Firemen's Petition Invalid

revising the mandatory minimum vacation time to be given them, which according to Michigan statute, voters should have the opportunity to decide on separately.

Neither the city attorney, nor the city clerk has the power to cure these defects in the wording of the proposed ballot question, Slone, informed the department representatives. He was, he said, communicating the city attorney's opinion to them at once, so that members of the Association may have ample opportunity to prepare and circulate new petitions conforming to the requirements of Michigan law, if they so desire.

Right Not Questioned

"No one questions the right of the Fire Fighters Association, or any other group, to initiate such a petition," Slone told the members at the meeting. "However, our city council is strongly of the opinion that questions of wages and hours are administrative matters, and, as such, have no place in the Charter."

The city manager reminded the group that he personally had made arrangements through the fire chief, inviting a committee from the department to meet with members of the council to review grievances and discuss wages, hours and other administrative problems, but that, after a secret ballot, the firemen themselves had declined to attend such a meeting.

The city manager said that he would again welcome a committee from the fire department to review their problems with him and members of the city council.

"Our door is always open to any city employee who wishes to discuss problems affecting his employment," Slone declared.

Would Boost Budget

He said that according to a careful estimate, the proposed reduction in the on-duty hours in vacation time incorporated in the charter amendment offered by the Association, would necessitate the addition of two men to the department and would involve an increase of approximately $15,000 in the Fire Department's annual budget.

Slone said he was very disappointed that a committee from the fire department did not wish to meet with him and members of the council, to discuss grievances, wages, problems and other matters. However, he would be glad to meet with such a committee, and would arrange for such a meeting, upon a written request of a majority of the members of the Fire Department, the city manager added.

Theodore Sachs of Oak Park, an attorney retained by the Park firefighters, revealed that he has filed suit in Wayne County Circuit court on Friday, December 4, on behalf of the Association.

The hearing was held before Judge Joseph Moynihan, Jr., who signed an order to show cause why the charter amendment should not be placed on the ballot. The show cause order was delivered to City Clerk Charles Heise.

The show cause hearing is scheduled for Tuesday, December 22.

Farms Pool Plans Okayed

park's official opening day, May 30, Memorial Day.

The construction of the pool was made possible by Farms voters at the general election on November 3, when they overwhelmingly approved a $500,000 bond to construct the pool and make other improvements at the park.

At a Farms council meeting held on November 16, City Attorney George McKean told the council that additional picnic and recreational area had been made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Vera B. Whitcomb of 383 Lake Shore road, who deeded a 150-foot wide strip of her property between the road and the seawall to the Farms.

Mrs. Whitcomb gave the city the property, including all riparian rights, on behalf of her late husband, James S. Whitcomb. The property is north of the park.

The deeding of the property to the Farms has enabled the city to file an application with the State Conservation Department to purchase lake bottom land to expand the park.

If the State approves the purchase, and when the land is filled, the council authorized that a plaque be erected in this section of the park in honor of Mrs. Whitcomb and her late husband, with the legend that it was donated in memory of Mr. Whitcomb.

The total estimated cost of the new pool and site work is $230,000, and the maintenance cost is estimated at about $15,000 a year. The pool alone will cost an estimated $180,000.

The pool will be constructed according to specifications set by the Amateur Athletics Union, including a laned area where races can be held.

Farms Submits Building Report

Five residential construction permits, for homes valued at a total of $179,000, were approved by the Farms Building Department during the month of November, according to information received from John A. DeFoe, head of the department. Seven permits for miscellaneous construction valued at a total of $15,000, were also granted during the month.

In November of 1963, only one permit for a residence, valued at $90,000, and for four permits for miscellaneous buildings, valued at $16,000, received departmental approval, DeFoe revealed.

The permits granted last month were for homes at 312 Beaupre lane, valued at $17,000; 308 Kerby road, valued at $22,000; 30 Warner, valued at $50,000; 47 Warner, valued at $45,000; and 41 Deming lane, valued at $45,000.

No permits for commercial constructions were applied for last month, nor at any time so far this year, DeFoe's report showed. Nonassessable construction permits have not been applied for to date.

From January 1 through November 30 of this year, a total of 24 permits to build homes, valued at a total of $1,012,000, and 94 miscellaneous permits, valued at a total of $335,650, have been approved.

During the same period in 1963, the report revealed, 30 permits were approved for homes valued at a total of $1,947,000; one permit for a commercial building valued at $11,000; and 88 permits for miscellaneous construction valued at a total of $200,350.

Also during 1963, three non-assessable permits, worth $717,000, were okayed.

they found four-inch, six-inch and eight-inch screw drivers on his person, and the flashlight. The witness, who saw the youth at the rear of the store, readily identified Powers as the person he saw trying to get into the store.

The Woods detectives said that after intensive questioning, Powers admitted that he was responsible for the November 29 burglary of the furniture store, where he took between $1,500 and $1,800 from a desk drawer of the office of the store owner, Earl Teschen-dorf of 22231 Gordon, St. Clair Shores.

The detectives said that Powers may be responsible for two other burglaries recently committed in the Woods, and one in the Farms, and possibly others.

Police Fraternal Order Conducts Annual Election

The Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 102, held its annual election of officers on Monday, December 7, following a regular meeting.

Elected to serve the organization during 1965, were, Woods Patrolman Steven Petrik, president; U. S. Border Patrolman Gordon Rayner, vice president; Shores Patrolman Donald Jacob, recording secretary; Harper Woods Sgt. George Tullo, corresponding secretary; Woods Patrolman Bernard Kelly, treasurer; and Shores Patrolman Melvin Yacks, guard.

Woods Lt. Henry Marchand and Harper Woods Patrolman Edward Smith, were elected trustees for a two-year term; and Harper Woods Det. Sgt. James Miglio was elected director of the Widows and Orphans Fund for a six-year term.

The Pointe FOP is a social fraternal organization comprised of approximately 90 percent of the full time regularly employed police officers of the Pointes and Harpers Woods, including retirees of these departments.

The membership also includes officers of the federal law enforcement agencies in the area, but this is limited through action of the general membership.

Lodge No. 102 is affiliated with the National and State Lodges of the Fraternal Order of Police. It is not a labor union, nor is it affiliated with any such unions. It does not serve as bargaining agent for any individual department, or group of departments, nor does it question the individual departmental rules, regulations or customs.

The Pointe Lodge holds regular monthly meetings, at which various activities, assistances, and so on, are discussed, plans formulated and approved. It provides for free exchange of ideas among active regular members, which leads to a more agreeable cooperation between the departments at the scout car level.

It has been pointed out that since the five Pointes and Harper Woods are on the same police radio frequency, fraternization between the officers at Lodge functions tends to lead to more sound and more complete solutions to many minor and several major enforcement actions in the communities.

The Pointe FOP, as do other similar police groups, provides financial assistance to officers and their families. Recently, Lodge 102 gave financial assistance to families of two deceased Woods officers, through the newly established Widow-

Orphan-Retirement Fund, both at the time of loss, and later, through an educational assistance fund, for the officers' children.

The Pointe group has been supporting the aims of the parent FOP, for betterment of the profession through legislation and education.

Besides its regular members, the FOPs have some civilian Associate members, who pay dues, just as do the regulars. Although they have no voice in Lodge policies, the advice of the associates is eagerly sought in legal, fiscal and other matters.

Lodge No. 102 holds several fund raising activities during the year, and receives donations from interested people. With these monies, the organization conducts its general business. Through its affiliation with the State Lodge, it participates in a form of death benefits.

In the fall of 1962, the Pointe group started a fund of its own, which grew with the overwhelming support of local citizens. Today, the fund, the Widow - Orphan - Retirement Fund, is on a sound, financial footing. From this fund, the Lodge was able to give a total of $5,000 to the families of the two deceased officers this year.

"As individual officers, there are many things that we would welcome," said Park Patrolman Arthur Conlan, out-going president, "such as increases in pay, changes, and other things incidental to the material things of the world. But as a Lodge, we ask no more than the continued good will of the people we serve."

Michigan's annual snowfall varies from year-to-year, but usually averages about six feet or more. Annual snow depths usually range from about 17 feet in the Upper Peninsula to about two feet in the southern part of the state.

Gail Cogdill, Detroit Lions end, ran his pass catching string to 64 straight games in 1964 before being sidelined with a shoulder separation against the Minnesota Vikings in the 10th game.

NO RUDDER

The wind never blows right for the fellow who has no aim or set goal in life.

NOT GUILTY

Judge Douglas Paterson of the City's Justice Court found Douglas A. Allordyce of 16441 Andover court, Fraser not guilty of being a disorderly person. The case was heard on November 27.

Manufacturers Bank is looking for people to open savings accounts

People like Joan Miller. Occupation? Secretary. Hobby? Collecting travel folders and dreaming about vacations that never seem to come true. Because the vacation she wants usually costs more than the cash she has on hand.

Joan Miller is one of the people Manufacturers Bank is looking for. A person who should be saving money, but isn't.

Bon Secours Takes Fight Against City into Court

320, double its present capacity of 160.

Battling for Years

The conflict between Bon Secours' expansion and the City's zoning ordinance has been an issue for a number of years. Originally the hospital wanted to convert its strip of land into a parking lot. The then hospital's board of directors decided to consider expansion of the hospital itself after it studied a report by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals which stated Bon Secours was not large enough.

The hospital, however, abandoned plans for building an addition but decided to go ahead with the parking lot. It went to the City's council for approval but was turned down and was asked to come back when expansion plans were more definite.

Early in 1963, Bon Secours went back to the council with its new plans for construction of a new wing for an additional 160 beds, and a 1.4 acre parking lot.

Residents Fight Plans

That request touched off a battle between residents which led to petitions, protest meetings, public hearings and ended with the advisory referendum and the denial of Bon Secours petition by the City Council.

Bon Secours was originally built in 1941 on land bought by the Sisters of Bon Secours in 1923. The original zoning ordinance was passed in 1927. In 1949 the hospital asked for and was given permission to expand its capacity to 76 beds.

In 1951 an amendment to the zoning ordinance of 1927 was passed forbidding the construction of public buildings south of Kercheval. This did not affect Bon Secours as it stood then, however, because the hospital was already in operation before the amendment was passed.

In 1953 the hospital requested and was granted from the City Council permission to expand the hospital to 160 beds which was the minimum demanded by the AMA for accreditation for intern and residency programs.

The continuing problem of a growing hospital in a residential community is now before the courts.

Television Thief Sought by Police

An expensive portable television set was taken from the Pointe Electronics, 17555 Mack avenue, on Thursday, December 3, according to information given to Woods police.

Donald Van Dame of 1693 Brys drive, owner of the shop, told police that a nine-inch television set, valued at $125, was taken from his business place by an unknown man, who had entered the establishment.

The proprietor described the man as being white, 36 years old, five feet-eight inches tall, black hair, wearing a dark topcoat, but no hat, and wearing gaioches with zippers.

Woods authorities sent an all points teletype to police agencies in the area, to be on the lookout for the suspect. No arrests have yet been made, police said.

Thomas Roney Bags His Elk

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roney of Fisher road have a 450 lb. prize on their hands or perhaps in their backyard.

An Elk!

Mr. Roney, a devoted hunter, shot the 10-point bull elk on the opening day of the elk hunting season, last Saturday, December 5.

To make it even more exciting, this is the first year in a 100 that the State has permitted the hunting of elk. The season is to last nine days.

The only Pointer to receive a license for hunting, Mr. Roney was one of 300 throughout the state to get one. Applications numbered 2,300.

The elk was bagged at the Panorama Ranch, just north of Gaylord.

According to Mrs. Roney, the elk will be dressed and frozen for cooking later. Gourmets of game, Mrs. Roney says elk meat tastes like beef but she will have to check the cook books to find ways of preparing it.

But after the meat is gone, the Roneys will still have something to remember him by—his mounted head.

Pointers Receive Medical Grants

Two Pointers have been named recipients of $500 grants from the Detroit News Medical Aid Fund. They are James Collins of 1141 Bishop road and Richard L. Zuelke of Grosse Pointe Woods.

A total of 10 Detroit News grants were made to medical students at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. The awards were made through the deans of the two medical schools to students who showed both worth and need.

Now in his junior medical year at Wayne State University, Collins graduated from Jackson High School, attended the University of Michigan for three years and earned a William J. Branstrom Award for being in the top seven percent of his class. He also received a Regents-A'umni Scholarship. His childhood was spent at various U.S. naval bases where his father served as a lieutenant commander.

A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, Zuelke studied pre-med at Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. He was in the top 10 percent of his class at the end of his second year in the University of Michigan's Medical School.

HITS FIRE HYDRANT

City police reported on December 2, Richard Bell, who was driving south on Cadieux, skidded on a snowy pavement and hit a fire hydrant in front of Maire School. No ticket was issued but Bell left a $50 deposit to insure repair of the hydrant.

STOLEN RADIO

A pocket size portable radio, valued at $40, was stolen from the Camera Center on Thursday, December 3, it was reported by City police. The thief, who appeared to be a customer, asked to see the radio and then disappeared with it when an employee went to the rear of the store to get another article.

Police-Fire Radio System Budget Placed at $17,753

Although Harper Woods voted against the Inter-Municipal Radio System operating budget for 1965, on the grounds that it was too high, Harper Woods will pay its share of the costs, the Farms council was informed by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr.

Bremer told the council on Monday, December 7, that the estimated expense of the radio system, jointly operated by the five Pointes and Harper Woods, for police and fire calls, was set at $17,753, with half to be paid by the participating municipalities on January 1, and the second half on July 1.

Distribution of estimated costs is based on the 1955 assessed valuation of real property in each of the communities, Bremer pointed out, as determined by the Farms, the managing municipality.

Under the formula of the Wayne County equalized real property assessed valuation, the ceived no answer. He unlocked the door with a spare key, and entered the house and called out. There still was no answer, he said.

The contractor said that he heard the television in the living room, and went there to check, and discovered Mrs. Birmingham at the bottom of the stairs. He called police immediately.

The police called the Medical Examiner's Office, and the autopsy revealed that Mrs. Birmingham had been dead about 12 hours, and that she had died of a fractured skull. The ruling was rendered by Dr. Robert Rentenbach, assistant medical examiner.

Mrs. Birmingham, a graduate of Kent State University, Kent, O., was a teacher in a Cincinnati, O., parochial school for 12 years. Prior to that, she was a teacher in the Youngstown, O., Public School System.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Birmingham is survived by a son, Donald, Jr., and two cousins, Mrs. Madge Fitzgerald and James Dunn.

Funeral services were held on Monday, December 7, at the Ted C. Funeral Home, 14230 West McNichols road, Detroit. A Requiem High Mass was sung in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Woods will pay 24.26 percent on property valued at $64,220,100, or total costs of $4,306.88.

The Farms, which will pay the second highest amount, will be billed on 20.29 percent of its property valued $53,712,040, or a total of $3,602.

Following the Farms is Harper Woods, assessed 19.43 percent on property valued at $51,439,150, a total of $3,449.41; Park, 18.43 percent of property valued at $48,784,810, or a total of $3,271.88; City, 9.39 percent of property valued at $24,856,340, or a total of $1,667.01; and the Shores, 8.20 percent of property valued at $21,700,040, or a total of $1,455.74.

Bremer said that the budget meeting was held on December 2, at the Farms Municipal Hall, 90 Kerby road.

Present at the meeting were the following city managers: John Cantwell, City; Russell Manney, Jr., Harper Woods; Robert Slone, Park; Thomas Jefferies, Shores; Chester Petersen, Woods; and Andrew Bremer, Jr., Farms.

Also at the meeting were Farms City Comptroller Carroll Lock, Park City Comptroller Nunzio Orsini, and Warren Carson, radio technician for the system.

Great Sculptor To Speak Here

The first program of the 1964-65 season of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library is scheduled for Wednesday, December 16, Marshall Fredericks, world-famous Detroit sculptor, is to be the speaker.

Mr. Fredericks will speak on his work and the place of the sculptor in modern life. He will also have observations to make on the problem of the artist in interpreting abstract ideas and conveying moods and feelings through the medium of stone and metal.

Detroiters know Mr. Fredericks' work at first hand. The Spirit of Detroit, on the Woodward side of the City-Country Building, and the huge Victory Eagle on the north facade of the Veterans' Memorial are his, as are the seven twenty-foot pylons in the approach to the building. More fanciful creations by this versatile artist are to be seen in the esplanades of Northland and Eastland Centers.

His work is as well known in many other parts of the country—in Milwaukee, Dallas, Cincinnati, Louisville, Columbus, Chicago, Ann Arbor, and Charlottesville, to name a few of the communities which have his sculptures.

Mr. Fredericks is an excellent speaker, expressing his artistic concepts and ideas almost as well in words as he does in bronze, cast stone and marble. The Friends and their friends are certain of a most enjoyable evening.

The Friends meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Central Library, December 16. After the formal program, the usual refreshments and reception will be held in the Main Reading Room. All Friends and interested Grosse Pointe citizens are cordially invited.

Driver Ticketed After Accident

A St. Clair Shores woman suffered a minor injury on Thursday, December 3, when a car in which she was riding, and which was being driven by her son, collided with another on Mack avenue.

Mrs. Orma C. Howell, 41, of 22615 Englehardt, told Woods police that she suffered a whiplashed neck as a result of the accident.

Police said that Mrs. Howell's son, Gregory, 17, was driving south on Mack, when William R. Dillon, 51, of 20890 Ridgemont, going north, made a left turn at an island intersection, and was almost in the south-bound lane on Mack, on his way to making a turn onto Ridgemont, when he was hit by a car driven by young Howell.

According to a police report, Dillon pulled in front of Howell. Howell slammed on the brakes in an effort to avoid hitting Dillon, but was unable to stop because of the wet and icy pavement, and ran into Dillon's vehicle.

Michigan Liquor Control Commission, the owners of Moore's Bar, Jefferson and Maryland, were found guilty of serving alcoholic beverages to a minor. The charge was made by the Park Police Department.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the hearing was held on October 29, and the Commission rendered its verdict and notified him of its decision on Wednesday, December 2.

The chief said that the bar owners, Raymond J. Biernat and William C. Richter, both of Detroit, were ordered to pay a fine of $150, and $4.30 costs, or face suspension of their license for a period of 30 days.

The fine and costs must be paid no later than January 4, according to the Commission's ruling, if the closing of the bar is to be avoided, the chief said.

Church Offers Yule Oratorio

The Christmas portion of Handel's oratorio, "Messiah," will be sung at the First English Lutheran Church, 800 Vernier road, on Sunday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Soloists will be Lorraine Lang, soprano, Donna Shaner, alto, Stuart Eppinga, tenor, and Russell Smith, bass. The Rev. Robert E. Snyder will conduct with James F. Hunt, organist.

The chorus will consist of 70 voices from the choirs of First English Lutheran and Faith Lutheran Churches. The public is invited to attend.

PREVENTION

Principal Charles E. Saltzer of Brownell Junior High School announces two replacements to his building's staff for the 1964-1965 year. They are Daniel Evola, vocal music, and William Mitchell, English, both experienced and well-qualified for their respective assignments.

Mr. Evola, whose assignment embraces the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, is a native Detroit who received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Wayne State University. On campus he was a tenor soloist with the university's concert choir.

Prior to his appointment to the staff of his schools, Mr. Evola served in the U. S. Army in Japan and taught at two junior highs in Detroit—Greusel and Von Steuben. In addition, he held the post of PTA teacher vice president at Von Steuben, he was secretary of the association of Northeast District Elementary and Secondary Vocal Music Teachers, and has participated in the Music Educators' National Conference.

His hobbies quite naturally follow a musical line and include concert singing and participating in a variety of opera workshops. Mr. Evola is presently director of music at the Mt. Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit.

The Evolas, residents of St. Clair Shores, are the parents of David, 2, and Susan, 6 months.

William Mitchell, who teaches English, is also a native of the metropolitan area. He completed his high school days at Southeastern then went to Wayne State University where he was named to the Dean's list. A veteran of service in the U. S. Navy, Mr. Mitchell has visited many parts of the world, including Europe, South America, and the Caribbean.

His hobbies embrace most sports activities, readings, and motion picture appreciation. Mr. Mitchell taught ninth grade classes in Coral Gables, Fla.

Center Staging Yule Program

In the spirit of Christmas, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is offering a free Christmas program to Grosse Pointe families at 3 p.m. Sunday, December 20, in Fries Auditorium.

The activity is being staged by the Center's Youth Council and will appeal especially to young children of grammar school age. In order that the Center may be ready with seats and refreshments for everyone, those attending are asked to pick up complimentary tickets at the Center's office prior to the twentieth.

Families will be entertained by a film of Dicken's "Christmas Carol" narrated by Vincent Price. After saying goodbye to Tiny Tim, the audience will be entertained by a children's play, "Kathy's Christmas Miracles" written and directed by Mrs. Sydney Reynolds and staged by the Center's Children's Theater. Next will come "The Clown's Christmas" produced by Russell Gardiner.

Slate Christmas Concert At Central Library Dec. 18

The Grosse Pointe Public Library is presenting a special Christmas Concert on Stereophonic tape. This program will feature the inspirational music of Christmas, featuring the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Temple University Concert Choir.

This stereo album is unique. This was the first major symphony orchestra to record this type of Christmas program. The music of Christmas and the magnificent stereo sound of the Philadelphia Orchestra suggested a winning combination. The music was chosen from favorite carols and hymns, and a few less familiar but very expressive songs were also included.

Some of the titles are as follows: Hark the Herald Angels Sing; O Holy Night; God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen; O Come, All Ye Faithful; O Come, Little Children; Silent Night, Holy Night.

The Philadelphia Sound has been captured in all of its glory. But most important, the spirit of Christmas with its many moods and sounds comes to life as perhaps never before.

Accompanying the stereophonic tape recording will be a series of slides prepared especially for this Concert by the Grosse Pointe Public Library Audio-Visual Department with the materials provided by Miss Helms and Miss Bridgman of the Children's Department.

The second part of the Concert will feature "A Christmas Sound Spectacular," with John Klein at the Carillon Americana with Orchestra and Chorus. This will be Christmas music in a lighter vein, and the Carillon Americana consists of 10 different sets of chromatically tuned bells. The largest set of bells in the instrument is the 61-note Flemish Bells. Each set of bells has its individual timbre, and the performer may create unlimited effects by employing them in various combinations. Some of the selections in the performance are White Christmas; I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day; Silver Bells; and Winter Wonderland.

The Stereophonic Christmas Concert will be held at the Central Library in the Meeting Room, 10 Kercheval Avenue, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, December 18. The program will last one hour and 30 minutes. Enjoy this Christmas treat. There is no charge.

Scouts Witness Council at Work

Twenty-seven Girl Scout Cadettes, working on their government badge, were the guests of the Woods City Council at its regular meeting of Monday, December 7.

Mayor Kenneth McLeod welcomed the Cadettes, who are members of Troop 1241 of Our Lady Queen of Peace and are under the leadership of Mrs. George Betzing, 1716 Allard road.

The Council reappointed Councilman Benjamin Pinkos as "Legislative Contact Man" for the Michigan Municipal League for 1965.

Sitting as a Board of Appeals Hearing, the Council approved a request for a 16-foot addition of a boiler room to the Cook road side of the Grosse Pointe University School.

A request from the Parks and Recreation Commission for the installation of 1,000 feet of water lines to the boat docks of Lake Front Park, was referred to the Finance Committee for its recommendation.

More than 225,000 persons will spend nearly $25 million to ski in Michigan this winter, the Michigan Tourist Council predicts. This compares with about 65,000 and $6 million 10 years ago.

Meeting Slated By Camera Club

Next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club will be a competition meeting — three color slides and three monochrome prints with analysis of two each.

The meeting will be held in Fries Ballroom, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, at 8 o'clock Tuesday, December 15.

This is the final meeting until January. Guests of members and the public are invited.

Seals Help Win Fight Against TB

One of the most thrilling chapters in the medical history of our country has been the dramatic progress made against tuberculosis, America's number one killer at the turn of the century.

But the battle isn't over. A number of cities including Detroit have reported increases in the date of new TB cases between 1962 and 1963.

There are a number of reasons for this serious comeback of a disease once known as the "White Plague." Public apathy has too often resulted in dangerous delays in proper diagnosis, so that infection spreads before it can be brought under control.

The cost of X-ray has risen, while—in many areas—funds available to public health departments for TB control have been reduced. Another problem is the tendency of tuberculosis germs to develop newer tougher strains more resistant to the new, high-powered drugs.

More than 610,000 Americans at present are known to be either present or recent active TB patients, or "high risk" contacts of people who recently came down with the active disease. In other words, it is going to take a lot more work, education and expense before tuberculosis can be considered "under control" in our country.

The TB and Health Society is now conducting its annual campaign for Christmas Seal funds. There is no better way of "sharing the health" than by responding generously to your Christmas Seal letter. So, if no letter reached you, by getting in touch with your Christmas Seal agency at 153 East Elizabeth, Detroit 48201, WO 1-1697.

OBITUARIES

JOSEPH M. DODGE

One of the world's great bankers, the Honorable Joseph M. Dodge, died Wednesday afternoon, December 2, in Detroit's Harper Hospital.

For several months, Mr. Dodge was apparently recovering. His condition suddenly worsened Saturday, November 29, and he was hospitalized immediately. His condition became gravely critical early Wednesday morning and death, as a result of heart failure, came peacefully to him that afternoon.

Mr. Dodge had a brilliant career in banking as well as in civic, military, and government service. He served under three presidents. First under President Truman as United States Minister and Financial Advisor to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, then under President Eisenhower as Director of the Budget, President Kennedy also called on Mr. Dodge for special assignments.

Unfortunately, Mr. Dodge's death at age 74, came at a time when the bank he had led for 30 years was embarking upon a new era. The bank's new multimillion dollar main office was dedicated on Sunday, December 6, the day after Mr. Dodge's funeral.

Commenting on Mr. Dodge's death, Mr. Raymond T. Perring, chairman of Detroit Bank & Trust, said:

"All of us—officers, directors, staff... and our customers and shareholders—mourn Mr. Dodge's death, but his accomplishments serve as a continuing source of inspiration. This new banking center will stand as a living testimonial to his foresight. It is a symbol of his contributions not only to our bank but to this city, state, nation, and the world."

Mr. Dodge began his career in business after graduation from Central High School in Detroit in 1908. He taught himself how to be an accountant, and when he was only 19 had passed all the tests required for Bank Examiners. Too young to be appointed an examiner legally... he was nonetheless pressed into service examining banks throughout the state. He gained further experience with a number of prominent accounting, banking and business firms.

In 1933, Mr. Dodge, assumed leadership of what was then The Detroit Savings Bank. At the time, the entire nation was battling to recover from the effects of its total economic collapse. The majority of the nation's banks had closed and The Detroit Savings Bank was one of the few that had remained open.

Mr. Dodge guided through the difficult times that followed. As the bank's Chief Executive Officer he led its pioneering growth through the troubled war years and into the booming post-war era.

In 1956 Mr. Dodge added the trust services of one of the nation's leading trust companies by merging the Detroit Trust Company with The Detroit Bank to form Detroit Bank & Trust. When he retired as Chief Executive Officer in 1963 he was named Honorary Chairman of the bank and remained a member of its Board of Directors and Trust Committee serving in an advisory capacity.

Although more widely known for his governmental and civic activities, Mr. Dodge received proud honors from his banking associates. He is the only banker in Michigan to have been elected to the presidency of Michigan Bankers Association, American Bankers Association, and the Association of Reserve City Bankers.

He has also served with distinction on practically every civic and governmental organization involving the growth of Detroit and Michigan during his banking career.

He was awarded honorary degrees from three universities and held directorships in numerous major corporations.

Mr. Dodge is survived by his wife, Julia Jane, of 375 Washington road. Also surviving are his son, Joseph Jeffers, Director of the Cummer Gallery of Art.

Jacksonville, Ala.; five grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Wallace E. Reid, Birmingham, Mich. and a brother, Irving C. Dodge, Temple City, Calif.

Funeral services were held at Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, on Saturday, December 5. The family has asked that in lieu of flowers contributions may be sent to Christ Church, Grosse Pointe Memorial Fund, 61 Grosse Pointe Boulevard, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan, or the United Foundation, 1528 Woodward Avenue, Detroit.

Burial was in Ridgeway Cemetery, Ridgeway, Mich.

MRS. MARTHA Y. GARD

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Gard, 76, in Christ Episcopal Church Wednesday, December 9. She died in Bon Secours Hospital on Monday, December 7 after a sudden illness.

Born in Louisville, Ky., she had lived in the Detroit area since 1921. She was a graduate of Mary Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, Va.

Mrs. Gard lived at 17000 Mawmaw and was a member of the Fine Arts Society, the Wednesday Morning Music Club, and the Detroit Symphony Society.

of Contributors. She was also active in the women's work at Christ Episcopal Church.

She is survived by her husband, Paul D.; a daughter, Mrs. Henry Kinzie; a son, William Y.; two sisters and five grandchildren.

Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Invite Ladies To Pelican Party

Detroit Yacht Club Pelicans have scheduled a "Girl-Watchers" Party, an evening event with the Pelican ladies, on Friday, December 18. The affair will begin with cocktails at 6:30 o'clock in the Back Lounge, followed by dinner in the main dining room. Men on the downhill road seldom look at the speedometer.

Institute Holding Exhibit In Honor of Benefactors

To honor benefactors of The Detroit Institute of Arts, the museum is presenting "The Institute Collects," a selective exhibition of important additions to the collection between 1959 and 1964.

This exhibition of 108 items opened to the public on Tuesday, December 8 and will continue through January 3.

The Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, has planned a Christmas cocktail party in the museum's Great Hall December 14, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Society members and guests have been invited to view the exhibition and the "Baroque Christmas Tree."

A representative collection of paintings, sculpture, woodcarving, ivory carving, ceramics, prints, drawing and illuminations, textiles and tapestries, silver, coins, furniture and various decorative arts has been selected by Willis F. Woods, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, with the assistance of the curatorial staff.

"The exhibition is presented in recognition of museum benefactors whose major gifts of works of art and funds give leadership and stimulus to all in the community who want to see our Detroit Institute of Arts grow," Woods explained. "At the same time, we have endeavored to demonstrate the great breadth and diversity with which our excellent collections are concerned."

Some gifts cannot, of course, be "exhibited." They are the Ford Foundation's presentation to the museum of the Springswells Park Apartments (1959). Another gift is the Kresge Foundation's generosity which museum visitors enjoy as the Kresge Court Continental Cafe.

The south wing addition to The Detroit Institute of Arts, scheduled for completion in December, 1965, is another testimonial to the support of many benefactors.

A collective endeavor originating with a committee of 40 persons who incorporated The Detroit Museum of Art in 1885, the present Detroit Institute of Arts represents a cooperative relationship between the City of Detroit and the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Since 1919 the City has owned the Institute and provided funds from public sources for its operation and maintenance. Supplemental support is derived from the many private individuals who contribute to the Founders Society. Despite a distinguished record of public support, The Detroit Institute of Arts could not be as vital as it is today, were it not for the generous gifts received year after year in terms of works of art and funds from these interested individuals.

Individuals and organizations offering leadership in this role are carried on Founders Society records as Benefactors and Major Benefactors. Included are the 40 incorporating founders.

Studded Tires May Be Illegal

Are studded tires which help to keep cars from skidding and sliding in Michigan's rough winters illegal here in the state?

Well, most officials including Secretary of State James M. Hare, think so. But Hare said he would ask the attorney general to rule on them to get a "clear-cut decision" on the matter.

Hare, chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission, said that his offices had received reports of Michigan dealers selling studded tires. "However, Michigan law appears quite specific in the matter," Hare noted, "and on the basis of our law, they may have to be outlawed in the state."

Hare said he personally thought the studded tires were a "definite safety aid" and would be of help in driving on icy and snow-covered roads.

Michigan law prohibits studs or other devices on tires, Hare said. Wires are permitted provided they do not exceed .075 inches in diameter.

The studs in question are made of tungsten carbide and covered with steel or plastic. They are inserted with a pressure gun into holes and into the tire and cost about $10 more than the average tire.

A lot can be taught most anything, but won't go far unless taught to think for himself.

Fountain Bought For Gas Building

A monumental work of art by the famous Italian sculptor, Giacomo Manzù, is arriving in Detroit and will go on public display in mid-December.

Considered one of the two or three greatest living sculptors, Manzù has created a fountain with figure which will grace the reflecting pool on the Jefferson avenue side of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company building at One Woodward avenue. The work was commissioned by Michigan Consolidated as a gift to the people of Detroit.

Manzù, the creator of such famous works as the bronze bust of Pope John XXIII, and burlinized bronze doors for St. Peter's in Rome, visited Detroit three years ago while the Michigan Consolidated building was still under construction to accept the commission.

The bronze sculpture is the largest figure Manzù has ever done, standing 16 feet, six inches, including the five foot base. It weighs 1,763 pounds. Water will spray from the top of the cone shaped base into the surrounding pool. The figure is of a poised dancer with arms upraised. The surface has the characteristic unfinished texture common to many of Manzù's works.

The Manzù fountain was suggested by Minoru Yamasaki, who conceived the design for the Michigan Consolidated building which has won international acclaim for its grace and beauty. The reflecting pool offers an unusually lovely setting for the great master's work, looking over the Detroit River from its pedestal.

Ralph T. McElvenny, president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company and a member of the Detroit Art Commission, said he is extremely pleased that Detroit is to have the nation's first work of Manzù on public display outside a museum.

"I believe Detroit's cultural atmosphere will be considerably enhanced by this remarkably beautiful work by the man who ranks at the very top of the artistic world. We are delighted that it will soon grace our building and can be openly enjoyed by all who appreciate fine art and the work of a master," McElvenny said.

Much of Manzù's work has been done in the religious theme. In addition to his doors for St. Peter's in Rome, he has done busts of 47 Cardinals and the central door for the Strasbourg Cathedral. He has held the chair of sculpture at Brera Academy at Milan.

Manzù's works are found in most of the world famous museums. One of the Detroit Institute of Arts most prized possessions is "Dancer", a two foot bronze by Manzù, presented by John S. Newberry, Jr.

Manzù will soon be the subject of a book by Detroit's Tony Spina, the only photographer ever permitted to take photos of him at work in his studio. Spina has taken hundreds of pictures of the master, including the above as Manzù worked on the clay model of Pope John.

Mr. McElvenny said he is in hopes that Manzù will be here for the unveiling and dedication. The work is presently on its way to Detroit aboard the last ship to leave Italy for the Great Lakes. It is due to arrive sometime this week.

Many a joy-ride begins with a bottle and ends at the morgue.

Babe Ruth Loop Elects Officers

At the last meeting of the Board of Governors of the Woods - Shores Babe Ruth League, the election of officers for the 1965 season was held and the following men were elected:

President, Jack Belanger; vice-president, Art McFawn; treasurer, Mike Pastor; secretary, Jerry Addy; Player's Agent, John Condie; Managers Selection Manager, Hal Zink; Publicity, Bernie Scherrer; Activities, Harry Clough; Umpires and Fields, Chuck Bolton; Sponsors, Don Cattle; Scorers and Records, Ziggy Mrowczynski.

The All-American League Managers' Representative is Randy Hancock and representing Automotive League will be Dave Marsteller.

The Board voted unanimously to thank the following retiring Board members for the outstanding job done by them in 1964: Don Dow, Dave Padilla, George Pfeffer, John Rini, Herb Dobbie, George Koch, Roy Bradley and Gerry O'Meara.

The 1965 Board is already at work formulating plans for the coming season to continue the good work done by their predecessors with hopes of providing an even better baseball program for the 13-15 year old boys in the Woods and Shores.

Dance Slated At Austin Prep

One of the highlights of the holiday season at Austin Prep, is the annual Christmas Dance.

This year the dance will be held at Austin on Saturday, December 12, from 8 to 11:30 o'clock. Music for this event will be furnished by "The Dis-Cords."

Organization and decorations are under the Vice Principal of Student Affairs, Thomas E. Bailey, with the aid and leadership of committee cochairmen.

Cochairmen for the decoration of the bandstand for this semi-formal are John Karle and Tom Stichman. Cochairmen for the ceiling decorations, which contain the theme color red, are Roger Bonahoom and Larry Kroha.

A Christmas scene will be set up by Paul Garvey and Dennis Richardson to lend a seasonal flavor.

Decorations around the entrance doors will be constructed by Dennis Frayer and Tim Shields while the walls of the room will be transformed into a ballroom by John Anderson, Sal Cipriano, and Ralph DeFour.

Most Dangerous Month Is Here

Detroit started the most dangerous month of the year, with traffic deaths already 16 percent higher than they were for the first 11 months last year and with injuries approximately 15 percent up.

December historically is the most hazardous month for traffic accidents, records of the Detroit Police Department Accident Prevention Bureau show. In the last decade, an average of 24 persons has met death each December, the records reveal.

Two facts stand out in an analysis of December accidents:

1. Most of those killed are pedestrians.
 2. Most of the fatal victims are struck at night.
- The Traffic Safety Association points out more hours of darkness occur in December than in any other month. This means neither drivers nor pedestrians can see danger as quickly. The Association urges drivers and pedestrians to follow these rules to avoid an accident:

DRIVERS—Cut your speed at night. Make certain your car member is—If you drink, don't drive.

PEDESTRIANS — Concentrate on crossing the street safely.
Remember it isn't smart to cross between parked cars.
Be doubly alert at night. Watch that driver. He may not see you.

Marshall M. Massey of 423 Manor, has been elected to the Crowley board of directors. Massey married Marie Anderson in his home town, Worcester, Mass. They have four children, Marshall 15, Sarah 12, Elizabeth 10 and Peter two years.

Massey is a member of the board of directors of United Community Services, member of the board of trustees on church youth services, active in the "Big Brother" movement, a case worker on delinquent youth, and a member of the University Club.

Grosse Pointe residents are a particularly prudent group, according to Harold G. Phelps, vice-president and manager of the First Federal Savings of Detroit office at 17150 Kercheval near St. Clair.

"Our figures show that the number of savings accounts in this office is the equivalent of one account for every 2.2 households in the three central Grosse Pointe communities.

"Grosse Pointers obviously believe in the conveniences of charge accounts and time buying, but they just as obviously believe in thrift," said Phelps.

"Our office here in 'The Village' has been in operation for eight years and in this time we've seen remarkable growth in savings accounts, not only in dollars and in the total number of accounts, but also in the total percentage of people in the area who have accounts with us.

"This has to be a reflection of the sound thinking and good family financial management that predominates here," Phelps added, "and there's no doubt that First Federal's current earning rate on savings, which is 4%, paid and compounded quarterly, is also an attraction."

First Federal Savings of Detroit, Michigan's largest savings and home-loan institution, recently celebrated its 30th An-

Robert C. Palmer, president of the R. C. Mahon Company, has been re-elected president and a director of the American Institute of Steel Construction, it was announced today at the Institute's headquarters in New York City.

As president of AISC, Mr. Palmer directs the national organization representing some 300 firms which account for the major portion of the annual output of fabricated structural steel in the United States. He was first elected to the presidency in 1963.

Originally from Afton, N.Y., Mr. Palmer was graduated from Cornell University where he was awarded a degree in Mechanical Engineering. Prior to joining the R. C. Mahon Company in May 1961, he was president of The Infalls Iron Works Company, Birmingham, Ala., the company he joined in 1934.

Locally, he is a member of the Detroit Board of Commerce, the Engineering Society of Detroit, Detroit Athletic Club, Lochmoor Club of Grosse Pointe. He is also a member of the Birmingham Country Club and The Club, Inc., in Birmingham, Ala.; and the Pinnacle Club of New York.

Mr. Palmer lives at 1002 Lake Shore drive.

George A. Schemm of 16845 Maumee is president and general manager of the Bin-Dicator Company of Detroit which was recently voted "The Growth Company of the Year—1964" by the National Association of Investment Clubs. The company was chosen for the award "because it represents an outstanding example of American free enterprise as shown by its sales and earnings growth, excellence of products, outstanding management, public relations and employee relations."

The Bin-Dicator Company manufactures devices which indicate the levels of materials and liquids in bins, tanks and similar containers and transmit this information to various control mechanisms on filling and emptying equipment and, where required, actuate visible or audible signals for the information of operating personnel.

Leo J. Romzick, who has served as plant engineer at Detroit Edison's Pennsalt Power Plant since June of 1963, has been appointed superintendent of industrial plants with the responsibility for the operation of Edison's facilities at both Pennsalt and Wyandotte Chemicals.

Mr. Romzick, a native of Detroit, is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he earned bachelor of science degrees in mechanical and electrical engineering and a master's degree in business administration.

He joined Edison as a junior engineer at the company's Delray Power Plant in 1950 and later advanced through a number of supervisory posts including assistant superintendent of the Connors Creek Power Plant.

Mr. Romzick, who is married and has three children, lives at 1043 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe Park.

Maxine B. Niemeyer, a Grosse Pointe resident and office manager of W. R. Cavanaugh, C.L.U. & Associates, was awarded the coveted Chartered Life Underwriter (Associate) designation at conference exercises held by the Detroit Chapter of the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters, October 16.

The American College of Life Underwriters grants the C.L.U. or C.L.U. Associate designation to persons in life and health insurance who pass a series of professional examinations and meet the stringent experience and ethical requirements of the college.

Miss Niemeyer was the only woman among 21 who received their C.L.U. designation locally this year. She has also achieved the Certified Professional Secretary designation and was named Detroit's Secretary of the Year in 1960. She is immediate past presi-

What kind of a tiger do you want under your hood? (Have you priced a tiger lately?)

If you're handy with a whip and chair, go for the 360-hp GTO. It bites. But then, even the 335-hp GTO bites. If you want a slightly more civilized package (but with lots of the GTO muscle), try the Le Mans. You can get it with a six or either of two V-8s. They all have bucket seats. Carpeting. And cost less than some tame cats. So go price a tiger.

Devil Swim Team Takes First Two Tank Battles

Two weekend meets put the Grosse Pointe High School Devil swimmers on top of the heap as both went into the victory column. On Friday the varsity men bubbled by Royal Oak Dondoro for a league victory.

A rude group of Dondoro spectators tore apart every Devil cheer and some fans added special comments of their own. But the Devils weren't there to talk and they took both relays and four other firsts to bring home the victory.

Ann Arbor was the big weekend event though. A 57-48 win in the spacious Pioneer pool marked the first time the Devils have ever left the Ann Arbor water with a victory.

The Devils started the night strong with a victory in the medley relay. Then Tom Mertz lost the 200-yard freestyle to Bob Coup, an Ann Arbor co-captain. In only seconds of a second.

Spirits soared on the Grosse Pointe bench as Craig Dever and Herb Bliss slammed the 50-yard freestyle. But the lead was shaved as Ann Arbor took a slam in the Individual Medley, the next event.

Dick Green, the top Devil diver who has spent two weeks on the bench recovering from a skin ailment, managed a slim first over the Ann Arbor man.

Win and Loss Chalked Up By GPHS Basketball Five

The Blue Devil basketball team split two weekend home games to start the winter season. On Friday night Royal Oak Dondoro slid past Grosse Pointe in the last minutes of the game for an exciting victory.

Then, on Saturday night, Chuck Bruce snatched a win from Dearborn as he sunk three points in the final five seconds of the game for a 65-63 finish.

Against Royal Oak the Devils managed a slim lead for most of the game. They led by two points at the end of the first quarter, one point at the half, and one point after three.

A volley of penalty shots late in the game put the Dondoro five on the high side of the scoreboard. Devils Mike Conti and Chuck Bruce each scored late in the game to bring back hope but the opposing free throws proved too much.

Chuck Bruce was the high Devil scorer with 18 points.

Dearborn tried their luck against Grosse Pointe on Saturday and seemed to be taking away another close one until five seconds before the final whistle. Grosse Pointe had bounced along beside the Dearborn netters, (score was tied at half-time), and were only one point back with the clock running out. Chuck Bruce found both the ball and traveling room as he made a "one on three" break for the Dearborn basket.

He scored to give Grosse Pointe a one point lead and, being fouled, took an extra free-throw shot for another point. The final score was 65-63. Brian Davis, who had trouble getting into gear on Friday night, was the top Blue Devil scorer with 17 points.

Next Friday night Fordson visits the Grosse Pointe court for the winter's second league match. The Tractors walloped

St. Paul Victor In Two Sports

By Jim Brunson

Two athletic teams were victorious for the Lakers of St. Paul on Friday, December 4. In the first victory the Laker swimming team toppled "Class A" Utica High by the score of 59-46. The meet took place at Brownell Junior High.

The basketball team also won, beating Sacred Heart of Roseville to gain their first victory after a slow start. The strong rebounding aided the Laker attack.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 10-8 in favor of Sacred Heart. In the second quarter the Lakers took the lead by a score of 20-16. The third quarter saw the most scoring as the Lakers increased their lead to 36-31. The final score was 50-39.

The Lakers' basketball record now stands at 1-1. The Lakers' next game is against St. Catherine on Friday, December 11. It is an away game but due to St. Catherine's lack of a gym, it will be played at home.

Club Schedules Court Tryouts

Boys between the ages of 9 and 12 who were unable to attend the Midget League tryouts on Saturday, December 5, have an opportunity to do so this Saturday, December 12, at 2 p.m. at Brownell Junior High School.

No previous basketball experience is necessary, just the willingness to play. Every boy out will be placed on a team. For further information please call TU 5-4600.

A gym will be available Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Brownell for all basketball enthusiasts who want to sharpen up their game before the League starts.

Hockey Chiefs Beat Waterford

The Chiefs, Grosse Pointe's midget hockey team won another league game Sunday, December 6, when it defeated Waterford at Wallaceburg, Ont. in a 3-2 contest.

The Chiefs came from behind twice to win, once when the score was 1-0 and later when it was 2-1. A bit of luck was with Grosse Pointe in the final period when the Chiefs let up and Waterford hit the goal post twice and a Waterford player fanned on a shot with a Grosse Pointe goalie out of position.

Goals by Randy Neil and Wally Thurson tied it and Jerry Schindler got the clincher.

In games coming up, Grosse Pointe plays Northwest Detroit at Olympia Stadium, and Frazer at Gordie Howe's.

Put These On Your List

When you are writing those Christmas checks, or stuffing cash into envelopes for yuletide giving, we hope you'll give some thought to some particularly worthy recipients.

The Detroit Free Press is conducting a campaign to raise funds for the widow and two children of Dr. Paul Carlson, killed in Africa last month by Congolese rebels. The slaying of this dedicated young doctor who devoted everything he possessed to help the helpless, is one of the great tragedies of our time. Mrs. Carlson and the children are remaining in Africa until after Christmas, but then they will be coming back to Michigan to try to establish a new home, without the love and guidance of the martyred physician. It is going to be a rough deal, and we hope many will have a part in making things easier by expressing their sympathy in a tangible way. If you have not yet sent a donation, get it off today, to the Dr. Carlson Fund, Detroit Free Press, Detroit 31, Mich. Checks should be made out to the Dr. Paul Carlson Memorial Fund.

Other deserving individuals we have in mind include the newsboys who were cast into idleness and rendered income-less when the Detroit dailies were struck for four months. This was a cruel blow. These youngsters depend on their paper routes to earn money for things their parents can't afford to give them, and in many cases these things are such essential items as clothing, school books and savings for higher education.

Please be certain these are on your Christmas list, and don't forget your postman either. Here is one of our most faithful servants and dependable friends. The more we share, the warmer is the inner glow. Give till you detect the first symptoms of heartburn. Joy will quickly supplant any discomfort.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Last Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock, at the Esquire Theatre, Harry Golden invaded Grosse Pointe. The cadenced, mesmerizing quality of his voice held his audience with no effort. Indeed, for my money, he could have recited "Three Blind Mice" and made it sound like Shakespeare. He didn't however. He spoke of America—the public image—of the American dream—of unlimited opportunity in our country—of mobility.

He emphasized a common fear shown throughout all history—fear of the unfamiliar. Because of this unreasoning emotion, we have had religious persecution. Catholics and Protestants alike have been burned; Mormons have been hounded. Minority groups, such as Italians, Jews and Poles, have all felt unfair discrimination. Law in itself is useful, but it cannot change the hearts of man.

Harry Golden is a propagandist, and he admits it. He is preaching the brotherhood of man. Civil rights and integration are emblazoned on his gonfalon, and he sees John Kennedy as the strong man in this fight. As a result, today, in the South, the big story is the fantastic compliance with the Civil Rights legislation of 1964.

Curiously, throughout history, every revolution has felt the need to destroy something, such as the Bastille, king's heads, etc. In the civil rights struggle, there is no desire to destroy anything. Rather, it is a question of public right versus private preference. If it comes down to a moot point, the courts can decide the issue.

Golden, in his persuasive way, waxed both humorous and serious. In his concluding remarks, he said that the Negro, in saving himself, may also be saving Christianity. And finally, mankind must find a balance between the wonders of science and the wonders of human kindness in an effort to solve its problems.

Later, after the luncheon at Al Green's, Golden spoke appreciatively of libraries, books and reading. As he put it, rather uniquely, a book is one thing you cannot "phony up"—it contains so many pages and must be read to be understood! And there is nothing like it or to equal it. (Heartwarming words, indeed, to a librarian!)

The Assistance League of Bon Secours Hospital, who sponsors the Celebrity Series, is to be congratulated on obtaining such a dynamic, human and compelling speaker.

And now let us move on to the books that this man has written over the past six years. The Harry Golden books started appearing in 1958. His first was ONLY IN AMERICA—a collection of short essays, editorials and vignettes on subjects and people of interest to the author. Here we see a nonconformist at work. Golden writes with discernment; his humor cuts through pretense and sham. This is no cracker-barrel philosophy—he is both highly literate and penetrating. It is here that one finds his well-known "Vertical Negro Plan".

Next, sequentially, is FOR 2c PLAIN—a follow-up of ONLY IN AMERICA, giving further examples of editorializing on America past and present culled from the CAROLINA ISRAELITE. Here, as in so many of his books, he shows the lower East Side as a romantic, vanished world full of drama and gallantry. ENJOY, ENJOY! followed hard on the heels of this latter book, again covering essentially the same ground, with material drawn both from his newspaper and from speeches made on various occasions. Anecdotes, folklore and homespun philosophy—all three are interestingly interwoven.

In 1961, we find a departure from these earlier volumes — CARL SANDBURG — an informal portrait of an old friend. Golden notes that Sandburg has distinguished himself in five fields: poetry, history, biography, fiction and music. This is lively, sentimental and informative, making Carl Sandburg come alive.

YOU'RE ENTITLED (1962) is still another wonderful collection of editorial columns, still following in the tradition of his first book. The world is Harry Golden's oyster, and he sees it plain. He depicts the American Jew with warmth, love and deep understanding, stripping selfishness, greed, hatred and hypocrisy down to their basic nothingness.

Still another change of pace. FORGOTTEN PIONEER appeared in 1963, giving the story of the pack peddler who tramped trails, countryside and city streets from colonial times to the 1920's. The author tells the story mostly through three men—a Russian Jew, a Connecticut Yankee, and a Bavarian immigrant. Once again there is great evidence of warmth and wit.

Two books have appeared in 1964. The first, MR. KENNEDY AND THE NEGROES, is the story of the Negroes' struggle for equal rights. Golden sees John Kennedy as the first President since Lincoln to declare publicly that racial segregation and discrimination are morally indefensible. The second, SO WHAT ELSE IS NEW?, is also a gleaming of his newspaper columns, dealing with current topics, issues and people. Civil rights figures prominently; other subjects include an appreciation of Lyndon Johnson and a discussion of the Beatles. Golden aficionados will indeed welcome this eighth book.

And so, whether you are a Golden fan or foe, you have here a man to be reckoned with. I listened to him, lunched with him, talked with him, felt the warmth of his handclasp and of his personality. We suggest you read one or two of his books—their variety of topics is infinite. Our library also subscribes to his CAROLINA ISRAELITE. Come in and try him on for size!

...tell it to Herman Schwartz

You say your daughter is getting married, and she doesn't want her reception in a cinder block citadel, and you can't afford the country club? ... Or it's your anniversary, and your wife is expecting a big party, and you're so busy at the office you haven't even got time to call for a cake, and it's your Silver, and you'd like it to last to the Golden? ... Or you've been made chairman of your company's annual banquet, and your committee ran out and left you holding the guest list, and your boss is big on banquets ... small on boners? Tell it to Herman Schwartz.

He'll lend a sympathetic ear. An ear educated by years of experience of catering everything from St. Patrick's Day dinners to Bar Mitzvahs. Where to find this Confucius of catering? The Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, of course. Here Herman combines his rare talents for organization with those of Chef Hagen for vending award-winning victuals. Together they give you the best-looking, best-tasting, best-organized banquet in town.

The Sheraton offers you a choice of 18 modern air-conditioned banquet rooms. Where our Schwartz-Hagen duo can seat and satiate from three to a thousand people with equal ease.

If you've got a catering problem, why not pass Herman the buck? ... simply call Mr. Schwartz, WO 1-8000. Respectfully, the Sheraton-Cadillac, Detroit's largest, most accommodating hotel.

NOBODY has trouble defining a child. But what is a problem child? Most of us would rather not define him, because we would rather not think about it. The simplest definition, however, is that the problem child is an unhappy child. Most of us are fortunate; we can leave the thinking about him to the trained services of people like those who staff the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic. All they will need from us is our support, financial and moral.

The Ball does not begin until 10 o'clock tomorrow evening, but just about everyone who plans to dance until the wee hours of the morning at the Junior League of Detroit's 50th Anniversary Party will have begun celebrating hours earlier.

Pre-Ball parties are scheduled by Pointers at clubs and homes. Mrs. Henry M. Woodhouse, of Renaud road, in a pink satin, floor length gown with a French ribbon top, is among those who will greet dinner guests.

Before going on to the Country Club, Junior League Executive committee members and their husbands will gather at the Vincennes place home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pierson. Guests here will include Mr. and Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road.

Doris Brucker, current Junior League president, has chosen a gown to accent her blue, blue eyes—a wool-silk Italian brocade, with a semi-belled skirt, in a pale, shimmering blue shade.

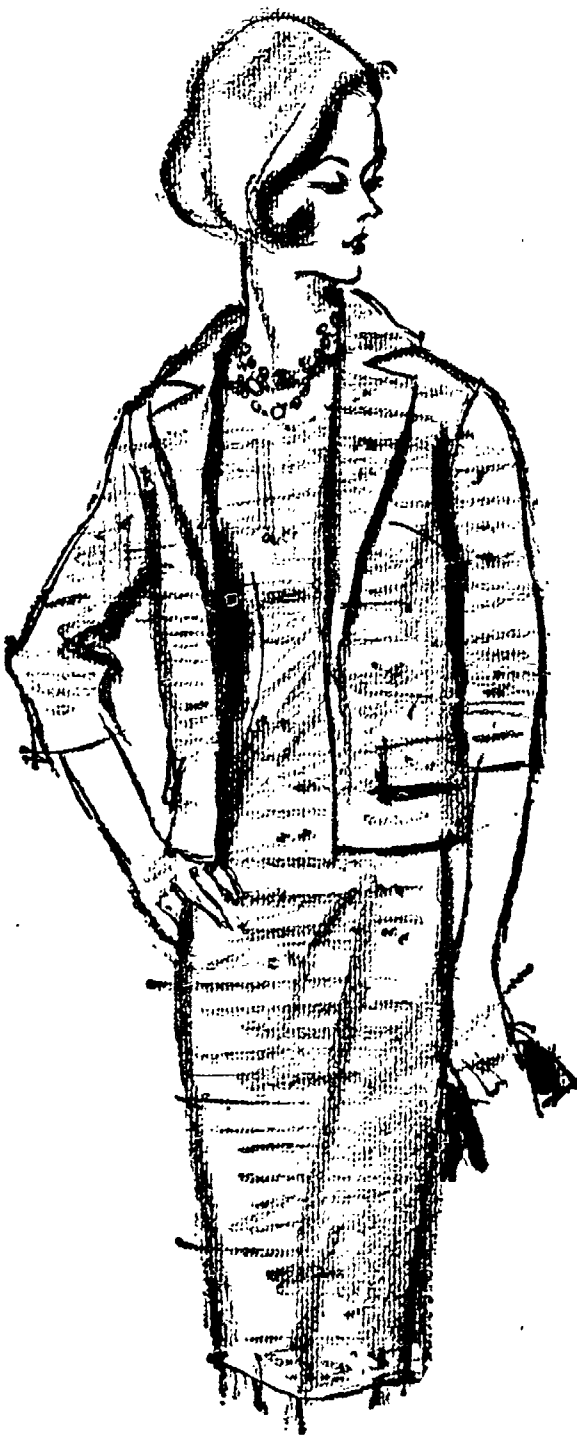

The Benjamin G. Chapmans, III, of Fisher road, and H. Richard Fruehaufs, Jr., of Middlesex boulevard, have invited friends to meet at their homes before the party. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Durno, of McKinley avenue, will host a dinner at the University Club.

Gold brocade, particularly appropriate for a Golden Anniversary Ball, is the gown fabric choice of Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr., of University place, chairman of the League's 50th Anniversary Year. The Buttricks will be entertaining before the BIG party.

Mrs. Alger Shelden and Mrs. Joseph Sherer, Jr., co-chairmen of the Anniversary Ball committee, will greet

Newlywed Hannans Travel To Bahamas

Reception at Windmill Pointe Drive Home of Bride's Mother, Mrs. Gerard M. Haley; Follows Rites In St. Clare de Montefalco Church

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bohen Hannan will live in New York City when they return from their wedding trip to Nassau.

The pair exchanged marriage vows November 28, at an 11 o'clock ceremony in St. Clare de Montefalco Church. Father Joseph Smith, O.S.A., officiated at the rites.

The bride is the former Kathleen Mary Haley, daughter of Mrs. Gerard M. Haley, of Windmill Pointe drive, and the late Mr. Haley. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hannan, Jr., of New York City.

For her marriage, the former Miss Haley chose a gown of white peau de soie over silk taffeta, accented with seed pearls embroidered on Chantilly lace. Her mantilla was edged in Brussels lace.

She carried a cascade arrangement of white sweetheart roses and ivy.

Louise Haley served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul J. Fitzpatrick, of Ramsey, N. J., another sister of the bride, and Susan Hannan, of New York, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore soft coral frocks, of peau de soie over silk taffeta, with tiny, matching veiled hats. Their flowers were bronze pom-pom mums with ivy.

The bride's small sister, Mary Meier, was flower girl, in a white peau de soie over pale green taffeta dress. She carried a miniature arrangement of the senior attendants' flowers.

Gerald M. Haley gave his sister in marriage.

Myles Hannan was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by Michael and Patrick Haley, the bride's brothers, and Paul J. Fitzpatrick.

A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. Mrs. Haley greeted her guests, wearing a champagne silk brocade sheath with a small, matching veiled hat. She pinned white orchids to her purse.

Mrs. Hannan wore a forest green velvet sheath, with a tiny mink hat, and also pinned white orchids to her purse.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. F. Gordon Spoor, wore an aqua wool sheath. She, too, attached a white orchid corsage to her purse.

For traveling to the Bahamas, the bride donned a three piece, red wool suit, with black accessories.

Swedish 'Luciafest' Slated at Lochmoor

Saint of Lights to Herald Arrival of Yule Season; Jenny Lind Club Sponsoring Dinner and Dance

Once again, people of Swedish descent and their friends will recreate Luciafest, "Little Christmas," just as it is done in Sweden.

The party and festival is scheduled this Saturday, December 12, at the Lochmoor Club.

Cocktails at 6:30 o'clock will be followed by smorgasbord at 8 and a dinner dance. Tables will be glowing with light cast from copies of an ancient Swedish candelabra, which will be surrounded by Christmas greens.

The Jenny Lind Club has asked Nancy Rae to be this year's Lucia. She will be assisted by Edward Meiller and Linnea Meiller, who will act as Lucia's star boy and star girl.

Lucia, symbol of light, will enter at dessert time. Dressed in a flowing white robe, she will wear a crown of Christmas greens and glowing candles and carry a tray of coffee.

Several of the club members' children will perform folk dances around a lovely, full size lighted Christmas tree, to be decorated in the traditional Swedish fashion with little flags, all birds and ornaments of various kinds.

Party chairman Mrs. Robert Peebles is assisted by Mrs.

brated in many provinces since the Middle Ages. Its traditions have been passed from one generation to another for centuries.

The Lucia legend is said to have originated in Syracuse, on the island of Sicily. There, the first Lucia, a young girl about to be a bride, gave her entire dowry of the poor people of her village and admitted that she had become a Christian.

Accused of witchcraft, she was taken prisoner and burned at the stake December 13, A.D. Later, she was canonized by the early church and thus received the name by which she is known now: Santa Lucia.

She is sometimes pictured by Italian artists as a blind girl, holding a lamp. There are many legends . . . but in each one, Lucia becomes the symbol of light and hope, appearing on the darkest day of the year to herald the glad Christmas time.

Old beliefs exist in connection with the day which, according to the Old Style Julian Calendar, was the shortest day of the year. It marked the solstice, the day upon which the sun apparently stands still in its motion from the equator.

Early peoples recognized this as the turning point towards spring. All the work of harvesting, spinning, weaving, baking and brewing must be finished and the whole house thoroughly cleaned and put in order for the Christmas holidays.

If these preparations are made, happiness and prosperity will, according to tradition, follow throughout the year. During all this pre-Christmas acti-

A spring wedding is planned.

Lucia is the central figure.

Today, it is not only in the homes of Sweden, but also in schools, offices, hospitals, orphanages and other public buildings of the land that Lucia appears to open the Yuletide.

Bride-Elect

At a recent cocktail party in their Whittier road home, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Amluxen announced the engagement of their daughter, SUSAN CAROLE, to Lauren Bowler, son of the Webster Bowlers, of Belanger road.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe High School graduate, is currently in her senior year at the University of Michigan, where she is serving as president of the School of Education and secretary of the senior class. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

The prospective bridegroom is also a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. He was graduated from the University of Michigan, where he is presently working toward his Masters degree. During his undergraduate years, Mr. Bowler served as president of the College of Engineering and of his graduating class.

He is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity and Vulsans honorary.

The couple plans a July 31 wedding, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

FAST PACE

The ordinary walks of life appeal to very few people nowadays because they are all looking for speedways.

Mart Proceeds Go to Charity

The Community Christmas Mart scheduled in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday, December 17, threatens to burst its seams. It is sure to provide the setting for a final gala Christmas shopping spree for Pointers with all proceeds going to charity.

Last minute messages from chairman Mrs. Samuel Laux and assistant Mrs. John T. Short create a tantalizing picture. Cottage Hospital's booth will feature toys, telescope pens and extra special lingerie. The Unitarian Church booth will be stocked with attractive basket purses and some of Mrs. Snowden's very special peanut brittle.

The University School corner will have flannel patchwork study gowns, colorful collages and some irresistible clowns face pajama bags sure to be a hit on ski trips, week-ends and slumber parties.

The Congregational Church booth will offer decorated Christmas Tree Skirts, fancy lap boards, Christmas stockings and a very handsome dining cloth for holiday buffets.

The Memorial Church booth will concentrate on Christmas goodies such as plum puddings, cookies, and decorated jars of candy.

Additional groups added to those already signed up to participate in the Mart include the Bon Secours and Christ Child Guilds, the Junior League of Detroit, and the Women's National Farm and Garden Council.

Gift Exchange At Garden Club

Members of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will gather for a Christmas meeting next Monday, December 14, in the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Robert C. Palmer.

After a short business session, there will be an exchange of gaily wrapped "White Reindeer" gifts, followed by dessert and bridge.

Open Pointe Homes For Christmas Walk

Christmas Decorations Featured at Traditional Holiday Tour, Scheduled Today In The Pointe, Tomorrow In Birmingham-Bloomfield

A holiday tradition, the annual "Christmas Walk," sponsored by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, begins at 1 o'clock today.

Seven Pointe homes will be specially decorated for the holidays and open to "walkers" between 1 and 5 in the afternoon.

Tomorrow, it's the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area's turn, as seven homes on the other side of town are opened to the public.

Patroness tickets, at $5 each, entitle one to both tours. Individual tickets are $2 each and may be purchased on the tour.

Opening their homes in the Pointe are Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Al Navarro, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tom Zur-Schmiede, Dr. and Mrs. John Kretschmar, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Roy.

Architecture of the Meyers' home, in Tonnancour place, is French, featuring the mansard roof, so popular in Grosse Pointe today. Their landscaped terrace is surrounded by an attractive brick wall, and a very interesting iron gate leads to the rear terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, (Mr. Meyer is a well known architect), are world travelers. The items they have collected on their many trips make their home a delight to see.

Dominant colors are turquoise, blue and gold. Living room decor was planned around a jewel-paneled, four-seasons screen, purchased in Hong Kong, under which stands a Bible Box.

On their last trip around the world, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer designed for themselves a hi-lo table, four chairs and six end tables. These were built for them, fashioned of cherry and rosewood in Hong Kong. They are now in the Meyers' garden room and living room.

Mrs. Meyer prefers to call her library The Collectors' Room. In it are a brass table from New Delhi and temple rubbings from Thailand.

This home will not have the traditional red and green Christmas decorations—Mrs. Meyer plans to use instead small rose trees and a contemporary color scheme—but a trip through it is equal to a short voyage around the world.

The step-down family room, with beamed ceiling and cork flooring, has a Spanish flavor and leads to a brick terrace with a magnificent view of Lake St. Clair. The library features walnut paneling with blues and greens.

Of primary interest throughout the home are the many paintings collected by Mr. and Mrs. Koch.

Head hostess at the Koch house will be Mrs. Carl R. Kamhout, of Washington road.

The lovely grey French Provincial home of the Harry Smiths, in Lakeshore road, is situated on a rise commanding a view of Lake St. Clair.

It has outstanding landscape features, including a flagstone entrance terrace enclosed by a brickwork brick wall. The interior reflects an interest in several periods and contrasting styles.

A cherry paneled lounge room overlooking the lake is furnished in unusually graceful red leather furniture and a red Chinese rug. Decor in the master bedroom is Oriental, and includes rare carvings of ivory, serpentine and soapstone, plus a magnificent Sung Dynasty painting.

The dining room is richly appointed, its scarlet background setting off hand-carved mahogany furniture. Handsome baths and kitchen, lovely wallpapers and paintings also distinguish this house.

Head hostess here will be Mrs. Theodore K. Friedt, of Westchester road.

A partridge and a pear tree at the entrance of the Ross Roy home in Sheldon road will set the mood for a Children's Christmas.

The Roys plan to decorate their Christmas tree with toys, dolls and novelties from around the world, gathered on their extensive travels.

Poison, cranberries and cookies will complete the decorations in this lovely home, where the head hostess will be Mrs. Wilbur E. Busse, of Moran road.

Walkers whose appetites have been whetted by glimpses of these local residences can continue their tour tomorrow, in the Birmingham-Bloomfield areas, where they will visit the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Parsons, Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Roehm, Mr. and Mrs. Eino H. Nurme, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bretnell Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Pulte, Mrs. Royal H. Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. VanDusen.

Chairmen of the Pointe Walk are Mrs. George J. Goodheart and Mrs. Frank P. McBride, Jr. Birmingham-Bloomfield chairmen are Mrs. Douglas C. Dameron and Mrs. H. Barbara McCartney.

Luncheon reservations, at Al Green's today and Devon Gables tomorrow, are in the hands of Mrs. Richard H. Campbell, (Pointe area), and Mrs. Edward I. Nichols, (Birmingham-Bloomfield).

The Grosse Pointe District Girl Scouts' annual Christmas Tea is scheduled this afternoon, from 1 until 3 o'clock, at Hospitality House in "The Village."

All adults participating in the Scout program — leaders, committee mothers, administrators — are invited to attend.

Christmascraft will be on display.

DBC Schedules Holiday Ball

Detroit Boat Club members will gather for cocktails at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner at 8 and an evening of dancing, this Saturday, December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett are chairmen of the annual Holiday Ball.

Dave Farley's Orchestra will play for the party-goers. Decorations in the ballroom will feature gold and white roping and tiny, twinkling lights.

In the foyer there will be a huge tree, trimmed with gold balls and white doves. The gold and white color theme will be used throughout the club.

Holiday Ball committee members include Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Don DeKeyser, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Feldman and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sweet.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Corey, Jr. of Stephens road, have announced the engagement of their daughter LYNN, to Horace Nye Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Carpenter, Jr., of University place.

The announcement was made last week, at a small party for family and friends of the engaged couple.

Miss Gorey, a graduate of Bennett College, Millbrook, N.Y., is continuing her studies at the University of Michigan, where she is affiliated with Collegiate Sororities.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School, attended Hobart College, and is presently in his senior year at Western Michigan University.

The couple plans a June wedding.

To Be Wed

At a small family dinner at the Detroit Boat Club Sunday, the engagement of SARAH REID to Richard A. Weber was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Reid, of McMillan road.

Miss Reid is a graduate of Liggett School and Smith College, and spent a year doing graduate work at Trinity College, University of Toronto. She is a member of Tau Beta Association.

Mr. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Weber, of St. Clair, Mich., formerly of The Pointe, is a graduate of Michigan State University. He is presently in his senior year at Detroit College of Law. He is a member of the Detroit Yacht Club and the Detroit Power Squadron.

The couple plans a summer wedding.

Couple Planning Spring Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Brinster, of Dayton, O., have made known the engagement of their daughter, Joan Ann Brinster, to William H. Whittingham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Whittingham, of Edgemore road.

The prospective bride is an alumnae of Miss Hall's School in Pittsfield, Mass., and Skidmore College.

Mr. Whittingham was graduated from the University of Michigan, where he was a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity, and served in the United States Army in Japan. He is a commercial artist and is a member of the Society of Illustrators.

A spring wedding is planned.

Austin Parents Plan '64 Christmas Dance

Buffet Supper to be Served in School Gym; Robert Schieble and Robert Venet have Charge of Punch Bowl

A Christmas dance, sponsored jointly by the Mothers and Fathers Clubs of Austin Prep, has proved such a successful way of showing appreciation to the Augustinean Fathers and lay faculty, who staff the school, that Tuesday, December 15, has been chosen for this year's event.

Plans for the party on the distaff side are being made by Mrs. Arthur Kirchner, Jr., assisted by Mrs. James Shields.

Supper hostesses are Mrs. William Bavinger, Mrs. Edward Hickey, Mrs. Don Tindall, Mrs. Sidney Terry, Mrs. William Merritt, Mrs. John O. Gorman, Mrs.

John Dammon, Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., Mrs. Walter Jarvis, Mrs. John Simmerer, Mrs. Richard Schrage, Mrs. Charles Lafond, Mrs. Walter Connolly and Mrs. Leo Marx.

Club To View Musical Play

An original musical play, "The Lonesome Time," written by Mrs. Libby Crawford, a member of the choral group "Choralairs," will be presented by the Choralairs to members of the Detroit Review Club on December 14, following a Christmas luncheon, at the Women's City Club.

The play is the Christmas story recalled in modern prose and poetry by two characters, a mother and her young daughter, portrayed by Athalea Mills and Mary Miller respectively. The Choralairs furnish choral music throughout the play.

Pointer Mrs. Marvin D. Dahnke, president, will preside at the Review Club luncheon and business meeting, with Pointer Mrs. Harold Knoff, program chairman, introducing the program.

Lunches are catered by Hudson's; each child receives a gift; and a program includes the Joan Wind Dancers, junior magician Edward Robertson, clown Mr. Pockets, and a visit by Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Cummings, (884-3475), or Mrs. Joseph Hubbard, (PR 5-1461).

Funds realized from the luncheons are to benefit the philanthropic programs of Alpha Xi Delta—nationally, the prevention of juvenile delinquency including maintenance of Howell Neighborhood House in Chicago; locally, support of a Visiting Teacher.

Give Vegetables A Holiday Look

Vegetables are the stepchildren of the food family even during the holidays. Meats and desserts, appetizers and beverages get special glamorous treatment, but vegetables just get buttered. In fact, anytime of year vegetables receive little attention.

Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Home Economist, Karen VanHine, recommends trying new ways to dress up vegetables. They can be marinated, served cold or hot, covered with a sauce, prepared in a casserole or in combination with each other. Decorative garnishes can be added at the last minute for the festive look.

Specific suggestions for preparing and serving vegetables are given in Extension Bulletin 350 which may be obtained by writing the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service, P.O. Box 550, Wayne, Mich.

Austin Dance

Phil Skillman's orchestra will play for dancing. Buffet will be served in the gym, which will be decorated in a holiday mood.

Christmas cloths centered with trimmed baskets of cones and greens will grace the tables. The Christmas scene will be further enhanced by the huge traditional Christmas tree, decorated by the boys.

Robert Schieble and Robert Venet, president and vice president of the Fathers Club, are making plans to provide an outstanding punch bowl. All parents are cordially invited to attend. The party begins at 8 o'clock.

Southeastern Women To Meet Next Monday

The Southeastern Women's Club will meet December 14, at 12:30 o'clock in St. James Presbyterian Church at Morang and Parkgrove, for a program of Christmas music.

Wonderful news! . . . was discussed by the Trustees and Advisory Board of the Music Settlement School, meeting for luncheon yesterday at the Scarab Club. The School will occupy a new home after the first of the year, and there will be MORE classrooms and facilities in this new headquarters! The Music Settlement School leaves its East Grand boulevard location for East Kirby street, where it will be part of Detroit's new Cultural Center, situated near the Arts Institute. Pointers have been involved with and/or interested in the Music Settlement School since its inception . . . proceeds from the recent benefit musicale at Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman's "Stonehurst"—and what a lovely, lovely gathering THAT was!—will be donated to the School's building drive.

Among the lovely ladies . . . enjoying everything at last Thursday's Northeast Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic benefit fashion show-luncheon was songstress Connie Haines. (Incidentally, we don't think you could find a chic-er, better looking group of women than our own Pointe matrons, as viewed at these luncheon-fashion shows—told in advance that Miss Haines would be present, we kept a weather eye out for the Celebrity . . . and were struck by the fact that every woman who entered the room walked, and dressed, and carried herself in general like a celebrity.) Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., stunning in a pink and green plaid suit, gave a brief resume of the status and work of the Clinic, noting that almost 100 children have already received help through the facility.

When Mrs. Joseph E. Bejin, Jr. . . . married her husband, she did so with open eyes, knowing that NOTHING could deter one of the Bejin men from a trip "up north" during the hunting season—and the Bejins' friends feel there is something poetic about Daniel Patrick Bejin's arrival last month, while his father was away in the woods (Robert Blondell drove his daughter to the hospital). Papa B. had an excuse this time, however; Daniel Patrick made his appearance one month ahead of schedule, and the prospective father (for the fourth time) had no inkling that his son's debut was so VERY imminent. To Joseph E. Bejin, Jr.'s eternal credit let it be said that he lost no time in coming home once he was apprised of the situation.

Much oo-ing and ah-ing . . . at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Saturday night, as guests at the Commodore's Ball viewed GPYC's newly redecorated main dining room, resplendent in shades of blue, white and gold, highlighted by oil paintings and glittering, golden chandeliers.

An emergency animal relief project . . . is one of Mrs. Homer D. Swander's current interests. Over 600 dogs in Alaskan Eskimo villages are in danger of starvation, their food supply curtailed by scanty walrus hunting—a by-product of the Alaskan earthquake. Calls for help from the villages were relayed via the Alaska Disaster Office in Anchorage through the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to the American Humane Society's headquarters in Denver, Colo., which immediately rushed 4,000 pounds of dogfood north. The dogs are a vital part of winter communications for the Eskimo villages, and the rescue mission appears to be a continuing operation. Mrs. Swander reports that financial assistance is most definitely needed and will be gratefully accepted by Rutherford T. Phillips, Director, American Humane Society, 896 Pennsylvania, Denver, Colo.

PILFERINGS

The only thing that can console one for being poor is extravagance. The only thing that can console one for being rich is economy. —Oscar Wilde

A man asked a veterinarian to dock the tail of his mongrel pup.

"A most unusual request except for certain breeds of purebred dogs," the vet replied.

"Please do it, and do it so that no tail remains," the man insisted.

"Just out of curiosity," said the vet, "why are you making such a strange demand?"

"Well," replied the man, "my mother-in-law's coming to visit next week, and I don't want a single sign of welcome in the whole house."

General Robert E. Lee, on Whiskey: "I like it, I always did, and that is the reason I never use it."

Advertisements are now so numerous that they are very negligently perused, and it is therefore become necessary to gain attention by magnificence of promises and by eloquence sometimes sublime and sometimes pathetic. Promise—large promise—is the soul of advertising . . . The trade of advertising is now so near perfection that it is not easy to propose any improvement.

—Samuel Johnson, "The Idler," 1758

A salesman who was growing nervous about traveling by air went to a statistician one day. "Can you tell me," he asked, "what the odds would be against my boarding an aircraft on which somebody had hidden a bomb?"

"I can't tell you until I've analyzed the available data," the statistician replied. "Come back again in a week."

"Well," the salesman asked on his next visit, "do you have the answer?"

"Certainly," the statistician said. "The odds are one million to one against your getting on an aircraft with a bomb on it."

"Those are good odds," the salesman mused, "but I'm not sure they're good enough for me. I travel a good deal."

"Well, if you want to be really safe," the statistician said, "carry a bomb with you. The odds are one billion to one against your boarding an aircraft with two bombs on it."

Yachtswomen Will Hold Christmas Party Tonight

The Yachtswomen's annual Christmas party is scheduled to be held this evening, Thursday, at seven o'clock at the St. Clair Yacht Club. Dinner will be followed by a program which will be put on by the Eileen Marlow School of Dance. Guests will also exchange gifts.

Chairman of the party is Beverly West. She is being assisted by Mrs. Lorne Bennett, Mrs. Robert Kelstrom, Mrs. Theodore Kurk and Mrs. Leonard Bennett.

At the November meeting of the Yachtswomen, the officers were elected for the coming year. They are: president, Mrs. Robert Murdock; vice-president, Mrs. Richard Randall; recording secretary, Mrs. Frederick Granger; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Emerson Krantz; treasurer, Mrs. Gordon MacNeil and assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Roy Landahl.

A gift was presented to the outgoing president, Mrs. Frank Weyburn by the president-elect, Mrs. Murdock.

'Lucia' Begins Christmas

Bearing coffee and saffron buns, with a crown of lighted candles on her head, 'Lucia,' (NANCY RAE, daughter of the Sam G. Raes), assisted by her star boy and girl (EDWARD and LINNEA MEILLER, children of the Edward Meillers), welcomes the Christmas season according to Swedish tradition. Lucia and her attendants will appear at Lochmoor Club Saturday evening. A dinner dance is planned to celebrate the start of the holiday season for members of the Swedish community and their friends.

To Fete Faculty At Dominican

The Mothers and Fathers Clubs of Dominican High School will jointly sponsor a Christmas Party Thursday, December 17, at 8 o'clock in the School Cafeteria.

Father Gerald Britz, School Chaplain, Sister Mary Julita, Principal, and all members of the Faculty will be the guests of honor.

The primary purpose of the party is to express in some small way appreciation and gratitude to the nuns at Dominican. There will be an orchestra for those who wish to dance; an opportunity to talk with old friends and also meet the parents of girls attending Dominican, and an opportunity to meet all the members of the faculty in an atmosphere removed from "school talk."

There will be no admission charge. If they wish, those attending may mail a check, based on the amount they would ordinarily spend for Christmas gifts for the teachers, made payable to the Dominican Fathers Club. This eliminates the gift problem and answers the question . . . "what can I give Sister?" The amount of these checks will be given to Sister Julita at the party.

Dr. Pauline Knapp Talks To Personnel Women

Dr. Pauline Knapp of Provençal road, president of The Merill-Palmer Institute, will be the guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Personnel Women of Detroit, Thursday, December 10, in the Penthouse of the Veterans Memorial Building at 5:30 o'clock. A social hour and dinner will follow. Dr. Knapp will discuss the subject of "Dealing With Older Employees."

A noted author and leader in child development education, Dr. Knapp is Chief Administrator of one of the most unusual institutions of higher education in the nation. Under her direction are many programs involving most facets of life, beginning with courtship and leading to marriage, family, and the later years.

The Personnel Women of Detroit is a professional association of women engaged in personnel and industrial relations work at an executive, administrative and supervisory level. It is affiliated with the International Association of Personnel Women.

To Hang Greens December 13

The Detroit Historical Museum will don festive holiday dress this year on December 13, when Detroit Historical Society Guild members and their families gather for the traditional Hanging of the Greens, under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Hibbler and co-chairman Miss Marguerite Sherman.

Every nook and cranny of the museum has a sub-committee devoted to making its area a picture of Christmas wonder. With unlimited ingenuity and imagination, all the colorful symbols from centuries and cultures past will be employed to create a memory-stirring atmosphere for museum guests of all ages.

One of the Guild members' favorite spots is the Industrial Hall Balcony, which this year is under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Knighton, of Lakepointe avenue. Looking over the balcony one can view the towering 25-foot Christmas tree, gift of The Native-Born Detroiters, which will dominate the Round Hall.

In the Schoolroom the committee of Mrs. Norman L. Parker, of Bedford road, may find concentration on their task difficult. Tantalizing odors of the savory fare being set out in the Hall of Citizenship will drift through the air; promptly at 4 o'clock, that most traditional of all Christmas rituals . . . the gathering together of all the merry gentlemen and gentlewomen before the festive board will occur.

Happy families will choose from the variety of dishes contributed by members of the Guild, they will visit and compare notes on their individual holiday plans, and they will return to their homes with friendships strengthened and the satisfaction of a job well done.

Feature Dance Group At AAUW Gathering

Holiday Program Tonight to Include Contemporary Dance Interpretations; Studio Arts Group Working to Complete Xmas Projects

An experimental dance group performing contemporary dances, the Wayne State University Dance Workshop, will present the Christmas program for the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The group will entertain AAUW members, husbands, and friends following a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center tonight, Thursday, December 10.

Professor Ruth Murray, who organized the dance production group 34 years ago, will provide commentary on the dance program. The Dance Workshop is an instructional, intramural activity, similar to a drama group or glee club. The Workshop offers an opportunity for its graduate and undergraduate members to present their creative works in a performing art before an audience.

Annual concerts and additional performances are given at the University, in the metropolitan Detroit community, and in nearby cities, such as Jackson and Toledo. Frequently the Dance Workshop collaborates with other University departments, such as the University Theater, the Music Department, and the Office of Religious Activities.

The Dance Workshop serves the University-Community audience by offering programs that are aesthetically sound and are interrelated with the disciplines of the other arts. Associate Professor Julia Sanford has served as director of the Dance Workshop for 10 years. She is assisted by Harriet Berg and Patricia Brooks Welling.

In other AAUW activities this month, the Studio Arts group will meet at 7:30 o'clock Thursday, December 10, and Thursday, December 17, to complete work on Christmas projects.

The Book Group, Contemporary Literature Group, Legislative Program, Tuesday Evening Group, and American Family Group will not meet during December.

Women who have recently become members of AAUW are Mrs. Theodore George, Mrs. Robert Gross, Mrs. John McLeod, Mrs. Oscar B. Marx, II, Mrs. Alexander McNeill, Mrs. Frederick Metry, Mrs. John Skewis, Mrs. Donald Venderbush, Mrs. G. C. Woomer and Mrs. Peter P. Younger.

Anyone interested in joining AAUW may contact membership chairman Mrs. Urban Borech, 882-4692, for information. Women graduates of accredited colleges and universities are eligible for membership.

friends at pre-Ball celebrations, as will Mrs. Edsel Ford, honorary patroness chairman, who has planned a dinner before the dance.

An Appropriate Topic

Snow is falling as we write this column—big, wet, heavy flakes are twisting in the wind... and the very idea of a Franklin Stove conjures up visions of warmth and cozy homeliness.

Appropos of the season, Mrs. John Pear has chosen the pre-Christmas meeting of the Questers at which to deliver her excellent paper on Franklin Stoves.

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Questers will gather tomorrow morning at the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Hugh Stalker. Co-hostesses will be Miss Mary Coyne and Mrs. Edward Gehrig.

According to Questers' holiday custom, a gift exchange of inexpensive antiques will take place after luncheon.

Music, And A Holiday Tea

Carols will lend a particularly festive air to The Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club's traditional Christmas Tea.

St. Francis Home for Boys Choir is to provide the music—and Mrs. Raphael E. Danaher's Lakeshore road home will be, as always, a perfect party setting.

Hostessing at the program-party next Tuesday afternoon will be Mrs. Danaher, Mrs. Frederick H. Curtis, Mrs. Thomas P. Archer, Mrs. Alfred LaFerte, Mrs. Rufus Clark and Mrs. Ward Detwiler.

Their First 'White Christmas'

In Bogota, Colombia, temperatures average 70° the year 'round—so the 16 young Colombian adults who arrived in Michigan a few days before Thanksgiving have had to make weather, as well as language and custom, adjustments.

The South Americans, traveling under the auspices of the United States-Colombian Cultural Exchange Program, sponsored in this area by the Christian Family Movement, will celebrate their first White Christmas in a few weeks.

During their two months in the United States, these young men and women who already possess degrees in various fields (social work, physical education, dentistry, language, law, philosophy), will be exposed to orientation in the American way of living.

A classroom period at Wayne State University is to be followed by a period of practical experience, with each individual placed in a social agency, where he will perform the work of his professional choice.

And, as a VERY important part of their "North American Experience," each of the visitors is making his home for the duration with an American family.

Seven Pointe families have opened their doors to the Colombians, including Mr. and Mrs. Cyril V. Jason, of Moorland drive, whose Extra Place at the Christmas dinner table will be occupied by Maria Teresa Caro.

Other Pointers and their guests are Dr. and Mrs. Leon J. Kosek, of Birch lane, Dr. Esther Castelblanco; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Molliter, of Westchester road, Ruth L. Gabriel; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Hollerbach, of Lewiston road, Elsa Gomez; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ploen, of University place, Orlando Martinez; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kolojeski, of Madison road, Luis Ernesto Rodriguez; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, of Lochmoor boulevard, Margo Pulgarin.

The Carl Agostas are program coordinators. Incidentally, American young people are encouraged to do their part in the Exchange, to visit Bogota during the summer months when classes here are in recess.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Addy, Jr., of Kensington road, announced the engagement of their daughter, KATHLEEN MARIE, to Thomas J. Strobl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Strobl, of Rosemary road, at a Thanksgiving dinner party for members of the two families.

Miss Addy, a Dominican High School graduate, will be graduated from Mercy School of Nursing, Detroit, this June.

Mr. Strobl is a graduate of Michigan State University, where he affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi. He is presently attending graduate school at the University of Michigan.

An August wedding is being planned by the couple.

FINAL PAYMENT

The Farms council on Monday, December 7, approved a final payment of $479.29, to the William T. Kriegerhoff company, for work completed on the modernized Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Luss, of Lincoln road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Robert Zuehlke, son of the Milton Zuehlke's of Hunt Club drive.

Barbara will receive her Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from Miami University, Oxford, O., in June. She is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta, and is vice-president of her Sorority.

Mr. Zuehlke will graduate from General Motors Institute, with a Bachelor of Engineering Degree, and is a member of Phi Tau Alpha. A July wedding is being planned.

PREMIUM PAID

At its regular meeting held on Monday, December 7, the Farms council approved the payment of $5,882.15 to the Northwestern Life Insurance company, as the annual premium on the group life insurance of city employees.

Santa Will Visit Harper Hospital

The traditional Christmas party given by the Harper Hospital Auxiliary for the Out-Patient Department of Harper Hospital will be held December 14. Distribution of home made cookies and fruit juice will help to brighten the spirits of the many patients there.

Children in the Pediatrics Department are looking forward to Santa's visit to them in the hospital on December 22, when the Auxiliary will provide the annual Christmas party.

A bright tree, sparkling with pretty ornaments, Christmas carols, jingle bells, and jolly Santa himself, (Dr. Edward J. Shumaker is always a perfect Santa), driving his red sleigh filled with gaily wrapped gifts contributed by Auxiliary members, will banish all doubts and fears, and Christmas stars will be shining in wonder-filled days. All through the year Auxiliary members work magic in changing tears to smiles in the Pediatrics Department by providing entertainment and Pinko-Puppets for the children.

Proceeds from the sale of Auxiliary Christmas cards will benefit the Intensive Care Unit of the hospital. This new and expanding Unit of Harper, reserved for patients requiring complex nursing care, is staffed by highly skilled nurses especially trained in using the life-saving equipment available there.

Women's City Club Has Holiday Plans

Traditional Christmas Tea "For Members Only" Scheduled This Thursday, December 10, From 3 Until 5 O'clock

Christmas begins early in December at The Women's City Club of Detroit. Members and guests can enjoy several Christmas dinners there and still gather by home firesides for The Day.

Having had 800 dinner guests on Thanksgiving, the club will be closed for Christmas and New Year's days and the week-ends after each holiday. Early reservations are suggested for the regular dinner to be served on New Year's eve.

After Mrs. Harry J. Miller and her Flower and Garden committee completed traditional Hanging of the Greens on Sunday, December 6, the calendar is filled with events and the reservation books are jammed with private holiday parties.

Something brand new is on the books at the Club. The Magazine and Publicity committee has dreamed up a whole series of exhibits and programs on the top interests of women started December 7 and continuing until June 7.

Peggy Lewis Thompson, director of Home Services of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, and Marion Ryan, director of Electric Living for Detroit Edison, drew straws to see who'd speak first on the opening day of the series, December 7.

Peggy won and talked about new food gift ideas, (for the milkman, the mailman, the bachelor and favorite aunt on the Christmas list). She'll also tell how to wrap these unique presents. She thinks a real present is something one makes, with which true Christmas spirit goes from donor to recipient.

Trio Of Parties Slated At DYC

Three pre-holiday parties, each with a special Christmas flavor of its own, are scheduled at the Detroit Yacht Club in the next weeks.

Mrs. Harry Oliver is chairman of the day for the monthly fashion show, "Christmas Meritment," to be held next Tuesday, December 15. The party begins with a 12 o'clock luncheon, featuring a complimentary punch bowl.

After lunch and merriment at the club on Saturday, December 19, DYC children will meet Santa Claus, receive a free gift, see movies and enjoy other entertainment.

The annual Commodore's Christmas Coffee Hour, a complimentary affair for members and their wives, is slated Sunday, December 20, from 3 until 5 o'clock, in the East Lounge, where a roaring fire will blaze a welcome.

Club to Hear Orchid Expert

Jerry Kulaja, member and former officer of the Michigan Orchid Society, will speak on "Basic Facts in Orchid Growing" when Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe holds its regular meeting Thursday, December 17, at 8 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

In accordance with previous practice, the December meeting will be a "Ladies Night."

In the hospital administration field for 25 years, Kulaja has been administrator of Doctors Hospital since its organization in 1953. He is a member of the American College of Hospital Administrators.

At his present new residence in Stonehurst road, Kulaja maintains a greenhouse which houses more than 2,000 orchids. At his former residence, he raised several hundred rose plants and several hundred chrysanthemums at the same time. He is a student judge in the American Orchid Society, a probationary judge for Orchid Digest Corporation, and a member of Greenhouse Gardeners.

In the course of his talk, Kulaja will cover the subjects of light, temperature, relative humidity and ventilation, potting media, potting, watering, fertilizing and control of pests. He will also show color slides taken at various orchid shows and, if conditions permit, display orchid plants in bloom.

At this meeting, the Club will also install its officers for the coming year. All male gardeners in the area are invited to attend, and may bring their wives to this meeting.

members may "adopt" one and join the fun at the Mother and Daughter Holiday luncheon Wednesday, December 30.

And after December, 1964 end, the brisk pace will continue through the doorway at 2110 Park avenue, the home of The Women's City Club of Detroit for 40 years.

GPYC Officers And Their Ladies

The 35th annual Commodore's Ball was held Saturday evening at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, to honor the new COMMODORE HAROLD E. CROSS, M.D., and MRS. CROSS. Pictured as they arrive at the Club are (left to right), VICE COMMODORE and MRS. JOHN W. PAYNTER, Commodore and Mrs. Cross, and REAR COMMODORE and MRS. HARRY J. CHAPMAN.

LWV to Meet Next Tuesday

What kind of governmental structure Wayne County should have if it is granted home rule will be discussed by the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters at 8 o'clock Tuesday, December 15.

Mrs. Edward Cushman, of Dearborn, who has been an active participant in the study of Wayne County home rule, will meet with the members of the Grosse Pointe League's three-unit groups at the home of Mrs. Douglas Sargent in Grand Marais boulevard.

The Grosse Pointe League is one of the Leagues in the county which is studying and evaluating Wayne County home rule as one of its local study items. The Leagues in the County have voted to support the concept of home rule and currently are considering the kind of charter they feel would be effective.

The structure of the new county government would be specified in the charter, which voters would have to approve.

One question being explored is who should have the executive power in a county form of government. Three possibilities are under consideration: (1) an elected executive officer, who would be comparable to a mayor in a city form of government; (2) an elected executive and an appointed administrative officer; and (3) a county manager, who would be selected by an elected legislative body such as a council.

The size and the nature of the power of a county legislative body is also being studied by the Leagues. The size of this body would depend on the form of executive power. If the same body had both legislative and executive functions, it should be a small group.

The Leagues expect to reach agreement on these questions soon in order that the Leagues and their members will be prepared to take positions and vote effectively on the charter.

Mrs. Cushman is a member of the Dearborn League of Women Voters. She has long been active in League work and, in addition to participating in the study of Wayne County home rule, she served as a Con-Con delegate.

Mrs. Howard Hush is chairman of the Grosse Pointe League's committee which is studying the issue of county home rule.

Kenneth D. Smith On Minesweeper

Seaman Kenneth D. Smith, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Smith of 857 Roslyn road, participated recently in a joint mine countermeasures exercise with units of the Republic of Korea Navy while serving aboard the coastal minesweeper USS Whippoorwill.

The operation, held off the coast of Yosu Haeman, Korea, was designed to give ships and units from both nations practical experience in mine warfare.

Both during and since the Korean conflict, the United States and Korean navies have worked together on several occasions.

Garden Clubbers Wrap Packages

"Wrap a Pretty Christmas Package for Others" was the project chosen for the December Meeting of the Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club. The workshop was held in the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Ernest Lamb, beginning at 9 o'clock Friday, December 4. At noon, Mrs. P. O. Petersen welcomed the diligent workers to a Christmas luncheon served in her home in Renard road. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Clifford Benson and Mrs. Clifford Loranget. After a short business meeting, a committee of members delivered the "Pretty Christmas Packages" to the Columbia Medical Hospital in the Columbia Avenue, Detroit, for distribution Christmas morning to elderly patients. Participating in the workshop were new members Mrs. Paul S. Giffin, Mrs. Delmar D. Robertson and Mrs. Russell W. Vance.

Program Given By Music Club

The Four Octave Club held its Christmas program yesterday morning at the Women's City Club. Helen Keydel served as chairman of the day. Gizi Szanto, pianist and honorary club member, included in her group of pieces two of her own compositions. Cecilia Mahoney, violinist, and Camella Ehrlich, pianist, performed a sonata by Debussy. The program concluded with Lotta Winkler leading the group in Christmas carols.

Frederick Toepel To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Bohumil Frederick Groulik of Lincoln, Neb., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Juliann Florence, to Frederick Toepel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Toepel, of Beaconsfield Avenue. Miss Groulik and Mr. Toepel are both residents of Corona del Mar, Calif. Miss Groulik attended Iowa State College and was graduated from Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. She taught school in Germany with the U.S. Army Dependents Education Group for two years and is currently an elementary school teacher in Garden Grove, Calif. Mr. Toepel is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, the University of Michigan School of Engineering, and the University of Michigan Graduate School. He is at present an engineer with Ford Aeronautics in Newport Beach, Calif. They plan a January 2 wedding, in California.

Deer Hunting Big Business

Michigan deer hunters spent more than $13 million on food, lodging and recreation during the 16-day season, according to preliminary figures from a recent Michigan University research study. The survey of Michigan's overall tourist and recreational travel picture is being conducted under a special $78,000 grant by the Michigan Legislature. The CMU Center for Economic Expansion is responsible for the study which is being conducted with work being coordinated at other Michigan universities. "Our preliminary survey of the impact of Michigan's deer 2,700 interviews among the season is based on more than some 450,000 hunters and covers every type of accommodation," said Charles R. Owens, survey director. "The dollar figure does not include money spent on transportation, equipment and license sales." "We found the average party to be about four persons who hunt some five and a half days. We also found that the average hunter spends about $30 during that five and a half days." The 15-month-long survey will cover every season and is designed to give tourism officials a measuring stick to more accurately determine the value of Michigan's tourist industry. "The preliminary material which the Central Michigan study has developed has already given us more new insights into our industry and we are confident that the completed study will be of great value," said William T. McGraw, director of the Michigan Tourist Council. "In some cases the preliminary work appears to confirm previous Council research done on a limited scale. In other matters it is pioneering new areas which the industry previously has been financially unable to study," he said. The CMU survey work got underway early in 1964 and results are expected to be available by the end of 1965.

Expecting 'Grape Expectations'

Airport Program Deficit Slashed

The Wayne County Road Commission reported that it has reduced the deficit in its multimillion dollar airport expansion program at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport from $8.7 million to $3.2 million. James M. Davey, Managing Director of Wayne County Road Commission, reported that he is confident that the Commission will not have to seek an additional bond issue to finish the project. "We feel that we will be able to retain integrity of the program and yet effect savings that will make additional bonding unnecessary," he said. "However, the final decision will be made next spring," Davey said. Davey said the major items of savings were developed by adopting a plan to permit private capital to be used for two major airport improvements. One is an air cargo building to be constructed by United Airlines at a cost of approximately $2.7 million. The second project is the construction of a double deck parking garage that will cost $2.5 million. In both cases the structures will ultimately become the property of the airport after their costs are amortized. During that period the Road Commission will receive land rental totaling $33,000 annually from United Airlines and a percentage of the parking fees from the successful parking garage bidder. Other savings were made in various changes of plans and material. At present the program cost is estimated at $44,462,823. Davey said the completion date for certain segments of the program is presently estimated for October 7, 1965. He said these segments are four loading fingers and the expansion of the present terminal building. He said the new terminal building will be completed by Nov. 16, 1965, with total project completion scheduled for Dec. 1, 1965. Under contractual arrangements the airlines now based at Willow Run Airport will move to Nov. 1, 1965. Davey said he is certain the airlines will be provided their new facilities earlier than the November date. Plans are in progress for a new Central Services Building that will house a deluxe dining room, in-flight kitchen, 175 hotel rooms and various shops. Davey said the first three floors of the estimated $4.6 million building will be completed at the same time the expansion program is completed. This will permit the opening of the dining room, shops and in-flight kitchen. "The additional five floors that will house the hotel rooms will be completed by the spring of 1966," Davey said. The airport expansion program will consolidate all major commercial passenger air travel in the metropolitan area at the Metropolitan Airport. The entire program is being financed with revenue bond funds at no cost to the general tax fund of the county.

To Hear Talk On Porcelain

Mrs. Charles A. Chapman will be the speaker on Thursday, December 10, when the Pear Tree Chapter of the Quorists will meet at the home of Mrs. Minert N. Thompson. Mrs. Burke Arehart will be the assistant hostess. Mrs. Chapman's subject will be Chinese Export Porcelain, that beautiful ceramic ware so prized by the early traders. They brought it back from China on the tall sailing schooners via the Cape Horn or the Cape of Good Hope route.

St. James Guild Plans Yule Tea

The annual Women's Guild Christmas Tea will be held at St. James Lutheran Church at 7:45 p.m. on Wednesday, December 16. Mrs. R. B. Fahim, of the Program Committee, has arranged to have the Lutheran Choralists provide an evening of Christmas music. The Choralists are composed of 18 men, of various Lutheran churches, who joined together to form a choral group interested in presenting sacred music to their audiences. The group is under the direction of Gerald List. The festive tea table will be staffed by the Dorcas Group, headed by Mrs. W. B. Busse.

Election Held At Star of Sea

The Alumni Association of Our Lady Star of the Sea School held its first meeting Saturday, November 28. Officers, elected at this inaugural session, include Carol Stoneback, of Balauntine road, president. Mary Beth Blake, of Three Mile drive, will serve as recording secretary. Sandra Murray, of East Outer drive, will act as corresponding secretary, assisted by Pam Addy, of Cook road. Treasurer will be Jackie Pusey, of Barclay road. The Association has adopted a scholarship fund as its main project. A luncheon for '63 and '64 graduates is scheduled December 30, at Eddy Pawls.

Pointe FOP Set For Xmas Party

The Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 102, has arranged its plans for a Christmas party for the children of active and associate members. The party will be held in the Fries Auditorium, War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore, on Sunday, December 13, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Santa Claus will visit the children, and there will be lots of entertainment, including a movie. There will be gifts for the kiddies. Active and Associate members and their children are invited. Woods Patrolman Steven Petrik is chairman of the affair.

Meeting Slated

The December meeting of Libri Club is scheduled next Monday, at 12:30 o'clock, at the Tonnancour place home of Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell. Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. J. Henry Pichler, Mrs. Philip C. Baker, Mrs. Bruce A. Kirk and Mrs. Charles C. Andrews. Following luncheon, Mrs. Richard Gerathy will present a program of Christmas arrangements.

Delta Kappa Gammes Hold Christmas Tea

Members of the Alpha Mu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, sorority for women educators, held their annual Christmas tea at the Fairway drive home of Mrs. Mercedes Jacobs, on the afternoon of December 9. Mrs. Charlotte Goring, Margaret Schmidt, and Marion Hendee also served as hostesses. Over coffee and tencups, plans were discussed for future meetings designed to carry out the organization's theme for the year, "Changing Patterns in Other Cultures."

SMORGAS-BORED?

... Here's the cure. Take an old-fashioned walk this Friday along 40 feet of lusciously laden table in the Sheraton-Cadillac's Town Room. Here you'll find a colorful, succulent collection of baked ham, assorted broiled fish, a bounty of Chicago rounds of beef, stacks of disjointed chicken and dressing, oceans of Seafood Newburg, piles of pink shrimp, loads of Salmon Bellevue, mounds of vegetables, salads, rolls and desserts. The tab for this Swedish delight? One that even Mr. Benny wouldn't mind picking up... just $2.95 per person. This entree you to make as many journeys up and down the table as your stomach will allow. The feast takes place between the hours of 5 and 10 p.m., and if you can't get your fill in five hours, we'll give you a rain check for next week. Respectfully, the Town Room in the Sheraton-Cadillac, Detroit's largest, most accommodating hotel.

Berganza Sings Here on Dec. 11

Mezzo-soprano Teresa Berganza will appear in the Founders Society Concert Series Friday evening, December 11, in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium.

Miss Berganza is well-known through numerous operatic and concert appearances, as well as recordings. Her voice has been acclaimed as a true mezzo-soprano with a vocal range extending two and a half octaves.

She made her American debut in 1958 with the Dallas Civic Light Opera. After European engagements, including famous festivals — Glyndebourne, and Edinburgh, as well as appearances at Milan's La Scala, Vienna's Staatsoper and London's Covent Garden — Miss Berganza returned to New York in 1962 to make her American Opera Society debut in the title role of Rossini's "Cenerentola." Later, she appeared with the Chicago Lyric Opera.

Her December 11 program will include Donizetti, Rossini, Debussy, Ravel, and other classical compositions, as well as songs composed by her husband and accompanist, Felix Lavilla, announced Edith J. Freeman, chairman of the Music Committee for the Founders Society.

Tickets for the concert are available at the World Adventure Series ticket office in The Detroit Institute of Arts and at Grinnell's in downtown Detroit. All performances will be in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium at 8:20 o'clock.

St. Clair Yacht Club Elects New Officers

Recent elections at the St. Clair Yacht Club, at the foot of Meadowbrook in Detroit, have netted the following results:

Harry R. Rager was named Commodore. He is to be assisted by Vice Commodore Max A. Todd and Rear Commodore James M. Robertson.

Other officers include Fleet Captain Thomas W. Coleman, secretary Arthur B. Stanley and treasurer Jerry D. Berkey.

Board members elected for a two-year term were Bert A. Hyman and Walter R. Ottersdorf. Donald E. Poulin and Cyril V. Verbrugge will remain on the Board to serve the second year of their term of office.

The Junior members also held an election and named Carol Ann Kohs as their new chairman. She is assisted by vice chairman and treasurer Bob Gartner, secretary Joy Warren.

Barry A. Trombly Now in Coast Guard

Barry A. Trombly, seaman recruit, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Trombly of 532 Notre Dame, was graduated recently, from recruit training at the Coast Guard Recruit Training Center, Cape May, New Jersey.

The training included military drill, small boat handling, small arms training, firefighting, seamanship, atomic and biological warfare, first aid, law enforcement and Coast Guard history.

He will now be assigned to one of the many Coast Guard units or to a technical training school. After reaching his new assignment, he will perform duties in one or more of the major missions of the Coast Guard.

Christmas Shopping Made Easy for Vets

American Legion Auxiliary Members Stock Gift Shops in Hospitals where Presents May Be Selected and Sent Without Any Charge

Christmas packages from "Daddy" are being received these days by the families of hospitalized war veterans throughout the country, even though "Daddy" may be bedfast and without funds, reports Mrs. Mary DelBarba, Rehabilitation Chairman of Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The gift-wrapped packages come from the Christmas gift shops operated by the American Legion Auxiliary in some 200 hospitals where veterans are under treatment, Mrs. DelBarba explained. The Auxiliary is expending nearly $400,000 and thousands of hours of volunteer work to make it possible for veterans who must spend Christmas in the hospitals, to send gifts home.

"The typical American Legion Auxiliary gift shop is set up in a spare room in the hospital," said Mrs. DelBarba. "The room is brightened with gay decorations and Christmas music is played. Gift articles supplied by Auxiliary Units throughout the state are attractively displayed, and Auxiliary volunteers are on duty as clerks and wrappers."

"Ambulant patients and those in wheel chairs or on crutches come to the shop where they make selections of gifts for members of their families. There are no prices, no charge for anything. The selected articles are gift-wrapped, packaged and mailed to the veterans' home by the Auxiliary volunteers, with a card from "Daddy."

"Hospital carts piled high with gift articles are taken to the bedsides of patients unable to visit the shop, so that these patients can make their selections."

"On Christmas morning there will be gifts for all of the hospitalized veterans from the Auxiliary, but we believe they appreciate more the opportunity to have a part in Christmas giving which the gift shops bring to them."

In addition to the gifts donated by Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303, those who volunteered their time for the Gift Shop in the Grosse Pointe area were Mrs. Elva Nielsen, Mrs. Mary Thomson and Mrs. Mary DelBarba.

Cancer Figures, Facts Published

Of the estimated 295,000 Americans who will die of cancer in 1965, about 92,000 will die who might have been saved by earlier detection and treatment, according to "1965 Cancer Facts and Figures," published by the American Cancer Society. Another 183,000 whose cancers will be diagnosed for the first time in 1965 will live to join the 1.3 million Americans who have been cured of cancer. A "cured" cancer patient generally is one who survives five years after treatment with no recurrence of the disease.

This information is among 32 pages of facts and statistics on cancer, the second greatest killer of Americans, contained in the 1965 edition of "Cancer Facts and Figures."

An authoritative collection of data from several sources, "Cancer Facts and Figures" is published annually for free distribution to editors, writers, librarians, teachers, students and others who require statistics and background data on cancer.

Data on research; tables on cancer mortalities by age and sex; site of affliction and home state; and information such as the economic loss due to cancer are included in the booklet. Dramatizing the personal loss that cancer inflicts is a list of prominent persons who have succumbed to the disease, Pope John was one of these as were Speaker Sam Rayburn, King Paul of Greece, Novelist Rachel Carson and Detroit golf champion Horton Smith.

Teeners Enjoy Weekly Parties

Every Saturday night (except when Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth Council holds a dance), the senior High School crowd is gathering in "The Celler" at Lakepointe and Kercheval for dancing to the music of the "Misfits".

Admission is 50 cents for members and 75 cents for guests.

On Friday nights the Junior High Schoolers dance to records, shoot table pool, and play ping-pong. Admission is a membership or guest fee.

Look to Skies For Yule Show

"For Christmas decorations, the eastern horizon is host to some of the most striking and colorful constellations of the year," University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh reminds.

"Auriga, the large five-sided figure, ruled by the bright yellow star, Capella, rises soon after sunset."

"The Pleiades, followed by the rest of the constellation (Taurus) rises at about the same time as Capella. Taurus is symbolized by the great letter 'V' with its orange star, Aldebaran, at the lower point," Professor Losh says.

"The winter constellations center mostly around Orion. With his Hunting Dogs, Betelgeuse, in his shoulder and the bright Rigel in his knee strides majestically across the southern sky."

"Sirius is easily identified by extending a line downward through the Belt Stars of Orion. From time immemorial, Sirius has been watched, admired, and revered, rising as it does in the early evenings around Christmas time. It was the 'Star of the East,' pointed to by 'Three Wise Men of Orion.'"

"Fittingly, the Northern Cross (Cygnus) is steadily moving toward the west, and may be seen to splendid advantage on Christmas Eve. After dark, it will stand upright against the western sky, a beautiful symbol of the season."

Professor Losh also points out that Venus continues as the bright morning star and will be rising about two hours ahead of the sun.

Jupiter is well above the eastern horizon at sunset and shines the whole night through. At sunset, Saturn is on the south meridian, and set around 10-11 p.m.

Mars is rapidly coming into view, rising around midnight, a little to the right and at about the same time as Denebola in Leo."

Juniors Plan Hunt Club Dance

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club juniors and their guests will hold a pre-Christmas dance next Saturday, December 12, in the clubhouse.

Playing for the informal dance will be the Monteiros, a teenage rock 'n' roll band from Detroit. The band has appeared on the Robin Seymour TV show and just made a first recording for Allard Recording Company.

The dance held from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock, will be chaperoned by the Walter Schmitts, David Amorys, John Kirilins and Arnold Savianos.

Warn Motorists On Hitchhikers

Unsuspecting motorists who pick up hitchhikers, do not have the least idea whom they might have picked up on the road. Possibly, the hitchhiker might be an escaped convict, a murderer, or any other type of person, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Some communities have laws against hitchhiking, and some do not, but in any case, the motorist should be wary about picking up anyone, especially at night. Picking up strangers can be a dangerous practice.

The chief cited a recent survey conducted by the New Jersey Turnpike Authority for a period of one year, to determine the types of people the motorists are apt to pick up on the turnpikes and what dangers they expose themselves to.

After completing the one year survey, it was disclosed, the Turnpike Authority found that among the hitch hikers, 162 were runaways; 98 were AWOL military personnel; seven were fugitives from mental hospitals; five were escaped convicts; and 501 had been fingerprinted and have criminal records.

"Picking up strangers, especially at night and on the open road, can be a very dangerous practice," Chief Louwers said. "It may be that a hitch-hiker is someone who really needs a lift, or perhaps in a case of aid because of a car breakdown, but the motorist has no way of knowing this, and if he stops to pick up the hitch-hiker, he might be picking up a lot of trouble."

Before you burn the bridges behind you be sure the road ahead is clear of obstacles.

A June wedding is planned.

Speed Delivery Of Parcel Post

A new "Scheduled Delivery" system now permits overnight delivery of ZIP Coded parcel post five days a week between Detroit and all post offices within a 25,200 square mile area of southern Michigan and north-eastern Ohio. Postmaster E. L. Baker announced.

The delivery area includes all of southern Michigan from the line Bay City-Mount Pleasant-Muskegon except the counties of Huron and Sanilac in the northeast and a portion of Berrien county in the southwest; and, in Ohio, an eight-county area surrounding Toledo. This area includes over 560 post offices and more than 7,972,000 people.

Deputy Postmaster General Frederick C. Belen discussed details of the plan and demonstrated the actual operation at a luncheon meeting in Detroit Monday.

Extensive testing has assured the success of this dramatic new program, which in effect offers "first rate service" for fourth-class mail, according to Postmaster Baker.

Mailing deadlines for the service will be 5:00 P.M. in Detroit—the time when lobby windows close.

"The Post Office Department found through extensive study," Postmaster Baker said, "that one of the major problems of the parcel post service has been the lack of dependability of delivery. For many mailers, it is often more important to know when a parcel is to be delivered than it is just to get it there in a hurry." For these reasons the Post Office Department developed the concept of Scheduled Delivery.

In the Scheduled Delivery area, parcels will be transported to the destination post office overnight and will be delivered to the addressee on the next scheduled parcel delivery. In most cases this will mean next-day parcel service. Postmaster Baker explained, because parcel post deliveries are made on five days out of the week.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT
Any man will tell you he wants a lot he doesn't get, and gets a lot he doesn't want.

Christmas Toy Exhibit Opens

A fabulous exhibit of toys and games from America's past opened December 6 at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

Row upon row of picturesque china dolls, exciting mechanical games and novelty toys recall the joy and magic children experienced at Christmas from Colonial times through the early 20th century.

Set in the mood of an early American Toy Shop, the exhibit includes hundreds of precious toys once popular in America. Among them is the ingenious Edison Talking Doll, personally constructed by the great Thomas A. Edison, which has a phonograph device concealed in it that plays the musical rhyme "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star."

Others include the famous "Pipsqueak Birds," colorful toy birds that produce melodious tones when their cloth bellows are depressed. There are bright metal fire engines, wagons and other pull toys that will widen the eyes of any child, miniature houses, stuffed and papier-mache dolls and hundreds upon hundreds of other fascinating items.

This special exhibit, open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. seven days weekly through January 3, is included in the regular admission charge to Henry Ford Museum.

Pi Beta Phi Holding Party

The Grosse Pointe Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club will hold its annual Christmas "Cookie Shine" in the home of Mrs. John Seiber, 1728 Hampton road on Monday evening, December 14, at 8 o'clock.

At this time the group will prepare Christmas treats of cigars, candy bars, and cookies for distribution at the North Annex Nursing Home on West Grand boulevard.

In lieu of a gift exchange members have been asked to donate money to help purchase a new television set for the Home.

Mrs. Albert Perlin heads the committee for this project.

Worst Traffic Bottleneck Ends

The final portion of a tri-level interchange at the Lodge Freeway and Eight Mile Road in Detroit was opened to traffic at noon Thursday, November 19.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said a $2.5 million bridge carrying Eight Mile over the Lodge Freeway has been opened to traffic nine months ahead of schedule.

Completion of the half-mile-long bridge ends one of the Motor City's worst traffic bottlenecks.

The Lodge-Eight Mile interchange is located at the edge of one of the world's largest shopping centers and one of the nation's biggest developments of private office buildings.

The intersection is one of Michigan's busiest. Nearly 200,000 cars and trucks pass through it daily.

Mackie commended the contractors and employees of the State Highway Department for completing the bridge ahead of schedule.

One of the major factors in its early completion was the use of the Critical Path Method (CPM) of construction.

The CPM method calls for the use of computers to schedule work on complicated projects, thus enabling the contractor to meet a rigid construction timetable.

Mackie said the Eight Mile Road bridge is the first highway bridge in the nation to be built with a new corrosion-resistant steel which doesn't need painting.

Main feature of the 6.5 million pounds of steel used in the bridge is that it has a built-in rust-proofing property which eliminates the need for painting.

The Eight Mile Road bridge was chosen as a test site for the new material because routine painting of the span's steel structures would seriously disrupt traffic, Mackie said.

Painting bridges in urban areas is very costly, Mackie said, because in many cases the work must be done on weekends, holidays and nights when traffic is light and premium wages must be paid to workers.

The U.S. Bureau of Public Roads has conducted limited tests of corrosion-resistant structural steel but the Michigan State Highway Department is the first one to use it in the construction of a highway bridge.

Buildings in Chicago and Moline, Ill., have been built with the new type steel.

Mackie said the color of the bridge will change from a reddish-brown to a chocolate-brown during the next year.

The bridges on the Lodge Freeway adjacent to the Eight Mile Rd. interchange have been painted progressively darker colors to give motorists a transition from standard aluminum paint to the dark steel used in the interchange.

L. A. Davidson Construction Co. of Lansing was the prime contractor on the tri-level interchange. The Eight Mile Road bridge was part of a $4.1 million contract the Lansing firm had for work in the immediate area.

Thomas F. Russell, of 1251 Three Mile drive, has been elected vice president—finance for Federal-Mogul-Bower Bearings, Inc.

Russell has responsibility for all of the company's financial management operations including the controller's and treasurer's functions. He had been director of finance, a newly created position, since May 1, 1964. Prior to that he had served for five years as controller for FMB.

He joined the company as an office boy in 1942. After serving with the U. S. Army during World War II, Russell was graduated from the University of Detroit in 1948.

He is currently vice-president of the National Association of Accountants and Treasurer of the Financial Executives Institute.

Ronald H. Goodwin, manager of the Warren-Alter office of National Bank of Detroit, was retired November 1 under the Bank's retirement plan after a 48-year career in banking.

Mr. Goodwin, who lives at 1176 Vernier road, joined NBD shortly after it was established in 1933. Previously he had served with People's State Bank and successor institutions.

Three Pointers have been elected members of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants: Kim Guy Nguyen, 316 Kerby; Charles Belden Van Dusen, 700 Woods lane, and Charles A. Eckert, 951 Woods lane.

Parke, Davis & Company has appointed Robert E. Hogue Assistant Director of Branch House Operations.

Hogue joined Parke-Davis in 1961 as assistant credit manager in the pharmaceutical firm's Denver branch, and a year later was transferred to Detroit as staff assistant to the branch house superintendent. In 1953, he was promoted to assistant to the manager in charge of internal operations of the firm's St. Louis branch and in 1957, was assigned a similar position in the Detroit branch. In 1962, Hogue was named manager of the firm's methods division in the executive offices, a position he held until his present assignment.

A native of Alliance, Neb., Hogue was graduated from the University of Colorado in 1949. He resides with his family at 854 Cadieux road.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Fries Auditorium
God's perpetual care for man in all facets of his life will be the theme at Christian Science services this Sunday. The Bible Lesson is titled "God the Preserver of Man."

Golden Text: "The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower" (Ps. 18:2).

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include these lines: "We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understandingly, warping no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God" (p. 140).

Quackery Cheats Arthritis Victims Out of Millions

"Phony" cures and misrepresented remedies are cheating arthritis victims in Michigan out of 15 million dollars a year, according to Duncan M. Laidlaw, of Birmingham, executive director of Michigan Arthritis Foundation.

Laidlaw added that a recent national Arthritis Foundation survey showed that "arthritis across the country are stuffing the copious pockets of unscrupulous miracle merchants with more than 250 million dollars annually."

Clifford C. Smythe, of Pleasant Ridge, president of Michigan Arthritis Foundation, pointed out that "even a portion of this amount would go a long way in helping the chapter provide proper medical care for arthritis victims, as well as boost the Arthritis Foundation's nationwide efforts to find a cure for this great crippler."

Dr. James Lightbody, of 195 Piper, Detroit, medical director for Michigan Arthritis Foundation, denounced quackery "because it involves more than the money itself." He said, "These exploited arthritis sufferers are buying false hope, and running a grave risk in delaying legitimate and proper medical care, which is the only answer to arthritis."

Dr. Lightbody called the great quackery swindle "a real tragedy." He explained that "modern medical care can today offer real help to arthritis victims; it can prevent severe crippling in seven out of ten cases."

Timing is important, however. Dr. Lightbody added in pointing out that "any lure which keeps arthritis victims from early diagnosis, or which delays their seeking a doctor's care, can only lead to great danger of crippling, which could become permanent."

Laidlaw noted that quackery is far from old-fashioned. "This great arthritic hoax is as contemporary as tomorrow," he said, "and only constant vigilance and public awareness can protect arthritic victims from this staggering waste of both funds and faith."

Dr. Lightbody, as well as Laidlaw and Smythe, urged arthritic sufferers or their families to check with their doctors or with the Michigan Arthritis Foundation if they have any questions on treatments or products. The Foundation's address is 1528 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. 48226.

CONTEMPT CITATIONS—Mrs. Donna Allen (left) and Mrs. Dagmar Wilson, Washington members of Women Strike for Peace, are shown outside a House Un-American Activities Subcommittee hearing in Washington, where they may have acquired contempt of Congress citations. The subcommittee voted to seek contempt citations because they refused to testify except in public. In the same boat is Russell Nixon of New York, general manager of the National Guardian.

768 ARRAIGNMENTS—This was the scene in Berkeley Community Theater at mass arraignment of 768 University of California students and ex-students over the mass sit-in of the Free Speech Movement in the administration building. Cases continued to Dec. 14.

UCLA CAMPUS—Police drag a U. of California coed down steps to a waiting bus in Berkeley as they arrest sit-in students protesting a ruling against picketing and speechifying on the campus. She and other arrestees wouldn't bestir themselves, so police hauled them off carcass-like.

SOVIETS DEMAND EQUAL SPACE—A delegation accompanying a Soviet health exhibit in Pittsburgh complains they are being treated unfairly in this flag display over the Civic Arena. They say the Hammer and Sickle flag is smaller than Old Glory.

"THE HOLY MAN FROM ROME"—Indians crowd balconies and fill the street to see Pope Paul VI, "the holy man from Rome," as he rides in an open Jeep through Bombay's poorer section. On this outing he said Mass for a congregation and donated to an orphanage.

A-BOMB INSANITY—Claude R. Eatherly, who flew the weather reconnaissance plane preceding the atom bombing of Hiroshima and who has been in constant trouble with the law since, has been adjudged insane by a court in Galveston, Tex., and committed to a hospital indefinitely. Eatherly, now 45, is shown in a World War II photo. He has always blamed his troubles on the atomic bombing of Hiroshima.

YOUNG LINCOLN?—Charles du Tant holds a portrait of a beardless man he believes may be Abraham Lincoln. His wife purchased the painting for $3 in Alexandria, Va. An expert at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington believes it was painted about 1840, and could be the earliest picture of Lincoln.

A CUSTODY BRAND O' TROUBLE—Actress Anna Kashfi shows bruises she claims were inflicted by rough handling while being taken to the pokey in Van Nuys, Calif., after a big ruckus with ex-husband actor Marion Brando in the swank Bel Air Sands Hotel in West L. A. over custody of their son. Brando got the boy by court order, and she ran screaming around the hotel, snapping at various people, and wound up charged with battery against Police Sgt. Ed Hall. She was running around clad in this nightie and robe, and that's the way she went to jail—for an hour.

CONGO RESCUE

PHOTOS FROM THE CONGO show refugees rescued from frenzied Red-backed rebels by the joint U.S.-Belgian paratroop swoop-down on Stanleyville. Many told tales of weeks of horror and fear for their lives on arrival here in Leopoldville. Others were shot down in the streets. (Cablephotos)

Wounded carried on stretchers from plane to ambulance.

A member of the reception service comforts a bewildered little boy and a weary woman whose face shows the strain.

BEFORE AND AFTER ALTERCATION—Here are "before" and "after" photos of singer Ronnie Rae, 23, "after" being attacked by actor Steve Cochran (shown) in Hollywood. She signed a complaint charging she was bound, gagged and beaten during a quarrel over her spilling a drink. She said it all happened when he invited her to his home to hear some of her songs.

ATHEIST RABBI—Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine (above), who built Birmingham (Mich.) Temple congregation from eight to 140 families in less than two years, came out with a declaration that he is an atheist. He said his congregation has known this for some time and by and large agrees with his philosophy. An atheist, says Webster's Dictionary, is a person who disbelieves in God.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

The War for the Union 1861-65 in Pictures

No. 481 "Few Americans, and certainly fewer Frenchmen, appreciate the influence of France on the American Civil War. On both sides, the American tactics, and even the uniforms and equipment were profoundly influenced by French thinking. Throughout the war there was deep concern in France for the outcome of the struggle. Torn between economic pressures from the mill owners and workers who critically needed American cotton, and the liberals who could not conceive of France supporting a government committed to a program of slavery, France found herself, at times, bitterly divided. . . .

"Of all the Frenchmen who played a personal role in the war by far the most interesting was a group of Royalists who offered their swords to the North. They were the brothers, the Comte de Paris and the Duc de Chartres."

The quotation is from illuminating text contributed by Maj. Gen. James M. Gavin, U.S. Army, to "A Civil War Album of Paintings by the Prince de Joinville," a handsome Christmas gift book (published by Atheneum, New York). It reproduces in full color some 20 of the Frenchman's impressions.

—CLARK KINNARD.

Right: Prince de Joinville's water-color of George Stoneman in the field. Stoneman, who had a decade of Indian fighting in the West before his cavalry exploits, 1861-63, was captured with 700 of his men in a raid on Macon during Sherman's campaign for Atlanta. Released within a few months (via one of the few prisoner exchanges Grant permitted after mid-1864), Stoneman was sent to a new command in the East. In Dec. 1864, he carried out a sweeping operation in southwestern Virginia. He drove out Confederates and captured salt works and lead mines vital to continued Rebel resistance.

SOB STORY—Janet Perring, 15, LeRoy, Ill., sobs as her grand champion steer Changer is auctioned off for $17.50 at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago. Changer weighs 1,020 pounds. At right is Janet's sister Gale, 11, holding the trophy.

BACK TO 'BAMA—John E. Grenier (above), hand-picked by Sen. Barry Goldwater as executive director of the Republican National Committee, has resigned and gone back to his old job, Alabama Republican chairman. Grenier was a chief organizer of Goldwater's convention delegate strength.

OFF TO POLAND—Henia Wysocki, 13, who fled her home Nov. 13 to escape returning to Poland with her parents, has decided she misses them and is leaving relatives in Bloomfield, Conn., to go to them. She wants to return to the U.S. when she is 18.

FOR SALE 13—REAL ESTATE

YOU MIGHT ADD this to your Christmas list: Call Purdy & Edgar for an appointment to see their house which is ready for immediate occupancy. All ready to go, and if you're in the know you'll realize that this listing on Handy Place is the only four bedroom offered today in the Radnor Park Subdivision. The realistic price of $36,500 should be enough to attract that buyer who demands two baths and four bedrooms.

ON BEAUTIFUL LEWISTON Road we are pleased to offer this five family bedroom house which is ideal for the family that requires easy accessibility to St. Paul's and Grosse Pointe High. On 212 feet of frontage, the house actually has an "extra" lot. We might add that there are two maid's rooms and a bath over the three car attached garage, with access to the main house. First floor "opens up" with library, living room and dining rooms each leading off from the entrance hall. Now vacant and ready for your furniture.

THIS ONE SHOULD head your list if you must have four bedrooms and desire the quiet of a limited access street. If you want prime location and a newer house, with forced air heat and a large kitchen with all the trimmings; if your family must have that additional room on the first floor, besides the living room and separate dining room; if you demand four bedrooms and a finished basement, and would like the convenience of an attached garage; if you want to move right in your next house which comes complete with good carpeting and draperies throughout... better call us... if you like the low tag of $49,000.

ON VENDOME we will show you one of the best examples of a large English manor house ever built in The Pointe. In the same neighborhood but around the corner on Cloverly Road, we offer another large English house which will wew you with the charm woven into it by its present owner.

ANOTHER English house with the perfect layout for a growing family, is offered on 1027 Bishop Road, Six bedrooms, with almost as many baths on the second floor. Generous proportioned rooms throughout, yet not overwhelming to maintain. Priced in the low forties.

THE ONLY STEP you'll have to take is the one to your phone, if it results in seeing, loving and buying this story and a half house on O'Mara Court. Two bedrooms and a bath and a half on the first floor, and of course a living room and the gigantic combination kitchen and family center. An enclosed stairway leads to two more bedrooms and a bath. This house is on a dead-end street, yet just a few blocks from GPUS, Barnes, and Star of the Seas schools.

Picture yourself the owner of this outstanding center-entrance Colonial with 240' frontage and beautiful landscaping located in beautiful Windmill Pointe at 741 TROMBLEY ROAD. Five bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths, a 15x18 paneled Library plus a 22x24 Family Room.

SHARI STRACHAN, OF NEFF ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Long before the Federal Government undertook the task of involving American youth in volunteer service and physical fitness programs, Shari Strachan was working FOR others and WITH herself.

Her personal physical fitness program began at the age of three, when her mother took her to the swimming pool at the old Detroit Turners clubhouse and held her in the water. Shari, according to her parent, turned her head in and out of the water—and laughed!

Her personal volunteer service program began when she was a bit older; she waited until she was nine before starting to "help out" with The Playmates, a group of three-to-six-year-olds based across the street from her home, at the Neighborhood Club.

Shari maintained membership in her own Neighborhood Club organization, The Funsters, while she worked with The Playmates. That summer, Pauline Masak, director of the Neighborhood Club's Summer Day Camp, was disappointed in one of her counselors, a girl who failed to show up at the last minute.

Youngest Counselor
Ten-year-old Shari asked to be allowed to "help out." Miss Masak was dubious—some Day Campers were 11 and 12 years old, and might resent a counselor younger than themselves—but she agreed to let Shari work for a while, on a trial basis.

Shari has worked at the Day Camp ever since, first as a volunteer, eventually as a paid, valuable member of the Camp staff.

Shari is the youngest of the Donald Strachans' three children. Her older sister, Jill, married last summer to Richard Bromley, is living in Chicago but expected home for Christmas. The Bromleys will arrive by train; "They were going to drive, but you can't trust the weather," Shari explains.

Bruce Strachan is in the Navy; he will miss Christmas at home for the second year in a row. In 1963 he was in Boot Camp, and the Strachan family saved their Christmas tree until February, when he arrived home on leave.

This year, Bruce's ship will probably be in Boston, Mass., over the holidays. He is not expected home until next summer; "We won't save the tree," Shari says.

Bruce is represented, in absentia, by the family cat, Cinder, which he "got for free" when Shari was about three, and which has been a valued member of the Strachan menage for more than a decade.

Still College Shopping
Jill and Bruce are both Grosse Pointe High School graduates. Shari is in her senior year at GPHS. She plans to go into Elementary Education, but has not decided which college or university she will enter.

In her spare time, Shari enjoys listening to music. She spent a good portion of her free hours at Detroit Turners before the clubhouse was sold. Her parents are members of Detroit Turners, and Shari began her swimming and gymnastics training there.

She made the Turners swimming team, started diving, won trophies. She studied synchronized swimming and appeared in water shows. (She was one of many "Li'l Abners" in a show presented at the Detroit Boat Club one summer, swam as "Pinochio" in a show at Pierce, her Junior High School.) She dove in a State Meet when she was 13.

She even attempted ballet: "When my mother saw me standing on my head in the corner of the auditorium instead of performing with the other little girls on the stage, she decided maybe I was cut out to be a gymnast after all."

As a gymnast, Shari works on the uneven parallel bars, horse vault and balance beam. She also practices "free exercise" gymnastics. She admits she is still "a little" afraid of falling, but adds that the floor is covered with mats, that there is a "spotter" to warn the performer before he gets into trouble, and that the first thing a gymnast learns is HOW to fall.

Big Trophy Collection
Her trophy collection includes awards for gymnastics and swimming from the Turners and the Neighborhood Club, plus one all-around award in track, earned at a Turnfest, (a sort of Turners regional convention), in Akron, O., in June, 1962.

Currently, Shari's gymnastics career is in abeyance. There is no gymnastics program at Grosse Pointe High School. There is a Wednesday trampoline class she could attend... but every Wednesday, after school, Shari has cheerleading practice.

And cheerleading is just one of Shari's activities. There is school, five days a week, and "always homework"—lots of homework. Mondays, after school, Shari goes to the Language Laboratory to work with tapes.

On Tuesdays, she has Student Council, (she is a homeroom representative). Wednesday and Thursday afternoons are devoted to cheerleading practice. Games are scheduled Fridays; the cheerleaders, of course, must be on hand with the teams.

Saturday mornings, Shari generally helps her mother around the house. In the afternoon, she may go off with her friends—riding.

Saturday Date Night
Saturday nights are reserved for dates, Sunday mornings for church, and Sunday afternoons, "more homework."

"A teacher once told me: If you want something done, give it to a busy man," Shari notes. She admits her schedule is crowded. "I CAN fit everything in, but it's hard," she says. "In school, for instance, there is little time for questions" for going into things deeply."

She thinks the High School does a good job and finds the new library a "big help," especially as regards her history class with its volume of outside reading assignments.

The Neighborhood Club has always figured largely in Shari's life. The Strachans moved to Neff road when Shari was three. She became a formal member of the Club when she was seven.

"But even before I joined, I used the playground. I remember the Firemen's and Policemen's Field Days—I was always in the Penny Scramble. I used to watch the Little League football and baseball games."

Little League Player
Her brother played in Little League, and Shari's first cheerleading experience was for Little League. As a very small girl, she donned a cheerleader's costume, complete with hat, ("I still think hats are a good idea. We don't have them at the High School, and it gets COLD!"), urging Bruce's team to victory.

At first, as a volunteer counselor, Shari was timid about showing her authority. She learned quickly. Now, she says, working at the Neighborhood Club has been a valuable experience. She has been given the opportunity to learn how to handle children.

Three years ago, she started a tumbling class of her own. Last year, she gave trampoline lessons.

"In teaching, you have to have a lot of patience," she says. "I go through everything step by step. In tumbling, I always teach by 'counts.' Every exercise is programmed, on a one-two-three et cetera basis. Her classes first do the exercises together, with the teacher, then practice individually.

Help Each Other
She believes firmly in having children help each other, in not forcing a child who has a real fear of any given sport into participating in that sport, in athletics as a part of everyone's everyday life. Her mother still plays volleyball with a Turners group Tuesday night. Shari will become an "active" member of Turners when she is 18.

"But I don't think a person should do JUST athletics," she explains. "People should do lots of things. I think athletics are important, though. Someone who doesn't exercise... well, he just sits around and gets flabby!"

She found the Neighborhood Club a wonderful "headquarters" for athletic and other groups, feels that a certain unity has been lost since the Clubhouse has been forced to close last year.

Although the building has been declared unsafe, Neighborhood Club activities are continuing, in schools and at the War Memorial. But everything is spread out, and Shari misses a central meeting place.

Wants Club Rebuilt
"I think the Club should be rebuilt, or fixed, or something. Kids want some place to go BESIDES the park. In summer there are the schools, but there is no place in winter..."

She notes that many adult groups met at the Neighborhood Club, too, that these now are scattered. She is glad the tennis courts and playground are still available.

She believes volunteer experience is beneficial in many ways, not the least of which is: "If you want a paying job, you need experience." But she does not recommend volunteering under protest.

"A lot of kids volunteer because their mothers say they should. They don't last long. I think, if you want to volunteer, you should sign up yourself."

Anything specifically connected with the Neighborhood Club, ("No time!"), but she plans to work out after Christmas on the uneven parallel bars the Club has ordered for its gymnastics classes, meeting now at Brownell.

And, of course, she plans to be back counseling at the Day Camp next summer, "if they'll have me..."

Now a professional counselor, she is paid for her work. The money is important—Shari has a special travel fund. She dreams of going around the world.

She wants especially to visit Paris. She is studying French this year, and finds the language, the history, the art of the country fascinating.

"I want to go the summer after I finish college," she says. For the next four years, all of Shari's earnings are earmarked spoken for, aimed at The Trip.

PINEAPPLE POPS

Contributed by
Mrs. Kenneth M. Reichle

- 1/4 cup margarine, melted
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg, beaten
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/4 cup pineapple juice
- 1 1/4 cups pineapple tidbits

TOPPING

- 1/4 cup margarine, melted
- 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 cup sifted flour
- 1/3 cup brown sugar

Sift dry ingredients together. Combine melted margarine, egg, milk and pineapple juice. Add to dry ingredients and mix until just blended. Place in greased muffin pans. Top each muffin with four or five pineapple tidbits. Mix flour, cinnamon and brown sugar for topping. Add melted margarine and blend. Sprinkle this mixture over muffins. Bake in moderate oven — 375 degrees — for 30 minutes.

What... put the twinkle in Santa's eye? He's been admiring the glittering Fine Jewels Collection at Walton-Pierce and sure enough one of his favorite pieces was Christmas sale-price.

Top Drawer Topics... "For Anyone, Who Loves to Laugh over a Hot Stove"... offers smiles and recipes. It is just one of the delightful gift cookbooks found at 17007 Kercheval UP in the Village... culinary collections from all nations at all prices. Open Thursday evenings until the 25th. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the week of the 25th.

Pere Noel... loves to leave at least one gift from Paris beneath the tree. Claire Pearson is returning from France just in time to bring very special presents to her shop at 397 Fisher Road.

Nice Things... come in BIG packages. A BIG new '65 Dodge, gift wrapped and delivered on Christmas Eve for the BIG surprise... by Riverview Dodge, 15205 East Jefferson.

Dear Santa... right after the holidays there's some traveling on the agenda. How nice it would be to have a matched set of lightweight luggage from Walton-Pierce and there are so many handsome colors from which to choose!

Now Here's A Gift... he'll bless you for... long after Christmas. Goddard's dry-cleaning (new from England). It's a spray bomb that removes spots. Ed Hickey says it really works. Keep at the office, in a suitcase and, ladies, at home for yourselves. A dollar ninety-eight at Hickey's, 17140 Kercheval in the Village. A deluxe gift kit is five dollars.

The Aroma Of Christmas... is a combination of many good things. Right now we're thinking of your Mutschler kitchen and all the treats being made there. Because the atmosphere is so cheerful and the working areas have appliances so well placed... candy, cookies and holiday goodies are so much easier to prepare... more fun, too!

Focus... on men's gifts at Paul Gach, 345 Fisher Road. For the sportsman there are fine binoculars and useful Walkie-Talkies. We never realized how many excellent men's presents were at the studio, besides the assorted accessories for all kinds of photography.

"Happy Holidays"... happy holidays! Happy all year through when you have the gift of good health. Be sure to guard it well and be sure you order Notre-Vite, a balanced formula that contains a complete range of vitamins and minerals... compounded for the Notre Dame Pharmacy.

For Aunt Janet... a perfectly charming little pink Limoges atomizer, discovered in a group of beautiful dressing table accessories at Kopp's, 16926 Kercheval in the Village. If you really want to spoil someone give Frand 105 Bath Oil and its spray bottle. Store hours... 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

Holiday Headlines... are made at Edward Nepi, "Parrucchiere," 19463 Mack Avenue. They combine the fashion news and flattery... never "way out"... always "very in." TUredo 4-8858.

Holly Wreaths... that fit on cocktail glasses... gather them at The Straw Matt, 16125 Mack Avenue, where all kinds of decorative ideas live. By the way, so many people have been requesting the phone number... it's 885-0666.

A Gift Of Beauty... We're talking about the Glamour Case from Fashion Two Twenty with her monogram on it. She won't waste time in stopping at the studio, 20445 Mack Avenue for her beauty analysis and to have her Glamour Case filled with specially selected make-up and beauty care essentials.

Easy Hospitality... easily accomplished... just call Pointe Wharf and order from their party menu. To start the meal try cierrystones on the half shell. Twenty-four for three seventy-five... sauce and lemon included. Carry out or delivery. TUredo 5-4453. Pointe Wharf is located at 18310 Mack at McKinley.
