FOUR YOUNG BOYS died Wednesday afternoon while playing in a railroad hopper car containing 60 tons of salt. Police said two companions of the dead youths admitted twisting the levers which dumped the other boys through the hopper under the salt.

The two said they tripped the release by hand, then, standing beside the gondola, pounded the locking levers loose with a two-by-four The intention was for the others to "ride" the salt out of the car.

However, it didn't work that way. The doomed four shot down — and stuck. Their friends summoned help from a bowling alley, but some 40 volunteers failed to rescue them in time to save any of the four lives.

VICE PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon cut short his visit to Venezuela and arrived in San Juan, Puerto Rico Wednesday night. He arrived in Washington Thursday morning.

His welcome in San Juan, by 700 odd persons, was a warm one—in sharp contrast to the stoning and rioting that he had experienced Tuesday in Venezuela.

Meanwhile, in the U. S. President Eisenhower and and other Washington top officials give the Nixons a "roaring welcome" home in respect for the courage and calm which the two maintained throughout their riot-ridden South American tour.

A PORT HURON BANK messenger was robbed of $31,500 Monday moments after he drove over the Blue Water Bridge to Canada. The messenger was waylaid and shot at in the holdup at 8:10 a.m., about 500 yards from the bridge.

Authorities said the well-executed crime apparently had been planned long in advance. The money, in cash and silver in five canvas bags, was the regular weekly Canadian currency deposit of the Michigan National Bank of Port Huron.

RUSSIA FIRED a one-and-a-half-ton satellite into orbit around the earth Thursday with rockets of tremendous power. Scientists viewed it as a prelude to a Rusian shot to the moon.

Premier Nikita S. Krushchev hailed the satellite, the third to be sent into orbit by Russia, as a demonstration of Communist superiority over the United States.

The satellite, a cone-shaped tube, whirled though space on a southwest to northwest direction on an orbit of 64 degrees in the equatorial plane and was trailed closely by the fourth and final stage of the launching rocket. It circles the earth every 106 minutes.

THE HARD-PRESSED French Government asked Parliament Friday for emergency police powers to deal with riots, chaos and rightist uprisings in behalf of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

The government faced a specter of the rightist De Gualle returning to power from bitter oblivion. He already has the mobs and military people who hold Algeria in defiance of the Paris agreement.

Premier Pierre Pflimlin's two-day-old government went into a mid-morning session of Parliament Friday with its appeal for a state of emergency —just short of martial law— in all continental France. The request does not include Algeria.

JAMES R. HOFFA, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, lost a bid Thursday for dismissal of a wiretap indictment against him. Federal Judge Thomas F. Murphy denied Hoffa's motion for dismissal and ordered him to stand trial next Tuesday.

Another Little League Season Gets Underway

Tax Level Maintained In Woods

Increase in Property Valuation Keeps Rate at $14.55 per $1,000

The Woods has been able to maintain its same tax rate level with that of last year because of an increase in assessed property values, it was brought out at a public hearing on the budget on Monday, May 19.

As of January 1, 1957 ,the assessed property valuation in the city was set at $48,201,540; and as of January 1, 1958, the figure was $51,420,380. This increase in valuation is credited with keeping the tax rate at $14.55 per $1000 assessed valuation.

The council, at the meeting, approved a 1958-59 budget of $1,169,436.53, as compared to the 1957-58 budget of $1,159,966.35, an increase of $9,470.18.

The expected revenues from the different utilities are sufficient to take care of expenditures, according to official figures. The revenues and expenditures for these are the same: water utility, $158,825; sewage utility, $36,950; and parking meter utility, $15,000.

Other sources of revenue are expected from the following: city taxes, $748,166.53; and miscellaneous revenue, $210,495, both of which total $958,661.53.

City governmental expenditures from July 1, 1958 through June 30, 1959, have been set at these figures:

Administration, $163,261; public safety, $260,429; public

School Playgrounds Used By Thousands of Pointers For Variety of Activities

Many Residents Other Than Students Find Recreation Through Use of Many Facilities of Public System

Thousands of people each year use the Grosse Pointe Public School playgrounds for other than school activities, Bert Wicking, President of the Board of Education, said when he attended the opening games of Grosse Pointe's Little Leagues last weekend.

"Not only do we have upwards of two thousand boys playing Little and Babe Ruth League baseball on our grounds," he said, "but through the year we have many other groups using our outdoor athletic facilities.

"Listed among the many organizations making community use of these areas, in addition to baseball, are Little League, and Jack Lowther Junior Football groups with some two to three hundred boys participating, police and firemen groups, meetings of Brownies, Boy and Girl Scout Organizations, athletic use by parochial schools such as St. Paul's, St. Ambrose and St. Joan of Arc and various miscellaneous usages including model aircraft and kite flying and general child recreation."

Little League Biggest

"By all odds the largest groups are the Little Leaguers," Mr. Wicking stated, "Wood-Shores Little League uses five of our school playgrounds and two in the same area are used by the Babe Ruth League. Grosse Pointe Woods and our School officials cooperate to keep the diamonds in first class condition."

"Fields for either Little League or Babe Ruth baseball are located on the school playfields of Defer, Maire, and the High School as well as at Parcells, Mason, Monteith, Ferry, Poupard and Barnes. Poupard is used by the Harper Woods Little League."

"Hundreds of parents attend the games in which their boys are playing. For instance, over 1500 spectators watched the Woods-Shores opening game and about 750 attended the opener of the Park League

Park Taxes Stay Same As Last Year

Council Approves Budget of $1,358,585. With Rate Remaining at $16.95 Per Thousand

The cost of government in the Park has gone up $21,940.43 for the fiscal year 1958-59, but the tax rate is the same as last year.

The Park council on Monday, May 19, approved a budget of $1,358,585.36, as compared to $1,336,644.93 for the 1957-58 budget. The tax rate is the same as last year, $16.95 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

The budget requirements for the year beginning July 1, 1958 through June 30, 1959, are as follows:

General government, $43,500.80; finance, $33,991.62; public safety, $370,619.87; parks and recreation, $47,620.90; public works, $345,784.42; water supply, $139,242.20; public health and welfare, $3,400; contingency, $61,500; insurance and pensions, $86,165; debt service, $103,660.55; and improvement reserve, $123,100.

Revenues are expected from these sources:—property taxes, $785,800; miscellaneous revenue, $299,410; Water Department revenue, $156,705; and surplus reappropriated, $116,670.36.

Burglars Visit Farms Home

Farms police are seeking the burglars who broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gmeiner, 160 Country Club drive, on Friday, May 16, and took a silver service set and a hi-fi record changer and 70 records valued at a total of $1,100.

According to Farms Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem, the thieves must have entered through the kitchen door leading into the garage, which was found open by Mrs. Gmeiner when she came home at about 2 a.m.

The officers said that the value of the silver set was given at $300; and the changer and records, $800. The theft was not discovered until the Gmeiner family got up for breakfast.

The detectives said that Mrs. Gmeiner told them that she had left the house at about 11 a.m. Thursday. During the day, a downtown store delivery was made to the house, with the goods placed just inside the kitchen door which was left unlocked.

She returned home and left again at about 7 p.m., and her husband left about 8 p.m. He returned home about 10:15 p.m., but did not notice anything amiss, she said.

When she returned home, she said, she saw the kitchen door open about three-quarters of an inch, and saw several pieces of straw on the floor, but did not think anything of this.

The silver set is comprised of a tray, a coffee and a tea pot, sugar bowl, creamer, and chafing dish. A small cup, part of the set was found in the front yard, apparently dropped by the thieves.

Garage Builder Sued By City

Grosse Pointe City Judge Douglas L. Paterson reached a decision Monday night, May 19, regarding the case of the City vs. Clarence Bessert, building contractor, on a charge of non-compliance with the City's building code and ordinance.

Mr. Bessert, who built the garage facilities at the rear of the terraces located on the south side of St. Paul, on Neff lane, between St. Clair and Neff, had refused to erect the required fire walls in those buildings. The City, after waiting all fall for him to comply with the code, finally took the case to court, and Judge Paterson found Bessert guilty on all counts.

Accordingly, he must make the required alterations within 60 days, or answer to the court.

Party Crashers Invited To Attend Court Session

A teen-age slumber party at the Donald P. Schuur residence, 870 Washington road, in the absence of the girl's parents, resulted in not much fun for all concerned—and some degree of trouble for several.

The Schuurs had gone away for the week-end and left the housekeeper in charge. On Friday night, May 16, the daughter chose to give a slumber party for several of her teenage girl friends. Word of the social function apparently spread, for at 9:53 p.m. the City police station had a complai... from neighbors that a group of boys had crashed the scene and were raising a royal rumpus.

A scout car was dispatched to party headquarters and the youths were sent on their way, with ample warning about disturbing the peace and possible consequences.

A second call to the station, at 10:24 p.m., sent police back on the double and they rounded up five youths, booking them on disorderly person complaints—serving each with a command invitation to appear at court.

The uninvited included Nicholas H. Kerns, 17, of 1342 Berkshire road; Michael J. Kroeyr, 18, of 77 Vernier road; Ronald E. Gouin, 17, of 424 Belanger road; Kenneth McLellan, Jr., 18, of 439 Manor road; and Jack F. Krause, 17, of 1576 Hampton road.

Farms Pumps Set Record as Drought Conditions Prevail

Consumers Use Almost as Much Water the First 19 Days of This Month as for Entire May 1957

Records at the Farms Water Pumping Station showed almost as many gallons of water have been pumped the first 19 days of May as were pumped throughout all of May last year it was disclosed by Farms City Manager Sidney DeBoer.

The City manager said that as of Monday, May 19, the records showed that 85,000,000 gallons of water had been used by consumers in the Farms and City, the latter the Farms' only customer.

The total capacity pumped for the entire month of May last year, said Mr. DeBoer, was 86,000,000.

New Record Set

The total gallons for the 19 days of this month almost equals that of last month, when it was shown that consumers used 89,540,000, the highest of any April in the history of the Farms Water Pumping Station.

The April 1957 figure was 72,770,000. of which 3,120,000 gallons were sold to the Shores, which as of February 1 of this year discontinued as a Farms customer and began receiving all of its water from Detroit.

Saturday, May 17, saw the highest number of gallons pumped during a single day so far this month, when capacity reached 6,770,000 gallons, Mr. DeBoer said.

Memorial Center Drive Shy $3,500

As Memorial Day, the official end of the drive nears, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center's Campaign donations continue to come in slowly. There have been many new contributors to the Center this year. A total of 2,626 families have already made donations as compared to the 2,539 who had contributed by Memorial Day last year.

Many of the givers of last year and previous years have still to be heard from. There are more than 400 families whose gifts last year totaled approximately $8,000 who still have not contributed this year.

Board members and volunteers are staging a telephone reminder effort this week and next in hopes of encouraging many givers of record to get their gifts in by Memorial Day.

Receipts as of May 20, just 10 days from Memorial Day, showed $34,065.98 received as compared to $33,938.33 on the same date in 1957. A total of $37,500.00 is needed from the community to balance the Center's $135,455 budget for operating in the fiscal year beginning August 1.

The board of directors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial association wants to extend its sincere appreciation to the following recent generous donors to the campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Januarius A.

Burglars Get $1,142 In Bar Loot

Owner Witnesses Crime; Chases Thieves' Car and Gets License Number

A Park bar owner, who witnessed two burglars stealing from his establishment early Sunday morning, May 18, chased the thieves car on foot and got the license number which he turned over to the police.

The burglars, described as young men, took about $740 in cash and approximately $402 worth of liquor from the bar.

A teletype, with a description of the car and license number, was sent over the police communication system, and within a short time Detroit authorities arrested a suspect at his home in Detroit.

Claimed Car Stolen

Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders said the suspect, name withheld until the investigation is completed, is the owner of the car. The suspect, when apprehended, claimed the car had been stolen from in front of his home.

The owner of the bar, Maurice Verdonckt of 1491 Beaconsfield, told police that he had closed his place about 3 a.m., and while walking to his home across the street, noticed two young men who appeared to be looking for worms.

At about 5:15 a.m., Verdonckt said, while sitting in the front room, relaxing, he heard some one yell "Bring the car around." He looked out the window and saw the two men loading cases of whiskey from the bar into the car.

Hurriedly dressing, Verdonckt ran out of the house and toward the bar, just as the car pulled away and across Mack avenue. He chased it on foot and obtained the license number.

Find Door Forced

Lt. Enders said that the burglars gained entrance into the bar by forcing the front door with a half-inch bar. He said that attempts to break the door lock failed and the burglars used such force they tore the door from the frame. The escape was made through the rear door, which too was badly damaged, the officer said.

The suspect, who is in Detroit police custody, was recently paroled on an uttering and publishing charge.

At the last report, the second man had not yet been captured.

Merchants Considering Proposal

Seek to Combat Competition Offered by Stores in Areas Where Parking Is Free

In an effort to offset shopping centers having free parking areas, competition offered by merchants in "The Village," under the leadership of Nathan Rosenfeld, president of Jacobson Stores, Inc., have offered Grosse Pointe shoppers a generous proposal.

In essence they propose to guarantee for 3½ years, beginning July 1, 1958, that the gross revenue from parking lots 3, 4 and 5 will not be less than $17,740 for the six months beginning July 1, 1958 and not less than $35,479 for each of the three years commencing January 1, 1959.

Furthermore, if the new operating plans for lots 3 and 4 are not completed by July 1, 1958 the above guarantee shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis.

Would Guarantee Income

In layman terms, the Village merchants are offering a 3½-year guarantee to validate parking tickets in these three lots. Lot No. 5, behind Jacobson's main store, west of St. Clair, presently exists as an attended lot so that there would be no change as far as it is concerned. However, the proposal would make lots 3 and 4 (#3 is on the north side of Kercheval, behind Himelhoch's and Jacobson's Home Decorating, and #4 is on the south side of the street, behind E. J. Hickey Co.) also attended parking lots. These are presently metered lots.

The benefit to the customer comes with the generous suggestion of the merchants to pick up the tabs on all parking tickets in those three lots. No longer would the frustrated shopper have to jump in the midst of a potential sale, to deposit a nickel—nor would the resigned customer have to face the dreaded ticket which has been an inevitable consequence of failing to respect the clock, and meter!

Submit Proposal

At Monday night's City Council meeting Mr. Rosenfeld and his attorney, Berrien Eaton, representing the firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, submitted the above proposal for Council approval. Also on hand to testify to the worth of the proposal were Village merchants Ed Hickey, and Richard and Florence Lehman, of the Village Manor.

Although the Council was unanimous in its approval of the plan as proposed, it felt unjustified to take action without the certainty that ALL Village merchants feel favorably about the offer. Accordingly, they voted to send a registered letter immediately to every businessman in the Village, informing them of the proposal and offering a chance to present their views at a special Council meeting, called for 7:30 p.m. next Monday night. A copy of the proposal will be available at the City Hall all week for perusal by the merchants.

Must Retire Bonds

The City, which must clear revenue on these lots in order to retire the bonds for them since they are not paid for by city taxes stands to take no loss with the new proposal and, indeed, could even show a profit over the present system of metered lots.

It is anticipated that, following next week's meeting with the City Council, action will be taken officially which will benefit all concerned, but most of all the Grosse Pointe shopper.

Grosse Pointe High Dads To Be Hosts at Round-Up

By Fred Runnells

The Grosse Pointe High School Dad's Club will stage its annual Spring Sports Roundup at the High School on Monday, May 26, in honor of the athletes of the basketball, swimming, track, tennis, baseball and golf teams.

And there will be plenty to celebrate as the Blue Devils won Border Cities League championships in track, tennis and swimming. The football team which won the BCL title was honored last fall.

The program will start off with a roast beef dinner at 6:30. A sports movie in the auditorium will follow and from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Dad's Club president Milton Zuehlke will preside as Athletic Director Frank Banach introduces the different coaches who will report on accomplishments during the year. The highlight of the evening will be the awarding of letters to members of the teams.

Don Lund, Detroit Tiger coach will be the guest speaker and will bring such diamond stars with him as Red Wilson, Ray Boone, Reno Bertoia, Paul Foytack, Jim Hegan, Frank and Milt Bolling.

This program is a far cry from the first meeting set up by Dan Beck, Sr., and that was so many years ago we like to forget them. But back at that first get together we had a little program in the auditorium consisting of sports movies, a couple of talks by a couple of good guys of not too great importance but well known locally. We remember well the vocal strains of the Boy's Glee Club as director John Finch gestured like a windmill in an attempt to get the lads to give out above a whisper. Then came the cheer leaders who tried to loosen up the crowd with some school yells.

Then there was the introduction of the coaches and back in those days Grosse Pointe didn't have much to brag about as far as championships were concerned except for the basketball and tennis teams. Both were outstanding even in those days. The tennis team under Coach Larry Westervile had a streak of 67 straight dual match victories. The basketball team was winning more than its share of league victories but was falling on its duff in Regional competition.

Of course you must realize this was way back in the early forties and Grosse Pointe High wasn't as big as it is today. But that was the start.

We never will forget the refreshments afterwards. There were piles and piles of doughnuts and jugs upon jugs of cider. The kids saw to it that the cider disappeared but the doughnuts went begging. Dan Beck will well remember trying to peddle the left over doughnuts at cost so the Dad's Club wouldn't lose too much money from its sparse treasury. Eventually the price was cut and the treasury took a beating. But not too bad.

Yes sir, this years' program is a far cry from that first get together — but those were the good old days when Grosse Pointe High Dad's Club was struggling — Wouldn't it be nice to invite Dan Beck and some of those other guys that inaugurated this idea of honoring the Blue Devil athletes to this Sports Roundup?

Poster Contest Winners Named

"These 17 artists have created posters which have been judged the best of several hundred entered in the contest," Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Director of Instruction for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, said as he presented awards to the winners last week.

The 10th Annual Art Poster Contest was considered a success and the calibre of work adjudged outstanding by the professional advertising executives who selected the prize-winners. John Keenan of the J. Walter Thompson Company headed the judges and addressed the art assembly held at the High School to recognize the outstanding artists. Other judges were C. P. Kochanski and Thomas Schulte of Walker & Company.

A distinguished member of the audience was Mr. Standish, former head of Walker & Company, and the founder of the poster contest. Walker & Company sponsored the contest and presented the winners with cash awards.

Winners in the Senior High School were Donna Day of 1126 Bishop, First Prize of $25; Barbara Boyles, 1915 Van Antwerp, Second Prize of $15; and Judy Poxon, 801 Lakeland, Third Prize of $10. Three $5 prize-winners in the senior division were Vicky Deneweth, 1008 Bishop; Judith Scherz, 21160 Lochmoor; and Jo Ann Ward, 20602 Fleetwood.

In the Junior Division Karen Horny, 619 Barrington, won First Prize and $25; Jan Conway, 927 Lakepointe, Second Prize of $15; and Bill Lenz, 418 Moran, Third Prize of $10.

Eight $5 awards were made in the Junior Division to Marlene Blair, 19974 Emory Sue Brown, 261 Kerby; Fred Gerow, 428 Cloverly; Barbara Kerber, 802 Barrington; Alex Maile, 700 Balfour; Jean Nelson, 20729 Toles; Linda Ruester, 404 Manor; and Bob White, 759 Barrington.

ing overtime because of the lack of rain, causing a virtual drought. Last month, a total of 1.7 inches of rain fell; Saturday, and Sunday, May 17 and 18, only .75 inches fell. The normal rainfall for April is 2.91 inches. For May it is 3.61 inches, but only .75 of an inch have fallen in the first 20 days of May. Since January 1 according to the U.S. Weather Bureau, the rainfall is 7.52 inches below normal.

A Weather Bureau official said that the area is due for heavy rains soon, so much so "water will be coming out of basement windows".

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS REPORTED AT NEW HIGH

First Federal Savings of Detroit reports an increase of assets for the first quarter of this year of $3,500,000 to a new high of $46,275,821, according to Hans Gehrke, Jr., President.

Savings at First Federal on March 31, 1958 amounted to $223,976,756; an increase of more than $33,000,000 over savings shown on the same date last year.

The latest reports show First Federal of Detroit ranking 5th among the country's 6,000 savings associations.

School Playgrounds

at Defer School. Games or practice sessions may be found in progress on every field almost every evening and on Saturdays."

Officers Also Play

"The police and firemen of Grosse Pointe meet twice a week at Pierce Junior High School to play softball. From 25 to 30 officers take part in this program."

"The Department of Recreation and different city councils are constantly cooperating with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in developing and improving school playground for optimum community usage."

"One of the principal objectives of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education is to improve and enlarge the total recreational program from a community stand-point. We are working on this constantly," Mr. Wicking emphasized.

"Activities are proceeding in connection with the further development of the McMillan Field to encourage further usage. The fact that a road has separated this field from the regular Richard area has detracted from this use for a long time. In the near future more equipment will be installed in this area and it is hoped more use will be made of the field," Wicking said.

Areas for Tots

Practically all the school playfields have an area specially equipped for young children. On these are usually swings, slides, sandboxes, chinning bars and possibly rings, jungle gyms and other such equipment. Young children play on these both during school recreation periods and during their spare time.

The Mason School and grounds have been set up as headquarters, in the event of an emergency for the Detroit Edison disaster unit. All plans have been drawn for use of every foot of these grounds in the event that they would be needed.

Often boys and girls, accompanied by Dad sometimes, can be found flying kites or trying out aircraft. Many small children seek out the schoolyard play equipment at all times. Mothers and infants come to watch older children play or, perhaps, to let the infant experience wide latitudes of freedom in the large open spaces.

Dogs Also Trained

"Dog training in obedience as well as in hunting techniques is a common activity," Mr. Wicking went on. "Girl and Boy Scout organizations frequently use the grounds for their purposes. Day camps meet several days a week throughout the summer and it is not unusual to find as many as 120 girls in attendance at one school. On occasion overnite camp-outs are held as well," he said.

"Parochial schools such as St. Paul's and St. Ambrose use the High School football field for home games or Defer for football practice. Track teams from these schools also practice on public school facilities. Cub Scout Packs and Boy Scout Troops reserve different fields for schedules of softball games. St. Joan of Arc boys play baseball at both Mason and Barnes after school and Sundays."

"At Richard School, and others too, PTA sponsored groups of youth take an active interest in conservation programs and outdoors education. These activities tie in well with the regular school program, each reenforcing the other," Mr. Wicking stated.

Play Big Parts

"All of these community uses of school playgrounds emphasize the total importance schools play in our daily lives," he went on. "With the countryside becoming more and more remote and recreational areas within the urban area more and more limited school grounds have become practically indispensable and receive tremendous usage."

"Naturally, the public schools are pleased and proud that they can serve in this manner," Mr. Wicking concluded. "There can be little doubt that our community is a better place to live because we have such facilities."

Organic Garden Club Meeting on May 28

The Motor City Organic Farm and Garden Club will hold its next meeting in the Cannon Memorial Center, Cadieux at E. Warren, at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 27.

A round table discussion will be held on "What to Plant and How to Plant it." Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Russell A. Hill of Eastlawn, was elected president of the club at its last meeting.

Pierce Holding Science Exhibit

The third annual Pierce Junior High School Science Exhibit will be presented at the final P.T.A. meeting on May 27.

The exhibit of over 100 individual student science projects will be held in the boys gymnasium between the hours of 8 and 11 p.m.

Sponsoring the exhibit is the science department of Pierce School. Students construct models, provide demonstrations, carry on experiments, prepare research papers, and display collections. The field for such projects is unlimited.

Of special interest in the exhibit are robots, tesla coils, rockets and missiles, electric boards, steam engines, cloud chambers, solar families, models of the human anatomy, weather instruments, and many more.

The young scientists are naturally enthusiastic about their projects. They have spent from three to six months on them outside of school hours. The exhibit is the climax of somewhat novel experiences for most of them.

Students are encouraged to use simple, inexpensive materials. Such items as tin cans, coat hangers, and waste materials are utilized. Results are sometimes astonishing as guests will see for themselves on the night of May 27.

The ten students who won plaques or ribbons at the Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair will be on hand with their projects. Many others will show equally good projects not shown in earlier Fairs.

The Science Open House brings to a close the project work for the year. Pierce participated in the Grosse Pointe High School Science Fair, the Metropolitan Science Fair, and a group of forty students and teachers visited the National Science Fair in Flint.

Men's Garden Club Holds Banquet

Sixty-six persons were present when the members of Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe and their wives celebrated the Club's fifth anniversary with a dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, Thursday, May 15.

Speaker and guest of honor was Dr. Harold B. Tukey, noted horticulturalist at Michigan State University, whose subject was "Liberty Hyde Bailey, as I See Him." Bailey, well-known botanist and horticulturalist, was a native of South Haven, Michigan, who served on the faculty of Michigan Agricultural College in his early years, and at Cornell University in his later life. The one hundredth anniversary of his birth is being celebrated this year.

Vincent R. DePetris acted as toastmaster and introduced the speaker. Dr. John R. Dice, club president, presided at the dinner, and T. A. DeMaire pronounced the invocation. Frank Tousley was in charge of arrangements.

12 Cases Heard In City Court

Grosse Pointe City Judge Joseph P. Uvick had quite a full docket last Tuesday, May 13, when he heard a total of 12 cases during the evening session.

First on the agenda was William H. Grunow, of 462 Renaud road, who was charged with reckless driving. He was found guilty and fined $25.

Lawrence G. Fischer, of 20417 Hunt Club drive, was found guilty of a littering charge on Fisher road. His sentence was suspended.

John King Shea, of 1254 Harvard road, was fined $10 on a charge of being a disorderly person.

Thomas D. Baumeister, 541 Neff road resident, was handed a $25 fine on the same charge of disorderly person.

A $15 fine was imposed upon Ronald J. Allaire, of 433 McKinley avenue, for reckless driving.

Also deemed guilty on a charge of reckless driving was Joseph L. Rotole, of 270 Stephens road. He, too, was fined $15.

Raymond Britt, of 22524 Raymound Court, was hit for $25 when judged guilty on a reckless driving charge.

Matthew P. Schmidt, of 479 Bournemouth, was found not guilty on a charge of reckless driving, and had his case dismissed.

Sevryn Bliss, 833 St. Clair avenue, was brought to court on a complaint of harboring a dog nuisance. His case was dismissed.

On a similar complaint William Stockburger, of 658 Neff road, was found guilty, and ordered to have his dog removed from his premises within 30 days.

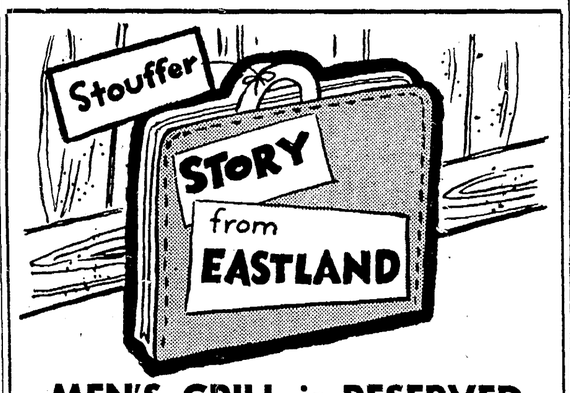

Myrtle and Jessie Randazzo, husband and wife, of 453 Fisher road, were tried on separate charges of being disorderly persons, and each was found guilty. Both had their sentences suspended.

Pointe Gardeners Get Judging Certificates

Elmore W. Frank, 963 Fisher road; Leland J. Gilmour, 748 Hampton road, and Harry G. Schorr, 4390 Devonsire road, members of Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe, were among a class of 21 men who received apprentice judging certificates at a school conducted recently at Kingswood Center, Mansfield, Ohio, under the auspices of Men's Garden Clubs of America.

The school was the first to be conducted for the purpose of accrediting flower show judges in the Central Great Lakes Region, which includes Michigan. Instructors were Dr. Ray C. Allen and Carleton B. Lees, horticulturalists at Kingswood Center.

Another school is being planned for September at which time the apprentice judges will have the opportunity of judging a county-wide flower show of which Men's Garden Club of Mansfield is one of the sponsors.

Officers Seated By Alger Post

Gen. R. A. and Col. F. M. Alger Post No. 995, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Auxiliary held a joint installation of officers for the ensuing year on Saturday evening, April 26, at the Maire School.

Post Officers were installed by Past Commander B. A. Chaplow and include Raymond Baka, Commander; Frank Moulin, Sr. Vice Commander; William Hunter, Jr. Vice Commander; Howard Wood, Quartermaster; Clintford Jordan, Chaplain; and John D. Barnes, Post Advocate.

Installing for the Ladies Auxiliary was Mrs. Mary Ann Haslett, a past president of Alger Auxiliary and daughter of the newly elected president, Mrs. Mary Lapeire. Other auxiliary officers include Effie Waldecker, Sr. Vice President; Grace Jordan, Jr. Vice-President; Laura Ryan, Chaplain; Margaret Poole, Treasurer; Bertha Haslett, Conductress.

Assisting in the floor work were the Alger Post Color Guard headed by Robert Kehrer as Officer of the Day, the outgoing Commander, Lawrence Light, and Jean Poole and Kathryn Moore who served as installing conductresses for the Auxiliary. Following the installation, members and their friends were entertained in the Alger Post Home at 17145 St. Paul.

Law Breakers Pay in Park

Raymond B. Koerber, of 693 Port drive, Detroit, charged with being in possession of alcoholic beverages, pled guilty before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Saturday, May 3, and paid a fine of $20 and was placed on three months probation, no driving.

On Wednesday, May 7, Judge Belanger accepted a plea of guilty from Legor A. Poda of 3523 Anderdon, Detroit, who was charged with speeding on Mack. Poda paid a fine of $12.

Zelma G. Gould of 3707 Somerset, Detroit, pled guilty to making an improper turn at Audubon and Charlevoix and paid a fine of $5.

Charles Cusumano of 1406 Beaconsfield, paid a fine of $10 after pleading guilty to backing out of a driveway and causing an accident.

Also pleading guilty to a similar charge in a different case, was Herbert Carey of 12539 Chelsea, Detroit, and his fine was $10.

Beatrice M. Sada of 3617 Parker, Detroit, failed to come to court to answer for speeding on Jefferson and a report of her case was sent to Lansing.

Paul Anthony Gusumano of 10806 Haverhill, Detroit, did not show up for running a signal light and forfeited a bond of $7.50.

Arthur Cerre of 3 Rathbone place, forfeited a bond of $17.50 when he did not show up for speeding on Jefferson.

Dogs Bite Man; Owner Ticketed

A St. Clair Shores man was knocked down by three large dogs and badly bitten on the left leg, according to a Farms police report.

Police were called to 437 Lake Shore road, on Wednesday, May 14, where they found Case C. Miners, 61, of 27301 Little Mack, wounded by bites inflicted by three large French Poodles. The man was bitten between the hip and knee. He was treated at Cottage Hospital.

The report disclosed that three tickets were issued to Mrs. John Anderson of 431 Lake Shore road, for dogs running at large.

Miners said that he did not wish to prosecute. The owner of the dogs told police that she would confine the animals for the required 10 days.

The Pointe Board of Health was notified of the incident.

TREES NEED WATER

A mature tree loses a lot of water every day through its leaves, and may need 500 pounds of water to grow one pound of dry weigth. It's just as necessary to supply water to the tree as it is to fertilize it, points out Harold Schick, extension specialist in park management at Michigan State University. Water all trees when needed, soaking the ground to a depth of six inches. This means running a garden hose for at least one hour around the roots of the tree.

TURN FOR WORSE

The man who trusts to luck should be sure that his emergency brake is in good order.

Anniversary Party Held By Business Men's Group

Pointe business was well represented at the 10th anniversary dinner-dance of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association, held at the Lochmoor Golf Club on Saturday, May 17, at which the installation of the 1958-59 officers took place.

Approximately 180 persons attended the affair, most of these being employes and their spouses, and the wives of the businessmen. The employes were the guests of their employers.

A cocktail hour and dinner preceded the installation of the officers who will guide the association for the coming year.

Retiring President Russell Harkness gave the introductory speech in which he paid tribute to the 12 founders of the organization, and to the hard-working members and board of directors of the association whose efforts have made the group what it is today.

He then introduced Past President Raymond T. Huetteman, who conducted the formal installation of new officers, after introducing them individually.

The Association presented Harkness a curling enthusiast, with a white curling sweater for the fine work he did in guiding the organization through the year.

Not unmindful of the helping hand she gave her husband during the year, Mrs. Harkness, who was proclaimed the "power behind the throne" was presented with a spray of flowers on behalf of the members of the organization.

McCarron complimented Harkness and the other officers who served with him last year.

The 1957-58 officers were, besides Harkness and McCarron, who served as vice-president, Norm Kopperschmidt, treasurer; Dr. Clifford Loranger, secretary, and Edward J. Hickey, Zack Moir, A. J. O'Connor, Ray Huetteman, and Wilber Thomas, directors.

Following the dinner and installation, the floor was cleared for dancing, with music furnished by Verne Willard.

Take the wheel... get the Swept-Wing feel!

You spend a lot of time in your car—driving to work, shopping, taking trips. How your car rates on the road is important to you. So all we ask before you invest in a new car is this: Come in and take a "road rate" drive in a Swept-Wing 58 Dodge. Really compare it thoroughly on every count. We honestly believe it rides better, handles easier, responds quicker than any other car you've ever driven. But we'll leave the verdict entirely up to you. You be the judge.

YOU BE THE JUDGE! THINGS TO NOTICE IN THE SWEPT-WING 58:

The feel behind the wheel—You feel different because you sit differently. Low and snug and secure, completely in control, almost a part of the car.

The view around you—The glass area is tremendous. The visibility is outstanding in every direction—front, sides, rear.

The ease of push-button driving—Once you try Dodge Push-Button TorqueFlite you'll never be happy with outmoded lever types. Ladies love it.

A ride that's a glide—There's no sway on curves, no dip at stops. Torsion-Aire is standard equipment, too.

This power steering is different—No power steering is like Dodge power steering. It works full time, yet leaves you the feel of the road.

Audiometer Presented to School Systems

A feature of the luncheon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Welcome Wagon Club, held on May 15 in the War Memorial Center, was the presentation of an audiometer for use in the local and parochial schools. MRS. GEORGE DAVIS, outgoing president of the club, makes the presentation to RUTH CURTIS, representing the public schools, and JOSEPH KLEESUS of the parochial schools.

Irate Residents Finger Speeder

Enraged residents of Grosse Pointe City are finally being spurred into action. Last week at least two called into the police station to register complaints about the speeding cars which have lately seemed to be increasing in number and nuisance.

And last Saturday, May 10, Peter Bayer, of 689 Rivard boulevard, phoned in not only a complaint, but the license number of a local hotrodder. He asked for police assistance in apprehending the driver, aiding them wilth a full description of the car.

A radio call was issued to all Pointe police cars and minutes later Park police picked up Paul D. Gilland III, of 816 Harcourt road. He was taken to the Ctiy station and Mr. Bayer appeared to sign a complaint against the youth for excessive speed in a 25 mile-an-hour zone.

Such acute action on the part of ruffled residents is expected to curb the spring feverish upsurge of reckless driving before more drastic measures need to be taken by the law.

Park Beautified by Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts of America have a nation-wide emphasis on conservation in 1958, with the theme "Do a good turn for the out-of-doors"; and all over the country Brownie, Intermediate, and Senior Troops are planning conservation projects in camp and in their own communities.

Here in Grosse Pointe, Troop 1410 of Pierce Jr. High, a group of 7th grade girls, met at the City of Grosse Pointe waterfront park, at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 17, clad in blue jeans and armed with rakes, shovels and other equipment, ready to do their part for this national program.

Previously, they had met several times with Mr. Weot, the park's manager, to discuss their plans and submit sketches of their project for his approval. They raked and cleaned up debris, pruned and tagged bushes, built a path leading to an inviting corner with a bench, built a rock garden, planted flowers, and, all in all, had the great satisfaction of beautifying a corner of the park.

Richard School Plans Round-Up

The spring round-up for prospective September kindergarten children at the Pere Gabriel Richard School takes place on Wednesday afternoon, May 28, at 3:45 in the auditorium of the school. Invited are all of the parents of the five-year-olds who will enroll for the 1958-59 school year. Though the children are not invited, they may come if no other means are available for taking care of them on this afternoon.

The round-up will provide the parents with an opportunity to learn about the kinds of activities and projects carried on in the kindergarten. Comments will be made relative to tasks which ought to be undertaken in preparation for enrollment.

One of two new kindergarten teachers, Mrs. Kaloger, will be present. The program will be in charge of the principal, Mr. Messner, Mrs. Boardman, Miss Sweeney and Mrs. Pankow. Literature about the kindergarten program will be distributed.

The enrollment forms may be picked up at this meeting and then returned to the school before the closing on June 13. Those having children who are to have that thrill of entering school in the fall for the first time, are most cordially invited to be present.

The hardest work in the world to do is that which should have been done yesterday.

PTA at Pierce Meets May 27

The Parent-Teachers Association of the John D. Pierce Junior High School will hold its final meeting of the school year on Tuesday evening, May 27, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium. Lyle Hudson, the president, will conduct a brief business meeting.

A summary of the year's activities will be presented and election of new officers is included in the agenda.

The featured program for the evening will be given by a group of students presenting the annual Pierce Potporri. Three record pantomimes, two vocal groups, and a group presenting a parody of "Carmen."

Students participating include: Pat McCormick, Nelson Steiner, Brenda Bashford, Karen Schmidt, Jenny Lungershausen, Diane Hubbard, Nancy Bohn, Marilyn Self, Mary Short, Sally Harris, Emily Wallace, Marilyn Grigsby, Karen Russell, Nancy Pillon, Sandra Boyle, Dave Klaasen, Jean Huestis, Charles Clark, Barbara Purdy, Kurt Lagerfeldt, Jan Conway, Wayne Wilner, Vicki Zaun, Bill Damon, Betty Dumser, Diane Finlay, Barbara Gilliland, Dorothea Friedensberg, Terry Korb, Patricia Hughes, John Marsden, Judy Maynard, Bill Purcell, Doris Schreiber and Bill Tapert.

At the conclusion of the auditorium program, the boys' gymnasium will be opened for all parents and friends to view the science exhibits. These science projects have been created by the Pierce students in their respective classes.

To conclude the evening the students and parents are invited to the cafeteria for a social hour, which will be provided by Mrs. G. Gordon Cook and her social committee.

Dolphins Plan Swim Show

The Spring Synchronized Swimming Show at Grosse Pointe High School will be presented Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24 at 8 p.m. in the high school pool. The Dolphin Club will present this show.

The theme "Palette Fantasy" reveals a story of an artist told by his paint brush. The delightful fantasy is brought to life by the brush's antics and poetry in describing 16 various swimming numbers pertaining to the painter's life.

Church to Take New Members

At the 11 o'clock church service at St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, on Sunday, May 25, a class of 22 young people will be received into the church by the rite of Confirmation.

They are: Albert Blixt, 1341 Hawthorne; Richard Brydges, 415 Manor; Judy L. They will be inducted into the Luther League on Sunday, June 1 at 4:30.

Nurses Making Health Survey

A survey to determine the degree to which Michigan residents are protected against five communicable diseases is being made this month by local health departments in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Health.

The state health department has requested all local health department nurses to collect immunization information when making routine calls to private homes. Information collected will be tabulated by the state health department.

The nurses will ask questions about polio, smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus (lockjaw) and pertussis (whooping cough), all of which can be controlled by vaccines or other immunizing agents.

The information will be classified as adequate, partial or no immunization on the basis of the number of doses of vaccine received and the date of the last vaccination or booster.

Polio protection will be called adequate if the person has received three doses of polio vaccine. Small pox protection will be called adequate if the person's original vaccination was successful and if he has been re-vaccinated in the last five years.

Children are immunized against diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough by giving them three injections of a vaccine that contains immunizing agents against all three diseases. Boosters given after the age of five years omit the whooping cough agent. Protection against these three diseases will be judged adequate if the individual received three doses of the triple vaccine as a child and has had a booster within the last five years.

Information collected by the survey will be used by the state health department in planning campaign; to improve the immunization protection of Michigan residents.

Pointe Mayors Back 'Hire Now' Campaign

The heads of the five Pointe communities, recognizing that the unemployment problem is effecting the Pointe, are backing the slogan "Hire Now—If He Works, You Profit" and issued a joint proclamation yesterday, May 21, favoring the return of unemployed Pointe residents to payrolls.

The mayors are well aware that unemployment is a matter of grave concern throughout Michigan, and that here at home, merchants, service establishments, industries and the economy as a whole, are feeling the pinch of the lost purchasing power as the result of people not working. They ask that unemployed Pointe residents be returned to payrolls as promptly as possible.

"The Michigan Employment Commission has in its Employment Service files, applications for work from thousands of unemployed workers," the proclamation reads, "and advises that this great volume of well qualified and experienced people is unmatched in years for quality and quantity. The Commission believes that employers now have the widest selection to meet their needs.

"Furthermore," the mayors proclaim "potential employment opportunities exist here, that, through co-operative community action could be converted into actual jobs at this time. We (the mayors) propose, therefore, a 'Hire now' campaign to householders, employers, labor and civic groups. As the Commission so well states it—'If he works, you profit'".

The Pointe leaders call on all employers, all industrial, business, financial, labor and civic groups, and all newspapers, radio and TV stations servicing the Detroit area, to co-operate with the MESC in effectively promoting the campaign.

The mayors asked that every possibility be explored in the interest of lessening the impact of unemployment throughout the Pointe, and in the further interest of aiding and advancing the total economy of the Pointe.

Signatures on the proclamation are those of City Mayor Frederick W. Parker, Jr.; Farms Mayor William Connolly, Jr.; Park Mayor Kenneth Cunningham; Shore President Jack Williams; and Woods Mayor Kenneth Koppin.

To explain the idea expressed in the proclamation by the Mayors and Village Presidents, Walter A. Hammer, Manager of the East Side Office of the Michigan Employment, Security Commission, located at 4390 Conner Avenue, Detroit, added the following.

In the southeast section of Wayne County alone, there are thousands of men and women without jobs. Their loss of purchasing power is reflected in lower retail sales and factory output. If this continues, more stores, factories, and other business places may close and more jobs will be lost.

Let's get some of these people back to work in some kind of a job. Employers who can hire now can secure the very best types of workers, as we have thousands in our applicant files.

But householders, churches, or other organizations can also help to increase employment. Get that construction, remodeling or repair job done now. How about painting, a new garage, or driveway, or landscape work, or a fence? Get it done now and you will be putting someone to work. Plenty of workers are available and costs are down.

For direct hiring, call your Michigan Employment Security Commission Office, VA 2-9500. There is no charge to you or to the worker.

If he works—you profit.

The only favorable thing that can be said about ignorance is that it causes many interesting arguments.

'The country is loaded with people who were just ready to do something when somebody stepped in ahead of them.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION
With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.
If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!
Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Civil Air Patrol Squadron Active

Unbeknowst to many Grosse Pointers is the fact that there exists a local squadron of the national Civil Air Patrol, which is an auxiliary of the U.S Air Force. The Grosse Pointe Squadron meets every Wednesday, at 7 p.m. at the Cannon Recreation Center, Warren and Cadieux.

It has, on loan from the Air Force, an L-16, which flies from Warren Airport. In accordance with one of CAP's most important peace-time missions: the training of American youth in the fundamentals of aeronautics, their program is being taught to 50,000 CAP Cadets throughout the country from 14-18 years old. They learn the theory of flight, meteorology, navigation, map reading, aircraft structure, engines, instruments, crash procedure and Civil Air Regulations.

The program does not, however, teach the cadets to fly. It merely qualifies them at the end of 20 hours of flight time with accredited pilots, to wear Civil Air Patrol Observer Wings. On the event of a national disaster, such qualified persons would be of inestimable service to their country.

Orientation flights are given twice monthly from Warren Airport. Anyone interested in joining Grosse Pointe Squadron 6313-6 of the CAP may call TU 4-6197 for further information.

According to the will of the late Emory W. Clark, former president of the National Bank of Detroit, who died April 29, his estate at 635 Lake Shore road has been left to "such charitable, educational and civic institutions or purposes of the City of Detroit deemed to be part of the educational or social life of the City."

The will was filed last Tuesday, May 13, with Probate Judge Thomas C. Murphy. It also specified that Mrs. Henry B. Joy, an old family friend, could take any item she wanted from his home as a keepsake. Mrs. Joy passed away March 13.

Clark's son, William R., of Metamora, and his two daughters (Mrs. Martha Daniloff, of 904 Whittier road, and Mrs. Elizabeth Taft, of New York) are to decide to what use the home will be put and how to spend the $100,000 their father left for charitable, educational or civic uses anywhere in the state of Michigan.

Children's Theater to Help Foundation

The Foundation for Exceptional Children will benefit through proceeds of two performances to be given this week by the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater. "I Remember Mama" will be presented at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, May 23, and "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" will be given at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 24. Both shows will be in the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium. Among the cast members are PAT GROEHN and DICK BLACKBURN. The old German Bible is one of the props and the cat is Mittens. Mrs. Syd Reynolds is directing.

Series Planned By Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will open its annual nine week series of 27 summer concerts Tuesday, June 10, in the Music Shell at the Michigan State Fair Grounds. The programs will be presented free to the public each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening at 8:15 through August 9.

Underwriting the series as a public service for the sixth consecutive season are the Detroit Edison Company, the National Bank of Detroit, and the Trust Funds of the Recording Industries administered locally by the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

The orchestra's summer complement of 84 will include most of the first-chair players. Valter Poole will conduct. Eduard Werner, president of the Detroit Federation of Musicians, will appear July 8 as guest conductor.

Six artists of national stature have been signed as soloists. Included as winners of the Edgar M. Leventritt Foundation Award are pianists William Doppmann, June 17; Malcolm Frager, July 1; Natalie Hinderas, July 15; and Russell Sherman, August 5.

Marjorie Gordon, soprano, will be the soloist opening night. Miss Gordon is a member of the New York City Opera Company and has appeared regularly on television.

Carol Smith, contralto, will appear June 24 in a concert dedicated to the national music sorority Mu Phi Epsilon holding its Great Lakes Province Convention in Detroit that week. On July 22, the orchestra will feature the winner of the locally sponsored piano contest established recently to honor the memory of Bendetson Netzorg, Detroit pianist.

The orchestra also plans a special concert mid-summer to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

In outlining programs for the 1958 series, Poole has provided for soloists to appear Tuesdays, full symphonies to be scheduled Thursdays, and lighter music including scores from new Broadway musical shows to be presented Saturday nights.

WWJ will broadcast Tuesday concerts from 9:05-10 p.m. and WJR will carry Thursday programs from 9:05-10 p.m.

Each season more than 175,000 turn out for the orchestra's concerts at the Fair Grounds, one of Detroit's most beautiful open air settings. The series has become a tradition in the area which serves a two-fold purpose in offering extra employment for the personnel of Detroit's great orchestra.

Snake in Grass Shot by Police

Without batting an eye, Park Patrolman George Blair, with a single shot from his revolver, ended the life of a snake.

On Wednesday, May 14, Patrolman Blair was dispatched to 15650 Windmill Pointe drive, when Frank Syaen of 723 Harcourt, while strolling by, noticed the rat-er, snake coiled in the grass and called police.

The reptile, a Fox Snake, measured about five and half feet in length. It is non-poisonous and its habitat is Michigan.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the snake was the largest ever seen in this area.

Final Coast Cavalcades Planned by Chet Sampson

Four thousand Grosse Pointe young men and women will become nostalgic this summer when they realize that Chet Sampson will be operating the last of his famous Western Tours. It will be the twentieth anniversary, too, of the founding of the tours.

Two hundred and fifty teenagers from the Grosse Pointe schools have returned this spring from his station-wagon trips to Washington and New York, and almost two hundred are making preparations for the two five-week, 8000-mile Western tours. The first one, which is for girls only, will leave on June 14. The second one, with sections for boys and girls, will leave on July 26.

On August 29, when the second trip returns, Chet will pack his sleeping bag in mothballs, and join the many who have taken the trips West in reminiscing over the wonderful times he has had.

It was Dr. Samuel Brownell who brought Chet to Grosse Pointe 20 years ago, fresh out of the University of Michigan, to teach science in the Grosse Pointe schools. His long association with the Boy Scout movement prompted him to organize a troop at the Grosse Pointe High School.

This troop set about a series of money-raising activities which old-timers still recall. They included the annual sale of Christmas trees, an annual play, and many paper drives. The proceeds were used to finance a series of camping trips, which gave the troop two hundred and fifty nights of camping in the four years Chet had the troop before entering the Navy.

The first tour was made in a truck loaned by the Boydell Paint Company and covered the state of Michigan. It included a boat trip to Isle Royale National Park in Lake Superior. It was another year before the troop set its goal as the West, and two trips were made before the war intervened.

At the same time, other parents heard of the trips, and asked Chet, still a science teacher at Pierce Junior High School, to operate the same type of tours for their children. The suggestion was taken, and in 1941, he took the first non-Scout trip to California. This was followed, in the fall of 1941, by a series of weekend trips to Niagara Falls.

Upon his return from the Navy in 1945, he began the tours again, but it was 1947 before the first Western tour for girls was operated. With some doubts, Chet took the girls on a two-week tour to Utah, Arizona, and Colorado. However, the great success of that short trip prompted him to offer the longer tours to girls, which up to that point had been open only to boys.

In addition to these tours, there have been many to the Canadian Rockies, to Mexico, Florida, Kentucky, and to Michigan's ski resorts.

The tours have been the subject of many national newspaper stories, as well as many TV and radio shows. Art Linkletter and Tennessee Ernie Ford are two who have used the groups frequently. Even Bing Crosby's autobiography, "Call Me Lucky," tells of the groups' annual visits with him.

The tours have attracted other young people from most of the states in the East. Last year they came from 42 cities in 12 states, and they have even come from England, Germany, and Sweden.

Typical of the comments made by young people who have gone is this one from Nancy Reif who says, "The five weeks flew by like five days — each day bringing a new experience in living with 95 people and enjoying the many adventures together."

Says Tom Kaser, "The trip is educational in every way. Not only do you have a great time seeing and learning about the many scenic places in the West, but you learn how to get along with others and understand them better."

G.P.U.S. News Notes

Nature smiled on Grosse Pointe University School on Saturday, May 10, when it staged its first "G.P.U.S. Day" at the school grounds in Cook road. It was a perfect day, warm and sunny—May at its best, not chilly, not too hot.

The old tradition, handed down from Grosse Pointe Country Day School, of the crowning of the May Queen opened the ceremonies, and Lyn Robinson, of the 12th grade, graced the occasion in fine fashion. Her honor attendants were Claudia Gage and Cathie Devlin. Princesses, as they are called, and from the other grades were Susan Leach, 11th; Pam Macpherson, 10th; and Cathy Bicknell, 9th.

Grades 4, 5, 6 did interpretive dances and danced around the maypole and were pretty and winning. Everyone was taking pictures and movies of the events.

Then came lunch near the field house, followed by all kinds of games, with parents and children playing softball, and with the students trying everything from track and field events to the "pajama race" and with couples involved in what they call the "three-legged" race.

In the major sports events of the day the varsity baseball and tennis teams triumphed over their friends and rivals from Maumee Valley Country Day School, Maumee, Ohio. The Maumee players were guests of G.P.U.S., and the local boys and their mothers brought extra box lunches for the visitors.

Danielle Harris, of the 7th grade, who won two keys in the recent Detroit News Scholastic Writing Awards Contest, appeared last week, with a number of other winners, on Channel 56 on a half-hour program called "Talent Time." Dannie played a prominent part in the proceedings since the program opened with the camera trained on her as she read an excerpt from her essay called "A Winter's Tale." Later, in the course of the half-hour, she was interviewed and given the opportunity to describe her long-standing interest in writing.

The annual Oral Reading Contests are now underway at G.P.U.S. The 7th, 8th, and 9th grade contestants read selections from James Thurber and Jack London. 7th grade readers were Wendy Goddard and Meg VanDeGraaf; 8th graders: Don Owens and Tina Gram; 9th graders: Dave Cowles and Lyn Leithauser. Winners from this group are to be announced on Class Day.

Student chapel assemblies were led last week by four 8th grade girls on Tuesday: Patty Walbridge, Polly Lord, Tina Gram, and Meredith Rieman; and on Friday by Mike Krieg, of the 12th grade.

Representatives of the national Cum Laude society from the metropolitan aera attended a meeting last Friday at Cranbrook. G.P.U.S. members were present for the event.

The audio-visual room and the projection room play an important part in the life of G.P.U.S. Here are names of students who have been training to be operators: Sally Leisen, Peggy Carpenter, Paula Waterman, Chip Munger, Irving Smokler, Dan Piggins, George Boller, George Lott, Dave Ireland, Peter Van Riper, John Lafer, Bruce Pharis, Howard Keys, Marc Shaye, and Jim Lauve.

At a recent school assembly five G.P.U.S. 11th graders were received into membership in the Cum Laude Society, a national honor group. To be admitted one must be in the top tenth of one's class. Mr. Wellington Grimes, principal of the Upper School Boys, was speaker. Charles Uznikian, of the 12th grade, is president of the G.P.U.S. chapter and presided at the ceremony.

Twenty-two students at Grosse Pointe University School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

An estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year. Some $12 million in Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first three years of the program.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competition.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students—composed of the highest scorers in each state—will advance to the Semi-finals when the results are reported to all participating schools next fall. Semi-finalists will then take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists in the program and will indicate their choice of college and course of study. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra-curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the spring of 1959.

Women's Clubs To Hold Aquarama Cruise June 18

The Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs will inaugurate its Detroit summer social season with a cruise aboard the SS Aquarama on June 18.

The boat will sail at 10 o'clock and return to the dock at 4 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained from the various club presidents or the Detroit Federation office, TE 1-5295.

Simplifies Lumber Deliveries

A new addition to the Handiman Shop is this new truck body, the first in the Detroit area, built by Proctor-Keefe on a GMC chassis for lumber delivery. Sixteen foot boards can be carried with no overhang and it has a special compartment for 4 x 10 foot panels. Its light weight construction insures against driveway damage.

Ground Vehicles of Future Expected to Be Wheelless

The principle of "levitation" for future, high-speed ground transportation of from 200 to 500 miles an hour was demonstrated recently at Ford Motor Company's Research and Engineering Center.

Andrew A. Kucher, Ford's vice president - Engineering and Research, told a news conference that he foresees the day when the wheel will have reached its top speed capabilities. He unveiled the sucessor to the wheel — the "Glideair" — a wheel-less vehicle that rides on a thin film of air a fraction of an inch above the roadbed.

Instead of wheels the Glideair employs "levapads," a word Kucher coined. Tiny jets of air stream through holes in the levapads, supporting the vehicle. As early as 1928 Kucher proposed that vehicles could slide at high speeds, using air as a lubricant.

"We look upon the Glideair as a new form of high-speed land transportation, probably in the field of rail surface travel, for fast trips of distances of up to about 1,000 miles," Kucher said.

He added that he does not foresee the end of the wheel for transportation tasks such as those performed by today's cars and trucks, nor does he see automobiles ever approaching speeds that would make the wheel obsolete for this kind of vehicle use.

"Our calculations show that it would require considerably less power to drive the Glideair at speeds above 150 miles an hour than would be needed to move a wheeled vehicle," he said. "Since the Glideair is propelled by reaction, a gas turbine or turbojet engine would supply the power to both levitate and propel it."

In addition to demonstrating a three-foot model of the Glideair, a highly-streamlined vehicle, he also introduced a "scooter" supported on levapads that newsmen could ride along a corridor of the Scientific Laboratory building.

"One possible application of the Glideair might be on rails," Kucher said. "The overhead monorail principle is ideally suited. Levapads already have been designed to fit around a standard rail. They not only raise the vehicle from the rail but also hold it away from the rail sides."

He pointed out that electronic sensing and control systems would be used to control Glideair vehicles because human reaction times could not cope with the speeds involved. Braking would be accomplished by any one of a number of means — reversing engine thrust, water scoops, mechanical or magnetic brakes.

Speeds of about 200 miles an hours can be considered the practical maximum for wheeled vehicles, he said. Right now, cars entered in the annual Indianapolis "500" race attain speeds of about 185 miles an hour on the straightaways but require at least one pit stop during the race for new tires. Steel wheels also are incapable of sustained speeds above 200 miles an hour. High-speed wheel problems include vibration, loss of traction and loss of control.

Kucher compared the wheeled vehicle situation to that of propeller-driven military aircraft, which reached their zenith with the P-51, Spitfire, Messerschmidt and Zero planes of World War II. Better principle of propulsion had to be devised, and the jet era was underway.

"Gliding on a film of air offers great advantages over flying some distance off the ground in the conventional manner," he said. "About 60 per cent of a plane's drag is in the wings and empennage. Eliminating these, as we have done in the Glideair, gives considerably greater propulsion efficiency. I forsee that a 300-mile trip in the Glideair, about the distance from Detroit to Chicago, would require less than one hour."

GPHS Choruses Giving Concert

Grosse Pointe High School's Choral groups will present their annual spring concert next Wednesday, May 28 in the high school auditorium gymnasium at 8:15 p.m.

Under the direction of John Finch, the girls glee club will sing "Tzena," "Song of Love," "Barcarolle," "Lift Thine Eyes," "Great Day," and "In a Monastery Garden."

"Men of Harlech," Memories," and "Roadways" are numbers which will be presented by the boys glee club. The boys glee club and the boys from choir will combine to sing two numbers together —"The Happy Wanderer" and "Stout Hearted Men."

Sheila Slimon, 11A, will take the solo part in "Panis Angelicus," a number to be sung by the choir. "Selections from Oklahoma," "Calm as the Night," "Joshua Fought the Battle of Jericho," "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place," "Selections from the King and I," and "No Man Is an Island," directed by Gary Theurkorn, 12A, will also be performed by the choir.

"I think," declared Mr. Finch, "that it promises to be an interesting program. Tickets may be purchased from any vocal music student for 50c for adults and 25c for students with an S. A. ticket and children under 13."

Vincent Norako Given Major's Rank in MCR

Vincent W. Norako of 1352 Grayton road, a veteran of more than 15 years in the Marine Corps and Marine Corps Reserve, was recently promoted from captain to the rank of major in the reserves.

At ceremonies held in the Bordhead Naval Armory, 7600 East Jefferson, Lt. Col. William J. Weinstein, commanding officer of the Fifth Battalion, United States Marine Corps Reserve of Detroit, pinned the gold leaves of a major on the shoulders of Major Norako.

The new major is on the battalion commander's staff as training officer. He wears the Navy Commendation Medal with Combat V, the Presidential Unit Citation, Good Conduct Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific, American Theatre and Victory Medals, Organized Reserve Medal, the Korean Ribbon, United Nations and the Korean Presidential Unit Citation.

Major Norako earned his promotion after years of working up through the ranks.

He is a graduate of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N.Y., where he earned his degree in electrical engineering. His master's degree was received from the University of Detroit.

He is married and the father of a son.

Pvt. Joseph G. Elias Being Sent to Europe

FORT BENNING, GA. (AHTNC) — Pvt. Joseph G. Elias, son of Mrs. Catherine Elias, 1335 Whittier road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., departed Fort Benning, Ga., early this month for Europe under Operation Gyroscope, the Army's unit rotation plan.

Elias is a member of the 3d Infantry Division, which is replacing the 10th Infantry Division in Germany.

A rifleman in Company A of the division's 15th Infantry, he entered the Army last October.

The 22-year-old soldier was graduated from Servite High School in 1955.

Notice of Public Hearing

Zoning Ordinance Amendment

Notice is hereby given that the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Park will hold a public hearing on Monday, June 9, 1958 at 5:00 P.M. in the Council Chambers at 15115 E. Jefferson Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan, for the purpose of considering proposed amendments to the zoning regulations in the Ordinance Code, and with a view to adopting such amendments (with any changes, limited to the same subject matter, as may be developed at the hearing). Below is the text of the amendments as now proposed.

Charles D. Heise,
City Clerk
City of Grosse Pointe Park

May 22, 1958

(1)

Amend 5.1 (16) of the Ordinance Code to read as follows:

(16) FAMILY — A family is one or two or more persons inter-related by blood, adoption or marriage and living together in a room or rooms comprising a single housekeeping unit. A person's domestic employee if living on the premises is a part of the family of such person. Upon application to the Board of Appeals, not more than two persons other than those specified above may, in a given location, be included in a specific family if the Board of Appeals finds, from the nature of the association between all such persons and the duration and reasons therefor, that there will be no impairment in the zoned character of the neighborhood.

Amend 5.10 of the Ordinance Code to read as follows:

5.10 RESIDENCE DISTRICT — ACCESSORY USES — LIMITATIONS. None of the following activities shall be deemed to be an accessory use incidental to a private dwelling and none of such uses shall be so carried on in a residence district.

(1) The storage or maintenance of equipment, supplies, or merchandise for commercial use or sale.

(2) The practice of any business, trade, profession, or occupation.

(3) The furnishing, for compensation, of meals or lodging or both to any person who is not a member of the family, as defined in this chapter.

Provided, however, that (1) and (2) of the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit a physician, surgeon, or dentist from maintaining an office in his home under the conditions specified in section 5.11.

No person shall, as an incident to visiting any place of business, park a motor vehicle on any private vacant lot in a residence district unless such vacant lot be a parking lot duly licensed by the City under 5.14 (5). Any person owning a vacant lot in a residence district surfaced or maintained in a manner which invites parking thereon shall, unless the same be so licensed by the City, post a notice on such lot that parking thereon incidental to visiting a place of business is a violation of the City ordinances.

Add new provision to the Ordinance Code to read as follows:

5.2 (1) REPRESENTATIONS INDUCING ZONING VIOLATIONS. No person shall, for the purpose of initiating or facilitating any commercial transaction, by any placard, sign, want ad, brochure, advertising, sales talk or otherwise, represent or imply that any property is usable, or invite another to use any property, for a purpose or in a manner prohibited by this Chapter.

Amend 5.11 of the Ordinance Code to read as follows:

5.11 MACK AVENUE RESIDENCE DISTRICT MEDICAL-DENTAL OFFICES. On Mack Avenue in a residence district, a physician, surgeon or dentist may maintain an office in his home, as an accessory residential use, and carry on the practice of his profession in his own home under the following conditions: The professional entrance is on Mack Avenue; the floor area set aside for such activity is not more than 900 square feet nor more than one-third of the aggregate first and second floor area of the residence (garage being excluded); and, the activity is not carried on in a structure separate from the residence, nor in a wing unless at least one-third of the wall of such wing is common to the remainder of the residence. Those offices of a physician, surgeon or dentist established in residence district on streets other than Mack Avenue and under a residence building permit issued prior to January 1, 1947, shall be deemed to be non-conforming uses and shall not be enlarged or materially altered; after such date no new offices of a physician, surgeon, or dentist shall be established in a residence district on streets other than Mack Avenue; further, the right to use any such non-conforming office shall not be transferred after December 31, 1958 and the use of such office shall not thereafter be intsituted or continued by any person other than the pnysician, surgeon or dentist using the same on December 31, 1958. In the case of every such office in a residence district (wheresoever located and whensoever established) the professional activities shall be limited to out-patient treatment, only one physician, surgeon or dentist shall practice in such office and then only if he is the occupant of the residence to which the office is accessory (or temporarily substituting for such occupant).

Amend 5.7 of the Ordinance Code to read as follows:

5.7 (1) STREET ACCESS. No dwelling shall be built unless on a lot fronting upon a public street or upon a permanent unobstructed easement of access to a public street, which easement shall have a width throughout of not less than thirty feet and at the end thereof and at intermediate intervals of not more than five hundred feet a turn-around not less in width than forty feet.

5.7 (2) FRONTAGE AND AREA TO CONFORM TO NEIGHBORHOOD. In any case where at least fifty percent of the frontage in the block on the same side of the street is occupied by residences, no dwelling shall be erected or used on any lot having a frontage of less than ninety percent of the "average lot frontage" nor having an area of less than ninety percent of the "average lot area" in the block. Such "average lot frontage" shall be determined by taking the average of the frontage of the improved residence lots in the block on the same side of the street, but in determining said average the largest improved lots, in number not to exceed one-quarter of the total improved lots, may be excluded. The "average lot area" shall be similarly determined. Nothing in the above shall prevent the use for one family of any lot of record existing on June 1, 1958 and having a frontage or area less than the aforesaid "average lot frontage" or "average lot area". Lots in the residence districts shall also conform to the minimum area requirements of Sections 5.23 and 5.31.

CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES have authorized their joint air defense forces to retaliate without governmental consultation in the event of an enemy assault upon the North American Continent.

The forces involved are made up of anti-aircraft, fighter interceptor planes and radar warning devices. The agreement has no bearing on the United States Strategic Air Command which is armed with nuclear bombers.

The diplomatic exchange formalizes the creation of the North American Air Defense Command that has been in operation with headquarters at Colorado Springs, since last August.

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY voted a state of emergency in France Friday night. The action gave moderate Premier Pflimlin extraordinary power for three months to smash a "plot" and head off outright rebellion either by Communists or DeGaullists.

Pflimlin immediately cancelled all leaves for troops in Metropolitan France. He forbade soldiers home on leave from Algeria to return to the territory, where a civilian-military junta, backing Gen. Charles DeGaulle formed a virtual regime Friday.

The Premier called in tough Jules Moch as Interior minister. It was Moch who ruthlessly smashed nationwide Communist riots in 1947-48.

THE MICHIGAN SUPREME COURT convicted Circuit Judge Eugene Snow Huff of contempt Friday and fined him $250. But the Saginaw jurist continued to defy the high court. He promised to fight its unprecedented decision in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Huff has ignored the court's order transferring him to the Wayne County bench for a month. Circuit Judge Timothy Quinn, of Caro, was named Huff's temporary successor as presiding judge.

Sunday, May 18

EMBATTLED PREMIER Pierre Pflimlin told the French nation Saturday night he will use all his extraordinary emergency powers to crush the efforts of groups, right or left, attempting a violent overthrow of the French Republic.

Pflimlin went to the people a few hours after the Cabinet session which names the new chief of staff for the armed forces and adopted the first measure under the new emergency powers bill.

CIRCUIT JUDGE Eugene Huff called off his historic battle with the Michigan Supreme Court Saturday and said he would come to Detroit Monday to sit on the Wayne County bench.

The Saginaw jurist had sworn continued defiance of the high court Friday when it convicted him of contempt and fined him $250. Huff's attorney said he would carry the judge's fight to the United States Supreme Court.

Huff's fight with the high court developed when it temporarily assigned another judge to replace him in Saginaw because of complaints about long-delayed cases on his docket. Huff disputed the right of the court to reassign him.

THE U.S. SATURDAY SENT the first 18 of 35 to 40 big C-124 transport planes to Europe for possible use in evacuating Americans from revolt-threatened Lebanon.

The State Department also announced the United States is responding to an appeal by the Beirut Government to expedite previously planned military aid shipments and in some instances to augment these programs.

Monday, May 19

A GIANT STRIKE threatened Paris Monday with the appearance of Gen. Charles DeGaulle for a news conference at which he may spell out his terms for taking power.

The strike call was issued by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor. It asked workers in the Paris region to stage a stay-down strike at 3 p.m.—the hour of DeGaulle's news conference, and be ready to reply en masse "to any attempt at a fascist demonstration".

A BELGIAN AIRLINER coming in for an emergency landing with a bad engine smashed through a building at Casablanca's Cazes Airport Sunday and exploded.

Sixty-five persons, including at least eight children, perished. Four passengers escaped by plunging through a hatchway seconds before the Sabena Airlines four-engine DC6B blew up.

Forty-one of the dead passengers were Belgians, most returning to the Belgian Congo

Notice of Proposed Alcoholic Beverages-Minor Ordinance

To The Residents Of The City Of Grosse Pointe Farms

Notice is hereby given that a PUBLIC HEARING will be held in the City Hall, 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan, on

at 8:00 P.M. for the purpose of hearing any taxpayers, residents or citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms on the following proposed Alcoholic Beverages-Minor Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING THE PURCHASING, OFFER TO PURCHASE OR ATTEMPTING TO PURCHASE OR PROCURE, OR THE TRANSPORTATION OF BEER, WINE OR OTHER ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES BY PERSONS UNDER THE AGE OF 21 YEARS IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS, MICHIGAN.

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms Ordains:

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 21 years falsely to represent himself to be of the age 21 years or over when purchasing, offering to purchase, or attempting to purchase or procure beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages or to give any false information regarding his age to any law enforcement officer or to any other person selling beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages for the purpose of securing a sale thereof to himself.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to make any false representation in order to procure the sale or furnishing of beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages to any person under the age of 21.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 21 years of age to purchase, or knowlingly possess, transport, or have under his control in any vehicle, any beer, wine or other alcoholic beverages, unless such person is employed by a licensee under a license issued by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, and is possessing, transporting or having such alcoholic beverages in a vehicle under his control during regular working hours and in the course of his employment.

Sec. 4. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall upon conviction therof be subject to a fine not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or, by imprisonment in the City or County jail for a term not exceeding ninety (90) days, or both such fine and imprisonment may be imposed in the discretion of the Court.

Sec. 5. If any provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 6. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the date of its enactment or upon publication, whichever is later.

This notice is given pursuant to direction of the City Council, and in accordance with said ordinance and the statutes in such case made and provided.

Three Officers Hired by City

Three new men were added to the roster last Friday, May 16, at the Grosse Pointe City Police and Fire Station. Two of them will be wielding hatchets and hose for the fire department.

William Eugene Taylor, 23, of 4153 Ashland, in Detroit, is one of the additions and the other is James Henry Bloom, 22, of 17205 Cincinnati. Both men are single and currently live with their parents.

Thomas McLaughlin, Jr., has joined the police squad. Tom, 23, lives at 843 St. Clair avenue with his wife, the former Barbara DeSmet, and eight-month-old son, Daniel.

A true diplomat is a man who has the ability to keep his face closed at the right time.

GPHS Alumni Win Honors

Thirteen alumni of Grosse Pointe High School were honored at the University of Michigan's thirty-fifth honors convocation last Friday, May 9, for "outstanding achievement". The convocation is an annual assembly to salute students who have earned a minimum of half A's and half B's for at least two consecutive semesters. Freshmen are judged on their first semester marks only.

Susan Evely, June '56, and Elizabeth Henderson, June '55, were cited as James B. Angell scholars.

(Mr. Angell, a former Grosse Pointer, passed away earlier this spring. His father was a past president of the University of Michigan).

The students earned this recognition because they maintained all A's for two consecutive semesters.

Other High School alumni who were honored are John Bennett, January '57; Richard Denise, June '57; Ronald Fine, June '57; Frederick Greiling, June '55; Sandra Halford, June '55; Beverly Harling, January '55; Marcia Keller, June '56; David Maguire, June '52; Robert Richardson, June '53; Elsie Scherer, June '56; and Frederick Slocum, June '51.

Twelve of these local scholars were honor graduates while at Grosse Pointe High School.

Memorial Day Services Set

Promptly at 10:45 a.m. on May 30 the Color Guard of Sea Explorer Ship 690 will raise and then half mast the colors on the flag pole in front of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 32 Lake Shore road.

At 11 o'clock, services will be held honoring the Grosse Pointe men who gave their lives in World War II and Korea. The ceremonies will take place in the beautiful and dignified Memorial Gardens, weather permitting, and will be held inside in the Great Hall in case of rain.

Following the advancing and placing of the colors, Rev. Father Thomas P. McWilliams of St. Ambrose Church will open the service with a prayer. The officiating dignitaries including Martin Nielsen, American Legion, Post 303; Howard Wood, Alger Post 995 V.F.W.; Fred W. Parker, Jr., Mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe; and Charles W. Elliott, President of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial association, will be introduced.

Rev. Marcus Johnson, Minister of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, will speak honoring those who gave their lives in conflict.

The Gold Star Honor Roll will be read by Mayor Parker followed by volley, taps and echo by the firing squad of Alger Post 995, V.F.W., and Bugler John Brockman.

Wreaths will be placed under the bronze plaques in the Memorial's foyer by Ladies of the Auxiliaries of American Legion Post 303 and Alger Post 995, V.F.W. assisted by Girl Scout Mariner Troop 385 who will also act as ushers and post their colors at the plaques.

The service will conclude with a benedictoin by Rev. Father McWilliams.

at 8:00 P.M. for the purpose of hearing any taxpayers, residents or citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms on the following proposed Smoking and Fire Producing Devices Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING SMOKING AND USE OF SPARK, FLAME, MATCH AND FIRE PRODUCING DEVICES IN RETAIL STORES, BUILDINGS AND SECTIONS OF BUILDINGS IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS.

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms Ordains:

Sec. 1. Smoking is prohibited in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms in that portion of any retail store in which gasoline, kerosene or other such flammable liquids or other highly combustible merchandise or materials are sold, offered or exposed for sale, or in any retail store, building or section of building in which the Grosse Pointe Farms' Fire Department or its authorized representative by written order to the owner, occupant, firm or corporation having control or management thereof, finds that smoking therein is dangerous to life or property.

Sec. 2. The use of any spark, flame, match, or a fire producing device for purposes of demonstration, is hereby prohibited in any retail store, building or section of building hereinabove referred to in Section 1, unless said department or representative shall find that the use or such articles therein is not dangerous to life or property and shall give a written authorization therefor.

Sec. 3. The owner, occupant, firm or corporation having control or management of any such retail store, building or section of building in which smoking shall be prohibited as provided in Section 1 hereof, shall post in appropriate and conspicuous places therein notices and/or signs reading "NO SMOKING — CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS FIRE DEPARTMENT".

Sec. 4. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be subjected to a fine not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

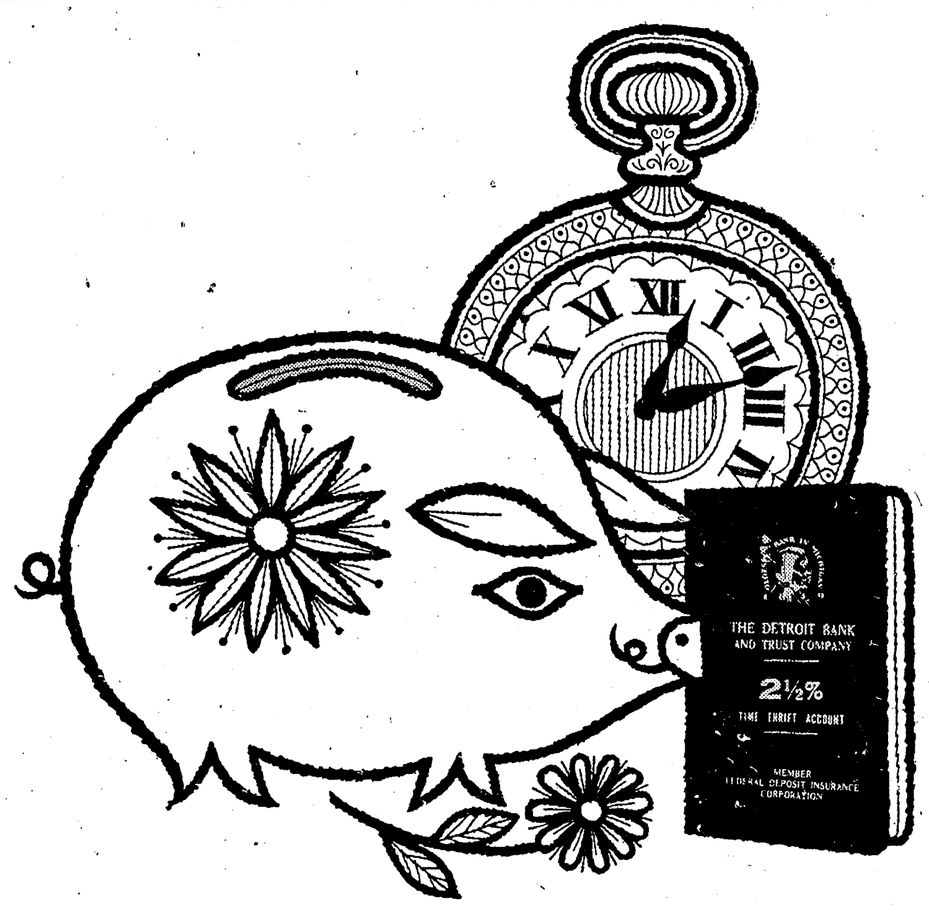

Sec. 5. If any provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the remainder of the ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 6. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

This notice is given pursuant to direction of the City Council, and in accordance with said ordinance and the statues in such case made and provided.

DAWSON F. NACY

Pointe Business Notes

Today, the manager is still working for the two Boston businessmen, Ernest Henderson, president, and Robert L. Moore, chairman of the Sheraton Corporation of America. The manager, Elmer E. Boswell, is now vice-president, and corporate manager of the company's 47 hotels in the United States and Canada.

Starting with a modest hotel in Springfield, Mass., the Sheraton hotels and office buildings today are worth over $125,000,000.

A former Grosse Pointer and student at Grosse Pointe University School, William C. Finkenstaedt, has been appointed assistant general manager of Haskelite Manufacturing Corporation, Grand Rapids. The announcement has been made by Robert B. Evans, president of Haskelite, who is a resident of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Finkenstaedt, who attended GPUS in '35 '36 and '37 while it was still known as Detroit University School, is a Princeton graduate. He served as a captain with the U. S. Air Force in England during the war. He and his wife, the former Christine Caulkins of Grosse Pointe, have made their home in Grand Rapids for the past year.

Edwin H. Bower, 1145 Bedford, and William A. Post, 1003 Buckingham, will speak to a Business Planning Symposium in Detroit this Thursday, May 8, at the Rackham Building.

The Detroit Chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters is sponsoring an all day discussion of the financial problems facing today's businessman.

Robert W. Krause, of 2163 Allard, has won a trip to the Brussels World's Fair.

Bob, an International Business Machines Corporation Sales Representative from the Detroit Downtown Branch Office, was named the 1957 National Sales Leader of the Electric Typewriter Division.

Mr. Krause has presided as president of the IBM Hundred Percent Club conventions in Florida and California.

Krause has also been invited to attend the IBM World Trades Corporation's convention in Milan, Italy. He will be leaving Detroit on May 13. He will spend a month in Europe visiting Italy, Switzerland, France, Belgium and England.

J. William Berns has been elected treasurer of the Detroit Chapter, American Institute of Banking. The American Institute of Banking is the largest adult educational group associated with any one industry.

Mr. Berns, an assistant cashier of The Detroit Bank and Trust Company, graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1940, and the University of Michigan business School in 1944. He served three years in the Navy Supply Corps as Lt. (j.g.).

A resident of Grosse Pointe for many years, Mr. Berns resides with his wife, Helen, and three children, Michael, Peter, and Mary Kirk, at 22900 Avalon, St. Clair Shores. He is a member of the Holy Name Society, First Friday Club, Vortex Club, and Sigma Phi Fraternity, and has been active in Junior Achievement and A.I.B.

Dr. Leon A. Sweet, vice-president and director of research for Parke, Davis & Company, has announced the appointment of Dr. Charles F. Weiss to the pharmaceutical firm's clinical investigation staff.

Dr. Weiss, a native of Michigan who received his medical degree from Vanderbilt in 1949, will work under the supervision of Dr. J. K. Weston, director of clinical investigation.

Dr. Weston said Dr. Weiss would concentrate his activities in the virus field.

In private practice here before joining Parke-Davis, Dr. Weiss, who served in the Armed Forces during World War II and the Korean War, lives with his family at 203 McMillan, Grosse Pointe Farms. He is on the staff of Children's Hospital, Harper Hospital, and Detroit Receiving Hospital.

JOHN S. PINGEL, vice-president of Brooke, Smith, French & Dorrance, Inc., has been elected a governor of the Michigan Council of the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

The board of governors named Pingel to fill the vacancy created by the transfer of William G. Moore of J. Walter Thompson, to New York. He is a past vice president of the Detroit Sales Executives Club and a board member and membership chairman of the Detroit Adcraft Club.

ROBERT R. ROY has been elected a vice-president and member of the executive board of Ross Roy, Inc.

Robert Roy, 29, joined the agency in 1948, and in the next four years received training in various departments, especially those directly concerned with automotive accounts. In 1952, he left the agency for three years of retail sales and service work.

In 1955 Roy returned to Ross Roy, Inc., as supervisor of merchandising and sales training on the Chrysler Division account.

Married and the father of one child, Mr. Roy lives at 597 Hollywood, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Appointment of Ronald H. Allor as assistant art director on the Dodge account with Grant Advertising's Detroit office was announced by M. B. Cather, Grant-Detroit office manager.

A native Grosse Pointer, Allor attended Grosse Pointe High School and Northwestern University.

He formerly served with BBDO and Ross Roy here, and with the Pitt Studios in Pittsburgh. He is a member of the Art Directors Club of Detroit.

Joseph H. Spitzley, will head the national convention of the Mechanical Contractors Association of America in Los Angeles May 20-23.

He and Mrs. Spitzley, who will accompany him, live at 740 South Oxford with their daughter and two sons.

He is president of the association of 1,200 leading industrial and commercial mechanical contractors.

Election of Wilber H. Mack as executive vice-president of the American Louisiana Pipe Line Company and the Michigan Pipe Line Company, was announced today by Ralph T. McElvenny, president and board chairman of both companies. The two pipe line firms are affiliated with the American Natural Gas Company system.

Mack will continue as director and general attorney for both pipe line companies. He also is secretary of American Louisiana, director and general attorney of the affiliated American Natural Gas Service Company as well as director, vice-president and secretary of American Natural Gas Production Company.

A native of Westfield, Mass., he was graduated from Dartmouth and George Washington University Law School.

During World War II he served as a lieutenant commander with the Office of Naval Intelligence in India and Pakistan.

Married with three children, Mack resides at 588 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe. He is a member of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, and Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, the Detroit Club, Country Club of Detroit and American Newcomen Society.

Stolen Property Charge Denied

Acting on a tip, Park police arrested Ralph W. Hehlhose, 39, of 837 Nottingham, at his home on Monday, May 19, and held him for investigation of receiving stolen property.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Mehlhose is charged with receiving and concealing stolen property worth over $100, when a typewriter, said to be one of several recently stolen from the Roosevelt High School in Wyandotte, was found in Mehlhose's house.

Mehlhose entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, on Tuesday, May 20. He was placed under $2,000 bond pending an examination before the judge on Wednesday, May 28. When the bond could not be met, the accused man was remanded to the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff.

Salk Vaccine 3 Years Old

This April marked the third official birthday of the Salk vaccine. It was on April 12, 1955 that Dr. Thomas Francis Salk, standing before assembled scientists, physicians and health officers at the University of Michigan, pronounced to the world that the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk, under a National Foundation grant, was safe, potent and effective in preventing paralytic polio.

The Salk vaccine has taken its place in history as one of the milestones of medical science.

Its acceptance by millions of Americans and the subsequent drop in polio incidence marks a new and important development in public health. Never before has a major achievement in preventive medicine been executed on so vast a scale in so short a time.

Prior to the Salk vaccine there was an erratic but mounting polio incidence that reached a peak in 1952 with 57,879 cases. The average annual number of cases for the five-year period from 1950-1954 was 38,727.

In 1955—the first year of widespread anti-polio inoculation—there were 28,985 cases or 25 per cent below the five year average.

Throughout 1956, the National Foundation vigorously pursued a vaccination education program. There was another dramatic drop in the number of polio cases in 1957.

Despite this picture, Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, medical director of the National Foundation, warns that complacent optimism might result in polio epidemics this coming summer unless millions of Americans get their shots beginning NOW.

Election Held By Tuxis Club

By JANET COLLINSON, GPHS Journalism Student

With the close of the 1957-58 year, the last official meeting of the Tuxis Club of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was devoted to the election of next year's officers.

Heading next year's club meetings will be the new president, Rem Purdy. A junior, Rem is this year's treasurer, and will take over the job held by his class-mate, Jim Carne.

Assisting Rem will be the club's new vice-president, Nancy Ruby. The G.P.H.S. junior class vice-president has held positions of refreshment chairman and secretary of the club's annual Variety Show. She is succeeding Sue McKee.

Both Rem and Nancy were opposed to Pete Mitchelson who was nominated twice from the floor, as well as Nancy Drennon, who was nominated for the vice-presidency.

The responsibility of club correspondence and minutes will fall on the shoulders of Jinny Pear, newly-elected secretary, who is succeeding Janet Collinson. Jinny's opponents in the election were Stevie Kerbawy and Nancy Drennon.

The club's "man about money matters" will be John Doyle, who defeated Steve Whittlesey and Bill Petit for the office of treasurer.

The first duty of these officers will be to choose their cabinet for the following year.

The man who is fired with enthusiasm is seldom fired off a job.

Vets' Insurance Rumor Explained

Veterans Administration denied categorically the report that $60 million in unclaimed premium refunds awaits veterans who hold or have held World War II GI life insurance policies.

The unfounded report emanating from Kentucky, VA says, has brought a deluge of post card requests for the nonexistent dividends.

VA said the erroneous report may have started from the recent cancellation of 63,000 undeliverable National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) dividend checks, most of which date back to the 1948 special dividend which was paid to policyholders or ex-policyholders for time in service during World War II.

The checks, which total less than $3 million, were returned to VA because the veterans had moved without leaving a change of address notice with the post office.

GI life insurance checks have always been forwardable if a change of address notice has been filed with the post office although forwarding of other VA checks was not permitted before January 1, 1958, the agency said.

Although the checks have been cancelled, VA said, the money is being held in a special fund and will be paid to eligible veterans as they are located.

More than 99.6 per cent of eligible veterans applied for and received the special NSLI dividend, VA pointed out.

We Hereby Proclaim

We hereby proclaim we have no desire to be a mayor, because we have taken such a hate on proclamations. Nor do we want to be a governor or a president, mostly for the same reason. Sometimes we even hate being an editor, because our desk gets so cluttered with proclamations brought by mail and messenger from all points of the compass.

Hardly a week goes by that isn't the imagined private property of myriad groups, organizations and movements. Many are legitimate and deserve the solemnity and special observance pointed out in the recognition of worthiness by the powers that be. Most of them are strictly commercial, trumped up by press agents with over-active thyroids and sufficient connections through official channels. All of them are so stereotyped as to be frightfully boring and deserve a fate no better than being filed instantly in the wastebasket.

It is rather too bad that such a bright and shining declaration of praise and appreciation should have degenerated into such a mediocrity that it can generate but yawns or annoyance. When this custom was started, the object or cause of the proclamation had really proved himself or itself through trial by fire, or better or worse. Now the only qualification for having a proclamation issued is possessing the proper pull with some official who is too tired or too busy to evaluate the situation, or who lacks the intestinal fortitude to say phooey.

It isn't quite fair to the worthy causes. One can't help but be confused and slightly embittered when he discovers that the Armed Forces, the shoe retailers, the dairy farmers, the international yo-yo manufacturers and the state organization of sufferers from housemaid's knee are all laying claim to equal recognition at precisely the same time. It is disconcerting and nauseating.

We can't blame the mayors for delegating the powers to approve or reject these deathless pieces of literature to those serving under them. We only hope they draw a mental bead on the plight in which we find ourselves.

We have discovered one more reason why there should be but one Grosse Pointe. The mayors, even if through some inexcusable error, one of these proclamations slips through the tight office machinery and swims into their ken, have to look at but one copy. With five municipalities in this closely-knit community, we get five copies of the same proclamation on our desk every time a public relations expert scores a goal.

We should like to proclaim the next seven days as "Down With Proclamations Week." And just in case this happens to be National Corn and Bunion Week, we apologize for any toes on which we might have stepped. We're off for the Boll Weevil Ball with the Cotton Pickers, Unlimited.

Plan Largest Scouting Show

Merritt D. Hill, Scout Council Vice-Chairman, whose current community project is Scouting's mammoth Exposition, announces that many leaders of business and industry are also cooperating in what will be the "largest Scouting Show in the World" at the State Fairgrounds June 6-7-8. The attendance and ticket sales records of the 1956 show will be far surpassed according to Hill and his associates.

Co-chairman of "Participation and Space Assignment" are Scout Board Members F. Llyod Smith and Vincent J. Watkins. The "Special Features" committee is under the direction of Robert J, Lenihan, Chevrolet Division of General Motors.

"Finance" committee chairman is the Scout Council Treasurer, Wendell C. Goodard. "Publicity" chairman is Scott Wigle of Campbell-Ewald Company. His associates are Edmund D. Mansfield, Jr. and James Eberle of the United Foundation, also Stan Drall of Ford Motor and Howard Tuttle of the Tractor Division. "Arrangements and Construction" chairman is George J. Limp.

The "Services" committee chairman is William J. Quinn, The "Judging and Awards" committee will again be chaired by U. S. Federal Judge Thomas P. Thornton, who has attained outstanding success in previous expositions. "Ticket Sales and Attendance" is being supervised by John S. Pingel, vice-president of Brooke, Smith, French and Dorrance, Inc.

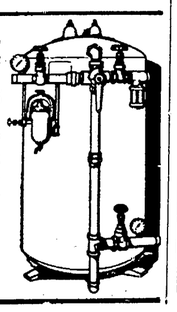

Scout Council Commissioner Lee R. J. Scott is serving as chairman of the Exposition Management Committee and Exposition Director is Deputy Scout Executive L. Robert Kilmer.

All of the committees have already been in conference, some of them several times, with their particular phase of the program. A ticket sales "kick-off" dinner is scheduled for Monday evening, April 14, at the Fort Shelby Hotel. Shortly thereafter 600,000 tickets will be distributed to the 89,000 registered members of the Council for sale to the public.

Each Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer who sells his quota of 10 tickets will receive a handsome "Barker Bill" neckershief slide. Other valuable prizes are being offered to the top salesman of each Cub Scout Pack, Boy Scout Troop and Explorer Unit.

In utilizing much of the outdoors area of the Fairgrounds for exhibits and demonstrations, many more visitors can be accommodated. During the 1954 and 1956 Expositions the large building doors were closed several times by Fire Inspectors who decreed that "too many people" were inside.

"They say my verse is sad: no wonder;
Its narrow measure spans
Tears of eternity, and sorrow,
Not mine . . . but man's.
This is for all ill-treated fellows
Unborn and unbegot,
For them to read when they're in trouble
And I am not!"

(Housman)

Joseph deGrimme, purveyor of all that is artistic, told us recently another of his fabulous tales of "old Vienna." This one has to do with a hospital and restaurant . . . all in one full swoop. It seems that some of the working Internes in the local "Receiving" hospital . . had to do other chores at night in order to make ends meet. Our particular hero of this story . . . chose to earn HIS extra pay by waiting on table in a nearby cafe.

The time came when our boy graduated into being active in surgery, should an emergency arise in the hospital . . . but he still kept his waiter's job at night. After he had been promoted to active duty on the staff . . . an emergency DID come up one late afternoon, when a nervous patient who was waiting to be sliced open for an appendectomy . . . saw . . . as he lay on his operating table . . . our hero walk by dressed in the usual surgeon's garb. The patient, called to him and said: "I've been lying here for hours waiting for my Doctor to operate on me. I can't stand it any longer . . . why don't YOU do the operation?" The little doctor-waiter glanced at him and said: "Sorry, but this is not my table!"

We will never cease to wonder at the magic of the teen-ager. A couple of weeks ago, the small sister of a nineteen-year-old boy, was scheduled to be christened at the Church to which the family belonged. Naturally, the parents took it for granted that Junior would attend the ceremonies . . . and with PLEASURE! However, when they saw him sneaking out the back door in tennis clothes about an hour before the christening was to take place . . . Dad collared the lad and said: "Where are you going dressed like that . . . we are due at the Church in less than an hour?" The boy allowed as how he had a tennis date.

By this time, mother joined the discussion . . . and told her offspring in no uncertain terms that he was to be back ON TIME . . . which wouldn't leave much room for tennis. The lad thought a minute, then asked, "Do I have to wear a TIE?"

A local gent who was told by his Doctor that he had better cut out drinking or at WORST, stick to only ONE DRINK A DAY . . . was bragging to his friends one recent evening, that he had lived up to his advice to the LETTER. When they "raised-eyebrowed" him, he exclaimed: "I HAVE TOO . . . he said one drink a day and I'm watching that calender like a hawk. I'm up to July 3rd, 1985."

If you're having parking meter trouble, you might try this out for size. A very persnickety gentleman on the Coast who carries a locked change purse . . . noted one day that he had overlapped his time on the meter when he KNEW danged well he had been parked for less than five minutes. He put up a stiff argument . . . but was told that facts were facts and meters don't lie. Being a watch repairer by trade . . . our little man started on a campaign of proof. In the dead of night, he went to the nasty meter, took it apart and found that the timing was off by three minutes! He became so enthusiastic that he went up and down the street testing some of the others and found they were ALL off three minutes. He took his "case" to the local Brass . . . and the red faced policemen had to admit he was right.

A local gent who is somewhat of a character . . . has been taking walks for his health for lo, these many months. So as not to get too bored, he decided to wear a pedometer to check on his mileage each day . . . at least it would afford an added interest.

One day, he ran into an acquaintance, who asked how far he was going and would he like to be joined. The pacer said he was going as far as the High School and would welcome the man's company . . . but it would cost him 18 cents. He showed the pedometer . . . hoping for some smiling reaction, but the friend (with NO sense of humor whatsoever) said . . . "Well, then I'll just walk to the next corner." Our hero replied blandly . . . "Then that will cost you 16 cents to walk with me."

The other looked at him rather queerly . . . and replied . . . "Never mind, I'll walk on the other side of the street. It will be cheaper."

We LOVE stories like this true one. A local woman with a small back yard and not too much dough . . . found an ad for some breakfast food . . . where you cut off the box top and send fifty cents with it for a ROSE from Texas. The little clump arrived in due time and she planted it. So far so good. She expected it to be a small bush but it turned out to be a lush rambling thing that ran completely out of control.

A neighbor told her she should have a trellis on which to train it . . . but advised her not to get a wooden one because they rot too quickly. The box-top woman allowed as how she didn't know too much about such things, so the woman offered to have her husband pick up a trellis near the place where he works. FINE, sez our heroine. Nothing like neighborliness.

In due time, the next door husband not only brought home the metal trellis, he also put it up and fixed the rose bush. When the woman asked what she owed him for the trellis . . . he said "Nineteen dollars." She has since given up box tops with inexpensive gifts attached as lures!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Fifty million Frenchmen can be wrong, as has been proven many times. At Churchill Downs Tim Tam gave the eager followers of Silky Sullivan cause for wonder, and the recent race for top place in the book world has also had an element of surprise.

The 1958 Pulitzer Prizes were announced early this month, and although many predicted that the fiction Pulitzer would go to James Gould Couzzens for By Love Possessed, there seemed to be general satisfaction when the award was given to A Death in the Family by James Agee. Mr. Agee died three years ago when preparing his completed novel for publication. It is interesting to note that the late Mr. Agee's book was brought out by a publishing firm less than one year old. McDowell Obolensky, and has sold over 24,000 copies to date.

Another posthumous award was the Pulitzer biography prize for George Washington, volumes 1-6 by Douglas Southall Freeman, and volume 7 by John Alexander Carroll and Mary Wells Ashworth, who completed the final volume after Dr. Freeman's death in 1953. Mrs. Ashworth had worked with Dr. Freeman on his biography for eight years. Professor Carroll is professor of American history at Del Mar College, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The award for drama went to the play, Look Homeward Angel, adapted from Thomas Wolfe's novel by Ketti Frings. There has been a revived interest in this author since the publication last year of Thomas Wolfe's Letters. The play opened in New York in December.

Robert Penn Warren must be well conditioned to prizes by this time. His Promises: Poems 1954 - 56 received this year's Pulitzer for poetry, and his novel All the King's Men received the Pulitzer fiction award for 1947. Promises received two other prizes earlier this year, the Edna St. Vincent Millay award which is given annually by the Poetry Society of America and the National Book Award for poetry. Mr. Warren is professor of English at Yale.

The National Book Awards are sponsored by American Publishers Council, American Booksellers Association and Book Manufacturers' Institute and originated eight years ago to give recognition to the most distinguished book by an American author in each caegory of Fiction, Nonfiction and Poetry published in the preceding year.

When nominations for the Ninth Annual Book Awards were made two months ago, there were eight fiction nominations, A Death In the Family, The Wapshot Chronicle by John Cheever, By Love Possessed, Something About a Soldier by Mark Harris, The Assistant by Bernard Malamud, Atlas Shrugged by Ayn Rand, The Return of Lady Brace by Nancy W. Ross and Birth of a Grandfather by May Sarton.

Again the concensus seemed to be that when the judges made the final choice it might be the widely touted By Love Possessed by James Gould Couzzens, a novelist of some twenty years' experience. Again there was surprise when the laurels went to The Wapshot Chronicle, a first novel by John Cheever. Mr. Cheever, however, was well known for his short stories, many of which have appeared in the New Yorker. The Enormous Radio is a collection of his short stories, which you will find on the library shelves. Mr. Cheever writes for radio and teaches at Barnard College.

What with prize-winning books and runners up popping up on all sides, it's still fun to predict. Who knows? Some day we may be right.

Energine No Sub for Milk

Young Charles Fletcher (aged two), of 680 Rivard boulevard learned at an early age, last Friday, May 16, at 8:51 a.m. to be exact, that Energine not only doesnt taste very good—but it burns the insides of one's tummy, too!

Charlie took a big swig of the stuff, and the subsequent screams were enough to merit an emergency run, in a squad car, to Bon Secours Hospital.

Quick action with a stomach pump brought welcome relief and a brief hour later Charlie was a much wiser—happier little man as he walked out of the hospital—to return to a refreshing bottle of milk!

Farms Police Check Loss of Gold Bracelets

Farms police are checking into the loss of three solid gold charm bracelets reported missing by Patrick Adamson of 69 Touraine, on Tuesday, May 13.

Adamson told authorities that the three bracelets, one with 24 charms, one with 14, and the third with 12, have been missing from his home since sometime between October 1957 and last month.

He was unable to give a description of the charms, but said the total value of the bracelets was $550.

Be Cautious Not Sorry

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Summer skies and open spaces are very inviting, and somewhat treacherous, too. Exposing a great deal of the skin surface while walking through fields and woods invites skin poisonings of many kinds.

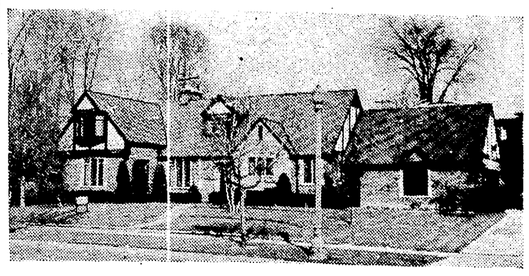

In an effort to "relax" by pursuing a favorite sport it is possible to work the muscles so hard that they become sore and painful. Cuts, bruises and burns are all to be guarded against.

You will have a better vacation or weekend if you are careful . . . take along a first aid kit for any emergency. Buy it from a friendly, alert druggist.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Duke Ellington and his band have played to standing room crowds for two generations as this Friday night at the Country Club proves. The 650 tickets available for the dance were gone within hours of the announcement that the great jazz impressario was coming here.

It will be quite a day for Mrs. Forbes Howard and Mrs. Charles B. Warren, Jr., both of whom will be steering the Republican Women's Fashion Show from 7 o'clock Friday morning till within a few minutes of the dinner dance. Incidentally, Mrs. C. A. Dean, Jr., will give a dinner in her Lewiston road home this Thursday evening before the big GOP do.

Mrs. Howard was on the committee arranging for the Duke and Berrien Eaton, Jr., is the entertainment chairman.

The Robert Surdams will be having a party in their Lewiston road home before the dance as will the George Haggartys, of Renaud road.

Coming from Cincinnati for the gala will be the newlywed Charles Hassans (Sammy Chapin), and the Chapins will be well represented with the John C. Chapins and the Hugo Higbies also holding tickets for the jazz jamboree.

That same evening there will be some competion for the Country Club party for Mrs. John Anderson is giving a dinner dance in her Lakeshore road home. Jack Qualey will be supplying the music for this soiree.

Newlywed Holleys in Town

And more newlywed news concerns the Danforth Holleys, who were married a few weeks ago on the Coast. They have come on here from their wedding trip in Carmel and will be entertained this Saturday night by the James G. Morrisons, of Hall place.

Also in the party will be the Victor H. Taylors, the bride's brother and sister-in-law and some Pointe newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, who have recently moved here from Winnetka, Ill.

The dinner guests will all be leaving from the Morrisons for the Montmartre Ball at the Detroit Boat Club.

Miss Schrage Picks Bridal Attendants

Will Marry James Sylvain June 14 in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore with Reception to Follow in Touraine Road Home of Her Parents, the Joseph A. Schrages

Evelyn Schrage, daughter of the Joseph A. Schrages, of Touraine road, will become the bride of James Sylvain, son of the George Sylvains of Piper avenue, June 14 at St. Paul's Church.

The bride-elect has asked her sister, Deanna, to be her maid-of-honor and a former Sacred Heart Academy classmate, Mrs. A. L. Bruce to be matron-of-honor. Another sister of the bride, Catherine, will be flower-girl. Marcia Byrnes, Sheila Galvin and Beverly Jensen, who two weeks before will become the bride of James Mog, will be bridesmaids.

George Sylvain has been asked by his brother to be best man. Manny Moroun, Harry Oderman, Arthur Bruce, James Mog, William Plante and Frank Borschke, a cousin of the prospective bridegroom, will seat the guests. The reception will be held at the Schrage home.

The first of the pre-nuptial entertainments was held this winter, when Mrs. Raymond Lenfestey and Mrs. Frank Flinchum, aunts of the bride-elect, gave a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at the former's home on Bedford.

In March, Mrs. Richard Schrage and Mrs. John Geymann were hostesses at a dinner and miscellaneous shower at Stouffer's - Eastland. On April 12, Mrs. Edward Koester gave a luncheon and linen shower at the Lochmoor Club and on April 14, Mrs. A. E. Rogers and Mrs. Robert Carman had a pantry shower at the latter's home on Grayton.

Joan Wick Henry Weds Paul Twohey

Wears Champagne Organdy and Lace for Rites Saturday Afternoon in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Chapel; Pair Travel to Nassau

Joan Wick Henry spoke her marriage vows Saturday afternoon to Paul H. Twohey in the chapel at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church with Dr. Frank Fitt officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wick Henry, of Neff road, and her husband is the son of Mrs. John J. Twohey, of Wilton, Conn., and the late Mr. Twohey.

For the rites she chose a gown of champagne organdy and lace with a veil of matching illusion. The bridal bouquet was of Eucharist lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Henry was her daughter's attendant in watermelon pink, green and black print. Her hat was a green velvet band.

When they return the newlyweds will live in Maumee avenue.

League to Hold Annual Session

The Detroit League for Planned Parenthood will hold its Annual Meeting and luncheon on Wednesday, May 28 at 12:15 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Following luncheon and a brief business session, Professor Marston Bates, of the University of Michigan Department of Zoology, will speak. His topic will be "Planning Population."

Besides being a gifted speaker, Professor Bates is the author of six books, among them one entitled "The Prevalence of People." He has held a number of important positions: Special Assistant to the President of the Rockefeller Foundation, a member of the Advisory Committee on General Biology of the Office of Naval Research, and, since 1952, a member of the Divisional Committee for Biology and Medicine of the National Science Foundation.

He is a graduate of the University of Florida, with Master's and Doctor's degrees from Harvard University. He is married and the father of four children.

Preceding the luncheon meeting, the League will hold its annual business meeting and election of officers. The Reverend Sheldon L. Rahn, Board Chairman of the Detroit League, will preside at both meetings. The newly elected officers and board members will be introduced at the luncheon.

Guests are invited to hear Dr. Bates, and must make reservations prior to Monday, May 26.

Among the Pointers on the board of directors for Planned Parenthood are Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr., Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., Mrs. William P. Harris III, Mrs. Joseph Bayne, Mrs. Emory M. Ford, Mrs. Trent McMath, Mrs. Arthur P. Nauman, Mrs. Eliot B. Payson, Mrs. Frank Peck, Mrs. Julius Peter, Mrs. Robert K. Rigger, Mrs. William C. Tost and Mrs. Ross T. Wilkins, Jr.

At an afternoon ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Chapel Saturday, JOAN WICK HENRY became the bride of Mr. Twohey. She is the daughter of Mrs. Wick Henry, of Neff road, and he is the son of Mrs. John J. Twohey, of Wilton, Conn., and the late Mr. Twohey.

POUPARD SCHOOL

The first spelling contest to be held at Poupard School ended with a boy winning the championship. Roy Josephson of Mr. Key's fifth grade class out-spelled the twenty-nine other fifth and sixth graders who were tops in their classes.

Second place went to Linda Sue Crockett and third to Collen Hebbard, both of Mrs. Harrison's class.

The contest lasted six rounds with "substantial" being the word which decided the winner. Second place was decided with the word "acquaintance."

All three winners received books for prizes. The contest was thoroughly enjoyed by parents and students.

All parents of children who will enter kindergarten at Poupard School next year are urged to attend the annual kindergarten roundup which will be held on May 27, at 8 p.m.

The entire program, which will last only a half-hour, will consist of:

1. Registration of your child. (Bring your child's birth certificate as it will help to expedite matters.)

2. A chance to meet the kindergarten teachers.

3. A visit to your child's room.

4. A filmstrip presentation of, "A Day in Kindergarten."

To be eligible for kindergarten a child must be five no later than December 1, 1958. The program has been planned mainly for adults so we are asking that you do not bring the children to this meeting. On Tuesday, June 3, your child is invited to visit the kindergarten rooms.

The children must be accompanied by their parents and should arrive in the school between 3:15 and 4:15.

DEFFER SCHOOL

Science is important in Defer School. Activities in Mrs. McLean's fifth grade serve as an example. For the last three weeks these children have been studying rocks, beginning geology.

In March they visited the Cranbrook Institute of Science for a guided tour of the institute. Here they saw rock formations and collections.

Each day these children have been bring in rock specimens. They are eager to have their collections identified.

As Educational eyes are now being focused on horizons of scientific enterprizes, Defer students are doing their part.

Honor Miss Roney Before June 7 Rites

Sixteen Attendants To Precede Mary Margaret Roney Down Aisle of SS Peter and Paul Church When She Married James Patrick Byrne

Mary Margaret Roney and James Patrick Byrne will repeat their marriage vows June 7 in SS Peter and Paul Church with 16 attendants preceding the bride down the aisle.

Miss Roney is the daughter of the Edward C. Roneys, of Kenwood road, and her fiance is the son of the James B. Byrnes, of Poplar, Mont.

Mrs. Daniel J. Tindall, Jr., will be matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Robert L. Thibodeau, Ann Fenech, Barbara Ann Couzens, Mrs. Philip J. Curry, of Bronxville, N.Y.; Mary Lou Byrne, of Williston, N.D., and Mrs. Herbert I. Buhler.

The parties began early in April with a paper shower in the Seminole avenue home of Mrs Harold B. Fenech and her daughter, Ann.

Mrs. Martin Hoffman and Mrs. Herbert Buhler gave a kitchen shower at the Detroit Athletic Club and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Gorman were hosts at a brunch in their Lothrop road home.

Mrs. Herman Zerkeck gave a recipe shower last week in her Broadstone road home and Saturday evenings hosts will be the Edward C. Roneys, Jr., and the David T. Roneys, who will give a dinner in the latter's home on La Salle place.

On May 25 Miss Celeste and Miss Isabel Roney, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roney and Charles J. Roney will give a dinner party honoring the bridal pair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gotfredson have invited a group for cocktails in their Whittier road home and another shower will be given by Mrs. John Shea.

Other parties have been planned by Mrs. Gerard Slatterly and her daughter, Barbara Couzens; Dr. Hugh Mahoney who will host a barbeque; the spinster dinner to be given by Mrs. Robert Thibodeau and Mrs. Daniel Tindall and the rehearsal dinner will be held at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Suppose everybody did think twice before they spoke—it would have a mighty depressing effect on conversation.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

For a Dutch crumb garnish, mix ½ cup butter with ½ cup dry bread crumbs and brown lightly, according to Anita Dean, foods specialist at Michigan State University. Use Dutch crumbs to garnish vegetables. That golden brown color and good butter flavor make vegetables "tickle the taste buds" of most every member of your family.

Junior Symphony Plans Ball June 7

James E. Gibsons will Host Candlelight Ball in Their Lincoln Road Home; Annual Spring Party of the Junior Woman's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra

The Candlelight Ball, with grace and old world charm the keynote, will be the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's annual party offering of the Spring season. The event will be staged Saturday, June 7, at 9:30 o'clock in the huge Italian Renaissance home of Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott Gibson, 251 Lincoln road.

The party plans were announced as invitations were placed in the mail by Mrs. Edmund C. Risdon, association president, and Mrs. Cornelius N. Ray III, ball chairman. This year's affair, which benefits the Maintenance Fund of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, promises to be the most elegant the Juniors have ever presented.

Guests will dance to the music of Les Shaw and find an elaborate buffet table continually replenished throughout the evening for their convenience. A thousand tapers will glow from one hundred stately candelabra to carry out the ball theme.

The decorations committee plans to line the entranceway, the formal gardens and pool of the imposing home with hurricane lamps. Inside, forests of roses and apple blossoms in great urns and two 15th century altar pieces, Gothic angels holding immense candles, will heighten the mood.

Chairmen of the affair will be Mesdames Stanley R. Day, patrons and invitations; D. Carleton Broderick III, catering; William S. Hickey, decorations; Homer B. Pharis and William A. Risdon, social.

Invitation and patron committee members are Mesdames Donald E. Brown, Robert E. Cain, John E. Chapin, Ralph G. Hesler, Richard W. Tucker, Edmund C. Risdon, Willard W. Wicklund and Weldon O. Yeager.

Party Planned By Newcomers

The ladies of the Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club have planned a dinner at the Village Manor, this Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock with bridge and entertainment to follow.

Mrs. Kenneth Kurtz is chairman of the party assisted by Mrs. Wyatt Haistens, Mrs. Jack Reynolds, Mrs. Donald Bay, Mrs. Richard Davis, Mrs. Richard Woelfel, Mrs. Leo Cowling and Mrs. Neil Shanahan.

On the following day, Friday, the men of the club will have their annual stag party. They will play golf and then have dinner at the Hillcrest Country Club in Mt. Clemens.

Richard Woelfel is chairman of this activity with Ken David, Bob Brownscombe, Fred Schnurr and Bob Baker on his committee.

Seven Colleges Hear Reports

More than 150 alumnae of Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley gathered on Wednesday, May 21, when the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges, Inc. held its annual meeting and tea. Vassar alumna Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli of Voltaire place lent her home for the 31st anniversary of the group.

Guests heard the reports of the 1957 fund-raising project and College Information Day, the two major activities of the Eastern College group.

Mrs. Wilfrid C. McLaughlin, a Vassar graduate and last year's committee chairman, stated that the sold-out performance of famed news commentator Edward R. Murrow at Ford Auditorium on October 15 resulted in a financial success of $8,342.04, which was divided among the seven alumnae groups in proportion to their ticket sales.

Mrs. H. Paul Sloan, Jr., Mt. Holyoke, retiring College Information chairman, reported that the enlarged program this year had attracted secondary school counsellors and principals, as well as prospective students and their parents, from throughout the Michigan area. In the past, alumnae of the seven colleges have been present with literature and information about the opportunities offered at the eastern colleges.

This year's College Information Day, held annually in January at the Women's City Club, also featured Miss Jean Palmer, a Bryn Mawr graduate, former director of the WAVES and now general secretary of Barnard College.

Miss Palmer acted as representative for the seven colleges and spoke to the principals and counsellors and later gathered with the local students and parents to answer questions. Students were shown colored slides of the college campuses with a running commentary telling anecdotes of the different colleges. This portion of the program was arranged by Mrs. William Eyler of Radcliffe and Mrs. George N. Hilfinger, Smith College.

The newly-elected general chairman, Mrs. E. Osborne Coates, Jr., Bryn Mawr, told the group that in view of the outstanding success of Henry Cabot Lodge's lecture in 1956 and Edward R. Murrow's in 1957, a program along the same lines is being arranged for this year's mid-October fund-raising project, with details to be announced later.

Mrs. Coates introduced new officers: Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., Wellesley College, vice chairman along with retiring general chairman Mrs. McLaughlin; Mrs. John J. Bradley, Vassar, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kenneth L. McCoy, Mt. Holyoke, recording secretary; Mrs. Henry E. Swartz, Radcliffe, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are: Mrs. Parbury, Barnard, College Information Day; Mrs. John C. Chapin, Smith, patronesses; Mrs. Leonard J. Grabow, Radcliffe, publicity; Mrs. George Ritchie, Smith, and Mrs. Marvin Bawden, Wellesley, Detroit and Birmingham, tickets; Mrs. George N. Hilfinger and Miss Janet Gallaudet, Smith, public relations and program chairmen.

Mrs. George J. Wilson, Smith graduate and new special events chairman, was in charge of arrangements for the tea following the meeting. Guests took time during this social session to inspect the lovely formal gardens of the Cinelli home and to chat with Mrs. Cinelli about the Italian antiques and paintings which have been brought from her husband's famiy home in Florence, Italy.

Church to Hold Party June 3

The annual luncheon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Women's Club will be held at the Detroit Yacht Club on June 4. Among those busy with plans for this event are, left to right:— MRS. ALFRED MITSCHKE, chairman; MRS. RUSSELL W. RANDALL, ticket chairman; MRS. EARLY G. MEYER, favors; and MRS. JAMES G. GILMORE, decorations.

Church Group Holding Picnic

The annual meeting of the Evening Group of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will be held Tuesday, May 27, at the church and will commence at 6:30 p.m. with a picnic supper.

Following the business meeting and the annual reports, the officers for the new year, beginning next fall, will be installed. They are, president, Mrs. Gerritt Kastenberg; vice-president, Mrs. A. F. Lecklider; secretary, Mrs. P. G. Raphael; and treasurer, Mrs. Emily Beardslee.

The installation service will be conducted by the current president, Mrs. Glenn S. Lockwood, and assisted by three past presidents: Mrs. E. A. Stiegler, Mrs. William Hoose, and Mrs. Maurice Roberts.

Following the service Dr. Frank Fitt will review the book, "The Menninger Story."

Gilani to Talk Here on Monday

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association joins the English Speaking Union of Detroit in presenting B. S. Gilani, former personal secretary to the minister of defense of India, in a program designed to cement Anglo-Indian relations and awaken the public to the danger of International Communism.

The meeting will take place this Monday evening, in the Center's library, at 8:30 p.m. A question period and coffee hour will follow the lecture. The public is cordially invited to the lecture and reception free of charge.

Mark Stevens, president of the English Speaking Union of Detroit, will intrdouce Mr. Gilani. In so doing the English Speaking Union will be bringing to an excellent conclusion the series of lectures they have sponsored with the War Memorial Assoeiation at the Center this winter.

There probably is a reason for everything, but too few people take time to reason.

Spring Concert At Harmonie

Artistic arrangements in which tulips, jonquils, daffodils and pussywillows predominated were the season's welcome for Harmonie members and their guests last Saturday evening.

The occasion: Harmonie's 109th annual Spring concert. It was preceded by a buffet dinner and followed by ballroom dancing.

The Grosse Pointe area was well represented in the men's and women's choruses, as well as in the guest list.

Christine Schlorff (Mrs. Albert) of Balfour road, received deserved applause as accompanist par excellence . . . Director Frank Murch stepped out of his conductorial role long enough to be the program's piano soloist — interpreting with skill and fine sensitivity selections from Debussy, Gershwin and Godard.

Otto C. Krohn, president of the men's chorus, of Kensington road joined with Mrs. Krohn in playing host to a group of eight. Other Grosse Pointers present included J. Willard Carpenter, the Philip F. Grecos, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Piper and 10 guests, Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Balser, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schuler, the Hector J. Dunsmores, Richard W. Balsers, Otto Streks, Russell W. Troutmans, Richard Seitners. Mrs. Florence French of Berkshire Road, a long-time chorus member, made up a jolly party of 12. There were many others, but space forbids giving the entire list.

Trombly School Scouts And Mothers Plan Party

Girl Scouts and Brownies of Trombly School will hold their annual Mother and Daughter luncheon at the Whittier Hotel on Saturday, May 24, at 12:30 p.m.

The mothers with their Girl Scout and Brownie daughters will enjoy a program of entertainment by a magician, group singing, and their annual scavenger hunt.

The master of ceremonies for the program will be Mrs. Duke Huber. The tables will be decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and pastel-colored net bags, decorated with ribbons and flowers and filled with assorted mints. The decorations were made by the troop leaders at an earlier meeting.

The chairman for the event is Mrs. Raymond Eddy, neighborhood chairman of Trombly, who will be assisted by Mrs. Alton Wheeler, Mrs. Harvey Purdy and Mrs. C. J. Deeds.

Mackeys Wed For 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mackey, of Oxford road, renewed their wedding vows on their 25th anniversary at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Saturday.

Father James Flannagan flew from Denver, Col., for the service which was followed by a breakfast at the Detroit Towers.

Among the family present were 7 children and 8 grandchildren. Mrs. Mackey's brothers, Edward Pongracz and Otto Pongrace, with their families were also present.

Gilbert and Sullivan Highlights to be Sung

The Detroit Conservatory of Music announces its production of "Highlights From Gilbert & Sullivan." It will be given by its newly formed opera group, under the direction of Russell Skitch, who lives at 864 Balfour road, at the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts, May 25 and 26.

Among the cast will be localite James Wood. Mr. Wood was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in January of 1955. While there he sang in the Boys Glee Club and the Acapella Choir.

He is presently singing with the Rackham Symphony Choir. Jim will play the part of the sergeant of police in "The Pirates of Penzance" and will sing the role of Dick Deadeye in "H.M.S. Pinafore," in addition to being in the Men's Ensemble.

Empire Daughters to Give Bake Sale at War Memorial

The Princess Beatrice Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will give a card party and bake sale Friday at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Most of the funds from the party are ear-marked for the "Save a Child" School in White Chapel, Japan. Mrs. John Berch is chairman.

Mrs. John Cossaboom, of Elm court, will open her home June 2 for the final chapter meeting of the year. Assisting her will be Mrs. H. E. Downing and Mrs. John Popplestone.

Mr. Campbell Takes Bride in Lake Forest

Weds Marie Therese Washburne Saturday in St. Marys Church; Bride Wore Heirloom Creamy Satin and Lace Mantilla

Marie Therese Washburne, daughter of the Hempstead Washburnes, of Lake Forest, Ill., was married to James Howe Campbell Saturday in St. Mary's Church, Lake Forest, Ill.

For her wedding the bride wore the creamy satin gown of her paternal grandmother, fashioned with a square neckline accented with Valenciennes lace. Intricate draping on the skirt swept into a Victorian bustle.

Her veil was a lace mantilla which belonged to the bride's great grandmother and she carried stephanotis.

Mrs. Henry Isham, Jr., was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Francis Farwell and Marion Campbell, sisters of the bridegroom; Pamela Isham, Katherine Washburne and Marion and Susan Farwell.

They wore pale blue taffeta set off by pink geranium headbands and matching bouquets.

Douglas Campbell, Jr., was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Douglas Campbells, of Rathbone place.

Seating the guests were Murray Dodge, Sidney Miller III, of New Haven, Conn.; Hempstead Washburne Jr., Thomas Washburne, of Baltimore, Md.; David Douglas and Cameron Farwell, of Lake Forest, Ill.

Following a reception at the Onwentsia Club the pair left on a wedding trip. They will live in St. Clair Shores.

Leon Alvarez to Wed Suzanne Welch Souder

At a family dinner at the Toledo Club, Mr. and Mrs. Clement F. Souder, Jr., of Toledo, Ohio, announced the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne Welch, to Leon Alvarez, Jr.

Mrs. Leisinger and her husband are in charge of the Bal du Paradis and will decorate the club in sidewalk cafe fashion. Cocktails will be served at 7:30 o'clock followed by dinner and dancing.

Dr. Chester Bogan is directing the music and assisting the Leisingers on the committee are the Robert G. Warmbolds, the Ellsworth W. Allisons, the William C. Buchingers, the William R. Evanses, the Earl G. Meyers, the Robert E. Sholtys and the John W. Kinseys.

Convent Grads Planning Ball

The Alumnae of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Lawrence avenue, will give a Candlelight Ball June 6 in the Latin Quarter.

The party will honor the last graduating class from Lawrence avenue, for the school is moving to Bloomfield hills.

Among the Pointe alumnae working for the ball are Mrs. Frank Couzens, Mrs. Edward Roney, Jr., Mrs. Henry Murray, Mrs. John Hastings, Mrs. James Draper, Mrs. Charles Bayer, Gertrude Clark and Mrs. John Drummy.

John Charles Eberly To Take Bride in June

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wagner, of Chenoa, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to John Charles Eberly. He is the son of Mrs. Edith Fulton Eberly, and Carl J. Eberly, both formerly of Grosse Pointe.

The bride-elect will graduate from the University of Colorado in June. Her fiance, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and Northwestern University, will receive his Master's Degree in Psychology at the University of Colorado at the same time.

The couple plan a June 14 wedding, following which they will return to Boulder, Colo., both to continue graduate work in psychology.

GPHS Senior Wins Award

Suzanne Cumberworth of 419 Moran, was named winner of the John L. Brumm Scholarship Award at the 31st annual Michigan Interscholastic Press Association (MIPA) Conference Friday (May 16) at The University of Michigan.

The Brumm Scholarship was established by MIPA in 1939 in honor of John L. Brumm, founder of the organization and its director from 1923 until his retirement as chairman of the U-M Department of Journalism in 1947. Established on an endowment basis, this is the second year that the award has been given. It carries a stipend equivalent to one semester's tuition.

Miss Cumberworth was chosen for her demonstrated ability in scholastic journalism as editor of The Tower, Grosse Pointe High School newspaper. She has participated in many other high school activities including Y-Teens, choir, dance committees and student forum.

The award was announced at the luncheon meeting in the Ballroom of the Michigan League by Dr. William E. Stirton, vice-president of the University.

Twenty-one Grosse Pointe journalism students attended the luncheon, along with 2,000 other pupils from the state of Michigan.

Following the main speech, by nationally noted foreign correspondent Leland Stowe, a designated reporter from each school was assigned to write a critique. The reports were to be judged, with the winner to be presented with a typewriter.

Short courses and conferences were held on subjects such as year-books, sportswriting, cartooning, feature, editorial, and news-writing, photography, and staff organization. For the feature conference, Tower writers presented an hour-long program consisting of an analysis of feature writing techniques.

Single Adults Holding Dance

The young single adult group at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is having its final Ballroom Dance of the season this Friday night, May 23, at 9 o'clock.

With cooperation from the weather, dancing will take place on the lake side terrace as well as indoors and refreshments will be served in the colonnade pergola overlooking the formal garden. Decorations will follow a floral theme making the Memorial's first floor seem like an extension of the garden.

Roston Clark's orchestra will play for the dance. It is not necessary to have a date and all single Pointers in their twenties and thirties as well as their friends will be welcome.

This being the last occasion before summer square dancing begins, on the lawn, many are gathering for private buffet parties preceeding the dance so there promises to be a big and enthusiastic crowd for this final ballroom dancing party.

Success comes to the man who makes the greatest profit from the fewest mistakes.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seydler, of Oxford road, announce the engagement of their daughter, NANCY, to Thomas Johnson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, of Huntington drive, Mt. Clemens.

Miss Seydler is a senior at Michigan State University, where she is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Her fiance attends the University of Michigan, and is a member of Delta Sigma Delta, dental fraternity.

Carmel Hall Plans Benefit

Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, general chairman, announced this week that committee heads have been chosen and are busily at work preparing for the Carmel Hall Auxiliary Garden Tea to be held on Friday afternoon, June 6, from 2 until 5 oclock in the afternoon in the recently completed outdoor garden at Carmel Hall, 2560 Woodward avenue.

Mrs. Arthur D. Kerwin is president of the auxiliary and is working with Mrs. Fisher and the following committee head: Invitations, Mrs. John C. Griffin; Reception committee, Mrs. Anthony Maiullo: Chairmen of hostesses, Mrs. Louis Fisher and Mrs. Peter Koenig; Chairman of Flowers and Decorations, Mrs. James Merriam Barnes and Mrs. William Ternes; Publicity, Mrs. Alfred McKeown.

Proceeds from this first garden tea will be used toward the purchase of garden furniture to be placed in the garden for the use of residents of Carmel Hall, the country's largest home for the retired and ageing.

Carmel Hall is run by the Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm and now houses over five hundred residents.

The June 6 tea is one of many affairs included in the year's activities by an active and energetic auxiliary group numbering near one thousand members.

Finch Club of Michigan Gathers for Spring Tea

The Finch Club of Michigan held a Spring Tea for alumnae and prospective students of the college on Wednesday, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Wiliam C. McKay, 110 Cloverly road. Movies of the college were shown.

Assisiing Mrs. McKay were Mrs. Gordon Knight, Mrs. Harrison Watson, Mrs. A. J. Fisher and Mrs. Edward Lambrecht.

To Be Wed

The bride-elect attended Marjorie Webster Junior College, and is a graduate of Eastern Michigan College.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eickhorn, of Detroit, is an alumnus of Eastern Michigan College. He is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi.

They are planning an August wedding.

Girls to Take Boys to Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Youth Council is staging its Annual Girl's Invitational (Hag) Dance, this Saturday evening, May 24, at 9 o'clock.

All teen-agers in grades 9-12 attending the Pointes' public, private or parochial schools are invited. The dress will be cottons for the girls with a chemise style preferred. Boys are requested to wear summer suits.

Don Barber's orchestra will play throughout the evening. There will be outdoor dancing on the lake side terrace and strolling in the floodlit formal gardens weather permitting.

A feature of the dance will be the crowning of a Queen. Contestants will be chosen by a secret and impartial method.

This will be the last informal dance of the season for the Youth Council whose final affair will be a Summer Formal in June. Those students who have worked to make the Youth Council a success this year together with their dates will be rewarded with a special party Memorial weekend.

Any student wishing to participate in organizing the activities of the Youth Council next year is cordially invited to turn in his or her name, address, telephone number, grade and school to the War Memorial office.

Fraternity Award Won By John B. Ford, III

John B. Ford III, of Vendome road, was presented with an award Wednesday evening by Beta Theta Pi, national college fraternity.

The alumni group of over 900 members gave him the Beta Achievement Award at a dinner at the Grosse Pointe Club. Sherwood M. Bonney, of New York, national president of Beta Theta Pi, was the guest speaker at the Michigan Alumni Association annual dinner. His subject was "The Fraternity in Present-Day College Life."

Literary Group of AAUW To Hear Book Reviews

The Contemporary Literature Group of the AAUW will meet on Tuesday, May 27, at 7:45 p.m. Members will gather at the 1238 Kensington road home of Mrs. Philip Gillis. Mrs. Edward F. Suits will assist as co-hostess.

In keeping with the program theme of "Humor", the following books will be reviewed: Shulman's, "Rally Around the Flag, Boys"; Smith, "Where Did You Go? Out. What Did You Do? Nothing"; Kerr, "Please Don't Eat the Daisies;" Nash, "Poems"; Steinbeck, "The Short Reign of Pippin IV"; and DeVries, "Mackerel Plaza".

The Literature group will have as their guests at this meeting fellow AAUW sisters, members of the Studio Arts group, who will present a puppet story of "The Golden Bird".

It's the easy, low-cost home improvement loan that lets you repair, remodel or rebuild and take up to five full years to repay. There's no need to put off a necessary new room, new kitchen, bath or garage. And it's never wise to put off home improvements, like painting, that might become more expensive the longer they're postponed. You can borrow up to $3,500 at National Bank of Detroit to protect—or improve—your property. Ask your dealer-contractor about an Instaloan, or simply stop in any of NBD's 61 friendly offices. Either way insist on an Instaloan, exclusive with NBD.

Woods Church Women to Hear Educator Talk About Japan

On Tuesday afternoon, May 28 at 1 o'clock, following a short business meeting, Mrs. Donald A. Lindlow, secretary of Missionary Education will introduce to the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Miss A. Irene Rieser.

Miss Reiser, author of, "The Dwarf Pine," and former president of Hokuriku Gakuin Junior College in Kanazawa, Japan, will tell of her work at the college and of her life among the Japanese people.

Mrs. Reiser's background is one of understanding and devotion in another land and in a different culture. She first went to Japan in 1920 as a missionary under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church, and except for the war years, was continuously engaged in church and school work in Kanazawa.

Even during the war, however, her contact with the Japanese did not cease for she served at a Japanese Relocation Center in Colorado for three years. After the center closed, she helped in the Japanese Church of Ogden, Utah.

Returning to Japan and Kanazawa after the war, Miss Reiser was made president of the Hokuriku Gakuin Junior College which prepares young women for kindergarten teaching. On the eve of her retirement and return to the United States in 1955, her outstanding contribution ot women's education in Japan was given rare acknowledgment in the form of the Fifth Order of the Sacred Treasure awarded her by the Japanese government. She was also honored by being granted an audience with the Empress.

Devotions for the afternoon will be under the direction of Mrs. Richard Miller. Assisting Mrs. Miller in a choral presentation of the 33rd Psalm will be Mrs. Thomas Clark, Mrs. Alexander Gill and Mrs. Dominic Mauro.

In connection with the program, there will be a display of flower arrangements by members of the Women's Association with emphasis on the theme of the day, "Oriental." The show entitled, "Flowers—East and West," will be a non-competitive one. Mrs. Ivan Taylor is chairman. Among the many who have volunteered to exhibit are Mrs. Elmer Murvay, Mrs. Herbert Mathews and Mrs. A. B. Stearns.

Group Leaders, Mrs. Bernard Martin and Mrs. Dale Boyles are in charge of the Oriental Tea, which will be served in the Women's Lounge, following the program. A colorful and distinctive tea table is being planned by Mrs. Arthur Hirt.

The Fellowship Department, Mrs. Floyd Sieber, Chairman, will be on hand to extend a most hearty welcome to all former members and friends.

Dames of Loyal Legion Hold Spring Luncheon

The Dames of the Loyal Legion, Society of Michigan conducted its 51st annual Spring luncheon at 12:30 o'clock on Thursday, May 8, in the University Club.

Mrs. Morris F. Kennedy was in charge of arrangements and presided. Guest speaker was Douglas R. MacLaury, Tennessee, who was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Kennedy, of McKinley avenue, during his stay in Detroit.

He was also a guest at the formal dinner Thursday evening at the Detroit Club, an annual event of the Michigan Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

Woods Club Plans School

The Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club will conduct a summer play school from July 1 to August 1. The day camp type program will run from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Tuesday through Friday. The program will serve boys and girls from six to nine years old.

The goals of the program are to provide, through a small group experience, opportunities for learning constructive outlets, the expansion of achievement levels, opportunities for physical and social development and satisfactions in a setting in which a helpful adult leader can guide the child based upon his individual needs.

This program will have a limited enrollment. The program is set up to give attention to those children who need a special group experience. This would include boys and girls who need help under trained adult leadership in modifying behavior patterns which cause difficulties in group life in school or in play. Also, it would serve children who need special help in getting along with other children and adults.

The staff will include experienced social workers and school teachers who will be responsible for the children. Younger adults and students will act as assistant leaders. The program will be directed by a staff member of the Community Club. The program is open to residents of the Grosse Pointe School System.

There is a fee for the program. Scholarships and other adjustments can be made possible through personal application. For further information contact Mr. Charles Wolfson or Miss Virginia Crowthers at the Community Club. This can be done by dialing TUxedo 4-2050, or by dropping in at the club which is located at 20883 Mack avenue.

Englander's Win Advertising Award

Awards were presented for excellence in every category of advertising: newspaper; TV, magazine, poster, direct mail, etc. The award was given to Englander's for a poster on decorating services, prepared by their agency.

Mr. Marvin Danto, president of the Englander Company, received the award from Bud Guest, master of ceremonies.

Englander's has, for many years, been an important name in the decorating field in Detroit. Using their wide collection of contemporary furniture (the largest in the Midwest) as a source, they have designed and decorated the interiors of many commercial establishments, as well as countless homes in Michigan.

According to Mr. Danto, this aspect of their business is, at present, one of their most active. Their man store is located on East Jefferson.

Masons Honor G. N. Bashara

The Syria Lodge No. 566, F&AM, dedicated its 20th Anniversary Dinner-Dance, held at the Masonic Temple, on Wednesday, May 14, as a testimonial to the Hon. George N. Bashara of 711 Balfour, Lebanese consul. The Crystal Ballroom was the setting.

Mr. Bashara, one of the founders of the Lodge and its past master, was honored for his work in seeking better cooperation between the United States and Lebanon.

Among the speakers who paid tribute to the consul was Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, who lauded Mr. Bashara as a fine American citizen and civic leader and worker.

Pointer Toby David, of radio and TV fame, was the toastmaster.

Main speaker of the evening was Robert Hamady of Flint, vice president of the Citizens National Bank of Flint and president of the Flint Chamber of Commerce. He pointed out the work being done by Mr. Bashara in furthering the friendship between the tiny Arab republic and the United States, and the affection held for him by the Arabic-speaking people in this area.

Mr. Bashara, in his address to the audience, talked of the crisis prevailing in Lebanon today, and said that this will all pass away.

"History has shown that Lebanon has weathered the storms of invading Assyrian, Egyptian, Persian, Greek and Turkish armies and persecutions," he said. "These mighty empires are now dust, but Lebanon is still supreme in its mountains and valleys under the shade of its immortal cedars."

He said that Lebanon's present trouble stems from enemies within the tiny republic, but the United States, under the Eisenhower Doctrine will not let the Lebanese people down.

Before the evening was over, Mr. Hamady presented Mrs. Bashara with 75 long-stem American Beauty roses, as a tribute of affection from the audience.

Mr. Bashara, a Pointer for a number of years, is a native of Hartford City, Ind., and when only two years old, was taken to Grand Rapids by his parents.

He was educated in the Grand Rapids elementary and high schools. He attended the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania and graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1923. He was the first Arabic-speaking lawyer in Michigan.

He is married to the former Josephine Farris of Lowell, Mass. The couple have five children, George, Jr.; Gwendolyn, Barbara, Judy and Carol.

He is a charter member of Syria Lodge No. 566. In 1940 he was elected the first full time Worshipful Master under the Charter and brought fame and honor to the Lodge throughout the State.

In 1950, he was appointed Honorary Consul of Lebanon for the middle western states of the U.S. He has given extensive lectures on Lebanon and the Middle East throughout Michigan and other states.

Eastern Dearery Holding Quarterly Meeting Tonight

The quarterly meeting of Eastern Deanery, Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, will be held at 8 p.m., Thursday, May 22, at Ascension Parish, Baseline.

A special commemoration will be made of the 100th Anniversary of the apparition of the Blessed Virgin to Bernadette at Lourdes, France.

The agenda also includes special attention to the Mexican Migrant Clothing Drive and the Committee on Social Action. The meeting will conclude with refreshments and a 20-minute skit, "None of Them Are Perfect", a comedy performed by the ladies of Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish, under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Herrinton.

Young Thieves Smash Up Car

Three teenagers, one 15 years old and the others, 14 years old, were arrested by Park police on Saturday, May 10, after they ran into a parked vehicle with a car stolen from Detroit.

The boys, whose homes are in Detroit, were turned over to Detroit authorities on fugitive warrants.

An accident report revealed that the boys were making a left hand turn from Korte when the older boy, the driver, lost control and ran into a truck at the curb, parked in front of 606 Pemberton by Clarence F. Oullette of 8321 Military, Detroit, an ice cream salesman.

After the crack up, all three boys jumped out of their car and ran in different directions.

Authorities were notified and four scout cars were sent to the area, and in a matter of minutes the boys were in custody.

Cpl. Gordon Duncan arrested the 15-year-old and one 14-year-old in front of 805 Balfour and Patrolman Gus Boone apprehended the other teenager in the back yard of 841 Westchester.

St. Paul Dads To Give Dinner

Members of the Dads Club of St. Paul High School will honor the school's athletes in all sports at the traditional Athletic Dinner-Dance Sunday, May 25, at 6:30 in the school gymnasium.

Guests prominent in the fields of athletics and education will be presented at the dinner, which will honor Laker teams in football, basketball, track, golf, baseball, and girls' basketball, swimming and softball.

Special interest at the dinner will center on the Laker football team which lost only one game and tied the league champions and the Lakers' classy basketball team which was No. 2 parochial team in metropolitan Detroit, number 3 among all teams, parochial and public, and rated No. 1 in the state in Class C seasonlong.

Among distinguished guests invited to the dinner are officials of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education; Grosse Pointe High School; Catholic Youth Organization; Metropolitan Detroit Parochial League, and prominent sports editors, including Fred Runnells, of the Grosse Pointe News, and Frank Guyott, of the Michigan Catholic.

Joseph P. Wright, president of the St. Paul Dads Club, will preside as toastmaster. Dancing will follow the dinner.

Southeastern Women Meet at War Memorial

Mrs. Watson Ford was chairman of the Southeastern Woman's Club annual luncheon last week at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. F. Ivor Goodrich invited the members to a pot luck picnic at her summer home on June 24 after which the club will adjourn for the season.

New Carpet Drycleaning Method Introduced by Star

The Star Carpet Cleaning Company is now introducing a completely new method for drycleaning wall-to-wall carpeting . . . either professionally or do-it-yourself.

It is easy to use, saves money, removes dirt, restores crushed carpet texture, and leaves rooms ready for instant use with no wait for drying.

This miracle of the carpet cleaning world is called Star-Host. It is the first method for cleaning wall-to-wall installations which is used by the leading professional rug cleaners in many cities across the nation and rented by the same cleaners to people who wish to do their own cleaning.

Because it is so easy to use, professional rug cleaners, such as Star Carpet Cleaning Company who employ it for their own professional carpet cleaning are renting the equipment and selling the drycleaning supplies to consumers.

Gone is the backbreaking drudgery of the old-fashioned, home carpet cleaning methods. Star-Host makes carpet beautification as easy as running a vacuum cleaner.

First, the person doing the cleaning spreads dust-free Star - Host drycleaning compound over part of the carpeting to be cleaned. Usually about 10 square yards is a large enough area to work at one time.

Then the operator moves the Star-Host Electric Up - brush back and forth over the carpet and compound. The Upbrush does the work. The operator simply guides it back and forth.

Finally, the operator vacuums up the dirt-laden Star-Host compound. And presto! Rooms are ready for the kids or a party.

If stairs or constricted areas need to be cleaned, the handle of the Electric Up-brush is easy to take off—takes about one second.

One side of the Electric Upbrush can be used to clean right up over the quarter rounds at the baseboards.

Star-Host Drycleaner for Carpeting creates no dust, dangerous fumes, or fire hazard. It is a pleasant smelling compound of effective cleaning agents which remove both water soluble soil and grease.

Because it is a drycleaner, it will not shrink or fade carpeting. Neither can it cause rust spots or water stains.

And carpeting is dry immediately. No waiting around for clammy pile to dry. Use rooms immediately.

If areas are excessively soiled, it is all right for the operator to put repeated applications of compound on the area until it is clean. No damage can be done to the fabric or fibers.

The trace of compound left in carpeting is beneficial. Star-Host contains no grit. It helps to prevent resoiling and will loosen and remove deeply imbedded dirt in later vacuumings. Dirt is attracted away from carpet fibers by Star-Host Compound.

Star-Host compound can't harm woodwork, furniture, or vacuum cleaner; won't hurt children, hands, or fabrics.

The Star-Host process may be used on any fiber effectively, including those which have a reputation for being difficult to clean on location.

Star-Host cleans wool, cotton, rayon, nylon, Acrilan, blends, twists, axminsters, wiltons, carved surfaces, tufteds, etc.

YMCA Offers Sailing Course

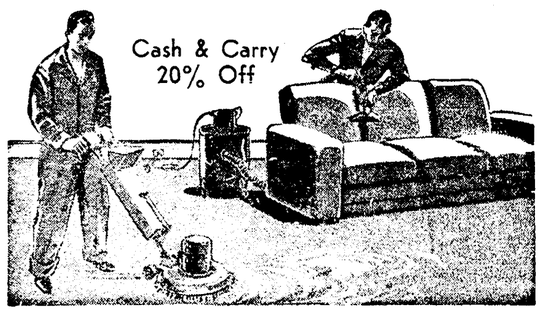

June 1 is the starting date for a ten-hour course in Sailing, sponsored by Hannan Memorial Branch Y.M.C.A.

Groups of 2 to 4 persons will learn by doing aboard a 26-foot sailboat on Lake St. Clair.

Sessions will include instruction in rules of the road, nomenclature, water safety, hoisting and lowering sails and overall sailboat operation. Time of the classes will be arranged to give each group a maximum of actual sailing experience.

For further information, call David Adams, Hannan Y.M.C.A. Program Department, VA 2-7200.

Devil Cindermen Capture BCL Title Beating Parkers

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils closed out the 1958 dual meet track season with a resounding 73 2/3-35 1/3 victory over Highland Park on the Bears' home track, Tuesday, May 13, to repeat as champions of the Border Cities League.

Remington "Skinny" Purdy added another track record to his long list when he cracked the Polar Bear mark with a sparkling 4:31.4. Although his time was far from the brilliant 4:27.0 record he posted in the Dick Waters Relays at Monroe four days earlier his coach, Howard MacAdams, pegged it as a good run under the track conditions.

Long Fight Ended

The meet also brought to an end a bitter struggle for supremacy in the 440 between Dave Mawhinney and Bruce Boardman, both of whom were climaxing their dual meet high school careers. Going into the Highland Park meet each had won three races from the other and this was the show-down battle.

Mawhinney won the race and was followed over the line by Holmes Brown.

It should be pointed out that Boardman, although he knew he couldn't win this race because of a dislocated bone in his foot, didn't beg off and took his beating like the champion he is. Mawhinney didn't figure he had much consolation in victory because of his teammate's injury.

Lawson Big Star

Eugene Lawson, Highland Park's star, lived up to expectations by winning the pole vault, high jump and 120 low hurdles to become the top point winner of the meet. His teammate Walter Lee staged the unusual when he took four second places when he tied for second in the high jump, was second in the pole vault, runner up in the broad jump and second best in the 180 low hurdles.

Dick Knapp was the big point getter for the Devils when he took the 100 and 220 dashes. His teammate Terry Donovan suffered a pulled muscle and placed second in the 100 and third in the 220.

The Blue Devils slammed three events when Dennis Franck, Paul Balan and Jerry Spiewak finished in that order in the 880. The others came in the shot put event which was won by Tom Andris and followed by John Derbyshire and Rolf Lagerfeldt and the 440 won by Mawhinney, followed by Brown and Boardman.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Three Great Lakes yachts will be among the 121 entries in this year's Newport to Bermuda race scheduled for June 14. Clayt Ewing's "Dyna" from Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin; Stubby Wellman's "Indigo" of Vermillion, Ohio; and John Kent Cooke's "Pompadour" from Toronto are already on their way to the East Coast.

The trio is an outstanding challenge from the land of the "drinking water" sailors as "Dyna" and "Pompadour" finished one-two in Bayview Yacht Club's Mackinac race last year.

"Indigo" was a Bayview-Mackinac winner in Class C in 1956 after hurrying back from the Bermuda race that year. All three skippers have promised to be back in time to make the Bayview race this July 12.

Walter Sahli, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization Service in Detroit, announced that "the inspection of all persons arriving by yacht and small boats from Canada would be rigidly enforced. Failure on the part of the boat owner to report for inspection, upon entry from Canada, will render the operator liable to a fine. The U.S. Border Patrol will operate speed boats to insure compliance."

Inspection points in the Detroit area are located at: Miller's Marina, 24770 East Jefferson, St. Clair Shores; Kean's Detroit Yacht Harbor, 100 Meadowbrook, Detroit; Ecorse Boat Basin, 4685 West Jefferson, Ecorse; and Grosse Ile Yacht Club at Grosse Ile, Michigan. Until June 15 these stations will be open daily from 12 noon to 8 p.m. Thereafter the stations will be open between the hours of 9 a.m. and 1 a.m.

Additional inspection stations have been set up at Robert's Landing, Marine City; Algonac; St. Clair; Blue Water Ferry Dock at Port Huron; the International Ferry Dock at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Immigration officers will also be stationed at Mackinac Island, Escanaba, Detour, Marquette, Houghton, Alpena, Rogers City, Muskegon, Bay City and Saginaw.

Two fifty foot docks are nearing completion at the Metropolitan Beach, near the Clinton River, which will adjoin the existing launching ramps for boats. The three ramps can accommodate 1,000 boats per day.

According to the way entries are flooding into the home of entry chairman Edythe Forcier the Detroit Times-Belle Isle Outboard Marathon, to be held on the Detroit River, May 31, should be a doozy—bigger than ever. Already Skip Forcier, outstanding Pointe marathoner, winner of the 1957 Silver Prop award and member of the 1957 All American racing team, has filed his entry. Skip will get someone to keep his marine store that day to take another crack at this marathon which has become one of the most outstanding of all marathons in the nation. Skip will race in the DU class.

Cap Frank Becker was noisier than usual after he won the annual tugboat race on the Detroit River on Saturday, May 17. Cap used an old tug with a brand new experimental GM diesel engine to turn the trick. Never one to miss a bet, Captain Frank had plenty of GM officials aboard during the race which he won handily after the GM mechanic removed the governor just for the race. Frank will test the engine during the regular navigational season and file a report on its performance at the end of the season. Undoubtedly the tug boat victory will be high on the list of praise for the engine.

Detroit Yacht Club members will celebrate the ninetieth anniversary of the club on May 31. A huge celebration has been planned which will start early Saturday morning with a champagne breakfast, feature the cake cutting at 3 p.m. and dinner-dance until the wee hours of Sunday morning, June 1. Commodore Tommy Tompkins is bubbling over with excitement in anticipation of a big turnout and his flag officers, vice commodore Freddie Jensen and rear commodore Al Steiner share his enthusiasm.

Border Cities League Champions Again

Closing out the 1957 season with a perfect 12-0 winning record, the Grosse Pointe Blue Devil tennis team ran its undefeated streak to 35 and annexed its third straight Border Cities League championship under the guidance of Coach Bud Kurvink who has now won three titles in his four years as tennis coach. The team shown left to right, from row:—DICK GRANSE, CHARLES DYER, RON LINCLAU, COACH BUD KURVINK, JOHN NICHOLSON, JOHN SPARKS and TOM FINCH. Back row:—JOHN BLAIR, TOM HARRIETT, DON LEESON, RON REFIOR and PETER NESS.

Little League Baseball

FARMS

The Grosse Pointe Farms Little Leaguers, 308 strong, will open the seasons activities with ceremonies at the Grosse Pointe High School field on Saturday, May 24, at 12:30 p.m.

Eighteen teams, made up of 8 major and 10 minor teams, will gather at the High School grounds at Grosse Pointe boulevard and march down Fisher road to the National League playing field opposite the Punch and Judy Theater.

The parade will be accentuated by a Color Guard, and a sound truck, followed by League directors, guests, sponsors and player agents. The ball players will follow marching with their respective teams. They will be dressed in their uniforms ready for the games that take place after completion of the ceremonies.

President Bill Briscoe will preside at the ceremonies which will include the raising of the flag, pledge of allegiance and introduction of sponsors and guests. Farms Police Department and City Manager Sidney DeBoer are co-operating in the ceremonies.

Harold Husband, Administrative Director for the Grosse Pointe School system, will act as catcher for Mayor Connolly's opening pitch.

All 8 Major League teams will play games following the program with games starting at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. at each field.

The American League teams will play at Kerby Field, with a game between the Tigers and Red Sox. The Indians and Yankees in the nightcap.

The National League teams will play at the High School field leading off with the Phillies vs. the Pirates. The Giants will meet the Reds at 3:30 p.m.

The 18 game Major League season will include games each evening, Monday thru Thursday at 6:15 p.m. at the two fields. The season will end July 22.

Parents are urged to attend games to lend moral support, and enjoy the relaxation of the evening air and baseball action.

The competition this year promises to be exceptionally keen if pre-season practice is a criterion. The managers and coaches have been working steadily with their teams for the past month on evenings and week-ends.

The Pacific Coast League is comprised of six teams this season which include Sacramento, Hollywood, Seattle, Denver, San Diego and Portland. The International League is made up of Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Richmond.

PARK

The Braves and the White Sox were off to early leads in their respective leagues as a result of victories in the opening day double-header of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League on Saturday, May 17.

The Braves downed the newly-organized Red Legs, 5 to 4, in a hard fought National League game that was not decided until the last half of the final inning.

In the American League opener, two big innings at the plate for the White Sox were enough to defeat the Indians, another new team, by a 6 to 0 margin.

A remarkable feature of the opening twin bill was that three of the four teams—the Braves, White Sox and Indians—all played errorless ball afield.

More than 500 fans and players of the two major leagues and the Northern and Southern collegiate conferences participated in the colorful ceremonies raising the curtain on the league's fifth season, which preceded the two games.

The honorary battery which performed the traditional first ball rites included Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of Grosse Pointe public schools, as pitcher, and Robert A. Slone, Grosse Pointe Park city manager, as catcher.

The Braves took an early lead over the Red Legs, scoring single runs in the first, second and fourth innings. Kim Anderson, Joe Burger and John Detwiler crossed the plate in that order.

Bill Welleritter counted for the Red Legs in the fourth, and in the fifth, two doubles and two singles added three more tallies by Tom Landau, Mike Colman and Danny Rubino, giving the Red Legs a 4 to 3 margin.

The Braves tied up the game in their half of the fifth with James Pattee scoring, and Bob Purcells came in with the winning run in the bottom of the sixth after getting on base with a double.

In the White Sox-Indians game, White Sox Pitcher Doug Palazzolo got all the runs he really needed when Fred Zosel and Danny Engel scored in the second inning.

Four more runs were added for good measure in the fifth by Larry Kroha, Del Hurd, Lloyd Jacobs and Engel, all of whom got on base with singles.

The summaries:

REDS	4	7	3
BRAVES	5	8	0

INDIANS	0	8	0
WHITE SOX	6	8	0

WOODS-SHORES

Despite intermittent showers on Sunday, May 18, the Woods-Shores Little League season got underway with the playing of one game following opening day ceremonies.

Fred Wolf, radio announcer, was master of ceremonies and did a wonderful job without the aid of a sound truck that failed to arrive.

The rain didn't dampen the spirit or enthusiasm of the hundreds of Little Leaguers, managers, coaches, parents, relatives and friends as Woods Mayor Kenneth Koppin, Board of Education President Bert Wicking, Grosse Pointe Public Schools superintendent Dr. James Bushong and League President Albert Siegmund addressed the throng. The latter speaker expressed the dire need for more financial backing of the teams in the league from the parents and residents of the community. He pointed out that the major expenses for outfitting the teams is carried by the sponsors but that the approximate cost of $12.50 per boy for each of 602 lads playing requires more funds.

Six veterans who have been with the League since its inception, Bob Chandler, Art Dlouly, Vern Dumas, John LaBlone, Charles Johnson and Douglas Schreives, were introduced and given a rousing round of applause.

Mayor Koppin tossed the first ball, a perfect strike, to past president Marvin Boutin, to open the season.

Two minor league teams got the game action underway but were rained out after a few innings of play. The only game completed was the Major league game between the Athletics and Indians which was won by the Athletics 4-3. Gilmore was the winning pitcher and Doug Schroeder the loser in an exceptionally tight, well played contest for the early date of the season.

Lakers Fourth In Regionals

The St. Paul Laker track team placed fourth in the nineteen team Class C Regional track meet held at U. of Detroit stadium last Saturday, May 17.

The title was taken by Grosse Ile with 41½ points, followed by Orchard Lake St. Mary 32, Riverview 21 and St. Paul 17.

Joe Lauer was the only Laker to take an individual victory when he won the 880 in 2:09.0. Tim Hutton finished second in the mile run and Tom Parker was second in the 120 yard high hurdles and placed fourth in the 180 yard low hurdles. All three boys qualified for the State Class C meet which will be held at Ann Arbor on Saturday, May 24.

Other point getters for the Lakers' cause were: Jerry Krause, who placed sixth in the 220, and the ¾ mile medley relay team of Tom Parker, Jerry Krause, Jim Kuntzler and Dave Evans which placed fourth.

Joe Lauer appears to be the Lakers' best bet in the State meet as he has shown improvement in his half mile specialty in every outing this year. Prior to the Regional Lauer's best time was 2:15.

Antone L. Lott, 11, Lands Big Marlin

Showing his more experienced rivals fine angling skill, 16-year-old Antone L. Lott II off 1153 Grayton, Grosse Pointe Park, set a new tournament record in the Bahamas Winter Fishing Tournament with his catch of a 62 pound white marlin.

The youthful Pointe fisherman captured first place in the heavy tackle division (over 72 pound test) with his white marlin catch and also assured himself of earning a colorful citation for participation in this international test of angling ability.

Young Lott's husky marlin topped by six pounds the previous tournament record, a 56 pounder caught off Andros Town on Feb. 3, 1957, by Richard Renick of Miami.

Antone made the catch while fishing off Egg Island, a sliver of land near the northern tip of Eleuthera, about 50 miles to the north and east of Nassau, the capital city of the British Bahamas.

Devils Beat East Detroit To Win Track Regionals

Coach Howard MacAdam's Border Cities League champion Blue Devil track team came through with all the chips on the line last Saturday, May 17, to win the final relay in the Regional meet at Van Dyke Fitzgerald and take the championship over favored East Detroit.

Grosse Pointe and East Detroit came down to the final 880 relay all tied up, but because of the large field of 10 schools weren't slated to run against each other. When meet officials discovered this they decided to switch East Detroit into the Grosse Pointe heat as the championship hinged on the outcome of the relay between the two schools.

Devils Come Through

The Devils came through in grand style with Dave Mawhinney, Dick Knapp, Mel Vanderburg and Ron Harper winning by five yards. East Detroit's great star Ron Ballman ran anchor but couldn't catch the fast moving sophomore Ronnie Harper who carried the Devils to victory on his thin powerful legs in that deciding match.

Ballman was the outstanding performer. Had it not been for his victories in the 180 low hurdles, the shot put and first place tie with Trumbe of Mount Clemens in the 120 high hurdles, East Detroit would never have threatened the Pointers.

Once again all eyes were on Rem "Skinny" Purdy as he took the field for the mile run. Rem had no trouble running his opponents into the ground with a sparkling 4:30.4 victory.

The final standings found Grosse Pointe out in front with 54 points, followed by East Detroit 49; Hazel Park 28½, Mount Clemens 22½, Royal Oak Kimball 20½, Port Huron 12, Royal Oak Dondero 12 and three other schools which didn't score a point.

How They Won

Grosse Pointe's winning points were annexed in the following manner: In the field events Chuck Hanneman placed fourth in the broad jump; Chuck Harris tied for third in the pole vault; Rolf Lagerfeldt tied for third in the high jump and Tom Andris placed second in the shot put with teammates John Derbyshire and Lagerfeldt placing fourth and fifth respectively.

In the track events it was Purdy first in the mile; Dick Knapp and Terry Donovan third and fourth respectively in the 100 yard dash; Dave Mawhinney second in the 440 and Holmes Brown third. Paul Gilliland was fifth in the 180 low hurdles; Denny deManigold was fourth in the 120 high hurdles; Dick Knapp, Neil Delfs and Terry Donovan third, fourth and fifth in that order in the 220. Denny Franck climaxed the individual efforts with a victory in the 880.

Win Both Relays

Grosse Pointe won both relays, the ¾ mile and the 880 as already mentioned. In the ¾ mile relay the team was Ron Harper, Mel Vanderburg, Don Rust and John Ogden.

Had the Devils not been plagued by injuries to Boardman, high jumper Art Cornwall, who was suffering from bone chips and calcium deposits in his ankle, and Terry Donovan's pulled leg muscle the Devils would have had no trouble in scoring an even bigger point spread.

Coach MacAdam said before the meet "I know I have a great dual meet team but this Regional business is a different thing. I just hope the boys go all out so they (the rest of the teams) know we are a top contender." MacAdam couldn't have been happier if his team has just won the State championship. The coach was like a jumping jack as Harper surged across the finish line ahead of East Detroit's Gary Ballman in the final relay to win the title and he was the first to reach Harper, on whom he will be depending heavily next spring when the Devils swing into BCL dual meet action in defense of their League crown, which they won for the second consecutive year just four days before the Regianel meet.

GPUS Suffers Worst Defeat

GPUS baseball team suffered its worst defeat of the season last Friday, May 16, when it bumped into a fast ball pitcher and a barrage of base hits to drop its seventh game of the season 13-1 to Oak Park.

Lack of hits and eight errors afield did nothing to aid the GPUS cause. Greg Dodds was the starting and losing pitcher. He hurled three inn-

GPUS Netters Win Another

Grose Pointe University School continued along the tennis victory trail by beating Fitzgerald 5-0 on Tuesday, May 13, on the Knights home court on Cook Road.

George Haggerty scored a love match over Ron Lickman in the number one singles and Bob Wood duplicated his teammates' feat by downing Ed Wesolowski 6-0; 6-0. Bill Lewis completed the singles sweep by tumbling Willard Dillion 7-5; 6-0.

Bruce Birgbauer and Dan Book defeated Dan Pascasetti and Mike McCracken 6-4; 6-3 in the number one doubles and Dave Templeton and Dick Baron completed the shutout by beating Frank Raczak and Pete Spencer 6-2; 12-10.

Track Regional Won by GPUS

The Black Knights of GPUS qualified seven boys for the State Class D meet, to be held at Central Michigan College in Mount Pleasant on Saturday, May 24, and won their Regional test against 13 other schools last Saturday, May 17.

GPUS scored a total of 38⅓ points and their closest opponent, Memphis, notched 28 points.

Johnson was the only Knight who scored an individual first place when he captured the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet 3¾ inches. Johnson also was the meets' high point winner with 13 points. He also took second in the 100 yard dash and tied for first place in the high jump with three other rivals.

Others to qualify were: Carpenter, third in 880; Schanke, third in mile run; Watts second in 180 low hurdles; Smith, second in 120 high hurdles and tie for fifth in pole vault; Strother, tied for third in pole vault and Krieg, placed third in the shot put.

Detroit Consumer Marketing Information Agents say that ground beef can be successfully stored in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator for about one week. Leave the package in the wrapper it comes in from the store. If you strike a real bargain in ground beef and wish to buy more than you would normally use in a week, use regular freezer wrapping paper. This keeps the meat from drying out. If properly wrapped, ground beef may be stored from one to three months in the freezer.

Devil Netters Nearing Crown

Worry wrinkles nettled coach Bud Kurvink's brow as his Blue Devil tennis team boarded the bus bound for Monroe last Thursday, May 15, for the showdown battle for the Border Cities League championship.

Coach Kurvink had reason to worry because in the first meeting between these two teams the Trojans had given the Devils a terrific battle before bowing 4-3 on the Pointers' home court. There was no reason to believe the return match would be any easier.

But the Devils, determined to lock up their third straight B C L tennis championship, went to work on the Trojans in a businesslike fashion and walloped them 6-1 for their 32nd straight victory and ninth of the 1958 season.

Victory number 10 and 33rd consecutive came easy for the Devils as they walloped Fordson for the second time this season 7-0 on the local courts.

All that stands between the Pointers and their third straight BCL title is Highland Park and Royal Oak in that order. The Pointers are top heavy favorites to turn back these two rivals in the same manner as the first meetings, in which the Devils beat Highland Park 6-1 and Royal Oak 7-0.

It may be a bit premature but "Hail" to the champs for their second perfect season, and to Coach Bud Kurvink who said four years ago when given the job "I don't know a thing about tennis but I'll give it a try." And what a try it has been. All Coach Kurvink has done is give the Devils three championships and a second place.

KARLSRUHE, GERMANY (AHTNC)—Army PFC Robert Serocki, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Serocki, 1940 Manchester, Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently participated in field training exercises with the 532nd Field Artillery Observation Battalion in Germany.

A flash ranger in the battalion's Battery A, Serocki entered the Army in March 1957. He completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood Mo., and arrived in Europe last September.

Esquire to Present Cannes Award Film

Starting Friday, May 30, the Italian prize film that won the Academy Award at the Cannes Festival, "The Nights of Cabiria," starring Giulietta Masina, will be shown for the first time on the east side, at the Esquire Theater.

Walter Winchell said: "Cabiria, a poignant import from Italy, pays off in sighs. Beautifully played by Guilietta Masina. Signorina Masina's portrait of Cabiria illustrates what makes acting an art."

ings and gave up 10 runs on 10 hits while striking out five Oak Parkers.

In the meantime winning pitcher Bill Barnard limited the Black Knights to a lone run on four hits while setting down 12 determined Knights.

Oak Park's pace setter was Doug Ciccheli who belted a home run and two doubles in four trips to the plate.

GPUS now owns a season record of three wins and seven losses.

FARMS-CITY-PARK

The Farms-City-Park Babe Ruth League got underway with a full schedule of games on Saturday, May 17. The Boston Red Sox squeezed past the Milwaukee Braves 10-9, St. Louis Cardinals tripped the Cleveland Indians 3-0, Philadelphia Phillies dropped the Tigers, 6-2, Chicago White Sox walloped the San Francisco Giants 9-4 and the New York Yankees humbled the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-3.

And so begins another season of disrupted dinnertimes, dusty shoes and dirty uniforms, mam; all for the sake of that great guy, King Baseball. Your reporter wishes to add, mam, that your husbands and sons also suffer pangs of hunger and hurry and wonder and worry about the outcome of the evening's game.

And so that you won't be too discouraged by the odd meal hours and the dirt and the grime let me remind you that it will cease in the latter part of July, come sun or high water.

And so begins another Babe Ruth season which, in spite of all the aforementioned annoyances, is a mighty lot of fun.

FORSOOTH, A TOOTH—Though he is an object of wonder because he was born with a tooth, Michael Wasylyshyn seems displeased. The reason is simple; he wants to bury that tooth in a nice juicy steak, and all he can get is milk. Michael was born at Polyclinic Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wasylyshyn, and already he knows the truth of the adage, "Oh, sharper than a serpent's tooth . . ."

SOLE SURVIVOR OF PAINTING SUBJECT—Admiral Donald MacMillan (right), 82, the only living member of Admiral Peary's team that reached the North Pole by dogsled in 1909, receives Tom Lovell's famous painting of the event from Roger Fawcett, magazine executive. The original oil painting was presented by True Magazine to the Explorers Club in New York.

FLYING BEAUTY — The recent trend of Italian movie beauties to this country is temporarily reversed as Marilyn Van Derbur, "Miss America," flies to Italy aboard an Alitalia Airlines plane. Making her first trip overseas, Marilyn will open a trade fair in Rapallo, Italy, and then attend the Milan Trade Fair.

PAPER JOCKEY — The Pony Express comes back in Cromwell, Conn., where 14-year-old Leslie E. Pierson covers his newspaper route on his horse, Stardust. While the Middletown Press newspaperboy makes collections from his 50 customers, Stardust waits patiently outside.

WINSTON CHURCHILL WINS SOCCER TROPHY — When soccer fans look at the program for a game and find that Winston Churchill is playing, they sometimes find it hard to believe their eyes, but there isn't any mistake. This Winston is a 17-year-old soccer player from West Hartlepool, England, who was born during the "blitz" and named for the then Prime Minister. He is holding the "Footballer of the Year" trophy, which he won for the second year in a row.

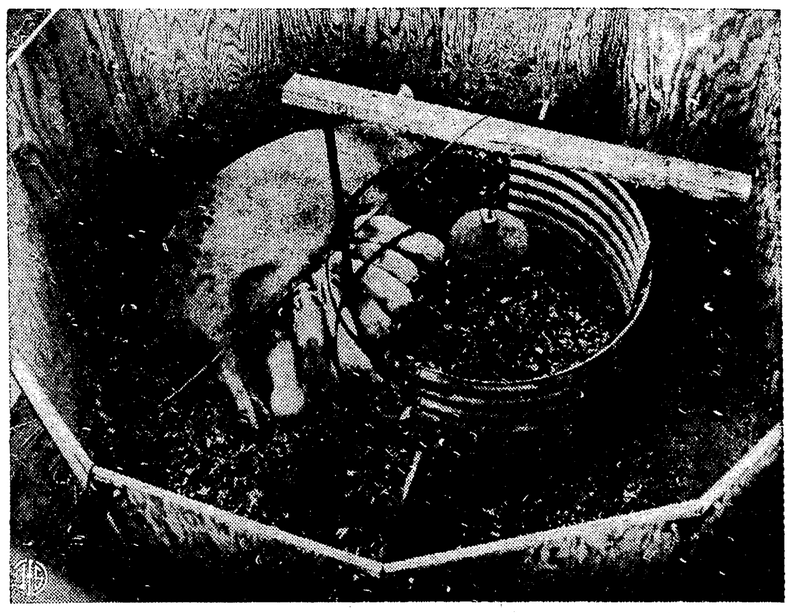

HOME MUSEUM—In Kosova in the Russian Ukraine, Evgenye Saigaidachni and his wife examine pieces in the folk art collection they have amassed over the years. Their rooms are filled with wood carvings, ceramics, decorated tiles and clothing made by Guzul craftsmen of mixed Mongolian descent who live in the Carpathian Mountains.

REFLECTION OF GLORY — The shiny helmet of a member of a high school ROTC unit reflects a statue of George Washington in spectacular style during a parade in Kansas City.

UDDER DELIGHT — An isolated-birth system that's likely to revolutionize present hog-raising methods is demonstrated at Waukon, Iowa, as hungry piglets rush to mama for their dinner. Called the Pigloo system, the idea features a low, prefabricated wooden structure with 12 sides—resembling an Eskimo igloo—as its central unit. The shape of the structure, which normally is roofed, forces mama sow to lie with her back to the Pigloo's outer wall with udders inward. The iron-barred center circle provides safety from crushing and the metal rail behind the sow prevents injury to the piglets from mama's bulk. The system was developed by Nutrena Mills., Inc., the animal feed subsidiary of Cargill, Inc.

TAKING STEPS FOR FEET—The lowly foot is reaching new heights in the laboratories of Springfield College in Springfield, Mass., where Dr. Peter V. Karpovitch has invented an instrument called an electrogoniometer to measure the angles of the alignment of bones in the heel and leg. The project is part of a U. S. Army research program which may produce more comfortable shoes, not only for soldiers but for anyone who wears them.

HOLY SEE—To get a good look at a ceremony at the Basilica of St. Peter in Rome, a nun who couldn't get close enough to see used a little ingenuity and came up with a pair of binoculars. The "winged cap" of the Sister of Charity combined with the binoculars to give her an almost Martian look.

PLAYING BY EAR—This tiny violin and bow set was not made in Lilliput land. It was made in New York by a full-sized woman, Mrs. Harriet Babcock Neil, 68. She and many other older people showed their products of their unusual talents at a hobby show for older people. This visitor to the show who is playing the elfin violin seems enraptured by the music he is making.

JUST ONE OF DOZE THINGS—Caught napping, four-year-old Susie Paulley snoozes between the bare feet of her father during a balmy spring day in New York. The umbrella, tucked neatly between dad's toes, shades the youngster from the sun. Susie, of Denver, Colo., was in the big city on a visit.

GOOD SKATE—Wheeling back to health after three years of pain, 10-year-old Patricia Sue Still of Vicksburg, Miss., goes for a spin on her favorite roller skates. Paralyzed by polio at the age of seven, Patricia strengthened the muscles of her right leg, supported by a brace, through skating. She is the 1958 Easter Seal Child of the Mississippi Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

AN ORDER from the Brewery Workers Union International president ended Detroit's 48-day beer strike Sunday night. Karl Feller told the 1,500-member Truck Drivers Local 38 to go back to work Monday.

Some of the bottlers and brewers returned to the plants Sunday afternoon. Operations resumed immediately after the executive board announcement.

GEN. CHARLES DeGAULLE offered Monday to rule France by "exceptional" but legal means and disclaimed any intent to impose himself as a dictator by force.

The 67-year-old war-time leader and postwar provisional President made a dramatic re-entry on the political scene after an absence of nearly three years—in the midst of the worst crisis of the Fourth Republic.

He offered himself as a leader uncompromised by persons, parties or positions to restore national unity in France and Algeria. Following his news conference Monday afternoon in Paris he announced he would "return to my village and there hold myself at the disposition of the country."

A FURTHER GASOLINE-PRICE CUT appeared certain late Monday. Most independent oil companies said Monday afternoon they probably will slash prices 2 cents a gallon as a result of a 1.3-cent reduction made earlier in the day by most major companies.

Most independent dealers are currently selling regular for 24.9 and premium for 28.9.

SAMUEL CARDINAL STRITCH, 70, of Chicago, suffered a massive cerebral stroke Monday and the last rites of the church were administered to him.

The cardinal, who had come to Rome as Pro-Prefect of the Sacred Congregation of the Faith, was said to still be "lucid and conscious" at the time the sacrament was administered, although his right side was totally paralyzed.

There was grave fear for the life of the American prelate who on April 28 had undergone amputation of the major part of his right arm, after an arterial blood clot.

Wednesday, May 21

An airliner identified by Maryland State Police as a four-engine Capital Airlines plane collided with a jet over the Potomac River near Brunswick, Md., Tuesday afternoon. Both planes crashed in flames, according to witness reports.

The plane, a Viscount, had three crew members and seven passengers aboard, all of whom were killed. The flight was bound from Chicago and Pittsburgh for Baltimore. Of the two crew aboard the jet, one pilot was killed and the other was ejected safely and parachuted to the ground, though he was in serious condition with bad body burns.

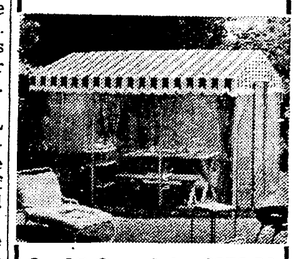

Pfc. T. McManus Stationed in Germany

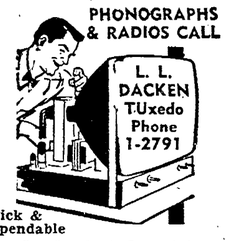

Pfc. Terence D. McManus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. McManus, 811 Beaconsfield, has recently completed an American Red Cross water safety instructor's course at Bad Toelz, Germany.

Private McManus, a 1954 graduate of St. Ambrose school, was a student at University of Detroit before entering the service. A member of the school's football team, McManus was also interested in other sports, competing in local swimming contests. At the present time he is stationed with the 18th Transportation Company at Ober-Schleissheim, Germany.

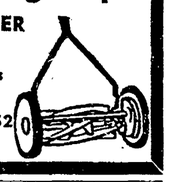

McManus was one of a group of U. S. servicemen from Germany, France, England, Italy, Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Libya and Moroeco, selected by the military to receive Red Cross training. The 80-hour instruction course in swimming, life saving, survival swimming, water safety, first aid and pool management qualifies him to conduct courses at his station and serve as lifeguard.

The American Red Cross maintains a staff of field representatives at its European headquarters in Stuttgart, Germany, to teach first aid, water safety and home nursing to Americans serving throughout Europe, North Africa and the Near East.

The twenties may have been roaring with illicit rum running, frequent shootings of bootleggers, wide open road houses, but the big battle in the Pointe in the 1920's concerned the sewer.

The open county drain extending from Lake St. Clair at the present Edsel Ford property where it was known as Milk River and meandering through the Pointe as Black Marsh ditch to its outlet near the foot of Alter road where it was named Fox Creek, was the object of the controversy.

In the summer during drought time the water stagnated, local officials were deluged with demands for chlorated lime used with a kerosene application to quell the odors and kill the mosquitoes.

The health boards of the state and county were aroused by the sewage situation, which was mighty primitive with many residents dumping sewage into the canal.

But the sportsmen were aroused too. They formed the Grosse Pointe Flow Drain Association in an attempt to canalize the stream, deepening it for small boat traffic and the citizens were organized.

Many descendants of original French settlers remembered their grandfathers' tales of canoeing down the creek, when the mud roads were impassable in the 1880's. The Pointe was already very boat minded and the idea of cruising about the Pointe on the improved canal was very attractive.

But alas, the cold, practical businessmen had their way. The plan was abandoned as not workable and the Black Marsh Ditch covered drain was constructed. Few vestiges of the creek remain in the Farms, City or Park although the Woods still has a trickle of water from Milk River.

Along with booze and sewage problems in the '20's was an attempt to make the Pointe a small Hollywood. Out on Vernier road the Detroit Motion Picture Company began shooting a film.

Most of the extras were local lads and lasses who also invested heavily in financing the picture. The Hollywood prima donna who starred in the rural vehicle had a grim time of it. She got drenched in the rain, nudged by the barnyard residents and generally thought the local yokels were a poor substitute for the extras hired by the big Hollywood companies.

The building on Vernier had a short history as a film studio. Only the one picture was produced. It did quite well in the downtown cinema palace where it was shown, for many Pointers, stockholders, of course, took the interurban downtown to see themselves on the screen. Nationally the picture was not box office. The building later became a tavern which did a thriving business and then became the police radio station.

By Patricia Talbot

The selling techniques he learned at the Edison Company have been a big help to the Rev. George E. Kurz in selling his church to new members in the Pointe area.

When the pastor of St. James Lutheran Church was graduated from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis in 1939 there was an over-supply of ministers and there was no church for him. He went to work for the Edison Company and learned some very valuable lessons from this business experience.

Still a salesman, Mr. Kurz won the Detroit Sales Executives Club award in 1956. He has done a good job building his parish, from a band of 14 faithful, to a congregation of 751, and spark plugging the efforts which produced the distinguished Georgian Colonial church in McMillan road. For many years the Lutherans met in the high school library and the Punch and Judy theater.

Pastor is a Counselor

Like many Protestant minthe cornerstone of a successisters Mr. Kurz believes that ful parish is pastoral calling, and like many pastors has come in for an increased load of counseling. He has more now than he can handle, which leaves him little time for calling on the sick, visiting new members, leading the young people.

But Dr. Kurz has an assistant to help him, a deaconess, Rhoda Gilmer, trained at Valparaiso University, to assist the pastor in all church work but preaching and giving communion. This training of deaconesses is a new movement in the Lutheran Church to help pastors. There are not enough ministers to answer all the calls today.

Missionary Work

When Mr Kurz returned to Detroit in 1940, where he was born, his was a missionary job. A small group here was anxious to start a Lutheran Church and he worked with them, finally moving into the new church in 1948. Two wings have been added in those ten years and the property is worth $350,000. Recently the church has bought the Fuger property next door, the only space left for expansion.

In these 14 years Mr. Kurz has primarily been interested in attracting new members to his church. This is where his selling experience has been so valuable. He has been ably assisted by his wife, a pastor's daughter. The Kurzes have a daughter, Kathryn, 15, and a son, James, 13, both in Lutheran schools.

The Lutheran Church is a democratic one with the government entirely in the hands of the congregation. The church in McMillan road has the aura of a small New England village meeting house and the Rev. Kurz encourages this family spirit.

Family Spirit

Lutheranism has always been popular in the mid-west and Pointe Lutherans want their parish to grow, but not at the expense of this intimate neighborly feeling. The Rev. Kurz greets every one of his parishioners by name after Sunday services. In spite of preaching two sermons on the Sabbath he says Sunday is his easiest day. His work week sometimes numbers 90 hours.

A benign, quiet man, Mr. Kurz does not look like a popular conception of a salesman, but his deep sincerity and tireless devotion to his church and parish is at once apparent.

The most rewarding aspects of his demanding work are sharing the gospel with his parishioners, having their confidence and helping them with their problems.

Lack of Communication

As he points out, the counseling he provides, is not preaching. To be helpful he must assist troubled souls to use their own resources. He often has to refer some of his cases to the proper agencies when he feels not qualified to help. He feels that in marital problems the most common cause of trouble is the husbands' and wives' lack of communication. Like many ministers he encourages pre-marital counseling.

He wishes he could do more visiting and in this the character of his job has changed from missionary work to pastoral work. He is always welcoming newcomers. This doesn't leave him much leisure to enjoy baseball and football. He admits he has now become a spectator at the television set in the Balfour road parsonage, but he used to enjoy playing ball.

His paneled study, done in warm tones of brown and gold, has been the scene of many a quiet meeting between him and a sufferer seeking aid. His gracious church abounds with the feeling of friendliness, spiritual well being and community vigor which is reflected in the pastor who leads the St. James Lutheran Church.

Police Holding Bike Contest

The Park, City, Farms and Woods Police Departments are conducting their annual bicycle safety contests at all public and parochial schools this week, May 18 through 24.

The Woods is including the Protestant Children's Home in Cook road in the safety campaign.

Inspections of bikes in their respective cities are being conducted by the following policemen, all safety officers in their departments: Park Patrolman George Blair, City Patrolman Douglas Allor, Farms Patrolman Joseph Miller, and Woods Patrolmen Jack Mast and Harold Collins.

Each department will award prizes to winners who pass all the requirements of safety.

Farms Patrolman Miller said the last inspection by his department will be held on Saturday, May 24, for those students in Richard, Kerby, St. Paul and Sacred Heart Convent, who were sick or absent during the week of the contest.

These students may bring their bikes to the Farms police station Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, if they wish to qualify for safety awards.

Blue Devil Nine Beaten in Three

Grosse Pointe High's baseball team dropped even deeper into the Border Cities League baseball basement with losses to Wyandotte 5-4, Monroe 3-2 and finally Fordson 8-2 in the past week.

The Wyandotte game on Monday, May 5, slipped from the Devils' grasp in the sixth inning when Wyandotte pushed across what proved to be the winning run on a fake bunt, a long fly to centerfield and a missed tag at the plate on the runner.

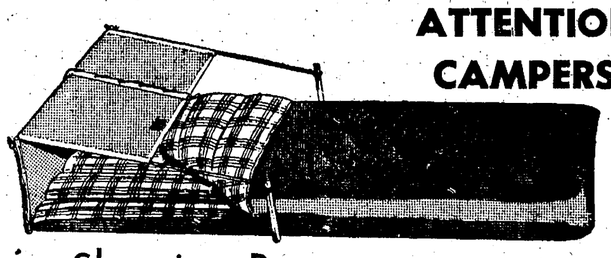

In the Monroe game on Thursday, May 15, the Trojans pushed across the winning run in the fifth inning, after tieing the score at 2-2 in the bottom of the fourth, to win 3-2 on the Devils' diamond.

The Devils outhit the Trojans 6 to 4 and Mike Landers turned in a good job on the mound but errors erased the four hit hurling. Bob Libby was outstanding at the plate getting a double and triple. Actually the triple should have been a home run but Bob missed third as he rounded and was forced to return to the bag.

Fordson really lowered the boom, picking up 8 runs while limiting the Devils to 2. Al Foraker didn't have his stuff with him Monday, May 19, and became the losing pitcher. He left in the fourth and Bob Suor took up the task in the fifth and sixth innings and then was relieved by Dick Hayosh to start the seventh.
