Thursday, November 12
A POSTPONEMENT of the proposed international Communist meeting, which was scheduled for December, was agreed upon by the new Soviet leaders, according to sources close to a foreign Communist delegation. The meeting was intended to convene a world Communist conference on the Chinese-Russian rift. Instead the Soviet Communists plan to hold further discussions with the Chinese Communists. This report on the postponement of the meeting was the first indication that progress had been made in the talks between the Soviet leaders and Chou En-lai, the Chinese Communist Premier who has been in Moscow to take part in last week's celebration of the Bolshevik Revolution.

BRITAIN'S NEW LABOR government submitted yesterday a budget to the House of Commons which was aimed at creating a "dynamic" economy. It raises taxes but widens the welfare benefits of widows' and war pensions, gives additional help to the very poor and removes prescription charges for medicine. Tax increases include one on the "standard" income tax rate paid by 7 million of the country's taxpayers and one on gasoline and motor oil.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, who met with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, said yesterday that the $550 million in Federal "nuisance" taxes should be eliminated next year. That will be the minimum asked of Congress but dozens of other excise taxes may be reduced or repealed. It is expected that items that are bought each day at stores, such as cosmetics and wallets, would be the first to be eliminated.

Friday, November 13
WITH A DEADLINE set for Monday on the selection of items not to be included in the Kennedy Round of tariff-cutting negotiations, the Common Market's Council of Ministers failed yesterday to come to any agreement on them. Meantime a committee of experts will continue to study the problem of what products should be included in the list. Delegates were pessimistic and spoke of the possibility of postponing the deadline to December 15.

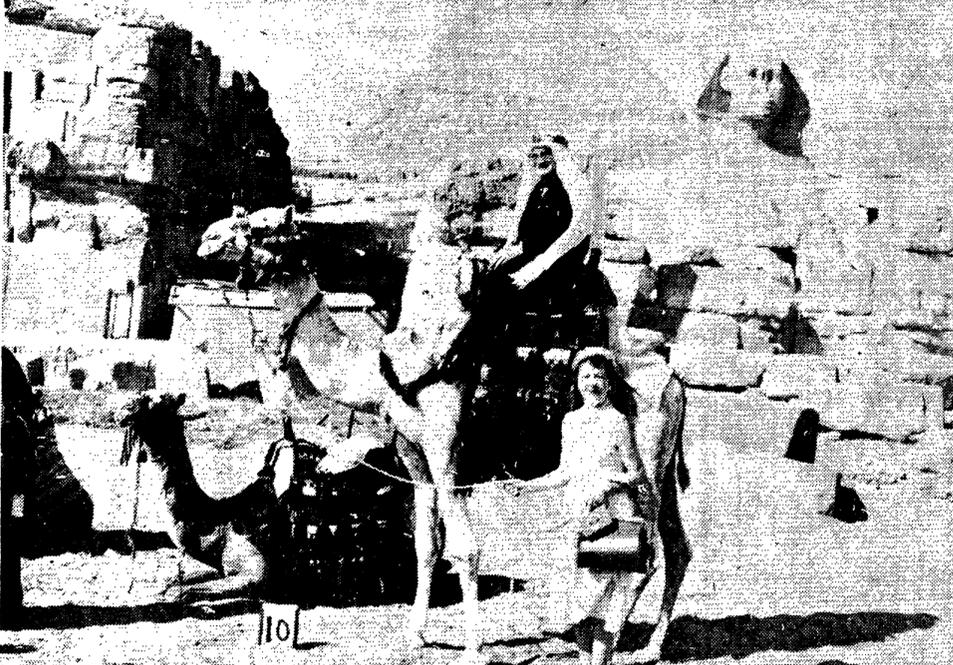

A MOVE TO POSTPONE a fund-raising conference for United Nations technical assistance until the hassle over the Soviet Union's unpaid assessments has subsided has been rejected by Secretary General of the United Nations, U Thant, Canada, Japan and Italy made the request to delay the conference until after December 1 when the General Assembly meets. The Assembly is the body which must deal with the Soviet's unpaid debt. A UN spokesman said later that U Thant turned down the move because he did not believe there was enough time to notify the countries invited to attend.

AFTER A WEEK of strikes at eight plants, the Ford Motor Company announced in Detroit yesterday that 33,500 production employees at 24 plants would be laid off. The action was taken as a result of the growing shortages of parts and from the lack of outlets for some of the parts that could be manufactured. Meantime negotiators for the company and the striking United Automobile Workers Union continued their efforts to resolve differences over the local issues that began the walkouts.

Saturday, November 14
THE UNITED STATES and West Germany announced agreements which call for continued large-scale, (nearly $700 million a year), German purchases of American arms and military equipment. A major new item is the order of three modern missile destroyers, to be delivered after 1969.

IN A 45 MINUTE news conference, Senator Barry Goldwater said that this year's election may have proven a need to realign the major political parties. He suggested that the CANDLER, enjoying a world tour following his retirement, are pictured in the Sphinx and Pyramid area of Egypt, with the popular physician perched jauntily aboard a desert cruiser. Dr. Candler rated the Pointer of Interest spot on the feature page because of his work with the Grosse Pointe Woods police department, handling hundreds of accident and other emergency cases at all hours of the day or night.

To Improve Lighting in The Village

Kercheval Business Men's Association Proposal Approved by GP City Council

A proposed change in street lighting in the Kercheval avenue business district, The Village, from Cadieux to Neff, was approved by the Grosse Pointe City Council at its regular meeting of Monday, November 16.

The conversion, which will cost $943, is to be underwritten by the Kercheval Business Men's Association. The Association felt that more adequate lighting would contribute to the business and the safety of this area, and a report from Chief of Police Terrett stated that the present lighting is inadequate and should be changed to aid pedestrians and patrolling officers.

The council accepted a $51,000 bid for the purchase of city property on East Jefferson at Rathbone, commonly known as the Unitarian Church property. The land, which was called "unsaleable" by the Taxpayers Information Committee in September, was purchased by the Richard M. Kimbrough Company.

The Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, which opened on Tuesday, September 29, at Mack near Moran, requested a $1,000 donation from the City to help defer the initial cost of operating until state and federal funds can be obtained. The request, which already has been granted by the

Pointe Schools to Honor Late President Kennedy On Anniversary of Death

Tree Planting Ceremonies, Followed by Brief Programs, Will Commemorate the Passing of a Great American

Nine of the 14 public schools in the Pointe School System will commemorate the first anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, which falls on Sunday, November 22.

The schools will plant one tree each in memory of the late president, who was killed by an assassin's bullet in Dallas, Tex. After the plantings, a brief program will be held in the participating schools.

The idea of commemorating this tragic event was instigated by Dr. Albert C. Howe, Jr., a Detroit dentist, who has his offices at 20055 Mack, at Kenmore.

Dr. Howe wrote a letter to Dr. Charles H. Wilson, superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools, last August 14, pointing out the fact that the world and the nation will note the passing of a good and great American, John F. Kennedy.

The dentist stated that much has been spoken and done in the way of tribute since that time, and believes that this should be continued.

He suggested that a joint student-faculty project, consisting of a tree planting ceremony be held at each school in the Pointe System, on or about November 22.

Dr. Howe suggested that capital could be raised by whatever manner deemed appropriate, and any excess funds be sent to the Kennedy Memorial Library. This would enable each person to be a participant in a living memorial, he added.

Dr. Wilson, in reply, thanked

Dr. Howe for his suggestion, which he stated, deserves careful consideration by the various schools.

Concert Set For Sunday Symphony

Pointe Musicians Open Season at Parcels School at 3:30 O'clock; Former Member Mario DiFiore Slated to Be Soloist

The gala opening concert of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will take place on Sunday afternoon, November 22, at the Parcels School Auditorium, at 3:30 o'clock.

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Society approaches its 12th season with great pleasure by presenting its former young orchestra member, cellist Mario DiFiore, as guest artist.

This will be Mr. DiFiore's debut in solo performance with symphony. He is currently a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The musical performance will be under the leadership of Felix Resnick, official conductor of the orchestra.

The afternoon's concert program will include: Overture to "Egmont" by Beethoven; Symphony No. 40 in G Minor by Mozart; Serenade for Cello and Orchestra by Donanyi and Rhapsody No. 1, in A Major by Enesco.

Society president Camilla Ayers and board members cordially extend an invitation to their members and guests to a reception which will follow the concert. At this time concertgoers will meet and visit with friends and members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society, the guest artist, orchestra players and conductor.

Members of the Board include: Mrs. Raymond B. Baer, Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, Mrs. Walter J. Burczyk, Dr. Robert J. Grossen, Robert Downie III, Mrs. John Ehrlich, Edward P. Frohlich, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Thomas V. LoCicero, Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, George F. Mehling, Mrs. Alfred D. Moran, Thomas Nester, Robert M. Orr, Mrs. Mary Purcell and Mrs. Flavio Vancicelli.

Tea chairman, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, with Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen assisting, will have attractive table settings done in an Autumn symphony of colors.

Acting as hostesses for the afternoon's social will be: Miss Camilla Ayers, Miss Gerda Bielitz, Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Robert Kaiser, Mrs. John W. Nelson and Miss Giri Sztano.

Ushers for the concert will include the following young set of Grosse Pointe: Elizabeth Campbell, Nancy Chase, Jackie Delaney, Linda Kress, Tessie Petersen and Jeanne Struthers. In charge of the ushers will

Action to Launch Big Project Taken By Farms Council

Seeks Bids for Bonds to Finance Building of Pool and Other Improvements at Pier-Park; Whitcomb Gift of Land Disclosed

Adhering to a mandate of three-fifths of its voters, the Farms council on Monday, November 16, approved a resolution for bids for the sale of $500,000 in general obligation bonds for improvements, including a swimming pool, at the Municipal Pier-Park.

At present, the Farms is the only Pointe that has no swimming pool in its park, located at the foot of Moross road.

The bond issue will raise money, not only for the pool, but for the construction of additional boat mooring spaces, and for additional picnic and recreational area in the park.

City Attorney George McKean informed the council that additional picnic and recreational area has been made possible by the generosity of Mrs. Vera B. Whitcomb of 383 Lake Shore road, who deeded a 150-foot wide strip of her property between the road and the seawall to the Farms. She gave the city the property, including all riparian rights, on behalf of herself and her late husband, James S. Whitcomb, he said. The property is north of the park.

Want Submerged Land
McKean also informed the council that now that the city has the deed to this strip of property, an application will be made immediately to the State Conservation Department for the purchase of lake bottom lands to expand the park.

If the State approves the purchase of the submerged land, and the land is filled, a plaque in this section of the park will be erected in honor of Mrs. Whitcomb and her late husband, with the legend that it was donated in memory of Mr. Whitcomb.

W. B. Edwards, professional engineer, who drew up the plans for the proposed swimming pool, presented the plans to the Farms council at Monday night's meeting, stating that a few minor changes had to be made, including the elimination of a wading pool. A revised plan will be presented to the council at its next meeting on December 7, he said.

He said the wading pool would be too close to the sun-deck of the swimming pool, and besides, if a wading pool is desired, it will be on Page 2.

Public Schools Enroll 11,473

Charles Wilson, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, has announced that the total enrollment of the schools, as of the end of October, is up 419 students over the same period in 1963.

The enrollment at the end of October 1963 was 11,054 compared to 11,473 at the end of October this year.

The 1964 total when broken down, is 6,081 in elementary school, 2,718 in junior high and 2,674 at the High School. At the end of October last year there were 5,945 students in elementary school, 2,553 in junior high and 2,556 attending the high school.

Burglar Ransacks, Loots Homes in Shores, Woods

A home in the Shores, and another in the Woods, were the targets of a burglar during the weekend of Saturday and Sunday, November 14 and 15, according to police reports. The robber is believed to be the same person in each break-in.

Entered were the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Peters of 24 Roslyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiper of 496 Deeplands. Both families were out of town when the burglaries occurred.

Mr. Peters told Shores police that he and his wife were out of the Pointe on a trip, and returned home to find the rear window broken, through which police surmised the burglar had entered. An unsuccessful attempt was made to get into the house by forcing the milk chute at the west side of the house.

State Forces Move to End Violations

Citizens Asked to Approve Project Rejected at Polls During Primary Election

An election date of Monday, February 15, is expected to be set by the City of Grosse Pointe Council for voting on the $1,325,000 storm sewer relief bonding issue, which was defeated in the September 1 election.

At the Monday, November 16, meeting, the Council had adopted a resolution setting the date for election on January 26, but the following day a letter sent from Governor Romney ordered that a special election be held on February 15 to choose a successor to the late Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan.

Therefore the Council has set a special meeting for Monday, November 23, to change the bond issue election day also to February 15.

Rejected at Primaries
The proposed sewer bond issue was rejected by a close 915-826 vote despite the fact that officials of the Michigan Board of Health had called the existing sewer system a "critical hazard" to the health of the community and asked that action be taken to correct the dangerous unsanitary conditions that arise from periodic flooding.

At the Monday, November 16 meeting, the City Council adopted a resolution to revoke on this issue which asks for an increase in taxes of about $3.25 a year per $1,000 of assessed property evaluation over the next 20 years.

Besides the election, scheduled to be held at Maire School, the Council approved a resolution to hold its December 21 meeting at the school gymnasium for public discussion on the bonding proposal. With the change in the election date, the public hearing is being changed to Monday, January 18.

State Issues Edict
In September City Manager John Cantwell stated that the State Board is "empowered to compel action on our bad sewer system if we do not take immediate action ourselves." So when the bond issue was defeated, the Board sent the City on September 18, a letter expressing its concern over the flooding of raw sewage into Lake St. Clair and into residents' basements, and demanding that some action be taken.

The Board suggested issuance of revenue bonds which, however, have a higher interest rate and are not deductible because they would be paid out of increased water and sewage treatment bills rather than through direct property taxes.

The board wrote "We regret that the voters rejected this proposal... but under any condition we ask that steps be taken to eliminate the problem."

Amounts to Revote
Therefore, the City Council decided to revote on the original, less costly, proposal for general obligation bonds.

Cantwell said that the backup of sewage into homes has happened annually for the last 17 years and that this fall more than 50 residents reported flooded basements.

For several years the City has violated the known health standards by pumping sewage into a storm sewer drain at Lakeland and Jefferson.

According to the City's consulting engineers, George Jerome and Co., further problems involve the city's interceptor sewer, running parallel to the Fox Creek barrel and draining most of the storm water north of Jefferson avenue, which is not built for its present load, and the dumping of storm water into the Fox Creek barrel which is already frequently overloaded.

Shotgun Wielding Bandit Holds Up Mack Avenue Bar

A masked, shotgun wielding bandit held up a Park bar, shortly after the place opened for business Monday morning, November 16, and escaped with a large sum of cash after forcing a woman bartender and two patrons into the kitchen at gun point.

A relative of the bar owner, one of the patrons, dashed out of the kitchen in pursuit of the robber, and was threatened with death by the gunman if he did not stop the chase.

The relative, Alex Verdonck of 1475 Maryland, stopped Patrolman Henry Wilson, who was cruising by, and informed him of the holdup. The officer radioed the station, where an all-point alarm was sent over the area police radio.

All Park police cars were sent to the area, as well as several from the other Pointes, and from Detroit, which dispatched scout cars to aid Pointe police in the search for the robber. However the bandit made good his escape.

According to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, the holdup man entered the Verdonck Cafe, 15300 Mack avenue, at Beaconsfield, through an alley entrance, carrying a 16-gauge shotgun.

The gunman pointed the firearm at the bartender, Irene VanDersypppe of 3447 Eastlawn, Detroit, and demanded all the money from the cash register.

When the woman opened the register drawer to give the bandit its contents, the holdup man said, "Never mind, I'll do this myself," and grabbed approximately $250, and stuffed the

Church Holding Drive for Blood

The Red Cross Blood Mobile will visit St. Matthew Church, which is located at Whittier and Harper, on November 23 from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. The collection center will be set up in the school gym.

Residents are asked to donate a pint of blood for St. Matthew or as a replacement for blood received for a patient from a hospital or another account.

The only requirements for donors are that they be within the ages of 18 to 60 years and in good general health. If, however, a donor is between the ages of 18 and 21 and not married, he must have a parent or guardian's written consent.

For further information, call John or Irene Rupprecht, chairmen, at TU 1-2134.

WALLET STOLEN

Mrs. Lucy Bell Grace of 498 Rivard boulevard, an employee at Dants, 98 Kercheval, called Farms police on Wednesday, November 11, and informed them that someone entered the store, and stole her wallet from her purse in a cupboard at the center of the store. The wallet contained personal papers and $27 in cash, she said. She did not notice the loss until after she left the place.

sired in the near future, it can be constructed at another location in the pier-park, at a cost of approximately $2,000.

To Have Racing Lanes
The proposed swimming pool, he said, will be according to specifications set by the Amateur Athletics Union, including a laned area where races can be held. A section of the pool will be constructed to hold two and half to three feet of water, so that beginners can learn to swim.

Edwards said that he had hoped to have the plans completed by Monday night's meeting, but the last minute changes prevented this.

He said that once the bond bids are approved by the council, excavation for the pool can begin next month. Anytime later than December will be too late to start excavating, Edwards said, because the frost would have settled into the ground.

He said that if everything goes according to schedule, the new pool will be ready by Memorial Day in May, the official opening day for all parks.

Voters Favored Plan
Councilman Ledyard Mitchell pointed out to his colleagues, that Proposition III, the $500,000 bond issue, was favored by more than 60 per cent of the voters in each of the city's seven precincts, with the highest, 74 percent, recorded in Precinct 7.

The total estimated cost of the pool and site work is $230,000, and the maintenance cost is estimated at about $15,000 a year. The pool itself will cost an estimated $190,000.

The general obligation bonds, for the total improvements in the pier-park, will cost the city taxpayers about 80 cents per $1,000 local assessed valuation. The bonds can be retired in 20 years.

Session Slated By Camera Club

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will hold its monthly social and educational meeting at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center next Tuesday, November 24. Time is 8 o'clock.

Feature of the meeting will be a showing of black and white prints from the Photography Society of America with an accompanying explanatory lecture. Refreshments will be served the show. Guests of members and the public are invited.

Pointer Wins Honors At Naval Academy

Midshipman Second Class Jack W. Stephenson Jr., 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Stephenson of 475 Fisher road, has been named to the Superintendent's List for the first half of the first semester at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

To be selected for the Superintendent's List a midshipman must have an approximate B average with no individual grade lower than C in academic subjects, an aptitude mark and conduct mark of B or better, satisfactory status in physical education, and a recommendation by the Commandant of Midshipmen.

Twenty-eight per cent of the 4,000 midshipmen are now on the Superintendent's List.

The programs would also automate the City pumping station in Charlevoix avenue to save the expense of three salaried men necessary to run the present setup.

The $1,325,000 figure includes $559,900 for sanitary relief sewers, $706,800 for storm relief sewers, and $58,300 for repair and automation of the pumping station.

3-Car Accident Occurs on Mack

A Detroit motorist was given a violation ticket for not having his car under control and causing a three-car accident at Mack and Anita, on Sunday, November 15. One person was taken to the hospital for treatment of a whiplashed neck.

According to Patrolman Theodore Hinz, the investigating officer, Allen L. Kubic, 20, of 2159 East Outer drive, was driving south on Mack, and crashed into the rear of a car driven by Joseph E. Brister, 20, of 22156 Lambrecht, East Detroit, who was slowing down because of a stopped car in front of him.

Brister was forced into the rear of a car driven by Joseph C. Brown, 62, of 1815 Roslyn, who was stopped for a traffic light.

A passenger in Brister's automobile, Miss Arlene Cartile, 18, of 22965 Pleasant, St. Clair Shores, complained of a sore neck, and was taken to St. John Hospital for treatment.

Hinz issued Kubic a violation ticket, and scheduled a court date for January 16.

Burglar Ransacks Homes

Deeplands late in the afternoon, noticed the front door ajar. The officers checked and found items scattered all over the floor and dresser drawers pulled out and dumped.

The policemen called for assistance and Woods Patrolman Theodore Hinz and Shores Patrolman Stanley Otulakowski were dispatched to the scene.

Hinz covered the front, and Goodman the back of the house, while Tobian and Otulakowski searched inside. The latter two said they found the interior of the place in shambles. They said every room had been ransacked.

Tobian and Goodman apparently must have frightened away the burglar, it is believed, when Goodman found musical instruments in the backyard, left there by the thief.

Found were a flute in a blue case, and a trumpet in a gray case. Also found were two Kodak automatic cameras, each in a brown leather bag.

Entrance into the home was gained by forcing the outer and inner doors of the milk chute, and reaching in and unlocking the side door.

When he returned home,

Disc-jockey, Dave Prince of radio station W.X.Y.Z. will spin records for the "Turkey Trot" teen dance Friday evening at Notre Dame High School, 20254 Kelly Road, Harper Woods. The dance begins at 8:00 p.m. and will end at 11:00 p.m. Donation is 75 cents.

Kiper told police that he was in Chicago overnight. He said that the thief took a lady's yellow gold bracelet wrist watch, valued at $100, an lady's antique yellow gold opal ring, with three opals, valued at $125, and a .22 caliber bolt action rifle, value not known.

Kiper told authorities that his daughter was still out of town, and it will not be known if she is missing anything, until she returns.

Bar Held Up

(Continued from Page 1) money into his pocket. The robber then ordered the woman, Verdonck and another patron into the kitchen, then fled through the rear door.

Verdonck, a nephew of Maurice Verdonck, owner of the bar, dashed out of the kitchen in pursuit of the bandit.

The chase went west on Beaconsfield, through private property to an alley between Beaconsfield and Lakepointe, where the gunman whirled, pointed the gun at Verdonck and snarled, "Stay back! I've got two shots in this gun and I'll give you both of 'em."

The bandit continued south through the alley to Charlevoix and disappeared.

The gunman was described as being white, 22-26 years old, weighing 130-140 pounds, wearing a black mask, a tan trench coat with a matching hunter-type cap, and dark trousers.

Valuables Lost By Movie Patron

Mrs. Elma Van Luven of 15330 Hillcourt, Roseville, lost an envelope containing a yellow gold engagement ring, a loose diamond, and a gold charm bracelet, while attending a movie at the Woods Theater on Monday, November 9.

Mrs. Van Luven told Woods police that while at the movie, her young daughter apparently must have gone through her purse, and the envelope could have dropped out.

She said when she discovered her loss, she checked with the manager of the theater, who disclosed that someone had turned in the envelope, sans the ring, diamond and bracelet. The value of the ring was not given, but Mrs. Van Luven said the bracelet is valued at $25.

She told police that the ring, and the diamond, which was loose from its mounting, and the bracelet, were to be taken to a jeweler for repairs.

Two Boys Bitten By Dog in City

Two young boys were bitten in separate incidents by a black and tan German Shepherd owned by Frank W. Donovan, 17160 East Jefferson, on Sunday, November 15.

Taken to Bon Secours hospital was John Donnelly, 11, of 411 Lakeland, who was bitten on the left leg while walking west from Lakeland along the breakwall.

Later, Michael Pandy, 11, of 33 Newberry, was bitten on the calf of the right leg.

Schools Observe Education Week

The Mason School faculty, parents and children participated in special activities this past week in observance of National Education Week.

Or, Monday, November 9, Miss Pauline Sagala, Library Club Sponsor, and Mrs. John Erickson, Assistant, accompanied the school Library Club and guests to the Children's Book Fair at Wayne State University.

The robber then ordered the boys played host to members of other Mason School clubs: The Audio-Visual Club, Safety Boys, Service Girls and representatives of third and fourth grade classrooms. At the fair author Maurice Sendak, winner of the 1963 Caldecott Award, spoke to the group and later autographed the school's two copies of his award winning book, "Where The Wild Things Are," at the request of Gary Bennett, Library Club chairman.

Also on Monday, Larry Gagnon, Principal, met in the school library with new resident parents in the Mason School district for an afternoon coffee hour and quiz session pertaining to the school's curriculum.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons of the past week were set aside for parents of sixth graders to listen to tape recordings of political debates on those issues concerning the recent presidential election.

The Mason School P.T.A. meeting Thursday evening, November 12, brought to a conclusion this special week's activities. Following room visitation and a short business meeting, the parents and faculty were addressed by Dr. Armin Grams. His topic was "The Parent's Role in the Education of the Child."

To Give Paper For Geologists

Roger W. Kolvoord of Lakepointe avenue has been invited to give a paper before the national meeting of the Geological Society of America, Miami Beach, Fla., on Saturday, November 21.

The Geological Society of America is the parent organization for all the various scientific societies in the earth sciences. This is, for the profession as a whole, the most important meeting of the year. The paper, "A Reconnaissance of the System BeO-A12O 3H2O", by Roger W. Kolvoord and J. A. Whelan, has to do with beryllium and beryllium compounds, and presents the end results of two years of research and experiment.

Roger is a graduate of the Grosse Pointe High School, received his Bachelor of Science degree in geology from the University of Michigan, and his Master of Science in mineral-

Lochlana® — a sinfully luxurious new shirting by Hathaway

It Feels Like Cashmere and Wears Like Wool

This year, give him something you KNOW he doesn't have. Lochlana shirts by Hathaway are a sumptuous gift.

Lochlana is a princely mixture of cotton and wool, woven in a remote European mill. Both yarns are blended in every single thread, creating a fabric of warmth and creamy-smooth texture.

More good news. A Lochlana shirt should last for at least five years. It will never fade or mat. Neither will it shrink—even in laundries.

TRINOVID BINOCULARS

Creators of the world-famous Leica camera have perfected a new prism system that dramatically reduces binocular size and weight. It's the first truly significant binocular advancement in fifty years. The Trinovid 6x24 panoramic 636-foot-wide viewing field at 1000 yards is an amazing 40% larger than conventional models. The 8x32 and even the 10x40 are more compact than conventional glasses of much lower power. And all Trinovid models have fast-action central focusing, are hermetically sealed, dustproof and absolutely waterproof.

To Hear Talk By Missionary

Miss Harriet Yarrow, noted educational missionary in Turkey for the United Church of Christ, will speak at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church on Sunday, November 22, at 7 p.m. The public is invited to hear Miss Yarrow, and view slides and exhibits which she is expected to present. Dessert will be served.

Now on furlough, Miss Yarrow has taught English at the American Collegiate Institute at Izmir, Turkey, since 1948. She first went to Turkey in 1927 and has served in Istanbul and Tarsus as well as Izmir.

Founded in 1877, the American Collegiate Institute enrolls 560 girl students from all parts of Turkey and has 51 instructors, both Turkish and American. Girls come to the Institute at about 12 years of age, after finishing the Turkish elementary school course. The subjects offered are the same as those taught in American schools.

Izmir, a seaport city of 398,000, is the Smyrna of the New Testament and one of the seven Churches of Asia to whom messages, now a part of the Book of the Revelations, were sent by John.

In addition to teaching English, Miss Yarrow does liaison work with the Alumnae Association, a women's service organization that gives scholarships, social gifts and emergency relief.

Born in Oakland, Cal., in 1902, Miss Yarrow attended Northfield Seminary from 1917 to 1920. She received her B.A. degree from Wellesley College in 1924, her M.A. from Columbia University in 1934 and did graduate work at the Catholic University, Washington, D.C., Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, Stanford University, Stanford, California and Chicago University, Chicago, Illinois.

The United Church Board for World Ministries, under which Miss Yarrow serves, is the overseas agency of the United Church of Christ, a union of Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The Board's overseas staff includes more than 500 missionaries . . . teachers, doctors, nurses, social workers and evangelists. They are working with some 16,000 nationals in 1,200 schools and colleges, 80 hospitals and clinics, 35 social service centers and 3,000 churches in 25 countries.

Burglar Steals Television Set

A milkman, making his rounds on Monday, November 9, discovered the side door of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffith, 1775 Manchester, had been forced open, and called Woods police.

The milkman, Harry Hahn, of 17154 Alcoy, Detroit, told police that he was collecting empty milk bottles from the Griffith residence, when he noticed the side door ajar. He said he knew the family was away for the weekend, and somehow felt something was amiss.

Investigating officers found pry marks on the rear door of the house, on the bathroom window, and on a screen, from the window, tossed into the back yard.

The policemen checked the house, and it appeared that nothing was disturbed. They said they saw an empty television stand in the living room.

When the Griffiths returned home, they called the authorities and disclosed that the person who entered their house had stolen their portable television set. Nothing else seemed to have been taken, they said.

Meeting Called By PTA Council

Arthur G. Sherman, Jr., President of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council, has announced that the group's next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday, November 23, at the Central Library.

Main speaker will be Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools. He will give a progress report on current plans for the proposed second senior high school recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee to alleviate the district's enrollment crush.

The meeting is open to representatives of the Executive Boards of the PTA organizations throughout the school district.

4 Teens Nabbed As Car Thieves

Four teenagers, two boys and two girls, were arrested by Park police on Sunday, November 15, after a car and foot chase through city streets, and charged with stealing a car in Detroit. They were released to Detroit authorities.

According to Park police, the driver of the stolen car was given a ticket for reckless driving by Patrolman William Furtaw, who spotted the stolen car and gave chase.

In his report, the police officer stated that he was cruising in his scout car at Somerset and Vernor, at 2:03 p.m., when he noticed a car ahead of him with the four teenagers. He checked his "hot sheet" and found that the vehicle bore the license number of a car that was reported stolen in Detroit. This was verified by a call to the station.

After asking for assistance, Furtaw sped after the car, and was spotted by the driver, who stepped on the gas, and took off at high speed in an attempt to escape.

The chase led west on Kercheval to Balfour, north on Balfour to Vernor, west on Vernor back to Somerset, where the driver stopped the vehicle suddenly in the middle of the street, and all four teenagers jumped out of the car and fled on foot.

Furtaw, who was very close to the pursued car, stopped just as suddenly, jumped out of his scout car, and chased the boys and girls on foot. He captured the driver, a 16-year-old Detroit boy, at the rear of 1401 Somerset.

Police Sgt. Henry Counce and Patrolman Bobby McAlister, dispatched to assist Furtaw, joined the foot chase and rounded up the other teenagers, an 18-year-old girl, a 16-year-old girl, and another 16-year-old boy, all from Detroit. The teenagers were taken to the station, where the younger ones admitted that they took the car, and that the older girl did not know that the vehicle had been stolen until the chase began.

The younger teens confessed that they stole the car from a lot of an auto sales agency at 9043 Chalmers, Detroit, on Saturday, November 14, parked it at another location, then returned to it the following day. All four teenagers were released to police of Detroit's Jefferson Avenue Station, Fifth Precinct, for further investigation.

Club Has Special Holiday Schedule

The Neighborhood Club is providing open gym activities for members and guests at various schools in the community. Special arrangements have been made for the Thanksgiving weekend on Friday, November 27.

Brownell Jr. High gym will be available from 10-12 noon for 7-12 year old boys and girls and from noon to 5 p.m. for Jr. and Sr. High boys. The Games room area also will be set up with pool tables, ping-pong and table games.

On Saturday, November 28, the same schedule will be carried out at Brownell, while at Maire School open gym activities will be held from 10-12 noon for girls ages 7-12 and from 12:30-2:30 p.m. for boys ages 7-12. A membership or guest fee will admit participants to the programs.

7 Cases Heard In City Court

Judge Douglas L. Paterson heard seven cases in Grosse Pointe City's Justice Court on Tuesday, November 10.

In two cases he found the defendants guilty but suspended their sentences. Edward F. Gehrig of 1230 Balfour was charged with reckless driving but found guilty of interfering with moving traffic. In the second case, Erlene Lois Daly of 10019 Nottingham, Detroit was convicted of speeding 35 m.p.h. and fined $10. Elizabeth Eades of 649 Rivard, who had been charged with reckless driving was convicted of driving without due care and caution. She was fined $15.

Also found guilty of driving without due care and caution was Bruno F. Domzalski of 31208 Share avenue, St. Clair Shores. He was originally charged with reckless driving. In addition to a $35 fine, Domzalski was put on six month probation and told to attend four sessions of traffic court. Leon Arthur Palonis of 4148

Beaconsfield, Detroit was found guilty of driving on a revoked license, fined $20 and told to attend four sessions of drivers school.

The case against Eleanor Miller of 254 Mt. Vernon was dismissed. She was found not guilty of a reckless driving charge.

In the seventh case Fred M. Gerow was found guilty of being a disorderly person under the preserving of public peace section of the ordinance. A minor, he had attempted to purchase alcoholic beverage. He was fined $25.

St. Paul Parents Get Invitation

By Ellen Kennedy
 On November 17, 18 and 19, moms and dads of St. Paul grade and high school students will trade kitchen and office for classroom and teacher.

Purpose: to discuss the progress of their children. On these days, report cards will be given by the teachers in parent-teacher conferences from 2-5 and from 6-9.

Parents whose last names begin with the letters from A-G will report on Tuesday; those beginning with G-N on Wednesday, and those from N-Z on Thursday for the conferences. These conferences provide an opportunity for parents and teachers to confer on what each child is capable of doing and on what work he has accomplished so far in school.

He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour; but he that seeketh mischief it shall come unto him.

Rose Society Meets Nov. 27

The November meeting of the Detroit Rose Society will be held on Friday, November 27, at 8 p.m. in the WWJ Auditorium, West Lafayette at Second avenue.

Seven rose experts, Fred Rogalski, Mrs. Frank Howell, Joseph Nufer, Henry Webb, Ernest Schoensee, George Magee and Jack Jominy, men and women who have received the designation of Consulting Rosarians in the Greater Metropolitan area, will be talking on topics of interest to every rose grower in the area.

"Roses for the Garden," "Growing Roses for Exhibition," "Soils," "Winter Protection," "New Roses in Commerce" and you name it—they will talk about it.

East Side MSU Club Wins Award

The East Side Michigan State University Alumni Club was awarded the honor of "Best New Alumni Club Nationally" at the Alumni awards banquet in East Lansing on October 23. The award was based on the club's 1963-64 activities and contributions to Michigan State.

The club serves Michigan State through its 1500 alumni located in the suburbs of Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods, St. Clair Shores and East Detroit.

Events so far this fall include an Alumni Kickoff party at the Goebel Brewery on September 17, football luncheons on October 1, 22, and November 6; and a football bus excursion to East Lansing on November 7 for the Michigan State-Purdue game.

Calendar of events to come during the 1964-65 year:

November 30 — Presidents Banquet for business and community leaders from the East Side area, Golden Lion Restaurant. President John A. Hannah, Guest Speaker.

January 11 — Winter meeting, Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Football film "Highlights of the 64 Season."

February 13 — Second Annual Scholarship Dinner Dance.

March — MSU Development Fund Dinner for Wayne County. President John A. Hannah, Guest Speaker.

March 31 — Concert by the 100 member Michigan State Singers.

April — Wine Tasting Party.

May — Michigan State Development Fund "Phon-A-Thon."

Officers for the 1964-65 year are: president, Robert C. McGee; Wedgewood drive; vice president, John Strongman; Vernier road; treasurer, James Bozarth; Lancaster; secretary, Mrs. Donald Shier; Englehardt, St. Clair Shores; and program chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Kelly, Lincoln road.

Interested alumni not receiving current mailings should contact Mr. McGee at 886-2528.

Minor Accidents Reported in City

Four minor accidents occurred in the City during the three day period of November 10, 11 and 12.

No tickets were issued on Tuesday, November 10, when Antoinette Jump of 10326 Somerset, going east on Mack, failed to stop and hit a car driven by Frank Liszewski of 8135 Molena, Detroit. Liszewski was turning left from Mack onto Bluehill.

On Wednesday, November 11, a car driven by Margaret Blair of 905 Beaconsfield was hit on the right side by a car driven by Mary Paddock of 114 Lefiston. She had stopped at a stop sign at the corner of Notre Dame and Maumee, proceeded into the intersection when the Paddock car struck hers.

On the same day Anastasios Hadjiriganis of 1240 Beaconsfield tangled with a Lakeshore Coach Lines bus driven by Bobby Lee Criswell of 63 Temple, Detroit. The car and bus were going east on Kercheval when they scraped sides. Tickets were issued to both drivers for reckless driving.

Wilbert Myers of 4667 Anderson, Detroit, was given a ticket for reckless driving on Thursday, November 12 when he struck the rear of a car driven by Dominic Mazzola of 27804 Joan, St. Clair Shores, which in turn hit the car of Byron Adams of 12605 Bon Brae, St. Clair Shores. Myers had failed to see the Adams and Mazzola cars stop. The accident occurred at Jefferson and Notre Dame.

Pointe Players Doing Classic

Pointe Players, Grosse Pointe High School Dramatic Club, announces its production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," a play by Joseph Kesselring, to be presented on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 19, 20 and 21, at 8:15 p.m.

For information concerning tickets call TU 1-6814.

Kennedy Books Given Schools

In memory of the late President John F. Kennedy, the executive board of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Club is presenting copies of the new book, "The Kennedy Years" to several high schools in Grosse Pointe.

Libraries at Grosse Pointe High School, Grosse Pointe University School, St. Ambrose High School and St. Paul High School will receive copies of the volume, published by Viking Press.

The book, which has been assembled and edited by "The New York Times" covers the entire span of President Kennedy's public career. It is a full chronological account in book form and includes hundreds of pictures, many of them never before published, as well as many direct quotations from the papers' news and editorial columns.

Church Showing Stirring Movie

"Question 7," a timely and tension-packed motion picture of conscience under test in East Germany, will be seen here in a special showing on Friday, November 20, at Christ the King Lutheran Church, corner of Mack and Lochmoor.

The title "Question 7" refers to a questionnaire that children in East German public schools are forced to answer before they can continue with advanced studies. Only those whose answers are politically reliable are chosen. Thus the questionnaire becomes a supreme test for a boy who is forced to choose between what is easy and expedient and what is right and honorable.

The incidents depicted in "Question 7" are true. They are based on interviews with thousands of refugees who have fled to West Germany and hundreds more still remaining behind in East Germany. It is a motion picture which has won 22 major awards and has been selected "best film of the year" by the National Board of Review. The National Legion of Decency has strongly recommended it to every moviegoer.

Prominent European actors play roles in "Question 7," directed by Emmy award winner Stuart Rosenberg, who directs many of the nighttime television dramas. The film was produced by Lothar Wolff of Louis de Rochemont Associates. It was shot on location in West Germany within sight of the East Zone guard towers and in Berlin before the Brandenburg Gate.

Farms Submits Building Report

Three permits for the construction of residences valued at a total of $125,000, were approved by the Farms Building Department during October, according to a monthly report released by John A. DeFoe, head of the department.

Six permits for miscellaneous building, issued last month are valued at a total of $19,700, making the over all total for October, $144,700.

By comparison, three residential permits issued in October 1963, were for homes valued at a total of $217,000, and 13 miscellaneous permits, were valued at $27,200, for an over all value of $244,200.

No permits for non-assessable property were granted last month, but in October 1963, one was approved for a building valued at $82,000. No non-assessable permits have been applied for so far in 1964, whereas, during the same period last year, the number was three, having a total value of $717,000.

From January 1 through October 31 of this year, 19 residential permits were granted for homes having a total value of $833,000, and 87 miscellaneous permits, with a total value of $320,650.

For the same time in 1963, the Building Department approved a total of 29 home construction permits worth a total of $1,857,000; and 84 miscellaneous permits, valued at a total of $284,350.

No permits for construction of commercial buildings have been issued this year, so far, but last year, one was approved for a building valued at $11,000.

The residences approved last month, were for 43 Warner, value, $40,000; 152 Kerby, value, $26,000; and 28 Warner, value, $59,000.

Parties Honor Beverly Smith

Parties honoring Beverly Louise Smith, daughter of Mrs. Marsh Smith, of Mapleton road, who will be married to Frederick Edward Harris, III, this Saturday, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, began November 4, with a Kitchen Shower given by Mrs. Sidney R. Small, of Neff road.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, of Mapleton road, hosted a Miscellaneous Shower November 6, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Adams, of University place, entertained in honor of the bride-elect and her fiance November 8.

Mrs. T. N. Bourke, Mrs. F. J. Robert Towar and Mrs. Muir Snow gave a Pantry Shower November 18.

A reception in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will follow the evening wedding ceremony.

Camping Saga Covers Europe

A European camping saga will be featured on the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Meet the Travelers" program this Tuesday, November 24, at eight o'clock in Fries Auditorium.

Col. and Mrs. Samuel Price, of Ridge road, took the pictures as they journeyed by Volkswagen Camper from one end of the European Continent to the other.

Colonel Price, who during his career served in many parts of the world, was especially interested in comparing American camping facilities and costs with those in Europe. He found far more of the European population making use of their campsites than in America.

For that matter, he found many Americans availing themselves of this means of truly seeing Europe at a low cost and the cost is extremely low by American standards.

The Prices have many tales to tell of their adventures and many unusual pictures of unique spots to which they were directed by their fellow campers.

All Pointers and their guests are cordially invited to this program free of charge.

Power Squadron Conference Held

The Grosse Pointe Power Squadron under the command of Arthur R. Jennings of Lochmoor boulevard hosted the United States Power Squadron District 9 fall conference at the Whittier Hotel November 6-7.

The purpose of the conference was to exchange ideas, teaching methods, and procedures for the presenting the USPS free boating classes during the winter and fall seasons.

Over 400 boatmen and wives from the 19 member squadrons comprising District 9 heard the district commander, James D.

Happle urge all members to assist in making the general public aware of the unique free boating classes offered by the United States Power Squadrons.

Capt. Gordon McLane, United States Coast Guard Chief Inspector for the Northern Area, the keynote speaker of the conference, stressed the importance of safe and sane boating as taught and practiced by the USPS and outlined the Coast Guard's role in maritime activities.

Hewitt Named To Commission

Gov. George Romney has announced the appointment of the four members to Michigan's new State Highway Commission. Named were:

—Ardale W. Ferguson, 56, a Benton Harbor businessman. He was named to serve as chairman of the four-member commission.

—Wallace D. Nunn, 55, a member of Iosco County Road Commission and an East Tawas businessman.

—Charles H. Hewitt, 64, president of the Detroit Bank & Trust Company and resident of Grosse Pointe Farms. He lives in Lewiston road.

—Richard F. Vander Veen, 41, a Grand Rapids attorney.

Ferguson and Nunn will serve as Republicans on the bi-partisan commission and Hewitt and Vander Veen will serve as Democrats. Vander Veen's term will expire June 30, 1965, Hewitt's on June 30, 1966, Nunn's on June 30, 1967 and Ferguson on June 30, 1968.

Confirmation by the Michigan State Senate is necessary.

The State Highway Commission, created under provisions of the new State Constitution, replaces a system under which Michigan voters have elected their State Highway Commissioner for more than half a century.

John C. Mackie, who has served as State Highway Commissioner since 1957, takes office in early January as U.S. Congressman from Michigan's new Seventh District.

Mackie, a Democrat, was the nation's only elected State Highway Commissioner.

In announcing the appointments to the State Highway Commission, Romney said:

"These appointments are four of the most important I have made during my term as governor and I am satisfied beyond a doubt that Ardale Ferguson, Mike Nunn, Charles Hewitt, and Dick Vander Veen will apply thoroughly and objectively their varied capacities, experience and talent in carrying out the manifold duties and responsibilities incumbent with their new office.

"I'm delighted that they have agreed to serve in this capacity and I'm sure they will provide sound policy and direction for our highway programs, and will bring to it the types of experience and backgrounds needed at this particular time.

Theater to Do Williams Play

The Grosse Pointe Theater, which closed its hit comedy "See How They Run," last Saturday, will begin production immediately on the second play of the season, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."

The powerful drama by Tennessee Williams will be presented at Fries Auditorium on January 22, 23, 24, 28, 29, and 30. The entire production will also be trouped to Fenton, Mich. on Saturday, February 6, for that city's "Living Theater Series."

Directing the drama for the GPT is Dean Erskine, who will hold open casting in rooms D and E of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Tuesday, November 17 and Thursday, November 19 at 7:30 p.m. and p.m. Producer of the play will be Margaret Reed; stage manager, Henry Houston.

For further information regarding casting or tickets, call the Grosse Pointe Theater. (TU 4-2710).

EXCHANGE YOUR CHANGE FOR PAPER MONEY

ALL STORES NEED YOUR STORE OF CHANGE FOR CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS. BRING IT TO US. WE'LL COUNT IT, WRAP IT, AND GET IT TO THEM.

As your "bank" at home swells with change, Uncle Sam's coin reserves dwindle, and as they dwindle, the more difficult it becomes for the stores to easily make change for you. This situation is bad enough now, but it will get worse as more and more Christmas shoppers crowd the stores. But, you can help get the needed change back into circulation. Just bring it to us the way it is. We'll count it, wrap it, and rush it off to the stores. We'll exchange your change for paper money, or, if you prefer, we'll open a Savings Account for you. This way, your money can earn its keep . . . 3½% or 4% interest. Come in soon, won't you?

Ski Hi Clinic, Movies Planned

All members and prospective members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorials' Ski Hi Club will be treated to a free ski clinic and ski movies, Sunday afternoon, November 29 at 3 o'clock.

At the same time, latest information on scheduled ski trips will given out. The big news is a proposed Christmas vacation ski trip to Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob, Thunder Mountain and Boyne Mountain, leaving December 27 and returning at 10:30 the night of December 30.

The cost including four nights lodging, eight meals, round trip bus transportation and shuttle service to all ski slopes, ski insurance and a party at the Pony Tail night club will be $35. Seventy places are available.

Movies to be shown at the Center on November 29 include "Nation of Skiers" and instructional film on Swiss ski techniques, and "Big Mountain of Fun" and "Ski Country U.S.A." which are exciting color films of some of our best skiers in action.

The Grosse Pointe Ski Shop will also have on hand some skilled skiers to teach and demonstrate the basic dos and don'ts of skiing.

Starr Seems To Be Ready

Green Bay, Wis.—Bart Starr, Green Bay Packer quarterback knocked out in Sunday's National Football League game in San Francisco, "seemed to be all right" when he was examined by the team physician yesterday, a club spokesman said.

The physician, Dr. James Nellen, said Starr, knocked cold when he was tackled after throwing an incomplete pass, suffered double vision for a while as the result of a hard knock on the head.

Starr was resting at his home, but was expected to report for practice today, the Packer spokesman said.

Alex Karras, Detroit Lions All-Pro tackle from Iowa, is one of four brothers who played Big Ten football.

One brother, Ted, currently is starting offensive guard for the Chicago Bears.

Romney Calls Special Election

A special election to choose a successor to the late Circuit Court Judge, the Honorable Miles N. Culehan has been set for Monday, February 15, by a letter sent from Governor Romney to the Pointes on Tuesday, November 17.

A friend loveth at all times, and a brother if born for adversity.

Family Film Forum Friday

The second feature of the Friends Film Forum series (co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library) for adults, will be shown November 20, at 9:15 p.m. in the Main Reading Room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval.

A topnotch Alfred Hitchcock production, "SUSPICION," will be shown—an Academy Award winner. It tells the story of a shy, provincial British girl who marries an unprincipled charmer. He turns out to be a warped, lying cheat, and she thinks he is trying to poison her. The stars are Cary Grant and Joan Fontaine.

The next Friends Film Forum will be January 15, 1965, at 9:15 p.m. A musical comedy will be shown.

If you would be interested in seeing the filmed Bernstein Concert Series—three one-hour overseas concerts by Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, please call Mr. Titterington, Audio-Visual Counselor at the Central Library, TU 4-2200. Your interest will determine scheduling of this series.

Science Church Speaker Coming

A public lecture on the demands of love in an atomic age will be given next Monday by Martin Broones of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Mr. Broones is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. He will speak at 8 p.m. in the William H. Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Grosse Pointe Farms. Admission is free.

Mr. Broones, a native of New York City, was educated at Co-

Offer Advice On Mulching

Mulches are placed around ornamentals, and flowers for many reasons. They are used to conserve moisture, prevent weed growth, add organic matter to the soil, and to keep the soil at a constant temperature.

Contrary to popular belief, winter mulches are not used to keep the soil from freezing. They are used to keep the soil at a constant temperature. Therefore, they should be applied only after the ground freezes. This keeps the ground from freezing and thawing.

Freezing and thawing of the soil is the main reason for loss of plants during the winter. This is often referred to as winter kill. Many of the more tender plants cannot withstand alternate freezing and thawing of their roots. Smaller perennials may be heaved out of the ground by this process. One of the dividends of mulches is increased growth due to conservation of soil moisture and other factors.

Mulches may be organic or inorganic in nature. Some of the organic mulches are wood chips, leaves, pine needles, peat moss, buckwheat hulls, ground corn-cobs, straw, evergreen boughs and hay. Inorganic mulches are plastic, gravel, aluminum foil, and glass wool.

When corn-cobs, wood chips, sawdust, or straw are used in large areas they may cause a nitrogen deficiency as they decompose. The addition of a half pound of ammonium sulfate or 1/3 pound of ammonium nitrate per hundred square feet of mulched area will remedy this deficiency. If straight nitrogen is not available, use one pound of 10-6-4 lawn fertilizer instead.

To err is human, perhaps, but that won't change the score.

Richard P.T.A. Meets Tonight

The second meeting of the Richard School P.T.A. will be held at 8 o'clock this evening, November 19. The flag ceremony will be conducted by the school's Girl Scout Troop 843 under the direction of Mrs.

Robert Choje and Mrs. Robert McCurry.

Classrooms will be open after the meeting for parents' visitation. Also refreshments will be served.

Edison Reduces Electric Rates

The Michigan Public Service Commission has given approval to the Detroit Edison Company for a reduction in electric rates amounting to $3,750,000 per year. The new rate schedule has been under joint study by the staff of the Commission and Detroit Edison for several months.

The announcement was made jointly by Peter B. Spivak, chairman of the Michigan Public Service Commission, and Walker L. Cisler, chairman of the board of Detroit Edison. The officials pointed out that the reduction would be of greatest benefit to residential customers using more than 500 kilowatt-hours per month and to commercial customers. These changes will be effective for service rendered on and after December 1, 1964.

The last Detroit Edison rate increase was in 1949—15 years ago. Since that time the company has decreased residential rates on two occasions—in 1959 and in 1963. These rate decreases, together with the greater use of electricity have lowered the average cost, per kilowatt-hour, to residential customers by 15 per cent since 1949.

A number of factors have made it possible for Detroit Edison management to hold the line and actually reduce electric rates during these 15 years. One of the most important is the increased use of electricity by its customers. This use—more than doubled in the case of residential customers—has permitted Detroit Edison to build larger and more efficient generating plants, and to pool generating capacity and exchange power on an economic basis with other large electric systems. Other important factors are increased efficiency in the burning of fuel and the co-operation of railroads in reducing the transportation charges on fuel from the mines.

In a joint statement on the rate change, Mr. Spivak and Mr. Cisler said, "We are always pleased to cooperate on matters that have an advantageous effect upon the economy and well-being of Michigan."

Mr. Cisler further said, "It has been a traditional policy at Detroit Edison to pass on to our electric customers a fair share in the economies that management has been able to achieve. When rate reductions encourage greater use of electric energy, this in turn helps to reduce the cost of production to offset inflationary trends. In this way Detroit Edison and its customers actually work together for a mutual goal."

Snow Removal Funds Allotted

Thirty-two of Michigan's 83 counties had enough snow last winter to qualify for Snow Removal Funds, the State Highway Department reported today.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the average snowfall for Michigan last winter was 67.3 inches compared to 72.5 inches the previous winter and 77 inches in the winter of 1961-62.

This year's Snow Removal Fund totals $635,865 compared to nearly $612,000 last year. The money, which is set aside from gas taxes and license plate fees, helps defray cost of snow removal in counties which have heavy snowfalls.

Keweenaw County in the Upper Peninsula had the highest average snowfall last year—191 inches.

Houghton County was second with 161 inches. Benzie County had an average of 121 inches of snow last winter—highest in the Lower Peninsula—followed by Antrim County with 119 inches.

Mackie said this year's largest payment—$51,584—will go to Chippewa County, which had an average snowfall of 129 inches last winter.

This year's smallest payment—$613—will go to Presque Isle County, which had an average of slightly more than 71 inches.

To qualify for Snow Removal Funds, counties must have at least 70 inches of snow the previous winter. Distribution of the money is based on a complicated snowfall, mileage and snowfall contour formula.

Snowfall measurements are made at one or more U.S. Weather Bureau Stations in every Michigan county.

The largest snowfall recorded in Michigan last year was 246 inches—more than 26 feet—measured at a station in Gogebic County. The smallest was 14 inches at a station in Isabella County.

The largest snowfall in the Lower Peninsula was 152 inches at a station in Leelanau County followed by 143 inches at a station near Lake Michigan in Muskegon County.

Martin J. LaFave On USS Okinawa

Martin J. LaFave, storekeeper seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. LaFave of 3055 Moross road is visiting ports in the European area following participation in the largest amphibious combat training exercises in the Atlantic since World War II.

He is serving on the amphibious assault ship USS Okinawa. The operation, called "Steel Pike," featured U.S. and Spanish Marines landing from landing craft and helicopters of a composed U.S.-Spanish Fleet of 94 vessels which included ships of the United States Military Sea Transport Service and chartered ships of the U.S. Merchant Fleet.

The mock assault on the beaches of Southern Spain was staged by Marines of the Second Marine Division, Second Marine Aircraft Wing and Force Troops, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, along with a battalion of Spanish Marines.

During the operation, helicopters from his ship flew combat-ready Marines over and behind enemy lines using a technique called "vertical envelopment."

Whistler's Mother Goes On Display at Institute

The original of a painting familiar to millions of Americans will be on exhibition at The Detroit Institute of Arts Tuesday, November 17 through Sunday, December 27. Popularly known as "Whistler's Mother," the portrait's full title is "Arrangement in Grey and Black," by James Abbott McNeill Whistler.

On special loan from The Louvre Museum, Paris, the painting will be hung in The Detroit Institute of Arts Gallery 34. Also in this gallery will be paintings by Whistler from the museum's permanent collection: a self-portrait of this sharp-tongued, sometimes arrogant dandy, and "Nocturne in Black and Gold: The Falling Rocket." The latter is the painting which John Ruskin attacked as "flinging a pot of paint in the public's face."

Whistler sued Ruskin for his remark and won a pyrrhic victory in damages of one farthing; the cost of the suit having ruined Whistler financially. An exhibition of the graphic work of the artist will be displayed in the Print Gallery (41). These are works selected from the permanent collection of the museum.

"Arrangement in Grey and Black" will be designated the museum's Painting of the Month throughout its exhibition. Short lunch-time talks on the painting are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:45 p.m.; Sunday tours will be given at 2 p.m.

Whistler's famous painting of his Mother is on a ten-museum tour of the United States. This was the first painting by an American artist to be acquired by The Louvre, a notable event at the end of the 19th Century. James Abbott McNeill Whistler was an American by birth, but spent a considerable part of his boyhood in St. Petersburg, Russia, where his father, a distinguished civil engineer, was engaged in railway construction. Whistler returned to the U.S. to attend West Point. Later he worked as a cartographer, which acquainted him with the basic techniques of etching — then turned to his real interest, painting.

At 21, he went to Paris to pursue his career as an artist, and soon became an enthusiastic participant in la vie Boheme. An expatriate for the rest of his life, he alternated residence between Paris and London. Whistler became acquainted with the vital trends of mid-19th Century painting—realism of Pantiin-Latour and Courbet, experimental work of Degas and Manet, and he also felt the impact of "the Spanish craze" and of Japanese prints, which had a decided influence upon his mature style. He rebelled against popular academic painting of the salons, which leaned on story and sentiment.

Whistler defied the new "art-for-art's sake" attitude in statements, lectures and publications:

"Art should be independent of clap-trap — should stand alone, and appeal to the artistic sense of eye or ear without confounding this with emotions entirely foreign to it, as devotion, pity, love, patriotism and the like. All these have no kind of concern with it; and that is why I insist on calling my work arrangements and harmonies."

Of "Arrangement in Grey and Black," Whistler wrote, "Take the picture of my Mother, exhibited at the Royal Academy as an Arrangement in Grey and Black. Now that is what it is. To me it is interesting as a picture of my Mother; but what can or ought the public to care about this identity of the portrait."

With his avowed dislike of sentimental aspects, Whistler's remarks would have been interesting had he lived till 1934, when the painting made a triumphant tour of the U.S. At that time, President Roosevelt had it reproduced on a postage stamp with the added inscription "in honor of the Mothers of America."

Despite emotional connotations which have grown up around the picture, the portrait is anything but sentimental. Painted in 1871, it exemplifies Whistler's concern with new harmonies of shapes and colors.

After initial rejection by the Royal Academy in London, "Mother" was accepted for exhibition only because one member threatened to resign.

LOOKING AHEAD TO THE HOLIDAYS

A TOAST TO YOUR THANKSGIVING:

Seems like just yesterday we were all pretending to enjoy those sweltering August days. But, here it is Thanksgiving Week.

Time to pick out the turkey, order all the trimmings and call the clan together. We'll be with you in spirit in a year in which we all have much to be thankful for. We hope to be with you in "spirits," too. After all, what is a gathering of the clan without a toast or two to authenticate the occasion?

Our turkey will be Fresh Dressed Raised Especially For Us By Peter Eicher at Archbold, Ohio

ADVANCE ORDERS WILL BE APPRECIATED

Whether it be Bourbon, Scotch, a blend, rum or brandy, you'll find the spirits of your choice in our wide assortment of wines and liquors. Our large stocks of imported and domestic wines include the finest French and German imports and domestic and imported champagnes. We also carry a complete line of imported and domestic cordials.

Most Executives Fat and Flabby

The typical executive is overweight and underexercised, according to John A. Faulkner, assistant professor in the University of Michigan School of Education.

"With few exceptions, executives have low physical energy reserves, as evidenced by high heart rates and high systolic blood pressures after exercise," says Faulkner.

He goes on to say: 1) Executives are fatter and, after age 40, have greater body weight than age-matched general population averages 2) Executives are physically inactive during their working hours, and very few compensate with regular physical activity during leisure hours; 3) Executives become progressively less active with increasing age; and 4) Executives can profit from knowledge of the relation of food intake and energy output, of body weight and energy cost, of appetite and work output, and of physical activity and energy reserve.

For the past three years, men in the School of Business Administration summer executive development program have been tested in the U-M Physical Performance Laboratory. The Executive Fitness Testing Program was developed through the cooperation of the School of Education, the School of Business Administration, the Medical School and the School of Public Health. The program is directed and administered by the Department of Physical Education. The testing is offered as a service to the men, and 90 per cent of them voluntarily take advantage of the program. The effect of sedentary living habits is reflected in the age trends in body build, Faulkner reports. The average University of Michigan freshman, age 17, is five feet nine inches in height, weighs 154 pounds, has a 30 inch waist, and is not overweight. The average executive, at age 45 years, is five feet ten inches in height, weighs 185 pounds, has a 35 inch waist, and is 20 pounds overweight.

"Fortunately, such a pattern of physical deterioration is reversible with even a modest exercise program," says Faulkner.

"Physical activity is the best long-term solution to weight control for most men," he declares. "Although one must play handball for six hours to lose the caloric equivalent to one pound of fat, an hour of handball twice a week will result in the loss of approximately a pound a month or 12 pounds of fat a year."

Faulkner says extensive experimental data on man and on animals strongly suggest a relationship between physical activity and control of body weight and incidence of coronary artery disease.

"Men in physically inactive occupations have approximately twice the number of fatal heart attacks as men in physically active occupations," says Faulkner.

"Human resources are still our most important national asset," he adds. "Unfortunately, those most susceptible to the hazards of sedentary living are the engineers, executives, lawyers, scientists, teachers, and physicians—the very men who contribute most to our gross national product."

"These men are destined for intellectually stressful, yet physically undemanding positions. It is urgent that they know the wisdom of regular physical activity throughout life, and that opportunities for physically active sports and recreation be available to them."

Center to Hold Big Hootenanny

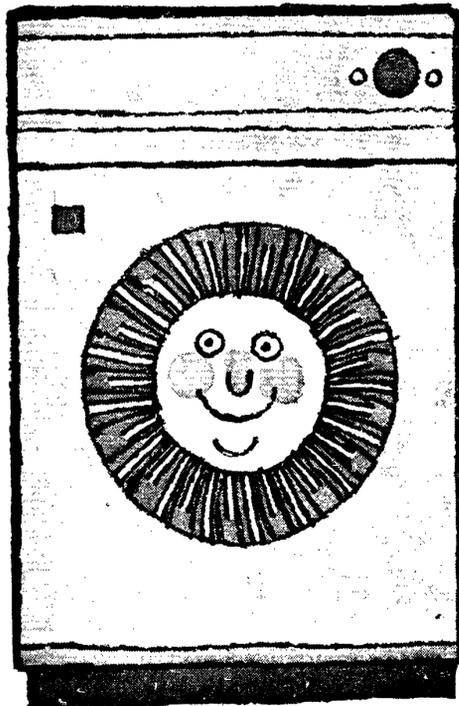

The Thanksgiving weekend will be highlighted at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium by a second community "Hootenanny." The one at spring vacation was such a howling success that this one has been scheduled for Friday evening, November 27, at 8:15 by popular demand. The Hootenannies seem to bid fair to become semi-annual occasions.

enanny will feature some of the Pointe's best known folk singers as well as some fresh new talent from Grosse Pointe High School, the Junior Highs, and even the Elementary schools. A favorite group of Collegians by request includes, Dave Hughes from Yale, his sister, Molly from the University of Michigan and Bill Hope from Colorado State. This fall there will be more opportunity for the audience to participate in the singing. Accompanists will play guitars, banjos and a bass fiddle. Admission is $1 for those under 21. Tickets are now on sale in the Center

An electric dryer puts sunshine in your laundry room and a bright spot in your bank book

An electric dryer dries clothes evenly, like the sun—only better. Colors don't fade. Clothes stay bright. So does your bank book. Here's why.

Model for model, an electric dryer costs from $20 to $40 less than a gas dryer. And if you buy now, this lower price includes installation. So you save more, right from the start.

You also save in the long run . . . because electric dryers cost nothing for electrical repairs or labor, thanks to Edison's no-charge service. Based on manufacturers' repair policy premiums, this repair service can save you up to $200 over a 10-year period.

And it doesn't matter where you buy your electric dryer, so long as you're an Edison customer. (This is the only no-charge modern electric dryer now at your appliance dealer's or Edison office.)

FEC Leaders Discuss Anniversary Plans

DR. JOSEPH E. TAPERT, (left), president of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Grosse Pointe, Inc. discusses tenth anniversary plans with the three originators of the Foundation. (Left to right) JOHN K. WORLEY, WILLIAM G. MEIER and JOHN BOCKSTANZ.

A happy tenth anniversary is being celebrated this week by a Grosse Pointe organization. The Foundation for Exceptional Children was founded on November 14, 1954 by a group of parents of handicapped children drawn together by common needs. They were joined by other public spirited, interested citizens of Grosse Pointe who shared the opinion that something must be done.

The first formal program for these children was conducted at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday afternoons. In June 1955 the Grosse Pointe Board of Education offered the Foundation the use of a quonset hut on the grounds of the Grosse Pointe High School. Six years of increasing enrollment at the High School created a need for the quonset hut and the Board of Education regretfully asked the Foundation to seek another location.

Thus, in June, 1961, the Foundation transferred its program to Miller Hall on a temporary basis on the invitation of the Vestry of Christ Episcopal Church.

Early last year, the Foundation again cooperated with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and entered into negotiations with Grosse Pointe Memorial Church officials to explore the possibility of leasing space in the Church's new addition.

Through the good offices of the Rev. Bertram Atwood, his staff and the Memorial Church Trustees, an agreement was drawn, the necessary remodeling work done and the children entered the delightful new classrooms on May 5, 1964. Commenting on the Foundation's tenth anniversary, the president, Dr. Joseph E. Tapert said: "We wish to thank all of our friends without whose generosity this milestone could not have been reached. We hope and trust that the next 10 years will see continued advancement of our program and also an increase in the number and interest of our valued members and friends." "Over 170 youngsters have been trained under this program and 45 have graduated to regular school programs, both public and private," Dr. Tapert said.

R.M.S. Queen Elizabeth is the world's largest liner—83,673 tons, and five blocks long.

Escape to Europe aboard a giant Cunard Queen for only $316 round trip

Save 25% off low Thrift Season fares by sailing round trip at Cunard's excursion rates* for as little as $316, Tourist; $406, Cabin; $660, First Class. And you get 30 full days ashore.

Sail at round-trip excursion rates when Europe is at its best on either of the world's two largest superliners—the Queen Elizabeth or the Queen Mary. (One leaves New York every Wednesday.)

Considering your fare includes 5 days each way of superb international cuisine, impeccable British service and luxurious lodging—plus carefree fun and entertainment—this is the travel bargain of the year.

You'll find more to do aboard than in most resorts, and with far more interesting people. Stroll the largest decks afloat (over 3 acres). Be entertained in vast public rooms. Swim in a pool that contains 107 tons of heated salt water. Or browse in shops full of magnificent duty-free merchandise. See a movie. Borrow one of 5,000 books from the library. Join a cocktail party. Enter a deck tournament.

Top executives prefer giant Cunarders America's industrial leaders—that demanding, discerning breed—have long favored the Queens for business trips to Europe.

One reason is the opportunity it presents to executives to prepare for crucial meetings. (There are ship-to-shore telephones and a staff of nine English secretaries to lend assistance.)

Another reason is the luxury of leisure and relaxation in the most spacious facilities on the high seas.

And right now, there is the added economy of low excursion fares. (You can save a minimum of $286 per person from Summer Season rates when you travel First Class on the Queens.)

You'll arrive in Europe refreshed, feeling marvelous. You'll return home revitalized, keen to resume your daily business. Make your reservations now.

*Excursion fare periods: October 1, 1964 to February 28, 1965. 15% savings also available March 1-15, 1965 and May 1-15, 1965.

Interim Pastor For Unitarians

Reverend Robert Lawson has accepted the position of interim minister at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Reverend Lawson has served as minister to Unitarian churches in Buffalo, N.Y.; Reading, Mass.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dayton, O.; and Wollaston, Mass. During World War II, he was a chaplain in the Naval Reserve.

Since 1957 he has served as interim minister in several New England churches, including churches at Norwell, Mass. and Portsmouth, N.H.

He received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1940 from the Meadville Theological School in Chicago. Prior to that time he studied engineering at MIT and Purdue and worked for several years as a time and motion study engineer and as a research engineer. Presently he is president of Shorewood, Inc., a Maine real estate corporation.

Reverend Lawson's sermon for Sunday, November 22 is entitled "Thanksgiving Burdens and Blessings."

To Hold Service On Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day services will be held by First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Fries Auditorium, at 10:30 a.m. Visitors are welcome.

One feature of the service will be a period when individual Christian Scientists stand up voluntarily to express their thanks to God in their own words.

The sermon on "Thanksgiving"—as in all Christian Science services—will consist of readings from the Bible, and also from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. There will also be hymns and a period of prayer.

The Golden text for the day is from Psalms 22: "All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee."

A related passage to be read from Science and Health includes these lines: "It should be thoroughly understood that all men have one Mind, one God and Father, one Life, Truth, and Love. Mankind will become perfect in proportion as this fact becomes a parent, war will cease and the true brotherhood of man will be established" (p. 467:9-13).

Speeder Posts $50 Bond in City

City of Grosse Pointe police officers arrested Richard C. Dumas, 25, of 1912 Broadstone, at 4 a.m. Sunday, November 16, after he was seen driving west on Jefferson at a speed in excess of 80 mph.

Dumas was taken to the station where he was charged with reckless driving then released on $50 bond.

TELEVISION VANDALISM

L. O. Smith of 327 Merriweather, complained to Farms police on Monday, November 16, that while his car was parked in the public lot at McMillan and Kercheval, an unknown person broke off the radio aerial, valued at $9.

Speeder Nabbed Following Chase

John R. Nagel of 19954 Regent, Detroit, is scheduled to appear in Shores court on Wednesday, November 25, for speeding on Lake Shore road.

According to Patrolmen Melvin Yack and Harry Hamilton, while patrolling Lake Shore at 12:40 a.m., on Friday, November 13, they saw Nagel traveling north on the road at very high speed.

The officers said they pursued Nagel and paced him at 80 miles an hour, between Briarcliff and Fairlake. Yack and Hamilton said they were unable to catch up and stop the motorist until they reached Frasad and Jefferson in St. Clair Shores.

Nagel was taken to the station where he was charged with speeding and given a violation ticket. He was released after posting a bond of $50.

PURSE RECOVERED

Kathy Snyder of 319 Lothrop road, called Farms police on Friday, November 13, that her purse which she reported stolen or misplaced at Grosse Pointe High School had been returned to her, sans $2.25 that was in it. The other contents of the purse were intact, she said.

Reelect Glancy To Fair Office

Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., 735 Lakeshore drive, has been re-elected treasurer of the Michigan State Fair Authority, the body which governs the Michigan State Fair.

Glancy also is the new chairman of the State Fair Development Committee for 1964-65. As an officer of the Authority, he continues membership on the Executive Committee.

Richard Parents Confer at School

Richard elementary students enjoyed a holiday on Monday and Tuesday, November 16 and 17, while their parents visited the school to have conferences with their teachers.

This system of holding parent-teacher conferences in November and later in the early spring was inaugurated last year by Richard principal, Richard Kay. Normally just one conference is held after the first of the year. Both teachers and parents have found the new method satisfactory and beneficial for teacher, student and parents.

History of Harper Hospital And WSU Blended in New Book

The book reviews the history of Detroit's Harper Hospital, intimately linked with the University's history through this building, erected in 1868.

The founding of Wayne's oldest parent institution, the Detroit Medical College, was a response to critical community needs in the immediate post-Civil War era. It was in April 1864 that Army buildings known in that day as pavilions were erected in the Hospital area to serve as wards for wounded and convalescent veterans.

Detroit doctors then proposed a new medical school for the competent training of physicians to staff this group of hospital buildings, and this Detroit Medical College structure was decided upon.

Its creation was a matter of joining two of the temporaries together with a new central building, in that day considered imposing.

Since that time the structure has been moved to a new location in Detroit, where its architecture and other features are being studied by medical historians.

The original site of the building is part of Detroit's new multi-hospital Medical Center in which Wayne's new Medical Research Building (shown in the lower photo) is now rising. Only two blocks in distance but nearly 100 years of medical progress separate the two structures.

Authors of the historical volume are Frank B. Woodford, a former chief editorial writer for the "Detroit Free Press," now deputy treasurer for the City of Detroit; and Prof. Philip P. Mason, formerly director of the State Archives of Michigan, now archivist at Wayne State.

Boy at PC Home Injured in Fall

A 10-year-old boy from the Protestant Children's Home, 900 Cook road, is in a hospital with a head concussion, suffered when he fell and struck his head on the driveway of the Home property.

Herbert Shanks, an official at the Home, told Woods police that Paul Davis, son of Mrs. Betty Marsee of 25165 Teola, Warren, while running on a roadway on the property, slipped and struck his head, causing the concussion.

The boy was taken to a private doctor's office for treatment of the injury, and returned to the Home where he was placed in an infirmary, under the constant care of a nurse.

Young Paul's mother was notified of his injury, and she insisted that her son be transferred to a hospital. She was informed that her boy was a ward of the Macomb County Juvenile Court and cannot be moved without the court's permission. Mrs. Marsee obtained the necessary permission and her son was taken by ambulance to the Mt. Clemens General Hospital, where, it is said, he appears to be doing well.

OIL LEASES 50¢ AN ACRE

The United States government will put up at public drawing in Santa Fe, New Mexico, the third Monday of each month, millions of acres of oil and gas leases in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma for sale to the public at 50 cents per acre. Many of these leases are valued by the major oil companies and other interested buyers at many hundreds of dollars per acre. But, under Federal rules and regulations you have the same EQUAL chance to draw one of these valuable leases as the largest oil company in the nation. Write for how you may obtain service in filing for leases, Federal termination lease lists, advance postings and monthly winners lists. This is not a drilling venture.

Join the Strikebreakers

Bishop Richard Emrich did a most praiseworthy job of summing up the senselessness of the Detroit newspaper strike, in his statement printed in this paper last week. As the strike continues, more needs to be said... and done. The Citizens' Committee for Community Affairs, which describes itself as "a group of single and separate citizens who are concerned about Detroit, and about the fact that we have a crippled community, a community that since last July 13th has lost its right to read its daily newspapers," is backing an appeal to all the people to throw the weight of public opinion into the interminable and unbearable argument between the Pressmen's Union and the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Association.

The full-page advertisement which this group has caused to be created, stresses that it is not for or against either side in the strike, but is simply sick and tired of not having a daily local newspaper to help keep abreast of events. It recalls the arguments behind the strike, recalls the efforts of individuals and committees, from President Johnson on down, to get the papers back on the streets and into our homes. It asks that anyone stricken by the same epidemic of resentment against the existing situation, make himself or herself heard.

Since the inception of this stupid strike four months ago, this paper has deplored the tragedy that deprives a metropolitan area of its right to have its own newspapers. Many times during the strike we have been asked why we don't convert to a semi-weekly, or even a daily, and take advantage of the sad state of affairs. We have hired no extra personnel, nor sought financial gains made available by the existing conditions. We have not turned down advertisers who have sought an outlet in which to substitute the copy usually inserted in the dailies, and we have enjoyed a period of unusual prosperity. But we are not proud of this. There is no joy in profiting from a shameful mess. The staff has been sorely overworked during a period which usually provides a mild success from pressure production. We are both tired and annoyed, and our constant hope is that the strike will be ended and we shall have our dailies back again.

We aren't quite certain what the Citizens' Committee plans to do with the manifestations of interest and indignation it hopes to arouse. We have some ideas of our own, but we are fairly sure they are neither legal, nor christian, so we withhold them. If there is any chance of terminating this debacle through your individual expressions, we urge you to accede to the request of the most respected members of this committee. All they want is a phone call, a letter or a card, indicating that your patience has worn thin and that you question the right of a few to cause hardship to so many. Send your message to the Citizens' Committee for Community Affairs, Post Office Box A-699, or Phone WO 1-7490, Detroit Michigan, 48232.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, undoubtedly your mind is turning to plump and succulent turkeys, cranberry sauce, various dressings, salads, gravy and potatoes, not to mention pumpkin and mince pies, or fruit and plum puddings. And if you are to be the chief cook and bottle washer, you are perhaps wondering about new recipes.

Have you ever taken a good look at all the cookbooks which our Grosse Pointe Libraries possess? The Dewey classification of 641's seems to be never-ending, and with an infinite variety of types. Specialization set in long ago, and many cookbooks are quite selective, dealing with salads, desserts or goodies from one certain country. Let me list a few representative titles very recently acquired.

THE COMPLETE SCANDINAVIAN COOKBOOK by A. B. Johnson gives a wide variety of typical recipes for this area. Any adventurous novice or expert will delight in the range of substantial fare. Many gourmet items and specialties are included, as well as a wealth of fish dishes and fruit soups. THE COFFEE COOKBOOK by William Kaufman begins with brief resumes of the history of coffee, coffee brewing, etc. Then follows recipes from the United States and abroad for coffee beverage, main dishes, breads, pastries, puddings and other interesting media where this popular brew may be used.

A provocative title is WHEN IN THE KITCHEN NEVER COMPANY ARRIVES by T. A. Morse. The author and her husband are proprietors of an inn on Martha's Vineyard that accommodates only 12 guests at a time. Company menus and recipes for six are suggested. The emphasis seems to be on how to have a party run smoothly without exhausting the hostess.

In CRAZY-QUILT COOKERY by E. F. Day, the author, was challenged by her son to put together some family favorites, spanning several generations. As she says, the quilt is still growing! Here we find included "heirloom recipes," traditional dishes, and penny-pinchers for newly-weds.

Off in another direction is Fred Beck's THE FRED BECK WINE BOOK. Here is a versatile and competent writer whose interests are not confined to this particular area. He takes "wine snobs" over the hurdles, and sets out to prove that American wines should not be sneered at. He talks of wine in general, and wines in particular.

- Hughes, Mrs. Lee Peters, Mrs. Helen Doelle, Instructors.
 - *9:30 a.m.—Sculpture Class—Wm. Matmer, Instructor.
 - 12 Noon—Senior Men's Cribbage Group.
 - 12:30 p.m.—Senior Ladies Club of Grosse Pointe, Social, cards, and tea party.
 - 12:30 p.m.—Grosse Pointe Traffic and Safety Comm. Luncheon Meeting.
 - *1:00 p.m.—Life and Beginning Portraiture. Wm. Martmer, Instructor.
 - *4:00 p.m.—Ballet Classes. Mary Ellen Cooper, Instructor.
 - *7:30 p.m.—Memorial Bridge—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walrod, Instructors.
- THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26
- 10:30 a.m.—First Church of Christ, Scientist, Grosse Pointe Farms. Service and Sunday School in Fries Building, Infants Room in Library of Alger House.

What's New on THE HILL

by Roberta

ONE BLOCK of solid contrasts. That's the Hill! It is where you can find a dog collar for around a dollar or an imported fragment from the Continent for much more... a lush Lincoln-Continental or a toy automobile... a house or a cruise... wine or orange juice... and, it's so close to home. Why not promise yourself a shopping spree on the Hill?

FEEL SO BLYTHE and elegant when you shower with Estee Lauder's Spray Shower Oil from Trail Apothecary Shop, Number 121 Kercheval.

THEN CURL UP on the divan with a Northern Spy And a robe from Anthony's brilliant collection. Shorties include nylon quilted and fleece... basket weaves... and velvets from 29.95. L-o-n-g ones of crisp taffetas... embroidered basket weaves... nylon quilts and a few pure silks. From 60.00. An-h-h-h. (Hostess gowns are evident.)

THANKSGIVING and Tu-reens go together. At the Sign of the Mermaid discover Italian Lowestoft Reproductions of tureens by Mottahedeh... antique silver ones, and a handsome Rothchild Bird. All these among the other handsome serving pieces offered for this Holiday Season. 75 Kercheval. TU 2-1610.

LIVE AMONG the pachtysandra on Sunningdale Lane. There is an authentic Williamsburg Colonial nestled among these "buxaceous" plants. Call John S. Goodman's office for more information on this interesting house. TU 6-3060.

LUNCH BOXES for Mothers? Well, just the most beautiful ones ever dreamed up in decoupage are waiting for very special ladies who "meet" over a sandwich and hot drink while working out plans for civic, social, or sewing circle doings. At The League Shop, of course! $2.00.

INSPIRED in Morocco are the new and antique Trugs recently acquired by the Wm. Denler & Co. This is magnificent art expressed in area or room sized rugs. See them. You will be glad you did. 75 Kercheval.

IF YOU ARE looking for a family gift you won't have to go further than The Dants. See the handsome solid maple chopping block for the family kitchen. Twenty-four inches square, it has a slot for your favorite knives and sharpener. Tagged 125.00. Or if you prefer, choose a gift from their collection of Gerber Legendary blades.

RARE GRAPES and exceptional care are just two good reasons you will drink a toast this Thanksgiving from Hamlin's quality Estate Bottled wines... fresh and fruity! And, because they buy in great quantities, money is actually saved. 89 Kercheval. TU 5-8400. Immediate deliveries.

IT IS WISE to protect the priceless asset of health. After your health examination, if medicine is prescribed, take your prescription to Trail Apothecary Shop for prompt, reliable service. You can depend on their prescription department. TU 1-5688. 121 Kercheval.

THE NORTHEASTERN Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic at 18424 Mack Avenue opened its door on September 28th, 1964. So much needs to be done before the Clinic is in a position to adequately serve ALL the children of our community. Give now.

Set Star Of Sea Alumni Meeting

Our Lady Star of the Sea graduates are holding their first alumni meeting Saturday, November 28, at 11 o'clock, in Star of the Sea's High School Library. Both classes of '63 and '64 will attend, and alumni officers will be elected. The November date was chosen for the convenience of college students who may be home during Thanksgiving vacation.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The pretty party season, of Christmas trees and debutantes and dances, is almost here.

Between now and New Year's come the Dress-Up Days, devoted to entertaining and being entertained.

Among dates to circle (if they are not ALREADY circled) on '64 holiday calendars are . . .

December 12
Tall, slender gold urns, filled with graceful greens and set on gold runners stretched across tabletops, will be featured decorations at the White Christmas Ball.

The Ball, sponsored by the friends of the Sisters of St. John Hospital, will be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for the eleventh consecutive year.

Cocktails in the main dining room are to be followed by dinner and dancing in the Ball Room, Terrace Lounge and Venetian Room; the foyer and rotunda will be draped, transformed into a Winer Wonderland.

General chairman of the '64 White Christmas Ball is Mrs. Thomas Baumgarten, assisted by co-chairman Mrs. James Mutschall.

Among those heading committees are Mrs. A. Joseph Hoski, Mrs. Michael Burke, Mrs. Walter B. Fisher, Mrs. C. Bradford Lundy, Jr., Mrs. James Herrington, Mrs. Charles Burke, Mrs. Walter Van Goethem, Jr., and Mrs. Claude Greiner, Jr.

More are Mrs. Chilton Drysdale, Mrs. W. Fraser Vipond, Mrs. Raymond Kokowicz, Mrs. Theodore Berendsohn, Mrs. Louis Palombit and Mrs. Paul Bagwell.

Some 375 guests are expected to dine and dance at the party. Proceeds will be donated to the expansion program now in progress at St. John Hospital, which is adding two new floors, 200 new beds, greatly expanded services, an enlarged medical education center and a new chapel.

Schedule Symphony Anniversary Concert

Detroit Symphony Orchestra To Mark 50th Birthday With Special Performance; 1914 Decor Planned For Black-Tie Affair

The Special Golden Anniversary Concert of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will be held at 8:30 o'clock tonight, Thursday, November 19, at Ford Auditorium. The orchestra played its first public concert on November 19, 1914, with Weston Gales on the podium at the old Detroit Opera House.

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra has just returned from a highly successful three-week tour of the Eastern United States.

The "New York Times" said of the Orchestra's Carnegie Hall concert: "The Detroit Symphony by now is one of the country's superior symphonic organizations, ready to compete in any company . . . In short, it is as good an orchestra as one is likely to hear."

At Thursday's concert, Robert B. Semple, president of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Ralph T. McElvenny, chairman of the Golden Anniversary Financial Campaign, will make an important announcement regarding the status of the Golden Anniversary Fund Drive.

Celloist Rohan de Saram will be soloist for this concert, which will be conducted by Sixten Ehrling. Saram, a young Singaporean, studied with Casals, Cassado, and Navarra, will perform Dvorak's Concerto for Cello and Orchestra.

The orchestral portions of the program will include Weber's Overture to "Oberon," Beethoven's Symphony No. 2, and Weber's Six Pieces for Orchestra.

The Orchestra's Birthday Party will be attended by more than 500 workers who assisted in the Golden Anniversary Campaign which was conducted earlier this year to raise $600,000 for the operation of the Orchestra.

Black ties and a 1914 decor will add to the festive atmosphere of the occasion. A new system of floodlights illuminating the front of Ford Auditorium will be lit for the first time Thursday evening for the Orchestra's Birthday concert.

A limited number of tickets are available at the Orchestra's box office in Ford Auditorium and at all Grinnell's stores.

James, Jr., is a sophomore at WMU.

Among the 23 seniors at Colgate University selected for listing in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" is Stephen A. Glasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Glasser, of Moorland drive.

NANCY HALSIG, daughter of MR. and MRS. ALFRED HALSIG, of Anita avenue, was elected Carnation Cotillion Queen and reigned over the Carnation Cotillion Ball November 14, at Ferris State College, Big Rapids, Mich. She was sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

MR. and MRS. HANS VON BERNTHAL, of Dayton, O., announce the birth of a daughter, HEIDI, November 14. Mrs. von Bernthal is the former CONNIE DEGNAN, daughter of the JAMES M. DEGNANS, of Harvard road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. OTTO VON BERNTHAL, of Colonial court.

MRS. ROBERT ALLEN WHEELER left The Pointe

Reception At Lochmoor Club Follows Saturday Rites; Newlyweds Travel To Georgia, Where They Will Make Their Home

At a 12 o'clock Solemn High Mass in St. Clare de Montefalco Church Saturday, Judith Ann Huminski spoke her marriage vows to John Douglas Ellis, Jr.

The Very Reverend Father Stephen Fogarty officiated at the rites as celebrant. Reverend Father Edward Sweeney and Reverend Father Jerome Heyman served as deacon and sub-deacon.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thaddeus S. Huminski, of Devonshire road, wore a gown of candlelight peau de soie and hand-corded Belgian lace embroidered with pearls and crystals.

Church Women Meet Tuesday

The Evening Group of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will meet on Tuesday, November 24 at 8 o'clock in the Lounge.

Presenting a book review of "The Vicarage" will be Mrs. H. S. Arbogast. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Frank G. Raphael.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Gerzit Kastenberg, Mrs. Frank G. Raphael and Mrs. A. N. Davis.

quet was fashioned of stephanotis, with roses and ivy.

Maid of honor Mary Ellen Huminski, sister of the bride, wore an Empire line, floor length gown of emerald green velveteen and satin, with a matching green velveteen draped toque.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Mary Ann Muer, Roberta Lazowski, Mrs. Robert D. Graham, Jr., of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Antonio Lawrence, of Denver, Colo., sister of the bridegroom.

They carried cascade bouquets of white Fuji mums and grapes.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas Ellis, of Denver, asked his brother-in-law, Antonio Lawrence, to act as best man.

Ushering were Michael J. Huminski, brother of the bride, Thomas Denomme, Harold Heinze, of New York, and Robert D. Graham, Jr.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Huminski chose a raspberry brocade suit with matching accessories. Mrs. Ellis wore a rose-colored outfit with matching accessories. Both mothers pinned pink baby roses to their handbags.

After a reception at Lochmoor Club, the bride donned a cranberry tweed walking suit for traveling to Georgia, where the newlyweds will make their home.

Student Dances At Teen Center

The Neighborhood Club is sponsoring Saturday night dances at the Teen Center located at Grace Church, Lakepointe and Kencheval, for senior high students.

The music is provided by "The Misfits," a real live combo featuring the latest dance music.

These dances are held every Saturday night with the exception of Saturday nights that the War Memorial Youth Council hold their dance.

Admission to the dance is 50 cents for members and 75 cents for non-members.

Mrs. John Douglas Ellis, Jr.

JUDITH ANN HUMINSKI, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thaddeus S. Huminski, of Devonshire road, was married to Mr. Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas Ellis, of Denver, Colo., at a noon ceremony Saturday, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church.

Council Rates TV Programs

Twice each year at the Main Library, the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council holds a television workshop.

Before the workshop, each member is sent a list of approximately 20 television programs to watch and rate. Five different lists are sent out, so that over 100 programs are viewed.

Each program is given a rating number and the age of the people to whom it would appeal is noted. Ratings run from one (unsatisfactory) to five (excellent).

When a program is given a low rating, a reason is also noted. These reasons range from "promotes disrespect of law" to "justifies murder."

At the workshop, each program viewed is considered and a final rating, based on each individual rating, is decided upon. Then the lists are tabulated.

The highest rated programs, those rated four and five, will be published on a sheet that is distributed to children in all Grosse Pointe Schools, grades one through six.

The Council sends a criticism of all undesirable programs to the channel on which they appear.

At a meeting on Monday, November 16, the Council recommended a large number of programs for family viewing. These included George Pierrot's programs, Michigan Outdoors, International Showtime, Mr. Wizzard, Wild Kingdom, The Adventures of Dennis Cooper, Weekend Explor-

Woman's Club Sets Workshop

One begins to realize that Christmas is almost on us when the Garden Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club sponsors its annual "Christmas Workshop."

Members and guests will attend the Pot-Luck Luncheon and workshop on November 30, at 11 o'clock, at the home of the hostess, Mrs. J. E. McCaughey, of Beaufait road.

This workshop will offer unique ideas for holiday decorating.

The Bridge Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will also have an early Christmas party beginning with a luncheon on December 2, at 12 o'clock noon, at the Josephine Gregory room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Eugene Wambold or Mrs. Clay Baldwin. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. E. E. Erickson and Mrs. Frank DeCavette.

Schedule Shaw Comedy Today And Tomorrow

"Man and Superman," a satirical comedy by Shaw, will be performed by the APA (Association of Producing Artists), resident repertory company of Broadway players sponsored by The University of Michigan Professional Theatre, at The Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium at 4 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Thursday, November 19, and at 8:30 p.m. Friday, November 20.

The performances are sponsored by the University Center for Adult Education (Wayne State University, the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan University) and the Detroit Institute of Arts. For further information, call Temple 3-1400, Ext. 371.

Ruth Alden Dress Drive Appeals for Your Help

The 30th annual Ruth Alden Dress Drive is now under way.

Goal of the drive, which is sponsored by Detroit Free Press Charities, Inc., is to provide school dresses for more than 13,000 needy little girls in the Detroit area. The dresses, as usual, will be packed and delivered by the Goodfellows in time for Christmas wearing.

Those wishing to contribute to the drive may send either dresses or cash ($2.00 for each dress) to Ruth Alden, Box 701, Detroit 31, Michigan.

Dresses should be of a washable fabric and of a practical design and color suitable for school. They must be in sizes 7, 8, 10, 12 or 14. Dresses should be received by Thanksgiving — although the Goodfellows will make every effort to deliver those received as late as December 10.

Cash contributions may be mailed up to Christmas Day. All gifts to Ruth Alden, whether dresses or cash, are tax deductible.

Though strikebound, the Free Press is going ahead with this year's drive to help the Goodfellows remain faithful to their pledge of "No Child Without A Christmas."

25,200 AT WSU

With an increase of 2,890 students this fall, enrollment at Wayne State University reached an all-time high of 25,200 students, reports Dr. Henry H. Pixley, dean of admissions, records and registration.

'Pime' Guild Plans for Season

Members of the Grosse Pointe "Pime" Mission Guild gathered recently at the Moran road home of Mrs. Joseph A. Maullio, II, for their first luncheon and meeting of the season.

Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, Guild president, presided at the session.

Plans for the coming year include a fashion show and luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club May 6, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clayton Alant.

Among those who will assist Mrs. Alant with preparations for the gala "Spring in Spain" luncheon and fashions are Mrs. Claude A. Greiner, Mrs. Chilton Drysdale, Mrs. Julius C. Tapert, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Leo Huetter and Mrs. Charles Da-wood.

More are Mrs. Dominic Pucci, Mrs. Frederick M. VanAssche, Mrs. Clement Pennell, Mrs. F. M. Barrett and Mrs. Anthony Shemansky.

Many a man with a workable theory lacks the initiative and drive to push it through.

To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Wybo, of Nottingham road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, SANDRA LOUISE, to Ensign John E. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Fullarton, of Dubuque, Iowa.

Miss Wybo, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, is attending the Bon Secours Hospital School of Nursing, Baltimore, Md.

Ensign Williams was graduated from the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., in 1964, and is presently stationed at the Naval Air Station, Meridian, Miss.

An early summer wedding is planned.

GP Lawyers' Wives Plan Lunch for New Members

A get-acquainted luncheon for new members of the Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives of Michigan is being planned for Wednesday, December 9, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. This pre-Christmas party begins at 12 o'clock noon.

For reservations, call Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen at VA 3-9929.

This luncheon promises to be as successful as the dinner dance which the membership held on Saturday night, November 14, at the Detroit Yacht Club. Dinner and dancing followed a lively social hour for the Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives and their husbands.

Legion Auxiliary To Make Study Of Costa Rica

Costa Rica will be the country studied by the American Legion Auxiliary in its Foreign Relations program during the coming year. It has been announced by Mrs. Mary Duster, Foreign Relations Chairman of Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 of the Auxiliary.

One of the Latin American republics is studied by women of the Auxiliary throughout the United States each year, and a self-help project for the people of that country carried out as a gesture of good will.

"We have just completed a year's study of Ecuador and found it very interesting," explained Mrs. Duster. "As our good will gesture, we collected our pennies and purchased pumps for Ecuadorian villages which had no water supplies. As a result of our gifts, made through CARE, nearly 100 wells have been dug and pure water is flowing for many thousands of villagers. Pennies of our 900,000 members added up to $24,000 for the purchase of pumps for Ecuador.

"Our self-help project for 1963 was the buying of materials to build rural school houses in the Dominican Republic. Thirteen of these have been completed and have won the gratitude of this island nation. The project for Costa Rica has not yet been selected.

"In our study of Costa Rica, our members will write essays on the country which will be entered into senior and junior essay contests. They will make scrap books on the country, also for contests, and the junior members will dress dolls in the costume of the country. Food and music of the country will be featured at social events of Auxiliary Units.

"Our Foreign Relations Study program is one of the Auxiliary's most colorful and interesting activities, and we hope to make it an especially attractive part of our Unit's 1965 activities."

Just as tall trees are known by their shadows, so are good men known by their enemies.—S.B.

Xmas Party for Handicapped

The Detroit League for the Handicapped members will again be the recipients of a turkey dinner, small Christmas gifts and table favors, with entertainment by the Joe Vitale Trio and the Junior League of Detroit Glee Club, at a Christmas Party December 15, from 11:30 until 4 o'clock.

The party will take place at the Detroit League for the Handicapped headquarters in Ash street, Detroit. About 225 people are expected to enjoy the fun.

The Junior League of Detroit is busy planning the festivities, as it has for several years. Carol Ann Cobane is the chairman, with Mrs. Joseph L. Cobane, Mrs. Bruce D. Carey, Mrs. Thomas A. Garred, Mrs. Owen

F. Keeler and Mrs. W. Gerald Warren serving on her Committee.

B'nai B'rith, College Women's Volunteer Service, Village Women's Club of Birmingham, St. Ann's Guild of St. James Church of Birmingham, T.A.E. Association and the National Farm and Garden Association are other organizations that sponsor this party.

The Detroit League for the Handicapped was started by the Junior League of Detroit in 1922. It has been an active agency, independent of the Junior League, since 1936.

sprays of mistletoe will send their holiday fragrance throughout the educational unit of the church where festive bazaar booths will be arranged, reports decorations chairman Mrs. Ernest Dossin, Sr.

An important addition this year for many shoppers is the nursery for small children in the annex, the house next door to the church. Playtime activities will be under the supervision of the Miriam Circle, Mrs. Albert Schweitzer, chairman.

There will be gifts galore to delight everyone on even the longest of Christmas shopping lists as well as to please the most discriminating shopper herself, promises Fair chairman, Mrs. Carl Carlson. Mrs. Erwin Smetzer is co-chairman.

The accent, as in past Fairs at St. James, will be on "hand-mades and home-mades."

The Tots to Teens booth, headed by Mrs. Gordon Faust, will offer high fashion, clothes for Barbie dolls, cuddly terry cloth dolls, puppets, bibs, aprons and baby sweaters.

A rosy-pink nylon net "kissing ball" trimmed with tiny pink ornaments and pretend mistletoe is just one of the many lovely holiday decorative items that will be found in the Christmas Decoration Booth. Ornaments, wreaths, miniature trees, and evergreens are more attention-getters.

The Boutique will feature the imaginative and unusual in gifts. Purse baskets, hand painted with charming village scenes, are real eye-catchers. For those who like to do it themselves, there are purse baskets to finish as well as some stained and lined, ready for trimming. Co-chairmen are Mrs. John Fraser and Mrs. Franklin Quale.

Always a favorite is the Apron and Linens Booth, this year in charge of Mrs. Francis Schulze. Included in the large assortment will be cobbler, circle, half and tea aprons to perk up every cook, delight every hostess. Lovely luncheon sets and place mats and practical, pretty pot holders and dish cloths are among some of the other gift items to be found in this booth.

Knitting needles have been clicking away steadily since last spring under co-chairmanship of Mrs. J. Otto Ortwein and Mrs. Gerald Tolkenitt, to fashion beautiful sweaters in wool and in mohair in favorite styles and designs, as well as mittens, scarves, and ear warmers.

A special feature of the Wintergreen Fair are monogrammed blouses by special order. Of popular, easy-care dacron, they can be ordered in a wide range of styles and colors and will be delivered in 10 days to the shopper, according to chairman Mrs. Irving Bopp.

Antique collectors and bargain hunters are sure to make a bee-line to the Attic Treasures Booth. Fine china, pewter, silver are just a few of the choice items found by Mrs. Arthur Wible, Sr., chairman, and her committee, in their collection of odds and ends.

The Book Booth will have a fine selection of reading material ranging from the secular to the religious for both children and adults, with special emphasis on Christmas literature. Chairman Mrs. Wilbur Busse notes that used children's books in good condition will also be available for the young shopper. To wrap all the delightful holiday presents, shoppers will find just the right gift wrappings, ribbons and greeting cards

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Blackman Galloway, of Beacon Hill, have announced the engagement of their daughter, MARY SYMINGTON, to Frederick Ollison, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ollison, Jr., of Provencal road.

The announcement was made at a small party, for members of the two families and friends of the young couple, last Saturday evening.

Miss Galloway attended Grosse Pointe University School and was graduated from Miss Hall's School, Pittsfield, Mass., and Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Mass. She attended the University of Michigan, where she affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

She was presented to society in June, 1962, and is a member of Tau Beta Association.

Mr. Ollison attended the Hotchkiss and Ashville Schools, and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, where he affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon.

A spring wedding is planned, in wide variety at Mrs. Frank Mumford, Sr.'s booth.

The General Store, always a crowded spot, will be brim-full with home-baked bread, pies, cakes, and other "goodies," plus home-canned jellies, jams, fruits and vegetables. The busy shopper will even be able to take home a casserole all ready to pop into the oven and reheat.

For shoppers who enjoy surprises, Mrs. Paul Munkholm promises delightful gifts in the Surprise Package Booth. Handy shopping guides will be available, listing booths and their location.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 to 1:30 o'clock and is sure to be a tasty treat report co-chairmen Mrs. Adolph Kress and Mrs. Ralph Hulzinga.

Donuts and coffee will be served throughout Fair day. The checkroom will be located conveniently on the lower level with Mrs. Walker Rose in charge.

Wintergreen Fair treasurer is Mrs. John Morrow. Mrs. Norman Reynolds is assistant treasurer. Mrs. Keith Counsell is in charge of invitations and publicity.

Slate Ski Week In The Pointe

It is Ski Week in Grosse Pointe. Before we know it, Thanksgiving will be here — and then comes the snow! Now is the time to get ready.

Rex Clavola, noted skier and instructor from Grosse Pointe and leader of ski classes for the Grosse Pointe Ski Club for many years, will be presenting a ski orientation class at Eastland Concourse Auditorium this Saturday, November 20, from 2 until 4:30 o'clock.

Rex, a well known figure on Michigan's ski slopes, has also skied in many areas of Europe and South America. This year, he is planning his "piece de resistance," a tour Around the World on Skis.

The ski orientation class is free to all. Ski enthusiasts will be advised of the latest in ski fashions, equipment and ski areas.

In addition, Rex will give pre-season conditioning tips and demonstrate the American ski technique on an indoor ski ramp.

Pro Musica Season Starts

Pro Musica will open its 38th season in Detroit with a concert at the Art Institute Tuesday, December 1, at 8:30 o'clock.

Artist of the evening will be Ronald Turini, only pupil of the renowned Vladimir Horowitz and, without question, one of the foremost young pianists of his generation.

Among Turini's international honors are prizes at both the Busoni Competition of Bolzano, Italy, and the Geneva Competition of Switzerland in 1959.

In May, 1960, he placed second in the most fiercely competitive of international contests, the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Concours. He made his United States debut in Carnegie Hall in 1961.

Pro Musica presents Turini in keeping with its purpose: To sponsor the finest of the new artists and the new music.

A few memberships in Pro Musica are still available. For further information, contact Mrs. John M. Chase, TUXEDO 5-5787.

Robert G. Isbell To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew Steele, of Fayetteville, N.Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Susan Preston Steele, to Robert Grindley Isbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Isbell, of Mapleton road.

Miss Steele, currently in her senior year at Skidmore College School of Nursing, is a graduate of Dana Hall, Wellesley, Mass.

Mr. Isbell was graduated from Cranbrook School in 1956, and from Princeton University, cum laude, in 1960. While at Princeton, he was a member of Triangle Club and Quadrangle Club.

At present, he is interning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, and will begin his residency in internal medicine at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester.

Lake St. Clair MSPE To Gather Monday

The Lake St. Clair Chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers will meet at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 8 o'clock Monday, November 23.

Speaker is Fred Steiner, editor of The Detroit Edison Company's "Synchroscope," who will talk on the subject "Can Engineers Communicate with Others." Mr. Steiner will discuss how engineers can improve their channels of communication and achieve a better understanding.

All engineers are invited to attend.

Expert to Talk On Americana

Collectors and Collecting of Americana will be discussed by Milo M. Naeve, registrar of the Winterthur Museum on Friday evening, November 20, at 8:30 o'clock in the Henry Ford Museum theater.

This will be the first program of the season for the annual Henry Ford Museum Antiques Lectures Series which will introduce this year's theme, devoted to reports from noted collectors of Americana. Now entering its thirteenth season, this series has brought to Michigan over 70 authorities in various fields of American studies.

Milo Naeve received a bachelor of fine arts degree from the University of Colorado in 1953 and completed a master of arts at the University of Delaware in 1955. Two years of military service then followed in the U.S. Army.

In 1957 Naeve joined the Henry Francis duPont Winterthur Museum at Winterthur, Del., as curatorial assistant and was appointed assistant curator in 1958. He served as secretary of the Museum from 1959 to 1962 at which time he was appointed as the registrar.

In addition to his regular duties, Naeve has devoted time to writing articles and reviews for several leading publications. He currently has a book in progress on John Lewis Krimmel, German-American painter of Philadelphia.

The decorative arts galleries of the Henry Ford Museum will be open at 7:30 the night of Mr. Naeve's lecture. Refreshments will be served after the lecture in the special exhibition area, allowing guests to view the Museum's current exhibits, "The Arts and Crafts of the Old Northwest Territory

Plan Greens Workshop For Gardeners

The Detroit Garden Center will again conduct its annual Greens Workshop with Mrs. Elmore W. Frank as chairman and Mrs. Robert J. Ungerwiler, co-chairman. It will be held at the Detroit Historical Museum, Woodward at Kirby on December 9, 10 and the morning of the 11th, for members only.

The fee of $1.50 for any half-day session or $2.50 for the entire day includes a generous bundle of evergreens and the help of an expert teaching staff at all sessions.

There will be wire, forms, unusual greens, fruit, balls, cones, ribbons, candles and other materials. On display will be examples of designs that can be made.

Don't forget clippers and containers for arrangements, also a sandwich. The workshop will supply coffee.

Paid reservations should be sent promptly to the Detroit Garden Center, 133 East Grand River, Detroit 26. Attendance is limited. Non-members may join the Center by paying a $2 membership fee.

Members derive many extra benefits such as interesting workshops, the privileges of an outstanding up-to-date Horticultural library, many new flower arranging books, free lectures, programs for garden clubs, etc.

Gerathy, on Xmas ideas, using material available at the workshop.

Everyone is welcome.

Honor Susan Turner Before Holiday Rites

Showers for Bride-Elect Began in August; Rehearsal Dinner Scheduled Thanksgiving Eve, in Bridegroom-Elect's Parents' Home

Parties for bride-elect Susan Turner, who will marry Daniel Timothy Goodnow in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore December 26, began October 15, when Daniel's grandmother, Mrs. Edward Brooks Goodnow, gave a luncheon in Susan's honor at Carmel Hall.

parties, on November 28. Mrs. Christopher Smith will give a luncheon and personal shower at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

From Another Pointe of View

The White Christmas Ball, teenage sons and daughters will be making merry on their own, at a Teen Night Cabaret Concert given by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road.

Through these Cabaret Concerts, with the audience seated at tables, beverages and light snacks available during the performance, the Symphony Orchestra hopes to bridge the gap between Young People's Concerts and the regular Symphony Series.

Mrs. Charles Mosher, of Cloverly road, is in charge of Teen Night tickets in The Pointe area.

November 20 And 21

Strictly speaking, an evening at the theater is not a "party" . . . but if the theater happens to be The Players Playhouse, the cast and the audience all friends—then the atmosphere is as "party" as a black-tie dinner dance.

Cast for The Fine Arts Society of Detroit's opening performance of its 59th season, "The Best Man," by Gore Vidal, is predominantly Grosse Pointe.

A comedy in three acts, to be presented tomorrow and Saturday nights, the play deals with behind-the-scenes activities at a national political convention.

"Stars" include William J. Demmes, Robert M. Rodger, Mrs. Francis H. Brown, Mrs. J. Charles Markley, Jr., Donald F. Bliss, Albert M. Berteel, John O. Peters and Leslie C. Putnam.

Two For November 28

Dinner dances are scheduled at both The Country Club of Detroit and Lochmoor Club the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

At The Country Club, Harper Hospital Auxiliary will hold its annual dinner dance for members and guests on the 28th.

Party chairman is Mrs. Charles B. Gorey, Jr. Her assistants include Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin, Mrs. Edward Netting, Mrs. Edward Shumaker, Mrs. Stephen Bohn, Mrs. Thomas McKean, Mrs. Albert D. Ruedemann, Jr., and Mrs. Raymond Sokolov.

"Magical Moments of Music . . . Music . . . Music" is the theme for Lochmoor's formal dinner dance.

Eddie Santini's Barons of Dixie will be playing in the "Blues Room," decorated with gold, white and chartreuse cylinder candles and a Christmas tree, while Al Navarro's Orchestra holds forth in the "Blue Room," featuring a blue and green color scheme with special lighting effects, candles and flowers.

Strolling musicians and intermission entertainment are also on the evening's agenda.

Hostesses are Mrs. Elmer O'Berski and Mrs. Howard B. Wolff. Among those serving on the committee are Mrs. Frank A. Colombo, Mrs. Fred S. Neumann, Mrs. Stanley S. Ernst and Mrs. Stanley R. Evatz.

More are Mrs. Nicholas R. Rove, Mrs. Lorenzo D. Browning, Mrs. Clarence Bower, Mrs. George A. Davis, Mrs. Alexander P. Venettis, Mrs. Samuel R. Nicholl, Mrs. Alex J. Szmigiel and Mrs. J. Lee Schoenith.

Thanksgiving Turkey Tips

Thanksgiving traditionally means a turkey on the table and in the modern supermarket there are many shapes and sizes to choose from.

When choosing the right size turkey for your dinner Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Home Economists recommend you allow approximately 1/2 to 3/4 pounds per person.

Unstuffed turkeys and turkey parts should be almost completely thawed before cooking. Do not thaw commercially frozen stuffed birds before cooking.

The refrigerator is the best place to thaw. Unwrap small parts and separate them so air can reach each piece. To shorten the time, turkeys sealed in watertight wrappers may be thawed in cold water. A large whole bird may take as long as 2 to 3 days to thaw in the refrigerator.

Do not stuff the turkey until time to roast it. Stuffing a turkey and refrigerating or freezing it at home for later use is not recommended by the Cooperative Extension Service Home Economists.

Northeastern Women To Meet Next Monday

Northeastern Woman's Club will gather Monday, November 23, at 12 o'clock noon, for a Thanksgiving Brunch in St. Philip and St. Stephen Church Parlors. A business meeting is scheduled at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. David Mills will speak on "American Friends Society."

Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upheld by mercy.

Supper Dance Scheduled By Alpha Gamma Deltas

All groups of Alpha Gamma Delta are busy with plans for a supper and dance, Friday, December 4, at 6:30 o'clock at the U.S. Health Service Recreation Hall.

Part of the proceeds of this fun project will help send some handicapped children to the Grace Bentley Summer Camp in 1965. Part also will go to Alpha Gamma Delta's national project for fellowships for Counselor Training in the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. Byron Phillips, of Sheldon road, is chairman, assisted by Mrs. B. F. Martin, Mrs. Carl Swanson, Mrs. Paul Cornelisen and Mrs. Norman Baker.

WSU Alumni Meet Tonight

In tune with the coming holidays, the Wayne State University Alumni Club of Grosse Pointe is featuring Henry King of "King Flowers" at its meeting tonight, Thursday, November 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Hospitality Center in Kercheval avenue.

Mr. King will present unique flower arrangements, both fresh and artificial. These will be auctioned off to the highest bidder after the demonstration.

Mrs. Harold Jinks, in charge of refreshments, plans to serve something with an international flavor—"Dutch Speculaas."

Mrs. Alexander Wescott, president of the organization, hopes the members will take this opportunity to get together as there will not be another meeting until some time in March.

The heavy patronage which the Slumbercoach enjoys on the B&O's Capitol, between Baltimore-Washington and Chicago, and on the National, between Baltimore-Washington and St. Louis, encouraged the railroad to extend the service to the Capitol-Detroit train. On the Capitol and the National, Slumbercoach cars have been operating at near-capacity.

Sanders-Tietze Rites Celebrated Saturday

Reception At Gourmet House Follows Evening Rites; Pair Travel To Northern Michigan; Will Live In Warren

Wearing a peau de soie A-line gown, styled with an Alencon lace bodice and elbow length sleeves, Gail Lillian Tietze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tietze, of Beaufait road, spoke her wedding vows to Russell Thomas Sanders, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Sanders, of Lancaster road, Saturday.

Reverend Walter J. Gelfert officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony, in Christ the King Lutheran Church.

The bride's gown featured a Cathedral length Watteau train. Her illusion veil fell from a lace and peau de soie pillbox, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

In emerald green velvet floor sheaths, with matching Dior bow headpieces, were the attendants, maid of honor Sharyn Allardye and bridesmaids Sharon Abend, Barbara Herman, Nancy Lamore and Linda Lamore, all cousins of the bride, and Meg Sanders, the bridegroom's sister. Their flower girls were Happiness roses.

Debbie Sanders, another sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl, in a long, Empire style frock of green velvet. She wore a matching Dior bow in her hair, and carried a small basket filled with ivy and roses.

Philip Sanders served as his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Greg Sanders, Jeff Sanders and Don Sanders, all brothers of the bridegroom. Tom Tietze, the bride's brother, Raymond Dollman and Richard Baker.

Gary Lamore, the bride's cousin, acted as ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at Gourmet House, Mrs. Tietze chose a silk gown with beaded jacket. Mrs. Sanders' gown was fashioned of gold peau de soie. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

When the newlyweds left for a tour of Northern Michigan, the bride was wearing a black knit suit with suede accents. They will make their home in Warren.

Center Holding College Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association announces its annual Thanksgiving Weekend Collegian's Dance to be given in the Crystal Ballroom of Fries Auditorium, 32 Lake Shore, on Saturday evening, November 28, at 9 o'clock.

The party will be known as "The Massachusetts Monkey" since the popular dance will be programmed several times throughout the evening.

All Pointers of College age and their guests are cordially invited. It has only been possible to get invitations addressed to the most recent high school graduates, but it is stressed that upper classmen are equally invited, wanted, and expected.

Local collegians working to publicize this dance include, Chuck Hepner, Carl Leland and Elaine Dogarin from Wayne State University and John Fleming, Lynn Fitzgibbons, Maureen Moesta, Terri McCormick, Gail Horan and Marie Edwards, from the University of Detroit.

Music for the dance will be provided by Roston Clark's orchestra in person and by the Fugitives on record. Regular college date clothes will be worn. The admission is $1 per person and includes refreshments.

Church Society To Meet Dec. 2

The Detroit Presbyterian Society will meet Wednesday, December 2, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Mrs. Henry C. Weidier is chairman for the day.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. with a special worship service "Interpretation of Christmas Music." The 1965 Bible study will be introduced by Dr. Harold C. Vernon. Honorary memberships will be presented by Mrs. Dale Small.

In the afternoon there will be a dramatic presentation "HIS RADIANT LIGHT" under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Grimm. For luncheon reservations call TU 6-2448, or TU 5-3773 by Monday noon, November 30.

Populaires Star Tonight At DAC

In town for a stand of only three evenings the Four Populaires, well-known to DAC members for their performances from the beach at Waikiki to Miami shores and from the Las Vegas sands to West Virginia's Greenbriar, packed them in at the Detroit Athletic Club for a full house at last night's opening.

A musical quartet that has been singing together for close to a score of years, the Populaires more than live up to their name.

Blended with the orchestra's musical instruments, they give out in the melodious style that charms listeners and keeps the Populaires at the Greenbrier for eight months of the year. Among Pointers with reservations for the opening were Reece B. Oberteuffer, Marshall V. Noecker, J. K. Worley, Leigh B. Middleditch, H. W. Burton, Kenneth Cunningham, T. J. Sweeney and John D. Bayne.

This evening, though the DAC entertainment will be missed, several parties have arranged to dine at the club before going on to the 50th anniversary concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Fete Sharon Rabaut Before Her Wedding

Shows, Luncheons and Suppers Scheduled Now Until Wedding Day, December 26, in St. Paul's On The Lake Shore

Bride-elect Sharon Lee Rabaut is enjoying a round of parties and showers prior to her November 28 wedding.

The daughter of Mrs. Charles P. Rabaut, of Cadieux road, and the late Mr. Rabaut, will speak her marriage vows to David Lee VanLokeren, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. VanLokeren, of Grand Marais boulevard, at a noon ceremony in St. Clare de Montefalco Church.

Miss Rabaut's pre-nuptial whirl began in August, with a personal shower given by Veronica Motschall, Patricia Brennan and Elaine Gravelle at Miss Motschall's home in Ballantyne road.

Mrs. Clinton Amluxen entertained at a linen shower in her Whittier road home September 24 and, on October 4, Mrs. John Fannon, Sr., hosted a kitchen shower and luncheon at the Hawthorne House.

Mrs. Joseph Louisell and Mrs. John Fannon, III, joined forces to give the Spinster dinner October 24, at Mrs. Fannon's home in Bringard avenue.

Hostess November 1 was Mrs. Lionel DeWulf, who entertained at an Around-the-Clock shower in her Bedford road home.

Mrs. A. Wayne Kniffin and Betty Krome gave a baby accessory shower in Mrs. Kniffin's Bedford road home November.

The Rehearsal Dinner hosts will be the bridegroom-elect's parents, who have planned the party at their home Thanksgiving Eve.

To Hold Bazaar At St. Philomena

St. Philomena Church Annual Christmas Bazaar will be held Saturday, November 21, from 12 noon to 9 p.m. and Sunday, November 22, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the school hall, Mack at Marseilles.

There will be games, gift booths and a bake sale. Delicious food will be served from the kitchen. Sunday will feature an Italian style dinner prepared by Mr. Felix Tonin. The dinner will be $1 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

The top award will be made Sunday night, a trip for two to the World's Fair in New York.

Dem Women Discuss Society

"The Great Society — Its Problems and Solutions" is the topic for the next several meetings of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Women's Discussion Group.

The 50th anniversary issue of the magazine "New Republic" is being used as basic source material for these meetings.

The group meets weekly, from 9:15 to 11:15 o'clock each Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James H. Graves, of Buckingham road. Democratic women who are interested in such discussions are invited to attend.

When yearnings outstrip earnings the budget is all gummed up.

Many people get into hot water by stepping under a shower of criticism.

At a family dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan, of Lakecrest lane, announced the engagement of their daughter, NANCY ANNE, to Ensign Gordon Nelson Cameron, Jr.

Ensign Cameron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon N. Cameron, of Hampton road, and the grandson of Mrs. Ralph R. Johnston, of Roslyn road.

Miss Drennan was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School

Health Council Meets Monday

The Mothers' Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe will hold its next meeting at 1 o'clock, Monday, November 23, in the Main Library.

Following a brief business meeting conducted by president Mrs. William Self, program chairman Mrs. Todd Fredericks has arranged for Mrs. Fred J. Flom to speak on the maintenance of Mental Health in children. She will explain about the work of the North-eastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, newly established in Grosse Pointe.

On hand to greet the delegates will be Mrs. William Self, president; Mrs. Todd Fredericks, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Premier, recording secretary; Mrs. Quinten LaChapelle, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Bertram Watson, treasurer.

Other Board members are

Mrs. Richard Ferrara, membership; Mrs. Russell Bradley and Mrs. John Naghosian, dental co-chairmen, Mrs. Todd Fredericks, program; Mrs. Edward Letscher, publicity; dental treasurer, Mrs. Anthony Fortunski; welfare, Mrs. Carl Nolte and Mrs. Samuel Laux; ways and means, Mrs. Robert Ungewitter; hospitality, Mrs. Donald Foster, and code book, Mrs. James M. Surbrook.

The Council has announced the three local dentists who are conducting the fluoride treatments in the Grosse Pointe area schools this year. They are Dr. Richard Knoff, Dr. Edward Watko and Dr. John Britt.

Children in the second, fifth and eighth grades of the Grosse Pointe schools are eligible for these treatments. During September and October, children have been treated at and from the University of Michigan, where she affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is currently teaching in Littleton, Colo.

Ensign Cameron is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and Western Michigan University. He is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. Upon completion of training at United States Naval Officer Candidate School, he received his commission as Ensign, Supply Corps, United States Naval Reserve. Following graduation from the Navy Supply Corps School, he is presently the Junior Supply Officer aboard the USS Ogilthorpe. The couple plans a summer wedding.

WE NEED MORE HOMES FOR SALE

Business has been terrific and the demand for homes greatly exceeds the supply. If your home is for sale and competitively priced, we can sell it for you fast. See us at once while this activity continues.

SELLING HOMES IS OUR BUSINESS

10 reasons why JOHNSTONE & JOHNSTONE has grown to be one of the largest and most successful home selling organizations in Grosse Pointe and the Detroit metropolitan area.

1. We deal only in residential properties.
2. 6 offices (3 in Grosse Pointe) and 70 full time sales people.
3. 45 years of continuous service.
4. We have the "Know How" to estimate within narrow limits the sales price we feel can be obtained.
5. 20,000 or more pieces of Direct Mail are broadcast monthly to prospects, industrial concerns, owners, renters, upgraded executives, young marrieds and others.
6. Our Trade-in Plan enables us to buy or guarantee a sale of the home the prospect must sell before he can buy another.
7. Nation-Wide Referral Services — Membership in the Inter-City Real Estate Referral Service gives us first hand information on families being transferred to this area.
8. We finance—As correspondents for the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, we have unlimited funds available for mortgages.
9. Our Insurance Department acts as agent for several of the largest Insurance Companies in America.
10. We handle the entire transaction from beginning to end. We furnish the prospect, arrange the financing, place insurance, prepare all necessary papers and close the transaction.

Book Sculptor For Art Talk

The next Businessmen's Luncheon, sponsored by the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, is scheduled Wednesday, November 25. The program will begin with cocktails at 12 o'clock noon, followed by a 12:30 o'clock luncheon in the Rivera Court.

Speaker will be Julius Schmidt, sculpture instructor at the Cranbrook Academy of Art. Mr. Schmidt specializes in the casting of metals of bronze and iron.

He is one of the outstanding sculptors in this field, and will tell how he works and develops ideas for his art objects.

Mr. Schmidt, a student at Cranbrook some years ago, returned to his former school to teach sculpture three years ago. In the interim, he held various positions at the University of California, Rhode Island School of Design and the Kansas City Art Institute. His work is well known throughout this country. His most recent show was held at the Franklin Siden Gallery in Detroit.

Andiron Donated By DAR Chapter

Mrs. Clarence E. Carroll, Regent of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will present to Mrs. James V. Zeder, State Regent, and her State Board, an authentic antique andiron for the Michigan Room in Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C.

The presentation will be made today, November 19, at 10:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The Museum is free and people from all over the country visit it. Michigan travelers always visit the Michigan room to see the priceless furniture and objects donated by the members of the Michigan DARs. The National Society is celebrating its 75th year.

Some of the members from Grosse Pointe who will attend the presentation are: Mrs. Willard O. Wilson, Mrs. Cornelius G. Egan, Mrs. Harold R. Smith, Mrs. Norman L. Parker, Mrs. Boy E. DeHart, Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire, Mrs. R. Frederick Shepherd, Mrs. Floyd W. Dargel, Mrs. George F. Ryckman, Mrs. Louis M. Edgar and Mrs. Robert O. Artner.

Millions witness Cape Horn-to-Fairbanks Durability Run

Comet roars from bottom to top of world to show it's still World's Durability Champion

Regular production show-room models run for 40 days and nights in historic 16,200-mile grind to "top." Like all famous durability feats of the past rolled into one: the Alcan Run, the Baja Run, the Over-the-Andes Run. What's the sense of driving Comet through 16,200 miles of sleet, ice, snow, mire, mountains, etc.? To show you that Comet "can do." Don't you think it's time to come see the one that's not just lively and beautiful, but tough and powerful, too. Comet!

Comets started Sept. 12 from Ushuaia, Tierra del Fuego. First leg of long grind wound up and down tough, single-lane, snow-covered stretch of Andes Mountains.

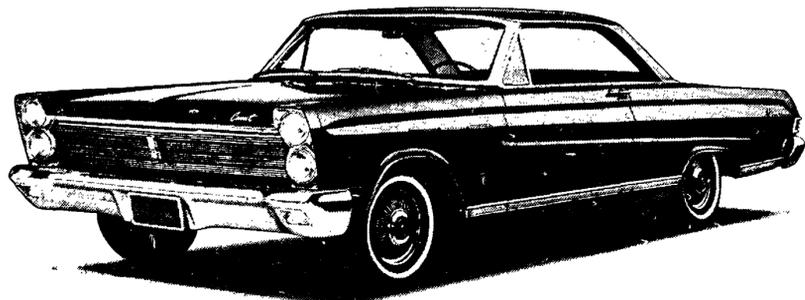

Everyone seemed to know the Comets were coming. Crowd scenes like this one were common.

Mud, mire, jungle. Comets had it—and took it all without any mechanical repairs at all on the route.

In Canada, Comets near goal. No other cars had ever tried to complete long run in so little time.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Fries Auditorium
"Soul and Body" is the subject at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Golden Text reads: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16).

The Lesson-Sermon concludes with these words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear... this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. Thus we may establish in truth the temple, or body, whose builder and maker is God" (p. 428).

St. James Plans Special Service

St. James Lutheran Church cordially invites its friends and neighbors to attend the special worship service on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26, at 9:30 a.m. There will be a nursery for small children.

Pastor George E. Kurz suggests that this special national holiday is an opportune time for his congregation, and for the community, "to join together in giving thanks to God for His boundless love, which during the past year has comforted friends who have been touched by death, healed those who have faltered through illness, increased families and enriched lives by baptism, brought joy to shut-ins and strengthened those who care for them; for God's abundant gifts to meet physical needs and for the deepening of love and strengthening of trust in Christ our Savior, all should join to praise and give thanks on Thanksgiving Day."

Ski Ambassador Bringing Movie

John Jay, America's Ambassador of Skiing, is coming to Grosse Pointe on Sunday, November 22, at 4 and 8 p.m. to personally present, in his own lively and amusing style, his latest color film epic, entitled "Persian Powder."
Sponsored by the Center's Grosse Pointe Ski Club, it will be shown at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium with Mr. Jay doing the narration in person.
Packed with action, beauty, and excitement, "Persian Powder" is an intriguing and unusual picture that the entire family will enjoy. There are fascinating scenes of faraway lands such as Persia and the Cedars of Lebanon, where Swiss champion Fred Iselin performs amazing feats on skis in deep powder snow, against a backdrop of camels, mosques, and Persian bazaars.

There is hilarious natural comedy in the unending battle of beginners against gravity, and slow motion close-ups of modern ski technique by world champion Stein Erikzen.
Also included in the 90-minute show is a fast-paced swing through some of America's top resorts such as Mt. Snow, Vt. Taos, N.M., Aspen, Aspen Highlands, and Vail, Col.; and a helicopter ascent of the West's new-est and highest ski area at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, with a 4100 foot drop that is unequalled in this country.
For sheer thrills and drama, however, nothing can match Jay's multi-camera coverage of international racing at Winter Park and Innsbruck. You will see the first race in Olympic history to produce medals for American men skiers, and you will see the last race ever run by America's beloved Buddy Werner. Don't miss this beautiful film, "Persian Powder."

BACK AT WORK—You might not know it to look at him, but it's British actor Peter Sellers, in Paris on his first full-length film since his heart attack in Hollywood. "What's New, Pussycat?"

SOVIET INS AND OUTS

THE INS—Reshuffling by the new Soviet leaders elevates Alexander N. Shelepin (left) to full membership on the powerful Presidium. Shelepin, 46, was formerly ousted Nikita Khrushchev's secret police chief. Fyotr Denichev (middle) becomes a Presidium candidate. He was Khrushchev's light industries chief. Fyotr Shlest, Khrushchev's deputy in the Ukraine, also gains full Presidium membership.

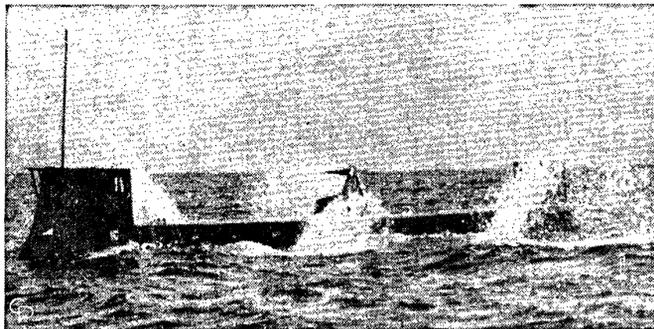

"PEACE MARCHER" Erica Enzer is hoisted into the back of a U.S. Coast Guard pickup truck at Miami Beach, Fla., as she and four others were ejected from their impounded boat as they were about to set out for Cuba. Boat, "Spirit of Freedom," was taken in tow.

THE OUTS—Kremlin decisions retire ailing Deputy Party Leader Frol Kozlov (left) and expel Khrushchev's son-in-law, Alexei Adzubei (middle) from the Central Committee. Also fired is Vasily I. Polyakov (right), who was Khrushchev's agriculture chief, an area of trouble.

ALL ALUMINUM—The world's first all-aluminum submarine, the Aluminaut, surfaces in Long Island Sound after its first dive. The three-man, 54-foot, 72-ton vessel features a unique center deck propeller to aid hovering at desired depths. It is designed to probe the ocean at depths up to 15,000 feet with television and sonar equipment. It also can take samples of the ocean floor and marine life. Electric Boat built it for Reynolds International at a cost of $2 million.

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST stripping shovel, good for 140 cubic yards at a bite, is shown in operation at the Peabody Coal Company's River King Mine, Freeburg, Ill. It took 11 months to assemble it for digging.

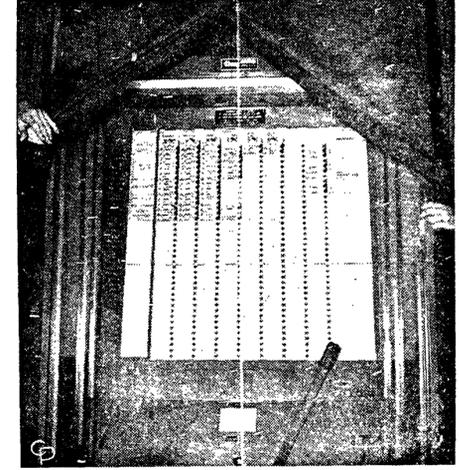

THE NOBELITY—Mrs. Dorothy Crowfoot-Hodgkins, 57, the third woman to be awarded a Nobel Prize in its 64-year history, holds a model of the molecular structure of a chemical she made by use of an X-ray technique which won her the prize for chemistry. She teaches at Oxford University in England.

SITTING BUCKS—Mrs. Richard Sosnovske, farm wife near Gleason, Wis., poses with a couple of deer which proved to be sitting bucks for her bow and arrow. Someone told her two bucks were fighting nearby and she grabbed her bow and arrows and hid herself thence. It turned out the bucks' horns were locked and one was dying of a broken neck. She dispatched the other with a single arrow. One with 10-point antlers weighed 185 pounds, the other, a 13-pointer, weighed 230 pounds.

ENGULFED IN MUDSLIDE—Rescuers search through wrecked home of William Miller, 49, Frank Sinatra's pianist, after it was engulfed up to four feet deep in a mudslide in Burbank, Calif. Miller's wife Almee, 47, disappeared. His daughter Meredith, 17, escaped. Miller was injured trying to help his wife escape. "It was like a flash flood," said Miss Miller. "The mud just came down the canyon and filled one side of the house. We shut that off, but then it started breaking the house up."

NEW VOTING MACHINE—This is the newest thing in voting machines, shown in New York, which will be used for the first time this election. It has the title of the office listed in the left-hand column, with names of the candidates listed by party in columns to the right. To vote, you turn down the handle to the right of the name of the preferred candidate. Mistakes may be corrected simply by lifting the handle back to its original position and depressing the correct handle so that the "X" shows for the vote to register.

1944 HIT-RUN TRIAL—Wesley Lee, 51, displays a bumper guard as evidence in court in Celina, Tenn., where a man he tracked down in a 20-year search is charged with second degree murder in the New Year's Eve 1944 hit-run death of Lee's father, Newt. Lee finally tracked down Grover Jones, 55, an Indianapolis handyman.

IN MASSACHUSETTS, drought is critical in the central and Berkshire regions. This is the Lenox Reservoir, the lower section virtually empty, the upper Reservoir, the lower.

THEY'RE MOVING A HARDWARE STORE—Women in Oak Park, Ill., demonstrate the charitable way to meet a hardware store as they push cartloads of merchandise half a block down the street to the new location. The store advertised for 20 women to do the job, offering 25 cents per load to any charity designated. A grocery supplied the carts.

42 YEARS, OFF AND ON—Ed Erickson displays a lightbulb he claims has been in use since before he moved into his house in Minneapolis, Minn., 42 years ago. The bulb was there, in the basement, when he moved in, and has been turned on and off several times each day.

GOOD AS NEW—Former President Eisenhower flashes his famous smile as he leaves Walter Reed Hospital in Washington after a stay of several days for treatment of a severe case of laryngitis. He's good as new, they say.

RAIL STRIKE NOV. 23—At negotiations in Chicago, James E. Wolfe (left), National Railway Labor Conference chairman, announces that the carriers will not offer more than the 9-cent annual pattern already given to other unions. The six unions setting a Nov. 23 strike demand a 10 per cent increase plus 14 cents an hour plus an annual increase of 3.5 per cent thereafter. Michael Fox (right), AFL-CIO Railway Department president, announces the strike deadline with, "Only if railroad management changes its course and renegotiates a satisfactory settlement before that time can the strike be avoided." The settlement total 140,000 members.

The Bald Eagle, magnificent symbol of the American nation, yields for one day first position in the hearts of all the people, as Tom Turkey, most beautiful of barnyard birds, rules the roost—and the center of our dining-room tables.

UNDRESS REHEARSALS—The spicy divorce trial headlines around Princeton, N.J., include testimony of a seamstress that Mrs. Barbara Johnson (above), estranged wife of Band-Aid heir J. Seward Johnson, 35, undressed to her lingerie for fittings in her bedroom in presence of her secretary, Walter D. Bannard, 28. German-born Mrs. Johnson, 33, receives a record $900 a week temporary alimony.

SNIPER CAUGHT—Marine Sgt. Roy F. Nagle is shown in custody in New York, hands cuffed behind his back, after his arrest in the sniper slaying of 16-year-old Joan Wilson last June as she stood in a parking lot on 42nd Street. Police kept on the meager trail for four months to come up with Nagle.

Sports Roundup Banquet To Honor Football Stars

Football players at Grosse Pointe High will be honored by the Dads' Club at the Fall Sports Roundup Banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. November 24, in the high school cafeteria. Grosse Pointe High's football team tied with Fordson for second place in the Border Cities League, with Wyandotte coming in first. Members of the teams will be introduced by Head Coach Ed Wernet, with Tom Gaukerke and Jim Curlett, assistant coaches, as his aids. Don Zysk, Reserve Coach, will introduce members of his squad. An outstanding speaker has been scheduled for the banquet, according to Dad's Club president Minard Mumaw. No tickets are sold for the Roundup. Donations will take care of all expenses for the dinner and the sports trophies. Donations can be made in advance right now with Frank Banach or they can be made at the door next Tuesday evening. Varsity cheerleaders and their sponsor Miss Jeri Mulsom will also be honored. Officers, in addition to Minard Mumaw, president, and Frank Banach, treasurer, are Eg Bunn, vice-president; Henry Kinzie, secretary; and board members Warren Anderson; Don Campbell, who is also Assistant School Principal; Dr. Robert Clarke; Fred Critchfield; Paul Crook; Lane Donovan; Gerry Gerich, who is also High School Principal; Alfred Miller; Ellsworth Reynolds; Fred Steiner and Dr. Robert Swanson. New Officers for the 1964-65 year will be announced. Expenses for the roast beef dinner and cost of all trophies will amount to about $3.50 per person. Frank Banach explains that he hopes donations will cover these costs.

St. Paul Tankers Getting in Shape

The Lakers of St. Paul, second in their division last year, are now preparing for the season which opens in December. The St. Paul team (which calls itself the Tankers) first conditioned itself by calisthenics and weightlifting in the St. Paul Gym after school hours. The Tankers now practice at Brownell junior high school under the direction of Coach Tom Teetaert. Led by Captain Kerry Luber and Co-Captains Bob Kelly and Vince Famularo, the Tankers are expected to take the division title. The team is strong in personnel as it lost only two graduating seniors, Norm Miller and Mike Browning. Returning to the squad is a host of juniors who constitute the bulk of the team. Among them is Rick Montmorency, all city swimmer last year.

Woods Spartans Feted at Banquet

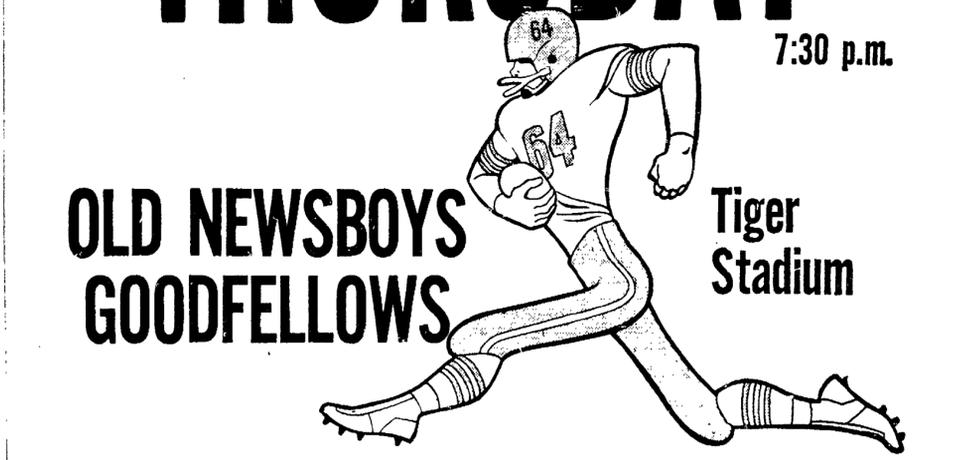

The Woods Spartans football team rang down the curtain on a very successful season Thursday, November 12, with their 11th annual banquet at the Alcoma Hall. The turnout was one of the largest and most enthusiastic, with more than 350 parents, players and guests in attendance. Guests included Fred Duelling, Chief of Police of Grosse Pointe Shores; Terry Barr, Alex Karras, and Carl Brettschneider of the Detroit Lions. Their interesting stories got the evening off to a fast start. All of the Spartans players were presented with their football letters and team and individual player pictures. Trophies were awarded to the boys who played their last game on the varsity squad. Good sportsmanship awards were presented to Kris Warner, of the varsity team, Paul Abbott, of the junior varsity squad, and Jeff DeClaire, of the Ponies. The 1964 outgoing officers of the Spartans Dads Club were introduced and received an ovation for a job well done. These officers included president Bob Warner, vice-president Bob Johnston, secretary Rene Vansteenkiste, and treasurer Charles McNair. Warner complimented the many mothers of the Spartan players who gave so much of their time and efforts throughout the year to make this season so successful. The Woods Spartans cheerleaders were lauded for their hard work every week and the variety of cheers they thought up for the Spartan followers. Autographed footballs were presented to head varsity coach Mike Gates, Lou Kraetke, Pete Polumbit, Jim Law, Tom McMahon; Junior varsity head coach Robert A. Turzak, Charles Kenney, Stan Byrs; Pony head coach Werner Lueckhoff, Rene Vansteenkiste, and Jim Nye, in appreciation for their long hours and excellent coaching throughout the season. The team hopes that all the boys will return next year and will pass the word along to the new boys who move into the community and might like to play for the Spartans. The next meeting of the Dads Club will be held at the Vernier School on Friday, November 20, at 8 p.m. The players' fathers are urged to attend this meeting to meet the new officers and to start planning for the 1965 season.

GROSSE POINTE CO-OP CRANFORD 16833, like new. A-1 condition. 2 1/2 baths, 4 bedrooms, fireplace, garage, recreation room. TUXedo 4-5590; weekends and evens, TUXedo 1-4523.

APPOINTMENT ONLY

AND WHY SHOULDN'T your family enjoy its Thanksgiving dinner in the magnificent dining room of this stately home on Bishop Road? The house has plenty of room to stretch out in after the feast. Two extra rooms for lounging on the first floor, and a living room large enough for the clan's gathering. Upstairs are six bedrooms and four baths. Better check this one before you pull that wishbone.

COULD BE A HAND IN GLOVE

fit for your family if your house requirements necessitate having bedrooms both up and down. On O'Mara Court we are offering such an arrangement, with two sleeping rooms on each floor and two and a half baths. The "living kitchen" is a real step saver and perfect for informal entertaining. Ideally located near Barnes, GPUS and Star of the Sea schools.

AVAIL YOURSELF OF THE UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY to buy an older but well maintained house in a neighborhood where many newer and more expensive houses predominate. This particular offering has a step down living room, dining room, and two extra first floor rooms. The kitchen has been remodeled and equipped with some built-ins. Recently replaced heating system which is extremely economical. Owner has moved and is anxious to sell before winter comes.

IF YOU THOUGHT THAT ATTRACTIVE

smaller house with your first floor bedroom and bath would never come on the market in this location you desire, then better you see this one before it's gone. On Handy Place, just a skip to Hill Shopping, transportation, and the lake. Also two bedrooms up with another full bath. Priced in the middle thirties.

NOTHING COULD BE FINER

and we can't find a rhyme or reason why this four bedroom home in the Shores hasn't been snapped up. Consider this newer colonial with so complete a kitchen it even has a built-in barbecue. Center hall plan has living room, dining room, and the family room each leading from the hall. Additional plus is the sensibly placed utility room between the kitchen and garage.

ON BEAUTIFUL LEWISTON ROAD

we proudly offer this five family bedroom house which is ideal for the family that requires easy accessibility to St. Paul's and Grosse Pointe High. On 212 feet of frontage, the house actually has an "extra" lot. We might add that there are two maid's rooms and a bath over these three car attached garage with access to the main house. First floor "opens up" with library, living room and dining room each leading off from the entrance hall. Ready for early occupancy.

TRY THIS ONE FOR SIZE

if you long for a house with real elbow room. Mammoth living room, Marmoth entrance foyer with living, dining and library rooms all leading from it. See what a Chinese fortune can do when it is spent on turning a kitchen inside out. Two first floor lavs and a half dozen baths scattered around and about the seven bedrooms. For $68,000 you cannot buy or duplicate in this prime location in the Farms.

IF YOU HAVE A PENCHANT FOR CONTEMPORARY and want to be tucked away on a quiet, dead-end street, then give this one some serious thought. Laid out in the tri-level plan, with two master bedrooms on the upper level and another large bedroom and cozy den just a few steps down from the tremendous living area. Only the most modern gadgetry and materials have gone into this home. Even if you don't like contemporary you might... after seeing this choice offering.

"LET US BE HAPPY AND LIVE WITHIN OUR MEANS, EVEN IF WE HAVE TO BORROW TO DO IT."

Pointers of Interest

MRS. JACOB WENZEL, OF CLOVERLY ROAD, AND MRS. RIFORD JOHNSTON, OF BEAUPRE AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

Nine years ago, Chris Wenzel sat in a beauty parlor, waiting for her hair to dry, and casually picked up a magazine. She began to leaf desultorily through the pages . . . stopped, stared, then took a closer look.

She was appalled. The magazine was what is generally described as "filthy"—and Mrs. Jacob Wenzel, like most "nice" women, had never looked at a "filthy" magazine, had never realized quite what the term "pornographic material" implied.

She talked the matter over with her neighbor, Mrs. Riford Johnston, went away on a vacation, came back to The Pointe, found she was still angry. She talked with Ernestine Johnston again.

Together, the two women founded the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth, first inter-faith organization in the Metropolitan Detroit area created to combat the problem of pornography in relation to young, developing minds.

Not Militant Types
Neither Mrs. Johnston nor Mrs. Wenzel fits a stereotype of The Militant Woman, placard-brandishing and shouting her cause to the house-tops. Both are neat, rather dainty ladies, soft-voiced, fonder of statistics than slogans.

Both are involved professionally outside their homes. Mrs. Wenzel, a former nurse, helps out in her doctor husband's office. Mrs. Johnston is a businesswoman, assisting her businessman husband.

Both are active in Church-related groups. Mrs. Johnston is a member of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Association. Mrs. Wenzel, in St. Paul's Parish, teaches catechism once a week at Detroit's Clark School.

Both are mothers. But there are dissimilarities as well as similarities in the lives and characters of these two ladies. Ernestine Johnston's home is traditional in feeling. Christine Wenzel's is contemporary. The wall in the Wenzels' front hall, leading into their living room, features a mural painted by Mrs. William Shilson, the former Barbara Wenzel.

Produced Much Art
Barbara, just married, is living in St. Clair, Mich., teaching Art in Port Huron. She majored in Art in college, is a member of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association, and "knew the house in a turmoil," according to her mother, with projects that included installing a life-size Creche on the front lawn every Christmas.

Samples of Barbara's work are scattered throughout the house. There is a small landscape of Canada, where the Wenzels used to spend their summers, a mosaic table, a slender nude statue of a young girl. The front hall mural is a woodland fantasy, with a cascading waterfall and a demure water nymph. Mrs. Wenzel laughingly explains that Barbara included the nymph to show that "although we are concerned with decency, we are not prudish."

She adds that she has no objection to what is artistic, in good taste, but she feels "we are confused today—we confuse the ugly and the sensual with the beautiful."

Chris Wenzel's oldest son, John, is in the Jesuits, starting his junior year of studies. The first year he went away "I couldn't talk about him without weeping," his mother admits. She also admits trying to discourage him—"I couldn't face the fact that I wasn't going to have him home again"—but John would not be discouraged.

Mrs. Wenzel explains that Jesuits consciously determine to separate a boy from his family, to make the Society of Jesus his new family. She writes to John every week, but she will not be able to see him for about four months.

Now, she says honestly, she is happy that he is happy in the Order. And John says, in a spiring harmful materials are being presented and to encourage retailers to stock better quality materials.

When either Mrs. Wenzel or Mrs. Johnston appears before a group, she brings with her a harmless-looking briefcase, containing examples of material available to teenagers and young adults.

"They are shockers. People invariably say, 'I had no idea these things were being printed!'"

Mrs. Wenzel notes that "nice" people have a tendency to turn their backs on the problem of pornography.

Then, too, there is the labeling . . . "We feel that the cry of 'Censor' has become a protective umbrella under which the pornographer works. We think parents have rights and freedoms, too, that the fear of censorship has gone too far when the pornographer stands up for his rights—and the parents are afraid to stand up for theirs."

Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Wenzel believe organized action on a community-wide level is the only way to approach distributors. And they believe in a positive approach: "It's not enough to complain about the bad; you have to present a substitute."

Pick Good Paperbacks
The Grosse Pointe Council Review Board deals with magazines only, but the Council is encouraging distribution and exposure of a group of 500 "good" paperbacks, selected by 12 librarians in the Detroit area.

During the just-ended Better Literature for Youth Week, these paperbacks were spotlighted throughout the city and state. "You can't stop teenagers from reading a book if it's there," Mrs. Wenzel and Mrs. Johnston comment. "But you can't build good minds on inferior food."

Their approach is to eliminate the inferior food and set a good stable. They are not concerned with adult reading habits, only with what goes into the minds of the young.

They recognize their cause is unfashionable today, a d-m-i-t mistake has been made in its name. "But," they add, "the cause is good."

They are encouraged by the strong support they have received, in The Pointe and elsewhere. They describe The Pointe Council as "a very wonderful group," talk of its "unity, closeness, friendship . . ."

They believe the pendulum is about to swing back. "The whole country is concerned with destructive forces on the character of our youth. We're condoning a climate of immorality if we don't take action."

"We think our country's future depends on the kinds of minds that will run it, and that reading forms those minds. We feel we are taking intelligent action. We feel we have a good plan."

YAMS WITH RUM

Contributed by Mrs. Daniel Tindall

- 2 lbs. yams
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon grated orange peel
- 1/2 cup rum
- Juice of 1 orange
- 1/2 teaspoon of mace
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon Salt

Boil yams until 3/4 cooked and then skin them. Butter casserole in which they are baked. Pack the bottom of the casserole with some brown sugar and grated orange peel. Warm rum, put a match to it, and pour it burning into the casserole. Slice potatoes in layers over this. Baste with syrup that has formed in the bottom. Squeeze the juice of the orange over potatoes. Sprinkle with mace, cinnamon, remainder of the brown sugar and a little salt. Dot with rest of butter. Bake for 45 minutes at 350°. Serves 4 to 6.

Marie Bird's Beauty ByLine
Recently one of our patrons with problem hair and problem hair asked me why I placed so much emphasis in my column on Jumbo-Curl Perms for the young swinging set—and had written so little about the joy and satisfaction we are capable of bringing to the woman that feels her hair is hopeless.

She is speaking out from personal experience—fine medical care—plus courage and cortisone makes it possible for her to be a full time teacher — enzymes and natural organic proteins in our hands have strengthened her hair — enabling one of my expert staff to give her a firm Perm that holds its style from one shampoo to the next. She says that what we do is good for her morale—but, really, her inner radiance is so good for us.

A little curl—or a lot of curl—the choice is yours when you have a revitalizing Custom Permanent in our salon at 117 Kercheval on-the-Hill. The number to call is TUXedo 1-6833 — for your convenience there will be a full staff on hand on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

Beautiful Holidays . . . sometimes come out of Glamour Cases from Fashion Two Twenty. Why wait for Christmas? Stop by 20445 Mack Avenue for a personal beauty analysis and have the case filled with custom make-up and beauty essentials . . . in time for all those personal appearances.

First Thanksgiving Dinner? . . . Today's young homemakers are very well organized. Although they may use grandma's recipe, they have on hand a dependable meat thermometer, new skewers and lacing pins and a good sharp knife. They collected all the equipment at Pointe Hardware and Lumber, 14950 Mack Avenue . . . where meat thermometers start at two ninety-eight.

Santa's Helper . . . is right here in Grosse Pointe . . . right now! So, it isn't Christmas, yet! Experienced help (all references pre-checked) is very much in demand come holiday time. Be sure to get your reservations in now for an extra cook or waitress. Call HOURLY AID . . . VAlley 2-2630.

Memo To Men . . . Walton-Pierce is looking forward to helping you with your Christmas gift list and will make an appointment with you any time . . . after hours . . . too! (TUXedo 4-1330). Their Gift Court is constantly changing because very particular people have already discovered it and know that a present from Walton-Pierce is a true compliment.

Top Drawer Topics . . . Happiness is a music box and Christmas is a perfect time to give one. At 17007 Kercheval UP in the Village gay tunes sound their greeting . . . as do the hand-carved musical angels.

The Stockings . . . were hung by the chimney. One very good girl we know will get the keys to a Dodge Monaco along with other elegant stocking stuffers. How about you? Are you deserving Well, there's plenty of time to make the right impression on Santa and River-view Dodge, 15205 is a very convenient place to have him pick up the keys to a Monaco.

Boutique Pets . . . abound at Claire Pearone, 397 Fisher Road. Fert pincushion birds, big colorful paper-mache burros, stuffed printed tabbies and precocious orange kittens . . . the like, we've never seen.

Always Offer . . . good choices. We believe that young men should develop their own fine taste in clothes (without making too many mistakes along the way). Hickey's new Boy's Department, 17140 Kercheval in the Village only offers sharp, traditional good looks that your son should have and really wants.

Focus . . . on Paul Gach Studios, 345 Fisher Road . . . "where quality costs no more." Quality color costs only a fraction more than black and white . . . so capture all the reds, greens and metallics of the festive season in quality color.

Fashionably Coordinated . . . with the rest of the home . . . is the bath . . . with the help of vanities by Mutschler, 20489 Mack Avenue. Designed for bath, bedroom and dressing room . . . they come in a variety of sizes and stylings. They match Mutschler's extensive line of hardwood storage components designed for use throughout the home. Colonial, provincial, traditional, contemporary and modern are available, with a wide choice of hardware.

A Bit Of Background . . . while my prescription was being filled, Mr. Knuff filled me in on some Village history. In 1922 the Notre Dame Pharmacy was established. It was the first drug store in the Village. He said many changes have taken place since . . . most satisfying are the wonderful advancements in treatment and drugs. The Notre Dame Pharmacy has seen many milestone passed and will continue to contribute fine service to the community.

After Every Trip . . . whether it be in the U.S. or abroad, Edythe Forcier and Mildred Anderson rushed to Leon's for hair-styling. They regaled him with stories of their visits to straw markets. One day, Leon (probably seeking peace and quiet) said, "Why don't you go into the business?" The Straw Mart, 16125 Mack Avenue became a reality. To quote Leon, "All I did was casually mention it and they have brought San Francisco to Mack Avenue."

The New Sassy Look . . . came out of Europe's stylish hair salons, because it is so flattering, it is catching on here. The fashionable Grosse Pointers you see coming and going at Edward Nepi, "Parrucchiere," 19463 Mack Avenue are favoring the high crown, short back and flirtatious forward sweeps of hair that touch the cheeks. That, cherie, is the "Sassy Look." TUXedo 4-8858.

Follow Your Nose . . . right into Kopp's, 16926 Kercheval. That heavenly fragrance wafted on the Village air via a vaporizer is DIORLING. Wouldn't any girl love this for Christmas? Other new scents are POSSESSION De Corday and a reintroduction of CHYPRE by Cody. New store hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. . . daily.

"Open It!" . . . everyone at the newspaper said. The pink envelope with the beautiful writing in purple had been on the bulletin board. It was a message from Gertrude Engel and we could see why she is successful as a social secretary and party planner. The envelope and message made us want to find out more. You will, too! Call 821-0506 for a run-down on all her special services.

Entertaining Idea . . . from Pointe Wharf, 18310 Mack Avenue. If you're planning a party, they have a special party menu. For example, you can order 1/2 Gal. of cooked peeled, de-veined shrimp (approximately ninety). This will cost you seven-fifty. Yes, they send the sauce. You can carry it out . . . but bless them . . . they will deliver. TUXedo 5-4453.
