A WILDCAT STRIKE against the Chrysler Corp. Missile Plant was called off Wednesday night when UAW Local 1245 voted to send its members back to work.

The end of the walkout and subsequent mass and violent picketing came when 150 pickets were called from the plant gates and headed into the local hall at 26237 Van Dyke.

After heated argument the members decided by voice vote to return to work. Their action was really dictated earlier by UAW President Walter P. Reuther and Macomb County Circuit Judge James E. Spier.

TWO MEN WERE LOST and 35 injured early Wednesday when a freighter and a tanker collided in the East River in New York City. The fiery explosion engulfed and damaged the Manhattan Bridge.

Thousands of gallons of gasoline covered the river for hours after the tanker sank. The East River was closed to all shipping for more than five hours.

Witnesses said the 5,265-ton freighter knifed into the barge amidship, almost directly under the Manhattan Bridge. The cause of the collision is being investigated by the Coast Guard.

LEBANON ASKED the United Nations Wednesday to seal off its land and sea frontiers with armed force and stop the pumping of Syrian and Egyptian war supplies to Lebanese rebels.

The rebels threatened the American Presbyterian Hospital in Tripoli Wednesday and Government officials feared it signaled the beginning of a major rebel effort to oust President Camille Chamoun. No Americans are at the hospital — the American staff moved to Beirut six weeks ago.

JOHN FOX, Boston lawyer and former newspaper publisher, swore Thursday that he had heard Bernard Goldfine boast before Sherman Adams that Adams would "take care" of Goldfine's troubles with the Federal Trade Commission.

He also testified that he was told by Goldfine that Goldfine had "bought some ventures" for Adams and that Adams had "some interest" in Goldfine-owned textile mills.

Adams, the assistant to President Eisenhower, branded Fox's testimony "deliberate and malicious falsehoods."

THIRTEEN PERSONS, including six newsmen, were killed early Friday when the third of four giant jet tankers attempting record hops between the United States and England crashed shortly after take-off.

The plane — a KC-135 jet tanker — crashed and burst into flames about a mile and a half from the end of the runway. The first two planes took off virtually on schedule and the second group departed exactly 15 minutes after the first took off.

The Air Force said that five crew members, six newsmen, and two representatives of the National Aeronautics Association were killed.

THE SENATE RACKETS COMMITTEE disclosed at a hearing Thursday it has information that a conspiracy case against officials of the Carpenters Union was "fixed" in Lake County, Ind. The committee will question James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, about it next week.

The committee traced movements and phone calls of Hoffa, and two others, in connection with the alleged "fix" last August in the investigation of Indiana highway scandals.

One of Hoffa's co-defendants, Maxwell C. Raddock, New York labor newspaper publisher has pleaded the Fifth Amendment, against possible

This scene at the Grosse Pointe Park municipal beach will doubtless have its counterpart at all of the community's lakefront recreation areas during the long holiday weekend ahead. The cool weather all through June kept attendance figures fairly low, but hot weather brings out the residents in droves, as this shot taken on Sunday illustrates.

Home Sweet Home Rates Poor Second

Bees Make Residence in Mount Vernon Road Vertible 'Honey' of a Place

Literally and figuratively, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Specht of 277 Mt. Vernon, can lay claim to having the sweetest home in the Pointe. Theirs is a "honey" of a place.

A swarm of bees was discovered by the Spechts inside the eaves on the right side of their house, above the building entrance. Found, also, was enough honey to keep the family supplied for a long time.

Call for Help

The discovery was made some time ago, and the Spechts decided it was about time they became the sole occupants of the residence, and called in a bee keeper, George Dumine of Warren, Mich., who said that he believed the bees had located their hive at the spot for about four years.

On Monday, June 30, Specht and Dumine, worked from early morning to late in the evening, removing boards from the eaves to expose the hive, and to scrape out the combs of honey. It is not known how much honey was taken out of the hive, but it is estimated at about 25 pounds or more.

Mrs. Specht said she borrowed pails from several of her neighbors to gather the honey. Some of the sweet stuff was distributed to the neighbors that wanted it, but most of it is still in the possession of the family.

According to Dumine, the

Expect Attendance Marks To Be Broken at Beaches In All Pointes on Fourth

Influx of Hot Weather Sends Residents Scurrying To Recreation Sites on Lake Front; Weekend Figures Were High

"Summertime, and the living is easy . . ." And what's more, it really IS here. Statistics from the five parks prove the Point(e). The warm weather, apparently here to stay, has brought the previously failing attendance figures back to their seasonal par.

This past week-end, warmest of the year to date, residents crowded all the local beaches and piers to capacity.

Dave Beauvais, superintendent at the Park pier, reports that they had 3,200 sun worshippers on Saturday, 4,500 on Sunday—and Monday, 3,754 school-free residents swarmed the beach area. Park officials anticipate a crowd equivalent to that of last year, about 6,000, over the week-end of the Fourth.

Plan Big Display

The large increase over normal week-ends is due largely to the Park's fireworks display. In addition to their regu-

To Hesitate Is Not Enough

Mrs. Gem L. Myers, of 226 Lakeland avenue, in heading north on St. Clair avenue, on Thursday, June 26, hesitated at the stop sign at the corner of St. Paul. Then she started across the street without seeing another driver headed down St. Paul.

Mrs. Myers smacked into the right front, (with her left front), fender of Mrs. Ann B. Park's car. Mrs. Park, who lives at 79 Cambridge road, was served a witness notice, and Mrs. Myers, a ticket for reckless driving.

Expect 3,500 at City

Vern Weot, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe City Park, had a heavy three-day period. Saturday's count was 1,500; Sunday, 2,000; and Monday, 1,500. He anticipates a capacity crowd of 3,500 over the long holiday week-end. He, too, has available, extra men to assist the regular crew of six lifeguards.

Superintendent of the Woods Park, Don Hall, reports much activity on his grounds over the week-end. 2,200 residents were counted on Saturday; 2,265, Sunday; and 3,963 that blistering Monday. In addition to his full-time squad of 12 men, he has hired two extra lifeguards in anticipation of a holiday-record 6,000—providing the sun co-operates.

Woman Objects To Biting Dog

A complaint from a woman who resented being bitten by a strange dog resulted in a ticket for the owner of the animal — and confinement for the pesky pooch.

Mrs. Marguerite Bizic, of 5306 Lodewick in Detroit, was passing by 837 University place last Monday noon, June 23, when she was nipped on her right foot by a dog owned by John Van Loon, of the same address.

A complaint to the City police and subsequent investigation revealed that the animal didn't possess a 1958 dog license. Mr. Van Loon was ticketed for the offense and the Board of Health was notified of the incident.

31 Exchange Students to Visit Pointe

American Field Service Arranged Bus Tour To Show Group Sections Of Country

A busload of American Field Service foreign exchange students will arrive in Grosse Pointe for a three-day visit, on July 4, at 5 p.m. There will be 31 students in all, representing 14 countries.

All of these young people have spent the past school year living with an American family in the New England area. They are a portion of the 1,032 students who came from Europe, Central and South America, the Near and Far East, under the auspices of American Field Service, to attend their senior year in a U.S. high school.

Three-Week Trip

Their stay in Grosse Pointe is part of a three-week bus tour which the AFS provides for the students at the end of the academic year in some 250 participating towns and communities.

Neophyte Driver Slams into Pole

Stanley J. Bartkiewicz of 19609 Avalon, St. Clair Shores, while teaching his wife to drive on Lake Shore road on Tuesday, June 24, tried to keep her away from a utility pole at Vernier road, but did not succeed.

While his wife, Josephine, was being treated at Bon Secours Hospital for injuries, Mr. Bartkiewicz, subbed for her at the Shores police station and accepted a violation ticket in her behalf. She was charged with not having the car under control and causing an accident.

Mrs. Bartkiewicz, following the accident, complained of a pain in her head and teeth and was taken to the hospital by police, where it was also found that she suffered chest and knee injuries.

According to information given to authorities by her husband, Mrs. Bartkiewicz obtained a learner's driving permit from the St. Clair Shores police on Tuesday, and was taken out on the road to learn the fundamentals of the art.

Approaching Vernier road, Mrs. Bartkiewicz made a right turn, but too wide, and her husband grabbed the wheel to cut the turn when he saw where the car was headed. In the excitement, the wife stepped on the gas pedal, and the vehicle shot forward and slammed into the pole.

Residents Assured Treat at Concerts Of Music Festival

First of Series of Three To Be Given This Wednesday at 8:15 P.M. on Terrace of War Memorial Center

People of the Pointe will be privileged to hear the first of a series of three evening July concerts presented by the Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival, on Wednesday July 9, commencing at 8:15 p.m. The other two will be given the successive Wednesdays, July 16 and 23—all to be held on the terrace of the War Memorial Center.

The opening program gives promise of a great musical treat for the audience. Gordon Staples, Associate Concert Master of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Richard Roecklein will perform a Sonata by G. F. Haendel on the violin and harpsichord, to be followed by a second Sonata, written in 1956 by Robert Evett. This, a first area performance, will be presented by Paul Olefsky, Detroit Symphony cellist, and Mr. Roecklein.

Also included in the July 9 program will be a cantata by Scarlatti, Bertram Shapleigh's Ave Maria, and various arias presented by Marilyn Cotlow, soprano, and Mr. Roecklein. The closing number will be a work by Haydn in which Messrs. Staples, Olefsky, and Roecklein will perform.

The Summer Music Festival is the first of its kind in the Grosse Pointe community. Season tickets for $5.00, or single concert tickets, for $2.00 each, may be obtained by calling the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, TU 1-7511, or contacting any member of the Festival Committee, of which Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge is chairman.

Court to Settle Traffic Dispute

Two motorists, each claiming he had the green light, were ticketed by Farms police on Thursday, June 24, following an accident at Mack and Calvin.

A police accident report showed that Clarence Buslepp of 1425 Bedford, was driving east on Mack, when he collided with a car driven by Charles F. McCarron of 311 Kerby road, who was traveling north on Calvin.

McCarron told police that he had stopped at the intersection, and when the light turned green, he started to cross Mack, and was hit by Buslepp, who claimed the light was in his favor.

Both drivers will have to settle the issue in court on Wednesday, July 9. Damage to the two cars was estimated at about $150 each.

PLAN FOSTER CONCERTS

The melodious tunes of Stephen Collins Foster, America's beloved folk song composer, will ring out in Greenfield Village on the Fourth of July holiday. A trio of well-known songsters will present concerts of Foster's pre-Civil War Tunes and other songs of that era at 2 and 3 p.m. on Friday, July 4. The occasion also marks Foster's 132nd birthday anniversary.

The fumes were due to an interior trash fire, however, rather than artillery fire. City firefighters doused the small blaze by pumping water through small openings in the otherwise sealed-up tank.

They suspect that some of the neighborhood youths that often play in the area, had pushed waste paper through the tiny side-slits, dropped a lighted match and waited to see the premature fireworks.

Dr. Dorothy LaSalle Paid High Honor by Association

A woman who pioneered much of the physical education program for Detroit's schools has received the Michigan Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation's highest award.

Dr. Dorothy LaSalle, of 686 Roslyn road, Grosse Pointe Woods, received the Association's Michigan Honor Award for "distinguished service in health, physical education and recreation."

Dr. LaSalle, a professor of physical and health education at Wayne State University, was praised for her "distinguished accomplishments in the field of education."

Her citation read in part: "... she has given unstintingly of her efforts to the Detroit community, to Wayne

REAR ADM. JACOBI

At a recent convention of the Reserve Officers Association, held in Atlantic City, N.J., REAR ADMIRAL USNR, LEON JACOBI, of 729 Fisher road, was elected national president.

Admiral Jacoby is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. He served, actively, in the U. S. Navy from 1917 to 1925 and was in the Naval Reserve from 1927 until 1940. He was on active duty from 1940-1946 and earned the Bronze Star for Atlantic Fleet Service during World War II.

The Admiral served on the Hoover Commission, and is the author of several technical engineering publications. He is married and has two sons, both of whom are currently in the U.S. Navy. Admiral Jacoby is a supervising engineer with the Detroit Edison Company.

Insult Heaped On War Relic

Shades of World War I... the armored tank that has rested so peacefully these many years in front of the Alger Post Auxiliary in St. Paul avenue, was smoking as in days of yore last Tuesday, June 24.

The fumes were due to an interior trash fire, however, rather than artillery fire.

City firefighters doused the small blaze by pumping water through small openings in the otherwise sealed-up tank.

They suspect that some of the neighborhood youths that often play in the area, had pushed waste paper through the tiny side-slits, dropped a lighted match and waited to see the premature fireworks.

To Complete Project By Early Fall

$600,000 Job Advanced To Provide Employment New Traffic Lights to Cut Jams

The $600,000 Moross road widening project, being done by the Wayne County Road Commission, is scheduled for completion months ahead of time, according to reliable information.

George Lang of 465 Kerby road, former Farms councilman, who is currently representing the Farms on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, said on Monday, June 30, the Commission has added workers to help alleviate the unemployment situation, and consequently, the project is expected to be completed by October 15. Originally, the project was not expected to be finished for at least a year.

To Take Four Months

He said that Joseph W. Goss, county engineer, told him that the job will take about four months. The work was started about three weeks ago, with the laying of new drainage sewers along Moross, from Kelly road, and already, pipes have been laid up to St. John Hospital.

Traffic has been shunted to one side of Moross where a bridge is being constructed over the Harper Expressway route. When the one side is finished, Lang said, traffic will be diverted to the completed half of the bridge, while the work is done on the other side.

It was primarily through Lang's efforts, that the Road Commission authorized the Moross road program which will take in widening of the road, paving, island construction, new sewers, and so on, from Kelly to about 1,000 feet east of Mack, or almost to Chalfonte road.

Will Be Interchange

Moross will be an interchange for the expressway, which is expected to reach that intersection sometime in 1960.

Lang said that from Kelly to Chandler Park drive, Moross will be about 38 feet wide, with installed concrete curbing. There will be three traffic lanes on each side of the road.

From Chandler, the road will widen to 48 feet on each side of an 18-foot wide island. The existing center island on Mack south of Moross will be lopped off about 10 feet, and the island north of Mack will lose four feet.

East of Mack, the road will be widened to 36 feet on each side of the island, with three traffic lanes on both sides. An island will be constructed on the Farms side of Moross, and will taper from 18 feet to five feet, and will reach almost to Chalfonte.

New traffic lights, with turn blinkers, will be installed at the Mack-Moross intersection, which will help end the jams there.

The north and south traffic will make left turns from Mack onto Moross; east and west traffic on Moross will make right turns onto Mack and left turns will be made from breaks in the islands.

Lang said that there will be no cost to the cities through which the road goes, Detroit, Harper Woods and the Farms. The tab is being borne by Wayne County and the Federal Government, with the government paying a good percentage.

JUDGE'S CAR LOOTED

Judge Miles N. Culehan, of 16840 St. Paul avenue, complained to City police last Sunday, June 29, that sometime between the hours of 8 the evening before, and 8 Sunday morning two hubcaps had been stolen from his 1958 Edsel. A neighbor of the judge's stated that approximately at 10 p.m. Saturday he had heard a group of boys on motor scooters in the Culehan garage. An investigation is pending.

Outrates Home Sweet Home

The bee keeper found a queen bee cell containing an egg not yet hatched, and a number of other cells with unhatched drone bee eggs.

He said the queen bee lays about 2,500 eggs a day, for about six weeks, from April to about the middle of June.

His Plans Work
He constructed a bee hive attached to the eave, in which he placed some of the honey, and honey-sweetened water, designed to attract the insects, and it is working. The bees are gathering what honey is left inside the eave, and transferring it to their new home, and when they finish, Dumaine plans to take them to his bee farm.

He said there had been about 10,000 bees in the swarm at the Specht home.

An overheated radio, or perhaps a short, was the cause of a car fire last Friday, June 27. The automobile, belonging to F. R. Kruse, of Cook road, was parked behind Himelhoch's store in the Village, when the radio ignited. City firemen doused the small blaze before it did extensive damage to the 1957 Dodge.

car under control in an accident that happened at Moross road and Kercheval on Saturday, June 28.

A Farms police report revealed that Joan Wallace, 18, of 207 Washington, was going north on Moross, and did not see the red light at the intersection in time to avoid hitting a car driven by Lawrence K. Butler, 79, of 401 Lincoln road, who was headed west on Kercheval.

Police estimated the damage to Miss Wallace's car at about $250, and to Butler's, about $125. The young lady's vehicle was damaged to such an extent it was not driven and had to be towed away.

many years, it wasn't possible to hold a regional meet here, as times could not be considered official without this specified curbing.

9 Cases Heard In City Court

A total of nine Traffic Court cases constituted a full docket for Judge Douglas L. Paterson of Grosse Pointe City last Tuesday evening, June 24.

First on the agenda was Janet Lawitzke, of 4118 Dickerson avenue, in Detroit. She was charged with breaking a stop law and causing an accident. Although she was found guilty of the offense, her sentence was suspended.

Domenic Canini, 21940 Chalon, in St. Clair Shores, was exonerated of his charge of entering an intersection without due caution. His case was therefore dismissed.

Another verdict of not guilty resulted in a case dismissal for Philip V. Rogers, of 3421 West Chicago, in Detroit. He was originally tried on a charge of driving without his car under control.

A suspended sentence, with a verdict of guilty, on a charge similar to Rogers', was handed William J. Kennedy, of 1038 Audubon road.

Alfred J. Schmidt, of 13571 Appoline, in Detroit, was found not guilty of reckless driving, and subsequently had his case dismissed.

A fine of $15 was imposed upon Ronald J. Thomas, of 957

Lincoln road, for driving at excessive speeds.

John Leslie Rooke, of 639 Algonquin, in Detroit, was judged guilty on a drunk driving.

Two boys were charged with the shooting and illegal possession of firearms, Thomas J. Payette, of 2950 Lenox, in

Two Ordained As Deacons Sunday at Christ Church

The son of the rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Erville Maynard Jr., and the Rev. Charles Millar were ordered to the first degree of the ministry Saturday morning.

Mr. Maynard will become assistant to the rector of St. Paul's Church, Flint and Mr. Millar will succeed the Christ Church vicar, the Rev. George Whitney, as the new incumbent at St. George's Mission, Warren.

Suffragan Bishop of Michigan, the Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley, ordained both men Deacons, passing on "authority to execute the Office of Deacon in the Church of God... to read the Gospel... and to preach the same." The other clerical offices in the Church are those of Bishop and Priest.

Before kneeling for their ordination, the men were presented to the Bishop by the Reverends Erville B. Maynard Sr. and Francis Ayres, of the Parishfield Community, Brighton. The presenting clergy certified the candidates to be "apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation."

Turning to the congregation, Bishop Crowley (very much as is done at weddings) demanded to know if there was "any impediment or notable crime" which could be alleged by those who knew the candidates.

The solemn ceremonies continued with a Litany read by the Rev. Lloyd Hackwell, rector of St. James Church, Grosse Ile, and with the Holy Communion celebrated by the Bishop. The Epistle was read by the vicar of Christ Church, the Rev. George Whitney and the Gospel by the Rev. Charles Millar, as his first act following ordination.

Preacher at the service was the Rev. Vernon Robertson, rector of St. James' Church, New Castle, Indiana, who in the course of his sermon asked the ordinands to stand while he outlined the duties of deacons, "to assist the Priest in Divine service, to help in the distribution of Holy Communion, to read Holy Scriptures in church, to instruct the youth, to preach and to search for the sick, poor and impotent people of the parish that they may be relieved with the alms of the parishioners."

Immediately following the act of ordination, each man was vested with a stole, worn by deacons over the left shoulder. Priests wear their stoles around the neck. The stole represents the "yoke" of Christ, and is a vestment worn by the ordained at sacramental services.

Each was then handed a copy of the New Testament—the authority for all that they may preach or teach. After approximately one year as deacons, the Bishop will ordain them priests at which time the presentation of the entire Bible; Old Testament, Apocrypha and New Testament will form part of the ceremonies.

Music at the offertory was a Benjamin Britten composition, "Hymn to St. Peter" sung by the choir of men and boys with antiphons by the choir of girls in the church balcony. Visiting clergy included staff members of Christ Church and the Rev. Eric Whiting, Dean of the East-side Convocation and rector of Holy Trinity Church, St. Clair Shores. Other clergy from neighboring parishes were also present.

A luncheon for about one hundred followed the service, at which the congregation met the newly ordained and their families.

CITY OF GROSSE POINTE NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given of a Public Hearing to be held on Monday, July 21, 1958, at 7:30 P.M., at the City Offices, 17150 Maumee Avenue, in the matter of the application of Richard M. Kimbrough, 17850 Maumee Avenue, for relief from the Zoning Restrictions as they apply to the erection of a house on Lot 9A and on Lot 9B Cadieux Subdivision of Lot 4, situated on the westerly side of Fisher Road between Jefferson and Maumee Avenue.

The total square foot requirement for each such proposed house is 1750 square feet, with 1000 square feet on the first floor and 750 square feet on the second floor. As planned house "A" has a total of 1688 square feet, lacking 62 square feet of the total requirement. House "B" contains a total of 1782 square feet, being 32 square feet more than the total required, but the total area of the ground floor is 907 square feet, or 83 feet short. The second floor contains 875 square feet, which is 125 square feet more than needed.

The Council is asked to consider making a hardship exception to permit the erection of these two houses with a total of 62 square feet less than the minimum in the case of house "A" and 93 feet less than the minimum in the case of house "B".

Pointers Help Trinity College

Trinity College has announced the successful completion of its three-year "Program of Progress" development campaign, and Trinity President Albert C. Jacobs paid special tribute to two Pointe men and the late James B. Webber, Jr., for their efforts in the drive.

Cited were Yates G. Smith and Norton Ives. The liberal arts college for men, located in Hartford, Conn., went over its $4,570,000 goal by close to $100,000, President Jacobs reported. He paid special tribute to Mr. Smith and Mr. Ives for their "significant contribution in exceeding two of the major campaign goals: the million dollar alumni goal, exceeded by approximately $40,000; and the $250,000 parents' goal, exceeded by approximately $10,000."

He also noted the long-standing devotion and service of Mr. Webber, who at the time of his death in August, 1956, was serving the college as a life trustee and a national chairman of leadership gifts. Formerly a resident of Provincial road, he was graduated from Trinity in 1934.

Mr. Smith, of 854 Edgemont, was a leader in the parents section of the drive, and Mr. Ives, 62 Stanton lane, was active in alumni work. He was graduated from Trinity in 1916.

President Jacobs noted that the major goals of the campaign have been realized. Faculty salaries have been endowed with an additional $1,570,000, and substantial increases have already been given; scholarships have been endowed with an additional $3,000; and indebtedness on dormitories has been substantially reduced.

"The much needed Student Center should soon become a reality, also," the president said. "We have to date received $1,250,000 for this building, one of our major goals in the 'Program of Progress.' Other gifts have made it possible to add $500,000 to the general endowment of the college."

Youngsters Steal Boat From Pier

Judd Emerson, a supervisor at the Grosse Pointe City Pier, reported to City police on Monday, June 23, that a group of three young boys had stolen a motorboat which belongs to E. E. Mueller, of 383 Lincoln road, from the City docks.

Three police officers answered the call and, in questioning other youths on the scene, it was discovered that some of them had recognized the delinquents and could provide the offenders' names and addresses.

In the meantime the Huck Finn types weakened, realizing their identity was known, and hastily moved their "hot" craft at the foot of Three Mile drive — then fled for the safety of their respective homes. Two of the trio turned themselves in, at the police station, and it wasn't much later that the third was sought out at his house.

The youths, 13, 14, and 15 years of age, were released to the custody of their parents but were asked to report back to the City station the next morning — at which time they received a severe reprimand from Capt. Andrew Teetart. They were then released to their families, in whose hands their fate rests.

Thieves Steal $64 at Clubs

Thieves rifled the wallets of four persons on Sunday, June 29, three at the Grosse Pointe Club and one at the Country Club of Detroit, taking a total of $64, plus personal papers.

The greatest loss was reported by James French of 174 Ridge road, who told Farms authorities that someone had broken into his swimming pool locker and taken $40 in cash from his wallet. Nothing else was disturbed according to the police report.

The three wallets rifled at the Grosse Pointe Club belonged to Charles Cudlip of 900 Lake Shore road, who said that the thief had taken $10 in cash and his driver's license and other personal papers; Dan French of 130 Merriweather, who missed eight dollars in cash and a driver's license and papers; and Raymond Duffy of 78 Handy place, whose loss is six dollars in cash and driver's license and papers.

The latter three told police they had placed their clothes in a car near the dock on the club grounds, and were near the dock, apparently for a swim. When they returned they found their trouser pockets emptied and the wallets, cash and other items missing.

Two Cars Tangle At Intersection

Another (un)lucky ticket holder is Robert Trombley, of 839 Rivard boulevard.

Trombley, last Saturday, June 28, was driving east on Kercheval avenue when he made a left turn onto Rivard, directly in front of a car driven by Anthony J. Toia.

The subsequent collision did considerable damage to both vehicles.

Toia, who lives at 20632 Lochmoor boulevard, in Harper Woods, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of his head injuries and a laceration on his arm.

Trombley was issued a ticket for reckless driving, and both cars were towed to the rear of the City police station.

Boat Club Regatta Barely Misses Setting Record

The Detroit Boat Club just missed by one boat of tying the all time local regatta entry record of 169 in its 62nd sailing regatta held on Lake St. Clair last Saturday, June 28.

Race chairman and vice commodore Kurt Keydel beamed from ear to ear as he announced that his regatta was the largest of the current season, the second largest in the history of the Detroit River Yachting Association, and the largest in Boat Club history.

The all-time record was established in the Detroit Yacht Club Sweepstakes regatta a few years back. The skipper is responding to invitations to compare this year the old mark is in jeopardy in future regattas.

"Falcon" Gets Revenge

Clare Jacobs' New York 32 sloop "Falcon" gained a measure of revenge for her loss in the Mills race the week previous when "Falcon" led the big Cruising A fleet over the finish line in a dandy 8-10 mile an hour southeast breeze that got the fleet home in good order.

Following "Falcon" was Jerry Clements' and Clarence Baker's "Last Straw" which nipped "Falcon" on corrected time to take the Cruising A division Mills prize a week earlier.

Nubby Sarns' "Revelry", which paced the fleet around the first two course markers, slipped to third place as she just squeaked out Pat Collins' "Vitesse" by 9 seconds on elapsed time.

Hank Burkard's "Meteor III" nudged "Falcon" out of the overall prize by less than a minute and also won her third consecutive DRYA race in Cruising B. Skip Grow's and Carter Sales' "Querida" was second followed by Liwyd Ecclestone's "Bikini".

Tommy Hanson's Pilot sloop "Dauntless II" continued to make shambles of the Cruising C fleet when she won her third consecutive race on Lake St. Clair.

Monopoly Ended

Cruising D class was won by Harold Dushane's "Belletrix" on corrected time and brought to an end the monopoly Frank Taylor's "Mitzi" had held on first place in the class this season. However Taylor placed second ahead of Jim Start's "Tempest" to maintain his leadership for the DRYA season championship.

Bobby Roadstrum slid his Privateer "Cotton Top" over the line first to win the Robbie Robinson Memorial Trophy for the first time. In three previous years Bob had the misfortune to foul out. Chuck Hauff's "Niaid" placed second ahead of Sid Marsh's "Indian Drum" to knot the two in a point tie for the class Spring Trophy series.

Boat Banter

The Fourth of July weekend is going to be a busy one for local windwagon sailors. Windmill Pointe Yacht Club will stage its annual regatta on the Fourth and the following day the Grosse Pointe (Little) Club will hold its regatta.

Both regattas are morning starts with the warning gun being fired at 10:30 o'clock. Also both regattas will be sailed entirely on the regular DRYA courses which are located on the Canadian side of the ship channel.

With the conclusion of the Little Club regatta the small boats will virtually go into mothballs as far as local regattas are concerned as the next interclub regatta won't take place until August 16 when Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will sponsor its annual regatta. In between that time Bayview Yacht Club will stage its first annual Small Boat Racing-Cruise which will be a two-way affair starting Saturday, August 2 and ending August 3.

This race is an invitational event open to all classes eligible for the North Channel race, which includes Privateers L Class, Luder, Crescent and Folkboat classes. Raven, Lightning and catboat classes will also be invited and make up a centerboard class.

The course will be from the Grosse Pointe (Little) Club, across Lake St. Clair into Anchor Bay and up the North Channel to a finish line off Henry's near Algonquin where the fleet will rendezvous Saturday night. The second stage of the race will be from Henry's, down the south channel, across the lake to the finish line in front of Bayview Yacht Club.

The overall winners in the keel and centerboard divisions and classes will be determined on total elapsed time for both parts of the race.

An adequate number of course patrol boats will be provided to tow those yachts to the finish line who can't make it before the time limit of 8 p.m. both days. Any yacht that can't make the finish line before the time limit expires and comes in under power or tow will take a 12 hour elapsed time.

Entry forms will be mailed to the skippers of the aforementioned class boats in the near future. No yacht will be allowed to enter unless an entry is filed one week prior to the race.

The 34th annual Bayview-Mackinac race promises to be the largest ever, according to the early entries which include six yachts that have never competed before.

Currently, the inspection committee, headed by chairman Gerd Schneider, is busy inspecting all local yachts before the deadline of Tuesday, July 8.

Clayton Ewing's 1957 overall and Class A winner "Dyna" is racing against time to get back in time from the Bermuda race so she may defend the fourth they were held to a lone

CITY STANDINGS	W	L
Braves	10	2

Cubs	5	7
Dodgers	2	10

A double no-hitter and some heavy hitting marked play in the Grosse Pointe City Little League last week as the front-running Braves moved to within 1 1/2 games of clinching the pennant by downing the Dodgers, 4-2, and the Cardinals, 16-4.

The double no-hitter came in the Cubs-Cardinals game when Dave Sachs' authored the season's first no-hit, no-run game to lead the Cubs past the Cards, 3-0. Ironically, Mike LaRue also pitched a no-hitter for the Cards, but 4 walks and 4 costly errors allowed the Cubs three runs and the ball game. Young Sachs' steady control, which he has exhibited on the mound all season, proved to be the difference in this hard fought game. In spite of the fact that he wound up as the losing pitcher, LaRue pitched one of the finest games seen in the league thus far this season. All three runs scored against him were the direct result of errors.

Sachs' no-hit, no-run victory stands out in a season which up to this game was dominated by the batters. The Braves, slugging champs of the league, kept it up last week, hammering out five extra base hits, including home runs by Greg Miller and Barry Trombly. Their big bats brought them their two wins and an almost insurmountable league lead. One more victory will assure the Braves at least a tie for the championship and six more games remain to be played by each team.

It is no accident that the Braves are leading the league. They have had excellent pitching all season. Greg Miller, with six straight wins, is the league leader in that department. Young Bruce Harper has won four. The hitting has been good all season and the team runs the bases well and plays heads-up ball.

In the other end of the standings are Dodgers. The 2 won, 10 lost record of the Dodgers is deceiving. The team has played excellent ball most of the time this year, losing more close ones than any other team in the league.

They work hard, practice often and Manager George Wilson is instilling a spirit of confidence in the Dodgers in spite of their won-lost record. Looking to next year, the Dodgers could make things hot for the other teams in the league.

The Dodgers showed their potential by beating the Cubs last week, 8-3, behind the fine five-hit pitching of Johnny Stempfle, who registered his first little league victory.

Other players who did well for themselves last week include Chris Curran of the Braves, who continued his fine fielding for the league leaders; Gary Burkemo, who finally found the range for his first home run of the season in the Cubs' losing effort against the Dodgers; and Joe Reed, Dodger first sacker, whose improving play at first base is a bright spot in his team's picture.

The season's second double header will get underway at 1 p.m. Friday, July 4, at the league diamond, Charlevoix and Neff. The Braves and Dodgers will square off in the first game, followed by the Cubs-Cardinals tussle.

WOODS-SHORES

In the Major league the second half of the season brought a change in the fortunes of the New York Yankees. Lou Paige and Larry VanHouse hit home runs back to back. In a thrilling game, Thursday, June 26, the Yankees defeated the Baltimore Orioles 2 to 1 when Jack Pioch singled his brother Jay home with the winning run when two were out in the last of the sixth. Jay Pioch was the winning pitcher. He struck out ten.

In the International League Columbus met Montreal June 23. After a slight tilt spin the Columbus Jets have readjusted the bombajets and once again are causing havoc around the League. Montreal was the latest to sound the air raid sirens as the Bombers dropped their heavy stuff. They started out with one run in the first then poured it on for 4 in the second and 6 in the third. In the fourth they were held to a lone tally by the fine fielding of Dashing Donnie Craig, who though handicapped by polio, made all three putouts at second base, one unassisted. This was a brilliant piece of work and a fitting reward for a young fellow who never quits regardless of the odds.

The Habitants also had hit-octane performances by Thorpe and Bantle. The former not only caught a very aggressive game, but garnered a hit and a walk at the plate. The latter, a boy of the major league caliber, clouted the ball for a double and triple while driving all of his teams runs. Pitcher Charly Clute, who stopped front running Rochester cold, was no match for the Flyers as they smashed out 13 hits including 3 doubles and a triple. This was a routine mission for the Bombers who at mid season had a squad batting average of .325 with five regulars hitting well over .500 and three hitting way over the .300 mark.

Phil Hodgeman who is leaving for summer camp with a batting average of .714, made his farewell appearance something to remember by getting a single, double and triple while pitching three masterful innings allowing but three hits while striking out six. He then shifted to left field where in the last of the fifth he made a sensational catch of a long drive by Bantle for the Coupe De Grace. The sixth inning was called because of darkness. Bruce Zink pitched the 4th and 5th allowing no hits or runs while striking out four.

Johnny Verxical, 8 years old, pitching his first game for Buffalo held a hard hitting Havana team to three hits in chalking up a 4 to 3 win on June 24th. Tiring in the fifth inning, he was relieved by Randy Priest who shut out the opposition, striking out four of the six batters he faced. Cracchia pitched the entire game for Havana, allowing only seven hits.

Strong armed Roger Vortman starting his second game, on June 28, for Buffalo was short on control, but his fast ball limited Miami to three hits. Meanwhile his teammates were taking advantage of the Miami pitchers to chalk up 15 hits to win 23 to 10. Karl Beysiegel had a perfect day with five hits in five times at bat, continuing his sensational hitting that has sparked the team all season.

In the American Association the Minneapolis Millers swamped the Louisville Colonels 24-14, on June 24. In spite of the football like score, none of the runs were walk-ins and there was only one home run in the game which was made by Richard DeCook of Louisville. The Millers made 19 runs in the fourth inning with practically the whole team batting twice. The Louisville team used three pitchers while the Millers used two. Bobby Anderson was the winning pitcher.

FARMS

Good hitting that featured the American League Tigers in the first half of the season has carried over into the early part of the second half of the schedule. The Tigers are currently leading the league with two wins and no losses.

On the other hand the Yankees, first half champions, have slipped to last place in the second round down to two losses in as many starts.

Steve Bachle helped the Phillies take over first place in the National League with a no hit, no run game against the last place Pirates.

Newlyweds Travel East After Wedding

Harriet Sue Johnston Daughter of the Rex H. Johnstons Of Hunt Club Drive, Married to Randolph Hubbard Fitch Wednesday, June 25

Harriet Sue Johnston, daughter of the Rex H. Johnstons, of Hunt Club drive, was married on Wednesday, June 25, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, to Randolph Hubbard Fitch.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white silk bombazine made with a sabrina neckline, long sleeves and Alencon lace accenting the bodice. A silk cap embroidered with pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried Eucharist lilies and ivy.

Linda Johnston was her sister's maid of honor in a pink organza waltz length gown. Her pink open crowned hat was of horsehair and she carried rubrum lilies.

The attendants, dressed like the honor maid were Majory Harper, of New Haven, Conn., and Julie Dayton, of Ann Arbor.

Roger Fitch was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Ferris H. Fitches, of Merriweather road.

Ushering were David Belmore, Rees MacFarlane and Thomas Deising.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnston chose a blue and green silk print dress with a blue sequin hat and orchids. Mrs. Fitch was in gray silk with a blue flowered hat and a corsage of stephanotis and delphinium.

Following a reception in the church parlours the pair left for the East. They will make their home in Nantucket, Mass.

Miss Leona Weier Winner Of Workshop Scholarship

Miss Leona Weier, social studies teacher at Grosse Pointe High School, has been selected as one of the 10 teachers throughout the country to receive a tuition scholarship for the Summer Workshop in International Relations. Miss Weier is currently attending the Workshop, which meets at Northwestern University from June 23 to July 11.

The Workshop is co-sponsored by the North Central Association of College and Secondary Schools Foreign Relations Project, the Northwestern Department of Political Science, and the School of Education at Northwestern University. Designed for social studies teachers, it is devoted particularly to strengthening the teaching of international relations at the secondary school level.

Highlighting the Workshop will be lectures by such experts as Gabriel A. Almond, professor of political science, Princeton University; E. Raymond Platig, assistant professor of international relations, University of Denver; Francis L. K. Hsu, chairman of the Northwestern department of anthropology; and David E. Apter, assistant professor of political science, University of Chicago. There will also be required seminars dealing with area studies and laboratory sessions in which teaching methods, audio - visual and other instructional materials will be analyzed.

The North Central Association, which covers 19 states, works to develop high standards of education in colleges and secondary schools. Both Northwestern University and the NCA have received foundation support to train advanced students and teachers of international relations.

With the aid of a substantial grant from the Carnegie Corporation, Northwestern embarked this year on a five-year program for graduate training and research in international affairs.

The NCA, with the assistance of the Ford Foundation, set up the Foreign Relations Project in 1955. The project's goals are to encourage interest in and knowledge of international materials, supplement a school level. The project has developed new instructional materials, supplementary guides and materials and has promoted teacher conferences. Presently over 3000 schools throughout the United States are participating in the project.

Hillcrest Opens New Clubhouse

The members of Hillcrest Golf and Country Club will celebrate the opening of their new ultra-modern clubhouse with a dinner and dance on Saturday evening, July 5.

The luxurious clubhouse, located on Groesbeck Highway, in Mt. Clemens, has been under construction since last October, with the members anxiously watching its progress. Most of the members will see their new headquarters for the first time Saturday evening when they will take over the seven-level clubhouse.

The new clubhouse, overlooking Hillcrest golf course, will be a unique concept in country club living. It will be supported by outside guests (private parties, banquets and weddings). The building itself is designed so that the members' facilities are always private and separate, but Saturday evening the clubhouse will belong entirely to the members who plan to initiate it in grand style.

Cocktails will begin at 7 o'clock, with dinner at 8, followed by dancing. Music will be provided by Clark Williams and his orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landry, of Birmingham, are chairman of the entertainment committee making arrangements for the dinner dance.

STUDY UNEMPLOYMENT

The Labor and Industrial Relations Center at Michigan State University has been awarded a $10,200 grant from the Ford Foundation for the continuation of a study of workers who have exhausted their unemployment benefits. Initiated before the recession, the project studies the characteristics of workers who exhaust their benefits, their work history, how long it takes them to get another job, how they live after benefits are exhausted and other related problems.

Right Under Our Noses

Have you noticed how few are making plans to leave the Pointe for summer vacations... or how unenthusiastic are those who have committed themselves to depart? It seems that more and more residents every year are awakening to the realization that there just isn't any place which has more to offer in the line of warm weather relaxation than their own community.

Families who have small children who need constant parental vigilance and devoted attention, are a bit behind the eight ball in this respect. The youngsters come equipped with the adventuresome spirit of a Tom Sawyer or a Huck Finn, and after being confined to one locality all through the fall, winter and spring months, it is quite important to get them on the road and give them a taste of another locale. But as the years pass and the sons and daughters mature to the independence of camp age and going it on their own, the parents have a chance to review the bidding and become more independent in their choice of vacation spots.

We have been through it a good many times. There is the flurry of getting ready to get away. By the time business affairs are in shape, the packing done, the paper boy and milkman turned off, the police alerted to watch over the homestead, there is barely enough energy to get to the airport or railroad station, or wheel the jalopy out of the garage. And once arrived at the destination, it doesn't take long before a sense of wonderment sets in, conjecturing on the whys and wherefores of the trip. Acclimating oneself to a strange environment, arguing with arrogant resort personnel, living out of luggage, aren't very conducive to peace and comfort. Thoughts turn homeward and the mental comparisons begin.

Just where can one go that offers more resort and vacation features than our immediate surroundings? Beautiful municipal parks and beaches, golf courses, tennis courts, lovely Lake St. Clair, all lie at our doorstep. The nation's greatest sports town has every attraction from big league baseball and horse racing to yachting and speed boat regattas, polo, hardtop and midget and stockcar classics. For those who go in for sightseeing, there are zoos and museums and libraries and churches and Greenfield Village and gigantic industrial factories and a score of other attractions.

Weather can be a bit on the depressing side during the long winter months, and we can't blame those who head for the south and sunshine in that dismal stretch between November and May. We've even been lucky in that respect during the last several winters, and those who stayed home were probably much happier than those who froze or huddled close to the fire against the unexpected elements which have visited the so-called play-spots of the sub-tropics.

But come summer, and we can find fewer excuses for packing up and getting out. Really hot weather usually doesn't linger here more than a week or two during the entire season, and air-conditioning and the myriad swimming facilities take care of that handily.

Get away from the office for awhile and put business worries aside. But instead of rushing frantically about the country looking for fun and real relaxation, fix your focus right here at home and learn how delightful it all can be. And without transportation problems, and packing, or the exorbitant costs of resort living.

Trapped Dog Bites Owner

A two-year-old Weimaraner dog bit its mistress severely on both arms Monday, June 23, when its owner tried to free it as it was stuck between fence pickets.

Bitten was Mrs. Muriel Marullo, 44, of 132 Moran, a police report disclosed. The skin on her arms was punctured in six places. She was treated at Bon Secours Hospital for the bites.

The animal was released by Patrolman Eugene Thomas and Dog Warden Earl Trombley.

The dog will be confined for the customary 10 days. The Board of Health was notified.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

There seem to be two schools of thought as to what makes good summer reading. Something short and easily assimilable, say some readers, but there appear to be an increasing number who prefer a meatier tome for their summer dish.

If you lean to the lengthy book you may be interested to know that Austin Tappan Wright's "Islandia," out of print for some time, is to be newly printed with lots of accompanying fanfare. The library, however, still has a copy or two of the earlier edition. This is a novel of over 1,000 pages, and even at this length, much was cut from the original manuscript.

The book describes in detail the life on an imaginary continent called Islandia. Originally this utopian island there were laws forbidding trade with other countries, and few foreigners were permitted entrance. Later these were relaxed sufficiently to permit diplomatic relations with certain parts of the world. It is then that John Lang, recently graduated from Harvard, is appointed American Consul. He falls in love with Islandia, its culture, its ways and finally receives permission to spend the rest of his life there.

It is a philosophical novel which holds up a mirror to America and Europe, and when we read it one leisurely vacation, on its first publication, we found it absorbing. Our inclination after finishing it for the first time was to call the nearest air terminal for a one-way ticket to this nonexistent country.

The publicity given its proposed reprinting sent us scurrying back to it, to recapture our first enthusiasm. Second hand reading can never be the same, and to scan such a book is unfair to its creator, but we found with the second cursory reading, sixteen years later, our reaction was different.

The hero seemed just a shade stuffy to us, and some of the characters, particularly the women, appeared a bit wooden. Also, we were impatient at times of too many details, although it is these very minutiae which lend a certain charm. All in all, we still think it is a good book, and unique in its presentation. The country is amazingly convincing, and, perhaps because the writer was a New Englander, the landscape has many of our east coast characteristics. The simple quiet tenor of agrarian living unconsciously invites comparison with our tense, complex civilization.

Austin Wright was a professor of law at the University of California, and later at the University of Pennsylvania. His sudden death in a highway accident at the age of forty-eight brought to light a manuscript on which he had been working for many years unknown to anyone but his family, and without thought of publication.

Sylvia Wright, his daughter, died before it was published, and it is possible that had the author lived and been persuaded to print it, he might have made different revisions.

The hero of the story returns for one year to the United States, but decides to live permanently in Islandia. Why? "Because," in his words, "the Islandian way is a better one. There, a man is not split so that body and mind fall apart, the one going too far from earth, the other sinking too low in it. Here the labor which is regarded as the highest knows the realities on which men live only at second hand. We think too much about thoughts, and not enough about feelings and things."

Kenneth Oliver wrote of this book in the Pacific Spectator, "No other author of an utopian novel has known the land of his creation as intimately as Austin Wright knew Islandia."

A two-way ticket to this fabulous land will cost you only the price of a reserve postal at your library.

And now we are off for a four week vacation, during which time the column will be in the capable hands of other staff members. A happy summer to our readers!

A DISPUTE OVER disciplinary layoffs closed two Chrysler Corp. plants in Detroit Friday, idling some 5,400 day shift workers. The dispute idled 2,700 workers on each the day and afternoon shifts at the Plymouth body plant and the division's assembly operation.

The company said it was forced to shut down the plant after an incident in which two supervisors were pushed during an argument after a three-day layoff of seven trim department employees.

A Chrysler spokesman said some workers refused to return to their jobs after the seven were laid off for "failure to perform their work properly."

CARPENTERS UNION President Maurice A. Hutcheson refused to tell Senate racketeers investigators Friday if he forked out union money to try to kill his Indiana land scandal indictment.

The burly Hutcheson also would not say whether he made a deal with Teamster President James R. Hoffa to oppose the Teamsters' ouster from the AFL-CIO in return for Hoffa's help in the case.

The AFL-CIO expelled the Teamsters last year on corruption charges growing out of the committee's investigation. The Carpenters Union voted against the expulsion.

DETROIT HAS come up with another medical first: a four-in-one shot designed to immunize children against polio, whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus.

The vaccine, known by the trademark Quadrigen, was developed by Parke, Davis & Co., after two years of research in co-operation with the Detroit Health Department. It has been tested successfully with an experimental group of 300 Detroit children.

Summer Day Camp

To the theme of "Anchors Aweigh," the Neighborhood Club Summer Day Camp completed its first week of activities revolving around the ideas of the Navy.

After registration, the sailors were placed upon four ships, the Sapphire Nautilus, the Golden Gull, the Emerald Sea Turtle and the Scarlet Shark. The ship's officers briefed the campers on the events to take place during their stay on board.

The sailors' day is filled with many activities, commencing with the singing of nautical songs, followed by a highly competitive sports program. The sailors are divided into two groups, the Midgits ages 6-8 and the Giants 9-11.

Each group competes against the different ships in newcomb, softball, and base-on-balls, with the Sapphire Nautilus in first place. Other activities the sailors take part in are handicrafts, art, dancing, dramatics, and science and nature study.

Each week the Camp has one special event, the first week's being the launching of balloons, which was very popular among the campers last year. The balloons filled with helium were sent into the air with a card attached asking the finder to return the card to the camp. The camper's card that travels the farthest will receive an award.

Tennis Clinics

It isn't too late to sign up for the tennis clinics offered on Tuesday and Thursday mornings at the Neighborhood Club. Call TU 5-4600 or drop in at the club to inquire about the tennis program.

THE GOVERNMENT had its hands full Sunday trying to get back 50 Americans, including two Michigan sailors, held in the wilds of Cuba or behind Europe's Iron Curtain.

Naval officials are dealing directly with Cuban rebels to free 30 Marines and sailors kidnapped Friday night near the Guantanamo Naval Base. Two of the sailors are Michigan boys.

In addition the State Department demanded that Russia promptly release the nine-man crew of an unarmed American military transport forced down by Soviet fighters near the Soviet-Turkish frontier Friday; and negotiations for the release on nine American soldiers whose helicopter came down in East Germany June 5 are currently bogged down in political red tape.

GOVERNMENT FORCES pounded rebel strongholds around Tripoli from the land and sea Sunday in the biggest battle of Lebanon's seven-week-old rebellion.

The rebels apparently are trying to capture or destroy the American Presbyterian Hospital, isolated in rebel territory overlooking Tripoli. They have warned that they will take the hospital if Government guards do not withdraw.

Officials fear that the battle might mushroom into a rebel attempt to take all of the northern port city.

VICE PRESIDENT Richard N. Nixon said Sunday President Eisenhower would stick by Sherman Adams unless there is subsequent proof of wrongdoing by the chief of the White House staff. Nixon went on to say, in a filmed television broadcast Sunday, that the case doesn't compare with influence charges that came to light under the Truman Administration.

THE SENATE MONDAY NIGHT voted to make Alaska the 49th state. Acceptance of the House-passed bill left only the requirement of Presidential approval and acceptance by Alaskans of the bill's terms to extend the Union to a point 55 miles from Russian Siberia.

The roll-call vote was 64-20. The bill would permit Alaska to take its place late this fall or early winter as the first new state since the 1912 admission of Arizona and New Mexico.

Proponents of statehood for Alaska have been battling since 1916 when the first bill was introduced. Acceptance will add to the U.S. an area roughly one-fifth the size of the existing 48 states and 2½ times that of Texas.

THE SUPREME COURT REFUSED Monday to review on an emergency basis the order suspending school integration in Little Rock until January, 1961.

But the court increased the likelihood that the case will be reviewed by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals before school opens in September. That court has recessed for the summer.

Observers were struck by the Supreme Court's use of the phrase "vital importance of the time element in this litigation." The feeling is that the Eighth Circuit Court cannot overlook so strong a hint.

UAW LEADERS MET in a series of conferences at Solidarity House Monday as some 450,000 auto workers began their fifth week of work without a contract in Big Three auto plants. President Walter P. Reuther reviewed the collective bargaining situation with heads of the UAW's General Motors and Ford departments.

Wednesday, July 2

GENERAL MOTORS announced Tuesday that 24 automobile bodies were damaged by saboteurs in the Fisher No. 2 Plant in Flint. This brought the total number of bodies sabotaged in GM plants since UAW contracts with auto makers lapsed (May 29-June 1) to 212. The corporation offered a $1,000 reward for information on persons sabotaging the chassis.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

A good old fashioned picnic at the Pointe City pier is fast becoming a summer holiday tradition for a group of parents and their offspring.

They meet early in the morning and indulge in a tug of war, a raw egg throwing contest and sack races. All this activity is followed by a giant picnic lunch.

Gathering early this Friday at the rendezvous will be the John Bockstanzes, the Arthur Cerres, the Edward J. Hickey III, the Walter Auches, the Joseph Caskeys, the Owen Keelers and the David Livingstones.

The Bockstanzes have to rush home from this family frolic to a block party. The James Harlands, of Radnor circle, always give a pot luck supper on the Fourth for the neighboring families. After the watermelon and pie the dads escort the tots to see the various fireworks displays over Lake St. Clair.

Incidentally the Bockstanzes have initiated a fine summer custom for Sunday. They take their eggs and bacon to the pier and have breakfast al fresco with a dip before and after making the whole day an excursion.

Wallbon House Party

Another Fourth of July party will be going on at the Philip Ira Worcester summer home at Walloon Lake. Mr. and Mrs. John Worcester, of Lincoln road, have invited the George William Duffields, the Albert Charles Dicksons, Jr. and the Henry T. Ewalds, Jr., to join them in a gala holiday houseparty.

Also out of town for the Fourth will be Mrs. Hugh Mulkey, here visiting her parents, the Elms T. Knowlsons, of Somerset road. They will be going up to the Knowlsons' summer place near Woiverine, Mich., where Mrs. Mulkey will join them from Philadelphia. The Knowlson cottage has the delightful name, Wilderness on the Pigeon.

Visitors To Be Honored

The Charles LeB. Homers' holiday party will honor their houseguests, the William A. Randalls and the Edward S. Pages, of Philadelphia.

The gayety on the 4th will be a cocktail soiree but on the eve before the Homers will also be hosts at a dinner in their Vendome road home.

Toward the end of July they will leave with Ann, Chuckie and Helen for a stay at Nantucket, Mass.

Joy Housewarming

The day after the Fourth there will be an exodus to St. Clair for the giant housewarming the William Moore Joys are giving to show off their very modern glass and wood home built there last fall, overlooking the St. Clair river.

The Cyrus Fultons, of Lancaster, O., will be the Joys' house guests for the dinner out of doors on Saturday. The Mead Bakers and the Henry B. Joys, Jr., will be cruising up to the party on their boats.

Coming by plane from Cincinnati for the gala will be the Charles Hassans and Edmund Lunken. Many of the guests will stay all night at the St. Clair Inn and various local hostels and their indefatigable hosts plan a luncheon for Sunday before the guests all leave for home.

Bound For Riviera

Leaving Sunday for New York will be Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison, of East Jefferson avenue. The Mor-

Susan Scott Weds Howard Patterson

Marries Bronxville, N.Y., Man Saturday Afternoon in Christ Church; After Reception at Country Club Pair Leave for Northern Michigan

White silk mist was Susan Lane Scott's choice for a wedding gown when she spoke her marriage vows Saturday in Christ Church to Howard Alexander Patterson, Jr.

Her gown was fashioned with an Empire bodice of imported organdy and a princess paneled dome shaped skirt falling into a chapel train. A fitted cap of organdy roses and nylon tulle caught her two tiered finger tip veil. She carried her maternal grandmother's prayer book with Eucharist lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

The bride is the daughter of the Sherod Blanchard Scotts, of Elm court, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Patterson, of Bronxville, N.Y.

Mrs. Patterson was in emerald green chiffon with an oyster colored hat. Both mothers pinned orchids to their purses.

Following a trip to Northern Michigan the newlyweds will make their home in Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Patterson will continue his graduate work in architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

A floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin was the bride's choice for her wedding. It was fashioned with a V neckline and the skirt was edged in a double accordion pleated ruffles. A Juliet cap of matching Chantilly lace held her finger tip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy on a white Bible.

DAC Beavers Plan Outing

Grosse Pointe Dr. Sigurd Becker again has plans in hand for the Detroit Athletic Club Beavers' annual Old Club outing to be staged next Tuesday, July 8.

Dr. Becker of Devonshire Road inspired these stag excursions for the DAC's swimming Beavers way back around 1938 and was chairman of that first highly successful fun-fest at the Old Club. Chosen chairman each succeeding year, he's now steering arrangements for the twenty-first time.

Newly-elected Beaver President Paul John Cooley will head some 200 DAC'ers, including a large number of Grosse Pointe members. They'll assemble at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club to board a fleet of cruisers leaving GPYC docks at 10 a.m. for the trip over Lake St. Clair.

The Beavers have invited the DAC bowlers to attend, as they do each year.

It's to be a day of sports on the Old Club grounds, with Clarence E. Pinkston keeping games on schedule. After a doubles tennis tournament, horseshoes and shuffleboard, comes lunch. Then golf pitching leads to the high point, the 3 p.m. ballgame between Beavers and bowlers.

Always hotly-contested, the ball game this time promises an extraordinary tussle by Beavers for the famous old milkcan trophy prize. The bowlers have won the last two consecutive years. Clyde Manion, once a professional player and a star catcher for the Detroit Tigers, will captain the bowlers' team against Captain Jack Donahue's Beavers.

A hearty dinner and award of prizes will wind things up before the cruise back to GPYC.

Club Catering To Youngsters

More and more activities at private clubs are being planned to include more than just the adult members. At Lochmoor Club the children of the members are given their place in the sun during the summer months by being offered activities which appeal to the varied interests of the youngsters be they 2 or 18 years of age.

The swimming pool is a favorite meeting place of every age group. Doting mamas can and do bring their very youngest off-spring to splash in the "tots pool" which is fenced in for greater safety. Or if she is so inclined and wishes to spend some time on the golf links while her youngsters dunk themselves in the water, mama need only apply at the pool office to obtain a qualified "sitter," a new service put into effect this year by Mrs. Robert Artner and Mrs. Jack Emery.

Parties too are planned around the pool by the children's entertainment chairman, Mrs. T. J. Newton. Such parties are usually scheduled on Decoration Day, Fourth of July or Labor Day weekends.

and include special swimming events and refreshments. For the boys and girls who would rather belt a golf ball down the fairway, a Junior Golf day was instigated about three years ago. Under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Brissson and her committee, the Junior tournaments are scheduled to begin on Monday, July 7th at 12:00 o'clock and will be held every Monday through August 31st. The youngsters are divided into classes and are required to play at least nine holes to be eligible to compete for prizes awarded to the winners in each class.

To encourage the junior golfers to learn the rules and proper etiquette of golf, the committee usually sends out an adult volunteer to accompany each foursome, while they are playing in these tournaments. All juniors having three certified 18-hole scores are eligible to enter the Junior District Golf Association which meets weekly at the various district clubs.

The teen-ager who is mostly interested in coke parties, dancing and picnics is not forgotten either. Several events are planned for them during the summer months by chairman Dr. and Mrs. Hal Munson, usually in conjunction with another club.

TOP-NOTCH ENTERTAINMENT TOO!

Besides fine food and drink, completely air-conditioned accommodations, golf (18-hole course) and swimming (heated pool), ST. CLAIR INN offers you the "tops" in Summer entertainment, with...

MUSICAL PORTRAITS

...featuring Dolores Baldyga, Angelo Picardi and Dana Lordly, acclaimed from Maine to Florida for their unusual talents. Says the BOSTON POST: "A series of delightful musical productions... something new and decidedly different... strictly top-notch entertainment!"

You can enjoy MUSICAL PORTRAITS through Friday, July 11—two shows nightly, except Sundays.

But you'd best 'phone your reservations NOW!

J. Billups entered the Coast Guard's six month Reserve Program last March.

Before entering the Coast Guard Billups attended Grosse Pointe High School.

Classic Cars To Be Shown

The old aristocrats of the automobile world will hold a reunion in Greenfield Village on Saturday, July 12.

The occasion is the Midwest Grand Classic of the Classic Car Club of America. It is the second year the Midwest meet has been staged in Greenfield Village.

Nearly 100 of the big, sleek, luxury cars of the 1925-42 era will be on display before and after the judging. A midwest champion will be named, as well as winners in seven classes in each primary and senior competition. The senior group is composed of winners from previous meets.

Last year a 1931 Cadillac Roadster owned by Donald J. Cole of Columbus, Ohio, was named midwest champion and went on to capture the national championship in competition with winners at the Eastern Grand Classic, held simultaneously.

Classic car experts judge the entries for mechanical performance and general appearance. The latter includes body, engine, roof or top, upholstery, bright work, paint and degree of authenticity of restoration.

Founded in 1952, the Classic Car Club of America, with headquarters in New York, has a membership of more than 2,000. Unlike the antique car group, where all cars prior to 1925 are considered antiques, only select cars of 1925-42 qualify as Classics.

A classic car, according to club definition, usually was marked by a custom body and custom coach work. The cars always were in the high price brackets.

Famous names in the Classic roll call include Auburn, Bentley, Cord, Lincoln Continental, Duesenberg, Franklin, Packard, Rolls Royce, Pierce Arrow, Mercedes, Marmon and Stutz.

The Henry Ford Museum has several of these Classics in its collection of 175 old cars. Charles E. Letts, Jr., of Birmingham, Mich., is this year's Midwest Grand Classic chairman.

Thumb Down; Don't Clown

The new outboard motors are better looking than ever. They're also more powerful and therein lies a problem. With so many horses behind him, it's a strong temptation for an even normally cautious man to open her up and go roaring by both fishermen and swimmers alike — usually to their intense annoyance.

But nobody is more sensitive to the problem of clowning on the water than the boaters themselves. That's why more and more of them are using the meaningful, familiar hand gesture "thumbs down" as a signal of disapproval to fellow boaters who get carried away. The slogan they've adopted is "Thumbs Down Means Don't Clown."

Use of the slogan and hand signal has been endorsed by the Outboard Boating Club of America — has been picked up and spread far and wide by such varied groups as boat and yacht clubs, engine and boat manufacturers, chiefs of police, safety officials and the U. S. Coast Guard.

It is felt that "thumbs down" is a good hand signal for everyone to use, whether boater, swimmer, skier or fisherman. It's an effective warning to the forgetful boating clown that his actions are unsafe, unsportsmanlike.

Intersection Blight to be Removed Soon

Plans call for the widening of Moross road (Seven Mile road) from Kelly road in Detroit, to almost Chalton avenue in the Farms, at a cost of $600,000. The project has already been started by the Wayne County Road Commission, and it is scheduled to be completed by October 15. The picture, taken recently by the Commission, shows the intersection at Morross and Mack, which will come under the county's improvement program, and which, when completed, will eliminate traffic jams, and expedite vehicular traffic movement at this crossing. New traffic lights, with turn blinkers, will also be installed to help end the jams. New drainage sewers are being installed along Morross and are presently up to St. John Hospital. The road improvement was instigated by George Lang of 465 Kerby road, former Farms councilman and presently representing the Farms on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Cadet Andrew H. Barr Trains at Fort Sill

FORT SILL, Okla.—Andrew H. Barr, third year student at Princeton University in Princeton, N.J., has commenced his six week period of military instruction in practical application of military science and tactics at this, the largest artillery and missile center in the free world.

Barr is one of nearly 800 youths from 20 leading colleges and universities in the nation who arrived at this huge military reservation recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, 125 Merriweather, Grosse Pointe, Mich., and will be "in the army" for the next six weeks assimilating military knowledge by practical application of theories taught in the classrooms at their colleges.

The youth, along with the hundreds of other cadets, will receive a considerable amount of instruction and practice in leadership techniques and artillery tactics. He will be afforded the opportunity to fire, or see fired artillery weapons ranging in caliber and type from howitzers and guns, to missiles and rockets. He will also be given an opportunity to ride in a helicopter and acquaint himself with other material utilized by the U. S. Army's Artillery Branch.

Cadet Barr wears military clothing, is accorded officers' privileges, resides in renovated military barracks, and partakes of carefully prepared meals in appealing dining rooms. He, along with other cadets, is encouraged to participate in a well-balanced athletic program and other recreational activities during his free time.

BAD YEAR FOR LABOR

A Wall Street Journal feature article, written by Roscoe Born, reports that "organized labor is winding up its worst year at the polls." This has to do with National Labor Relations Board elections during the fiscal year which is about to end. Mr. Born adds that "more workers than ever before in the board's 23-year history have cast their ballots against unionism."

TAKE WARNING

The swift depreciation of the franc has been partly to blame for French political unrest, in the view of the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and should be a warning to this country. The franc today is worth only 1/84th of its 1918 value. If the same fate should befall the dollar, a $100 suit of clothes would sell for $8,400; a $109 social security check would buy only two pounds of hamburger, and $100,000 in life insurance would provide board and room for a widow for about a year.

MATTER OF PRIDE

After all it takes a lot of courage to admire the man who made a success of what you gave up as a failure.

AAUW Group To Give Show

After months of preparation the Studio Arts Group of the AAUW will present their great production "The Golden Bird," a puppet show, on Wednesday, July 9.

There will be two performances, the first at 11 a.m. and the other at 2 p.m., both to be given in the back yard of the home of Mrs. W. D. Cohan, 218 Fisher road. Branch members and friends, with an emphasis on their children, are invited to attend.

The play will be the culmination of the Studio Arts group's year-long efforts, under the instruction and guidance of the Fine Arts chairman, Mrs. Edward F. Suits. Members have collaborated in writing the script, making the puppets, and designing the costumes.

Mrs. Arthur T. Bersey, arts chairman for the coming year, Mrs. William D. Cohan, Mrs. Lowell Orebaugh, and Mrs. Edward F. Suits will present the puppet performance.

Kenneth N. Kurtz Wins Scholarship

Kenneth N. Kurtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kurtz of Bishop road, is one of five Detroit-area students who received $1,000 Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair scholarships last Friday, June 27, at a luncheon held in their honor at the Rackham Memorial building.

Kenneth, 17, who is a June graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, became eligible to apply for the scholarship by participating as an exhibitor in the recent Detroit Science Fair.

He was subsequently chosen on the basis of academic achievement, general character and competitive examinations administered by the Student Aid Foundation of Michigan.

The Foundation will hold the scholarship funds in trust until the student has entered an accredited college or university and will then grant him $500 for his freshman year, the balance during his sophomore year.

Kenneth will begin using his scholarship in September when he enters Miami University. He is the only scholarship winner who also won a major award in the Science Fair. His "Fossils of the Cincinnati Arch" exhibit topped all others in the physiography classification.

The NEWS featured Kenneth earlier this winter as a "Pointer of Interest" for another avocation — his incredibly complete, hand-made miniature circus.

TOTAL WORLD ASSETS
Total world property assets amount to $6,000 billion ($6,000,000,000,000), according to The American Economic Foundation, of which a third are in the United States.

Pointe Business Notes

Assets of First Federal Savings of Detroit have now passed the $250,000,000 mark, reports Hans Gehrke, Jr., president of First Federal Savings of Detroit.

George E. Bushnell, Jr., has been elected a director of the Detroit Bar Association to fill the unexpired term of Louis H. Charbonneau who resigned from the board following the conclusion of his year as president of the association.

Mr. Bushnell, son of the former Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, was born in Park High School, Amherst College and took his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1951. He has been chairman of the Association's Junior Bar committee and a member of the Circuit Court and Common Pleas Court committees.

In the Army in World War II he won a commendation medal for meritorious service. In the Korean war he was awarded the bronze star medal.

With his wife and their two small sons, Mr. Bushnell resides at 285 McMillan road.

David Hamilton of 976 Lake Shore Road, who recently was graduated from Wayne State University School of Mortuary Science, has joined William R. Hamilton Co., funeral directors, it was announced by his father, William R. Hamilton II, vice-president of the 103 year old firm.

THROTTLING FREEDOM

The Internal Revenue Service's recent decision to disallow the cost of certain utility advertising as a legitimate business expense will be strenuously fought by The Southern Company, its president states. In his words, the attempt "to deny the investor-owned electric industry the right to free speech" will be met with stern opposition.

Many a good argument is knocked down and run over by progress.

her laurels. John Kent Cook's "Pompador," second place Class A winner last year, also is trying to make the race. Ray Engholm's "Ivanhoe," 1955 "A" winner, will head the Canadian challengers which may present a fleet of five yachts including a brand new one which was launched just a week ago.

Fred Ford, Jr., has entered his brand new 39 foot sloop "Quintet" which he designed and had built at the Henry Hinckley boatyard in South-West Harbor Maine. The yacht was launched here three weeks ago and will get her first test in the Grosse Pointe Club regatta Saturday. Fred's "Quintet," named by his thirteen-year-old daughter, Susan, who thought the name fitting because the boat sleeps five and there are five in the family, will be sailing against his brother Horace (Bobby) Ford who owns "Fleetwood." This will present the first brother act in memory locally.

Both boys learned their way around a sail yacht from their daddy Fred Ford, Sr., who once owned "Persephone" and their uncle John B. Ford who owned the big 72-foot yawl "Royano."

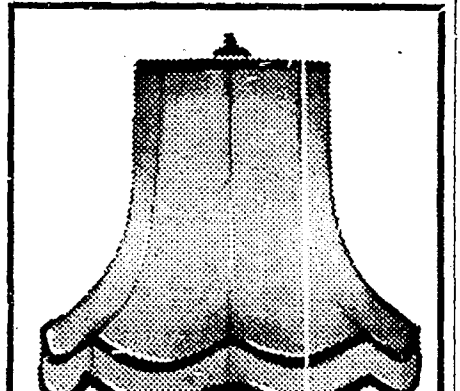

John Warnke's new cutter "Great Lakes" appears destined to miss the Mackinac race as she still is on the ways in a Mount Clemens boat yard. Determined John swears she will be ready for competition and he will launch her in the Clinton River despite the fact the yacht draws six feet of water and the river in spots is as shallow as four feet.

THE REAL OWNER

From the West Palm Beach, Florida; Post-Times: "Government ownership of industry is socialism. And when the Federal government takes 52% of the profits of a corporation in the form of income taxes, it 'owns' — in effect — 52% of the shares of that corporation. It need not actually own the cow, if it gets the milk — and it does."

Jack Whiting Named Cadet at CG Academy

Jack Warwick Whiting Jr., 18, has been officially appointed a cadet in the United States Coast Guard Academy, at New London, Connecticut. He has fulfilled his entrance requirements, and will enroll in the academy to begin his schooling as a cadet, on July 7.

Without any preliminary preparation, Jack took the United States Coast Guard Academy competitive examinations with over 1950 other applicants. He was among the 300 who qualified. His education has been received from the Grosse Pointe Schools, having attended Richard elementary, Pierce junior high, and is a June 1958 graduate of Grosse Pointe high school.

In scouting he received his Eagle as a member of Grosse Pointe Troop 96, and his God and Country award from Christ Church. A Hi-Yi member, he was one of the delegates sent to the UN, in November, 1957. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Whiting, of Fisher road.

As a man thinks, he acts — and that's why so few ever act.

The old lamplighter of song and story made his rounds along Kercheval avenue before that street was paved through back in the gay 90's. Mr. Konen was his name and he lit the gas lamps from his horse and buggy. He lived in a gray cement house still standing on Moross road between the lakeshore and the boulevard.

That particular section holds many Pointe landmarks. The plumbing shop and valet service stores on Kercheval were the nucleus of a shopping center many years ago. Nearby stands the white frame Provencal-Weir cottage now owned by descendants of another prominent Pointe family, the Edward D. Trowbridges.

In the lovely modernized white frame home on the corner (with the Victorian umbrella stand) Justice of the Peace John La Belle used to hold court before the Farms municipal building was built in Kerby road.

Across the lane lived the Schwartzes in the gray clapboard house still there; (it has its original root cellar for storing carrots, onions and potatoes.) The Schwartzes sold 50 feet of their land for Kercheval to be paved through to Provencal and that was but 25 years ago.

During the long, cold winter the Schwartz girls were often sent around the corner on Moross to the Backman grocery store for produce and a penny candy treat. Children's shoes were another standard item. The Backman store delivered in those days and the horse and wagon were housed in an old barn, which can be seen by driving down Lakeview. The Backman family still owns the barn and Linus Backman keeps his carpentry tools there today. The family store has been converted into a home where Mr. Backman and his sister, Mrs. John Kerby live with nothing to show that their home was a once popular country store.

The Backmans were forced out of business by a big grocery downtown, as is the way today. As families began to spend the year round in the Pointe the G and R McMillen Grocers downtown (on Fort and Woodward) began sending their teams and horses out here three times a week to get orders and deliver produce and whiskey. The McMillan store has been gone many years along with its predecessor, the country store, but the Backman barn's stout timbers are still standing on the quiet, almost forgotten street, off a busy highway.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

At last a Sunday when the sun shone on all the eager beach devotees. Many were the families spending the Sabbath at the park. Mrs. Clinton R. Scharff, Jr. was herding her trio from the surf saying cheerfully that she'd only lost one child for 15 minutes, which is par for a day at the beach.

Eleven-year-old John Barlow was a hero, he caught a small garfish in a paper cup. Blond Nancy Pelke was a stunner with the most in mahogany tans and a pleated white sharkskin bathing suit.

The Peter Dixons celebrated the first really shining and bright week-end with a big party on Harsen's Island, the guests driving or cruising up from the Pointe for a day of swimming, barbecuing and water skiing.

Count Cyril Tolstoi spent Sunday afternoon in dark Bermuda shorts carefully weeding the lawns of their Lewiston road estate.

At the George Taubenecks it was cocktails on Saturday. Mrs. T. wore a fetching gray stiffened cotton, very bouffant and coins dotted in white, to match her lovely gray and white living room.

At the grocery store, two engaged couples were doing a bit of shopping to get in practice for housekeeping later this summer. Lauren Edgar and Ben Chapman, Stephanie Fink and Buzz Potter.

Mrs. Robert Rigger, Roberta Mackay to her readers, spent the week-end accepting congratulations for her prize. She won a first in the Association Press Sweepstakes Awards for the best feature of the year in Michigan and the best all around writing in the state. Over 100 newspapers in the state were in the competition.

PILFERINGS

The doors on a local boat shop were closed and all was quiet on a usually humming Saturday morning. A sign on the door read "Closed until two o'clock. Daughter getting married. But please come back. I need you more than ever."

Coed to a friend: "Bill is a perfect gentleman at all times, but I guess that's better than having no boy friend at all!"

The worst thing about taking your vacation in winter is July. John T. McCutcheon, Jr. Every baseball team could use a man who plays every position superbly, never strikes out and never makes an error—but there's no way to make him lay down his hot dog and come out of the grandstand. Eaton, O. Rotary Club.

Summer: The time of year when the highway authorities close the regular roads and open up the detours.

Pedestrian: A husband who didn't think the family needed two cars.

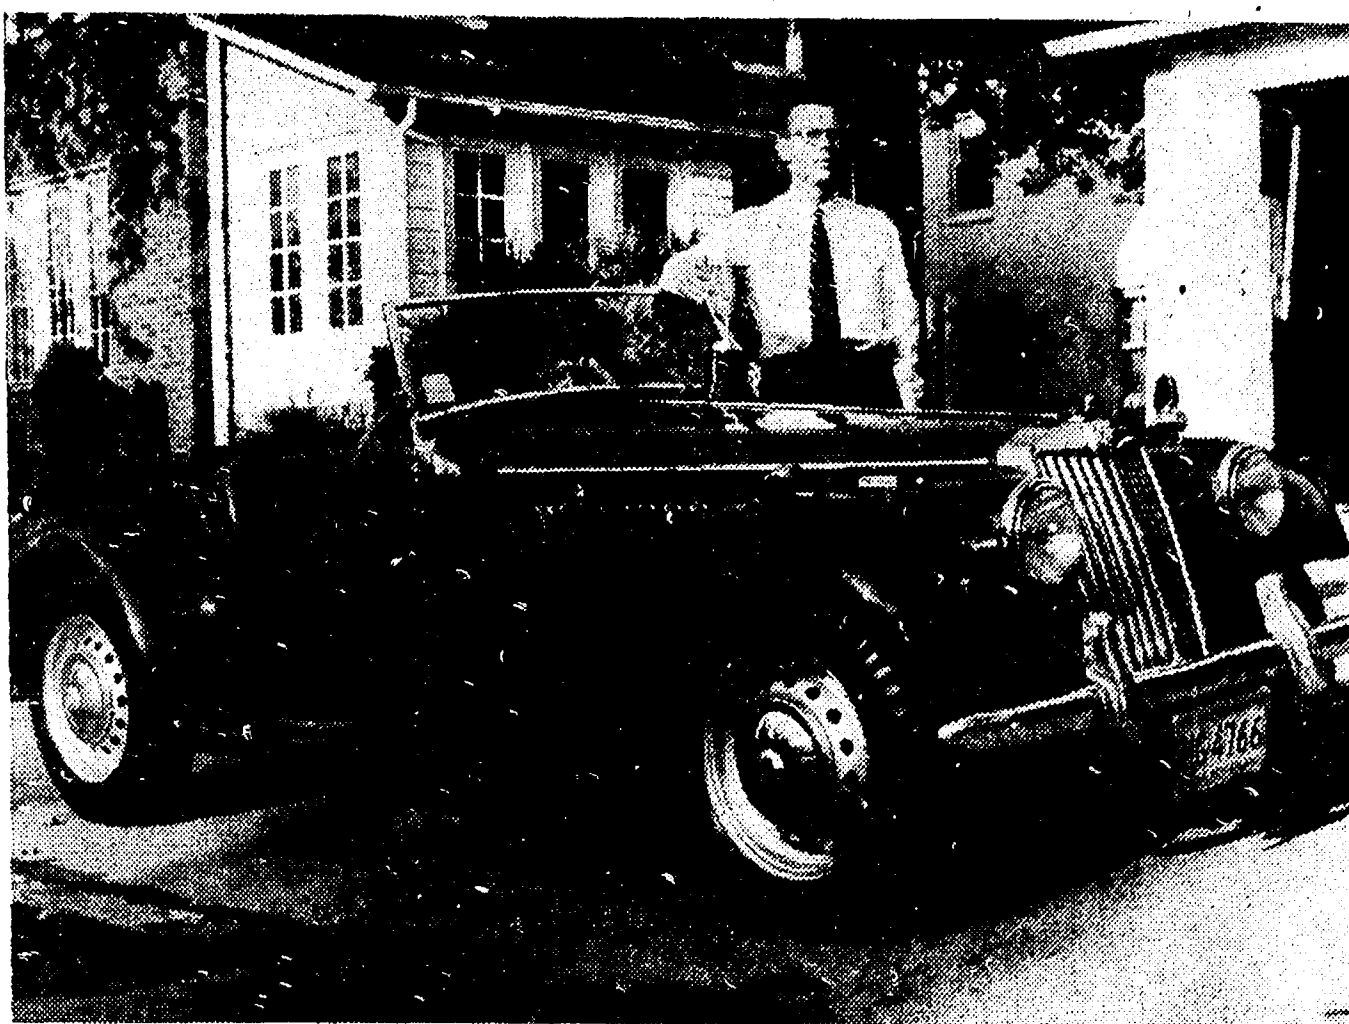

Will power: The ability, after you have used three fourths of a can of paint and finished the job, to close the can and clean the brush, instead of painting something else that doesn't really need it.

A letter from a 13-year-old daughter at a summer camp contained this noteworthy paragraph:

"The first day I didn't have hardly any friends. The second day I had a few friends. The third day I had friends and enemies."

Sign in the airborne equipment division of the research and development group of the Navy's Bureau of Air: "If it works, it's obsolete."

THOMAS HALLOCK, OF MT. VERNON ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Amateur sports car racing is no sport for thrill-seeking hot rodders, says Thomas Hallock, winner of some of the country's most rigorous and exciting races.

Sports car racing is just coming into vogue in this country although for years the international race at Le Mans, France, has attracted a huge following. Unlike American car races, like the Memorial Day classic in Indianapolis, sports car racing does not take place in a circular arena.

The cars, mostly Ferraris, Jaguars and Corvettes, race in Europe on roads with sharp turns and curves. In this country, most of the races take place in municipal airports where the course is set up to stimulate road racing.

Mr. Hallock believes this type of racing is more exciting, for the driver must start and stop and every course is different, not like arena racing where the cars follow each other lap after lap in a circle.

How It Began

The Hallocks, both Tom and Joan, became interested in sports cars when they attended a race in Columbus five years ago. Soon after Mrs. H. announced over after dinner coffee that she thought they ought to buy an MG. At the dealers they quickly found a used MG which they loved and became fast friends with the salesman.

When the salesman and his wife suggested a trip to Le Mans to watch the greatest of sports car races, the Hallocks were all for it. Mr. H. couldn't get away but his wife flew over and was a fascinated spectator. The French farmers save up all year for the $3 fee which entitles them to watch the three preliminary races and the big event. There is always danger to the fans who crowd the sidelines. A few years ago 80 spectators were killed at Le Mans. Winning race drivers are much feted, national heroes there, in the Mickey Mantle style USA.

Bought Car Abroad

After Mrs. Hallock watched the Le Mans race she bought an English-built Cooper for her husband and had it shipped home. There are only about 20 Coopers in this country. This British car is built especially for racing. The Hallocks were thrilled with theirs and even Mrs. H. drove it to

Hill Climbing For Sports Cars

This week-end he will be running a sports car hill climb west of Pontiac and his vacation this summer will be long week-ends timed to coincide with races about the country.

The Hallocks are both good drivers and good mechanics. They realize that racing is dangerous but as Mr. H. says, "I'm more afraid of the driving to the race site than the actual race driving."

This is no sport for hot rodding teen agers. You must be 21 to belong to the Sports Car Club of America. Mr. Hallock has never had an accident, either racing or driving in traffic, but he has seen some bad ones. He thrives on the excitement and tests of skill necessary to race a sports car. In the pit at a race he is as far from his workaday world (he's a manufacturer's agent) as he can be. Competition is a great spur, not only in his business but in his hobby, and on the race track he finds all he needs.

HOW TO SEE MORE

Families seeking a leisurely vacation motor trip should plan a large portion of their journey on secondary roads, according to the Institute for Safer Living. Usually, these routes are less crowded and offer more opportunity for sightseeing and scenery enjoyment. Use thoroughways when you wish to make up time, but drive within the speed limits.

Rev. Max Pearse Leaving Pointe

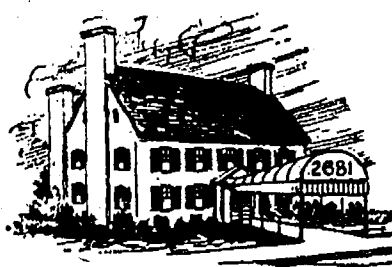

Staff members of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, joined Sunday afternoon at a farewell luncheon, in the church for the Rev. Max Pearse. Dr. Pearse is leaving Grosse Pointe for Berkeley California, where he will become assistant professor of Religious Education at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Dr. Pearse has been for two years Director of Christian Education at Christ Church. The luncheon followed the morning services at which he was the preacher.

New doors to the cloister "reading room" were dedicated by the rector to the memory of Donald MacMillan, for more than a quarter of a century, sexton in the parish.

THE LAMP IN THE WINDOW

Symbolic of the earlier days of American pharmacy was the lighted lamp in the drugstore window. All through the night it glowed, a beacon of hope, a symbol of unselfish service.

Although the historic lamp is now practically extinct, the fundamentals of pharmaceutical practice have changed but little. The responsibilities of the pharmacist are greater today than ever before—he is a vital factor in medical care.
