PRESIDENT KENNEDY yesterday ordered Russia to stop interfering with Allied planes in the Berlin air corridors. Warning that the West may be forced to take counter-action if such "dangerous" Soviet harassment continues, Mr. Kennedy blamed recent incidents, such as the metal chaff sown by Russian aircraft to confuse Allied radar controls in the Berlin air lanes, for jeopardizing the Geneva disarmament conference's chances of success.

The President, stating that Soviet harassment obviously made any agreement with Russia on Berlin more difficult to reach, told reporters that vigorous protests had been delivered to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko by both Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Britain's Foreign Secretary, Lord Home. Urging all sides in the cold war to "bend every effort during these days, particularly during the time of the Geneva disarmament conference, to avoid incidents that are liable to lead to actions and counter-actions which can only intensify the danger," Mr. Kennedy said the United States is now "waiting to see what effect the representations of the two secretaries have had on the Soviet Union in regard to the chaff."

PLANES and surface craft from United States bases, throughout the Western Pacific are engaged in a massive search for the Flying Tiger Line Constellation which disappeared Thursday on a night flight from Guam to Manila, and is presumed down at sea. The four-engine propeller driven aircraft carried 107 persons, including 93 United States Army troops, three military men from South Viet Nam, and a crew of seven men and four women.

Stating that the plane had undoubtedly gone down somewhere, military officials in Manila hastened to allow the possibility of survivors; if all aboard are lost, the Constellation's crash would be the worst in Pacific history and the second worst single commercial plane tragedy in aviation history. Worst was the DC-7C crash ten days ago in Africa, in which 111 persons lost their lives. When last heard from, the plane's commander Captain Gregory Thomas, 48, of Red Bank, N. J., reported no difficulty. He radioed the Constellation's altitude, 18,000 feet, and said it was on course and on time. Captain Thomas' routine message was sent approximately 270 miles from Guam. At noon Friday, Detroit time, his plane was 22 hours overdue.

A NEW RUSSIAN satellite has been successfully launched, and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev boasts that his country has developed revolutionary global rockets, capable of striking anywhere, which will render United States radar defenses obsolete. Speaking to an election crowd in the Kalinin District where he is running unopposed as candidate for the Supreme Soviet (Russia's parliament), Khrushchev said the USSR's new intercontinental missiles can circle the globe and attack from any direction without warning.

"The enormous amounts of capital invested by the U.S.A. in the establishment of locators and other warning means have been to no avail," Khrushchev told his constituents. "All this has now lost its meaning, because rockets can arrive on American territory from a direction altogether different from where these installations are located." Western observers consider the Premier's announcement of new Soviet rocket achievements an obvious attempt to influence the Geneva disarmament negotiations. If no missile warning system is possible, the only "logical" means of protection for any state is a disarmament treaty—according to the Soviet Premier.

Spring Will Bring Springboards

This is the new swimming pool, with the bathhouse in the background, being constructed at the lakefront park in the City of Grosse Pointe. By the time the season opens, come Memorial Day, this whole picture will change considerably. The finished touches will have been applied and this will be a scene of beauty, with three separate springboards erected on the diving end of the pool and appropriate landscaping surging toward the approaching summer sun.

Foundation Invites All To Pay Visit

Residents Urged to See What School for Exceptional Children is Accomplishing

The Foundation for Exceptional Children cordially invites the residents of the Grosse Pointes to visit its school in the Sidney Trowbridge Miller Memorial Hall, at the rear of Christ Church.

The school is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 until 2, but special visiting hours have been established from 10 until 2 each day when members of the Mothers' Committee will be there to greet the visitors and interpret the program of the Foundation.

Since the term "Exceptional Children" is one used for the protection of these mentally and physically handicapped youngsters, the program is devised to train them in the simple, elementary activities of their lives.

Residents of the Grosse Pointe area are urged to "drop in" to see these children in their little classes and at group play, to catch some of the impact of what is being done for them, and to learn more of the need which the Foundation for Exceptional Children is serving for both parents and children facing this staggering problem.

Visitors need not make any appointments; go to the door of Miller Hall and walk in!

Recreational Improvements Started in Ghesquiere Park

Improvements of recreational facilities at Ghesquiere Park were begun on Monday, March 12, according to information received from Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

The improvements will include the flood lighting of the existing tennis courts and hockey rink, construction of a new baseball diamond and added parking space. Plans have already been made to revise the sidewalk construction in the park, it was said.

Petersen said the flood lighting contract has been awarded to the Hydron-Brand company of Detroit. The firm will install lights around the tennis courts at a cost of $6,450, and around the hockey rink at a cost of $3,200. Both projects are expected to be finished by early spring.

Woods' Lakefront Park Boat Dock Construction Underway; to Cost $19,063

Well Rental Fees Raised to Obtain Revenue to Retire Costs and for Maintenance of the New Facilities; to Be Ready in May

Work on a new dock at the Woods lakefront park is progressing on schedule. The project was begun on Friday, March 9, according to City Administrator Chester Petersen.

The construction will consist of 110 docks, with wells for 220 boats of not more than 26 feet in length, and will cost $19,063.90. The new wells will replace 150 temporary wells that have been used in the past.

The work is a joint project between the Henry Salvatore company and the Floris DeMullenaere company, both of whom were awarded contracts. The docks are expected to be completed by the time the lakefront park opens officially on Memorial Day, May 30, Petersen said.

Rentals to Cover Cost
The city administrator said that the cost of the project is being paid for from the Capital Improvement Fund, and the monies realized from the rental of the wells will be used to replace the funds expended and for upkeep and maintenance of the wells.

A recently amended city ordinance, approved by the city council, upped boat rental fees to raise the revenue to retire the construction costs and for the maintenance of the docks, Petersen said. The costs should be retired in about three years, he added.

He said that the new wells will be strictly for the use of Woods boat owners. No outsiders will be permitted to rent any dock, he added.

Rates Are Boosted
The amended ordinance stipulates that the boat well rental fees from now on will be $2.25 a foot per boat, or a minimum of $30 a season. The old fees were $1.50 a foot per boat, or a minimum of $20 a season.

Petersen said that even with the upping of the rental fees, the charges are still way below those of most of the communities in the area, and below any commercial dock facilities.

He pointed out that the adopted ordinance contains a "bump" clause, wherein all Woods boat owners will be given an opportunity to rent a well for their crafts.

The clause decrees that any boat owner who has rented a well for two consecutive years, can be "bumped" by an owner who is on the rental waiting list.

Petersen said that the council approved the clause in the ordinance to give all Woods boat owners an equal opportunity to obtain spaces for their boats.

High State Post Sought by Gust

Rockwell T. Gust, of Cloverly road, delegate to the Constitutional Convention, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

In 1956 Gust was the Republican candidate for Congress from the 14th District. He is president of the Michigan Republican War Veterans, served as commander of the Alger Post of the American Legion, is active in the Detroit and American Bar Associations.

After graduating from Williams College Mr. Gust attended the University of Michigan where he received his degree in law. Prior to this, during World War II, he served with a P-T boat squadron in the U.S. Navy.

"In order to carry my campaign into every corner of the state, I have set up two headquarters," said Mr. Gust. "They are located at 125 W. Michigan avenue, Lansing, phone IV 5-9155, Ext. 620; and at 1863 First National Building, Detroit 26, phone WO 3-6883."

City Project On Lakefront On Schedule

New Swimming Pool, Wading Pool Renovation and Enlarged Bath Houses Cost $130,430

Grosse Pointe City Manager Lawrence C. Savage reports that work on the new pool and bathhouse in Neff Memorial Park is proceeding according to schedule, and the entire project should be finished, as planned, by May 15.

The bathhouse walls are already up, and the pool shell is complete except for some inside finishing and installation of the gutter rail. Work on re-surfacing the wading pool and putting in the filter plants has just begun, but now that spring is here, (we hope!), it should be accomplished in record time.

Kept Pool Filled
According to City Manager Savage, the pool is approximately 60 percent finished, the bathhouse approximately 50 percent complete. The pool shell was kept filled with water throughout the winter months, to keep frost out, and in curing the concrete, and maintain a water level constant with that of the lake.

Paddock Pools of Eastern Michigan is constructing the new gunnite swimming pool and renovating the wading pool at a cost of $91,930. Palombi Construction Co. is building the bathhouse for $38,500, bringing the total price of Neff Memorial Park improvements to $130,430.

Three Diving Boards
The swimming pool, 100 feet long and 42 feet wide, has a 42 by 33-foot diving bay. Three diving boards will be installed: a one and a three meter board and a small training board.

It has been planned primarily as a recreation pool, but provision has been made for an accredited 25-yard swimming course. The design is such that the entire pool can be roped off into sections, corresponding to the various water levels, to insure safe, supervised swimming.

HITS CAR DOOR

Charles D. Usher, 1206 Balfour, was driving his '62 Corvair on Kercheval in The Village Monday afternoon, March 12, when Carol A. Kyle, 19963 Country Club, Harper Woods, opened the door of her '60 Dodge. Usher's Corvair struck the Dodge's open door, doing minor damage. No tickets were issued.

Gunman's Attempt To Kill Park Coal Executive Fails

Assassin Fires Two Shots at Intended Victim, Both Miss; Murder Try is Climax of Several Threats on Life

The personnel of the Detective Bureau of the Park Police Department are spending all their time in the investigation of an attempt on the life of a coal company executive by a gunman.

An attempt was made to shoot Harold E. Mistele, 48, of 15500 Windmill Pointe drive, in the garage of his home at about 6 a.m. Thursday, March 15.

A yet unknown gunman fired two shots at Mistele, missed and then fled in an expensive 1962 automobile driven by an accomplice. Both are being sought by Park and Detroit police.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Det. Lts. Arnold Hough and Stanley Enders and Patrolman James LaPratt, who is assigned to the Detective Bureau on plainclothes detail, have been ordered to carry on a full time investigation on the attempted murder.

Police Guard Home
A police guard has been placed on Mistele's home, and scout car crews were ordered to keep an eye on the house when Mistele is home, the chief said.

Detroit police are interested in the case because of a number of telephone threats against Mistele, starting last March, when he was appointed chairman of the labor negotiating committee of the Detroit Coal Dealers Association, which deals with the Teamsters Union.

On one occasion, he was in the midst of negotiations with Teamster officials at the Belcrest Hotel in Detroit, when one of the threatening calls came through.

Mistele said that the callers always gave the same message: "Get off that committee or you'll be dead."

The coal executive said that

Mouth Breathing Saves Youngster

Young Wisa Meppi, age 20 months, was taken to Kresge's in The Village by her mother, Tessie Meppi, 5069 Kensington, Det., on Saturday, March 10, and given a piece of hard candy to suck on.

While the mother stopped at the record counter, the little girl and her older sister laughed and romped in the aisle. Suddenly Wisa fell down and began to turn blue.

The mother yelled, "She's having convulsions!" As shoppers hurried to the scene, Mrs. Meppi picked the little girl up and began to spank her furiously. Nothing happened.

As a last resort, the child was flattened out on the counter and mouth-to-mouth breathing attempted. After several seconds, the piece of hard candy came out through Wisa's nose.

City police officer Donald F. Fritz escorted Wisa and her mother to Bon Secours Hospital, where the child was pronounced in good condition and released.

Two Burglars Surprised Robbing Home in Shores

Two burglars, surprised in a Shores home, were chased by the house owner and a friend he was visiting Saturday evening, March 17. The burglars escaped, taking $350 in cash.

Robbed were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kornacki of 63 Greenbrier, who were visiting the Robert Garbarinos, who live across the street at 58 Greenbrier. Both the Kornackis and the Garbarinos were alerted by the former's pet dog, whose barking caused them to investigate.

While Kornacki and Garbarino chased the robbers, their wives called Shores police, who then called Woods police for assistance in searching the area.

Police Chief Fred Duemling said that one thief stood near a window as a lookout, while the other began a systematic

School Board Rejects All Library Bids

Will Study Possibility of Erecting New Building On Present Parking Lot

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has decided to reject all bids for the proposed library addition at Grosse Pointe High School as too high.

Meeting last Monday, March 19, the trustees agreed to explore other possibilities for expansion of the school's present facilities. They are now asking contractors to bid on the Guidance Center only, and have estimated the cost of re-modeling and equipping a suite of offices, near the present offices, for guidance personnel, at between $20,000 and $25,000.

The architect has been instructed to investigate the feasibility of a new library building on the present parking lot, between the main High School and the annex (formerly Grosse Pointe Country Day School). If such a structure could be completed at a cost no greater than that of the bids rejected, it might prove a more desirable solution to the all-around problem of library expansion.

If the cost of such a separate structure still proves too high, several other possibilities, including re-modeling of the old Boys' Gymnasium and, perhaps, splitting the library facility in two, with separate sections for the humanities and the sciences, will be considered.

In any event, it is now evident

City Approves Storm Sewer

The Grosse Pointe City Council has awarded the contract for construction of a storm relief sewer from Jefferson avenue to Lake St. Clair through Mast Brothers subdivision, to low bidder Henry Salvatore.

Salvatore's bid of $22,641.10 was recommended by City engineers Warner and Warner. Other bids were as follows: Troelsen Excavating Co., $23,809.96; Motor City Excavating Co., $25,861.76; Subterranean Construction Co., $26,834.59; S. Weissman Excavating Co., Inc., $33,662.95; Coolidge Excavating Co., $35,883.09; George A. Odien, Inc., $35,949.00; and Jacobelli Construction Inc., $40,139.36.

DeBoer disclosed that while alterations are being conducted in the Police Department, some of the police operations will be moved to the Old Kerby School. Plans are not completed on the relocation of the emergency radio system while the remodeling is taking place, he said.

Brown said that as the work progresses, continuous approval of plans would be required by the council and the city engineer, to insure that the work is being carried out according to specifications.

He said that the entire project should be completed within six to nine months, once begun.

POLICE HAVE LOST RING

City police are holding a narrow gold wedding band, initially "E.L. to M.L.—5-11-28", in their lost-and-found department. The ring was found in front of The Village Manor Sunday evening. The police are anxious to return it to its rightful owner.

Plan to Use Portion of School Site

Remodeling of Present Building and Two-Story Addition Will Cost About $250,000

Work on the remodeling of the Farms Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road, and the construction of a two-story addition is expected to begin within two to three months, it was disclosed at a Farms council meeting on Monday, March 19.

Jack Brown of Begrow and Brown architects, Birmingham, presented preliminary plans for the alterations and addition, which were approved by the council. The cost of the proposed project is estimated at about $250,000.

A site plan of the addition will be shown to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for approval, as the Board is expected to grant the Farms the use of the old Kerby School grounds adjacent to the municipal hall for construction of the ell.

Old Building to Stand

No complications are expected regarding the Board approval of the use of the land. The old school building will remain standing, and the city hall ell will be constructed in front of it, hiding most of the school from view from the street.

The council deemed it more practical, financially, to approve the alteration and addition to the present building, than have a new city hall constructed on public-owned land at Chalfonte and Kerby. A new building would cost the taxpayers an estimated $350,000.

Money for the proposed project will come from the Public Improvement Reserve Fund, which has been added to for a number of years for such projects as needed for improvements throughout the city. This eliminates the necessity of floating a bond issue.

Will Present Site Plan

Brown told the council that he will present a site plan to the Board of Education within a few days, and if approved by the Board and the land is acquired, work on the ell will start in two to three months.

The ell will be built first so as not to disrupt activities in the administrative offices. When this is completed, administrative activities will be transferred to the new section.

The present building will then be remodeled to provide larger accommodations for council and court room activities. The police and fire stations will also be remodeled.

City Manager Sidney DeBoer said that in the case of the latter, Police Chief James Furtton and Fire Chief M. William Mason will meet with him to discuss their desires in the alterations of their departments.

Will Consult Engineer

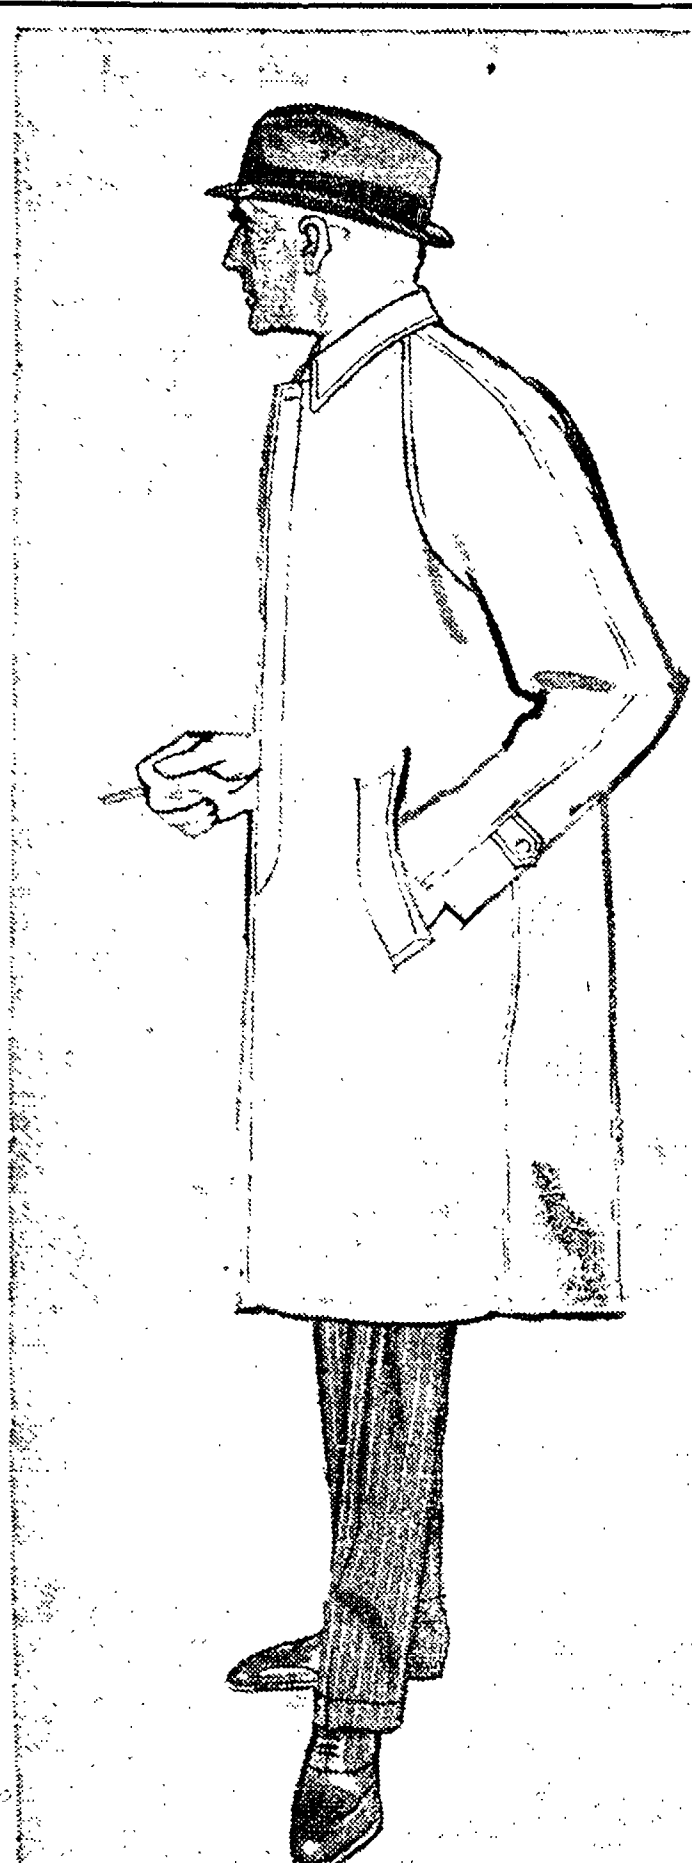

Brown also informed the council that his firm's engineers desire to confer with City Engineer Murray Smith on details in such matters as sewer and water system locations, work on the driveway system, etc.

DeBoer disclosed that while alterations are being conducted in the Police Department, some of the police operations will be moved to the Old Kerby School. Plans are not completed on the relocation of the emergency radio system while the remodeling is taking place, he said.

Brown said that as the work progresses, continuous approval of plans would be required by the council and the city engineer, to insure that the work is being carried out according to specifications.

He said that the entire project should be completed within six to nine months, once begun.

Gunman's Attempt Fails

he did not think the calls were inspired by the union. The committee was dissolved last May after successful negotiation of a contract.

He said that the calls stopped after that, but they started again last month.

His Story to Police
Misteale told the Park detectives and the Detroit police Special Investigation Squad, that he left his house at 5:55 a.m., and cut across a corner of his courtyard into the garage. The garage doors were unlocked and the lights were out, due to a blown fuse.

He said that as he was about to enter his car, he heard a scuffle behind his wife's car.

"Because of the phone calls," Misteale said, "I was scared and reacted immediately by dropping to my knees. As I did, there were two shots and two bullets struck the window of the car door I had been about to open."

He said he tried to roll under the car but it was too low and he could not do it.

Misteale said that after firing the shot, the gunman ran, almost over him, and out of the garage, jumped into a black getaway car and sped away, going north on Balfour toward Jefferson, and disappeared. Because it was dark, he was unable to furnish police with a description of the automobile.

Didn't Notify Park
Enders and Hough said that Detroit police failed to notify the Park Department of the threats. If they had done so, the attempt on Misteale's life could have been prevented, they said.

"The coal executive called the attempt on his life 'a murder effort' by unknown persons who for a year 'have been making telephone calls threatening to kill me.'"

Misteale was closeted with Enders, Hough and LaPratt, Detroit Detective Inspector Arden DeLuca and other officers of the Special Investigation Bureau for more than an hour and a half in a room on the second floor of the Park police station, answering questions and giving details of the incident.

When Misteale finished, he left for his office. He was escorted there by Officer La-

Pratt on orders from Chief Louwers.

Submits School Bid

Misteale, who is vice president and general manager of Misteale Coal, 6495 Mitchell, parent company of Cadillac Coal, 7365 Russell, both in Detroit, submitted a bid to the Detroit Board of Education in the name of the subsidiary.

He submitted the bid on Wednesday, March 14, by the 3 p. m. deadline. He seemed certain that his bid was the lowest. The contract involves 60,000 to 70,000 tons of coal and between $500,000 and $750,000.

Misteale said that earlier this month he received a phone call from a man who said: "If you bid on that contract you'll be dead in 24 hours."

He informed Detroit's Special Investigation Bureau of the call, but the bureau did not alert Park authorities, Detroit police said.

Rest of Family Asleep

Asleep in the three-story brick, Tudor-style home at the time of the shooting, were Misteale's wife, Elizabeth; their son, William, 15, and two nephews, Ned Bunn 17, and his brother, Robert, 14 both of 346 Fisher road.

The family dog "Rin," failed to sound any alarm during the night. Mrs. Misteale said that this was not unusual since the pet never seems to bark at anyone around the house when her husband is home.

Bullet fragments were found inside Misteale's car by Det. Sgt. Earl Leedle of the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory, who said the two bullets smashed the driver-side window and ricocheted inside the car, spider-webbing two other windows.

Foreign Pistol Used

Leedle said the fragments came from a "soft-nosed copper-sheathed bullet of .30 caliber from a foreign-made automatic pistol." Two empty cartridge cases found on the trunk of the car corroborated this analysis. The casings were dated 1951, the sergeant said.

Police found only glove prints on a Pontiac convertible which the assassin hid behind inside the garage. The car belonged to Mrs. Misteale.

Both Misteale's and his wife's car were searched for bombs, but police found none.

tion will cost an estimated $4,500.

The biggest lot will have an entrance and exit at the northwest section of the park on Jackson, and the smaller lot, an entrance and exit at the south of the park on Bramcastor.

The new parking facilities will be in addition to the two lots on the Municipal Building grounds, where there is space on one side of the building for 76 vehicles, and room for 48 vehicles on the other side.

The new lots in the park will have a temporary gravel base, the city administrator said. All the work will be done by the DPW, using public-owned materials.

The revised sidewalk plans have been approved by the firm of Pate and Hirm, city engineers, and will be presented to the city council for final approval and authorization for specifications and bids. The cost estimate is not known.

Funds for the park improvement will come from the Recreation Fund, which has already been included in the fiscal budget, Petersen said.

Cases Dismissed In City Court

Only two cases came before Judge Douglas L. Paterson in Grosse Pointe City Justice Court on Tuesday evening, March 13, and both were dismissed.

Charged with reckless driving, Robert A. Young, 1440 Grayton, pled and was found not guilty. John Cappock, 482 St. Clair, accused of not having his car under control, also pled and was found not guilty.

Two Burglars Surprised

a good description of the thieves, other than that one was heavyset and the other was about six feet tall and wearing a baseball type cap, the chief stated.

The American currency was taken from a desk drawer, and the Canadian currency was taken from an envelope in another drawer of the same desk, the chief said.

The Kornackis told police that they had left the house at about 6 p.m., and had gone to a St. Clair Shores restaurant at Marter and Lake Shore for dinner. They returned and went to visit the Garbarinos after 7 p.m.

About 8:15 p.m., both couples were disturbed by the Kornackis' fox terrier, that had gone to the rear of the Garbarino home and began barking.

The Kornackis said they became concerned because they never allowed their pet out of the house, and had locked it in before leaving. They got into their automobile and drove it up their driveway and as Mr. Kornacki reached for a button in the car to open the garage door, Garbarino yelled: "There they go!"

Kornacki jumped out of the car, and with Garbarino, chased the burglars to Fontana road, across the road to the fence at 7:35 Lake Shore. The two men saw the burglars leap over the fence and escape. When they returned to Kornacki's house, the women had already alerted police.

Rep. Ryan Has Office Here

The address of the office in Washington, D. C., is 106 Old House Office Bldg.

In order to best serve his constituents, Congressman Harold M. Ryan plans to commute to Detroit from Washington each weekend, so that he may be in the Detroit office each Saturday.

REPORTS LOST WATCH

City police received a report of a lost bracelet watch on Monday, March 12. The one-inch gold band, with a small watch in the center, was reported missing by Mrs. Louise Veech, 532 Lakeland, who stated she lost it in the vicinity of the A&P store in The Village earlier in the day. Estimated value of the jewelry is $300.

Evidence showed that one of the thieves had been posted at the front window, keeping watch while his companion began ransacking the house. Most of the rooms in the house had been entered and gone over before the thieves became frightened by the approach of the Kornacki car, Chief Duemling said.

It is possible that the thieves had a car parked somewhere in the area, probably with another man at the wheel waiting, since they were gone within minutes before Shores and Woods police searched the neighborhood, the chief said.

City Council Hears M Petitions Against Bu

Another series of petitions opposing the establishment of the Foundation for Exceptional Children on Neighborhood Club property for the reason that the recreational facilities of the City of Grosse Pointe are most limited, greeted the Grosse Pointe City Council at their regular meeting on Monday, March 19.

Mrs. John Bockstanz, past-president of the Foundation, was present at the meeting to answer any questions pertaining to the controversy. Stating that "we don't want to infringe on anyone's activities," Mrs. Bockstanz informed the Council that the Foundation spent two years searching for suitable property before "the Neighborhood Club approached us."

According to the Neighborhood Club, 300 feet of its property had been accepted for the Foundation's use. City Council Hears More Petitions Against Building

Another series of petitions opposing the establishment of the Foundation for Exceptional Children on Neighborhood Club property for the reason that the property is the farthest removed from any City of Grosse Pointe are most activities going on at the Club. Mrs. John Bockstanz, past president of the Foundation, was present at the meeting to answer any questions pertaining to the controversy, stating that "we don't want to infringe on anyone's activities." Mrs. Bockstanz informed the Council that the Foundation spent two years searching for suitable property before "the Neighborhood Club approached us."

Educators Pay Wicking Tribute

A moment of silent prayer marked the opening of the Board of Education's meeting on March 12. The observation was in honor of Trustee Bert H. Wicking, whose recent passing grieved the community. Mr. Wicking was also honored by his fellow trustees through the adoption of a formal resolution expressing their appreciation for his 19 years service as well as their sense of loss at his death. The board authorized a suitably inscribed copy of the resolution to be prepared for presentation to Mr. Wicking's family.

Thief Partial To Car Lights

Someone in or near the City of Grosse Pointe appears to be building his own car—piece by piece. City police received a complaint from James M. Spall, 5680 Lannoo, early Saturday morning, March 17. James, 17, came to the station to report that a person or persons unknown took the outside rear view mirror and tail light lens from his '61 Ford Falcon while the car was parked on University near Kercheval. The theft occurred some time between 10:30 p. m. Friday and 1 a. m. Saturday.

Brazen Burglar Invades House

Neil DeGroot of 1231 Wayburn, was outside a first-floor bedroom or his house, washing the bedroom window at 8:30 a. m. on Saturday, March 17, when he observed a strange young man in the room. The youth grabbed Mrs. DeGroot's purse and fled from the house before DeGroot was able to descend from a ladder and give chase. DeGroot called Park police and gave them all the information, which was then turned over to Detroit authorities, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The chief said that this was one of the cases in which a crime, breaking and entering, originated on the Detroit side of the Detroit-Park boundary line. The front section of the DeGroot residence is in the Park, the major portion, in Detroit. The burglar ran past a surprised Mrs. DeGroot, who walked into the kitchen from another room. She made a grab for her purse, but missed. Mr. DeGroot chased the burglar south in the alley to Kercheval, then north to Vernor in the Alter-Ashland alley in Detroit, then west on Vernor to Phillip, and north on Phillip where the thief disappeared.

DeGroot told Park police that he had seen the young man in the alley at the rear of his house at about 8:30 a. m. The youth apparently entered the house through an unlocked rear door, he said. The thief was described as being a Negro, 15 to 17 years old, between 5 feet two to five inches tall, stocky build, having no hat and wearing a black hip-length leather jacket. The purse contained a set of house keys, seven dollars in currency and 50 cents in change and a pair of sunglasses. Detroit authorities are investigating the matter.

Concert to Be Given By Baroque Ensemble

The Detroit Baroque Ensemble, in its fourth season, will present a concert on Sunday afternoon, April 1, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Detroit Institute of Arts Lecture Hall.

The ensemble is made up of oboe, harpsichord and soprano, in the persons of Arno Mariotti, first oboe, of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Alice Lungenhausen, concert harpsichordist well known throughout Michigan, and Faye Turner, familiar to the Detroit audiences for her many performances.

Assisting will be William Horvath, cellist, member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Forum Offering Series of Talks

Plans for a 12-week course entitled "The Religions of India" were announced by the Sunday Evening Forum of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. The presentation of the course is dependent on obtaining sufficient registrations from interested persons. Registrations may be made by calling TU 2-0172 or in person at Forum sessions. The deadline for all registrations will be Sunday evening, March 18. The cost of the entire course will be $15.00 per person, which includes a copy of the textbook to be used. No payments will be accepted until the first class meeting.

HIT-RUN ACCIDENT
Elizabeth A. Imrie, 24, of 1342 Hollywood, left her car in front of her house from 6 p. m. on Friday, March 16, to 2:55 p. m. the following day. Sometime during that period, she told Woods police on March 17, a hit-and-run driver damaged the left side of the vehicle. The amount of damage was not given.

Library Bids

dent that the entire project must be postponed at least a year.

Discrepancy Too Great
When the bids for the proposed addition were opened at the regular Board of Education meeting on Monday, March 12, school officials expressed their disappointment at the discrepancy between the estimated cost of the work and the actual offers.

Previous computations had seemed to indicate that the library addition could be built for about $206,000, the guidance center for approximately $25,000. Total of the lowest bids came to $252,221, more than $20,000 over the estimate.

At present, the Grosse Pointe High School library can accommodate only 115 to 120 students at a time. By minimal standards, it should provide space for at least double that number, and the Board of Education is most anxious to work out a practical, adequate solution to the problem.

TWO CARS TANGLE
Howard Lyon, 27930 Grant, St. Clair Shores, was driving his 1960 Chrysler in an outer lane of Jefferson on Thursday afternoon, March 8, pulled to an inside lane, and struck a 1956 Chevrolet driven by William Scilla, 20830 Cedar, St. Clair Shores, in the left rear fender. Damage to both cars was very minor, and no tickets were issued.

Detroit Hold-Up Man Uses Car Stolen from Pointer

A 43-year-old Detroit man arrested by Detroit police for armed robbery Wednesday afternoon, March 14, was driving a car that was reported stolen from a Park auto dealer's lot.

The car belonged to Charles

Johnson of 471 Rivard boulevard, and was stolen from the Fisher-Record Motor Sales customer lot, Kercheval and Wayburn on Tuesday, March 13.

Identified as the car thief and hold-up man was Joseph Mueller, 43, of 2020 Witherell, who was arrested by an officer of Detroit's Jefferson avenue, Fifth Precinct, 15 minutes after he held up a clerk at Stahl's Bakery, 14311 Kercheval, Detroit.

Mueller took $26 from the clerk, Mrs. Susan Dorenkamp, 41, of 353 Lakewood, Detroit at gun point at 5:40 p. m.

A witness jotted down the license number of the getaway car and gave it to police and at 5:55 p. m., Mueller was arrested by Detroit Patrolman Edward Krajewski, at East Warren and Harding.

Mueller admitted the hold-up, and also the theft of Johnson's automobile.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that his department has placed a hold order with Detroit police for Mueller on the car theft charge.

GPMS Musicians Get Top Ratings

Grosse Pointe High School's entries in the district solo and ensemble festival in Ypsilanti, February 17, were all rated "first division," highest possible award in the competition.

Four soloists and four ensembles from Grosse Pointe High were entered in the District Festival. The ensembles were string, clarinet, saxophone quartets and a brass sextet, and soloists were Bill Wright, trumpet; Bob Adams and John Schoenberger, clarinet; and exchange student Mike Eliason, piano.

Judging was done by panels of high school music teachers. The district in which Grosse Pointe High competed includes several southeastern Michigan counties, but excludes the city of Detroit.

Athletes Will Be By Grosse Pointe

Presentation of varsity award letters to Grosse Pointe High School swimmers and basketball players will highlight the Winter Roundup meeting of the Dads Club next Tuesday evening, March 27, at 6:30 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

Sharing the spotlight will be intramural competition trophy winners in volleyball, handball, basketball and foul shooting.

This is the second Sports Roundup meeting of the school year in line with the Dads' Club aim to give recognition right after the seasons end in the various sports.

Varsity letters in swimming will go to the following boys whose efforts carried Grosse Pointe High to first place in the Border Cities League and the Kimball Relays, and in state-wide competition, co-champions with Birmingham, Seaholm: Barry Brink, Neal Bauer, Fred Cutler, Robert Dallas, Don De Meulemeester, Duane Engstrom, Michael Irvine, James Luzzelle, Mark Marsh, Kurt Olmann, Norbert Olmann, Leslie Roddie, Robert Schellig, Robert Sherwood, Jack Tretat, Charles Thompson, James Woods and John Woods.

Basketball letters will be awarded to: Jerry Brennan, Rick Byrdnes, Victor D'Hodge, Robert Hadley, Lawrence Link, Marc Lonesk, James Seder, Gary Spade, Thomas Thompson and Kenneth Witke. Grosse Pointe wound up the basketball season recently as co-champions of the Border Cities League and went on to first place in the District Tournament.

Boat Display Project Pared

The Grosse Pointe City Council, at its regular meeting on Monday, March 19, considered a request from the Grosse Pointe Civic & Commerce Association to block off Kercheval parking from Cadieux to Neff for four days following Easter, to display boats.

The Association plans to ask boat dealers and manufacturers to exhibit their different models and plans to hang decoration, such as banners and marine flags, throughout The Village. No ban on moving traffic down the center of the street is contemplated.

City Manager Lawrence C. Savage pointed out that to allow such a large promotion would, perhaps, establish a precedent, making it difficult to turn down less laudable enterprises in the future. He also noted that the City would lose revenue from some 40 parking meters, put out of service for a four-day period.

A further objection was the traffic hazard aspect. People would obviously want to walk around the boats, looking at them from all angles, and, with moving traffic allowed down the center of the street, the pedestrian accident risk would be quite high.

Council moved to permit the boat display, but left the actual size and extent of the exhibit subject to the discretion of the City Manager and the Department of Public Safety.

Public Invited To Hear Bushong

Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will talk to the Ferry School PTA tonight, March 22, on the subject of Russia.

As a member of a team of prominent American Educators invited to tour and study the Soviet Union, Dr. Bushong enjoyed a rare and unusual opportunity to gain first hand knowledge and information seldom available to Americans.

In the public interest, the Ferry PTA extends its invitation to all members of the community. In order to hear this outstanding message on an important topic of national interest all citizens are cordially invited to attend the Ferry School PTA meeting which will begin in the auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening, March 22.

COMPLAINTS OF LARCENY

John J. DeMunnick, 19, of 2119 Lancaster, complained to Woods police on Saturday, March 17, that someone broke into his car while it was parked in the Woods Theater lot and stole the car radio and cigarette lighter. The value of the radio is not known.

Course on Opera Given at Center

"Music of the Opera," a study of the works to be presented by the Metropolitan Opera in Detroit this spring is taking place currently on Sunday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road.

Instructor of the course is Glenn D. McGeoch, Professor of Music Literature, History and Criticism at the University of Michigan. He pioneered in the field of Adult Education Extension Service—bringing to many long out of the class room a knowledge of and a joy in fine music which they had either never known or had forgotten.

Professor McGeoch has chosen in the eight weeks' series at the Center to dwell on the lesser known operas being presented by the Met this season in Detroit. On Sunday, March 25, he will deal with Così fan tutti and make introductory remarks about Lucia di Lammermoor. April 1st, the discussion will center on Lucia, April 8, the floor will be given to Verdi's Forza del destino, Strauss' Salome will be studied on April 15 and the last two Sundays, April 29 and May 6, after skipping Easter will be devoted to a review of Aida, Madame Butterfly, and Tosca.

All interested Grosse Pointers are cordially invited to join in this study of the opera on any or all of the Sundays listed. Adult admission is $2. Students under 21, $1.

FARMS MAKES PURCHASE

Automotive lubricating equipment for the Public Works Department will be received by the Farms within two weeks. The city council awarded the sale to the Alemite company on Monday, March 19, for an offered bid of $1,332.03. Four other firms offered to sell equipment at higher costs.

Hit-Run Driver Tracked Down

Farms Police Sgt. Ignatious Backman noticed a badly damaged car in front of 467 Chalfonte, while on his way to work Saturday morning, March 17. At the station, he dispatched a scout car to the scene to investigate.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tien and Patrolman Earl Field tracked down the hit-run car, established the ownership, and gave the driver a ticket for leaving the scene of an accident.

The driver of the damaged parked car, Bruce D. Hubbell, 17, of the Chalfonte address, told the officers that he arrived home at about 2 p.m., and parked the vehicle in front of his house. The car was not his, he said. He had borrowed it from a friend.

Damage to the automobile was estimated at about $300. Police found 80 feet of skid marks on the pavement at the accident scene.

Van Tien and Field gathered parts of headlight glass and chrome trim left by the hit-run car, then followed a trail of oil and water to the Food Fair parking lot, 20382 Mack, where they found a damaged car near the east side of the building.

They found that the glass and chrome from the accident scene fitted that of the car in the lot. They took the license number, and called the station. It was disclosed that the car was registered to Randolph and Marjorie Hollinger of 22414 Colony street, St. Clair Shores.

The policemen went to the Hollinger residence, where they were met by Mr. Hollinger, who admitted he was driving the hit-run car at the time of the accident.

Hollinger was issued a ticket.

Seaman David Walsh On Duty in Caribbean

NORFOLK, Va., (FHTNC)—David A. Walsh, seaman, USN, son of Edmund R. Walsh of 676 Notre Dame, Grosse Pointe, Mich., is serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Waldo County, which left Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26, for two months' operational training in the Caribbean area.

Named "Phibulex 1-62," the exercise will be conducted at Vieques, Puerto Rico, to maintain the combat-readiness of the Navy and Marine Corps amphibious striking forces.

Center Offers Talk on Cancer

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Cancer Center in cooperation with the Michigan Cancer Foundation is scheduling the showing of an informative film on cancer prevention, the afternoon of Tuesday, April 3, at 1 o'clock. The picture is known as "The Other City" and points out the seven danger signals of cancer.

In addition to the film a trained member of the Michigan Cancer Foundation staff will speak on the program being carried on by the foundation. Literature will also be given out.

The Memorial's Cancer Center volunteers cordially invite all interested Grosse Pointers to come to the Center, 32 Lake Shore, Tuesday afternoon, become aware of the progress being made in cancer research and familiarize themselves with preventative measures which can be taken in this field.

Tri-State Issue Settled by Police

A Detroit motorist who was using Delaware license plates on his car, and driving with an expired Florida operator's license, was given two traffic violation tickets by Farms police—Michigan type.

Patrolmen Otto Glanert and Ronald Wooten were cruising north on Moross road on Sunday, March 18, when they saw Herbert C. Wilcox, 29, of 13000 Filbert, Detroit, traveling east of Kercheval, going through a red light at the intersection.

Wilcox was ordered to the curb. When the officers requested his operator's license, he produced one issued to him in Florida. The policemen did a double take—the license had expired in 1959. Glanert and Wooten also noticed the Delaware plates.

Wilcox was taken to the station where he was given a ticket for going through a red light, and other for never acquiring a Michigan operator's license.

Austin Students Win in Festival

Austin Catholic Prep produced two winners in the 1962 Oecumenical Interpretation Festival held March 10 at Holy Redeemer High School.

The two winners from Austin were Don Serafino, who won a silver medal in lyric poetry, and Geoffrey Bartz, who likewise took a silver medal in Shakespearean reading.

Altogether, 15 Austin students participated in 10 categories. They were: Pat Milroy, Brian DeFour, John Mahoney, Ralph Quane, Geoffrey Bartz, Joe Hardy, Don Serafino, Bob Moore, Gene Langlais, Joe Martin, Jim Kowalski, Mike Mottel, Peter Alandt, Dennis Walters and Ed Bernacki.

Austin also supplied 40 chairman and timekeepers for the festival. These students elicited praise for their courtesy and skill in handling the individual contests.

The festival had participants from 30 schools in the Detroit area. The Detroit Unit of the National Catholic Theater Conference sponsors the annual affair.

Dr. L. LaMont Okey, professor of speech at the University of Michigan, opened the festival with a keynote address on "Your 3-D Steps."

The Austin participants were coached by Thomas E. Bailey, head of the Austin Speech and Drama Department. Mr. Bailey was pleased with the performances of the two winners, since only 20 medals were available for 30 schools.

Boat Display Project Pared

The Grosse Pointe City Council, at its regular meeting on Monday, March 19, considered a request from the Grosse Pointe Civic & Commerce Association to block off Kercheval parking from Cadieux to Neff for four days following Easter, to display boats.

The Association plans to ask boat dealers and manufacturers to exhibit their different models and plans to hang decoration, such as banners and marine flags, throughout The Village. No ban annoying traffic down the center of the street is contemplated.

City Manager Lawrence C. Savage pointed out that to allow such a large promotion would, perhaps, establish a precedent, making it difficult to turn down less laudable enterprises in the future. He also noted that the City would lose revenue from some 40 parking meters, put out of service for a four-day period.

A further objection was the traffic hazard aspect. People would obviously want to walk around the boats, looking at them from all angles, and with moving traffic allowed down the center of the street, the pedestrian accident risk would be quite high.

Council moved to permit the boat display, but left the actual size and extent of the exhibit subject to the discretion of the City Manager and the Department of Public Safety.

Public Invited To Hear Bushong

Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will talk to the Ferry School PTA tonight, March 22, on the subject of Russia.

As a member of a team of prominent American educators invited to tour and study the Soviet Union, Dr. Bushong enjoyed a rare and unusual opportunity to gain first hand knowledge and information seldom available to Americans.

In the public interest, the Ferry PTA extends its invitation to all members of the community. In order to hear this outstanding message on an important topic of national interest all citizens are cordially invited to attend the Ferry School PTA meeting which will begin in the auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening, March 22.

COMPLAINS OF LARCENY

John J. DeMunnick, 19, of 2119 Lancaster, complained to Woods police on Saturday, March 17, that someone broke into his car while it was parked in the Woods Theater lot and stole the car radio and cigarette lighter. The value of the radio is not known.

City police ticketed both drivers involved in an accident in front of 646 Washington on Saturday, March 17.

Reginald Harris, 432 McKinley, was in the process of backing his car into the street from a driveway when he struck a passing '60 Chevrolet driven by Frances M. David, 680 N. Oxford. Damage to both vehicles was minor.

Charges of reckless driving were filed against both drivers, who are scheduled to appear in court March 27.

MICHIGAN BELL

MASS PRODUCTION IS FINE for some things—but never for our service. What do we mean? Simply this: we try to run our business to provide the best possible service we can—for each individual customer. It's a policy that makes for telephone service you can rightfully depend on, whether you're calling the decorator, the doctor, or the District Attorney. So, while it's true that we handle hundreds of thousands of calls every day of the year, you can be sure that the one you're going to make next will—as always—get the same careful attention that's become a Michigan Bell tradition.

THESE TWO TELEPHONES may look alike, but they aren't. One is a private line and the other is a party line telephone, and there's quite a difference. A private line telephone is always ready for you to use. And friends can reach you when they want you. And though it may seem hard to believe, in town a private line costs only pennies a day more than a party line does. It's a down-to-earth blessing at a down-to-earth cost. If you live in town and now have party line service, why not call us about getting a private line telephone soon?

PASSING THE BUCK usually refers to letting "George" do something nobody else wants to do. But that's a far cry from the reason why your telephone company arranges with others to accept payments for phone bills. Since many people like to pay bills in person, we had to find a way of making this possible at a reasonable cost. So, at no extra cost to you, we've arranged for several conveniently located banks and other businesses to accept payments for us. It all helps keep your phone bills low, while making sure you get the service you want.

Great Decisions Program Tonight

The dilemma of national independence and international interdependence has been called the key conflict in the modern world. On the one hand we have separate nations, each fighting for a place in the sun, each determined to further its own ends. On the other, we have one planet—united by communications, economics, and the indissoluble bond of common humanity.

In the middle, we have the United Nations.

And what, precisely, is the United Nations? Certainly not the universal panacea, the Utopian dream come true. The UN has been in existence 16 years, and earth is still a little less than Eden. UN troops have died in battle.

Definitely not a "supergovernment." Forbidden by Charter to interfere in the internal affairs of member nations, the UN was conceived as a "concert" of nations. It cannot legislate for its members.

What, then can it do? Specifically, what can the UN be, and what do we want it to become?

"Great Decisions—1962" discussion groups, meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the Friends' Room of the Main Library, Kercheval and Fisher, and Room 108, Parcels Junior High School, will attempt a scrutiny of the UN, its aims and achievements, its scope and its limitations.

They will review the history of the UN, discuss its problems, and (hopefully) arrive at some tentative solutions.

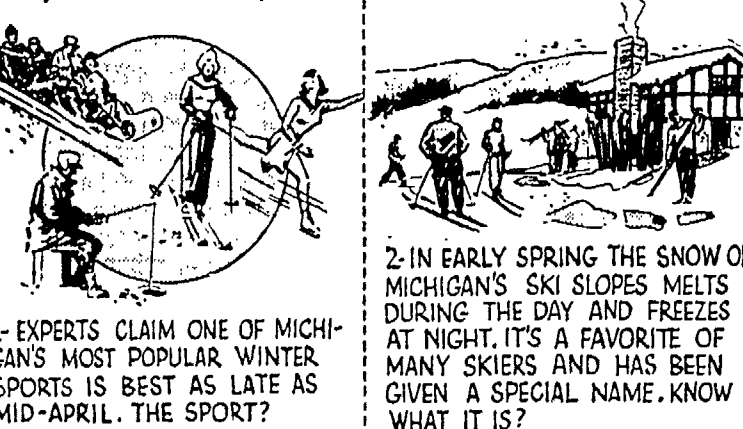

Their opinions will be forwarded to the Michigan delegation in Congress and the State Department.

Anyone interested in the United Nations is cordially invited to participate in the non-partisan "Great Decisions" program, sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association—World Affairs Center, by attending tonight's meeting.

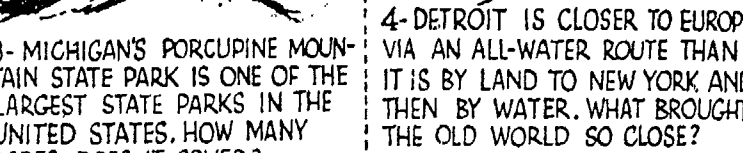

Bad habits are often stumbling blocks to a man's good intentions.

Plan for Sale Of Easter Seals

Volunteer cooperation of the five Grosse Pointes, Harper Woods and Detroit is invited by Paul J. Abele, 19901 Littlefield, Detroit, who for the third successive year has been named chairman of the 1962 Easter Seal Campaign.

The appointment is announced by David Tann, president of the Detroit Society for Crippled Children, Inc., 17330 Schaefer. Among Grosse Pointers assisting Abele in the campaign are Dr. Frank Purcell, 869 Edgemont Park, a vice-president of the Detroit Society, and William M. Perrett, 1127 Kensington Road, a member of the board.

Workers will again champion the cause for crippled children during the 1962 Easter Seal appeal March 15 through Easter Sunday, April 22, and will lead some 5,500 volunteers in the annual drive for funds.

Contributions for the gaily colored Easter Seals during the campaign are used for a program of physical and occupational therapy, medical consultation and social services as well as a summer recreation and therapy program for some 250 handicapped school children.

The 1962 goal is $110,000 to assure continuance of the program which last year provided close to 5,000 services and treatments for almost 1,300 persons at the therapy center on Schaefer Highway.

A new approach during the campaign this year will be made to 120,000 homes in two areas of the drive.

"Though more than a quarter of a million letters containing the seals will again be mailed to our supporters," Abele states, "our Easter Seal volunteer paraders plan to make personal contacts in 100,000 homes in Detroit's northwest area and in 20,000 on the east side.

"We believe that such contact may tell our story better and increase that help we need to assure meeting our obligation to help our helpless children."

The Easter Seal Campaign will be conducted by nearly 1,400 Easter Seal state and local affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults throughout the United States.

Maire Girl Scouts Fete Dads at Banquet

Nine Brownie and Girl Scout troops at Maire School celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Girl Scouts with a father-daughter banquet last Wednesday, March 14, at Grosse Pointe High School. Mrs. Fred E. Elder, of Kensington road, was in charge of arrangements.

The Scouts presented the Julia Lowe World Friendship fund, which they had collected, to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, of Grayton road, neighborhood chairman.

Burglar Breaks Into Plumber's

James Ryan, proprietor of the Ryan Plumbing company, 15001 East Jefferson, was the victim of a burglar who broke into his store, it was reported on Saturday, March 17.

He told Park police that the thief got into the store by tearing the mesh screen and breaking glass of the rear door. The robber took only the eight dollars that was in the cash register. Nothing else was disturbed, Ryan said.

The breaking and entering occurred sometime between 6:30 p.m. on Friday, March 16, when he closed, and 6 a.m. Saturday.

The Foundation for Exceptional Children was founded November 1954 by a group of parents of handicapped children drawn together by common needs. They were joined by other public spirited, interested citizens of Grosse Pointe who shared the opinion that something must be done. The formal program for these children was conducted at Neighborhood Club on Saturday afternoons. In June 1961 the Grosse Pointe Board of Education offered the Foundation the use of a quonset hut on grounds of the Grosse Pointe High School. Six years of increasing enrollment at the H School created a need for a quonset hut and the Board of Education regretfully asked the Foundation to seek another location. Thus, in June 1961, the Foundation transferred its program to Miller Hall on a temporary basis on the invitation of the Vestry of Christ Episcopal Church.

The Proposed Building of the Foundation For Exceptional Children As Viewed From St. Clair Ave. Frontage

The Foundation for Exceptional Children was founded in November 1954 by a group of parents of handicapped children drawn together by common needs. They were joined by other public spirited, interested citizens of Grosse Pointe who shared the opinion that something must be done. The first formal program for these children was conducted at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday afternoons. In June 1955 the Grosse Pointe Board of Education offered the Foundation the use of a quonset hut on the grounds of the Grosse Pointe High School. Six years of increasing enrollment at the High School created a need for the quonset hut and the Board of Education regretfully asked the Foundation to seek another location. Thus, in June 1961, the Foundation transferred its program to Miller Hall on a temporary basis on the invitation of the Vestry of Christ Episcopal Church.

The Foundation extends a cordial invitation to all who are interested in visiting Miller Hall (rear of Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe Blvd.) during the week of March 26-30 between the hours of 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Tuition payments account for an appreciable amount of the funds needed for operation of the Foundation; however, the major portion is provided by contributions of Grosse Pointe residents. In addition, the following community and service organizations, among others, have made contributions to the Foundation over the years:

They Help One Another

Learning self-help and concern for others.

This picture plainly illustrates the importance of every act performed by these youngsters. They like to do things.

The name FOUNDATION FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN is in fact a misnomer. It was chosen to protect the children because it is a non stigma name such as "retarded" or "mentally handicapped". These children are "exceptional" only in that they are not considered educable by Board of Education standards. They must be trained by special methods and skills, those offered by the Foundation. The Foundation serves a group whose needs are met by no other local facility.

Based upon national statistics the predictable number of children in the Grosse Pointes who would benefit from training through the Foundation is fifty. The proposed building is designed to accommodate them. The proposed building will serve for long term future needs because of the limited anticipated population increases in the Pointes.

For seven years the Foundation has operated in inadequate, temporary facilities. Seven years of experience have demonstrated the value and effectiveness of the Foundation program. In that period over 100 children have been enrolled for one or more years and their marked progress and achievements are proof of the soundness of the program. Now the Foundation needs a permanent home with adequate facilities.

The Foundation has been searching for a suitable site for more than two years. In April, 1961 discussions were begun between the Neighborhood Club and the Foundation regarding the property needs of the Foundation. The land offered to the Foundation is the L-shaped, shaded area shown on the plan below. It represents approximately one-sixteenth of the Neighborhood Club property. The adjacent corner property on Charlevoix and St. Clair is privately owned.

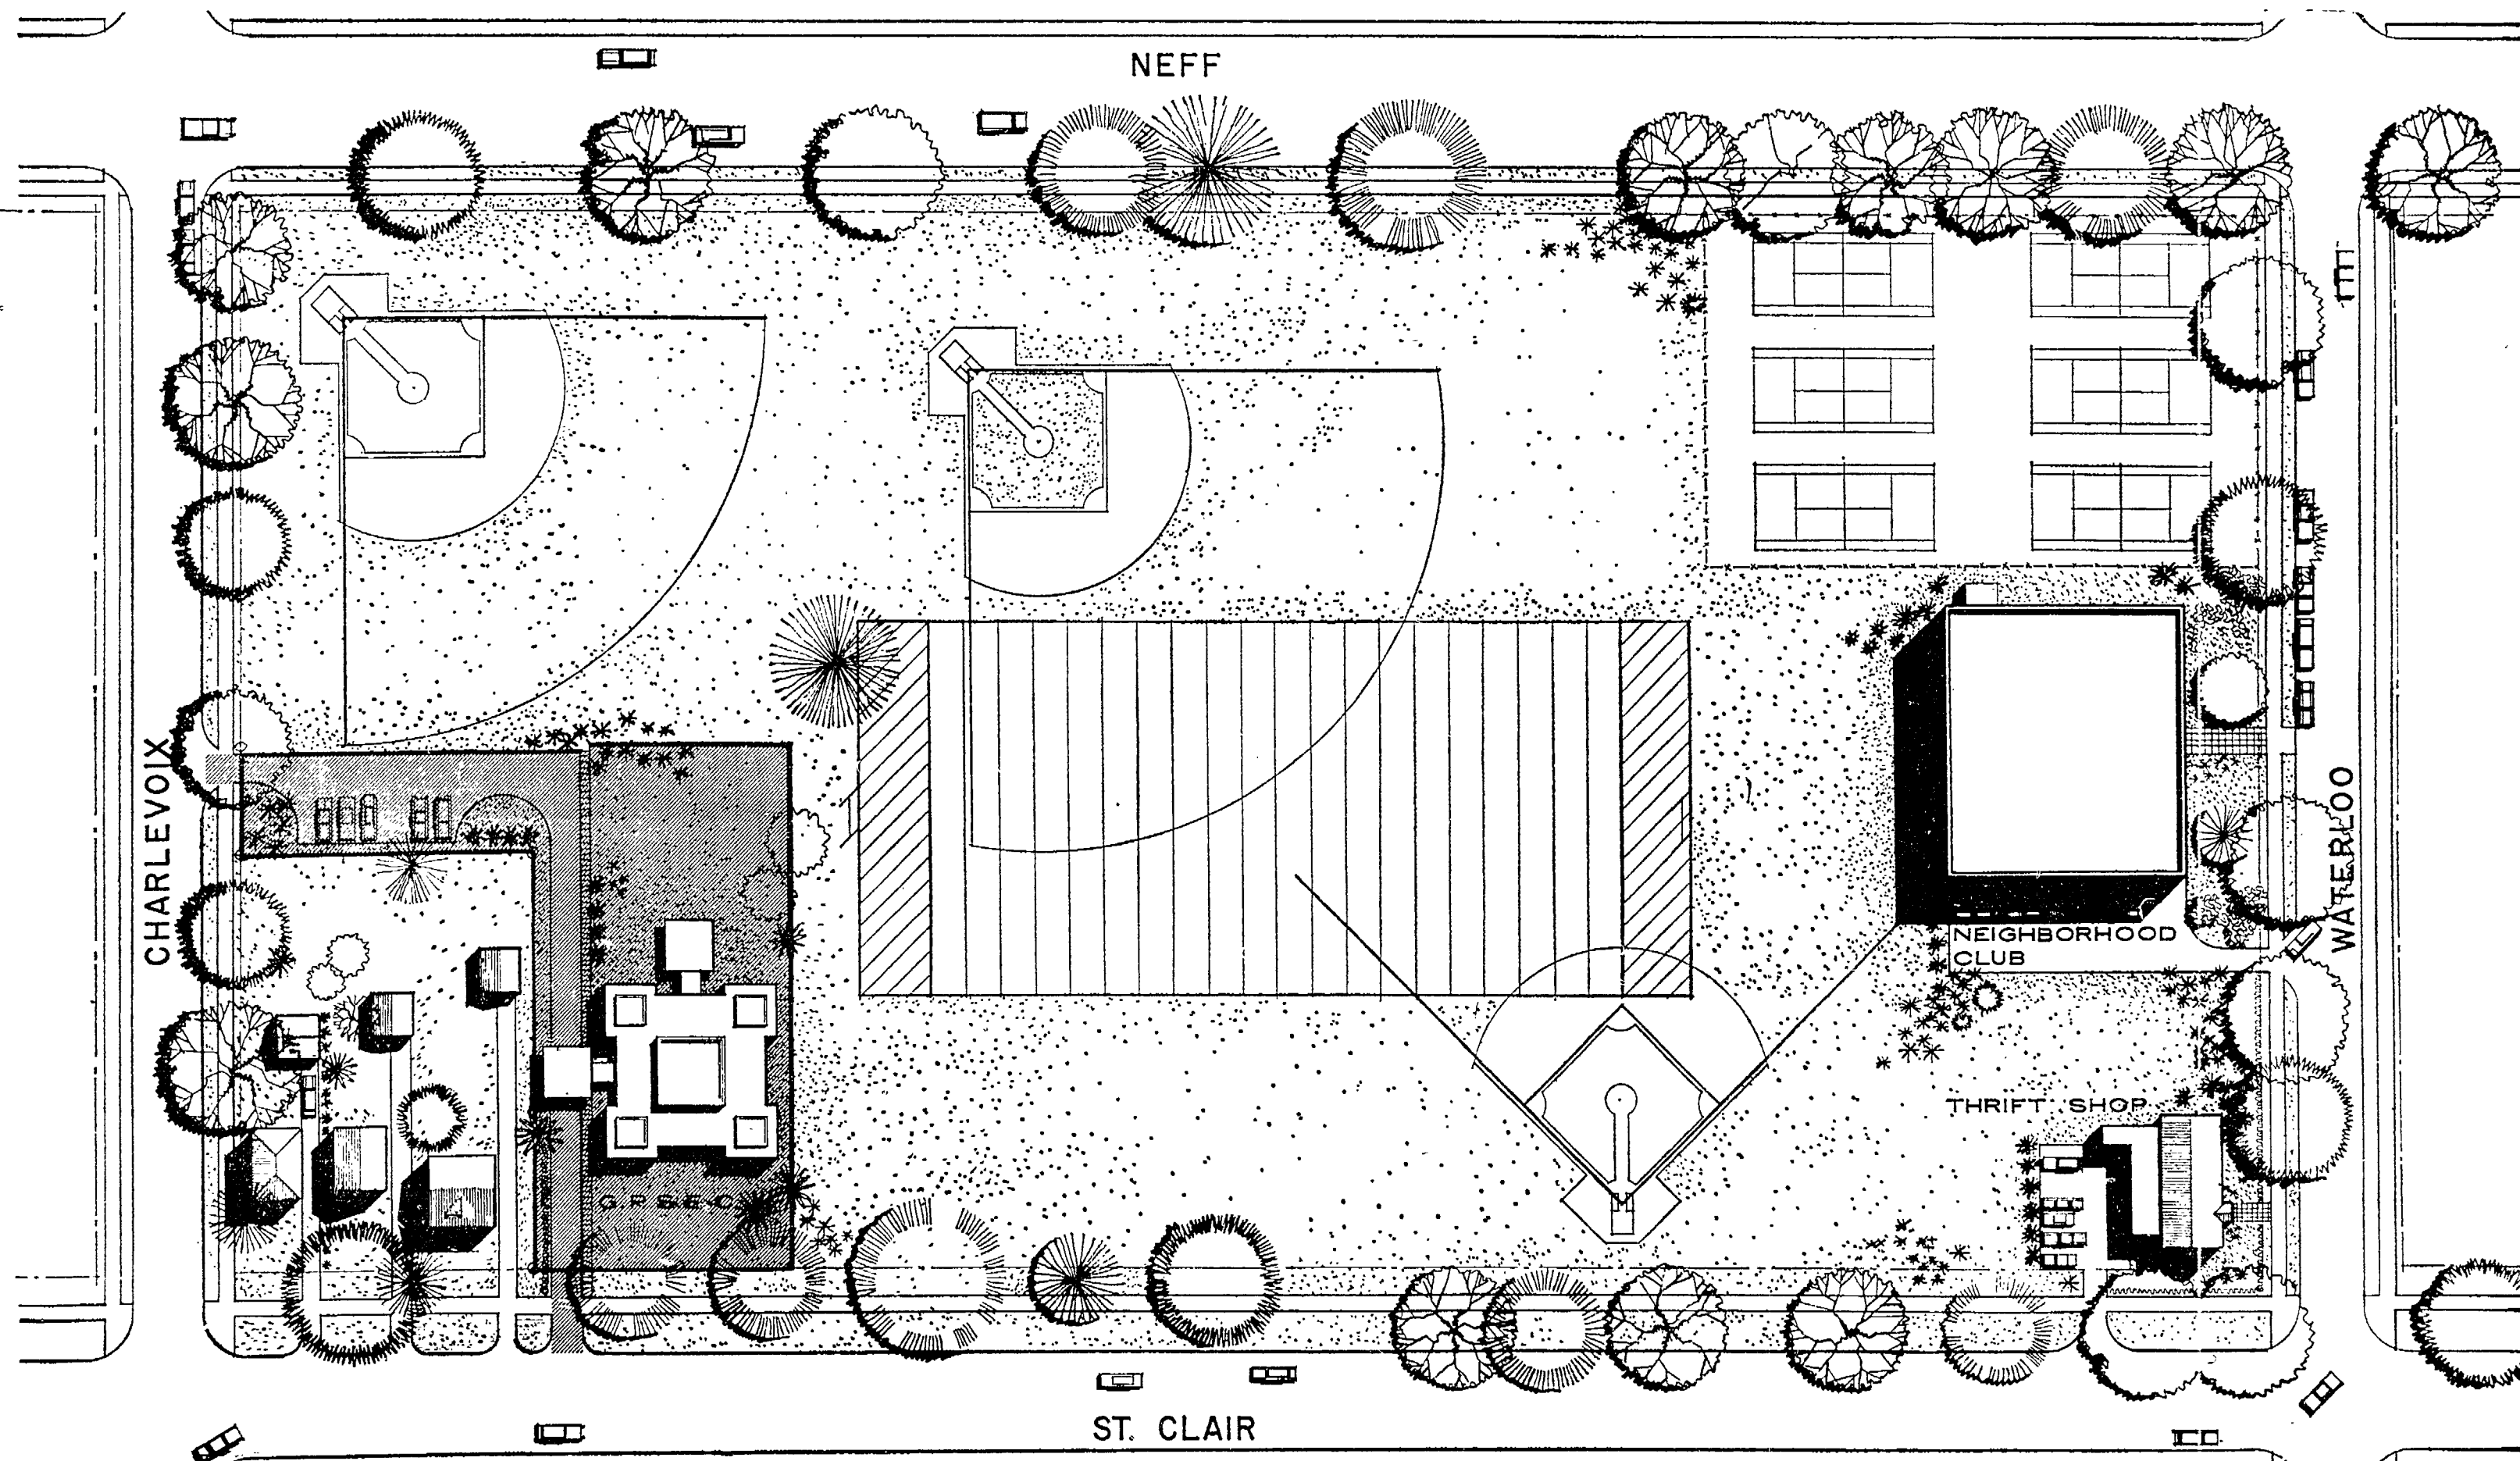

A prominent Grosse Pointe architectural firm has designed an attractive, one-story, modern facility incorporating the special needs of the children. It will be constructed essentially of face brick supplemented by harmonious landscaping. At the rear of the building will be a small, completely fenced recreational area.

Good Literature Luncheon Held

A number of delegates from the Grosse Pointe Council of the Literature for Youth attended the luncheon meeting on Wednesday, in the McGregor Conference Center of Wayne State University.

Hosts on this occasion were the officers and board of directors of the Metropolitan Detroit Council on Better Literature and guests were representatives of the many church, service and youth organizations in the Detroit area who are actively concerned with the problem of pornography and its direct relationship to juvenile delinquency.

Dr. Martin H. Hoffman, a prominent Detroit psychiatrist, Dr. J. Russell Bright of Wayne University, Mr. John Danahy, former prosecuting attorney of Macomb County and Mrs. Jacob F. Wenzel, founder and director of the Grosse Pointe Council were members of a panel discussion following the luncheon.

Mrs. Wenzel entertained the members of the Grosse Pointe Council at luncheon in her home in Chagrin Falls on Friday, March 16 at which plans were discussed for the future activities of the group and reports given of a number of recent speaking engagements assigned to members of the Council.

Receives Degree Of Specialist

The University of Michigan has conferred the degree of Education Specialist on Merline W. Schultz, counselor at Grosse Pointe High School. The work was taken in Secondary School Counseling and Guidance Services and was the first degree of this kind granted in this area by the University although many other universities, particularly in the East, have been granting such a degree for many years.

This program of advanced graduate studies is intended to broaden and provide depth to the professional preparation of guidance and personnel workers. The intent is to assist individuals to assume leadership in the development of guidance and personnel programs as an integral part of the total educational experiences of children and youth.

In obtaining this degree, Mr. Schultz carried out a research program in evaluating the Grosse Pointe High School Guidance program through an opinion poll of a selected group of students of the 1960 graduating class and a study of the cumulative records of these students. On the whole the follow-up study showed that the students were enthusiastic of the overall program with some minor problems being observed which should be largely corrected by the new guidance facilities and reorganization to be placed in operation next fall.

BATTERY STOLEN

Mary King of 1597 Hawthorne, told Woods police that the battery was stolen from her car by an unknown person. She said that the vehicle was parked at the rear of Parcels Junior High School on Tuesday, March 6, when the theft occurred.

Youth Jailed For Prowling

A Detroit youth was convicted of a charge of prowling in the righting by City Judge Douglas Patterson on Saturday, March 10.

Judge Patterson, who presided in the Park court, in the absence of vacationing Judge C. Joseph Belanger, sentenced the youth, Clemman Moore, 18, of 999 Brewster, to 10 days in the Wayne County Jail.

According to Park Police Chief Arthur Lowers, a complaint was received from Dr. W. L. Lheureux of 1389 Cadieux, that a young man rang his doorbell on Saturday at 2:59 a.m., and asked for money and shelter for the night.

The doctor refused the request and called police, and Moore left.

Sgt. Gordon Duncan and Patrolmen Henry Wilson, Robert Salford, and William Furtaw went to the area and began a search of the neighborhood. They found Moore crouching in the back seat of a car in the doctor's garage at the rear of the house and arrested him.

Moore told police that he had been to a party at the home of a girl friend living on the west side of Detroit and had taken a bus to go home. He did not get off at his stop and continued on until he got off in the vicinity of the doctor's house, Moore said.

Moore claimed he had only one drink at the party.

Gold Hi-Y Club Holds Election

George Zeock was elected president of the Grosse Pointe Gold Hi-Y Club recently, according to William Schlegelmilch, club advisor. The club is sponsored by the Hannan Branch YMCA.

Other officers elected were Robert Morden, vice-president; Richard Allison, secretary; Kenneth Meek, treasurer; and Doug Firth, sergeant at arms.

The Gold Hi-Y Club is a high school service organization of 15 years standing. Retiring club officers are George Elling, president; Archie Grieve, vice-president; Mickey McKee, secretary; Richard Allison, treasurer; and Frank Bowles, chaplain.

Highlights of the 1961 club year were participation in the Michigan State Youth and Government program at Lansing, supported by World Service, gave leadership to the Hi-Y officers training camp at Torch Lake and helped host the YMCA Older Boy's Conference last spring.

Fortnighters Holding Dance

Fortnighters will honor their president, Dr. Donald G. McIntyre, at a dance on Friday, March 23, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The semi-formal affair will begin at 8 p.m. Music will be provided by the "Three D's."

Fortnighters is a single, young adult group sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. All single, young adult Grosse Pointers are invited to attend Fortnighter programs.

Business Group Picks Nominees

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association at its regular March luncheon meeting at the War Memorial Center last Thursday selected nominees for all offices for the coming year.

For president, incumbent Albert D. Thomas (Builder), was nominated from the floor.

The slate prepared by the nominating committee was submitted by past president Norman Kopperschmidt and accepted, follows: president, Cyril Verbrugge (grocer); vice-president, Thomas Offer (broker); secretary, Zack Moir (gas station), and Ralph H. Bransby (photographer); treasurer, Nelson Frolund (garden supplies), and Mrs. Margaret Rice (fashions).

Directors (four to be selected): Clayton Allandi (Verheyden's); Paul Gach (photographer); Fran Lemmer (restaurant); William McCourt (youth clothes); Mrs. Lee Meyer (pet store); Thomas Peters (banker); Clayton Purdy, Jr. (realtor); G.D. (Bud) Woolridge (winer).

Camera Club Meets March 27

Laverne Bovair, FPSA, will present his slide show "Out of This World" at the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, on Tuesday evening, March 27, at 8 p.m., at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo.

Mr. Bovair is a well known photographer of table tops. He has many creative ideas in his special interest and has also exhibited many of his pictures in salons where they have had recognition. He has been a member of the Photographic Society of America for nearly 15 years and for his accomplishments has been elected Fellow of the organization. He also is a member of the Photographic Guild of Detroit.

His program will be followed by a social hour.

The meeting is open to interested guests and new members.

Loss to East Detroit E Good Season for Devils

By Dan Hall

Grosse Pointe's basketballers ended the a 62-59 loss to East Detroit on the winner Wednesday.

The Devils ended the season with a 1 record. They shared the Border Cities League ship with Highland Park and won a District ship in the state tournament.

Grosse Pointe had won an earlier clash with East Detroit, but Coach Chuck Hollosy was not making any excuses for Wednesday's loss. "We were flat," he said. "I guess they were a better team than we were, at least for one game in the state tournament you have to have your poor game against a poor team, but we had a poor game against a good team."

Pleased With Season
Coach Hollosy was pleased with the season as a whole. "When I first saw the boys I did not think they were too far," he said. "But the practices went on I knew we had something." Asked who he considered the most outstanding loss, he said, "You seven boys play team effort." The included seniors Rick Brydges and and juniors Mark Seder, Gary Sp. Dhooge.

Loss to East Detroit Ends Good Season for Devils

By Dan Hall

Grosse Pointe's basketballers ended the season with a 43-59 loss to East Detroit on the winners' court last Wednesday.

The Devils ended the season with a 15-3 won-lost record. They shared the Border Cities League Championship with Highland Park and won a District Championship in the state tournament.

Grosse Pointe had won an earlier clash with East Detroit, but Coach Chuck Hollosy was making excuses for Wednesday's loss. "We were out of sync," he said. "I guess they were a better team than we were, at least for one game. In the state tournament you have to have your poor game against a poor team, but we had a poor game against a good team."

Pleased With Season
Coach Hollosy was pleased with the season as a whole. "When I first saw the boys I didn't think we could go too far," he said. "But then as the practices went on I knew we had something."

Asked who he considered the most outstanding players, Hollosy said, "You saw the first seven boys play. This was a team effort." The first string included seniors Jerry Brennan, Rick Brydges and Ken Witzke, and juniors Marc Lonesk, Jim Seder, Gary Spade, and Vic Dhooge.

Coach Hollosy is hoping for help on next year's team from this year's reserve squad. "It will be difficult for them to take a job away from any of our regulars," he said, "but I told the boys in our last meeting that just because they were so-called regulars this year doesn't mean they will be next year."

Players, Unsung Heroes Help Teams to Success

By Dan Hall

Two of the Blue Devil basketballers gained special awards from Detroit's two major newspapers last week-end. Junior guard Gary Spade was named to the honorable mention list in the Free Press All-State Team and by the News to the All-Suburban second team and to the Border Cities League All-Stars.

Coach Chuck Hollosy was chosen as Coach of the Year by the News. "It is a great honor and I was very pleased," he said. "But you can't be a driver unless you have the horses."

A glance at the Devils' 15-3 record seems to indicate he had the horses—seven of them as a matter of fact. He has said repeatedly throughout the season that the team did not depend on any one or two players, and he seldom knew an hour before game time which five of his seven-man first string would start.

There were another four horses, moreover, who will never be snatched out for any honor, have never scored a single point nor pulled in even one rebound, and have never been heard of by most of the spectators. They are Manager Steve Mertz and Statistics Landless, Paul Renbush and Jim Smith.

"We had a real good one in Mertz," said Hollosy. Steve took care of most of the equipment and managed such details as first aid and attendance on buses to away games. This may seem minor, but it did leave Hollosy with valuable time for practice sessions and planning.

The statisticians were equally important. Their accurate records of individual scoring, assists, and rebounds gave Hollosy a good yardstick to measure each player's capabilities.

Reserve Coach Walt Koepke, Official Scorer Mr. Bud Kurvink, and announcer Dr. Stanley Cook were others who contributed to this year's basketball season.

Little League Sends Out Call

All boys between the ages of 8 and 12 who reside in the City of Grosse Pointe are invited to register for the 1962 Little League baseball season this Friday, March 23, between 7 and 9 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club, or Saturday, March 24, between 1 and 3 p.m.

Boys should bring their birth certificates and be accompanied by one or both parents. No registration fee is required. Both major and minor league tryouts have been scheduled for April 7, 14, and 21 at the Neighborhood Club Field.

League Acquires Electric Pitcher

By Bill Stuck

In tryouts this year for the first time an electric pitching machine will be used by Farms Little League players. The purchase and delivery of this equipment was announced by Bill Boyd, equipment manager.

After tryouts starting March 31, it will be used throughout the season wherever possible for practices.

The "electric pitcher" is remotely operated. It uses rubber coated baseballs. There is no significant difference between these and regulation balls for this particular operation and it does do away with the spring practice problem of wet and then resulting hard practice baseballs. By use of the machine, consistent pitching is assured. Tryouts themselves should be considerably speeded up, since the machine if desired can pitch a ball every seven seconds.

In addition to the mechanical aspects of the "pitcher" also eliminates wild pitches and possible injuries. This is another safety item designed to take as much of the hazard out of the game as possible.

Other safety measures taken over the years include required wearing of helmets or head guards while batting or running bases and the wearing by the catcher of major league type catching equipment, mask, chest protector, shin guards, etc. Further, the continual watching of the boys wearing glasses to be sure they are "safety type," has aided in making Little League baseball fast, full of fun, and still as safe as humanly possible.

Managers of Little League groups in other areas than the Farms are invited to contact Bill Boyd, TU 1-2967, or Bill Hyde, TU 1-4836, if they are interested in further details and possibly using the "electric pitcher" now in the area.

Motschall Lands Prize Bonafish

NASSAU, Bahamas — A 10-pound 14-ounce bonafish landed by John F. Motschall of (1168 Three Mile Drive) Grosse Pointe, Mich., has taken over first place for bonafish in the Bahamas Winter Fishing Tournament.

Motschall was fishing at Lisbon Creek aboard the skiff "Abaco Angler" with Ephesus Hepburn as guide. His catch beats the previous tourney record by four ounces.

Sails and Skis

By Frank McBride

Spring skiing conditions abounded in the north last week-end. The sun shone brightly both Saturday and Sunday as the temperature rose to the mild 40's by afternoon. The slopes were hard packed with grape juice and cheese was the order of the day. Despite the bright sun and the warm temperatures there was not a trace of a bare spot on the slopes. This is truly the most enjoyable time of the year for skiing.

Comm. Paul Roth of the Detroit Yacht Club announced, while sitting beside the stream at White Sands the popular eating cabin in the woods at Osego, plans to have George O'Day the winner of the 5.5 Metre championships at Naples in 1960 show his color movie "Road to Olympia" at the club on Friday, March 30.

O'Day, the young Boston insurance agent who turned boat builder, is making a tour of the country talking to groups interested in sailing. He will be a crew member aboard the 12 Metre EASTERNER in the America's Cup Defense late this summer.

All D.R.Y.A. members and their guests are invited. There will be a charge of $1.00 and those desiring to have dinner at the club prior to the movie may do so by phoning the DYC for reservations.

The annual Toledo Yacht Club Mills Trophy Race course has been changed again this year. Last season the TYC lengthened the course to approximately 100 miles, which left many a skipper with the feeling that he might not make it back home in time for work on Monday morning. The longer course did not meet with approval of many of the sailors and some stayed away.

This year the course has been shortened to about 75 miles, the distance of the race prior to last year's change. The race will start off Toledo Harbor Light at 11, Saturday, June 16. The course will take the fleet to Strave Island, Middle Island, and around Middle Sister and back to the finish at Toledo Harbor Light.

Babe Ruth League Advises Players to Start Training

By Al Bruce

Tryouts in the Grosse Pointe Woods Shores Babe Ruth League will begin on Saturday, April 7, at 12:30 p.m. At that time all registered players will be expected to be present.

The schedule for that day calls for all 13 year olds to report at 12:30; all 14 year olds at 2:30; and all boys of 15 years of age at 4 p.m. They should come equipped and ready for play. Team managers and coaches will be on hand to look over the boys preparatory to picking them in the player draft, which will come later in the month.

Further tryouts will be held on April 14 and 21 with the time for each age group being the same. All tryouts will be held at the Parcels Junior High field.

With this series of tryouts coming up, it would be wise for the boys to give thought to their physical condition. Some will laugh at this since they know that the average boy has been quite active throughout the colder months with winter sports. However, young muscles and tendons may not be attuned to throwing a baseball, sliding into a base or making a hard running catch, and running in spiked shoes is different than in basketball shoes or ice skates. Now is the time for the parents of the players to act as advisers and trainers for their sons.

When these first balmy days of spring roll around, it is only natural for the boy to get out with his glove and ball. However he should be cautioned against throwing curves and fast balls. He should not try to make snap throws as all these things will result in a sore arm and could lead to permanent injury.

With the welfare of the boys in mind, the league officials are suggesting certain conditioning principles which will not only help but will bring the boy up to the tryouts in good shape to give his best performance.

For the first few days he should make easy throws giving attention to his form and follow through. As his arm gets stronger he can increase his speed but avoid snap throws and curves. These will come when he knows his arm is strong. Above all, he should not let his arm and shoulder become tired.

When his throwing becomes an effort he should stop, cover his arm and shoulder with his sweater and thus keep it warm and prevent the muscles and tendons from tightening. Next, a hot shower followed by an easy rubdown with alcohol will make him feel ready for another workout, but make that the next day. His legs should also be conditioned by wearing his spikes and taking short runs. Quick starts and stops should be avoided until the ankles and legs are accustomed to the spike shoes. Bending and touching the opposite foot also strengthens legs. If the boy will follow these conditioning exercises he will approach the tryouts knowing that he can give his best.

Proper food should be considered, but trying to tell a boy in this age group what to eat and when to eat is too much to expect. Mainly he should eat body strengthening foods and plenty of them.

Heads Amherst Squash Team

AMHERST, Mass.—John S. Pingel, Jr., son of the senior Pingels of 582 Peach Tree lane, has been elected captain of the Amherst College squash team for the '62-'63 season.

Pingel, a junior at the New England college, was the number seven man this year on a team which compiled a 7-4 record against the stiffest competition. Counted on heavily by Coach Ed Serues "to improve right on through the season," John did just that and was rewarded with the confidence of the captaincy for next year.

A graduate of the Grosse Pointe University School, Pingel was a three year, three letter man in high school, in football, basketball and baseball. At Amherst he is also a varsity golfer and is secretary of the Amherst chapter of Alpha Delta Phi.

Austin Friars Outswim Lakers

By Frank Wilberding

Austin Catholic Prep clinched the League Swimming Championship for 1962 by sinking a spirited but outclassed St. Paul team, 67-28, in a dual meet March 14 at Brownell pool.

The win raised the Friars' league record to 8-0 and the season record to 12-1. The Friars' only loss came in a close contest with power-laden Madison High.

High on the list of praise for Austin were Greg Morgan and Sandy McDonald, two freshmen who showed fine potential in winning the 100-yd. breaststroke and 100-yd. freestyle respectively. Other fine performances were given by Jim Cleary, who won the 100-yd. butterfly, and John Schoenherr, who triumphed in the 220-yd. freestyle.

Pete Jacques took the 200-yd. individual medley, and John Schable won the 50-yd. freestyle. Also victorious was Austin's freestyle relay team of Pete Alandt, Pete Wayne, Don Hannon and captain Jim Schulte.

The Friars will battle it out on Sunday, March 25, with the top swimmers of the Catholic League for the coveted City Championship. Chief contenders with the Friars will be Visitation and De La Salle.

A man is bound to lose his grip the minute he loses his grit.

Cagers of St. Paul Score Three More Tourney Wins

By Judy Jurgens

With the addition of three more victories to their record, St. Paul roared on to the quarter finals in the Class C division of the state tournament last week. The participating teams were St. Hedwig, St. Cyril, and No. 1 rated Capac.

In the Tuesday night St. Hedwig game, St. Paul had a marginal lead of 25-13 in the first quarter, at half time 39-28, and a slim lead of 46-39 at the end of the third quarter. With a final 16-point spurge the Lakers ended the game 67-51.

High scorer honors went to Gary Schick with 21 points. Jack Wachter had 20 points, Tom Moxley, 11. St. Hedwig's high scorers were Rusin with 19 and Waleczak with 14. Fifty percent of the Lakers, game points were scored on foul shots, hitting 29 out of 38.

Thursday night again saw the "Mighty Lakers" take another victory over St. Cyril. The first quarter was mainly a defensive period, ending with a 12-6 lead for St. Paul. The second quarter showed a rise to 32-17. It was 43-33 in the third, and the Lakers went on to a 57-39 victory.

High scorer honors went to Gary Schick with 19 points. He was assisted by Tom Moxley with 13 and Jack Wachter with 10. Joe Kawowski led St. Cyril's with 12 points, followed by Bob Meszynski with 10. St. Cyril, co-sharers of the third division championship with Al Saints, missed the help of their all-city player, Jim Shrock, who is suffering with a broken leg.

The biggest and the most anticipated game of the regionals was fought Friday night with the matching of St. Paul and Capac. It was a tough game all the way through, the Lakers suffering the loss of one of their ace-guard, Mike Cantwell after a minute and 10 seconds of playing time.

Cantwell, a 5-10, 160 lb. senior, received a concussion after driving in for a layup. He was rushed to Bon Secour Hospital attended by team physician Dr. Farnam. Cantwell has started every one of the 22 games played this year, a distinction only he and Jack Wachter hold.

Despite the heavy loss, St. Paul clipped Capac with a 43-43 victory, before a crowd of 3,200. The first quarter showed a deadlock at 11-11. The half gave St. Paul a tight margin of three points, 20-17. The third quarter also was close with a 35-31 difference in St. Paul's favor.

Jack Wachter took game honors with 18 points, supported by Gary Schick with 16 and Tom Moxley with 9. Ken Kabayashi tallied 14 points and Rick Hawks 12 for Capac. Mr. Laurer and his Lakers deserve much credit for breaking Capac's winning streak of 20-0.

St. Paul will be playing Sebewaing at Port Huron Wednesday night. If victors they will advance to the semi-finals at Lansing. If victors again they will contend for the Class C title game Saturday. They are the defending champions.

Buildings Reflect Character

Buildings reflect the character of a community. We were thinking about this while trying to keep abreast of progress being made on construction projects throughout the Pointe. Some of them are nearing completion; others are still in the planning stage.

Grosse Pointe has always been noted for its many fine homes of all sizes, from baronial mansions down to diminutive jewels of architecture. As far as residential building is concerned the face of the community has changed vastly during the last two decades. Thousands of new homes have been built by families with a wide range of incomes. The great majority are in excellent taste and have maintained the reputation which the Pointe has long enjoyed.

Our thoughts were principally involved with projects of a public nature, of which there have been many during recent years. The great expansion of the public school system has given us a number of modern and architecturally outstanding buildings. Grosse Pointe University School contributed a fine example of the work of world-famed Minoru Yamasaki. The gift of the late Dexter M. Ferry, Jr. brought into being the new Central Library, product of the artistry of Marcel Breuer.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is about ready to dedicate its magnificent addition to this classic structure. Built at a cost of approximately a million dollars, it greatly enhances the local landscape. The steelwork has gone up on the lovely auditorium which will greatly enhance the beauty and usefulness of the War Memorial Center. Liggett School is conducting a drive to raise funds for a fine new educational center in the Woods.

Grosse Pointe High School is one of the Pointe's most outstanding buildings. When it was proposed to construct an addition to enlarge the library there the public was fearful that something might be done to spoil the architectural perfection of the building. The School Board went to great pains to find a plan that would insure against this. Now that the bids are in, it appears the project is too costly to carry out and a separate library may be built on a portion of the parking lot.

Aside from the educational, cultural and religious construction, there has also been much progress made along the lines of providing ever-improved recreational facilities. The auditorium-gymnasium at the High School, new swimming pools, constant development at the municipal lakefront parks are all evidence of this trend. This summer the City will unveil its new swimming pool and bathhouse. The Woods is presently engaged with increasing its boat mooring facilities. Plans have been approved for various improvements at Ghesquiere park.

All of these projects are evidence of the great interest of the citizens in their community. Some of them are being paid for through private contributions; others come directly from the pockets of the taxpayers, who can make their wishes known at the polls. They should be and are, a source of great pride to the residents. They truly reflect the character of the people who live here.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

We have been saddened by the death of two good friends of our library, Mr. Bert Wicking and Mrs. Haldeman Finnie. Mr. Wicking was a frequent visitor at Central, and each member of our staff had a warm feeling for him. Mrs. Haldeman Finnie, local author of note, was also a popular patron. Mr. Finnie is a former board member of the Friends of the Library, and it has been a pleasure always to serve them.

Mrs. Finnie's novels, written under her maiden name, Isabella Holt, have given enjoyment to many readers. Among her books on our library shelves are AUNT JESSIE, GOLDEN MOMENT, MIDPOINT, MY SON AND HEIR, RAMPOLE PLACE AND A VISIT TO PAY. Younger readers continue to enjoy a book which grew out of stories she told to her own children, THE ADVENTURES OF RINALDO.

Every year new awards crop up in the literary world, until we are hard put to it to keep up with them all. In the children's field, however, the two which create the greatest interest are the Newbery and Caldecott medals. The Newbery is given each year for the "most distinguished contribution to American literature for children." The Caldecott goes to the artist of the "most distinguished American picture book." The selection is made always from books published during the previous year. The 1962 winners have just been announced.

It is possible for the same person to be given these awards more than once, and this year both authors receiving this recognition are winners for the second time. The 1962 Newbery medal has been awarded Elizabeth Speare for THE BRONZE BOW. This compelling story of a young Galilean boy at the time of Jesus, will interest young people from grade six up.

Mrs. Speare also won the Newbery medal in 1959 for her WITCH OF BLACKBIRD POND. This centers about a witchcraft incident in colonial Connecticut. It has a strong plot with plenty of suspense, and is a favorite with the young teens.

Pointers Win Prizes

Several Grosse Pointers are among the 257 top freshmen at the University of Michigan who have won William J. Branstrom prizes for scholarship.

Winners are freshmen who rank in the top seven percent of their school or college with a minimum of 15 hours of degree credit. They will select one of 19 deluxe bound volumes, gold-stamped with the U. of M. seal, and receive their books at a 2 p.m. convocation May 11 in Lydia Mendelsohn Theater.

Winners include George C. Bell, Engineering, 1870 Oxford road; Joyce K. Hancock, Engineering, 469 Colonial Court; Grace V. Jeffries, LSA, 1010 Harvard road; Julie A. Vanderpool, LSA, 1358 Berkshire road; Susan G. Groehn, LSA, 716 Lochmoor boulevard; and Thomas H. Herschelman, Natural Resources, 677 Shoreham. All are graduates of Grosse Pointe High School.

Betty Kenyon, LSA, 80 Moran road, a graduate of San Marino High School, was also selected to receive a William J. Branstrom prize.

About that boulder in your eye

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

"Got something in my eye," the customer said. "Feels like a boulder. How about taking it out?" He was hurting and wanted help then and there. The pharmacist remembered hearing about another man whose "something" turned out to be a steel splinter embedded in his eyeball. He advised him to see his physician. Prompt surgery saved his sight. So, we're careful. And if we seem overly cautious sometimes, remember—we're pharmacists, not physicians. We work with doctors, dispensing the drugs and medications they prescribe. But we don't practice medicine.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

GETTING AROUND the Hill is as easy as ever... and so close to home... but we must admit that it's getting even more inspired... all the stores are really imaginative this season... about what they bought. Hooray, we say! Here is just an inkling of what you will find...

Fashion Tycoons

(they are the gals who own plenty of jewelry) will love the new Trafari collection in Pongracz Jewellery. Gold and white... plain gold... white with gold OR pearls... some with colored stones... double or single strands... most with matching earrings.

And, If You Love to Save money, and who doesn't? you will be delighted to find that Virginia Williams has made a special purchase of seven and one-half inch tapers. A box of six costs just seventy-five cents. Dripless... these candle imports come in an array of colors. Incidentally, this size is hard to find.

Gastronomic Finds

are those huge tureens... one is shaped like a fish, with a lemon on top... one is decorated with colorful lobster and other sea food... or if you prefer... an attractive artichoke... discover them at The League Shop.

He Won't Be the First Man

you meet that will love the green pine leather chair for his study or den. It's trimmed in antique fluted wood and as handsome as he is. And, while we are on the subject of him... let's mention the b-i-g terry cloth bath towel decorated with a colorful duck... both are outstanding gifts for him at The Sign of the Mermaid.

You'll Be Surprised

how practical the large plexiglass casseroles are for your next buffet. One piece includes three casseroles and another size includes two casserole dishes... it is possible to keep the food hot or cold and would make serving around the pool... on the terrace... or in the dining room. They are showing at The League Shop.

Seth Thomas

has designed lucite clocks... game birds decorate some... and some are elegant in their simplicity... they are a feature at The Sign of the Mermaid.

Kites and balloons are the 1962 Spring themes of Bill Atkinson's designs for girls 3 to 6x and 7 to 14. They include dresses... slacks... blouses... all wonderful... all co-ordinated. For example, the blouse may have buttons the colors in the slack design. Cardigan jackets with the suits are simple. There will be a symphony of yellow in the windows of Young Clothes, Inc., this week, playing up the clothes of Glen of Michigan.

The travel tube holding the Estee Lauder hand and arm creme makes it easier to carry on a vacation. Trail Apothecary Shop features these.

Did you see the Tutu dress with matching pants for little gals in Young Clothes windows this week? It was designed by Bill Atkinson. White raincoats... so easy to wipe off are part of this collection, too.

When you call the Trail Apothecary Shop you can save time by taking advantage of their many daily deliveries. Delivery is always prompt and their night telephone answering service, recently made longer, is handy if you want an early morning delivery.

We note that Mr. Kleinhardt is keeping the Hill as spotless as usual.

Service

and the warm friendliness of the people who work here are just two of the reasons why our friends and neighbors like to shop on the hill.

Any man who thinks for one second he understands women has it timed just about right.

Protect your property! HALSEY... for Council.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Betty Collins

Post deb Anne Skae arrived home yesterday for her spring vacation from Smith College full of news about a new journal of opinion which she and another Smith senior, Jennifer Lauterbach, of Montauk Point, L.I., have recently gotten underway. Financed by a loan from the student bank, the girls published their first issue this week and sold copies for ten cents each. They hope to publish every week.

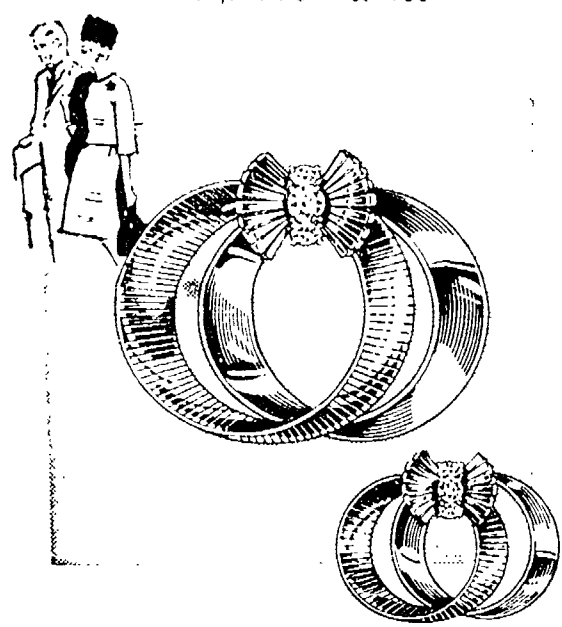

For the first issue, Anne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Skae, wrote an article on the right wing groups mushrooming in the country. Jennifer wrote an editorial. In future issues, the girls plan to carry articles of opinion from faculty and students of Smith and elsewhere, especially from three neighboring institutions: Mount Holyoke, Amherst, and the University of Massachusetts.

For Anne, this is a first venture into the literary world. She is a history major whose interests run primarily to government and politics. After graduation this June, she hopes to get a job abroad or in South America.

Plan Unique Party At Center Sunday

Everyone Invited to Attend and Write Personal Messages on Brochures to Help Make Annual Drive Successful

Staunch friends of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial are gathering at the Center this Sunday afternoon, March 24, from 2 to 5 o'clock to help launch the Memorial's annual appeal for support from the community.

The party will offer everyone a chance to see for themselves the progress on the new Fries addition which with its auditorium and banquet ballroom, will be an important addition to the magnificent center and its beautiful grounds.

After coffee and an inspection of the new building, everyone will engage in a "scribbling session", that is adding personal notes on the Center's solicitation brochure urging prompt gifts to the 1962 fund drive.

It should be easy this year to be, (in the words of Alger Shelden), "irresistibly persuasive" in asking for donations. The generosity of the Russell Alger family and the additional wonderful gift of William Hayes Fries have given to the Grosse Pointe communities the most handsome, unique and complete cultural and community center in the country. The Center earns two thirds of its operating expenses and only asks the 15,000 families of the Pointes to provide the remaining amount through active membership in its Patrons Society where every member of the family is provided for in the Memorial activities.

All friends of the Center are urged to come to the Personalization Party at the Memorial this Sunday and join the many helpers the Center is already expecting, which list includes such leaders as—Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Baker, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. L. Rothe Farr, Mrs. Ferris H. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford Frost, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Guenther, Mrs. William R. Hamilton, II, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hickey, Mrs. Harley Higbie, Mr. and Mrs. Joan L. Kenower, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koebel, Mr. and Mrs. John McNaughton, Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, Mr. and Mrs. Hilary H. Mieu, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moreland, Mrs. Augustin G. Nutter, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parells, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Blount Slade, Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Stalker, Robert H. Tannahill, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, Herman L. Weekler, Mr. and Mrs. Renville Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Woodall and Mrs. Eva D. Worcester.

The Military Department of Howe Military School has announced the promotion of BRUCE M. SPENCER to corporal. He is in the seventh grade at Howe and is the son of MR. and MRS. EDWARD SPENCER of St. Paul avenue.

RICHARD H. CHILDRESS, of Williams road, MRS. MERLIN CUDLIP, of Lakeshore road, MRS. WILLIAM DENLER, of Cloverly road, and MRS. PAUL SUTHERLAND, of Colonial court.

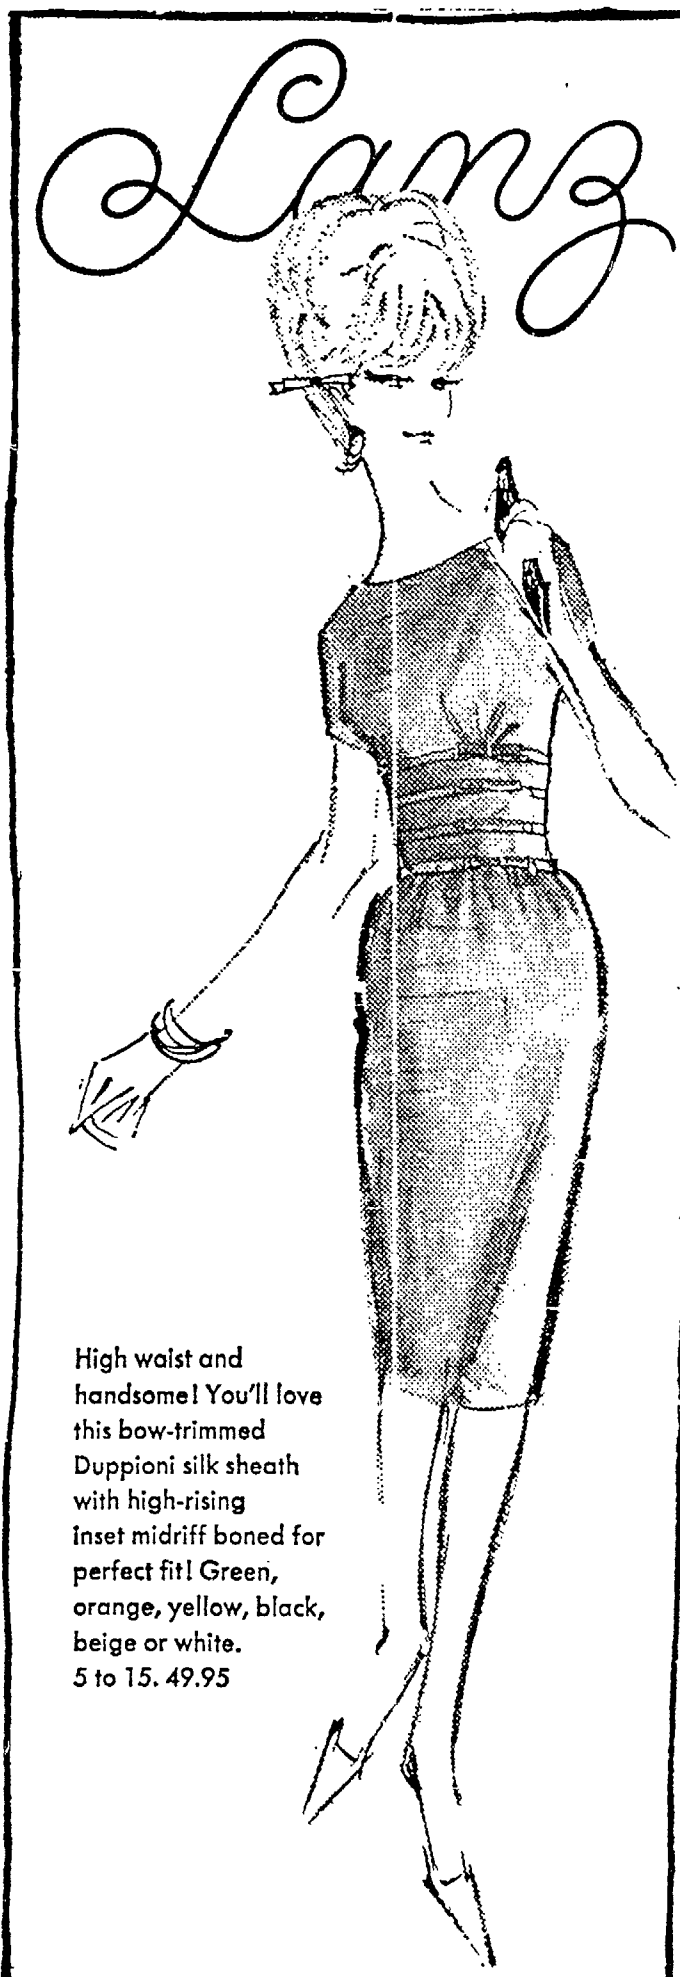

MR. and MRS. JOHN EDMONDS SANFORD, of Tiburon, Calif., announce the birth of a second son, WALTER EDMONDS, on February 14. Mrs. Sanford is the former HELEN DRAKE of Winnetka, Ill. MR. and MRS. STERLING S. SANFORD, of Hillcrest road, are paternal grandparents.

S. A. MACY, chief pharmacist at Cottage Hospital, will serve on the welcoming committee for the Hospital Pharmacy Seminar to be held at the McGregor Memorial Conference Center, Wayne State University, on Saturday, March 24. Macy, who lives at 1899 Lancaster drive, is also president of the Michigan Society of Hospital Pharmacists.

New members of the activities committee of the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, include six Grosse Pointers. They are MRS. MALCOLM M. BARNUM, of Renaud road, MRS. WILLIAM C. BEARDSLEE, of Colonial road, MRS.

Others on the production staff are Mrs. George Payne, secretary; Mrs. Robert F. Whitworth, finance; Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer, stage manager and

Center Stages Night in India

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Evening in India" on Wednesday night, March 28, will salute as special guest of honor, Mrs. Welthy Honsinger Fisher.

Many Grosse Pointers knew Mrs. Fisher as the very active wife of the prominent Methodist clergyman in Ann Arbor. After being widowed Mrs. Fisher went to India where she has become justly famous for establishing "Literacy Village" bringing to Indians of all castes and classes what is in many cases their first taste of the world of knowledge to be contained in books.

Mrs. Fisher will relate many of her fascinating experiences in India and illustrate her remarks with a film.

The "Evening in India" will begin with a very authentic Indian banquet starting with mint soup continuing with lamb and chicken curries various chutneys and ending with a rose-petal glass. Entertainers in their colorful saris will bring the music of India to the guests following the meal and then everyone will assemble in the library where the many beauties and interest spots of India will be shown in color travelogues.

An additional feature of the evening will be an exhibit of Indian art on the Center's second floor.

OSU Women's Club Having Card Party

The Ohio State University Women's Club of Detroit will hold a dessert card party and hat sale Thursday, March 29, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Adams, 305 University place.

Two scholarship houses for women are supported by the Alumnae and money raised at the March 29 party will be used for this project.

For tickets call Mrs. Jack Stephenson, 475 Fisher road, TU 5-0398.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Langel, of Ridgmont road, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY ELIZABETH, to J. Maurice Des Rosiers, son of Mrs. Louis Des Rosiers and the late Mr. Des Rosiers, of Belvidere avenue.

The prospective bride attended the University of Detroit. Her fiancé will graduate from St. Thomas University, Houston, Tex., in May. They are planning a June 2 wedding.

Eileen Farrell Sings Tonight

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will feature the great soprano Eileen Farrell at its concert today, March 22, and Saturday, March 24, at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium. Paul Paray will conduct.

Miss Farrell will be heard in Beethoven's "Scena and Aria" "Ah, Perfidio!", Gluck's "Divinites du Styx" from "Alceste" and Weber's "Ozoe, du Ungeheuer!" from "Oberon." The program will include Haydn's Symphony No. 94 in G major, Copland's "Appalachian Spring" and Albeniz' "Triana" from the Suite "Iberia."

The Society of Contributors to the Symphony will hold its annual election meeting and subscription dinner in the Book Casino, Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel before Thursday's concert.

Mu Phi Epsilon, the Girls' Club of Michigan Bell Telephone, and the Men's Club of General Motors have joined to sponsor a special concert by the orchestra Sunday, March 25, at 3:30 p.m. Valtor Poole will conduct with pianist Bela Szilagi featured in the Rachmaninoff Concerto No. 1 in F sharp minor.

The program will include Weber's Overture to "Der Frieschütz," Detroit Robert Lawson's "Essay for Orchestra," Wolf-Ferrari's intermezzo from "The Jewels of the Madonna" and Ravel's "Pavane for a Dead Princess" and "La Valse."

Eduard Werner will take over the Symphony on Monday, March 26, at 8:30 p.m., to conduct a Liszt Memorial concert sponsored by The Hungarian Arts Club of Detroit. Szilagi will again be soloist, this time playing the Liszt Piano Concerto No. 2 and "Totentanz."

The program will include "Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2, 'Mephisto Waltz' and 'Les Preludes'."

Theatrical Make-up Trick Sheds New Light On Beauty

by Germaine Monteil

A white make-up base is the trick that has let many an aging actress play schoolgirl parts successfully. Now Germaine Monteil has devised one so subtle, so soft, that it can be worn by every woman in any kind of lighting. "White Secret" erases telltale shadows and wrinkles just as successfully as stage make-up, but with this difference: it does it so subtly that no one will know you're wearing it!

Use it under a tinted make-up to take ten years off your looks. Use it again on top of your make-up as a retoucher to bring out cheek bones, straighten a wayward nose, highlight a retiring chin, or widen a too-narrow face at the temples.

At five dollars "White Secret" is one of the best investments you can make for your beauty. Get it, and the other fine Monteil preparations, at

Youth Council Holding Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Youth Council is planning an April Fool dance for all Pointe teen-agers on the evening of March 31. It will be boy's invitational but "Dutch Treat."

Don Zee of Radio Station WXYZ will be disk jockey and emcee for the evening. He will play the latest twist and whirl tunes as well as the smooth old favorites. Also he will present in person some of the young recording artists plugging their latest records.

A whole raft of April Fool prizes will be given away in twist contests to those who pull the best April Fools, etc. Don Zee in addition will give away a number of new records.

Bob Sherwood is chairman of this affair with Mickey McKee in charge of music and entertainment. Pat Greiling is dreaming up the decorations and Bill Taylor inviting the chaperones. Kit Defer heads the door committee. Publicity is in the hands of Dave Borchard and Nancy Ede at the High School, Jim Schulte at Austin, Beth Boudry at St. Paul, Paul Sheridan at G.P.U.S., Beth Warbold at Pierce, Mary Zens at Brownell and Bob Bensmeyer at Parcells. Ross Neim is getting the April Fool gifts.

Teens in grades 9-12 of the public, private and parochial schools are invited. Admission is $1 per person including refreshments (couples only).

Carousel Ball Set for May 19

Because they recognized emotionally disturbed children as a major problem of the day, a group of energetic, civic-minded Detroit area women, just a year ago, joined forces to see what could be done about it. They were led by President Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf.

Today, members of the Women's Division, Greater Detroit Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, can bask in the full glory of successful completion of their first year's work.

The problem of the emotionally disturbed is still not solved by any means. But the first venture of the Women's Division, the Carousel Ball, netted $41,000 for this project and did much to provide for treatment and education which can restore many troubled and poorly adjusted children back to normal living.

As a result, 15 emotionally disturbed children were immediately closer to recovery; also, many others in state hospitals and residential homes for disturbed youth. Juvenile Courts in both Wayne and Oakland Counties, plus several treatment centers, were provided with educational, therapeutic and recreational materials they would never have had otherwise.

At the group's recent annual meeting, Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf accepted the presidency for a second term and immediately announced May 19 as the date for the 1962 Carousel Ball at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Other newly elected officers include Mrs. Roy Vanderkloot, executive vice president; and Mrs. Jules Schubot, Mrs. William Scripps, Mrs. Oscar L. Olson, and Mrs. Ray M. Whyte, vice-presidents.

Scouts Study Foreign Lands

Out of the many program fields of interest to Girl Scouts, Troop 634 from Our Lady Star of the Sea School, has found that of International Friendship to be one of the most interesting.

For the past several weeks, the girls have been divided into four groups and are working under the guidance of Mrs. Arthur Kroth, Mrs. Alfred Bourget, Mrs. Hugo Schiavi and Mrs. Ted Mushenski. They have selected four countries to study and are busy going to travel agencies planning imaginary trips to these countries; assembling pictures for posters; going to libraries to learn about customs and the people from these lands; gathering articles made in these countries; learning some simple greetings in the language of their country and cooking foods typical of these countries.

All of the above preparations are being done to ready themselves for the International Progressive Dinner the girls have planned for Sunday afternoon, March 25. On that day, each group of girls will pretend they are natives of their chosen country and greet the rest of the troop as if they were guests to their land and then take them on a "conducted tour" of their land.

Mexico will be the first country visited where Gail Kroth, Peggy Janssen, Ann La Roque, Susan Shell and Kathleen Zavala will be hostesses. A Mexican appetizer will be served.

Jeanne Bourget, Jo Ann DeDonker, Ann Mary Hayes, Lee A. Lawrence and Kay Thompson will be hostesses at the Bourget home where the girls will be "visiting" France and a French salad will be served.

The next stop will be Italy with hostesses Kristine Schiavi, Nancy Bogan, Lynda Lenahan, Jane McLuckie, Barbara Reardon and Nancy Shehan serving Italian spaghetti.

Final land visited will be Sweden climaxed by Swedish pastry for dessert prepared by Susan Mushenski, Frances Cusumano, Cathy Gofrank, Karen Janson, and Grace Tocco.

On April 10, the girls from this troop whose leaders are Mrs. Alex McLuckie, Jr. and Mrs. Chester Bogan, will have an opportunity to learn first hand about peoples from other lands when Miss Eda Lubis, an exchange student from Indonesia comes to visit the troop and answer their questions. To share in this exciting experience Troop 634 has invited Troop 1565 from Barnes School to be its guest. Leaders of the Barnes Troop are Mrs. Robert Crossen, Mrs. Harold McCaughrin and Mrs. Erik Erikson.

party at their winter cottage in Bermuda. On hand for the occasion will be the Weisgerbers' two sons-in-law and daughters, the Thomas Garreds, of Kensington road, and Mr. and Mrs. Greene Fenley III, of Greenwich, Conn.

Some Leave for Vacation

Two sunny days are not enough to convince many local residents that spring is on the way. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hastings, of McMillan road, and her brother and sister-in-law, the John Worcesters, of Lincoln road, will leave shortly for the Virgin Islands.

Mrs. Erwin Haes, of Stephens road, is taking the two children to the family's winter home in Hillsboro Beach, Fla., for five weeks; and the J. Burgess Books have decided to vacation in Mexico.

Mrs. Raymond Leonard and daughter Barbara, who will be married on April 23, will leave tomorrow for a pre-wedding shopping spree in New York.

Others Come Home

Mrs. Harold Boyer of E. Jefferson avenue is due home Friday from Palm Beach, where she has been since the end of January.

Home after traveling in warmer climes are Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bremer, of Sheldon road. After a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Drummond, in Fredericksburg, Va., the Bremers motored through Florida, up to New Orleans, and then home.

The Charles W. Gaussens have returned from a three-weeks vacation in Mexico; and Mr. and Mrs. Eldom Sechler, of St. Clair avenue, are home after spending three weeks in Phoenix and their native California.

Brown Glee Club to Sing

Local graduates of Brown University are anticipating the arrival of the Glee Club on April 1. In the afternoon, the group will give a radio concert over WJR, followed by an evening concert at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Planning to entertain the Glee Club members are the John S. Foleys, of Merriweather road, Mr. and Mrs. Octave P. Beauvais, of Ford court, and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Browne, of Lewiston road.

Church Groups Plan Meetings

The Women of St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan at Kercheval, will be holding their monthly group meetings on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, March 26, 27 and 28.

The topic for discussion will be a continuation of the study of the "Sermon on the Mount" as applied to everyday living. Study material obtained from the "Lutheran Witness" will guide the groups as they talk about witnessing to fellow church members in encouraging church attendance. A business meeting will follow.

On Monday morning at 9:30 the Rebecca group will meet at the home of Mrs. Adolph Kross, 2009 Beaufort, who is chairman of the group. The program will be presented by Mrs. Howard Morse, Jr.

The following groups will meet Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock:

Esther: Mrs. Roland Blank, 804 University, will be hostess. Mrs. Erwin Stotzer is group chairman and program chairman is Mrs. John Farber.

Ruth: The chairman, Mrs. Leonard Sachs, Sr., 332 St. Clair, will be hostess. Program chairman is Mrs. Eldon Langbauer.

Miriam: The hostess is Mrs. Harold Meike, 40 Fair Acres, Harold Meike, Mrs. Walter Schmitt will be hostess. Program chairman is Mrs. Schmitt.

Martha: Mrs. Louis Carbone, 487 Lakeland, is hostess. Group chairman is Mrs. Franklin Quale. Mrs. Warren Wessell is the new secretary and the hospitality chairman is Mrs. Gilbert Ropes.

At 8 p.m., the evening groups will convene.

Dorcas: The chairman, Mrs. Walter Hallenbeck, 85 Handy road, will be hostess. Program chairman is Mrs. Wilbur Busse.

Elizabeth: The hostess will be Mrs. Orin Hove, 22836 St. Joan, St. Clair Shores, who is service chairman. Mrs. Rollin Duensing is group chairman and the program chairman is Mrs. Thomas Couser. The new secretary will be Mrs. Robert Nette while Mrs. Rudolph Anderson is the hospitality chairman.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the Sarah group will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Schweitzer, 362 Fisher. Mrs. Lenuel Stephenson will continue as program chairman and the new editor of the "Sarah Circular" is Mrs. David Gaden.

Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Mary group will meet at the home of Mrs. Randall Kamischke, 1100 Whittier. The new group chairman is Mrs. Richard Shannon and Mrs. H. J. Cawthra is program chairman.

Bowdoin Glee Club to Sing

For those who enjoy an evening of fine music, the Bowdoin College Glee Club, of Brunswick, Maine, will present a program of sacred music at 8 p.m. Sunday, March 25, in Christ Church followed by informal singing in the Undercroft during the Coffee Hour given in their honor. This is the first time the group has performed in the Detroit area.

The Rev. Erville Maynard, Rector of Christ Church and a graduate of Bowdoin College, persuaded the Glee Club to stop by Grosse Pointe on the way to an engagement in Chicago. The Glee Club has successfully toured the country for the past several years.

The 72 boys comprising the Glee Club will be assigned to Grosse Pointe homes during their visit. Mrs. Richard Bachmann is hostess in charge of making the housing arrangements.

The couple will be married in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

When were baby's feet CHECKED last?

Your baby's feet will GROW 2 to 4 SIZES this year!

But, they won't grow in a steady pattern... they'll grow in "spurts"! In one period you'll hardly see any change, then—like magic, they'll grow a size or more before you realize it. This can be dangerous to soft, tiny feet... cramped in outgrown shoes. Better check feet regularly and be safe.

Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn Honored by AAUW

Pointe Branch Names 1962 Fellowship Award After Her in Recognition of Her Outstanding Contributions to Program

For outstanding contributions to the American Association of University Women, the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW has honored Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn by naming its 1962 Fellowship Award the "Margaret Ward Hahn International Fellowship."

Mrs. Edward G. Gehrig, who was similarly honored in 1960, presented the scroll at the Annual AAUW Luncheon Meeting held at Stouffer's Restaurant last Thursday.

Grosse Pointe Branch of the AAUW has bestowed this honor on only four members since the branch was founded in 1944. AAUW helps promote education for women on a world-wide basis. The fellowships are awarded at the graduate level.

This year's Margaret Ward Hahn International Fellowship will go to a deserving foreign scholar who wishes to do special advanced study in her field. Last year the branches of AAUW awarded fellowships to 44 women from 28 foreign countries for study in this country. Also, over 50 American women received fellowships to study in the college of their choice here or abroad.

AAUW Fellowships are unique in that there are no restrictions as to subject or school. Each application is judged on its own merits. The AAUW welcomes applications. Interested applicants may contact the Grosse Pointe Branch by calling Mrs. Donald Jennings, chairman, Fellowship Committee, TU 2-5633.

Dr. Campbell Going to Africa

Following her internship at Bon Secours Hospital, Dr. Frances Stine Campbell will set sail this summer for Kenya, Africa, where she is to be medical officer in a small hospital. She will administer to the medical needs of the African natives. Her husband, Carleton Campbell, will teach and do missionary work among the natives under the auspices of World Gospel Mission.

This enterprising couple met while attending Houghton College in New York. They both graduated with AB degrees in 1957, following which Mr. Campbell began his teaching career and Frances entered Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania. In 1961 she graduated cum laude and came to Bon Secours Hospital to serve her internship.

During her freshman year in medical school, Dr. Campbell worked as a research assistant in genetics. During her second year she worked in the Public Health Department and later received a Fellowship in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. This training forms an excellent background for her work in Africa.

Dr. Campbell was born in Saginaw, Michigan, in 1935. She is the daughter of a Protestant minister, the Reverend Earle J. Stine of Newaygo, Mich. Her older brother, Dr. Earle Stine, served his surgical residency at Bon Secours Hospital and is now practicing in Pigeon, Mich. A younger brother, Peter, is an associate professor at Northwestern University. Her husband, Carleton, is the son of Carleton Campbell, M. D., of Philadelphia.

The sisters of Bon Secours Hospital will sponsor a bon voyage dinner for Dr. Campbell at which time the medical staff will present a gift to help defray traveling expenses.

Several residents of Grosse Pointe took leading roles at the regional conference of Cornell University alumni which was held Saturday, March 17, at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Detroit. Representatives of approximately 1,700 Cornell alumni living in Lower Michigan and in three Ohio counties in the Toledo area attended the conference.

Honorary chairman of the conference was WALKER L. CISLER of Devonshire road, a trustee of Cornell and chairman of the trustees' executive committee. Assistant chairman of the conference was GEORGE R. McMULLEN of St. Paul avenue.

The conference committee also included JOHN M. CUDLIP of Moross road, chairman of the men's secondary school committee; MRS. EDWARD C. HANPETER of McMillan road, chairman of the women's secondary school committee, and EDWARD D. DEVINE, JR., of Notre Dame avenue. Mr. Cudlip and Mrs. Hanpeter presided at a meeting for Detroit guidance counselors on Friday afternoon, prior to the conference itself.

FREDRICK RECTOR, son of MR. and MRS. FREDRICK RECTOR, of Allard road, and ROBERT SCOVILLE, son of MR. and MRS. ROBERT SCOVILLE, of Bournemouth circle, each were initiated into one of the seven social and service societies on the campus at Kalamazoo College. Fredrick is a member of the Phi Lambda society and Robert is a member of the Century Forum society.

States-Russian cooperative space program has been proposed by President Kennedy. In a letter to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, the U.S. President outlined his plans for a joint Russo-American assault on space, and proposed that representatives from both nations, scheduled to attend a United Nations Outer Space Committee meeting in New York Monday, meet privately to discuss the new proposals.

Kennedy's program would include the establishment of a joint early weather satellite system, joint radio tracking stations, and a concerted effort to map the earth's magnetic field. The President also proposed that the Soviet Union join an in-progress effort on the part of the United States and several other countries to develop a continent-connecting satellite communications system, and suggested that Russia and the U.S. pool their knowledge in the field of space medicine because of "our common interest in manned space flights and in insuring man's ability to survive in space and return safely."

Although the Kennedy letter was dated March 7, its contents were made public only yesterday, when it was also announced that Khrushchev has, as yet, made no response to the proposed space pool.

Monday, March 19

FRANCE and the Algerian rebels signed a peace pact Sunday, ending the seven-and-a-half year old Algerian war, at least on paper. The historic agreement, reached at Evian on the French-Swiss border after 12 difficult days of negotiations, is scheduled to go into effect at noon today, but France fears that the OAS (Secret Army Organization) may be goaded into even more outrageous acts of violence, and that the signed cease-fire may become merely a new chapter heading in the book of Algerian terrorism.

OAS forces have already established an underground "government," pledged to smash the Moslem liberation group whose successful battle for self-determination will culminate, under the terms of the new treaty, in the creation of an independent Republic of Algeria some time this year. Grenades and plastic bombs exploded throughout the North African territory upon receipt of the news that a pact had been signed. Underground leader Paul Gaudy, in a pirate broadcast, voiced the mood of the extremist OAS when he announced: "Now the real fighting has begun. Frenchmen, you may fire on the forces of order (French soldiers and police)."

Tuesday, March 20

ARGENTINE GENERALS have been ordered to replace President Arturo Frondizi's civilian governors in the five key provinces won by Peronists in Sunday's elections. Acting under orders from Argentina's top military men, Frondizi placed the affected provinces under military command, appointing civilian officials to serve under the generals as Federal representatives.

As Peron's followers threatened a national strike Frondizi, caught between his armed forces chiefs and the communist-inspired followers of the exiled dictator, justified his move under a Constitutional provision to guarantee the republican form of government." The Peronists are inimically opposed to President Kennedy's 20-billion-dollar Alliance for Progress program, and were supported by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's followers in the election campaign.

They, (the Peronistas), carried the province of Tucuman, Rio Negro, Santiago del Estero, and Chaco, as well as the province of Buenos Aires. A survey of the election results seems to indicate that ex-dictator Juan D. Peron's oft-repeated contention that many Argentines want him and his policies back pretty much reflects the present mood of the Argentine people.

Scouts to Hold Pancake Supper

The Grosse Pointe Senior Girl Scouts, Mounted Patrols, will sponsor a Pancake Supper at Parcels Junior High School from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on March 29. Both gyms will be used.

These girls have been working hard, under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Wade, to finance their projects which include the support of a Korean War Orphan, sending girls to the National Roundup, taking pack trips and summer camping.

Ticket chairman is Mrs. John Stephenson, 19937 E. Williams Court, TU 4-5069.

BACKS INTO PARKED CAR

Walter Costello, 402 Neff, backed his '57 Pontiac out of a driveway opposite 364 Rivard on Monday evening, March 5, and struck a parked '61 Ford station wagon owned by Michael C. Webb, 364 Rivard, doing very minor damage. No tickets were issued.

Seven Courses In Art Offered

Seven spring art courses will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial beginning the last of March.

World famous abstractionist and color-lithographer Emil Weddige of the University of Michigan will teach three classes in oil on Fridays beginning March 23. His advanced class will be in the mornings from 9:30 to 11:30, and intermediate class is scheduled from 12:30 to 2:30, and a beginners class from 3 to 5.

Noted portrait painter, Steve Davis will hold two class sessions in drawing and painting for portraiture and life. One will be an evening class on Mondays from 7:30 to 10:30 starting March 26. Another will be an afternoon class on Tuesdays beginning March 27. Both beginners and more advanced students are welcomed in these classes.

A class in Tempera (opaque water color) will be taught by Marcella Churchill on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock beginning March 27.

Anyone interested in any of these art activities should call the Center, TU 1-7511, for further information and plan to enroll in advance as classes are limited.

GRIEFSTRICKEN, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowser leave funeral service for their son, victim of a tragic error. A seventh baby died in the hospital at the time of the tragedy, but it had not been given the formula.

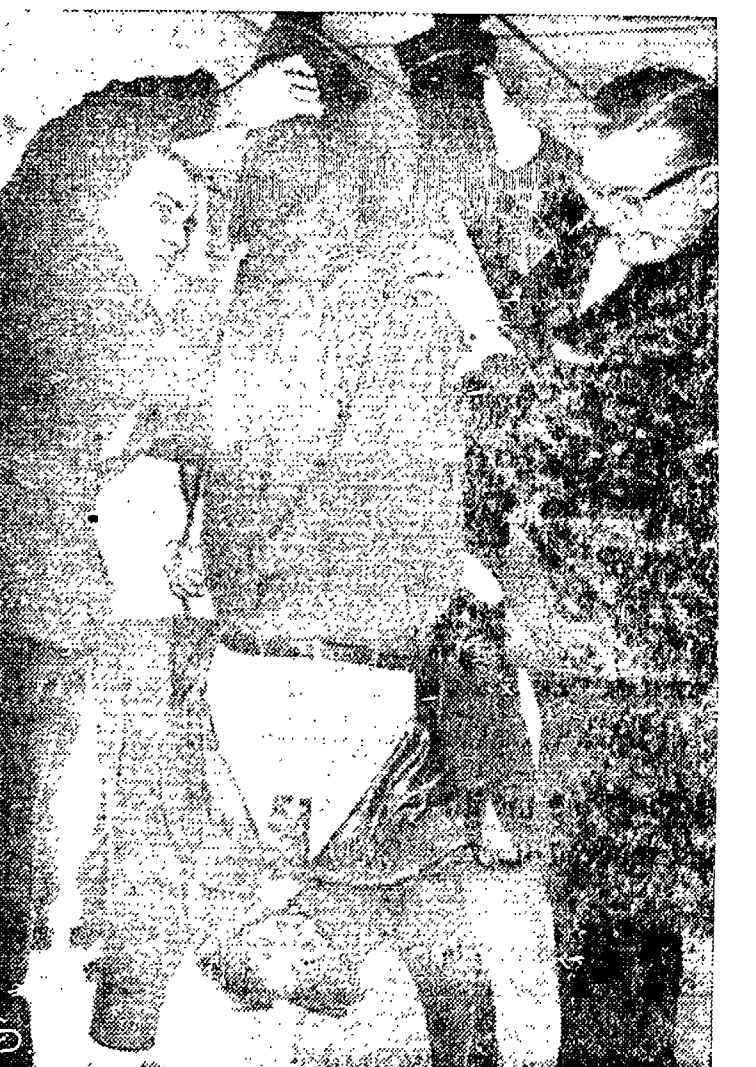

'GOOD WILL FOR U.S., BUT ...'—Following a conference (above) at the White House, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told newsmen he found, on his world tour, a "great reservoir of good will for the United States," but it was being overshadowed by Communist propaganda. At the conference were (from left) Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Vice President Lyndon Johnson, Kennedy and President Kennedy.

THEIR ROADS LED TO ROME—U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers embraces his wife Barbara in car in Rome, Ga., where he drove from his home in Big Stone Gap, Va. She drove from Milledgeville, Ga., where she has been living with her mother. They wouldn't pose for pictures, so the photographer aimed through the window of Powers' Mercedes.

WHAT'S LEFT AFTER TAXES?—Rep. Dalip Saund learns how the average taxpayer might feel about the new two-county Internal Revenue Service office in Riverside, Calif., at this unceremonious dedication ceremony. Vincent Scarpino (left) and Roger Bittman shake him for any loose change he might have left after taxes. Saund represents Riverside.

ISLAM VISIT—President Ahmadou Ahidjo of Cameroun puts on his street shoes after a visit to the Islamic Center, Washington.

SURGERY—Mrs. Rose Kennedy (above), mother of the President, entered St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Boston for pelvic surgery. She is 71.

ONLY 3—Pat Burns doesn't seem to mind the current big snows. At only 3 years old he's a skier at Oak Mountain resort, Speculator, N.Y.

IF LOOKS CAN KILL, this look between Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor ought to kill those reports that their marriage is on the rocks. They're in a Rome beer hall. (Radiophoto)

TO THE CASBAH—French security forces move in to the Casbah, the teeming Arab section of Algiers, on a patrol mission. Foreground, Moslem woman watches. (Radiophoto)

Hip, Two, Three, Four—Medics (top) carry stretcher hung from hip packs. Below, how plasma could be given.

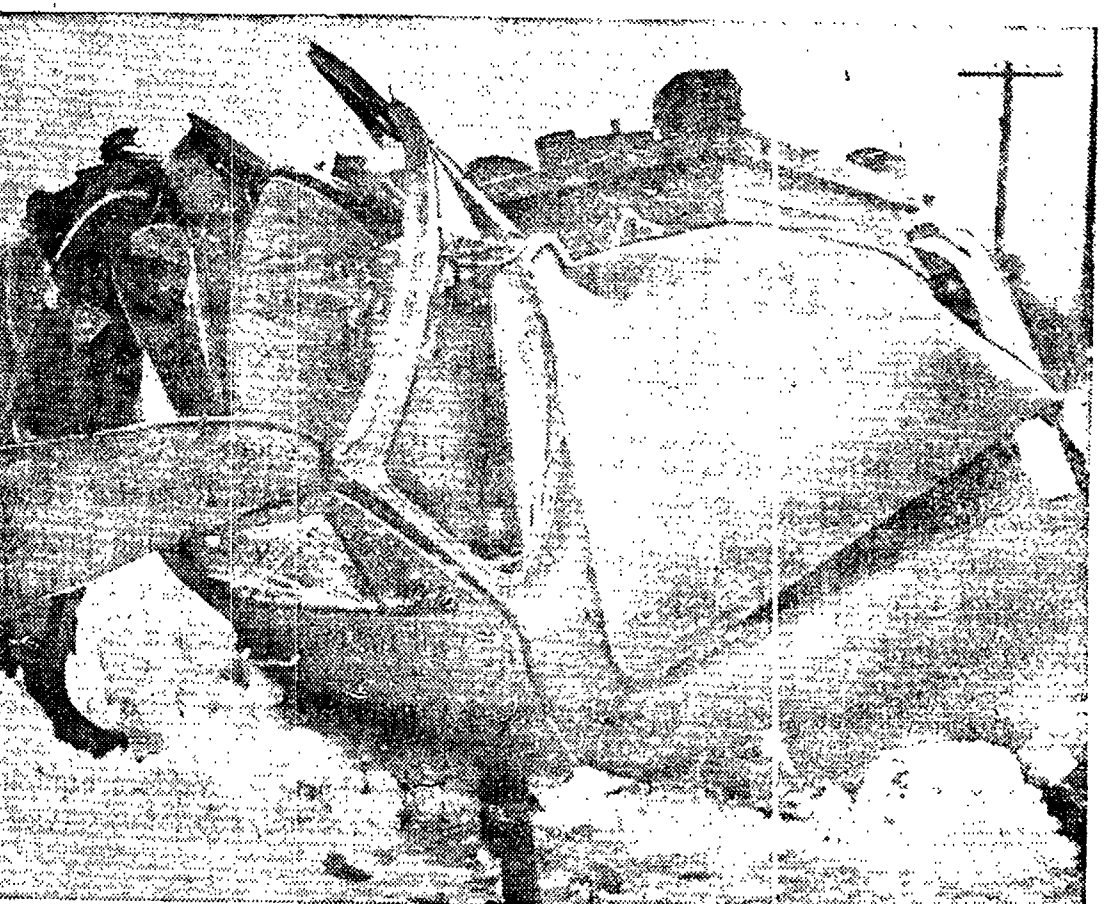

FOR THE FIRST TIME in hundreds of years, a new device has been developed, by engineers at the Bell Aerosystems Co., Buffalo, N.Y., by which man can carry heavier loads more comfortably and safely over longer distances. It is called a Bell hip pack, and it takes the load off the shoulders. National Guardsmen demonstrating the hip pack are (top, from left), Tyrone Aughtmon, Colin Turner and Ronald Pennesi, and (right) Pennesi and Fred Braun (on stretcher). (Central Press)

'MOTHERHOOD' THWARTED—Sharon Henderson, 3, looks happy on reunion with her equally happy parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henderson, in Albuquerque, N.M., after being kidnaped from their home in Conway, Tex. She was found with Carol Lavonne Cain Beck, 19, when the Beck girl's pickup truck was stopped at a roadblock near Grants, N.M. Carol is shown being taken to arraignment in Albuquerque. She said she took Sharon because she was unable to bear children, and "was going to keep her forever."

WAS A TRUCK—You can't tell from the wreckage, but this was a truck before it struck a flanger plow on front of a train on U.S. 23 north of Alpena, Mich. The truck driver was pried from his wreck and taken to a hospital in Alpena in critical condition.

The unexpected ring of a doorbell early Saturday morning is an unlabeled sound to a young father-member of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, for it may necessitate his taking over in the middle of baby's diaper change, or worse, while his wife is spirited off to one of a series of "come as you are" kidnap breakfasts, sponsored by Women's Group 4.

For the most part, the ladies involved are enjoying the results of their unique scheme to get out of the house, though one was a bit distressed when she returned home one Saturday, at noon, still wearing slippers, nightie and curlers, to find the doors locked and hubby nowhere in sight. She hobbled desperately from window to window and door to door, but only succeeded in attracting the amused attention of a neighbor who was shoveling his driveway and enjoying the view immensely.

Even less enthusiastic was the do-it-yourself paper-hanging husband whose day was shattered when he was left perched at the top of a ladder, clutching a half glued roll, while his wife and helpmate was carried from the scene by chortling members of Group 4.

Birds of all feathers are enjoying the thoughtfulness of a local matron who feeds them their daily ration by conveniently placing kernels of popped pop corn on the spikes of her firethorn bush.

Mrs. Morris Kennedy, of McKinley avenue, passes on this tip to ambitious souls who try to upholster their own furniture. She has mastered the technique of working her sewing machine standing up, finds it much easier to stitch the unwieldy material.

The Neighborhood Thrift Shop is just the place to look for indispensable items not carried by local department stores. Recent sales included a long-handled marrow spoon, a huge, stuffed sailfish, and a Spanish galleon. The Thrift Shop supports itself by selling used clothing and household items contributed by patrons; also runs a resale department for the convenience of regular donors.

Patricia Talbot, vacationing society and feature editor of this newspaper, is currently staying in London's famed Browne Hotel, a favorite of the British, and is enraptured by the atmosphere. "No one in this hotel talks to anyone," Pat writes, "Just like a novel."

Frederick L. Colby, Jr. made his second visit to the News office last week to reveal still more names of the young ladies in the 1912 picture of the Liggett School bus. This time Mr. Colby's sister Elizabeth, now Mrs. Harold C. Simonds, of Pasadena, Cal. wrote to provide the identifying clues. She thinks that the first little lass standing on the left of the running board is Doris Walker. Standing on the right of the same row, beside the driver, is the former Julie Buhl, now married to Dr. Stuart Hudson, says Mrs. Simonds. In the first row, standing second from left and wearing a light colored coat is Eloise McLaughlin and next to her is the former Arline Preston, now Mrs. Jerry Bishop, of Phoenix. We are grateful to you, Mr. Colby, and to Mrs. Simonds, too.

MRS. JOHN B. HASTINGS, OF ROSLYN ROAD

By Betty Collins

As chairman of the 1962 Celebrity Series, Mrs. John B. Hastings heads a project which has become a Pointe institution. Without doubt, it is one of the most popular and profitable local fund-raising activities in the community.

Sponsored by the Assistance League of Bon Secours Hospital, the Celebrity Series has been a popular project ever since its inception in 1954. Each year, the Esquire Theatre, which seats 1,000 persons has been filled to capacity for the lectures. For the past two years, the Assistance League has had to return many ticket applications and checks to those who could not be accommodated.

Not only have the ladies of Grosse Pointe been eager to purchase tickets for the series, but they have attended the lectures faithfully. There is rarely an empty seat in view, and ladies who like to attend in groups of three or four have learned to arrive early, so that they may find seats together.

Police Cooperate
Ladies also arrive early in the hopes of finding a place to park somewhere in the vicinity. They usually don't, but they are willing to walk four to six blocks, while the wind whips their bouffant hairdos, without a word of complaint. The Grosse Pointe Police cooperate by not giving tickets to cars parked in legitimate spaces when the time runs out on the meters.

And the proprietor of an adjacent restaurant is not surprised to find his parking lot full while his restaurant is empty, at 11 a.m. By 1 o'clock, though, the place is bedlam, for the ladies often like to "make a day of it."

The Celebrity Series is also successful in its primary purpose, that of raising funds for Bon Secours Hospital. As a money-maker, it has averaged just a little less than $10,000 a year profit, all of which was turned over to the hospital.

Try To Please All
In arranging the 1962 Celebrity Series, Mrs. Hastings has taken every precaution to make certain that the many women who habitually plan the second Thursday of the month around the Series are satisfied and pleased.

Great care was exercised in choosing speakers and one of them, news writer Pauline Frederick, is on the program because many members of this year's audience asked for her. This tradition was begun by Ann Landers, who was on a previous program because the Assistance League was deluged with requests.

Experts Pay Tribute
Mrs. Hastings recalls that nearly all of the speakers have been impressed with Grosse Pointe and the large, enthusiastic, and well-dressed Celebrity Series audiences. This year, Madame Ginette Spanier, directress of the Paris fashion house of Balmain, remarked that she had never before spoken to so elegant an audience.

As chairman of the Celebrity Series, Mrs. Hastings has been hard at work all winter, for arrangements for this project must be made a year in advance. At present, ticket sales are unexpectedly brisk, even for the Celebrity Series. "Three hundred tickets were sold even before the advertising brochures were mailed," Mrs. Hastings said gleefully. The ladies expect to pass the half way mark this week.

Hedda Will Open
In the fall, Mrs. Hastings will begin the final facet of her job that of official greeter and hostess to the well-known personalities who will come to Hedda. First to arrive will be Hedda Hopper, on October 11. She will be followed by Richard Gump, Lehman Engel, Leslie Hanscom, Dr. Leland Miles, and Pauline Frederick.

Rosemary Hastings is one of the Pointe's young, upcoming community doers. She has a number of interests, but carefully plans her schedule around her husband, their nine-year-old daughter, Patty, and a household of pets.

When she is not busy being a housewife or Celebrity Series chairman, she is engrossed in the activities of many other

Favorite Recollections

ANGEL FOOD CHOCOLATE SURPRISE

Submitted by Mrs. Edwin J. Werner

- 1 angel food cake
- 6 Hershey bars, 5 cent size
- 2 dozen marshmallows
- ½ cup milk
- ½ pint whipping cream
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- ½ tsp vanilla

Bake angel food cake, a mix is fine. Cut the cake crosswise in three layers. Set aside. (The cake may be cut easily by marking off about 1 inch from the top of the cake in a circle around the cake with toothpicks. Repeat at one inch interval. Cut easily through the cake and place each layer on a separate plate.)

Heat in a double boiler six Hershey bars; add marshmallows and milk slowly, stirring continually. Allow mixture to cool. Fold whipping cream until stiff. Beat one cup whipping cream (½ of the whipping cream) into chocolate-marshmallow mixture. Spread the filling between layers and put cake back together.

To frost the top and sides of the cake, combine the remaining 1 cup of whipping cream with sugar and vanilla. Chill at least eight hours.

Church Women Plan Book Buzz

Plans have been completed for the "Book Buzz" by the Program Department of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The luncheon - association meeting will be held at the church on March 27 at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Brehm, secretary of literature is in charge of the program entitled "The Door of the Mind." The books which will be reviewed are: "Agents of Reconciliation" by Arnold B. Come; "Religion and Faith in Latin America" by W. Stanley; "Life Together" by Dietrich Bonhoeffer; and "New Life in the Church" by Robert A. Raines.

The following women of the church will discuss these books: Mrs. Malcolm Joliff, who will also serve as moderator; Mrs. Andrew Rauth, wife of the church's pastor; Mrs. Curtis Miller, and Mrs. Dwight Struthers.

Mrs. William Raupach will give the devotion of the day entitled "Dialogue of a New Recruit." She will be assisted by Mrs. Lathrop Morse, who will do scriptural reading. As part of the devotion, Mrs. C. Zach will sing, "God So Loved the World." Mrs. Morse will accompany her on the piano.

Reservations for the salad luncheon may be made by calling TU 4-8810. The nursery will be staffed.

organizations. These include the Board of Ibex, Theater Arts, Junior Symphony, a Book Review Group, and an Investment Club.

To Give Party For Foundation

"Help Us to Help Them" is the theme of the 4th Annual Dessert-Card Party Benefit for the Grosse Pointe School for Exceptional Children. The benefit, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe American Federation of Teachers, will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, April 27, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to provide additional equipment for the school. Since the program was started in 1955 the Foundation for Exceptional Children has taken care of 142 children. Physically handicapped and mentally retarded children are aided by the Foundation.

In the three years that the local A.F. of T. group has sponsored the benefit party $945.00 has been raised to aid the school. Tickets are available from any member of the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers. Mr. Lawrence Westerville is ticket chairman. His phone number is TU 1-0463.

Others to be called for tickets include: Miss Anne Wallace, co-chairman of the Benefit, VA 4-5022; Harvey Dahl, co-chairman of the Benefit, TU 2-9376; Ralph Deal, president of the local A.F. of T., VA 3-0543.
