A PLAN TO PREVENT the devaluation of the British pound was announced Wednesday by 11 nations who said they would put up $3 billion in credits for the Bank of England. This international effort checked the run on the pound and sent speculators scurrying for cover. The United States contributed $1 billion of the total. The preservation of the entire international financial system was threatened by the possible British currency devaluation. In 1931 the collapse of the pound was a major cause in turning our 1929 slump into a world-wide depression.

IN SPITE OF the Belgian paratroopers drop on the Congolese rebel town of Paulis yesterday, a last minute massacre of white hostages took place. The paratroopers were flown over the town by U. S. planes. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson told the United Nations Security Council Thursday that the American participation in the rescue mission saved greater "wanton and tragic killings" of white hostages. He emphasized that the sole aim of the United States in the Congo affair has been to assist in the rescue of innocent citizens, who were "endangered by rebel activity in violation of international law."

THE LONDON TIMES' Washington correspondent said in an analysis that the Viet Nam situation is such that it is "possible that the United States will be at war with China by the end of the year, or soon after." His report was based on a warning by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to administration members who would like to "enlarge the war in Vietnam." In spite of the warning, the report says, few seemed to have listened and pressure to bomb Viet Cong targets in North Vietnam is growing.

Sunday, November 29

UNITED NATIONS Secretary General U Thant has proposed that the General Assembly put off until February any action on the problem of members whose dues are more than two years in arrears. If the plan is accepted, it would avoid the long feared confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union when the 1964 session opens tomorrow. Russia has refused to pay its share of the cost of maintaining the United Nations peace-keeping forces in the Middle East and the Congo. Six Soviet bloc countries and Yemen are also more than two years in arrears. Sources say that U Thant's plan has a good chance of being accepted.

Monday, November 30

THE AMERICAN-CONGO rescue mission in the Congo was denounced yesterday by leaders of Communism. According to the Red Chinese radio an estimated crowd of 700,000 heard the American leaders called "jackals" and "butchers." Observers said that the speeches also appeared directed as much toward the ears of the new leaders of the Soviet Union as to the Asian-African nations and the United States. Indications are that Peking is developing a hate America propaganda drive that may exceed the demonstrations during the Cuban missile crisis in 1962.

Tuesday, December 1

THE UNITED NATIONS' pot was also bubbling over the question of Russian nonpayment for peacekeeping projects of that organization. Last night, the eve of the opening of General Assembly, diplomats were frantically searching for a compromise which would head off any direct confrontation between Russia and the United States, which has insisted that the Soviet Union pay up or lose its vote in the Assembly. There was a possibility that the Assembly may open on schedule today and recess immediately, thus again delaying facing the problem.

Children Welcome Santa Claus to The Village

Santa Claus arrived by helicopter to officially open Christmas Season in The Village. Plenty of his fans were on hand to greet him after city officials and business leaders presented him with the key to Christmas Street. He has set up headquarters in the Hospitality Center on Kercheval avenue.

Santa Claus Arrives in The Village

Jolly Gentleman Greeted by Youngsters After Arriving by Helicopter; Men's Night Set

Santa Claus arrived in the Village last week and is in the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Hospitality Center, where he will greet children daily from 1 p.m. to 4:30 until December 23.

Because of the lack of snow, Santa arrived via helicopter. The vehicle was provided by the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association.

As the noise of the helicopter's engine subsided and the jingle of the sleigh bells Santa was holding could be heard a throng of cheering youngsters rushed to greet him.

Gets Key to Village
Al Helmer, president of the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association, officially welcomed Santa by presenting him with a key to the Village. City Manager John Cantwell and other members of the Association also joined in the presentation.

Jolly Santa then went into the crowd, greeting every smile with a handshake and a boisterous "Merry Christmas." Police Chief Andrew Teetaert, who did a fine job of sectioning the area off for Santa's arrival, had a police car ready to rush Santa to the Hospitality Center.

Santa's arrival officially opens the Christmas season in the Village. This feeling will be heightened by gayly decorated...

Duties Assumed by New Woods Safety Director

The new director of the Woods Department of Public Safety, Allen H. Andrews, Jr., 33, assumed his duties on Tuesday, December 1, after he was administered his oath of office by City Clerk Leona Liddle.

Andrews was appointed in early October, but could not take over command of the combined police-fire department until he had completed organizational policies he had formulated for the Michigan State University Campus police, which he headed.

The new director is no stranger to the combined police and fire department system.

Prior to working with the MSU campus police, Andrews was assistant city manager at Peoria, Ill., where he had prepared and introduced a plan for a consolidated police-fire department, which worked very effectively for that city.

Park Police Officers Ask More Pay, Fringe Benefits To Match Detroit's Scales

All Members of Department Except Chief Sign Petition; Mayor, Council, City Manager Will Decide On Action After Study

A petition, signed by the officers of the Park Police Department, asking that their salaries, fringe benefits and pensions be put on a par with those of Detroit policemen, was presented to city officials and to the police chief on Wednesday, November 25.

The petition was presented with a list of fringe benefits and salaries paid to Detroit police personnel, which the Park officers hope the city will equal.

The petition states, "We the undersigned members of the Grosse Pointe Park Police department make the following demands: For many years we have been trailing the Detroit Police Department in wages and fringe benefits and our outdated pension plan. We see no reason why we should receive any less than the Detroit police officers, and therefore demand that we be brought upon a par with them in every respect, and that our pension plan be changed over to one equal to the Detroit Police Department."

Detroit Figures Furnished
"We herewith furnish you with a copy of their wages and fringe benefits along with their pension plan for your study. We ask that our demands have the full backing of our mayor and council, along with that of the city manager and the chief of police."

The signatures on the Park petition are those of the uniform division, four sergeants, one corporal and 20 patrolmen. In the Park, a probationary patrolman starts at a salary of $5,610, and works to a top of $6,510. Sergeants make $7,170 a year, and a corporal receives $6,940 a year.

In Detroit, a patrolman receives a starting salary of $6,115, and receives a top of $6,877 after putting in the required time. A sergeant's salary is set at $8,040 a year. There are no corporals.

Fringe Benefits Asked
The fringe benefits received by Detroit officers, which the Park policemen would also like to receive, are:

1. Longevity pay—first step at the completion of 11th year, second step at completion of 16th year, two percent of annual salary for each step. Stops at a promotion and continues at completion of six years in grade.
 2. Bonus pay — 10 cents an hour for afternoons and 15 cents an hour for midnight.
 3. Forty hours a week; 104 days off a year.
 4. Eight holidays a year, and holidays worked, double pay.
 5. Overtime — Compensatory time off. In state of emergency, time and one-half pay.
 6. Uniform allowance — complete replacement for all men through sergeants.
 7. Vacation or Annual Leave — 10 days in the summer and 10 days in the winter for all personnel.
 8. Annual Sick Leave — 17 days a year allowed with an accumulation of 200 days. Upon retirement, receive half of unused sick time not to exceed 60 days in pay.
 9. Health and Medical Plan — half of single man's ward rate paid by city. A choice of John Marshall, Blue Cross, etc., on a bid basis.
 10. Basic Pension Benefits — Employees pay five percent contribution, city pays balance of costs. 25 years of service, 50 percent of pay at retirement.
- A copy of the Park policemen's petition was given to Mayor Matthew Patterson and members of the Park council, City Manager Robert Stone and Police Chief Arthur Louwers, for study and action.

Chorus Gives Yule Concert This Sunday

Traditional Christmas Event Begins at 3:30 O'clock In Parcels Auditorium

The 12th Annual Christmas Concert to be given Sunday by the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will be the last for conductor Dr. Donald W. Simmons, who will become Assistant Professor of Music at Ohio State University.

The concert will begin at 3:30 p.m. in Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Vernier. Now the traditional opening event of the Grosse Pointe community's Christmas Season, this Sunday concert is a "family affair" and parents are urged to introduce their children to concert-going by attending this afternoon program.

The Chorus will perform a varied program of sacred and secular Christmas choral compositions: Pergolesi's "Glory to God in the Highest," featuring Barbara Bailey and Nancy Williams; "Thou Must Leave Thy Lowly Dwelling" by Berlioz; "The Three Kings" by Willan; Rossini's "Inflammatus (When Thou Comest)" featuring soprano soloist Jeanne Zech; "Sing Gloria" featuring Lori Lang and Delores Shaheen with Richard Johns conducting; "Sing We to Christ, the King" featuring Pat Simmons, Contralto; "Mary Sat Spinning" featuring Audrey Mossner; Kountz's "Hasten Swiftly, Hasten Softly" and "The Sleigh"; Rhea's "Echo Noel" with antiphonal choir; "Ring Those Christmas Bells"; and "Twas the Night Before Christmas" featuring Carolyn DeGaetano will conclude the program.

A special addition to the program will be the appearance of the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers. Under the direction of Dr. Simmons, founder of the group, they will sing three 17th Century Christmas Carols: "Adoramus te, Christe"; "Bring a Torch, Jeannette, Isabella"; and "Christmas is Coming" featuring soprano soloist Pat Nelson.

Everyone is welcome to attend the reception immediately following the concert in the gymnasium.

Tickets may be obtained from The Book Shelf, Kercheval on the Hill, or at the box office the day of the concert. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students.

Further information may be had by calling TU 4-5964.

Clothing Stores Visited by Thief; Loot Totals $9,764

Woods, Detroit Police Working on Robberies; Same Man Believed To Be Responsible for Both Crimes Discovered On November 22

There are no clues to the burglary of a Woods and Detroit clothing store early last week, in which the burglar stole a total of $9,764 in suits, topcoats, trousers and other garments, it was disclosed on Monday, November 30, by Woods Det. Albert Abend.

The detective, who said it is believed that the same man committed both burglaries, has been working with Detroit authorities since Sunday, November 22, when the crimes were discovered.

Broken into were the Grosse Pointe Custom Tailor Shop, 20733 Mack avenue; and the M and M Clothing Store, 1518 East Seven Mile road, Detroit.

The Woods store is owned by Joseph Valente of 9176 Fischer. Detroit, who told Abend that on the Sunday date, he had arrived at his business place at 7:15 a.m. to begin decorating for the Christmas season, and discovered the front door of his place broken open and items stolen from the store's stock.

Taken, Valente said, were 38 suits valued at $48 each; 30 pairs of trousers, valued at $13 each; 10 topcoats valued at $50 each; and $50 in cash, taken from the cash register.

Abend said that Detroit police did not itemize the goods stolen from the Seven Mile store, but said the total loss there amounted to approximately $7,000.

Paper Sale Set By Goodfellows

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club Goodfellows will conduct their 35th annual newspaper sale on Monday, December 14. Monte K. Allen, president of the club, has asked Carl Schweikart to be chairman of this year's drive to collect money for the charitable work of the organization.

The goal has been set at $7,500, and the money received, as in the past, will be used to bring Christmas cheer to the needy, and throughout the rest of the year a welfare program will be conducted for numerous agencies.

Assisting the members of the Lions Club will be all the policemen and firemen of the Cities of Grosse Pointe Park, Grosse Pointe, and Grosse Pointe Farms and the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores.

The members of the Grosse Pointe Lions who will be at their old corner will be: Monte K. Allen, Robert J. Allen, Lorne H. Ayling, Leonard A. Baum, Edgar A. Beauchamp, Julius L. Berns, Walter H. Breyer, Dr. Ormel D. Brownell, Jerome E. Buydaert, Rev. Emil A. Capano, Arthur P. Churchman, Albert G. Coaouvreux, Adolph L. Damman, Hon. Victor H. DeBaeke, Charles J. DeFever, Raymond J. Dierickx.

Others are: W. George Elworthy, Alfred Epstein, Herbert S. Epstein, George W. Eyster, Joseph H. Finnegan, William J.

Alert Neighbor Prevents Burglary in Stanton Lane

A fleet-footed burglar, surprised in the act of trying to burglarize a Farms home, escaped pursuing police during the evening of Wednesday, November 25.

According to information released by Farms police, a neighbor of the Mead Bakers of 71 Stanton lane, called authorities when a light was seen flashing on the Baker property at about 8:25 p.m.

Patrolmen Arnold Parsons, Guy Lyford, Charles Bingham and Robert Conn, responded to the radio call.

Parsons and Lyford arrived first, and while Parsons went to the front of the house, Lyford went to the north side. While walking to the rear of the building, Parsons saw a form running south and through the yard of 67 Stanton, from the rear of the Baker house. The officer gave chase.

The neighbor, who called police, and other members of her family also saw the man running from the pursuing policeman.

Parsons said he lost the fleeing burglar on Grosse Pointe boulevard, between Handy place and Stanton. The patrolman ran back to his car and called the station to sound an all-point alarm.

Bingham and Conn, who had arrived within minutes, and other officers joined in the search, but without success.

The neighbor told police that she had seen a red station wagon turn onto Stanton, without lights. It remained a short time, then backed away, still without lights, and went east on the boulevard.

She said that there appeared

Four Homes Paid Visits By Burglar

Shores Residences Ransacked and Looted While Owners Were Away; Furs, Jewels Taken

Four homes in the Shores were forcibly entered by the same burglar during the hours of darkness on Saturday, November 28, in the absence of the families. The burglar looted the homes of more than $8,950 in furs, jewelry and money, according to information released by Police Chief Fred Duemling.

The biggest loss was suffered by Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of 751 Ballantyne, who told police that they had left the house at 6:15 p.m. and returned at 10:53 p.m. to find that they had been robbed.

Entrance into the house was gained by using a heavy pry bar to force open a door, and sliding the glass door leading into the house proper. The entire house was ransacked, police said.

Furs, Jewelry Stolen
Missing, the Wilsons said, are a full length mink coat, valued at $4,000; a wild mink cape jacket, valued at $1,500; a Cerulean gray mink stole, valued at $750; 20 lady's suits and dresses, total value, $350; a hand-made gold wrought wire bracelet studded with cultured pearls, valued at $150; a 25-charm gold bracelet, valued at $600; a seven-charm gold bracelet, valued at $200; and a gold band studded with pearls, valued at $50.

At the home of Mrs. Richard Russell, 82 Greenbriar, the burglar entered through the rear side door, but before going through the house, locked the family's pet dog in the laundry room in the basement.

After locking the door from the garage to the house proper, the thief conducted a thorough search of the first floor, the dining room, den, kitchen and master bedroom, the chief said.

Chief Duemling said that it appeared that nothing was missing from the Russell home, but an investigation is still continuing.

At the Jerome J. Nuytens residence, 74 Willison, the thief broke in through the rear door, and began a systematic search

Must Select Successor To Culehan

Change In Constitution Expected To Cost Some Pointes Unusual Outlay Next Year

The election budgets of all five Grosse Pointes may be strained next year by the necessity to hold a special election to choose a successor to the late Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Miles N. Culehan.

In some cases, however, both a February primary and an April election to fill the judgeship would coincide with municipal elections in the Pointes and in the long run save taxpayers money. The county, in these instances would pick up the tab for printing the ballots which would include the municipal races.

A February primary will be called if three or more candidates file for the circuit court seat. Regardless of whether the primary is necessary an election must be held in the spring.

One Extra For City
Grosse Pointe City has already said that it will hold its vote on the $1,325,000 storm sewer relief bond issue on February 15, 1965, the date of the possible primary. The City does not have, however, any municipal elections scheduled for April and will have to dig into its budget to pay for the spring election. John Cantwell, City manager, estimates that it will cost his government approximately $1,200 for the special April election.

Both Grosse Pointe Park and Grosse Pointe Farms have on their books spring elections to fill municipal offices. Whether they hold February primaries to choose the candidates for these elections will depend upon the number of candidates who file for the various offices. To hold a primary at least three persons must file for an office.

Depends on Primary
Grosse Pointe Park will choose, in the spring, council members, a mayor and a municipal judge. If there is no need to hold a primary in February for the municipal election, but one must be held for the Circuit Court seat, city clerk Charles Heise estimates the judgeship primary will cost the Park $950.

The Farms voters will be choosing a municipal judge and four councilmen next year and, as in the case of the Park, will only be in trouble with the election budget if a February municipal primary is not required. A February judgeship election would mean about $1,000 to Farms taxpayers.

In Grosse Pointe Woods, City Clerk Leona Liddle says that her city will hold a municipal election in April to fill three council vacancies. No February primary will be held because, under the Woods new City Charter, candidates receiving the highest votes in the general election are the automatic victors. If the February county judgeship primary becomes a reality, it could cost the Woods about $1,500, according to Mrs. Liddle.

Shores Doubly Hit

The Shores has no municipal elections slated for the coming spring so that it will be hit doubly hard by the need to select a new Wayne County Circuit Court judge. Only two of its precincts would be affected by the election because one, Lake Township, is in Macomb county. Shores manager Thomas K. Jefferis said that either the February primary or the April special election would mean about $325 to the election budget.

The necessity for holding the special election for the county Circuit Court judgeship is due to a change in the selection procedure outlined in the new Michigan Constitution.

Heretofore, the Governor appointed a temporary judge to sit on the bench until the next regularly scheduled election was held. According to the new Constitution retired judges are meant to fill such vacancies until an election but Wayne County does not have enough retirees to fill the temporarily vacant seats.

 through the bedrooms, kitchen and hall closet. The burglary was discovered by Patrolman Stanley Otulakowski, who was checking the house which was on the watch list while the family was out of town.
 When the family returned, Mr. Nuyteens told police that the burglar had taken his wife's silver mink stole, valued at $750; his yellow gold wrist watch, value not known, and a collection of American and foreign coins of various denominations, valued at between $50 and $100.
 The burglary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Babcock, 80 Willson, was discovered by Patrolman William Marshall, who found the rear door had been pried open. The house was also on the watch list.
 When the Babcocks returned home the next day, they told police that the thief took Mrs. Babcock's silver gray mink stole valued at $300; and Mr. Babcock's gold ring, described as having a black onyx with a half carat diamond set in the middle, with an airplane propeller on each side. The ring is valued at $200, the owner said.
 Chief Duemling said that although the four burglaries were committed by the same man, he is not the same person, who in September and October, burglarized 14 homes in the Shores, four in the Farms, two in the Woods and two in Harper Woods.

Election
 troit is also faced with the unexpected cost of the judgeship election. Councilman Mary V. Beck said Monday that it will cost the city $360,000 to select the Circuit Court judge.
 There is only $60,000 left in Detroit's election fund and the Council will have to find the remaining $300,000 some place else.
 The Common Council immediately sent a letter to Governor Romney asking him to reconsider the call for a spring election or to find some way to help Detroit pay for the unplanned-for election.

Alert Neighbor

 to be two persons in the vehicle, a man and a woman, but whether they are connected with the attempted burglary is not known.
 Police said that the burglar first attempted to enter the house through a side door, and when this failed, he forced a rear terrace sliding door.
 Mrs. Baker, who came home later, said that it appeared that nothing had been disturbed in the house.

Primarily for Children
 While the bright decorations and gay shop windows convey the seasonal feeling to old and young alike, Christmas is primarily for the children.
 Santa assures us that the shops of the Village are featuring only the finest toys from his shop. Parents are invited to accompany their youngsters in strolling down the Village's Christmas Street.
 See the lights and look at the toys and other Christmas items featured by the shops, and try to heighten that glorious feeling of Christmas.

 At the time Petersen announced the appointment of Andrews, he (Petersen) said, "With the appointment of Andrews to the post of Director of Public Safety, the Woods has the potentials of developing one of the most outstanding police and fire departments in the United States."

Park Firemen Ask Meeting With City Administrators

The Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association is asking for a meeting with Park city officials, to discuss a shorter work week, and to iron out any differences that might exist, including recognition of the Association, it was disclosed on Tuesday, December 1, by William Hunt, Association president.

Hunt said that he and the members of his organization will gladly sit down and talk with Mayor Matthew Patterson and members of the city council or any other city official appointed by the council, to discuss current problems.

The Association, affiliated with the AFL-CIO, has sought recognition for more than 20 years, and recently petitioned for a shorter work week.

They had successfully circulated petitions and gathered more than 1,400 signatures of registered Park voters, to amend a section of the Park City Charter which would permit a reduction of the work week from 63 1/2 hours, to 56 hours, if it is approved by the voters.

At a meeting held on Monday, November 23, City Clerk Charles Heise certified the signatures, and so informed the council. The council authorized the amendment to be placed on the ballot for the primary election to be held on February 15.

At a prior meeting, the petition circulation was criticized by the mayor and council, who denounced any proposed amendment to the city's "constitution."

In reference to the November 23 council meeting, Hunt pointed out that Councilmen Kent Zimmerman spoke against inclusion of work hours in the charter.

The councilman stated, "I don't feel that working conditions should be a part of the charter. I don't feel it is the function of the people to get into a management situation. Administration functions should not be circumvented by a popular vote."

Hunt also quoted Councilman William Oddy, who served as mayor-pro-tem at the council meeting, who said "The city will communicate with the public before the primary in News Letters, expressing the council's sentiment on the issue."

"With these councilmen's statements at hand," Hunt said, "the Fire Fighters Association wonders why the council has not taken the time to sit down and discuss this shorter work week issue. If it does not belong on the charter with a charter amendment in February, then where does it belong, and how do we get there?"

"During the past few days, the members of the city council have spoken in opposition to the Fire Fighters' procedure in seeking this charter change, but not once have they made any effort to sit and discuss our problems and differences with authorized representatives of the Association."

"The council reports that it is going to the people. The Fire Fighters have already been to the people, circulating petitions, and now it is time for talking with the council, not the people."

Pointe Garden Club To Meet

The Pointe Garden Club will hold its Christmas luncheon meeting on December 7 at the home of Mrs. Floyd Straith in Audubon road.

Assisting Mrs. Straith will be Mrs. Clarence Wachner, Mrs. Harold Love and Mrs. Paul Hykes. A musical program will be given by the "choraleers," a group from the Grosse Pointe High School choir.

The Pointe Garden Club has taken World Gardening as one of its projects this year. Creating world friendship through its World Gardening program is one of the objectives of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

Through affiliated garden clubs in other countries of the world, gardening knowledge and experience are shared. Seeds and tools are sent through "Care" to areas of special need. Under this plan, planting instructions, translated into the vernacular language of the country, are distributed with the seeds. Tools are sent to Peace Corps Volunteers for teaching modern cultivation methods.

Members of the Pointe Garden Club, under Mrs. Floyd Straith, president, and Mrs. Watson Beach, projects chairman, have selected the Philippines as the country with which they will carry on their project.

Judge Belanger Hears 5 Cases

James Pittiglio, 21, of 16274 Aurora, East Detroit, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and serve five days in the Wayne County Jail by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, November 25. The youth was found guilty of driving while his operator's license was suspended.

King Eddie Griffin of 3014 Beatrice, Detroit, was found guilty of driving with a permit that had expired two years ago, and paid a fine of $35, rather than spend five days in jail.

Judge Belanger found three Detroit teenage boys guilty of loitering in an eatery at Jefferson and Wayburn. The boys had entered pleas of not guilty. They were fined $20 each, which they paid.

The boys are, Larry Ladensack, 17, of 3970 Drexel; Charles Marino, 17, of 1111 Manistique; and Robert Lapt, 18, of 1190 Ashland.

6 Cases Heard In City Court

Three Mt. Clemens men pled not guilty to being disorderly persons and possessing beer in a car in the City's Justice Court on Tuesday, November 24. Judge Malcolm J. Sutherland fined them each $25 and put them on a year's probation with the condition that if they receive favorable reports it will be reduced to six months.

The men were Michael Hibbert of 31 Fessenden; Otto Jasmund of 254 S. Broadway and Robert John Sullivan of 23670 Carlinto.

Judge Sutherland dismissed two cases of reckless driving because witnesses refused to sign complaints. Bobby Lee Criswell of 63 Temple was the defendant in the first and Anastasias Hadjiyanis of 1240 Beaconsfield the defendant in the second.

A charge of reckless driving causing an accident was reduced to guilty of driving without due care and caution in the case of Susan Armstrong of 66 Handy road. She was fined $25.

In other cases Wilbert Meyers of 4667 Anderson, Detroit, pled guilty to a charge of reckless driving causing an accident and fined $35, and Robert Dargel, Jr., of 43 Radnor circle stood mute to a charge of reckless driving causing an accident, found guilty and fined $50.

City Moves to Improve Rubbish Disposal Program

Merchants in the Village received a letter this week from John M. Cantwell, City Manager of Grosse Pointe City, requesting that they purchase for their use new rubbish containers.

The two cubic yard Leach containers will help the City in its daily collection of rubbish, he said. They will also eliminate the unsightly accumulation of debris which piles up at the rear entrances of stores.

Cantwell, who earlier had taken up the rubbish problem with members of the Business Men's Association, expects 100 percent cooperation from the merchants. They, as do the city fathers, want the business district to have the highest possible standards.

He also said that the City, unlike other municipalities, does collect each day and does not assess the merchants for the service.

The containers have already been used by certain merchants to test their practicality and have been found to be most satisfactory.

The cost of each container is $245. According to Cantwell, some stores will find they need two to cope with their rubbish while some stores will find that they can share a container with another store.

Merchants have been asked by the City to have the Leach containers by January 18 of next year.

The new policy of rubbish collection in the business district is part of a program by the City to improve collections throughout its area.

At its last meeting the Council approved the purchase of two Cushman Packmasters which will be used in residential collection. The Packmasters will work on each side of a street, be driven to the rear of the house where rubbish will be dumped into them and then return to the load truck for deposit.

These two pieces of equipment are not only expected to improve service but also utilize the manpower of the Department of Public Works to better advantage.

City Manager Cantwell has also announced that as of January 18 residential rubbish must be placed in 20 gallon or smaller containers for collection. A larger receptacle, he said, is harmful to the men of the department. The City's insurance company has pointed out this hazard. The number of men who are absent from work because of an injured back is costly to the City in both man-hours and money.

After the 18th of next month, the Department of Public Works will check all home containers to make sure that they are the proper size. If not, residents will be reminded of the need to have containers no larger than 20 gallons.

Cantwell also said that as part of the program for rubbish collection improvement there will be revision of residential collection routes. Any homeowner affected by new routes will be informed in advance of the change.

PTA Meeting Attracts 160

Approximately 160 persons attended the second meeting of the Richard PTA recently. The guest speaker was Dr. Armin Grams, of the Merrill Palmer Institute, who spoke on "The Prevention of Learning Difficulties in Children."

Girl Scout Troop 843 conducted the flag ceremony under the direction of Mrs. Robert Chope and Mrs. Robert McCurry. Following the meeting, parents visited the classrooms. Refreshments were served.

MSU Art Center To Be Expanded

Michigan State University's Kresge Art Center will be expanded to accommodate growing numbers of art students, thanks to a $200,000 grant from the Kresge Foundation.

The grant will be matched by funds from MSU.

First opened for classroom instruction and art exhibitions in 1959, the center was built with an earlier $1,500,000 gift from the Kresge Foundation.

Enrollment in MSU art classes has increased some 40 per cent in the past five years, and the number of art majors has doubled, according to Prof. Erling Brauner, chairman of the art department.

Youngsters Keep Police on Jump

City police put in a busy weekend keeping youths peaceful in Grosse Pointe City.

On Friday night, November 27, they ticketed three young men for being disorderly persons. The boys were picked up after police investigated a complaint made by George Kirschner of 388 St. Clair. He said that the boys had run through his yard into the one at 392 St. Clair. The boys, who were later released to their parents, were James F. Blake of 1009 Audubon, Owen Cox Marx of 1028 Yorkshire and Richard Golibart of 5250 Yorkshire.

Also charged with being disorderly persons and, in addition, the possession of alcohol by minors were four youths and two juveniles. Police found them in a car at the foot of Lakeland avenue. The four, who will appear in City Justice Court, are Jack Grzebyk of 7178 Milton, Detroit; William Miller of 8087 Leander, Detroit; Frank Cernio of 7087 Milton, Detroit and Henry G. Kempa of 7545 Arcola, Detroit. The juveniles will appear in Wayne County Several valuable items were stolen from an automobile belonging to John D. Hanson of 4811 Cadieux road, Detroit, according to information recorded by Woods police on Tuesday, November 24.

Hanson told police that he had parked his new convertible car at the rear of his business place, 20233 Mack avenue. When he returned to the vehicle later, he said, he discovered that someone had broken into the car.

Stolen, he said, were a field jacket valued at $15; a Polaroid land camera valued at $125; and a cashmere overcoat, worth $125.

The theft victim said he had locked the car before leaving it. The camera was taken from the glove compartment, which was also locked, Hanson added.

Introducing New Teachers

The ninth in our weekly series of teachers new to The Grosse Pointe Public School System brings to our readers capsule biographies of the most recent additions to the staff of Richard Elementary School.

"Highly qualified," "personable," "efficient" and "hard-working" are terms the building's principal, Richard W. Kay, has used in describing the attributes of Mrs. Mary L. Dietrich, Miss Nancy J. Ross, Mrs. Patricia A. Tabone, Mrs. Ronna Wagner York and James P. Neville.

Mrs. Mary L. Dietrich, assigned to a third grade class, is a native of Detroit, and a graduate of Wayne State University. She also has completed a secretarial course at Detroit Business Institute.

Residents of Grosse Pointe Woods, the Dietrich children are 16-year-old Dale, a junior at Grosse Pointe High School, and 18-year-old Lois, a student at Delta Junior College.

Mrs. Dietrich is interested in a variety of sports, in sewing, reading, music and homemaking. A lover of the Caribbean, she has enjoyed visiting Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Curacao, the Dominican Republic and the Bahamas.

Miss Nancy J. Ross is new to the staff as a first grade teacher. She holds a BA from Hillsdale College, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

An experienced elementary teacher, Miss Ross taught for the Fraser Public Schools prior to coming to Grosse Pointe. Music and skiing occupy first place among her hobbies.

A fourth grade class claims the services of Mrs. Patricia A. Tabone. Born in Lansing, she received her BA from Michigan State University.

She holds memberships in both the Michigan Education Association and the National Education Association.

Mrs. Ronna Wagner York, kindergarten teacher, claims Battle Creek as her home town.

was conceived by the Richard School Student Council, a unique organization at the elementary level. On the wall behind the teachers are the pictures of the Presidents of the United States, the beginning of a collection of historical documents and photographs. Heritage Hall will serve to remind Richard pupils of their heritage—both local and national.

A graduate of Central High School there, she went on to Michigan State University to receive her BA degree, to the University of Michigan for her MA. Her sorority is Alpha Phi. She has done additional work at the University of Colorado.

An experienced teacher, she has held early elementary positions in Battle Creek, Ann Arbor, and in Pacifica, California. Mrs. York has professional memberships in the Michigan Education Association and in the National Education Association.

Extracurricular interests include golfing, skiing, antique collecting, and participation in little theatre activities. She served as choreographer for the Battle Creek Civic Theatre.

James P. Neville, sixth grade teacher, is a Detroit native. He completed his high school days at Visitation, then gained his BS from Wayne State University.

His special interests include music, theatre, ice hockey, hunting, and basketball. Four of the five Neville children attend classes in The Grosse Pointe Public School System. They are Ruth Ann (13), Libbie (12), James (7), Robert (5), and Nancy (3). The Nevilles make their home in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Experienced men know criticism is a friend of success.

To Give Concert At St. James

The combined choirs of the St. James Lutheran Church—the Chancel, Chapel and junior—will present their annual Sacred Christmas Concert at 5 p.m. on the second Sunday in Advent, December 6.

Carl Munzel, choir director and organist, who has been in charge of these concerts since the first one sung in 1951, states that he has tried, in this year's concert, to bring to the audience a variety of old carols and some new ones and from as many different countries as the time would permit.

Donald Busarow, of Bethany Lutheran Church, will be the guest organist; soloists will be Mrs. William Heller, Mrs. Heinz Hintzen, and Mrs. Evan Evans.

Among the selections to be offered will be three arrangements by Paul Christiansen: "Angels We Have Heard on High" (French), "Oh, How Beautiful the Sky" (Danish), and "The Mexican Christmas Processional"; "He Is Born," arranged by Roger Wagner; "Mary Had a Baby," a Christmas spiritual arranged by William Dawson; "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light" from Bach's "Christmas Oratorio"; two selections from Handel's; "Silent Night" (Stille Nacht) sung in German, and the "Manger Carol" (Austrian).

The three choirs will join together in several selections, one of which is a beautiful arrangement of the German carol, "Come Hither, Ye Children." Following the concert, the audience is invited to attend a coffee hour in the Green Room with the Miriam Circle of the Women's Guild acting as hostesses.

St. James cordially invites the public to enjoy the music with them as the Choirs usher in the blessed Christmas season.

Burglar Visits Furniture Store

Woods public safety officers, making a routine check of stores along Mack avenue on Sunday, November 29, found the front door of the Belmont Furniture and Upholstering company, 20507 Mack, broken open. Evidence showed that a burglary had been committed.

The owner of the establishment, Earl Teschendorf of 22231 Gordon, St. Clair Shores, was summoned to the store to take inventory, and he disclosed that between $1,500 to $1,800 had been taken from a top desk drawer in his office.

The owner also told police that the thief took approximately $25 in change and two one dollar bills from the middle drawer of the desk.

Det. Albert Abend said that the exact amount of the loss cannot be determined until the company bookkeeper completes an audit. Nothing else in the place appeared to have been disturbed, the officer said.

He said that the front door had been forced by a hard, slender object, evidenced by pry marks on the door jam. The burglar left the place by way of the rear door.

Thirty (30) different Detroit Lions players have earned All-Pro honors during the period from 1934 through 1963, starting with tackle George Christensen and quarterback "Dutch" Clark in '34, and extending to Roger Brown, Joe Schmidt, and Dick Lane in 1963.

Andrew Bremer, Jr., New City Manager of Farms

Andrew Bremer, Jr., formerly of Roosevelt Park, Mich., became the Farms' and the Pointe's newest city manager on Monday, November 23, when he was administered his oath of office by City Clerk Dawson Nacy.

Bremer, who was city manager of Roosevelt Park before coming to the Farms, is here alone, until he can find a home for his wife, Kathryn, and two children, Pamela, 11, and Jeffrey, who is nine years old.

The new city manager spent the first week with Mayor William Connolly, Jr., who has been acting city manager since the retirement of Sidney DeBoer on September 27. The mayor showed Bremer the city, and familiarized him with his new job, which has a starting salary of $12,500.

Bremer has already met the members of the city council and the employees of the city at the Farms City Management-Employee Party held at the Farms Pier-Park on November 10. His family was also present at the affair.

Okay, so you hate Mondays

Well really, who could blame you? It's the beginning of another week of those daily chores it takes to be a good wife and mother. Mondays are also blue washdays. And what's fun about that? Toting a heavy load of wash out to the clothesline is enough to discourage a weight lifter. Then, too, the weather controls your washday schedule.

Why let it? Look at the brighter side. With a new automatic Gas dryer you just set the dial and forget it. AND, a Gas dryer will dry five loads of wash for the cost it takes to dry just one load with the other kind of dryer. So, forget about the weather. Find out for yourself how quickly you'll begin looking forward to Mondays.

Go on... get happy. See the latest Gas dryers now on display at dealer or Gas Company showrooms. You'll be glad you did. In fact, you'll wish you had yesterday. Easy terms arranged.

1964 Christmas Carnival Opens at Cobo Hall Dec. 11

Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh announced that Detroit's 1964 Christmas Carnival would be held at Cobo Hall from December 11 through December 29.

The Carnival will open at 5 p.m. in conjunction with the municipal Christmas tree lighting ceremony.

Regular hours will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. seven days a week with the exception of Christmas Eve, when the show will close at 6 p.m., and Christmas Day (closed).

This is the third annual Carnival. The show was begun in 1962 by Mayor Cavanagh when the Ford Rotunda was destroyed by fire, depriving Detroit area children of Ford's annual Christmas Fantasy. It is sponsored jointly by the City of Detroit and a number of private corporations.

Attendance has averaged 350,000 for the first two years. There is no admission charge.

The Mayor said that the 1964 Carnival has been enlarged and improved to provide unique entertainment for the whole family.

"We want to extend a warm invitation not only to the people of metropolitan Detroit but to all families anywhere who may wish to visit the Carnival," he said.

"Whether they come on a bus or drive 300 miles, we feel that our visitors will be richly rewarded by this magnificent display," the Mayor added.

The Carnival consists of 150,000 sq. ft. of exhibits, self-contained shows and audience participation recreation equipment.

Bozo, the TV Clown, will present three shows daily at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. His circus train will operate throughout the day with free rides for youngsters.

A new feature of this year's Carnival will be a nightly musical at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. with Detroit area bands and choral groups.

There will be live performances of "Babes in Toyland" at 3 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays only.

Also scheduled are regular puppet shows throughout each day. Whenever there are no live shows scheduled, movies and cartoons will be shown in a special theatre.

Youngsters will once again make their gift requests to Mrs. Santa Claus in her snow castle. Mrs. Claus will distribute free candy and comic books.

A highlight of the 1964 Carnival will be the new 6,000-square foot nativity scene. Framed in a backdrop of sand, palm trees and live animals, the creche will be one of the most elaborate and inspirational ever presented.

The entire show is placed in a "fairland" setting. Islands of artificial snow will have scores of giant lollipops, jack-in-the-boxes and gaily lighted trees.

There will be a 40-foot miniature circus with moving parts, a display of children's art and a gingerbread house — full of live pets.

Always a favorite with the children is the playground area. Young visitors will be able to climb on a real fire engine, slide down the 25-foot snowman slide or visit the houses of the "Three Little Pigs."

Other participation-type displays are the life-size dancing puppets, Santa's sleigh and a host of "climb-on" tot-lot toys.

Parents can relax at a comfortable refreshment stand conveniently placed so that they can watch their children at play.

Carnival officials ask that photographers come equipped with battery-powered light for movie cameras or flashbulbs for regular cameras. Some displays may be photographed with available light but many require artificial lighting.

Asked to Trim Tree In English Tradition

Mrs. Frederick Evans, 397 Neff road, has been invited to decorate a Christmas Tree in the tradition of Great Britain for the Christmas Heritage exhibit at the Detroit Historical Museum, Woodward and Kirby. Many of the more than a score of ethnic groups that make up our cosmopolitan community will be represented. Mrs. Walter L. Cisler, 1071 Devonshire, is chairman.

The exhibit consists of two units: one depicting the customs of those lands where a Christmas tree is not used; with the other comprising Christmas trees decorated by volunteer participants in the manner traditional to their culture. The non-tree exhibits will be open December 2; and the "tree" displays will be completed December 18. Both units will be on view through January 10.

Other countries to be represented are Armenia, Bulgaria, Estonia, Italy, Scotland, Germany, Ukraine, France, Austria, Denmark, Finland, Philippines, Syria and Japan.

To Show Film Of Holy Land

In tune with the season, Detroiters will have a unique opportunity to take a film trip to the Holy Land on December 9, when Dr. Charles Forbes Taylor presents his unusual colored motion picture at the Parcels Auditorium (Mack at Vernier road) at 8 p.m.

This travel film is one of the eight presentations which will be offered to East Siders during the current Grosse Pointe World Adventure Series. According to George Pierrot, "Dr. Taylor's film-lecture has been praised by people of all faiths. Leaders of many churches have recognized this program as a unique contribution to knowledge and understanding."

This hour-and-a-half presentation takes one through today's Israel, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, Taylor narrates an informative story of the historical and biblical past of these countries. Shown are Cedars of Lebanon, bazaars of Damascus, the Bedouins, walled Jerusalem, rose-red Petra, Tripoli, Amman, and the Jordan River.

Woven into the text is the story of Jesus and the places identified with him. They include Bethlehem, Nazareth, Galilee, Mount of Olives, Temple of Jerusalem, Gethsemane, Calvary, the Garden Tomb and the Place of the Ascension.

"The people who attend the World Adventure programs at the Parcels Auditorium every season are overjoyed that this film was booked for December."

Party to Honor Dem Officials

A cocktail party honoring Grosse Pointe Democrats who are elected or appointed officials will be held from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday, December 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Munro, 682 Westchester.

Grosse Pointe Democratic Club officials, who are sponsoring the party, said that it is a combination victory party and fund-raising affair.

"We are happy to have an occasion to honor those Grosse Pointe Democrats who have contributed so significantly at the county, state and national levels," according to Mrs. Helen Graves, first vice-president of the organization. She noted that there are nearly 10,000 Democrats in the Grosse Pointe area.

Among those to be honored at the party are former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, assistant under-secretary of state for African affairs; Dr. Lynn Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction; George S. Fitzgerald, state senator, first district and Donald M. D. Thurber, member of the state board of education.

Also, William B. Hall and Leonard Woodcock, members of the Wayne State University board of governors; Edward M. Branigan, county clerk, and Jacob Sumeracki, county auditor, as well as members of the judiciary.

Invitations to the party were mailed last week and tickets are available for a donation of $5 per person.

Family Film Night Friday

The third program of the 1964-1965 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, December 4 at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Family Film Nights are held the first Friday night in each month except January, when the program will be the second Friday, January 8, due to the holidays.

The program for December 4, 1964 will be a Christmas treat for the entire family. Films to be shown include NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS (11 minutes, in color). It is a re-enactment of the famous Clement Moore poem, played by actors, very well done and a treat for children during the Christmas season. In LAND OF THE BIBLE (20 minutes, in color) we see the many holy places of the Bible, both of the Old and New Testaments, and we follow the path of Christ and the Way of the Cross—a rewarding experience for young and old. MERRY CHRISTMAS (18 minutes) presents the Vienna Choir Boys preparing for Christmas Eve. They decorate a huge tree while singing traditional carols. Selections include "Oh Tannenbaum," "Silent Night," and many others in the Christmas spirit.

Adults and children accompanied by adults are cordially invited to the Christmas Family Film Night. Come early for a good seat.

Pointe Students Honored at U-M

Twelve Grosse Pointe students were among the 417 entering freshmen at the University of Michigan who were admitted to the university's program of enriched studies.

Comprising 12 percent of the incoming freshmen class in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, these Honor students were invited to join the program on the basis of high school records, scholastic aptitude and achievement scores and academic promise.

Students Hear Brass Quintet

Under the auspices of the Richard PTA, a brass quintet from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra presented a music program at an assembly Monday. Members of the quintet consisted of Allen Chase, trombone player, who is a former Richard school student; Al Belknap and Gordon Smith, trumpets; Oscar LaGasse, tuba and Charles Weaver, French horn. At the close of the program the students asked questions of the participating symphony members.

During recent years Richard students have heard the String Quartet and the Woodwind Quintet of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The program, Detroit's Adventures in Music gives school children an opportunity to hear the finest music played in their own schools.

The first violist of the symphony orchestra, Nathan Gordon, organized the programs several years ago. Small groups of musicians not only present music programs, but demonstrate and discuss their instruments.

The project is made possible through contributing companies which include the Ford Motor Company, the J. L. Hudson Company, the Detroit Edison Company, the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industries and in cooperation with the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

Fall Off Truck Injures Fireman

Robert Millington of the Grosse Pointe Fire Department suffered minor bruises and abrasions Tuesday, November 24 when he fell from a fire truck which was answering a call at the residence of Mrs. Longyear Palmer, 393 Washington road.

The accident occurred on Washington road, north of Maumee.

According to Millington, his hand slipped from the hand bar on the truck. He fell to the street and rolled to the curb to avoid being hit by a second truck which was also on the way to the Palmer residence.

He was taken to Bon Secours hospital by a City patrol car where he was treated and released.

The firemen proceeded to the Palmer house where they put out a furnace fire in the basement.

Meetings are held on the first and third Wednesday of the month, at 7:30 o'clock, at the hospital. Programs include movies, slides and lectures, covering many branches of the medical field, from heart diseases to pediatrics.

Occasional tours are also scheduled, through St. John Hospital and through the Wayne State Medical School, and a tour through the Up John Company is in the planning stages.

There are approximately one dozen doctors on the Post's advisory staff. For further information, call VE 9-8257, or LA 7-2995. Parents are invited to come.

How to add a room...

the rest of the house

consider electric heat

The minute you try to heat a newly finished room, you place an extra burden on your existing heating system. There's a better way.

Give that new room its own heating system—a modern flameless electric heating system. It's clean. It's comfortable. It's perfectly controllable. You simply dial the heat you want and you get it, exactly, without stealing heat from the rest of the house.

How much will this modern way to heat cost to install and operate? That depends on your particular home. One thing sure, it won't cost you a cent to find out.

An Edison Heating Specialist will gladly come out to discuss equipment and cost of operation estimates with you. (It's amazing how accurate these estimates prove to be.)

There's no obligation, of course. Just give us a call.

University School Notes

Wellington Grimes, former principal of the Upper School at Grosse Pointe University School, was visiting in Detroit this past weekend in the course of a trip in the midwest for his new employer, the National Association of Independent Schools, Boston, Mass. He met many of his former colleagues at a Saturday afternoon get-together given in honor by David Arner, Margaret Harvey, Clare Lockhart, and Dorothy Stevenson. disciplines discussed their view of pupils' needs and how the profession of English might try to satisfy them. Speakers were Professor Mel Ravitz of Wayne State University, now a councilman of the city of Detroit, who spoke on "The Political World"; Charles L. Wells, former educational director of the N.A.A.C.P. and now executive director of the City of Detroit's Narcotics Control Commission, who spoke on "The Social Realm"; and Rolland O'Hare, attorney and chairman of the American Civil Liberties Union of Michigan, who spoke on "The Individual."

The English Department of G.P.U.S. was also represented at the annual fall conference of the Michigan Council of the Teachers of English held last weekend at the University of Detroit. Those attending were Miss Clare Lockhart, Mrs. Donna Hodgman, Mrs. Irene Rosenfeld, Mrs. Katherine Welchenbach, Mr. John Conley, and Mr. Henry Stone.

The theme of the conference was "Human Values in the Teaching of English," in which in the morning sessions representatives of other professional

After the morning speeches and after individual seminar-room sections of question-and-answer periods with the separate speakers there was a general luncheon for all followed by the main speaker of the day, novelist John Howard Griffin, distinguished author of Black Like Me. Mr. Griffin's almost two-hour-long address drew a standing ovation from the more than 600 teachers present.

Hockey Chiefs Win Two More

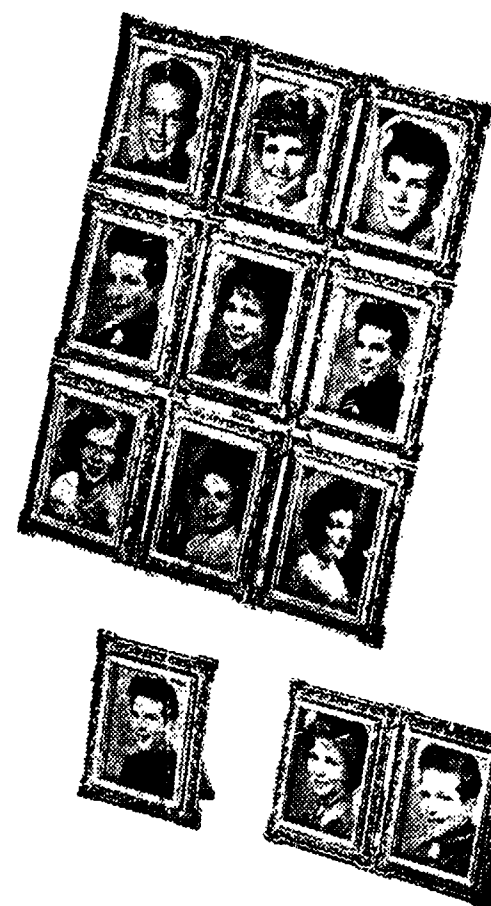

The Grosse Pointe Chiefs Midget team won its last two league games by beating Berkley 4-1 and Algonac 17-1. Having lost one game to Royal Oak 7-2, the Chiefs now have a 3-1 win loss record for the season.

The approaching battle for the Southeast Michigan Midget Title appears to be between Royal Oak and Grosse Pointe. Grosse Pointe, a strong team with excellent goal tending by Bill Noecken and Bill Bockstanz, will play Royal Oak three more times before the season ends.

People who stop to argue seldom have time enough left to accomplish anything.

Kresges Donate Eye Institute

A grant of $1 million toward construction of a new eye institute building was accepted by the Wayne State University Board of Governors at their monthly meeting on Thursday, November 19. Donor of the gift was the Kresge Foundation.

The new building, which will be constructed in connection with Harper Hospital, will be called "The Kresge Eye Institute of Wayne State University." It will be coordinated with the major construction program in the University Medical Campus. Planning is under way but no definite date has been set for ground-breaking.

Terms of the grant call for Wayne State to provide equal matching funds.

Currently, the Kresge Foundation provides support for the Kresge Eye Institute as an establishment separate from Wayne's School of Medicine. The Institute, however, has had a long term affiliation with the School of Medicine prior to announcement of the grant.

Stanley S. Kresge, 74 Arden Park, president of the Kresge Foundation, said: "We now feel that the maturity, professional success and national recognition of the Institute not only permit but require a transfer of its financial responsibilities to others than ourselves. It is natural for Wayne to assume these responsibilities."

Dr. Ernest Gardner, dean of the School of Medicine, said the Kresge grant will "make possible the construction of a facility of the highest quality which will house the educational and research activities of a department of ophthalmology that has already achieved national and international recognition."

He further emphasized the "extremely important role of private foundations, such as the Kresge Foundation, in initiating and supporting programs so vital to the health needs of the country."

In announcing the grant, the Kresge Foundation cited Dr. Albert Ruedemann, Sr., 1018 Three Mile Drive, Grosse Pointe, professor and chairman of the department of ophthalmology at the School of Medicine, for the success of the Institute to date.

"The Foundation," said Kresge, "is exceedingly proud of the accomplishments of the Kresge Eye Institute. In our opinion its work has been done superlatively well and this we feel, in major measure, derives from the devoted direction and supervision given by Dr. Ruedemann to the Institute." Dr. Ruedemann will continue to direct the Institute after completion of the new building.

Thief Ransacks GP Park Home

A burglar forcibly entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Klefoth, 962 Barrington road, during a five-hour absence of the family, on Wednesday, November 25, and completely ransacked the house.

Park police disclosed that entry into the house was made through a dining room door at the rear of the house. The burglar took $1,354 worth of items, including jewelry, and $235 in cash.

According to information released by Police Chief Arthur Louwers, the Klefoths left their home at 4:20 p.m. and returned at about 9:35 p.m. When they discovered the burglary, they called police.

The thief took a portable television set, a 35MM camera, a lady's 17-jewel wrist watch, plus other lady's wrist watches, a one and a half-carat lady's diamond ring, and miscellaneous jewelry, and the money.

The Klefoths are taking further inventory to determine if anything else has been taken, the chief said.

The case has been assigned to Det. James LaPratt, the chief said.

Library Offers Puppet Show

The Children's Department of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will present a Puppet Show for all children at the Central Library on Saturday, December 12.

There will be two performances, one at 11 a.m. and one at 2 p.m.

The Berry Puppets of Huntington Woods will feature two children's classics, "The Lion and the Mouse," and "The Shoemaker and the Elves."

Since Christmas is a time of giving, the Grosse Pointe Public Library feels that this is an appropriate gift to its young patrons.

Adults might wish to visit any one of the three libraries, to get suggestions for Christmas giving.

In the Central Library's Adult Room there are many editions of the timeless and ageless books, which are kept alive for today's children.

Pleasant, Easy Shopping

With the Christmas shopping season accelerating into full, frantic gallop, it seems appropriate to put in a plug for the Pointe merchants and business establishments which do so much for the community all through the year.

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association and the separate organizations formed in the various shopping centers are constantly engrossed with movements and plans to make doing business at home more attractive for the residents. In their never-ending competition with the huge shopping centers and the gigantic emporiums of Downtown Detroit, the goal is always to make things easier and more pleasant for the customer. Selections of merchandise and quality of the stock are continually broadened and improved. Store owners are not only proud of the services they provide, but also of the properties in which they conduct their business. Every effort is made to keep their buildings not only conveniently arranged for shopping, but esthetically attractive to the customer.

Seasonal decorations such as those now making our business areas more beautiful, and landscaping of many buildings make local shopping more pleasing. The municipal authorities cooperate by helping provide and maintain adequate parking areas, keeping them clean, and free of snow in the winter, and often by making contributions toward major improvements such as tree planting. Once again, several of the Pointes are giving the shoppers an additional Christmas present in the form of free parking in normally metered areas during the holiday season.

It would be difficult to list many items that cannot be found right here. From handkerchiefs to automobiles, the Pointe has everything, in infinite variety. It would be hard to find conditions elsewhere, half as pleasant as those afforded local residents armed with Christmas gift lists.

Give Pointe merchants a break this year. They are your neighbors and your friends. They pay a goodly share of the taxes which keep this community one of the most desirable in the nation. They sponsor youth activities, donate to our charities, contribute time and effort to every worthwhile movement. They constitute a fine team. Let's place our money on them.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar:

As you know, the 1964 United Foundation Torch Drive was the most successful fund-raising campaign in our history. Its success, once again, underscores the power of united community action. In the three-county community which comprises the Torch Drive area more than 1,500,000 people gave and more than 150,000 worked as volunteers.

This year, of course, due to the strike at our major newspapers, we had to rely more heavily than ever on community and suburban newspapers to carry the Torch Drive message to workers and contributors alike. Once more the success of the drive demonstrates how enthusiastically you supported the United Foundation in its objectives.

Please accept our sincere congratulations for the job that you did and our warmest thanks for your cooperation throughout the year.

Sincerely yours,
John W. Fisher,
Public Relations
Director

Dear Sir:

In your issue of November 19th, you improperly stated that the Taxpayers' Information Committee characterized the Unitarian Church property as unsaleable. I enclose the brochure of the Committee, which stated as follows:

"The need for a new Municipal Garage at a cost of $100,000 arise from the fact that the City traded the saleable site of its Municipal Garage at Maumee and Neff for a piece of vacant land which city officials state is unsaleable unless an adjoining piece can be acquired making a subdivision possible."

The authority for the above quoted language was an article that you yourself carried some time before and quoted a City official or advisor to the above effect.

Very truly yours,
John H. Brennan

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

How is your Christmas shopping progressing? We, of course, would like to have you consider books as a possibility for that difficult or discriminating friend or relative.

With this in mind, our Library has compiled a list of recent books to recommend for Christmas buying. They are all available for circulation at our three libraries.

One fine novel of this compilation is Louis Auchincloss' THE RECTOR OF JUSTIN, tops on the Best Seller List, giving a fascinating character study of a complex private school headmaster. If you are a mystery buff, you will eagerly grasp the new Agatha Christie opus, THE CLOCKS, wherein Colin Lamb, assisted by Hercule Poirot, solves the case of the corpse in a blind woman's house. Another whodunit with a provocative title is FRIDAY THE RABBI SLEPT LATE, by Harry Kemelman. Here a Rabbi is forced to turn detective, aided by his logical Talmudic training.

Again I must mention Poppy Cannon's FROZEN-FOODS COOKBOOK for the gal who would love a cookbook in her Christmas stocking. This contains much useful information about storing and cooking frozen foods, as well as recipes for gourmet meals.

In the field of biography and the motion picture world we can offer Charlie Chaplin's MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY, an entertaining flashback of the early years of his outstanding career. HAROLD LLOYD'S WORLD OF COMEDY, by William Cahn presents a comparison of Lloyd's superb pantomime to the methods of other greats such as Chaplin.

Dag Hammarskjöld's MARKINGS is fine, sensitive, poetic, revealing a man who married the active life as well as the contemplative. In a religious vein, there is Werner Keller's THE BIBLE AS HISTORY IN PICTURES, containing a fascinating text and an extensive collection of photographs illustrating 4,000 years of history. Emily Kimbrough has a new volume out—FOREVER OLD, FOREVER NEW. Emily revisits her favorite foreign country and shares her experiences with everybody who reads the book. Or perhaps you would like John Kieran's NOT UNDER OATH. Here the noted reporter and radio emcee recalls his long, successful career in mass media.

Back in the biography field again we come up with Douglas MacArthur's REMINISCENCES. This is a tremendously readable book of permanent historical interest, covering the General's life from his earliest memories to his recall from Korea. Quite in another direction is Jean-Paul Sartre's THE WORDS, an autobiography covering the first twelve years of his life. This is quite a departure from the usual existentialist philosophical works of this author; even the style is different—short and crisp.

EARLY AMERICAN FURNITURE by James O'Neill gives instructions for making this type of furniture, principally the rugged pieces of the colonial period. In another category we have FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS THROUGH THE YEAR by Patricia Roberts. This book is planned so that in any month of the year one can get quick information about flowers that are likely to be available from the florist or in the garden.

With Civil Rights in the foreground, it is only natural that we would include at least one book in the field. CRISIS IN BLACK AND WHITE by Charles Silberman is an historically acute and thoughtful discussion of the "American dilemma."

One more subject—music. AN AMATEUR AT THE KEYBOARD by Peter Yates constitutes a discussion for all music lovers on the history of keyboard music, technicalities, instruments, amateur standing, etc.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

A Special Report

Our new ten-page special report is a concise study of Standard Oil of California, one of the major international oil companies. It lists ten fundamental reasons why we believe there will be a resurgence in this company's earnings.

In our opinion, the greatly enhanced strength and growth potential of California Standard has not been fully recognized by the securities market. We recommend the company's common stock for both long-term capital appreciation and income. For a free copy of the new Report, write or call for GP 19.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The roster of pre-Christmas festivities, this year in The Pointe, positively GLITTERS!

There is a Golden Ball, the Junior League of Detroit, Inc.'s 50th Anniversary celebration. There is a White Christmas Ball, the shimmering, tinsel-sparkling dance sponsored annually by friends of the Sisters of St. John Hospital.

There are private parties, debuts, brunches and receptions to come. (Speaking of brunch-receptions, the party Dr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Diebel, of Wellington place, hosted last Sunday at the Country Club, honoring their son and daughter-in-law, the N. Donald Diebels, of Kalamazoo, was a wonderful example of the genre. The senior Diebels invited hundreds of their friends to meet the young couple. Mrs. N. Donald Diebel's parents, the Francis X. Heidrichs, flew up from their home in Winter Park, Fla., for the affair, and everyone had a marvelous time, including the junior Mrs. Diebel, who is quite used to crowds—she is the eldest of ELEVEN children.)

In the still-to-be-enjoyed department are a trio of activities, all scheduled before Christmas Day: A Concert, a "Walk," and a Commodore's Ball.

Yale Glee Club Coming

A Major Event for alumni, friends and young ladies, home from colleges for Christmas vacations, is the appearance of the Yale Glee Club.

This world-famous group visits our area only once in every four or five years. It is scheduled to appear at Parcels Junior High School Auditorium Wednesday, December 23, at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Colonel (retired) and Mrs. George T. Petersen of Cook road and attended Madison College in Harrisonburg, Va. Colonel Petersen has previously served as Chief of Research and Development at the Detroit Arsenal. He met General Brown on a previous assignment to the Pentagon.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore T. Bachman of Huntington road. After graduating from West Point in June, Lieutenant Bachman was sent to Fort Benning, Ga., to attend the Ranger School and the Airborne School.

Their marriage in the Fort Wayne Chapel may be the last formal military wedding performed here in the 122-year history of the post. Now called U. S. Army Support Detachment, Detroit, Fort Wayne is a sub-post of Fort Sheridan, Ill., and is undergoing a series of unit phase-out processes. It is expected that by late 1965 only an induction center, recruiting office, and first aid station will remain.

In the ceremony the bride carried white roses with orchids in the center of the bouquet, and wore a long-sleeved, street-length gown of white lace. She wore a short veil.

Miss Karen Edwina Petersen, sister of the bride, came from San Francisco, Calif., to be maid of honor. Another sister, Miss Teresa Jen Petersen of Grosse Pointe Woods, was bridesmaid. Miss Betsy S. Doerr, niece of the bridegroom, came from Pittsburgh, Pa., to be junior bridesmaid.

First Lieutenant (Reserve) David H. Taylor, United States Air Force, of Cincinnati, O., was best man.

The reception was held at the Fort Wayne Officers Club for approximately 50 friends and relatives. Acting host was Colonel Jasper S. Moore, Commander of Fort Wayne.

Following a honeymoon trip to Toledo, O., the area in which Lieutenant Bachman grew up, the couple will have a three-year overseas assignment to look forward to. Currently on a 23-day leave, Lieutenant Bachman will report to Fulda, Germany, for assignment to the 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment as a platoon leader by December 9. His wife will join him later.

Alencon Lace Accents Bride's Peau de Soie Wedding Gown; Pair Traveling in East; to Make Home in Detroit

A breakfast reception at The Whittier Hotel followed the Saturday wedding of Sharon Lee Rabaut and David Lee VanLokeren.

The pair exchanged marriage vows at a 12 o'clock Nuptial Mass in St. Clare de Montefalco Church. Reverend Edward Sweeney, O.S.A., officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Charles P. Rabaut, of Cadieux road, and the late Mr. Rabaut, wore a white peau de soie sheath trimmed with Alencon lace. The scoop neckline of her fitted bodice was outlined in lace, and more lace appliques accented her long, pointed sleeves.

Her detachable, Cathedral length Watteau train also featured Alencon lace trimming, and a self bow defined the front waistline of her gown.

She wore a white mantilla veil, edged in Alencon lace, and carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature elegance carnations, stephanotis, white orchids and ivy. She was given in marriage by her brother, Louis A. Rabaut.

In floor length frocks of cranberry crepe, styled with bell sleeves and Empire waistlines, were the attendants, maid of honor Veronica Mutschall, bridesmaids Patricia Brennan and Elaine Gravelle, and junior bridesmaid Mary Alice VanLokeren, sister of the bridegroom.

Their headpieces were matching hats of rose crepe. They carried ivy balls accented with miniature elegance carnations and stephanotis.

Michael VanLokeren served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. George M. VanLokeren, of Grand Marais boulevard.

Guests were seated by Thomas Herman, John Fannon, III, Kerry Schaffner and Joseph Cobb.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rabaut chose an aqua and gold brocade sheath, with a matching coat and hat. Mrs. VanLokeren wore a pink brocade ensemble, with matching accessories.

Both mothers chose white orchid corsages.

When they return from a motor trip in the East, the new-loueds will make their home in Detroit.

Auditions Scheduled By Music Foundations

A final reminder to singers interested in the Grinnell Foundation of Music and Metropolitan Opera National Council awards was issued by the scholarship committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association.

Completed applications had to be returned before December 1 to Mrs. Sam B. Williams, audition chairman, Ford Auditorium, Detroit 48226.

First auditions will be held in the Masonic Temple, Detroit, Saturday, December 5. Semi-finalists will audition again on December 7, with the final auditions taking place on February 11, 1965.

All awards are to encourage young singers in their careers, especially in the advanced study of voice and in opera technique.

People find that no search warrant is necessary in looking for trouble or finding fault.

Some call it luck, but it's usually the man with the most push who get the most pull.

Meeting Slated By Garden Club

The Christmas Meeting of The Garden Club of Michigan will be held next Thursday, December 10, at 3:30 o'clock, at the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Richard H. Webber.

To close the afternoon activities, the executive board will have charge of the Christmas Tea which will be served in the church lounge. The nursery will be open.

Time invested in building friendship is the best security. The smallest tidbit of information will be over-estimated if given confidentially.

Zeta Tau Alpha Party Tuesday

Christmas Party Planned By Women's Aquatic Club

The Woman's Aquatic Club will hold its annual Christmas Party at 7 o'clock at the Women's City Club pool, for the children of members and their friends, on Tuesday, December 8. Of course Santa will be there with a bag full of presents for the small fry.

Over-confidence is a firm belief that eventually the impossible is going to happen.

A man can have his own way if he's willing to pay the price.

College Club To Hold Party

College Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas Party on Friday, December 11 at 8 p.m.

This year, in lieu of the usual inter-member gift exchange, College Women will be decorating a "Money-Tree" to benefit their "adopted children" the wards of the Juvenile Court. These youngsters, underprivileged youngsters were "adopted" by this organization last year when they became recipients of the College Women's Club Philanthropic Fund.

In addition to the monetary contribution, the Club has set up a continuing clothing drive to which members donate used items throughout the year. These articles are forwarded to social workers affiliated with the Juvenile Court and serve as a sort of "stockpile" upon which they can draw to meet the emergency needs of the wards of the court.

Guests of honor at the Christmas party will be Miss Mary Fitzgerald and Miss Loretta Roche, social workers at Juvenile Court, who will receive the "Money-Tree" on behalf of the children. They will use its "decorations" to purchase gifts to bring a bit of Christmas joy and love into the lives of these wards of Juvenile Court.

Mrs. Ludwig Hellborn, activities director, plans a delightful surprise entertainment program and, for a touch of added fun, members are to exchange "white-elephant" gifts.

The party will be held in the Devonshire road home of Mrs. William Klenk, hostess, who will be assisted by Mrs. A. G. Brice, Mrs. Albert Conkey, Mrs. Glenn Curtis, Mrs. William Innes and Miss Emily Woodruff. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Hellborn and Mrs. Kenneth Paton.

Mathews-Hassel Vows Exchanged

Newlyweds Travel to Chicago after Candlelight Service Saturday, in St. Columba Episcopal Church; to Live in Livonia

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the Saturday wedding of Judith Elizabeth Hassel and Charles Cordell Mathews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elmer Hassel, of Roland road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mathews, of Cleveland Heights, O., and Deerfield Beach, Fla.

The Reverend Robert J. Bickley officiated at the candlelight ceremony in St. Columba Episcopal Church, Detroit.

For her marriage, the former Miss Hassel chose a gown of white embroidered pizante, styled with a Sabrina neckline and a wide, set-in waistband of solid pizante.

Her soft, straight skirt was accented by a detachable train of solid pizante with an embroidered panel. An open circle of matching embroidered pizante caught her full, tiered veil of imported silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of white gardenias.

In floor length gowns of sapphire blue peau de suede, fashioned with set-in Empire waistbands and soft, straight skirts, were the attendants, matron of honor Mrs. Richard Zuehlke, of Ann Arbor, and bridesmaids Merry Heyd, the bride's cousin; Ann Ware, Mrs. William Wet-zel, of Cleveland, O., sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Martin Hutchinson, of Warren, Mich., and Mrs. William Skinner, of Muncie, Ind.

Their headpieces were small, peaked crowns of blue peau de suede, with short, scalloped veils. They carried shattered white carnations.

William Wetzel served as his brother-in-law's best man. Ushers were Larry Carl Hassel, the bride's brother; William Heyd, III, the bride's cousin; William Hershey, James Siml and Richard Karpinski.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length sheath of turquoise brocade, while the bridegroom's mother's gown was fashioned of Dior blue chiffon. Both mothers pinned orchids to their handbags.

For traveling to Chicago, the bride donned a winter-white silk suit, trimmed with mink, and patent accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Livonia.

Dance Planned For Single Set

A pre-holiday dance will be held for Grosse Pointe's young single set and their guests in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road, Friday evening, December 4, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Guests are asked to be a little more dressy than usual. Young ladies are asked to wear cocktail dresses and young men dark suits only.

The Ballroom will already be partially decorated for Christmas for this occasion and the twinkling lights and greens will add to the festive air.

Roston Clark will play for dancing through the evening and at intermission there will be carol singing around the Steinway.

Refreshments will feature an English Wassail Bowl and they will be served at candlelit tables overlooking the lake and formal gardens.

Johnson-Bullens Vows Repeated

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday, in the Congregational Church, Groveland, Mass., Robert Roy Johnson claimed Nancy Jane Bullens as his bride.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sircom Bullens, of West Newbury, Mass., and Kennebunkport, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe Johnson, of Berkshire road.

Reverend Clarence W. Fuller, of Melrose, Mass., officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the Haverhill Country Club, Haverhill, Mass.

The bride wore a gown of white brocade, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and Chapel length train. Her silk illusion veil fell from a brocade pillbox, and she carried white orchids with stephanotis.

Cynthia Bullens served as her sister's maid of honor, in a floor length gown of waltz blue satin, with a Dior bow headpiece. Her flowers were yellow chrysanthemums and sweetheart roses.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Jane Johnson, the bridegroom's sister; Mrs. Richard A. Johnson, the bridegroom's sister-in-law; Janet Multer, of Binghamton, N.Y.; Barbara Bragdon, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Gail Sullivan and Mrs. David D. Brown, of Melrose, Mass. They carried yellow and rust chrysanthemums.

Richard A. Johnson was best man for his brother. In the usher corps were Richard S. Bullens, Jr., brother of the bride; John L. Zabriskie, Jr., of Rochester, N.Y.; J. MacGregor Dodds, Edward S. Piggins, Jr., Owen F. Clarke, Jr., of Shaker Heights, O., and E. MacIntosh Wiener, of Bronxville, N.Y.

The bride's sisters, Deborah and Suzanne Bullens, were flower girls.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bullens chose a powder blue, floor length brocade gown. Mrs. Johnson's gown was fashioned of gold crepe.

Mrs. Moffett Speaks Vows

Mrs. William N. Moffett, of The River House, and Dr. J. Marion Sutherland, of Detroit, exchanged marriage vows Friday, in Barbour Chapel of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The ceremony was followed by supper at the home of the former Mrs. Moffett's daughter and son-in-law, the Arthur W. Kleinschmidt, Jr., of Lochmoor boulevard.

Church Women Plan Traditional Xmas Tea

Chamber Singers to Perform at Annual Party
Sponsored by Ladies of Grosse Pointe
Memorial Church

Highlighting the Christmas season at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will be the annual Women's Association Christmas Tea on Tuesday, December 8, at 1:30 o'clock.

Providing a musical program for the festivities will be the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers, under the direction of Donald Simmons and accompanied by Jerry Hughes.

The singers, for the most part amateur musicians, have made frequent appearances with the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, church groups and clubs.

Members of the Chamber Singers are: Barbara Bailey, Leonard Bartos, King Clifford, William Gard, Sue Hughes, Jerry Hughes, Lois Johnson, Richard Johns, Alec Suezek, Patricia Nelson, Earl Nelson, Patricia Simmons, Delores Shaheen, Nancy Williams and Jean Zeck. Mrs.

Dr. Simmons, founder and conductor of the Chamber Singers, teaches vocal and general music at Parcels Junior High School. Since 1957 he has served as conductor of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, and he was instrumental in the formation of the Grosse Pointe Summer Chorus.

Devotions, preceding the musical program, will be given by Mrs. Frank Sladen. Setting the atmosphere for the afternoon will be Mrs. Ben L. Tallman, who will provide an organ prelude.

Association president Mrs. Walter Pattee has appointed Mrs. Frank Lister and Mrs. Philip L. Ash as co-chairmen of the tea, an event which climaxes a busy year of study and service for the women of Memorial Church.

Alternating at the festively decorated tea tables will be the new Circle leaders for 1965. Supplying delectable items for the tables will be Mrs. Paul R. Dumke, refreshments chairman, with the capable assistance of Mrs. Harold W. Quackenbush, co-chairman.

Serving on their committee will be Mrs. Bill O. Brink, Mrs. Chester M. Brown, Mrs. Edward R. Bunn, Mrs. J. Ross Bush,

Judith Pender Weds Dr. Olson

Judith Kathleen Pender, of Trenton, and Dr. Lyle Conway Olson, of Grosse Ile, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, in Grosse Ile Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Richard Milford officiated at the afternoon ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clifton A. Warner, of Nottingham road, Detroit, and the late Richard Wilson Pender, of Grosse Pointe. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Waldo Olson, of Ludington, Mich.

For her marriage, the former Miss Pender chose a Princess line gown of crystal white lace with Alençon lace accents. Her skirt swept to a full, removable chapel train.

A Dior bow, styled with a jeweled lace forehead petal, caught her silk illusion veil, and she carried a crescent-shaped arrangement of white rosebuds.

Matron of honor Mrs. Scott Lewis wore a floor length sheath of avocado green velvet and carried bronze mums. Her headpiece was a matching green whimsy veil.

Russel A. Olson served as his brother's best man. Ushering were Herbert Olson, another brother; Dr. Frank Sprague, Richard Krusell and Scott Lewis.

A reception at the Grosse Ile Yacht Club followed the ceremony. Mrs. Warner greeted her guests, wearing a sapphire blue gown with matching accessories and a corsage fashioned of pale lavender orchids.

Mrs. Olson wore a beige lace dress with matching jacket and accessories, and a corsage of pale, yellow-green orchids.

When they return from Mexico, the newlyweds will make their home in Grosse Ile.

One Last Mart For Xmas Gifts

A brand new cooperative Grosse Pointe effort known as the 1964 Community Christmas Mart will take place in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Ballroom Thursday, December 17, from 10 until 5 o'clock.

Jointly sponsored by the Center and many Grosse Pointe churches, hospitals, charitable and non-profit organizations, it will offer busy Grosse Pointers a chance to complete their Christmas gift lists in one stop shopping.

The giving will be two-fold and in the true meaning of Christmas, since all proceeds derived from sales will go to the support of church projects and into the coffers of charitable organizations.

If you missed a particular fair or want repeat items of something you purchased at any of the Christmas fairs this fall the chances are you will find the display and items at the Center on the 17th.

Mrs. Samuel C. Laux, Mart chairman has given us a partial list of organizations participating in the mart and some of the gift items to be found there.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will preview some of the items to be shown at their bi-annual Christmas Fair next fall, such as Barbie clothes for dolls, candle centerpieces and old fashioned candy jars.

The Wesleyan College group will offer a wide and unusual assortment of Christmas wrapping paper—something one invariably runs short on.

The Council for Better Literature For Youth will offer Children's classics in paper bound volumes. The Northeast Child Guidance Clinic will also participate.

In all, this will be a colorful panorama of gifts supporting non-profit institutions including in addition to those already mentioned Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, St. Michaels Episcopal Church, Christ the King Lutheran Church, The Mothers Health and Education Council, Cottage Hospital Gift Shop, Smith College Alumnae, and many others.

45 S. DUVAL —

This one should head your list if you must have four bedrooms and desire the quiet of a limited access circle street. If you want prime location and a newer house, with forced air heat and a large kitchen with all the trimmings; if your family must have that additional room on the first floor, besides the living room and separate dining room; if you demand four bedrooms, and would like the convenience of an attached garage; if you want to move right in your next house which comes complete with good carpeting and draperies throughout... better see this one... if you like the low tag of $49,000.

TRY THIS ONE for size if you long for a home with real elbow room. Mammoth entrance foyer with living, dining and library rooms all leading from it. See what a Chinese fortune can do when it is spent on turning a kitchen inside out. Two first floor lavs and a half dozen baths scattered around and about the seven bedrooms. For $68,000 you cannot buy or duplicate in this prime location in the Farms.

A WORD to the wives... we'd advise you to get the man in your life to join you in seeing this one before it's sold. In the Farms on a generous sized lot with ample room for the kids and the dog. Five family bedrooms and two more for stay-in-help. Baths galore and so much more... better call now!

THIS LARGER English house on 31shop Road might very well be the ideal answer for the family who must have a considerable elbow room. For example, there are six bedrooms and four baths on the second floor, and stairs to storage rooms and an additional third floor bedroom. There are two additional rooms on the first floor besides the living room and dining room. The low price of $42,900 makes this the "most house for the money" buy in Grosse Pointe.

RAMBLE ABOUT in the luxury of gigantic rooms with fireplaces greeting you in most of the bedrooms and in living room, and dining room. This is truly one of the Pointe's fine houses. Immense foyer and a magnificent staircase leads up to five family bedrooms each with its own bath. Plenty of additional rooms for help or family, if required. Ready and waiting to be appreciated and sold.

PAMPERED OVER by its particular owner, and looks every inch a prima donna. This contemporary is in the Deeplands area. Could be that this is that small house with the large rooms you've been seeking? All three bedrooms have their own bath and there is a cozy den which also opens onto a secluded patio.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision and promptness.

who, where and whatnot

Combining her artistic talents with a free enterprise flair... young Bonnie Denier, 11-year-old daughter of the John Deniers, of Pine court, has gone into business for herself—and her "products" are in such demand her mother has had to ration the young lady's orders! Bonnie makes THE MOST delightful place cards, using felt cut-outs and freehand drawings to fashion tiny tableaux. We particularly liked two Thanksgiving scenes: An Indian with a tomahawk, chasing a turkey, and a Pilgrim crouched, gun in hand, behind a bush, watching HIS Thanksgiving dinner move slowly into range. We were captivated by a felt Mayflower, its decks awash with colored-pencil Pilgrims... by a felt family, father and son dressed in brown, mother and daughter in grey... by a bright red Santa Claus with a fuzzy, snow-white beard. Miss Denier does all the work herself, cutting, pasting, drawing, thinking up designs—even packaging, in neat envelopes, with one place card on the outside of each envelope, the artist-manufacturer's "business card," giving her name and telephone number, TUxedo 1-4722... Bonnie obviously has a gift for advertising, too...

First personal name... in the big, new Detroit East Side City Directory, just off the presses, belongs to Pointer Nicholas S. Aagesen, of Lincoln road (for dictionary-directory-atlas browsing addicts, a cursory survey of the new Directory's listings reveals such picturesque surnames as Pigeon, Birdseye and Thunderbird... Coldsnow, Hailstone and Sunshine... Blacksmith, Hat-maker and Shoebottom... Goldring, Greengrass and Silvertooth... Guitar, Piano and Piccolo... Sugar, Younglove and Honeybuss).

With Christmas... only a hair's breadth away, Sally Lenahan, of Neff road, regrettably banished a vision of palm trees and pink sand beaches, accepted instead a check for $600 from the Dad's Club of Grosse Pointe Woods' Spartan Football Team. Sally, first-place winner in a contest sponsored by the Dad's Club, had her choice between a trip to Bermuda and the cash... The check was presented to her by Bob Warner, Dad's Club president, and J. C. Poole, financial chairman.

A group of seventh and eighth grade students... have formed the Junior Volunteers of Grosse Pointe to aid the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc., Wayne County Chapter, and are currently selling Christmas cards to benefit MDA. This is the first group of its kind, and is sponsored by Miss Judith Buckley, who teaches English and supervises Volunteers' weekly meetings in Pierce Junior High School. Officers of the organization include Rick Rubin, president... Karen Burnett, first vice-president... Bill Stevenson, Liz Babcock and Frankie Ashton, vice-presidents all... Paula Gordon and Brian Bott, recording secretary and assistant recording secretary, respectively... Dick Marshall, corresponding secretary... Tom Present, telephone secretary... and Mary Jane Adamo, endowment chairman. PILFERINGS Conservative: A statesman who is enamored of existing evils, as distinguished from the Liberal, who wishes to replace them with others.

—Ambrose Bierce

An Englishman came to the United States for a visit, liked the country and decided to stay. He took out citizenship papers, settling down in a typical suburban ranch-house to enjoy his new life.

Some years passed. The Englishman, by now thoroughly acclimatized, was pleased to receive a visitor, a member of his family who flew in from London on a short vacation.

But the Londoner kept harping on his host's "defection."

"I don't understand it!" he insisted. "What do you GAIN by becoming a U.S. citizen?"

The English-American smiled. "Well," he replied, "for one thing: I win the American Revolution."

Every new opinion, at its starting, is precisely in a minority of one.

—Thomas Carlyle

An American missionary and his family were returning from the former French Camerouns, West Africa. So that the children would not look conspicuous in homemade, native clothes, the mother outfitted them in the latest fashion from a mail-order catalogue. But they soon betrayed their background.

As the family walked along a street in Paris, a stopover on their homeward journey, the parents realized that everyone was staring at them. Turning around, they discovered that the two little ones who trailed behind were casually walking along—carrying their suitcases on their heads!

—Reader's Digest

"My country, right or wrong," is a thing that no patriot would think of saving except in a desperate case. It is like saying, "My mother, drunk or sober."

—G. K. Chesterton

Power does not corrupt men; fools, however, if they get into a position of power, corrupt power.

Branch YWCAs Set Festivities

Christmas comes to the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit this weekend. Three of its branches—Downtown, Northwest and Oakland—will celebrate the traditional hanging of the greens and Northern Branch will hold its annual World Festival.

"Wings Around the World" is the theme of the World Festival at Northern YW, 13130 Woodward Avenue, Friday and Saturday, December 4 and 5. From 5 to 10 p.m. each day, visitors to the festival will be treated to international foods, have an opportunity to purchase gifts from foreign countries at a colorful bazaar booths, and will see expert swimmers in a synchronized swim show.

The other three Christmas programs are scheduled for Sunday afternoon, December 6.

At Northwest Branch YW, 25940 Grand River, from 3 to 5 p.m., members of the branch will follow their tradition of lighting the Yule log and singing Christmas carols. A travelogue will be shown and Santa Claus will arrive with a bag of goodies for the children.

Santa will also visit the Downtown YW, 2230 Witherell Street, on the same afternoon when that branch holds its Christmas party beginning at 3

CARL A. ERICKSON, OF AUDUBON ROAD

By Janet Mueller

"Most people in Grosse Pointe have no idea of conditions in Detroit's Inner City. My teachers must be especially good; my youngsters have no background, no training, so their teachers must be a little bit of everything..."

The speaker is Carl A. Erickson, resident of Grosse Pointe, Principal of Bishop Elementary School in Detroit's Eastern Market area.

Principal Erickson does not run his school as Grosse Pointe schools are run. "I don't know how many toothaches I treat a day," he says. He keeps cotton batting, oil of cloves and other emergency toothache remedies in his office.

He is a part-time doctor, too, used to cleansing surface infections before driving his young "patients" home or to the Free Clinic at Receiving Hospital.

He maintains an emergency clothing supply. ("I am always begging used clothes from friends"), and an emergency jar. ("A hungry child is a poor student").

Bishop is a slum school, a dying school in a dying area. It is overcrowded. From a junior high school serving 1,600 pupils, it has become an elementary school, with an enrollment of approximately 600.

Will Be Swallowed "Urban Renewal" is more than a phrase at Bishop: It means the new Vernor Expressway, which will swallow Bishop up—"Then we'll move elsewhere," says the Principal.

In the interim, Bishop exists and trains and educates on the same site as the original Bishop School, which opened its doors in 1857.

The curriculum at Bishop is the same as that in all Detroit Schools for grades one through six. But at Bishop, there are 15 rooms of mentally retarded.

There is a Junior Special B Unit, for boys and girls ages 12 to 14, with average IQ's of 70 or below.

There is a Senior Special B Unit, for boys and girls over 14, with average IQ's of 70 or below.

There is a Junior Ungraded Unit, for emotionally disturbed youngsters up to age 12, and a Health Conservation Unit for children with heart or rheumatic conditions who must rest during the day.

There is a Partially Seeing Group... and Bishop will soon house Trainable Centers for children with IQ's of 50 or below.

Have Wonderful Teachers These "special" situations necessitate "special" teachers, and Principal Erickson would not hesitatingly back his teachers against any in the country.

He cites Mrs. Gwendolyn Darnell, chosen Teacher of the Month for October by "The Instructor" magazine, who works with maladjusted boys ages seven through 12 at Bishop.

The majority of Bishop's teachers...

p.m. A one-act play, "Where Love Is," will be presented by the Warren Methodist Players.

On the same day from 3 to 4:30 p.m. at Oakland YW, 839 Crooks road, Clawson, members of the children's ballet class will dance for their parents and friends, and Miss Eva Moore, 2310 Rochester road, Royal Oak, will read her Christmas story, "The Baby."

The other two YWCA branches will hold their Christmas parties later in the month. At Macomb YW, 15800 Ten Mile road, East Detroit, from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, December 12, members of the branch will hear a dramatic reading of a Christmas story, see a demonstration of American Indian dances by boys from the YMCA's Indian Guides and a presentation by the children's ballet class.

A "Family Night" at Downriver Branch YW, 3211 Fort Street, Wyandotte, will mark the Christmas season December 18 with the Orpheus Club of Wyandotte singing carols.

chers are critics for Wayne State University's; every Wednesday, 15 WSU student teachers come to Bishop to acquaint themselves with the workings of an elementary school; two WSU students currently practice teaching in the building.

"We have a WONDERFUL feeling in our school," Carl Erickson states. Substitute teachers sometimes cringe inwardly when they first enter Bishop's doors—they have heard tales of teaching in the Inner City—but usually, says the Principal, they want to come back again: "Youngsters in better neighborhoods are better prepared. There is not so much challenge for the teacher."

He's Kind But Firm In matters of discipline, Carl Erickson is kind but firm, not averse to using corporal punishment when the situation warrants it—"That's not very often"—and backs his teachers "100 per cent."

He has confiscated no knives this year... but in past years, when he was teaching behavior problem boys, he confiscated over 100 weapons.

Many of his students come from the Brewster Housing Project across the Chrysler Expressway, and Mr. Erickson can see the effects of clean, new buildings in his pupils.

"When a youngster is ill, I generally will take him home," he explains. "When I see some of the 'homes,' I marvel that the children are as good as they are."

Carl Erickson is not a cock-eyed optimist; he believes there will always be hard-core poverty pockets, but he can see where education is paying off. He places little faith in programs aimed at adults, but is convinced "we CAN do something with the youngsters."

Many of his former pupils, boys and girls from hard-core poverty homes, are now teachers, lawyers, librarians, mailmen, responsible, producing citizens.

A few weeks ago, he was at a luncheon, seated next to an attractive young woman who asked, "Mr. Erickson, don't you remember me?"

Had Spanked Husband He thought, placed her as one of his former "Safety Girls," and asked what she was doing now. She was a teacher, she explained, and her husband was a lawyer—"You may have forgotten him, but he'll never forget you," Mr. Erickson; you spanked him!

Carl Erickson has been teaching for 33 years, working in the area immediately east of the Woodward since 1943. Principal of Russell School until it was abandoned and turned over to the Water Board, he moved to Bishop a year and a half ago.

He has often been asked why he does not request a transfer: "I feel I understand the youngsters in that community better than a newcomer would..."

His secret wish is that "someone would endow me with a lot of money, so I could take all the children to camp for the summer."

Like many people born and raised in Northern Michigan, Mr. Erickson has a profound love of the out-of-doors. Born near Ishpeming, he received his first teacher training in Marquette, at Northern State University, (he later earned his Master's degree at Wayne).

His first experience with big cities came when he was a High School student; he visited Detroit and saw Negroes for the first time. "In the Northern Peninsula, there never WERE any Negroes," he explains.

Almost All Negro Today, at Bishop School, the student body is almost exclusively Negro and the staff is predominantly Negro, the Principal is a Swede from the Copper Country, and substantial donations to Mr. Erickson's "larder" come from Jewish parents at the McDowell School, many of whom were graduated from Bishop.

Carl Erickson is interested in art. He collects oil paintings and makes mobiles in his basement, (an example of his handiwork, three wooden birds suspended on slender wires, hangs in his den).

He used to be very active in Cub and Boy Scouts. Son Carl F. Erickson is now in his first year of law school at the University of Michigan, daughter Caryn was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School last June and is presently studying at Michigan State University.

Caryn wants to go into Special Education, to work with the partially seeing or blind, and her father, who thinks the teaching profession is "marvelous," is grateful he has someone eager to follow in his footsteps.

Many Pointe boys know Carl Erickson from Camp Flying Eagle, near Grayling, which he and Mrs. Erickson finally sold in the fall of 1957.

Is Avid Hunter In 1955, the Ericksons built a lodgehome near the camp, where Mr. Erickson, an avid hunter, plans eventually to retire from May through the Deer Season.

Although Louise and the young Ericksons have been to Europe twice, (their most recent visit was last summer, when they traveled to the Scandinavian countries and visited Mrs. Erickson's cousins in Helsinki, Finland), Carl is a Northern Michigan man.

Whenever he can, he goes up to his summer home, hangs one of his prize guns, an English fowling piece with gold and silver barrels, above the mantel, and is monarch of all he surveys.

Gun collecting is his avocation. He has a six-shooter that belonged to Wild Bill Hickok, and a five-shooter, originally the property of a gambler, with the front sight removed so the card-sharp could draw it quickly from his vest.

At Camp Flying Eagle, Mrs. Erickson made a magnificent hand-tooled leather sheath, with wildlife motifs and "Carl F. Erickson" emblazoned on the front, for an 1873 Winchester. Mr. Erickson's gift to his son.

Carl Erickson's grandfather was a whaling ship captain turned miner; Mr. Erickson has the sheet knife that belonged originally to his grandfather. He also has a copper blade which his father found in a stump in the Northern Peninsula. Carl Erickson made a deer-foot handle for the blade, estimated to be between six and seven thousand years old. "If that blade could only talk!" he exclaims.

Mr. Erickson is intrigued by "things," interesting, individual objects with stories behind them, and by people, all of whom he considers interesting all of whom he regards as individuals.

His philosophy is summed up in his "Recipe for Every Day in the Year," The Bishop School Philosophy which occupies a place of honor in the Principal's office:

St. Paul Lakers Drop First Two

By Jim Brunson

The Lakers of St. Paul, defending "Class C" champions, were toppled in their first two contests. On Tuesday, November 24, the Lakers were beaten decisively at Ecorse by the spirited Ecorse teams. The final score was 70-59.

Particularly glaring was the poor Laker defense, which is usually one of the Lakers' strong points. The alert Ecorse team also took advantage of mediocre rebounding by St. Paul and completely dominated the boards. This was not a league game and will have no effect on the standings.

On Friday, November 27, the Lakers suffered their first league defeat in the new season. The final score was 55-35. The Lakers of St. Florian snubbed the usually potent Laker offense by brilliant defensive play.
