Plant Tree to Honor President Kennedy

On Friday, November 20, pupils at Maire Elementary School paused to honor the memory of the late President, John F. Kennedy. Following brief ceremonies in the gymnasium, the student body watched as a memorial tree was planted on the school grounds. Shown above (left to right) are PENNY MILLER, JOHN HAMMEL, principal of Maire, DR. ALBERT

C. HOWE, JULIET MASER and JAMES CIOE. The children, sixth graders, were the principal speakers at the ceremonies preceding the planting. Dr. Howe conceived the idea of the "living memorial" to President Kennedy. Other local schools have participated in various programs honoring Mr. Kennedy in recent days.

Proposed Second High School Vote Set for March 22

Referendum Tentatively Scheduled for that Date, Superintendent Wilson Tells PTA Council; Reviews Steps Taken

The date for the referendum on the proposed second high school has been tentatively scheduled for March 22, Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, said at Monday evening's meeting of the P-T-A Council, held at the Central Library.

"However," he added, "this is only the third or fourth time the date has been set in the last six or eight months." Dr. Wilson told the representative group of P-T-A officials that conflicts with state elections have arisen to postpone Grosse Pointe property owners' vote on the local issue.

The Board of Education had wished to hold the election in September or October, but the date of the primaries in September eliminated this possibility. The national election of November 3 ruled out dates in November or December.

It was determined that March 1 was available, when Governor Romney called a state special primary election for February 15 and a special general election April 15. Under the governmental organization of the Grosse Pointes, local school elections may not be held in conjunction with those at a State level.

Review Steps Taken

In the body of his remarks, "The Latest on the Second High School Situation," Dr. Wilson reviewed the steps taken to date by the officers and trustees of the Board of Education and the members of the schools' staff.

These include countless meetings with teachers in the various subject-matter areas, visitations to buildings recently constructed and those in various stages of construction, and the division of representatives into two groups. One will assist in the planning stages of the new high school, while the other will study the existing

Way Cleared To Proceed On Projects

Right-of-Way for Big Sewer Granted in Return for Permission to Enter Beach Park

The Park will get its long-hoped-for bottom filled land at the foot of Alter road, and Detroit will get the easement it seeks through the Park for its multi-million-dollar Mack Avenue Relief Sewer.

At its regular meeting on Monday, November 23, the Park council, on recommendation of City Attorney Richard Rohr, gave its approval to a single resolution to be prepared by the city attorney, whereby the council gives its consent to the agreements.

In the agreement approved by Detroit, the Park will be given a permit for the occupancy of and Detroit's consent to the Park's purchase of a 66-by-760-foot strip of bottom land jutting out into the Detroit River. The strip is actually an extension of Alter road, to which title is claimed by the State, under the Michigan Submerged Land Act.

Detroit Consent Needed
In order to acquire the land from the State Conservation Department, a consent to purchase must be received from the neighboring municipality, in this case, Detroit.

In return for Detroit's consent to allow the Park to buy the strip, the Park will grant Detroit a perpetual right-of-way for the purpose of constructing, operating and maintaining the Mack Avenue Relief Sewer. The sewer will begin at Mack and Bedford, on the Detroit side, to Buckingham on the Park side, down Buckingham to Charlevoix, east on Charlevoix, and diagonally through the Park to the sewer water-sanitary line in Manistique street.

The entire sewer project will cost Detroit approximately four million dollars. By permitting Detroit to cut through the Park, it was said, approximately 700 feet of construction will be eliminated, at a savings to Detroit of $800,000 in labor and materials.

Won't Disturb Residents
Park City Manager Robert Stone disclosed that Detroit had not yet taken bids on the project, but when it begins construction of the line, a combination storm water-sewerage drain, it will take about one and a half years to complete.

There will be no above surface work, except here and there to build alignment holes and manholes. Other than the holes for the covers, all digging and installations will be underground, and at sufficient depths so that Park residents will hardly be aware that anything is going on.

Stone pointed out, also, that by the work being done underground, there will be no disruption of vehicular traffic flow. Where manholes and covers are to be installed, the work will take only one day.

Under the agreement, Detroit will construct, maintain and operate the sewer at its own expense, and any repairs or maintenance will be done without interference or interruption to motor traffic.

The Park has the right to review any plans for construction, alteration, repair or connection that might be undertaken in the future.

Provides for Damage
Any damages to public or private property will be taken care of and paid for by Detroit; it also allows itself open to court suits, without involving the Park, if property owners file suit for damages resulting from the project.

Since the summer of 1963, Detroit has sought the Park's consent for the right-of-way easement, but the Park had held off, asking that in return for the easement, Detroit consent to the Park buying the Alter road strip, needed to augment its recreational facilities at its waterfront park.

Part of the waterfront park is within the Detroit city limits, and the strip is considered ideal to augment the recreational facilities of the park, and ideal for construction of a future marina and other developments. The Park has been eyeing the strip for years, but it was in

Parents Turn Deaf Ear to Safety Plea

School Guards Still Having Much Trouble In Woods Because More Kids Won't Walk

Woods citizens who drive their children to school, apparently seem to pay little heed to a plea by Police Lt. Roland Symons, issued last September, to permit their children to walk to school if they are within easy walking distance.

Symons, Woods traffic safety officer, disclosed on Monday, November 23, that school crossing guards are still having problems with driving parents who insist on blocking cross walks and causing congestion in the school areas.

The lieutenant disclosed that his plea to parents to permit their children the "luxury" of walking to classes, in the interest of safety, has brought some results, but not what had been hoped for.

Some parents, he said, have allowed their offspring to walk to school, but there are still a number of parents who appear to ignore the fact that they are creating a hazardous situation by blocking sidewalks and causing these congestions.

Symons said that the crossing guards have complained about the parents, whose persistence in driving their children to classes, is making their (guards) job very difficult, and adds to the hazards of children making their way to and from school. He said that if it is absolutely necessary for a parent to take his, or her, children to school, they are urged not to block crosswalks, and to be extra careful in and around school areas.

The lieutenant said that scout car crews have been instructed to watch these areas, and issue violation tickets when necessary.

Club Requests Record Player

As you know, the Neighborhood Club's Recreation Program is located in many different facilities requiring special equipment for the many and varied activities. Our particular need at this time is for a record player which could be used for the tap dancing class at Richard School. If by any chance you no longer have need for your record player we can assure you that it will be put to very good use. Please call TU 5-4600 if you can help us out.

Seat Thieves Sitting Pretty

Charles L. Matthews, III, of 100 Hall place, called police on Monday, November 16, and disclosed the loss of two bucket-type seats from his car, taken by thieves. The seats are valued at $200.

Mrs. Matthews told police that the morning previous, about 3:30 a.m., she heard her two pet dogs, penned in the garage, barking. Other than that, she and her husband heard nothing.

She said that her pets were also heard barking at 10:30 p.m., Sunday night. The car from which the seats were stolen is not put in the garage because of the dogs, Mrs. Matthews said. Over the weekend, the car was parked in the driveway at the south side of the house, she told police.

Investigating officers said that the thief or thieves, did a neat job of removing the seats. There was no damage to the car itself. The entire seats and safety belts were removed.

Investigation of the theft was assigned to Det. Sgt. Jack Paisley.

Driver Finds Ignoring Court Can Be Expensive

Paul Bommarito, 24, of 5990 Oldtown, Detroit, aroused the judicial ire of Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, who ordered the man into court on Wednesday, November 18, to answer for two traffic violations.

The Detroitier was given a violation ticket by Park police on August 22, for driving while his license was revoked, and another ticket for speeding.

Through his lawyer, Bommarito was able to postpone his hearing three times, and was to have appeared before Judge Belanger on October 7. When Bommarito failed to keep his appointment, the judge ordered his bond of $100 forfeited.

Judge Belanger issued a warrant for the man's arrest. Bommarito was arrested and arraigned on Wednesday, and pled guilty to both charges.

The judge accepted the accused man's pleas, and fined him $50 and sentenced him to two days in the Wayne County Jail, and placed him on one year probation, no driving, on the license charge. The speeding charge brought a fine of $17.50.

In another case, Klaus Hasse, 21, of 2601 Dickerson, Detroit, was found guilty of driving without ever acquiring an operator's license, for which he paid a fine of $100, and $5 court costs, and was put on probation for four months, during which he is forbidden to drive.

Popular Gentleman Using Helicopter To Be On Hand for Holiday Season

According to reports just received from the North Pole, Santa Claus is on his way to Grosse Pointe. Showing that he has kept up with the times, Santa will arrive in Grosse Pointe Village at 3 p.m., Friday, November 27, by helicopter. He will officially usher in the Christmas season and distribute yuletide treats to all youngsters.

In addition to the coming of Santa Claus, the Village will be gayly decorated with Christmas lights, wreaths and other trappings of the season.

Even the shops of the Village will receive an extra seasonal touch, and the merchants invite the public to see their colorful decorations as well as

Quick-Thinking Postman Recommended for Award

Quick thinking on the part of a Grosse Pointe postman may have saved the life of five-year-old Eugene LoVasco.

Postman Douglas Martin, 37, of 11771 Duchess, Detroit, had just made a delivery around 11 a.m., Friday, November 20, at a gasoline station on the corner of Mack avenue and Hawthorne road. He was returning to Mack when he saw a car travelling in reverse across Mack, between the islands, and towards the curb.

Alone and crying in the car was Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. John LoVasco, 2223 Anita, Harper Woods.

"I reacted on the spur of the moment," Martin said. "I dropped my mail, raced after the car

City Treasurer Reveals Changes in Procedures Taxpayers Face This Year

County and School Levy Due December 1 Can Be Paid Without Penalty Through February 15; Next Tax Covers 15 Months

Grosse Pointe City taxpayers will receive on Tuesday, December 1, and right on schedule, their bills for Wayne County and the Grosse Pointe school district taxes.

Robert Bendzinski, City treasurer, told the News on Tuesday, however, that there is a change this year in the due date for the payment of taxes. Under Act 275 of the Public Acts, 1964, bill, which became effective August 20, 1964, the date for payment of the taxes without penalty has been extended through February 15, 1965. In the past January 20 was the deadline for paying tax bills without penalty.

Taxes not paid by or on the 15th of February are subject to a 4 percent penalty charge and may be paid at the City Treasurer's office until February 28 at which time collection of delinquent taxes is turned over to Wayne County.

One Mill Increase
Bendzinski also warned the taxpayers that there is a one mill increase based on state equalized valuation because of voter approval in the September 1 primary to increase the Wayne County operating millage.

City taxpayers will be assessed $37.11 per thousand for the combined Wayne County and school district taxes. Of that amount, $9.23 will go for county taxes and $27.88 for school district taxes.

Because of an amendment to the city charter passed by the voters in the primary, taxpayers will not receive bills for

WINDSHIELD SMASHED

Marylan Poplack of 27286 Midway, Dearborn, complained to Woods police on Monday, November 16, that while she was in a Mack avenue bar, at Hawthorne, she parked her car on the street. When she returned to the vehicle, she discovered that someone had tossed a brick through the windshield, she said.

While the boy was too frightened to remember what happened, he had apparently put or knocked the car in reverse and turned the wheel so that the car started across Mack.

"The LoVasco family is on my route and I talked to them later, when I delivered their mail," Martin said.

When questioned whether he realized at the time that he was risking his own life by trying to stop a car which was moving

AERIAL BROKEN

Mrs. Foster Fisher of 818 Whittier, informed Farms police that she had parked her car on Fisher road, across from the Farms Market, while she went shopping. When she returned, she found the car radio aerial broken. The incident occurred on Thursday, November 19.

Chorus Set For Concert This Sunday

12th Annual Christmas Event To Be Held At Parcels Junior High At 3:30 O'clock

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present its 12th Annual Christmas Concert December 6 at 3:30 p.m. in Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Vernier.

Dr. Donald Simmons, conductor, is vocal instructor at Parcels Junior High School, director of music at Covenant Baptist Church and founder and director of the Grosse Pointe Summer Chorus and the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers. Jerry Hughes is the accompanist.

This year's program will consist of choral music ranging from Pergolesi's "Glory to God in the Highest" and Rossini's "Inflammatus" to Harry Simeone's arrangement of Clement Moore's "Twas the Night Before Christmas".

Soloists Are Versatile
Soloists for this year's concert not only sing with the Chorus but also participate in other musical organizations.

Barbara Bailey while at the University of Michigan sang with the University Choir, Choral Union and the Michigan Singers. At present she is a member of the Madrigal Club of Detroit, St. John's Music Festival Chorus and the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers.

Nancy Williams is a member of the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers and the Madrigal Club of Detroit.

Lori Lang received her vocal training at the Detroit Conservatory of Music. She has sung with the Michigan Opera and the Detroit Lutheran A Cappella Choir under Kenneth Jewell.

Patricia Simmons sang with the Madrigal Club of Detroit and is presently a member of the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers.

Has Sung Opera
De Shaheen sang with the Detroit Civic Light Opera Co. and at present sings with the Madrigal Club of Detroit, the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers and is a member of the Catholic Theater of Detroit and the Detroit Opera Co.

Jeanne Zech received her Bachelor of Music Education degree at Westminster College in Pennsylvania. She has appeared on radio and TV shows and is presently music instructor in the Public School System. She is the soprano soloist at Memorial Church.

Audrey Mosser has appeared as soloist with the Community

Set Vote on High School

plant to suggest alterations and improvements. Joe Spagnoli, named Secondary Planning Director last spring, is responsible for coordinating all activities connected with the proposed school.

Dr. Wilson recounted some of the specific problems encountered in planning the building. Initial recommendations by the teaching staff called for 400,000 square feet, while the Board of Education members had smaller figures in mind.

The proposal, cut to 360,000 square feet, was still not acceptable to the Board of Education. More cutting was done, and the building's specifications reached 320,000 square feet.

To Determine Cost
"Finally, with the proposed building's square footage in the vicinity of 292,000 square feet, the Board of Education is at the point of deciding costs," Dr. Wilson said.

"Until this is done, it will be impossible to know the amount of the bond issue to be put to the local taxpayers for their approval," he added. "In addition, constantly rising costs must be considered in figuring the financing. Any lapse of time between the passage of the referendum and the opening of bids could be costly," Dr. Wilson said.

"It is no secret that the seven members of the Board of Education look at the proposed high school differently. Individual points of view range vastly in matters of cost, space requirements, curriculum programs and the desired number of teaching stations," Dr. Wilson added.

"It is impossible for the Board members to set the amount of the bond issue until the general specifications of the building are determined," he reiterated.

Nearly Three Years
During the question and answer period that followed his talk, Dr. Wilson said that if all goes well during the balance of the planning stage, and if the property-owning taxpayers approve, the proposed second high school will probably be opened by the fall of 1967.

Discussing the proposed reorganization of the school system from the existing 6-3-3 plan to one of a modified 5-3-4, the Superintendent added that this will give the schools the necessary flexibility to accommodate population growth throughout the district.

Queried as to alternatives if the bond issue for the proposed high school doesn't pass, Dr. Wilson enumerated two possibilities. The Board of Education could present a revised and curtailed program to the voters six months later, or it could offer a stopgap program of additions throughout the district that would be only temporary measures, at best.

In his remarks, Dr. Wilson said that the High School administration is having increasing difficulty scheduling classes. "We have 99 per cent plus room utilization at Grosse Pointe High School. This is possible only through the remarkable scheduling skill of Jerry Gerich and Don Campbell," he added.

Just Not Enough Room

"And, with the number of students wishing to take five classes instead of the usual four, scheduling becomes more of a problem. We wish to offer more advanced placement work, but this is difficult, if not impossible, because we don't have the room," he said. "We wish to offer special science courses for the college-bound who do not plan a science major, but we do not presently have the room. If our problem is not alleviated, we shall seriously fall behind other schools in what we expect we should offer our students within the next five to ten years," Dr. Wilson concluded.

During the business meeting, President Sherman announced the election of officers to be held at the next meeting of the P-TA Council. The nominating committee is composed of Mrs. Gordon Cook, Edwin Wendt, and Edwin Larson.

Mr. Sherman also called attention to forthcoming meetings of P-TA groups and urged members of the Grosse Pointe Council to attend. These include "Instruction Plus," scheduled for December 1 at Mumford High School; "Let Children Be Children" on January 5 at Pershing High School.

The Wayne County P-TA Council has scheduled workshops for the afternoon and evening of March 30 at Trenton High School.

The next meeting of the Grosse Pointe P-TA Council has been scheduled for 8 p.m. on Monday, January 25, in the second floor meeting room of the Central Library.

Stolen Articles Returned By Mother of Shoplifter

Store officials at the J. C. Penney Company, 19251 Mack avenue, called Woods police on Monday, November 16, and disclosed that an unknown woman came into the store to return articles stolen by her 10-year-old daughter.

According to information given to police, the woman brought in a number of goods that her daughter had shoplifted over a period of weeks from the Mack store.

The woman, who appeared to be remorseful, told C. L. Ebersole, assistant manager of the store, that her daughter had joined a gang of girls, about 15 to 20 of them, ranging in age from 10 to 16 years. An initiate, the mother said, is required to steal articles from stores, before they are allowed to join the "club."

Ebersole said that the distraught mother refused to identify herself, and would volunteer no more information, other than that she was on her way to a Woolworth Five & Dime store to return goods her daughter had stolen from there.

The mother did not disclose what city she is from, it was said.

January 1961, that it approached Detroit for consent to buy the strip. Detroit hedged on giving its answer.

Take Swap Angle

On August 20, 1963, an "if you will, we will" approach was made by the Park, when it sought Detroit's consent to purchase the Alter strip, in return for which it will be granted the easement.

The proposed "swap" agreement brought about a charge of "blackmail" made by Detroit Councilman Edward O'Connor, who was set against such an agreement, but eventually he came around.

The consent to purchase, negotiated with the Mack Relief Sewer agreement by Rohr and officials of Detroit's corporation counsel, gives Detroit the right to a perpetual 20-foot easement for the purpose of maintaining and dredging Fox Creek along the entire western side of the property bordering the creek.

Also included in the consent agreement, the Park agrees to maintain the property in such condition that there will be no sloughing off or erosion of the bank along the Fox Creek side of the property into the main channel of the creek so as to obstruct its flow.

Negotiate With State

Following a short discussion on the agreements, the city attorney informed the council that negotiations are still underway with the Michigan Conservation Department, on an agreed price for the purchase of bottom lands, now a part of the waterfront park.

He said that for months, he and George Taack, an official of the Conservation Department, have talked over and checked old maps, to determine the original shore line before the park was extended out into the river by fill.

Rohr said that he and Taack are now agreed that approximately four acres of the 7.4 acres of land comprising the waterfront park, is filled land.

The city attorney said that no set price has been asked for the land, but it is possible, at the present time, that the submerged lands could be purchased for about $3,000 an acre, or less. With Detroit's consent to buy the Alter road strip, the State might consider making a package deal on the purchasing price.

The council approved Rohr's drawing up the resolution on the two agreements, and instructed him to prepare them without delay for the signatures of Mayor Matthew Patterson and City Clerk Charles Heise.

In the event that the mayor, who had been hospitalized because of illness, and is now home recuperating, is unable to affix his signature, Mayor-Pro-tem William Oddy is authorized to co-execute the document.

The Maryland Electric company will be paid $6,659.56, representing the balance due for electrical work completed on the Municipal Building.

Begrow and Brown Architects, who designed the alterations and additions to the Municipal Building, will receive the sum of $840.42, the amount due and payable at this time.

The DeMuelenaere Construction company will be paid $4,985.75, the balance owed by the Farms for the repair and replacement of sidewalks throughout the city; and $4,224.57, partial payment of $11,384.64, for the repairs to curbs, catch basins and pavement throughout the city.

The amount of $3,650 for services rendered for examining financial statements of all funds of the Farms for the fiscal year ending June 30, will be given to Ernst and Ernst, Auditors.

"Buying your home on a land contract?"

(This is for you)

"Being a property owner of modest proportions, I can tell you that if you're buying your home on a land contract, it's worthwhile to see First Federal about converting that land contract to a long-term home mortgage."

"A First Federal mortgage, tailored to your needs, may lower your interest cost, lengthen the loan life, thus reduce your monthly payments two ways. First Federal, Michigan's largest home lender, makes FHA, G.I. and Conventional mortgage loans. They'll gladly explore all the advantages for you in converting your land contract to a mortgage loan plan. Just visit the First Federal office near where you live, work or shop."

Michigan's Freeway Mileage Quadrupled

Michigan's freeway mileage has quadrupled during the last five years—from 300 miles in 1959 to more than 1,200 miles today. The 1,200th mile of super-highway opened to traffic in Michigan includes this huge interchange where Nine-Mile Rd. intersects the Lodge and Southfield Freeways north of Detroit. State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie opened the 1,200th mile at dedication ceremonies on October 29.

Receive Awards For Advertising

Outstanding individual contributions to the advancement of advertising on the part of two Grosse Pointers received special gold medal citations at the sixteenth annual Bravo Awards banquet, Saturday, November 21, at the Detroit Yacht Club.

One Bravo medal was awarded to the late R. E. Keller of Hall place, who founded the Zimmer, Keller & Calvert, Inc. agency. Recipient of the other individual medal award was Theodore J. Wilner of Nottingham road, past president of the Detroit Copy Club and a senior copywriter at the J. Walter Thompson Company. Both Pointers were lauded for their civic and professional achievements and their work with budding young art directors and copywriters in local colleges and other organizations.

Over 424 advertising agency creative executives and their wives attended this annual recognition event. Hosting the affair were past-Commodore C. S. Tompkins and wife, Jean, of Windmill Pointe drive. The Art Directors Club of Detroit sponsored the affair.

Park City Clerk Certifies Signatures on Petitions

Petitions bearing more than 1,400 signatures of Park residents, recently circulated by the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association, were certified as valid at a Park council meeting on Monday, November 23. The Association is seeking an amendment to the Park City Charter which will give the firemen a shorter work week.

City Clerk Charles Heise informed the council that the petitions contain enough valid signatures to have the amendment placed on the ballot at the primary election on February 15. His certification was officially entered into the council record.

The Park firemen circulated 82 petitions, and obtained more than 1,400 signatures of Park voters, asking that an amendment to the Charter be made, to reduce the firefighters' work week from 63½ hours to 56 hours. A clause in the Charter sets the longer hours.

At Monday night's meeting, Councilman Kent Zimmerman stressed that working conditions, working hours, or work compensations should not be a part of the Park Charter, and city voters should be asked to eliminate such clauses from the Charter. His colleagues agreed, but no official action was taken in regard to this.

At a council meeting held on October 12, Mayor Matthew Patterson criticized the activities of the fire department personnel in gathering the petitions.

The mayor went on record as opposing the petitions to amend the city charter, which is the "constitution" of the city. He said that the request of the firefighters to have their work week reduced was out of order.

The Park Fire Fighters Association retaliated. They said that they agree that the charter is the "constitution" of the Park, but cited many amendments made to both the Federal and State constitutions.

The Association has sought for more than 20 years to have their union recognized by city officials, but without success.

The city officials' refusal to recognize the union, forced the firemen to seek mediation through the State Mediation Board, with the first meeting held on October 27. Negotiations failed. Another meeting has been set, with the date to be announced later.

On Monday, November 9, the Park council authorized City Manager Robert Slone to represent the city at the next mediation session, and to discuss matters that will be to the best interest of the community.

Although Fire Fighters Associations are affiliated with the AFL-CIO, Michigan Law forbids them to strike for any reason. The purpose of the union is to seek better working conditions and wages for its members through legislation in Lansing.

Minor Accidents Reported in City

Three minor accidents occurred last week according to police reports. On November 17, a car driven by Diane Rubino of 1068 Bedford was struck on the right side by one driven by Paul Conlan of 265 Ridgemont. Miss Rubino had stopped at a stop sign at Kercheval and University but failed to wait until all traffic had cleared on Kercheval before entering the street.

Snow and icy roads caused a mishap on Jefferson avenue on November 19 when a car driven by Francis A. Vaughn of 26528 Jefferson, St. Clair Chores, slid into the rear of a car driven by Susan Gillette of 20648 Maple lane. Vaughn had applied the brakes of his car when the Gillette car slowed down for traffic. Both cars were going east on Jefferson.

A car which was driven by Patricia Catherine Dimond, 1051 Yorkshire, was struck on November 20 by a car driven by Nancy Brodhead, of 306 Roosevelt, when the Dimond car failed to stop at a stop sign at the corner of Maumee and Washington. A ticket for reckless driving was issued to Miss Dimond.

How Good Is The Tone Of The Piano You Purchased?

The tone of every make of piano differs. Fifty or more pianos can be tuned perfectly in pitch yet each have a different quality of tone. Bear in mind that the standard pitch does not mean tonal sound. The usual cause of a piano changing is the sound board swelling and contracting due to changes in humidity. The Story & Clark Storytone Mahogany sounding board reduces these changes about 90% in comparison to all other sounding boards. The other boards will expand 27 of an inch from a mere 6% increase of humidity. The swelling adds tension to the strings and distorts the pitch above normal. Exactly the opposite happens when the humidity is decreased.

*As tested by U.S. Department of Agriculture.

No other piano on the market offers the written guarantees of durability that you automatically get when you buy a new Story & Clark.

1. A written 50-year guarantee on the Storyline Mahogany sounding board, against cracking or splitting.
 2. A written 10-year guarantee that the instrument was built without defects in either materials or workmanship. This includes the finish.
- The Music Center has on display a complete stock of Story & Clark pianos—Danish, Modern, Contemporary, Early American, Italian and French Provincial—in oiled walnut, mahogany, maple and cherry finishes. All custom designed for you.

Mr. Frank Piku, Manager of The Music Center has factory representatives to help you select the right piano, answer your questions and make sure your selection will be the wisest. Come in tonight—Don't hesitate. Give your family music. See why more Story & Clark pianos are sold than any other make.

Pastor Details Reasons For Expressing Our Thanks

Rev. Andrew F. Rauth, of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, presented his traditional Thanksgiving Day message to the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, Monday, November 23, at the War Memorial in Lakeshore Road.

Reverend Rauth, past president of the Rotary Club and member for 18 years, spoke on "Gratitude For What?"

Starting at that spot in England from where the Pilgrims first set sail, Reverend Rauth told how the first Thanksgiving in 1621 came about.

His theme dealt with the four areas which he believed every one today should be grateful for. The first area is that of the pleasure felt at Thanksgiving—the traditional dinner, the delightful parades, football games.

The second area concerns the Real and the Material—our jobs, worldly goods, and most importantly, our health.

The Third area, Reverend Rauth said, involves our educational and political systems. "We should be grateful for our free elections and our free educational system which is open to anyone with will and determination to use it," he said. He then pointed out the need for us to recognize our tremendous responsibilities in the area of political and religious freedom.

Our fourth area of gratitude, Reverend Rauth said, is that we are human beings with the ability to reason and control. We have the privilege of thinking, of reasoning, of having most precious memories, and of having a true awareness of the Creator.

In this speech to the Rotary Club, as in his past 20 some, Reverend Rauth helped his audience to realize the blessings and benefits it should express gratitude for on Thanksgiving Day.

Family Movie Night Dec. 4

The third program of the 1964-1965 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, December 4 at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Family Film Nights are held the first Friday night in each month except January, when the program will be the second Friday, January 8th, due to the holidays.

The program for December 4 will be a Christmas treat for the entire family. Films to be shown include NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS (11 minutes, in color). It is a re-enactment of the famous Clement Moore poem, played by actors, very well done and a treat for children during the Christmas season. In LAND OF THE BIBLE (20 minutes, in color) we see the many holy places of the Bible, both of the Old and New Testaments, and we follow the path of Christ and the Way of the Cross—a rewarding experience for young and old. MERRY CHRISTMAS (18 minutes) presents the Vienna Choir Boys preparing for Christmas Eve. They decorate a huge tree while singing traditional carols. Selections include "Oh Tannenbaum," "Silent Night," and many others in the Christmas spirit.

Adults and children accompanied by adults are cordially invited to the Christmas Family Film Night. Come early for a good seat.

Six Fire Chiefs Inspect Hospital

The fire chiefs of the five Points and Harper Woods toured and inspected Cottage Hospital on Thursday, November 19, under the terms of the Mutual Fire Aid Pact, it was disclosed by Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason.

The chiefs meet every two months, and the host chief plans the program for the day, and if possible, picks a major building in his community for the other chiefs to look over, Chief Mason said.

Under the terms of the aid pact, a meeting is held in a different community, and with the get-together held every two months, each chief has the opportunity to host his colleagues once a year.

On Thursday, the six fire chiefs were given a two-hour guided tour, through the entire hospital by Miss Carolyn M. Wicks, hospital administrator, and Roscoe B. Brown, the hospital's chief engineer.

Following the tour and inspection the chiefs held their meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, where they also had lunch.

Advice Offered Jr. Hi Students

High school may still be ten months away by the calendar for Brownell Junior High School's ninth grade students, but planning for future study is beginning right now.

Next Thursday evening, December 3, at 8 o'clock, all ninth graders and their parents are invited to an informational meeting with counselors to learn of basic course requirements for graduation from Grosse Pointe High School.

Counselor Margaret Lingo will meet her counselees in the cafeteria, Robert Clark in the boys' gym, and Ott Leu in the girls' gym. They will be assisted by Dr. Robert Hanson, guidance coordinator, and several high school counselors, who will answer questions on high school courses as well as college requirements.

Basic preparation for the three-year plan of high school studies is being made in Brownell's ninth grade guidance classes, using profiles of the recently administered Kuder Interest Inventory and per centile scores from the Differential Aptitude Tests, which were taken last year. In addition, achievement test scores in math and reading will be furnished students by their counselors, enabling them to plan realistically with parents for specific high school courses.

Individual appointments will be made during January and February so that parents, students and counselors may finalize the three-year plan.

PTA at Maire Meets December 1

Maire School PTA will hold its second meeting of the school year on Thursday evening, December 1.

There will be classroom visitation from 7:30 to 8 o'clock followed by a general meeting in the school auditorium. Edwin Hoemberg will speak on mental health and the new Northwestern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic.

After Mr. Hoemberg's talk

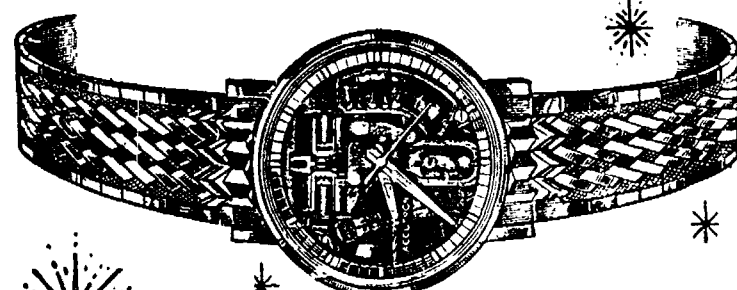

there will be an opportunity for questions from the audience. The questions will be directed to a panel consisting of Mr. Hoemberg; John A. Hammel, principal at Maire; and Miss Carolyn Wheeler, a member of the board of the new clinic. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

That was the year they put the balance wheel into the watch and started watches ticking. Now the tick tick is obsolete. After 300 years, it's been replaced by the tiny Accutron tuning fork which keeps time through vibrations. The result: a very faint hum and the most precise wrist timepiece ever. Accutron guarantees average daily accuracy within 2 seconds. We'd say this is the perfect gift of time.

EXCHANGE YOUR CHANGE FOR PAPER MONEY

ALL STORES NEED YOUR STORE OF CHANGE FOR CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS. BRING IT TO US. WE'LL COUNT IT, WRAP IT, AND GET IT TO THEM.

As your "bank" at home swells with change, Uncle Sam's coin reserves dwindle, and as they dwindle, the more difficult it becomes for the stores to easily make change for you. This situation is had enough now, but it will get worse as more and more Christmas shoppers crowd the stores. But, you can help get the needed change back into circulation. Just bring it to us the way it is. We'll count it, wrap it, and rush it off to the stores. We'll exchange your change for paper money, or, if you prefer, we'll open a Savings Account for you. This way, your money can earn its keep . . . 3 1/2% or 4% interest. Come in soon, won't you?

You build a new home to get exactly what you want why not get the heating system that gives you exactly what you want

Electric heat is custom heat. There's a thermostat in each room so you can dial the exact warmth you want . . . in the baby's room, the den, the kitchen, every room!

Electric heat is the clean, modern heat. No drafts or cold spots. You get even heat from head to feet. Ideal for your new home.

It's also a good choice as supplemental heat for your present home—to warm up a chilly bedroom or new family room.

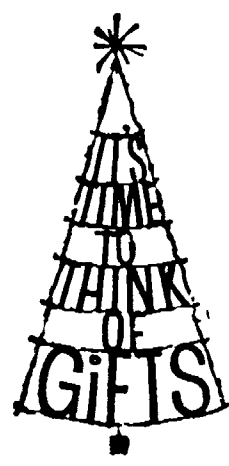

The cost? That depends on your particular home. Electric heat may be your most economical heat. It won't cost you a penny to find out for sure. Just call Edison for a free estimate.

EDISON

PS. A lower all-electric rate saves you as much as 20% on your heating bill if yours is an All-Electric Home. More reason than ever to enjoy all-electric living.

Merchants Hear Bad Check Talk

Can the Grosse Pointe business avoid cashing fraudulent or otherwise worthless checks? He can if he has heard the sage advice of Lt. William Matson of the Detroit Police Department.

With the assistance of Lt. Aloysius Golden and Inspector Peppino Pullo of the Special Services Division of the department, Lt. Matson gave an interesting and informative talk on the subject of forged and fraudulent checks and on what his department can do and is doing to combat this type of crime.

Included in his talk was a detailed description of the manner in which genuine payroll checks are duplicated by unscrupulous printers using the most modern printing methods.

Some 69 guests were present at the meeting which took place Wednesday evening, November 18, at the Village Manor. A buffet supper was served. Following the talk, Lt. Matson and Golden answered questions from the audience for the greater part of an hour.

Experiences related by some of the members during this period confirmed the need for caution in passing judgment on whether or not a check presented to a merchant for cash or part cash should be accepted. The lieutenants also showed numerous samples of the art of the "paperhanger," a term used in police parlance to describe a fraudulent check passer.

This is the second in a series of meetings which take place bi-monthly and at which the association endeavors to bring to its members topics of interest to the businessmen in the community.

MICHIGAN QUIZDOWN SERIES prepared by MICHIGAN TOURIST COUNCIL No. 53

Season Opened By Symphony

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra gave its first concert of the 1964-65 season Sunday afternoon at the Parcels School Auditorium.

The soloist was Mario De Fiore, cellist, a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, who performed Dohnanyi's "Serenade for Cello and Orchestra." Rarely heard, the composition is written in the romantic style with alternating emphasis on soloist and orchestra. Although the work is not pyrotechnically demanding, Mr. Di Fiore brought out its broad melodic lines and displayed great variation of tone.

The orchestra under the direction of Felix Resnick gave the soloist sensitive support. Mr. Di Fiore's orchestral experience began 12 years ago as a member of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra. Sunday's performance marked his debut as guest soloist with the orchestra.

The concert opened with "Overture to Egmont" by Beethoven. The major work on the program was the Mozart "Symphony No. 40 in G Minor." Mr. Resnick and the orchestra gave it a gratifying and polished performance. The concert closed with a vigorous and delightful reading of the colorful "Rumanian Rhapsody No. 1" of Georges Enesco.

Council to Hear William Gossett

William T. Gossett, president of the American Bar Foundation, will address the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council on "What People Have Accomplished in Michigan in Race Relations," at its Thursday, December 3 meeting in the Crystal Ballroom of the War Memorial on Lakeshore.

Gossett, a graduate of Columbia University, was a counsel for Bendix Aviation Corporation until 1949, when he became vice-president and general counsel of the Ford Motor Company. In 1962 he resigned from his membership on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of Ford in order to devote more time and energy to public service activities.

Now a counsel to Dykema, Wheat, Spencer, Goodnow and Trigg, Gossett is also president of the National Legal Aid and Defense Association (an organization which finances and encourages the extension and improvement of legal aid in large communities across the country), a member of the trustee of the Cranbrook Foundation, Bloomfield Hills, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Recipient of honorary doctor of laws degrees from Coe College, the University of Utah, and Bethany College, and of honorary doctor of humanities from Wayne State University, Gossett was appointed Deputy Special Representative for Trade Negotiations by President Kennedy in 1962.

Troop 156 Holds Court of Honor

Families and friends of members of Boy Scout Troop 156 filled the undercroft of Christ Church on November 18 to watch 30 Scouts receive 89 awards at the troop's annual Court of Honor.

The Eagle Award was presented to Bruce Karl of Mt. Vernon, whose father Jim Karl is a Neighborhood Commissioner.

The Detroit Area Council's chief Scout executive, Joseph H. Brinton talked to the gathering on "Scouting: Preparation for Citizenship."

As a service project the scouts of Troop 156 worked at various jobs to earn money which they contributed toward subscriptions to Boy's Life magazine in braille for blind scouts. The $36 which they earned will supply the magazine for one year to seven blind scouts.

In addition to the Eagle award Bruce received the Forestry and Safety badges. David Fromm received the Life award and eight merit badges which included: First Aid, Woodcarving, Life Saving, Citizenship in the Community, Home Repairs, Electricity, Nature and Soil and Water Conservation.

Robert Dahr also received the Life award and six merit badges for Safety, Citizenship in the Home, Citizenship in the Community, First Aid, Rowing and Swimming.

A Star Scout award and the Camping and Canoeing merit badge went to Alan Ricca.

Eight merit badges went to Robert Urtel for Camping, Swimming, Rowing, Basketball, Canoeing, Personal Fitness, Fishing, Home Repairs and Safety along with the Star Scout award.

Conrad Johnson also became a Star Scout and received merit badges for Rowing, Swimming, Canoeing, Life Saving and Cooking. Curtis Blessing became a Star Scout and received merit badges for Swimming, Cooking, Camping, Rowing and Forestry.

Scott Dillon and Michael Floer achieved the First Class award with Michael also receiving a merit badge for Swimming. Second Class awards went to John Bryden, James Freeman, Lee Greening, Frank Hillebrand, David Riddle, David Shiell, Jeff Barrows and Michael Duika. Michael also received a Fishing merit badge.

Other merit badges were presented to: Brod Barker, Forestry, Pioneering; Leatherwork, and Sail and Water Conservation; Dennis Duika, Sail and Water Conservation, Nature, Bird Study and Home Repairs; Clayton Evans, Camping, Sail and Water Conservation, Rowing, Fishing and First Aid; John Freeman, Canoeing and Rowing; Richard Kosko, Basketball, Swimming and Rowing; Tom Ludwig, Canoeing, Basketball and Citizenship in the Home.

Teachers Ready For Convention

Five members of the staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System will participate in various ways in the annual convention of Central Association of Teachers and Mathematics Teachers scheduled November 26-28 at Detroit's Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Bruce Westling, science coordinator at Pierce Junior High School, is a general chairman of the program committee, as well as a chairman of the local arrangements committee.

Co-chairmen of the film preview committee are Ronald Buehler, of the local department of instruction, and William Hoover, instructional specialist at Grosse Pointe High School. Speaking on "A Summer Science Special Interest Program" is Robert Arthur, of the staff of Pierce Junior High School. James Bowen, sixth grade teacher at Ferry Elementary School, will address a session on "Outdoor Education: The Living Laboratory."

Xmas Mailing Advice Offered

Postmaster Baker recommends the use of first class postage for the most efficient service in mailing your Christmas greeting cards. First class mail gets preferred service. If the addressee has moved and a forwarding address is left, the mail will be sent on for delivery. In the event of an error in the address or a removal with no forwarding address, the letter will be returned.

For Christmas, 1964, the Post Office offers a series of four stamps done in traditional Christmas colors of red and green on a white background. The stamps portray a sprig of holly, conifer, mistletoe and poinsettia.

The choice is yours. Live your Christmas greeting cards with these colorful 5c postage stamps. Get priority in dispatch and delivery by use of first class postage.

Mr. Baker advises that all patrons carefully check addresses for legibility and correctness. Be sure your return address is on the envelope and that you have included the zip code numbers in both return and destination addresses.

Present Benefit Play at St. Paul

By Ellen Kennedy
Rumor has it that some not-so-hidden talent was discovered at St. Paul High School. On Sunday, November 22, ingenious students gathered in the gymnasium of the school to give a benefit performance for needy families in Our Lady of Sorrows Parish. Linda Rowley, senior, explained that the proceeds were to be used to purchase Thanksgiving turkeys for these families.

The acts included such things as a clever mimic of Peter Pan by seniors Kathy Moxley, Barb Harkin, Diane Hillenbrand, Liz Browning, Mimi Boyer, Jeanne Delsener and Julie Crowther. In another act the familiar "yeah, yeah, yeah" of those Liverpool boys could be heard, accompanied by the all-too-familiar screams.

Freshmen Mary Beth Stevens and Judy Barov treated the audience to an exceptional performance of folk song.

A rib-tickling fashion monologue by Annette Ciarimataro rounded out the evening.

During a brief intermission between the humorous acts, one moment of seriousness was observed. On the day of the first anniversary of the death of President Kennedy, John Nienstedt presented a brief eulogy on America's martyred President.

English Disc Jockey Gives Interview to Pointe Girls

By Lisa Carrato and Sue Kennedy
For two weeks in October, Detroit and the surrounding areas were given a treat. John Benson, an English disc jockey, was on radio station WXYZ, answering questions and thrilling teenagers with his positively British accent! He also entertained them by playing some of the current English record hits that he brought with him.

The Saturday before Mr. Benson returned to Great Britain, we talked with him seeking the answers to some of the Grosse Pointers' questions. Here's how it went:

Q. How did he happen to come to WXYZ?

A. "WXYZ executives called the BBC (British Broadcasting Company) asking for a D. J. to spend two weeks in Detroit. I was chosen and here I am!"

Q. How much of Detroit has he seen?

A. "Not much at all. My time has been spent mostly around the broadcast house. I wish I had more time to really see your great city."

Q. How do English and Detroit teens compare?

A. "The English are shyer. But they both have the same interests, like music. The English, though, spend their time in coffee houses. Here, the teens don't seem to have any place to congregate and just talk."

Q. What is his opinion of Radio Caroline?

A. "It's illegal, you know, but I like it. It's the forerunner of commercial radio in England."

Q. Now, about the Beatles: what's his opinion of each?

A. "Well, let's take Ringo first, he's my favorite. Ringo is the most natural. He's unaffected by what's happening to the group. John is the humorous one. Paul? Well, Paul is basically shy. He covers up his shyness by his actions. And George, when he's not with the group, prefers to be on his own."

He also mentioned that the teen boys in England "blow wave" their hair (it's so long, you know). "Blow waving" is what we call "rattling" or "teasing" hair.

We had to end our conversation, since John Benson had to prepare for his final radio program in Detroit, at least for a while. He was very cordial and we enjoyed talking with him.

In case anyone would like to write to him, this is his address:

Austin Plants Kennedy Tree

The Austin High Student Senate, staged a "Nickel Drop" on Friday, November 13th, to provide funds for the erection of a Kennedy Memorial. The students dropped their nickels in a pot during the lunch hour.

The 900 collected nickels were used to buy a Massachusetts maple tree and a gold plaque with the inscription: "This tree is dedicated to the memory of John F. Kennedy who represented strength of conviction and vitality of youth."

On November 22, the officers of the Student Senate met in front of the school to plant this memorial tree and attach the plaque to the school building.

Turning the first spade of earth for the planting, were the principal, Rev. J. Galloway, O.S.A., and the Student Senate president, Nino Cimino.

Those responsible for the organization of this Student Senate project were Senate vice-president, Frank Amato; secretary, Jerry DeSantis; treasurer, Peter Tocco, and vice-principal of student affairs and Senate Moderator, Mr. Thomas Bailey.

Session Slated By Camera Club

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will gather at 8 o'clock next Tuesday, December 1, in the Fries Ballroom of the War Memorial Center.

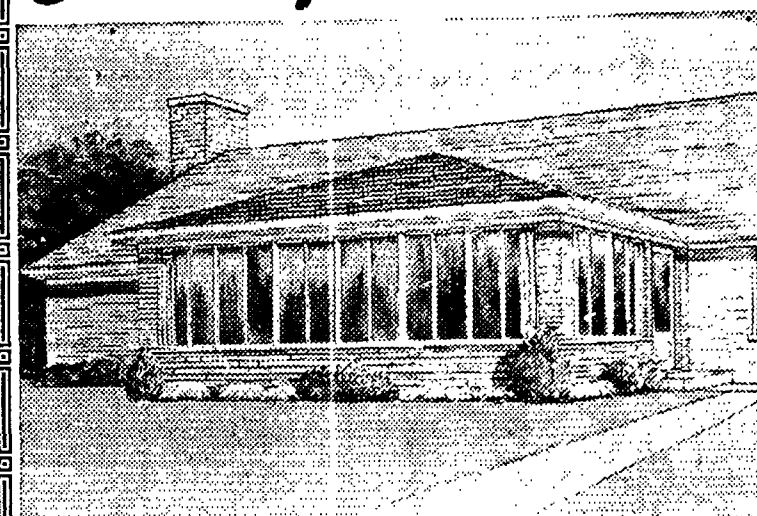

The meeting will be a competition session, with each member allowed to submit three color slides and three monochrome prints. Two of each may be analyzed.

Guests of members and the public are invited to attend the meeting.

34 Policemen End Training

Thirty-four police officers, including 14 from the Pointe, successfully completed a 44-hour session at the Police Basic Training School held in the Park Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson, according to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers on Thursday, November 19.

Five Pointe officers were among nine men who completed the full 132 hours required to obtain diplomas, and will participate in graduation ceremonies on December 17, at the Devon Gables, Maple and Telegraph roads, Birmingham, with graduates from Royal Oak and Lincoln Park Police Schools.

Chief Louwers, director of training of the school in the Park, released the names of the graduates from his school. They are: Park Patrolmen William Furtaw and Gary Mitchell; City Cpl. Edward Behrend and Patrolman Gerard DeBoever; Shores Patrolman Donald Fronszak, and Warren Patrolmen Anthony DeLuca, Gerald Norkiewicz, Thomas Rossman and Fred Homikov.

In order to qualify for diplomas, officers in training must complete three 44-hour sessions, for a total of 132 hours, and must have a grade of 85 percent or more, at the final scoring of each 44 hours.

Chief Louwers revealed that all of the graduates from his school had final test scores of more than 90 percent. The officers had been faced with a challenging program and had successfully met the challenge, he said.

The Basic Police Training Schools in the Park, Royal Oak and Lincoln Park, are sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Southeastern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

Bishop Emrich Plans Lectures

Some months ago the Right Reverend Richard E. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, delivered a lecture on "Some Christian Insight into Conservatism" at St. John's Episcopal Church, Midland, Mich. His lecture proved to be of great interest to those who heard it, and it was subsequently published.

Because of the interest in conservatism and so-called extremism in the nation and in the church, it seemed appropriate to ask Bishop Emrich to speak at Christ Church on the same topic, in a series of meetings open to the parish and the community at large. Bishop Emrich will speak in Miller Hall, Christ Church, at 8 p.m. on the first three Tuesdays in Advent, December 1, 8 and 15.

Since these lectures are designed to deal frankly with issues which concern all of us, they merit the participation of the entire community. The schedule of talks is: December 1, The Meaning and Power of a Great Tradition; December 8, The Problem of Law and Order; and December 15, The Cardinal Virtue of Prudence.

Zoo Terminates Another Season

On Sunday, November 1, at 5 p.m., the Detroit Zoo closed for the year. This marks the end of its 27th season.

Visitors to the 122-acre Zoo this season numbered more than 2,000,000 and represented all the states and provinces in North America. This attendance is the highest in the Zoo's history.

This date also marks the birthday of the Zoo's gorillas, the largest of the great apes.

The Detroit Zoological Park owns three gorillas—two males, Maximo and Jim-Jim, and one female, Mesou.

This season is their tenth anniversary at the Zoo. They are the age equivalent of a 21-year-old man.

All three gorillas came to the Zoo in 1955 from equatorial Africa.

At that time, Maximo weighed 21 pounds, Jim-Jim weighed 18 pounds, and Mesau weighed 12.

At their last weighing, Maximo weighed 520 pounds, Jim-Jim weighed 415 pounds, and Mesou weighed 315 pounds.

Now full-grown, Maximo and Jim-Jim sport the silver back fur of the adult gorilla.

Maximo is probably the largest gorilla in the United States today.

His wrist measures 15 inches. His neck, measures 38 inches.

and his chest span is 75 inches. The length of his arm alone is 113 inches.

Due to the animals' gargantuan size, no one is allowed to enter their cage. Although the gorillas are trusting of their keeper, with their great strength they could easily hurt him unintentionally.

Austin Players Slate 'Teahouse'

The Austin Prep. Players, under the direction of Thomas E. Bailey, are staging "Teahouse of the August Moon" on Saturday, November 28, and Sunday, Nov. 29, at 8 o'clock. The place of this dramatic production is Pierce Junior High Auditorium, Kercheval at Balfour road. Ticket may be purchased at the door for 75 cents.

Introducing New Teachers

MRS. PATRICIA M. FOLKERTH, social studies and MRS. SALLIE LUEDTKE, French. Mrs. Luedtke, a former staff member at Parcels, is teaching this year at Pierce in a part-time capacity and acting as language coordinator between the elementary and junior high schools.

The five newcomers to The Grosse Pointe Public School System who have been added this fall to the professional staff of Pierce Junior High School bring to their respective assignments solid academic preparation, a variety of professional experiences, wide personal interests, and an enthusiastic approach to their teaching.

Mrs. Patricia M. Folkerth, Mrs. Patricia O. Popely, Miss Judith L. Peet and John J. Coury are featured in the eighth of our weekly series of brief biographies of new Grosse Pointe teachers. Mrs. Folkerth teaches American history and world geography in grades seven and eight. An experienced teacher, she has taught at the Indian Hill School in Cincinnati, Ohio, and has been a substitute teacher in Lynchburg, Va., and Phoenix, Ariz.

Extra Curricular Work
During her college days she was president of her sorority, Delta Gamma, she served as editor of the yearbook, and held a variety of other leadership positions on the Student Council, the Homecoming Committee, and the Panhellenic Council.

She is a member of the Ohio Education Association. Her hobbies include golf, tennis, painting, reading and travel. In the past year and a half she has been in over 40 states, as well as Canada and Mexico.

Mr. Folkerth will advise the Detroit Junior Achievement Program this year. The Folkerths are residents of St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Patricia O. Popely, instructor in French in grades 7, 8, and 9, is a graduate of Ohio State University. A scholarship student, she was a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Other distinctions included the vice-presidency of the sophomore honorary society, class representative to the Women's Self-Government Association, presidency of the Pledge Class, and Presidency of the sorority house.

An experienced teacher, her assignment prior to Pierce was in grades seven and eight at Oakwood High School in Dayton, Ohio, and part-time at the Ohio State University School in Columbus.

Her professional memberships include the National Education Association, the Michigan Education Association, and the Grosse Pointe Teachers' Association.

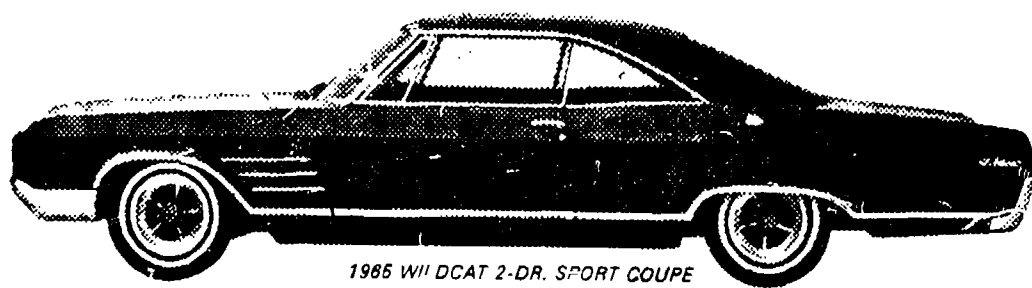

Has Many Hobbies
Mrs. Popely's hobbies are bridge, chess, reading, painting, swimming, and tennis. She has been active in Red Cross work.

Mr. Popely is in public relations with the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. Mr. and Mrs. Popely make their home in Warren.

Miss Judith L. Peet, physical education teacher at Pierce, is a native of Ann Arbor, a graduate of Ann Arbor High School and Eastern Michigan University. During her college days she was affiliated with Delta Zeta.

Quite naturally, sports of all kinds rank as Miss Peet's hobbies. Among her favorites are snow skiing and scuba diving.

She belongs to a folk singing group called "The Prophets Four." They have been on the radio in Ann Arbor several (Continued on Page 15)

St. Ambrose Once Again City Champs

More than 15,000 foot- and win Detroit's high school championship in a 20-0 victory.

It was St. Ambrose's fourth such victory in six years.

The brilliant offensive play of halfback Tom Landau led the Cavaliers to their win in the game which was played in a rainy snow. Landau scored all three of St. Ambrose's touchdowns and the two points after touchdowns were made by back Barry Boyd. An experienced Cavalier line defense held the Jungaleers team scoreless.

In the first quarter both teams were unable to do more than run three downs and punt. Each lost the ball once on fumbles.

At the beginning of the second quarter Boyd punted to Southeastern from his own 45, but the Jungaleers were unable to make any yardage with the ball and were forced to punt.

Suddenly the Cavaliers came to life when Landau smashed off tackle four times for 52 yards and made St. Ambrose's first touchdown. Boyd, who normally kicks for St. Ambrose on conversion attempts ran for the point which gave the Cavaliers a 7-0 lead at halftime.

In the second half the Jungaleers were unable to stop a charging St. Ambrose team which took a punt on its own 38-yard line and marched 82 yards in seven plays to score its second touchdown in the third quarter. Landau again carried the ball over the goal line for the six points but Boyd was unable to make the conversion. At the end of the third quarter St. Ambrose led Southeastern 13-0.

After receiving a Jungaleer punt in the fourth quarter on their own 35 yard line, the Cavaliers again marched to a touchdown, covering 64 yards in 14 plays. Boyd place kicked the extra point. It was his 25th in 27 tries this season.

The Cavalier defense was so strong that the Jungaleers could not penetrate beyond their own 34-yard line until the final quarter when they moved to a first down on the St. Ambrose 27-yard line.

The statistics of the 20-0 St. Ambrose victory show that the victors made 14 first downs in the game while the Southeastern team was only able to make four. The winners also picked up 285 yards by rushing but the Jungaleers only managed 89 yards. Each team lost the ball twice through fumble and only two passes were attempted in the entire game. Both were by the Southeastern team which picked up just seven yards in the attempts.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB FUN NIGHT POSTPONED

Due to the fact that Maire School will not be available on Friday night, November 27, Fun Night of the Neighborhood Club will be postponed to Friday, December 4, from 7-9 o'clock. The program will consist of games, contests, relays and square dancing. Boys and girls in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades are cordially invited to attend.

School Honored By US Treasury

A U.S. Treasury citation has been presented to Sister Mary Assumpta, principal of St. Clare of Montefalco School, Grosse Pointe Park, for her sincere support of the Treasury's school savings program which is now in its fourth year at St. Clare.

Citations were awarded to three mothers of St. Clare pupils who give voluntarily of their time a part of one day each week to operate the School Savings Program. They are: Mrs. Frank Barresi, 4200 Bishop, Philip J. Perrone, 4118 Devonshire, and Mrs. Edwin J. Peters, 3910 Three Mile Drive. The presentations were made at the school by King Symington, area manager for the Treasury's U.S. Savings Bonds Division.

Since United States savings stamps first were offered for sale in 1941, Michigan has had an outstanding record in terms of per capita purchases. This state's youngsters annually invest approximately $1.5 million in these colorful adhesives—a level exceeded only in more populous Pennsylvania.

"School authorities and officials of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers agree that the school savings program is one of our most effective instruments for teaching citizenship and thrift," Symington said. "It blends patriotism and savings in an ideal setting. It helps train young Americans in self-reliance, the wisdom of money management, and other values important to their growth."

"The core of the program is Stamp Day," the Treasury representative continued. "One day a week boys and girls are given an opportunity to buy stamps at school. Competition in terms of the amount invested is discouraged to avoid embarrassment for children who are unable to participate. Pupils are encouraged to earn the money used to buy stamps—or at least to save it from allowances or gifts—rather than to ask their parents for additional funds for stamp day. "In an increasing number of Michigan schools responsibility for actual stamp day activities has been assumed by members of PTA or other volunteer organizations," Symington reported.

Purdue Women To Meet Dec. 3

Women of Purdue University Club, Detroit area, will meet for a 12:30 luncheon on Thursday, December 3, at the home of Mrs. John Kirlin, 306 Provencal road, Detroit area.

Mrs. Fred Peppier of Detroit, a member of the club will show slides and talk about The Holy Land. For reservations call Mrs. Eugene Hilker, PR. 2-9056, or Mrs. Eugene Hill, EL. 6-3447.

Mrs. Eugen Hilker, chairman, will be assisted by: Mrs. George Baer, Mrs. Paul Hykes, Mrs. Kenneth Kimmel, Mrs. W. J. Larson, Mrs. D. Shalibo and Mrs. Elgin Waldon.

Salvation Army Gifts Light Tree

A harbinger of Christmas in Detroit will be seen when the first bulb is lighted on The Salvation Army 'Tree of Lights,' Friday noon, November 27.

Walter J. L. Ray, President of the Standard Federal Savings & Loan Bank, is sponsoring the 'Tree of Lights' kick-off. Mayor Cavanagh will be present to assist in launching this Appeal. The tree is located at Campus Martius, and is a beautiful spruce put up by the Parks and Recreation Department of the City. It is covered with red lights, and every hundred dollars will turn one of the red lights to white, until the entire goal of 550 lights will be shining brightly.

Mrs. Duane Egeland, Mrs. Michigan of 1964, will be our glamorous guest at the 'Tree of Lights.' Two stars of the Detroit Lions Football Team, Roger Brown and Daryl Sanders, will be on hand to kick-off the 'Thousand Dollar Football.' The Timbrel Band from the Edwin Denby Children's Home will also be on hand to give rhythm to the occasion. Detroit Edison will provide the aerial basket to aid in turning on the first lights.

The goal this year is $55,000, which will provide a happier Christmas for over 40,000 individuals in the Detroit area. Such things as Golden Age's parties, Children's parties, meals for the homeless man, Toy Shop for youngsters, and many other activities are provided with the funds collected.

Introducing New Teachers

Pierce is Mrs. Luedtke. Her family home is in Rochester, Minn., where her father is on the staff of the Mayo Clinic.

A graduate of Michigan State University, she completed additional training at the University of Michigan, and received a National Defense Education scholarship to participate in a language institute at Minnesota's College of Saint Catherine. Mrs. Luedtke rounded out her many linguistic experiences by living for a summer with a family in France.

Teaching classes in social studies in grades eight and nine at Pierce is John J. Coury. The holder of a BA and an MA from the University of Detroit, he has done additional work in economics at Wayne State University. A member of Delta Phi Epsilon, he held a General Motors scholarship and was graduated cum laude from college.

Experienced in junior high school training, Mr. Coury has had five years' experience in the Detroit Public Schools. A stint of military experience found him in the U.S. Navy for four years. He is a Detroiter by birth and a graduate of Denby High School.

A natural out-of-school interest is his membership in the Metropolitan Detroit Social Studies Club. Mr. Coury's hobbies include singing, swimming, golf, hunting and coin collecting.

Mr. and Mrs. Coury, residents of Grosse Pointe Woods, are the parents of four boys. Six-year-old John is a first grader at St. Joan of Arc, while five-year-old Brian is a Mason kindergarten. Other children are James, three and one-half, and Richard, two and one-half.

A second, part-time member of the French department at Michigan's 12,000 Christmas tree growers will harvest an estimated three million Christmas trees this year, says a Michigan State University forestry specialist. They ship more than 90 percent of the trees in the Nation.

Overwatering is a primary cause of house plant failure, so be sure to water them less frequently during fall and winter, say Michigan State University horticulturists.

A member of Kappa Alpha Theta in college, Mrs. Luedtke was also active in Junior Pan Hellenic, Ski Club, Newman Club, the Frosh/Soph Council and the Union Board. Her hobbies include reading, traveling and knitting.

The Luedtkes are residents of Grosse Pointe Farms. They make their home in Beverly road.

"Wassail" is derived from two Old English words, "waes" and "hale," meaning "Be well." It was the custom in ancient England for the host to hand a new guest a cup of the beverage (a mixture of beer, spices and fruit juices) and say, "Wass hale!" In return, the guest bowed, touched his cup to the host's, and replied "Drink hale" or "Drink in Health."

Prepare Exhibit Of Indian Art

An exhibition of Italian art of the seventeenth century to be entitled, "Art in Italy, 1600-1700," is now being prepared by The Detroit Institute of Arts. The exhibition will be open to the public from April 6 to May 9, 1965. Some 95 paintings, approximately 100 drawings, and 18 sculptures will be included in the show. These works will come from 49 lenders.

Twelve paintings are to be loaned from the Denis Mahon Collection in London, including his important Annibale Carracci, "Coronation of the Virgin," and his "Landscape with a Fortification," by Domenichino. Other works will be loaned from the Walter P. Chrysler, Jr., the Robert Manning, the Janos Scholz and the Paul Ganz Collections.

Although a number of recent exhibitions have been devoted to individual Italian schools of painting, no comprehensive showing of this period has taken place in America for more than 20 years. However, interest in the period, taste for collecting works of this age, and our knowledge of it have increased enormously.

Today, critical examination of seventeenth century Italian painting has brought to the fore the great complexity of artistic strains, the thorny problems of attribution, and the outstanding quality of the production of this era. The Detroit Institute of Arts exhibition will serve to pinpoint issues concerning attribution and will allow scholars to arrive at an evaluation of a master's style on the basis of carefully chosen masterpieces. "Art in Italy, 1600-1700" is being organized by Fred J. Cummings, curator of European Art at the Museum.

The exhibition will allow the general public to become acquainted with the tremendous number of artists and the surprising variety of styles which this sumptuous era presents.

A working committee of outstanding scholars in various fields has been formed for the exhibition. This Consulting Committee consists of Dr. Donald Posner, of the Institute of Fine Arts of New York University; Dr. Robert Manning, Director of the Museum of Art of Finch College, New York City, and his wife, Dr. Bertina Suida Manning; Dr. Dwight Miller of the Department of Art History, Stanford University; Dr. Robert Engass of the Department of Art History, the Pennsylvania State University; Dr. Alfred Moir, Chairman of the Department of Art History, University of California at Santa Barbara. Each individual will make recommendations concerning specific items to be included in the exhibition and each will prepare catalogue entries within his individual field.

Regarding the exhibition's catalog, Commented, "My hope is to present a carefully documented catalogue which will serve as a guide to the exhibition and which will reproduce most of the items to be included. An introductory essay on the seventeenth century in Italy will be written by the world-renowned authority on the period, Professor Rudolf Wittkower of Columbia University. Hopefully, this catalogue will continue to serve as a basic reference work in the field long after the exhibition has ended."

Arthur P. Holstein On Aircraft Carrier

Arthur P. Holstein, Jr., sea-man, USN, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Holstein of 875 Bal-four road, is serving with Fighter Squadron 62, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Independence operating in the Mediterranean.

The squadron utilizes the Chance Vought "Crusader" jet aircraft in carrying out its mission of intercepting hostile aircraft and missiles in addition to providing close-air support to ground units and ships of the fleet.

While the squadron was deployed in the Mediterranean recently, they had the opportunity to put the "Crusader" to a test when Russian "Bear" aircraft approached the vicinity of the task force. Planes from the Woods Boosts Traffic Safety Improvements

Several improvements in the interest of traffic safety were instituted by the Woods Department of Public Safety, it was disclosed on Monday, November 23, by Police Lt. Roland Symons, traffic safety officer. The improvements, in effect since the beginning of this month, had the recommendation of the Citizens Traffic Safety Commission.

The lieutenant revealed that among the improvements the department purchased were two new Stephenson Radar Speed-analysers, which were put into service during October. This equipment can measure the speed of an approaching or passing vehicle from a few feet to about two blocks away.

He said the units have been, and will continue to be used in high accident areas and in residential streets and major thoroughfares during peak rush hours.

He disclosed that the radar equipment is being used in residential areas in response to complaints from a large number of citizens, who report speeding cars on their streets. The results in these areas have proved radar to be an excellent deterrent the lieutenant said.

Symons said that this modern enforcement tool is safer and three times as effective as the traditional pursuit techniques, squadron were there to meet them to insure that no hostile action took place. In the next few days after the first interception, the squadron intercepted and escorted several Russian aircraft away from the task force.

The squadron is scheduled to return to the United States in November.

and has been very successful in reducing speeding offenses.

Other improvements put into effect, Symons said, were a three-way stop at Parkway and Marter (school crossing); 12-minute parking meters replaced with one hour meters at 15 Mack avenue locations; street painting completed, including marked crosswalks and stop bars at all school crossings.

Also, the left turn lane on Vernier road east at Marter, has been extended from 100 feet to 220 feet; and a new municipally-owned parking lot opened at Anita and Mack, which has added 17 more off-street parking spaces in that area.

It's so true—men never are too old to learn, but many are too young to realize it.

OIL LEASES 50¢ AN ACRE

The United States government will put up at public drawing in Santa Fe, New Mexico, the third Monday of each month, millions of acres of oil and gas leases in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma for sale to the public at 50 cents per acre. Many of these leases are valued by the major oil companies and other interested buyers at many hundreds of dollars per acre. But, under Federal rules and regulations you have the same EQUAL chance to draw one of these valuable leases as the largest oil company in the nation. Write for how you may obtain service in filing for leases. Federal termination lease lists, advance postings and monthly winners lists. This is not a drilling venture.

Postmaster Says Shop, Mail Early

Postmaster Baker observes that shopping and mailing early benefits everyone. The early shopper gets the pick of the Christmas stocks, the local economy is aided and the increased activity creates additional employment. This condition brings happiness to everyone—including the postal service, because of the additional time early mailing allows.

The postal patron also benefits from this "Shop and Mail Early." Long, tedious waits in lines for mailing are avoided. Your gift parcels and greeting cards arrive in time for a Merry Christmas. Chances for delays due to last minute mailing rushes are lessened. By your thoughtfulness you have brought joy to your friends and loved ones.

Mr. Baker added, "The employees of the Detroit Post Office need the help of the public. As a patron of the Detroit Post Office, you can assist us by shopping and mailing early and by using your zip code in return and destination addresses. For a Detroit zip code directory, contact your local post office.

It's always the idle rumor that's busier than any other kind.

Winter Driving Myths Exploded by Motor Club better on icy roads than conventional brakes?

A driver seeking the advice on winter car care can find plenty—most of it incorrect.

To help drivers steer clear of bad winter driving advice, "Discovery," official publication of the Allstate Motor Club, lists some winter driving myths and compares them with what automotive engineers and fleet operators say:

1. "An engine should idle and warm up before the car is driven, especially in cold weather." Not so, say the experts. The best way to warm up an engine to peak operating efficiency is to drive the car easily. Just idling the engine keeps the choke closed longer and raw gasoline washes oil off the cylinder walls.

2. "Pump the accelerator a few times before using the starter so the engine will start the first time and prevent flooding." Pumping the accelerator more than once on cars with automatic transmissions may flood the engine. The proper method is to depress the pedal slightly, hold it there and start the motor.

To overcome flooding, a motorist should floor the gas pedal and hold it there while he starts the engine. This method should be repeated every few minutes until the car starts.

3. "If you can find one, the ideal used car is one owned by a little old lady who only drove it once a week." Such a car may be a clunker. Short-run, low temperature driving is hard on engines. Engine combustion is poor with carbon and sludge forming to cut engine life.

4. "Power brakes make your car safer; you can stop quicker." Not necessarily, say the experts. Power brakes make you stop with less effort, but not in less distance. They give some drivers a false sense of security, because like power steering, they don't give the driver enough feel of the pavement. On wet or icy pavement this is dangerous.

5. "Cars don't need as much maintenance as they used to." Despite the improved oils and lubricants developed by the car manufacturers, drivers still are advised to change their oil more often under severe driving conditions. City driving and winter driving may require a driver to change his oil more frequently than his manual provides.

If the car is not serviced regularly, more than just an oil change and a lubrication is ignored. Brake fluid in the master cylinder, the oil filter, the under-carriage and the muffler may be neglected unless frequent inspections are made.

Car owners must beware of bad advice, warns the Allstate Motor Club magazine. Talk is cheap, but repair bills resulting from taking bad advice are not.

Greatly Blessed Are We

On this Thanksgiving Day, with a heart full of gratitude for all the blessings bestowed on us by the Creator of all things, we feel a very special gratefulness for the privilege of co-existence with His masterpiece . . . people.

Without people the universe would be nothing. Its majestic beauties and awesome phenomena must be shared to be appreciated. The breath-taking loveliness of a special sunset is amplified a thousand times when there is someone present with whom to exchange reactions.

Thanks be to the Pilgrims for fleeing oppression and coming to these shores and celebrating the first Thanksgiving in 1621. And thanks to those from whom they fled . . . for providing us with so much of our coveted background of education, culture and religion. Every individual makes a personal contribution to everyone he knows. Even the most miserable character in our acquaintance carries a conspicuous sign which, translated, says: "Don't be like me." Persons who offend every tenet to which we cling, possess the power to make the adrenalin run rampant, and thus may prod us into action toward attainment of a goal we might otherwise not have sighted.

Of course, in speaking of people in general, we have particularly in mind our personal blessing in the form of those whose friendship has been offered and is cherished. We recall one young housewife who, after living here but a few years, told us she was convinced that she could go from house to house on any street, and meet the most wonderful collection of people ever assembled in one community. The marvelous truth is that residents of every village, town and city in America can say the same thing and mean it, because of their love for the people with whom they live.

On this special day set aside to acknowledge the munificence of the Great Arranger we would offer a special thanksgiving for all those of all ages whose greatness has enriched our lives. This enrichment can take so many forms. It may come partly from the magnificent legacy of writings (available to all), which can help guide our own living. It may be felt in the inspiration gleaned from the masterpieces of art which have been bequeathed us. The earthy kind of enrichment is enjoyed daily through the creations of the myriad minds which have given us our modern means of transportation, communication, ease in carrying out our assigned tasks, luxury in relaxation, and comfort beyond belief in our homes and offices.

The medical skill which can prolong a life, the scientific know-how which can probe the secrets of outer space, the influence of a fine teacher, the healing understanding of a competent religious leader are all part of the system for which we should be most grateful. The picture is far from complete without those to whom we are personally closest—the loved ones who know us and are forgiving; who praise when praise is most needed; who criticize, but only with a hope of being helpful; who lend the sympathy without which we could not go on. We are indeed enriched.

Let us give thanks for all the blessings of this day . . . and of all days. And pray that we may be worthy of them.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Thanksgiving Day, 1964—another day of feasting and football, rest and religious thoughts, conviviality and conversation, reunions and roast turkey. We each celebrate it in various ways, but do we ever stop to think of its true meaning or origins?

Thanksgiving Day, as a national religious festival celebrated on the same day throughout the country, dates from 1863.
Credit for this idea is usually given to Mrs. Sarah J. Hale.
In 1827, while editor of the LADIES' MAGAZINE in Boston, she started agitation for its observance as a means of expression of thanks for all the blessings we receive during the year. When LADIES' MAG-AZINE was consolidated with GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, Mrs.
Hale, as its editor, wrote many editorials in support of her plan.
She also wrote letters to governors and the President. She exercised a powerful influence since GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, at that time, had the largest circulation of any periodical in the country.

As a result of all this pressure and urging, President Lincoln, on October 3, 1863, issued the first national Thanksgiving Proclamation, setting apart the last Thursday in November as the day to be observed. In the North there was a general response to this proclamation.
Services were held in the churches of all denominations and sermons were preached appropriate to the occasion.

The first international celebration of this day was held in Washington in 1909. The idea was conceived by the Rev. Dr.
William T. Russell, rector of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in that city. Dr. Russell planned a Pan-American celebration to be attended by representatives of all the Latin-American countries and to be held in the nation's Capital. Since these countries are of Catholic persuasion, it was only natural that such a celebration should be held in a Catholic Church. President Taft and members of the Cabinet attended the services also.

Although we tend to think of the Day as originating in New England (and Governor Bradford did issue the first Thanksgiving proclamation), the idea is probably as old as the worshipping spirit. Some maintain that this national holiday was suggested by the Hebrew Feast of the Tabernacles. In spite of this universality of inclination, there are not too many Christian nations who have a yearly festival set aside for the purpose of thankfulness.

Every school boy knows, of course, of our New England historical origins—of the setting aside of a day of thanks for the harvest in 1621 under orders from Governor Bradford of the Plymouth Colony. Turkeys were plentiful, and so this was the natural piece de resistance for the first feasts. Indians and settlers celebrated together, the Indians contributing deer to the festival.

Since an act of Congress in 1941, Thanksgiving has been observed nationally and annually on the fourth Thursday of November. The old idea of feasting and meditation—of giving thanks both privately and publicly—have been retained.
Each year takes on a special tinge, colored by the events of the preceding twelve months. In times of earlier wars, a feeling of thankfulness was sometimes hard to achieve; during the Depression a decent "feast" for some was undoubtedly hard to come by. In our atomic age, I think many of us feel happy primarily to be alive when each November rolls around! This year, I believe our thoughts will turn to the heinous crime of last November 22—the day of the assassination of our own President Kennedy. The date is too close for us not to be influenced by the events of that infamous day. Whether Republican or Democrat, American or foreign, adult or child, we were all touched in some way by the deed.

Christmas is coming early this year at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center . . . on Wednesday, December 2, to be exact.

On that date, at 2 o'clock, in the War Memorial Auditorium, Mrs. William H. Barton, of East Lansing, will delight Garden Center members and friends with a lecture on Christmas decorations—and will tell her audience how to make the beautiful arrangements she will exhibit in conjunction with her talk.

Mrs. Barton appears in the fifth yearly lecture provided by the Raymond H. Berry Memorial Fund established by Mr. Berry's wife and daughter.

The lecture is without charge, and will be preceded by a subscription luncheon served in the War Memorial's Crystal Ball Room (luncheon tickets at $2.25 may be obtained and reservations made at the Garden Center Room in the War Memorial).

One of those VERY rare women whose oratorical talents equal her qualifications as a speaker, Mrs. Barton served as National Chairman of Flower Show Schools for the National Council of State Garden Clubs for five years.

She is a past president of the Michigan Association of Accredited Flower Show Judges, has done invitational exhibits, lectured and taught the art of arranging in 35 states, had her own radio series, authored numerous articles and contributed to books on flower arranging.

Her experience also includes representing the United States at the International Floriade in Rotterdam, The Netherlands, exhibiting flower arrangements as designed and taught in the States through the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

The program has been arranged by chairman Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson and her committee: Mrs. Wood Williams, Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Mrs. John Dodd and

GPHS Mothers Slate Annual Holiday Tea

Nine Foreign Students to be Featured at Traditional Christmas Party Next Tuesday; Pointe Artists to Exhibit Christmas Work

The true meaning of Christmas bursts crystal clear in the Grosse Pointe community December 1 when a "Christmas Around the World" tea, sponsored by the Mothers Club of the Grosse Pointe High School opens at 3 o'clock.

This annual event has achieved a traditional role as the first day of the Christmas Season in Grosse Pointe. It attracts hundreds of mothers and friends.

Nine students, studying at Grosse Pointe High School from lands around the world, gave Mrs. William Chankhurst, Christmas Tea chairman, the theme for the tea.

These students are: Heike Brandt, Germany; Ann Marie Faterlund, Sweden; Maria Aparecida Otera Chagas de Oliveira, Brazil; Maria-Christina Poblete Garerton, Chile; Bridgitte Sack, Germany; Kurt Bannwarth, Switzerland; Nils-Olaf Gustafson, Sweden; Claes Koch, Sweden, and Johann Georg Volker, Germany.

The foreign students, costumed in native dress, will lead the candlelit procession of the High School Choir, 151 in number, into the Auditorium and on to the pine tree-silhouetted stage.

John Finch, Music Department Head, is well-known for his expert direction of the High School Choir and has researched appropriate Christmas music to fit this international theme. Christmas songs from foreign lands will be heard during the program.

During the tea hour, guests will enjoy an exhibit by the Grosse Pointe Artists Association featuring art, painting and sculpture that ties in with the spirit of Christmas.

The Grosse Pointe Artists Association exhibit includes the work of Mesdames Curtis Carmichael, Robert Thidodeau, Lee Carrick, Joseph Thimm, E. A. Farley, John L. Joseph and Wesley Brown, and of Messrs. Edgar Yeager and Nelson Welch.

Tea Tables will feature the traditional greens. Unusual Christmas wall arrangements will be for sale after the tea is over.

Mrs. Fred L. Jahn, chairman of the Invitations Committee, has released attractive invitations to all parents in the High School community. The invitation design was created by Jon McIntosh, '65.

Members of the Invitations Committee include Mesdames Richard F. Huegli, Allan Forrest, Carl R. Meier, Donald Dangler, Russell Bradley and Paul Long.

Mrs. Fred Matzka heads the Food Committee as chairman. Working with her are Mrs. Richard Fellows, Soliciting Committee chairman, Mrs. Harry C. Halstead, Beverage chairman, and Mrs. Albert Cooper, Sandwich chairman.

Mary Zimmerman Marries Mr. Francis

Reception in Crystal Ball Room of Whittier Hotel Follows Morning Ceremony; Pair Travel to Chicago; Will Live in Roseville

At an 11 o'clock Nuptial Mass in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Saturday, Mary Grace Zimmerman spoke her marriage vows to James Warner Francis.

The Reverend Monsignor Clement H. Kern officiated at the morning ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Zimmerman, of Oxford road, wore a Princess line gown of candlelight peau de soie. Appliques of peau d'ange lace embroidered with pearls accented her bodice and skirt.

The gown extended into a Chapel length train, which was covered by the bride's full length mantilla of Princess lace from Brussels. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Maid of honor Elizabeth D. Fischer wore a floor length gown of willow green silk, with a Dior bow headpiece.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Judy Behrens,

Barbara Tiura, Mary Carmen Francis and junior bridesmaid Georgia Francis, sisters of the bridegroom. They carried cascade arrangements of gold-green grapes, yellow mums and sprays of wheat.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. George A. Francis, of Torrey road, and the late Mr. Francis, asked E. Martin Barbour to act as best man.

Ushering were David C. Zimmerman, brother of the bride; Gene R. Francis, the bridegroom's brother, and Terry Stocker.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Zimmerman chose a gold silk costume with a lace bodice. Mrs. Francis wore an emerald green gown, with matching accessories. Both mothers

Cub Pack 290 Holds Meeting

Cub Pack 290 of Mason School held its November Pack meeting at Mason School.

A large number of friends and families enjoyed the evening's program of displays, skits and yells which were in the theme of "Cub Scout Genius".

Cubmaster Norman Cummings, Jr. and committee chairman Ernest Bauer presided over the program which featured special entertainment by five Boy Scouts from the "Order of the Arrow Indian Dancers", who presented several authentic Indian dances.

It was announced that Lowell Bird would become the new committee chairman and that Frank Jerger would assume duties of announcement chairman. Minor awards were issued as follows:

Recognition to Den No. 10 for attendance and yell; Den No. 2 for inspection, Den No. 7, skit.

Den No. 2 — Den Mother — Irene Griffith; Bruce Burn, one year pin, assistant denner's badge, and one gold arrow point on Wolf Badge.

Den No. 3 — Den Mother — Margaret Cools; Albie Scholl, 2 year pin; Clipper Cools, 1 year pin; Steve Mast, 1 year pin; Mark Fisher, 1 year pin.

Den No. 7 — Den Mother — Barbara Olsen; Craig Schwan, 2 year pin.

Den No. 10 — Den Mother — Mrs. Fred Minturn; Fred Minturn, Denner's badge.

Webelos Don — Tom Rener, 2 year pin; Bill Bentzen, 2 year pin.

pinned cymbidium orchids to their handbags.

After a reception in the Crystal Ball Room of the Whittier Hotel, the bride donned a three-piece turquoise ensemble for traveling to Chicago.

Upon their return, the newlyweds will make their home in Roseville.

Chi Omega Alumnae Plan Xmas Workshop

MARY GRACE ZIMMERMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Zimmerman, of Oxford road, was married to Mr. Francis Saturday, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. He is the son of Mrs. George A. Francis, of Torrey road, and the late Mr. Francis.

John Bernard Claims Bride

Sharon Joan Jack and John Albert Bernard were married Saturday, November 14, in St. Clement Catholic Church in Center Line. The Reverend Father Timothy E. Murray officiated at the Nuptial Mass during which a Papal Blessing was bestowed.

The new Mrs. Bernard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Jacks of Warren, Mich., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Bernard, Sr., of Devonshire road.

For her wedding, the bride chose a peau de soie gown with a modified bell skirt which fell into a chapel train and featured an empire waistline, scoop neckline and court sleeves. Motifs of embroidered Alencon lace were appliqued over the fitted bodice and train. Her bouffant shoulder length veil was attached to a matching petal cap trimmed with crystals and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. C. J. White of Royal Oak was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Carolyn Cattera of Detroit and Mrs. Robert Mack of Warren. Cynthia Jacks of Detroit, cousin of the bride was junior bridesmaid.

Their dresses were floor length sheaths of ivory and gold crystal satin and matching bows formed their head pieces. They carried bouquets of gold and bronze mums and crotan leaves with wheat fashioned into crescent shapes.

Walter V. Bernard, Jr. of Grosse Pointe served as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Michael Marcus of Oak Park, Donald Gualdoni of St. Clair Shores and Frederic Jacks, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jacks wore a gold silk soufflé ensemble and a champagne crown hat with gold net and matching accessories. Her flowers were gold and bronze cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a blue lace ensemble with matching accessories. A white orchid complemented her outfit.

Immediately following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the Ford Hall in Utica. In the evening the couple received guests at a reception in the hall.

Following a two week wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, the couple will make their home in the Eastland Village Apartments.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Urban A. Fisher, a cousin, Mary Fisher, both of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Leroux of Toledo, O.

Holly Developed

Most of the holly cuttings used in American homes today are of the English variety, grown for the most part in the northwest, where climatic conditions are most favorable. Research has produced several strains of American holly said to be much hardier and superior in color, foliage and fruit. These bear such beguiling names as Merry Christmas, Santa Claus, Old Heavy Berry and Cronenberg.

Saturday Dance At Teen Center

The Neighborhood Club Teen Center renamed "The Ceilar" will be the place to dance Saturday night, November 28, from 8:30-11:30.

All high school students (10 through 12th grades) are invited to join the fun and get in the swing with the outstanding rhythms presented by "The Misfits."

Refreshments will be available and admission is 50 cents for members and 75 cents for guests. The Teen Center is located at the corner of Lakepointe and Kercheval, in Grace Church.

To Hold Dance For Single Set

A gala pre-holiday ball is planned in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom for the single set. The date is Friday evening, December 4; the time, 9 o'clock. All guests are asked to be a little more dressy than usual, wearing cocktail dresses for the young ladies and dark suits only for the men.

Roston Clark's orchestra will furnish music for dancing until midnight. At intermission everyone will be invited together around the Steinway to tune up for a little Christmas Carol practice.

Hints of the holidays will be seen in the decorations and the refreshment table will feature a large bowl of wassail in addition to the usual refreshments. Hopefully the yew in the formal garden outside the glass walls will be covered with snow to form symmetrical patterns under the floodlights.

Bridge Club Lists Winners

Grosse Pointe Memorial Bridge Club winners have been announced.

November 16 — North and South, Elsa Reddaway and Marian Johnston; Isabel Hollinger and Ruth Rogers tied with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson.

Center Staging British Evening

For years a popular festive occasion, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is repeating this December "An Evening in Britain" on the eighth of the month at 7 o'clock.

Prior to the traditional British banquet of roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, and flaming plum pudding with brandy sauce, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Day Jr. have invited all dinner guests for a cup of cheer at 16847 Kercheval.

The banquet will commence with a procession led by the chef carrying the boar's head followed by Scottish bag pipers and skirlers.

At the conclusion of the meal guests will adjourn to the little theater where they will be entertained by members of the St. Andrews Society doing traditional Scottish dances to the accompaniment of the pipes. Color films of Britain will follow and the awarding of prizes.

Reservations for this evening must be at the Center's office, 32 Lake Shore, by noon Monday, December 7.

To Hold Hootenanny At Center Friday

Pointe Talent and Professionals To Take Part In Holiday Event; Many Schools and Colleges Represented In Planned Program

The Thanksgiving Hootenanny scheduled for this Friday night, November 27, at 8:15 in Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore Road, will feature fresh young Grosse Pointe talent and also outstanding collegiate and professional entertainers.

The youngest quartet of folk singers are all age 11 and all attend Richard School. They include Liz Simmons of Fisher road; Julie O'Brien, Washington road; Sue Shumaker, Kenwood court; and Joan Duffield, Washington road.

Grosse Pointe High School and the Junior High Schools are contributing several acts. The Wright brothers, Robin and Randy of Moran Road, are a featured duo. Joel Bremer, of Grosse Pointe High, is doing both vocal and guitar solos and another soloist is Grosse Pointe High's Jacquie Steinmetz of Cranford Lane.

Joe and John O'Brien are a duo representing both Pierce Junior High and Grosse Pointe High School. A trio of pretty maids is Marilyn Ellis of University place; Kendy Sherwood of Elford court, and Michelle Du Fresnoe of Somerset—all from Grosse Pointe High School.

Collegiate Artists who will send the college crowd gathered at home for the holiday include Sandy Schopback and Lou Lorange of the U. of M. Sandy and Lou appear frequently at Ann Arbor's only coffee house, The Golden Vanity. They entertain at the Retort when in Detroit.

Also singing is a trio of coeds. Molly Hughes and Connie Wood are from the U. of M. and they'll be joined by Diane Dilloway who has been rehearsing with them by long distance phone from Western Michigan.

The duo that brought down the house last year will be repeated. Dave Hughes from Yale, and Bill Hope from Colorado will converge on Fries Auditorium. Dave is a wild man on guitar and bass fiddle and Bill is a banjo pro.

The professionals on the program are Irene Rosenfeld, who teaches now at the Grosse Pointe University School and has appeared prominently on many stages and, of course, Alex Szecek, who originated the idea of these Grosse Pointe Hootenannies.

Alex will act as the program's Em Cee and will do both vocal and guitar solos and will be joined later in duets by Ann Vathiekakio, lovely Lithuanian teacher at Grosse Pointe University School.

Admission to the Hootenanny is just $1 for students through age 21, $1.50 for older folk. Tickets are on sale now at the Center and will be sold at the door as long as they last on Friday evening.

Club Organizing 3 Court Leagues

The Neighborhood Club is organizing three separate basketball leagues for the winter season.

The Giant League will be composed of teams of at least seven boys from the ages of 13 to 15 years. All games will be played at Pierce Junior High School on Tuesday nights and a $3 Neighborhood Club membership is required for each team member.

The Major League will include teams of at least seven boys from the ages of 16 to 19 years. Their games will be played at Pierce Junior High on Tuesday nights or Brownell Junior High on Wednesday nights. A $5 Neighborhood Club membership is required.

The Adult League will include teams of at least seven men ages 20 and over. A $10 Neighborhood Club membership fee is charged to each player and the games will be played at Pierce and Brownell Junior High Schools.

Call the Neighborhood Club (TU 5-4600) before Wednesday, December 9, and register your team.

You'll always find a narrow mind and a loud mouth mighty close together.

The younger generation isn't too weak—a few of them still power steering and power brakes, or automatic transmission.

Good houses are made by carpenters; good homes, by sound and happy marriages.

Wujek-Mallat Rites Are Celebrated

In St. Lucy's Church this morning, Carolyn Ann Mallat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Mallat, of Moorland drive, became the bride of Edward J. Wujek. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wujek, of Van Dyke avenue, Detroit.

For her marriage, the former Miss Mallat chose an Empire sheath of light ivory peau de soie, styled with a sheer silk jacket trimmed with Alencon lace and beaded with pearls and crystals.

Honor attendant Mary Lou LeFevre, and bridesmaids Antoinette Urso, Judy Saponard and Joan Tinik, wore identical floor length gowns of berry red velvet.

Their headpieces were wreaths of pink and berry rosebuds, entwined with ivy, and they carried matching arrangements of rosebuds, with trailing ivy.

Anthony Wujek served as best man. Ushers were Arthur Tyszka, Kenneth Chapie and Charles Gallant.

A reception at St. Clair Recreation Center followed the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mallat chose a raspberry red dress and mink hat. Mrs. Wujek wore a two-piece blue silk suit with a flowered hat.

For traveling to the Eastern States, New York City and Chicago, the new Mrs. Wujek donned a white suit with brown accessories.

Upon their return, the newlyweds will make their home in Lennon road, Harper Woods.

Swimming Jamboree Scheduled December 6

Girls and boys eight years old and younger who can swim at least 25 yards will take part in an A.A.U. (Amateur Athletic Union) sanctioned swimming jamboree at Downtown Branch YWCA, 2230 Witherell street, on Sunday, December 6, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Central Aquatic Club of Downtown YW, it will be the first competitive swimming meet ever staged for children eight years old and under, according to Mrs. Carolyn Jones, YWCA health education director.

"The jamboree is open to any boy or girl who meets the age and swimming requirements," Mrs. Jones said.

Swimmers who have 1965 A.A.U. numbers may enter under their numbers. Other swimmers may receive a one-day certification for a 40-cent fee. Each participant may enter three events at a fee of 50 cents each.

Events will include the four racing strokes: front crawl, back crawl, butterfly, and breast stroke, each for a distance of 25 yards; 50 yards of the front crawl; and 100 yards of an individual medley.

Registrations are now being taken at the Downtown Branch YWCA.

CAROLYN ANN MALLAT spoke her wedding vows to Mr. Wujek this morning, in St. Lucy's Church. The bride is the daughter of the Frank E. Mallats, of Moorland drive. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wujek, of Detroit.

Learn To Make Christmas Hangings

Half the fun of Christmas is making your own decorations for the home—especially when you can create smashing effects without straining the budget.

Anyone can learn how to do it by attending a "How-to-do-it" exhibit at the White House on Belle Isle from November 28 right up to Christmas Eve, any day except Sunday between 9 and 5 o'clock.

The exhibit shows how to make artistic door and wall hangings, mantel pieces, Christmas card trees, wreaths and centerpieces. There are ideas for decorating the chandelier, the balustrade, the over-the-sofa paint of grandpappy.

Included in the how-to snow are kissing rings, modernistic mobiles and decor trees, made from branches sprayed white.

The most exciting thing about these exhibit pieces is that they all started from such things as coat hangers, flower pots, tin cans, coffee can rings, embroidery hooks and what have you.

Except for a bundle of greens and some sphagnum moss, which can be bought at garden centers, about all one needs to buy are a ball of green string, dime store goblets, some plastic foam, a can of gold spray, some flocking or "snow" and for large wall hangings or blankets, some hardware cloth or screening.

Some home decorators will want to add cones, artificial fruit, toys or Christmas balls to the arrangements, but most new items can be bought for a very nominal sum.

For example, a Christmas card tree can be made from double strands of green cord, stretched tightly along the wall, into the shape of a tree. The tip of the tree fastens to the picture molding, just under the ceiling, and its base, to the baseboard. Nails or tacks will hold the strands in place. Cards slide in between the double strands of string and stay put.

Besides the finished arrangements in the exhibit, Parks and Recreation horticulturists have prepared diagrams showing step by step procedures. Printed pamphlets on Christmas decorating are also available free. There's still another bonus: Floriculturists will be there to answer questions and give advice.

This exhibit becomes more popular each year. Last year it was visited by 21,000 persons, some of whom went primarily to see how the historic old house, (built in 1873), gets dressed up for the holidays.

Today's happy thought: The bath tub was invented in 1850, the telephone, in 1875. Thus, if you were around then, you could have sat in a tub for 25 years, without the phone ringing, once.

Violinist Stars With Symphony

Violinist Mischa Mischakoff will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock Friday, November 27, and Saturday, November 28 at Ford Auditorium. Valter Poole will conduct.

Mischakoff, who is concertmaster of the Orchestra, will perform Tchaikovsky's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major. The orchestral portions of the program include Haydn's Symphony No. 88 and Debussy's "La Mer."

This concert will be the last on the regular series until December 17, when duopians Whittemore and Lowe will be soloists in a performance of Poulenc's Concerto for Two Pianos and Orchestra, and Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals."

The new Cabaret "Pops" Concerts begin December 1 and continue through December 12. Louis Lane will conduct the Orchestra in this series of informal concerts to be given at the Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road. There will be Gershwin, Viennese, Tchaikovsky and Rodgers and Hammerstein music. Light snacks and beverages will be served at all Cabaret Concerts.

For tickets or information write The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Ford Auditorium, Detroit 48226, or call 962-4615.

Center Plans College Dance

All of Grosse Pointe's collegians and their guests are invited to attend a special college dance in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom Saturday evening, November 28, at 9 o'clock.

The theme of this Thanksgiving week-end party is "Massachusetts Monkey". In addition to the straight dance music provided by Roston Clark's band, several times during the evening the floor will be turned over for couples to do the monkey to the fugitive music on record.

Though due to limitations of staff and volunteers the Center was able to mail invitations only to the most recent graduating classes of Grosse Pointe High School, it is emphasized that the party is for all collegians — upper as well as lower classmen.

Admission is $1 per person including refreshments which will be served at candlelit tables around the dance floor. Dress will be regular college Saturday night date clothes. The party will last until midnight.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

Circle Day for the women of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is Tuesday, December 1, with the following hostesses opening their homes: 1. Mrs. Bertram deH. Atwood, of Beverly place; 2. Mrs. Arthur Hirt, of Lochmoor boulevard; 3. Mrs. Howard Smith, of Provencal road.

More are: 4. Mrs. Thatcher W. Rea, of Harcourt road; 5. Mrs. Bertram deH. Atwood, of Beverly place; 6. Mrs. Forest F. Brammer, of Devonshire road; 7. Mrs. Earl Quick, of South Renaud road; 8. Mrs. Glenn Fortinberry, of Merriweather road.

Still more are: 9. Mrs. Frank Sladen, of Buckingham road; 10. Mrs. Edna S. Fisher, of Holiday road; 11. Miss Pearl Hooper, of Kenmore, Harper Woods; 12. Mrs. Robert Maynard, of Bedford road.

Civilization adds to our comforts, but reduces our liberties.

Engaged

At a gathering of family friends in their home Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce Lister, of Loraine road, announced the engagement of their daughter, CYNTHIA JANE, to Walter Edward Krause, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edward Krause, of Granville, O.

Cynthia received her Bachelor's degree and Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan, where she affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. For the past three years, she has served as Assistant Dean of Women at Denison University.

She recently returned from Turkey, where she worked in a project of community development with the American Friends Service Committee.

Mr. Krause is a graduate of Kishkinnat Springs School and Denison University, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi. He served two years in the United States Naval Air Corps, and is currently associated in business with his father, in Newark, O.

The couple plans a February wedding.

As a general rule most any man is unreliable when talking about his side of the case.

Plan Concerts For 7 Colleges

The first of the "Cabaret Concerts," featuring the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in "informal" performance at Detroit's Light Guard Armory, is scheduled next Tuesday evening, December 1.

The all-Gershwin Opening Night will be a benefit performance for the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges.

Pointers who have already bought their patron tickets include Mrs. Oscar Buhr, Mrs. George T. Hall, Mrs. Jane D. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Cister, Mrs. Henry Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Crow and Mrs. William A. Evans, Jr.

More are Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli, Miss Hilary Whittaker, Dr. and Mrs. Laurie C. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Q. Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fennessey, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ford, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Posselius and Mrs. Stanford N. Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Ferry, the William C. Fords, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. B. Courtney Rankin and Mrs. Rankin's mother, Mrs. Richard M. McKean, the Charles B. Goreys, John M. S. Hutchinsons, H. James Grams, U. George Krapfels and M. Whitney McCutcheons are still more.

The Cabaret Concert Series is being presented for the first time in the Detroit area. At a Cabaret Concert, the audience is seated at tables, snacks and refreshments are available during the performance, and the music is "light," but "good." Tickets may be purchased the night of the concert at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 East Eight Mile road.

Princeton Club Plans Triangle Show Visit

Famous 'Chorus Girls' to Kick Again in Club's 76th Production; One - Night Stand Scheduled December 29 at Masonic Temple

The Princeton University Triangle Club will present its 76th annual production, "Grape Expectations," on Tuesday, December 29 at the Scottish Rite Auditorium of the Masonic Temple in Detroit.

The Princeton Club of Michigan is sponsoring the performance.

Club members at work preparing for the event include

Pointers Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., Ronald N. Friedrich, John B. Watkins, Howard H. Robinson, Jr., James B. Blackburn, Jr., G. W. Duffield and Joseph L. Fromm.

Combining the finest campus talent with the best in fresh collegiate humor, this year's hilarious musical comedy tracks the winery antics of the monks of St. Bede-in-the-Weeds from their quiet retreat to the World's Fair and beyond.

Monks, gangsters and women of ill-repute sing, dance and otherwise delight with their mad antics and convulsive capers.

Featuring eleven new songs, numerous new dances, a multitude of new jokes and Triangle's fabulous "male" kick-line, this year's production promises to be one of the funniest in Triangle's history.

The Club dates back to 1893 when Booth Tarkington molded a group of dissident campus comedians into what is now the nationally touring college musical company.

Its two remaining rivals, Hasty Pudding of Harvard College and Mask and Wig of the University of Pennsylvania, have had to drastically cut their tours and productions because of financial difficulties, but Triangle, with one successful production after another, is steadily increasing in both size and scope.

In the last few years the club has traveled as far west as California, last year spending Christmas Eve in New Orleans.

Triangle has traveled to Europe under the sponsorship of the U.S. State Department and was recently awarded the special Department of Defense Certificate of Esteem for Patriotic Service.

The list of Triangle luminaries is long and illustrious: F. Scott Fitzgerald, Jose Ferrer, Joshua Logan, James Stewart and Nick Foran are just a few. Such song classics as "Love on a Dime" and "East of the Sun, West of the Moon" are prime examples of the excellent musical talent that the Club has produced.

"Grape Expectations" promises to provide a delightful evening's entertainment. For ticket information, call or write: Grinnell Ticket Office, 1515 Woodward, WO 2-1124

Bavarian Dezember-Fest

Nobody loves a party more than the Circumnavigators, those well-traveled gentlemen whose slide collections include views of Angkor Wat and the New Guinea coast—and nobody GIVES a party better than the Circumnavigators.

Currently, the globe-girdlers are out to out-shine Munich's Oktober-Fest with their own Dezember-Fest, a blend of Tyrolean music, hors d'oeuvres and dinner, Liebfraumilch, Lowenbrau and good fellowship, beginning at 6:30 o'clock Friday, December 4, at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Special celebrations are in store for the new members who will receive their membership scrolls during the evening. Circumnavigators Ben W. Beyer, Dr. John R. Birch, Edmund M. Brady, George B. Finch, Alfred J. Hawkins, Dr. C. Richards Henry, Andrew J. Kirchner, Robert B. Lacey, John O. Peters, Henry D. Schubert, Paul B. Brown and Edward S. Wellock.

Among Pointers who have already made reservations for the black tie party are Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Baze with their guests, the William McKinseys; Mr. and Mrs. George N. Carleton with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marks; and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cossaboom.

The J. Leslie Berrys, having bid good-bye to houseguest Mrs. J. Bertram Bell, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who leaves for home after Thanksgiving (Mrs. Bell, incidentally, thoroughly enjoyed Fine Arts' performance of "The Best Man," produced by her host and hostess), will be there with their guests, Colonel and Mrs. William L. Drennen and Mrs. George M. Slocum.

This is the Berrys' last BIG party in the North until next year; they leave almost immediately after the Dezember-Fest for their winter home in Florida.

Still more Pointers planning to gather at the "Fest," to hear an address by Circumnavigational president Ernest S. Oberdorf and Circumnavigational George F. Pierrot's report on "Cannibals of New Guinea," are Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Ewing and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Luke Hoffman; Mr. and Mrs. James T. Fitzpatrick; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Kirk; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Hoelzle and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bulkley; Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Meyer; and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce E. Wright and their guests, Al Harley and Mrs. Fred Hughes.

President's Ball

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club members will honor their newly elected president, Ivan C. Dunlap, at the Club's President's Ball this Saturday evening.

Party theme this year is a Carousel: carousel horses will decorate the walls and stand in front of the main fireplace; miniature carousels, adorned with red and white carnations, will center each table; a complete carousel will hang over the fireplace.

More red accent is to be provided by members with hunting colors, who will be in their scarlet full dress.

Other new officers to be honored are vice president Troy W. Maschmeyer, secretary Kenneth F. Kahn and treasurer Edwin N. Peabody. Arranging the gala formal affair are Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Werthmann, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fruehauf, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tantlinger and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henkel, Jr.

Junior League Plans 50th Anniversary Ball

Mrs. Alger Shelden and Mrs. Joseph Sherer, Jr., Head Party Committee; Mrs. Edsel B. Ford is Honorary Patroness Chairman

Plans for the Junior League of Detroit's Fiftieth Ball are nearly completed and the invitations have been sent. The Ball will be held on Friday evening, December 11, at the Country Club of Detroit, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The occasion commemorates 50 years of hard work and warm associations through volunteer service. The orchestra of Woody Herman and Jack Qualey will provide an evening of continuous dancing with additional surprise entertainment during the evening. Decorations will be elegantly golden. At 12 o'clock guests will be seated for supper.

Mrs. Alger Shelden and Mrs. Joseph Sherer, Jr., head the

To Do Classic For Children

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will present "Cinderella," its first children's classic of the eleventh season, on Saturday, December 12.

As their contribution to the holiday season, the Theater players, under the direction of Mrs. Syd Reynolds, are putting the finishing touches on the musical version of this traditional fairy tale, adapted for the stage by Frances Homer.

The play, wrapped up in bright colored tunes and a generous amount of humor and fantasy, will be performed at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the William Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore.

The role of Cinderella is shared by Gina DePalma and Sally Semmler. Doug Dover and Nino Perensowicz play the Prince.

Dennis Wickerline will be the King, while Sue Petz and Irene Kearney share the role of the Queen. The Fairy Godmother will be played by Kathy Crossen and Aline Saverino.

The Stepsisters will be played by Molly Maynard and Penny Masouris at the first performance, and by Julie Mazer and Janet Crossen at the second.

As the magical cat, is played by Camille Borowicz and Rick Ruben, and Biff, the court jester, by Rick Chamberlain and Marilyn Gold.

Pam Wartian and Maryann Wightman will be seen as the Princess in Gold, while Paul Keenan handles the role of Mr. Chancellor.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Justice is musical director.

Tickets, 50 cents for students and $1 for adults, may be purchased at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, at the Punch and Judy Toyland and, immediately before the performance at Fries Auditorium—if there are seats still available.

Wilson-Prince Vows Spoken

At a 12:30 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Saturday, Mrs. J. Prince, of Brys drive, and Allan Rea Wilson, of Vernier road, exchanged marriage vows.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Prince wore an ice blue, street length sheath of silk brocade.

Barbara Prince was her mother's attendant and Allan R. Wilson, Jr., served as his father's best man.

Parliamentary Law Club To Gather December 2

The Detroit Parliamentary Club will meet at the Federation of Women's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit in Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Wednesday, December 2. Mrs. Florence E. Pierce will speak on "Motion to Refer, and Committee Reports."

Mrs. Pierce is currently serving as Parliamentarian for the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs, Southeastern District of the Michigan State Federation, and the Detroit Council of PTAs.

Think before you speak and you'll have time to listen.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Slocum, of Littlestone road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, SUELEEN to Bruce Melvin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Smith, of Grand Rapids.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and Western Michigan University, where she affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon sorority.

A June 28 wedding is planned, at Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, to be followed by a reception at the Detroit Boat Club.

Young People's Concerts Begin

There are single tickets available for the Young People's Concert Series of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The first of four concerts was given last Saturday, at Ford Auditorium.

Single admission prices are $2.50, $1.50 and $1. Season tickets are also still available at the Symphony Box Office in Ford Auditorium.

The December 19 concert will feature the Detroit Ballet Theatre in a performance of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite." The February 13 concert will feature the After Dinner Opera Company in a performance of Offenbach's comic opera, "66"; and the March 27 concert will feature cartoonist Stuart Hample, who will creatively illustrate on stage Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals."

Time may be money, but it's seldom an even trade.

TB and Health Women Elect

Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr., of Birmingham, is the new president of the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society.

The TB and Health Society is Wayne County's Christmas Seal agency.

Mrs. Richardson recently served as chairman for the fabulous 13th annual Cinderella Ball. She was elected president of the Women's Committee at the annual meeting of the group during a "brunch" at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on November 16.

Mrs. Richardson succeeds Mrs. Arthur R. Pfannenschmidt who served as president of the Women's Committee for two years.

The newly-elected president, like Mrs. Pfannenschmidt, is an industrious person.

Besides being a charming wife and a doting mother, she has participated in Girl Scout activities, United Foundation, served as program chairman for the Carousell Ball, is active in the Women's Republican Committee, the Community House in Birmingham and is active in church affairs.

During World War II she was a lieutenant in the Navy Nurse's Corps, serving for 14 months on the first hospital ship that was in the South Pacific. Later, she served with the first group in the South Pacific for the Guadalcanal invasion. She later served stateside as the chief nurse in San Francisco for the duration of her Navy career, attaining the rank of Lieut. Commander.

Others elected were Mrs. Jesse P. Judd of Birmingham, executive vice president; Mrs. Sidney E. Chapin of Dearborn, Mrs. John L. Denman of Birmingham, and Mrs. Troy Maschmeyer of Grosse Pointe, vice presidents; Mrs. Fred B. Hillger of Grosse Pointe, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph P. Kaiser of Grosse Pointe, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph P. Paulus of Birmingham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. N. J. Rakas of Birmingham, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joseph E. Risdon of Bloomfield Hills, treasurer; and Mrs. Bert Cremers of Grosse Pointe, assistant treasurer.

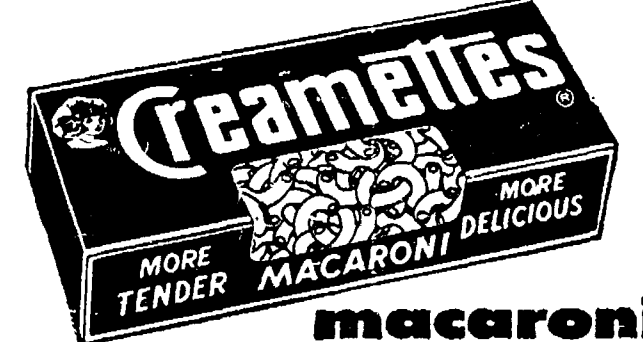

Elected to the Executive Committee were Mrs. Sidney J. Allen, Detroit; Mrs. Louis C. Blumberg, Detroit; Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf, Birmingham; Mrs. Herbert W. Hart, Detroit; Mrs. William E. Johnston, Detroit; Mrs. Julian McIntosh, Detroit; Mrs. Troy W. Maschmeyer, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Oscar L. Olson, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Arthur R. Pfannenschmidt, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Jules R. Schubot, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Jack Tompkins, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Carl A. Zimmer, Grosse Pointe Shores, and Mrs. Arthur Wrock, Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Hart was chairman of the nominating committee. Other members were Mrs. William F. Drevant, Detroit; Mrs. John L. Denman, Birmingham; Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. Judd.

Whenever you find a man who thinks he's smarter than his wife—you're sure of one thing—he has a mighty smart wife.

Fete Judith Hassel Before Her Wedding

Candlelight Ceremony in St. Columba Episcopal Church, Detroit, this Saturday, to Climax Whirl of Parties for Bride-Elect

Parties for bride-elect Judith Hassel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hassel, of Roland road, who will speak her marriage vows to Charles Cordell Mathews this Saturday, began October 3, when Mrs. Clarence Carroll, of Roland road, entertained at a miscellaneous shower.

The guests invited were the same ladies who attended a baby shower given by Mrs. Carroll for Miss Hassel's mother 25 years ago.

Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, of Lakecrest lane, and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Zuehlke, of Ann Arbor, entertained at a mother-daughter party October 15.

The occasion was a linen shower and late supper, and the guests were friends of the bride who had been together since the beginning of their junior high school days, and their mothers.

Mrs. Edson Don Merry, grandmother of the bride-elect, entertained long-time family friends and relatives of the bridal pair at a tea in her Wilshire drive home October 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noel Kendall, of Grand Blanc, Mich., gave a hootenanny party, honoring the bridal couple, at their home October 31. Guests brought bar and barbecue accessories for the prospective bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Kendall is Miss Hassel's godmother.

Kitchen shower hostess, November 6, was Mrs. Martin Hutchinson, of Warren.

Tomorrow afternoon, Ann Ware will give the bridesmaids' luncheon at her Touraine road home. Tomorrow evening, the bridegroom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mathews, of Cleveland Heights, O., will give the Rehearsal Dinner at Huck's Lakeshore.

The day of the wedding, a candlelight ceremony in St. Columba Episcopal Church, Detroit, Mrs. Peter J. Smith, of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Charles Elbridge, III, of Ann Arbor, will be co-hostesses at an early supper for the bridal party.

Setting a good example is merely a sermon without words.

Review Club Has Birthday

Grosse Pointe members will play an active part in the birthday celebration of the Detroit Review Club at a 73rd birthday meeting at the Women's City Club Monday, November 30.

Mrs. Marvin C. Dahne, of Roslyn road, DRC president, will act as official hostess at a tea following the program, when the club will honor four women who have belonged to Detroit Review over 50 years.

Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, of Lorraine road, past president, will introduce the club's "Golden Ladies." Mrs. George Seabold, who joined in 1907; Mrs. Paul Goodlove, who joined in 1912, as did Mrs. Fred Rollins, and Mrs. Herbert Murray, who joined in 1914; and then will present Paul Williams of WWJ-TV who will pay tribute to the social, civic, cultural and philanthropic contributions the DRC members have made to Detroit since 1891.

Mrs. Robert Kales, of Cloverly road, second vice president, has been asked to assist at the tea, and Mrs. Harold Knoff, of Barrington road, and Mrs. Harold Kahl, of Hampton road, will have charge of the tea table.

Other Grosse Pointe members, many of whom have belonged for many years, include: Mrs. Raymond Berry, Mrs. Charles F. Brundie, Mrs. William Bunde, Mrs. Henry Burkhardt, Mrs. Louis Clarke, Mrs. Louis Charvat, Mrs. Beulah Crockett, Mrs. L. W. Forrester, Mrs. Herbert Hawthorne, Mrs. Lewis King, Mrs. William O'Neill, Mrs. William Lehmann, Mrs. W. H. Meredith, Mrs. William Nixon, Mrs. William Oddy and Mrs. Theodore Trefzer.

More are Mrs. Samuel Pence, Mrs. Frank Scott, Perkins, Mrs. Herbert Ralph, Mrs. W. Richard Ralph, Mrs. Ernest Ray, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Lyle Ritchie, Mrs. George Roumel, Mrs. Karl Schwartz, Mrs. Richard Stebbins, Mrs. C. William Sullivan, Mrs. Earl Walke, Mrs. Rudolph Water, Mrs. John Willison, Mrs. G. F. Goodson and Mrs. R. B. Koehler.

Woods Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club will meet December 1 at 11:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edgar Netherton in North Duval road. Mrs. Albert Beever will be co-hostess for the meeting and Christmas party.

The club will also hold a workshop on December 2 from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Beaufort road home of Mrs. John McCaughey. Members will make Christmas decorations for Receiving Hospital.

CATHY DEVLIN, daughter of DR. and MRS. H. B. DEVLIN, of Kensington road, is rapidly attaining her goal of becoming a professional model. Fifteen-year-old Cathy has appeared on television about seven times since last spring, recently finished a two-day hair show at the Sheraton-Cadillac, has appeared in two parades and was a semi-finalist in the Miss Teenage Detroit Contest this fall.

JULIE ALLARDYCE, daughter of MR. and MRS. GEORGE ALLARDYCE, of Roslyn road, has been named to the Hillsdale College Dean's list under "B or Better Students."

NORBERT A. OLZMANN, of Van Antwerp road, was initiated Sunday afternoon into membership in Tau Beta Pi, all-engineering honorary fraternity, at Purdue University.

BEVERLY ULBRICH has been named to the Hillsdale College Dean's List under "B or Better Students." She is the daughter of MR. and MRS. ROY ULBRICH, of Torrey road.

MR. and MRS. LLOYD D. EVANS, of University place, entertained friends and relatives at a dinner party yesterday, celebrating their 31st wedding anniversary.

Recently elected treasurer of the Albion College Parents' Association was MRS. PHILIP H. DAWSON, of Touraine road.

L. W. HAWKINS FERRY hosted a dinner party in his Moorland drive home Sunday, honoring New York artists Allen Caprow and Robert Motherwell, Guggenheim Museum curator Lawrence Alloway, critic Clement Greenberg, and Robert Rosenblum, professor of Art History at Princeton University.

SGT. and MRS. RICHARD E. SEYMOUR announce the birth of a daughter, SHELLY MARIE, on Saturday, November 7. Mrs. Seymour is the former SANDRA M. BEHRENS and the paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. AUGUST A. BEHRENS, of Allard road.

Mrs. Behrens, accompanied by Shelly Marie and her other two daughters, CHERYL ANN and CYNTHIA LYNN, will leave December 7 to join her husband stationed on Homestead Air Force Base near Miami, Florida.

JEFF BRODERICK, a Wayne State University sophomore, was recently named chairman of Greek Week to be held on Wayne's Campus, May 3 through May 8. Greek Week is an annual event on most college campuses, serving to introduce the fraternity and sorority system to the college students. Besides being an active member of the Delta Chi fraternity, Jeff also serves on the Sophomore Board.

JAMES R. LYLE, son of MR. and MRS. HARRY J. LYLE, of Kenmore drive, is pledging Epsilon Omicron Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity at Western Michigan University. A freshman at WMU, James is majoring in Business Management. He is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

A message of importance for men and women who are concerned about their health.

If you're over 40
... Let's face facts

Kidney-Bladder ailments strike far more often

Now is the time to do something about it!

After 40, you're reaching the age when you're more susceptible to the illnesses common to middle age. Among the most distressing are kidney-bladder disorders. If you've ever suffered them, you know the pain and embarrassment involved.

To help relieve kidney-bladder conditions, many doctors suggest drinking 6-8 glasses daily of spring-pure Mountain Valley Water. That's because its "diuretic" (kidney-flushing) effect steps up kidney action, helps you eliminate body wastes faster. Mildly alkaline, it gently soothes bladder irritation, at the same time helps neutralize excess uric acids (thus reduces that "burning" sensation). What's more, refreshing Mountain Valley Water is "light," non-filling, non-laxative. Regular daily use can make a positive contribution to your health. Costs only pennies a glass ... actually less than a soft drink. And tastes wonderful!

Phone or write today for refreshing Mountain Valley Water. Ask for complimentary literature. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money refunded.

DYC To Hold Hunters Party

The Detroit Yacht Club's annual Hunters' Jamboree will be held on Tuesday evening, December 1. This dinner-dance always has been very popular, for in addition to the natural attraction of the hunting season, the club chef provides what is one of the area's most tempting wild game dinners.

Red checkered tablecloths cover all tables, and waitresses return again and again with the serving plates filled with innumerable specialties of the season, including boar, venison, Canadian hare and hasenpfeffer.

The club's newly appointed entertainment chairman, Warren Lapham, and his committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mathieson, Mr. and Mrs. James Millar, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Van Norman will transform the grill and adjoining rooms into a hunting lodge setting.

Phil Girard and his Buckskin Musicians will be dressed in hunters' garb and will provide gay dance music for the evening.

The new DYC officers, directors, and their wives will be at the party as a group. Commodore and Mrs. Wilfred D. Gmeiner, Vice-Commodore and Mrs. George W. Levette, and Rear-Commodore and Mrs. Duncan James will all be present for the fun-packed evening. Also present will be Past-Commodore and Mrs. John H. Carter, and Past-Commodore and Mrs. Edward H. Zerbe.

The true measure of a man is not by what he does, but by what he gives to others.

Experience is a form of compulsory education.

Dominican Mothers Meeting December 2

The Mothers Club of Dominican High School will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday, December 2, in the School Cafeteria at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Stanley Prokop, president, will chair the meeting. Immediately after, this club will join the Fathers' Club in the Auditorium for a Christmas Concert by the Sophomore-Freshmen Choral Group under the direction of Sister Magdalena, O. P.

This program, highlighted by a candlelight procession and some pantomimed songs, was designed to fill hearts with the real meaning of Christmas.

Mrs. Mathew Millenbach, sophomore vice-president, and her committee will be our hostesses for this occasion.

Some men never deceive themselves more than when they think they are deceiving others.

Experience is costly, but it's worth little on the market.

Washer Way To New Color

Singing tones of brilliant Mediterranean color are growing favorites for home decorations. If one of these clear, bright hues in a new chair, rug, or other addition to your home is making your pastel draperies, slip cover, or bedspread look drab, you can change the picture quickly. Take the easy washer way to new color that will put a vivid glow on the older fabric.

Your automatic washer is the key to perfect dyeing. Whatever you launder in the washer, you can tint or dye at home the same way. Today's improved coloring products have improved power to give clearer, more lasting colors. Your washer does away with the need for tiresome stirring, too. It distributes new color evenly, with no danger of streaky patches, as the article moves steadily through the dye bath.

Here are tips from the American Home Laundry Manufacturers' Association on using the washing machine to give new color to anything washable. Before washing, measure the item you want to brighten and jot down measurements. A little gentle reshaping may be necessary after coloring. Next, weigh the dry article so you can get enough dye by checking package directions when you buy. Then wash, but don't dry your candidate for new color. It should be damp when going into the dye bath.

Fill the washing machine with very hot water, unless package directions call for a lower temperature to tint delicate fabrics. Check the instructions on how to dissolve the powdered dye correctly. You can run the machine briefly to be sure dye is thoroughly mixed through the water, then turn it off before you carefully add the unfolded damp article to be dyed. Keep the water agitating until the desired shade of color is achieved.

The constant steady swishing action in the machine will deposit and color evenly and deeply through the fabric. Follow with a cool rinse, or rinses, until the water runs clear. Dyed articles should dry in the automatic dryer, where possible. If they're hung to dry, be sure they are in the shade. Never dry them in the sun.

One final tip — clean your washer thoroughly after using it to color fabrics. Add ¼ cup bleach to a full load of hot water and detergent, and run through the complete wash-rinse cycle. Remove lint from both washer and dryer, and wipe out dryer drum with a damp cloth.

If we could all see ourselves as others see us what a crowd of pessimists we would be.

Auxiliary Slates Christmas Fair

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary is sponsoring a Christmas Fair, at the hospital auditorium in East Grand boulevard, on Friday, December 4, from 8 in the morning until 8 in the evening.

Proceeds will benefit the hospital's Physiotherapy Department.

Fair chairman is Mrs. Harold Donnelly, of Lincoln road, assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. H. F. Weitenberger, of Brys drive, and Mrs. John McCullough, of Lincoln road.

Nurse Alumnae To Meet Dec. 7

The Alumnae Association of the Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing holds its monthly meeting on Monday, December 7, at 8 o'clock, in the Clara Ford Nurses Home of the Henry Ford Hospital.

A 'Country Store' sale will be held before and after the meeting. Dr. James T. Howell, Assistant Administrator of Henry Ford Hospital, will address the group.

Dr. Howell served on the recent President's Committee for Better Nursing Legislation. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Concert Slated By Music Study Club

Three world celebrities, Detroit born and educated, return Sunday evening, November 29, to join their respective talents with those of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in the 40th Anniversary Concert of the Music Study Club, at Ford Auditorium.

Seymour Lipkin will direct the Orchestra. Joseph Silverstein, violinist, and Ruth Heckler-Laredo, pianist, will be the soloists.

Miss Heckler-Laredo is the niece of Mrs. W. K. Usher, of Balfour road, one of the Concert sponsors.

An internationally acclaimed pianist who has just been given a three-year contract for professional appearances across the Continent by the Edgar M. Leventritt Foundation of New York, Ruth Heckler-Laredo is also scheduled to appear in recital with Eileen Farrell and John Gielgud for the 112 United Nations representatives December 12.

The Music Study Club, this year, is sponsoring 10 special scholarships, in piano, violin and voice. All proceeds from the Anniversary Concert are designed for the scholarship fund.

Tickets range in price from $25. (sponsors), to $1, (qualified students). Patron tickets are $10, and general admission is $2.50.

Tickets are on sale at Grinnell's, Ford Auditorium, and Marwil Book Store, Northland.

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for instance. The greatest tiger of them all. Even real tigers cower when this baby speaks. It loads 335 horses under that hood. Plus bucket seats. Carpeting. Real walnut dash. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. And of course the GTO's optional 360-hp engine puts it so far out in front of the pack that it gets kind of lonesome. Then there's the Le Mans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Only with slightly smaller teeth. But don't worry. It can still handle the pussycats. If you haven't priced a tiger lately, you'd better. Now.

Morning Musicales Present Second Artist

Pianist Seymour Lipkin will be featured at the second of the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales, next Thursday, December 3, at 11 o'clock, at the Country Club of Detroit.

Mr. Lipkin, a former child prodigy who began playing the piano at the age of three and who appeared in his first concert when he was four years old, is a native Detroit.

He recently made the grand tour of Europe and the Near East.

East with the New York assistant conductor to Leonard Bernstein.

His first appearance at the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales was November 3, 1949, when he and his sister Eleanor appeared as duo-pianists. He returns to the series by popular

The Musicales, begun during World War II, are an invitational series of three concerts. Among those who plan to be present for the second of this year's series are Musicales directors Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Mrs. Ward A. Detwiler, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough and Mrs. Frank Goldie.

More are Mrs. Richard E. Williams, Mrs. Burt Eddy Taylor, Mrs. Richard K. Smonds, Miss Christine Symington, Mrs. Allan Shelden, Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr., Miss Margaret Mannebach, Mrs. James A. Lafer and Mrs. V. Everett Kinney.

Families Gather At DAC Today

With so many young people made plans from schools, the Thanksgiving holidays are always joyfully anticipated. And "turkey" day is more fun again this year with the chores of preparation and cooking, itself, delegated to others—even outside the home.

More and more families have made plans to gather at favorite clubs. And the Detroit Athletic Club has come in for a fair share of family gatherings—enough, in fact, to keep the festive boards groaning all during the afternoon and early evening hours.

Among the Grosse Pointe families who have reservations at the DAC this Thanksgiving Day are F. W. Parker, Jr., Dr. E. A. Sharp, John E. Hearst, Sidney S. Hall, Mrs. William A. Evans, G. R. Cook, Paul C. Munkholm, George D. Gray and R. K. Degener.

Others include Robert E. Muligan, Jr., Leo J. Kay and E. Richard Holtz.

Psychologist At Town Hall

Dr. Murray Banks, Detroit Town Hall's guest speaker Wednesday, December 2, in the lecture-entertainment series' final program before the Christmas holidays.

The talk, "How to Live with Yourself," will be at 11 a.m. in Fisher Theater, followed by luncheon at the Rathskeller. Dr. Banks' wonderful sense of humor is detected in some of his best-selling books "Things My Mother Told Me," "How to Overcome an Inferiority Complex," and "What to Do Until the Psychiatrist Comes."

Before hitting the lecture trail Dr. Banks headed the psychology department at Pace College in New York.

St. John Ladies Prepare Tea, Fair

The monthly meeting of the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital is scheduled Wednesday, December 2, at 1:30 o'clock. This will be followed by the Annual Christmas Tea for all members, Gray Ladies and volunteers.

Tea hours are 2 until 4 o'clock. Entertainment will be provided by Miss Patricia Canfield and her group of carolers.

"La Petite Fair," Fontbonne Auxiliary's traditional holiday bazaar, will be held Friday, December 4, from 9 until 4 o'clock, on the ground floor of the hospital.

Everyone is invited to browse and buy. For-sale items include home-baked goods, candy, aprons, fancy work, Christmas decorations and many, many more stocking stuffers.

Spirit No. 20 Auxiliary Elects Officers for 1965

At a recent meeting, the Metropolitan Ladies Auxiliary to Spirit No. 20, Grosse Pointe, elected Sarah Mauck president for 1965.

Betty Bazger will serve as vice president, Loraine Johnston as recording secretary, Marge Waldecker as financial secretary, and Patricia Belanger as treasurer.

Three-year auditor is Jacqueline Plumb, two-year auditor is Agnes McEachern. Alice Yaklin will serve as chairman of auditors, Martha Dansbury as Sergeant at Arms, Audrey Beatty as chaplain.

Members of the Metropolitan Ladies Auxiliary to Spirit No. 20 are wives of policemen, firemen and Federal employees in The Pointe.

The organization's first meeting for '65 is scheduled January 11, at the Metropolitan Club, Warren and Lodewyk.

AAUW Group Plans Visit

The Studio Arts, (Ceramics), group of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women will visit the Detroit Artists Market next Tuesday, December 1, at 10 o'clock, to see the current exhibit and the Christmas Gift display.

The group will have luncheon at the Women's City Club. Members and their guests, and prospective members are invited to participate in the Artists Market visit.

A number of new members have recently joined AAUW. They are Mrs. Joseph H. Gregory, Mrs. Marshall Collins, Mrs. Donald Ball, Mrs. Clifford V. Ammon, Mrs. Malcolm Stirtion, Miss Eleanor Taylor, Mrs. Richard Dykstra, Mrs. Richard Gallette, Mrs. Thomas G. Hallock and Mrs. Gordon Sorenson.

Membership in AAUW is open to any woman who is a graduate of an accredited college or university. Prospective members are invited to attend any of the group's meetings and may contact Mrs. Urban Boresch, 888-4692.

Madrigal Club Plans Concert

The Madrigal Club of Detroit, August Maelberg, conductor, will sing in Christmas Concert on Tuesday, December 8 at 8:30 p.m. in Community Arts Auditorium, Wayne State University campus. Elizabeth Sladen is accompanist for this 35-voiced women's chorus.

Now celebrating its 50th season of music, the primary objective of the Club is to provide the best in choral music to its audiences. Under the exacting baton of August Maelberg for the past 18 years, and his predecessor, Charles Frederic Moore who organized the chorus in 1915, the objective has been achieved.

A taping of the last concert was used by the University of Michigan as part of Michigan Week observance last spring, and it was also broadcast throughout Europe on July 12 via Euradio from Brussels.

Michigan's First Lady, Mrs. George Romney, has graciously accepted the invitation to be honorary president for this Golden Anniversary season and will be honored at a reception following the concert on December 8.

Grosse Pointe members singing in this concert are Mrs. Joseph Shaheen of Yorkshireroad, Mrs. William Lyons of Whittier road, Miss Mary Anne Ghesquire of Anita, and Mrs. W. A. Bailey, Jr. of Balfour road.

More are Dr. and Mrs. Ezra Lipkin, Miss Angelina DiMartino, Miss Inez McEvoy, Miss Margaret McEvoy, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Nelson, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Sims, Dr. and Mrs. Irving A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Witherspoon, Mrs. Julian Wolfner and Mrs. Albert R. Zanoli.

Pianist To Play For Pro Musica

The opening concert of Pro Musica for this season, scheduled Tuesday, December 1, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will feature Ronald Turini, pianist.

A social hour, in the Romanesque Hall, will follow the concert. Social hour hosts and hostesses include Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frohlich, Mrs. Hixie Boykin Halten and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Karpus.

More are Dr. and Mrs. Ezra Lipkin, Miss Angelina DiMartino, Miss Inez McEvoy, Miss Margaret McEvoy, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Nelson, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Section 5.2A.15 Planned Unit Development. Where more than one residential building or structure is to be erected as part of the Planned Multiple Family Residential Development upon any building site, there shall be a minimum distance of forty feet (40') between such residential buildings or structures.

Section 5.2A.16 Requirements when Adjacent to other Residential Zoning or Use Districts. Those sides of the R-3 District which abut upon other residential zoning or use districts along a common boundary or area and/or side yard and/or rear yard, shall have constructed along such common boundary or area and/or side yard and/or rear yard a solid ornamental brick wall of a minimum height of five feet (5'), and to a greater height, but not to exceed eight feet (8') when authorized by the Council. Any wall constructed as herein provided shall be considered an exception to the requirements of other provisions of this Code and such provisions shall not be deemed applicable to any such wall so constructed hereunder.

Section 5.2A.17 Approval of Planning Commission. No recommendations for approval of an application for the construction of a Planned Multiple Family Residential Development in an R-3 District shall be authorized unless it has been found by the Planning Commission, after a review of the site plan and exterior elevations of the proposed building, and/or buildings, structure and/or structures, that the following conditions have been met:

(a) Exterior architectural elevations of the proposed building and/or buildings, structure and/or structures, shall have been designed so as to not be in variance with the architectural style of any adjacent residential buildings. The Planning Commission, in reviewing exterior elevations, shall be concerned with the following details in establishing similarity with adjacent residential buildings:

1. Height of structure
2. Building material
3. Architectural style
4. Front, side and rear elevations
5. Architectural treatment of off street parking facilities and accessory buildings and/or uses

(b) That the application is accompanied by a complete set of plans and specifications for the construction, together with a plot plan showing the location of all buildings and/or structures with reference to the side, front and rear property lines of the property involved. Such plot plan shall have all measurements deemed necessary and indicated thereon.

(c) A detailed plan for the landscaping of the front, side and rear yards has been filed with the application.

The Planning Commission shall examine the application for the construction of a Planned Multiple Family Residential Development and accompanying documents and, if need be, require alterations and changes therein in order to assure that the use of the property will not be injurious or detrimental to the surrounding neighborhood and that there is compliance with the "City Code of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, 1964".

Section 5.2A.18 Approval by City Council. No building permit for any building and/or buildings, structure and/or structures in an R-3 District shall be authorized unless it has been approved by the City Council, after holding a public hearing on same, as being essential or desirable to the public convenience or welfare; not injurious to the surrounding neighborhood; and not contrary to the spirit and purpose of this Code.

Prior to the approval by the Council, a detailed prospectus containing the methods of financing the project, the provisions of the master deed pertaining to the ownership, operation, control and management of the proposed Planned Multiple Family Residential Development shall be filed with the application.

The filing of a good and sufficient surety bond in an amount to be determined by the Council shall also be filed with the application. Such bond shall guarantee the construction and completion of the project in accordance with the plans, specifications and plot plan, as filed with and approved by the Planning Commission and in accordance with the requirements of the "City Code of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, 1964".

SUMMARY OF MINUTES COUNCIL MEETING
November 16, 1964

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M. Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen William G. Butler, Thomas K. Fisher, William G. Kirby, Ledyard Mitchell, Jr. and Benjamin S. Warren, Jr.

Absent: Councilman Henry E. Bodman, II. Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided. Councilman Henry E. Bodman, II was excused from attending the meeting.

The minutes of the Council meeting of November 2, 1964, were approved with minor corrections.

Plans for the construction of a swimming pool, deck area, bath house and filter equipment at the Pier Park, prepared by Mr. W. B. Edwards, Civil Engineer, were approved by the Council subject to various changes being made in the plans and Mr. Edwards was authorized to proceed with preparing the working drawings and specifications and the taking of bids for the construction.

Approval was given to reduce the subdivision bond deposited with the City to guarantee the installation of the improvements in the Deming Lane Subdivision from $24,000.00 to $10,000.00, which amount is the estimated cost of installing the sidewalks.

Reports of the Police, Fire and Building Departments for the month of October, 1964, were received and ordered filed.

A resolution was adopted approving the report of the Board of Canvassers on the results of the City Election held on November 3, 1964.

The firm of Dickinson, Wright, McKean and Cudlip was employed as Bond Counsel in regard to the issuance of $500,000.00 General Obligation Pier Park Improvement Bonds at a fee not to exceed $1,100.00.

In connection with the issuance of $500,000.00 in Pier Park Improvement Bonds, two resolutions were adopted by the Council, one authorizing the issuance of the bonds, the other approving the form of notice of sale of the bonds. The Mayor and City Clerk were authorized to make application to the Michigan Department of Conservation to purchase, for the City, the lake bottom lands extending northerly of the existing Pier Park approximately 150 ft. in width.

The bid of Riverview Dodge in the amount of $4,212.54, being the low bid for furnishing the City with a truck chassis and cab was accepted.

A resolution was adopted approving the studies and plans for a 600 ton per day incinerator plant taken to date by the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority and declaring the City's intention to enter into a contract for disposal by incineration with the Authority. It was further resolved that the Council does hereby declare that it will approve the necessary amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of the Authority in order that additional member communities may be brought in and that bonds may be issued to finance the incinerator plant.

Approval was given to pay Henry Salvatore the sum of $1,616.80 as payment in full for replacing of part of a sewer on Moross Road.

On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:50 P.M.

Freeman's canopy, found nearly two weeks after the goose caused him to crash Oct. 31 in the T38 trainer while coming in for a landing at Ellington Air Force Base, Houston, Tex. Pieces of the canopy also are shown. Freeman, 34, was the first astronaut killed in training.

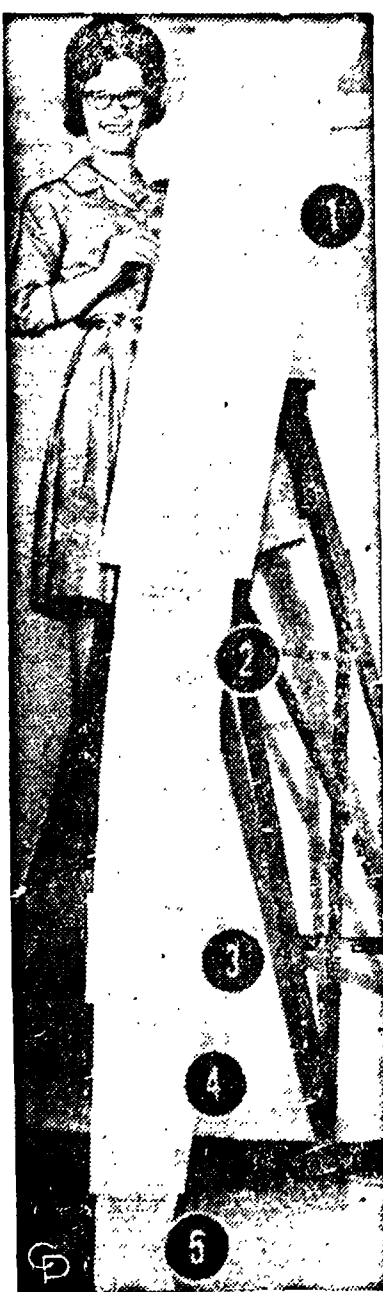

PEACH RAISERS IN A PICKLE—Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Sweeney look worried in their ranch home across the way from the LBJ ranch in Texas as they prepare to go to court to prevent the state from taking their peach raising property for a Lyndon Johnson State Park.

LOST THEIR PLEA—Three North American prelates are shown making a plea to Pope Paul in the Vatican to act against a blocked vote on the issue of religious liberty at the Ecumenical Council.

THAT ROME TRUNK MYSTERY—A policeman in Rome looks into the strange trunk in which a U. A. R. embassy linguist, Morocco native Josef Dahan, 30, was found incarcerated just before it was to be put aboard a plane bound for Cairo. He had been dragged and bound and gagged, but came to and managed to make some noise. Two U. A. R. representatives got the heave-ho out of Italy in the bizarre case.

TOUGH IN ILLINOIS—A lass in Springfield, Ill., shows you what Illinois voters had to contend with—five ballots over seven feet long in all. No. 1 is the at-large ballot, listing 236 candidates for the 177 House seats. No. 2 is the general election ballot. No. 3 is the special constitutional ballot, and No. 4 and No. 5 are bond issue ballots for many communities.

"AT HOME" wear being modeled for fashion editors in Beverly Hills, Calif., includes this striking frock. It's a Mr. Blackwell creation, $200, and he said 127 have been sold.

RED CARPET treatment was given Mr. and Mrs. Leo Poplawski, 8861 Woodbine, Redford Township, as winners of a "man and wife" contest conducted by TV's Bill Kennedy for the premiere of the new La Parisien Theater, Ford Road at Middlebelt. The Poplawskis were taken to the theater in a plush Cadillac, were guests of the Shafer Family, owners of the theater, had dinner at a Dearborn seafood restaurant and then had seats of honor for the premiere performance of "Becket," starring Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole.

CHANGING LUK—They're still interrogating this mystery man, Mordecai Ben Masoud Luk, who was found bound and gagged in a trunk addressed from Rome to U. A. R. Foreign Ministry, Cairo. Rome police found a signet ring (shown) with a secret compartment apparently used to carry microfilm when they searched his room. He is an Israeli defector, has a wife and daughter in Israel.

HAPPY OVER QUADS—Arlin Grenawalt, 24, and wife Diane Marie, 19, look happy over their quadruplets in Portland, Ore. The quads, all girls, ranged in weight from 2 lbs., 5½ oz. to 3 lbs., 2 oz., and were born at two-minute intervals.

A 37-21 victory for Cleveland over Detroit in 1964 was the first regular season victory ever scored by the Browns over the Lions and only the second in eleven games in regular season and playoff action.

Terry Barr, the Detroit Lions top-rated flanker who caught 66 passes for 13 touchdowns in 1963, spent the first 2 1/2 seasons in pro football as a defensive halfback, switching to offense in the middle of the 1959 season.

Devil Tank and Basketball Teams Set to Open Season

By Ric Hendee

A team which will still be fighting it out when Easter vacation rolls around gets its first chance next week. The Grosse Pointe High School Varsity swimmers have been battling the waves for close to a month now in preparation for their first meet. Royal Oak Dondoro is the victim... on December 4 in the Acorn pool.

Grosse Pointe finished off last season with a victory at Dondoro, but the margin was only 10 points. Coach Robert Kinnear expects competition again this Friday. Royal Oak has two exceptional seniors returning: a breaststroker and an individual medley swimmer. And the warm, blurry Acorn pool is always a challenge.

The Dondoro meet is a league contest — Grosse Pointe's first step to regaining the BCL crown which was snatched away by Monroe last winter.

To Meet Ann Arbor

On Saturday, December 5, the Devils will take a slug at Ann Arbor. The Vikings have sunk Grosse Pointe for two straight seasons and, after their loss to the Devils in football, would no doubt like to make it three. But Grosse Pointe isn't going all the way to Ann Arbor just to hand out cake.

As if two opening toughies weren't enough, the worst of all will come three days later, on Tuesday, December 8, against Lincoln Park. This one will open the '65 home season (meet starts at 4 o'clock). Lincoln Park fell to the Devils last season, losing by only one point.

But the Blue Devil tankers aren't behind schedule either. The four weeks of work have out several "hopefuls" into good condition and strengthened some of the veterans. Against Lincoln Park they'll have the advantage of the home pool and last year's victory. So can the tankers do it? See for yourself... here in two weeks at 4 o'clock.

Basketball

On December 4 things will also start bouncing for the High School cagers. Coach Chuck Hollosy puts his 15 boys up against the Royal Oak Dondoro squad in a league home contest. The game will start at 8:15 o'clock as will all Varsity basketball games this winter.

Coach Hollosy has four lettermen back (only two seniors) and his team will be formed largely around the boys from last year's reserve team. The '64 Varsity was new, unorganized. Every BCL squad beat it at least once, Wyandotte twice. But the reserves were hot-stuff, winning their last eight games to clinch the league title.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jeppe, who were held hostage by the seven escapees, are shown after being released unharmed.

ESCAPE HOLE—Warden Bob Rhay displays the hole from which seven convicts escaped from Washington State Prison at Walla Walla. They tunneled about 40 feet to come up just outside that vine-covered wall, then held a man and his wife hostage to make use of their car.

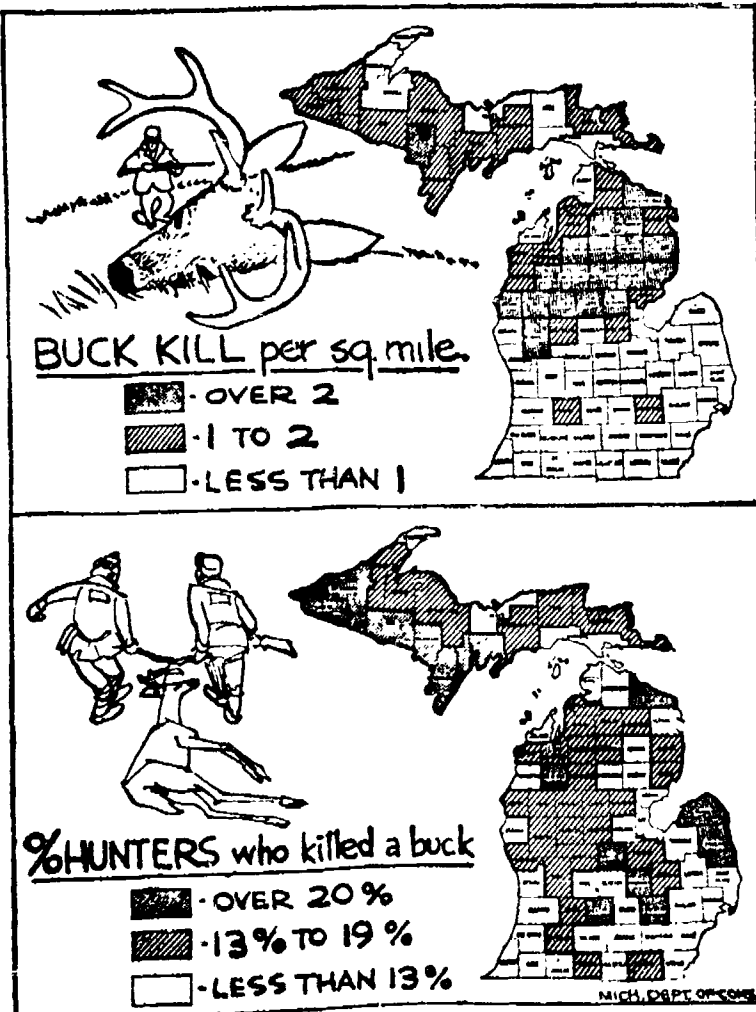

THIS BRONZE bust of assassinated President Kennedy is a new addition to the Cabinet Room in the White House. Later it will be transferred to the Kennedy Memorial Library in Boston.

"CONGO PROBLEMS"—Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin looks in high good humor as he is questioned by reporters in Washington after a talk with Secretary of State Dean Rusk. "We discussed some problems relating to the United Nations and the Congo," said he without saying much.

Buck Hunting Success in 1963

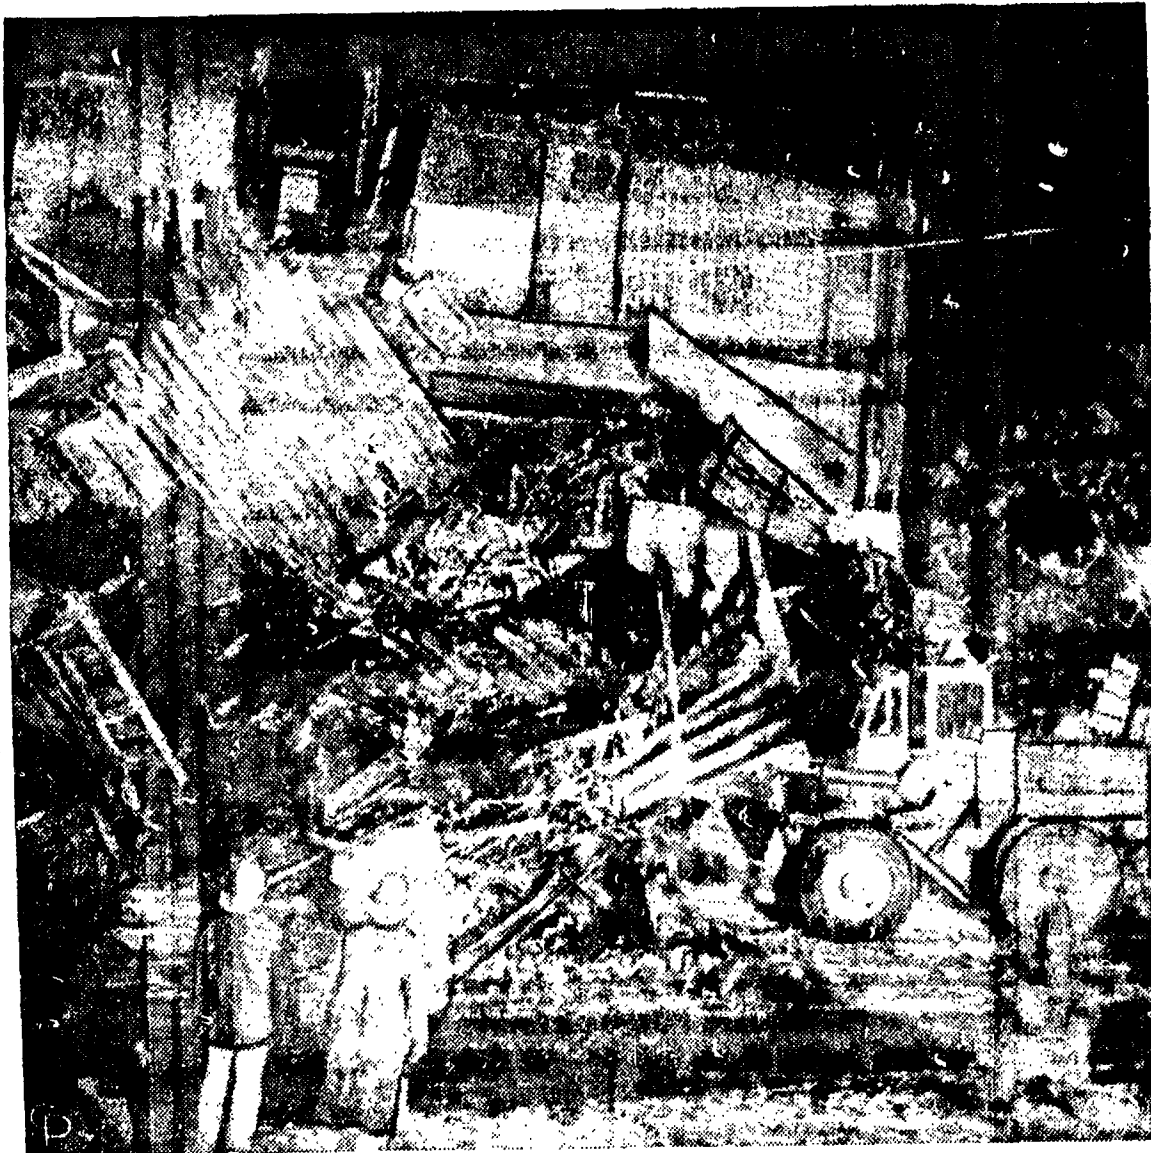

Where was buck hunting best in 1963? The answer to that depends on what you count as best. Individual hunters in the Upper Peninsula were the most successful, but kill per square mile was highest in the northern Lower Peninsula where gun pressure was over three times as great. In the southern third of the state, a few spots measured up to some of the better ones. All told, about one out of every four Michigan hunters got a deer last year. Approximately 10 percent of the 502,000 hunters killed a buck, and nearly 25 percent took at least one fawn.

NEW GOP COUNCIL—Minnesota's former governor, Elmer Andersen, has been named by the newly organized Council of Republican Organizations to present the council's antidrums views to the Republican Governors Conference in Denver, Colo., Dec. 4-5. He has been invited to do so by Gov. Robert Smylie of Idaho, conference chairman. Members of the council, whose aim is rebuilding the party, include Walter S. Mack, who headed the Committee of Republicans and Independents for Johnson, and Charles P. Taft, who headed the Committee to Support Moderate Republicans.

BIG BLOWUP—This rubble is about all that's left of that downtown apartment building in Kansas City, Mo., after an explosion. Firemen think a gas leak was the cause.

STILL OUT—Bankrupt agriculture tycoon Billie Sol Estes is shown at federal court in Dallas, Tex., where he went free under new bond.

Holiday Trimming:

That's Danish Mincemeat Dessert

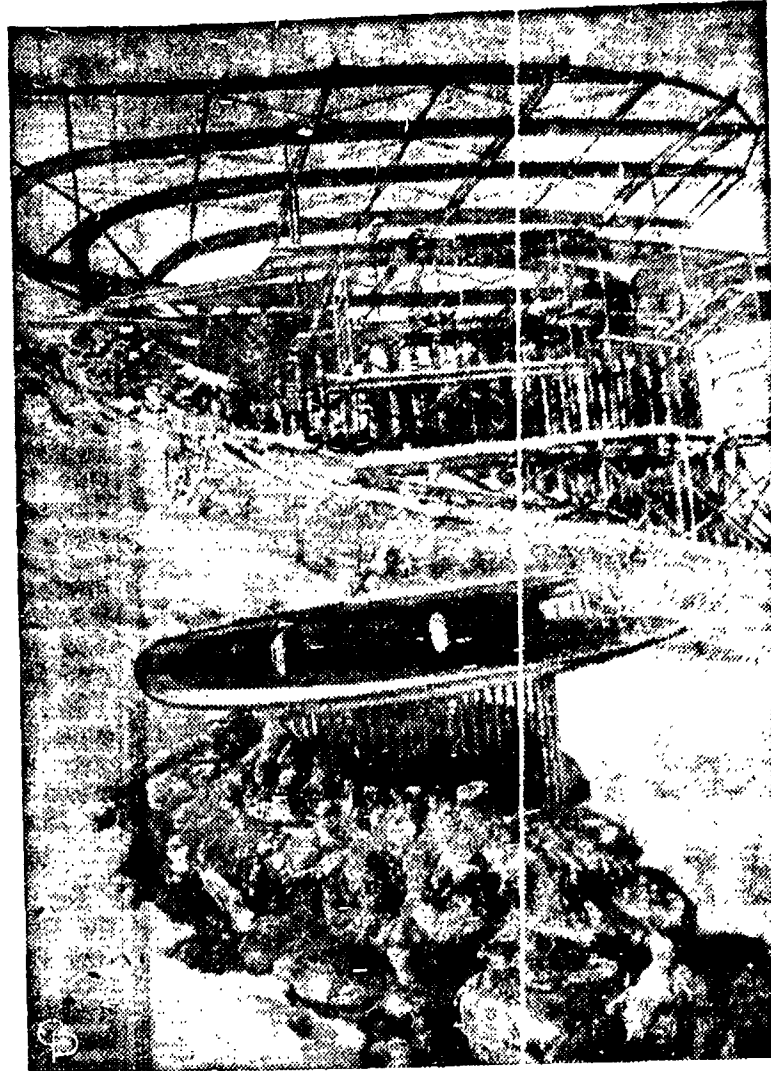

It's home for the holidays, with family and friends gathering together many times during the festive season between Thanksgiving and New Year's. If menu-planning for each gala dinner and impromptu session is in your hands, you are probably on the lookout for interesting new dishes to add to your present traditional family favorites. This new Danish Mincemeat Dessert is one of those desserts that's a boon to busy holiday hostesses, for pretty as it looks, it's easy to put together. Spicy, fruit-filled mincemeat pie filling from a can is spooned into a pie plate, then topped with a crown of rich Danish pastry. This is pastry that needs no flour and rolling pin to prepare, for like the canned pie filling, it's ready for you to bake, made from a roll of refrigerated orange Danish rolls. The perky dollops of Orange Whipped Cream that garnish the dessert, make use of the filling that comes with the package of rolls—simple, but what a flavor combination!

Danish Mincemeat Dessert
1 can (2½ cups) mincemeat filling
1 can refrigerated orange Danish rolls with icing
Spoon pie filling into a 9-inch pie plate. Unwind rolls and loosely twist into a coil starting at the outer edge and leaving the center open. Bake at 400° for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm garnished with Orange Whipped Cream. Serves 6.
Orange Whipped Cream
Whip ¼ cup heavy cream until it forms peaks. Fold in Orange Danish Icing.

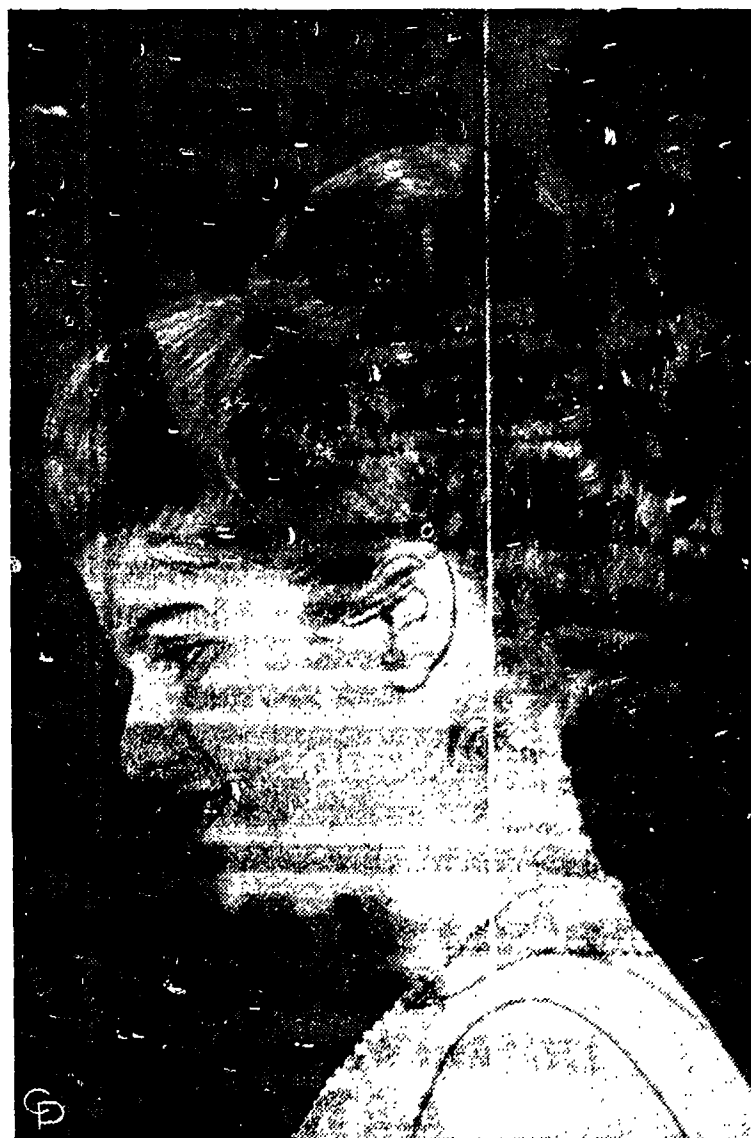

"RETURN COAT"—Word comes from Ottawa, Ont., that William Edwin Winn (above) AWOL from the U.S. Army for five years, wants a pardon from President Johnson so he can return home to Chicago. He was in the Army five months but said he couldn't stand the "bigotry and prejudice" of segregation. Now Winn, 29, has written to the President asking clemency. "There is justice in the American way of life now," he said, "and I believe I can get justice at the hands of the President."

"CLAMSHELL" HOUSE—The superstructure of what is called a "clamshell" house is taking shape in the mountains west of Denver, Colo. A scale model is in foreground. The sculptured house was designed by self-taught architect Charles Deaton for himself and his family.

RED CARPET treatment was given Mr. and Mrs. Leo Poplawski, 8861 Woodbine, Redford Township, as winners of a "man and wife" contest conducted by TV's Bill Kennedy for the premiere of the new La Parisien Theater, Ford Road at Middlebelt. The Poplawskis were taken to the theater in a plush Cadillac, were guests of the Shafer Family, owners of the theater, had dinner at a Dearborn seafood restaurant and then had seats of honor for the premiere performance of "Becket," starring Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole.

BIG GIRL, NOW—Luci Baines Johnson, the President's younger daughter, looks very grown up with that high up-sweep hairdo. She is shown leaving Madison Square Garden in New York where she appeared on the stage to deliver a message from her father to the United Jewish Appeal's "Night of Stars" audience.

FIRST OFFERING

ON BEAUTIFUL Cloverly Road sits this magnificent example of an Early American colonial. The ingenious floor plan allows for a walk down living room which is completely paneled. A cozy library with fireplace and the dining room lead from the entrance hall. Five family bedrooms serviced by three baths, and there is also a bedroom and bath over the attached garage. The home, only eight years old has a completely built-in kitchen and central air conditioning.

BY APPOINTMENT

THE ONLY STEP you'll have to take is the one to your phone, if it results in seeing, loving and buying this story and a half house on O'Mara Court. Two bedrooms and a bath and a half on the first floor, and of course a living room and the gigantic combination kitchen and family center. An enclosed stairway leads to two more bedrooms and a bath. This house is on a dead-end street, yet just a few blocks from G.P.U.S. Barnes, and Star of the Sea schools.

THIS LARGER English house on

Bishop Road might very well be the ideal answer for the family who must have a considerable elbow room. For example, there are six bedrooms and four baths on the second floor, and stairs to storage rooms and an additional third floor bedroom. There are two additional rooms on the first floor besides the living room and dining room. The low price of $42,900.00 makes this the "most house for the money" buy in Grosse Pointe.

JUST OFF Windmill Pointe

Drive on Middlesex, is the location for this attractive English house. The kitchen has been completely redone, which will please mother. Five family bedrooms serviced by two and a half baths.

IF YOU HAVE CONTEMPT

for contemporary we challenge you to take a look at this "fooler" on Ballantyne Road. Inside the warm decor "invites" you to make yourself at home. There are three bedrooms, each with its own bath, plus a charming den which opens on to a large and secluded patio. Priced for the discriminating buyer in the sixty thousand bracket.

NONE OTHER LIKE it in the Farms. Check these features: Two full baths, four bedrooms, divided basement, two-car garage. Now check your pocketbook. Chances are you can afford all this house, because it's priced in the mid thirties and on Handy Place.

WE'VE DEDUCED, when the price is reduced, there usually follows a sales boost. We refer specifically to the new, lower price on this farm colonial in the Shores. The house has four bedrooms and two and a half baths. The immense kitchen has built-ins which include a fireplace for barbecuing year-round. Sensible location to the laundry is just off the kitchen. Family room and attached garage. Now priced to interest the buyer in the forty thousand dollar range.

ON VENDOME we will show you one of the best examples of a large English manor house ever built in the Pointe. In the same neighborhood but around the corner on Cloverly Road, we offer another large English house which will wow you with the charm woven into it by its present owner.

Carolyn Hubbard Lucas' Thanksgiving thought is entitled:

DOUBLE TROUBLE

*The Pilgrim Fathers, tall and grim
Weathered the trials of the new world's brew
But the Pilgrim Mothers, small and slim
Had to weather the trials and the Fathers too.*

Jet-Age Romance... is typified by Nancy Anne Drennan and Ensign Gordon Nelson Cameron, Jr., who became formally engaged last week. Nancy Anne's parents, the Sheldon L. Drennans, live in Lakecrest lane; Nancy Anne is making her home in Denver while she teaches in Littleton, Colo. Ensign Cameron, son of the Gordon N. Camerons, of Hampton Road, has recently been stationed in Georgia. He flew West to visit Miss Drennan before reporting for duty in Spain; the young pair decided the time had come to publicly announce their intentions. They called their parents and flew from Denver to Detroit for a few days' visit, during which the Drennans hosted a family dinner and engagement party. Then Nancy Anne and her Ensign parted company again, at 1,200 miles per hour, as she jetted West to the Rocky Mountains and he jetted East to Spain.

The problem... of what to do with that wreath of varnished pine cones and preserved leaves you purchased at your Church's Christmas Fair AFTER the Holidays has been successfully solved by Mrs. Pierce Smith, of Pemberton road, who took last year's wreath apart and used the materials to create a beautiful fall table centerpiece, interspersing the cones and leaves with real autumn flowers.

From one of our favorite... monthly papers, the "Newsletter" published by the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, comes this delightful anecdote: "Mr. and Mrs. King Brady visited nine countries in Europe, Asia and North Africa during the late summer and early fall. After returning, King sent 'his' raincoat to the cleaners. In the interval between sending and its return, King found his own raincoat, hanging peacefully in its accustomed coat closet. The one I brought back fit me as well as my own," King reports. "It looked exactly like it, but I have no idea to whom the other may belong. It might be anyone in either the Northern or Southern Hemisphere. However, if the individual recently in any of these nine countries will contact me, I shall be happy to return the coat, mailing charges prepaid. There is some doubt as to this ever occurring."

For 17 years now... the Merry-Go-Rounders have kept elegance alive through their four season parties, black-tie dinner dances dedicated to the proposition that men and women like to have a ball every so often. Next Merry-Go-Rounders' function is scheduled December 5, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. This group of 60 Pointers who like to dress up and dance is an off-shoot of a Birmingham group; the local society decided almost two decades ago to hold its own parties, on its own side of town, eliminating the problem of arriving in the Northern suburb, after driving through or around the city, too tired to cha-cha-cha. The four dinner dances per year, each planned at a different club, are Merry-Go-Rounders' sole purpose and activity. Current president of the group is Mrs. Donald Doetsch, assisted by treasurer Mrs. Ernest G. Moeller, secretary Mrs. David Hines and decorations chairman Mrs. Paul Kelly. If this preponderance of female officers in a mixed society strikes you as a bit odd... blame the men!—about two years ago they decided to leave all committee chores in the hands of the ladies, settling back in comfort to enjoy the results.

Among the lovely... Christmas gift ideas to be found at Polish Aid Society's traditional dinner and bazaar, scheduled last Sunday evening at Knights of Columbus Cardinal Mercier Council, were unique hand-decorated Thank-You Notes. According to Mrs. Stanley J. Tutag, the notes are made by enclosing fine stationery in a cover of wax paper and thin tissue. Flowers, leaves or weeds are pressed between the stationery and the cover, creating beautiful, unusual designs.

PILFERINGS

Cure for "Leanness," printed in "Mother's Cook Book," published 1902: "Leanness is caused generally by lack of power in the digestive organs to digest and assimilate the fat-producing elements of food. First restore digestion, take plenty of sleep, drink all the water the stomach will bear in the morning on rising, take moderate exercise in the open air, eat oatmeal, cracked wheat, Graham mush, baked sweet apples, roasted and broiled beef, cultivate jolly people, and bathe daily."

It's always embarrassing to run unexpectedly into a girl you used to be engaged to. —P. G. Wodehouse

The first time the young woman came into the psychiatrist's office, she seemed to have difficulty expressing herself.

The doctor was unworried—patients often take several sessions before they begin to express themselves freely—but the young woman was perturbed. At the second session, after a long, nervous silence, she looked hesitantly at the psychiatrist and volunteered: "I don't mean to tell you how to run your business, doctor, but I talk much more freely after four martinis."

The truth would become more popular if it were not always stating ugly facts. —Henry S. Haskins

Canteen Conversation

By Rick Mills

Thanksgiving, but are we really? It is a day for a huge three course dinner: turkey and cranberry sauce. The bother of cooking this dinner and getting all the relatives in one place at one time, is this Thanksgiving today?

Not so very long ago, Thanksgiving was truly a time of giving thanks. A vast "new frontier" lay before Americans, and they took time out from their explorations to give thanks for their blessings. They had the knowledge and foresight to see that what they had was a gift, not a possession. This new land with its long coast lines, towering mountains, and rolling plains, this land of opportunity, was after all, a gift to be received with humility and thanks. So they took time out from their lives to express their thanks.

Can we take time out to make this day a true day of thanksgiving? Or are we too occupied with material things we have gained? Can we sincerely say "thanks" for this land, for our freedom, our privileges, for our responsibilities? Can we pause to appreciate the wonder of night and day, sun and stars, wind and rain? Do we think to give thanks for parents and friends, and others whom we love, thanks for — life itself?

We are given much, so on this day of "Thanksgiving," let us be truly thankful. Let us give thanks!

Pointers of Interest

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HOUSE OF RIVARD BOULEVARD

By Janet Mueller

Everyone thought Mr. and Mrs. William House were crazy. They had three children, a poodle, and a perfectly good home in Moross road. Why should they want to move into a broken-down, century-old house with about as much obvious charm as a chicken coop, and turn it into their dream home, doing all the work themselves?

People who, knew Bill and Carolyn House didn't say they COULD NOT do it—but there was some doubt as to the mental condition of a couple who would plunge, happily, into such a gigantic private project.

The only ones without qualms were the Houses themselves. They knew what they wanted, and they were determined to get it.

Actually, the Houses are exceptionally well-qualified for do-it-yourself home renovation. They are both artists, painters. In addition, Carolyn House refinishes furniture, sews, and does "anything he (Bill) tells me."

Wrote for Artie Shaw

At one point in his career, Mr. House was a professional musician. He played sax and clarinet, and wrote for Artie Shaw's Navy Band when he was in the service.

Now, Bill House sculpts as well as paints, designs interiors for an architectural firm, teaches painting two evenings a week at Grosse Pointe High School. He has exhibited in International Shows, the Pennsylvania Academy and the Butler Museum. A local examples of his work include the murals at the Maison Riviera (now the Captain's Table) and the faceless Angel at the Detroit Orthopaedic Hospital. ("The children can look into it and see their own faces.")

His re-modeling enterprise encompasses turning a butcher shop into the Raven Art Gallery at its former location in James Couzens highway, Detroit.

He did not live in the Raven while re-designing its interior, however; that special form of self-identification with his work was reserved for the present House house, in Rivard boulevard.

Friends Aid in Search

Mr. and Mrs. House's friends and relatives had known they were looking for a new residence, a place they could make completely their own. These friends and relatives caught the home-hunting fever. The old cottage-farmhouse was spotted by Kay Champion and Mrs. House's sister, Margaret Driscoll.

Bill House took a look at the place. Its shape suggested balcony possibilities, and Bill had always wanted an interior balcony. As an artist-interior designer, he visualized what the rooms could look like, a year from now.

Carolyn House's mother saw what the rooms looked like, there and then. She reacted like a normal parent: "My mother saw it and started to cry."

The house had not been lived in for six months. The front lawn was a mass of weeds.

There was a "thing" in the backyard, covered with ivy. The Houses cut away the ivy, discovered doors, and found, to their amazement, that they owned a barn as well as a house!

Most of the inside flooring was rough masonry. There was no furnace.

Was in "Cabbage Patch" The abstract makes fascinating reading," Mr. House notes. The house was originally one of three standing on the old Rivard estate; it was moved years ago from the "Cabbage Patch," site of the present War Memorial and Memorial Church, to Rivard boulevard.

The shutters are over 100 years old. They were brought from New England by a previous owner. The age of the house itself has not been definitely determined, but the Houses believe their home is approximately a century old.

All of which historical background meant little or nothing to Carolyn House's mother—she was still dabbling at her eyes when the family moved in, in June, 1963.

"We played summer camp," Carolyn House recalls. Pam, Steve and Judy, now aged 13, 10 and eight, respectively, thoroughly enjoyed the experience, a reversal of the usual re-modeling, moving process.

Most people re-model a home, then move in. The Houses moved in, then began to re-model.

The home had been divided into two separate residences; the new owners' first task was to make it a one-family dwelling. The balcony involved a complete re-design of the front interior, elimination of an upstairs bedroom, sewing room and enclined stairwell.

While this major renovation was in progress, Carolyn and Bill slept in the living room "with all the saws"—they had ripped out the upstairs walls and were afraid they might tumble over the edge of their bedroom!

In the midst of all this commotion came the men to install the furnace. They shook their heads, installed the furnace, and came back a few months later to see how everything had turned out, (they said it couldn't be done!)

Mr. House's job made it impossible for him to work on his home during the day... so he and Carolyn hammered and pounded until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, every morning.

"We have some wonderful neighbors," they both say fervently.

The first night they started pounding, a man came to the door with a bowl of popcorn "for the noisy carpenters."

The neighborhood, instead of objecting to the noise, developed an almost proprietary attitude toward the Houses' project. People began to drop in, to check up on how the renovation was progressing.

"Plaster was piled up to the windowsills," Bill House reminisces. "My wife and I carried it out evening after evening; the pick-up men came every day."

Salved Her Conscience "I was so excited about the house, I didn't realize how much noise we were making," Carolyn recalls, (she may have had a subconscious guilt feeling, however—during the day she baked bread and passed it around to her neighbors.)

At the end of three months, the balcony and all the interior architectural changes had been completed. Around the 15th of December, the carpeting was laid.

Today, the House home reflects its owners' credo: that well-designed pieces have no period. "If it's good design, it's good," William House maintains.

"I've stayed with the design of the house, tried to accent its charm," he explains. "Inchworm" is the word one instinctively uses to describe the atmosphere of the House residence—after one has visited there. The front door opens into a delightful surprise.

From the outside, the house seems small, old-fashioned, almost deliberately unpretentious, lost between two terrace complexes. It has a cottage-type front porch, (the porch is going soon). In short, it is the sort of house you could pass by for 20 years and not notice.

Pure House Inside Inside, it is pure House... and you do more than just "notice"—you react!

Red-carpeted stairs, breaking at a right angle next to one of the outside walls... a Civil War stained glass window from Louisville, Ky., set near the angle... wood, with its immediate impact of warmth... the height of the ceiling before the balcony begins... an angel hanging on the balcony to dry, William House's copy of an Early American angel... These are first, immediate impressions.

The exterior appearance is misleading as regards size, too. This is not a small house.

Downstairs includes a living room, dining room, kitchen, studio, playroom, utility room and powder room. Upstairs are three good-sized bedrooms and the largest bathroom this side of Buckingham palace.

Every piece in their home has a special meaning for the Houses. There is a wooden chest with original brass fixtures that Carolyn found in the backyard barn and resurrected from layers of paint and a tacked-on linoleum top.

A reproduction of an ancient Spanish fixture, a Jo Mead design, hangs over a table, discovered by Carolyn's mother, in one corner of the living room.

Used Discarded Slate Slate, discarded pieces of roofing from Richard School brought home by Steve House, has been used by his father in a large screen, (other materials that went into the screen's creation include crate nails and shelving board).

One living room wall is devoted entirely to Mr. House's paintings; Carolyn House is especially fond of his wistful "Girl in the Orange Hat," a Christmas present she refuses to part with, and his alabaster head of "Abraham" on a pedestal near the front door.

Most of William House's work has a firm basis in visual reality, but he does not follow any particular style. An example of the completely abstract—"if there is such a thing"—is "his interpretation of an Oriental dancer, a slender wire sculpture that shimmers and seems to move in light."

Both the Houses see no conflict between Piranesi wallpaper, a medieval-style carving done by Bill's father, and black and white curtains made of heavy mattress ticking with fringed balls at their edges, fashioned by Carolyn House. These three seemingly disparate items blend happily, and successfully, in the Houses' dining room.

Use Autumn Colors Their bright orange bedroom carpet meets the bright red, ("Autumn is full of red and orange; why not use them together?"), Carolyn's reproduction of Rembrandt's "Polish Rider" hangs in this bedroom with only three walls.

Mr. and Mrs. William House definitely know what they like. If they happen to like natural colors and textures (generally described as "modern" tastes) and Early American antiques, they do not see why they cannot use them together in their home. "If it's good design, it's good."

In the Houses' case, the system works; their house is beautiful and interesting and casual and all-of-a-piece. Conversation is easy there.

They are by no means "finished," but they are in no hurry. They can wait for Exactly The Right Thing.

CHOCOLATE COVERED CHERRY DELIGHTS

Contributed by Maggie Chester

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter
6 squares semi-sweet chocolate (or the new already-melted chocolate)
36 maraschino cherries, drained well

Combine flour and brown sugar. Cut in the 1/2 cup butter until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs.

Press into 8-inch square ungreased pan. Bake, at 350° 15 to 20 minutes, until golden. While still warm, cut into 36 squares.

Melt chocolate or use already melted chocolate. Arrange squares on wax paper. Place a well drained cherry in each square. Top with 1 tsp. of the melted chocolate. Let stand until chocolate hardens.

(For Christmas variety, alternate red and green cherries in the squares).
