THE ARMY WEDNESDAY won President Eisenhower's approval to keep the ballistic missile agency at Huntsville, Ala., with its brilliant team of space scientists.

As a compromise, Mr. Eisenhower ordered the Army to turn over to the new civilian space agency the jet propulsion laboratory at Pasadena, Calif. The civilian agency, set up this fall, had sought the major part of both installations.

In turn, the Army will continue for the next year a program of weapons development the Pasadena laboratory has been conducting under Army contracts. The Army also will keep control of equipment at the jet propulsion laboratory, which deals primarily with military operations and weapons development.

IN LANSING opponents of the proposed Michigan tax reform program centered their fire Wednesday on the suggested graduated income tax.

Two members of the Citizens Tax Advisory Committee issued a minority report describing the proposed reforms as "sufficiently vicious to discourage middle-income families from making their homes in Michigan."

The Citizens Tax Advisory Committee voted Tuesday to ask the Legislature for a drastic revision of State tax laws with the graduated personal income tax as the key revenue producer.

A 51-YEAR-OLD credit union manager was shot to death at 4:05 p.m. Wednesday as he struggled with a holdup man, trying to save his firm's money.

Two women employees and a male customer at the Plymouth Employees Federal Credit Union, 9319 Mt. Elliott, watched in horror as Claude A. Richards—who thought at first the gunman was joking—was pistol-whipped and shot to death. The bandit fled without any loot.

AFL-CIO President George Meany said Thursday night that organized labor will battle next year for a higher minimum wage despite powerful opposition and cries of "socialism."

Meany called for an increase to $1.25 an hour and coverage for millions more workers, as he spoke at a two-day conference marking the 20th anniversary of the Fair Labor Standards Act—which now provides for a dollar-an-hour minimum wage.

Several lawmakers warned that the drive would face tough opposition in Congress.

STRIKES IN FIVE CHRYSLER Corp. plants idled more than 17,000 workers Thursday and threatened to affect thousands more if they continue. A walkout involving 7,100 members of UAW Local 3 closed the Dodge assembly plant and Conant Stamping and Chrysler and Winfield foundries for the third straight day.

Dodge workers struck Tuesday in a dispute over relief time in a department employing 600 workers and production standards on 100 other assembly line jobs.

In an unrelated dispute 530 workers walked off the job at the Outer Drive stamping plant after a union steward was fired. The Plymouth Division shutdowns affected 8,500 hourly rated workers.

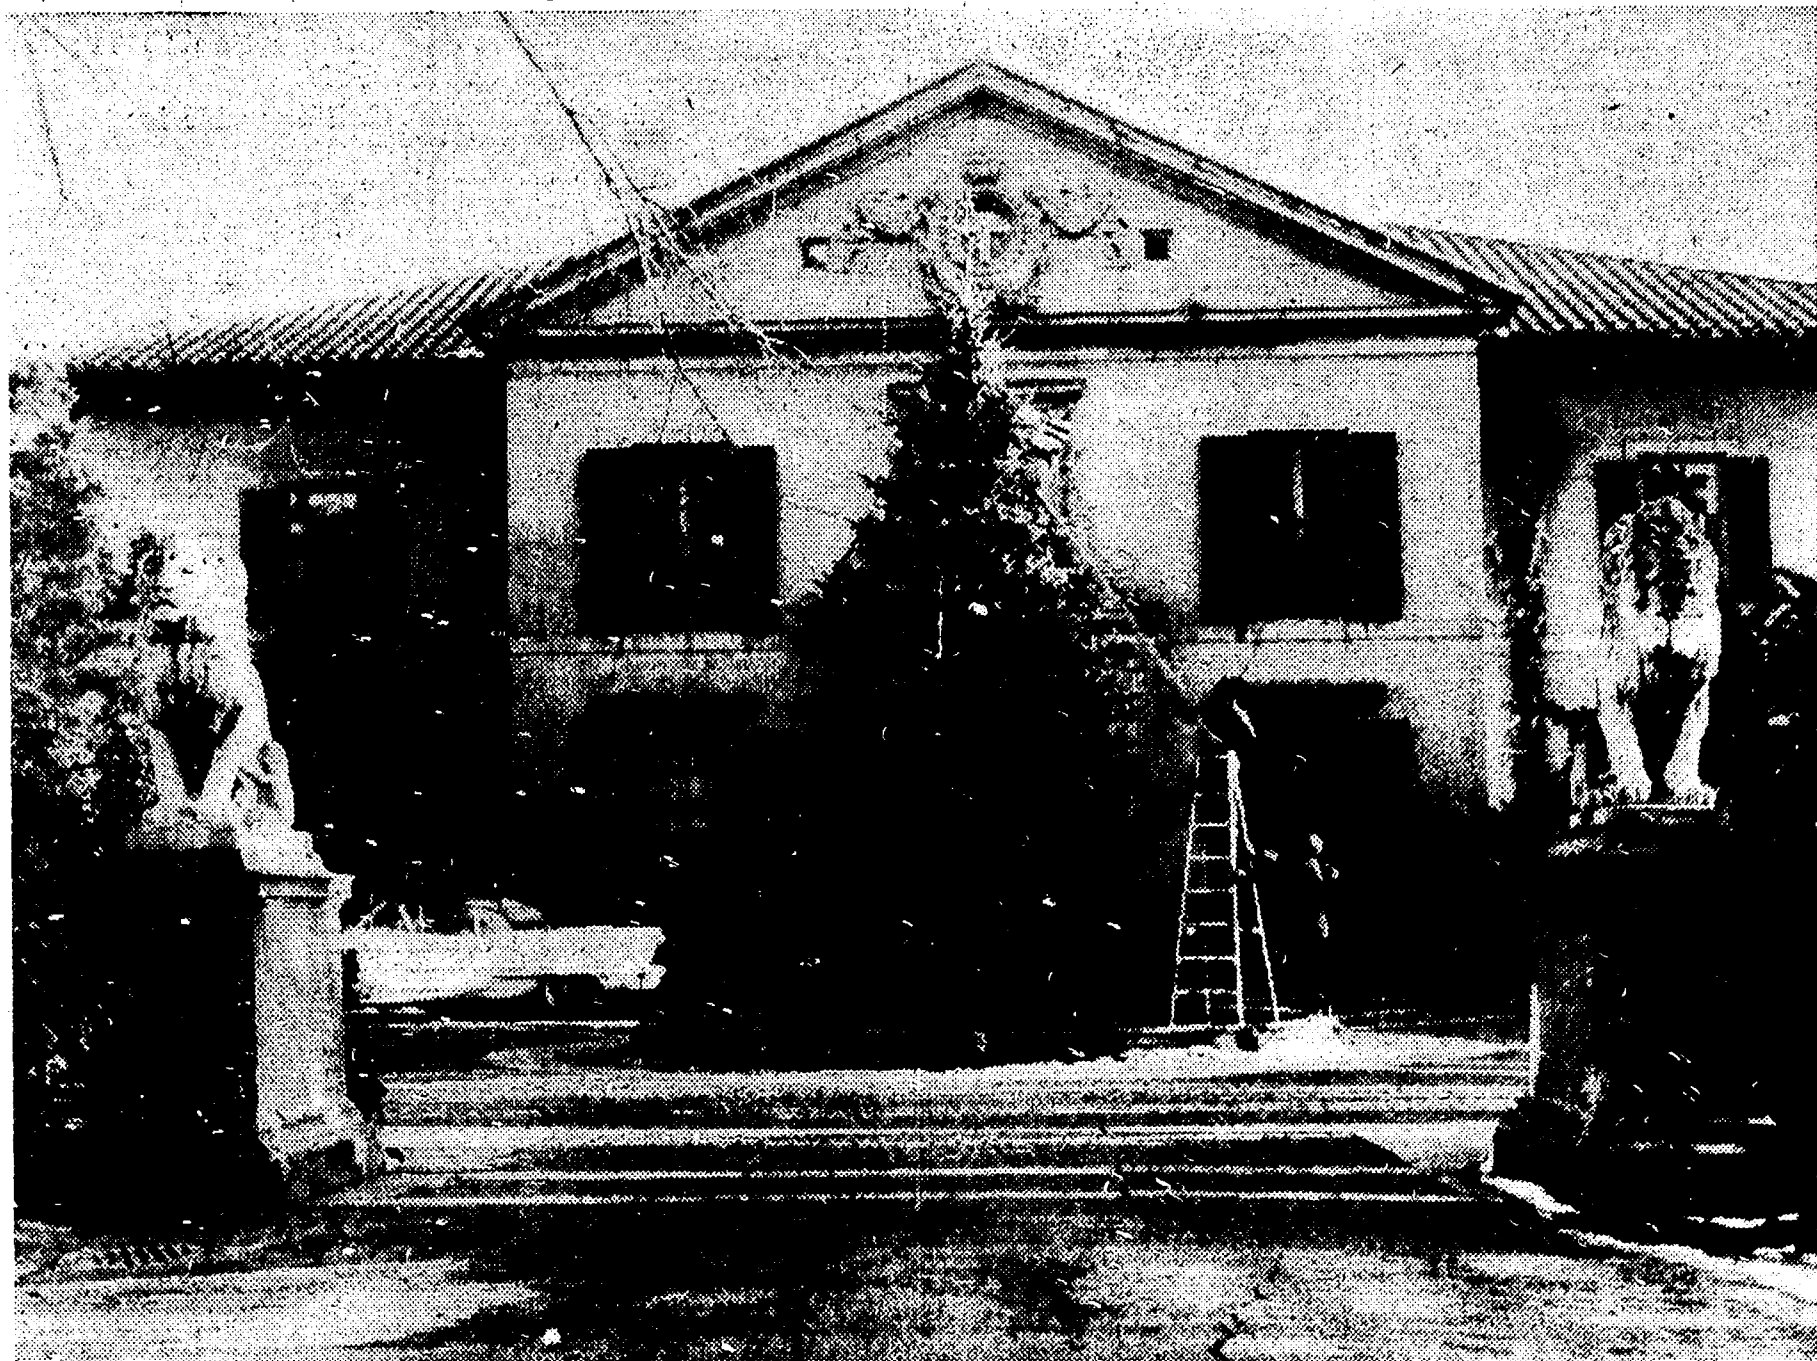

A SYSTEM OF CUT-RATE voluntary health insurance for elderly persons with low incomes and modest resources was endorsed Thursday by the American Medical Association in Minneapolis.

The AMA's policy-making body, the House of Delegates, called on the nation's surgeons to lower their usual fees in such cases so the insurance can be offered at reduced premium rates to persons over 65.

The recommendation was drafted and submitted by the Community Tree Erected at Memorial Center

Grosse Pointe's community Christmas tree was put in place in the fountain of the courtyard at the War Memorial Center last weekend. The annual tree-lighting ceremonies have been scheduled for Sunday afternoon, December 21. For details see story below.

Men's Night Draws Stags To 'Village'

Stores Report Varying Results in Comparison With Other Years

The deluge of snow that blanketed Detroit and environs Monday dampened the Christmas shopping spirits of some, and yet many other male residents turned out for the thirteenth annual "Men's Night" in the Village.

Although some merchants, and police officials responsible for traffic control, in the City's shopping area, felt a definite decrease in the number of sales and customers, the larger stores reported enthusiastically that business was "better than ever."

Jacobson's, with its annual array of star attractions—e.g. Red Wing and Lions stars Red Kelly, Charlie Burns, Earl Morrill and Joe Schmidt—claims to have topped all previous Men's Night sales. They give all due credit to shopping incentives such as Patience Pierce ("Miss Michigan" to most) and a thrilling demonstration by two members of the Grosse Pointe East Draw Club, Bill Schaffer and Sam Ellis.

On the other side of the ledger, Pete Proper, of Proper's Men's Store, reports business was 50 percent off previous years. He gives several logical explanations for the drop-off, the most obvious being that Men's Night is primarily centered on the purchases of feminine merchandise.

Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem said that the thieves either had a key to the outer door of the theater, or hid in the building until everyone had left. The crime was believed to have taken place between 1:10 a.m. and 7 a.m., on Monday, Dec. 8.

Frank Kruger, theater manager, told the officers that he was the last to leave the building, and that he left about 1:10 a.m.

The crime was discovered by one of the cleanup men, who arrived to begin his

Community Tree to Be Lighted Accompanied By Christmas Carols and Visit from Santa; Youth Council in Charge

The Center's Annual Christmas program and Tree Lighting for all Grosse Pointe families, particularly the younger children, will take place Sunday afternoon December 21.

The brief Tree Lighting Ceremony will take place outside at 5:30 p.m. but in order to accommodate the crowds the puppet shows and the Children's Theater performance will be given at 4:30 before the Tree Lighting and visit from Santa as well as being repeated at 6 following the ceremony.

Man in Manhole Has Close Call

A stationary truck deceived a St. Clair Shores driver on Wednesday, December 3, and the unhappy result was an automobile accident.

Donald Walter Charrette, of 23323 Allor road, was driving east on Mack avenue and as he approached the Hereford road intersection he saw a Michigan Bell Telephone Co. truck.

The vehicle had stopped, in the traffic lane, for a workman who was in a manhole in front of him. Charrette plowed into the rear of the truck and was consequently ticketed by City police for reckless driving. Fortunately there were no physical injuries.

Thieves Make Unsuccessful Try to Crack Theater Safe

Farms police are investigating the breaking and entering of the Punch and Judy Theater, 21 Kercheval, where burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to open the theater safe.

Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem said that the thieves either had a key to the outer door of the theater, or hid in the building until everyone had left. The crime was believed to have taken place between 1:10 a.m. and 7 a.m., on Monday, Dec. 8.

Frank Kruger, theater manager, told the officers that he was the last to leave the building, and that he left about 1:10 a.m.

The crime was discovered by one of the cleanup men, who arrived to begin his chores at 7 a.m., and who called police on finding the window of the ticket office broken, and the combination chiseled from the safe.

Sgts. Paisley and Van Tiem said that the combination was knocked from the safe with a hammer and punch, and when the thieves could not open the safe, they gave it up as useless.

Kruger said that the Sunday receipts were in the safe, but did not disclose how much. He said that nothing else was touched, since the petty cash and candy counter showed no signs of having been rifled.

The detectives said that the burglars left the building by the exit door at the McKinley road side.

Edison Co. High over head a cross and star loaned by Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Brien will light the scene.

Youth in Charge
The Youth Council of the War Memorial is in charge of the Christmas program. They will be on deck to welcome everyone. Early comers will be guided to the Recreation Room to see a professional puppet show by Gordon Westphal entitled "Santa Presents Brave Mr. Frog."

They will also go to the Veterans Room to see Girl Scout Troop 257 of St. Paul's School make puppets enact "MacDonald's Farm". Finally they will be directed to the library where the apprentice group of the Center's Children's Theater will give the play "David's Christmas Star".

At 5:30 everyone will gather around the outdoor Christmas Tree where Bill Dennis acting as M.C. will ask the Rev. Andrew Rauth of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church to lead in prayer. Trudy Proefke, the Youth Council secretary will welcome all the guests and John Nicholson, Youth Council President will speak briefly on "Christmas is a Time for Giving."

Chorus to Sing
Representatives of the Pointe's various youth organizations will join hands around the base of the tree and that will be the signal for lighting. The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus will sing "Silent Night" followed by a closing prayer by the Rev. Father Robert Rohlman of St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church.

Santa at this point will be announced and lead all his little friends back into the Center where he will greet them and give them candy canes.

Cocoa or coffee and cookies will be served to every one and the Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus will sing carols to be followed by repeat performances of the puppet shows and Children's Theater play for those unable to see them before the ceremony.

Symphony Concert Set For Sunday

Pointe Orchestra to Give Second Program of Sixth Season at Parcels at 3:30

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will present its second concert of the sixth season this Sunday, December 14, at 3:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Vernier, in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Grosse Pointe has in this organization a personal Symphony Orchestra which endeavors to foster the creative musical ability right within its home atmosphere. There are 60 or more playing musicians who come from the five Pointe communities as well as surrounding areas, and all are from diverse walks of life. The group is co-sponsored by its board of directors, the Department of Community Services, and the Department of Administrative Services of

Hitch-Hiker Hurt On Lake Shore

An 18-year-old Great Lakes sailor who was hit by a car at Lake Shore and Vernier roads on Tuesday, December 2, was taken to the Bon Secours Hospital with a minor fracture of the left leg and an injured shoulder.

Injured was Gary Lane of 31241 Scherer, St. Clair Shores, who became confused when Mrs. Jacqueline Mae Dearnley, 26, of 23131 Port St. Clair Shores, blew her car horn in warning as Lane neared her vehicle.

A police report revealed that Mrs. Dearnley was stopped at Lake Shore and Vernier, at the right curb, while one of her passengers mailed a letter.

The young sailor had just gotten out of a car on Lake Shore. He was hitch-hiking according to police, and was in the roadway, as Mrs. Dearnley started to pull away from the curb.

The woman blew her horn, and the youth became confused and jumped in front of her car. Lane was knocked to the pavement.

Lane assumed the blame for the mishap, and Mrs. Dearnley was released without charge after making a statement.

The young sailor was later transferred to the Marine Hospital, for continued treatment of his injuries.

Pointes Must Pay Detroit More for Sewage Disposal

Increase of 10 Cents Per 1,000 Cubic Feet Will Raise Park's Bill $9,000 Per Year; Residents to Pay

After several months of negotiations, the Park bowed to a Detroit Water Board demand for an increase in the sewage disposal rate that will add approximately $9,000 a year to the Park's bill.

At a regular meeting held on Monday, December 8, the Park council, after hearing a report on the negotiations with Detroit, from City Manager Robert Slone, saw no way to escape the increase, since Detroit supplies the community with all of its water needs and handles the sewage disposal.

10 Cent Increase

Mr. Slone informed the council that the increase will amount to 10 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, the Park charging 11 cents for a total of 35 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, which was not to have gone into effect until July 1, 1959, but the Detroit Board demanded the increase be paid without delay.

After some discussion, the council reluctantly agreed to pass on the increase to its business and resident-consumers, beginning January 1.

In his report to the council Monday night, City Comptroller Nunzio Orsini disclosed that the Park uses about 85 or 90 million cubic feet of water a year for water consumption and sewage for which Detroit is paid $1.95 per 1,000 cubic feet, or approximately $160,000 a year.

Park Bills Customers

The Park in turn, bills the city consumers, collecting about $150,000, with the balance left, after Detroit is paid, going toward the maintenance of the Park's water main system, main repairs, leakages, salaries of Water Department employees, and so on.

It was only last April 28, that the Detroit Water Board announced a 25-cent per 1,000 cubic feet water storage rate, to be applied to all of its suburban customers, for the storage of water for peak summer loads. This tab is included in the current combined water and sewage disposal bill.

Besides the Park, the Woods, Shores and Harper Woods receive their water from Detroit, but of these, the Shores alone has its sewage disposal taken care of by the Wayne County Road Commission; Detroit takes care of the others.

Share Water Supply

The Farms has its own water supply system, and has the City as its customer, but their sewage disposal is handled by Detroit.

At Monday's meeting, it was disclosed that the Farms and the Woods have also agreed to pass the 10-cent increase on to their consumers, with Harper Woods still undecided.

City officials said that the increase will have to be paid by its consumers. Although the City gets its water from the Farms, the sewage disposal rate is paid directly to Detroit.

Christmas Lighting Slides Lend Impetus to Project

The colored slides on "Outdoor Christmas Lighting and Decorations" which were shown Wednesday, December 10, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial sent the interested audience scurrying home to unwrap the strings of lights, the candles, the wreaths and the treasured ornaments of former years. New suggestions were presented to work out even more striking effects for the exterior displays of homes.

Meanwhile the Men's Committee which will conduct the "Screen Tours" this year are dusting off their cameras, adjusting light meters and checking their supply of colored films.

All this preparation is part of the "Christmas Outdoors" project sponsored by the Shores Given Setback in Park Fight

State Supreme Court Refuses to Hear Appeal in Parker Property Condemnation

The Shores has been stalemated in its condemnation proceedings against the Dean Parkers of 809 Lake Shore road, whose property the village wants as an addition to its municipal park.

On Tuesday, December 2, the State Supreme Court refused to hear an appeal by the Village, which sought a reversal of a decision rendered by Wayne Circuit Judge Lila Neuenfelt last February, favoring Dean and Ann Parker.

Judge Neuenfelt ruled at the time, that the case could not be heard because the Shores did not present a proper description of its case, whereupon, the village took the matter to the higher court.

Won't Comment

Village Superintendent refused to comment on the Supreme Court's refusal to hear the appeal, claiming that it was a legal matter, therefore he could say nothing about it.

Village President Jack Williams said that as far as he was concerned, the decision rested with the State Supreme Court and it was the law. If any further legal action is contemplated, the matter will have to be given some study, he added.

The Shores has been after the Parker property since July 27, 1953, and the Village brought condemnation proceedings against the Parkers in the village justice court the following January. The matter was dismissed, since such proceedings can only be heard in circuit court.

Beaten Locally

Since that time, the case has been in and out of the lower court, until Judge Neuenfelt gave her decision in February. The Shores then appealed to the higher court.

The Shores had purchased property north of the Village Hall to Hawthorne, to annex to the municipal park for additional recreation facilities for the residents of the community. The Parker property alone bars the Village from complete control of the desired land.

Set $10,000 Goal to Aid Pointe Needy

Residents Urged to be Extra Generous in Purchase Of Newspapers Monday

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club will conduct its 30th consecutive annual Good-fellow Newspaper sale throughout the Pointe on Monday, December 15, from 7 a.m. to 12 noon, setting a goal of $10,000 to satisfy the estimated need for its charitable work during the coming year.

The club's president, Edgar A. Beauchamp, appointed this year's committee, with James N. McNally and Carl Schweikart, Sr., as co-chairmen.

The sale of the Grosse Pointe News and daily papers is a high point of the club's annual drive for funds to help the needy in the Pointe.

Goal Remains Same

Last year's goal was also $10,000, which was reached through the generosity of the people of the community, and it is hoped that the people will again respond as generously, if not more so, when the Good-fellows ask the public to buy papers on Monday.

Working in conjunction with the members of the Lions Club during this important sale, will be the chiefs and personnel of the police and fire departments of the Shores, Farms, Park and City.

Chief among the recipients of financial assistance from the Pointe Club are the Leader Dog League for the Blind, and public charitable organizations, and private charities.

Financial assistance is also given for the treatment and correction of faulty vision, as well as other physical needs, to those unfortunate who otherwise would be denied this essential assistance toward ultimate recovery and return to their useful places in society.

Helpful To Youth

This civic-minded organization is also active in encouraging and promoting youth activities and recreational facilities throughout the entire Pointe, thereby helping to discourage and eliminate delinquency and encouraging healthier minds and attitudes among its future citizens.

During the past few years, the Lions Club inaugurated a new progressive step in community service, in that scholarships are awarded annually to two graduates of any high school located within the Pointe.

However, the altruistic aims of the Lions should not be viewed in the light of a give-away gesture. The club is operated in the same manner as any healthy business, with a sensible and reasonable restraint on the purse strings, exercised by George W. Elworthy, Pointe Welfare director. Each case is investigated thoroughly.

Brownell Passes Fire Inspection

On the timely subject of school fire protection, it is interesting to note that last Friday, December 5, the new Brownell Junior High School underwent its required inspection by the State Department of Fire Construction.

The State Fire Marshall supervised the inspection, which took place during the noon lunch hour, and offered a challenge to the school's officials by suggesting they pull the alarm—to see just how quickly the building could be cleared.

One minute and 45 seconds later the school was emptied of some 500 pupils, who were scattered throughout the building, some in the cafeteria, others finding noon recreation in the gymnasium.

Considering the fact that most of the children were without teacher supervision, and that the average timing for a fire drill in other schools runs at least two minutes, this is considered a noteworthy record.

The efficiency of prayer is increased by the amount of hustle there is back of it.

It's a good idea to put something away for a rainy day—a little sunshine for instance.

Resnick to Conduct
Felix Resnick joins the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra as conductor for this concert. Described by many musicians of note as "a man of outstanding gifts," and as "a conductor generously endowed with natural talent," he is also a violinist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.
Mr. Resnick received his education at Wayne State University, and at the Juilliard School of Music in New York. He is also the conductor of Detroit Sinfonietta, the Chamber Orchestra and the Chamber Opera Concerts of the Detroit Institute of Arts Series, and the conductor as well as the composer of original background music for a film series.
Although primarily scheduled as an all orchestral program of highly selected symphonic works, the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra concert will also feature a group of 30 children of the Richard Elementary School, under the direction of their music teacher, Mrs. John B. Birch. They will close the concert—in the spirit of the season—with the singing of Christmas carols.

To Sing Carols
Singing the well-known Christmas carols with orchestral accompaniment will be: John Barlow, John Blackburn, Jack Bockstanz, Roger Bohn, Susan Brown, Robert Campbell, Nancy Cary, Warren Finke, Bruce Fox, Diane Fuller, Connie Galanos, George Hess, Joyce Hueglin, Pat Johnson, Jill LePla, Stuart Leslie, Kim McLeod, Terry Mullen, Hal Munson, Taffy Petri, John Skinner, Ricky Stander, Carol Stephenson, Steven Strehler, Roger Teetzel, Sherry Thumann, Linda Walker, Mary Wells, Kathie Wicks, and Mary Zinn.

Mrs. Robert P. Armstrong and Mrs. Gerald L. Stoetzer, social chairmen for the reception and coffee hour following the concert in the gymnasium of the school, have asked the wives of the Board of Directors of the Symphony Society to serve as hostesses: Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Jerome E. J. Keane, Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, Mrs. George F. Mehling, Mrs. Thomas Nester, President Miss Camilla J. Ayers and the Board of Directors of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra Society will also be present to greet guests. All the audience is cordially invited to stay for the social hour and meet the orchestra personnel and the conductor.

Taylor U. Honors M. C. Patterson

UPLAND, Indiana—M. C. Patterson, vice-president of Chrysler Corporation and general manager of the Dodge Division received an Honorary LL.D. degree at Taylor University, Upland, Indiana, on December 10, where he gave an address at a Distinguished Guest Convocation.

Mr. Patterson has been associated with the Dodge Corporation for more than 35 years. His brilliant career began as a youth in his native Scotland where he was employed by a tool and die firm. Advancement was rapid and soon he was assigned to build rolling mills with 50 apprentices working under him.

Later he was an engineer at an iron and steel blast furnace and then helped build seven British automobiles which were exhibited at the Olympic Show in London.

Enroute to New Zealand, where his mother's relatives had settled previously, he stopped in Detroit to see what opportunities might be available in the automotive industry.

He was immediately offered a position at Dodge, where he worked in the drop forge and die sinking department. His knowledge and efficiency proved so valuable that during a three-months' shutdown in 1922 he was the only hourly employee kept on duty at the plant. During his early years at Dodge he studied engineering and design in night classes at Cass Technical High School.

Mr. Patterson was transferred to plant engineering in 1925. Five years later he

A special message for people who plan to buy a '59 car

By now you've had a chance to look over all the 1959 models. They're all on the market now, bright and shiny and dazzling as only new cars can be.

Now is the time to ask yourself the question, "Which car should I buy? Which car will give me the most value, the most satisfaction for my money?"

What do you want in a car?

We don't expect to sell everyone in 1959. We know that some people will end up buying small cars, and some, foreign imports. We accept the fact that a few will buy high-performance sports cars, and that others, because of their position, cars that cost far more than any Dodge. That's fine. We don't expect to sell them all.

But if you're in the market for a smart-looking, solidly built, full-sized car that's reasonably priced and that performs beautifully, a car designed for your comfort and convenience that you can drive with pride anywhere—WE ARE TALKING TO YOU.

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery

Let's start with styling. How a car looks is an important consideration; no one buys a car they don't like. But styling, like beauty, is relative. What is hot stuff to one person is cold potatoes to another. So we will only say this about Dodge styling: Our competitors obviously like it. We think that's quite a tribute.

Rumor: Some '59 cars are hard to get into

You'd think all cars would be about as easy to get into and out of, and as comfortable to sit in. After all, they all have doors and they all have seats. The fact is, there's a big difference—particularly this year.

Attention Station Wagon Buyers!

Dodge station wagons are terrific, too. Write for your free copy of the Dodge Station Wagon Booklet, Dodge Division, Box 1259, Detroit 81, Michigan.

P.S. Don't forget to watch Lawrence Welk.

Frankly, some '59 cars are known to be a little difficult to get into, as well as out of. This wasn't intentional, of course. In trying to design a car that was as low and modern as our Swept-Wing Dodge, it just worked out that way.

This is not true of Dodge, because Dodge is designed around you. You get in easily and naturally, without banging your knee on the door post or the steering wheel. You sit on seats that give you wonderful support. There are no high door sills to trip over.

Of course, we won't even mention the fact that the other '59 cars don't offer Swing-Out Swivel Seats. Oops!

Which do you want: Push Buttons or a shift stick?

We know that a number of people like a lever-type automatic transmission. They've used them for years and they're satisfied. We have no quarrel with them. But there's a lot of wisdom in what Alexander Pope says in his Essay on Criticism: "Be not the first by whom the new are tried, nor yet the last to lay the old aside."

Push-button driving isn't new. This is the fourth year that Dodge has had it. We would guess that, conservatively, over two million owners have used it—and loved it. So we're not going to try to sell you on the ease of push-button driving; we do hope you'll just give it a try.

You want a modern ride, don't you?

You can divide all the '59 cars into two groups. Those (like Dodge) that have Torsion-Aire and those that have coil springs. Now don't get us wrong. Coil springs are okay. They've been used on cars for years.

But that's just the trouble. When you buy a 1959 car, you want a 1959 ride to go with it. That's Torsion-Aire. It's the newest, finest, most advanced suspension system in the industry. (Pardon our enthusiasm.) And remember this. You don't pay a penny extra for the extra comfort you get with Torsion-Aire. It's standard equipment.

Wouldn't you like to be pampered a little?

There's almost no end to the wonderful convenience features you can get in a '59 Dodge. Swing-Out Swivel Seats. (They're great!) Push-Button TorqueFlite transmission. Full-Time Power Steering. Outside mirrors that adjust from the inside. Inside mirrors that adjust themselves electronically to banish glare. They're all available at extra cost—and well worth it.

A few words about quality, performance and price

These are things that are hard to measure. What do you mean by quality? What constitutes good performance? What is a good buy? We would sum up our case for Dodge in this manner: It is a car that is well engineered and well built to give you years of driving satisfaction. It will more than match any other competitive car in the performance department. It is, we honestly believe, an extremely good buy for the money.

Are we prejudiced? You bet we are!

We'll admit we're prejudiced about our '59 Dodge. We think it's a great car. And if a new car is in your plans for 1959, we'd like the opportunity to convince you of this. How about giving us a chance, to show you this Dodge, to point out its many exclusive advances, to hand over the keys so that you can drive it and draw your own conclusion. We're ready any time you are. Why not make it soon?

Send or deliver to Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore Road, care of Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, clearly marked with name and address of donor, so that proper recognition may be given to contributors.

Cost of all slides accepted by the Council Committee for the Grosse Pointe Screen Tour will be paid for by the Council.

Pictures of outdoor Christmas decorations may be taken during the day or night.

The following headings or categories have been suggested:

1. Traditional.
2. Contemporary.
3. Child Appealing.
4. Religious.

In all pictures give consideration to balance, harmony, scale, continuation of one motif, use of flood lights, colored bulbs, design, use of shadow or silhouette.

Suggestions are for concentration on one item such as a doorway, a Christmas tree, a sugar plum tree, a lollipop tree, a lighted window, an interior view visible from outdoors, or the overall effect.

The Council is anxious for pictures of small homes as well as large, for simple as well as the more elaborate displays.

Center to Fete New Pointers

This Sunday, December 14, at 2 o'clock the doors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will open to welcome all the good people who have come to the Grosse Pointe area from other countries during the past year.

The nucleus of this group are those who are studying English in the Adult Education program of the Grosse Pointe School System, but it is hoped that newcomers from overseas who see this article will come to the party. For further information call the Center, TU 1-7511.

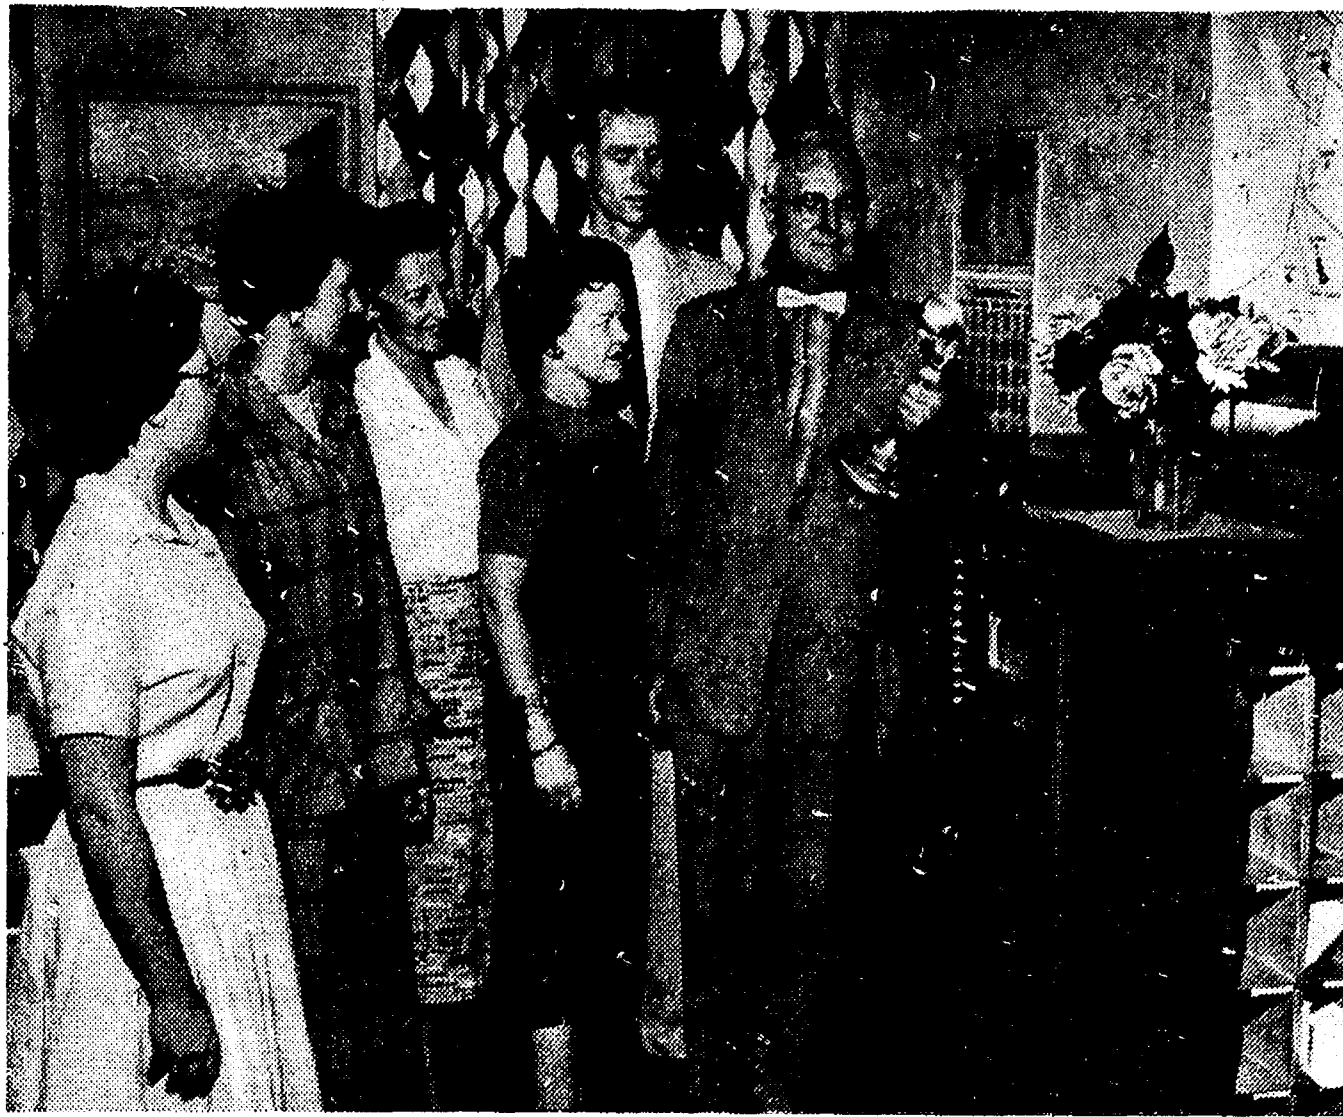

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert H. Patterson, members of the Memorial's young adult group, the Center Club, are serving as a welcoming committee and making arrangements for the party. They are Marilyn Krueger, Jean Stevenson, Dick Gale, Bob Gall and Mike Casey.

Every guest will be guided to a world map where they will place a duplicate name tag on the city or country from which they came. A whole series of mixer games which can be enjoyed by people of all ages will follow with prizes as the incentive.

Courtesy of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, excellent films of two of the beauty spots of America, Yosemite and the Smoky Mountains, will be shown.

The highlight of the day will be Malcolm Johns at the piano leading the group in singing traditional Christmas songs and carols of different lands.

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

PATRICIA SELTZER, Kindergarten; MRS. ELLEN M. SHUMATE, 1st grade; MRS. CAROL W. KALOGER, Kindergarten; MRS. REGINA R. PROSSER, 6th grade, ROBERT R. RATHBUN, 5th grade, and DR. MESSNER.

Miss Patricia A. Seltzer was born in Shelby, Ohio, and still considers it to be home. Now teaching kindergarten in the Grosse Pointe schools she has studied at Denison University and took degrees at Ohio State and Wheelock College in Boston. Her teaching assignment places her at Richard for the morning session and at Trombly in the afternoons. Several summers were profitably spent at Interlochen in recent years where Miss Seltzer participated in band and other activities. She enjoys travel, reading, arts and crafts and water-skiing.

Mrs. Ellen M. Shumate is a native of Wisconsin, having been born in Blue Water. She teaches first grade at Richard. A graduate of Wisconsin State College she also attended the University of Minnesota. Her teaching experience included two years in a Minneapolis suburb, Wayzata, on beautiful Lake Minnetonka. Her husband is employed by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. They now reside in Detroit.

Mrs. Regina R. Prosser has joined the Richard staff this fall and teaches sixth grade. Mr. Prosser now teaches at Brownell Junior High School after having been at Parcels for many years. Mrs. Prosser is a graduate of Bowling Green State University where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega, national honorary. She has also taken graduate work at Wayne. Last year she taught in the Fraser public schools and prior to that in St. Clair Shores for a number of years. The Prossers have a son, 9 years, and a daughter, 2 years old.

Mrs. Carol Kaloger teaches kindergarten at Gabriel Richard Elementary School. Her husband teaches social studies at Grosse Pointe High School. Son Billy, 6, attends Monteith, while Jamie, 3½, is the only Kaloger not formally involved in a school program. Mrs. Kaloger is a native of Medford, Mass., and a product of the Arlington schools. She graduated from Boston University (Dean's List) and has done graduate work at Wayne State. Favorite summer spots include Annisquam, Mass., and Bailey's Island, Maine. Her favorite hobby is no mystery when you note that she has a 586-pound tuna and a 990-pound shark to her credit—both caught by rod and reel. The Kalogers live in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Robert R. Rathbun was born in Grosse Pointe and raised on the east side of Detroit. Now he has returned to teach fifth grade in the Grosse Pointe schools. A graduate of Wayne State he was recognized in his senior year as having made outstanding contributions to the University and to the community in the field of Art Education. Prior teaching experience includes a year in the Denver elementary schools and a year in the Centerville, Iowa, high school and junior college. Between these two assignments he spent a summer studying at the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland, Calif. Service in the U. S. Army took him to Frankfurt, Germany, with Headquarters of the 3rd Armored Division.

CHRISTMAS TRADITION

The Armenians eat boiled spinach on Christmas Eve, because they believe Mary ate the vegetable the night before Christ was born.

Students Donate $9,850 in Drive

A total of $9,850.95 was pledged by the students and staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System in the recently completed United Foundation Fund campaign.

Fire Damages
Home in Woods

A cigaret that fell on a sofa, apparently unnoticed, started a fire in the home of Thomas W. Walsh, 1832 Hampton, shortly after midnight on Tuesday, December 2.

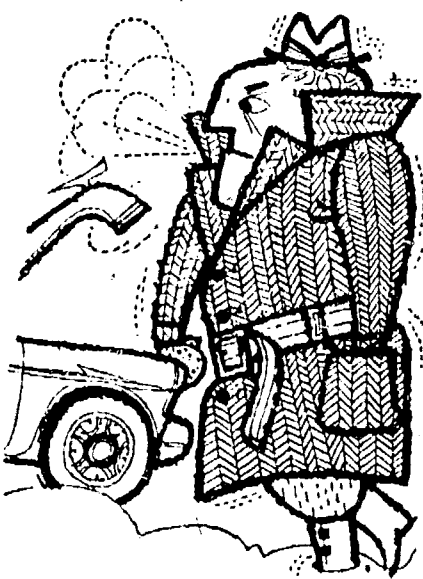

Woods firemen got the alarm about 1 a.m. and had the fire out in just 17 minutes, but not before damage was done to the sofa, window draperies, carpeting and floor. Smoke filled the entire house, an official fire report disclosed.

Walsh told the firemen that he retired about midnight, and awakened with his family about an hour later with the house full of smoke.

The firemen found the sofa, window draperies, and carpet and floor under the sofa burning.

After the fire was put out, the firefighters removed the sofa to the front lawn, and left, but had to return several hours later to douse the furniture piece, when it again began to smolder.

Fire and smoke damage was estimated at $1,000, it was said.

Drinking Driver Causes Crash

Richard F. Dinan, 35, of 1706 Boston boulevard, Detroit, was charged with violating the State Drunk Motor Law following his arrest on Sunday, December 7, by Shores police. Dinan became involved in an accident in which two persons suffered minor injuries, when their car was hit on Lake Shore road.

Police received a call from an unknown citizen who complained that a car was weaving south on Lake Shore, and a call was put over the air to the two scout cars patrolling the road.

Dinan was seen approaching Vernier road, and then he ran into a car driven by Thomas McPharlen, 49, of 1700 Allard. McPharlen, and his wife, Mildred, 42, were taken to St. John Hospital when they complained of injuries. McPharlen was treated for a back injury, and his wife, for a neck injury, after which they were both released.

At the station, Dinan, who police said had been drinking, was issued a ticket for driving while under the influence of alcohol, and he posted a bond of $150.

Teenagers Widen Program To Help March of Dimes

Grosse Pointe's TAP leaders have met and drawn up plans for a Teen-Age dance to be held the last day of the March of Dimes drive, January 31. TAPs are the young people who run the Teen-Age Program of the local chapter of the National Foundation. They used to be known as Teens Against Polio.

This year the TAPs and National Foundation have widened their activities, adding new goals to their drive for polio. The March of Dimes has been expanded to include aid for virus diseases, arthritis, and birth defects.

To help forward these objectives, Grosse Pointe has selected as its TAP chairman, Trudy Proefke, student at Grosse Pointe High School. Assisting her at the High School will be Connie Malcomson, Phil Keim, Jon Rice, John Mertz, and Dolly Beam.

At Pierce Junior High School James Brown will head the TAP efforts and at Parcels the student leader will be Sharon Pastor, Brownell Jr. High School has three TAP representatives: Chris Jacobsen, Nancy Collins and Gary Geinzke.

Peggy Carpenter will handle TAP duties at GPUS and Pat Wright and Paul Dwaihy will cover for St. Paul High School. At St. Ambrose Pat Fannon and Art Kastelote will assume TAP responsibilities and Gretchen Schurr will head Liggett's program.

The National Foundation has also planned an all-day session at the Wolverine Hotel for today, December 11, for the teen-agers, with two students representing each school in Wayne County. The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint this age group with the scholarships available to them through the March of Dimes.

This unique program has been initiated by the National Foundation in an effort to help overcome critical shortages of personnel in the ranks of doctors, nurses, physical therapists, occupational therapists, and medical social workers. Today's meeting is designed to present, in detail, what these fields offer young people and how the March of Dimes, through its some 500 scholarships, can help them achieve a life of fulfillment and service to mankind.

The University of Michigan granted a total of 5,813 degrees during academic year 1957-58.

Now, through National Bank of Detroit's College Education Plan, the broadening, enriching benefits of college are more easily and readily available to young people. Now, thousands of deserving high school students in the Metropolitan Detroit area who could not have gone to college can go. And many students already in college can be relieved of the threat of staggering financial difficulties!

The plan in a nutshell: NBD advances payments, covering the student's major college expenses, to any accredited college or university.

The payments, which become a loan to the student's parents, guardian or sponsor, are repaid in installments over a period of up to 6 years. So by budgeting the cost of the education over a longer period of time, you never face a large cash outlay and the plan enables you to guarantee completion of the college program.

How do you get details? Just call the manager of your nearest NBD office or, better yet, drop by and talk with him. He'll be glad to show you how the National Bank of Detroit College Education Plan puts higher education within your reach right now—simply, inexpensively and conveniently.

RotarySpeaker

At the regular Monday luncheon meeting of Grosse Pointe Rotary Club on December 15, the speaker and guest of honor will be ALBERT P. BANTHAM of Schenectady, N.Y. He will speak to the club concerning Rotary International activities.

Albert P. Bantam was born in Schenectady, was graduated from Union College in that city, and took graduate work at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

A Rotarian since 1930, he is a former member of the Rotary Club of Troy, N.Y., and is now a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Schenectady. He has served Rotary International as vice-president, director, district governor, and as committee chairman. He is now a member of the districting committee for 1957-60 and a member of the 1959 Rotary Institute agenda committee.

Mr. Bantam is a trustee of Union College, a past president of Union College Alumni Council, and a director of the Schenectady Industrial Corporation.

He has served as a director of the Schenectady Chamber of Commerce, president of the Associated Credit Bureaus of New York State and as a director of the Northeastern Credit Bureaus. He is a member and past chairman of the U.S. Armed Forces Advisory Committee.

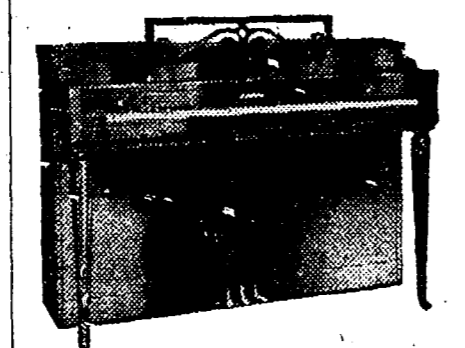

St. Clair Club Elects Pointer as President

A Pointer was recently elected president of the St. Clair River Country Club, St. Clair, Mich., it was officially disclosed.

Picked to guide the club for one year, was Mackinnon Scott of 1683 Severn road. The organization boasts 80 per cent membership from the Pointe.

Scott was also recently made a member of the Scottish Rite and a member of the Shrine, during Masonic ceremonies held in Detroit.

Festival Choir To Present Mass

The Midnight Mass by the French composer Marc Antoine Charpentier will be the major work presented by the Festival Choir of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, on Sunday afternoon, December 21. The program will also include two works for solo organ by LeBegue and DuMange and Part II of the Christmas Oratorio by J. S. Bach.

The concert, to be held at 4 p.m. in Christ Church in Grosse Pointe boulevard, is under the direction of Richard Roedel, musical director of the church and official organist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The performance is free and open to the public and a coffee reception will follow in the undercroft.

This will be the first performance of the Midnight Mass in the Detroit area. Like all of Charpentier's music, the Mass never received the attention it deserved during the composer's lifetime (1634-1704) due to the monopoly of French music enjoyed by Lully, favorite musician of the King of France. As a result, Charpentier's works were lost and forgotten until barely 15 years ago when they were uncovered and given performances for the first time in nearly 300 years. The Mass is an expressive work based entirely on early, semi-popular French carols which the composer has utilized in such a way as to preserve their simple and charming character. It is scored for strings, flutes and organ.

The Christmas Oratorio of J. S. Bach was written for the Christmas period of 1734-35. It is in six parts of which Part II (intended for performance on the second day of Christmas) will be performed at this concert. Part II begins with a Sinfonia traditionally known as Shepherd's Music and is scored for strings, flutes, oboes, English Horn and organ.

Soprano soloists will be Roma Butler of Toronto and Detroit and Irene Rosenfeld. Miss Butler is a frequent performer on programs of the CBC. Contralto will be Shirley Love, tenors, Dan Evola and John Hopkins and basses, Francis Miller and Richard Webb.

Orchestral parts will be performed by the Festival Chamber Ensemble assisted at the organ by Philip Steinhaus, organist and choirmaster of All Saints Church, Pontiac. Mr. Steinhaus will perform the two solo organ works (LeBegue and DuMange) between sections of the Mass, one following the Kyrie and the other after the Credo.

The Festival Choir, under the direction of Mr. Roedel, is sponsored by Christ Church of Grosse Pointe and open to all members of the community and surrounding areas. Other noteworthy performances to its record of recent years are: The St. John Passion by J. S. Bach, the Christmas Story by Heinrich Schuetz, the Requiem by Hector Berlioz, the Mass by Franz Schubert.

Driver Ticketed For Hitting Pole

The story that Jack W. Carter, of 21604 Barton, in St. Clair Shores, told City police in the early hours of Friday, December 5, apparently failed to impress them very much because they issued him a ticket for not having his car under control.

Carter's vehicle jumped the curb at Kercheval and Fisher and hit an Edison pole.

Journalism Prof. Raps Editorials

Newspaper editorials areis came along.

"Only on the rugged U.S. weekly can you be pretty sure the edit you read is the editor's." On dailies up to about 25,000 circulation, editorial writing is often a one-man assignment and usually the position is filled in a haphazard fashion, he said.

On larger papers, "editorial writing may be a joint product of the editorial conference." In such an atmosphere, with frequent differences of interpretation of the newspaper's policy, "it is surprising if much in the way of reasoned analysis or opinion emerges."

1. The editorial "we" "The product of the editorial conference, turned to echo the views of the owner, invariably hides behind the impersonal, colorless, anonymous and meaningless editorial "we."

2. Ignorance of the techniques of opinion-forming. For example, Zeisler said, if editorial writers during the Truman-Dewey campaign in 1948 had taken the trouble to find out how the polls were conducted, and what top professionals in the field knew, "they would never have stretched themselves over that particular barrel."

3. Crisis-crying. "There just ain't a new World-shivering crisis with each edition. With the help of doom-in-the-Adam's-apple radio and TV commentators, they (editorial writers) have numbed the public till it could hardly hoist an eyebrow if a 20-carat cri-

PEACOCK STARTED IT
The custom of making New Year's resolutions can be traced to a peacock. The colorful bird was a favorite Christmas dish in early England, according to research experts. It was customary for knights to take the "vow of the peacock" by making their pledge for the new year with their right hand on the peacock.

Crash Brings Dual Trouble and Injures Two

Richard R. Jurkiewicz, 18, of 440 Emerson, Detroit, crashed into a pole at Lake Shore and S. Edgewood on Saturday, December 6, and found himself in trouble. Two companions of the young motorist, suffered injuries in the crackup, and they also found themselves in trouble.

Like An Old Keepsake . . .

Injured were Charles D. Harrison, 20, of 2932 St. Jean; and Donald Lee Agbay, 17, of 3057 Lenox, both of Detroit. Both were taken to Bon Secours Hospital, the former with head injuries, and the latter, suffering from a back sprain.

Shores police said they found beer in the wrecked car, and issued tickets to all three youths. Jurkiewicz was given one for not having his car under control and another for possession of beer in the car; and the other two were handed one each for being in possession of the beer.

The accident took place when the youthful driver lost control of the vehicle and it skidded on the icy pavement and hit the pole.

Police said that all three had been drinking, and the youths claimed that an unknown man had purchased the beer.

To Preach Here

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will have as guest preacher on Sunday, December 14, the Rev. Clifford Barbour, D.D., president of the Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

This distinguished religious educator will address the congregation at both the 9:30 and the 11 o'clock services. His sermon topic will be "A Time for Faith."

Dr. Barbour, a native of Pittsburgh, was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh, and was the recipient of the S.T.B. degree from Western Theological Seminary and the Ph.D. degree from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. Three honorary degrees have been conferred upon him.

Dr. Barbour began his ministry in two Pittsburgh churches, the Shady Side Presbyterian Church and the Herron Avenue Presbyterian Church. While he was studying in Scotland he was the Stated Supply of the Bonnington Parish Church.

For twenty-three years thereafter, 1928-1951, he was pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, Knoxville, Tennessee. In 1951 he was inaugurated fourth President of Western Theological Seminary.

President Barbour has contributed much in the educational field of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. For six years he was a member of the Board of Christian Education, for 16 years he was Dean of the College of Religion at the University of Tennessee. He is now a director of Maryville College and he has conducted religious emphasis programs in many schools and colleges. In 1949-50 Dr. Barbour was Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

During the First World War, Dr. Barbour was Y.M.C.A. Secretary in France and Italy. He has continued to serve his community in various civic enterprises, chief of which are the Community Chest, of which he was president for two years, and the Society for Crippled Children.

Members of the community are cordially invited to hear this prominent church leader.

Burglar's Loot Won't Buy Gas

A burglar was in the act of ransacking the home of Floyd G. Kerby, 782 Hollywood, Friday, December 5, when the owner of the house arrived and frightened him away. The thief took something with him, however.

Kerby told Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian, that he arrived home in the evening and saw a strange car in his driveway. He went to a neighbor's house, and called police.

When he returned, Kerby said, the car had pulled out of the driveway, and sped away.

The thief had entered the house by breaking the window of the back door and unfastened the latch. He got away with some loot, it was discovered, amounting to a one dollar bill.

Farms Submits Building Report

The value of construction permits issued in the Farms since the beginning of the year has jumped to more than a million and a half dollars, according to a monthly report submitted by City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

An even 100 miscellaneous permits were issued, along with 25 residential building permits and one for business, making the total value of the miscellaneous, $410,000; residential, $1,064,000; and for the business, $210,000, with the grand total set at $1,684,000.

During the month of November, only five miscellaneous permits were granted, and these are valued at $13,300.

There were no residential or business permits given out last month, and no non-assessable permits issued since the beginning of the year.

Teeners' Plans for Robbery Foiled after Slugging Man

Two teenage boys were foiled in an attempt to strong-arm and rob a 72-year-old man on Kercheval during the late hours of Friday, December 5, when they were frightened away by a man emerging from a bar.

Victim of the attempted robbery was William Rose of 1209 Beaconsfield, who was struck in the face and knocked to the sidewalk in front of 15217 Kercheval. He suffered only a bloody nose.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Rose was walking on Kercheval about 11:30 p.m., when the boys, one 16 years old and the other 17 years old, approached their victim from behind. Something made Rose turn around, just as one of the hoodlums aimed a blow at his head, and the blow landed on Rose's face, and he fell to the sidewalk.

The teenagers became frightened when an unknown man emerged from the Rustic Cabins, 15209 Kercheval, and the youths fled without causing any more harm to their victim and without taking anything.

Rose reported the incident to police sometime later, Chief Louwers said.

Brownell School To Have Concert

Grosse Pointe's newest school, the Samuel Miller Brownell Junior High School, which opened this fall, will present its first Christmas Vespers Concert on Sunday afternoon, December 14, at 3 p.m.

Some 700 students who entered from Pierce, Parcels, Kerby, Barnes, Richard and Monteth schools have now become a strongly knit unit from which approximately 400 students will be presented in this, their first concert.

Rehearsals have been in progress by the seventh and eighth grade orchestra, of fifty members. The seventh, eighth and ninth grade choruses, comprising a total of 280 voices, and the concert band of 65 instrumentalists will complete the ensemble.

The program will consist primarily of Christmas music, with several selections by each group. The choruses will present Richard Kountz's "Christmas Cantata: Glad Tidings of Great Joy," directed by John Touseley. The instrumental portion of the program will include "The Great Gate of Kiev," by Moussorgsky, and "Ode to Music" by Chopin, played by the band.

The "Bouree" from the Water Music Suite by Handel, and the "Chorale" from the Redemption, by Hounod, will be played by the orchestra. A brass ensemble from the band will play two selections and also accompany the carol singing by the choruses.

The grand finale will be a paraphrase on "Adeste Fideles" by the band, with the chorus and audience joining in the closing anthem, Dewey D. Kalember will direct the instrumental groups.

There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited. The concert will be held in the school's gymnasium, on Chalfonte, and will begin promptly at 3 o'clock.

Improper Turn Cause of Crash

An improper turn resulted in an arrest for Irving Nusbaum, of 19503 Wyoming, Detroit, on Monday afternoon, December 1. Nusbaum was making a left turn into 360 Neff road when a passing vehicle, driven by Paul Mitman, plowed into him.

Mitman, who lives at 4303 Buckingham, told police that Nusbaum neglected to give any signal before making the turn. Hence, officers issued a ticket to the negligent driver, judging him to be at fault in the collision.

Empty Terrace Smokes Out Neighbors

Someone at the Alfred Dalton residence, 17513 Maumee avenue, smelled smoke, located it in the basement, and phoned the City fire department last Friday, December 5, but when both trucks arrived they discovered the trouble to be two doors down — at 17517 Maumee. The latter terrace apartment, recently vacated, was empty when firemen arrived at the scene, but a fire (presumably started by workmen burning rubbish) was going in an over-loaded fireplace with the ensuing smoke, filling the neighboring terraces.

Temporary Farewell

The retirement of Harley J. Earl as head of styling for General Motors has produced reams of copy for multitudes of publications. There have been accolades galore, publicly expressed over the air and in print, and quietly and sincerely spoken in gatherings large and small as friends and acquaintances have paid their personal tributes.

This being the town which Harley has called home for many years, it seems altogether fitting that the local bugle should add its toot to the paeans of praise.

There are many kinds of genius and Harley possesses far more than his amazing ability to transfer beauty from his mind to the drawing board. The trade journals and statistical reports have told the story of the nearly 70,000,000 cars which have been produced from his designs in this country and abroad. In addition to his own personal creations, his recognized leadership in his field has inspired many others, including his competitors, to achievements that would not have been possible had he not set the example. His artistic talents have redesigned everything from ice boxes to egg-beaters in the industrial field, and he has even been known to lend his magic touch to bring added attractiveness to the clothing which we wear.

To one not closely associated with the type of business which has occupied Harley for all these years, there is another kind of genius which he possesses which is equally impressive. This is his tremendous capacity for making friends and for sharing unstintingly the largess which so many wonderful attributes provide. Busy as he has always been, we never knew Harley not to have time to share with anyone who needed his help. He counts the great of several continents among his close friends, but he loves everyone and never fails to find something of interest in each person he meets. He has the ability to make one feel important beyond his real stature, but he himself exudes a modesty which causes him to blush like a school girl when acclaim is offered.

His enthusiasm is boundless and he puts into his hobbies all the energy that has always characterized his spirit in business. A natural athlete, he is a fine golfer and an expert hunter and fisherman. His personality matches his massive frame.

The Earls have purchased a residence in Palm Beach, and will be leaving soon to make their home there most of the year. A group of their closest friends are honoring them Friday night at a "Temporary Farewell" party at the Little Club. Harley will be back in Detroit several months each year to act in a counseling capacity in accordance with his GM contract.

The Pointe will miss them and the familiar sight of Harley touring the local streets in his world-famous Le Sabre. We join with all the others wishing God-speed to this man who is big in so many ways, and to Mrs. Earl, who has been closely identified with many charitable activities. May happiness and good health be theirs for many years to come.

Musings of An Old Man

By Fred Karber

It is interesting, often amusing to note the difference of opinions and conflicts of thought in a symposium of older men on world affairs. They look around at happenings in these turbulent times today and there come only transient conceptions. They read our news mediums, our periodicals and books and listen to the harbingers of coming events until there is confusion and discord in their understanding of the trend of the times.

In these nebulous years we dwell in the hope that mankind is immune from the sinister specter on the horizon of this civilization we boast. We cannot quite comprehend the difference of opinions that seem to flourish in the minds of men. In the courts of public interest there seemingly is a harsh disagreement of judgment among the men to whom we look for guidance in state affairs and the distribution of production and wealth.

We often find it difficult to definitely follow the reasoning of men who are endowed with that faculty to influence the minds and actions of thousands. There seems to be an abandonment of individual thought. The proletariat in various walks is prone to listen to advocates of some latent changes in our system of industry and government. We all live in expectation, but it is also fair that we regard the efforts of other men; men who conceived and dared to venture enterprises that provide livelihood for thousands and alleviate the drudgery of years past, and unless we show a profusion of goodwill the hierarchy of industry cannot stand.

A purism of the language of our statesmen, labor leaders and economists is interesting. The word progression is flaunted across the pages of our news columns, forebodings of depression are nurtured in the minds of some; some speak of recession; words in the vocabulary of statesmen are often confusing to the mind of the average layman.

They speak of communism, of cold wars, of summit talks, of machinations of reciprocity and appeasement. Then come along our scientists, with paraphrases more difficult to understand than those found in medical or botanical dictionaries. Words that don't root or flourish readily in the conception of ordinary men.

Yet in a council of judicious oldsters there is often a diagnosis of the fancied ills that beset our economic system. They tear asunder the high sounding phrases, criticize the philosophies of our politicians, suggest changes in the policies of government, condemn needless expenditures in some divisions and laud the frugal efforts of others. They deplore the trend of our foreign relations and with sparse knowledge of nuclear missiles condone our feeble attempts to establish a passage to the moon and the stars.

Nevertheless, such forums cast a certain spectrum on American life.

Blessed with the liberty to discuss the problems that beset us in our struggle toward prosperity for our land, toward a high plane of life for ourselves and our posterity, we welcome the wisdom and advice of such assemblies.

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Though I am old with wandering
Through hollow lands and billy lands,
I will find out where she has gone,
And kiss her lips and take her hands;
And walk among long dappled grass,
And pluck till time and times are done
The silver apples of the moon,
The golden apples of the sun."

(William B. Yeats)

The Green Feather

Just sit back in your rocking chair kiddies and read a very funny true story. We are printing this with the permission of Margaret Rice . . . to whom this DIRE thing happened. Some years ago, when Miss Rice got the idea of going into business for herself, she rented a small place downtown, about the size of an isolation booth. It was during the Winter and the winds and snows were blowing and for the first few days, no one came to the little shop. Finally, the big moment arrived. Into the store blustered a Hokinson type dowager, in search of a blouse. Madame opened her dingy change purse and produced a "poison" color green feather, about the size of one plucked from a new born chick. She wanted a blouse to match it EXACTLY!

Margaret . . . delirious with delight over her first customer . . . took a dim view of the transaction, since she was sure she could not match the color to suit Madame's taste. She had blouses to burn . . . but not JUST that shade. However, she made a valiant effort to find one . . . going through rack after rack. As she was on her way back to the customer to ask if she would settle for a complimentary shade . . . the door opened, as two more customers entered . . . and a high draft blew the minute feather out of La Rice's hand. Chapter two, finds Margaret taking care of the two new comers . . . then quickly back to the dowager . . . to inform her that she was sorry, but she lost the feather.

At this point, she noticed the woman was wearing a hat with some of the same color feathers in it, so she asked if she might snip a small piece out of the hat and go on another hunt through the blouse racks. BUT Madame was adamant. She said, in short: "YOU lost the feather. YOU can find it!" By this time M. R. wanted to bust out crying and set fire to the shop. However, being the stalwart she is . . . she got down on her hands and knees and started to hunt for the blasted thing, while the "character" sat reading the Girl Scout manual.

If you have ever tried to find a pale green feather lost on a green rug (figured yet) you will know what she went through. In the midst of all this performance . . . a friend of Rice's stopped in to see how things were going. When she spied Margaret on the floor on her knees, she exclaimed: "Listen pal . . . business may not be GOOD . . . but it isn't so bad yet that you have to be down on your knees praying for it!" The end? Dear Dowager settled for a pure white blouse!

Utter Confusion

Last week, on the occasion of Julie Harris' opening here at the Shubert theatre, one lucky woman was able to get four seats for the opening night performance. She and her husband planned on taking another couple to the show, but the latter fell apart at the flu seams . . . so she decided to let her son have the two seats . . . since he had an important date that night.

Our heroine telephoned him at his office to inform him of the windfall and said since she was going downtown that day, she would drop them off at the building where he worked and leave them with the doorman . . . then he wouldn't have to come all the way home to pick them up.

Shortly thereafter, she got into her chauffeur-driven car, and left the envelope on the seat next to her. It was addressed to her son . . . (with his office address) . . . and in one corner, the word "tickets." Our gal made one or two stops on the way downtown . . . and was finally ready to take off for Junior's office, when she noticed the envelope on the car seat was missing. Naturally, she asked the chauffeur, "What happened to the envelope I had here?" That worthy replied, brightly: "Oh, that. While you were in the bank, I got a stamp for it and mailed it!"

Santa Claus

In one of the downtown department stores, they have (in lieu of a LIVE Santa's helper) . . . a mechanical Santa who wears a sort of ear plug and listens to the small fry reel off what they want for Christmas. After a certain time elapses . . . Santa answers the child, which is all done on a recording.

A local woman took her ten-year-old son to see this wonder last week. When the boy's turn came, he stood frozen in front of the smiling and bobbing Santa and didn't open his mouth. When it was his turn to listen to the answer . . . jolly old Santa gave forth with the recording, saying: "Well, that's a long list of gifts you've asked for . . . but if you are a good child . . . etc. etc. etc." HERE we are going to have one disillusioned small fry. As they left the store . . . he said to his mother: "What was Santa Claus talking about when he said I had a long list of presents. I DIDN'T OPEN MY MOUTH!"

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

"A prophet is not without honor save in his own country" is a frequently proven fallacy. If Julie Harris had been born in Kansas City or Timbuctoo, we would, of course, regard her as one of the most delightful people in theater today. But viewing her at the Shubert last week, we felt an especially warm glow because she had grown up in our community.

The pride which Mr. Average Citizen has for any notable native son is without doubt unjustifiable, since in all likelihood, he has contributed nothing to that greatness. Yet irrationally enough, he feels a proprietary interest in the success of the illustrious one, and nobly shares him with the world.

We have not missed one of Julie Harris' triumphs since "The Member of the Wedding," and we hope we never shall. Talented, charming, versatile, she is a great lady and a great actress, and justified or not we're proud she comes from Grosse Pointe.

Two other of our stage favorites are Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt. If you share this enthusiasm, we suggest you spend an hour or so with them in the theater world monograph, THE LUNTS by George Freedly. This is an illustrated study of their work with a list of their appearances on stage and screen.

Robert E. Sherwood gave to Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne three of their most successful plays, "Reunion in Vienna," "Idiot's Delight" and "There Shall Be No Night." In a recent book, THE PASSIONATE PLAYGOER by George Oppenheimer, dramatist Sherwood has a sketch of the Lunts as he knew them. He says of them, "They may have entered the theater in the first place because it provided a possible means of livelihood—but they remain there because it gives them inestimable opportunities for having a good time." Certainly this is evident in everything this lively couple portrays.

"The Passionate Playgoer" is a personal scrapbook, and as a scrapbook should, it contains all sorts of tidbits by and about playwrights, actors, critics, directors, producers and even a few reflections on that essential ingredient for a successful production, the playgoers themselves. This has a number of photographs, is well indexed and is fun to pick up and read in odd moments.

A one-volume reference book, COMPLETE BOOK OF THE AMERICAN MUSICAL THEATER by David Ewen, has just reached the library shelves. Copiously illustrated, it is a welcome source book, encyclopedic in content and organization, rather than something to read for light entertainment.

Harold Clurman's LIES LIKE TRUTH contains a number of reviews and essays on the theatrical world from 1947 to 1957. This offers observations on plays, playwrights and players in this country and also reflections on plays and trends in England, France and Germany.

If you are a film devotee, you should not miss AGEE ON FILM. This is a posthumously published collection of essays by James Agee whose "A Death in the Family" won the 1957 Pulitzer award. A foreword states, "James Agee was considered by many people—both in and out of Hollywood—as the most brilliant and perceptive movie critic of his time. The body of his comment on film was large, original and varied." From late 1941 to the middle of 1948, he was movie reviewer for Time, and from the fall of 1942 to 1948, he also wrote the movie column for The Nation. In this book he plays eloquent tribute to the great men of films.

Hits Car's Rear; Receives Ticket

City police judged Peter Corsiglia, of 1267 Beaconsfield, to be at fault in the accident that took place at Jefferson and Cadieux on Thursday evening, December 4.

It occurred at 6:27 p.m. when Walter M. Demeo, 25511 Little Mack, in St. Clair Shores, had stopped on Jefferson, in the right traffic lane from which he intended to turn onto Cadieux.

He was halted for the red light when his car was hit in the rear by Corsiglia, who failed to stop in time.

Hickory Cured . . . ?

By Fred Kopp, R.Ph.

Folks used to think rheumatism could be cured by carrying a hickory nut. Today, we laugh at these old wives' remedies. We have so many reliable, quick-acting medications now. Medical discoveries in recent years have eliminated or greatly eased untold pain and suffering. But, remember—most medicines should be used only upon the advice of your physician. When you or a member of your family become ill, see your doctor first. Then come to us for the medicine he prescribes.

Outstanding new attraction this year, for children and adults alike, is a 15,000-piece miniature animated circus, complete with animals, wagons, circus train and performers.

Central religious theme of the Fantasy — one of the nation's best known holiday presentations — is the life-size Nativity scene in the Rotunda center court. Represented in the tableau are figures of Mary and Joseph, the Christ Child, Wise Men and their camels, shepherds and their sheep.

The background motif for the Fantasy scene is a full-size reproduction of a church organ, with organ music to add a touch of realism. Detroit area choral groups provide concerts periodically in the center court.

As always, the outer court is filled with animated characters from the world of fantasy.

In one section are scores of animated dolls representing children of all nations. In another, a large candy shop where animated workmen endlessly manufacture chocolate-covered delicacies.

There also are a rustic barn dance and a scene showing woodland characters frolicking in the snow.

The largest single display is the miniature circus in which moving workers unload the train, set up the big top and sell tickets; the animals perform, the sideshow dancers dance and the "barkers" entice the crowds. There are performing elephants, bareback riders, animal trainers — every traditional facet of the real, old-fashioned three-ring circus.

Santa Claus is in his castle at the top of the outer court ramp, to hear the whispered wishes of thousands of youngsters. A 40-foot high Christmas tree, with 18,000 individual lights, dominates the east Rotunda entrance.

Cartoon movies for children — and adults — run continuously in the Rotunda theater. The Rotunda is open from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday. The Fantasy will close at 3 p.m. Christmas Eve.

The 1957 Rotunda Christmas show was seen by 735,296 visitors, between November 30 and December 24.

Fortune won't smile on you without a lot of encouragement.

Christmas Program

The Boys and Girls of the Neighborhood Club are in the midst of rehearsals for their annual Christmas Play which will be held on Friday, December 12th at 7:30 p.m. The play "The Stockings Were Hung" is being dramatized by the Dramatics Class under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Drake and the novelty numbers will be put on by the following groups:

The Teddy Bears by the Playmates Club; Rag Dolls by the Girls' Gym Class; Toy Soldiers by the Girls Tap Class; and Brass Band by the Boys' Gym Class.

Everyone is invited to attend. No admittance charge.

Read This Poem And Then...

The following poem was written by one who depends on you for a happy Christmas. It was penned before a severe cutback in work and training was made at Goodwill Industries. This was necessitated by a lack of discards. Her poem speaks for hundreds of physically handicapped employees who can use what you do not need.

"Goodwill Industries"
God bless Goodwill
For the chance they have given
To people like me
To earn our own livin'.

Renewing clothing and
Most odds and ends
Makes gainful employment
For women and men.

"A Chance" is the slogan.
No charity ever
Can take the first place
Like an honest endeavor.

Now a word to the housewife,
As well as your neighbor:
Goodwill needs your discards
Or there will be no labor.

So clean out your closets,
As well as your den.
Fill a bag, call Goodwill
And we'll all say 'Amen'.

Jap Teachers Visit Schools

Visitors in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools last week included four Japanese teachers. They went to Mason Elementary School and to Parcels Junior High School to look at school facilities and to observe American teaching techniques.

Sadahiko Ikeura, Tadashi Gunji, Junji Miura and Sumuru Emoto spent most of Thursday in Grosse Pointe. They indicated they were very favorably impressed with the local schools and students.

The Japanese teachers are all teachers of English in their home schools. They have been studying linguistics and methods of teaching English at the University of Michigan since September. They will leave Ann Arbor in January to visit other communities in other states and sail for Japan in March.

V. A. Raising Funds for Poor

The traditional Volunteers of America sidewalk Santa Claus will be a familiar sight on Detroit streets in the shopping areas starting Friday, Nov. 28.

They will be seeking donations from kind-hearted people to raise a Christmas Fund of $20,000 for the relief of the less fortunate during the holiday season, according to Col. W. G. Boswell, commander of the Detroit Post of the Volunteers.

Sidewalk Santa Clauses, as usual, will appear on the same day in cities from coast to coast. This year in Detroit, the program will be under the direction of Major Bert Noble who was in charge of the famous school in New York City where prospective Santas are trained in the "dos" and "don'ts" of their job, especially as concerns children. Similar schooling will be given here this year.

Major Noble points out that being a sidewalk Santa has been a vital step for many unfortunate men to return to a normal life. Again this year, as for the last 25 years, the ranks of Santas will be dotted with men who have met hardship and handicaps and are being helped, by helping others.

Proceeds from the Christmas Fund will provide hundreds of holiday dinners for needy families, also a turkey dinner for homeless men at the Volunteers Men's Home on East Jefferson for all who come. Boxes of candy and toys will also be given to nearly 3,000 needy children at 20 Volunteers community centers on Christmas Eve.

Special holiday spiritual services will be conducted at the Men's Home and at the plant on Bellevue.

Those who may not be approached by a sidewalk Santa may mail in their donation, marked "Christmas Fund," to The Volunteers of America, 1411 First Street, Detroit 26.

The ratio of men to women at the University of Michigan is approximately 19 to 15.

Park Submits Traffic Report

The Park Police Department recorded a total of 276 traffic accidents, of which 65 were non-fatal (accidents in which injuries occurred) since the beginning of the year, it was disclosed by Police Chief Arthur Louwers in his monthly report to City Manager Robert Stone.

The 65 non-fatal is 13 less than for the same time last year, the chief said.

So far, no persons have died in Park traffic, whereas, last year, two persons lost their lives.

Persons injured in this year's traffic numbered 79, as compared to 106 during 1957; and property damage to November 1958, came to 213, just 43 less than last year.

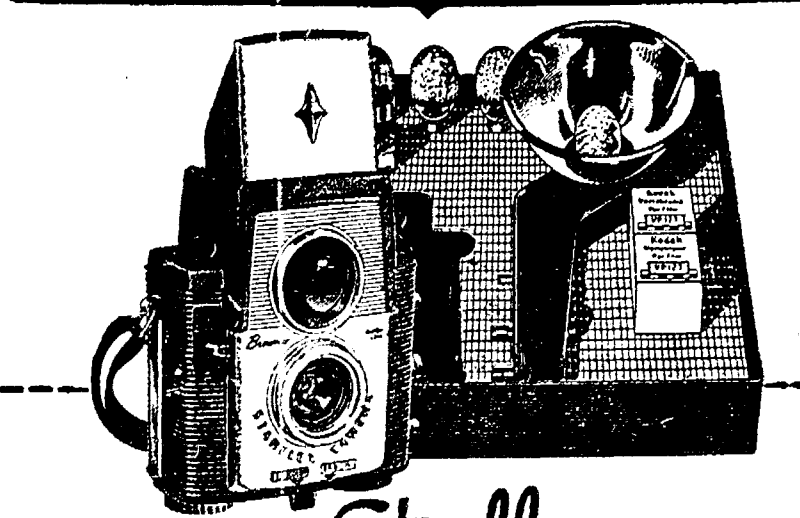

From January through November, there were 13 auto-pedestrian accidents, with 14 persons injured; and seven auto-bicycle mishaps, with four cyclists hurt.

Church Loses Typewriters

Farms police are looking for the thief who stole two expensive typewriters from the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church on Friday, December 5.

The Rev. Hugh White, pastor, told police that the typewriters, an IEM electric, valued at $400, and a Royal Standard, worth $100, were taken from the church sometime between 8:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m.

Donald R. McNew of 1899 Oxford, who was in the church, told authorities that he saw a man about 25 years old, about six feet, and with a thin face, standing near a car behind the church about the time the theft took place. He said the man went to the rear door of the church, but finding it locked, returned to his car and drove off in a hurry.

Police surmised that the man might have been the thief, and that he had returned to take a third typewriter, but was unable to open the rear door.

'And the Night Shall Be Filled with Music'

Men's Night in "The Village" had plenty of music, with the help of the Grosse Pointe High School band. Some of the musicians gathered around the big Christmas tree at Kercheval and St. Clair to pose for their picture while the stags were busily shopping during this traditional observance of the belief that man has a right to do his gift-selecting easily and pleasantly. The males swarmed through the City's shopping center on Monday night.

BREAKS ARM

Marie Evans, a maid at the home of the A. J. Fishers, 631 Lake Shore road, was taken to Bon Secours by Shores police on Thursday, December 4, when she fell from a ladder while working in the house, and broke her arm.

POLICEMAN ILL

Woods' Police Sgt. Henry Marchand of 1812 Anita, was transported to St. John Hospital, from his home, by police ambulance, when he suffered an apparent stomach hemorrhage. His condition is reported temporarily serious.

Church Giving Xmas Pageant

Over 100 people in authentic costumes will re-enact the Christmas story in pageant-form entitled "The Incarnate Word" to be presented by the choir of First English Lutheran Church, 800 Vernier road, on Sunday, December 14, at 8 p.m.

The pageant, written by Robert Reed of Philadelphia, utilizes a chorus of 35 voices, soprano and baritone soloists, with organ, narrator and a cast of 100.

Mrs. Helen Workman of Hawthorne avenue will sing the soprano role and Don Schroeder of Kenmore drive will be the baritone soloists. The Rev. Paul F. Keppler, pastor of the church, will serve as narrator and James F. Hunt, organist, will preside at the console of the new organ.

Act I of the pageant portrays The Prophecy and shows mankind longing for the promise of a Saviour.

Act II is The Nativity scene showing first the shepherds on the hillside and the appearance of the heavenly host; the shepherds journey to the inn and there worship the newborn King.

Act III depicts the Adoration of The Wise Men traveling in search of the newborn King with their entourage and gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Act IV, The Eternal Messenger, shows the pilgrims of today as they arrive to worship the Christchild. From all walks of life they come: the soldier, the mechanic, newsboy, physician, scout, nurse, student.

The choir will sing from the balcony choirloft as the cast of 100 portrays in pantomime the Christmas story in the chancel of the church.

Besides the original music written by Mr. Elmore for this pageant, there is included a 12th century plainsong, German, Moravian, Old English, Alsatian and Welsh carols. The pageant concludes with the use of the 15th century Latin hymn, "Adeste Fideles."

Pointe Chorus To Give Concert

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, under the direction of Donald W. Simmons, will present an informal concert of Christmas carols on Tuesday evening, December 16, at the B. Siegel store at Eastland Shopping Center.

Beginning at 7 o'clock, the Chorus will present selections from their Christmas concert, which was heard last Sunday afternoon by an enthusiastic capacity audience.

The lovely Alfred Burt Christmas carols will be sung as well as many traditional carols of the season. It is hoped that shoppers and music lovers will congregate to hear the music, probably the loveliest way of expressing the joys of the Christmas season and of remembering the reason for all celebrations—the birth of a tiny baby.

A vocal group from the Chorus also presented selections from their concert for the United Nations Council on Human Rights, last Tuesday night at the Grosse Pointe High School.

THEFT REPORTED

Two wheels and tires were stolen from the back porch of his home on Tuesday, December 2, according to a complaint made to Farms police by the owner, Albert Allor of 176 Muir road.

High School to See 'Gasarama'

ROBERT BRONSKY and NORMA TAYLOR of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company check out "Ricky" the robot, one of the star attractions in the utility's "Gasarama" show to be presented at Grosse Pointe High School on December 12.

"Gasarama," a stage show designed to stimulate the interest of students in a scientific education, will be presented at Grosse Pointe High School on December 12, at 8:30 a.m.

Sponsored by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, the production demonstrates many of the technological aspects of the gas industry in a manner which is as entertaining as it is educational.

"Gasarama" was conceived by Noble D. Travis, director of public relations of Michigan Consolidated. Unique in the gas industry, it has taken more than a year to develop. Robert Bronsky, staff engineer for the utility, is the chief creator of the various experiments as well as one of the narrators.

Mr. Bronsky, working with other members of the engineering staff, has done an exceptional job in demonstrating the practical applications of many phases of research carried out in Michigan Consolidated's laboratories.

Other members of the "cast" are David Fyffe, service department, and Norma Taylor of customer interview.

"Gasarama" has been recommended by Dr. Elmer McDaid, director of exact sciences for the Detroit Board of Education, for showing in all of Detroit's high schools. The Rev. Father Vincent Horkan, superintendent of the Archdiocesan schools, has also approved "Gasarama" for showing in the Catholic high schools.

One demonstration shows how dynamite and a seismograph are used to discover gas thousands of feet below the earth's surface. Another proves that natural gas will burn under water. Another proves that natural gas is not toxic as a mouse dances around inside a glass container filled with gas. Other demonstrations show the principles of compression, how a thermostat operates and how heat is employed to freeze water.

Electricity is created directly from a gas flame and from a gas fired internal combustion engine.

The principal of storing gas in old gas fields is demonstrated by burning gas as it passes through solid sandstone. A clock is operated by gas flowing through a meter and a miniature "satellite" goes into "orbit" to prove gas is lighter than air.

These and a number of other demonstrations are performed on a darkened stage using black light and a spotlight to add drama to the effect.

Mr. Hugh Daly, executive vice president of Michigan Consolidated, stated that he has every hope "Gasarama" will help to start high school students thinking, not only about seeking their future in the gas industry, but thinking seriously about higher education, particularly in the scientific fields.

"During the past 25 years the gas industry has undergone great changes which have helped provide Americans with the highest standard of living on the face of the earth," Mr. Daly said.

"Primarily, these changes were wrought in the laboratories where scientists and engineers developed the uses and methods that we think of now as commonplace. Things we can only dream of today will be developed by the students now in our schools.

"Unless more young people decide now that a scientific education is exciting and does hold a great future, we will lag behind in the great technological battles being waged in the world.

"We hope 'Gasarama' will in some way prove that every industry, including ours which is generally thought to deal only with men, machines, pipe and a natural resource, offers a real scientific challenge and future," Mr. Daly concluded.

Children Beat Yule Tree Ban

Teddy Roosevelt almost rode roughshod over the Christmas tree in his drive to conserve the nation's forests. But two little boys put the Christmas spirit — and the tree — back in the White House.

The Christmas tree was well established in the United States when TR became president.

Research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia say a Harvard professor named Charles Follen set up one of the first known trees in America in 1832.

President Franklin Pierce put up a tree in the White House in the 1850's to entertain the Sunday school of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. And President Benjamin Harrison continued the custom in the 1890's.

But some modern-day Scrooges convinced Roosevelt that the cutting of Christmas trees would soon deplete the nation's forests. TR promptly banned the tradition at the White House.

However, the old Roughrider forgot to consult his young sons. Archie and Quentin cared little about presidential edicts — and less about conservation. They smuggled a tree into the mansion on Pennsylvania Avenue and set it up in Archie's room.

The president relented, and ever since, the White House has had an indoor Christmas tree.

TR's concession also sent the Christmas tree industry soaring beyond the dreams of its founders — a Catskill farmer who brought his trees to market in New York City in 1851. And it helped pave the way for a new custom — the community Christmas tree.

In 1924, a Norway spruce was planted near the White House and later dedicated as "a national living Christmas tree."

Two years later, a giant California redwood in King's Canyon national park, named General Grant after the Civil War hero, was dedicated as the "Nation's Christmas Tree."

Reaching 267 feet into the sky from a base 40 feet thick, the tree is the second largest in the world.

Every year, nearby townspeople and visitors join in a holiday service and sing carols at the base of the sequoia, which was growing on the mountain slope when Christ was born in Bethlehem.

Al Susalla Opens Watch Repair Shop

A. J. Susalla, who spent 30 years as chief of the watch repair division of the Square Deal Miller Jewelers, before the Miller family sold its interest in the firm, has opened a "hole-in-the-wall" watch repair shop in Grosse Pointe Woods.

His shop is located at 21031 Mack Ave., opposite Bob's Drugs. He has lived in the Woods for many years and is a registered watchmaker.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

The Harley Earls, who are being royally honored before they move permanently to Palm Beach, will arrive from their Florida home just before the party toasting them this Friday at the Little Club.

Hosts at the gala will be the Harold R. Boyers, the C. Hascall Blisses and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison (the Morrises will arrive from New York today).

This week-end will be taken up with many parties for the popular Earls and visitors from out of town who will attend the Friday dinner dance. The Blisses will have as house guests, the Albert Bradleys, of Greenwich, Conn., and the Henry Uihleins, of Lake Placid, New York.

Mrs. Henry T. Ewald will give a luncheon on Friday for the Blisses' guests, who will be feted again at luncheon on Saturday by the Patrick Adamsons, of Touraine road, Mrs. A. hopes the Earls will attend the luncheon, too. While they are here for the gay week-end of parties they will stay at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Buhl, of Ridge road, will entertain Saturday night honoring guests Dr. and Mrs. Morrison are bringing with them from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyer will have as house guests for the week-end, the Charles L. Woodys, of New York.

Full Week-end

Not only the Earls, but almost everyone else in the Pointe will be donning their party clothes this week-end.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Albert will pour cocktails in their Lakeland avenue home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell will have all the neighbors in for wassail on Saturday. They live in that lovely lane, Tonnancour place.

That same evening the Robert Gottfredsons, of Whittier road, will be hosts at cocktails and dinner. The Rex Brophys, of Hampton road, will also be entertaining.

Import From England

Expecting an exciting house guest this week-end are Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Diebel, of Touraine road. Here from England will be Norman Forbes Robertson, son of the famous Shakespearean actor.

Mr. Forbes-Robertson will be spending Christmas in New York with relatives but will be here for a round of exciting holiday festivity.

Pair Leave for Mexico After Rites Saturday in Christ Church and Reception at the Little Club; Will Live in Maui, Hawaii After First of the Year

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Baldwin left on a trip to Mexico after their Saturday afternoon wedding in Christ Church and the reception which followed at the Little Club.

For the rites the former Virginia (Jinx) Claire Montagu McLucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols McLucas, of Vendome road, wore an original gown of ivory toned satin designed on Italian Renaissance lines.

A small pearl studded Juliet cap held her veil of silk net which swept to the edge of the gown's cathedral train. She carried white spray orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ralph T. King, of Cleveland, O., sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor with Judith Ollison as honor maid. They were gowned in full skirted frocks of white silk banded in scarlet, with scarlet slippers and headbands. Their bouquets were of scarlet crysanthemums.

Becker-Stoll Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Stoll, of Lansing, Mich., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Donald McNair Becker. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Becker, of Fishers road.

Presently employed in the Grosse Pointe Public School System, Miss Stoll graduated from Michigan State University, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. The couple are planning a late summer wedding.

Suburbia Garden Club Holds Yule Luncheon

A Christmas luncheon at Mrs. Bernard Pearce's, in Westchester road, was the December meeting for the Suburbia Garden Club. Food hostesses for the day were Mrs. Carl Engel and Mrs. Robert Quaid.

Gifts were brought to be exchanged among the members. Prizes were given for the most original and most beautifully wrapped package.

Ruth Alden sent a thank-you letter to the club, as every year each member donates a dress to her Dress Drive.

The bridesmaids, gowned like the honor attendants, were Helen Ecclestone, Harriet Metcalf, of Honolulu; Dorothy Ault, of New York; Lynn Carter, of Newton Square, Pa., and Winifred d'Olier, of Villanova, Pa.

Mr. King was best man for his brother-in-law, who is the son of Mrs. Edward Harrison Kittredge Baldwin, of Ulupalakua, Maui, Hawaii, and the late Mr. Baldwin.

Ushering were George S. Mott III and Horace F. Henriques, Jr., of Greenwich, Conn.; James G. Fullerton III, of Minneapolis; Daniel J. Mahoney, Jr., of Dayton; Arthur B. King, of Gates Mills, O., and Philip Hendel, of Westport, Conn.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McLucas wore a gray and rose water silk gown.

The couple will make their home in Maui after the first of the year.

Coterie Dance This Saturday

The Wassail Bowl will be steaming at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this Saturday night, December 13, from 9 to 12 to welcome all Pointe married couples and their guests to a Christmas dance.

The aroma of mulled cider and meat pie will mix with the scent of pine boughs and oak logs crackling in the Center's huge fireplace.

Angels will hover over guided wreaths and traditional Christmas trees and Yule candles will wink their hospitality.

Don Barber's orchestra will play for this festive occasion. All the ladies are wearing sparkly gowns to add to the spirit and glamour of the evening and there will be special entertainment MC'd by Coterie's jovial president-host Jack Whiteley.

Many Pointes are making December 13, a big evening with dinner parties before and open houses after. Everyone is encouraged to come in couples or in parties; a warm welcome awaits everyone.

Hunt Club to Have Gala Yule Parties

Next Week-End Busy at Club With Wild Game Dinner And Brunch; Schooling Show on December 21 And Gay New Year's Eve Festivity on Calendar

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club will be aglow during the holidays with festive parties climaxed by a gay New Year's Eve subscription dance.

This Friday evening John Mulford, of Provincial road, is sponsoring a World Trade Club dinner. About 100 guests will sit down to lobster and roast beef.

Gari and John Stroh will be hosts at a wild game dinner Saturday evening. Geese, duck, pheasant and grouse will be on the menu, much of the game being shot by the hosts.

On Sunday the Edwin N. Peabody will give a brunch.

December 20 is the children's party at the club and on the next day many of Santa's visitors will ride in the schooling show which will be followed by dinner.

On New Year's Eve the first 50 couples responding to the committee's invitation will celebrate at a subscription dinner dance. Mrs. William P.

Clark, Mrs. William O. Earl, Mrs. S. Keller Nissley, Mrs. Oscar L. Olson, Mrs. Edwin Peabody and Mrs. Ray M. Whyte are the committee members. Mr. Peabody is treasurer of the black tie gala.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Don't install gas or electric ranges under kitchen windows, say Michigan State extension home economists. Be sure the window can be opened without reaching over the range. Refrigerators should not be located close to the range or radiator or receive direct rays of the sun. Refrigerators should stand level. Some counter space at the opening side of the refrigerator is also very handy.

AAUW to Hold Yule Program

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women is in the midst of preparations for its general December meeting, which it is altering somewhat from the usual all-business routine to a "Meeting and Wassail Bowl" affair.

The festive occasion will take place at the War Memorial Center on Friday evening, December 12, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Donald Worley will present stories of Christmas in words and music, with Mrs. John Marshall providing the musical accompaniment.

Participating in the program will be Mesdames Arthur S. Hillegas, Albert D. Conkey, Arthur T. Bessy, Edward F. Suits, James H. Graves, E. H. Bahn, Urban Borech, Wilfred McLaughlin—and Santa Claus!

Assisting as hostesses will be Mrs. Frank D. McIntyre, Elizabeth Dulmage, Mrs. Watson I. Ford, Mrs. John R. Harding, Mrs. E. O. Warren, Mrs. Edward Schutte, and Mrs. Fred W. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Billings, of Bedford road, announce the engagement of their daughter, LOIS ELAINE, to Henry Lukowski, of East Chicago, Ind. Both are alumni of Wayne State University. They will be married February 7.

It may be true that time is money, but it isn't so scarce.

PEO Sisterhood To Hear Choir

Chapter AO, PEO Sisterhood, will hold its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. P. L. Nagel, of Park lane, on Monday evening, December 15.

Assisting Mrs. Nagel will be Mrs. E. Allison and Mrs. A. H. Smith as co-hostesses.

Following the business meeting, a program centered around the use of greens in Christmas celebrations and decorations will be given by Mrs. D. D. Struthers and Mrs. D. W. Simmons.

A vocal group from the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Youth Choir, under the direction of Donald W. Simmons, will present appropriate musical selections and a group carol sing will end the evening.

Instead of the usual gift exchange, members are donating to the project fund of the organization, which is used for scholarships and to aid in supporting the junior women's college owned by the Sisterhood, Cottey College, in Nevada, Missouri.

to week-ends. On Tuesday evening the Edward Lambrichts and Mrs. Donald Woodruff have bid friends to cocktails and dinner at the Country Club.

A bridal pair will be feted Friday, December 19, by the John W. Mulford, of Provincial road. Cocktails will be poured for Linda Hart and Bob Hutchison, who have a mid-winter wedding date.

On Saturday, December 20 the Clinton R. Scharffs, Jr., of Merriweather road, will have a party before the Yale Dance, one of many that is rumored.

Yule Tradition

When the Charles LeB. Homers moved to Vendome road from Philadelphia they brought with them a warm custom.

On Christmas Eve they will welcome friends with their children for cocktails and caroling from 4 to 7, early enough for the revelers to return to their own tree trimming and gift sorting.

The Alvin G. Shermans, Jr., will give a post Christmas party on December 27 in their Ford court home. The next evening the Paul Hykes will be hosts at a gathering in their Rivard boulevard home.

New Year's Eve Dance

When Mrs. Charles McFeely, Jr., puts up her Yule decorations this season she will do so with an extra flourish. The McFeelys have planned a full evening for New Year's Eve.

Guests will come for dinner and then there will be dancing to a trio during the long last night of 1958, with many others dropping in at the McFeelys' Lakeshore road home.

The dancing will take place in the new family room, and there is a slate floored green house leading from this new addition to take care of the dancers, too.

Santa's Visits

The clubs are preparing special Santa Claus visits for the small fry. On December 20 kiddies will greet St. Nick at the Boat Club where a magician will entertain, promises Mrs. Burns Cody chairman of the party.

The gentlemen of the Players will entertain this Saturday in their theater for the youngsters and December 20 is the date for Santa Claus to rein in at the Hunt Club to see what the tots want from him.

December 20 is also circled for the annual Fine Arts Yule dinner dance at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Mrs. Bernard Pearce is doing some unusual table decorations for this party.

YWCA Selects Sunday For Hanging of Greens

The beauty of Christmas will light up Elizabeth St. between Beaubien and St. Antoine on Sunday afternoon, December 14.

Lucy Thurman Branch YWCA, 569 East Elizabeth, has brought the entire block into its annual hanging of the greens celebration.

The YW will award prizes to the two houses in the neighborhood with the most beautiful outside Christmas decorations. Homeowners and absentee landlords on the block have been invited to participate in the competition.

Judges will view the houses early in the afternoon for presentation of the awards at the YWCA building between 3 and 5 p.m.

A Y-Teen choir singing carols on the street will enter the YWCA at 3 p.m. to begin the afternoon's program, which will include a Christmas story by Walter Mason and the traditional lighting of the Yule log by Mrs. Burrell Carter, chairman of the Branch board of management. The public is invited to attend.

Dance Classes To Have Party

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is inviting all of the young people in Aunt Marge and Uncle Bill Wilson's five dancing classes at the Center to a big Christmas Party complete with orchestra, favors and refreshments on Saturday evening, December 20, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

The three hundred young guests will be greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and ushered into the Center's main floor all decorated for the occasion. Dancing to Bill Knicey's orchestra will alternate with party games devised and supervised by Aunt Marge and Uncle Bill.

At 9 o'clock the first of the guests will be allowed to enter the main dining room where a committee of mothers will serve them refreshments. As successive groups are served they will receive fancy hats and favors.

Dress for the occasion is exactly what one would wear to Sunday School or church.

Mothers who are giving their time to choose favors, supervise decorating and organize refreshments are Mrs. James Masten, Mrs. Bruce Miller, Mrs. Robert Palmer, Mrs. Edmund Baier, Mrs. William Kriehoff, Mrs. John Niles and Mrs. Marvin Kean.

Elsa Barr Names Dec. 27 Bridal Party

Will Wed Howard Hunter Williams III in Christ Church With a Reception Following at the Little Club; Bride-Elect Returned to Boston Till December 20

Elsa Barr, daughter of the Andrew W. Barrs, of Merriweather road, was home for Thanksgiving from her Boston job to make final plans for her December 27 wedding in Christ Church to Howard Hunter Williams III.

Her bridegroom-elect is the son of former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams, of Rye, N.Y., who will arrive December 23 to stay at the Harold A. Beatty's Pine court home while the Beattys spend the holidays with their son and daughter-in-law, the George W. Beattys, of Washington, D.C.

Elsa's maid of honor will be Elizabeth Pierson, of Woodstock, Vt., with whom she once spent a year in Bangkok, Thailand, where Elizabeth's father was with the United Nations.

The bridesmaids will be Elizabeth Park, of New Canaan, Conn., with whom Elsa now shares an apartment in Boston; Mrs. John O. Hastings, of Indianapolis and Mary and Katherine Barr, the bride-to-be's sisters.

Mr. Williams, who is finishing his last year at Harvard Business School, has asked Thomas W. Williams, his brother, to be best man.

Ushering will be Andrew H. Barr, Elsa's brother; John Scranton, of Fairfield, Conn.; Paul Townsend, William Brookfield, of Rye, N.Y.; Rodney Wagner and Peter Eisenman, both of New York.

The bride-elect will return home December 20 for the pre-wedding parties which will begin December 23 with the cocktail party Mr. and Mrs. George Hefferan and their son-in-law and daughter, the Harry Jewetts will give in the former's Merriweather road home.

On the day after Christmas the W. Brace Krags and the John Garlinghouses will give a luncheon in the Krag's home in Merriweather road and that evening the Williamses will host the rehearsal dinner at the Little Club, where the wedding reception will also be held.

On the wedding day Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Smith, Jr., of Provincial road, will have a luncheon.

Yale Wives Prepare for Yule Dance

Yale alumni and their wives are eagerly anticipating the annual Yale dance, this year to be held December 20 at the Country Club. MRS. JOSEPH HUDSON, JR., left, MRS.

ALEXANDER WIENER and MRS. B. COURTNEY RANKIN are some of the Eli wives helping their husbands sell tickets for this big benefit for the Yale scholarship fund.

Pointers Being Taught With Practice Teaching

Among the 280 senior students busy with practice teaching duties at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, this fall semester, are Miss Phyllis Boccia, Mrs. Suzanne Misna, Miss Patricia Nelson and Miss Marlene Reno of Grosse Pointe.

Completing one semester of classroom experience with students, is required to receive certification in the state of Michigan.

Phyllis is the daughter of Dr. and James Boccia, 388 Lincoln road. She is teaching retail sales and business mathematics at the Muskegon high school.

Suzanne is teaching kindergarten at the Kalamazoo Roosevelt School. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William B. Chenoweth, 1253 Gray-ton.

Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Nelson, 2009 Brys, is teaching kindergarten and Nursery at the University Campus School.

Marlene, a graduate of the Dominican high school in Detroit, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Reno, 848 Neff road. She is at the Battle Creek Lakeview Junior High teaching seventh grade courses.

All but Marlene are graduates of the Grosse Pointe high school.

GPYC Plans Festive Christmas Week

There Will Be a Children's Party on December 20; Junior Prom, December 26 and New Year's Eve Celebration and Open House on January 1

Holiday parties are all set at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, with merrymaking planned for all ages. The December 20 Children's Christmas Party initiates the round; the Junior Prom is on December 26; there'll be the gay, formal New Year's Eve Celebration, and finally, the traditional New Year's Day reception and open house.

Jolly old Santa Claus, ensconced in his white sleigh (complete with life like reindeer) will receive the young set in the Venetian Room and bend an attentive ear to presents they want him to bring.

A huge Christmas tree, sparkling with lights, will dominate the Grand Ballroom, where the Arthur Quatro trio will play "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer," "Jingle Bells," and other favorites for small fry to sing.

The 2 to 4 p.m. fete, for members' sons and daughters of one to 12 years, will run the gamut of entertainment, gifts and ice cream-and-cookies refreshments.

George L. Cassidy has charge of the entertainment. He and George Thom, Jr., both members of The Players and old hands at acting, will don clown costumes and make balloon animals for the youngsters. Among the acts will be tap dancing by a third Player, Robert Vanderkloot, and his talented daughter Karen.

Mrs. Paul I. Moreland is party chairman. Her committee will provide supervision for children not accompanied by parents.

The annual Junior Prom on the 26th will be a reunion for girls and boys home for the holidays from boarding schools and first year college, along with their friends schooling locally.

Phil Girard and his TV Orchestra will be on the bandstand in the Grand Ballroom for the complimentary dancing from 8 p.m. to 12.

Center to Give Teens' Party

A special Christmas dance will be held on Monday evening, December 29, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for teenagers. Dick Weent's band will play the most recent in popular music from 9 until 12 o'clock. All students in grades 9 through 12 who are attending any Grosse Pointe School are invited. It is a couples only dance, and the dress is suits with white shirts for the boys and party dresses for the girls.

The dance has officially been designated as "Mistletoe Magic." Pat Hagland is in charge of making decorations, and Linda Libby is arranging for the refreshments. Diane Longyear is inviting the chaperones, and Peggy Carpenter is in charge of entertainment. Jon Rice will line up the door committee, and Phil Keim will head the clean-up committee. The dance is being publicized at the high school by Lisa Robinson, at Parcels by Mike Semison, at G.P.U.S. by Bruce Gillis, and at Brownell by Bill Taylor.

Harmonie Toasts Roaring Twenties

Steak Dinner Preludes Gay Saturday Night Dance;
Children's Party on Saturday and on December 20
Club Choruses to Give Annual Concert

Last Saturday night brought a record turnout to The Harmonie's "Roaring Twenties" party, staged in the club's large ballroom. A steak dinner with all the trimmings was the prelude to an evening of jollity in which many Grosse Pointers participated.

It was evident that the family-size storage trunk, not entirely a thing of the past, is a fine first aid when it comes to costume parties.

At the Harmonie soiree were men with derby hats and straw sailors who were wearing striped blazers and artificial moustaches—but even such slight disguises brought smiles and reminiscing.

Hats and coats and dresses of the women who appeared in costumes of the "twenties," were amazing in that they seemed so like today's styles, yet were clearly of a bygone day. For example, Mrs. William Hielscher, mother of board member Wilburn Hielscher of Beaconsfield avenue—told of fishing out of a large trunk the heavy black pure silk taffeta she was wearing.

"It's at least 40 years since I've worn it," she said. "Black was all the rage for evening dresses just then, especially with the young matrons. I shook out the folds, pressed the dress on the wrong side with a warm iron and to my surprise there wasn't the slightest trace of a wrinkle." Moderately low-necked and with elbow-length sleeves, Mrs. Hielscher's bouffant skirt cleared the floor at just the proper 1928 distance. Borders of skirt, bodice and sleeves had a rich design of hand-painted garden flowers. Chic and as up-to-date looking as one could wish.

An orchestra did its share toward the guests' enjoyment by playing tantalizing dance tunes for the Charleston, Varsity Drag, black bottom and two-steps — and variations thereof.

Just the right amount of entertainment was interspersed, with Grosse Pointer Otto Krohn, an accomplished emcee.

High note of the evening musically was the Harmonie Chorus Octette, Grosse Pointe area members of which are Harold White, Howard C. Fisher, Karl Strek and Albert A. Schlorff — the last named being chairman of the entertainment committee.

Pianist Christine Schlorff (Mrs. Albert) was the accompanist. The octette, under the able direction of Frank Murch, delighted everybody with songs of bygone days, of which they have a seemingly endless repertoire.

The program included Wally Kane, clever young tap dancer who was encored again and again, as also was dancer Nedra White, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold White of Alter road.

Once a year, Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Balser of Littlestone road play host to a group of neighbors — usually at The Harmonie. Their guests last Saturday night included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teiper, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. DiCicco, the S. C. Crawfords, Linne Rahms, L. M. Dietrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Haight and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Dobbie.

Also noted at the party were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Young, of Trombley road and their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund J. Gruber, the Philip C. Grecos, Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeBuigne, of Ballantyne road, and their guests, the Robert Snowdens of Riverside drive, the Phil J. Uriges, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taepke, Jr. and the Earl Eckstrands of Roslyn road, the Robert Manns and Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Davis.

Three other social events are scheduled for this month: The children's Christmas party, Dec. 13, from 1 to 3 p.m.—with entertainment including a clown, a visit from Santa Claus with his pack, surprises and light refreshments for the small guests.

The Harmonie Choruses will present their annual holiday concert, featuring Christmas carols and the boys and mens choir from St. Mary's Anglican Church, Windsor, Ont. on Saturday, December 20. They will be directed by Choirmaster Sidney Tarleton. A buffet dinner will be served between 6 and 8:30 p.m. including a special menu for children. The concert is announced for 8:30.

New Year's Eve at The Harmonie, for members and their guests, is one of this 110-year-old club's cherished traditions. The invitation informs: Hors d'oeuvres at eight o'clock. Dinner from 9. Dancing to two orchestras from 10 o'clock. Favors and continuous festivities.

Surprise Party Has Yule Motif

Twenty-six Grosse Pointe women attended a surprise birthday luncheon last Thursday for Mrs. William G. Siebert of Touraine Road. Mrs. James H. Quello was hostess for the party held in her home in Berkshire road. Decorations and table settings were in Christmas motif. Left to own young Mike Quatro, piano star of the Lawrence Welk "Little Band," who had starred at the GPYC keyboard numerous times before going to the West Coast last summer.

At the New Year's Eve party of Dec. 31, dinner from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m., and dancing (from 10 o'clock on) are on the agenda for the handsome festivity to be staged in ballroom and main dining room in a setting of streamers and balloons.

It's to be music by the Ralph Bowen orchestra and the Arthur Quatro orchestra, fancy hats, noise makers and serpentine ribbons to greet 1959.

The entertainment committee has charge, including Chairman Eugene Casaroli, Vice Chairman Earl Fraser, George Cassidy, Hawford Kerbow, William M. Schmidt, and Russell D. VanHouten.

On Jan. 1 from 4 to 6 p.m., GPYC's directors will welcome members and their families at the New Year's Day reception and open house.

College Women's Club To Hold Holiday Fete

The College Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Friday, December 12, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Erta Curtis, of Kenwood court.

Miss Ora Hahn of Detroit, general chairman, has planned a program entitled "Christmas around the World." The singing of carols and the exchange of gifts will round out what, each year, a most festive occasion. Dessert will be served.

Fear of being found out keeps a lot of people on the straight and narrow path.

Cornell Glee Club Plans Yule Concert

Will Sing December 22 in Cranbrook Auditorium For Club's Scholarship Fund; Charles H. Fletcher, Jr. In Charge of Tickets for Pointe

Cranbrook auditorium in Bloomfield will be the locale of a "Holiday Harmony" concert by the University of Cornell Glee Club at 8:30 p.m., Monday, Dec. 22, sponsored by the Cornell Club of Michigan for the benefit of the club's scholarship fund.

The event is expected to attract many of the 600 Cornell alumni in the Detroit area, about half the club's statewide membership, and special guests among senior high school students in the area.

Among Birmingham and Grosse Pointe sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. William D. Krim, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Higbie, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. O'Rourke, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Ciser, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Beers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Cudlip, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fletcher, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. George McMullen.

Cornell has long rung with the music of vocal choruses, for the Glee Club is as old as the university itself. The first musical organization on the campus "high above Cayuga's waters" was the Orpheus Glee Club, founded in 1868, the first academic year of the university. Twenty-one years later the singing group was reorganized as "The Cornell Men's Glee Club," the title it has retained since.

The current club is comprised of 55 undergraduates under the direction of Thomas A. Sokol, who is its sixth director and went to Cornell from Boston in 1937. He is assistant professor of music at the University, and previously had been church choir director in various cities, acting director of choral music of New England Conservatory, assistant conductor of the Harvard Glee Club and Radcliffe Choral Society, Assistant Choir Master of Harvard, and Assistant Professor of Music at Newton College in Boston. In charge

School Leaders Hear Bushong

Dr. James Bushong, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, was the principal speaker at the three-day, 45th annual conference of the Michigan Secondary School Association. Some 400 high-school principals attended the conference, which was held last week in Lansing.

Artists Mart to Give Show

The Detroit Artists Market is presenting its annual Christmas Show now through January 6.

The show, which opened last week, exhibits gifts for everyone. Dick Leavell, who designs outstanding walnut bowls and trays, has some of his work on display.

Other artists are Clyde Burt, ceramicist; Sue Bolt, water colors; Dorothy Siddall, water colors with a gold leaf motif, and Harriet Larkin, silver jewelry.

The area of the flight deck on the Navy's newest aircraft carrier is equivalent to about four acres. The SS United States and SS America could be placed on it with room to spare.

Joan Sattley to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Hale V. Sattley, of Tonnancour place, announced the engagement of their daughter, JOAN HARRINGTON, to Hilary Herbert Micou, Jr., son of the senior Micou, of Kerby road. The troth was told at a cocktail party given by the bride-elect's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence B. Higbie, of Dean lane. Miss Sattley attended Fox-hollow School and Smith College. She is a member of Tau Beta and Junior League and was presented to society at the Grosse Pointe Club. Her fiancé is an alumnus of Cornell University where he was a member of Alpha Delta Phi. The couple's immediate families will attend the December 27 wedding at Christ Church.

Set Aside Week For Symphony

The Society of Contributors to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will sponsor an official "Detroit Symphony Week" January 18-24, to emphasize the orchestra's artistic stature and service to the community.

Harold O. Love, society president, appointed Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey and Alan E. Schwartz to head the intensive city-wide campaign. Mrs. Stephen A. Forish and John B. Ford III will assist.

During the week the public will be made aware of the orchestra's colorful history with special accent on its role as one of Detroit's most valued cultural institutions.

Events scheduled during the week in addition to regular concerts include an invitational concert for Society of Contributor members Jan. 19, a joint meeting and tea by the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association January 21, and a Symphony Ball January 24.

Detroit Symphony members will conduct clinics for young musicians January 20-21 and Detroit Public and Parochial Schools and Universities plan elaborate displays and exhibits.

In addition, the Society of Contributors will announce winners of Symphony Slogan, Lusignia and Essay contests conducted throughout the area by the School Systems in preparation for the week-long celebration.

Throughout the period the public will be urged to participate in Symphony functions and to enjoy the orchestra they have built. Reminders of the orchestra will come from all sides. Detroit Symphony record music will fill downtown streets and stores as will posters, banners and displays proclaiming the event. Radio and television will spotlight the orchestra's national reputation with interviews with celebrities of all fields.

The Celebration Committee planned the week to establish even more firmly the fact that the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is a community project to be shared and enjoyed by us all.

Make Mistakes; Help Next Year

Next year things will be different. We'll be ready for the holidays. This is a familiar refrain for most families.

Extension specialists in home economics at Michigan State University suggest that home-makers use this Christmas season to plan for the next.

For instance, there's the old question: "Did I plan, shop, make gifts and send cards early enough?" Last-minute planners are often so busy they don't realize that their feelings of pressure, excitement and irritability are communicated to their families.

You can start planning right now. Make your 1959 gift list before the holidays end. You'll be less likely to overlook someone and can also watch for late winter, spring and summer sales.

How is the children's attitude this year? Are you planning your time so that you may help the children participate in holiday activities without losing patience and without the children becoming irritable and over-excited?

Participation in pre-season activities can help a child drain off pent-up excitement. But time, help and materials are needed. Parents should plan to have on hand a good supply of the things their children will need to make and wrap their own gifts and to create their personal Christmas cards.

For the little child, this means fat crayons, paint, drawing paper, colored construction paper, scissors with blunt ends, paste and Christmas stickers—all preferably his own. You can also save "used" wrappings, cards and ribbons from this year's gifts. Label a box "Johnny's Christmas Box—Open December 1, 1959," and use it for collecting various items during the year.

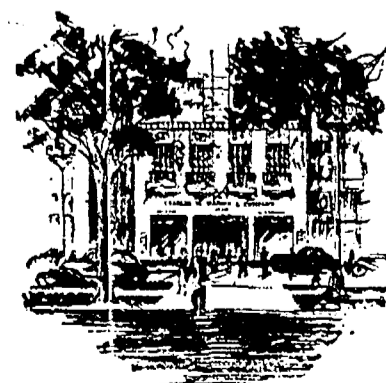

For your own "research," watch how Christmas Day itself goes. Did you plan for a peaceful enjoyable day, then have things go wrong? Now is the time to jot down suggestions. In fact, why not have

Victor Borge to Play For Institute Benefit

The December 20 One Man Concert of the Pianist-Comedian Is Sponsored by the Friends of Modern Art For Art Institute; Mrs. F. Alger Jr. Heads Committee

The most festive fund-raising event ever staged for the Detroit Institute of Arts will be the program by Victor Borge, pianist-comedian, Saturday, December 20, in the auditorium, sponsored by the Friends of Modern Art.

Proceeds will be used to purchase works of contemporary art for the Institute's permanent collection and members of the Friends group executive committee, headed by Mrs. Frederick M. Alger, Jr., anticipate an amount larger than ever was available before.

Not only Borge's famed entertainment, but an opportunity to meet him at a reception in the Institute's Romanesque Hall afterward, are included in the price of admission for the gala evening.

Tickets are twenty-five dollars a person. There is also a list of 106 patrons, each contributing one hundred dollars to the good cause.

Refreshments will also be available during intermission in the balcony foyer of the auditorium. But as Mrs. Alger points out: "Frankly, we don't know what Mr. Borge will do. But we're sure he'll keep us posted from time to time. There is also an intermission . . . but only Mr. Borge knows when!"

Serving with Mrs. Alger on the executive committee are: Mrs. Isadore Levin, vice chairman, Mrs. Henry Ford, II, Mrs. Robert Wardrop and Robert H. Tannahill. Others most active in securing patrons have been Mrs. Phelps Newberry, Lawrence A. Fleischman and Kaye Frank.

The 7,000 invitations sent some two weeks ago bore a vivid color reproduction of "Composition with Clarinets and Tin Horn" by the American contemporary painter, Ben Shahn. One of the best known of modern art works, it was purchased by the Friends of Modern Art in 1951.

Since this activity group, associated with the Founders Society of the Detroit Museum of Art, was founded in 1931, there have been purchases of works by Picasso, Matisse, Giacometti, Cremonini, and other modern "greats."

Among the patrons are Mr. and Mrs. Wendell W. Ander-

Members of the Celeste Cole Opera Workshop will sing December 16 at the Christmas meeting of the Garden Club of Michigan.

Mrs. Standish Backus, of Lakeshore road, will be hostess in her home for the tea which begins at 3:30 o'clock. Assisting her will be her daughter, Mrs. Edward H. Jewett, of Lapeer, and Mrs. Edward S. Evans, Jr.

Six members of the Garden Club will bring arrangements based on a Christmas music theme.

Mrs. John Hutchinson will do "In Bethlehem Town," Mrs. Longyear Palmer, "Behold that Star!" Mrs. Dexter Ferry, "Sweet Little Jesus Baby," Mrs. John Lord, "Oh, Holy Night," Mrs. William Laurie, "Adeste Fidelis," and Mrs. Frederick Campbell, "Mary's Lullaby."

son, Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Bodman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl, Mrs. Horace Dodge, Mrs. Edsel Ford II and Mr. and Mrs. William Clay Ford.

Others are Mrs. Julius Haass, Dr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. John Lord, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McGraw, Mrs. Phelps Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney T. KING KNIGHTS ROAST

An English king with a sense of humor gave us the name for sirloin steak. Charles II once compared his affection for his friends gathered at a Christmas dinner to his fondness for a good beef. Touching the roast with his sword, he declared, "I knight thee Sir Loin."

Engaged

St. Clare Plans Yule Bake Sale

A Snack Bar, where busy shoppers may relax over a coffee cup, will be the special feature of the Christmas Bake Sale at St. Clare of Montefalco Church, next Saturday, December 13.

The Sale, which will continue from 7 until 5 o'clock, is sponsored by the Archconfraternity of St. Clare, and the co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Joseph Shehan and Mrs. Richard Koehn.

The Snack Bar which will offer breakfast and luncheon menus, will be supervised by Mrs. Thomas DeCorte, Mrs. Joseph Slevin, Mrs. Roland Loweke, and Mrs. Earl Ploof.

A custom, long popular at Archconfraternity Bake Sales, of baking pies throughout the day in the large Church kitchen ovens, will be carried out by Mrs. Joseph Deeb, Mrs. David Abraham, and Mrs. Joseph Mabarak.

The ladies who will receive and mark baked goods are Mrs. Anthony Ugval, Mrs. Carl Rallo, Mrs. Albert Zimmerman, and Mrs. C. DeGustino.

The sales ladies will include president Mrs. Basil Cunningham, Mrs. M. Madison, Mrs. Edmond Oldani, Mrs. R. M. Hoffman, Mrs. Clayton Alandt, and Mrs. Anthony Spezia. It will be the pleasant task of Mrs. Sam Sfire and Mrs. Frank McDonald to see that a "fortunate few" go home with fruit baskets, refreshment packages and Santa's prettiest doll.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

If the fabrics in your children's snow suit are made of man-made fibers, do not let the garment get too soiled. Michigan State University extension home economists recommend that nylon suits be washed often and let dry thoroughly. Also, brush a little full strength detergent onto the greasy marks and soil spots before putting the garment in the suds.

Calvary Lutheran Church Women Install Officers

The Women of Calvary Lutheran Church met for their final general assembly of 1958, on Friday evening, December 5. At this Christmas Festival Meeting the women's names were reshuffled into new circles for 1959.

The newly elected officers and appointed department chairwomen for the new year were installed by Mrs. Jacquelin Bassett, Past President, 1957.

The officers for 1959 are: president, Mrs. Marie Roberts; vice president, Mrs. Eileen Francis; secretary, Mrs. Marion Natzke; treasurer, Mrs. Nancy Stilwell.

The evening's program also included a gift presentation of stoles to Pastor Harold Schroeder, group singing, business meeting, and a refreshment and social period with the exchange of Christmas gifts.

The outgoing president of the society, Mrs. Shirley Zuelch, wished the 1959 officers and chairwomen continued success in this new women's venture at Calvary.

The modern day version of happiness appears to consist of doing things we can't afford.

Little's to Fete Dean Lane Set

All the neighbors on Dean lane, one of the Pointe's quaintest one block streets, will gather in the house on the top of the hill on December 27.

Hosts for this block party will be Mr. and Mrs. F. Jean Little who have made this an annual gala.

On hand this year for the party will be the Little's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Chapman, of Dayton, O., with daughter Lee and son Scott.

Last week the Little's were surprised by a one-night visit from his cousin, Lewis Jones, American Ambassador to Tunisia, and Mrs. Jones. The couple were on route from Milwaukee to Washington, and then back to his overseas assignment.

Student loans at the University of Michigan totalled $814,105 during academic year 1957-58.

Remicks Plan Family Party

The Jerome H. Remicks, Jr., are decking their Ridge road home in preparation for an especially festive holiday. They will be welcoming home their family on Christmas Eve.

Jerome Remick, III, will be here from Quebec where he has been doing geological work and Fenton will be discharged from his Army duty just four days before Christmas. He has been stationed in Germany for two years.

Coming from Sao Paulo, Brazil, will be the Lewis P. Remicks and daughter, Annette, 1½ years, who will be greeting her grandparents for the first time.

Empire Daughters Plan Christmas Meeting

The Vincent Massey Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will hold their Christmas meeting on December 18 at 8 o'clock in the Chalmers avenue home of Mrs. W. W. Leroy.

Legion Ladies Adopt Project

Awakening greater public interest in education for survival will be one of the endeavors of the American Legion Auxiliary during the coming year. Mrs. Evelyn Kraft, Civil Defense Chairman of Grosse Pointe Auxiliary Unit 303, has announced.

Auxiliary Units will be urged to hold "Home Preparedness Workshops" for all the women of their communities to study means of protecting their homes and families in event of disaster.

"We must recognize the danger in which our nation stands from atomic, bacteriological and chemical warfare," said Mrs. Kraft, "and learn what steps we can take against this threat. If our nation is to survive under attack, we as individuals must know how to sustain ourselves after the disaster and to help our country recover from the blow."

"For personal survival everyone should know the warning signals and what they mean; the community plans for emergency action; how to get protection from radioactive fallout, and first aid and home emergency preparedness."

Founds Organization At Hillsdale College

Elaine Walsh VanSteelant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Walsh of 1309 Lakepointe, has founded a new organization on the Hillsdale College campus. The club is designed to provide an evening's entertainment once a month for those women whose husbands are attending Hillsdale College, the name of the club being Hillsdale College Wives Club.

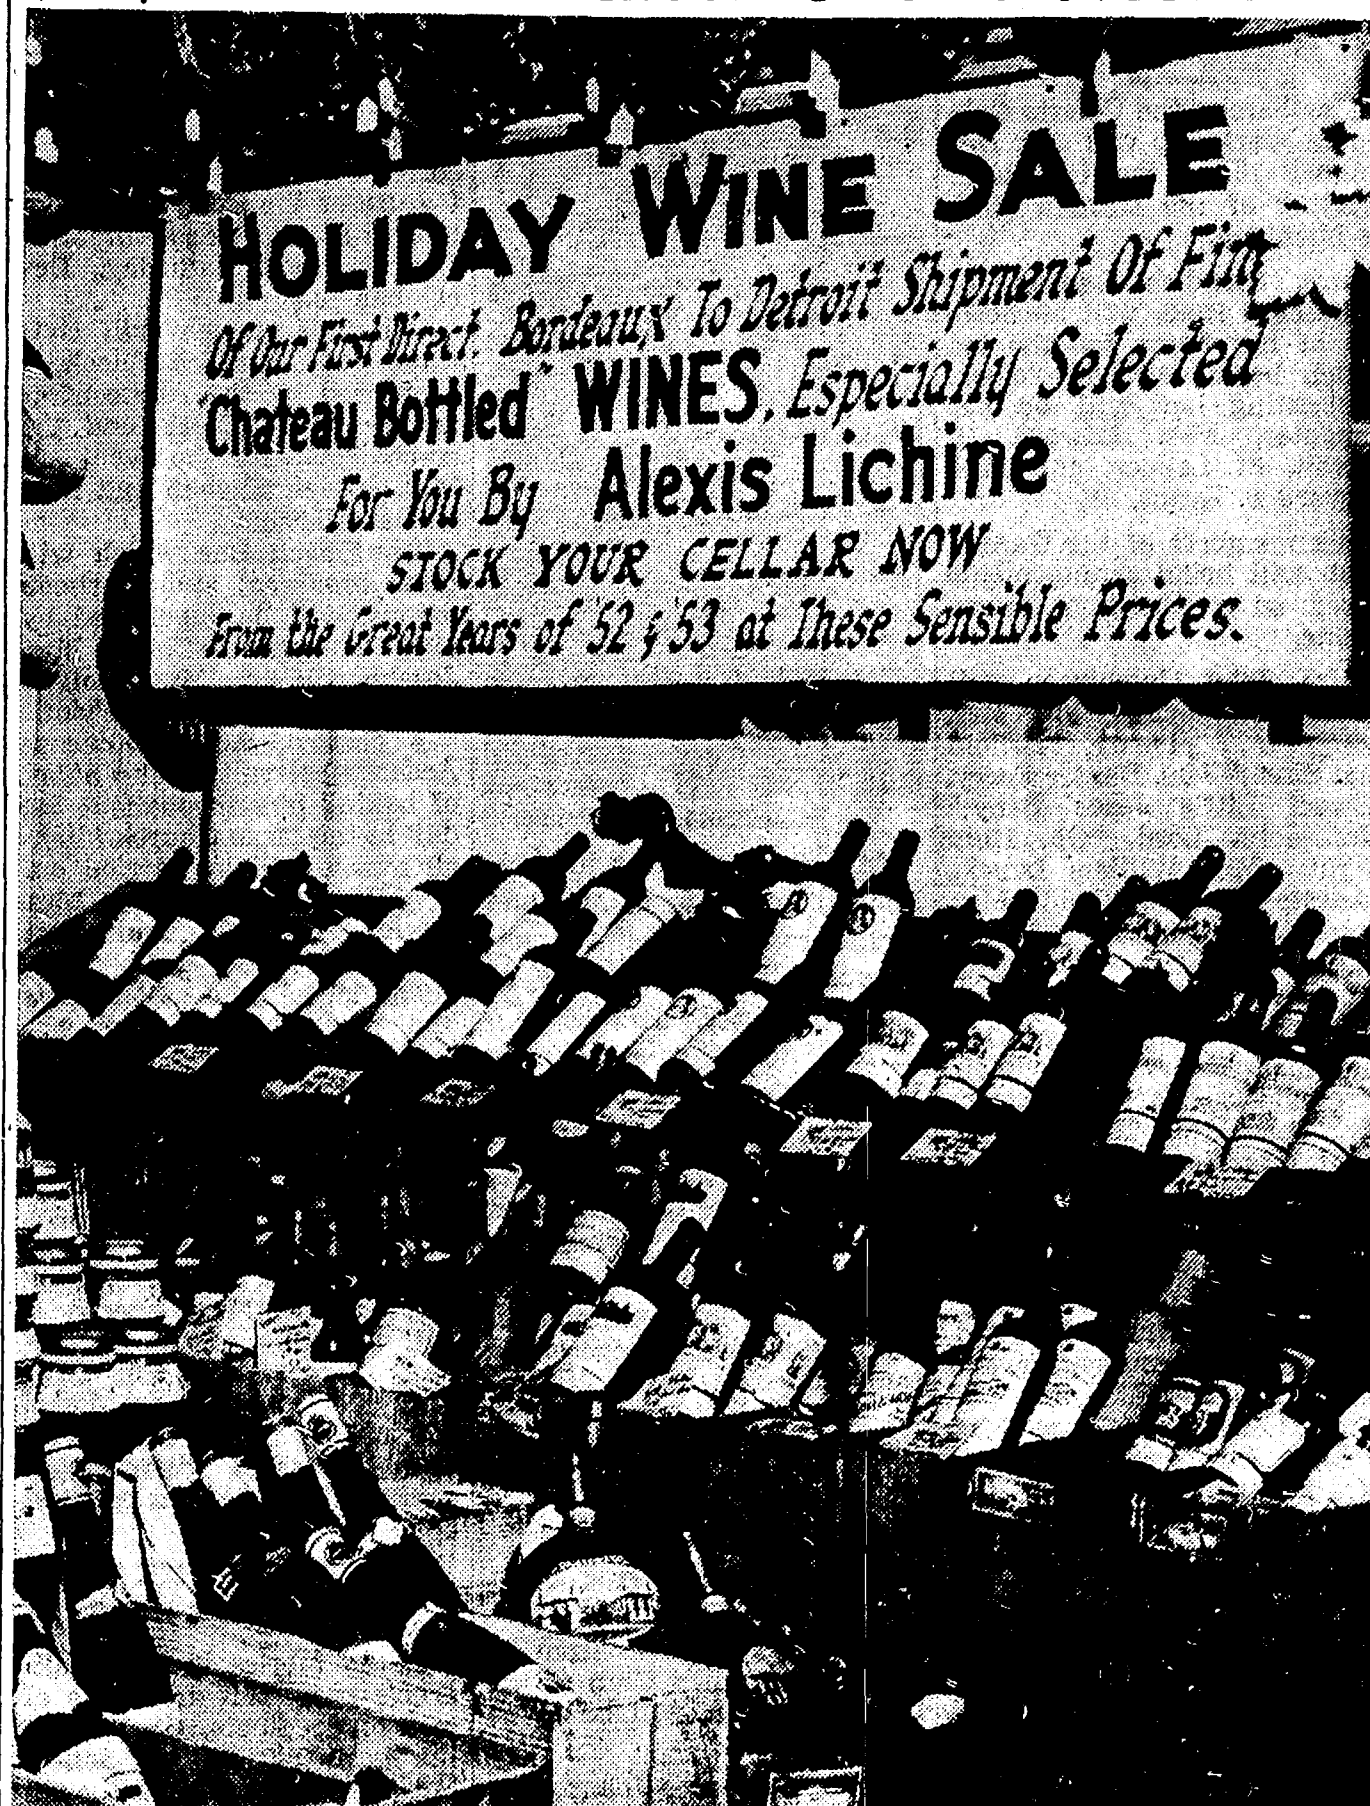

Elaine, as well as founding the organization, was elected president for the 1958-59 school year at the second business meeting.

Mrs. VanSteelant, a graduate of St. Ambrose High school, has resided in Hillsdale, Michigan, for the past three years with her husband, Bob, a senior at Hillsdale College, and her son Paul. She was married in 1955 in Grosse Pointe and spent the first year in Newport News, Va., where her husband was stationed with the U.S. Army.

After graduation they plan to return to Grosse Pointe while Bob continues his work for a master's degree at Wayne State university.

Seniors Give Tea at GPHYC

Marian Simon, Nancy Clemenson, and Betty Veitch, seniors at Grosse Pointe High School, were collaborating hostesses at a Sunday tea December 7 at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club to fete their girl classmates, all members of the GPHYC January graduating class.

Staged in the club's Venetian Room, the delightful 3 to 5 p.m. festivity was in the Yuletide theme, with an arrangement of Christmas greens and red carnations centering the tea table, and red tapers in candelabra carrying out the decor.

The hostesses pinned red carnation corsages to their soft wool afternoon dresses, Marian wearing a navy sheath, Nancy in green, and Betty in a vari-hued print.

Assisting were their mothers, Mrs. Howard Simon of Buckingham Road, Mrs. Walter Clemenson of McMillan road, and Mrs. Robert Veitch of Middlesex road.

Special guests were five Grosse Pointe High School faculty members, including the class sponsor and assistant sponsor, respectively Miss Dorothy Hostetler and Mrs. Jack Pohlman; Mrs. Fred Flom, dean of girls, and the Misses Ottilia Schubert and Leona Weier, home room teachers.

GPHS Choir Sings Sunday

By BOB STIEFEL
GPHS Journalism Student
 The Grosse Pointe High School A Cappella Choir will participate in a choral Evening at Christ Church Sunday, December 14 at 7 p.m.
 Sponsored by the Canterbury Club, the service is for the young people of the community.
 Under the direction of Mr. John E. Finch, the choir will perform "Glory to God" by Pergolesi, "Christmas Snows of Sweden" by Gaul, and Ringwald's cantata, "Song of Christmas." It will also sing the hymns and canticles of the service which will be led by the Rev. Tom Masson.
 The choir of seventy will sing antiphonally from the chancel and the balcony duplicating one of the most ancient of liturgical customs. Mrs. Joseph Jennings will accompany the choir with the Christ Church organs.
 Calorie Martin and Matthew Houghton are to read the lessons and Arthur Schlenker will read the psalms responsively with the congregation. Each is a member of the Canterbury Club.

Following the concert, the congregation will have an opportunity to meet the choir members at a reception in Miller Hall. Hot chocolate and cookies will be served.

Attends Ceremony In Arlington Cemetery

J. Carroll Kay of Wayburn avenue, national executive committeeman of the AM-VETS, attended Pearl Harbor-Civil Defense ceremonies at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery.
 He was in Washington for the fall meeting of the AM-VETS national executive committee, which was climaxed by the December 7 rites.

Medical Auxiliary Plans Christmas Party Friday

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Michigan Industrial Medical Association will hold its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. L. R. Martin, of Middlesex boulevard, on Friday, at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. M. F. Bruton, of Stephens road, will assist Mrs. Martin on arrangements.

A gift grab bag will follow the dessert, and each member will bring her favorite Christmas cookies to share with the group. Christmas candles will be made during the afternoon of fellowship. A cocktail hour with the member's husbands as guests will be an added attraction for the day.

Other members from Grosse Pointe attending are Mrs. E. A. Irvin, Mrs. W. W. Hassig and Mrs. A. J. Vorwald.

Alpha Xi Deltas Tie Gifts for Murtaugh Home

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta will hold their Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mrs. James S. Vaughan, of McKinley avenue, on Monday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock.

Members are asked to bring scissors in order to participate in creating Christmas ribbon decorations. These magic bows will be placed on the Christmas presents which the members are giving to the residents of the Murtaugh Home.

Assisting Mrs. Vaughan will be Mrs. John Klock, of Cranford lane; Mrs. James Wade, of Champagne place, and Mrs. William C. Potter, of Huntington boulevard.

Detroit Sorosis to Hear Christmas Music Recital

Detroit Sorosis will meet for luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock in the Pemberton road home of Mrs. Albert DeG. Conkey.

Dr. Frederick Marriott, organist of the Central Methodist Church, and Avery Crewe, soloist, will play Christmas music. Members will contribute to Care and Red Cross.

See State Top Science Center

A hard-hitting program to insure Michigan's future as the leading science and technical center of the nation was proposed today by William M. Day, chairman of the Michigan Economic Development Commission and president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The proposal was included in a special report made to Governor Williams today by Mr. Day on research and industrial development.

Prepared in cooperation with the Science Advisory Board, named by the Governor, the plan has two objectives:

1. To see that Michigan gains the recognition in research that it currently deserves.
 2. To improve our research centers and increase the number of research associated firms.

The advisory board is headed by Associate Dean J. Russell Bright, of Wayne State University and includes a number of Michigan's outstanding scientists.

First project will be a census of Michigan's existing scientific facilities and talent.

This is planned as a means of attracting smaller scientific industries to the state.

The advisory board is working closely with the Michigan Economic Development Department

Turkey Changed Since Old Days

The turkey which struts the barnyard today probably wouldn't recognize the gobble that provided the Pilgrims with their first Thanksgiving feast.

The resemblance between the two birds is comparable to the "before and after" picture which accompany most body-building advertisements.

The pilgrim bird was a skinny, scraggly, long-legged athlete who toughened up the meat on his bony frame by scooting through the woods at a rapid clip.

According to The World Encyclopedia, the modern turkey is an overstuffed, full-breasted beauty with a much larger body and short, meaty legs. Exercise for modern adult turkeys consists of walking around the barnyard at a slow, deliberate pace.

Possibly the only joy a turkey raises gets from a turkey is counting the money after he gets rid of the bird. For turkeys have frail constitutions, miserable dispositions, and must be coddled and coaxed to market.

Trouble starts when mother turkey lays her eggs, and the father turkey does his best to search them out and break them. If the turkey egg hasn't been pecked or stomped into oblivion, it will hatch in 28 days, after being kept at a temperature of 100 degrees—no more, no less.

Then the little turkey gets the vitamin treatment and is carefully guarded until ready for market between the age of four to seven months.

Why do farmers raise turkeys? The answer might be in the Department of Agriculture report that last year turkey raising amounted to more than a 300 million dollar business.

The Navy's newest aircraft carrier USS Independence, has seven air conditioning plants (sufficient to completely air condition two Empire State Buildings).

TOUGH SLEDDING—Even without snow, sled dogs come in mighty handy for fishermen hauling in the daily catch at Cuxhaven, Germany. Twice each day, at ebb tide, the dogs haul crude sleds across the sandy beach near the North Sea to pick up the baskets left along the shore by the fishermen. The baskets are filled with small fish as the waters recede. This unusual method has been in use at Cuxhaven for hundreds of years.

SPRING FEVER—All mixed up over the seasons, Edra Furlong takes a spring in the summery fall weather at Cypress Gardens, Fla. Beneath a sheltering palm tree, she's limbering up between water-ski shows.

GOOD SKATE—Britain's comely international skating star, Jane Condon, arrives on the new liner, Atlantic, for her professional debut in the U.S. Her first appearance will be in an ice revue in Chicago on Dec. 23.

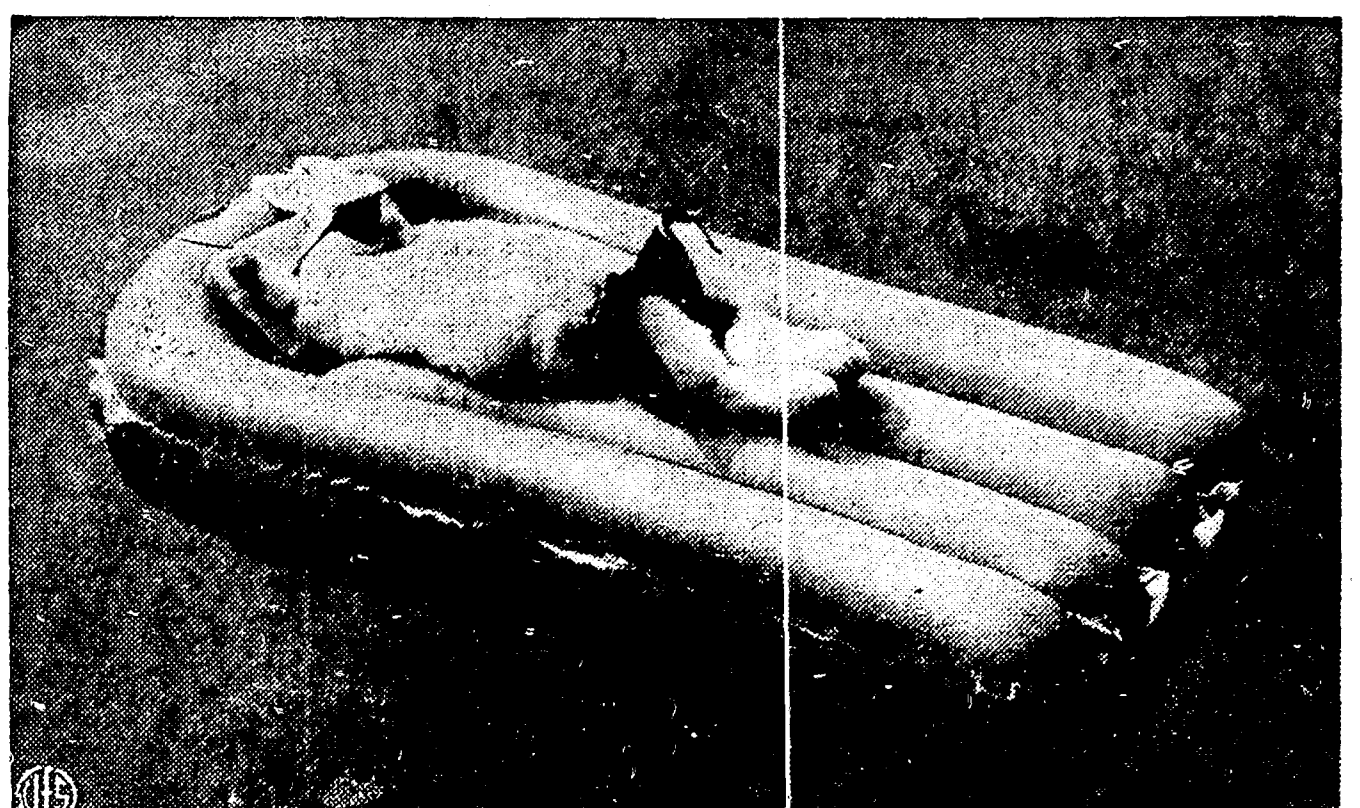

GREAT WHITE WAY—Men are just dark specks against the white vastness of Antarctica, where the U.S. Navy icebreaker Glacier docks at Kaiman Bay. The base of Little America is two miles back on the Ross Ice Shelf, which at this point is 800 feet thick. As big as the State of California, the massive chunk of ice has giant cliffs extending for 500 miles along the Ross Sea. Those in the background are some 125 feet high.

GOOD-LUCK CHARM—This pair of travelling Texans from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas, will have added moral support in the shapely form of pretty Ann Reagan, 5-foot-two brunette freshman from Spur, when they play basketball for the Cowboys this season. Top performers for the Cowboys this year will be six-foot-seven forward Doyle Edmiston (left) and six-foot-eight center Carl Knight.

ROUGH RIDERS—The jeep of its day, an Egyptian war chariot hurtles over the sands at Zarageza, Spain, as work goes on in the filming of "Solomon and Sheba," despite the death of its star, Tyrone Power. Yul Brynner has been signed to replace Power, who died of a heart attack suffered during a dagger-duel scene in the United Artists release co-starring Gina Lollobrigida.

HARE EARL—Going Hollywood in a big way, Harry the Hare lolls in a swimming-pool raft just like any other movie star, in dark glasses and snazzy trunks. Harry co-stars as a magician's bunny with Jerry Lewis in Paramount's "The Geisha Boy," and is leading a 24-carrot golden life.

LOOKS JUST AS GOOD—Usually seen swimming beneath the surface, screen star Esther Williams pulls a switch and makes merry on top of the water at Cypress Gardens, Fla. Clad in a snappy leopard-skin outfit, Esther skims over the waves on water skis.

GIRL IN A WHIRL—Flying without wings or engine, Diane Barnes of Birmingham, England, becomes the first woman to solo in the Gyroglider, shepherded by the designer of the helicopter gadget, Igor Bensen. Diane went to Bensen's plant in Raleigh, N. C., to learn how to handle the non-powered craft, which takes off at about 25 miles an hour when towed by an automobile. It's sold as a do-it-yourself kit for about $100, and Diane, who's 21, hopes to popularize it in her homeland.

PRECIOUS CHILD—Covered with jewels, a figure of the infant Jesus is placed carefully in the manger as a priest arranges the traditional Christmas scene in Rome's ancient Ara Coeli (Altar of Heaven) Church. The statuette, center of a life-sized group, is believed to have been carved of wood from the Mount of Olives in the Holy Land. The gems adorning it have been given over the years by worshippers.

HEAVENLY DESIGNS—Christmas angels get a high-fashion touch from Paris designer Pierre Cardin, who readies some decorations for his salons. The dolls are dressed in styles that are available for big girls with big bank accounts.

CROWNED HEAD—The forehead takes its place with wrists and fingers to display new jewelry designs shown in Paris by Francis Winter. The circlet of white crystals smack between the eyes is held in place by a band around the head.

PAWS FOR EMPHASIS—Trying to read with somebody peering over your shoulder is always annoying, especially when the somebody is Butch, a five-week-old cub. Bill Dabbs is getting a paw in the eye for his trouble, as Butch brushes up on his ABC's at the Dabbs home in Memphis, Tenn. A friend of the Dabbses bought the animal from a Mississippi zoo. Butch will weigh about 500 pounds when he grows up.

WORKER UNDER GLASS—Resembling a traveler from outer space, this worker dons "protective headgear" to do his job along Fleet Street in London. Actually, the "space-man" and his assistant were replacing faulty gas fixtures and cleaning the glass globes of the street lights.

SHORT NOTICE—They grow 'em short—street signs, that is—in the Richmond, Va., suburb of Lakeside. This midget marker, only a little over four feet high, is within easy reading height of the youngster taking notice of his whereabouts. It also eliminates a lot of neck-craning by motorists who usually have to look way up high on utility poles to see street markers.

Census Bureau Collecting Data

Information to be used in compiling national figures on employment, and unemployment will be collected locally during the week of December 15 in the Current Population Survey, it was announced by Supervisor J. E. Tharaldson of the U. S. Census Bureau's Regional Office in Detroit.

which will participate in the survey. The information collected from local families will be combined with that collected in 329 other areas of the country to provide the national estimates. Approximately 35,000 households are included each month in the Current Population Survey. These households are selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all classes of the population, and all types of areas in the country—large cities, small towns, rural areas, and so forth.

Facts on employment and unemployment collected locally are forwarded to Census Bureau headquarters in Washington to be processed by the Bureau's electronic computer, known as Univac, to provide the national estimates. The national report covering the information to be collected locally during the week of December 15 will be issued in Washington early in January.

Current Population Survey information will be collected from a number of local families by certified enumerators.

Post Office Set For Yule Rush

Now that we're heading directly into the Christmas mail rush, Postmaster, E. L. Baker has put his "Mail Early For Christmas" Campaign into high gear today.

The Postmaster said, "We're ready for an all time record Christmas mail this year. Every facility of the Post Office is being expanded to render maximum service. Extra trucks and personnel have been added, and special mailing schedules will be set up to insure prompt handling of the tremendous flood of both incoming and outgoing mail."

"However," the Postmaster continued, "the vast volume of Christmas mail is only part of our problem. Names and addresses are often carelessly written, many packages are poorly wrapped or have insufficient postage on them. These oversights result in delays and disappointments, most of which can be avoided if everyone will follow these simple requirements—

Be sure your Christmas card and gift mailing lists are up-to-date.

Wrap your Christmas gifts securely.

Address your cards and gifts correctly.

Use complete addresses—including street number, rural route or post office box number. Be sure that the name of the street is complete with avenue, parkway, or drive. Avoid abbreviation of street and state names. Use zone numbers wherever possible, and be sure to include your own zone number in your return address.

And most important of all, mail your cards and gifts within the next few days!

Delivery of your Christmas cards will be greatly expedited if you will handle them with "LOCAL" or "OUT-OF-TOWN" bands which are available free at the Post Office.

The Postmaster reports that the present flow of Christmas cards is running about the same as last year, but the mailing of gifts by Parcel Post is somewhat behind schedule. He mentioned that you can enclose your Christmas card or letter in your gift package merely by adding the appropriate letter postage.

Productivity is a great quality to possess. It can do more to make a town prosperous than almost anything.

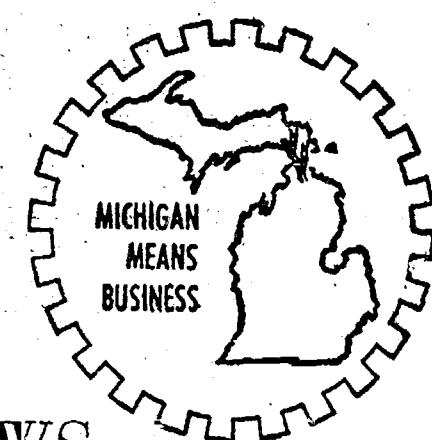

Productivity is the delivery of a full measure by machines, money, men or materials. The best productivity results from constant striving to better past performance. Productivity pays off for everybody whenever everybody works at it.

When it comes to attracting business, a new industry for example, the very reputation for productivity will give your town a special pulling power. Competition these days makes it necessary for a company, or town, to have productivity around in plain sight. Otherwise the company or the town won't be in plain sight very long.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

Blue Devils Beat Dearborn In Opening Basketball Tilt

Grosse Pointe High School's Blue Devil basketball team opened the 1958-59 season with a thrilling 56-49 victory over non-league Dearborn last Friday, December 5, on the local court.

The Pointers coupled a 15-point last quarter scoring spree with an ironclad defense to snatch the opening win of the season. The teams were deadlocked at 41-41 at the end of the third stanza.

Veteran center Rem Purdy and guard Jim Howard paced the late rally with five and four points, respectively, and annexed second and third high scoring honors behind Dearborn's star Jim Baldwin, who pumped in 20 points for game honors.

Fast First Quarter

The first quarter was the most exciting of the game as the score changed hands seven times and was tied twice after Howard had given the Devils a short-lived lead at the outset on a foul shot. Near the end of the period Howard pushed the Pointers into a one-point 12-11 lead and Lars Anderson added a foul shot to give the Devils a 13-11 lead at the end of the period.

Austin Opens Bid for Title

The Austin Friar basketball team picked up right where it left off last spring by winning its first two games of the 1958-59 season.

The Friars turned back non-league Servite 74-46 on Tuesday, December 2, and then trounced Cathedral Central 53-30 on Friday, December 5, in the opening game of the Central Division title chase.

Austin is making its fourth start in the Central Division which it has dominated for the past three years. The Friars are pre-season favorites to take their fourth division title and promise to be a strong contender again this year in state competition. They won the Parochial, City and State Class A crowns last year also.

Looks at Bench

Against non-league Servite Coach Chuck Hollosy had a chance to take a long look at his bench strength. Tommy Pine and Gary Rupich paced the Friars to a commanding 27-8 first period lead and then helped boost the score to 35-19 by halftime before retiring in favor of the second stringers. Bill Hodgeman, a junior guard, came into his own as he led the Friars to a comfortable 61-36 lead in the third stanza and there was a steady stream of replacements throughout the final quarter as coach Hollosy substituted freely.

Against Cathedral Central the Friars found a token opposition in the first quarter and managed only a 15-10 lead after the first eight minutes. Don McAuliffe turned in an exceptional job of covering the rebounds for Cathedral and kept Austin from many opportunities.

Cathedral managed to harass the Friars during the second period but fell a bit further behind, 24-17, at halftime. Friar fans began to wonder if their team had the guns to really sink the opponent. This question was answered in the third quarter when center Dave Miller sparked a rally that enabled the Friars to race to a comfortable 38-19 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Cathedral fought back desperately in the closing minutes and managed to hold the Friars on even terms but the big third quarter rally had done the damage.

As if to serve notice for future years the Friar reserves also captured both of their games which were played as preliminaries to the varsity games.

According to the Navy's "Hurricane Hunters," hurricanes are tropical cyclones occurring in the Atlantic, Caribbean and Gulf of Mexico. By common agreement they are called "tropical storms" until the maximum wind speed exceeds 75 miles per hour, after which they are called hurricanes.

Copperheads are the most widely distributed and in many places the most abundant of poisonous snakes in the eastern U. S.

Pointers To Lead DRYA In 1959

—Picture by Fred Runnells

Just as Grosse Pointe provides the majority of Corinthian sailors in weekly regattas on Lake St. Clair so does it provide the leaders of the Detroit River Yachting Association. Elected to flag officer posts for 1959 are, from left: REAR COMMODORE ROBERT L. BENKERT, Bayview

Yacht Club; COMMODORE JOHN DETWILER, Grosse Pointe Club and VICE COMMODORE ARTHUR RAUTENBERG, Crescent Sail Yacht Club. These men were elected to office at the annual meeting of the member club delegates held at the Detroit Yacht Club, Friday, December 5.

St. Paul Lakers Sparkle Making Debut in Class A

The St. Paul Lakers crashed the big time in State basketball circles last Thursday, December 4, when they swamped St. Stanislaus, 72-48 on the Grosse Pointe High court. This was the Lakers debut in the Catholic First Division Class A cage race.

Many a St. Paul follower had feared the Lakers were stepping out of their class when the school announced last spring it was abandoning the Parochial League East Side Second Division. But the landslide victory last week proved what coach Eddie Lauer long has contended, that St. Paul teams can hold their own in Class A.

All See Action

The Lakers practically toyed with St. Stanislaus for the final three quarters of the game after the first team had moved into a commanding lead in the first eight minutes of play. Every one of the fifteen member squad saw action with the second stringers providing the action. Here and there coach Lauer substituted a starter with the second stringers but never, after the first period, did the starting five get a chance to unleash its devastating scoring power against the Lakers' outclassed foe.

Four of the Lakers hit in the double figures. Tim Ayraut and Jon Jantz paced the way with 13 points to tie for scoring honors. Bob Bigham was just a shade behind with 12 points and Joe Lauer cashed in 11 points.

Jon Jantz was the outstanding player of the evening with his outstanding defensive play. Joe Lauer could have easily been the high scorer of the night had he taken the shots he purposely passed off to team mates during the game. Time after time Lauer had good shots but elected to give them to someone else who had a better angle.

The Lakers outshot their opponents from the floor 27 to 19 and from the foul line 18 to 9.

GPUS Knights Win Two Tilts

The Grosse Pointe University School Knights got off to a good start in basketball last week by rolling over Madison Lamphere, 53-21, and Huron Valley, 43-20.

Bob Wood, the Knights' captain, led the scoring attack against Lamphere last Tuesday by scoring 15 points. Dick Baron and George Haggarty accounted for 11 points each, and Greg Otte, playing his first game for the Knights, scored seven. GPUS scored 33 of its 53 points in the second half and turned in a very good defensive performance.

Friday night the GPUS students packed the small gym at Huron Valley High School to see the Knights win their second in a row. Again the GPUS cagers played a good defensive game, holding the Mohawks to six field goals and eight free throws. Gordon O'Brien played an outstanding game under the boards, and Bob Wood, playing with a sprained thumb, again led the scoring with thirteen points; Haggarty had eight.

The Knights play their next game tomorrow night, Friday, December 12, at Madison Lamphere. The game will begin at 6:45 o'clock.

Minor Accident Blamed on Ice

The cold weather and ensuing ice were blamed partially for an accident that occurred at the corner of Woodhall and Mack on Tuesday evening, December 2.

Grace W. Hooper, of 2547 Philip, in Detroit, was driving west on Mack when she lost control of her car and skidded sideways, and then forward, into a car that was stopped in the nearby island.

Robert C. Schaefer, of 110 Hall place, was the driver of the second vehicle. City police issued a ticket to Mrs. Hooper for not having her car under control.

Our deeds determine us, as much as we determine our deeds.—George Eliot.

Power of Devil Natators Revealed in Opening Meets

Grosse Pointe's Blue Devil swimming team displayed plenty of power in the first two non-league meets against Birmingham and Ann Arbor. The Devils tripped Birmingham 49-47 on Tuesday, December 2, in the local pool and dropped a close 50-46 decision to Ann Arbor in the latter's pool on Friday, December 5, in a night meet.

Both Birmingham and Ann Arbor, the latter last year's second place winner in the State meet, are regarded as two of the toughest Class A teams in the state this year. Coach Paul Wheeler purposely scheduled these teams to determine the strength of the 1958-59 Blue Devils. More will be learned of the Devils' strength when they tackle league opponents Fordson, Friday, December 12 at home, and Monroe on Friday, December 19 in the Trojans pool. Both are regarded as the toughest on the road to the BCL title.

Break Three Records

In the Birmingham meet the Devils cracked three records. Jim Carne cracked his own 100 yard butterfly mark of 1:02.2 with a blazing 1:01.0. The 160 yard freestyle relay team of John Nicholson, Cy Judson, Bill Pattee and Mark Gregory established a new school and pool record of 1:14.9. The old mark of 1:15.9 had withstood all challenges since the 1955 season.

The score changed hands six times and was tied once and the key to the victory was Bob Tyrrell's second place in the diving event which gave the Devils an unexpected three points and the margin of victory. At the time Tyrrell's second place didn't seem important as the Pointers trailed Birmingham 34-29. But in the following three events Jim Carne and Heath Boyer grabbed a second and third in the 120 yard individual relay and the Devils' two relay squads wrapped it up with wins in the final two events which were good for sixteen points as compared to Birmingham's eight.

Fight Uphill Battle

Against Ann Arbor the Devils battled uphill all the way and the closest they came to taking the lead was in the 100-yard free style event which was won by Mark Gregory and tied the score at 27-27.

But Ann Arbor cracked the meet open when State backstroke champion Steve Thrasher and his teammate Jim Griffith slammed the 150 yard individual medley and pushed their team into a 12 point lead with only the two relay events remaining. At this point the Devils' only hope was an Ann Arbor disqualification in one of the final two events. The Devils captured both relays but Ann Arbor knowing it couldn't lose played cozy and guarded against a possible disqualification on touchouts.

Owen Kleinschmidt and Thrasher were the only double winners. Kleinschmidt captured the 50 yard free style and the 200 yard free style. Thrasher took the 100 yard backstroke and the 150 individual medley.

Aside from the Devils' winning relay teams the only other Pointe winners were Dick Law who took the 100 yard breast stroke and Mark Gregory who captured the 100 yard free style event.

THE EXPLOSIVE civil rights issue came to a head in the Democratic National Committee Saturday. The committee refused to unseat its "moderate" Louisiana member and voted to commend Chairman Paul Butler's outspoken stand for civil rights. Butler's no-compromise edict: Democrats can accept the party's stand on civil rights or get out!

The committee voted to retain in a resolution a statement endorsing Butler for "his forthright utterances on civil rights." This action was taken on an 84-18 roll call vote.

Monday, December 8
WEST BERLINERS overwhelmingly rejected Russia's plan to drive the Allies out of their city Sunday and shut out the Reds in voting for new city parliament.

Nearly complete returns early Monday showed that the Reds had polled only 1.9 percent of the vote and seemed certain to be shut out of the 133-seat parliament.

Indignant citizens of the city Russian Premier Khrushchev proposes to "free" turned out in record-smashing numbers to indicate their disapproval of the plan. Some 95 percent of the registered voters went to the polls.

A SCORE OF PACIFIST demonstrators invaded a top-secret missile base in Swaffham, England for the second consecutive day Sunday, but police again beat off their attempt to stop construction work.

The invaders are members of the Direction Action Committee Against Nuclear War, a pacifist group which organized a much-publicized march on a British atomic weapons research center at Aldermaston last summer.

The missile sites are for Thor rockets which the United States is supplying to the Royal Air Force.

THE ARMY'S GOLD-PLATED moon probe burned up at 2:51 Sunday ending a data-packed flight that carried it nearly a third of the way to the moon.

The 13-pound Pioneer III disintegrated in the air over Africa, flashing valuable information until just 20 minutes before its demise.

It was under the sponsorship of the new National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) though, technically, the Army lofted the 13-pound instrumented payload from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

It appeared that the mighty first-stage launching rocket, a modified Jupiter intermediate range ballistic missile, had not fired perfectly. This malfunctioning cost Pioneer III approximately 840 miles an hour of its programmed initial velocity of 24,897 miles an hour.

THIRTY POLICEMEN staged the biggest all-out numbers syndicate raid in the memory of veteran Pontiac police Friday. The raids, aimed at a syndicate said to have been operating for 10 years, began at 3 p.m.

Officials estimated the ring's take at 2 1/2 million dollars a year. Plant protection officers joined police in widespread arrests at the Pontiac Division of General Motors. They carried 65 search warrants.

Thirty-eight men and 12 women were under arrest by 9 p.m. Early tallies showed an estimated 3,000 mutual bet slips were seized and more than $2,500 in cash was confiscated.

THE EAST - WEST DISPUTE over Berlin sharpened Friday with detention of a U. S. Army plane pilot by the East German Communists.

An East German official hinted the American, Lt. Richard Mackin, of Washington, D. C., might be used as a hostage to aid the satellite regime's drive for recognition by the Western powers.

U. S. officials in Berlin at once made it clear they would not negotiate with the East Germans for Macklin's release.

Sunday, December 7
PIONEER III, which aimed at the sun and missed the moon, started hurtling back toward a fiery death in the earth's atmosphere late Saturday. The end of the Army's space shoot at the sun, and the moon, was expected about 5:15 Sunday over Northwest Africa.

The moon probe got only a quarter of the way to the moon, but scientists hailed it as 90 percent successful. Army technicians are already, reportedly, planning a new shot for the first week in January, after two unsuccessful attempts in as many months.

Saturday's Pioneer III roared 65,000 miles before it lost velocity and started arching back toward earth. Its height was 6,300 miles short of the altitude attained by the Air Force's Pioneer I, launched October 11.

SECRETARY OF STATE Dulles has entered Walter Reed Army Hospital for observation of what doctors diagnosed as "an inflammatory condition of the lower colon."

The State Department said his doctors thus far have found "no evidence of any recurrence" of the intestinal cancer for which Dulles was operated on two years ago.

Dulles is reported resting fairly comfortably, and is expected to remain in the hospital for two or three days of treatment.

THE EXPLOSIVE civil rights issue came to a head in the Democratic National Committee Saturday. The committee refused to unseat its "moderate" Louisiana member and voted to commend Chairman Paul Butler's outspoken stand for civil rights. Butler's no-compromise edict: Democrats can accept the party's stand on civil rights or get out!

The committee voted to retain in a resolution a statement endorsing Butler for "his forthright utterances on civil rights." This action was taken on an 84-18 roll call vote.

WEST BERLINERS overwhelmingly rejected Russia's plan to drive the Allies out of their city Sunday and shut out the Reds in voting for new city parliament.

Nearly complete returns early Monday showed that the Reds had polled only 1.9 percent of the vote and seemed certain to be shut out of the 133-seat parliament.

Indignant citizens of the city Russian Premier Khrushchev proposes to "free" turned out in record-smashing numbers to indicate their disapproval of the plan. Some 95 percent of the registered voters went to the polls.

A SCORE OF PACIFIST demonstrators invaded a top-secret missile base in Swaffham, England for the second consecutive day Sunday, but police again beat off their attempt to stop construction work.

The invaders are members of the Direction Action Committee Against Nuclear War, a pacifist group which organized a much-publicized march on a British atomic weapons research center at Aldermaston last summer.

The missile sites are for Thor rockets which the United States is supplying to the Royal Air Force.

It has been a long time since a president visited Grosse Pointe. Possibly a candidate has stopped off but certainly no twentieth century chief executive has called to see us. But when Michigan was part of the Northwest Territory, and Detroit a mere handful of citizens (1,110) James Monroe honored the city and our suburb with a five day visit en route to inspect the northern boundary defenses and to see if the agreement with England regarding the limitation of naval armaments on the Great Lakes was being observed.

Monroe crossed Lake Erie in the schooner, "Porcupine," and four days after leaving Buffalo reached the mouth of the Detroit river. The date was August 13, 1817. When he stepped from the ship at Ecorse, Solomon Sibley, US District Attorney, Lewis Cass and General Alexander Macomb were on hand to greet him.

French farmers from the Pointe area traveled by wagon along with some of their Indian neighbors to greet the chief executive. While he was here the president made his headquarters at the Cass mansion at the foot of the present day Cass avenue.

There was a stockade salute, an evening display of fireworks and a reception at Governor Cass' residence that night.

From a memoir of the time there is this description of Monroe: "a man a little above middle height, with a compact muscular figure. He still adhered to the dress of Washington's time, knee breeches, silk hose, low cut shoes fashioned with silver buckles, a sash with bright buttons, flare coat, buff vest with a frilled ruffle of his shirt fluttering in the breeze. His hair was combed straight back from his forehead and slicked back by an application of hair oil."

The president inspected the barracks, the hospital, gave General Macomb a sword, heard Charles Larned plead for better roads and a more representative type of government.

On Saturday Monroe borrowed a horse and rode along the river as far as Lake St. Clair. This was the first visit of a president to Grosse Pointe.

On Sunday he attended services in the Council House and heard the Rev. John Monteith (for whom one of our schools is named) and bid goodbye to Detroit on Monday.

As a result of his visit in 1818 the government opened a land office in Detroit and the next year the Territory was allowed to send a delegate to Congress and four years later the territorial government was initiated.

The Baldwin-McLucas wedding was a festive promise of Christmas gaiety to come with all the guests decked out in their holiday finery. Mrs. Frank Donovan looked very fetching in a dark cherry brocade, empire lined . . . and Mrs. Eric Stroh, of the striking titian tresses, was dramatic in black wool scooped to the waist in the black, sabrina neckline and the bell shap skirt accented with champagne satin scrolls . . . Intriguingly enough, Mrs. E. L. Wyld Ecclestone caught the bride's bouquet.

All sorts of holiday excitement in the air . . . Mrs. J. Gordon Hill will be hanging her traditional sleigh bells on the door (not to come down until special Twelfth Night ceremonies) . . . Mrs. John McCartney will be finishing the stunning Christmas greetings she designs herself.

On the hill spied those two lovely young matrons, Mrs. Peter Fink and Mrs. Robert Kanzler, both gift searching in the new velvet collared chesterfields so beloved by the young. Mrs. K. was also wearing smart shoes with those little girl cuban heels.

The newlyweds preparing for the first holiday in their new homes have some very unusual decorative backgrounds to enjoy. The Eugene Wambolds' entrance hall is an eye catcher, old pages from Greek books have been shellacked to the walls to give a very interesting effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles M. O'Brien, Jr., wed last September, might be in their new home in Sloan drive about Yule time. They have been waiting for their furniture, all custom made curly maple, which will completely deck their early American home.

Mrs. George A. McBride dropped by to show us the very unusual German edition of her son, Will McBride's new photographs of Berlin. Will has been living in that troubled spot for four years now. He does portrait painting from his studio and collaborated with some German friends on the book of striking pictures which will be released in the States this month. Will studied at the Free University in Berlin after leaving the Army and loved the city so much he decided to make it his home. Before finding his artistic niche he toiled as a road construction worker, carpenter, social worker and welder, versatile background for an artist who has had several one man shows.

Mrs. L. E. Freimuth, president of the Neighborhood Service Organization, has called to plead for used ice skates or toboggans. Her social service agency is a combination of the former Tau Beta Neighborhood Settlement House and Highland Park Community Center. While you are enjoying holiday gaiety give a thought to this group which works with less fortunate children.

MONSIGNOR FRANK J. McPHILLIPS, OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

By Patricia Talbot

Although Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips has been at St. Paul's on the lakeshore but two short months the force of his warm, dynamic personality has already made its mark.

Monsignor McPhillips came to this parish on the suggestion of the late Cardinal Mooney from two years at St. Girard's in the Evergreen-Seven Mile area. Before that he had been at the Student's Chapel in the University of Michigan for 15 years, during part of that time as assistant to Monsignor Babcock.

He feels a great kinship with the Pointe where so many Michigan alumni live, for he met many of his parishioners first on campus. There he acted as spiritual leader and counselor to more than 2,500 Catholics, faculty and students who attend the University.

At Students Chapel His problems as head of a student chapel were quite different than those of a parish priest. It is difficult to think of the Monsignor, white haired, impressive, with a deep voice which could charm the birds off the trees, as a simple parish priest. Along with his great appeal, and forceful manner is a deep tolerance and humility, which inspires faith.

Youth to Play With Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Valtor Poole conducting, will play this afternoon at 3:30 in Ford Auditorium with Lorin Holander, 14 year old pianist as soloist.

Hollander will play the Saint-Saens Concerto No. 2 in G minor. The program, dedicated to the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit, will feature a narrator and trio from the Scouts in William Grant Still's "Little Song that Wanted to be a Symphony," a first Detroit performance.

Also programmed are Meyerbeer's Coronation March from "The Prophet," Strauss' Overture to "Die Fledermaus" and "Roses from the South," and the march from Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6 ("Pathétique").

Leonard Pennario, pianist, will be soloist with the orchestra Thursday at 8:30 p.m. under Paul Paray's baton. Pennario will play the Khachaturian Concerto.

The program will include Mozart's Overture to "Don Giovanni," Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 in C major and Ravel's Suite "Le Tombeau de Couperin."

A longtime resident of California, Pennario was born in Buffalo and began the study of piano at age six. He made his debut at 12 with the Dallas symphony. His first major triumph was with the Los Angeles Philharmonic under Otto Klemperer and he has since appeared over 30 times with this orchestra.

Pennario's appearances in Europe, his many performances with the major American orchestras and tours from coast-to-coast since World War II have made him one of the most popular keyboard figures of the day.

troubled university students who consulted him.

Busy Parish Life

Although his parish tasks are many he is anticipating active participation into our community life. He is honored to be a part of a church, which began in 1834 in a simple frame chapel on the lakeshore.

At St. Girard's he was directing a new growing parish, with no permanent rectory or church, in an area recently opened to residential living. Here, with the assistance of Father Roman and Father Neff, he is head of an old established church, which once extended to the city limits and as far along the lake as the county line.

As a newcomer to the Pointe's colony of spiritual mentors, Monsignor McPhillips has a great deal to contribute. His parishioners are fortunate to have such an impressive leader, and all Pointers must surely benefit from his example and ability.

Canterbury Club To Help in Drive

Eighteen members of the Canterbury Club will assist Saturday in the "Village" area of Grosse Pointe collecting contributions for the Muscular Dystrophy drive.

The group of volunteers was organized by Valerie Martin and team captains will be John Connor and Walter Baier. Volunteers include Peter Connor, Adah Connor, Cecil Taliaferro, Ann Pongrace, Carol Mulkey, Nancy Nevergold, Cindy Beeman, Mary Barr, Jeanne Taylor, Julie Ortwien, Sally Keyes, Howard Keys, Fred Lauppe, Frances Guice, Carol Carbone and Pamela Clarke.

Pointe Counter Points

by Pat Rousseau

Le Pere Noel . . . loves to leave the perfumes of France beneath the trees, because he knows a feminine nature delights in such a flattering compliment. Jacobson's perfume counter abounds in the best imported fragrances, as joyous and gay as the season . . . Patou, Guerlain, Lavin, Caron and Chanel . . . in the latest spray cases and the loveliest gift wrappings.

Charm her . . . this Christmas! You surely will with any of the exquisite imported gold charms from a collection of fine jewelry at Walton-Pierce. Delicate . . . yet dramatic . . . many are set with jade, diamonds, or rubies. They combine artistry and imagination . . . while complementing the beautifully designed gold bracelets.

"Sleight bells ring; are you listening?" At Trail's gifts are glistering . . . and beautifully packaged. The loveliest and perhaps the most welcome of gifts for milady is fragrance . . . by Mary Chess . . . her perfume, cologne and sachet in White Lilac, Tapestry, Strategy, Carnation and Gardinia.

When a present is a puzzlement . . . drop into Proper's! You'll find specially selected men's wear of the finest quality. Hearth warm sweaters, Hathaway shirts, (NOW is not too late for a monogram) . . . handsome tweed sport coats and leather accessories. A Proper's gift certificate is always a good idea! Solves lots of gift problems at Christmas time!

Dancer, Prancer and Blitzen . . . after a long association with Santa know the kind of ties he prefers. The Taylor and Rooster lines . . . found at The Dents. In all his travels he hasn't seen any that are as unusual and yet in such good taste. There's a new shipment of them . . . for other busy and important men besides Santa.

"Later on by the fire" . . . you'll sit back and enjoy the loveliest home ever . . . decorated with an assist from Wana-maker's Studio. It's not too late to call for expert help in repair and carpet cleaning . . . and ideas for charming wall and window treatments . . . a bit of sprucing-up will do your home worlds of good for the holidays.

"Starlight . . . starbright" . . . be the star he sees tonight. The loveliest decoration in your home. Start with a beauty schedule that includes an appointment with Miss Charlotte at The Lochmoor Salon on Mack Avenue. Try a facial and a make-up. Her knowing hands will emphasize your natural beauty. For a dramatic entrance . . . she'll create high-style make-up for you.

Two weeks before Christmas . . . and all through The League Shop . . . there is a wonderful collection of Christmas decor by Elise Platt, who does so much with the traditional Yuletide colors. The antique feeling in her work is very much in evidence. For example, miniature kerosene lamps illuminate an antique finish wood compote base. Cherubs, crimson winged cardinals, gift-laden trees add inspired gaiety and splendor to welcome the on-rushing season.

Old world traditions carried on! From the forest a wreath or centerpiece of pungent pine accented with cones and holly. Order yours now from Charvat the Florist. Their beautiful Poinsettia plants are arriving tomorrow to insure the freshest, long lasting blossoms for the holidays. Choose brilliant red . . . white or pink.

Trans-Atlantic Greeting . . . from Bronzini, who sends his "Shady Lady" (a delightful package I might add) after shave cologne . . . to gladden masculine hearts . . . seventeen-fifty . . . at Trails Pharmacy.

Dear Santa: For comfortable relaxation give me a tailored robe! The one I particularly liked was by Babin in Jacobson's Men's Department. It was full length . . . of soft warm wool with a neat polka dot trim . . . about eighteen dollars . . . Signed . . . Dad.

Teen Lighters Plan Schedule

Our Lady Star of the Sea Teen Lighters' Club members will meet again for a will meet Sunday, December 14, at 1:45 in the Church Club Room for the election of officers.

Come dressed for the gay ice skating party at the State Fair Coliseum. Buses will leave the club room at 2:15 and will leave the Fair Grounds for the return trip at 6. Join your parish friends for a fun filled afternoon.

Call Pat Spoor, TU 1-5311, Pat Schuck, TU 1-1640 or Dan Trozak, TU 1-9454 for tickets. The following Saturday morning, December 20, the group will meet again for a visit to the Bertha Fisher Home for the Aged under the supervision of the Little Sisters of the Sick Poor. The club hopes to present each of the 220 residents with a small Christmas gift, such as candy, cigarettes, soap or other similar items. Small size canned goods are deeply appreciated by the Nuns.

A few Christmas Carols by the Teen Lighters will add to the festivities. Please make an effort to bring some small gift to the club room next Sunday at 1:45.
