HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 10

CUBAN ARMED FORCES struck down a rebel uprising and general strike attempt in Havana Wednesday. Thirty or more rebels were believed killed. Two were mowed down by a bodyguard in an apparent attempt to assassinate Education Minister Vincente Caue.

National police pressed a relentless search for rebel hideaways. They cut down some rebels in running gunfights. The rebel toll is expected to mount steadily.

Rebels seized and briefly held Cuba's biggest radio and TV stations in Havana and played records telling Cubans that rebel leader Fidel Castro's general strike was in effect. They called for the people to rise in arms against President Batista.

Friday, April 11

CUBAN REBELS tried and failed in a blaze of gunfire and bomb blasts again Thursday to stir a full-scale revolution against President Fulgencio Batista.

This time the setting was Santiago, capital of Oriente Province. Government firepower withered the new uprising just as it had done Wednesday in Havana, where 45 rebels and two policemen died.

Saturday, April 12

RECORDS OF THE Coldwater Home and Training School were seized Friday as the House of Representatives began an investigation of alleged brutality toward inmates.

Dr. E. J. Rennell, superintendent, will be summoned at 10 a.m. Thursday to explain to the House Ways and Means Committee charges involving abuse of an inmate, who died after three instances of physical injury.

Sunday, April 13

A CIRCUIT COURT jury holding the fate of former Ecorse Mayor William W. Voisine and 11 others was locked up Saturday night until 11 a.m. Sunday after it indicated it was not near a verdict.

The jury of eight women and four men had deliberated 12 hours and 45 minutes in the Ecorse gambling conspiracy trial when Judge Thomas J. Murphy ended their work for the day. The jury received the case Friday at 2 p.m.

Monday, April 14

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER Sunday prodded Congress to act swiftly on extension of unemployment insurance benefits to ease the hardships which are being suffered.

The President called for a faster pace on legislation dealing with that home-front problem after conferring by phone with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles regarding Russian terms for preparatory meetings looking to a summit conference.

Tuesday, April 15

DETROIT LOST two of its leading men Monday with the deaths of John Strider Coleman and Charles T. Fisher, Jr. Mr. Coleman, President of Burroughs Corp., died Sunday night in his sleep, of a heart attack.

Mr. Fisher, suffering from lung cancer, succumbed early Monday morning. He was president of the National Bank of Detroit.

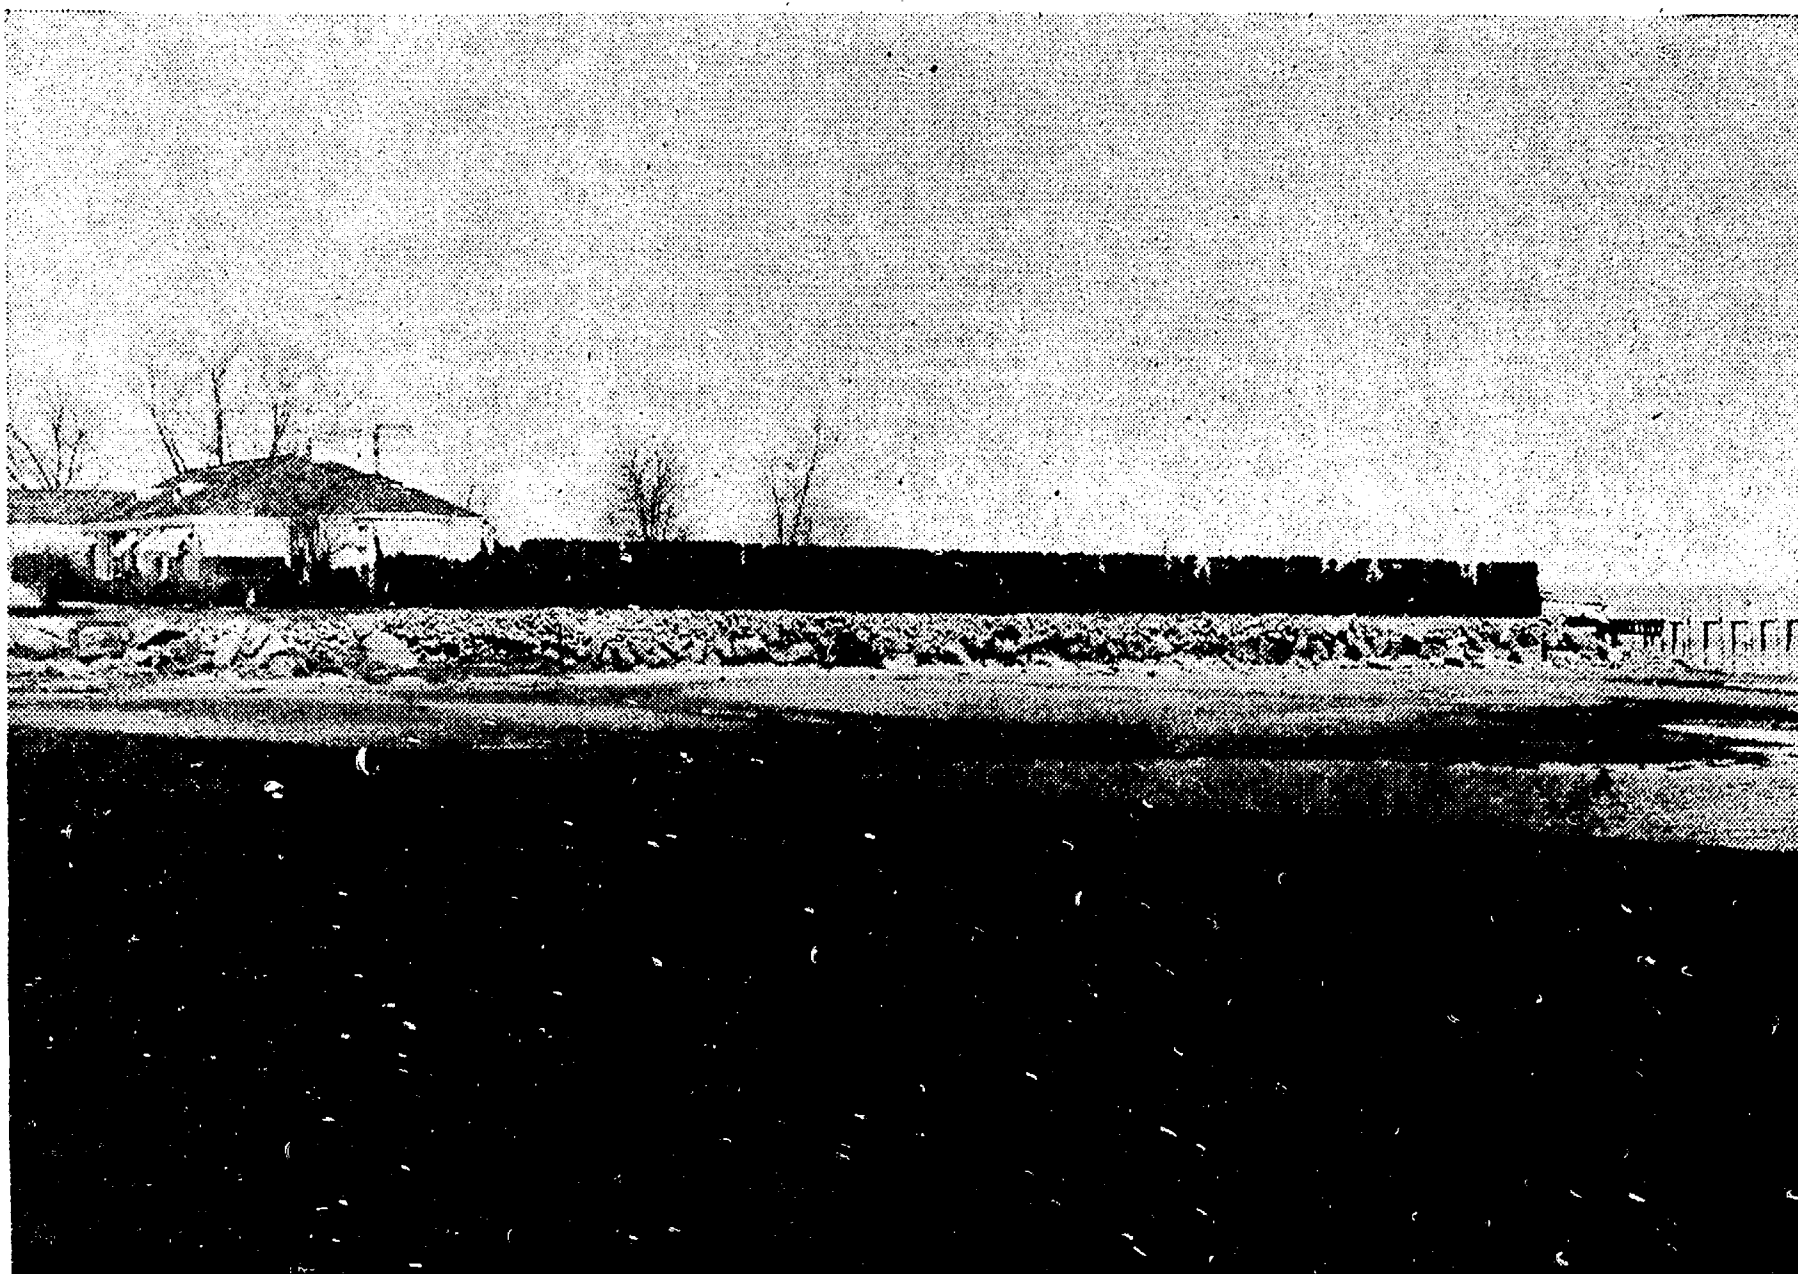

Both men were pillars, not only in the business world, but in charitable and civic circles as well.

Wednesday, April 16

The body of 8-year-old Danny Cassette, missing since Monday, was found late Tuesday afternoon in a dredged section of Ecorse Creek about a half mile south of Goddard road, and a mile and a half from his home. Discovery of the body was made by a boat crew engaged in dragging.

There was no evidence of foul play and police believe the boy may have slipped from a small embankment into the creek by accident.

A Far Cry from Threatened Floods of Other Years

The receding shoreline has left the Anthony Motshall home, just beyond the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, high and dry, with the dock extending out over exposed sandy lake bottom. No need to admonish daughter not to go near the water. The hickory limb is a sleeper hop from the old swimming hole.

Youthful Thugs Rob Boy, Take $2

Accost Youngster at Neff and Kercheval; Threaten Him After Taking Cash From His Pocket

A Village shopping spree while on his spring vacation last Monday, April 7, ended with a rather harrowing experience for a local 12-year-old boy.

He was enroute home from the City's village center when stopped at the corner of Neff and Kercheval by two "older" boys, judged to be 15 or 16-years-old. The youths had been sitting on the curb and as the boy approached they jumped up. One of the punks coarsely declared he'd lost "A couple bucks" and, in so saying he grabbed the boy's pocket and stripped it of two dollar bills. His companion threatened him to "keep his trap shut" or he'd "get it."

The hoodlums then took off, east on Kercheval, and turned north on Lakeland avenue. The incident was immediately reported to City Police and a full description was given by the boy. His assailants were about the same height, 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches. One was dressed in a plaid jacket, with a brush haircut and a noticeable scar under his left ear. His tough companion was appropriately geared in a black leather jacket, with his hair immaculately shaped in a ducktail. He also sported a poor complexion.

Police were unable to locate the pair, but investigation is currently underway to determine their identity.

Cash Hidden in Rubbish Bag Vanishes in Smoke

Money easily come by, goes just as easily, even if you do not get a chance to spend it, a six-year-old City boy discovered, after stealing a total of $105 over a two-week period.

The thefts came to light on Wednesday, April 9, when the lad stopped in the Audio-Record Shop, Kercheval and Notre Dame, to spend some money. He had two $10 bills in his possession.

The proprietor of the shop thought that this was too much spending money for a boy of that age, and notified City police.

Capt. Andrew Teetaert picked up the boy and took him to the station to question him. The youngster broke down and told the captain that

State Police and O.C.D. To Help Weather Bureau With Tornado Warnings

New Assistance Promises to Speed Up Forecasts When Danger Threatens; New Procedure To Be Effective May 1

The Michigan State Police and the Michigan Office of Civil Defense have agreed to assist the United States Weather Bureau in disseminating tornado forecasts. This new assistance will increase the speed tornado forecasts can be given to the public. The following tornado terminology will be used in dissemination of Weather Bureau releases:

TORNADO WARNING: A tornado warning is issued for a localized area when a tornado has been sighted, urging people in the path of the storm to take immediate safety precautions.

TORNADO FORECAST: A tornado forecast, on the other hand, is issued for a general area where one or more tornadoes may occur, thus alerting the public so safety precautions may be taken later if a tornado is seen, or if a warning is issued that a tornado is approaching.

Effective May 1, the Michigan State Police will disseminate TORNADO FORECASTS as follows:

1. Utilizing the State Attack Warning System Alert
- (a) Sub-warning points
- (b) Local primary receivers in each area affected.

2. Commercial radio and television stations. Radio and television stations located in the same cities as first-order Weather Bureau offices will be notified directly by the U.S. Weather Bureau. Cities in Michigan where the Michigan State Police WILL NOT contact radio and television stations are: East Lansing, Lansing, Detroit, Dearborn, Royal Oak, Flint, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Alpena, Marquette, Escanaba, and Sault Ste. Marie.

The Michigan Office of Civil Defense, upon receipt of a TORNADO FORECAST will alert the State agencies comprising the Michigan Emergency Task Force and the Grand Rapids Filter Center. The State Director of Civil Defense may also request the Ground Observer Corps to man their posts for the duration of the forecast in the affected area. The Michigan Office of Civil Defense will be operational for the duration of the forecast.

The United States Weather Bureau office will contact radio and television stations DIRECTLY when issuing TORNADO WARNING and in giving ALL CLEAR information. The Detroit Office of the United States Weather Bureau will be the only OFFICIAL source of information regarding TORNADO FORECASTS for the State of Michigan.

DETROIT SAFEST CITY With a motor vehicle fatality rate of 1.7 deaths per 10,000 registered motor vehicles, Detroit was the safest major city in the country in the first three months of 1958, according to the National Safety Council.

he had taken the money from his grandfather, who lived in the Park, and who was not aware that the money was missing.

During the course of the questioning, Capt. Teetaert thought the boy's name sounded familiar, and then recalled that a neighbor of the boy's family had reported $85 missing.

Park police talked to the boy, who admitted taking the $85 from the man, name withheld, but the name is gone, he said.

The boy said that after he took the $85, he wanted to put it someplace where it could not be touched. He found an envelope, put the cash into it, and then deposited the money

Air Cooling Charges Set In GP Park

City Follows Detroit; Rates Established for Units Not Conserving Water

The Park council on Monday, April 14, approved new rates and regulations governing non-conserving type water cooled air conditioning equipment used within the city limits.

The new rates include a demand charge applicable to all water-cooled air conditioning units used for space cooling for human comfort not of the approved water conserving type.

Non-water conserving type units have been placed into two classifications, that is, systems installed on or before May 7, 1956; and those installed after May 7, 1956.

Charges Established

The demand charge for the first group has been set as follows: For the calendar year 1958—$4.20 per ton of refrigeration; for 1959—$5.25; for 1960—$6.30; and for 1961 and thereafter, $7.90.

The demand charge for the second group, for each calendar year, has been set at $7.90 per ton of refrigeration.

The rules stipulate that the demand charge shall be in addition to the current charge for water used, subject to the Park and Water Department, including penalties for non-payment.

No Winter Charge

There will be no winter charge for users of air conditioning units of the approved water conserving type, who use water as the cooling medium without recirculation between October 1 and May 1.

The council adopted the rules and regulations regarding the non-conserving units, to conform with similar rules adopted by the Detroit Water Board Commissioners on May 7, 1956.

The Park receives all of its water supply from Detroit, and therefore, as a customer, must go along with that city in its efforts to conserve water, especially during peak summer periods.

Vandals Smash School Windows

In a wanton exhibition of vandalism, 20 windows on the east side of the Mason School on Verner were broken by rocks during the evening of April 8, according to Woods police.

The replacement cost was estimated at $60. The damage is covered by insurance.

Memorial Center Drive Plea Entices 1,315 Contributors

Campaign Goes Ahead of Results Posted at Same Time Last Year as Donors Give $19,122 Toward Goal of $37,500

The past weekend brought encouraging news to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association currently in the midst of its 1958 Annual Family Participation Campaign for funds. For the first time in the drive the amount given pushed ahead of the sum received by the same point in the 1957 Campaign.

As of the 12th day of receipts in the drive, $19,122.61 had been received from 1,315 donors as compared to $18,774.26 received from 1,220 in 1957.

While rejoicing in the pick-up of receipts, the Center wants to emphasize that the goal this year is $37,500—$2,500 more than last year's target. Costs which the Center must pay out have not gone down and the Memorial accommodated nearly 15,000 more people during the past season than ever before and commitments for the future show a continued upsurge. The largest growth has been in Center-sponsored or co-sponsored activities most of which are open to all Grosse Pointers free-of-charge.

Budget Is $135,455

Though planning to operate on a $135,455.00 budget next year, the sum asked in contributions from the citizens of the five Grosse Pointes is only a little more than a fourth of this amount.

The Center is especially pleased with the growth in number of families contributing this year. It is very gratifying to see this growth of support following the growth in usage. The Center is grateful for the continuing large contributions which come in year after year and form a vital factor in the maintenance of the Memorial. Also, however, the Center wants to achieve an increasingly broad base of support and is sincerely thankful to those giving to the extent that they are able regardless of size. No gift is too small and all are truly appreciated. The Board of Directors hopefully looks forward to achieving its $37,500.00 goal by Memorial Day.

More Donors Announced

Nab Hit-Runner Following Crash

City police caught up with a hit-and-run driver in short order last Wednesday, April 9.

William Drager, of 21610 Francis, in St. Clair Shores, was seen smashing into a parked car in front of 17864 Mack avenue on that date, and reported leaving the scene immediately.

Police located Drager at his home shortly afterwards and ticketed him for leaving the scene of an accident.

Drager had also to settle with the owner of the damaged vehicle, George A. Moon, of 5911 Radnor.

Mischakoff to be Soloist With Symphony Sunday

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra with Henri Nosco directing, will play its final concert at the Parcels School Auditorium at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 20.

The program consists of, Rossini's Overture to Opera "Semiramide," Weinberger's Polka and Fugue from "Schwanda," and Goldmark's Excerpts from "Rustic Wedding Symphony." The highlight of the afternoon will be the Beethoven D Major Violin Concerto with Mischakoff, concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, playing the solo line.

The demands for Mr. Mischakoff as the brilliant soloist and concert artist that he is, have always been far greater than time has permitted. He

Taken by Death

CHARLES T. FISHER, JR.

The country suffered the loss of a noted financier; Detroit, a leader in business, charitable and civic circles; and Grosse Pointe lost one of its most popular residents in the passing of Charles T. Fisher, Jr.

Mr. Fisher died early Monday morning in Jennings Memorial Hospital. He was 51, and had been suffering from lung cancer for several months. He discovered the malignancy last September when the death of his brother, William P., prompted him to take a physical examination. His brother also died of cancer.

Mr. Fisher went to the Memorial Center for Cancer and Allied Diseases in New York for treatment and returned to work after Christmas, optimistic about his future. He suffered a relapse last month and went to Jennings on March 30.

President of the National Bank of Detroit, his father is one of the Fisher brothers of auto body building fame. Aside from his many business directorships and responsibilities, Mr. Fisher was an outstanding figure in cultural and philanthropic activities as well.

A requiem mass is to be sung at 11 a.m. Thursday in SS Peter and Paul Catholic Church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Mr. Fisher lay in state in the family residence from noon Tuesday until the funeral services.

For further details on Mr. Fisher's many activities and the list of survivors, see the editorial page.

Violators Subject to Punishment

Beauty-conscious Group Meets in Yacht Club to Discuss Enforcement

Litter created by Grosse Pointe High School students was the chief topic of conversation when a small group of beauty-conscious citizens gathered at a luncheon session on Wednesday, April 9, in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Norbert Neff, manager of the City of Grosse Pointe, was host to the group which included Mrs. James McMillan and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, representing the Garden Club Council; Sidney DeBoer, manager of Grosse Pointe Farms; the Rev. Erville B. Maynard, rector of Christ Church; Jerry Gerich, High School principal; Donald R. Campbell, assistant principal; James Kelly and Robert Cook, student representatives of the two Hi-Y groups at the High School; Vernus Weot, park superintendent and forestry director for the City of Grosse Pointe; and Robert B. Edgar of the Grosse Pointe News.

Perennial Complaint

The subject of litter strewn by the students has long attracted the attention of those interested in keeping the Pointe clean and beautiful. Merchants along Fisher road complained about the situation and the police have issued many warnings that they will crack down on those found guilty of this untidy habit.

The Farms has received letters of complaint from residents near the school whose properties have been made unsightly when the wind scatters the litter cast off by the students.

Christ Church is particularly interested because it adjoins the school property and the students use its lawns and the building itself during the lunch period. Extremely sympathetic toward the students, the great majority of which are not guilty of littering, Rev. Maynard said the church had extended an invitation to them to use its facilities.

Cafeteria Too Small

The cafeteria at the High School is not large enough to accommodate the entire student body, even in two shifts. A number go home for lunch, but if they drive cars, those who wish to move them during the lunch hour must park them on the street. Cars in the school parking lot cannot be moved during school hours. Many students eat in these parked cars, and this is a chief source of litter.

To help stamp out this source of annoyance, it was decided at the meeting last week to give free litter bags to all these students who drive cars to school. These bags, made by the Detroit League for the Handicapped, can be hung on a dashboard knob and provide a convenient way to store litter. The Garden Council will distribute the bags.

Students Tackle Problem

Jim Kelly and Bob Johnson, the students attending the luncheon, told of the methods being employed to cut down littering. Their Hi-Y groups, sanctioned by the Student Association, are acting as detectives to spot violations of the cleanliness rules on the school grounds. Students seen littering are reported and must appear before Honor Court. They are penalized by having to spend their lunch hours in study hall. It is also planned to make violators do actual cleaning up of the refuse, under the supervision of the Hi-Y members.

The Farms and City officials both expressed a willingness to place more rubbish disposal cans along both sides of Fisher road and Grosse Pointe boulevard to make it more convenient for the students to get rid of their trash. Signs are also to be erected calling attention to the law which can extract a fine up to $100 from those found guilty of littering.

To Continue Warnings

The school officials promised continued cooperation with periodic messages over the public address system to home rooms and assemblies, and staff.

Teenagers Held for Car Theft Investigation

Seven teenage boys, all from St. Clair Shores, were arrested today by the joint forces of the St. Clair Shores Police and the St. Clair Shores Police on Sunday, April 13, and held for investigation of stealing a car.

A Farms police report revealed that a woman who resided in St. Clair Shores, called Farms police and reported that she had seen three boys getting out of a station wagon at Kercheval and Kerby. She said she had noticed the vehicle in the vicinity for several days. Police, on checking the station wagon, discovered that the motor was still hot, and that the license plate identified the car as being one that had been reported stolen from St. Clair Shores on April 1.

The woman told police that she had seen the boys leave the vehicle and walk toward the rear of a hardware store in the vicinity and board a bus at Lakeview and Kercheval. She gave their description to the authorities.

The bus driver, who made the run at the time, was contacted on his return trip. He

Egg Shell Diet Chokes Up Car

It cost John C. MacDonald, of 2080 Beaufait close to $80 to find out what was wrong with his 1955 Pontiac but the mechanics can be forgiven.

It's not every day that a car comes down with egg shells in the gas tank. The egg shells were discovered when the baffled MacDonald brought his balky car in for its third tune-up.

MacDonald suspected vandals had done it when the car was parked outside his home, although he has no known enemies, he said. His car is parked in a supervised lot during working hours.

It Was the Third Misadventure for the MacDonalds in the last two months. The first was a bowling ball stolen from their auto again outside the home, and next another family car was stripped of its hubcaps.

When Distance Is Always Tempting!

Take a new Cadillac—point its hood toward some distant destination—and watch what happens!

We would be willing to wager that day's end would find you far closer to journey's end than you could ever have imagined!

We say this because we know how wonderful the miles are when they pass beneath the wheels of a new Cadillac—and how tempting distance is when seen through the windshield of the "car of cars".

First of all, imagine how comfortable and rested you would be! The seat-cushions are soft and deep and perfectly contoured. The steering wheel is ideally positioned . . . and the car is wonderfully spacious.

Then consider how easy the car is to handle! It is incredibly agile and responsive—wonderfully smooth and level of ride. In fact, if you have selected the extra-cost option of Cadillac's air suspension, you can scarcely detect the presence of the road.

And think of your pride and contentment! The very knowledge that your motor car is so highly admired and so widely respected adds its own reward to each and every mile.

You ought to try it soon. Your dealer will be happy to explain the virtues of Fleetwood coachcrafting—and to give you the facts on every model, including the exclusive Eldorado Brougham.

Woods Willing To Test Tires

The Grosse Pointe Woods Council has "subtly" appealed to members of the Fourth Estate to let it be known that they are not adverse to the idea of accepting offers from local (or otherwise) rubber companies to test-drive sample tires.

As a matter of fact, they have been known to take advantage of similar opportunities in the past but — concerned over criticism that took place when one of their scout cars sported a set of white-walls — they turned down succeeding offers.

In computing the actual dollars saved (Ed. Note: This is Budget Time, and the figures were good and round...) by using test-tires on City vehicles, the Council decided they could well afford the criticism and the questions that might arise, for the sake of economics.

So: Attention all tire-dealers, vendors, testing personnel, or whatever: Grosse Pointe Woods will accept with pleasure any good deal

TO PRESENT CONCERT

The University of Michigan Extension Orchestra, David Mattern, conductor, will present an "Evening of Music" for friends and families of its members, the U-M Extension Service announces. The program will be held in the Main Auditorium of the Rackham Educational Memorial, Farnsworth at Woodward, at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, April 18.

Law Violators Pay in Park

William Carpenter of 7613 E. Jefferson, was found guilty on two counts of traffic violations by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, April 9.

Carpenter pled guilty to driving without an operator's license and was fined $65 for this offense. He entered a plea of not guilty to speeding on Nottingham, and was found guilty and paid an additional $40.

Loman Wall of 1088 Dowagiac, Mt. Morris, Mich., pled not guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol and was found guilty and fined $85. In addition to this, his driver's license was revoked for six months.

Joseph J. Pitroliere of 751 Manistique, Detroit, pled guilty to a charge of speeding on Jefferson and paid a fine of $10.

Stephen Saenz of 1454 Green, Detroit, paid a fine of $2 for not having a valid driver's license. He pled guilty to causing an accident at Balfour and Charlevoix for which he paid a fine and costs of $28.30.

Mary M. Ford of 103 Vendome road, pled not guilty to causing an accident at Vernor and Cadieux and was found guilty. She was given a suspended sentence on payment of $5 court costs.

Richard A. Cogan of 945 Lakepointe, pled not guilty and was found guilty of causing an accident in front of 742 Westchester and paid a fine of $15.

Travis Robbins of 5917 Linwood, Detroit, failed to appear to answer a charge of running a signal light and forfeited a bond of $5.

Honors Awarded to Pendergast

Francis L. Pendergast, district manager of Detroit's East Side Social Security Office, has been invited to Baltimore, Maryland, Tuesday, April 15, for the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance seventh annual honor awards ceremony and then to Washington on Friday, April 18 for annual honor award ceremonies of the department of health, education, and welfare in recognition of his 40 years of Government service completed on August 6, 1957.

Pendergast will be the first to receive the bureau's 40-year gold emblem and certificate of service.

A native of Massachusetts, Pendergast was educated in the public schools of that state and in Burdett College in Boston. He served with the Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. Army, during World War I. He entered Government service on August 6, 1917, with the War Department at Boston. After his military service he returned to the War Department. In 1920 he transferred to the Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, serving in Boston and Arlington, Massachusetts, and later in Toledo, Ohio. In June, 1957, he joined the Social Security Board and served successively in Toledo, Youngstown and Cleveland, Ohio, until his transfer and promotion to manager of Detroit's east side office on April 29, 1942.

In the administration of the Social Security Program on the east side, the Grosse Pointes, and Harper Woods, Mr. Pendergast has become well known to the people of this community through his daily contacts. He, together with his administrative staff, have spent countless hours with labor, management, civic officials, schools, service clubs, church groups, and numerous organizations explaining and administering the various pro-

Police Probing Golf Club Theft

Farms police are seeking a boy known only as "Larry" in the theft of a $250 set of golf clubs from the Country Club practice tee last Thursday.

The clubs, which have been recovered, belong to Mrs. William P. Bonbright, of 102 Touraine.

According to Detective Sgt. George Van Tiem, the suspect, about 17, first promised two caddies 50 cents if they would give him a ride to the vicinity of Chandler Park. He then strolled to the practice tee and picked up Mrs. Bonbright's clubs and came out to the car.

The two other boys who have not been implicated, said they did not know the clubs were stolen and, as agreed, dropped "Larry" off near Chandler Park.

Van Tiem located the two caddies next day, learned where they had taken the suspect and checked the pro shop at the Chandler Park municipal course.

There, Van Tiem said, the professional, Al Lopez, told him that he had bought a set of clubs from a boy the day previous for $45. They proved to be the stolen clubs, Mrs. Bonbright is getting her clubs back from Lopez, Van Tiem said.

Nobody matching "Larry's" description is on the Country Club caddie roster.

Van Tiem said that so far no link has been made between this theft and the recent discovery that $1,536 in golfing equipment from the Country Club since January 1.

Reckless Driver Has Busy Crash

As he surveys his reckless driving ticket, John Elmer MacDonald, 40, can console himself that he got a lot of action for it.

MacDonald, of 26204 Winton, St. Clair Shores, was driving north on Mack when his car veered over and knocked down a parking meter. With that as a starter, he then caromed off a light post and sailed into the center island where the car clipped off a small tree. When Woods police arrived MacDonald's car had come to rest over in the south-bound Mack lanes.

Red Cross Book New Best Seller

The new revised American Red Cross First Aid textbook climbed into the "best seller" class during March when the number of copies sold since it was published last September went above the 1,250,000 mark, according to George Wibby, recently appointed director of Safety Services for the Detroit chapter.

The text is primarily designed for use in classes taught by Red Cross instructors. Use of the new publication has resulted in shortening the standard Red Cross first aid course from 18 to 10 hours.

In Michigan, a total of 33,175 persons, of whom 13,739 were in the Detroit chapter area, received Red Cross first aid training and certificates during 1957. At present, there are 2,295 authorized Red Cross first aid instructors living in the state, 660 of them actively certified in the Detroit chapter, which includes all of Wayne county. Since 1952, 153,507 persons have taken first aid courses in Michigan.

Wibby expects training to increase substantially during 1958 because of the shortened course, made possible by the new textbook.

The 240-page volume incorporates all the latest first aid techniques, including the much publicized artificial respiration method for infants called mouth-to-mouth breathing. It is liberally illustrated with photographs, drawings, and colored plates. The text contains information covered both in the standard and advanced Red Cross first aid courses.

Copies of the book are available at all Red Cross chapter offices at a nominal cost to cover printing, 75¢ for paperback copies and one dollar for clothbound.

Warning Issued To Dog Owners

Notices were sent last week from Walter R. Hoyt, Chief of Police, to Grosse Pointe Farms residents reminding dog owners that new licenses are due May 1 each year and should be obtained NOW.

All dogs four months or more of age must be vaccinated annually and new licenses must be obtained for them. By ordinance they are prohibited from running at large at any time.

Licenses are obtainable at the Clerk's Office, 90 Kerby road, during regular office hours: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Wednesday until 6 p.m. and closed on Saturday.

G.M. PRODUCTION REPORT
General Motors produced 246,948 passenger cars and trucks in the United States and Canada during March, as compared with 314,767 during March, 1957, it was announced today.

Of the total vehicles produced by GM during March 212,790 were passenger cars and 34,158 were trucks.

National Capital Invaded By 72 High School Girls

By Sandy Boyle, Mary Short and Karen Schmidt

A convoy of 11 station wagons and one convertible carrying 72 ninth grade girls, left for Washington, D. C. from Grosse Pointe High School, on Wednesday, April 2.

We arrived at the Laurel Motel in Somerset, Pennsylvania, at 11 that night. The next day at 9, we left for our destination, the Capital.

Thursday morning, we reached Washington and toured the beautiful, nationally famous Washington Cathedral, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Archives Building. In between we stopped for lunch at Scholl's Cafeteria, a lovely place with terrific food. Afterward we went to the Willard Motel in the heart of the city where we spent our three nights in the Capital. That night we went to Glen Echo Amusement Park where the roller coaster, the second largest in the country, was the biggest attraction.

Friday we had a very busy day. In the morning we went through breakfast (like lightning); Bureau of Engraving and Printing; Jefferson Memorial; Mount Vernon, the lovely home of our first president; the Lincoln Memorial, then lunch.

In the afternoon we toured the Marine Memorial, "The Raising of the Flag at Iwo Jima"; Arlington National Cemetery, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, where we witnessed the "changing of the guards." Next, we visited the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater and the Lee Mansion, both located in Arlington. From there we went to the Washington Monument where some hardy souls ventured to the top (50 flights) and down — on foot! That's some 19 hundred steps. After that we went to dinner and roller skating. Very few of us looked like professional skaters.

The Capitol, Supreme Court, Library of Congress, White House and shopping were all on our morning agenda for Saturday. After lunch the Smithsonian Institute was our destination. Here the Medical Museum was the focal point of interest. A two hour, so-called "rest," dinner, and the movies was our plan of action then.

Easter Sunday woke with rain in its eyes. However, everyone donned their best clothes, some chemises among them, and headed for breakfast, then the Naval Academy at Annapolis to attend Easter Services at the Midshipmen's Chapel. Unfortunately the midshipmen were on leave but Annapolis was beautiful. Returning to Washington, we had lunch and then finished our tour of the Smithsonian Institute. After the tour we left directly for Somerset, Pennsylvania. On the way we had a camp-out dinner, complete with a fire, hot dogs, and marshmallows. We spent the night at the Laurel Motel again and Monday morning we started for Grosse Pointe. We drove all day Monday with expedient stops for food and arrived at Lakepointe around 6:00 where we got our bags and separated into the correct districts. We were driven up to our homes and left tired, a little sad, but happy to be home.

We'd like to thank Chet Sampson for making the trip possible. Also we extend our thanks for making the trip so much fun to the chaperone, Mary Jane Sherwood, and the drivers, fraternity men from Wayne State University.

Drivers Ticketed After Crashes

Two cars were ticketed for an accident on Mack near being out of control following Allard last Wednesday.

The drivers both unhurt, were David F. Pardon, of 25410 Harper, St. Clair Shores, and Emilia F. Bem, of 1502 Dorthen, in the Woods.

School Gymnasiums Serve Many Purposes

The gymnasiums in the Pointe's public school buildings are used for many things other than settings for athletic contests or calisthenic classes.

This group of well-behaved pooches were pupils in an owner-trainer dog obedience course at the High School.

More than 2600 persons are regularly using the Grosse Pointe Public School gymnasiums for community activities every week. Bert Wicking, President of the Board of Education, announced.

The use of the public school gymnasiums by community groups has been encouraged for a long time, Wicking said. During the last five years, including repeats, over 400,000 persons have used the gyms for other than direct school activities. There are seventeen gyms including three at the high school. All are employed in the community use program.

People using the gyms are in a wide variety of groups, including 15 churches, 25 Boy and Girl Scout groups, private and parochial schools, square dance clubs, the Department of Recreation of Grosse Pointe Woods, and many others.

In addition there are many special community functions in the gymnasiums including the New Years Eve and Halloween parties for all Grosse Pointe boys and girls, the teachers' conferences in the fall, fund raising fairs, and all kinds of PTA meetings.

Several of the private schools in the community make good use of the gymnasiums in their physical education programs. From 60 to 70 girls attending St. Clare de Montefalco use the Pierce gymnasium twice a week. Girls from St. Joan of Arc play basketball in the Parcels gym weekly and St. Paul's varsity basketball team uses the auditorium-gymnasium for all of its home games.

Another good illustration of this is the tournament for junior badminton players which will be played in the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium-gymnasium on April 18-20.

The Grosse Pointe Badminton Club will host the tournament. This group, formed 27 years ago and now composed of almost 70 members, meets regularly in a high school gym to practice and to play matches. This is the second year that a junior tourney has been held in Grosse Pointe. Two years ago the National Tournament for Junior Players was held at the high school.

The Grosse Pointe Church Basketball League, composed of 10 churches in the community, uses the public school facilities from November to April each year. About 250 boys between the ages of ten and fourteen make up three divisions of this league. At the conclusion of this year's season, thanks to the Grosse Pointe will take over the gym for basketball some of which is organized in league play.

About the same number of elementary age and high school age girls use either the Ferry school gym or the Parcells gym one of three nights a week for volleyball, gymnastics, or basketball.

The Adult Education classes conducted by the Department of Community Services of the Pointe schools utilize the gymnasiums in several ways. Classes in badminton are offered interested persons and the obedience training classes for upwards of 60 dogs are regularly conducted in them.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your needs for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Four Injured As Cars Crash

Four passengers in an accident that occurred on Wednesday, April 9, required treatment at Bon Secours Hospital following the pileup at the corner of Kercheval avenue and Rivard boulevard.

The inevitable crumple resulted and four passengers in Downie's car were taken to the hospital for treatment of their injuries. Annie Stevenson, 67, of 20681 Washtenaw, in Harper Woods, injured her right knee. Julie Downie, 29, suffered cuts on both legs and chest injuries. Darlene Pond, 8, of 10014 Abum, in Detroit, was treated for a bump on her head, and a baby, Gail Downie, 20 months, was taken for a checkup.

Robert Dunn Downie, of 23159 Barbara Street, in Roseville, was headed west on Kercheval about 6 p.m. Hilliard Burton, of 3637 Woodhall, in Detroit, was going north on Rivard at the time and pulled into oncoming traffic.

Children's Fair to Benefit Japanese

Japanese fortune cookies remind these youngsters to attend the Japanese Festival, fourth annual children's fair at Christ Church, being held Saturday, April 26. General admission to the fair is free—but tickets for games will be sold On-The-Hill and in the Village this coming Saturday by church members in authentic Japanese costumes.

The fourth annual fair sponsored by the children and teachers of the Sunday School will be held at Christ Church on Saturday, April 26, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Held on behalf of the Nip-pon Sai Ko Kwai—the entire Episcopal effort in Japan, which supports and maintains a school, a hospital, a mission, a church and a college—the fair will take the land of Japan as its theme. Prizes, decorations and exhibits will be as authentically Japanese as possible—even to carps flying from the church bell tower, fortune cookies and tea served by Japanese exchange students in a flower-drawn tea house, rickshaws drawn by Canterbury Club coolies, and attendants in gaily colored kimonos.

Highlighting the day will be the appearance of two well known celebrities. Soupy Sales will be on hand at 1 p.m. in the Church Undercroft for a special children's show. And during the morning, Bernie Faulk's tumblers will put on a tumbling exhibition and a demonstration of Judo.

General admission to the fair, and to these events, is free—games, rides and refreshments will cost 10-15c each.

Heading up the Fair is Chairman Kenneth Kurtz, assisted by Messrs. W. F. Howard, William Ludwig, Peter Dixon, Max Pearce, and Mesdames Donald Farkas and Foster Barrows.

Friday Book Review Group Meets April 18

The Friday Book Review of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will meet in the Women's Parlor at 1 p.m. on Friday, April 18.

Mrs. Frank Fitt will give devotions. Mrs. George B. Morse will review "A New Song in a Strange Land" by Esther Warner. All members and their friends are invited.

Marine Pfc. Jacklyn H. Lucas, at 17, was the youngest man ever to receive the Medal of Honor. At Iwo Jima he fell on two grenades to save his comrades and survived.

Group to Probe Social Problems

Social Welfare problems resulting from rapidly-changing neighborhoods in the metropolitan area will be explored by community leaders and professional workers when they meet Tuesday, April 29, at Rackham Memorial Building, 80 Farnsworth, in Detroit.

Nearly 6,500 board and staff members from 190 public and private agencies have been invited to participate in the Institute sponsored by United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit.

Several well-known Grosse Pointers are among the outstanding community leaders who have had important roles in planning the all-day conference. They are: Mrs. Edward G. Acomb, 77 Hall place; Mrs. Ben Beyer, 70 Lochmoor; Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Jr., 287 McMillan road; Mrs. Osborne Coates, 253 Hillcrest; Mrs. William H. Denler, 277 Cloverly road; Mrs. Gerald F. Dewhirst, 682 Sunningdale drive; Mrs. John N. Failing, Jr., 1007 Three Mile Drive.

Sleepy Driver Rams Pole

Eugene J. Miszcak, 23, of 22540 Laing, St. Clair Shores, was ticketed by Park police on Saturday, April 12, for leaving the scene of an accident.

According to a Park police report, Miszcak, going south on Cadieux road, lost control of his car and crashed into an Edison utility pole in front of 1113 Cadieux, shearing the pole from its base.

With the front end of his automobile smashed in, Miszcak drove off without stopping. He was traced to his home by his license number given to police by a witness.

The errant driver told Park authorities that he must have fallen asleep at the wheel, and did not know what had happened until the car jumped the curb and hit the pole. He was not injured.

Woods Solons Take Oaths

The five incumbents who were re-elected to their posts in the Woods, took their oaths of office before the Woods council convened on Monday, April 14.

City Clerk Leona Liddle administered the oath to Mayor Kenneth Koppin, Councilmen James J. Hunt, Harry C. Pratt, Kenneth R. McLeod and Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow.

The mayor and councilmen will serve for two years, and the judge, for four years.

The first order of business following the swearing in, was the election of a mayor pro tem by the council. This office went to McLeod, who was also appointed a member of the Woods Pension Board.

The council approved the appointment of Mayor Koppin as the Woods' representative on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

The mayor then appointed the following chairmen and members of the various committees, all members of the council:

Building and Planning — Councilman James Bowling, chairman; Pratt and Hunt, members.

Finance — Hunt, chairman; Rex Johnston and McLeod.

Park and Recreation—Elsie Friedrich, chairman; Bowling and McLeod.

Let's Raise Our Sights

A bunch of the boys and a few of the girls were whooping it up the other noon in a private dining room at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The subject being kicked around was a community matter, having to do with cleanliness and pride in the Pointe from the standpoint of outward beauty. Special emphasis was being laid on the chronic beef about the untidiness of a very small percentage of Grosse Pointe High School students, the foundation of a long, long string of complaints from neighboring residents and business establishments which have had to wage a constant battle to keep their properties free of rubbish tossed by these thoughtless young citizens.

The Rev. Erville B. Maynard, rector of Christ Church, tossed a pregnant thought into the discussion. We can't recall his exact words, but they were indicative of the kind of thinking we like to expect from a clergyman who has both the talent and the inclination for guidance and tolerance. Mr. Maynard believes that this small segment of non-conforming youngsters is comprised of victims of their own parents' lack of leadership and discipline.

The idea he got across quite forcibly, and without resorting to quotes, is that we can't expect anything more from the younger generation than those things for which we are willing to set the example. He has little patience with those of us who are willing to forgive inane, childishness simply because we have been guilty of the same minor misdemeanors. We can't get any more than we expect, and unless we set our qualifications high, we are to blame for the failures of the young. If we demand proper conduct and exact penalties when we fail to get it, the whole standard of deportment will be raised.

If we condone puerile performances just because the perpetrators of misdeeds are young in years, we should expect a continuance of both minor and major defiance of law and order.

It is a point well taken. This matter of litter, strewn thoughtlessly by some of the High School students, has long been a subject requiring the attention of school officials, residents and the police. It is an indulgence in sloppiness which wastes the time and energies of all victims concerned.

It was developed at the meeting last week that a great deal of this litter is caused by students who eat in the cars in the school parking area. When lunch is finished, sandwich wrappings, paper bags, banana peels and endless other items of rubbish and garbage are simply tossed out the car windows and left to the whimsies of the winds to be distributed willy nilly up and down the streets.

The city officials have placed disposal barrels for such refuse. The police have threatened to crack down on anyone found guilty of such intolerable negligence. The Hi-Y Club of the High School has formed detective teams to ferret out the culprits and has been empowered by the Student Association to inflict penalties.

All of these agencies and the school authorities have expressed a willingness to go further. More refuse cans will be installed and it was disclosed at the gathering in the Yacht Club that litter bags will be provided free to all student car owners to encourage them to keep their refuse out of sight.

It is to be hoped that these measures will help, but as Mr. Maynard has pointed out, a raising of the sights of all, particularly the parents, must accompany these moves. We must not condone defiance of the rights of others and we must demand that all our citizens, young and old, respect the wishes of the very great majority for maintaining and augmenting the beauty of the Pointe.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

A letter from Mr. Harold Daniels, a Republican precinct delegate in Grosse Pointe Farms, has been widely distributed through the mails and now has appeared in your letters column. I would like to take this opportunity to extend an invitation to Mr. Daniels through this Grosse Pointe News column.

Dear Mr. Daniels:

As you know, ALL Republicans are welcomed in the 14th District Republican organization. They are welcomed and wanted not only as workers but as people with ideas to suggest or criticisms to offer. It was, therefore, with utter amazement that I read your letter. For instance, referring to present leadership you wrote, "Having taken over the 14th, plans were quickly developed for discrediting all Eisenhower Republicans. These plans were formulated and carried out while most of us were completely engrossed in the 1956 State and National Campaigns." Thousands of Republicans like myself worked through the new District Organization for Ike, Cobo, and the entire GOP ticket. (I worked as a volunteer almost every day of the campaign and a great many evenings as well.) Now that they have read your statements, Mr.

Daniels, many workers must themselves and all those who make up the new leadership of the District! My reaction is that (1), your letter was meant as a joke or (2), you spent the fall of '56 in some other congressional district and therefore did not receive any of the mail sent out by the District.

Anyway, sir, here is a brand new invitation to join us and take an active part in the coming campaign and in the year-round activities going on at 14th District Republican Headquarters, 15316 E. Warren in Detroit. Your voice and your efforts are always welcome. Every issue of the monthly delegates news-letter contains invitations to meetings, and I will be looking forward to seeing you at many of these meetings in the future. Yours for a Republican Victory

(Mrs.) Emily M. Boylston,
Member, Rep. State

Charles T. Fisher, Jr.

Charles T. Fisher, Jr., who died Monday, April 14, added greatly to the lustre of a famous automotive name by winning a distinguished reputation in other fields.

For more than two decades - although he turned only 51 this year - Mr. Fisher has been one of the best known of Detroit's business and civic leaders. His reputation in banking and finance is nationwide.

Mr. Fisher once told a newspaper interviewer that he began studying banking because his father, one of the Fisher brothers of automobile body building fame, "thought it would be a good idea for me to get a smattering of financial knowledge - he figured it might be helpful in the auto business."

He found the subject so interesting, he added, that he decided to make banking his life's work.

This keen interest, plus a winning personality and an unusual capacity for hard work, carried "Chick" Fisher to a succession of important jobs at ages when most men are still apprentices in their chosen fields.

He became manager of the Detroit Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation when he was 25, director of the RFC at 28, Michigan State Banking Commissioner at 30, and president and director of the National Bank of Detroit just before he turned 31, the largest in Michigan and 11th largest in the nation.

While providing leadership in an exceptional range of business, civic, charitable and religious activities - his business affiliations alone in 1958 included directorships of nine firms in addition to the bank - Mr. Fisher gave top priority to his role as a family man. He and his wife, the former Elizabeth Jane Briggs of another well known Detroit automotive family, are the parents of seven children and grandparents of five.

He always was able to find time for a friendly conversation. Both a keen listener and a witty talker, he became one of Detroit's most popular and respected men.

Mr. Fisher's outstanding job as RFC Detroit director earned his appointment in 1935 as a member of the board of directors of the RFC in Washington, D.C.

"It really was a $10,000-a-year job," he once recalled, "but when they saw how young I was, they cut the salary in half."

In the RFC, Mr. Fisher worked under famed financier Jesse Jones, chairman of the government agency. Mr. Jones later wrote of the Detroit:

"In my long experience in business and banking, few men have come to my notice who are better equipped by native ability, natural poise, trustworthiness and all-around good sense."

He served with the RFC until the end of the war in 1945, when he returned to the National Bank of Detroit as president and director.

Although primarily concerned with banking, Mr. Fisher continued the family interest in the automotive industry. He was a member of the board of directors of General Motors, a trustee and vice chairman of the Automotive Safety Foundation.

In recent years he was intensely proud to have been very active as vice chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority and also Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army for the State of Michigan.

The Fisher children are Charles T. III, 1030 Harvard road; Mary (Mother Mary Fisher), Convent of the Sacred Heart, Rochester, N.Y.; Jane (Mrs. Thomas M. Lufkin), Pacific Palisades, Calif.; Fred J., an Army lieutenant serving in Germany; Walter B., a Navy ensign at Athens, Ga.; Sarah Wilhelmina; and John Allen.

The Fisher residence is at 5 Lake Court, Grosse Pointe.

He was a graduate member of the Business Advisory Council of the U.S. Department of Commerce; a trustee of the United States Associates, International Chamber of Commerce; and a member and past president of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

In addition to the bank and General Motors, Mr. Fisher was a director of these other business firms: American Airlines, Inc.; American Broadcasting - Paramount Pictures, Inc.; Cuninghams Drug Stores, Inc.; Detroit Edison Company; Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (public interest director); Michigan Bell Telephone Company; National Steel Corporation; and Sheraton-Cadillac Corporation.

His numerous civic activities included service as treasurer and director of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Inc.; director of the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund, Inc.; treasurer, director, and chairman of the finance committee of the United Foundation in Detroit; trustee of the Michigan Heart Association.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the Associate Board of Lay Trustees and of the Finance Committee of the University of Notre Dame.

His clubs included the Detroit Athletic Club, of which he was president; Bloomfield

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Was there ever a youngster who has not dreamed of a "tree house"—a private world of his own, hidden away in green branches—where adults were verboten?

Royal Barry Wills, Boston architect and author of many books on home building, has a new title "Tree House," which will intrigue both boys and girls and their fathers. Of course the first requirement of such a house is safety. It must be strong, firmly fastened and completely secure. Mr. Wills has designed several tree houses that meet these demands.

The author's enthusiasm for this project grew out of a tree house which his nephew attempted to build with the help of a friend. It was not an unqualified success. After working on it for two years, a bad storm took its toll and left the house in a sorry condition, but the boys were undaunted. They tried again, this time with success.

Step by step, the author shows how to build a safe tree house, whether you have one tree, two trees or three trees with which to work. The book and white illustrations, and the detailed diagrams, add much to the book's appeal.

"Gardening: A New World For Children" by Sally Wright, gives a brand new approach to an old subject. It is concerned not so much with the actual techniques themselves, as with the way to capture a child's interest in growing things.

"A child must have a child's reasons for gardening. And since he lives in a fresh and extraordinary world, his garden should not be ordinary. The way to inspire a seasoned boy scout to consider a garden may be totally different from the way such a project is presented to a dainty young miss with little or no interest in the good earth. The results will be entirely different too. The kind of garden your child should have, according to his interest and personality.

The approach is varied and original. There are many kinds of specialized gardens here: a picnic garden, a pet and wild life garden, a cook's garden, a garden to provide the wherewithal for making flower dolls, necklaces, bouquets and corsages. Pocket money provides another urge, and such a hobby may find a new outlet in flower photography. The scientist may be captivated by soil testing or grafting. This is an original guide to whet the appetite of indifferent junior gardeners.

For their fathers and mothers there is an inspiring new book, "Joy of Gardening" by Victoria Sackville-West. These articles on gardening are arranged by the four seasons of the year, and are based on two of the author's books published in England: "In Your Garden" and "More For Your Garden." This selection has been made particularly for Americans.

The author is not only an experienced gardener, but a gifted writer, and her book, while giving practical help, is also a delight to read.

Rubber Check Passer Sought

Park police are following up a $150 bad check complaint filed by Sylvan Landuyt, owner of a market at 15028 Mack.

Landuyt told police that he cashed the check for a Charles Hessen, about 25, who gave him address as 291 Manistique, Detroit. The check was written by a Victoria Hessen who, Landuyt said, Hessen identified as his wife.

The check bounced back "account closed." Cpl. Charles French is seeking Hessen for questioning but was told at the Manistique address he had gone to Texas.

To Show Public School Art Work

Beginning Monday, April 28, and continuing through May 12 the art work achieved in all the public schools of Grosse Pointe will be on display at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The Center is always open weekdays from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and on Sundays from 12 to 5 p. m., but it is always advisable to call the Memorial, TU 1-7511, to make sure the rooms are free of meetings before coming to view the exhibit.

In the absence of Mrs. Janet Gray, Charles Jorgensen is coordinating the exhibit in the Center's second floor galleries. Included under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Gies, elementary art supervisor, will be works from all the Pointes grammar schools including finger painting, murals and paper mache animals.

The Junior High School work, directed by Mrs. Esther Meldrum, Mrs. Albert Ebert, Mrs. Helen Gilliard and Charles Jorgensen, will include drawings, poster work, textiles and mobiles.

The Senior High exhibit under the direction of Miss Marion Lampman and Miss Marilyn Krueger will feature ceramics and jewelry as well as oil paintings.

An attempt is being made to show work in as many media as possible. Purposely, instead of choosing only the most outstanding pieces, the teachers have chosen representative work. The public is cordially invited to view the young Pointers' talent on parade.

PTA at Defer Meets April 21

Donald F. Schroeder, Director of Family Life Education for the Detroit Council of Churches, will talk to parents of Defer School children on "Sex Education in the Home" at the April 21 PTA meeting.

Mr. Schroeder received his AB at the University of Dubuque, Iowa, his BD at McCormick Theological Seminary. At present he is completing his Ph.D. in Human Development at the University of Chicago.

He served as a Presbyterian pastor for over 9 years, and as a missionary in Brazil for 4 years. He has been teacher-counselor in family life education for the Clara Elizabeth Fund for Maternal Health in Flint for 7 years, and has done a considerable amount of work as instructor in various phases of marriage and family life programs.

Mr. Schroeder also is past president of the Michigan Council on Family Relations, is married and the father of a teen-age daughter.

Kenneth Hollidge is program chairman of Defer PTA. There will be an open house from 7:30 until 8, and parents are urged to take this opportunity to visit their child's homeroom.

After Mr. Schroeder's talk, a social hour will be held in the school lunchroom. Fourth Grade mothers will be hostesses, with Mrs. Oscar Guenschke in charge.

Michigan's Educational Status Studied at Parley

"We must join hands, secondary school and colleges as well as all Americans, in a unified effort to improve our educational program so that we can save and improve and strengthen our American way of life," Grosse Pointe Superintendent James W. Bushong told a group of educators meeting in Ann Arbor April 10.

President Harlan Hatcher of the University of Michigan and Superintendent Bushong spoke to a gathering of several hundred as a three-day conference on the Michigan High School got underway. Both speakers gave their views of the status of education in the State of Michigan, each dealing with his particular level.

"We cannot achieve unity if we continue to squabble among ourselves, hurling charges and counter-charges," the Superintendent said, "but must work together to have the best educational program possible for our youth."

Dr. Bushong took issue with the self-styled "experts" who, in ever-increasing numbers, were favoring all who would listen with an analysis of what was wrong with the schools.

The careless use of facts and statistics by the fault-finders came under his scrutiny. He pointed out that those who advocated going back to the good old ways were a common garden variety of critic to be found in every generation. If they had been right all through the ages, man would be trying to re-discover fire or the wheel. He expressed doubt that anyone could "ride backward into the future."

Citing statistics gathered by the Bureau of School Services of the University in recent weeks, the Superintendent demonstrated conclusively that the high schools of Michigan did not, in general, fit the description being given by their critics. Instead of less than 12 per cent of high school students taking algebra as is often claimed, the survey of nearly 600 high schools throughout the state showed that nearer two-thirds took this course.

Of approximately 55,000 high school students graduating from these schools this spring, only five per cent will have had less than one year of mathematics. About 12 per cent of this graduating class will have completed four years of mathematics. In science only seven per cent of the graduates will have had less than one year of study. Evidence was offered the audience, also, that the brighter students did take the more demanding courses to a considerable extent.

Reminding his listeners that 15 of 16 scientists on the team which launched Explorer I were American born and educated, Dr. Bushong took strong exception to the inferences that the American school system had failed. He said that it was well known that America could have put an artificial moon into orbit years ahead of the Russians if that was what "we had wanted to do. Describing the panic into which so many had gone as disgraceful, he counseled all to keep their heads and to have faith in a system which had proven its worth so well in the last century and a half.

If a main thread or thought were to be identified as characterizing Superintendent Bushong's speech it would be his castigating of the wild and irresponsible generalizing indulged in by critics of the schools. Acknowledging that some of the allegations being made about the shortcomings of the secondary schools were true to a certain extent somewhere, he said that the sweeping conclusions often drawn from isolated instances were most unfair, and untrue.

Evidence was presented the group establishing that present day products of Michigan's secondary schools were better trained on the average than those of any preceding generation. Dr. Bushong pointed out that the record of Michigan High School graduates at the University of Michigan, one of the outstanding universities of the country, would indicate they were well prepared.

He cited a recent publication of the University which stated that less than five per cent of a freshman class at the University withdraws for academic reasons. Typically two-thirds of a given class is made up of Michigan residents. He also cited statistics showing that public school students won more than their proportionate share of Phi Beta Kappa keys as compared to those won by private school graduates. The study included several of the so called prestige colleges as well as others.

This was the first attempt in Michigan to hold such a conference. It is hoped that more effective plans for the development of the secondary schools of the state will result. Conferees examined the purpose and organization of the high school and discussed the most promising or most needed curricular changes.

Other speakers included Mildred McAfee Horton, former president of Wellesley College

WAVES during World War II who spoke on "Society and Its Schools" and Professor Harold Hand of the University of Il-

Grosse Pointe Park Department of Water Supply Rates and Rules Applicable to Non-Conserving Type, Water Cooled, Air Conditioning Equipment

Adopted by the City Council April 14, 1958

1. DEMAND CHARGE IMPOSED

There shall be included in the Department's schedule of water rates a demand charge applicable to all water cooled air conditioning equipment used for space cooling for human comfort that is not of the approved water conserving type.

2. AGE CLASSIFICATION OF INSTALLATIONS

All such air conditioning installations (not of the approved water conserving type) shall be classified into two groups as follows:

- Air conditioning systems that were installed on or before May 7, 1956.
- Air conditioning systems that are installed after May 7, 1956.

For the purpose of the above classification, the date of installation of a system shall be the date of permit therefor if the same was installed under permit issued by the Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering, and otherwise it shall be the date of purchase of the major component of the system. The governing date for the above classification is fixed as May 7, 1956 because said date is the date of adoption of the Detroit Rules referred to in section 10 hereof.

3. CHARGE FOR GROUP A

The schedule of demand charges for Group A (air conditioning systems installed on or before May 7, 1956 not of the approved water conserving type) shall be as follows:

- For the calendar year 1958—$4.20 per ton of refrigeration.
- For the calendar year 1959—$5.25 per ton of refrigeration.
- For the calendar year 1960—$6.30 per ton of refrigeration.
- For the calendar year 1961 and thereafter—$7.90 per ton of refrigeration.

4. CHARGE FOR GROUP B

The schedule of demand charges for Group B (air conditioning systems installed after May 7, 1956 not of the approved water conserving type) shall be as follows:

- For each calendar year—$7.90 per ton of refrigeration.

5. PAYMENT

The demand charge shall be in addition to the current charge for water used and shall be billed and collected in the manner described herein, and otherwise be subject to all the rules and regulations of the Department in regard to collection of water bills—including penalties for non-payment. The annual demand charge shall be billed in one sum on or about May 1 of each year and be due and payable without penalty on the due date indicated on the bill.

6. PRORATION FOR MIDYEAR CONNECTION OR DISCONNECTION

A demand charge shall be payable in respect to all air conditioning units not of the approved water conserving type which are completed and connected to the Water System prior to October 1 of the calendar year in question; provided however that in the case of air conditioning units installed and connected to the Water System during the air conditioning season the demand charge shall be prorated as follows (any payment not covered by the May bill to be made at the time of connection):

For units completed and connected to the Water System prior to July 1—Entire annual charge.

Between July 1 and July 31— $\frac{1}{4}$  of annual charge
Between August 1 and August 31— $\frac{1}{2}$  of annual charge
Between September 1 and September 30— $\frac{3}{4}$  of annual charge

After September 30—No charge for that calendar year

In the case of air conditioning units not of the approved water conserving type which are, during the air conditioning season, (i) permanently disconnected from the Water System (either by disconnection under seal of the Department or by removal from the premises), or (ii) under permit issued by the Department, converted to the approved water conserving type the demand charge shall be prorated as follows (credit for any overcharge to be given on succeeding bills):

Disconnected or converted prior to May 1—No charge

Between May 1 and June 30— $\frac{1}{4}$  of annual charge

Between July 1 and July 31— $\frac{1}{2}$  of annual charge

Between August 1 and September 30— $\frac{3}{4}$  of annual charge

After September 30—Entire annual charge

7. NO WATER CHARGE

Users of air conditioning equipment of the approved water conserving type may, if they so elect, use water as the cooling medium without recalculation between October 1 May 1, without causing such use of equipment to become subject to the demand charge.

8. DEFINITION OF RATED CAPACITY

The rated capacity of a unit in tons shall be the greatest of the following:

- The manufacturer's rating in tons per 24 hr. of equivalent ice-making capacity.
- The 24-hr. BTU rating of heat removal capacity divided by 288,000.
- The horsepower rating of the motor driving the refrigerant compressor.
- Nine-tenths of the horsepower rating of a motor driving both compressor and fan.
- Where none of the above ratings is available, or where question arises as to the accuracy of any rating, the rating shall be determined by measurement of power input to the compressor motor the rate of fuel consumption, or other suitable means.

9. DEFINITION OF APPROVED WATER CONSERVING TYPE

A unit shall qualify as an approved water conserving type only if it is one:

- Which is equipped with cooling tower, atmospheric condenser, spray pond, or other equipment which shall directly or indirectly cool refrigerant, and
- Which can use water from the Water System only for makeup water to replace water lost by evaporation or by flushing of the equipment and
- Which uses an average of less than 12 gal. of water from the Water System per hour per ton of cooling capacity when the unit is operating, and
- Which has no piping connection to allow operation of the air-conditioning unit by direct use of water from the Water System either in conjunction with or in place of such cooling tower, atmospheric condenser, spray pond, or other recirculating and heat-exchanging equipment, except as provided in Section 7 hereof.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

These rules and regulations have been adopted by the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Park pursuant to 2.36 of the Grosse Pointe Park Ordinance Code and shall take effect May 1, 1958. They are intended to conform to Section 12 of "Rates and Rules Applicable to Non-Conserving Type, Water Cooled, Air Conditioning Equipment" adopted by the Detroit Board of Water Commissioners May 7, 1956 (herein called the Detroit Rules) and shall be construed in the light of the objects and purposes of said Detroit Rules.

Helm Named To Park Post

The Park council regretfully accepted the resignation of a veteran member of the Park Planning commission, and appointed a new member during a meeting held on Monday, April 14.

The council received the resignation of Noble R. Wetherbee, who gave his reason for leaving the post as having moved from the Park to the City.

He formerly lived at 865 Barrington, and now resides at 424 Rivard boulevard. He had served with the Planning Commission since October 22, 1951, and was considered an able member of that body. His present term was to have expired on July 1 of this year.

A resolution commending Wetherbee's services to the city was approved by the council, and will be presented to him at a future date.

The new member of the Commission is George Helm of 1005 Audubon, an attorney, who succeeds Harold Marsh of 880 Pemberton.

Marsh, who was appointed to the Planning Commission on June 1, 1956, died on October 23, 1957, and his replacement will serve his unexpired term, which will be to July 1, 1959.

Helm was recommended by Mayor Kenneth Cunningham. Wetherbee's successor has not been named.

Pfc. Owen E. Orr Set For Air Maneuver

FORT CAMPBELL, Ky. (AHTNC)—PFC. Owen E. Orr, whose wife, Dorothy, lives at 472 Rivard boulevard, Grosse Pointe, Mich., is scheduled to participate in "Exercise Eagle Wing," a 101st Airborne Division maneuver at Fort Campbell, Ky., April 16-30.

Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Orr, 425 W. Bloomfield, Royal Oak, is assigned to Aviation Company of the division's Command and Control Battalion. He entered the Army in August, 1956, and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of New York Military Academy, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y., and attended the University of California at Riverside. He is a member of Pi Eta Phi fraternity.

Fortnighters' Frolic Set for April 25

The annual spring event held by the Fortnighters of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will be held in the church gymnasium on Friday, April 25. Dinner will be served at 6:30 followed by entertainment for adults and children. Tickets may be purchased from any Fortnighters, or obtained by calling Tuxedo 5-3773 and making reservations by Tuesday, April 22. Among those helping plan the frolic are, left to right: JIM SCHROTH, GRACE BENNETT, chairman; JIM SANFORD, SALLY BARNES and ELAINE SURBROOK.

Grunyons Plan To Honor Pair

When the Grunyons entertain the Pointe public free of charge at their Annual Spring Song Fest Wednesday, April 23, at 8:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, it will be a gala send-off occasion for one of the Grunyons' founders and prime movers, Tom Tilley and his wife.

They are packing up, lock, stock and barrel and moving to Puerto Rico where Tom is putting out his attorney's shingle.

In honor of the occasion the five stalwarts, the Grunyons' charter member, Bill Gard, Al Bodycombe, Charles Parcells, Tom Tilley and George Wilson, will sing a medley of the songs which first established the Grunyons' reputation. Songs you'll remember will be "Pullman Porters," "Kitchen Mechanics" and "The Old Song."

The other special feature of the evening will be the guest appearance of the star of Fine

What's Your Record?

Harold E. West, who has driven over 1,600,000 miles without an accident, has been chosen Michigan's 1957 Driver of the Year!

His amazing total of accident-free miles amounts to an average of more than 5,000 a month during the 27 years he has driven a truck for the Geo. F. Alger Company, large Detroit trucking concern.

Like the 11 other truck drivers who were finalists with him in the annual competition (and the drivers of the thousands of trucks which keep Michigan's homes and factories and shops and farms supplied with the things they need), West makes a professional career of safe driving.

Congratulations, Harold West! Keep up the good work — and may your example be an inspiration to Michigan's vast motoring public!

SUMMARY OF MINUTES

APRIL 7, 1958

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Henry E. Bodman II, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., William G. Butler, Richard L. Maxon and Edward C. Roney, Jr.

Absent: Councilman William G. Kirby.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr. presided.

Councilman Kirby was excused from attending the meeting.

The following minutes were approved with minor changes:

Regular Meeting—March 17, 1958

Special Meeting—March 21, 1958

Zoning Board of Appeals—Curtis Mower, Inc.—March 17, 1958.

The following reports were received and ordered filed:

(a) Financial report for eight months ending February 28, 1958

(b) Controller's report for February 1958

(c) Building report for March 1958.

Approval was given to employ Mrs. Stella Brill in the Administrative Office on a probationary basis.

Mr. George S. Lang was appointed to represent the City on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors for the year commencing April 15, 1958.

Approval was given to pay Greater Detroit Landscape Service Company $2,178.50, the balance due for tree trimming in the City.

Approval was given to pay Henry Salvatore $4,918.25, for the installation of new fire hydrants and the adjusting of others to proper elevation.

Approval was given to transfer $2,668.00 from the Police Department to the Fire Department budget for new radio equipment.

The contract for enlarging the Pier Park Concession Stand was awarded to Floris DeMeulenaere in the amount of $830.00, which was the low bid.

The City Manager was authorized to invite bids for the installation of a hot water tank at the Pier Park Concession Stand and to award the contract to the low bidder with the understanding that the expenditure is not to exceed $200.00.

Approval was given to charge the expense incurred for enlarging the Pier Park Concession Stand and the installation of a hot water tank against the Public Improvement Reserve Fund.

Recommendations made by the Pier Park Committee regarding regulations for issuing Pier Park passes were approved.

Acting on the City Manager's recommendation, the Council ordered that the present rules be amended relative to the allocating of mooring spaces at the Pier Park of boats over 16 feet in length, with the exception that those who now have a boat mooring space for boats 16 feet and under be allowed to make application during the present season if they desire a larger space. After the present season, application must be made at the Administrative Office and the application then placed on the boat mooring waiting list for boats 16 feet and over.

The bid of Floris DeMeulenaere in the amount of $308.90, being the low bid, for concrete work, made necessary on account of water main breaks, was accepted.

Due to the cost involved the offer of a blue spruce tree by Mr. William L. Kline, of 343 Hillcrest Road, for planting at the Pier Park was declined.

Approval was given to continue paying the City's portion of premiums on Blue Cross and group life insurance for John Auckland, an employee of the Water Filtration Plant, until June 30, 1958.

The City Manager was authorized to employ the Great Lakes Landscape Company to recondition the ball diamonds at Kerby Field at an expenditure of $425.00.

Approval was given to pay Henry Salvatore the sum of $5,658.30 for work performed in connection with the repair of catch basins.

The City Manager was instructed to prepare a report as to what improvements, in his opinion, are necessary to complete all installations at the Pier Park.

The meeting adjourned at 10:20 P.M.

Vernier Speed Laws Retained

The Woods council on Monday, April 14, voted to retain the present speed limits on Vernier road within the city's corporate limit.

Although Vernier road is a state highway, the Woods can control speed limits within its boundaries, according to the city attorney.

The State Highway Department recently notified the Woods and the Shores that it intends to increase the speed limit east on Vernier, from Mack avenue to Lake Shore road, from 30 miles an hour to 35 miles an hour, and west on Vernier, from Mack to Harper avenue, from its present 35 miles an hour to 45 miles an hour.

Woods residents living along Vernier, presented the city with a petition bearing 125 signatures, protesting the proposed increases, and attended Monday night's meeting, prepared to do battle.

When the council made known its decision to retain the present limits, the battle did not materialize. However, the residents demanded that there be a stricter enforcement of the limits as they now stand.

It was claimed that motorists ignored the speed limits, some of them driving as much as 65 miles an hour, endangering themselves and the Vernier residents and their children.

City Administrator William Lange said that the city had conducted a survey which showed that the average speed along Vernier was between 30 and 38 miles an hour. This brought a storm of dissent from some of the residents, who claimed that a state survey showed that the average speed was clocked at about 45 miles an hour.

The citizens demanded stricter enforcement of the speed laws on their thoroughfare by local police, which was promised by the council.

A survey of the heavy traffic created by Eastland along Vernier on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, was also promised.

When it was asked whether the state had the right to increase speeds on state highways running through communities, and whether state jurisdiction superseded that of a city in the control of speeds, the city attorney stated that a city has the right to control speeds within its corporate limits.

The State usually follows a recommendation made by a city regarding speeds, it was said.

When a citizen asked the reason for a 30 mile speed limit east of Mack on Vernier, and 35 on the west, it was pointed out that the 30 miles an hour holds, because of the location of Parcels Junior High School and Mason School. Any greater speed would increase the danger to the school children, it was said.

On April 23, 1800, Congress passed an "act for the better government of the Navy," making changes in pay, pensions and regulations, and designed to attract men of high caliber to the Naval service.

Yale Exposition Set for Saturday

President A. Whitney Griswold of Yale University, who will lead a large group of Yale faculty and administrative experts to Detroit for "The Yale Exposition" at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Saturday, April 19, is one of the nation's leading spokesmen for higher education.

Both as a speaker and as a writer President Griswold has become known for his ability to create the "quotable quote." He has turned a scholar's sharp eye on such serious topics as freedom and security, the "age of organization," McCarthyism, and the current controversy over educational trends and policies.

But in passing—as evidenced in his most recent book "In the University Tradition," published last fall by the Yale University Press—he also has commented on the lost art of conversation, football stadia, and men and mousetraps.

Mr. Griswold will be the main speaker in Detroit at an evening get-together of the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan. During the morning, through a series of short talks, area alumni wives, and friends will hear such outstanding Yale faculty members as Elias Clark, Associate Professor of Law; the Rev. Julian N. Hart, Professor of Philosophical Theology; Dr. Vernon W. Lipard, Dean of the Yale School of Medicine; Professor Lloyd G. Reynolds, Economics Department Chairman; and Harold G. Cassidy, Associate Professor of Chemistry.

After luncheon, Norman S. Buck, Yale Provost; Basil Duke Henning, Associate Professor of History; Arthur Howe, Jr., Dean of Admissions and Student Appointments; and Delaney Kiphuth, Director of Athletics will present a seminar on the selection of students and the educational process at Yale.

These morning and afternoon sessions will be open to the public.

Wendel W. Anderson, Yale 1922, is chairman of the Alumni Board Committee on Regional Meetings, and B. Courtney Rankin, Yale 1936, is chairman of the Saturday program. Yates G. Smith, William Y. Gard and Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., are in charge of sub-committee functions.

Republicans Rap Farm Supports

Mrs. Dorothy Faber, member of the National Domestic Issues Subcommittee of the 14th Congressional District Republican Resolutions Assembly, states that her group heartily endorses President Eisenhower's veto of the bill to continue farm price supports at 1957 levels because:

The American people are weary of being taxed in order to pay a higher grocery bill; The present farm program costs the American taxpayer almost five billion dollars a year, and has still failed to solve farm problems;

The present farm program is a form of socialization. It is not founded on the sound economic basis of supply and demand. It is not traditional in the American scheme of doing things;

We alienate our friends in international trade by underselling them in foreign markets, as a means of dumping our surpluses, due to price supports.

We resolve that, as Americans first and Republicans second, we shall support Secretary Benson's plan to reduce price supports. We also urge the end of the Soil Bank Program.

Pointe Theater Offering Plays

The Grosse Pointe Community Theater co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is presenting two plays at the Center, free of charge, on Monday, April 28, at 8:30 p.m.

The first play, "Minus Zero," is an original script by one of the Community Theater's own members, Eugene Van Buren. Oddly enough, though written about a test pilot in a rocket in outer space it was conceived prior to all the (satellite) experiments. Mr. Van Buren is an insurance agent and in addition to the Grosse Pointe Community theater he is also an active member of the Waytown Players, an amateur and professional group who have taken over the Old Times Theater in Detroit.

"Minus Zero" is a psychodrama concerned with a rocket pilot's conflict with his ego, super-ego and id as he defies outer space in order to supply a ground crew with information of value to his country and humanity. Alone in the rocket, faced with the demands of his conscience and personality and pressed on by the coaching of the ground crew, the struggle goes on.

The cast of "Minus Zero" is star studded. President of the Theater, Al Berteel, plays the role of Major Tower; past President Dean Erskine, the Theatre's Technical Advisor; set builder, Board member and director who is a professional at WXYZ-TV, plays the part of the Major's Ego whose Super-ego and Id are played by Bob Poasahoff and Alex Johnson respectively. Major Iverson, the project's psychiatrist, is played by Dr. Donald White. General Kelsner and the radio announcer who comprise the rest of the ground crew are played by Bill Shearer and Bob Koebel.

Scenes from "George Washington Slept Here," a truly hilarious comedy will be the second and final offering of the evening. Bill Meaghan, High School English Instructor, who has played the leading roles of Harry Brock in "Born Yesterday" and Sheridan Whitesides in "The Man Who Came To Dinner" as well as the leads in "Sabrina Fair" and "Front Page" will play the male lead in this performance opposite leading lady Phyllis Reeve who has starred as Amanda in "The Glass Menagerie" and played the leads in "Night Must Fall" and "Two Blind Mice" as well as directing "Sabrina Fair."

Rotary to Hear Missile Expert

A former German who helped develop the V-2 rocket of World War II and now directs the Army Ballistic Missile Test Laboratory will be among the speakers at the District 680 Rotary Convention in Detroit this Sunday and Monday, April 20 and 21.

Rotarians from the Pointe will be among the 700 to 1,000 men from southeastern Michigan and part of Ontario attending the two-day affair. District 680 has 39 clubs.

The convention is taking place at the Hotel Statler and is being sponsored by the Rotary Club of Plymouth. This year's district governor is Frank E. Henderson, a Plymouth manufacturer. Henderson will preside over the convention sessions.

Addressing the Monday night banquet audience will be Karl L. Heimburg, director of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency's development operations division which is working on the Jupiter (intermediate range) missile.

During World War II, Heimburg directed a staff of 600 people in Germany developing the power plant and related components for the V-2 and Wasserfall missiles. He continued working in the missile transferring to the Ballistic missile section in 1956. He became an American citizen in 1956.

STILL LIFE—No, this isn't the inside of a moonshiner's still, although the "little brown jugs" do look mighty suspicious. What they actually contain in this Okawville, Ill., bottling plant, however, is concentrated sassafras tea, a product of the Ozark mountain country in Missouri and Arkansas. Sassafras root, dug in the mountains, is washed and boiled to make a tea imbibed by young and old as a "spring tonic."

FUN TO LEARN—Bible Story Balloons, a unique toy ideal for religious instruction at home as well as in Sunday School, tell seven classic stories from the Old Testament. Here, Cathy Stucky and her brother Bobby of Owensboro, Ky., are engrossed in one of the brief stories. The colorful balloons, made by The Pioneer Rubber Co. of Willard, Ohio, help to stimulate interest in Biblical figures that should be familiar to children of all faiths.

SKY MESSENGER—Just the thing for those short errands is this new one-man helicopter made by De Lackner Helicopters, Inc., of Mount Vernon, N. Y. Its power comes from a 40-hp. Mercury Mark 55 outboard motor.

TIME FOR A CHANGE—Deciding that things were pretty dull around his house in Coulsdon, England, Eric Haskell (on ladder) set up this six-foot clock over his garden. The big timepiece is visible from quite a distance away and comes in handy for passers-by who have forgotten the time. Haskell is a lock installer by trade.

HEADED FOR FIRST—Lassie Leaguer—one of 12,000 younger girls expected to be in action throughout the country—clouts a screamer past the first baseman and takes off fast. Action is in a game played in Collegeville, Pa., home of the Lassie Leaguers.

SQUEEZING A PUP-UP—"Pleased to mitt ya" smiles Montreal catcher Mike Napoli at his pet Chihuahua in the Los Angeles Dodgers' training camp in Vero Beach, Fla. The pup, almost hidden by the ball, is aptly named "Poguita," or "little hit."

CONVERTIBLE TOP—Instant hair is the fashion treatment whipped up by Parisian stylist Alexandre, who gets his model's own tresses out of the way (left) before adding a new crowning glory (right). The wig, topped with a diadem of four diamond clips, was created by Alexandre for the forthcoming royal ball in Brussels.

PATCH UP FOR SPRING—Three-hundred-and-seventy-two (count 'em) patches of hand-loomed or hand-woven tweed make up this striking jacket from the spring 1958 custom collection of Knize in New York. Both the jacket and its matching vest are fashioned entirely of patches in varying shades of red and green. They're worn with a slim skirt and ascot of red whipcord.

HORROR-GLASS FIGURE—With just too much curves for one mirror, 18-year-old Carole Dapolito of Oceanside, N. Y., turns away from her rearranged geography. She's trying out the trick mirrors in the fun house at Palisades Amusement Park, N. J., where the reflection may be what those designers of sack dresses think gals really look like.

SPRING, 1958—This year's spring suit features important detailing on jackets that top short, straight skirts, according to three top Parisian designers—Jacques Heim, Jean Desses and Pierre Balmain. Heim (left) chooses pale green wool for a broad-shouldered suit with short, chunky jacket. Desses (center) advocates a more feminine, supple line in yellow wool flecked with white. Balmain (right) tops his easy jacket with a wide stole collar that can be drawn across both shoulders or slung casually over one shoulder and allowed to stream down the back.

READY FOR PASSENGERS—Positioned between aircraft and terminal building, the "Aero-Gangplank" of United Air Lines provides a weather-shielded walkway for deplaning or boarding passengers at Chicago's O'Hare Airport. The gangplank swings within 120-degree arc for proper alignment with plane fuselage, and extends from a retracted length of 55 feet to a maximum of 107 feet.

DRY RUN—Ready for a swim any time, aquatic marvels Michael Narz, 7 (left), and brother John, 9, seem set to take the plunge in New York. As their medals and trophies testify, the youngsters won many swimming races in California before moving East. They journeyed to New York to join their dad, Jack Narz, currently a CBS-TV master of ceremonies.

BOGGED DOWN—Mired almost knee deep in icy water and mud, Hereford cattle are inspected by their owner, J. G. Trapp on a farm 10 miles north of Russell, Kan. Thaws following heavy snows have turned fields and roads into quagmires in the area that was suffering under drought just a year ago.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

It was a genuine surprise to Jack Sturtevant to check in at his Washington road home Sunday noon after an early round of golf and find over a score of friends gathered to wish him a happy birthday.

In on the plot were Carl Scott, Jim Tracy and Syd Terry, and they invited their host for an early foursome so Mrs. S. and a crew of gals could prepare the luncheon.

The guests had banded together to buy the birthday honoree a movie projector set and this took some doing as he wanted to buy one himself earlier and had to be dissuaded.

Toasting Mr. Sturtevant were the members of his golf foursome and their wives, the Dan Johnsons, the Ed Chamberlains, and the George William Duffields. Mrs. D. was responsible for the birthday cake, cleverly decked with minute guns, garden tools, golf clubs and workshop replicas to mark their host's hobbies.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beyers, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Pearce, Jr., the James Allens, the Stanley Plopes, the Robert Bacons, the John Worcesters, the Edwin D. Clarkes, the Richard Kimbroughs, the Chauncey Smiths and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, the latter quartet driving in from Birmingham.

Travel Notes

In our international notebook is a line about Mr. and Mrs. Greg Flynn, Jr., who are slipping up their Kensington road home this week in preparation for some visitors.

Coming from Lima, Peru where they have been living for two years will be Mr. Flynn's brother and sister-in-law, the David Flynns, to enjoy a week of festivity.

And doing some last minute shopping before a May 1 sailing date are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Douglas, of Berkshire road, who will be off for Europe and the Brussels Fair on the first of the month.

Swedish Imports

Rare china imported from Sweden just for the occasion was an added attraction for the guests who attended.

Church Plans Fashion Fair

A new and unusual Fashion Fair is to be held at St. Michael's Church on the evening of April 23. Finished garments and millinery will be modeled but, in addition, "Do-It-Yourself" fans will have an opportunity to see displays and demonstrations of many types of handicrafts—among these will be needlepoint, hooked rug making, handbags, knitting, painting, ceramics and jewelry.

Yarncraft of Fisher road, Grosse Pointe, will present hand knit styles which will be complemented by millinery presented by Kern's.

Both the models and the commentators for this show will be members of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Michael's who are sponsoring this affair. Refreshments will be served.

The general chairman of this event is Mrs. Albert J. Wood. Mrs. Edward Knoll will be serving refreshments and Mrs. Donald Rowell is in charge of ticket sales.

The demonstration booths will be open at 7:30 p.m. and the modeling will start at 8 o'clock. Guests are welcome—donation $1.25 per person. The show will be held in the auditorium of the Parish House which is located just behind Howard Johnson's on Mack Avenue.

nue, have left on a European tour. They will visit France, Switzerland, Sweden and Germany.

DR. and MRS. JOHN E. MACZEWSKI with their daughter, PAULA JEAN, will be arriving home in Sunningdale drive shortly from a vacation in Honolulu.

Pair Exchange Vows Saturday Afternoon in Christ Church; Wears Imported Peau De Soie and Chantilly Lace for Wedding

Julie Elizabeth Watson, daughter of the Harrison T. Watsons, of Lincoln road, was married Saturday afternoon in Christ Church to Robert Scott Daugherty, Jr.

For her wedding the bride chose a princess gown of imported white peau de soie fashioned with sabrina neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The bodice of Chantilly lace formed a v in the back and was highlighted with seed pearls and iridescents. The skirt was accented with a small bow and deepened into a full court train.

Her double tiered illusion fingertip veil was held by an open shell cap of Chantilly lace studded with seed pearls and iridescents. Eucharist lilies and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

The attendants were gowned alike in aqua frosted organza made with cap sleeves, scoop necklines and bouffant skirts. Matching ribbon bands were their headresses and the bridesmaids carried daffodils.

Ivonne Lewis came from Sewickley, Pa., to be maid of honor. Her daffodil bouquet was accented with white iris. The bridesmaids were Susan Denler, Lauren Edgar, Lynn Trudell, Mrs. William E. Hosler, of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Mrs. W. Donald Mix, of Westport, Conn., and Mrs. Peter R. Fink.

The bridegroom, who is the son of the Robert Scott Daugh-

Austin High Mothers Meeting on April 23

The Austin Catholic Mothers' Club will hold its April meeting in the school cafeteria on Wednesday, April 23, at 8 o'clock.

A list of the candidates nominated for office will be presented to the members. The high-light of the meeting will be a panel discussion presented by Kappa Gamma Pi.

Refreshments will be served following the panel discussion. The board of directors will meet on Monday, April 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the school.

Play to be Reviewed For Discussion Forum

"Waiting for Godot," a play by Samuel Beckett, will be reviewed and discussed by Vito Abate at the Adult Discussion Forum of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17440 E. Jefferson Sunday, April 20, at 10 a.m.

Dr. Fosmoe To Take Bride

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Hayes, Beachwood Village, O., of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia Marie, to Dr. Robert James Fosmoe, presently serving as a Flight Surgeon on the Staff of Aviation School of Medicine, U.S.A.F., San Antonio, Texas.

The prospective bride, a graduate of the Beaumont School for Girls, is a senior at Western Reserve University in the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing.

Dr. Fosmoe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Fosmoe of Fisher road, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, an alumnus of Princeton University and was graduated in 1956 from the University of Rochester School of Medicine, Rochester, N.Y. He interned and was a resident surgeon at University Hospital, Cleveland.

They plan a June wedding.

tend the Jenny Lind Club spring luncheon and fashion show at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Wednesday.

Irving's fashions were paraded with junior styles modeled by Heidi, Mary Anne, Gretchen and Bonnie Klein, daughters of Mrs. Henry Klein, who attended the party which benefited Northville Hospital.

Mrs. Joseph D. Hadley is prexy of the club and Mrs. Walter W. Wood was chairman of the gala.

Among the guests were Mrs. William J. Champion, Jr., Mrs. John E. Brink, Mrs. Chester Myers, Mrs. Robert Bridge, Mrs. Donald C. Wood, Mrs. Stuart Fraser and Mrs. Bernard P. Pearce.

Mrs. Pearce incidentally has a lead role in this weekend's Fine Arts play, "The Constant Wife."

On Lochmoor's Patio

More fashion and luncheon news comes from Lochmoor which is planning a French patio setting for its club party on Tuesday. The styles will be keynoted for summer wear on the golf links or around the club pool.

Greeting guests beneath a gay striped awning will be hostesses Mrs. James H. Kurtz and Mrs. E. Edward Wilson. Following the fashion show there will be an afternoon of cards.

Among those with reservations are Mrs. Jess Lobdell, Mrs. Robert Pogue, Mrs. Frank A. Colombo, Mrs. Edward Glanz, Mrs. Louis Asmus, Mrs. Jack Ryall, Mrs. Thomas Gallagher, Mrs. Sidney Harvey, Mrs. H. G. Smith and Mrs. Graydon Walker.

Others are Mrs. Thomas Marantette, Mrs. Clarence Bessert, Mrs. E. R. Jennings, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Norman J. Nicholl, Mrs. Leo Huettner, Mrs. Leonard Link, Mrs. Paul Keller, Jr., Mrs. Andrew J. Ruh and Mrs. Julius Tapert.

Bachelors Will Be Hosts

For the past five years the town's bachelors have been throwing a gala party just about this time of year to meet their vis-a-vis at the Hunt Club.

The tea dance has become so popular that this year the proceeds from the "New Girl in Town" party will go to Children's Hospital.

On Sunday guests will be name tagged at the door and over 400 are expected, reports Mary Susan Irving, who is spreading the news of the party.

Another gay evening marked on a number of Pointe calendars is the Theater Arts' Men's Night coming on May 16. That aforementioned, Mrs. Bernard P. Pearce will be giving a dinner before this one.

And we hear that the Boat Club is rehearsing a take off on "Can Can" to be presented May 24. The Players' Invitational will be held the first two week-ends in May making this flowery month a gay one for amateur theater goers all over town.

New Orleans Trip Follows Wedding

Florence Valerie Moroun, Daughter of T. John Moroun, Of Bishop Road, and the Late Mrs. Moroun, Weds Richard Clare McBrien Saturday

Enroute to New Orleans after their Saturday noon wedding in St. Clare of Montefalco Church and the reception at the Detroit Athletic Club were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clare McBrien.

Before her marriage, the bride was Florence Valerie Moroun, daughter of T. John Moroun, of Bishop road, and the late Mrs. Moroun. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Norman H. McBrien, of Eastlawn avenue.

For her wedding the bride chose white Italian silk, fashioned with a rounded neckline and short sleeves of hand drawn rose pointe lace appliqued in tiny pearls.

The princess skirt was draped into a bustle back with a panel of matching lace falling into a chapel train.

A tiara of seed pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried white roses, lilies of the valley and ivy.

Men's Fashions

The bal raglan is a roomy, full-sweep men's coat that brings to mind the look of Sherlock Holmes, or perhaps suggests Heathcliff in a scene from "Wuthering Heights."

The British-inspired outercoat styling is correctly called the Balmacaan. It's a raglan-sleeve garment with bal stand-up military collar that has been a favorite entry in the men's clothing field for some time.

It's so English that a man wearing it might well ask for tea and crumpets in mid-afternoon. But, while English-sired, the Balmacaan coat has gained in importance through its American adaptation.

American clothing manufacturers have put spark and dash into this styling by refining it into something of beauty and practicality. They've used it in raincoats of closely-woven poplins in oyster of natural shades, and some even in the newer synthetic fabrics for washability.

Of course, the rainwear picture contains other models. Such as the set-in sleeve single-breasted model with fly front. And, for those who like the look of the foreign correspondents or the private-eyes seen on television, there's the double-breasted trench-coat model.

But, for men who would emulate Lord Salisbury or the Vicar of Shropshire, there's no better way of achieving the British look than by wearing a bal raglan outercoat. Unless they were to attend Oxford University.

League Organizes Christ Church Sale

Planned Parenthood League Gathering Treasures for White Elephant Sale on May 1; Mrs. Ross Wilkins, Jr. And Mrs. John L. Kenower, Co-chairmen

One hundred volunteers have been combing the city's attics and storerooms for hidden treasures. Their finds are the stuff of which Planned Parenthood's second annual white elephant sale will be made.

The Detroit League for Planned Parenthood is carrying on the venture inaugurated last year as a means of meeting its budget. The white elephant sale will be held Thursday, May 1, in the undercroft of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

In order to fill the tables with the most interesting possible merchandise, 10 captains were appointed. Each captain, in turn, was to round up 10 workers to canvass her friends and neighbors for discarded bric-a-brac, unused wedding presents and assorted less-than-new items which somebody might put to good use.

The central "warehouse" is the recreation room of Mrs. William C. Tost's Cloverly Road home. There, volunteers apply the needed polishing cloth or scrub brush and a price tag. They have received some collectors' items, including silver and Waterford crystal, good-looking jewelry and luggage still adequate to take a youngster to camp. There are also the usual odds and ends, valuable to somebody, and once in a while the inevitable "what-is-it", which could be just what a customer is looking for—if she knows what to do with it.

Chairmen of the project are Mrs. Ross Wilkins, Jr., and Mrs. John L. Kenower. Mrs. Tost and Mrs. Theodore R. Butterick, Jr., are in charge of collection and marking. Helping with collections are Mrs. Nicholas Gimbel and Mrs. Ethel Frewitt. Mrs. William P. Harris III is chairman of cashiers, and Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., is in charge of sales. Mrs. C. D. Blessed was responsible for mailed announcements.

GOP Workshop Starts April 23

Fresh from the stimulation of the National Republican women's Conference in Washington, D.C., the Wayne County Republican Committee is sponsoring a day-long workshop Pow Wow for the women of Wayne County.

Mrs. Charles E. Potter will bring greetings from the Senator and will be one of the honored guests at this first program of its kind for Wayne County women.

"Importance of Women in Politics" is the theme of the session which is set to begin at 10:30 Wednesday morning, April 23, in the Arabian Room of the Tuller Hotel. Principal talk on the subject will be by Mrs. Florence G. Morris, the active and well informed Vice Chairman of the Ohio State Central Committee.

Mrs. Lois V. Nair, Chairman of the Wayne County Republican Committee who arranged for the session, said today that "Statistics show women control 52 per cent of the votes. I believe this emphasizes the great need for women to more actively assume their political responsibility by working at the precinct level."

Audience participation panel discussions and campaign movies are included among the day's myriad activities. Leading state and county speakers who will take part in the program include Mrs. Rae C. Hooker, National Committee-woman; Mrs. Ella Koeze, Vice Chairman of the Michigan Republican State Central Committee; Mrs. Helen Dean representing the National Finance Committee and Mrs. Iva Willmore, Chairman of the Republican Women's Federation of Michigan.

This is one of a series of programs designed to encourage women to actively participate in the coming Republican campaigns. Meetings built around similar themes are being scheduled throughout Michigan to help alert women to do their role in the interests of good government.

Reservations should be made by April 21 at the office of the Wayne County Republican Committee, 323 Majestic Building, Detroit (WO 3-7861). A two dollar registration fee includes the luncheon and all other activities.

Fair Time at Mason School

Mason School parents are preparing for a giant carnival this Friday evening from 7 until 10 o'clock.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Owen Murray and Mrs. C. F. Conway promise a gay party for all with TV's Captain Jolly on hand to greet the tots.

Mrs. Leo Kalb is in charge of a fish pond, wishing well and bean guess concession and Mrs. William Hanson is preparing a picnic and barbeque shop.

Mrs. Ray Steffes, Mrs. Eldon Jones and Mrs. Robert Bradley will man the children's booth and Mrs. James Ziegenfuss will have a bangle and beads counter.

John Lapish, Ted Jacobs and Alan Schaefer will be vending balloons and Kenneth Snyder has the decorating chores. Games are the Kenneth Smith's responsibility with Mrs. Leon Sanker and Mrs. Paris Disanto helping.

Three Mason teachers, Mrs. Clara Doll, Miss Cleva Koch and Miss Sally Halford will cut silhouettes and Mrs. Joseph Fuscini has the all important refreshment duty.

Others aiding with a variety of games and booths are Mrs. S. G. Norton, Mrs. W. Kelly, Mrs. David Westfall, Mrs. Ross Polinghome, Mrs. Douglas Roberts, Mrs. Ellsworth Alison, Mrs. Donald Van Hoek and Mrs. William Potts.

Also on committees are Mrs. Richard Warner, Mrs. Edward Ardner, Mrs. Charles French, Mrs. Charles Chandler and Mrs. Paul Naz.

Guild to Hold Movie Dinner

The Grosse Pointe Guild of S. S. Peter and Paul Missionaries is having a dinner for members, their husbands and friends on Tuesday, April 22. The event will take place at 6:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

A film "The Little Ones", narrated by Loretta Young, will be shown. Mrs. Robert E. Thibodeau, president, urges members to make reservations early with Mrs. Arthur G. Seski, TU 5-8329, or Mrs. Emmett Eagan, TU 4-0214.

Reservations have already been made by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Disser, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wollenzin, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Philip Sloan, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dossin.

Girls Honored By Societies

Women outstanding in scholarship and leadership at the University of Michigan have been selected for membership by five women's honorary societies on campus.

Surprised coeds were "Tapped" in late evening and early morning ceremonies by chains of singing honorary members who wandered through dormitories and sorority houses.

Mortar Board, national senior honorary society, tapped 18 junior women who have maintained a 3.2 ("B" plus) grade average through the fall semester and have been outstanding in leadership and service to the U-M. Sandra Halford, daughter of the R. D. Halfords, of 918 Harcourt road, was the only Pointe girl tapped by this society.

Beverly Harling, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Harling of 1018 Harvard road, was one of the 19 juniors selected for leadership, scholarship and participation in extra-curricular activities by Senior Society.

Members of Wivern, junior women's honorary, tapped 22 new members, Grosse Pointe including Joyce Bushong, Susan Evelyn, Lorna Maguire, Joanne Ortwein, and Elsie Scherer.

Miss Robertson Marries Mr. Feucht

Reception at the Detroit Boat Club Follows Saturday Evening Ceremony in Peace Lutheran Church; Pair Honeymoon in Williamsburg, Va.

Rosepointe lace and silk taffeta was Donna Robertson's choice for her wedding gown when she spoke her marriage vows Saturday evening in Peace Lutheran Church to Charles Henry Feucht, III.

The daughter of Mrs. Bates Robertson, of Kerby road, and John Edward Robertson, of Hollywood, Calif., was given in marriage by her uncle, E. W. Bates.

Her wedding gown was designed with a sabrina neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt deepening into a chapel train. A tiers of seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried stephanotis.

Sandra Robertson was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Lynne Scanes, Nancy Gray and Rhoda Mann. They were gowning in peau de soie pink lavender sheaths with overskirts of net.

The bridegroom, who is the son of the Charles Henry Feuchts, Jr., of Bishop road, asked Jerome Froehlich to be his best man. Ushering were Jack Taylor, Howard Crawford, Richard Gallette and Dale Petrosky.

Mrs. Robertson received guests at the Detroit Boat Club reception in a beige silk and chiffon frock. Mrs. Feucht was in aqua lace over taffeta.

When the couple left for Williamsburg, Va., the bride was wearing a light beige suit with matching hat and tan accessories. They will live in Detroit.

Church Plans Sewing Day

The Women's Organization of the St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, has initiated a sewing day.

Anyone interested is invited to come to the church on the fourth Tuesday of every month to sew bandages for Children's Hospital, cancer pads, and make "sunshine bags" for Luther Haven.

The first sewing day will be held next Tuesday at 10 o'clock. Coffee will be served and the workers are asked to bring sandwiches.

Huebner-Keydel Vows Exchanged

Bride Wears White Silk Taffeta and Alencon Lace For Saturday Afternoon Ceremony in Christ Church; Couple Leave for New Orleans

Cynthia Jane Keydel, daughter of the Oscar Frederick Keydel, of Iroquois avenue, was married Saturday afternoon in Christ Church to Julius John Huebner, son of Mrs. Julius F. E. Huebner, of Rivard boulevard, and the late Mr. Huebner.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white silk taffeta made with a portrait neckline applied in garlands of hand corded Alencon lace and tiny pearls. The princess skirt fell into a cathedral train with more of the lace motifs.

An Alencon lace cap held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of stephanotis, Juliania orchids and ivy.

Mrs. John F. Keydel was her sister's matron of honor in a white Chantilly lace sheath with an overskirt of lilac taffeta. Her headress was a lilac taffeta bow and she carried pink geraniums, violets and ivy.

The bridesmaids, dressed like the matron attendant, were Mrs. Frederick R. Keydel, another sister-in-law; Adele Huebner, the bridegroom's sister; Julia Keydel and Sarah Reid, the bride's cousins.

Janet Keydel, the bride's niece, was flower girl in lavender silk organza trimmed in lace. She wore a floral wreath in her hair and carried a miniature bridesmaid bouquet.

Voters League Elects Friday

A special fashion show entitled "League Fashions" will be one of the featured attractions of the program of the annual meeting of the League of Women Voters, which will be held on Friday, April 18, at the War Memorial Center.

On the agenda following the luncheon will be the yearly message by the president, Mrs. Frank W. Hausmann, Jr., which will be accompanied by a program of colored slides. Important sections of the president's message will be a report on the status of the work on a Constitutional Convention, and a summation of local League accomplishments.

New League business to be voted upon by the membership will be the item for study on the local level for 1958-59, and the election of officers and directors.

Local study items which have been recommended by the Board of Directors are: 1) A study of the Grosse Pointe Schools in light of the basic educational needs of today, and 2) The study of the Government of Grosse Pointe Park with focus on the Council, administration and services performed, in comparison with the other Grosse Pointe municipalities.

Other study items may be brought to the floor by members for consideration of the membership.

Officers appearing on the slate for 1958-59 are: president, Mrs. George J. Brown; 1st vice-president, Mrs. John Remillet; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Taylor Seebor; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. William Krebs; recording secretary, Mrs. H. Ross Hume; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Tom R. Mason.

Directors elected to serve on the board are: Mrs. Harcourt Caverly, Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper, and Mrs. Rudolph Olila. Nominations may be made from the floor by any voting member, provided the consent of the nominee shall have been obtained.

The annual report of the board members, compiled in booklet form, will be presented to the members attending the luncheon to be perused at their leisure.

Many people reach the heights by putting up a big bluff.

AAUW Meeting Set for April 24

The general meeting of the month for the AAUW will be held Thursday, April 24, at 1:30 p.m. at the War Memorial Center. Dr. Jacques Gray will be the speaker.

Dr. Gray is a graduate of Grinnell College and John Hopkins Medical College. He did graduate work at Harvard in Public Health and has worked in California and Michigan in that field. He has served as Dean of the Medical Schools at the University of Oklahoma and the Medical College of Virginia, and is currently Director of Special Medical Services for Parke, Davis & Co.

Dr. Gray will speak on "Recent Advances in Pharmacology." Following the program, tea will be served by Mesdames Edgar Cooper, Charles Ellis, Fred Schumann, Edward Gehrig, Raymond Wilcox, Vincent Norako and Ben Beyer. The Legislative and Social Studies groups of the AAUW will have a joint meeting Monday, April 21, at 1 p.m. Mrs. Phillip Gillis will greet members in her home, 1238 Kensington road. Dr. Douglas Sargent, Director of Juvenile Court Child Study Clinic, will discuss the new Boys Vocational School and other facilities urgently needed in this field.

The contemporary literature members will gather at 84 Handy road, Tuesday, April 22, at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. Alfred F. Taylor and Mrs. Robert H. Snyder will serve as co-hostesses. Mrs. Snyder will collaborate with Mrs. Oswald M. Robbins in reviewing Robert Traver's Anatomy of a Murder and Meyer Levin's Compulsion.

"From Boston to Basin Street" will be the lively topic of conversation for members of the AAUW's Music Group when it meets Wednesday, April 23. They will convene at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hanpeter, 825 Beaconsfield. Miss Virginia Becker and Mrs. Jan Nyboer will co-hostess. The origins, development, and refinement of music with emphasis on ballads, spirituals and jazz will be discussed, and illustrated with records.

The trouble with leaving footprints in the sands of time is proof that many people have traveled backward.

Altar Society Plan Party

The Altar Society of St. Peter Catholic Church, Harper Woods, is sponsoring its annual Spring Card Party on Thursday, April 17. It will be held at the New Roma Hall, in East Detroit, at 8 p.m.

There will be many lovely prizes, and a delicious lunch served for a donation of $1.25.

Any further information on tickets may be obtained from Mrs. M. Trimble, PR 5-3741, or Mrs. W. Joy, TU 1-9662, or at the door.

Alpha Delta Pi Plan Installation Ceremonies

Alpha Delta Pi, the oldest secret society for women, is installing its 91st chapter at Wayne State University this week-end.

Alumnae and active members from all over the state will gather for the ceremonies. Mrs. John W. Paynter will open her home in Grosse Pointe Woods for a tea on Sunday afternoon to climax the activities.

Pillar Temple Women Plan Luncheon Party

The Ladies Auxiliary of Pillar Temple, 14529 Kercheval avenue, will hold a luncheon and card party at the Pillar Temple, 12:30 p.m. next Wednesday, April 23. A donation of $1.25 will cover prizes. Evelyn Orser, LA 7-1807, may be called for reservations.

The auxiliary will hold a rummage sale on May 3. Doors will be open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Linda Hepburn Wed To Jerome Harden

Couple Speak Vows in St. Andrew Memorial Church on Saturday; Bride Wore Princess Gown of Val Lace Over Net with Matching Cap

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome L. Harden will make their home in Fort Wayne, Ind., when they return from a brief wedding trip. They were married Saturday in St. Andrews Memorial Church.

The bride is the former Linda Isabelle Hepburn, daughter of Mrs. Franklin D. Hepburn, of Roosevelt place, and the late Mr. Hepburn. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Harden, of Maison road.

For her wedding she wore a princess gown of Val lace over net with a v neckline and long sleeves. A matching lace cap held her fingertip veil and she carried white spray orchids and ivy.

Mrs. J. F. Nuffer, the bride's sister, and Mary Tower, of Oberlin, O., were the attendants in pale yellow frocks with bouquets of spring flowers.

Lt. Charles John Corey was best man and the ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Roger A. Harden and H. Norman Harden.

Symbolic of the earlier days of American pharmacy was the lighted lamp in the drugstore window. All through the night it glowed, a beacon of hope, a symbol of unselfish service.

Although the historic lamp is now practically extinct, the fundamentals of pharmaceutical practice have changed but little. The responsibilities of the pharmacist are greater today than ever before—he is a vital factor in medical care.

Pointers to Honor Merrill Palmer

Prominent Alumnae of the School Will Arrive this Friday to Attend a Two Day Program; Mrs. Edsel B. Ford on the Entertainment Committee

Prominent alumnae of the Merrill Palmer School, residing in 30 different states, and from 9 cities in Michigan, will arrive on Friday, April 18 to attend a two day program at the School's main building, 71 East Ferry avenue. Each alumna comes from a community where there are 20 or more Merrill Palmer alumnae.

Together with 34 registrants from the Merrill Palmer Association of Metropolitan Detroit, these former students will hear "What Merrill Palmer is Like in 1958".

Friday's program includes a morning orientation session "Bringing you up-to-date" headed by Dr. Pauline Wilson Knapp, Director. Dr. Knapp will fill in the gap between the years when these alumnae attended Merrill Palmer and the full, multi-disciplinary program which the School carries on today.

At luncheon all the group will be the guests of the women who make up the Board of Directors: Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, Mrs. John G. Garlinghouse, Mrs. Dexter Ferry, Mrs. William T. Gossett, Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr., Mrs. John Owen III, Mrs. Cameron Waterman III, Mrs. Harry W. Kerr, Mrs. Serge Daniloff and Mrs. Frank W. Wylie.

The meeting Friday afternoon will be devoted to the new Merrill Palmer Development Program, headed by William Butler, trustee of the school and chairman of its development committee. He will be assisted by Mrs. John G. Garlinghouse, chairman of the board of directors, and Charles R. Brecht, Campaign Director.

Saturday members of the local Merrill Palmer Association are putting on a family fun fest at 71 East Ferry Avenue, to show visiting alumnae a program that can be copied in their own communities. They will conduct a variety of creative activities on "How To" do things that are fun with the whole family participating. There will be a kite making demonstration by Miss Freda Harrington and students from Art Education of Wayne University as well as a famous kite exhibit from the Children's Museum; a Puppet Workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Vernone Tracey; Mrs. M. B. Elliott of the College

Teens to Have Center Dance

There will be no battle and no horseman thundering through the night shouting "to arms" but the teenage sons and daughters of Grosse Pointers who carry on the American Heritage have seen fit to remember what many of their elders have forgotten, the first strokes for liberty which took place in Lexington and Concord way back on April 19, 1775.

Their party which takes place this Saturday, April 19, honors Patriot's Day.

With a Tea base punch which it is hoped will not be dumped into Lake St. Clair, and red, white and blue decorations reminiscent of the Spirit of '76 all the public, private and parochial students in grades 9-12 are invited to the Center to celebrate their liberty. A couples only affair, the dress casual, the dance will last till midnight with Al Ross' orchestra furnishing the music.

Park DAR Chapter To Nominate Officers

For April, a social meeting has been planned for the General Josiah "Harmar" Grosse Pointe Park chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in the home of Florence and Ruth Pendell, on Grizzle West, Saturday 26, at 12:30 o'clock.

A luncheon will be served, followed by a business meeting, when Mrs. John Ottinger, Regent, will preside. Miss Effie Downer, nomination chairman, will read the slate for new officers up for nomination during 1958-1959.

Mrs. Harold E. Doyle and Dorothy Lewis, were some of the officers and delegates who took the Michigan chartered bus trip to attend the D.A.R. Continental Congress, held in Washington, D.C. April 14-18.

Women's Volunteer Service, which meets regularly at Merrill Palmer, will have an exhibit and craft demonstration of children's approved toys; and the Department of Art Education of the Detroit Institute of Arts is contributing instruction in sketching, pottery making and weaving.

Besides the "How To" feature of Saturday's program, which will be open from 10 until 4, there are all sorts of fun activities for the whole family. A small admission charge for the various workshops is intended to cover the materials needed for individual instruction. The public is cordially invited.

Heading the Merrill Palmer Alumnae of Detroit committee is Mrs. James T. Sheridan, General Chairman of the Family Fun Fest Day. She is assisted by Miss Maryellen Gould, President of the local group, Mrs. Betold H. Pasternack, demonstration chairman; Miss Irma Unruh, in charge of booths; Miss Lois Harwood, refreshments; Miss Grace Graveline, finances; and Miss Sally Hepburn, arrangements.

From the Merrill Palmer staff Mrs. Maybelle Stevens, Miss Marian Breckenridge, Miss Flo Gould and Miss Phyllis Delplace are serving on the steering committee, with the entire staff on hand to assist in the demonstrations.

To Show Summer Collection

OLE BORDEN, famous young dress designer and newest star in the fashion firmament, is coming to Grosse Pointe! He will be at Jacobson's Grosse Pointe store tomorrow, to show his complete new line of Donle summer dresses.

Mr. Borden has rapidly captured the hearts and imaginations of sophisticated young women with taste, a flair for style, and a somewhat limited budget. It is to these women that his clothes are dedicated.

Thirty-six-year-old Ole Borden is Danish by birth, international by education, and American by choice. Educated in the Scandinavian countries, England and Switzerland, he early showed an aptitude for languages and art, and started his fashion career as sketcher in a Viennese fashion house.

Cutting, sketching, and designing across the continent, he eventually apprenticed under the great master of European couture, Robert Piguet of Paris, with whom he remained for two years. Then, restless and ambitious, he went to London to work as a designer for several top fashion firms there. Having made a noteworthy name for himself, he moved on in 1952 to the country he had admired since childhood.

His home in suburban Westchester County, where he lives with his wife Vibeke and their three children, provides a welcome rest after the frantic pace of his business days. For Mr. Borden is a perfectionist who must supervise every detail in the production of his designs.

Although he looks like a shy young ivy leaguer, he is in reality a veritable dynamo, ever seeking new ideas that will clothe the American woman in the height of fashion, whatever the height of her budget.

P. E. O. Parley Opens April 17

The annual convention of the Michigan State Chapter, P.E.O. Sisterhood, will be held on April 17-19, at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Detroit. Presiding over the gathering of delegates from 94 chapters will be the state president, Mrs. A. H. Smith, 428 Roland road, Chapter AO.

Of special interest: in the Thursday evening session will be an unusual selection given by the P.E.O. chorus under the direction of Mrs. Mahalia McLeod, Chapter AO.

Featured throughout the convention will be reports on the progress of P.E.O. projects designed to promote opportunities for more women to achieve higher education. The P.E.O. Sisterhood, an international organization of over 130,000 members, maintains an Educational Loan Fund from which assistance is available to high school graduates, college and graduate students, without regard to race, color or creed. This revolving fund, in existence over 50 years, has helped more than 11,800 women with an aggregate amount over $5,000,000.

Enlarging the concept of world peace through education is the aim of the distinctive International Peace Scholarship program, which makes study in American colleges available to an ever-increasing number of women from foreign countries.

Cotley College, owned and operated by the Sisterhood and located in Nevada, Missouri, is also meeting current educational needs. Additional courses in the humanities and mathematics have been included in the curriculum, while an expansion in buildings and facilities has been initiated.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

The low-waistline two-piece effect in spring cottons is new and youthful, especially in the "middy" look.

Garden Club To Have Tea

The Pointe Garden Club will hold its annual guest tea on Monday at 2 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth M. McColl and Mrs. Robert E. Anslow.

Mrs. Lewis Dibble will speak on "Flowering Trees and Shrubs Make One World in Your Garden."

Students to Perform For Tuesday Musicales

Tuesday Musicales will display the talents of outstanding young student musicians in a Student League recital on Tuesday at 10:30 in the Art Institute Lecture Hall.

They are award and scholarship winners in competitions leading to the Interlochen National Music Camp. Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge, of McKinley avenue, was prominent in promoting this activity for the students.

Among the Tuesday Musicales students who distinguished themselves at the camp last summer were Patricia Bogdol, Carol Fenwick, Barbara Finckelstein, Penny Ball and Carol Jewell.

Greiling-Heinrich Troth Announced in Dearborn

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Heinrich of Dearborn, announce the engagement of their daughter, Franziska Lynn, to Frederick C. Greiling, son of the Chester A. Greilings, of Lincoln road. The bride-elect is a sophomore at the University of Michigan where Mr. Greiling is also studying. He will enter the University's School of Medicine.

Finnie-Stoddard Rites Read in East

Anne Stoddard Weds Robert Cole Finnie in Her Southport, Conn., Home Saturday; Wore French Silk Damask and Antique Lace for Ceremony

In the Southport, Conn., home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Stoddard, Anne Stoddard became the bride of Robert Cole Finnie Saturday afternoon.

For the home wedding and reception which followed the bride chose a ballerina gown of French silk damask and a veil of antique lace. Her bouquet was of maidenhair fern, lilies of the valley and eucharist lilies.

Mrs. Charles Lockhart McKelvy, Jr., was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul N. Colby, Jr., of Pasadena, Calif., and Jean Davis Cooke and Martha Pender Thomson, both of New York.

The bridegroom, who is the son of the Haldeman Finnies, of Ellair place, asked his brother, Donald M. Finnie, to be his best man.

Ushering were Howard Eaton, Jr., Paul C. Kelly, both of New York; David H. Finnie, another brother, and Brandon Stoddard, the bride's brother.

Grinnell College Chorus To Sing in Bloomfield

The Men's Glee Club of Grinnell College will present two concerts in Detroit on April 22 and 23. The first will be held in the WWJ Auditorium and the following afternoon the group will sing at Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills.

Among the patrons for the concerts are Dr. and Mrs. Harry Rinefort, of McKinley avenue.

Ever been discouraged when the furniture you've finished yourself has a rough, grainy texture? Dust is the culprit. To avoid it as much as possible, work in a dust-free room and rub the surface with a cloth moistened in turpentine and alcohol after each sanding.

St. Paul Lakers' Track Team Faces Busy Season

With fourteen meets already scheduled, the St. Paul Laker track team has its work cut out for it from April 16 to May 24. Following this busy season the Lakers will compete in the City Parochial meet and the U. of D. Relays on May 28 and 31, respectively.

At the first call for practice three weeks ago, 45 candidates answered but through the rigorous training grind the squad has peeled down to an even 30 stalwarts, which includes twelve returning lettermen. There is at least one letterman in each event.

Tim Hutton is the strong-legged, long-winged lad who will carry the Lakers' colors in the mile run. Freshman Art Schneider appears to have made the grade as Hutton's running mate. Pat Wright and freshman Frank Cobb will handle the 100 and 220 dashes and Wright will also team with Miles Dean and Jerry Krause in the broad jump event. Dean and John Jantz will handle the high jump task. Last season Jantz was a half miler but has chosen to save himself this season.

Senior Tom Parker is the only returning hurdler and freshman Dan O'Leary appears to have the starting assignment along with Tom. Jerry Krause and Tom Fudolf will compete in the shot put event. Jim Kuntzler has freshmen Ken Wujack and John Alter to battle for the 440 starting assignment but his experience gives him the inside track.

Lauer To Be Busy
Marty Peters and Joe Lauer are the only half milers and the latter is going to be the busiest Laker athlete this spring what with dividing his time between track and the baseball team on which he is the catcher.

The Lakers will try their hand at the pole vault event for the first time this year and Lauer and Pat Wright will handle this chore.

The track schedule is as follows:

April 16 — St. Paul - St. Anthony - Redeemer, BELLE ISLE.
April 19 — St. Paul - Cathedral Central - St. Benedict, U. of D.

April 22 — St. Paul - St. Ambrose, BELLE ISLE.

April 25 — St. Paul - DeLaSalle - St. Joseph, BELLE ISLE.

April 28 — St. Paul - St. Catherine - St. Anthony - Sacred Heart, BELLE ISLE.

May 1 — St. Paul - St. Ambrose - DeLaSalle - St. Joseph, BELLE ISLE.

May 7 — St. Paul - St. Charles - St. Marys of Wayne, BELLE ISLE.

May 10 — St. Paul - Redeemer - Servite, U. of D.

May 13 — St. Paul - St. Anthony, BELLE ISLE.

May 21 — St. Paul - Sacred Heart - St. Catherine, Salesian, BELLE ISLE.

May 24 — State Meet, Ann Arbor.

Larry's Bowlers Take Pin Title

John Hall's 548 series paced the league-leading Larry's team to the second half season championship in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League last Friday, April 11.

Needing only one point on the last night to assure themselves of the championship, Larry's bowlers took no chances and whacked second place Goebel for three points to win the crown by five points. The victory qualified Larry's to meet Grosse Pointe Recreation, first half season champs, in next Friday's April 18, season championship roll-off.

The Wigle team split four points with Recreation and gained a tie for second place with Goebel. Woods came within an eyelash of gaining a tie for fourth place. Woods needed a four point sweep over Revere to do it and missed by one point for a clear cut fifth place. Lotsa people we know would settle for a "fifth."

Cramer and Belding each won a game and then tied in one to give Cramer a 2 1/2 to 1 1/2 edge.

Cox and Baker was the only four point winner of the night and they did it to last place Adam Simms, who didn't have a ghost of a chance of emerging from the basement spot even if the points had counted double.

Norm Bearman topped the two hundred-plus keggers with a 234 and was followed by Hap Aalto 231, Stan Small 224, Jim DeSmedt 221, Ernie Borg 221, John Hall 217, Mel Young 216, Art Neat 214, Walt Dolan 214, Don Bayhan 211, Swede Janson 204, Henry Wilson and Dick Griebel 200's.

Final Standings
Larry's	40 1/2
Goebel	35
Bruce Wigle	35
G.P. Recreation	34

Tennis House Title Defended

Defending doubles champions Don McKay and Walter "Pudge" Cavanaugh successfully defended their Tennis House championship last Sunday, April 13, by beating Ted Petersen and Wendell Anderson, Jr., in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3.

The champions reached the finals by drawing a bye in the first round, beating Dr. Robert Behan and Mike Ware, 6-4, 6-1, in the quarterfinals and nipping George Reindel, Jr., and George Reindel, III, 6-0, 6-1, in the semifinals.

The runners-up defeated John Reindel and Alex "Sandy" Wiener in the quarter finals 6-2, 6-4 and tripped Wally Ford and Ralph McElvenny 6-4, 7-5 in the semi's.

This was the twelfth annual tournament and was under the direction of Tobey Hansen, Tennis House professional.

NOTHING HELPS

A weak character is like an old fence—all the whitewash in the world won't strengthen either.

Badminton Tourney Head Puts Back Into Job

BOB BRYANT, second from left, puts his back into his job of tournament chairman for the second annual Grosse Pointe Junior Badminton tourney which will get underway at Grosse Pointe High on April 19. Badminton Club president WES THOMPSON, left, waits for MARNIE HAMMOND'S entry as secretary-treasurer JIM HOWARD helps her fill it out.

Entry blanks are available at all Grosse Pointe schools and the Neighborhood Club. All Grosse Pointers nineteen and a half years and younger are eligible. The tournament will run for three days with the semifinals being played in the two old gymnasiums and the finals in the new Gymnasium.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

The controversial "Bill 528" emerged from the Conference Committee with modifications last week and was passed into law. This is the bill that requires all boat owners, regardless of the size of their craft, to register with the Secretary of State for the purpose of gaining revenue to hire enforcement officers and identifying boats.

The bill in its original form required boatmen on the Great Lakes to register and in some cases in direct conflict with federal navigation regulations.

The law as it now stands excludes the Great Lakes boatmen so you don't have to register your boat if it remains solely on the Great Lakes. Also any boat that is registered with the U.S. Coast is exempt—which includes non-resident boats.

However, a non-resident boat owner who brings his craft to Michigan inland waters must register, but it is easy to do this. All that is necessary is to purchase a registration number at any one of the Secretary of State offices and it can be obtained immediately. Originally the bill required a non-resident to wait two weeks before a number was issued.

The Conference Committee eased the registration for boat dealers who now have only to buy one license which can be switched from one boat to another while testing. It is not necessary to have the registration application notarized.

The Waterways Commission still must sanction all races, trials and regattas that are not sanctioned by the Coast Guard. This will not affect local sailing regattas as they are sailed entirely in Canadian waters. However, powerboat races on the Detroit River must have the Waterways Commission sanction before they can be held.

The bill makes it tough for the negligent water skier who now is liable for his independent acts. Anyone involved in an accident resulting in injury to a person, or damage to property in excess of fifty dollars, must report the accident on a uniform accident report at the nearest sheriff's office, who in turn will report it to the State.

The death of Per Valbo depended on the local boating clan with a resounding crash last week. Per was known as the dean of the "One Stringers," catboats to you landlubbers, and his advice was heeded by veteran and novice alike. Per followed his wife in death within an hour after she had expired after a long illness.

Guys like George Van, Pat Clancy, Fred Meno, Riney Zeidler, to name a few of the old time catboaters, took many a lesson every time Per decided to take to the water. He was a magician with the "one stringers" and brought home the bacon in nearly every regatta he ever sailed on Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River. Gone is the 75 year-old Norwegian tar, but his memory will live on forever in local sailing.

Babe Ruth Loop Tryouts Set

All boys from 13 to 15 years old from G.P. Farms, City and Park are invited to play regulation baseball this season in the G.P. Babe Ruth League.

An outstanding season of organized competition is anticipated by the league's board of directors. Approximately 200 boys who played last year are again eligible. In addition, a talented crop of graduates from 1957 Little League Clubs in the Farms, City and Park is expected to provide real competition for starting line-up positions in the League's major and minor teams.

Try-outs will be held at the G.P. High School Field for boys living east of Rivard. Boys living west of Rivard are to report to the Neighborhood Club Field on Saturday and Sunday, April 19, 20. Thirteen-year-olds are to report at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 19 and again at 1 p.m. on Sunday, April 20. Fourteen and 15 year old boys, including those who played last year, are to report at 2 p.m. on Saturday and at 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Approximately 250 boys have already registered with the league by filling out the "Player Questionnaire" form when they attended the rally program at the High School last Friday. All boys who have registered have also received a "Parent Responsibility Release" form which is to be signed by one of the parents and brought along to the try-outs.

Any boys who have not registered can do so by seeing Howard W. Gnaul at his home, 676 Neff (between Waterloo and Kercheval), on Thursday, April 17, from 7-8 p.m.

Deadline Nears For Big Tourney

Because entries for the second annual Junior Badminton tournament have been slow in coming in, the sponsoring Grosse Pointe Badminton Club officials have been forced to shorten the tournament from three to two days.

The tourney will start on Saturday, April 19, with the semifinals being played in the boys' and girls' gymnasiums at Grosse Pointe High. The finals will be played in the Gymnasium on Sunday, April 20.

So far only 30 entries have been received by general chairman W. Robert Bryant who stated "The girls are still dominating the entry list."

The deadline to enter has been extended to 6 p.m. Thursday, April 17, after which the drawings will be made. Any eligible youngster wishing to enter should send his entry to Mr. Bryant at 687 University, Grosse Pointe 36, Michigan.

Come on kids, the Grosse Pointe Badminton Club is doing you a service by providing a tournament and facilities for some real red hot competition, so why not join the fun?

Chairman Bryant announced the Senior Nationals will be held in Grosse Pointe next Spring under the sponsorship of the Michigan Badminton Association. In this tournament there will be players from all over the world. It will be held the weekend before Easter.

Robert Warner Trains At Fort Leonard Wood

FORT BENJAMIN HARRISON, Ind. — Robert E. Warner, 976 Barrington road, Grosse Pointe, began six months of active duty training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., on April 6, it was announced here by Major General Theodore S. Riggs, Commanding General, VI U.S. Army Corps.

Warner is a member of Headquarters, 70th Infantry Division, Army Reserve, Detroit. At Fort Leonard Wood, Warner will be given basic combat training, and after his return, he will complete his military obligation by serving with the Detroit Army Reserve unit, under the provisions of the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

When fame and fortune are traveling companions fame usually has to take the back seat.

Blue Devil Diamond Team Could Use Many Veterans

With only three lettermen back from last year, the Grosse Pointe baseball team could easily be called the "Green" Devils instead of the Blue Devils. Of the three lettermen only two can be counted on for full time duty.

Senior Bob Herrick is sure to start in right field and Junior Bill Hooth is firmly entrenched at shortstop. "Butch" Hoye, a catcher who saw limited action in the latter games of last season, is slated for limited action in the outfield. "Butch" is still suffering from a painful knee injury sustained in hockey this past winter. His doctor has told him to lay off sports this Spring, but "Butch" is still taking his workouts and hopes to crack the lineup.

Replacements Absent

Coach Ed Wernet said, "We must find replacements at first, second, third, two outfield positions and a backstop, but other than that we have a championship team."

Tenth grader Jack Dow, brother of Bill Dow who was signed by a Cleveland scout a couple of years ago, is showing promise as a second baseman but lacks experience, as do most of the candidates. George Oliver, another tenth grader, is showing up well at third and shortstop and may grab a starting assignment when the Devils open their Border Cities League season against Highland Park on the Parkers' home field Monday, April 21.

Seniors Steve Suor, Bob Libbey and Mike Landers, at this writing are the mainstay of the mound corps. Tenth graders Ken MacDonald, Jon Rice and Al Foraker round out the moundsmen from whom Coach Wernet must build an able staff. Foraker is the only southpaw. MacDonald has been impressive in early workouts and could grab himself a place on the team.

Two Most Experienced

Suor and Libbey are the boys with the most experience. They nearly lettered last year. They saw limited action behind the graduated Dick Dumas, who is now playing Class B ball in the Yankee chain.

Royal Oak appears to be the best bet to repeat as champions of the BCL. Grosse Pointe finished fourth behind the Acorns, Fordson and Monroe, in that order, after a fast start which saw Bob Marceau hurl a no-hitter in the opening game and injure his arm. He was lost for the rest of the season, which was the killing blow to the Devils' chances for the title, with an all veteran team.

Warriors Tie Hockey Series

A sudden death goal by Rocket forward Bill Cook tipped up the Warriors 6-5 Sunday, April 13 and sent the championship series of the Ice Flair winter hockey league into the deciding game Tuesday, April 15.

Cook's goal climaxed a comeback by the Rockets, who trailed 4-2 entering the last period and appeared to be on the verge of elimination after dropping the opening game 5-1.

George Gornick tallied twice and Dennis Ribant and Tom Schervish one each in the first two stanzas to give the Warriors a substantial margin going into the final five minutes. Bob Carlson and Dale Ernst had bulged the twine for the Rockets.

In the third period Rocket defenseman Bill Shinliver fired two counters while Cook collected one to deadlock the game at the end of regulation time. Ribant notched the fifth goal by the Warriors.

In overtime play under "sudden death" conditions, Cook, the league's regular season scoring champion, flipped the puck behind the Warrior goalie Holmes Brown to win the game and keep alive the Rocket's hopes for the title.

Stamped as underdogs before the final series got underway, the Rockets looked every bit the role Thursday, April 10, when the Warriors trounced them 5-1. Stocky defenseman Fred "Nino" Bastianelli blasted his first goal of the season to open the scoring for the winners. Dennis Ribant

(2), Bob Kaspari, and Steve Konieski also tallied for the winners while Bob Carlson averted a shutout for the Rockets with a goal.

The Warriors qualified for the final round by eliminating the Blue Devils in Series "A" competition. After dropping the first game, the Warriors stormed back to capture the next two contests 8-0 and 7-5.

In the final game they withstood a blistering counter-attack from the Blue Devils to emerge as two-goal victors. The Warriors seized a 5-2 lead before the end of the second period, but found themselves fighting to protect a 6-5 margin for the final five minutes.

They survived several frantic goalmouth scrambles and hard shots rattling off the goalposts and broke through for the deciding goal with less than a minute left in the game.

Wright and Wemhoff Doing Well in College

Bob Wright and Dan Wemhoff are doing themselves proud these days at their respective colleges.

Wright recently was awarded a varsity basketball letter at Wayne and currently is a bright spot on the Tartar baseball team as a southpaw pitcher. His coach is already counting heavily on his left wing and his deadly bat to help Wayne to a winning season.

Dan Wemhoff is serving his second term as sports editor on the University of Detroit Varsity News.

Little League

GROSSE POINTE PARK
That old bugaboo, rain, is fine for gardens but not for little league try-outs. The first Park Little League try-out, scheduled for Saturday, April 12 had to be cancelled due to wet grounds.

George Schultz, who is in charge of try-outs, reports he has moved the April 12 schedule down to April 19. All boys 9 and 10 whose birthday falls between the 16th and 31st will report at 9 a.m. April 19 and all boys 9 and 10 whose birthday falls between the 1st and 15th will report at 1 p.m. April 19.

In addition the original schedule for the 19th will continue. All boys 11 years old will report to diamonds 1 and 2 at 9 a.m. All boys 12 years old will report to diamonds 3 and 4 at 1 p.m.

The board of directors is going ahead with plans for the opening game which had been scheduled for Saturday, May 17. Russ Peebles will be in charge of preparations and the program for the fifth annual opening.

Karl Sims, board member and in charge of the playing field, reports the new fourth diamond is completed and ready for play. He is still amazed that he was able to get a fourth diamond in Defer field and compliments the former members on their excellent planning in laying out the other three diamonds.

Hi Dee Keglers Take Over Lead

Hi Dee keglers moved into first place in the Grosse Pointers Bowling League last Friday, April 11, despite their two point loss to seventh place Stapleton.

It took a record performance by J. C. Music, who posted new single and three game records in beating league-leading Sportsmen for three points which dropped the latter down into a two-way tie with J. C. for second place.

J. C. Music rolled a single game team mark of 966 and then continued to post the three game team standard at 2714.

Beaupre stayed in the running with a three point win over Jim's which gave them third place, two points off the new leader's pace.

Lusch nailed Piche for two points, Kopp's dropped two to Lakepointe and Custom Two took two points from Custom One.

Bob Stapleton paced the two hundred-plus bowlers with 247 and was followed by Ray Scholmer 246, Bill Gianini 239, Roy McCarter 227, Walt Therssen 214, Ed Partzyka 211, George Kaatz 208, Rick Ricard 206, Ed Piche, Sam Dinoto and Nick Peplinski 204's and Joe Hupfer 200.

To Hold Dance At Lakepointe

Lakepointe Country Club's 1958 season will open this Saturday, April 19 with a dinner-dance for members and guests.

If the weatherman co-operates, the daylight hours will be sunny for the golfers, but rains may come for the cocktail hour, for the theme of the party will be "April showers."

The entertainment committee, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bickel and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Charles, will supervise the decorations. Gay parasols filled with greens will festoon the club. Tiny umbrellas with yellow jounquills will serve as centerpieces and favors for the ladies.

The evening's festivities will begin at 7 o'clock. Louis G. Palmer, president, will be host during a "fountain punch" hour preceding the dinner, to honor new members.

Reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Herman V. Artt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Witt, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Bonstra, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Evenden and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Lynden Ruester, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Quello, and Dr. and Mrs. J. Pearson Stanley.

To Give Show At Monteith

The P.T.A. of Monteith School is sponsoring an original Musical-Drama-Variety Show, "That's Show Biz," on Thursday and Friday, April 24 and 25, at 8 p.m., in the auditorium.

This show is an outgrowth of an impromptu entertainment staged by members of the Monteith Faculty, during a Pot Luck Dinner last November. The terrific enthusiasm among the members, and the wealth of talent available, prompted Jack Darvill, a sixth grade teacher, to write and compose the music for "That's Show Biz." Practically the entire Monteith staff will take part in the production.

While this show is naturally of local interest, considerable community and outside interest is being evidenced due to the quality of the production. The musical review has some excellent (up until now) No-Hit tunes such as, "My Gal's a Beast," "Scratch a Match," and others, beautifully sung by the "Nevilly Brothers."

Fathers will be around the community selling tickets at your door. They are also on sale at Arnold Drugs, 20853 Mack, Harkness Pharmacy, 20315 Mack, Woods Drug Centre, 19291 Mack, and Punch and Judy Toyland, 97 Kercheval.

The Monteith P.T.A. is particularly happy to sponsor "That's Show Biz," because the proceeds will be used to help build up the library more rapidly, and to provide for teachers and children, additional library books, reading aids, and other similar materials over and above the school's regular budget allowance. This is particularly necessary since the Monteith School is not within walking distance of any public library.

Donations are still more than welcome, and the general public is invited to the sale. Proceeds will help maintain the clinics which the Detroit League for Planned Parenthood operates for women who have no place else to go for help in spacing their families.

Troth Told

At a cocktail party last week Mr. and Mrs. T. Jack Henry, of Sunningdale drive, announced the engagement of their daughter, CAROL ANN, to Peter Dewey Whitman.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School and attended Bennett Junior College. She was presented to society at a dance at the Country Club in December, 1956.

Mr. Whitman, son of the Oscar L. Buhr, of Lakeland avenue, attended Choate School, Cornell University and the University of Michigan.

Betrothal Told

The engagement of Ann Elizabeth Orebaugh to Jack Lewis Gleason has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Orebaugh of McKinley avenue.

Ann will this summer receive her B.A. degree in education at the University of Michigan where she is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gale Gleason of Traverse City. He is a graduate of Central Michigan College and a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. Having taken his Masters at the University of Michigan, he is currently completing his professional training in the School of Dentistry at Northwestern University.

The young couple will be married in the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church on June 14.

Pte. Painters Plan Exhibit

The Pointe Painters will hold an exhibit of their oil paintings at L. B. King's in the Fisher Building from April 21 through April 26.

The exhibit will be open from 10 until 4 o'clock. King's famous Cafe Espresso will be served and all are invited.

The Pointe Painters are a group of fifteen Grosse Pointe women who are renewing their interest in oils. They have their own studio and seek professional help in their studies whenever they feel the need.

The artists who will be exhibiting are Ester Bigley, Grace Cardoff, Mary Charles, Toula Dirksen, Harriet Gallette, Marge Harms, Corrine Howard, Ruth Kemp, Madeleine Livermore, Joanne Long, Betty O'Connell, Jean Strange, Barbara Wallbridge, Lucy Wetzel, and Emily Wolf.

Betrothed

At a cocktail party Saturday April 12 in their Edgemore road home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blount Slade Jr. announced the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Robert Loomis Connelly.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Grosse Pointe Academy of the Sacred Heart and Newton College of the Sacred Heart in Newton, Mass. She made her debut at the Detroit Athletic Club during the Christmas season of 1952.

Mr. Connelly is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard C. Connelly, Three Mile drive. He attended Georgetown University and was graduated from the University of Detroit. He is affiliated with Delta Phi Epsilon fraternity.

The young couple plan an August wedding.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Humphrey, of Three Mile drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, CAROL DHYAN, to Thomas William Strahan, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Strahan, of Lauder avenue.

The bride-elect will be graduated from Wayne State University in January, 1959. She is a member of Sigma Sigma.

The prospective bridegroom, who now lives in Toledo, is an alumnus of Wayne and a member of Theta Tau.

Church Guilds Plan Meetings

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Michael's Episcopal Church of Sunningdale, announces the April meetings of the eight Guilds into which it is divided, will be held as follows:

The Day Guilds holding luncheon meetings at 12:30 on April 22 include St. Cecilia's Guild which will meet at the home of Mrs. Sydney Gilliat, 1371 Hampton road, co-hostess, Mrs. E. M. Elliott; St. Catherine's Guild at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Owen, 281 Lothrop, co-hostesses, Mrs. Joel Childs and Mrs. Alexander McCoy; St. Margaret's Guild members will convene at Mrs. William T. Erringer's home, 20739 Young lane, co-hostess, Mrs. John McClellan; St. Mary's Guild will meet at Mrs. John Bennett's, 663 Lochmoor, co-hostesses, Mrs. Robert Bodycombe and Mrs. Franz von Schwarz.

The four evening Guilds will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, April 28. St. Hilda's Guild at the home of Mrs. Donald Rowell, 22631 Avalon, St. Clair Shores, co-hostess, Mrs. Peter Gilezan; St. Martha's Guild at the home of Mrs. Richard Clifton, 20644 South Maple Lane, co-hostess, Mrs. Jack Manko; St. Elizabeth's will be at Mrs. Robert Hess' home on 3829 Harvard and she will be assisted by Mrs. Donald Ball. St. Agnes Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Sam Kiswinney, 1181 Oxford Rd., co-hostess, Mrs. Merrill B. Dillon.

At the March Auxiliary meeting the members heard several speakers from Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, explain the formation and growth of prayer groups, their purpose and rewarding experiences.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Wyckoff, of Grayton road, announce the engagement of their daughter, NANCY, to James S. Macintosh, son of the James D. Macintoshes, formerly of Detroit, now of Utica. They have set a July 11 wedding date.

Austin Moms To Give Show

The Austin Catholic Mothers' Club has planned a Spring Card Party, Luncheon and Fashion Show. It will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on April 22 from 12 until 4 o'clock.

The fashion show will be put on by Walton-Pierce of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Judy Gibson will be the co-ordinator. Mrs. Elwood Watcher and Mrs. Joseph Kasper are chairmen of the affair.

Mrs. Joseph VanDeweghe, Mrs. John Moteschall and Mrs. Victor Deschryver are working on the arrangements. Mrs. Louis Decker, assisted by Mrs. George Blake, has taken over the tickets. Mrs. Kenneth Zosel and Mrs. Dan Hodgman are on the prize committee.

Mrs. Edward Howell assisted by Mrs. James Yesko has taken over publicity. The proceeds will be used to buy vestments for the priests for Austin's new Friary, which should be completed in June.

Feature Page

By Pat Talbot

The late Mrs. Isabella G. B. Lothrop was one of the fortunate daughters of an early Pointe family who enjoyed our town in all its rustic beauty early in the century. She has recorded her memories of a summer outing from Windmill Pointe to Presque Isle in an article read in the early 1920's to the members of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter, DAR, which captures all that early flavor of wild nature and historic lore.

There are not many old Detroiters left now who remember the "Grand Marais"—Big Marsh, as the degenerate descendants of the early French settlers used to call it. It began at Connor's Creek and rolled away in a prairie-like sweep of coarse marsh grass, to the river on one hand and the distant purple woods on the other as far up as Fox Creek, its northern boundary.

Away toward the east along the river's edge a stunted growth of willows and poplars broke the dead level of its monotonous line, and the lighthouse rising stiff and white above the scanty herbage, redeemed with a touch of human interest the lonely scene.

"Presque Isle, almost an island, was the pretty French name for the distant shady knoll that lay beyond the reedy sea, as isolated and nearly as inaccessible as any island. Here the lighthouse people lived in solitary seclusion, their only neighbor a hermit Frenchman who lived on Windmill Pointe, and who spent his days hunting muskrats and his nights in getting drunk.

The main approach to Presque Isle was by the waterway but in certain seasons of the year one might reach it by the mainland driving through Poupard's lane (Bishop road) to the beach, and thence along the shore to Windmill Pointe.

"One of our early jaunts to Presque Isle stays in my memory. It was a lovely midsummer's day and a good breeze had tempted the boys of the party to sail down to the lighthouse. They started ahead with the lunch baskets, and my mother and Miss Jane Brush followed them on land with the 'young fry' stowed away in a double seated road wagon built to hold four and made to carry six in a pinch.

"We had gone . . . about halfway when our old nag came to a sudden halt before an evil-smelling quagmire that barred our way. 'Oh, go along, Bess,' said my mother clicking the reins. But Bess refused to budge. I felt that a horse's instinct should be respected, but the old adage, 'A child is to be seen and not heard,' was strictly enforced with us, so I sat silent. The tugs were loosened from the whiffletree and I was ordered down the shaft to unbuckle the girths. Reluctantly I crept out on the shaft. But the mare did not wait for me. With a desperate forward lunge she freed herself, leaving me in her place in that filthy slough of despond.

"Perhaps it was the remoteness and 'ungetableness' of Presque Isle that endeared it to the hearts of Grosse Pointe children, or it may have been the mystery that enshrouded it that lent it its charm. To us it was enchanted ground, haunted by memories of a wild and romantic past, and we loved it with the enthusiasm of adventurous youth."

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Off to attend a first in the nation's capital this Thursday is Mrs. Frank Coolidge, one of our most prominent musically minded citizens. She will be attending the first Inter-American Music Festival, sponsored by the Pan American Union and the Collidge Foundation in Washington.

Many chuckles at the Country Club last week for the small boy standing on tip toes at the candy counter asking for two bars and explaining earnestly that it was all right now, Lent was over.

Golfers at the Country Club had no difficulty in spotting William Clay Ford as he traveled around the course last Sunday for he was sporting a vivid fire engine red v necked sweater.

Many gorgeous matrons attended the Daugherty-Watson wedding on Saturday where the sun shone on a radiant bride and made possible a most pleasant reception in the huge tent erected on the grounds of the Watsons' Lincoln road home. Mrs. William Denier looked radiant, her deep brunette coloring set off by a warm bouffant pink satin frock, the ensemble complemented with matching hat and satin slippers.

And more wedding fashion notes . . . Mrs. Julius Huebner's exquisite French watered silk gown in shades of green in which she played mother of the bridegroom Saturday at her son's wedding to Cynthia Keydel, was designed and stitched by her daughter, Adele Huebner.

PILFERINGS

A stranded English actor went into a sordid eating-house in New York for a cheap meal, and was horrified to recognize the waiter as a colleague who had played with him in London.

"Great Scott!" he gasped. "You, a waiter in this place?"

"Yes, but I don't eat here," replied the other with dignity.

"Henry wants me to take a trip around the world," said a bright young wife, "but I'd rather go somewhere else."

He took misfortune like a man—blamed it on his wife.

A Boston lady, finding a stranger next to her at dinner, asked him politely where he lived.

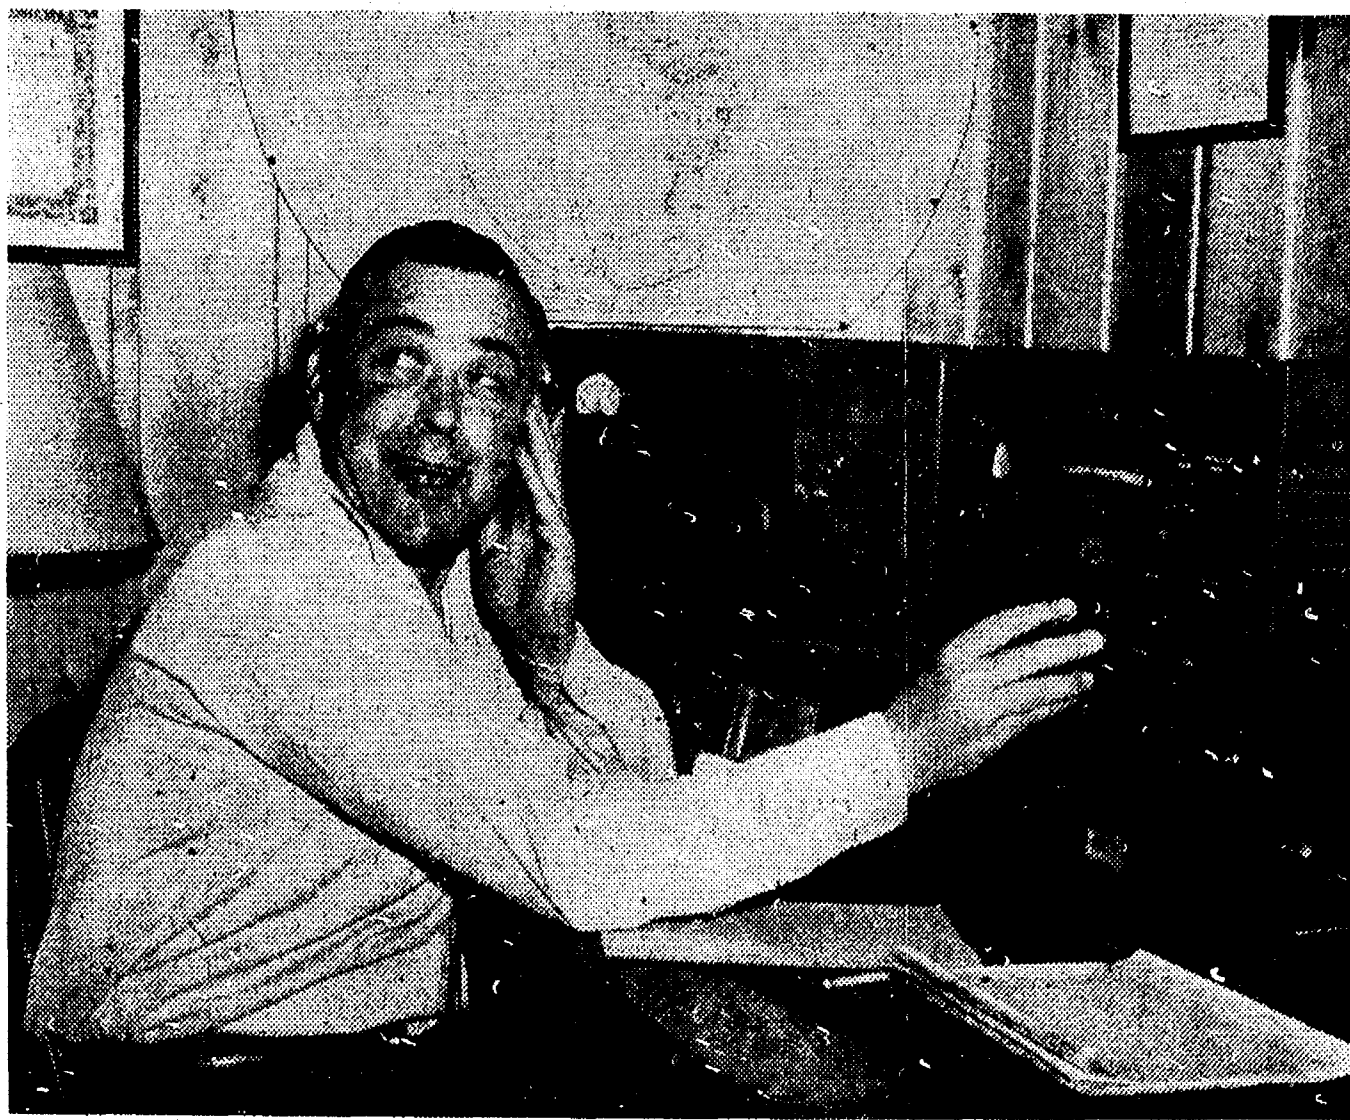

"Out West," he replied. "It's two nights on the sleeper from Boston."

"Oh," she said, "a sleeper. How interesting. I've always wondered what they were like."

"Have you never been on one?" he asked.

"No—you see, I was here already."

Pointer of Interest

By Patricia Talbot

THEODORE GROAT, OF HARVARD ROAD

Theodore Groat can be in contact with several friends behind the Iron Curtain every day from his recreation room on Harvard road. He is a radio ham, one of about 100 in the Pointe area, and his QSL card has gone to about 160 foreign countries and every one of the 48 states.

In ham jargon a QSL card is the card sent from one radio ham to another verifying two-way radio contact, either by code (international Morse) or phone. From Leningrad Mr. Groat has received mail and cards signifying his conversations with Russian hams.

All amateur radio transmitters are under the jurisdiction of the Federal Communications Commission and their licenses may be rescinded for infractions of the FCC's stringent rules. The first license an operator gets is his novice, after passing a test which is standard throughout the nation.

FCC License

Within a year he must graduate to a general license as his novice will not be renewed. Mr. Groat went all through this in the past 5 years. He has been president of the Detroit Amateur Association and is a prominent member of the American Radio Relay League.

Radio hams come in several categories. Some do it for fun, some like to contact as many foreign countries as possible, some like the public service involved, some prefer the technical end, some are interested in national contests and some are "rag chews," who just like to chat.

Mr. Groat right now is interested in DX, distant contact. He is trying to reach as many countries as possible. Code chats with Antarctica, Okinawa, Russia, Lebanon and Czechoslovakia are every day occurrences with him.

Helps GIs

In the past, however, he has been able to help many GIs, stationed in distant lands, talk to their families in the Detroit area. A young father in Alaska talked to his wife after the birth of their baby, a mother reached her son flying at 30,000 feet over Casablanca, a soldier in Puerto Rico was reassured when he learned of his mother's illness . . . all with the help of W8ONA, Mr. Groat's call.

All radio hams are off the air the minute war is declared. Many of them have special radios near their transmitters, as Mr. Groat, does, flashing the red Conradal signal. When that signal stops it means an alert and they must go off the air. The FCC may fine up to $10,000 for improper usage, profanity, playing of records—the calls are constantly monitored. Other hams cut in on the bands and it would be difficult for an operator to get away with anything illegal.

was through their son that the Groats found Mr. G's call card in the USSR, an exchange magazine published in the United States under Russian direction. Mr. Goat had made contact with Vasileshenko about two years ago but had never had it acknowledged. He had sent his call card but never knew whether it reached its destination. All ham cards are sent to a central bureau in Moscow and then sorted and delivered. Here there are bureaus for several areas.

There is little nationalism among radio hams. Politics are never discussed. The operators talk about their families, their lives, and of course, their hobby. Most of them are tolerant, understanding men and women, their radio bringing them as close to strangers in India or the Canary Islands as to their next door neighbors.

The whole world is within their transmitter's reach. This gives them a special knowledge of the shrinking world in which they live and makes them valuable ambassadors of the American way of life.

In USSR Magazine

The Groats' son doesn't share his father's hobby although he did take up radio work with his scout troop. His chief interest is hydroplaning. But it

Experience proves that saying nothing at the wrong time is just as effective as saying the right thing at the right time.

PORK CHOPS IN FOIL

Contributed by

Marilyn Buck Parr

(This recipe came in the mail from a former Pointer who now lives in California and wanted to share it with News readers.)

4 or 5 pork chops aluminum foil butter.
package of Liptons dehydrated onion soup

Cut squares of foil large enough to fold over each chop. Dot center of square with butter and a large spoonful of dried soup. Place chop over this and top with more butter and soup. Wrap securely and place in 350 degree oven for 45 minutes. This recipe can also be used with chunks of round steak.

St. Paul Dads Plan Roundup

Members of the Dads Club of St. Paul's School, Grosse Pointe, will be hosts at the "Spring Roundup" Square Dance, in Monteith School, Saturday night, April 26, at 8 p.m.

Monteith School, which offers unexcelled facilities for square dancing, is located at 1275 Cook road.

The "Spring Roundup" Square Dance will conclude a season of square dances sponsored by the Dads Club during the current school year. The dance will be called by Wes and Julie Rea, widely noted for their geniality and calling skill. A half-hour instruction period for beginners will precede the dance program.

All friends and patrons of St. Paul School are cordially invited to attend the dance. The proceeds will be used to help defray the costs of outfitting St. Paul grade school football and basketball teams. Donation is $3 per couple.

Runar M. Anderson is general chairman of the dance and is assisted by a committee composed of Robert Ayrault, Francis Labadie, John Miller, Fred J. Schreiber and Joseph P. Wright.

Dance Classes Holding Party

The 275 young people, grades 5-9, who attend Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson's ballroom dancing classes at the War Memorial Center, will be feted with a closing dance complete with orchestra, entertainment, refreshments and favors on Friday, April 18, from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

The favors are especially interesting this year. They are cognate for the girls and for the boys original games of skill which the Wilsons ran into on one of their recent Caribbean cruises.

In charge of arrangements for the party are Mrs. George Hagen and her husband who will be assisted in decorating by Mrs. Edward A. Miller, Mrs. E. W. Jewett and Mrs. J. D. Langston.

Helping to serve and chaperone will be Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gould, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hillock, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Riegle and Mr. and Mrs. William Coddington.
