A DETROIT MOTORIST was killed Christmas Day afternoon when his car smashed through the brick wall of a West Side home as a family of four was eating Christmas dinner. There were nine persons, in all, killed in Michigan over the holidays, with six Christmas Eve victims, including three from the Detroit area.

L. EWING SCOTT was convicted of first degree murder by a Los Angeles Superior Court jury in the disappearance of his wife. The jury decreed that he should serve life in prison, rather than suffer the death penalty. The case was one of few that was decided by a jury in regard to guilt or innocence of an accused person, and then the determination of the punishment. The procedure is new in California and calls for separate deliberations in death-penalty cases.

Mrs. Scott disappeared May 15, 1955, and for many months her absence went unnoticed. A brother of the missing woman went to the couple's palatial home in West Los Angeles, and began inquiries when his sister could not be found. He finally went to the District Attorney. Scott disappeared and was caught last spring trying to cross into Canada from Detroit.

A RUMBLING EXPLOSION, apparently produced by gas, trapped 21 men 500 feet underground Friday in a coal mine which rambles under the Virginia-West Virginia border. The trapped included two work crews, two foremen, two foremen, and one fire-boss.

THE TRANSIT AUTHORITY, trying to avert a New Year's Day subway strike in New York City, made a new offer yesterday of a wage increase of 18 cents an hour over a two-year contract period.

But Michael J. Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union, swiftly rejected the proposal as completely inadequate. He announced that his organization would go ahead with plans for a strike vote at a special membership mass meeting today. A walkout would begin at midnight Tuesday.

THE EXPECTED struggle for the world championship of professional football was just no contest. A razor-sharp crew of Detroit Lions ran the Cleveland Browns right out of Birggs Stadium Sunday afternoon to climax one of the greatest clutch performances in pro football history.

Detroit picked up its third world title in six years by handing the Browns their worst defeat in history, 59 to 14, before 55,263 fans. The Lions rolled up their greatest point total in history on offense.

A WEEK-LONG African-Asian conference, sponsored by Egypt, opened yesterday with Communist style blasts at the United States and nuclear propaganda.

The conference was unofficial and a catchall for a wide range of political, including pro-Communists, other leftists, and various dissidents at odds with their governments.

Two Cars Fouled Up By Sneeze

Woman Hits Pole, Bounces Into Path of Second Vehicle

A sneeze caused a woman driver to lose control of her car and smash into a pole at Moross road and Kercheval on Saturday, December 28, and then into the path of another car.

A farm police report disclosed that Jacqueline K. Young, 27, of 19649 Kelby, Detroit, and Clark A. Templeton, 30, of 47 Ardor Circle, had both made a left turn from Kercheval onto Moross.

While making her turn, the woman reached over to grab a package on the seat, when she suddenly lost control. She lost control of her automobile and crashed into the pole, then bounced back and into the path of Templeton's car.

Templeton was unable to stop and struck the right front fender of the Young car and then hit the curb.

The woman was taken to Cottage Hospital where she was treated for cuts on the leg and about the face. She was given a ticket for not having her car under control and causing an accident.

There was no apparent damage to the pole, but the woman's car had to be towed away. Police estimated damage to her vehicle at about $300, and to the other car, about $100.

The report did not state whether Templeton suffered any injuries.

Entire Community Invited By Board of Education To Use Swimming Pools

Family Night Program Being Instituted on Mondays, January 6; Facilities Now Being Used By 34 Groups

Beginning Monday, January 6, a family night swimming program will be inaugurated by the Grosse Pointe Public School System, Bert Wicking, president of the Board of Education, announced.

Noise Scares Two Burglars

One way to frighten off prospective burglars invading your home, is to make a noise to let them know someone is in.

Robert Cousino, 48, of 2001 Lochmoor boulevard, informed Woods police on Friday, December 27, that his daughter, Frances, was awakened at about 4:40 a.m. by a noise on the first floor, and crept downstairs to investigate. She saw two strange men in the house.

Thinking that if she made some kind of a racket, it would frighten the invaders away, she went back upstairs and rattled some items in the bathroom.

Looking out of her bedroom window, she saw the two men running from the house and to a car in the driveway alongside the building.

Police found that entrance was gained by forcing the milk chute at the side of the house and reaching around to unlock the door. The would-be burglars made their escape through the same door.

Park Bar Bandit's Aide Given Term in Prison

Kermit Poteet, 32, of 4103 E. Lafayette, Detroit, a Jackson Prison parolee, was sentenced in Wayne County Circuit Court on Friday, December 17, for his part in the August 14 holdup of the Baby Grand Bar, 15222 Charlevoix.

Poteet was given a 5 to 20 year sentence by Circuit Judge Paul Krause, and sent back to Jackson.

The convicted man was charged with the accomplice of Leonard Beck, 25, of 14234 Kilbourne, Detroit, who committed the actual holdup of the bar and escaped with $300. Poteet was the driver of the getaway car.

Beck, also a Jackson parolee, was sentenced to 12½ to 40 years by Judge Krause in September.

Park Police Chief Arthur

Louwers said that both men have long police records. Beck and Poteet entered the bar on the August date, the "case" the place, and while Beck remained, Poteet went out to wait in a car parked at Beaconsfield and Charlevoix.

After ordering a drink, Beck took it to a table, where he downed the shot fast. Then he whipped out a pistol and ordered the waitress, Mrs. Millie Shockey of St. Clair Shores, to give him all the currency in the bar were engrossed in a TV program and were unaware that a holdup was in progress.

Waving his gun at the waitress and a bartender, Beck scooped up about $300 from behind the bar, ignoring

High School Band Among State's Best

Talented Musical Group to Give Annual Concert in Parcells on January 12

Everyone knows Grosse Pointe High School has one of the outstanding high school bands in the state, but this didn't just happen! Many years of hard work on the part of numerous students and a first-rate director have produced the top-notch band we now take for granted.

The original band group had dwindled to 12 players and was finally dropped during the depression. In 1937, Dewey Kalember came to Grosse Pointe from Traverse City and started from scratch to build a high school band. With the cooperation of William Watkins, then supervisor of music, a testing program was set up and demonstrations were given for the purpose of interesting approximately 100 students in band participation. All rehearsals were held after school once a week.

By January 1938 the band was ready to present its first concert. That same spring it won a first division in the State Festival and in the fall the band became a regular part of the curriculum, giving five hours of academic credit.

All students meet in rehearsal daily plus a once-a-week sectional for individual attention. Each student is also expected to spend a minimum of 180 minutes per week in home practice.

The Grosse Pointe High School Band has consistently won high honors in regional and state contests and has been the top Border Cities band for the past 13 years. It has appeared in Briggs Stadium and the University of Michigan and University of Michigan Stadium and has added much home to all the Grosse Pointe high school games by performing march routines that have taken many hours of preparation.

Many individual members have also won acclaim. Two former bandmen have won Fullbright Scholarships for study in Europe. Many have played in fine college and university bands or orchestras and several have attended the Navy School of Music. One of the graduates is now employed as first trombonist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Many others have played or are playing in dance bands

34 Groups Using Them
A present there are 34 individual groups comprising 1,179 children and 228 adults. Where almost all groups are devoted to beginning and intermediate instruction, a few are no-instruction groups.

Life-saving and swimming instruction are available for all of these groups. One class of diving instruction will be started soon, also. All of these sections meet weekly and registration in advance is required.

Since all swimming periods outside of school hours have not yet been scheduled, Wicking said, "we are temporarily permitting the Austin varsity team to use one of our pools for practice purposes. It will be welcome to do this as long as all periods are not

Review of Year's Top News Events Offered Readers

Summary of Leading Stories Shows Much Activity in All Fields in Pointe During the Year 1957

The Grosse Pointe News has compiled a summary of leading events which occurred in the community during the past year. Because of the length of the compilation the review was started in last week's issue. This is a continuation.

June 13—Two incumbents were returned to office on the School Board. They are Robert Weber, Board president, who led the slate with 1,383 votes; and Board secretary Chet Sampson, who received 1,169. Weber has served on the Pointe School Board since 1954, and Sampson, since 1951. Board members are elected for a four-year term. Defeated in the School District election was Reyer Van Zannen, who only polled 558 votes.

June 20—The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church broke ground for a $250,000 addition to its present building. Taking part in the ceremonies were Dr. Benjamin F. Holpe, Detroit District Superintendent; and Dale Fillmore, president of the Methodist Union of Greater Detroit. The structure was the second part of a structure that was planned 10 years ago, shortly after the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church was founded. The first church was completed in 1950.

June 27—The Army ended its lease with the Park and removed its guns and equipment from the Three Mile-Essex site. D Battery of the 99th Antiaircraft Battalion left the area, leaving only a skeleton crew to guard Federal property. The Army decided to leave the site although its lease did not expire until August 31. Previously the Army sought another year's lease, but changed its mind. The guns and equipment were moved to other areas in Metropolitan Detroit in a shift of defense strategy. D Battery first took over the camp site on September 1, 1951.

Citizen Arrests Hit-Run Driver

A private citizen arrested Lomar Wall, 31, of 648 Helen, Mt. Morris, Mich., on Sunday, December 22, and took him to the Park police station on a charge of driving while drunk.

Louis, Detroit, 21, of 2415 Sheridan, Detroit, who made the arrest, charged that Wall sideswiped his car, and signed a formal complaint.

The younger man said he was driving north on Nottingham, when Wall, going south, ran into his car. Both automobiles were damaged.

Wall left the scene of the accident, Nasir said, and he had to take after him. Wall had been drinking, Nasir claimed.

Police issued Wall a ticket for driving while under the influence of alcohol, and required that he post a $100 bond. His court date was set for January 15.

Christmas Lighting Tour Reveals Lovely Displays

By Mrs. H. Ray Will
From the welcoming "Christmas Greetings" at the entrance to Grosse Pointe Park on Jefferson right to the tip of the Shores, and from the lake north across Mack avenue in the Park, the Farms and the Woods, the community has never been more beautifully beckoning lights, other lovely effects in traditional, religious, child-appearing or contemporary themes will be found.

Listed were some suggested tours mentioning particularly unusual or artistic displays which the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council feels will give pleasure to all who view them.

Boy Turned over to Detroit For Investigation of Car Theft and Larceny

Shores police arrested a 16-year-old Detroit boy on Thursday, December 26, and turned him over to Detroit authorities for investigation of unlawfully driving away an automobile, grand larceny, and breaking and entering in the night time.

Three other youths in the car were also turned over to Detroit police for investigation, although they claimed they knew nothing of the law violations.

Shores Patrolman Harry Hamilton was patrolling south on Lake Shore at Deeplands at about 4 a.m., when he noticed a 1957 Volkswagen, with the four youths in it. The 16-year-old was driving.

In his report the officer said the vehicle was traveling slowly and was being driven in an erratic manner. The car turned at a crossover and started going south and then pulled into the driveway of 575 Lake Shore. The driver got out of

Woman Hurt In Car Crash

Mrs. Margaret Peters of 24005 Lakewood, St. Clair Shores, suffered a bloody nose and several broken teeth on Tuesday, December 24, when she ran her car into another that had stopped for a red light.

A Shores police report revealed that Mrs. Peters was going south on Lake Shore, when she struck a car, driven by Frank Walker of 176 Venmore, in the rear, at Lake Shore and Vernier.

The impact caused Mrs. Peters to hit her face against the steering wheel. She was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by police, where she was treated for a bloody nose. A dentist will have to take care of the broken teeth.

The woman was given a ticket for not having her car under control and causing an accident, and another for not having a driver's license on her person.

Police said her son, Michael, a passenger in the front seat, was not injured.

Hold Public Hearing

On August 11, 1955, the drainage board held a public hearing in the Woods City Hall, at which time it was established that the Grosse-Gratiot Drain was necessary to the health, safety and welfare of the public.

Again in August and in October, after engineers prepared detailed plans and specifications for the three drains, public hearings were held to determine the apportioning of the costs of the drains between the State, County, the Woods, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores.

Each was to pay its share according to the extent of benefit received from the drains. Roughly this comes to 60 percent of cost to be paid by the Woods; 40 percent by Harper Woods; and a small fraction by the State, County and St. Clair Shores.

$10,000,000 To Be Spent On Big Job

Bonds Can Now Be Sold to Finance System Which Will Benefit Three Cities

The Michigan Supreme Court, on Tuesday, December 24, ruled that the State Drain Acts are constitutional, thereby clearing the last legal obstacle blocking the construction of a multi-million-dollar drainage and Harper Woods.

The high court, in rendering its decision, upheld an earlier ruling on the constitutionality of the acts made by Wayne County Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy.

Now that this matter has been cleared up, wheels will be set in motion to begin the development of the Black March, Girard and Milk River Drains, collectively known as the Grosse-Gratiot Drain.

To cost $10,000,000, the cost of this project is about $10,000,000, and the construction and operation of the drain will be under the jurisdiction of the Intra-County Drainage Board and the Inter-County Drainage Board.

The former was created by the State Drain Acts to handle the drains which flow only within Wayne County; the latter to handle the drain originating in Wayne County and flowing into Macomb County, as in the case of the Milk River Drain.

Here is a better picture: the Girard Drain drains the major area of Harper Woods and a part of the Woods; the Black March Drain drains a major portion of the Woods and a part of the south end of Harper Woods; this is in Wayne County.

The Milk River drains a part of the Woods (Wayne) and St. Clair Shores, (Macomb), while conducting all the storm water from the Girard and Black March Drains to Lake St. Clair.

Meeting Date Set
On Friday, January 3, the Wayne County Drain Commission, the Intra-County and Inter-County Drain Boards, the Woods and Harper Woods will send representatives to a meeting in the City-County Building, St. Clair Shores and other bodies involved have been invited to attend.

The purpose of the meeting will be to conduct negotiations of the sale of Woods-owned land, which junctions at the Milk River and Girard Drains, and is the Woods Department of Public Works garage site at Marston road, needed for the construction of Grosse-Gratiot Drain pumping station. The area covers about six and a half acres, and is ideal for the pumping station site.

Although the cities in both Wayne and Macomb Counties will benefit by the project, the Drainage Boards were created to finance, construct and operate these drains. Also to benefit by the program when completed will be the Michigan State Highway Department and the Wayne County Road Commission.

Hold Public Hearing

On August 11, 1955, the drainage board held a public hearing in the Woods City Hall, at which time it was established that the Grosse-Gratiot Drain was necessary to the health, safety and welfare of the public.

Again in August and in October, after engineers prepared detailed plans and specifications for the three drains, public hearings were held to determine the apportioning of the costs of the drains between the State, County, the Woods, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores.

Each was to pay its share according to the extent of benefit received from the drains. Roughly this comes to 60 percent of cost to be paid by the Woods; 40 percent by Harper Woods; and a small fraction by the State, County and St. Clair Shores.

Drain, $838,332; Black Marsh Drain, $519,550; and the Milk River Drain (to the pumping station), $1,936,480; and pumps and motors only, $752,556.

To this must be added the purchase of the land and building structures for the pumping station; the cost of additional right of way through St. Clair Shores to Lake St. Clair; and the cost to deepen, widen and straighten the portion of the Milk River in St. Clair Shores. Also the cost of widening the bridge at Lake Shore road and the costs of engineering, legal, advertising and other fees.

Progress Halted

In 1956, the sale of the bonds and start of the project was halted when 12 communities in Oakland County got into a squabble over a joint drainage construction project. In the litigation that followed, their inability to agree on who was to pay how much, resulted in the challenging of the constitutionality of the State Drain Acts.

As a result of this legal tangle, the Municipal Finance

Commission in Lansing, a State regulatory agency, held up the approval of the sale of the Grosse-Pointe Drain bonds, until the constitutionality of the Drain Acts was re-established.

This matter threatened to take years before it was settled, so a group of Woods taxpayers, under the urging of Claude Stevens, Pointe bond counsel, instituted a friendly suit in the State Supreme Court, in April 1957, naming Henry V. Herrick, chairman of the drainage district; and Edward Connor and Charles F. Edgewood, members of the drainage district, as defendants.

Clears Oakland Project
The Supreme Court's decision also clears the matter for the Oakland County communities, it was said by Woods City Administrator William Lange.

He said that as soon as other small matters are taken care of, and the bond sale is affected, the drainage project will be completed in 12 to 18 months from the time construction starts.

Band

given to a senior selected from various other groups.

Each year the band presents two concerts, one in January and one in May, featuring a diversified program to suit every musical taste. At these concerts, the graduating seniors receive their awards which they have earned performing during three years of high school; an average of "B" or better for their band work; qualifying for at least two yearly band letters and passing the written test in music theory which they must take at the end of each year.

The final senior award is a gold pin. The seniors who are qualified to receive their pins at the concert on January 12, 1958, are: Richard Hill, Robert Skantz, William Springert, Leonard Mistretta and Peter Buccellato, who will also play a baritone solo.

The Rotary Band Award is given to a senior selected from the January and June classes who best qualifies for his contribution to the work of the band during his three years; one who shows unusual talent, leadership, service to the community and fine academic standing in his high school work.

Because of increased enrollment there are now two bands: the A Band and the Concert Band. Their combined total is approximately 115 players. In addition to a dedicated director and band members, other factors which have contributed to the excellence of the band have been a school board which has been 100 per cent cooperative in supplying necessary equipment, increasing sufficient music; and parents who have supplied many band members with far better than average instruments.

Concert January 12
The ultimate results of these combined efforts will be displayed on Sunday afternoon, January 12 at 3 p.m. in Parcells Auditorium when Mr. Kalember presents both bands in concert. A varied program has been planned, which includes a novelty for the children entitled "Jack and the Beanstalk." There will be music in classical style, marches, and selected light songs.

The mothers of the band members invite all who attend the concert to gather in the gym for coffee and socializing immediately after the finale. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the band or at the door. The fee is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

the car, but when he saw the approaching officer, he ran and hid in some shrubbery.

Hamilton called to the other boys to remain where they were, and put in a call for assistance to the station. Two more officers, Chester Painter and Jack Lietke arrived at the scene.

While keeping an eye on the boys in the car, the officers searched and found the 16-year-old.

In the trunk of the foreign-made car the policemen found a German make car manifold, German make radio; three Motorola radios and two loudspeakers for a supercharger; a Volkswagen, and 64 master keys on a chain.

The 16-year-old confessed breaking into the Seaway Motors 6375 Fort street, Detroit.

Climbed Over Fence

He said he had climbed the fence at the rear of the place and broke two windows to gain entrance. He said he took the items found in the car, and then took the vehicle.

The youth admitted that he had been drinking, stating that he stole a case of beer from the porch of a neighborhood home. When arrested there was none in his or the other boys' possession.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling said that the 16-year-old was turned over to the Detroit Police Youth Bureau, and the other boys to Detroit's 15th Precinct.

The chief said that the case was cleared up before a report of the crimes was made known to Detroit by the owner of the car's theft firm.

Lions Sponsoring New Eye Clinic

An Eye Clinic, first of its kind to be sponsored by members of the Harmony Lions Club, is soon to be established on Detroit's east side.

Called the Harmony Lions Eye Clinic, it will be located in the Deaconess Hospital, at 3245 East Jefferson, and will be running in full operation shortly.

The Harmony Lions, Detroit's youngest Lions Club, and its president, Dr. Louis Barbagallo, joins its many fellow Lion members all over the world, in the work of helping to conserve sight.

Members, realizing the great responsibility, have been putting special efforts in the past weeks toward their fund raising drives in order to equip and furnish the necessary costly equipment for this much-needed eye clinic.

The room is being made available by the Superintendent of Deaconess Hospital, The Rev. Carl H. Grathwohl, and the staff which includes Dr. Lorber and Dr. Kasabet in its ranks.

While the operation of the clinic is still in the future, there have been many inquiries and offers to donate professional services and time and experience to the project. One of the Lions from the Friendship Club, has contributed substantially for the decoration and drapery of the room. He is the past president, Dr. Les Henderson.

filled by Grosse Pointe groups."

"A fee of $1.00 per family will be charged each family night," President Wicking said. "This charge is in keeping with the policy of the board that such functions should be self sustaining and the fee should be sufficient to pay for the extra expenses incurred by the schools in operating the program. No advance registration or enrollment is required, nor must attendance be regular. When personal schedules permit, it is the hope of board members and school officials that as many Grosse Pointe families as possible will accept this invitation to use the fine new pools."

Children, school age and younger, must be accompanied by at least one of their own parents if they are to be admitted. A registrar will be on duty to collect fees and to verify residence.

Mothers and daughters will be required to bring and wear bathing caps while using the pool. Valuables and non-essential items of apparel should not be brought, as locker storage space will be limited, and locker room attendants will not be responsible for lost or stolen articles. All persons are required by State health laws to change to bathing suits and to shower prior to entering the pool area.

Those members of the family who do not plan to swim may observe from the balcony of the pool in their street garb excepting that younger children will need adult supervision if they are to be on the balcony.

wrapped coins. Then waving his gun in an arch, backed out of the establishment and ran to the waiting car, and escaped with Poteet.

Beck was arrested by Detroit police on August 24, while asleep in a car at Chalmers and Kilbourne.

In a Detroit lineup, he was identified as the bandit by the waitress.

Beck, when questioned, implicated Poteet as his partner. Up to the time Beck talked, police had no information on Poteet.

Chief Louwers said at the time Poteet was arrested, that Beck, Poteet and another man were wanted by Detroit authorities for investigation of robbing several bars in Detroit. The third was not not involved in the Park crime, but was later arrested in Detroit and held on armed robbery charges.

Four Got Into the Act Here

Francois' Fireplace, Mack and Somerset, which has acquired added laurels by becoming the Pointe's birthday spot for children, was the scene of this party on Saturday, December 28, given for the four Parcells children whose birthdays are all close to each

Japanese Student Tells How His People Celebrate

By Barbara Stone, 12B
GPHS Journalism Student

Kiichi Nagai, 12B, Grosse Pointe High School Japanese exchange student, spent his first Christmas season in America. From magazines and television (Kiichi is still in the hospital) he's getting an idea of Christmas, American style:

In Japan, according to Kiichi, Christmas celebrations differ with the customs of each section of the country. He went on to explain that since feudalism lasted so long in Japan, there was little transportation between north, south, east, and west, causing each section to develop individual customs.

Northern Japan and Tokyo are the parts with which Kiichi is most familiar.

Christians in these sections celebrate in about the same manner as Christians of this country. However, their holiday observances are somewhat more solemn.

Japanese children look forward to toys brought by Santa Claus, and the older children and teenagers receive money.

After a child has been given a present from a relative or friend, he must politely thank the giver, but must not open it until the donor has gone. Adults do not receive gifts.

Christmas presents are not customary, however, and New Year's gifts are much more common. Cards are also sent at New Year's instead of Christmas.

December 31 is known as Getting Old Day. At this time a large meal is served, the dishes being of odd-numbers (i.e. three, five, or seven dishes). A fruit, something like an orange, saki (rice-wine), and soba are typical foods served.

Soba is a long noodle-like food symbolizing good wishes for a long life.

According to ancient tradition, all debts are to be paid by Getting Old Day, but, according to Kiichi, this custom is rapidly losing popularity.

At midnight the bells of the Buddhist temple ring 108 times to cleanse the sins of its believers. At this same time those of the Shinto religion visit their shrines.

January 1 begins the six-day custom of eating the biggest meal in the morning. Zoni, a favorite of Kiichi's foods, is served on these days. It is similar to chicken soup, and is flavored with soy sauce. Rice cake, black soybeans, and vegetables are served along with various other dishes.

Beginning Buying is the name of January 2. All the stores open, and almost everyone buys something.

Japanese holidays are a blending of old and new, tradition and reform, and East and West.

FORD BOATS SET RECORD

The Great Lakes fleet of Ford Motor Company during the 1957 shipping season set the second highest tonnage record in hauling raw materials to the Rouge automotive manufacturing area since the marine department was established in 1924. K. D. Cassidy, company group executive, announced that the motor ships Henry Ford II and Benson Ford and the steamship William Clay Ford transported 2,913,682 net tons of iron ore, limestone and coal to the Rouge plant in Dearborn, Mich.

May the clouds that darken the world be dispelled by the sunshine of a new and better day. May the fear of potential strife disappear—the thoughts of alien foes vanish—and may our country enjoy a peace and prosperity heretofore unknown. Church Holding Loyalty Sunday

The First Church of the Brethren, 19878 Lochmoor drive, Harper Woods, will hold special services on Sunday, January 5, celebrating the opening of a year-long observance of the 250th anniversary of the founding of the denomination at Schwarzenau, Germany, in 1708. Many of the 1,100 other Brethren churches in the United States, as well as those in Canada and abroad, will hold similar services for over 200,000 members.

The local church has designated this first Sunday of the year as Church Loyalty Sunday, with a special service of worship at 11 a.m., interpreting the 250th anniversary emphasis. At this service there will be a sermon by Pastor Oiden D. Mitchell on "Counting the Cost of Discipleship"; music by the church choir under the direction of Choirmaster John Linzing; and new members are scheduled to be received by profession of faith and by letter of transfer.

All members and friends of the church are invited to participate in a fellowship potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m. in the church dining hall. For this dinner meeting Dorsey Spaulding will serve as master of ceremonies, and the guest speaker will be the Rev. Victor Priebe, associate pastor of the Grosse Pointe Baptist Church. Others assisting in the program include the Rev. William Kidwell, Pastor of the Bethany Church of the Brethren, Wilbur Heisey, Edward Wilton, Mrs. William Mauldin, Mrs. James Tuggle, and the local Pastor, the Rev. Mr. Mitchell.

The Church of the Brethren was established in the United States at Germantown, Penna., on Christmas Day, 1723, by Germans who had fled from religious persecution in their homeland abroad.

Polio March Starts Today

Charles L. Gehringer will again act as Wayne County campaign director for the 1958 March of Dimes. Marking 20 years of service to Americans, it will be held here and throughout the nation from January 2 through 31. Most of the money sought in the drive is needed to help disabled polio patients stage comebacks from helplessness to usefulness.

"Survival Is Not Enough is the slogan on which rides the hopes of tens of thousands of polio-blighted victims," Gehringer said.

"The annual March of Dimes is the fund-raising activity which makes possible the year-round service given by your National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Rehabilitation is a word meaning the process of putting disabled or handicapped people back in the business of living—living to the fullest capacity they have remaining to them.

"A recent survey showed that for every one of the more than 6,000 cases of polio reported in 1957, there are fifty old cases who wear the scars of the disease. About one third of them, or 100,000 can be greatly aided by new methods of surgery, therapy and new devices.

"The Salk vaccine developed by March of Dimes money has scored dramatically. During 1957, however, it took $21,700,000 for the care and rehabilitation of patients. The Wayne County Chapter has spent $3,824,586 on patient care from January 1, 1950 through November 30, 1957—an average of $40,250 a month.

"Additional funds are needed for an expanded research program to explore many new aspects of virus diseases; for the training of professional workers in the fields of scientific research; and for a still urgent program of public education to encourage use of the Salk vaccine.

"Looking back over twenty years," Gehringer concluded, "all of those who volunteered their time and money can congratulate themselves on the many victories—including the vaccine—that have been won. We can look ahead to new challenges. We are pledging ourselves to assist, insofar as we are able, those who were stricken and now need help."

This Makes Sense

A new plan, backed by Park Police Chief Arthur E. Louwers is recommended to all parents who have problems with their children concerning the use of the family car.

Chief Louwers, in an article printed in the Michigan Police Journal, outlined the plan, which was worked out by his school safety officer, Patrolman George Blair, as follows:

The automobile purchased today represents an investment usually between $1,500 and $4,000 and it is only normal that parents should feel reluctant to allow an inexperienced driver, even their own children, to use the car.

The child driver represents an even greater investment, and most parents wish to take every precaution to protect that investment.

As is necessary in any game, or plan of action, all participants should know all the rules and penalties; therefore, a family conference should be held prior to obtaining an operator's license.

At this conference, the following rules are provided:
1. The teen age will only ask for the family auto after a bank balance, saved by him, in the amount of $100 has been established. This amount can be of a different value, but once it has been established, or the rule set, it should not be changed.

2. It is further explained that this bank balance, if maintained, will entitle the child to the car, but only after a request for permission.

3. It is then explained that if the son or daughter should become involved in an accident in which they are at fault, damages up to the $100 will be deducted from this account.

4. As a result of becoming involved in a chargeable accident, the use of the car shall be denied until the balance has again reached the pre-set amount. It is recommended that during this interim period, the minor's privileges be restricted to drive only when parents accompany them.

This plan was suggested to a number of parents, and although each case must be judged on its individual merits, by and large it has been welcomed and deemed workable by those parents, and the teen age driver.

In conclusion:—It is believed that a program such as this is constructive, in that it places some of the responsibility upon the shoulders of the teenage driver.

If they are old enough to drive, it is only right that they should shoulder some of the responsibility. This plan, in effect, is a sign of good faith and an assist in making good citizens of our youth.

Letters to the Editor

December 26, 1957

To the Editor:

Last week I was called away to spend a few days in another city. I had to do some shopping and various errands there and was struck, as I always am when traveling, with how uniquely pleasant life is in Grosse Pointe—and why!

As a consequence the enclosed bits of verse occurred to me while ensconced in my room on the train en route home. I hope they will amuse you and that you can use them in the paper.

Happy New Year to you and to all of our friends at The News.

Sincerely,
Judy Gibson

A TOAST TO THE HOST OF GENTLEFOLK WHO SERVE GROSSE POINTE!

Dear Grosse Pointe News:

With Christmas past,
I find that I have time at last
To pen a line or two in praise
Of those who serve us, nights and days—
And through their skill and pleasantry
Give Grosse Pointe life its courtesy.

Each of us knows the ones I mean—
They serve and carry and sew and clean
They sell the clothes in which we preen
They fill our cars with gasoline.
Through any weather they bring the mail.
They guide the traffic and guard the jail.
And day by day on our annual trail—
They extend to us all—a happy hail!

Some have degrees like Doctors and Preachers.
Some train our children—like Nurses and Teachers;
But Milkman or Fireman
Receptionist, Choreman
Florist, Librarian
Druggist or Doorman—
They bow us in and they bow us out
And there's no one—they don't know all about!
And though they often "could buy us and sell us"
They have such grace that—they don't tell us!

Each of us has his personal few
Favorites from this Courteous Crew
Who more by their manners than by their wares
Are Grosse Pointe's Angels—unaware.
So will you, please, Sirs—grant this space?
To tell them all
"Thank You!"
and match their grace?

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: Robt. M. Orr,
Director of Public Libraries

At Miss Taylor's request, I am happy to write this New Year's column.

1957 was a good year for the Grosse Pointe Public Library, and it is a pleasure to take a last look over the past year before entering the New Year.

Use of the three Public Libraries continues to increase, with 22,000 residents as registered users, and a book circulation in excess of 371,000, an increase of more than 31,000 over 1956. This does not include the large number of records, films, tools, and art prints which have become increasingly popular. Also, use of reference and readers' advisory services continues to grow. Through December 1, 14,279 people in 472 groups met at Central. It is with a great deal of pride that I can report to you that your Libraries have again broken all previous records for library use.

The staff is all-important in maintaining the high quality of service which has been established for our Public Libraries. We were fortunate during the past year in having very little turn-over of staff, and in the fine replacements for the five positions that were filled. Miss Harriet Helms, formerly on our staff, returned to make possible a full-time Children's Librarian at the Park Branch. Mrs. Florence Lamont replaced Mrs. John Helfrich as Director's secretary. Mrs. Margaret Luton Schmitz replaced Miss Joan Krausmann at Central. Miss Barbara Goulette replaced Mrs. Jane Grenard at the Park Branch, and Mr. Kenneth Trevena replaced Mr. Paul Krause as custodian-engineer at Central. We are happy to have these additions to the staff, and are proud of the work they are doing.

Highlights of the year included publication of three issues of the Friends' NEWS-LETTER; publication of the third printed Annual Report of the Public Library; the book collection reached 83,000; monthly Family Film Nights and Friends' Film Forums were well attended; two Great Books Discussion Groups were co-sponsored with the Friends; a number of Book Talks were given to community groups; and the Community Calendar was established in response to a number of requests by local organizations.

During the year, many wonderful gifts were received, including the following from the Friends: printing of the NEWS-LETTER; special books valued at $3,500; two outstanding children's films; film rental for the monthly Friends' Film Forum Programs; foreign language records for Central and the branches; record players and children's record collections for the branches; and an opaque projector. Other gifts were received from the Rotary Club, Grosse Pointe Women's Club, Meadow Lane Association, Motion Picture and TV Council, and more than 3,000 book gifts from residents. All of these, I believe, have been effectively used to achieve better library service.

As director, I am deeply grateful for all that Grosse Pointers have done to enable the Public Library to maintain fine library service. A very special note of thanks to the Board of Education, our official Board; to the Friends Board of Directors, our advisory board, and the 850 members; to Dr. Otis M. Dickey, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent.

Diabetic Detection

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

You may be one of the many unknown diabetics. It is estimated that there are at least a million in the United States.

Diabetes can be controlled by the use of insulin, and of course the sooner it is detected the easier it is to control. With the use of insulin diabetics live long and normal lives.

A simple test reveals diabetes. It is worth your time now to have it made.

Whenever medicine is necessary to your health, you will find a conscientious pharmacist genuinely interested in supplying your needs.

Five Debutantes Feted at Parties

Mary Pardee and Ingrid Cornelius Bow at Tea; Mary Bradley and Mary Hendrie Came Out at Little Club Dinner and Georgia Zimmerman's Debut was a Dance at Country Club Friday

Five debutantes shared Friday, the last day of a sparkling holiday season for the buds. Mary Pardee and Ingrid Cornelius began the festive day when they were presented at a tea at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

The two buds were introduced by their mothers, Mrs. Steward Pardee and Mrs. R. Edmund Dowling. Mary received in a beige satin sheath with a crushed chiffon cummerbund and she carried flaming rosebuds.

Ingrid wore a swirling blue satin frock with a portrait neckline and carried camellias. Mrs. Pardee was in blue satin overlaid with emerald lace and green orchids while Mrs. Dowling's gown was café au lait lace and her flowers were also green orchids.

Guests dashed home to change for dinner at the Little Club at which two cousins, Mary Bradley and Mary Hendrie were presented to society.

Mary, daughter of the Stephen Duncan Bradleys, wore lustrous satin with a sweeping side skirt. Her cousin, daughter of the George Stark-hearn Hendries, was in ice blue satin. They both carried white camellias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Bradley's gown was emerald green chiffon banded in matching satin. Her flowers were cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Hendrie was in rose chiffon with white orchids.

Inspired by a trip to Australia the George Zimmermans selected a background of swaying palms for the ball at the Country Club at which their daughter, Georgia, was presented.

Georgia chose a white silk taffeta gown embellished with velvet flowers for her debut. Her colonial bouquet was of pink camellias. Pink lace embroidered with matching pearls was Mrs. Zimmerman's choice for her gown.

Ushers at the debut dance included Bartholomew A. Seymour, Jr., Louis Zimmerman, Stephen Sherer, Charles Stumb, Thomas Tracy, Michael Freydl, Jeffrey Hudson, Craig Mercier, Gerald Meier, Frank Mullen, Donald MacKenzie and Jorge Saravia, of Buenos Aires, who was the Zimmerman's house guest.

HOW TO PROFIT
THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

It was an all white wedding Saturday evening in Christ Church when Joyce Mitchell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Mitchell, of Hendrie lane, was married to Francis Anthony Mulligan.

Her silk brocade gown had seed pearl and paillette embroidery at the neckline and on two panels falling down to the chapel train. A cap of the same brocade held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried stephanotis and gardenias.

Nan Maxwell was maid of honor in white taffeta with a small white hat of velvet and deep green leaves. Her bouquet was of Amazon lilies and ivy.

The attendants, dressed like the honor maid, were Mrs. Donald DeKeyser, matron of honor, Joan Biscaglia, of New York; Mrs. Allen Holmes, of Saginaw; and Joan Mulligan, of Hartford, Conn.

Osgood S. Philpott, Jr., of Denver was best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of the William J. Mulligans, of Denver.

Ushering were Jerry Chambers, of Denver; Bruce Clinton, of Wilmette, Ill.; Harrison Dunning, of Maylin, Pa.; George Andretta, of Hartford, Conn.; and Joseph F. Maycock.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Country Club, Mrs. Mitchell wore a sapphire peau de soie gown with a small hat in matching velvet and net. Her flowers were white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Mulligan was in a French lace gown of burnt amber over beige satin and wore green orchids.

For travelling to Colorado Springs the bride changed into a banker's gray wool sheath with a jacket collared in Persian lamb. Her accessories were gray and her hat white. They will live in Boulder.

Bush Sisters Bow Before Walker Ball

On the day after Christmas the debutantes enjoyed one of the most gala days of the holiday at the dinner for Julie and Mary Bush, and the "Winter Wonderland" ball given for Paula Walker at the Country Club.

The Bush sisters received with their mother, Mrs. A. Stansell Bush, of Cloverly road, in the French Room of the Club. Julie, a glowing brunette, wore white peau de soie accented with crushed tucking. Her sister, Mary, a lovely blonde, was in stark white taffeta with a bertha collar looped with pearls.

Both carried pink camellias, gifts from their grandfathers, Charles T. Bush and Charles E. Dohany. Mrs. Bush wore a light blue silk taffeta with creamy camellias for the debutante dinner.

Pale green cloths covered the tables set for 10 and each was centered with two reindeer and Christmas greens. Julie was escorted by James P. Gorman and William Stevens. Mary's beaux were Edward F. Lambrecht, Jr., and Bartholomew A. Seymour, Jr.

Paula continued the decorative theme in her frock of turquoise taffeta, a large bow brushing the hemline of the bell shaped skirt. She carried her father's gift bouquet of pink carnations.

Palest pink and gold brocade was Mrs. Walker's choice of a slim sheath highlighted by two American Beauty panels sweeping to the hemline.

Try to catch the spectacular display in the 700 block on Lakeshore.

Next is Lake Shore lane. Again a double doorway with pale blue wreaths and indirect lighting on a birth tree. One home is done traditionally with a shadow box treatment of doorway and with tiny lights outlining windows, but with red spotlight behind each shrub giving the whole house a glow.

In the Deeplands subdivision, there are several well-designed doors. One doorway is outstanding in blue with two lovely blue wreaths. One has two Christmas tree designs in the front windows with lights forming trimmed formal trees. The double doors have two tall potted trees formed of ornamental fruits and nuts.

Grosse Pointe Farms Starting west on Kercheval, watch for the Nativity scene on Merriweather, with lifesized mother and Babe on a door with the Wise Men on one side and the shepherds on the other. Further down the same block there is a white and gold wreath on an aqua and white door. And don't miss the fairy tree, a vision all in tiny white lights.

Feature Page

By Pat Talbot

Long before the summer colony there were Morans in the Pointe and they contributed a great deal to its early development as township officers, real estate entrepreneurs and citizens.

John Bell Moran gave his ancestors' papers to the Burtal Historical Collection some years back and they reveal conditions under Charles Moran (1743-1847), a supervisor of Hamtramck Township, of which the Pointe was then a part.

Voters, then as always, felt compelled to complain to the political power when things didn't go their way. A letter signed by many French settlers in the 1840's stresses their grievances.

1—The owner of 1 arpent (land measurement) should not be compelled to work on the public road as those having several arpents.

2—So many people are leaving the country that there is difficulty keeping up the roads.

3—Regulations needed for use of mill and water rights and a regular charge for fencing.

It would seem there was political chicanery, lassitude and dissatisfaction even in those days when the population could not have numbered over 500. But the Morans knew their obligations and fulfilled them. Their family farm near the old Grant homestead on Lakeshore was one of the most prosperous in the area and the Morans also had a place in Detroit.

Morans were connected with all the best French families in the Pointe. They had married Campaus and Belleperches. Another Moran, Fred, and his brother, were to form the Windmill Pointe Development and reclaim all that marshland for future building.

In those days Charles Moran paid his son's tuition at a local schoolmaster's with two loads of wood and two dollars. The Morans took care of their own, too. One hundred minots of bread were paid to the Sisters of Quebec General Hospital for the admission of Manon Moran, a blind sister.

During the last cholera epidemic of the 1840's in Detroit Marie Moran, wife of the grand seigneur, invited a group of children from the plague ridden city to her Grosse Pointe home and cared for them with herbs and remedies she had learned from the Indians. She died in 1852 and is buried here as are many Morans in the old churchyard on Moross road.

Among the most powerful pioneer families for many arpents around were the Morans, of Grosse Pointe, and their many descendants.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Some post-holiday highlights . . . here's a hint for next year if you want a fat Christmas tree and your living room is small. Jack Sturtevant cut the back of his spruce off; (the term for this is espalier, we were told), and set it right against a wall, trimmed it sparsely with glitter and cunningly arranged a spotlight to show off the tree.

Mrs. Robert Sutton II has a special wreath given to her by her mother, Mrs. Mark Stevens, which she wears in her hair for festive holiday parties. It is fetchingly entwined with greens and pine cones, a seasonal cocktail chapeau.

Susie Fletcher, daughter of the Charles Fletchers, of Rivard boulevard, received the most fabulous doll house from Santa. The colonial mansion had all the guests agog at the Fletchers' recent gala. Most of the period furniture was upholstered by loving grandparents.

And speaking of trees as we were awhile back, the Robert Basons wanted a two story pine for their entrance hall in Whittier road. Last year they had one cut to specifications in the North but this year when they shopped around they couldn't find one the right height so they suspended a tree from the ceiling and it hung three feet off the floor, quite an engineering feat.

Here's a delightful vignette from Mary Zinn, a ten year old who every year has asked for a horse. Where she would stable it near her Dean Lane home doesn't seem to concern her. So far no luck but she tells a wonderful story about her mother, who did get a horse for Christmas when she was a small girl. The pet was given equally to her and her sister. The sister hated horses so sold her half to her equestrian sibling for THREE postage stamps. Delightful!

More news on the "Out of This World" New Year's Eve party at Lochmoor where the decorating committee was quite carried away with the theme. Centering each table was a miniature space station, glittering platforms mounted on three tiny legs covered with a plastic dome housing a small space man.

PILFERINGS

From too much love of living,
From hope and fear set free,
We thank with brief thanksgiving
Whatever gods may be
That no life lives forever;
That dead men rise up never;
That even the warmest river
Winds somewhere safe to sea.
Algernon Charles Swinburne

She: "I've changed my mind."
He: "Does it work any better than the old one?"

Every year it takes less time to fly across the ocean and longer to drive to the office.

When asked what his greatest ambition was, a small boy replied, "I think it is to take mother away from the dinner table and wash her face."

Motto from a tea bag . . . To avoid that run down feeling—cross the streets carefully.

THE REV. HUGH WHITE, OF THE GROSSE POINTE METHODIST CHURCH

Churches and parishes in the Pointe have increased in great strength since the war and most of the credit must be given to dynamic and hardworking young ministers like the Rev. Hugh White.

He came here 13 years ago, almost right from the cloistered halls of an Evanston seminary, to find 57 dedicated Methodists worshipping in the old Kerby School. Today he ministers to a parish of 800 in a church worth half a million dollars in Moross road.

Mr. White is the first to admit you need more than spiritual faith to successfully begin and run a church, even in a parish like the Pointe. It is a favorite axiom of his that a man who is incompetent in another field will never make a good minister. A distinguished pastor must excel in many ways and he is quick to enumerate these.

Money Biggest Problem
One of the newest fields of service to engage the modern shepherd of a flock is counseling. The Rev. White does more than his share of this in premarital advice, family problems, searching questions of faith and methods of Christian living. He insists that 90 per cent of the problems that come to his study involving families are concerned with money, not lack of it, so much, as decisions on how to spend what there is, whether to buy new fishing tackle or an automatic washing machine. He advises young people to reach a philosophy of economics before they are married and thus avoid added stresses and strains.

Hugh White is a man as much as a minister with a vibrant personality which stands out in any group. His sympathetic understanding and warmth never cloud his strong convictions. The Methodist Church has always taken a firm stand on alcohol and Rev. White agrees completely with the church's tenets. He believes that many of the problems brought to him would never arise if temperance was one of the foundations of the Christian home. This is a belief with which he will not compromise.

A Long, Full Day
He seems fully endowed with tremendous energy, a great asset for a pastor whose day is never confined to eight hours. He has no associate minister to help him, but just recently a director of Christian Education, Helen Thomas, has been added to the staff to assist in directing the youth activities of which the Methodist Church is so proud.

His church was the first in the Pointe to establish a co-operative nursery and has an active youth fellowship and church school. His church has sharpened up its approach to youth, keeping in close contact with them when they leave home to enter college and welcoming them with a realistic appraisal and answer to their special problems.

Parish Church All Important
The great cornerstone of the Methodist faith in America has been the parish church. In every crossroad across the country the Methodist spire was the first to rise. Its membership of nine million is the largest Protestant denomination in America. Now the Methodists are trying to bring this intimate contact to large cities and do the same type of missionary work there. Pastoral visitation is the keynote to the growth of any church, the Rev. Hugh White feels, and he does a great deal of it.

It was this type of Christian work which impelled him to leave his beloved parish here a few years back and with his wife try to found a similar church in Japan. Grandparents in Texas kindly took the two White children, Jeffrey and Stuart, and the Whites traveled to a primitive community near Kobi in Japan where they began to organize a Methodist mission. The Whites learned a great deal in their three month stay and are proud to report that the church they founded is doing well with a membership of 35, remarkable there where only one-half of 1 per cent of the population are Christian.

Men's Club Pledge $1,800
The Pointe church's Men's

Club recently pledged $1,800 to continue the Japanese mission. The trip to Japan was the tenth anniversary gift of a grateful parish to the Whites, and inspired by the visit of Tomio Muto, a prominent Japanese Protestant here to speak at the Methodist Lenten dinner three years ago.

The Methodist Church here is looking to the future, being in the midst of erecting one addition and planning a final annex in the near future. Rev. White is a prime factor in all this growth but he believes a great deal of credit must be given to his laymen, a hard working, devoted and constantly changing group. The complete cost of the first building was paid off in seven years due to the efforts of the parish. The future looks bright, with both men's and women's organizations growing and taking more active leadership in the metropolitan district.

Rev. White thinks of the ministry as the most challenging field of service available to young men and wishes there were more college graduates considering this career. There are never enough good ministers available for parishes calling for them.

For himself he believes, "It is a privilege to be a minister and it takes everything it takes to be a man."

"The Song of the Skis" . . . we're sure implies a warm hearth later and perhaps the wonderful after-ski clothing from Margaret Rice. Full skirts and sweaters are color coordinated for fashion flair . . . but you can also work on the principle that opposites attract flattering attention. For example, combine tapered black velveteen siren slacks with a handsome Cassini shirt. His colorful bird pattern one is particularly delightful . . . the motif runs down both sides of the front . . . about two inches wide. Margaret Rice casual clothes are planned for relaxed good looks.

Smart figuring . . . the saving on fashions "head to toe" at Jacobson's. To mention but a few . . . I. Miller shoes, lingerie and foundation garments, coats, suits, dresses and children's clothing . . . all attractively priced to make your Christmas money go FAR!

By the light of our travel stars . . . a romantic look that might begin of a Southern afternoon, float on for dancing. An enchanting dress of white pique from D. J. Healy . . . scooped flattery at the neck . . . peccancy lines . . . bowed and buttoned surprisingly enough and pleasantly so . . . at the hem. Go sight-seeing in a dress and sweater ensemble. The pink or blue sleeveless dress has a matching sweater . . . trimmed in white.

Suited . . . for North OR South . . . the white wool fitted suit . . . trimmed with mink. Available in pink or blue . . . for the junior figure . . . about seventy dollars . . . at D. J. Healy.
