THE AIR FORCE shot a mouse into space Wednesday night and hoped to bring it back alive after the first intercontinental flight of an American ballistic weapon.

The mouse was in a secret, highly advanced nose cone of the rocket, aimed for a target area, 6,000 miles down the South Atlantic. An attempt is being made to recover the nose cone and its little passenger.

The rocket, Thor-Able, is composed of a standard Thor missile topped by a radically modified second stage of the Vanguard satellite rocket. So far, rocket experts have been unable to break through the intercontinental barrier with a ballistic weapon.

THE UNITED STATES and Canada agreed Wednesday on greater co-operation in the fields of trade with Communist China and safeguards against surprise attack.

This two-fold development grew out of conversations between President Eisenhower and Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker and conferences among Cabinet subordinates.

On disarmament and particularly on safeguards against surprise attack, the President and the Prime Minister agreed to put experts on both the nations working together, in co-operation with those of other free-world countries concerned, to study the problem.

DIRECTORS OF Ford Motor Co. meeting in Dearborn Wednesday reduced the third-quarter dividend to 40 cents a common share from the quarterly rate of 60 cents which had prevailed since March 7, 1956.

The action took financial centers by surprise and caused a $2.87 drop in the price of Ford stock on the New York Stock Exchange. The announcement came when the stock was selling at its 1958 high of $42.75. The dip immediately reversed the stock market's upward trend and cost it most of its gains for the day.

MILLIONAIRE BERNARD GOLDFINE, blurring defiance of the law, testified Thursday that he paid $1,196.55 in hotel bills for Republican Senators Frederick G. Payne, of Maine, and Norris Cotton and Styles Bridges, of New Hampshire.

The testimony by the volatile industrialist capped a tumultuous appearance before House investigators in which Goldfine was threatened with contempt prosecution and a subpoena against the records of one of his textile firms.

The double threat came shortly after Goldfine left subcommittee members gasping by declaring that it "remains to be seen" whether the same laws apply to him as to other Americans.

THE AIR FORCE said Thursday night that the mouse-carrying test vehicle it launched into space Wednesday night at Cape Canaveral landed in the South Atlantic 6,000 miles away.

The Air Force said the test—with a combination of the Thor and Vanguard missiles, was successful. It added that telemetry data was received over the full course of flight.

But the nose cone, whose space-into-atmosphere re-entry qualities were being tested, has not been recovered. The flight was the longest of any ballistic missile launched by the United States.

A POWERFUL EARTHQUAKE jolted Alaska Thursday and triggered tidal waves that killed at least three persons and almost obliterated an island. At least two other persons were missing and feared dead.

A tidal wave alert caused many families to leave their homes in beach areas of Hawaii, 3,000 miles away, but

Fish Rodeo Dates Set by Farms, City

Initial Contest To Be Held at Municipal Piers July 30, with Final Event August 30

The Pre-Fishing Rodeo, sponsored by the Cities of Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Farms, begins Wednesday, July 30, at each of the city's parks.

The purpose of the event is to encourage fishing for children. It is held, annually, exactly one month prior to the actual Fishing Rodeo which this year will be held at the Farms Pier Saturday, Aug. 30.

Prizes will be awarded on August 30 to the boy and girl from each park who catches the longest fish in the Pre-Rodeo contest. In order to register your fish you must have registered for the contest prior to the July 30 date.

Only residents of the Cities of Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Farms, who are under 17 years of age, are eligible. Registration may be done at either city park.

School Board Shifts Meetings

Contrary to our article in last week's edition of the NEWS, the Board of Education has voted to change its monthly meeting dates to the second Monday of each month, and not the third Monday.

I previously met the first Wednesday. However, due to the irregular summer schedule the Board will meet on August 18, as printed.

Young Teenagers Confess To Vandalism in School

Three Pointe juveniles, two 14-year-olds and one 13-year-old, were arrested by Farms police on Wednesday, July 9, and held for investigation of vandalism.

The juveniles, all boys, are charged with causing the damage at the new Brownell Junior High School on July 3. Estimate of the damage has jumped to about $1,500 from the original figure of $300.

The lads admitted to breaking into the school and tossing a bottle of ink against the wall in an office, spattering the fluid over the wall, ceiling, furniture and a desk, and on the asphalt tile floor. They also broke a wall clock.

Broken glass gouged a hole in the desk through which the ink seeped, ruining the

Many Records Shattered By Public Library During Its 29th Year of Service

Director Robert M. Orr Makes Annual Report on Highlights; Total of 395,000 Materials Circulated in 12 Months

By ROBERT M. ORR, Director, Grosse Pointe Libraries
With the completion of the Public Library's 29th year of service on June 30, it seems appropriate to review some of the year's highlights. Incidentally, two of the original staff members remain, Mrs. Helen Finster and Miss Jean Taylor. While statistics tell only a part of the story, they do help to interpret the use of the three Public Libraries.

The professional staff continues to play an active part in professional and community activities. Eleven belong to national and state organizations, and have actively participated in professional activities during the past year. At the same time, the entire staff has enthusiastically participated in community activities.

The Friends Group has been very active under the leadership of President Jay W. Sorge, achieving a remarkable record of 984 members. Their board of directors held regular monthly meetings, serving as an advisory board. Four public meetings were held, climaxed by the annual dinner meeting at the War Memorial.

Friends Very Active

The Friends co-sponsored two Great Books Discussion Groups, as well as the Friends Film Forum. In addition to three issues of the NEWS-LETTER, the Friends contributed attractive printed brochures, film rental for the film programs, books, at a cost of $2,000, three children's films, and a globe for the Park Branch. One very important contribution was sponsorship of local observance of the first National Library Week.

In addition to the Friends' gifts, contributions were received from the University of Michigan Club, St. Paul's Altar Society, Grosse Pointe Business and Professional Women's Club, the A. M. Investment Club, and the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council. A number of gifts were received for memorial books, most appropriate and

Tire Thieves Sent to Jail

Woods police recovered two tires and wheels, valued at a total of $100, stolen from a Mack avenue car dealer, and turned over the thieves to Birmingham police for prosecution.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian said that George D. Slank, 17, of 20408 Gallagher, and Conrad Newman, Jr., 17, of 20408 Norwood, both of Detroit, were arrested by Detroit police on Thursday, July 10, and turned over to their department.

The youths appeared at the Woods station with their parents, and according to the officers, both admitted taking the tires and wheels from a car on the lot of a Mack avenue car dealer. The boys said they left the body of the car on the ground after removing the tires and wheels.

O'Dell and Tobian said the theft was reported to their department on May 25.

The day following their arrest, Slank and Newman were arraigned before Oakland County Circuit Judge Charles Adams, because of a more serious crime committed in Birmingham, the stealing of eight tires and wheels from a gas station.

Judge Adams found the boys guilty of grand larceny and fined them $100 each, and placed each on three years probation, with the first 90 days to be spent in the Oakland County jail.

Fine Music Draws 300 To Center

Festival Proclaimed Great Success; Third Concert of Series Set for July 23

A lovely summer evening contributed greatly to the tremendous success of the first Grosse Pointe Music Festival performance, last Wednesday, July 9.

Three hundred devotees of fine music enjoyed a superlative program, which included works by Haendel, Scarlatti, and Haydn. Richard Roecklein, harpsichordist, was the star performer of the evening, accompanied at various times by Marilyn Cotlow, soprano; Gordon Staples, violin; and Paul Olefsky, cello.

Doppmann Plays

The second of the three-concert series was held Wednesday, July 16. It was highlighted by William Doppmann's brilliant performance on the piano, in pieces by Beethoven and Mendelssohn. Localite Alexander Sucek, troubadour, treated the music lovers to some fine works by Dowland, Scarlatti, and Alan de la Hale on his guitar.

The last of the concerts will be given, like its predecessors, at 8:15 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, on the terrace by the lake. It will be held Wednesday evening, July 23.

The Program

The program will include Schubert's Sonata "Argegione," with Ruth Meckler, pianist, and Paul Olefsky on the cello. Gordon Staples, associate concert master with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will accompany Miss Meckler in Beethoven's Sonata "Kreutzer" and Mr. Olefsky and Miss Meckler will again collaborate to present Ignor Stravinsky's Suite Italienne. The program will close with the three artists playing Tchaikovsky's Trio.

Tickets may be purchased at the War Memorial Center, or from a member of the Music Festival committee, of which Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge is chairman. They are $2 each.

BREAKS ANKLE

Gordon L. Martin, 30, of 1313 Lakepointe, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police on Sunday, July 13, for treatment of a fractured ankle. The injury followed a game of catch in the Park's water front park and Martin slipped on the grass.

Support an excellent record. Re-elect Bob Waldron, state representative, Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods. Vote for Bob, August 5.

Farms Has Plans For Paving Three New Parking Sites

Expenditure of $10,500 Will Include Final Development Of Additional Strip Adjoining Lot In Kercheval District

Three parking lots, including the strip at the rear of the Muir property line, adjoining the municipal parking lot in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district, are scheduled to be paved at a total cost of $10,500, it was disclosed by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

The date for the start of the paving has not been decided, the city engineer said, but completion of the projects is set for August 15, by the contractor. Material needed for the work is being stockpiled, Mr. Smith said.

Breakdown of Costs

The strip adjoining the municipal lot will be paved at a cost of $4,500; another lot, on Mack avenue, between Cloverly and Manor, will be done for $2,500; and the third lot, adjacent to the city's Public Works Department garage, across from Kerby playground, will be completed for $3,500.

Mr. Smith said that the Mack avenue lot, which will have space for 18 cars, will be metered. There are no plans at present to meter the other two lots, he said.

Will Help Playground

The piece by the garage will be for the use of public works personnel and for those using recreational facilities of the playground. The number of cars it will hold is not known as yet.

The strip, which figured in a great deal of controversy and court action by a group opposed to its development, has room for about 80 cars. The paving will be the last step in its development.

Ticket Drivers After Crash

Two cars were extensively damaged when they collided at Chalfonte and Hillcrest on Tuesday, July 8. Both drivers were given tickets by Farms police.

Gerard E. Tolkmitt of 912 Lineoln, was issued a violation tag for not having his car under control and causing an accident, and Ruth F. Bengtson of 19725 Woodcrest, Harper Woods, was given one for making a left turn without due care and caution.

Police said Tolkmitt was driving east on Chalfonte, and Mrs. Bengtson was headed west, when she attempted to make a left turn onto Hillcrest. She was struck in the right rear by Tolkmitt's car.

Damage to each car was estimated at about $150. The woman's car had to be towed to a service station.

BICYCLE STOLEN

David Wells of 96 Handy road called Farms police on Saturday, July 12, to complain that someone had stolen his bicycle from in front of the Central Library, Kercheval and Fisher.

Save Park City Attorney And Brother from Lake

Park City Attorney Pierre V. Heffler, 48, of 1154 Grayton, and his brother, Maurice Ben, 51, of 1119 Harvard, were rescued from Lake Erie on Thursday, July 9, when their sailboat capsized. They clung to the craft for an hour and a half before they were pulled out of the water by rescuers.

Their boat overturned in a wind-tossed lake a mile and a half off the Lake Erie Country Club. The brothers, both excellent swimmers, clung calmly to the swamped craft while awaiting rescue.

Two Detroit youths, Tom Nintz, 17, of 18650 Sorrento; and Tom Sharon, 16, of 25214 Parkwood, looking out into the lake, saw the predicament of the brothers, and braving rough water and high winds,

Polio Shuns Area So Far This Season

District Has Done Good Job in Immunization, According to Health Commissioner

No polio cases have been reported so far this year in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Health District, according to Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner.

"This area has done a good job in immunizing itself against the disease," Dr. Davies said. Physicians have been following up the mass inoculation program of school children by seeing that their private patients receive Salk vaccine shots, and nurses have been making surveys in the schools.

Last year there were seven cases of polio in the district, with only one being called serious. The victim in this case was a 59-year-old man. Four of those afflicted had taken shots, two having three inoculations, one two and the other only a single shot.

Dr. Davies said the general health of the district is very good. "There have been a lot of measles, but this is a good thing," he stated. "If we don't get many cases one year, we do the next, and we would rather the children get them when they are young and have it over with, rather than wait until they are older and likely to suffer serious consequences."

According to the records at the Health Department, the first cases of polio were not reported in the district until the early part of August.

Two Pay Fines In City Court

Judge Joseph P. Uvick heard only two cases when he held forth at Justice Court last Tuesday, July 8. First on the docket was Robert G. Trombley, of 839 Rivard boulevard. Charged with reckless driving, he pled guilty and was fined $15.

A fine of $10 was imposed upon Gem Lenora Myers, of 226 Lakeland avenue. She was charged with interfering with moving traffic, to which offense she pled guilty.

99 Percent Of Residents Obey Law

Installation of Disposals and Incinerators Eliminates Garbage

Since the Woods enacted an ordinance in 1954 requiring the installation of garbage disposals or incinerators in homes, garbage pick-ups have almost disappeared in that city.

The latest figures showed that only six home owners and three business establishments have not conformed to the law, which although not compulsory, has seen practically all home owners having one or the other units installed in their properties.

The ordinance only compels new homes to have grinders, or incinerators, making it optional for the old homes.

Became Private Deal

With the passage of the law in 1954, the Woods stopped collecting and paying out tax monies to contractors for this type of pick up. Home owners not having either one of the units, who wished to have their garbage picked up, had to sign private contracts, paying the city, which in turn paid the contractors.

At a recent meeting, the Woods council awarded a contract to a firm to pick up the city's rubbish and grass clippings at a cost of $43,600. The company also agreed to pick up the garbage of the three commercial places and the six homes.

According to the contract, the commercial pick-up cost is $80 from July 1 to January 1, and for the homes, it is $30, for the same period.

The garbage pick-ups are every other week for residences, and twice a week for commercials. Rubbish and grass clippings are picked up every week.

Want Clean City

The 99 plus percent of home owners who installed grinders or incinerators, attests to the fact that the people favor a clean, sanitary city, the officials say.

This is all the more remarkable, as there are 5,084 residences in the Woods, and 232 commercial buildings, of which 13 of the latter are vacant.

The Farms is contemplating passage of a garbage disposal ordinance. The matter is still in the discussion and study stage.

60 Percent in City

The City does not have such an ordinance, but according to official figures, 60 percent of the homes in the community have either a grinder or an incinerator. New homes under construction, and some of the old homes, are being equipped with adequate plumbing to handle grinder units.

The Shores has an ordinance requiring units be installed in all new homes. There are 630 homes in that community, of which an estimated 115 do not have either unit.

The Park has no law requiring either unit, although some homes do have them. Figures on how many are not available.

Thief Converts One Convertible

Has anyone seen the left front door to a black, 1957, Ford convertible lying around anywhere?

Fred Smith, of 390 Rivard boulevard, reported to City police last Saturday, July 12, that one was missing from his car when he went to drive it about 9 o'clock that morning. He had parked the car in front of his house about 1 a.m. of the same day.

The thief, with the unusual loot, reportedly did a clean professional job, neatly removing some six heavy bolts before absconding with his cumbersome spoils.

WALLET STOLEN

Miss E. D. Livingston of 1123 Maryland, told Park police on Saturday, July 12, that while she was attending a movie at the Esquire Theater, someone stole her wallet. She did not say what was in it.

Library Breaks Records

appreciated additions to the book collection. 2,400 books were donated, of which 441 were kept.
15,000 Attend Meetings
Four hundred seventy groups met at the Central Library, attended by 15,000 residents. Three hundred and ninety-five thousand Library materials were circulated in an increase of 30,000. The Central Library circulated 197,000 books, followed by the Woods Branch with 111,000 and the Park Branch with 80,000.

Twenty-three thousand and Grosse Pointers were registered Library users on July 1, an increase of 1,400 over the previous year. Central led with 11,700 users, followed by the Woods Branch with 7,200 and the Park Branch with 4,100.

The Children's Department had the biggest year in its history, with over 17,000 children participating in organized activities for that Department. One hundred sixty-five thousand children's books were loaned during the year. Children's activity is illustrated by the fact that 6,400 children attended eleven summer film programs in the three libraries. Nine hundred thirty-one children attended 58 Story Hours, 1,062 attended 61 Pre-School Story Hours, 840 attended Book Week Programs, and 7,200 children in 266 classes visited the three libraries for Library instruction and Story Hours.

Has 87,602 Books

With 6,283 books added during the year, the book collection grew to 87,602.

Special activities included eight Family Film Nights, attended by 2,800 residents, eight Friends Film Forums attended by 1,100, and 11 Book Talks given to community clubs. The tremendous increase in use of Library films is indicated by the record of 2,400 film showings, seen by 113,000. Visitors were noted from Washington, D. C., Scotland, Medford, Mass.; Germany and Brazil.

It was a record-breaking year in every respect, a year of steadily increasing service to the community. The writer welcomes any comments or questions you may have, and invites you to read the printed Annual Report which will be issued in the near future.

There wouldn't be much wrong with little white lies if the teller didn't sooner or later become color blind.

Dies Following Baseball Game

Charles H. Johnson, 42, of 619 Hollywood boulevard, suffered a heart attack and died Monday evening, July 14. The fatal attack followed a Woods-Shores Little League Baseball game through which Mr. Johnson had managed his four-year championship Tigers team.

One of the founding fathers of the Woods-Shores Little League, he was a member of its board of governors and a District Regional representative of Little League, Inc. of Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Mr. Johnson had been a postal clerk at the Grosse Pointe Station for the past 20 years. He was also a member of the Ticket Sellers Union.

Surviving are his wife, Rosemary, and three children, Kathleen, Jacqueline, and Michael. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Margaret E. Johnson.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, with burial following in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Obituaries

MABEL GEE

Mrs. Gee, of 803 Barrington road, died Sunday, July 6. She was the wife of the late Harry P. Gee and is survived by two nieces and a nephew.

Funeral services were held last Thursday, with burial in Lakeside Cemetery, Port Huron.

DANIEL R. SIMMONS

Mr. Simmons, of 416 Belanger road, died Monday, July 7. He is survived by his wife, Edna (Hyde); and children, Mrs. Virginia S. Nay; Mrs. William G. Kirby; and Daniel R., Jr. He also leaves a brother, Lloyd, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held last Thursday, with burial in DeWitt, Mich.

CLUNE J. WALSH

Mr. Walsh, 61, of Shoreham road, died Tuesday, July 8. A real estate investor, he was a native Detroit and graduated from Holy Cross College in 1919. He was a member of the Holy Name Society and Altar Society of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Survivors include his wife, Helen, and children, Mrs. Richard C. Stern; Mrs. J. William Burns; Clune J., Jr.; and B. Kirk. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Hugh Gorey.

Mr. De Martelaere, of 343 Ridgmont road, died Friday, July 11. He is survived by his wife, Gabrielle, and a son, Frank.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, with burial in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Loan Deadlines For Vets Listed

Veterans of World War II may know that they have two more years—until July 25, 1960—to apply for GI loans under the Veterans Administration guaranty program.

Lloyd H. Jameson, manager of the VA Regional Office in Detroit, said the extension is authorized by Public Law 85-364.

Mr. Jameson said, however, World War II veterans may not know the July 25, 1960 deadline for guaranteed loans means that VA must receive the lender's loan guaranty application by that date.

VA has up to one year after July 25, 1960, for processing GI loan applications received before that date, he said.

The 1960 deadline does not apply to VA-guaranteed loans to Korean conflict veterans, who have until January 31, 1965, to use that benefit, Mr. Jameson pointed out.

Living Rosary Set for July 25

The eighth annual presentation of the Living Rosary Group of Michigan in honor of Our Lady of Fatima will be held at the Remick Band Shell on Belle Isle Friday, July 25 at 8 p.m.

The creation of a world free of international threats and tensions is the aim of this dramatically beautiful ceremony performed in Detroit each year. Last year nearly 17,000 Detroiters attended the presentation.

The Belle Isle Concert Band, sponsored by the City of Detroit, Department of Parks and Recreation, and conducted by Leonard B. Smith, has arranged to open and close the program with appropriate selections.

There will be an organ recital from the Carillon at 7 p.m. In event of rain the ceremony will be held Sunday, July 27, at 8 p.m.

St. Clair Chapter of Engineers Elects

The Lake St. Clair Chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers, beginning its fourth year of active participation in the Northeast Wayne and Macomb counties, has recently elected new officers to serve the 1958-59 term.

Newly elected local officers are, Franklin H. Morgan, of Beaconsfield road, president; J. E. McCaughey, of Beaufort road, vice-president; and Donald E. Trefry, of Cloverly road, state director.

boys' parents have summer places on the Canadian shore. Policeman Larry Zahara, responding to the call of the two Toms, commandeered a powerboat owned by Frank R. Baldwin of Windsor.

The two boys had beaten the policeman and the boat owner to the overturned boat, but Zahara ordered them back.

"I told the boys to get back. 'We might have had a double tragedy. The wind and rough waters were too much for their rowboat.'"

Zahara and Baldwin pulled the Hettler brothers aboard and towed the capsized sailboat to shore.

The policeman said that a law requires boaters to don life preservers in the water. He quoted the brothers as saying they did not have time to put them on. Zahara referred the matter to the crown attorney for a ruling on the violation.

Burglar Visits Farms Home

gained through the rear door of the building. The report did not say whether the door had been forced.

The burglar who broke into the home of the Leo Van Assches, 450 Bournemouth, made his call after police completed a routine check of the home.

The Van Assches had been away, and police were keeping an eye on the house.

A police report revealed that the thief entered the house between 7:30 p.m. on July 11 and 11:15 a.m. on July 12. Police crews made earlier checks of the house, but no one was seen or heard in the area.

The burglary was discovered by the Van Assches' daughter, Mary Lee, who notified police. She had been staying with friends, while her parents were out of town.

Missing from the home was $60 in cash, a man's gold, nine-diamond band valued at $200; a man's watch, make not known, worth $300; and a lady's rhinestone dinner ring, valued at about $20.

TV BLOWS STACK

An over-heated transformer in a television set caused a short in the Joseph O. Reed household last Saturday, July 5. Both City fire trucks rushed to the 448 Lincoln road residence, which was filled with smoke, and doused the vanquished video.

Rotary Club Installs New Officers

Against a background of standards of Rotary clubs from all over the world, the REV. ANDREW RAUTH, (right) pastor of the Woods Presbyterian Church and a club member, conducted the installation ceremonies that saw new officers take over the guidance of the Grosse Pointe Rotary club for 1958-59, on Monday, July 7. The officers are (right to left): REM PURDY, president; CLIFF ASHTON, first vice-president; MATTHEW

HOUGHTON, second vice-president; RALPH BURKE, director; EDWARD TAUBE, treasurer; ANTONY MANARDO, director; BRUCE BOCKSTANZ, secretary; ROBERT ORR, out-going president and automatically a member of the Board of Directors; and GERALD FITZGERALD, director. The ceremonies were held in the War Memorial Center, where the organization meets every Monday noon.

Teenagers Fined For Having Beer

Two East Detroit teenagers were arrested by Woods police on Monday, July 7, on a warrant recommended by Wayne County Asst. Pros. Dale Devin. They were charged with being in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Dale Racicot, 18, of 23259 Willard; and William J. Campbell, 17, of 16268 Owen, pled guilty to the charge before Woods Judge Don Goodrow when arraigned on Tuesday, July 8. The boys were fined $50 each and placed on one year probation. The fine is to be paid during the probation period. Racicot was ordered to serve the first 15 days of the probation in the Wayne County Jail.

The arrest of the two was brought about when John McDonald, 19, of 2080 Beaufait, while driving his car, stopped police at Vernier and Helen, and complained that he was being chased by Racicot and Campbell. McDonald said that Racicot had threatened his life because he was dating Racicot's former girl friend.

McDonald was told that if Racicot should stop in his neighborhood, that police be informed at once. Later in the day McDonald called authorities and notified them that Racicot and Campbell were in a car parked in front of his house.

A police crew was dispatched to the scene. On arrival, they saw a car turn off of Beaufait onto Helen, go south a short way, and then start to turn around in a driveway. The car, with Racicot driving, was stopped, and in searching the vehicle, officers found several bottles of beer. When asked, Racicot denied threatening McDonald.

Further police investigation found that Racicot had altered the birth date on his birth certificate and draft card. It was also found that he was on a three-year probation for a Detroit robbery armed charge. Probation authorities were notified of Racicot's violation and conviction.

Shores Traffic Violators Pay

Frederick R. Minx of 21607 Tanglewood, St. Clair Shores, paid a fine of $75, imposed by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, July 7, rather than serve 15 days in the Wayne County Jail. He was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore road.

Kenneth C. McKinnon of 2900 N. Whitehill road, Muskegon, Mich., was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine of $50.

A fine and court costs of $37.50 were levied against Shekhet Zenelac of 650 W. Canfield, Detroit, who was found guilty of reckless driving on Lake Shore.

Claude D. Dunn of 7610 E. Lafayette, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine of $30.

Jack Tocco of 560 Middlesex, paid a fine and costs of $22.50, after he was found guilty of speeding on Vernier road.

Anita S. Leitz of 14393 Ardmore, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine and costs of $35.50. She was ordered to adhere to a 30-day probation during which time she must attend one session of driving school.

Willie E. Prewitt of 2707 E. Vernor Highway, Detroit, was found guilty of driving while his driver's license was suspended and paid costs of $7.50.

Peter M. Sutherland of 20180 Derby, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine of $12.

Patrick A. Moran of 23123 Edsel Ford court, paid a fine and costs of $19.50, rather than spend five days in jail. He was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore.

RADIO STOLEN

Lewis Hickson of 18630 Revere, Detroit, an employee of the Country Club of Detroit, complained to Farms police on Sunday, July 6, that he placed a black box containing a transistor radio on top of a locker in the basement. Later in the day, it was found that someone had taken it. The radio is valued at $89.

FINAL WATER BILL

The Farms council approved the sending of a final water bill to the Shores in the amount of $88.34. Water service to the Shores, by the Farms, was terminated in February of this year, when the Shores began receiving its water from Detroit. The Farms billing action was taken on Monday, July 7.

Submit Park Traffic Report

Thirty-four persons were injured in the 146 traffic accidents that occurred in the Park since January 1, according to figures released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The figures presented to City Manager Robert Stone in the chief's monthly report, included that for the month of June, which showed that there were 25 accidents of all types on the city streets, of which six were non-fatal (accidents wherein persons are injured). There were 19 reports of property damage for the month.

There were 31 non-fatal accidents since the first of the year, and 115 property damages.

The figure for auto-pedestrian accidents since January 1 has been set at nine non-fatal, with 10 persons injured. The auto-bicycle accidents are recorded at two, with one non-fatal and one person hurt.

As of the June report, there are no fatal accidents.

According to city districts, in streets between Mack and Kercheval, there have been 76 accidents, 19 non-fatal, 57 property damages, and 21 people hurt.

South of Kercheval, including Jefferson, accidents were 54, eight non-fatal, 46 property damages and nine persons injured.

South of Jefferson, 16 accidents, four non-fatal, 12 property damages, and four persons injured.

The principal causes of accidents last month were driving too fast for conditions, and failure to stop for stop signs and signals.

Cadet James B. Corless At Camp with ROTC

FORT BRAGG, N. C. (AHTNC) — Cadet James H. Corless, of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., is attending a six-week summer camp at Fort Bragg, N.C., under the Reserve Officer Training Corps program of Michigan State University. The training will end Aug. 2.

Corless, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Corless, 610 Roslyn, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1955.

Honesty is still the best policy—it has even been discovered that it's the truthful man who catches the most fish.

Arthur Rohde Co. Offers Revolutionary New Policy

A new accident and health policy, (or what is usually called hospital insurance), that works on the same principle as paid-up life insurance and requires no premiums after age 65, is being introduced in Michigan this week by Continental Casualty Company and Arthur Rohde Co., long established Detroit insurance firm with offices at 2711 East Jefferson avenue, who have been named as agents.

The new plan provides a policyholder with hospitalization protection during his retired years and he pays no premiums during those years after 65 when his income is sharply reduced. Such attempts by private industry to solve a major national health problem have been welcomed repeatedly by President Eisenhower and other civic leaders.

The health and financial problems of the United States' growing population of senior citizens has long been a matter of concern, according to the Continental Company and their new policy is designed to specifically answer that need.

One of the most important features about this new Lifetime Paid-up policy is that it cannot be cancelled by the Company, according to Hugh M. Harrison, manager of Continental's office in Detroit. The premiums are based upon the age of the policyholder at the time the policy is written and remain the same to age 65, after which no premiums are collected.

The popularity of this Lifetime Paid-up policy is in part due to the fact that premium rates are not changeable on an individual basis. This feature,

Plaque Honors Harry Furton

At a simple, dignified ceremony, to be held in the Farms Pier-Park on Sunday, July 27, city officials will unveil a plaque honoring the memory of the late Harry A. Furton, who served the community faithfully for many years, as city clerk and city manager.

Scheduled to be present at the ceremony besides city officials are the city manager's widow, Marie, of 59 Mapleton road, and family; his father, Clement Furton of 98 Muir road; his brothers, Farms Police Lt. James Furton of 381 Kerby road, and Joseph Furton of the Muir address; and their families; and the late Mr. Furton's sister, Mrs. Pauline O'Mara of the Muir address and her family.

The unveiling of the plaque is to be held on the same day that the Farms Boat Owners will hold their regatta.

The plaque, measuring 18x24 inches, rests in solid granite, and bears the inscription: "In memory of Harry A. Furton, 1902-1956, whose energy, vision and many years of devoted service, as clerk and city manager, contributed so much to the building of this community and the creation of this park. The plaque is erected by the citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms."

Further details of the dedication will be released in the next issue of the NEWS.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Lifeguards Plan Reunion Picnic

On Saturday, August 9, all former Grosse Pointe Farms Pier lifeguards will get together for a reunion picnic. All men who have worked as lifeguards are invited to gather and meet their friends at the Pier; the festivities will begin at 3:30 in the afternoon. Dark tans and Red Cross lifesaving certificates will not be required but George Denison, the present Head Lifeguard at the Pier, says that it will be strictly a "bring your own" affair. Denison has urged all ex-lifeguards and other summer employes to bring their wives, kids, dates, etc. and talk over old times at the Farms pier. The current lifeguard staff is making every effort to contact the "alumni" but any help will be appreciated. For further information phone George Denison at TU 5-9899.

Long, Low Look Slightly Altered

Whether the fault of the automobile designers who insist on the long-low look—or just "another" woman driver—Mrs. Gladys L. Beier, of 270 Chalmers avenue in Detroit, is the holder of a traffic ticket nonetheless. She was making a left turn onto Mack avenue, near Neff road, on Thursday, July 10, and pulled into the island break to wait for oncoming traffic. She realized her car was protruding into the oncoming lane and proceeded to back up—slamming into another behind her. Bernard Schall, of 20821 Madison avenue in St. Clair Shores, was given a witness notice to appear in court. Mrs. Beier will also be on hand.

Bike Thieves Busy in Park

Five bicycles were reported stolen from the Park's waterfront park within two hours on Wednesday, July 9, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers. The bikes, all taken from the bicycle racks near the entrance, had no locks on the wheels. Locks are considered a necessity against thefts, the chief said. They were taken between 3:30 and 5:30 p.m. The owners of the bicycles are: Robert Clark, of 1449 Lakepointe; Chris Michael, of 1142 Nottingham; Geoffrey Callahan, of 780 Lakepointe; Thomas Romig, 979 Lakepointe, and William Leshner, of 847 Lakepointe. Chief Louwers issued a warning to all owners to lock the wheels of their bicycles. If they have no lock, they should purchase one, or have their parents buy one for them. This is about the best way to prevent the bikes from being stolen, the chief pointed out. The chief said that since the start of the summer vacation, approximately 25 bikes have been stolen in his city, some of which have been recovered. Most of the two-wheelers were stolen by boys from Detroit, who while walking through the city, steal a bike to ride home, and then abandon them on arriving at their destination. None of these bikes had locks. On Monday, July 7, Mrs. Joseph A. Grady informed Park police that her son's bicycle was stolen from the driveway of her home, 946

SCALE MODEL—A noteworthy miniature, described as the smallest real violin in the world, is held gingerly for a closeup look by its maker, Maurice Bruyas, in Paris. Roughly an inch and a quarter long, the instrument is made of 52 pieces of wood, and its strings can be tuned. Bruyas says it can be played — all it needs is a thumb-sized virtuoso.

THE CORN IS LEAN—Vast stretches of mud, interspersed with patches of ankle-deep water, add to the desolate look of rows of corn in a field at Shawnee County, Kan., about eight miles west of Topeka. Heavy rainfall has threatened what was expected to be a bumper crop of wheat in Kansas, and the showers haven't done the corn any good, either.

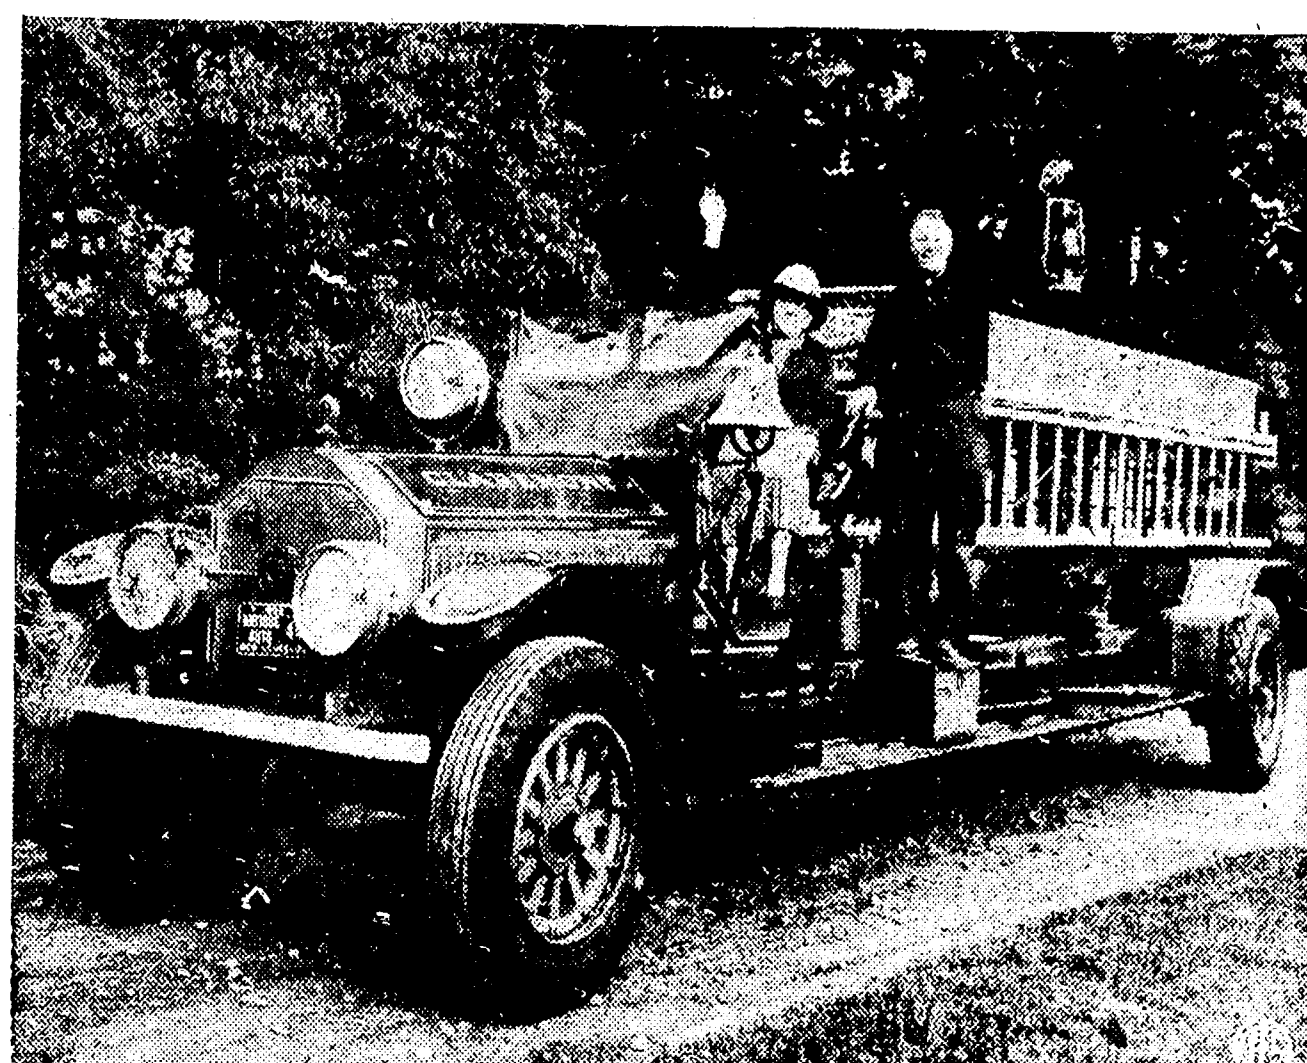

THEY FLY BY DAY—Reaching what's obviously a new high in boating, these soaring craft cause looks of amazement on the part of beholders below at Cypress Gardens, Fla. Actually, the boats are not defying the law of gravity. They're being towed by other boats and kept in the air with the aid of the attached helicopter.

INDIAN GIVER—Deer meets deer at North Hudson, N. Y., where a tiny Indian maiden named Matoaka (an Indian nickname for Minnetonka) plays mother to a week-old fawn. Her tiny little pal is going to town on the milk bottle at Frontier Town in the Adirondack Mountains.

SHAKE MAYOR—Getting a hand from Mayor David L. Lawrence, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Catherine C. Byrne accepts his congratulations after being elected Lord Mayor of Dublin at the Irish capital's city hall. Mrs. Byrne, a widow, defeated former Lord Mayor Robert Briscoe, and is the second woman to hold the post.

WHERE'S THE FIRE?—Though children often get fire engines for birthdays, Mrs. Gertrude Emerson of Cornish, N. H., had to wait 83 years to get one—but then she got a good one. Her son, Ralph Emerson, bought this real fire engine from the Claremont, N. H., Fire Department on his mother's 83rd birthday, and explained, "We've always wanted our own fire engine."

MODERN BETSY ROSS—Seeing stars is an occupational hazard for Angelina Testa, who sews them on American flags in Verona, N. J. She's employed by the nation's largest flagmakers, Annin & Co., which has a headache now that Congress has authorized the admission of Alaska as the 49th state. Orders for 49-star flags are already pouring in, but the company can't fill them, since the official design has yet to be chosen by a committee appointed by President Eisenhower. The possibility of Hawaiian statehood — and a 50th star — complicates the problem of the nation's flagmakers.

GOLF PROS—Larry McNeny, 8, tests the homemade miniature golf course behind his Dallas, Texas, home. His brother, Frank (left), 11, and buddy, Jack Bernick, also 11, wait their turns. Larry got some 350 bricks from his father, a contractor, and Frank and Jack helped him construct the nine-hole layout. They've gone into business, offering other youngsters a round of golf for five cents. There's a tenth hole, too — a soft-drink stand. In the first days they were open for business, the kids made five dollars.

DUCKING TRAFFIC—Serenely confident in the policemen who hold up traffic, this duck family crosses the road in London. The birds get the best of police protection for a good reason — they live at No. 10 Downing Street, official residence of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. The mallards divide their time between the Prime Minister's garden, where they moved in uninvited nine weeks ago, and St. James Park lake, on the other side of the street.

NUMBER'S UP—Meyer Gross points to the number on a utility pole on a one-acre tract of land he recently purchased at Tolland, Conn. It's the same as the number on the identity badge he uses at an aircraft plant where he's worked 17 years. Gross discovered the similarity while inspecting his plot. "Ordinarily you don't get sentimental about things like utility poles," he says, "but in this case I guess the exception can be made."

NAUTICAL NIPPER—Two-year-old Charles Huber finds a life ring on the liner United States a comfortable place to relax on the high seas while sipping from a soft-drink can.

PERSONAL BOTTLE OPENER—Wocky, an elegant Siamese cat owned Mrs. Raleigh of Tamworth Lane, Mitcham, Surrey, England, has his own way of getting its milk when there's no one in the house. When thirsty, Wocky uses his sharp fangs to pierce the foil top before plunging his tongue into the bottle. It may not be etiquette, but who cares when one is thirsty. At right, note the cap falling alongside the bottle.

MISS NEW JERSEY—Lovely Faye Hasenauer, 18, of Menlo Park Terrace, N. J., was crowned "Miss New Jersey" at Palisades Amusement Park, N. J. The Garden State beauty, who stands five feet six inches and weighs 125, will represent her state in the Miss Universe Pageant in Long Beach, Calif.

CROWN JEWELS—A bouquet of jewels glitter atop a tiny cap by John Fredericks for fall, 1958. In red panne, the hat was among those displayed at the Millinery Stabilization Commission show in New York.

NAUTICAL NIPPER—Two-year-old Charles Huber finds a life ring on the liner United States a comfortable place to relax on the high seas while sipping from a soft-drink can.

SOARING SINGER—"He flies through the air with the greatest of ease," and though he hasn't got a trapeze, Andy Williams shows he's still a daring young man. Andy came leaping over the fence at his Los Angeles home in answer to the dinner bell. Andy, who is more noted for his singing than his soaring, is minding the "Chevy Showroom" on ABC-TV for the summer.

Marines Recruit Special Platoon

The Detroit Marine Corps Recruiting Station has announced that membership in the "Motor City Platoon" is still open on a first come, first served basis.

This special platoon, scheduled to leave for San Diego on July 18, will undergo training as a unit, both at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, Calif.

All recruits must take advanced infantry training at Camp Pendleton before being assigned to further duty throughout the Marine Corps. Young men wishing to join this unit must be 17 through 31, pass the necessary physical examination, be of good moral character and attain a high grade on the mental examination.

This is the only special unit being formed by the local recruiting office this year. Young men who desire to take their recruit training with a group from their own area are urged to apply immediately for assignment to the platoon. Full information may be had by calling WO 3-9330, ext. 381; PR 1-6969; TR 1-6911 or LI 8-5166.

Pointe Business Notes

Square D Company has appointed Robert E. King distribution equipment sales manager, effective August 1, Mitchell P. Kartalia, marketing division general manager, announced.

In his new position, Mr. King will be responsible for all distribution equipment sales programs, including the headquarters sales department, field office liaison, general sales procedures and field engineer training.

The distribution equipment division is one of Square D's four major U. S. manufacturing units. It produces circuit breakers, switchboards, lighting panels and related equipment.

Mr. King, who has been distribution equipment headquarters sales supervisor since 1953, will make his headquarters in the Detroit office. He succeeds and will report to Mr. Kartalia, who recently was appointed marketing division general manager.

Mr. King joined Square D as a student engineer in 1947 upon graduation from Purdue University, and served as a field engineer at Cincinnati from 1948 to 1953. He is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

He resides at 1975 Manchester boulevard, and is an officer in the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus.

Mail Requires Zone Numbers

Postmaster Edward L. Baker urges patrons residing in the Detroit delivery area to use zone numbers at all times as a part of their address when writing to correspondents. "Many patrons use 'Township' as an address," says Mr. Baker. "Mail so addressed must be returned to the sender for better address, with a request that a Post Office be shown. If you live in a township, take steps to determine what Post Office serves you and use the name of that office as your mailing address." For the best in service all mail must be fully prepaid, and completely and correctly addressed. Zone numbers, when applicable, should always be a part of the address. Zone books may be obtained free of charge from your Post Office upon request. Call Service & Information, Woodward 3-9330, Ext. 252.

FIRE AT DODGE HOME

The Horace E. Dodge residence, at 17840 East Jefferson avenue, had a small fire in the basement early Thursday morning, June 12. A call at 6:12 a.m. summoned City firemen to the mansion where they found an overheated electric motor in the basement. The smoke from the machine had enveloped the entire house. Both trucks were on call and it took 35 minutes before they were back in service. Smoke damage was minor.

Firemen Douse TV Set Fire

A defective, new, large picture tube ignited the television set in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Galbraith, 2015 Huntington, on Monday, July 14, ruining the set and causing smoke damage in the first floor of the house.

Woods firemen cleared the area of people after putting out the fire, until the set cooled off, because of the possible explosion of the tube, which experts consider as very dangerous.

The Galbraiths said they had the tube installed on Saturday, July 12, and on Monday, when they turned on their set, the tube began to spark. They turned off the current, but apparently not in time to prevent a fire that began to burn the wooden cabinet.

The couple carried the set out on their front porch and called the fire department. The blaze was put out with a fire extinguisher by firemen.

Firemen said that heat concentrated on the picture tube is very dangerous, in that the vacuum in the tube causes an implosion and then an explosion, bursting the tube like a bomb.

"Donat has recently returned to Detroit following the successful completion of a special assignment in Continental Europe as coordinator of European operations," Jeeves added.

Donat was born in Vienna, Austria, attended primary and secondary schools in Hungary, was graduated from the Royal Academy of Economics in Budapest, Hungary, and did post-graduate work at National University, Washington, D.C.

A United States Army veteran, Donat joined Parke-Davis in 1953 as liaison executive in the overseas division.

The Donat family lives at 329 Merriweather road.

Court Seeking Foster Parents

Our children deserve the best! Yet many of them must wait for weeks in the Juvenile Detention Home because boarding homes cannot be found for them, reports Nathan J. Kaufman, Judge of probate in charge of Juvenile Court.

A current shortage of both city and farm homes with families who are willing to accept children, between the ages of 12 and 16 years, requires that these children be held in the detention home longer than is mentally healthy for them. Many of these children present problems due to neglect and deprivation which only the security of stable loving foster parents can eradicate.

A major phase of the Court's Foster Home placement program is recruiting families who are willing to offer care and guidance to these children and set acceptable standards for them. Although Wayne County pays weekly board and supplies clothing and medical care for each child placed, there is a definite shortage of suitable homes for such children.

Couples interested in providing a home for one or more of these deserving adolescents should telephone the Juvenile Court Foster Home Department, TE 1-4678. A social worker will contact prospective foster parents and make a home study to help in selecting a child with a similar background.

Little League Title Tilt Dates Set By Committee

Plans for the fourth annual Grosse Pointe Inter-City Little League baseball tournament were announced this week by Albert Siegmund, president of the Woods Little League and tournament director.

The tournament—to select a grand champion from among the titlists of the City, Park, Farms, and Woods-Shores Leagues—will get under way on Tuesday, July 29, Siegmund said. On that date, two games will be held and the winners will meet for the Grosse Pointe championship two days later, on Thursday, July 31.

The great championship trophy which will be held in the possession of the 1958 winner for the next year, now is on display in the window of Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop, 106 Kercheval. Current holders of the trophy are the Woods Tigers.

Other members of the 1958 tournament committee include William Briscoe, of the Farms, assistant director; Ernest Moser, City treasurer; Robert Keigen, Woods-Shores, secretary; William P. Bradley, City, publicity chairman; Paul N. Short and Russell Peebles, Park; and Minard Mumaw, Farms.

The tournament committee will announce pairings for July 29 play as soon as pennants and playoff winners are determined in the various leagues. The sites of the opening games will be decided at the same time.

To date, only one of the four tournament entries has been determined. The Grosse Pointe City Braves already have clinched first place in their league and will represent the City in the tournament. The Braves are managed by Bart Bartholomew and Coach Ernest Moser and Ernest Collins. The Braves are sponsored by Miller's Standard Service, Cadieux and Kercheval.

Members of the Braves team, which made a runaway of the City league pennant race this year, include Chris Curran, Bill Connolly, Buzz Bartholomew, Roger Lapham, Greg Miller and Peter Frame, 12-year-olds; Dave Collins, Neal Westmacot, Barry Trombley, Bruce Harper, and Sheldon Smith, 11-year-olds.

Bill Bradley and Greg Hykes, 10-year-olds; Mike Connolly and Nick Kothe, 9-year-olds; and Jimmy Bartholomew, batboy, Mike Connolly, Miller, Trombley, Harper and Frame are listed as pitchers for the Braves.

Distance Swim Set for Aug. 2

The City of Grosse Pointe is holding its Long Distance Swim on Saturday, August 2. It will commence at 10:30 a.m. Contestants will swim from the City Pier to the Park Pier—a distance of approximately two miles.

This year's race will be held in two divisions, Junior and Senior. The Junior group will include everyone 15 years of age and younger. The Seniors will be 16 years old and up.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded the winners in both divisions. Participating ribbons will be given to all those who compete.

Each swimmer should furnish his own boat and pilot, to be used as safety precautions. All contestants are asked to be at the City Pier no later than 10 a.m. the day of the race.

All Grosse Pointe residents are eligible to participate. Entry blanks have been distributed to the directors of all the five parks. They must be filled out and submitted to the City's park checkroom no later than 10 p.m. Thursday, July 31.

City Holding Swim Races

The starting gun will sound at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, August 2, and with the blast will begin the City of Grosse Pointe's annual Children's Swimming Races.

Immediately following the youngsters' races, parents will compete in three special adult races which promise to be as exciting as those of the younger generation.

Children of all ages, up to and including 16, are eligible to compete in the 25-yard free style, 25-yard breast stroke, 50-yard backstroke and relay races. The only requirement, other than age, is residency in the City of Grosse Pointe.

Parents will compete in the mothers' 25-yard free style, fathers' 25-yard free style, and the husband and wife 50-yard relay. Any adult who is both a City resident and a parent can enter.

First, second and third place ribbons will be presented to the winners at the conclusion of the races, for both children and adult classifications. The individual, or individuals, amassing the most points in the young peoples' races will have his or her (or their) name inscribed on the Norbert P. Neff Challenge Trophy, designating the outstanding swimmer in the City of Grosse Pointe for 1958.

Parents are urged to encourage their children to enter the races—and to enter themselves. The success of the races depends on a good turnout and residents are asked to enter as soon as possible. Entry blanks may be obtained at the City Park checkroom. The deadline for registration is Thursday, July 31, at 10 p.m.

Has Hole-in-One At Lakepointe

Au Austin High School junior, Eugene Gargaro, Jr., 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Gargaro of 65 Renaud, made a thrilling hole-in-one, while playing the sixth hole on the Lakepointe Country Club golf course on Friday, July 11.

Young Gargaro drove the ball 130 yards with his number seven iron, for the first hole-in-one in his life.

Little League Baseball

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL

Braves	13	3
Cardinals	8	8
Cubs	8	8
Dodgers	3	13

A no-hit, no-run performance by Cub Pitcher Dave Sachs and an all-out battle for second place highlighted the action in the Grosse Pointe City Little League last week.

Sachs hurled his second no-hit of the season against the Dodgers and his mates committed only one error as the Cubs won 7-0. Dave contributed a home run and a single to his own cause. The first Sachs no-hit, no-run game this season came against the Cardinals, a 3-0 contest in which Mike LaRue, Card pitcher, also allowed no hits. Card errors gave the Cubs their runs in that game.

The Champion Braves, after clinching the title in their first game of the week with a 6-1 victory over the Cards, ran into a fired up band of Cubs in their second game and took a 9-6 shellacking. In one of the most prolific displays of hitting this season, the Cubs pounded out 12 hits against two Brave hurlers. Third Baseman Jock Jollymore got three for four, Left Fielder Dennis Meath got two for three (including his first home run of the season), and Dave Sachs and Gary Burkemoore collected two hits. Don McQueen pitched his finest game this season to register the win.

Bruce Harper, the Braves' losing pitcher in the Cub game, hurt his leg sliding into third in the fifth inning and was taken out. Bruce had pitched excellent ball all season for a 6-1 record.

With the Braves looking toward the post-season tournament among the champs of the various Little Leagues in the Pointes, the second-place battle between the Cardinals and Cubs is a high point of interest in league competition as the season draws to a close. The two teams are tied with 8 wins and 8 losses apiece. During the past two weeks the Cards have slipped while the Cubs have picked up steam. It ought to be a rousing finish.

The managers, Ed Devine of the Cards and Jim Stapleton of the Cubs, both sort of want sole possession of second place.

The fightin' Dodgers helped the Cubs cause along last week by nudging the Cardinals 5-4 on Bob Gierman's 4-hit pitching. In the Dodgers' other game last week—the losing effort against Sachs' no-hit-ter—Johnny Stempfle went the distance and showed good stuff. He'll be tough next year.

The final game of the 1958 Grosse Pointe City Little League competition is scheduled this week—a Thursday encounter between the Cubs and Dodgers.

Summaries of last week's games:

PARK

Two fifth place teams, the Indians and the Dodgers, took over the spotlight in the Grosse Pointe Park Little League in the week ending July 12, defeating the pennant-bound Orioles and Giants to delay the two league-leaders' plans for clinching their titles.

The Indians' 4 to 1 victory apparently gave the other American League teams no more than a temporary reprieve. All that the Orioles needed to assure themselves the flag was one more victory or a loss by the second place Athletics.

The Dodgers' 2 to 0 victory over the Giants, however, was a crucial one because it left the Giants with only one game lead over the second place Pirates with three games remaining for each team.

The Dodgers-Giants clash, a 10-inning game, which was certainly the longest and probably the best game of the season, came within a couple of minutes of going into the record books as a scoreless tie, ended by darkness.

But that was before Dodger Mike VanDegriffe hit a towering home run over the center field fence with a teammate aboard and one out in the last half of the tenth inning.

There was little to choose between the two teams in the regulation six innings during which Durward Decavittie, the Pirates' pitcher, and VanDegriffe, the Dodger hurler, each yielded one hit before retiring to other positions in favor of Tom Conway for the Giants and Dick Sims for the Dodgers. The Giant victory was set up by a brother act, starring the three Conlans—12-year-old Larry, the shortstop, 10-year-old George, the catcher, and nine-year-old Richard, the centerfielder.

In the Dodgers' half of the ninth, George, a scrappy red-head, twice blocked off the potential winning run in close plays at the plate, and in the 10th, Richard hauled down a fly to deep center field that ended the Giants' last threat.

Larry opened the winning rally in the Dodgers' 10th with a single. George, however, forced him at second, and later stole second himself, where he was waiting when VanDegriffe struck his big blow.

The Pirates moved into a challenging position in the National League with three consecutive victories over the Braves, 5 to 4, the Cardinals, 6 to 0 on a forfeit, and the Dodgers, 8 to 1.

There were three additional National League home runs, one each by Joe Ciaramitaro, of the Braves, and Paul Beauregard, of the Pirates.

In the American League, the Indians' victory over the Orioles shared top billing, ironically, with a no-hit, no-run game in which these same Orioles defeated the Indians earlier in the week, 5 to 0.

Mike Kingsley, Orioles pitching ace, held the Indians in check while his mates were collecting five hits off Larry Hunter.

Another standout individual performance was the three home runs slugged by Tommy Thompson, of the Athletics, one in each of three games, Art Mossner, of the Senators, hit one.

The only change in the standings in either major league during the week boosted the White Sox into third place in the American League as the Senators dropped to fourth.

In the Collegiate Leagues, Carolina clinched the pennant in the Southern Conference as Baylor, the only team with a mathematical chance of overtaking them, was forced to withdraw because of a shortage of players.

Northern Conference play produced a deadlock for the lead between Fordham and Harvard with three games remaining on each team's schedule and Evansville was only one game behind with one left to play.

FARMS

With the return of fair weather a lot of baseball was played last week. The power behind the Tiger bats which led the batting race in the first half of the season along with the steady pitching of Tom Baranek and Doug Firth has put the Bengals far in the lead in the season's American League second half.

Some fine hitting of the Phillies' nine along with excellent pitching by Steve Bachle and George Jorges has given them the National League lead with a 5 to 1 record.

Major Highlights

The Tigers won two big ball games this week to put them in a tie for second place. They beat the Athletics by the score of 8-0 behind the fine pitching of John Zimmerman. He allowed only two hits and struck out seven men. The fielding of the entire Tiger team was outstanding. They also beat the Yankees in an 8-inning game, 7-5.

The pitching of 10-year-old Dick Keller was the outstanding feature of the game. He allowed no hits or runs in a 3 inning relief job. The Tigers scored what proved to be the winning run on some fine base running by Jim McCarthy. He scored from second base on an infield out. Tom Rusinow was outstanding on bases and in the field. Mike Johnson was the leading hitter with two hits. Tom Paige got his seventh home run of the season for the Yankees.

Minor Highlights

In the American Association Wichita played one of its best games Tuesday, beating Charleston, 3 to 0. Tom Moreau did a marvelous pitching job. It was definitely a team game; everybody played his very best. Wednesday Wichita beat Omaha, 5 to 3. Steve Ebberts was the winning pitcher.

It was a big week for the Buffalo Bisons of the International League. Monday night found them on the long end of a 21-16 score as they came from behind to defeat Richmond. Jim Nyman went all the way for the Bisons, and although he got off to a shaky start, he recovered in the late innings to post the victory. Gates and Baysiegel were the hitting stars for the winners with a single and double apiece, while Richmond's Columbus, Fansler and Calhoun slammed three hits each.

Tuesday night the Bisons defeated Montreal behind the excellent pitching of Jerry Gates. The game was especially notable for the good defense play exhibited by both teams. Kenney DiLaura, hard hitting Buffalo first baseman, got the longest hit of the game, a long ground rule double that cleared the fence on the first bounce. Thorpe, the Montreal catcher, played his usual fine game behind the plate as well as bagging three singles. Calos, besides going all the way on the mound for the losers, picked up two hits.

Saturday morning the Bisons did it again, trouncing Toronto, 28 to 9. Roger Vortman was the pitching and hitting star of the game. The big left hander mowed down the opposition and also contributed three big blows, one a long double that brought in three runs. Coming in during the first inning was a seven-run deficit, Vortman held Toronto to only two hits and two runs. Crawford of Toronto was stung during the three innings he pitched, but fortunately for Buffalo he had to be removed, having pitched his limit for the week.

FARMS - CITY - PARK

With only a few games remaining in the second half of the season, the Cardinals continue to lead the National League and the Tigers lead the American League.

In a 12 inning pitcher's battle between Vroom of the Cardinals and Maniere of the Red Sox, each pitcher allowing only two hits each, the Cardinals finally came through to win 1 to 0, with Skip Paoletti scoring the winning run.

The Cardinals and Dodgers after playing to a scoreless tie for eight innings on June 24, completed the game this week by playing two more innings, with the Cardinals nailing out the Dodgers 1 to 0, Ewald the winner.

As part of a double header the same day, the Dodgers lost to the Cardinals 8 to 6, Zosel the winner.

The Cardinals won their third game of the week and Ewald won his second game of the week, by beating the Giants 2 to 0. The Dodgers then lost to Chicago 9 to 3.

The Giants beat the Phillies 5 to 4, Thomas the winning pitcher, then lost to the Indians 11 to 1, Crichtfield the winner. Stanley and Handlos highlighted this game by getting three hits each and Bum-pus making an unassisted double play. The Phillies won over the Braves 3 to 2, Schumaker winning the game. Then the Phillies went on to beat the Yankees 5 to 3, Dhooge the winning pitcher. The Braves won over the Dodgers 6 to 1, Gutow the winner, then walloped the Tigers 13 to 3.

With 11 errors behind them, the Red Sox lost to the Indians 11 to 3, Stanley winning the game and also getting himself three hits, including a home run. The Indians then lost to Detroit 3 to 2, Walker the winning pitcher. The Yankees won two games this week, first blanking the White Sox 4 to 0, Haller the winner; then defeating the Tigers 7 to 3, Van Horn the winner.

Undefeated Cincinnati beat Kansas City 5 to 1 for the championship of the first half on Friday, July 11. Both winning pitcher Kramer and losing pitcher Hergenrath pitched a great game.

Both teams had eight hits and Cincinnati batted only one more player than KC in spite of the difference in runs scored. Kramer hit a home run in the 5th. Joe Becker scored the only KC run on a hit by Hergenrath. Phylis, Kettlehoff, and Heafner tallied once and Kramer twice for the winning cause.

Boy Assaulted For No Reason

Dennis Mascioli, 17, of 22825 Harper Lake, St. Clair Shores, arraigned before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Tuesday, July 8, on a warrant charging assault and battery, pled guilty to the charge. He told the court he had no reason for hitting his victim, whom he had never seen before.

Mascioli was fined $20, placed on six months probation, and ordered to observe a 11 p.m. curfew every night during the probation term.

He was charged with striking Stanley Vernier, 15, of 799 Lake Shore road, knocking his victim to the ground.

The incident was witnessed by two Woods policemen, Det. Leroy Tobian and Patrolman Fred Messer, who were cruising by in their scout car.

The officers told the court that they saw Mascioli get out of a car, approach Vernier who was standing on the southeast corner of Vernier and Mack, and hit him with his fist, with enough force to lift Vernier off his feet.

Mascioli then went back to the car, the officers said, which was being driven by a 16-year-old boy, and the two drove off. The policemen took after them, stopping them on Charlevoix, between Vernier and Anita.

When questioned, Mascioli said he had no reason for assaulting Vernier, and that he had never seen him before. Not a word was spoken by either Mascioli or Vernier, even after the incident, the policemen said.

A 15-year-old companion who was standing with the assault victim, was not molested, Tobian and Messer said. A warrant charging assault and battery was recommended by Asst. Pros. Dale Devin, on Tuesday, the date Mascioli was arrested and tried.

Mascioli's companion was turned over to Macomb County Juvenile authorities, since he too lived in St. Clair Shores, for disposition in his case.

It's an unwritten law that a man must either make a way for himself or get out of the way of others.

Six Pointers Members Of Championship Crew

Grosse Pointe can take justifiable pride in several of her more stalwart sons who comprise a large portion of the national championship rowing crew. The team, Detroit Boat Club lightweight oarsmen, captured five of 17 events in the 86th annual National championship races held July 6 and 7 on the Schuylkill River, in Philadelphia.

This was the club's third consecutive rowing title. They accumulated a record total of 196½ points, leaving second-place challenger Philadelphia Vesper way behind with 152 points.

The eight-man crew is composed of Tom Brett, Jim Deher, Earl Walke, Al Arbury, Oscar Marx III, Bill Thorpe, Marvin Hopman, Alan Pierrot, and coxswain, Bob Pierrot. Jim, 18, is the son of the Edward Dreher, of Edgewood road. He was graduated from Austin High School in June, where he was on the varsity swimming team, and plans to attend Michigan Technical College in the fall.

Earl (Buzz) Walke, lives on Severn road. Another 18-year-old, he also plans on going to Michigan Tech, having been graduated from Grosse Pointe High School this past June.

Oscar is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Marx, Jr., of Lakepointe road. He was graduated from Grosse Pointe High in 1956 and will be a Junior at Princeton this fall. He's 19 years old.

Bill Thorpe lives with his family on East Jefferson Avenue. He was a classmate of Oscar's at Grosse Pointe High, and will be a junior at the University of Michigan this fall.

Bob Pierrot, the coxswain, is a student at the High School. Fifteen years old, he and his brother Alan are the sons of George Pierrot, of "The World Adventures Series."

The crew, which is two years old, is coached by Ken Blue of the Detroit Boat Club. They added another to their list of laurels by capturing the Central States Rowing Championship this past Sunday, held in Wyandotte. They won the race by three lengths.

Right now they're pruning for the Canadian Nationals, to be held at St. Catherine's, Ontario, the week-end of July 26.

Two Injured In Smashup Against Pole

William Flecher, 35, of 14280 Camden, Detroit, suffered internal injuries, when the car in which he was a passenger, rammed into an Edison pole on Sunday, July 13. He was taken to St. John Hospital by Farms firemen.

A police report revealed that the driver of the car, James Ward, 47, of 14274 Chelsea, Detroit, was going north on Moross, when he lost control of the automobile and slammed into a metal pole at Ridge road, snapping the pole from its base.

He suffered minor injuries.

Students Hear Sound Advice

A friend returned from commencement exercises at an Eastern preparatory school where his son was a member of the graduating class. He had been particularly impressed by the principle address during the ceremonies, delivered by a professor from Yale.

The message of this educator to the boys just passing an important milestone in their quest for higher education, had a significant slant. Instead of the customary advice to young students to set lofty goals and plan carefully for the future, this mentor invited his listeners to look into their pasts for inspiration and guidance. Without being in the least familiar with the exact words of the speaker, the idea has great appeal and is conducive to making a personal development of the thought.

The things which we have known have a far greater influence on our lives than the hoped-for realization of our sweetest dreams for the future, although the two are closely knit together. The recollection of poignant, intimate experiences shared with our parents makes us want to set the stage for a repeat performance with our children. The wonderful satisfaction that comes with praise for a job well done causes us to look forward to another opportunity to feel the same thrill. Thoughts of the loveliest sunset we have ever seen, or the delightful memory of the first trout that ever rose to our lure, lead to an ever-increasing appreciation of nature and all the lessons it can teach. How much would we give to hear again the song of a meadow lark piercing the sweet air hanging over a field of new-mown hay?

The first feeling of self-reliance is the greatest single contributing factor to the successful completion of all subsequent prouder performances. The strength gained from reaching each goal makes the attaining of the next easier. We all can remember the tremendous personal uplift that accompanies the doing of an act of kindness.

By the same token, all the sordidness, sorrow and guilt that touched our past lives have given us lessons that help equip us to avoid them in the future.

Without having heard the professor, we feel these were the things he was saying to the younger generation. He was telling them to indulge deeply in retrospection, to take new joy and inspiration from all the fine and true and beautiful experiences they have known, and to realize the strength that has been gained through adversity and grief. It is good advice, and if carried out should go far towards helping the students to find in the future all the brightness, happiness and richness they could desire.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the adult residents of Grosse Pointe Farms who enjoy swimming at the Seven Mile Pier, I wish to express appreciation to the members of the Grosse Pointe Farms Council for their consideration in providing adequate facilities for this pleasure.

Although we have a wonderful, well-run park with fine provisions for picnicking and "small-fry" fun, the low water level in Lake St. Clair has made the adult swimming facilities very poor. We wish to congratulate the members of the Council for being cognizant of our needs and for providing a satisfactory solution to the problem.

We agree with you that there are few places in the world that offer finer summer living than Grosse Pointe. Swimming is a healthful, out-of-door sport which can be enjoyed throughout practically a person's entire lifetime. Here in Grosse Pointe we are fortunate in having excellent facilities for acquiring swimming proficiency, both during the summer and the winter.

Cordially yours,
Ruth H. Goebel

*"Not till the fire is dying in the grate,
Look we for any kinship with the stars.
Oh, wisdom never come when it is gold,
And the great price we pay for its full worth;
We have it only when we are half earth.
Little avails that coinage to the old."*
(George Meredith)

We have heard of elegant goings-on, but never such chi-chi as this. One evening recently, a popular bachelor in the Pointe gave a dinner party for a dozen or so of his friends at his swank apartment. The dinner, if you please was FLOWN here COMPLETE from a fabulous New York restaurant. . . all ready to be popped into the oven. At least that was the general idea. However, it took a maid and butler he had hired for the occasion, practically six hours to undo all the little packages done up in dry ice, and put the ingredients together before cooking.

The special wine was also flown in . . . putting the guests in a flying mood. We have no idea what this special delivery party cost our friend, but bet it was a pretty penny.

It isn't often we brush near anything like this but when we do it is a delight to remember. Once, many years ago, we were dragged to a Palm Beach mansion to spend the day as the guest of a guest of the house. The deal included swimming, golf, late afternoon bridge, dinner and a night club later . . . so we were assigned one of the guest rooms in which to freshen up, change clothes, rest (?) etc.

After dumping our small suitcase in the room, we left for a few minutes to find our friend. On returning, our suitcase had been unpacked and what few duds we had, were whisked away to be pressed. A little later, a small French maid came in and announced that she was OUR maid! Everytime we washed our hands . . . there was a fresh cake of soap in the bathroom on our return, as well as fresh towels. The entire day was simply unbelievable. Couldn't help thinking of grandma and the two bath towels allowance a week . . . also the napkin ring! Anyway, the grand finale was when after dinner, we all grouped together to start out for the night club, when the host said, "We can all go in our two cars . . . my other chauffeurs will drive YOUR cars over to the place in case you want to leave from there."

"WOW-ZE DOW!"

A local woman who is rather vague in spots, told us she had had a do with her early-in-the-twenties son, who attends a school in Michigan and gets home frequently for weekends. It seems there was something about a pair of slacks he owned that was getting them both down. This, she tells us has been going on for about a year. A few months ago, before leaving the house one early morning, he wrote her a note, as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Sykes. The zipper on this pair of slacks is not staying in place. It keeps falling down. My last visit here and the one before that, you asked me to make a little note telling you what was wrong with these slacks, which I did. Everytime I return, I find nothing has been done about it. How about having the zipper fixed this time? Your son, Jan."

Mrs. Sykes went about her usual daily duties that day and made a note to take care of the slacks, once and for all . . . but the inevitable happened. On the boy's NEXT visit . . . he left after leaving THIS note:

"This D— pair of pants has been cleaned 17 straight times without my even wearing them. It isn't a problem of DIRT . . . but a ZIPPER that won't stay up!"

A local gent recently took his wife to a new Club he had joined or rather a very old Club into which he had been taken. It is a "blood-testy" type of Club in upper Michigan, whose members all know each other well. Consequently they all dine together at the same time, family style, and very inty. Having heard his wife talk so much about the Club of the same ilk that HER family had always belonged to, he asked her, on leaving, what she thought of it and how it compared to the one her family favored. She replied instantly, "Well I think ours is best . . . it's bigger and there is more room for factions."

We love the little joke about the southern boy who saw his girl for the first time in a sack dress. He exclaimed: "Honey, is we in trouble or is you in style?"

Just received a letter from a friend of ours in Chicago, who is a member of A. A. It seems that in the particular section where our pal lives, they hold their meetings two nights a week at the local Church.

One recent evening, she took an interested friend to one of the meetings and the friend could not get over the people present . . . so nice and friendly . . . nice looking . . . well dressed . . . not at all what she expected to see. Toward the end of the meeting, the newcomer said to our heroine: "My, all these people are so NICE." Then she pointed to a gentleman sitting nearby, smoking a pipe . . . and said: "See that man over there, smoking the pipe? I'll bet HE has seen better days, poor soul."

The man who "had seen better days" happened to be the Pastor of the Church who is very interested in the work of A. A. and attends every meeting!

Being a scanner of home-making magazines and an orderer of items therein . . . we certainly out-foxed ourselves last week. Us and our big mouth! We saw a little three-shelf stand pictured in the mag . . . just what we wanted for a small bathroom. The blurb read: "Something new" etc. etc then the dimensions read . . . 12" by 36 feet. The price was very nominal. In our letter including the check and order, we wrote facetiously: "Presume that 36 feet was a mis-print and it is meant to be THREE feet. 36 feet would hardly fit in our house!" Har-har.

When the order arrived, it was wrapped in brown paper and looked like the size of two rolls of wall paper . . . a far cry from the shelf pictured in the magazine. When we opened it . . . we found it was shelf COVERING . . . 12 inches wide AND 36 feet long, just as advertised. But it was so pretty we kept it anyway. BOY, what a shopper old Pryor is!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

What to write about for the week of July 7th? The glorious 4th is past; the next holiday that we can possibly think of is the French Bastille Day, on July 14. We begin to wonder—what of significance might have happened between those two dates at any time in history? And so we went to a book in our Library: "When Did It Happen?" by Stanford M. Mirkin, checking events of July 7-13, with the following results:

If it is birthdays you wish to reverse, you may pause a brief moment for the following notables, all of whom were born this week: Gustav Mahler, John D. Rockefeller, James Abbot McNeill Whistler, Marcel Proust, John Wansmaker, John Quincy Adams, Julius Caesar, Josiah Wedgwood, and Henry David Thoreau.

Beginning with July 8, we have several interesting things to report. On that day in 1776, in Philadelphia, the Declaration of Independence was read publicly by John Nixon. Also, on the same day in 1796 Thomas Pickering issued the first passport to an American citizen, the recipient being Francis M. Barrere. Percy Bysshe Shelley was drowned in Italy on this day in 1822, while in 1835 the Liberty Bell cracked while being rung during the funeral of John Marshall.

On July 9, 1850 President Zachary Taylor died in the White House of a typhus infection, but July 10 yielded us more provocative items. In 1890 Wyoming was admitted to the Union as the 44th State; Howard Hughes completed his flight around the world in 91 hours in 1938; in 1953 Lavrenti P. Beria was purged.

Richard J. Thompson Camping with ROTC

FORT BRAGG, N. C. (AHTNC) — Cadet Richard J. Thompson, whose wife, Sheril, lives at 904 Grand Marais, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., is attending a six-week summer camp at Fort Bragg, N. C., under the Reserve Officer Training Corps program of Michigan State University, East Lansing. The training will end August 2.

Thompson, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Thompson, 5315 Philip, Detroit, is a 1954 graduate of Southeastern High Schools.

from the Russian government.

Going on to the 11th, we find that in 1804 Vice-President Aaron Burr mortally wounded Alexander Hamilton in a now-famous duel. In 1933, all schoolteachers in Germany were ordered to read "Mein Kampf," and to familiarize themselves with the Nazi creed.

On July 12, 1912, for the first time in American film history, movie fans saw a foreign-made feature picture. This was "Queen Elizabeth," made in France, starring Sarah Bernhardt and Lou Tellegen.

Passing on to the 13th, for the year 1787, the United States Congress passed the Northwest Ordinance, setting up the first organized government west of the original thirteen states. In 1929 a cowboy named Will Rogers replaced W. C. Fields in the Ziegfeld Follies. One columnist wrote: "He has acquitted himself with eminent success." In 1865, in speaking of low government salaries and high cost of living in Washington, Horace Greeley first used the expression "Go West, young man, go West," (which he later admitted having read in an article by J. L. Soule, published in 1851.) Earlier in 1853, Horace Greeley interviewed Brigham Young getting for the first time a direct comment on his marital status: "I have 15 wives; I know no one who has more."

Heart Murmurs

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Doctors tell us that heart murmurs may be detected now and then in the normal sized heart and be of no consequence. Neither does a rapid pulse, shortness of breath, or dizziness always mean heart trouble. But until these symptoms are diagnosed there is no way of knowing if the heart is functioning properly. To ignore such symptoms means serious trouble later.

Doctors have ways and means of tracing heart irregularities and the knowledge to correct or treat them.

When medicine is prescribed choose a pharmacist, renowned for expert compounding of pure drugs.

Now that summer is well along, although the weather doesn't always co-operate, the stay at-homes are entertaining for the visitors as a change of pace from one of the busiest bridal seasons in many moons.

Newlyweds, the Frank M. Guenthers, are to be honored this Sunday at a brunch by the Harold Harmons and the Carl Rentschlers at the former's Oxford road home.

Mrs. Guenther is the former Johanna Trammell, of Norfolk, Va., and this will be an opportunity to meet all the local Yankees now that she is making her home in St. Clair Shores. Mr. Guenther is the son of the Valentine Guenthers, of Lakeland avenue.

On Friday, July 25 the duo will be feted again at a party shower and cocktail party at the John Alberts' Lakeland avenue home.

Co-hosts with the Alberts will be the John Suttons and the Albert Dicksons.

Visitors To Be Party Stars

That same Friday night former Pointers the Hugh Mulkeys will be guests of honor at a cocktail party in the Moran road home of the Bayard Wilsons.

The Mulkeys are here from their new home in Philadelphia for an extended visit. Mrs. Mulkey will give a cocktail party this Friday night in her Touraine road home for her son and daughter-in-law.

Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hartzell, of Ridge road, will have their son-in-law and daughter with them for a long summer stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Howie Muir II drove from Simsbury, Conn., last Saturday checking in at the Hartzells just in time to change and attend Lauren Edgar's and Ben Chapman's wedding. After a brief visit about the Pointe they will leave their heir with grandmother and be off for a vacation in Harbor Point.

Band of Renown Coming

One of the most exciting dates this summer will be August 1, the scene the Country Club, which will have Les Brown and his famous orchestra to entertain.

The popular band leader will be the week-end guest of the Sibley Moores, of Merriweather road. And the Moores are planning a cocktail party for the big night before a subscription dinner at the club.

To Show Off an Addition

With her two daughters, Barbara and Leslie, away at camp, Mrs. Frederick W. Pearce, Jr., is all for having a party.

She and Mr. Pearce have invited dinner guests for July 26 to see the new glass enclosed porch which overlooks the 12th green at the Country Club golf course in their Chalfonte road home.

Early in August Mrs. Pearce will fly with youngest daughter, Jeanie, to Wolfboro, N.H., for a few weeks of mountain sunning and scenery.

Lauren Edgar Weds Benjamin Chapman

A Garden Reception at Bride's Home follows Saturday Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Newlyweds Travel to Bermuda.

A garden reception at the bride's home followed the wedding of Lauren Grinnell Edgar and Benjamin Gaines Chapman III, Saturday in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Frederick William Parker, Jr., of Washington road, and Robert Bone Edgar, of Lincoln road. He is the son of the Charles Goodman Chapmans of Lake Shore Road.

The bride wore a princess-line gown of white Italian silk. The side panels over the bell-shaped skirt were appliqued with Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried tiny sweetheart roses with stephanotis and ivy. The heirloom rose point lace veil was worn in madonna fashion.

Her two sisters, Gay and Alden Edgar, were maids of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Peter R. Fink, Susan Denler, Dennie Denton, Mrs.

Austin High Plans Fiesta

Austin Catholic High School will hold its second annual Friars Fall Fiesta Saturday, November 8, in the school gym. This is a joint undertaking of the Austin Dads and the Mothers' Clubs.

The Fiesta will be an all day family fair featuring a variety of booths, games for all ages and light refreshments.

Various surprises are planned throughout the day, so plan to come and join in the fun.

Shores Group Party at GPYC

A dinner and dancing party at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Saturday, July 12, was the fun-fete of a group of Grosse Pointe Shores neighbors.

Resident, for the most part, of North Edgewood and South Edgewood roads and Ballantyne road, they gathered first at the Robert W. Smith home on N. Edgewood for cocktails hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their next-door neighbor, Mrs. Carl Dirkes.

The party was one of the social get-togethers the group stages from time to time. They had all moved into the area about the same time, some three years ago, when their first neighborliness was joining in an informal association to beautify their new residential surroundings with trees and plantings.

Among activities is a short season of bowling in the late spring, and the Saturday festivity was arranged as their second annual bowling banquet.

The dinner took place in Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Commodore's Room. After trophy and prize awards, the evening was given over to dancing in the club's main dining room.

In the group (they gaily call themselves "The Sociable Seoundrels") besides the Smiths and Mrs. Dirkes were the Frank E. Jenneys, the Humphreys Springstuns, Dr. and Mrs. Willard Crain, the Theron M. Wallers, Charles A. Stolls, John M. Stivason, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Rogers.

More were the Gilbert Stewarts, Kenneth J. McCallums, Daniel Evans, Peter J. LaFleurs, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Larkins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGuinness, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schwartz.

Mrs. Benjamin G. Chapman III

LAUREN GRINNELL EDGAR, daughter of Mrs. Frederick W. Parker, Jr., of Washington road, and Robert Bone Edgar, of Lincoln road, was married Saturday in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to Mr. Chapman, son of the Charles Goodman Chapmans, of Lake Shore road.

She Cooks for Dad

Already summering away are Mrs. Edwin D. Clarke and her brood. They are at her parents' summer home in Camlachie, Ont.

While Mrs. C. and the three young Clarks take it easy with the Donald Fraser Sullivans, oldest daughter Pam is busy over the stove in the Clarke menage on Rivard boulevard.

She has summer school courses to attend and couldn't get away so her mother assigned her to cook her father's meals. He's one summer bachelor who isn't suffering.

More Vacation Trivia

Summer school is keeping young Robbie Laurie at home, too, but as soon as classes close he will be off with his parents, the Robert S. Lauries, of Lochmoor boulevard for a long cruise in the family's boat.

Their destination is near Mitchell's Bay where his father, William D. Laurie, has a duck marsh that does fine double duty as a summer resort.

Planning long week-ends are the Hans Gehrkes, of Deeplands road. They will be visiting the C. G. Buntings at the Buntings' summer home on Crystal Lake on August 3. The week-end before Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Adams, of Bacon hill, will be the Buntings' guests at Crystal Lake.

Off on Monday to a cottage near the Old Club were the Robert A. Kuhns, of Grand Marais boulevard. Mrs. K. took along tickets for the Junior League Fashion Show September 16 and 17 and plans to peddle them to Old Club members so she can vacation secure that her quota is sold.

Tilleys Go to Puerto Rico

The Thomas C. Tilleys, who have sold their home in Handy road, will leave within the month by freighter to make their home in Puerto Rico.

A house in suburban San Juan near Mr. Tilley's cousins, the Eugene Pattersons awaits them.

Meanwhile they are enjoying a round of farewell parties. Their neighbors, the Nathan Goodnows, will give a party this Friday.

On July 20 the Tilleys will go to Ann Arbor to bid goodbye to friends in Mr. Tilley's hometown at a party being given by the Samuel Schneiders.

The week-end before their sailing date two Handy road neighbors, the Clark Wellises and the Robert Hunters, will entertain at yet another gala for the Tilleys.

Mr. Tilley, who has served as the Farms City Attorney since July 1, 1957, has lived in the Pointe with his wife and three children since 1948.

GPYC to Honor Commodore Aug. 2

At Colorful Review and Show Boat Party Commodore Charles L. Jacobson Will Be Feted Guest; Outdoor Dinner To Follow Fleet Parade

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club members will honor their top officer and his lady, Commodore and Mrs. Charles L. Jacobson, on August 2 when the club stages its colorful, formal summer fete, the Commodore's Review and Show Boat Party.

Always GPYC's biggest social affair of the year, it will include a review parade of cruisers flying dress flags; a moored show boat in the style of old time Mississippi River boats; two orchestras and two dance floors.

With so many facets, including lighted lawns and Dixieland decor, William M. Schmidt and Harford Kerbaw, co-chairmen, are giving concentrated attention to plans for the big outdoor party.

Commodore Jacobson, with Mrs. Jacobson at his side, will review the fleet beginning at 6 p.m. His flagship, the Eugene Casarolls "Casbah," will be anchored in Lake St. Clair outside the club's harbor.

When the cruiser parade has covered its course down to the Little Club waters and return, and the last salute completed, there'll be the 7 o'clock cocktail hour, sparked by strolling musicians. That's the first step of the Show Boat dinner, dancing and entertainment gala.

Myriad colored lights strung over lawns and dance floors, ornamental grill work and cotton bales in the mood of old New Orleans, yachtsmen's dress uniforms and handsome summer formal dress will set the scene. In the background, white-capped chefs will preside over the outdoor grill—charcoal broiled steaks to be the piece de resistance.

Slated on the music side are Warney Ruhl's Miracles in Music featuring Vina at celesta and piano and Pretty Patty Brown, and Arthur Quatro's Dixieland Band.

Always a part of this annual party is the visiting aboard the gaily-decked and lighted cruisers, back in their harbor berths after the review.

The outdoor beauty of the fete depends upon the weather man, of course. If it's a cloudless night, bright Luna, just past her full moon stage, will ride high in the sky. Should rain come (that luckily seldom happens), the review must be foregone and the party moved indoors.

The reservation list is climbing steadily — more than 350 places already spoken for. Among those who've reserved tables for varied-size groups are the Dwight Nelsons, the William F. Rossiers, Harry J. Chapmans, John D. Kennellys.

More are the Eugene Casarolls, Forrest R. Olds, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams, the Rex Regans, Paul Morelands, Donald Fords, William Bercholds, Dr. and Mrs. Cyril R. Defever, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic N. Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jacques, the J. E. Rousseaus, Russell VanHoutens, Carl Zimmers and John Willis, LeRoy Paynes, and Frederick Youngbloods.

On July 27, 1953, the last U. S. carrier strike of the Korean action was flown. Planes from Task Force 77, operating with UN forces, pounded enemy supply routes, rolling stock, airfields and road systems before returning to their ships.

Miss Domenic Weds Mr. Pardon

Bride Wears Silk Organza and Alencon Lace for Rites Saturday in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church; Will Live in Ann Arbor

In Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Saturday, Maryanne Domenic, daughter of the James Domenics, of Roslyn road, was married to Charles Frederick Pardon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew Rauth.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown with portrait neckline embroidered with Alencon lace and a fingertip illusion veil fell from a cap of Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, sweetheart roses and shattered carnations.

Mrs. William J. MacLeod, sister of the bride, serving as her only attendant, wore a mint green chiffon gown and carried pink carnations. The bridegroom, son of the Leo Pardons, of Ann Arbor, asked Timothy Roberts of Ann Arbor to be his best man. Seating the guests were Jack MacLeod, brother-in-law of the bride, and Deno Preketes of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Domenic chose a grey-blue crepe and chiffon gown with matching hat for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Pardon wore powder blue chiffon.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds left for a Northern trip. They will live in Ann Arbor.

Ogilvie-Frizzell Vows Solemnized

Reception at The War Memorial follows Rites in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church; after a Trip to Northern Michigan Will Live in Detroit

A reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the Saturday afternoon marriage of Mary Elizabeth Frizzell and David W. Ogilvie in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

The bride, daughter of the Walter Ragen Frizzells, of Willison road, wore a gown of tulle appliqued with lace. A head band of matching lace held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a cascade of lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Duane L. Howe, of Willamstown, Mich., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Joal Grundy, Nancy Hitt and Mrs. Winifred Neuman. They wore shrimp colored silk and carried white fuji chrysanthemums. The bride's cousin, Dana Lynne Queli, was flower girl and she wore pale yellow and carried a basket of tea roses and daisies.

Mr. Ogilvie, son of Mrs. Frank Rottiers, of Detroit, asked John Evans to be best man. Ushers were Frank Rottiers, David Opificus and William Hoffmeyer. After a trip to Northern Michigan the newlyweds will live in Detroit.

Legion Junior at Girls' State

Barbara Bomier, Junior Member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Grosse Pointe No. 303 was one of the 320 girls attending Girl's State at East Lansing. Barbara was sponsored by her own Junior Unit of the Auxiliary and she also is a student at the Grosse Pointe High School.

She reports that it was 10 days packed with wonderful experiences and that she has learned much about Parliamentary procedure starting from village through state government. As a result of a mock election she was elected to the State Board of Supervisors and to the State Legislature.

The Juniors of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 303 will hold their own Installation of Officers and Initiation of new Members on Sunday, September 7 at 3:30 o'clock. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend. A plan will be presented for discussion on giving each Junior member an opportunity to attend Girls State regardless of the number eligible in any one year.

The American Legion Post and Auxiliary, G. P. No. 303 held a joint installation of officers on July 12 at the post home, 20916 Mack avenue. Junior members, Jeanette and Barbara Bomier acted as color bearers. They are the daughters of Mrs. Jackie Bomier the new unit president. Junior members, Karen Kraft and Renee Brazell acted as flower girls in the ceremony.

They are the daughters of Mrs. Shirley Kraft, the unit's retiring president and Mrs. Helene Brazell, the unit's installed first vice-president. Junior members, Jaclyn and Denise Cortevills also were present to witness their mother, Mrs. Dorothy Corteville, installed as the unit's historian.

There are no meetings scheduled for the Juniors during July and August, but nevertheless the Juniors are working on a summer project of making scrap books which are to be completed by September and these will be presented to a hospital.

TIME TO REGISTER

Students planning to enroll at Wayne State University, who have not already made application, have until August 1 to submit their application. With entrance requests continuing at a record level, Hugh E. Sarles, admissions director, points out that "applications received after this date will be accepted, but we cannot guarantee that they will be processed in time for September admission."

Don't worry over non-essentials, and you'll find there is very little to worry about.

Successful Day Camps Held By Girl Scouts at Two Sites

Grosse Pointe Girl Scout Day Camp completed the last two days of its six day session this summer on July 8 and 10. Oper to girls in all of the Grosse Pointe communities, whether Scout or not, this Day Camp provided a program for outdoor activities, keeping in mind the theme, "If you can do it indoors, we won't do it."

Under the guidance of the Day Camp Chairman, Mrs. William Adams, the group was separated this year into two camps, one for the Brownies, with 200 girls enrolled, and the other for Scout age girls with about 100 girls enrolled. Mrs. John Gajewski, the over-all Camp Director, established the Brownie camp site at the John R. Barnes school with Mrs. Fred Jahn directing. And the Scout site was the Dexter M. Ferry school under the direction of Mrs. Fred Bohl.

Entirely separate from the rest of the camp was the Pioneer Unit of 24 girls who set up camp on Mrs. Edsel Ford's property in Grosse Pointe Shores. Helping those girls earn either their Campcraft or Pioneer Badge were Mrs. Harry Findlay and Mrs. Robert Herdegen. This camping was entirely primitive, the girls finding it necessary to lash their own tables, cook over the ground fires, and dig the necessary latrines.

Since Day Camp guarantees each mother the care for free of her other than Scout or Brownie age children from 3-11, the Tots, age 3-5 were cared for by Mrs. Gordon Cook at Monteth School each day camp was in session. Two program aides, Martha Herdegen and Martha Cook assisted.

A planned program under the expert hand of Mrs. Michael Brennan kept 15 boys, ages 7-11, busy and happy. They were the sons of the women who helped at camp. Mrs. Violetta Passarelli helped to amuse the 13 5-7 year old boys who also came along with their working mothers.

The program presented to the girls for their daily planning was guided by Mrs. Earle Wade, who also helped train the adults who volunteered their time and energy to help guide the girls in their daily activities.

All of the adult leaders had the opportunity to be trained before camp began by Mrs. Edward Kay and Mrs. Paul Blackburn on two outdoor days at the Grosse Pointe Park waterfront Park. Some of the aides had received previous training as Program Aides by Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Blackburn, and they contributed greatly to the success of the Camps.

Mrs. Harry Crooks, Jr. was the Camp registrar.

Girls in the 5th grade this fall will climax the earning of the Backyard Camper badge and Outdoor Safety badge by sleeping overnight on their site at the end of Day Camp with Mrs. Guenther Buergel in charge. The 6th grade and older girls will spend three days tent camping on Bishop Lake to complete their Outdoor Cook and Campcraft Badges, with Mrs. Arthur Richards, directing.

Helping with the execution of the camps' program by caring for the supplies were Mrs. Frank Carlton, Mrs. William Duster and Mrs. George Thomson. At hand at all times was a registered nurse, Mrs. Robert Birk at Ferry, and Mrs. Ray Wheelock at Barnes. Mrs. Sherman Young served as Business Manager, carefully keeping track of the money for the entire camp. Also on hand at the Barnes school was Mrs. Harry Carnes, secretary, and Mrs. Carl A. Renstrom and Mrs. William N. Geer.

Helping the Brownies to enjoy catching butterflies with nets the "Dads" made for camp, or make weather barometers, were the following unit leaders: Mrs. Walter Allard, Mrs. V. J. Famularo, Mrs. W. B. Handloser, Mrs. Owen Baker, Mrs. Chester Brown, Mrs. Marion Thompson, Mrs. W. C. Healy Jr., Mrs. Edwin Gauss, Mrs. Edward Shorkey, Mrs. William Schnell, Mrs. Robert Fikes, Mrs. A. J. Van Tiem, Mrs. Leon Sankar, Mrs. Robert Browns-combe, Mrs. John Dice and Miss Autumn Kennedy.

Assisting the unit leaders part time were: Mrs. Janet Oyaas, Mrs. Arthur Turgeon, Mrs. James Graves, Mrs. Richard Fellows, Mrs. C. E. Kretschmer and Mrs. Dorothy Eckert.

At the Scout site were these capable unit leaders: Mrs. Donald Michael, Mrs. Phoebe Buergel, Mrs. Floyd Dargel, Mrs. Frank Updegraf, Mrs. A. Dean Joki, Mrs. Anthony Fortinski, Mrs. Frank W. Hausmann Jr., Mrs. Wayne Blow, Mrs. John J. Thomas, Mrs. Ray Lynch, Mrs. Helen Findlay, Mrs. Robert Herdegen, Mrs. John Gould, Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, Mrs. William Smothers, Mrs. George Trevaskis, Mrs. Simon Morath, Mrs. Martha Thorne.

Assisting on the 3-day campout will also be Mrs. Arnold Fredricksen.

Miss Shipman To Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Shipman of Hillsborough, Calif., announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Guy Carleton Wilson III.

Miss Shipman attended Walnut Hill School in Boston and Colby College, Maine. She made her debut in Boston at the winter Cotillion in 1951.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carleton Wilson, Jr., of Glendale and Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.

He is a graduate of Yale University and is a senior at Harvard Law School, and is a member of St. Anthony's Hall.

Miss Shipman's wedding will be held in Boston, Massachusetts, early in September which is the former home of her parents and where Miss Shipman will reside after her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Shipman are well known ex-Pointers who lived in Merriweather road.

On July 30, 1942, President Roosevelt signed into law a bill authorizing enlistment and commissioning of women into the Navy and Navy Reserve.

Sally McHenry Recent Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Thurman McHenry announce the marriage of their daughter, Sally Renaud, to John Jacob Carle II on Tuesday, June 10 in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Sally was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School and from Bradford Junior College. Mr. Carle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hicks Carle of Raynham Hall, Keswick, Virginia, and attended St. Marks and the Salisbury School. He is currently attending the University of Virginia.

The bride's parents will have a reception in their honor in the fall.

Miss Knope Speaks Vows in Kalamazoo

Weds Ronald Duemler of Grand Rapids in St. Thomas More Chapel; following a Wedding Trip in Northern Michigan Will Live in Kalamazoo

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Duemler will be at home in Kalamazoo following their recent wedding there in St. Thomas More Chapel and a trip to Northern Michigan. The former Elaine Birdie Knope, daughter of Mrs. Birdie Knope, of Marter road, and the late Mr. Knope, wore white peau de sole fashioned with a rounded neckline accented with seed pearls, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt.

A crown of pearls held her ballerina length veil and she carried stephanotis, ivy and gardenias.

Dona Duemler was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Janet Lancaster, and Janet Ott, of Mt. Clemens. They wore light blue taffeta frocks with matching leaf shaped hats and carried pink carnations.

Mr. Duemler, son of the Listle Duemlers, of Grand Rapids, asked Richard Erhardt, of Grand Rapids, to be his best man.

The ushers, all from Grand Rapids, were Patrick Monks, Richard Cooper and William Terrell.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the Harris Hotel Mrs. Knope wore a light blue linen dress with beige accessories and pink flowers.

Mrs. Duemler was in navy linen and white accessories with white flowers.

M. C. Pattersons to Visit Native Scotland on Trip

A five-day visit to Glasgow will highlight the two-week European trip of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Patterson, of Devonshire road.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are natives of Scotland. The return to Glasgow will be the first for Mr. Patterson since 1920. Mrs. Patterson has not been in her native land since 1923.

The Pattersons, who left Detroit July 15, also will visit London, Paris, and Brussels.

Barbara Jane Hogarth To Wed Roger Ponczak

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Hogarth, of Lancaster avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jane, to Roger Jon Ponczak. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Ponczak, of Tracey avenue in Detroit.

The bride-elect attended Ferris Institute, where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa Sigma sorority. Her fiancé was graduated in June from Ferris Institute. He is a member of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity.

No date has yet been planned for the wedding.

Mrs. Ronald Duemler

At a recent ceremony in St. Thomas More Chapel, Kalamazoo, ELAINE BIRDIE KNOPE, daughter of Mrs. Birdie Knope, of Marter road, and the late Mr. Knope, was married to Mr. Duemler, son of the Listle Duemlers, of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. William N. Walling, Jr.

At a recent ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, JANET JOLLEY was married to Mr. Walling. She is the daughter of the Foster Winters, of Berkshire road, and her husband is the son of the Norman William Wallings, of Tallahassee, Fla.

Bridget Rizzo Wins Honors

Grosse Pointe Bridget Rizzo, producer-director at WTWS, Channel 56, has been accepted as a member of the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference held every August at Middlebury College, Vermont.

Miss Rizzo has produced and directed the "American Literature" series for WTWS during the past year. This series will be continued this fall, and it is Miss Rizzo's hope that the Bread Loaf Conference will serve as both an inspiration and a guide for the coming year's telecasts.

Upon completing her thesis, Miss Rizzo will receive the Master of Arts degree in Radio and Television from the University of Michigan this summer. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Manhattanville College in 1953 in the fields of English and Music. (In keeping with her love for music, she plans to spend a few days at the Tanglewood Music Festival in Lenox, Mass., before proceeding to Middlebury.) She is a graduate of the Sacred Heart Academy in Grosse Pointe.

Miss Rizzo resides at 1379 Berkshire road. She is a member of the board of directors of the Manhattanville Club of Detroit, past treasurer (1957-58) of the Detroit chapter of the American Women in Radio and Television, and a member of the Detroit Yacht Club, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Society, and Pro Musica. She has also served on the publicity committees of WTWS and of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater.

Welcome Club To Hold Party

The Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe will meet at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Thursday, July 24, for luncheon and bridge.

For reservations, call Mrs. Marian Aikens, of 804 Harcourt road, VA 3-0232.

St. Peter Altar Society Plans Ice Cream Social

The Altar Society of St. Peter Catholic Church, Harper Woods, is sponsoring an Ice Cream Social on Sunday, July 20. Homemade cake and ice cream will be served for 25 cents, coffee and pop for 10 cents each.

There will be entertainment for the children in the form of clowns, free balloons, and a fish pond.

The event will be at the parking lot at St. Peter's, Vernier and Beaconsfield, starting at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Turner Wins Audition Honors

A soloist in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church choir tied for first place in auditions to determine Detroit's top amateur singers, held last Wednesday, July 9.

Mrs. Faye Turner, of Somerset road, tied with a Detroit baritone, Dominic F. Cossa, in the Department of Parks and Recreation's 14th Annual Vocal Auditions.

The auditions were held at Belle Isle's Jerome H. Remick shell. The two first-place winners will be given an opportunity to sing with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra later this summer.

LARCENY REPORTED
Clifford Shock of 15120 Charlevoix, complained to Park police on Saturday, July 12, that someone had entered the back yard of his place, and drained the gas from the tanks of two of his trucks.

Church School Closes Friday

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will have its closing program at 10:30, on Friday, July 18, followed by an open house and a picnic lunch on the lawn.

In the closing program the children will share some of the things they have been learning about Palestine of yesterday and today through Bible stories, slides, studies of stories in stained glass windows, the making of scrolls, lamps, triptychs, Palestinian homes, articles used in the homes, and the accounts of Jesus' ministry in the Bible. Most of all the spirit and teachings of Jesus have been portrayed through the devoted conscientious workers who have been with the boys and girls.

There has been an effort not only to hear about Jesus but to try to live the good way he taught. Visits to homes of a grandmother and a fellow member laid up with a broken leg, were highlights in the lives of the kindergartners and primaries. The juniors had a never-to-be forgotten experience in visiting a church in which many of the Bible incidents were portrayed in beautiful stained glass windows, two of the group being from the church visited sharing their church with the boys and girls.

Those participating in the guidance of the children included Mesdames Kurtz, Machamer, Brownell, Thomas, Robinson, Lossing, Olsen, Spalding, Burgess, Parshall, Hudson, Alor and Palmer; Misses Kimberlin, Bennett, Kuhl, Fifth, Toepel, Walter, Forbes, Richards, Slocum and

Lochmoor To Hold Bermuda Party

Buffet Supper Will Be Served by Pool followed by Dancing under The Stars This Saturday; Olympic Divers To Give Exhibit

A twilight dip in the pool, a sumptuous buffet supper, the piece de resistance charcoal broiled steaks over an open grill, followed by dancing under the stars. Sound like an enchanting midsummer-night's dream? Lochmoor Club's entertainment committee has decided to make all this more fact than fancy and so they have completed arrangements for just such an evening this Saturday.

The "Bermuda Splash Party", the Bermuda in this instance referring to the type of apparel suggested to be worn by members and their guests, is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeHayes, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Woodbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowles.

Dinner tables are to be scattered around the pool area under the trees and overhead colored lanterns will be hung to shed the proper glow on the dining guests.

Music for dancing on the pool's deck will be provided by Phil Cole's trio. Midway through the evening there will be a spectacular pool show starring Olympic divers Barbara Gilders and Jean Stunyo, a synchronized water ballet and the comedy team of Dolores and Verdi.

Club president Gordon D. Skinner and Mrs. Skinner head the reservation list which includes among others Mr. and Mrs. Harold Diegel; Mr. and Mrs. William Traver who will host a party for six; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carpenter; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stack, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Link; Mr. and Mrs. William Fricker; Mr. and Mrs. David L. Helm, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Suor.

Wednesday Mrs. J. Vernor Davis was hostess at a luncheon in her Beacon hill home and today Mrs. Huntington Kerr, of Bloomfield road, will give a tea.

On Friday there will be a luncheon at the Village Manor for Mrs. Mickam, given by Mrs. Thomas Sage, of St. Clair avenue.

On Saturday Mrs. Emmons will give a cocktail party for her visitor.

COVERED WAGON BLAZES

The covered wagon that sits at the site of the Santa Claus House, Kercheval at St. Clair, became nearly a literal relic of the past. Its canvas top caught fire on Friday, June 6, at 10:28 in the evening but a quick call to the City station, and an equally quick response by firemen, had the flames quenched within 10 minutes. The firefighters used a booster line to transport the water to the scene, at the corner of St. Clair and Kercheval. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Col. Sliter Commands Unit Now in Training

Detroit's only Station Complement Reserve Unit, the 5439th ARSU, left for two weeks active military duty at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, on 6. This unit, unique in Michigan, and one of two such commands in the 5th Army area, is composed of reservists from Detroit and surrounding suburbs.

As a Station Complement, the 5439th trains throughout the year to assume the responsibility for operation of a military post or camp similar to Fort Custer, Michigan, or Fort Sheridan, Illinois, where the unit will train "on the job" this summer.

Under command of Colonel Elmer H. Sliter, Jr., 1860 Broadstone road, Grosse Pointe Woods, the 67 officers and 124 enlisted men of this unit are performing their sixth consecutive year of active duty summer training as a station complement.

Mary Anne Daniels Marries Mr. Tapert

Reception at Village Manor Follows Rites Saturday in St. Matthew Church; Pair to Take Trip To Northern Michigan

A trip to Northern Michigan followed the Saturday nuptials of Mary Anne Daniels and Richard Eugene Tapert in St. Matthew Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Daniels, of Three Mile drive, wore a gown of silk organza with Alencon lace applique around the neckline and full skirt.

A crown of organza held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried stephanotis and ivy.

Arlene Gormley, maid of honor, Constance Strasko, Dolores Kopaczski, bridesmaids, wore ice blue bouffant chiffon dresses and carried camellias and corn flowers.

Margaret Ann and Julie Tapert were junior attendants in pale pink organza with flowered appliques. They carried nosegays of pink sweet sweetheart roses and white baby mums.

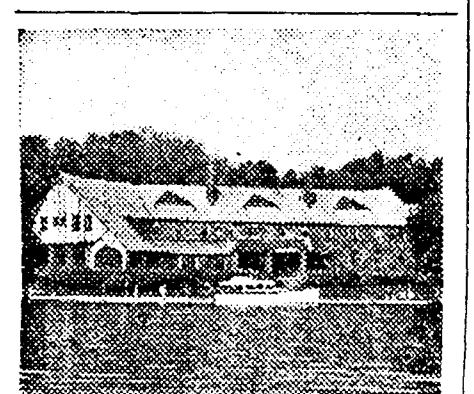

Thomas Tapert was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Dr. and Mrs. Julius Tapert, of Devonshire road.

Ushering were John Tapert, William Tapert and Lawrence McCormick.

The bride's mother greeted guests at the Village Manor reception wearing mist blue silk and her flowers were sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Tapert wore a delphinium colored Italian silk and an orchid.

When the pair return from their wedding trip they will make their home in Phillip avenue.

Woman's Club To Have Party

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will launch its new season with a benefit card party and fashion show Tuesday, September 23, at the J. L. Hudson Company Auditorium.

Tea will be served at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Edward L. Weber is chairman of the party aided by Mesdames Albert Blixt, William H. Bundesen, George Funk, Seth Ingram, John Wetzel, Daniel A. Schaitberger and Cecil Pollard.

This card party is the only fund raising project the Woman's Club sponsors during the year. Money is given to the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Lutheran Institute for the Deaf, and the Grace Bentley Camp.

The club also awards a $300 achievement award to a local high school student, donates to the Public Library and to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Any Woman's Club member has tickets or you may call TU 4-0558. Donation is $2.25.

Clothing Needed By Goodwill

Reports from the local Boards of Commerce throughout Michigan show that many people are spending their vacations at home this year.

There are two factors involved. The first is that money is tighter with most families at this time. The second is that many Michigan people have discovered that they have not seen or enjoyed the vacation spots that are close to home.

Goodwill Industries has a suggestion that will fit into this type of vacation plan and at the same time help its physically handicapped employees.

Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Goodwill, says,

"Children outgrow clothes rapidly at pre-school and school age, and often mothers, without realizing it, save these clothes until school begins before replacing them.

"Goodwill Industries needs clothing now, and if those who are spending their summer at home would contribute this clothing immediately, it would help keep nearly 450 physically handicapped persons at work through the summer months.

"A contributor to Goodwill Industries helps the handicapped help themselves without costing the giver any money and very little time.

"The contributor also receives a moral uplift in the knowledge that he has helped his neighbor.

"As has been suggested by government officials, a vacation at home can mean a very happy summer. Contributions of clothing and other repairable discards will mean a happy summer for the physically handicapped," says McKinnon.

Realism will at length be found to surpass imagination, and to suit and savor all literature.

Mrs. Bodkin To Head Drive

Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, of 64 Muskoka road, has been appointed chairman of the 1958 United Foundation Torch drive for Region One, covering the entire Grosse Pointe area.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Paul E. Krause, chairman of the Eastern Wayne County community campaign.

Mrs. Bodkin has been a member of the United Foundation Board of Directors since 1953 and a vice-president for the past three years. In addition, she is on the board of directors of Boys Republic, Cottage Hospital, Travelers Aid Society, Children's Hospital, the United Community Services, and the USO.

Heat Increases Food Poisoning

Hot weather makes it necessary to take particular precautions with foods you serve to make sure that they are safe. Dr. Joseph G. Molner, commissioner of health, states. Most of the food poisonings which have occurred in Detroit in the last ten years were traced to foods served at weddings, family gatherings or picnics and prepared by persons who do not act as food-handlers regularly.

Dr. Molner suggests that a good rule to follow is to keep food hot, keep it cold or don't keep it. Keeping food cold means refrigeration at a temperature of 40 to 50 degrees or lower.

Food poisoning is caused by germs growing in food. These germs multiply rapidly when certain foods are kept at room temperature. In as short a time as an hour or two food may become unfit to eat without a noticeable change in taste, appearance or odor. Special care should be given to fish, meat—whether raw, precooked or cooked—milk salad dressing, cream fillings, custards, puddings and gelatine preparations.

Cooked left-overs should be kept under refrigeration at all times. Picnic food should be kept clean and cold while it is being prepared and kept refrigerated until transferred to an insulated container or packed in ice for transportation. Keep the refrigerated picnic foods covered and put them in the shade until they are eaten.

Use care and cleanliness whenever you prepare food. Wash your hands just before you touch food and make sure that all dishes, mixing forks, spoons and pans are thoroughly clean.

Dr. Molner says it is often impossible to detect spoilage when it begins so that you should use care and cleanliness and keep foods refrigerated or hot until they are eaten.

Take advantage of fresh vegetables and fruits as they come in season, but be sure they are thoroughly washed before you eat them.

Kenneth R. Baldwins Leave for Army Post

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Baldwin, of Cadieux road, have left for Tooele Ordnance Depot in Utah where Mr. Baldwin will be commanding officer for two weeks.

The Baldwin family will live on the post while Mr. Baldwin, a lieutenant-colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve and former member of General MacArthur's Staff, does his Army duty.

A sense of humor is a never failing help in time of trouble. And when some people ease their minds they make the situation tense for others.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin G. Galster, of Manchester road, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY RUTH, to William James Holtzman, Jr., son of the William Holtzmans, of Frazer. An April wedding is planned.

Janis Arlene James Engaged to Ohioan

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave James, of St. Clair Shores, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janis Arlene, to Pfc. Anthony P. DeGennaro, son of Mrs. Helen Donato, of Ashtabula, O.

The prospective bridegroom is now serving with the army at Camp Breckenridge, Ky.

Mrs. Cooper Gives Party

Mrs. Benjamin F. Cooper, of Berkshire road, entertained at a July 11 dinner and bridge party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the guests being a group who have continued their close friendship from high school sorority days, and also several of their daughters-in-law.

At the fete, which started in the main dining room and then repaired to the club's beautiful ladies' card room, were Mesdames Edward Breslin, Russell Mahoney, John Pettke, Elton Tapert, Laurence Einfieldt, W. Doric Wismer, Jack E. Palmer, Sherman Marr.

More were Mrs. Raymond W. Eddy and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond O. Eddy; Mrs. Harold Busse and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ross Brownlee; Mrs. Ward J. Mittell and the hostess' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Thomas M. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper entertained at another party at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Saturday, the 12th, this being a luncheon and miscellaneous shower to honor Lillian Kliment, who will become the bride of Clarence Krajenke at August 9 rites. The couple's parents are the Vandelin Kliment, of Conley avenue, and the Leonard Krajenkes, of Charlevoix avenue.

If a man has an office with a desk on which there is a buzzer, and if he can press that buzzer and have somebody come dashing in response, then he's an executive.—E. F. Andrews.

Engaged

At a cocktail party at their home on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. George Ashley Schemm, of Maumee avenue, announced the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Noble Schemm, to Dr. John Francis McDermott, Jr., of West Hartford, Conn.

Miss Schemm graduated from Emma Willard School in Troy, N. Y. In June, 1956, she received her AB degree from Smith College where she graduated magna cum laude, having been elected to the honorary societies of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi. This June she received her masters degree in philosophy from the University of Michigan. Sally made her debut at a dance in June, 1953, and is a member of the Sigma Gamma Association and the Junior League of Detroit.

Dr. McDermott is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Francis Mc-

Lowery-Abel Rites Read

At a recent ceremony in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Patricia Lianne Abel spoke her marriage vows to Richard Leslie Lowery.

The bride, daughter of the Glenn Abels, of Terre Haute, Ind., has been teaching at Trombly School. She was graduated from Indiana State Teacher's College where she was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Her husband, son of the Leslie M. Lowerys, of University place, is an alumnus of the University of Michigan School of Engineering and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Chi Epsilon and Tau Beta Pi.

Marilyn Abel was her sister's only attendant and best man was James Hellenberg.

Following the wedding and a reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial the couple left for Ft. Lauderdale and Cuba. They will live in Prestwick road.

Dermott of West Hartford, and the nephew of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell of this city. He was graduated from Kingswood School in West Hartford; received his AB degree from Cornell University in 1951, his M.D. from New York Medical College in 1955. He interned at the Henry Ford Hospital in 1955-56 and has just completed two years' residency in psychiatry at the University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Dr. McDermott has been commissioned as a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy and reports to Key West, Fla., in August. The couple plan a late fall wedding.

Greene Fenleys Fete Guests

The Greene Fenleys, Jr., of University place, will have their annual house party this week-end for friends they met some years ago on a jaunt to Montego Bay, Jamaica.

The gathering will be held at the Fenleys' farm and the group will go out Friday and return Monday, with a contingent from the Pointe joining them.

The houseguests include the Ira Wyants, of Muskegon; the Walter Neales, of Rye, N. Y.; the John Allbrights, of Hinsdale, Ill.; the Edwin Conleys, of Chicago, and the John McNierneys, of Toledo.

YOU ARE THERE—Everything is as it was 300 years ago, or nearly as it was. This painting of the Colosseum was painted by an unknown artist in the 17th Century. When a photographer saw the painting at an auction recently, he thought it would be interesting to compare the Rome of then and now. From these pictures, it looks as though the only things that have changed are that the moss has been cleaned off the Colosseum, and there are cars in the background now.

SUN TAN TREE—Vacationing at a new resort hotel in Santa Monica, Calif., actress Irish McCalla tries out one of its big attractions — a "Sun Tan Tree." Leaves of multicolored aluminum foil reflect the sun's rays and give a sunbather a quick, even tan. The hotel terms it the first and only such "tree" in the world. If all leaves were focused on one spot, a 10-pound roast could be cooked in three hours there. Water would boil in 20 minutes.

FANCYPANTS—"Lace-trimmed, yet!" gasps amazed Max Judy as he examines the last word in men's shorts at Topeka, Kan. The legs belong to intrepid Ted Reed, who braved wolf whistles from the gals to model the dainty eye-openers during a "shorts day" stunt sponsored by a local service club.

MONSTER ON THE MOVE — A sight calculated to make the blood of local inhabitants run cold, a float carrying the legendary "Tarasque" monster rolls through the streets of Tarascon, France. The monster is supposed to have haunted the nearby Rhone River.

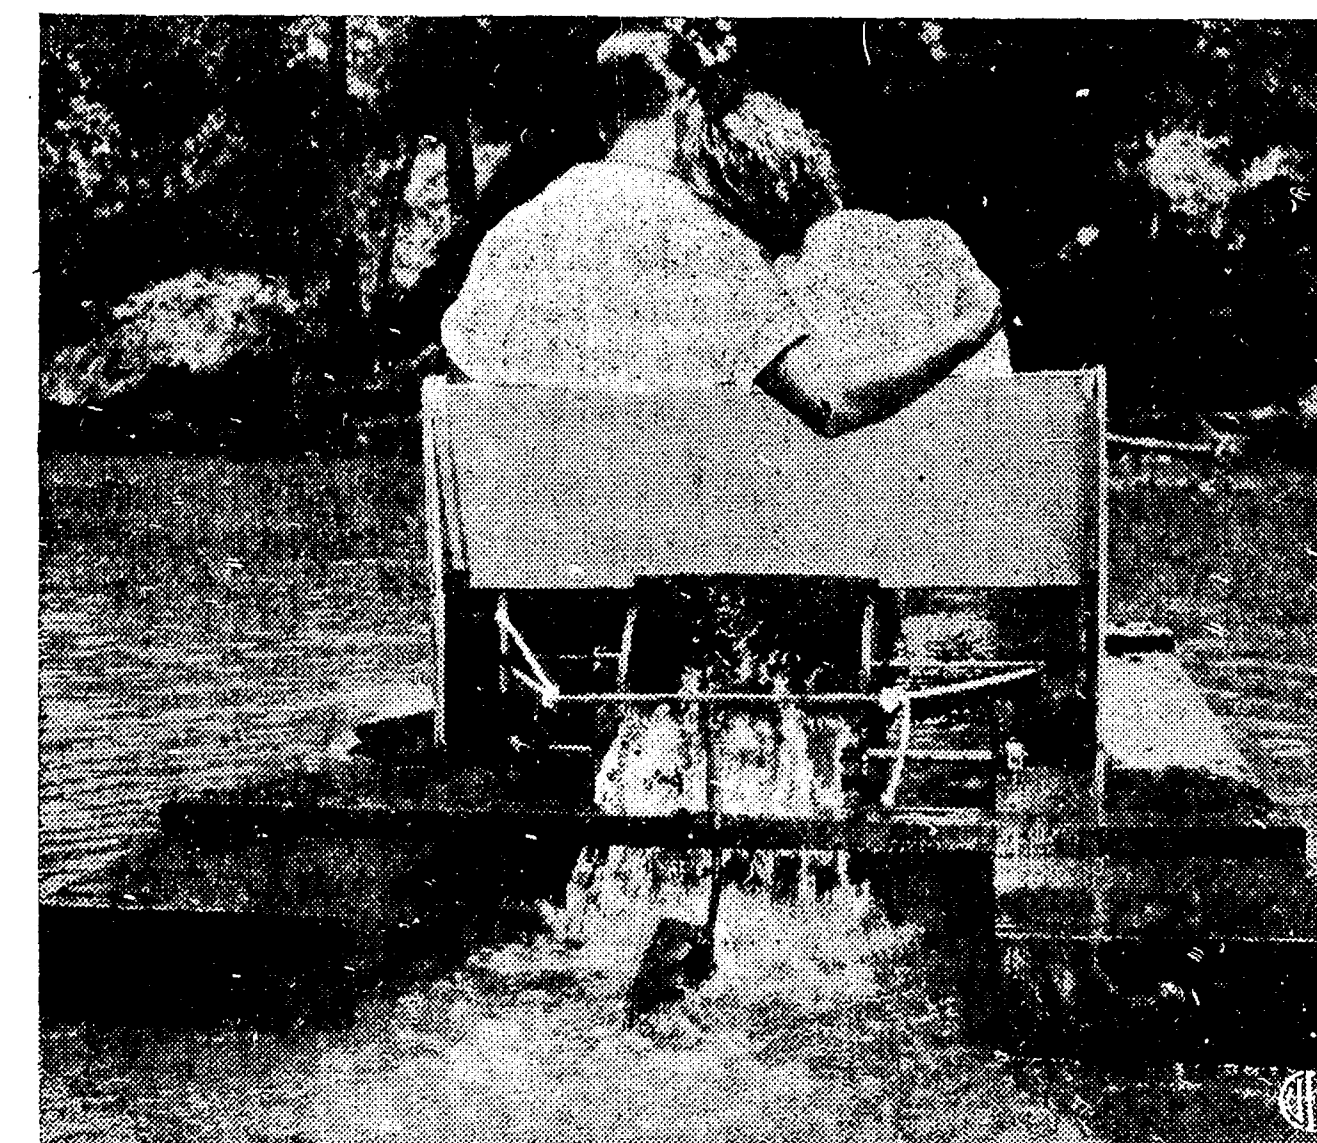

DOUBLE TAKE—A double-duty outfit that's tops in versatility, this striking ensemble is both a ball gown (left) and a swimsuit (right). Designed by Cole of California, it features a long, jewel-studded skirt which wraps around the bathing suit to become a ball gown. Done in white nylon tulle sprinkled with jewels and sequins, it was among the double-duty beachwear fashions and accessories shown by Max Hesse of Allentown, Pa. The model is lovely Sandy Collins.

GETTING A PANNING—Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Fleenor stand together and watch a group of women friends whoop it up during a surprise shivaree in Topeka, Kan. The shivaree is a discordant serenade staged by friends who bang on pots and pans or the like to mark the first night of a couple's marriage. On their marriage license, ages of the Fleenors were given as 65.

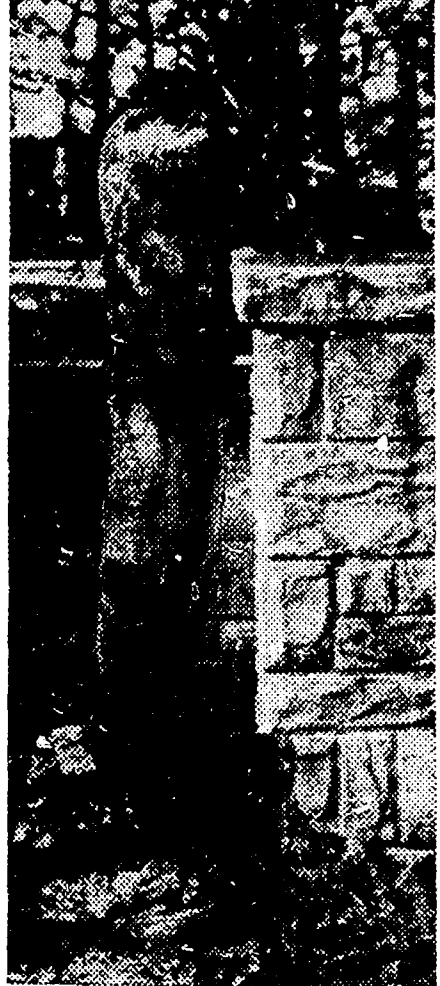

HIGHWAYMEN—Bicycles are okay, but these fluffy-coated shepherds will stick to their stunts as they watch racers in the annual Tour of France pedal through the town of Labouheyre. The shepherds are experts in handling silks, which they use to get around over the marshy ground where their flocks graze in the French province of Landes.

DREAM BOAT — It may look somewhat awkward, but this contraption at Zilker Park in Austin, Texas, sure beats a canoe for romance. Both riders pedal it like a bicycle to turn the paddles which push it along. The arms are left free for much more pleasant occupations than rowing. Trying it out are teen-agers Ronald Bixler and Prissy Rogers, who're paying absolutely no attention to the scenery.

THE CHAMP COMES HOME—Tennis ace Althea Gibson arrives in New York after her second consecutive triumph. The silver tray she is carrying is a symbol of the singles championship she had previously won in the Northern Lawn Tennis Tournament in Manchester, England. Next month: the U.S.L.T.A. tournament at Forest Hills, N. Y.

HEARING AID — Taking an unequivocal stand, this sassy otter seems to be wondering what all the noise is about at the Overton Park Zoo in Memphis, Tenn. Poking up his wet ears, the friendly animal was listening to the hammering and banging during the building of the new rhino house at the zoo.

YOUNGEST ROUGH RIDER — Teddy Roosevelt's youngest member of the famous Rough Riders, Dick Shanafelt, now 79 years young, wears his campaign hat proudly on his arrival in New York via TWA from Kansas City, Mo. The Lawrence, Kan., Spanish-American War veteran placed a wreath at the birthplace of the "man with the big stick" and received a medal from the Cuban Ambassador to the U. S. Mr. Shanafelt was 19 when he was a Rough Rider.

SWEDISH BEAUTY — Ingrid Goude, who holds the title of Miss Sweden, was caught by the photographer at Idlewild Airport in New York before boarding an American Airlines plane to the West Coast. Man, if she's not in line for pictures, Hollywood had better have its lenses cleaned.

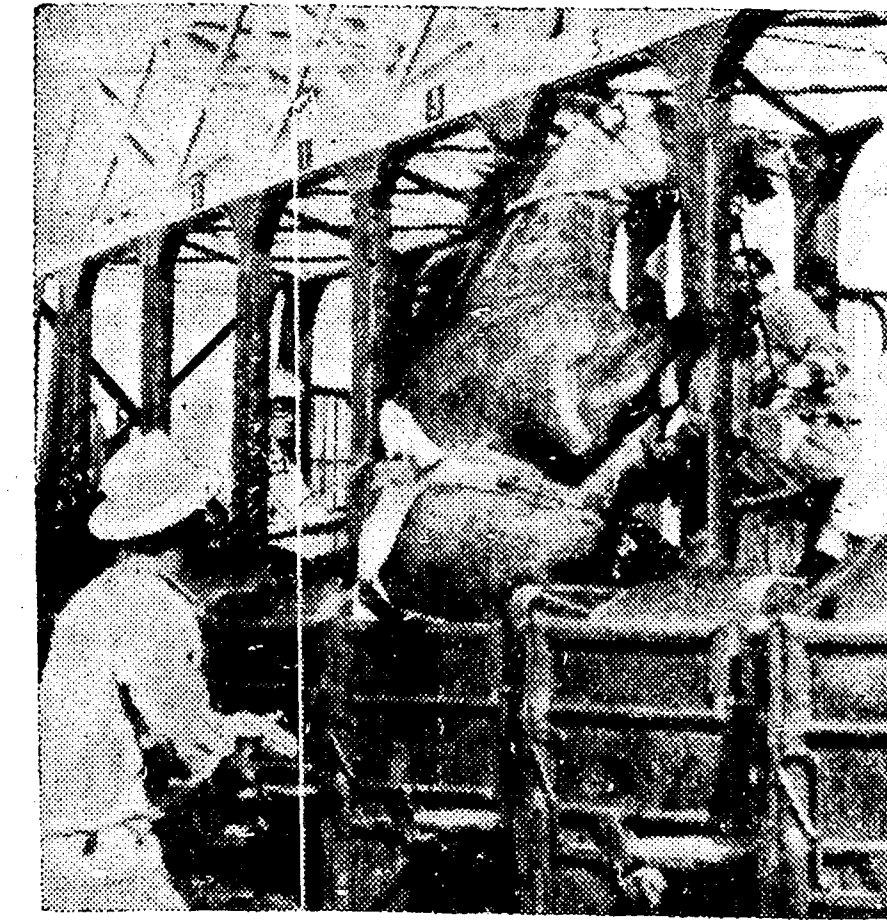

ROME SCENE—A little girl holds a collection box for offerings for a new shrine as workmen remove plaques from a roadside shrine in Rome. In recent years people have been placing plaques on a section of the Aurelian Walls as a means of thanksgiving and religious devotion. City authorities ordered removal of the plaques to safeguard the walls, which date from 270 A.D., as a national monument. A suitable spot for the shrine is to be found outside the Eternal City.

BACK IN GRANDMA'S DAY—In Civil War days, one of the most popular hobbies for young girls was the making of "crazy jugs" like this one. Most of them are gone today, but Mrs. Eula Stricker of Okawville, Ill., still has one of the jugs she fashioned as a girl. To make a "crazy jug," a girl first obtained a jug, preferably of the one-gallon variety, and then coated it with putty. All sorts of geegaws, like marbles, Indian arrows, odd buttons, bright stones, lockets and other trinkets, were then pressed into the putty. When the putty hardened, the imbedded articles were held fast and the jugs were used as door stops and mantel pieces. Only a very few of the jugs are still in existence today.

SUITABLY STYLISH—This novel suit and coat combination is part of the autumn-winter collection of Mary-Mond of Paris. The outfit features a convertible topcoat in wool from which the skirt can be detached to leave a short jacket with matching skirt. The ensemble, called "New York," is designed for traveling.

UNRULY ROYALTY—Count Swedak, a rebellious performer at the Moumouth Park race track in Oceanport, N. J., threw a tantrum in the starting gate recently just before the horses were to take off. Jockey Tommy Barrow scrambled off the temperamental thoroughbred who "did not choose to run" until quiet was restored.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC NOTICE

Elm Tree Foliage Spraying

The attention of all property owners and users in the City of Grosse Pointe is called to the requirements of Ordinance No. 84, under the terms of which all owners of property containing elm trees are required to spray such elm trees with an adequate spray to control the Dutch Elm Disease Blight.

Elm trees are required to be sprayed while dormant, before foliating, and again, as now, while in leaf and foliating.

A survey to determine the infected elm trees is being made and any elm trees which are positive cases of the blight will have to be cut down and entirely removed from the premises within fifteen days after notice by the State or City, to the owners thereof.

The fullest cooperation by our property owners is urged. Save our heritage of beauty in Grosse Pointe.

NORBERT P. NEFF
City Clerk

Headlines of the Week

they returned when waves did not appear.

Saturday, July 12
A BEARDED RECLUSE, once released as cured from a mental institution, told his captors Friday he killed two children "to help depopulate an overcrowded world."

Thursday, 47-year-old Norman Foose had without warning shot and killed a boy, 14, and girl, 12, on the streets of Cuba, N. M. His weapon was a high-powered deer rifle with telescopic sights and soft-nosed slugs.

THE UNITED STATES protested Friday against the shooting down of an American transport plane inside Russia two weeks ago. It demanded that the Soviet pilots involved be punished.

The United States also told Russia that failure to free nine American airmen held in East Germany will worsen Soviet-U.S. relations. The State Department summoned Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov to hear this double-barreled protest over Communist treatment of American fliers.

ERNESTINE RUSSELL, 20, Michigan State University junior, and her Windsor gymnastic coach were en route to the Brussels World's Fair Friday night after being "ushered" out of Russia.

TWO GROSSE POINTE residents Saturday charged the Senate Rackets Committee with making "false and terrible statements" about them and defied the committee to arrest them for questioning on their alleged connection with the Mafia.

Anthony J. Tocco, 27, of 552 Middlesex road, and Anthony J. Zerilli, 30, of 706 Middlesex, both officials of Melrose Linen Service, said the committee's charges were "ridiculous, defamatory and unfounded."

SHERMAN ADAMS, top presidential aide, will not submit his resignation until Congress adjourns.

press adjourns, expected about August 15, but will be back in private life before the congressional elections Nov. 4.

This was learned at the White House Saturday, where it is felt his departure now would be considered a confession of corruption.

PACKARD, one of the most illustrious names in automobile history, will disappear from the American motor market this year.

The Studebaker-Packard Corp. has decided to drop the line, once a symbol of prestige among car owners, because it believes its destiny is tied to smaller cars.

This segment of the market, the company says, has been deserted by the "Big Three" of the auto industry: Chrysler, Ford and General Motors. Company officials acknowledged that the new concept represented a last-ditch effort by the firm to survive in the highly competitive automotive field.

Monday, July 14
REAR ADMIRAL R. B. Ellis announced Sunday night that the 20 American sailors and marines kidnapped by Cuban rebels would be released today, Monday.

A spokesman for Ellis said the commander of the Naval base had received word of the forthcoming release from United States Consul Park Wollam, chief negotiator with the rebels. Evacuation was to begin at 2 p.m. (Detroit time) Monday.

THE DETROIT TIGERS huffed and puffed to their first doubleheader sweep in Baltimore since July 26, 1955, Sunday.

Their reward was an advance to second place in the American League race, the highest they have been since April 23. They still trail the league-leading New York Yankees by 12½ games.

A BANDIT HELD UP a Lincoln Park supermarket late Saturday night and took $10,800 in small bills. Thomas Carnicom, assistant manager of the Wrigley Supermarket at 3760 Fort, told police the holdup occurred after he had closed the store, about 10:50 p.m.

Tuesday, July 15
REVOLUTIONISTS backing the Nasser movement, Monday proclaimed a republic in Iraq, hanged the crown prince, wrecked the British Embassy and split open the Baghdad Pact.

By Monday night the Army leaders directing the coup said military forces over the country had rallied to their side and "the situation has finally been stabilized."

AN EMERGENCY United Nations Security Council meeting was called for 9 a.m. Tuesday, at the request of President Eisenhower, to take up the Mid-East crisis.

The White House said the President decided to ask for the session after a conference with Republican and Democratic Congressional leaders, military and civilian officials.

GABRIEL HAUGE, the President's economic adviser for more than five years, will resign this week to take an important position with the Manufacturers Trust Co. in New York.

Wednesday, July 16
THE UNITED STATES sent more than 5,000 marines into Lebanon Tuesday. Seven warships dropped anchor in Beirut Harbor and began disembarking.

ing troops. The U.S. embassy immediately ordered all American nationals to assemble in a suburban section of the city. The vessels were lying two miles off shore and their nationality could not be determined immediately. No Lebanese government or foreign diplomatic source would comment on the ships. In the meantime, the British and French fleets were alerted for possible Big Three intervention in the Iraqi situation.

By PAT TALBOT

Carrie Nation's axe cast its powerful shadow over our town in the early 1900's and, although saloons flourished, when the subdividing began for homes the road houses had to go.

One of the most popular new sections in 1911 was the Elm Street Subdivision, later known as the Grosse Pointe Colony, carved from private claims 299 and 458. Paramount in the title was this provision:

"That he will not, and his heirs and assigns shall not at any time sell or keep for sale, and that he will not permit any person holding under him, to sell or keep for sale on the above premises any beer, wine or spirituous liquor or other intoxicating drinks, whether distilled or fermented and that a breach hereof shall entitle said first parties, their heirs and assigns, to enter upon and take possession of said premises and said second party remove and put out..."

The property referred to was much of Lincoln, Washington and Rivard roads, part of the old Michael Rivard farm. This provision in the sale in 1909 was made by Charlotte Berry Sherrard, Alice Dwight Lodge and Lottie Dwight Berry in a deed to Horace E. Dodge.

Joseph Berry bought this property about 1900 from the numerous Rivard heirs and kept his barn about where St. Paul cuts through Lincoln today. He died intestate leaving to his three daughters this property along with a several million-dollar estate administered by the Union Trust Company under Luther Trowbridge.

Some of the land was sold to Mr. Dodge, but most of it was sold to the Village Homes Company who parceled out lots before World War I for residential housing.

There were stringent rules when the homes began to be built after the War. They had to be single, private residences of brick, brick veneer, stone, concrete or frame construction costing at least $6,500 for the use of one family only. The Village Homes Company held a mortgage on the lands for $150,000.

From 1915 on, the homes were built at an amazing rate until most of the lots to Black Marsh Ditch were occupied. The strict rules, including the liquor ban inserted by the Berry daughters, was still enforced and is included in property deeds of today on these popular Pointe streets.

Here is a real patriot, who rose at dawn on the Fourth of July, to hang an American Flag from her house with a new number of stars, 49. Mrs. Vincent J. Oleksik awoke in the dawn's early light and realized that this Independence Day the old flag would not do, Alaska had joined the Union. So she cut up a white pique collar, made a new star and sewed it right in the center of her flag. On Lochmoor boulevard she was first with the new flag. When her children came down to breakfast she had the history lesson ready.

There has been an unusual rash of brides this past June as you gift buyers, fathers and mothers know. We have been displaying the weekly crop on the bulletin board outside the NEWS office where they have excited comment.

Two of the admirers, in shorts and ragged sneakers, aged ten, were admiring the lovely brides. One said wistfully, "Just think in ten years I'll be a bride." Her companion looked her over dubiously but allowed as how that might be so. But for herself that blissful state seemed a long way in the future. "I don't think I'll ever be a bride, why, heavens I haven't even taken my driver's training course yet."

Here's a tale about a summer bachelor that should strike a familiar note. Bob Koebel, (who incidentally will be the new president of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater), was spending his June, July and August alone. One night at a party a hostess took pity on him. He was moaning about not having the makings for breakfast, especially juice. The pitying matron gave him a can of frozen orange juice. Meeting his wife some weeks later in the market she saw Mrs. K. buying fresh orange juice. "Bob won't drink frozen juice since last summer. Someone gave him a can and he drank it straight. Hasn't been the same since," she stated.

A sorority member commenting about a recent picnic held at one of Lakeshore road's largest and loveliest homes admitted it was her first peek inside one of the Pointe's most stately mansions. Asked what she thought she replied: "Charming but it doesn't have that lived-in look."

Straw skimmers are this season's newest poolside fashion to guard against the sun's strong rays. Mrs. Burns Cody's hat is natural straw trimmed with a shocking pink and sequined fish which dangles from a green yard line.

PILFERINGS

The long suffering father had just put his three-year-old to bed when the child asked for a drink of water. "Will you take it in a paper cup?" he was asked. "Anything, Daddy," said the youngster cheerfully, "just so it has something around it."

The warden of a midwestern penitentiary is still looking for the comedian who placed a small sign on the wall behind the prison's electric chair. The sign simply stated: "You can be sure, if it's Westinghouse!"

From the "Democrat and Chronicle": RUMMAGE SALE, especially children. Excellent condition.

The common idea that success spoils people by making them vain, egotistic and self-complacent is erroneous; on the contrary, it makes them, for the most part, humble, tolerant and kind. Failure makes people bitter and cruel. W. Somerset Maugham.

Eight-year-old Carol was a well-adjusted youngster who made friends easily; so her parents had no qualms about sending her to camp. Sure enough, her first letter home read: "The food is good. The camp is good. The weather is good. The Counselor is good. Love, Carol." Then came this postscript: "When your come to visit me, please take me home with you."

MARY VANDEN HEUVEL, OF ST. CLAIR AVENUE

By Patricia Talbot

Join the Navy and see the world, so go the recruiting slogans. This inducement used to apply just to the sailors, but now the WAVES can enjoy world travel, says Mary VandenHeuvel in the recruiting office downtown.

Mary has been a WAVE off and on for 15 years and is particularly excited this week as she helps prepare for the 16th anniversary of the women's branch of the US Navy. The reunion will attract about 1,000 WAVES from all over the country to Detroit July 25-26-27, where they will be headquartered at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Mary upon graduating from GP High went to business school and then to work for Army Ordnance. But World War II was at its height and she wanted to do her part. She joined the WAVES, wartime strength 89,000, and trained at Hunter College in New York.

Her first duty station was the nation's capital where she was secretary to Seabee War Correspondent William Bradford Huie.

Pearl Harbor Duty
Then she went to Pearl Harbor where she worked in the supply department figuring

Felines Object To Interference

There are always lots of dog bites to be found on a police blotter, but very rarely does one come across a CAT bite!

However, C. A. DuCharme, of 611 University place, reported to the City police that on Friday, July 11, his ferocious feline had chewed a young girl.

Susan Dull, 15, of 520 St. Clair avenue, was bitten on her right arm, between the elbow and wrist, while attempting to separate two of the clawed creatures in the midst of a fight. The incident occurred about 11 p.m. in front of 605 University place.

Miss Dull was treated for her wounds, and the cat was placed under the mandatory 10-day observation period.

Babe Ruth Day Great Success

The Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League officials thank the residents of the Woods and Shores for their wonderful response on Babe Ruth Day last Saturday, July 12.

The contributions will allow the league to finish out the 1958 season, and possibly give it a start toward the 1959 season.

Thanks are also in order to the ladies who handled the refreshments, the players, managers and coaches, for their hearty co-operation.

The game between the American League and the National League managers, was won by the American League, 12-9. The Texas League managers also participated, being divided among the two major leagues. Approximately 300 spectators attended the game.

Charles E. Mosher's Have New Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Mosher (Sigrid Koebel) of McKinley avenue, announce the birth of a daughter, Heidi Linnea, on July 1.

Maternal grandparents, the Charles J. Koebels, of Cloverly road, are expecting Mrs. Mosher's brother-in-law and sister, the C. Law McCabes, of Pittsburgh, Pa., for an August visit, to see the new arrival.

Germany and Italy beside Pearl Harbor, Japan and Alaska. A month's paid vacation is another inducement.

Rigid Requirements

In the Recruiting office in the Federal Building one WAVE officer and another yeoman with Mary handle all the enlistment requests. High moral character, intelligence and physical fitness are all investigated before the recruit is accepted and sent to basic training in Bainbridge.

Right now this yeoman has little time for her favorite golf game or her photography for she is deep in plans for the reunion. Capt. Winifred R. Quick, commander of the WAVES, will be here as well as many officers and ex-Waves.

Especially honored will be former members of Yeoman F. the women's branch of the Navy in World War I. Their uniforms will be modeled in a special fashion show following luncheon, and quite a surprise they will be to WAVES of today whose smart gear was designed by top couturier Mainbove.

Wave Reserves

There is a large group of WAVE reserves who could be called up in a national emergency. They may be married but cannot have children. They do two-week training periods every year to keep their status.

Yeoman VandenHeuvel is a first class advertisement for her service and she can't praise it enough, it's opportunities for patriotic duty, for training, for travel, education and fun.

STYLE HINT

Skirts with unpressed pleats in soft, medium weight fabrics are more slenderizing and flatter in appearance at the waistline than gathered skirts, says Lola Belle Green, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State University.

CUBE STEAK PARMESAN

by Mary Kate Worchester

3 eggs
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1 1/2 cups fine dry bread crumbs
9 Tb. grated Parmesan cheese
6 cube steaks
1/2 cup olive oil
2 8-oz. cans tomato sauce
Combine eggs, salt and pepper and beat well. Mix half of cheese and dry bread crumbs. Dip steaks into egg mixture then into crumbs. Brown to a deep golden brown in heavy skillet in olive oil.

When steaks are brown on both sides add tomato sauce and top with remaining cheese. Bake uncovered in 325 degree oven for 25 minutes. Then cover and reduce heat to 250 degrees for about 30 minutes. Serve overlapping on hot platter and garnish with watercress or parsley. Nice with spinach and green salad.

Pointe AMVETS Win Top Honors

Commander Homer VanFleet-eran of the Richard S. Hayes AMVETS, Post 57, has announced that the local veterans' post and their auxiliary have won the top awards at the recent AMVET state convention which was held in Bay City.

The post itself was voted the Arthur J. Madar award for being the most outstanding post in the state. The award is given to the post that is judged outstanding in participation of community affairs, organization affairs and service work for veterans and their families. The post also placed second for the Public Relations award and their drill team was judged second in the parade.

A post member, J. Carroll Kay, 1015 Wayburn, was re-elected to a two-year term as National Committeeman for Michigan.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the post was also judged the finest in the state and was given the Sgt. Carl Weiss trophy for outstanding service. The auxiliary also received a second place award for hospital work, child welfare work, and Americanism. It was the first time in AMVET history that a post and its auxiliary ever received the top awards in the same year.

Homer VanFleet-eran is commander of the post and his wife, Catherine, is president of the auxiliary.

The man who diligently saves his pennies will have dollars to blow on the other fellow's scheme.

Pointe Counter Points

by Pat Rousseau

"Strong and content I travel the open road." Walt Whitman's spirit seems to pervade all America... come summertime. This year our Grosse Pointe traveler will be further inspired by the exhibit of handsome station wagons and fine camping equipment displayed on the corner of Kercheval and St. Clair. If you are planning a trip, be sure to stop by Jacobson's for a look at their well coordinated, care-free, comfortable travel clothes... for the whole family.

Perfectly Charming... are the softly mannered... imaginative custom made "Whimsies"... you'll find only at Walton-Pierce. Whisks of veiling are scattered with imported Swiss braid... while others take the accent of a strategically placed bow... note also... clothes created from veiling. These fashion-wise... timeless travelers take you everywhere under the sun AND stars. Incidentally, they offer a glamorous way to control your coiffure, while on the go. Available in navy, black and coffee... from twelve-fifty to sixteen-fifty.

"This world has angels all too few"... so says Cole-ridge. However, I'm happy to report... that the League Shop has a few delightful cherubs on terra firma... cut in stone and imported from Italy... a heavenly addition to your garden... about one hundred fifty-five dollars. If your preferences run more to the material... rather than the sublime... Italian fruit baskets are highly decorative and cost seventy dollars.

Window Shopping... at Wanamaker's for the value of the week! Each Monday a new piece of furniture is featured in the studio window on Mack Avenue... with an enticing... low tariff. If your home needs a bit of redoing... be sure to look into their slip covering and drapery service... and take advantage of the know-how of a fine decorator staff.

FRAMMED... in fashion! The EYES have it! Protection and style... combined in the good looking sun glasses featured at The Notre Dame Pharmacy. A bit of glamour against a summer tan could be a touch of white... white rimmed sun glasses... that is! But there are... striped and solid frames from which to choose... in a variety of shapes and sizes... sun glasses for men and women by Polaroid and Opti Ray.

"A stitch in time"... often saves the day! At The Notre Dame Pharmacy... a decorative metal pill box type case carries an emergency supply of sewing needs. Fits into the most discriminating purse. These are also available with a rain bonnet... or a zipper pull... one opens to hold four pictures. A dollar buys a lot of convenience. Here's a little gift with a built in travel bonus.

"See how the flowers, as at parade... under their colors stand displayed"... notes Andrew Marvell. Hope your garden is as well disciplined. Grosse Pointe Supply has excellent aids for just such a task. Plastic hoses... shears... Sunbeam Sprinklers that run about ten dollars... a fan shaped spray nozzle for two dollars... also... fertilizer and Rose Dust... to give your green thumb... a helping hand.

Take a notion! You'll find some of the best gift ideas for the hostess at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop... including cards, wrappings, novelties (with a humorous bent). Entertaining ideas and aids for indoor... outdoor living. A totally feminine nature will relish a remembrance from Jacobson's woman's world of delicate lingerie and lovely scents. All... say thank you in the nicest way possible.

Driver Finds Double Trouble

William Albrecht, 18, of 336 Merrivewether, had four stitches put in his left hand at Cottage Hospital on Saturday, July 12, after an accident at Chalfonte and Calvin roads.

The youth was given two tickets by Farms police, one for driving while his license was revoked, and the other for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

Albrecht was driving his car on Chalfonte when he lost control and rammed into a parked car belonging to Joseph Pitroliere of 751 Manistique, Detroit, which was parked at the curb near Calvin. Damage to both cars amounted to about $150 each. Both vehicles had to be towed to a service station.

The young man told police that his steering wheel had not responded to his touch before the accident happened. Police checked the wheel and found nothing amiss.

Albrecht is scheduled for an August 6 court hearing.
