THE GOVERNMENT slashed stock-margin requirements late Wednesday as continued decline in American income and output were reported for December. Effective Thursday, the Federal Reserve Board announced, stock-market margins will be cut 70 to 50 percent.

The action obviously was a move aimed at helping counteract the business recession and an accompanying decline of stock-market values. A short time before the Reserve Board made its announcement, the Commerce Department reported that personal income fell in December to an annual rate of $342,800,000,000, or 2½ billion below the November rate.

TWENTY-TWO OR MORE persons were killed and several score were injured Wednesday by a 90-second earthquake that struck the lofty Andes city of Arequipa. The mountain metropolis of 132,000 lies 7,800 feet above sea level.

A radio broadcast from Arequipa, heard in Lima, Peru, said 22 dead had been identified at a morgue. Miraflores, a city of 16,000 adjoining Arequipa, and neighboring Tiabaya village were four-fifths demolished, radio reports from the region said.

Normal communications were wrecked. Information came from amateur radio broadcasters.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER said Wednesday he would rather suffer a small deficit in his new 73.9-billion-dollar budget than ask Congress to raise taxes. He said the economy might need a "needle," not a "check-rein."

The President strengthened his stand against a tax increase at a news conference. He also reaffirmed his belief that a business upturn later this year would keep his record peace-time budget balanced.

A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE has blistered the handling of America's multi-billion-dollar worldwide military-assistance program. It found that:

- (1) Planes were given to a country that had no pilots to fly them.
- (2) Vehicles were given to a country that had no gasoline to run them.
- (3) "There just does not seem to be any clear policy determination to guide" U. S. military assistance advisory groups in foreign countries. "The result is a tremendous financial loss."
- (4) Diplomatic and political considerations often dominate and outweigh military considerations in determining questions of military assistance.
- (5) "The most vital deficiencies in the program stem from the existing basic policy of establishing unrealistic (military) force goals" for countries receiving military aids.

ARMED NATIONAL GUARDSMEN, their officers insisting officially that "this is a practice alert," searched integration - troubled Central High School Thursday night.

They apparently were looking for a bomb, despite the assertions that it was no more than a routine maneuver. Earlier, a high National Guard officer, who would not be identified, said the troops suddenly were ordered to the school because of a "bomb scare."

THE STOCK MARKET closed with modest gains Thursday after bouncing up sharply in early trading and retreating during the afternoon.

Action of the Federal Reserve Board in reducing margin requirements from 70 percent to 50 percent created a strong demand for stocks early. Very heavy volume during the morning sent the tick-

Indians' Eye View Of Lake St. Clair

Eliminate the paved street in foreground and fire-plug and stop sign and you have pretty much the same picture early Pointe settlers and Indians had of Lake St. Clair. Since the clearing of the Newberry estate recently, this marks the first time in a quarter of a century Pointers have been able to see the lake from as far back as Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Swim Stars Expected to Draw Crowd

University of Michigan National Champions to Give Two Exhibitions At Parcels

The demand for tickets, particularly among the students at the Grosse Pointe High School and the two junior high schools, indicate a capacity crowd at the swimming and diving exhibitions to be held at the Parcels School swimming pool, 20600 Mack Avenue, on Tuesday evening, January 28, Club President A. D. Rueggesser announced.

In addition to dues-paid members of the Grosse Pointe U. of M. Club being given one adult ticket free, the club is giving free admission tickets to the coaches and entire Grosse Pointe High School swimming squad.

All Stars Coming

U. of M. Coach Gus Stager has advised Rueggesser that all of the stars on the U. of M. swimming team will participate in the meet, including Grosse Pointers varsity Captain Don Adamski, Ed Pongracz, Harry Huffaker and John Bennett. Twelve U. of M. swimmers in all will engage in the two swimming and diving performances to be held, the first at 7 and the second at 8:30 p.m., at the conclusion of which they will be served a dinner in the Teachers Dining Room at Parcels School by a group from the alumni club.

The U. of M. swimmers and divers, who won the national crown last year, are rated as strong or stronger than a year ago. Among them are three champions, Dick Hanley, Cy Hopkins and Dick Kimball. Hanley holds the world's record in the 220-yard free style, Hopkins and Kimball are NCAA champions in the 220-

Councilmen's Wives Take Over at Meeting in City And Revise Parking Laws

Spouses Gang up on Solons and Demand Change In Meter Regulations that Allow Only 30 Minutes to Shop

"Never under estimate the power of a woman!" How true but true! City Councilmen reluctantly faced reality Monday night as they turned over a large portion of their valuable meeting time to the household complaint department.

It seems the ladies were displeased with the recent move of the Council to limit parking in the Village, on Kercheval avenue, to half an hour.

Admit They're Lazy

Admittedly lazy, they argued that they liked "to work" both sides of the street, intermittently dropping off bundles in their conveniently-located vehicles.

But, maintained the fairer sex, 30 minutes was hardly

Change Woods' Phone Numbers

The phone numbers of the Woods city hall and police station will be changed beginning February 3, it was disclosed by City Administrator William Lange.

The Woods was notified by the Michigan Bell Telephone company, that it has become necessary to reassign some of the trunk lines in the area.

The new numbers will remain the same, even for the new municipal building, when and if it is constructed.

Woods residents are urged to keep in mind the following phone numbers, for the city hall, TU 4-6800; and for the police station, TU 4-6300.

CAR MIRROR STOLEN

George V. Rowe, Jr., of 636 Neff road, complained to Farms police on Sunday, January 19, that someone had stolen the side view mirror of his car while the vehicle was parked in the St. Paul Church parking lot.

Mothers to Make March Against Polio January 29

Thousands of porchlights, symbols of the annual Mothers' March on Polio, will light up Wayne County on Wednesday, January 29.

From 7 to 8 p.m. on that evening, more than 50,000 devoted volunteers in cities, villages and the townships will visit homes in their neighborhoods to receive contributions for the 1958 March of Dimes. The Mothers will leave a card with vital information on vaccine at every home.

Houseowners wishing to contribute will turn on their porchlights or place a lighted candle or lamp in the window. The marching mothers, each carrying a mason jar with the familiar official sticker, carry envelopes with their names and addresses written on the outside. This simple equipment reassures the homeowner that the contribution will reach the March of Dimes. Because many men may take part in the campaign, they wear an identifying tag in the hatband announcing: Tonight I am a Mother.

Anne Campbell Stark, Wayne County chairman of the Mothers' March, says "Our Mothers' March on Wednesday night will assure continuation of March of Dimes rehabilitation for thousands of polio patients, still hoping to make further recovery. It will mean that the research program and

3 Cars Crash At Intersection

A three-car collision occurred at the corner of Kercheval and Notre Dame last Monday afternoon, January 13. Carolyn J. Postiff, of 1066 Withington, in Ferndale, was headed west on Kercheval and had stopped for the red light at that spot.

Margaret Ellen Hahn, 1221 Three Mile drive, pulled into line behind her and all was proceeding nicely — the light was about to change — when Lila A. Deeb, 740 Grand Marais, third in line, tapped Mrs. Hahn's bumper which, in turn, tapped that of Miss Pontiff.

Damage to all vehicles was minor and Mrs. Deeb accepted full responsibility for any and all fees. No call for a ticket.

METER VANDALISM

Farms police are looking for the person, who on Saturday, January 8, broke the glass of a parking meter at Calvin near the alley south of Mack, poured in some kind of powder and set the meter on fire. The meter head and mechanism were damaged from the heat, a police report disclosed.

School Kids Must Obey Safety Rules

Park Police Will Issue Tickets to Violators and They Must Appear in Court

Park school children found to be in violation of pedestrian traffic laws will be ticketed, and will appear in Juvenile Court with their parents, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The stepped up enforcement of the law was announced following a two-week survey conducted at the Pierce-Defer school crossing sector, made by Park Patrolman George Blair, school safety officer.

The survey showed that where the school guard is stationed at the traffic light, pedestrian laws are adhered to, but at crosswalks and other section of the streets, children are at times careless, thereby endangering themselves.

Will Issue Tickets

Chief Louwers said that the personnel of his department have been instructed to issue tickets to children in violation, and those cited will have to appear in court with their parents.

Patrolman Blair conducted an on-the-spot check, the chief said, and found that many of the children are not complying with the rules of safety as applied to pedestrians.

Another result of the survey the chief said, will be the installation of "No Standing" signs in the area of the two schools, and drivers failing to heed the signs will be ticketed. School coach drivers have been instructed to discharge their children passengers some distance from the Pierce-Defer traffic light, during school days, Chief Louwers added.

Obstruct Traffic

He said that it has been found that when buses stop near the light, that not only do they hamper moving traffic, but they endanger the children by obstructing their view when crossing the street, so that they cannot see oncoming vehicle traffic.

In the Trombly School area, "No Standing" and "No parking" signs will be erected near the Essex drive entrance to the school. These signs will be effective only during school hours, the chief said.

Parent will not be permitted to pick up their children within the area of the posted signs, the better to protect the children and the Safety Patrol boys, Chief Louwers pointed out.

TWO RECEIVE TICKETS

A ticket was issued Donald F. Balow, of 2371 Allard road, last Friday, for not having his operator's license with him. Daniel William Machugh, of 20086 Ballentyne court, was also ticketed by City police for allowing an unlicensed driver to drive his car.

High School Giving Diplomas to 122 Graduates Thurs.

Ceremonies to Take Place in the Auditorium-Gymnasium With Dr. James Bushong Making Presentations.

Tonight, Thursday, January 23, at 8:15 o'clock, 122 blue-gowned candidates for graduation as members of the Class of January, 1958 of Grosse Pointe High School, will march in to the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and take their places in the auditorium-gymnasium. The Reverend Walter J. Geffert, of Christ the King Lutheran Church, will give the invocation.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of John Finch, will sing "Bless This House" and "Glory Now to Thee Be Given." Janet Collinson will be the accompanist.

Class Speakers

The theme for the commencement speeches is "Adjusting to Conflicts." David Law will speak on "Within Yourself," Sally Whittingham, class president, will discuss "With Associates," and Elizabeth Elliott will talk about "With Society."

Charles E. Saltzer, acting principal, will read the name of each senior in alphabetical order and they will receive their diplomas from Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of schools.

The Mothers' Club dictionary, the Bausch and Lomb award, the Chet Sampson Scholarship recipients, and names of honor graduates will then be announced.

Five percent of the seniors will receive the citizenship award. These seven people will be designated by the faculty and class as outstanding in such qualities as integrity, honesty, loyalty, courtesy, sincerity, co-operation, and respect for others.

Reception to Follow

Following these presentations, the Reverend Geffert will give the benediction and the green graduates will recess with their fresh sheep-skins.

Immediately afterward, a reception will be held in the girls' gym for graduates, their parents and guests. A dance and smorgasbord dinner for the seniors will take place at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial after the reception. This is also sponsored by the Mothers' Club.

Failure to See Sign Disastrous

A serviceman, unfamiliar with local stop signs, suffered the consequences last week-end.

Wilfred H. Bonin, 2242ARFC, at Selfridge Field Air Base, headed north on St. Clair, failed to notice the stop sign at St. Paul and ran into a station wagon going west on that street, driven by Ronald Edward Fine, 1092 Grayton.

The impact of the two vehicles was such that Fine's car rolled over and both were heavily damaged, but fortunately no one was hurt.

Bonin was ticketed for not having his car under control.

Illness Sends Japanese Student Back to His Home

Kiichiro Nagai, the young Japanese student who came to the High School this fall on the American Field Service Program, has had to return to his homeland because of illness.

Kiichi had been in St. John's Hospital since November 7th, suffering from a serious kidney infection. Because doctors said his convalescence would necessarily be a long one, his family felt it best for him to return to Tokyo, where Kiichi's father is a member of the Japanese Parliament. He flew back last Wednesday, and the AFS provided him with a nurse to accompany him on the journey.

Kiichi will be sorely missed

Maps Show Junior High Districts

Boundaries Well Defined By Displays at Various School Buildings

School officials reminded Grosse Pointe News readers today that further information on the new junior high school districts may be obtained by calling the Department of Pupil Personnel, 389 St. Clair, TUxedo 5-2000.

Maps of the districts are on display at Richard, Barnes, and Monteith Elementary Schools as well as at Pierce and Parcels Junior High Schools, and the Administration Building.

As indicated in the January 16 issue of the News the following assignments of junior high school students has been planned for September, 1958:

Parcels Junior High

All children residing in the Poupard, Mason, and Ferry Elementary School Districts. Children residing in the north-west corner of the Monteith district. Children residing in the north end of the Barnes district.

Brownell Junior High

All children residing in the Kerby district. Most of the Monteith and Barnes districts with the exceptions previously noted. The northwest corner of the Richard district.

Pierce Junior High

Children residing in the remainder of the Richard district. All children residing in the Trombly, Defer, and Maire districts.

For further details and for answers to questions, readers are invited to contact either the Department of Pupil Personnel, the junior high schools, or the elementary schools serving your district.

224 Neophytes Study Driving

At present the Grosse Pointe High School has ten driver training cars in use. Over 224 students are enrolled in the course. The automobiles are loaned the high school by seven local car agencies for use throughout the school year. Most of the current fleet are 1957 models, many of which will soon be exchanged at no cost to the school for 1958 models.

Drive Set For Friday At Center

Bloodmobile and Workers Will Accept Donations From 2 to 8 p.m.

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile and workers will be at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore from 2 to 8 p.m. They will be trying to replenish their very slim supply of plasma. This shortage is due to the poor collections recently at factories where layoffs have caused either cancellations of blood collections or light responses.

Please give now if you possibly can. Call TU 1-7511 to make your appointment.

Any person age 18 through 59 may give. However, 18 to 21 year olds must have signed permission slips. The donor must weigh at least 110 pounds and can not give more than five times a year, but having had malaria and jaundice no longer interferes with your giving.

You can donate after 24 hours following a flu shot and one week after receiving an anti-biotic. You may donate one year after having a baby. It is advisable to eat fruits (other than citrus), bread or toast and tea or coffee shortly before donating blood: No fats, cream, butter, fried foods, meat or eggs should be eaten within four hours before donating.

Community Enterprise

This Blood collection at the Center is very much a community enterprise, being the responsibility of the Grosse Pointe Community High Council of which Hugh Burns of the Post Office is chairman. Mrs. Foersterling represents Christ Church Episcopal; Mrs. Zeunen, Christ the King Lutheran; Mrs. Friesema, Faith Community Reformed; Mrs. Riske, Grace Evangelical and Reformed; Mrs. Worboys, Grosse Pointe Congregational; Mrs. Rundel, Grosse Pointe Memorial Presbyterian; Mrs. Zentgraf, Grosse Pointe Methodist; Mrs. Amus, Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian; Dr. Basinski, Grosse Pointe Unitarian; Mrs. Nigro, St. Michael's Episcopal; Mrs. Orth, St. Paul's Lutheran; Mr. York, First English Lutheran; Mr. Butts, American Legion Post 303; Jacobson's, Mrs. Layne; Mr. Belanger, Grosse Pointe Farms Police; Mrs. Marx, Grosse Pointe War Memorial; Mrs. Gibson, The Marine League.

Helping to run the Blood Bank will be Junior Red Cross girls from Grosse Pointe High School under the leadership of Mary Patterson. They have advertised the Blood Bank on automobile windshields throughout the community and they will act as baby sitters, phone reminders of appointments, serve the workers supper and assist in the canteen.

Clubs Also Helping

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Davis, the Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe is phoning all previous givers to urge them to donate again. Mrs. Kernie and Mrs. Friesema will act as hostesses

Three Injured As Cars Crash

Wilfred Donald Jackson, of 23355 Edsel Ford court, in St. Clair Shores, was ticketed by City police last Thursday for reckless driving and causing an accident. A witness notice was served to Elmer Dykeman, of 21646 Moross road.

Dykeman was headed east on Mack avenue when Jackson, in making a left hand turn off Mack, onto St. Clair, rammed into him. Jackson claimed that he had checked oncoming traffic, and Dykeman must have been in his blind spot.

Whatever the reason, three people went to the hospital as a result of the collision. Jackson suffered facial lacerations, Dykeman injured his left leg and side, and Bernard Carrier, of 788 St. Clair road, who was a passenger in Jackson's car, hurt his chest and left leg.

yard breast stroke and in low and high diving.

Because of their interest in swimming, students' tickets are priced at 50 cents. The regular adult admission price is $1.00. Tickets may be obtained from any officer or member of the U. of M. alumni club's board of governors, Ruegger said, or by calling Woodward 1-5470 or Valley 2-4994. Tickets will also be on sale after 6 p.m. at the entrance to the Parcels pool on the evening of the swimming performances.

THE HERETOFORE "sacred" 50-million-dollar Veterans Trust Fund may be tapped to meet the State's present financial dilemma. Some prominent legislators of both parties are reported to be eyeing the huge fund as a means of meeting the fiscal crisis without saddling Michigan with new taxes.

Speculation persists that the fund established from surplus money in 1946 may be used. It was learned that those supporting such a move already have talked with prominent leaders in veterans' affairs and that reaction to the proposal is encouraging.

THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS Committee Friday overwhelmingly approved a temporary five-billion-dollar increase in the national debt limit to give the Administration more financial elbow room.

The temporary increase would boost the debt limit from 275 to 280 billion dollars until June 30, 1959. The House plans to vote on the bill Tuesday; passage appears certain. The Senate Finance Committee plans to take up the bill January 27. It faces stiffer opposition from the Senate economy bloc.

REPORTS OF FLARES and faint radio signals raised hopes early Saturday for 10 airmen whose B-50 weather plane disappeared in a typhoon 600 miles north of Guam four days ago.

The ammunition ship Fire-drake sighted flares in the search area. The Navy destroyer escort Moore and an aircraft carrier reported hearing a radio distress call, possibly coming from a hand-operated radio. The searchers intensified their hunt in the area, which covers a 10,000-square-mile stretch of the Western Pacific.

Sunday, January 19
HUNDREDS OF ENRAGED Indians, firing guns and tear gas and shouting war whoops, fell upon an outnumbered band of Ku Klux Klansmen Saturday night and a wild melee followed.

The Indians, many of them whooping teen-agers, broke up a scheduled Klan rally before it started. The Klansmen dropped their own guns and broke for their automobiles. The battle was fought in the southeastern town of Maxton, North Carolina, where some 30,000 Indians, members of the local Lumbee tribe, dwell in Robeson County.

The Indians went on the warpath because two cross burnings earlier last week were reported to have been warnings to the Indians not to mingle with the whites in that area.

DIPLOMATS IN WARSAW said Saturday Moscow's announcement of Nikita Khrushchev's recent secret meeting with Polish Communist leader Wladyslaw Gomulka may have caught Poland's leaders by surprise.

These informants said the Polish leaders may have wanted to keep the talks under wraps and that the announcement possibly was embarrassing to them. Official Polish sources tended to play down the importance of the meeting.

But this attitude and the delay in announcing the talks, suggested that some points of difference arose, presumably over Soviet leadership of the Communist world.

THE UAW Sunday revealed details of the demands it will serve on the auto industry's "Big Three" in contract talks this spring. In a pre-convention message to delegates scheduled to attend the special convention starting Wednesday at Masonic Temple, the International said:

The companies will be asked to boost supplemental unemployment benefit payments to make up the difference between State unemployment compensation and 80 per cent of net pay—instead of the present 60-65 per cent.

The union will demand that pension payments for UAW retirees be increased from from $2.25 per month for each year worked to $2.75 a month.

AN EARTHQUAKE rocked Northern Ecuador Sunday, heaving up a tidal wave that hit the Pacific port of Esmeraldas and killing at least 14 persons. Some 45 were injured and four persons were missing.

The earthquake hit Esmeraldas at 9:08 a.m. (Detroit time), the reports said. The Andes Institute at Bogota, Colombia, said its seismographs recorded two shocks, nearly 40 minutes apart. Residents of Esmeraldas fled in panic into the streets, while ships and boats in the harbor sought safety in the open sea.

KU KLUX KLANSMEN, terrorist night riders of the South, squirmed into hiding Sunday as prowling bands of armed Indians sought them in village, field and forest. The Indians, some in warpaint, were on a second-day rampage. In the uprising, police said, the onrushing warriors fired over 1,000 rounds of ammunition into the air and the ground. On Sunday the tribesmen seemed still determined to carry on the uprising.

Tuesday, January 21
PRESIDENT EISENHOWER opened the Republican 1958 political campaign Monday night with a plea that the national-security issue be kept out of the year's "political chess game."

In a speech before 5,400 Republicans at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner, in Chicago, the President harked back to GOP campaign themes of 1954 and 1956. He urged the party to sell itself on a record of peace, prosperity and strength.

Mr. Eisenhower was applauded frequently during his speech. While the President was ruling the national-security issue off the political course in Chicago, his chief White House lieutenant, Sherman Adams, was in Minneapolis giving the Democrats essentially the same speech.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER reported Monday that business has tumbled harder than expected but "whatever our national security requires, our economy can provide and we can afford to pay."

In his annual economic report to Congress, Mr. Eisenhower cautioned that unwarranted wage or price increases—and Government economists are concerned particularly about wages—could block an upturn and court the danger of controls.

There was nothing to suggest the Administration is ready to turn to big-scale pump priming, a tax cut or red ink spending to buck up business and incomes. The emphasis was all on the idea that the downturn has really been moderate and things soon will begin picking up once more.

What Car Has The Best Brakes?

(Read this)

"After testing a 1958 CENTURY, one of four Buick Series (all but the SPECIAL) equipped with new deeply-finned aluminum front brake drums, it is our agreeable duty to report that these are the best brakes on a Detroit sedan by far that we have tested, and that they are, conservatively, a 100 per cent improvement over conventional Detroit brakes."

Direct quotation from the new issue of SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED 1958 AWARD IN RECOGNITION OF OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AND SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION IN THE AUTOMOTIVE FIELD PRESENTED TO THE BUICK MOTOR DIVISION GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION, FOR MAJOR ADVANCES IN BRAKES.

NOW—more than ever—When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

Every window of every Buick is SAFETY-GLASS

22 emergency stops from 60 mph—and Buick's brakes still effective!

As a result of this grueling brake test, SCI stated: "We find it the rule for Detroit sedans to brake quite efficiently for the first few stops, but then they deteriorate rapidly." But here's what happened in the Buick CENTURY: 22 "crash stops" were made from 60 MPH, and afterwards, the brakes were still fully effective. Says SCI: "This was by far the most severe test we ever have submitted a sedan's brakes to, but after it was over the Buick's brakes functioned perfectly. . . . Buick has done it, has achieved a much better product, and has set a new standard of brake quality for Detroit."

"Crash Stop"—fastest full stop possible for a car traveling at a given speed.

Four Pointe Youths Tops In Model Plane Show

Four Pointe youths were among the 70 winners in the seventh annual Great Lakes Indoor Model Plane Air Meet recently held in Cleveland, O.

One boy, Bob Scoville, 14, of 478 Bournemouth circle, set a new national record when his paper-covered model plane flew 10 minutes and 56 seconds, taking first place in the Junior Division.

He also took first place in the hand launched glider event, and first place in the microfilm-covered model event.

Trailing Scoville, for second place in the paper-covered model event, was Charles Duca, 15, of 450 Colonial court.

In the Senior Division, Maynard Rupp, 17, of 21225 Woodmont, was awarded first place in the paper-covered model contest; and Gerald Elliott, 20, of 968 Barrington, came out third best in the pre-fab model test.

Fliers from the Detroit area, Milwaukee, Columbus, and scores of other cities in a six-state area, competed in the contest that kept 150 timing officials on their toes.

Approximately 1,500 aviation-minded youths participated in the contest.

The Pointe winners are all members of the Detroit Balsa Bugs.

Last summer, Scoville took fourth place in the FA-1 place in the Class 1/2 A Free Flight Gas; seventh in indoor paper stick model, and fifth place in the hand launched gliders.

Duca, emerged a fifth place winner in the Nordic A-2 Towline Glider event.

Also competing last summer, was Charles Medigan, 16, of 2040 Country Club drive, who took sixth place in the A-1 Towline Glider competition.

How do most drivers behave in regard to passing on curves? Not so well, according to a 1957 survey by the Institute for Safer Living. Only 60 out of every 100 stated that they never passed under any conditions. Forty out of 100 advised that if traffic were light, they would and did pass on curves. About the same figures hold true among drivers quizzed about passing on hills.

Exchange Club Installs New Officers

The Exchange Club of Grosse Pointe held installation ceremonies on January 7 at the War Memorial Center. Newly elected officers who were seated include, left to right:—

ROBERT TAYLOR, secretary; DR. WILLIAM LABADIE, vice-president; SCOTT ORR, president; and CHARLES SUDRE, treasurer.

Shores Traffic Violators Pay

Shores Judge John Gillis found John A. Kelly of 22508 Gascony, East Detroit, guilty of reckless driving on Lake Shore road, at a hearing held on Monday, January 13.

It was also charged that Kelly had been drinking and that he failed to change the address on his driver's license. He was ordered to pay a fine and court costs of $87.50.

A similar fine and costs were levied against Rollin Johnson of 348 Piper, Detroit, who was found guilty of reckless driving on Lake Shore.

Harold A. Bianco of 610 Blaine, Detroit, paid a fine and costs of $19.50, after he was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore.

It cost James A. Balgorth of 13307 E. Canfield, Detroit, $6 for ignoring a traffic light at Lake Shore and Vernier roads.

Philip Loquer of 8177 South street, Detroit, was found not guilty of not having his car under control and causing an accident on Lake Shore and his case was dismissed.

Lettie Lee Morgan of 2709 Lafayette, Detroit, charged with a similar offense, was found guilty and paid a fine of $10.

Robert N. Able of 22833 Sheil, Mt. Clemens, paid a fine of $25 after being found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore.

Donald A. Delpapa of 14417 Hazelridge, Detroit, paid a fine and costs of $24.50. He was found guilty of speeding on Vernier road.

Marcello G. Salvatore of 13645 Maplelidge, Detroit, paid a fine of $10 for not having his car under control and causing an accident at Lake Shore and Roslyn road. In addition he was ordered to attend one session of traffic school.

Edward Van Hull of 20904 Yale boulevard, St. Clair Shores, had his case heard before Shores Judge Victor DeBaeke, who found him not guilty of losing control of his car and causing an accident. The case was dismissed.

Margaret Peters of 24005 Lakewood, St. Clair Shores, was found guilty of not having her car under control and causing an accident and not having her driver's license on her person. She paid costs of $7.50.

Kathleen Ann Wiedyk of 1988 Ridgmont, failed to appear to answer for speeding on Vernier. A warrant was issued for her arrest.

The National Science Foundation recently contracted the University of Michigan and six other universities to build and maintain a National Astronomical Observatory where all qualified U.S. astronomers can carry out research in astronomy.

Police Arrest Drunk Driver

Two speeding drivers who said they were trying to prevent a possible accident by another speeding driver, were released by Shores police following their arrest on Tuesday, January 14.

The third driver, Harry J. Nielsen, 40, of 22827 Englehardt, St. Clair Shores, was ticketed for violating the State Drunk Motor Law and later released on $150 bond until court date, February 10.

According to Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling, Patrolman Frank Mustazza was patrolling Lake Shore road when he noticed three cars traveling north at an excessive rate of speed, and he took up chase.

The lead car, driven by Nielsen, kept swerving from side to side, and hit the curb at Lake Shore and Shorecrest.

At about this time, Sgt. George LaForest and Patrolman Stanley Otulakowski, pulled out of Duval road, and witnessed the three cars being pursued by their fellow officer.

They, too, took up the chase. LaForest and Otulakowski followed Nielsen, after Mustazza pulled the other two drivers over to the curb, south on Westbury. Nielsen turned onto Gary lane and was stopped in front of number 22800.

The officers said Nielsen, who had been drinking, was driving with a flat front left tire, which was torn to ribbons and the wheel rim badly damaged.

At the station, the two other drivers, names not given, told the authorities that they were following Nielsen to prevent trailing cars from a possible accident. They were released without charge.

Nielsen was held until the bond was posted.

Never put off until tomorrow the bad habit you can cut out altogether.

Officer Hurt; Car Wrecked

A Shores patrolman was injured on Lake Shore road on Wednesday, January 15, when his scout car crashed into a utility pole while chasing a speeding motorist.

Injured was Patrolman Joseph Vitale, 29, of 21913 Kramer, St. Clair Shores, who suffered a fractured left leg and mouth injuries. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, where x-rays showed the fracture was not too serious.

Police Chief Fred Duemling said that the officer will not be able to work for several weeks.

The chief said that Vitale was chasing the speeder north on Lake Shore, when another car suddenly came out of an intersection at Renaud road.

In trying to avoid this car, the officer swerved sharply to the left. His car hit the island curb and he lost control. The vehicle jumped the curb and rammed into the pole on the right side, near the south bound lanes.

The police car was a total loss, the chief said.

No train of thought is worthwhile unless it carries some freight.

Rector's Son to Give Sermon

Special preacher at Christ Church Sunday, January 26, will be the rector's son, E. B. Maynard, Jr., who is a student for the Ministry at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Virginia.

Mr. Maynard, a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. and of Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass., will preach at the 9:30 and 11 services and later at the 6:30 Canterbury service. His sermons will describe preparation for the Ministry in the Episcopal Church.

Following the Canterbury service he will conduct a discussion with a group of teenage boys and answer questions concerning seminary life and the kinds of studies expected of those entering the ministry.

Mr. Maynard is anticipating ordination in the spring.

He is coming to Christ Church to assist in the special observance of "Theological Education," set aside by Episcopalians annually on this Sunday to acquaint the people of the church with the needs of church seminaries throughout the nation.

Seminaries include the Episcopal Theological School, Seabury Divinity School, Episcopal Theological Seminary, Southwest, General Theological Seminary, Berkely Divinity

The University of Michigan recently received a grant of $265,000 from the National Science Foundation to enable 50 high school science and mathematics teachers to study at the U-M.

OBITUARIES

MYRTLE E. HOWARD

Mrs. Howard, of 423 St. Clair road, died Wednesday, January 15. She was the wife of the late Lawrence J. Howard, and is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Young, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Ann McKnight.

Funeral services were held Saturday, with burial in Elmwood Cemetery.

Neighborhood Rink Draws Skaters to Rivard

Spotlights hanging from above reflect brightly on the smooth white surface of the ice below.

A bright red line cuts a foot-wide swath across the middle of the ice. At either end sturdy goals, also red, are imbedded in the ice.

Hard-skating figures in red and white uniforms gracefully cut back and forth up and down the rink, smoothly passing around a black puck. One of them, staying near the goal, bears the weight of wide, heavily-constructed pads on each of his legs. In his right hand he carries a stick three times as wide as those of the other players.

But there is no vast arena filled with wildly cheering spectators, no vendors selling programs, popcorn, or ice cream bars, no streamlined press box overhanging the rink.

The rink is on Rivard, in the City of Grosse Pointe. It is owned in a very informal manner by the G. Gordon Cook family, who live right next to the rink at 430 Rivard.

For the past three years, their son Dave, 17, and a senior at Grosse Pointe High School, has joined with friends in flooding the empty lot adjacent to their house.

This year the boys have gone all out in making the rink as realistic as possible, because their team in the Ice Flair Winter Hockey league holds practice sessions on it.

Scrap lumber purchased from wrecking houses was erected to serve as retaining boards at the sides and ends of the rink. Chicken-wire screening stretched around the ends to a height of six feet prevents high-flying pucks from sailing out into the street or injuring spectators on the sidewalk.

Eleven spotlights hang from three steel cables about 15 feet above the ice and provide excellent lighting for purposes of night-time hockey.

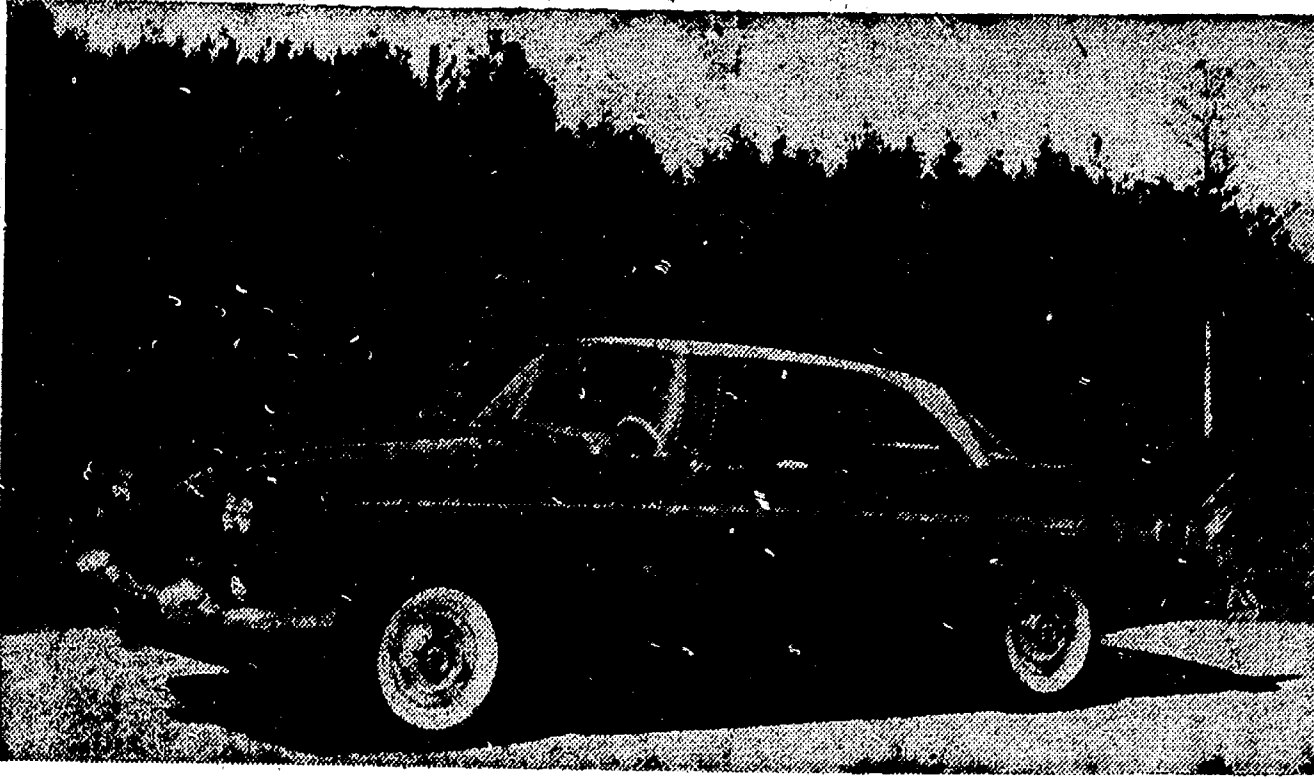

The lights were provided by Jack Hamann, an across-the-street neighbor of the Cooks who works for Detroit Edison. Jack worked all day one Saturday along with Dave and his friends to secure the cables, put the spotlights in, and provide the lighting system with a safe circuit.

The 100 x 45 rink is not limited to hockey. Dave's sisters, Martha, 11, and Mary, 9, work on the rink and invite friends over to skate after school. Occasionally they give skating parties when their big brother is playing hockey elsewhere.

ATOMS FOR PEACE

The peacetime uses of Atomic Energy can be studied by Detroiters who visit the Detroit Museum through March 3. The exhibit is called, "Atoms for Peace" and comes to Detroit from the American Museum of Atomic Energy in Oak Ridge, Tenn. It is prepared in cooperation with the Atomic Energy Commission. The purpose of this timely showing is to show citizens how the uranium atom is being utilized to great advantage in agriculture, medicine and industry.

Packard's New 2-Door Hardtop

Lower and longer and with the forward-sloping hood design so characteristic of European Grand Prix winners, the new '58 Packard made its bow in dealer showrooms across the Nation early this week. Karl Hosten, of Hosten Motors, Inc., 15205 East Jefferson, (occupying the Pointe's longtime agency building) is showing this new 2-door hard top along with other smart models. The highly conservative policy of the Studebaker-Packard Company particularly is reflecting a new growing interest in Grosse Pointe where the Packard car will always be at home.

TO GIVE CONCERT

Fifty members of the Wheaton College Chapel choir, Wheaton, Illinois, are making their winter tour into Michigan and Indiana this year and will present a concert of sacred music at the Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, 1905 E. Eight Mile road, Grosse Pointe Woods, on Saturday night, January 25 at 7:30 o'clock.

Science Award Coveted Prize

By CINDY LIPPINCOTT
GPHS Journalism Student

The winner of the Bausch & Lomb honorary science award will be announced at tonight's graduation ceremonies at Grosse Pointe High School. This award is given to the member of each graduating class who has achieved the best scholastic record in the fields of science and mathematics.

The Bausch & Lomb award was originated in 1931 when a group of teachers met in Rochester, New York, to discuss the possibility of an award to be presented annually to science students of outstanding ability. Bausch & Lomb Optical Company of Rochester agreed to establish such an award based on standards established by individual schools interested in participating in the project.

By the next year the program was under way and the award was designed. Since then, thousands of students in secondary schools have received the bronze medal, which portrays a symbolical figure of Youth focusing rays of light on a wreath of laurel. Grosse Pointe High School has been awarding these medals since 1936.

The Honorary award is available to any private or public secondary school offering three years of science. Because courses of study differ throughout the country, the administration of the award is left to the individual faculties.

At Grosse Pointe High School outstanding work in both science and mathematics is considered.

Forty-one boys and three girls have received the award at Grosse Pointe High School. Of these, a number have gone on to significant scientific accomplishments.

Tom Bassett, January '47, is now helping to install the atomic energy reactor plant at Monroe.

Two of the sons of Mr. Glenn Bray, physics instructor at Grosse Pointe High School, are following in their father's footsteps in the field of science. Bruce, June '48, received his Ph.D. at the University of Michigan and is now employed at the Continental Oil Company research center. When he was in Ann Arbor, Bruce had active control of Michigan's gamma radiation center and helped direct 20 students who worked with radiation. Ben, June '51, has completed his course work at the University of Michigan and is now engaged with his problem—a requirement for his Ph.D. in chemical engineering.

According to Bausch & Lomb, national surveys have shown that the awards have influenced the lives of many of the recipients. Thirty-five percent said that they decided to go to college when they received their awards.

As an incentive to students to continue their interest in science, Bausch & Lomb Optical company sponsors scholarships to the University of Rochester. Only the winners of the honorary awards are eligible to compete for these scholarships.

Win Trophies at Model Airplane Meet

Four boys sent to the Great Lakes Air Indoor Meet for model airplane enthusiasts, brought home a lot of hardware. They were introduced to the members of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club at the meeting of January 7. The club sponsors the program for

Woods to Sell Tract of Land

The Woods council approved a resolution on Monday, January 20, which clears the way for the sale of four acres of land owned by the city to the Inter-County Drainage Board, for a proposed sewage pumping station.

The pumping station is part of the Grosse-Gratiot Drain project and will be located within an area bordered by the Milk River and the Girard Drains. It is said the land is ideal for the station site.

The Inter-County Drain Board and Woods appraisers set the price of the land at about $12,000.

Woods City Administrator William Lange said the money will be used by the city to purchase an equal acreage of land from adjacent property owners.

In addition to the price to be paid for the Woods-owned land Lange said, the city will also receive another $3,000 because the sale would make revising of the Public Works garage plans necessary.

This is another step in the construction of the Grosse-Gratiot Drain project, which until the State Supreme Court issued a favorable decision on the constitutionality of the State Drain Acts.

The court ruled the Acts were constitutional on December 24, thereby clearing the last legal obstacle in the construction of the $10,000,000 drainage system for the Woods and Harper Woods.

NOTHING PERSONAL

A large percentage of the country's motorists have difficulty in applying traffic laws and police regulations to their own personal driving. This is revealed in a country-wide survey by the Institute for Safer Living. Seventy-five per cent of the drivers questioned felt that generally, highway police are too easy on violators; drivers were frank to state while 88 per cent believed that the courts let violators off too easy. Yet 90 per cent of these that they committed violations which could land them in traffic court.

2 Drivers Hurt in Car Crash

Two women were injured when their cars collided at Chalfonte and Moran on Thursday, January 16, but no tickets were issued.

Mrs. Ann Recor, 39, of 337 Mt. Vernon, told police that she was going west on Chalfonte, when she noticed a car coming to a stop near Moran.

The stopped car was being driven by Miss Barbara Jean Burns, 32, of 1350 Philip, Detroit, who after stopping, pulled her automobile out into the path of Mrs. Recor.

Mrs. Recor said she tried to avoid a collision, but was not successful and hit the other woman's car on the left front door, causing about $150 in damage to both cars.

Police took both women to Cottage Hospital, Mrs. Recor, for treatment of a lower back injury; and Miss Burns, for an injured left shoulder.

No tickets were issued when the women agreed to let their insurance companies handle everything.

At least half the world knows that the other half is expecting the best of it.

Woman Injured As Cars Tangle

A Detroit woman was slightly injured when her car struck another in the rear at Jefferson and Pemberton, on Sunday, January 19.

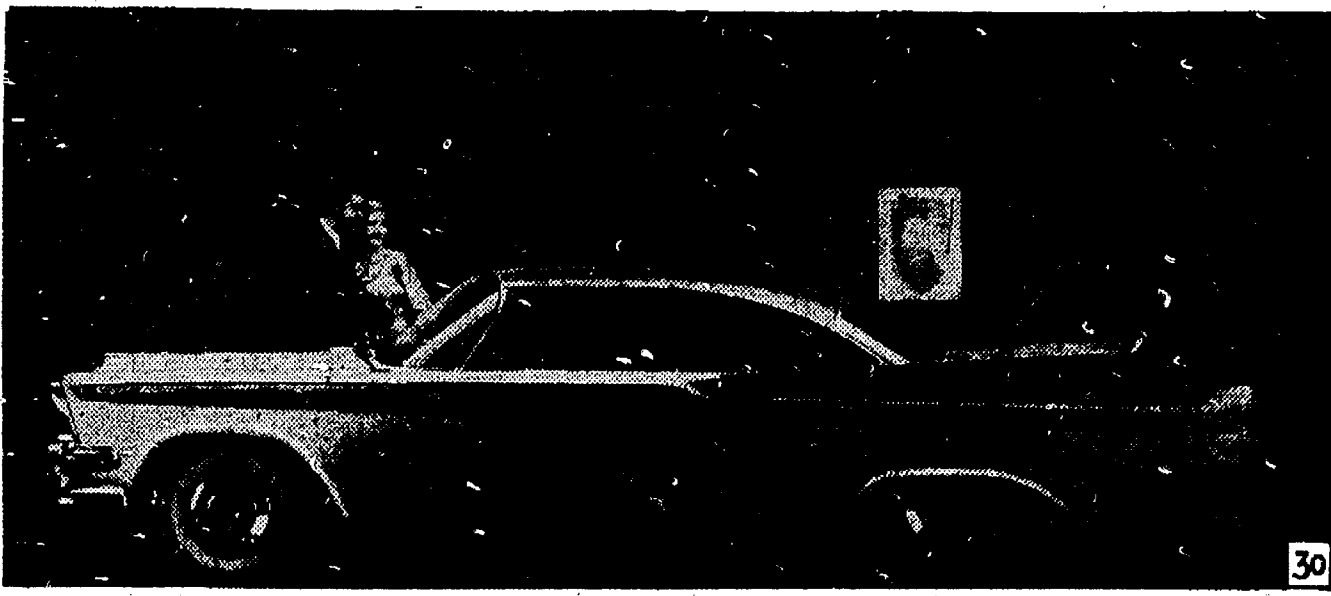

A Park police report revealed that Mrs. Dorothy D. Kobus, 39, of 7760 E. Ferry, was going east on Jefferson, when she ran into a car driven by Harry F. Wysocki, 31, of 7066 Cottonwood, Birmingham.

Wysocki, the report stated, had stopped for the red light at the intersection, when the accident took place.

Police took Mrs. Kobus to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of a cut lip, then gave her a ticket for not having her car under control and causing an accident.

The woman's car was not drivable and had to be towed away.

Woods Woman Struck By Car, Seriously Hurt

A Woods woman is in critical condition in Saratoga Hospital and is near death as a result of being hit by a car at Harper and Stanhope on Tuesday, January 21, while crossing the street.

Injured was Mrs. Helen Iganski, 58, of 2361 Stanhope. She was hit by a car driven by Harry M. Amenda, 21, of 10362 Britain, Detroit, who told police that he did not see the woman until after he had struck her.

The accident took place in the Woods, near the Harper Woods police station, and Harper Woods police made the arrest, and took Amenda to the Woods police station where he made a statement to Patrolman Jack Mast.

Woods police said they received a call from Harper Woods authorities concerning the accident, and that Amenda was being taken to the Woods station. The call came in about 9 a.m.

Amenda told Patrolman Mast that he was driving north on Harper avenue about 30 or 35 miles an hour, and did not see Mrs. Iganski, but stopped when he felt a bump. He got out of his car and found the woman lying face down in the street.

Harper Woods police said Amenda stopped about 164 feet from the point of impact, and that the woman landed on the car. The automobile showed damage to the left front headlight, hood and windshield.

Amenda said he passed a green light near the Harper Woods police station and was driving in the inside lane, northward, when a car came from the opposite direction.

He said the instant the other car passed, he felt the bump and the woman landed on the windshield, cracking it.

A man asked him if he had seen the woman before he hit her, Amenda said, and while they were talking, a Harper Woods patrolman ordered him (Amenda) to remain where he was.

Harper Woods firemen took Mrs. Iganski to the hospital, Amenda was taken to the Woods station by police.

Amenda said he did not see the woman in the middle of the street but did see the body when it hit the windshield. He said it was dark, but did not remember if the street lights were on.

Woods detectives, Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Leroy Tobian took Amenda to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, where Amenda made a statement to Asst. Pros. McLellan Manley and was released pending further investigation.

At the last report, Woods Police Sgt. Roland Symons and Sgt. O'Dell went to the hospital to talk to Mrs. Iganski, but she was still in a state of shock and not able to speak.

The officers said that she is suffering from multiple injuries and is near death.

Safety Experts Hear Louwers

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers was a guest speaker on Tuesday, January 14, before a group of 100 Down River members of safety and traffic committees.

The chief chose as his topic, "The Police Operated Traffic School," which the Down River communities appear to be interested in.

The completely air-conditioned Undergraduate Library at the University of Michigan will house 50 thousand volumes, to which all U-M students will have access.

Farms Loses 473 Voters

The Farms council on Monday, January 20, was informed that several hundred names were stricken from the vote registration rolls.

City Clerk Dawson Nacy reported that notices were sent to 503 persons early last month, informing them that unless they renewed their registration, their names would be stricken from the records. They had until January 2 to make their wishes known.

He said that only 29 persons saw fit to renew their right to cast ballots in future elections.

The majority of those whose names were removed from the rolls, Nacy said, are people who have died or since moved from the community.

The fact remains, it was pointed out, that there are still some people who are apathetic about their rights and do not seem interested in registering or voting.

The city hall is open daily, and personnel are always available to help those wanting to register.

The Municipal Building is located at 90 Kerby road. The office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. On Wednesdays, the office is open to 6 p.m. No business is transacted on Saturdays.

Registrations are accepted up to 30 days before any election, as prescribed by State Law.

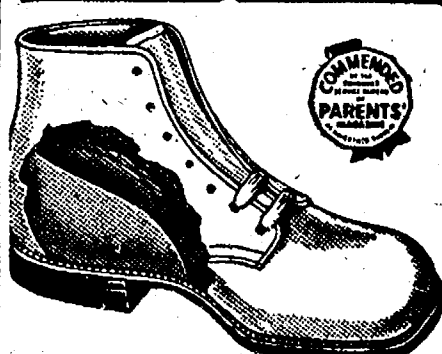

Men Gardeners Install Officers

John R. Dice, 920 Shoreham road, received the president's gavel from retiring president Thomas Robitaille when the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe held its annual election meeting January 16, at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Other officers elected were: Elmore Frank, vice-president; Harry G. Schorr, recording secretary; Russell J. Mantel, treasurer; William L. Barie, corresponding secretary; Alfred R. Tapert, parliamentarian; Ralph S. Lombard, George Vincent and Alexander J. Jemal were named directors for two year terms.

As a rule the path that leads to success is pretty well strewn with thorns.

IT DOESN'T PAY Driving after drinking is responsible for an estimated 25 per cent of the country's fatal highway accidents. This figure increases sharply on holidays and week-ends. There appears to be a good reason for "alcoholic accidents." In a recent cross-country poll by the Institute for Safer Living, 93 per cent of all drivers questioned felt that they could handle anywhere from one to four or more drinks and still drive safely. Only 7 per cent stated that they never drove after drinking.

FEW OBEY WARNINGS

Why are most drivers stopped by police? Speeding, of course! In a recent survey by the Institute for Safer Living, 50 out of every 100 drivers questioned stated that they decided for themselves what their speed limit shall be. Of these, 20 per cent stated that they drove over the speed limit on occasion, but 60 per cent admitted they exceeded speed limits as a practice. Only 20 per cent were careful to drive under posted limits.

Interior Views of New Maier and Werner Salon

SALON OPENS TODAY

Opening today to the public is the new Maier & Werner Hair Stylist salon at 17670 Mack Avenue, corner University Place. It is among the largest and finest in Grosse Pointe. The firm, originally founded in Detroit, has long served Pointe women and it was the constant growth of its local clientele that necessitated the building of this new Grosse Pointe home which is complete even to modern slenderizing equipment.

The owners, Joseph Maier and Werner Koehler, say it is the calibre of talent possessed by their staff members that has brought constant growth to the firm, which has membership in Haute Coiffure Francaise, an international association of Hairdressers.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT UP

According to preliminary reports received, the total enrollment at the end of December was 10,000 in the Grosse Pointe School System. This is 12 more than last month and 409, or 4.26 percent above that of a corresponding date one year ago.

Park Entrance Scene of Crash

A motorist called and reported an accident at the entrance to the City Park last Thursday which involved a grand total of three cars. The triplicate collision occurred at "that" red light, at the corner of Jefferson and University—this being about the fifth accident in as many weeks there.

Yvone Mida, of 715 Meadowbrook in Detroit, was stopped for the red light when she was banged from behind by Peter Jakob, 20943 Hunt Club lane, in Harper Woods. Right on his tail—and hitting with enough force to damage all three vehicles, was John Francis Holbeisen of 491 Marlborough, in Detroit.

Jakob and Holbeisen were both issued tickets for not having their cars under control and, per usual, the innocent suffered the hardship.

Evelyn Weimer, also of 715 Meadowbrook, a 74-year-old passenger in Mrs. Mida's car, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital to be treated for chest injuries which she suffered when she hit the dashboard at the time of the collision(s).

SECURITY . . . just a mirage?

Security is a huge word in our modern vocabulary. We ask it from our government. We try to gift-wrap it for our families. Our children seek it in their first jobs right out of school. We pursue it all of our working lives. Security, still and all, is often the mirage that evaporates. The blue chips sometimes turn pale. There just isn't a formula to nail down complete financial security against booms or recessions, inflation or deflation. But this fact is certain:

FINANCIAL SECURITY STARTS WITH MONEY IN THE BANK. Money you can get your hands on in a hurry. Money for sudden opportunities. Money that is safe, convenient, available. Detroiters have been saving like that for 108 years at The Detroit Bank and Trust Company. Why don't you, with a savings account at any of our 53 locations.

IMPORTANT!!

A Vital Message to All Residents of Grosse Pointe Park

TO OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS:

Your property values as well as the safety of children are at stake in an important Council Meeting to be held next Monday, January 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Municipal Building, Grosse Pointe Park.

The hearing will consider an application by Adam-Simms, Inc., to break the residential restrictions and establish a parking lot on Nottingham, near Jefferson, now zoned as residential property.

This proposed encroachment on the residential character of Grosse Pointe Park is solidly opposed by property owners in the neighborhood, but we need the support of all residents of the Park if this move is to be defeated.

A parking lot located in this residential area would cause traffic hazards for children, result in increased noise and commotion, and tend to reduce property values. This proposal, if adopted, could set a pattern for similar moves elsewhere in the Park area, so the time for action is NOW!

We urge all residents of Grosse Pointe Park to unite in opposition to this application to convert our residential areas into commercial parking property.

You can help by coming to the Council meeting next Monday at 7:30 p.m. to have your opinion and your vote represented.

For further information, call VA 4-1055

Young Burglar to Hear
Fate in Circuit Court

Leroy G. Johnson, 19 of 4494 Montclair, Detroit, entered a plea of guilty to a burglary charge when arraigned before Judge Grant E. Armstrong on Tuesday, January 14, and waived examination.

Judge Armstrong set a bond of $500, which the youth could not meet. Johnson was bound over to the Wayne County Circuit Court and kept in the County Jail until a trial date is set.

Johnson is accused of breaking into the Farms Grill, 18584 Mack avenue, during the early hours of January 1 and taking five dollars in change from a cash register.

Woods police arrested Johnson on January 9, at about 2 a.m., near the Augustine Bakery, 21015 Mack, which he said he was planning to burglarize. He had broken into the place last November 17, and was free on bond at the time he was arrested.

On Thursday, January 16, the youth was tried before Circuit Judge Frank Fitzgerald, on the bakery burglary charge. He entered a plea of guilty, and the matter was referred to the Wayne County Probation Department, pending a sentencing date.

He will be tried on a separate charge on the Farms Grill break-in, according to Farms Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem.

When arrested last November, Johnson confessed to taking part in at least 62 burglaries of business places in the Woods, Detroit, St. Clair Shores, Clawson Troy Township, Eaton Rapids, Centerline, Warren and Mt. Clemens.

In his confession, Johnson implicated Harry Schrade, 29, and Schrade's wife, Shirley, 22, of 21924 Firwood, East Detroit, both of whom have since been sentenced in Macomb County Circuit Court.

Schrade was given 3-15 years in Jackson Prison as a parole violator, and his wife, three years probation.

Woods detectives, Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Leroy Tobian said that what Johnson will receive will be determined by the findings and recommendation of the Probation Department.

Neighbors Get
Crash Tickets

Mack and Neff was the scene of an accident last Thursday, January 16. Dela Mae Nodlin, of 450 Neff road, was crossing Mack and headed south on Neff when her car was hit by one going east on Mack, making a right turn onto Neff.

Robert Arthur Harley, of 902 Neff, was the driver of the other car.

City police found both at fault and presented the two neighbors with tickets for not having their cars under control.

By 1975 total college enrollment in Michigan will pass the 200,000 mark, The University of Michigan estimates.

Rotarians Hear Joseph A. Abe

Joseph A. Abe of Reading, Pa., was the guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe Rotary luncheon-meeting held at the War Memorial on Monday, January 20.

Abe is a senior active member of Rotary in Reading, and presently chairman of Rotary International Districting Committee and a member of the Nominating Committee for President of Rotary International for 1958-59. He was introduced by Rotary District Governor Frank Henderson of Plymouth, Mich.

The guest speaker spoke before a jammed audience of Rotarians from the Pointe, Detroit Hamtramck, Ferndale, Roseville, Plymouth and other surrounding communities.

He told of the spirit of Rotary all over the world, and of the tremendous works being done by the organization.

He said that there are about 460,000 Rotarians in Rotary Clubs in 107 countries, and that there are 257 districts throughout the world, with every indication that this number will rapidly increase.

As of last September, Abe said, the number of Rotary Clubs hit near the 10,000 mark, with most of them in the United States.

He pointed out that it cost about $2,500,000 to carry out the various activities of world Rotary. He said that 33 percent of members' dues goes toward the operation of the respective districts and the balance is turned over to the International for its world-wide activities.

The International Rotary headquarters is located in Evanston, Ill., he said, and it employs about 157 persons.

He dwelt on the work Rotary is doing to combat juvenile delinquency, and said that in "Reading, youth clubs have been backed by local Rotarians, so much so, that for the past five years, juvenile delinquents in his town are rare.

The presidents of the following Rotary Clubs were present to hear Abe: Richard E. Drager, Roseville; William K. VonWeiler, Ferndale; Floyd Stocum, Hamtramck; Vincent W. Grainer, Van Dyke; James W. Taylor, Plymouth; and Robert Orr, Grosse Pointe.

Dr. Selmeier Discusses Russian Education

Editorial Note:—This is the second half, and concluding portion, of Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier's speech, as presented at a recent meeting of the School Board. Dr. Selmeier is the Director of Instruction at the Board of Education. This week's article, the sixth in a current series, emphasizes the specific differences between the Russian curriculum and that of our Grosse Pointe School System.

While the exams before graduation from grade X are the most comprehensive and while they include every form of mathematics studied in all previous years, tests in physics and chemistry occur at this Xth grade level only. This fact has special significance and seems to support the viewpoint that Soviet classes in each of these sciences, though meeting 2 or 3 times a week over several years, apparently cover little if any more than a one-year American class meeting 7 class periods per week.

Another interesting point regarding these examinations is that half of them are written and half are oral. The oral exams are before a panel of 4 judges with a pupil drawing 2 or 3 questions by lot and delivering his answers within a 10 minute period after being allowed 15 minutes for organization.

Grades are assigned on a 5-numerical-point scale, an average of 3 being necessary for passing. The national average of failures is 10% and it is not considered "bad" for an instructor, until his failures are greater than that. Similar to the American pattern of several decades ago, the Soviets still have their greatest number of failures in the primary grades. More than 25% of the first final exams given in grade IV and over 50% of all repeaters are in the early grades. Apparently the failure to solve this problem provides one reason why there are still so many drop-outs in the Russian schools.

There have been many newspaper and magazine comments on comparisons of time for studying various subjects in the Soviet Union and in the United States. None of these are very effective or accurate unless one notes all the differing details for the school schedule in each area.

While American schools vary from a 38 to 40 week school year, the Russians vary from 35 weeks in grades I-III to 38½ in grade X. Much of this difference lies in the days allocated to the Russian for the preparation for and taking of final examinations. On the other hand the Soviet students have a 6-day week instead of our American 5. Pupils in both countries have holidays in November, around the turn of the year, and in the spring of roughly equal length though the listed causes are different in each case.

Primary pupils in Russia have a somewhat shorter school day than Americans, averaging 100 minutes per day less than pupils in Grosse Pointe. This class margin is not reduced if we eliminate all recess or in-between class activities in both countries.

However, Russian senior secondary pupils have a greater number of class hours each week than do our Grosse Pointe pupils since they generally have 5 class subjects on each of 3 days of the week and 6 subjects on the remaining 3 days.

All class subject periods in Russia are 45 minutes in length with 10-minute breaks after the 1st, 3rd and 4th periods and a 30-minute mid-morning break after the 2nd. While we have similar 45-minute length periods in our senior high school, the breaks are of only 5-minute duration. Junior high school periods tend to be somewhat longer and elementary periods both shorter and longer according to the pupil need in the particular subject. In fact, we Americans think of this flexibility as one of the strong points in our scheduling, for it fits the program to the child, not the child to a state program.

While every thinking man will grant that the effectiveness of instruction cannot be measured by comparison in minutes, so great has been the public concern and so many have been the misinterpretations in this field, that I would like to point out several comparisons from the data we have on the Grosse Pointe and the Russian programs.

Although Grosse Pointe elementary teachers are given some latitude in planning between a minimum and a maximum amount of time for each subject, using even our minimums we have required a greater amount of class time for reading and writing, English, including literature, grammar and spelling than do the Soviets on similar approaches in Russian. A similar time situation prevails in social studies, music, art and physical education.

The Soviet pupil exceeds in time for foreign language since this is a required subject for several days in the week while the study is elective to any Grosse Pointe. However, it should be noted that although the Russian study is spread over 6 years, any Grosse Pointe pupil electing foreign language for four years will have spent more time in that pursuit than the Russian.

In mathematics the Soviet student spends more time mainly because of the longer weekly allotment for arithmetic by grade V and then the introduction of algebra and geometry in grade VI. Yet it is questionable if this scheduling takes the pupil beyond the trigonometry and simple calculus possible in our Grosse Pointe senior year.

In science there is relatively little difference between the assigned time for science as a separate subject in Russia prior to the corresponding age grade, the 8th. In both places there is a certain amount of indirect teaching of science through reading and language classes. Here it is quite probable that the Soviets give more of the indirect approach due to the very materialistic point of view which they attach to all things.

In grade I the Russian studies about the seasons and types of trees in his reading class. In grade II he learns about gardening, forests, vegetation and migratory birds. In grade III he learns about fields and grains, orchards and fruit trees, animal life and hygiene. All this will be in general reading with separate science classes called biology, etc. beginning in grade IV.

Yet in Grosse Pointe our 7, 8 and 9-year-old children pupils of the same age as just described for Russia, will not only have a somewhat similar matters of plant and animal life in their science classes but also many principles of light, heat, sound, and the mechanics of leverage. They would have started a study of electricity and magnetism. They would be talking about the earth's rotation on its axis and revolution in its orbit and its relation to both sun and moon. Grosse Pointe elementary school pupils would have a very active science program prior to the opportunities of the secondary school.

However, it is primarily in the later secondary schools that any Russian time advantage may be noted, for science is a constantly required subject of a Soviet student while it is elective for all but a single year in grades 9-12 in Grosse Pointe. Nevertheless, it must also be noted that it is not only possible, but is ever generally true of our Bausch and Lomb award winners, that science can be elected in every school year in Grosse Pointe and that such a program always involves more time in the study of science than is possible in any Russian primary-secondary school.

Russian schools emphasize practical work with tools as would benefit workers in shops or on the farm and they have 1 or 2 periods a week for such training throughout the pupil's school life. In Grosse Pointe we will have a little craft experience in elementary school and more training with tools during the required practical arts of the junior high school. However, the basic difference is our American scheduling of homemaking for girls, while the Soviets require our Industrial Arts training-for-boys of both their boys and girls.

Although the Soviets make no public mention of military training, one period per week is devoted to this experience in grades VII to X. This includes both textbook instruction and drill experience. Marksmanship was taught with live ammunition, but too many accidents have recently caused them to defer this experience until the final school year. Only in this military training are girls separated from the boys. As you know we do not offer military training to the boys and girls of the public schools in Grosse Pointe.

It should be noted that the increased time allotted to science instruction in recent years has not been due only to the emphasis which the Soviets place on mastering and controlling the material environment, but that too many children were not being able to do the expected work of the top three grades. Between 1952 and 1955 many textbooks were revised and simplified and several handicraft and practical courses introduced and additional time provided for the sciences at the expense of the humanities so that more of the average students might have a better chance to cover some subject matter in math and science. Some Americans would call this a "watering-down" of these science courses. Another reason for these modifications may also lie in the homework assignments required of Russian children. Beginning with one hour a day in grade I, the assignments are gradually increased up to 4 hours a day in grade X. However, theory and practice, especially when applied to children of differing abilities, often do not work out evenly. Within the past two years a number of prominent Soviet doctors have publicly challenged this program as endangering the health of children requiring a working day of 10 to 12 hours for late secondary pupils and even as high as 16 hours for specialists in music and art.

Of course this should have ended all problems of juvenile delinquency for, according to the reasoning of some of our own citizens, some of these Soviet pupils were kept unusually busy even as some-times some Americans are very busy with their studies. However, the really interesting point in these Russian criticisms and these curricular changes is the growing Russian recognition of individual differences. Today they are beginning to modify learning experiences somewhat in line with differing pupil abilities. Wanting to keep more people in the science program, there is an increase in science emphasis but the requirements are modified and the work reduced so as to reach more of the average students.

Soviet education is thus a vital force in Russian policy. Its objective of mastering and controlling the material environment is clear. The culture of the humanities is acceptable and approved only so long as it does not impede Soviet scientific progress.

The program may produce some new scientific surprises, as were the original Sputniks. It has certainly increased the intellectual power of the Russian people over their level of a half-century ago.

The program is challenging to us as Americans only in whether we believe we want, or need, to eliminate the freedom of choice which our free society has long so highly prized. Hitherto we have believed that the elective system in a competitive society brought us the greatest intellectual advancement. I believe that you and I are still holding to these basic American principles.

Thus in conclusion I would say that unless we believe that there is only one kind of learning that is important for all people, we still have the greatest potential for growth in the maintenance of our free and broad educational program. If there is any real challenge in Soviet education, I believe it is in what we Grosse Pointers have long known, namely, that education cannot be achieved by loafing on the job, kidding one's own self as to his achievement. Education and progress which comes from such growth is achieved only through hard work and steady effort.

The annual election of the Board of Governors of Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League baseball, held recently, made Bert Siegmund president, elected Henry Weitenbener to the vice-presidency, Alden Stowe as secretary, and Lawrence F. Kennedy as treasurer.

The program for the coming year is getting under way and the player try-outs will be announced at a later date. Direct your inquiry and comments to Alden A. Stowe, 19282 Linville Avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms.

MILLION DRINK FLUORINE

More than a million Michigan residents are now drinking fluoridated water, according to the Michigan Department of Health.

Figures listed in the latest issue of the department's magazine, "Michigan's Health," show that six Michigan cities began fluoridating their water in 1957, bringing the number of Michigan communities fluoridating to 58.

New Ideas can be good or bad, just the same as old ones.

Screams Scare Burglar Away

What would you do if you were accosted by a strange man, in the middle of the night, who gruffly ordered you to "Keep your trap shut because I got a 45 in my pocket?"

Mrs. Fred Hartwig, of 424 Cadieux road, screamed! And, furthermore, it proved to be the right move because her would-be assailant took off in a flash. The attempted holdup occurred about 8:40 Monday night. Mrs. Hartwig had just stepped off a bus at Kercheval and was walking toward her house when a young man, about 30 years old, approached her with his hand in his pocket. He ordered her not to scream—and she immediately complied with a blood-curdling beauty! The thwarted thief fled in his car, which was parked at the curb with the motor running.

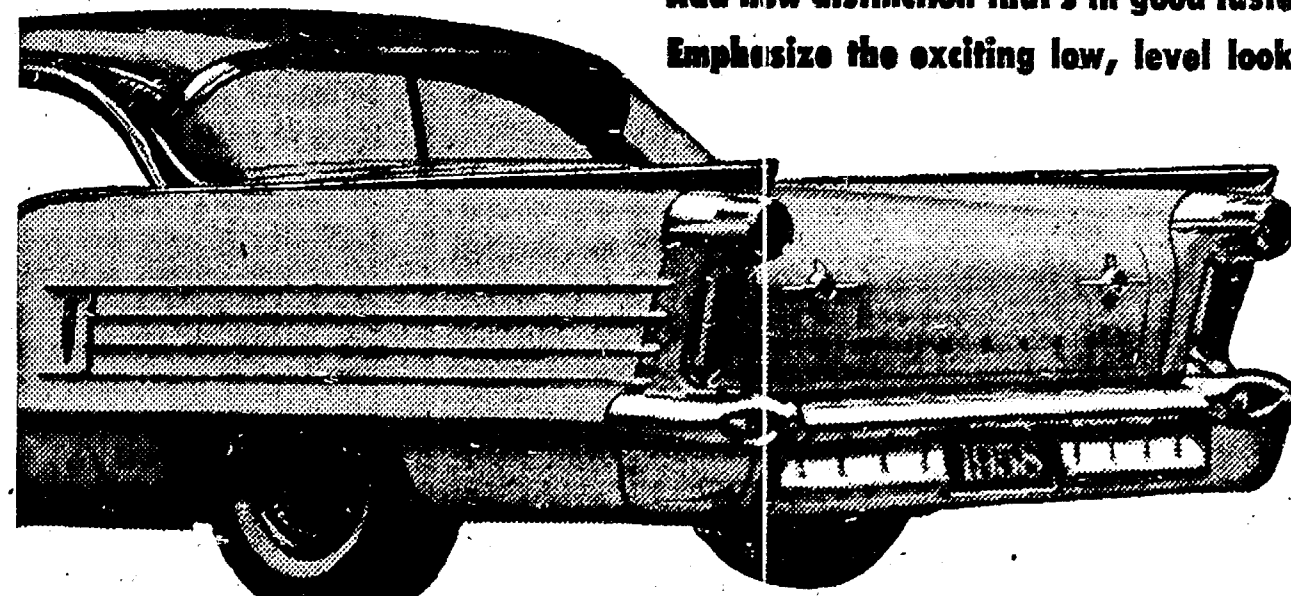

Minutes later, a description of the pink "56 or '57" Dodge went over the general police broadcast but they were unable to locate the get-away car—or its driver.

Ideology is to genuine ideas what processed cheese is to the real thing.

The Governor's Tax Proposals

Because there has been so much controversial discussion over the tax proposals made by Governor Williams to counteract an impending deficit, this space is devoted to the Governor's own explanation. The following makes up the weekly news letter of the state's chief executive, with a release date of Wednesday, January 22.

Bank depositors, widows living off the income from small estates, old people with their savings in securities, the fellow with a few shares of stock—all can relax now, the big scare is over.

The increases I am proposing in the intangibles tax won't hurt any of them.
Some of them, under my proposal, will get tax reductions. Others who paid the intangibles tax last year, will be exempted under the proposed formula. Many will be entitled to refunds.

The only reason we are considering any tax increase at all is because the State is running out of money to meet its bills. The combination of deficit financing by the last legislative Session and the national decline in business has put us in a grave crisis.

Here are the outlines of the intangibles tax changes I have recommended to produce $20,625,000 estimated additional revenue.

1. The present credit of $20 for each taxpayer would be increased to $60. The effect of this would be to exempt all those whose income from securities etc. is less than $1,000, or who own less than $30,000 of non-income-producing securities.

About 11,000 persons in this group who paid $15 or less in tax last year would be entirely exempt under the new formula.

Also, this would mean a tax cut for those whose income from securities was between $1,000 and $1,600, or who own non-income-producing securities worth between $30,000 and $40,000. There were about 8,000 taxpayers last year in this category, which includes all whose tax was between $15 and $36.

These 19,000 taxpayers in the lowest brackets would pay the tax due at the old rate, and then get a refund if new rates are adopted by the legislature.

2. The present tax rate of 3½ percent on income from securities would be raised to six percent. This rate is higher than Ohio's five percent but that would be offset by the $60 credit which would apply to all taxpayers. Ohio allows no credit against the tax.

3. The present rate of one mill on par or contributed value of non-income producing securities would be raised to the Ohio rate of two mills. This also would be offset by the $60 credit, so the tax would be less, in practice, than two mills.

4. The tax paid by banks for their depositors would be increased from the present rate of four cents per $100 per year to 13 cents. The Ohio rate is 20 cents per $100 per year, and Ohio banks pay the tax, just as Michigan banks do.

We are confident that for competitive reasons and to avoid bookkeeping costs, the banks will continue to pay this tax. For most banks it will mean 43 cents a year additional cost per $1,000 of deposits. When you reflect that a bank can loan out $1,000 of deposited money at interest rates of $50 to $60 a year, it is ridiculous to assume they will invest their customers to put their money somewhere else.

5. But just to be certain, and to reassure small depositors that they will not be taxed, I will recommend that if any bank tries to pass the tax on to its customers, it must exempt every deposit up to $1,000.

The present rate of 5½ mills on bank shares would continue unchanged. The Ohio rate is five percent.

6. A general amnesty will be declared for all delinquent taxpayers who owe the intangibles tax but have never filed a return.

If they voluntarily file their returns before June 30, thus coming to the state's aid when it needs the money badly, the Revenue Department will not impose the heavy penalties provided in the law. They will be charged only their back taxes and six percent interest.

It is estimated that this will induce payment of about $1,500,000 in back taxes and interest.

Singers Invited to Join Chorus

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus begins registration and rehearsal for its sixth annual Spring Concert next Tuesday evening, January 28, in the vocal music room of Parcels Junior High School, Vernier at Mack.

All persons over high school age who enjoy singing, regardless of where they live, are invited to register between 7:30 and 8 o'clock. No auditions are required.

Rehearsals are held each Tuesday evening at Parcels between 8 and 10 o'clock. The only charge is a registration fee of $4.50.

According to Donald W. Simmons, popular director of the group, the program for this year's concert will consist of a wide variety of music from all over the world. Selections will range from classic and oratorio chorals numbers to folk songs and musical comedy hits.

Now in its sixth and most successful year, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus was founded in 1953 by Malcolm MacLean Jones, former conductor, and it has presented two concerts annually since that time. In addition to the spring concert presented each May, the chorus presents an annual Christmas program in December.

For further information about the chorus or registration, please telephone TUxedo 4-5964.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

(From the files of Mark K. Edgar)

Here's a Happy Holiday "hello" and a suggestion for a depression-proof New Year

"You're either SUCCESSFUL or unsuccessful . . . if you are successful, you have nothing to worry about, while if you are unsuccessful, there are only two things to consider . . . either your health is GOOD, or you are sick; if your health is GOOD there's nothing to worry about . . . and if you are sick, there are only two things to consider . . . either you are going to get well or you will die; if you are going to get well, there's nothing to worry about, and if you're not going to get well, there are only two things to consider . . . either you are going to Heaven, or else you are NOT going to Heaven; if you ARE going to Heaven, then of course there is nothing to worry about. While if you are going to the other place . . . well, you'll just be so dogged busy shaking hands with old friends . . . that you won't have any TIME to worry."

SO WHY WORRY?

Well, a lot of folks are flying South to get some sun, while we sit here in our comfortable weather and heated houses. According to all reports they are freezing in Florida as well as getting wet whenever leaving the house or hotel. Professor Erling Dorf of Princeton recently had some interesting facts on weather which he told to the students at The University of Michigan. Among the facts were: climatic conditions in the U. S. are due to climb to subtropical temperatures within the next 200 years. The average temperature has been rising gradually since the last ice glacier age about 12,000 years ago although the earth did experience a little "ice age" (which we are still hearing about) from 1600 to 1850.

"Warmer temperatures," he said, "Have already had some effect in various parts of the world. In Canada, for instance, the crop line has extended 65 miles northward since 1920."

Just thought you'd like to know!

Naturally you can't pick up a fashion magazine or newspaper these days without reading about the new, exciting chemise dress. Before we began reading about these horrors, we saw a woman on TV friend one and we thought she was in her nightgown. A friend of ours wrote that she had attended a viddy social tea in New York and only one woman was wearing the potato sack deal. She said that in spite of the woman's obvious beauty of face . . . the gown was nothing nor did it do anything for her.

Since we are of that old time flapper era . . . we don't feel obliged to have to do this TWICE in our life. What we wore was bad enough . . . straight flat dresses that came to just above the knee and if they were belted, you'd be sitting ON the belt when you sat down. Hair was designed to cover the face and hats were made to cover the eyes. Quite a sight we were . . . all legs and pearls, and little else to charm the male eye. Anyway girls, if you feel you HAVE to take a fling at this latest monster, just cut the bottom off an old garment bag . . . belt it in the back only . . . and you're all set.

A local youngster whose parents have been putting him through the routine of social niceties . . . (whatever THEY are!) . . . had the devil's own time getting him to remember to stand up when his mother entered the room. They finally managed to impress him with it . . . so that he rose automatically whenever she appeared.

One afternoon, he had a friend over to play with him and they were sitting on the floor, probably with machine guns. The first time mother dear walked into the room, up popped junior, pulling his boy friend up with him at the same time. This happened three or four times during the afternoon. Finally the guest playmate said: "Why do we do that everytime your mother comes in here?" The little host replied that they HAD to stand up when mothers came in a room. The guest then exclaimed: "Gee . . . what does your mother think she IS . . . the Star Spangled Banner?"

It reminded us of a time years ago, when we had lunch at the home of a local woman who had a daughter about 14 at that time. Our hostess greeted us in the hall when we arrived, and as we walked into the library . . . we noticed her daughter steeped in what looked like homework . . . scribbling away at the desk. She stopped like a shot when we entered the room and started to her feet.

Auntie Pryor (always the helpful type) said: "Myrna, you don't have to stand up for us." Her mother gave me a withering glance and exclaimed: "SHE DOES for ME. It shows her good manners." As we settled back in "our place" we wondered where the mother's manners were to make such a point of it in front of a guest.

Slides to Tell Hawaii Story

"Hawaii and Its People", a color slide show dealing with both the tourist and oriental sides of Hawaii, will be given free of charge at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center next Thursday evening, January 30, at 8 p.m.

This group of unusual slides was taken by Miss Dorothy Jones, of Grosse Pointe, last year while she was an exchange teacher from Detroit to Hawaii. Sponsored by the Memorial Center and the Grosse Pointe Cinema League, the program is open to the public.

Miss Jones has divided her show in two parts, one showing tourist Hawaii, and the other the oriental side including colorful scenes from Japanese, Chinese, Filipino and Korean festivals.

Featured are pictures of the Bon Season. Most Buddhists believe, Miss Jones points out, that at Bon Season the spirits of the ancestors return to earth for a visit. EARTH-bound mortals, wearing kimonos and sandals, wearing kimonos and sandals, and for the spirits of their ancestors.

Members of the Todaiji sect are pictured celebrating the Bon Season in the sacred "Procession of the Boats", when small craft are filled with food, blessed and put to sea. These boats bear food for the ancestors' spirits to eat on their journey from earth back to the spirit land, according to tradition.

Miss Jones will give a commentary along with the pictures and will answer questions following the show.

Pheasant Fails To Halt Chase

A flying pheasant shattered the windshield of a scout car driven by Shores Patrolman Joseph Vitale on Tuesday, January 14, while the officer was in pursuit of a speeder on Lake Shore road.

In spite of the mishap, the officer continued the chase and apprehended David Matta, 37, of 28270 Garfield, Roseville, and gave him a ticket for driving at an excessive rate of speed.

Vitale said he was going too fast to avoid the bird which suddenly seemed to come out of nowhere.

It cost $80 to replace the windshield, it was said by Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling.

The officer was not hurt by breaking glass.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

While we are gazing covetously at the summer clothes temptingly displayed in the shop windows, the skiing and skating fraternity is hoping for snow and ice.

Can you learn to ski from a book? We can't answer that first hand, but certainly leafing through our books on the subject, the printed page would appear to be a great help to beginners.

You will find on the library shelves "The Complete Ski Guide" by Frank Ellins, "Skiing for the Millions" by Frank Harper among others, and two in the Juvenile Department, "Skiing Illustrated" by John O'Rear and "Skiing for Beginners" by Conrad Brown, a complete and simple method for children and their parents.

If you are fortunate enough to have a Christmas check still unspent, you may be interested in consulting your library before you purchase that electric iron, camera or vacuum cleaner.

Two consumer services to which the library subscribes, "Consumer Reports" and "Consumer Bulletin" provide information about products and prices. Both are non-profit institutions supported by subscription fees. Their purpose is to make tests and provide data on consumer products and services.

You may be surprised to find that your favorite toothpaste is one a consumer service considers highly abrasive, and that the "Miracle" duster for which you paid $2.00 is not as good as ordinary cheesecloth saturated with water.

Did you know that The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus has made available to the library, a growing collection of choral music? Any of these selections may be borrowed free of charge by anyone interested. We appreciate this generous gesture, and hope other choral groups and church choirs in the community may find this material useful.

We agree with the Chinese that one hearing is worth a thousand sayings. Copies of one hundred Kodachrome slides, illustrating various services of our library, have been duplicated and sent to other libraries and library schools in this country upon request.

One such request came from a librarian in the Malmö Public Library, Sweden. A New Year's greeting from her tells us these were shown there recently to an interested audience. Skål to our Scandinavian friends!

Any of our column readers who were acquainted with George Jones, formerly a member of the Central Library staff, will be interested to know that the library which he has developed in North Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada, during the last two years, is now a flourishing institution. A copy of his annual report received a day or two ago shows a phenomenal growth, and is convincing proof of George's organizational ability.

A librarian we know received a sealed envelope from the Government Printing Office, and, upon opening it, found no enclosure. Showing it to fellow staff members, he wondered what it all meant; one of his friends took a quick look inside and said, "Oh, that's a reprint of an unpublished article."

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

No suburb in the country has the delightful and often magnificent gardens which our town boasts. Guiding spirit to most of this horticultural wonder is the Grosse Pointe Garden Center which headquarters in the War Memorial.

When Mrs. Russell Alger presented her home for a civic center in 1949 she hoped that the beautiful and formal gardens (designed by Mrs. Ellen Shipman) would be maintained. At her suggestion a sunny corner room overlooking the garden was set aside for a "Garden Room" and committee meetings were held there and the organization formed which grew into the Garden Center.

To establish a civic center for the study and promotion of horticulture and conservation in all of its phases is the role of the Garden Center which is now driving to increase its membership.

Miss Marie Louise Anderson is the guiding spirit behind these membership drives and it is due in a large part to her that the rolls have increased to many hundreds.

For $1.00 a year members are offered a library of excellent books, a speakers file, a series of six lectures in the spring, a list of flower show judges available, a tour of Grosse Pointe houses sponsored annually, workshops, a large garden party in June and the famous Trial Gardens. The membership fee supports all these activities and more. Mrs. J. Crawford Frost is president of the Garden Center and urges all Pointers to become active in this important garden group.

Bon Secours League Success

While we are giving overdue credit to community efforts here's a word of thanks to the Bon Secours Assistance League. Since November, 1954, when friends of the hospital began raising funds to pay for the much needed addition (cost $450,000) the ladies in the league have been busy.

At that time the Assistance League pledged $50,000 toward the addition. They can proudly report this month that the pledge has been paid in full.

This tremendous success is due in a major part to the interested patrons of the Celebrity Series, the lectures sponsored by the League. This season's series at the Esquire Theater have been a real treat starring Sydney Harris, Jean Dalrymple, Don Whitehead and the Overstarks. As a reminder to season ticket holders and others mark on your calendar February 13. That's the date when Prince Constantine of Bavaria will talk on "The European Picture Today."

Premier of Whodunit

The midwest premier of a popular whodunit, that's what Fine Arts promises its fans this week-end. When former newspaper drama critic Russell McLaughlin was traveling in Europe last year with his wife he saw Agatha Christie's "The Mousetrap" in London and recommended it highly to the Fine Arts board before it even hit Broadway.

Mrs. John Denler, Mrs. James B. Steep, Harold Emmons, Jr., Francis B. Van Dusen, Robert J. Pear, Henry Houston, Mrs. Charles J. Markley, Jr., and Dallas Chapin are the cast for the thriller which will be presented at the Players with Mary Louise Goodson holding the script.

Carmel Hall, largest home for the aged in the country, will benefit from the Valentine dinner to be given February 15 at the home in the old Detroit Hotel.

The building houses 431 residents with an additional 100 in the infirmary section and is run by the Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm.

Guests at the dinner, which is being planned by Mrs. Arthur D. Kerwin, will dine in the hall decked with red and white hearts and flowers. Strolling musicians will play throughout the meal and special entertainment has been planned for later in the evening.

Assisting Mrs. Kerwin are Mrs. Don Aherns, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Maiullo, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Mr. and Mrs. William Zeder Breer, Mr. and Wears Deep Ivory Satin and Rose Pointe Lace for Rites Saturday in St. Matthew's Church; Will Live in Cadieux Road

Barbara Jean Stoll, daughter of the Charles A. Stolls, of South Edgewood drive, was married Saturday in St. Matthew's Church to William Arthur Schultz.

Her bridal gown was of ivory satin and rose pointe lace fashioned with a sabrina neckline outlined with sequins and pearls. A tiara of matching lace held her tulle veil and she carried stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Rosemary Schultz, who came from Washington, D.C., the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor and the other attendants were Janet Lenhard, Mildred Eliassen and Carol Pine.

They wore light blue taffeta gowns with rounded necklines and full skirts, accented with peacock blue cummerbunds. Their bouquets were pink carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Schultz, of Whittier road, asked John Cucter to be his best man. Ushering were James Byrne, John Quinlan, and Robert Lenhard.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Mrs. Stoll chose a dusty rose Chantilly lace over taffeta sheath. Mrs. Schultz was in almond green silk peau de soie. Both mothers wore white orchids.

For traveling to Florida the bride changed into a royal blue dress with a jacket and a white satin hat. They will live in Cadieux road.

Camp Fire Girls Council To Hear Martha F. Allen

Martha F. Allen, executive director of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., New York, will be guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Detroit Council of Camp Fire Girls Monday, January 27, at 6:30 p.m., in First Congregational Church, Woodward at Forest.

A native of Iuka, Mississippi, Miss Allen became associated with Camp Fire Girls, Inc., in 1941, following wide experience in administration, education and community relations. In April 1943 she was appointed national director, the first woman to hold this post in the nation's oldest agency serving the leisure needs of girls, 7 to 17.

Mrs. Lynden J. Kaufmann, retiring Council president, will conduct the business of the assembly, which will include election of officers and board.

Tau Beta to Close Community House

Sorority Will Continue Other Service Activities; Hamfrack No Longer Needs Center As It Did 30 Years Ago; To Hold Reception Sunday

Tau Beta Community House—one of the most active community headquarters in the Detroit area for the past 30 years—is terminating its services, it was announced today by Mrs. George E. Bushnell, Jr., president of the Torch-supported agency.

At 3056 Hanley in Hamtramck, the building was erected in 1928 by the Tau Beta Association to house several social service programs aimed at improving inter-group relations and strengthening neighborhood and family life. In the 30 years of its existence, Tau Beta Community House had served as a nursery, a community music school and an activity center for people of all ages.

Explaining the Board's decision to close the Center, Mrs. Bushnell said, "The community we entered in 1918 was in sharp contrast to what it is today. Many of our former-day services are no longer needed, thanks to general community prosperity and maturity. Many of our latter-day services are being provided by municipal agencies, church groups or other private sponsors.

"Tau Beta played a very real part in helping Hamtramck to help itself, and now we are bowing out to concentrate our efforts on other areas in the city where services are needed."

The three-story building was sold this month to the Immaculate Conception Parish of the Ukrainian Church. To mark the closing of the center's three decades of community service, to welcome the new owners, and to honor founders and past presidents of Tau Beta, a reception will be held Sunday afternoon, January 26, from 3 to 5, at the Community House, 3056 Hanley.

Among the many Pointers active in the group are Mrs. Edgar B. Galloway, Mrs. Alexander Blain III, Miss Mary Ellen Kotcher, Mrs. Alfred Marks, Mrs. Charles C. Stewart, Mrs. Edward S. Wunsch, Mrs. Hudson Mead, Mrs. Charles B. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Turner.

The Society was founded in 1901 by Eloise Jenks (Mrs. ...)

Warrens Fete Racqueteers

The Western Racquets Tournament was held last weekend on the University Club and Racquet Club courts. Many Pointers were in the play offs and attended as spectators.

Friday night there was a stag dinner at the Racquet Club and on Saturday the Benjamin S. Warrens, Jr. entertained the tournament players at a cocktail party in their Provencal road home before a dinner dance at the Little Club.

Sunday noon following the playoffs there was a buffet luncheon at the Racquet Club. Among the local players were Tom Golibart, Hugh H. Loud, Francis Loud, Richard H. Turner, Charles Lynch, Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., Joseph Hahn and Henry T. Ewald, Jr.

The University of Michigan is fast becoming one of North America's busiest centers of Near Eastern Studies and teaching, showing growth both in doubled enrollment and in size and stature of the faculty.

IS TRAINING NECESSARY?

Is driver education necessary? In a special police investigation of 160 serious speed violations compiled by the Institute for Safer Living, it was found that only 13 per cent of these erring drivers had received formal training. Eighty-seven per cent had learned to drive by hit or miss methods, such as self-taught, or taught by relatives and friends.

Need Helpers For Hospitals

Mrs. Cameron Ryckman, chairman of Detroit Red Cross chapter Gray Lady Service, has issued an invitation to women interested in this type of volunteer service to enroll between January 22 and February 11.

"Red Cross Gray Ladies serve patients in 21 Wayne County hospitals. Most of the hospitals are currently below their full complement. In order to be of maximum assistance we must have enough volunteers to cover the needs of each hospital during the busy day and early evening hours, including week-ends.

"We serve in hospitals in nearly every section of the county, so volunteers can select the one most convenient to them. We can place women who are employed during the day but have some evening hours available for volunteer community service," Mrs. Ryckman said.

Red Cross Gray Ladies must be citizens at least 21 years of age, have certificates of good health, be high school graduates or the equivalent, take the 12 hour orientation course, provide on-duty uniforms, and agree to serve at least 150 hours in the hospital of their choice the first year.

Appointments for interviews prior to registration can be made by calling the Red Cross Gray Lady office, WO 1-3900, from Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Orientation classes, one session of which will be held in the chosen hospital, will start in February.

Awards Given To Volunteers

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club has completed another year of furnishing a volunteer group for the Red Cross Blood Bank program. A unit under the leadership of Mrs. Alvin Borchardt, has given 1,779 hours during 1957.

They assisted on 30 Blood Banks at varied locations around the city, collecting 2,769 pints and registering another 1,919 rejects.

The three volunteers with the greatest number of hours given during the year are Mrs. Borchardt, 1,957 chairman; Mrs. William Rochele, '56 chairman and Mrs. Philip Hopkins, the '55 chairman; with 223, 188 and 185 hours respectively.

After volunteers have served for five years they are given a five year pin award at a special event held annually in October at the Red Cross headquarters. Thus far the five-year pins have been given to the three above named workers.

At the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club on January 15, eight others received Service Stripes for 80 hours or over of volunteer work during the past year.

They were: Mrs. Arch. H. Galbraith, Mrs. E. L. Wayman, Mrs. Louis F. Vollmer, Mrs. William Chenoweth, Mrs. Arthur Baylis, Mrs. L. A. Lotgering, Mrs. John W. Steger and Mrs. Joseph Schwartz.

DEPER SCHOOL

The Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades of Deper School had an unusual educational treat on Tuesday afternoon, December 17th. Mr. S. N. Hammond Jr. of Guatemala showed colored slides on the typical features of his country.

The children were interested in seeing the colorful clothing worn by the people in different sections of the country. They liked the graceful ways in which baskets of fruit were balanced on the heads of the women. The outdoor markets with their displays of fruits and vegetables were bright and gay.

The beautiful buildings and colorful scenery had their particular appeal as the group took an imaginary journey to the small mountains of Central America.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hutton of 1033 Devonshire road.

BARNES SCHOOL

The new year always brings us certain privileges, 1958 brings us the opportunity to welcome new children to the Barnes School family. We are pleased to welcome Barbara and Douglas Brown, who formerly lived in Birmingham; also Janene Carnigh, who, up to now, has attended Ferry School. Bob Harris and Arvel Fields have also joined our ranks—from former residence in Detroit. We're glad to have all of them "aboard."

All three sixth grades took a field trip on Tuesday (January 7) to the Detroit Institute of Arts. A profitable, enjoyable time was had by all, as they saw examples of Egyptian, Greek and Roman culture, all of which they had explored in social studies. Also, it should be mentioned that the teachers were proud of the boys and girls' behavior.

Finally, who said that there are no athletes on a school faculty? Mrs. Renick (popularly known as "the skater") put her entire fifth grade class "on the blades" after school this past Thursday. It was the first experience for several but with the aid of other classmates, even these were able to stand up most of the time. After one and one-half hours of skating, Mrs. Renick entertained all of the group at her house with hot chocolate and doughnuts.

POUPARD SCHOOL

In addition to the great panic which has been created by the firing of Sputnik, there has been an impetus given to interests in space, space travel, guided missiles, planets, and science in general. Many teachers and children have used this occasion to plan experiences which would tend to increase the students' knowledge of space and related subjects.

In one instance a fifth grade boy, in Miss Arment's room, Gary Lord, was given a cardboard cylinder which resembled a rocket. This was the right size and with a few minor adjustments was transformed into a junior sized Redstone Missile which is as accurate as security regulations will permit.

The quest for information did not end here. Gary, whose father is employed where Redstone is produced, sought information from books, articles and from his dad. When he was satisfied that he knew as much about the missile as was permitted, he gave lectures to his class and other interested groups at Poupard.

The topic of rockets has also interested another Poupard boy enough to produce a model rocket of his own design. Chris Morley, a sixth grader, has been very interested in space and rocket travel. His interest led to the designing of a rocket which would be used to launch an earth satellite. Soon after the initial design was improved he then set out to create a model according to these specifications. This was soon completed and provided a topic for discussion in a culminating unit on astronomy in Mr. Brubacher's class.

A science club has sprung up in Mrs. Mary Tyrrell's fourth grade. The subject which has been especially interesting to them is the problem about the correct name for the planet incorrectly named "planet" Pluto. One of the boys discovered that the "planet" was believed by some authorities to be an escaped satellite or moon from possibly Neptune.

This discussion led to the reading of reference articles and writing to various authorities in the field. At present time the investigation is still going on and no definite conclusions have been reached. These are only a few of the many science activities which are going on in Poupard School this year. We are presently awaiting a new science cabinet which has been ordered and should be available to teachers and pupils in the near future.

Monteith PTA Hears Dr. Martin

The Monteith PTA heard Dr. Robert Martin, Consultant in Elementary Education, State Department of Education, on Wednesday, January 15. Dr. Martin's talk concerned the relationship of the parents to the schools.

He said that parents are so aware of their responsibilities today, especially in relation to their children's education, they feel they should have an active part in running the schools. This is a good thing, but one of the byproducts of this is in the form of criticism.

It is often heard that, "The schools aren't as good as they used to be,"—but since time has a way of making one forget the bad and remember the good things, their thinking has become obscured. Not only are the schools as good as they used to be—they are better! They have to be better, more is demanded of them. For one thing, the children are stronger, healthier and brighter than they used to be. Television and travel have opened horizons. Dr. Martin feels that the schools are meeting this challenge and are producing the great men and women of tomorrow, but that many years from now, people will still be saying, "The schools aren't as good as they used to be."

On the subject of the school's responsibility to the children, Dr. Martin feels the parents are perfectionists where their children are concerned. If there is any disappointment in the final results of their children, parents tend to blame the schools. This would be a little easier if the home weren't so important. It is hard to overcome the influences of the home.

The attitudes, habits and patterns of behavior are hard to change, since they are generally set before reaching the sixth year of life, the time when the home has had the child exclusively. He feels that you cannot blame the school in the line of discipline. Juvenile delinquency is not a product of the school. Dr. Martin would like to see the parents working closer with the schools, with the ideal being to have the teachers as private consultants with the parents.

Dr. Martin and his wife have seven children, so he knows the problems of parents. He has just been made Director of Elementary and Teacher Education for the Dominican Republic and leaves with his family shortly.

The PTA of Monteith School sponsors five Brownie and three Girl Scout troops, with 158 girls in all. At the January 15 meeting, Mrs. Frederick Bohl, who is in charge of these groups, arranged to have representatives of all the Brownie Troops and the Sixth Grade troop in its entirety, because it is their last year at Monteith, present a short program.

The Girl Scouts opened the meeting by presenting the colors and the Brownies and Girl Scouts recited their pledges and sang a song. Mrs. Bohl then introduced all the leaders of the troops, and thanked the Monteith PTA for their sponsorship.

At the short business meeting, President Gerald Stoetzer asked that all members give thoughtful consideration to probable uses of the School Development Fund. Suggestions were sent home by the Executive Board and it is hoped that members will check their preference and return the form to the school.

Paul Hoffman, chairman of the membership committee, reported that Monteith now has approximately 84 per cent participation in the Parent-Teacher Association.

The next meeting will be on March 20. Dr. Marshall Jameson will speak on the Primary Plan.

State Players Coming Feb. 8

"Sleeping Beauty" one of fairyland's best loved tales, will come to life on Saturday, February 8, for Grosse Pointe youngsters when it is presented by the Michigan State University Players at Parcell's Junior High School under the auspices of the local AAUW's Children's Theater Program.

Specializing in children's plays, the MSU Players have received national recognition for their work with juvenile literature. This is the fifth consecutive year that the State Players have given plays for children in Grosse Pointe, and it is expected that they will bring out another capacity crowd of 1,400 youngsters as they did in November when they appeared here in Robin Hood.

There will be two performances of Sleeping Beauty, at 10:30 a.m. and at 2 p.m., according to Mrs. Stewart Kerr, chairman of the AAUW children's Theater program. Purpose of this theater work is twofold. Mrs. Kerr pointed out—it offers young people an opportunity to see a show written and produced for them, and also any proceeds go into the AAUW fellowship fund. The latter is designed to give outstanding women college graduates an opportunity for further research and study.

Special rates are available to groups of 25 or more attending this week by Mrs. Edward Gehrig, chairman of ticket sales. Injured Safety Patrol Boy Hailed as Hero by Police

The valor of 11-year-old Ricky Andrews of Ferndale, Mich., the Washington School Safety Patrol boy who was seriously injured recently while on street crossing duty, was cited by the 56-member Juvenile Officers Association, of which the Pointe Police Departments are a part.

Letters from each member-department have been sent to Ricky, who is in the Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, where he is slowly recovering from injuries which resulted when he was crushed against a tree by a car that smashed into another before hitting him.

Because of the accident, Ricky suffered a broken leg and arm and internal injuries. One leg was so badly crushed it had to be amputated.

The Safety Patrol boy's quick thinking saved other students waiting to cross the street from possible injuries or death. He pushed them out of the path of the careening car, just before he was hit.

Two police agencies especially recognized Ricky's devotion to duty: the Ferndale Police Department, which presented the boy with a badge, making him an honorary policeman of the department; and the Washtenaw Sheriff's Office, which also gave Ricky a badge, naming him an honorary deputy sheriff.

The Juvenile Officers Association has made Ricky a symbol of the caliber of boys who daily guard school crossings, and at a recent meeting, unanimously agreed to recognize his brave deed.

The police chiefs, juvenile and safety officers of the Pointe police departments, sent Ricky signed letters, each slightly different, but along the same line as the following.

Dear Ricky:
It is with deepest regret that we learned a fellow officer had been injured while on duty protecting the children at his crossing post.

We, and all policemen, are fully aware that our Safety Patrol boys, in taking over the responsibilities of escorting children of our communities safely across the streets, perform this very important duty often at the risk of their personal safety.

We recognize you as a fellow officer because the fine record you fellows have established in doing your job has made us feel we can, with confidence in your ability, release a policeman to other duties, while you fellows take over for them at our school crossings.

We extend our very best wishes for your speedy recovery.

Side-stepping may bring temporary relief, but it will never get you where you want to go.

London East Opens for Luncheons Again

London East, the popular restaurant in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill district, has announced that it will again be open for luncheons every day except Sunday and Monday, starting Tuesday, January 22.

Another feature has been added with the offering of a Gastronomic French Hour every Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, starting on January 22.

Demonstrations in French cooking will be given by Chef Jean Cosperac, and Prof. Christian Tolme, who has been teaching French in the Berlitz School in New York, will lecture on gastronomy and provide French pronunciations and explanations of various dishes.

These sessions are open to the public and there will be no admittance charge.

REALLY BIG BUSINESS
Many Grosse Pointers don't realize how big a business our School System is. This past month, for example, their bills totaled $441,494.23. The payroll for December 1 to December 16, alone, was $384,489.11. The annual budget calls for 5½ to 6 million dollars.

Devils Whip Wyandotte To Stretch Win Streak

Grosse Pointe's smooth, fast breaking Blue Devils easily outclassed Wyandotte, 70-53, last Friday, January 17, on the local court. The victory stretched the Devil winning streak to seven and set the stage for the first "blue chip" game in the Border Cities League title race against undefeated Highland Park on Friday, January 24.

The Wyandotte game was a fouled-up affair with a total of 41 personal fouls being whistled down. Twenty-five were called against the Blue Devils, which gave the Bears 39 free throw attempts, of which they managed 19. The Devils cashed in on 18 of 26 charity tosses.

Temporarily Successful
Wyandotte attempted to throw a monkey wrench into the Devils' fast break and were momentarily successful which enabled them to tie the Pointers at 15-15 at the end of the first quarter.

A short consultation between quarters and Coach Howard MacAdams solved the Wyandotte zone. From there on it was all Grosse Pointe with co-captains "Torrid" Tommy Woodruff, Bruce "Bulldog" Boardman and Marty "Gazelle" Andrews leading the way. Woodruff chipped in 6 points for game honors. Boardman and Andrews tied for runner-up honors with 13 apiece.

In the second quarter Woodruff teamed with Jim Millies and Marty Andrews to make the fast break work to perfection and on a couple of occasions the ball was handled three times before plunking through the hoop. Center Rem Purdy led the second quarter attack with 8. Lars Anderson hooped 6 and Andrews 3 points to outscore the Bears 17-6 and give the Devils a 32-21 lead at halftime.

Woodruff Gets Going
Woodruff banged home 13 of his 18 points in the third stanza as he led the Devils to a comfortable 54-33 lead going into the final period when everything but the roof fell in on the upset minded

Church Basketball League Launches Eighth Season

The Grosse Pointe Church Basketball League opened its eighth year of competition on the courts Saturday, January 18, in the Grosse Pointe High School gymnasium.

Comprising 20 teams from 10 churches, the 200 boys are from 10 to 14 years old.

Each Saturday, the teams meet in the two boys' gyms of Grosse Pointe High to play off their scheduled games.

Three games, which are scheduled simultaneously each hour, began at 9, 10, and 11 respectively.

The League is divided into senior, junior and freshmen divisions.

Class "A" division has six teams. St. Paul's, Grosse Pointe Memorial, Christ Church, St. James, Grosse Pointe Congregational, and Grosse Pointe Woods.

In the St. Paul-Christ Church game last Saturday, St. Paul's whipped Christ Church 41 to 27. Although handicapped by lack of height, the younger team outlasted their opponents with swifter action and well planned moves.

St. Paul's coach, Ed Dooley, has this to say about his team, "I think that all the players played exceptionally well today; there was no especially outstanding player. All the boys were doing their best."

Steve Handlos, St. Paul's, and Jim McDonald, Christ Church, were high scorers of their respective teams, both netting 12 points.

St. James was defeated by Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 53 to 27. Tom Gutow, a member of the winning team, racked up 21 tallies for high score and his St. James opponent, Dick Swanson, had an 11 point total.

In the final class "A" contest, Grosse Pointe Congregational collected 44 points to Grosse Pointe Woods' 33. Ken Stanley provided the punch for Grosse Pointe Congregational, notching 27 points while Paul Boesen, of Grosse Pointe Woods managed nine.

The Junior, Class "B" Division, saw Memorial edge out St. Clare 37 to 36 in an out and out battle to the finish. The score had been tied 10 different times during the course of the game.

Doug MacAlpine sparked Memorial's team, looping six baskets for 12 points, while Jim Coughlin bucketed the ball five times.

St. Michael's merged victorious over St. Paul's class "B" team with another very close score, 24 to 20. Leading his team, Woody Hayes sank five baskets and Tom Trefler of the defeated St. Paul's team tipped the nets for a total of eight tallies.

The St. James' team ignited for a total of 28 points to outscore Our Lady Star of the Sea 28 to 17.

Carl D'hooge and Ed Beaupre were high scoring representatives of their teams, the former scoring nine and the latter scoring five.

The youngest or freshmen division opened with a game between Grosse Pointe Woods and St. Michael's. Grosse Pointe Woods edged St. Michael's 23 to 19. Their high scorers were Charles Renny with 10 and Bruce Marone with 13.

Grosse Pointe Congregational and Christ Church had the first tie game of the season. The two teams locked at 21 points apiece. Don Ware scored practically all of Grosse Pointe Congregational's 21 points with 17. Dwight Stanley led his team with eight points.

St. Paul's routed Methodist 21 to 8. Jim Bigham racked up 11 goals and George Thompson scored all of Methodist's eight points.

Our Lady Star of the Sea rounded out the class "C" games by defeating Grosse Pointe Memorial 28 to 0, for the one and only shutout of the day. Bill Stay dropped in five baskets for Our Lady Star of the Sea.

The young basketball stars are first taught that individuality or a one man team is not tolerated in basketball, but it's teamwork that really counts.

The games scheduled for Saturday, January 25 are as follows:

Senior League
Grosse Pointe Woods vs. St. James, 9.

Christ Church vs. Memorial, 10.

St. Paul's vs. Congregational, 11.

Junior League
St. Michael's vs. Our Lady Star of the Sea, 9.

St. Paul's vs. G. P. Methodist, 10.

St. Clare vs. St. James, 11.

Freshman League
G. P. Methodist vs. Christ Church, 9.

G. P. Congregational vs. G. P. Woods, 9:45.

Our Lady Star of the Sea vs. St. Michael's, 10:30.

Devils Stake Streak Against Highland Park

Picture by Fred Runnells

The undefeated Grosse Pointe Blue Devils will put their seven-game winning streak on the line when they meet undefeated Highland Park on the Parkers' home floor Friday, January 24. The Polar Bears are shooting for their ninth Border Cities League crown and currently share the league lead with Grosse Pointe, which was the last team to hold the title before the Parkers started their monopoly. The Parkers are rated a slight favorite because they are playing on their home floor. Seeking to crack the jinx are, from

Devils Scared In Hockey Tilt

The league-leading Blue Devils were forced to come from behind four times last Saturday, January 18, before they turned back the determined bid of the Golden Eagles, 8-7. The victory enabled the Devils to retain their one game league-leading margin in the Ice Flair Winter Hockey League.

In the first two periods the Devils' usually potent attack sputtered and the Eagles surged to a 2-0 first period lead and a 4-3 lead going into the last period. The final 15 minutes produced some whirlwind hockey as Tom Fitzgerald and Ron Gouin scored two goals apiece and Dave Cook once to put the Devils out in front 7-4 and practically sew up the hard-fought contest.

Although trailing by three goals, the Eagles fought back behind the hard skating of Mike Duffy, who knotted the count at 7-7 with less than two minutes remaining.

With the clock running out Tom Fitzgerald converted a goalmouth pass into the winning goal to give the Devils their ninth win in ten starts. Fitzgerald's winning goal completed his "hat trick."

The second place Rockets, still hoping for a Blue Devil slip, continued one point off the pace by downing the resurgent Warriors 8-1 behind Bill Cook's "hat trick." John Montgomery collected two goals and Bob Carlson, Dale Ernst and Bill Shilliever tallied once each. George Bloomfield netted the Warriors' only center.

Counting three assists along with his "hat trick" Bill Cook boosted his season total to 35 points to lead the individual scoring race.

The third place Pointers rifled home four goals in the final period to down the cellar dwelling Rangers 4-1 and hold third place in the standings. Tom Reno paced the winners with two goals and was assisted by Jim Mathewson and Len Carnaghi, who scored once each.

CAR DAMAGED
Bruce Abrams of 871 Lakepointe, complained to Farms police on Saturday, January 18, that while his car was parked in the Grosse Pointe High School parking lot, someone walked on the trunk and roof, damaging the car.

On the same day the reserve unit walloped the St. Charles reserve 43-13.

Allison Schick established a new individual scoring record of 50 points on 25 field goals as the St. Paul reserves dumped St. David 60-13.

Sunday, January 19 Allison played 21 of the 24 minutes which is a record among St. Paul reserve players.

Jean Cavanaugh flipped in 20 points to lead the varsity to a 34-5 win over the St. David varsity in the second game of the day.

St. Paul Lakers Capture Lead in Parochial Loop

St. Paul cracked a two-way first place deadlock in the East Side Second Division Parochial League race with a couple of impressive victories and an unexpected defeat of St. Elizabeth, who shared the lead.

The Lakers handed sixth place St. Charles a stunning 67-36 defeat behind the sharpshooting of Dave Ayrault, who notched runner-up scoring honors with 14 points. Joe Lauer and Tommy Kolojeski tied for third place honors with 12 points each. Joe Thibedeaux paced the losers with 15 points, which gave him the scoring honors.

Experiencing little or no trouble with the St. Charles defense, the Lakers surged to a 21-8 first quarter lead and a 36-13 halftime margin. This enabled Coach Ed Lauer to substitute freely and all 11 players on the squad saw action. Nine of them helped in the final score.

St. Thomas Wins
It was the same night that St. Thomas humbled St. Elizabeth and dropped the latter from the undefeated ranks and a first place tie with the Lakers.

Two nights later Thursday, January 16, the Lakers spoiled Nativity's bid for an upset and chalked up a 39-30 victory to stretch the Lakers winning streak to 8 games.

Nativity attempted to derail the Lakers' high scoring offense and was successful throughout the first period, which saw the Lakers holding a meager 8-4 lead.

A bit of coaching strategy by Coach Lauer solved this problem and in the second quarter the Lakers raced to a 24-6 lead by halftime intermission.

Flushed with their momentary success, Nativity tried its stalling tactics again but were practically blasted from the court as the Lakers piled up an insurmountable 37-9 lead behind the ballhawking antics of Tommy Kolojeski, Russ Beaupre and Joe Lauer.

Plenty of Substitutes
Coach Lauer subbed freely in the final stanza, which allowed Nativity to put the score in a respectable bracket.

With second place St. Elizabeth, fifth place St. Rose and ninth place St. Phillip remaining on the schedule the Lakers need only to win one of the last three games to clinch a tie for the crown they are defending.

St. Elizabeth appears to be the only one of the trio that might cause the Lakers some trouble. However, it has been known to happen that the underdog catches the favorite on an off night and scores the upset of the season. This could be the case of any one of the three remaining opponents, particularly St. Rose or Phillip, who are out of the race but could have a successful season if they could dump the leader.

Currently, the Lakers are rated fifth in the State class C ratings and the team and student body take great pride in this honor. Gone is the early season individualism that plagued the Lakers and threatened to derail the best all around team. Coach Ed Lauer has ever had in his 25 years at the school on Grosse Pointe Boulevard.

St. Paul's girls reserve and varsity basketball teams set a couple of new records in the CYO Girls' High School game loop the past two Sundays that probably will stand for a good long time.

Against St. Charles the St. Paul varsity scored an unprecedented 27-0 shutout on Sunday, January 12, to remain undefeated in its quest for its third straight league crown.

On the same day the reserve unit walloped the St. Charles reserve 43-13.

Allison Schick established a new individual scoring record of 50 points on 25 field goals as the St. Paul reserves dumped St. David 60-13.

Sunday, January 19 Allison played 21 of the 24 minutes which is a record among St. Paul reserve players.

GPUS Cagers Suffer Defeat

Grosse Pointe University School's four game winning streak and its unbeaten record went down the drain last Tuesday, January 14, when the Knights entertained Maumee of Ohio and took a 51-37 beating.

Playing without the services of its co-captain Mike Krieg, who was hurt early in the contest, the Knights more than held their own throughout the first two periods of the game and held a 26-21 halftime lead.

Maumee employed a full court press to start the third quarter and the Knights' offense and defense crumbled gradually and the visitors moved into a 37-30 lead at the end of the stanza. In the fourth quarter the Knights came apart like the one horse shay as Maumee sounded the death knell to their dreams of an undefeated season.

The Knights appeared to have the game in the bag after racing to a 16-11 first period lead and a 27-15 halftime margin which they boosted to a 45-31 lead going into the final period. It was at this point Oak Park got hot both on defense and offense to tie the game at 53-all with 90 seconds remaining and set the stage for Detmer's winning basket.

Blue Devil Swim Team Swamps Wyandotte, 67-29

Grosse Pointe's Blue Devil swimming team stretched its winning streak to four with a near perfect 67-29 win over the Wyandotte Bears last Friday, January 17, in the Bear's home pool.

Coach Paul Wheeler used a total of 23 boys in the lopsided win, which gave Bob Hill, Dave Kothe, Frank Erbecker and Jim Blacketter a chance at their first varsity competition. Actually Wheeler could have used the maximum total of 24 swimmers in the 10 event meet but at the last moment, with the Devils holding a 44-10 lead, pulled the Pointers number one diver, Paul Alcott, from competition.

The move was made to give his number two diver, Pat Amneus, a chance for his first win of the season. Pat got beat out of the honor when Wyandotte's Huge Cole beat him by two and two tenths points. When Steve Kovach placed third it marked the only event in which the Bears were able to place two point winners.

Slam Five Events
The Devils slammed five of the ten events and lost only the final speed relay. This event could have been the Devils too but Coach Wheeler asked the judge to overlook the fact Wyandotte's leadoff swimmer, Howard Bayler, jumped the gun three times and let the Bears swim the final event.

Three false starts automatically disqualify a swimmer. As it was the Devils relay team of Pete Aronson, John Thorne, Bill Pattee and Bob Hawthorne, just missed by nine tenths of a second of winning.

Fred Hendricks and Ron Owens were the only other Bears to score better than third place.

Had Coach Wheeler wished he could have easily engineered a perfect 80-16 victory. Realizing this he pulled his power in every event. For example he didn't enter his star backstroke and co-captain Les "Clutch" Cutler and allowed his other co-captain Chuck Babcock to swim only the 200 yard free style, which he won going away.

Stapleton nipped Kopp's for two points and moved into a two-way deadlock with their rival for fifth place.

Two hundred-plus scores were posted by: Jim Beaupre 217; Jerry Beaupre 211, Frank Walsh 204; Sam Dinoto 203 and Don and John Buffa rolled identical 202 scores.

Offer Classes At St. Joan's

A gathering of Catholic and Non-Catholic Inquirers are being welcomed at the first session of the winter series of Catholic Information Classes held at St. Joan of Arc Parish in St. Clair Shores.

In their introductory remarks at the meeting on Thursday, January 23, Fathers Thomas F. Hinsberg and James A. Moloney will stress the point that attendance at the class involves no obligations.

The first lecture, a discussion of the place of the Bible in Catholic life and teaching, will be given on Monday, January 27 at 8 p.m. in St. Joan of Arc School on Overlake avenue near Mack. The classes will be held each Monday and Thursday evening from 8 till 9. They are open to any interested party. There is no charge for the classes. The series will extend over a 13 week period.

The course is designed to give a non-controversial presentation of the teachings of the Catholic Church. Attendance at the classes will serve as an adequate instruction for a mixed marriage. It is an opportunity for those who wish to enter the Catholic Church to receive the necessary instructions.

Catholics who want to review the teachings of their religion and Non-Catholics who are merely interested in knowing more about what the Catholic Church teaches will find satisfaction in following these classes.

The University of Michigan's Undergraduate Library will be the largest facility of its kind in the world when it opens for full-time use next February.

Little League Changes System

The Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League wishes to announce that due to the large number of boys in the league program, that a new method of registration is being used for the first time this year.

There were 450 boys who were active members of the Woods-Shores Little League last season and are eligible for the 1958 season. They will receive in the mail this week the necessary forms and information that will make them eligible for the 1958 season.

Officials urge the parents of the boys to help them as much as possible in filling out the forms properly and returning them in the enclosed envelope. Close attention to the tryout schedule is very important.

Any boy who has never played in the G.P. Woods-Shores Little League before will be notified in the near future about the time, date and place for the registration.

Boys must be residents of Grosse Pointe Woods or Shores to be eligible to play in the Little League.

Altar Society Holding Party

St. Ambrose Altar Society is planning a card party Tuesday evening in the church hall at Maryland and Hampton avenues at 8 o'clock.

Hostesses will be the new president, Mrs. Thomas B. McDonald, officers and past presidents. Among those receiving will be Mrs. John P. VerLinden, Mrs. Alfred Zastrow, Mrs. Harry Heilman and Mrs. George Bringard.

Each day is the scholar of yesterday.—Carlyle.

Adult Classes Have Openings

Have you missed out on the enjoyment of attending Adult Education classes? If you are one of the few who have not had this pleasurable experience, you will be interested in knowing that enrollment in certain classes is still available.

Three language classes will soon be starting new semesters. Classes in French, German and Spanish will be offered for adults. Taught on a conversational level with new techniques, progress is interesting and classes geared to the requirements of the adult.

Shorthand is being offered on three levels; Beginning, Slow Dictation, and Intermediate. Bookkeeping is also being offered for Beginners and on an Intermediate level.

Interior Decorating, offered primarily for the homemaker, will begin on Tuesday, January 28. The course will cover color and fabric usage, choice and arrangement of furniture, and many other points valuable to the home decorator.

A course in Ceramics will start on Monday, January 27. Many beautiful decorative art objects may be fashioned by hand and glazed, to produce individualized pieces for the home.

Copper Enameling is available in a Thursday morning class, or for Monday evenings. Jewelry, ashtrays, and small objects of unusual beauty are created in this interesting craft class.

An adult piano class for beginners will be held at Montclair School, starting on Wednesday, February 5, at 7:45 p.m.

Personality Development (Charm) class for women will start an eight-week semester on Wednesday, January 29.

Knitting, for Beginners and Advanced students, will begin a ten-week course of instruction this Thursday, January 23 at 7:30 p.m. Further information and enrollment in these classes may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Each section of the five-story Undergraduate Library at the University of Michigan can be arranged to any ratio of stack space to seating capacity, with movable shelves and individual study tables.

Boat Banter

By FRED RUNNELLS

A record member turnout at Bayview Yacht Club elected Pointer John Pottle commodore, Arnold Fuchs vice commodore and Ivan Ficus rear commodore for 1958. Successful candidates for the Board of Governors were Pointers Howard Girardin and Bill "Citizen" Calder. Gordon Phillips was elected to the control committee.

Members of the Detroit Ice Yacht Club are making extensive plans under Commodore Maurice DeClercq for the best ever Garwood Regatta which will be held in February on Lake St. Clair.

Once the ice has disappeared from Lake St. Clair and Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, iceboaters from those two areas will travel to Nubby and Dorie Sarns' beautiful yard around home, north of Cross Village near the top of the Michigan mitten, for the last ice regatta of the season. Last year it was held the first part of April and was attended by a limited number of Detroit ice yachts. It was won hands down by Pointer Jack Moran.

Unofficially it was called Sarns' Nationals but unless we miss our bet from now on it will be known as the "Pogo Tchi Gashig" regatta which is the name of Nubby's lively chateau, nestled in a quiet valley and hard by the shores of Lake Michigan.

Visitors to the 1958 Chicago National Boat Show, February 7-16, will be treated to something a little different this year. Highlighting the show will be an oval-shaped "indoor river," constructed of marine plywood, which will be 12 feet wide and almost 3 feet deep. An estimated 65,880 gallons of water will be pumped into the channel in which boats from 12 to 16 feet long will parade every five minutes during the run of the show.

The object of the display is to illustrate the proper boating equipment for various water sports. Craft taking part will be divided into three classes: 16 to 18 foot cruisers; 13 to 16 foot runabouts and ski boats; and 12 to 14 foot utilities.

There was none of this nonsense about slipping a few cubes of ice from an automatic defrosting refrigerator when our descendants here wanted to chill their glass of spirits. None of this insistence on the sanitary regulations either, for their ice came from the water they swam in and boated on during the summer months.

Winters at the turn of the century were cold and one of the Pointe's biggest industries in the below zero weather was ice cutting.

Now when Lake St. Clair barely freezes enough for the skaters it doesn't seem possible that ice froze eight inches thick. It had to be this depth by law for cutting and this was called "thin" ice. During the severe winter of 1917-18, ice was cut at the foot of Seven Mile road, where the Farms pier stands now, that was 22 inches thick. This was the last year that lake ice harvesting was permitted by law.

All the larger residences and the famed road houses here in the early years of the century had their own built-in ice houses. Notable among the local contractors who supplied refrigeration for food were the Morans, Michies, Payes, and Backmans.

It was hard, back breaking work and unless you were rugged and well equipped for exposure, the labor was too exhausting after a few hours. Too much snow increased the hazards but there had to be some so that the team drawn bob sleds could carry the ice along the road. Toward the end, motor trucks would drive several hundred feet out into the lake to facilitate the loading.

At least two large commercial ice houses had established routes covering most of the Pointe weekly and delivered cakes from 25 to 100 pounds to their customers. Many a cook complained when she went to get her ice after an early thaw that the ice man hadn't delivered a 50 pound cake but a hailstone.

Gourmets will be in a seventh heaven of pots and pans, sauces and vintage wines beginning this Wednesday at the War Memorial when the Center's courses in foreign foods offers Mrs. Harold Tyree and Mrs. Joan Borgman Lee revealing their culinary secrets.

The Pointe's own Mrs. T. is one of the greatest of amateur cooks in the French tradition and will prepare her chocolate omelet type pastry learned from the hands of Dione Lucas. Mrs. Lee, proprietor of the Pontchartrain Wine Cellars downtown, a slim blond who never gains a pound from her luscious foods, has all the know-how on snails and bouillabaise.

Popular Chet Sampson shares billing with Mr. Les Gruber and Chef Pierre. Alix from the London East. For 20 years Chet has been cooking for youngsters on his tours and he has his Navy menus to fall back on too, with some exotic items from the Belgian Congo and the Fiji Islands, (stewed grasshoppers, no doubt).

Pierre has cooked around the world, too, at the Savoy in London, the Grand Hotel in Calcutta, the Hotel De l'Europe in Singapore and finally the Waldorf before coming here. His coq au vin is a triumph and he can tell you all about the wines to serve with each course.

Mrs. Francis McGinty, of the Center, Nerio Lelli, of Lelli's Inn, Mrs. John Sjunneson, of the Stockholm and James W. Lee II will also teach some of their favorite menus to aspiring gourmets. Mr. Lee is, of course, a wine expert well known hereabouts and whether it's a white, red or bubbly vintage he knows what to do with it in the kitchen.

Sorry, no luck, if you are about to rush to the phone and enroll, the course has been filled for ages. But maybe there will be a repeat for you anxious cooks who are tired of sloppy joes and grilled porterhouses. Thought you ought to know what's going on at the Center these chilly months over the sizzling stove.

A petite brunette pianist will bring glory to her home town on March 16 in Carnegie Hall. That's the Sunday afternoon that June Summers, whose home address is 870 Barrington road, will present her own concerto with the aid of the Symphony of the Air. Miss Summers, who is rumored to be related to Britain's wartime premier Winston Churchill, began as a child prodigy right here. She studied under Misha Kottler and made her first appearance in 1932 on a local concert stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buhl Hudson take their basset hound skating at the Country Club to the delight of all. The newlyweds gifted each other with the sad eyed puppy who is related to TV's famous Cleo.

We must again advise that you read those fascinating mottos on tea bags. Here are two.

Defeat isn't bitter if you don't swallow it.

Growing old doesn't seem so bad when you consider the alternative.

Here is a classic thank you note penned by Jonathan Cerf, Bennett's son.

Dear Uncle Herbert
I'm sorry I didn't thank you for my present and it would serve me right if you forgot about my birthday next Thursday.

Love, Jonathan

PILFERINGS

Love is the form of insanity which prompts a woman to marry her employer so that she can work for him for nothing. It is also the feeling that makes a woman make a man make a fool of himself.

Lady Driver: "It means hurry up before it turns red, doesn't it?"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. MARK C. STEVENS, OF MOROSS ROAD

—Picture by Fred Runnells

By Patricia Talbot

This soft spoken, petite, Virginia-bred lady has inherited from the Dominion State a love of Southern flowers and a deep awareness of her fellow man. Mrs. Mark C. Stevens serves both these interests as president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club and a behind the scenes assistant to her husband who is head of the English Speaking Union.

The English Speaking Union was organized to promote peace through understanding others and had a chapter here in 1912. The group died out in the late 1920's and Mrs. Stevens was asked to organize another chapter a few years ago. His mother was born in England and Mr. Stevens studied at Cambridge University after graduating from Harvard, so his interest began early.

British MP to Speak

Mrs. Stevens feels Virginia has an emotional tie with England, too. Her job is to entertain most of the English speaking dignitaries who pass through Detroit. These may be teachers, politicians, students or trades unionists. On February 25 the Stevens will be honoring Joseph Grimond, liberal leader in Britain's House of Parliament who will speak at the War Memorial.

This contact with informed citizens of other lands is not just confined to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens. Their children, Mark, Jr., Thomas and Betsy Ann, began at an early age to travel about the world learning other cultures first hand.

Betsy Ann, now Mrs. John Robert Sutton, began her travels with a jaunt West with the Chet Sampson tour, then went abroad to study at the University of Geneva. The following summer she traveled to Egypt, the Holy Lands and North Africa. By then, an experienced tourist she was counselor of a tour to Europe, which her brother, Mark, Jr. joined.

Siamese Prince Her Host
After her graduation from Sweetbrier she went around the world, stopping off to visit Prince Chula Chakrabongse in Thailand. He is a Cambridge classmate of her father's and a frequent visitor to the Pointe. Betsy Ann was given the royal treatment and thoroughly enjoyed her first hand contract with the Orient through the Siamese. Her father serves as consul for Thailand here in Detroit, helping students and arranging visas for the many visitors from the land of "The King and I."

Mrs. Stevens has not been abroad since 1933 when she took the Grand Tour on her honeymoon, but she and Mr. S. get away from it all with week ends at the Farmington Country Club in the heart of Virginia.

Mrs. Sutton is now at home in St. Clair Shores with a baby and Mark Jr., settled down at Hillsdale College with a wife and baby, so she feels her turn is next. Thomas hopes to be Europe-bound soon. He is a student at Middlesex Preparatory School in the East and has already biked about Northern Canada.

Garden Club President
When she is not reading a vast amount of background for her international activities or entertaining VPs in her gracious brick home off the greens of the Country Club golf course Mrs. Stevens is busy with her Garden Club activities.

library is typical of an English manor house, crammed with books and deep leather chairs. A perfect setting for the vast amount of entertaining the Stevens do is their warm attractive home.

Our Pointer admits that her favorite hobby is people and that she is perfectly happy sitting in a hotel lobby or railroad station watching faces as they pass.

Along with a deep passion for travel and international problems she loves music. Mr. Stevens mother, at ninety, plays the organ and the piano and still composes. Son Tom sings in his school Glee Club and plays the drums while his sister is a pianist. Mrs. Stevens also likes to paint and in Betsy's room is a cherished reproduction of Jimmy Cricket she did when her daughter was small.

Union Has 175 Members

None of us wants to be lacking in information about what is happening in our shrinking world. Detroit in particular has a new awareness with the Seaway project about to bring other lands to our very doors. The Stevens believe hearing first hand from visitors who talk to the English Speaking Union is one of the best ways to learn and so do the 175 members who share their interest in this internationally minded organization.

The first landing by U. S. Marines in what is now the Republic of Nicaragua, was made on Jan. 8, 1852.
