

CHARGE TEACHER WITH MURDER

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 23
The UNITED AUTO WORKERS have been given added support in their demands for wage increases and other benefits, in the form of a statement of earnings issued by the Ford Motor Company yesterday. The statement said the company's net income had risen 15 percent in the past fiscal year, to the figure of $179,700,000. They placed their sales during the year at over $3.8 billion.

DETROIT MAYOR Jerome P. Cavanagh came out for the first time publicly against a proposed Homeowners' Rights Clause which promises to become a key issue in the upcoming city election. Cavanagh Wednesday branded the proposed clause "immoral and unconstitutional" and predicted that if passed, the measure would hastily be ruled unconstitutional in the courts. He said the proposal was being used with racial intents by certain groups, and labeled it "a tool of bigotry."

Friday, July 24
PEOPLE HAVE WARNED for some time that the "long hot summer" of racial discontent would continue until Negroes have gained improvements in their living conditions and economic opportunities. In any case, the riots continued last night.
This time the scene was Rochester, N.Y., where 2,000 enraged Negroes demonstrated all last night and were still going strong this morning. They attacked police with clubs, bottles and bare fists. Police retaliated with fire hoses, clubs and police dogs.
The riot was triggered by the arrest of a Negro at a street dance for disorderly conduct. Damage was expected to run into the millions of dollars.

Saturday, July 25
NEW RACIAL RIOTING broke out for the second day in a row today in Rochester, N.Y. One hundred police were sent to the scene as mobs threw rocks and garbage and one person was killed by a hit and run car. The rioting is more widespread and tougher to control as guns are being used for the first time. One hundred and one rioters were arrested yesterday.

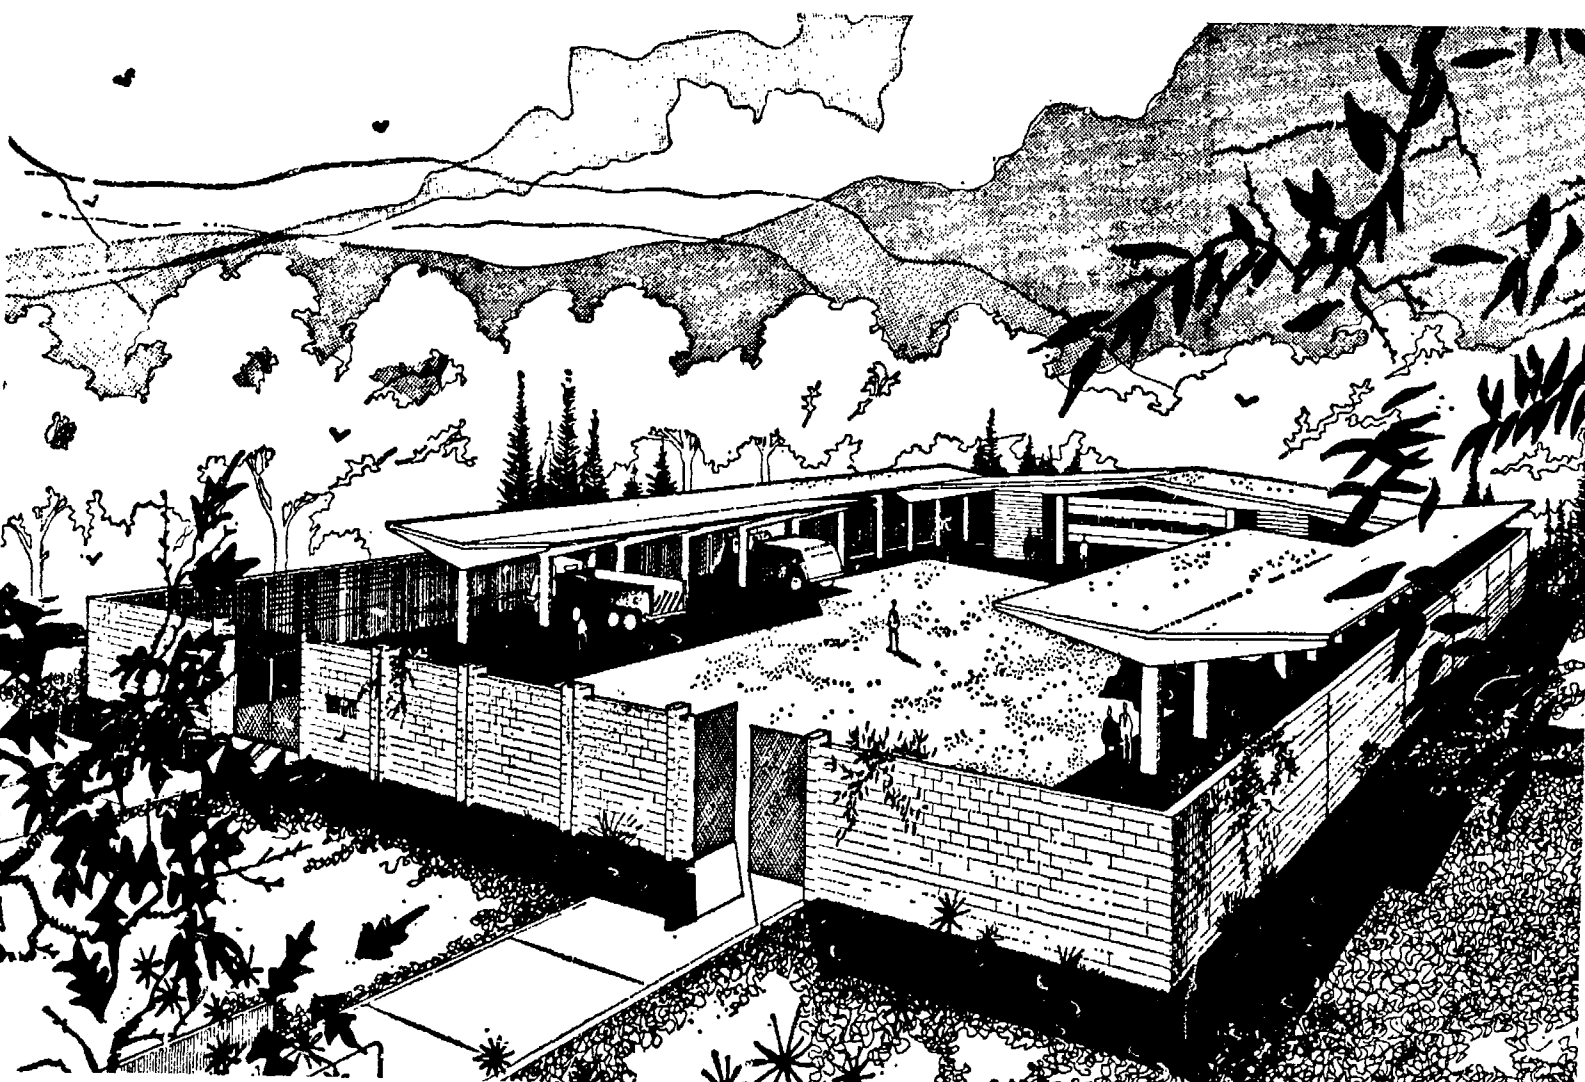

CARL EMMETT PRITCHARD, 32 and Raymond Winegard, 28, walked out of Recorder's Court today where they were being arraigned on burglary charges. The two then robbed a gun store and a super market and stole a car. They went to a home where a gun battle ensued during which one policeman was killed. The men, who then escaped, are still being sought.

Sunday, July 26
THE BODIES OF THREE people were found in a locked closet of a ransacked Livonia home today. The bodies, evidently dead for three or four days, were of an elderly man and his two elderly sisters. There was evidence that they had attempted to break out of the closet before they died. Neighbors, who called police, became suspicious when laundry the two sisters had hung outside Friday was still there today.

Monday, July 27
A BAND OF DETROIT teenagers went on a destructive spree last night. Fifteen Negroes, returning by bus from Edgewater Park, became rowdy and were asked to leave the bus. They then beat the bus driver, robbed him of $18, ripped up bus seats, and broke windows of stores along Seven Mile road. Several teens have been arrested.

Tuesday, July 28
ANOTHER ROCKET went aloft from Cape Kennedy Tuesday morning as the United States made its 13th attempt at taking close up pictures of the moon. The 806 pound Ranger 7 went into orbit around the earth, as planned, and then kicked out of orbit this afternoon to begin the journey to the moon. If all goes well, six cameras will begin taking some 4,000 pictures of the moon's surface on Friday. Early reports on the satellite's health are A-O-K.

Grosse Pointe City's New DPW Garage

This architect's drawing is of the structure now being erected behind the City Hall in Maumee avenue between Neff and St. Clair. The building, for the Department of Public Works, will be finished by October. A description of the new facility is given in the story on the garage bond issue, on this page.

The third and final of the three bond issues under study in this series of NEWS articles is a request for $100,000 for construction of a new Department of Public Works Garage, in the rear of the City's municipal offices at Maumee road.

Financing of New Garage Explained To City's Voters

Manager John M. Cantwell Cites Reasons For Third Of Proposed Bond Issues To Be Placed On Ballot In September

(Editor's note: What follows is the third in a series of continuing articles designed to better acquaint City voters with a packet of three bond issues they will be asked to vote upon September 1.)

The third and final of the three bond issues under study in this series of NEWS articles is a request for $100,000 for construction of a new Department of Public Works Garage, in the rear of the City's municipal offices at Maumee road.

City Manager John M. Cantwell last week outlined six reasons why a bond issue was needed to pay for the garage. He stated:

Reasons Offered

1) "On March 11, 1964 we were officially notified by the Housing and Home Finance Agency that the area in which we were located had been removed from the eligible areas to receive funds under the Accelerated Public Works Program, therefore our application for matching funds ($47,634.00) had been suspended. All planning up until this time had anticipated the approval of this request for funds.

2) "The City's share for this project was to come from the proceeds realized by selling our Jefferson avenue property now occupied by the Unitarian Church.

3) "Since by agreement we must vacate our present D.P.W. Garage this fall when the new Unitarian Church is completed, we were compelled to start building our new DPW Garage on June 1, 1964.

4) "We have not made a concerted effort to sell the Jefferson Avenue property for two reasons:

a) "The Church is still occupying this property and the inability for a purchaser to either immediately subdivide or occupy the existing building is a deterrent to a maximum sale price.

b) "Good planning indicates that, if possible, we tie the sale of our property in with that of the adjoining property now up for sale. However, since the owner of the adjoining property has made this property a part of his recent Bankruptcy Proceeding, this matter has been tied up in litigation. It does not appear that this matter will be finalized real soon.

Bonds Needed

5) "Therefore, it is proposed that we issue bonds for the full cost of our new DPW Garage—$100,000—with the pledge to the voters that proceeds from the sale of the Jefferson avenue property will be used to rebuild and repair catch basins and curbs.

"We have been losing ground each year by doing this work on a piecemeal basis and a substantial need will be given an accelerated affect if a $40,000 to $50,000 project were undertaken in one year.

"For example: City Manager had a survey made in May 1964 of our catch basin needs which reflect the following:

We have a total of 400 basins in our City. Of these:

160 Need Total Rebuilding

W. H. Jones Released on $5,000 Bond

A teacher in the Grosse Pointe Public School System has been charged with the murder of a Roscommon, Mich., man on July 25.

State police identified the man as William H. Jones, 30, a social studies teacher at Pierce Junior High School. He has been indicted for the murder of Clarence L. McLachlan, 32, of Roscommon.

The charge against Jones is for murder in the second degree, non pre-meditated. He was released Monday, July 27, after posting a $5,000 bond.

The following account of the murder was given to the NEWS by the Houghton Lake post of the State Police in a telephone interview Monday night.

Employed at Camp
Jones is reportedly working in the area as waterfront director at Camp Westminister for girls on Higgins Lake.

On the night of the murder he was staying in the Van Dusen lodge on Higgins Lake, police said.

Jones told police he was inside the lodge when he heard a noise outside and went to investigate, carrying a .22 calibre pistol.

He reportedly came upon McLachlan and a woman, Alta Frank, 41, of Roscommon, standing outside McLachlan's car engaged in an argument, the police report said.

Jones told police the man came toward him, and Jones fired his pistol.

(An Associated Press dispatch stated that Jones said he thought McLachlan was carrying a weapon. State Police would not confirm this report, however.)

Shot Three Times
McLachlan was reported dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital in Grayling. He was said to have been struck by three pistol shots.

The site of the murder is at north edge of Higgins Lake in Crawford County, about eight miles due west of Roscommon. The time of the murder was fixed by police at shortly after 1 a.m. July 25.

Jones lives with his wife and one child at 974 Nottingham road. He has been a teacher in the Pointe school system since 1959.

Investigation of the incident by State Police involved the questioning of several witnesses who saw or heard it. State Police stated Monday that there may possibly be no direct eyewitnesses of the shooting.

Further details were not disclosed.

An examination of the case has been set for August 19, State Police revealed.

Born in Norwalk, Conn.
Jones moved to Grosse Pointe while a boy, and graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. The family home was at 16850 St. Paul.

He majored in history at Denison University, Granville, O., and gained further credit at Wayne State University.

Judge Belanger Fines Accoster

Leonard E. Brock, 26, of 2959 Springle, Detroit, was arraigned before Park Judge Joseph Belanger on Tuesday, July 21, on a charge of accosting, was found guilty and paid a fine of $35 rather than spend five days in the Wayne County Jail.

Brock was accused of accosting a 22-year-old woman at Beaconsfield and Jefferson, at 8:35 a.m., on the date of his arraignment, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The woman had the presence of mind to take down the license number of Brock's car as he was driving away.

She told police that she was walking on Jefferson, when the man drove by on Beaconsfield in his automobile, stopped and got out and tried to push her into his car, but she resisted and Brock drove away.

Tracing the license number, Det. Lt. Arnold Hough and Det. James LaPratt went to Brock's residence and arrested him and took him to the station where he was booked and charged, and later tried.

Pumps Busy As Weather Stays Warm

Saturday's Rain Helped Parched Lawns and Gardens but Temperatures Remain High

Since the relatively cool July 4 weekend, temperatures have soared to 90 and over six times in Grosse Pointe. The highest temperature so far recorded this month was 93, last Monday, July 27.

Seven other days during July the temperature has been in the high eighties. The latest heat wave has endured since July 15, the last time the daily high temperature went below 85. The average high has been 85 degrees.

In the same period last year, temperatures hit 90 only four times while the average high for the month was one degree lower at 84.

The rainfall measurement, although higher than last year, has not helped to bring much relief to the community, heat-wise. For a period of 10 days, from July 15 to July 24, no rainfall was recorded. However, the 72 inch of rainfall last Saturday aided in raising the month's total to 2.21 inches, .05 of an inch higher than last year.

Pointe residents have been using more water and water pumpage amounts have increased substantially. The most water pumped in one day so far this month was on July 24, when the temperature was 88. Records show that 8,790,000 gallons of water were used that day. The minimum on any one day for this month was 2,640,000 gallons.

On June 3, the records show 9,120,000 gallons were pumped to set the high for the year.

Park Places Restrictions On Installing, Servicing Refrigeration Equipment

Air Conditioning Systems Included in New Code; Councilman Zimmerman's Advice Accepted to Reduce Strictness of Regulations

Restrictions have been placed on who may install and service refrigeration and air conditioning equipment in the Park, as a result of action by the Park Council Monday night.

The advice of one councilman, Kent Zimmerman, prevented the restrictions from being a good deal more strict than they are.

Under Zimmerman's advice, the council studied the Reciprocal Refrigeration Code, which dictates that only licensed individuals or firms may work on refrigeration equipment.

At present, exactly one plumber in the Park holds such a license.

If the code had been adopted in full all refrigeration work—including the installation of a small air conditioner—would have been restricted to license holders.

In Councilman Zimmerman's opinion, such a restriction would have been "unwise." Installing small units is a very simple operation, one that can be done at low cost by non-licensed plumbers, he pointed out.

Hard to Enforce

He added that, even if the Code were adopted, it would be impossible to enforce.

Though the Code is in effect now in such cities as Detroit and Dearborn, it is often ignored in the installation of the small units, Councilman Zimmerman stated.

Rather than place a restriction that invites disobedience, Zimmerman suggested that the Code's restrictions be adopted only for units of over 5 ton capacity.

The action means that only large air conditioning units, found almost exclusively in the commercial buildings, will be under the restriction of the code.

For installing small, home units, the resident is free to choose whomever he wishes.

Save Residents Money
Zimmerman summarized his argument to the council in the statement: "There's no reason why residents of our city should pay someone $9 an hour to install a window air conditioner."

As adopted, the Code provides a safety factor in installing large units, where sophisticated engineering is apt to be needed.

The restrictions are out of place and costly in the case of small installations, Zimmerman asserted. The Council agreed; the Code was adopted, with Councilman Zimmerman's qualifications a part of it.

Burglar Takes Cash, Checks

Two checks and $164 in cash were stolen from the home of Martin McKee, 287 Ridgeman, on the night of July 23, McKee told Farms police.

Occupying the house alone while his family is out of town, McKee left at about 9 p.m. that evening. He noticed the articles missing from his dresser drawer on the second floor at 12 midnight, he told police.

Farms detectives are investigating.

W. H. Kessler Appointed to Park Council

Architect Member of Planning Commission to Fill Vacancy Left by Former Mayor

The Park council Monday night appointed William H. Kessler to fill the vacant spot left by the retirement of former mayor Kenneth M. Cunningham.

Kessler is 39 and resides at 1013 Cadieux road. He is a member of the Park's Planning Commission and is a partner in the architectural firm of Meathe, Kessler and Associates.

Only one name, that of Kessler, was placed in nomination by the council. He was elected unanimously. His appointment runs through 1965.

A registered architect in Michigan and Ohio, Kessler is a design consultant for the Federal Public Housing Administration.

Born in Reading, Pa., Kessler was graduated from Harvard College. Upon graduation, he became an instructor of design at the Harvard architectural school.

From 1952 until 1955 he worked with architectural firms in Detroit and Kansas City, and in 1955 he formed a partnership with Philip J. Meathe.

The firm of Meathe-Kessler has won over 13 major architectural prizes in its nine years. Among their prize-winning designs are the Mt. Clemens Federal Savings and Loan building, Mt. Clemens Public Housing and the Olivet College Student Center.

The firm is currently engaged in architectural commissions totaling over $10 million. It is also working on a 15-year project, the $30 million campus for Grand Valley College, near Grand Rapids.

Young Cyclist Struck by Car

An eight-year-old boy who ventured on his bicycle onto Kercheval avenue was struck by an auto and sustained minor injuries July 24.

The driver of the auto, Marilyn Louise Templeton, 28, of 1293 Coplin, Detroit, saw the boy dart out of a driveway on his bike. She braked and swerved her car into the other lane.

As a result, the boy sustained only cuts and bruises. He was treated at his home by parents.

Park police issued a bicycle violation ticket to the boy, whose name is withheld. It is illegal for a child under 12 to ride a bicycle in the street, though police admit the law is one of the most difficult on the books to enforce.

Goes On Shooting Spree After Killing His Dogs

Two bullets, one fired into a Park home, and the other into a Detroit home, Sunday night, July 19, were identified as .32 caliber slugs fired from the same gun, it was established by the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the man responsible for the shooting was arrested on Tuesday, July 21, by police of Detroit's Conner Station, Fifteenth Precinct. The gun used in the shootings was confiscated.

The chief said that the man, name withheld because of psychiatric reasons, is being held for observation at Detroit's Receiving Hospital.

One shot penetrated and shattered a window glass of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson, 1009 Balfour road; earlier, a shot was fired through a window of a Detroit home in Parkview street, according to Detroit police.

Previous to the shooting, Detroit authorities said, the man shot to death two of his pet dogs, then forced his wife to accompany him as he drove through Detroit and Park streets, and picked the two houses at random as his target.

The man's wife told police that she was not aware that he shot through windows. She said she believed that he was merely shooting at the buildings.

Burglars Steal Narcotics From Woods Drugstore

Arnold's Drug Store, 20853 Mack avenue, was forcibly entered during the night of Thursday, July 23, and hundreds of dollars worth of narcotics were stolen, and an unknown amount of cash was taken from the cash register.

The burglary was discovered by Patrolman William Duster, who was making his routine rounds of checking doors of business places. He found the store's side door glass broken, and a large rock on the sidewalk, apparently used to smash the glass.

The officer checked the inside of the store and noticed several bottles of soft drinks had been smashed on the floor and bottle racks knocked over.

In his report, Duster said he discovered an empty storage drawer on the floor, and another one missing. The missing drawer is believed to have contained the narcotics.

Dets. Gaylord Goiding and Albert Abend said the narcotics, possibly stolen by addicts, are valued at between $300 and $500, and contained among others, morphine tablets. The cash register was open and empty, they said.

Two witnesses, a man and his sister, told the detectives that they were about to retire at about 11:30 p.m., Thursday when they heard a loud crash.

They said they went to their window on the east side of their home, that overlooks the drug store, and saw a light colored Curb repair needs are now being studied. This could approximate conservatively $30,000 to $40,000.

6) "A $100,000, 20-year G. O. Bonds at 3 1/4 per cent would cost approximately .25 mills or 25 cents per $1,000 of local assessed values. A $10,000 Home Assessment equals $2.50 Annual Tax.

Explains Time Element
As in the case of the other bond issues slated for the September 1 ballot, certain considerations prompted the Council to want to place them before the voters as soon as possible.

First, the City did not wish to place the City's needs at a disadvantage by permitting a 1 mill operating proposition from Wayne County to have priority over the City's needs.

Second, the council did not desire to place the City's needs in contest with the Grosse Pointe Public School System, when in the near future they request additional millage for the construction of a new High School.

Finally, construction of the D. P. W. garage is scheduled for completion in October, 1964. If this issue is defeated, the City will need considerable time before the end of its fiscal year, March 31, 1965, in which to revise its financial planning. Possibly, some other type of bonding measure would be requested on the November, 1964 ballot.

Design Revealed
Surrounding the entire garage area is a ten-foot high stone wall. In the front, two gates, each ten feet wide, lead into a courtyard. On either side of the courtyard, 12 bays for maintenance trucks are covered by a poured concrete roof.

The garage thus provides a "semi-covered" protection for the vehicles.

The total area enclosed by the four walls measures 166 feet by 113 feet. In the rear of that area, the plans call for enclosed garage and office space, measuring 57 feet by 42 feet.

Within that garage is space for maintenance of the City's street service vehicles, including a heavy duty hoist, air compressor and lubrication equipment.

With this equipment close at hand, costly and time-consuming trips to service stations will be eliminated.

Also part of the heated building are the following rooms: a parking meter division workroom; a room for police evidence; water department room (for storage of meters and other supplies); and a locker and lunchroom area for D.P.W. employees.

Another time saver will be a 6,000 gallon gasoline tank, placed near the front gates of the enclosure.

Although the garage and courtyard design does not provide total protection from the elements, protection is seen as

Warren Loot

They were trying to carry a safe into the trunk of their car. Two others in the party fled police.

One of the two fleeing men was later caught at his home. He was identified as James J. Fitzgerald, 21, of 1185 Barrett, Madison Heights.

Fitzgerald's wife told police that she had last seen her husband in the company of Weust, the police revealed.

When caught with the loot from the Warren robbery, Weust and Bagnall claimed that they had found the jewel case in a yard at Jefferson and 12 Mile road in St. Clair Shores, while looking at a boat for sale.

Under Michigan law, a warrant for possession of stolen property can only be issued if the suspect is aware the goods in his possession are stolen.

Claim Ignorance
Weust and Bagnall claimed they did not know the box was stolen. Farms police questioned the two for two days, but were unable to change their story.

The two were released on July 23.

Along with the jewel box in their car police found a pair of silky gloves, which a Farms detective said are standard equipment for burglars.

Questioned about the gloves, one of the pair said he had worn the gloves recently as a pallbearer in his father's funeral.

In the Farms police detective bureau, the investigation continues.

Narcotics

automobile, with its left wheels to the curb. They also saw a man bending over, as though putting something in the car. Then they noticed a second man by the vehicle.

The man and his sister said that both men near the car appeared to be tall and thin. They could give no description of the vehicle other than that it was light colored and possibly a 1960 model. The make is unknown, the detectives said.

The witnesses said they saw the men get into the car, pull into the driveway alongside the drug store, back up and drive toward Mack avenue, then make a turn going south on Mack. The two men appeared calm and unhurried, it was said.

Golding and Abend said that the drawer containing the narcotics was one-foot by 18 inches by two feet, with a white painted front. It might have been discarded somewhere in the area.

If found, the finder is requested not to touch the drawer, but notify police immediately.

Fire Equipment Placed on Dock

The City has taken steps to guard against boat fires at its Norbert P. Neff Lakefront Park, by installing three dry chemical extinguishers on the docks within easy reach of boat owners.

The three units were installed Thursday, July 23. One was placed at the end of each of the small docks leading off the main arm and one at the end of the main dock.

They are encased in weather-proof metal cabinets. The glass window of the cabinets must be broken to put the extinguisher into use.

Although there have been no recent fires at the City pier, boat owners in the Pointe experience some fire loss each summer.

Just a few weeks ago, a fire at the Farms pier totally destroyed a boat belonging to Dr. Walter W. Hassig, and damaged adjacent boats as well.

An especially dangerous situation is created by owners of outboard motors, who often fuel their boats by pouring from cans into the motor, sometime spilling a thin layer of gasoline onto the water.

A carelessly tossed match or cigaret could cause a major fire at any of the parks, regardless of safety measures, Pointe firemen cautioned.

Attempted Bribe Buys Jail Cell

Reportedly in a highly inebriated condition, Otto William Vallee, 20, of 22014 Presard, St. Clair Shores, tried to pass a buck to a Woods police officer on July 25.

His money was refused, and he was booked on a charge of bribery and corruption. He ended up paying $35, but through legal channels.

The story began when Woods patrolman Jack Patterson came upon Vallee asleep in his car on Hampton road east of Mack avenue. Vallee refused to produce identification, but instead handed out a $10 bill and handed it over.

Patrolman Patterson asked Vallee, first, if he knew that he had just given him money, and second, if it was intended as a bribe. Vallee answered "yes" to both questions.

Vallee was tossed into a squad car, and taken to the station. On the way, he reportedly tried waving money in front of the officer again.

In the station, he tried to bribe the desk sergeant, also with no luck. He was placed in a cell block overnight, and paid a fine the next day.

GP City Council Relies Heavily on Bagby Report

Candid observers have remarked that the Grosse Pointe City Council often appears to be drawing its every move from a 54-page study compiled recently by its City Planning Consultants, Scott Bagby and Associates.

This lengthy tome, the "Bagby Report," devotes a long range plan for preservation of the city's fine characteristics, and explains means of carrying out these plans.

The influence of the report on the council was remarked upon by a resident of the City at the July 20 council meeting, when he referred to the volume as "the Gospel according to Bagby" and later simply "the Revised Standard Version."

The name of Bagby is heard in the City council chambers, we'd estimate, on an average of 15 times each time the body convenes.

At that same July 20 meeting, a resident, one Charles W. Toles, Jr., of 295 Lincoln road, approached the council with his plan for extending the width of his lot and building a new home on a sixty foot lot.

His request was denied. The reason: when Scott Bagby surveyed the block on Lincoln in question, he stated in his report that a "long range goal" for the area should be to preserve the 100-foot widths wherever possible.

Several residents from the area in the council chambers that evening supported Toles' proposal, and the council listened politely.

Then, holding true to the letter of the planning report, they moved on to other business. Mr. Toles was instructed to ask his neighbor, Benjamin Paddock, III, of 305 Lincoln, if Paddock would sell some 20 additional feet to make the lot of an acceptable width.

If Paddock agrees, then Toles will be back with a fresh appeal to the City council, and may this time be granted his wish.

His case showed the large degree to which the City council is inclined to rely on its very exhaustive blueprint, the Bagby Report.

Pumps Busy

Through July 27, a total of 161,030,000 gallons of water have been consumed, with a daily average of 5,965,000 gallons. The normal daily average is about three million gallons.

On the hottest day this month, last Monday, July 27, when it was 93, a total of 5,710,000 gallons of water were pumped. This could be attributed to a decrease in sprinkling because of the big rain of last Saturday, which was a much-needed blessing to lawns and gardens.

College Dance Set For Aug. 29

August 29, a Saturday evening, is the date of this year's annual College Send-Off Dance. Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, the dance will last from 8:30-12 o'clock.

The dance will be held in the air-conditioned Crystal Ballroom of the Fries Auditorium, as well as, weather permitting, outdoors on the Center's lake-side terrace.

Invitations have been sent to all 1963 and 1964 graduates of Grosse Pointe's public, private, and parochial schools. But — everyone of college age is invited, whether or not they received an invitation.

The dance will feature Roston Clark's band and, as a special added attraction, the popular Disc-Chords.

Admission to the College Send-Off Dance, 1964 is $2 a couple, refreshments included. Needless to say, the dance is "couples only."

Drug Possessor Awaits Hearing

Jerald Joseph Elliott, 27, of 968 Barrington road was arraigned in the Farms municipal court July 22 on charges of violating the Dangerous Drug Act. Elliott pled not guilty and demanded further examination. He was discharged to Wayne County Jail until he could post his bond, or until his examination, which was scheduled for July 29.

Charges against Elliott date from July 17, when he appeared at the door of the residence of Mrs. John W. Mulford, 34 Provencal, and "acted very strangely," according to a caretaker.

Police investigated his car and found several samples of a dangerous drug, which they confiscated. Elliott was released pending identification of the drug.

On July 21, Elliott returned to the same home in Provencal and once more "talked very strangely," and asked to speak to Mrs. Mulford.

Police were summoned, and the visitor was questioned and transported home to the custody of his mother.

Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Dale Devlin had recommended that a warrant be issued against Elliott for "possession of amphetamine drugs, while not contained in their original container; unlawful possession."

After he pled not guilty at the July 22 hearing, Elliott was asked to post $500 bond or remain in jail until his examination date. Since he did not produce the bond, Farms municipal judge Grant E. Armstrong sent him to jail.

Promotion Given To Dr. Gaukerke

Dr. Warren E. Gaukerke, 316 Merrweather road, has been promoted from associate professor to professor in Wayne State University's College of Education.

Dr. Gaukerke joined the WSU faculty in September, 1959, teaching courses in the structure of American education and school business management. He formerly served as an associate professor at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., and as an assistant professor at Texas A&M, Kingsville, Texas.

A graduate of Milwaukee State Teachers College, where he received a B.E. degree, Dr. Gaukerke also holds an M.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin and a Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago.

He is a charter member of the National Organization on Legal Problems of Education, currently serving on its executive committee and is also a member of the National Society for the Study of Education and the American Association of School Administrators.

Dr. Gaukerke has written two books, "Legal and Ethical Responsibilities of School Personnel" and "School Law." He is also the author of several journal articles dealing primarily with legal aspects in education.

Married, he and his wife, Ruth, have one child, a son, Douglas.

HE'S HONEST

Doug Dover, 13, of 253 Hillcrest road, brought to the Farms police a purse he saw tossed from a car window on Moross near Lake Shore Drive July 23. It was returned to its owner, Julia Anna Strayer, 467 McKinley.

Fitt Appointed Army Counsel

A former Pointer, Alfred B. Fitt, has been named to the top legal post in the Pentagon. He will become the Army's general counsel on August 3. He has been living in Washington for some time.

Fitt is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Fitt, of Ann Arbor. Dr. Fitt served as minister at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church from 1930 to 1958.

In moving to the new legal post with the Army, Fitt will give up the position of deputy assistant defense attorney for civil rights, the top civil rights post in the Pentagon.

A graduate of Yale University in 1944, Fitt served in the war and then returned to graduate with honors from the University of Michigan Law School. He was later a legal partner of former Governor G. Mennen Williams and was appointed by the late President Kennedy as Undersecretary of Defense for Civil Rights. Dr. and Mrs. Fitt now live at 2220 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor.

Colonel Havel Receives Honor

President Lyndon B. Johnson presented Colonel Frank L. Havel, Army Materiel Command's Project Manager for General Purpose Vehicles, a special Department of Defense Certificate of Merit during ceremonies on July 21 at which Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara honored outstanding Defense Department employees at the Pentagon in the Nation's capital.

Those receiving award were honored for the valuable contributions they made in the Defense Department's cost reduction program.

Colonel Havel received the award for his exceptional leadership and outstanding performance of duty which resulted in savings to the government of over $21 million during the re-trucks and multiple-fuel engines trucks and multi-fuel engines as well as the replacement of high cost magnesium wheels with lower cost steel wheels on the M151 ¼ ton trucks.

Placing high demands and incentives in the accomplishment of objectives for cost reduction, Colonel Havel was directly responsible for the planning and execution of multi-year, two-step advertised procurement and for introduction of the multi-fuel engine two years ahead of schedule.

The 46-year-old Colonel Havel is now in his third tour of Army duty in the metropolitan Detroit area. His project manager's office is located at Headquarters, U.S. Army Mobility Command, Warren, Michigan.

He holds a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering, with honors, from the University of Missouri and a master's degree in business administration, with honors, from the University of Chicago. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, Pi Tau Sigma and Beta Gamma Sigma fraternities. He resides with his wife and family in Harvard road, Grosse Pointe Park.

Set a good example—what making them what they are.

Woman Injured As Car Hits Tree

A lone woman driver was seriously injured in the Park on Wednesday, July 22, when her car left the road and crashed into a tree at the intersection of Jefferson and Bishop, according to a police accident report.

Injured was Dorothy M. Scheuer, 40, of 23840 Deziel, St. Clair Shores, who suffered severe facial injuries and a broken arm. Doctors at Bon Secours Hospital said the arm was broken in three places.

The woman was taken to the hospital by police ambulance. She was unconscious at the time, the accident report disclosed. Doctors refused to allow police to question her, when she recovered consciousness because of the seriousness of her condition.

According to Patrolman William Crandall, who was dispatched to the scene, Mrs.

Scheuer was driving east on Jefferson, at 12:48 a.m., when her car went out of control, jumped the curb and crashed into the tree on the north side of the avenue.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the woman's car struck the tree with such force, the impression of the tree was indented on the front of the car.

He said it is not known whether the woman had fallen asleep. A complete investigation will not be possible until Mrs. Scheuer's condition improves, he added.

The chief said that witnesses verified the facts known up to now, and identified the woman as the driver of the accident car.

The woman told police Monday that her wooden sandal had become caught on the accelerator pedal.

Named to Head U of D Alumni

Sidney Hirschfield, of 531 Saddle lane, was recently elected president of the University of Detroit Alumni Association.

An active member of the Alumni Association since he received his bachelor's degree in 1949 and his master of business administration degree from the Graduate School in 1957, Hirschfield is manager of the administration department in Corporate Comptrollers Office of the Chrysler Corporation in Highland Park.

He is also active as a lecturer in the U. of D. Graduate School and a member of the Industrial Relations Association and Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary fraternity.

Rotarians Hear Dr. Paul Voelker

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club at their last meeting heard Dr. Paul H. Voelker, Divisional Director, Department of Special Education, of the Detroit Public Schools. His subject was "Special Education."

He discussed the problems and challenges in teaching the blind, and deaf, and otherwise handicapped children. Another area he covered was the training of the crippled children having cerebral palsy, epilepsy, etc. Each of these groups requires certain special handling in their education.

Vandals Damage New Residence

Vandals entered a new home under construction and caused more than $500 damage, according to information given Woods police on Monday, July 20, by the building contractor.

Edward Russell of 880 Sunningdale, who is building the home at 1388 Blairmoor, said that all basic wiring in the house had been cut by someone who apparently had some kind of knowledge regarding electrical equipment and wiring. The wires were cut with a wire cutter, he said.

He also told police, that when he turned on the water system, to check the copper pipes, he discovered that the vandal, or vandals, had punched holes in the tubing.

He did not give an estimate of damage to the pipes, but said that damage to the wiring alone amounted to more than $500.

Police Report Far from Dull

Among the various items listed in the Grosse Pointe City police monthly report for June were the following calls: one raccoon complaint, one repossessed automobile, one boat in distress, four dog bites and one stray duck.

Among violations they issued were 769 for meter parking and one for harboring a nuisance.

During the same month, City firemen answered 15 calls. A resident of Lakeland avenue summoned both fire trucks for the task of putting out a fire in a toaster with water and sponge.

A maid at the residence at 347 St. Clair road received consolation from City firemen after she plugged a hi-fi speaker into a 110 volt wall outlet, and burned out the speaker.

Hearing Testing Unit at Eastland

The Detroit Hearing Center, a Torch Drive agency, has announced that following a successful program at Northland, Wonderland, Southgate, Tech Plaza, and Westborn Shopping Centers, the mobile hearing testing trailer unit has moved to Eastland Shopping Center in Harper Woods, for continuation of the free hearing testing project.

The Detroit Hearing Center is offering free 2-minute hearing tests to adult members of the community, through August 8.

Testing hours are as follow: Monday, Thursday, Friday, 1 to 8:30 p.m.; Tuesday, Saturday, 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.; Wednesday, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
For further information call FAirmount 1-1436.

William Kirby At Convention

Farms Councilman William G. Kirby has been appointed a member of the American Municipal Association's Committee on Water Resources.

The committee met in Miami Beach, Florida, during the annual American Municipal Congress Saturday, July 25. Mayor Kirby was in attendance.

The group is responsible for reviewing and updating existing policy statements of the Association in the areas covered by the committee, and for considering any additional proposals.

Recommendations from the committee were to be considered for approval by the voting delegates in the convention.

Two Policemen Resign in Park

Two police officers resigned from the Park Police Department, making four who have left the service in five months, according to information released by Police Chief Arthur Louwers on Thursday, July 23.

Official resignations were received from Patrolman Paul Roek and John Carroll. The former's resignation became effective on July 16; and Carroll's, on July 22.

Roek left the Park Department to join the Pontiac Police Department; and Carroll quit and joined the display advertising department of the Detroit Free Press.

Roek joined the Park Department on July 27, 1961; and Carroll, on July 23, 1955.

On February 28 of this year, George McDowell resigned as patrolman to work for the Automobile Club of Michigan as an insurance salesman; and John Trombley left the department to enter in the building construction trade, on March 15.

Illegal Beer Outlet Raided

Four Pointe minors were in an East Jefferson apartment house when Detroit police conducted a raid on Thursday, July 16, following a tip from a Woods detective that alcoholic beverages were being sold to underage persons.

Arrested and held for investigation of contributing to the delinquency of minors, was Emmett Ziegler, 47, of 1520 Lemay, who police said, used the Jefferson avenue apartment as an alcohol outlet, retailing to minors.

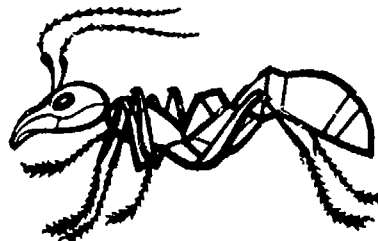

The tip on the violation was given to Detroit's Jefferson Station, Fifth Precinct, by Woods Det. Albert Abend, who had received the information from a minor arrested for a traffic offense. The minor had been drinking prior to his arrest.

Abend said that at the time of the raid, several minors, including four from the Pointe, were surprised in the act of purchasing beer from Ziegler. Two of the youths were 17-years-old, one was 16-years-old, and the youngest, 14-years-old, according to Detroit police information.

The Woods detective said that the juvenile arrested for the traffic violation, told him that there are several places in the Detroit area catering to minors desiring to purchase beer.

Abend said that the raid on the apartment was made possible through the cooperation of the juvenile's understanding father, the minor's helpful information, the assistance and fast action of the Fifth Precinct's Clean-Up Squad, and that of Lt. John Ware, head of the Precinct's Detective Bureau.

Good news from Traverse City is at the top of this week's column.

Two Lightnings from Crescent Sail Yacht Club have finished one-two in the Lightning Class Association's district championships last weekend at the Traverse Bay Yacht Club.

Honors for skipping the two sloops in ahead of the best lightning skippers on the Lakes go to Jim Kohls, who was first, and Hank Cawthra, second.

The two, with their crews, will head west to San Diego, Calif., to vie for the national championships from August 17 to 22.

Novices Playing Tennis Tourney

The local preliminaries for the Detroit Novice Tennis Tournament, sponsored by the Detroit News, are being held July 28 through August 2 at Ghesquiere Park. The final and semi-final matches will be played on Saturday and Sunday, August 1-2.

The Novice Tournament is open only to novices, beginners, and other non-serious players who have never before won a tennis tournament and who reside in the Woods.

To insure equal opportunity for all, there will be three age classifications in both the men's and women's divisions:

Junior Division—Open to all boys and girls under 16 years of age.

Senior Division—Open to all eligible players 16-29 years of age.

Veteran Division—Open to all eligible players 30 years of age and over.

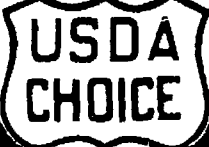

One winner and one runner-up will be selected from each category.

The finalists of this GPW preliminary tourney will receive trophies and will participate in the Metropolitan Detroit Novice Tournament finals to be held at Northwestern Field on August 8-9.

SPEED SIGN SMEARED

Speed limit signs at Cook road near Chalfonte and Morningside drive near Pear Tree were painted over, obscuring the speed, on July 25, police reported.

Grid Pros Plan To Aid Charity

Tickets are now available for the August 14 Charity Football Game between the Detroit Lions and the Baltimore Colts.

This year the game is being played for the benefit of Detroit Children's Hospital, with all proceeds above the actual contract expenses going to the Hospital's equipment fund.

The need for the newest and finest developments in equipment is constant. Physicians and surgeons at Children's Hospital are always seeking better ways of serving the Hospital's many and varied cases. Frequently techniques of staff members are so in advance of manufacturers that the doctors themselves are able to advise in the design of new equipment.

The Hospital is a Torch Drive agency, and funds from the Drive help with operations but cannot be used for capital expenditures such as equipment.

The pre-season, sponsored by the Detroit Lions and Free Press Charities, Inc., is scheduled for 8 p.m. at Tiger Stadium.

Fans will have a chance to see the first 1964 performance of returning star Alex Karras. Also highlighted in the contest will be Colts' star Johnny Unitas, a long-time favorite of Detroit fans.

Reserved seats tickets are on sale at all Michigan Consolidated Gas Company offices as well as at the Detroit Lions.

BIKE SKIDS
While riding his bicycle on Mack avenue in front of Park Junior High School, Paul Colby, 58, of 741 Hawthorne, hit a patch of slippery pavement and fell. He was taken to Bon Secours by Woods police, and treated for injuries to his left shoulder and right foot.

Tankers at CCD Seek First Win

By RIC HENDEE

With a 147-169 loss at Plum Hollow last Thursday the Country Club swimming team dropped their win-loss record to 0-4. They are still tied with the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club team for the basement in Inter-Club swimming. The Yacht Club slipped to the Detroit Golf Club last week.

A major highlight at the Plum Hollow meet came when 8-year-old Country Club swimmer Trent Brooks, swimming exhibition, lost his suit as he sprinted to finish his race. He won.

Lisa Speer pulled another first for Country Club in the 8 and under girls' freestyle. She rates among the top ten best swimmers in the Inter-Club for her age group.

Another important race for CCD was the big boys medley relay. Opposed to a long string of second-place relays, the medley won. It was the first time this season the event was won by the Country Club.

At another Inter-Club meet a large upset was taking place. The highly ranked Detroit Yacht Club squad was fighting the Grosse Ile tankers at the GICC pool. Grosse Ile's growing strength and the several peculiarities of their pool (wooden turn boards, no lane markers, fin-shaped pool) combined to destroy the Yacht Club's perfect season. DYC lost the meet by nine points.

The loss gives the Yacht Club a 3-1 record opposed to Grosse Ile's 2-1-1 total. They go against Plum Hollow this afternoon.

Today the Country Club of Detroit goes to Dearborn for a league dual meet. Several of CCD's swimmers have returned from various summer trips and will be on hand for the contest. And maybe, just maybe... well, anyway, CCD will be trying.

GPYC Tankers Lose Another

By Mike Granger

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Mets (. . . well maybe the team isn't that bad), lost their fourth consecutive swimming meet last Thursday, as the Detroit Golf Club won their fourth meet, 174 to 138.

The Yacht Club won just one relay, the boys 100-yard medley relay, 12 years old and under. Members of this winning team were: Joe Metes who swam backstroke, breaststroke, Bob Everett, butterflyer Jim Black and anchorman Jeff Black. Their winning time was 1:06.5.

The Yacht Club managed to win 7 out of 20 individual events.

Grosse Pointe captured both of the 8 and under, 25-yard freestyle events. Patty Ray, for the fourth straight week, won the 25-yard event. Patty's time was 18.9. Steve Mandalos was unbeatable for the boys.

Bruce Black paced Grosse Pointe's attack, as he has all year, by winning his two individual events, the 50-yard freestyle and backstroke events. Bruce's brother Jim took a second in the freestyle event. This is the fourth straight meet that Bruce has swept his individual events, and he should be able to win both of these events in next month's finals at Lochmoor.

Gail Hilger and Joan Couzens were both individual winners in the girls 15-16-year-old events. Gail won the 50-yard butterfly event with a time of 35.1 and Joan won the 50-yard freestyle. In addition to her butterfly victory, Gail finished second to Joan in the freestyle, and placed second in the backstroke. Consistent good swimming by both of these girls has been one of the few bright be followed by a Contestant's Picnic at The Anchorage.

The annual ladies' party is set for Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 4 at Inselruke, I-LYA Commodore and Mrs. Frank Miller's summer home at the Bay. Tuesday evening, a "Hootenanny" type of program gets under way with a "gas light theme" setting, replacing the professional variety show which has been staged for many years.

Flagship for this year's regatta will be Commodore Frank Miller's Dixie II. It is one of the early, then high powered, racing machines and a former Harmsworth Trophy winner. Com. Miller acquired the craft and restored it to its original condition.

Weather permitting, the regatta will close Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 5, with the awarding of trophies by Commodore Miller. Should sailoffs be necessary, they will be held Thursday morning and the trophy presentation postponed until that afternoon.

Organized during 1884 through the efforts of Commodore George W. Gardner of Cleveland, the Inter-Lake has

I-LYA Regatta Starts Sunday

The Inter-Lake Yachting Association's 71st annual regatta, largest on fresh water, gets under way next Sunday at Put-in-Bay, O. Indications are that it will draw a record attendance of yachts and boating fans. Official dates are Aug. 2-7.

Composed of the major yacht clubs on the Great Lakes from Bay City, Mich., to Buffalo, N.Y., and adjacent inland waters, I-LYA is the largest and oldest association of boating clubs on fresh water. Its 90 member clubs boast 25,000 yachtsmen on their membership rolls.

"Deep Water" races, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 31-Aug. 1-2, converging on Put-in-Bay, serve as a prelude to the regatta. First will be the Cleveland Fleet of cruising and racing sail yachts starting off the Rocky River, Friday, July 31.

The Vermilion, Sandusky and Toledo sections start Saturday morning, Aug. 1, while the Detroit section leaves Sunday morning, Aug. 2. The only competitive event scheduled for Sunday is a powerboat predicted log contest. Open to all inboard and outboard powered cruisers 20 feet or over in length and owned by members of I-LYA affiliated clubs, it is sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association. A briefing meeting for skippers and navigators is slated for 7:30 p.m., Saturday, at Put-in-Bay Yacht Club.

The 38-mile course for the contest has its start and finish lines at Put-in-Bay. Official finish time is 2:30 p.m., Sunday. Top prize is the Alton H. Greeley perpetual trophy. Cubs entering three or more cruisers will be eligible for special team awards.

The series of three daily races for the I-LYA championships in 28 sailing classes begin Monday morning, Aug. 3. Starting time for the cruising — A class, first to get away each day is 7:15 a.m., EST. Other classes listed on the regatta program are Cruising—B and C, Catamaran, Comet, Crescent, Dragon, Flying Dutchman, Flying Scot, Highlander, Intercollegiate, Interlake, International-21, K, Lightning, Lyman Cat, Polaris, R, Raven, Rebel, Rhodes-Bantam, Star, Thistle, Yankee, Sr. Knarr, M.O.R.C., Snipes, Wayfarers, and Universal.

It should be noted that Eastern Standard Time, one hour later than Daylight Saving Time, is official for the regatta. All races will be sailed under the latest North American Yacht Racing Association rules.

Host club this year, is Put-in-Bay Yacht Club, home port of Frank Miller, 1964 commodore of I-LYA. A dinner for I-LYA officers, committee chairman and their wives, at the Put-in-Bay City Hall, is scheduled for Sunday evening. The entertainment side of the regatta opens Monday afternoon with a reception for visiting yachtsmen and their ladies, on the lakefront near Jim's Cottages. This will

City Swimmers Defeat Shores

The Grosse Pointe City swimming team, coached by Steve Selander and Jack Teetart, defeated the Grosse Pointe Shores swimming team in an Inter-City Swimming League meet.

The Shores team, coached by John Woods and Linda Heller, bowed to the City swimmers by a score of 165 to 136 last Wednesday, July 22.

Actually it was a close meet with the City taking 16 events and the Shores 14.

This was the second meet for each team. Both lost their first, the Shores to the Woods and the City to the Farms.

In the eight years and under age group, Chuck Riddle won for the Shores and Nancy Spitzley for the City in the 25-yard freestyle. Chuck's time was 22.8 and Nancy's 21.8.

Nine and ten year old winners were Bob Ambrose (18.4) for the Shores and Ann Brinkman (17.6) for the City, in the 25-yard freestyle event.

Fifty-yard freestyle winners in the 11-12 group were Shores swimmers Bob Cleary (33.4) and Kristin Beck (30.0). Winners in the 13-14 group were Pete Mayon (32.8) of the City and Mary Ambrose (33.9) of the Shores. City swimmers Dick Davis (27.3) and Beth Pankhurst (35.8) swept the 15-16 group.

For the 25-yard backstroke events, the two teams split 3-3. In the 10 years and under group, Greg Barber (29.7) of the Shores and Laurie Emery (23.7) of the City won. Shores swimmers John Bauer (21.4) and Lynn McGarrah (20.6) conquered all City opponents in the 11-12 age group.

Two City swimmers, Steve (16.3) and Nancy Hendee (19.0) came back to win the 13-14 event.

Jim Shirilla (33.1) and the City took 16 events and the Shores 14.

Only one race was held in the 50-yard breaststroke with a Shores boy, Randy Voorhees, winning in the 15-16 group with a time of 38.4.

The City dominated the 25-yard butterfly event by winning four out of five of the races. Champions were 11-12: Vince McDonald (21.6), 13-14: Steve

PARK
By Dar Martin

Michigan won the Grosse Pointe Park "junior" World Series last week by defeating Illinois two games in a row: 15 to 14 and 6 to 4.

The first victory was scored by Michigan-American League Minor champs — in a game in which each team recorded 13 hits, 10 strike outs and six errors. Eight walks yielded by Illinois — holders of the National League championship — provided the margin of difference.

Paul Oliver was the winning pitcher and matched his pitching prowess with hitting power, recording a triple and two singles. Brother Dave Oliver, Mike Finan and Warren Terrace were at the top of the hitting list for Michigan. Paul Addy, Tom DuFour, Paul Osetek and Kevin Reid led the Illinois hitters.

The decisive second game was much the same story — statistically, the two teams were evenly matched, but Michigan emerged the victor by bringing home most of its players on base. Illinois, on the other hand, left seven of its men stranded.

Dave Oliver was the winning pitcher. Warren Terrace of Michigan, who hit a double, was the only player in the game to tally more than a single. Other Michigan hits were scored by three Oliver's—Dave, Mark and Paul—and by Mike Finan.

Illinois' four hits were made by Paul Addy, Paul Osetek and Kevin Reid.

Illinois qualified for the Minor League World Series by edging Indiana—4 to 3—for the National League Minors Championship.

Led by winning pitcher Tom DuFour, Illinois took full advantage of the seven walks given up by Indiana and two lonely hits (by Mike Bodeau and Paul Osetek) to win the game. John Duffy, Marty Dulapa and Scott LaRose led the hitting for Indiana which, ironically, chalked up three more hits than the victors.

AL All-Stars Win

Beetle Bailey of the Grosse Pointe Park American League All-Stars allowed just one hit and one run and hit a home run to win the All-Star contest with the Harper Woods Nationals, 2 to 1, on July 23.

Bill Ehrlich, Bob Page and Gary Verkeyn collected the other hits for the All-Stars. Denny Willett picked up Harper Woods' lone hit.

Not so fortunate were the National League All-Stars from the Park. The Clinton Valley team shut them out, 3 to 0, on July 26. Only Skip Louth and Doug Maxwell were able to pick up hits for the National League All-Stars. Winning pitcher was Allen Kendall, and teammates Mark Carroll, Craig Cerbus, Doug Cook, Larry Kalka and young Kendall tallied Clinton Valley's eight hits.

District Playoff

A hot Hamtramck team overwhelmed the Indians of Grosse Pointe Park in a district playoff game on July 21. The final score was 20 to 3.

Fielding star of the game was Indian Brian McLean who made a double play unassisted. Mark Meiry got a double for the Indians while Ed Albert, Rick Mahon, John Renaud and Mike Torina each hit singles.

Hamtramck got 11 runs off eight hits in the first inning before the Indians had even been to bat. Two home runs also proved helpful to Hamtramck in their decisive victory.

WOODS-SHORES
By Mel Snyder

Both the American League and National League Tournament teams have made fine showings in the district No. 6 Little League Play-offs which could lead to the World Series to be held at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, the last of August.

Ernie Bauer, manager of the American League Tournament team selected Al Kirk as his coach and Richard Moore as his assistant coach and score-keeper. The following boys were selected to represent the American League: Tom Keller, Doug Perry, Gary Tate, William Opdyke, Tom Wood, Jim Montmorency, Peter Van Hoek, John Clavinio, Terry Buda, David Ellis, Don Blomquist, Brian Narone, Greg Page and Robert Palmer. Alternate players are Tom Qualls and Mike Caughey.

In the first game of the play-off the Grosse Pointe National Tournament team beat the Harper Woods American League team 8-1 in a good game that was closer than the score would indicate. The Harper Woods team took the lead in the first inning as Joe Karam scored on John Nehra's good double. Then they held the lead until the fourth inning when Grosse Pointe started off the inning with Dan Clem getting a walk and Rich De Cicco walking also then Paul Shirilla singled to score Clem.

The next two batters were outs and Steve Schleicher, Larry Griffin both singled and Bill Schleicher followed with a long home run and Grosse Pointe had scored six runs. In the fifth inning Grosse Pointe scored again as Dan Clem singled and Rick Woodbury hit a home run over the left center field fence.

Larry Griffin led the hitting for Grosse Pointe with three hits while Bill Schleicher had two, while pitching all the way. Harper Woods used John Nehra, James Bojerjan and Ed Masha as pitchers.

After beating Harper Woods the Grosse Pointe National Tournament Team had to meet the Grosse Pointe American League Tournament Team and edged by them 2-1 in a real thriller with almost everything happening.

The Nationals got two runs in the first inning as Steve Schleicher and Larry Griffin both got walks and Griffin scored on Paul Shirilla's hit and an error at third base. Steve Schleicher then made an excellent sliding steal of home for the second run.

The Americans came back in their half of the first inning with one run as Robert Palmer singled and scored on Jim Montmorency's hit.

In the first half of the sixth inning Larry Griffin walked and Bill Schleicher came through with a home run for two more runs for the Nationals.

In the American's half of the sixth Tom Keller singled, Peter Van Hoek was hit by a pitched ball, and Terry Buda singled, leading the bases and Tom Wood came to bat. Then the umpires stopped the game as the rain came pouring down. After a twenty minute delay for the rain the game was officially called off and the score reverted back to the end of the fifth inning and the Nationals won by a 2-1 score.

Mike Pastor did a good job on the mound for the Nationals as did Tom Keller for the Americans. The Americans out-hit the Nationals as Rob Palmer, Doug Perry, John Clavinio, Don Bloomquist, Peter Van Hoek and Terry Buda all came through at bat.

In the regular season "Series" between the National and American League the Washington Senators edged the Milwaukee Braves 3-0 at Ghesquire Park. Peter Van Hoek went the distance for the winners and his shutout was the only one registered against the Braves this season. Mike Pastor and Larry Griffin split the pitching chores for the Braves. The big blow was a two run home run by Senator catcher Jim Montmorency in the third inning.

Ed Doyle, Senator shortstop, opened the game with a double to left center and first baseman Mike Bauer advanced him with a perfect sacrifice bunt and he scored on John Clavinio's single. The Braves loaded the bases with one out in the last inning but a great unassisted double play by Ed Doyle ended the game. Both teams displayed a fine brand of baseball. Ernie Bauer's Senators completed another double play in the third inning, Van Hoek to Doyle to Bauer and Johnny Matthew made two fine running catches in centerfield.

The Senators earned the right to play the Braves by defeating the Tigers 6-1 Friday night in a pennant play-off. Both teams finished the regular season with identical 17-4 records. Tom Keller and Craig Brown split the pitching for the Tigers while Peter Van Hoek and Tom Wood pitched three innings each for the winners. Catcher Jim Montmorency made several good plays and ended the game with a perfect throw to third to prevent an attempted steal after a short passed ball.

St. Paul and Hollywood played an exciting game for the Minor League "Series" championship, with St. Paul finally winning out 7-6 over the Hollywood team. Hollywood led 3-0 till the sixth inning when St. Paul tied it with three runs. Both teams scored three more in the seventh, and Kappaz's triple and Knapp's single for St. Paul in the eighth was the winning run.

Pat Hughes did an excellent job pitching for Hollywood and was relieved by John Rose who also looked fine on the mound. Hollywood had strong batting with Belenger, Hughes, Rose, Nelson, Poole and Colosanti all hitting. Brad Knapp led the attack for St. Paul with Kappaz, Kalvelage, Grosshans, Thielman helping out as did Mark Pro-mack with his big three walks. Stellwagen, Daher, Christ and the whole team played fine on the field.

Lochmoor Team Beats Boat Club

Lochmoor Club defeated a strong swim team from the Detroit Boat Club in a dual meet at Lochmoor last Thursday by a score of 163 to 148 to remain unbeaten in M.I.C.S.A. (Michigan Inter Club Swim Association) Blue League competition.

Leading the way, under the guidance of coach Roy Pouliot, for Lochmoor were Cheryl Gardner, Lisa Beckenhauer and Tom Heholt as they each captured two individual events and swam on a winning relay.

Cheryl, 15, won the 50-meter freestyle in 31.4 and the 50-meter breast stroke in 36.2. She did butterfly in a winning 200-meter medley relay swimming with Pinky Sinclair, Kitty Wilkins and Mary Ambrose in 2:34.4.

Little Lisa, 10, bettered her own league record by 7 tenths of a second as she swam her 50-meter freestyle in 33.4. Her backstroke time was 41.3. Lisa swam the butterfly leg of the girls 10 and under medley relay with Carolyn Wood, Carron Pro-mack and Laurie Emery in the very fine time of 1:19.5.

Ten year old Tommy did his 50-meter freestyle in 33.6 and his 50-meter backstroke in 44.4. Tommy's fine butterfly in the boys 10 and under medley relay and gave D. J. Godin a substantial lead to help their relay team capture first. Ken Godin and Bob Ambrose rounded out the relay which did 1:22.1.

The Lochmoor boys' 100-meter medley relay team consisting of John Walters, Max Gardner, Jim Godin and Peter Van Hoek bettered the existing record by almost two full seconds when they zipped to a 1:06.4.

Chuck Russel, 15, was the big point-getter for the Boat Club, taking two firsts and swimming on a winning 200-meter relay. Chuck's 50-meter breast stroke was 30.9 and later he did a 33.9 for his 50-meter back stroke.

D.B.C.'s Bob Gay, 16, did an excellent 26.4 for his 50-meter free, just 4 tenths away from the league leader, Tom Lees of Western Golf and Country Club.

Another outstanding performer for the Belle Isle crew was 14-year-old Steve Smith who just touched out Lochmoor's John Hoffman when he did a 29.6 for the 50-meter freestyle.

Lochmoor took 16 firsts out of the 28 event card.

Doing outstanding performances were: 11-year-old Mary Ambrose who did a 33.3 for the 50-meter freestyle; John Walters, 12, a 37.9 for the 50-meter back; Jim Godin, 12, a 32.4 for the 50-meter free; D. J. Godin, 8, an 18.0 for the 25-meter freestyle; and Anne O'Berski, 8, a 19.5 for her 25-meter free.

Next week Lochmoor meets the tough, undefeated, squad from the Detroit Golf Club in what could determine the Blue League dual meet champion. Both are unbeaten in three Blue League starts.

This could prove to be the most exciting meet of the season as both teams point themselves toward victory!

After each of these "Series" games the managers, coaches and boys of every team were presented with trophies by Don Leahy, Werner Luckhoff and Vene Dumas and Mike Pastor in behalf of the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League.

Babe Ruth League

FARMS-CITY-PARK
By Bill Stuck

The season is over and the Cardinals are the "World Champs" . . . at least in this League. In the two out of three series they took the first two. In the first the Indians had a bad time and suffice to say that Rusty Knowles of the Cards demonstrated his ability as a pitcher, allowing one hit. His teammates succeeded in splitting at least two hits apiece average among themselves.

On Thursday it was somewhat different but still the Cards proved their ability winning 9-5 over the Indians. Doug Dzubia pitched a fine game but support due to various uncontrollable things was just not present. Tohfeldt as winning pitcher allowed six hits while Doug allowed but 11. In this game too Knowles had a grand slam home run and the team was aided by a triple by Conner.

According to manager of the Cards, Warren Hart "This was a team that really in my six years stands out as a group of boys that clicked". The losing manager Chuck Campbell, in his first year as a manager, commented, "We'll be back next year I'm sure. Some one always has to lose. The boys did a fine job and in the league playoffs really came through in fine style".

In reviewing the year and the past season with League President Tom Maher, Tom's comments were "We are certainly appreciative for the monies granted by the Park for improvements in the League and for the City contributions that allowed us to also improve the league and the Neighborhood Club Diamond. Baseball requires money, especially for uniforms and equipment and umpires. We are most appreciative of the parental participation during the season and trust that they remember that Babe Ruth for THEIR boys requires money in small amount individually".

Yours truly is most appreciative of the assistance from February. (when we started), to date from many people who furnished tidbits and data re games. It's been a good season. When we started we were to say the least apprehensive that this might well be the FINALE for F-P-C BR Baseball. But with people like Don Walker, Carl Cumberly, our two working commissioners George Walker and Tom Kleene, working always, Tom Marantette, and those 10 managers and countless coaches that put on the season . . . folks, WE ARE BACK IN BUSINESS. Next year promises already to be a real good one and one that should bring out you folks in large groups.

As thoughts for the future—some areas have concluded that Little League to Babe Ruth is just too big a jump for the boys and have gone to Pony-Coit leagues for 13-14 and then regulation diamonds for the 15-16 year olds like they play today in Babe Ruth. This allows the boys to "graduate" play by all. Your writer submits this as a suggestion since it struck him as most unusual that obtaining 50 boys out of the 180 that graduated from L.L. was most difficult last spring. Boys don't just normally quit playing baseball after three or four years because they are 13. We are sorry we got into "editorializing" but kids and baseball sort of get us intrigued and carried away. Thanks folks—see you next year??? W.B.S.

The 14th Republican District Speaks

We want YOU to consider this an invitation to join the leadership of the 14th District to elect the next Republican ticket.

The present leadership was chosen by the precinct delegates in 1956, 1958, 1960, and 1962 according to Michigan law.

What results have we had?

In 1962 your 14th District organization was the only one in Wayne County which had an improvement in the Republican percentage.

What are our plans for the future?

We want you to help us build the Republican Party still more in the new 14th District. We want to intensify our present efforts—we want to spread the word of American, Republican, Constitutional principles. Volunteer your services to your official Republican headquarters at 1836 E. Warren. We are listed in the telephone book but for your convenience the telephone No. is TU 4-6410. However small a job may seem when you are doing it, it is essential to the success of the party as a whole.

Management Tells Its Side Of Newspaper Strike Story

For the benefit of all those who have been in the dark as to the real issues in the current newspaper strike, Lee Hills, editor and publisher of the Detroit Free Press, has written the following letter, which was distributed to all Free Press employees.

July 20, 1964
To Free Press Employees
and Their Families:

We've had lots of questions since the Free Press was closed last week by the strike. And we're sure that you, and probably your neighbors, are asking some important ones.

There are still several issues. But one has been the most talked about—and probably the least understood.

That is the Pressmen's demand for time-and-a-half for normal shifts on Saturday at the Free Press.

The striking Pressmen say it's a case of the Free Press being unfair to Pressmen on Saturdays while the News pays them fairly.

As we see it, the issue boils down to this:

The Pressmen are actually demanding for anyone who works Saturday a 28-hour four-day week plus a guarantee of at least another day's overtime. To see this demand in reasonable perspective, let's look for a minute at how the Free Press operates.

We're a morning newspaper, serving more than a half a million families seven mornings a week.

All our employees—from the reporters who find the stories to the truckers who deliver our paper—work a five-day week. These schedules are spaced naturally to cover the seven days we put out the paper and many employees in every union work Saturday as a normal day.

And, like every morning paper in the country, we print at night to give our readers the latest news and our advertisers the benefit of it.

Many of our people therefore normally work evening hours. In every case, these employees are either paid more or given shorter hours than those working in the daytime.

We believe this is fair. And there is really no better example than in the pressroom itself.

Our Pressmen who work evening hours get both higher pay and shorter hours. In fact, they have the 35-hour week, one of the shortest in the area.

Even before the new contract offers, the earnings of these Pressmen have been substantial. Their base rate for the 35-hour week is $141.70. Through built-in penalty pay and overtime they average $220 a week during the first six months of this year.

That's $11,440 a year. Their demand now for time-and-a-half for their normal Saturday shift (within the 35-hour week) was tossed into these negotiations late, after a fair settlement seemed likely.

No morning newspaper in the country has this exorbitant condition in its contract with the Pressmen. In fact, all these contracts agree that straight time is paid for a normal Saturday shift within the work week.

But, unlike many other morning papers, we have a steep premium pay requirement that now increases the paycheck of every Pressman who works Saturday at the Free Press. Right now, in fact, almost half of them receive an extra full day's pay for four hours pre-shift overtime and a half-hour of lunch.

As an example, look at the last Saturday before the Pressmen struck. That was July 11. For that one day the average paid each Pressman was $47.02.

Getting overtime for staying late on a job is common everywhere, including the Free Press.

But few people realize what whopping premium pay our Pressmen also get for coming in a little early—even in an emergency.

When President Kennedy was shot at 1:30 p.m. November 22 we all knew we had one duty to our community: To bring them the full story of the tragedy as fast as humanly possible.

With all of us working together, we knew we could go to press an hour ahead of the normal 6:45 p.m. starting time for the first edition.

We called the Pressmen, who were due to start work at 6 p.m., and asked them to come in at 5 on overtime.

They refused until each man had been guaranteed an extra full day's pay for coming in one hour early.

They got their money—$28 for that single hour—and our readers got the story of the decade.

Certainly, the murder of a president is an extreme example. But it illustrates the premiums these Pressmen already demand day in and day out under the present contract. In the interests of an early settlement at the bargaining table, we withdrew our proposals to get relief from these stiff penalties.

We absolutely insist, however, that the fifth regular day within a normal 35-hour week shall continue to be a straight-time day. There can be no compromise on this point.

The Pressmen have tried hard to create the impression that the Free Press is being unfair, declaring we don't pay Saturday night penalties exactly the same way the News does. And the Free Press does not. And there is every solid reason why not.

Look at the difference in operation and you'll understand why the only unfair thing is the false impression created by the Pressmen.

The Free Press, as we pointed out, is normally a morning newspaper. It prints every night, paying its Pressmen more money for a shorter night shift.

The News is normally an afternoon newspaper. Most of its employees, including Pressmen, work days.

These Pressmen, working days at the News, do not get the higher pay and shorter shift the Free Press gives for normal night work.

But once a week, this normally afternoon News becomes something different.

Because there is no demand for a Sunday afternoon newspaper, the Detroit News becomes a morning newspaper on Sunday. And thereby hangs a crucial point.

To put out a Sunday morning paper, the News has to double up the work on Saturday. It prints one newspaper (the Saturday) during normal day hours. Then it prints another day's newspaper (the Sunday) on the same night.

Just as the Free Press insists on doing in its normal night operation, the News pays straight time for printing the normal afternoon paper on Saturday.

But for printing the second newspaper (for Sunday) on that same night, the News is required to pay time-and-a-half.

Looking back a few years, you can see what brought about the time-and-a-half agreement at the News on Saturday night.

There were three major newspapers in Detroit, all publishing Sunday morning papers.

With fewer Pressmen available, the afternoon newspapers needed to use the same Pressmen to print both the normal Saturday afternoon paper and then the Sunday morning paper.

To compensate these Pressmen for printing two days' papers on Saturday, the time-and-a-half night shifts were

Saga of the Swans

The Saga of the Swans is sad indeed and will not be soon forgotten by the Alfred R. Glancy, Jr. family, of 735 Lakeshore road. The story, not yet finished, has aroused a lot of interest in the Pointe, and a number of calls have been received at the office of the NEWS.

Mrs. Glancy straightened us out on the sequence of events.

The Glancys all love animals, birds, fish . . . all manner of wild life . . . and have had a great variety of pets on their large estate near the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. When a number of wild ducks were attracted to the pools on the grounds, they conceived the idea of adding a pair of swans to the landscape.

The proper swan-supplier was contacted and a lovely pair of white beauties, fully grown, arrived and were installed. They made a fine addition, were apparently very happy in their new surroundings and became so tame they would take food from the Glancy hands.

Then came the small hurricane which whipped through the Pointe early in May. The freakish wind lifted the swans bodily from the pool, hoisted them neatly over Lakeshore road and deposited them in Lake St. Clair.

After the storm subsided the pair was captured and returned to the Glancy estate, but they had had a brief taste of the great outside world and the wide inviting waters of the lake . . . and a great change had been wrought within them. They turned into tramps.

Not satisfied at all with their limited confines, they took to waddling down to the roadside, using their clipped wings with sufficient proficiency to make the short flight over Lakeshore, then plopping down over the seawall onto the lake. Once there, they were pretty well trapped, as they hadn't the ability to take flight from the water, and they certainly couldn't surmount the high sea wall.

Time and again, members of the Glancy family, and sometimes with enlisted outside help, went out on the lake and repeated the troublesome and often very difficult task of capturing the swans and returning them to the pool that was supposed to be their home.

Then, several weeks ago, the pen, (that's the female of the species), was struck by a fender of a car as she was fluttering over Lakeshore road. They had startled literally scores of motorists who weren't accustomed to seeing swans waddling over the lawns, hurtling across the street, or even swimming placidly on the waters of Lake St. Clair. But this time, tragedy reared its ugly head. The pen was killed.

Some of those who have called the NEWS believe the cob, (that's the male), is grieving himself to death, but Mrs. Glancy says this isn't so. They have continued to take him home periodically, but he continues to return to the lake. He doesn't seem to miss his pen at all, the Glancys say, though the swan is a strictly monogamous bird. He will never take another mate, but he seems to be carrying on as usual, often being joined in his cavorting about the lake by wild ducks. He simply doesn't want to stay home.

The Glancys are getting fairly well fed up with his vagrancy. The zoo doesn't want any part of him, as there is always the chance that, with all his wanderings, he may have picked up a disease or two which would be most unwelcome from the zoo's point of view.

Negotiations are now being carried on in the hopes the man who sold the pair to the Glancys, will take him back and see that he is properly cared for in his original habitat. Mrs. Glancy is worried about what might happen to him when winter comes and the lake freezes. He has been a considerable headache, but hope is still held that a satisfactory solution may be found to end the saga as happily as possible.

established at the normally afternoon News.

Today the Pressmen who print the first day's newspaper at the News on Saturday no longer are required to put out the second.

So, actually, even the real reason behind time-and-a-half for the News' Saturday-night shifts has vanished.

But the price, frozen into the contract, is still paid Pressmen even though they haven't worked earlier.

This is now unreasonable for the News to pay. But again in the interest of reaching a settlement the newspapers withdrew their request for relief from this penalty.

There are several issues with both striking unions, but as we said, the least understood has been the demand for time-and-a-half on Saturday within the normal 35-hour week.

The newspapers do indeed insist on one point: That this outdated premium shift from an abnormal afternoon operation shall not be forced into the regular schedule on a normal morning newspaper.

We believe that our five-night 35-hour week is more than fair. Our offer of pay increases and bigger fringe benefits has been renewed repeatedly and in good faith.

You, as the employees, have the greatest stake in the future of your newspaper. Working together, we will guarantee that future.

"50c a tablet can be cheap!"

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

No one likes to pay 50c for a single tablet—including us. Nevertheless, some of the newer drugs cost that much. They seem expensive—yes only seem. Consider this: Pneumonia used to mean 4 to 6 bedridden weeks. Loss of pay. Often hospitalization. Often death. Now, a few dollars' worth of one antibiotic will generally cure pneumonia in days. And this is only one example . . . there are many others. When you consider what a few 50c pills will do for you, they seem downright cheap.

NOBODY has trouble defining a child. But what is a problem child? Most of us would rather not define him, because we would rather not think about it. The simplest definition, however, is that the problem child is an unhappy child. Most of us are fortunate; we can leave the thinking about him to the trained services of people like those who will staff the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic. WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Everywhere you go in Grosse Pointe these summer months, there are children—happy children, running, jumping, swimming, playing tennis, riding bicycles... healthy children, with long, tanned legs and sun-bleached hair.

In Detroit, in Birmingham, in Dearborn, the scene is the same. School's out, playtime's here, the sun shines every day, (or near enough so that it doesn't matter), and this world is a Very Good Place.

Terry feels the warm mid-summer goodness, too. Terry has big brown eyes, pigtailed, and a rather solemn, determined expression. She lives in Detroit, but many Grosse Pointers know her — and now we do, too.

We met Terry last week, as we walked through the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic with Mrs. Henry Kuhlman, of Hampton road, member of the Board of Directors of Sigma Gamma Association.

The Beginning

In 1904, a group of school girls, adopting the name Sigma Gamma, was formed to help in child welfare. In 1920, aware that very little was being done for the crippled child, Sigma Gamma made their objective the

Short and to The Pointe

Before MRS. ELMER BENZIN, of Lochmoor boulevard, left for a vacation in Sweden with her mother, MRS. OTTO LUNDELL, also of Lochmoor boulevard, she was entertained at a Bon Voyage party, given by her two daughters, MRS. HIRA HERRINGTON and MRS. TYMON TOTTE. Guests included her sister-in-law and close friends. Several members of the family presented Mrs. Benzin with charms, mementos of the day and of the trip. Mrs. Benzin and Mrs. Lundell will return to The Pointe in early fall.

ALICE RICKEL, daughter of MR. and MRS. JOHN H. RICKEL, of Stonehurst road, is in Ann Arbor, completing work toward her degree at the University of Michigan. Classes end August 14, and Alice will leave almost immediately for Goshen, Ind., and a trio of parties given in her honor by friends of her fiancé, DR. KOHLER CHAMPION, son of the CHARLES CHAMPIONS, of Goshen. Then it's back to The Pointe—just in time for her August 22 wedding to Dr. Champion. The pair plan to make their home in Ann Arbor, where Dr. Champion is internist at University Hospital.

Two Pointers, C. D. BUSBEY and son, DOUG, of Huntington road, will be participating as a doubles team in the West Virginia Open Tennis Tournament beginning August 12 at Oglebay Park in Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. Busbey is a former high school net star and Doug, 15, will be a candidate for Grosse Pointe's High's varsity tennis team.

MR. and MRS. JAMES T. ROHRIG and their four children, MARY, KAREN, JIM and TOM have just returned to their Littlestone road home from a 10-day visit to Lake Placid and Lake George, N.Y., where they reported the weather and scenery were delightful.

Mr. Robert W. Reimer

KATHLEEN ANNE SCHMIDT, daughter of the Karl E. Schmidts, of Hawthorne road, spoke her wedding vows to Mr. Reimer Saturday, in St. Joan of Arc Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Reimer, of Walled Lake.

and so far their travels have taken them to London, from which they journeyed to Stratford-on-Avon, and to Brussels, Cologne, Frankfurt and Heidelberg. They spent the Fourth of July in Zurich, then visited Macer, Vienna, and Rome. Future plans include a week on the Riviera, a stay in Paris, and finally a drive to Amsterdam, where they will board a plane for home near the end of August. The young men will return to their studies in September. Carl is enrolled in the University of Michigan. Drew attends Michigan State University, and Doran is a student at Miami State University.

MR. and MRS. PETER SPENDER, of Merriweather road, entertained friends at a small cocktail party Sunday afternoon.

Taping last Thursday's concert of the Grosse Pointe Summer Chorus, for retention in the permanent collection at the Grosse Pointe Public Library's main branch, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road, were JACK LOMAN, of Bournmouth road, and GARY WALDO, of Detroit.

Two Grosse Pointe families are well represented in rehearsals of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man" in the Caseville School auditorium near the tip of Michigan's Thumb. The Broadway musical will give a gay finish to the fourth annual six weeks' Summer Enrichment Program conducted by Caseville Board of Education with the cooperation of Hillsdale College. It is being given July 30 through August 2.

The JOSEPH E. BEJINS are summering at their cottage on Anchor Bay, returning to their home in Fairfield road occasionally during July and August.

Recent vacationers on Mackinac Island were MR. and MRS. DANIEL J. STACK, JR., of Westchester road.

Three FRANKLIN SLAVIK children have small roles in "The Music Man": NANCY C. sings with the chorus of River City townspeople; ROBERT F. is the train conductor; young MICHAEL is one of the children who follow the entrancing music teacher. Their Grosse Pointe Woods home is in Peachtree lane.

DAVID L. KOLON has the bit part of a newspaper reader; his sister, SUSAN M., plays Zaneeta Shinn. Both are children of M.R. and MRS. ERVIN KOLON, of Balfour road.

MR. and MRS. C. MICHAEL LAWRENCE (Patricia Gregory), of Eastlawn avenue, Detroit, announce the birth of their third child, first son, THERON GREGORY, July 21. The Lawrences formerly resided at the home of Theron's paternal grandparents, the ROBERT E. LAWRENCEs, of Pemberton road. Maternal great-grandmother is MRS. PETER MALISJEWSKI, of Cadieux road.

CHARLES M. PETERS, of St. Clair avenue, will receive his Electrical Engineering degree from General Motors Institute at commencement exercises tomorrow evening. MICHAEL P. SLIMKO, of North Brys drive, is another Pointer who will receive his Electrical Engineering degree. Dr. Edward Teller, nuclear physicist and Professor at Large at the University of California, will make the commencement address.

Angling recognition was achieved recently by JIM LYLE of The Pointe in the Islamorada Fishing Tournament. Fishing with Capt. Allen Tittle aboard "Mar-Lyn" at Islamorada, Fla. He boated a 16-lb. Bonito.

MR. and MRS. JAMES A. O'GRADY, of Three Mile drive, are leaving on the S.S. United States bound for Southampton, England, on August 14, with three of their daughters, KATHLEEN, ROSEMARY and MARGARET. They will visit London, France, Italy and Switzerland. The girls will be flying back in mid-September, to present at the opening of school classes.

MRS. JOSEPH PICCIRILLI, of East Jefferson avenue, formerly of Whittier road, recently returned from a trip "around the world in 80 days," covering

Follies Slated This Saturday

The Detroit Boat Club — renamed the Detroit Space Club especially for the occasion — will be the scene of the Aqua Follies Ball this Saturday evening, August 1.

Theme of this eighth annual Follies is "Out Of This World." Guests have been advised to "bring some heavenly body, (wife, husband, anybody), and enjoy the most festive event of this or any light year at the Club."

The party begins at 6:30 o'clock, with cocktails; dinner is slated at 7:30; and there will be dancing "across the astral sands" to the music of Jack Qualey's 14-piece orchestra plus the Fenby-Carr Quintet, with vocalist Belinda Blanchard, from 9 o'clock until 2 in the morning.

Decorations will conform to the space motif, and will feature special display material from the Chrysler Missile Division. In addition, a surprise "name" guest—described as an "astronomical entertainer"—will join the party at midnight.

General chairmen of the affair are Mr. and Mrs. John O. Peters, of Cranford lane. Among other Pointe DBC members, working to make the party a success, are Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Burke, of University place, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl R. Davies, Jr., of Ridge road.

More are the John R. Barlows, of Lakecrest lane, the Donald C. Longyears, of Grand Marais boulevard, the John O. Montgomerys, of University place, and the F. Robert Steigers, of Merriweather road.

Still more are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Taylor, of University place, Mr. and Mrs. A. John Cutting, of Windmill Pointe drive, Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Hatcliffe, of Three Mile drive, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Jenkins, of Cook road, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt, of Lakecrest lane.

20 countries and including 32 airplane flights. She is now heading for Blue Lake in Northern Michigan, to spend a few weeks with her sister.

Receiving diplomas from Western Michigan University at commencement ceremonies last Friday were KATHRYN A. BEERTHUIS, of Lakepointe avenue, awarded her Master of Arts degree; ELIZABETH A. DEAL, of Wayburn road, who received her Bachelor of Science degree and Elementary Education certificate; MARYLYN L. GEORGI, of Lakeshore road, awarded her Master of Arts degree; BERNARD R. MELDRUM, of Cloverly road, BBA degree; ROBERT M. WINTER, of Lakeland avenue, BA degree; LINDA L. KNOLL, of Maple lane, BBA degree, and DAVID K. MURLEY, of Lochmoor boulevard, BS degree.

Among the students who will enter Western Michigan University for the first time this fall are JAMES E. ANDERSON, CONSTANCE WOOD, HUGH MOLLINGER, SANDRA JOYNER and JOHN CLIMIE. The boys and girls recently traveled to WMU's Kalamazoo campus for a two-day, midsummer orientation visit. These visits, scheduled throughout July and August, under the direction of Dr. Donald Davis, head of WMU's Counseling Bureau, are designed to enable incoming freshmen to learn something of their future programs of study, meet with the counselors and see a bit of the campus. When the students return to the campus in mid-September, they will be completely registered, with all their fees paid, and will need only to attend an orientation meeting for all new students on

Kathleen A. Schmidt Weds Robert Reimer

Newlyweds are Traveling in New England after Saturday Rites, in St. Joan of Arc Church, and Reception at Lochmoor Club

Kathleen Anne Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Schmidt, of Hawthorne road, became the bride of Robert William Reimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Reimer, of Walled Lake, on Saturday morning, at St. Joan of Arc Church.

For her wedding, the former Miss Schmidt selected an original design by deLore of Grosse Pointe. The gown was of ivory peau de soie appliqued with Alencon lace, with matching Chapel train.

Her headpiece was a bandeau of Alencon lace and seed pearls with a three tier silk illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was a mass of Amazon lilies with variegated ivy and miniature roses. The attendants included Bonnie Reimer, maid of honor, and Kathryn Newark and Susan Petts, bridesmaids. Kristin Schmidt, the bride's sister, was flower girl.

Their floor length gowns were of cornflower blue peau de soie with matching applique lace, and their flowers were delphiniums with variegated ivy.

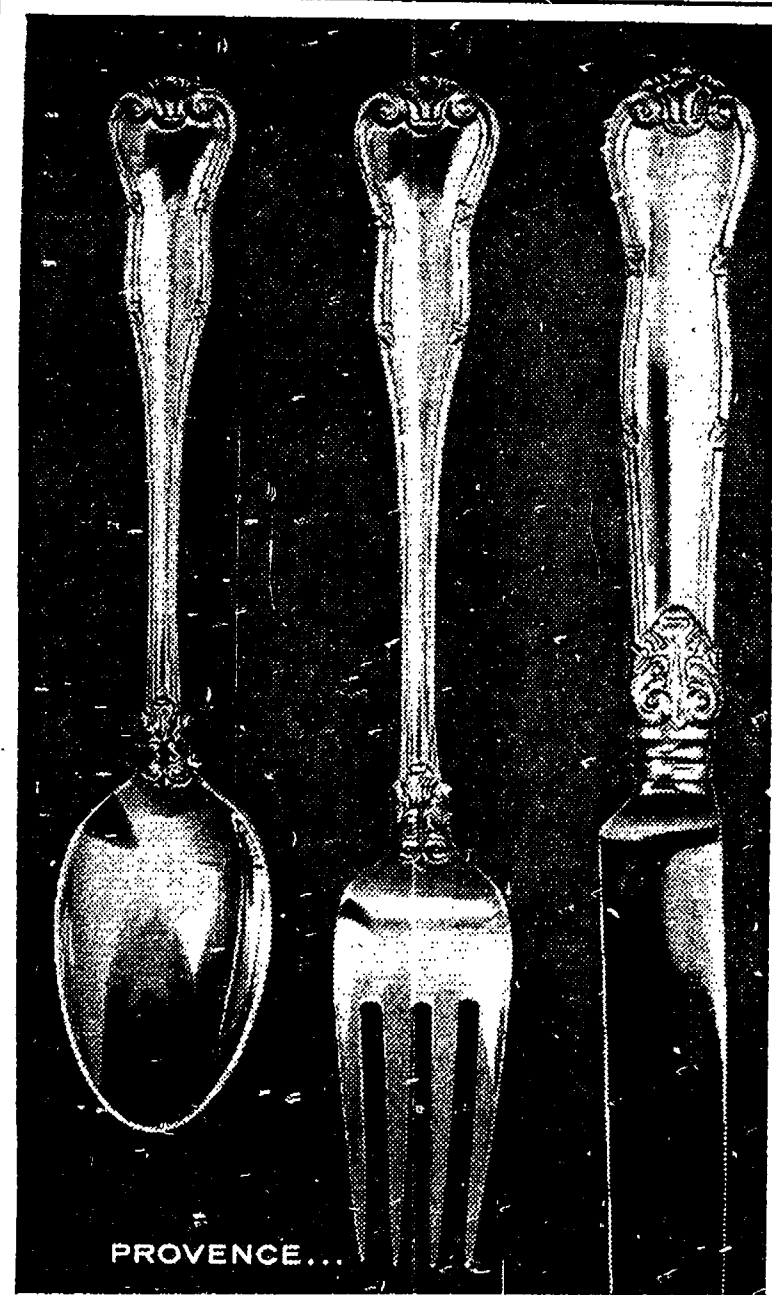

Sunday, September 13, and arrive at their first classes on Tuesday, September 15.

The PHILIP WEISSES, of Kenwood court, are dividing their time this summer between The Pointe and their cottage at Grand Haven, on the Lake Michigan dunes.

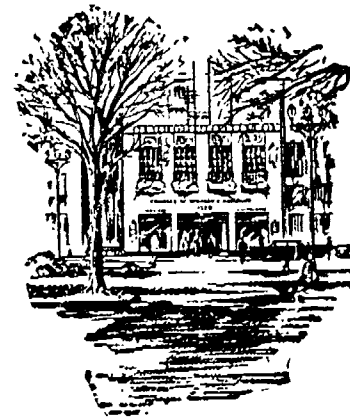

MR. and MRS. EDMOND A. BURNS (Joy Chamberlain), of Lakeport, Ont., formerly of Pemberton road, announce the birth of a daughter, PATRICIA GRACE, June 24.

Two Duke University under-graduates have been named to the Dean's list for the Spring semester on the basis of their high academic standing. An overall academic average of 3.0 out of a possible 4.0 is required in order to receive this recognition. The local students are JOHN DOELLE, son of MR. and MRS. JOHN A. DOELLE, of Grand Marais boulevard, and DELMAR LANGBAUER, son of MR. and MRS. E. N. LANGBAUER, of Dean lane.

A BAD NIGHT Sometimes it does not pay to take a walk. Don J. Soulliere, 23, of 963 Liberty street, Algona, was walking on Mack at Severn, at 2:45 a.m. on Wednesday, July 22, when he was seen by Woods Patrolman William Duster. The officer stopped to question the man, who said he was walking because he could not sleep. He was visiting with his brother in Harper Woods. A check with Detroit police disclosed Soulliere was wanted on a traffic warrant. He was released to Detroit authorities.

Smith-Reins Vows Exchanged Saturday

Reception at DBC Follows Saturday Candlelight Rites in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church; Bride Wears White Ottoman Gown

Marjorie Alice Reins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reins, of Newberry place, was married to Theodore Hammond Smith Saturday evening, in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Andrew F. Rauth officiated at the candlelight service. A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the ceremony.

The bride wore a white ottoman gown, styled with a controlled skirt, Sabrina neckline, short sleeves and detachable Chapel train.

A small open crown of matching fabric caught her bouffant veil of imported illusion. She carried white daisies.

Her attendants were dressed identically in floor length blue linen gowns, with blue petal-point ribbon detail at their waistlines. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

Penny Thewalt served as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Judy Hassel, Virginia Young and Roberta Richter, of Midland, Mich.

The bridegroom, son of Ray W. Smith, of Grayton road, and the late Irene Helwig Smith, asked Richard Fletchmeyer to act as his best man. Ushering were Jack Glezan, Kenneth McWatters and John Kirkendall. Mrs. Reins chose a pale pink

Name Pointer To UF Position

Mrs. Irving M. F. ImOberst, 1964 Torch Drive co-chairman for Community Campaigns, has announced the appointment of Miss Constance M. Wagner, of Neff road, assistant cashier, Detroit Bank and Trust Co., as chairman for the Central Business Unit.

Miss Wagner will head a group of business and professional women who solicit funds for the annual "give once for all" campaign from small business places in the downtown area. Last year, Miss Wagner served as a divisional chairman in the Central Business Unit, which raised $226,239 toward the total of $21,690,240 made available for the 1964 budgets of 197 health and community services.

This year's Torch Drive, which starts October 20, will be seeking funds for next year for 204 services, including local, state, and national agencies.

The new Central Business chairman is a graduate of Albion, Mich., high school, attended the University of Wisconsin, Detroit Commercial College, and the American Institute of Banking. She became an assistant cashier of the Detroit Bank and Trust in 1960.

In 1962, Miss Wagner was selected as one of Detroit's top 10 Women Who Work. In addition to her Torch Drive duties, she is a former board member of the American Institute of Banking, a member of the National Association of Bank Women, chairman of the membership committee of the Zonta Club of Detroit, a member of the Women's Economic Club of Detroit, an honorary member of the board of directors of Women for the United Foundation and a member of the UF steering committee.

Miss Wagner compiled and wrote the "Detroit Bank and Trust Communications Manual," considered an outstanding financial communications guide. It is used by colleges, financial institutions and corporate communications throughout the world.

The safest investment for any young person is time and money spent for a good education.

At a candlelight service in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Saturday, MARJORIE ALICE REINS became the bride of Mr. Smith. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reins, of Newberry place. Her husband is the son of Ray W. Smith, of Grayton road, and the late Irene Helwig Smith.

Suzanne Haas Being Honored

Many parties have been held for Suzanne Marie Haas and her fiancé, Lloyd Brennan Marks, who will be wed at noon Aug. 8, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Haas, of North Renaud road, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marks, of Fairford road. Festivities honoring Suzanne began with a shower at the Lakeshore road of the bridegroom-elect's aunt, Mrs. Peter R. Allen, and were climaxed last Saturday evening when Marilyn Marks gave a lawn party and bar shower for her brother and his fiancé.

Others to entertain the couple were Mrs. Ed Beres and Mrs. John Beres, Mrs. Earl Reid and Janet Haas, and Mrs. Emil Grob, of North Renaud road.

Following the Solemn High Mass and wedding ceremony, there will be a breakfast reception for the families and wedding party. The evening reception will be held at Gourmet House.

The couple plan to travel to Florida, to visit the bridegroom-elect's great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Cox, of Fort Lauderdale. They will travel for a month, then return to their new home in Harper Woods.

In September, Lloyd will return to Eastern Michigan College, to complete his senior year.

Series Tickets Still Available

The persistent, and pernicious, rumor that tickets for next season's Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League-sponsored Celebrity Series are completely gone, is absolutely NOT TRUE, according to Mrs. Eugene Kornmeier, head of the 1964-65 Series ticket committee.

Some tickets are still available, and may be purchased—as long as the supply lasts—through the Hospital, or through Mrs. Kornmeier, 480 St. Clair avenue.

Price for the series of six lectures is $12. As in previous years, each lecture is scheduled on a Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock, in the Esquire Theater, and will be followed by a Celebrity Luncheon at Al Green's.

The 1964-65 program opens October 8, with Martha Rountree's discussion, "A Woman's Place in the World."

Ray Middleton will present "America in Song and Story" November 12, and Harry Golden's December 3 theme will be "Only in America." Charles Goupp's "Confessions of an Antique Dealer" is the first lecture for 1965, scheduled January 14.

Louis Untermyer's February 11 topic will be "What Americans Read and Why." The series closes March 11, with a debate, "Revolt on Campus," featuring James Burkhard and Fulton Lewis, III.

Chairman of this year's Celebrity Series is Mrs. Thomas B. McCarthy, assisted by Mrs. Leo Marx, Mrs. Kornmeier, Mrs. T. W. Berendsohn, Mrs. Melvin E. Duffy, Mrs. O. B. Aubin, Mrs. John Peacock and Mrs. Edward C. Roney, Jr.

More ladies serving on Celebrity Series committees are Mrs. Franklin Miller, Mrs. Frederick Cody, Mrs. Lorenzo Browning and Mrs. M. J. Chagot.

No excuse is as good as a satisfactory performance.

Diebel-Heidrich Rites Read In The South

Newlyweds to Reside in Kalamazoo When They Return from Wedding Trip to Jamaica; Pair Wed Saturday in Orlando, Fla.

Norman Donald Diebel, son of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Diebel, of Wellington place, claimed Anne Heidrich as his bride Saturday, in St. James Church, Orlando, Fla.

The Reverend Brian Egan, O.S.B., officiated at the noon ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Heidrich, St. of Isle of Sicily, Winter Park, Fla., wore a formal wedding gown of peau de soie, styled in the Empire tradition, with a jewel neckline and three-quarter length sleeves.

A flat Dior bow defined her high-rise waistline. Her train, cascading from her shoulders, was Cathedral length, and her elbow length veil of imported English illusion fell from a seed pearl-embroidered, Alencon lace pillbox.

Patricia A. Heidrich served as her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Lynn Heidrich, another sister; Patricia Walsh, of Beloit, Wis., and Maureen Cimock, Patricia Mahee, Happy Lawton, Rae Millie, Mary Aliberti, Carole Heidrich, the bride's cousin, and Mrs. Francis X. Heidrich, Jr., all of Orlando.

They wore floor length frocks of sandwood satin-faced peau de soie, styled along Empire lines, with floating back panels. Their waistlines were outlined with an embroidered design of pale green and candlelight flowers.

Their headpieces were matching pillboxes, with a single flower embroidered at the front of each pillbox.

The bride's sisters, Beth and Lucy Heidrich, served as flower girls, and their brother, David Heidrich, was ringbearer.

The bridegroom asked his father to act as best man. Seating the guests were George Hammond, Robert Hammond, Peter Bologna, Norman J. Fredericks, Jr., the bridegroom's cousin; John F. Diebel and Nelson W. Diebel, Jr., the bridegroom's brothers; and Robert Landino, all of Grosse Pointe; and G. Russell Pierson, III, and Francis X. Heidrich, Jr., both of Orlando.

Miss Baude Is Wed To Captain Jackson

Pair Travel to Northern Michigan after Saturday Rites; Bride Wears Lace-Trimmed Gown of Silk Organza and Taffeta

In Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon, Carol Ann Baude spoke her marriage vows to Captain David Keith Jackson, USAF.

The Reverend Andrew F. Rauth officiated at the ceremony. Following a reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, the newlyweds left for a vacation in Northern Michigan.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Baude, of Hollywood avenue, wore a silk organza and taffeta gown, with Alencon lace appliques at her scalloped neckline and Alencon lace cascades at each side of her belled skirt.

Designed with a basque waist, short sleeves and a chapel train, her wedding dress featured sequins and seed pearls, scattered through the lace details.

A seed pearl and cut crystal flower headpiece caught her shoulder length veil of white French illusion, and she carried an arrangement of red roses, with Stephanotis.

Mrs. Ben Koda, of San Jose, Calif., was honor attendant, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Clouse, of Grand Rapids, and Marilyn Ward, of Dearborn, the bride's cousin.

They wore street length frocks of white cotton lace and taffeta, fashioned with Sweetheart necklines, long lace sleeves and belled skirts. Their headpieces were veiled white roses, and they carried red roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson, of Eaton Rapids, asked Jack B. Kock, of Jackson, to serve as best man. Ushering were John E. Baude, brother of the bride, Wayne Jackson, brother of the bridegroom, and Burr Hartenburg, of Vermontville, Mich. For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Baude chose a sleeveless sheath and jacket costume, in green schiffli embroidered linen, with matching accessories.

Mrs. Jackson wore a powder blue gown of cotton lace and taffeta, with matching accessories.

The bride was wearing a white wool suit with black accessories when the newlyweds left for their wedding trip in the North. They will make their home in Washington, D.C.

The EDWARD D. BARRETTTS, of Whittier road, are spending the summer half in The Pointe, half at their cottage on Walloon Lake.

Mrs. Dykstra Accepts Post

Mrs. Richard Dykstra, of Bal-four road, has recently accepted an invitation to serve as a member of the national Women's Planning Committee of the Japan International Christian University Foundation in New York City.

Mrs. Dykstra is president of United Church Women of Detroit. A member of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, she also holds membership in the Detroit Y.W.C.A., Detroit Women's City Club, and Detroit Parliamentary Law Club.

Other members of the Women's Planning Committee from this area are: Mrs. Frank Ferguson, Mrs. G. Merrill Lenox, Mrs. S. D. Ross, and Mrs. Chester D. Weaver, all of Detroit; and Mrs. Taylor H. Seeber, of Merriweather road.

Mrs. Morgan (Elizabeth Gray) Vining, of Wallingford, Pa., is chairman and Mrs. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, N.Y., is honorary chairman of the Women's Planning Committee, whose primary objective is to increase the support and interest of American women for International Christian University in Japan.

The University, which maintains both graduate and undergraduate facilities, is located in a suburb of Tokyo. It was founded in 1949 by Christian leaders in Japan, the United States, and Canada.

The first commencement exercises of its College of Liberal Arts took place in March 1957, and a month later the Graduate School of Education admitted its first students. The Graduate School of Public Administration was opened in 1963.

The University is characterized by features unique to Japanese institutions of higher education, such as housing its faculty and students on the campus, bilingual instruction and requirement of complete fluency in English and Japanese for graduation; "open stack" arrangement of books in the library; and its interdenominational, interracial, and intercultural aspects.

Today, International Christian University, whose credits are widely accepted by American universities, has an enrollment of 1,154 students of many nationalities and religions and an international faculty of 102 members.

Leading church bodies in the United States and Canada have contributed about two-thirds of the $10,000,000 raised through the Japan International Christian University Foundation to date for this united Protestant enterprise in Tokyo.

Meeting Slated By Garden Club

The second of Suburbia Garden Club's two summer-month "fun" sessions is scheduled next Tuesday, August 4, at Mrs. Herbert Epstein's home in Windmill Pointe drive.

The lady gardeners will gather, with their children, for luncheon around the Epstein pool, followed by an afternoon of swimming... and perhaps even a bit of garden "shop talk," if guests feel so inclined.

Mrs. David K. Jackson

CAROL ANN BAUDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Baude, of Hollywood avenue, was married to Captain Jackson, son of the Herbert Jacksons, of Eaton Rapids, Saturday, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Schedule HOPE 'Extravaganza'

The Women's Division for Project Hope is planning a fabulous "Extravaganza," first of what the committee hopes will be an annual series of balls to be held September 30, at the Latin Quarter.

The party will feature cocktails, a gourmet dinner, and a fashion show integrated into a musical comedy, written especially for the Extravaganza, according to Hope Ball co-chairman Mrs. James H. Quello, of Berkshire road.

"And of course, there will be dancing," Mrs. Quello adds. General chairman of the affair, (the committee considers Pro-

Friends Assist Marillac Hall

The Friends of Marillac Hall, who last year sponsored a donation tea at the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Joseph Schenith, have planned no tea this year.

Instead, they are conducting a private solicitation campaign, asking friends and friends of friends for funds to assist the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul, who conduct Marillac Hall.

Pointers serving on the Friends' committee include Mrs. Stanley E. Beattie, Mrs. Lewis Fisher, Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., Mrs. Joseph W. Louisell, Mrs. John M. Murphy, Mrs. Jean T. Shearer and Mrs. Edward J. Shumaker.

More are Mrs. Stephen DuBrul, Mrs. John C. Griffin, Mrs. Joseph A. Kasper, Mrs. Dallas S. Kelsey, Mrs. Edward J. O'Donnell, Mrs. Frank Rennell, Mrs. Leo J. Schulte and Mrs. Gibbs Sloan.

'Health-O-Rama' To Open August 31

Mrs. E. O. Bodkin, Chairman, Appoints Assistants To Help With Northland Center Presentation By United Foundation

Mrs. E. O. Bodkin, 876 Trombley road, chairman of the United Foundation "Health-O-Rama" to be presented on the main terrace of J. L. Hudson's Northland Center August 31 - September 5, has named five co-chairmen to work with her and her co-chairman, Mrs. Martin S. Hayden, 218 Merriweather, in staging the event.

They are Mrs. Joseph A. Vance Jr., 56 S. Deeplands, Layout and Agency Assignments; Mrs. Charles Kelly, 592 Cadieux, and Mrs. Lee Hills, Whittier Hotel, co-chairman, Layout and Assignments; Mrs. John Sterling, 871 N. Glenhurst Dr., Birmingham, Hostesses; and Mrs. Clyde C. Bennett Jr., 1274 Westwood, Birmingham, Program and Entertainment.

Working with the "Health-O-Rama" committees will be William Fleming, public relations manager for Northland Center, and Syd Schultz, president of the Northland Chamber of Commerce.

Agency exhibits where demonstrations and tests will be conducted, will be housed in a tent on the terrace. Other agencies will present programs on an outdoor platform.

The exhibition, free to the public, is being presented by Women for the United Foundation (WUF), a year-round organization of past and present Torch Drive volunteers headed by Mrs. Worth Kramer, 4955 Ardmore, Bloomfield Hills, as chairman.

Arrangements for space within the tent have been made by 35 Torch Drive agencies.

They are Children's Hospital, Salvation Army, Council of Alcoholism, Rehabilitation Institute, Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Cystic Fibrosis, Detroit Cerebral Palsy Center, Michigan Humane Society, Catholic Charities, Boys Clubs of Detroit, Red Cross, Detroit Dental Aid, Big Brothers of Oakland County, Detroit Federation of Settlement.

Also, Children's Leukemia Foundation, Detroit Society for Prevention of Blindness, Leader Dogs, Recording for the Blind, Multiple Sclerosis, Michigan Cancer Foundation, Society for Mental Health, Detroit League for the Handicapped, Shiffman Clinic, Michigan Heart Association, YMCA, Michigan Kidney Disease Foundation, YWCA, St. Francis Home for Boys, Michigan Epilepsy Association.

Presenting programs on the outdoor platform will be the American Red Cross, Big Brothers, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, International Institute, Catholic Charities, and others of the 204 agencies for which the Torch Drive provides funds.

The exhibits will be open during store hours, Mrs. Bodkin said.

"Everything is free to the public," she added. "This includes many of the tests given by various health agencies. The purpose of the 'Health-O-Rama' is to dramatize the work done by Torch Drive agencies toward better health within the community, and to present some of the more spectacular aspects of agency recreational services."

MR. and MRS. A. LYNN ZWICKY, of Colonial court, are vacationing in Spain during July and August. A special stop on their itinerary is the Island of Mallorca.

Just back from a cross-country trip are the REX REGANS, of Whittier road, who loved San Francisco and had a marvelous time at Disneyland.

Marianne A. Concilio Marries Mr. Bogdon

Trombly School Teacher Speaks Vows Saturday, in St. Brendan's Church; Evening Reception at Allard House Follows Morning Rites

Pearls from her grandmother's wedding gown were used to trim the dress chosen by Marianne Angela Concilio for her own marriage Saturday morning, in St. Brendan's Church, to Bernard David Bogdon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Concilio, of McKinney avenue, Detroit. She teaches kindergarten at Trombly School.

Her husband is the son of Mrs. Stanley Bogdon, of Patton avenue, Detroit, and the late Mr. Bogdon.

For her wedding, the former Miss Concilio chose a gown of silk organza over taffeta, its lace details applied with her grandmother's pearls. Her bouffant illusion veil fell from a pearl crown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of Baby Elegance carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor Agnes Ludlow, and bridesmaids Joan DiLoreto and Dolores Iribacher were dressed alike in floor length frocks of pink silk organza, with front panels of Chiffy embroidery.

The honor attendant carried a Colonial bouquet of pink daisies, while the bridesmaids' Colonial bouquets were fashioned of pink and white daisies.

Junior bridesmaid Ann DiLoreto wore a gown similar to that of the bridesmaids, and carried a matching bouquet.

Walter Ludlow served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were N. David Scott and Oliver Marcotte.

For her daughter's wedding and the evening reception at Allard House, Mrs. Concilio chose a light blue chiffon gown, with an overskirt and pearl-appliqued bodice. Mrs. Bogdon was in blue lace. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

When they return from a wedding trip in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Hickory street, Detroit.

Parties Honor Miss Sattler

A number of her friends have given parties honoring Judith Sattler, of Webber place, in celebration of her August 29 marriage to James H. Carney, of Franklin road, Bloomfield Hills.

A cocktail and dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weyer and Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Todd, was the first. It was held at the Women's City Club, of which Mrs. Weyer is president, on June 27.

The Detroit Golf Club was the setting for the first shower, July 8 given by Mrs. Robert Talbott, of Birmingham. It was a personal shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Almond entertained July 18, with a formal dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club. The following evening, July 19, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Barnes, and Mrs. Barnes' father Mr. Anthony Maiullo honored the couple with a supper and bar shower, at the Barnes Chicago boulevard home.

Mrs. E. W. Ivey, of Birmingham, helped Miss Sattler celebrate her coming marriage July 22, with a linen shower held at Oakland Hills Country Club, in Birmingham.

Mrs. John Andrews Upsaur was hostess for a small dinner for the couple, given July 25, in her Ann Arbor apartment. The following evening Mr. and Mrs. Alexander LaPointe honored the couple with a dinner at the Country Club of Detroit.

Mrs. Emil Trautman and Mrs. William B. Anderson, both of Grosse Pointe, were co-hostesses at a hostess shower at the Detroit Boat Club on July 28. The following day Miss Sattler was entertained at a personal shower given by Mrs. C. F. Turner in her Rosedale Park home.

On August 2, Mrs. Roy Edwards and Mrs. Henry G. Chall will give a miscellaneous shower for the engaged couple. The unusual note to this occasion will be the tiny gifts brought to the bride's parents as well.

A miscellaneous kitchen shower and luncheon will be given by Mrs. K. E. Staley August 7 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The following Wednesday, August 12, Mrs. Lawrence Averill, of Birmingham, will give an around-the-clock shower and tea for Miss Sattler at the Forest Lake Country Club.

A budget succeeds only if you resolve not to budget.

Mrs. Milton A. Darling, Jr., of Birmingham, and Mrs. Stafford McLaughlin will be hostesses at a luncheon at the Women's City Club August 19.

Mrs. Claude A. Greiner, of Lakeshore road, will entertain the couple with an outdoor barbecue Saturday, August 22, at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Carney, parents of the bridegroom, will entertain the wedding party and out-of-town relatives at the Rehearsal Dinner to be held Thursday, August 27, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The following day, Carol Roller, of Grosse Pointe Woods, will entertain at the Spinster Luncheon, to be given at her home.

The wedding itself will take place at St. Paul's Church, with the reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Karen Tanghe Says Vows To Mr. Baron

Pair at Home in Grand Rapids After Wedding Trip To Niagara Falls and New York; Bride Wears White Tissue Taffeta Gown

Karen Marie Tanghe chose a gown of tissue taffeta, with seed pearl and paillette-accented Alencon lace appliques, for her July 10 wedding, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, to Bruce Alan Baron.

Father George Schrauder officiated at the 11 o'clock ceremony, which was followed by a reception in Harper Hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael R. Tanghe, of Holiday road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baron, of Grand Rapids. Her wedding dress featured a belted skirt, ending in a full Court train, and her bouffant illusion veil fell from a crystal ered with small white daisies, and their headpieces were matching yellow bows, with short veils. They carried bouquets of yellow carnations and white daisies.

James King, of Kalamazoo, served as the bridegroom's best man. Seating the guests were Richard Tanghe, a cousin of the bride, Robert Thomas, of Kalamazoo, and Donald Emmerling, of Farmington.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Tanghe chose a dress of sky blue silk organza over taffeta, with a bodice of Chantilly lace, and matching accessories.

Mrs. Baron wore a beige lace frock with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and New York, and are making their home in Grand Rapids.

Don't waste time looking for sympathy—figure a way out.

Mrs. Bruce Alan Baron

At a morning ceremony in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church July 18, KAREN MARIE TANGHE, daughter of the Michael R. Tanghes, of Holiday road, spoke her wedding vows to Mr. Baron, son of the Alex Barons, of Grand Rapids.

Francis Flagler Is Christened

Francis Joseph Flagler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley J. Flagler, of Manor avenue, was christened Sunday, July 26, at St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Monsignor Francis J. McPhillips officiated at the Baptism. Godparents were Jack Kelley, of Ypsilanti, and Alice Millington, of The Pointe.

The Flaglers entertained at a cocktail party immediately following the ceremony. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore and Mrs. Laura Moore, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Fete Jill Ogden Before Wedding

Many parties have been given in honor of Jill Alvina Ogden, daughter of the Chester F. Ogden, of Hawthorne road, who will wed James Adams Mathewson August 8, at an afternoon ceremony in St. James Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Harold O. Love, of Lochmoor boulevard, and Mrs. Oscar Schwartz were co-hostesses at a luncheon yesterday, in the Love home. Guests at this "mother and daughter" party included the oldest friends of the bride-elect's mother, and their "grown-up" daughters.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Richard Molyneux entertained Miss Ogden at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower, in the Molyneux home in Fisher road.

In June, Mrs. C. G. Browne and Mrs. J. Edward Schutte were co-hostesses at a tea in Mrs. Browne's McKinley avenue home, and Mrs. Bernard Martin and Mrs. Robert Sealy shared hostess duties at a luncheon in the Martin home, in Hawthorne road.

The latter party was a double shower, honoring Jill Ogden and Katie Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Harris, of Bay City, who will wed Jill's brother August 15.

The bridegroom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Mathewson, of Lakeland avenue, will give the Rehearsal dinner August 7, at the Village Manor, and Mr. and Mrs. Ogden will host a reception following their daughter's wedding, at the Lochmoor Club.

Music Festival Will Continue

The Meadow Brook Music Festival of Oakland University near Rochester opened with three smash hit concerts last week end and the capacity audiences found everything to their liking.

The new $300,000 Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion drew gasps of pleasure visually as well as aurally. The full Detroit Symphony Orchestra under Sixten Ehrling's direction sounded superb in the glowing "pre-tunable" fiberglass acoustical shell which was especially designed for its use.

This week the orchestra will appear Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. with the great American Soprano star of the Metropolitan Opera, Miss Mary Costa.

At Thursday and Friday concerts she will be heard in Richard Strauss' "Four Last Songs" and Ravel's "Sheherazade." Saturday she will repeat the Strauss work and add to her offerings arias from Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," Cilea's "Adriana Lecouvreur" and Massenet's "Herodiade."

The orchestra has scheduled Thursday and Friday Strauss

Tone Poem "Don Juan." Ravel's "Le Tombeau de Couperin" and "La Valse."

On Saturday it will play Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet," Dukas' "The Sorcerer's Apprentice" and Nicolai's Overture to "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Extra seating has been arranged with tickets available at the Meadow Brook office in Oakland University at $2 and $1 for Thursday-Friday performances, and at $3, $2 and $1 for Saturday performances. The telephone number is 338-7211.

MRS. NORMAN J. ELLIS, of Birmingham, gave a personal shower in honor of ANN MARIE HUBER in mid-July.

MRS. RAYMOND EDDY, of Lakepointe avenue, the bride-elect's mother; MRS. ROBERT RICE, MRS. HOWARD MAYNARD and MRS. LEO COWLING were present, as were MRS. RAYMOND EDDY, of Pemberton road, and MRS. MARK MAUN, of Balfour road. MRS. WILLIAM J. MASSEY, the bride-elect's grandmother, of Sarasota, Fla., was also in attendance.

Her bouffant fingertip-length silk illusion veil fell from a pillbox headpiece of re-embroidered Brussels lace, accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Elegance and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Her attendants, matron of honor Mrs. George Pappas and bridesmaids Sally Barnes and Mrs. Richard Kirchoff, wore floor length gowns of pink silk organza, styled with A line skirts and pink satin Watteau panel trains.

Their headpieces were pink satin Dior bows. They carried cascade bouquets of deep pink Elegance, accented with deep garnet rosebuds.

Flower girl Nancy Jane Pranger wore a floor length pink silk organza gown with accents of pink satin, and a pink Dior bow headpiece. She carried a white basket of Elegance and garnet rosebuds.

Celeste DiLegge served as Mr. Jacob's best man. Ushering were Hal Blay, cousin of the bride, and Lynn Langley. The ring bearer, Danny McShane, carried a white satin, heart-shaped pillow, trimmed with white nylon lace.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Zimmerman chose an aqua sheath of French petillaut, accented with side panels of silk chiffon. She wore matching accessories and carried a seed pearl purse. Her corsage was fashioned of white phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Jacobs wore a beige chantilly lace sheath, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

For traveling to the Poconos, the bride donned a pink and white summer knit suit, with matching pink accessories and a white orchid corsage.

When they return from their wedding trip, the new Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs will make their home in Riverdale, Ill.

therapy, education, social adjustment, and convalescent care of orthopaedically handicapped children.

The roster of Sigma Gamma's early members glitters with "society" names—Sibley, Palms, Joy, Shelden, Muir—but the purpose of the organization has always been practical and philanthropic.

These were no "perfect young ladies," anxious to cement themselves in a continuing friendship of teas, parties and dances; these were alert, active, "modern" women, concerned with the problems of the times, willing to work to alleviate those problems.

Volunteer Service

Fifty years later, in the mid-1960's, the term "volunteer" is sometimes used disparagingly, spoken with a slight hint of a sneer, ("Oh, she works as a volunteer downtown somewhere, once a week").

All the really "bright" people go out and get REAL jobs, volunteering is for the women-who-are-left-over; it is just "something for them to do."

To correct these misconceptions: (A) Many of the really "bright" people are busy bringing up equally bright children, who can and do outwit their parents when left alone even for very short periods of time; the era of the nursemaid-nanny is, in general, long gone; grandmothers do not take kindly to the suggestion that they babysit from 9 to 5 five days a week.

(B) Left over from WHAT? say the ladies, who find 24 hours too short a time in which to cram chauffeuring, meal planning, PTA meetings, bowling or golf groups, (you have to keep in shape), book review clubs or political meetings, (you can't let your mind stagnate).

(C) Anyone who thinks volunteering is "just something to do" should try it for a few weeks. Knitting is "just something to do"; volunteers WORK!

The Clinic

The Detroit Orthopedic Clinic, founded and sponsored by the Sigma Gamma Association, is an example of what intelligent, purposeful volunteer work can, (and usually does), accomplish.

To get down to facts: It is the oldest agency of its kind in the United States, the only agency of its kind in Michigan, a worldwide pioneer of similar clinics, a Torch Fund participant.

Perhaps the best way to understand the Clinic is to walk through it, as we did, taking the route a patient would take, checking in at the pleasant reception desk, passing through the waiting room, stopping at the Referral Department, where preliminary investigation, (medical and social histories), is made, caseworker or casework aides are assigned.

In the Physical Therapy Department we met Terry, solemn-eyed, in a bright orange and yellow shift, working to stretch the muscles of her legs so that some day, (soon we hope), she will walk without assistance.

Two children in the Occupational Therapy room are finger-painting, braced into an erect position at a specially designed table. The Brace Shop is crammed with special shoes, braces and appliances, some in the tiniest sizes, some, like the shoes of the teen-age swimmer who has gone to New York to try out for the Olympics, large.

Wednesdays

Wednesday is "Clinic Day," when a cadre of Doctors moves into the building for special patient appointments.

The Clinic caseload has grown from 60 patients in 1920 to 2300 in 1962.

Adhering to the concept of treating the "whole child," the Clinic is geared to serve the patient emotionally, mentally and socially, as well as physically. To insure a sense of continuity and a feeling of security,

'Wheels' Ready For Big Party

This is the week! Between 6 and 8 o'clock Saturday evening, August 1, the Detroit Yacht Club Wheels will gather in the DYC's outdoor pool area for a "between the seasons" cocktail party.

Newcomers to the DYC are cordially welcome at all Wheels parties—the purpose of the organization is to get DYC members acquainted with one another. The evening will combine music with good fellowship, and DYC members may make dinner reservations with the Wheels group immediately following the party, at 8 o'clock in the main dining room.

In case of rain, the party will be held in DYC's upstairs Sweepstakes Room.

Showboat Party At GPYC Aug. 7

The fifth annual Showboat Party, sponsored by the junior members of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, will be held on August 7, at the Yacht Club.

The dance will feature the Discords, who have successfully performed at many private parties in the Grosse Pointe area. Joining the Discords will be the Treble-makers, who will be making their second appearance at the Showboat Party.

The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and will end around midnight. The attire is semi-formal. The age-limit is 15 through 20, and it is hoped that many of the older teens will join the fun.

There will be a limited number of tickets available at the door, so be sure and purchase your ticket early. The price is $3.50 per couple. Cokes and other soft drinks will be sold throughout the evening.

The man with troubles to burn should make light of them.

Celebration Day For Lockwoods

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Lockwood, of Moran road, are celebrating their 39th wedding anniversary today.

The Lockwoods returned from a two-week vacation in the Northwest last Thursday. They flew to Vancouver, then traveled north to Alaska, by boat, returning for a few days of relaxation in British Columbia before coming on to The Pointe.

OBITUARIES

MRS. VIRGINIA BRUSH Historical Library as the Askin Letters.

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Frederick C. Ford died July 26 in her home at 1032 Bishop road. She was 80 years old.

Born Virginia Eloise Brush, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Brush, of a family who, after coming to Detroit from the East at the turn of the Eighteenth Century, owned and developed a large tract of land around what is still called Brush Street. Among her distinguished ancestors were the Askin family, a collection of whose letters and documents relating to early Detroit has been printed and is in the Burton

Educated privately and graduated later from Dobbs Ferry, her radiant personal charm attracted friends of all ages. As a child her home, a great beautiful house on Jefferson avenue, was a mecca for her contemporaries. Her debut was made there. After several years in Europe she married Frederick Clifford Ford, a well known figure in the investment business. They had four children, Virginia (Mrs. Samuel H. Bell), of Phoenix, Arizona, Frederick Clifford Ford Jr., Walter Buhl Ford II and Alfred Brush Ford, an Air Force pilot who lost his life, very young, in the Second World War.

The Ford house on Bishop road, has always been a center of warm hospitality and of a brilliant social life. Dynamic, warm and generous, Mrs. Ford has always been surrounded by devoted friends whose concerns she made her own; her private life, however, in no way interfered with her many serious civic interests.

Always a great lover of children, she became, as a young woman, chairman of the House Committee of the Protestant Children's Home, an institution of which her grandmother, Mrs. Edmund A. Brush, had for many years been First Directress. Formerly a member of Old Christ Church, where numerous memorials to her family are preserved, she took an active place in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, serving for nine years on the Altar Guild, and was greatly interested in the Washington Cathedral as its Regional Director for Eastern Michigan for several terms. A great gardener, she was president for three years of the Garden Club of Michigan.

She acted as Air Raid Warden for her district all through World War II; gave much time to the International Institute where she initiated the Visitors' Corps; was president of the Needlework Guild; chairman for several years of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial; and at the time of her last illness was an active member of the board of The Boys' Republic.

Her warm interest in people, especially in children, her quick sympathy and help, her delightful responsive humor, her excellent executive ability and common sense, made her innumerable friends among those she worked with so wholeheartedly.

Her greatest personal joys were her adored family, her each child sees the same doctor, therapist and caseworker throughout his treatment.

Other Clinic Departments include a Business Office, Speech and Language department, Dental Clinic, Craft and Recreational Room, Furniture Pool, Kitchen and Dining Room, and Research and Education Department.

The Research and Education Department, under the supervision of a registered Physical Therapist who has had advanced study and experience in research, specifically in electromyography, is subsidized by special grants, and receives no support from United Foundation.

Last summer, Sigma Gamma members came in droves with their own children, to test them on the myograph, which records muscle action in the same manner as the cardiograph measures and records heart action, and compare these healthy muscle patterns to those of patients.

The results of all studies are prepared for publication in medical and technical journals; reprints have been requested by institutions in 20 countries.

The Nursery School

The Nursery School is a bright, big room, full of the usual nursery school paraphernalia, with some additions and modifications. Most of the boys and girls wear helmets, to protect their heads when they fall.

Many Sigma Gamma volunteers work in this Department, where special skills are unnecessary. All of the professional staff is truly "professional," possessing degrees in their respective fields and often holding advanced training certificates.

Mrs. S. Pinkney Tuck, of Country Club drive, endows the maintenance of the Nursery School. Mrs. Tuck has also decorated and furnished the special Sigma Gamma board room, with its lovely flower-patterned blue carpet, in memory of her daughter, Martha Dwight Douglas Weiss.

Terry had finished her Physical Therapy work, and was furiously pedalling a tricycle across the floor of the Nursery School room by the time we arrived there.

She looked up when she saw us, but she didn't stop pedalling. She was having too much fun to stop, enjoying herself, sure that this world is a Very Good Place.

church, her circle of old friends and her garden, which this summer is blooming so beautifully for her.

She is survived by her husband, her three children, 10 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

She was in state at Christ Church Grosse Pointe, from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday. Funeral services at Christ Church Grosse Pointe were Tuesday at 2 p.m. Private burial, (family only) was at Elmwood Cemetery.

Memorial tributes may be sent to Christ Church Grosse Pointe or Michigan Cancer Foundation.

RUSSELL F. MANNEY Services were held for Russell Manney, of Flint, Mich., formerly of Grosse Pointe, Saturday, July 25, at St. Andrews Episcopal Church. Mr. Manney, 62, died Thursday, July 23, in Hurley Hospital of Flint.

Born in Bellaire, Mich., Mr. Manney was associated with Campbell-Ewald for 18 years and later with MacManus, John and Adams Advertising Agencies.

Mr. Manney is survived by his wife, Mildred, a son, Russell Manney, Jr., Comptroller of Grosse Pointe Woods, a daughter, Mrs. Karen Rohder, of Metamora, Mich., his father, John J. Manney, of Flint, and two grandsons.

Burial was in Rye, New York.

WALTER I. OWEN

Services were conducted for Walter I. Owen, of 1331 Bishop, Wednesday, July 29, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Mr. Owen, 44, died suddenly, Sunday, July 26, at Beaumont Hospital.

Born in Detroit, Mr. Owen was graduated from Wayne State University. He was a member of the Zion Lodge of the Masons. Mr. Owen who spent several years with the Detroit Free Press, had just joined the staff at the Paragon Steel Co.

Mr. Owen is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, three daughters Sally, Debby, and Betsy, and a son, Walter Jr.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

PHILIP J. GRANGER

Mr. Granger, Sr. passed away July 21 at age 69 in Herman Kiefer Hospital. He had resided at 2080 Anita.

Born in Detroit, Mr. Granger had been employed as a stockman by the Chrysler Corporation.

Survivors include his wife, Stella; two sons, Philip Jr., and Charles J.; a daughter, Mrs. Marion Day; and one brother, George.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 24 from St. Joan of Arc Church, St. Clair Shores, and interment was in Royal Oak (Mich.) Cemetery.

E. H. MUELLER

Mr. Ervin H. Mueller, of 1109 Grayton, died Tuesday, July 28, in St. Anne's Convalescent Home. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Verheyden's Funeral Home.

Mr. Mueller, 83, was president and founder of the Lincoln Brass Works. His club memberships included the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the Detroit Athletic Club, and the Harmonie Club.

Born in Columbus, O., Mr. Mueller is survived by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. John H. Mueller, a brother, Edgar A. Mueller, of Columbus, and four grandchildren, Janet, Judith, John H. Mueller, and Mrs. Francis Kotcher, Jr.

Interment will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

DR. CLARENCE J. WILLIAMS

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 25, for Dr. Williams, of 1342 Grayton, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Dr. Williams, 68, died Thursday, July 23, at his home.

Born in Eaton Rapids, Mich., Dr. Williams was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1924. He was a member of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Lochmoor Club, the University Club, the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, and was a member of the Board of Directors until last June of the Grosse Pointe Symphony.

Dr. Williams was also associated with the American Medical Association, the Michigan State Medical Association, the Wayne County Medical Association, the American Academy of General Practice, and numerous others.

Dr. Williams has been an active staff member of Cottage Hospital since its opening in 1928. He was a former chief of staff.

Survivors include his wife Laura, two sons, Dr. John H. and James P., a sister, Mrs. Anna Deane, two brothers, Carl O. and Kenneth P., and five grandchildren.

Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Memorial contributions are requested to be sent to the Cottage Hospital Memorial Fund.

In the Farms

Here's a real Charmer in a Georgian Colonial and one you shouldn't miss seeing. Frankly, it needs a complete redecorating job and some work done to place it in like-new condition; otherwise it is most outstanding. Because of its condition and the fact it is being sold to settle an estate, THE PRICE IS RIGHT.

Among its many features are an unusually attractive entrance hall with marble floor and a circular staircase; lovely paneled library, attractive Powder room and lavatory; butlers pantry, 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, maid's room and bath, games room, copper plumbing and a 2-car attached garage.

Someone with imagination can do wonders with this home and end up with a terrific bargain. Why not give it a look?

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Mid-summer snapshot . . . Mrs. Lewis F. Brown, of Lothrop road, tanned, blond and dashing, in a chalk-white sleeveless sheath, perfectly plain, buttoned up-the-front from kneecap to collarless neckline, with her monogram, DKB, embroidered in cool blue thread on the frock's single, high pocket.

Arlene Prete, of Three Mile drive, has just returned from a first summer school stint at Lindsey Wilson College, Columbia, Ky. . . where her amosin' confosin' was her inability to understand the thick Southern drawl of her assigned roommate — who, in turn, couldn't make out Arlene! The problem was solved through another girl down the hall, who interpreted for both. What we have had no answer to from Arlene is this: Was the interpreter a Southerner juxtaposing the Northern accent . . . or a Northerner translating the Southern drawl?

Did you know that . . . if you stand on a certain spot in Kercheval avenue, and look up at the facade of the Punch and Judy Theater when the sun's rays are shining full on the building, you can make out, quite clearly, an advertisement for "Genuine Talking Pictures?"

Among the few Pointe men . . . brave enough, (and well-built enough) to wear really GORGEOUS clothes is Joseph E. Burke, of Yorkshire road. Mr. Burke looks particularly elegant this summer in a deep, bright, blue sports coat . . . and Mrs. Burke looks equally elegant, standing by his side in a blue and white summer print, with a matching blue Dior bow pinned to the back of her blond locks.

Prize for the biggest . . . white ash tree in Grosse Pointe, belongs, unquestionably, to Louis M. Baze, of Park lane. Mr. Baze's pride-and-joy measures 14 feet, seven inches, (175 inches), in circumference; the largest white ash in Michigan, according to the State's Botanical Club list of Champion Trees, is a Kalkaska County giant measuring 190 inches, only 15 inches larger than the Baze tree.

Next time . . . you see John D. Benfield, of Lakeshore road, take a quick look at his eyeglasses, described by a hemused London lens repairman as "fresh air, no-fog" spectacles. Mr. Benfield claims the unique "bi-focals" are excellent for scratching itchy eyeballs.

Working-for-the-future . . . this summer, is Bob Hudson, of Mt. Vernon road, who has a job in a Cancer Research Laboratory. A brilliant student, Bob will return to his studies at Kalamazoo College this fall, after several months spent increasing his own knowledge . . . and perhaps, experimentation, adding a bit to the common knowledge of all who strive to control cancer.

Surest test . . . of a true friend in Grosse Pointe these days is this: If he stands aside on Sunday morning, to let you buy the last copy of the just-arrived New York Times, he is a REAL friend, (we know several ladies and gentlemen who have already flunked)!

The C. Bradford Lundys, Jr. . . are NOT building the biggest private swimming pool in town; they are simply sinking their entire lawn on the corner of Cook and Ballantyne roads. The swimming pool will take up only a small portion of the completed project.

PILFERINGS

Two cannibals were eating dinner when one looked at the other and said: "I hate my mother-in-law." "So all right," his friend replied, "why don't you just shut up and eat the vegetables?"

Pointer of Interest

JOSEPH G. BLACK, OF BEDFORD ROAD

By Janet Mueller

A cache of walnut wood, forgotten and seasoned for 30 years in his father-in-law's attic, was all the impetus Joseph G. Black needed to begin carving . . . and the results, chairs, tables, cabinets, every piece unique, are proof that Mr. Black's encounter with the walnut wood was a most happy accident.

He designed and laid out his present home in Bedford road, with its living room rafters of gumwood, paneled bookshelves and fireplace with the wood-carved motto: "East West Home's Best."

It is a room both warm and "grand," tall and long and comfortable, resembling the Great Hall of a medieval castle, but on a miniature scale—and without drafts.

Just about every piece of furniture in the room was hand-carved by Joseph G. Black. Suspended from the very center of the ceiling is Mr. Black's pride-and-joy, a hanging lantern, fashioned of gumwood to match the rafters, its design copied from the sunburst window in France's Rouen Cathedral, (with a few extra Black embellishments).

Six Months To Make

A delicate, intricate, lacy piece of work, the lantern took about six months to complete. Mr. Black kept this project-in-progress in his dining room, taking it out and working at it whenever he had the chance.

There are more than 500 sawings in the finished lantern. (To make a round hole in a piece of wood, so that one piece of wood will fit into another, a hand saw is used; the saw must be assembled and disassembled twice for every hole, or "sawing.")

Finished finally, and hung, the lantern is an exquisite example of wood-carving — and despite the huge amount of sawings, Mr. Black never had an accident with the piece.

The grandfather clock, standing against his far living room wall, on one side of his fireplace, took Mr. Black approximately a year to complete.

A Roman pilaster design, the clock's surface is covered with carved motifs, urns, hourglasses and scrolls. There is a carved legend on the front of the case: "So fleet the works of men back to their earth again ancient and holy things fade as a dream."

From Old Theater

One of Mr. Black's favorite quotations, and expressive of his personal philosophy, the stanza was written by Charles Kingsley. It was inscribed over the stage of the old Garrick Theater.

Everywhere in the room, there are examples of Mr. Black's wood-carving prowess. A magnificent chair, tapestry covered, with carved back, arms and legs, seems to cry out for a 13th century Earl, flanked on each side by a pair of wolfhounds.

Behind the chair stands a cabinet, made, like the other pieces, of solid black walnut, its surface completely carved, and put together with dowels; there is not a nail in the piece!

Another example of Mr. Black's handiwork, and one of the few articles of furniture he has NOT made out of walnut, is a gumwood bench, placed in his hall, finished with shellac and polished to a high gloss.

"The more you polish wooden furniture, the better it gets," Mr. Black maintains.

Eventually — unfortunately — Mr. Black's supply of 30-year-old seasoned walnut ran out . . . and he turned his attention to a new-old interest: Violins.

He started making violins some 25 years ago, but he had always been interested in them. He played in a Symphony Orchestra during his student days in Ann Arbor, (a University of Michigan Literature-Law School graduate, he practiced in Detroit for 48 years with his brother).

Made 70 Violins

Through the years he has fashioned about 70 violins. Violin-making is very exacting, intricate work; the wood must be literally sculpted, inside and outside, finished to a precise thickness before the pieces are finally glued together.

Mr. Black exhibited his violins at a recent Hobby Show, sponsored by the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

He belongs to the Woodworking Group of the Senior Men's Club, enjoys woodworkers' get-togethers, chances to talk and to compare notes with other carvers, but confesses that he is literally astounded at the amount of equipment some of the men use in conjunction with their hobby.

His own basement workshop is a modest establishment. "I have what I need to turn out a violin with ease," he says. "Why do I need any more?"

Born in 1886, he celebrated his 78th birthday on the Fourth of July. The entire Black family gathered in Bedford road for a backyard party, and Mr. Black remembers the day with pleasure, as a marvelous success.

Son James E. Black, his wife and three sons, came from Chicago for the Great Occasion, and the Joseph G. Blacks, Jr., of McKinley avenue, were there with their two sons.

Tradition Continued

Both Joseph, Jr., and James Black continued the family's University of Michigan educational tradition, Joseph graduating as an engineer and James as an attorney.

Besides making violins, Joseph G. Black, Sr., is interested in the music violins make; he used to play quite a bit, for his own pleasure, "always classical music; I'm not interested in popular."

A great many of the young men of Detroit know him as a teacher. He conducted classes, in the evenings, at the Detroit Institute of Technology for about 40 years, and greatly enjoyed this part-time work.

Retired now, he combines taking-life-easy with keeping busy. "I always have something on the bench," he explains, adding that he thinks it's a fine thing for a man to have a hobby.

"If an older person doesn't have something to do — something of a creative nature is best — he becomes bored with life itself. I can't imagine anything more boring than to have nothing to do. It must be very burdensome."

"Of course, people read, look at television, listen to the radio. This is all great entertainment for older folks. But the physical result of working at a hobby, the satisfaction you achieve from creating something . . . this keeps you from getting to be just a zombie."

Thinks He's Lucky

He considers himself fortunate to be in good health, able to enjoy life, especially to enjoy his family and his violin-making.

He is fond of listening to the radio with his wife, Martica. They often select classical music programs from Wayne State's radio listings; Martica Black is as excited by good music as her husband. "She doesn't play an instrument, but she knows a lot," Joseph Black comments. And sometimes the Joseph G.

Blacks, Sr., go out to dinner together. "I still believe in taking my wife out to dinner, even if I am almost 80."

Joseph Black has always thought out, and laid out on paper, the designs he intends to achieve in wood. "I have never made anything haphazard," he claims. Like an engineer or an architect, he first makes proper drawings to scale, then begins to execute his designs in his chosen medium, wood.

He believes that any serious work, especially artistic work, MUST be planned. And although he naturally is of the opinion that wood-carving and violin-making are excellent hobbies, he does not recommend them for everyone.

"To be successful at this sort of work, you first have to be interested in it," he cautions. "And you must have a certain amount of talent for it, a natural gift."

He Had Both

Mr. Black has both the interest and the natural gift . . . but he is not a phenomenon; he did not find the walnut in his father-in-law's attic, pick up a few tools start carving, and make a magnificent piece of furniture the first afternoon he ever held a saw in his hand.

He had a pre-walnut background of work with wood, of carpentry and design.

"Years and years ago, (long before he started carving furniture or sculpting violins), a friend and I built a house from the bottom up," he reminisces.

"I took two weeks off, helped my friend find the lot and ordered the lumber, stayed right with it. We worked 18 hours a day."

The house, a summer retreat outside Mt. Clemens, encompassed a kitchen, studio living room complete with fireplace, and an upstairs bedroom with a balcony overlooking the living room.

Two weeks after they began construction, Mr. Black and his friend turned the key in the lock. The house was finished.

"Of course, it had no heating plant," Mr. Black recalls. "But it was quite an artistic, attractive little place."

"Come to think of it, it wasn't so little, either!"
