THE BIGGEST TAX CUT in this nation's history will go into effect by March, with most of the taxpayers realizing an immediate increase in take home pay. The total cut is about $11.5 billion and it will affect industry as well as individuals. The bill is practically all that President Johnson wanted in tax reduction, and differences between the House and Senate were ironed out in only three days by the committee that handled the final details of the bill.

THE HAZEL PARK Racing Association was cleared of any affiliation with the Mafia, by the Michigan Racing Commission. After a four-month investigation, the agents investigating the track failed to substantiate the claim of former Police Commissioner George Edwards that the track was "a classic example of Mafia infiltration of legitimate enterprise."

THE CITY CORPORATION COUNSEL ruled that the DSR does not have to pay City or school taxes on its property in Detroit. However, it must pay State and County taxes on DSR property outside the city. The statement was made by Counsel Robert Reese Wednesday. It will be given to the Common Council today when it meets to consider the City's transportation problems.

TEAMSTER PRESIDENT James R. Hoffa, on trial in Chattanooga, Tenn., on a jury tampering charge, accused Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy of absconding with a $600,000 Justice Department "stool pigeon fund." Hoffa charged further that James F. Neal, chief prosecutor in the trial and a special attorney in the Justice Department, got half of the fund. He said he would bring charges against certain government aides for theft and perjury.

IN THE TRIAL of Jack Ruby in Dallas, the first jury was chosen Thursday 2 1/2 days after the jury selection had begun. The juror is Max Causey, 35, an employee of an electronics corporation. He is a Baptist and holds a master's degree in education. Prior to his selection 23 jurors had been turned down and five disqualified.

ATHENAGORAS, spiritual leader of the Eastern Orthodox Church, plans to visit the United States next fall and stop over in Detroit. Detroit is the seat of the Seventh Diocese, which would represent a most likely stop for the Patriarch. His tour will begin in New Orleans. He was in Detroit in 1944 in his capacity as Archbishop for North and South America.

Saturday, February 22

PRESIDENT JOHNSON speaking before a crowd of about 35,000 at an academic convocation of the University of California at Los Angeles, said that the Communist world is in worse shape than we are. Also addressing the convocation was President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico. After their speeches, Mr. Johnson and Lopez Mateos conferred privately and paid a social call on former president Dwight D. Eisenhower.

SENATOR CHARLES BLONDY (D., Detroit) introduced a bill Friday in the State Legislature which would allow Detroit children to ride the DSR free to school, with the State paying the fare. The bill would boost DSR revenue by $1,262,400 a year—the difference between the regular 25-cent bus fares which the state would pay and the 15-cent reduced rate students now pay.

ARIZONA SENATOR Barry Goldwater announced that he will be in Detroit March 25 to make one of three major policy speeches in his presidential campaign. He will speak at the annual "Wives Night" dinner

Projects Accompany Study of American History

FOWLER. In connection with their study the pupils made replicas of Mount Vernon, the Washington Monument, the Liberty Bell, as well as pictures and sculptures of early American heroes.

Dog Blanket Blamed for Broken Knee

Takes Eyes Off Road to Make Pooch Comfortable; Crashes Iron Fence and Pillars

Mrs. Eva Morrison, 58, of Lakeport, Mich., suffered a broken kneecap on Monday, February 24, when she lost control of her car and crashed into an iron fence and three cement pillars at Jefferson and Harvard.

Park, police said that the woman was traveling east on Jefferson, when she took her eyes off the road to rearrange a blanket on the front seat for her pet dog.

While straightening out the blanket, police said, Mrs. Morrison lost control of her vehicle, which jumped the curb, traveled 112 feet on the grass between the curb and sidewalk, crossed the sidewalk and crashed into a 25-foot iron fence and three pillars, causing considerable damage. There was extensive damage to the woman's car, police said.

Mrs. Morrison was taken to Bon Secours Hospital where she was treated for the injured knee and kept over night. The dog was not injured, it was said.

The woman was given a violation ticket for leaving the roadway and running into a fixed object. She is scheduled to appear before Judge C. Joseph Belanger on April 22.

State to Enforce Policy Of 'One-License Concept'

Michigan is implementing a stronger policy in the eligibility and enforcement of driver licenses, which would bring it in line with most of the states. The policy is referred to as the "one-license concept," according to information released by James M. Hare, Michigan Secretary of State.

"The one-license concept" policy means that only one license will be allowed in the possession of a person legally permitted to drive in the state. This brings out that driving a motor vehicle is a privilege, not a right.

It was pointed out that previously a motorist who had his driver's license suspended,

115 Water Users in Park, Woods to Share in Rebate Ordered by Supreme Court

Refund of $12,027 Being Split Among Home Owners and Commercial Proprietors Who Paid Demand-Charges for Water Used in Air Conditioning

Approximately 115 Park and Woods home owners and commercial proprietors who have paid a demand-charge on water used in air conditioning units during the years 1957-61, will receive a refund of $12,027, it was disclosed on Monday, February 24.

At its regular meeting Monday night, the Park council approved a refund of $8,210.87, to 70 water users of air conditioning units of the non-water conserving type.

The Woods council is expected to act on a resolution at its meeting on Monday, March 2, authorizing a refund of $3,816.19 to approximately 45 users.

In 1963, as a result of a Michigan Supreme Court decision, the Detroit Water Board, which sells water to a majority of suburban communities throughout the Metropolitan area, was ordered to refund the demand charge.

70 Percent Refund
The amount of the refund, in accordance with the direction of a Wayne County Circuit Court order, issued on Monday, January 20, is approximately 70 percent of the total amount remitted.

The Water Board refunded $2,200,000 to the users, of which $731,000, the largest fee ever granted by a court in Michigan, went to three attorneys who succeeded in proving that the extra charge was unconstitutional. The balance was ordered distributed among the users.

The Farms, which has its own water plant, and the City, which buys its water from the Farms, are not affected by the Supreme Court ruling because they or revoked, would apply for and received a chauffeur's license, and would operate a motor driven vehicle on that. Or, the motorist would possibly have both types of licenses in his possession.

Under the new policy, which went into effect last December 2, a motorist is allowed only one license, one or the other, in his possession.

Any motorist who has had his operator's or chauffeur's license suspended or revoked, will be denied another until the suspension or revocation is lifted.

For some time now, Michigan has been operating under the

'Brick Wall' Foils Thief At Park Bar

Successful Entry of Doctor's Home Nets Burglar Camera, Radios and Opera Glasses

One burglar virtually ran into a "brick wall" trying to break into a Park bar, and another made a successful entry into a doctor's home. It was disclosed by Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders. Both crimes were reported on Sunday, February 23.

The unsuccessful entry was at a bar owned by John Haebrouch of 4621 Algonquin, Detroit, and located at 15119 Charlevoix.

Lt. Enders said that the unknown thief attempted to enter the bar by forcing a locked alley door at the rear of the building, but was frustrated by a steel door which closed off a storage space.

Unable to enter through the door, the thief then went to an old coal chute window at the side of the building, smashed the glass and scraped his hand against the bricks that had been set to close the window opening. The thief left empty handed.

Dr. Neil J. Whalen of 1023 Cadieux, was the victim of the successful thief, who broke into the doctor's home through the rear bathroom window.

Dr. Whalen told police that he and his family were absent from home from 6 p.m. on Thursday, February 20, until noon of Sunday, February 23, at which time the burglary was discovered.

Taken from his house, the doctor said, was a Keystone 8mm camera, valued at $125; a General Electric transistor radio, valued at $65; another small transistor radio valued at $30; and a pair of opera glasses, valued at $50.

Driver Unharmed As Car Hits Pole

William J. Ash, 55, of Port Huron, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital recently, when he became involved in an accident at 1010 Lake Shore road. Ash lost control of his automobile and it jumped the curb and crashed into a Detroit Edison light pole, shearing it from its base.

Ash appeared to have been in a state of shock and was conveyed to the hospital, but released after examination.

Neighborhood Club Planning To Rebuild Structure

More Details on Fund-Raising Campaign to Restore Headquarters to Full Use Expected to Be Announced in Near Future

The Neighborhood Club building, condemned as unsafe last year and closed up since, will be rebuilt and put back into operation, it has been disclosed. The club's board of trustees met last Friday and unanimously arrived at this decision.

Following the meeting, held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, the board issued a statement saying that it concurred with a recommendation of the building committee, made after studying the reports of the activities and social service committee, as well as the advice of architects and engineers.

Want Public to Know
Club officials said they wished to make no further statement at this time, but felt that the public should know that such a decision has been made.

Some time after the building was closed last year, a meeting was held in the War Memorial Center to discuss the future of the community service organization. Many civic leaders, sports figures, clergymen and other interested residents attended. The lengthy discussion produced a clear-cut consensus that the club was a far too valuable asset of the community to be allowed to pass out of existence. There was definite evidence that much support could be expected in any kind of a campaign to restore the club to its full use.

Program Distributed
Since the building was closed, the varied activities of the club have been carried on in schools, churches and at the Memorial Center. The outdoor program has continued on the spacious grounds of the club bounded by Waterloo, Charlevoix, Neff and St. Clair.

It is understood that a fund-raising campaign will be conducted to finance the cost of rebuilding the structure. Definite dates and more detailed plans are expected to be announced in the near future.

Motor Stripped By Car Thief

John Christenson of 2088 Anita, parked his car at the rear of a gas station, 18250 Mack avenue, on Wednesday, February 19, and returned to find that an unknown thief had stripped the motor.

Christenson told Farms police that he was gone from the vehicle for only a short time. Stripped from the motor, he said, were the carburetor, fuel lines and the entire distributor system.

Value of the items was not disclosed, police said. There were no clues at the scene, investigating officers said.

HIT-RUN DAMAGE

Barbara J. Coelius, of 23425 Harvard Shore drive, St. Clair Shores, told Woods police on Sunday, February 23, that while her car was parked in the Woods Theater lot an unknown hit-and-run driver damaged the right front door of the vehicle. The extent of damage was not known.

Classes for Dogs, Owners, Start at GPHS March 3

The Spring session of Owner-Dog Obedience Classes will begin on Tuesday, March 3, at Grosse Pointe High School Boy's Gym. The first meeting will be held for owners only, at 7:30 p.m.

These classes have been offered for many years by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System in cooperation with the Southern Michigan Obedience Club, and because of the training, many hundreds of canine citizens in the Grosse Pointe area have learned to "mind their manners."

Persons interested in this training course are invited to

Blood Drive Conducted at Center Today

Accommodations Ready for 300 in Fries Auditorium; Donations Urgently Requested

The two eight bed units of the American Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be set up in the Crystal Ballroom of the William Fries Memorial on Thursday, February 27, from 8 a.m. in the morning to 9 p.m. in the evening will accommodate nearly 300 blood donors to replenish the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank and all the many church and other organizational blood banks in the area.

Very few donation appointments had been received by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's office, it was reported early in the week. The Red Cross likes to have nearly 200 on record in advance to insure the success of the visitation, which is expensive to set up and occupies the time of many doctors and nurses.

Grosse Pointers are urged to donate their blood if they are able. Emergencies are constantly arising and particularly at this time of year supplies are low. Any healthy adult up to age 60 may donate as often as every six weeks. Young people ages 18-21 may give with parents permission.

Every effort has been made to make giving on the 27th easy. The surroundings are lovely, baby sitters are provided to take care of young children, and drivers are provided for those who need transportation to and from the Center.

Assisting with registration, in recovery and a host of other ways under Mrs. Victor Craig's chairmanship are Mrs. Carl Asmus, Mrs. John Friesma, Mrs. G. M. Warbois, Mrs. W. Hallenbeck, Mrs. H. Groening, Mrs. R. E. Baum, Mrs. M. H. Chambers, Mrs. N. Summers, Mrs. A. Callett, Mrs. Hans Erne, Mrs. R. Piper, Mrs. F. Rydholm, Mrs. Wm. Newcomb, Mrs. C. Kelwinski, Mrs. Wm. Hill, Mrs. Robert Swaney, Mrs. C. Mulliken, Mrs. J. Chesman, Mrs. F. Babbage, Mrs. Robert Jewett, Mrs. K. Firth, Mrs. J. Alexis, Mrs. C. Finerty, Mrs. D. Doherty, Mrs. R. Becker, Mrs. M. Osborn, Mrs. G. Schroeder.

Even if you haven't made an appointment yet there is still time by calling TU 1-7511 or just walk in, as places have been held each 15 minutes to accommodate those unable to make appointments.

attend the first meeting without their dogs. There will be a brief explanation of the work and a demonstration by former students and their dogs. Enrollment by those attending this meeting, and who have made advance registration with the Department of Community Services, will be accepted at the close of the meeting.

Instruction is provided by members of the Southern Michigan Obedience Club who serve in this capacity without pay. Having had the experience of training their own dogs, these members make a hobby of in-

Four-Quarter Plan Vetoed By Parents

One-Third of Recipients of Letter Sent by Board Voice Opinions on Return Cards

Based upon a 33.9 per cent return of post cards circulated by parents among parents of children in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, Dr. Robert K. Whiteley, president of the Board of Education, indicates that sentiment appears to be overwhelmingly opposed to a reorganization of the school year on a four-quarter plan.

The latest figures available on returns of the opinion poll indicate a "yes" response on 342, 17 per cent of the 2007 cards returned, with 1665 parents, or 83 per cent of the total of the return not favoring implementation of a four-quarter plan.

In addition, school officials point out that 198 of the 342 parents casting a "yes" vote wish their children to be on vacation during the summer quarter, or 57.9 per cent of the total "yes" votes.

These 198 plus the 1665 who do not favor the four-quarter organization at all, add up to 92.8 per cent of the 2007 cards returned.

Other Periods Unpopular
In addition to the 198 "yes" proponents who favored a summer break for the children, the figures show extremely small numbers for any other three quarters: 24 favored vacation during fall, 40 during winter, 30 during spring, with 50 parents undecided.

A total 5925 copies of the two-page letter dated February 14, were delivered locally. School officials term it simply as an instrument of gauging public opinion regarding the possible utilization of the school plant during four-quarters of the year.

They mention that when a bond issue for building purposes is submitted to the voters, the question is often heard: "When are schools going to the full year plan, like colleges, and take advantage of the summer months?"

The letter explains why year-round operation is generally more feasible in higher education, while outlining advantages and disadvantages of 12-month schools at the K-12 instructional level.

The letter states: "Unless an overwhelming number of parents, at least two-thirds or three-fourths, would support such experimentation, your Grosse Pointe Board of Education does not feel it should proceed in this direction."

It continues: "On the other hand, if there is such widespread support of a four-quarter plan, we feel we are obliged to direct our administrators to develop programs around this concept."

Predictions Vary Widely

Fur Thief Robs Farms Woman

A fur thief broke into the home of Mrs. Frederick Uihlein, 183 Earl court, on Tuesday, February 18, and stole several fur coats and other pieces from a closet in the basement, after removing the hinges.

Mrs. Uihlein, who had been vacationing in Florida, told Farms Det. Sgts. Jack Paisley and George Van Tiem, on Saturday, February 22, that the thief gained entrance into the house through the French door, after breaking the glass of the storm door at the rear of the house.

Taken from the basement closet, Mrs. Uihlein said, was a hi-length Navy blue broadtail with a sable collar; a black broadtail with a sable collar; a dark ranch mink jacket; four sable skins; and a lady's English suit trimmed with ocelot. Values of the items were not given.

Mrs. Uihlein said that all the fur pieces had the initials "E. M. U." on the inside linings.

his department is prepared to rebate the amount paid by Park customers for air conditioning demand charges during the years 1958-61 inclusive. The money will be refunded on the proper execution and filing of a "proof of claim" to be mailed to present and former customers, he added.

Ortisi said that he will make every attempt to contact persons who formerly resided, or had businesses, in the Park, notifying them of the refunds they are entitled to, or what dispositions they request regarding the rebate.

He urges persons receiving "proof of claims" to fill them out immediately and send them to his office in the Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson avenue.

Woods City Comptroller Russell Manney said that refunds to persons entitled to them, will be taken care of as soon as the Woods council approves the action. The money is on hand and ready for distribution, he added.

Dog Classes

structing others in their proven techniques.

This program was established 16 years ago as a service to residents of the Grosse Pointe Public School District. Since that time, similar classes have been initiated in Pontiac, Berkley, East Detroit, Ferndale, Bloomfield Hills, Mt. Clemens, Rochester, Royal Oak, Warren, Waterford and Walled Lake.

Head trainer will be Edson E. Boyer, being assisted by Charles Myers, Charles Murphy, Raymond Gielegem and Mrs. Stewart McFadden.

Registration may be made for any dog six months or older, regardless of pedigree or ancestry. While this course is primarily for adults, children 12 years of age or over may enroll if their parents will assist in their guidance.

All classes are limited in enrollment and advance registration is required. For class reservation and further information, call the Department of Community Services at TUxedo 5-3808 or TUxedo 5-0271.

Rotarians Hear Radio Executive

Last Monday at their weekly meeting the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club heard John M. Grubbs, program manager of WJBK-Radio, in a talk "The Other Side of The Dial."

Mr. Grubbs covered some of the many intricate responsibilities and regulations associated with radio broadcasting and television. Mr. Grubbs covered the licensing aspects and the related responsibilities of the recipient of the license, including such things as the FCC policies and their means of enforcement. Some of the latter include even going as far as fines for violations. The problem of over commercialism was discussed as it relates to the public, the FCC and of course the broadcasting company.

Mr. Grubbs lives at 1313 Anita with his wife and two children. Born in Boston he has been in broadcasting mainly in news reporting since 1941. In 1956 he entered the administrative side of the business.

This week has also been the 59th anniversary of the founding of Rotary. This organization originating in Illinois now is represented in 125 countries by over 11,600 clubs with over 544,000 members.

One License

point system, whereby a motorist's license is suspended or revoked, if 12 points are accumulated for various types of moving traffic violations, or other reasons stipulated under a State Law.

The Secretary of State's Office in Lansing disclosed that the point accumulation system will apply to any Michigan motorist arrested in any of the 50 states and in Ontario, Canada, for moving traffic violations. The points will apply as if the violations were committed in Michigan, it was stated.

Any person moving into Michigan from another state, who desires to apply for a Michigan operator's or chauffeur's license, must surrender his license from that state before he can apply for one in Michigan, Hare said. If the person's license was suspended or revoked in his former state, he cannot get one in Michigan.

How can a police agency in Michigan find out if a person's license had been taken away? Simple. The agency dispatches a form letter to the National Driver Register Service, in Washington, D.C., which is under the jurisdiction of the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Public Roads.

The NDRS keeps a national file on drivers of the 50 states, and Ontario, who have had their driving privileges withdrawn as a result of a conviction for drunk driving, or convictions of persons involved in an accident causing death in any one of the states.

Michigan police, or examining agency, on application from a person seeking a State license, if the person does not have a license in his possession, can send a U.S. Department of Commerce form PR-1047 to the NDRS. After a search is made, the information is returned, and the agency acts accordingly.

The form card is also made out for any person over the age of 21, who is applying for an original Michigan license. The implication is obvious, since there are few people, males especially, who are as yet unlicensed at this age.

The reason for this, Hare pointed out, is that the person could be in a revoked status in his home state. For example, if a resident of Illinois provides a false Michigan address, he could use the subsequently issued license back in his home state.

When a Michigan resident renews his license, and a temporary permit is issued, the expiring license will be picked up and destroyed at the police station where the renewal is applied for, according to State Law.

Hare revealed that there were 4,276,330 licensed drivers in Michigan in 1963.

Last year, 3,374 motorists had their licenses revoked; 10,215 had theirs suspended; and 15,708 had their licenses suspended under the Financial Responsibility Law.

Shores Officer Wins Diploma

Shores Patrolman Harry Hamilton completed a five-day seminar in "Traffic Law Enforcement" on Tuesday, February 25, and received a diploma. The course was presented by Michigan State University in Oakland County.

The course included classes in Public Relations, Stopping Traffic Violators, Accident Investigations, Report Writing and Enforcement of Drunk Driving Laws.

The seminar was under the auspices of the Michigan State Police, Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, Michigan Sheriffs Association, Michigan Department of Public Instruction, Michigan Municipal League and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Change in School Year Opposed

said, "While predictions for the future vary widely, there is no question that enrollment increases in the next decade or two will be substantial. Members of the Board of Education are quite aware of the enrollment growth, and have been studying various solutions to the school housing problem for over a year."

During their addresses to the various P-TA and civic organizations preceding the overwhelmingly successful passage of the millage referendum for operating funds on October 28, Board members and administrative personnel repeatedly stated: "Within the near future, the community will have to face the issue of additional building space. The new home construction throughout the north end of the school district poses a real dilemma in the Ferry-Barnes-Mason elementary school attendance areas, and an even greater problem at Parcels Junior High School."

Of the housing situation at Grosse Pointe High School, the Board members last fall commented that "the congestion is sometimes little short of terrifying and increased enrollments are inevitable."

More recently, in addressing the January meeting of the Grosse Pointe P-TA Council, Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, served as spokesman in outlining the Board's thinking on possible courses of action in light of enrollment increases foreseen and predicted by 1980.

Referring to population projections of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, published in June, 1963, Dr. Wilson pointed out that the area encompassed by the Grosse Pointe school district could anticipate a 15,000 increase in total population by 1980.

What the nature of this population might be however, was another matter, he added, since the national population projections prepared by the Bureau of Commerce predicts an increase in 5 to 19 year olds of 55.1 per cent. On such a basis, Grosse Pointe schools could expect up to a 5,000 increase in enrollment by 1980, Dr. Wilson commented.

The three major factors that affect school enrollment in a suburb such as Grosse Pointe are continued home construction, the birthrate, and change-over in home ownership.

As of January, 1964, there are an estimated 1,643 lots upon which new homes could be built. The first waves of the great baby boom starting in 1942 are just reaching marriageable age. Suburban communities and their schools prove particularly attractive to parents with growing children; homes are often sold by older residents to newcomers with children of school age.

Some parents, opposed to a four-quarter plan, commented that they would like to see a longer school year. With this, the Board of Education is generally in agreement.

A longer school year, however, in no way relieves growth pressures on schools, and raises innumerable problems in the area of costs, teacher contracts, and local and national tradition.

Board President Whiteley added that the trustees and officers are reviewing the first results of the opinion poll in light of their knowledge of the community.

Reckless Driver Fined in Shores

Leroy W. Fulton, 26, of 23144 Socia, St. Clair Shores, arraigned before Shores Judge John Gillis on Tuesday, February 18, on a charge of reckless driving, pled guilty and was fined $100.

Fulton was arrested by Shores Patrolman Joseph Vitale on Monday, February 17, after a chase on Lake Shore road.

The officer said that he observed Fulton going north on Lake Shore at a speed in excess of 50 miles an hour and took up pursuit.

Vitale said that the motorist slowed on approaching a group of cars, but then cut in and out in the traffic lanes to pass the other vehicles. In his maneuvering, Fulton passed a scout car driven by Shores Patrolman Ronald Klotz, who also took part in the chase.

When stopped, Fulton told officers that he was in a hurry to get home. He had been drinking, the policemen said.

Fulton was taken to the station where he was issued a ticket for reckless driving and held in lieu of bond. His car was towed to the rear of the station, because, the policemen said, it was unsafe to drive.

Park Judge Hears Record Number of Cases in 1963

A record number of cases and a new high in the amount of revenue received through the Park Municipal Court were disclosed in an annual report submitted by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Friday, February 21.

According to information released by the judge, the number of cases heard in his court in 1963 numbered 1,014, and the total amount of revenue received from fines, penalties and costs, Violation Bureau fines, and from fees paid to the Park treasurer on State cases handled, amounted to $37,909.55.

Fines, penalties and costs brought in $11,456.30; fines paid to the Violation Bureau, $26,364; and fees on 20 State cases handled by his court, $89.25, Judge Belanger stated.

Under the City Charter, fees covering State cases are not retained by the municipal judge, but are and have been paid to the city treasurer.

Of the 1,014 cases actually tried in his court, Judge Belanger stated, 763 persons were found guilty; and 715 paid fines in regard to traffic violations.

In connection with the traffic matters, three drivers' licenses were suspended for six months, two for three months; and 15 probation orders were entered for varying times.

In addition, three persons were sentenced to jail for one day; two for two days, three for three days, 12 for five days, three for 10 days and two for 15 days. Six violators were ordered to attend the new drivers' traffic school, and in a great number of cases, the court referred the matter of revocation of driver licenses directly to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

In matters involving violation of ordinances, 17 persons were sent to jail for being drunk and disorderly; 15 matters were determined involving minors in possession of alcoholic beverages; and 46 other matters, including dog violations, disorderly persons, soliciting, loitering, assault and battery and other miscellaneous city ordinances were adjudicated.

During 1963, Judge Belanger said, he received and issued all necessary criminal complaints, including all warrants, held all arraignments and examinations where necessary and when demanded, and undertook and discharged such duties and responsibilities respecting defendants in felony and/or high misdemeanor matters, including the binding and remanding of certain defendants to Circuit Court for further proceedings and/or trial.

Judge Belanger said that he continued a policy of cooperating with the office of the Secretary of State regarding the suspension of driving privileges in many cases, rather than imposing such restrictions in his court.

He said that it is very evident that this type of cooperation has gone far to create a situation wherein driving privileges are properly suspended where necessary.

REPORTS VANDALISM

Don Drysdale, 18, of 1151 Paget court, called Woods police on Sunday, February 23, to complain that an unknown person kicked in the right side of his convertible car, and walked on the canvas top, causing two large rips. The amount of damage was not disclosed.

Walker Cisler, with Miss Marilyn Ayler of his staff, reviews some of the many letters received in response to the series of messages of which this is the concluding one.

To the Families
Whose Homes are Served by
EDISON

I've been writing periodically over the past several months to tell you something about Detroit Edison—to outline some of its principles and policies; to remind you of the services offered you; to reiterate our earnest desire to act in the best interest of you and our other customers throughout Southeastern Michigan.

We have great faith in our state's future and pledge that we will do our share to assure that future. We're happy to be a part of the busy Michigan scene.

Though this concludes this series of letters, it will not end our endeavors to keep you informed about our company and the industry of which we are a part.

To those of you who have written in response to one or another of my letters, I am especially appreciative. Your comments have been most helpful. If you have a question in the future about the company or any of our programs, always feel free to contact my office directly, or any of the 73 Edison customer offices in the area we serve.

It has been pleasant for me to have had this opportunity to communicate with you and to tell you how the Detroit Edison system serves you.

Sincerely,

Walker L. Cisler

Does your range tell you the truth?

When it says "off" is it really off? Or will food keep on cooking, water keep on boiling, heat keep on heating after you turn the dial off?

It won't if you're cooking with Gas. And there's one of the many differences. On a modern Gas range, "off" means just that. Turn the dial, the flame goes out. You're not paying for "hangover heat" you can't use. Hangover heat that keeps cooking when you want it to stop. Compared in dollars and cents to other ranges, Gas can give you up to a dollar's worth of cooking for a quarter. See the latest Gas ranges now on display at dealer or Gas Company showrooms. Chamber Music Concert Planned

Music by Vivaldi, Mozart and Cesar Franck will be featured at the March program meeting of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe, to be held on Sunday, March 1, at 3 p.m. in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Lotta Winkler, viola, and Alice Haldostian, piano, will perform Vivaldi's Sonata in B flat Major. Mrs. Winkler, for many years a teacher in the Detroit school system, is a member of Tuesday Musicales and general chairman of the Detroit Women's Symphony. Alice Haldostian is director of workshops for the Tuesday Musicales and is a member of the executive board of the Women's Symphony.

The Four Hand Sonata in F by Mozart will be presented by George LeBlanc and his daughter, Alyce. Mr. LeBlanc is organist and choir director at Our Lady Queen of Peace church in Harper Woods, and is Dean of Studies at the Palestrina Institute of Liturgical Music.

Alyce LeBlanc, age 12, an eighth grade student at the Assumption Grotto school, has studied piano with her father since the age of five. She was a finalist at Interlochen last May in the Michigan Youth Arts Festival, and made her recital debut in September. She has been guest soloist at the Wayne Community Arts Auditorium and for the National Catholic Music Educators Association.

Aaron Farbman, violin, and Marjorie Connell, piano, will play the Cesar Franck Sonata for Violin and Piano. Dr. Farbman, who has soloed with the Center Symphony, is president of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe and a member of the National Executive Committee of Amateur Chamber Music Players. Miss Connell, who received her Master's degree in Music from Wayne State University, has been guest soloist with the Wayne State, South Oakland, Allen Park and St. Clair Shores Symphonies, and has appeared in piano recitals on radio and television.

A coffee hour will follow the musical program.

Pointe Theater Casts for Play

Buddy Baker, the big-brother booster in "Come Blow Your Horn," the next play to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Theater, will be played by Jon Hart, 832 Bal-four. Jon, a senior at Grosse Pointe High School, considers the part "fabulous" because he feels it really "shows the character of a younger brother" whose main goal in life is to imitate the actions of big brother, Allan, played by Jack Donachie, 1110 Semingle.

The story revolves around these two characters: one the eligible man-about-town and the other the kid brother.

Jon, whose only dramatic experience has been in high school productions, just "stumbled on the part"—and that in a rather unusual way. As he was peering over a copy of Mad magazine while working at his after-school job in Park Pharmacy, Jon happened to see a familiar face. He recognized it as that of Joe Rice, who played Detective Callahan in GPCT's last production, "Detective Story," and who is currently working as stage manager for "Come Blow Your Horn." Jon commented on Joe's performance and the two began speaking of theatrical work. As Joe was leaving, he said, "I'm sorry, I can't stay, but we're having readings tonight for 'Horn.'" As an afterthought, he asked Jon to try out. Jon did, walked on the stage, and won the part.

Although this is Jon's first (and last) year at GPCT, he recently portrayed Mr. Beston in the high school production of "The Mouse That Roared." Prior to that he participated in dramatic activities at St. Ambrose High School. He is also a member of the College Players, an amateur group consisting primarily of post high school students currently attending nearby colleges. His work in "Come Blow Your Horn" will be his first community theater work.

Director Richard Bauhof, of Rivard boulevard, is proud of the cast.

That is the minimum payroll tax increase all workers earning $100 or more a week would be forced to pay if the MEDICARE bill now before Congress becomes law.

What's more the Medicare plan is morally wrong for it would compel wage-earners, and their employers, to shoulder this new tax load to provide care for millions of the elderly financially able to take care of themselves.

In other words, those least able to pay more taxes would be paying hospital bills for many who are most able to pay their own way.

Everyone agrees that all our elderly should receive all the health care they need when they need it. That's why local, state and federal programs are available now for helping those who need help in paying for health care.

And you are now paying taxes to support these programs.

No need has ever been demonstrated for Medicare, a costly, compulsory Federal Government plan.

If you believe as we do, write your Congressman and your Senators today. Urge them to vote against Medicare (H.R. 3920).

WAYNE COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

Hudson Accepts Post for Drive

Joseph L. Hudson Jr., president of the J. L. Hudson Co., has been named 1964 Torch Drive co-chairman for Chapter Campaigns.

Hudson was appointed by General Chairman Thomas F. Morrow, Chrysler Corporation

Group Vice President, Defense Space and Diversified Products, who served as co-chairman for Chapter Campaigns in the 1963 Torch Drive. Hudson was chairman of the Major Commerce Unit last year.

In his new position, Hudson will be responsible for the organization and operation of six Torch Drive units which raised a total of $20,156,378 of the $21,690,224 contributed in 1963 for the 1964 budgets of 197 health and community services.

"Mr. Hudson has demonstrated his interest in the United Foundation through his enthusiastic efforts in past Torch Drives," Morrow said. "We are grateful to him for accepting this high post and are confident of his success in it."

The first responsibility of the new co-chairman will be the naming of chairmen to head the Automotive and Suppliers, Major Commerce, General Manufacturing, Professions, Schools and Government, and Transportation units.

Hudson, 32, is a native of Buffalo, New York, and a graduate of Yale University. He started working for the company founded by his great-uncle, Joseph Lowthian Hudson, as a part-time summer employee in 1950. He served as an artillery officer with the U.S. Army in Germany in 1954 and 1956.

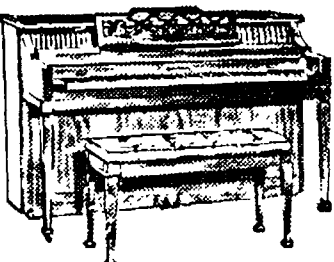

Following his separation from the Army in 1956, Hudson joined the firm as assistant to the general manager. He was elected to the Board of directors in 1956, and became vice president and general manager in 1957. Since April 18, 1961, Hudson has been president of the company.

In addition to his work in the Torch Drive, Hudson is a vice president of the United Foundation.

He also is a director of the National Bank of Detroit, Detroit Edison Co., Citizens Research Council of Michigan, Committee on Michigan's Economic Future, William H. Miller and Company, Michigan Retailers Association, Retail Merchants Association, and the Southeastern Michigan Metropolitan Community, and a trustee of the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts.

She may believe "You Can't Get a Man with a Gun" but Annie, played by LINDA PRINCE, has Frank Butler, played by MIKE RICE, happily shooting at her side as the curtain falls on Act III of "Annie Get Your Gun." Grosse Pointe Children's Theater will present three performances of the hit musical, this Friday, March 28, at 8 o'clock, a Saturday matinee at 2, and a Sunday twilight show at 7 in the evening, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. Tickets, 75 cents for children and $1.25 for adults, may be purchased at the box office. The production is under the direction of Mrs. Syd Reynolds. RON BRENNAMAN, (left), will play the role of "Charlie" in the current production.

Four Accidents Occur in City

Four minor accidents occurred in the City last week. The first was at the corner of Notre Dame and Kercheval on February 17 when Patricia Carl of 4345 Nottingham, Detroit, who was driving east on Kercheval was struck by Anita MacGies of 5941 Neff road, Detroit, who was travelling North. No tickets were issued as damage was minor.

A second accident occurred at Jefferson and University on February 18 when Ronald Stephen Carassanti of 21031 Alexander, St. Clair Shores, was driving west on Jefferson and backed into Edward Joseph Conway of 1332 Ashland, Detroit. No tickets were issued and both cars were able to be driven from the scene.

Another accident occurred at St. Clair and Kercheval when Carmen Lee Bommarito of 1214 Lakepointe was driving west on Kercheval and ran into the left rear of a car being driven by Ida Rubino of 5090 Maryland, Detroit. Mirika Moustakos of 1407 Maryland, a passenger in the Bommarito car, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for a whiplash injury. Mr. Bommarito was issued a ticket for careless driving. It was necessary for his car to be towed to a collision shop.

A fourth accident happened at Charlevoix and Lincoln February 19 when Thomas Blakely of 4131 Kensington stopped for the stop street and failed to wait for the traffic to clear.

Pointers Boost Hospital Fund

Three contributions by Grosse Pointe area residents have added $40,000 to the Children's Hospital building fund.

This was announced today by Mrs. Gerard A. Slattery, of Grosse Pointe Farms, who is co-chairman of the building fund and also president of Children's board of trustees.

Mrs. William P. Stevens, it was reported, has contributed $21,000 to build, equip and furnish the preparation room in the laboratory of the new hospital. The room, situated next to the blood bank, will be used for preparing blood donors, as well as patients who are to have blood counts and those receiving blood transfusions, Mrs. Slattery explained.

Also among Grosse Pointe Farms contributors is Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, Jr., who, together with her children, Linda Jackson Roekelstein and Richard W. Jackson, Jr., subscribed $10,000 to the fund. The gift will create a three-cub room which is to be named in memory of Richard Weber Jackson, late husband of Mrs. Gillis.

In addition, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Chapman have contributed $9,000 to establish a three-cub room on the fourth floor of the new hospital.

The new Children's, a part of the projected Detroit Medical Center, is to have accommodations for 320 children, 105 more than the present hospital's rated capacity.

Howard H. Hush, Jr. Goes to Fort Meade

Army Pvt. Howard H. Hush, Jr., whose parents live at 2603 Allard avenue, was assigned January 14 to the 525th Military Intelligence Group at Fort Meade, Md.

Hush, assigned to the group's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in October 1963 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Hush is a 1956 graduate of Fairview High School in Dayton, Ohio and received his B.A. degree in 1960 from Oberlin (Ohio) College and his LL.B. degree in 1962 from the University of Michigan Law School in Ann Arbor.

WASHINGTON, February 23 — WASHINGTON was reported yesterday to be considering a campaign of psychological warfare against Communist North Vietnam that would include hints of guerrilla raids from South Vietnam. Although no decision has been made, the Administration was said to believe that it could influence the course of the war by indicating greater United States involvement in it.

AFTER TWO DAYS of meetings with President Johnson, President Adolfo Lopez Masos of Mexico renewed his offer to help bring the United States and Panama together within the Organization of American States. The Mexican official also surprised a news conference in Palm Springs, Calif., by saying that Washington should turn to the United Nations for a Cuba solution.

IT WAS LEARNED in Dallas that the wife of Lee H. Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, has terminated her agreement with the legal and business advisers who had represented her since the shooting of her husband.

Monday, February 24 — REPORTS FROM LEOPOLDVILLE in the Congo said that Communist-led terrorists killed two Belgian teachers and wounded three others in an attack on the Belgian-Canadian mission in Kivu Province. Sources said the terrorists, led by Peking-trained Pierre Mulele, surrounded the mission on Friday and attacked Saturday just before a Congolese Army platoon arrived to help.

SECRETARY OF LABOR W. Willard Wirtz and union officials failed in their efforts to end a boycott against U. S. shipments of wheat to Russia, according to an announcement made Sunday night. The unions are demanding that 50 percent of all grain shipments to the Soviet bloc be sent in American vessels. A spokesman said efforts will continue for a settlement but there is little hope for an early agreement.

THE FLINT CIVIL SERVICE Commission cleared three suspended high-ranking city officials of charges of willful neglect of duty and misfeasance. They were ordered reinstated in their jobs by the Civil Service Commission after it heard 11 witnesses at hearings Monday night and Saturday afternoon.

Tuesday, February 25 — COMMUNIST CUBA attempted to overthrow the Government of Venezuela, according to an investigating committee of the Organization of American States. The committee also said that the Communist nation, in addition, paid for and directed similar activities in other Latin American countries. The report, however, specified no country except Venezuela.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR to the United States, Herve Alphand said in Detroit Monday that France is still an ally of the West. She doesn't, however, intend to change her "go-it-alone" policies in the techniques of diplomacy. Speaking before the Economic Club, Monsieur Alphand said that France's decisions on such things as the European Common Market and recognition of Red China were made on the basis of what is good for France and that criticism from other countries in the Western world will not make her change.

"The practical aim of every mission of AID (Agency for International Development, of the Department of State) throughout the world is to make the host country's economy self-sustaining," noted Mr. Howards. "The Republic of China is truly a show-window on that score, and the further development of the private enterprise sector should virtually eliminate need for concessional funds. A completely self-supporting economy in Taiwan within a relatively short time is a good prospect."

Mr. Howards is assigned to work directly with Chinese business and Government officials on their manufacturing and marketing problems and opportunities. For many years, until his resignation in 1963, Mr. Howards was a Vice President of the J. Walter Thompson Company, marketing and advertising counsel to many of the largest companies in the United States, with a world-wide network of offices.

The Howards' plan to stop over in Honolulu and Tokyo en route to Taiwan. Their son, Jonathan, plans to join them, at the conclusion of his sophomore year at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, and after his duties as counselor at Camp Charlevoix, Charlevoix, Michigan, are concluded. He would study at a university in the Orient, probably in Japan.

The family have been Grosse Pointe residents since 1947, and have been active in church and community affairs. Mr. Howards and his son are sailboat enthusiasts, racing regularly in inter-club and DRYA Regattas. Mr. Howards is a member of Bayview Yacht Club and the Detroit Boat Club; of the latter club, he was a director and secretary until his resignation last fall, in anticipation of the AID assignment.

GPUS Holding Science Fair

By Matt Zukowski

The Grosse Pointe University School will hold its annual Science Fair on Friday, February 28. Approximately 80 students are expected to enter their projects in one of four divisions: Earth Science, Physical Science, and Junior and Senior Biology.

Entrants will be competing for one of four places or an honorable mention in their respective divisions. There will also be a grand prize for the best exhibit in the show.

Entries will be judged on the evening of Thursday, February 27. The fair will be open to the public and prizes awarded on the evening of February 28. Although only the eighth graders are required to enter, students from all other grades are also encouraged to participate.

The purpose of the Science Fair is to encourage individual study on the part of students in a field in which they are interested. The Science Fair also helps to determine what exhibits will go on to the Detroit Science Fair, held each year at Cobo Hall.

Youth Group Has Project

The Senior Youth Group of St. James Lutheran Church has begun a "Senior Inner-City Project" in which they are painting and decorating a dormitory at the Detroit Lutheran Home for Girls.

Barbara Ruthven is group president, and Mr. John Allan is youth director. The young people plan to continue aiding inner city mission work.

Camera, Cash, TV Set Stolen

Farms police are checking into a possible burglary of the home of the John McNameras, 259 Touraine, reported on Tuesday, February 18.

McNamera personally appeared at the police station to report that a portable television set, a Polaroid Land camera, and a sum of money were missing from his residence.

The values of the set and camera were not given, but McNamera told police that $66 in currency and $30 in nickels were missing along with the other items.

Later, Mrs. McNamera called police to disclose that another sum of money, approximately $120 in cash, was missing from a dresser drawer in her bedroom.

A neighbor told investigating officers that a young man, who apparently had a key to the house, was seen entering the McNamera residence during the absence of the owners. The youth left later, but the eye witness did not reveal if the young man was carrying anything from the house.

The matter is being investigated by Det. Sgts. George Van Tiem and Jack Paisley.

Troop 156 Holds Court of Honor

Twenty-eight Scouts advanced in rank at the Court of Honor held on February 19 by the Christ Church Boy Scout Troop 156. Two boys, Fred Barrows and Don Moore, attained Scouting's second highest rank, Life Scout.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the reading of a letter from Edward Griglak, manager of SLEEPER State Park, Caseville, complimenting the Troop on their voluntary park clean-up campaign conducted during a recent overnight camp-out in the park.

"Picking up rubbish along the park trails and the county road," he wrote, "will save us a lot of time this spring, when we usually do this... I would also like to compliment the entire group for the exceptionally clean condition of the camp upon your departure Sunday afternoon."

Among 26 other boys who advanced at this meeting were four into Star Scout, Clay Evans, Robert Baker, Brad Barker, David Fromm. Five boys attained First Class rank, Jack McCartney, Tom Ludwig, Robert Urtel, Mike Shore, and Phil Kennedy.

Second class rank went to Mike Floer, Doug Hansin, Dick Lehman, and Dave Ricca. Thirteen became Tenderfoot Scouts, Jeff Barrows, John Bryden, Michael Duika, James Freeman, Kellogg Johnson, Richard Lehman, William Noren, Dave Riddle, Edward Koch, Lee Greening, Ronald Potthoff, Don Fromm and Andy McCormick Goodhart.

In addition, a number of merit badges were awarded. Three badges each went to Clay Evans, Bruce Kasl, Scooter Kosko, John Lehman and Don Moore.

Two badges were awarded to Bob Baker, John Freeman and Ricky Ludwig. And nine boys each received one badge, Curt Blessing, Dennis Duika, Dave Fromm, Doug Hansin, Ned Hamfeld, Jack McCartney, Tom Noren, Alan Ricca and Bob Urtel.

The next outdoor activity of the troop will be a weekend campout on March 13, 14 and 15 in the Waterloo Recreation area.

New President Is No Stranger

President Lyndon B. Johnson is no stranger to Michigan or to the Wayne State University campus.

The President has made three visits to the University within the past 11 months. Each time he impressed all with his personal warmth and deep interest in civil rights as well as the future of the State.

Johnson was presented with an honorary doctor of laws degree from WSU on January 6 when he opened the University's year-long Emancipation Centennial observance. At the convocation held in the Ford Auditorium, he declared that "the fulfillment of the spirit and true purpose of that proclamation is a responsibility which belongs to those of us who live today."

He was later entertained at a University reception and returned that evening to Washington. He shook hands at Metropolitan Airport with each member of his police escort detail.

He returned to Wayne State on March 2 for a 3 p.m. meeting with top representatives of Michigan industry and higher education. Dr. Michael Ference, vice president of Ford Motor Company, and Leonard Woodcock, vice president of the UAW-CIO hosted the meeting. Both are members of the Wayne State University Board of Governors.

The President's third visit was on Thursday, August 15, when he spoke at the Regional Conference on Equal Employment Opportunity. Held at the McGregor Memorial Conference Center, the conference attracted more than 500 business and community leaders.

Johnson made an eloquent plea at that time for the Kennedy administration's civil rights proposals. Also on hand for the conference were Governor George Romney, Senator Philip Hart and Congressman Neil Stabler.

The then Vice President said that President Kennedy "can order any man—whatever his religion, whatever his national origin—into battle to face enemy fire... And, yet, at the same time, he cannot order some people—no matter how well qualified—into respectable jobs, a clean place to live, or even a hamburger stand."

During his August trip Johnson took time to officially sign the University's Plan for Progress in company with WSU Vice President and Provost Arthur Neef and Hobart Taylor Jr., executive vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity—making WSU the first college or university in the country to prepare such a plan, promising that the University and Committee would work together on providing equal employment opportunity for all minority groups in both academic and non-academic areas.

Johnson, at least on the basis of his visits to Wayne, will be no easy man for the Secret Service to protect. He mingled freely with the crowds at all stops and upset well-laid plans by the Detroit Police on his last trip here when he moved his departure plans up. His motorcycle escort had been given a short break when Johnson abruptly decided to return immediately to the airport. He departed with only one police car and a limousine as escort.

Detroit Police Inspector Peter Soncrant, charged with Johnson's care during his visit, shook his head in consternation. As the then Vice President whisked away Soncrant said: "And he's just a heart beat from the presidency."

Motorist Rams Into Police Car

Oldrich Vavrou, 36, of 3841 Dill road, Drayton Plains, Mich., crashed into a Park police car at Three Mile drive and Jefferson avenue on Wednesday, February 19. He was given a violation ticket by the policeman-driver of the scout car.

Vavrou, a passenger in his automobile, Helen Rehm, 40, of 997 Nottingham, were taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of facial injuries, suffered when their heads struck the windshield on impact with the police cruiser.

Patrolman Paul Roek, driver of the police vehicle, parked the scout car on Three Mile drive, 300 feet north of Jefferson, while he was issuing a violation ticket to a motorist, across the street. This was at 12:25 a.m.

Vavrou, going north, failed to see the police car, and crashed into its rear, causing approximately $100 damage to the cruiser. Vavrou's car was undrivable and had to be towed to a service station. The amount of damage to his car was not disclosed.

Roek said that Vavrou had not been drinking. The officer gave the motorist a ticket for failing to stop within an assured distance ahead.

Meeting Slated By Spanish Club

The newly organized Grosse Pointe Spanish Club will have a second meeting at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Monday evening, March 2, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting, officers of the group will be elected.

Everyone will have a chance to practice Spanish conversation and there will be an interesting program of colored pictures of Buenos Aires shown by Dr. Luis Tomatis, a resident surgeon at Ford Hospital, who is a native of Argentina.

All interested residents of Grosse Pointe are cordially invited to attend.

SPACE-AGE PLANETARIUM FOR MSU—The new Abrams Planetarium at Michigan State University offers students and the public an astronaut's view of the stars and planets. The projector being checked by technician Zenon D. Billedeux, left, has the unique ability to show the heavens as they appear from the earth, the moon, or any point in outer space. It can even simulate the pitch and yaw of a manned satellite. Visitors to the planetarium may see displays including a giant globe of the earth and a black-light gallery featuring luminescent "spacescapes" of the moon and planets. The $530,000 facility was made possible by contributions to the MSU Development Fund, including $250,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Tabert Abrams of Lansing. Curator Victor H. Hogg reports that the Planetarium, which is to be used primarily for students, will open to the public in March.

GREEK CYPRIOTS FEAR THIS—Turkish marines line the rail of their troop carrier to watch a Turkish destroyer steam by during maneuvers off Iskenderun, Turkey. These are forces feared by Greeks on Cyprus, with "invasion" threatened.

INSIDE OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES—At the Senate Rules Committee investigation in Washington of Bobby Baker's outside activities, William R. Armstrong, Serv-U president, testifies that the first he knew of Baker's 28.5 per cent interest in the vending firm was when he read it in a newspaper. And Jose A. Benitez, deputy high commissioner for the Pacific Trust Territories, testifies that when he needed someone to clinch a deal for sale of Puerto Rican meat he headed straight for "my good friend," Baker. Benitez and Baker each garner about $250 a month on the deal for doing virtually nothing.

BOBBY BAKER looks as if he didn't have a care in the world after taking refuge in the fifth amendment before the Senate Rules Committee in Washington. The former Senate majority secretary refused to submit his records.

St. Paul's Lakers Capture League Crown, Set Record

In a dramatic finish Sunday, which defeated Holy Redeemer 51-49, St. Paul's Lakers became the first team in Catholic League history to win the basketball title three years in a row.

Bill Bigham, junior guard, took the ball in the final moment of play and made a 20-foot jump shot which gave the Lakers the two point margin for victory. The basket was a repetition of the one Bigham got a year ago to give the Lakers a regional championship in the state tournament.

A crowd of 7,238 watched the two teams match shots during the crucial fourth quarter. St. Paul came from behind in the third quarter to tie the count at 31-all. From then on until the final minute the lead changed or tied 13 times.

Jim Bigham, brother of Bill, sank five straight baskets in the fourth quarter to give St. Paul its biggest lead at 45-42. The Redeemers' Lions were held without a basket for five minutes and 13 seconds of the final quarter.

A layup, a free throw and a tip-in by Holy Redeemer tied the score at 47-47 with 1:17 left. Jim Bigham fouled a Holy Redeemer man when he scored a basket with 45 seconds left. The Lions sank two free throws to again tie the score and give St. Paul possession of the ball. The Bighams, brothers working together kept the ball for the remaining seconds and set up the shot for the winning 20-foot jump shot.

St. Paul will meet the winner of the Northern-Northwestern game Friday night for the City championship.

GPUS Cagers In Tournament

By MIKE GRANGER

The Grosse Pointe University School basketball team traveled to the Tenth Annual Maumee Valley (Ohio) Invitational Tournament last weekend where the Knights finished third among the six independent school teams.

Friday night the University School defeated Evansville (Ind.), 61-49. Many of the young sophomores and freshman players were able to get in the game, as Coach Eriksen pulled his starters early in the third quarter. George Perrin, team captain, led all scorers with 21 points.

The following afternoon, the Knights attempted to master Hawks (Cleveland, Ohio), who earlier in the tournament had beaten the host team, Maumee. Hawks built up a commanding 20-8 lead in the first quarter, but the Knights closed the gap to 21-20. Three quick Hawks lay-ups made the score 27-20. From this point, they coasted to a 60-45 win. Therefore, Grosse Pointe was to play Detroit Country Day School in the consolation game.

Earlier this month, Country Day upset the Knights, 53-46. The Knights were eager to avenge this poor showing. Despite a 27-point scoring spree by Paul Sanda, D.C.D.S. bowed 67-46.

Hawks, Wings Win at Hockey

By Jack Hoag

The Hawks and Wings won victories in a pair of games played at the Neighborhood Club Saturday morning, February 22, in the City Hockey League.

In the opener of a double-header the long dormant Hawks, getting a good coaching job from Paul Schwickert, poured it on with an 8-0 blanketing of a previously good Bruins team. Ed Wells, Tom and Doug Campbell and Bill Edmunds were Hawks standouts, while Wade Williams and Dick McLaughlin played well for the losers in spite of a porous defense.

The second game saw the Wings, led by Sandy Sides' two goals, take the Leafs into camp by a score of 3-2. Dave and Bill Hayter, Blair Parsons and goalie Jim Bayes were also stars for the Wings, while the Leafs' attack was led by Jim and Kevin Bolton, Dave Ines and Bill Duke.

The season will end this week with a pair of games Wednesday at Detroit Gallagher rink and hopefully a doubleheader Saturday at the club.

Two Ski Trips Set for Teens

A northern weekend trip and a 10-day ski trip to Taos, New Mexico over spring vacation are planned for the Teen-age Ski Club jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and the Neighborhood Club.

The weekend trip leaves this Friday, February 28, at 4:30 p.m. from the Center. Charter bus takes the group to Ski View Lodge at Harbor Springs where they may ski either Nubs Nob or Boyne Highlands Saturday and enjoy a dip in Nub's pool before an evening at the Pony Tail Night Club.

Sunday they ski at Boyne Mt. returning to the Center at 10:30 p.m. The cost of $27.50 covers round trip bus plus shuttle service, two nights lodging and three meals.

Big news is the 10-day ski trip to Taos, N.M., March 27 to April 5, (limit 35 persons). Charter bus to Chicago leaves the Center at noon Friday, March 27. The round trip is $10. At Chicago the party will board Santa Fe's crack train El Capitan. Reserve seats and meals will be furnished at a cost of $63 round trip to Taos, N.M.

At Taos transportation will be paid up to the 13,000 foot height of Taos for $10 each way. At Taos Ski Valley the group will enjoy seven and half days skiing, eight nights lodging, four hours a day ski instruction—all for $75.

The group will be chaperoned by two Grosse Pointe High School teachers, and a physician-surgeon. With the expense of this staff covered the entire trip package is offered for the bargain price of $189. Deposits of $60 are required immediately to insure accommodations.

Lt. Robert B. Benton Trains at Fort Knox

Second Lt. Robert B. Benton, whose mother, Mrs. J. W. Hall, lives at 1085 Beaconsfield avenue, was scheduled to complete a nine-week officer-orientation course at the Army Armor Center, Fort Knox, Ky., February 4.

During the course, Lieutenant Benton received instruction in the duties and responsibilities of a newly commissioned Army officer.

The 21-year-old officer is a 1959 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and a 1963 graduate of Michigan State University. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Church Cagers All See Action

In B League action last week in the Grosse Pointe Church Basket Ball League, St. James continued their dominance as they rolled to their sixth straight win. They defeated Woods Presbyterian 46-22 as three players scored all of St. James' points.

Thompson led St. James with 25 points while Shriever and Noecker added 13 and 8 respectively. Chouinard led Woods with 10 points.

In another game Congregational raced to a 17-5 half-time lead and appeared to have things wrapped up against St. Paul. However, Kotz led St. Paul to a 17 point 4th quarter and the final score was a narrow 32-26. Briscoe, Swanson, and Bellows all played well for St. Paul but Kotz led the game in scoring with 14.

In the final game Memorial Presbyterian had to battle from behind to defeat Christ Church 37-25. Trailing 17-13 at half-time,

C LEAGUE

In the C League Grosse Pointe Memorial saw their five-game winning streak come to an end at the hands of St. Paul #2. St. Paul played an errorless game and soundly defeated Memorial by a score of 32-19. Hal Messacar pumped in 14 to lead the way for St. Paul while Mike Ferrell added 8 and Tim Allard 6 points. For Memorial Mike McMillin hit for 13 of Memorial's total of 19.

In the most exciting C game of the day Woods Presbyterian defeated St. Paul #2, 25-18 in overtime. At the end of regulation time the score was tied 17-17. But in overtime the Schleicher brothers scored six points for Woods Presbyterian and that was it for St. Paul #2. Brines also played well for Woods as did Messacar for St. Paul #2.

In the other game Christ Church continued to play fine basketball as they rolled over their third straight opponent. This time the score was 50-27 over Congregational. Bob Lehman led Christ Church with 14 points while Hubbard and Tom Canfield added 10 and 8 respectively. Bellows led Congregational with 9 points while Schmidt and Norris added 6 each.

Babe Ruth Loop Announces Dates

Vice-president Minard Mumaw of the Grosse Pointe Babe Ruth League (City-Park-Farms) announced that the registration for all boys in the three communities would be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 12 at the High School Auditorium.

A program of the films of some past World Series Games and also the fundamentals of the game will be shown. A well known baseball figure will also be present to answer questions and to discuss some of the finer points of the game.

All boys whether they played last year or are just now 13 years of age must register. This is necessary if a boy is interested in continuing or desires to enter the league. Also all fathers of the boys involved should be present.

National League Commissioner Tom Kleene announced that E. Warren Hart has taken the assignment of managing the Cardinals for the coming year. Warren was a manager two years ago and is returning "from a sabbatical leave."

Naval Reservists Pay Visit to West Coast

Captain Benjamin Ambrosini of 1035 Whittier road, along with three other Michigan Naval Reservists from the Naval Reserve Officers' School at Naval Air Station, Grosse Isle, has recently completed his annual two weeks active duty for training.

While on active duty for training, Captain Ambrosini attended a seminar given by the Bureau of Naval Weapons Fleet Readiness Representative on the NAS North Island, San Diego, Calif.

The Reservists also visited the Naval Amphibious Base, the Naval Electronics Laboratory, Pt. Mugu, Edwards Air Force Base and the industrial plants of General Atomic, Astronautics and Convair Divisions of General Dynamics.

Ski Club Plans Last Two Trips

The adult Grosse Pointe Ski Club sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is planning to end this year's season with a burst of activity.

This Saturday, February 29, at 8 a.m. a group will leave for a full week of skiing in the Laurentian Mountains. They will be taken by chartered bus to the Canadian National Railroad where they will board a private coach for Montreal. From Montreal to St. Jovite the transfer will be made by a second chartered bus.

At St. Jovite the group will stay at Villa Bellevue where lodging, meals, seven full days of skiing, and four hours daily instruction will be given.

On the return trip the group will linger in Montreal long enough for purchases and some night life before boarding the train for Detroit. The entire package is $175 for club members and $175 for guests.

On March 13, a final weekend ski trip is being arranged to Boyne Mountain and Boyne Highlands. Traveling by chartered bus the group will stay at Petoskey Motor Court.

Deposits for this trip are requested at the Center no later than Wednesday, March 6.

On March 22, at 7:30 in the evening there will be a ski club meeting and social in the Center's Fries Auditorium. Excellent movies of Sun Valley will be shown as pictures taken on the various trips made by the club this year. This final party is free and is hoped that all members and their guests will be present.

School Plan Misinterpreted

The Board of Education has been conducting a canvass among all parents of public school students, seeking reactions to a suggestion that the school year might be revised by dividing it into four quarters. A letter outlining the plan was sent out, asking the parents to make their opinions known by filling in and returning an enclosed card. The results of the canvass as they have been tabulated to date, are covered in the lead story on Page One of this issue.

The NEWS has received a letter from W. S. Carleton of Moran road, which is printed in full below in the Letters to the Editor column. It indicates that Mr. Carleton, and perhaps other recipients of the Board of Education letter, were both "frustrated" and confused by a wrong interpretation of the suggested plan. Mr. Carleton obviously assumed that the revised system would have all the students attending classes all four quarters, with vacation time materially reduced. This was not the proposition at all.

There would be 80 school days in each quarter and each student would attend classes for three quarters, making a total of 180 days, the same number as under the present system. The parents were asked to designate their choice of a vacation period for their children, fall, winter, spring or summer, if the proposal was adopted.

The whole idea behind the suggestion for revising the school year was to get greater use out of the existing facilities, spreading attendance over the entire year instead of having the total enrollment going to classes at the same time, with most of the buildings unused during the summer vacation period. It is known that the school age population of the Pointe district will increase considerably within the next few years, and the proposed change was suggested as a possible means of cutting down congested classrooms and perhaps eliminating the necessity to build more facilities to take care of the additional number of pupils.

For the simplest explanation of what might be accomplished by such a change, let's say the total number of students in the public school system is 1,000. Under the present system, all 1,000 are attending classes at the same time. Under the four-quarter system, ideally operated, one quarter of the students would be on vacation each quarter, so only 750 would be using the facilities now used by 1,000. But each would be attending classes the same number of days each calendar year, that they do now.

We don't know how much misunderstanding crept into the canvass, but the replies obtained furnished sufficient information to cause the Board of Education to abandon any plan for a change in the immediate future.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
On February 14th, a letter from the Grosse Pointe Board of Education was mailed to parents describing the proposed four-quarter system for Grosse Pointe Public Schools. As a parent and resident in Grosse Pointe for almost twenty years I have, more often than not, approved of the progressive approach to education here. The Board letter asking for an expression from parents of their feelings regarding a four-quarter system reinforced my previous approval.

The consideration of a much needed modern policy for school in urban life has been long in coming. The School Board, in effect, is recognizing that prolonging the centuries' old need for the youngster's help on the farm during the summer has long passed. I might add that because of the youth unemployment problem, teenagers have been idle thrust upon them for endless weeks each year. It seems unfair to these soon-to-be adults to allow them to waste away so much time when it could be put to their constructive use by going to school year around with adequate, but reduced vacation time in the summer. Further, are we so bound by tradition that we assume it must be the exception rather than the rule for a sixteen year old to successfully complete high school and be ready to enter college? This is one goal attainable with a four-quarter system.

I am for the School Board's consideration of a four-quarter system as I have indicated. However, I wonder how many other parents were frustrated by the return post card enclosed with the letter which stated, "If such a plan is developed, we should prefer our children to be out in," followed by four boxes marked Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer.

There was no room on the card for any other approach to a four-quarter system even though good suggestions were covered in the accompanying letter. Because the question card is inadequate, I feel that this well intentioned survey is worse than useless.

Sincerely,
W. S. Carleton
268 Moran Road

To the Editor:—

There is a bill to come before the House of Representatives in Washington soon to establish research centers at state colleges. (S.2) The Water Resources Research Act of 1964 is very important because of the serious water-related problems that lie ahead as U.S. population increases and industry becomes more widespread. The Act authorizes an annual appropriation to each state of funds to set up a qualified water resource institute or center at a land grant college or university and additional matching funds to support research by that institute. The Act also specifically states that each water institute has the duty "to provide for the training of hydro-scientists". It is important to attract young people to this field now. Another excellent feature is all "information, uses, products, processes, patents and other developments will be made freely available to the general public".

As a charter member of the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe and past Board member, this bill has high priority for me, because of its vital importance to the good health of our nation. If you too, are interested, write your Representative now.

Sincerely,
Harriette Slowin

What Goes On at Your Library
By Virginia Leonard

Last week I went to see Edward Albee's much-discussed WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF? at the Fisher Theater. I am just now recovering from the devastating impact of this powerful drama. One comes away from this play emotionally wrung — actually reeling from the punches it carries. In THE BEST PLAYS OF 1962-1963, the editor, Henry Hewes, claims that it is the only successful new American play of any importance, and we are not surprised that it won the Drama Critics Circle Award, not only as the best American play but as the best play (regardless of origin) of the season.

WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF? means "Who's afraid of the big, bad wolf?" which can further be translated as "Who's afraid of living life without props or false illusions?" To this end, the theater-goer is treated to three hours and twenty minutes of drunkenness (ever-increasing), reciprocal and fierce flagellation among and between two married couples; there is no let-up except to refill the glasses. Wherein, then, lies the appeal? And this question is especially pertinent if we feel that Albee's message consists of the fact that life is nothing, and that we must have the courage to face this emptiness without fear. Perhaps we are obscurely comforted that others also fall apart at the seams and natter at their husbands and wives; and here is an author with the courage to be more harshly articulate than we would dare to be. And though we dare to laugh at some of the lines, we are secretly suffering and guilty.

Here, indeed, is a tremendous play—and one that will not be easily forgotten. All of which has led me to thoughts of the contemporary theater. Who are some of the leading and significant modern playwrights, and which plays of theirs would you be apt to find available in our libraries? But before jumping into the field of individual writers, you might like to read Allan Lewis' THE CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, dealing with the significant playwrights of our time. Mr. Allan breaks the subject down into such areas as: the French theater, the theater of the absurd, the theater of socialist realism. Another overall approach would be the yearly series: THE BEST PLAYS OF . . . — the latest being the one for 1962-1963, and each being the Burns Mantle yearbook. Here the theater aficionado will find summaries of the seasons in New York and elsewhere, excerpts of the ten best plays and other theatrical information. Among the American playwrights, such well-known names as Maxwell Anderson, T. S. Eliot, Lillian Hellman and Walter and Jean Kerr appear. There is also William Gibson's THE MIRACLE WORKER, Lorraine Hansberry's A RAISIN IN THE SUN, Mark Harris' FRIEDMAN AND SON. And who could ever forget the provocative (and long-) title: OH DAD, POOR DAD, MAMMA'S HUNG YOU IN THE CLOSET AND I'M FEELIN' SO SAD by A. L. Kopit? Other names to reckon with are Arthur Miller (CRUCIBLE, DEATH OF A SALESMAN) and Tennessee Williams (NIGHT OF THE IGUANA, CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF, STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE).

Among the British playwrights, we could mention Robert Bolt (MAN FOR ALL SEASONS) Christopher Fry (THE LADY'S NOT FOR BURNING), Peter Shaffer (FIVE FINGER EXERCISE) Dylan Thomas (UNDER MILK WOOD) and Peter Ustinov (ROMANOFF AND JULIET). For a touch of the Irish we offer Sean O'Casey's BEHIND THE GREEN CURTAINS. Turning to the foreign authors, there is Bertold Brecht to represent the German stage. Three French writers are quite well represented in our libraries: Jean Anouilh, Albert Camus, and Jean-Paul Sartre. Who is not familiar with BECKET or THE LARK, CALIGULA and THE POSSESSED, or THE CONDEMNED OF ALTONA?

We have not meant to ignore some of the time-honored names in the theater such as Shaw, Ibsen, Strindberg, Chekhov or Pirandello. But the space and coverage of a columnist are bounded, and he must make certain arbitrary limitations; my term "contemporary" has not been as far-reaching as Lewis' is. But Allan Lewis' closing shall be mine: "Of all the arts, the theater brings man closest to himself to appraise his conquest over nature—for laughter, ridicule, or courage — and is thus the cultural pattern of a specific moment in history. And of all the arts, the theater, containing a bit of each, is most human, for its medium is people and its god is Dionysus, who, torn to bits and boiled in the caldron, miraculously returned whole and live."

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

With the Metropolitan Opera's visit to Detroit only a few months away, Pointers have music on their minds this spring, or aria-lovers who can't wait until May, and for ladies and gentlemen whose recitative recall is a bit rusty, "Overture to Opera III" is a perfect way to preview the anticipated performances.

Jointly sponsored by the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Oakland University, the University Center for Adult Education and the Detroit Public Library, "Overture to Opera III" presents excerpts from operas to be included in the Metropolitan's repertoire during its annual visit to Detroit's Masonic Temple Auditorium, May 25 through May 30.

The Grosse Pointe Education Committee, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. William D. Laurie, Jr., assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. John G. Garlinghouse and Mrs. Ferdinand H. Cinelli, has scheduled a performance of "Overture to Opera III" Tuesday, March 17, in Fries Auditorium, at 8:15 o'clock.

Included in the program, produced and directed by Dr. David DiChiera of Oakland University's music department, will be Act II, scene i, of "Aida," Act I, scenes ii and iii, of "Don Giovanni," Act I, scene ii, of "La Boheme," and the final scene from "Faust."

Committee members working to make the Pointe "Overture to Opera III" a success include Mrs. John C. Griffin, Mrs. Charles Kotcher, Mrs. Benjamin H. Long, Mrs. William C. Tost, Mrs. Wilbur H. Mack, Mrs. Mark Ethridge, Jr., Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Frank Donovan, Mrs. Edgar C. Howbert, Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr., and Mrs. Alfred Glancy, Jr.

Others are the Mesdames A. D. Wilkinson, Arthur Buhl, Jr., Herbert I. Lord, Alexander Wiener, W. Brace Krag, Alden Sibley and Charles Endicott.

Tickets for the March 17 performance of "Overture to Opera III" are available at Fries Auditorium box office Monday through Friday, from 9:30 o'clock until 12 noon. Price per ticket is $1, and mail orders will be accepted.

A sophomore at Grinnell, McConachie is a 1962 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

Lochmoor Club Sets Re-Opening Party

New Lounge Ready for Formal Dinner Dance this Saturday Evening to Mark Official Opening of Lochmoor's 1964 Season

GOONL, (Grand Opening of New Lounge), date is this Saturday, February 29, at Lochmoor Country Club, which will celebrate renovation and re-opening with a formal dinner dance.

Committee chairmen for the party, which begins at 7 o'clock with complimentary champagne and hors d'oeuvres, are Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Bonahoom, Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas R. Rove and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Venettis.

Future Planning Committee chairman Karl E. Schmidt and his pretty blond wife, Anne, are proud to announce that Lochmoor's cocktail lounge has been completely redecorated in traditional motif.

The walls have been treated with grass paper to blend with new soft green drapes and carpeting, and small round tables with captains' chairs upholstered in red leather are perfect for informal social gatherings and business meetings.

An original oil painting dated 1780 has been placed in back of the bar and a graceful new chandelier hangs from the ceiling.

It is pure coincidence, but the club scrapbook reads, "At 3 a.m. on February 26, 1924, fire destroyed the clubhouse. Seven employees escaped by jumping from the second floor into a snow bank. The water lines were frozen so the firemen just came to look."

"That same day the directors met and approved plans to rebuild. A member, W. B. Stratton, designed the new, 'present', clubhouse."

Now, 40 years later, on exactly the same date, February 26, completion date, Lochmoor will sparkle with a beautiful new room for members and their guests.

Some of those who have made early reservations for this Saturday's party are Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Bessert, the Albert P. Teetzels, Henry J. Oldenkamps, Alfred C. Munderlohns and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Kotcher.

Party Cookery Class to Dine

The Party Cookery course currently being offered on Monday evenings at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial by Mme. Charity Sucek will culminate Monday evening, March 9, with an elaborate buffet presented in the Crystal ballroom in co-operation with one of Detroit's finest gourmet establishments, "Little Harry's" restaurant.

As Mrs. Sucek says, "Surely there is no more practical and agreeable way to serve a large number of guests than the buffet, where the guests help themselves, or are helped by waiters, from an array of dishes displayed on a handsomely arranged table. This kind of service has the further advantage of being versatile. It can be adapted to any occasion, from very informal to the very formal."

Charity Sucek recalls the outstanding, formal cold buffets at the Ritz in Paris. She kept notebooks on the menu of complicated dishes including such specialties as Lobster en belleve, Poulette soufflee Vendome, Fricandeau de veau and fancy salads all dressed up with appropriate sauces. The desserts served were fairly simple as befits a lavish supper; pastries, petits fours, compote of fruit, and macedoine of fruit.

Mme. Sucek believes that a typical buffet menu might include a whole salmon mayonnaise, a ham mousse, cold roast poultry, a jellied vegetable salad and a pate. Tiny buttered rolls or bread and butter sandwiches are usual. For dessert simple preparations of fruit or perhaps a Sacher or Dobos torte.

She reminds you that a buffet must be as appetizing to look at as it is to eat. Beautiful linens, silver and crystal serving dishes, lighted candelabra, and flowers. Such an affair calls for the best table appointments the house can afford. Almost any dish, that does not have to be served at once may be served at a buffet. The success of such an evening of entertaining cannot be anything else but "magnifique."

Lessons in chafing dish cookery are offered Monday, March 2, at 8 o'clock at a cost of $2.75. The buffet supper on the ninth will begin at 7 o'clock followed by lecture demonstrations of the principle dishes. The cost for supper and lessons for this last session is $3.75.

Robert Giles To Claim Bride

At a family dinner, Dr. and Mrs. Carleton A. Smith of Bloomfield Hills, announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Louise, to Robert Scripps Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Giles, former residents of Grosse Pointe, now of Weston, Mass.

Miss Smith attended Mount Holyoke College and was graduated from the University of Michigan where she was a member of Delta Delta Sorority. She is presently residing in Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Mr. Giles is a graduate of the University of Michigan and was a member of Theta Xi Fraternity. He also attended Tuck Business School, Dartmouth College and in June will receive a Master's Degree in Public Relations from Boston University. Mr. Giles' grandfather was the late James Scripps Whitecomb, Treasurer of the Detroit News and a member of the city's Arts Commission.

An August wedding is planned.

...or so it seems, particularly when one lives in a community with over 20 separate flower/farm/garden associations, all with active memberships.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club, in the interests of "togetherness," has invited members of the Five Pointes Garden Club, the Sun Dialers Garden Club and the Harper Woods Garden Club to a silver tea next Tuesday, March 3, at 1 o'clock, at the Hospitality House in Kercheval avenue.

Hostesses for this "united" meeting will be Mrs. Arthur Hollinger, Mrs. Neil McDonald and Mrs. Clyde Dease.

Program chairman Mrs. John McCaughey has invited Mrs. Clarence McBryde, well known flower arranger and judge in the Detroit area, to show pictures of a vacation she enjoyed in the Orient. Japanese flower arrangements will be featured.

Tomorrow afternoon, Dr. Hugh Stalker, veteran of many garden association speaking engagements, will address members of the Village Garden Club at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Dr. Stalker's talk will follow lunch, preceded by the club's regular business meeting at 11 o'clock. Hostesses for this session include Mrs. Forest W. Manker, Mrs. Gayard Lafer, Mrs. K. W. Cunningham and Mrs. E. A. Wooten.

As Valentine Month...

...draws to a close, newlywed Dr. and Mrs. Millington Young are settling down to "normal" life in Maumee avenue. The pair were wed during the Holidays in the chapel of Bon Secours Hospital, where they first met—when Dr. Young, a widower, removed his (unknown at the time) bride-to-be's appendix!

Dr. and Mrs. Young were guests of honor at one of Mrs. Harold J. Waples' recent 7 to 11 o'clock mid-week suppers. Others at the party, which had a hearts and flowers motif, were Mr. and Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., Lawrence Hutchinson, Mrs. Joyce Stevenson and Miss Cecile Olschefskey.

OSU Women's Club

Members of the Ohio State University Women's Club of Detroit will sponsor a benefit dessert card party March 4 at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Proceeds will go to the University's Scholarship Houses.

April Bride

Picture by H. A. Powell Studios Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman, of Allard avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, ANNE MARIE, to SP/4 John C. Garthe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Garthe, of Traverse City, Mich.

Miss Hoffman, a graduate of Dominican High School, is presently employed in the Accounting Division of Parke, Davis and Company. Mr. Garthe is in the Army Element serving on the faculty at the Naval School of Music in Washington, D.C.

Patricia Toll To Wed in July

At a family brunch at the St. Clair Inn, the engagement of Patricia Eileen Toll, daughter of Mrs. Howard J. Toll, of Eastland Village drive, and the late Mr. Toll, to Robert K. Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Preston, of Maumee avenue, was announced.

Patricia will be graduated from Dental Hygiene courses at the University of Detroit, School of Dentistry, in May.

Her fiancé attended Ferris State College, where he was associated with Sigma Alpha Delta fraternity, and Wayne State University. He is now working in Detroit.

A July wedding is planned.

Dominican High Mothers To Hear Charm Expert

The next meeting of the Dominican High Mothers Club will be held on Wednesday, March 11, at 8 o'clock in the school cafeteria.

Miss Anne Culkins, originator of the Charm and Personality Course sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Women, will speak to the Mothers.

Miss Culkins has written two books about personality training and has spoken before 300,000 women throughout the United States.

THE TEST

Know your aptitudes—ability counts most doing the things you are capable of doing.

Park Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club members have scheduled their meeting day this month to avail themselves of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center Spring Lecture on March 6 at 11 a.m. at Fries Auditorium, and the luncheon following in the Crystal Ballroom.

The business meeting will be held in the afternoon at the Merriweather road home of Mrs. Howard Poppen, president of the club.

Judith Richards Weds Mr. Houston

Trip to Aspen, Colo., Follows Saturday Rites in Northminster Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Ill.; Pair to Live in Chicago

At a Saturday morning ceremony in Northminster Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Ill., Judith Virginia Richards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Hill Richards, of Cloverly road, spoke her marriage vows to Jay G. Houston.

The bride's gown, a white satin floor length sheath, was fashioned with a chapel train. Re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls trimmed the waistband, hem and flying back panel, while a white satin pillbox, edged in seed pearls, caught the bride's fingertip veil of French illusion.

She carried Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Marjorie Richards was her sister's only attendant, in a dress of American Beauty chiffon. Her flowers were white baby carnations with ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs.

Louis I. Houston, of New Rochelle, N.Y., and the late Mr. Houston, asked his brother-in-law, Daniel Cohen, to serve as best man. Ushers were James Dermody and Richard R. Christensen, of Chicago.

For the ceremony and reception in the Georgian Room of the Drake Hotel, Chicago, Mrs. Richards chose a gown of pale pink serge with matching accessories, and rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Cohen, sister of the bridegroom, wore pale blue silk with pink cymbidium orchids.

Following a wedding trip to Aspen, Colo., the newlyweds will make their home in Chicago.

Bridge Played By Newcomers

The Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club met for a Washington's Birthday Bridge Party last Saturday, February 22, at 8 o'clock, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Chairmen of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cooper, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Loomis and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison.

New residents of the Grosse Pointes who wish further information concerning Newcomers Club activities may contact Mr. and Mrs. William Peeler, Tuxedo 1-2885.

Orchid Expert Speaks Friday

Dr. Warren Stoutamire, of the Cranbrook Institute of Science, will lecture at 11 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, in Fries Auditorium. Dr. Stoutamire, whose topic is "Orchids, Native and Cultivated," is the second speaker in a series of three Spring Lectures, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

Many Pointers are interested in orchids, and among those who "grow their own" are Mr. and Mrs. William Teetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parker, the George Schemms and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher.

All lectures are complimentary to Garden Center members and guests. Reservations for the subscription luncheon, at $1.75 per person, which follows each talk must be made by the Wednesday before each lecture.

Paul DeTatis opened the series last Friday, with a talk on "Flower Arranging," and Mrs. Louis Dibble's discourse on "Design and Planting of a Small Garden or Terrace" next Friday, March 6, will bring the series to a close.

Mrs. Jay G. Houston

JUDITH VIRGINIA RICHARDS, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Hill Richards, of Cloverly road, became the bride of Mr. Houston, son of Mrs. Louis I. Houston, of New Rochelle, N.Y., and the late Mr. Houston, Saturday in Northminster Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Ill.

To Fete Kids At Hunt Club

Skating, hay rides, games, prizes, hot chocolate and "loads of fun" are on the agenda for Grosse Pointe Hunt Club youngsters, age 5 to 11, next Saturday afternoon, February 29, according to Walter Schmitt, children's party chairman.

That evening from 8 p.m. to midnight the teenagers of the Club will have their first teenage dance with a live band. The Discords, a 5-piece teenage band, will provide music for the informal affair.

In charge of arrangements for the dance are Annie Laurie Bachrach, Kathy Lilly, Pam Wrigley, Kathy Maschmeyer and Rene Cavanaugh.

DOOMED

Worthless is the man who tries to fix the blame for his shortcomings on the other fellow.

St. Paul Ladies To Hold Brunch

The Annual Lenten Mass and Brunch for members of the St. Paul Altar Society will be held at noon Monday, March 2. Monsignor McPhillips will offer a High Mass at which Altar Society members will receive Holy Communion. Brunch will be served in the Parish House, after Mass.

A short business meeting will be conducted by president, Mrs. John M. Murphy, and all members are urged to be present.

Hostess for the brunch will be Mrs. Jacob F. Wenzel, assisted by Mrs. John Glee, Mrs. John Clifford, Mrs. Ralph Burke, Mrs. Joseph Becker, Mrs. Nelson Taylor and Mrs. Larry Farnam; all of whom are wives of doctors in the Parish.

Polish Aid Society Installs New Officers

Mrs. Henry Shell, of Fontana lane, was installed as president of the Polish Aid Society at a luncheon in the Statler-Hilton Hotel on Tuesday, February 25.

Others assuming offices for 1964 are Mrs. Stanley Formanik, of Lake Shore lane, first vice president; Mrs. John Worzniak, of Berkshire road, second vice president; Mrs. Henry Pytell, of Lothrop road, financial secretary; Mrs. Richard Gamalski, of Warren, recording secretary; and Mrs. Frank Hodoski, of Dearborn, treasurer.

Members of the Board of Trustees are Mrs. Andrew Gadowski, Mrs. Alphonse Sawicki and Mrs. Simon Walkowiak. Mrs. John J. Barc will administer the oath. Mrs. Edmund Bitters and her co-chairman, Mrs. John Kaulubowski, are in charge of arrangements for this installation luncheon.

Chairman of the Society's Spring Luncheon party, to be held May 5 at the Hillcrest Country Club, is Mrs. Frank Worzniak, of Lennon avenue. Mrs. Stanley J. Tutag, of Cloverly road, has been appointed publicity chairman.

Dr. Helen Annis, a psychiatrist who has worked extensively with children and adults, addressed the Society's new officers and members at the February 25 luncheon, explaining the Society's newest charitable project, psychiatric consultations and psychological testing for youngsters at the Harper Community House in Detroit.

Father Jerome Shanahan, director of Catholic Youth Organization, was among the luncheon guests.

Goucher Alumnae Plan Theater Night

Proceeds from Benefit Performance of "Never Too Late" this Evening at Fisher Theater to be Used for Scholarships

Goucher Alumnae of Southeastern Michigan are sponsoring a theater party tonight, Thursday, February 27, at the Fisher.

Proceeds from the benefit performance of "Never Too Late" will go into the Scholarship Fund of the Goucher Alumnae Association, enabling students to begin and/or continue their education on the Baltimore, Md., college campus.

Chairman of arrangements for this evening is Mrs. George Zikakis, of Morningside Terrace, Birmingham. Among Pointers who have made early reservations for the benefit, an annual affair for Southeastern Michigan Goucher Alumnae Club members and their friends, are Mr. and Mrs. George Craighead, Mr. and Mrs. Buler Higbee, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Prince and Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Duncan, Jr. Others are Mr. and Mrs. T. R. McCleary, Mr. and Mrs. John Veech, the Mesdames A. Stansell Bush, Neil, Hammond, and John Failing, and Miss Margaret Ruth Smith.

Dinner Honors Rev. Johnson

At a special dinner held February 19, adults and children of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church gathered to bid farewell to their assistant minister and his wife, the Reverend and Mrs. Arnold D. Johnson, and their two children, Wendy and David.

Reverend Johnson has accepted a call as senior minister at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Grand Rapids, Mich. He came to the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church in October, 1957, where he has ministered to the youth of the church and been instrumental in developing and expanding youth programs for nearly seven years.

Born in West Haven, Conn., Mr. Johnson received his B.S. degree from New Haven State Teachers College and his Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree from Boston University School of Theology. His M.A. degree was obtained at Hartford Seminary, and he was ordained by the New Haven Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers in 1945. Mr. Johnson has served at Congregational churches in Plymouth, Conn., Meriden, Conn., Slatteryville, R.I., and Ivorytown, Conn.

Prior to the farewell dinner a Lenten Devotional Service was conducted by church layman Robert A. Choate, in which the youth and chancel choirs also participated. The program following dinner offered an entertaining evening of appreciation through testimonials and tributes from church members and church committees and boards.

A surprise 30-minute "This Is Your Life" presentation was then put on by the senior Pilgrim Fellowship youth group. Participating in the show were: — Scotty Gibson, Sylvia Rutledge, Mike Bradley, John Messing, Carolyn Worbois, John Ordon, Steven and John Cassens, Chuck Lampman, Jan and Jill Whittier, Bob Gonas, Ricky and John Blackburn, Chris Ramsey and Peg Oyaas.

The church committee responsible for organizing the surprise evening was chaired by Mrs. Donald Simmons and included her husband, Dr. Donald Simmons; Judge Theodore Bohn, William R. Brownell, of Congregational Churches and Ministers in 1945. Mr. Johnson has served at Congregational churches in Plymouth, Conn., Meriden, Conn., Slatteryville, R.I., and Ivorytown, Conn.

DACCW To Meet March 1 And 2

Christian unity and the areas of social tension will command the attention of delegates and guests to the 25th annual convention of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women March 1 and 2 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

For the second straight year the convention will follow a two-day format, opening Sunday, March 1, with a convention Mass to be celebrated in the Slav-Byzantine Rite at 5:30 o'clock in St. Aloysius Church. This will be followed at 7:15 o'clock by the annual convention banquet in the newly-completed banquet rooms of the Statler-Hilton at which the Most Reverend John A. Donovan, auxiliary bishop of Detroit will be the speaker.

Bishop Donovan will represent the Most Rev. John F. Dearden, Detroit's Archbishop, who is in Rome on official business.

Following 8 o'clock registration on Monday, women interested in specific committees will have an opportunity to participate in an hour of Round Table discussions beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the grand ballroom, involving committee chairmen and co-chairmen.

Four concurrent morning workshops beginning at 10:45 o'clock will concern themselves with new approaches to sanctity, the new liturgy and apostolic activity in both parish and community.

Sr. John N. LaBauve, of Indianapolis, a Divine Word Missionary priest, will address the 12:30 o'clock luncheon on "Christianity and the Racial Crisis."

While four morning workshops are being repeated from 2:30 to 4 o'clock, those who attended the morning sessions will be able to observe leadership training sessions for DACCW representatives and program chairmen.

The annual meeting is scheduled from 4:15 to 5:30 o'clock, with a highlight to be 10 two-minute talks by parish representatives on how they made successes of various committees during 1963.

The evening portion of the Monday program will get under way at 7 o'clock at a general session in the hotel grand ballroom in which a panel will discuss "Perspectives on Christian Reunion."

The panelists are Dr. Allen A. Zaun, minister of Jefferson Avenue United Presbyterian Church and immediate past president of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Walen, editor of the Western Michigan Catholic; and Harold Schachern, religious editor of The Detroit News.

1. Latin America: Our Problem?; 2. Christian Marriage — Fight for Survival; 3. Mental Health — Rather Than Mental Illness; 4. Youth and the Danger of Corruption; 5. Alcoholism — A Mounting Problem; 6. Catholic Education — Its Future.

Singers Plan Ladies' Night

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of the SPEBSQSA (Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America) is sponsoring its 19th Annual Ladies' Night on Saturday, February 29, at the St. Clair Shores Recreation Center on Jefferson near Nine Mile.

This event, which is the highlight of the organization's social activities for the year, is always well attended and offers an enjoyable evening of music, dining, and dancing, for those interested in Barbershop activities in this area.

Entertainment is provided by the Barbershoppers themselves — and songs by the Grosse Pointe Gleemen Chorus will be a high spot of the evening.

Those interested in Barbershop Harmony and an enjoyable experience in music, should contact the president of the group, Herb Reed, at 881-6323 for information.

The Chapter meets at 8:30 o'clock on the first and third Friday nights of the month, at Grosse Pointe Alger Post VFW, St. Paul and Neff.

Spring Bride

Others are: Circle Six, Mrs. Henry Kreider, of Kerby road; Circle Seven, Mrs. Walter A. McAdow, of McKinley avenue; Circle Eight, Mrs. Walter Pfau, of Berkshire road; Circle Nine, Mrs. Louis Duenweg, of Devonshire road; Circle Ten, Mrs. Gordon Green, of Grosse Pointe court; and Circle Eleven, Mrs. Bertram deH. Atwood, of Beverly place.

The March 4 Presbyterial meeting will be held at the Lake Shore Church in Jefferson avenue, St. Clair Shores, from 10 in the morning until 2:30 in the afternoon. Speaker William Whitledge plans to focus his talk on the theme, "Christian Education."

For reservations, call Mrs. Frank C. Raphael, (886-2448), by noon Monday, March 2. Transportation to and from the Lake Shore Church will be arranged.

To Hold Dance For Teenagers

Known as the "February Frugue," a dance for teenagers is being sponsored February 29 on the main floor of the Centennial House. An extremely informal affair, sweat shirts will be worn by both boys and girls.

The hours of the party are from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. and the admission is $1.50 per couple. Greg Hykes is arranging for a professional disc jockey, Don Zee of WXYZ to spin the latest platters. Also, several of the records will be given away as prizes.

Students working on the committee for this party included Betsy Hanson who is in charge of publicity; Pat John, arranging decorations; Chuck Nichol, refreshments; and Tom Bissell who is inviting Youth Council members' parents to serve as chaperones.

Center to Hold St. Pat Dance

All Irish lads and Colleenes are reminded that March is the month for St. Patrick celebrations and that the Grosse Pointe Center Club for young single adults is planning a St. Patrick's dance in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Crystal Ballroom on Friday evening March 6, from 9 until 12 o'clock.

Roston Clark's orchestra will play amid shamrocks and shillelahs. Green will very definitely be the color to be worn and refreshments will also take on the shamrock shape and hue.

This is the one time during Lent that whoopee is allowed, so the clay pipe set is asked to circle this date for a happy evening out.

Dates are not necessary for this function. The admission is $1.75 per person and those who are not Grosse Pointe residents are requested to come only as a guest of a resident.

SUMMARY OF MINUTES FEBRUARY 17, 1964

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M.

Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen William G. Butler, Henry E. Bodman, II, Thomas K. Fisher, William G. Kirby, Ledyard Mitchell, Jr. and Benjamin S. Warren, Jr.

Absent: None.

Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr. presided.

The minutes of the regular meeting of February 3, 1964, were approved as submitted.

An amendment to the Zoning Ordinance providing for the zoning of certain properties to a recreational district was enacted.

An application of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company, filed with the State Conservation Department for conveyance of a small parcel of filled in lake bottom land located at the SW corner of Lot 8, Assessors Grosse Pointe Farms Plat No. 1, was approved.

The following reports were received and ordered filed: Police, Fire and Building Departments and Controller's Report for the month of January, 1964; the report of the Fire Department for the calendar year 1963; a report summarizing the activities of the Fire Department for the year 1963 and the financial report of the General Fund for the period ending January 31, 1964.

A resolution was adopted setting the rate of pay for the members of the Board of Canvassers at $15.00 per day. Communications received from the Retirement System Commissions requesting the Council to appropriate the necessary funds for pensions and expenses in the 1964-65 Budget were received.

A communication from the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners, relative to methods which they propose to use to alleviate the emission of odors from the Sewer Pumping Station was received.

A report from the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee relative to their study for providing a swimming pool and harbor expansion at the Pier Park was received and the City Manager was authorized to employ W. B. Edwards, Civil Engineer, for the purpose of preparing estimates of costs for the construction of the swimming pool.

Mr. Wendell Baker, an operator at the Water Filtration Plant, was promoted to the rank of Chief Chemist to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Douglas Feben which will be effective March 31, 1964, and a resolution was adopted expressing appreciation to Mr. Feben for his excellent services to the City.

Payment of the following bills was approved:

A. Brenca Contractors, Inc., $18,706.95 as partial payment for work completed on the Water Filtration Plant.

B. Alban G. Brinkman, $8,550.20 as partial payment for mechanical work completed on the Municipal Building additions and alterations.

C. Begrow & Brown Architects, $825.00 as partial payment for architectural work rendered in connection with the Municipal Building additions and alterations.

D. Madias Brothers, $1,805.97 as payment in full for painting the steel sheeting at the Pier Park.

The City Manager was granted a 3 weeks leave of absence to permit him to travel to Europe.

On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:30 P.M.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS ORDAINS:

Paragraph 1. Article 2—"DEFINITIONS"—of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by adding thereto, under Section 2.7,—"DEFINITIONS PERTAINING TO BUILDING USE"—the following:

"Private Recreational Clubs: Private non-profit incorporated clubs of limited membership, organized and operated for strictly sport and recreational purposes. The building and parking plans for such shall be subject to review and approval by the City council initially and any substantial expansion or changes in such plans shall also be subject to the further approval of the City council.

Paragraph 2. Section 7.2, R1AA of Article 7, (Schedule of Regulations) of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 153, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the following:

"Strictly private incorporated clubs of limited membership organized for social, education, or athletic purposes, and all of whose other activities are incident to such purposes and are not a service customarily carried on as a business, if and when their charters or Articles of Association, the plans of the building and the membership are approved by the City council before such erection or use shall be begun or enlarged."

Paragraph 3. Article 7 (Schedule of Regulations), of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended by adding thereto a district classification to be known as Community Recreational District (CR) and incorporating therein the following regulations under the appropriate subsection:

Section 4. Article 8 (Zoning Map) of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, being Ordinance No. 158, enacted November 18, 1963, is hereby amended to create a Community Recreational District Zoning classification (CR) on the lands so indicated on Zoning Amendment Map No. 1 of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, which map is hereto attached and made a part of this ordinance. All notations, references and other information shown on said map are by this reference made a part of this ordinance as if the matter and information set forth on said map were in total fully described herein.

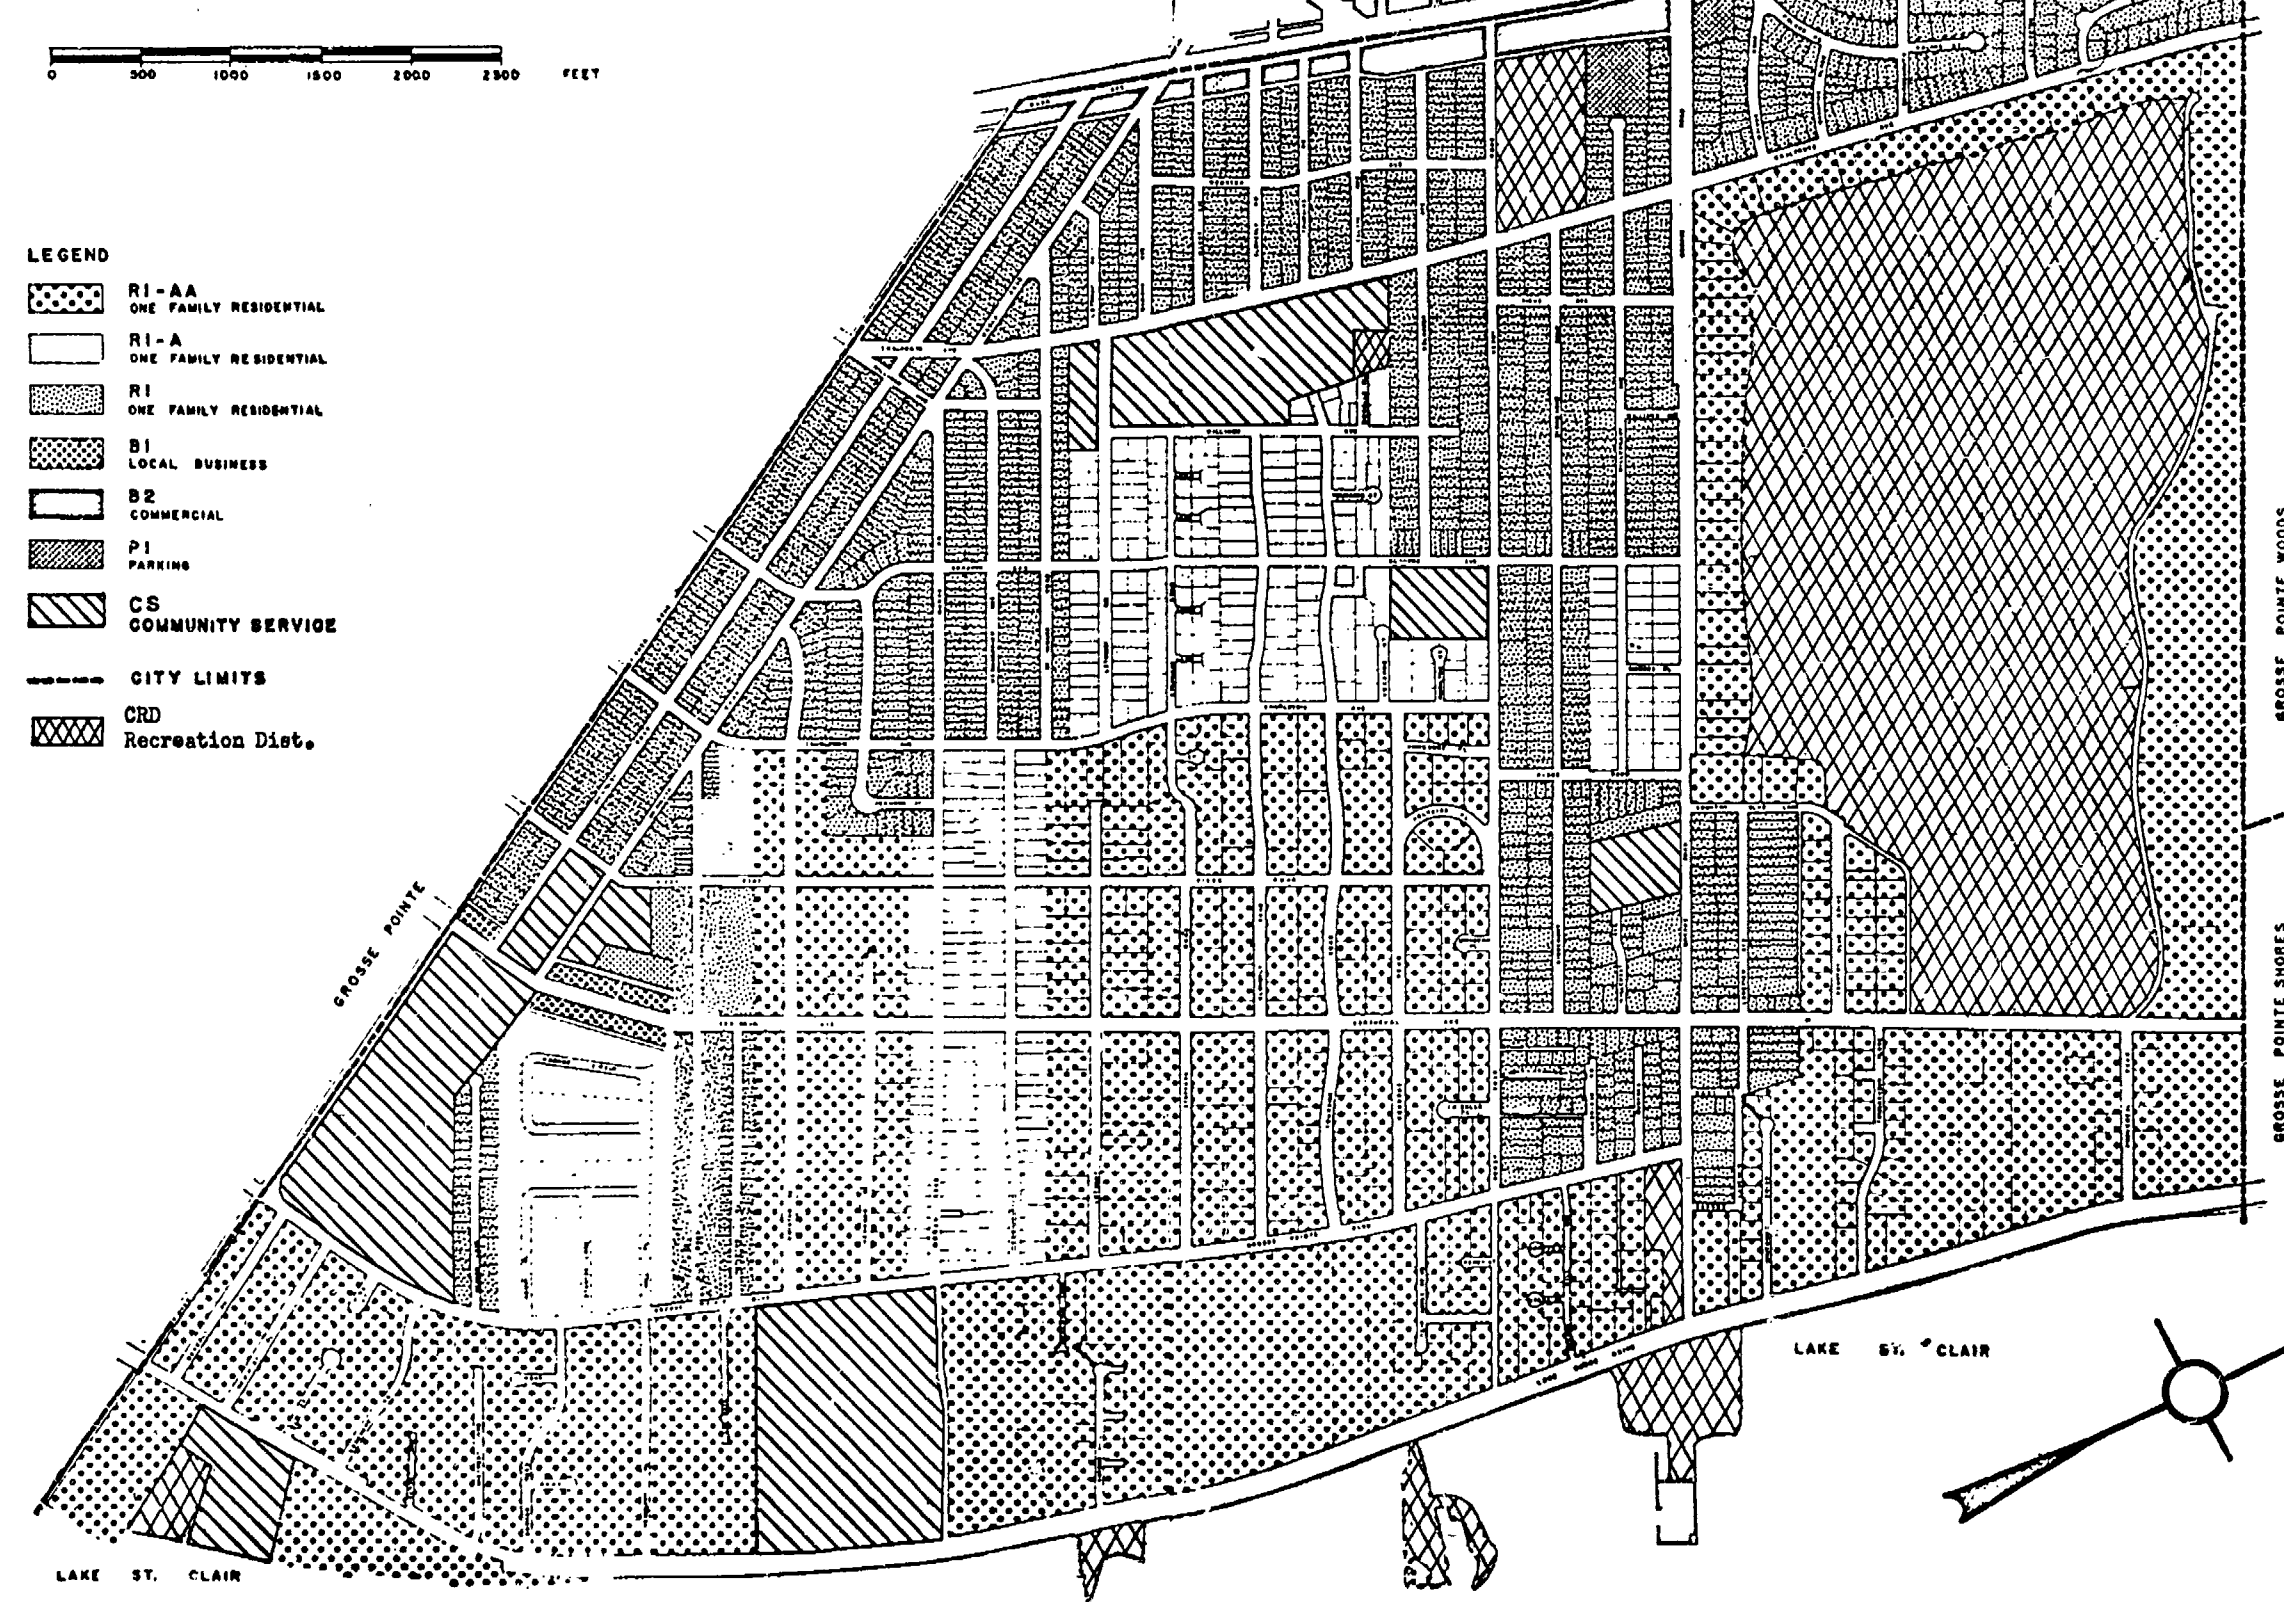

Section 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

FIRST OFFERING

ON BEAUTIFUL tree lined Oxford Road, and just a snowball's throw to the lake. What a perfect setting for this farm colonial, which has recently been added to our listings of quality homes. Built by the owner, who made certain that only the best went into the construction of this family home. Four immense bedrooms, and then elaborate maids quarters stretch over the three car garage. Call for a long list of extras.

AND BY APPOINTMENT

SUMPTUOUSLY SITUATED on a large lot which affords the ultimate in privacy and is serviced by underground sprinklers, this truly fine home is completely air conditioned. The ingenious second floor layout makes this house suitable for just a couple, but "expands" into five accessible bedrooms if required. The first floor plan includes a gracious foyer which gives access to the living, dining, and library rooms. Recently redecorated in pleasing colors which go with almost everything. As an added inducement there is an extra lot which "goes with or without," depending on what our buyer prefers.

FARM COLONIAL in the Farms with eighty feet frontage on one of the Pointe's most popular streets. Could be the ideal house for the family who desires just three bedrooms. Offered at $32,500.

LAKE ST. CLAIR is the backdrop from almost every room in this gracious home right on the water. Not at all overwhelming in size, but just right for the average family. Room for stay-in help if required. You will be surprised at the low offering price.

IF YOU HAVE BEEN looking for a four bedroom house in the Radnor Circle area, on the market . . . and you know they rarely come when they do they don't last long. While it lasts we have just such a home. Better call us now . . . tomorrow may be too late.

A CONTEMPORARY showplace in Deeplands, ultra, with the most modern in house gadgetry. All three bedrooms have their own baths. First level bedroom, and den leads to a secluded patio. Must be viewed inside to be full appreciated.

IMPOSSIBLE? almost in this location, but we now have for your inspection, a three-bedroom home in the Farms, which is just three minutes walk to Richard School and Hill Shopping. $21,500 is the amazingly low tag on this rare offering, on a street where most of the homes sell for thousands more.

COLONIAL

All the charm and gracious dignity of Colonial architecture is embodied in this fine home. Designed for family convenience with ample accommodations, and located among peaceful surroundings. Only a few hundred yards from Lake St. Clair, this property presents a picture of tranquility and security of which you can be justly proud.

It features a large living room, dining room, paneled library with fireplace, two powder rooms, breakfast room, terrace, four family bedrooms, three baths, a second floor study and very complete games and billiard room with fireplace. Servant's quarters are over the attached three car garage.

An irregular shaped lot with excellent planting and formal garden further enhance the setting of this unusually fine home.

CONTEMPORARY
Light, airy and cheerful, this fine home with built-in features is a delight to the home manager. Thermopane window walls at rear look onto deep, tree-studded garden. 4 twin-size bedrooms, (3 of which look onto garden) 2½ baths and library make this home ideal for the average size family that wants a choice "Farms" location.

Pointe ladies, interested in all the arts, seem to lean most heavily toward painting as "their" form of personal expression. Amateur oil and water color workers abound, and in the "professional" category we have several well-known woman artists, including V. Durbin (Mrs. Robert E.) Thibodeau, of Broadstone road, whose Retrospective Show of Portraiture, her fifth solo show, opens at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial March 7, with a preview tea scheduled that day from 3 to 5 o'clock. "Mrs. T." to countless History of Art students at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road, "Virginia" to friends, this talented lady's biography may be checked in "Who's Who of American Women" or "Who's Who of Michigan Women." For the past six years, she has exhibited in the Smithsonian Miniature Show, is regularly represented at the Artist's Market, Portrait's, Inc., in New York, and the Toledo Museum of Art, where she had a one-(wo)-man show, and has done likenesses of scores of Pointers, in oils and pastels. Of her pending exhibition, Mrs. Thibodeau remarks with a slight shudder, "Frankly, being retrospective, it will probably come as a shock to me!"

Another Pointe "professional," Helen (Mrs. Robert) White, of Doyle place, is represented in the Michigan Artists Show currently running at Grinnell Galleries. This artist, self-taught in oils, prefers land and seascapes, studied in Missouri and Kansas, and has work on display in two out-of-state galleries.

Come to think of it . . . Grosse Pointe can boast a goodly group of talented, "professional" women in the arts. Off-hand, Whoozit thinks of Elizabeth Howard, whose historical novels have delighted young adults for decades . . . the late Marcelline Hemingway Sanford . . . soprano Roma Riddell . . . Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, author . . . Mrs. Walter J. Burczyk, pianist . . . Readers who know other "professionals" are invited to call the NEWS this week; it might be interesting to see just how many authors/artists/musicians we HAVE hidden in our midst. Staff and shoppers at Trail's Apothecary Shop did TRIPLE-takes one recent Saturday afternoon, when George Brooks walked in with the world's most famous "nose." Yes, ladies and gentlemen, that WAS Jimmy Durante, Schnozzola himself, as delightful at the notions counter as he is on the stage.

It's still Christmas at the Daniel N. Kings' home in University place, where, according to "an old Irish custom," the tree doesn't come down 'til three months after December 25. Whoozit suggests Mr. and Mrs. King stretch an already-stretched point and replace the Christmas balls with decorated Easter eggs—thus becoming the first family in their neighborhood to welcome spring with an Easter Bush.

Interesting fact: Vickie Rose, in her senior year at Grosse Pointe High School, lived through 36 revolutions during a five-year residence in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Vickie moved to the Pointe last August. Whoozit wonders if she finds it dull.

PILFERINGS

A man had been convicted of a burglary charge on purely circumstantial evidence. Later, in appealing the case, the man's attorney was able to prove that his client had been in prison at the time of the crime for which he had just been convicted.

The appellate judge found the case so interesting that he had the man summoned before him. "Good heavens!" he exclaimed. "Why on earth didn't you tell that important fact at your first trial?" "I would have, your honor," the man explained, "but I thought it might prejudice the jury against me."

—Catholic Digest

The children of Church members had been invited to participate in ground-breaking ceremonies for a new Sunday-school building. Each youngster was allowed to turn over a small spadeful of dirt.

Late in the day, the grandfather of one little girl asked what had happened at Church that morning. "Well," she replied dejectedly, "we dug for a new Sunday school, but we didn't find it."

Old men are fond of giving good advice, to console themselves for being no longer in a position to give bad examples.

—La Rochefoucauld

Too much noise deafens us; too much light dazzles us; too much distance or too much proximity impedes vision; too much length or too much brevity of discourse obscures it; too much truth astonishes us.

—Pascal

Canteen Conversation

By Rick Mills

Lent means many things to many people. To some, it means a time of year when religious faith becomes more alive, a time of preparation, of greater devotion, of study and prayer. To others it is just another item in a long line of tiresome traditions which must be observed. How do you feel about it? What does Lent mean to you?

Bonnie Klein: "In our church there isn't much stress put upon the idea of giving up something for Lent. I do think, however, that it is meaningful to give up definite luxuries in order to remember how Christ suffered for us."

Jim Marquardt: "Lent is the season in which we prepare for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. If we give up something for Lent and then just forget about it, the season really doesn't have much meaning. If we truly give up things which mean a great deal to us personally, then it becomes a time to be grateful for Christ's suffering."

Linda Shaffer: "Sometimes Lent seems like a fad, just something that comes around once a year that we take part in because everyone else seems to. For people who see it in this respect, Lent really means nothing. If we give something up, we should do it as a personal sacrifice, and not because we want to conform. I haven't heard much about Lent among the kids at school. Usually everyone talks about what he has 'given up.' Observing Lent should mean that we have the personal conviction to live up to our sacrifices. Usually, we don't."

John Neale: "Lent is a season when you take some action which represents your faith and your religion. At this time of year people try to put their religious beliefs ahead of their worldly needs and ideas. Lent represents a personal sacrifice in gratitude for Christ's suffering for the world. Lent is taken more seriously by some than by others; it depends on the individual and his religious convictions. The season seems to pull things together for me, and gives more meaning and clarity to life."

These teens have presented their ideas on what Lent means to them. It may mean more or less to you. Lent's meaning for us is what we make it. Like every other experience in life, you get out of it what you put into it. It can be the period of preparation for the greatest Christian miracle, or it can be a meaningless tradition. The question under observation remains the same: What does Lent mean to you?

Pointes of Interest

MRS. LINCOLN MAIRE, of Hollywood Avenue

By Janet Mueller

Harriet W. Maire is officially retired as head of the Better Business Bureau's Shopping Department, but she still reads ads first, news item second, whenever she looks at a newspaper. This petite, sparkling lady who manages the white house with the green door at the corner of Hollywood and Mack avenues has had three careers—and enjoyed every one of them.

Armed with a B.S. degree in Home Economics from Iowa State University, Mrs. Maire came to Detroit in 1925 (to teach) Dietetics for two years at Cass Technical High School. Marriage to Detroit landscaper Lincoln Maire in 1928 put an end to Career Number One, and the next 14 years were devoted solely to Career Number Two, that of housewife and mother.

In 1942, Harriet Maire became interested, through a friend, in the work of the Better Business Bureau. Often, when the Bureau sends shoppers out to check on a particular item or complaint, it is necessary to send along a witness.

Mrs. Maire's friend, a part-time shopper for the Bureau, invited the ex-teacher and full-time homemaker to act as witness for an afternoon. That afternoon marked the start of Harriet Maire's Career Number Three.

On-Call Worker

She did not plunge immediately into an eight-hour-day-at-the-office routine. Her children, Linda and Roger, were still very young, and the Bureau's Shopping Department was small, maintaining an "on-call" staff of some four or five women.

When Mrs. Maire joined this on-call staff, she found herself busy . . . but not too busy. Directed to the downtown area, (suburban shopping centers, burgeoning in the past decade, have multiplied the Better Business Bureau's work), she would check out a complaint, come back to the main office, write her report, and be home in time for a late lunch. Fee for her services in the early '40's Fifty cents an hour!

As Detroit grew, so did the Better Business Bureau. In 1949, with both her children in High School, Harriet Maire accepted the position of Shopping Department full-time supervisor. At her retirement this past January, she was directing a staff of 10 to 15 Bureau shoppers.

Mrs. Maire laughs at the notion that Bureau shoppers are the Sherlock Holmes of the merchandising world. "It's just hard work," she says, "and much of it is routine."

Each Bureau Autonomous Detroit's Better Business Bureau—Better Business Bureaus exist in most major U.S. cities, but each is autonomous—is pledged to halt deception and fraud in advertising. A non-profit organization, the Bureau is organized in several divisions, including a Consumer's Division, where the harassed housewife, angry because her new automatic appliance does not operate "as advertised," can register a complaint.

The Shopping Department checks out each complaint, free of charge. Women, dressed as housewives, (which, usually, is exactly what they are), go to stores, shop for merchandise, make certain the product offered for sale corresponds, in every way, to the product advertised.

The Bureau does its own investigation, and "never takes anyone's word for anything," Mrs. Maire reports. Competitors' complaints are checked out, newspaper ads are scanned to make sure they make no exaggerated statements, ("the best merchandise in the city," "the biggest bicycle shop in the world," for example).

Harriet Maire recalls telephoning one man who billed himself as "the largest-dealer in Michigan." She told him it was an unprovable statement. "But I am the largest-dealer in Michigan," the injured advertiser replied, "I weigh 240 pounds!"

Shoppers Are Reporters

Bureau shoppers are actually reporters, "legmen" sent out to get the facts.

The Bureau has no legal recourse, depends entirely upon the cooperation of advertisers and advertising media in the Metropolitan Detroit area. Their support of the Bureau's findings and recommendations in the public interest is outstanding," Mrs. Maire states. "Few cities can boast such an effective program of business self-regulation."

Many times, according to Mrs. Maire, advertising managers are pleased to have the Bureau bring an inaccuracy or omission to their attention, as was the store owner who advertised "pearls for sale."

"Pearls," in an ad, must be identified, ("imitation," "fake," "simulated," "cultured," etc.). The advertiser, who wanted to sell cultured pearls, thanked the Bureau, admitting his ad would have "read" better if he had used the phrase "cultured pearls."

Papers Most Cooperative

Harriet Maire terms Detroit-area newspapers "amazingly" cooperative regarding false or misleading advertising. If an ad is openly false, the Bureau contacts the newspaper directly. If an ad is misleading, or tells a "half-truth," the Bureau contacts the advertiser. Files on chronic offenders are maintained, and newspapers have refused space to stores that adamantly disregard Bureau warnings.

In most instances however, according to Mrs. Maire, stores are happy to cooperate with the Bureau, realizing it is set up for the protection of the legitimate businessman as well as the consumer, and realizing that self-regulation is preferable, and more adult—than imposed regulation.

As head of the Shopping Department, Mrs. Maire was responsible for training shoppers, correlating complaints and reports, checking accuracy and channeling assignments. Occasionally, she would "go shopping" too.

"It seemed as if Friday afternoon was always my downfall," she laughs. "Something would come up, a complaint would have to be checked immediately, no one would be available . . . it was easier to go myself!"

Officially "retired" last January 17, Harriet Maire has already been back to "help out" at the Bureau. She enjoys returning to work for a day or two, but is "very content" at the Bureau. She enjoys returning to work for a day or two, but is "very content" with her new status, loves having time to herself for reading, (one of her favorite pastimes), or putting in the kitchen.

Avid "Sale Spotter"

She watches the newspapers, is a seasoned "sale spotter," and knows housewives can save themselves considerable time and money if they check advertising daily. As a working wife and mother, she admits to having been pressed for time.

"You have to do the important things and let the others go," she advises women who hold full-time jobs and maintain households. "Unless your job is exceptionally well paying, a housekeeper is prohibitive. Your family must take a lot of responsibility upon themselves."

During her "working years," Mrs. Maire purposely limited social activities, feeling her time at home should be devoted to her family. Most of her reading was done on the bus, going to and from work, and she looks forward to re-reading many of the classics she had not glanced at since college.

She leaves gardening to her husband, but admits "we are like the cobbler's children; our own garden is neglected." Mr. Maire's personal landscaping efforts have been directed toward the family farm near Pinckney, Mich., where the couple plan to retire together "some day."

One of her major interests is Relatives, Inc., an association for relatives of nervous and former mental patients which recognizes that the temperamental environment relatives provide for their nervous patients is an extremely important factor in either hastening or retarding their recovery, teaches relatives to "spot for themselves and wait for the patient," to accept and understand the patient's behavior as part of his illness, to avoid domination and to wait.

On the east side of Detroit, Relatives, Inc., meets at St. Michael's Episcopal Church once a week.

No Wish To Wander

Harriet Maire has no desire to go wandering around the world—although she did once almost get to Europe. Two years ago her daughter Linda, married Captain C. M. Stewart, a career officer in the Judge Advocate Department of the U.S. Army.

Linda met her Captain in Turkey, where she had gone as a teacher; the pair planned to wed in Switzerland, with the mother of the bride crossing the ocean for the ceremony, but a Cold War crisis intervened, and Captain Stewart was not sure he would be able to return to the "danger zone" with a dependent, (i.e., "wife") in tow.

So they were married in Turkey, and the mother of the bride sent her congratulations long-distance. Captain and Mrs. Stewart are stationed in Massachusetts now and Mrs. Maire hopes to visit them some time this year.

Although she planned and looked forward to her early retirement, Harriet Maire admits she will miss the excitement and rewarding activity of the Better Business Bureau Shopping Department. "It is unfortunate," she says, "that people cannot know the protection they get daily through the work of the Bureau. Much of its work is necessarily like the % of an iceberg that is under water."

Mrs. Maire and her Bureau shoppers, continually checking and helping beneath the surface, help keep the iceberg's visible % firm and clear.

KING GASPARILLA XLVII SALAD

Contributed by

Mrs. Harold J. Waples (from "The Gasparilla Cookbook," compiled by the Junior League of Tampa, Fla.)

- 2 large heads of lettuce
- 3 stalks celery
- 1/2 cup salted peanuts, finely chopped
- 4 strips crisp breakfast bacon
- 1 1/2 packages dried beef, well shredded
- 1 6-oz. jar processed bleu cheese

All ingredients should be cold before starting. Wash and shred lettuce, chop celery, mix in large salad bowl. Add peanuts. Add crumbled bacon, then dried beef. Toss well; stir in blue cheese dressing. Serves 6.

Note: For variety, use other leafy vegetables, carrots, cucumbers, tomatoes and onions, according to taste.

70 Children Giving Party

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater is putting the finishing touches on its tenth birthday presentation, "Annie Get Your Gun," which will take place Friday, February 28, Saturday, March 29, and Sunday, March 31 at the Fries Auditorium.

Tickets may be purchased at the Punch and Judy Toyland and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Students' tickets are 75c and adults', $1.25.

Seventy children will appear in the presentation, and they have been working several weeks getting the show into shape and working on the settings. Saturday, February 15, some 60 parents and their children held a benefit dinner at Bayview Yacht Club to raise money for the lights and stage microphones. They also had a preview of the show at that time.

Director and producer of the show is Mrs. Syd Reynolds; musical director is Mrs. Ruth Ann Justice, and Paul Keenan is choreographer. Mrs. John Mazer is in charge of make-up; Kit Dahling, lighting; Dan Borowicz, sound effects; Mrs. Ford Prince, posters; and Mrs. Laddy Rice and Mrs. Charles Slear, costumes.
