A HILLSDALE COLLEGE freshman halfback, bitter over a childish prank, picked up a shotgun early Wednesday and clubbed to death his sleeping roommate—a boy whom he'd regarded as a brother.

Patrick J. Flannery, 18, turned himself into Police Headquarters in Detroit early Wednesday morning, with the confession, "You'd better arrest me. I did something bad."

The victim, 21-year-old Thomas Neitling, was a junior, from Tecumseh. His "pal", Flannery was a model student both in his first year of college and according to his high school record.

RAIDERS FROM THE POLICE Department and Prosecutor's office Wednesday arrested six men accused of passing football cards through a lunch catering service. Five others were sought!

As drivers for the Lunch Time Factory Caterers, 8504 Joseph Campau, Hamtramck, two of the arrested men were able to pass the cards in 45 Detroit-area factories.

Police estimate the weekly gross at $1,000. They said the group used four different syndicate cards: the E2 Pickin, Big Ten, Touchdown, and Coast to Coast. The ring was open only on Mondays, when the drivers dispensed their football cards with hot lunches, and Fridays and Saturday mornings when they picked up stubs and money.

TRANS WORLD AIRLINES turned down a union's strike-gutting offer Wednesday, and Teamster boss James R. Hoffa took a hand in the Nation's other major air walkout.

The twin strikes against TWA and Eastern Air Lines appeared certain to last through the Thanksgiving holiday season, when an estimated 150,000 Americans had planned to travel by air. Airline sources figured one third of the Nation's domestic airliners were grounded.

James R. Hoffa, controversial leader of the Teamster's Union, revealed the teams are giving the Eastern engineers "moral and financial help in their disputes". A promise has been given that Teamster-driven trucks would not cross union picket lines to deliver gasoline to Eastern planes.

RUSSIA SAID THURSDAY it wants to turn West Berlin into a demilitarized free city next year. It proposed six months of negotiations to arrange the switch.

The Soviet notified the United States that the Russians regard the Big Four occupation agreements of 1944-45 as null and void. It offered the free-city plan as a substitute on a take-it-or-leave-it basis, suggesting that UN observers keep watch after the troops pull out.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said this is not an ultimatum. But Russia will press for liquidation of "that cancerous tumor that is West Berlin," regardless of the West's reaction, he said.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, an H-bomb-carrying missile has been raised into firing position within range of Moscow. The missile, an American-made 1,500-mile, 55-ton Thor, is one of a reported 60 being handed over to the British Royal Air Force.

Only by accident did the European missile era open on Thanksgiving Day. A general date of late November or early December was picked as earliest possible when Britain and America signed the missile agreement last February.

The missiles will be manned 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Within a year the Americans' job of training the RAF crews is expected to be finished and a small group will remain permanently to handle the warheads.

Santa Claus Arrives on Christmas Street in 'The Village'

Snow flurries heralded the arrival of Santa Claus in "The Village" last Friday. In a traditional "White Christmas" atmosphere he greeted the children beneath the snow encrusted branches of a thirty-five foot tree, located on the corner of Kercheval and St. Clair. He then took part in a tree lighting ceremony that officially opened Christmas Street.

Farms Solons Adjust 'Hill' Lot Parking

Abolish 10-Hour Parking Limit In Third Row; New Strip Still Free

The 10-hour parking limit in the third row of the Municipal Parking lot at the rear of the Kercheval business district was abolished by the Farms council on Monday, December 1, and will cease to exist as soon as the meters are adjusted.

Acting on a recommendation made by Police Chief James Furton, the council approved limiting parking in the third row to two hours, or fraction thereof, the same as the first two rows.

The fourth and fifth rows will remain unchanged, the council ruled, as will the free parking in the new lot at the rear of the Muir road property line.

New Lot Helps

In a survey made by his department, Chief Furton said that parking problems around the Kercheval business district have been relieved remarkably because of the new lot. All day parking on the streets around the district, including Muir and McMillan roads, and Hall place, have become almost non-existent, he said.

He pointed out that the use of the new lot has increased considerably from week to week, and is being filled daily by about 40 cars, with more on weekends.

Outdoor Yule Decorations To Be Subject of Lecture At Memorial Center Dec. 10

All Residents Urged to Take Part in Annual Campaign To Make Pointe Decorative During Approaching Holidays

It may be a jolly Santa in the window, a shining star, a tree of light and shadow, an unusual swag, a gossamer angel or a welcoming doorway, but together they express the joy, the beauty and the spiritual significance of the great Christian festival throughout the community.

That every home may become a part of "Christmas Outdoors," the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council is presenting a program on Christmas decorations at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road, on Wednesday, December 10, at 2 o'clock. There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited.

Get New Ideas

New ideas and different uses for old ornaments and lights will be suggested by the colored slides, recently prepared by Westinghouse, which show the outdoor displays of homes in many parts of the country.

Miss Mary Taepke, of Detroit Edison, will present the film and give a demonstration of the effects which can be produced by colored bulbs and flood lights. There will be a display of the newest lighting equipment as well as an opportunity for questions.

This lecture is part of the effort of the Council to preserve the true spirit of Christmas in Pointe lighting and decorations, stressing the possibilities of lovely and appropriate effects without great expense and with simplicity and restraint.

To preserve the special beauty of outdoor decorations, this year the tours will be made with cameras and flash bulbs. Several men in the (Continued on Page 2)

Drinking Driver Pays $100 Fine

Irvin Jackson Davis, of 1344 Alter road, Detroit, was arrested by City police last Tuesday, November 25, at 1:30 in the morning as he was weaving his way eastward, along Mack avenue, between Rivard and Washington.

Police officers arrested him on a Drunk Motor Law charge. They locked him up for the remainder of the night and held him for $100 cash bond.

Later that same day, in the evening's session of Traffic Court, Judge Joseph P. Uvick tried Davis on the intoxicated driving charge—to which the defendant pled guilty—and fined him $100 or thirty days in the Wayne County jail. Davis chose to pay the fine.

Detroit Pair Sentenced For Robbery of Park Bar

Two Detroit men, charged by Park police with breaking and entering in the night time and larceny from a building, were sentenced from two to four years in the State Prison of Southern Michigan (Jackson) on Monday, November 24.

The two were convicted on the second count, larceny from a building, after being found guilty of burglarizing Verdonck's Bar, Mack and Beaconsfield, and taking about $740 in cash and approximately $402 in liquor from the place on May 18 of this year.

Convicted were Gerald Kimbal, 27, of 12213 Stringham; and David Dunningan, 25, of 14488 Faircrest, both of whom were sentenced by Wayne Circuit Judge Frank Fitzgerald, after pleading guilty to the second count.

Kimbal and Dunningan were seen by the bar owner, Maurice Verdonck of 1491 Beaconsfield, as they were loading cases of liquor into their car shortly after Verdonck closed his place.

Verdonck was relaxing in his home at about 5:15 a.m. on May 18, when he heard voices near his bar. He looked out the window and saw the men loading the whiskey from the bar into their automobile.

The bar owner ran out of the house, and as he approached the bar, the two men drove away, but Verdonck gave chase on foot and noted the license number, and gave it to police.

A Capella Choir To Give Concert

The 125-member Grosse Pointe High School A Capella Choir, directed by John E. Finch, will give a Christmas concert in the sanctuary of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, December 7.

The concert will be part of the weekly Sunday program of the Tuxis Club of the Church. Preceding the concert a worship service will be led by Remington Purdy, Jr., president of the club, and Virginia Pear, secretary. Members of the Tuxis Club, their parents, and friends are invited to attend.

The choir will sing the following selections: "Gloria to God in the Highest," "O Tannenbaum," "Jesus Was Born Long Ago," "Christmas Snows of Sweden," "Song of Christmas," and "Silent Night."

Grosse Pointe Book Shop open every evening until 9:00, except Saturdays.

Men's Night In 'Village' This Monday

Stores Ready to Provide Service to Estimated 10,000 Men Shoppers

Santa got an assist from a little cerebral palsy victim, Lawrence Scola, ten years of age of 744 Neff road, when he lit the 'Village' Christmas tree.

Lawrence was selected to light the tree, November 28 as Santa's official welcome. This was a day for Lawrence and all the other children, who greeted Santa on the corner of Kercheval and St. Clair. The activities in "The Village" began on a happy note.

The next important date for the men, December 8, Monday, will mark the thirteenth annual Men's Night. Men only is the rule from 7 to 10 p.m. The three-block shopping district, Neff to Cadieux will be roped off and the leading auto manufacturers will display their gleaming products in beautiful settings.

Ten thousand men are expected to turn out for this popular event. Merchants have stocked and staffed their stores and have provided lovely gift wrappings to help make the shopping chore a breeze for the menfolk.

Refreshments are planned as part of the festivities. The old German band will be there to provide gay music and the Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus, outfitted in bright red scarves will carol through the stores "to help keep the spirits bright."

11th Polio Case Reported Here

The 11th and quite possibly last case of polio this season was reported in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Health District last week.

Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner, says the cold weather should put an end to infantile paralysis for this year.

The 11th victim was a two-year-old girl whose parents live in the Farms.

The total number of cases in the district last year was seven.

BEER STOLEN

Fred Wissman of 211 Ridgemont, informed Farms police on Thursday, November 27, that two cases of beer were stolen from his garage. He said that the door was closed, but not locked.

Park Okays Plans To Extend Dock at Beach Breakwater

Project to Start in March and Will Cost an Estimated $135,000 to Be Paid For From Improvement Reserve Fund

Final plans and specifications for a proposed extension to the breakwater in the Park's waterfront park, will be completed early in January, after which bids for work on the project will be asked for, it was disclosed by City Manager Robert Slone.

The city council recently approved the project and authorized the request for the bids.

The extension will be 449 feet long and will be connected at a right angle, west, to the existing pier which extends 700 feet into Lake St. Clair, and which was constructed in 1954.

Similar Construction

The new section will be built similar to that of the 1954 section, Mr. Slone said. There will be two rows of steel piling 15 feet apart, which will be tied with steel crossbars and walers, with the center filled with earth and capped with bituminous concrete.

The new breakwater will cost an estimated $135,000, and will be financed on a "pay as you go" plan with monies from the Improvement Reserve Fund, the city manager said. He stressed that there will be no bonds issued for the project.

Once the bids have been awarded, Mr. Slone said, work on the construction will be started during the latter part of March and if all goes according to schedule, the work will be completed in July.

Third Step in Plan

This project is the third step in the over-all plan for the development of the lake and river area of the park, the first being the 1954 breakwater, and the second, the swimming pool improvements.

"The coming project should be considered primarily as a protection for the investment that the city now has at the waterfront park, from ice damage and also to prevent the high waves from filling the area, particularly the swimming area, with debris," Mr. Slone pointed out.

Plan Safe Harbor

He also said that the new extension will make it possible for the city to have a safe harbor, which has become essential with the growing interest in boating and boating facilities throughout the United States.

Future plans call for the building of boat wells and boat ties, for about 313 boats of all sizes, Mr. Slone said. What makes this possible is the fact that the Park has one of the finest waterfront locations, being at the head of the Detroit River and the entrance of Lake St. Clair, he said.

TACHOMETER STOLEN

Russell M. Sutton of 530 Notre Dame, disclosed the theft of a tachometer from his car, to Woods police on Wednesday, November 26. He said the car was in the Woods Theater parking lot at the time. The item is valued at $47.

Community Chorus Ready For Yule Concert Sunday

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, under the direction of Donald W. Simmons, will display the talents and efforts of many people of varied interests and vocations this Sunday, December 7.

The chorus, which will present its sixth annual Christmas concert at 3:30 in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, is composed of members of the Grosse Pointe community from all walks of life.

This group of housewives, teachers, students, doctors, engineers, lawyers, business men and women have been rehearsing since early September for this performance.

Included in the program will be a varied selection of choral music ranging from

Woods Home Visited By $25,000 Fire

Spontaneous Combustion Believed to Have Ignited Materials in Basement

Woods firemen battled a three-hour fire at the $50,000 home of the Peter Tocco, 19974 E. Doyle place, on Tuesday, November 25, bringing it under control within an hour.

The fire, which originated in the basement, is believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion of piled up materials in a section of the basement. Damage to the house was set at about $25,000, according to an official report.

It was a full five hours before the firefighters and equipment returned to the station, and another hour and a half before the fire trucks and equipment were cleaned and restored to peak, ready for any other emergencies.

Child Evacuated

The alarm was given by Mrs. James Balames of 19986 E. Doyle place, at 3:48 p.m., after Mrs. Josephine Juliana, 40, a maid in the Tocco household, took Tocco's four children to the Balames house. The children are, Sam, 10; Grace, seven; John, five; and Thomasina, three.

Mrs. Juliana herded the children out of their home when the building began to fill with smoke.

Parked Car Hit By Snow Plow

The current cold spell spelled trouble for one local City employee. It was at the peak of the freeze, last Sunday morning, November 30, when Valere Van Damme, who lives at 848 St. Clair, was driving a City-owned snow plow through the streets.

He was headed west on Jefferson avenue, between Rivard and University, when the plow suddenly hit a manhole, hidden by the snow. The jolt caused the machine to skid and, out of control, Van Damme slid into a parked car, owned by Donald A. Blomquist, of 1210 Hampton road.

The 1954 Ford Tudor was creased in the left side, but the City was covered by insurance and all will be taken care of—with no thanks to Old Man Winter.

Extension Of Nine-Mill Levy Okayed

Overwhelming Majority of 5 to 1 Gives Board of Education Five Years More of Uncurtailled Program

Electors of the Pointe School District approved a five-year extension of the nine-mill school tax levy by a 5 to 1 majority at an election held on Tuesday, December 2.

When the ballots were counted, an overwhelming vote gave the Grosse Pointe Board of Education the authority it needed to levy the tax to carry on the operation of the School System, termed one of the finest in the country.

A total of 4,274 votes were cast in 10 precincts, of which 3,545, or 82.9 percent, favored the extension, and 714, or 16.7 percent were against. Only 15 ballots were marked as spoiled.

This is the way the votes ran in each of the precincts, located in the System's elementary schools:

Trombly—yes, 221; no, 67; Defer—yes, 264; no, 66; Marie—yes, 335; no, 84; Richard—yes, 426; no, 83; Kerby—yes, 538; no, 106; Ferry—yes, 364; no, 81; Mason—yes, 406; no, 61; Monteith—yes, 430; no, 61; Poupard—yes, 313; no, 42; and Barnes—yes, 248; no, 63.

In March 1957, almost 6,000 voters approved a four-mill levy, part of the nine mills, for a two-year period. The vote then was 3,425 for the four mills, and 2,274 against.

Armed with the authority given it by the people on Tuesday, the School Board can carry on its fine educational program without any curtailment.

Convict Drunk Driver in Park

Philip Glass, 37, of 2158 Bewick, Detroit, was found guilty of driving while under the influence of alcohol and ordered to pay a fine of $85, or face 15 days in the Wayne County Jail, following a hearing before Park Judge Joseph Belanger on Monday, December 1.

Glass was arrested after running through a red light at Jefferson and Maryland, a few hours before the hearing. The more serious charge was imposed when it was found he had been drinking.

The convicted motorist paid the fine. He also gave up his driver's license for a period of six months.

Cosmetic Firm Offices Robbed

An employee at Beauty Counsellors, Inc., located at 17108 Mack avenue, phoned City police Wednesday morning November 26, to report that the building had been broken into and pilfered.

Joseph Warrick, maintenance man at the executive offices of the cosmetic firm, told police that when he arrived for work at 6:45 a.m. Wednesday he discovered the rear window on the eastern side of the building's porch, had been smashed. A hole had been punched into the storm window, near the door's lock, which enabled the thief to gain entrance to the offices.

Police officers investigating, found burned matches all over the floor. Every office in the building had been completely ransacked and the coke and candy vending machines had both been broken into and relieved of their cash contents.

Although no cash was taken from the offices, following an inventory by the company, the following articles were reported missing: a portable typewriter, valued at $100; a dictaphone, valued at $425; a polaroid Land camera, which sells for $145; and an automatic griddle, valued at $27.95.

The building was checked for fingerprints and an investigation is currently underway to determine the whereabouts of the missing items—and their new owner.

Name Community Chairmen For 1959 March of Dimes

The appointment of community chairmen to head the expanded March of Dimes campaign in the five Grosse Pointes, next January, has been announced by Mrs. Henry Reynolds, of Kenwood court, who will handle publicity for the entire Pointe area.

This season's drive has been expanded to cover, in addition to the usual aid to polio, arthritis and birth defects. At the same time, the organization will enlarge its basic research program in virus diseases and disorders of the central nervous system. Consequently, the call for generous contributions to the March of Dimes is more urgent than ever.

The National Foundation stresses that the new health program has increased meaning for residents of communities such as this throughout the country. Approximately 11,000,000 people suffer from arthritis and rheumatism — and an additional 250,000 infants are born every year with birth defects, (congenital malformations).

Basil O'Connor, chairman of the National Foundation, adds "These are major threats to the health of our people. Although the causes are largely unknown today, there is real hope that a well-directed and well-sponsored research program can begin to put together the missing parts of these long-standing mysteries.

"The experience and medical skill required in our battle with polio can be used with equal impact in these new fields. I'm sure that the citizens of America will feel an increased desire to support the March of Dimes next January. We have had the taste of success before and now all of us are moving on toward greater victories."

On the local scene, Community Director for Grosse Pointe Park will be Mrs. A. Marvin Atkins and assisting in that community, as chairman of the Mothers' March, will be Mrs. Robert Roth. In the City of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Phillip Koerner will be community director.

$25,000 Fire

The director said that the fire apparently started in a store room at the rear of the basement, where piled up carpeting, old clothes and Christmas decorations were kept, and which were found smoldering.

Hampered By Smoke
Water poured on the smoking materials, but because of the density of the smoke, the fire was not discovered immediately.

When some of the smoke cleared, it was found that the fire had already taken hold of the basement ceiling rafters, then traveled along the rafters to the front and rear of the house.

As the firemen battled the fire, the flooring began to blaze. The fire ate through the flooring, shot up through the walls and up to the attic.

It took an hour to bring the fire under control, and in three hours it was out, but the firefighters remained at the scene another two hours, searching for smoldering material to make sure the fire would not start up again.

Tocco is a co-owner of a fish and poultry market at 13235 Mack avenue.

Chorus

Paul Sexauer is acting as assistant concert chairman. Joan Steiner designed the striking program cover and Patricia Simmons is handling publicity. Miss Steiner is also in charge of the traditional reception for conductor, chorus members and audience, to follow the concert. She will be assisted by ladies of the chorus and members of Girl Scout Troop 888, of Brownell Junior High School, under the leadership of Sue (Mrs. Jerry) Hughes.

Ushers for the concert are members of the Grosse Pointe High School "Y" Teen groups. Founded in 1953 by Malcolm MacLean Johns, former conductor, and his wife, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus has presented two concerts annually since that time. This is Mr. Simmons' second year as conductor. The group is co-sponsored by its board of directors and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education Department of Community Services, Forrest Geary, director.

Tickets for the concert are available at the Grosse Pointe Book Store, 19459 Mack Avenue, and from members of the chorus. They will also be available at the box office on Sunday, but due to a sell-out at last year's concert, when some had to be turned away, it is urged that tickets be obtained beforehand. For further information, call TU. 4-5964.

Decorations

(Continued from Page 1) community will take pictures of fine displays—both simple and elaborate—both by day and at night. From these colored slides a lecture will be prepared for future use.

Will Welcome Slides

The Council will also welcome slides taken by any interested residents which are sent to them and accepted as good examples of decorative displays. Cost of these slides will be paid by the Council. Among the men who have consented to assist in these "Screen Tours" are Edgar Hahn, Fred Slocum, Donald C. Stevenson, Jerry Dewhurst, Dr. Richard Fear, Ben Beyer, Jr., Paul Guhl and Gaylord Hulbert. Details of the tours and picture requirements are now being worked out.

Robert Orr, Director of the Grosse Pointe Libraries, is again cooperating with the Garden Club Council in having displays in the three libraries of material on Outdoor Christmas Decorations, as well as timely and helpful clippings for reference.

Invitations to the lecture on Wednesday at the War Memorial have been received by the many organizations and churches in the Pointe. Mrs. H. Ray Will, Council President, will be on hand with a cordial greeting, assisted by several of the Garden Club members who are busily working on the "Christmas Outdoors" project.

Among these hostesses will be Mrs. Frederick Schumann, Mrs. Bert Lindzey, Mrs. Clarence Maguire, Miss Christine Edwards, Mrs. Glenn Gessell, Mrs. Hurst Montee, Mrs. P. K. Coe and Mrs. Taylor Seebor.

Pair Sentenced

The convicted men were also involved in 24 other bar burglaries and one furniture store in the Detroit area, from January to the time of their arrest. They netted $18,300 in cash and other loot during this time.

Lot Parking

In his report to City Manager Sidney Deboer, before the issue was given to the council, Chief Furton said the changing of the parking limit in the third row, will create an additional row for "short time shoppers," who are forced to park in the last two rows, when the first three are filled.

Will Equalize Lanes

"It should be noted," he said in his report, that if the change is made, when a car drives into the first lane from the alley it can be parked either to the right or left for two hours at a rate of five cents an hour. At the present time, if the cars are parked to the left, the fee is five cents an hour; and on the right, five cents for two hours.

Cadillac

Even Newer from Behind the Wheel!

"Odds are you've seen the new 1959 Cadillac by now—perhaps sweeping regally past you on the boulevard... perhaps making its majestic arrival at a fine club or hotel. And odds are, too, that you've wondered if this 1959 "car of cars" could be as superlative in performance as it is in appearance.

Well, once you've found out for yourself, we think the truth will very likely amaze you. For this Cadillac is even newer from behind the wheel!

You will sense it, in fact, the moment you hear the whisper-quiet response of its great new engine.

And your sentiment will grow to conviction as you discover the other wonders of Cadillac's new performance... responsiveness so immediate and so silken in every driving range that it is difficult to believe

... handling ease so remarkable that you follow the curves and corners with the lightest imaginable movement of hand and wheel

... a quality of ride so smooth and level and quiet that even the byways travel like boulevards.

Indeed, the evidence will be overwhelming—a journey at its wheel is the world's most glorious interval between start and stop.

And the proof of all this is no farther away than your nearest authorized Cadillac dealer.

He'll be delighted to make you his guest—to explain the virtues of each of Cadillac's thirteen new Fleetwood-crafted models, including the fabulous new Eldorado Brougham—and to let you take the wheel for yourself.

Evening Devoted to Skiing To Be Conducted at Center

A gala evening devoted to everything about skiing will take place at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Wednesday night, December 10, at 8 o'clock. Because space is limited, it is advised that tickets be picked up in advance at the Center. (They are only 50 cents.)

Fred Pessl's excellent color film "Skiing in the Canadian Rockies" will be shown. Everyone who skis in this area and for that matter anywhere on the Continent knows the Pessls and their explorer son, Skip.

The film was taken around the Yo-Ho Valley Camp in British Columbia which is west and north of Banff. You fly to Calgary, take a train and then have a full day's trip on skis to get there. The Pessls who have skied everywhere in this country and abroad say this location has the finest powdery snow and longest runs of just about any place in the world.

The party pictured at Yo-Ho Valley was headed by European Guide, Hans Gmoser and his assistant, included besides Mr. and Mrs. Pessl, Senior, were son Skip and his wife, the former Ann Higbie; Skip's Dartmouth friend, John Dinan from Bloomfield; and Pete and Sue Parrish from Kalamazoo.

Completing the party were Canadian skiers and two German girls Renata and Sigfried who were earning their way around all the out of the way spots of the world (even including Tibet.) These twenty year-old beauties served as the camp's cooks.

The film shows these top-notch skiers in action in some of the most beautiful scenery in the Canadian Rockies. It shows life around the camp and the fun of outdoor parties.

Introducing the film, giving instructional comments and holding a ski clinic afterward will be Wayne Mallory, Ostego Ski Club's popular young senior ski instructor.

To make the evening complete there will be a complete fashion show and display of the latest in ski garb and equipment for both men and women, including some very glamorous "after the slopes" outfits.

'Terry' Right at Home

The Adolph J. Jansen family, at 1944 Severn road, is housing an unusual "pet" in the familiar form of a grey squirrel. Their son, Richard, found the animal last August, when just a baby. He was hovering at the base of a tree near the Jansen residence, apparently unable to climb. A few feet away, in the middle of the street, lay his mother—dead from a passing car. The Jansens took the orphan into their home, named him "TERRY," and started him on his present diet of nuts and milk (the latter he prefers to drink from a cup in a sitting position.) Terry is now quite at home, both with the family and their friends, preferring to rest on a human shoulder rather than the limb of any tree.

Ferry Students Learn About Science

Sixth grade students at Ferry School have been studying the universe in recent weeks as part of their regular course of study in science. To aid them in their search for knowledge a number of resource persons from without the school system have responded to an invitation to come and talk with the class about areas in which they are especially qualified.

The most recent visitor and guest lecturer in Mrs. Mary Jane Better's class was Arthur Sherman, Jr. He brought several ship's sextants with him and explained their use to the keenly interested students. Some insight was gained from this discussion into the intricacies of charting a course or establishing one's position in an unknown environment such as at sea or out in space. Mr. Sherman of Hawthorne road is a member of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron and is associated with Sherman Laboratories.

Other parents who have taken part in this study of the universe are G. Edward Trevasakis of Anita road and Robert F. Weber of Lakeshore drive, both of whom met with the class last week.

Mr. Trevasakis gave an overview of the field of astronomy. He discussed it from a historical standpoint and also its value as a hobby. Mr. Trevasakis, Dean of Engineering at the Detroit College of Applied Science, emphasized that an understanding and appreciation of science was becoming increasingly important to upcoming generations.

Mr. Weber projected a number of colored slides picturing many of the military installations he recently visited as a guest of the Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces. Prominent in the pictures were many of the great variety of guided missiles in use and under development by all branches of our military services.

Farms Rebates Gas Co. Taxes

The Farms council approved a tax rebate to the Michigan Consolidated Gas company, in compliance with a ruling made by the Michigan State Tax Commission that was rendered on November 18.

At a regular council meeting held on Monday, December 1, the council ordered $1,532.38 refunded to the utility firm.

City Clerk Dawson Nacy informed the council that he had been advised by the Commission that the 1958 personal property tax placed against the gas company was reduced by the Commission from $704,710 to $652,490, making the reduction in the assessment of $82,220.

He said that the gas firm paid the 1958 city tax based on the higher assessment, and according to the ruling, was entitled to the refund.

The company pays personal taxes on its gas mains located underground within the city's jurisdiction, the city clerk said.

All of these topics were closely associated with the students' lively interest in inter-planetary travel and their general curiosity about the universe. This sort of teamwork between home, community, and school insures that all resources are utilized to create the best possible learning situation at every opportunity.

Canterbury Club To Hear Pelham

Director of Christian Social Relations for the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, the Rev. J. A. Pelham will be guest preacher at the Canterbury Youth Service Sunday, December 7, at Christ Church, 7 p.m.

He will describe the social ministry of the church and illustrate how it is carried out in the Diocese of Michigan.

Two Ticketed In 3-Car Crash

Two drivers were ticketed by Farms police following a three-car collision on Moross at Beaupre on Thursday, November 27.

Tagged were Michael Haskyns, 17, of 1804 Kenmore, who was charged with pulling into moving traffic and causing an accident; and William Braybrook, 67, of 500 Lake Shore road, who is accused of not having his car under control.

Haskyns, a police report revealed, was pulling his car away from the curb on Moross, and was hit in the right side by Braybrook, who was driving south.

Braybrook was forced over the white center line and into the path of a vehicle driven by James T. Cole, 16, of 18061 Maddelin, Detroit, who was headed north.

Court date was scheduled for December 17. Police estimated damage to the three cars at about $100 each. No one was injured.

A little push performs more miracles than any amount of pull.

Drive carefully—an accident could make your vacation permanent.

Farms Council Promotes Two Policemen, Fireman

The Farms council on Monday, December 1, approved the promotion of three veterans in city service, and the hiring of one man as a replacement.

Promoted were two men in the Police Department, and one in the Fire Department. The replacement is a police recruit. The promotions were made effective as of midnight Monday.

Elevated from sergeant to lieutenant, to be second in command in the Police Department, was Vernon Sylvester, 40, of 296 Chalfonte, who has been with the department since March 23, 1946, and a sergeant since May 16, 1952.

Lt. Sylvester, a 1936 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, is a Navy veteran of World War II, serving from February 1944 to January 1946, with service in the South Pacific and Caribbean. He was discharged with the rating of machinist mate second class.

The new lieutenant fills the vacancy left when Chief James Furton became head of the department on the retirement of Chief Walter Hoyt on October 21.

Lt. Sylvester is married to the former Katherine Miller of Detroit. The couple have two children, Thomas, 11, and Cynthia, who is eight years old.

Filling the post vacated by Lt. Sylvester, is Alfred J. Martin, 35, of 23047 Englehardt, St. Clair Shores, who started with the department on August 6, 1951.

Sgt. Martin is a 1941 graduate of Sacred Heart High School in Dearborn, and a veteran of World War II, seeing service in Europe with the First Special Service Force, infantry paratroopers of Americans and Canadians.

He entered the Armed Forces in 1942 and was discharged as a sergeant in 1945.

He is married to the former Ann Dooley of the Farms. They are the parents of three children, Patricia Ann, five; Dennis, three; and Timothy, two.

The replacement for Sgt. Martin is Charles Bingham, 24, of 30105 Elm Grove, St. Clair Shores, one-time All-State basketball star of Lake Shore High School in St. Clair Shores.

Shoreman Bingham, whose police duties will start Saturday, December 6, was graduated from the high school in June 1953, and was an All-State star for two successive years.

He saw service with the Army's 82nd Airborne Division from May 23, 1954 to May 23, 1956, after which he was discharged with the rating of corporal.

The Fire Department promotion was given to Michael C. Beaupre, 39, of 22729 Carolina, St. Clair Shores, who joined that department on July 5, 1946.

He graduated from St. Paul

INJURED IN FALL

Mrs. Hulda Borgerdine of 2088 Anita, was taken to St. John Hospital by Woods police on Friday, November 21, when she fell while shopping at a Mack avenue supermarket. She was treated for a back injury and head lacerations and released.

LARCENY REPORTED

Kenneth Walker, of 868 Nottingham, personally reported to Park police on Wednesday, November 19, that someone stole $100 worth of carpenter tools and a case from the trunk of his car, parked in front of his home. He said the trunk was not locked.

Library Lists Available Films

The following 16mm sound films will be available from the Grosse Pointe Library through December 29.

BEGONE DULL CARE (9 min., color).

This film is a lively interpretation, in fluid lines and color, of jazz played by the Oscar Peterson Trio. Painted directly on film, Evelyn Lambert and Norman McLaughlin have created a gay visual expression of the music.

LAND OF THE LONG DAY (38 min., color).

An Eskimo father and hunter describes life in the northernmost habitable area of Baffin Bay during the summer months when the sun never sets. Shows the breakup of the ice fields, summer migration, hunting of the seals which will provide food and clothing for winter months. The sun sets as winter approaches.

Child Behavior Subject of Talk

More than 50 of the church school teaching staff of Christ Episcopal Church heard Miss Doris Forsyth address them on the classroom behavior problems of children.

Miss Forsyth, Grosse Pointe public school system psychologist for the past 10 years, presented the volunteer teachers with a description of four basic psychological needs in a child's life: affection and understanding, recognition and status amongst other children, recognition and status for his own contributions to the group, and a value system to guide him in his behavior.

"Church workers have been pretty smart about children for a long time," she said. "They made use of general age groupings (primary, junior, etc.) long before we ever knew for sure about the soundness of such divisions."

"Also," she continued, church workers made use of little rewards such as ribbons with a cross attached or stars for good work by younger children.

The speaker commented on the value of religion, to which she gave an admittedly narrow definition, the purveyor of a sense of values as a force in the community creating happier and more efficient people through the realization of their "best potentiality".

She advised the teachers following their dinner meeting in the parish house during a question and answer period to be sure that limits for behavior were set in each class room early in the year. She suggested that when a problem child appeared in a Sunday School classroom it would be because the parents did not themselves come to church.

"What you do speaks ever so much more loudly than what you say," she remarked.

Community groups of a volunteer nature have an average of only 50 percent attendance, continued the speaker, "unless you feed them". The national average attendance of the church schools of the Episcopal Church approximates between 55 and 60 percent of enrollment. Christ Church average for November was reported at 75 percent.

The speaker concluded her remarks by advising teachers to recreate wherever possible in the classroom the spirit of the family.

The Rev. Richard Cockrell, assistant minister, spoke briefly to the teachers of the meaning of the Advent season using as the basis of his illustrated talk the prayer used on the first Sunday in Advent and daily until Christmas by the world-wide Anglican Communion.

Mrs. William Shoemaker presided at the meeting. The next meeting will be held January 5.

Policemen Take Training Course

Arnold F. Hough and Charles F. Wenrich, both of Grosse Pointe, recently completed the Police Command Officers Training Course at Michigan State University.

The week-long program was presented by the M.S.U. School of Police Administration and Public Safety, in request again from various law enforcement agencies. The course was designed to provide additional training for supervisory officers from police departments. Fifteen Michigan communities were represented in this recent class.

Subjects included leadership, motivation, administration of records and reports, discipline, public relations in law enforcement, police history and others.

Next in the series of in-service training courses offered by Michigan State University for police officers are the Traffic Law Enforcement Course Dec. 8-12 and the Basic Police Training Course Jan. 12-Feb. 6.

The number of M.D. degrees conferred by the University of Michigan passed the 10,000 mark this year.

Thief Invades Woods Home

Mrs. Betty Kileline, 54, of 1637 Newcastle, returned home on Wednesday, November 26, to find that her home had been thoroughly ransacked by a burglar.

Mrs. Kileline told Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian that she left her home about 10 a.m., and returned about 9:45 p.m., and discovered that someone had gone through all the upstairs bedrooms, ransacking dresser drawers, trunks and a cedar chest.

The woman told the officers that missing were two new tubeless tires, and $30 in cash. She did not say where the tires were kept at the time they were taken.

Warning Issued To Non-Voters

There is a ruling in Michigan which calls for the suspension or cancellation of an elector's registration, i.e. loss of one's voting rights, if the elector has failed to vote within the preceding two or four year period (as the case may be), prior to the month of December each year.

In Grosse Pointe, the local governing boards have determined that the requirement of voting at least every two years shall prevail. Therefore, all electors who have failed to exercise this precious prerogative, and done their duty as citizens, will be notified of the pending cancellation of their registration, according to state law.

The negligent elector may retain his voting privilege and apply for a continuation or registration by signing and returning the card provided for this purpose, (to be sent through the mails), to his local City Clerk.

Several hundred such notice of cancellation cards have been sent to electors in the five Grosse Pointe municipalities who have neglected to cast a ballot during the past two years. Failure to respond to these warnings will result in loss of the voting privilege in the elections of February and April, 1959, and at the City's local election next November.

Registration of electors for voting at all municipal and school elections is continuous in Grosse Pointe, and may be effected daily during office hours in all five of the local City Clerk's offices — except during the 30-day period prior to the date of any election.

Red-Faced and Sorry

Our face is as red as Santa Claus' suit. We hope we didn't send too many voters rushing to the polls on Monday, when the school election wasn't scheduled until Tuesday. Our lead story on page one last week was about the school election. We had the date right, but the eight-column banner said the election was to be held Monday.

We don't know how we became confused, unless it was the fact that for many years school elections were always held on Mondays. The switch to Tuesday is a recent one.

The only bright spot in the mix-up was the conclusive evidence we received on the reader interest in our paper. The phones in the News office, and at the Board of Education Building jangled continuously for days after the story appeared.

We're very sorry and hope we didn't inconvenience too many people. We especially hope we didn't keep anyone from going to the polls on Tuesday and casting their vote in this important election.

The Stampitis Epidemic

At the risk of incurring the wrath of the philatelic set, we have a suggestion for Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, who is constantly demanding more money to run his Post Office Department.

We are entirely in sympathy with the idea of more money for the postal employees, and certainly for better service. We went along without a murmur when the postal rates were raised this year, hopefully believing that this would cure the ills about which the public and Mr. Summerfield have complained for such a long time. Now we are advised that another hike is needed and there is talk of a five-cent charge for first class letters, and other increases along the line.

The suggestion we have for Mr. Summerfield has to do with a saving which could be made in the operation of his own department. It might not amount to much, but it would certainly be a step in the right direction. Let's cut down on the ridiculously large number of special issue stamps.

Our own mail is flooded with releases from the Post Office Department. These of course, carry no postage, but must constitute a considerable burden for the poor postman who has to deliver them. They cost money to print and wages for the preparation and handling before they ever get into the mails.

An amazingly large number of these releases have to do with the announcement of special stamp issues to be brought out. As an example, the latest one tells us that a soil-conservation 4-cent stamp will be used next August 26 at Rapid City, S. D., when the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America will be held. There will be 120 million of these stamps. There have been five conservation stamps previously issued, between May 5, 1956 and October 27 last, featuring wild turkeys, pronghorn antelopes, king salmon, whooping cranes and forests.

We haven't a thing in the world against conservation. In fact we are all for it, especially when it comes to conserving federal funds for which we are all taxed. We couldn't guess the cost of bringing out a special stamp issue, but it must be considerable when we consider paying an artist to make the drawing, then creating the special plates and the additional mechanical processes involved.

There have always been a certain number of special issues, but since the days of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, an avid philatelist himself, the thing has gotten beyond all reason. There are so many issues we have to look four times to determine whether we are using an American stamp or a foreign one, and to find out its denomination. Remember the old days when about the only stamps in existence were the red two-cent and the green one-cent? Now the colors, pictures and even sizes change so rapidly it is difficult to keep up with them.

Just the other day some joker put a Gold Bell gift stamp on a letter and mailed it. It reached its destination promptly. Even the postal employees didn't note the difference, and we can't blame them. Let's cut the confusion and get on with some real conservation.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"She was a phantom of delight
When first she gleamed upon my sight;
A lovely apparition, sent
To be a moment's ornament;
Her eyes as stars of twilight fair,
Like twilight's, too, her dusky hair,
But all things else about her drawn
From May-time and the cheerful dawn."
(William Wordsworth)

Wise Man

A local man ran into a seventy-year-old neighbor of his down in "The Village." The old man was in the process of buying a football. To make conversation, our hero said: "Ah, Christmas shopping for the grandchildren, eh?" The old man replied: "No, this is for my wife." Thinking he had now heard everything, but unable to resist it, the young man asked: "You mean you are giving your 68-year-old wife a football? What on earth does she use it for?" Said the old guy, "For exchanging... that's what she does every year... exchanges whatever I give her, so for the last five years I've given her a football. Makes it easy."

Frugality

A little weazened character who had just been given some Christmas money, decided to treat himself to a decent meal, so he chose a nice looking restaurant where (as it turned out) the menu was strictly table d'hôte. For those of you not as up on your French as WE are (??) that means you eat what they got on the dinner... or else.

The little man was somewhat disappointed because he hated to waste any of the food, yet didn't wish to have to pay for what he didn't eat. Since soup was one of the things he DIDN'T want... he called the waiter over and asked: "Look, mister... instead of me eating this here soup, could I maybe make a free phone call?"

Queens and Queens

A group of fancy Grosse Pointers were seated about the drawing room of a local dowager's house, having afternoon tiffin... when the equally fancy butler entered the room and after coughing discreetly, (in the Arthur Treacher manner, to attract attention) he announced grandly to his mistress: "Beg pardon Ma'm, but Queen Mary is calling you on the telephone!"

The impressed guests sat open mouthed while Madame raced from the room to take the call. Naturally everyone had a question mark on her face when Mi'Lady returned... so she HAD to explain that the call was from friends who were ON the "Queen Mary" returning from England and just wanted to chat!

Futute Diplomatic Material

A seventeen-year-old boy we know, was asked, (nicely, we might add), by his Dad one day last week to please help him shovel some snow off the walks about the house. The kid replied: "I'm awfully sorry Dad. I can't do that because I'm in training for football." (He ought to be in training for the hairbrush department on the dairy-air!)

Proletariat

A G. P. gent and his wife were invited to a chic house recently for a venison dinner. Neither of them cared for venison, but the Mrs. wasn't passing up the chance to go to a social gathering, so in spite of her husband's yowling objections, she accepted the invitation... suggesting to her spouse that he could just skip eating that part of the dinner or try a small piece to be polite.

He was polite all right. Just before dinner was announced, he excused himself on the premise that he had left something in the car and would be right back. He returned when the dinner was near over, saying he had left the lights on and found the battery dead and since it was cold, etc., he thought he ought to do something about the car. He was very sorry... and "No, please do not go to any trouble for me... I'm not hungry anyway." Later, his wife told a friend that what he had REALLY done was to get in his car and go to Cunningham's drugstore to have a ham sandwich and a banana split... while his less fortunate dinner companions suffered through the venison!

Red, Anyone?

One of our New York spies tells this true story about a shop on Madison avenue that specializes in blouses and monograms. It seems our gal was in the shop when this all happened. A so-so looking woman came in and after much haggling, bought a so-so blouse. She decided she'd have it monogrammed and while our spy hopped from one foot to the other waiting for this character to choose the right monogram... she finally heard her say, "Ah, this is JUST the thing!" (Spy peeked over the woman's shoulder to see what took all the time. It was a simple tailored monogram with a small dot under the last initial, to emphasize it).

Another fifteen minutes went on discussing what color the monogram should be in order to compliment the blouse. Whatever color it was that was finally decided, our gal heard the shop owner say: "I think the DOT should be in red." The woman buyer looked and looked and thought and thought and finally said: "Noooo, I don't look good in red so I don't wear it anymore!" (Mind you, this is a dot about the size of a bee-bee shot. The now exasperated sales girl made such a to-do as to WHY shouldn't that small dot be red... that the lady buyer asked: "You LIKE red don't you? WHY?" "BECAUSE"... shouted the frenzied owner: "THAT'S THE COLOR OF MY BLOOD!"

The above reminds us of a funny story concerning one of our local shop owners which we will print next week. THIS one is REALLY a doozie! See you then and Merry Christmas shopping.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

We made the rounds of the library staff recently to put the question, "What books are you giving for Christmas?" The consensus seemed to be that you give the books you yourself would like to receive. If the traditional behavior of birds of a feather may be relied upon, perhaps this is a fair measuring stick. Here are a few suggestions you might consider as you do your Christmas buying.

Everyone on the staff who had read it, including the writer, felt that THE UGLY AMERICAN by William J. Lederer and Eugene Burdick should be required reading, not only in Washington, but in all parts of the United States of America. Through the medium of fiction, two competent story tellers write an absorbing indictment of America's role in Southeast Asia. The stories tell of the apathy, the lack of understanding, and the dearth of interest in the natives, by visiting VIPs and of the disastrous mistakes of well-intentioned people. They make a gripping, if disturbing narrative. There are stories that tell also of the courageous but lonely battle waged by the occasional American with a seeing eye and understanding heart.

Ostensibly fiction, all of the stories are based on fact, and every situation can be paralleled, it is believed, in reality. William Lederer, a naval officer who has spent much time in Southeast Asia, has written of his career in the navy in two earlier books, ALL THE SHIPS AT SEA and ENSIGN O'TOOLE AND ME. This is his first book of fiction.

Eugene Burdick's NINTH WAVE was a Book of the Month Club selection in 1956. A teacher of political theory at the University of California, his experiences have been many and have varied from a bean hoer and truck driver to a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford. Another book to make us

Clogged Screen Fills House with Smoke

A houseful of smoke prompted Mrs. John V. Redfield to summon the Grosse Pointe City firemen, who responded to the call for help with both trucks, on Sunday evening, November 30, at 6:26 o'clock. The equipment was rushed to the Redfield residence, 305 Lincoln road, where a chimney was issuing forth great clouds of smoke. Fire fighters quickly determined the trouble spot to be the screen at the top of the chimney stack. Used to filter large pieces of burned debris (and to keep the squirrels out!), it was clogged, causing the smoke to back down into the house.

Firemen raised a 25-foot ladder and climbed to the roof, where they removed the faulty screen. Mrs. Redfield was cautioned not to use the fireplace again until she had replaced the screen.

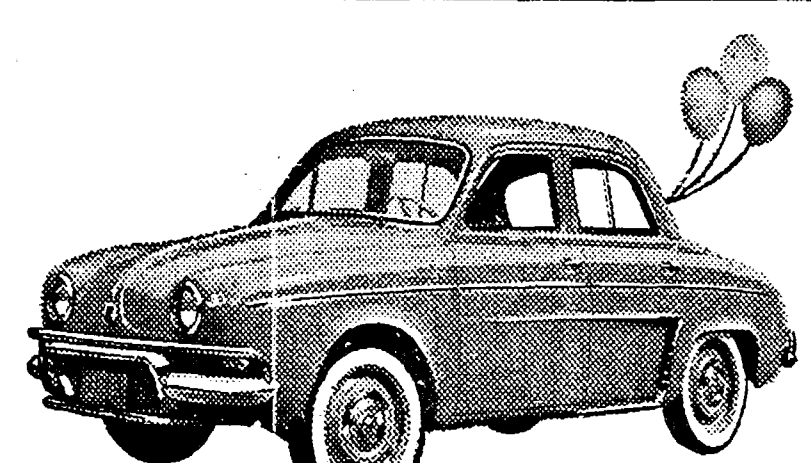

Children in eastern cities used to celebrate Thanksgiving by parading through the streets in costumes, begging from passers-by.

"What Can I Do About This Pain?"

by Fred Kopp, R.Ph.

Customers often ask questions like this. And every year we sell perhaps a ton of pain relievers. That's the point. We can sell simple analgesics, but we can't prescribe drugs to eliminate the cause of pain. Diagnosing and prescribing are in your physician's province. We, as professional pharmacists, work with doctors, providing the drugs they order. So, if you have any kind of a persistent pain, see your physician. We shall be pleased to provide any medication which may be prescribed.

Gardeners Plan Yule Workshop

In keeping with the program to beautify Grosse Pointe for the Christmas season, the Grosse Pointe Shores branch of National Farm and Garden is having a Christmas workshop where members will make decorations for their homes.

Guest artist will be Mrs. Herman Keuster, member of the St. Clair Shores Branch.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. S. Walker, of Village Lane. Co-hostess is Mrs. C. E. Maguire.

Optimist Wives Meet at Center

Perhaps few have heard of a group of eleven women called the Opti-Mrs. Club of Grosse Pointe, wives of the Optimists of Grosse Pointe.

The second Tuesday of each month this group meets for dinner at the War Memorial with the Optimist Club and then meets separately in one of the parlors.

In addition to sponsoring a crippled child at Grace Bentley Camp each year a very worthwhile project has been undertaken by this small group.

Each month they supply a Ward at Children's Hospital with trays, favors, candy and window decorations appropriate to the holiday of that month. Mrs. Marvin Boutin took care of the Thanksgiving project.

Mrs. E. Hobbs, Mrs. P. Coristan and Mrs. William Kopp are making plans for Christmas. Supplementing trays and favors the group will see that the children have appropriate toys as well as a practical gift.

The demand for commercially prepared foods has grown tremendously during recent years. Fifty years ago, for example, much of our bread was baked at home, but today 95 percent of all bread eaten in America is made by bakers and sold in food stores.

John Barbirolli Will Conduct

Sir John Barbirolli, celebrated conductor of the Halle Orchestra of Manchester, England, will guest conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday at 8:30 p.m. and Friday at 2 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

The program will be orchestral featuring Bruckner's Symphony No. 4 ("Romantic") in E flat major, Arnold's Tam O'Shanter Overture, and Elgar's Variations on an Original Theme ("Enigma.")

Barbirolli became conductor of the New York Philharmonic in 1936 following the resignation of the late Arturo Toscanini. He continued in this post until 1943 when he returned to his native England to head the historic Halle Orchestra.

Knighted in 1949, Sir John has declined many offers to remain with the Halle Orchestra. Under his guidance it has become the premiere orchestra of England, celebrating its 100th season in 1957.

On Sunday, December 14, at 3:30 p.m., the Detroit Symphony will present a Family Concert in cooperation with the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit. Valtor Poble will conduct with 14-year-old pianist, Lorin Hollander, as soloist.

Hollander will play the Saint-Saens Concerto No. 2 in G minor. The program will feature a narrator and trio from the Girl Scouts in the first Detroit performance of William Grant Still's "The Little Song that Wanted to be a Symphony."

Also programmed are Meyerbeer's Coronation March from "The Prophet," J. Strauss from "The Prophet," J. Strauss' Overture to "Die Fledermaus," and "Roses from the South," and the march from Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6 ("Pathétique.")

Ford Museum Offers Exhibit on Christmas

The Henry Ford Museum's Eighth Annual Christmas exhibit, "Home for Christmas," will open on Saturday, December 6, and continue through the holidays.

The theme stems from the preparations by a nineteenth century household to observe Christmas Day, the day that united a family from near and far.

Symbolizing the theme, a horse and sleigh stands in the center, ready to take the married children back home for the biggest day of the year.

The activities to be shown in the exhibit closely resemble those that would take place today.

Decorating the house was first. This portion will include glass ornaments and a nineteenth century Christmas tree complete with cranberries, popcorn strings, hand-blown ornaments, candles and other oldtime trimmings.

Cleaning the house—a necessary step to get ready for this season—will include such household objects as the newly invented vacuum cleaner, washbasins and ice box.

The additional cooking and baking which mom had to do at this season will be shown through nineteenth century kitchen utensils and will include a live baking demonstration of holiday cookies by Mrs. Bertha Finger, supervisor of food production at Clinton Inn, on an old-fashioned stove.

Gifts for father, mother and the children will comprise the largest section of the exhibit.

Serving the dinner will be represented by a Victorian table set in holiday fashion while another section shows entertainment facilities of the period, including music boxes, phonographs and magic lanterns.

Christmas cards make up the last section, and besides old-fashioned greeting cards includes such writing equipment as a portable desk, ceramic and glass ink bottles, quill pens and cutters and wax seals.

The new Undergraduate Library at the University of Michigan accommodates 2,000 readers.

G.P.U.S. News Notes

Big news at Grosse Pointe University School this week was the Father-Son Banquet, at which letter-winners from the Midget squad through the Varsity received their awards.

The coaches all spoke, and the special speaker of the evening was Judge John Watts, of Detroit. An innovation of this year was the showing of movie highlights from the G.P.U.S. games rather than having films of college games. The personal interest of the audience in what they were seeing made the project a distinct success.

Under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Munger and Mr. David Arner, with Mrs. Horstense Robinson as accompanist, the 7th and 8th graders presented a very successful operetta on Friday night, November 21, at the G.P.U.S. auditorium called "The Singing Freshman." Important roles were played by Wendell Goddard, Rickey Peterson, Doug Stair, John Ehrlich, Mark Matthews, Otis McKinley, Bill Rembacki, Bayard Blessing, Robert Portenga, Jon Cavallo, Harry Garland, Bill Semple, Jeff Seyler, Meg VanDeGraaf, Star Langston, Danielle Harris, Karen Bambas, and Linda Lott. The "Coeds" were Linda Perkins, Sharon Lightbody, Wynne Hutchinson, Susie Boone and Sallie Waterman.

The role of Movies, slides and other visual aids in the school life of G.P.U.S. is a substantial one. Generally their use is on an individual class basis, with a teacher present to guide the class by a preliminary discussion and by questions afterwards. Subjects range from English and French to elementary science through chemistry and physics and include driver training and art. On November 21, the audio-visual Department presented for the whole Upper School the "You are There" movie version of "The Death of Socrates." Also there are monthly showings of the current events movies circulated by "The Detroit News."

Glynn Conley, co-captain of team, was named this week on "The Detroit Times" All-Suburban football team. Glynn plays fullback. Glynn has also been named All-State fullback for class C-D high schools.

Attending the annual meeting of the National Council of the Teachers of English in Pittsburgh, Pa., this weekend will be Miss Clare Lockhart and Mr. Donald Roberts.

The nursery school fathers at Grosse Pointe University School turned out in full force with their children, Saturday, November 15 at 9 a.m., to experience a morning of nursery school. Fathers took charge of the workbench, learned from the children how to make dough, finger paint, blot paint, potato print, listened to stories and played games. Fathers had a coffee break at 11 o'clock ending the morning.

Most of the fathers commented to Mrs. Bacon that they were interested that the children were learning through play not only how to get along with one another, but how to channel their negative feelings in constructive action.

On Wednesday, November 19, Mrs. Bacon conducted a workshop on science experiments for young children with parents from the Christ Church Cooperative Nursery School. A variety of experiments were placed on seven tables so that the parents could actually experience science at the nursery school level.

They made tarts, chemical gardens, prepared different materials for bird feeders; experimented with sprouting of seeds, magnets, magnifying glasses, floating and sinking, using objects in a bowl of water; learned how to present shapes such as rounds and

A delegation of students from Grosse Pointe University School took part in the Lake Erie Religious Conference, held November 21-23 Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills. 62 students from eight schools in the Lake Erie area —Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Akron, and Detroit—were present.

The speaker, Dr. Reuel Howe, author of "Man's Need and God's Action," discussed man's loneliness and need for love. He said that an understanding of love and discipline is only possible with an understanding of the relationship between God and man.

Pointe Colony Meets Dec. 9

Members of Grosse Pointe Colony, National Society of New England Women, will stage their annual Kurn Hattin "Green" tea on Tuesday, December 9, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Detroit Historical Museum, on Woodward avenue at Kirby West.

This is their main fund-raising effort for the National Society's chief project. Kurn Hattin is an orphan home and school for boys and girls, in southern Vermont. It was adopted as the Society's Golden Anniversary project 14 years ago, because the home became 50 years of age the same year that the society did. It was so well-liked as a national project, that it has remained so ever since.

Among Pointers assisting with the tea are: Mrs. Richard W. Allen, of Cranford lane, past president; Mrs. Wilfred J. Campbell, of Fisher road; Mrs. Willis E. Chapman, of Bishop road; Mrs. Ralph R. Ranney, of Fisher road; Mrs. George Hendrie Savage, of Lakepointe; Mrs. John P. Thomas, of Washington road; Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, of Grand Marais boulevard; Mrs. Edward D. Trowbridge, of Bishop road, past president, who will pour; Mrs. Robert Hale Peterson, of Rivard boulevard, and others. Guests are welcome.

Xmas Seal Sale Gets Under Way

The 52nd annual Christmas Seal Sale opened in Detroit and Wayne County on Nov. 14. William E. Shane, chairman of the campaign, announced Tuesday. The campaign continues to the end of the year.

Christmas Seal letters will be in over 530,000 homes in the drive to raise funds which are the only support of the tuberculosis control programs of the Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

"Great strides have been made in the fight against TB since the first Christmas Seals were sold. But the saving of lives is not enough," Mr. Shane said. "The time has come to move from the defensive to the offensive in the fight against the disease."

In Wayne County more than 3,000 are hit by the illness each year. Approximately 250,000 Americans are stricken with TB annually.

The gay looking 1958 Christmas Seals feature a little boy and girl putting "Christmas Greetings" in scrawled letters on a black board. Traditionally, the price of seals, one cent each, has not been raised in 52 years. Since the value of the penny has gone down considerably since 1904, to tempt people to buy twice as many seals, the 1958 design covers two seals, although a single seal is a complete picture.

Nationally, the campaign was also opened Nov. 14 by 3,000 local members of the National Tuberculosis Association. The Christmas Seal Sale is the oldest fund-raising campaign of any national health agency.

Begun in 1907 in Delaware in an effort to raise $300 to keep a tiny tuberculosis hospital open, the sale of Christmas Seals to fight tuberculosis has become an international plan. Nearly every country of the world uses the method to raise the funds for the fight against TB. Today the local associations in this country raise $28,000,000 to carry on the voluntary TB control programs.

In Detroit and Wayne County the funds aid in the support of free chest X-ray services at mobile clinics in home neighborhoods and purchase X-ray equipment.

Christmas Seal money sends 500 children, mostly from homes where TB has struck, to the Christmas Seal Camp at North Lake for a month each year.

Tuberculin tests for school children are provided in part, by Christmas Seal funds and part by public tax monies.

Trained social workers are maintained at Herman Kiefer Hospital by the Society to aid patients with personal and family problems ranging from care of children to obtaining financial assistance for their families.

Much attention is being paid to and many Christmas Seal dollars spent on medical research in an effort to discover better drugs for the treatment of TB, rapid methods of identifying the disease, and, eventually, a vaccine, which will prevent TB entirely. In spite of being one of man's oldest known illnesses, science has not yet discovered a positive way to prevent it.

A large part of the Christmas Seal dollars goes to educational programs with children and adults as a preventive to catching TB.

Ninety per cent of the money raised remains in Michigan with 10 per cent going to the support of the services and research of the National TB Association.

Fabulous Collection of Art Being Shown at Institute

The Detroit Institute of Arts is presenting the largest and most valuable exhibition over to be organized here from November 18 through January 4.

"Decorative Arts of the Italian Renaissance, 1400-1600" has been in the process of arrangement for more than two years and is made possible by the extraordinary generosity of European and American museums and private collectors, most of whose treasures have never been loaned before.

This exhibition will be seen nowhere else in the world, nor has its counterpart ever been assembled.

What ordinarily conservative museum authorities call with confidence: "fabulous treasures from the most luxurious age of art," the collection has grown to some 450 pieces since it was first publicly announced last summer. The value is in excess of four million dollars.

Although the Detroit Institute of Arts is a City of Detroit institution, this exhibition will be presented without city funds and there will be no admission charge. It has been made possible through the Eleanor Clay Ford Fund for Special Exhibitions, set up by Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, member of the Arts Commission of the City of Detroit. It is the first special exhibition to be financed by the Ford Fund.

His Excellency Manlio Brosio, Italian Ambassador, and Mrs. Brosio will be guests of honor at a dinner for civic and museum dignitaries Monday evening, November 17, and a reception and preview for members of the Detroit Museum of Art Founders Society will follow at 9 o'clock that evening. (The Founders Society is the organization which contributes nearly half the funds for the Institute's support and provides for new acquisitions and educational services.)

Doors opened at 1 o'clock Tuesday, November 18, and the display of treasures from the "Golden Age of Italian Art" will be on view during museum hours through January 4.

Conducted tours of the exhibition will be held at 2 o'clock on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons.

John Pope-Hennessy, Keeper of Sculpture and Architecture of the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, Eng., will appear on the Institute's Lecture Series speaking on "Masterpieces of Bronze Sculpture," Tuesday, November 25, at 8:20 o'clock in the Lecture Hall.

Mr. Pope-Hennessy is one of the world-renowned authorities on the Renaissance who has aided in assembling this glittering collection. He is one of three European curators who will accompany their museum's choicest treasures to Detroit. The others are: Mr. Hubert Landia, Chief Curator, Louvre Museum, Paris; and Dr. Guglielmo Triches of the Ministry of Public Instruction, Rome. Many American Curators also will personally safeguard the transport of their priceless objects to Detroit.

The historical background of the objects to be shown in Detroit is almost as fascinating as are the pieces of rare metal, fine woods, textiles and ceramics themselves. Lists of background reading material on the days of the Medicis, the Borgias, of Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Raphael, Benvenuto Cellini have been prepared by public libraries.

The consultative committee whose members assisted Chief Curator Paul L. Grigaut in selection of material for this exhibit include most of the top authorities in the world on this period. Mr. Grigaut traveled to twenty-one major cities in Europe and to numerous American museums and private collections to secure items for display.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

One of the most glamorous dances of the holiday season, December 13, benefits St. John Hospital. The White Christmas Ball at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club is always a lavishly decorated affair, as are the guests in their most attractive ball gowns.

Mrs. Claude A. Greiner and Mrs. Hamilton F. Kotcher are general chairmen for this December gala and they promise the club will be festooned with garlands of greens and gold ribbons. Tiny Italian lights will twinkle while dinner is served beneath a canopy of gold and white, afloat with Christmas angels. Each table will be centered with gold and white poinsettias and Yule tapers.

Funds raised from this annual benefit are earmarked this year for an isotope machine. Improvement and expansion of the hospital to serve more patients is the aim for the coming year.

Serving on the ball committee are Mrs. Karl K. Weber, Mrs. Eugene F. McCafferty, Mrs. Ralph Burke, Mrs. Arthur D. Kerwin, Mrs. Eugene L. Freitas, Mrs. George E. Fritz, Mrs. John P. Ottaway and Mrs. Joseph VandeWeghe. Mrs. Cyril Lund is head of the Fontbonne Auxiliary which sponsors the ball.

More On Yule Dance

The most important dance date on the post debutante holiday calendar is always the Yule dance, this year set for December 20 from 10 until 2 at the Country Club.

Jack Qualey will play, the Grunions will sing and proceeds will fill the Yule Scholarship coffers, for Michigan boys. Murray Dodge is chairman of the dance with Benjamin G. Chapman III, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parsons, Reginald Weller, B. Courtney Rankin, William Y. Gard, Mr. and Mrs. John D. McLeod and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson, Jr. assisting.

John B. Ford, III is president of the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan with Wendell C. Goddard and Lee H. Allen, vice-presidents. Also on the board are Mr. Hudson and Alan E. Bodyscombe.

Warning Issued By Draft Board

Selective Service registration is a continuing requirement for all young men as they reach 18 years of age, it has been announced by Carl Schweikart, chairman of Local Board No. 87 for Wayne County.

Young men are required to register for the draft within five days after reaching their 18th birthday. Registration may be accomplished at any Local Board office. Men who are away from their homes on their 18th birthday may go to any Local Board in the area where they are located and register for Selective Service.

The draft board chairman emphasized that all registrants give their proper residence address at the time of registration. This residence address determines the Local Board that will always have jurisdiction over the registrant's draft classification.

Members of reserve components of the armed forces, including the National Guard, are required to register. Only persons on active duty in the armed forces are not required to register. They must register within 30 days following separation from service, however, if born after August 30, 1922, and not previously registered.

At the time of registration each youth will receive a registration certificate which he is required to have in his personal possession at all times. If this certificate is lost or destroyed, a duplicate may be applied for at the Local Board office. Failure to comply with the Selective Service registration requirement may result in prosecutive action by the United States Department of Justice.

Wayne County residents register at 1050 West Fort street, Detroit. Office hours: 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Although we use our eyes every day, few of us realize how complex and wonderful they really are. Our eyes control 80 per cent of our actions, are responsible for 83 per cent of our learning, yet seeing consumes only 25 per cent of the energy our bodies generate.

Expanded Facilities Ready For Winter Sports Crowd

A new recreation area and improvements and expansions approximating a quarter of a million dollars to existing facilities will be available to winter sports enthusiasts in West Michigan during the 1958-59 snow fun season.

The new winter sports center, increasing the West Michigan total to a record 24, is Nub's Nob, located five miles northeast of Harbor Springs.

Features of the new area, which represents an initial investment of approximately $150,000, will include four ski runs, ranging up to 4,500 feet, double chair lift and chalet with accommodations for 48 skiers.

Other improvements in the popular 31-county winter sports section, according to a survey by West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association, include new skier lifts, additional ski runs, expanded sleeping, eating and parking accommodations and enlarged snow machine coverage.

Boyer Mountain Lodge in Boyne Falls, one of the top 10 ski resorts in North America, has completed the largest expansion project in the West Michigan area. The Mountain's $125,000 program included installation of a 2,250-foot double-chair lift, longest in the Midwest, expansion of its snow machine to cover two-thirds of its ski area and lengthening of T-bar and J-bar lifts.

The Mountain chair lift, with a carrying capacity of more than 800 skiers per hour, is the third lift of its kind at the popular winter resort.

Caberfae, west of Cadillac, the Midwest's largest and most diversified ski area, spent $60,000 for the approaching season to expand its snow machine, cafeteria and rental shop, to widen runs and construct a new 250-car parking lot.

Harbor Highlands near Harbor Springs will complete an $80,000 lodge for the 1958-59 season. Lodge improvements since last season total approximately $35,000.

Avalanche at Boyne City will have a new Pomalift in operation for the coming season. The $20,000 expansion program at Avalanche also includes a new ski slope and expanded beginners' area.

The Manistee Ski Area will have a new parking area and has added pine paneling to the interior of its two-story lodge and widened several runs.

Holiday Hills near Traverse City has completed installation of a snow machine, relocated and improved two rope tows and refurbished its rental shop.

Ice skating will be added to the winter sports menu of Newaygo Winter Sports Park, which previously has featured tobogganing and skiing, with a

Land Cruisers Seen in Future

Vacationing Americans within the next half century may travel in a huge "land cruiser" complete with television sets and facilities for eating and sleeping.

While the automotive industry is a long way from building such a vehicle, "we certainly have to consider it as a possibility," said George W. Walker, Ford Motor Company vice president and director of styling.

"This multiple-passenger cruiser probably would be as large as a bus—maybe larger," Walker told the Utah Automobile Dealers Association in Salt Lake City. He said such a vehicle might be designed principally for long-distance travel at speeds that are "unthinkable" today, depending on technological advances and highway improvements.

"We're not thinking of today, tomorrow, or even 10 years from now," he said. "We are thinking of something that might be a common sight on our highways 30, 35 or even 40 years from now."

As for the appearance of the average American automobile in the years to come, Walker said:

"The shape of cars to come will continue to depend largely on public tastes, and changes in these tastes obviously will exert considerable influence on the automotive stylist."

Other factors, he said, include the rapid growth of our cities; the move to the suburbs; the need for cars capable of moving large numbers of people independently from one area to another; projected improvements in highway facilities; and the need for cars able to travel at high speeds, safely, over great distances, and with enough flexibility to maneuver in congested areas.

Postal Service Speedup Started

"Moving today's mail today for delivery tomorrow—a postal promise on the way to fulfillment." This was the comment of Detroit's Postmaster Edward L. Baker as he announced the new Detroit Metropolitan Mail Service Plan.

The plan, which was inaugurated on October 20, is designed to guarantee next morning delivery for any first-class mail deposited before 5 p.m. in nine counties in the Detroit Metropolitan Area. The nine counties included are: Genesee, Lapeer, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne.

To the people of Detroit this means guaranteed delivery next morning for any first-class mail deposited up to 5 p.m. addressed for delivery in 158 postoffices of various sizes in the nine-county area.

Marines Collect Toys for Needy Children

Signals are being called by Tobin Rote, on the opening play of the 1958 "Toys for Tots" campaign, sponsored by the United States Marine Corps Reserve in conjunction with the Shell Oil company.

On hand to help the two "Leathernecks" score a "Touchdown," are three popular mainstays of the World Champion Detroit Lions football team, Tobin Rote, Joe Schmidt and Jim Martin. All three of these gridiron stalwarts urge their many fans and friends to give the 5th Infantry Battalion, United States Marine Corps Reserve, an assist in their drive to bring the "Spirit of Noel" into the homes of thousands of less fortunate children.

Although "Toys for Tots" is a nationwide campaign of the United States Marine Corps Reserve, with 269 ground and air reserve units participating, each campaign is local in conception, scope and direction. In the Greater Detroit suburban area marked barrels will be located at neighborhood Shell Oil stations for the convenience of donors. Toys will be picked up by members of the 5th Infantry Battalion taken to the Brodhead Naval armory, wrapped and given to the various welfare agencies for distribution. Financial contributions cannot be accepted.

Persons desiring to donate large amounts of toys or large cumbersome articles can arrange for a home pick-up by calling the Marine Reserves at LOrain 7-0 7.

REPORTS LARCENY

William C. Hunter of 1103 Berkshire, reported the theft of a tire and wheel from the trunk of his car, and six packs of cigarets and four magnifying glasses from the car seat sometime during the night of Sunday, November 30. Park police recorded the complaint.

In 1922, the first balloon tires were introduced on U. S. cars. The tire and tube industry in 1957 increased its investment in newspaper advertising by 39 per cent over the previous year.

Snow Increases Driving Danger

Police officials were reminded by the recent snowfall to offer a few pointers to motorists on the art of safe winter driving.

"After all, it will get worse later on and many people have the idea that accidents which occur when roads are slippery are caused entirely by the ice or snow," they said. "But this is not the case at all: slippery roads do contribute to the factors which cause accidents, but most often, it's the driver's inability to cope with hazardous conditions that leads to an accident. They offered several suggestions for a successful approach to the problem of dangerous snow-ice driving conditions:

A motorist's judgment and coordination are basic qualifications for sizing up a potential danger and acting to avoid it. For example, one situation may call for slowing down and steering around it, or coming to a complete stop.

An important factor in safe driving is the prompt, sure response of the vehicle itself. A turn of the steering wheel should result instantly in the desired change in the direction of the vehicle's movement. A touch of the brake pedal must reduce the speed of the vehicle or bring it to a complete stop, with no related loss of control, particularly on slippery road surfaces.

A factor which becomes increasingly important during hazardous winter driving is traction — the ability of the wheels to grip the roads in order to get the vehicle moving, to slow or stop it, and to keep it moving in the desired direction. "Without good traction, a driver's judgment and coordination, and the steering wheel and brakes of his car mean very little. This is particularly true when he is traveling on ice or snow."

"Poor traction is a most common cause of accidents during the winter months," he said. "The National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards has conducted tests on winter road surfaces with all types of commonly used equipment, which revealed the facts about stop-and-go ability. Pertinent findings follow: Some snow tires help with 51 per cent better pulling traction on loosely packed snow, but sometimes this is not enough when snow is deep or where hills are fairly steep. In such cases reinforced tire chains may be needed. Tests show they help with 313 per cent better traction than regular tires on snow, and are four times as good on ice.

"Stopping ability research proved that a car traveling 20 miles an hour, and equipped with regular tires, could be stopped in 21 feet on dry pavement, but a distance of 60 feet or more was required to stop the same car on loosely packed snow and nearly 200 feet on glare ice."

Hundreds of tests conducted by the committee have shown that snow tires will need about 174 feet on glare ice and 52 feet on snow to stop a car. Reinforced tire chains cut the braking distance on ice to 77 feet, and to 38 feet on snow. All tests were made at speeds of 20 miles per hour.

These facts speak for themselves. "Drivers who have good judgment will use it to equip their vehicles for maximum safety early in the season." Extra caution and reduced speeds are still basic necessities for safe winter driving.

Students Hear Psychiatry Talk

By Cindy Lippincott
Journalism Student

"Eighty percent of the people treated for mental and emotional illness get better in a matter of months."

This statement was made to Mrs. Evelyn Westerville's effective living classes at Grosse Pointe High School by Dr. Clyde Simpson, head of the Children's Division at Lafayette Clinic and associate professor of psychiatry at Wayne State University.

Dr. Simpson visited the classes on November 17 to speak about "The Changes in Psychiatry in the Last Forty Years in the United States." He brought out the fact that psychiatry is becoming increasingly concerned with learning about the treatment of both emotionally and neurologically caused illnesses. The latter is a mental condition resulting from an injury to the brain.

Lafayette Clinic was also a main topic in Dr. Simpson's speech. It is a center for the treatment of emotionally and mentally disturbed, for research in this field, and for training of future psychiatrists and social workers.

He explained the type of program Lafayette Clinic and others like it employ for children. He said that hospitalization there today is like being in a general hospital instead of an institution with a "barred window" effect.

The children at the clinic are given as near normal a life as is possible for them to have. They have a full schedule school program, take care of their own rooms, are offered a recreational program, have a fine gymnasium, and many of them spend their weekends at home.

Dr. Simpson's background as a psychiatrist dates back to before the war, when he established the Child Guidance Center in Kalamazoo. After serving the Navy as a psychiatrist in World War II, he became head of the guidance center of Children's Hospital in Dayton, Ohio.

Dr. Simpson received his training at the University of Buffalo in Buffalo, N.Y., and later was an instructor of psychiatry at the same place. He is the holder of a Rockefeller Fellowship at the George Baker Guidance Center in Boston.

P.O. Offering Yule Advice

Santa Claus will soon be around with his gifts and good wishes. But along with his loads of good cheer he will bring disappointments also.

This is because people's accomplishments are sometimes not equal to their good intent. They shop diligently, spend lavishly, and remember everything. Then they promptly undo much of their fine work by careless packaging and improper addressing.

The value of items lost through inadequate preparation varies from a few pennies to hundreds of dollars. The value of the sentiment involved is beyond calculation.

What sorts of things do post offices find loose in the mails because of inadequate preparation or undeliverable and unreturnable because of inadequate address? Just about everything that can be sent through the mails: Matches, money, costume jewelry, medicines and vitamin pills, clothing, fancy work, hosiery, stationery, garden supplies, seeds, etc.

Occasionally, a lost item is delivered through a clue found inside the parcel. In most instances, however, neither the addressee nor the sender can be identified, so the lost item is held at the local post office for 60 days and then sent, to one of the 15 dead parcel post branches for disposal by auction. Recovery may be made by either sender or intended recipient, upon presentation of proper identification, at any time prior to the actual auction. This obviously does not include perishables, which must be disposed of promptly.

As in all other matters, a little bit of prevention is worth a great deal of cure. If Aunt Agnes puts your Christmas present or birthday present in a flimsy package or is careless with the address, either one of you can make recovery if you are aware of the loss. But why not start with a little better box, or a little better wrapping paper, or a little stronger twine, or a more complete and more accurate address.

Postmaster, Edward L. Baker, will be glad to give you free of charge a pamphlet prepared by the Post Office Department on good packaging and wrapping practices. And he will be glad for the opportunity to answer any other questions you may have about the mails. For further information on mailing problems, call Service and Information, WO 3-9330, Extension 201, 215, or 252.

Quality

TYPESETTERS
TO THE TRADE

There's a "point" of quality in the newspaper case that Abbe uses for its customers. If it's well-fitted and set to fit the form then you know that craftsmen have been a-working. The tempo of printing is not always judged by ink, presses and paper, but by that extra something that the artisan puts into his work. Newsprint needs quality craftsmen to dress it up and put extra life into your sales message. After all, almost all builders use bricks, lumber and stone, but it is unusual when two builders put that same "oomph" into the building. Abbe will put that "flare" into your newspaper, Mr. Publisher. So, why not call Abbe Press immediately?

St. James Church
Has Anniversary

Dr. Richard Caemmerer, St.
Louis, Missouri, will be the guest speaker at St. James Lutheran Church of Grosse Pointe, McMillan Road at Ker-cheval, on Sunday, December 7, when the congregation observes the 10th anniversary of the dedication of the church.

Professor of homiletics at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis,
Dr. Caemmerer will preach
the sermon at both Sunday services, 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., in the church of colonial design that has won acclaim as one of the finest forms of early American architecture in this part of the country.

The Rev. George E. Kurz, pastor of the congregation
since its founding 18 years ago, will conduct the anniversary services.

It was on Sunday, December
5, 1948, that St. James people, holding services in the Putsch and Judy theater, dedicated to the glory of God their "Monument of Gratitude," eight and a half years after the church regeneration was organized on April 30, 1940, with fourteen communicant members. Since the dedication the membership has tripled from about 250 to 750 communicants.

The anniversary committee is headed by A. T. Wilson, who was a member of the building fund committee that planned and raised the finances for building the church, which with recent additions is now valued at $415,000.

Laker Gridders
Receive Awards

Twenty five members of the 1958 St. Paul Laker football team received varsity letters at the annual Sports Night at the school, sponsored by the Dad's Club of St. Paul's School on Wednesday, December 3.

The Lakers had ten returning lettermen of which nine were seniors and one junior.
All repeated as letter winners.
Next years squad will have four juniors, nine sophomores and one freshman as a nucleus around which Coach Ed Lauer will build St. Paul's second class A team.

Coach Lauer pointed out that letters are not awarded just for football ability alone but for a boys contribution to the success of the team. This means attending practice regularly, proper training habits and the desire to play both on and off the field. Team work and cooperation with the coaches and members of the team is highly important.

The nine seniors to receive letters were: co-captains Fran LaBadie and Joe Lauer, Tom
Fudold, Bob Hall, Tim Hutton,
Jon Jantz, Dan Miller, Marty Peters and Pat Wright. The other letter winners were:
John Alter, Frank Cobb, Bud
Cornille, Glen Vross, Jeff Gentile, Steve Handlos, Fred
Kotcher, Tim LaBadie, Joe La-
Grosso, Ray Martin, Larry Rotole, Ted Trefzer, John Urso, Ken Wujek and student manager Frank Kotcher.

M. D. Campaign Gets Under Way

Spearheaded by the parents of muscular dystrophy victims, thousands of neighborhood volunteers are taking part in the eighth annual Muscular Dystrophy campaign which opened Tuesday and continues through December 15.

There are more than 200,000 victims throughout the United States and more than 250 here in the immediate area. Most of these are children between the ages of 3 and 13, children who may die unless science can trace the cause and bring about a cure.

Muscular Dystrophy is a mysterious disease which wastes the muscles and turns them into fat. No effective treatment is yet known.

The disease is a progressive one which eventually weakens and disables the victim to the point where a minor ailment,

BCL Coaches
To be Feted

Coaches of the six Border
Cities League schools, Grosse Pointe, Highland Park, Ford-son, Royal Oak Dondoro, Monroe and Wyandotte, will get together at the annual BCL coaches meeting to be held Thursday, December 11, at the Colonial House on Telegraph road.

Accompanying the coaches will be the school principals, superintendents and other school officials.

Program plans have not yet been formulated but usually follow the same pattern of a round table discussion at which time the coaches swap ideas and the athletic directors map plans for future athletic contests.

Basketball and Swimming Teams Launch New Season

The long winter basketball and swimming campaigns got underway this week.

Grosse Pointe University School and Austin set the pace with games on Tuesday, December 2. The Black Knights, playing an independent schedule opened against Lamphere on the GPUS court. Austin tackled non-league Servite the same day. Results of both contests were received too late to make the News deadline.

St. Paul, playing its first season in Class A competition in the East Side Parochial Division, jumps right into league action on Thursday, December 4, when it entertains St. Stanislaus.

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils will open their season on Friday, December 5, when they entertain non-league Dearborn and play hosts to non-league Pontiac Northern on Tuesday, December 9, before moving into Border Cities League play. The Devils are the defending BCL co-champions with Highland Park.

Coach Paul Wheeler's Blue Devil swimming team also will experience two non-league encounters before taking on its first league opponent. The Pointers first met a strong Birmingham squad in the local pool on Tuesday, December 2, and then will travel to Ann Arbor for a night meet on Friday, December 5. Fordson will be the first BCL team to test the Devils' bid for the league title.

Chapin Dog Wins Again

Mrs. Roy D. Chapin's national champion springer spaniel, "Staindrop Breckenridge Chip," retained her title at the National Championship trials held at Weldon Springs, Miss., on Sunday, November 23.

The four and a half year-old liver and white female is one of the few American-bred dogs to win the title.

Mary Baldwin Alumnae To Gather in Center

Alumnae of Mary Baldwin College, in Staunton, Vir., will gather at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center today, December 4, to hear the President of their alma mater, Dr. Samuel R. Spencer, Jr., speak about the development program of the college.

Mrs. William J. Scott, Jr., is in charge of arrangements for the luncheon-program, to begin at 1 p.m.

Seven Pointers Get Grid Honors

Seven Grosse Pointe area football players from Grosse Pointe High, Grosse Pointe University School and St. Paul were named to State, Suburban, City Parochial League teams over the past weekend.

Heading the list was Grosse Pointe High's outstanding 172-pound, 5-7 guard Mike Carrier who was named to the State Class A first team, the All-Suburban and the All-Border Cities League team. Carrier earned this multiple honor through his stellar play as an offensive guard and defensive linebacker. Although a bit small for the rugged Class A competition Carrier had a tremendous determination, desire and the willingness to give his all for his team. He was a team player first, last and always. It was his crisp blocking that paved the way for his teammate Ron Harper's long end runs that set up many a Blue Devil touchdown in a 7-1 winning season and the co-championship of the Border Cities League. Carrier never had a bad day during the 1958 campaign. Mike was named to the All-State second team in his Junior year and missed the first team selection only because it is the practice to name only seniors to the first team. He earned All-Suburban and Border Cities honors last year.

Also named to All-State honors was halfback Glynn Conley of Grosse Pointe University School who was selected on the Class C-D team. Conley also was named to the All (Independent) League team as a backfield man.

Halfback Joe Lauer of St. Paul was named to the All City Parochial League team and received honorable mention on the All-State Class A team.

Jon Jantz of St. Paul made the All City Parochial third team.

Blue Devil quarterback John Nicholson received All-State Class A honorable mention and was selected to the All Suburban second team and the Border Cities League first team.

Back Jack Pingel of GPUS received All-State honorable mention on the Class C-D team.

End Tim Hutton rounds out the list as an honorable mention winner on the All City Parochial League team.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

The Detroit Cruising Club will hold its annual election meeting on Wednesday, December 10, at Bayview Yacht Club. At that time the season winners in the three cruising classes will receive their trophies from retiring commodore Karl Ness.

Hot off Avery (Mr. Cruising Club) Macklem's tabulating machine are the 1958 winners. They are: Cruising A—"Last Straw," Clarence Baker-Jerry Clements, Detroit Yacht Club, 904; "Apache," Toot Gmeiner, Detroit Yacht Club, 900; "Revelry," Norman Sarns, Bayview Yacht Club, 853.

Cruising B—"Meteor III," Henry Burkard, Bayview Yacht Club, 1,000; "Fleetwood," Horace "Bob" Ford, Grosse Pointe Club, 874; "Vashiti," John Detwiler, Grosse Pointe Club, 836; "Bikini," Lilwyd Eccleston, Jr., Bayview Yacht Club, 831.

Cruising C—"Dauntless II," Thomas Hanson, Bayview Yacht Club, 933; "Happiness," Karl Ness, Bayview Yacht Club, 857; "Old Rarity," Susan Fisher, Grosse Pointe Club, 833; "Glory Bea II," James Carlin, Bayview Yacht Club, 826; "Albacore," Henry Dunlap, Bayview Yacht Club, 815; "Diane," Dr. Hugh Fuller, Detroit Boat Club, 778; "Balquhider," Dr. William Bremner, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, 777; "Grace Note," Kurt Keydel, Detroit Boat Club, 759; "Radiant," Gerd Schneider, Bayview Yacht Club, 744.

Vice Commodore Kurt Keydel will be unopposed for the Commodore post. Nominations for the 1959 vice commodore position have not yet been named.

Highlighting the entertainment will be the showing of the 1958 Bayview Yacht Club-Mackinac Island documentary color-sound movie produced by the BYC race committee with the cooperation of Fred Ford, Jr., Grosse Pointe's own naval architect, in the interest of Corinthian yachting.

This movie received wide acclaim from the audience which attended Bayview's annual Winner's Dinner on Saturday, November 29, and the BYC membership which saw it five nights later. The entire production was under Norman Werthmann, a member of the race committee.

The Detroit River Yachting Association will hold its annual election meeting at the Detroit Yacht Club on Friday, December 5, and will be under the direction of Commodore Paul Adam, of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, who will turn the gavel of office over to Vice Commodore John Detwiler, of the Grosse Pointe Club, who will assume the 1959 Commodore role following the business meeting and the election. Rear Commodore Arthur Rautenberg, of Crescent Sail Yacht Club, will move up and vacate the rear commodore post to the successful candidate, Commodore Robert L. Benkert of Bayview Yacht Club and Sydney Warner of the Detroit Yacht Club have been nominated to rear commodore. Delegates of the fifteen member clubs will participate in the balloting.

Len Bradley recently returned from a trip to England and gave us a copy of "Yachts and Yachting" magazine which he picked up for a shilling while there. It's published every fortnight.

The feature of this October 10 issue was Alf Loomis' account of the America's Cup races. It's well covered.

What gave us the biggest boot was the ads. For example: Caravel, 23 ft. x 18 ft. 6 in. x 3 ft. draft, three or four berth Bermudian sloop—1,075 pounds. Or Swordfish 15/157. Cover, bow buoyancy, first class order. Newly varnished. 200 pounds. Then there was a big job that advertised a Kelvin Ricardo petrol/paraffin motor. So what's a paraffin motor?

The opening phrase most often spoken on the telephone is credited to the man who gave us this instrument. Thomas A. Edison, when once asked "Are you ready to talk?" grabbed a receiver and shouted into the transmitter the historic first "hello." "Hello" has since followed the telephone into practically every civilized country.

G.M. PRODUCTION REPORT
General Motors produced 313,939 passenger cars and trucks in the United States and Canada during November, as compared with 356,951 during November, 1957. It was announced. Of the total vehicles produced by GM during November 269,947 were passenger cars and 43,992 were trucks.

debaker-Packard Corp. had plenty to be thankful for Thursday—the end of the first full-scale strike in Studebaker's 106-year history. Terms of the settlement of the four-day walkout will not be made public until a UAW ratification meeting Sunday, but both sides admitted they gave in a little on original demands.

THE AIR FORCE sent its Atlas ballistic missile roaring out over the Atlantic Friday night and there were strong indications it broke the intercontinental distance barrier of more than 6,000 miles.

These expectations were soon confirmed by J. V. Naish, president of Convair Division of General Dynamics Corp., builder of the Atlas, who issued the following statement: "There are no fundamental question marks left in the Atlas program. Today's flight demonstrated the range capabilities of today's Atlas."

The Air Force has attempted only once before to fire the Atlas its full range. That attempt, Sept. 18, failed 80 seconds after takeoff.

LORD MAYOR Willy Brandt won firm backing Friday from Western leaders in his fight against the Soviet attempt to turn West Berlin into an unarmored neutral city.

Diplomatic reports pouring into West Berlin indicated the United States, Britain and France would reject the Russian maneuver. U.S. congressmen visiting the isolated city, assured the mayor of staunch American support. And Vice President Nixon, in Britain, sent assurances of U. S. backing.

Meanwhile, Russian diplomatic officials in East Berlin let it be known that a serious situation would confront West Berlin if the so-called free-city plan is rejected.

The government reported Friday that the employment rise which began in midsummer continued through autumn. It said the upswing was expected to last until the end of this year.

Six major areas were dropped from the Labor Department's "substantial labor surplus" list of unemployment centers, reducing the total to its lowest level since March.

TWO OF THE big holdouts from a national merger of the old AFL and CIO three years ago will capitulate Friday in Detroit, 365 days behind schedule.

Slated to join forces at a two-day merger convention are the Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor and the Wayne County CIO Council. The merged organization will have a potential membership of more than 500,000 rank and file members of AFL and CIO locals in Wayne County.

The merger was to have been sealed within two years of the national AFL-CIO merger, but disputes over job rights, between AFL and CIO locals in the Detroit area, as well as rivalries between Detroit union chiefs accounted for the one-year delay.

A STRAPPING college student, home for Thanksgiving, shot and killed his parents and sister, then rigged the scene to look like a burglary, threw his murder weapons into a river, and went to a movie.

Lowell Lee Anderson, 18, a sophomore at the University of Kansas, said of the slaying, which took place in Wolcott, Kans., "I'm not sorry and I'm not glad I did it. I just don't know why I did it."

Monday, December 1
SENATE INVESTIGATORS said Sunday they have subpoenaed 100 witnesses for questioning about gangland infiltration into the multi-billion-dollar coin-operated machine business in Michigan and six other states.

Some of the nation's top hoodlums have been called, said Senator John L. McClellan, chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee. Hearings will open Thursday.

McClellan said the hearings will cover "the extent of racketeer inroads into both labor unions and management in this field." The motive for the hearings is "to determine whether or not labor unions in this field have been formed and operated for legitimate union aims."

SOUTHERN MICHIGAN dairies were threatened Sunday night with a wildcat strike which would cut off milk deliveries from Wyandotte to Bay City.

An anonymous spokesman, claiming to represent 6,000 to 8,000 dairy workers, said "We have stopped the flow of milk from our creameries in protest against unfair pricing tactics of all store markets. We will resume after an agreement to abolish such unfair competition."

Although most dairy workers were not scheduled to report for work until early Monday, Carl F. Burger, spokesman for the Detroit Milk Dealers Association said Sunday night, "They (the dairies) believe that these men are not going to come to work."

THE WESTERN POWERS are expected to ask soon for a summit conference on German many's future, a parley that would discuss not only the fate of Berlin, but a German peace treaty as well.

This move, a counter-proposal to Russia's promise to turn over control of Berlin to East Germany, was reported Sunday a few hours after President Eisenhower pledged in strong terms that America never will abandon West Berlin to Russian domination.

Tuesday, December 2
NINETY CHILDREN AND THREE NUNS were known to have perished Monday in a Chicago school fire—with the fear that the final toll might reach 100.

Another 100 children were injured or suffered from smoke inhalation, as many were forced to jump from second-floor windows of the school—which had, but one fire escape.

The fire broke out at 2:42 p.m. at Our Lady of the Angels School on Chicago's West Side—just 18 minutes before the 1,515 grade school children and 120 kindergartners would have been dismissed. Chicago firemen, working in close collaboration with the FBI, suspect an arsonist touched off one of Chicago's worst disasters.

A MILK DEALERS' PLAN to end a crippling strike by about 3,000 Detroit milk drivers ran into a snag Monday night. The plan was presented to a committee of strikers meeting in the Dairy Workers Hall Monday afternoon.

Chances for an early settlement seemed good, but the strike committee demanded the members, with the officials of Local 83, United Dairy Workers Union, meet with members of the Detroit Retail Milk Dealers Ass'n.

The strike was settled in the early hours Tuesday, and delivery was made to most of the city's homes and thousands of neighborhood stores and supermarkets on time.

A 12-YEAR-OLD GIRL was mysteriously murdered in St. Louis Monday night as she did her homework in her living room. The body of Carol Ann Risk was found slumped in a chair in the living room of her home at 6:45 p.m. by her parents.

THE DODGE MAIN PLANT was closed Tuesday by a strike of 8,500 members, which could shut down all Detroit area Chrysler plants within 24 hours and idle some 50,000 workers. Employees began walking out of the Hamtramck plant promptly at 10 a.m. after a 24-hour marathon negotiating session had failed to produce agreement on production standards and relief time.

Rum runners found the Pointe shores a safe and attractive site to unload their unlawful cargo during the Prohibition days, for Canada's shores, where liquor was legal, were enticingly close.

Along the lakeshore, where owners of stately mansions had built their boat houses, many incidents involving bootleggers occurred.

In those exciting days the Henry B. Joys had their troubles involving Prohibition. No one was more outspoken for temperance than the Joys but like many citizens who respected the law, they became disgusted with the Volstead Act. Federal agents made their lives miserable and finally Henry B. Joy wrote his objections to the Prohibition Administrator.

The letter referred to an unfortunate incident when the Joy's caretaker Frank Grifford, was served a summons to appear at Prohibition headquarters because agents had confiscated beer bottles in a midnight visit to the Joy boathouse.

Mr. Joy, taking up his pen to defend his boathouse caretaker, reminded the agents that he had placed Mr. Grifford on the property because agents had been unable to prevent bootleggers and vandals from molesting his boathouse and shore line.

"During the summer months when my boat house and harbor have been accessible to boats which have brought alcoholic beverages and landed them there, I have raised no objections to the Federal officers. I have heard the shots of their guns in the night; the whole situation has been very annoying."

He continued to voice his objections to the agents' forced entry into the boat house, where they confiscated 11 empty beer bottles and summoned his watchman to Prohibition headquarters.

The Joy file of papers at the Burton Historical Collection doesn't report what happened to Mr. Grifford, but the reader feels Mr. Joy's championship of him must have been successful. The letter to the authorities was dated December 16, 1926.

Mr. Joy came out strongly for appeal of the Volstead Act because he felt the law was unenforceable. He resigned from the Detroit Republican Club because of the prohibition law. Mrs. Joy echoed her husband's views. She was never afraid to voice her objections. In 1924 she endorsed the petition allowing women to smoke in the Detroit Athletic Club although she did not smoke herself. She took issue, too, with the DAR for their stand on prohibition.

The Joys, as always, supported the individual's rights and freedoms. They were firm supporters of the citizens duties as well as their rights, themselves examples of the finest type of Americans.

As you bustle about buying gifts, cards, wrappings and all the panoply of Christmas, give a thought to the fortunate newlywed Fritz Bloys. This lucky pair received a late wedding gift (they were married in May) from the Thomas Brandts, all the lights and baubles to completely trim their first Yule tree. The Brandts often do this for recently married friends, sometimes waiting 11 months if the pair were winter wed in order to give them all the ornaments for that first tree.

Edwin Askin Skae is beaming with pride. He took his young son Timmy on his first duck hunting expedition to the marsh at St. Anne's last week. Timmy matched his father shot for shot with his small 4-10 gun and brought down his limit, seven ducks, to cover himself and incidentally his dad, with glory.

Busily delivering Christmas cards are Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Petzold, Mrs. Angus Goetz and Mrs. Lewis B. Hyde. These are very special greetings done by the Tribute Fund and bearing a fantasy land interpretation of Detroit's Ambassador Bridge with the sender's name. For a $10 donation to the Tribute Fund, the UCS organization which lends emergency help to cases not aided by any other agency, will bring you 100 printed cards.

On the thick engraved invitations sent by the Harold R. Boyers, the C. Hascall Blisses and the Thomas Morrisons bidding guests to a dinner dance at the Little Club honoring the Harley J. Earls December 12, in tiny script at the bottom they invited the ladies to wear black, white or pink. Reason for the request must be the color scheme. The Earls will be leaving shortly to make their home in Palm Beach.

When Dennis Hykes, a sophomore at Purdue, returned for the Thanksgiving holidays he learned that the Rev. Paul Ketchum would be leaving for a new pastorate in the East and in an hour and half a last Saturday rounded up over 50 college age students for an open house honoring the popular minister who has been such a favorite with the young people in the Pointe.

PILFERINGS

The most popular holiday green still comes from the U. S. mint ... Tell City, Ind. News.

When a man says he can get on without religion, it merely means he has a kind of religion he can get on without ... Harry Emerson Fosdick.

A little boy, taken to the ballet for the first time, watched curiously as the dancers cavorted about on their toes.

"Mummy," he whispered loudly, "why don't they just get taller girls?"

Someone once remarked to William Allen White that he must be getting a great deal of praise for a newly published book. "Not a damned bit more than I need," he replied.

Pointer of Interest

DR. CLARENCE MESSNER, OF MCKINLEY AVENUE

By Patricia Talbot

Since the day that Richard School opened its doors in 1928 Clarence Messner has been its principal. Esteemed as an administrative educator in the Grosse Pointe School system, he is equally noted for his state-wide interest in conservation.

This fall as a member of the Michigan Conservation Commission, in company with his six fellow board members, he has been involved in the "biggest conservation issue ever faced in the history of this state," the Porcupine Mountain fight.

The Porcupine Mountain Park of 58,000 acres was acquired by the state and dedicated in perpetuity for the residents, to remain a state park and natural wilderness. Now a mining company wants the park open for operations. Conservationists are naturally aroused, not only because the mining would spoil the natural beauty of the park but grave dangers from pollution could result.

Hearing Today
Dr. Messner as a private citizen has been vehement in his urging that the Porcupine area not be opened for mining. There will be a final hearing in the argument today in Lansing and the decision will be handed down in January.

For many years Dr. Messner has been interested in natural history and conservation. He believes it began in his boyhood days in upper Michigan. He is past president of the Michigan and the Detroit Audubon Societies, president of the Michigan Botanical Society and will serve on the governor's conservation commission until 1963.

Camping in Porcupine
His concern in the Porcupine Mountain dispute is more personal since he has camped in the great state park many times with Mrs. Messner and his children, Robert, 24, a junior in the Medical School at the University of Michigan, and Diana, 20, a junior in education at Eastern Michigan College. As an independent citizen he has spoken out strongly to garden clubs and conservation societies throughout the state against the mining operation.

His championship of our state's beautiful natural resources has been a hobby for over a quarter of a century and he recently won his doctorate from the University of Michigan in conservation education. His real concern for

Photography Expert

With his conservation interest he has taken up photography and has some prized shots of the Porcupine Mountain park which he shows to interested groups. He feels that we have a unique situation in this state, for few have the great forests standing which represent so much beauty. The Porcupine Mountain area is the largest remaining stand of virgin hardwood in the United States. The great waste of Michigan forest by early lumbering companies has been halted and due to conservation experts much has been done in reforestation of these wastelands, but it takes many generations to produce the trees now in danger in the Porcupine.

pine Mountain Park. This vast wilderness also serves the state's residents as a wildlife sanctuary, for hunting, fishing, picnicking and winter sports.

Pointe's Own Forest

The Pointe had its own "Pine Woods" forest when Dr. Messner was brought to Richard School by Superintendent Samuel Brownell. This stand of fir had been planted by George Van Ness Lothrop, ambassador to Russia and early Pointe resident. For many years Richard School students, under Dr. Messner's direction, enjoyed nature walks through Pine Woods, saw their first jack-in-the-pulpit or scarlet tanager. Now most of Pine Woods has gone, victim of residential expansion.

Dr. Messner will do his best to prevent Porcupine Mountain from being despoiled by mining operations, just as he has done his best to serve the state in all conservation issues. Whatever the decision handed down by the Commission he will continue to serve the state in this capacity as he has so long served the Pointe as an educator and community leader.

ESTIMATED FIRE LOSSES

Estimated fire losses in the United States during October amounted to $73,393,000, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has reported. This represents a decrease of 5.6 percent from losses of $77,753,000 reported for October, 1957, and an increase of 0.1 percent over losses of $73,303,000 for last September (1958). Losses for the first 10 months of 1958 now total $884,204,000, an increase of 3.3 percent over the first 10 months of 1957, when they amounted to $856,350,000.
