating in the discussion that the plan would be easier of accomplishment if all of the four villages and the one city in the Pointe would agree upon common action.

Back of the discussion lay the fact that there was common agreement that it was improper that this public service corporation should continue to use public streets without making any tax return to the community.

All agreed that the bus company performed an essential service to the people of the Pointe, but there was a considerable disagreement on the quality of the service rendered. The plea of service to the community was not agreed to be an offset to justified tax payments.

Such an argument, they said,

Last Minute Rush Swamps News Staff

THE NEWS regrets that it was forced to turn down so many advertisements who wished to have copy in this issue.

The last minute rush was just too much for humans to handle. We'll hope to be able to take care of all in the next, the Big Christmas issue. Early copy will do much to insure that your advertisement or news will get in.

might be advanced by any urban transportation concern on earth, and there are few, if any, which occupy the same relatively favored position of the Lake Shores concern.

The bus officials have long professed to be in a state of indifference whether or not they operated their buses out here, but this attitude has never been taken seriously by these parties.

When the matter of the possible abandonment of the bus service in Grosse Pointe was discussed with an official of the DSR about two years ago, his answer was that if the Lake Shore Coach Lines ever seriously proposed such an eventuality to the people of Grosse Pointe the DSR would institute inquiries both at Lansing and with the municipal bodies out in the Pointe within fifteen minutes over the possibilities of its taking over.

It is better than an even bet that this matter will take concrete form in one or more of the village councils in the near future.

Youthful Speeders Bounce From Pole Into Police Car

Lake Shore road is becoming increasingly popular with parties who yearn for late hour speed trials which are giving the Shores police added anxiety.

Saturday morning as daylight was just beginning to break, which means shortly after seven o'clock, Shores Patrolmen William Ruel and Harold Zeed, in their scout car, saw a car containing four boys speed by at a terrific rate a few rods beyond Vernier. They took after them and chased them all the way to Jefferson Beach where the speedsters tried to make a turn into Stephens road. Although they had decelerated a little, they were unable to make the turn and ran into a service pole.

The force of the impact bounced their car back into the road and the pursuing officers

Park Awards Contract for Sewer Work

Project No. 2, Deemed Most Necessary, to Be Carried Out at Cost of $111,800

The contract for the construction of that part of the Park village's sewer system known as Project No. 2, covering the northwestern corner of the village in what is sometimes referred to as the Mack-Charlevoix district, was let Monday night, December 9 to Angelo Di Ponia, a sewer contractor of Detroit. The figure was $111,800.

With the exception of the highest bid, which was for $192,881, where the bidder obviously did not consider himself a serious contender, the other two offers ran quite close. They were both around $115,000.

Following the awarding of the contract Commissioner William Gillett offered a resolution that the work be paid for by taking what can be spared out of the village's Improvement Reserve which has been in accumulation for the past three years and will amount to between $60,000 and $65,000, and the remainder provided by an anticipation loan provided by the city of Detroit. Limited Parking To Be Enforced

Most of the drivers who have been violating the Farms' new parking laws concerning the business block on Kercheval between Fisher and McMillan roads, have been lucky, but their luck won't hold out, according to Police Chief Walter Hoyt.

The Farms passed a resolution some weeks ago, setting a 30-minute parking limit on this block. New signs to this effect have been erected, and the public has been given a reasonable period to become educated to the new law.

Some tickets have been issued to flagrant violators, but the police have not made any concerted effort to tag every violator, hoping the congested situation would ease itself as the parkers became acquainted with the law.

The law will be enforced, it was announced following a meeting of the Police Committee of the Farms Tuesday night. From now on, every driver is on his own.

Park States Schools Fail To Cooperate

Village Frowns on Semi-Private Locations as Unwarranted Expense

The troubles that beset the Park village authorities in trying to provide ice skating rinks for the young people of the village came out into the open again Monday night. Edward H. Thomas, of 1027 Nottingham was present to protest against the location; near his home of such a public playground. The village had intended to locate one of the rinks this winter on a vacant lot on the east side of Nottingham, midway between St. Paul and Jefferson.

Mr. Thomas' appearance at the meeting had been preceded by several letters and a petition signed by 18 persons, all protesting against the planned rink. One of the letters, from N. J. Nichol of 1021 Nottingham, was couched in somewhat sarcastic language, covering a wider range of grievances than the single question of unwanted skating rinks. He said, concerning the clubhouse which the Michigan Automobile Club is going to erect at the corner of Somerset and Jefferson, much against the opposition of nearby residents, it was now reported it was going to be a much bigger building than first proposed and for which permission had been given by the council.

He said the people in that part of the village had "been kicked about" as much as they intended to be. It was emphasized by a bystander at the meeting that the clubhouse had not been enlarged as far as its floor plans were concerned but that the club was considering building a mezzanine floor which would make it about a half story higher than originally planned.

President Parshall said he sympathized with citizens who objected to having a public skating rink next door to their homes. He wouldn't want such an affair next to his own home. The same sentiment was expressed by the other commissioners.

It was decided to continue the three that were in operation last winter; one at Charlevoix and Three Mile, one at the foot of Three Mile on property owned by the village and the usual one on the pool in the Beach Park. Others might be opened if vacant lots are offered by owners which are sufficiently removed from residences as to assure no complaint from nearby dwellers; but such locations are scarce and the village is not hopeful.

Meanwhile letters are pouring into the municipal offices almost daily wanting to know what the Park is going to do about ice rinks this winter. The Commissioners were unanimous in agreeing that this matter was one in which the School authorities should cooperate. The playground that are a part of each school are little used for outdoor recreation in the midst of freezing weather when skating is just coming into its own. A part of these grounds, the commissioners argued could well be used for skating in this period.

When the Park Planning Commission was giving much attention to recreational activities a few months ago attempts were made to get the school authorities to cooperate in this general work and ice rinks were much in the discussion. At that time it is alleged little encouragement was met with in this quarter.

Manager Lane mentioned that he is being constantly requested by owners of private lots to erect skating rinks for their own and immediate neighbors' children. This has been a headache to his office each winter. It is a considerable expense to make them and firemen often have to string lines of hose from distant hydrants. This might occur at the very moment the apparatus was badly needed at a fire.

Following this angle of the discussion Commissioner Gillett drafted a resolution prohibiting the use of public funds or apparatus to make such semi-private skating rinks. The measure was passed unanimously.

Practice makes perfect. And that goes for the Christmas feeling of fellowship and good will too.

Catholic Clergymen Oppose Planned Parenthood League

The Archconfraternity of St. Clare held its monthly meeting last week. During the Church services the annual reception of new members took place. Mrs. Leslie L. Smith, of 1832 Grayton road, presented the new members and they were formally received into the ladies organization by the Rev. J. A. Smith, O.S.A.

Following the reception ceremony was a "Membership Tea" in the Auditorium with Mrs. E. Farrell, of 1318 Kensington, acting as chairman. A brief business meeting was conducted before a session of interesting entertainment. The purpose of the meeting was to pass by unanimous consent a vote of protest against the activities in this locality of the League for Planned Parenthood. According to an article published recently in a local newspaper, it was stated that "childspacing services be made available to all who desire them."

At the Archconfraternity meeting it was pointed out that to protect the health of mothers and to safeguard the welfare of children are noble objectives, and deserve thoughtful consideration.

of every true American. But it was asserted that these objectives cannot be obtained through the use of immoral contraceptives as advocated by the League of Planned Parenthood. Such procedure, it was stated, will result only in degrading the marriage state, in jeopardizing the happiness of family life, and in ruining the moral fibre of America. The words of an outstanding spiritual leader were recalled: "Any use of matrimony exercised in such a way that the act is deliberately frustrated in its power to generate life is an offense against the law of nature."

This protest against the method of spacing children proposed by the League of Planned Parenthood has received the hearty endorsement of the following Catholic clergymen resident in Grosse Pointe: the Reverends P. L. Colgan, J. A. Smith, E. J. Sweeney, J. D. Clark, M. R. Foley, L. J. Kaszynski of St. Clare Parish; of the Reverends F. F. Van Antwerp, L. H. Des Longchamps, L. V. Hamel, V. F. Schuster of St. Ambrose Parish; of the Reverends J. P. Jordan, C. O'Neill of St. Joan of Arc; and the Reverends A. L. Melvin, J. J. Bohr, and R. T. Parrish of St. Paul.

Jewel Theft

The articles stolen, as per the list sent out by Louwers were:— Lady's solitaire diamond ring, $4,000; lady's fancy diamond wedding ring, $950; lady's ruby guard ring, 30 square rubies, platinum mounting, $200; lady's diamond guard ring, $850; lady's diamond guard ring, $1,000; lady's diamond wedding ring, $400; man's round steel wrist watch, $48; man's rectangular gold strap wrist watch, $150; man's round thin platinum pocket watch, $850; platinum vest chain, $125; platinum pocket knife, $100. The total value of the stolen articles was $8,073.

Chief Louwers says the Detroit pawnshop has cooperated loyally with him. When the thief came in the shop owners suspected at once he was a thief and that the matter would be reported on in a matter of hours. They sized it up that he wanted money badly to get out of town and after taking his right thumb print, let him have $25. He fairly grabbed it and got out. They had no right to hold him on suspicion alone and calculated the property would soon find its way back to its proper owner. This happened.

They expect to learn the disposition of the other articles when Barclay is interviewed in the Cook County jail.

There was an attempted burglary at the Evans home again last Tuesday night, December 3, but the police do not associate this attempt with the major robbery six weeks earlier. Ingress was not made into the house on the last visit.

Later in the week Chief Louwers learned from the Cook County authorities that their case against Barclay was not too strong. Convinced he is the man wanted for the local burglary Louwers will make a trip to Chicago within a day or two, to sweat him out on the further details of his work in the Pointe and throughout the Detroit area, before the week case there compels them to release him.

dictated upon the 1947 tax receipts. The arrangement is pursuant to the village's fixed policy not to add to its bonded indebtedness.

To reorganize the village's finances on a sounder basis by making no further additions to its bonded debt this policy was decided upon several years ago.

President Parrish explained that it was the purpose of the Board of Commissioners to undertake the greatly needed rebuilding of the village sewer system under this plan and pursue it as rapidly as its financial resources would permit. The plan was to deal with the most urgent area first. It was the commission's judgment that the section to be provided for in this contract came within this category.

The original estimate for this particular job had been about $30,000 lower than the present contract figure, but in view of the fact that this estimate was made in 1941 and the higher level of costs that had occurred between then and now, this was not regarded as unreasonable.

Manager Lane explained that contact he had made with other municipalities in the Detroit metropolitan area convinced him that the Park had done remarkably well on this job. The Commissioners are keeping their fingers crossed in the hope that later sub-jobs on the whole major project will not be higher.

Two Pointe Youths Guilty In Voting Booth Fire Case

Placed on Probation for Pouring Stolen Gasoline Over Structure and Burning It on Night of August 10

Two Pointe boys have been found guilty of malicious destruction in connection with the burning of the voting booth at Kerby and Beaupre roads last August 10.

Lorenz A. Hittel, of 285 McKinley road, and Russell Anderson, of 334 McMillan road, both 18, were found guilty by Referee Fred Baxter of the Juvenile Division of Probate Court. Previously Herbert Cook had also been found guilty on the same charge. All three boys have been placed on probation.

The youths stole gasoline from a car parked on Ridge road, poured it over the voting booth, set fire to it, then fled in a stolen car. They abandoned the car after a wild chase by Officer Roberts of the Farms police and escaped between houses on Madison road.

Labadie Figures He's World's Luckiest Sergeant of Police

Sergt. Elmer Labadie of the Farms Police Department would be patting himself on the back if he could reach that far. He has himself figured as just about the luckiest man in the world.

Elmer has just returned to the Pointe after spending his vacation in the south. Last Thursday afternoon he attempted to check into the Winecoff Hotel in Atlanta, Ga., where he had stayed on his way to Florida. He intended to spend four or five days there, but was turned down because there wasn't a room available.

Disgruntled, he headed north. Saturday he heard the radio reports and read the papers about the fire that had taken the lives of 120 guests in the Winecoff.

VERY HEALTHY SIGN
Communicable diseases have been dropping to a low point in Grosse Pointe in recent months. The November report for the whole Township and City combined shows only 4 cases of Chicken pox, one of Measles, one of Vincent's Angina, one of Rheumatic Fever, three of Scarlet Fever and two of Whooping Cough. But there were 10 of Diphtheria. Biting dogs are still active.

Park "Take" Also Rises

The "Take" on Park concessions has gone up along with the rising cost of everything else in the country.

At the Park Council meeting December 9 the concession for refreshment sales etc. in the village's beach park was renewed with Charles Stackman, who has held it for some years. There was an advance in the percentage on gross sales from 5 percent as heretofore to 8 per cent hereafter.

Also the new contract covers a three year period, whereas it had been formerly a year-to-year arrangement.

Pointers Participating In Messiah Presentation

Ruth Rauth and Richard Palmer of Grosse Pointe will participate in the eleventh annual presentation of the Messiah to be given Friday evening, December 13, under the sponsorship of Western Michigan College. The chorus of more than 500 voices will be assisted by four artist soloists, and an orchestra of 45 musicians.

Miss Rauth will be a member of the choir and Mr. Palmer will be a member of the orchestra.

The highest ability is responsibility—responding with all your ability to every need.

Arrested Twice Same Morning

Daniel C. Crowley of 243 Lakeland, enjoyed a nice fast ride on Jefferson avenue early Saturday morning, December 7 until he received a ticket from Park Patrolman Kasteloot for speeding 50 m.p.h.

A little later he went into the Toddle House and raised such a ruckus that the management called in the police who arrested him again.

That same morning at 9 o'clock Judge Victor N. Debaeke fined him $25, plus cost of $5 for speeding and a like amount for disorderly conduct.

Park Equipment Reported Stolen

Ormond Winnie of 932 Westchester, an employee of the Park's highway department, reported to the police that a Standard City Sewer machine and cleaning outfit and a Briggs and Stratton gasoline motor and rod line puller, property of Grosse Pointe Park, had been stolen from the alley between Beaconsfield and Nottingham some time between 12 o'clock and 1 o'clock p.m. on Friday the 8th of December.

The outfit was pretty heavy but the police said could be lifted by a couple of men into a car. The value of the equipment was $697.

PAYS FOR RECKLESSNESS
In City Police Court Dec. 9, Judge Uvick fined Clarence H. Doetsch of 12242 Corbett, $10 and $5 for reckless driving. George Tucker, of 1044 Alter, up for the same charge, was found not guilty.

New Playground To Adjoin Pointe

Plans for a new Detroit playground area adjoining the Pointe were announced Tuesday. The site will include a portion of the property in the Warren-Radnor Canyon area recently sold by the City of Grosse Pointe to the Augustinian Order, which is not needed by the Order for the erection of a new Catholic high school there.

According to the announcement, the recreation area will embrace about 60 acres. It will have five baseball diamonds, a swimming pool, barbecue pits and other fun facilities.

Combined Choirs To Give Messiah

The Messiah will be presented by the combined choirs of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ at Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church, E. Jefferson and Marlboro avenues, Sunday, December 15, at 4:30 p. m.

The choir will be assisted by the Detroit Community Symphony Orchestra, featuring the following soloists: Esther Salomon, soprano; Wilma Kennedy, contralto; Paul Herbster, tenor; William DeMaria, bass.

This Christmas music program was started in 1939 and presented annually until 1942. Due to popular request it is to be resumed this year and will be given under the able direction of Verna Scharr and Joseph Roy Lanyon, conductors. A free will offering will be taken.

The Detroit Community Symphony Orchestra will hold Christmas Open House, Tuesday, December 17, at 8 p. m. in the Ladies' Parlors of Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church. A delightful program has been arranged featuring "The Toy Symphony" by Hoydn. Members of the church and friends of the orchestra are invited to attend.

IN WAYNE PLAY
Featured in the cast of Wayne University Theatre's December 12 and 13 production of "Time of Your Life" is Mary Alys Kline, 715 Rivard boulevard.

'Teen-Agers Enthusiastic About Pre-Christmas Dance

The pre-Christmas dance for teen-agers of the Pointe and that section of Detroit bordering on the Pointe, promises to be a big success. Jack Snyder, fire-blower, "human torch," and harmonica player has been added to the long list of entertainers.

The dance has been arranged by a group long interested in providing wholesome, healthy entertainment for the young of this section. It will be held on the second floor of the Grosse Pointe Motors building at East Jefferson and Ashland on Saturday, December 14. Music will be furnished by records played over a public address system and provided by the Miller music store.

Rudy Rahn, who has planned many events for the juveniles, is the moving spirit in this one.

Manufacturing In Home Halted

Following the action of the Grosse Pointe City council on Monday night, Dec. 2, where, following the complaint of neighbors, it had been decided to notify Edward Hollenbeck of 804 Rivard that he must cease manufacturing work in the basement of his house, City Clerk Norbert Neff and Chief of Police Tom Trombly called on Mr. Hollenbeck the following day.

They saw many parts lying around which Hollenbeck used in making the device he manufactures for trailers. Mr. Hollenbeck was apprised of the action of the Council. He was most cooperative and said he did not want to be an annoyance to his neighbors.

He was told to make arrangements at an early date to remove his machinery and carry on his manufacturing operations in an home is in a strictly reserved other location. Mr. Hollenbeck's residential Zone "A" area.

MEN'S NIGHT

"To Serve the Man"

MONDAY NIGHT
Dec. 16th, 7 to 9:30

The merchants of the Pointe's finest shopping center, on Kercheval Avenue between Neff and Cadieux Roads, have set aside next Monday night when the male animal can prowls in "peace". These stores are doing everything in their power to make Christmas shopping a most pleasant experience for the Pointe's men of distinction. Women will be "barred", excepting those skilled employees who help with suggestions, model costumes and see that the customers are taken care of courteously and conveniently. Make a list of your Christmas gift needs and bring it along to these stores next Monday night.

Mothers' Club's Christmas Tea Draws Many to School

The annual Christmas Tea was given by the Mothers' Club of the Grosse Pointe High School last Thursday, Dec. 5. Honoring the founder, Mrs. J. M. Fuchs, and the past presidents, Mrs. W. F. Mohrroff, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. W. E. Neumeier, Mrs. Claude Hayward, Mrs. Herman Deuster, Mrs. Catherine Waddell, Mrs. Chas. Ellis, Mrs. J. C. Danforth, Mrs. J. Sidney Heil, and Mrs. E. F. Gehrig, the tea was a tribute to the work of the Mothers' Club.

Leaders in the arrangements were Mrs. Leon Jacobi, president; Mrs. Andrew Foulds, program chairman; Mrs. H. Johnson and Mrs. Hurst Montee, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Harold S. Davis, social chairman.

The scene of the tea, the school cafeteria, was brightly decorated with air sprays and colored balls in the windows and nine red candles on each side of the cheery burning fire in the fireplace.

To one side of the fireplace was assembled the Grosse Pointe High School Ensemble, composed of Ellen Jane Worley, Helen Schultz, Alice Corey, Judith Lyndrup, Jean Corey, Harriet Cotton, Barbara Coulter, Ken Christenson, Ann Palmer, John Titus, Martha Fischer, Paul Terbruggen, Milton Setzer, Elaine Severin, Doris Duncan and Sheila McComb. Directed by Dewey D. Kalember, the string group offered many selections for the background music. Marion Blackmore also entertained with "Ave Maria," accompanied by Doug Krieger.

At the candle-light coffee tables Mrs. M. M. Schaeffer, Mrs. Walter R. Clemenson, Mrs. Paul L. Essert, and Mrs. F. Flom poured. Responsible for the excellent refreshments were Mrs. Davis, chairman of the social committee, and Mrs. W. Rodgers, Mrs. F. Willson, Mrs. E. Bauman, Mrs. C. Sharrer, Mrs. A. Lamb, Mrs. H. Cotton, Mrs. O. Mann, Mrs. J. Boakes, and Mrs. C. B. Swift.

Assisting the mothers were six 11A girls, Buffy Wicking, Joyce Schmidt, Shirley Davis, Janet Eckfeld, Nancy Hodges, and Nancy Boakes. The girls in the home-making and foods classes under the direction of Mrs. Nora Ann Blair and Miss Caroline Postliff made the sandwiches.

The purpose of the Mothers' Club is to benefit the students of the Grosse Pointe High School, socially and financially, and to interest the mothers of the community and teachers of the G. P. H. S. in the club work. Since 1931, when the first scholarships were awarded, a total of $12,450 has been awarded to 62 graduates. Also the Mothers' Club has given the money for the choir robes of the students and contributed in other ways to the progress of the school.

WORDS OF THE WISE

The bread earned by the sweat of the brow is thrice blessed bread, and it is far sweeter than the tasteless loaf of idleness.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

If you are planning to use a double edged razor blade for ripping seams, and find it hard to handle without cut fingers, use the striking end of a paper match book. The razor blade is easily held in place with cellulose tape.

ODD FACT

The modern American dog bill, for prepared food, averages $8.00 a year, which means that Americans are spending more than $100,000,000 a year for dog food.

711 Byrd Boulevard,

Dear Kiddie,
Everyone writes letters TO Santa Claus. But nobody gets letters FROM Santa Claus. Everybody asks Santa Claus FOR presents. But nobody sends presents TO Santa Claus.

You're the first, kiddie. And I think it's high time SOMEBODY did SOMETHING for the old boy. After all, you've had your Christmas right in the bag from me all these years. And this year I'm out to pick up some of these pin up gals.

To begin with, kiddie, I wish I'll be right in there pinching—you would kill the ugly rumor I mean pinching.

that this year Santa Claus is on I am dictating this letter to strike. I'll be right on the job. I my secretary—Mrs. Claus picks may have to lighten my load, but all my secretaries and they have putting out brains—and I'm giving you a little list of what Santa would like for Christmas. You can shop around in those very luxurious shops in the Pointe, and if you don't see what I want—LOOK for it, kiddie.

After all, I'm merely a man. A man's man AND woman's man. So let 'er rip, kiddie and load me up with a few of these things I never get around to charging to myself.

I'd really go for a strictly de luxe lounging robe because if I get the robe I may get the time to lounge. After all, Clifton Webb has over fifteen lounging robes—and look at the money he's making. I know a flock of those silk foulard robes have come over from England, with all the traditional British patterns. You know—reserved as a table at the London Embassy but gay enough to make a chap feel that if he lounges long enough the Duchess may drop up (and wouldn't I love to see how she'd drop up) for a spot of tea in her rum.

Likewise on the leisure side, there's that new smoking coat that is cut like a Tuxedo with shawl collar of satin. In the jacket racket there are Scotch Tweeds every fellow needs. And those bonnie Cashmere Sweaters light as thistledown on the moors! Ah, these Scotch are a cannie folk, kiddie—they invented golf and have been living off the golf clothes ever since.

Don't tell it to Winchell, but I'm leaving for Palm Beach right after New Year's. It seems I'm 'that way' about a gal named Zinnia Zilch who is 'this way' about me. Winchell's spies will never find us because I'm coming out from behind these whiskers and nobody knows my naked face value. To carry off this coup de coeur, I'll need a new electric razor. Also I crave one of those Wilkinson Sword Razors. These aren't as dangerous as they sound. The Wilkinson Sword people do make the swords for the King of England but as far as I know he doesn't shave with his sword. The Wilkinson is just a super sort of blue steel razor with which all blue bloods avoid cutting themselves.

I'm coming to the Pointe for a watch, kiddie. Not necessarily one of those watches that show a perpetual calendar, city, state, temperature, stock market reports and what horse to bet on the nose. Just a darn good watch that tells the time and shuts up about it. You know the type—a gold or platinum number I can pawn when Zinnia buys out Palm Beach in an odd—not to say queer moment.

I could use one of those new Ball Point Pens—and not an Eight-Ball one, either. Because I'll be letting my brain bulging stenographers rest, and 'Zinnia can't take dictation from anyone. In fact, she can't even write her name on anything except a check. So how about a really good pen to be my pocket secretary?

You see, kiddie, I'm only asking for the bare luxuries. If a Cadillac car drops into my lap, I will see that from now on all your Christmases are white—and damn white, too.

You can expect me at the usual time—our night shift on Christmas Eve runs from 8 p. m. to 4

a. m. If you're out at the Little Club or zinging around the Pointe, I'll wait for you. But remember I'm a distinguished gentleman, kiddie—and you know what they drink. Just leave a note propped on the bottle. Or you might have your nurse wait up for me, especially if she's blonde and a good sinner. I may be a gentleman, but after all, a gentleman is just a patient wolf. I'll be seeing you, (Signed)

SANTA CLAUS
P. S. Include one gross of aspirin in my gift bag, kiddie.

Anniversary Observed By E. D. Flintermanns

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Flintermann of 109 Touraine road, were hosts at an open house on Sunday, December 1, observing their second wedding anniversary.

Guests attending included: Mr. and Mrs. John Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cronenweh, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Widman, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. John Sella, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Corfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leisen, Mr. Alex Homburger, Mr. William Patterson, Mrs. Naomi Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munt, Mr. and Mrs. David Sutter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Engelbert, Miss Barbara Noble and Mr. Gilbert Dittmer.

THOUGHTLESS

During the dimout recently in force, City patrolmen discovered lights burning brilliantly in the gymnasium at the Neighborhood Club on the night of December 4. They notified George Elsworth, director of the club, who attended to the matter at once and thanked the police for calling his attention to it. The lights had been left burning by some thoughtless users of the gym.

BOY BITTEN BY DOG

Johnny Doyle, aged 5, of 23 Moran road, was bitten on the nose on December 9 by a dog owned by James McKillop of 25 Moran road. The dog was ordered held under observation for the usual 10-day period.

Shower to Honor Columbus Guest

Christmas gaiety includes a tea and household shower for Mrs. William D. Baugh of Columbus, O., who arrives right after Christmas with Mr. Baugh to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Armour of Rivard boulevard.

Mrs. Baugh was the former Nancy Armour and since her marriage, she and her husband have been attending Ohio State over there in Columbus. He's studying for his medical degree and Nancy is taking nursing courses.

This is the first real visit the young Baughs will have paid the Pointe. Nancy's godmother, Mrs. Sterling Sanford, and Mrs. Paul W. Thompson are taking advantage of the visit to entertain for her.

The party will be given on December 28 in the Sanford's home on Hillcrest road.

Incidentally, Carol Sanford will arrive at the Pointe next weekend from her studies at Michigan State College in Lansing to spend the holiday season with her parents.

PEREGRINATING POOCH

A stray dog was reported from the C. H. Haberkorn residence at 16761 Jefferson avenue on December 4. Doggie had wandered a long way from home. His license tag disclosed that he belonged out in Royal Oak. His owner got him back later in the day.

Wells-Caulkins Wedding Dec. 28

When Jack Caulkins flies in from New Haven on Dec. 19 he will be greeted not only by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Caulkins, but also by his fiancée, Patricia Wells. She will arrive that same day from Bay City to spend a few days with the Caulkins family in their home on Rivard boulevard.

Pat, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wells, of Bay City, and Jack will be married in Trinity Episcopal Church in Bay City on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 28. The reception will be held in the Bay City Country Club.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Wells, will be Pat's matron of honor. Christine Caulkins will be the maid of honor. Jack's two little nieces will be the flower girls. They are Wendy Lamb and Mary McNaughton Lamb, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Jack has asked his brother, George P. Caulkins, Jr., to be his best man. The ushers will be another brother, Henry Caulkins; Rex McNaughton Lamb, Jr.; Ralph Caulkins, Pat's brothers; Charles and William P. Wells; William Clay Ford, Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., and Henry Finckstaedt, Jr.

Following their marriage, Pat and Jack are planning to make their home in Milford, Conn. (where Jack has found a house), until he finishes at Yale.

November Bride

MRS. GERALD S. FOUCHEY, the former Mary Elizabeth McRobert McCallum, 1065 Maryland avenue, was married on November 30 in St. Rose Church to the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fouchey, 680 St. Jean. A reception was held after the wedding in the home of the bride's parents.

AAUW Planning Benefit Concert

A benefit concert will be sponsored by the metropolitan branches of the American Association of University Women Tuesday evening, December 17 at Music Hall. The performing artist will be Leon Fleisher, eighteen-year-old pianist, one of the nation's outstanding young musicians.

Proceeds from the concert will be used for the twin projects of sponsoring schools in devastated areas in Europe and assisting in international study grants to foreign students who wish to study in the United States. The branches as a unit have adopted a school in Vitre, France, while individual branches have schools in France, Belgium, Holland and Norway under the Save the Children Federation plan.

Mrs. Taylor H. Seiber of Grosse Pointe is general chairman of the event, assisted by branch chairmen. Mrs. Kenneth R. Beardslee is chairman of ticket sales for the Grosse Pointe Branch. Telephone TU 2-6523 for reservations.

From Another Pointe of View

by
Jane Schermerhorn

It'll be a pretty magic Christmas... For Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Rohde (Ginny Rabaut)... who have just moved into their new home [DESIGNED, BUILT and MOVED INTO this year of the housing shortage, building material shortage etc. of 1946] on Hampton road... and who'll be spending their very first Christmas there...

We've been hearing all manner of glamorous reports of the home which is done in blue interior with heavenly complementing tones...

Put another feature everyone has simply raved about has to do with the garage, of all things!

ARTHUR ROHDES OCCUPY THEIR NEW HOME

We're just an old fashioned girl... and we can remember when it was sophisticated humor in a movie for the heroine to dab a bit of vanilla on herself to catch her beau...

So we don't feel too badly for being mystified over that garage...

It seems the Rohdes merely have to push a button on the dashboard of their motor cars... and their garage doors open and shut...

We've gone over this carefully... it isn't that electric eye arrangement which makes a door open when you approach it...

It's magic and witchcraft as far as we're concerned... but a wonderful conversation piece for a new home... and a startling indication of what to expect in the post war world...

BRIDE-ELECT FETED

We haven't a doubt in the world that the Buck Roger doors will be a source of great interest at the luncheon which Mrs. Rohde is giving next Tuesday... (her first party in her new home)...

For bride-elect Jane Burnett of Hamilton road (daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett) who will marry Louis Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paxton Mendelsohn... December 21...

LUNCHEON GUEST LIST

Among the guests who have been invited to the luncheon (it'll also be a miscellaneous shower) are:

Jane's sister, Mrs. Carlton Knight (who's to be her only attendant)... Mrs. David Burnett, her sister-in-law... Mrs. Paxton Mendelsohn... Mrs. E. J. Weston... Mrs. Edward Thomson of Birmingham... Mrs. Donald Flintermann... Mrs. George S. Helmuth... Mrs. Warren Kendall... Mrs. Robert Powell... Mrs. Lawrence Kroha... Mrs. Francis B. Ryan and Mrs. Doris B. Witsett...

Wedding Plans and Pre-Nuptial Parties Keeping Bride-Elect Busy; Ceremony Set for December 21 in Memorial Church

Bride-elect Jacqueline Bowen, the daughter of the Ernest C. Bownens of Lincoln road, is a very busy young lady these days completing plans for her wedding and attending a round of parties in her honor. She will become the bride of Hugh Verity Anderson, of Evanston, Ill., on Dec. 21 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Hugh is the son of Mrs. Wilbur Carmichael, of Evanston, Ill., and Edwin F. Anderson, of Chicago.

Joyce Bowen will come in from the University of Michigan to be her sister's maid of honor. (Joyce, incidentally is making quite a name for herself on campus—she was recently named a chairman for the Sophomore Girl's Class project). The other attendants will be Mary Lou Gullberg and Bettie Flanders.

Owen Anderson will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Robert Smythe and Robert Llewellyn of Evanston, Ill., and William Ellsworth Carmichael, of Chicago.

Honoring the popular young bride-elect, Mrs. Ralph Clark and Mrs. Arthur Hirt gave a dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club on Tuesday, Dec. 3. Last Friday evening Mrs. Leo Kramer entertained in her home on Yorkshire road at a supper party and miscellaneous shower for Jacqueline. On Saturday afternoon Mary Lou Gullberg was hostess in her home on Lakeland avenue for a shower and tea.

spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Brown's sister, MRS. CHESTER STACKPOLE in her Baltimore home. The Browns also visited in Boston with their son-in-law and daughter, MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH W. CASKEY, and BEVERLEY BROWN, who is a student at Bradford Junior College. The Caskeys and Beverley will come to the Pointe at the end of next week to spend Christmas with the Browns.

Mrs. George E. Flanders and Bettie Flanders will honor Jacqueline this evening when they will have a bridge party and personal shower in their home on Barrington road. And tomorrow evening Mrs. Edward Apple will entertain at a buffet supper in her home in honor of the bride-elect.

The rehearsal dinner will be on Friday evening, Dec. 20 at the Whittier, and following the ceremony on Saturday evening, the reception will be held in the Church House.

Jean Hatcher To Wed Dec. 14

When Jean Hatcher, the daughter of the Leslie C. Hatcher, leaves for Chicago to be married on Dec. 14, she will have a round of showers and parties behind her. Jean will become the bride of Robert M. Foote, Jr., of Red Wing, Wis.

Mrs. Fred A. Hughes and her daughter, Mrs. F. Maurice Hally, honored Jean at a luncheon and kitchen shower on Tuesday, Dec. 2, in Mrs. Hughes' home on University place.

Mary Jane Barrett was hostess last evening in her parents' home on Kensington road for the spinster dinner, which was an informal buffet dinner.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Fete Barbara Bailey

Her Wedding to Lou Alin Maxon Scheduled for December 28 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Yacht Club Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Vinal I. Bailey of Hillcrest road, will practically have to consult their daughter Barbara's calendar these next few weeks in order to see her between the many pre-nuptial parties which are being planned. She will become the bride of Lou Alin Maxon on Dec. 28 at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Barbara was the honor guest last week at a surprise kitchen shower given by Sally Sherman in her home on Meadow lane. On Dec. 11 Mrs. James Tonge honored Barbara at an evening party and bathroom shower in the Tonge home on Seyburn.

Marjorie Maxon will entertain for the bride-elect on Dec. 14 at a tea and linen shower, and the next day Patsy Wunsch will be hostess at a breakfast in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club shower.

Frank Peck will be host on Dec. 21 in his home on Lake Shore road at a dinner party honoring Barbara and Lou. On

Gardeners Hold Candlelight Tea

Mrs. Alvan Macauley's paneled drawing room with its deep wine draperies and dark wood made a beautiful background for the carolling of the Christ Church choir boys in their wine-colored robes when the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Association had its annual Candlelight Christmas tea Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank W. Goldie, in charge of the musical program, invited the boys to sing some of their Christmas music, which they did with a special flourish. Mrs. Macauley was assisted by Mrs. Charles Delbridge. Among the blue-ribboned packages which members brought as gifts for veterans was the one tied up by Mrs. Robert Hurt in cyclamen red with two cigarettes and a package of matches on top for the lucky recipient to light up—a decorative and thoughtful touch.

Mrs. Herbert B. Trix used some antique gold foil tassels to adorn her winning package. Some of the members at the affair were: Mrs. Standish Backus, who presided at the tea table; Mrs. Wilson W. Mills, Mrs. Henry L. Newman, Mrs. B. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Roger M. Kyes, Mrs. Ford Ballantyne, Mrs. Hugh Stalker, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. William H. Fries, Mrs. A. Boynton Hartz, and Mrs. Frank Lambert, who came in from Clerks for the party.

Mrs. John Sherman will come from Ithaca, N. Y., to be Barbara's matron of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Marsha Winters, of Toledo, Marjorie Maxon, Eleanor Eckert and Patsy Wunsch.

Lou has asked Bob Tonge to be his best man, and the ushers will be Richard Keller, Richard Robbins, Victor Koch, Bill Wilson, Frank Peck and Kenneth Petrake.

Another Party For Julie Hudson

Another party has been added to the crowded deb calendar. On Thursday, December 19 Mrs. Harold R. Boyer and Mrs. Chisolm N. MacDonald will combine in honoring Julie Hudson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Young, at a cocktail and supper party at the Grosse Pointe Club for about 40 members of the younger set.

This will be one of the first of the deb parties to open the Christmas season. Julie made her debut in June and is also being feted this Christmas at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Buhl preceding the ball December 26, which is being given by Julie's grandmother, Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Sr. Mrs. Evelyn Mendelssohn will also entertain in Julie's honor at a dinner January 2.

Simonds-McEvoy Wedding Dec. 21

On December 21 the Ralph W. Simonds' home on Lewiston road will be the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Bernadine, and John K. McEvoy.

The ceremony will take place at 3:30 p. m.

The bride-elect's sister, Barbara, will be maid of honor and Alice White of Englewood, N. J. is to be bridesmaid.

The flower girl will be Wendy Colby.

Guests will be seated by the

Solicitors' Eloquent Pleas Draw Park's Firm Denials

A concern made application at the Park council meeting on Dec. 9 for permission for its salesmen to distribute samples from house to house in the Park and leave a coupon, valuable in subsequent transactions, for a cleaning device which it was hoped the callee might wish to buy.

The application recited in commendable detail the manner of approach of the employees. They would first ring the door bell and then wait 20 seconds for an answer. If none was forthcoming the salesman would move on. If he was favored with a response he had at his tongue's end a most appropriate and pleasing address, framed to melt the heart of the most obdurate prospect.

The council said No! At about the same moment in the proceedings another request was read from a party who craved the privilege of selling from door to door the products of blind workmen. The "blind" association gave the council a moment's hesitation, particularly when the information was conveyed that a similar request addressed to the Woods, Farms and City had been acted upon favorably.

Recalling, however, that such enterprises usually had a distinct private enterprise hookup, they again said No! at least for the time being. More information, they said, would be agreeable.

Motorcycle, Car, Figure in Crash

An accident involving a motorcycle and an automobile happened at Buckingham and Kercheval on Friday, Dec. 6, when Marcel Vercoetere of 1108 Maryland, going east on Kercheval, struck a 1946 Pontiac owned and driven by Raymond P. Baubie, of 888 Trombley going north on Buckingham and attempting a left turn into Kercheval.

Vercoetere had his left ankle injured and suffered abrasions on his left leg. No tickets were issued by the police as both parties were considered equally responsible for the accident. Both machines were damaged.

Award Contract For Flood Gate

The Ray G. Baker contracting concern of Detroit has been awarded the contract for constructing the back-water trap or gate on Jefferson and Barrington. The price is $6,403.

The contractors are having some difficulty getting the particular weight of steel called for in the engineers' plans and are in touch with Village Manager Lane and Shoecraft, Drury and McNamee of Ann Arbor, who prepared the plans, to ascertain whether certain substitutions will be permitted to hasten the work.

The village is especially anxious to have this trap installed before another highwater period sets in, such as caused so much trouble with backwater flooding last year. The cutting off of certain sewers in the western end of the village from direct connection with Detroit sewers and diverting the sewage into the Jefferson Avenue 7-foot main is expected also to relieve this situation greatly.

Students Attend Press Conference

Sixteen members of the Journalism class attended a Press Conference held at Wayne University, December 5.

The students heard lectures on writing columns, feature writing, reporting, sports writing, planning the dummy for the year book, make-up and layout for the paper, etc.

Those who attended were: Marthalou Mauer, Joanne Athanson, Josephine Mannino, Marylin Otto, Jeanne Kulka, Bob McBride, Nancy Stahl, Rosemary Wrubel, Donald Simpson, Paula Beaupre, Sally Curran, Ellen Boulton, Joan Weidman and Joan Krausman.

Pointer Honored By Dutch Queen

An outstanding honor for a Pointe naval officer was disclosed this week when Commander Fred W. Beltz, U. S. N. (retired) of 330 Rivard boulevard, received the letter of transmittal from the Netherlands Embassy in Washington informing him that Queen Wilhelmina had decreed him made Commander in the Order of Orange-Nassau, the decoration to be worn with swords. This decoration was given for the Pointer's work done with the Dutch submarines brought to U. S. ports during the war. Commander Beltz was then on duty in the Submarine Section of the Navy Department in Washington.

The decoration is a blue and white enamel cross with crossed gold swords and a crown. It hangs from an orange and blue ribbon and is worn around the neck with the full-dress uniform.

LEAGUE'S XMAS PARTY

The Michigan League for Crippled Children will hold its Christmas party on Friday, December 13, in the Oakman School, 12920 Wadsworth avenue. There will be a board meeting at 10:30 a.m. and a regular meeting at 2 p.m. The children will furnish the entertainment.

Five Years Later

The great grandchildren of the present generation of Americans will still be referring to that five year span of time marked by the dates December 7, 1941 and December 7, 1945 as our heroic age. The golden age will be that of which they themselves are a part.

Our own faces have been so close to that great world cyclorama that we have not yet been able to see more than its outlines. The true vision can come only with that perspective which time alone can give.

It will then be freely acknowledged that that great query which the immortal Lincoln propounded on the field of Gettysburg on November 19, 1863, found its final answer eighty years later on the plains and in the mountains of central Europe, on the islands of the seven seas, in the ruined cities of Japan. It was then determined that government of the people, by the people and for the people was not to perish from the Earth.

The children of that blessed era will praise us for what we did. They will envy us for having been privileged to be the actors in this great drama.

Spiritual and political freedom put forth its first feeble blossoms in Ancient Greece, withered and languished for a millennium in the Dark Ages, blossomed again at Runnymede and breathed forth its full flavor at Concord Bridge.

It met its most terrifying challenge in the rise of organized tyranny in Central Europe in the decade of 1933-1943. When Asiatic despotism attacked us at Pearl Harbor five years ago last Saturday morning it became our obvious destiny and our instant privilege to gird on our armor for the battle for human freedom. Truly had Canning's prophecy about invoking the New World to redress the grievances of the Old come true.

This giant of the Western World, which is ours, hammered out at his mighty forges an invincible armor which, encasing a vast spiritual strength, struck down the forces built for human enslavement.

Never was victory more complete, never more justified. The misled peoples of Germany and Japan were not granted even the dignity of an armistice. Their case was decided in this Court of Last Resort by unconditional surrender. And now the World faces a new and better era.

Questions still perplex us both in the domestic and World fields. These will be solved. In the former by the inherent justice, fairness and common sense of the American people; in the latter by a calm recollection that the Russian people, who but lately emerged from medievalism have, as has been so often demonstrated in history, swung their pendulum in its first movements too far in the opposite direction but who did, let us not forget, establish a state dedicated to the welfare of their common people. When experience has taught them confidence they will launch their ship of state on that tide which leads on to true democracy.

Yes; it has been a great privilege to have lived in and been a part of the great movement. It remains to build upon the foundations which have already been laid, the more perfect edifice of human society which is already taking visible form.

Lewis Retreats

When John L. Lewis called off the coal strike last Saturday afternoon by the simple and effective expedient of telling the men to go back to work, he was motivated by something much more real and urgent than his proclaimed desire to enable the United States Supreme Court a calm and lieuresly review of his contempt of court case.

He was painfully aware of the rising hurricane of public indignation abroad in the land against his coal miners, but more particularly against himself personally. He knows better than most men that the ultimate font of authority in this country is the great court of public opinion, and he knew in this instance what the decision of this court already was. He had no relish for the verdict which was being uttered.

When people see their homes cold, their places of employment closed for lack of power and their transportation facilities bogged down, they are going to do something, and quickly. Mr. Lewis may have feared they might give the negation to his own off repeated boast that "you can't dig coal with bayonets", and proceed to do that very thing. He was obviously afraid that long before the Supreme Court could act, even moving in its best tempo, something would break loose.

The people were mad through and through. Never has a labor leader stood in worse odor with them. The country has been bedeviled with strikes until the people are furious. The sympathetic expressions from the leaders of the other great labor unions were largely routine statements to exemplify labor solidarity, but the members of these same unions could not long be lashed to a loyalty which brought to them only cold homes, closed schools for their children and unemployment at their own shops.

Lewis did himself and his miners' union a timely service by sounding a retreat at the moment he did. This labor Sampson had a narrow escape from the responsibility for pulling down the whole temple of unionism in America, a result which would in truth have been a tragedy for the whole country. The situation he was beckoning would lead only to the destruction of unionism and its supplanting with a dictatorship not unlike that which exists in Russia and lately in Germany, where the American guaranteed right of organization is not tolerated at all.

Much credit should be given President Truman for his insistence against any compromise between labor unionism and Government sovereignty.

This issue, now momentarily settled, has little to do with the right or wrong of the miners' side. This question can now be settled in an orderly and just manner, without the imminent threat of the destruction of the whole economic process by which we elect to live, even to the overturning of our form of Government.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

M. Bingay and we have a lot of things in common, (age and salary aren't two of them however.) Bing used up three whole columns within the past two weeks, writing about his new "Hearing Aid". He sez people are "kind" about it. They don't make with jokes and, if anything, are curious and merely sympathetic about it.

Wish our editor would let us get away with just ONE whole column about our new lorgnette. Yes, we said lorgnette! Having the kind of eyes that see everything so far away as Downtown Detroit, we can't see anything right in front of us. Our best beau, tired of seeing us haul out our horn-rimmed jobs 45 times an evening in order to see the nose on his face, finally broke into his piggy bank and bought us the cutest little pair of plastic lorgnettes we've ever seen. We think we look like the Dowager Duchess herself, as we peer haughtily through our new device. BUT, unlike Mrs. B's experience... people are not sympathetic. Some even have the temerity to laugh and once we overheard a 'teen-ager say to a companion, "Gee, get a load of that!"

Our eye problem reminds us of a joke we read when we were 10 years old. A farm girl who was very farsighted, didn't want her beau to know she had any trouble with her eyes. Just before she knew he was about to call one summer evening, she stuck a pin in a tree about 70 yards away from the front porch. Later, as they sat together on the porch, she brought the conversation around to peoples' ability to see. She bragged about her own fine eyesight and said: "For example, I can see a pin sticking out of that tree over yonder." Just as she expected, he doubted her. So she said, confidently: "All right, let's walk down there and I'll prove it." She marched on a little ahead of him and on the way fell over the cow. And that's about all of this column we shall be allowed to use on lorgnettes.

Received a letter from someone who probably hasn't any Christmas spirit, censuring us for ridiculing Emily Post's book on etiquette. So sorry, miss... you go ahead and take her book seriously if you want to. Us... we KNOW how we like to eat our asparagus. And now, if we may dwell upon Miss Post again, in a kindly manner, we are reminded of an incident that took place at a small dinner party we attended recently.

Miss Post sez: If one of your guests makes a "Fox Pas", you do not do likewise to put him at ease. You merely pass it off lightly by lighting a Murad or some such thing. However, our host on this occasion must have been listening to that old wives' tale about re-enacting the embarrassed guest's action.

Dessert plates were passed with doily and fingerbowl resting on top, and most of the guests removed both doily and fingerbowl immediately in anticipation of better things to come. One gent who was busy talking, failed to remove his until the waitress reached him with the dessert. In his haste he removed the finger bowl and nonchalantly dropped the ice cream on the doily, covering the whole thing with chocolate sauce.

No one noticed it until suddenly, coming to the last spoonful, he scooped up doily and all. In his horrible embarrassment, instead of letting not-so-well-enough-alone, he dropped the whole mess into the fingerbowl. As it happened, the doilies were made of very fine organza, heavily beaded around the edges in a floral design. They were never made to get wet and had to be dry-cleaned after using. Much to the horror of the hostess, her husband, trying to put the guest at ease, picked up HIS doily, dropped it into the fingerbowl, and said: "Think nothing of it Bill. These probably needed a bath anyway." Result: two ruined doilies and a near divorce.

Just heard a weird tale about Father Divine. Some years ago, one of his disciples ordered a special body Dusenberg car as a present for the Little Black Father. The back seat had to be wide enough for four people... to hold his secretaries who were of equal rank and could not sit in front of one another. A smaller "throne-like" seat just in front of this was built for Father Divine, who apparently ranks by himself. The job cost approximately $16,000. Nice little gift from a disciple!

We know a man who has the theory that dogs bite people because they (the dogs) are bored. Sounds reasonable to us. We've had the same feeling often, only Miss Post doesn't approve of biting. We've decided some enterprising family might start a "Dog-Biting" School. They bore the dogs, then rent them to people who want their neighbors bitten. Great Dances for large neighbors, pekingese for small neighbors, and so on. This a nice "out" for the dogs while we poor humans continue to bore and fore-bore.

Blow us down if we didn't see our own little Annie Sullivan of Oak Street staring at us from an Altman ad in the last New Yorker. We've followed the cute little Annie's career since she posed professionally as a wee tot (she is now an old lady of 17), and we know you-all will be happy to see her on the big time.

Life may begin at 40... but try to convince the insurance companies that it does!

Hands Off Spain

There is more than catches the eye in the announcement by Senator Connally that the United States would not agree to severing diplomatic relations with Franco Spain, even though the whole Assembly of the United Nations recommended it.

This expression could have been greatly amplified. It means that we do not intend to play the hand of Communist Russia to the extent of banishing from our contact a country whose greatest offending was that it saw fit to maintain friendly relations with countries with whom we were lately at war and which was bitterly opposed while it was in process of coming into power by that same country which now demands its ostracism.

Spain, under Franco or anybody else, is in no position to be a menace to us as an individual nation or to the peace of the world as a whole, if the other countries of the world have the good sense not to get embroiled with one another over her internal affairs. The feud between the Communists and the Catholic Church had not a little to do with the unfolding of events in Spain.

The communists of so-called Republican Spain murdered Catholic priests and Nuns by the score in the early days of the Spanish civil war. There is much in the acts and attitude of the Franco Government that is not to our liking but there is nothing, present or prospective, in our Spanish relations which would warrant us in trying to make her an Ishmael among the nations just when we are striving mightily to create a world of sweetness and light for the Hottentots and Head hunters.

The Spanish people have not developed that genius for democracy which we have come to expect as a matter of course among the English speaking peoples, but she has made great contributions to the culture and arts of the world.

Any interference by us in the affairs of Spain would be not only unjust and unwarranted but it would work against all efforts we are now making towards cultivating good neighborliness and general friendship with the millions of persons in the lower half of the Western Hemisphere who speak her tongue and pursue her culture.

Talley Rant

by Helen Talley

Now that the HOLIDAYS are near let's talk about DRINKING. What's more fun than a few drinks with a few friends—or a lot of drinks with a lot of friends, if I'm urged. AMERICANS have always "SHOWN A TENDENCY" one way or another, so we are told. We brag too much or we laugh too much, or sometimes we even make too much money and that's a very serious drawback in circles which don't "SHOW A TENDENCY," to go and do likewise.

Our fourth serious "TENDENCY" is a beauty and they are not telling us anything new. We drink too much. DR. FOSTER KENNEDY OF BELLEVUE HOSPITAL says so. He says 2 quarts or slightly over should be the daily ration—it's enough for anybody. I must say that I simply can't get two quarts of the stuff down in a day. Throw in the night and I might make a creditable showing. I'm only a beginner, though; many of my friends make three quarts a hobby. Dr. KENNEDY says, however, that two is the ideal amount; more than that can cause convulsions, and headaches at the very least. Said Dr. KENNEDY, "The American habit of guzzling water, water, water, day and night can easily be fatal—two quarts are enough for anybody."

Nobody is ever satisfied, fortunately. HOLLYWOOD is mad at us because they say whenever their darlings come EAST to show us the GUMS, the DENTURES, the BREASTWORKS and the BODIES, we aren't properly careful of them. We let COMMON PEOPLE put GRIMY PAWS on them—we don't have enough policemen at the OPENINGS to carry them over the heads of THE HERD. Those gowns and furs and jewels some of the BABES wear are often lent to them by studio and jeweler, to show New York what's what—and don't get careless TOOTS or we'll break your neck with the contract. The GOONS can stamp on your arches, but one SEQUIN out of line when you turn that gown in and we will remodel your nose!

After the OPENING OF THE RAZOR'S EDGE—a new high in sensational FIRST NIGHTS—CHOLLY KNICKERBOCKER, New York society editor, came out with a terrific blast against HOLLYWOOD MANNERS. He said he saw no reason why ladies and gentlemen of New York society, who came as invited guests to HOLLYWOOD openings, should be pushed off the pavement by policemen and movie agents intent on seeing that some HOLLYWOOD CUTIE had a wide, uncluttered, spotlighted aisle from her car to the door, to make with the four T-TEETH, THOSE THINGS AND TUMMY. Some of New York's BEST have them too.

The next day at 21 it seemed to be an era of SWEETNESS and LIGHT—HOLLYWOOD cuddled right down at tables almost in the laps of NEW YORK NAMES. Nobody threw any pianos and didn't see any FEELTLY LOOKS except the ones that NATURE had bestowed. ADOLPHE MENJOU and VEREE TEASDALE were there, RAYMOND GUION, JOHN CARRADINE and his very enigmatic wife, BASIL RATHBONE and OUIDA. ANNA-BELLA was present too. In her new play, "NO EXIT" ANNA-BELLA plays a LESBIAN. It's an importation from FRANCE and if that's the way the lease works we might better close the books and forget the whole thing.

In INTELLECTUAL circles we have the interesting news that MRS. RUSTIN McINTOSH has accepted the DEANSHIP of BARNARD COLLEGE. MRS. McINTOSH has been headmistress of BREARLEY SCHOOL for seventeen years. For nine of those years I might be termed a once-a-year visiting mother to the BREARLEY SCHOOL so I can be excused, I think, for a slight familiarity. I wrote that I was glad to hear she had finally made college!

Scholastically, the BREARLEY SCHOOL in NEW YORK is one of the tops in the country. A girl with the BREARLEY BRAND can just about name her college and make it. The girls study hard. They also write poetry. It seems. The following is a little thing out of the waste basket: Ashes to ashes Dust to dust, If you don't like my figure Take your hand off my shoulder.

Donald Adamski Hurt In Tumble at School

The Trombley School phoned the Park police on Friday morning, Dec. 6, to say there was a boy at the school who had injured his head severely by a fall.

Patrolman Del Place took Donald Adamski, of 1501 Hawthorne, to Three Mile and Mack where he was transferred to a Woods police car and taken to his home.

"Just a Cold"

By FRED M. KOPF, R.F.H.

Many people suffering from "just a cold" insist upon going to work, as usual, thereby spreading cold germs among their fellow workers, in addition to adding an extra hazard to their own health.

There is no such thing as "just a cold." Every cold, however slight, is serious. That extra exposure, that extra fatigue, may be just the straw that will change a cold into pneumonia.

Get your doctor's advice as to how to proceed when you find that you have a cold. He can save you from the debilitating effects of this apparently simple malady.

Procure all medication from a trusted druggist.

Carl Ramroths Plan Holiday Open House

Celebration to Mark First Homecoming in 12 Years of Daughter and Son-in-Law, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds

Invitations have been issued to some 50 people in the Pointe as well as Detroit for an open house on Dec. 26 at the Carl Ramroth home on McMillan road. The celebration will mark the first homecoming in 12 years of the Ramroth's son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds, of Hays, Kansas.

Aside from members of the family and many old friends, guests will include members of Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds' wedding party which gathered at the Fox and Hounds Inn in Bloomfield Hills following the Lloyd's wedding ceremony 12 years ago. Assisting Mrs. Ramroth will be

Mrs. A. S. Grundy, and Mrs. Edward Coughlin will also greet the guests.

Dr. Reynolds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds, of Akron, Ohio will also come to the Pointe for the party.

Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds, with their two children, Jeffrey and Lois Ann, will be attending the surgeons' convention in Cleveland earlier this month and will arrive in the Pointe on Dec. 21, to stay until after Christmas.

In addition to the traditional Christmas tree and Christmas greens, there will be Richmond roses in vases on the table with the punch bowl.

On Christmas day the Ramroth's are planning an informal Christmas dinner for members of the family.

Children to Hear Christmas Opera

Young people throughout the Detroit area are being offered a golden opportunity to attend a series of musical programs beginning on Saturday afternoon, December 1, when the Junior League of Detroit, in cooperation with Music Hall, will present the Humperdinck version of the traditional Christmas opera, "Hansel and Gretel."

This will be the first of a series of three programs, the other two being young peoples' concerts played by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and conducted by Mr. Walter Poole on Saturday mornings, January 4 and 18. All three events will take place at Music Hall.

The Junior League Committee consists of Mrs. Lewis Robinson, Mrs. John Garlinghouse, Mrs. William Ledyard, Mrs. George Fink, Mrs. Alexander Weiner, Mrs. Daniel Goodenough, Mrs. Dexter Ferry, Mrs. Morley Morgana, Mrs. Henry Kohring, Mrs. James Remick, Mrs. Harry Mack, Mrs. W. Frederick Schrieber, Mrs. Wendall Goddard, Mrs. Theodore K. Buttrick Jr., Mrs. Hal Smith Jr., Mrs. Nelson Holland, Mrs. Hugh Chalmers, Mrs. Hunter Williams, Mrs. Washburne Wright, and Mrs. Donayd Wilson.

Parties Planned For Brides-Elect

Parties for the brides-elect are making it seem like one, gay holiday from Thanksgiving right through to the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Macauley were hosts last Sunday in their Lake Shore road home at cocktails to fete bride-elect Mary McClure, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy McClure of the Indian Village, and her fiancé, John Randolph Stearns.

Mary and John will be married January 4 in Jefferson avenue Presbyterian Church.

The bride-elect has asked Mrs. Otto Pongracz to be her matron of honor while Mary and Aileen Davidson will be maids of honor. Bridesmaids will include Mrs. Rowland Hall of Green Rapids, Mrs. Robert Leach of Pittsburgh and Marjorie Upham of Baltimore, and Barbara Simonds.

Little Robin Veeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Veeder of Kenilworth, Ill., will be flower girl.

Mr. Stearns has asked his brother, G. Radford Stearns, to be his best man.

Nursing Society Enjoys Luncheon

A number of prominent Pointe women combined a worthwhile day of sewing with a pleasant luncheon and get-together on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at Mrs. W. Bruce Howard's home on E. Jefferson.

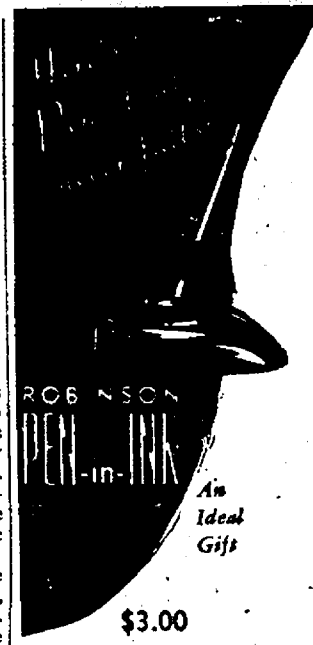

The group met in the morning to sew for the District Nursing Society and had luncheon later in the day. At the prettily appointed luncheon table Mrs. Ralph Lane poured tea, and Mrs. Rufus Clark, coffee.

Among the women present were Mrs. Philip Worcester, Mrs. Henry L. Newman, Mrs. Armin Darmstadter, Mrs. Ralph Trix, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, Mrs. George Staples, Mrs. Muir Duffield, Mrs. Russell Dexter, Mrs. Pillsbury Wells, Mrs. Donald VanZile, Mrs. Alexander Blain, Mrs. Theodore Hodges, Mrs. Henry Beyster, Mrs. Ernest Brier, Miss Gail Smith, Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell, Mrs. Clarkston Wormer, Mrs. Prewitt Semmes and Mrs. Harry Cupper, president.

FIELD FIRE EPIDEMIC
Farmers were plagued with an epidemic of field fires during the weekend, just prior to Monday's rain, which put an end to the menace.

Kid Bits

By Mary Prevo

By MARY PREVO

Already under way, Grosse Pointe High School's winter sports season promises to be closely interwoven with the coming holiday social activities. On the heels of hay rides, bridge parties and informal gatherings, comes skating parties, sleigh rides and formal, which soon are to be followed by teas, the senior prom and all the festivities of graduation.

In the Washington road home of JEAN KIMBRELL, several folks gathered to discuss the preceding basketball game Friday. Some chose to play bridge or gin rummy, while others danced down in the recreation room. Later in the evening there was a light supper. On the guest list were Shila McComb, Barbara Hart, Harriet Prevo, Joy Williams, Mary Luft, Sandy Malcomson, Allan Tyre, Fred Curto, Don Broadbridge, Earl Brabb, Doug Long and Bruce O'Neil.

BARBARA and HARRIET GOODRICH had the same idea of entertaining after the game. Their party was in honor of MARY ELLEN O'BEAY of Pontiac, who spent the week-end with them in their home on Lincoln. The girls made a merry time of it Friday—with games and singing. Phyllis Hannah, Dolores Anschuetz, Lois Moeller, Myrna Riddering, Peggy McCarten, Janet Zurschmiede, Carolyn Smith and Janet Gregory were there. Others were Katy Nebel, Marian Ortol, Betsy Arnold, Helen Maiden, Mary Hilner and May Schultz.

Hot dogs, do-nuts and cokes were consumed by another party at MARTHA FAIRLESS' Friday. Those playing bridge, ping pong and gossiping were Jeanie Webb, Gladys Osterman, Pat Hammond, Carroll Grylls, Marilyn Walters, Jean Dowzer, Meg MacKenzie, Norma Neeb, Gail Wright, Nancy Georgie, Meeky VanZanen and Janie Lundgren.

SONJA HENIE's spectacular performance captivated four of the Pointe's most prominent junior socialites Friday, viz. Fay Pankow, Roland Welch, Ellen Bery and Dick Dawson. A snack at the Hickory Log Barbecue topped off the evening.

Excitement filled the BAUMAN home on Berkshire road Friday! Something seemed to be going on all the time when MERRY and JANET HOBSEN invited Ginny Grasse, Sheila McGrae, Jean Dowzer, Nancy Georgie, Pat Perone, Janet Johnstone and Polly Wilton to come for a smorgasbord supper before the Grosse Pointe-Pontiac basketball game.

The girls returned to Merry's house for cokes and chatter after the game.

Six couples stopped in at PHIL DROLL'S Friday for an after the movie cokes. Cynthia Wade was Phil's date for the evening. Jean Wright was with Dick Kuhn, Janie Kuhlman with Bill Hamilton. Sue Wheelock was there with Gus Davis, Mary MacDonald with John Wood and Betsy Waldbott was with Howard Kay.

The main event Saturday was the high school S. A. dance—the TOYLAND FROLIC. As if by magic, the Pierce gym was transformed into a childhood's joyland. There was a huge jack-in-the-box, a train, a rocking horse, raggedy Ann and raggedy Andy—everything to make this town a cloud of ecstasy. Among the happy lads and lassies there were seen—Jeanie Webb and Chubs Lawler, Mary Murray and Bob Wallace, Meeky VanZanen and Bob Bolo, Ginny Grasse and Buster Knope, Merry Bauman and Barry Monroe, Doris Diesing and Leroy Johnson, Sheila McGrae and Jim Swift, Carroll Grylls and Vince Schoeck, Jane Fitzgerald and Don Wallace, Barb Orphal and Fritz Bloy, Ann Candler and Gary Langseth, Phyllis McRae and Dave Thompson, Pat Hammond and Bill Jooj, Barbara Bauman and Dan Burke, Pat Martin and Ted Laitner, Peggy Maiden and Hank Bader, Joan Schmidt and Dick Phillips, Mary Lou Straith and Tom Bassett, Heana Lindh and Ed Schaub. The independent males were Tom Anton, Mike Bigley, John Cobane, Lloyd Murray and Bruce Kirchner.

Before Tuxis Sunday, JANET JOHNSTONE served a supper to several of her best friends. Sheila McGrae, Jeanie Webb, Janet Hobson, Merry Bauman, Nancy Georgie, Marcy Wetherbee, Ginny Grasse, Polly Wilton and Pat Perone were there.

Purdue University Club To Have Christmas Party

Botsford Inn will be the scene of the Women of Purdue University Club's annual Christmas Party the night of December 14. The club will entertain the members' husbands and friends at a dinner at 6:45 p.m., which will be followed by old-fashioned and modern dancing, and cards.

Mrs. T. D. Anderson, 3808 Kendall road, is chairman of the party. She is assisted by Mrs. A. C. Buson, 15046 Mettetal road, and Mrs. F. W. Peppier, 16987 Glastonbury road.

Anyone interested in the University is cordially invited to attend. Reservations may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Anderson at TOWNSEND 9-5168 by Thursday, December 12.

POLICE SEEK CALLER
Don Lecohier of 1317 Somerset, reported that when his wife answered the doorbell at his home at 10:30 Monday night she found a rough-looking man about 35, who asked if they had an automobile for sale. She told him no. He then said he was looking for a man and, alarmed, she quickly shut the door in his face. The police thought seriously enough of the matter to put the report on the radio with instructions to find the party and investigate.

ODD FACT
In Britain it is still technically illegal to eat meat on Wednesday, or to dine on mince pie at Christmas.

Latin-American Conditions Described to Rotary Club

Lawrence E. Goods, executive director of the Detroit Latin American Council, was the guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club meeting on December 9. This was Mr. Goods' second appearance at the club, speaking both times on our Latin American neighbors.

He spent the last seven years preceding 1944 in South America, residing for varying lengths of time in the Argentine, Uruguay, Chile, Bolivia and Peru.

He said at the outset of his talk that all Latin Americans are sensitive about being referred to as mere South Americans, or as Latin Americans. They prize their individual nationality as strongly as any other people and are in fact strong nationalists.

It is difficult, he said, to deal with these people as residents of practicing democracies. Democracy in government, as we live it here, is unknown in South America. The history of the continent is almost an unbroken record of dictatorships.

Mr. Goods had little sympathy with permitting this wide divergence in democratic practices to interfere in our normal trade relations with these people. There is a much broader difference between them than with corresponding divisions of the English speaking countries, ranging all the way from conditions in Bolivia, where eighty-five per cent of the people are Indians and all illiterate, to Argentine, where the population is 98 per cent white and of pure European blood.

Peron, the new president of the Argentine, follows practices which would not be tolerated in a working democracy but nevertheless he was getting things done for his country. The situation in Bolivia was deplorable where the great mass lived in ignorance and wretchedness. The country was dominated by only three great families who exploited the masses outrageously.

Due to the limit of his time, Mr. Goods was unable to do more than tell of the general situation there now. He has promised at a later date to dwell more in detail on the outlook for American trade with the countries below us and give his own forecast of the ultimate development of United States and Latin American trade.

The Detroit Council was established at the suggestion of the U. S. Department of Commerce, but is supported wholly by Detroit businessmen. Mr. Goods' duties are largely in the capacity of a liaison man between the various Latin American consular offices in the Detroit area and business establishments of this region having business in South America or in Mexico or Central America.

Colonists' Daughters To Hold Christmas Tea

The Daughters of the American Colonists will hold a Christmas Tea on Tuesday, December 17, in the home of Mrs. John Francis Glein on Lincoln road. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Harold R. Smith. The beautiful silver necklace and bracelet, made and donated by Mrs. Klein, will be awarded. Proceeds from tickets will go to the Hoyt-Henshaw-Stevens Traveling Library for sick children. Donations of new or used children's books will also be accepted.

MOTOR CATCHES FIRE
The motor in the oil burner in the home of Dr. Carbone of 333 McKinley road, caught fire early in the morning of December 11. Farms firemen extinguished the blaze. Damage was estimated at about $50.

The outstanding event of the week was the Senior Ring Day and breakfast which took place on Sunday morning. Very impressive decorations met the eyes of all the seniors as they were ushered into the banquet hall. The hostessing sophomores served a delicious breakfast, after which remembrance pictures were snapped.

Present were: Nora Allard, Theresa Luffy, Beatrice Marchand, Rose Marie Cook, Phyllis Rapp, Joan Weidman, Ralph Schneider, Al Campenhaut, Carolyn Englehardt, Ellen Boulit, Thelma Piche, Marion Rabaut, Pat Van Tiem, Joan Betzing, Joyce Alef, Josephine Prizola, Sally Nacy, Joanne Murphy, Virginia Miklavich, Henrietta Sutton, Mary Sparr, Sally Curran and Dolores Berges, who were all on hand for the huge affair.

Numbered among the weekend parties was DAN O'CONNOR'S gathering on Friday night. All his friends arrived at his Ridgemont road home to listen to the newest additions to his record collection and also to get in a little ping-pong. Those who gathered round the victrola included Myron Denney, Jerry Moons, Anna Marie Tamm, Bill Gouin, Jean Gray, Wally Liebold and Joan Beaupre.

Once again flocks of people were seen clamoring into the school gym for the weekly YOUTH CLUB DANCE. Numbered among the crowds were Dona Klein, John Poppelreuter, Pierre Belanger, Bill Huettelman, John Auckland, Marion McLaughlin, John Carpenter, Peg Labadie, Judy Athman, Joe Cavannah, Chris Weot and Rita Leithauer.

On Saturday night, JO MAN-NINO chose to entertain her friends at her abode on McKinley road. Jo provided quarters for a few hours of sleep after gossiping away until the early morning. The girls took in a movie at the "Punch" before tramping back to the Mannino "rec room" for refreshments. Those who joined in to make the party a big success were Nan Stahl, Do Do Backman, Joanne Athanson, Marylou Maurer and Paula Beaupre.

'Nother weekend get together was the card party on Saturday night. This session was given by BETTY ANN HUETTEMAN and took place at her Ridgemont home. Cope, candy and cookies were served to Jean Kulka, John Whyte, Joan Krehnbrink, and Joan Beaupre.

A banquet honoring all the football players occurred on Thursday evening at 7:30. The Pompeian Room at the Whittier Hotel was the trysting place for the Flyers. The boys were commended on their excellent playing throughout the season and then were treated to a tempting dinner. Some of the guests were John Freshman, Art Smith, George Heidt, Roy Huettelman, Pat Hamlin, Howie Meathe, Don Simpson, Bob McBride, John Hutton, Vince Oliver, Butch DeRocher, Phil VanHollerbeke, John Clarke, Jim Law, John Bingham, Stan Jursek, Mike Furgerson and Ted Vernier.

Some of the sophomore girls got together and dreamed up a final party to finish out the week-end. Everyone gathered at MARGARET CLARK'S home for the event. Sandwiches and cokes were passed around to Marg and Jim Law, Dot Hillebrand and Jerry Hollerbach, Marilyn Murer and Dick Hoskins, Joanne Schummer with Dick Marketter, Nancy Bergmann and Tim Carrigan and Pot Trombley and Harry Hammond. NEW GAS PIPE LINE APPROVED

Federal Power Commission Gives Permit to Build

A new natural gas pipe line will be built from Texas to Michigan which will make available to our customers in the Detroit District three times the amount of gas used during 1945.

The Federal Power Commission, after months of investigation, has issued a certificate granting Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company authority to construct the line.

When financing plans have been approved by the necessary regulatory authorities, construction will be rushed to completion as fast as materials can be procured.

When completed this line will give us a supply for all of our customers for a long time to come. In the meantime, our company has not depended alone on new pipe line construction to meet the present emergency. To take care of the peak days of this and next winter, we are spending more than $2,000,000 in enlarging our standby manufacturing plant and building a new liquid petroleum plant to aid in meeting our peak winter load, pending completion of the new pipe line.

This company will continue to do everything in its power to give the best possible service to the communities it serves at the lowest possible rates.

Engineers' Wives To Hear Concert

The Christmas meeting of the Society of Engineers' Wives will be a concert Dec. 11 given by the Student League of the Tuesday Musical in the Rackham Building. Mrs. Samuel M. Dean will introduce the chairman of the Student League, Mrs. W. J. Coulter who will direct the program. The "budding artists" who will participate are: Violet Toth, Joan Zapf, Dorothy Meyer, Beth Syme, Mary Lou Watkins, Janet La Framboise, Jean Burlin, and Florence Weintraub. The concert follows luncheon at 12:45 p. m. Members are asked to bring a pantry gift for the new community project at Lutheran Settlement House, 3985 Trumbull.

The next regular meeting of the S. E. W. will be in January and I will send an advance notice.

Mrs. Donald Mitchell Taken by Death at 62

Mrs. Donald Mitchell, Sr., of 180 Touraine road, died Saturday, December 7, at the age of 62. Funeral services were held Tuesday, December 10, at 2:30 p. m., in the Hamilton Funeral Home. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Girl Scout News

The traditional Christmas Tea, given every year on the first Thursday in December by members of the Grosse Pointe Council at Miller Hall, was attended by over 50 mothers of Girl Scouts and Council personnel. Mrs. Ralph Netting and Mrs. Karl Senf were responsible for the beautifully appointed tea table and the mantle decorations, all of which reminded everyone that Christmas was really just around the corner.

Miss Katherine Richards, head of Detroit Girl Scout staff, was introduced by Mrs. Sidney Morgan, president of Grosse Pointe Council. The subject of "Miss Richards' informal talk was "Recipe for Youth," and the point emphasized was that the secret of staying young is frequent association with youth—the sharing with them of their problems, their fun and their hobbies. This method is not only more enjoyable than constant visits to the beauty parlor, but is also much cheaper!

Our newly organized Senior Scouts are making the most of their Saturdays, acquiring a good background for the future development of their chosen projects.

Last Saturday 20 Mariners visited the Gregory Boat Works, and after a thorough tour of that establishment they went on to Belle Isle, where they were shown through the Coast Guard Station.

That same Saturday, 17 Wings, all dressed up in brand new Senior uniforms, arrived at the Detroit Airport, accompanied by their instructor, Miss Helen Pelto, a member of Club 99. The girls were shown through the station, and then went up into the observation tower. They even had an airplane ride—at least they "taxied" to the hangar in an American Airline Flagship, and that provided them with plenty of thrills.

All our Wing Scouts are looking forward to the meeting Thursday at the "Y," where all Detroit Wings will get together after school. A speaker from the Aero Club will talk to these budding fliers after they have shared their experience and talked about future plans over their nose-bag dinners.

Franklin Seaburn Fatally Stricken

The sudden death of B. Franklin W. Seaburn last Thursday morning, Dec. 5, as he was putting his little daughter in a taxicab in front of the J. L. Hudson store, was a profound shock to the many friends he has made in Grosse Pointe since coming here to live in 1940.

Mr. Seaburn had taken his daughter down town to see Santa Claus and all the Christmas things which delight the heart of little girls. He had had no previous warning of any physical ailment. He was 36.

Mr. Seaburn represented the Babcock and Wilcox Tube company in the Detroit area. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, the youngest an infant only six months old. Burial was in Beaver Falls, Pa. on Saturday.

The Rev. Andrew Rault of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian church delivered a beautiful prayer to his memory at the Rotary Club meeting on Monday. Mr. Seaburn was a member of the Service organization.

Santa Claus Wanders Too Far Off Course

A report coming into Park police headquarters that a man was soliciting funds at Lakepointe and Kercheval sent out officers who ran headon into Santa Claus. He told them in North Pole language he was asking for funds to help the Volunteers of America's Xmas fund.

He was equipped with credentials from the Detroit police department but had wandered a little too far to the east-northeast of his designated icecap. Set right on his bearings he was waived on his way with a kindly gesture.

St. Paul School Has Open House

Grade students of St. Paul School are having an Open House today, Thursday, December 12, for their parents and friends.

Conference hours, when the parents may talk with the advisors about their children's progress, have been set for 9 to 11 and 1 to 3.

Morning visitors are being welcomed from 7 to 8:30 p. m. and afternoon visitors from 3 to 5 p. m.

Yuletide Concert At High School

Choral students will once more lift their voices in the joyous holiday spirit to present their annual Christmas concert Wednesday evening, December 18, at 8:15 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe High school auditorium. Admission is free to the public.

Some 175 voices, including the choir and Girl's Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. John E. Finch, and the Brownell Chorus, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Woodell, will relate musical tales of that wonderful happening of long ago.

Nothing is impossible. It's just that some things are a little more difficult than others.

It's not enough to lend a hand unless you give your heart.

"Songs for Little Folks"

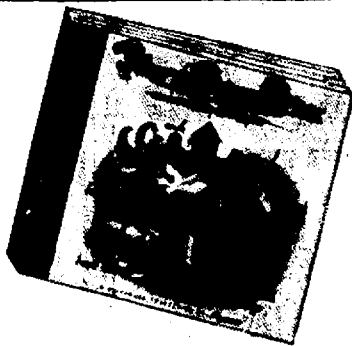

The Music of Famous Composers

Made unforgettable by new Lyrics that set small voices singing

Songs for little folks is a children's album with a purpose. Briefly, it presents a set of new lyrics which, while they captivate the impressionable young mind, unobtrusively serve a higher purpose in acquainting the child with the really great music that is their birthright. Fine music—by great composers.

Bible stories told in song and music the way your children will enjoy hearing them. This is without doubt the finest collection on the market and will make a splendid Christmas gift for your youngsters or children of friends or relatives.

Selling Goodfellows' Papers to Help Needy Children

MEMBERS OF THE GROSSE POINTE LIONS CLUB, who are again heading the annual sale of newspapers to swell the Goodfellows fund. They are being helped in the Pointe fire and police departments. The goal has been set at $5,000 and the money received will be used to bring Christmas cheer to the needy and carry on the regular welfare program throughout the year.

Hannan 'Y' Plans Christmas Party Churches

There is no question in the minds of the Hannan Y.M.C.A. members as to when the Christmas Season is to be ushered in, because on Friday, December 13, the 13th anniversary for the boys of the Protestant Children's Home, East Jefferson and Adair, will be held.

At 6 o'clock in the evening the round of festivities will commence. First of all the boys will sit down to a turkey dinner with all the extra trimmings dear to a boy's heart. After doing justice to a loaded table the youthful guests will adjourn to the main lobby where the program will be presented.

Carol singing, cartoon movies, a magician will have their turn and the big event of the evening, of course, will be the arrival of Santa Claus with personal gifts for each boy and a bag hamper of games, fruit, nuts and toys to take back for the long winter evenings ahead.

This project is sponsored entirely by the residence men of the Hannan "Y" through their own Residence Council with Andy Roman, Chairman, Dwight Johnson, in charge of finances, Gene Kampmann, Chairman of the Program Committee, and Russ Vandemello, heading the Arrangements Committee.

RECKLESS MARKSMAN

Mrs. F. Buerstelt, of 1033 Beaconsfield, reported to the police on Nov. 26 that as she was engaged in household work in her kitchen someone shot through the window with either a BB gun or a flint rifle narrowly missing her. The police are on the hunt for the reckless marksman.

Early Christmas Mailing Advised

Postmaster Roscoe B. Huston announces the receipt of the following order from the Postmaster General terminating the parcel post embargo:

"Effective January 1, 1947, 33433 dated December 3, 1946, published in the Postal Bulletin of December 5, 1946, placing a temporary limitation on the weight of first-class matter and on the weight and size of fourth-class matter effective 12:01 a. m. December 6th is terminated. Normal acceptance of mail including that for foreign mail currently in effect prior to order No. 33433 should be resumed at once."

Both domestic and foreign parcel post parcels may now be mailed under normal regulations. Everyone is urged to place parcels and greeting cards in the mails as soon as possible. Transportation facilities have been drastically curtailed and it will be some time before these services are restored to normal. A last minute rush to mail parcels will result in congestion in terminals and post offices.

"Blue Bird" Features Neighborhood Talent

Caryl Case and Joy Walker of Balfour road are two of the featured players in Detroit Civic Players production of Maurice Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird," which will be presented at the Masonic Temple, Thursday evening, Dec. 19, at 7:30.

Joy, cast as "Happiness" in "The Blue Bird," has been prominent in Detroit Civic Players productions for the past two years, having been featured in leading roles in "Gold in the Hills," "The Trouble With Women," "Ring Around Elizabeth," and "Geo. Washington Slept Here."

Caryl, who played "Katie" in "Geo. Washington Slept Here," is cast in the beautiful and appealing role of "The Joy of Maternal Love" in this ageless classic.

Both of these exquisitely written parts will be given the utmost by these two extremely talented young people.

New England Women Plan Christmas Party

The Christmas meeting of Detroit Colony, New England Women, will be held Wednesday, December 18, at the Ingleside Club. A luncheon at 12:30 o'clock will precede the business session at 1:30 o'clock, which the president, Mrs. Edward J. Savage, will conduct. Mrs. Charles B. Warner, Jr., will receive reservations until Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. B. Borette, chairman for the day, will add a Christmas story to the book-review by Mrs. Mary Miles, of the Main Library. A social hour, with Christmas carols and a gift exchange will conclude the program.

August Maekelberghe. (Tickets, fifty cents, are now available in the Church Office.)

Messiah Church To Give Pageant

An impressive and inspiring Christmas Pageant entitled, "Glory to God" will be presented by the young people of Messiah Church on Sunday, December 15, beginning at 8 p.m.

A chorus of mixed voices, under the direction of Miss Vera Loeber, with Mr. Theodore Albrecht at the organ, will provide the musical background. A speaking choir, led by Rev. M. L. Martin, will relate the Christmas story. The Manger Scene will be depicted in solemn manner, showing the coming of the shepherds and the Wise Men to worship the Christ-Child. Many of our beloved Christmas carols, including "Silent Night," "Joy to the World" and "Angels We Have Heard on High," will be sung by the chorus.

Following the pageant, an informal gathering in the church basement will be held, with the singing of Christmas carols by the assembly, and the serving of refreshments. Messiah Church is located at the southeast corner of Kercheval and Lakewood aves. Rev. A. H. A. Loeber, pastor.

A cordial invitation is extended to the people of the community to attend.

Southeastern Women's Club Holds Yule Tea

With Christmas greens adorning the parlors and tea tables, the Southeastern Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas Tea and Guest Day at 1:30 p.m. Monday, December 16, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Mrs. Jesse Cloud, program chairman, has planned the event in keeping with the yuletide spirit. Mrs. Frederick H. Olt, well known speaker, will talk on "A Philosophy for Daily Living." Mrs. Lyle Ling and her committee are in charge of the tea and decorations.

Mrs. Robert E. Harris, hostess chairman, and her committee will welcome the members and guests. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Ling.

40 M. P. H. Equal 60 Ft. Per Second

According to Leslie Chappel, manager of service at the Jefferson Lincoln and Mercury Co., the easiest way to estimate feet per second in terms of inches per hour is to multiply your speed by one and one-half. As a matter of accurate arithmetic, 20 miles per hour is 29.3 feet per second; 30 miles per hour is 44 feet per second; 40 miles per hour is 58.7 feet per second.

However, for very close approximation, multiply your speed by one and one-half and you'll be sufficiently accurate to realize that you will travel quite a distance in just one second when you start to step on the gas.

What does this mean? If you're driving fast, it means you must perceive what's far ahead of you as you drive because it is not always possible to stop your car in time of emergency even when your brakes are in perfect condition.

When you are approaching a blind intersection, a pedestrian, or other possible hazard, you are wise to form the habit of removing your foot from the accelerator and automatically putting it on the foot brake. It is not necessary to depress the brake pedal but "get set," as emergencies occur frequently when driving. Let your motor brake the car in this manner. Then you have the advantage of being able to act in a fraction of a second if it is necessary to apply the brake.

Brake your car as much and as frequently as you can with your motor before decelerating. The proper time to decelerate is just before the instant when the application of the brake would stall the engine. This practice is particularly good on slippery roads, where application of the brake and premature decelerating result in loss of traction and may easily result in skidding.

Thousands of accidents would never have happened if drivers had been "all set" to apply the brakes.

AND REMEMBER, in just one second at 40 miles per hour you will travel 60 feet down the road, so it is wise to have your brakes in perfect condition for winter driving. Have them checked now!

Detroit Symphony Concertmaster JOSEPH GINGOLD and solo cellist GEORGES MIQUELLE chat with Publicity Director, JENNIE CAMPBELL about their concerts this week, as they late lunch at the LONDON CHOP HOUSE.

Gratiot to Buy Park Fire Truck

Gratiot Township wants to buy the Park village's old fire truck and the Village has agreed to sell. When the matter was discussed at the Park council meeting Monday night, December 9, it was noted in the contract for sale which was submitted by the village attorney, that the delivery date for the truck was fixed at a date not later than August 15 next year.

Fire Commissioner Ulrich raised the question that the Park should not agree to sell the machine at a time which might antedate the receipt of the new truck. The other commissioners agreed with him and the sale was approved with the date for delivery left to such arrangements as the Park Fire Commissioner might see fit to make with the Gratiot officials.

Holiday Blooms On Belle Isle

Belle Isle Conservatory dons its Christmas garments to bring to the public its annual holiday display featuring poinsettias and other Christmas blooms starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, December 14, it was announced by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The queenly poinsettia, most gorgeous of Christmas flowers, will flash its vivid reds, delicate pinks, and rare white blooms against the rich green of its foliage. Other plants on display will include exotic orchids, cyclamen in red, white and salmon varieties, camellias, begonia, budlia and Christmas cherries.

The flowers can be seen from 9 a.m. until dark daily in the conservatory, and after dark the display may be viewed from the balcony of the adjoining aquarium until 9 p.m. All plants in the show were grown in the department's greenhouses. There is no charge.

Two Cars Tangle At Busy Corner

Jerome Keane of 415 Burns avenue made an unfortunate left turn off Kercheval onto Fisher street at the busy corner of Kercheval and Fisher. His Plymouth was hit by a Chevrolet driven by Frank Prygo, 2041 Anita, who was going east on Kercheval. Damage estimated at $75 was done to the left side of the Plymouth, and $200 worth of damage to the right front of the Chevrolet. Both Keane, aged 19, and Prygo, aged 24, were ticketed for reckless driving. Harriet Rockwell, 19, who was in the car driven by Keane, was treated at the Cottage Hospital for a cut on the left side of the head.

Three Families One Too Many

Pursuant to the action taken at the City Council meeting on December 2, Attorney Meder has notified the law firm of Muller and Berkley, representing the owner of the property at 380
Neff road, James Dron of 3904
Trumbull, Detroit, that it is in violation of the City's zoning ordinance to house more than two families in the same house at that location.

There are now three families quartered in the property and at one time there were four.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Bertha Gabriel

Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 11 at 2
p. m. in the A. H. Peters Funeral Home for Mrs. Bertha Gabriel of 2015 Brys drive, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Mrs. Gabriel died at the age of
73. She is survived by a daughter,
Mrs. Mina Lorenz, and one grandson. Burial was in the Gethsemane cemetery.

WANDERER RETURNED

Little Patsy Shaw, aged two, all dressed up in a blue bunny snow suit, wandered far from her home on University place on November 26. Mr. Eidt, of 765
University, spied her and reported the wanderer to the City police who got the little Miss back to the hearthstone in quick order.
She had wandered two blocks.

Julius Vermeulen Severely Injured

Julius Vermeulen, aged 75, of 1444 Bishop road, was critically injured at noon on Saturday, November 30, on Mack avenue between Bishop and Grayton.
Mr. Vermeulen had stepped from the curb between two parked cars directly in the line of travel of a car driven by Henry J. Allemon of 6120 Radnor.

He suffered a compound fracture of both legs and bruises and contusions.
He was removed to the Cadieux General Hospital at 4525
Cadieux.
