TWO WINGS of the Roman Catholic Church, symbolized by the American and Italian Cardinals and representative of the progressive and conservative groups, disputed yesterday a draft declaration on religious liberty. Cardinal Cushing of Boston, and other North and South American prelates, urged Ecumenical Council Vatican II to support a declaration leaving to the individual conscience of each man his relationship to divinity. Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, Secretary of the Holy Office, urged the primacy of the church's claim to absolute knowledge of religious truth.

AT THE NATIONAL CONVENTION of American Legionnaires in Dallas on Wednesday, Senator Barry Goldwater said that the "responsible" use of power through military force was the key to a "rational solution" of the cold war involving neither nuclear destruction nor a Communist takeover. Speaking before the electrical workers' convention in Washington on the same day, President Johnson said that the nation faced a choice "between the center and the fringe." He said the voters should prevent the country from falling "into the hands of extremists of any stripe."

THE GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION, still in the midst of contract negotiations with the United Automobile Workers, announced yesterday that it would hold prices basically unchanged on its 1965 models. The announcement is expected to be followed over the next few days by similar statements from the Ford Motor Company, the Chrysler Corporation and the American Motors Corporation.

REMOVING A MAJOR obstacle to early adjournment of Congress, the Senate yesterday adopted a non-binding request to Federal courts to go slowly in reapportioning state legislatures on a population basis. The 44-38 roll call was a victory for liberal Democratic Senators who were opposed to Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's proposal to impose a mandatory delay in district courts' application of the Supreme Court's June 15 one-man, one-vote ruling. The amendment adopted was offered by Sen. Mike Mansfield as a rider to the $3.3-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

NEGOTIATIONS in the 74-day-old Detroit newspaper strike resumed today with three public representatives sitting in on the talks in an intensive effort to agree on a new contract. The representatives are: Dr. Clarence Hilberry, president of Wayne State University; Bishop Richard Emrich and Prof. Russell Smith of the University of Michigan Law School. They are the same men who made up the panel, requested by Gov. Romney, to study the issues in the strike and submit a report to him yesterday. The report resulted in the resumption of the talks.

LAST-HOUR CONTRACT BARGAINING failed this morning when the United Auto Workers struck the General Motors Corp. at 10 a.m., the strike deadline. The UAW announced that the strike would be "selective," affecting about two thirds of GM's 125 plants across the country. Approximately 42 plants making parts and other products for other companies will not be struck. Non-economic matters, covering relief time, production standards, and union representation were the blocks to agreement, both sides said.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON said yesterday that he was willing to "go anywhere, talk to anyone, discuss any subject" if it would strengthen freedom and advance world peace. The pledge was made in a speech given at a ceremony with Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos to celebrate the settlement of the 100-year-old Chamizal boundary dispute with Mexico. Observers

PTA Council Hears Plans For Schools

Discussion on Proposed Second High School Features First Meeting of Season

The first meeting of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council for the 1964-65 year was held Monday evening at the Central Library, with president Arthur G. Sherman, Jr., in charge. Routine business brought before the group included the introduction of members, plans for the year, and approval of the minutes of the last meeting.

The main item on the agenda was discussion on the proposed second high school. George T. Eddington, administrative assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, made a chronological presentation of events related to the physical plant needs of the Grosse Pointe Public School System during the past year and a half.

He summarized the report made recently to the Citizens' Advisory Committee and to the Board of Education by Dr. Felix J. McCormick, registered engineer and school planning consultant on the staff of Columbia University.

Prediction Exceeded
It was pointed out that Dr. McCormick's predicted figure of 11,080 students for the 1964-65 year has already been exceeded. As of September 17, the enrollment of the public schools numbered 11,463, an increase of 3.78 per cent over last year. The generally tight situation at the secondary level has been aggravated by an increase of 149 students since June at Grosse Pointe High School, a

Police Nab Purse Thieves On Couple's Information

A married couple, who witnessed a youth grabbing a purse from a woman walking on Maryland, trailed the car in which the purse snatcher was riding, just long enough to determine the make of the vehicle and its license number, and gave the information to Park police. The thief and a companion were later arrested by a Farms patrolman.

Arrested for investigation of purse snatching were Billy Joe Pollard, 24, of 8838 St. Cyril, Detroit; and Jimmy E. Roberts, 20, of 7534 Yacht street, Warren, who is on probation for auto theft. Roberts admitted snatching the woman's purse.

On Sunday, September 27, the couple, who live in Detroit, while driving south on Maryland at 9:35 p.m., attracted by

Probe Burglary At Yarn Shop

City Police are investigating a breaking and entering at the Yarncraft shop on Fisher road on September 27.

A large piece of asphalt was thrown through the front window and the owners claim that several sweaters are missing from the display case.

Officers are investigating the method of entry into the building. The jagged glass in the window, made entry by this method almost impossible, according to police.

Penalty Imposed On Unpaid Taxes

Robert C. Bendzinski, treasurer of Grosse Pointe City, reminds City taxpayers that today, October 1, a 1/4 of one percent interest on unpaid taxes for the second half of the fiscal year goes into effect. The interest will increase by the same percentage each month that the taxes are unpaid.

Payment of the second installment of taxes was due on July 1 and a three percent penalty has already been charged on those unpaid by last August 11.

According to Bendzinski, 97.8 percent of the City's taxes have been collected. This represents a one percent increase over the amount received at this time last year.

October 2, 1939 was the official date of organization of the church, when the Constitution,

Pointe Torch Drive Quota $300,041.20

Mrs. Kenneth Koppin Heads Group of Volunteers Who Will Canvass All Homes

The 1964 Torch Drive residential quota for Grosse Pointe has been set at $300,041.20. Mrs. Kenneth Koppin, 1271 S. Renaud, is region chairman.

The money is to be raised through a house-to-house canvass between October 20 and October 30.

Contributions will go toward the overall Torch Drive goal of $20,850,000 to be raised for the 1965 budgets of 204 local, state, and national health and community services.

Emphasis in the residential canvass will be placed on completing solicitation in the first 10 days of the drive, which reaches a climax at the Victory Dinner to be held in the Statler-Hilton Hotel on the evening of November 12.

125,000 Volunteers
The 16th annual "give once for all" fund-raising drive will see 125,000 volunteers calling on neighbors and fellow-workers for contributions for 204 worthwhile causes which otherwise would campaign independently.

Of the total, $1,441,331 is to be raised from residential solicitation.

Money raised in the Torch Drive goes toward community organizations, family and children's services, health services, youth services, and such organizations as the American Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

The Torch Drive conducts a thorough house-to-house canvass in Macomb and Wayne Counties and most of Oakland County to provide everyone with an opportunity to contribute. All are helped in one way or another

Fines Paid by Three Who Assaulted Park Policeman

Three men who assaulted a Park policeman when he placed them under arrest for disorderly conduct, were convicted of being disorderly persons by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, September 23, and assessed heavy fines.

Found guilty were Edwin Southerland, 23, and Howard Haskin, 22, both of 22623 California, St. Clair Shores; and Charles Thorn, 26, of 331 Mt. Vernon.

Southerland paid a fine of $60, rather than spend 10 days in the Wayne County Jail; Haskin and Thorn, $35, with the alternative of 10 days in jail.

The trio was charged with being disorderly by Patrolman Collin LaLonde, who, Police Chief Arthur Louwers said, had seen the men in a lot behind

Durant Defeated In Move to Halt Convention Probe

Indicates Intention to Appeal to Supreme Court after Losing Round before Judge John Wise in Wayne Circuit Court

After losing a round in Wayne County Circuit Court, Richard Durant turned to the State Supreme Court this week in his fight to maintain control of the Republican organization in the 14th Congressional District.

Durant said he would ask the Supreme Court to overturn a Circuit Court decision handed down last Friday which paved the way for a party investigation of the District GOP convention held on September 12.

On Friday, September 25, Wayne County Circuit Court Judge John M. Wise ruled that Plaintiffs Richard Durant, Palmer T. Heenan, Milton O. Cross, III, Clayton Braathen, Lillian B. Chambers and John R. Kendall of the 14th Congressional District stated no claim in their complaint for an injunction upon which the court could grant relief.

The complainants had petitioned the court to restrain the Republican State Convention from causing an investigation to be made by the State Central Committee to inquire into the allegations of a petition filed by Robert E. Waldron, among others, who opposed Durant in the District Convention held in the 14th District, Saturday, September 12. The allegations questioned the propriety of the conduct of the election for District Chairman, other officers and the 15 member committee.

Questions Power
In denying the relief sought by Durant and his co-plaintiffs, Judge Wise questioned the power of a court to deny to the Central Committee of a political party the right to inquire into alleged irregularities and improprieties in the conduct of a party district organization election. He concluded that the judicial branch of government had no such power, and, accordingly, denied the plaintiffs the relief they sought.

He stated that he was not passing upon what the State Central Committee could or could not do upon conclusion of its investigation. While he did state that he had an opinion on the subject, namely, that the State Central Committee could not summarily replace the present officers, he observed that review of such attempted action was not before him and, accordingly, he could not pass upon this question in this case.

Beyond this, Judge Wise did not go, and in summarizing his decision, he stated again, that the sole question before him was the question of whether or not the Central Committee of a political party in the State of Michigan could be precluded by court edict from investigation of alleged political irregularities and improprieties in the conduct of an election in a congressional district organization. He stated again that in his opinion he had no such power under the political party system as it has developed under the form of government prevailing in the United States.

GOP State Chairman Arthur G. Elliott said he would appoint a committee to make the in-

Runs Light, Hits Two Other Cars

A ticket for reckless driving was issued to Robert Carl Dargel, Jr. of 43 Radnor circle on Sunday, September 27.

Dargel, driving north on Cadillac road, ran through a red light at Waterloo avenue and struck a car driven by Dorothy Lorraine De Young, 257 McMillan road. The impact forced the Dargel car into a spin, hitting a third car, driven by Joseph W. Dykstra, Jr. of 46 Cambridge, Pleasant Ridge, Mich.

Dykstra was going south on Cadillac and had stopped for the red light.

The policeman placed his hand on the arm of one of the men, and informed the three they were to follow him to the station for being disorderly. The man he touched, swung at the officer, and wrestled him to the ground.

While the one was battling the officer, Chief Louwers said, the other two men attempted to

Victims Give Descriptions Of Burglars

Police Chief Duemling Calls Robbery Epidemic Worst In History Of Village

Police of the five Pointes combined their efforts in the search for two suspects, during the early morning hours of Tuesday, September 22. The suspects are believed to be responsible for a total of 13 burglaries and five attempted breakins in the Shores in two days, Tuesday and the day previous.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling termed this the worst outbreak of burglaries at any one time in the history of the Shores.

The burglars are also believed to have been responsible for three breakins in the Woods on Saturday, September 19; and two in Harper Woods on Monday, September 21.

Chief Duemling said that five burglaries and one attempted burglary were committed in his community on Monday, and eight burglaries and four attempts, on Tuesday.

Suspect Gets Away
While other officers searched for the suspects Tuesday night, two Shores officers fired warning shots into the air, when a man was seen fleeing from a home that had been entered.

The fleet-footed intruder outdistanced the pursuing patrolmen, ignoring commands to stop, and the shots, and made good his escape.

The policemen, William Marshall and Gordon Swartz, said the fleeing man appeared to be carrying a pry bar and a flashlight in his hands. Pry bar marks were found on all rear doors forced open in the homes entered, and on the doors where attempts were made to enter houses.

In most cases, Chief Duemling said the burglaries were not reported until hours after they were committed because they were not discovered until after residents awakened in the morning.

Have Descriptions

The suspects were both described as being Negroes. One was said to be in his early twenties, tall and thin, about six feet tall and weighing about 140 pounds, wearing a dark gentleman's type hat and zippered waist-length, rusty colored suede jacket. He is believed the one to be fast-footed, and the one fired upon by Marshall and Swartz.

The other was said to be in his late teens or early twenties, is about five feet nine inches tall, full-faced and chubby cheeked, having very dark skin and wearing a gray three-quarter length fingertip jacket. He was also wearing a toboggan, or navy-type watch cap, dark in color, probably royal blue and rolled into a hat or beany fashion.

The first to call police in the latest incidents, was Matthew Savage of 21 Shorecrest, who phoned at 1:30 a.m., and told officers that he saw a man trying to enter his house by removing a pane of glass from a jalousie door at the rear of the house. The burglar started to push in the screen on the door, but was frightened away when Savage got up to investigate. Savage called police immediately.

Santi Home Entered

The second call came from the home of the Marco Santis, 53 Briarcliff, at 3:10 a.m. Mr. Santis informed police that his house had been forcibly entered, and six or seven dollars were taken from a purse belonging to his wife.

Shores Patrolmen Harry Hamilton and Donald Jacob, investigating this incident, discovered the source of entry at the rear door. While in the Santi home, the policemen heard the shots fired by Patrolmen Marshall and Swartz.

The fleet-footed suspect fired upon, was seen running north on Edgewood and climbed a fence in the 900 block of Ballymore and escaped.

At 7:20 a.m., Ray Cracchiola of 30 Moorland, called and re-

George McMullen, the success of the Lighter Side of Life Series presenting Meredith and Rini Willson, the Hungarian Ballet and the Chanteurs de Paris. He applauded the innovation of a pre-school culture program and increased use of the Center during the summer—made possible because of the air conditioning of the Fries Building through the generosity of Henry B. Joy, Jr.

The president pointed up the renewed emphasis on Memorial Day under the leadership of Major General Alden K. Sibley and program chairman John T. Short and expressed his pleasure at the fine musical events scheduled at the Center highlighted by the performance of Maestro Sixten Ehrling.

Many Gifts Received
Mr. Schroeder called attention to the many fine gifts made to the Center during the year, chief among which was the lovely illuminated fountain in front of Alger House given by Mr. and Mrs. Alger Shelden, and the Oriental rugs donated by the R. F. Kolowich family.

Capital improvements, said Mr. Schroeder, included painting of the exteriors of all the Center's buildings to present a uniform appearance, patch paving of the drives where necessary and the installation of a sprinkling system for the entire grounds and gardens to protect the extensive landscaping of the Memorial.

Mr. Schroeder, following his report, called on C. F. Ogden, former Memorial president and chairman of the nominating committee, to present the slate of nominees for board members to serve three years to replace Gerald C. Schroeder, Mrs. James A. Lafer, J. Leslie Berry,

Thomas L. Munson, and Mrs. Harold B. Tyree, whose terms were expiring.

Slate Wins Approval

Mr. Ogden placed in nomination Frank P. Boyer, Miss Winifred W. Eliason, John T. Short, Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole, and Thornton E. Waterfall. There being no further nominations this slate was elected by acclamation and warmly welcomed.

The general meeting was brought to a close with thanks from Mr. Schroeder to all those who had supported the Center in its 1964 Family Participation Campaign and to vice-president Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., drive chairman, and his many volunteer workers who made the drive such a success. President Schroeder also thanked all the officers, board members and committee workers who had served with him as well as the Center's staff. Those in attendance responded with a rising vote of thanks to President Schroeder and all the retiring officers and board chairmen.

In special session following the general meeting the new board of directors chose their new officers. They are Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., president; Mark Stevens, first vice-president; George C. Cossaboom, second vice-president; William M. Adams, secretary; Mrs. Frank W. Wylie, assistant secretary; George N. Monro, III, treasurer; Thornton E. Waterfall, assistant treasurer.

MISSILE MOVED

Residents of the Park City, Farms and Shores witnessed the transfer of a missile from the Belle Isle Army Base, to the Selfridge Air Force Base, on Monday, September 28. The missile was towed behind an Army truck, and was routed down Jefferson avenue. The reason for the transfer was not disclosed. Police cleared traffic all the way.

Two male witnesses to the incident, jumped to the aid of the embattled policeman, and held the two. Other police were called and took the trio to the station, and charged them with being disorderly persons.

The two witnesses' testimony in court helped convict Southernland, Haskin and Thorn, Chief Louwers said.

by Torch Drive services, and the United Foundation offers the opportunity to everyone to participate, either as a volunteer worker or as a contributor.

Help Over Million

More than one million persons each year, of all faiths, races, nationality backgrounds, and incomes use Torch Drive services directly. All are benefited through research into killing and crippling ailments and through the efforts of Torch Drive agencies to make the community a better place in which to live.

Since the first Torch Drive was held in 1949, more than $234,000,000 has been contributed through its volunteers to help maintain a high standard of health and community services.

More than 95 cents of each dollar contributed goes to the agencies for providing services. Less than five cents pays for campaign costs, year-round administration, accounting, and education. This compares most favorably with similar fundraising efforts in other United Fund communities where costs range from 12 to 15 per cent, and up to as much as 52 per cent in some independent campaigns.

The 1964 Torch Drive is headed by Thomas F. Morrow, of Vendome road, Chrysler Corp., vice-president, Defense, Space Group and Diversified Products, as its general chairman. Mrs. Irving F. ImOberst of Dearborn is co-chairman for Community Campaigns, which includes all residential solicitation.

Methodists Plan Political Forum

A two-evening forum, "Your Faith and Your Political Choices," will be held at Grosse Pointe Methodist Church on Monday, October 12, and on Monday, October 19, at 8 p.m. The meetings are sponsored by the Commission on Christian Social Concerns of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Willis C. Bullard is chairman. They are open to the public.

At the first session on Monday, October 12, three panelists from different area churches will express their personal views on the way in which one's Christian commitment directs and guides the formation of one's political philosophy and decisions made about issues and candidates. The panelists participating are: Mrs. Foster J. Braun of St. Ambrose Church, Charles Wright, III, of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and Dr. David Claybrook of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

The second program, on Monday, October 19, will present the opposing candidates for election to the United States Congress from the Fourteenth District, who will speak on the issues in the present election as they see them. They are George Bashara, Sr., the Republican candidate, and Congressman Lucien N. Nedzi, the incumbent Democratic candidate.

Each session will have a question and answer period, with the audience participating. Coffee will be served following each meeting so that the audience may meet the speakers.

Officer Answering Accident Call, Involved in Crack Up

A Woods scout car, driven by Patrolman Jack Eberst, who was answering an emergency traffic accident call, crashed into a brand new car at Vernier and Marter roads, on Saturday, September 26. Two passengers in the private car suffered bruises and abrasions and were treated at St. John Hospital.

Eberst, on his way to a reported injury accident at Vernier and Mack, flasher and siren on, said he applied the brakes to slow down as he was about to cross the intersection, and the brakes failed. The time was 7:40 p.m.

The police car crashed into a 1965 Chrysler driven by W. M. McEwen, 59, of 5579 Chalmers, Detroit. Damage to both cars was extensive, according to a police report.

Eberst said that he was traveling south on Marter, and about 250 feet from the intersection, he applied the brakes. The brakes failed and the scout car continued on into Vernier and struck the car driven by McEwen, who was going east on the road.

The police vehicle struck the left front fender of the private car, spun completely around and crashed into the right rear end of the McEwen car.

Taken to the hospital by police ambulance for treatment of injuries, were George and Ann Ajax of 15247 Bringard, Detroit.

Eberst and McEwen were not injured, according to the accident report.

In the meantime, the traffic accident to which Eberst was going, was handled by other officers. Michael F. Ross, 27, of 127 Chelsea, Detroit, was given a reckless driving ticket for crashing into another car, driven by Samuel K. Ulmer, 29, of 1242 Hampton, who was waiting for a red light to change at Mack and Vernier.

Police said that Ross was traveling at more than 60 miles an hour, and was unable to stop to avoid hitting Ulmer's car, which was forced half-way across the intersection by the impact. Ulmer, a passenger, Carolyn Kollath, 14, were uninjured.

Ross was taken to St. John

Hospital, where he was treated for a one-inch gash on his forehead. He was returned to the station where he was given the violation ticket and released on $100 bond, pending a scheduled appearance in court on October 24.

There was extensive damage to the front of Ross' car, and the rear of Ulmer's vehicle, police said.

FALLING LIMBS

NIGHT-LIFE

Victims Describe Burglars in Shores Theft Wave

ported his home was entered during the night, and three dollars was discovered missing from his wife's purse. He said it appeared that the burglar was looking for his wallet (Crachiol's) but was unsuccessful.

Other Reports Received
At 7:30 a.m., Martin Thimmell of 67 Briarcliff, informed police that he had discovered the rear door of his house had been forced open, but nothing appeared missing. He said he did not believe his house had been entered.

At 7:40 a.m., police received a call from Mrs. Joseph VanDeweghe of 940 Ballantyne, who disclosed that her house had been entered, and $104 taken from her purse that was on a chair in the kitchen.

It was on the VanDeweghe premises, a few hours earlier, that the suspect was seen and fired upon by Marshall and Swartz, as he was leaving the grounds.

At 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Stephen Messana of 35 Moorland called and reported finding pry marks on the window frame and screen at the rear of her house. No entry was made.

At 9:45 a.m., a belated report was given to police by Mrs. James DeMercurio of 45 Moorland, who disclosed that someone had tried to enter her house through the rear door at about 3 a.m., Monday morning, but the intruder was frightened away by the barking of the family's pet dog.

Prowler Scared Away

At 1:30 p.m., came a report from Mrs. Roy East of 57 Shorecrest, who said that during the night, she was unable to sleep, and was lying on the couch in the living room, when a man entered the house through the rear door, which was unlocked. When the man turned on his flashlight and saw her, the woman said, he ran out of the house.

At 3:37 p.m., Mrs. Clifford L. Saddle of 56 Moorland, informed police that sometime between 11 p.m. on September 21, and 7 a.m. on September 22, money was taken from her purse left in the kitchen.

She said the thief took $7.40 from the purse, and about $10 from her husband's trousers hanging in the clothes closet of the master bedroom.

Got $70 in Purse

At 4:50 p.m., Mrs. William Baker of 47 Willow Tree place, discovered $70 missing from her purse left in the second floor bathroom, and she called police.

Mrs. Baker informed investigating officers that the home of the William Hendricks', 48 Willow Tree place, had also been burglarized.

The policemen went to the Hendricks residence, where they were given the information that the burglar had taken $10 from a billfold in an upstairs dresser bureau and $42 from Mrs. Hendricks' purse in the kitchen.

Also at 4:50 p.m., Dr. and Mrs. Darrell Statzer of 60 Willow Tree place, disclosed their home had been entered and between $70 and $80 taken from Mrs. Statzer's purse, left on the kitchen table.

Also Busy Monday

The same burglar, or burglars (police believe there are two working as partners), successfully entered the homes of Gerald Jordan, 12 Blairmoor; George Crane, Jr., 12 Moorland; John Grieger, 25 Moorland; John Brett, 931 Lake Shore; and Robert F. Weber, 992 Lake Shore, on Monday, September 21. Total loot taken was said by police to be about $150.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the home of Joseph Swartz, 25 Blairmoor, police said.

On Saturday, September 19, Woods police disclosed that the homes of Dr. Paul Kowalehuk, 19673 Blossom lane; Sam Green, 19700 Blossom lane; and Harry Coppin, 1724 Allard, were entered, while the families were asleep. However, it was said, nothing appeared to have been taken from the homes, or wallets.

On Monday, September 21, two homes in Harper Woods were forcibly entered, and looted of a total of $9,000 in cash and jewelry.

Worst in History

"The outbreak of burglaries on September 21 and 22, is the worst at any one time in the history of the Shores," Chief Duemling said. "We have had one and two, and even three such crimes occurring in a single night, but never anything like this."

"With the aid of police of the other Pointes and Harper Woods, we will do everything in our power to apprehend the culprits responsible for these crimes," he said.

In the meantime, the chief said, all citizens are urged to make sure their doors and windows are locked at night before they retire.

He urged residents to obtain door guard chains for all doors leading into houses, and have a bar device installed to prevent sliding doors from being moved. Prying open a sliding door is a simple matter, he pointed out.

He also urged citizens to report any noise, or any suspicious persons, seen or heard in their neighborhoods. Call police at once, regardless of it is believed that the matter might not seem important.

Let Police Decide

He said that it would be better to have police investigate noises or suspicious persons and find nothing amiss, than not have them reported and a crime committed, possibly resulting in serious injury, or death of innocent victims.

"People should try to get a good description of suspicious persons," Chief Duemling said. "If a car is seen in the neighborhood, try to get the license number and the color of the car, and if possible, its make. However, the color and license number are the most important things to remember."

Too, the chief added, if citizens hear a neighbor's dog barking, call police at once. Do not think that you are doing your neighbor a disfavor by reporting the barking dog, he said.

Above all, the chief said, if you hear any noise, or see any suspicious person, or persons, please do not turn on any lights, to see if you can spot the source of the noise, or to see if anyone is outside.

Biggest Mistake

"This is one of the biggest mistakes a citizen can make," Chief Duemling said. "If you do not know the number of your police department, dial the operator, give her your name and address, and the police department of your city, and tell her it is an emergency and to call police right away."

"If there are two, or more people in the house, while one is phoning, let one or more persons peek out of the window, lights still out, and if anyone is outside, try to see where he is located, or in which direction he has gone, so that police officers can be directed at once."

He said that it is doubtful that the suspects involved in the burglaries in the Shores, Woods and Harper Woods, are armed. They do not appear to be antagonistic, since they run away on being discovered.

"Our basement was hard to heat . . ."

"Electric heat helped us turn a chilly basement into a year-round family room," says Mrs. Horace Johns, of Millington, Mich. "We have electric heat in the second-floor bedrooms and bath, too. Keeps them as warm as the rest of the house—even warmer if we want. We can raise the temperature in any of these rooms without overheating the whole house. One reason we chose electric heat in the first place was because it cost less to install. Now we like the convenience of electric heat so much that, if and when we buy another home, we'll have it throughout."

What about your home? Do you have a hard-to-heat room? Are you adding on a room? Are you buying a new home? Is the heating system in your present home more trouble than it's worth? One of the types of electric heating units shown below may be the answer to your heating problems. One easy way to find out is to ask your electrical contractor. Another is to call your Edison office. We'll be glad to send you a copy of our free booklet "Electric Home Heating" and will answer any questions you may have about the modern, worry-free way to heat your home—electrically.

Newest School Trustees Gain Experience

This picture was taken last June shortly after the annual school election and just when classes were ending for the year. DR. CHARLES H. WILSON, left, superintendent of schools, looks on as RAY MacARTHUR, director of school elections, administers the oath of office to newly elected trustees BARBARA RICKERD THOMPSON and RUSSELL H. PEEBLES. Both were elected to four-year terms. Now that the schools are running in high gear in the new term the new trustees have a better opportunity to see the real action. Peebles, an appointee before the election, had seen some service during the 1963-64 year.

Police Arrests Young Thieves

Two 15-year-old boys, arrested by Park police on Tuesday, September 22, for a traffic violation, were released to Pontiac authorities for investigation of car theft and burglary.

The teenagers were arrested by Sgt. Henry Coonce and Patrolman Robert Corey, at 4:45 p.m., when the officers saw the car in which the boys were riding, speeding east on Jefferson. The officers, riding west on the avenue, turned and gave chase.

Because of heavy traffic, Coonce and Corey were unable to stop the juveniles until they reached Cadieux road. The driver of the speeding car told the officers that he had no valid operator's license.

The boys were taken to the station, where an immediate investigation revealed that the car had been stolen in Pontiac, and that the pair were involved in burglaries of three business establishments in that city.

Both boys confessed to stealing the automobile and committing the burglaries. They were turned over to Pontiac police for further investigation.

Woods Church Anniversary

By-laws and the name Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church were adopted.
Dr. and Mrs. Harry N. Torrey, members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, decided to the Woods Presbyterian church the grounds on which the building now stands, together with the parking area. In addition, Memorial church earmarked $25,000 in their church extension fund for the contemplated church building.

Rev. Olson First Pastor

On October 4 of that year the Rev. Mr. Olson was officially installed and began full time service as minister. In November of 1942, he resigned but Dr. Joseph A. Vance, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit, served as interim pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Rauth, present pastor of the church, was formally installed as minister on October 10, 1943. He came to the Woods Presbyterian Church from Dansville, N.Y.

The year of 1947 brought to the congregation ground breaking ceremonies for the first unit of the church building on March 23 and cornerstone laying ceremonies for the church building on July 27.

First Unit Dedicated

The dedication services for the first unit of the church were held on May 23, 1948 and in September of 1949 the minister's study and church office were completed.

In 1950 the estate of Mrs. Elmer D. Speck donated the property to the church on which a manse for Mr. and Mrs. Rauth was built. During October 1951 the first unit of the educational building was completed.

Of the 123 charter members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 49 are still active in the congregation which now numbers 1,919.

Durant Suffers Defeat

vestigation before the end of this week.

Republicans opposed to Durant's long-time rule of the district organization charge that he violated parliamentary rules when he presided over the convention in Jackson Junior High School.

They say he ignored demands for a roll-call vote and declared himself reelected chairman for another two years. Durant contends he followed rules adopted by the convention to the letter.

Delegates to the Republican State convention in Detroit September 19 directed the State Central Committee to look into the dispute.

Durant's attorney, Paul C. Gracey, of 1338 Grayton road, Grosse Pointe Park, argued at Friday's hearing that the GOP policy-making body had no authority to interfere with the affairs of a district organization. To support his position, he cited cases decided in other states and opinions by the Michigan attorney general's office.

Durant said he would ask the Supreme Court for a temporary restraining order prohibiting any investigation while the case is being decided.

"Even if we are found to be wrong in this case, and I'm sure we are not, I will continue to serve as chairman," Durant said. "The chairman continues in office until a successor is elected and qualified."

Despite Durant's maneuvering, Elliott said he planned to proceed with the investigation without delay.

"I am going to follow the dictates of the convention," he said. "I don't know yet who will be appointed to the committee, or how big it will be, but it will be appointed."

A chronic grouch is a fellow who takes time out to reflect and gets sore at what he sees.

Police Nab Purse Thieves

onto Opel, then across Warren, then make a fast left turn onto Warren, heading west. The officer stopped the youths in front of Austin High School.

Field said that during the chase, he saw Roberts throwing something out of the window of the car. The object was later identified as a purse belonging to the thieves' victim, an 81-year-old Park woman.

The patrolman said that Roberts admitted netting only $1.50 from the purse, which he had torn and ripped apart in a search for money.

Pollard and Roberts were released to Park authorities and charged with purse snatching.

Park Det. Arnold Hough said that warrants were obtained against the pair, and they were arraigned for a hearing before Park Judge J. Joseph Belanger Monday evening, September 28.

At 5 p.m., Pollard and Roberts both entered pleas of guilty as charged. The judge set bond of $1,000 each, and remanded the pair to the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff's Office, in default of the bonds, to await trial in Circuit Court.

Following the hearing, Chief Louwers expressed satisfaction on the conclusion of the case, and lauded the action of the couple in following and obtaining the description and license number of the purse snatchers' car.

"Too often citizens take an 'I don't want to be involved' attitude," the chief said, "which on several occasions have been reported in the newspapers, when crimes have been committed and are witnessed by these citizens.

"The couple is typical of good law-abiding citizens, who became involved. They could have merely called police and reported they had seen a crime committed, and continued on their way.

"But they did more than this. They not only saw the crime being done, but they followed the men responsible, got the make of their automobile and the license number, and promptly gave the information to the authorities.

"This information," Chief Louwers pointed out, "brought about the apprehension of the criminals, and brought them to justice. I wish to personally thank the couple for their part in this matter, and sincerely hope that other citizens will emulate their action, when and if the occasion arises.

"The cooperation of the citizens of a community is needed, if crime is to be controlled, or criminals brought to justice. Without the help of the people, police are hampered in their efforts to enforce the laws. We should be working as a team," the chief added.

4.85 per cent rise in that building's population.

At the junior high level there are 179 more students enrolled than in September, 1963, with the greatest increase occurring at Parcels. If this trend continues, it may well be that Dr. McCormick's prediction of 13,000 students by 1980 will be exceeded.

Using charts prepared by Dr. McCormick, Eddington recounted the statistics on population trends for the Detroit metropolitan area, figures on the birth rate and the number of building permits issued, as well as current school enrollments and predictions and other data gathered by the consultant in his exhaustive survey.

Cites Desperate Need
In his recommendation to the Citizens' Advisory Committee, Dr. McCormick emphasized the desperate need for a second high school, and that the proposed building should be constructed on the Vanderbush-Baker site in Grosse Pointe Woods.

During a brief question and answer period prior to the close of the meeting, Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, and Edward J. Pongracz, president of the Board of Education, enlightened the

Russell Manney Quits in Woods

Dussell Manney, Woods city comptroller, resigned his post on Friday, September 25, which will become effective on either October 9, or October 16, depending on when his replacement will be hired.

Manney, who has been with the Woods since November 1, 1961, resigned to become city manager of Harper Woods, at a starting salary of $11,000.

He is a 1957 graduate of the University of Detroit, from where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration.

Prior to coming to the Woods, he was comptroller for the City of Troy for three years.

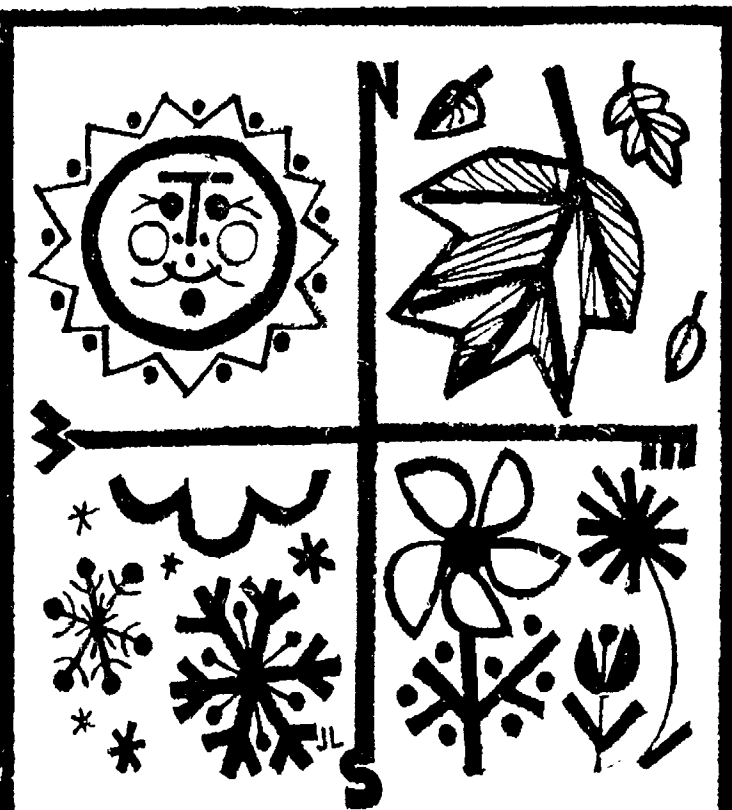

Manney lives with his wife, the former Mary Janet Fairbanks of Pontiac, at 1789 Brys Drive. They have two children, Russell III, seven years old, and Timothy Stephen, who is six years old. The Manneys are expecting a third child.

Under a Harper Woods residency clause, the family must move to a home in Harper Woods, within a given time, if Manney is to remain as city manager.

Public Safety Department Paying Honor to Candles

A surprise party to honor Dr. Clarence L. Candler and Mrs. Candler has turned out to be no surprise at all.

Just the same the members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Public Safety Department will honor the Candler's at a dinner party Monday evening, October 5, in the American Legion Hall, Post No. 303.

The Candler's will soon be moving to St. Clair, Mich. and the department wants to show its warm appreciation for the 14 years of work and devotion that the couple has given it and the residents of the Woods.

The surprise had to be dropped from the party when those planning it discovered that the Candler's were such a busy two some that they had to consult with them to discover a free night.

After moving to the Woods in 1950, Dr. Candler was distressed to learn that emergency patients often waited as long as two hours before a doctor could be located. He astonished the Public Safety officers when he walked in the local police station and volunteered his time for any emergency assignment.

During his tenure as "emergency" M.D., Dr. Candler has answered every type of call for medical help. The grateful community even equipped his car with a siren and police light for answering the sudden summonses.

In addition to his work with the Woods Public Safety Department and his private practice, Dr. Candler has for the past 14 years served as treasurer of the Wayne County Medical Society. He is a member of the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club, the Union Lodge, F. and A.M., Masons, the American Legion and the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

His professional affiliations include a life membership in the Vienna Branch of the A.M.A. and a membership in Phi Rho Sigma Medical fraternity. He is also a Fellow of the American Academy of General Practice.

Dr. Candler, a native of Detroit, was graduated from Detroit University School in 1908 and received his M.D. from the Detroit College of Medicine, now Wayne State University College of Medicine, in 1912.

Before moving to Grosse Pointe Woods, he served as surgeon with the Detroit Police Department for 32 years, retiring as a lieutenant. He was also president of the Detroit Board of Health from 1939 to 1941, president of the East Side Medical Society in 1949, the Downtown Optimist Club in 1951 and the Wayne County Medical Society in 1947 and 1948.

Dr. and Mrs. Candler travel every year—and this year will be no exception. They plan to leave on an around-the-world trip on November 6.

When they return they plan to move into a newly purchased house in St. Clair where Dr. Candler will do a "little practicing" but where things will be a "little quieter."

But is it any wonder the Woods Public Safety Department's party on Monday night couldn't be a surprise?

Newcomers To Play Cards

Following the evening of bridge, a late supper will be served at Huck's Lakeshore on Nine Mile road at Jefferson.

Many a guy who shines in the business world forgets to exhibit his polish at home.

Finance chairman for the group is Rockwell T. Gust, who is organizing a district-wide drive on behalf of the 10 candidates, and he will announce his committee members in the next few days.

The 10 candidates from this district are:

U. S. Congress: George Basara.

The 10 candidates also announced that they will operate out of the Republican campaign headquarters at 10711 Whittier road. This district campaign organization, which is headed by Jack Matheus, will coordinate an all-out district-wide precinct and field effort backing the district candidates and also the national, state and county Republican tickets.

It was the Matheus campaign organization through which the candidates were successfully filed and nominated at the September 1 primary.

Self-Improvement Classes Offered Adults by Schools

Four outstanding courses in the series of self-improvement classes will be offered soon by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System.

For the person too busy to read all of today's best sellers, Robert Orr, Director of Public Libraries in Grosse Pointe, will again offer his popular series "Books America is Reading." Mr. Orr holds an AB degree and a graduate Library Science degree from the University of Illinois, is past president of the Michigan Library Association, and a member of Wayne State University's part-time faculty.

Mr. Orr will cover 10 books which represent an excellent cross-section of current and potential best-sellers. Four evenings will be devoted to novels and four evenings to non-fiction, all of which should stimulate much thought and discussion. The works of such authors as Louis Auchincloss, Leon Uris, Vance Packard, John Gunther and Ernest Hemingway will be represented.

This group will meet weekly (8 meetings), starting Thursday, October 8, at 8 p.m. and advanced registration is necessary. For those with the inclination (or the hidden desire) to write rather than read what has been written, a course in Creative Writing will be taught by Dorothy Jurney.

Miss Jurney is at present Women's Editor for the Detroit Free Press, a position which she has held for the past four years. She has been a six time winner of the general excellence award of the Florida Women's Press Club, and was a lecturer for the American Press Institute (Columbia University). She has also received the University of Missouri J.S. Penny award for general excellence of Women's pages (1961) and has been a consultant for various newspapers on improving women's pages.

"Creative Writing" is an eight-week course beginning on Thursday, October 8, and meeting from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Thursday at the Department of Community Services Building. Enrollment is limited.

Arthur Brooks will again instruct two adult classes: "Style and Poise" and "Speech Techniques."

Mr. Brooks has been a member of the adult education teaching staff for seven years. In addition, he has lectured for seven years for John Robert Powers, has conducted training classes for industry and in department stores, has lectured for the Mott Foundation in Flint, Mich., has had many TV and acting parts, and directed the first Dale Carnegie class in Grosse Pointe.

"Style and Poise," to begin Tuesday, October 6, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., is an eight-week course designed to help students in wardrobe, manners, social graces, business etiquette, job success and communication with the public.

"Speech Technique" will begin Monday, October 5, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. This is a 10-week course designed to make speech "painless" and to eliminate the butterflies experienced by most people when circumstances require appearing before groups of people — large or small. It should be equally beneficial for the businessman or the club woman.

Information on any of the above classes and enrollment in them may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services, at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Club and Hostel Sponsor Trips

Grosse Pointe teens who like to bike, hike, camp, canoe, and ski are invited to take part in American Youth Hostel activities, which are co-sponsored by the Neighborhood Club.

Sunday, October 4, a group will be hiking and sightseeing in the Irish Hills. They will meet at the N.W. corner of Michigan and Wyoming at 10:30 a.m., and should take a sack lunch and money for a restaurant meal in the evening.

There is a 10c AYH fee for a day trip. Call the Neighborhood Club office, TU 5-4600 between 9-5 p.m. Monday-Friday, if you would like to get together with other boys and girls to share a ride to the meeting spot.

As announced last week, there will also be a cycle trip along the North River road this Sunday, October 4. Cyclists will meet at 13 Mile and Stevenson at 11 a.m., ready for a 55-mile round trip.

Friday, October 2, is the deadline for payment of $19.25 to reserve a spot on the Double-Pine canoe trip the weekend of October 9-11. You may pay this fee at the Neighborhood Club office, 710 Notre Dame, or call TU 5-4600 for further information.

Chi Omega Alumnae To Meet Wednesday

Chi Omega Alumnae will gather next Wednesday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock, in the Stonehurst road home of Mrs. Amy Vanker, for their monthly dessert meeting.

Mrs. Meg Zuehlke will be chairman. Mrs. Carol Altman, president, will show slides and give a report on the sorority's convention. A short business meeting will be held.

The things that seem too good to be true usually are not.

Cyclist Speeds Into Trouble

A motorcyclist who admitted he customarily drove faster than the posted speed limit, was arrested by a Woods policeman on Saturday, September 26, and was found to be wanted on traffic warrants by Harper Woods and Detroit authorities.

Patrolman Robert Lorenz disclosed in a report, that he was cruising in a scout when he observed George A. Rose, 23, of 4625 Second avenue, Detroit, speeding at Cook road and Crescent lane. Rose was paced at 42 miles an hour.

Lorenz said he stopped Rose, and asked him if he knew the speed limit, to which the cyclist answered in the affirmative, but that he usually drives about 10 miles over posted limits.

The officer placed Rose under arrest and took him to the station, where he gave the cyclist a ticket for speeding.

While in the station, police checked with departments of other cities, and found that Rose was wanted by Detroit authorities who had several warrants for his arrest, and Harper Woods police had been seeking him on a warrant they had against him.

Rose posted bond of $50, for the Woods offense, and will appear in court on October 24.

FOUNTAIN FENCE CO.
20760 HARPER TU 1-8863

According to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, information was received from Simms Ford, Inc., 15401 East Jefferson, that a brand new Ford Mustang had been stolen from the company lot.

When the theft was broadcast to all stations, Park authorities received information from Detroit's Jefferson Station, Fifth Precinct police, that a car answering the description was seen on Jefferson, with two youths in it. The vehicle was located in a bank parking lot at Jefferson and Manistique, Detroit.

Park Det. Lt. Arnold Hough and Det. James LaPratt, checked out the car, and found that the license plates had been stolen. They decided to wait in the lot, in the event the juveniles should return.

The detectives waited from 12 noon to about 6:30 p.m. on the Thursday date, when they noticed two boys who showed too much interest in the stolen vehicle.

The two boys, both 16 years old, were taken into custody, transported to the Park station for questioning. The officers' hunch that the boys were involved in the theft, proved correct.

The teenagers not only confessed to the theft of the automobile, but implicated two other juveniles, both 15 years old, who were later arrested at their homes by Hough and LaPratt.

The stolen car was returned to the agency, with 50 miles, the number of miles it was driven, recorded on the speedometer gauge.

The four boys were charged with car theft and filed against in Wayne County Juvenile Court.

Invite Parents To Be Students

"Share the daily school experiences of your children," might be the slogan for the first Parent-Teacher Association program planned for Parcels Junior High School on Friday, October 2.

At 7:30 in the evening all classrooms will open their doors to give parents an opportunity to follow the actual Friday class schedules of their children, to meet the faculty and to hear an explanation of typical lessons, subject by subject, for the six periods of the school day.

During each class period, lasting 15 minutes, the teachers will explain the scope of their course, methods of instruction, basic materials used, and homework and grading policies. Parents may be asked to try a typical lesson, or to examine student work, or to discuss a sample test.

During study halls or service periods parents can enjoy a cup of coffee, visit the school library, or inspect such special facilities as the clinic or counseling offices. Each Parcels student has prepared a special invitation for his parents and has written out his regular Friday schedule for parents to follow in the evening version of "A DAY IN THE CLASSROOM."

At 9:30 p.m., when the sample school day has ended, there will be a social hour in the girls' gym, with coffee and refreshments served by a Hospitality Committee under the direction of Mrs. Webster Knight, mother vice-president of the Parcels P.T.A. The ninth grade room parents will serve as hosts and hostesses for the occasion.

Parents helping for the first meeting of the year include: Mr. and Mrs. James Head, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Challis, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hallmann, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Marten Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schueler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Stier, Mr. and Mrs. Biesenthal, Mrs. Robert Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bohn, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cochell, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Churley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randall, and Mr. and Mrs. William Killebrew.

Trombly PTA Meets Oct. 6

The opening of the Trombly P.T.A. is set for 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday, October 6, in the school auditorium. President Thomas Coulter extends a warm welcome to new parents in the Trombly School community and invites all parents to attend this opening meeting.

Program chairman Dr. W. Pierce Smith has invited Dr. Douglas Sargent to speak to the association on the very timely topic of learning tasks of children. How do children set their sights? How do children see, hear, and interpret their own expanding world? What enables them to feel that "All Systems are Go?" These are among the thoughts Dr. Sargent discusses in his talk "Sensory Deprivation, Learning Failures and War on Poverty."

Mrs. Kenneth Goerke and Mrs. Kurt Hartlieb, social chairman, host the informal social hour following the auditorium meeting.

Members of Mason School's PTA Executive Board are shown reviewing the proposed budget to be submitted to the membership for approval at the first meeting of the 1964-65 year, scheduled for Tuesday, October 6. Shown above (left to right) are GLENN MEYER, treasurer; JIM BIESENTHAL, president; MRS. DONALD C. BANGS, vice-president in charge of fund raising; CHARLES WOODBURY, vice-president in charge of program; and LARRY GAGNON, Mason's principal.

Truth may be bottled up, but eventually it pops the cork.

Arrest Speeder Following Chase

Two Shores patrolmen, who chased a speeding motorist into the Farms, arrested the driver and took him to the Farms station where they signed a complaint against him.

Patrolmen William Marshall and Daniel Fronczak, while patrolling Lake Shore road on Sunday, September 27, saw a car speeding from the Shores-Farms boundary line, and took up pursuit.

The officers said that they stopped the motorist, Melvin W. Jenkins, 21, of 24295 Columbus, Warren, at the Moross road intersection.

Marshall and Fronczak, in a report at the Farms station, said Jenkins, while being chased, skidded 125 feet while attempting a turn at Whitcomb, then continued another 460 feet on the sidewalk and lawn, and sideswiped an Edison pole. There was no damage, the officers said.

Jenkins came to a stop in a driveway, near the Moross intersection, and was placed under arrest by the Shores policemen and taken to the Farms station.

On complaint of Marshall and Fronczak, Jenkins was issued a reckless driving ticket by Farms police, and released on $50 bond, to appear in court on Wednesday, October 7.

Chamber Music Players Launch Season October 4

The Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe will hold their first regular program meeting on Sunday, October 4, at 3 o'clock in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

David Arner, head of the music department of the Grosse Pointe University School, will continue as program coordinator for the season, with a monthly program chairman appointed for each of the eight program meetings. Chairman for the October meeting is Lois Lawrence, who will also perform.

The program opener is the Sonata in G Major for Cello and Piano, by Benedetto Marcello, with Ramon Lawrence, cello, and Lois Lawrence, piano.

Ramon, who is 11 years old, and a 6th grader at Mason School, has been studying for two years with Mario Di Fiore of the Detroit Symphony. Appearing with his mother, he makes his debut performance with the Chamber Music Players, in line with their policy of encouraging young musicians to perform in public.

The Schumann song cycle "Frauenliebe und Leben" (Women's Love and Life), opus 42, will be sung by Helen Lacatis, mezzo soprano, accompanied on the piano by Jerome Kina.

Mrs. Lacatis, a graduate of the Detroit Conservatory of Music, has appeared as guest soloist with the Wayne University Women's Glee Club and the Rackham Choir.

Lois Lawrence changes to violin to join with Marjorie Connell, piano, in the Duo in B minor, opus 70, by Franz Schubert. Miss Connell, who received both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Music from Wayne State University, studied with Boris Maximovitch.

In 1959 she won a statewide contest sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, and she has soloed with the St. Clair Shores, South Oakland and Allen Park Symphonies.

In the program finale, James Tocco and Marjorie Connell will perform a two-piano work, the Suite #2, opus 17 by Rachmaninoff.

Tocco, a 1961 graduate of Austin High, was also a pupil of Boris Maximovitch; he has recently returned from a year of study in Paris, and will leave again for Paris the day after his appearance with the Chamber Music Players. He and Miss Connell gave a duo-piano recital in 1962 at the Detroit Institute of Musical Arts.

At this meeting, applications for membership in the Chamber Music Players will be taken, with preference given to Grosse Pointe residents. Annual dues are $3, with half price memberships available for students, and for the husbands or wives of active members.

A coffee hour will follow the musical program.

PTA at Defer Meets Oct. 5

Parents of 635 Defer School children will take part in a Back-to-School Roundup at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, October 5, according to PTA vice-president and program chairman Dr. Charles R. Boyce, of 1171 Bedford.

"Invitations with a western theme will ask parents of first to sixth graders to occupy saddles in the same corral their children use while ranch foremen, (teachers), outline the ground to be covered during the coming year," Dr. Boyce remarked.

"Back-to-School sessions will be staggered at half-hour intervals so parents can visit classrooms of all their children. Refreshments, we're calling vittles, will be served continuously in the gym from 8 to 10 p.m.," Boyce added.

In the gym, also, will be educational specialists in remedial reading, speech therapy, child health, foreign language, physical fitness and visiting teacher services. These experts will answer questions on their specialties and help lead discussions that interested parents may initiate.

Prior to the Roundup, PTA president Peter L. Brett, of 1220 Whittier, will conduct a brief business meeting. President Brett will also introduce Dr. Glen O. Cooper, Defer principal, as "Ranch Superintendent" to new parents. Dr. Cooper, in turn, will introduce seven "ranch-hands" new to Defer this year: Mrs. Norma Parent, 1st grade; Mrs. Rose Figas and Miss Margaret Hartman, 3rd

The Reverend and Mrs. James Chambers will lecture jointly in dialogue form on the subject of "The Role of the Church in Race Relations." This feature will be the fourth lecture of a series of five, in a depth study group entitled, "The Christian and Race Relations" given at St. James Lutheran Church on Wednesday, October 7, at 8 p.m., and sponsored by the Church's Board of Christian Education.

The Reverend James C. Chambers received his A.B. at Virginia Union University and his B.D. at Yale Divinity School. He has been a pastor in the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Norfolk, Va., the Community Presbyterian Church in Portsmouth, and at present is the minister of St. John's Presbyterian Church in Detroit. The Reverend Chambers is the vice-president of the Detroit Housing Commission, and a trustee of Alma College in Alma, Mich.

The Reverend and Mrs. Chambers have three children, two boys and a girl, ages nine, seven and five years. They have been residents of Detroit for four years.

The community response to these lectures has been most gratifying. St. James Church cordially invites all interested Grosse Pointers to attend and to participate in the question-answer discussion which follows the lecture.

R.M.S. Queen Elizabeth is the world's largest liner—83,673 tons, and five blocks long.

Escape to Europe aboard a giant Cunard Queen for only $316 round trip

Save 25% off low Thrift Season fares by sailing round trip at Cunard's excursion rates* for as little as $316, Tourist; $406, Cabin; $660, First Class. And you get 30 full days ashore.

Sail at round-trip excursion rates when Europe is at its best on either of the world's two largest superliners—the Queen Elizabeth or the Queen Mary. (One leaves New York every Wednesday.)

Considering your fare includes 5 days each way of superb international cuisine, impeccable British service and luxurious lodging—plus carefree fun and entertainment—this is the travel bargain of the year.

You'll find more to do aboard than in most resorts, and with far more interesting people. Stroll the largest decks afloat (over 3 acres). Be entertained in vast public rooms. Swim in a pool that contains 107 tons of heated salt water. Or browse in shops full of magnificent duty-free merchandise. See a movie. Borrow one of 5,000 books from the library. Join a cocktail party. Enter a deck tournament.

Top executives prefer giant Cunarders. America's industrial leaders—that demanding, discerning breed—have long favored the Queens for business trips to Europe.

One reason is the opportunity it presents to executives to the opportunity for crucial meetings. (There are ship-to-shore telephones and a staff of nine English secretaries to lend assistance.)

Another reason is the luxury of leisure and relaxation in the most spacious facilities on the high seas.

And right now, there is the added economy of low excursion fares. (You can save a minimum of $286 per person from Summer Season rates when you travel First Class on the Queens.)

You'll arrive in Europe refreshed, feeling marvelous. You'll return home revitalized, keen to resume your daily business. Make your reservations now.

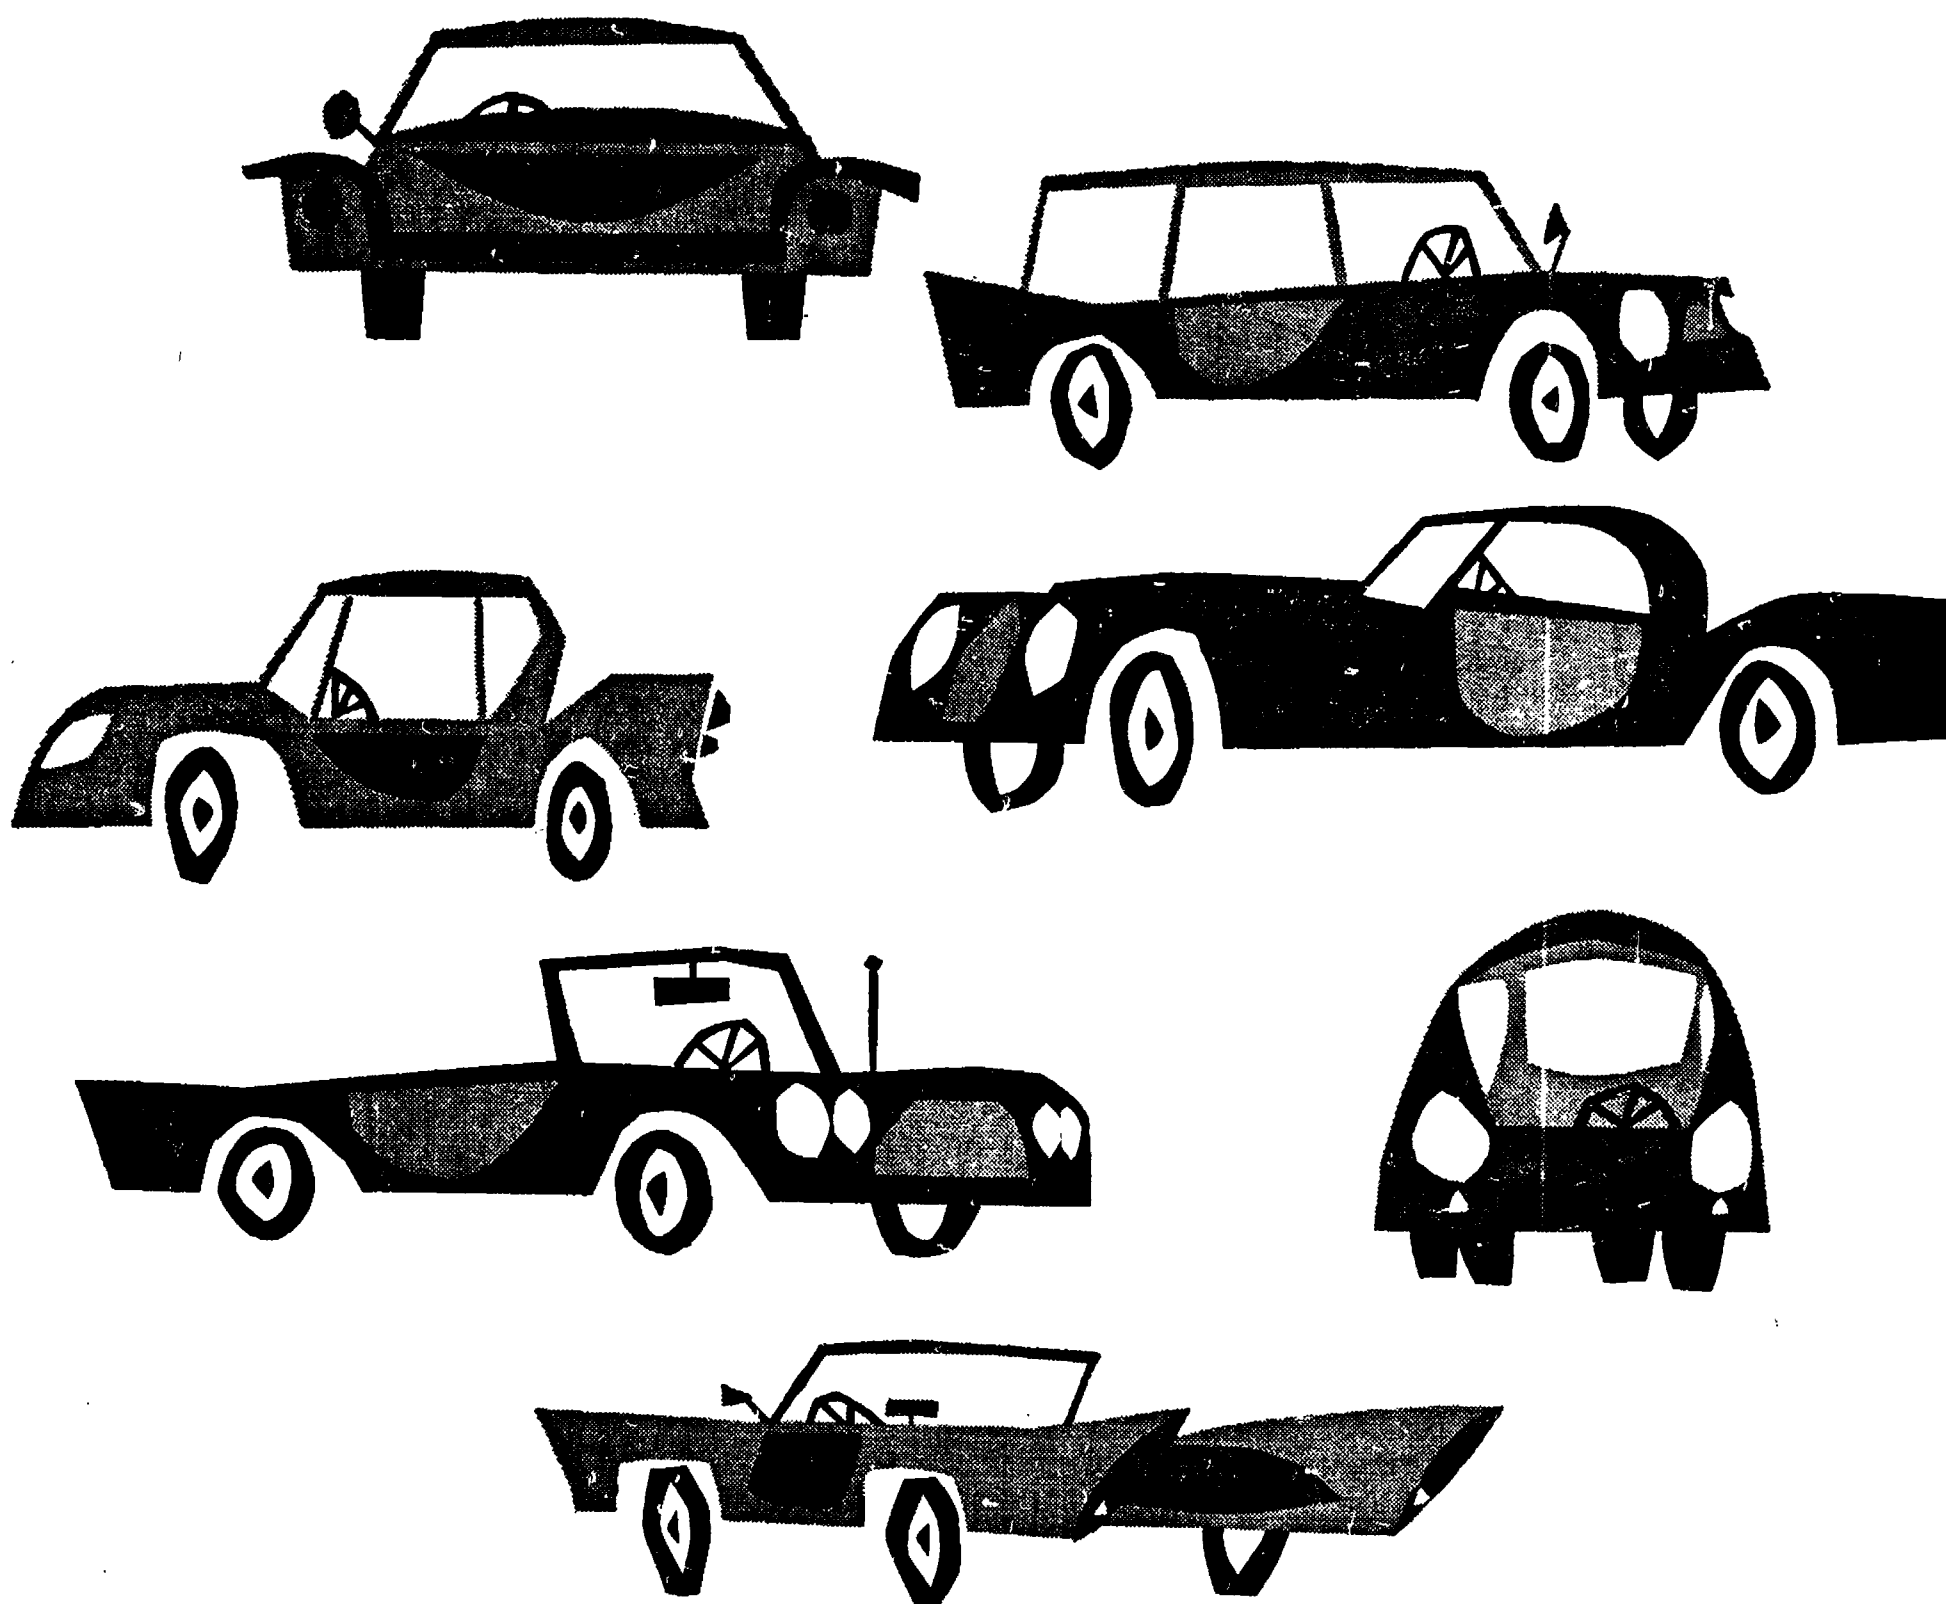

*Excursion fare periods: October 1, 1964 to February 28, 1965. 15% savings also available March 1-15, 1965 and May 1-15, 1965.

Parents Offered Classes in Math

The Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, has solved the problem of homework for math students in a new series of classes: "Modern Math for Parents."

These classes are designed to instruct the parents of elementary school children and Junior and Senior high school students in the new principles of math as taught in the public schools today. On the Senior High level, this encompasses algebra and geometry; whereas in the lower levels, only general mathematics is covered.

Taught by instructors from the public school system who are teaching in this field, the courses are intended to clarify the teaching of mathematics to parents, to bring them up to date on the modern techniques, and in the newest application of mathematical principles. This not only aids the parent, who attempts to help with after school assignments, but also eliminates the child's confusion in being taught conflicting methods of problem solving at home and at school.

A breakdown of class levels and location of instruction is as follows: Elementary Math: Wednesday, October 7 (Parcels Junior High School); Thursday, October 8 (Pierce Junior High School); Junior High School Math: Monday, October 5 (Department of Community Services); Wednesday, October 7 (Parcels Junior High School); Thursday, October 8 (Pierce Junior High School); Senior High School Math (Algebra or Geometry): Monday, October 12 (Department of Community Services).

All of the above classes meet for 10 weeks on the specified days, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Advanced registration must be made and additional information may be obtained by calling TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Business Group Holds Meeting

The first fall general meeting of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association was held at the Village Manor Restaurant on Wednesday, September 23, where cocktails and a buffet were served to the members and ladies.

The speaker at this meeting was Fred A. Kaiser, a resident of Grosse Pointe. Mr. Kaiser is marketing consultant for the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. His subject was "People Buy—People Sell." He is a firm believer in personal salesmanship rather than mass selling and maintains that only through better selling can production continue to expand.

The purpose of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association is to unify business and professional people of Grosse Pointe, to deliberate and to proceed in matters affecting the interests of its members, to provide practical means for establishing a better community, to give better service to customers and clients and to create and maintain sound public opinion of its business establishments.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I would like to express a stern and justified protest to Christine Stevens' article of September 17 in the GROSSE POINTE NEWS. It was so cryptically written that the facts concerning the "observations" of Patrolman Molbey in regard to the "mistreatment" of a dog at Wayne State University School of Medicine were not even MENTIONED. The fact that a veterinarian publicly stated that a dog barking does not mean it is suffering was totally disregarded. I would also like to state that certain persons probably used this incident as a means to put needless pressure on the School of Medicine in order to justify the Griffith bill which, if passed, would virtually eliminate freedom of scientific animal experimentation. The Michigan Public Health Commission was used as HER "cloak" to justify this position. In addition, I believe many Wayne professional scientists and teachers would take issue with the statement that the Public Health Commission "leans over backwards to be fair to the University." All this ridiculous and unfounded criticism has placed Wayne State University School of Medicine and Dean Gardner in a not too pleasant relationship with the public and can lead to another retrogressive antivivisection era. The laboratories of the School of Medicine are open to the public at any time they wish to visit and learn the significance of the work that is going on.

Are we stepping back into the middle ages, or the early 1800s, when court battles ensued for a long period of time and impeded the progress of medicine at least fifty years? The long overdue cure for cancer, which has killed thousands, including famous medical scientists, may have been found by now were it not for the narrow-mindedness, ignorance and prejudice of small groups of antivivisection-minded individuals. Even as late as 1946 a bill was introduced in the District of Columbia to prohibit experiments on living dogs. At that time, fortunately for medicine, Dr. M. C. Hall of the Bureau of Animal Industry, a distinguished zoologist and veterinarian, stood in defense of animal experimentation that "when they enter the field of science these persons enter as unskilled labor, devoid of such training and information in science as would qualify them even as laboratory helpers, yet they set their prejudiced and uninformed statements against the statements of the scientists who speak from the years of training implied by their academic and professional degrees and from their years of experience in the field of science."

Negligence, if sought after, is found in any walk of life or institution, even I dare say, at the Animal Institute in New York. Yet careful examination of this incident makes it clear that there was no negligence. Rather was there deliberate misrepresentation of facts. The term "animal" includes many living things, such as snakes, fish, and even the lowly insects and worms. Why not protest the suffering of carp, which can be speared with a bow and arrow just for the sport? Is it because they do not "bark" or look "cute" or "wag their tail" like "Fido"? Earthworms are "threaded" through a fish hook. Why not protest or report this type of mistreatment? Is it because the earthworm does not "bark" and does not "look" like it is suffering? Endless similar examples can be cited which can lead to dangerous and ridiculous conclusions which in turn may lead to regulations that will impede medical progress another fifty or one hundred years.

The basis of current medical and surgical practice is founded on animal experimentation. Without it there would be no polio vaccine, no heart surgery, no insulin for diabetes, no antibiotics or many other drugs. No scientist enjoys animal experimentation. It is carefully aimed at understanding FUNDAMENTAL BIOLOGIC PROCESSES. This information, so vital in treating sickness and disease, is obtainable in NO OTHER WAY.

I would also like to protest even more vigorously in regard to criticisms directed at Dean Gardner, a scientist, teacher, and administrator. I have known and worked with Dean Gardner for the past eleven years and I would like to say that Wayne State University School of Medicine is fortunate to have him as its Dean. He is in the midst of organizing and building a large and fine medical center in the City of Detroit. He has managed, in spite of tremendous odds, to bring in to the school some of the finest medical scientists and teachers in the country. He is helping this School of Medicine become one of the most outstanding medical schools in the country. It is unfortunate and shocking that a person who knows little or nothing of Dean Gardner's task or the School of Medicine's function can so easily, on the basis of a questionable insignificant incident, defame the reputation of a fine person and a fine school of medicine.

Detroit is in great need of better medical care and treatment. It is important that the people of Detroit and the state support Dean Gardner in the development of our future medical center. On his conscience lies the burden of HUMAN suffering and disease, a far, FAR more significant problem. Let us help alleviate this burden and not increase it.

Sincerely,
N. J. Mizeres, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Anatomy

Dear Editor:—
I wish to convey my thanks to you for publishing and to Sue Kennedy and Lisa Carrato for writing a very readable and informative article on the Beatles. Most of the news one hears or reads is strikes, murder, war, etc. It was most refreshing to the to read of evolutionary musical and entertainment history being made.

The Beatles seem to concentrate mostly on a new beat with accent on the last half of the fourth beat. I became interested in the Beatles through the movie "A Hard Day's Night." It came to Windsor the first of August and ran four weeks at advanced prices. I saw it six times. It was so interesting and funny.

I have many of their songs I play on the piano and sing. I was told the Beatles spent some time in Windsor incognito. They were able to relax and enjoy themselves. They are natural — many entertainers use double talk, etc. and are really "phonies."

I miss the column "When The Pointe Was Growing Up" as that is what I did in Grosse Pointe. I trust you will have more articles printed by the young people.

Dear Editor:—
"As soon as hot weather sets in the pools close," etc.
Perhaps a "sufficient demand" would be evident if the people knew the school pools or at least one of the pools, were to be open.

Summer school students, having part time jobs, would certainly use the pools for a quick dip after classes and before proceeding to work. And if children in the area without day-time transportation to the lake parks, could reach them by walking they, too, would use them.

Maintenance takes an average of two weeks; two out of 52, excepting when Parvells "one year" required five weeks of work.

These pools are built; not contingent upon "in the event that a new high school is built" facilities might be made available for recreation.

Basketball provisions have been made. Why can't the Board of Education and municipalities make the joint effort? After all, it is all taxpayers' money. Tight compartmenting of the budget is certainly with us but slightly onerous when needed facilities lie idle.

Mr. Husband has not satisfied me with his reasons.

Incidentally, inquiries last April via phone received the answer it was too late to do anything this year. Let's start some action before it is too late for the summer of '65.

And in the event that the tax funds are so low that the pools must be kept closed, a small locker fee could be charged; although I don't believe this is done during the winter recreational program using these pools.

Sincerely and thank you for your interest in the subject.

Dear Sir:—
While listening to the Today Show on Channel 4 this morning, I could not help being impressed at what the town of Darien, Connecticut, is doing to preserve their teenagers—their sons and daughters.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

The annual All-Staff Meeting for the Grosse Pointe Public Library was held on September 16 this year. Following an eye-opener of juice, rolls and coffee, Mr. Robert M. Orr, Director of the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, made the opening kick-off remarks, introducing members of the Board of Education, Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent, and other Administrative Staff and members of the Friends' Board.

The piece de resistance was a fine speech illustrated with slides, by J. Harold Husband, Assistant Superintendent Administrative Services. His thesis was a comparison of the public library to the supermarket, showing that the storehouse of the past has become today's supermarket of information. As man's thoughts have progressed from the heterodyne to high-fi and from surreys to spacecraft, asserted Mr. Husband, so have libraries changed to accommodate man's increasing accumulation of ideas as well as accelerating needs for new ones. Juxtaposed shots of library services and supermarket varieties served to drive home his points. It was, indeed, an excellent send-off for the coming year.

All Grosse Pointe Public Library Staff Members were introduced at this meeting, and among them were four brand-new members. We thought you might like to know something about them.

A new and sparkling face at the Reference Desk is that of Colleen Smith, wife of Dr. F. Jenney Smith, former Cardiologist at Ford Hospital. She comes to us with a B.A. degree from Wayne State University, and will soon have an M.S. in L.S. from the same University. (She will be one of the first to get this new degree from Wayne). Besides being an efficient librarian, Colleen has the added duties of housewife and mother of two: Steve, aged 14, at Grosse Pointe University School, and Holly, aged 12, at Brownell. We wish her well and are pleased to have her on our Staff. She says she finds our Library a delightful place to work!

Another recent Central addition is James Titterton, our Audio-Visual Counselor. Jim and his wife Phyllis hail from Nebraska; the family also includes two lively young boys, Scott and Troy. Jim has an A.B. degree from Kearney State College, Nebraska; and an M.A. (in audio-visual education administration) from Colorado State College. He has six years' teaching experience under his belt—9th grade Social Studies, 11th grade American history, and part-time audio-visual. His peregrinations in the Grosse Pointe area, since his arrival in July, make an amusing story. First, from Sidney to Kearney, Nebraska; then, in our bailiwick, he and his family have lived variously on Hunt Club, Prestwick, back to Hunt Club, Beaconsfield, (a quick trip to Columbus, Ohio), back to Prestwick, and finally to Hunt Club, where his wife claims she will remain forever! The Tittertons rather fear that their sons may have been left slightly traumatized by these labyrinthian moves, since one young son kept saying plaintively: "Whose house is this?" at each change. Jim and family feel very much at home now in Grosse Pointe, and are happy to be a part of the community.

Have you noticed a new face at the Woods Branch? Barbara Harrison, from South Charleston, West Virginia, is our recently-acquired Young People's Librarian. She received her A.B. in Education from Marshall University at Huntington, West Virginia, in 1962, taught a year (English and reading) in Cincinnati where she became interested in Library Science, so she went back to school the following year and received her M.S. in L.S. from Western Reserve University in August, 1964. Barbara likes the Woods, finds that the young adults use it a great deal, and is most content to be on our Staff. The feeling is mutual!

We'd also like to introduce Sue Rollins, Children's Librarian at the Park Branch. Sue received her B.S. from West Virginia.

Fall Flower Show Scheduled Oct. 14-16

Charles W. Warren Co. Will Again Host Exhibition; Sponsored by District One, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan

One needs only to glance at the working plans of members of District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan to gather how expansive this tenth anniversary year of its table setting and flower arrangement exhibition is going to be.

The exhibit will be staged again under sponsorship of Charles W. Warren & Company at Warren's Detroit galleries in Washington boulevard with every bit of space on the three levels devoted to creations of the garden clubbers with an eye on the 1964 theme, "The Golden Torch." The dates are Oct. 14 through 16, the time 9:30 to 5 o'clock daily.

Mrs. Keith B. Willoughby, District One director and chairman of the show, explains the theme as being "the torch shining far—embracing our country, our state and our city in its warm glow."

Symbolically, the "torch" reflects the many faceted impact of the United States on today's world as depicted in the dozens of table settings and arrangements for dawn to dusk functions.

All garden club members in District One have been invited to participate by setting tables, entering flower arrangements or serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Willoughby expects the exhibit to speak "significantly and appropriately of an eventful period in our country" and hopes that the theme which symbolizes the concept of liberty will challenge the artistry of all flower arrangers and make the showing more beautiful than ever before.

Coordinating the show, as she has done for the last decade, is Mrs. John F. Hering, of Warren's.

The center display window will feature a globe formed of golden hoops and an arrangement massed in a Steuben bowl to signify "God's World".

In the flanking windows, newly created Steuben eagles, on display for the first time, will be seen in one, while a miniature mountain with Steuben animals—great and small—in the other, are bound to bring forth a chuckle.

On past the lobby's "World Wide Welcome", a semblance of the good life and our heritage of ancient lands, the visitor will have an eye for the first-floor lighted niches which reflect the "Jeweled Look" through the use of smaller globes centered with dainty arrangements to complement matching pieces of jewelry.

Further on are interpretations of the Four Freedoms, the Fourth Dimension of Our World—Time, and, finally, the "Golden Torch of Freedom" expressed by large yellow arrangements in golden containers to create the idea of the theme.

The "Water Wonderland Wheel of Color" on the second floor is exemplified by seven round tables skirting a sculptured arrangement of greens and glass brick. The wheel runs the gamut of the spectrum—russet red and apple blossom pink to the pine green of the forests and the bright hue of the Copper Country.

"World's Fair Cynosure" is comprised of three tables seeking to pick up feeling projected at the Fair by "Magic from Ford", General Motors' "Futurama" and Chrysler's "Islands."

And on and on, with many more ideas promised, including a "Decade of Remembrance" through which garden clubbers call to mind exhibits of the past and point with pride to the progression of garden club objectives.

College Women Plan Programs

When College Women's Club members convened at Lochmoor Club on Saturday, September 26, they were treated to the first in a series of programs featuring Distinguished Women of Detroit.

Dr. Margaret Sterne, Associate Professor of History at Wayne State University, was the speaker. One of Detroit's distinguished women, Dr. Sterne was the recipient of the Alumni Faculty Service Award of W.S.U. in 1957; she studied in Austria on a Fulbright research Scholarship and at one time was Rotographe Editor of the Detroit News. Her topic was New Problems in an Old World.

Presiding at the business meeting preceding the 12:30 o'clock luncheon was the newly elected president Mrs. Arthur Neef, who, with her husband, Dean Arthur Neef, of Wayne State University Law School, recently returned from a tour of the Scandinavian countries.

Other officers for the ensuing year include: Mrs. Ludwig Hellborn, first vice-president; Miss Ruth Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. John Leonard, third vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, treasurer; Mrs. John Manning, recording secretary, and Mrs. Russell Carniak, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Hellborn, activities director, has announced that other "Distinguished Women of Detroit" to address the College Women's Club this year will include: Mrs. Virginia Allan, Past National President of the Business and Professional Women's Club; Mrs. Charles Merrill, Attorney, and Mrs. Fred Schumann, Past President of the National Farm and Garden Society and the YWCA.

With such outstanding speakers scheduled, plus the club's many social service and philanthropy projects, members are anticipating a particularly rewarding year of activity. Founded 32 years ago to promote educational, social and civic opportunities for college women, the challenge set by its founders is still being met by College Women's Club.

My Fair Lady

The film premier of this delightful movie might be sub-titled, here in Detroit, "Watching All the Fords Go By."

In the United Artists' audience October 28 will be the Burdette Fords, the Frederick S. Fords, the Walter B. Fords, the Benson Fords, the William Clay Fords, Henry Ford, II, and Mrs. Edsel Ford.

A red velvet carpet, stretching half-way across Bagley avenue, is to lead the way into the theater, and decorations for the Champagne Afterglow at the Arts Institute (the Founders Society is sponsoring the film evening) are planned literally to take guests' breath away!

Morning Musicales

The 1964-65 Season brings top artists for three concerts for members of The Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales.

Opening the series November 5, at 11 o'clock, in the Great Hall of the Country Club of Detroit, will be the Chamber Singers of New York. Seymour Lipkin is appearing December 3, and the concluding concert will feature the Marlboro Trio, January 14.

How did these intimate Musicales start? Nearly 20 years ago, during the war, when gas rationing curtailed concert-going, a few music lovers decided, "If we can't go to the concerts, we will bring the concerts to The Pointe!"

Invitations enough for the capacity of the Country Club's Great Hall went out to women known to have a love and appreciation of fine music, and, from that time on, the series has been entirely successful—and self-supporting.

The untiring devotion of the founders is a tradition the present board of directors maintains.

Each director contributes some particular talent, making possible the continuance of the series; with few meetings and what appears to be effortless ease, the Musicales are presented each year.

Excellence is "standard performance" at the Musicales. Performing artists are world-renowned. The series is still by invitation only... and the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales are almost as well known in music circles as are the stars who come here to give the concerts.

Directors responsible for presentation of the Musicales include Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Mrs. Ward A. Detwiler, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, Mrs. Frank Goldie, Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey and Mrs. James A. Lafer.

More are Miss Margaret Mannebach, Mrs. Jerome H. Renick, Jr., Mrs. Allan Shelden, Mrs. Richard K. Simonds, Miss Christine Symington, Mrs. Burt Eddy Taylor and Mrs. Richard E. Williams.

First Appearance

Making her first appearance on the Social Scene this year (actually, she arrived last January—the 14th, to be exact—but has been too busy growing to take an active part in Society) is Laura Rains Bay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold George Bay, Jr.

Young Laura was christened September 20, in Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, in the same chapel in which her parents were married three years ago.

The Reverend Allan Zaun, who officiated at the wedding, officiated at Laura's reception into the Church. Laura's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Rains, of Vernier road, and the Harold George Bays, Sr., of Renaud road—and she has five living great-grandparents: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bay, of Toledo, O., Mr. and Mrs. Omar Field Rains, of Mapleton road, and Mrs. C. A. Mewborn, of Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Mewborn came north for her great-granddaughter's christening. The baby wore an heirloom dress, christening garb for Mrs. Mewborn and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Rains.

Mrs. Bay, Jr., the former Cecily Rains, was supposed to wear the dress, too... but by the time she was christened, she had outgrown the tiny garment. So the frock skipped one generation, but was lovingly kept for Laura.

A December wedding is planned.

Treats Galore At Guild Fair

Visitors to the Detroit Historical Society Guild's "A-Fair to Remember" will be assured of a pleasant, relaxing setting, whether they prefer to lunch in Grandma's Kitchen, near the Streets of Old Detroit, or just stop for a treat in the Old Fashioned Ice Cream Parlor.

Children and adults will have an enthusiastic time picking and choosing at the "A-Fair," for there will be many booths, special exhibits, demonstrations, fun, food... even a booth featuring framed original autographs and words to live by from the pens of Henry Ford, II, Cardinal Spellman, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, John Steinbeck and others.

PointeGardenCenter Presents House Tours

Tudor, Williams, Regency and Contemporary Residences Among Eight Homes To Be Opened Next Month

A tour of eight outstanding Grosse Pointe Houses, for members and friends of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, is scheduled Saturday and Sunday, October 17 and 18, from 1 until 5 o'clock.

Tickets, at $3 each, are available at the Garden Center, in Lakeshore road (Tuxedo 1-4594) or at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial office (Tuxedo 1-7511).

Showing their homes will be Mrs. William H. Fries, Mrs. Gerald F. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Scripps, Mrs. B. Holton Kammer, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sweeney, Jr., Seaborn

S. Livingstone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Parcells, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Guenther.

Mrs. Fries' home is in Stratford place, a "new" street of exceptionally gracious houses, running one brief block south of Jefferson, to The Lake. This charming small French town house features a marble entrance hall, leading into an interior decorated predominantly in pastel shades of lavender. The crystal chandelier in the dining room is only one exquisite feature on an entirely exquisite interior.

Mrs. Schneider has refurbished an older town house, in Lincoln road. A masterpiece of Georgian detail, completely—and delightfully—adapted to modern living, this home is filled with handsome old family pieces. An unusual guest suite has been furnished and decorated especially for the grandchildren and their parents when they come to visit.

The Scripps' home in Lakeshore road is done in the graceful Williamsburg manner. Built of mica-shist stone from Gettysburg, Pa., this house is literally "crammed" with interesting features. The hall features a curved stairway, and a cupola shaft extending 40 feet upward through the house. (Be sure to look up through it!).

There is a special sunken area in the living room, rather irreverently termed "The Pit," and an upstairs hobby room. The library is paneled in antique cherry wood. A swimming pool and bath houses on the lake

Collect Castaways For Sale

Castaways are the center of attention for these members of the Rummage Sale Committee of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Women's Association (left to right): MRS. WILLIAM FREDERICK, chairman; MRS. MARTIN SCHNURR, MRS. RICHARD FERNSTRUM, co-chairmen; and MRS. MALCOLM JOLLIFF. A treasure trove of bargains will be on sale, October 9 and 10, Friday and Saturday, at the Church, Mack avenue and Torry road. Rummage for the sale will be most welcome and can be taken directly to the Church the week of the sale. Heavy items will be picked up by truck next Tuesday, October 6. For pickup, call Tuxedo 2-6863, or TUXEDO 1-8921.

side of the property offer marvelous opportunities for at-home recreation.

Mrs. Kammer's Georgian Regency residence, in Kerby road, is decorated entirely with English and French antique furniture. Of special interest is a pair of chairs in the living room, copies of a chair in the White House. The hall features a French crystal chandelier and a lovely, beautifully proportioned stairway.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney live in a small, compact house that manages to combine charm with dignity. In Waverly lane, a new street of new homes opposite the Country Club of Detroit, off Kercheval avenue, it is Colonial in design and in decor. It is furnished entirely with fine antiques that have as a background a color scheme of soft yellows and greens.

A bachelor's house of great distinction is Seaborn S. Livingstone's contemporary home in Lakeshore road. Feather rock from California, oak and redwood were combined in the construction. The dwelling has an elaborate system to control humidity—and a swimming pool in the living room, running the width of the house. The room is furnished in Chinese Chippendale, done in waterproof materials, and the pool reflects beautiful metal chandeliers.

The Parcells' home in Clover-ly road, an excellent example of English Tudor architecture featuring a large entrance hall, spacious rooms and terrace, is well adapted to gracious living and entertaining. Fine specimens of Chinese porcelains and Chinese prints add to the decor. The second floor children's rooms will also be shown.

Early American antiques are used throughout the Valentine Guenther's charming home in Touraine road. Choice old pieces of copper, brass and silver add to the hospitable atmosphere. An unusual color scheme has been used in recent redecoration.

And last but not least... at the Guenther's, weary House Tourers may revive their palates, if not their feet; food will be available there, and there will be a special bake sale.

Immaculate Alumnae

The Immaculate Alumnae Association is planning a scholarship fund card party next Wednesday, October 7, at 8 in the evening, in the school gym, Greenlawn avenue, Detroit. Reservations, at $1.50 each, may be sent to Mrs. Patricia Barnes, 15871 Tracey, Detroit.

Members of the advisory committee will be Alex Bylica, president; Reggie Chajnowski, Chuck Collinson, Carol Roller, John Jones, Carol Thompson, Paul Terbruggen, Rita Flaherty, Marion Ticon, Pete Homes, and Arlene Stay. Additional members of this committee will be selected at the October meeting.

Pear Tree Chapter Organized In Pointe

Questers, Inc., Antique Lovers' Group, Names New Branch Chapter for French Pear Trees Which Still Dot Landscape

The Pear Tree Chapter of the National Organization of Questers, Inc., was organized September 2, at the home of the founder, Mrs. John R. Pear, of Trombly road.

The significance of the name is derived from the old French pear trees, relics of the days of "Louis Quatorze," some of whose venerable trunks still stand in the Pointes today.

On the French ribbon farms which extended from Lake St. Clair to what is now known as Gratiot avenue, were planted many pear and cherry trees which were the pride of the settlers in this region.

These early French farms were so designed that the farmer could command a view of the lake—and being not more than two to five acres away from his neighbor, he would have protection from Indian marauders.

In the rear of his dwelling he would plant his pear, apple, cherry and peach trees, beyond that his wheat and corn fields. Each farm, all told, consisted of 40 French acres.

Today there still can be found many French Pear Trees, still yielding an abundance of fruit on the roads named after the first settlers.

By a strange coincidence, the founder of the Pear Tree Chapter is Mrs. John Pear, who is very active in today's Pointe community.

Officers and Chairmen of the Pear Tree Chapter are: Mrs. John W. Piester, president; Mrs. Oscar Teeg, vice president; Mrs. Edward K. Heglin, secretary; Mrs. Wilfred A. Lademacher, treasurer; and Mrs. M. R. Olp, historian.

Standing Committee Chairmen are: Mrs. Oscar Teeg, membership; Mrs. Minert N. Thompson, program; and Mrs. Robert Brooks, Jr., nominations.

The first planning meeting was held on September 18 at the home of the president, Mrs. Piester and members brought antiques for a "Show and Tell" program.

The next meeting will be held on October 8 at the home of Mrs. Oscar Teeg. Miss Mary Coyne from the Grosse Pointe Chapter will give a paper on "Victorian Glass of the 19th Century." Mrs. John Pear is slated to talk on Franklin Stoves at the November meeting.

Louise Nobili To Teach Here

Outstanding water colorist, Prof. Louise Jansen Nobili of Wayne State University will take advantage of her sabbatical SP year to offer for the first time a water color class right in her own home town. She and her artist husband live in a striking self-designed home between East Jefferson and the lake.

Just returned from several months in Europe, Mrs. Nobili has consented to begin teaching water color classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Thursday, October 15, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Classes will continue weekly on Thursdays for 12 weeks for a fee of $36. Early enrollments are advised as Mrs. Nobili feels she can only teach so many successfully.

Those coming to Mrs. Nobili's class are requested to bring drawing board, 15 tubes of permanent pigment water color transparent student colors, a white lacquered or baked enamel palette, brushes, (flat, round and calligraphy), a sketch book, gummed tape, graphite stick, crayons, pencils and drawing paper. An apron or smock should be worn.

Sorority Slates Fashion Show

Resort wear will be the fashion slate for Sigma Phi Gamma's annual Fashion Forecast planned for October 10. The Detroit Yacht Club will provide the background for this luncheon fashion show, which begins at 11:30 o'clock. Tickets may be reserved by contacting Mrs. Jerome Bocci, of Lexington road, at TU 6-2039.

Members of this philanthropic Grosse Pointe sorority are busily collecting prizes, working on programs and designing table decorations for this, their largest welfare project of the year.

Although the group is small by some standards, the helping hand of Sigma Phi Gamma stretches far and wide, enabling children from the area to attend summer camps, supporting an American Indian girl and aiding unfortunate children in the southern mountain district.

The general public is invited to attend Fashion Forecast at the Detroit Yacht Club on October 10.

Her decision is decidedly to our advantage.

Sue and Barbara are apartment mates and live in this area. When we interviewed Sue, she seemed unusually bubbling—she had just successfully completed her first school visit and had thoroughly enjoyed it; this indeed augurs well for her future, and also for ours!

A fatal accident in that town on Saturday night involving the death of a teenage boy, who had been served liquor previous to the accident by one of his friend's parents, resulted in the "resurrection" of a law which punishes by jail sentence any parent who serves liquor or beer to a minor, other than his own child.

The holidays are approaching. If we want to extend good cheer to the friends of our sons and daughters of high school or college age, let us limit it to a good fruit punch or refreshing soft drink, or lots of good food.

Let those who will, preserve their trees and shrubbery, but let the parents in Grosse Pointe who REALLY care, preserve our precious children and youths.

Just,
A Mother.

Dear Sir:

Some kind person sent me your coverage of my address to Grosse Pointe teachers on September 8 under the heading "What Goes on at Your Library," by Virginia Leonard. Because I usually try something a bit philosophical on such occasions and before audiences of that quality, I am used to getting murdered in the press coverage. But Miss Leonard's piece was truly a refreshing surprise. She understood, saw to the heart of my presentation, and reported it accurately.

I am truly grateful for such treatment and congratulate you for Miss Leonard.

Very truly yours,
George Walter

To the Editor:

I believe all persons in the Grosse Pointe School District deeply appreciate your continuing coverage of the building needs of the Grosse Pointe School District via your news, editorials and public letters columns. This coverage is an excellent service to all the community.

As a member of the Citizens Building Needs Committee, I appreciate the space given to details of our deliberations and the report submitted by Dr. Felix McCormick, Columbia University. This report and all other information developed and presented to and by this group of independent, individualistic committee members was given full and complete consideration.

When the final decision was reached to recommend a second high school for the Grosse Pointe School District, and that such a school be located on the Vanderbush-Baker site, all alternatives have been explored in depth. No other choice withstood the test of what we considered best for our community.

I think, too, that the unanimity with which the recommendation was made is remarkable. In this group of thirty-one independent business men and women, community leaders and fathers and mothers, all voted in favor of the motion except one who was absent and two who belatedly asked to be recorded as abstaining. There was not a single negative vote.

The feeling of the committee was that the School Board, which had been properly marking time while this group deliberated, should be urged to proceed with the job as rapidly as feasible.

The School Board gave us a green light to study all possibilities; they gave us facts of history and they gave us freedom from pressure. We gave the School Board an independent conclusion which in our judgment will best serve the Grosse Pointe School District and which in my opinion deserves the support of every resident in the district.

Sincerely,
Art Sherman, Jr.

Big Port Huron Eleven Conquered by Blue Devils

A strong 19-0 victory over the Port Huron "Big Reds" last Saturday marked number two in a push for a perfect Devil season. The peppy Grosse Pointe squad, out-weighted by 20 pounds a man on the line, took advantage of four fumbles, two interceptions and 13 first downs in racking up 19 Devil points.

Seven scouts closely watched the Devil maneuvers from the Port Huron stands. They, literally, represented seven schools interested in seeing this "new Grosse Pointe team" in action. But, in general, they symbolized hundreds of Michigan high school teams worried about "a new, big power" in the state.

A Port Huron fumble early in the first quarter led to Grosse Pointe's first touchdown. John Reynolds and Dick Green alternated in carrying the ball to within 10 yards of the Big Red goal line. Then quarterback Lou Curl smashed through the Port Huron line for the Devil's first "new scoreboard" points. A failure to gain the extra point left the score at 6-0.

In the second quarter after another set of ground plays involving Green and Reynolds, Lou made it two as he hopped past the Port Huron defense from 14 yards out. John Geavaras raised the score to 13-0 with his extra-point.

An 11-yard run by Green coupled with two completed passes produced the third touchdown. On the scoring play, Mike Vande Ginste took a pass from Curl across for the points. A try for the extra point was no good and at the half the Devils led 19-0.

During half time the Varsity cheerleaders invited the reserves onto the field to help in the cheering and members of the band played pop music for the spectators.

Devil Coach Ed Wernet sent out a new group of players in the second half. Sam Thompson took over as quarterback and Jack Conley and Mike Vande Ginste did most of the ball carrying.

In the last plays of the game, Vande Ginste was hit by some of the Port Huron hefties and a sprained ankle resulted. The only other Grosse Pointe injury was minor. . . . Geavaras had the wind knocked out of him.

Next week Grosse Pointe tackles the Highland Park players, away.

GPUS Knights Drop Another

Grosse Pointe University School's football team made it two for two last weekend. Only . . . the two were both losses.

The Knights were crushed 34-13, at St. John of Flint in a night game last Friday.

In the first GPUS scoring play, Roy Pingel skipped the seven yards to the goal line. Then, for number 2, Tim Martin grabbed a short pass from quarterback Arthur Getz and ran across.

Said a discouraged GPUS player, "We were . . . well, we were just out-charged. Their line had more pep."

Next Saturday the GPUS squad will try again . . . this time against the Michigan School for the Deaf. They expect it to be one of their toughest games of the year. The game starts at 2 on the GPUS field.

Spartan Teams Win and Lose

By Jim Lynch

The Woods Spartan football team lost to the Redford Raiders 30-13. The Spartans' first touchdown was scored by Dennis Kahle on a beautiful 28 yard run in the second period. The Spartans' second touchdown was scored by Mike Johnston on a quarterback sneak; it was set up by a 40-yard run by Dennis Kahle in the fourth quarter. The point after touchdown was scored by Dennis Kahle.

At half time the Spartans were down 21-6, but the second half turned out a real fine game, with outstanding performances by Kris Warner, Terry Buda, Bud Scheele and Allen Tunis.

The Spartan Jr. Varsity lost to the Raiders 28-0 in a game completely dominated by the Raiders.

The Spartan Pony team continued its unbeaten string to 3 games by downing the Raiders 20-0. The Ponies opened the scoring on a 4th down, 4-yard touchdown run by John Mindelli. The point after touchdown was also scored by Mindelli.

The Ponies' second score came on a double reverse by John Mindelli from the twenty-yard line. The point after touchdown was scored by Captain Jeff De-Claire.

Brad Biesenthal scored the final touchdown when he swept left, with excellent blocking for 14 yards.

The Ponies' fine offense was led by quarterback Ernie Ney.

The Ponies' great defensive unit, which has had only one touchdown scored against them this year, was led by the good play of Tom Przeslowski, Tony Bommarito, Gregg Saraf and Mike Metcalf.

The Woods Spartans play at East Detroit in a night game on Saturday, October 3.

Morrow Addresses Directors of WUF

Women volunteers are one of the major success factors in the raising, budgeting, and spending of Torch Drive dollars, 1964 Torch Drive General Chairman Thomas F. Morrow, of Vendome road, told 100 members of the board of directors of Women for United Foundation Thursday, September 24.

Morrow, Group Vice President, Defense, Space Group and Diversified Products, Chrysler Corp., spoke before a luncheon held in connection with the directors' orientation workshop in the UF building.

"The one and a half million dollars raised by Community Campaigns, made up largely of women volunteers, was the difference between success and failure of the 1963 Torch Drive," Morrow said. "I hope you continue to set an example of excellence for the nation."

Walter C. Laidlaw, executive vice president of the United Foundation, told how the number of women volunteers had increased from 10,000 in 1949 to 50,000 in 1963, and expressed confidence that it would continue to grow.

Mrs. P. Reuther of Rochester, chairman of the Board Orientation Workshop Committee, presided.

The morning session included talks on the "UF Family," the importance of woman power, reasons for the Torch Drive, and a presentation of an agency request for funds before the Goal and Allotments Committee of the U.F.

'Most Scenic Highway' Beckons Motorists North

Going out in an autumnal blaze of glory, Michigan's 385-mile I-75 freeway turns in its well-deserved title this month as the "Most Scenic Highway in the United States." It does so at a time when the rugged woodlands which abound along its northernmost sections are splashed with blazing, multi-colored hues of red, yellow, green and gold.

Keeping in mind that this fall technicolor spectacle will be replaced by the first frosty mantle of snow before too many weeks go by, the Automobile Club of Michigan urged motorists to take advantage of the colorful scenery as soon as possible.

The "Most Scenic Highway" title was bestowed last year on a 22½-mile portion of I-75 from Vanderbilt to Indian River by the editors of Parade Magazine, a national Sunday supplement which appears in hundreds of newspapers all over the country.

This same magazine will soon name another highway somewhere in the U.S. as its choice for "Most Scenic" for 1964-65. In the meantime, I-75 may have lost its title, but the reason for the award is much in evidence and even underscored by Mother Nature's fantastic fall color display.

National recognition is becoming familiar to I-75, because two previously opened sections of the Ohio-to-Soo Freeway won special mention in the annual "Most Scenic Highway" contest. A 22-mile segment from the Mackinac Bridge to Indian River was a runnerup three years ago. And two years ago the 90-mile section between Clare and Gaylord was also a runnerup.

All of this national recognition is well-deserved, and any Michiganian who hasn't driven I-75 north from Clare to Sault Ste. Marie should try it," said Jerry E. Fisher, touring manager for the Auto Club.

To be scenic, a highway must travel through a scenic area. And that's exactly what I-75 does. It slashes through a wilderness of gently rolling hills, populated by deer, pine, poplar trees and an occasional stand of white birches, along with clear, sand-bottomed trout streams, game-protecting swamps, and the remains of Michigan's once-gigantic lumbering era.

The very qualities which tend to make this highway safe er," said Fisher, "are the qualities the judges found in conferring the title of 'Most Scenic Highway' on I-75."

The Auto Club official said that in most places on I-75, northbound and southbound roadways are separated by timber or hills which hide one lane from the other, cutting head-on light glare to a bare minimum.

Seeing no cars coming at him from the opposite direction prompted one motorist to call I-75 "the most restful road in America." Another driver wrote, "This road gives me the feeling I am riding in solitude through an immense park."

Critics of freeways claim that roads such as I-75 are monotonous speedways which reveal to motorists little of the character of the area.

"This is true in many cases, but not on I-75," Fisher said. "Compare I-75 with old US-27 which formerly served the area. True, the old highway did cut through most of the colorful towns in the northern lower peninsula, but much of the time drivers were too busy avoiding oncoming traffic and being blinded by headlight glare to really enjoy the scenery."

The Auto Club said that before 1964 draws to a close, nearly 5,000,000 people will have driven the 22½-mile section between Vanderbilt and Indian River.

To these people, and to the countless others who will be driving the same stretch in the years to come, I-75 will still be the "Most Scenic Highway in the United States," even though it officially loses that honor this month.

Brownell PTA Meets Oct. 5

Parents of Brownell Junior High School students will have an opportunity to attend their children's classes at the annual "School-on-Schedule Night" on October 5.

After gathering at 7:30 in the boys' gym (Home Room period) for a brief PTA meeting presided over by president William Montgomery, each parent will follow his child's daily schedule for Monday. In each class of fifteen minutes, teachers will explain the general course of study, class routines, home work procedures, and the methods of evaluating pupil progress.

To refresh the visitors, coffee will be served in A-22, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Floer, for those scheduled for "study hall" any period, as well as for a general pick-up at the completion of the evening's program.

Of special interest will be the new Health Club for business men. Complete facilities are available in this Club including steam room, masseur, exercise room and lounge.

For women, facilities include a lounge and private locker room with showers. Cookies will be served along with coffee and a cold beverage. Lloyd Morgan, nationally known performer and one of the outstanding physical directors in the country will be your host.

All residents of Grosse Pointe and the East Side community are urged to come see this complete physical fitness facility available for your health.

Errant Driver Learns Lesson

John W. Butt, Jr., 21, of 3529 Dickerson, Detroit, learned the folly of reckless driving and operating a motor vehicle with only a learner's permit in his possession.

At a hearing held before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, September 16, Butt pleaded guilty to both charges.

Under Michigan law, a person learning to drive must have a learner's permit, and cannot operate a motor vehicle unless accompanied by a validly licensed driver, 21 years of age, or over. Butt was in the driver's seat, with a licensed driver in his car, but she was only 17 years old.

After accepting the youth's guilty plea, Judge Belanger sentenced Butt to pay a fine of $50, or serve 10 days in the Wayne County Jail, on the reckless driving charge, and also placed him on three months probation.

On the second count, the judge imposed a fine of $35, or five days in jail.

Butt paid both fines. Give courtesy a leading place in the inventory of life. Many people who have lofty aims can't hit the bullseye.

Cornell Having 100th Birthday

Detroit has been chosen as one of the 25 cities in the U.S. to get a closed circuit television program commemorating Cornell University's 100th birthday, on October 9.

This will be the first time in American history that any university has brought to its graduates and friends a first hand view of a Convocation. The show, locally, will be held in the studios of Station WWJ, starting at 6 p.m.

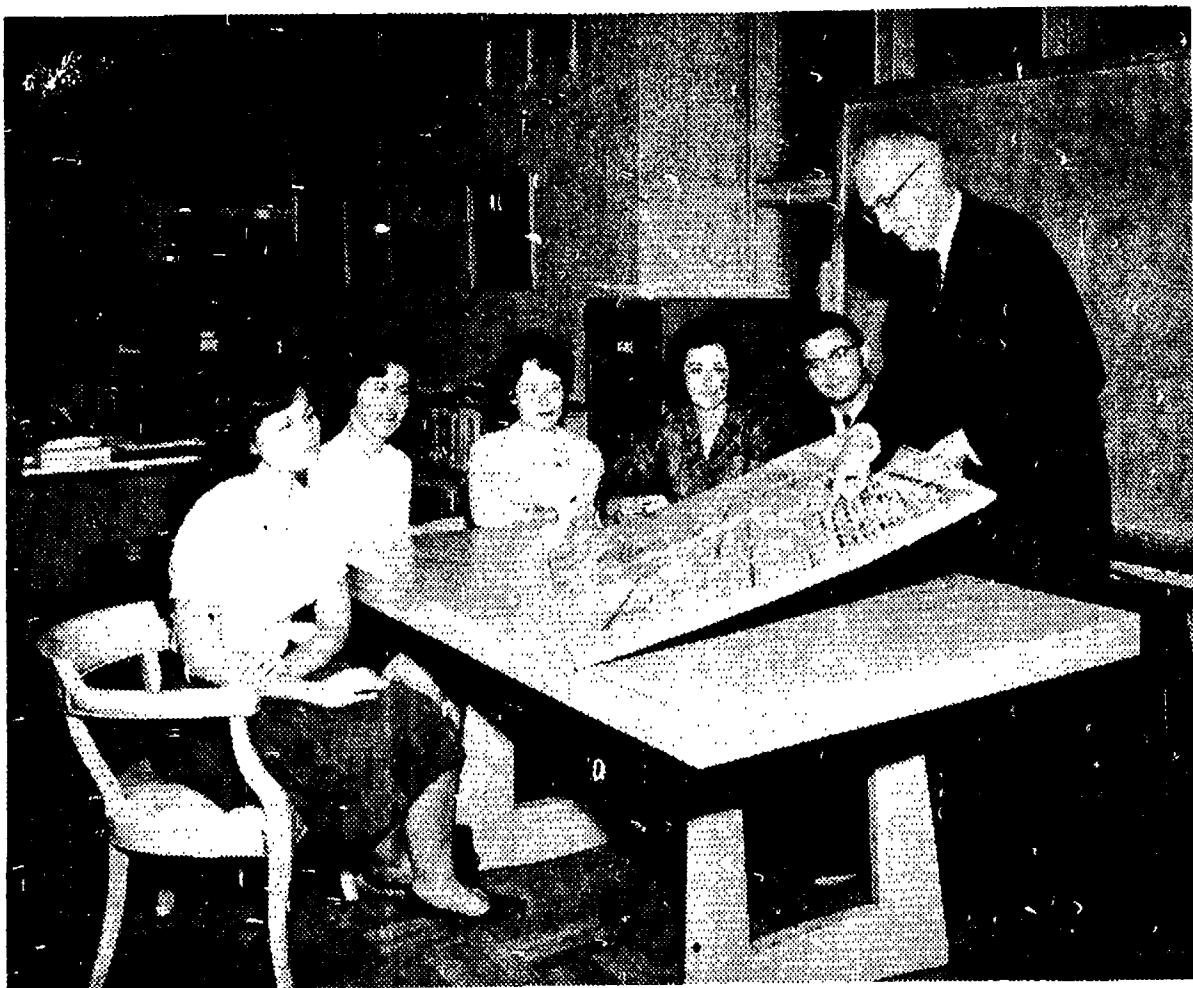

The Centennial Celebration will "look backward" but only briefly. It will remember old Cornell achievements such as being the first co-educational institution in the East, and one of the first to emphasize technological education. It will note that Cornell performs the essential function of a university... library research, scholarship... letter than most. It will note that Cornell is the best known of all American universities to the rural populations throughout the world because of Cornell's eminence in agriculture, animal husbandry, and veterinary medicine.

The Convocation will "look forward" to the future, raise the sights, stir the pride, and project the goals of this great University as it enters upon its second century. To celebrate this milestone, 300 educational dignitaries from throughout the world will assemble in Ithaca for the Centennial Convocation to pay homage to Cornell.

Cornell, at present, is in a campaign to raise $73,200,000 for student aid, faculty salaries and additional facilities. In Detroit, Jack M. Cudlip, of McLouth Steel Corp., is Alumni Area Chairman. Robert G. Lyon, of Ross Roy, Inc., Advertising Agency, is chairman of the committee handling arrangements for the closed circuit show.

Introducing New Pointe Teachers

Newcomers to the staff of Parcels Junior High School number five for the 1964-65 year. They are shown with PRINCIPAL VINCENT PETERSON. He is using the map of the district to show them the area of new home construction where his building's most recent "population explosion" has originated. The teachers are (left to right) MISS JANET L. BOLTON, Latin-English; MISS MARIE L. KNUTSON, home economics; MISS CHRISTINE M. STUART, English-French; MISS JANET A. COLLINSON, French; WILLIAM LELESZI, science; and MR. PETERSON.

The second in our weekly feature introducing teachers new to the Grosse Pointe Public School System takes us to Parcels Junior High School. Principal Vincent Peterson's staff there numbers five newcomers for the 1964-65 academic year. They are Miss Janet L. Bolton, Miss Janet A. Collinson, and Miss Christine M. Stuart, in English and languages; Miss Marie L. Knutson in homemaking and William A. Leleszi in science. Miss Bolton, whose assignment includes classes in both Latin and English, is a native of Saginaw, Michigan and a graduate of Cooley High School in Detroit. She is a recent graduate of the University of Michigan where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Sewing, swimming and reading are her hobbies.

New to the French department is Janet Collinson, a native Detroit whose family home is in Grosse Pointe Park. A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, Miss Collinson received her BA from Oberlin College and her MA from the University of Michigan. During her undergraduate career she was chairman of the women's government organization. Miss Collinson completed the requirements for her teaching certificate at Wayne State University and has had extensive experience in substitute teaching in eight suburbs in the Detroit area. As part of her preparation for teaching foreign language in grades seven, eight, and nine, she spent a summer studying in France. Her extracurricular interests center on music and sewing. Miss Marie L. Knutson, home-making instructor, claims St. Paul, Minnesota as her birthplace. She attended North St. Paul High School and received her AB degree from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota. She was graduated cum laude from college, and was the recipient of the Allen Kleppe Award for outstanding work in the field of home economics. She claims membership in the National Education Association. Her interests include skiing, reading, knitting, and naturally enough considering her teaching assignment—cooking. Miss Knutson spent the past summer working at a camp in Maine. On another occasion she worked as a food demonstrator for the Minnesota Bee and Honey Association. Miss Christine M. Stuart, a teacher of French and English at Parcels, is a graduate of Western Michigan University and has done much work on her MA at the University of Michigan. She has also attended Trois Pistoles French Summer School sponsored by the University of Western Ontario. To augment her language training, she spent the summer of 1963 living with a French-Canadian family in a small village on the St. Lawrence River in the province of Quebec while she was attending classes. A lifetime resident of Grosse Pointe, she was born in Detroit and completed her high school training at St. Ambrose. A member of the American Youth Hostel organization, she includes golf, bowling, riding, sailing and tennis among her interests. Miss Stuart is a member of the American Association of Teachers of French; her sorority is Alpha Phi. She would like to spend the coming summer in France and she plans to complete her MA in the near future. Seventh and eighth grade classes in general science comprise the major portion of professional duties for William A. Leleszi at Parcels. Born in Detroit, he received his high school diploma from Western, his BA degree from Wayne State University. He has been employed most recently as a substitute in the Detroit schools. Boating, fishing, woodworking and photography are among his cut-school interests. "These five newcomers to the professional staff of Parcels Junior High School are a decided asset not only to this building, but to the Grosse Pointe Public School System as a whole," Principal Peterson remarked recently.

Park Council Adopts New Refrigeration Ordinance

After more than an hour of debate, the Park council approved the adoption of a Reciprocal Refrigeration Code on Monday, September 28, by a 5-2 vote.

The code, drawn by the Reciprocal Refrigeration Council, Inc., was prepared for adoption by communities in Southeastern Michigan. Several communities have already enacted the code into an ordinance.

The purpose of the ordinance is to provide reasonable safety for life and limb, and applies to all new refrigerating systems of one ton, or more, to be installed, the re-installation of used equipment, to all existing refrigerating systems, and to all servicing, alterations, or additions to existing units subsequent to the adoption of the law.

For several weeks, the Park council had sought to join the RRC, by recommending a change of the one ton and over requirement, to five tons and over, but the RRC council denied the Park membership unless it complied with the code, as agreed upon by the receptive communities.

Under the terms of the ordinance, no person can install, alter or service any refrigerant containing part of any refrigerating system, in the Park, without first obtaining a refrigeration contractor's license.

No license will be issued by the Park Department of Public Service, unless applicants are recommended by the RRC Board of Examiners, which is authorized to give written and oral examinations, to determine the qualifications of applicants.

Persons seeking licenses to install refrigeration systems must be at least 21 years of age, according to the ordinance.

Under a reciprocal clause of the ordinance, the Park shall license refrigeration contractors legally licensed by other Michigan municipalities, who register with the Park Department of Public Service, on payment of a nominal fee.

The ordinance requires that permits be required for certain types of refrigerants, and sets the fees for the permits. It also sets forth authorization of the Department of Public Service to make periodic inspections, for the protection of the public, of certain types of refrigeration units.

The Park council decreed that the newly adopted ordinance shall become effective within 94 days, which would make this January 1, 1965.

Pvt. Toby J. David At Fort Knox, Ky.

Army Pvt. Toby J. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Toby S. David, 1517 Blairmore, completed an eight-week clerical course under the Reserve Enlistment Program, September 25, at Fort Knox, Ky.

David received instruction in English grammar, typing, Army correspondence and the preparation of morning reports.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Austin Catholic Preparatory School in Detroit and attended Wayne State University in Detroit.

Char Fishing Movie Offered

Grosse Pointers will experience a new adventure on October 8, at 8 p.m., when Larry Helin shares his char fishing experience in northern Ontario.

Mr. Helin, head of The Helin Tackle Co. of La Salle, Ont., will show movies beautifully done in color, with a musical background and an exciting story.

The 45-minute film takes the audience by plane to a desolate spot on the Three River probably called this because there are no trees past the Arctic Circle; then to Great Bear Lake, where lake trout and grayling fishing is unsurpassed. Another fishing spot, 200 miles northwest of Great Bear Lake, provides pictures of char fishing, where Mr. Helin missed the world record catch by one-half pound. The char is considered the most colorful game fish in the world, and Mr. Helin's record catch weighed 23½ pounds.

Eskimo life at its most primitive is a fascinating feature of this film and landing by float plane on the lakes and rivers adds to the thrills.

Mr. Helin makes an annual trip to the "Land of the Midnight Sun." Eighteen Grosse Pointers accompanied him last summer and many more are waiting the opportunity.

This fine film is offered to Grosse Pointe by the Grosse Pointe Cinema League at 8 p.m., October 8, in the Fries Auditorium, at the War Memorial Center. It will be preceded by a 10-minute talk on editing. The Cinema League invites you.

Art Institute Picks Curator

Charles H. Elam has been named Curator of American Art at The Detroit Institute of Arts, it was announced by Willis F. Woods, director of the museum.

In announcing Mr. Elam's appointment, Mr. Woods commented, "He will take charge of one of the most important sections of The Detroit Institute of Arts, since Detroit has one of the nation's foremost American art collections."

For the past six years, Mr. Elam has been Chief Curator of the Dayton (Ohio) Art Institute. In addition to curatorial duties covering the entire art field, he supervised the museum's registrar, the docents who handled educational and lecture programs, and the museum's rental gallery. Other assignments included editing the Dayton Art Institute Bulletin and various catalogs and publications.

Born in Ashland, Ky., Mr. Elam is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati and received his M.A. degree from New York University's Institute of Fine Arts.

Before joining the Dayton Art Institute, Mr. Elam spent a year in European travel and study, following seven years of military service. He was recently retired with the rank of major in the U.S. Army Reserve.

The City Manager was authorized to expend up to $1,500.00 from the Public Improvement Reserve Fund to make necessary repairs to City-owned sidewalks at intersections.

The following reports were ordered received and filed:

Council approved the sum of not to exceed $200.00 to prepare explanatory material to be distributed to the voters regarding the proposed charter amendments.

The City Manager reported the retirement of Jerry Flury, an employee in the Public Works Department.

The City Manager reported that due to the increasing number of noisy vehicles on the streets, the Police Department would be instituting a more vigorous enforcement of the Traffic Ordinance as it pertains to noisy mufflers.

A WORD to the wives... we'd advise you to get the man in your life to join you in seeing this one before it's sold. In the Farms on a generous sized lot with ample room for the kids and the dog. Five family bedrooms and two more for stay-in-help. Baths galore and so much more... better call now!

COME BY SUNDAY, say between the hours of 2:30 and five; and we will introduce you to a gem of a house at 260 Mt. Vernon. The price has just been reduced to $28,500, which makes this three bedroom, two full bath home an even better buy. Naturally the house has a separate dining room and family room. Ready for your move next week.

ALL READY to go, and if you're in the know you'll realize that this listing on Handy Place is the only four bedroom offered today in the Radnor Park Subdivision. The realistic price of $36,500 should be enough to attract that buyer who demands two baths and the four sleeping rooms.

RAMBLE ABOUT in the luxury of gigantic rooms with fireplaces greeting you in most of the bedrooms and in living room, and dining room. This is truly one of the Pointe's fine houses. Immense foyer and a magnificent staircase leads up to five family bedrooms each with its own bath. Plenty of additional rooms for help or family, if required. Ready and waiting to be appreciated and sold.

COULD IT BE that you actually would make a move if you could "trade" that larger house you now rattle about in for a petite mansion with just the room you really need, but not giving up the larger rooms to which you have become accustomed? Allow us to show you this little big French house that could be the logical house for you. Just a block to the Lake shore... Call and we'll tell you more.

STAY WITH US. This ranch home on Fairway, challenges all competition. Better clue yourself in on this one if you desire one story living with three bedrooms, bath and a half, and a spacious leisure room. Full basement and two car attached garage.

PAMPERED OVER by its particular owner, and looks every inch a prima donna. This contemporary is in the Deeplands area. Could be that this is that small house with the large rooms you've been seeking? All three bedrooms have their own bath and there is a cozy den which also opens onto a secluded patio.

ANOTHER English house with the perfect layout for a growing family, is offered on 1027 Bishop Road. Six bedrooms, with almost as many baths on the second floor. Generous proportioned rooms throughout, yet not overwhelming to maintain. Priced in the low forties.

DRIVE BY 515 Middlesex if a lot 225 feet deep and only two houses from Windmill Pointe Drive sounds appealing to you. Inside you will find five family bedrooms, a large step-down living room with random width peg flooring, plus a library and a family room. Ready for immediate occupancy and priced at $49,500.

Headlines of the Week

thought the President appeared to be opening the door to a possible summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev if elected in November.

THE SENATE FRIDAY approved the Aid to Appalachia bill which would provide $1 billion over five years to build roads, reclaim land, build health facilities and other action for the area of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky. The Aid to Appalachia Bill is a companion to the administration's war on poverty program, approved earlier. Trying for an early adjournment Congress also worked on the controversial medical care for the aged program. Senate-House conferees are considering a new compromise plan for the bill and will try to settle differences Tuesday.

LEADERS of the United Automobile Workers met last night in a closed meeting to consider the union's strike against the General Motors Corp. No UAW move for resumption of bargaining was expected to result, however. The strike idled approximately 230,000 workers of GM's total of 345,000. GM vice president Louis G. Seaton, told newsmen that he was "completely surprised" by the UAW's decision to go ahead with the strike because "I thought we had the basis for settlement." One of the chief stumbling blocks to settlement is the amount of hours during work time that may be spent on union business.

THE RIOTS in Northern cities this summer were not basically racial and were not organized on a national basis the Federal Bureau of Investigation said yesterday, in a report made to President Johnson. None of them was planned by any one group or organization, the F.B.I. said. The report stopped short of wholly absolving the Communist party of responsibility, however. It said that the party "does not appear to have officially instigated these riots," but said that party members took part in some of them. The President ordered the investigation on September 9.

THE JOB of preparing a new constitution and institutions to govern South Vietnam was given to a High National Council, composed of 17 civilians yesterday. New troubles, however, between the caretaker government of Premier Nguyen Khanh and the United States mission led some observers to doubt that stability could be achieved without further upheavals. Gen. Duong Van Minh, titular head of the triumvirate that now rules South Vietnam, presided at the government palace installation ceremony for the new civilian council, made up of rival religious and civic groups.

A TURKISH Foreign Ministry statement said Saturday that the 650-man Turkish Army contingent in Cyprus will be placed under United Nations control. The troops remaining in Cyprus, however, must maintain their present positions and Turkey reserved the right to withdraw her contingent from the United Nations command if the security of Turkish Cypriots was threatened.

Monday, September 28
FOLLOWING 10 months of intensive investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy last November 22, the Warren Commission yesterday issued its report. It found that one man, Lee Harvey Oswald, had killed the President and there had been no conspiracy, domestic or foreign. It also made clear that Jack L. Ruby had been acting on his own when he killed Oswald. The Commission was critical of the Secret Service and other

Yoga Classes Start Oct. 7

Yoga classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be held on Wednesday evenings beginning Oct. 7 and will continue through Dec. 9.

They will be taught by SRF trained instructor George O. Johnston, Jr.

Ten lessons are offered for the nominal fee of $10. There will be a 7:30 class for beginners and an 8:30 group for those who have studied before. Mr. Johnston became interested in yoga while studying comparative religions at Yale. However, yoga, as he teaches it at the War Memorial is not a mystic eastern religion, but rather a series of mental and physical exercises designed to relax one from daily tensions and fatigue and instill a sense of calm and produce a better body tone.

The course is open to both men and women and teenagers are also encouraged to join. Those planning on attending are asked to enroll in advance and when coming to class to wear casual loose-fitting clothing. Exercise mats will be provided.

Federal agencies for failing to protect the President adequately. President Johnson immediately appointed a four-man committee to advise him on the execution of the recommendations of the Warren Commission to tighten the protection of presidents.

WALTER REUTHER, president of United Automobile Workers, and Louis G. Seaton, General Motors' vice president of personnel staff, met for two hours yesterday in an effort to settle the company's production. They said their discussion had been "healthy." They will resume their talks today.

EFFORTS to settle Detroit's newspaper strike, now entering its 12th week, were delayed until Monday, October 5. The postponement was due to the absence of the leaders of the Paper and Plate Handlers' and Pressmen's unions, who are attending their unions' international convention. Members of Gov. Romney's special committee, appointed to sit in on the negotiations, are also reported to be unavailable for meetings this week because of out-of-town commitments.

Tuesday, September 29
THREE AMERICANS were among the seven Cardinals who urged the Second Vatican (Ecumenical) Council yesterday to remove a historic root of anti-Semitism through a strong declaration absolving the Jewish people of guilt in the death of Christ. The American Cardinals were Cushing, Meyer and Ritter. The declaration was opposed by conservative Ernesto Cardinal Ruffini of Palermo and by Syria's Ignace Cardinal Tappouni, who spoke for four other prelates in Arab nations. A spokesman for the Secretariat to promote Christian Unity said, however, the first day of debate showed "more than a slight possibility that the Council will vote a strong text."

THERE WAS mixed reaction among Western European newspapers yesterday to the report of the Warren Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy. Some accepted the conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald killed Mr. Kennedy alone but others said many questions had been left unanswered. The reaction in Asia was mixed also. The American Embassy in Moscow distributed 90 copies of the report but the general attitude there was one of disbelief in the commission's findings.

THERE WAS little hope yesterday of a quick settlement of the strike of the United Automobile Workers against the General Motors Corp., according to negotiators. The chief bar to a settlement seemed to be local demands among 131 UAW units. The corporation has reported 17,000 outstanding issues at the local level. These will have to be "cleaned up" before effective progress can be made on a national agreement.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

My attention has been brought to an article appearing on the front page of the Grosse Pointe News for September 24, 1964. Inasmuch as I am mentioned in this article, having been chairman of the Republican State Convention, and inasmuch as Mr. Durant was apparently sought out for commentary while I was not, and inasmuch as his commentary implies that which is not true, I feel an answer from me, in your pages, is in order.

Mr. Durant is quoted as saying: "It was a disgrace the way this resolution was railroaded through..."

The truth is that the resolution was not railroaded through, but was passed in a far more proper parliamentary procedure than that which Mr. Durant apparently practices in his own district.

On the Saturday morning of the Convention, Mr. Durant approached me, as chairman of the Convention, and sought to intimidate me with the threat of legal action if I permitted this resolution to appear before the convention. I advised Mr. Durant that if the Resolutions Committee brought forth such a resolution, I would, as chairman, call for a vote on it, and would not rule it out of order, as Mr. Durant sought to have me do. I further advised Mr. Durant I would not be intimidated by him in this matter.

The Resolutions Committee did bring forth such a resolution, and when the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee moved for its adoption, I called for a voice vote. The first vote was certainly not clear as to whether the "ayes" or "nays" preponderated.

I then called for a second vote, and on this vote I could clearly see that many non-delegates behind Mr. Durant's 14th District group, and others in and around his area, also non-delegates, were voting on the resolution. This, of course, was illegal.

I then proceeded to call for a standing vote, and the standing vote was not even close. I would estimate that the motion carried not less than two to one "aye."

Mr. Durant then declares that a call for a division of the house was ignored, and to this I can only say that the subsequent uproar and disgraceful chanting of the minority prevented my hearing any such call for a division, and we proceeded with the business of the convention. I heard no such call. If Mr. Durant had been more successful in keeping his cohorts under control, I probably would have heard such a motion, and would have been delighted to honor it. The Convention would have buried him under a roll call vote just as it did with a standing vote. For those delegates in the 14th District, who fill your Letters to the Editors column with cries of sympathy for Mr. Durant, and the "persecution" that he suffers, I can only ask why, in every circumstance, is Mr. Durant right, and everyone else always wrong? There is an old proverb I would recommend to their reading. It says: Those who walk out of step with the world are out of step with the world.

Yours very truly,
Charles L. Lyle
County Chairman

Dear Mr. Edgar:

As the Chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education I resent the allegations contained in last week's letter from Calvin J. Sandberg. The entire inquiry into the matter of the second high school was conducted completely in accordance with the wishes of the overwhelming majority of the Committee.

I do not wish to belabor the point; the records speak for themselves. The members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee did a fair and equitable job in assessing the situation and in making their final recommendation. The group was, in all respects, a Blue-Ribbon Committee composed of fair-minded, intelligent, and representative citizens.

It is regrettable that anyone should detract from the good will and fine spirit exhibited by the membership during their deliberations.

Sincerely yours,
Kenneth Koppin

Jan Houghton, age 10, and her eight-year-old sister, Patty, are budding reporters, gifted with terseness and an ability to Get-the-Facts, as evidenced by this excerpt from their cooperative account of the recent visit of three Argentine firemen to the Pointe: "Saturday, September 5, 1964. Chief Leonard Antico, Sargento Carlos M. Polo and Corporal Jaime H. Gomez came to our house for dinner. They came in a little red fire engine. They are volunteer firemen from Bosa, a part of Buenos Aires, Argentina. We went to the Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Department. Lt. Snay gave Chief Leonard Antico a badge to put on his fire engine. Almost every place they went they got a badge to put on his fire engine. It took them ten (10) months to get to Detroit. The first engine was made in 1926. They drove it 22,000 miles to get it here and hope to exchange it for a new one. They hardly speak English but they get along fine. The President of Peru gave them a new set of tires..."

At last! ... someone is doing something for the girls, ages nine to 12, who sit on the sidelines, watching their brothers compete in organized baseball, football and basketball leagues. Recognizing that girls need—and want—athletic activities as much as boys, several interested parents are forming field hockey teams for the young ladies. Carole Currin, coach of girls' hockey at Grosse Pointe High School, has agreed to supervise Hockey League play, but mothers, familiar with the game or just interested in the program, are needed as assistant coaches and business managers. For further information, or to enroll children in the League, call TUXedo 5-8342.

This is the tale of a pie... that traveled 6,000 miles! It seems the A. J. Christies, of North Oxford road, visit Honolulu at least once a year. Mr. Christie goes on business. Mrs. Christie goes because who in her right mind would pass up a chance to laze in the sun at Waikiki? And both Christies love The Islands. In the course of their travels, Mr. and Mrs. Christie have made many friends whose permanent home is Hawaii; their current houseguest is Herbert Wolfe, of Honolulu. Before arriving at the Christie residence, Mr. Wolfe racked his brains for a suitable host-and-hostess gift. It had to be something typically Hawaiian, and it had to be something the Christies had not brought back to The States already. Finally, Mr. Wolfe remembered Mr. Christie's penchant for a luscious pie, made with fresh coconut and mounds of whipped cream, available only at a small snack shop in Kamehameha boulevard. Mr. Wolfe purchased the pie, had it packed in dry ice, and carried it carefully with him 6,000 air miles (the pie and Mr. Wolfe changed planes twice) to North Oxford road, where it arrived fresh as the day it was made and was promptly consumed, with profuse expressions of gratitude, by Mr. Christie, with an assist from his wife.

In the first model-making contest... he ever entered, Chris Lounsberry, of Balfour road, nosed out veteran Detroit model contestant Henry Kosciuszko, to win first place with a scale model of the unlimited hydroplane, "Miss Bardahl." Chris worked nearly two months on his model, which judges considered exceptional in realistic detail. The young model-maker, a junior at Grosse Pointe High School, is a member of Trombly School's Boy Scout Troop 86 and a member of the Youth Group at Saint Columba's Episcopal Church.

PILFERINGS

A young lady presented a check at a supermarket as payment for her purchases. The clerk examined it, then asked, "Can you identify yourself?" Looking puzzled, the girl dipped into her handbag and pulled out a small mirror. She glanced into it and then smiled, "Yes, it's me all right." —Coronet

An American businessman was touring the Far East, stopping off at Tokyo and Hong Kong, and winding up his travels with a visit to Taipei, Formosa. There he was entertained at luncheon by the local equivalent of the chamber of commerce. At the end of the meal, he was asked to "say a few words."

Almost none of the audience could understand English, and he could not speak a word of Chinese. His address was therefore to be translated by an interpreter as each sentence was uttered.

"Well," he began, "I just want all you fellows to know that I'm tickled to death to be here!"

A look of agony appeared on the interpreter's face. "This poor man," he said in halting Chinese, "scratches himself until he dies, only to be with you."

ROBERT B. EVANS, OF LAKESHORE ROAD

By R. Alan Wells

He believes in initiative, and he has his own definition of what it is: "The only way you're going to succeed in this world is if you've got something inside to self-start you."

And Robert Beverley Evans, self-starter must have started early, because by the time he was in college at the University of Michigan he was helping to pay his way through school selling raccoon coats at $200 profit per coat.

Since then, the Evans name has grown larger and larger in Detroit industrial circles. Today, as owner of over a dozen corporations, Bob Evans is still in high gear, both as a businessman and avid sportsman.

"Yankee Rebel"

Born in Richmond, Va., Evans still keeps a strong affinity for things Southern. "Just call me a darn good Yankee Rebel," he advised. After attending the Virginia Episcopal School, he went on to the University of Michigan, where his majors were business administration and literature.

Having tinkered with motors and things mechanical from an early age, Evans entered the formal study of engineering at the University of Lausanne, Switzerland, during his tenure at Michigan.

What must be an innate business sense came to the surface during his four years at Michigan. In addition to a very successful raccoon coat agency, Evans also had other interests in college: a wholesale tobacco shop (he sold to fraternities and sororities), and a sandwich shop.

Takes to the Air

A spectacular climb into the business world began right after his college stint ended.

With his brother, Ed, Jr. (who lives in Oldbrook lane today), Bob Evans founded the Evans Appliance Company.

Later on, they both joined the Evans Product Company, founded by Ed Evans, their father, to develop revolutionary auto and aircraft components, and, during the war, designed carrying equipment for military aircraft.

Still in college, Bob Evans had a keen interest in the infant airplane industry. In the hill country near Ann Arbor, Evans and some friends brought into existence the University of Michigan Glider School, after selling one of the school's deans on the idea.

Evans, who learned to glide in Germany in the '20s, was one of about three Americans who introduced the sport to this country.

The university gave the gliding buffs a machine shop for building and repairing the feather-light crafts. "And believe me, we were repairing them all the time," Evans recalls.

During the war, the Government, too, saw the value of gliders; it came to Evans for advice on how to train pilots and design planes.

Speed On Water

In the early '30s, Evans heard designer Charles F. Kettering musing one day on the properties of water. Although it is 800 times denser than air, it possesses much of the same relative characteristics, Kettering said.

This started a few wheels in Evans' mind; a few sketches were made, some models were assembled, and within a year Evans had almost doubled the speed of the fastest Chris-Craft boat of the day by installing home-built hydrofoils.

With the help of a souped-up engine donated by Edsel Ford, Evans drove his pioneer hydrofoil boats up and down the Detroit river, and established several restricted-horsepower world speed records.

Challenges Campbell

The speed interest sank deep, went below the surface for a few years, and re-emerged again a few years ago.

"In 1958, I had a trophy designed to give to the world speed record holder. The old configuration of a globe seemed trite and common, so instead I had the trophy made in the shape of the new U.N. Building," which represented the world as a whole.

Then Evans went to England to present the trophy to the record-holder, Donald Campbell, whose speed mark at the time was 225 miles per hour.

"In the presentation, I very foolishly made the remark that in four or five years I'd come back and take it away from him," Evans recalled.

"Then I went back home, and started to think about what I'd said," Evans recalled. He hired some designers, called in Les Staudacher, a top race driver, and told him his plans—Evans wanted to build a jet boat.

"The boat we had on the drawing board posed great aerodynamic problems. At these speeds, the hardest part is keeping the boat from becoming airborne."

The second Evans-Staudacher boat, Stars and Stripes II, gained the attention of the nation last summer as she tried to make a record run on Hubbard Lake in Northern Michigan.

Will Try Again

At about 290 miles per hour, on the glassy water, the rudder suddenly sheared off and the boat went wild and ran up on shore. Staudacher was seriously injured, the boat totally ruined.

Evans and Staudacher are now assembling Miss Stars and Stripes III, which may be ready by next spring. Meanwhile, the Staudacher Marine Industries, of which Evans is chairman, assembles virtually all of the Gold Cup race contenders (they've built 40 out of the 46 in contention today).

More delighted than anyone over the recent reawakening of local interest in the Gold Cup Race, Evans has a practical man's explanation for this Renaissance: "The thing that's reawakened interest on the part of drivers and builders is a nice fat prize purse," plus hard work on the part of dedicated men.

Last summer's race had the biggest field and the biggest attendance in the Cup's history.

Gives Up Driving

Evans, who once drove the boats he designed, resolved several years ago to let others take his boats on their speed runs. "My main reason for quitting was that I have a family and many responsibilities, things that can't be risked like that. And as a man gets older, his reflexes just aren't what they were."

The Evans family all share Bob's sports flare. His wife, the former Jane Cooper Preston, of Columbia, S.C., is a "fine shooter, and plays a good game of golf," her husband observed. Their daughter Jane, 23, recently married to stock broker Ridgely Foster, of Palm Beach, took to skiing, and a handful of other sports as a child, in the best Evans tradition.

Bob, Jr., 18, an excellent skier and swimmer, has also joined the growing arm of Honda-hopping motorcycle enthusiasts.

The word enthusiasm: a timely tag for the Evans family. On the move, in the air, skin diving in the Bahamas, playing golf at the Country Club, a quite satisfactory, and inwardly-rewarding way of life.

To Hold Sale At St. James

The annual fall rummage sale of the St. James Lutheran Women's Guild will be held Thursday, October 8, at the church from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

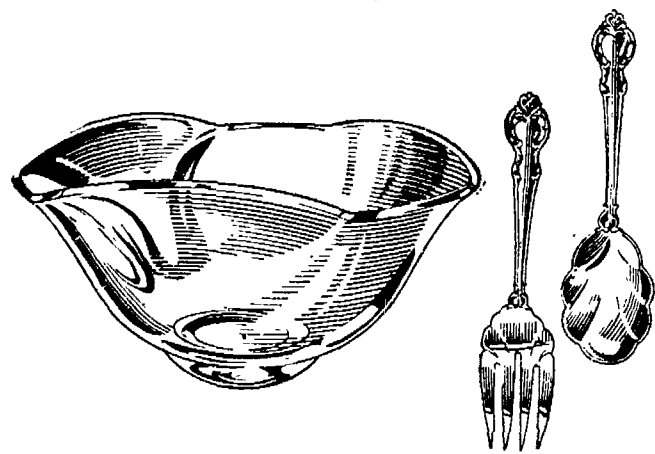

Mrs. Ralph Huisanga, chairman, reports a good selection of merchandise. One special feature of the sale is the popular French room where gift items and better quality clothing will be sold.

The key to it all is motion. As Bob Evans observed: "You know, you can have the most beautiful auto in the world sitting at the curb outside your house. As long as it's out of gear—where's it going to get you?"
