AT LEAST 18 persons were killed and more than 100 injured when a tornado smashed into a four-county area in north west Wisconsin early Wednesday night. Unconfirmed reports put the death toll as high as 25.

Hours after the twister roared across the Mississippi River from Minnesota, tornado alerts were still in effect for northeast Wisconsin. Twister alerts for northern Wisconsin west of Wausau were lifted.

Hospitals in the area were jammed and all available ambulances were pressed into service. Physicians were called from their homes and authorities appealed for private trucks, station wagons and autos to transport the injured.

GENERAL CHARLES DE GAULLE Wednesday promised a new deal for Algeria with equal rights and duties for its nine million Moslems and one million Frenchmen.

The strongman French Premier flew to Algeria from Paris wearing his wartime general's uniform to assert authority over the military and civilian insurgents, who had defied the government of his predecessor, Pierre Pflimlin, and brought France to the brink of civil war.

The general received a triumphant welcome from hundreds of thousands of Frenchmen and Arabs. He promised Algeria-wide elections within three months to "open the door to reconciliation" and end the three years of war between Frenchmen and Algerian Moslem nationalist rebels.

NEGOTIATIONS between the UAW, Ford and General Motors began again Wednesday as auto workers stayed on the job for the third day without a contract. The talks were confined to matters of procedure.

THE UAW CHARGED Chrysler Corp. Thursday with trying to provoke a strike as the union's uneasy, four-day truce with the Big Three was jarred by trouble at seven plants.

Chrysler Corp., vice-president John D. Leary, said the UAW's claim was "not true." The union charge came after Chrysler handed one-day suspensions to more than 100 chief stewards and committeemen for "flagrant insubordination" in allegedly disobeying new rules on the handling of grievances.

THE HOUSE, backing the Administration's stand against tax cuts, shouted approval Thursday of legislation to continue present corporation and excise taxes until July 1, 1959.

The bill goes to the Senate. There it will face a determined drive for amendments to reduce excise taxes on freight and autos.

The bill would postpone for another year automatic tax cuts scheduled for July 1 on corporations, liquor, autos and cigarettes. The cuts would cost the Government $2,600,000,000 in revenue.

PREMIER CHARLES de GAULLE appealed Thursday to Moslem Nationalist fighters to leave their mountain hide-outs and join ranks with "10 million Frenchmen of Algeria."

But rebel spokesmen abroad rejected the plea for unity and said the fighting will go on.

De Gaulle was cheered wildly by European and Moslem crowds at huge rallies in Constantine and Bone, both hotbeds of rebel resistance.

THE SENATE PASSED Friday night a bill providing President Eisenhower a whopping $3,712,900,000 program of military and economic assistance to bulwark free nations against Communist aggression and infiltration.

Final passage came on an announced roll call vote of 51-17 at 10:35 p.m. Detroit time. The Senate had been in session more than 12 hours.

Ballet Troup Will Also Be Seen when Pointe's Musicians Play on Terrace June 22

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Society and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association are co-sponsoring a "Sunset Symphony and Ballet" on the Center's lakeside terrace and bowling green on Sunday afternoon, June 22, at 5:30 o'clock.

The public is invited to this occasion free of charge. In the event of rain the program will take place the following Sunday, June 29, at the same hour.

The Grosse Pointe Symphony will be under the leadership of Henri Nosco, its conductor. Adding to the interest of the occasion will be a ballet troupe and baritone soloist, James Fitzsimmons.

Refreshments will be served by the Trial Gardens under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Armstrong. Boy Scouts will serve as ushers. The handsome posters announcing the concert were the work of Mrs. Freda Harrington of Balfour road, a member of the staff of Wayne University's Art Education Department.

RADIO STOLEN

Park police recorded a complaint from Dr. Lawrence Kroha of 652 Middlesex, on Tuesday, June 3, in which he stated that while his car was parked in a lot at the rear of 15124 Kercheval someone stole his small transistor radio.

Fourteen Brave Youths Beat Up Two Students

Two Southeastern High School students were beaten up by a group of boys claiming to be from Denby High School on Monday, May 2, at Cupid's restaurant, 16626 Mack avenue, according to Park police.

Park Police Cpl. Charles French said that about 14 boys drove up to the restaurant in two cars, piled out, went to the rear and asked two boys seated at a table if they were from Southeastern, and then attacked them.

Set upon were Keith Grueling, 18, of 1136 Lenox; and John Morrison, 18, of 4144 Maryland, both of Detroit. Grueling was struck about the face and head and Morrison was knocked to the floor and kicked according to a report given to police. A chair was

Annual Hunt Club Horse Show Set for Weekend of June 19-22; Big Entry List

Public Cordially Invited To Attend Many Events To Be Run Off; Only Show in State To Include Saddle Classes

Ages old pageantry, superbly disciplined thoroughbreds and daring riders will provide the color and excitement at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's 47th annual horse show, in Cook road the weekend of June 19-22.

The public is cordially invited. Admission is free on opening day, when the junior competition will be held. General admission at all other times is $1.

Morning, afternoon and evening competition will be held all four days during which time 88 events will be completed. Approximately 350 outstanding saddle horses, jumpers and hunters will participate, with a total of $10,000 in cash prizes going to the winners in the 10 major classifications.

This is the only major horse show in Michigan that includes saddle horse classes. The jumper and hunter divisions are assessed as "Class A," the highest possible rating, by the American Horse Shows Association.

In addition to many notable Michigan exhibitors, the eminence of the show has attracted the entry of distinguished stables from New York, Virginia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Oregon, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois. There is a possibility that late entries may set a new all-time record.

Among the famed hunter and jumper exhibitors will be the Homewood Farms of Middleburg, Va., and the Waverly Farms of Warrington, Va. with three each; Ratliff Stables of Christian Pass, Miss. with four and Victor Sifton of Winnipeg, Canada, with five.

About ten entries each are expected from the Michigan public stables of Max Bonham at Grass Lake, Johnny Wallace at Northville and Chuck Grant at Bloomfield Hills.

Each Enters Eight

The Dodge Division of Castleton Farms in Lexington and the Pine Tree Stables of Chicago have each entered eight saddle horses which are the early favorites. Other strong challengers will be the Beall Grove Stables from Wexford, Pa. with seven, and the Beatty Farms from Washington, Pa. and the Rand Acres from Dyer, Ind., with six each.

Clarence L. (Honey) Craven, from Brookline, Mass. will be the ring master. George Couzens of Bloomfield Hills will be his assistant. Judges for the hunters and jumpers are John C. Goodwin of Southern Pines, N.C., and Mrs. Charles L. Harper of Newton, Pa. Judge for the saddle and fine harness events will be William C. Cunningham of Mexico, Mo.

Alfred R. Glancy Jr., president of the club, is the show chairman. Carl F. Schilling is the manager and Clarence S. LaPearl the assistant manager.

Other officers of the club are Fred W. Parker Jr. and J. Frank Forster, vice-presidents, and Thomas W. Sheahan, secretary-treasurer.

LOSES WATCH

Mrs. John Lyles, of 272 Fisher, informed Farms police on Friday, June 6, that she lost a $50 gold wrist watch at the Farms Pier-Park. She said it had a snake-type bracelet.

Playground Program Set By Schools

Community Service Department Offering Constructive Recreation For Children

As a nucleus for summer activities, the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System is offering a playground program for elementary school age youngsters in this area which is designed to keep boredom at a minimum, and fill vacation days with constructive recreation.

The summer program will be conducted at the following school playgrounds: Barnes, Trombly, Defer, Maire, Richard, Kerby, Mason Monteith, Poupard and Ferry. Activities will begin on Monday, June 16, with two exceptions. Maire playground will begin on Wednesday, June 18, and Poupard will start on Wednesday, June 25.

Schedule Set

The program will continue for eight weeks, through August 8, with the following schedule: 9:30 a.m.-12 noon at Maire School, and 1 p.m.-4 p.m. at all school except Maire.

Many entertaining and worthwhile activities will be offered. Handicraft, song and story periods, circle games, soft ball, croquet and horse-shoes, are some of the daily recreation. Special events include: picnics, costume parties, talent shows and treasure hunts.

The instructional staff is composed of teachers, recreation workers, and college students who are experienced in campcraft and trained in recreation.

To Train Staff

Previous to the opening of playground activities, a training institute will be conducted at the Community Service Center for the staff. This type of workshop acquaints the supervisors with the program requirements and gives them a chance to exchange ideas and learn new craft techniques. Craft materials used are available to the youngsters at cost.

Participants in the activities need not register ahead of the opening dates, and are not obligated to attend daily. For further information, call the Department of Community Services at TU. 5-3808 or TU. 5-0271.

Woods Council Debates 'Official' Status of Meeting

Whether Session to Discuss Bond Issue for New City Hall is Valid Hinges on Technicality; Mayor Pro Tem Denies Call

The Woods council held a special meeting on Monday, June 9, to discuss the possibility of again placing a bond issue for a new city hall before the people, but there is a question of the legality of the session.

The question was, WHO called the meeting? No one seemed to know.

In the absence of Mayor Kenneth Koppin, who was out of town, it was claimed that Mayor Pro Tem Kenneth McLeod called for the session, but McLeod denied this.

Four Members Present

Only four members of the council were present, which constituted a quorum, and they debated whether the meeting was official and if any decision on the bond issue, if arrived at, would be binding on the absent members.

Besides McLeod, the other councilmen present were: Rex Johnston, James Hunt and Harry Pratt. Absent were the mayor, and Councilmen James Bowling and Elsie Friedrich, who had other commitments for the evening.

City Attorney Julius Berns opined that the meeting was not official because of a technicality, and that a notice of the meeting was not sent to the home of Mayor Koppin, even though he was out of town. Notification of a proposed meeting must be sent to each council member's home, whether the members are out of town or not, he said.

After a 10-minute discussion, the city attorney said that a meeting could be called, if the mayor pro tem declared the session official.

McLeod called the meeting, since at least a quorum was assembled.

The purpose was to discuss information received from the Wayne County Director of Elections, that propositions for cities to be placed on the ballot for the August 4 election, be in the hands of Wayne County Clerk not later than Tuesday, June 17.

McLeod, Pratt and Hunt stated they would like to see the issue placed on the ballot for August, but felt the time was too short to make a successful campaign. They favored putting the proposition on a ballot for November, and settle the matter of a bond issue for a new city hall once and for all.

Johnston opposed putting the issue on the ballot, stating that the matter was turned down at three previous elections. He favored other methods of financing the building.

After stating their opinions, the meeting was closed, with no action taken. The matter will be taken up at a future meeting when all members of the council are present.

HUBCAPS TAKEN

David Prue, of 37814 Emery avenue, Mt. Clemens, called Park police on Sunday, June 8, to report that someone had stolen two hubcaps from his car while it was parked in front of 1143 Beaconsfield.

LARCENY REPORTED

Lawn furniture, valued at about $50, was stolen from the home of Mrs. Octavia Van Lo-horn, 1012 Beaconsfield, according to a complaint made to Park police on Saturday, June 7. Taken was a settee, a round table and three chairs.

Plan Little League Tennis For Both Boys and Girls

Little League tennis for both boys and girls will be developed in the Pointe if enough adults are willing to take part in the development and managing of the program.

A meeting to determine this will be held at 8 o'clock next Monday evening, June 16, in the Neighborhood Club. All interested persons are urged to attend.

The Little League idea for tennis was started in Massachusetts and has spread rapidly through the east. The plan to bring it to the Pointe was devised by members of the Detroit Tennis Patrons' Association, which is sponsoring the program.

Woods, Shores and Harper Woods Officials Discuss Raising Vernier Limits

City officials and police chiefs of the Woods, Shores and Harper Woods met in the Woods Municipal Hall on Monday, June 9, to discuss the State Highway Department's proposed speed limit increase on Vernier road.

The Highway Department served notice to the three communities that the speed limit from Kelly road to Harper avenue, in Harper Woods, and from Harper to Mack avenue, in the Woods, would be jumped from 35 miles an hour to 45 miles an hour; and from Mack to Lake Shore road, it would be increased from 30 miles an hour to 35 miles an hour.

Residents Protest

Residents in the Woods and Shores, living in homes along Vernier, protested at recent meetings of their respective councils to the proposed speed increases, and asked their officials to maintain the present speed limits.

At one of the recent meetings, Woods City Attorney Julius Berns stated that cities, towns and villages have the right to set speed limits on state and county roads within the corporate limits of their respective communities.

At Monday night's meeting, it was brought out that this is not the case and that the state's and county's authority supersedes that of any community.

Representing the Woods at this meeting, called by Woods Public Safety Committee Chairman Rex Johnston, were, besides Johnston, Councilman Harry Pratt, City Administrator William Lange and Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey; for the Shores, Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferies and Police Chief Fred Duemling; for Harper Woods, City Manager Robert McNutt and Police Chief Allen Miglio.

Didn't Oppose Change

Mr. McNutt and Chief Miglio said they were not opposed to the 45-mile speed through their city, from Harper to Kelly, but were elated when the speed was cut by five miles an hour.

They were informed by the Pointe officials that all was well and good as far as Harper Woods is concerned because only a few homes are on Vernier in that city and that business establishments predominated. In the Woods and Shores, it was said, the situation is different, because from Harper to Lake Shore, there are nothing but homes.

Traffic conditions differ east and west of Harper, it was pointed out, and the traffic (Continued on Page 2)

Boy Fractures Back Diving

William Day, 12, of 425 Champine, suffered a fractured back when he dove into shallow water at the Farms Pier-Park on Saturday, June 7.

Michael Collins, 19, of 204 Moross road, life guard at the park, rescued the boy.

He said that young Day dove into two and a half feet of water in the roped off, old swimming area at the east end of the dock. The boy and three companions went toward the area, threw their belongings on the ground and made ready to dive, Collins said.

Shouting, "last one in, etc." William dove off the dock first, made a somersault and hit the water. He was unable to move after he was injured. His friends did not follow.

Collins, who tried to stop the boy, went into the water and pulled him out.

The life guard said that children had been warned against diving in the area.

William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Day, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Farms firemen, where it was said the fracture could be very serious.

Fight Vernier Speed Shift

Attorney Not Convinced
The Woods city attorney said that the State Constitution gives the State Highway Department and State Police Commission the right to set the speed limit on state roads, but, he added, he still maintains communities have the right to reasonable control of street and highway speeds within their corporate limits. He remained steadfast in this opinion.

Director Bailey said that his department conducted its own survey of traffic speed along Vernier and this finding differed from that of the Highway Department. He said the State made a limited survey, whereas, his survey was over a 12-hour day, for a week. It showed the present speed is reasonable and there is no need for an increase.

This was backed by Mr. Lange, who said that the State checked only 100 cars during a period of 20 to 30 minutes. Mr. Jeffers and Chief Duemling stated they were in favor of keeping the present speed limit of 30 miles an hour through their village.

Conniving Charged
It was brought up at the meeting that it appeared the State Highway Department was playing the communities against each other by informing the officials that their neighbors had no objections to an increase in the speed limits.

The much prized awards were presented by Willard Handloser, who represented the board of directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Cites Grand River
A Woods citizen wanted to know why Grand River avenue, a state highway, has speed limits controlled by communities along the route. It was pointed out that the cities and villages have populations far less than that of the Woods Shores and Harper Woods. There was no answer for this.

The officials of the three communities, said they would conduct their traffic surveys, and meet with state officials in about 30 days with their findings, and try to induce the State to keep the present speed limits.

Hurt were Mrs. Eleanore White, 59, of 447 Rivard boulevard; and Theodore J. David, 41, of 14280 Kilbourne, Detroit.

A Farms police accident report showed that David was driving east on Lake Shore, when his automobile rammed into the rear of Mrs. White's car which was parked at the curb.

Mrs. White suffered a neck injury and David, laceration inside the mouth. Both were taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

David told police that he thought Mrs. White's car was moving and did not realize it was parked until too late.

Sleepy Driver Plows Scenery

Mickey O. Keevil, 2807 Caldin, Royal Oak, fell asleep at the wheel of his car on Thursday, June 5, and woke up too late to avoid causing considerable damage to his automobile and to a number of shrubs and trees.

According to a Farms police report, Keevil was driving east on Lake Shore road when he fell asleep and his car went out of control and jumped the curb in front of 78 Lake Shore.

The car knocked down a street sign, and continued on across the front garden and driveway of 80 Lake Shore, plowing into trees and shrubbery, traveling a distance of about 216 feet, police said.

Keevil was given a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

Kiwanians Give Bus to Woods

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club has presented this bus to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, to be used to transport children to and from the lakefront park and beach. The presentation was made on Tuesday night, June 3, at a meeting at the War Memorial Center.

Nab Juveniles In GPUS Theft

Three Detroit juveniles, all boys, were turned over to Juvenile authorities for their part in stealing a Detroit Police Department arsenal display from a Grosse Pointe University School carnival tent on Sunday, June 8.

The display was property confiscated by Detroit authorities and loaned to the school for the event.

The case broke when the father of two of the boys, took them and two of the guns to Detroit Police headquarters. The boys implicated the third.

The boys, 15, 14 and 13 years old, told police they took the arsenal because it looked "neat."

Woods Det. Leroy Tobian said that the boys took a frontier model Colt, a .32 caliber four-barrel Sharps pocket pistol, a .22 caliber home made zip gun, a .45 caliber single-shot pistol and a home made black powder bomb.

The display was in a tent where tickets to the carnival were being sold. All the weapons were deactivated.

Tobian said that the boys first took one gun, went into the woods on the school grounds, dropped it in a tree stump and then returned for the other weapons and placed them in the stump.

He said the .32 caliber gun was found in the home of the 15-year-old, after the others told police of its whereabouts.

To Hold Special Church Service

Arthur De Zillgitt, a member of Grace United Church of Christ, will be ordained into the Christian Ministry at a special service on Sunday, June 15, 2:30 p.m., at Grace Church, Lakepointe and Kercheval.

Dr. A. O. Miller, professor of Systematic Theology and Philosophy at Eden Seminary, Webster Grove, Mo., will preach the ordination sermon.

Presiding will be the pastor of the Pointe church, Rev. Robert P. Beck, and assisting him will be the Rev. Theodore A. Tuange, pastor of Zion United Church of Christ in Mt. Clemens. The public is cordially invited to the service.

A committee from the host church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ian Smith of St. Clair Shores, will serve a reception immediately following the Ordination Service. Local friends of Mr. Zillgitt and his family are invited.

Mr. Zillgitt, formerly of Detroit and Ann Arbor, graduated from Denby High in Detroit. He was the editor-in-chief of the Denby Log in 1950, and active in music groups in the school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zillgitt of 11737 Whitehill avenue, Detroit, who have been active members of Grace United Church of Christ for many years.

The younger Mr. Zillgitt and his wife, Hope, will move to Grand Haven, Mich., where he has been called as pastor of St. Paul's Church of Christ (Evangelical and Reformed).

While attending Eden Seminary, he lived in Ann Arbor, and between his second and third semester, served as assistant minister at Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed Church under the Rev. Walter S. Press, a former pastor of the Grace Church.

The United Church of Christ is a denomination newly merged in June 1957, from the Congregational, Christian Church and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Dr. Miller, a prominent young theologian of the United Church of Christ, will preach at the 10 a.m. Worship Service in Grace Church.

New District Republican Organization Starts Fight

The fight that was promised between dissenting factions in the 14th District Republican ranks, when Frederick M. Alger announced his candidacy for the post of precinct delegate, appeared to have begun this week with the forming of the United Republicans Council of the 14th District, with headquarters at 18228 Mack avenue.

One of the first acts of the new group is the sending out of letters to each of the more than 500 candidates for precinct delegates in the district. Among the signers of the letter are Mr. Alger, former Ambassador to Belgium and Secretary of State; Harold K. Daniels, Helen A. Samaras, Joseph V. McQuillen, Chauncey A. Norton, Margaret W. Bonbright, David Ziegenbein and Margery R. Burrill. The contents of the letter follow.

"As a candidate for Republican Precinct Delegate in the 14th District, you have indicated your deep interest in the affairs of the Republican Party, and your desire to help assure Republican victories in 1958 and 1960.

"Because of your expressed interest in the future of the Republican Party—and in view of certain situations in the 14th District—it is important that you consider the following questions:

1. Isn't our primary objective the defeat of the Reuther-Williams machine in November?

2. Can this be accomplished by fighting among ourselves, by discouraging sincere Republicans from trying to take an active part in party affairs?

3. Should a very few powerful "leaders" speak for all the Republicans in the District and say, in effect, "If you won't play our way, get out?"

4. Can we tolerate any longer in the 14th District a Back-to-McKinley leadership that regards the Eisenhower-Nixon philosophy and administration as "making Socialism respectable?"

"We're sure that all candidates interested in building a strong, Republican organization in the 14th District will agree that the activities of the small faction now in control of the 14th organization will, if unchecked, wreck the party not only in the district but in the county and state.

"What a spectacle this small faction has created! Republicanism is being destroyed."

challenging petitions of other Republicans on ridiculous technicalities! Republicans taking other Republicans to court! Republicans driven out of a Republican organization!

"Is this a sample of how the Durant-Baldwin clique will build the party into an effective, vote-getting organization?"

"A great many Republicans in the 14th District are tired of the high-handed, dictatorial "leadership" of this little group which would rather destroy the party than win elections. They know that the hundreds of Republicans who have withdrawn from party activity, disgusted with the "do as I say and shut up" attitude of the Durant-Baldwin empire builders, would welcome a party organization in which all members have a voice."

I would like to see a far broader use of cooperative education. Under it the student learns more than rote. He goes out and the actual practice of industrial or social or professional life.—Charles F. Kettering.

Campaign Brings Results To Children's Foundation

Happily, the recent mailing campaign of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc. has resulted in a generous response on the part of Pointers to the needs of the Foundation.

To date, there have been 370 returns, amounting to approximately $3,700 and, even more important as far as the Foundation is concerned, they have received phone calls from five interested families who are considering enrollment in the local program.

The Foundation is a non-profit organization devoted to the social, recreational and emotional needs of children who are limited in their capabilities. It was begun in 1954 and is currently being carried on in the Quonset Building, 43A Grosse Pointe boulevard, in space provided by the Board of Education.

The group receives no support from national, state or local governments, but is solely dependent upon voluntary contributions from individuals and service groups. It is presently operating on a budget of $5,000 a year, supported also by active memberships of $25 per annum, but additional revenue would enable the Foundation to increase the program and, the most immediate need, to hire another professional worker.

Miss Ruth Hall directs the afternoon classes in recreational therapy for the children, with the assistance of volunteers. There are presently 15 children enrolled in the Foundation class, but the trustees feel there are many exceptional children not yet reached in the local area. The present pupils range in age from 3½ to 12.

With the close of the Grosse Pointe School System's academic year, the Foundation will cease its program. However, it will continue, on a little different basis, from June 18 to the end of July. Both morning and afternoon groups will be incorporated into a single program which will be strictly recreational. The staff will be professional and non-professional, with Miss Hall supervising the entire group. Miss Mary Sheneff will assist Miss Hall.

The children will meet from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday. They will bring their own picnic lunches and eat together — all a part of the training in social integration which the Foundation concentrates on.

The Foundation's regular school session will resume next fall, following the School System's academic schedule. Donations for this worthy group are still being gratefully accepted and may be sent to the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc., 43A Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Church to Open Vacation School

The eighth annual Daily Vacation Bible School conducted by St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfonte, and Lothrop, will begin classes next Monday morning at 9:30 continuing until 12.

Sessions will be held each day, Monday through Friday for two weeks. Children between the ages of 4 and 12 of the congregation and of the neighborhood are invited.

There will be periods for Bible study, memory work, handwork, mission stories, music, refreshments, and games. The registration fee is $1.00 for the two weeks.

Teachers in the school are: Mrs. William Breuer, Mrs. William Osborn, Mrs. William Chase, Mrs. Erwin Graham, Mrs. Arthur Berns, Jr., Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Charles Madigan, Mrs. Neil Collins, Mrs. Martin Schiessler, Mrs. Robert Gould, Mrs. Robert Wingert, Mrs. Josephine Freimuth, Mrs. Norman Kleintert, Mrs. Melvin Krulock, Mrs. Fred Orth, Mrs. Otto Theuerkorn, Mrs. Joseph Horvath, Mrs. Richard Williams, Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Mrs. John Meindt, Mrs. Vernon Olson, Mrs. John Schonenberg, Mrs. J. Driver Freed After Accident

Carol DeWaaro, 15, of 1446 Maryland, suffered a hip injury on Wednesday, June 4, when she ran into the side of a car, and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

Driver of the automobile, according to a Park police report, was Lon Ratcliff, 30, of 765 Manistique, Detroit, who was traveling north on Wayburn, when the young woman ran from behind a double-parked car on the street.

Ratcliff told police that he was driving about 20 miles an hour when the accident happened, and that he tried to stop, but could not do so in time.

He was exonerated of blame after making his statement.

Eleven Students To Face Judge

Grosse Pointe City police are cracking down on High School students who continue to defy their administration, and the law, in persisting to molest the merchants on Fisher road, across from the High School grounds.

Repeated warnings have been given, through the school's public address system and newspaper, by the merchants themselves, and by this paper to that minority of students who have made themselves a nuisance throughout the school year. The charges have centered primarily upon offenses of littering and loitering.

Last Thursday, June 5, City police served notices, demanding an appearance in Juvenile Court, to eleven Grosse Pointe High School students. The boys, all 15 and 16 years of age, and all Pointe residents, were ticketed on charges of being disorderly persons.

At the time they were arrested they were loitering and pitching pennies in front of the Fisher road business establishments.

HONOR GEORGE BENDER

Bender, originator and editor of the History of Pharmacy series of painting for Parke, Davis & Company, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Science degree by South Dakota State College at commencement exercises on June 2. Bender, who graduated from South Dakota State in 1923, "is regarded as one of the nation's outstanding figures in pharmaceutical journalism."

Public Schools' Enrollment 9,869

According to the report of the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. James Bushong, as presented at the School Board meeting Wednesday, June 4, the total enrollment in the Grosse Pointe School System at the end of May was 9,869.

Of this number, 5,820 were in elementary school, 2,261 in junior high school, 1,773 in senior high school and 15 in the Nursery School for Exceptional Children.

This is an increase of 3 pupils over the April enrollment, and an increase of 390, or 4.11 percent, over a corresponding date last year.

Shores Traffic Violators Pay

Norman H. McBrien, Jr., of 20921 Erben drive, St. Clair Shores, accused of speeding on Lake Shore road, was found guilty of the charge by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, June 2. He was assessed a fine and court costs of $17.50.

Timothy D. Pendleton of 2631 E. Forest, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore, and paid a fine and costs of $17.50, and his driving privileges were suspended for 10 days. He was also ordered to attend one session of traffic school, which he did.

Mary G. Sloan of 35 S. Duval, accused of speeding on Lake Shore, was found not guilty and her case was dismissed.

George W. Long of 638 Fairview, and Benny A. Kozlowski of 20424 Spencer, both of Detroit, failed to come to court to answer for speeding on Lake Shore, and warrants were signed for their arrests. Each was charged in a separate case.

Wayne U. Wulla of 2775 O'Neil, Roseville, arrested on Friday, May 30, on a charge of reckless driving on Lake Shore, was brought into court on May 31. He was found guilty and paid a fine and costs of $107.50.

James A. Langan of 3928 Woodhall, Detroit, and Stanley V. Brudzinski of 20718 Frazho, St. Clair Shores, both arrested in separate cases, and charged with violating the State Drunk Motor Law while driving on Lake Shore, were found guilty as charged.

Each paid a fine and costs of $107.50, had their drivers' licenses suspended for 90 days, and served one day in the Village jail. They were arrested the day of their trial, Saturday, May 31.

When worst comes to worst most people find it best to make the best of it.

Theater Group Putting Final Touches on Play

The cast of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater's presentation of "The Philadelphia Story," currently in three times a week rehearsal for their opening night Friday, June 20, is convinced that if Philip Barry, author of the well-known comedy, had visited this community, he would have named it "The Grosse Pointe Story."

Their conviction is based on both the locale of the story—the beautiful mansion built in the fashionable suburb of a great city—and the lively characters who populate it.

To make the simile more appropriate, the play will be presented outdoors on the terrace of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on June 20, 21, 27 and 28 at 8:30 p.m. The elaborate production is being co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Community Theater and the Memorial Center.

Mack Control Lane Extended

The Wayne County Road Commission, acting on a recommendation made by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, extended the left turn control lane on Mack avenue, from Alter road to Balfour road.

Chief Louwers said that the control lane extension on Jefferson from Alter to Somerset, instituted earlier this year, proved so successful, that he had petitioned for an extension on Mack.

He said that the left hand control lane in Mack, will facilitate traffic movement on that avenue, and at the same time, provide a safety haven for pedestrians who become trapped in the middle of the street during heavy traffic.

The chief said that records show that the section now under the lane control, has been the scene of at least three pedestrian deaths and number of injuries, over a short period of years.

Traffic and pedestrian accidents should be eliminated, it is hoped, with the installation of the lane, he added.

Donald F. Soulliere Helps Launch Missile

HUNTSVILLE, ALA.—Pvt. Donald F. Soulliere Jr., of Harper Woods, Mich., assisted in the launching of the Army's Redstone Missile at Cape Canaveral, Fla., recently. This marked the first time that a large ballistic missile has been fired by a team of U.S. military personnel.

The launching of the 62-foot missile marked the completion of one year of extensive training of Soulliere's unit, the 40th Field Artillery Missile Group. The training was conducted by the Army Ballistic Missile Agency at the Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala.

Soulliere, whose wife, Mary, lives at 20845 Hampton, is a member of the group's 580th Engineer Company at Redstone Arsenal. He entered the Army last November and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 23-year-old soldier, son of Mrs. Margaret Soulliere, 22522 Clairwood, St. Clair Shores, was employed by the U.S. Post Office Department, St. Clair Shores, in civilian life. His father lives at 229 E. Eight Mile, Grosse Pointe Woods.

"More and more of our gifted children, today are coming from average homes," reports Dr. Elizabeth M. Drews, psychologist at Michigan State University.

Reasons for this, she believes are better schooling, better communications and "more intellectual stimulation in the average home."

School Board Head Re-elected

Bert H. Wicking, incumbent president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, was re-elected Monday, June 9, to his sixth consecutive term. Mr. Wicking was unopposed and polled 352 out of 364 votes cast. This total, one of the smallest ever cast, reflects the nature of the election in which there were no contests or other issues to be voted upon. Two ballots were spoiled and the rest distributed among seven write-in candidates.

Mr. Wicking was first elected to the local school board in 1943 and has served the community well ever since. He served as president of the Board in 1947-49; 1951-55; and 1957-58. During the school year of 1956-57 he was treasurer of the Board.

With this election Mr. Wicking becomes the board member with the third longest term of service in the Grosse Pointe System. He follows Charles A. Poupard who had 26 years service when he retired in 1948 and Charles Parcells with 21 years in office when he retired in 1947.

Reactions to an Editorial

The editorial column and considerable other space will be given over this week to make room for the publication of many letters that have been pouring in since the appearance two weeks ago of the editorial "A Wise Decision by the P-TA."

Some of the letters suggest that the editor must have been on vacation when this appeared. This is far from true. The editorial was submitted by Patricia Talbot Davis, society and feature editor, an active member of the Richard School P-TA and the mother of three school-age children. It was run with the editor's full approval.

We are certain Mrs. Davis does not approve of obscene literature any more than we do. The following letters express a variety of views on the subject and on the actions of the Council for Better Literature for Youth.

A LETTER TO THE PARENTS OF GROSSE POINTE:

Because you undoubtedly appreciate the many advantages that a fine environment affords, you, the parents of our 16,000 school children, have chosen a Grosse Pointe community for your home.

You have the right to expect the best in educational opportunities, and recreation facilities. You have also, the right to the assurance that your children will be supervised and protected while they are away from home. Our policemen patrol and direct our children safely to and from school. The municipal parks and playgrounds are well staffed, and your children can participate fully in the many activities offered, with constant supervision.

These safety measures are assumed to be your right and benefit, and not an encroachment on your own personal freedom, nor that of your child. By the same token, it is not prudent to feel that school children, because of their immaturity and inexperience, also need to be guided in their choice of reading material outside of the home, and the school?

Many of our parents were not aware of the existence of indecent magazines on some of our local newsstands. And until such a time when every parent would know of the situation that existed, the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth felt the need to alert and inform other Grosse Pointe parents of the problem.

The newsstand owners of this community, through their voluntary co-operation with our Council, have established and maintained high standards wherein indecent magazines are no longer on display, or sold to children at ANY Grosse Pointe newsstand.

Truly, this is an achievement that cannot be praised highly enough, and we, as parents, owe our merchants a large vote of thanks and encouragement on their combined efforts in behalf of our children.

Through its program of outstanding speakers from the fields of education, juvenile authority, and child psychology, the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth offers a community service to parents and residents. By utilizing these sources of information and counsel, parents can gain a better understanding and evaluation of the problems that confront our young people today.

The Council meets on the first Monday of each month, at 8:15 p.m., at the Central Branch of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, at Fisher and Kercheval avenues. All meetings are open to the public, and all interested Grosse Pointe residents, and especially parents, are invited to attend and to participate.

The welfare and protection of our children is of the utmost concern to each of us. It is only with the full interest and support of the parents of Grosse Pointe, that we can continue to keep our community a fine and worthy place for our children.

THE GROSSE POINTE COUNCIL OF BETTER LITERATURE FOR YOUTH

Sir: Your editorial supporting the Grosse Pointe PTA Council's action, in voting down a proposal to back the Better Literature for Youth group, was excellent and in keeping with the democratic process we hold so dear.

The fundamental issue which the Grosse Pointe PTA Council decided was SHOULD THE JUDGMENT OF PARTICULAR LITERATURE-REVIEWING ("PRESSURE GROUP") (Better Literature Group) BE IMPOSED UPON THE FREEDOM OF CHOICE OF THE WHOLE COMMUNITY OF PARENTS.

The answer the PTA Council gave was the only fair and just answer they could have given, i. e. non-support to the Better Literature group.

The Better Literature group has a right to advise its own members about any publication they feel is objectionable, and I do not see any element of censorship in their informing the general public of their opinion that certain magazines are immoral. The Grosse Pointe News has been particularly generous in giving them space to announce their meetings. However, it is plainly necessary to challenge the Better Literature Council, as keeper, by self-election, of the conscience of the entire community of Grosse Pointe. The PTA Council by its vote has affirmed the freedom of choice of our community of parents, who along with the schools and churches, are doing an adequate job of nurturing the individual conscience of our youth.

Editor: The Grosse Pointe News, Sir:

Please accept the compliments of one who thinks your editorial "A Wise Decision by the P.T.A." was the best thing you've done in years! It said so many important things, and said them so well, that there are not a great many points to add.

I do believe, however, that one vital aspect of this issue still needs to be brought out. From the very beginning of their activities, even before their formal organization was accomplished, spokesmen for what has become the G.P. Council for Better Literature for Youth, have taken the attitude "If you oppose our methods, it means that you favor letting children read salacious literature." This is a thoroughly reprehensible argument, and nobody should allow themselves to be cowed by it. Conspicuously, Boycott, and Censorship are not the only alternatives to pandering to childish prurience. Your editorial suggests two better alternatives, namely, programs such as the Motion Picture and Television Council sponsors, and parental responsibility carefully and consistently exercised in the home. I am sure there are others.

Many of us who have declined to support the present and past program of the Better Literature group, would nevertheless agree with them that liberty without responsibility is license and leads to chaos. But we say, "Let's increase the sense of responsibility instead of whittling away at the liberty!" We certainly do have a responsibility to win the in-

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"The Church should have a tapering spire To point to realms where sin's forgiven, And lead men's thoughts from earth to Heaven. I like a tower, It speaks of strength, of might, of power... An emblem of the Church's strength To overcome the world at length."

(John E. Woodrow)

What next? dept.: Saw an item in a California newspaper that read as follows: "Actress Kim Novak's lavender bedsheet was sold for $200 last night in an auction raising money to support a non-profit educational television station. The blonde beauty slept on the sheets at a San Francisco Hotel during a recent visit. A department store head bought the sheets and announced they will manufacture neckties from them... to be auctioned off again." Ho hum.

We had access to some of the tests from an English class at one of the local schools. The two theses we picked out as positively choice... including the teacher's comments... are "I Remember When" and "Thoreau Visits My House." They were both written by the same youngster, whose name we withhold. Here is the first one... "I Remember"...

"I remember when I was a little girl, the whole age of two. We were in Baltimore at the time. My mother, aunt and grandmother and I were going downtown. Being as small as I was and all alone, I had made up kids to play with. Their names were Eder, Sunda, and Peachy.

"On this bright morning I got up at my usual hour of six thirty in the morning. By the time I had gotten everybody up it was 7. Time for breakfast. My mother called me from the bottom of the stairs. I was never allowed to go downstairs without my slippers on. My slippers were in the closet where my aunt's furs were hanging. They were the kind with heads on and I used to call them cats... and was terribly afraid of them... so I put on my rubbers and went downstairs and everyone laughed.

"After the usual amount of time, we called a cab to go downtown. When the cab came, we all piled in and I made them all sit on one side of the cab. Why? Because Eder, Sunda and Peachy were going to sit on the other side with me. After I explained, the cab driver looked at my mother, aunt and grandmother like they were crazy. Then he looked at me as if I belonged in a State institution.

"After we returned home from shopping, an electrical storm hit. My father went to the door and looked out and said, 'It's raining cats and dogs.' After hearing him say that, I went to the door because I wanted to see it rain cats and dogs. 'I don't see any kittens or puppies,' I said. With that, I burst into tears and sat on the stairway for an hour."

(P.S. The teacher's comment on this composition was "It's a wonder they didn't hang YOU in the closet with your aunt's furs!")

The next one... "Thoreau Visits My House"... is even better...

"If Thoreau visited my house I think he might find it pleasant there. In the first place there is no one home all day. This is handy, because he could then go out and look at all my mother's beautiful flowers. We also have a great number of snakes, toads, and other very interesting subjects in our back yard.

"He would probably find my mother very interesting, for she has a very dry sense of humor. My father finds it very un-humorous though. I think my mother would really give Thoreau a run for his money when it comes to playing on words. My mother would just sit and smile while the wheels turned in the back of her mind. Thoreau seemed to like a good discussion on a subject.

"I think he would find just THAT at our house. That's all you ever hear around there. As for things he wouldn't like, there are quite a few. Number one, we are not very solvent. My parents would be, but I spend whatever I can lay my hands on. So there is one strike against us. I hate conceited people. So, I rather think he would not enjoy his stay while I was around. Being the brat I am, I would probably tell him off.

"All in all, he would probably enjoy my mother, for she likes flowers, animals, and a lot of talk. But for the rest of us, I don't think he would last very long. For there are too many strikes against him... in my mind. Since I get home first, he would probably have to talk to himself for an hour. But, we all tire of people very easily at our house, so his visit would probably be short anyhow."

(La professor's comment: "I enjoyed reading this. You succeed in picturing Thoreau in the midst of your family life and you make your family seem like very nice people. I can't believe they would really be rough on poor old Thoreau.")

A woman of the non-alcoholic variety, got fed up with her husband coming home from work every night a wee bit tipsy... having stopped at a bar, on the way, for a few quick ones. She decided to make short shift of the situation by JOINING him at the bar and getting tipsy herself. After finding out WHERE he made the stop... she met him IN the bar this certain evening and joined him in a martini. Pop never said a word. The woman picked up her glass, took one large swallow... and started to sputter and choke and cough... tears coming to her eyes. She managed to get out the words: "I think I'm going to be sick!" Our hero just looked at her and replied, "You SEE! And all this time you thought I was having fun!"

Interests of youth toward better literature. But we are keenly concerned with such related questions as, How shall responsibility be exercised? By whom? What will be the notable side-effects of this method as compared with that? Does mere shielding of the child from the trashy aspects of life develop a mature judgment in him? Or does it tend to make him dependent upon continuous shielding throughout life—make him a future campaigner for censorship? "Parents may not always find time..." says a letter-writer answering your editorial. Is this not the nub of the matter? Persons and communities acquiesce in the office of the Censor when they no longer trust their own judgment, or when they will no longer take the necessary time and effort to exercise that judgment as fully and wisely as possible. The P.T.A. Council has by no means renounced knowledge, prudence, good judgment, or wisdom through its action in declining to back the present program of the Better Literature group. It has said,

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

With the thousands of books gushing from the press today, it is well-nigh impossible to prevent the occasional duplication of titles. Every now and then this poses a problem. Paul Nathan in a recent Publishers' Weekly reports a to-do concerning the use of the title "The Last Paradise" for an Italian picture, "Ultimo Paradiso." The book, "Bali, The Last Paradise" published in this country by Dodd Mead, and in England by Jonathan Cape, makes for complications.

Another tempest in a teapot was created over a most trivial book, "Teeny-Big." The author, R. K. Cooper, tried to protect the title of his publication by registering it as a trademark. His request was turned down, but not without division of opinion in high places. The "Teeny" book, according to Attorney Harriet Pipel, caused the trademark experts and the copyright lawyers a "big" headache.

The legal aspects of protecting the titles of books, plays and all such literary property are perplexing in the extreme. If you would know more of the law pertaining to this, we suggest that you consult a recent addition to the library collection, "Law of Literary Property" by Philip Wittenberg, Lecturer in Law in Columbia University.

This discussion of copyright, libel, literary censorship, plagiarism, piracy and similar topics, successfully translates legal verbiage into the language of the layman. Glancing through this volume, we became curious about books with similar titles, and scanning the library shelves we have found a number.

The minds of mystery writers must run along the same channel. Jack Iams wrote a detective story, "Into Thin Air," in 1952. A book with the same title by Leopold Ognall (Harry Carmichael, pseud.) appeared this year.

Surprise to me. I have always admired your editorial policy and can only feel that that opinion was not yours and that piece was printed in your absence.

You may not know that this decision does not in any way represent the will of the thousands of parents in Grosse Pointe, but was the word of four people in committees, not at a large meeting.

I know you will search for the truth in this matter—then please let your readers know.

Sincerely,
ROSEMARY MURPHY
(MRS. JOHN M.)

To the Editor:

I wish to comment concerning the editorial appearing recently titled "A Wise Decision by the P.T.A." signed by a writer bearing the initials P.T.D. It stated that in a formal session last week the Grosse Pointe P-TA Council, which includes representatives from all the Grosse Pointe public schools, voted down a proposal that would have given local P-TA backing to the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth.

It is true that the P-TA does represent parents from all schools in the Grosse Pointe Public School System, but, unfortunately, just four persons, I understand, voted on this matter.

To my way of thinking, the organization (The Council of Better Literature for Youth) has done a splendid job of re-

Elizabeth Hamilton has written an account of a journey through Palestine in a recent publication, "Put Off Thy Shoes." In 1945 Mrs. Ethel Voynich wrote an English period novel, also with the title "Put Off Thy Shoes." Some fifty years earlier Mrs. Voynich penned "The Gadfly"—a best seller in its day—and amazingly enough waited almost half a century before bringing her characters again to life in a novel which precedes the earlier book chronologically.

Two books bearing the title "Cry of the Heart" were published in 1957. One by H. E. Pauli tells the story of Baroness Ven Suttner, an Austrian Countess who worked for a time as secretary to Alfred Nobel. The other is a novel of Australia by M. E. Patchett.

Egon Larsen and Edward Ellsberg each called his book on submarine diving, "Men Under the Sea," and we also found on the library shelves, two books with the title "Last Gamble." Winston Graham wrote one in 1955, a novel of Cornwall. H. Q. Masur's is a mystery story.

"My Brother's Keeper" by Marcia Davenport was one of the best selling novels of 1954. Stanislaus Joyce chose the same title for the biography of his brother James. The author died in Trieste in 1955. At that time he had covered his brother's life only up to the age of 22 and the book was published posthumously in 1958.

A recent novel "The Choir Invisible" by Marianne Hauser is a small town story with a title that has a familiar ring, although perhaps few will remember James Lane Allen's "Choir Invisible."

Discovering duplicate titles has become a game with the staff. Would you care to join us? We are sure our readers could add to this list.

moving from the stands in our local stores indecent literature. We live in a splendid community with many advantages. Let us maintain proper standards and expose youth and adults to raising our standards higher.

It is generally agreed, among persons dealing with problems concerning rape and crime, that the type of literature that the Council of Better Literature for Youth is endeavoring to eliminate is indecent.

Digestive Troubles?

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Poor digestion brings pain, nausea, belching, and often causes loss of appetite. Here are some of the sources that produce digestive troubles: eating too fast, not drinking enough water, eating too much, or not eating the right foods.

Self-medication often irritates the condition, especially if the trouble lies with the function of the organs that aid digestion. The safest, surest quickest way to get relief is to have your doctor diagnose the condition at once.

Expert compounding of your prescription will assure the best treatment. Select a pharmacist with care.

ing to dispose of, is responsible for the moral decay so prevalent today.
I sincerely trust that the P-TA will look into the functions of the organization more thoroughly and give the majority a voice in expression.
FRANCES TRACY
(Mrs. Emmett E.)

Dear Sir:
Vivas, plaudits, and congrats to P.T.D. on the editorial "A Wise Decision by the P-TA" in the May 29th issue of the News. Unless I'm badly mistaken, this is but the prelude to a vigorous rehash and I'd like to help you muddy the waters. I should like to see the results of one of the wheel-horses of the League. This may or may not be the constitutional doctrine of the group, but certainly mirrors the thought processes of the people who would join such an organization.

First. The group recognizes the need for parental regulation of the reading matter of sub-adults. As my informant postulates. . . . Based on the occasional reports by psychiatrists that comic books and other smutty literature influence delinquency in a positive manner, as morbid material is removed from the available state the "triggers" for misdeeds (the "triggers" for misdeeds) will diminish in proportion, and the streets will be safer.

Second. This sudden increase in unhealthy interest in smut is being promulgated by the Communists as a long-term weakening of the moral fiber of the nation; this is to be made manifest at the polls in later years.

Third. Since this organization is (by implication but NOT by statement that I know of) purely a stop-gap measure aimed at making the streets safe at night; as delinquency disappears the need for it will cease and it will relegate itself to limbo.

This is not even good theory. Even should the claim of Communist origin be true as stated, the best action against it cannot be to use their methods. To use Churchill's analogy, the man who believed in fighting fire with fire had to change his attitude when stung by a bee. Even if such suppression methods were efficacious (and they are not), we as a people haven't the training to use them properly. Obviously, new methods must be developed in order to combat whatever it is the League is fighting.

As a fighter, a positive attitude must be adopted. Just telling a person "don't" doesn't show him a road to follow. He still has myriad don'ts to exhaust first. On the other hand, a "Do" command leaves little to amend or evade. This, of course, was best shown years ago by an upstart named Jesus of Nazareth, but just mention this name and people immediately relegate him (and you) to the proper time and place forgetting that He was also one of the Founding Fathers of these United States.

If these people are sincere, let them eagerly embrace the attitude of sacrifice which underlies our debt to the past, i.e. people's standard of living was subdued in order that their children might be educated by taxes voluntarily assumed. Let the League adopt a house-to-house canvass to present to the people the need for better training in taste and citizenship, then back up their story with sacrificial money to put the plan to use in the schools.

In closing, let me use the following analogy: At this writing, people who have intractable cancer are given symptomatic treatment but finally expire. Even those who have curable diseases do the same if given treatment for the symptoms only. The disease ITSELF must be treated if the patient is to survive. The same for our society. Prisons don't cure crime, the potential criminal must be recognized and treated. It has been said before, but certainly bears repeating:

PEOPLE GENERALLY GET THE KIND OF SOCIETY THEY DESERVE.

Very truly yours,
"An Opponent of Strong Arm Methods."

Dear Sir:

It is incredible that the Grosse Pointe P-TA should refuse to back the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature. Like so, that the GROSSE P-TA.

Public libraries and school libraries SELECT the books that are made available to youths. All the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature is doing is asking the stores to SELECT the magazines they offer for sale. You call this CENSORSHIP.

If the filth is removed from the racks there will be good books left for the young to select from. It has been said by those dealing with delinquents that these magazines are a contributing factor to many crimes.

As a resident of Grosse Pointe, and a subscriber to the NEWS, I trust you will give thought to this matter and support the Council rather than the P-TA.

CONSTANCE M. HULL
(Mrs. Charles B.)

Dear Sir:

One article on the editorial page of May 29 G. P. News has been the topic of much lively discussion. However, in the interest of fairness a few additional points must be brought out.

For instance, the title, a "Wise Decision by the P.T.A." was somewhat misleading. It should be emphasized that the wishes of the several people who comprise the P.T.A. Council and the other single representatives of P.T.A.s cannot be regarded as the will of the entire P.T.A. membership, however "Democratic" this may seem. I have talked to many parents who, while endeavoring to instill proper reading tastes in their children, would still like to see the filthy material removed from the newstands of Grosse Pointe.

Notwithstanding the good that will inevitably result from turning the spotlight on this unsavory situation, it is unfortunate that the tone of the editorial has stirred up such a controversy, particularly since the writer was obviously not familiar with the work of the Committee nor the material under consideration. I say this advisedly since I personally have viewed the magazines purchased at random over the Grosse Pointe area—unfortunately much of it near the schools—and I can say without reservation that it is both obnoxious and obscene. The writer of the article said, and I quote, "As we see it, far more damage can result from the habit of not reading than reading, even though the material could be considered by some to be objectionable." I feel reasonably sure that had the writer been familiar with said material, she would have phrased it differently.

The Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth is a group of public spirited men and women who have been able, with the voluntary consent of newstand proprietors, to get the objectionable material off public display (though still available to adults) as a protection to your children and mine. As a grateful mother with an unfortunate experience regarding obscene material in mind, it grieves me to see this fine committee held up to public ridicule for their efforts in behalf of the community.

The P.T.A. Council in rendering its decision, has brought out that things considered as obscene at one time are no longer so regarded and the writer of this article poses the somewhat hackneyed question, "Who is to decide what is trash?" To my mind, a better question would be "WHO HAS LOWERED THE MORAL STANDARDS?" Not to be able to distinguish obscenity between the pages of a smut magazine constitutes a state of moral idiocy, the anathema of this age. One would need only to hear a recent lecture in Grosse

Pointe by Dr. Wallace F. Watts, staff consultant of the State Department of such material upon the minds of young people—or read a special bulletin from the Federal Bureau (Continued on Page 8) of investigation which reads in part:

TO ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS:

"At the approach of the warm months and the beginning of the seasonal rise in sex crimes, there is a special need to focus public attention on a despicable business; the sale and distribution of obscene material. The serious danger of this 'big-business' criminal enterprise lies in its degrading influence on youth and American communities."

Mr. Hoover goes on to say, "It would be naive indeed to assume that there is no relation between the mounting deluge of sex filth and the increase in sex crimes." The bulletin ends as follows: "Most certainly local civic leaders and legislators have a responsibility to their communities in the matter of controlling this pollution problem. Parents, school authorities and law abiding citizens interested in the welfare of youth, must share the duty of reporting sources of obscene material to the proper officials. Assuredly each and every citizen must contribute to the fight against filthmongering or suffer the contamination spread by this diseased business."

I fully agree with the Grosse Pointe News Editorial that the majority of parents in our fine community are conscientiously trying to cultivate good, sound interests in their offspring—I hope I am one—but it is totally unrealistic to ignore incidents of the kind that took place recently, in and behind the Grosse Pointe Central Library—headlined by the Grosse Pointe News,—to say nothing of other local incidents that could not be printed in this newspaper. (I shall be glad to back up this statement). Also the recent article about the ten year old boy who had stolen such things as radios, etc., and in whose room the police found a quantity of pornographic photographs. These photographs are available for small sums through the advertising in aforementioned objectionable magazines.

Other suburban areas such as Coral Gables, Florida, have cleaned up their newstands with the community participating. (See Parent's Magazine, December, 1957) and I cannot believe that if the people of Grosse Pointe fully understood the situation and the aims of the Council for Better Literature for Youth, that they would not back them 100 per cent. I have read their constitution and I can find nothing in it that could be construed as nor could develop into censorship.

With these things in mind, I would take decided exception to the concept of Freedom unaccompanied by responsibility and the mistake of confusing Liberty with license.

Very sincerely,
AVALO B. PETRI,
Grosse Pointe Mother

Dear Editor:

It was asked at the Monday night meeting at the Library of the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth if the GROSSE POINTE NEWS were represented and there was no response in the audience, so I assume that it was not.

I hope it isn't true that, as a responsible community newspaper, and representing such an influential medium of communication, your paper did not see fit to broaden its knowledge on such a controversial community issue as this Council.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. Watts of the Mental Health Dept., left no doubt in my mind that the obscene content of the pictorial or written matter in periodicals on our newsstands adds absolutely nothing to the individual's emotional development of personality. Dr. Watts deals with mentally maladjusted adults in his profession, and has studied the causes of such maladjustments.

The Council is attempting to place a half-hour film on the individual schools' PTA programs this next year. It is a film of the Loretta Young show dealing with a mother's problem with her daughter and it was a national TV program this past year.

We of the Council feel this is a positive way to expose the parent of our community to the problem. It will be interesting to see if the PTA becomes a "censorship" group by deciding not to let the parents of the community see the film.

Sincerely,
Eleanor D. Watts

P.S. I represent the Methodist Church Woman's Society at the Council and am a member of the Richard School PTA.

To the Editor:

Many thanks for the editorial of May 29th entitled "Wise Decision of PTA" which was directed against the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth. The "fanatical" label stirred enough indignation to attract an overflow audience to the June 2 meeting of the Council and resulted in a unanimous vote of approval for the constitution of this new body of citizens.

Apparently the mothers of this area do not share the PTA Committee's fears of infringement on our freedoms and therefore do not have difficulty determining what constitutes smut in literature.

The Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth

deserves the approbation of the PTA and of the local press. Freedom of the press must follow the rules of freedom of speech—the out-house words, prose, and cartoons used in smut magazines cannot be used on the City Hall steps and should not be allowed on public display racks in our stores.

The most positive type of action against smut magazines is being taken by the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth because it is arousing public opinion against a form of obscenity which has evaded our courts.

In Grosse Pointe there is no place for obscenity, and the mothers of the area have no difficulty in judging what is obscene.

J. Wenzel

June 6, 1958

Dear Sir:

I am puzzled by your editorial, "A Wise Decision by the PTA." Read cursorily, it is a vicious indictment of "Better Literature for Youth." Read carefully, it refutes every one of its own arguments.

In your third paragraph, you say, "It's rather fanatical methods suggest an organization to be avoided." Your basis for calling the organization fanatical appears to be its positive action against what you call "utter trash," or, later, "a problem that we all know we have with us."

In summation, you say, "Any effort to control thought is dangerous. Any effort to stifle choice is heretical." Just doing what comes naturally, I spend most of my waking hours trying to control the thought and stifle the choice of my children, first by the selection of my home and neighborhood, hopefully by my example, by companionship, explanation and persuasion, and, finally, by a flat "yes" or "no." Or did you say this, too, in your second paragraph?

It is to be hoped that the parents of Grosse Pointe read your editorial carefully, if at all, and continue to concern themselves with their children's environment, mental as well as physical.

Sincerely yours,
Theodora Whiteley

Marie L. Curtis

Dear Sir:

Concerning your editorial of two weeks ago which approved the action of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council, may I say congratulations.

Your views were presented with great clarity; your approach to an issue of great seriousness was most rational. It is gratifying to realize that our local paper can and will comment upon the great issues as they appear in relation to our local activities. In truth, it is the accumulation of local incidents and the decision thereon which lend strength to the broad principles upon which our nation is based whether it is freedom of speech or any of the others contained in our Bill of Rights.

I have no quarrel with any committee advising its own members on a course of action, but I prefer my own actions to be guided by my own research and by my own reasoning. Your excellently written editorial affirms this philosophy, as of course, does the action of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council.

MAYA ELMER,

Dear Editor:

With regard to the articles in the GROSSE POINTE NEWS of last week, I would like to give, if possible, a sort of point of view of one who is familiar with the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth.

Its basics are what every thinking parent would want for his children: good reading, not the trash which is on the bookstands of nearly every drug store today, is what I as a mother want and insist on, and I don't think I am fanatical in wanting to try and prevent my children from reading such junk.

Space forbids long views. Hope this finds or presents another point of view.

MRS. ALLARD
(Postmarked St. Clair Shores).

To the Editor:

Anent your recent editorial (May 29) regarding the stand taken by our Grosse Pointe P.T.A. Council in relation to the question of supporting the recently organized Grosse Pte. Council of Better Literature for Youth, I heartily concur. At the time (about February 1957) when steps were taken to organize the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth, their plans for action seemed to me to be an insult to the thousands of in-

Quill and Scroll Honors High School Journalists

Membership in the international honorary society for high school journalists has been conferred upon 11 seniors at Grosse Pointe High School.

Jan Carlson, Jan Collinson, Dave Cook, Sue Cumberworth, Diane Dickey, Bob Giles, Dick Granse, Nancy Nagelkirk, Margie Reins, Dave Roll, and Barbara Stone, have been elected to Quill and Scroll.

To qualify for Quill and Scroll, a student must have the equivalent of 800 inches of published material to his credit. The award-winner must be active on Tower or View Pointe during his senior year.

A gold pin and membership card will be added to the winners' collections of high school mementoes.

For the rest of their lives, (or as long as they care to send in their addresses for the mailing list) these Quill and Scroll members will receive a Tower every week. The Quill and Scroll magazine will also come to the home of each next year.

And, finally, as long as Grosse Pointe High School exists, View Pointe will be available for the asking to members of Quill and Scroll.

Jan Carlson has won scholastic writing awards and has been on the Tower for three semesters. She has also worked on View Pointe this past year.

Jan Collinson recently won an award in the annual Michigan Week Writing Contest.

telligent, devoted parents of our community. Particularly trash.

Our libraries and schools do an outstanding job to supplement all the effort parents make to help their children learn to enjoy and appreciate quality in their reading. Many parents begin reading to their children even before their children learn speech and the meaning of words. Since hearing the parents' voices gives a tiny child security and pleasure he soon relates the appearance of a book to a pleasant part of his daily life. As soon as a child is able to print or 'sign' his name he becomes eligible to have his own library card — a great step in his life. For a long time he has probably enjoyed many visits to the library to help his parents select the stories they will read to him.

I have an abiding faith in the ability and devotion of all parents to meet the needs of their children, be those needs intellectual, spiritual, or physical. A child brought up with an appreciation of good may look at and consider the objectionable and unpleasant but reject it as such.

The action of the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth might also be considered an insult to the many honest and public spirited businessmen in our community, most of whom are also parents. They certainly do not force their literary wares on anyone, be it child or adult.

Anyone suggesting "boycott" as a means of bringing a merchant to their terms may well expect to have their real motives viewed with alarm and suspicions.

What better way to make young people curious about a subject than by saying "These things you must not see, do, or hear!"

In all my years I had never seen nor examined a really lurid publication until attending the early meetings of Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth. "Ugh!"

For Freedom of Choice.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone tomahawk...

A horse-drawn "tra-vois" was the last word in transportation 400 years ago when the Indian moved his belongings across the plains. Still, something always got lost or broken. Loss of tomahawk meant as much to the Indian as the loss or damage of a treasured article of furniture would mean to us. Now, Cadillac Storage Co. offers complete protection against loss or damage—assurance that your goods are being moved by experts—locally or long distance.

YOU have a BIG STAKE

because it'll come out of YOUR pocket!

Most people have become aware, by now, of the serious financial condition of the nation's railroads. This has been brought about by unfair and discriminatory regulation that does not permit the railroads to compete on an equal basis with other forms of transportation. We are FORCED, by federal regulation, to hold our rates up to levels that "protect" less efficient modes. The result? We lose business.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO YOU? Just this: The railroads are the only form of transportation that pays its own way (no free roads, no free waterways, no free airports, no subsidies of any kind). AND, in addition, WE PAY HEAVY TAXES FOR THE SUPPORT OF YOUR SCHOOLS. Last year Michigan railroads paid OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS for this purpose. No other carrier pays a dime to this fund!

DO YOU WANT TO ASSUME THIS BURDEN? Of course not. The schools desperately need this money, and everyone wants them to have it. BUT—if the railroads are forced into bankruptcy by unfair regulation, YOU will have to make up the lost taxes.

WHAT CAN YOU DO? It's very simple. Just write a letter to your Congressman in Washington. For a mere three cents you can tell him you would like him to support Senate Bill 3778 (the Smathers bill) or the Harris Bill in the House to help the railroads get fair play. And while you're at it, write also to your two Senators, Hon. Chas. E. Potter and Hon. Pat McNamara, United States Senate, Washington, DO IT TODAY!

Remember, we are asking for no favors, no subsidies — JUST FAIR PLAY

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Music under the stars has always been one of summer's most attractive dividends, and when it is right here at our own War Memorial in the most gracious and charming setting imaginable concert goers will be turning out in droves.

This new series of three outdoor concerts has been planned by a Committee of 50 with Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge as general chairman of the first Grosse Pointe Music Festival.

Outstanding artists will play on July 9, 16, and 23 at 8:15 o'clock on the Center Terrace. Season tickets are selling for the nominal sum of $5.00.

Richard Roecklein, harpsicordist, organist and choir director at Christ Church, and Alexander Sutsek, troubadour, are two of the artists, local lads both, who will be performing.

Others are Paul Olefsky, famed cellist and music director, winner of the Michael's Memorial Award; Gordon Staples, associate concertmaster with the Detroit Symphony and violinist; Ruth Meckler, Grinnell Award winner and pianist; William Doppmann, also a pianist and winner of the Naumburg Award, and Marilyn Ciotlow, soprano, recording artist and winner of Metropolitan Opera auditions.

It's Busy At The Diebels'

Mrs. Nelson Diebel has charted a busy June for herself. She was responsible for the lovely flowers and the catering at yesterday's luncheon for the Alumnae Association of the Sacred Heart Convent at the school.

Her gracious Touraine road home will be decked on June 24 for the Tenth Anniversary Tea of the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League. Group IX of the League is sponsoring the donation party to aid the hospital.

Meanwhile the Diebels are preparing for house guests about June 18. That's the debut date of Michael Ann Mullen, daughter of the Januarius A. Mullens, of Washington road. Con Suski, of Connecticut, who is Frank Mullen's roommate at Notre Dame will be here for the party as will Michael Seaman, of Chicago, John Diebel's Notre Dame roommate.

The quartet are in Charlevoix right now enjoying a post-school holiday at the Mullens' summer home but will come down for the party. On the morning after, Frank Mullen and John Diebel leave for Ft. Riley and a few weeks of ROTC training, which is cutting it pretty close.

Party Season

Along with the weddings and debuts which are June's usual party pattern are a number of smaller soirees keeping the mothers and fathers of the debs and the brides in a whirl.

The Robert Scherers were hosts at a dinner on Saturday night in their Lakeshore road home and this Friday the George M. Endicotts will be giving a dinner.

The scene of this one is the DAC and will honor Sanford Stoddard, son of the Howard Stoddards, of Lansing, who will marry Ann Dietrich of that city this month.

On Sunday noon the Karl Behrs, of Beacon Hill, have invited a group to one of their famous brunches. That same day, later on, the David Prestons' garden in Merriweather road will be thronged with guests. This is an annual cocktail event where, we understand, huge

And she was given the Helen King Gethman award, for representing the senior who has had satisfactory academic standing and has made the greatest contribution to the College and to her society.

ALICE JANE HOOKER'S fiancé, DAVID B. STACKPOLE, flew into the Pointe for last week-end, from his home in Providence, R. I. He returned east on Monday but will be back shortly for the June 21 wedding which will take place in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

GPYC Bids Members To Fifth Field Day

Club to sponsor trip to Old Club with picnic and outdoor games; also on calendar Family Shore Dinner on June 27

Plans are shaping up in fine fashion for Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Old Fashioned Field Day to take place June 18 at the Old Club. This will be GPYC's fifth annual excursion party to the club at St. Clair Flats for an afternoon of outdoor games and a hearty picnic dinner at tables on the lawn.

It's a day of tossing dull care to the winds; of donning informal sports clothes for the cruiser trip over Lake St. Clair, and the following zany fun of three-legged and potato sack races, and egg-throwing and golf-putting contests. There's a soft ball game and swimming.

One might say it's a day to test energy — Russell D. Van Houten, the field day chairman, and his assistants plan to keep activities moving at a goodly clip.

The field day fete is for adults only and reservations are limited to the first 250, including members and their guests.

Fun will start with the gathering of the excursionists at GPYC where a buffet luncheon at 11:15 o'clock will be served in the Fo'Castle and on the lawn.

Departure of the cruisers from the yacht club docks is scheduled for 12:30 o'clock. In charge of lining up the fleet are the club's power boat committee chairman and co-chairman, respectively William R. Farrington and John J. Wetzel. On arrival, Tom Fitzgerald, staff assistant on summer sports activities, will direct the games.

Dinner is to be at 5 o'clock, a leisurely and chatty affair.

Then it's back to the boats for the return voyage while daylight still holds.

The Eugene A. Casarolls will take a party on their cruiser, the Casbah, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Willis will have 18 friends aboard their "Verlaine."

Former Grosse Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Crockett are coming over from Chicago for the Field Day fiesta and they'll be in Vice Commodore and Mrs. Robert F. Weber's party on the Weber cruiser, Maroda.

Planning to attend also are Rear Commodore and Mrs. William A. Ternes, the J. Earl Frasers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Schultz, the Haford Kербавыs, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams, the Hamilton Kitchers, Charles A. J. Kitchers, Emmett McNamara, William M. Schmidts, Wilford Whytes, Irwin M. Kunerths, Richard J. Martins.

Another highlight on GPYC's June calendar is a festive Family Shore Dinner event slated for the 27th from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the main dining room, with dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.

An innovation is the Friday Nite Frolic to take place weekly in the club's newly air-conditioned Fo'Castle. This will be a matter of cocktails, dinner, and dancing to the Phil Girard trio music.

Center to Give Party for Kids

Wednesday afternoon, June 18 from 2:30 to 4:30, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association will open its doors to the Pointe's Grammar School children for a free party.

The date has purposely been moved later in the month so as not to conflict with the many activities attendant on the close of school.

The party will take place in the Center's back yard, weather permitting. Board members, members of the Center Club, Youth Council members and volunteer assistants will join the Center's staff in supervision.

Included in the entertainment presented on the Terrace will be variety puppet shows, rapid comic sketches, pantomimes, animal acts, dancing, a ventriloquist and clown. Colored cartoon movies will be shown continuously inside and balloons will be given to each child. Refreshments will be available to everyone at cost.

Should there be rain the party will be moved indoors.

Woods Club Needs Helpers

Volunteers for the Summer Play-School Program are needed by the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club. Volunteers would act as assistant leaders, working with experienced social workers and school teachers who will be the basic staff responsible for the children.

The day camp type program will operate from July 1 to August 1, Tuesday through Friday of each week, and from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The children will be members of a small group, according to age and sex. They will spend their time engaged in a wide variety of group activities. Much of their time will be spent out-of-doors, and they will always be under the supervision of their leader.

Youngsters who will take part will include children — boys and girls — six through nine years old who need help under trained adult leadership in modifying behavior patterns which cause difficulties in group life or in play. It is planned to have one staff member for every eight children.

For volunteers working with the children a training session will be conducted before the program commences and supervision will take place during the program. The program will be directed by a professional social worker.

For further information contact Charles Wolfson or Miss Virginia Crowthers, at the Community Club, 20883 Mack avenue or call TUxedo 4-2050.

The Community Club is a community agency supported mainly by Torch Drive funds.

The National League last week went into a two-way tie as the Giants won both of their games to match the Reds with 4 wins apiece. Exceptional pitching was exhibited by Steve Bachle for the Phillies with 15 strikeouts to win against the Pirates, 7 to 4, and by Allen Spaulding of the Reds, striking out 12 Phillies to win by the score of 4 to 0. The Reds' shut out over the Phillies was marred by one hit by the Phillies' pitcher George Gurses.

The Yankees held their lead in the American League race winning over the Indians 3 to 0, but losing to the Tigers 11 to 3. Tom Carl showed exceptional pitching ability with 12 strikeouts and no walks against the Indians.

The Tigers surged up this week winning both their games against the Red Sox and Yankees. They trounced the Red Sox 24 to 10 with excellent hitting. A total of 18 hits, 7 of them doubles, and home runs by Doug Firth and Tom Baranek, proved too much for the "cellar dweller" Red Sox. Nine hits were produced by the Tigers in their game against the Yankees to win 11 to 3. Again Tom Baranek came through with a home run, this time with the bases loaded.

The Indians lost 3 to 0 to the Yankees in a pitchers' duel, but won their second game over the Red Sox, 6 to 1. Games played week of June 1:

PARK

Seven low-hit pitching performances were chalked up in the Grosse Pointe Park Little League games played during the third week of the season as the American League standings were thoroughly shuffled. The Giants continued unbeaten at the top of the National League.

The Athletics dropped from the American League lead to third place, losing twice to a row after four straight wins. At the top of this league are the Orioles, who defeated both the Indians and the Athletics, followed by the Senators, who accounted for the other win over the Athletics. The Orioles' 1 to 0 win was scored without benefit of a hit off Athletics' pitcher Tommy Thompson. The only run of the game came on a walk, a stolen base and two passed balls.

There also were three American League games in which the winning pitcher held the opposition to three hits. These performances were turned in by Paul Schultz, Oriole pitcher, in defeating the Indians, 11 to 4; Dick Hagman, who pitched the Yankees to their first victory at the expense of the White Sox, 6 to 1, and Larry Hunter of the Indians, who subdued the Yankees, 13 to 5.

There were only two home runs in the 11 games played—one by Tommy Thompson, of the Athletics, and the other by Richard Van Horn, of the Giants, in the top National League game.

Van Horn's blow was the big one for the Giants in a 4 to 0 victory over the Cardinals in which Van Horn himself also provided his teammates with a sterling one-hit pitching performance. The Giants were limited to six hits by Skip Doane.

The other Giant victory also came on a shutout, in which Durward DeCavite, Giant pitcher, held the Dodgers to three hits, while his mates were collecting 10 hits and 10 runs.

The second place Braves were the victims of the other low-hit pitching performance when Mike McDonald, of the third place Pirates, held the Braves to two hits in a game that wound up with the Pirates on the long end of a 13 to 1 score.

The outcome of one Major League game in which the Senators defeated the White Sox is still in doubt pending a decision by the league board of directors on whether to allow a protest that the Senators used an ineligible player. The board also has taken under advisement the outcome of two Collegiate League games, which earlier had been declared forfeited. (None of these games therefore is counted in the standings published herewith.)

Fordham now stands at the top of the Northern Conference with two wins, a tie and one game on which a protest has been filed. Harvard is a strong second with a 3 and 1 record.

A three-way tie in the Southern Conference was broken when Alabama was beaten and slipped to fourth place, leaving Baylor and Carolina still deadlocked with three wins and one defeat.

The hard hitting Cardinals slipped into the lead in Grosse Pointe City Little League competition last week on the strength of victories over second place Braves and third place Cubs.

The first victory for the fast improving Dodgers — a 2-0 shutout over the Cubs — also highlighted the week's activities.

A 2-run homer by John Schmatz, his fourth of the season, led the way for the Cards' 6-3 victory over the Braves in their first game of the week. Steady 3-hit pitching by Mike LaRue held the Braves at bay throughout the six innings. The Cards' second win, it was Schmatz again as he hurled a brilliant one-hitter as the Cards shut out the Cubs 4-0. A zooming double into center field by Jack Teatert was the Cubs' lone hit of the game.

Pitcher Bob Gierman of the Dodgers also sparked in the pitching department, allowing a single by Charlie Casgrain as the Dodgers blanked the Cubs 2-0. Gierman struck out 12 and walked only one in chalking up the victory.

Other standout performances during the week included Roger Bohn's single and triple in four times at bat for the Cardinals against the Braves, David Donaldson's two hits—a single and a double—in the Dodgers' losing effort against the Braves, and Dave Collins' two singles for the Braves in the Cardinal game.

With the season one-third over, the pennant is far from sewed up, all four teams in the league very much in the running for the title.

Omaha squeezed out a 10-9 win over Denver with Kerry Luber the winning pitcher. Hitting star was Marvin Platz who had 3 for 3. The Tigers beat the Red Sox 3-1 behind the pitching of Charlie McFeeley who allowed only one hit while striking out 8. The big blow of the game was Mike Johnson's three-run homer, his first of the year. The Tigers followed up with their second win of the week by beating the Orioles 4-3 as pitcher John Zimmerman limited the Orioles to 3 hits. The third straight win was posted by the Tigers when they walloped the Athletics 14-2 behind the four-hit pitching of Rusty Stay. In this game Mike Johnson drew five walks. Good fielding by H. Carteville and Don Craig and solid hitting by Al Kasper, Jack Calos, Bob Thorpe and Jack Bantle enabled the Montreal Royals to turn back Havana 16-10.

Wichita and Indianapolis hooked up in a pitchers' duel with Wichita winning 4-2. Indianapolis blew an early 12-1 lead and were forced to settle for a tie game with St. Paul when the game was called at the end of six innings. The Indians actually held a 16-12

College Letters Won by Pointers

With the spring sports programs completed at most of the colleges throughout the nation, now is the time when the athletes receive awards for their efforts.

At Wooster College Ronald Rolley, a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Rolley of 559 Lincoln road, was one of six members of the tennis team to receive his letter. Ronald also earned a school monogram in swimming.

Hugh McKee, a freshman at Michigan Tech, earned a varsity track letter. He participated in the shot put and board jump events. The latter was his specialty and his coach, Rex Benoit, predicts he will break the school record of 22 feet 4 inches next season.

Harold J. Drinkaus, a Trinity College senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Drinkaus of 1029 Yorkshire road, earned his varsity track letter. Nelson C. Holland, a Trinity College junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Holland of 57 Cambridge road, received his varsity letter as a member of the golf team. Also John W. Winans, a sophomore and son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Winans of 51 Sunningdale, earned his school letter in golf.

Trinity College awarded freshman numerals to E. McIntosh Wiener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wiener of 6 Woodland place, as a member of the tennis team and to Howard Bonbright II, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bonbright of 102 Touraine, as a member of the baseball team.

Bob Wright, former baseball and basketball star of the St. Paul Lakers, received his second varsity letter as a sophomore at Wayne State University. Bob earned his baseball letter as the number one pitcher on the Tartar squad that compiled a season record of 12 wins and 9 defeats for a new school record. He earned his first varsity letter as a member of the Wayne basketball squad last winter. The award was made by the school's athletic advisory committee at the annual All-Sports dinner recently.

lead on four runs scored in the top of the seventh, but because darkness prevented St. Paul from its last bats the game reverted to the end of the sixth at which time the teams were tied 12-12. Rochester scored 4 runs in the sixth inning to break a 1-1 deadlock and beat Toronto 5-1 in its next game to trip Columbus 13-11 after trailing by 5 runs. Gary Shirilla hit his first home run of the season which enabled the Yankees to beat the Athletics 7-3. The Athletics came back in their next game and behind the no-hit, no-run pitching of John Gilmore beat the Indians 8-0. A rifle-like peg from catcher Paul Garesimo picked a man off third base and saved the no run game for his battery mate.

Boat Banter

By Fred Rumrells

Two Detroit River yacht clubs will have their day in the sun come next Saturday, June 14. That is the day each will hold a regatta, but the comparison ends there.

Bayview Yacht Club fairly reeks with sailing prestige gained over the years in sponsoring the annual Bayview-Mackinac race from Port Huron and honors gained by her sailors both on fresh and salt water races. Bayview members are proud of the fact that ONLY sailboats inhabit its harbors which makes it the ONLY all sailboat club on the Great Lakes.

Commodore John Pottle, a Pointer and sailorman from way back, abhors spit and polish but this will be one day he will have to polish up his brass buttons and dust off his navy blue commodore suit and stay ashore awaiting the return of the participants in the club's annual spring regatta which gets underway on Lake St. Clair at 1 p.m. It's going to kill the Commodore but that's the price of glory. It wouldn't surprise us if John doffed his brass buttons and slipped into a pair of Bermudas and found his way out to the race course to at least go aboard Commodore Ray Friebe's yawl "Borealis" which will be the judges' boat on the starting line.

While Bayview is going about the business of conducting a nice quiet sailboat regatta Windmill Pointe Yacht Club officials will be staging the annual Detroit Memorial power boat regatta on the Detroit River.

By comparison Windmill Pointe is a new yacht club. Formerly it was known as the Detroit River Racing Association. That was before it was invited to join the Detroit River Yachting Association about five years ago.

At WPYC sailboats have been conspicuous by their absence until this season. It has always been known as a power boat club and it was through powerboats that the club gained its prestige in the boating world. It just didn't happen that way. It took a lot of hard work by charter members who made it their business to gain all the knowledge they could about power boat racing. Some

Charge Driver As Hit-Runner

Joseph R. Willey, 29, of 24621 Star Valley drive, St. Clair Shores, ballooned a very minor accident into a more serious offense on Thursday, May 29.

Shores police gave Willey a ticket for leaving the scene of an accident, when he drove away after scraping the fender of another car.

Police answered a call to 85 Duval, where it was reported that a fight was in progress, and as they arrived at the scene, they saw two cars driving away, going north on Lake Shore road.

Both cars were ordered to the curb by police, in front of 1100 Lake Shore, where officers questioned the drivers about the fight.

Mrs. Phyllis Jane Palmer of 38850 Pardee, Mt. Clemens, told the officers that while she was in the south bound lane of Lake Shore, Willey sideswiped her car, causing a minor scratch about 10 inches long.

When Willey refused to stop, she said, she took after him, and got his license number. Willey then turned off into a private driveway on Duval, trying to get away. Both parties had words.

School Damage By Fire $20,000

It was announced at the School Board meeting last Wednesday, June 4, that the damage to the Annex of the Grosse Pointe High School, from the fire that occurred on May 28, has been officially estimated at $20,000 — almost all of which will be covered by insurance.

The building will be repaired during the summer, all equipment will be replaced and the outside walls will be sand-blasted to restore their original color.

Robert Sealby Wins 'M' Athletic Award

Robert L. Sealby, son of Robert I. Sealby, of 25 Hawthorne road, was one of twenty-four University of Michigan athletes who received Yost Honor Awards for 1957-58 at the annual Yost Honor Award banquet held Wednesday, May 14, at the Michigan Union.

The award recognizes outstanding men in all athletic fields and is the only honor of its kind at the U-M. Junior and senior students are selected by the Awards Committee on the basis of athletic ability, scholastic success, character, and leadership. Recommendations were made by coaches and staff members of the various athletic departments.

The award was established in 1940 in honor of the late Fielding H. Yost, head football coach at the U-M for 24 years and athletic director from 1921 to 1941.

Sealby is a senior in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts. He received the award for his prowess in baseball, and was named as a Yost honoree last year for the same sport.

Benkert Wins Raven Series

In a red-hot eight-boat, three-race series held off Grosse Pointe Yacht Club the weekend of May 24-25, Boyd Benkert, emerged the winner by a scant quarter of a point over Carter Sales in the annual Raven Class Spring series.

It was a nip and tuck battle all the way and only one and a quarter points separated the first and fourth place boats.

Judges, Commodore John Fodde and Dave Sloss, of Bayview Yacht Club, got the fleet off to a good start on Saturday morning in light, variable zephyrs, that prevailed for the first race which was won by Bob Kerr's "Chumlette." In the afternoon the wind shifted to the east and piped up to 8 to 10 miles per hour, which was perfect for the new champion who got the gun in the second race.

Sunday morning produced heavy, puffy weather that at times saw the wind reach 25 miles an hour. Al Bortolotti who was very much in the running for the title, got away to a beautiful start and worked a lead looked like an impossible lead to overcome.

He was first around every mark except the finish line where Bill Nagel's "Narak" came from nowhere to inch across his bow in a port tack to take first place and deny Bortolotti the championship.

Benkert, who was fifth at the last mark, also took the same tack that Nagel had and chased Bortolotti over the finish line in a blanket finish.

In the meantime Carter Sales and Bob Kerr were still on the course continuing the battle between them that had started right at the start of the race. They had become so engrossed with covering each other that the rest of the fleet got away. Prior to the start of the final race, the battle for the title was between Sales and Kerr, who held a quarter of a point lead over Sales going into the last race. Sales finished fourth to take second place by three quarters of a point over third place Kerr. Bortolotti was fourth a quarter of a point behind Kerr.

If you don't believe some of these modern necessities, comforts and conveniences have a definite value to you, just try doing without them. Suppose you were suddenly deprived of your car, electric lights and power, or the telephone, radio or television, what would you give to have them back? — Kettering.

Using the left foot for braking, says Dodge Chief Engineer George Gibson, enables the driver to react more quickly in emergencies.

When the driver shifts the right foot from the accelerator to "e" brake pedal, according to Gibson, response is slower and braking action thus delayed.

"By resting the left foot over or on the brake pedal at all times," he claims, "the driver has instant control over any situation. However, drivers should be careful not to exert sufficient pressure on the brake pedal to flash the rear lights."

Left foot braking, says Gibson, reduces reaction time by 3/10 of a second. This means that a motorist traveling at 30 miles per hour cuts his stopping distance by more than 13 feet.

"This is a very important savings in an emergency," Gibson points out.

Michael Brady Wins Telluride Scholarship

A Grosse Pointe boy has been granted one of the 32 scholarships awarded to high school juniors who will participate in a six-week summer program under the auspices of the Telluride Association.

Michael Brady, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Brady, of Lakepointe avenue has won the grant, which will provide meals, room and tuition for the duration of the program. Telluride Association is an endowed educational foundation, established in 1910. The Summer Program, now in its fifth year, is designed to familiarize the student with the techniques of research and the critical analysis of facts, and to focus his attention on vital problems affecting American society.

The 32 high school juniors were selected from several hundred applicants from all parts of the country. They were selected not only for their academic distinction but for their demonstrated leadership in their school and community, and for their future promise.

Sixteen of the chosen scholars will attend the session to be held at Telluride House, on the campus of Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. The other 16 will attend the session at Deep Spring, Calif.

Michael will be in the New York contingent. The theme of his, the Ithaca session, will be the Bill of Rights. Both historical and philosophical consideration will be given the separate provisions in this important historical document, and its subsequent elaboration by the Supreme Court. A study will be made, too, of recent issues involving the Bill of Rights.

Orchestra Sets Election Date

At recent meetings of the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra held in the homes of Mrs. Donald J. Nigro in McKinley avenue and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., in Washington road, it was decided to hold the annual meeting and election of officers of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society on Wednesday, June 18, at 7 p.m. in the rehearsal room of Pierce Junior High School.

The meeting, which is scheduled to immediately precede the regular rehearsal of the orchestra, is open to all members of the Symphony Society and anyone interested in the continued growth and development of the orchestra is cordially invited to attend.

An invitation is also extended to attend the final rehearsal of the orchestra immediately following the meeting, which should be a very interesting experience for anyone interested in observing the behind-the-scenes technique in handling a large group of musicians and the various problems involved.

Pointers Take Part In Giant Maneuver

Pfc. Richard K. Barton, son of George H. Barton of Moran road, and Pfc. James E. Kinville, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kinville, of 953 Westchester road, returned to Fort Lewis after participating in Exercise "Indian River," a giant maneuver testing the Army's new pentomic concept of battle.

The exercise pitted the Pointers and other 4th Infantry Division troops against "aggressor" forces in an 18,000-man battle fought the past two weeks at the Yakima Firing Center. The Firing Center spreads across 267,000 acres of central Washington north of Yakima.

SUMMARY OF MINUTES

JUNE 2, 1958

Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Henry E. Bodman II, William G. Butler, Richard L. Maxon and Edward C. Roney, Jr.

Absent: Councilmen J. Lawrence Buell and William G. Kirby.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided. Councilmen Buell and Kirby were excused from attending the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned to permit the Council to sit as a Board of Appeals to consider the appeal of Harry Suffrin in connection with a sign.

Minutes of the regular meeting held on May 19, 1958 were approved with minor changes.

The bid of Ward & Van Nuck in the amount of $11,496.00, being the low bid, for the construction and resurfacing of public parking lots was accepted.

The bid of Roy O'Brien, Inc. in the amount of $1,625.00, being the low bid, for the furnishing of a new passenger car was accepted.

Consideration and the awarding of the bid for the construction of pavement and sidewalks on Williams Avenue between Lothrop and Touraine and between Kerby and Belanger was deferred to June 5, 1958.

Appointments of the members to the Advisory Planning Commission, as made by the Mayor, were approved.

The City Clerk was instructed to write the Standard Oil Company requesting an additional discount on gasoline purchased by the City.

The City Manager was authorized to request a binder on the City's fire insurance policy to extend the coverage to July 1, 1958, so that a study of the City's insurance requirements could be completed.

The City Clerk was instructed to arrange for a special meeting of the Council to be held during the week of June 9th for the purpose of discussing the installation of garbage disposal units.

Approval was given to employ Robert W. Green on a probationary basis as an operator at the Sewer Pumping Station.

The City Manager reported that 12 installations of air conditioning or water conservation equipment were still in violation of the City's ordinance. The Council determined that no further extension could be granted for the installation of water conservation equipment as required by the ordinance, and ordered that the installations presently in violation be sealed off until such time as conservation equipment is installed.

Approval was given to prepare plans and specifications and take bids for the recapping of Kercheval Avenue between Fisher and Muir and the resealing of major and local streets.

Certain special bills submitted to the Council were ordered paid.

Permission was given to the Grosse Pointe Squadron of Civil Air Patrol to hold a fund raising drive in the City on June 5th, 6th and 7th.

Councilman Bodman reported relative to a meeting held at the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building regarding the need for a Youth Center.

The meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m.

City of Grosse Pointe Park

Ordinance No. 22

Zoning Ordinance Amendment

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND SECTIONS 5.1 (16), 5.10, 5.11 and 5.7, AND TO ADD A NEW SECTION 5.2 (1), IN CHAPTER 20 OF TITLE V OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE PARK.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE PARK ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. Section 5.1 (16) of Chapter 20 of Title V of the Ordinance Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Park is amended to read as follows:

(16) FAMILY — A family is one or two or more persons inter-related by blood, adoption or marriage and living together in a room or rooms comprising a single housekeeping unit. A person's domestic employee if living on the premises is a part of the family of such person. Upon application to the Board of Appeals, not more than two persons other than those specified above may, in a given location, be included in a specific family if the Board of Appeals finds, from the nature of the association between all such persons and the duration and reasons therefor, that there will be no impairment in the zoned character of the neighborhood.

SECTION 2. Section 5.10 of Chapter 20 of Title V of the Ordinance Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Park is amended to read as follows:

5.10 RESIDENCE DISTRICT — ACCESSORY USES — LIMITATIONS. None of the following activities shall be deemed to be an accessory use incidental to a private dwelling and none of such uses shall be so carried on in a residence district.

- (1) The storage or maintenance of equipment, supplies, or merchandise for commercial use or sale.
- (2) The practice of any business, trade, profession, or occupation.
- (3) The furnishing, for compensation, of meals or lodging or both to any person who is not a member of the family, as defined in this chapter.

Provided, however, that (1) and (2) of the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit a physician, surgeon, or dentist from maintaining an office in his home, under the conditions specified in section 5.11.

No person shall, as an incident to visiting any place of business, park a motor vehicle on any private vacant lot in a residence district unless such vacant lot is a parking lot duly licensed by the City under 5.14 (5). Any person owning a vacant lot in a residence district surfaced or maintained in a manner which invites parking thereon shall, unless the same be so licensed by the City, post a notice on such lot that parking thereon incidental to visiting a place of business is a violation of the City ordinances.

SECTION 3. Chapter 20 of Title V of the Ordinance Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Park is amended by adding thereto a new section numbered 5.2 (1), to read as follows:

5.2 (1) REPRESENTATIONS INDUCING ZONING VIOLATIONS. No person shall, for the purpose of initiating or facilitating any commercial transaction, by any placard, sign, want ad, brochure, advertising, sales talk or otherwise, represent or imply that any property is usable, or invite another to use any property, for a purpose or in a manner prohibited by this Chapter.

SECTION 4. Section 5.11 of Chapter 20 of Title V of the Ordinance Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Park is amended to read as follows:

5.11 MACK AVENUE RESIDENCE DISTRICT MEDICAL-DENTAL OFFICES. On Mack Avenue in a residence district, a physician, surgeon or dentist may maintain an office in his home, as an accessory residential use, and carry on the practice of his profession in his own home under the following conditions: The professional entrance is on Mack Avenue; the floor area set aside for such activity is not more than 900 square feet nor more than one-third of the aggregate first and second floor area of the residence (garage being excluded); and, the activity is not carried on in a structure separate from the residence, nor in a wing unless at least one-third of the wall of such wing is common to the remainder of the residence. Those offices of a physician, surgeon or dentist established in residence district on streets other than Mack Avenue and under a residence building permit issued prior to January 1, 1947, shall be deemed to be non-conforming uses and shall not be enlarged or materially altered; after such date no new offices of a physician, surgeon or dentist shall be established in a residence district on streets other than Mack Avenue; further, the right to use any such non-conforming office shall not be transferred after December 31, 1958 and the use of such office shall not thereafter be instituted or continued by any person other than the physician, surgeon or dentist using the same on December 31, 1958. In the case of every such office in a residence district (wherever located and whenever established) the professional activities shall be limited to out-patient treatment, only one physician, surgeon or dentist shall practice in such office and then only if he is the occupant of the residence to which the office is accessory (or temporarily substituting for such occupant).

SECTION 5. Section 5.7 of Chapter 20 of Title V of the Ordinance Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Park is amended to read (in two sections to be numbered 5.7 (1) and 5.7 (2)) as follows:

5.7 (1) STREET ACCESS. No dwelling shall be built unless on a lot fronting upon a public street or upon a permanent unobstructed easement of access to a public street, which easement shall have a width throughout of not less than thirty feet and at the end thereof and at intermediate intervals of not more than five hundred feet a turn-around not less in width than forty feet.

5.7 (2) FRONTAGE AND AREA TO CONFORM TO NEIGHBORHOOD. In any case where at least fifty percent of the frontage in the block on the same side of the street is occupied by residences, no dwelling shall be erected or used on any lot having a frontage of less than ninety percent of the "average lot frontage" nor having an area of less than ninety percent of the "average lot area" in the block. Such "average lot frontage" shall be determined by taking the average of the frontage of the improved residence lots in the block on the same side of the street, but in determining said average the largest improved lots, in number not to exceed one-quarter of the total improved lots, may be excluded. The "average lot area" shall be similarly determined. Nothing in the above shall prevent the use of any lot having a frontage of record existing on June 1, 1958 and having a frontage or area less than the aforesaid "average lot frontage" or "average lot area". Lots in the residence districts shall also conform to the minimum area requirements of Sections 5.23 and 5.31.

SECTION 6. This Ordinance shall take effect July 1, 1958.

CHARLES HEISE,
City Clerk
Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

Pointe Business Notes

Carroll F. Sullivan, senior vice-president and group supervisor of Chrysler Corporation passenger car merchandising at Ross Roy, Inc., since 1947, will retire June 30.

Sullivan, who attended Harvard and graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1921, has spent 30 years in various phases of the automobile business as a dealer, factory regional manager, and advertising-merchandising executive.

In 1940, he joined the Plymouth Division of the Chrysler Corporation. During World War II, he served four years in the U.S. Army and emerged as a colonel. He returned to the Plymouth Division as Los Angeles regional manager and a short time later joined Ross Roy, Inc.

Mr. Sullivan and his wife, who live at 414 Fisher road, plan to live in San Francisco following his retirement from the advertising agency.

Richard L. Johnson has been named an assistant treasurer of Ford Motor Company. He will also continue his present assignment as manager of the special financial projects department, a position he has held since joining Ford on June 13, 1952. His new duties include responsibility for the insurance and pension department and the trust records department.

A native of Walshville, Ill., Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Illinois and holds a masters degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Johnson and his wife, Ruth, live at 16839 St. Paul avenue.

Walter B. Ford, II, president, announced that the W. B. Ford Design Corp. has changed its name to W. B. Ford Design Associates, Inc., and has moved from the Guardian Building to new offices and studios at 600 Woodward Ave. The new quarters, redesigned and newly decorated by the Ford group, will accommodate planned future expansion.

In commenting on the move Ford said, "In today's competitive markets more manufacturers are redesigning their products to help strengthen their sales position. We have grown with trend and will need these new facilities to keep pace with our clients' needs."

This year marks the firm's tenth anniversary in the field of product design, packaging, interiors and graphic design. A thermostat designed by the Ford group is now on display at the Brussels World Fair as the winner in a national competition. In 1953 they received the "Good Design Award" from the Museum of Modern Art for work on home appliances.

In addition to serving clients nationally, W. B. Ford Design Associates, Inc., is currently designing the interior of the National Bank of Detroit's new main office building.

Mr. Ford is a graduate of the Yale School of Architecture and a member and trustee of the Industrial Designers Institute. He is president of Arts and Crafts School, Detroit, and member of Detroit Tomorrow Committee. He lives in Provençal road.

THE LARGEST SHIP on the Great Lakes and one of the largest freighters in the world was launched Saturday with a loud splash. At 12:34 p.m. the 729-foot Edmund Fitzgerald broke out of her landlocked timber shell and crashed into a slip at the Great Lakes Engineering works in River Rouge.

A crowd of over 15,000 cheered while tugs blasted their salute and some 250 pleasure boats stood up and shouted. The ship floundered momentarily as a series of small tidal waves spilled over both sides of her berth, then settled down and floated majestically.

PREMIER DE GAULLE'S cabinet moved quickly Saturday to put his pacifying program for Algeria into effect and endorsed his crackdown on the insurgent junta in Algeria. The ministers agreed they should bring an Algerian Moslem into the cabinet for the first time. They decided to call city elections in Algeria in about a month.

Monday, June 9 A BIG AMERICAN HELICOPTER with eight Army officers and a sergeant aboard strayed into East Germany Saturday and landed in the hands of the Communists. The United States Sunday demanded the return of the soldiers and their craft.

The American demand was presented through the Soviet delegate at the Air Safety Control Center in Berlin. It was made to the Russians because the U.S. does not recognize the East German puppet regime. There was no immediate reply.

Soviet Army headquarters said all nine were unarmed. They sent the U.S. State Department a protest note, charging that East German air space had been violated.

WHILE CHARLES DE GAULLE worked on an expanded list of Cabinet ministers to help him rule France, Moslem rebels in Algeria staged two major attacks. The 48-hour flare-up of fighting virtually ended all hope that the rebels will agree to de Gaulle's appeal for reconciliation.

Rebels struck near the Moroccan and Tunisian borders and lost 105 men. A French communiqué said more than a ton of military supplies was seized from the rebels. French losses were not listed.

SUZY PARKER, top-flight model turned actress, suffered broken arms in a train-auto crash which killed her father late Saturday night. A state trooper said Parker apparently failed to see or hear the Florida East Coast Railway train approach a crossing near St. Augustine. Miss Parker was admitted to the hospital under her married name — the first public knowledge that the 25-year-old beauty was married.

Tuesday, June 10 STANDARD OIL CO. raised gasoline prices 4 cents a gallon in the Detroit area Tuesday morning, marking a truce in the latest round of the 11-month-old gas price war.

Independent gasoline dealers set the upward trend in prices Monday. Standard Oil's action, which observers expect will be followed by other major companies, will bring an uneasy peace in the price war. It will bring the price of regular gasoline to 28.9 or 29.9 cents at most Standard stations if dealers pass on the increase to customers. All are expected to do so.

CHRYSLER CORP. disciplined 10 more minor UAW officials Monday, but rank-and-filers obeyed the instructions of international union leaders and did not walk off the job in protest.

The company handed one-and-three day suspensions to stewards and committeemen in the Dodge Main, Mack Ave. Stamping and Dodge truck plants for allegedly disobeying new rules on handling union grievances.

Similar suspensions given last week to more than 200 union officials touched off a wildcat strike Friday that shut two Plymouth plants here and idled 5,400 workers.

MICHIGAN MAYORS representing 60 to 75 percent of the State's population fell in behind Gov. Williams' demand for extension of unemployment compensation on the broad Federal level plan.

Meeting Monday in the Governor's office, the mayors said they felt this was the only scheme that would effectively help Michigan's economy.

If the plan prevails in the Legislature Thursday and Friday it would mean about $1,800,000 would be distributed every week starting June 20, unemployment compensation officials said.

Wednesday, June 11 Jack Tighe, manager of the last-place Detroit Tigers, was fired Tuesday. He will be replaced by Bill Norman, manager of the Tiger farm team in the American Ass'n., Charleston. The firing of Tighe was announced in Boston by John McHale, general manager. McHale said he recommended the ouster Sunday to officers of the Detroit Baseball Co.

CHRYSLER CORP. SHUT

DOWN two plants and sent 2,700 workers home Friday as the company's fight with the UAW over new rules during the "no-contract" period ended its second day.

The Chrysler production stoppages were the most serious trouble since contracts covering some 500,000 auto workers in Big Three plants expired last week-end.

No trouble was reported in plants of General Motors Corp. or Ford Motor Co.

THE FEDERAL TRADE

COMMISSION agreed Friday to investigate Detroit's gasoline price war. The probe was announced several hours after one independent chain and scattered retailers for Shell and Sunoco cut their prices another penny a gallon.

THE UNITED STATES has ordered a Russian diplomat to leave this country because he "paid hundreds of dollars to an American citizen" for U.S. Army manuals and other documents, some of which were classified.

Mr. Wilson was born in Chicago and was a graduate of the Armour Institute of Technology, now the Illinois Institute of Technology. He was associated with Dodge, Maxwell-Chalmers, Studebaker and Reo. He also was president of the Old Guardian Trust Co.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine; five daughters, Mrs. Anna Grovac; Laura M., of Berkeley, Calif.; Mrs. Edward G. Acomb; Mrs. H. Phelps Trix; and Mrs. Phillip C. Howell. He also leaves two sons, Gordon Gray and Bayard.

Funeral services were held Monday with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Tucked away in a quiet, tree shaded plot off one of the Pointe's busiest thoroughfares is our town's only cemetery, St. Paul's, a simple testimony to the families which began the Pointe, helped it prosper and whose descendants still work and live in our midst.

Bayses, Trombleys, Cadieuxes, Morans, Kerbys, Allards, Vanderbushes: they are all buried near the homes and farms they hewed from virgin forest land.

Some of the graying and scarred tombstones are all but obscured by time, but faintly they trace out their story. There is Catherine, beloved wife of Robert Trombley, born Dec. 5, 1850, died March 21, 1889, aged 38 years, 4 months and 16 days. Hard working mothers died early in those days and were sorely missed. Children too were cut down in infancy as many of the small stones show.

France, England, Belgium and Holland: these were the countries which gave their sons to the Pointe. Many were born in the old country and came here to find their fortunes. There was a Van Derven, born in Holland soon after the war of 1812, who emigrated here to farm the lush meadows, and is buried in the family plot.

The Chauvins have a huge monument, surrounded right now with small American flags, testifying to the Chauvins' devotion to their country in two wars. Theirs is a name famed for hospitality since their earliest days. A Chauvin ran one of those popular roadhouses and in the early days of the 19th Century the Chauvin home was noted for its observance of saint days and French fete days.

The earliest legible record names Nancy Martin, born 1793, died 1869 and there were many Martins who followed her.

Two giant Pointe pioneers are buried in St. Paul's James B. Moran and Rufus Kerby. Alger Newberry lies there as does the Comte de Rostang, born in Paris.

Some of the stones along the wooden wall bear no names, but the graves are tended lovingly. In this simple cemetery there is real communion with the Pointe's courageous and historic past in the midst of her vibrant present and future.

Post carnival stories from the Grosse Pointe University School wing-ding last week-end are causing chuckles by the parents who worked so hard to make the effort a huge success. The score of rides were heavily attended and much consternation was caused because many were age limited.

A lad hoping to ride the dogdams, asked the ticket taker how old he had to be. "Ten," was the reply. "What if I'm eleven?" came the puzzled answer, and then realizing his own dimness, the lad gulped and ducked back into the crowd. Wonder if he ever got his ride?

Theodore Buttrick, Jr., manned the PA system, locating lost children and such. The cook tent run by the Jerome DuCharmes was dubbed the DuCharmes' Dog House. Over the PA came Mr. B's plea for one of the four DuCharmes' lads, Chris, to report to the Dog House, immediately. Then there was Gail Webber, who was lost although she didn't know it, and she was paged frantically. A fine time was had by all with a rewarding kitty obtained at the same time for the GPUS scholarship fund.

Flowered silk shoes, tres pointed as to the toe, are the most chic fashion note at spring cocktail pouts. Spied Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., Mrs. Warren Avis and Mrs. Mark Beltaire all wearing the gaily printed pumps at a recent soiree.

One of the few, lean and brunette, who can wear THE SACK to perfection is Mrs. John Bockstanz. Her sleeveless sapphire blue and green leaf white print falls straight to a banded flounce just below the knees. Very smart if you have the figure, which Mrs. B. certainly does.

Quite a day Saturday for Mrs. Carl F. Bachle, who played a dual role. She was mother of the bride for daughter, Diane, who married Lawrence M. Kelly, and a brand new grandmother at the same time. While she was waiting to go to the church, another daughter, Mrs. William A. Fisher II (Andrea Bachle), presented her parents with a grandson.

Small George Mesritz, very bored with grown ups constant question, "What are you going to be when you grow up?" answered truthfully, "Tall enough to reach the candy shelf."

PILFERINGS

On an electrician's truck in Laguna Beach, Calif. VOLTS Waggon.

A discouraged Eau Clair, Wis. chap put this sign in the middle of his burned out yard: "Lawn Long Ago."

A suburban father is wondering what his daughter's teacher thinks of him. Seems he had to borrow a dollar from his thrifty and money conscious first grader one night to pay the paper boy. The next morning he got to worrying lest he had taken her lunch money; so he hurried to the school, knocked at the classroom door and asked to speak to her.

"Do you have any money?" he asked anxiously. "Yes," she answered in cool tones clearly audible to the teacher, "but you can't have any more. I gave you all I could spare last night."

No matter how happily a woman may be married, it always pleases her to discover that there is a nice man who wishes she were not . . . H. L. Mencken.

Church Plans Berry Party

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will hold its annual Strawberry Festival on Wednesday, June 18 from 7 until 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Owen D. Baker and her committee will serve on the church grounds. In the event of rain proceedings will be moved inside the church to the Social Hall.

Admission is 60c for adults and 30c for children. The public is invited.

Pointers of Interest

By Patricia Talbot

A blue ribbon winner of the horse show circuit from Virginia to Madison Square Garden, seventeen year old Krystn Glancy is up at dawn these days schooling her three horses for the 47th annual Hunt Club Show beginning June 19.

Classes at GPUS over for the summer, the Pointe's most accomplished young equestrienne is spending every minute astride her favorite, Jazz Session, the national jumping champion.

Horse shows are meat and drink to this young lady whom a national judge, Chris Wadsworth, claims is one of the best junior riders in the country.

Krys does not come from a horsey family; her parents and five brothers took a very dim view of riding when she first began at ten years old, but they are now justly proud of their talented rider.

First Horse

The interest in horses began for Krys when she was ten and put on a horse for ten minutes at a session of Camp

Pre-Show Jitters

Her riding is almost professional but, before shows she experiences all the jitters known to prima donnas, and sleeping and eating are a problem. A week after the show here she will be entering the Bloomfield contest and then for the rest of the summer will follow the show circuit. Last summer she brought laurels to the Pointe for her expert horsemanship in the mecca for riders, Virginia.

Like all good riders she has had some spectacular spills, which she claims modestly were mostly her own fault, not the horse's. Her mother, heart in her mouth, saw her take a terrific tumble while jumping in Madison Square Garden, and she had broken bones from a spill in Tryon, N.C., and Metamora. Nothing daunted she gets up and rides again.

Rides In Senior Class Too

The Hunt Club is host to some of the best riders and horses in the country at this annual show. Many professionals appear as well as gifted amateurs. Festivities are many during the four days of the show and the trophy winners are much fêted. The juniors ride on Thursday and the seniors the other three days. Krys is one of the few juniors who also ride in the senior division, as she did at the Garden, and what's more, takes honors in these classes.

When she isn't busy about the stable during the winter she is working at her art classes at GPUS. She has quite an eye for color and modern impressionist work. Some of her mood drawings are quite unusual, but she can't draw horses! Although riding is her first love this teen ager enjoys all sports.

In the future, after graduation from school, lies college, probably Briarcliff or Pine Manor, and her debut date is already chosen, December 19, a ball at the Country Club. She fears she won't get as much riding in when all this adult activity is going on, but she knows she will always be riding.

Not Professional

As far as a career as a professional rider she is doubtful, too. Professionals show their own and other people's horses at shows all over the country and it's a rugged life. Hard on the horses, who are vanned from show to show, and equally so on the riders.

Right now Krys is thinking about next week's show, when her home will be headquarters for visiting big-wigs in the equestrian world, and her horses schooled to perfection awaiting the ringmaster's word.

Eastern Star Chapter Plans Hawaiian Night

The Lakeshore Chapter of the Eastern Star will give a Hawaiian Night party June 17 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

If weather permits festivities will be held on the terrace beginning at 7 o'clock. The Wadsworth School of Dance will entertain as will Bessie Barber, Cathrine Siebert and the Zakula family.

CRUISER RIFLED

Mrs. William Swan, of 793 Loraine avenue, phoned City police Sunday, June 8, to make a delayed larceny report. She stated that sometime during the week of May 20 someone had pounded the screen out of the door leading to the cabin of the Swan cruiser, which is docked at the Grosse Pointe City Park pier. The only missing item was a Big Ben flashlight and battery, valued together at $12.

Person to Person . . . your Father's Day gift is an initial success! Properly imported hand made initialed handkerchiefs of fine linen give a final touch of well groomed distinction.

Your Dad is one in a million! Statistically speaking, he is probably one of Grosse Pointe's enthusiastic golfers, who will be happy to know Sam Snead pro-golf slacks are now available at E. J. Hickey. These well tailored comfortable self-belted slacks come in sea blue, Havana brown, smoke and mist gray . . . about eleven dollars.

Every Dad has his day! June fifteenth happens to be officially set aside this year to remember the many sided man we know as Dad. At The Dants Card Room, your sure to find a Father's Day card with the individuality your Dad deserves.

FLASH . . . there goes Dad . . . he received a new flash attachment for his camera and is making his mark (pictorially . . . that is). Why not obey that impulse and get Dad camera accessories . . . the tripod or projector . . . or the leather case that he's been admiring at The Camera Center.

Especially for Father . . . a selected group of handsome Bermuda and Jamaica walking shorts from Jacobson's Men's Department. His choice of plaids . . . stripes . . . and solids in cotton . . . Dacron and wash 'n wear blends . . . at a price that will appeal to your good buying sense . . . just four fifty nine . . . sizes twenty-eight thru forty-two.

Find your place in the sun . . . tanned to perfection! Antoine de Paris suggests Sans le Soleil, a delightful cream that protects against burning . . . hastens a becoming tan . . . conditions the skin, leaves it soft and glowing . . . a handy tube costs two dollars at Trail Pharmacy.

They'll go to your head! Bits of artistry known as "Whimsies" . . . featured at Himelhoch's in The Village. They will be modeled informally Saturday, June fourteenth. Whisps of net . . . beguiling bows . . . flower strewn clips . . . Vogue setting head bands and summer straws that charm the eye.

Two on a match . . . A cotton skirt in luscious sherbert checks . . . cherry pink and orange ice . . . with matching gloves . . . a "bright idea" from Healy's . . . both for about eleven dollars.

"House Beautiful" . . . is your house! Newly decorated by Wanamaker's Studio, Mack Avenue. A staff of skilled decorator's will help you clarify your loftiest dreams of home . . . at down to earth costs.

"By the sea . . . by the sea" . . . Nautical designs for blouses and shorts to take you sailing smartly through summer. Red, white and blue print matched or mixed with plain white. A sailor's navy tie at the neck completes the picture. The blouse . . . about four dollars . . . the shorts . . . six . . . at D. J. Healy.

Beauty Spot . . . at the top! We're talking about your crowning glory . . . breeze blown . . . sun touched . . . more beautiful than ever all through "The Long Hot Summer" . . . because it's groomed and highlighted by Bain de Soleil . . . another Antoine de Paris glamour treat in a tube. Two dollars at Trail Pharmacy.
