of the WEEK

JAMES R. HOFFA, Teamster president, was found guilty in Chattanooga, Tenn., Wednesday on two counts of tampering with the jury that tried him for labor conspiracy in Nashville in 1962. He faces a maximum jail term of 10 years, five years for each charge. If the conviction stands up, Hoffa could lose his job as Teamster president, and the Teamsters could be back in the AFL-CIO from which they were expelled as unredeemably corrupt.

THE DETROIT FEDERATION of TEACHERS said Wednesday that they are not interested in a Detroit Board of Education policy which would allow teachers to be represented jointly by two organizations. Under the plan, a Teachers' Representation Committee would represent both the Detroit Education Association and the DET in dealing with the school board. The plan was presented to the school board in an attempt to forestall the threatened strike by the teachers, voted on last week.

A COMMISSION on Urban Economic and Job Development as a clearing house for all Federal activity on city problems was proposed by Mayor Cavanagh said his idea received unanimous support from a subcommittee of the National Public Advisory Council of the Area Redevelopment Administration. Cavanagh is chairman of the subcommittee which met earlier in the week in Washington.

ROBERT S. McNAMARA, Defense Secretary, said Thursday that North Viet Nam has increased its supplies to Communist Viet Cong guerrillas in the last six months and is arming them with Red Chinese weapons. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, left last night for Honolulu and then Saigon for an evaluation of the war in South Viet Nam.

A DALLAS DETECTIVE, testifying in the trial of Jack Ruby, said that Ruby had commented to him, in reference to Ruby's shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, "Somebody had to take care of it—you guys couldn't do it." Another detective testified that Ruby told him that he had intended to fire three bullets into Oswald but that the police grabbed the gun after he had fired only one shot. The detectives were called by District Attorney Henry Wade in an attempt to prove that Oswald's murder was premeditated.

A 15-YEAR-OLD Detroit junior high school student described to police how he made a zip gun in his shop class, and then used the gun to shoot at another boy. Assistant Prosecutor William Hathaway said he would seek to have the boy tried as an adult on an assault charge. This case is only one of hundreds under investigation involving violence in the schools.

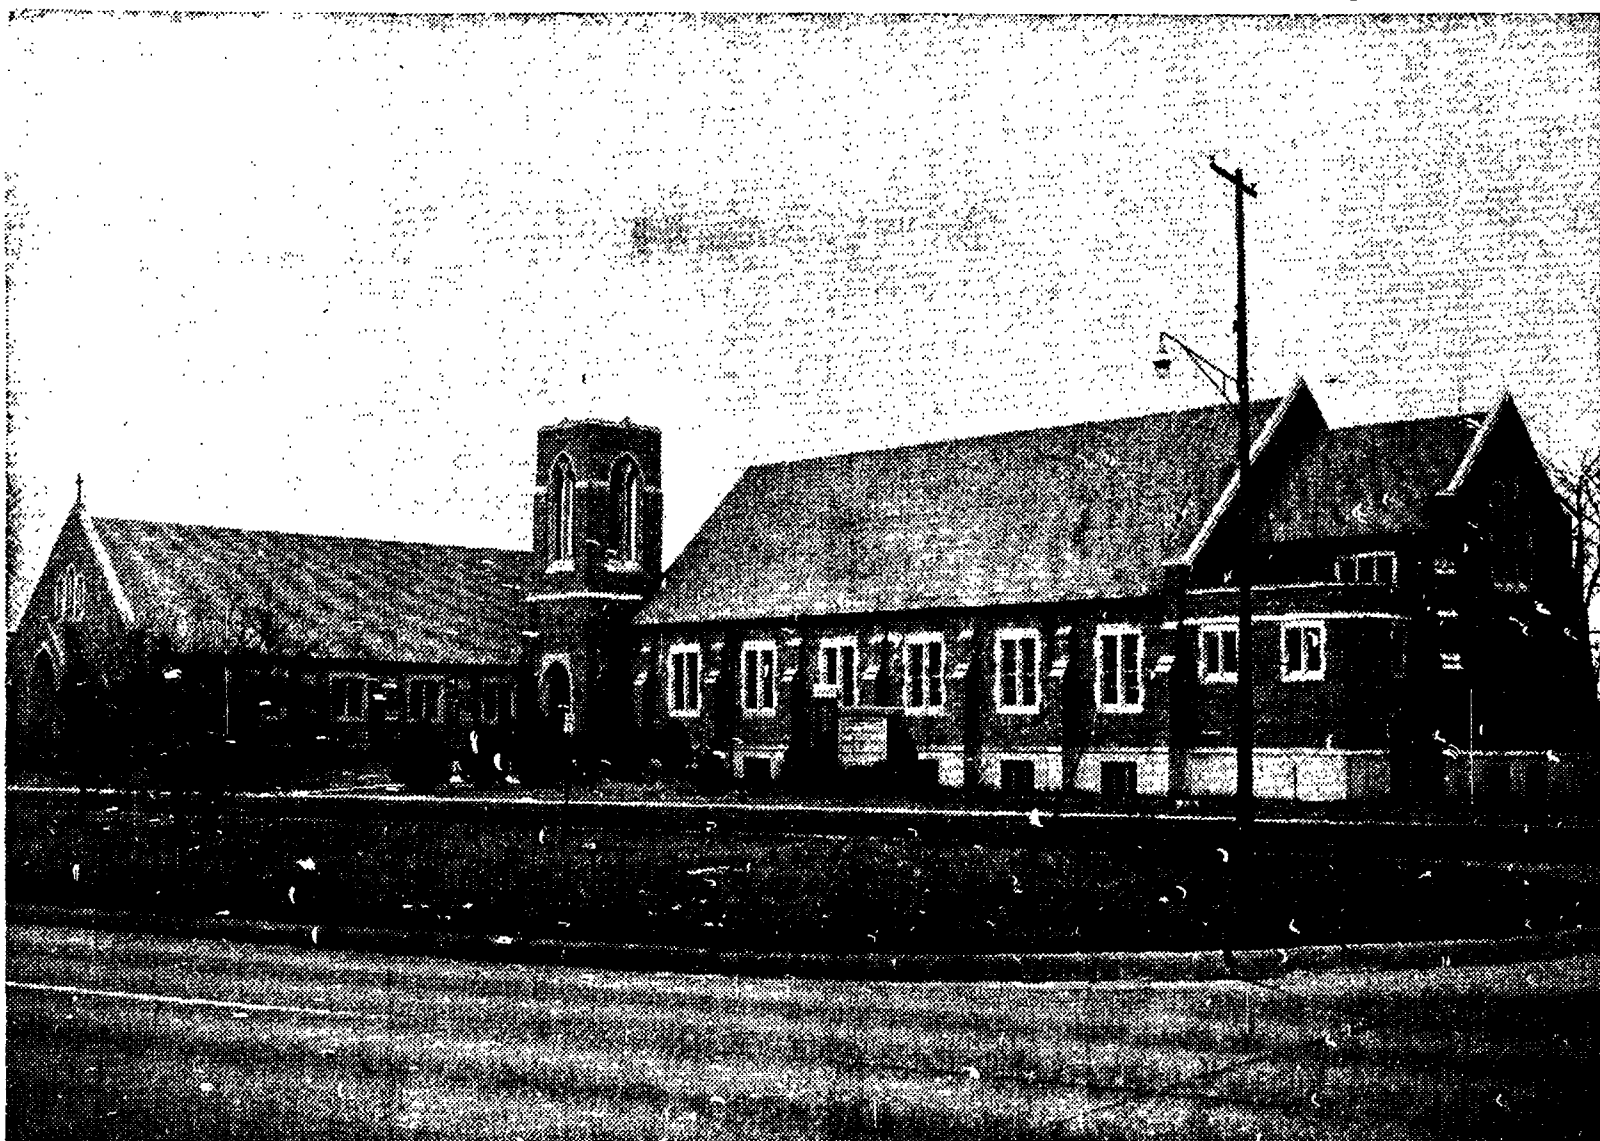

Saturday, March 7

SEVEN PRISONERS forced their way out of jail just 20 feet from the courtroom where Jack Ruby is on trial for murder in Dallas. One of the prisoners, Clarence Gregory, 20, was brandishing a fake gun which he had fashioned out of soap. He was captured outside the building along with three of the other prisoners. Three escaped. All seven were being held for armed robbery. They started their jailbreak from a sixth floor cell.

KING PAUL of Greece died Friday from post-operative complications. His wife, Queen Fredericka, was at the bedside of the 62-year-old monarch. Three hours later, their 23-year-old son, Crown Prince Constantine, was proclaimed King at the Royal Palace in Athens. King Paul ascended the throne in 1947, following the death of his brother, King George II. He was well known for his bravery.

Cars Tangle In City; One Rams Store

Four Taken to Hospital After Crash at Kercheval and Notre Dame; Pharmacy Damaged

Two cars collided at the intersection of Notre Dame and Kercheval at 2:44 a.m. March 9. Officers Duncan MacEachern and Gerard De Boever were cruising in the area when they observed the accident.

One car was completely on and over the sidewalk with the right front end partially into the front window of Notre Dame Pharmacy.

Lynn Jones of 708 St. Clair, the driver of the car, was sitting on the curb. He was badly cut and bleeding.

His passenger, Walter Knapchuck of 468 Notre Dame, was lying face down on the sidewalk and the officers heard him say, "They ran the red light," several times.

The other car involved in the accident was in the intersection when the officers arrived. The driver was Carlo Viviano of 1187 Copley, Detroit. He was in a phone booth trying to call the police. His passenger, Charles Thorn of 331 Mt. Vernon, was still in the car. He was bleeding about the head and face.

An ambulance took all four men to Bon Secours. The most seriously injured was Jones who was cut and suffering from

Christ the King Lutheran Church's New Structure Set to Serve Congregation

Dedicatory Ceremonies Scheduled for 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. This Sunday; Pastor Walter J. Geffert Will Preside

Originally, Christ the King Lutheran congregation held its workshop services in a "store" in Mack avenue. Then the congregation decided to erect a new chapel just across the street. This chapel has served as the house of worship for the past 10 years. Now Christ the King Lutheran Church is prepared to dedicate its brand new "permanent" house of worship.

The dedication is set for Sunday, March 15. There will be two dedicatory services. At the 10 a.m. service the building itself will be dedicated. At the 4 p.m. service the appointments and furnishings will be dedicated. A dinner will be served to all between the two services. The Reverend Dr. Paul A. Zimmerman will deliver the festival sermon in the 10 a.m. service. Dr. Zimmerman is the president of Concordia College in Ann Arbor, Mich. The preacher for the 4 p.m. service will be the Reverend Eugene Nissen. The Reverend Nissen is director of the department of Religion at Concordia College. Following the 4 p.m. service

Unitarians to Celebrate 25th Birthday at Banquet

A banquet on March 19 will mark the passing of the 25th year since the founding of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. Friends and members of the congregation will meet at 7 p.m. at the Fries Auditorium to honor the founders.

Highlights of the church's history will be presented in a "This is Our Life" program. Guest speaker will be Dr. Dana Greeley of Boston, president of the Unitarian Universalist Association. Dr. Greeley is a graduate of Harvard Divinity School, an author, traveler and lecturer. Last fall he completed a world tour, during which he met with liberal religious leaders in Asia and Europe to help strengthen inter-faith understanding. He visited the Vatican during the opening days of the Second Ecumenical Council as an official observer.

Past and present ministers, Mr. Merrill Otis and Mr. William Hammond, respectively, will take part in the program. Banquet chairman is Mrs. J. A. Herrmann. Assisting her will be Mesdames John Decker, E. J. Foxson, Roger Smith, Nelson Frolund, Stanley Smith, Herschel Reynolds, Henry Kohring, Richmond Smith and Allen Friewald.

there will be a light supper served.

At Mack and Lochmoor The new house of worship, located at Mack and Lochmoor avenues was designed by James B. Morison and built by William Demske. Virtually doubling the size of the former chapel, the new church measures 122 feet and 48 feet and incorporates a bell tower 50 feet high.

Following the Tudor Gothic style of the original chapel, the new edifice is faced in Tennessee ledge rock and finished in cut limestone. Laminated wood trusses and a plank ceiling emphasize the modified traditional architecture and create a most pleasant harmony with the chapel interior. The chancel is finished in shot swan limestone random ashlar.

More Windows Planned

In the chancel directly above the reredos is the Trinity stained-glass window. The center lancet depicts Christ the King in His royal robes wearing the kingly crown. The lancets on either side symbolize the Creator and the Holy Spirit.

Two additional windows are to be added to the chancel within a few weeks. The sacrament of Holy Baptism will be the subject for one, while the sacrament of Holy Communion will be depicted in the other. Designs for the stained-glass windows in the nave will be based on an iconography of the Apostles and other great men of the Church.

A unique feature to be added to the church interior is a specially designed Baptismal Font Cover. It will be octagonal in shape with tracery panels incorporating four carved rose and four carved lily motifs in alternate arrangement. With an overall height of six feet the cover is a miniature church spire complete with finials in the upper and lower sections.

Seating capacity of the new church is estimated at a comfortable 600. The Reverend Walter J. Geffert, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church, will perform the actual dedication ceremonies. He will be assisted by fellow clergy and officers of the church. The Reverend Geffert has served the congregation since 1945.

Plan Parade For Funds to Aid Crippled

Many Pointers to Take Part In House-to-House Canvass Scheduled for March 18

More than 13,500 volunteers will march in a family-to-family Easter Seal Parade on Wednesday, March 18, to rally support, both personal and financial for rehabilitation services for our community's crippled children and adults.

Area women—and men, too—will be working under the supervision of Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell, 1964 Easter Seal Parade chairman, and, of course, under the direction of Paul J. Abele, Easter Seal campaign chairman, in delivering Easter Seals to friends and neighbors.

They will point out that with 19 million crippled persons in America, one family in every five each year is affected by some form of crippling. Many of these people, children and adults, live in our Metropolitan Detroit area and require care and treatment to overcome handicaps caused by birth, by accident or as the result of illness.

To Explain Services

The volunteers will explain the services made available to Harper Woods and the five Grosse Pointes at its Therapy Center by the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, crippled persons in Detroit, 17330 Schaefer, through Easter Seal contributions.

Area section captains in Grosse Pointe woods are: Mrs. Donald Estler, 637 Rosedale N; Mrs. C. E. Warner, 1533 Blair.

Parking in Pointe Puts over Million Into City Coffers

Four Municipalities with Meters Have Grossed $1,219,812 since Coin Clutchers Were Introduced; Investments Also Large

The pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters used in the metered parking spaces in the Park, Farms, City and Woods, since the first meter was installed, have grossed more than one million dollars for the four communities, according to released official figures.

The figures showed that from 1951 through 1963, the Park grossed a total of $168,665; from 1956 through 1963, the Woods grossed $131,793; from November 15, 1949 through 1963, the Farms grossed $195,526; and from 1955 through 1963, the City grossed $722,828, a total of $1,219,812.

The four communities own a total of 1,873 parking meters, of which the Park has 230; the Woods, 432; the Farms, 400; and the City, 811. The Shores, strictly a residential community, has none.

City Floated Bonds

Of the four involved in the pay-for-parking business, the City is the only one that floated a bond issue, needed to raise funds for the development of off-street parking lots. The City's parking system is a complex one.

There are 279 on-street parking metered spaces in the City and 532 in three attendant-operated lots, and other unattended lots.

The National Garages operate the three managed lots, the first of which was officially opened on November 17, 1958, and take out of the gross receipts, so much per space, the salary of the personnel, and management fee allowance, etc.

Created Special Fund

To Face Courts In Two Pointes

Officers Duncan MacEachern and Gerald DeBoever of the City Police Department, while patrolling in the area of Loraine and Kercheval, March 8 at 3:20 a.m., observed a car on Loraine which was occupied with the lights cut.

An investigation revealed Freddie L. Mott, of 3346 Benson, Detroit, had in his possession open bottles of alcoholic beverages and several articles which he had allegedly stolen from parked cars in Grosse Pointe Shores.

He was taken to the City station and charged with possession of stolen articles. His car was held and he was put in jail in Grosse Pointe Woods because the cell at the City was already occupied and the Farms jail is under construction.

He was later turned over to the Shores Police Department and released on bond. He must appear in court in the City for possession of alcohol, and in the Shores court for theft.

Police Chief Andrew Teetaert stated that the apprehension by the officers possibly prevented further pilfering of cars in the City.

Pair Accused In Burglary Of Park Bar

Policemen Recall Stopping Driver, Passenger near Crime Scene; Arrest Follows

Two men, unsuccessful in one attempt to burglarize a Park bar, made a second try Friday morning, March 6, broke into the place and escaped with a large sum of money from a cash register. The pair were arrested "within 24 hours" and confessed to the crime.

Accused of burglarizing the Haesbrouck's Bar, 15119 Charlevoix, are James Blankenship, 19, of 3403 Denton avenue; and Glen A. Riley, 23, of 2455 Andrus, both of Hamtramck.

According to information released by Police Chief Arthur Louwers, entrance into the bar was gained by removing a plywood section from a skylight window in the roof. The pair took $327 in currency and change from a cash register behind the counter, the chief said.

Make Comparisons

Not only did Blankenship and Riley confess to the burglary, the chief said, but they also admitted that they were responsible for an unsuccessful attempt to break into the bar on February 23. The bar is owned by John Haesbrouck of 4521 Algonquin, Detroit.

On the first attempt, the pair sought to enter the bar by forcing a locked door at the rear of the building, but were frustrated by a steel door that closed off a storage space.

Unable to force the door, the alleged burglars then went to an old coal chute window at the side of the building, smashed the glass, but were again frustrated, this time by bricks that had been set to close the window opening.

Chief Louwers said that credit for the quick solution to the burglary is given to two members of his department, Police Sgt. Gordon Duncan and Patrolman Ralph Moore, whose alertness and memory led to the capture of Blankenship and Riley.

Officers Commended

The chief highly commended the two officers, not only because they responded to the initial call on the burglary, but prior to that, they recalled that they stopped a driver and his passenger at 2 a.m. Friday, and as a matter of routine, checked

Bon Secours Files Suit Against City

Claims Ordinance Prohibiting Expansion Violates State and U.S. Constitutions

The constitutionality of a Grosse Pointe City zoning ordinance is being tested by Bon Secours Hospital in a legal action. A civil suit filed in Wayne County Circuit Court on Tuesday by the hospital alleges that City Ordinance 96 deprives it of its property rights and is contrary to guarantees included in the constitutions of Michigan and the United States.

The contested ordinance is the basis upon which Bon Secours has been denied permission to carry out its plan for expansion.

Members of the City Council voted against the hospital's request for an exception to a building height limitation included in the ordinance. They also turned down a request that the strip of ground the hospital owns between Caroline and Jefferson be rezoned for off-street parking purposes. The Council's permission in both instances was required before the hospital could go ahead with its plan to expand.

Obtained Advisory Vote

The Council took its action following the general election in November. An advisory question, placed on the ballot by the Council, found a majority of those voting opposed to both the height limitation exception and the rezoning.

In its suit, the hospital noted that three new members were elected to the City Council in the general election and that "at the very first meeting of the said new City Council and without any further hearing for the benefit of the newly elected councilmen", the Council denied the hospital's petition.

The principal complaint of the hospital is that if Ordinance 96 is construed to prohibit further development of Bon Secours' property for hospital purposes, the ordinance would be "wholly arbitrary, unreasonable and invalid and would constitute an unwarranted deprivation of the plaintiff's property rights without due process of law."

According to the hospital's complaint, Ordinance 96 is contrary to the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U. S. Constitution and to Article II, Section 16 of the Michigan Constitution of 1908 and Article I, Section 17 of the new (1963) Michigan Constitution.

Church Deal Cited

In attacking the validity of Ordinance 96 as it is being applied in the expansion case, the hospital points out that despite the "purported prohibitions" of the ordinance and the "General Plan" of the City to exclude churches, schools and other institutions from locating south of Kercheval Avenue, the City since 1961 has permitted land south of Kercheval—within two blocks of the hospital—to be used for church and church school purposes. This was a reference to the City Council's controversy with the Unitarian Church. This dispute was resolved when the City traded some of its ground for property owned by the church and then permitted the church to plan to build in Maumee avenue across from the city buildings.

As defendants in the suit, the hospital names the City of Grosse Pointe; David E. Burgess in his capacity as Mayor of the City; and, in their capacities as Councilmen and members of the Board of Appeals on Zoning, Walter G. Huber, George N. Monro III, William L. Hurley, Ernest B. Kelly, G. Gordon Cook and William Day.

WATCH STOLEN

Mark Barlow, 14, of 290 Stephens road, complained to Farms police on Friday, March 6, that someone broke into his locker at St. Paul School, and stole his wrist watch, valued at $30.

Barlow said the watch was stolen from his locker at St. Paul School, and that he had been wearing it since it was given to him by his father.

Launch Program To Aid Retarded

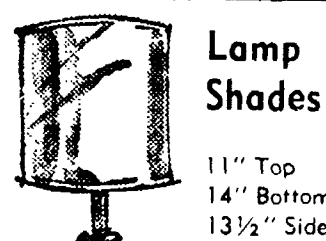

Area teenagers are spearheading a group of volunteers contributing their time and talent to an activity program for retarded children now underway at Brownell Jr. High School.

The Neighborhood Club of Grosse Pointe sponsors the program. Every Saturday morning at 9:30 these young adults are on hand to conduct a program aimed at helping the retarded develop recreational skills.

The project, according to Ed Krattl, director of the Neighborhood Club, is providing three hours a week of supervised physical recreation for the retarded youngster.

The individual attention of the volunteer is enabling the retarded child to acquire skills taken for granted by normal children, such as jumping rope, bouncing a ball, running a race, dancing, taking part in group and circle games and body exercise.

The teenage volunteers whose numbers have doubled in six weeks, are an essential part of the project and their patience, understanding and willingness to give freely of themselves is heartwarming.

As of March 31 of this year, there will be $315,000 outstanding bonds. The original amount of bonds issued in 1955 was $380,000. These are serial bonds with varying amounts due each year.

Beginning with the City's fiscal year, April 1, 1964, the amount due on these bonds in the 1964-65 budget will be $15,000 in principal and $9,550 in interest. The entire debt should be cleared by April 1, 1981.

Two Land Contracts

The City also has two land contracts on which it is paying. One, which originally had been $47,500, still has $38,000 outstanding, and should be retired by July 15, 1970. The other, for $50,000, must be paid by December 31, 1965.

Farms Appoints Four Canvassers

The Farms council has appointed four members, two each from the two major political parties, to serve on the Farms Board of Canvassers.

The appointments comply with the State House Bill No. 4, Public Act No. 65, which became effective last December 27, making it mandatory that a four-member Board of Canvassers be established in every community not withstanding any charter provision. Two members of the Board must be Republicans and two Democrats.

Appointed to serve for a term ending December 31, 1967, were: Earl I. Heenan, Jr., of 54 Touraine, a Detroit Mortgage and Realty company executive and Republican; and George E. Bushnell, Jr., of 285 McMillan, an attorney and Democrat.

Picked to serve a term ending December 31, 1966, were: M. Bernice Zilly of 380 Merriweather, a housewife and Republican; and Katherine Cable of 338 Merriweather, housewife and substitute teacher for the Detroit Board of Education, Democrat.

The canvassers are paid $15 a day to canvass the votes after an election. The project requires one day of work.

the companies that sold the meters, until the entire purchase price has been cleared. Of the three, the Woods is still owing on land and parking meters. From 1956 through 1963, the Woods spent $98,664.93 to acquire off-street parking facilities, and $28,266.87, for parking meters. To date, it has paid off a total of $95,350.33 on this debt, leaving a balance of $29,481.47 still due.

Simpler Operations

The Park and Farms have a much simpler operation, and all net revenues are put into General Funds, to be used for operation and maintenance of meters, parking lots (Farms only), the Park has no metered lots, and other facilities. These cities have no outstanding debts on these devices, owning them outright.

The Park has a total of 230 on-street parking meters. From the fiscal year 1951-52 through the fiscal year 1957-58, the city paid a total of $14,215 for new parking meters.

Farms Figures

From Farms Comptroller Carroll Lock, came this report:

The three pictures above illustrate one reason for their enthusiasm. The top car is a 1963 model... the center car is a 1962 Cadillac... and the lower car is four years old. The styling through the years has evolved and refined, but each is unmistakably a Cadillac.

These owners share a common knowledge. Not even most new motor cars offer the degree of pleasure and reliability that come with a previously owned Cadillac.

First, there is Cadillac's renowned craftsmanship, which results in a car of unusual endurance.

Next, consider value. The equipment on a Cadillac of older vintage is still extra cost on most new cars... and includes such features as Hydra-Matic, power steering, power brakes, power windows on most models... plus many Cadillac engineering advancements that still have not found their way into other new 1964 cars.

And don't overlook Cadillac's operating economy—comparable to many smaller cars.

So when you make your next motor car investment, consider only one name—Cadillac. New or used, there is no car more rewarding.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Woodrow W. Woody

Do you know who has made the longest hole-in-one in golf history? The record is held by a man who once was a major league baseball player! He is Lou Kretlow, a former American League pitcher. In 1961, Kretlow made a 427-yard hole-in-one at the Lake Hefner course in Oklahoma City. Most golf experts have called that the longest hole-in-one of all time.

It's not unusual for a baseball game to last three hours these days. But, do you know what the record is for the shortest 9-inning major league game of all-time? In 1919, the Giants and Phils actually played a 9-inning game in, believe it or not, only 51 minutes!

Did you know that the famous Indianapolis 500-mile Memorial Day race was not always a 500-mile event? Back in 1916, five years after the "500" was started, the president of the Indianapolis Speedway cut the distance to 300 miles because he felt a 500-mile race was too long to hold spectator interest!

Introducing New Pointe Teachers

With BS and MA degrees from Wayne State University, William Sosnowsky brings with him a background in practical experience as a teacher for two years at Amos School in Detroit, and as a psychological diagnostician for six years with the Detroit schools. Sosnowsky's special interests include philosophy, and literature for children and youth.

He and his wife make their home on Kensington road in Grosse Pointe Park. Their family consists of William, age 4, and Marynell, age 3. Sosnowsky's biography includes extensive service in the Navy. During a period of 5 years and 2 months, largely on aircraft carriers, he saw experience in many theaters of operation: off the Atlantic Coast, in the Antarctic, and in the Caribbean and Mediterranean areas.

Serving both Maier and Mason Elementary Schools in remedial reading is Mrs. Melva Myers. Although both her bachelor's and master's degrees were awarded by Bowling Green State University, she has also attended Wayne State and Western Reserve. During the last year she taught at Bowling Green as a graduate assistant. She has served as an instructor in three school districts in Ohio, in addition, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, residents of Harper Woods, are the parents of three sons, Douglas, 17, Lee, Jr., 15, and Thomas, 10.

Mrs. Florence M. Lightfoot, speech correctionist serving Trombly, Defer and Pierce, began her service to the local schools in January, 1963. Her bachelor's degree was awarded by Albion College, and her master's by Wayne State. She has done additional graduate work at Northwestern University and also taught there. Other experience includes two years with the public schools of Benton Harbor, Michigan. A daughter, Jane, age 7, is enrolled in grade 2 at Mason School.

LOSES WALLET

Guy Hamilton, Jr. of 29 Roslyn road, told Woods police on Tuesday, March 3, that while he was attending a meeting at Parcells Junior High School, he discovered his wallet missing. He said the billfold contained $120, operator's license, credit cards and personal papers.

Wild Chase Ends As Car Ditches

Robert G. Julie, 19, of 28216 Rockwood, St. Clair Shores, was chased by Woods police at speeds up to more than 90 miles an hour early Saturday morning, March 7. The youth lost control of the vehicle and skidded some distance in a ditch at the side of the road.

Patrolmen Thomas Kerving and Kenneth Carver said they were assisted by St. Clair Shores police who arrived after Julie went into the ditch and ended up in a school yard at Greater Mack and Trombly in St. Clair Shores.

Julie, the Woods officers said, admitted to the St. Clair Shores police that he was doing about 115 miles an hour. The youth had been drinking, the policemen said.

Kerving and Carver said that they observed Julie make a left turn from Van Antwerp north on Mack at high speed at about 3:46 a.m. The officers said they gave chase and paced Julie at 90 miles an hour between Vernier road and the north city limits.

The policemen said that they

Center to Show Holy Land Films

As a special program for Holy Week, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will present Mrs. Arlington Lecklider with her excellent pictures and commentary on the Holy Land and the Apostles' travels around the Mediterranean, on March 23, (Monday) at 8 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. Lecklider have visited the Holy Land twice recently. The first time they concentrated on Jordan where are located the Mount of Olives, Gethsemane, Calvary, and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre where the crucifixion took place. Side trips include the Jordan River valley, Jericho and Bethany where Lazarus was raised from the dead.

On their second trip the Leckliders visited Israel taking pictures of the Sea of Galilee, Nazareth and Capernaum.

Later the Leckliders follow with their camera the travels of the Apostles as they spread Christianity. They will show Damascus where St. Paul was lowered over the wall in a basket and viewers will be taken to Mars Hill where Paul preached in Athens. In Cypress where St. Mark, Barnabas, and Timothy went to evangelize, the audience will vicariously visit the spot where Barnabas died a martyr.

Then it's on to Egypt where St. Mark founded the Coptic religion but met his death in Alexandria from which the Christians smuggled his body to be buried in St. Mark's Cathedral, Venice.

Paul's journeys will be traced to Tyre and Sidon, to Malta, and finally to Rome. This illustrated review of the New Testament will be brought to a close in the town of Ephesus on the Island of Patmos where St. John wrote the Book of Revelation.

possible internal injuries. Both cars were towed away.

Jones and Viviano were ticketed for reckless driving and ordered to appear in court March 24.

Both Had Beers

When the accident occurred, Viviano was traveling east on Kercheval. He admitted having drunk about eight beers, and could not give officers an approximate position when he said the light turned green in his favor.

The driver of the other car, Jones, was driving south on Notre Dame. He said he had had two beers earlier in the evening and that he was about 150 feet north of Kercheval when the light turned green in his favor.

The two cars collided at the intersection, with the Jones car being forced over the curb and through the pharmacy window. Both the driver and passenger were thrown from the car and stated they did not remember anything from the time the light turned green until they found themselves on the sidewalk.

As of Tuesday, Jones was the only one of the four who was still in the hospital.

Pair Accused in Robbery

them out. The two had been stopped in the vicinity of the bar.

In a check with Detroit police, it was found that Riley was wanted by Detroit authorities on a traffic violation warrant, and he was released to police of that city.

When the call was received regarding the breakin of Haebrouck's Bar, Duncan and Moore responded, and after an initial investigation, recalled that they had stopped Blankenship and Riley a few hours earlier. The officers gave this information to Det. Lt. Arnold Hough and Det. James LaPratt, who had been assigned to the case.

Not at Home

The detectives went to the homes of Blankenship and Riley, to take them into custody for questioning, but did not find them in Hough and LaPratt went to the Hamtramck police station to ask for assistance in locating the pair.

En route back to their station, Hough and LaPratt were informed over the police radio that Hamtramck authorities had located Blankenship and were holding him at their station. The detectives returned and took custody of the man.

At the Park station, the detectives questioned Blankenship for hours, and the man finally broke down and confessed to the burglary of the bar, and named Riley as his accomplice. Hamtramck police arrested Riley at his home and released him to the Park authorities. Riley also confessed, the policemen said.

Quick Solution

"The burglary was discovered at about 4:34 a.m., by a janitor who arrived at the bar to begin cleaning operations," Chief Louwers said. "By 5:30 p.m., the same day, Blankenship and Riley were in custody, and later confessed to breaking into and robbing the bar," the chief added.

The chief said that the arrest of the pair indicated the fine team work existing between the Uniform Division and the Detective Bureau of his department.

A warrant charging Blankenship and Riley with breaking and entering in the nighttime, was obtained from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office by Hough and LaPratt on Monday, March 9.

Monday night, Blankenship and Riley were arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger. Both entered pleas of guilty to the burglary charge.

Judge Belanger set bond of $3,000 for Riley, and $2,000 for Blankenship, and remanded them to the Wayne County Jail, when they failed to post the bonds, to await a trial date in Circuit Court.

Josiah Harmar DAR To Meet March 21

The General Josiah Harmar Chapter of the D.A.R. will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Miss Sarah Davis, 12750 Northlawn, on Saturday, March 21, at 12:30 o'clock. Tea will be served by Miss Davis and her co-hostesses before the meeting. Reports on the State Conference in Grand Rapids will be given.

If we were to ask you what's fashionable, beautiful, brainy, thrifty and cooks superbly, you'd probably say, "the lady," and we'd have to tell you that isn't exactly what we had in mind.

Ladies who fit that description have been around for a long time. So what's new? Built-in Gas ranges designed with just such ladies in mind. Naturally a fashionable, thrifty, talented cook wants a range to match. How does a Gas range fill the bill? Perfectly.

The beautiful, high-fashion styling is obvious, of course. So is the remarkable economy that's a natural feature of Gas. And talk about brains! Only Gas ranges have them. The Burner-with-a-Brain makes top-of-the-range cooking automatic. The Oven-with-a-Brain automatically cooks whole meals and holds them till you're ready to serve.

And because of the clean blue flame, Gas ranges offer closed-door smokeless broiling, infinite degrees of temperature for infinitely better control, and exciting optional features.

Who cooks superbly? Ladies who cook with ranges that cook superbly. Modern Gas ranges. See them at dealer or Michigan Consolidated showrooms.

Pupils Vacation; Teachers At Curriculum Meetings

Secondary school pupils in the Grosse Pointe Public School System were dismissed on Wednesday afternoon, March 11, while all teachers gathered in the last of the special curriculum meetings scheduled for the current school year. In general, the plans were a continuation of those made earlier in the year.

Each department prepared a detailed and exhaustive agenda for the guidance of its teachers during the afternoon's conference.

Mrs. Florence Miller, junior high school English department head, reported that her group had the opportunity to view a film on "The Speaking Voice in the Teaching of Composition." It presented a somewhat different approach to the teaching of writing. Following discussion of it, the junior high school English teachers spent the balance of the afternoon reviewing their courses of study with an eye toward improving certain portions of the guides.

Robert Shover, departmental chairman for junior high school mathematics, reported that his teachers reviewed the courses of study for the seventh grade, as well as Mathematics I. Another group worked on the preparation of the eighth grade final examination, while still other teachers discussed improvements in the curriculum for Mathematics 9. General discussions preceded and followed each of the section meetings.

The junior and senior high school staffs in homemaking met in two groups. One worked on objectives and course content for units in clothing, grooming and related topics for eighth grade homemaking. A second reviewed the objectives and course content for food, time and money management, and family emergency units for the eighth grade offering.

The business education teachers planned long-range projects for the 1964-65 school year in addition to reviewing progress made this year. They heard a report from the bookkeeping staff regarding the availability of new textbooks.

Committee work consumed the balance of the time allotted on Wednesday. Miss Frances French, department head, reports.

Teachers of driver education began to revise and improve their present course of study. James Sando, coordinator of driver education, reports that the magnitude of the project has necessitated work beyond Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Stanley Cook, head of the English department at Grosse Pointe High School, states that his groups completed work on final examinations, reviewed texts and audio-visual materials for the coming year.

The foreign language department teachers set a variety of chores for themselves. Miss Ester Porter, reveals. Those in French at the junior high level met at Pierce, while those in the senior high school discussed the courses of study and the preparation of listening comprehension tests.

Instructors in German, Latin, Russian and Spanish continued to review their courses of study and examined new instructional materials. They spent time in the preparation of several improved examinations.

The departmental agenda for the industrial arts teachers indicated three major areas of consideration. Lewis Gray has stated that the requirements and basic fundamentals for Drafting I were reviewed. Also scheduled were discussions of architectural drafting at the high school and of ninth grade woodworking and metals.

Miss Bertha Schermer, mathematics department head at the high school, reports that her teachers were divided into seven groups to improve lesson plans, to examine instructional materials, to plan examinations, and to make decisions on textbooks.

John Finch reports that a course of study in music was a topic of the senior high school teachers, while those in junior high music explored a variety of problems related to their specific programs of instruction.

The physical education teachers worked on the coordination of facilities between boys' and girls' physical education departments for 1964-65. They also worked on plans for the honors award assembly, department head Frank Banach's report states.

Science department head Kenneth Cook has said that teachers in his field concentrated on a working outline in chemistry and physics, as well as a discussion of possibilities for different types of class organization, team-teaching, and provision for consultation and cooperation.

Miss Leona Weier, social studies department head, says that plans for teachers in government, economics, United States history and world history largely centered on a continuation of projects begun in December and February.

Charles M. Jorgensen reports that the art teachers' discussion centered on suggested activities and instructional techniques at the various grade levels in teaching concepts of color, line, shape, texture, value and perspective.

Department heads, coordinators, and administrators generally expressed satisfaction with the results of Wednesday's sessions.

Policemen Quit GP Park Force

Park Patrolman John L. Trombley submitted his resignation which will become effective on March 31. Police Chief Arthur Louvers disclosed on Monday, March 2.

Trombley is leaving the department to take up employment with a large excavating and tunneling firm. He had been on the force since July 29, 1955.

The officer is the second policeman to resign from the Park force within a few weeks.

George McDowell left on February 28, after being with the department since March 22, 1957, to become an insurance representative with the Detroit Auto Inter-Insurance Exchange (AIA).

GPUS to Have Trio Concert

Albert Tipton, Mary Norris and Mario Di Fiore join in a trio concert to be presented March 18 at the Grosse Pointe University School.

The performance will be a benefit for the American Field Service Foreign Student Program and is open to the public.

The Trio, consisting of flute, piano and cello, leaves shortly on an extended concert tour.

The concert begins at 8 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door or at the school office in advance.

Brownell School Doing Musical

A rousing musical satire written and produced by Brownell Junior High School, ninth grade students will be the feature attraction of the school's FTA meeting next Wednesday, March 18, beginning at 8 o'clock in the auditorium-gym.

Under the faculty direction of John Tousley and Jerry Keeney, assisted by Mrs. Susan Schultz, many student talent acts will be interwoven around the general theme of a whistle-stop campaign of a political candidate. Student writers who prepared the script were Suzanne Hetmanski, Todd Nouse, Gail Oldani, Lynda Ordon, Jeanne Russell, Debbie Scharf, Chris Syer, and Judy Walker.

The theme which opens the show is sung by the ninth grade chorus. "I'm Just Wild About Harvey," and is repeated at various intervals. Principal characters include Garry Brooks as Candidate Harvey Icewater; Linda Dunn as his wife Flo; John James as Jerry Pitcher, the campaign manager; and Mary Jane Dawson as Mary Drinker, secretary.

Harvey's campaign is outlined in humorous fashion, including a reception by the Old Ladies' Fan Club, a fund-raising dinner, and a campus question-and-answer session. Other students who play character parts are: Mary Lynn Chapel, as Harriet, leader of the Old Ladies' Fan Club; John Mathews, as the pompous mayor; Gary Lowman, as Duke, the Head Hobo; and Pete Renchard as the hotel clerk.

Talent acts include both group and individual performances. Four team dances are under the leadership of Pam Conner, Beth Johnson, Mary Lynn Chapel, and Debbie Scharf; while both a string ensemble and a mock German band will present instrumental numbers. Judy Walker and Judy Savage are collaborating on a piano duet, while piano soloists include Seth Bidwell, Chris Steyer, and Brent Buttery in numbers representing both Bach and Boogie.

Vocal artists will be Daneen Van Parys, Beth Johnson and Kit Wicke in popular numbers.

Knowing half your subject is not the solution—it's always the other half you need.

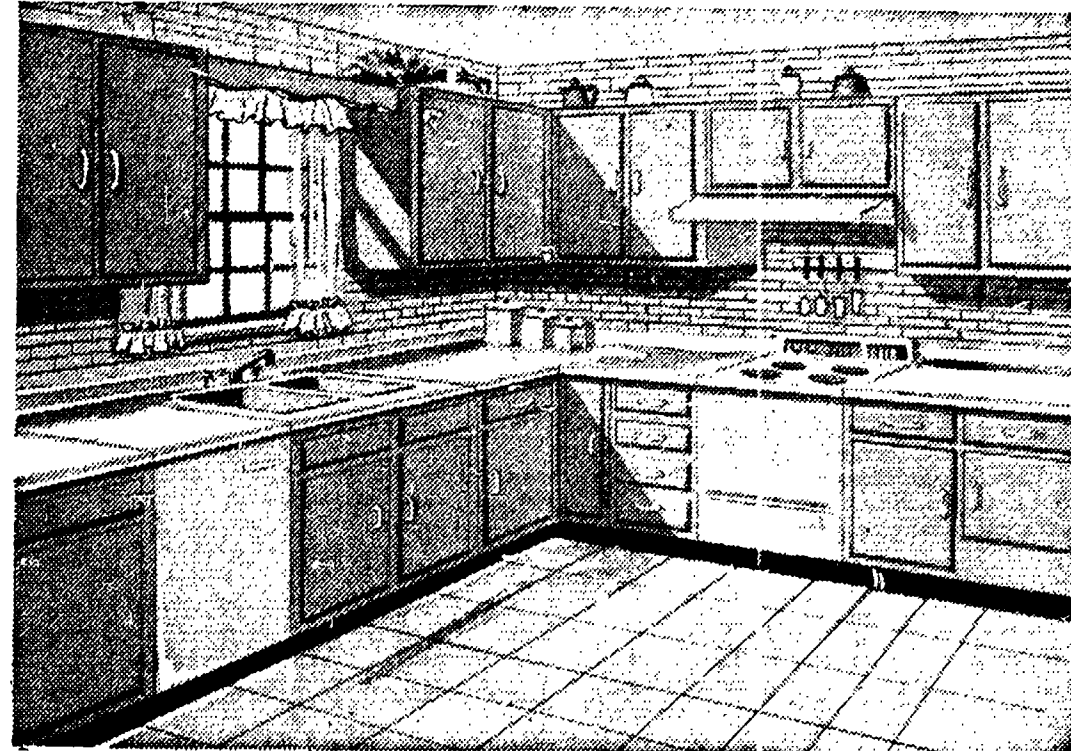

while Karen Ulmer will present an organ interpretation of "Nola." Two vocal groups will perform in scenes representing a hobo camp and a college campus, while the hit of the evening promises to be the Boy's Ballet.

The entire show, which is expected to be one hour in length, will also be presented to the student body in an all-school assembly on Tuesday morning, March 17. Parents, friends, and relatives are invited to the special performance the following evening. There is no charge for admission.

Clinic Benefits Settlement Area

A medical clinic for children in the Franklin settlement area of Detroit is being sponsored by several Grosse Pointe men and women.

The clinic was started last year by Dr. Osborne Coates of Shelden road for children who were entering kindergarten without having had a physical examination. Last year, 996 children at the Ralph Bunche School were examined.

This year, five schools in the area were selected, and all children with apparent physical or psychological defects are referred to the Board of Education, a clinic such as Receiving Hospital or a private physician. Some of the problems that are discovered are the need for dental care, seeing, hearing or speech defects, the need for a tonsilectomy, or obvious emotional disturbances.

The medical clinic is simply a screening process. No treatment is given by this group of volunteers. Medical director is Dr. Coates, and Mrs. Clifford Gray of Lakeland is clinic coordinator.

Library Survey Conducted Here

A survey was conducted recently at the request of the Michigan State Library as part of a state-wide public library survey. It covered February 10-18, eight days of operation for the three Grosse Pointe Public Libraries.

The survey questionnaires were filled out by 3,534 users, of whom 2,225 were female and 1,309 male; 60 percent were students, 1,164 high school, 819 elementary, and 169 college; 805 housewives — 92 percent of whom found library hours convenient.

Probably most important of all in answer to the question, "Did you get the information or material you wanted?" 75 percent marked "Yes," 25 percent marked "Partially," and 5 percent marked "No." Under "Purpose of Materials," 2,358 marked "Personal Use" and 2,084 "School Use."

While comments were not requested, 17 made critical notations; e.g. "not enough information on world and American history," and 5 made complimentary remarks. Fifty-eight wrote in remarks regarding hours: e.g. 19 requested Sunday opening, 19 later hours, 12 earlier hours and 3 Saturday evening.

On the whole, the survey indicates that the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries are being well used for reference purposes, and the borrowers are reasonably well satisfied with library hours and with material available. Since the public library is essentially a popular library, serving the day-to-day needs of Grosse Pointe as opposed to those of the specialist or research worker, it is considered encouraging to know that 95 percent found all or part of the materials desired.

One-third of all patrons using the public libraries are high school students. At the same time, the public library staff will continue to strengthen subject areas to try to provide for those who did not find all of the materials desired.

As yet there is no information of results of the state-wide survey. However, these local preliminary findings indicate that the Grosse Pointe Public Library is serving the community to a high degree of satisfaction.

Choir To Give Passion Service

A Passion Sunday Vesper Service of sacred music will be presented by the Chancel Choir of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, 211 Moross road, on March 15, at 4 o'clock.

The choir will sing "Hear My Prayer" by Felix Mendelssohn and "Easter Lessons and Carols" by Howard D. McKinney. The musical performance will be under the direction of Mrs. Robert W. Sutton, director-organist. The lessons will be read by the ministers of the church, the Rev. James D. Nixon and the Rev. Alfred T. Bamsey.

Solo parts will be sung by Mrs. John Scales, Mrs. Del Schneider, Mrs. Herbert Smith and Paul Reed.

The offering at this service will be used to establish a fund for new choir robes. A tea, in the church parlors, will follow the service.

Mrs. Kenneth Kimmel is chairman of the tea committee, assisted by Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Warren Moore. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Cub Pack 147 Holds Banquet

Parents and Cubs of Pack 147, which is sponsored by the Peter School P.T.A., held a pot-luck banquet at the school recently.

Earle Hoyt, Cub Master, introduced John Smith, new committee chairman to the group, who thanked those responsible for the evening's event.

Mrs. Betty Buffa and Mrs. Betty Macharague den mothers, had each of their dens put on a skit.

Highlight of the entertainment was a Pinewood Derby, a model car race with the cubs racing their own cars. The top two winners in each event were: "300" Class (H.P.), 1. Dave Costa; 2. Kurt Wilner. "400" Class: 1. Tim Hoyt; 2. Scotty Taber. "500" Class: 1. Jim Peat; 2. Dick Tidswell.

Louwers Speaks At Police Parley

Police Chief Arthur E. Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park spoke at a Law Enforcement Administrators Seminar which drew top police officials from cities in six states to Michigan State University March 4-6.

Chief Louwers moderated a panel on "Projects and Programs in Police-Community Relations" on Friday, March 6. Appearing on the panel were Supt. William A. Johnson of the Grand Rapids City Police, Chief Charles Pige of the East Lansing City Police and Robert H. Scott, assistant director of the Youth Division of the Michigan Department of Corrections.

The conference was devoted to improving police-community relations. Youth and minority problems received special attention. Top police officials from cities in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Wisconsin and North Dakota took part.

Cinema League Meets Tonight

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will have the 16mm Members' Movie Night at 8 p.m. this Thursday, March 12, in the Banquet Room of the Fries Auditorium.

This is the evening each spring when some of the members show short films to the other members and interested guests. These are usually quite varied and range in viewing time from 10 to 20 minutes each.

This year Dana Searle will present his film on "Lake St. Clair Boating, and Sinking of the Montrose." Miss Mildred Becker will then present her different and interesting film "Frustration."

Next, Mrs. Jack Doerr, Jr. will show "Halloween" as seen through the lens of her camera. Then there will be the spectacular beauty of "Colorado" by Miss Leona Weier.

George Leggett will show many of the beautiful colors of nature in his film "Southwest Country." The Grosse Pointe public is cordially invited to enjoy this evening with the members of the Cinema League.

St. James Choir To Give Cantata

The St. James Lutheran Chancel Choir will present a sacred Lenten cantata "Olivet to Calvary" at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 18.

The choir, directed by Carl Munzel, will have as women soloists Mrs. William Heller, Mrs. Heinz and Mrs. Evan Evans. Male soloists will be Keith Counsell, Tom Couser and Don Ulbrich. Don Bussarow of Bethany Lutheran will be guest organist.

Following the concert, a coffee hour will be held in the Green Room. The Miriam Group headed by Mrs. Armin Grams, will be hostesses. The public is invited to attend.

Garage and Car Damaged by Fire

A fire broke out in the garage at 714 Washington road March 3 and was reported to City police and fire departments at 4:53 a.m. by a neighbor.

Both fire trucks responded. At 5:05 a.m. the scout car requested assistance to control the traffic. By 5:14 a.m. the fire was under control, but firemen continued to extinguish flames for a total of one hour and 57 minutes.

When firemen arrived on the scene, they found one entire side of the garage and the roof ablaze. In order to remove the car, which was locked, from the garage, they had to break the window on the driver's side. The heat was so intense, that a vacuum had built up inside the car and when the window was broken, the suction broke the rear window causing it to break and fall inside the car. Firemen were fearful of starting the car, so they pushed it out into the driveway, but it was damaged to the extent that most of the paint had been burned off.

The fire apparently started from some unidentified combustible material which had been placed near the door. The entire garage was charred and the damage has not yet been estimated. The matter is in the hands of the insurance company. The garage is owned by Richard Zenker of the Washington road address.

PLAN POLISH CONCERT
The Detroit Symphony Orchestra in conjunction with the Lutnia Singing Society will present a special concert of Polish music on Sunday, March 15, at 5 p.m. in Ford Auditorium. The program will be dedicated to the University of Krakow, which is celebrating its 600th anniversary this year. Valtor Poole will conduct, and Raymond Gniewek will be Violin soloist.

Police Arrest Young Vandals

Three 16-year-old Detroit boys were arrested by Park police and accused of destroying public property on Saturday, March 7. They were placed on probation to the Detective Bureau until further investigation is completed.

The boys were arrested by Patrolman Bobby McAlister, when a complaint was received that three unknown boys were observed bending no parking and stop signs on Beaconsfield, between Jefferson and Fairfax.

McAlister, who was assigned to investigate the matter, worked without any clues to the identities of the youths, but after checking various neighborhoods and asking questions, he established the boys lived in Lakewood avenue in Detroit. He traced the boys to their homes and arrested them and took them to the Park station.

At the station, the boys, accompanied by their parents, were told they would have to make restitution for the damages they caused. Damage was set at approximately $50, it was disclosed.

Following the appearance in the station, the boys were released to their parents and placed on unofficial probation to the Detective Bureau, until it is determined what will be done further in the matter.

April Family Affairs Month

The Mayor and Council of the City of Grosse Pointe have proclaimed April Family Affairs Month, and urge all civic-minded citizens to cooperate in this effort.

The four professions having to do with financial planning—lawyers, certified public accountants, bankers, and insurance men—have united to institute a public service program to call attention to the need for adequate financial planning.

They recognize the hardship which may result to families from poorly conceived or inadequate insurance programs, outdated wills or wills not made, faulty tax planning, or even through a mistaken notion of a family's net worth.

All aspects of a family's plan for financial security are involved, such as knowing which records are important and informing the family where these records are kept, balancing what the family owns against what it owes; reviewing insurance, taxes, deeds, mortgages and other important data, planning retirement income in the light of present savings, investments, pension, and social security, and having a proper will drawn.

Camera Club Meets Mar. 17

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS
A grim reminder of the spiraling increases in traffic deaths and injuries in Michigan was reflected in the number of vehicle accident reports turned in to the Department of State during 1963. Records released by Secretary of State James M. Hare revealed the 164,000 accident reports were nearly 10,000 more than the number filed in 1962.

Little League Set to Register

Registration for The Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League will take place next week on Wednesday, March 18, at Parcels Junior High School.

The registration co-chairmen John McClain and Don Wood have announced that the registration will begin at 6 p.m. and close at 9 p.m.

This year a new role is in effect that all boys wishing to play, whether new or holdovers from last years major league teams must fill out registration cards.

Although last year was the biggest season in Woods-Shores Little League Baseball, the Board of Governors expect this 11th season to surpass last year's record-breaking participation by approaching a registration of nearly 880 boys. In order to handle this anticipated record number of boys, the chairmen have announced that the following rules will apply for this registration:

1. Both parents must sign the registration card.
2. Birth certificates (or similar birth documents) must be presented.
3. Boys born between August 1, 1961, and July 31, 1966, may register.
4. Registration contribution is $5 per boy, or $8 per family.

Emmett Baratta, E. H. Meyers, and Bill Richardson, chairmen of the Sponsors Committee are still looking for more team or partial team sponsors. In order to help defray the large cost of operating all the five leagues, they are extending a special invitation to all parents to become a "Parent Sponsor" by making a contribution.

Heart-Stopper Ends Devil Hopes in State Tourney

Time ran out on the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils last Thursday night and the 1953-64 basketball season ended with a heart-stopping 61-60 defeat to Notre Dame in the District State Tournament at East Detroit.

The Devils fell behind at the beginning and spent the rest of the game catching up. The final score was the closest they came after falling behind 4-2 in the first seconds of the game.

Seniors Rod Luzi and Mike Bielawski, playing their last basketball game in a Grosse Pointe uniform, again led the Devil cause, scoring 23 and 18 points respectively. The two have been outstanding throughout the season in leading their team.

Notre Dame led at the end of the first quarter, 14-9. They ripped off 10 straight points to open the second quarter, making the score 24-9, and it looked as if the game was over. Grosse Pointe coach Chuck Hollosy called time out and when play resumed Luzi scored five quick points to close the gap. By halftime the Devils had led the lead at 35-28. Luzi scored 15 first-half points, 12 in the second quarter comeback.

In the third quarter Bielawski took over, scoring nine points as the Devils outscored their opponent 18-16. During the quarter the Devils fell behind by as much as 12 points, 50-38, but

Church Cagers Face Play-offs

Last week saw the completion of the regular season of the Grosse Pointe Church Basketball League. This Saturday will find both the B League and C League engaged in play-offs to determine the over-all champions of each league.

St. James will play Congregational in the B League and St. Paul No. 1 will play Grosse Pointe Memorial in the C Division.

In last week's games Woods Presbyterian continued to show improvement as they defeated Congregational 38-34. Schuler and Chouinard led Woods with 12 and 11 respectively while Maxon of Congregational was the game's top scorer with 13 points.

In another game Memorial beat St. Paul 43-20. In this game Pete Moore of Memorial hit for 31 points, the highest total for any player during the season. John Crowther led St. Paul with seven.

In the final game St. James completed their undefeated season with a 46-24 conquest of Christ Church. Shriver and Hassik each collected 14 for St. James while Ted Jacobs led Christ Church with 12 points.

C League
In the C Division this past week Grosse Pointe Memorial defeated a rapidly improving Congregational team by a close margin of 18-17. It was one of the most exciting games of the season. With just three seconds remaining in the game Mike McMillin hit a free throw to give Memorial the lead for the first time—and the game. For Congregational both Welling and Bellows played well. They scored 6 and 8 points respectively. McMillin led all scorers with 11.

In another game Christ Church put on a dazzling display of scoring as they rolled to a 57-29 victory over Woods Presbyterian. Lehman had an outstanding day for Christ Church with 21 points. Hubbard, Cox and Canfield also helped the cause by adding 12, 11, and 9 points respectively.

In the final game St. Paul No. 1 stretched their winning streak to seven as they whipped St. Paul No. 2 31-9. Once again St. Paul No. 1 showed balanced scoring as eight players scored. Messacar, Reisman, Rem, Tocco, and Allard all had fine games.

Little Leaguers Must Register

The 13th season of Little League baseball in the City of Grosse Pointe will officially get under way with registration, scheduled for March 20 and 21. All boys who are residents of the City and were born between August 1, 1951 and July 31, 1955 are eligible to play.

All boys must register regardless of whether they have played in the past or not. The signature of a parent or guardian is required and birth certificates must be provided.

Last year 220 boys played Little League baseball in the City and registration this year is expected to reach record-breaking 250 boys.

The League officers for this year are E. B. Kelly, Jr., president; Lawrence F. Smith, vice president; H. R. Chapel, treasurer; and John C. Donnelly, secretary. Volunteer parents are needed for coaching and other League duties. For further information call Fred Jahn, player agent, at TU 4-4392 or Ernie Kelly at TU 5-2413.

Loop Picks Date For Registration

Saturday, March 21, will be registration day for the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League. Registration will be in the main lobby of Parcels Junior High School from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

All boys between the ages of 13 and 15 who wish to participate in this year's league activities, whether they have played last year or not, must register. All boys are required to bring their birth certificate and the $7.50 registration fee.

During the regularly scheduled season a 13-Year-Old League will be formed, in addition to the Automotive and All American Leagues, to give these younger boys more playing experience.

The names in each league and the names of their managers are:

Automotive League: Dick Green; Chrysler-Plymouth, Jim Burns; Dick Shalla Chevrolet; George Sinning; Jim Causey Pontiac; Jim Law; Roy O'Brien Ford; Dave Marsteller; Richard Buick; Stan Loeffler; Grosse Pointe Rambler, Norm Blohm.

ALL-AMERICAN LEAGUE: Dobbie Lumber Phillips, Don Cantle; City Messenger Indians, Mike Sant; Boutin Realty Redlegs, Jim Green; Mutual Trust Yankees, Unassigned; St. Louis Cardinals, Unassigned; Boston Red Sox, Unassigned.

Managers Don Cantle and Dave Marsteller are the leagues' representatives to the Board of Governors. Ziggy Mrowczynski was recently elected to the Board of Governors. He will handle the Candy Sale and will supervise the scores and records duties for all games.

St. Paul Lakers Make Regionals

On Tuesday night, March 2, the Grosse Pointe St. Paul basketball team routed Detroit St. Rita by a score of 65-38. Senior guard Jim Bigham led all scorers with 19 points.

Saturday, March 7th the Lake squad won its 10th District Championship by defeating St. Clair Shores St. Gertrude by a score of 56-31. Bob Martin and Jim Bigham led St. Paul's with 13 points each.

On Tuesday, March 10, the St. Paul squad traveled to Birmingham Seashore where they were to encounter Detroit St. Thomas. This was the first regional game.

The winner of this game will play Detroit St. Charles Thursday night, March 12.

going into the final stanza the score was 51-46.

After a Notre Dame basket opening the fourth quarter, two free throws by Luzi and a jump shot by junior guard Charley Bruce cut the difference to 53-50, the smallest gap since early in the first quarter. But

Notre Dame widened its lead to 57-50 on a pair of free throws and a basket. With 2:30 to go and the score 57-50, there was another time out and Coach Hollosy again popped up his team.

Sophomore Bob Miller scored, as did Bielawski who then intercepted an errant pass and repeated the maneuver.

With a one point lead, 57-56, the Devils' Bruce was forced to foul a Notre Dame guard in attempting to gain control of the ball. He sank both free tosses. Luzi came right back with a jump shot but the same guard sank two more free throws, and with 11 seconds remaining the Devils trailed 61-58 and Hollosy called time out again.

When play resumed Bielawski scored on a lay-up. After Notre Dame brought the ball into play the Devils gained possession. But a violation was called as the buzzer sounded, eliminating the Devils from the State Tournament to meet Notre Dame.

winners over Austin 61-50, in the District finals. Notre Dame won that contest 57-51 to advance to regional competition. Free throws were the difference in Thursday's game. Each team had 22 field goals. Each while the Devils sank 16 of 29 free throws for 55 percent, their opponents made 17 of 24 free tosses for 71 percent.

The Devils concluded the season with a 6-12 won-lost record. But in the second half of the season, led by Luzi and Bielawski, they compiled a 4-5 record.

Now the Devils look to the future, and the future looks bright with three sophomores on the varsity—Phil Connor, Mike Conti and Bob Miller, the latter being first string center—and a promising bunch of reserves ready to step in after compiling an 11-3 record this year.

Snipe Sailboats To Make Return

The internationally famous and world's largest numbered racing class sail boat, Snipe, will make a notable return to the Lake St. Clair yachting scene this summer.

There has been little or no activity in this area for the past several years, in the Snipe class, although the State of Michigan over all is one of its strongest boosters.

The Crescent Sail Yacht Club was essentially founded with Snipe boats in 1933. Crescent's first Commodore, Chalmers Burns, donated the Region 3 trophy which today is one of the oldest active trophies in the Snipe organization.

The original fleet charter, number five, has been reactivated and Crescent expects to have at least 10 of these active 15% footers ready to race this spring.

The Region 3 Burns trophy, matching the best from an area of five states, will be sailed for at Crescent July 10-12. The leading boats from this group of 60 to 70 will then be eligible for the Snipe National Championships to be held in San Diego later in the summer.

Hockey Chiefs Out of Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Chiefs Bantam Hockey Club were eliminated from the state tournament on Sunday, February 23. St. Clair Shores scored two goals in the middle period to beat the Chiefs 2 to 0. It was a very well played game and Grosse Pointe was in it right up to the final buzzer.

This is a team to be proud of, as during the course of the season, several players developed quickly, such as Rob Zink, Bill Noecker, Don Lackie, Mike Cogge, George Griffin and Doug MacArthur. They will be back next year as the Chiefs move into the Midget Division.

The Chiefs practice at Gordie Howe Hockey Land on Wednesdays at 6:45 and are now working with boys who will not be 16 prior to August 1, 1964. This is the Midget age maximum and Coaches Hal Neil (TU 1-6914), Ray MacArthur (TU 5-5417) and Charlie Kavelage (TU 4-9145) will be happy to hear from anyone interested.

University School Notes

Appearing elsewhere in the pages of this newspaper is an announcement of a meeting of some interest to people who have never visited Grosse Pointe University School. Read it!

A conference of great interest and importance each year to people who work in schools like G.P.U.S. is that of the National Association of Independent Schools, the organization whose new president is this school's former headmaster, John Chandler, Jr. The conference is traditionally held in New York City, but because of the ever-increasing number of private schools in the Middle and Far West the meeting will be held in Chicago next year.

The theme of this year's discussion and lecture sessions was "The Preparation and Growth of Teachers," and there were many people from public and parochial systems who registered for the three-day program, March 5-7. Those who represented the University School in New York were Headmaster Hugh C. Riddleberger, Principal Wellington Grimes, Principal Bertram Shover, Edward Arnold, William Bellows, John Kerr, Donald Roberts, and Mrs. Ruth Snell.

The social event of last week for University School students was Saturday night's Tri-Council dance presented by the Student Council, the Red Cross Council, and the American Field Service club. Music was provided by the "Tubby" Bowen Trio.

Superintendent of Schools Charles Wilson of the Grosse

Pointe Public Schools visited the University School on Monday, March 9. He was introduced to the students by Headmaster Riddleberger and addressed them briefly. After the assembly he met the teachers and talked with them informally in the school dining room.

Recent faculty after-lunch assemblies for students with honor passes have been given by Mr. Frank McCann on Hawaii and by Mr. Edward Mott on Haiti. Both have become well acquainted with those areas on summer vacations. Thought-provoking student assemblies have dealt with the assassination of President Kennedy, with Stephen Fischer as the speaker, and with the topic of separation of church and state by Rick Bourke and Jeff Tilley.

TAX COLLECTIONS UP
Collections in sales and use tax by the Secretary of State's office during January showed increases of nearly $425,000. Secretary of State James M. Hare said that sales tax increase covering 12,248 transactions amounted to $5,278,593.80, a hike of $378,373.33 over January of 1963. A total of 31,844 use tax transactions ran up to $846,556.30, a hike of $46,549.77 over the previous January.

More on School Problem

Excellent as were the Letters to the Editor which this paper published last week, urging a more careful study of the possibility of converting the Pointe's Public School System to a four-quarter year, it appears to us that certain very important details have been overlooked in the arguments, both for and against the suggested possibility of a change.

The chief reason for keeping the schools open all year would be to get the maximum use out of the existing facilities. Whereas several of the buildings, and particularly the High School, are now over-crowded, splitting the year into four quarters (with a fourth of the students on vacation during each quarter) would relieve the congestion and possibly eliminate the necessity for additional classrooms.

But what about the teaching and administrative staffs? Salaries comprise some 83 percent of the cost of operating the schools. Teachers who are now paid on a nine-month basis could not be expected to work for the entire year for the same salaries. Their pay would have to be substantially raised, or more teachers hired to handle the fourth quarter. It would be an expensive proposition either way, and there would doubtless be the additional difficulty of finding enough good teachers.

Under the present system here and in most of the better schools throughout the country, teachers qualify for salary increases by spending the summer months in study and activities which make them better teachers and more valuable to the students and institutions they serve. Having to teach the full year would deprive them of the opportunity to follow such pursuits and would thus hamper their development and advancement in the profession they have chosen.

And what about the maintenance problem? School buildings take a considerable beating from the hordes of healthy youngsters who use them nine months of the year, or more when summer sessions are conducted. The custodians are busiest during the summer when the structures have to be renovated, repairs made, mechanical failures corrected. When would this important and economically sound program be carried out with the buildings in use the year around?

The Board of Education is facing a tough problem. Projections made just a few years ago, when it was believed no more major building would be required in the district, aren't turning out the way the experts figured. The school-age population is increasing much faster than was believed possible. One unforeseen contribution to this situation comes from the current trend back to urban living. Many older couples, whose children have grown up and moved to homes of their own, are seeking smaller and more modern quarters in the new apartment buildings being built. Their Pointe residences are being taken over by younger people with large families, the result of the marriage and baby boom which came just after the end of World War II.

Complicated as the problem may be, Pointe citizens have every right to be confident that it will be solved satisfactorily. We are fortunate in having a most capable and conscientious Board of Education, and extremely well qualified administrators at all levels throughout the System. The financial status is also healthy, and among the most important assets are the keen interest and pride the residents have in their schools. We can count on continued cooperation to insure against any deterioration of one of the nation's finest educational districts.

Art Institute Buys Objects

Willis F. Woods, Director of the Detroit Art Institute, recently announced the acquisition of eight valuable objects of art which are distinguished landmarks in the Museum's continued program to enrich and broaden its holdings.

"These recent purchases are representative of the considerable activity that has been developing in many fields of collecting by the Institute's staff and donors," said Woods. The list of acquisitions includes two portraits (M. Denis-Paul le Pot de la Fontaine by Francois Hubert Drouais and the Marquise des Netumieres by Jean Etienne Liotard), an ivory French Gothic carving of the Madonna and Child, an ornamental handscroll painting, Dragon Boat Festival, by Wang Chen-p'eng, an Italian Renaissance bronze statuette of Hercules and the Nemean Lion, two color-engravings by Philippe Debucourt-La Main and La Rose, a stoneware bowl from 12th century China, and a magnificent African mask representing an Antelope.

In the past 18 months, nearly $500,000 has been expended for purchases, which include the rare and beautiful Adam and Eve of the German master Lucas Cranach the Elder, and the superbly moving Romanesque 12th century wood carvings of the Mourning Virgin and St. John, all three of which were acquired through the Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford II Fund.

Twentieth century art has been served well with the acquisition of such works as the powerful painting, Standard Brand by Stuart Davis and Jean Arp's stone Entre Feuilles et Oiseau, both purchased through Founders Society General Membership Fund. With funds made available by W. Hawkins Ferry, sculpture by Germaine Richier; Max Bill and Wessel Couzijn strengthen the contemporary collection further.

The Institute's collections have also grown importantly through the gift of works of art during the last 18 months. Over 256 gifts have been made by more than 50 interested individuals.

In addition to the energetic efforts of the staff, this growth may also be credited to the work of the Joint Museum Collections Committee, headed by Mrs. Harry L. Winston. Serving both the Founders Society and the Arts Commission, this committee works with the Institute's staff in helping to locate worthy additions to the collection as well as to stimulate the generosity of prospective donors.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

If it is not too late in this Lenten Season for you, I would like to mention a few recent books in the field of religion which our Libraries have available for you. I do not mean to imply that religious thinking and meditation are necessarily seasonal, but pre-Easter thoughts for those who observe Lent might well give an added impetus towards reading of this type.

In the general field of faith, you might be interested in some of the following. R. A. Burkhardt has written THE PERSON YOU CAN BE, showing how faith and religion can help in building a fuller and happier life. THE FAITH OF OTHER MEN by W. C. Smith is an arresting view by a distinguished theologian, who selects a single symbol from each of the major religions. A. M. Farrer contributes A FAITH OF OUR OWN; here the author treats various aspects of Christian belief—ethical, Biblical and theological. For youth especially, there is E. J. Walker's SEEKING A FAITH OF YOUR OWN. And finally, CHALLENGE TO RELIGION, by A. J. Heschel consists of original essays and an appeal to the conscience; these are from the National Conference on Religion and Race.

Turning to the Bible, there is UNDERSTANDING THE BIBLE by Ignatius Hunt, and this for persons who want a review of or an introduction to this subject. G. M. Alexander's HANDBOOK OF BIBLICAL PERSONALITIES gives one portraits of Biblical figures. More specifically, there is Bishop Sheen's TO KNOW CHRIST JESUS; here the author considers the words and deeds of Christ in terms of what they reveal about him. JESUS AND OUR HUMAN NEEDS, by L. R. Ditzgen presents Christian views on man's psychological, spiritual and material needs. For a contribution to the psychology of Jesus, there is Romano Guardini's THE HUMANITY OF JESUS. Just one more Biblical personality—ST. PAUL AND HIS LETTERS, by F. W. Beare, is a theological interpretation of the letters of St. Paul.

If you are interested in comparative religion, you might want to dip into some of these. D. A. Wells, in his GOD, MAN, AND THE THINKER, presents an examination of the traditional problems of religion, and its relation to the social life of man. A GUIDE TO THE WORLD'S RELIGIONS by D. G. Bradley examines the twelve main faiths from the standpoint of their beliefs, history, and current status. Joseph Gaer gives us WHAT THE GREAT RELIGIONS BELIEVE, presenting basic doctrines of the major world faith. An interesting one is Gerald Cooke's AS CHRISTIANS FACE RIVAL RELIGIONS.

For those who have followed the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, there are two recent titles. SECRETS FROM THE CAVES, by Thurman Coss, is a layman's guide to this subject. The other is A. N. Gilkes' THE IMPACT OF THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS.

If you are concerned about your child's spiritual education, you might want to read R. S. Lee's YOUR GROWING CHILD AND RELIGION. Another new one is Randolph Miller's YOUR CHILD'S RELIGION, which is a practical guide for parents. Two books in the field of biography come to mind. One is a new biography of Pope Paul VI by J. G. Clancy entitled APOSTLE FOR OUR TIME: POPE PAUL VI. An autobiography of interest is Worthy Fisher's TO LIGHT A CANDLE, which will have special appeal to those who wish to read of the work of American missions abroad.

And finally, a few hit-and-miss titles which somehow defy category. Mathew Ahmann's RACE: CHALLENGE TO RELIGION, consists of original essays and "An appeal to the conscience" from the National Conference on Religion and Race. R. H. Bainton's CHRISTIAN ATTITUDES TOWARD WAR AND PEACE presents an historical survey and a critical re-evaluation of the matter. And for those of us who may be beginning to feel arthritic twinges, there is always John La Farge's REFLECTIONS ON GROWING OLD, which emphasizes the necessity of courage and love along with some positive remarks on the genuine values of old age.

And so we have covered a wide range of religious topics, hoping that among them you will find a few to stimulate a trip to our Libraries.

Pvt. Paul M. Dowdy Training in Hawaii

Army Pvt. Paul M. Dowdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones C. Dowdy, 805 Notre Dame, and other members of the 25th Division's 35th Infantry, are participating in Exercise HIGH TOP II, a five-week field training maneuver in Hawaii.

The men of the division moved from the Island of Oahu to the rugged lava beds of the volcano Mauna Ioa, on the Island of Hawaii, for the live-fire and combined arms training exercises.

Dowdy, an ammunition bearer in Headquarters Company of the 35th Infantry's 2nd Battalion at Schofield Barracks, entered the Army in April 1963 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 19-year-old soldier is a 1962 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

A sure cure for insomnia

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

You've heard the joke, "The best cure for insomnia is a good night's sleep." Not funny to someone suffering "white nights," but true, nonetheless. Too frequent use of sleeping pills can be bad. Even if they do not cause true addiction they may have a strong psychological effect. Users sometimes come to depend on them. So sleeping pills—any kind—should be taken only when a physician prescribes, and only in the amount directed.

Cancer Patients Offered Help

Almost 1,000 cancer patients, many of them released from local hospitals, last year were cared for in their own homes with the help of sickroom equipment supplied by the Michigan Cancer Foundation, a Torch Drive Agency.

These items included hospital beds, wheel chairs, bedside tables, commodes, aspirators and other furnishings which are a comfort to a patient, a boon to those caring for him, and a terrific expense if they must be purchased or rented.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Despite March's lion-like behavior, spring is in the air, with fair skies and flowers and graduation days just around the corner.

Mothers of Grosse Pointe High School's senior girls are already planning a tea to honor their matriculating daughters, scheduled Sunday, May 17, in the Rivard boulevard home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gordon Cook.

Because of the large number of girls in the senior class, only working committee mothers are expected to attend.

Mrs. William Coddington, tea planning chairman, will be assisted by mothers representing each of the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods. Among those working on committees are Mrs. Robert Glaesner, Mrs. Robert Herdegen, Mrs. George Frederickson and Mrs. Arthur Wier.

Others are Mrs. George Crockett, Mrs. Raymond Eddy, Mrs. Hunter Comly, Mrs. Jean Webb, Mrs. Louis Finke, Mrs. Arthur Seder, Mrs. Leonard Klaasen, Mrs. Paul Trigg, Mrs. Robert Miles and Mrs. Roy Vorhees.

Meanwhile, another group of Pointe mothers, those whose daughters will be graduated this June from the Academy of the Sacred Heart, assisted by Sacred Heart alumnae, are busily planning the traditional Laurel Ball.

Chairmen of this formal party, to be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club June 6, are Mrs. William F. Bavinger, Mrs. Charles A. J. Kotcher and Mrs. Gilmore S. Van Hamm.

Barbara Posselius Marries Mr. Ford

Bride Wears Ivory Wool Sheath for Rites Saturday in Rectory of St. Paul's on the Lakeshore and Reception in Grandmother's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, III, are vacationing in Nassau after their marriage at high noon Saturday, in the rectory of St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

The bride is the former Barbara Monroe Posselius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Posselius, of Irvine lane. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, II, of Provencal road.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank J. McPhillips officiated at the ceremony, read in the rectory living room in the presence of members of the families. Formal bouquets of white carnations and smilax flanked the fireplace before which the couple stood, and a shallow bowl filled with matching flowers was placed on the mantel.

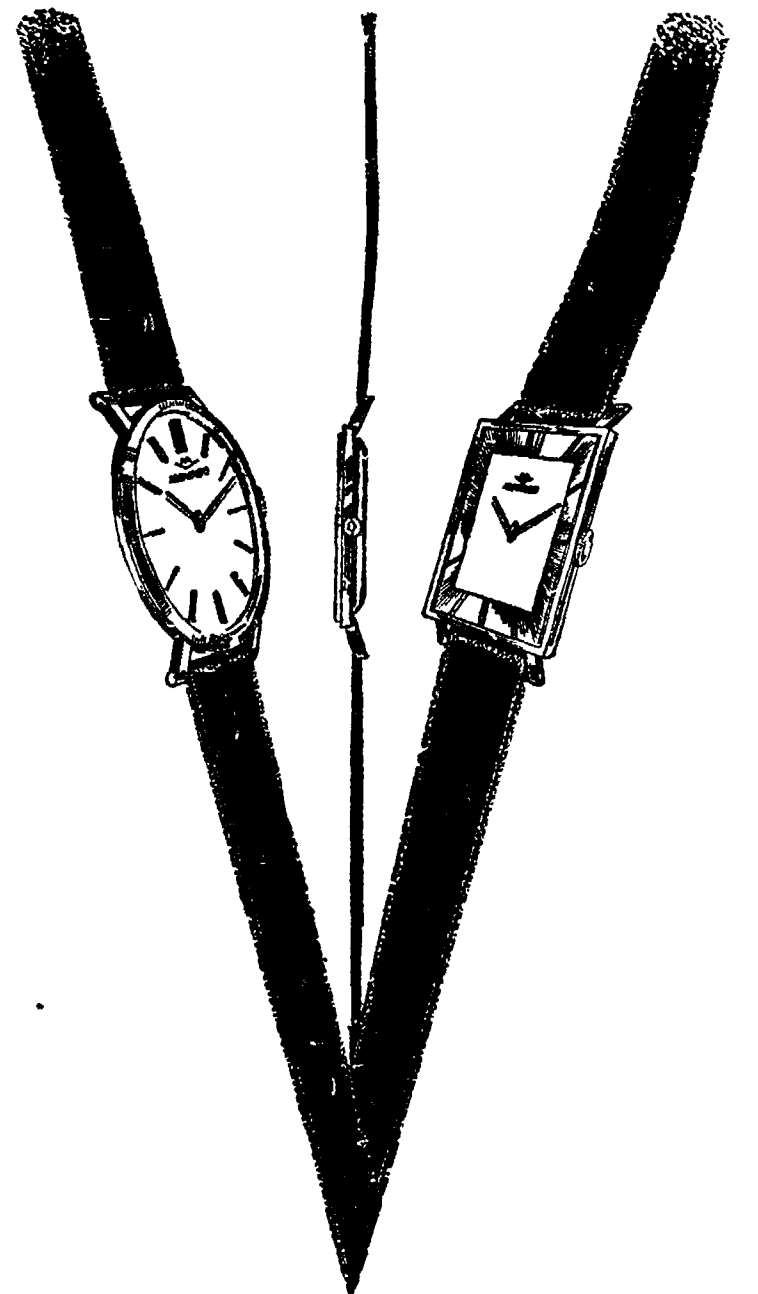

The bride chose an afternoon dress of soft ivory wool, with a sheath skirt and high neckline. Delicate braiding defined the neckline and hem of her gown. Her headpiece was a veiled ivory satin Dior bow, and she carried freesia, in a Colonial bouquet.

Her sister's only attendant, maid of honor Nancy Posselius, chose a suit of soft pink wool with a small matching velvet hat. She carried a single pink camellia bud.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Alfred Brush Ford, to serve as his best man.

A reception in the Lewiston road home of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward J. Posselius, president and co-founder of the Good Housekeeping Shops, and great-granddaughter of the late Detroit architect Henry J. Meier.

For traveling to Nassau, the new Mrs. Ford chose a white Chanel suit trimmed in navy braid. When they return to Michigan March 30, the couple will make their home in Ann Arbor while Mr. Ford continues his studies at Ypsilanti's Cleary College.

Audrey Ann Knippenberg and Richard W. Barton exchanged marriage vows at a candlelight ceremony Saturday in Peace Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Knippenberg, of Newcastle road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clark Barton, of Harvard road.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of ivory peau de soie designed with a scooped neckline and appliques of Alencon lace on the skirt. A Swedish crown of pearls caught her illusion veil, and she carried white carnations with ivy.

Mrs. Hugh McKee was her sister's matron of honor in a mint green gown of lace and peau de soie, with a matching green net headpiece.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Kinville, sister of the bridegroom; and Sharon Menzel. They carried white carnations. Joann Knippenberg, the bride's youngest sister, was junior bridesmaid, and Jill McKee served as her aunt's flower girl.

Robert Edwards was Mr. Barton's best man. Ushering were Robert Eberhardt and Eugene Stadnik.

For the ceremony and reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall in East Warren avenue, the mother of the bride chose a sheath of green Italian silk. Mrs. Barton's gown was also of Italian silk, in a toast shade. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchids.

Following a skiing trip to Aspen, Colo., the newlyweds will make their home in Prestwick road.

Celebrity Series Concludes Today

The 1963-64 Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series closes this morning with columnist Art Buchwald's appearance in the Esquire Theater at 11 o'clock.

"Buchwald-At-Large" will be followed by a subscription luncheon and free-for-all question and answer period in Al Green's, where the laughter engendered by the humorist's on-stage appearance is expected to "raise the rafters" above diners' tables.

The Celebrity Series, sponsored by Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, is a Pointe tradition, among the most popular annual local programs.

Celebrity Series committee members are already hard at work, drawing up a tentative slate of eight speakers for 1964-65, and promise, as always, that "next season's series will be even better than this season's series."

Zontians Give Spring Show

The Zonta Club of Detroit, an organization of business and professional women, affiliated with Zonta International, worldwide classified service group with over 16,800 members in 21 different countries, presented its third annual "Serenade to Spring" March 3 at McGregor Memorial Community Arts Auditorium.

Nineteen Pointers are currently members of Detroit Zonta, and Mrs. Charles A. Dean serves on the Club's Board of Directors.

Proceeds derived from the musical evening will be used to further Zonta's many service projects, including the "Elderly Friends" program, which provides 25 elderly people with companionship and appropriate remembrance on birthdays and holidays; and two projects sponsored by Zonta International, the yearly $2,500 Amelia Earhart scholarships for women in aerodynamics and a training center for Arab girls at Ramallah, Jordan.

This year, Detroit Zontians will be awarding their third $3,000 fellowship to a graduate woman student considered best qualified to promote the Zonta ideal of the professional woman. Applications for this fellowship, coming from all over the world, are processed by Wayne State University, with final selection of the recipient left to the discretion of local Zontians.

Egg Decorating Class Offered

Easter-egg decorating under the instruction of the Ukrainian group from the International Institute will be offered in two sessions in the ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial the afternoon of Saturday, March 21.

The first instruction period will begin at 2 o'clock; the second at 2:30. This instruction is given free of charge to help perpetuate the Ukrainian art of "pysanky" decorating. Materials such as dyes and bees wax will be provided. A stylus will be sold at five cents each.

The Ukrainians use raw eggs for their decorating, making designs by drawing on the egg with a stylus dipped in beeswax before the egg is dyed. Several drawings and dippings result in a very colorful work of art which the Ukrainians preserve from generation to generation long after the inside of the eggs atrophy.

The Ukrainians use various designs as symbols. For instance a fish represents wealth. In this manner the eggs are meaningful as well as beautiful and are treasured in glass cases in Ukrainian homes from which they are brought and placed in the center of the table at Easter time and other major occasions.

DAC Members Hold Reunion in Florida

Indian Creek Country Club at Bal Harbour Scene Of Traditional Party For Michigan Winter Expatriates; Many Pointers Attend

Detroit Athletic Club members wintering in Florida got together Monday night, March 2, for the beautiful DAC Miami Beach Party which is becoming a traditional fete.

The Indian Creek Country Club at Bal Harbour, Miami Beach was the locale as it has been the past two years, (and some years back, too).

George A. Cavanaugh, long-time DAC member who spends much of the year in Florida, was chairman. Grosse Pointer Richard H. Campbell, executive manager of Detroit Athletic Club, left Thursday with Mrs. Campbell to see to final details and attend the fete.

Indian Creek Country Club's big outdoor patio and gardens are the scenes for the party's start unless weather forbids. All arrangements for the cocktail-reception at 6:30 o'clock were duplicated outdoors and inside the clubhouse so that, if rain or wind came up suddenly, the party could be moved indoors smoothly.

Dinner, followed immediately by entertainment, and dancing took place in the club's beautiful big dining rooms where the 350 DAC'ers who had their tables moved about comfortably to visit friends and acquaintances, danced and generally had a gay time. Among the Grosse Pointers present were the Leo Fitzpatrick's who had a party of 12; Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell in a twosome; the John Allmands with a group; the Glenn H. Friedts, Sr., and their eight guests; the Thomas H. Conways, Jr., who were in a foursome with the Robert E. Gotfredsons; the Eugene Gargeros; the George Lotts in a sixsome with friends; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Peoples.

A few more who had tables were the Edward C. Roneyes, the Walter Schweikarts, the William M. Sigsworths, the Jay W. Smiths and the George H. Zimmermans.

Center Holding Evening in Ireland

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association International dinner and entertainment for this month is to be a Saint Patrick's eve in Ireland on Monday, March 16 at 7 o'clock.

As ladies and gentlemen arrive they will be given shamrocks to set the spirit of the evening. In the Crystal Ballroom, they will be served a traditional Irish feast. Featured on the dinner menu will be haddock soup, roast goose with stuffing, cabbage of course, and a marvelous steam pudding for dessert. As usual recipes will be given to all the guests.

In addition to having Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinty, who were so long associated with the Memorial as honored guests; there will be a group of Irish musicians present led by Lon O'Connor of the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club. They will play in the auditorium immediately following dinner, and after that professional, color films of Ireland will be shown with Bud Day, president of Glynn Travel Agency, acting as master of ceremonies.

Reservations for this one festive occasion during Lent should be made to the Center accompanied by checks for $4.00 per person no later than Friday, March 13.

The Center is decorating specially for this gala in honor of the McGintys, and it is hoped that a large crowd will attend.

DOLLAR VALUE—PLUS

In an emergency the value of medicine can hardly be reckoned in dollars. Medicine is priceless when needed. Yet it is an interesting fact that nationally the average cost of a pharmaceutical prescription is about $2.50—and more than half of all prescriptions cost less than $2.00. Although higher than 20 years ago, the increase in the cost of medicine lags far behind that of other, and less essential, commodities.

When you purchase a prescription you are sharing in the fruits of scientific research. You are getting today's best buy.

unique touch to preparations for The Fine Arts Society of Detroit's third dramatic performance of the season: "Janus," a romantic comedy in three acts by Carolyn Green.

Producers Mike and Anita Mikos had just bought a new home in Rivard boulevard when work on the play began, but were still living in their previous home in Neff road.

So they decided to use the new, empty house for rehearsals—leading the neighbors to believe Mr. and Mrs. Mikos were carrying on a very busy social life before even moving in.

Director Mrs. Howard Kates hopes to see the final curtain fall before her own private performance begins. It, (the play), is scheduled Friday and Saturday nights, March 13 and 14, at The Players' Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. Donald Worley serves as assistant director, and cast members include Mrs. Bernard P. Pearce, (Jessica), Al Berteel, (Denny), Mrs. Thomas Sage, (Miss Addy), Willard Rohloff, (Gil), and John O. Peters, (Mr. Harper).

All The World's A Stage

And all, (or almost all), Pointers are part-time players; less than a week after "Janus" closes, "Time For Romance," by Alice Gerstenberg, will light up the afternoon sky over The Players'.

Presented by Theatre Arts Club of Detroit Friday, March 20, this three-act comedy stars Mrs. Paul J. Keller, Jr., Mrs. George H. Cushing, Mrs. George H. Seibert, Mrs. Arthur J. Schroeder, Mrs. Eldon C. Baumgarten, Mrs. Dwight W. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Edwin Rose, Mrs. Forbes Howard, Mrs. Julian G. McIntosh and Mrs. Mayne Glock.

Mrs. Joseph N. Jennings and Mrs. John O. Montgomery are producers for the play, while Mrs. Walter E. Willard designed the setting, a fashionable New York decorating studio.

Adding an exotic note to the decor is a genuine Somali leopard skin, one of the beautiful properties assembled by Mrs. Harry Robert Esling and Mrs. Alex Stirling.

Mrs. Edward Fromm and Mrs. Edward W. Johnson share stage assistant chores; Mrs. John H. Mueller and Mrs. Robert E. Bennet are costume co-ordinators; and the production is under the direction of Mrs. James B. Steep, assisted by Mrs. Russell McLaughlin.

Author, Author!

England's most famous playwright and sometime actor, one W. Shakespeare, "stars" at the Detroit Institute of Arts this spring, and Detroit Wellesley Alumnae Club members plan a visit with the Bard March 19.

A table in Kresge Court has been reserved for those who desire luncheon following the tour, and mothers of current Wellesley College undergraduates from the Detroit area are invited to participate.

They'll enter through swinging doors, enjoy a free lunch, (both reminding of days long gone), and sip keg beer while singing along with a honky tonk piano. There'll be a regular bar nearby too.

The committee, composed of Joyce and Henry Gildner, of Fisher road, Grosse Pointers Stevie and Bill Cook and Dot and Herbert Cook, and Bill Johnstone, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, has prescribed casual dress, green of course, but will themselves be images of Jackie Gleason's barroom character.

After the singing and the free lunch, members and guests will enjoy dancing to the music of Don Dierkiss and his orchestra.

The City will take bids on the replacement of sidewalk at various locations throughout the City. Copies of the specifications and proposal may be obtained at the City Engineer's office during business.

Sealed proposals for the replacement of an estimated 13,000 square feet of sidewalk will be received at the City Hall, 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms 36, Michigan until 11:00 A. M. on Thursday, March 19, 1964, at which time all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The contractor is hereby advised that the actual construction of this work will not be started until after July 1, 1964. It is understood that the estimated amount of this work may be increased by as much as 35% and the contractor should compute his bid accordingly.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check, bank draft or satisfactory surety bid bond in an amount not less than 5 per cent of the total bid price as guarantee and security for the acceptance of the contract.

No proposal, once submitted, may be withdrawn for at least 30 days after the actual opening of the bids. The City of Grosse Pointe Farms reserves the right to waive any irregularity in any bid or to reject any or all bids and to accept the bid deemed to be to the best interest of the City.

Irish Dominate DYC March 17

The Irish spirit will prevail for two St. Patrick's Day galas at the Detroit Yacht Club on March 17, one for the distaff side at noon, and a mixed event that evening.

The bridge luncheon and fashion show will have Blarney Stones and Shamrocks as its theme. Mrs. Ralph Martin, Jr., has appointed Mrs. George Menendez as party chairman with Mrs. Eric James and Mrs. Howard M. Wheeler as co-chairmen.

A banner with the Emerald Isle's favorite greeting "100,000 Welcome" written in Gaelic will greet members and guests on their arrival.

In the upper lobby there'll be an authentic piece of the famous Blarney Stone for members to kiss and make a wish. Also, a replica of Blarney Castle and the Blarney Stone will be set against a backdrop of pictures from Ireland.

Giant shamrocks and Irish spring flowers will be used for the background decor, and complimentary green beer will be served.

Following the luncheon there'll be a musical program by Kathleen Murtugh Finch, formerly with the Dublin Abbey Players. Since coming to this country she has appeared in Hollywood films, recent musicals and the Michigan Opera. She will sing several Irish songs and play an Irish harp accompanied by Mrs. C. Russell Moore on the piano.

St. Patrick's Day Donnybrook Party is DYC's Sea Serpents (men's swimming group), annual winter fete. The dinner-dance is for all club members and their guests.

Patrick Norton and Wayne Dupuis are the co-chairmen and their aides are John Unis, George Pearson, Jack Huchins and John Lynch.

It's to be in the River Vista for cocktails at 7 o'clock, and the club's main dining room under a canopy of green and white balloons, streamers and many number of green shamrocks. Around midnight the cluster of balloons will be released from the ceiling with many of them marked for beautiful prizes to the lucky winners. Favors will be gay green hats for the men and a green garter for the ladies. The Jerry Fenby Five Orchestra and vocalist Shirley Bolt will play for dancing.

Among those with reservations are President and Mrs. Joseph Bellardi, Vice President and Mrs. Harry Rife, Treasurer and Mrs. William Obst, the Burt Trowels, the Roy Hartmans, Cliff Grays, the Walter Schmidts and Mr. and Mrs. Don Thomas.

Thirty Jumping Teams to Clash

Thirty jumping teams, four horses to a team, will compete at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, Saturday and Sunday, March 14 and 15, in the final Junior Olympic Competition of the 1963-64 season.

This is the championship meet and all ties will be resolved during this two day event. Riders will also compete for "low score" individual championships. Only those riders with perfect scores for three out of the five events held during the winter will be eligible to compete. Teams competing will be from Michigan and Ohio.

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club "B" team, "The Foxhunts," is tied for the "B" team championship. The Bloomfield Open Hunt "Pro-Am" team is currently leading that section of the competition.

Wallace's "Topnotchers," the "Toledo Bombers," and Bloomfield "Railbirds" are all tied for the "A" team championship. In the "C" team competition, Woodington's "Hadley Hill Hopes," Wuffield's "Upanovs," and "Klentners Cannibals" are at the top.

All results of the season will hinge on the final competition at Grosse Pointe. Championship awards will be presented at a banquet on Sunday evening in the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club clubhouse.

JIMMY HOFFA returned to Detroit Saturday to visit his hospitalized wife and reaffirm his intention to remain president of the Teamsters Union. He claimed that when the tactics of the Attorney General's office in his recent trial are revealed, it will be "the greatest scandal in the history of the country." Hoffa told newsmen who met him at Detroit City Airport that he has never given up a fight yet and does not intend to now.

A FEDERAL JURY in Los Angeles convicted three men of kidnapping Frank Sinatra, Jr., last December 8. Two of the defendants were sentenced to life imprisonment. They are ordered to undergo three months of psychiatric examination. The third man faces a maximum prison term of 75 years. The jury deliberated 6½ hours after receiving the case Friday night.

GREAT LAKES vessels face a delay in starting their shipping season, because of a strike by engineers over their pension plans. The vessels will be picketed in their winter berths by members of the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association. Eighty-one percent of the association's 1,000 members voted for the strike. The ships were due to start preparations for the shipping season this week.

THE A-11 JET interceptor first described by President Johnson last week has already flown long-range reconnaissance missions over Communist territory, it was reported in Washington Sunday. The A-11 has been kept a secret for five years, but has proved to be the fastest jet now in operational use. The statement was made by the magazine, Aviation Week and Space Technology, claiming that the jet had tested and mastered "any air defense systems," indicating that the plane had flown in the vicinity of the best Russian anti-aircraft weapons.

JACK RUBY'S BRAIN is "organically damaged," according to a Yale University professor testifying in the Dallas trial. The statement is part of the defense's claim that Ruby did not know what he was doing when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald November 24. Dr. Roy Schafer made his statement after he had administered 10 psychological tests to Ruby.

Mrs. Kenneth Locke, membership chairman, will hostess a meeting that will make plans for the kick-off sale of tickets to the tea, Mrs. Locke has received seven new memberships to the club, bringing the total membership to 1,710.

Tickets for "Shakespeare Tonight" are out. Tickets for the Thursday, March 19, performance will go to the Scholarship Fund. Room Mother's will be selling tickets.

Mrs. Robert Swanson said that $31 has been added to the Scholarship Fund from neighborhood groups.

A check for $100 was received from Dr. Aaron Rutledge for the Fund. The club thanks Dr. Rutledge for this contribution.

There were two away basketball games during February. Two buses went to the Highland Park game. Buses were not necessary for the Monroe game, Mrs. Robert Christian, stated.

"Southern Hospitality IS The Pointe," Mrs. Donald Hughes, Spring Benefit Tea Chairman, told the group. That is the theme, and the slogan will be "Vive Le Scholar." Informal modeling by Rosemary's Boutique will be presented from 1 to 2 o'clock. Members of the Mothers' Club will serve as models. Each guest will receive a program, eliminating the need for a commentator. Jacobson's will do the hair styling for the models on the morning of the tea.

Mrs. James Surbrook, Board of Education Representative, attended the Board meeting on February 10. Two visiting teachers from Finland and Formosa were present. They had been visiting the school system for two weeks. Mrs. Isabelle Fohle of the High School staff submitted her mid-term report as required by the Sabbatical leave policy. She began her work in King's College, University of London, in the Department of English, under Professor Geoffrey Bullough, and has also worked with a specialist in American Literature, Eric Mattram.

Of the 106 top winners in Parts I and II of the Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition Test, seven students or 6.7 percent, were from the Grosse Pointe High School.

The next board meeting will be held April 6, at 1:15 o'clock.

CHRYSLER CORPORATION awarded its officers and executives $15,552,507 in incentive compensation. This figure which is more than five times the amount they got last year, reflects the tremendous comeback Chrysler made in 1963. There was no breakdown on distribution of the award money, but details will be included in a proxy statement later this month.

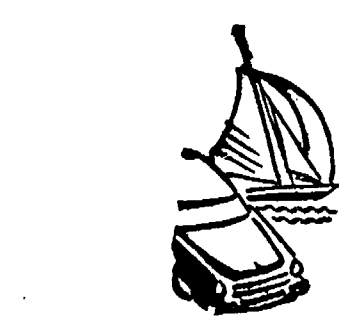

SIX AMERICAN tourists who were guests at the plush Ocean Club in Nassau were ambushed by four masked gunmen and robbed of $500,000 in jewels. The hotel is owned by millionaire Huntington Hartford. The Americans were riding in a taxi when the robbers rammed their vehicle with another car. They stripped the women of the jewels and the men of their rings and wallets. Later the car was found abandoned a mile away.

A JACKSON PRISON ESCAPEE surrendered himself, his hostage, and his mother to the Michigan Director of Corrections in Lansing after living for five days in a barn loft, terrorizing a young mother and her six children with a pair of scissors, and taking her on a frightening ride past 50 roadblocks to pick up his mother in River Rouge. The abduction occurred in Munith, a community near Jackson. The escapee was Lester Dionne, 36, who had a long record of convictions on bad checks and car theft. He had escaped from prison last Tuesday in a truck.

SONNY LISTON had been suffering from bursitis in both arms and shoulders for about two years, it was reported by Dr. Robert C. Bennett, physician for the State Boxing Commission. Dr. Bennett said he had treated Liston periodically and given him cortisone for his discomfort. There has been much speculation in the two weeks since the Miami fight between Liston and Cassius Clay as to certain peculiar circumstances surrounding the fight.

JACK RUBY'S BRAIN is "organically damaged," according to a Yale University professor testifying in the Dallas trial. The statement is part of the defense's claim that Ruby did not know what he was doing when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald November 24. Dr. Roy Schafer made his statement after he had administered 10 psychological tests to Ruby.

Suggestion for celebrating wedding anniversaries: sail away to Hawaii, like the R. V. Danceys, of North Renaud road, who boarded a ship in San Francisco Monday and will pass their 40-years-married milestone in the Pacific Islands.

Tip to bachelors searching for a "cheap" date: "Come Blow Your Horn," a Grosse Pointe Community Theater production, opens in Fries Auditorium tomorrow night, and in deference to the dramatic theme, ("Come Blow Your Horn" concerns a high-living young man and his kid brother), all bachelors will be admitted at half-price, Friday the 13th ONLY. Economically speaking, this means that two can see the play for the price of one-and-a-half — an unusual bargain, unless you happen to be dating a very short, round-faced girl, who can "pass" as under 12 at most movie houses.

Get it down to a system: Mrs. John C. Griffin, of Cloverly road, is busy again at her once-a-year project. For several seasons now, Mrs. Griffin has undertaken the "poster patrol" prior to the Metropolitan Opera Company's visit to Detroit, picking up and separating advertising material, co-ordinating the list of stores that have agreed to display opera posters, collecting a corps of workers, delivering material on time and in good condition. She has about 80 posters to "place" this year, but approaches the problem with a veteran's aplomb and a five-star general's sense of tactical deployment.

Read anything by Bruce Michael Letteer lately? "Letteer," (pen-name of a well known Pointer), has several short stories to his credit and is currently working on a novel. Who is he? Only his publisher knows for sure.

Apropos of "Beatle-o-mania": Mrs. Joseph Gregory, who teaches eighth grade English classes at Brownell Junior High School, fascinated by the frantic antics of England's bug-boys, had her pupils use them as an assignment subject. Judging from the Pointe boys' and girls' response, "Ringo" is the most memorable Beatle, (Sample Ringo comments: "He looks like a halfwit... a Refugee from Eleventh Hour" ... so cute behind those drums"), but a few students cast their votes for "baby-faced Paul," and one young diplomat tactfully sidestepped commitment, writing, "Their looks are obviously their most outstanding quality." Other "Beatle Notes," collected by Laura Gregory:

— Beatles are English sheep dogs.
— Elvis Presley multiplied by four equals the Beatles.

— I really don't think they're here to stay.
— I don't see why adults should make remarks about them. We like them and that's all that counts!

Ever dream of a hole-in-one? Walter Retzlaff, of Lochmoor boulevard, using a five iron, aced a 140-yard par 3 at Sherwood Park, Delray Beach, Fla., February 27. His partner and "witness" for the afternoon: former Balfour road resident Carl R. Binns, who now makes his home at Florida's Deerfield Beach.

PILFERINGS

International Joke: A man entered a restaurant and was approached by a waiter. Their conversation went something like this...

"Hawaii? Are you Hungry?" "Yes, Siam." "Okay, Russia to the table, Romania there till I Fijii." "Fine. I'll start with a bowl of Chile, and let me Spain that I want you to fry my Turkey in Greece, Sweden my coffee and Denmark my bill."

A patient who had consulted a psychiatrist was told that the doctor's fee would be $50 an hour.

"Most of our patients pay for about 10 visits in advance," the nurse advised him. "That way, considerations of money do not interfere with the doctor-patient relationship."

The man obediently wrote out a check for $500. At the next session the psychiatrist complained to his patient that the check had been returned by the bank. It seemed the signature read, "Napoleon I."

"Why naturally?" explained the patient. "If I had signed my real name, would I need you?"

Rick Mills Conversation

"If you're old enough to fight, you're old enough to vote!" This is a familiar slogan used by those people who are in favor of lowering the voting age to 18. They say that 18-year-olds are intelligent enough to be able to choose the leaders of this country.

But are they? Are they willing and able to investigate each issue and then decide what is best for the nation? What do you think? Even more important, what do the ones whom this decision will affect think? The Grosse Pointe teenager presented these ideas:

Van Mason: "Teens should be able to vote at 18. If they are old enough to give their service and even their lives to their country, they should be able to help decide who will govern it."

Al Sherman: "Most teens don't have enough responsibility to vote. If they were given this right they would probably vote the way their parents do. I think kids don't really care whether they get the vote or not. However, I am in favor of giving the privilege of voting to 18-year-olds."

Mike Bugar: "Teens should not be given the right to vote. People say: 'If you're old enough to fight... but fighting does not take much responsibility or intelligence and voting does.'"

Kathy Brown: "The vote should not be given to 18-year-olds."

These teens are not mature enough to evaluate both sides of an issue. They are too easily swayed by the opinions of others and haven't learned to think for themselves. Teens are not yet able to make the important judgments involved in voting."

Linn Tucker: "The right to vote should not be given to teens. The average teen doesn't read enough about politics and would not really understand what he was voting on. His vote would just reflect what his parents thought about the subject and not what the teen thought."

We realize that many people who are 21 are not ready to vote intelligently on important issues. Some are not willing to take time to study or even to perform the act of voting. A line, however, must be drawn somewhere. Many teens are quite capable of making the decisions involved in voting, but what about the vast majority? Is the average 18-year-old ready to take on such a responsibility? This is a question to which all voters must give serious consideration. As a voter it is up to you to decide. If you don't take a stand now, you may disagree with the decision which will become the law of the land. At that point, however, it will be too late to change, and it will be your own fault. The time for thinking is now!

Pointer of Interest

MRS. PAUL D. BAGWELL, OF DEVONSHIRE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

With over 20 years of service to the community, in various capacities, behind her, Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell is a firm believer in volunteer work. Time, she feels, means more than money, and "the essence of charity is gone if you eliminate personal contact."

Currently, Edith Clark Bagwell, a board member of the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, is chairman of the Society's 1964 Easter Seal "Parade," scheduled next Wednesday, March 18.

Through this house-to-house campaign — 13,500 volunteers pledged to personal visits at some 350,000 homes in the residential areas of Metropolitan Detroit, ready to tell the Easter Seal story to householders and accept contributions which bring help and hope to crippled children and adults — the Detroit Society hopes to raise $143,000 to carry on its year-round program of treatment at the Therapy Center in Schaefer highway, Detroit.

Center Among Finest

"Our Center is one of the finest in the country," Mrs. Bagwell maintains. Trained therapists carry out doctors' instructions; a complete selection of rehabilitation equipment is available; and the Center, with no support from the United Foundation, offers free assistance to traffic accident victims whose lives are turned upside-down in seconds.

Edith Bagwell understands the difficulties confronting men and women who must adjust their lives to a handicap. Born in Milwaukee, Wisc., she attended the University of Wisconsin, where she met her husband, a graduate student with a speech major.

Paul Bagwell contracted polio at 18; in 1959, he received an award from the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, honoring him as an example of what a man can do when he makes up his mind that he WILL do.

"One of the things architects and city planners ignore," says Mrs. Bagwell, "is the need of facilities for people who have to walk with aid." How does a woman who cannot climb stairs get to the gymnasium of her local public school, where voting machines have been placed for a national election?

"We have lived with the problem," Mrs. Bagwell states, "We understand the privations, the difficulties involved in finding accommodations, in travel."

Accept Challenge

For the Bagwells, difficulties exist to be overcome. After their marriage, Edith changed her major from Speech to Education, continued her studies at Michigan State University when the couple went to live in Lansing, and began a "career" of community service and volunteer work.

She served with the Ingham County American Red Cross in a variety of fields for 10 years, was chairman of the Easter Seal Campaign in Ingham County, (good training for her present job), a charter member of Edward W. Sparrow Hospital's Junior Division, member of Faculty Wives at MSU and active in benefits for 20 years, a member for 10 years, (now sustaining), of the Junior Child Study Club, and director for one year of the Family Life Program for the Michigan Council of Churches.

She also had two children; Paul, 25, married and living in Columbus, O.; and Judy, 21, who went to Hawaii on a summer study program, liked the islands so much she decided to stay there, and is now working as a secretary in Honolulu. Naturally, when her children were young, Edith Bagwell did a stint as president of the PTA.

Served Nursery School. For three years, she served as a director of the Nursery School at People's Church in East Lansing. She was a member of the committee for HOPE, and president of the Phi Mu Alumnae Association in East Lansing; still an active alumna, she joins local Phi Mus in holiday visits to the Grosse Pointe Convalescent Home.

When her husband served as president of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1949, Edith Bagwell traveled all over the States with him. Her present spacious home, white walls and off-white carpeting a perfect background for Mrs. Bagwell's slim, vivacious presence, contains relics of these American tours—the table and chair in her hall, for instance, were a gift of Alabama.

In 1956, Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell became actively involved in election-year politics. In '58 and '60, Paul Bagwell ran for Governor on the Republican ticket, and again, Edith traveled with him. Their schedule was fantastic.

Fantastic Schedule

Home-based in Lansing, they spent about 50 percent of their evenings in Detroit. ("The neighbors thought we had moved here"). They worked on speeches until 3 in the morning, rose at 6 to address breakfast rallies, accepted as "normalcy" a state of going all the time.

"The newspaper reporters were dropping like flies!" Edith Bagwell laughs reminiscently. "A schedule like that is only possible because you never stop."

When her husband suffered his second defeat at the polls, Edith insisted upon a rest. The Bagwells took a three-month "vacation from everything," traveling to the Central American Republics, Panama, Honduras, Guatemala, where they spent some time in an exquisite, isolated mountain retreat; Mexico, where they ran into a National Geographic expedition diving for relics in the Well of Sacrifice, the sacred "Cenote," at the Mayan city of Chichen Itza in Yucatan.

Still Works for MSU. Returning to Michigan, Mr. Bagwell decided to change vocations, left MSU and went into business in Detroit. Four years later, he is still a Detroit businessman—but working for MSU as a member of the Board of Trustees, appointed by Governor Romney. He runs for re-election next year.

Edith Bagwell and her husband moved to the Pointe two years ago, but still maintain close ties with Lansing. Mrs. Bagwell has not broken off her Church affiliation in the State Capital, and her doctor and dentist's offices are in Lansing, (she admits it's a long way to go with a toothache, but hasn't had time to choose a local M.D. or D.D.S.).

Yet, typically, she has somehow found time for volunteer work in her new home city. Besides her activities with the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, she serves on the Boards of the Detroit Children's Aid Society and the Michigan Crippled Children's Society, is a member of the School of Government, the Detroit Institute of Arts Founders' Society, the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters and the Grosse Pointe Branch of the AAUW.

Of German ancestry on her mother's side, she was active while in Lansing with the Steuben Society, a German cultural organization, and has continued her interest in Detroit Steuben Society activities.

He May Teach Again. Paul Bagwell may return to teaching, on a part-time basis,

Fortnighters Have Big Plans

January and February have been busy months for the Fortnighters. During January this young adult group heard Detective Robert Condo from the Detroit Police Department. He discussed with the group some of the experiences he has had while active in the narcotics branch of the Detroit Police Department. Also, during January, the Fortnighters enjoyed themselves at the home of Dick Williams.

During February the Fortnighters had a very successful "swim and dance" party. Approximately 70 people attended and a great time was had by all. Activities are now being planned for the remainder of the year. If you are single and in your 20's or 30's please contact the church office (TU 3-3773) or Stu McMillin (TU 2-9940) if you would be interested in joining this group.

Marie Bird's Beauty ByLine

On a cold, windy March day... she was like a breath of spring when she visited our salon for the first time. Seventy-seven years young — a regular reader of our "Beauty By-Line"...

"A really good Permanent... a style that was all femininity and easy to care for. I don't have my hair done as often as in the past but when I do I want the best."

Ida, a member of my top-flight staff, gave her the extra care that clients coming to our Haven-on-the-Hill expect... and receive. She emerged with a coiffure that enhanced her own inner radiance. Name Officers Of MSU Alumni

The East Side Chapter of the Michigan State University Alumni Association met at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial March 3. Purpose of this third general meeting since last November was the election of officers.

Serving as president of the alumni group is Robert C. McGee, of Wedgewood drive, assisted by vice president John R. Strongman, of Vernier road.

James Bozarth, of Lancaster road, is treasurer; Nancy Shier, of Englewood road, is secretary; and Cynthia Kelly, of Grayton road, is programming chairman. East Side MSU Alumni are newly organized, but have already sponsored a very successful Valentine's Day Dance at the Detroit Yacht Club. One hundred and fifty people attended, and the party was a tremendous success.

The Association's next function, tomorrow evening, March 13, will be a gathering at Goebel's Circus Room. Duffy Daugherty will comment on highlights of the 1963 football games, and all alumni are welcome.
