Safety Patrol Boys Rewarded for Service

A portion of the nearly 500 Pointe Safety Patrol boys who were taken to the Tigers-Senators baseball game at Briggs Stadium last week as a reward for the service they have rendered their school mates and the Pointe police in helping direct traffic during school hours. The Pointe police, aided by the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and Optimists clubs and the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association, cooperated in providing the outing for the youngsters. Tickets to the game were provided by Walter O. Briggs.

Picket Duty Blamed For Long Absence

Promises Spouse He'll Skip Serving Any More 120
Hour Shifts

Picket line duty sometimes entails long hours, at least so thought Mrs. T. Thomas, a colored maid who works at the J. R. Queeny home at 17431 Maumee.

On May 13 she reported to the City police that her husband, who sleeps in the McQueeney home, had left in the morning of May 9 to do picket duty at the Ford Rouge plant. Thomas works at the Ford plant. She wanted the police to locate him. A complete description was broadcast: 5' 5", 43 years, colored, driving a '47
Oldsmobile, etc.

Mr. Thomas Returns
The next day a modest entry on the police docket says that Mr. Thomas had returned home.
His wife says he has promised not to take on any more 120 hour shifts at picket duty.

Old Bell Tower Called Menace

The bell tower on the Farms
Municipal Building is in such bad shape that it is a public menace, Village Engineer Murray Smith told the village trustees Monday night.

Pieces of slate are falling off and endangering the firemen, who take their sties on benches under the trees while waiting for a call to action.

The public works committee was ordered to investigate and determine whether it will be best to repair the tower, or remove it entirely. It has not been used in years, though in the old days there was a curfew in the village and the bell pealed out its nightly call to quarters.

So perhaps in the near future, there will be a ceremony at which the ancient superstructure will be removed while President William F. Connolly recites "Cur-few Shall Not Ring Tonight."

Photographers and Model Beat Retreat from Scene

Mrs. Frank Goldie of 1143
Three Mile drive phoned the Park police in mid-afternoon on May 12 that there were callers at her house of whom she was suspicious. When the police arrived the "callers" had flown.

Mrs. Goldie's story was that a blue Plymouth car had pulled up in front of her house a half hour earlier and three young men and a highly ornamental blond about 19 years old got out.
They said they were from an advertising firm, (giving a name which could not later be verified in the directory), and wanted per-

Expect New Pointe Police Radio System to be Ready To Take Over by June 15th

Equipment Arriving and Allocation of Channel and License Expected Momentarily; Township Will Carry on Until Service is Completed

Frank Hartz of the Detroit Edison company, who has been acting as technical adviser to the Pointe Inter-Municipal Police Radio Service, stated on Saturday, May 7, that he believed the new system would be ready to take over by June 15.

Township Carries On
At the meeting held in the Park Municipal Building several weeks ago between the township officials and the representatives of the several Pointe communities, it was requested of the township that it proceed to carry on the present radio service until June 15. It was also requested that if the new service was not ready by that date, the township radio should continue to function and it, the township, would be compensated by proportionate payments from the several Pointe municipalities which were signed up for the new police radio. At that time all of the communities were signatory to the agreement except the Woods and that village has since joined up with the others.

The equipment which is being furnished by the Motorola Company has already begun to arrive and there is every assurance that it will all be on hand by the June 15 deadline.

The actual allocation of a channel and a license has not yet been made but this too is expected momentarily.

With the Woods in the Inter-Municipal Police Radio Service the last community which the township serves is withdrawn and the allocation of channel and license seems a mere formality.

The equipment was ordered from the Motorola company contingent on the Inter-Municipal system getting a channel and license.

There was considerable discussion of the new system at the Farms council meeting Monday night.

Operator Approved

A recommendation that Warren Carson of 451 Allard road be employed as radio engineer is charge of the transmitter in the Farms station was approved. His employment will be on a probation basis for the first 60 days.

Carson is 32 years old, has been a resident of the Farms for 26 years and is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High. He is an honorably discharged veteran of World War II and holds a radio telephone first class license and radio Class
A amateur license.

Has Great Experience
He has served as radio technician and operator at Station WRDR, the Grosse Pointe Township Station, from 1936 to '39 and chief radio operator there after his discharge from the armed forces. Prior to entering service he worked with Philco and General Motors Radar Project Engineering.

Burglars Visit Service Station
Houston Brothers Service Station at 335 Fisher road was entered and robbed sometime early Sunday morning or late Saturday night.

Officers Johnson and Allor, making their rounds at 12:45 a.m., May 15, found a panel in a rear door of the establishment kicked in. Investigating, they found the office safe hauled out onto the garage floor and its door broken open and evidently rifled.

The proprietors were notified and said that about $150 in cash had been taken, as well as a couple of antique guns, a watch and a few items of minor value.

They were congratulating themselves, however, that a much larger sum that had been received during the day for a load of tires which had been paid for in cash, had not been left in the safe but with the police for safe keeping over the week-end.

The police have several valuable leads and expect to make an arrest soon.

Donald Wallace of 742 Sunningdale drive, reported to the Farms police that his car had been stolen from Fisher road in front of the High School at about the same time the robbery of the service station is supposed to have occurred.

The car was later found parked in front of 459 Fisher road. The City police checked it for fingerprints to determine if there was any connection between the two thefts.

Vandals Still Picking On Park Church

32 Miniature Panes Broken; Estimate Repair Cost
At $300

Some time between 6 p.m. on Saturday night, May 14 and 9:08 the next morning, some miscreants broke 32 miniature panes in the stained glass window of the First Christian Reform church at Goethe and Maryland.

Will Cost $300
It will cost the church about $300 to replace the broken panes.

This little church has endured more than its share of desecration and injury from a gang of lawless youngsters in the neighborhood.

The cars of the members of the congregation have been pilaged and robbed on their own parking plot during church services.

Several youths in the 16-19 year old brackets have been picked up for these offenses from time to time, but obviously nothing effective has been done to curb the vandalism.

Park Patrolmen Kesteloot and Domine arrested two girls and a boy, all twelve years old, on May 17, who confessed to the breaking of the 32 panes of stained glass windows in the church. Their names are withheld on account of their youth.

Fire Protection To Be Improved

Grosse Pointe Farms has authorized an invitation for bids to move all fire hydrants along Lake Shore road from their present positions, east to new locations between the curb and sidewalk.

The hydrants are now located on an average of about 75 feet west of Lake Shore, some of them in the lawns of private residence.
This was caused by the relocation of Lake Shore road many years ago.

The recent fire at the Hugo Scherer residence put the spotlight on the bad location of these hydrants. It is impossible to get a pumper to them now, without ruining lawns and risking bogging down the apparatus. Without a booster connection, pressure is insufficient to effectively fight a fire.

While moving the hydrants to the street where pumps could be easily attached, it is also proposed to replace them with 6 inch pipe instead of the present four inch, which would also improve the fire protection situation.

Part of the same project would be to connect the Beverly road dead end main to Grosse Pointe boulevard, and to connect the Stephens road and Lothrop road mains.

It is estimated the entire project would cost about $4,500.

Advocate Division Of School District Into Two Sections

Authors of Open-Letter Believe That Residents of Areas Lacking Buildings Should Be the Ones to Provide Added Facilities

The division of Grosse Pointe's School District, known officially as Rural Agricultural School District No. 1, is advocated in an open letter delivered to the News this week. The writers of the letter believe that if new facilities are needed in the northern end of the present district, the residents of area should provide them themselves. The letter in full, follows:

May 18, 1949.
AN OPEN LETTER TO THE TAXPAYERS OF THE GROSSE POINTE SCHOOL DISTRICT.

While the recent election demonstrated a lack of confidence in the School Board, it also gave a clue to the solution of the school problem which confronts the community. In Trembly, Defer, Maire, Richard and Kerby the vote ran from three to one to as high as six to one against the proposal to float a bond issue and raise the taxes for new schools. In Vernier the proposal lost by a slight margin, but in Mason it carried by better than two to one.

What is the explanation for this vote—for the striking split along geographical lines?

The people of the Park, City and Farms have already paid for their schools. They resent being called upon to build schools, a second time—schools for children from homes yet to be built and whose children have not contributed a penny to the present schools.

The Shores and Woods, the fraction of Gratiot Township where the new homes are being built, have up to now made but a negligible contribution to the school system. And they naturally welcome a proposition which gives them schools at the expense of others. This inequity was so obvious that, of course, the proposition was defeated.

Naturally, the Woods, Shores, and Gratiot Township will need more schools as they continue to grow. A constructive solution must be found to build these schools. The election shows a solution which is workable and fair.

LET US SUBDIVIDE THE SCHOOL DISTRICT INTO TWO PARTS:

1) The Farms, City, and Park will be one School District;
2) The Shores, Woods, and the fraction of Gratiot Township will be the other School District.

In this division the school properties would be divided between the two new districts in proportion to the tax contributions each has made to the school system (with a cash adjustment if necessary).

Upon the adoption of this plan,
the Shores, Woods, and Gratiot Township will no longer be outvoted and they will be in a position to carry out their own school program at their own expense.

This is the plan we offer for the serious consideration of the citizens of the Grosse-Pointe Rural Agricultural School District
No. 1.

HEART ATTACK FATAL

Mrs. Cora Black, 62, a maid employed in the S. C. Merrill residence at 30 Elm court, suffered a fatal heart attack on the afternoon of May 16. She was pronounced dead by Dr. Herbert Allison.

Gate Crashers Rounded Up When Police Grab Their Car

Mrs. Benjamin Orr of 805 Notre Dame called up the Maumee police station at 11 o'clock Friday night May 13, and complained that a crowd of six boys, all from Detroit, were trying to crash a party she was giving for teen agers for her daughter.

When the police went around the boys had flown, but cruising in the neighborhood they saw an orphan car at the curb which looked as if it might be the means of transportation for six gate crashers from Detroit.
They started to drive the car

City Places Time Limit On Permits

Permission to Build Makes It Mandatory to Start Construction in 90 Days

The City of Grosse Pointe has placed a time limit within which building permits are effective, at 90 days.

Heretofore building permits have held good for a year, and it has happened many times that between the time of the issuing of the permit and the beginning of actual construction, changes of opinion or of plans or zoning ordinances have intervened which have led to confusion and misunderstandings.

No More Stalling
Hereafter a limit of 90 days will make it necessary for a builder or contractor to either start bona fide construction within that period, or have his permit reviewed by the municipal authorities.

No longer will it be possible for a builder to take out a permit and then bide his own convenience on starting construction.

Stolen Car Helps Find Stolen Car

There is an old saying about setting a thief to catch a thief.
The same idea worked by employing a stolen car to recover a stolen car which was taken from the garage of Commissioner James Mc-Millan of Grosse Pointe Park some time early Friday morning.

Recovered Near Home
The day before a Mrs. John Wilcox of 568 Emerson, Detroit, reported her car stolen. Later it was recovered near her home by the Detroit police with an overtime parking notice stuck on it by the Grosse Pointe Park Police.
Officer Van de Ginst had tagged it a few hours before it was recovered.

When the McMillan car was reported stolen from the same general neighborhood where the Detroit car had been ticketed, the Park police figured that some of the same crowd that had taken the one car out of Grosse Pointe, had probably taken the McMillan car for the return trip. Sergeant Anthony Walsh of the Park police did some scouting around in the same Detroit neighborhood.

Would Boost Its Capacity Three-Fold

New Portion Would Be Constructed From Present Building to Maumee

Bon Secours Hospital, located on Cadieux between Jefferson and Maumee, is about to enlarge its plant to give it about three times the present capacity. The new addition will extend down to Maumee and will be a three story and basement project.

Plans for the big addition have been filed with Building Inspector Beatty and the expectation is that construction will begin at a reasonably early date.

Will Inspect Plans

When the matter was discussed at the Council meeting on Monday evening, May 16, it was decided that the Council members and certain public officials should inspect the plans prior to the issuing of a building permit. The intent is that the inspection shall pass upon several matters beyond the mere technical examination by the Building Inspector.

The Fire Chief is to be called in to give his opinion on the safety of the property and inmates with respect to fire hazard. It may be necessary also for the fire department to supply itself with certain additional equipment such as ladders, etc.

To Consult Residents

The opinion of the neighboring residents in a strictly residential zone will also be weighed, with the additional traffic which a larger institution will attract. The matter of exits and entrances to the property will also have to be passed upon by the police.

There is no question about the legal permission for the larger institution to be located there.
The matters upon which the municipal authorities will pass judgment have to do only with the protection of the institution itself and the public in general.

Has Done Fine Job

The Bon Secours Hospital has served a most useful purpose in the Pointe Community for many years. Only a few years ago an additional $50,000 was raised to expand its equipment.

The Park and City send all of their emergency police and traffic accident cases to the hospital.
Many come to it from other Pointe communities also.

No patient is ever refused admittance if there is a spare niche in which he can be placed.

Park Has Donated

The Park for several years has made a donation of $600 a year in recognition of the fine service which it does for the village's public cases.

The hospital did not ask this and so far as known no other Pointe municipality makes such a voluntary contribution.

Until the Zoning Committee of council and other designated officials make their first examination of the plans Saturday morning, no detailed announcement of its arrangement and equipment will be made.

Drop in Prices Break for Farms

The Farms council Monday night awarded the contract for the construction of the new 12 inch Chalfonte avenue water main. Nelson Sharrow of Marine City will do the job for $38,094.

The award is contingent on his ability to furnish satisfactory bonds covering public liability, materials and labor and the completion of the work.

Thirteen bids were received and all of them reflected the recent drop in construction prices, which runs from 25-30 percent.

Village Engineer Smith's estimate for this work six months ago was $52,000.

PURSE STOLEN FROM CAR

Mrs. K. E. Fuller of 936 Trem-bly road reported to the police on May 12 that a purse containing a $10 bill and small change was stolen out of her car while it was parked briefly in her own driveway.

Theater Group to Present Program of One-Act Plays

Russel Werneken, president and founder of the Grosse Pointe Theater, announces that the group, which has concerned itself primarily with organizational matters since last summer's presentation of "Clarence," will perform a program of one-act plays at the Gabriel Richard School, McKinley Road near Kercheval, Thursday evening, May 26th at 8:30.

This is only the first of a series of workshop activities with which the theater will be busy during the coming months.

The three plays which will make up the evening's entertainment are "Indian Summer," directed by Karl J. Dumas; "Meet the Mrs.," directed by Miss Jean Pratt; and "Ringing in the Groom," directed by Mr. Werneken.

The cast of "Indian Summer," written by Betty Beecher Bryden, includes Miss Mina Gallup, Clark Wells, John S. Sweeney and Miss Fran Pease. The second play, "Meet the Mrs.," from the pen of the well-known playwright, Kenyon Nicholson, will be performed by Miss Isabelle Ward, Mitchell Justice and Miss Bettie Hyman. Those participating in "Ringing in the Groom," by A. A. O'Keefe, are Miss Cecil Gordon, Miss Alberta Jacob, William Elmer, Miss Mary Lou Stefani, Ralph Genter Jr., Miss Mimi Rohn, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Gail and Miss Undine Sturdevant.

Invitational tickets of admission to the plays are available at the office of the Grosse Pointe News or by telephoning Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall, publicity chairman, at Tuxedo 1-2706.

In recent months the Grosse Pointe Theater, now an incorporated organization, has become a member of ANTA, the American National Theater and Academy, and is represented on the Grosse Pointe Inter-Community Council. Its hope is to keep perpetually in production, in order to achieve more perfectly and more rapidly its ultimate goal: a self-supporting community theater, dedicated to the regular presentation of quality plays.

DAY CAMP
The Neighborhood Club Summer Day Camp will be held again this summer on the Neighborhood Club playground. The theme will be a World Cruise with the Camp divided into four different ships—the children being the crews.

Many different activities will be available to the youngsters including handicraft, tennis instruction, dancing, dramatics, baseball, sports, games, singing, and many special events.

The World Cruise starts June 27 and continues every Monday, Wednesday and Friday

Land Battle Won by City

Circuit Court Upholds Claim Of Municipality Property On Lakeland

The issue of more than three years' standing, involving the ownership of a triangular piece of property on the westerly side of the Lakeland right of way, at the lakefront has been settled at last, in favor of Grosse Pointe City, by a Circuit Court decision.

Fight Started in 1891
The direct issue was the City of Grosse Pointe vs. LeRoy Hooker. This issue stems as far back as 1891 and had its origin in the oblique lines of subdivisions on the lake front at that point.

The Lakeland avenue right of way is 60 feet of which 24 feet is paved. The oblique subdivision lines ran both northeast and southeast from the present Lakeland avenue right of way. These bevelled out to the seawall until there was about 60 additional feet of disputed frontage on either side of Lakeland at the water front.

May Be Appealed
Albert Meder, the City attorney, could not tell at the Council meeting on May 16 whether or not the circuit court decision would be appealed. If the opinion finally stands, Grosse Pointe City will be the owner of a total frontage on the lake of approximately 180 feet.

It is probable that this newly possessed property might be leased by the city to the abutting property owners. The triangular piece of property on the easterly side of Lakeland has been the unquestioned property of the City for many years, no claim being made to its use or enjoyment by abutting private property owners.

Claim Fortified
The fact that old sewer lines were shown and that this broad frontage on the lake had been used for upwards of sixty years for loading and discharging sand and ice and for other public purposes, helped to fortify the City's claim to the land as public property, which the Court recognized.

English Vicar To Preach Here

This coming Sunday at Christ Episcopal Church the congregation at the 11 o'clock service will have the privilege of hearing the Rev. Aneurin Bodycombe, Vicar of Kirkburn Parish, Yorkshire, England.

Rev. and Mrs. Bodycombe came to the United States early this month for a six weeks' visit with relatives in various parts of the country, and are at present in Grosse Pointe, guests of his brothers, Robert Bodycombe of Nottingham road and Abe Bodycombe of Lincoln road.

After the service the Rev. Mr. Bodycombe will baptize two children, Barbara Lynn, three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bodycombe of Neff road; and Kay, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Henderson, of Cleveland. Barbara Lynn is the grandchild of the Robert Bodycombes and Kay is their niece.

Rev. Bodycombe, a native of Wales, is devoted to his adopted country, England, but loves the United States. The parish of which he is vicar is an ancient one, having a history that goes back a thousand years. Proudly showing pictures of the church, with its litch-gate and its baptismal font carved by Saxon craftsmen of the tenth century, he reminds us that his was "a going parish five hundred and fifty years before America was known."

Michigan Stamp Club To Hold Junior Meeting

The Michigan Stamp Club, whose president is Hil F. Best of Nottingham road, Grosse Pointe, is sponsoring a Junior Philatelic Activities meeting at 3 p.m. on May 21 in the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs Building, Second boulevard at Hancock.

A committee headed by Albert C. Butzen will be on hand to instruct in watermarking, perforating, hinging, cataloging, and to answer all questions. There will be an exhibit, a quiz program, prizes or gifts for all, and a talk by President Best.

Hold Hearing On Pollution

The Pointe was represented at a meeting held in Lansing on May 11, by the State Stream Control Commission to discuss the problem of pollution of Lake St. Clair by the drainage from southern Macomb County. Pointe Health Commissioner Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Farms Engineer Murray Smith and Shores Superintendent Thomas Jeffries sat in on the conference.

Reports to Council
Mr. Smith reported to the Farms council at a meeting Monday night that the already involved picture was further complicated by a ruling of the Attorney General, stating that the Macomb County Sanitary District, as represented by the three man board and Drainage Commissioner Harper, had no legal standing and could not be officially recognized by the Commission.

However, the Stream Control Commission did hear a request of the Macomb officials that they be permitted to treat and discharge their own sewage into Lake St. Clair for eight months of the year from October to May, and to use the County interceptor sewer with Detroit treatment for the four months during the swimming season.

No Action Taken
No official action was taken on the request, possibly because of the Attorney General's ruling.

Mr. Smith said Dr. Albert E. Heustis, newly appointed State Commissioner of Health, promised to discuss with the Commission the immediate control of pollution for the coming swimming season.

Mr. Harper also told Mr. Smith Macomb County has been using the interceptor as much as possible since May 1 and would continue to make every effort to keep its sewage and drainage out of the lake during the swimming season.

The Farms started its annual analysis of water at the village beach on May 4 and with the exception of two days during which there were bad storms, the water has tested well below the limits for safe swimming, Mr. Smith told the council.

It is considered probable the same plan which was in effect last season, will be used again

Stolen Car

and, quickly found the McMillan car.

On Monday and Tuesday Detective Stanley Enders of the Park Police arrested three boys and requested the Detroit 5th Precinct to arrest two others, all under 16, who stole the McMillan car and also the other one which was ticketed near his car.

These boys confessed to stealing five automobiles, five motor bikes and to numerous purse snatchings in Grosse Pointe and Detroit. They are in Juvenile court, names not disclosed because of age.

City Revamping Insurance Setup

For some time the Council of Grosse Pointe City has been considering a general revamping of its insurance needs.

At the meeting on May 16, Mayor Ralph Netting, pursuant to a motion adopted by Council named a committee consisting of Councilmen Mack, Morgan and Miller to examine into the general insurance needs of the City and bring in a recommendation.

City Treasurer Osius was requested to sit in with this committee.

Want Old Land Issue Settled

The Farms council is studying a request from some residents of Provincial road for the settlement of a land title issue that dates back 19 years.

At that time it was expected that "E" street, which now exists in portions of the Woods, would become an important thoroughfare and provision was made for its extension through the Farms to hook into Kercheval avenue. For this purpose, it was contemplated that a rear portion of some of the Provincial road properties might have to be utilized for the jog to Kercheval. It is believed that the right of the village to condemn such portions is contained in some of the land titles.

The importance of the street has never materialized and it is now believed that it could never extend further west than Cook road, from where it could jog down to Kercheval at the northerly boundary of the village.

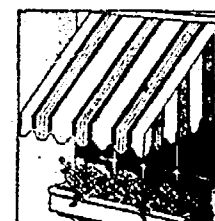

The request of the residents to have the issue settled is being investigated by Village President William F. Connolly.

The charter of the Hudson's Bay Company, "Gentleman Adventures" was issued by the British Crown in 1670.

"I keep thinking I see elephants!"

Dan: "You do, Ted. I'm gonna parade these elephants around town, carrying signs that read, 'LENNOX'—World's Largest Manufacturers and Engineers of Warm Air Heating Systems. Like it?"

Ted: "Sure—but how come?"

Dan: "Well, the Lennox name is famous in home heating. The Lennox Company is the most prominent in the business; they have over 5,000 experienced dealers like me. This news also shows why Lennox systems are so efficient: they're built to last."

Ted: "And the final words tell me there's lots of Lennox systems!"

Dan: "Dozens and dozens in sizes and types for gas, oil, coal! What do you think of my idea?"

Ted: "Super-colossal! And here's some more advice: sign me up for a Lennox now."

Two Girls Hurt In Farms Crash

Minor injuries were suffered by two passengers in an automobile accident at Moross road and Williams at 10:46 p.m. on May 15. Clayton Lombard, of 7614 Forestlawn, Detroit, was driving a 1948 Oldsmobile north on Moross. In front of 323 Moross a 1948 Studebaker being driven south on Moross by Russell Ryan, of 3867 Buckingham, Detroit, cut across the center line and hit the Lombard car head-on.

Shirley Van Cauwenbergh, 17, of 593 Meadowbrook, Detroit, and Grace Eger, 17, of 1387 Buckingham, both residents in the Ryan car, were slightly hurt. Shirley was cut under the chin and has bruises about her face. Grace received a small cut on her nose, according to the Farms police report.

Both cars had to be towed away and both drivers were given tickets to appear in traffic court.

Pointers to Get Degrees at MSC

A total of 21 Pointers are among the 1,932 Michigan State College students who have been announced for degrees at the end of the spring term. They will receive their diplomas at the college's 91st commencement exercises on June 5.

Summer School Will Start June 20 and Close Aug. 12

Registration Starts June 17; List of Courses Announced; Students Advised To Take Only Reasonable Amount of Work As Assignments Are Long

Summer school will begin on Monday, June 20, and close on August 12. Courses are available for those in the elementary grades, and junior and senior high students.

Providing enrollment warrants, the following courses will be offered:

Courses Offered
Typing I-IV (open to those who have completed the eight grade or above); 9B-12A English; French II and IV; Latin II-IV; Spanish, II-IV; 4B-6A mathematics; algebra I-IV; geometry I-III; trigonometry; instrumental music; 4B-6A reading; civics III; history I-IV; economics; and 4B-6A spelling.

Registration begins on Friday, June 17, in room 114 from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock. Saturday, June 18, students may enroll from 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock and on Monday, June 20, from 8 o'clock to 4. It is strongly urged that enrollments be made promptly on Saturday, rather than Monday. All enrollments will be made on a "first come, first serve" basis.

Pointers Get Preference
Preference in all enrollments will be given to residents of the Grosse Pointe area while non-residents will have a conditional acceptance until 3 o'clock on Monday, June 20.

For students living in the Grosse Pointe school district the fee per course is $7.00 and the non-resident fee is $14.00, which must be paid in full when registering.

Anyone withdrawing from summer school during his first week will be refunded 80 per cent of his fee and will receive 50 per cent of the fee if he withdraws the second week. No part of any fees will be returned to anyone making application for a refund after July 1, 1949.

Three Periods Per Day

The school day is from 8 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. It is divided into three periods of one and one half hours each.

Since the amount of work which must be covered in the eight week period is so great, and because the average summer school assignment is approximately three times the length of a regular school assignment, it is recommended that a student take only a reasonable amount of work, 13 hours at most. With special permission students may take 15 hours of work provided one course is either for "no credit" or to raise an already passing mark.

For further information contact Mr. W. R. Clemenson, Principal, Grosse Pointe High School, Telephone, TUxedo 5-2000.

Norman Harden Wins Big Honor

An interesting and impressive ceremony took place in St. Michael's church on Lochmoor boulevard last Sunday morning when Norman Harden, of 433 Maison road, G. P. Farms, of Boy Scout Troop No. 156 of Christ Episcopal Church, was given the "God and Country" award.

This award is granted for exceptional service in church work as a representative of the Boy Scouts.

Thus far only 12 such awards have been issued in the entire Detroit area and this is the first one in Grosse Pointe.

Norman was 16 years old last March and will receive his Eagle Scout rating, the highest award in Scouting, next month.

Youths Charged With Vandalism

A Lincoln convertible with six young men aboard pulled up to the Grosse Pointe garage at 10 o'clock in the evening on May 11 and ordered gas. They were all from Detroit and between 18 and 21 years old.

While waiting for the gas two of them went into the toilet where they pulled off a fine case of vandalism. The management called the police but when the officer arrived chose not to sign a formal complaint.

Under strong advice of the police the young men paid the bill of damages.

Reckless Drivers Draw Big Fines

Justice John Potter disposed of the following cases in Park police court of May 11.
Maxwell D. Sledd of 1203 Fairview, Detroit, for failure to stop at sign at Charlevoix on April 18, was fined $15.00.
David Henry Hengehold of 4559 Lillibridge, Detroit, for passing through red light at Pemberton and Jefferson on April 16, was fined $10.00.
Earnie Blanton of 475 Peterboro, Detroit, for reckless driving on Kercheval in front of the Pierce School on May 6, was fined $92.20.
Edwin Leroy Johnson of 609 Ashland, Detroit, for leaving scene of accident on April 15 at Audubon and Kercheval, was fined $15.00. He was also placed on probation for 30 days and ordered to make restitution for damage.
Arthur Pederson Holt of 229 Lakewood, Detroit, charged with speeding at Jefferson and Audubon on April 9, was fined $50.00.
Walter Vernon Moore of 3140 McClellan, Detroit, charged with speeding on Mack on April 1 failed to appear and forfeited a cash bond of $25.00.
Harold R. Burns of 3488 Earle, Mt. Clemens, for speeding on Kercheval on March 23, was fined $25.00.

Farms, Township Enter Agreement

A proposed agreement for the continuation of health service rendered to Grosse Pointe Farms by the Township was accepted at the village council meeting on May 16.
Since the Farms voted on March 14 to become a city, it was necessary for it to make a special arrangement for its health service, just as the City of Grosse Pointe does.
The budget for the Township Health Department is $27,718. The Farms will pay its pro rata share, based on its assessments as compared to the other four Pointes which split the bill.
It will not be known until the Farms budget is prepared, whether it will be necessary to increase its tax rate to take care of the health bill, which the residents formerly paid in their township taxes.
BAHA'IS TO MEET
The Baha'is of Grosse Pointe and their friends will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Munson on Sunday, May 22, to commemorate the anniversary of the Declaration of the Bab.

More Than 300 Horses Enter Hunt Club Show, June 16-19

More than 300 horses have been entered in the 38th Annual Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Horse Show, according to E. C. Putnam, president. The show scheduled at the club's spacious Grosse Pointe property on Cook road, June 16 to 19, has attracted top quality horses not only from middle-western states but from the east and south as well.
The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club show is the only metropolitan area horse show. It is the largest as well as the oldest in Michigan. This year's competition consists of 14 classes. The many silver trophies to be competed for have been supplemented by the Burns-Henry cup in the hunter division and the Jean Gilchrist Vance cup in the three-gaited saddle horse class. The show opening June 16 has both afternoon and evening performances.
R. Edmund Dowling is chairman of the show. Christopher Wadsworth of Kenmore, New York, has been appointed judge of the hunter and jumper classes. Forrest L. Ward, Charlottesville, Virginia, judge of the saddle horse classes. Additional appointments will be made later.
The Grosse Pointe Horse Show is licensed by the American Horse Show Association.

To Probe Joint Disposal Plan

The letter of May 5 from Manager Everett Lane of Grosse Pointe Park to the City of Grosse Pointe, suggesting at joint discussion by all the Pointe communities on the matter of garbage and waste disposal, was read at the council meeting on May 16.
In the absence of explicit information on the matter it was not discussed, but sympathy was expressed for an examination of the subject and City Clerk Norbert P. Neff and Robert Blondell, Superintendent of Highways were named a committee to represent the City at the meeting.

Skeptical of Saving

The Farms council met the same night. Village Engineer Murray Smith reported that in his opinion he could see no chance for a saving under Mr. Lane's plan, but was more than willing to go into the matter further.
The Farms hauls its garbage to a piggery which pays the village $50 per month and Mr. Smith argued that under the combined plan, there would be expense in operating the plant in addition to the haulage, and no revenue coming in for the garbage.

Have Own Property

He also ventured the opinion that it would be hard to find a location for a disposal plant closer than their present dump-

Suspicion Rests On Irate Driver

A driver who was given an overtime parking ticket on Kerby road near Mack avenue on May 15, is suspected of destroying village property.

Farms Police Officers Van Tiem and Kerbrat, who issued the ticket and made the driver move his car to the parking lot nearby, said the occupants of the car, four men, were mad and abusive.

When the officers returned to the scene some time later to check, they found a "No Parking" sign had been knocked down and badly bent.

Next Thursday Is Poppy Day

Next Thursday, May 26, will be annual Poppy Day and as in the past members of the Gen. R. A. and Col. F. M. Alger Post and Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Post 303 of the American Legion will be among those selling poppies in the Pointe area.

Proceeds from the sale of Buddy Poppies are devoted exclusively to the welfare needs of the veterans and their dependents. Every contribution will help make possible the kind of service for which there is no substitute.

Honor the dead by helping the living. Support the drive which enables the veterans to give sincere, personal service to those whose lives have been so painfully disrupted by the circumstances of war.

The Farms owns property on Quinn road, a round trip of 20 miles from the village limits, and it has been estimated this property will serve as a dumping pit for at least the next 10 to 15 years.

Church to Hold Planning Parley

The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold an all church planning conference on Sunday afternoon, May 22, from 3 till 5 p.m. in the Trinity Methodist Church in Roseville.

All the new and old officers of organizations in the church are to be present as well as at least one representative from each family in the church. Each organization in the church will be asked to formulate and discuss its objectives and plans for the coming year.

Davies Submits Health Report

Statistics released by the Department of Health of Grosse Pointe Township reveal that the Pointe enjoyed another very healthy month in April.

Chickenpox cases were the most prevalent, there being a total of 31, with 16 in the Park and 15 in the City. There were 14 cases of measles, 5 in the Park 1 in the City, 6 in the Farms and 2 in the Woods. The monthly report shows 8 cases of scarlet fever, 3 in the Park, 2 in the City, 1 in the Farms and 2 in the Woods.

The Woods had three cases of mumps and the City 1. There were three cases of tuberculosis reported, 2 in the City and 1 in the Park.

Dog bites accounted for 21 cases, with 7 in the Park, 4 in the City, 7 in the Farms, 2 in the Woods and 1 in the Shores.

The report was submitted by Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Health Commissioner.

Pierce Junior High School To Give Concert on May 25

On Wednesday evening, May 25, at 8 o'clock, the Music Department of Pierce Junior High School will present its tenth annual Spring Concert in the Pierce Auditorium. The choruses, under direction of Gwen Brockmiller, and the orchestra and the band, conducted by Herbert Nuechterlein, will participate. The accompanist for the choral numbers will be Don Paquette.

Shubert's "Rosamunde Overture," played by the orchestra, will be the curtain-raiser. The opening choral group features compositions of three masters, Handel's "Thanks Be to Thee," Tchaikovsky's "Pilgrim's Song," and Rubinstein's "Song of the Angels," based on his familiar "Kamenoi Ostrów." Frances Crowley is the soloist in the Rubinstein composition.

The string section of the orchestra will play tunes and dances from "Dioclesian" by the sixteenth century master Purcell.

Essex Scottish Ritual Sunday

With great pomp and circumstance, Canada's Essex Scottish Regiment of Windsor will pay its annual visit to St. Paul's Cathedral, Sunday, May 22.

This visit of good will was originated by Col. Allan Prince of Windsor, ably supported by Col. Berrien Eaton of Grosse Pointe, 20 years ago. It is believed that this visit is unique because it takes place no where else in the world to our knowledge.

The Essex Scottish Regiment Parade will start at 6 p.m. from the foot of Woodward avenue. It will proceed north on Woodward to the Soldiers and Sailors Monument on Campus Martius where the commanding officer, Lt. Col. Walter L. McGregor will place a wreath on the monument. At 6:40 p.m. the Regiment will pass the reviewing party at Grand Circus Park. Included in this group will be the Governor of Michigan and high military and civil personages.

At 7:10 p.m. the Regiment will reach St. Paul's Cathedral at Woodward and Hancock where the services will begin at 7:30 p.m. and terminate at 9:05.

Many residents of Grosse Pointe area have been honored with honorable membership in the Windsor Garrison Mess.

Gertrude Mills' Pupils To Be Heard in Recital

Gertrude Mills will present a group of pupils in a piano recital Wednesday, May 25, at 8 p.m. at Christ the King Lutheran Church, Mack at Lancaster, G.P. Woods.

Those participating are: Barbara Dehring, David Carruthers, Joy Tesch, Diana Tesch, Bruce VanOostenberg, Merry Helen Tillitson and Ann Lodewyk.

Mrs. Mills will be assisted by Marion H. Walker.

Spilled Gasoline Menace Studied

A lengthy discussion was held by the City Council at the meeting on May 18 over the subject of gas and oil explosions and fire hazards, brought before the meeting by City Clerk Neff.

Mr. Neff stated that several instances had happened within the last few months where gas and oil which has been spilled or allowed to drip into the sewers presented a potential explosion danger which should not be ignored.

Council was entirely in sympathy with the prohibition of this practice.

Some of the members believed that a strong note addressed to the gas and oil companies would result in effective instructions to their drivers which would minimize the danger. Much of the danger arose from carelessness on the driver's part in letting gas overflow in filling tanks at the service stations.

City Attorney Meder was strongly in favor of placing the responsibility squarely at the doorstep of the local retailers of gas and oil.

It is entirely feasible under existing law for their retail licenses to be revoked for specified periods for any violation of police regulations set up to safeguard the public safety.

Mr. Neff was directed to pursue his inquiry further and bring in a specific recommendation for action at a later meeting of the Council.

CAR CATCHES FIRE

A car, owned by Ronald L. Zanger of 420 Manistique, caught fire at Lake Shore and Moross roads at 9 p.m. on May 15. The blaze was extinguished by Farms firemen. Damage was estimated at $20.

Memorial Day at Alger House

It is appropriate that the first Memorial Day services after the acquisition of Alger House should be held at that spot. The little structure displaying the names of the participants in World War II which has latterly been at the site at the corner of Fisher and Kercheval, is to be moved and placed on the lakefront of the Alger House property, where it will temporarily remain until its final location is determined.

The names of the Grosse Pointe men who served and died in the war are to be permanently displayed in the beautiful memorial structure. This will indeed be the main theme around which all of the other uses and activities of the Memorial Center will revolve.

The services on Memorial Day will not be in any sense the formal dedication of the Memorial. This will await the final completion of the project and will be somewhat elaborate and formal in character. The Memorial Day observance will merely be transferred to this spot. Doubtless the attendance at the exercises will be larger than usual this year as many will wish to get an early preview of the Memorial.

Berlin Bait?

An American who rates so high in our foreign affairs decisions that his name cannot be mentioned, says that this country will stand adamant against any early withdrawal of our occupation forces from Germany. This doubtless stands for Britain and France as well.

The reason this question is coming to the front now is that persistent rumor has it that Russia will press for withdrawal of all troops from Germany at the meeting of the Foreign Ministers scheduled to meet at Paris on May 23. The agreement to such a meeting was the price we paid for the lifting of the Berlin blockade.

Russia raised the blockade because it did not pay her to enforce it any longer. The counter blockade which the western powers automatically applied had proved a two-edged sword that cut both ways.

If she could manipulate the apparent surrender on the blockade into an open field in all Germany for all of the great powers, herself included, the lifting of the Berlin blockade would be a Pyrrhic victory for the West.

With the military forces of the powers removed, the communists would swarm in more boldly than ever and be free to range over all Germany without the visible restraining influence of the power which has thus far kept them in at least reasonable restraint in the western zones which constitute two-thirds of all Germany. The American and British Zones must still remain the front line trench against the movement of communism to the west.

We do not know yet but what the Russians' concession on the blockade was a cheap bait to land more worthwhile game in the World's political fishpond.

With the lifting of the Berlin blockade on May 12 charges and counter charges were made that both parties to the agreement were, in several details, not acting in good faith.

It would seem, however that more dependence should be placed on the statement of General Lucius Clay that he believed both sides were acting in good faith than on the friction that has arisen from the inability of the contracting parties to anticipate every contingency in the preceding agreement.

All that the nation can do for the time being is to suspend judgment. If there is some Moskies skulduggery brewing we will find out soon. That bridge can be crossed when reached.

The National Prosperity

Six short months ago President Truman was calling loud and lustily for new taxation that would pour $4,000,000,000 additional revenue into the Government hopper. The ostensible reason for the new levies was to prevent inflation by syphoning off the earnings of the people via taxes so they couldn't go haywire in unnecessary spending.

Also Mr. Truman wanted to be assured of enough ready cash to go through with the European economic aid program and above all to assure continuing jobs for the vast army of civil servants that have been pressing around the public trough for the past 16 years and, incidentally, became the comfortable backlog of votes for the great political party of which he became the happy heir.

Now the talk of more taxes is as dead as the swan song of the Great Roc. Both are extinct. The country is in no mood to submit to higher taxes. It yearns for lower taxes.

With employment falling and the national income slipping backward no Alexander Hamilton is in sight to strike the rocks of our national resources and cause abundant revenue to gush forth. Nor is there need for that dramatic operation.

If the Government will fire every servant whose services are not needed; if it will limit its advances to Europe and furnish those peoples with a stronger incentive to help themselves; if it will quit subsidizing pressure groups who don't need it; if it will quit trying to amend the old laws of supply and demand and give individual thrift, ambition, intelligence and courage an even chance; if it will cease broadcasting the doctrine that the possession of wealth is a crime per se and begin to measure every public proposal by the yardstick of the national welfare, this country will soon be on the road towards an enduring general wellbeing instead of shivering and shaking about a threatening future that need never materialize.

The Chinese Mess

The manner of their going has about destroyed the last vestige of respect that lingered in this country for the so-called nationalist regime in China.

Even before the communists had appeared in Nanking the looting and pillage began. It wasn't limited either to the

(Von Goethe)

Things we must look into: A classified ad in one of the dailies, which reads, "All kinds of repairs; alterations and violations. Workmen insured."

As usual, the town is rampant with stories "fresh" from the Kentucky Derby. The one we like best concerns a friend of ours who occupied a seat in the box of some friends on the big day. Our hero, along with everyone else in the box, was "pondering" what he would bet on... not wanting to bet on Olympia at such short odds. Finally, he got into conversation with a man sitting behind him, whom he didn't know from a hole in the ground. The stranger allowed as how he'd like to bet on Olympia but for the little amount he could bet, it was hardly worth fighting his way to the betting windows. Our hero graciously and expansively suggested that HE would book the bet because (he figured) even if Olympia DID win, a two dollar bet wouldn't cost him much.

The little stranger was delighted... and added that as long as our friend was such a good sport about it... HE would book a bet for him! Fine, sez our friend, but he had no idea what horse he wanted to bet on. Okay, sez the stranger, you don't I just stick a pin through the folded racing form and wherever it lands, that's the horse you've got. That seemed reasonable enough to our hero, so the deed was done with dispatch. The pin landed (of course) on "Fonder"... much to the discouragement of our friend and much to the glee of the guy "booking" the bet of five dollars. You know how it ended. Moral: Never bet on the races unless you know all about the horses!!!

There is a new song plaguing the air waves, whose title we don't know but whose author we'd like to meet. The lyrics have to do with a guy reiterating that he'd have just a nickel than a rich man's dough; he'd rather live in a shanty than in a palace... and in short, he wouldn't be caught dead with any of the comforts of wealth because (he implies) the rich are never happy! Well, be that as it may, Mr. Songwriter will have to begin getting rid of HIS dough because the song is evidently a hit... bought (no doubt) by the people who live in shanties, not palaces. Ho-hum.

We are advertising the fact that we refuse to answer the phone for the next 25 weeks, on Thursday evenings from eight to eight-thirty o'clock (as they say in the better English novels). Why anyone, except our enemies, would call us at the time when Eisenhower's story of the Second World War is being televised, we wouldn't know. Never has television produced anything quite so thrilling... from the booming and sonorous voice of the narrator (March of Time style) to the pictures (many of which were confiscated from the enemy). All parents should make a point of having their off spring see this wonderful documentary account of the war... even if they have to take them to a barroom to see it.

The forthcoming garden tour reminds us of a discovery a friend of ours made some years ago, while touring various gardens in the Pointe and surrounding area. During a stroll through the palatial estate of a well-known local woman, our heroine saw a tree not far distant, bearing the most beautiful brilliant blue flowers she had ever seen. She was standing gazing at it with her mouth hanging open like a backwoods hick, when the hostess came up to her and asked what she thought of it. "I've never seen anything like that in my life before. What is it?" The gracious Grande Dame replied, "YOU could have one like that too. It is very simple." She then went on to explain that the tree itself was a completely dead one that the gardener feared they would have to cut down. However, they put their heads together (in a nice way) and concocted the idea of training heavenly blue morning glories to climb the trunk. In no time at all, the morning glories not only attached themselves to the trunk, but also wound themselves in and out of the branches. Result: a stately tree, richly blue-starred with blossoms... a luxurious and exotic touch to any garden. Why not try it on that dead stump?

One of our commentators the other night interrupted his broadcast to say he had just had a telephone message from a correspondent in Nanking who told him that the military commander in charge of Nanking defenses had erected a wooded fence through which a small truck could easily break, as his chief reliance to stop the communists and the reason he had done this was that he was a dealer in lumber and wanted to sell his wood to the Government before the Commies came and took it away from him.

This is typical of the spirit which seems to have animated these Chinese patriots all the way through. Sacrifice their country for their own personal profit! The Government of China whether it was under Emperor, War Lord, or so-called Republic has been saturated with graft and venality from time immemorial. We have been backing a morally lame horse.

So far as China itself goes there is small cause for regret whether communists or the Chinese variety of democrats are on top.

The only cause for regret here is that it gives encouragement to a cause which in its further advance bodes no good for us.

Harry and the Byrds

President Truman is greatly peeved with Senator Byrd of Virginia because that Nestor of Economy refuses to go along with him on his tax and spend program.

The Virginia Senator belongs to that old fashioned school of statesmen who still believe that the best way to avoid personal or national bankruptcy is to always spend a little less than we take in.

It's a patent that has not been improved upon in ten thousand years.

Mr. Truman intimates quite broadly that Senator Byrd should be purged from the party. The Senator, undismayed, says that only the people of Virginia can do that job and when the purging process sets in he will "be there."

It is a safe bet that the President will abandon any "purging" thoughts he may have recently entertained.

A much more astute politician than Mr. Truman once had similar ideas and abandoned them. The fast advancing years of the members of the Supreme Court, plus a few judicious and dignified maneuvers of the Chief Justice himself behind the scenes, spared Franklin S. Roosevelt any further effort on his "Purge hunt."

In the case of certain members of the Senate he encountered an open defiance that caused him to stop, look and listen.

There is a mighty host of Americans who are heart and soul with the Virginia apple grower or any other statesman who advocates a national balance by spending less rather than taxing more.

There is a mounting demand among the producing citizens to place an end to the magnificent spending that started 16 years ago.

Any politician who seriously challenges this sentiment is playing with dynamite, whether he be President or lesser light.

Letterbox

Dear Sir:

Congratulations are in order for your enlightened handling of the problem of the proposed $4,000,000 Grosse Pointe school district bond issue; and the result of the election was a vindication of the principle, "Give the people light, and they will find their own way."

However, you failed to point out one of the most flagrant tricks of one-sided propagandizing in in the entirely one-sided presentation of the propositions placed before the voters by the Board of Education; and it is a point that should be brought out and emphasized.

If I am correctly informed, more than 40 per cent of the children of school age now living in the area, and at least as large a percentage of the prospective school-age population, in the figures used by the board to indicate the alleged need for the proposed additional school facilities, are receiving, and will receive their education at the expense of their parents and others, and not at the expense of the taxpayers.

In other words, the discredited school board added the more than 40 per cent of parochial and private school pupils, whose parents must pay their taxes, too, while the youngsters must pay bus fare if they ride buses to school, in computing the alleged need for newer and fancier school facilities, including free bus service for the public school children, when the board knew that those youngsters never would be attending the public schools.

While the turn-out of only about 50 per cent of the persons eligible to vote on the bond issue and the proposed increase in taxes was disgracefully small, there is no question that it was the publicizing in the Grosse Pointe News of the main facts, with the one lamentable omission noted, that brought out a much larger vote than is usual.

When will the American people, even in an enlightened community as this, awakened to the tremendous importance of giving careful thought to and voting on every issue and every candidate presented for their suffrage? The right to vote is the one fundamental and inalienable right of citizenship; yet a majority of our flag-wavers and fervent singers of the National Anthem throw away that right in election after election, because a bridge or poker engagement or a ball game, or a prize fight interferes. If this nation goes where it seems to be heading, we can blame, not the Communists or the other anti-capital advocates of an all-devouring state like Walter Reuther, but the smug non-voting complainers about things as they are.

To Prolong Mental Health

By FRED M. KOPF, R. Ph.

As advancements in medical knowledge add more years to our lives, we face the problem of how to prepare for that longer period in our life when we shall have much leisure time.

Happiness in these later years will depend on how well equipped we are to enjoy them. Moderation in living, a keen interest in what is going on in the world, and personal interests and activities that keep us physically alert will bring satisfaction and make us agreeable people to live with.

Really good health is necessary too, and there is no better time to lay the foundation for it than right now. See your doctor for that complete examination.

Broken Fluorescent Lamps Can Cause Serious Injuries

Serious injury is possible by glass from a broken tube of a fluorescent lamp, if there is a cut from the glass, or if the powdered material, (phosphor), from the surface of the glass enters a wound or cut.

If a person is cut by a piece of glass from a fluorescent lamp, or if the material on the glass enters a wound or cut, chronic inflammation may result and months may be required for the wound to heal. There have been a number of instances in which the surgeon's knife had to be used.

This extreme toxicity is in the powder which is used to line the interior of the lamp, commonly containing a small percentage of a compound of the metal beryllium, which has recently been found to be very poisonous.

The dust of beryllium compounds with which the tubes are coated may be inhaled.

Cuts or scratches from the broken tubes may retain some of the beryllium compounds.

Mercury vapor (tubes contain some free mercury) may be inhaled.

Never discard lamps by placing them with rubbish or refuse where they can be carelessly handled or broken.

Never destroy them in incinerators.

Do not permit them to be placed where children may have access to them or can play with them. Dust and fumes from the materials of the lamp must be prevented by all possible means from getting into the human system either through a wound or through the nose or mouth.

The first thing to do if a lamp falls and breaks is to get out of the room and stay out until any dust produced shall have settled.

The broken glass should be swept up with a brush and pan. If possible, wet it down before sweeping it up. Then wash up the floor with a rag, and throw the rag away. (The Navy requires that gloves and full protection goggles be worn when disposing of tubes.)

Find Stolen Car Wrecked in Park

Answering a car accident call at 10:52 p.m. on May 11 the Park police found a car badly bashed in from striking a fire hydrant at Essex and Trombley. The driver of the car was missing.

On checking the ownership it was learned the car belonged to David Kimball of 12907 E. Jefferson, from whom it had been stolen. The car had to be towed to the rear of the municipal station.

Basement Floods Believed Beaten

Good news for Farms residents who have been bothered with flooded basements was heard at the village council meeting on May 16.

Village Engineer Murray M. Smith reported that after 19 months of working and waiting, one of the big new pumps at the Kerby road station has been turned on and tested.

For the first trial the engineers stored up water for eight hours, then pumped it out in six minutes. The new pump has a capacity of 75,000 gallons per minute. Although it has not been thoroughly tested and accepted, the contractor has agreed to let the village operate it in case of storms.

Mr. Smith said it should now be possible to keep water from backing up in the sewers due to insufficient pumping capacity. He added: "There should be no more flooded basements except possibly in the two areas where sewer relief was not provided as planned, due to the failure of passage of the bond issues, and in these localities we have made every provision possible including the throttling of all street storm water inlets, to conserve the capacity of the existing sewers for the use of the connected homes."

The new sewer station will not be completed and accepted for probably two more months, although one pump will be in use in the meantime.

Sixth Annual Aviation Week To be Observed June 3 to 12

Plans for Sixth Annual Michigan Aviation Week, June 3 to 12, are nearing completion, according to William A. Mara of Bendix Aviation Corporation, chairman of the statewide program.

With the selection of "Miss Michigan Aviation," which will be televised as it takes place, on the evening of May 27, the several-day program will get under way. The "Queen" will reign over all of the Detroit-area events.

"Constitution" Coming. June 1 will find the giant 180-passenger Lockheed "Constitution" landing at Grosse Ile Naval Air Base under sponsorship of the U. S. Navy. The big craft will be open to the public June 1 and 2 under direction of Capt. J. P. Walker.

At the same time, and including June 3, special exhibits will be staged at Detroit City Airport.

To Pick Winners. June 3 will also see the selection of the winner of the Aircraft Design contest, chairman of which is Prof. A. A. Locke of Wayne University, and also the winners of the Aviation Editorial Contest, the Aviation Photographic Contest and the Aviation Poster Contest.

June 4 will continue the exhibits at Detroit City Airport and there will be the Michigan Pilots Regatta Banquet in Lansing. The important regatta will be held the following day. Glider demonstrations will be held at Joy Airport and there will be a special Fly-over.

Flying Farmers. Michigan Flying Farmers will hold their meet, under chairmanship of Lee J. Talladay, at Lost Creek Airport, Luzerne, on Sunday, June 5, and on the same day the first Elimination Contest for Michigan Flying Championships will be held at Custer Airport under direction of William F. Demonstrations will be held at Detroit City Airport, followed, next day, by an Open House.

CYCLIST BITTEN. William Harring, aged 14, of 614 Rivard boulevard, was bitten on his left leg on May 15, by a dog owned by Robert Kerr of 294 Touraine road. Harring was riding his bicycle in front of 296 Touraine when the dog bit him.

SPEED OUT OF SIGHT. Farms police investigated a complaint that speeders were burning up Chalfonte road east of Moross on the afternoon of May 15. The speeders had sped into oblivion before the officers could get there.

Speeders Nabbed By Park Police

As Park Patrolmen A. Boone and Charles Slusser were cruising at 2:45 a. m. on May 13, they saw a shiny new Lincoln '49 convertible, whose speed was fast and whose course was too variable.

They drove it to the curb and arrested Alfred W. Carter, Jr. or 14709 Mayfield, Detroit.

The next morning before Justice John Potter he was released on a cash bond of $150 for a hearing on May 25.

Francis F. Gregorich of 16234 Turner, Detroit, was arrested on a similar charge on Jefferson avenue between Buckingham and Beasconsfield on May 15. He had a hearing next morning before Justice Potter where he posted $38. for a hearing on May 18 and his car was impounded.

Toss Cold Water On City Protest

The City's objections to a hike in water rates, announced by the Farms some months ago, fell on unsympathetic ears at the meeting of the village trustees Monday night, May 16.

Trustee Richard Maxon said he had received a call from Neil Blondell, assessor of the City, asking the village to reconsider the boost. The Farms furnishes the City's water through its pumping station on Lake Shore road.

It was pointed out that the raise in rates is the first in over 20 years. The Farms will still furnish water to the City cheaper than Detroit could.

One important factor in turning down the plea for a review of the rate boost is the fact that the Farms passed a water revenue bond ordinance back on April 6, establishing the new rates. This was necessary when the village applied for permission to sell bonds to finance the construction of the new Chalfonte water main.

The increase becomes effective July 1.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

If it was those April showers that sent an exceptionally nice group of guests to the Pointe . . . along with the May flowers . . . we're off to grateful for them . . .

At the Kenwood court home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Wishropp former Pointer Emery Hatch has arrived . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch now are local to Phoenix, Ariz. where Sir Emery has caused an elegant dude ranch . . . t-h-e favorite Western vacation spot for Pointers . . . along with a very swish crowd from all other parts of the country . . .

Mrs. H. is to arrive this Thursday . . . and will remain for about a week . . . when Emery will have finished his navy stint here . . . and they'll return to those wide open spaces . . .

Emery Hatches Visit

To fete their guest . . . the Wishropps entertained a small group at a buffet supper this past Sunday night . . .

And among those present were Johnny Schantz (having recently returned from Winter holiday in Florida, John and his charming mama now are leaving this week-end to motor East for a fortnight) . . .

And Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mackey of Indian Village . . . whose daughter, Bobby, was a little girl just five minutes ago . . . but who at the moment is fast attending proms and houseparties at Yale and Dartmouth . . .

And another very special guest was Mrs. Frank E. Breackman, Mrs. Wishropp's mother who besides having the most beautiful blue eyes and silvery hair at the Pointe . . . is one of our most ardent canasta players.

Cleveland Guests

The pace was a dizzy one at the Cloverly road home of Helene and Gordon Hill . . . where the fete week-end ones were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gause of Cleveland . . .

From Friday to Tuesday is rarely like that, Mr. and Mrs. G., even at this superb Pointe . . .

And aside to natives:

This was the social agenda:

Scarcely had the visitors arrived in the Pointe than Helene's mother, Mrs. Arthur L. Peters, was hostess in her Cloverly road home at a luncheon . . .

The William Heils of the Indian Village Manor gave a dinner party for the out of towners that evening . . .

On Saturday, Helene gave a bridge luncheon for Mrs. Gause at the Country Club . . . and in the evening they joined the funmakers at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, where bankers were cooking in the kitchen and serving at the buffet!

After golf on Sunday, the Hills invited their friends to a cocktail party and buffet supper to meet the Gauses . . .

Holidaying

This next Tuesday . . . the Hills will be leaving for White Sulphur Springs to spend just as frolicking a week . . .

Former Pointer Due

Come June . . . and another former Pointer is scheduled to pay us a visit . . .

When Mrs. Frederick Warren Richardson . . . arrives to visit her son-in-law and daughter . . . Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Mayer, Jr., of Oxford road . . .

We know with what anticipation Mrs. Richardson is looking forward to her Pointe visit . . . for although she and Mr. R. now make their home in Hollywood, Calif., she'll always be a dyed-in-the-wool native Detroit . . .

Detroit will be glad to see her . . . There'll be ever so many "do's" planned to honor her while she's here . . . and among them will be an afternoon tea which Miss Mayer is giving . . .

Mary Tiedeman Bride Of Donald Hoagland

Ceremony In Christ Church On St. Simon's Island, Ga., Followed By Reception At Sea Island Yacht Club; Many Pointers Attend

A reception at the Sea Island Yacht Club followed the 5 o'clock service on Saturday, at which Mary Tiedeman became the bride of Donald Wright Hoagland, son of Mrs. Michael Fast, of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Carston Tiedeman of Kenwood road are the parents of the bride.

Christ Church at Frederica, St. Simon's Island, Ga., was the scene of the wedding. Given in marriage by her father, Mary wore a floor length white organdy frock with short sleeves and a fitted bodice buttoning to the Bramley collar. Eyelet embroidery in petal motif was inserted on the bodice and skirt and trimmed the collar and cuffs of the bridal frock.

The small cap which held her shoulder length veil was also accented with eyelet embroidery. Lilies of the valley and ivy were atop her white faille prayerbook. Nelle Tiedeman, honor maid for her sister, wore a bouffant organdy frock of ciel blue, accented by white organdy piping. Her headpiece was of white taffeta and she carried a small old-fashioned bouquet of purple iris, lilies of the valley and ivy.

Attired identically like the maid of honor were the four bridesmaids: Sara Tiedeman, Mrs. William C. Finkenstein, who was Christine Caulkins before her April 30 wedding, Mrs. Arthur W. Viner, of Washington, and Mrs. Samuel E. Bowman, of Boise, Idaho.

The bridegroom, asked Allen T. Klotz, Jr., of New York, to be his best man. Ushers included George P. Caulkins, Jr., Stuart Pittman, of New York, Henry Healy, of Copper, Wyo., Tom Vogt, of Madison, Conn., David Acheson and Richard Drain, of Washington, and Augustus LeCompe Moore, of Clearfield, Pa. Mrs. Tiedeman chose a gown of pale yellow chiffon for her daughter's wedding, and wore a yellow straw hat with band of black velvet ribbon. Mrs. Fast selected an aquamarine gown with matching straw hat.

When the couple left on their fortnight's honeymoon, the new Mrs. Hoagland was wearing a cotton frock of navy and green polka dots, in keeping with the southern climate. Green, buttons and blue bows trimmed her small white straw chapeau, and she carried a navy gabardine topcoat.

Many Lovely Gardens To Be Open To Public on Coming Weekend

This weekend, May 21 and 22, marks the start of Detroit Garden Center's annual Garden Pilgrimages. The opening weekend is of particular interest to the Pointe as only gardens in this community and East Detroit will be shown, although 88 gardens in all will be open to the public throughout the Detroit area on four successive weekends.

Mrs. Meredith S. Randall is chairman of the Garden Pilgrimages, and Mrs. Allan Sheldon is District Chairman for Grosse Pointe and East Detroit.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the Garden Center, LO. 7-8580, or at the entrance to the gardens on the days of the tours.

Rules

1. Children under 14 admitted free if accompanied and supervised by parents.
2. Do not bring dogs, leashed or otherwise.
3. For your comfort, as well as safety and protection of lawns, wear low-heeled shoes.
4. Do not pick flowers or other material.
5. No homes will be open.
6. Park on city streets, not in driveways.
7. Gardens will be open from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. Hostesses will be on hand to answer questions.

Let them see you . . . at your BEST.

Joy Mackay to Wed Donald B. McCaskill

Ceremony To Be Held In Christ Church June 11, Followed By Reception At Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; Many Parties Planned

Joycelyn Ardin Mackay and Donald Barnhardt McCaskill have chosen June 11 for their 2:30 o'clock wedding in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. The Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman will read the nuptial vows.

Joy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finlay Mackay of Charles place. Donald's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. McCaskill, of Arlington, Va. The reception will be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Marjorie Moore, of Montreal, a former classmate of the bride-elect at McGill University, will attend as maid of honor. Elizabeth Alling, of Ann Arbor, and Beverly Stuart, of Montreal, who will become Mrs. Herbert Bryant on May 28, will be senior bridesmaids.

Four junior bridesmaids, ranging in age from 7 to 11, will be Helen and Jane Ecclestone, cousins of the bride-to-be, and Joan and Margaret McCaskill, young sisters of the prospective bridegroom.

Alan M. McCaskill will come from Princeton to be best man for his brother, John L. Mackay, J. Bryan Bell, of Washington, Edward M. Ballon, of Montreal, and J. Douglas Scythies, and Robert Hurlbut, both of Toronto, will escort wedding guests to their places.

Mrs. Franklin C. Robinson and Mrs. Alonzo Allen feted Joy on Saturday afternoon at a luncheon and linen shower at the Detroit Boat Club. Next Saturday, Mrs. George Vawter and Mrs. Harrison T. Watson will be joint hostesses at a luncheon and bar shower at the Country Club.

The Bo's home on Lewiston road will be the scene of a June 6 luncheon and miscellaneous shower, which Mrs. Frank H. Boos, Mrs. William Leach and Mrs. James J. Trudell, Jr. will give.

Mr. and Mrs. Liwyd Ecclestone,

Woods Church Group to Meet

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will conclude their spring activities with a May Day luncheon at the church Monday, May 23, at 1:15 o'clock.

The dedication will be presented by Mrs. John M. Easton, Jr. The musical portion of the program will be sung by Mrs. Carl W. Asmus, Mrs. William Gamble and Mrs. Earl J. Peters, accompanied by Mrs. Sidney Dorsey.

Mrs. Frederick H. Olet, member of Detroit Presbytery who has just returned from the Orient, will be the guest speaker. She has chosen for her subject "Empty Hearts in Japan and Korea."

Ticket sales for the luncheon are being handled by Mrs. John M. Easton, Jr., NI. 4336.

Members of the congregation and friends are cordially invited. A 5-year-old Berkeley, Calif., girl, put her tooth under her pillow, confident that the good fairies would leave a penny under it during the night. When she awakened, there was no penny. X-rays vindicated her faith, however. The penny was inside brother Michael, 4, who had awakened first.

Joan Gardner's Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gardner, of Lake Shore road and Washington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Gardner, to Alexander Britton Browne, Jr. The marriage ceremony will be performed on Aug. 27 at the Gardner's summer home in Watch Hill, R. I.

Joan was graduated from Miss Porter's school, Farmington, Conn., and attended Miss Houghton's Resident School in New York. A member of the Junior League of Washington and the Sigma Gamma Association of Detroit, she made her debut in Washington and Detroit in the 1946 spring season.

Her fiancé, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Britton Browne, of Washington, attended the Landon School in Washington and business school in Hartford, Conn.

Dorothy Byrne Exchanges Vows

Wearing a gown of traditional white satin, Dorothy Byrne became the bride of Thomas J. Zink at a morning ceremony in St. Ambrose Church on May 7. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Byrne of Berkshire road are the bride's parents. Mr. Zink is the son of the Peter J. Zinks of Military avenue.

The bridal gown was fashioned on princess lines, and Dorothy's fingertip veil fell from a satin crown trimmed in orange blossoms. Her flowers were white gladioli and lilies of the valley. Rita Byrne was her sister's maid of honor. Rosemary Zink, sister of the bridegroom, and Margaret Byrne were bridesmaids. The attendants wore aqua taffeta gowns and carried American Beauty roses.

James Watson was the best man. John Byrne, brother of the bride, and Ronnie Wilson ushered.

A noon breakfast was held at the Whitaker and an evening reception followed in the Byrne home.

When they return from their wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains, the couple will live on Van Dyke avenue.

Frank C. Willsons Visit Son at Kalamazoo College

Tom Willson, who starred on the tennis courts at Grosse Pointe High School before he was graduated in June 1948, is playing varsity tennis this season at Kalamazoo College.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Willson of Maison road, Tom's parents, went to Adrian, Mich., on Friday afternoon to watch his tennis match with Adrian College.

Princess Beatrice Chapter To Conduct Donation Party

The Princess Beatrice Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan, will hold a Donation Tea and Bake Sale at the home of Mrs. W. I. Irwin, 2130 Iroquois ave., on Tuesday May 24.

The committee is headed by Mrs. John Birch and Mrs. J. Kenner Bell. Music will be furnished by Mrs. John M. Petrock, violin; Mrs. Frank A. Liedich, cello, and Mrs. Harold W. Mohr will be at the piano.

The money raised will be used to support the chapter's many American charities, one of the most interesting being a school in Manson, Tennessee. Tea will be served from 2 until 6.

Pre-Prom Dinner Party Hosted by Dave Donnelly

Dave Donnelly was host at a dinner for 28 before the Grosse Pointe High School Junior Prom on Saturday night, May 14. Janet Zurschmiede was Dave's date.

Other guests included Bob Armstrong and Marge Winter, Roger Mueller and Char Smith, Bayard Johnson and Susie Martin, Spike Quirk and Jean Salmon, Wayne Petersen and Nancy Russell, Leroy Peplinski and Gayle Wright, and Howie Clark.

School Conducts May Day Party

The annual May Day festivities of Grosse Pointe Country Day School were presented on the front lawn of the school on Tuesday, May 17. Reigning in regal splendor was the May Day Queen, Jane Kuhlman. She was surrounded by her court attendants, Susan Wheelock, Betty Lou Givens, Sarah Weed, Mary Kate Worcester and Anne Schreiber.

Wearing organdy gowns of pastel shades, they helped accentuate their attractive queen, who was gowned in white tulle. Miss Kuhlman's train, trimmed with eyelet embroidery and scattered with blue bows, was capably managed by her Train Bearers, Philip Pittman and Bobby Wood. Junior attendants assisting the queen and her royal court were

Personal Shower Honors Mary Margaret Hughes

Bride-elect Mary Margaret Hughes was feted Thursday, May 12, at a personal shower given in the home of Mrs. Ray Dierckx of Beaconsfield road. Mrs. Jean Hutton and Mrs. Joseph Abbot were party co-hostesses.

Miss Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, of Detroit, will marry William Van Hulle on June 18 in St. Ambrose Church. The couple were students at the University of Detroit.

Mary Ann Busch Elected To National Honor Society. Mary Ann Busch was elected by the faculty of College of St. Mary of the Springs, Columbus, Ohio, to the National Honor and Activity Society of Catholic Women, Kappa Gamma Phi. Mr. DeGraeve is a junior in the College of Commerce and Finance.

Ann Lilley Married To Joseph R. Mason

Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt Officiates at Ceremony in Lakeland Avenue Home of Bride's Mother; Couple Honeymooning in South and Cuba

Ann Stover Lilley and Joseph Raymond Mason were united in marriage at a 7 o'clock ceremony Tuesday evening, May 10, in the Lakeland avenue home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lyman Robinson Lilley. White spring flowers banked the fireplace, before which Dr. Frank Fitt heard the exchange of vows.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wynn Mason, of Bloomfield Hills, are

Mr. Lilley's choice for her daughter's wedding and the small reception which followed. She wore brown orchids flecked with green.

Mrs. Mason selected a smoky gray gown and her flowers were pink spray orchids. When the couple set out on a three weeks' honeymoon to Florida and Cuba, the new Mrs. Mason was wearing a beige gabardine suit, matching straw hat and alligator accessories.

They will make their home in Birmingham upon their return from the South.

GPHS Nine Racks Up Pair of Wins

Allan Bryant Stars in Both Games at Bat and on Mound

Beats Royal Oak in 11-inning Battle Then Comes Back After Only Two Days of Rest and Subdues Fordson with Help of Sluggers

by John E. Sanford

Behind the strong right arm of hurler Allan Bryant, the Blue Devil nine racked up two important and well-earned victories over Fordson and Royal Oak last Tuesday and Friday. Bryant's iron man feat in the eleven inning Fordson battle was nothing less than sensational. Not only did he pitch the whole game but he personally had a hand in the scoring of both Devil runs, as the team won, 2-1.

In the eighth inning Bryant led off with a single after Fordson had gotten one run in their half of the frame. Bayard Johnson tied the score up after Bryant stole second and Green and Schoeck had fled out, by singling the run home.

Pay-off in 11th

The pay-off blow came in the eleventh inning with darkness settling and a partisan crowd of dads and sons waiting for the Dad's Club Banquet to get started. Bob Hafer singled after two outs, and promptly stole second, Bryant, with a Fordson error, then ended the game by beating out a hit to deep short while Hafer came home on Hales' wild throw to third.

The Fordson run came on Battistone's long home run over the outfielders' heads, in the top of the eighth inning. Just previous to that hit the Pointers pulled off a game-saving double play from Bryant to Schoeck.

Only Two Days' Rest

With only two days' rest Bryant again took the mound against the Acorns on Friday on the Royal Oak diamond. However, he coasted to an easy 9-5 triumph with the help of four two-run innings.

An error on Bill Winkler's grounder plus Vince Schoeck's timely single brought home the Devil's first run in the initial inning. In the second the Acorns came back on Henderson's single and a pair of fly balls.

After Royal Oak forged ahead by two runs in the fourth, the Pointers boys, by virtue of Vince Schoeck's second hit, a homerun with Winkler on base, tied it up again.

Errors Help Pointers

Hits by Burke, Donnelly and Bryant, mixed in with two Oak errors, added two more runs in the fifth. In the sixth, after Peterson walked and Burke singled, Bryant blasted a triple to score them both. Danny Burke's third straight hit, a double in the seventh, scored the final Devil tally, with Green and Schoeck crossing the plate on the blow.

In all, the Pointers collected nine blows off two Acorn pitchers as they notched their second straight win over Royal Oak. The win gave them an even record of three won and three lost in league play this season.

Meet Wyandotte Friday

On Friday the Devils take on Wyandotte on the local diamond.

Devils Lead B.C. League Net Parade

Tennis Team Takes Two More, Beating Wyandotte and Royal Oak

Everybody's out of step but Grosse Pointe Blue Devils in the 1949 Border Cities League tennis race. Coach Merlin Schultz's undefeated Blue Devil squad stayed in step when it extended its consecutive victory string to 26 by walling Royal Oak on the local courts May 10, and edged the Wyandotte Bears, 4-3, on the latter's home courts on May 12.

Favorites Fall

It was the Wyandotte match that created much commotion through the league especially at the downriver school. The Bears had come up to the Grosse Pointe match undefeated and with a better record as far as comparative scores over common opponents were concerned.

Wyandotte papers publicized current Bear team as the best in the history of the school, and that the Wyandotte team would enter the match top heavy favorite to snap the Grosse Pointe consecutive winning streak.

Should Clinch Title

It is true the Bears came close to snapping the Blue Devils' streak but the fact remains that Grosse Pointe notched the all important win that should partially clinch the B.C.L. tennis title for the Devils for the second year in succession. However, the Pointers can still be knocked off of their high perch because they must meet both Monroe and Wyandotte again in the second round of play.

Coach Schultz's boys have a definite advantage in the second round by meeting these two strong opponents on the Pointers home courts.

Closer To Trophy

If the Blue Devils can come through the second half of the schedule unscathed it will give Grosse Pointe a terrific boost in the race for the B. C. L. All-Sports Trophy.

At the present time the Blue Devils and Wyandotte are tied for first place in the race for the trophy with 62½ points each. The three spring sports, tennis, baseball and track will be the deciding factors.

The Pointers established an all time record, as far as the trophy was concerned, last year they won the bauble for the third time in a row. Now they are shooting for number four.

The reward of one duty is the power to fulfill another.

—George Eliot

Grosse Pointe Motors Sponsors Ball Team

This team, sponsored by the De Soto-Plymouth dealers, is active in the Detroit Baseball Federation this year. Barney Mussill, former pitcher of the Philadelphia Phillies and currently a Philadelphia scout, is the manager and coach of the team. The players include Sagert, right field; Trupiano, center field; Kilpatrick, pitcher; Graham, first base; Kendall, second base; Drake, pitcher; Knaggs, short stop; Bailey, left field; Vucelich, third base; Grgrich, catcher; Douglas, catcher. Mussill is at the left in the back row. Harry Mackay, manager of Grosse Pointe Motors, Inc., is in the center of the back row.

Underdog Track Team Shows Fine Spirit In Handing Defeat to Favored Fordson

By Fred Runnells

There is an old saying that has been kicking around the sports world for quite some time that "a team that won't be beat can't be beat."

That is the kind of a Grosse Pointe track team Coach Frank Banach took over to Dearborn last Friday afternoon, May 13, and sprang the upset of the season by dumping the Fordson Tractors, 55½ to 53½.

On paper the Blue Devils were figured to lose by at least 19 points if not more. The entire team knew they were decidedly the underdog and as they stepped off the bus at the Tractor field they took on a challenging attitude.

Break Two Records

Two track records were shattered during the last dual meet for the two squads. Christenson of Fordson turned in a blazing 4:36 for a new track mark in the mile run.

Grosse Pointe's three-quarter mile relay combination of Shaw, Jenkins, Schmidt and Edgar won this event in the record time of 2:37.9. It marked the third time this season this outfit has broken the record in this event.

Those fabulous Pierce twins, Hill and Bill, and little Jimmy Williams provided the spark that was needed to put the Pointers on the long end of the final score.

Pulls Surprise Move
In the first event Coach Banach pulled a surprise move when he inserted Hill Pierce in the 120 high hurdles against his brother Bill. This proved to be the prize strategic move of the meet. Bill had to hustle to beat his brother to the tape which he did by the narrowest of margins. It was the first time Hill had competed in this event and it was the one-two punch in the first event that made many a Fordson jaw drop in awe.

Jimmy Williams, the Blue Devils number one boy in the 100 and 220 dashes, took a licking in both events, finishing second behind Baxter, the best dash man in the League.

Has Last Laugh

Williams had the last laugh, however, when he showed his heels to Baxter in the anchor leg of the 880 relay, which was the event that clinched the meet for the Devils.

Bill Pierce and Baxter staged a knock-down, drag-out battle for top honors in the meet and finally were forced to share the limelight. Bill Pierce won the 120 high hurdles, 200 low hurdles and the pole vault while Baxter won the 100 and 200 dashes and the broad jump for Fordson.

Rookie Shows Spirit
Probably the best example of the spirit which made the Pointers confident was shown by rookie Reindel when he tripped on the last hurdle in the 200 low and made a complete somersault to recover and still finish third. He was barely in second place at the time of the tumble. The victory over Fordson gives the Pointers a clear cut hold on third place in the final Border Cities League standings, which is where they finished last year.

Praise from Coach

Coach Banach stated after the meet, "We may have had better teams in the past but never have I had a team like this one. They don't know when they are licked."

Top Notch Tennis to be Seen At High School this Weekend

State Regionals on Friday and Saturday to Be Augmented Saturday Afternoon by Exhibition Match by Professional Stars

More Schools Added

Two additional schools have been added to the C-D class tournament—Ann Arbor University High and St. Clair High School. This now brings DUS of Grosse Pointe, Pontiac St. Michael, Ypsilanti-Roosevelt, Ypsilanti-Lincoln, Ann Arbor University, and St. Clair High pitted against each other. While in Class A Grosse Pointe, Hamtramck, East Detroit, Port Huron and Mt. Clemens will compete.

Both Undefeated

Both Hamtramck and Grosse Pointe are undefeated in team play this year and Detroit University School has done well in Class C competition.

In addition to the tournament a clinic and exhibition match will be held on Saturday afternoon with the international stars Mary Hardwick and Charles Hare competing and showing the tactics and strategy of the game.

Students Invited

The schools in the surrounding vicinity have been invited to send both girls and boys to witness the exhibition, with more than 16 schools having been sent information concerning the clinic.

To Conduct Clinic

Hardwick and Hare will conduct a clinic at the Grosse Pointe High School tennis courts on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. Through the courtesy of Gray's Sport Shop and Wilson Sporting Goods Company, the afternoon will be highlighted with exhibition matches in Men's Doubles and Mixed Doubles.

Exhibition Matches

In the Men's Doubles, Hare, former British Davis Cup Player and now associated with Wilson Sporting Goods Company in Chicago, and Toby Hansen, tennis pro at the Country Club and former pro of Hot Springs, Virginia, will oppose William C. Ford, present Country Club Singles Champion, and William J. Croul, chairman of the Tennis Committee and former champion of the Country Club.

Mixed Doubles

Mary Hardwick and Mary Lou Beyer will participate in the Mixed Doubles. Miss Hardwick is a former British Wightman Cup player and has been a professional for many years. Mary Lou Beyer is now Ladies City Champion in singles and with Elaine Lewicki holds the State Doubles title.

Everyone is welcome to avail himself of the tennis clinic and to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to see some spectacular tennis.

Curto Honored At Notre Dame

Frederick J. Curto, of 912 Rivard boulevard, former student at Grosse Pointe High, was elected one of the four Junior Year Student Managers of Athletics at Notre Dame.

Winning such a post is quite an achievement in view of the fact that each fall only 30 freshmen are chosen from about 200 applicants. The group of 30 is made up of 11 sophomores selected from the preceding group of freshmen, four juniors elected from the group of 11 sophomores and one senior manager elected to that office from the four juniors of the past year.

Curto, having been successful in being elected one of the four juniors, will now have a chance to become the senior manager next year.

NANCY VOORHEES

'Round about 7 o'clock Friday night, May 6, several cars pulled away from G.P.H. loaded down with members of the Hi-Y Club. The destination for the boys was Mackinaw Island, with Mr. Lake and Chet Sampson in charge. Bayard Johnson, Sherb Brown, Tommy Auch, Fred Duemling, George Kypros, Doug Ramsey, Dave Connell, Jerry Jenkins, Bob King, Punky Brown, Allan Bryant, Bery Wickling, Bob Corless, Bob Stebbins, Bob Evans, Jim Goebel, Bill Whittingham, Bill Kamm, Hank Hubbard, Jim Stewart, Don McKinnon, spent the weekend enjoying the sights near the straits.

Picnics are the rage again, now that spring has come, and to begin with, NANCY WETHERBEE, with the assistance of her date, BUTCH EDGAR, entertained several couples at the cottage Saturday, May 7. 'Tis said that some went swimming, but the rest, including Margaret Guy, Dan Burke, Ginny Allor, Bob Ruck, Barb Rose, n Dick Jordan, Jeanne Orebough, n Bill Joyce, Jane Dalton, n Bill McCaulley, Barb James, n Bud Lang, and Sally Owen, n John Murphy, were just as happy playing baseball part of the day.

Out Rochester way spreading picnic baskets and blankets on Saturday, May 7, were Jeanne Dowzer, n Allan Brown, Bar Orphal, n Sherb Brown, Sally McNeft, n Barry Monroe, Barb Boothe, n Tommy Auch, and Marcia Boothe, n Bob Allen, and Sally Seymour, n Clark McPhail. Besides wading in the cool water, there was an exciting baseball game taking place.

At the same place on Sunday, several eleventh graders were seen picnicking and running up hill and down dale. This merry group included Jean Swan, n Larry Swartz, Barb Wescott, n Dan Manson, Nancy Russell, n Wayne Peterson, Bonnie Ritzell, n Kenny Rice, Sally Reynolds, n Art Deinzer, and Ginny Nellis, n Bruce Johnson.

Following the evening of plays Friday night, May 13, NANCY RAMSEY with the assistance of her date, BOB HOWE, invited several of her classmates over for cokes, popcorn, and some dancing. Sorting the platters for dancing were, Pat Savage, n Dallas Kitchen, Gail Ashton, n Phil Rahm, Donna Steenrod, n Dick Echo, Alice Robertson, n Neil Smith, Janet Holtz, n Don Corey, and Molly Murphy, n Hank Hubbard. NANCY's other guests included, Ellie Firzell, n Tom Swanson, Pat Lee, n Winnie Likert, Sue Sibbert, n Allan Berger, and Carol Fredericks, n Harvey Fisher.

Committee heads, who certainly did a grand job on the plays, included Alice Anne Sichter, who was in charge of makeup, Fred Leinemann who took charge of the sound effects and lights, and Bob Harbison and Don Striker, technical assistants. Directing each of the four plays were, Bob Bolo and Cal Purdy, Barb Boothe, Marianne Trombly, and Jeanne

Smith, Judy Richardson, n Carolyn Smith, and Madeline Hackman, and Dave Connel respectively.

Saturday night, May 14, climaxed the end of weeks of preparation for the JUNIOR PROM, which was held in the boys gym at G.P.H. that evening. Painted decorations depicting a New York skyline and gay advertisements brought out the "Tophatters" theme, for which Bob Coleman's orchestra provided the music. Dancers included, Vince Shoenk, n Judy Richardson, Ginny Grasse, n Dave Pethick, Joy Perry, n Howard Ramsey, Myrna Trode, n Jim Fenske, Susie Riggs, n Bob Evans, Marcia Boothe, n Bob Allen, Barb Boothe, n Frank Pallazola, Margo Gessler, n Bill Duffy, Spargo Farquhar, n Marlene Hutton, Tom Hoffman, n Sally MacDonald, Norma Neeb, n Tom Auch, Anne Candler, n Jimmy Williams, Dick Lord, n Bonnie Reitz. Still more seen around the refreshment stand included Cal Purdy, n Barb James, Ora Lou Harden, n Maurice Strong, Dick Ford, n Jan Hobson, Louise Degley, n "Corky" Bailey, Kathy Greig, n Paul Williams, Sheila MacRae, n Jim Hennig, Jeanie Rollings, n Don Osburne, Betsy Huehe, n Bob Stebbins, Kathy Droge, n Bill Jackson, Kirk Walsh, n Sally Owen, n Bill Anderson, n Irene Sarri, n Carol Kruse, n Harry Essling, Betty Myers, n Joe Frado, Sue Martin, n Bayard Johnson, Doris Deising, n Bill de Grau, Susie Johnson, n Bill Pierce, and Sally Andrus, n Bill Turill, Gloria Clyma, n Jay Cope, Ben Cain, n Bob King. Leading the grand march were the class officers and their dates, Howie Clark, n Diane Thompson, Kenny Rice, n Mary Mohr, and Jim Rodgers and Mary Hodges.

Before the Prom, Meeky Van Zanen served cocktails to her guests, and with the aid of her date, Dick Redmond, six couples played a couple of hands of bridge before taking off for the dance. Her guests included, Ardyth Fahl, n Tom de Gruse, Kathy Droge, n Bill Jackson, Joanie Rollings, n Don Osburne, Margi Walling, n John Sanford, Betsy Waldbott, n Jim Goebel, and Marilyn Walters, n Jerry Ewart.

MARY STOVER gave an early (in the morning, that is) party. The heart that is to be filled to the brim with holy joy must be held still.—Bowes.

after the dance. Receiving punch and sandwiches from Mary and her date BERT WICKING were Alice Savage, n Clarence O'Dell, Marti Watkins, n Jim Mast, Ellie Wetherbee, n Morris Chase.

The Parfum Pinkerton put his overcoat back on again this week, got out his mink rimmed spyglass and continued the round of dressing table visits to learn all about colognes and polishes and lip rouges for you. He discovered:

MRS. LEWIS F. BROWN... who has a cabinet of French perfums (all unopened 'cause she's a collector) usually sticks to Bellogia or Chanel No. 5...

MRS. REX QUEENEY... favors Patou's newest fragrance L'Heure Attendue... is having a brief "nail vacation" so appears sans polish... but her pedicure is in scarlet Slipper... and she wears Arden's Victory Red lip rouge...

MRS. BILL TERNES... another who prefers simply clear nail polish but who pedicures... her parium is Lanvin's Rumeur... and her lovely smile is surrounded by Victory Red lipstick...

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

NANA FORD... two year old dotter of the WALTER BUHL FORDS... made her first appearance at dancing school last week... danced her very first dance with MISS ANNIE WARD FOSTER... and it was for the late MADAME FOSTER that Nana's grandmother MRS. EDELL FORD led the very first May Party Grand March. All of which is history repeating itself in the cutest rosebud, dark eyed way possible. Nana also got her "ticket" to the May Party which takes place this Friday evening in Crystal Ballroom of Masonic Temple.

PILFERINGS

"Ye need nae cook but one egg for breakfast this morning," Sandy called to the maid, who knew by that sign her missus had passed to her reward during the night.

The flames shot from every window and a beautiful maiden came out on a ledge beyond reach of the ladders, attired in misty night wear. Bewildered she could only stare down at the firemen while they stared up at her. Then she made her way down the stairs safely.

The dusky colored doorman of a fine club in San Antonio stubbed his toe and fell down four stairs. "Great Scott!" the manager shouted, "Be careful, man. They'll think you're a member."

A trio of golf gags you're sure to hear several times before next winter sets in:

Caddies are not small kittens.

The Greens Committee does not pass on the freshness of the spinach.

The second week after the young man entered college, his father got a wire reading:

"Feather in my cap—elected president of my class."

Two weeks later came a second wire:

"Another feather in my cap—rushed for fraternity."

Then in a month:

"Still another feather in my cap—selected for the class play."

But in January, a brother at home got a wire of different import:

"Flunked everything; prepare father; have him send money to come home."

Back came this answer:

"Father prepared; better prepare yourself; Dad says stick all those feathers in your shoulders and fly home."

Pointer of Interest

RICKEY STEINHEISER OF MCKINLEY ROAD

By Kitty Carney

At the age of five, Frederick Steinheiser, Jr., or "Rickey" as he's better known, has bowling in his blood. He's as proud of his season's average of 34 and his 3½ pound bowling ball as an adult bowler, and rightly so. (The average adult's bowling ball weighs 16 pounds.)

Rickey started bowling last September in the Tot-n-Tot Bowling League at the Whittier for youngsters up to eight years old. The first week, explained Mrs. Steinheiser, who accompanied him, the tots were given bowling directions; after that, they were on their own. So well did Rickey take to the new sport that he received the perfect attendance trophy at the season's end in April.

Mothers Get Hoarse
Parents went with the tots each Saturday morning, to handle scoring for the two games. "You'd be surprised how exciting it gets," said Mrs. Steinheiser. "I was hoarse after the last two games, when Rickey got two spares."

A weekly average sheet records each child's total pins. Regulation bowling pins are used, and the tot average is kept in exactly the same way as an adult's. Rickey chalked up six spares and a strike during the season. His high double score was 119, which is mighty good bowling for a toddler.

Sanctioned by ABC

Since the tots league has been sanctioned by the ABC, the Whittier tots competed in the ABC junior tournament in March. Rickey's team captured sixth place in the national meet. "There's nothing I like better except to bowl," says Rickey eloquently when asked about his favorite sport. Translated, that means that he likes baseball and football, but bowling is tops.

Wants Pin-Setter

One day a week isn't enough bowling for this pint-sized Pointer. He practices with a miniature bowling set in the basement at home, but there's one drawback—he wishes somebody would invent a "new thing" soon so that he won't have to set up his own pins.

Now he can hardly wait until fall when the tot bowling season re-opens. He wondered hopefully if the Richard School kindergarten might have a bowling set by September—just so he can keep in practice.

Junior League Scribblers

A SWITCH IN TIME

by Hamilton H. Howlett

Peggy Jackson cared deeply about her appearance. Every detail of it was vital and important to her. She worked hard to be exquisite and she achieved a very satisfactory result. From the skin out she was immaculate perfection, and somehow you suspected that even under her skin a kind of unobtrusive rosy cologne flowed instead of human blood. She moved through life like a fawn in a herd of buffalo.

Men regarded her as a goddess and married earlier types. It's delightful to be worshipped, but more fun to be loved. Fortunately, for Peggy, this fact became more apparent to her as her collection of bridesmaid dresses increased, and she decided to step down off her pedestal and be "just one of the boys"—without losing her ladylike charms, or sacrificing her looks. She became suddenly quite cosy and full of bright little sayings and chuckles. She listened to bores with a look of girlish fascination—and roses in a glass bowl. And, of course, all this was practically irresistible.

A very nice young man was completely overcome with love and pleaded with her ardently to make his joy complete and be his Peggy was enchanted, but, of course, her code demanded flustering modest reticence, and the poor man dangled for weeks. His name was Joe Bailey and he had played football in college and wasn't used to girls who couldn't decide about him, so it was a relief all round when Peggy capitulated and agreed to become Mrs. Bailey in June.

"You're so beautiful," Joe would murmur to her in the weeks that followed, "especially your hair. I think I fell in love with your hair. No one else has hair like yours."

And that was no lie, for Peggy wore a false braid and he must never know it. Concealing this one flaw from Joe became an obsession with her and she was very skillful and sly. She never let him muss her hair. She always had the braid wound neatly around her head. She guarded her secret like an angry lioness; it became a sort of symbol to her of her innermost thoughts. After they were married she used to wait until he was fast asleep before taking it off and hiding it in a bureau drawer, and before he woke in the morning she would fasten it carefully on again.

She loved Joe tremendously and she hated herself for her cruel deception, but being Peggy the perfect one, she lived in growing fear that Joe would someday find out she was not flawless and reject her. She magnified the thing until it became her only thought, until one day she crept through the misty dawn to grope in her hiding place—and, her braid was gone. She dug with frantic haste; she threw things out of the drawer in wild confusion, but it was nowhere. Frenziedly she began searching the room, and then she saw it—hanging from the bedpost, and pinned to it a note in Joe's large square hand. She began to laugh. "Darling," the note said, "Don't you ever let down your hair?"

ITALIAN SPAGHETTI

Contributed by Mrs. Maxwell Mathews

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 2 tbs. bacon fat
- 2 cans. tomato-paste
- 1 can tomatoes
- 1 cup water
- 2 bay leaves
- ¾ cup chopped onions
- ½ cup diced mushrooms
- 1 tbs. chopped pickled pepper
- 1 clove of garlic, chopped fine
- 1 tsp. dry mustard
- ½ cup of grated sharp cheese
- dash of Worcestershire sauce
- salt and pepper to taste

Brown onions, pepper, ground beef, and garlic in bacon fat. Add other ingredients and let simmer for 4 to 5 hours.

Cook macaroni and add sauce just when ready to serve. Serves six people.

Debutante Bows Start June 13

Bette Burr Meader will be the Pointe's first spring debutante to make her bow, when her mother, Mrs. F. Rankin Weisgerber, presents her at a tea in their Lincoln road home on June 13. Bette Burr will conclude her freshman year at Smith College late in May.

Mrs. Burdette E. Ford has planned a tea for June 14 in her home on Sunningdale drive to introduce her daughter, Gertrude, a Wellesley freshman. Three days later, Penny Kemp will make her debut at a Country Club tea hosted by her mother, Mrs. Charles B. Kemp. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Skelton will introduce their daughter, Edna, at a ball on June 24. Josephine Scherer will bow on June 29 at a debut ball to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer.

Sally Waters, Ingrid Koebel and Carrie Carter are June debuts whose dates have not yet been announced.

Summer supper parties got a boon this week when FARMS MARKET added the elegant Proctor's Spaghetti Sauce with meat to its shelves. Naturally this gourmet's sauce is delicious for all occasions, but we couldn't help think what a time saver it's going to be for Summer hostesses. Spaghetti with Proctor sauce, garlic bread, a tossed salad and you have your buffet with a minimum amount of fuss and bother... no long and hot cooking in the kitchen for the sauce is merely heated and its ready to slosh over spaghetti. Its available in a regular sized can and comes in gallons for the grateful hostess. At its surprising low price, it's most economical considering the fine herbs and meats and tomatoes. The regular sized cans are wonderful for the galley of your boat, or pardon us, yacht.

Pointers trip happily down Fisher road these days to the trip, trip of busy hammers all of which emanate from SCHETTLER'S. They're happy because the hammering means longer shelves are going to hold the most marvelous array of cosmetics imaginable... not only all your old favorites but the new ones which delight you. The entire store is undergoing alteration (but business as usual, thank heavens!) so that there will be a larger variety of merchandise in all departments. SCHETTLER'S always filled with Pointers, now counts not only customers and friends of many years standing, but a great many swank roadside engineers who are beaming approval on the SCHETTLER New Look.

Lady, don't sigh over your latest Vogue... just drop in at JACOBSON'S where the pages come to life in dazzling chic. Inspired by the collections of Christian Dior, Desses and Fath four frocks have been executed by Martini in black tissue faille crepe. Straight skirt and paneled over skirt are emphasized. For instance one Dior copy is actually two dresses in one. A straight skirted frock for daytime and after five you simply buckle on a paneled skirt and look extra special for cocktails. Necklines are low and plunging, if the sleeves are not three-quarter length they are above the elbow and one frock has a brief cape. Kangaroo pockets mark the Dior inspired frocks, stole draped skirt the dresses and a triangular balance between cape and skirt are Fath notes. Each of the frocks is beautifully priced at $49.95.

Entertain Guests From Cleveland

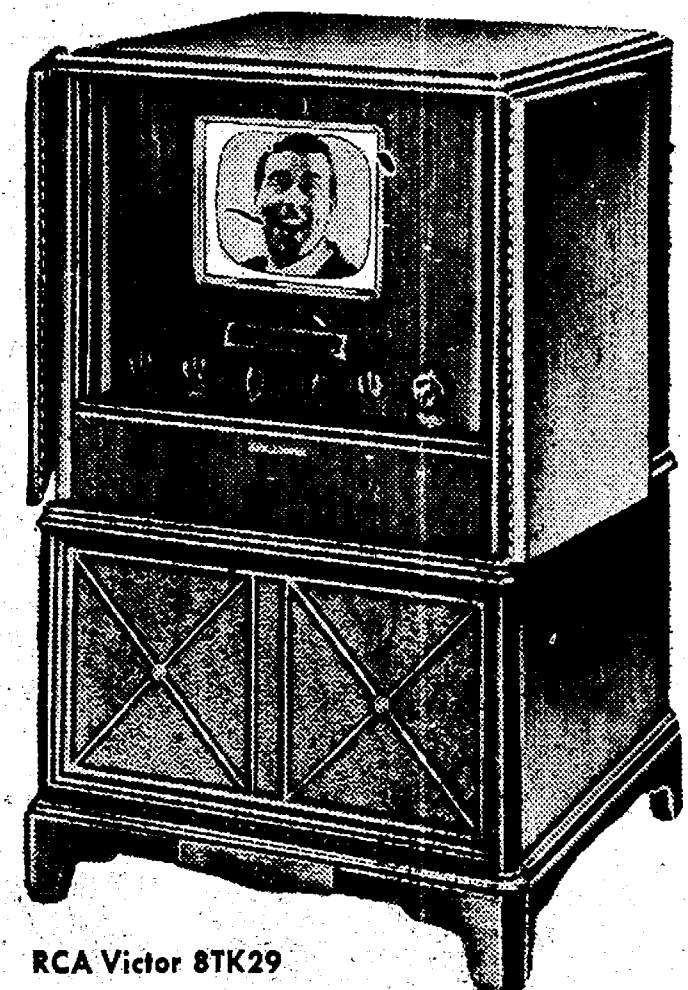

Cleveland visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gause, who arrived on Friday to be guests in the Cloverly road home of the J. Gordon Hills, had a busy weekend.

Mrs. Louis A. Peters entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Gause on Friday in her home on Cloverly road. The evening scene moved to the Indian Village Manor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hill, who were dinner party hosts.

Mrs. Hill gave a bridge luncheon on Saturday for her visitor, and in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Girard of Bloomfield Hills were hosts to the Gauses and Hills for dinner and dancing at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Golf, followed by a small cocktail party and buffet supper at the Hill home, was scheduled on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gause left for Ohio on Monday.

Habitant's Knotty Pine at Randall & Leon

These smartly styled matching pieces of knotty pine furniture by Habitant of Bay City, Michigan, are but a few of their many creations to be found at Randall & Leon's, 9100 Cadieux Road. Equally charming are the bedroom pieces, desks and breakfast bars. Habitant is found in many of the well appointed lakeside summer homes.

The Farms softball diamond has been leveled and mowed and will be ready for use this week as an addition to the hardball field on Kerby road. The regular village maintenance men did the work under the direction of Peter Allard, assistant commissioner of public works.

A Standby

The drum table, coming as it does in many stylings and finishes, is always the aristocrat among occasional tables. To fit your particular need and decor, Haydon House, Brady, Randall & Leon, Roesch-McKnight, Pioneer and Sheraton House have fine showings.

ANGLING AND NECKING

There will be no fishing off the seawall along Lake Shore road in Grosse Pointe Farms, according to an order issued by Chief Walter Hoyt on May 14. Not only were the patrolmen told to chase away all anglers, but also to break up any petting parties there.

Offer Wide Variety Of Finest Furniture

With the advent of warm weather the stores and craftsmen who have to do with designing, making and selling furnishings for the more than ten thousand fine homes which make up Grosse Pointe, one of America's finest residential communities, again find themselves in full stride.

This extra busy season, which strikes annually about mid-May and runs to the first week in July, also acts rather accurately as a hallmark of what the well-dressed homes are choosing in furniture, floor coverings, draperies and other accessories. This latter item may include such novelties as recreation equipment, outdoor grilles and terrace furnishings.

Furniture is First

At this early stage of the period it appears that selection of furniture is taking the lead. This we are informed by many in a position to know, is in great part due to the superb quality of the wood and craftsmanship now contained in the offerings on the floors of the furniture stores which cater more particularly to the Pointes.

Floor coverings hold second place in buying and this too may well be attributed to the firmly established values now found in the dependable stores.

Oriental Rugs

Surprising, even to Detroit's reputable oriental rug dealers, is the new trend to the ever-cherished Orientals. Reports from one of the older dealers shows a gain in the number of rugs sold and dollar volume over all years since 1942. This can be an indication that the room size Oriental rugs again have greater fashion favor.

Modern Holds Own

In the dazzling furniture world, where traditional styling vies with Modern, we find there is an exceptionally stable market for the finely crafted Modern. By this we do not mean it rivals the traditional in volume, but rather that its own volume is increased over last year.

This steady market for Modern may well be attributed to the really sublime styling and craftsmanship of the superb woods used. Many of Modern's innovations are definitely here to stay, so perfectly have they been injected into post-war America's scheme of home decorating... with engineer-precision usefulness.

New Stores in Fore

One of the factors that bespeaks Grosse Pointe's growing influence in shaping home fashion trends is the success of several comparatively young firms who established themselves in or near the Pointe, and who have devoted their time and efforts chiefly to requirements of the residents of this community.

In the case of Haydon House, Grosse Pointe, one of the smart shops dealing largely in the finer Moderns, growth has been constant in the three short years since its establishment.

Brady's Successful

A like success, only in the traditional field, is that of John J. Brady, formerly buyer for the old Tuttle and Clark firm, and whose store on Mack Avenue dispenses, along with other noted lines, the very lovely Kindel bedroom furniture. His store too is now in its third year.

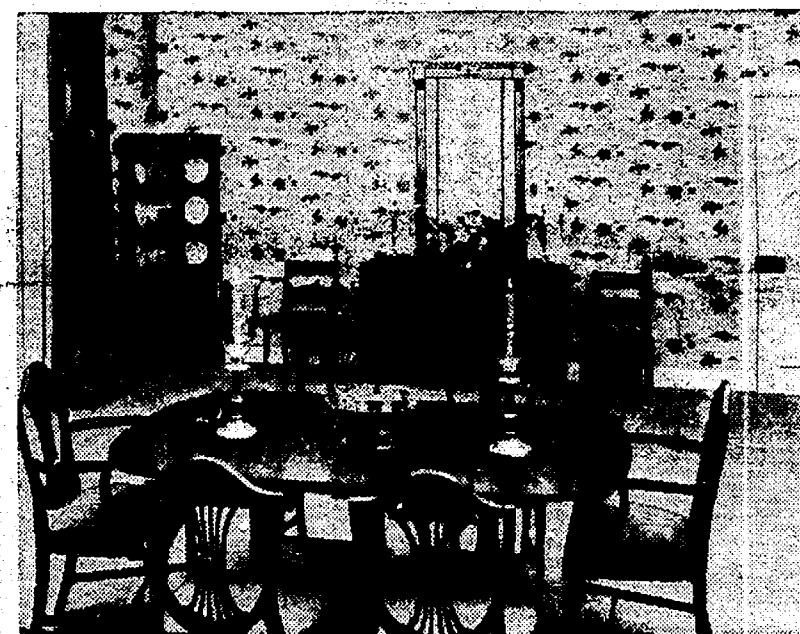

Randall & Leon's, slightly more than two years old and located at 9100 Cadieux road, has come up with traditional and Modern furniture, in the latter specializing in that delightful knotty pine Habitant line of Bay City.

New Woods Firm

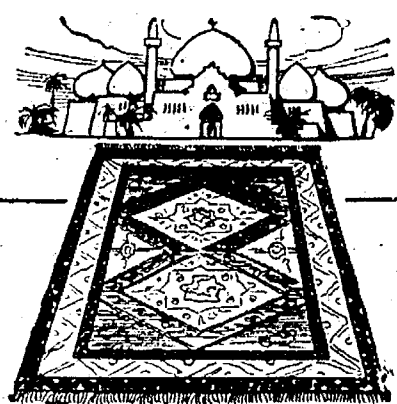

Newer still than the above mentioned is the Roesch-McKnight firm on Mack avenue in the Woods, where traditional

"All Englishmen look alike to me," says Bernard Shaw. But another Irishman, Wyld, topped this with "The typical British face—once seen never remembered."

A Small-Scaled Formal Room

This delightful, formal room, with its small-scaled upholstered pieces, achieves a pleasing sense of spaciousness. Two scatter rugs are used on the wall-to-wall carpeting to establish the centers of interest. The Sheraton pull-up chair and graceful tables make it a perfect background for a gracious hostess. Grosse Pointers have found pleasure of late in shopping this type of furniture at Roesch-McKnight's new store on Mack Avenue, in the Woods.

Fine Furniture

furniture and fine bedding are of first importance.

The great store of the Pioneer Furniture, ranking with the finest in the middle west, with its several floors of fine furniture, floor coverings and home appliances, is still in its first decade.

The owners of all these establishments are themselves Grosse Pointers, a fact which in no way impairs their ability to gather at first hand the early trend of fashions here in this all-important residential community.

Still Strong in Pointe
Among the older stores whose hold is still strong on the furnishings business in the Pointe, are: Grosse Pointe Furniture Shops on Jefferson avenue, Preuss Furniture, on Harper avenue, Scott-Shuptrine, on Jefferson avenue and Deinzer Brothers on Mack avenue.

Other firms whose names are heard where and when furnishings and accessories are being discussed, include among others, Sheraton House on Whittier road, Wright's Gift and Lamp Shop, Sign of the Mermaid, deGrimme's Art Gallery, Art Salon Galleries, Ashrawy's Galleries, S. J. Skaff and Tadross and Zahlout.

Television to Stay
It would be a mistake if this resume were to make no mention of the new field that has entered upon the home scene, that of television, which like radio, provides home entertainment.

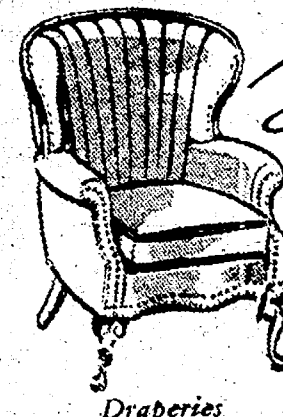

The swing to television is indeed tremendous and of late it is the styling of these instruments that is receiving much attention, since the average home wants its television set in a rather conspicuous position.

The Perkins Television and Radio store, the Grosse Pointe Radio and Television Shop, Jack O'Connor, the Fenske Appliance House and a number of other stores are foremost here in the new television field.

Decorators
The interior decorators, of whom there are many serving here, some being staff members in the stores we have mentioned, for the most part maintain their establishments in or near the Pointe. Others do a free lance service here. But all are Point-minded and greatly influenced by the good taste of Grosse Pointers to the extent of seeing to it that their recommendations for materials and furnishings from the stores who have earned creditable reputations for leading service, are carried out.

Moses advanced a nation to the worship of God in Spirit instead of matter, and illustrated the grand human capacities of being bestowed by immortal Mind.

Shower Honors Una Lundberg

A May pole in white, wound with American beauty, was the unusual theme chosen by Mrs. Stanley W. Cochrane and Mrs. Louis Smith for the linen shower and tea at which they feted bride-elect Una Lundberg on Saturday, May 14, at the Cochrane home on Audubon road.

Eight figurines dressed as bridesmaids in white with American beauty sashes held the May pole ribbons, with shower gift packages around the charming decor—the whole was arranged on the piano in the living room. In the dining room, the tea table centered with flowers combining the same white and American beauty, with lighted candles in silver holders on the buffet.

Mrs. John Sprague and Barbara Gardella presided at the tea and coffee services.

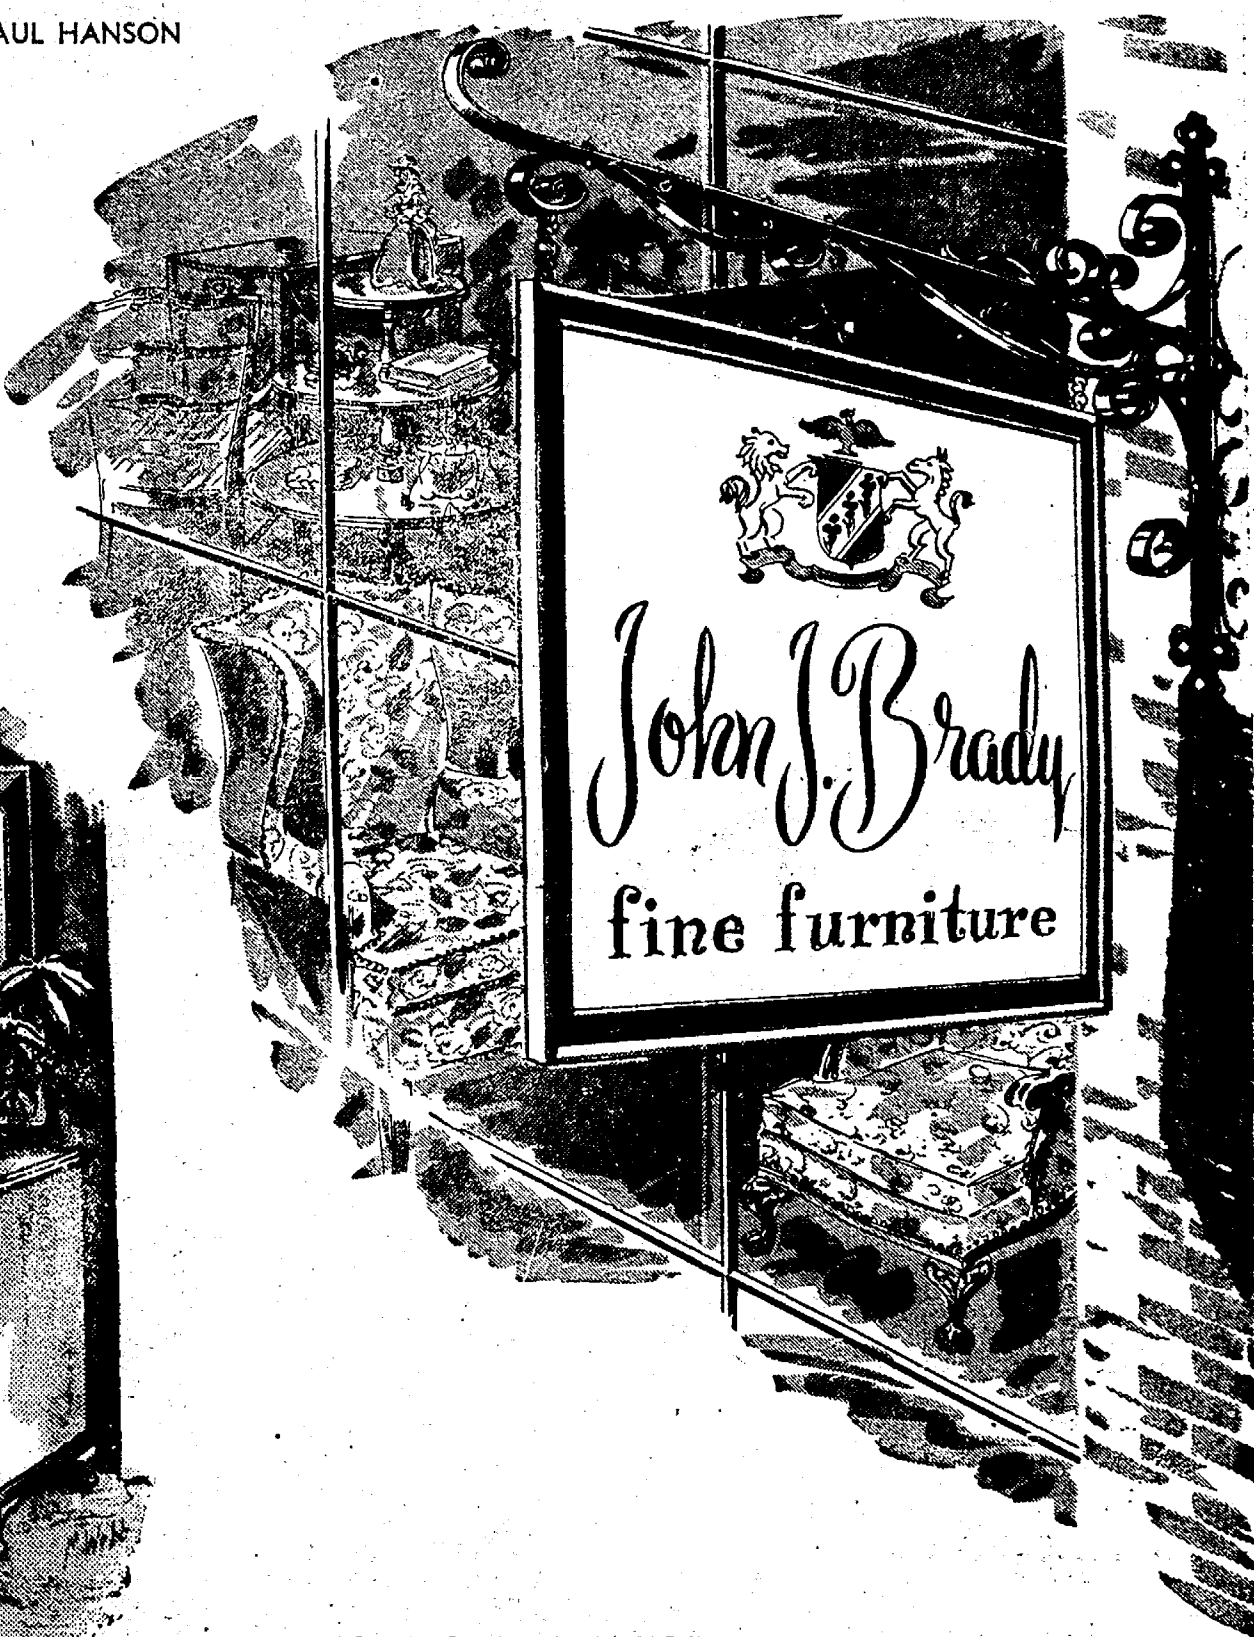

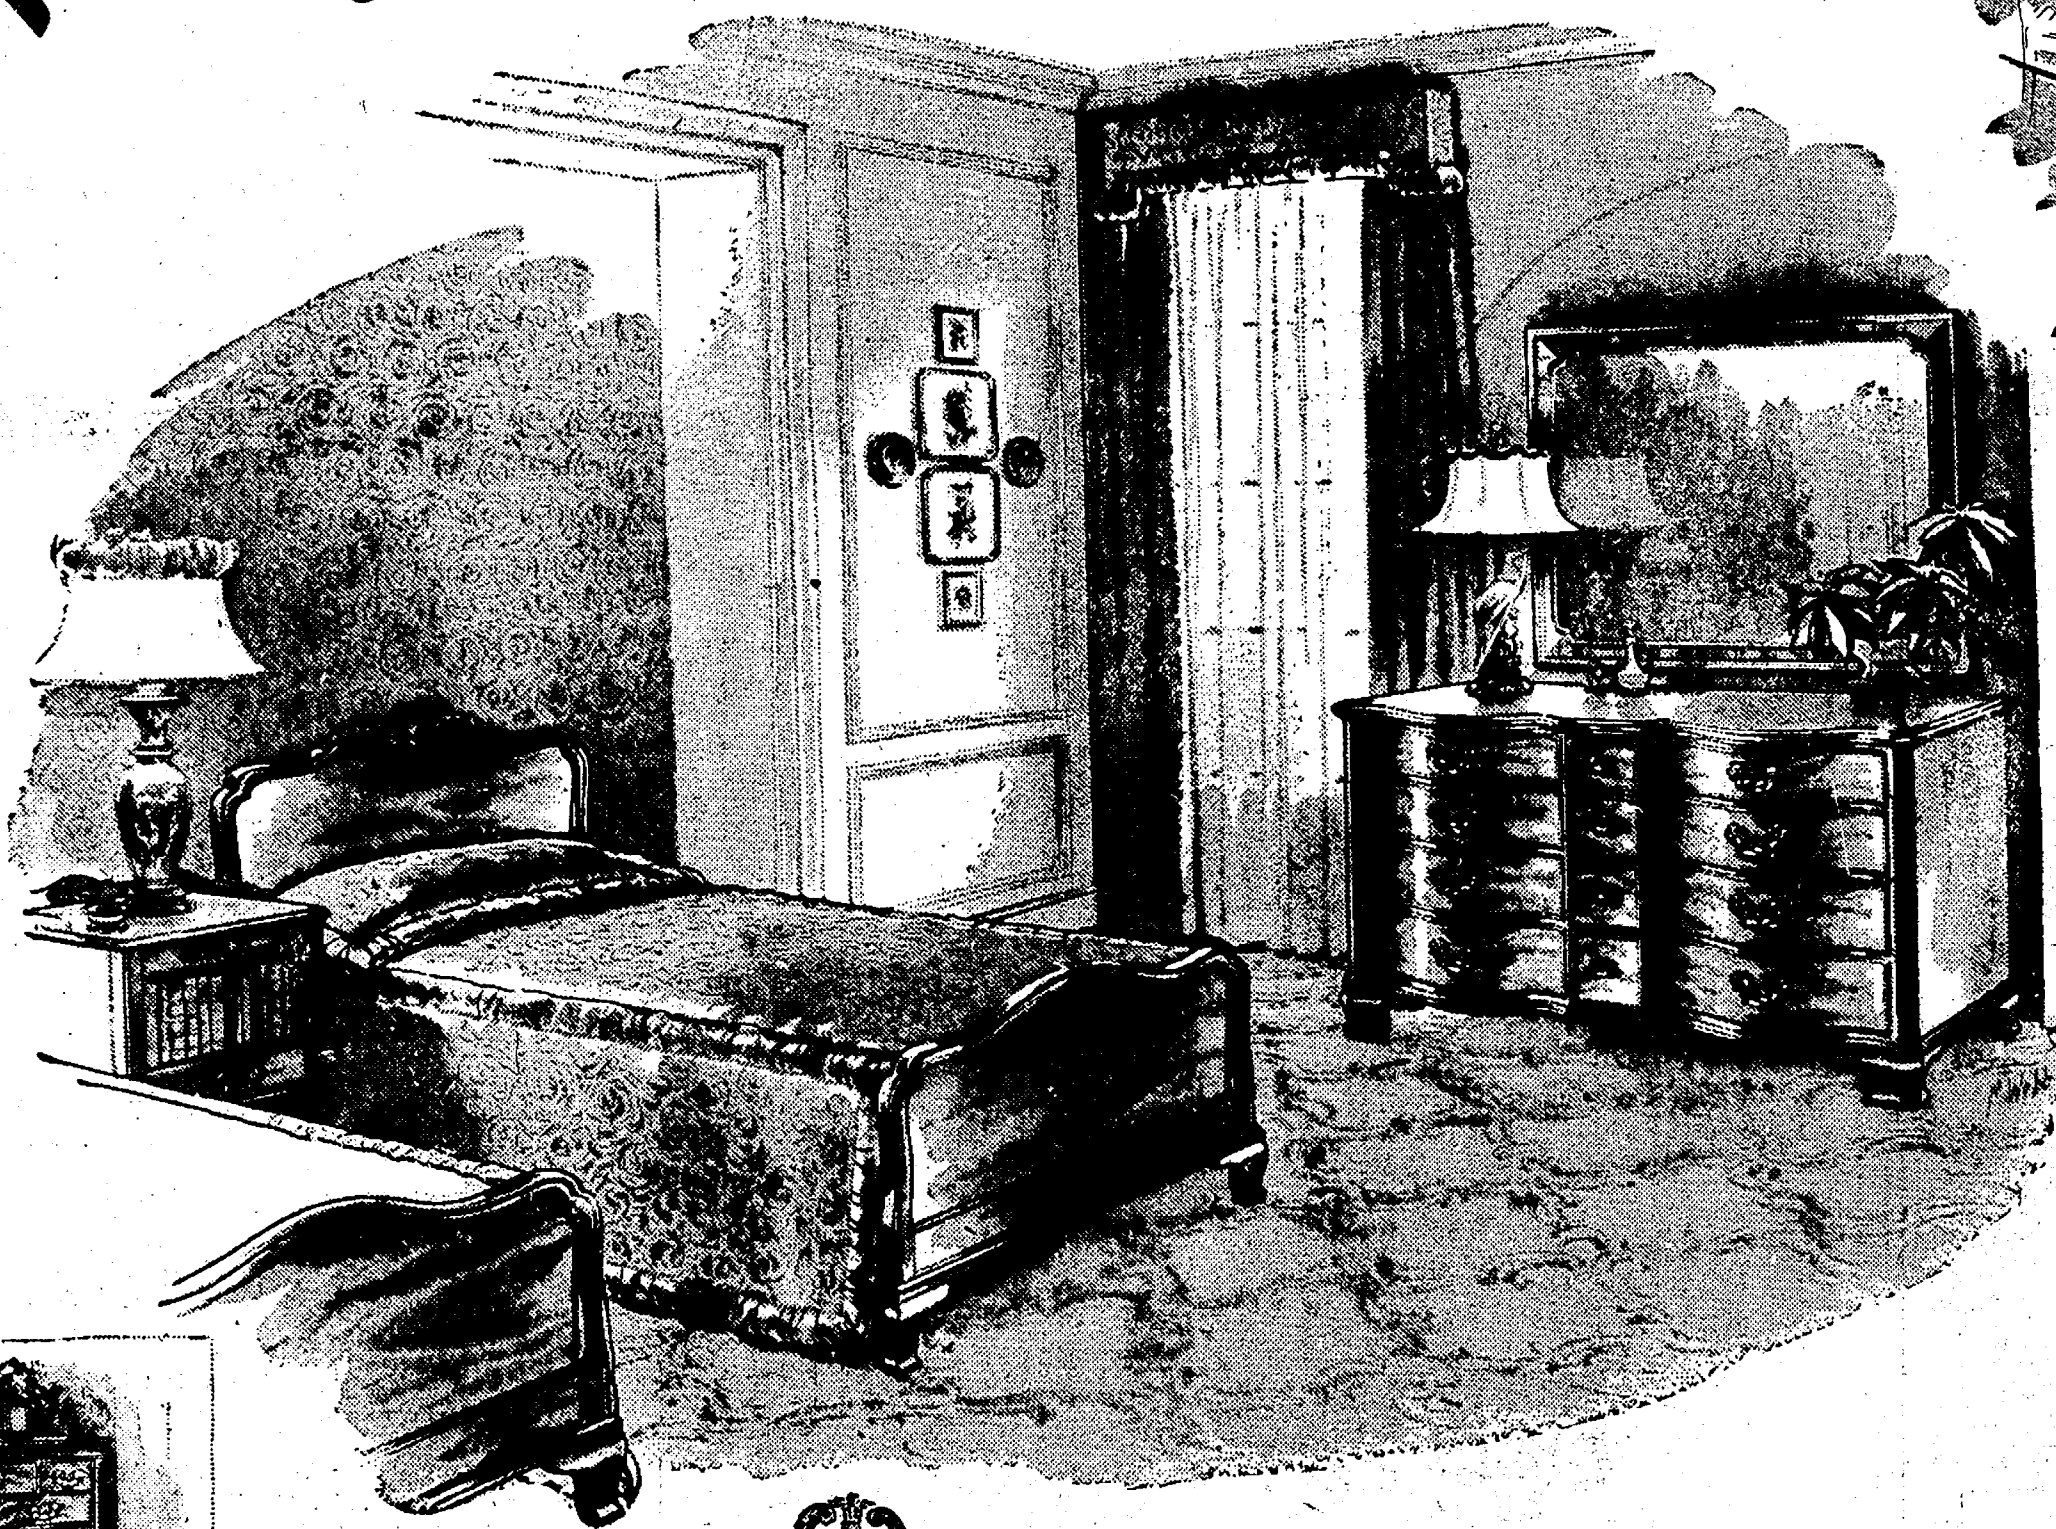

Among the guests were Una's mother, Mrs. Everett E. Lundberg; Mrs. Herbert W. Smith, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, James Smith; Mrs. Harold Bohm, Miss Edith Sandene, Mrs. George W. Klein, Mrs. Homer Frisch, Jr., and Mrs. Edward A. Wetzel, of Huntington Woods.

Others were Mrs. A. J. Weilauf, Mrs. Herman Weckler, Mrs. Alexander D. Blackwood, Mrs. William F. B. Henderson, Mrs. William J. Athanson, Mrs. Fred Hofmann, Mrs. Melvin S. Huffaker, Mrs. Carl H. Stever, Mrs. David G. Williams and Mrs. F. L. Mumford, Jr.

Kindel

AMERICA'S FINEST MAHOGANY BEDROOM FURNITURE

specialist in fine TRADITIONAL furniture. Budget terms available

OF COURSE YOU want loveliness in your bedroom. You want the quality that will keep that loveliness fresh for decades and even generations. You want style authenticity. Here they are in these masterpieces by Kindel, with all the richness of especially selected mahogany. Craftsmanship matches goodness of materials, in the famous Kindel finish, and in every detail of joinery. Everything you can ask for in fine bedroom furniture is embodied in these masterpieces. In short, the Kindel philosophy is that furniture representing a gracious past deserves construction equal to the quality of the design.

Queen Anne Setting for RCA Television Set

Perkins Radio and Television Company, Mack at Lakepointe, found extra fondness on the part of buyers for this beautifully designed and finished RCA Victor Television set which lends itself so admirably to traditional decor in the well appointed home. The television picture is a full 126 square inches, the tube is 16" and the cabinet is finished in walnut or mahogany.

Art Exhibition Attracts Many

The Grosse Pointe Artists' Association is holding their annual art exhibit this week at the Neighborhood Club. Maurice Wood is director of the exhibit which opened on Saturday with a tea.

Members of the jury include Mrs. John S. Sweeney, Jr., Carlos Lopez of the University of Michigan, Frederick Simper and Walter Miegner of Arts and Crafts. Mrs. Ferris Fitch is president of the group and Valerie Corbett is vice-president. David Hamilton is assisting with exhibit arrangements.

Mrs. G. Leslie Field did the attractive center piece for the tea

table Saturday, using flowers from her garden. The following members of the board poured: Mrs. Fitch, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Robert Thibodeau, Mrs. John Pear, Mrs. Earl Dummage, Mrs. E. R. Little, Mrs. W. V. Casgrain, Miss Corbett and Miss Stella Klauflman.

Among the members who had exhibits hung were Mrs. Halde- man Finnie, Mrs. Frank Linde- man, Mrs. Field, Mrs. John Goodman, Mrs. Augustin Nutter, Mrs. Eva Worcester, Mrs. William Weed, Mrs. William R. Hamilton, Mrs. Douglas Smart, David Hamilton and John Vogt.

Seen among the interested guests were Miss Helen Keep, Mrs. Dwyer Kinnucan, Mrs. Wayne Millis, Mrs. Raymond Dykema, Mrs. Bert Rockoff, Mrs. William Tenbush, Mrs. Frank Lockman, Mrs. Gregory Butler, Mrs. John L. Bradley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Leyen, Owen R. Skelton, Edgar Yeager and Joseph deGrimme.

PACKARD is celebrating its Golden Anniversary by a con- clave of its field men from all over the nation.

Radios to Blend With All Types Of Room Decor

Not many years ago radios and modern design were synonymous—very little attention was paid to the style of the outside cabinet and waterfall fronts on highly varnished cases were standard. If one wanted a radio in period style to blend with a room setting, there was only one way to obtain it—get a custom made cabinet. However, today, as the local leading radio shops—Perkins and Grosse Pointe Radio & Television and others are showing, the ascendancy of radio and television cabinet designs to the realm of decorative furniture has made such conspicuous progress that regardless of the period of furnishing of the home there is a cabinet to harmonize. Today the manufacturer of radio and television sets is offering a multi-purpose unit combining the qualities of beauty, utility and entertainment.

Evolving from a simple cabinet, there are now such innovations as a tripartite screen the center panel of which is drawn back to reveal an extensive combination of radio-phonograph-television and record album shelf. When closed the screen is a purely decorative screen of either wood, leather, antique glass, tapestry or wallpaper.

In the ultra modern class is a new television-radio set with a screen which serves as a mirror when the receiver is not in use. Functional units which may be purchased separately by sections to be added horizontally or vertically are another contemporary version—the radio, phonograph and television set each being housed in a separate cabinet.

For an elaborate 18th Century setting there is a new breakfront model which combines radio, television and phonograph in a handsome cabinet also providing space for books, record albums and accessories.

Brady Showing Savory Lowboy

This striking Early American chest, made of solid Honduras mahogany and hand carved, has its place along with other fine furniture in the store of John J. Brady, Mack at Nottingham, where Grosse Pointers purchase their fine Kindel bedroom furniture.

This lowboy is a splendid reproduction of an original made by Savory in Philadelphia between 1760-1777. He was one of the renowned in the school of fine cabinet makers that flourished in the Quaker City at that period. Others included Gostelowe and Randolph. In this piece, we are informed, there took place a change in the use for which it was intended. It was originally made as a bedroom dressing table but soon found wide acceptance as an artistic depository for documents, money, jewelry and other valuables.

Authority to reproduce the cabinet was given through courtesy of the Edison Institute, Dearborn, where an original is on exhibit in its museum.

Pioneer Carpets Tailored to Fit

One of the finest equipped modern carpeting workrooms in Michigan is one answer why carpeting problems are solved with such ease at the Pioneer Furniture Company at 1745 E. Grand boulevard.

Visitors are always welcome, according to Arthur F. Hesse, president, for "we find our customers are exceptionally interested in our traveling sewing machine that runs on a track and can sew carpeting of any length, (for home or office), in one operation".

Wide Selection

"We represent all of the leading carpeting mills," Hesse continued, "which gives our customers the benefit of a wide selection, both in style and in price range. The carpeting department is more than 30 years old, and some of our original employees are still with us."

Owners Are Pointers

Arthur F. Hesse, president, resides at 330 Moran road; Edward S. Hesse, secretary, lives at 591 Oxford road, and Clarence E. Luber, of 623 Hawthorne, is manager of the Pioneer Furniture Company.

Ibex Club Play To Aid Hospital

Final rehearsals are underway for Ibex Club members working on their annual production, "Shubert Alley," which will be staged Friday and Saturday evenings at Grosse Pointe High School. Children's hospital will receive the proceeds.

Names on the patron list include Mr. and Mrs. Christian H. Haskorn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Detweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kern, and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Walker.

Farms Building Boom Continues

New building is going on in Grosse Pointe Farms at the rate of nearly half a million dollars per month, according to the April report filed by Village Engineer Murray M. Smith. The value of permits issued during the month by his office was $43,000.

The total of the permits for the first two months of the present fiscal year, March 1 to April 30, was $912,000. Twenty new homes were started during the month, with a total value of $421,000, or an average of $21,000 per home. There were no permits issued for commercial buildings; 10 permits for miscellaneous which covers alterations and additions, with a value of $15,000.

Students Helped To Study Abroad

Announcement was made Thursday to the Grosse Pointe branch of the American Association of University Women that fellowship awards for advanced research by women scholars in 1949-1950 total $40,750. Projects for which the awards were given will take 23 American AAUW fellows into several European countries and Alaska as well as to scattered research centers in the United States. The four international fellowships require that the recipient study in some country other than her own.

Selection of the international fellows is made by a committee of the International Federation of University Women.

New Lamps for Old Ones

These beautiful old oil lamps, photographed early this week by the NEWS as they hung in the Ollig Electric Shop, 15243 Mack avenue, where they are undergoing repairs and wiring, will serve again as proudly as they did in the yester-years. They are fashionable once more, and the Ollig firm does hundreds of them for Grosse Pointers, furnishing globes, chimneys and odd metal parts as well as wiring them.

In many instances, to please an exacting customer, the new globes must be hand painted in the same manner as the lost or broken original, and though this requires the services of an artist, the firm readily complies. The firm makes all bases used in repairing table lamps, even doing the intricate filigree work. Surprisingly enough, this work is modest in price and represents an economy.

Mr. Joseph Ollig and his son John, an ex-GI and licensed electrician, have been operating the business for nearly three years. They have become famous enough to receive shipments from far away places for their know-how and artistic touch in repair work. The ranch type house lends itself well to the pleasing charm of an old hanging lamp.

Flower Festival At Art Institute

This is the week that the Wellesley Flower Festival is in progress through Sunday at the Detroit Art Institute.

Opening day visitors at the garden show on Tuesday included Gov. and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, Mayor Eugene I. Van Antwerp, Mrs. Julius Haass, president of the Founders' Society, Mrs. Edsel Ford, Edgar B. Whitcomb and Robert H. Tannahill.

The festival runs from 1 to 10 o'clock on weekdays and from 1 to 6 o'clock on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. John R. Decker is chairman of the tea which is served each afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

A garden movie is shown twice daily and a lecture is scheduled for 3 o'clock in the Founders' Lounge.

St. Clare Club
To Hold Party

The Young People's Club of St. Clare de Montefalco Parish is sponsoring its Annual Spring Card Party to be held in the Parish Auditorium at Mack and Audubon on Friday evening, May 20.

The donation will be $1.00. Prizes, entertainment and refreshments are included.

Shell Station
Opening Friday

Joe Miller and his two sons, Joe Jr. and John, are opening their new Shell gasoline station on Mack avenue at Gateshead, tomorrow, and are inviting all their old friends and neighbors to inspect the modern facilities they have installed for giving up-to-the-minute service.

Mr. Miller emphasizes in his announcement that he is handling that new, good Shell gasoline.

City Council Committee Studies Needed Repairs

Grosse Pointe City's old municipal garage will need some extensive repairs, in a hurry if it is to be kept going.

At the Council meeting on May 16, City Clerk Neff brought in some estimates he had obtained for the work. He also gave estimates for the needed gutting work on the roof of the Fire House.

The matter as referred to the Building Committee with power to act.

Memorial Church Women
To See Movie of India

The Evening Group of the Woman's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will meet on Tuesday, May 24, at 8 o'clock in the church parlors.

Mrs. F. W. Adams, program chairman will present Hugo R. Husted, who will show a motion picture on the "India Land of Contrast."

Members are reminded that the last meeting of the year will be in the home of Mrs. J. A. Rowan on June 21, where a potluck supper will be served under the direction of Mrs. R. J. Conway.

Immaculate Heart Auxiliary
To Hold Annual Bridge Party

The Auxiliary of Immaculate Heart will hold its annual bridge party on Saturday, May 21 at 2 o'clock at Marygrove College. There will be prizes.

The hostess for the party will be Mrs. William H. Dwyer, president of the Auxiliary. Those assisting her will be Miss Margaret Burns, Mrs. William J. Grob, Mrs. Arthur Van Antwerp, Mrs. Ernest Cockill, Mrs. Kathleen Sullivan and Miss Mary McMahon.

Camp Fire
Girls News

Two hundred Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls and their mothers attended the Mother-Daughter tea given by the Southeast District Monday, May 9, in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Elaine Ross, a Blue Bird, announced the following program:

A Welcome to Mothers by Joan Coburn from Mrs. Ann Dietz group; a song "Cheer to Mothers" by all the girls; a violin solo by Carol Baudic, accompanied by Judy Miller on the piano, girls from Mrs. Alice Goodsmith's group; three songs, by all the girls; a solo "Mother" sung by Sue Runde from Mrs. Bryon Runde's group, accompanied by Mrs. Miller; duets sung by Judy Cooper and Carol Talarol from Mrs. Rosemary Ruelle's group; a short talk by Wendy Colby on "What It Means to Be a Blue Bird," from Mrs. Patricia Joy's group; a short talk on "What It Means to Be a Camp Fire Girl" by Karen Putnam from Mrs. Mary Putnam's group; a talk by Mrs. Elizabeth Spear, Executive Director of Camp Fire Girls in Metropolitan Detroit.

MIXED VOLLEYBALL

The Neighborhood Club is sponsoring a mixed Volleyball League for fellows and girls of the Community. Each team is to have six players—three fellows, three girls. Get together—make up your team and come to the Club on Thursday nights for a big evening of fun!

PING PONG RESULTS

Junior Boys, D. O'Connor.

Brownie Troop 424 of Parcels team on May 5. They heard a talk on the United Nations and then played games and looked at the exhibits. Mrs. Verne Bennett and Mrs. W. F. Roser, the leaders, and several troop mothers drove them to the museum.

This troop also arranged a very attractive display for the school showcase, which included their service projects, other handwork and equipment.

Troop 319 of Kerby School has elected the following officers for May and June: Susan Dhooge, secretary; Penny Rydholm, treasurer; Gerry Denison, scribe. These scouts have been busy making stuffed animals to send to children in a hospital in the American zone of Berlin.

On Saturday, April 30, Intermediate troop 821 of St. Clare School enjoyed a tour of the U. S. Submarine, Tambor, a war veteran, stationed at the Naval Armory. Captain Nelson and the guides showed them the amazing machinery, controls, and the compact living quarters.

Weigle-Stroup
Exchange Vows

The marriage of Elaine Frances Weigle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard F. Weigle of McMillan road, and Albert J. Stroup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn G. Stroup of Monica avenue, took place on May 14 at St. Paul's Church on the Lake.

The bride chose a white satin gown with fitted bodice embroidered in seed pearls, long sleeves and circular train. Her cathedral length veil of silk illusion fell from a satin tiara. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

The attendants wore dresses fashioned alike in lace and marquisette. Betty Weaver, maid of honor, wore yellow and carried blue daisies. The bridesmaids in blue carried yellow daisies. The bridesmaids were Pauline Ranger, Betty Ann Diederich and Helen Stroup.

The best man was James Fitzpatrick and the guests were William Herr, Harold Henry and Robert Shier. After a trip to the Smoky Mountains the couple will live in Detroit.

Brooksmith-Kischel Vows
Repeated in St. Alban's

Marjorie Jeanne Brooksmith, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Brooksmith and the late Mr. Brooksmith, became the bride of Donald L. Kischel at a recent ceremony in St. Alban's Episcopal Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Paul Berg, of Grosse Pointe, and Louis Kischel, of Detroit.

Patricia, Brooksmith, was her sister's honor maid; and bridesmaids were Virginia Ann Wilson, of Milford, and Mrs. Karl Kaiser. Richard Klotz attended as best man. Dale Buchol and Karl Kaiser ushered.

Town Hall Lists Noted Speakers

Mary Garden, the century's most glamorous opera star, and Adolph Menjou, popular movie and television actor, will be among the 18 celebrities booked to appear at Detroit Town Hall next season. The Series will be given at the Fisher Theater.

The twentieth consecutive season will open October 5, with Miss Garden as the attraction. The noted operatic actress is making her first lecture tour after ten years of retirement in Scotland. Her only Detroit appearance will be at Town Hall.

Internationally known speakers, discussing national and world problems will appear at the Forum. Among the experts under contract are Robert Magidoff, former Moscow correspondent; Krishnu Nehru and Raja Hothessing, Indian diplomats; Quincy Howe, radio and television news analyst; Dr. Ruth Gruber, authority on the Palestine question; Judge Camille Kelley, Memphis judge; Carleton Smith, director, National Arts Foundation; Spencer Irwin, foreign affairs columnist; Dr. Tibor Eckhardt, Hungarian statesman; Dr. Paul Hawley who will debate the question of socialized medicine.

The Series will close with the Elena Imaz' Dance Trio, a famed troupe from Argentina. Mario Braggiotti, noted piano artist, will give a concert in the middle of the season.

Membership Information is available at Detroit Town Hall Headquarters, Room 220 Hotel Statler, Woodward 3-5617.
