3-MAN CRIME WAVE HALTED

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 30

CHARLES STARKWEATHER, 19, was captured Wednesday in a 110-mile-an-hour highway chase shortly after the slaying of a 10th murder-rampage victim. The sullen, red-haired (dyed black with shoepolish) marksman did not deny the killings which claimed nine victims in the Lincoln, Neb., area since Saturday and one near Douglas, Wyo., Wednesday.

A BIG MILITARY transport and a Navy night fighter collided in flight Saturday night and crashed in flames into the heavily populated Los Angeles suburban area of Norwalk. The planes were reported carrying a total of 49 persons.

The Navy's Chaplain of the Year, Lt. Comm. Peter Bol, was one of 48 killed. Forty-one of the victims were occupants of the four-engine C-118 MATS plane and six were aboard the twin-engine Neptune patrol bomber. A housewife was cut down by flying wreckage blocks away from where the transport hit.

A WOMAN WAS SHOT TO DEATH at a roadblock near Paducah, Ky. today as officers spread a new dragnet for an escaped gunman. This occurred after the gunman's companion attempted suicide and a Missouri state trooper whom they had kidnaped returned unharmed.

Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri officers joined in the new search for the escaped gunman, Carl W. Burton, 24, of Redwood City, Cal., after a 30-hour search for abducted Trooper William Little ended with his voice coming over the radio of his stolen police cruiser.

THE HEAD of the Federal Communications Commission testified Monday he accepted $575 from a broadcasting industry group in connection with a trip he made at Government expense in 1954.

FCC Chairman John C. Doerfer heatedly denied, however, that he was chiseling on his Government expense account—that is, by charging the taxpayers for travel expenses actually paid by the broadcasting industry.

AN AUTOMOBILE hurtling the wrong way on the Ford Expressway brought death to the confused young driver and another motorist in a head on collision early Tuesday. The cars struck with such terrible force it took Dearborn police 30 minutes with wrecking bars to extricate the two victims from the wreckage. The collision occurred at 3:30 a. m. on the westbound lane of the expressway between the Michigan and Wyoming exits, in Dearborn. The dead: Neil McClary, 18, of 499 Joslyn, Lake Orion — the wrong way driver, and James Coldiron, 29, of 8115 Glippert, Taylor Township, father of three children.

The Gordon Cook family of 430 Rivard boulevard, and a lot of neighbors have pitched in to create this hockey rink and skating surface which attracts scads of kids day and night. This is an unusually small gathering for the popular spot, leading us to believe it might have been taken during school hours and those present are playing hookey rather than hockey. The rink is brilliantly flood-lighted at night and attracts old and young.

Schools Offering Special Provisions To Gifted Students

Opportunities Provided for the More Brilliant Scholars to Advance Education Under Pointe Public System

Editorial Note: Mrs. Helen M. Graves has contributed this, the eighth in a current series of articles on the Grosse Pointe Public School System. The facts, culled from interviews with elementary and high school teachers, and members of the Board of Education, represent an informative, and altogether encouraging, picture of what is being done today for the development of the gifted student.

While the public schools are dedicated to the task of providing opportunities for the maximum educational development of each pupil, in harmony with the purposes of education in a democracy is the important task of identifying and making provisions for the gifted student. There is nothing undemocratic in the recognition of the fact that some children are superior to their mates and therefore, if rightly trained, are likely to become leaders.

Best for the Best

It is even more desirable at this moment in our history that the best should get the best for as someone said recently, "A keen mind has become a resource more valuable than uranium . . . the crying need of our country today is the trained mind, the skilled worker, the creative thinker."

As was pointed out in last week's article, we have in our Grosse Pointe Public School system, a really first rate testing and guidance program for all students, where the important task of identifying the gifted student is and can be accomplished.

This article will discuss some of the "provisions" made for the gifted student in our Grosse Pointe Public School system. In considering special provisions and program for the gifted students in our school system it must first be remembered that the normal program of studies in all grades in our school system is geared to the needs of the students of above average abilities.

Most Attend Collage

With a medium I.Q. in every elementary and secondary school building above average and with from 70 to 80 percent of each high school graduating class attending college, our teachers have long recognized the need to have pupils pursue studies more intensively and extensively than is possible in many other schools.

Enrichment

The basic philosophy of our school system with regard to gifted students is one of "enrichment." Enrichment may mean "enriched classroom work," i.e. extensive reading, independent project work, etc. or it may mean "enriched program," i.e. more classes, varied extra-curricular activities, etc.

The nature of the gifted student is such that "enrichment" in its most productive form consists not of adding more of the same kind of content and activity but of providing experiences in "greater variety and at a more advanced level."

Key to a successful "enrichment program," of course, is the talent and temperment of the teacher, who working with

R. A. Slone Takes Over Park Duties

Succeeds Everitt B. Lane As Municipal Manager; Came from Rochester

Everitt B. Lane, 62, turned over his duties as Park city manager to Robert A. Slone, 37, former city manager of Rochester, Mich., on Saturday, February 1.

Mr. Lane will go into semi-retirement effective as of July 1, but until that time, he will serve the city in an adminis trative advisory capacity. After the July date, he will be retained by the Park as a consulting engineer and possibly as a consultant in municipal management.

He was city manager for the city for the past 15 years, assuming his post on December 2, 1942.

He is married to the former Peryl E. Tuttle of Port Huron and lives at 1079 Beaconsfield. They have no children.

Came from Marysville

Prior to coming to the Park, Mr. Lane served as city manager of Marysville, Mich., for eight years; and before that was city manager of Stratford, Conn., for two years.

A native of New Haven, Conn., he is a graduate of Syracuse University of School Citizenship and Public Affairs, where he majored in public administration and civil engineering.

Besides his years in city

West Coast Burglars Caught Here

Park Police Set Stake-Out at Lakepointe Avenue Home and Nab Pair

A two-day police stake-out of a Lakepointe avenue home in the Park resulted in the apprehension of two men, whose arrest cleared up a number of inter-city burglaries, armed robberies, bad check passing, the breaking up of a dope ring, and the averting of two planned bank robberies, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Park police, aided by Detroit police armed with shotguns, machine guns and other arms, convereged on the home of J. L. Hutchens, 1101 Lakepointe on Friday, January 31. Two officers from the Park and one from Detroit, ran into the house with drawn guns, and arrested two of the three men involved in a string of crimes.

Surrendering meekly when the officers broke into the house were John Cutler, 18, of Los Angeles; and Samuel A. Scalfani, 26, of 939 St. Johns, Lincoln Park, Mich.

Third Youth Arrested

The other member of the trio, William J. Ogg, 19, also of Los Angeles, was arrested by Dearborn police on Friday, while he was following a girl, trying to make a date. He was "shaken down" by arresting officers and found to be carrying a loaded Luger. He was held in Dearborn for investigation of carrying a concealed weapon.

Chief Louwers said that first information about the men in the house was given to Park Patrolman James LaPratt, who was cultivating the friendship of a teenager who might have some information about a number of unsolved burglaries in the Park.

The youth, name withheld, told the officer of the men who had a large amount of goods, including a number of guns, stored in the Hutchens' house.

Kept Out of Sight

The chief said the guns and other goods were in suitcases, or wrapped up in tight bundles, and the Hutchens' were not aware of the contents.

One of the men was an acquaintance of the Hutchens' daughter and had asked her family for permission to keep their things in the house until they called for them. It was when they returned to claim their goods, that they were arrested, Chief Louwers said.

Patrolman LaPratt relayed the information he received to Chief Louwers, who feeling there was great potential of a possible crime, ordered the stake-out.

Detroit Pledges Help

The chief called Senior Inspector Carl Falk of the Detroit Police Department and informed him of the developments, and asked for aid if needed. The help was promised.

Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders and Patrolman LaPratt were the first team on the "plant" on the house.

About 2:30 p.m. on Friday, Lt. Enders and Cpl. Charles French spotted Cutler and Scalfani entering the house, and put in a call to the station. In turn, a call was made to Detroit.

Police cars from Detroit and the Park converged on the area and sealed off Lakepointe from Jefferson to Kercheval and Beaconsfield from St. Paul to Maryland.

Lt. Enders, Cpl. French and Detroit Det. Dwight Mattison, barged into the house with drawn guns, and Cutler and Scalfani surrendered meekly.

Find Dope in House

After the two men were taken to the Park police station, a thorough search of the house was made, and police confiscated about four pounds of marihuana, several guns and about 109 pieces of miscellaneous items, most of them stolen from Los Angeles and Glendale, Calif.

Lt. Enders and Cpl. French and Det. Lt. Arnold Hough and Patrolman LaPratt questioned

Excellence Award Given News Again

Receives Honors in Annual Competition by Michigan Press Association

The Grosse Pointe News has again been awarded honors for its general excellence in the annual contest sponsored by the Michigan Press Association. This is the seventh year the News has been selected for honors among Michigan suburban newspapers.

A panel of South Dakota newspapermen made the selections. The awards were announced and certificates presented at the Michigan Press Association's 90th annual meeting in East Lansing on Friday and Saturday, January 24 and 25.

The Birmingham Eccentric was given first place in the competition, with the Grosse Pointe News second and the Plymouth Mail third. Honorable mention went to the Wayne Eagle and the Trenton Times.

All of the entries were judged on their October 31, 1957 issue.

Semple Named Yale News Head

Robert B. Semple, Jr., of University place, an honor student in the Yale Class of 1959, has been elected the new Chairman of the "Yale Daily News"—America's oldest college daily.

Semple and his new board will assume control of the student paper beginning with the new academic term this week.

Scouting's 48th Birthday Being Observed Nationally During Anniversary Week

Inaugurates Third Year of Four-Year Program with Theme of "Onward for God and My Country"

Scouting's 48th Birthday Anniversary Week, February 7-13 inclusive, will inaugurate the third year of a Four-Year Program with its theme of "Onward for God and My Country," initiated two years ago and designed to help prepare America's boys of today to effectively carry out their responsibilities in the years ahead.

During 1957 the Four-Year Program added great stimulus to Scouting all across the nation. Locally, the Detroit Area Council had one of the largest increases in membership (6,542 more boys and leaders), ever recorded.

As of December 31, 1957 the Council had a registered total of 87,221 boys and leaders, a record never before achieved. Nationally, Scouting's membership is over 4,700,000 boys and leaders. Since 1910 over 27,500,000 boys and leaders have been affiliated with the Scout program.

Started in 1910

Scouting in America officially dates back to February 8, 1910, when the Movement was incorporated in Washington, D. C. Worldwide recognition was given on June 15, 1916, when Scouting was granted a Federal Charter by Congress.

Scouting is a worldwide movement found in 57 countries which have membership in the International Bureau. The Bureau, located in London, England for many years, is being moved to the American continent and will be located in Ottawa, Canada. Communist dominated countries promote their own youth program—denying their boys the privilege of typical Scout membership with freedom to travel abroad to World Jamborees such as was held in England last year and in Canada in 1955.

Highlighting many local church and synagogue services during Scout Week will be the presentation of Religious Awards to Scouts of Catholic, Jewish, Lutheran and Protestant faiths. To assist the clergy and others in announcing special programs, an unusually colorful and attractive cover is available from the Council Trading Post.

Printed in Color

Printed in full colors, showing a Cub Scout, a Boy Scout, and an Explorer, with other members of the family, these folders can be used for Religious Award Ceremonies, Parents' Nites, Father-Son Dinners, Blue and Gold Banquets, Open House programs and Courts of Honor. They fold to 5-5/8" x 8-3/4"—the popular size used by churches, schools and Service Clubs.

Babe Ruth Ball Loop Needs Help

Contributions Necessary to Replace Uniforms Which Are Four Years Old and Worn Out

All of the baseball news isn't being made by the Detroit Tigers and the other big league clubs. The newly elected board of directors Grosse Pointe held its first meeting on Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of electing officers and selecting chairmen of important committees for the 1958 season.

Ken Zosel who has served on the board for two years was elected president to succeed Walter B. Connolly.

William I. Brown who has been the manager of the Phillies in the National Division since the beginning of the league has relinquished his managerial duties and was elected vice president.

Two Re-elected

Bill Butler was re-elected to his third term as treasurer. Paul Trigg was re-elected recording secretary. Howarth Gnau who is acknowledged as the founder of Little League baseball in Grosse Pointe is back in harness and was elected assistant secretary as well as being selected as registration and committee chairman.

Bob Smart, who was appointed equipment chairman, reported that it will be necessary to purchase new uniforms for the major league teams. The present uniforms are over four years old and have literally been torn apart.

Contributions Needed

The extraordinary uniform expense will make contributions to the Babe Ruth League more necessary this year than last. Bryan Molloy, chairman of the finance committee, will welcome any assistance that parents or the different business organizations in Grosse Pointe might be able to give to defray this additional expense.

The remaining committee assignments will be announced later according to President Zosel. Any resident of Grosse Pointe Park, City or Farms who would like to volunteer to work with the baseball program this year should submit his name either to Mr. Zosel or any other member of the Board of Directors.

Business Group Holds Meeting

Some 30 business leaders turned out for the January meeting of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association held at the Memorial Center on January 23, and heard Allen B. Allwein, vice-president and trust officer of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company, talk on "Taxation and Income Taxes as Applied to the Individual and to Small Businesses." Mr. Allwein, a resident of Grosse Pointe, followed his talk with an open forum.

Past president, Ray Huetteman, was appointed chairman of the nominating committee for the group's coming annual election. Others on the committee are the association's founders and past presidents.

Alonzo O'Connor, entertainment chairman, announced that plans are in the making for the annual May party which is also the occasion for installation of officers.

Vice-president, David McCarron, was presiding officer in the absence of president Russell Harkness who is in Florida.

Farms Adopts Resolution For Planning Committee

The Farms council took another step in the formation of an Advisory Planning Committee for the city, when it adopted a resolution on Monday, February 3, creating such a body.

Members of the council will nominate seven civic minded citizens to serve on the new committee, and will present their names as soon as possible.

The Farms has never had such a committee before. All duties usually delegated to such a group had been absorbed by the council.

The resolution creating the committee was drawn up by City Attorney Thomas Tilley.

Spearheading the movement for the forming of such a committee was the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association.

Paul R. O. Marden, secretary and executive director of the Association, who attended every meeting in which plans for the creation of a planning committee was discussed in the Farms, said that about 99 percent of Farms members of the Association favored the move.

The council created the committee by resolution rather than by ordinance, to see how it would work out. A future ordinance would make the group a permanent part of city government. All findings of the committee are subject to council approval.

Fire Losses in Farms Totaled $29,785 in 1957

Fire losses in Grosse Pointe Farms during 1957 amounted to $29,785, according to a report submitted to the Fire Marshal Division of the Michigan State Police by Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason.

The Farms council reviewed the report on Monday, February 3.

Chief Mason's report is broken down as follows: Loss on dwellings and buildings other than dwellings, $16,350; loss on contents of dwellings, $12,855; other fire losses (motor vehicles, boats, etc.), $580.

The Fire Department answered a total of 68 alarms, including one for false alarm.

There were 25 dwelling fires; 14 automobile fires; three grass fires; one school fire; and 24 other types of fire.

The chief's report showed there were no fatalities, as a result of any of these.

Department equipment was sent when alarms came in for these insignificant or major blazes: 29 resulting from defective electrical appliances; three fuel oil burners; two natural gas appliances and installations; four for defective wiring; three defective chimneys or stacks; three defective heating devices and three overheated heating devices.

Disposal of hot ashes was responsible for five fires; and sparks from chimneys igniting wooden shingles, cause another five.

There were four fires from unknown causes, the chief's report revealed.

Sunday Business Irks Residents

A mounting tide of indigent protests at the action of local branches of chain grocery stores and markets for remaining open for business on Sundays, is steadily climbing, according to information released by City Clerk Norbert P. Neff.

Residents of the City and the other Pointes angrily oppose the Sunday store hours, stating that it is unnecessary as far as Pointe requirements are concerned.

Citizens are planning organized action in an effort to have the Sabbath day hours of business discontinued.

Mr. Neff said that petitions are being circulated against the Sunday hours and that he expects them to be filed soon.

Scouts' 48th Birthday

and Gold Banquets, Father and Son Dinners, Courts of Honor and other activities will be sponsored by many local units in their own meeting places or in their community areas.

Scout Week 1958 will inaugurate a year-long Safety Good Turn as requested by President Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America. In cooperation with many other organizations giving leadership in Safety, the Scouts will devote March, April and May to 'Traffic Safety'; June, July and August to 'Outdoor Safety'; the fall months to 'Home Safety' and December and January 1959 to 'Winter Safety.'

To Build Enrollment

During Scout Week, and immediately following, District "Friends of Scouting" teams will conduct the Council's Annual Sustaining Membership Enrollment, needed to extend the Scouting Program in special areas of the Council territory.

Other highlights occurring during the Scout Week period include Lincoln Pilgrimages on February 12, and issuance of "Scout Week Proclamations" by municipal authorities. One Pilgrimage will be conducted at the former Lincoln-Mercury statue, Warren and Livernois. Another Pilgrimage will be conducted at the Charles Howell Scout Reservation where another official statue by 'Pelzer,' the famous American sculptor, is located. These are the only two such statues in Michigan.

Service Clubs Helping

Many Service Clubs are sponsoring recognition programs at their regular weekly meetings during the Scout Week period. Some are requesting five or 10-minute speakers or programs of longer duration. A special Speakers Bureau, known as "Operation Patrick Henry," has been developed by the Council, comprising older Scouts and volunteer leaders.

Coming program highlights for this Council also include a mammoth Eagle Recognition Ceremony at the Sheraton-Cadillac, Monday, March 3, and the largest Scouting Exposition ever conducted at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, June 6-7-8.

3-Man Crime Wave Halted

Cutler and Scalfani in relays.

The two men told of numerous burglaries they committed in Los Angeles and Glendale, in which they took shot guns, revolvers, radios, records and other items from sporting goods and other stores.

They said that following a breaking and entering a store in Los Angeles, they went along a main street of the city and smashed every plate glass store window for a full block.

Traded TV Set

Realizing they wre "too hot" in Los Angeles, they made arrangements to leave, but before doing so, traded a $400 television set, part of their loot, for about five pounds of marihuana, from a dealer in that city.

Enroute to Detroit, Cutler and Scalfani said, they and Ogg smoked more than a pound of the lethal weed and admitted they were pretty high on the stuff during the five days they were on the road. On the way here, they added, they committed one or more burglaries in cities they were passing through.

They said, also, that while moving on the road, they loaded and fired their guns at road signs and stationary objects on the road, for practice, in case of possible shooting scrapes while carrying out their crimes.

Sold Some Guns

On arriving in Detroit, they were short of money and sold four of their guns, they said, all revolvers, and retained three revolvers and a shotgun. They lived in various hotels for short periods, moving about to prevent police from tracing them down.

They said they sold some of their supply of marihuana to a person in River Rouge, who was later arrested by police of that city, and charged with possession of the weed.

A teletype from Los Angeles regarding the make of car and its license number, rang a bell in Patrolman LaPratt's mind. He recalled seeing a car of that description and license number in the Lakepointe-St. Paul area. He gave this information, with that obtained from the teenager, to Chief Louwers, and the stake-out was arranged.

Planned Bank Robberies

The chief said that everything had worked out well. He was especially pleased, when Cutler and Scalfani told him that their arrest interfered with their plans to rob two banks. They needed money to leave town, and possibly to go to Europe, Chief Louwers said they told him. They had no specific banks in mind, but planned to hold up any bank, the chief added.

With Cutler, Scalfani and Ogg in custody, and their confessions made, the information was relayed to Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker, with whom Chief Louwers had been in constant contact.

Chief Parker later informed Chief Louwers that the arrests and confessions made to the Park Police Department, enabled Los Angeles police to make several arrests in connection with the crimes involving the men arrested in the Park and Dearborn. In addition, the Los Angeles chief said, the dope ring that supplied the three men with the marihuana has been smashed.

Wanted Elsewhere

Los Angeles indicated it is willing to extradite the three men, following a disposition from the Park department. Other cities interested in the three are Dearborn, which wants them for breaking and

Pointe Mayors Hail Scouters

The five Pointe mayors, in commemorating the 48th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, issued a joint proclamation, declaring February 7 through 13 as "Boy Scout Week."

The Scout movement will celebrate its birthday on Saturday, February 8.

This movement has effected the lives of over 27,000,000 American boys and men since 1910. Now, the active enrollment lists 4,700,000 persons.

Scouting, nationally, marks this 48th anniversary by launching a year-long Safety Good Turn, as requested by President Eisenhower.

A mammoth Scout Exposition is scheduled for some time in June.

The proclamation calls on citizens to recognize the unselfish, patriotic service being rendered to the community by the volunteer scout leaders in churches, schools, P.T.A.s, veterans posts, service clubs and other community groups which sponsor the Detroit Area Council's 1,708 cub packs, scout troops and Explorer posts, which has a nationwide record membership of 87,478 boys and leaders.

Affixing their signatures to the proclamation were: Park Mayor Kenneth Cunningham; City Mayor Frederick Parker, Jr.; Farms Mayor William Connolly, Jr.; Shores President Jack Williams and Woods Mayor Kenneth Koppin.

Sound judgement can be given credit for a lot of silence.

Leona Liddle Woods Clerk

Mrs. Leona D. Liddle of 2146 Roslyn, was appointed city clerk by the Woods council on Monday, February 3.

She succeeds Herbert Brauns who resigned last October 21, to take a similar post in Rockford, Ill.

Mrs. Liddle, a resident of the Woods since 1939, has been with the city since June 14, 1954, as secretary to the city administrator.

Following the resignation of Brauns, the new city clerk, aided by Deputy Clerk Frances Lentz, assumed the duties of the office, besides doing her own work.

Before coming to work with the city, she was employed by Buhl Sons Hardware for 16 years.

She has a son, Charles, 22, who is a four-year student at Michigan State University where he is majoring in veterinary medicine.

Social Studies Groups to Meet

The Metropolitan Detroit Social Studies Club and the Department of Social Studies of the Detroit Public Schools announces its annual Mid-Winter Institute will be held on Saturday, February 8, at the Park Shelton Hotel 15 east Kirby at Woodward beginning at 9:15 a.m.

With so many problems confronting the nation and its schools, this year's theme is "Keeping Democracy at Work." While technological science will provide a very important means of protecting society, its education in the field of social is only through competent education in the field of social studies that persons will understand how and why to maintain democracy.

Included on the program will be Judge John Ricca, Lt. Gov. Philip Hart, Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, and Dr. Marion Edman of Wayne State University.

A luncheon meeting at 12:30 will be addressed by Supt. of Schools Dr. Samuel Brownell and John William Hughes noted English commentator and correspondent who will speak of "Twilight of Democracy."

While the club is composed primarily of social studies teachers, the meetings are open to the public without cost—except for the luncheon—to the public. The sessions should prove of great value and interest to anyone interested in preserving America's position in the world of today and the future.

Miss Leona Weier of Grosse Pointe High School is general chairman.

Don't argue with the man who talks loud—you couldn't convince him in a thousand years.

BREAKS SHOULDER

Mrs. Sigmund Keller, 75, of 45 N. Edgewood, was taken to St. John Hospital by Shores police on Friday, January 24, when she fell on a slippery pavement while getting out of a cab in front of her home. She suffered a broken shoulder, a police report revealed.

Schools Care For Gifted Students

a heterogeneous group in the classroom situation, can do much or little enrichment.

Grouping

There is occasional "acceleration" (i.e. skipping a grade) of gifted students; but another facet of our program for all students in which the gifted play an important part is that of "grouping" within a class room situation. The idea of grouping students of like ability is not a new one—educators have long believed that better instruction could be provided as the range in abilities became less.

So we find in many of our Grosse Pointe elementary schools, particularly in the first through third grades, students "grouped" according to "reading ability" within a single classroom.

At Poupard, the grouping idea has been refined so that in the first grade, there is one section of advanced students, two sections of average and one "readiness" section. Within each of the class sections there is further "regrouping" according to individual differences of ability.

Special Classes

A third way in which we provide for gifted children is that of "special" classes.

At Poupard there has just been started a "special" class for gifted students. Out of 160 students in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades surveyed, it was found that there were a large group with high mental and other abilities that would benefit from special work. Since this was a trial program and due to other considerations, 8 students were selected ranging from 4th to 6th grades. They meet from 8:35 to 9:35 a.m. twice a week under the direction of the elementary teacher Mr. John Brubaker. Mr. Brubaker stated that the students in this special class were at least two grade levels over normal.

In the senior high school a number of special courses or sections within courses have been organized. Geometry E classes have been established for those students of Plane Geometry who are majoring in Mathematics or who are pre-engineering students.

These classes are not only offering a more complete background in mathematics but also give some insight into trigonometry and analytic geometry.

Honor Classes

Special sections in such areas as 11th grade English, French, as 11th grade English, American History, French, World History have been set aside as "honor" classes. Here selected students are given the opportunity to study in the same subject area as the regular section but on both a more intensive and extensive basis. Additional honors sections are currently under consideration in biology, chemistry, advanced mathematics and other fields.

There are no special classes in the junior high school at the present. However assignments in the junior high schools may be varied and honors activities suggested so that pupils of superior ability may be challenged to develop their individual talents.

At the administrative level, several members of the professional staff are actively participating in the Wayne County Study of the Gifted since its inception in 1956. Miss Florence Cumings, Barnes School and Mr. Edwin Wendt, Ferry School, have been members of the Elementary Schools Committee; Miss Helen Mutton of the Senior High School staff has been a member of the Committee on Research and Evaluation and Dr. Leroy Selmeier was chairman of the Secondary Schools Committee and is now chairman of the Steering Committee.

In addition, a significant part of the teaching staff in our Grosse Pointe Schools have enrolled in graduate college credit courses studying the gifted in Grosse Pointe. Several such "inservice" courses are being offered this semester.

In summary, it can be said that both teachers and administrators are constantly studying the Grosse Pointe situation as to give all students the fullest possible development of their capacities and that special awareness and provision is beginning to be made for the specially gifted students.

There may be some feeling that increasing attention is focused on a small group who are already more privileged than the rest of us. However, it must be remembered that we are a nation that prides itself on progress. We want the newest, the best and the most powerful in the material world. Why then is it not logical that we should want the best in human beings?

But we need the abilities of our brightest and most talented youngsters for much more than material progress. We need brilliance to meet head-on the challenges of our "space" era—we need the talent, the imagination and the resourcefulness that only the gifted can bring to the solution of our problems and to the making of a better world.

MISS MARY JANE COX, kindergarten teacher at the Poupard School, reads the fairy tale "Sleeping Beauty" to her class. The youngsters will be among the capacity audiences expected to see the Michigan State Players give their presentation of this classic at the Parcells School this Saturday, February 8. The AAUW is sponsoring the play here.

St. Paul Dads Meet Feb. 12

Members of the St. Paul Dads' Club will have a regular "Sports Night" Meeting, in the school gym, Wednesday evening, February 12, at 7:30 o'clock.

Color movies of the Detroit Lions-Cleveland Browns championship football game will be a feature of the meeting. Color movie highlights of the St. Paul Lakers' football season will be shown—also movies of the St. Paul 78ers grade school football team, which lost only one contest.

Co-chairmen for the meeting, in charge of arrangements, are Chauncey DiLaura and Bud Cornillie.

All St. Paul Dads, and their sons of the seventh and eighth grades and the high school, are cordially invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Membership in the St. Paul Dad's Club is open to all friends and patrons of St. Paul School.

Pleads Guilty in Court To Having Pornography

Theodore Wichman, 58, of 1423 Berkshire, entered a plea of guilty to possession of obscene literature and materials when he appeared before Circuit Judge Frank Fitzgerald on Wednesday, January 29.

The guilty plea was changed from that of not guilty by Wichman's attorney, who spoke in his behalf.

Judge Fitzgerald referred the case to the Wayne County Probation Department for further investigation before passing sentence.

Wichman, proprietor of the Empire Gift and Camera Shop, 20952 Mack avenue, was charged with the offense, his second, last November 22, when Woods police noticed his car illegally parked in front of his establishment.

Officers checking the vehicle discovered a suitcase on the back seat, which contained a number of obscene 16 mm movie films and other pornographic materials.

At the time of his arrest, Wichman was on a two-year probation, imposed by Woods Woods Judge Don Goodrow, for a similar charge for which he was arrested on August 2, 1956.

When first taken into custody in 1956, the accused man was charged with a simple misdemeanor, according to Michigan law. Therefore, a local judge was empowered by this law to pass sentence.

Wichman was fined $100 and given the two years probation by Judge Goodrow.

Last year, the Legislature made possession of obscene literature and materials a high misdemeanor, for which an offender can receive one year in jail, or a $1,000 fine, or both, if found guilty. This is under circuit court jurisdiction.

Look out for the man who is always looking out for himself.

Boat Handling Course Starting at Center

Two boating novices, IRENE CHAPEL and BARBARA VOORHEES, learn the "whys and wherefores" of channel buoys from HARRY MARTIN, who built this model as a training aid for the class in Small Boat Handling being sponsored by Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 12-12 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Thursday nights at 7:30 o'clock beginning February 6. There is no charge for the instruction and the class is open to anyone 14 years of age or older. Call TU 1-7511 to enroll in this 10-week course in Basic Seamanship.

Boat Handling Class Starting

Pipe berth, rabbit line, stern chock, tumble home, skig, through bolt — such nautical terms will be bandied about in the Center's library tonight, February 6, as a large group of new and prospective boat owners begin Lesson One of the Coast Guard's Course in Safe Boat Handling sponsored and taught by Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 12-12.

The course is open to anyone 14 years of age or older

Parley Planned By Churchmen

The Men's Association of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church in joint sponsorship with the National Council of Presbyterian Men will hold a "Pre-Easter Conference" for men in the Detroit area. The meeting will be held at the Woods church on Saturday, February 15, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with time out at noon for lunch.

It is the purpose of this meeting to promote the Kingdom of God world-wide by encouraging Presbyterian men to serve Jesus Christ in the work of the church and to follow Him in the vocations of the common life.

Over 200 men are expected to join in this endeavor. Such hymns as "Rise Up O Men of God" will be sung by this spirited group of men.

Dr. Allan Zaun of Jefferson Ave. Presbyterian and Dr. Allan Frew of First Presbyterian of Detroit will speak to the conference on "Religion And Man—In The Church—In The Home—And At Work" and "The Challenge of Christ to Men" respectively. All the men in small groups, discussing vital topics, will also be a feature of this meeting.

Smart men find that the secret of success is to keep their own.

Two Cars Tangle On Mack Avenue

Sharon Catherine Spleet, of 4665 Neff in Detroit, collided with a car at the corner of Mack and Neff last Saturday.

She was making a left turn from the island at that intersection, onto Mack when she struck a car driven by Russell Charles Hamlin, of 20045 Holiday, Grosse Pointe Woods.

She claimed her vision was obscured by a truck that was turning left, from Mack west on Neff. Damage was minor, and there was no issue for a ticket to be given.

Church Offers Organ Rictal

There will be a special musical service which will feature an organ recital by John Osborne, a music student at the University of Michigan, on Sunday, February 9, at 4 p.m. in Christ Church (61 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Mr. Osborne's program will consist of two chorale-preludes by Johannes Brahms, the Fantasie and Fugue in G Minor by J. S. Bach, and the Air with Variations by Leo Sowerby, who is the organist and choirmaster of the Episcopal Cathedral in Chicago.

The choir of men and girls, under the direction of Richard Roeckelein, will sing music of contemporary composers: a Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Ralph Vaughan Williams, and an anthem "I looked and beheld a white cloud" by the Canadian, Healey Willan. The service of Choral Evensong will be intoned by the Rev. Thomas Masson.

Carl E. Stout, assistant organist and choirmaster, will play works by the contemporary French blind organist, Jean Langlais, for the prelude and postlude. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

To Head Drive

John P. Mansfield, of Sunningdale drive, president of Plymouth Division and vice-president of Chrysler Corporation, has been named Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society's annual educational campaign in Southeastern Michigan, it was announced today by E. W. Tuescher, executive director.

Mr. Mansfield, a well-known figure both in the sales and manufacturing fields of the automotive industry, began his career as a factory worker with the Dort Motor Company in Flint in 1920. During the next 12 years, he was associated with several automobile firms, including Chrysler's predecessor, the Maxwell Motor Company, where he worked in the distribution department.

Attached to the Dodge Division in 1932, Mansfield put in the early part of World War II handling special war manufacturing assignments for the Dodge Main Plant in Detroit, moving on to Kansas City as regional manager in 1943. In 1946, he was transferred to Los Angeles and was subsequently placed in charge of building and equipping the new Dodge automobile and truck assembly plant in San Leandro, California. He became general manager of the San Leandro plan, returning to Detroit in 1951 as a member of the Plymouth division and a year later was elected vice president of Chrysler Corporation.

Mansfield is active, not only in the field of his profession, but in civic affairs and particularly those devoted to youth. He climaxed many years working with the Junior Achievement with his appointment as president for Southeastern Michigan for 1956-57. He is a member of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America; United Foundation board of directors; Detroit board of commerce; Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau and the celebrated One Hundred Club.

As Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society 1958 Crusade, Mansfield will be in charge of several thousand volunteer workers throughout Wayne, Macomb and Oakland counties who will exert their effort toward spreading the message of the Cancer Society during the month of April.

This year's campaign, based on cytology, will stress the importance of periodic health examinations in an effort to detect cancer in its earliest—and most often curable—stages. Early detection, according to the American Cancer Society, is a valuable factor toward control and cure, and is a big step forward in the fight to conquer mankind's most dangerous disease.

Farms Council Okays Projects

The Farms council approved payments on projects completed by contractors, and the awarding of contracts to low bidders, on Monday, February 3.

Acting on a recommendation made by City Manager Sidney DeBoer, the council agreed to pay out $16,351.36 for items purchased and for work done; and the awarding of $4,486.50 for two proposed projects.

The city manager recommended that a bid of $3,691.50 be given to the Henry Salvatore Construction company for the installation of two sections of six-inch water mains on Williams avenue.

One section of approximately 140 feet in length will connect the Stephens road main with that at Lothrop road; and the other section, about 200 feet, will connect the Belanger road main with the one at Kerby road.

Barton Malow Company was given the job of painting the interior of the Water Filtration Plant for the sum of $1,155.

The bills to be paid are: the Underwood Corporation, $3,212, for a new water billing and payroll machine; Mehlenbacher Fence company, $1,873.60 for the purchase and installation of the fence in the addition to the Kercheval Avenue Business District parking lot; the Cook Construction company, $6,861.63, for the widening of Fisher road from Lake Shore to Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Paul Horst company, $1,094, for a 10 KW Auxiliary Generating Plant; Michigan Bell Telephone, $1,409.33, for the moving of poles and lines in the alley to the rear of Mack avenue between Kerby and Moross; and the Greater Detroit Landscaping company, $1,900, for the trimming of trees throughout the city.

Shores Traffic Violators Pay

George E. Korpi of 51266 Washington, New Baltimore, paid a fine of $100 and was placed on 90 days probation by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, January 27, after pleading guilty to reckless driving on Lake Shore road. The charge was reduced from driving while drunk.

Korpi was forbidden to drive during his probation, except while in the pursuit of his employment.

Albert S. Boyland of 211 Fischer, Detroit, arrested while driving on Lake Shore, was found guilty of not having a valid operator's license, and for failing to have a red flag on a projecting load. He paid a fine of $50.

Dean L. Lashbrook of 23161 Port court, St. Clair Shores, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine and court costs of $37.50.

George J. Smith of 741 Seward, Detroit, failed to appear for speeding on Lake Shore, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Andre L. Veilleux of 13915 Archdale, Detroit, paid a fine of $25 after he was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore.

Edward F. Kurpiewski of 2474 Grayling, Detroit, paid a fine and costs of $12.50 for speeding on Vernier road.

Suzanne Souder of 538 Neff road, was found guilty of speeding on Vernier and paid a fine of $15.

June Hollett of 1354 Lakewood, Detroit; paid a fine of $30 after pleading guilty to speeding on Lake Shore.

Vincent F. Cauchon of 8736 Agnes, Detroit, paid costs of $7.50 after he was found guilty of speeding on Vernier.

It cost Harold Holmes of 23347 Edsel Ford court, St. Clair Shores, $15 for ignoring a red light at Lake Shore and Vernier.

Three other violators appeared before Shores Judge Victor DeBacke during Monday night court. They are:

Mary Jean Petersen of 921 Vernier, who was found guilty of speeding on Vernier and paid a fine and costs of $17.50; Herbert C. Eidt of 765 University place, who paid $24.50 for speeding on Lake Shore; and Michael P. Moakley of 12272 Wade, Detroit, who paid $22.50 for speeding on Vernier.

Bruce A. Dettloff of 22629 Stephens road, St. Clair Shores, accused of speeding on Lake Shore; and Constance Ray of 8018 Buckingham, Detroit, charged with the same offense, failed to come to court to answer for their violations and warrants were issued for their arrests.

Thieves Steal Hi-Fi at Church

Thieves who broke into a basement closet of Christ Church (Episcopal), 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, on Tuesday, January 28, made off with more than two hundred dollars worth of hi-fi equipment.

No clues to the theft have been found at the last report, according to the Farms detective team of Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem.

The loss was reported by the Rev. George Whitney, assistant rector of the church, who showed the officers where a hole in the closet door was made, which enabled the thieves to steal the equipment.

Taken was an audio-turntable, valued at $68.45; an amplifier, worth $129.70; and 10 hi-fi records and additional parts, totaling about $32.14.

The officers said that Rev. Whitney told them that there were a number of teenagers in the basement about 8:30 p.m.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION
With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.
If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!
Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

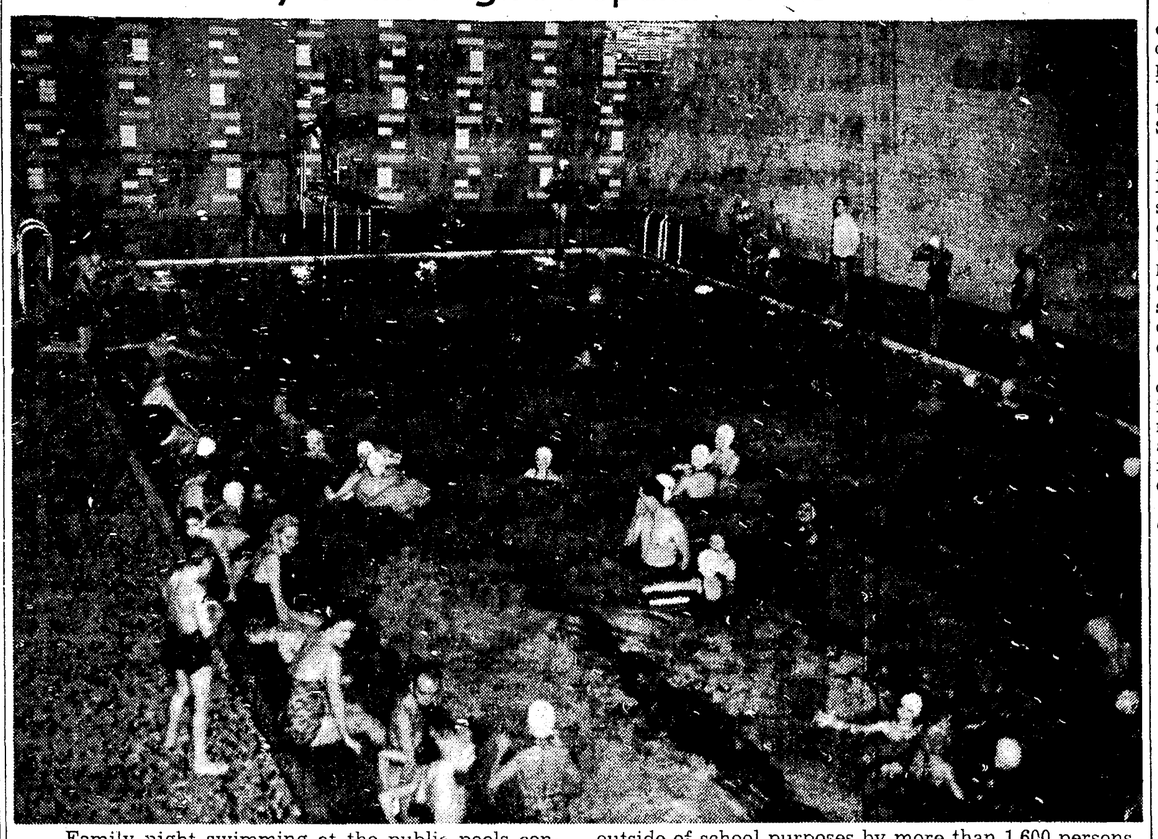
Family Swim Nights Popular at New Pools



Family night swimming at the public pools continues to grow as more and more families join the swim. School officials report that the attendance at Parcells Junior High School on Friday nights has hit a high of 126 persons, representing 37 families. On Monday nights at Pierce as many as 22 families totaling 81 persons have been reported. This picture was taken at Parcells. All in all, the pools are now being used for outside of school purposes by more than 1,600 persons for a total of over 45 hours weekly. Enrollments are now being taken by the Adult Education Center of the Grosse Pointe Public School System for the new semester. Telephone TU 5-3808 for reservations or for further information. No reservations are required for the family night swims.

Lt. Col. Richard Hinks In Exercise Big Blast

Lt. Col. Richard E. Hinks, of 1424 Bedford road, was one of the key personnel participating in Exercise Big Blast VIII last weekend, January 31 through February 2 at Fort Sheridan, near Chicago.

More than 200 active Army, National Guard and Army Reserve commanders and their staffs assembled here from six of the 13 States in the Fifth U. S. Army area are taking part in this 1958 edition of the of the annual "Big Blast" series of command post exercises initiated at Fort Sheridan in April 1954.

Lt. Col. Hinks, acting in the capacity of G5 CA MG, is helping plan the maneuvers of a modern army in withstanding attack by an "Aggressor" force equipped with the newest weapons.

On display, for the benefit of the citizen soldiers, are models of new military defense devices.

Big Blast IX, a companion exercise, will take place at Fort Riley, Kansas, February 15-16 under the direction of Major General D. H. Buchanan.

11 Cases Heard By Judge Uvick

Another crowded Justice Court docket faced Judge Joseph P. Uvick last Tuesday night, January 31. He heard 11 cases in all.

He found John McKnight Herdegen, 19296 Edgefield in Detroit, guilty of reckless driving and fined him $40.

A $25 fine was handed to Wilfred D. Jackson, of 23335 Edsel Ford court in St. Clair Shores, for reckless driving.

Nikolaus Thini, of 478 Philip in Detroit, appeared on a charge of not having his car under control. He was deemed not guilty, and his case was dismissed.

Walter Carrick, of 19704 Gaubler in St. Clair Shores, was out $10 when the Judge found him guilty of not having his car under control.

Charged with making an improper turn, resulting in an accident, Frederick Kurt Gebstadt, of 5237 Cadieux was released on a verdict of not guilty.

$5 was the fine imposed upon Joseph C. Marquette, of 353 Rivard. He was found guilty of not having his car under control.

A serviceman stationed at Selfridge Field Air Force base, Wilfred A. Bonin, forfeited $5 when found guilty of not having his car under control.

John Francis Halbeisen, of 491 Marlborough in Detroit, paid out $10 when found guilty of not having his car under control.

Ervin Larkins, of 3319 Gladwin in Detroit, had his case dismissed after being found not guilty of making an improper turn, which resulted in an accident.

A $40 fine was imposed upon Peter Jakob, of 20443 Hunt Club lane, in Harper Woods. He was charged with not having his car under control—and found guilty.

For the same charge, Frank S. Clark, of 5654 Lakeshore, in Port Huron, was fined $20.

HOCKEY PLAYER HURT

Cliff McFeely of 825 Lake Shore road, was treated at Bon Secours Hospital for a gashed forehead, received while playing hockey in the Shores Municipal Park skating rink on Sunday, January 26. He was hit by another player's hockey stick. He was taken to the hospital by Shores police. Several stitches were required to close a one and a half-inch cut.

Will the State decide who inherits your property?
If you do not make a Will, under the State law your estate may be split up in a way that actually causes hardship to the very ones you want most to protect.
You can leave your estate to the individuals you wish—provided you make a Will.
Do it now! See a lawyer and make a Will. One that carries out your wishes for your family.
Be sure, when you do, to use extreme care in naming the executor. Remember that the executor must be experienced, financially responsible, and of course, still living and a legal resident of Michigan when your Will is probated. These qualifications are always assured when The Detroit Bank and Trust Company is named executor. And you will find our fee is no more than the law allows an individual executor. Thanks for the Help

In acknowledging receipt of an award by the Michigan Press Association for general excellence in its class of Metropolitan Suburban weekly newspapers, the Grosse Pointe News would be remiss if it did not thank all of those who have played such important parts in helping with this achievement.

The comments of one of the judges, all of whom were South Dakota newspapermen, was: "I like this paper . . . I can read it and I can find it (sports, women's, features, editorials.) Good job!"

The staff of a weekly newspaper is necessarily small and we are greatly dependent upon the cooperation of a large segment of the community. Only with the help of many can we do a good job. We are most grateful for the many publicity chairmen of organizations and the individuals who send in their contributions for the news columns and allow us to attain the "outstanding coverage" which another of the judges cited.

The large group to which we are indebted of course includes the municipal employes and officials with whom we enjoy such friendly relations. We thank them for supplying so much information of interest to our readers. The schools and churches have been extremely cooperative.

Of course we are especially grateful to our thousands of loyal subscribers and to the advertisers, all of whom help pay the bills, and to the mailmen who see that the paper is delivered on time and in good condition each week.

It takes many more than just the staff members to produce a newspaper. We would like to share the honor with all of you who have been so helpful.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Grosse Pointe Little Football, I would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the assistance you gave our program during the past football season.

It may interest you to know that our program for boys, ages nine through 12, has grown from 56 boys in 1954 to 247 in 1957. Our boys reside in Grosse Pointe Park and the City of Grosse Pointe.

This year we climaxed our season by sponsoring the Auto Bowl which was a most successful event. The publicity given for all the activities relating to the Auto Bowl and the many courtesies you extended to us throughout the season reflects a genuine interest in the sound physical and moral development of boys in our community.

Yours very truly,
Hugh J. Phillips,
President
Football, Inc.
Grosse Pointe Little

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to your newspaper because there may be other residents of Grosse Pointe Farms who do not realize, as I did not, that our city is carrying out a tree pruning and trimming project which involves every tree that arches over, or is likely to arch over, the public sidewalks or the streets.

If they are interested in what the trees will look like after the trimming, it will behoove them to find out when their properties will be worked on and to be at home to discuss the situation personally with the workmen.

I like my elm to give as much shade as possible in the summer, and also to screen my second story window. I found the pruners willing to cooperate, but if I had not been at home I would have had a good deal less tree now.

Sincerely yours,
CHRISTINE R. EDWARDS

Pointe Chorus Sets Deadline

Following a record-breaking turnout for the first spring rehearsal, the director of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, Donald W. Simmons, has announced that he final date to register for the spring season will be next Tuesday, February 11.

Any person over high school age who is interested in joining the chorus may still do so between 7:30 and 8 p.m. Tuesday in the vocal music room of Parcells Junior High School, Vernier at Mack.

No auditions are required and it is not necessary to live in the Grosse Pointe area. Rehearsals are held from 8 until 10 o'clock each Tuesday until the Spring Concert is presented on Sunday afternoon, May 11. The only charge is a registration fee of $4.50.

Now in its sixth and most successful year, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus was founded in 1953 by Malcolm MacLean Johns, former conductor. Accompanist for the group is Milton Setzer, a member of the staff at Wayne State University. For any further information please telephone TU. 4-5964.

Pointe Business Notes

Hans Gehrke, Jr., president of First Federal Savings of Detroit, was elected chairman of the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program's Region VIII Committee, at a meeting in Cincinnati.

The VHMCP is a joint venture of the Federal Government and the private lending industry.

Walter E. Auch, of 539 Lakeland Avenue, Grosse Pointe, has been admitted to general partnership in Bache & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, and has been named resident partner in Detroit, it was announced early this week by Harold L. Bache, senior partner.

He entered the securities business in 1946 and joined Bache & Co. in 1955 as local associate manager.

Henry W. Peacock, Jr. of 4529 Kensington road has been named secretary-treasurer of Bennett, Graham, Green & Peacock, Inc., 1745 National Bank Building in an announcement made by the Detroit insurance firm.

Mr. Peacock was formerly superintendent of casualty insurance at the Detroit Office of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company. He also has served as part time instructor at Michigan State College in insurance courses.

At least the man who agrees with you in all things gets credit for having good judgement.

We will try to ungarble this true tale so that even itty bitty kids can understand it. Writing things one hears, doesn't always come off with a bang. Anyway . . . it seems three young married men of this locale . . . were wending their way to the Metamora countryside recently, to visit a friend . . . after having had lunch downtown. They were in a slight rush, since they had a tennis date in the Pointe at an indoor court . . . around 6 p.m.

The day was a snowy and blustery one (thought we'd throw that in!) . . . and the boys had not got too far out of the City when they were stopped by a cordon of police cars. After looking the threesome over, the gendarmes ordered them to drive to the nearest police station. The charge? "Just questioning about a small matter of a bank holdup."

At the station house they kept protesting their innocence but got no place. One of the trio announced that they resented being held there . . . not only because of their innocence in the matter . . . but they would be late for a tennis date. This really met with raised eyebrows . . . as the uniformed man glanced out the window at the raging snowfall and harumphed: "TENNIS eh???"

Time marched on as it is wont to do in a police station . . . when finally the lawyer one of the men was allowed to summon arrived on the scene.

After much legal pow-wow and showing of papers and credentials and conversation it was agreed that the three gentlemen were NOT the bandits the police were looking for. BUT before they were dismissed, the lawyer announced to the assembly in general . . . "I think you ought to know WHOM you have been holding here falsely. One of these gentlemen is a former deputy sheriff of Santa Barbara, California; another is a former intelligence officer with the Air Corps and the third was a roommate of Gov. Williams while at Princeton."

All walked out under the red faces of the police department. Nothing like looking like a bunch of crooks, we alluz sez!

Overheard at a recent rather large cocktail and supper party. One woman to another: "Do you mind telling me if you dye your hair?" The "other" replied: "Hell no. If I did . . . it wouldn't be THIS color!"

At the same gathering . . . where many canapes were passed, including those small cocktail frankfurters, One of the men to his wife: "Uh-uh . . . they must be going to serve dinner soon . . . the hot dogs are getting larger."

The Floridians are still taking a beating weather-wise. We heard from a woman who is spending the winter down there . . . she tells us she and her husband invited some friends to their un-heated house for dinner. It was so cold they had to eat on trays around the fireplace, the women wearing their fur coats the while.

After dinner . . . come highball time . . . the men drew lots to see who would leave the room to get the ice and makings . . . it was THAT cold out of foot-shot of the fireplace.

The recent automobile show brought to mind a tale we heard . . . true to be sure . . . about an auto show about five years ago in New York. Among the many people present on this particular night, was a ten-year-old boy who climbed in, out and about every car in the place, driving the floor men crazy with his questions and touching of everything. Finally the "head man" sidled up to him and said: "You beat it, kid. Get out of here . . . you're making a nuisance of yourself . . . go on . . . GIT!"

The boy wandered away looking a little hurt. Later in the evening . . . one of the salesmen came up to the officious character who chased the kid away . . . and said: "See that little boy over there? He's Tommy Rettig, the star of the Lassie movies. Boy, he's the only one in here who could afford to buy all of these cars at once, if he felt like it!" Ho-hum.

A little late for Christmas stories . . . but too good to pass by. A local woman whose good friend was leaving town for the holidays, asked if she could borrow a magnificent Christmas tree, (synthetic and a year-to-year job), to use in her own house over the holiday. Her friend okayed the deal but told her to take good care of it and please return it right after the New Year. True to her word, our heroine called the friend's house to be sure a maid would be on hand to receive the precious tree . . . then sent her teen-aged son over with it, after writing down the correct address for him.

Two weeks went by, when a frantic call came from the tree-owner's house, asking WHERE it was? They were packing away the Christmas things and had strict orders what to do with the tree. The woman who borrowed it was beside herself with nerves . . . until she finally reached her son at college and managed to drag out of him just WHERE he had delivered the thing. It seems he mis-read the address and had taken it to a house down the street from the owners. After giving him "FOR WHAT" on the phone . . . Madame hied herself over to the place where the tree was deposited, told her long story and found THESE people had packed it away with THEIR ornaments in the attic. It was finally retrieved and returned to the rightful owners.

That's a long story about a seeming nothing . . . except Pryor would like to ask a question: "How can anyone accept something like that, knowing it doesn't belong to them, and blithely store it away?" People ARE funny.

Scooter Riders Hurt in Crash

Two youths were ticketed on reckless driving charged last Friday, January 31, when they collided at the corner of Fisher road and Maumee avenue.

Thomas Evans Ford, of 2 Woodland place, was headed west on Maumee in a car when he hit Samuel Everett Bradshaw III, of 1033 Whittier. Bradshaw, driving a motor scooter, was going east on Maumee and was in the process of making a left turn onto Fisher at the time of the accident.

Bradshaw suffered a broken left ankle and head injuries, and his friend Geoffrey R. Colegrove, of 410 St. Clair, who was riding on the scooter with him injured his left arm and leg.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Do you know how your Library originated?

It was 30 years ago this month that the first bona fide Public Library, in a building of its own, was established in Grosse Pointe. Six years earlier a small library station under the direction of the Wayne County Library was located in the Village Hall of Grosse Pointe Shores, and in 1926 a similar arrangement was made in the old Neighborhood Club, then on Oak Street (Muir Road) in Grosse Pointe Farms. These were open a few hours each week.

When the new Neighborhood Club was built a year or two later, the question arose as to where the Library should be located. Mr. Dexter M. Ferry, Jr., with other civic-minded citizens decided it would be to the Library's interest to develop independently. At this time Mr. Ferry, always interested in libraries, offered to the Wayne County Library the use of a cottage at 17121 Waterloo — now the Thrift Shop — in what was then known as Grosse Pointe Village.

The remodeling necessary was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Whitcomb. This included shelving, painting, decorating and removal of partitions. The heating, lighting and janitor service were paid for by the Neighborhood Club, with the Wayne County Library paying for the furniture, books, supplies and salaries.

In all the Wayne County Library System, Grosse Pointe had the first separate branch building. As a matter of policy the County Library provided that any community which should furnish a separate building would be staffed by a professional librarian, and in February, 1928, Miss Florence Severs became librarian of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the Wayne County Library.

During that year rapid growth took place. In December 1928, a station was opened in the Goodrich Confectionery Store in Lochmoor, now Grosse Pointe Woods, and a branch, open a few hours a week, was established in the Municipal Building in Grosse Pointe Park.

Because of public demand, it was voted in 1929 that the Grosse Pointe Board of Education assume the responsibility of the Public Library. A three-year contract with Wayne County was entered into at that time, and in July, 1932, the Grosse Pointe Public Library became entirely independent of Wayne County.

In those far-away days of 1928, the Grosse Pointe High School was erected, and the elementary schools in the community numbered five: Defer, Trombly, Vernier, old Kerby and Cadieux, now the administrative building of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. A few small stores made up the meager business district. There were many unpaved streets, and for a drive in the country you could turn north off Mack Avenue, and there you were!

Despite the changes in the years that have followed, many of the names which appear during the organization of our library have a familiar ring. Dr. Samuel Brownell, now Detroit's Superintendent of Schools, was superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools at this time. Mr. Charles Parcells, for many years president of the Grosse Pointe School Board, left as a legacy a genuine interest in the Public Library which is now shown by his son, Charles, past president of the Friends of the Library, and Mrs. Lucas.

On the committee which started the first negotiations for a Grosse Pointe Library were Mr. Dexter M. Ferry, Jr., and Mr. Murray W. Sales. Mr. Ferry, donor of the beautiful Cental Library, and his son, Mr. Hawkins Ferry, have been continuous benefactors of the library. Mr. Sales' concern for the Public Library was evidenced in the gift of his home which was deeded to the Grosse Pointe Public School System for the benefit of the library.

The library has been blessed with the forethought and interest of these civic-minded citizens.

If a man can afford to sit down and wait for a golden opportunity to come along he dosen't need it.

League to Show Colored Movie

"Places West" an unusual color movie taken in the Southwest and highlighting the backstage story of a commercial western movie in production, will be shown at the War Memorial next Thursday evening, February 13, under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League.

The movie was taken by Nate Reiss of Detroit who early in his career spent eight years with Fox and Paramount as a professional cameraman.

Since going into the public address business in Detroit, Mr. Reiss has filmed one or two 16 mm films yearly as a hobby, as well as doing some free lance work for industrial film companies.

"Places West" covers parts of Arizona, Utah, Nevada and California. It was in Southern Utah that Mr. Reiss found the "Fort Laramie" movie set in operation, and spent four days from early morning until late evening filming an unusual sequence on how Western movies are made. In addition to the main film of the evening Mr. Reiss will also show a short feature "Smoky Mountains in Autumn Color" which he made last fall.

This program is open to the public without charge. For further information call the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

No Hit-or-Miss Rxs for You

By FRED M. KOPP, R. PH.

The prescription of years ago was largely a hit-or-miss affair. If one drug didn't work, the doctor tried another . . . then another. Often none of the drugs did much good. But the day of the hit-or-miss prescription is no more. Now, the doctor knows exactly what each drug can do. The first one he prescribes is usually the right one—the one drug that does a perfect job of curing. That's why . . .

Today's Prescription Is the Biggest Bargain In History.

Rubbish Bags Attract Thief

Lionel W. Parkins, of 793 St. Clair avenue, and Max Bann, of 763 St. Clair, reported to City police on Monday, January 27, that they had witnessed the theft of two of the City's burlap rubbish bags.

The petty purloiner was said to be using a red pick-up truck to abscond with his "goodies" (?). Police picked up William McKinley Davis, of 3775 St. Clair in Detroit, who answered to the thief's description.

Further investigation revealed Davis had stolen some 180 rubbish sacks. He was given a court notice for simple larceny —and the truck, not he, was held for a $50 cash bond.

Cub Scout Pack Conducts Drive

Cub Scout Pack 39 has roused enthusiasm among boys in the age group of 8-11 years, and their parents, by conducting a recruiting campaign of their own.

Information was given to interested students from Lady Star of the Sea and John R. Barnes Elementary schools, stating the name and phone number of the Recruiting Chairman, Art Walker, Elford Court, TU 2-9133.

Mr. Walker has been interviewing these boys, with their parents, in his home. He has spent much time explaining any questions about the organization and it is already probable that a new den will soon be on its way under Pack 39.

The annual Blue and Gold Dinner for Cub Scouts was held on February 4 at Christ Church. At this dinner the new charter was read. Committee members of Pack 39 are: Chairman, Wit Ballew, cubmaster, Burke Fossee; secretary, Phillip Saverino; treasurer, James Prendergast; recruiter, Art Walker; IHS representative, Ray McArthur; Webelos Den, Ray Olesko and C. R. Johnson; Program Chairman, Edward Diedo; Awards Chairman, Ralph Schwartz; Ways and Means chairman, Marty Daher; Music chairman, Florence Nolty; Chief Den Mother, Jeanne Ballew; Publicity chairman, Eda Griffin.

PTA to Learn About Library

Robert Orr, Director of Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, will lead a Public Library Presentation at the February meeting of the Defer School P.T.A., on Monday, February 10, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

This presentation uses colored slides to explain the many services available to Grosse Pointers through their public libraries.

Mr. Orr will give the introduction to the program. Miss Melitta Roemer, Chief of Central Library, will explain the functions of the Central Library. Miss Anne Studnicka, Branch Librarian, will talk about the work done in the Park Branch. Miss Jean Taylor, who is Chief of Children's Services, will tell about her work with children from all of Grosse Pointe.

"We feel that our Grosse Pointe libraries are tops, and would like our parents to know more about the many services they offer us," says Ted Wilner, President of Defer P.T.A.

A social hour in the school lunch room will follow the Library Presentation. This month the Fifth Grade room mothers, under the direction of Mrs. Oscar Guensche and Mrs. John Sherman, form the social committee.

Chairman of festivities is High Priest Walter Hammer of Pillar Chapter, 1647 Stanhope road.

University of Michigan Coeds Have Narrow Escape

Four University of Michigan coeds, two of them from the Pointe, saved themselves from possible serious injuries or death by their cool-headedness on Wednesday, January 29, when their car was hit by a train about five miles north of Saginaw.

The girls were on their way to Caberfae Ski Lodge, when the accident happened. The car, from which they escaped, was dragged about 120 feet. It was totally demolished.

In the automobile, a 1954 Ford, were: Gayle McPhail of 751 Pemberton; Christine Hatch of 640 University; Barbara Shinnick of Birmingham, Mich.; all 19 years old; and Carolyn Dudley, 20, of Pelham, N. Y. Miss Shinnick was the driver of the car.

Miss Hatch said that her driver-companion had stopped for a red flasher at the railroad track, to permit a freight train to pass.

When Miss Shinnick tried to shift the gear from third to first, it became stuck; she took her foot off the brake for a moment, and the car rolled down a slight incline and onto the track. The train was only a short distance.

Keeping cool heads, the girls got out of the vehicle and were at a safe distance when the train slammed into the car.

All the girls, except Miss McPhail, are members of the Collegiate Sorosis Sorority at the University.

The lucky young ladies returned to the campus on Sunday, February 2, to get ready for the spring semester.

NEEDLEPOINT EXHIBIT

An exhibition of Ecclesiastical Needlepoint will be on view at the Detroit Institute of Arts from February 4 through 23. It is staged in cooperation with the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan and opened with a reception held by the diocese with Bishop Richard Emrich as host.

management government, he was at one time a senior in project engineering with the etroit Edison company; was with the Dow Magnesium Chemical company and the now defunct Wills-St. Clair company, an automobile manufacturing firm. He was also sanitary and consulting engineer for the Detroit Social Agency, and played a great part in the development of camping and recreational areas throughout Michigan.

He is a charter member of the International City Managers' Association and is still active in that organization. He is also a member of the Southeastern City Managers' Association, the American Public Works Association, the Detroit Engineering Society and the National Society of Professional Engineers.

Headed State Group

In 1955, Mr. Lane was president of the State City Managers' Association; and in 1956, was its vice-president.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane plan to make their home in Glen Arbor, about 20 miles north of Traverse City, near Glen Lake.

Mr. Slone and his wife, the former Martha Jane Moore of Mansfield, O., purchased a home at 1145 Nottingham, prior to Mr. Slone's taking over his duties as new city manager.

They have three sons, Robert, Jr., 15, who enrolled in the 10th grade during the new semester at Grosse Pointe High; Charles, 11, a sixth grade student at Defer; and David, 7, a second grade pupil in the same school.

Mr. Slone is a graduate of the Bowling Green State University in Ohio, where he majored in business and municipal administration. He took post graduate work with the General Motors Institute, where he took special work in fire and police administration.

Was Air Force Captain

Mr. Slone is a four-year veteran of the United States Air Force, serving during World War II. He was honorably discharged with the rank of captain in 1946.

From 1947 to 1949, he was city manager of Flushing, Mich., leaving there to take up a similar post with Rochester, where he remained until he came to the Park.

In Rochester he modernized the municipal water works system; initiated a $200,000 street paving program; instituted an extensive sewer construction program; set up an automobile parking authority; and organized the council-manager government.

He is a member of the State City Manager's Association, serving as vice-president, when Mr. Lane was president; and is a member of the International City Manager's Association.

Mr. Slone, a native of Flint, was picked from a list of 15 applicants for the Park post. He came highly recommended.

His starting salary will be $11,500 a year. Mr. Lane was receiving a top $17,500.

Soroptimists Selling Candy

Mrs. Florence Lehman, president, Soroptimist Club of Grosse Pointe, announces that the club's candy sale will begin immediately. This will aid in financing many service projects.

During the past year the club has provided some personal needs for the patients of the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home; set up a fund for immediate emergency relief for the community; contributed food and clothing for several needy families; assisted the Detroit Club with their shirt drive; presented an audiometer to parochial and public school systems of Grosse Pointe; gave equipment to the Foundation for Exceptional Children in

History of Pointe Rotary Club Told by Dr. O'Neil

Dr. Robert K. O'Neil, executive secretary and club historian of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, recently presented a brief history of the organization since its founding in 1937, to the club's members.

Rotarian O'Neil, often referred to as "Mr. Pointe Rotary" by his fellow members, is one of the 27 charter members of the club, and is still very active in the organization's many projects. He has kept historical records of the club since its beginning.

This is his story:

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club was chartered in June 17, 1937, and received the number 4317. Today, there are more than twice this number of Rotary clubs located in 107 countries and geographical regions, as Rotary continues to open new doors through which Rotary ideals, fellowship and service may be shared.

William Noir, Fintan Henk and Rex Cranson were the local members who assisted the Hamtramck Rotary Club in organizing the Pointe club. The first organizational meeting was held on June 3, and the charter was presented at a banquet in the Neighborhood Club on July 28, during which 27 persons signed as charter members. Now, more than 20 years later, only eight of the original group is left.

The club began meeting at the Neighborhood Club on Thursdays, but in September of the first year, this was changed to Mondays, and this meeting day is still in effect.

Members were taught by the club's sponsors never to dodge an assignment, and to be willing to serve the community. One of the first acts of service, which never did receive any publicity at the time, took place during the Charter Banquet, when a visiting Rotarian's car had a flat tire in the parking lot.

Butch Harshman, who held a garage classification, went to his station, returned with equipment, and changed the tire without the visitor knowing about it.

The first community service project of the new club took place when Pointe Rotary was only two months old. A charter member died, leaving a family of several children. The club had no money for charitable work, and hardly any money in the treasury, but Fin Henk, the first president, took it upon himself to outfit and clothe this family.

This act depleted the treasury, but every member felt that he himself had been of service. It also stimulated the members in devising ways and means to raise money for community service activities.

In October of the first year, Pointe Rotary's official paper, the Rotarpointe, came out with its first issue under the editorship of Ed Allen. When he resigned a year later, Richard Maxon became the editor and retained that post until 1957.

The first fund raising project was a Country Fair held at the Neighborhood Club; the proceeds were used to purchase tickets to a preview showing of Colleen Moore's "Doll House" for the benefit of crippled children.

In November 1938, Pointe Rotary held its first annual Feather Party, under the chairmanship of Al Herrmann, which netted about $300. The Feather Parties were held each year until they were banned in 1951.

The last Feather Party brought in $8,100. In 1954, the club promoted a musical comedy, "You Can't Beat Fun," which brought in only $1,000. For the past two years, the club has been depending on the Antique Show for funds.

The club attempted three projects to raise money for a depleted Pointe Rotary General Fund. One was a Millionaire's Party held at the Lochmoor Club; the second was the raffling of a car; and the most recent, the parking lot concession at the Lochmoor Club during the annual Golf Tournament.

As funds increased from the Feather Parties, more and more community service activities were developed, with many of the projects continued for a number of years. During the war years, servicemen benefited by the club's aid, and everything was devoted to their comfort.

After three years of meeting at the Neighborhood Club, Pointe Rotary was forced to find another meeting place, due to catering difficulties. A few meetings were held at Pete Moor's Restaurant, then several at Al Green's Restaurant. These were not satisfactory, so the club moved to the Whittier Hotel in Detroit, where it met for 10 years, before moving to the War Memorial Center.

It is interesting to note how the club's Flower Fund was originated. Like many smaller clubs, a petty cash fund was started by fining members for infractions of rules, such as coming late to meetings, leaving early, or not making up a missed meeting. The fine was only 10 cents.

Although this was a common practice among Rotary Clubs, many members did not like it, so, in order to take out the stigma, each member was assessed a dime a week for a chance on the flowers. Each week since, Vincent DePetris, who became a member in November 1937, has donated a floral arrangement for that purpose.

Now, instead of the 10-cent assessment, the cost is absorbed in the price of the luncheon ticket, with the money refunded to the club each week by the Memorial Center, and deposited in the Flower Fund, from which members receive birthday flowers, floral pieces for members or their families when ill; 25th wedding anniversaries, when members establish a new business office, and upon death of a member or any one of his immediate family.

The oilcan presentation each week is an offshoot of the abolition of the fines. Something was still needed to remind guilty members of any violations, so the can was devised as a penalty.

The oilcan now being used, has traveled halfway around the world, and bears an inscription by the president of an Australian Club.

The first membership Roster was a mimeographed copy published in the Rotarpointe. The first pocket edition came off the press in 1941, and had a plain paper cover. On the club's fifth anniversary, the Roster was printed in a large edition of a "Brief History of Grosse Pointe Rotary." The next few editions were with a stapled cardboard cover.

On the tenth anniversary, the club raffled a car to raise funds for a picture roster. This edition cost nearly a $1,000, but it has been a pattern for each edition since.

The general welfare of the community is of prime concern to the members of Pointe Rotary, but the club will not endorse or recommend any candidate for public office. It is the duty of each Rotarian to accept responsibility in public affairs, and if possible, participate in public office.

Among the present membership serving in elective public office are William Connolly, Jr., mayor of the Farms; Richard Maxon, Farms councilman; and Ed Pongracz of the Board of Education. These are all busy men, but they still give their services to their community, as do a number of others in the club who serve in public office, or who are active in civic and community affairs. It is the ideals of Rotary that binds the members together in both club and outside activities.

This June, Pointe Rotary will become of age when it celebrates its 21st birthday, maturing as a community service organization. Its past accomplishments measure its manhood. Each year, the number of its projects expand; each year, its members become more civic-minded. A majority of the projects are devoted to the youth of the Pointe.

The policy of the club toward community service is to determine community needs, and then give practical demonstration in the accomplishment of these needs, with each Rotarian taking an active part.

During the first five years of the club's history, community services were few, due to limited finances, but as more funds became available, these services were expanded from individual cases to large groups of people.

Pointe Rotary has always concentrated on programs pertaining to underprivileged, crippled or ill persons.

Institutions to first benefit by the club's aid program were Bon Secours and Cottage Hospitals. Each was given a modern oxygen tent, and to each was donated a room. Bon Secours received a large financial donation for its out-patient clinic.

Underprivileged children have been recipients of Rotary aid in the form of television sets for the bedridden. In individual cases, there were orthodontic work for a high school boy and girl; special tutoring for a blind-crippled girl; summer camp for a delinquent boy; tuition and board at Wayne State University for a crippled student; monthly movies for Marine Hospital patients; and a special radio set for a Pointe boy at this hospital. Many other individual cases were taken care of by the club.

In 1940, Pointe Rotary initiated the first community Halloween party, which was such a success in cutting down Halloween pranks, that it is continued annually with the entire community participating.

The first Grosse Pointe War Memorial Committee was organized by the club, and a large financial contribution made to get this project started.

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association was also organized by the club as a vocational service project, with nine of the 12 founders being Rotarians. The present Board of Directors of this organization boasts Rotarians Dave McCarron, as a vice president; and Ed Hickey, as a director.

Another first by the club was the formation of the "Tool Library" in the Pointe Public Library, which has received national acclaim among librarians, and has been written of by the "Rotarian" and Detroit papers. The Central Library was also given the furnishings and motion picture projector for its meeting room.

Another project of considerable interest, was Pointe Rotary's complete renovation of the heating system at the Neighborhood Club. The gymnasium was never heated properly until this work was completed.

Some of the inter-club activities adopted by the club are: the practice of presenting to the Rotarian coming from the furthest distance, a souvenir item, such as a Rotary Emblem automatic pencil, ball point pen, or pocket secretary. The present gift is a Pointe Rotary Club Banner. Favorable reactions show that this display of fellowship is remembered for a long time.

A Rotary Blood Bank has been established for the benefit of members and their immediate families, to be used in case of accident or illness. Members have contributed blood or money to building up this bank. Students from Wayne State University and the University of Detroit have been paid to donate blood to build up the supply. Austin Neeb organized this project.

A portable tape-recording machine has been made available for club use at meetings and special functions; international directories, books and pamphlets from Rotary International are at the disposal of members; object of Rotary Plaques are presented to all new members, with the book "Adventure in Service."

Diamond-set lapel pins are given to members who have attained five, 10 or 15 years of perfect attendance; and for those who attend 100 consecutive meetings, there is the Century Pin. A diamond-set pin is given each year to the retiring president.

Rotary road signs, with plaques indicating meeting time and place are installed at various boundary lines in the different Pointe cities. A Rotary Banner is hung each week at the entrance to the Memorial Center.

The club's Rotarpointe has been published continuously for 20 years. Members and committees are invited to submit articles for publication. Copies are sent to Past Presidents no longer associated with the club, and to clubs requesting them.

Historian O'Neil presented the following statistics: of the 27 charter members, six are dead; two are members of other Rotary Clubs; three are still in the Pointe area; eight have moved out of the Pointe; and eight are still members of Pointe Rotary.

Since the presentation of the Charter: there are 171 former members, of whom 29 are dead; 10 have joined other Rotary Clubs; and others have transferred their businesses, or moved out of the Pointe.

The accomplishments of Pointe Rotary since its organization 20½ years ago, have been of value to the entire community, making the Pointe a better place to live in.

Mothers' Club To Hold Panel

Dr. Dana M. Cotton, Director of Admissions at Harvard University, will be one member of a four member panel discussion to be held at the Grosse Pointe High School under the auspices of the Mothers' Club, on February 18.

The title of the discussion will be "Selection of And Preparation For a College" and Lou Gordon, prominent TV newscaster, will act as moderator.

More details will appear in next week's Grosse Pointe News, particularly concerning the other three equally well-qualified panelists.

Epilepsy Center Elects Officers

Burt R. Shurly, Jr., has been elected president of the board of directors of the Michigan Epilepsy Center and Association. In accepting the position, Shurly succeeds Lucas S. Miel.

The Center, a Torch Drive agency which seeks to aid people with epilepsy and their families through a broad clinical team approach, is currently observing its tenth anniversary. According to Raymond D. Dennerll, executive director, the Michigan Epilepsy Center and Association has established one of the most extensive programs to combat epilepsy in the nation during the past 10 years.

He explained that the Center has provided a state-wide mobile diagnostic service, developed an effective community information and education program, and recently started an organized research effort to search for causes of the illness. Dennerll also said that research, associational chapter planning, and community education would be strongly emphasized during the coming year.

Other officers of the Michigan Epilepsy Center include Charles Wright, III, vice-president; and Judge Neal E. Fitzgerald, treasurer.

Garden Club Plans Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club will hold their February meeting Monday at 2:30 o'clock in the Edgemere road home of Mrs. Edward P. Hammond.

Mrs. John P. Carritte will speak to the group on "Fruits and Flowers of the Bible."

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Frank Cornell and Mrs. George Klein.

Mrs. Newberry to Visit Sons in Pennsylvania

Mrs. Phelps Newberry, of Cloverly road, will leave next Thursday for Wayne, Pa., where she will be the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, the Phelps Newberrys, Jr., and another son and daughter-in-law, the T. Handy Newberrys II.

Then she will go on to Boca Grande, Fla., to visit Mrs. Russell A. Alger at her winter home. She will also be a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, the James D. Darlings II, of Miami.

Burt C. Hagerman To Wed Lansing Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Thayler M. Reynolds, of Lansing, formerly of Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marcia Lynne, to Burt C. Hagerman.

He is the son of the Burdette Hagermans, of Muir road. The engaged pair is attending Michigan State University. No date has been set for the wedding.

Northeastern Woman's Club Meets on Feb. 10

The Northeastern Woman's Club will meet Monday, February 10, at 1:30 p.m. in the church parlors of St. Philip and St. Stephen Episcopal church, 14225 Frankfort. A book review by Mrs. LeBaron Edgecomb will follow the business meeting.

Woman's Club Group to Meet

The Discussion Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will meet next on February 12 at the Hawthorne House, 9 Kercheval. The luncheon at 12:30, will precede a talk on Japan.

Mrs. Hugh White, a club member, will be the speaker and will be introduced by Mrs. J. G. Scales. Mrs. Henry Lampman will be hostess for the day.

Reservations for the luncheon are necessary and should be made a few days in advance by phoning Mrs. Lampman, Mrs. Scales or Mrs. J. W. Harrison. All Club members are invited.

St. Matthew's Women Plan Chow Mein Dinner

The St. Matthew Women's Club will serve a chow mein luncheon February 13 at 12:30 o'clock in the church auditorium.

The $1.35 luncheon will be followed by a card party. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Ann Otto, TU. 5-5431 and Mrs. D. F. Millett, TU. 2-9879.

Exhibit Planned By Stamp Club

The Tuller Hotel, in Downtown Detroit, will be the scene of the 44th Annual Exhibition and Bourse of the Michigan Stamp Club on February 8 and 9.

Inasmuch as 1958 marks the 50th Anniversary of the first Governmentally issued Coil Stamp, the club has selected "Coil Stamps" as the theme of the show this year, and a special award will be given for the best exhibit of Coil stamps.

An attractive and appropriate cachet is being prepared for this occasion, and this cachet will be mailed with a Coil Stamp. Orders may be sent to Russell Chadwick, 6152 McMillan, Detroit 9, Michigan. Cost is ten cents each. Cachets will also be available at the Tuller Hotel at the time of the show.

The exhibit will consist of some 200 frames of stamps, entered by collectors from all over the country. There will be a good representation of all kinds of collecting activities.

Unless a man is doing all he can he is doing less than he should.

Mothers' Guild to Hold Scholarship Card Party

The Annual Benefit Scholarship Card Party sponsored by the Mothers' Guild of the Children's Orthogenic School, founded by Katherine H. O'Connor, will be held Friday, February 14, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium, 10235 W. Seven Mile road at Griggs.

All of the proceeds from the party will be used to help finance needy children who require the highly specialized type of educational program which the school provides.

Mrs. Robert Wagner, general chairman, says that table games, prizes and refreshments will be included in the program. Assisting her are:

Mrs. Abraham Nickin, co-chairman, and committee members Mesdames Hyman Abelman, Harold Adler, Edmund Buck, Daniel Coleman, Tom Gherman, Hayes Gier, Seymour Gilmore, Ernest Lenzini, Maxwell Lieberwitz, Frank Mitchell, Clifford Newcomer, Mary Reamer, Julius Rothenberg, Irving Weisenthal and Ben Wigder.

Mrs. Gale Brainard is president of the guild. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Fred Drebes, TU 1-2527.

Project to Aid Leper Hospital

The Grosse Pointe Auxiliary of Saints Peter and Paul have a big project on the horizon. On February 12 it is sponsoring the second night of Cinerama "Search For Paradise."

The proceeds from this venture will go to help build a hospital for a leper colony in Burma. At the present the priest in charge (he also has his M.D. degree) has to care for the sick and do his surgery in the great oudoors. His only roof being the sky.

Monday, February 3, after attending the monthly Mass at Sacred Heart Convent the women working so hard on this endeavor had a luncheon meeting at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Mrs. Donald Dossin and Mrs. T. A. Meade were in charge.

Among those attending were Mrs. R. E. Thibodeau, president; Mrs. Claude Greiner, Mrs. James Scripps, III, Mrs. Philip Gillis, Mrs. John Graffiusand, Mrs. Walter Auch, (joint chairman of the February 12 gala), Mrs. Arthur Seski, Mrs. Neil Patterson, Mrs. Donald Longyear, Mrs. Edward Wilberding, Mrs. Hamilton Kotcher, Mrs. Wm. Lilly who with Mrs. Grenier is handling reservations; Mrs. Philip Sloan and Mrs. Chilton Drysdale who is handling publicity.

Mrs. George Cassidy is helping with programs.

Ten Teens Club

The Ten Teens are planning their first party in the way of a Valentine Hop, to be held on Friday night, February 14, at 8 at the Neighborhood Club.

Some of the members making big plans for the affair include Kathy Conrad, Cheryl Ann Garden, and Donna Hilliebrand. Twenty-five couples are expected at the party. Similar parties will be held once a month.

Girls Basketball

What looked to be a major upset in the last few minutes of play turned into bitter disappointment for the St. Paul Flyers when they were defeated by the Ramblers 40-36 Thursday evening, January 30.

In a desperate effort to gain control of the ball and the last minute of play to tie the score—the Flyers become overanxious and consequently their hopes flew out the window. In the other game of the night the W.A.F.'s played a comfortable game leading all the way with a final score of 36-21 over the Metro Club.

Games scheduled for Thursday night, February 6, at 7:30:—Metro Club vs. St. Paul Flyers. 8:30:—Selfridge W.A.F. vs. Ramblers.

Grooming and Modeling

Leif Bergan, fashion co-ordinator and stylist will conduct a class in style, grooming, and modeling for women of the Pointe to be held at the Neighborhood Club on Monday afternoons at 1:30.

The course includes proper use of make-up, correct poise and carriage, individual styling and style co-ordination. The course will run for nine weeks. For further information call Mr. Bergan, TR. 2-3344.

Starlighters Dance Friday

The Starlighters, of Our Lady Star of the Sea parish, are sponsoring a Mardi Gras Dance for young single adults.

It will be held Friday, February 7, in the clubroom of the Church, on Fairford road. Johnny Lambert will provide the musical setting.

Ike's Pastor To Give Talk

The President's pastor, Dr. Edward L. R. Elson will give his version of "Washington Confidential—Another View," when he addresses Detroit Town Hall on Monday, Feb. 10.

The 11 a.m. lecture at Ford Auditorium will be followed by a speakers luncheon in the auditorium reception hall.

Dr. Elson is pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington. He served under Gen. Eisenhower in World War II as a chaplain in the XXI Corps, European Theatre. For courageous action Dr. Elson received the Croix de guerre and Bronze Star.

He was recently listed by a national magazine as one of America's top clergymen, a list which also included Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Among prominent clergymen attending the lecture and luncheon which follows are Dr. Frank Fitt, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Rabbi Leon Fram, Temple Israel; Rev. Willard V. Lampe, Eastminster Church; and Rev. Allan Zaun, Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Tickets are available at the auditorium the morning of the lecture or at Grinnell's.

Club Bowlers Vie for Honors

Lochmoor Club and the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will once again be vieing for top honors in their annual Inter-Club Bowling Tourney on Saturday, February 8.

Four ladies and four men's teams from each club will meet at the Maple Lanes at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to compete in the spirited contest in determining the annual winner.

At the conclusion of the afternoon matches, contestants and spectators alike will proceed to Lochmoor Club for an evening of cocktails, dinner and dancing.

In charge of the Saturday program is Mr Robert J. Grow. Among those planning to return to the club party are league president Mr. Harry A. Rife and Mrs. Rife, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Ness and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mann, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Major, Mr and Mrs. William H. Beeby, Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. John Finn, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. John Busch and Mr. and Mrs. John Marble are others who will be on hand.

DYC Begins Men's Lunches

The newly organized Detroit Yacht Club men's luncheon group will meet every Friday at noon in the ball room for luncheon, which will be followed by a talk from a noted speaker.

The club's new officers for 1958 include Dr. Leslie T. Henderson, of Renaud road, president; Arthur W. Rieck, vice president; Clarence H. Rickenback, secretary, and Edward D. Boltz, treasurer.

On the new board of directors are Howard M. Wheeler, Arthur J. Peacock, David L. Reid, Robert H. Dodd, Franklin Knock and Alfred D. Douglas.

On Feb. 15, 1890, the battleship USS Maine was sunk by an underwater explosion at Havana, Cuba. Of the 350 man crew, 260 were lost.

Stars in 'Farewell to Arms'

GPUS Alumni Elect Board

The Grosse Pointe University School Alumni Association came officially into being in December by unanimous action of representatives of the former Detroit University School, the Grosse Pointe Country Day School and GPUS.

The first decision of the new association was to plan a reunion for February 14 at the Hunt Club at 5:45 o'clock for cocktails. Dinner will be served at the school at 7:30 o'clock and all are invited to watch the basketball game scheduled for that evening with Oak Park High School.

Charles Wright III is president of the alumni association with Otis U. Walker, vice-president; Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker, secretary, and Earl I. Heenan, Jr., treasurer.

Board members are Mrs. William Gard, Susan Gillis, T. R. Hodges, Jr., Mrs. Hervey Parke and John B. Watkins.

Libri to Meet At Mrs. Kirk's

Libri Club will meet February 10 at noon in the Notre Dame avenue home of Mrs. Bruce Kirk.

Assisting Mrs. Kirk will be Mrs. Charles Andrews, Mrs. Cornelius Gabler, Mrs. Frank Hoag and Mrs. Henry Pichler.

Following luncheon Carlton B. Leonard will address the group on "Taking the Mystery Out of Wills."

Church Women To Hold Party

The Evening Group of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is having an annual dessert Valentine Day card party February 14 at 8 o'clock in the church gymnasium.

This gala is the Group's main fund raising project and enables it to carry on benevolent work.

Tickets are $1.25 and can be purchased at the church office, Tu. 5-3773 or TU. 2-6050.

Shrine Circus At Coliseum

Reserved seats are now on sale daily at the Moslem Shrine Club on Temple Avenue (Masonic Temple Building) for the famous annual Shrine Circus which opened Monday, February 3, at the State Fair Coliseum, and continues through February 16.

The Shrine Club box office hours are from 9 to 9 p. m. Phone reservations can be made by calling TEmple 1-0131. Mail orders will be filled without delay.

The Shrine Circus still ranks as the "world's greatest indoor show." Nowhere on earth are so many internationally-famous circus stars and such a large assortment of animals, wild and tame, packed into three and one-half hours of continuous entertainment. Nothing can surpass the inimitable fun and side-splitting antics of the great army of would-famous Shrine Circus clowns.

This year's show again stars the one and only Clyde Beatty, the daring wild animal trainer and features such topflight aerial, riding, acrobatic, teeterboard, balancing, high swaying pole and ladder acts as The Flying Deislers, The Wassans, Miss Rietta, The Rebertes, Les Geraldos, Zavatta Family, Franklin & Astrid, Noble Trio, The Four Kovacs, and scores of others, not to forget Victor Julian and his amazing pets.

This year's Shrine Circus schedule will include three complete performances on Saturday—at 10 a.m., 2 and 8 p.m. There will be two performances on Sunday—at 2 p. m. and 7 p m., and only one performance on Monday at 8 p. m. (no Monday matinees).

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

The ground hog saw his shadow and back he's gone to wait out six more weeks of winter with the rest of us. But if this vision of chilly days ahead bores you consider the expedition at Antartica.

A direct report from these stalwarts, now frozen in for a year, came right to the Nottingham road living room of the Edwin Krieghoffs over the week-end.

A radio ham picked up the Antartica beam and called the Krieghoffs to tell them they had a call direct from the polar regions.

The Rev. Father Henry Birkenhower, F. J., an old family friend, was phoning to give them a report. He arrived on the last boat to the Antartica station before the winter sealed the explorers in for many months. They will get no supplies or mail for a year unless it is dropped by air.

Father Birkenhower is a seismologist from John Carroll University in Cleveland and is busy setting up instruments to record the earth tremors at the pole. He talked to the Krieghoffs about his work and conditions with the expedition. They said they could hear him very clearly. Scientists at the station hope that heavy snows will not blanket their buildings which have been painted a bright orange, for easy location from the air. In this geophysical year the Krieghoffs really feel now they have an inside track on polar phenomenon.

Hideout on St. Clair River

Enjoying winter more temperately are the William Moore Joys, who moved last October to a new home above St. Clair river on the river.

Their modern u-shaped house is built on property belonging to the old Parke estate. They had visions of remodeling the original summer home, which is landmarked as a deserted ghost house by local inhabitants, but decided a glass and steel modern dream was more practical.

For several week-ends the Joys' Pointe friends have been driving up to see the house and enjoy the winter view of the river. Among the guests have been the Charles Homers, the Henry Bodmans, the James McClintocks, the Lowrey Kammers, the Robert Evans, the Patrick Adamsons and Mrs. Charles B. Warren, Jr.

Senior Skiiers

The very young find no quarrel with wintry blasts, especially if snow comes to the skiing slopes of Michigan. It was there last week-end at Snow Mountain for the senior class at Liggett School, who took off after winning the school song contest Friday.

Among the Pointe sportsminded misses going were Carolyn Benzin, Patty Cromwell, Lois Dickinson, Sandra Loynd, Carol Nagel, Gay Thompson, Patsy Langs and Birgit Dahlen.

Birgit, incidentally, is a gorgeous Scandinavian lass, who is a dead ringer for Mrs. Stein Erickson (Merrill McClintock), now living on the West Coast and one of our most famous beauties.

Tickets for Tea Dance

For Liggett ladies of past years this week-end will bring a tea dance at the Hunt Club. What with the Junior League dance and the GPUS alumni frolic the same week-end the chairmen are really putting on the pressure to insure the success of their Saturday night

Gourmets' Course At Center Popular

James W. Lee, II and Mrs. Siggan Sjunneson to Give Demonstrations at Session on Wednesday Night, February 12

The War Memorial's highly successful Gourmet Course will come to a fitting climax, Wednesday evening, February 12, when James W. Lee II will present a wild duck dinner with wine gravy, wild rice, Dione Lucas spinach and a cherries jubilee.

Mrs. Siggan Sjunneson, owner of Detroit's famous Stockholm restaurant, will present her Swedish dietitians with two Scandinavian delicacies: fish souffle with lobster sauce and Swedish apple cake with vanilla sauce.

Mr. Lee's cooking experience probably began with his desire to help guides cook on camping trips in Canada when he was a boy. It first reached the stage of sophistication, however, when with his father he visited many famous restaurants in New York, London, Paris, Berlin and elsewhere to eat special dishes about which his father knew.

For more than the past 20 years cooking has been one of his primary hobbies and he has collected a library of cookbooks which he reads as avidly as many people do novels.

Shortly after coming to Detroit to live he was asked to join an organization called the "Bibbers". This group meets several times a year to compare and taste fine wines and cooking.

When Dione Lucas was giving her cooking lessons in Detroit a few years ago, Mr. Lee attended many of them and finally invited her to his house to try some of his cooking. She came and liked it.

Mr. Lee is also an ardent hunter and as a result has developed some very definte theories about the cooking of game. His large very thin French pancakes are so popular at home that the children insist they have them every Sunday morning.

Mrs. Siggan Sjunneson is one of the city's most charming international hostesses. A native of Stockholm, Mrs. Sjunneson was educated there and on the continent. She is an accomplished linguist and an inveterate world traveler.

Originally coming to New York as an importer of Scandinavian Art Treasures she moved to Chicago to assist a friend in a Swedish restaurant and from there took over ownership of Detroit's Stockholm which introduced the first smorgasbord into Michigan 19 years ago.

As Mrs. Sjunneson travels throughout America and Europe she is constantly looking out for new items for her smorgasbord and menus. On one of her recent visits to Sweden, she brought back two talented young Swedish dietitians; Miss Doris Hammerlund, an honor graduate and teacher at the Home Economics Training College of Sweden and Miss Eleanor Ronnberg also a graduate of the college.

These young ladies dressed in native costume will give the Stockholm's preparation—demonstration to the Memorial's class.

Youth Council Dance Feb. 8

Church Association To Hear Dr. Neigh

Memorial Church Group to Hear Past President of Michigan Council of Churches at February 11 Meeting

Dr. Kenneth G. Neigh, past president of the Michigan Council of Churches, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Tuesday, February 11, at 1:30 p.m. His topic will be "Russia, the 1958 Model", and will be based on his experiences abroad this past summer.

Dr. Neigh has an impressive background of service to the Presbytery of Detroit. In an administrative reorganization in 1951, he became executive of both the Synod and the Presbytery. This administrative organization is unique in the Presbyterian Church in that it administers a large city program, and a scattered state program with the same staff.

Before that, Dr. Neigh established the Allen Park Presbyterian Church as a National Mission project in that suburban community. He was also the First Safety Commissioner of Allen Park, and in this capacity, wrote the first Police Handbook used there, and was the first Chairman of Red Cross there. Furthermore, he organized the first Community Chest Campaign in Allen Park, and organized and served as first President of Southwest Detroit Council of Social Agencies.

The members of the Women's association will have the opportunity of meeting Dr. and Mrs. Neigh at the luncheon in their honor immediately preceding the program.

It will be served at 12:30 o'clock in the church house, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Simmons and Mrs. R. C. Pulliam. Serving on their committee will be Mrs. Louis Huck, Mrs. Charles Kemp, Mrs. Frederick Hofmann, Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Theodore Osius, Mrs. Clarence Williams, and Mrs. Charles Wright.

Mrs. James Corfield and Mrs. Robert Schultz are in charge of luncheon arrangements assisted by Mrs. Edward Pipper, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. J. S. Heil, and Miss Mabel Durham.

St. Ambrose Society Plans Turkey Luncheon

On February 13 St. Ambrose's Altar Society will give a turkey luncheon and card party at noon in St. Ambrose Hall.

Mrs. Joseph Ostrowski is general chairman of the party and the donation is $1.50.

St. Columba Women To Meet on February 12

The monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Columba Episcopal Church, East Jefferson at Manistique, will be held on Wednesday, February 12.

There have been several changes in time for the service, luncheon and meetings. The Choral Communion Service will be held at 10:30 a.m.; Bible Study Class, conducted by Mrs. H. Whitehouse, and open to all who care to attend, will be held in the games room of the Parish House immediately following the service; Luncheon at 12 noon; Program at 1 p.m., followed by a brief business meeting.

Bishop Emrich's missionary at large, Mrs. Ethel Hogle, will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be "Mission Work." Mrs. Hogle and Archdeacon Parks work together in this field of the Diocese, and both have been presented with hand carved wooden crosses for use in their work. Mrs. Hogle directed all the Christmas pageants at the missions of Holy Cross (Saline), St. Johns (Clinton), and St. Mary's (Detroit) and she "kept Christmas Eve" by attending services at each of these Missions on that night.

Ellen Ramsey Guild is hostess for this luncheon and reservations may be made by calling Winifred Evans, VA 2-7973, not later than Friday, February 7.

Medical Society Ladies To Meet on February 14

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Wayne County Medical Society will be held at the Park Shelton Hotel on Friday, February 14, at 12:30 p.m. Luncheon will precede the meeting and program.

Mrs. Max Williams, past president of the Federation of Motion Picture Councils Inc., will speak on "We Go to the Movies." Mrs. Williams is now historian for the federation. She and her husband have traveled all over the world

Cecil B. Demille, Eric Johnson, and many others are personal friends of Mrs. Williams, and while in England she was invited to visit the Rank Studios.

Mrs. Francis X. Krynicki, chairman of the day, will be assisted by Mrs. John H. Ganschow.

A "Nite of Fun" in conjunction with a Spring Rally of the 3rd District of the Department of Michigan-Veterans of Foreign Wars was held recently with Fort-Gratiot Aux. No. 2254 as hostess. Around Our Town

Mrs. Klein, a very talented gal, now studying her starring lines in "Can Can" for Fine Arts and also handling the ticket chairman's job for the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Fashion Shows, March 11 and 12, will have all the Ibex members to her home for a meeting on March 14 at which the Grunyons will entertain.

She and Mr. K. were also among the guests at the bon voyage party for the John Crosses, of Stephens road, last week following the musical rides at the Hunt Club.

A group gathered in the lounge of the club to toast hot dogs and lift a glass in honor of the Crosses who are moving to Sarasota, Fla.

More localites Southbound, but only for a vacation, are the Edward F. Guenthers, of Oxford road, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Munson, of Rivard boulevard.

Leaving this Friday for a short week-end in Washington, D.C., are the Edward Chamberlains. They will be back for the Junior League dance for they are playing hosts at a pot luck supper in their Lakeland avenue home.

Mary Gorham
"Expose Facts on Losing Weight!"

Dear Mary: I try to watch my weight. My husband sure does nd he's begun to complain. I went on a "crash" diet and though I lost some he says I look worse than ever. He even made some crack about preferring a young chicken to an old hen. What's wrong with what I did? Thin - In Spots.

Miss Gorham

Dear TIS: Diet alone is not the answer, especially if it leaves you haggard in the face and neck. This sort of thing can make you flabby in places without ever reducing your hips at all. You need toning as well as slimming. It won't make you a young bird but it will keep you out of the stewing class.

Dear Mary: Why can't I lose weight with exercise if I faithfully keep at it? I like to walk and I think calisthentics are fun. Won't attendance at a gym class help, too? Active Inclined.

Dear Inclined: You'll never get that active. Remember, it takes many a mile of hiking to move even a few ounces. Exercises have to take the form of a prize fighter's training regime before results set in. Steaming, rubs and massage may be fun (at a price) but they won't budge weight. So, unless you're planning on capturing the lightweight crown in the prize ring, you'd do much better to lose it the easy way, and in the right spots, too.

Dear Mary: Why can't I get the same results that SlimZelle promises with a home reducing plan and equipment? Once I'd paid for it I'd be able to reduce myself and I would have something left when I was done.
Ambitious

Dear A: The main thing wrong with a do-it-yourself plan is the lack of discipline that most of us allow ourselves; there's not any of the personal guidance and supervision so necessary for good results. No one weighs and measures you regularly and keeps accurate records of your progress. You may have something left when you are through, that's true. More than likely it will be inches that you still haven't lost. There's an easier (and better) weigh.

I'll be happy to answer any questions at all about figure and weight control. A note or post card addressed to me, Mary Gorham in care of any SlimZelle salon will get you a personal reply by mail. We'll answer as many as we can in this column, too.

And, if you drop in at any SlimZelle salon you will find out just how easy it is to lose weight. A FREE trial treatment is yours without obligation or cost. There are no contracts to sign at SlimZelle either. Just call or stop by.

AAUW Groups Plan Meetings

On Monday, February 10, the Music Group of the AAUW will meet at 14362 Harbor Island, in Detroit. The hour is 7:45 p.m. Mrs. William D. Cohan and Mrs. James H. Graves will share the hostess spotlight.

There will be a discussion and demonstration of the Romantist period, with brief sketches of composers and their contributions to the sonata and symphonic forms of music, specifically in the 19th century. Miss Louise Rau will present current events.

The Drama group of the AAUW will be meeting soon. The date is Tuesday, February 11, the time: 8 p.m. and the place: 950 Hampton. Mrs. Anthony J. Glazko will be the evening's hostess, and chairman, Mrs. Donald Worley, will introduce a play which the group will give in the near future.

Mrs. Vincent Leonard will greet the AAUW's Creative Writing contingent in her home at 10676 Duprey next Wednesday, February 12, at 12:45 p.m. There will be the usual reading and criticism of manuscripts.

The Board Meeting will be held on Thursday, February 13, at 9:30 p.m. Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn will be the hostess, with Mrs. Kenneth Cook and Mrs. Anthony J. Glazko assisting as co-hostesses.

Rosary Sodality Plans Valentine Card Party

The Rosary Sodality is sponsoring a Valentine Card party at St. Joan of Arc Church, Mack and Overlake, for Friday, February 14, at 8 p.m. in the Church auditorium.

Refreshments and table prizes will be included for a donation of $1.25. The chairman of the event, Mrs. George Kaufman, is being assisted by members of the Rosary Sodality.

Reservations may be obtained by calling either Mrs. A. J. Parker, TU 4-2849, or Mrs. Walter Jacobs, PR 5-6286.

Marines in Korea were the first to airlift a company, then battalions of assault troops by helicopter.

Mrs. Frank Hervey Dodge

At an afternoon ceremony in Christ Church Saturday, ELAINE CAROL STEBBINS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl LaFount Stebbins, of Hidden lane, was married to Mr. Dodge. He is the son of Mrs. Frank H. Dodge, of Parkside avenue, and the late Mr. Dodge.

Goodwill Fund Helps Students

Best laid plans do not always go astray. A Junior Group of Goodwill Industries Tribute Fund, a realized dream of that organization, exists today as evidence.

The Tribute Fund has been created to provide scholarships for the handicapped workers of the Goodwill Industries. Contributions to the project are now coming in from donors wishing to remember or honor a friend on various occasions.

Mrs. George Trumbull and Mrs. Richard Wagner, acting as co-chairmen, studied the methods of many similar plans, chose the best features of each and conceived the plan finally adopted by the members of Junior Goodwill, and which is now in operation.

The original inspiration for the Fund was provided by the Goodwill employees themselves. Many of these wokers have indicated a desire to further their knowledge in their respective fields, such as machinery, wood-working, clerical and secretarial work. Some, foreign born, seek to improve themselves in English; some aspire to college degrees; others are looking for assistance in advanced rehabilitation programs.

The members and friends of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries will endeavor to meet these needs of the deserving employees through the Tribute Fund.

People who stand up for their rights sometimes tread on another fellow's toes.

Artists' Mart Slates Events

The Artist Market has announced its schedule for the balance of the year. Opening last week and continuing until February 17 is a show featuring the color lithographs of Emil Weddige.

Mr. Weddige, also a painter and professor of design at the University of Michigan, is sharing the exhibit with Murray Douglas, a teacher at Wayne University, whose ceramics are on display.

From February 19 to March 10 there will be a one man show of Murray Jones' work Mr. Jones is a distinguished abstract painter who teaches at Michigan State University and specializes in oils and collages.

From March 12 to March 31 the Graphic Show will be open. This assortment includes the woodcuts and prints of many artists.

The delightful, whimsical oils of Michael Getsoff and the outstanding pottery of Abernathy will be highlighted from April 2-21.

On April 23 through May 12 visitors may see the assorted paintings, ceramics and art works of the Wayne State University Faculty.

The final show at the Artists Market from May 14 through June 2 will be the annual, outstanding exhibit of many Michigan sculptors.

Mary Blessing Candidate For Mercy College Queen

Mary Blessing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blessing, of Lewiston road, was one of six candidates for the title, "Mardi Gras Queen of Mercy College".

The winner of the title will reign at the pre-Lenten dance to be held in Social Hall, on campus, on Friday, February 7.

The candidates were the choice of the leading clubs and sororities on campus and voting was based on the four "A's.... . . appearance, ability, aptitude and agreeableness.

Miss Blessing was the choice of Home Arts Club. She is a junior in the Home Economics Division.

Despite recent advances in social insurance, expenditures for public welfare will be substantially higher next year if unemployment continues to rise as it has in the past few morths, says a University of Michigan professor of public welfare administration.

Elaine Stebbins Marries Mr. Dodge

Bride Wears Antique Italian Silk Taffeta and Duchess Lace for Rites Saturday in Christ Church; Following Reception at Whittier Pair Leave for New York

Wearing Italian silk taffeta and duchess lace Elaine Carol Stebbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl LaFount Stebbins, of Hidden lane, was married Saturday in Christ Church to Frank Harvey Dodge.

Her gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, with a yoke of the corded lace, bracelet length sleeves and a domed bouffant skirt deepening into a chapel train.

A crown of French heirloom orange blossoms held her two tiered ivory silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with white camelias.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Robert D. Dodge, Patricia Beauregard, Janette Fitzsimons and Pat Miller. They wore waltz length gowns of emerald peau de soie, styled along princess lines with portrait necklines and a low bowed bustle in the domed skirts. Their hats were emerald crown with tiny velvet motifs and they carried white carnations tipped with green.

Robert D. Dodge was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Frank H. Dodge, of Parkside, avenue and the late Mr. Dodge. Ushering were Robert A. Stebbins, Edward Nelson, Robert Cook and Robert Allan.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the Whittier Mrs. Stebbins wore a French silk taffeta brocade in jade green and violet with a small hat of velvet leaves and violets. She pinned violets to her purse.

Mrs. Dodge was in a sheath of beige surrah with a yoke of chiffon and a hat of bronze leaves.

When the couple left for New York the bride changed into a royal blue costume accented with lipstick red, a white hat and Persian lamb jacket. The pair will live in Redford.

Mother Nature gave everyone a neck to hold his head up —but a little pride helps a lot, too.

Scout Leaders Plan Meeting

A regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe District Girl Scouts Leaders' Association will be held on Tuesday, February 11, at Parcells Junior High, at 7 p.m., according to Mrs. John Gajewski, chairman of the association.

Highlight of the meeting will be a talk by Mrs. J. Kenneth Elliott, a member of the Detroit Council of Girl Scouts, on her trip last summer to Europe with the United States Patrol of Senior Scouts to the World Camp in Great Britain.

Mrs. Elliott was selected to escort the patrol of senior scouts to the camp at Windsor Castle Guest Park, England. They landed in LaHavre, visited Paris, and spent two weeks in Holland as guests of families in Amsterdam and the Hague before sailing across the channel to England.

The World Camp was attended by 4,000 girls and leaders, 2,500 from Great Birtain and 1,500 foreign delegates, including 39 from the United States. Mrs. Elliott will relate her group's adventures in camp, sightseeing, including her presentation to Queen Elizabeth.

Also on the program will be a short business meeting, and the election of Association officers for next year. All Girl Scout leaders, co-leaders, troop committee members, district members and Senior Scouts are urged to attend and are promised an entertaining and inspiring evening.

Church Dinner To Honor Men

The members of the Archconfraternity of St. Clare of Montefalco Church have invited their husbands to a Sunday roast beef dinner with all the trimmings on February 16.

Mrs. John Galbo and Mrs. Peter Ciaravino are in charge of the meal which will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock in the church auditorium. Following dessert there will be a card party.

Working on the food committee are Mrs. E. A. Moeller, Mrs. Walter Frontera, Mrs. Earl Ploof, Mrs. John J. Cook, Jr., Mrs. Albert G. Zimmerman, and Mrs. Larry Leto.

Arranging for the card party are Mrs. Henry Toenjes, Mrs. Clayton Alandt, Mrs. Anthony Bagnasco, Mrs. E. Bahorski and Mrs. J. A. Schulte.

Mrs. Michael J. Chargot, Mrs. Gordon Nelson and Mrs. Edward Schott are in charge of tickets. Mrs. Louis Rabaut III is handling publicity with the aid of Mrs. John E. Young.

Tickets may be purchased from the chairman, Mrs. Chargot, TU 2-3323 or anyone on the committee. The charge for the evening's entertainment is $2.50.

Expect 1,400 Kids To See Fairy Tale

AAUW Sponsoring Presentation of Classic by Michigan State University Players on Saturday, Feb. 8

Advance ticket sales indicate that "Sleeping Beauty", being put on by the Michigan State University Players, will draw a capacity crowd of around 1,400 youngsters at Parcells' Junior High School Auditorium on Saturday, February 8.

The play is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe AAUW as a part of its Children's Theater Program which brings two top notch juvenile productions here annually. According to Mrs. Stewart Kerr, chairman of the children's theater committee, early ticket sales have been most encouraging, with many large groups planning to attend. There will be two performances of "Sleeping Beauty" on Saturday, one at 10:30 a.m. and one at 2 p.m.

Children attending the afternoon performance will have the opportunity of meeting Sleeping Beauty in person as well as the bad fairy, the good fairies and other characters. As it is being portrayed, the play follows the traditional Sleeping Beauty tale closely, with specially designed sets and costumes adding to the fairy like atmosphere.

Traditionally, members of the Grosse Pointe High School Y-Teens act as ushers for all AAUW children's plays. Those selected to usher this time include: Morning — Kay Kerr, Sandy Stankrauff, Sharon Georgia, Sue Ludwig, Linda Zeeb, Pat Newport, Dolores Mashinske, Jere Sprecksell, and Carol Smith. Afternoon—Nancy Ruby, Ann Cronenweth, Gay Broad, Polly Walker, Bonnie Bohn, Valerie Martin, Marcia Kasabach, and Kay Kerr.

Pointers Prominent On USC Committee

Will Join Metropolitan Members to Mark 23 Year Anniversary with Luncheon February 12 at the Masonic Temple

Twenty-three years of continuous community effort, in which scores of Pointe women have been prominent, will be observed next Wednesday by the Women's Committee of the United Community Services.

They will meet at a luncheon at the Masonic Temple which will highlight "This Is The House That You Build", the effort of the USC Women's Unit in promoting greater public understanding of all community services.

Dr. William Haber, noted professor of economics at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker.

Among the Pointers on the governing board of the USC Women's Unit are Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, Mrs. A. Stansell Bush, Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr., Mrs. Walker L. Cisler, Mrs. James Cope, Mrs. Glenn M. Coulter and Mrs. Raymond Dykema.

Others are Mrs. John N. Failing, Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, III, Mrs. Burdette E. Ford; Mrs. Angus G. Goetz, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Mrs. George T. Hall, Mrs. John W. McEachren and Mrs. John J. O'Brien.

Mrs. H. Ripley Schemm, Mrs. William C. Toast, Mrs. James K. Watkins and Mrs. Frank W. Wylie are also board members expected to attend the luncheon.

C. Henry Buhls Honor Guest

Arriving Monday for a week's stay with the C. Henry Buhls, of Vendome road, is Mrs. Louis Groch, of Wheeling, West Va.

The Buhls entertained for their visitor with a dinner party Tuesday evening and on Wednesday Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, of Provencal road, gave a supper.

This Thursday evening the dinner hosts will be Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hartzell, of Ridge road. On Friday the Yates G. Smiths, of Edgemont park, will entertain and on Saturday the William K. Muirs of Ridge road will be giving a luncheon.

On Saturday evening the Buhls will give another dinner for Mrs. Groch, who has a final date with the Thomas F. Paddocks, of Notre Dame avenue, on Sunday before she leaves town.

Pontchartrain Chapter Juniors Hold Meeting

The junior members of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, met at the home of Mrs. John H. Jacobs on Littlestone, on Thursday, January 30, for luncheon.

Among those present were: Mrs. Leonard Jensen, Mrs. Bruce K. Reynolds, Mrs. Kephart Walker, Mrs. Gilbert Hanna, Mrs. Frank Priegel and Mrs. Austin Hodge.

Luncheon Held By Methodists

The Woman's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church held a luncheon meeting at 12:45 p.m., on Tuesday, February 4, at the church in Moross road. Mrs. Benjamin Holme, wife of Dr. Holme, superintendent of the Detroit District of the Methodist Church, and also honorary president of the Woman's Society, was the honored guest and spoke briefly to the group.

The program was an educational one designed to acquaint the new, old and prospective members of the Woman's Society with the workings of their organization. It included talks by three Detroit District officers.

Mrs. Donald Schram, president of the Detroit District Woman's Society, spoke of the origin and history of the society; Mrs. J. Donald Smith, secretary of Missionary Education and Service, spoke of the dispersing of money raised by the women; and Mrs. Wallace G. Brownson, secretary of Spiritual Life, and also a member of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, spoke about spiritual values of working for the church through membership in the Woman's Society.

Mrs. John Scales presented the devotions for the meeting. Mrs. Kenneth Kimmel and Mrs. John Purcell, both members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra, entertained the guests with a violin duet, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Olson at the piano.

Rebecca was the hostess circle for the luncheon, with Mrs. F. E. Greifenstein in charge of meal preparation, Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn and Mrs. R. E. Beggs handling reservations, and Mrs. Robert Wood in charge of table decorations.

Messiah Church to Hold Father and Son Banquet

A Father and Son Banquet will take place at Messiah Lutheran Church, Kercheval and Lakewood avenue on Thursday evening, February 13 at 6:30.

Lee Smits, veteran news and radio commentator and wildlife authority, will be the speaker and a demonstration by an experienced archery team will be presented.

Donation will be $1.50 for adults, 75c for boys between 5 and 12 years, no charge for boys below 5 years of age. A delicious dinner prepared and served by members of the Ladies Aid Society is anticipated.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. C. Fritz at ED 1-3483 or Mrs. H. Burke at VA 4-8672 by February 11. All friends are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Ray Meyer of Hillcrest road is general chairman.

Undefeated Lakers Take Two More to Keep Lead

The undefeated St. Paul Lakers struggled through a 34-20 decision over powerful St. Elizabeth Tuesday, January 28, and then bounced back with a resounding 70-40 win over St. Rose Friday, January 31, on the latter's home court.

The double victory insured the Lakers of at least a tie for the East Side Second Division Parochial title which they won last year and are favored to repeat. Only St. Phillip on Friday, February 7, stands in the Lakers' way of winding up the regular season undefeated and winning the loop crown for the second consecutive year.

St. Elizabeth, currently in third place behind St. Thomas, appeared determined to untrack the Lakers high scoring machine and move into contention for a share of the crown. For the major portion of the contest St. Elizabeth succeeded in doing just that but in the long run it was the Lakers and their star guard Joe Lauer who came out on top of the surprisingly low scoring game.

St. Elizabeth elected to employ a semi stall right after the opening tipoff but these tactics backfired when Laker guards Lauer and Kolojeski repeatedly stole the ball to give the Pointe team a slim 10-5 margin at the close of the first quarter.

Abandoning its stalling tactics St. Elizabeth went on the offense and this is just what the Lakers were waiting for as they raced to a 21-13 halftime lead.

The Sabres reverted to the semistall as the third period opened and succeeded in halting the Lakers offense and pull to within four points of a tie, 23-19, as the game went into the final period.

In the final stanza the Lakers nailed a lid on the Sabres' basket and allowed only one point to drop through as they pushed their margin of victory to 34-20.

Much of the credit for the victory was given to Laker guard Joe Lauer who did an excellent job of halting the Sabres' star, Carl Stephenson, who carried a 27 point average into the game and is the leading scorer in the league. Lauer, limited Stephenson to 8 points while pumping in 16 points of his own to take individual scoring honors.

Coming back with three days rest the Lakers walloped St. Rose 70-40 despite the valiant efforts of Ray Shadick who paced the losers with 22 points for honors.

Displaying a nearly airtight defense the Lakers limited St. Rose to a mere five points in the first quarter and six points in the second period to hold a 42-11 lead at halftime.

Coach Ed Lauer cleared his bench to start the second half and let the subs roll up the final 38 points while allowing St. Rose to avoid complete humiliation with 29 points in the last two periods.

Center Gary Anderson paced the Lakers with 20 points for game honors and guard Bob Bigham caged 10 points for third place honors.

Unless St. Phillip comes up with a miracle next Friday, February 7, the Lakers will qualify for the first round of the Catholic League City Championship tournament as champions of the East Side Parochial League. The tournament is scheduled to commence February 16 and run through February 23 at the U. of D. Memorial building.

Church League Starts Season

By Judy Renke

The Grosse Pointe Church Basketball League played the first games after the revision of teams and rules on Saturday, February 1.

At a previous meeting of all coaches and officials, a new set of rules was drawn up; the teams, divisions, and schedules were also reorganized.

Games in the Senior and Junior leagues will begin promptly at 9, 10 and 11.

In the Freshmen League game times will be 9, 9:45 and 11:15.

A new rule regarding forfeits was established at the coaches' meeting. If a church does not field five men at game time they must forfeit to the opposing team.

Grosse Pointe Woods came up with the highest score of the young season when they defeated St. Paul's 54 to 36.

Having the advantage at halftime Grosse Pointe Woods exploded in the second half, scoring 17 points in the third quarter and 16 in the fourth. Boesen netted 22 points. Dependable Steve Handlos of St. Paul sunk the ball for 10 points.

Christ Church handed a 42-14 loss to St. Michael's. MacDonald looped the ball for 19 points while his opponent, Hays, dropped in three shots plus one free shot for a total of 7 points.

The score was 46 to 28 in the Grosse Pointe Congregational-Grosse Pointe Memorial game with Memorial at the short end of the score. Stanley played exceptionally well for Grosse Pointe Congregational scoring 25 points. Gutow, Memorial's top scorer, scored half of his team's 28 points.

Grosse Pointe Methodist's class "B" team skimmed by with a two point edge over St. Clare. The final score was 28 to 26. St. Clare had been leading till the end of the third quarter when Methodist spurted from behind, captured the lead and held it till the end of the contest.

Bowles of Methodist hooped five baskets for 10 points while Berschback and McKnight supported St. Clare's scoring with eight apiece.

Consistently having the advantage throughout the game, Grosse Pointe Memorial turned back St. Paul 33 to 22. The outstanding scorers of this game were Critchfield, who made 19 points for Memorial, and Van Houten, who made six for St. Paul's.

Setting back Our Lady Star of the Sea, St. James merged victorious with a 30-11 win. Swanson scored 10 points for St. James and Beaupre from Our Lady Star of the Sea was close behind with nine.

Grosse Pointe Memorial, class "C" division, defeated St. Michael's by the score of 29 to 14. Most of St. Michael's scoring was done by Von Schwonte while Grosse Pointe Memorial's backbone was Anderson. The former scored 8 and the latter scored 12.

It was a tight game, but Methodist ousted Our Lady Star of the Sea 17-15. Thompson brought home 10 points for Methodist and Stay racked up 7 for Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Grosse Pointe Congregational took the lead in the second quarter and managed to keep it the rest of the game defeating St. Paul 19 to 10.

Stanley and Mathews each scored 8 points for the winning team while Bigham had a monoply on St. Paul's scoring. He was responsible for scoring all 10 points.

Christ Church downed Grosse Pointe Woods 22 to 13. Lubeck scored 10 points for Christ Church as a result of making 5 baskets. Richardson won the honors scoring 8 points for Grosse Pointe Woods.

Augustinian Fathers Plan New Seminary

The Augustinian Fathers of the Mother of Good Counsel Province have announced plans for a new major Seminary to be constructed in the Chicago suburban area.

The Augustinian Fathers of this province serve the entire midwest. They conduct Austin Catholic High School, St. Clare of Montefalco, the Roman Catholic parish in Grosse Pointe Park, and St. Augustine Roman Catholic parish in Detroit.

It has been announced that Charles T. Fisher III has consented to be chairman of the appeal for the Detroit area. Phillip Mebus and Frank Alter, also of Grosse Pointe, have accepted associate chairmanship with Fisher. They will undertake to raise $750,000 of the estimated $1,600,000 cost of the proposed seminary.

Many Pointers Get DRYA Posts

Never one to rush into anything without first investigating all the angles and possibilities, Detroit River Yachting Association Commodore Paul Adam, of Grosse Ile Y.C., has, after two months of careful study, made known his committee chairmen appointments for 1958.

Among the numerous selections are many Grosse Pointers who are well versed in the sport of yachting and who have proven to be experts in their particular interest in the sport. All of these men devote many many hours of their spare time and usually are regarded by the competing sailors as "has beens." This is not true.

For the most part all were competing sailors in years past and today are keeping in touch with the sport by helping to officiate at races or in the "behind the scenes" planning that makes our sailing seasons successful.

Of the 29 appointments all but two are past commodores or are in the process of moving up to the commodoreship of some local club.

The appointments were released by William Patrick Connolly who is serving as secretary-treasurer for the second consecutive year. He also was recently elected rear commodore of the Grosse Pointe Sail Club.

The appointments are as follows: Fleet captain, Com. Brad Pyle, St. Clair Y. C.; Fleet measurer, Com. E. P. Robertson, Edison Boat Club; Fleet surgeon, Dr. Byron F. Knapp, M.D., Grosse Ile Y. C.; Race committee, Com. Arthur Rautenberg, Crescent Sail Y. C.; Judges, Com. T. A. (Dave) Davenport, Bayview Y. C.; Timers, Com. Kenneth Leipprandt, Edison Boat Club.

Appeals, Com. Lynn G. Stedman, Bayview Y. C.; Bowling, Com. Arthur Mitchell, Detroit Boat Club; Constitution and By Laws, Com. Buell Doelle, Detroit Boat Club; Communications, Com. Stanley Puddiford, Crescent Sail Y. C.; Finance, Com. Sidney Warner, Detroit Y. C.; Historical, Com. Ed Campbell, Gross Ile Y. C.; Insurance, Com. Philip Phillip, Bayview Y. C.; Junior Sailing Com. Lynn Stedman, Bayview Y. C.; Marks, Com. Lou McAllister, Grosse Ile Y. C.; Legislative, Bert Robb, Detroit Y. C.

Patrol, Com. Ben Cochell, Windmill Pointe Y. C.; Property, Com. Dexter Ferry, Grosse Pointe Club; Public Relations, Com. George Cossaboom, Grosse Pointe Y. C.; Trophy, Com. Roger Van Der Kar, Detroit Boat Club; Cup Races, Com. Arthur Rautenberg, Crescent Sail Y. C.; Mallory Series, Com. George Brewer, St. Clair Y. C.; Sears, Dr. Joseph Tapert, DDS, Bayview Y. C.; Charles Francis Adams series, Com. Fred Jensen, Detroit Y. C., and North American Yacht Racing Union delegate, Com. Lynn Stedman, Bayview Y. C.

The 1958 flag officers besides Com. Adams are vice commodore John Detwiler, Grosse Pointe Club, and rear commodore Arthur Rautenberg, Crescent Sail Y. C.

GM PRODUCTION REPORT

General Motors produced 324,837 passenger cars and trucks in the United States and Canada during January, as compared with 369,508 during January, 1957. Of the total vehicles produced by GM during January 290,749 were passenger cars and 34,088 were trucks.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

What has appeared to be a kinda dormant period in local yachting circles during January has been anything but. Many things have been taking place behind the scenes that will have a direct affect on the 1958 sailing season.

Commodore Paul Adam and his Detroit River Yachting Association officials have been extremely busy. Particularly with preparations for setting up a DRYA booth at the Detroit News second annual boat show which opens February 22 and runs through March 2.

Complete details have not been released as yet. The idea was projected by Harry Leduc, veteran News sports writer, who originated the News boat show last year, and the opportunity to publicize the DRYA was snapped up by the alert association officials.

Junior sailing will have a prominent spot in the display which brings to mind an important bit of news brought back from the North American Yacht Racing Union meeting held in New York the middle of January.

The DRYA requested of the NAYRU to be allowed to hold its own quarter finals for the Sears Cup competition. The request was granted and next summer Junior sailors of the member DRYA clubs will compete in a series to select the representatives for the semi-finals. In the past local Juniors were forced to compete against overwhelming odds in the Inter-Lake Yachting Association's Junior Race Week at Put In Bay on Lake Erie. The winner of that series represented both associations in the Sears finals. Under the new setup each association will hold its own quarter finals to select TWO crews who will then meet in a semi-final round robin to select the finalist to represent both organizations.

Projecting the local Sears Cup picture beyond the 1958 season the NAYRU thought is that the DRYA, ILYA, Lake Michigan and Inland Waters Yachting Association's each hold a quarter-final series to pick a representative to meet in semi-final series to determine the Great Lakes representative in the Sears Cup finals.

Lynn Stedman, Jr., past commodore of Bayview Yacht Club and local NAYRU delegate, feels this idea is good for Junior sailing as it would enable the quarter finalists to compete against the Great Lakes sailors they will be competing against in years to come. It would also give them a chance to travel and sail at other sites rather than remaining cooped up in their own backyards as has been the case in the past.

Most local sailors interested in the Juniors feel the idea is a good one and will greatly enhance the promotion of Junior competition and interest.

The Detroit Yacht Club Corinthians under the direction of President Clarence "Moon" Baker and his energetic right hand man Al Gregory, gave local sailors something they have been missing the past few years. On Tuesday, January 28, the Corinthians held the first of two sailing rules sessions which was ably handled by past Commodore Bob Drean of St. Clair Yacht Club. It takes a brave man to get up in front of a bunch of sailors and instruct them on the interpretation of the sailing rules but Bob did a magnificent job. The Corinthians invited ALL DRYA sailors but only a handful showed up. But those who did brought many guests to boost the attendance to about 100.

Apparently those who stayed away figure they know the rules perfectly—HAH, that's impossible. No one knows everything particularly the complicated racing rules. We have yet to see a meeting of the minds on these rules when two or more sailors get together. The next session is scheduled for February 27.

Junior chairmen of the local clubs will meet with DRYA Junior chairman Lynn Stedman, Jr., at Bayview Y. C. Thursday, February 6, to discuss the proposals made to the DRYA executive committee last December by the 1957 chairmen. This should prove to be very interesting. Out of it should come a more complete overall Junior sailing program in 1958. One thing we know for sure is that the DRYA WILL sponsor the Boy's and Girl's Junior championships next summer. The "unofficial" championships were staged last summer at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club by Junior chairmen Chuck Fitzsimons (DBC), Bruce Davenport (GPC), Otto Scherer, Sr. (CSYC), Al Gregory (DYC) and this reporter of Bayview.

A lively session is on tap for Friday, February 7, at St. Clair Y. C. when the DRYA will hold its annual "gripe" meeting. Ever since Commodore Frank Martin, of Edison Boat Club, inaugurated the idea several years ago the meetings have been filled with excitement. It's the only time during the year "Joe Doe" sailor can get up and speak his piece. Whether or not it does any good its hard to tell but it does give someone besides the club delegates a chance to get a "gripe" off their chest. Some good ideas have been born at these meetings and have been incorporated in the local sailing picture.

The "gripe" meeting also is the preliminary session at which the delegates request regatta dates for the coming season. Sometimes this part of the program gets a bit rowdy, especially when two clubs want the same date for their regattas. Usually the argument is settled by the DRYA Spring meeting and the question of the regatta schedule is arranged peacefully.

Ambition and ability are the ingredients that equip a man for wonder working.

Larry's Bowlers Pushing Leaders

Second place Larry's scored a clean sweep over last place Belding last Friday, January 31, despite the hot timber toppling of Fran Ferrand, who paced the losers with a 620 series.

This series was the second highest posted in the league this season and was the only consolation the Belding belters had that night.

All other matches ended with 3-1 margins for the winners. League leading Wigle edged G. P. Recreation; Woods nipped Cramer; Adam Simms nailed Cox and Baker and third place Goebel whipped Revere.

After the dust had settled Revere, Woods, Cox and Baker and Adam Simms were tied for fourth place with 10 points.

Fran Ferrand paced the two hundred-plus keglers with games of 225 and 212 and was followed by Mel Young 218, Norman Boardman 214, Harvey Reid 213, Bob Kehrer 212, Bruce Warren 208 and Doc Henderson 202.

Blue Devils Beat Rockets To Boost Ice Loop Lead

Before a throng of half a hundred bipartisan spectators in the Ice Flair arena, the Blue Devils outscrapped the Rockets, 4-3, to lift themselves into a two-game lead for the first place in the Ice Flair Winter Hockey League last Saturday, February 1.

Touted as the biggest game of the season so far, the game lived up to all expectations as the two teams skated, shot and, occasionally, brawled their way through three periods of fast hockey.

Left wing Dick Kost got the Devils off to a fast start with about six minutes gone in the opening period when he whipped Ronnie Gouin's rebound into the net from 15 feet out. The league leaders pressed furiously to stretch their lead and kept the Rockets bottled up in their own end so effectively that Devil goalie Dan Cook was not forced to make a single save.

Rockets Roar Back

In the second period the Rockets roared back behind the sharp-shooting of John Montgomery. Early in the period Montgomery knotted the score with an ankle-high drive from directly in front of the net.

Park Malcomb grabbed the lead back for the Devils minutes later when he picked up a loose puck at center ice and raced in alone to beat the Rocket netminder with a blazing shot from an angle slightly to the right. The Blue Devils fattened their margin to 3-1 with five minutes left in the period when Tom Fitzgerald lifted a backhander high into the Rocket net from just outside the crease.

Shortly before the end of the period Montgomery again proved himself to be the thorn in the Devils' side. After Dan Cook had apparently smothered a shot from near the blue line, Montgomery jabbed at the puck and shoved it into the Devil net to cut the Devils' lead to 3-2.

Play slowed somewhat in the third period as the pace began to tell but the desperate Rockets began to force the play as time ran out. The Devils fought back as defenseman Dave Cook caught the far corner of the Rocket net with a drive from 35 feet out with a little more than three minutes to go.

Bill Cook Scores

Ron Gouin was waved to the penalty box for boarding checking 55 seconds later and the Rockets powered in an attempt to score. With less than a half minute left Bill Cook sent the Rocket fans into a frenzy by pushing the puck into the net out of a goal-mouth scramble to make the score 4-3.

Time ran out before the Rockets could get another shot on the Devil net.

Other games saw the last-place Rangers surprising the Golden Eagle team with a 5-1 victory Sunday afternoon, February 2. Tom Schervish collected the Rangers' first "hat trick" of the season. Bill Keegan and Carl MacPherson also tallied to send the Eagles to their sixth defeat. Mike Duffy scored the Eagles' lone goal.

The Pointers picked up two points on the Rockets by whipping the Warrior team 6-3. The Warriors were without the services of goaltender Holmes Brown.

The winners jumped off to a 4-1 lead in the first period and were never threatened. Len Carnaghi with two, Chuck McKinnon, Tom Reno, Mike Carrier, and Don Diebel fired goals for the Pointers while Konieski collected two and VandeBeusque one for the losers.

Next week the Warriors bump into the high-flying Blue Devils. The Rangers will be shooting for their second straight at the expense of the Rockets and the Pointers tangle with the Golden Eagles.

Little League Players Called

Registration deadline for the Woods-Shores Little League baseball has been set for February 12.

All boys who competed in the league last year (1957) are asked to send in their cards before the final deadline.

This is necessary so that league officials can complete the scheduling of players.

Success builds the name—and the name brings more success.

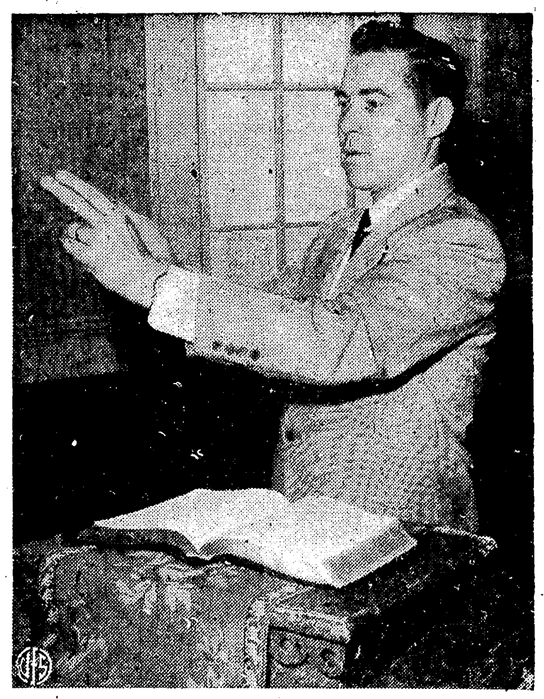
RUB-A-DUB-DUB—It's Saturday night and dolly simply has to have her bath no matter what. And if there's no room in the bathtub, the kitchen sink or even a handy washing machine will do just as well. The cute tots in charge of the clean-up operation are Julie Ockenden, 5 (left), and sister Jennifer, 3, hard at work in their Epsom, England, home.

SACK AND SHEATH — Striking an impartial note in the "sack vs. sheath" controversy for spring, 1958, Eleanora Garnet does a floral that is sack above the waist, sheath below. Vividly printed with big flowers against a backdrop of white cotton, the dress has a billowing kimono-sleeved jacket and a tightly fitted skirt. A yellow chiffon scarf that wraps the head completes the costume.

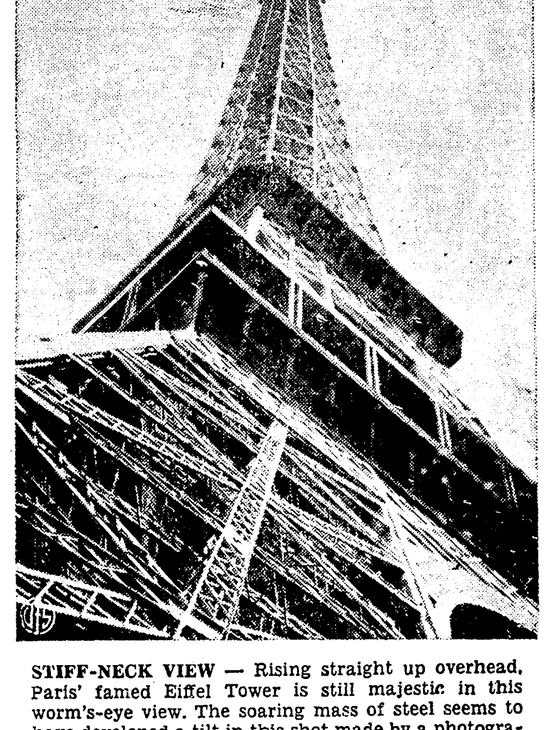


SILENT SERVICE — Delivering a soundless sermon, Loyd Williams, minister of the Western Heights Church of Christ in Dallas, communicates to his congregation of about 30 deaf persons in sign language. Williams, 26, who is deaf himself, is the only full-time deaf minister in the state of Texas. The silent service which he conducts is the only separate church service for the deaf in the city of Dallas.

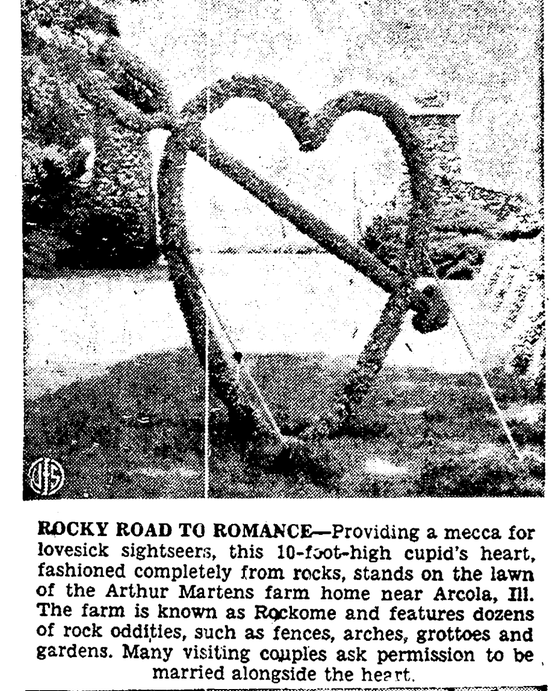
PLAYING THEIR PART — Helen Hayes (left) and songstress Martha Wright help four-year-old polio victim Regina Vaccaro of Brooklyn N. Y., blow out candles on a birthday cake celebrating the 20th anniversary of the founding of the March of Dimes. Miss Hayes is national chairman of women's activities of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and Miss Wright is Radio Chairman of the New York March of Dimes. Regina symbolizes the 100,000 polio victims now being aided by the March of Dimes.

IMPROVEMENT NOTED — It's the old versus the new in this dramatic demonstration of rice planting in a field in Kaohsiung, Formosa. Farmer at left uses the traditional plow drawn by a water buffalo, while an agricultural student (right) works with a modern power tiller. Although the water buffalo has not been replaced on the island, use of the power tiller on rice farms means a change to more efficient cultivation methods. The tiller, powered by a 2½-horsepower motor, can do the work of two water buffaloes.

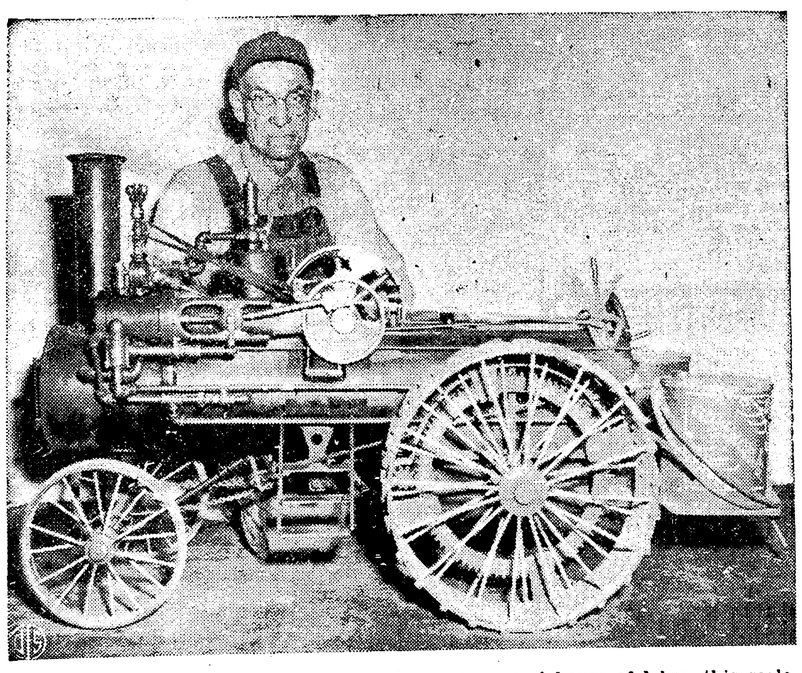
THAT EXTRA SOMETHING—Toeing the mark in extraordinary style, Frosty, a feline capable of some fancy footwork, displays its seven-toed front foot (five toes are normal) in Indianapolis, Ind. The unusual animal also has six toes on the other foot and five on each rear foot, where four are normal.



STIFF-NECK VIEW — Rising straight up overhead, Paris' famed Eiffel Tower is still majestic in this worm's-eye view. The soaring mass of steel seems to have developed a tilt in this shot made by a photographer who got as close as possible to his subject.



ROCKY ROAD TO ROMANCE—Providing a mecca for lovesick sightseers, this 10-foot-high cupid's heart, fashioned completely from rocks, stands on the lawn of the Arthur Martens farm home near Arcola, Ill. The farm is known as Rockome and features dozens of rock oddities, such as fences, arches, grottoes and gardens. Many visiting couples ask permission to be married alongside the heart.

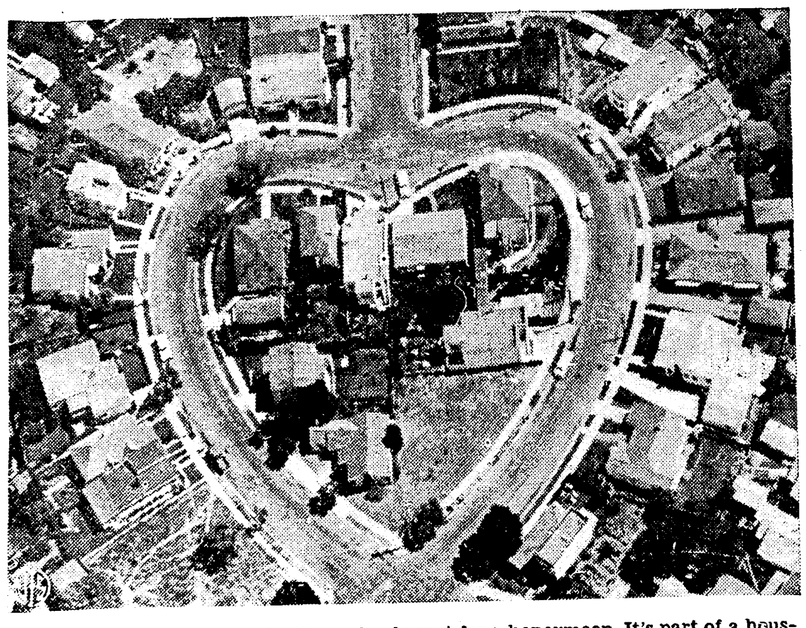


LABOR OF LOVE—The result of more than a thousand hours of labor, this scale model farm threshing machine is the proud creation of Adolph Doelling of Stone Church, Ill. Each part was handmade in his rural blacksmith shop. The model, which weighs about a thousand pounds, develops three horsepower on the flywheel and also is self-propelled. Fired by coal, it has the familiar chug-chug typical of this type of threshing engine. Doelling said he built it so today's youngsters could see one of the treasured machines their grandfathers used.

BELLHOP TO BOSS — Starting as a bellhop at the Hotel Edison in New York City 20 years ago and just named resident manager there is Joseph J. Van. It's the first time a bellhop ever jumped to such a post at the same hotel.

MEASURE FOR MEASURE—Using a tape measure to good advantage, keeper Buck Jones checks the massive bulk of Rusty, a Ceylonese elephant, at the London Zoo. Jones was taking measurements so the animal's coat could be lengthened. Although he's 16 years old, Rusty is still growing; he's put on nearly 500 pounds in the past year.

WISER THAN MOST—A lad who believes in having knowledge on his shoulder as well as at his fingertips, freshman Frank Isley turns to business in the classroom at his high school in Burlington, N. C. Taking no chances on being baffled by a question or two, the enterprising youth brought the "wise owl" along to help.



HAVE A HEART—This looks like a dandy spot for a honeymoon. It's part of a housing development at San Bruno, Calif., where the builders have gone all out to capture the hearts of prospective buyers. The street surrounding the real estate valentine is called Carlton Terrace, but the main artery leading in from the top is appropriately named Cupid Row.

SEATING PLAN — Lacking skates, these youngsters make the most of what's available as they enjoy a session on a frozen pond in Leesburg, Va. It's a brother act, as Bruce Bush, 9, supplies the power for four-year-old Douglas.

FLIGHT PLAN—The latest innovation in the way of German helicopters, this odd-looking craft, called the "Volks" 'copter, is being shown to the public for the first time. It has seats for three, including the pilot, and is equipped with a 105 horsepower motor. The 'copter, designed by Bode Franke, a former Messerschmitt engineer, has a cruising speed of about 100 miles per hour. If mass produced, each of the helicopters would sell for about $15,475.

CAKE AND I-SCREAM — Somehow unimpressed by the big day, barefoot Billy McKinnon Jr. puts a damper on the birthday festivities at his home in New Hyde Park, N. Y. The tot was supposed to be celebrating his first birthday.

Chance Muffed By Fox Keglers

The second place Fox keglers missed their chance to move into first place in the Grosse Pointers Bowling league last Friday, January 31, when they dropped two points to eighth place Stapleton.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, league-leading Beaupre dropped two points to fifth place Piche but maintained a one point 39-38 lead over the faltering "Foxes".

Jim's team moved up to third place by a half point when it tripped last place Custom One for three points while Lakepointe was taking two from Heidi who dropped to fourth.

Only one tie exists in the 12 team league and that was brought about when J. C. Music nailed Kopp's for two points to tie for sixth place.

An even dozen two hundred-plus scores were posted with Carl Larson leading the way with games of 208 and 204 which gave him a 583 series. He was followed by Roy McCarter 235, Don Piche 227, Jim O'Brien 224, John Ventmiglia 226, Ed Partyka 217, Jack Beaupre 218, Bill Stoppin 222, Douglas Carless 213, Don Michie 207 and Don Buffa 201.

GPUS Cagers Split 4 Games

The twice-beaten Grosse Pointe University School basketball team suffered its third setback of the season when it dropped a 42-34 decision to L'Anse Creuse of Mount Clemens on January 21.

The Black Knights squeezed past Lamphere three nights later 38-28 and then spanked Clintondale 61-34 on Tuesday, January 28 on their opponent's home court. Bob Wood paced GPUS with 14 points for individual honors and was followed by George Haggarty's 13 and Mike Krieg's 12.

The Knights were held to a 10-10 first quarter tie but broke the game open in the second period with a 23 point spurt to lead 33-14 at halftime and 51-20 going into the final stanza.

Flushed with this lopsided victory, GPUS tackled a rough class B customer in Harper Woods, who had lost only to unbeaten St. Paul just 10 days earlier. Harper proved to have too many guns for the Knights and walked off with a 75-44 decision.

A cold first quarter which saw GPUS score only 5 points spelled the Knights' downfall although they fought back gamely to trail by only 9 points, 32-23 at half time. Harper Woods, behind the sharpshooting of its star Bill McHale, who collected 31 points for honors, broke the game wide open in the third quarter to hold a 52-31 lead going into the final period. Runner-up scoring honors went to Harper's Bill Powell with 16. Bob Wood paced the losers with 13 and was followed by Mike Krieg with 11.

The Knights' record stands at six wins and four losses with five games left on the schedule before the Maumee Valley Invitational tourney on February 21-22.

TRAFFIC DEATHS DROP

With final figures in for December, Michigan's traffic death toll in 1957 was 227 less than in the previous year, according to the monthly statistical report of the State Police. There were 1,746 deaths in 1956 and 1,519 in 1957, a reduction of 13 percent as compared to the goal of 10 percent that had been set at the beginning of the year.

Remi DeBlaere Ice Boat King

Remi DeBlaere, noted St. Clair Shores ice boat builder and North Star Sail Club sailor, captured the Club Series held on Lake St. Clair last Sunday, February 2. DeBlaere captured three firsts in the three race series for a total of 90¾ points. Second place went to another North Star sailor Phil Gentile with 87 points and third place went to visiting Harold Kowitz with 82 points.

Sixteen of the DN yachts competed and nine of them were built by DeBlaere. Of the nine, six finished in the first six places which is a pretty good sales pitch for DeBlaere built boats.

Sailing in a 12 mile per hour southwest wind and over near perfect ice near the Surf Bar just north of Crocker road, three of the boats suffered damage when they hit a course-long crack that developed. Bill Sporer pulled his stern cleat loose, Alee Chapman cracked his runner plank and winner DeBlaere cracked his fuselage.

North Star will hold its annual Commodore's Ball on March 1 at which time the members will honor the 1957 Flag Officers Commodore Ray DeBalere, vice commodore Arnold Johnson and rear commodore Phil Gentile. The new 1958 officers will be officially installed and they are Commodore Ed Ochs, vice commodore Phil Gentile and rear commodore Henry Hodson.

Men Finding Y.M.C.A. Slym Course Helpful

Busy business and professional men in need of some sort of conditioner to offset the tension of modern living, are finding the new Slym-Trym class at Hannan Y.M.C.A. 10401 E. Jefferson at Garland, most helpful.

Each enrollee is given a physical examination to determine the program which will provide his corrective schedule. Instruction periods are available at convenient hours, and a record is kept of each individual's progress. At the completion of the program, an analysis is made and recommendations made for a continuance of the benefits gained.

Complete information may be had by phoning VA 2-7200.

Park Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will meet Monday, February 10, in the home of Mrs. Richard Larwin in Whittier road. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Mrs. Pierre Heftler, program chairman, will introduce Mrs. Frank Webb, of Birmingham, whose fascinating subject for her afternoon talk will be "Creating Pictures in the Garden."

String of Pearls Lost By Countess Tolstoi

Countess Cyril Tolstoi of 180 Lewiston asked Farms police for aid in locating a string of cultured pearls lost on Thursday, January 20.

She described the string as having a platinum clasp with a light blue, opal-shaped sapphire, surrounded by eight small diamonds.

The countess told police that she lost the pearls in the Kercheval - on - the - Hill shopping district.

The loss is valued at $300.

Lady Star of the Sea Circle Plans Luncheon

The Auxiliary members of the Ave Maria Circle, Our Lady Star of the Sea, are planning a Valentine luncheon and card party at Lochmoor for February 13 at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Arnold Saviano, TU 1-1164 and Mrs. Thomas Black, TU 1-5617 are in charge of reservations.

Austin Assured Of Title Share

By TOM LoCIERO, Senior, Austin

With two more lopsided victories over league opponents this past week, Austin Catholic clinched at least a tie for the Central Division title which it has won for the past two years.

A 78 to 33 rout of Cathedral Center on Tuesday, January 28, and a 69 to 40 shellacking of Salesian on Friday, January 21, propelled the Friars to an eight and zero league record and combined with a Notre Dame loss to St. Joseph gave them a two-game lead with only two games remaining.

The second and third stringers stole the show in the Cathedral game. With a 29 to 11 lead at halftime, Friar Coach Chuck Hollosy started a scrambled line-up made up of one regular, one second stringer and three third stringers.

The result was eye-popping as the makeshift unit rolled up 25 points in the third period for the biggest quarter output of the season for Austin. For once Hollosy seemed almost baffled, not knowing quite how to hold the score down.

Dave DeBusschere, Austin's "Mr. Wonderful" flipped in 21 points in less than half the game to lead all scorers. Friar Russ Schoenherr had 14 and Dave Sobocinski led the third quarter spurt with 10.

Salesian's gloomy scale-model gym was the setting three days later as Austin wrote the same story into the record books, only with a new victim.

Salesian's Rosights made things interesting for a little while until the Friars learned how to keep their shots from bouncing off the low ceiling of the miniature court. Led by DeBusschere Austin pulled away fast in the second half after leading only 30 to 20 at halftime.

Dave hit on 8 of 13 shots from the floor and 10 of 14 free throws for 26 points. Tom Pine connected for 10.

Pointe Theater Plans Meeting

The workshop of the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre has been busy preparing an interesting general meeting to be held on Feb. 10 at 8:15 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

At the meeting the workshop, directed by Joan Hall, 333 Washington, Grosse Pointe, will do a scene from the G.P. Community Theatre's February 28 through March 1 production of "Front Page" by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur.

To enable everyone to understand better the different phases of the theatre there will also be interviews of the production chairmen.

The average man has to use a magnifying glass to see his faults.

A huge jar of colored water in a wide window flanked by candy cases advertised the Pointe's first drugstore on the corner of Jefferson and Rivard. Many a barefoot lad was sent down the dusty road on a hot afternoon for the latest patent medicine; tired farmers drove round in their wagons for the liniment needed for backs, aching from mowing hay or packing fruit. The broad veranda frame house looked no different from its neighbors in 1900, but a large board across the slanting roof told its business.

The drugstore was operated by Dr. Joseph Belanger, who brought most of the French farmers and old settlers into the world and was there when they died. Dr. Belanger, along with his patients, had no use for medicine that didn't taste bad. Like the Indians they believed it wasn't any good if it didn't hurt. The bearded doctor made most of his calls in a horse and buggy, in accepted country doctor style, but he had one of the first cars in the suburb and one of the first telephones.

He was his own prescriptionist, with the aid of his wife, but he always had time to pass out licorice to a passing tot. Cod liver oil was a staple of the store and, no wonder drugs, then, the doctor gave analgesic balm if the hurt was mystifying.

Devoted to his patients he would rise from his bed across the street from the store on Rivard, where he boarded with Mrs. Vernier, and hitch up to drive through a snow storm to deliver a baby. That's how City Manager Norb Neff came into the world, brought by Dr. Belanger in a blizzard.

The drug store was the gathering place of the day, for beside medicine Dr. Belanger dispensed candy, sundries and good advice. On the Fourth of July, 1907, the store was decked with flags and bunting, served some lemonade and pop, for across the street in the huge vacant lot a fair had been going on for four days.

The carnival was run by St. Paul's Church and there were booths crammed with the jellies and baked goods of the parishoners, booths with ring toss and games of chance for the tots and their dads. Dr. Belanger could stand on the front stoop of his store and hail the whole population of the Pointe enjoying itself, for of course, the summer people dropped by to visit the Fair.

Dr. Belanger treated himself to a trip to Germany in the 1920's to catch up on the latest developments in medicine, which he hoped to bring back to the patients he had treated for almost half a century.

He never came back but died in the foreign land he had dreamed about visiting and the pharmacy he ran disappeared soon after to make way for a more modern building. (The house still stands in the 900 block of Neff road). It too, passed in its turn, and a bank, a branch of a city-wide chain, stands there now. But as long as Dr. Belanger's babies live, he will not be forgotten.

Doleful reports of Florida's shivery and rainy weather have kept many usual South bound travelers home this month and the resort is suffering.

A group of Pointers were reunioning in a popular emporium and discovered that they were the only occupied table in the place. The boss dropped in to say hello and ordered a round of drinks for the party. His head steward took him aside and complained. He explained plaintively that although the patrons might be his friends they were the only customers they'd had all night. "Did he have to buy them drinks!!"

Another Southern story with a local angle happened in sunnier days. Ten-year-old Gary Behling was vacationing in Clearwater with his parents, the G. W. Behlings, of Broadstone road, when he did a typical Boy Scout good deed (Gary belongs to the Webelos of Pack 85 at Monteith School). He was lazing by the pool of the motel where the Behlings were stopping when he saw a six-year-old tot paddling over his head into deep water. Good Scout Gary dived in and brought the boy to safety. His father was brimming with pride and so is his scoutmaster back home.

Robert Thibodeau was especially thrilled to be his daughter's guest at a recent Father-Daughter week-end at Maryville College of the Sacred Heart in St. Louis. He brought with him congratulations for daughter Bernadette, who was just awarded the Cardinal Spellman Scholarship. Miss Thibodeau will be off next year to study art in Florence.

Nostalgic touch to the wedding of Elaine Carol Stebbins and Frank Hervey Dodge last Saturday was the tiny bride and groom figures perched on the tiered wedding cake. These same dolls had decorated the cake of Elaine's parents, the Carl LaFount Stebbinses, when they were married.

Another pleasant family story concerns the Alfred L. Markses, now of Radnor circle. They have steadily outgrown their home there, what with four boys crowding every room. After shopping about for another house they finally gave up in despair. Happy note! They are building a dream house in the orchard of her mother's, Mrs. Standish Backus' Lakeshore road estate. In June the William Donald Gilbrides will move into the Radnor circle house.

Pointer of Interest

KEN KURTZ, OF BISHOP ROAD
—Picture by Fred Runnells

In this missile-minded era not every lad has the age old dream of Huck Finn to run away to join the circus, but Ken Kurtz has done the next best thing: built a model big top in his basement.

Ken, a senior at the High School, came by his circus interest from his father, who grew up in the days of the giant touring companies. Several years ago, when the Kurtzes lived in Cincinnati, Ken began building his model.

It's an authentic replica of the old time wagon loading circuses that used to employ hundreds of roustabouts to unload tents, animals, cages and trunks for the various acts.

Every wagon, from caliope to blacksmith tent, has been made from scratch from balsa wood or soft maple. Most of the wagons are red and carefully printed in minute lettering, Kurtz Bros.

The whole recreation room in the Kurtz basement is given over to the model, which grows every day. There is a cook tent, baggage cars, animal cages, a ring complete with ringmaster and an acrobatic act. Ballet performers perch on elephant's backs, a gaily decked band marches in parade, floodlights point up the midway. To set the mood the Kurtzes have piped authentic circus music into the room strewn with sawdust.

Model Railway

Around the giant trestle table which holds the circus is a model railway. In the heydey of the circus horse drawn wagons carried the performers, wardrobes, animals and baggage. Later the wagons were hitched to railway cars. Today the few remaining big tops are truck propelled.

Ken and his father would often awake at 4 in the morning in Cincinnati to be on hand when the circus rolled into town, to watch the unloading.

Cincinnati was one of the last towns to welcome the many small big tops which were so popular before World War I. The smell of sawdust, the excitement of the restless tigers and lions, the colorful costumes of the aerialists, the blare of the caliope, the raucous shouts of the midway barkers, all this was the breath of a different way of life, a thrilling experience to the Kurtzes.

Whole Family Circus Lovers.

Ken's two brothers, Jeff, 13 and Chris, 9, love the circus, too. The whole family will dress up as clowns and the boys put on an act for the Christ Church Fair two years ago. Mrs. K. has co-operated with the circus-crazed men in her life and decorated the powder room in her home to follow the mood.

When Ken is not building new cars to house his hobby he is preparing for his other avocation, which he hopes someday to make his life's work, collecting fossils. Quite an artist and printer, he is preparing charts with his collections for an upcoming Metropolitan Science Fair.

In Cincinnati he showed some of his prizes at the Museum of Natural History and won city-wide acclaim. One authority believed the 400 million year old sea lily fossils found by Ken and two friends was "the most important paleontological discovery ever made here."

Fossil Find In Ohio

The fossil snail shells lived in the area millions of years ago when the central part of the continent was covered with ocean. Related to sea urchins and starfishes they were marine animals that lived like plants attached to the sea bottom by their long slender stems.

When Ken graduates this June he hopes to enter Miami University and study to be an invertebrate palentologist, and eventually become a curator in a museum.

More Prestige In Science

Ken believes there is more enthusiasm for science since the sputnik scare. He believes more boys will study it in earnest. He says, "There has never been any prestige for science at school before."

Along with the circus and the fossils Ken devotes what's left of his leisure time to dramatics. Last season he was president of the Grosse Pointe Players and this year he is active in the Thespians, playing a lead in the recent production of "Our Town."

Ken is one young man who looks to a scientific future, but has plenty of time for the nostalgic past, when the circus was king of the amusement world and many a lad dreamed of glory under the big top.

On Feb. 7, 1800, the USS Essex, while en route to Batavia to escort a convoy of merchantmen to the United States, became the first American ship of war to cross the equator.

Barnes P.T.A. Holding Dance

Tomorrow night—February 7 — square dance calls will fill the air and things will sparkle at John Barnes School, when the Barnes P.T.A. sponsors its Valentine Square Dance.

Wes and Julie Rea, two of Greater Detroit's best callers, will handle the affair from the stage. They're holding a special warm-up instruction period at 8 p.m., just before the dance itself gets under way from 8:30 to 11:30.

Since this is a mixer's party, all couples are invited. If you prefer, you can form your own square ahead of time. Tickets may be had at the School, at the door, or from either Mrs. William Tate (TU 4-1809) or Mrs. Don Ranney (TU 1-0098).

Refreshments and prizes are on the program. Barnes School is at 20090 Morningside Drive.

Favorite Recipes of People in The Know

RICE DISH
Contributed by Mrs. C. F. Taylor

1 cup rice (long grain, slow cooking)
3 Tb. bacon fat
small onion, sliced fine
1 clove of garlic, mashed
1 cup celery
parsley
few dashes of savory salt
salt and pepper to taste
2 cups of consomme

Brown rice in fat. Add onion, garlic and celery. Simmer for five minutes. Pour into roaster and add consomme. Bake in oven for 1½ hours. Stir occassionally. Correct seasoning. Add parsley.

Church Guild Seats Officers

The Women's Missionary Guild of the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, Vernier road and Wedgewood drive, has installed its 1958 officers.

Officers for the year are: Mrs. Harold Blay, president; Mrs. Oscar Kolberg, vice president; Mrs. Russell Lafferty, second vice president; Mrs. Rae York, recording secretary; Mrs. Elmer Scoville, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Everett Lindbloom, treasurer; and Mrs. Cass Kasper, financial secretary.

Installation ceremonies were conducted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Paul Kepler.

The Guild met on Wednesday, February 5, at 1 p.m.

The Ruth Circle served luncheon at noon, and Mrs. John Siefert, chairman of programs, talked on the life of Dr. Ida Scudder of the Vellore Christian Medical Hospital in India.

Single Adults To Hold Dance

The young single adult group at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial meets for dancing and socializing the second Friday of every month. This year the second Friday of February conveniently falls on the 14th, which being Valentine's Day offers an unusual opportunity for a special celebration.

Dick Gale's home was the scene last Sunday evening of a large gathering to promote the Valentine Dance. Invitations were, addressed to some 250 Pointers urging them in turn to bring guests.

Ann Brown, Dorothy Krause, Joan Lingeman and Jan Gelhaar are making special decorations for the occasion and special refreshments are also being planned.

All young single business and professional men and women in the Pointes are invited and may bring a friend if they wish.

A man can be narrow-minded and still never travel the straight, and narrow path.
