between Vernier and Hawthorne, needed for enlargement of the park, is undergoing condemnation proceedings toward that end. Owners of the desired property are fighting the condemnation.

March 18—Members of the Woods council took a blast at the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Rubbish and Refuse Authority for its proposal to expel the Woods from the Authority. The furor was brought about when Woods City Administrator Ray MacArthur read a letter from the Authority which amounted to an ultimatum and which demanded that the Woods put in writing whether it wished to remain in the Authority or not.

Blood Collection Held
March 25—Grosse Pointe's blood collection produced 188 pints of blood. A total of 234 persons responded to a blood donation plea, and as usual some had to be turned down. The blood collection was held in the Woods Presbyterian Church. Members of the Junior Red Cross aided by caring for children in the nursery and serving the professional staff and volunteer workers their dinners.

April 1—The Farms announced that it will reactivate contracts for material needed to increase the water intake from Lake St. Clair. Farms City Engineer Murray Smith informed the council that at least $225,000 will be needed to satisfy the requirements of the Water Department. He revealed, however, that in spite of all this, and as long as the Farms supplies the City and Shores with water, there will be a water shortage during the summer.

Police Radio 5 Years Old

April 8—The Police Radio Operation in the Grosse Pointe area celebrated its fifth anniversary with a luncheon held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Host on the occasion was the Shores which also celebrated its return to the chairmanship of the Inter-municipal Police Radio System Control. Each year, one community member assumes the chairmanship of the organization; the chairmanship resting in the hands of the mayor or president of that community.

April 15—The Grosse Pointe Board of Education officially adopted a resolution setting forth three proposals to be given to voters of the School District. Organizational plans for the new Ferry School were also adopted. The Board also heard and considered reports of overcrowding at Pierce Junior High School and approved the transfer of 9A students from Pierce to the High School.

Roseville Says "No"

April 22—The Roseville village council decided not to do business with the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Rubbish and Refuse Authority after 300 Roseville citizens stormed a public hearing. The citizens objected to having the Authority's $800,000 proposed incinerator erected in their village. The Authority has abandoned any hope of building an incinerator in Macomb County because of the terrific opposition there.

May 6—The Farms council pared $38,000 from its budget for the fiscal year and dropped the tax assessment from $16.20 to $15.42 per $1,000 assessed valuation. With the drop in the assessment, it was revealed that the Farms has one of the lowest tax rates of any city its size.

Jacobi Made Admiral

May 13—Michigan's best known nautical figure, Captain Leon Jacobi, was promoted to the flag rank of Rear Admiral, USNR. The Admiral, a resident of the Farms, is an Annapolis graduate. He served during World War II with distinction and holds many medals for brave and meritorious service.

May 20—The Pointe continues the study of an adequate water supply. The Farms informs its customers, the City and Shores, that they must turn to Detroit for help. This means that the water shortage is so acute, restrictions on the use of water, especially for lawn and garden sprinkling, will have to be enforced.

Center Drive Lags

May 27—The annual campaign for funds for the War Memorial Center lags behind, still short $8,000 of the $30,000 needed to operate through the 1954-55 season. Memorial week-end was the deadline set for the end of the drive.

June 3—Grosse Pointe High School captured the Border City League All Sports Trophy for the seventh time since the trophy's inception in 1938. The school piled up points in baseball, tennis, football, swimming and track. The high school holds the distinction of being the only school to win the trophy seven times.

June 10—Park residents who were members of the newly formed Windmill Pointe Protective Association, stormed the Detroit council chambers to protest the erection of multiple dwelling units across the street from the Park Municipal Beach. The land is two-thirds in Detroit and one-third in the Park.

School Boards Approve

June 17—Voters of the Pointe School District approved passage of $1,225,000 bond issue and elected two members to the Board of Education. The voters also gave the Board of Education the authority to increase the school tax to pay for the bond issue and to increase the tax millage for operational purposes.

June 24—The Kercheval-on-the-Hill business men took an opposing stand against the Farm's proposal to levy a special assessment against them for the development of the municipally owned parking lot at the rear of Kercheval. The Farms council postponed a hearing on the matter after the businessmen, backed by the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association, rapped the plan.

Plan Elm Tree Survey

July 1—Officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture revealed that the State will conduct a complete survey of elm trees on public and private properties to see what can be done about the Dutch Elm Disease. The survey, a community project, was conducted by qualified and trained personnel. The disease costs elm tree owners thousands of dollars every year.

July 8—After 23 years of patient waiting, Grosse Pointe Post

303, American Legion finally acquired a home of its own. Members of the post combined their talents and know-how and took care of most of the alterations of the building themselves. The edifice, on Mack, between Hampton and Hollywood roads, bears the name American Legion Memorial Home, Inc.

Shores May Be City

July 15—The Shores council, following recommendations by the Grosse Pointe Township Board, has taken under advisement, considerations of plans to incorporate the Village into a city. Three meetings have been held to discuss the course and a letter sent to the Michigan Municipal League in Ann Arbor asking for details on the subject.

July 22—The Farms council unanimously approved the development of the municipal parking lot at the rear of Kercheval, through a special assessment levied against the businessmen on Kercheval. The council turned down a postponement on the hearing, asked so that a study can be made. The businessmen threatened to take the matter to court. The estimated assessment was set at about $28,000.

July 29—Woods officials came out strongly for immediate action to remedy the storm water disposal and sewage problem. The agreement came to a head when contractors' representatives made a plea for the right to use city sewers in improvement developments, and strong public agitation from the council chambers.

Joint Council Meeting

August 5—The councils of the Farms and City held a joint session to discuss the critical water shortage which has plagued the Pointe during a good portion of the summer. The City receives all of its water from the Farms. All the councilmen and the mayors of the two communities attended the meeting.

August 12—The worst fire in five years hit the Pointe when faulty wiring started a blaze in the basement of the Puma Party Time, food specialty shop, on Mack avenue. The fire was not discovered until more than an hour after it had begun. Reliable sources estimated that damages amounted to $18,000.

August 19—At its regular council meeting, the City was informed that lawsuits, pertaining to the operation of the City's refuse dump located in Clinton Township, are pending or being threatened. A member of the Lakepoint Country Club, one of the complainants, is asking for $3,000 in damages, for injuries claimed to have been caused by smoke from the dump. The City contested the case.

Deluge Hits Pointe

August 26—The season's first heavy rainstorm poured down on the Pointe. The Farms, hardest hit, recorded 2.18 inches of downpour within a 40-minute period. The Municipal Hall was swamped with calls from residents who complained of basements being flooded. The rain caused hundreds of dollars in damages.

September 2—A last minute announcement from the office of Dr. James Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, stated that construction on the new Ferry School has reached a point where the school will definitely be open for half day sessions when school opens. It was estimated that by the end of the second month of school, the total enrollment for the entire school system will be about 8,500 students.

Anderson Appointed

September 9—Wendell Anderson of Vendome road, Grosse Pointe industrialist, became the newest Michigan man to join the Eisenhower team. He was appointed by the President to take over the key position of defense adviser to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. In this capacity he becomes special minister under Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, and an aide to Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

September 16—Despite strong opposition and a threatened court fight by Farms businessmen, the Farms council approved a bid to work on the municipal parking lot on the north side of Kercheval, between McMillan and Muir roads. The council approved a bid of $19,438, lowest of four submitted, as the cost for the development of the lot.

School Changes Name

September 23—Approximately 650 students and 63 teachers were on hand when the Grosse Pointe University School, new name of the combined Detroit University-Country Day Schools, opened its doors on schedule. The merger came after the Grosse Pointe Board of Education purchased the Country Day School for the sum of $710,000 to make way for the Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium-Gymnasium.

September 30—After 25 years of on and off discussions, the Farms and the City finally agreed, in principle, to a new boundary line which will be approximately in the middle of Fisher road, from Jefferson to Mack avenues. Fisher road re-

Farms Submits Police Report

Twenty-eight traffic accidents during the month of November resulted in four injuries and $3,653 in damages, a monthly report submitted by Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt showed.

Fines for various types of violations netted the city treasury a total of $630, the report revealed.

The report also showed that the department answered 250 police calls; 131 complaints; issued 151 driver's licenses, 16 chauffeur's licenses, 10 duplicate licenses and made 21 arrests.

Six simple larceny cases were made known and showed a loss of $97, of which $47 was recovered; one grand larceny case showed a loss of $50, which was recovered.

Destruction of property cases numbered 16 with a loss totaling $209, with $6 recovered.

The department handled three juvenile traffic cases and suspended two driver's licenses, one adult and one juvenile.

Five persons were reported missing and six were recovered, one for Detroit; and 26 doors were found open.

On indecent exposure was recorded and one breaking and entering which resulted in a loss of $30.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Persons who appeared before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, December 22, on traffic violation charges, paid heavy fines after they were found guilty.

Graham Coffey of 17185 East Jefferson, accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol, pleaded guilty to reckless driving and was fined a sum of $50.

Viola Lenhagen of 459 LaBelle, stood mute on the charge of speeding 60 miles an hour on East Jefferson. She paid $40 for a fine and costs.

A plea of guilty to speeding 60 miles an hour on Jefferson cost Walter W. Habitz of 20839 Hunt Club, Harper Woods, $30 in fine and costs.

Leon Jackson of 2211 Madison, charged with speeding on Charlevoix, pleaded guilty, and was assessed a fine of $15.

Three other traffic violators who did not appear in court to answer charges forfeited their bonds.

Their names, violation and bond forfeiture are as follows: Beulah M. Calley of 2170 Coplin, Detroit, speeding on Charlevoix, $13; Julius Pollum of 44780 Ryan, Utica, accident on Jefferson, $35; and Elmer Steyskal of 11279 Chalmers, Detroit, speeding on Jefferson, $15.

Commencement Speakers Picked

By Sally DeBolt
G.P.H.S. Journalism Student

Kay Elfes, Bev Harling, and Jay Hooker will be the commencement speakers at the graduation of Grosse Pointe High School's class of January 1955, Thursday evening, January 27. The three seniors will address an audience of parents and the 90 other members of the graduating class.

The speakers were nominated by a vote of the four 12A homerooms, and the final selections were made by a faculty committee.

English teachers Richard Amberg, Stanley Cook and F. B. Nelson, compose the faculty committee sponsoring the speakers.

J. Crawford Frosts Jr. Enjoy Family Visits

It's a real family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., of Merriweather road. On Tuesday their son-in-law and daughter, the Robert H. Kanzlers, arrived from El Paso, Texas, for a short stay. They'll divide their time here, also visiting Mr. Kanzler's father, Ernest Kanzler of Lake Shore road. Then the Frost's daughter, Mrs. Maurice C. Perkins, of Look-out Mountain, Tenn., and her little daughter, Polly, have arrived for a six weeks visit. Mr. Perkins will join his family in February.

Students Plan New Year Dance

By Sally DeBolt
"The New Year's Eve Ball" will be the center of attraction for teen-agers in Grosse Pointe, December 31. Every teen in the high school is invited, and each may bring a guest.

As customary for the New Year's Eve dances, the Roston Clark band will play from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., the special New Year's Eve hours.

The dress is dressy dresses or formal for the girls. Boys may wear dark suits or tuxes. The admission price is $2.50 per couple.

According to school policy, boys are asked not to give their dates corsages and no hags or stags will be admitted.

Jim Blashill and Jane Thompson, S. A. officers, are co-chairmen of the dance. Committee heads include Bill Ross, 12B, decorations; Jean Whitehurst, 12B, publicity; Janet Clark, 12B, refreshments; Carol Roland, 12B, chaperones; and Ron Lucia, 11B, entertainment.

Mr. John Fox, S. A. advisor, noted an expansion in the appropriation of S. A. funds allowed for the dance.

"The money is going into bigger, better, and noisier favors. Showers of confetti will be thrown at midnight. Another addition is dance programs," he said.

Another Year Passes

The Old Man with the Scythe will slice the last page off the 1954 calendar at midnight tomorrow. The blare of horns, shrieking whistles and many a bleary strain of "Auld Lang Syne" will bid farewell to another year as the Infant 1955 is noisily welcomed.

It is a time for retrospect and for a re-setting of sights for anticipated targets.

Nineteen-Fifty-Four has been a good year. The prognosticators of dire developments have failed to see their fateful forebodings materialize. The predicted wave of inflation didn't even reach the proportions of a pebble's ripple in a millpond. President Ike and his administration have made even greater progress than last year in getting the country back on a peacetime economy while maintaining peak prosperity.

We are certainly no nearer war, and if we can believe our experts, its possibilities have been pushed a bit further into the background. Those who should know are advocating a cut in our armed forces, and a long overdue raise in pay for those in service.

Despite all the diplomatic velvet gloving, it is safe to say our voice in the international halls commands just as much attention as ever. The Iron Curtain has been unable to keep silent all the howling within, and the stage across which it is drawn has not been enlarged during the past year. We and our allies have added to our strength, lending additional authority to our warnings to any potential enemy about the futility of starting another war.

Our standard of living, long the highest in the world, has probed new heights. American ingenuity continues to make products which are considered luxuries in other lands, necessities in this favored country. Scientists and medical and surgical wizards have found new ways to keep us healthy and cure maladies formerly considered fatal.

Social security and other benefits have been increased, driving ever further away the fear of encroaching old age and dependence. Insurance coverage has been widened and brought into the scope of more individuals, adding to the comfort borne of the knowledge that more of us can take care of ourselves. We have made further provision for our underprivileged and have added to our capacity to educate our youth.

On top of all these benefits to us as Americans, there is the spiritual reward that comes only to those who are willing to share their possessions with the less fortunate. And every taxpayer in the country belongs in these ranks. We have been able to continue our aid to countries in every corner of the earth. Peoples whose lands and homes have been devastated by war, pestilence, flood and drought have seen our outstretched hands and have been comforted by the help they proffered. Because, thanks to our enviable position, when our hands are outstretched, they are not turned palms upward to receive gifts, but are full of medicine, machinery, money and food to bring relief to the stricken.

The aid we have been able to provide has gone not only to our allies, but to unfortunate peoples everywhere. It has alleviated suffering both physical and mental, and in many instances has done more than provide temporary relief; it has been the means of establishing permanent solutions to acute problems.

This necessity of sharing many problems has produced a closer relationship between neighbors as well as countries. We have seen a most heartening growth in the spirit of co-operation manifest in community as well as national and international undertakings. We have witnessed a great return to religion, accompanied by increased church attendance and a general acknowledgment of the Great Source of all our blessings, and our strength.

This good year of 1954 has given us many reasons to look into the future with keener vision, with the pall of gloom more nearly eliminated. It also offers us many reasons to rededicate ourselves to those concepts whose perpetuation has made this nation great.

We must remain stronger than any adversary which dares to challenge the things we have tested and found right. Our strength must be rooted in mental and spiritual power as well as military might. While doing everything within our capabilities to be self-reliant, and to continually make better provision for our own people, we must always be willing to help those who need help, wherever they may be.

Pledging ourselves again to a relentless adherence to these tenets prescribed by our country's founders, and followed by all who have contributed to its continued growth in grandeur, we can look with confidence over the threshold of another year.

"They'd knock on a tree and timidly say
To the Spirit who might be within there that day;
Fairy fair, Fairy fair, wish thou me well;
Against evil/witcheries weave me a spell."

"And 'en to this day is the practice made good
When to ward off disaster, we knock upon wood."
(Nora Smith)

Well, gentle readers, it's all behind us for another year except for the brief welcoming in of 1955. All the criticisms of what we got or didn't get for Christmas are once again behind us and all the wrong presents have gone back to the unhappy stores from whence they came! The things that were too big (or too small), the things that were the wrong color, the things that didn't open or wouldn't close and the mechanical things whose battery didn't work. All have been dumped upon the weary salesmen and we can settle back to make our resolutions about NEXT year... such as we will be danged if we will break our necks to shop for something special for cousin Tillie's family if they continue to send us the junk they have sent for the past few years! Also we will be darned if we send the Hoopencrickles a Christmas card again next year unless they send us one; on the other hand we shall resolve to make it a point to send cards to the dozens of people who send them to us each year... and who, we always forget until it's too late. (In fact the first ten cards one always receives are from people one has not sent any to!) Another of our decisions will be to shop earlier next year... say in July... and start wrapping immediately so there won't be that last minute rush of packaging and forgotten gifts. Oh, yes, we'll resolve all right and that will be about the end of it.

Before we leave NEW YEAR'S resolutions... we think it only fair to share our's with column readers. Our first and foremost resolution is to hop over the head the first person who says "ARTHUR-RITUS" as if it were someone's name! Ditto for "Ath-a-lete" and "Detroy-it." Other than that... our resolutions are rather calm in feeling. We shall resolve not to eat spinach, parsnips or mushrooms (all of which we abhor) and we shall NOT suffer through a series of prize fights and football on t.v... just because the man in our life has to witness them. He can get his own t.v set. We shall try to get our column in on time to keep ye olde Editor from getting gray hair before his time... and we shall try to personally thank all the nice people who have been kind enough to write us in appreciation of our literary efforts. So there... and a Happy New Year to you all.

We've always suspected that our local representatives in Washington were asked to perform some pretty silly tasks for the folks back home, but we think this is the top. On Christmas day, while Senator Estes Kefauver and his wife and children were trying to enjoy their gifts AND their day, the doorbell rang and Estes was told a Major Soandso wished to see him. He asked the young man in... and the latter launched into the following:

He announced that his family voted in Texas but he and his wife voted in Tennessee. Then he added that he had come because neither he nor his wife had been able to sleep nights since they were told by the manager of the apartment where they lived, that they would have to get rid of their dog or move. He wanted Kefauver to go see the manager and talk him into letting the dog stay!

All Kefauver's family looked at each other with blank stares... but Estes put his hat and coat on, got in the car and WENT to call on the manager. It was a fruitless visit, since the man explained it was a rule of the apartment house and what could he do? But HOW DO YOU LIKE THAT? It would have taken a derrick and two men in white coats to get US to go on an errand like that on Christmas morning. That guy DESERVES votes!

To get back to Christmas again, we got a remote control for our t.v set that is more fun than a picnic... which isn't any fun at all, of course! You just sit in bed (if you've set in the bedroom, that is) and if you don't like "The Covered Wagon" on channel 2 you just press a button on your night table and switch to channel something else. You can also stop the snow and the lines and the quivering or whatever other extraneous material you get on the screen... and when you're tired of the whole thing you turn it off without moving out of the bed.

Maybe this isn't good for us... since the only exercise we get is running to and from the t.v set. Between fingeritis from typing and wristitis from turning the dials, we're in fine shape. ANYWAY... it is a dandy gift, especially for someone who is bedridden for always or temporarily.

Another gift we received was a large carton of old mystery stories... pocket edition variety. Sounds pretty silly off hand... but we've missed reading most of them, so for a mystery story fan, it means a field-winner for us. That's another resolution we are making... to put off reading "The Fall of the Roman Empire"... "Indian Art of the United States"... and "The Complete Works of Shakespeare" until 1956. They've been sitting around for quite a while now... so we don't think they'll mind another year or two.

Our beau got a pair of woolen, ELECTRIC socks for Christmas. This has to be seen to be believed. He gave us a dress parade in same and all we can say is we're glad we're a female. They are heavy wool and stop just under the knee. What looks like a hundred different wires dangle from them here and there and in a bread-box size leather case are two batteries... one for each leg. This contraption is fastener around the waist... so the box hangs someplace in the vicinity of the lower stomach! The various wires run down the legs into the socks and... Aw, shucks, this is taking too long.

What Goes On
Your Library

By Jean Taylor

(Note: This week's column is written by Robert M. Orr, Director of Libraries.)

Early in 1949, Joseph L. Wheeler, Baltimore Public Library Head, wrote of Grosse Pointe that he considered it one of the most ideal library-use communities in America. With the closing of 1954, it is good to be able to report that Mr. Wheeler's predictions are coming true.

During the Public Library's Silver Anniversary year, new library use records were set. Without going into statistical evaluation, however impressive, we can report that one-third of our community's residents are registered library users, compared to a national average of one-fourth; that 290,000 books and library materials were checked out during the past year, five per capita for every Grosse Pointe resident; and that the increased use is primarily by adult users, a most encouraging trend.

The most important library event for 1954 was the Friends of the Library Silver Anniversary Dinner at which Dr. Samuel Brownell was the featured speaker, and also high-lighted by appropriate recognition of the library's two twenty-five year veterans, Mrs. Helen Finster and Miss Jean A. Taylor.

Incidentally, Miss Taylor's column is receiving increasing recognition in library circles. Only recently we received a comment on it from Los Angeles. The writer is happy indeed that both of these remarkable librarians have many years of public service ahead of them.

Our staff is increasingly proud of our Friends group—their pride in the library, their enthusiasm, their growing numbers, their wonderful contributions to the library, and their intelligent and sustained interest in the library's development.

With 650 members during 1954, and a goal of 1,000 for '55, under the able leadership of Mr. C. T. Ballantyne, membership chairman, the group is making great progress. Secretary Melitta E. Roemer reports that well over 250 have been turned in as of this writing, a wonderful start.

Another of 1954's highlights has been the gifts that have substantially added to the library's book collections. Through the Friends, over $5,000 worth of books have been added, including a fine group of art books given by Mrs. William J. Young, a collection given in honor of Miss Florence Severs, and a gift of foreign-language books for student use by the Mothers' Club.

Exchange Clubs
To Hold Parley

The Midwest Conference of Exchange Clubs of Michigan will be held on Saturday, January 15, at the Hotel Olds in Lansing.

Members of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club who plan to attend are asked to contact Morrie DeFour or Bob Betzing, to inform the two if they plan to go with them or use their own cars.

Diabetic Detection

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

You may be one of the many unknown diabetics. It is estimated that there are at least a million in the United States.

Diabetes can be controlled by the use of insulin, and of course the sooner it is detected the easier it is to control. With the use of insulin diabetics live long and normal lives.

A simple test reveals diabetes. It is worth your time now to have it made.

Whenever medicine is necessary to your health, you will find a conscientious pharmacist genuinely interested in supplying your needs.

Reception at Country Club Follows Nuptials

Jean Howenstein, Daughter of the Harry Baron Howenstein, Speaks Vows With James B. Robertson in St. Paul's On The Lake Shore; to Live in Brooklyn

Attention turned to brides on Tuesday when Jean Howenstein and James B. Robertson exchanged vows at a noon ceremony.

The wedding took place in St. Paul's on the Lake Shore following which the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baron Howenstein, of Vendome road, entertained guests at a reception in the Country Club of Detroit.

Mr. Robertson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carlisle Robertson of Cleveland and Woodstock, Va.

Jean was a lovely bride in robes of antique ivory satin trimmed in family heirloom rose-point lace.

The slim basque bodice, with long sleeves and graceful neckline, swelled into a great skirt ending in cathedral length train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion fell from a cap of the same rosepoint and she carried fleurs d'amour and gardenias in her bridal bouquet.

Honor attendants were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Roger Wolcott Hull and Beth Howenstein.

Their velvet frocks were of fantasy green velvet and on their heads they wore wreaths of tiny bows in matching velvet.

They carried Eucharist lilies and variegated ivy.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Where did it go, that 1954? And what do we remember of it now that a New Year approaches? Well, hitting the higher spots, there was January . . . Party-weary Pointers were heading South, and Dan Holley, Harley G. Hoggie, Jr., and Bud Taylor looked at it a different way and left for Kitzbuhel and skiing in Austria while friends at home held their breath with each new headline about the snow avalanches in Austria and nearby Switzerland. . . . Adele Huebner wrote a letter to the new vice-president of the United States, Richard Nixon, which was to be answered with offer of a place on Mr. Nixon's staff. . . . and there she is now. . . . Mrs. Richard M. Jackson and Gaylord Gillis, Jr., were married in Grosse Pointe Memorial. . . . and Arthur Godfrey and Julius La Boss put humility into the nation's vocabulary. . . .

Cecil Beaton Wowed 'Em

February rolled around and one of the prettiest brides was Mrs. Reynolds Morris who became Mrs. Nelson McCormick. . . . The travelers were preferring Otsego, Sun Valley, Aspen. . . . and Christ Church, Grosse Pointe announced the date of its 1954 Christmas Fair. . . . Cecil Beaton came to Fisher Theater Town Hall and wowed the ladies again at a luncheon in the Country Club. . . . They adored the cut of his English suit. . . . Johanne Kronenberg, major domo for Ed Chaffin when he was a bachelor and after his marriage, returned from his job in Hollywood (where he is major domo for Eugene O'Brien) and threw a birthday party for his former boss complete with a rum cake that put everyone Johanne invited to the party (oh, yes, he had complete say of the whole affair) on an eighteen year diet. . . .

Spring tonic

In March, everyone started to buy a share in the Detroit Symphony. . . . and April brought Mrs. Jewett Dwyer (now in Cuba) home from a Havana visit with U.S. Ambassador to Cuba and Mrs. Arthur Gardner. . . . She brought back a treasure recipe for chocolate mousse and still is keeping the "how" a secret. . . . The Art Founders Society of Detroit Institute of Arts gave a reception to open the exhibit of the Anna Scripps Whitcomb and Edgar B. Whitcomb Bequest. . . . Their daughter, Mrs. A. D. Wilkinson and son, James Scripps Whitcomb, were presented with leather-bound catalogs picturing and describing the magnificent gifts.

Picks Winner Again

It was May and teen ager Gloria Cashin picked the Derby Winner for the fifth straight year. . . . One of society's love-hat debs, Lydia Buhl, was married in St. Patrick's at New York, to Ensign Frederick Melhado. . . . and Pointers were crowding the new wood paneled room at Al Green's. . . . Sammy Chapin changed from bridesmaid gown to flying gear and piloted the private plane which carried sister, Marian.

Karla Behr Is Bride Of J. D. Standish, III

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Behr, of Bishop Road, Weds Son of James D. Standishes Jr. at Candelight Ceremony In Christ Church, Grosse Pointe

Huge white cathedral tapers, garlanded in smilax, lighted the center aisle of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Wednesday evening for the wedding of Karla Behr and James D. Standish III.

Karla is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Behr, of Bishop road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Standish Jr. of Iroquois avenue.

A reception of the Country Club of Detroit was given by the bride's parents after the church service.

A bridal gown of candlelight Italian silk with re-embroidered finger lace outlining the neckline, was worn by the bride.

It was a dazzling gown with its long, tight sleeves, molded Empire waistline and tremendous skirt which draped to chapel train at back.

Side paniers, adding to the bouffant effect of the skirt, were draped in applied antique lace, flecked with pearls and Karla's full length bridal veil of candlelight silk illusion was held in place by a capulet of rose point lace.

She carried a round bouquet of white stephanotis surrounding white orchids.

Barbara Leonard was maid of honor with the bridesmaids including Betsy Chesbrough, Pamela Sattley, Judith Mann, Jean Bahr, Jeanne Whittaker, Barbara Standish, sister of the bridegroom; Margaret Kelsey Jones of Columbus, O., and Lynn Hansen of Kenilworth, Ill. The last two were classmates of the bride at Bennett Junior College.

All wore identical gowns of pale aqua taffeta with full, waitz length skirts. Tucked taffeta formed the brief sleeves and fitted bodices and narrow velvet sashes encircled waistlines.

The attendants wore tiny chapeaux of pink rosebuds with pink velvet loops and their flowers were bouquets of all pink rosebuds.

Miss Leonard, as honor attendant, carried pink rosebuds with center nosegay of sweetheart roses.

Charles H. Whitelaw, Jr., performed duties of the best man for Mr. Standish, whose ushers were:

John H. Murphy II, Garey T. Symington, Benjamin J. Chapman III, George B. Whitehead, Hal H. Smith III, Michael C. Murphy, Robert Hudson Kanzler and Jack A. Moses.

Deb's Tartans Worn By Ushers at Dance

Dress and Hunting Tartans of the Frazer Clan Color Chest Sashes Donned by Usher at Venetian Ball Presenting Leslie Frazer DeVoy and Jean Lynwood Cudlip

A dozen Pointe bachelors served as ushers at the Venetian Ball given Tuesday evening in the Little Club to present Leslie Frazer DeVoy and Jean Lynwood Cudlip.

It was easy to distinguish the ushers, for over their shirt fronts they wore wide silk court ribbons in the Frazer tartan.

Nicholas Ruwe, cousin of deb Leslie, and Jean's brother, Bill, as head ushers were marked with ribbons in the Frazer dress plaid, a vivid combination of red and green.

Wide chest sashes of the Frazer hunting tartan, in brown and green, were donned by William Jansen, John Wright Watling III, Thomas Mackey, Richard Sutherland, Emmett Tracy, Jr., Frederick Fisher, Edward Lambrecht, Robert Howenstein, Miles O'Brien Jr. and Charles Thomas Cudlip.

The beautiful ball was given by Leslie's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe, of Willow Lane, and Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cudlip of Lake Shore road.

As the hour neared 11 o'clock, Pointers stepped from the Winter night into a Venetian garden. A thousand deep red roses perfumed the rooms.

They bloomed in silver containers atop golden pedestals in the ballroom, appeared in profusion on the sun porch where the receiving line formed.

The first exciting glimpse of the Venetian decor came in the club's main foyer where tailored trees, done in the European manner, were sprayed in gold and trimmed in twisted garlands of pink and deep red carnations. These gave way to fluffy pink cotton candy trees alive with pink rosebuds and golden leaves.

Glorious gowns of white tulle designed in Paris by Lanvin, with tremendous skirts and sculptured strapless bodices were worn by the debutantes.

Mrs. Ruwe was in black tulle bal gown, its great skirt widened by hoops and trimmed in swags of black tulle and black satin bows.

Leslie's mother, Miss Virginia DeVoy, wore glistening black satin bal gown, its off shoulder neckline falling into tight elbow length sleeves. The wide skirt was floor touching.

Mrs. Cudlip received the guests in black Swiss net bal gown combined with draped bodice of dramatic black and gold Roman brocade. A deep bustle poufed at the back of the great skirt.

Under the candlelight, only the crimson roses relieved the stunning black and white effect created by the costumes of the receiving line.

In the ballroom, formal hedges of greenery added to the garden effect and lead figures of gods and goddesses (Diane, Venus, Neptune and Jupiter) atop gold pedestals lent a classic touch.

Definitely one of the gayest balls of the debutante season, it was very late when guests left the ballroom floor to breakfast in the club's Marine Room.

The gold and pink of Venetian glassware touched breakfast tables and a second orchestra, composed of Hungarian gypsies, filled the night with Viennese waltzes on their magic violins.

Karla Behr

taffeta chapeau. Mrs. Behr pinned pink spray orchid on her handbag.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Standish was gowned in cafe au lait lace-shadowed satin with small beige satin hat trimmed in bronze veiling. Her bronze spray orchids also were pinned to her purse.

The young Standishes left their reception for the flight to Jamaica and their two week wedding trip.

The bride traveled in a three-piece brown tweed suit, the crisp white blouse embroidered in her new initials. A rust toned hat complemented rust colored accessories.

Stork Gives Aid To Santa Claus

Many Pointe families received the best Christmas gift of all this year, with the able assistance of Bon Secours Hospital.

Patricia Texter Is Bride-Elect

Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Texter entertained at a Sunday open house to announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Ensign David Jean Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bruce Palmer, Jr., formerly of Grosse Pointe and now of St. Clair Shores.

Patricia, who teaches speech and dramatics at Grosse Pointe University School is a graduate of Liggett School and the University of Michigan. At Michigan she was a member of Scroll, Zeta Phi Eta and Chi Omega.

She was presented to society at a dance in the Detroit Athletic Club the season of 1951.

Ensign Palmer, now stationed at Indianhead, Mr., is a graduate of Detroit University School, attended Carleton College in Northfield, Minn., and received his degree from Wayne University. He is a member of Delta Sigma Chi.

Ensign Palmer was home on Christmas leave for the announcement party.

Mrs. Robert Insley, Jr.

ALEXANDRA SHEILA-KEYES FINDLAY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Findlay, became the bride of Robert Insley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Insley, on Tuesday, December 28, at an 8 p.m. candlelight service at St. Michael's Episcopal Church.

The clergyman who officiated is the bride's uncle, the Very Reverend Harold M. Keyes (Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Green Bay, Wis.). He was assisted by the Reverend Edgar H. Yeoman, rector of St. Michael's.

A reception for the immediate family and friends followed in St. Michael's Church Parlor.

The bride wore a gown of white Italian silk fashioned in a princess style with a voluminous skirt falling into a chapel sweep. The portrait neckline was outlined with a seed pearl motif. She wore a two-tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion (seed pearls and crystals encrusted the crown of rosepoint lace), and carried white heather, flown from Scotland by the bride's uncle, attached to a mother of pearl antique prayer book, which had been first carried by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding.

The bridal attendants wore princess style opera length gowns of white antique silk with headpieces made of flat velvet bows attached to garlands of dark green holly. The maid of honor wore green satin slippers and carried a bouquet of variegated dark green holly, while the bridesmaids wore crimson satin slippers to match the velvet bows in their headpieces.

Miss Joan Kay Cunningham was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Sally Bryan Dudley, Joanne Corine Kraimer, Kay Jeanette Foster, and Joan Louise Berry. Wendy Glanz and Georgi Ann Frye, wearing white taffeta Kate Greenway frocks with dark green velvet sashes, carrying miniature bouquets of dark green holly, were the flower girls.

The bridegroom's brother, Gordon Earle Insley, was best man,

Joan Dryden Is Engaged

John Rodger Dryden, of Roosevelt place, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Joan, to Myron Roy May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert May of Anita avenue.

Joan graduated from Grosse Pointe Country Day School, Colby Junior College and is attending Northwestern University where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Myron, who graduated from Detroit University School, is studying at Michigan State College.

Howard Moses Wed 40 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morse of North Renaud road, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Friday afternoon, December 24, with the help of 20 relatives and friends, in the Paris Room of the Hotel Staler.

A quiet evening was spent at home with the guests, which included two of four grandchildren.

The Moses, who have lived in the Pointe for the past five years, were married in Mansfield, O., in 1914, and moved to Detroit soon after the wedding ceremony.

Dance Honors Ginger Martin

That dashing young sub deb, Diane "Ginger" Martin changed favorite riding togs for a pink net and satin dancing frock on the evening of Dec. 22 to greet almost a hundred of her young friends at a dance in the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

The party honoring Ginger was given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Martin of Berkshire road.

Ginger is a student at Knox School. Incidentally, we were serious about those riding togs and you'll believe us when we tell you Diane even takes her favorite horse to boarding school with her.

"Mr. Kelly" is a well known jumper at the events in and about St. James, Long Island where Knox is located.

Mrs. Martin received her daughter's guests in a pink tissue taffeta gown at the Hunt Club party.

Among those enjoying the fun at Ginger's party were Ann McCauley, Linda Denton, Susan Mulford, Carole Henry, Krystyn Glancy, Pat Fredericks, Eleanor Jacobson, Helen Ecclestone, Susan Gillis, Carolyn Jacobson, Pamela Henry, Mary Frances Jones, Joan Hill, Lisbeth McElenny, Alice Aagons, Virginia Schneek, Jean Doderhoff, Joan Osrein, Cherry Powers, Ann Woodruff, Ann Forester, Betty Zimmerman, Judy Ollison, Julie Cudlip, Sally McHenry, Shirley Stumm, Ingrid Cornelius, Judy Baldwin, Susan Stapleton, Julie Schneek, Patsy Standart, Marilyn Martin, Barbara Bishop, Charlene McHugh, Carol Williams.

Chrissie Watling Bows At Home Tea Dansant

Mrs. Charles Beecher Warren Jr. Gives Tea Dansant in Lake Shore Road Home to Introduce Her Debutante Daughter, Christine Watling; Receive in Great Hall

Cars inched up the long driveway to the Lake Shore road home of Mrs. Charles Beecher Warren, Jr., on Tuesday afternoon, depositing gay young folks bound to meet Mrs. Warren's debutante daughter, Christine Watling.

Lake St. Clair stretched in to an icy ribbon at the foot of the deep lawns at the Warrens, but inside there was a Winter-defying decor of gold and white blossoms.

Gold sprayed magnolias, tremendous urns of white azaleas, white cyclamen and pink and white poinsettias bloomed against the rich wood paneled rooms of the graceful old home.

Mrs. Warren and Chrissie stood at one end of the great hall to receive their guests. At their backs was a handsome antique Japanese screen in gold with bronze-green and rose tinted scene. It was brought from Japan by the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Warren when Mr. Warren was U. S. Ambassador to that country.

Flanking the receiving line were sprayed gold magnolias and white azaleas. Tall candelabrum held white tapers for the tea dansant. The debutante wore an opera length frock of oyster white silk brocade embroidered in monotone rose pattern. The slim bodice had fat little push-up sleeves and the skirt of the frock was very full.

Chrissie carried yellow spray orchids and ivy, the gift of her uncle, William Watling of California. Mrs. Warren met her guests in cloth of metal gown, waltz length, imprinted in pencil-toned dots of blue, silver and gold.

The great hall opens onto the living room and morning room of the home. In the former the young set danced to a gay orchestra and in the morning room several friends of the debutante's mother sipped punch and admired this year's crop of deb.

Chrissie's ushers, all of whom wore white carnation boutonnieres, included: Her brother, John Wright Watling III, Fred Fisher, John Stroh, Jerry Goetz, Walter Fisher, Peter Connolly, Henry Earl, Louis A. Fisher, Jr., William P. Fisher, Jr., Rusty Muirhead, Paul Marden, Michael A. Murphy, Bill Howenstein and Joe Hefferan.

On Sunday evening, Chrissie and December debs Joan Robinson and Pamela Waterman were honored at cocktails and a supper party in Murray Dodge at his home in Dyer lane. For the party, Chrissie wore a black felt frock applied in pale pink strawberries and light green leaves.

Pam's black velvet bodice, with low, round neckline, had flaring skirt of black and white taffeta plaid.

Joan was in black velvet with an all-over pattern of tiny red, blue and white blossoms.

Also at the Dodge supper party were Elizabeth Remick, Kittie Smith, Virginia Evans, Larry Higbie, Jim Campbell, Don Finley and Bill Hickey.

A Luncheon for Debs Marks Double Curtsey

Margaret Elizabeth Reeves and Caroline Maccoun Graves Bow at Luncheon Debut in Home of Former's Grandmother, Mrs. Charles Andrew Kanter of Maumee Avenue

Debutantes of this December, those of June '55 and members of last June's graduating class of Grosse Pointe Country Day School were invited to the luncheon at which Margaret Elizabeth Reeves and Caroline Maccoun Graves bowed to society Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Andrew Kanter, grandmother of debutante Margaret, opened her Maumee avenue home for the debut and received with the girls and their mothers.

Holiday greens formed background for the party and a tall white Christmas tree was trimmed in all pink baubles for the afternoon.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Reeves of McKinley road, was pretty in a winter white sheer wool outfit, the sweater bodice finished with Peter Pan collar twinkling with beads.

Caroline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Graves of Cambridge road, donned a frock of sheer aqua wool designed with full skirt, and simple bodice finished with tiny round collar and pearl buttons down the front.

Both girls wore pink rosebud corsages.

Mrs. Kanter chose for the luncheon-debut, a frock of plum taffeta and her flowers were pink camellias.

Mrs. Reeves' soft black taffeta dress had small white Peter Pan collar and Mrs. Graves was in taupe sheer wool. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of Eucharist lilies.

For the buffet luncheon, the table was covered with embroidered Italian cloth and centered by an arrangement of pink and white shattered carnations.

The afternoon's debs, who have been friends since their earliest school days, will return to college after the first of the year.

Margaret studies at Lake Erie College in Painesville, O., and will leave the Pointe next Monday.

Caroline is a student at Bradford Junior College and her classes begin again next Tuesday.

Festivities for the debutante set draws to a close today (Thursday). This afternoon Mrs. James A. Remick is giving a reception and tea for her daughter, Elizabeth, at the family home on Ridge road. Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Pierre Fuger will present her daughter, Mary Page Fuger, at a reception in their home on Mariweather road.

This evening, Mrs. John H. French and Mr. and Mrs. John H. French, Jr., will be hosts at a dance at Twin Gates, the Lake Shore road home of the senior Mrs. French, honoring debutantes of the season Pamela Waterman and Mary Page Fuger.

A Trio of Debutantes Introduced to Society

Silver and Green Christmas Tree Dance Given at Little Club To Present Debutantes Joan Robinson, Pamela Waterman And Virginia Evans; Parents Are Hosts

There were three debutantes to interest society last Thursday evening when Joan Robinson, Virginia Evans and Pamela Waterman made their bows at a dance in the Little Club given by their parents.

The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Robinson, of Dyar lane; Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Evans, Jr., of Oldbrook lane, and Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Waterman III, of Touraine road.

Guests, many of whom had attended a dinner at the Country Club earlier for last June's deb, Kim Henry and June '55 deb, Jill Schneider (hosts were the Lijwy Ecclestons, the Robert McKens and the Carsten Tiedemanns), were greeted by a silvery scene at the Evans-Robinson-Waterman dance.

This was achieved with frosty white Christmas trees in which green and white lights twinkled, gauze swags carrying out the color scheme in archways and at windows all flickering with tiny lights, and giant snowflakes and shiny green balls dancing in the chandeliers.

The debs all wore white. Joan Robinson's white tulle and satin gown was strapless. Pamela Waterman was in white net, its bouffant skirt fashioned with bands of palest blue alternating with white.

Virginia Evans' white net gown twinkled with brilliant clips that caught puffs of the material in the great skirt.

All the debutantes carried bouquets of pink camellias.

Mrs. Evans wore a gown of sea foam green satin with slim skirt. Mrs. Waterman chose for the evening, apricot tissue taffeta gown and Mrs. Robinson's gray-blue peau de soie gown was finished with puffed effect at the waistline.

Each debutante had five ushers for the coming-out dance.

Leonard Smith, Earl Stewart, Jr., Paul Marden, Ted Loud and Fred Duffield were ushers chosen by Virginia.

Joan's list included Peter Fink, Louis A. Fisher, Jr., Jose Buell, Walter Fisher and Peter Fink.

Bob Hovewstein, Robin Beebe, Russell McNair, David Hamilton and Jerry Bourke made up Pam's usher list.

The young set danced till far into the morning and then stopped long enough for breakfast in the Marine Room of the Little Club.

Here blue cloths covered the small tables, each of which was centered with tri-tiered golden epergne filled with Christmas tree ornaments and Christmas confections.

Glamour Expert To Give Lecture

Can you have glamour after forty? Yes indeed and most assuredly, the "after forty" woman can be a real "glamour girl" providing, of course, one uses the natural gifts of health, looks and the "know how" the average woman possesses; a little caution here—you cannot have teenage ideas in clothing or thinking after forty; now is the time to be well groomed in mind as well as in appearance; to develop new ideas, new interests, the "new outlook", then all the charm and allure that are so much a part of intelligent maturity are within reach of every modern minded woman whatever her age.

Margaret Sherwood, who is the author of such intriguing articles as "Simple Rules Can Change Your Life," "Building a Better Personality," and "Glamour After Forty," is an authority on the subject because she typifies what she teaches.

Notice of Ordinance Adoption

Code No. 8-04, Park Ordinance

Ordinance No. 113

An ordinance to provide for the control, maintenance and operation of the public parks of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, and to repeal Ordinances No. 71 and 72.

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms ordains:

- The maintenance, operation, alteration, improvement, equipment and use of the public parks of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms shall at all times be subject to the control of the City Council.
- The City Council may:
 - Determine the hours at which the parks, or any of them, shall be open for public use.
 - Provide a system of permits for admission to the parks, or any of them, and for the use of boat mooring spaces and other park facilities; and require applications for such permits and prescribe forms therefor; and provide for the suspension or revocation of such permits for improper use of park facilities, untrue statements in applications for permits, improper use of permits, or other cause.
 - Establish regulations for the launching, mooring and use of boats; for the parking of automobiles, bicycles and other vehicles; for the use of docks, piers, platforms, bathhouses, lockers, buildings and other facilities; for fishing, swimming, bathing, picnicking, games and sports; and for other uses of the parks and park facilities; and may fix fees and charges for the use of any park facility.
 - Establish such other regulations as the City Council may deem necessary or advisable to protect and further the safe and proper use and enjoyment of the public parks, by persons entitled thereto.
- The public parks of the City shall be open for use only by bona fide residents of the City and persons owning property in the City. Limited provisions may be made, by regulation, for the use of the parks by guests of residents or property owners when accompanied by residents or property owners.
- No person while in or about the parks of the City shall engage in any conduct threatening, endangering or impairing the safety, health or comfort of others, or shall indulge in profane or indecent language, or any improper or indecent conduct, or any unduly boisterous or offensive conduct of any character.
- The City Council may make leases or other arrangements for the sale of food, drink and other articles in the City parks, on fixed establishments, or vehicles, or otherwise, under such terms and conditions and subject to such rents, fees, terms, conditions and restrictions as the Council may determine for the safety, health, comfort and enjoyment of the public.
- All persons using the public parks shall be liable to the City for all loss and damage to public property resulting from such use. The City shall not be responsible or liable for any loss or damage to any person or property arising from the maintenance or operation of the public parks, except as it may expressly assume such liability by contract.
- Any person violating any provision of this ordinance or any rule or regulation hereunder shall upon conviction be subject to a fine of not more than $100.00 or imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the court. Each act of violation and every day upon which the violation shall occur shall constitute a separate offense.
- The following ordinances are hereby repealed: Ordinance No. 71, adopted April 3, 1945, entitled "AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE USE OF THE VILLAGE PIER, BATHING FACILITIES, PARKING AND RECREATIONAL GROUNDS, AND TO PUNISH VIOLATIONS THEREOF AND TO REPEAL ORDINANCE NO. 54"; Ordinance No. 72, adopted April 3, 1945, entitled "AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE USE BY BOATS OF THE VILLAGE PIER, DOCK AND HARBOR FACILITIES, TO PROVIDE CHARGES THEREFOR AND PUNISH VIOLATIONS THEREOF."
- If any provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby.
- This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after its enactment or upon publication, which ever is later.

Devils Stage Fast Finish To Defeat Mt. Clemens, 49-45

Coach Howard MacAdam's surprising Blue Devil basketball team chalked up its third consecutive victory of the young 1954-55 season last Tuesday, December 21, when they squeezed past Mount Clemens on the Bathers' home court.

As in the Fordson contest, the Blue Devils were hard pressed to win and were forced to stage a Frank Merriwell finish in the closing seconds of play to eke out a 49 to 45 victory.

When Grosse Pointe started its winning drive it trailed by a lone point. Baskets by Hal Sommerfeld and Denny McGinty broke the Bathers back and a 45 to 45 tie in the last two minutes of play.

Johnny Russell, the star who will be lost to the Devils after graduation this January, paced the Pointers with 19 points for individual game honors.

Tom Barry, the lad who starred in the Devils' win over Fordson a week ago, found the going a little tougher when it became his lot to guard the Bathers' high scoring star. As the result Barry had to be satisfied with the distinction of being the Devils' defensive star.

The victory vaulted the Pointers into ninth place in the state rankings and many Devil fans are still wondering if this cage team is being blessed like coach Ed Werner's football team which earned the State Class A title.

Even coach MacAdam is slightly bewildered over the remarkable success his team is enjoying at present. After all pre-season dope figured the Pointers to be just spoilers inasmuch as the team is comprised of mostly reserve players from the 1953-54 squad. Only Russell and Barry are veterans from last year's quintet which won 3 and lost 10 over the regular season and was dumped from Regional tournament play in the very first round.

The veteran-like performance of Sommerfeld and McGinty in the fading seconds of the Mount Clemens contest may be just what the doctor ordered to make the Pointers a serious contender in Border Cities League play and for State recognition next March.

Bowling Loop Race Is Close

DeRonne's team rolled over a slumping Adam-Simms team for four big points last Thursday night to hold their one point margin over Barrett's in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League.

Barrett's captured four points from the City Class five to remain one point from the top.

Next week will be position night and the last night of the league's split season. Barrett will be pitted against the DeRonne team to determine the champion of the first half.

The Bruce Wigle five are only two points away from the top and still have a mathematical chance to tie for the championship.

Joe Hobbs held the scoring honors for the night with a 636 series on games of 215, 223 and 188. Right behind was Andy Carroll with a 606 series on games of 181, 194 and 231.

paving will be undertaken and new curbs installed at a cost of about $86,200, which will be shared equally by the two cities. The existing boundary came about when the Farms broke away from the Village of Grosse Pointe back in 1890.

More Torrential Rains

October 7—For the fourth time in a little more than a month, torrential rains poured down on the Pointe, the heaviest in 29 years. Official sources disclosed that 3.6 inches of rainfall deluged the area the like of which has not struck the Pointe since July 1, 1925, when five inches of rain fell. The basements of Farms homes and stores were again flooded, causing considerable damage.

October 14—Polio claimed its first victim of the year in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods District. Dead from the disease was Mrs. Marion Nimke, 34, of Harper Woods, mother of four children. She succumbed in Herman Keifer Hospital where she had been placed in an iron lung. Harper Woods also reported the only polio death the previous year.

October 21—The Woods and Harper Woods councils jointly approved resolutions which would authorize construction of a sewer to serve both communities and possibly two neighbor cities. The project, estimated to be a five to six million-dollar job, is badly needed by the cities to carry off surface waters.

Farms Wins Fight
October 28—After a three-year battle, the Farms finally convinced the Wayne County Road

Commission that a traffic light is necessary at Moross and Chalfonte. The County, which conducted its own survey, maintained that the light was not needed, but after the Grosse Pointe University School opened, traffic increased and the light was authorized.

November 4—The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils won the "Blue Chip" football game and captured the school's first Border Cities League football title by trouncing the Fordson Eleven by 45 to 19. As of this date, the 1954 Blue Devils have equalled the 1931 team. Fort Huron remains to be beaten before the Devils can wear the crown as the season's unbeaten team.

Devils Win State Crown
November 11—More than 4,500 Pointers saw Coach Warner's Blue Devil juggernaut smash its way to an overwhelming 53 to 12 victory over Port Huron, to win the State Grid Crown. By winning the crown and other titles which go with being an unbeaten team, the Devils became the greatest football team in the history of Grosse Pointe High School.

November 18—The latest report submitted by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, showed that the Woods edged out the Park to become the largest Pointe community. The Woods made a gain of 5,219 residents since 1950, bringing its total to 15,600. The Park, which had a total of 13,075 population in 1950, made a gain of 1,525 since then, making its present total 14,600.

November 25—William H. Lange, appointed as the Woods' new City Administrator on October 11 to succeed Ray MacArthur who resigned to take a post with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, formally took office at a swearing in ceremony. The new Administrator resigned a similar post in Marysville, Mich., to take over the job in the Woods.

Zip Guns Confiscated
December 2—Woods police announced a crackdown on youngsters who carry "zip guns." Police uncovered the fact that many teenagers have been shooting and carrying guns, single shots, made from toy cap pistols. Seven boys, whose ages range from 13 to 15 have been arrested in the matter. Police said others will be caught.

December 9—The Woods council approved the establishment of 11 special assessment districts and the selling of bonds to raise money to pave the remaining unpaved streets in the city. It was revealed at a public hearing that $289,000 will be needed for the project. Two resolutions were passed effecting the sale of the bonds, one for $204,000 the share which must be paid by the property owners of the assessment district, and the other for $85,000, to be paid by the city.

Water Plans Approved
December 16—The State Department of Health officially approved plans which entail the building of two open filter beds at the Farms pumping station in Lake Shore road. A construction permit will be issued to the city when final engineering plans are submitted. The cost of the project has been estimated at approximately $250,000, as compared to the $450,000 estimated for new filters enclosed within a building.

December 23—The Goodfellows of Grosse Pointe have lived up to their name by donating $500 to the soldiers stationed at the Army Anti-Aircraft Artillery camps located in the Pointe. The donation was made to insure the success of the Christmas parties which the soldiers give to the underprivileged children in the area. The idea of parties for the orphans was conceived the previous year by the soldiers stationed at the camps.

Insurance Firm Unites Pointers

The formation of Grow-Summer-Englebert Agencies, effective January 1, brings together five well known Grosse Pointe insurance men.

Homer Warren and Company, which since 1884 has been a leading Real Estate and Insurance firm, will remain in the General Real Estate business. The Insurance Agency of Homer Warren and Company will be owned and operated by Grow-Summer-Englebert Agencies.

J. Alfred Grow, Jr. and Robert J. Grow, who were officers and directors of Homer Warren and Company, will bring to the new firm their experience in the insurance agency field.

The Grow family is well known in Agency circles and this is the third generation in this business. J. Alfred Grow, Jr. is the president of the Detroit Association of Insurance Agents. Mr. E. S. Englebert, who has been with Homer Warren and Company for twenty-two years, also comes to the new agency.

Robert W. Sumner will merge his widely known agency into the new firm. The Sumner Agency has served the marine and general insurance fields since 1892 and the excellent history of this firm has been continued by Robert W. Sumner for a second generation.

Howard H. Lawrie, prominent Grosse Pointe agent and well known insurance agent for over 40 years bring to the firm his excellent knowledge and reputation.

Harold M. Blossom, another well known Pointer, will merge his Blossom Insurance Agency into the new firm and his over 30 years experience in the field. All of the personnel and facilities of the four businesses will be continued and they will be operating in their new quarters at 630 Dime Building on Monday morning, January 3.

to use part of the playground to handle the overflow during the Christmas shopping period. The 700-car space available in the City for off-street parking was not enough to handle the tremendous traffic in the shopping district.

Sees Solution in Sight
However, the City plans to have the problem well in hand, when it completes its off-street parking program, according to Neil Blondell, City Assessor-Treasurer.

Mr. Blondell revealed that the City has formulated plans to accommodate 1,000 cars in the shopping district area. This said will take from four to five years to complete.

He added that there are several more buildings near the shopping area to come down to make way for the parking lots.

Meter Revenue Jumps
He remarked that the parking meter revenue in the area has and her bridegroom, Hugo S. Higbie, on the first lap of their wedding trip . . .

Show Time

June . . . and the Junior League Follies at the Cass . . . The Cass wished the show had stayed a week, it was so good . . . and can't you see Lydia Kerr right now doing those high kicks . . . Merrill Ford sauntering along casting a sultry, "Anyone for Tennis?" over her shoulder . . . the Tally-Ho Tantevvy . . . Gussie Eaton with that parasol . . . Molly Williams of the elegant voice . . . oh, just all of them . . . but especially Bill Witherell's mugging . . . and Bud Day's singing . . . The Garden pilgrims were out inspecting violets and primroses in Pointe Edens, including the estates of Mrs. Horace E. Dodge, Mrs. Russell A. Alger, the Frederick W. Campbells, the Frederick Curtises, the Wallace S. Mackenzies, the Howard F. Smiths, the Owen R. Skeltons and the Ray M. Whytes . . . Furnishings of Ridgmont, the Lake Shore road home of the late Mrs. David M. Whitney was sold at auction . . . (and as '54 drew to a close it was announced Ernest Kanzler had bought the estate adjoining his Lake Shore road home) . . . The Grosse Pointe Horse Show was, the attraction at the Hunt Club . . .

Paris

Over the Atlantic to find Major and Mrs. Donald K. Schilling and their five children at home in that wonderful villa overlooking the Marne . . . Doing the book stalls on the Seine with Franck Schilling (now Mrs. Lerwyn Fogle) and Carol Wettlaufer who was on the Grand Tour with a party of young folks . . . John S. Newberry was having an omelet at Mont St. Michel . . . and Paris real estate brokers were scouring the sassy suburbs for just the right apartment for the Wendell W. Andersons . . . his appointment as special minister to NATO was in the offing . . . Off to Munich . . . and a giggle at Deutschshaus with its singing band and understanding better why our soldiers said Germany was one of the most beautiful countries in Europe . . . But HOW do they get all those pillows and eiderdowns on the windowsill to catch the morning sunlight so EARLY in the morning?

Autumn Again

Innsbruck in Austria . . . through the Brenner Pass to Italy and Venice . . . pursued by rain and cold until the Rapido tore over the countryside to that beautiful Florence . . . Back to Paris to find Mendes-France ordering the taxi drivers to stop hooonk-ing! . . . and to find the city sad at the death of the novelist, Colette . . . Over the ocean again to plunge up to our shoulder blades in the tulle and orange blossoms of the autumn brides . . . To find the Pointe motoring out to Metamora for the wedding of Helen Parker and Peter M. Detwiler who've now gone to London to make their home . . . Hattie Carnegie sending her Fall collection to Detroit again to benefit the Sister Kenney Hospital Fund . . .

Glamor Manor

In October, the newlywed Harry R. Esling, Jr., beating the housing situation on campus at Michigan State College by leasing a trailer and having it done over in the manner grand, complete with television . . . The automobile manufacturers were holding previews of the 1955 models . . . and the London Festival Ballet was kicking high at Masonic Auditorium . . . the Needlework Guild held its annual ingathering . . . and former Detroiters Mrs. Cullen Landis whizzed through town with stopover for the luncheon given for her by Mrs. Otis U. Walker . . . and then on to N. Y. to join Cullen and fly to Iran where he has an ever so important government assignment . . . a fire closed down the popular Grosse Pointe Hunt Club for two months . . .

Topics in the News

November inspired Georgetown Visitation Convent and Georgetown University alumni Associations to join for a first annual dinner dance over at the Boat Club . . . Sigma Gamma climaxed its celebrations of the Golden Anniversary Year with a dinner and reception honoring founder members at the Little Club . . . Everyone was beginning to talk about the Sheppard Trial over in Cleveland and except for some unpleasantness in Washington concerning an investigating senator, newspapers turned over most of their front pages to the topic . . .

Happy New Year!

Finally it was December again . . . and as jingle bells tinkled all over the Pointe . . . Dr. Sheppard's conviction sent law abiding Pointers to reference books to find out the difference between first and second degree murder . . . Attorneys were popular dinner guests . . . It was easier to GUESS what the debts were going to wear than ask their mamas who were on the verge of collapse being allowed only a few hours shopping between the time of daughter's arrival from college and time for the receiving line to form . . . All the parties were "simple" but it's been that way for two decades, that we know of . . . adjectives grew weaker trying to do justice to a series of beautiful fetes . . . And now as December closes it's still DEBS, DEBS, DEBS . . . and there's just time left for this department to wish all of you a 1955 of health and happiness and peace . . . Please know we do!

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

"Hello, Miss Mud!" is the way they greeted us at the Dants right after the GP News hit the streets last week. "And why Miss Mud?" we wanted to know. WELL, we had credited the wonderful coffee wagon the Dants provided all during the dizzy shopping days to another on-the-hill beauty spot. We're crushed, we're mortified, we're abject. What can we say except, "Let's Dants again" for the life-saving idea of that, attractive wagon with its life-saving coffee and cookies!

Someone built one . . . and Mrs. Henry Petri received it this Christmas . . . a j-e-w-e-l-e-d mouse trap.

Where but in front of Grosse Pointe News could you see a traffic line-up including Eddie Fisher, in a $50,000 Packard, Mrs. Henry Ford II in a Thunderbird, Frank Saunders in the new Esetta he brought home from Italy . . . You'd have to engrave traffic tickets for such a flossy fleet of motor cars . . .

The Wendell Andersons' lush Christmas present to their good friend, Mrs. Jewett Dwyer, was that flight to Rome and a stay with them in Paris where Mr. Anderson is special minister to NATO . . .

Mrs. Karl Behr says the most insistent question put to her at wedding reception of daughter, Karla, and James D. Standish III Wednesday night, was "Isn't Marge Sullivan here?" Unfortunately, Major and Mrs. Joseph P. Sullivan were sent winging off to Florida on a special assignment and had to miss their planned visit for the wedding. Whoozit urges Missie S. to get up here, too . . . for the doldrums are sure to set in unless a visit of hers is in the offing. She always inspires a whirl.

One Pointe couple sent such immense cards this year, they could not go through the mails (and the postage was prohibitive, anyhow) . . . so a uniformed chauffeur delivered their entire Christmas list! . . .

So many Pointers have declared they were sad to receive political greeting cards on Christmas days . . .

PILFERINGS

A British general visiting Washington a few years back was shown around the War College by an American colonel. Inevitably they came upon some old prints depicting the War of 1812.

"The War of 1812?" said the general, wrinkling his brow. "What was that all about?"

"Oh, sir," said the colonel uncomfortably. "Don't you remember? We were fighting you—and you burned Washington!"

"Burned Washington!" exclaimed the general in amazement. "We burned Joan of Arc, I suppose—but most certainly not Washington!"

If you feel depressed on Wednesday morning, just stay in bed and don't venture near the gas stove. Leo Guild, "The Wizard of Odds," reports there are more suicides on Wednesday than on any other day.

An elderly gentleman visiting an exhibition of modern art came upon a showcase of selected works bearing a placard which read "Art Objects."

"Hah!" he snorted scornfully. "I should think he would!"

Olin Miller sez "One great trouble with the world today, especially on the international level, is that people don't trust one another, and have excellent reasons for not doing so."

The city editor was hiring a cub reporter who insisted on boasting about his experience on the college newspaper and his small town weekly. Finally the editor cut him off, asking, "and what salary are you expecting?"

"Oh, I don't know," said the cub condescendingly. "I guess you're smart enough to pay me what I'm worth."

"Can't do it," replied the editor, shaking his head sadly. "Minimum wage law won't allow it."

After a Saturday night movie, a couple paused to visit with some friends, stopped for coffee at a restaurant, and had just reached home after a leisurely stroll when the husband exclaimed, "I've got to go back to the show. I've forgotten something."

"Why," expostulated his wife, "What on earth could you possibly leave at the movie?"

"The car," he replied.

You wear your wedding ring on the third finger, left hand, because ancient Greeks thought a vein went directly from that finger to the heart. (In reality, it leads to the funny bone.)

Meeting Held By Cub Scouts

Highlight of the December 16 meeting of Cub Scout Pack 19 at Maitre School was the award of Webelos rank to three Cubs: Donald Walker, Raymond Keller and William Stevenson. All plan to continue in Scouting.

Awards were also made to the following Cubs: Dean Fox, Paul Graham, Alan Jones, Douglas Jones, Robert Orr, James Sutherland, John Wilson, Edward Freimuth, Charles Hibbard, Dennis aRue, Steve Wilson, Alan Partlow, Thomas Brown, Jeffrey Garberson, Calvin Gause, David Wilson, Jack Crane, Michael Lynch, John Mazer, James Klock, John Eckert, Robert Hadley, Robert Johnson, John Teetaert, Douglas Veech, David Sachs, Richard Nelson, Thomas Kennedy, Victor Dhooge.

Den 5 was the winner in a very close inspection and thereby became the Honor Den for the coming month. Den 3 was judged the best-behaved den of the evening. Mr. John Mazer, Chief Den Father, reported on the recent cindy sale and congratulated the Cubs for the excellent job they did. He then presented an award to Cub Bill Fleming of Den 2 for having sold the greatest number of cans of candy.

Mr. Carl Beltz, out-going Pack Chairman, introduced the incoming officers who will assume their duties at the first of the year. They include: Honorary Chairman, Mr. C. Henry Haberkorn; Pack Chairman, Mr. W. J. Riensberger; Cub Master, Mr. O. Aronson; Assistant Cub Master, Mr. David Sutherland; Chief Den Father, Mr. W. C. McLaughlin; Asst. Chief Den Father, Mrs. William Brink; Chief Den Father, Mr. John Mazer; Asst. Chief Den Father, Mr. A. Teetaert; Pack Secretary, Mr. James Humphreys; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Lou Morrison; Pack Treasurer, Mr. Doug Jones.

Also: Program Chairman, Mr. Haford Kerbaw; Publicity Director, Mr. William Lyman; Sports Chairman, Mr. Victor Burkemo; Asst. Sports Chairman, Mr. Del Paris; Song Leader, Mr. Ken Kimmel; Institutional Representative, Mr. Carl Beltz; Neighborhood Commissioner, Mr. Joseph Kikel; Community Commissioner, Mr. Paul Kolvoord.

Following the introduction of new officers, Mr. Ken Kimmel, accompanied by Mrs. John Mazer at the piano, led the Cubs, their parents and guests, in the singing of Christmas carols while each Den hung ornaments on the tree. These had been made by the Cubs at their Den meetings. Following the closing ceremony, refreshments were served to all hands by the Cubs and Den Mothers.

Next meeting of Pack 19 will be on January 27.

At a Sunday-afternoon Open House in their Cedieux road home on December 26, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Dannecker announced the engagement of their daughter, JOYCE ANN, to Lawrence Clark Swart.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Swart of Vendome road.

The bride-elect is a senior at Hillsdale College where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Her fiancé is a member of Kappa Sigma Kappa and is finishing his education at Hillsdale College after serving three years in the Marine Corps.

A June wedding is planned.

At a buffet dinner given Sunday, December 26, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Dalton of Maumee avenue announced the engagement of their daughter, JAYNE ISABEL, to Richard Jackson Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Shaw of Monte Vista avenue, Detroit.

Jayne is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and is now a senior at Michigan State College where she is a member of Alpha Phi.

Dick is a graduate of Michigan State and was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. They plan a June wedding.

CHICKEN MARENGO

Contributed by

Mrs. R. Alex Wrigley

Here's a way to interest the most holiday jaded palate!

Cut up two 2-pound frying chickens, shake well in a big bag of flour, salt and pepper. Brown chicken pieces in a heavy skillet in which has been heated 3 tablespoons each butter and cooking oil.

Place the chicken in your newest Christmas casserole and reserve the fat.

In another bowl, mix together one cup of dry white wine, a small can of tomato puree and a two ounce jigger of cognac. Pour this over the chicken in the casserole, adding two cloves of garlic, finely chopped, and a bouquet garni (1 bay leaf, six sprigs of parsley, a sprig—or pinch—of thyme tied together in cheese cloth). Place in 350 degree oven for about an hour or until chicken is tender, basting frequently. Correct seasoning.

In the reserved fat from the chicken frying pan, saute two dozen mushrooms which have been peeled and quartered. Add these along with two pounds of cooked, veined shrimp, to the chicken. Remove the bouquet garni, and leave in oven till shrimp are heated through.

The couple plan a summer wedding.

At a D.A.C. dinner party, Wednesday evening, December 22, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hall of Renaud road announced the engagement of their daughter, NANCY FAYE HALL, to Donald L. Button, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Button of Hollywood drive.

Both are students at Western Michigan College. Nancy is affiliated with Sigma-Sigma-Sigma and Donald with Sigma Epsilon.

A summer wedding is planned.

Rae was graduated from Grosse Pointe Country Day School and Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio.

Don is a graduate of Detroit University School and Dartmouth College.

Timber! The elegant fashions by Davidow are slowly but surely arriving weekly in the Pointe at Margaret Rice's . . . so far we've had a peek at a red tweed suit and a blue one. '76 Kercheval, on the hill.

If you are not going to have your fill of swimming . . . sailing . . . tennis . . . golf . . . spearfishing . . . in the clear water around the coral reefs or just sunning and sightseeing . . . why not treat yourself to the next best thing . . . an invigorating mid-winter tonic in the form of a treatment at the Ann-Louise Health Salon. It all begins in the newest of steam cabinets . . . a refreshing shower . . . and then a massage . . . the real body toner. Luxurious. Have just one or a series. 405 Fisher Rd. TU. 2-7511.

Have you seen the Martha Moody pipes for women in pouch or case coverings? Gay. Trail's Pharmacy . . . on the hill.

No, we don't have confetti by the ton . . . noisemakers to slam and bang . . . but we truly want to make noise. Make noise about the January White Clearance at Jacobson's Home Decoration Shop, in the village. They're so fashion minded home-wise . . . and it's their famous quality AND traditional savings. Sheets and cases in both percale and nylon are now on sale. So are the Martex Luxor towels. Towels that soak up moisture like sponges and rub you tingling dry in seconds. Of course, you can have them monogrammed. Fresh color in the bathroom could be in the form of bath mats. These were three ninety-five and are now two fifty. The towels that were three-fifty are now two ninety-five. The same goes for hand towels and wash cloths. Shower curtains in solid colors are now just four ninety-five. Luxury fitted and luxury constructed are good adjectives to use on the 100 per cent goose down pillows . . . now just seven ninety-five. All are covered in a choice of down-resistant ticking.

Check and DOUBLE Check! Check all of the values in the After Clearance Sale at Town 'n Casual Shop. This is something because it is store-wide. Right now they're offering twenty per cent off on blouses . . . skirts . . . dresses . . . jewelry and lounge wear. 20445 Mack . . . in the woods.

The colors reminded us of the happiest winter holidays . . . blue skies . . . green grass . . . colorful hibiscus. And because you'll live in a bathing suit by day if you're going South you'll need a couple of bathing suits. And the selection is good in Jacobson's Sportswear Department right now. One called Intrigue is fashioned of lace and splashed with rhinestones . . . crystal blue and jade . . . black with pink net ruching in fetching cotton suits are in evidence. The outstanding feature of the Cole of California whether they're fashioned of Matelex or cotton is the fact that they have built-in bras. Nice accent.

When you want all the extra gadgets for the splendid Camera you received at Christmas think of the Camera Center, in the village. For it is here that you'll find the filters . . . the film . . . the flash attachments and even the projectors for your new movie camera. And after you've had all your Christmas pictures developed ask to see the straw covered albums in three different sizes. A necessity if you want to keep your snaps in perfect order. 17114 Kercheval, in the village.

From now on you'll think you're in the "Land of Cotton" . . . so many Southbound cottons are being shown at 76 Kercheval, on the hill. There's a galaxy of Irish Linens . . . shantung, piques. And, of course, the thin, thin, pure silks in the palest of blues and pinks . . . accented with small polka dots. And in sportswear there are the orange punch bermuda shorts. Navy, rosette . . . and white, with stripes, too . . . especially good-looking monogrammed. Margaret Rice . . . on the hill.

The meticulous traveler, whether she goes for a month or a week-end, will tote a fitted travel case from Trail's mighty big collection . . . big or little versions. Trail Pharmacy . . . on the hill.

Breezy cotton skirts . . . skirts that float . . . are new in Jacobson's Sportswear Department this week. They are the kind of skirts you can wear right now or later. Colorful ones made up of several colors in printed mixtures are of Bates disciplined fabric. You just hang it up and it sheds wrinkles just like a duck sheds water. So that means no in-between pressings. Permanently fresh and lustrous. Orange, beige, charcoal and gray make up one skirt. The predominant color in the others are aqua and olive green. The belts are the main color of the skirts. Good accents. The Fuller Fabric ones fashioned of Sailtone are like candy canes . . . striped.
