HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 17

THE CIGARETTE INDUSTRY announces yesterday that on January 1 it will put in effect a self-policing code which will be patterned to call a halt to advertising which might be designed to encourage young people to smoke. Robert B. Meyer, former governor of New Jersey and administrator of the code, said that tobacco companies violating the new set of rules will be subject to a fine of $160,000. Some of the provisions of the code include dropping the use of models who are under 25 years of age or appear to be under 25 and forbidding the use of radio or TV cigarette spot commercials in program breaks immediately before or after programs designed for minors.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON approved $82.6 million for the nation's war-on-poverty projects, Wednesday. Michigan is slated to get $1,681,706 in new grants and, of that, $1,158,402 will go to Detroit to train 2,300 youths in city jobs and to start "community action" in Catholic schools. The grants increase to $4,582,060 the Federal money given to the city for Total Action Against Poverty (TAP) program and for anti-poverty projects in Detroit public and Catholic schools.

LUTHER H. HODGES resigned yesterday as Secretary of Commerce and President Johnson immediately chose as his successor John T. Connor, a drug manufacturing executive. The new appointment is said to make both business and industry happy. Frederic G. Donner, chairman of General Motors, said in Detroit, "I am very pleased with the President's first cabinet appointment under his administration. As a business associate of Mr. Connor, I appreciate his ability and his leadership in the business community."

THE WHITE HOUSE announced yesterday that President Johnson told a group of labor leaders that he supported the Democratic platform pledge to repeal section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act. That section authorizes the so-called state "right-to-work" laws. Although no timetable has been set, the President promised reasonably fast action. The announcement followed a two-hour and 15 minutes meeting with George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, and a delegation of other labor leaders during which the President listened to their views on the legislative program for 1965.

SECRETARY OF STATE Dean Rusk said Thursday night that Western allies may make a new move toward the Soviet Union in settling the long-standing dispute over divided Germany. Just how or in what form this might be done has not been decided. Rusk made this statement after he and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara reported to the White House on the results of the three-day NATO ministerial meeting in Paris.

THE ANNUAL POLL of United Press International editors to decide the top 10 stories of 1964 revealed that they thought the number one story was President Johnson's November landslide. Second on the list was the ouster of Khrushchev, followed by enactment of the Civil Rights Act, war in Vietnam, Communist China's nuclear bomb, Goldwater as the Republican presidential nominee, Negro rioting in Northern cities, the Warren Report on Kennedy's assassination, U.S. Surgeon General's report on smoking and the Vatican council ratification of new church practices and attitudes.

Saturday, December 5
THE PANAMA CANAL may soon be replaced by a new and wider sea-level canal dug through the initiative of the

Ferry Students Do Christmas Play in French

Sixth graders in the class of Miss Carolyn McCarran at Ferry School presented a play in French for the building's other pupils on Friday afternoon. Entitled Les Rois (The Kings), a Christmas story, it was directed by Miss Diana Levering, French teacher. Everyone in the class participated in the production, either as actors, or as carolers.

Eight Testify In Hospital Suit Vs. City

Judge Moynihan Gives Parties Until January 8 to File Findings of Fact, Conclusions

Eight persons were called to testify last week in the trial of Bon Secours Hospital's civil suit against the City of Grosse Pointe.

Judge Joseph A. Moynihan heard the final testimony in Wayne County Circuit Court Saturday afternoon, December 19.

He gave both parties in the dispute until January 8 to file their proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, along with briefs on the case.

There may be an oral argument before the judge after the January 8 date, if one is requested by attorneys for either side.

Judge Moynihan heard testimony on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of last week. Each disputant presented four witnesses.

Four Back Hospital
Testifying on behalf of the Sisters of Bon Secours were: Sister Mary Gertrude, chief administrator of the hospital; John J. Dobecek, a traffic engineer and consultant to the City of Detroit Department of Streets and Traffic; Dr. Richard C. Connelly, director of medical education at the hospital; and Elmer E. Mueller, a city planner and zoning consultant.

Called to testify for the City were: Scott Bazby, planning consultant to the City; William Kessler, of the architectural

Boys Exhausted by Crime Spree Captured by Police After Crash in Stolen Car

Two Juveniles Implicate Three Others; Long List of Larcenies Cleared Up by Arrests; Charges Filed Against All Five

Two teenagers, exhausted by a weekend of crime, fell asleep in a stolen automobile and were arrested by Park police, it was disclosed on Thursday, December 17. Three other teenagers were arrested when the first two broke under questioning and implicated them in a spree of burglary, larceny and auto thefts.

Two Park detectives unraveled a confusing jumble of evidence that cleared a weekend of crime, December 12 and 13, after questioning the teenagers, all Detroit boys. Four of the boys are 16 years old and one is 17 years old, according to Det. Lt. Arnold Hough and Det. James LaPratt.

The detectives said that the crime spree began on Saturday, December 12, when the first two boys stole a 1956 Chevrolet from a location in Centerline; went to an apartment in East Grand boulevard, Detroit, and ransacked it. Finishing this, they drove to Grosse Pointe City, where they stole another car, a Chevy II. Now both boys had cars.

At about 5 a.m., at Essex and Ashland, Detroit, the boy driving the 1956 car, ran into a brand new car, causing considerable damage to both vehicles.

Escape in Stolen Car
The boys escaped in the Chevy II, and while driving down Dickerson, ran into and damaged a fire hydrant.

The boys then drove back to Centerline, where they picked up two other boys, then returned to the Park area and later picked up still another teenager in Detroit, then went to a house of a girl friend of one of the boys, on Marlborough, Detroit. There they stole some items of jewelry, which were later recovered, and returned to the owner.

At 10:30 p.m., Saturday, all five boys were involved in the theft of a 1964 Oldsmobile in Detroit. After stealing the car, they attempted to burglarize a home near the scene of the theft, but were frightened away by a resident of the house.

The two boys who stole the Chevy II from Centerline, returned to the city, and the same evening they were met by the other three in the Oldsmobile. Then all drove back to the Pointe area, then broke into a coin box of a Free Press stand on Kercheval, in Detroit.

Break Into Many Cars
On Sunday, December 13, Hough and LaPratt were told, the five boys drove through Detroit and Park streets, and committed numerous break-ins of parked automobiles, taking many articles they found. All this during the dark hours of the evening.

At 8 a.m. on Monday, December 14, the boys in the Chevy II were so exhausted they fell asleep while driving on Lakepointe. The car, still in motion, hit a 1964 Ford in front of 1539 Lakepointe, and stalled.

Hough and LaPratt said that the boys were asleep when police officers arrived to investigate a report of an accident, and took the youths in custody. After long questioning by the detectives, the boys confessed to their part in the weekend of crimes and implicated their three companions.

Admit Many Thefts
The detectives said that two of the five boys confessed to being involved in many larcenies from cars and stealing cars and bikes in the Pointe; and three of the boys admitted to stealing four cars from Centerline, one from the Park and one from the City, on previous occasions, besides rifling many car glove compartments and newspaper boxes.

Two of the boys were reported on the missing persons list, Hough and LaPratt said. The 17-year-old and one of the

Pointes Keep Close Watch On New Bill

Controversial County Home Rule Creates Varied Opinions Among Local Officials

Officials in the Pointes are keeping close watch on a controversial "county home rule" bill which would reorganize and streamline the organization of Wayne county.

In interviews this week with the NEWS, local reactions to the home rule plan range from wholehearted backing to concern.

Some civic officials expressed fear that the bill, if passed, would give the city of Detroit too complete control of Wayne county affairs, to the detriment of suburban communities like the Pointes.

Wayne county officials stressed that the actual provisions of the bill have not been worked out by the Board of Supervisors, who are drafting one form of the bill.

Must Elect Commissions
Some details are known. The bill will call for each county to elect a Charter Commission to convene and write a charter for that county, which would determine the legislative set-up of that county.

This charter commission could be elected on either an at-large or district basis within the county; in the case of Wayne county, election by district would be necessary to give suburbs a voice in the charter commission.

The present Board of Supervisors for Wayne county has 122 members, five of them from the Pointes. Local representatives are: William C. Oddy, Park; David E. Burgess, City; Henry Bodman II, Farms; Frederick M. Maddock, Woods, and Robert Hackathorn, Grosse Pointe Township (Shores).

It was agreed locally that the re-constituted Board of Supervisors would be a smaller body, with possibly only one representative speaking for all of the Pointes.

Would Favor Detroit
Such a set-up, in the opinion of Woods councilman Benjamin W. Pinkos, would mean that "we would have to live under conditions imposed primarily by the city of Detroit," which would have the dominant voice in the Board.

Pinkos said the new home rule plan "would possibly create some of the same problems that the Michigan legislature had (before last year's re-apportionment) wherein they claimed to track him down."

Collector's Home In Woods Looted Of Rare Coins

Second House Also Ransacked; Police Believe Burglaries Committed by Same Thief; Loss Totaled at More than $7,254

Burglars, believed to be members of a gang of rare coin thieves, broke into two Woods homes, and not only stole rare coins, but regular currency and other items. Loot from the homes totaled more than $7,254, according to Woods police.

Entered were the homes of Mrs. Charlotte Stephen, 1231 Torrey road, on Saturday, December 19; and James Marl, 1988 Hampton road, on Sunday, December 20.

Mrs. Stephen's loss was $420 in regular currency and silver change, Indian head pennies, rifles and other items; Marl's loss, rare coins valued at a total of $6,394.63; and $439 in regular cash, jewelry and other items.

Believed Same Thief
Woods Det. Sgt. Jack Mast and Det. Albert Abend said that there appears to be no doubt that both burglaries were committed by the same thief, or thieves, as the method of operation is the same. At the Marl residence, the thief knew exactly what he was looking for, they said.

They said that they are working closely with Farms Det. Sgts. George Van Tiem and Jack Paisley, who are working on similar cases in the Farms.

Mrs. Stephen told the Woods detectives that she had left her house at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, and returned at 9:40 p.m. She did not enter the house immediately, she said, but cleaned the snow from the sidewalks in front of her place, before going inside.

On entering the house, the woman said, she discovered it had been ransacked. She also found that the house had been entered by breaking the glass of the rear jalousie door.

Taken, Mrs. Stephen said, were $400 in currency from a dresser drawer in her bedroom; $20 in silver change from the kitchen; 100 Indian head pennies, collector's value not given; four rifles from a gun rack, a portable television set, several Christmas presents, and three bottles of liquor, no value of the items was given.

Away Four Hours
Marl told Mast and Abend that he left home at 6:45 p.m. on Sunday, and returned at 10:45 p.m., and when he walked into the living room, he noticed the house had been ransacked. The burglar entered the house by prying open the rear side door.

Taken, Marl said, was his collection of rare coins, gathered over a period of years, valued at a total of $6,394.63, on the collectors' market; regular coins and currency from a bank and church envelope, amounting to $106.50; a brown suit case and a blue train case, values not given; a string of cultured pearls, belonging to his wife, valued at $75; another string of pearls, valued at $15; a lady's onyx ring, valued at $65; a wedding band and diamond ring, valued at $150; and a small camera, valued at $12.50.

Describes Collection
Marl said his stolen collection

White's companion then left the store to start their car in preparation for a get-away. Mo-

Captured Gunman Waives Examination in City Court
Dale Robert White of Chicago waived examination in Grosse Pointe City's Justice Court on December 9, and his bond of $25,000 was continued by Judge Douglas Paterson.

White has been charged with attempted armed robbery of the Coins and Stamps, Inc. store at 17658 Mack avenue Thursday morning, December 3. Represented by Marvin Blake, Detroit attorney, he appeared before Judge Douglas L. Paterson.

City police are still seeking White's companion in the unsuccessful theft. The accomplice escaped in spite of the all-out efforts of police from other Pointes and Harper Woods who assisted City officers in trying to track him down.

The two men entered the coin store, forced Roman Lester, the store owner, at gun point to lie on his stomach on the floor of a rear room, and bound him with wire.

Sewer Bond Issue Slated For Airing

Proposal Will Be Submitted to Voters at Special Election Scheduled for February 15

Residents in the City will receive a special notice in the mail next month, inviting them to an open meeting of the City council to be held at the Mair school on January 18.

The main purpose of this open meeting, the council revealed at the Monday night meeting, will be to discuss the City's proposed sewer bond issue which will appear on a special election February 15.

The council Monday night authorized the sending of a post card to residents to tell them of the meeting, along with "other necessary publicity."

Attendance Urged

Residents were strongly urged to come to the meeting if they have any questions about the request for $1.32 million for repairs to the City's storm and sanitary sewer system.

Mayor David E. Burgess asked voters to give the matter full attention "because of the very critical nature of the problem."

The bond issue is exactly the same as that which was rejected by a slim 915-826 margin in the September 1 election.

After the bond issue's defeat in the fall election, City Manager John Cantwell stated that the Michigan Board of Health, which had previously deemed the City's sewer system a "critical hazard" to the health of the community, "is empowered to compel action on our bad sewer system if we do not take action ourselves."

Lack of Information
The bond issue's defeat this fall was attributed largely to the fact that voters lacked complete information on the critical need for sewer repairs in the City.

Cantwell expressed hope that the January 18 open meeting would clear up any unanswered questions about the City's dangerous sewer situation.

In other business, the council authorized the payment of $8,217 to the J. A. Broughton Co. for work completed to date on the City's new municipal department of Public Works garage.

They also approved a revised plan for the division of a plot of land on Lincoln road owned by Benjamin H. Paddock III.

Foundation Gets Christmas Gift

Mrs. Henrietta Baldwin, president of the Grosse Pointe Association of Educational Secretaries has announced that the group's annual Christmas project would consist of a gift of money to the local Foundation for Exceptional Children. Mrs. Baldwin, secretary at Kerby School, indicated that the funds would be used to purchase additional snare drums.

The announcement was made at the association's Christmas party, held Wednesday evening at Schiavi's restaurant. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Anne Loush, and Mrs. Gerry Muir, of the school's administration building staff.

Other officers of the secretaries' group for the 1964-1965 year include Mrs. Edna Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Rosemary Lowrie, treasurer; and Mrs. Anna Steyer, secretary. The association is composed of 69 members of the clerical staffs of the public schools and libraries.

FARMS BUYS GAS

At its regular meeting held on Monday, December 21, the Farms council agreed to purchase 50,000 gallons of regular gas from the Mobil Oil Company, which offered the lowest of three bids submitted. The firm offered to sell the city gas at a cost of 11 cents a gallon, or for a total cost of $5,500, less one percent, if paid within 30 days. The supply is for one year.

consisted of Mexican pennies, nickels, dimes and half pesos, dating from 1900 through 1964; Mexican gold half pesos, two and a half pesos, five pesos, 10 pesos and 20 pesos, dating from 1900 through 1964; three United States proof sets of 1964 pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars.

Uncirculated U.S. pennies, dated from 1942 through 1964; uncirculated Jefferson nickels, 1940 through 1964; silver dollars, from 1880 through 1925; uncirculated dimes, 1940 through 1964; uncirculated quarters, 1950 through 1964; uncirculated Franklin half dollars, 1948 through 1964; three circulated dime sets in coin folders.

Two tubes of standing Liberty quarters, totaling about 40 quarters; five tubes of buffalo nickels, about 60 or 70 total; U.S. Lincoln head pennies, dating from 1909 through 1964; a complete set of U.S. Lincoln head penny proofs, dating from 1950 through 1964; large U.S. currency bills of one, two, five and ten-dollar denominations; 900 Indian head pennies, dating from 1864 through 1909.

Marl said that the entire collection might have been in an old brown leather overnight case.

Close Watch

that the suburban and rural areas were dictating to the urban areas.

"Like any other law, it depends on how it is interpreted, and how it is administered," he continued.

The Pointes would be in the same situation as a small stockholder in a large corporation, he viewed. "If one person holds 51 percent of the stock, the other 49 percent have no voice whatsoever."

Burgess Backs Plan

City mayor David E. Burgess, a member of the present Board of Supervisors, gave a strong endorsement to the home rule plan.

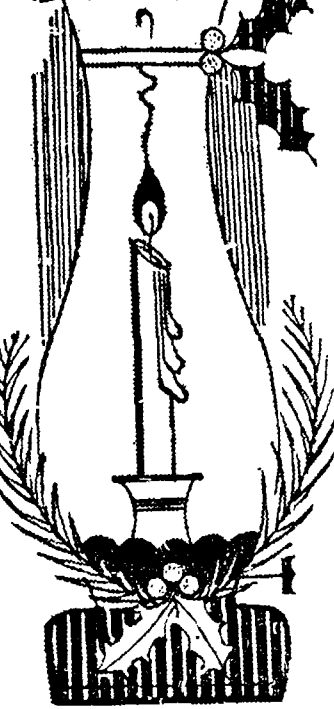

"This ordinance is absolutely vital to Wayne county because the county government today is certainly a monstrosity — anybody who works with it cannot help but come away with that impression."

Burgess said the results of the home rule plan would be "desirable from the standpoint that we (the Pointes) are a part of Wayne county and it is a long overdue improvement for the administration of Wayne county's affairs."

But he added: "I think representationally we would come off perhaps at a disadvantage because the Board of Supervisors membership is obviously going to be materially reduced. By the same token, we would be part of a more manageable and orderly operation."

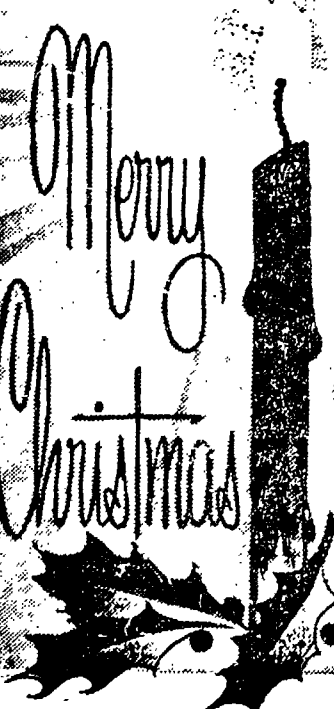

The Park's city manager Robert M. Slone stated that the home rule plan is being studied by his office at this time. Both he and Park Mayor Matthew Patterson declined comment until this study is completed.

Testify in Hospital Suit

firm of Meathe, Kessler and Associates, of Grosse Pointe; John M. Cantwell, city manager; Mrs. Allan D. Pearsall, of St. Paul avenue, a 1963 member of the executive council of the Mairie school Parent-Teacher Association; and Charles Wright III, attorney for the City.

Both May Appeal

After Judge Moynihan reads his decision, probably in mid or late-January, both parties will have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

The hospital's suit attempts to prove that City Ordinance 96 is unconstitutional because it deprives the hospital of its property rights.

The Ordinance prohibits the construction of public buildings south of Kercheval avenue and limits the height of buildings. The City maintains that the ordinance's provisions prevent the hospital from carrying through plans to expand Bon Secours from 160 to 320 beds.

Council Takes Advice

The hospital's plans call for addition of a new wing to the building and a 1.4 acre parking lot.

Bagby, the City's planning consultant, has advised the council against allowing the expansion. The council also took the matter to the voters in an advisory referendum on November 5, 1963.

City voters then opposed the hospital's expansion, but did so by a slim 153-vote margin.

Duemling

president of the Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police Association, a signal testimony to his prowess in his chosen field."

Coinciding with the announced retirement of Duemling, Huettnerman announced the appointment of Thomas R. Cochill, as the new Shores chief, who has a wealth of experience in the police and public safety field.

Cochill, 51, is a lifetime resident of the Detroit area, and will retire next month as chief of detectives of the Detroit Police Department. His record shows 31 citations during his service in Detroit, as a uniform officer and through his advancement to command status.

Huettnerman commenting on the retirement of Duemling and the appointment of Cochill, said: "We certainly have been fortunate in Grosse Pointe Shores to have such an inspired chief as Duemling has been. All of us on the council wish him the best following his retirement."

"At the same time, we feel most fortunate in being able to obtain the services of Mr. Thomas Cochill as our new chief. We are looking forward to the opportunity of working with him, and introducing him to what we know is the best residential community in the United States."

Crime Spree

16-year-old boys involved in the theft from the East Grand boulevard home, were released to Detroit police of the Mack Avenue Station, Seventh Precinct, for further investigation. Charges have been filed with Juvenile Court authorities against all the younger boys, the Park detectives said.

A lie may cover up for the present, but it has no future.

Gunman Waives Examination

ments later Officer John Erskine, who had been covering the locked rear entrance of the establishment with Officer Edmond Benthuyts, cut through the Gill Glass Company store to see if he could help Brackx.

He saw White with a gun in his hand and the laundry bags filled with the loot and immediately ran back to the glass store to ask for more help.

Erskine then posted himself at the entrance. When he saw the officer, White panicked, threw down his gun and bags, and gave up.

Shortly after, Chief Andrew C. Tectaert, Lt. Robert Van-Tiem and Cpl. Blair Martin arrived at the store. All cars were instantly dispatched to search for the escaped accomplice of White.

Evidently, the escapee was unable to start the car, became frightened and left the automobile. According to authorities, he ran on foot through the lot at Jim Causley Pontiac, Inc. to Neff and Woodhall on to Warren. Police found discarded clothing belonging to him in that area.

Among agenda items for the recent trustees meeting of the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, was a report on the October 28 benefit premier of "My Fair Lady." MRS. JOSEPH E. BAYNE, of Touraine road, chairman of the Activities Committee which sponsored the event, is shown presenting a $15,000 check to Founders Society president WILLIAM M. The committee will soon announce which of several projects will be favored by the net profit.

Police Praise Safety Workers

All policemen, especially traffic and school safety officers, appreciate the tremendous job being done by the school crossing guards and safety patrol boys, jobs which free the policemen for other duties.

Woods Police Lt. Roland Symons has this to say about the crossing guards. In this monthly traffic safety division bulletin:

"Crossing guards are doing an excellent job at their 12 respective school crossing areas. Two of our guards went a little further in November, extending their efforts toward traffic safety.

"In the course of their duties, the guards made a 'citizen's arrest' of a teenage driver who failed to stop for their signal at a crossing. Subsequently, the youth was taken to court, fined $15, lost his license for 90 days, and was sent to Grosse Pointe Drivers Safety School for instruction. A job well done."

praise for the safety patrol boys:

"Did you know that the patrol boys on your corners put in an average of 80 working hours a school semester? This is a lot of time for anyone to have to stand out in the cold, rain and snow. Yet, our safety patrol boys do it as a service to our children, and complain very little.

"As school safety officer, I wish to thank all of our patrols for a fine job being done. I realize the importance of the job, of the duty at assigned posts, making sure that all the students cross the streets in safety on their way to and from school.

"I would like to give a special 'thank you' to the mothers of our safety patrol, who rise earlier than most mothers, to make sure their sons arrive at their posts at the proper time."

He also had a good word for the crossing guards, and their dedication to the safety of the children, especially at more hazardous school crossings. Their interest in the children is reflected by the city's excellent safety record, Patterson added.

A citizen, who asked to remain anonymous, submitted a poem, honoring the safety patrol, with "Many Thanks." Many thanks are surely felt As the Holiday Season draws near.

OBITUARIES

GERTRUDE FURNEAUX
Funeral services for Mrs. Furneaux, 82, of 1610 Faircourt were held Thursday, December 17, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died in St. Clair Homes Wednesday, December 16.

Born in England, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen G. Lancaster; a son, Randall R.; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Burial was in Manasota Burial Park, Sarasota, Fla.

MRS. BETSY D. STEVENS
Long active in Pointe society and civic service, Mrs. Betsy D. Stevens died Thursday, December 17 in her home at 280 Moross road. Mrs. Stevens, 53, was the wife of Mark C. Stevens, a vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company and honorary royal consul for Thailand in the central United States.

Born in Grand Rapids, Mrs. Stevens resided in the Pointe for 31 years. Mrs. Stevens was a graduate of The Bishop School, La Jolla, Cal., and attended the University of Michigan. A past president and member of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club, she was a member of the Huguenot Society of Ohio, First Family of Virginia and the English Speaking Union. She was a former trustee of Williams House and a member of Christ Church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Stevens were held Saturday, December 19, in Christ Church. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Survivors include: her husband, Mark C. Stevens; a daughter, Mrs. John R. Sutton III; two sons, Mark C., Jr. and Thomas B.; and her father, A. B. Dawson.

DR. JOHN L. ENGSTROM
Funeral services were held Tuesday, December 22, from the Verheyden Funeral Home for Dr. Engstrom, who passed away December 19 in St. Mary's Nursing Home, St. Clair Shores.

Born 70 years ago in Sweden, Dr. Engstrom came to this country and was a practicing chiropractor for 38 years.

He was a member of the Fort Gratiot Post No. 2254, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Acanthus Lodge No. 558, F. and A.M. He resided at 888 North Brys Drive.

Survivors are his wife, Martha; and two daughters, Helen, and Mrs. Dorothy Finn.

Following the Verheyden ceremony interment was in Cadillac Memorial Gardens East, Mt. Clemens.

CHARLES J. SEIBERT
Mr. Seibert, a former resident at 1410 Grayton in the Pointe, died December 20 in Bay City, at age 79.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., he was the owner of a paint manufacturing company, retired at the time of his death.

Survivors include daughters, Mrs. Robert D. Nickels, and Mrs. Alfred Dimpfl; and two sons, Charles J., Jr., and Jack; a brother, George, also survives.

Funeral services were to be held this morning at 8:30 from the Verheyden Funeral Home and at 9 a.m. from St. Clare Church. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

ROBERT T. HANNA
Mr. Hanna, who resided formerly in the Pointe at 20968 Mack avenue, died Monday after an extended illness. He was 63.

Born in Enid, Okla., he moved to Michigan and worked as a self-employed shoe repairman for most of his life. He had a shop in Roseville, and later moved to an establishment at the Mack avenue address.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Nellie Atkins, Mrs. Bette Nies and Mrs. Verlie Harrell; nine grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Other survivors include a brother, Louis, of Casper, Wyo., and brothers William Earl and Rev. O. Fred of Enid, Okla.

Funeral services were held yesterday from the Read-Schultz Funeral Home; interment was in White Chapel Cemetery, Troy, Mich.

MRS. ABBIE WESTRICK
A rosary Monday night at Our Lady Star of the Sea honored the memory of Mrs. Westrick (nee Theisen), who passed away December 19 in her home at 1321 North Renaud.

A native Detroit, she was the wife of the late Robert J. Westrick.

She is survived by stepsons Robert J., Donald and Kenneth; and three siblings, Mrs. Thomas P. Prendergast, Mamie and Clarence E. Theisen.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Verheyden Funeral Home and Our Lady Star of the Sea. Interment was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

SAMUEL P. ROCKWELL
Mr. Rockwell, a former district manager of sales of the western zone for the Packard Motor Car Corporation, died December 20 in the St. Anne's Nursing Home, Detroit. He was 88.

While he resided in the Pointe at 489 Shelbourne road, Mr. Rockwell held close ties with the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and with several men's organizations.

He was affiliated with the Detroit Commandery No. 1, K.T. Pillar Lodge No. 526, F. and A.M., the Consistory, the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, and an honorary membership in the Exchange Club, Post No. 1.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Verheyden Funeral Home under the auspices of the Detroit Commandery No. 1, K.T. Interment was in Oakhill Cemetery, Pontiac.

MARY R. KERR
Funeral services were held Saturday, December 12, for Mrs. Kerr, 87, of 526 St. Clair avenue. She died Thursday, December 10.

Born in Scotland, Mrs. Kerr was a resident of the Pointe for 50 years. She was a member of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Frank S. (Agnes) Banach, Mary, and Mrs. Elbert (Grace) Thompson of Baltimore, Md.; a sister, Mrs. Hugh Shearer, of Scotland; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Students Create Christmas Windows

A portion of a long-range school project begun some eight or ten years ago has been carried on again by Kenneth Gittins, sixth grade teacher at Trombly, and this year's class. Over the years Mr. Gittins and his various upper elementary

Holdup Story Branded Phony

Samuel Faieta, 34, of 17332 Orleans, Detroit, meekly signed a statement in the Woods police station Wednesday, December 16, repudiating a report that he made on September 19, that he was held up at gun point and robbed by a masked bandit.

Det. Sgt. Jack Mast and Det. Albert Abend said that a quiet investigation had been underway since Faieta made the report, but there was nothing to substantiate the man's claim. The report was false, and the detectives proved it.

Faieta had claimed that on the September date, he went to the Manufacturers National Bank in Mack avenue, at 4 p.m. to make a night deposit. As he approached the night depository, he was confronted by a masked man, armed with a revolver. The "bandit" ordered him to raise his hands, the "victim" said.

Then, Faieta said, the man took his (Faieta's) wallet out of his pocket, removed $45, and replaced the wallet in the pocket.

On Wednesday, the "hold up victim" was called and told to report to the Woods station, where he was informed that his story was false.

Faieta confessed that he had lied, and that he made up the report to deceive his wife on his whereabouts and the real loss of the money. What he did with the money was not disclosed. Mast and Abend said that no charge will be filed against Faieta for making a false report of a felony.

Common sense, not public opinion, should be the guide for your daily conduct.

classes have completed a series of colorful Christmas windows for the second floor landings at the school. The most recently executed in the series was put into place just prior to the beginning of the current holiday season.

"This has never been a last-minute Christmas project, by any means," the veteran Grosse Pointe educator said recently. "The main purpose behind making the windows has been to enable children to work together for the common good, as well as to learn to appreciate others' efforts."

As has been his custom with several groups of pupils in the past, Mr. Gittins began this latest stage of the project early in the school year. He reports that he laid out his ideas for the latest creation in October.

He sketched a single line drawing and the pupils began their part by drawing a second parallel line. The designs for the windows are drawn on long sheets of brown wrapping paper, then the centers, between the lines, are cut out and various weights of colored construction paper are pasted in the frames. The next step is the treatment of the colored paper with linseed oil as a preservative. Finally, the frames are painted with black India ink, then put in place.

After each pupil has had the opportunity to participate in the school project, each is eager to make a smaller transparency of his own.

"What is so worthwhile about the project is that children with a wide range of abilities and interests can participate—ranging from simple cutting and pasting to more sophisticated artistic problems of design, color assessment, and balance. The making of the windows seems to me to be the essence of the humanities," Mr. Gittins said.

The scenes done over the years by boys and girls under his direction include the symbolism of the Western world's major religions.

road and Wedgewood drive. Preaching for the service will be the pastor, Rev. Paul F. Koppler. Mr. Luther Lautenschlager, interne, is to assist in worship.

Fifteen minutes prior to the service, the choir will sing a group of favorite carols as traditionally has been done.

Proceeding by candlelight to the chancel, the Junior Choir of children will gather around the manger to sing "Bring a Torch, Jeannette, Isabella". Mr. James Hunt, organist and choir director, has selected Dickinson's "Sleeping the Christ Child Lay" with Mrs. Erwin Linsenman as soloist. Other music includes "What is This Lovely Fragrance?" by William being sung by the combined choir.

Worship on Christmas Day is to be at 11 a.m. On the Sunday after Christmas, Holy Communion will be celebrated at both the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Services. Sunday Church School is at 9:30 a.m.

Warning Issued By Fire Chiefs

This is the time of year when residents are warned of hazards that can result in the improper setting of the Christmas tree. The Pointe fire chiefs state that since the NEWS will be out on Thursday, December 24, and trees will be decorated and lit, at least these fire prevention hints should be followed:

1. Place the tree away from doorways so that it will not block an exit, and support it so that it will not be knocked over.

2. Use only lights that have been approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., and disconnect them when there is no one around to maintain a watch. Do not overload the circuit, and make sure the wire is in good condition.

3. Use only non-combustible decorations, or when using combustible materials, be sure they are fireproofed.

4. Place gift wrappings in a box and dispose of them quickly as they could be accidentally ignited.

5. When the tree becomes dry, dispose of it quickly and safely.

6. Make certain that all tree lighting is turned off before retiring or leaving the house.

There is no reason why, the chiefs say, with the proper care and an "ounce of prevention", Christmas should be any more dangerous than other times of the year. Remember the hazards that a Christmas tree may present, they pointed out.

Remember the accidents and lessons that we can learn from the past. Remember that common sense and good housekeeping are the best fire prevention methods that we can practice, they added.

When a man loses his temper his reason flies out the window.

Church Slates Yule Programs

The Sunday School children of St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church ushered in Christmas week at St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, with a program of recitations and drama at 6:30 on Sunday evening, December 20, in the sanctuary.

The beginner and Primary departments, under the direction of Tom Cooper participated with the traditional recitations and dialogues. Vicar Gary Lee and Fred Thompson, Junior Department Head were in charge of the program of that section entitled "How Great a Gift" featuring choral reading. "Gifts For Grace" is the name given to the collection of toys and clothing for an inner-city congregation.

The 6:30 p.m. service on Christmas Eve will focus upon the worship of children with their parents. The Confirmation Class Choir and the Junior Choir will sing. There will be shown a film-strip with record commentary entitled "It Began In Bethlehem."

The festival service will be conducted at 11 o'clock on Christmas Eve. At this service the Senior Choir under the direction of Don Dragoo will sing. The pastor, Charles W. Sandrock, will preach the sermon entitled "He Has Spoken To Us By A Son." A worship service will also be held on Christmas Day at 10:30. Mrs. Clemens Koepplin is the organist.

Ski Club Trips Prove Popular

Membership and trip reservations are filling fast both for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Adult Ski Club and for the Ski-Hi Club for senior high school boys and girls which the Memorial sponsors in cooperation with the Neighborhood Club.

Already the Ski-Hi's Trip to Northern Michigan between Christmas and New Year's is full and a waiting list has been opened. Their one day trip to Pine Knob is filling rapidly but at this writing there are still a few openings.

A full schedule of trips between January and the end of Spring vacation can be obtained at the Center's office upon taking out membership which is $3. Included on the schedule are week end trips to Boyne Highlands, Nub's Nob, and Boyne Mt., day trips at very special low rates to local areas and a 10-day Western Ski Trip to the Rockies during Spring vacation.

A very few places remain open for the Grosse Pointe Adult Ski Club's trips to Boyne Highlands and Boyne Mountain over New Year's. The four-day trip leaves at 6 p.m. Wednesday, December 30, the three-day trip at the same time Thursday, December 31.

Both trips travel by chartered Greyhound to the Weatherline Lodge at Charlevoix where the New Year will be brought in with an appropriate party from 11 p.m. to 2 a.m. Each day the bus will take skiers to the slopes. Accommodations are in rooms for 4 or 5 with bath and rates for members start at $32 for the 3 day trip. Guests are $3 more so it pays to take out the $3 membership.

Next trip for the Adult Skiers is to Blue Mountain, Collingwood, Canada, the weekend of January 23-24. Rates will be $32 for members, $35 for guests.

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club's grand occasion is the full week's trip to Aspen, Col., March 13-21 for which deposits are being taken now. The cost of $145 includes lodging at Ski View Lodge, chartered United Airlines flight out and back and rail expressing of skis. Only 50 can be accommodated.

Woods Lions' Drive Success

The Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club, through the President, Robert M. Fisher, and chairman of the committee, Rex H. Johnston, desire to extend their heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the residents of Grosse Pointe Woods and to all those kind hearted and generous people from all over for being so generous in their support of the Goodfellow Newspaper Sale.

The fine spirit and wonderful assistance enabled the club to conclude one of the most fruitful campaigns in its history, and will make it possible for it to provide food and clothing for the needy, and to continue work among the blind.

The final total as of this writing amounts to $2,406.

Bar Owners Pay For Betting Slip

The owners of the Rustic Cabins, Kercheval and Lakepointe, were found guilty of having a gambling device on the premises, and were fined $75, according to information released by Park Police Arthur Louwers.

The chief said that the guilty verdict was rendered by the State Liquor Control Commission on December 14, and the decision was made known to his department on Monday, December 21.

The bar owners have until January 15 to pay the fine, the chief said, or the establishment will be ordered closed for a period of 15 days.

Chief Louwers said that on August 12, a police officer of his department, on a routine inspection of bars, found a betting slip in plain view on the premises, confiscated the slip, and filed the charge with Liquor Control authorities.

PERMANENTLY SET

Patience sometimes get credit, but too often the man who appears to be waiting is merely frozen in his tracks.

Boys and Beagles Make Full House

Cpl. Duncan MacEachern of the Grosse Pointe City police department and his wife, Betty, will have a full house this Christmas.

Not only will they be working to keep the high spirits of their eight sons under control, but they will be caring for and feeding eight beagle puppies that their dog, Patsy, presented to them just five weeks ago.

It was thoughtful of Patsy, a black and white beagle, to give the MacEachern family a puppy for every boy, but she also created a problem for Cpl. MacEachern. As a police officer, he well knows that unless you have a kennel license, it is illegal to have more than two dogs.

Although the entire family is warmly attached to the puppies, each secretly knows that new homes will have to be found for them. The MacEacherns' sons; Robert Gregory, 15; Douglas, 14; Leonard, 13; John Vincent, 11; Kenneth Allen, 10; Michael David, 7; Duncan Girard, 5; and Lloyd Donald, 3; haven't named the new members of the household but they are able to identify each by its own particular markings.

As fond as he is of Patsy's new brood, Cpl. MacEachern wants to stay legal. So if any one is interested in adopting one of the baby beagles, you may call the MacEacherns at their home in St. Clair avenue. The number is TU 6-2146.

State Champs Beat Devil Tankers, Who Whip Monroe

By Ric Hendee, '65
Birmingham Seaholm, defending Class A state swimming champs, swam to seven firsts in the Grosse Pointe pool last Saturday night to end a Blue Devil winning streak at 5. In doing so, the Maples pushed their own streak to 45 victories in a row. They are also operating on three straight state championships.

Two winning states helped Grosse Pointe add up its half of the 64-41 score. Mark Gibson '66 squeezed out a close diving match for one of the Devil's two individual victories. Only hundreds of a point separated the four competing divers with two dives left. Gibson pulled through with two "high-point" plunges for the victory.

Jim Shirilla '66, one of the Grosse Pointe co-captains for the Birmingham battle, chugged through for the other individual win. He hit 61.00 seconds in winning the 100-yard backstroke.

Several varsity tankers smashed their best times in wrapping up their first loss of the season and only a light mist of sadness dominated the locker room after the meet. Then the cheerleaders presented the swimmers with a box of brownies and, as quickly as the brownies evaporated, so did the mist of sadness.

Revenge at Monroe
Friday afternoon was a different story. The Devils found revenge on the Monroe swimming squad for the whipping they took last winter. A 56-45 finish gave Grosse Pointe its fifth water victory and the third league win.

Things opened up with the medley relay. Jim Shirilla, Dale DeVulmeester, Sandy McDonald and John Rentenbach splashed to wins. Then Tom Mertz '66 stole the show as he battled Monroe's Nick Carleton in the 200-yard freestyle. Mertz steamed to a 1:56.5 time for first place while teammate Ted Pratt '65 pushed through his best clocking of the season, a 2:02.8, for third.

The next attraction added more Blue Devil points. Craig Dever and Herm Bliss, both '65, took first and third in the 60-yard freestyle. Then Monroe snatched the next two events: the individual medley and the diving.

Jack Tamblin's 100-yard butterfly turned into a novelty act as "Gypsy Rose" had bathing suit troubles on his third lap and decided to tighten things up rather than finish the race. Meanwhile teammate Sandy MacDonald '65 slithered to another Grosse Pointe first.

Tight Race in 100
When things finally quieted down, the 100-yard freestyle began. Since I was in the race, it was fairly hard to see how it finished in the other lanes. But

Varsity Club Sponsors Game

The Grosse Pointe High School Varsity Club is sponsoring a basketball game on Thursday, January 14, between Canada's Harlem Diplomats and Tom Gauerke Gazelles, a team made up of faculty members at the high school.

The game is the first effort of the Varsity Club to raise money for a scholarship fund which will be used to send a member of the club to college if he is unable to pay for himself. The scholarship will be given only to the most deserving of young men. It will not be awarded annually but only when the need arises.

Under the chairmanship of Doug Wright, plans for the game include half-time entertainment, provided by the High School Pep Band under the direction of Bill David, senior. Refreshments will also be sold.

The Harlem Diplomats are considered to be one of the greatest groups of razzle-dazzle ball handlers ever assembled. They specialize in tricky ball handling along with comedy.

The Gazelles' roster has not been completed yet. Tickets will be sold in advance and may be obtained by contacting any Varsity Club member. After January 4, they may be purchased by calling the Grosse Pointe High School athletic office, TU 4-3200, ext. 48 between 3 and 4 o'clock.

All Grosse Pointe area students and parents are invited. Tickets will be $1.

Lakers Crush St. Ladislaus

By Jim Brunson
In a game which took place on the Laker home court last Friday, the Lakers of St. Paul crushed St. Ladislaus.

The Laker defense was almost impregnable, holding their opponents to only four points in both the first and the last periods.

St. Paul took an early 10-0 lead and was in control of the game from then on. The final score was 57-31.

The Lakers will not play over the holidays. Their next contest is an away game on January 2 against the Aviators of St. David.

Club Provides Fun in Holidays

The Neighborhood Club is providing activities for the young people of the community on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 28, 29 and 30 at three locations.

For boys and girls ages 7-12 at Maitre School from 1-4 p.m. the gym will be open for gym activities including rope climbing, rings and games under the direction of Mr. Harry Warnken.

For junior and senior high school students Brownell will be available for open gym from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the same days. Also at Brownell, table games, ping pong, and table pool will be set up in the corridors and lobby for those who prefer this type of activity.

The Neighborhood Club Teen Center at the corner of Lakepointe and Kercheval will be open from 1-4 p.m. on the same days, and there Junior and Senior high school students can play ping pong or table games, lift weights, shoot pool and dance. Refreshments also are available.

Don't miss the "Between Holiday Fun" — join your friends or bring your friends to either of the locations provided for you.

GP Chiefs Win Crucial Game

The Grosse Pointe Chiefs, midwest representatives in the Southeastern Michigan Hockey League, took a giant step closer to winning the association title by upsetting previously undefeated Royal Oak, 5-3, in this week's action.

It was a fast-skating, hustling bunch of hockey players who came out to win and did just that. They handed a strong Royal Oak team their first defeat in seven games.

Royal Oak started out by nothing two quick goals to go ahead 2-0. But Grosse Pointe was out to win and came storming back with four straight goals, making the score 4-2.

Each team added another goal, making the final score 5-3 for Grosse Pointe.

It was a heart warming victory as this was the game to which the Chiefs were pointing and had to win if they were to figure in the championship race. Now the Chiefs are the team to beat.

Every player contributed to the resounding win. Steve Maxon led the effort with two goals; Jerry Schindler and Doug Monforton added single tallies. Captain Jack Reed also scored a big goal and played a strong offensive game.

Rick Gunzales, San Orlando and Tom De Schriber played their best games on defense and steady play by forwards Jay Gill, Keith Koucher and Corky Perkowski helped greatly.

The Chiefs should be hard to catch from here on in, as long as they keep up their hard-skating game.

It has been a while since coaches Bill Gill, Ray MacArthur and Harold Neil have had a champ, and they're starting to think that this may be their year.

Following are the league standings:

Devil Cagers Beat Monroe

Grosse Pointe High School's Varsity basketball squad easily bounced over the Monroe Trojans, 64-43 last Friday, in winning their second victory out of five starts. The Blue Devil five was led by Bob Czarniecki in scoring and Chuck Bruce in court play to wrap up the victory.

The weekend before last wasn't quite as cheery for the Varsity fellows as both nights of their weekend were spent in losing basketball games.

Fordson, the seemingly big power in BCL basketball this season, crushed Grosse Pointe 81-61, on Friday. Then the Devils hit the road for a match with East Detroit which turned into a 79-61 rout.

The Devils played possibly their best ball of the early season against East Detroit. After leaving the court 6 points down at the half, Grosse Pointe came back to catch the Shamrocks and drive ahead by two points.

Then it was touch-and-go until East Detroit finally let loose early in the 4th quarter to assure the win.

With Monroe joining Dearborn in the Devil victory column, the cagers are looking ahead to Wyandotte. Since there is no vacation play for Grosse Pointe this winter, the boys are free until the home contest with Wyandotte on January 8.

Hall Sworn In For WSU Post

Swearing-in ceremonies for two new members of the Wayne State University Board of Governors were held Thursday, December 17, at the McGregor Memorial Conference Center on the WSU campus.

Administering the oath of office to William B. Hall and Benjamin Rose, both successful Democratic candidates in the November election, was Secretary of State James M. Hare. The new WSU governors will begin eight-year terms January 1.

Hall, 1464 N. Renaud, Grosse Pointe, is executive vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company. A 1926 graduate of Wayne State, he received a degree in business administration. He also attended the University of Michigan and is a graduate of the Stonier School of Banking at Rutgers University.

Canteen Conversation

Is there any purpose to life, or are we all wandering about aimlessly, doing what we will when we please? It seems to me that if we believe there is any purpose to our being then we must also accept some kind of responsibility in our lives. No matter how much we try to fight it, we have an obligation to others and to ourselves. If we want the benefits of life we must first fulfill our responsibilities.

The responsibility to our Creator is the greatest, and involves our entire life. We are accountable for our God-given talents, for their development and use. To try to explain why is almost impossible, but always we seem to have an obligation to fare as best we can in this life. The conquest of life is ours, to be handled in our own way.

Responsibility also involves our parents, friends, and others we love. We must act not only according to our own emotions and needs, but also according to the emotions and needs of those whom our actions will affect. Responsibility involves thinking of others before we do, or fail to do, something that may hurt or harm them physically or emotionally. It has been said that we hurt most those whom we love, and in too many cases, this is true.

Around the age classified as "teenager" people begin to realize that they are not in a world of free pleasure and happiness, but that they must work for what they want and be responsible. Sometimes we try to hide back in our child's world; we don't want to be forced into an adult world we cannot yet understand, a world of obligations and problems, of reality.

At the teen age we want so much:—freedom, understanding, love. There is so much to learn, so many new things to do, but we cannot have what we want until we accept and respect our own responsibility in life. It is

Christmas Statement for 1964

Issued Jointly by Dr. Joseph L. Roberts, President
Dr. C. Merrill Lenox, Executive Director
Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches

Christmas comes again to chasten us in our misdoings, to comfort us in our affliction, to cheer us in our despair and to challenge us to nobler living. As in several recent years, the Season finds the world in restless revolution and our nation torn asunder from within.

Since Christmas invariably weaves a magic spell, bringing out the best in most sincere people, it is our heartfelt prayer that this year's observance will bind up the wounds of humanity, overcome hatred with love, bring consolation to the grief-stricken and shed its glorious light onto the dark places of life.

Inasmuch as our nation is rent with strife over mankind's rightful clamor for equal opportunity for all persons, we pray that Christmas will melt the long-gathered deposits of discrimination and mark a gigantic stride ahead on the pathway to full human rights. May the observance of the birthday of our Lord who taught us to love all men, even our enemies, teach us anew—even when we fight life's battles—to do it with good will. In the struggle for human dignity for all, the churches have an inescapable opportunity and obligation.

Christmas is a sacred and joyous time of year and deserves to be appropriately celebrated.

We, therefore, urgently call upon the citizens of Detroit to make sure that Christmas observances in homes and various social groups be in keeping with the central meaning of the Season. The unrestrained debauchery which sometimes masks under the guise of Christmas cheer is a sin and a disgrace.

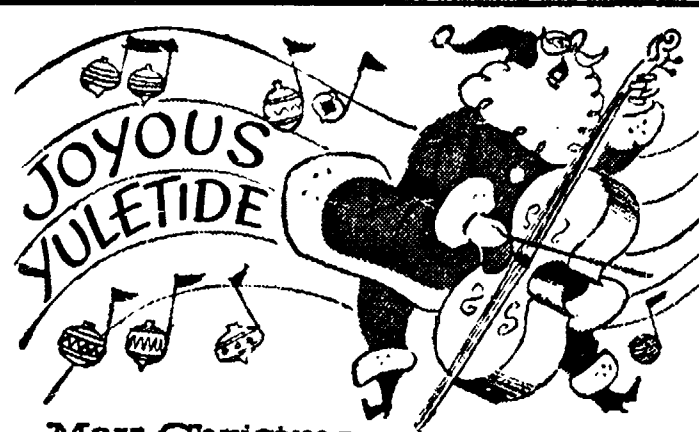

We encourage all who hear or read these words to remember the "stranger within the gates." There are thousands of international students in our state, and other folks who may be lonely, who would welcome a Christmas spent within a happy Christian home.

We urge that those who plan and prepare office parties voice their conviction that the festivities should not detract from the true meaning of Christmas. To have Christmas ruined in our homes by irresponsible conduct at office parties, with the immorality sometimes involved and unnecessary traffic accidents frequently resulting, is a denial rather than an affirmation of Christmas cheer. Act now to see that this does not happen at your place of work.

We see many Christmas greeting cards which have no faint reference to the real meaning of Christmas but we are gratified by the fact that the number of cards bearing fitting religious sentiments has increased enormously. Let your Christmas card bear a joyous greeting that is in accord with what Christmas really is.

Since Christmas is a time primarily for giving rather than receiving, let us remember generously great and worthy causes, including our churches. Let what we give to others outmatch what we give ourselves.

Above all—we express the hope that everyone will make Christmas the occasion for the worship of the Christ of Christmas and for prayers that our nation might be united in true brotherly love and the nations of the world might be bound together in a just and durable peace.

May Christmas
be happy and bright!

'The Rejects' Are Just That

Several groups of Grosse Pointe teens have organized bands to play at the school, church, club or private parties around the community. But it was only last month that a group which can be labeled "truly unique" was formed. The four boys from Grosse Pointe High School call themselves "The Rejects." They use no instruments yet several of their arrangements are instrumental. They have worked out songs and dance patterns which defy description and none of them can sing. In the group are John Clarke, Ric Hendee, Kit Tennyson, and Tom Moran, all seniors. With John as the living electric guitar, Ric as the tap-dancing harmonica, Kit as the super-squeaker, and Tom as the human drum, they've really got something (exactly what we can't yet determine). As of now they are expected to play in the Tuxis show later this winter but this is apt to change any day. When you hear them, you'll understand why.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Merry Christmas! The holidays are here. The Pointe has begun its celebrations. This is the Big Week, and the party season is upon us.

Among very special evenings scheduled now 'til New Year's is Tuesday, December 29, "Grape Expectations" night.

Parties are planned before and after the Princeton Triangle Show, playing a one-night stand at Detroit's Masonic Temple, (some tickets are still available at Grinnell).

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Watkins, of Cloverly road, have invited 16 friends to join them for cocktails and dinner at the Country Club before the performance.

The William Tylis will be entertaining at dinner in their Yorkshire road home, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Casgrain, II, of Merriweather road, have asked a few friends in for a pre-theater supper.

Charles W. Casgrain, III, home from Portsmouth Priory for Christmas vacation, and his sister Marilyn, enjoying her hiatus from classes at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road, are especially looking forward to seeing Triangle's fabulous "fe-male" chorus line.

Princeton student Dennis Jones, spending his vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kennard L. Jones, is inviting several of his friends to "drop in" at the Jones' home in Buckingham road after the University Club dance, which follows the show.

And the J. B. Blackburn, Jr., family, of Lincoln road, will be attending the performance en masse.

Son Jim is presently studying at Princeton, (he's home for the holidays, too); father is a Princeton alumnus; 14-year-old Nancy is thrilled at the prospect of viewing the production.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn and Jim will go on to the University Club dance while Nancy returns home with her grandmother, Mrs. Bertram Herrod, visiting from Pittsburg, Pa., over Christmas.

A Reason To Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Moore, of Cloverly road, have a SPECIAL reason to celebrate tomorrow.

First of all, it's Christmas—and everybody celebrates on Christmas. But not everybody celebrates a 65th wedding anniversary this Christmas Day!

The Moores were married in Scranton, Pa., on December 25, 1899. Mr. Moore was in business in Scranton

Short and to The Pointe

IAN WILLIAM McLEAN, 21, of 775 University place, plan to enroll in The University of Michigan Medical School in September, 1965. McLean, a June, 1961 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, is presently attending the University of Michigan. He is the son of DR. and MRS. I. WILLIAM McLEAN.

The U-M Medical School expects to admit about 200 persons next fall at its Medical Center in Ann Arbor. Of these about 170 will be Michigan residents and 30 will come from out-of-state. The U-M annually accepts one of the largest entering medical classes of any school in the nation.

Successful students entering in the fall of 1965 will receive their M.D. degree in 1969.

Vacationing in Africa are MR. and MRS. CARSTEN TIEDEMANN, of Kenwood road. The Tiedemanns are sailing to the Dark Continent. They will disembark in Durban, South Africa, shortly after Christmas, and plan to tour extensively in Kenya.

Three local families, the DAN LEE JOHNSONS, of Moran road, the CHARLES B. JOHNSONS, JR., of Rivard boulevard, and the WILLIAM M. DELBRIDGES, of University place, will vacation New Year's at the Little Red Schoolhouse near Otsego.

Home in Lincoln road for the holidays will be FRANKLIN M. WALKER, JR., a student at the University of Colorado, and BRUCE EDWARD WALKER, who attends Babson Institute.

Gathering at the Lochmoor boulevard home of DR. and MRS. E. C. BAUMGARTEN Christmas Day will be their daughter and son-in-law, MR. and MRS. WILLIAM WEBSTER, and their son and daughter-in-law, DR. and MRS. THOMAS W. BAUMGARTEN, whose Christmas Eve guests will be Mrs. Baumgarten's parents, the RICHARD SMITHS, of Flint.

The JEAN F. MESRITZ family, of Lothrop road, leave Saturday for their home near Otsego. They will return to the Pointe New Year's Eve.

Susan Burgess Says Vows To Mr. Getz

Pair Traveling in Caribbean after Sunday Rites in Bride's Home; Newlyweds are Studying at Michigan State University

The marriage of Susan Elizabeth Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Burgess, of Washington road, to Alan S. Getz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Getz, of Long Beach, N.Y., took place in the bride's home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Burgess gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of ivory satin, accented with appliques of Alencon lace.

A small pillbox of matching satin and applied lace caught her elbow length illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of miniature carnations.

Nancy J. Cowan was maid of honor, in a floor length, satin trimmed blue chiffon gown. Her headpiece was a matching satin bow. She carried a bouquet of carnations.

Stuart Getz, of Forrest Hills, N.Y., served as his brother's best man.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at her home. Mrs. Burgess chose a dress of ice blue silk shantung, with matching shoes. Her flowers were pink camellias.

Green silk suit and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

The bride is a senior at Michigan State University. Mr. Getz was graduated from Michigan State University last June and is working on his Masters degree in Marketing at MSU.

Following the ceremony and reception, the newlyweds left for New York, where they boarded the Queen Elizabeth for a trip through the Caribbean.

First Bow Made By Terry Book

The first debutante of the holiday season, Terry Peck Book, was presented to society by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irving Book, of Oxford road, at a Saturday afternoon reception in the Country Club of Detroit.

Miss Book received with her mother and father in the club's French Room, decked for the occasion with Christmas wreaths.

The Christmas theme was repeated in the Great Hall. Tall, white-flocked pine trees and pink poinsettias flanked the bandstand where the Pete Baltrus Combo played for dancing.

Terry wore a short, A line dress of bright holiday pink silk, and carried a cascade of green orchids and ivy. Mr. Book's gift to his daughter.

Mrs. Book chose a sheath of champagne peau de soie with an overblouse of ribbon knit.

Young Toni Book, 16, and a student at the Masters School, Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., assisted her debutante sister. Toni's frock was fashioned of emerald silk, and her flowers were pink camellias.

Gordon Book, 14, and a student at Westminster School, Simsbury, Conn., led his sister's usher corps. Other ushers were Dan Piggins, Franklin Walker, Jr., Kevin Cassidy and Stan Bryant.

Terry, who attends Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., is descended from an old and distinguished Detroit family. The late Senator James McMillan was her great-grandfather.

Her grandfather, the late James Burgess Book, Jr., and his two brothers, the late Frank Book and the late Herbert V. Book, built the Book-Cadillac Hotel, (today the Sheraton-Cadillac), and the Book Building in Washington boulevard.

Among honored guests at Terry's party were her grandmother, Mrs. James B. Book, Jr., and her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Lansing M. Pittman and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Book, III.

Brunch Honors Two Debutantes

Two young ladies who will make their formal bows next June, Letitia (Tish) Little and Jayne Lamont (Montie) Newcomb, were honored Sunday morning at a brunch given by their parents, Mrs. Thomas J. Little, III, and Mr. and Mrs. John Jenness Newcomb.

Party scene was the Newcomb home in Whittier road. Young men were provided with brunch partners via a novel "gimmick"—packages under a Christmas tree, labelled with boys' names, contained pictures of their dates in various stages of development, from playpen to birthday party days.

Miss Marsh Weds Richard Laramy, Jr.

Reception at Bride's Home Follows Ceremony; Pair Travel to Northern Michigan for Skiing; to Live in Kalamazoo

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Susan Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clarke Marsh, of Hollywood Avenue, spoke her marriage vows to Richard Charles Laramy, Jr.

Reverend Andrew Rauth, lace bodice and lace-pannelled officiated at the 7:30 o'clock Watteau train.

The bride chose a gown of tiny pearls, caught her silk il-cascade of cymbidium orchids and ivy.

Honor attendant Marilyn Schuch and bridesmaids Carol Moeller and Rosann Laramy were gowned alike in floor length frocks of American Beauty velvet, with green velvet head bows.

Their Christmas bouquets featured large holiday ornaments entwined with red carnations and velvet ribbon.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Charles Laramy, Sr., of Kalamazoo, asked James Latta to serve as best man.

Ushering were Eric Evenson and James D. Douglas, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom; John Marsh, the bride's brother; and James Laramy, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marsh chose a sapphire blue, floor length velvet sheath, with matching accessories. She pinned white camellias to her handbag.

Mrs. Laramy wore a floor length, turquoise brocade sheath, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Following a champagne reception at the bride's home, the newlyweds left for a skiing vacation in Northern Michigan. For traveling, the bride chose a powder blue wool suit, with Navy accessories.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Laramy will make their home in Kalamazoo, while both complete their senior year studies at Western Michigan University.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was feted at a personal shower, given by Prudy Baum, of Moran road, a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. G. O. Naumann, of Somerset road, a linen shower, given by Mrs. Robert Dodd, of Colonial road, and a kitchen shower, given by her college friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Laramy, Sr., hosted the Rehearsal Dinner at the Golden Lion.

Once mislaid a lost reputation is mighty hard to find.

SUSAN JANE MARSH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clarke Marsh, was married to Mr. Laramy Saturday evening, at a candlelight service in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. He is the son of the senior Laramys, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Set Luncheon At City Club

Mrs. Robert O. Artner, of East Doyle place, and her daughter, Nancy Kay, co-chairmen of the Women's City Club mother-daughter committee, are planning a holiday luncheon for all club members next Wednesday, December 30.

The annual party will begin this year at 1 o'clock. Following luncheon, Miss Olga Pobut-sky, librarian of the Conely Branch of the Detroit Public Library, will review recent fiction and non-fiction.

GEORGE C. ROBINSON, a senior at Trinity College, has been elected recording secretary of Alpha Delta Phi. Mr. Robinson is a son of Mrs. CHARLES W. BISHOP of Dyer lane.

Jamaica Calls Local Students

Dave McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. McKee, of Ridgmont road, and John Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Randall, of Lewiston road, were among a group of 41 Alma College students who left for Jamaica December 18.

They will spend the Christmas holidays on the Caribbean Island as guests of fellow student Tony Taylor, a senior from Jamaica.

For the third consecutive year, members and guests of the Alma College chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will be spending their Christmas vacation in sunny Jamaica. The students left Alma Friday, December 18, in a chartered bus, driving straight to Miami, Fla., where they caught a plane to Kingston, Jamaica.

They will enjoy 12 days in Jamaica, staying in the dorms of the University of West Indies in Kingston, using their time sightseeing, shopping, and sunbathing.

The idea of the trip was conceived three years ago by Tony when he invited 10 of his fraternity brothers to go home with him during Christmas vacation. As enthusiastic word spread about the trip, last year more Tekes became interested.

Tony did not limit the trip to his fraternity brothers and six co-eds were invited to go along with the 19 Tekes. After the 25 sun-tanned students returned last year, "Jamaica" has been the talk of the campus.

Thus, Tony decided to make his last Jamaica expedition the biggest and best, in addition to the 18 Tekes and 10 co-eds, Tony also invited 12 independent men who were friends of the fraternity.

"The students will not only have fun shopping and swimming, but will have the opportunity of really exploring in depth the capital city of Kingston, and for three days, the resort capital of Montego Bay—all on their own. Thus they will be able to see a Jamaica that the average tourist does not see; an experience they will value for many years to come," said Tony Taylor.

The group will leave Kingston January 1, returning to Alma College in time for classes on Monday, January 4.

Tea And Trains Delight Seniors

The senior citizens of the Thompson Home gathered Wednesday afternoon at the Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., home in Lakeshore road for their annual Christmas tea and train party.

Among the party hostesses, Thompson Home trustees, were Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, Mrs. Ferdinand Cinelli, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mrs. William P. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell, Mrs. Martin S. Hayden and Mrs. H. Lynn Pierson.

The Thompson Home ladies were delighted, as always, by the Glancys' fabulous miniature railroad complex.

The Glancys have scheduled two more holiday train parties, on December 28 and 29, and another party, for families of Grosse Pointe Shores municipal employees, is planned after New Year's.

THE MOANIN' AFTER Celebrate too much and the dawn of a New Year is viewed through a foggy atmosphere.

Married

Gloria Ann Schmidt Feted Before Rites

Bride-Elect in Midst of Busy Whirl of Parties, to Culminate in Wedding a Few Days After Christmas

Gloria Ann Schmidt is being honored at a number of parties prior to her December 29 wedding in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to Steven Baynes Whittlesey. The bride-elect, daughter of the Arthur O. A. Schmidts of Lakecrest lane, has asked her sister, Mrs. Richard L. Zuehlke, to be matron of honor.

Bridesmaids will be Diana Hinks and Susan Hallenbeck, both of The Pointe, and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters of the bride Mary Ann Pratt, of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Bruce Laidlaw, of Ann Arbor, and Helen Hitchman, of Boston.

Susan Hykes will be in charge of the guest book.

The bridegroom-elect has asked his brother, Theodore E. Whittlesey, of Allen Park, to be best man. The usher corps will include Tom Schmidt, brother of the bride, Stephen Gerow, Albert Bolden and Ralph Heikinen, all of Grosse Pointe, and Robert Gilliam, of East Lansing.

Mrs. Bruce Laidlaw was first to entertain for the bride-to-be at a dessert and miscellaneous shower in Ann Arbor November 21.

Thanksgiving weekend, Mrs. Carl Zimmer, of Sheldon road, entertained Miss Schmidt and 24 guests at a luncheon and linen shower at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mrs. Ellsworth Allison gave a "house beautiful" shower and luncheon in her Suningdale

Hilberry Theater Season Begins

A hard-working, subscription-raising committee of Wayne State University's Hilberry Classic Theater has been active for many months to assure the success of the President's Preview performance of Shakespeare's "Macbeth," planned for 8:30 o'clock Tuesday, January 5.

Among the 43-member committee are Mrs. John W. Anderson, of East Jefferson avenue, Mrs. Harold O. Love, of Lochmoor boulevard, Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marks, of Three Mile drive, and Mrs. Thomas Morow, of Vendome road.

Established in 1964 on the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth, the Classic Theatre's second season, opening Wednesday, January 6, will also present Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex," Moliere's "The Ridiculous Young Ladies," and Bertolt Brecht's "Galileo."

drive home December 12, followed, on December 13, by a cocktail-buffet-bar shower party given for the engaged pair by Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Meyer, of Tonnancour place.

Mrs. George L. Cassidy, of Lakeshore road, was hostess at a table top accessory shower and luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club last Saturday.

Christmas week there will be two parties, the first a kitchen shower at the University Club, given by Diana Hinks, of Cranford lane.

At the second party, Mrs. Sheldon Drennan and her daughter, Nancy, and Mrs. Daniel Carne, of Berkshire road, will be co-hostesses at a round-the-clock shower and late supper at the Drennans' Lakecrest lane residence.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Ross Bush, will give the Spinster Luncheon December 28 at her Pemberton road home. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Otto Schmidt, of Middlesex boulevard, the bride's grandmother. That evening, the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Whittlesey, will host the Rehearsal Dinner at their Lakeshore road home.

The bride-elect will fete her attendants at a luncheon Tuesday, December 29, the day of the wedding.

Fete Miss Barr At Little Club

Joining forces to honor Kathy Barr, who will make her formal debut Christmas Eve with Sally Chalmers and Mary French at a tea dance, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bishop, of Dyar lane, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gray Garlinghouse, of Merriweather road.

The daughter of the Andrew Wilson Barrs, of Merriweather road, was feted Sunday at a buffet supper.

Party scene was the Little Club, which will also be the setting for the December 24 debut dance.

Cultivate good habits—all the bad ones grow wild.

Betrothed

At a family dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson Petzold, of Edgemont Park, announced the engagement of their daughter, ANNA DEMPSEY, to Elgin Clifford Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Arter Norris, of Birmingham, Mich.

Anna Dee was graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Noroton, Conn. She attended Manhattanville College and received her degree from the University of Michigan. She made her debut in December of 1957.

She is a member of Tau Beta Association and the Junior League of Detroit.

Her fiancé received his Bachelors and Masters degrees from the University of Indiana. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi. He is associated with Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis in Detroit.

Miss Petzold is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William August Petzold, of Grosse Pointe, and the late Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Harrington, of Manchester, N.H.

Mr. Norris is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Clifford Norris, of Alliance, O., and the late Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Christian Winter, of Akron, O.

A February 13 wedding is planned.

Sometimes the man who holds the key to the situation gets in the habit of knocking.

SCYC Members Enjoy Holidays

Holiday activity at the St. Clair Yacht Club began early in the month when junior members gathered at the newly redecorated club to add a bit of tinsel and holly to the decor.

The club tree was hung with ornaments at the annual tree-trimming party held on December 4. Commodore Harry R. Rager and his lady led members and guests in adding the crowning touch to the holiday atmosphere. Dancing to the music of Dick Schobler's orchestra followed.

A pleasant addition to the evening was the Christmas concert given by members of the General Motors Chorus. Nearly 100 voices were raised in a musical tribute to the holiday season.

Wives of the club officers, known as the Garters, held their annual bazaar at the same night, providing ample solutions to Christmas shopping problems for the party goers.

Other Christmas activities at the Club have included a fish fry on December 11. The annual New Year's Eve Party featuring supper and dancing will wind up holiday festivities at the Club.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained may be true, but at least you can keep what you have.

To Be Wed

A June wedding is being planned by CYNTHIA GABRIEL and Richard A. Ralston.

The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Gabriel, of Lochmoor boulevard, and the late Mr. Gabriel.

Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. John Ralston, of Des Plaines, Ill., and the late Mr. Ralston. He attended the University of Miami, Fla., and the University of Detroit.

Every man has a place in this busy old world, but many have trouble locating the spot.

Center to Hold New Year Ball

The Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lake Shore road, will again this year be the setting for a glittering New Year's Eve Ball and Mid-Night Supper for Grosse Pointe's college set and their guests.

Dancing will begin Thursday, December 31, at 9:30 p.m. and the party will continue till 1:30 a.m. The affair is on the formal side and black tie is preferred; however, dark business suits for the young men and short as well as long floor length dresses for the young ladies will be perfectly acceptable.

The shimmering crystal chandeliers and the glass walls of the ballroom will reflect the twinkle of thousands of Italian Christmas Lights from a giant pine in the center of the room.

Clusters of red balloons, streamers and serpentine will make a festive setting.

On the stroke of 12 all lights will be turned out to let couples greet the New Year in traditional fashion. Then Zev Clay's band will play "Auld Lang Syne" and everyone will be given noise makers, horns and hats.

When the New Year has been properly greeted, the buffet tables will open and everyone will be served turkey, ham, several salads, relishes, beverages and dessert.

The Center can only accommodate 250 couples at this party. Paid reservations at $5 a couple are being accepted at the Memorial's office now. All who plan to attend are urged to get their tickets as soon as possible.

The man who lives right sets a good example for others.

Newlywed Orhans Traveling in West

Pair to Live in Ann Arbor While Bridegroom Continues His Studies at the University of Michigan Law School

Mr. and Mrs. Xhafer Orhan left on a wedding trip to the West Coast following their 11:30 o'clock marriage on Saturday, December 19, in Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village. Judge George Thomas Martin presided.

The bride is the former Judith Lee Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lee Townsend, of Dearborn. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ali Orhan, of Maryland Avenue.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white ottoman gown. The fitted bodice was decorated with crescent curved neckline, long slender sleeves and traditional buttons down the back.

Her controlled bell shaped skirt was accented with a full chapel length train. A shaped pillow of matching ottoman fabric held her tiered veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade of gardenias and ivy.

The attendants were gowned in opaline pink velvet frocks styled with emperv bodices, crescent curved necklines, tapered mid-length sleeves and A-line skirts. Their high rise waistlines were defined with baroque gold and ruby florentine ribbon, closing at the front with asymmetric bows and streamers.

Bow bandeaux of the florentine ribbon formed their headpieces.

Sandra Smiggen, of Ann Arbor, a sorority sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids included Margaret Metzger, of Dearborn, and Shije Orhan, the bridegroom's sister. The attendants carried matching nosegays of rubus roses and foliage.

Robert B. Benton served as best man. Ushers were Duke Nazari, a cousin of the bridegroom, from West Virginia; Charles D. Todd, III, a fraternity brother, and James H. Versey, of Royal Oak.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Townsend selected an ice blue three piece ensemble of silk faille and lace with matching accessories. Mrs. Orhan wore a mint green dress with a lace bodice, crepe skirt and gold accessories. Both mothers attached cymbidium orchids to their handbags.

The new Mrs. Orhan left on a two week trip to the West Coast, wearing an olive green dress and hat with lizard accessories.

The bride was graduated

Legion Ladies Back Program

Remembering the events of December 7, 1941, the women of the American Legion Auxiliary will continue to emphasize their civil defense activities during December. Mrs. Rowena Weaver, Civil Defense Chairman, Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 of the Auxiliary, has announced.

The Auxiliary is giving full cooperation to the nation's civil defense program, and is endeavoring to awaken all women to the importance of preparations and training for action in time of disaster, explained Mrs. Weaver. She said, "We of the American Legion Auxiliary are endeavoring to do something about the general apathy toward civil defense. We are seeking to arouse greater interest in survival plans of our communities and to get more people to take training that would make them useful in disasters of any type."

"There must never be another Pearl Harbor—never an attack against an unprepared America. We must face the hard fact that under some circumstances, our cities, our homes, etc., could be subject to nuclear attack. It is only common sense to be ready to do everything possible to reduce the consequences of such an attack."

"The better prepared we are, the less likely we will ever use these preparations. Civil defense is a part of national defense, and an America ready to defend itself is apt to be left in peace. An unready America invites attack."

"Even though everyone is busy in this Christmas season, the Auxiliary is encouraging its members to take training for various civil defense activities, such as first aid, home nursing, welfare services, registration, communications, shelter managers and radiological monitors. Everywhere we are co-operating with civil defense officials in preparations for survival in today's dangerous world, and thus be assured there will never be another Christmas such as that one in 1941."

Dance Students To Have Ball

Ted and Lillian Forrest's 225 Ballroom Dancing students at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will literally have a ball during Christmas vacation when on Tuesday evening, December 29, they will gather for a party in the Center's Crystal Ballroom.

The young people will have an orchestra to dance to. Everyone will get favors and fancy hats and most important there will be lots to eat. The Center is providing punch and ice cream and committees of mothers are making fancy sandwiches and baking cookies and cakes.

While everyone will gather at the same time, 7:30 o'clock, the younger students in the Thursday afternoon classes will leave the party at 9:30 p.m. The seventh and eighth graders in the regular 6:45 Friday evening class should be picked up by their parents at 9:45. The older group who have been meeting on alternate Fridays from 8 to 10 o'clock will stay at the dance till 10 o'clock.

Ballroom dancing classes will resume on January 14 and 15 and everyone should enroll for the second term at the Center's office now.

Center Holding Teens' Dance

With the announcement that Grosse Pointe High School's Missfit Combo would play part time at the Center's "Christmas Spirits" dance for teens this Saturday, December 26, from 9 to 12, comes a modification in ruling on dress. Casual for girls and coats for boys have been altered to "sweaters for everyone."

The dance will be given in the upper floor of Fries Auditorium where Christmas is very much in evidence. A 75c admission per person covers snacks and drinks at a refreshment bar as well as the dancing. People are encouraged to enjoy the record rumble and the Missfits either as couples or singly since tags and hugs are very welcome too.

The records to be used for dancing when the Missfits are not playing have been selected on the basis of sealed bids by a board of teens of Senior High School age. They chose the student disk jockey, Greg Hykes, because of the tape of recordings he submitted.

Detroit Sorosis Slates Session

Detroit Sorosis will meet for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock on Tuesday, January 5, at the Lochmoor boulevard home of Mrs. Dwight Struthers.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Cross, Mrs. W. E. Magnus and Mrs. Philip Sheld.

Robert Orr will speak on current books. Mrs. Ira Reindel is chairman of the day.

MIDSHIPMAN ROGER LARS ANDERSEN, son of Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD ANDERSEN of Bedford road, is home on Christmas leave from the U.S. Naval Officer Candidate School at Newport, R. I.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD A. BROAT and daughter KIM-BROAT, of Grand Rapids, are spending the holidays in the Pointe visiting their parents, the THEODORE C. GROATS, of Harvard road, and the MILTON M. MAHONEYs, of Whit-tier road.

On Saturday, December 26, the young couple will entertain friends at the Mahoney residence. Among the Pointers attending will be:

MR. and MRS. RICHARD D. BRUNEAU, Jr., R. BURKE FROESSE III, TOM and JACK TONTAERT, PETER BRUSS, JOHN BLAIN, EDMUND BRADY, JR., and JOHN C. COOK.

JOHN STEWART EDELEN, 20, of Balfour road plans to enroll in The University of Michigan Medical School in September, 1965.

Edelen, a June, 1961 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School is presently attending Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. He is the son of MR. and MRS. MONTE J. EDELEN of the above address.

A good conscience never costs half as much as it's worth.

Making Opera Plans

Advance planning for Metropolitan Opera Week, May 24 to 29, was the subject of discussion when more than 60 opera volunteers gathered last week at a luncheon given at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club by MRS. LYNN A. TOWNSEND, of Birmingham, chairman of the '65 Opera Season, and the Detroit Grand Opera Association, sponsors of the Season. The Metropolitan will present seven performances in Detroit's Ma-

Miss Fischer Bows At Home

Stephanie Kemble Fischer was presented to society Sunday, at an at-home reception given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Fischer, of Lakeland avenue.

Miss Fischer wore a street length dress of white silk faille and carried a cluster of white sweetheart roses and ivy. Mrs. Fischer's frock was fashioned of white and gold brocade, and her flowers were Eucharis lilies.

The debutante and her parents received their guests in the living room, standing before a fireplace decked with pine boughs, white candles, greens and indirectly lighted white trees.

White and gold, with touches of green, were the Christmas colors used throughout the house. Decorations featured white poinsettias, Christmas trees adorned with golden balls, bows and twinkling Italian lights, and variegated ivy.

Stephanie's twin brother, Stephen, and her sister, Paula, assisted at the festivities, and among the honored guests were the deb's grandmother, Mrs. Roy H. Kemble, and her aunt, Mrs. J. Stanley McCormack, who came from New Hope, Pa., for the party.

New Year's Eve Ball at Center

A lavish ball and midnight supper for the college set will under in 1965 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Tickets are now on sale at the Memorial's office on the first floor of Alger House, 32 Lake Shore road.

Five dollars covers for two, dancing with Zev Clay's band from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. a full buffet supper after midnight, and noise makers and favors. There is a 250 couple limit and tickets will be sold at the door only if available.

The Memorial has decorated the Crystal Ballroom in this unusually beautiful fashion in holiday season and for New Year's plans to add serpentine, balloons, and silver bells to complete the festive air. The grand march, midnight kiss in darkened ballroom, and the singing of Auld Lang Syne are traditions which will be continued.

Semi-formal, it will be a chance for everyone to look his best and be with his best girl in the best of settings.

St. Paul Girls Give Yule Fete

The Junior Sodality at St. Paul High School, moderated by Sister Joseph Ellen, O. P., knows the true meaning of "tis better to give than to receive."

The group composed of freshman and sophomore girls, held a Party for 60 boys and girls from Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, last Saturday at 12:30 p.m.

The children, ranging from grades one to three, were wowed as they arrived at the lake-side school and were escorted inside for the Christmas festivities.

Santa and Christmas Carol (alias Mike Carly and Kathy Hurley) delighted the youngsters by presenting each with a small gift and various cakes and cookies baked by the girls.

Marcia Whitney Honored At Tea

Christmas trees, white carnations and Italian lights proved a festive setting for the holiday tea Monday afternoon at which Mrs. Charles R. Whitney presented her daughter, Marcia Lockwood Whitney, to society.

The debutante and her mother received before the living room fireplace, flanked by carnation filled silver champagne coolers, in their Lakeland avenue home.

The tea table featured a fine silver bowl which belonged originally to Marcia's grandmother, the late Mrs. David C. Whitney. Carnations filled the bowl, and silver candlesticks, holding tall white candles, stood on either side of the centerpiece.

Miss Whitney wore an afternoon dress of gold and white brocade. Her flowers, an arrangement of white Amazon lilies and ivy, were a gift from her father. Mrs. Whitney's gown was fashioned of white, green and yellow brocade.

Pouring at the tea table were the debutante's aunt, Mrs. David M. Whitney, Jr., Mrs. Lyle A. Devlin, Mrs. Carroll T. Ballantyne, Mrs. John B. Ford, III, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Richard E. Williams, Mrs. John R. Odell, Jr., Mrs. James A. Humphreys and Mrs. William H. Ledyard.

Also pouring were Mrs. Cleveland Thurber, Mrs. Dan L. Johnson, Mrs. John N. Stewart, Mrs. Edgar B. Calloway, Mrs. Frank J. Sladen and Mrs. Philip F. Van Zile, II.

The debutante's two grandmothers, distinguished by their white orchid corsages, Mrs. W. R. Sweetland, of Mt. Pleasant, and Mrs. Morrison Whitney, were on hand for the party, and Mrs. Robert E. Entwistle, an old friend of Mrs. Whitney's, came from her Lake Forest, Ill., home especially for the tea.

Will Wed

At a family supper in their home Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest William Bradshaw, of Bishop road, announced the engagement of their daughter, HARRIETT FOSTER, to William Buttolph Lafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Lafer, of Oxford road.

A summer wedding is planned.

Miss Bradshaw is a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School and Wheelock College, Boston, Mass. She was presented to society at a tea in her home in June, 1959. She is a member of the Junior League and Tau Beta Association.

Mr. Lafer, presently serving in the United States Army at Fort Story, Va., was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School, attended Princeton University and was graduated from the School of Business Administration, Western Michigan University.

JOY CHANDLER, daughter of MRS. JOHN CHANDLER, of Fleetwood drive, arrived home last Friday from Denison College, Grinnell, Ia., to spend the Christmas holidays in The Pointe.

Faculty Cagers To Do Comedy

Grosse Pointe High School's Varsity Club has arranged a comedy basketball game between members of the school faculty and a professional group, the Harlem Diplomats. The money raised by the club, they take 40 percent of the gate) will be used in a scholarship fund and for buying needed athletic equipment.

The Harlem Diplomats are a group of clowns from Canada who travel from school to school and, in return for 60 percent of the gate, combat a team of faculty members. They guarantee a hilarious evening. Tickets for the January 14 encounter are on sale through members of the Varsity Club at $1 apiece. The game will start at 8:00. Other information or tickets can be obtained through the sports department of the high school.

The fellow who lives it up has much to live down.

President Marvin Asmus, Jr., trustee, John Jamieson, secretary Carl Carlson and financial secretary Roy Hartman retire from office having served over the past years.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the 11 o'clock worship service on Sunday, December 27.

Headlines of the Week

United States government, President Johnson announced yesterday. Four possible routes through three Central American countries were outlined in yesterday's briefing. The President revealed that the canal might be the first one in history to be dug by atomic explosives. He added that the U.S. would in the near future propose to Panama "the negotiation of an entirely new treaty on the existing Panama canal."

THE CHIEF OF POLICE and Public Safety Director of suburban Dearborn were indicted yesterday by a Federal grand jury for standing idly by when an angry mob attacked a Dearborn home in a racial dispute on Labor Day of 1963. Named in the indictment were Police Chief Garrison Clayton and Safety Director George W. Lewis. While over 100 residents attacked the home of Giuseppe Stanzione, of 7427 Kendal, the two were said to have made no effort to disperse the crowd. Local residents mistakenly thought the home had been rented to Negroes.

THE LURE OF A PRECIOUS scent for a few cents has led many Detroit area residents to be duped by peddlers of an imitation brand Chanel No. 5 perfume. The peddlers, who wandered into town earlier this month, are selling their bathtub fragrance at about a third of the going price of $25 an ounce.

Sunday, December 20
TEXAS OIL BARONS will have to find another place to disperse their fortunes this Christmas season, since their favorite shopping spot, the world-famous Neiman-Marcus department store in Dallas, was struck by a disastrous fire yesterday morning. Damage was fixed at near $100 million. Store president Stanley Marcus mused, "Like a phoenix, we will rise from the ashes with an even prettier store."

THE LIBERTINE TEENS of Darien, Conn., have sworn off their association with the spirits, it was reported yesterday. A scandal rocked the fashionable New York suburb last June when a girl was killed in an auto accident after leaving a dinner party in the company of some tipsy friends. The town's teens have now rented a barn to hold their dry parties in, and reported that a happy, sober crowd attended their first function Friday night.

A BRITISH PHOTOGRAPHER received a stern reprimand from the Press Council for taking and publishing informal pictures of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Margaret at a sea-side resort last summer. The photos, which showed the royal family swimming and water skiing, were said to have been taken without knowledge of the Queen and her sister.

Monday, December 21
A SEIZURE OF the South Viet Nam government by a group of young generals has led the United States to threaten to review its policies towards that country's government. The military leaders, who took over Friday, defied a U.S. request that they release 22 political prisoners; they remain firmly in control of the government of the strife-torn country.

SURVIVORS ARRIVING in Leopoldville Sunday night said that 30 more white missionaries have been massacred by Congolese rebels. Those slain were said to include one American, 15 Britons, eight Dutchmen, four Belgians, one Australian and one Canadian. A squad of mercenary troops dispatched to the area the 30 inhabited found no trace of them, except for a few blood-stained clothes.

DETROIT LIONS OWNER William Clay Ford announced yesterday that three Lions coaches have been fired as a result of a player revolt. Ford dismissed the three coaches, Less Bingham, Bob Nussbaumer and Don Doll, in spite of the objections of Lions head coach George Wilson.

Tuesday, December 22
A DISHEARTENED San Francisco mother yesterday became the first person to survive a leap from the San Francisco Bay Bridge. After leaping 232 feet into the chilly water, the woman, Mrs. Isabelle Kainoa, 30, commented, "I don't remember hitting anything." She told police she was depressed because she could not be with her children for Christmas due to a lingering struggle with leprosy she has suffered for several years.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD added two more names to the list of former assistant coaches of the Detroit Lions yesterday. The owner dismissed line coach Aldo Forte and backfield coach Sonny Grandelius. At the same time, Ford gave head coach George Wilson an "indefinite" extension of his $35,000-a-year contract, and gave him free rein in choosing a new slate of assistants. Lion general manager Edwin J. Anderson commented, "We all felt that a clean sweep was in order."

THE REPUBLICAN party turmoil continued on two levels yesterday. Republican National Committee chairman Dean Burch reassured yesterday that he considered himself in firm control of the party machinery, while many younger Republicans clamored for his ouster. In the House, Rep. Charles A. Halleck rose to defend himself against Michigan Rep. Gerald R. Ford's challenge to his position as Republican minority leader. The House G.O.P. members will meet January 4 to choose a leader.

Pointe Business Notes
Paul C. Ackerman, Chrysler Corporation vice president, engineering, was honored on November 21 at the Detroit Golf Club on the announcement of his retirement after 42 years in the automobile industry.

Ackerman, a Chrysler engineer for 30 years and a director of the corporation since 1957, retires November 30.

Before joining Chrysler in 1934, Ackerman was associated with several automotive companies, including the Maxwell Car Company, Continental Motor Company and Timken Roller Bearing Company.

In 1938, he was appointed supervising engineer in charge of Chrysler's car testing, engine development and general laboratories. He was named chief engineer of laboratories in 1948, and advanced to executive engineer-laboratories in 1953.

He was named director of engineering-engineering division in 1955, and was elected a vice-president in August, 1959.

Among the many contributions to Chrysler, and to the automobile industry, for which he was honored by Chrysler friends and associates Friday night, are patents issued in his name for several transmission and motor vehicle lighting devices.

Ackerman was born November 4, 1899, in Erie, Pa. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1922 with a degree in engineering and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Engineering degree from Lawrence Institute of Technology in 1960.

He has been a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers since 1927, and is a member of the executive board of the Automobile Manufacturers Association's Engineering Advisory Committee, the Lochmoor Country Club and the Detroit Athletic Club.

Since 1962, he has served as a president of the Board of Commissioners, Department of Street Railways, City of Detroit, and previously served seven years as a commissioner of the Department of Streets and Traffic for the City of Detroit.

Ackerman, who lives with his wife, Maxine, at 8925 East Jefferson, Detroit, plans to continue these activities upon retirement, as well as the pursuit of his favorite sports, golf and skiing. He lived in the Pointe for many years.

Cecil B. Hastings has been appointed assistant supervisor of Detroit Edison's record management division. A native Detroit resident and a civil engineering graduate of Wayne State University, Mr. Hastings joined Detroit Edison in 1937 as a draftsman.

Mr. Hastings has been active in Boy Scout and YMCA youth programs and in Toastmasters International. He served as deacon of the International Church of Christ in Thailand and is presently serving a three-year term as deacon of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

He and his wife, Madeline, live at 276 Mt. Vernon. They have two married sons and four grandchildren.

Eight Grosse Pointe men were among 29 top-level officer promotions at Detroit Bank & Trust. The announcement was made by Raymond T. Perring, chairman and Charles H. Hewitt, president of the bank.

James A. Cameron, of 265 Merriweather road, was promoted to vice-president and Charles W. Monheimer of 254 Stephens road, was named vice-president and comptroller.

Promoted to assistant vice-president were Donald C. Layher of 1464 Yorktown road, and Joseph F. Schadler of 1867 Norwood drive.

Named trust officer William F. Huettner of 19217 Livville road, and John P. Worcester of 576 Lincoln road.

Appointed assistant cashiers were Frederick C. Hertel of 1091 Torrey road, and John Koch, Jr., of 1719 Manchester boulevard.

Ray A. Shapero Receives Award
Ray A. Shapero, president of Cunningham Drug Stores, Inc., of Detroit, Michigan, received the Drug, Cosmetic and Allied Industries 1964 Human Relations Award at a testimonial dinner held December 16 at the Savoy Plaza Hotel, New York City.

Announcement of the award was made by Wilbur E. Dewell, chairman of the board of Hazel Bishop Inc., the dinner chairman, and Benjamin J. Victor, president of the Illinois Thrifty Drug Co., and national chairman of the Drug, Cosmetic and Allied Industries Division of the American Jewish Committee's Appeal for Human Relations. Proceeds of the $100 per plate dinner will go to the AJC's nationwide Appeal for Human Relations. The 1964 Appeal goal is $4,500,000.

Shapero is president of Cunningham Drug Stores, which operates 231 drugstores in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Florida and California.

Shapero attended the Babson Institute at Wellesley, Mass., and Michigan State University. He served with the United States Navy Air Force during World War II.

He is a member of Franklin Hills Country Club, the Standard City Club, the Florida State Pharmaceutical Society, Detroit Press Club, Detroit Board of Commerce.

who, where and whatnot

by uboozit

The two views of Christmas—a bright, tinselled, happy time of parties and presents and whimsical tales . . . and a season set aside to celebrate the birth of a death-marked Child—are beautifully expressed by Carolyn Hubbard Lucas in two Christmas poems, the first a reflection on the Day's true meaning, the second (printed this year on the Russell Lucas' Christmas cards), a charming holiday fable for children, and adults who remember how it felt to be children . . .

THE PRICE

What of the warm young limbs that fall in death?
What of the warm young breath?
What of the spirit's flight into the night
To God's eternal light?
Out from the battle-ringing where flesh and iron cling
They soar and sing.

Once long ago a little Child was born
On Christmas morn.
Shepherds and wisemen knelt to pray
Together on that day—is this a faith outworn?
If youth must bear His cross
The world must wear His heavy crown of thorn.

THE CHRISTMAS MOUSE

'Twas the night before Christmas and all thro' the house
Not a creature was stirring—and Johnny the mouse
Lay sleeping and dreaming—all snug in his bed
While visions of sugar plums danced in his head.
He sighed as he dreamed, "There is no gift for me,
But an apple for Santa I left 'neath the tree."
At that very moment he heard overhead
The stamping of hooves and a deep voice that said,
"I am sure as can be Johnny lives in this house—
So I'll hunt up a gift for a good little mouse."
Young Johnny was startled and looked all around
As down from the chimney with hardly a sound
Old Santa appeared with his bag full of toys
He'd brought from his workshop for good girls and boys.
He filled all the stockings—for Tommy a bat
For Susan a doll and a ball for the cat.
Then he laid out some cheese with a note on the shelf—
"Many thanks for the apple—from Santa himself.
I give many gifts every Christmas, it's true
So I take very kindly this present from you!
I am leaving some cheese for your own Christmas Cheer.
My reindeer are waiting. Thanks, Johnny, my dear."
He flew up the chimney and straight to the roof
Where his reindeer were prancing on each little hoof.
Johnny peeped thro' the window and from the dark sky
Heard old Santa Claus call, "Merry Christmas, Good Bye."
Then he picked up the cheese and ran off to his house
Saying, "This is the very best gift for a mouse."

PILFERINGS

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. —Luke II. ii

But I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come 'round—apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin, if anything belonging to it can be apart from that—as a good time:
a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time: the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people . . . as if they really were of fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys.
—Dickens, A Christmas Carol

Now to the Lord sing praises,
All you within this place,
And with true love and brotherhood
Each other now embrace;
This Holy Tide of Christmas
All other doth deface.
—old English carol

Of all the old festivals . . . that of Christmas awakens the strongest and most heartfelt associations. There is a tone of solemn and sacred feeling that blends with our conviviality and lifts the spirit to a state of hallowed and elevated enjoyment.
—Irving, Christmas Papers

From Another Pointe of View

for over half a century; upon his retirement in 1934, the couple came to The Pointe to make their home with one of their daughters, Mrs. Ralph P. Jones, of Cloverly road.

Two other daughters also live in this area, Mrs.
Donald W. MacAskill, of Somerset road, and Mrs. George
A. Krupp, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have four grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Christmas In Oakridge

Two Pointe doctors are spending Christmas far from home this year.

Dr. William H. Coulter, an Ophthalmologist, son of Dr. and Mrs. William J. Coulter, of Westchester road, and Dr. Thomas E. Del Giorno, an Anesthesiologist, of Shoreham road, left December 13 to join the SS. Hope in Oakridge, Guine, for a two-month tour of duty.

Dr. Coulter and Del Giorno have volunteered their services aboard the floating medical center, currently paying its first visit to Africa.

Their professional abilities are their Christmas gifts to the people of West Africa, through Project Hope.

Year-Round Beauty

With Christmas lights sparkling, wreaths on doors and greens-decked halls, most Pointe homes are truly beautiful at this season.

Mrs. Jerome K. Abbs, of Cadieux road, would like beauty in gardens and homes to be a constant affair.

Her article in the January issue of "Popular Gardening" tells how to plan a year-round picture window garden, an ever-changing, perpetually delightful and personally satisfying vista.

An Extra-Large Bath Towel . . .

. . . is the Christmas gift we'd suggest for Robert E.
Bailey, of Lakepointe avenue.

Robert is a sophomore at Central Michigan University.
He stepped under a shower at 11:20 p.m. one recent Friday night—and stepped out at 7:21 p.m. Saturday.
"I sat on a chair most of the time and wore rubber gloves for the last 10 hours because my hands were getting all dried out," Mr. Bailey reports.

"My feet were pretty bad too but they were all right the next morning . . . I had some pop and soup but nothing solid while I was in the shower."

We understand that Robert's world record of 20 hours and one minute under running water was recently toppled. We offer him our commiserations . . . and wish him a very Merry Christmas, anyway . . .

Pointer of Interest

By Janet Mueller

It's a time—and a place—for being happy. The trees are up, the presents bought, the stockings hung, the tables set. The Pointe is ready for Christmas. At this special time of the year, our community has a special glow. Partly, the glow is visible: Twinkling lights and fat, pear-shaped bulbs glittering at night on every street, lighted creches in front of churches, shop windows crammed with everything-under-the-sun, in every color of the rainbow.

Happiness is visible, too. People smile at each other these last days before Christmas: children have a sharp, excited look, as if they were every minute expecting to be delighted.
Men and women wear bemused, slightly dazed expressions. Christmas masks compounded of fatigue, (left over from a last shopping expedition), trepidation, (will Uncle Paul like the electric back-scratcher I got him?), and hope, (this year, everything is going to be wonderful . . . the toys will work, the clothes will fit, and I won't have to take anything back!)

Partly Invisible
Partly, the glow is invisible. Inside everyone, at Christmas time, there is a private carol, a special song of rejoicing. A person's private carol is no mean feat for his ears alone. No one else could, or would, understand it. Communities have their private carols, too. And no one, except the people of the communities, can, or will, understand them.

Grosse Pointe's carol was composed by the 60,000 or so people who live here, because they like it here. It tells of homes, small, neat
homes on small, neat lanes . . .
hundred-year-old homes, preserved, changed, renovated, un-renovated, warm with generations of living . . . beautiful,
rambling homes on beautiful,
rambling streets . . . mansions
still standing . . . mansions that once stood . . .

Mostly, the homes are medium-sized now, even the Very Expensive, (and let us be honest: There are many Very Expensive homes in Grosse
Pointe), dwellings are compact, exquisite in detail rather than in size.

It tells of homes, small, neat homes on small, neat lanes . . .
hundred-year-old homes, preserved, changed, renovated, un-
renovated, warm with generations of living . . . beautiful,
rambling homes on beautiful,
rambling streets . . . mansions
still standing . . . mansions that once stood . . .

Mostly, the homes are medium-sized now, even the Very Expensive, (and let us be honest: There are many Very Expensive homes in Grosse
Pointe), dwellings are compact,
exquisite in detail rather than
in size.

Business Notes

A new advertising agency has been announced in Detroit. The new organization, to be known as Behr, Otto, Abbs and Austin, Inc., is the successor to two long-established agencies,
Karl G. Behr Advertising Agency,
Inc. and Otto and Abbs Inc., and will begin operations January 4, 1965.

Karl C. Behr, of Beacon Hill, will be chairman of the new Behr, Otto, Abbs and Austin, Inc. Rudrick R. Otto will be president, Jerome K. Abbs, of Cadieux road, senior vice-president; W. F. (Speed) Austin, of St. Paul avenue, executive vice-president. The new agency's offices will be in the Guardian Building beginning January 4, 1965.

"We've been studying the possibility for this merger for months," Rudrick Otto, the new agency's President said.
"Our mutual purpose was to bring together two solidly established and successful agencies in order to get an over-all balance of youth and mature experience, of large agency and small agency backgrounds, of variety in depth in a wide experience of advertising, promotion and merchandising activity."

Lake St. Clair is a carillon at the carillon at the carillon at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, ringing out hymns on a Sunday morning. So is the swish swish of the Sacred Heart, and the yell of elementary school children at Grosse Pointe University School,
let out for Christmas vacation.

So is the click of high heels or the soft shuffle of "flats" as the ladies of Grosse Pointe go about their shopping, in "The Village," on "The Hill," along Mack avenue. So is the clatter of supermarket carts, so are the quick explosions of skeet shooting.

Concert music, dancing melodies, the voice of a "Speaker" as he addresses a group of ladies and gentlemen—the sounds of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center echo in the carol.

Little League cheers are mixed with the music. There is also the soft hum of a housewife, bent over her brushes and palette in some quiet corner of her house, and the half-suppressed whistling of a businessman, engrossed in his stamp collection.

These are the sounds of Grosse Pointe's Christmas carol, private sounds, personal sounds,
unimportant sounds . . .
Only the people of our community can, or will, understand them. They are our reasons for being happy in this place, at this happy time.

These are the sounds, this is The Pointe: All through the year, but especially at Christmas.

Youths Released After Quizzing

In last week's issue of the NEWS, it was reported that three youths were arrested driving a car taken from the Grosse Pointe Rambler, Inc., 18201
Mack avenue.

The boys were taken into custody at Mack and Cadieux by City Police Sgt. Douglas Allor, who had been flagged down by a witness and informed that three boys were seen in the car sales lot, near an automobile.

The officer checked the lot and found a 1962 model car running, and the door open.
The boys were seen entering a white car on Mack, by the witness, who told Sgt. Allor.
The policeman pursued the car and took the three boys into custody when they got out of the vehicle at Mack and Cad-ieux.

The boys, Jerry Dillon, 18, of 3815 Grayton, Detroit; Denny
Dillaway, 17, of 1239 Lake-pointe; and a 16-year-old youth, were taken to the station for investigation and questioning.

The three were released to officers of Detroit's Conner Station, Fifteenth Precinct, for further investigation, since this incident was in their jurisdiction.

According to the precinct detectives, who interrogated the trio, the boys said that they were hitchhiking. Dillon admitted entering the car in the lot, and turning on the motor, with a key that was in the ignition, and sitting there for a while.

The detectives said the boys refused to admit other than that. The boys said when a car came by to pick them up, they got into it. Dillon left the motor of the car in the lot running,
and the door open.

The Detroit officers said that all three were released without charge, when the car sales officials stated they would not sign a complaint.

Mothers' March Leaders Named

Four localities have been named chairmen of the Mothers'
March for the 1965 March of Dimes campaign which will be held January 26 throughout the Grosse Pointes. Announcement was made today by Wayne County General Chairman and ex-Tiger baseball great, Charles Gehringer.

The women are Mrs. Lawrence Smith, 843 Lorraine; Mrs.
Carrie Willis, 454 Cloverly road;
Mrs. Herbert Watts, 1005 Beaconfield; and Mrs. Sharon Klimechuk, 590 Lake Shore lane.

Mrs. Smith is now in her fifth year of service to the March of Dimes. She has two children.
Mrs. Willis has been a March of Dimes worker for 10 years. She and her husband, William, have one daughter, Mrs. Watts, president of the Delta Zeta Mothers' Club, is a three-year March of Dimes volunteer and has one daughter, Mrs. Klimechuk, mother of two, has been with the March of Dimes campaign for five years and is also active in hospital and mothers' club work.

The goal for the fund raising drive, which will be conducted during January, is $403,000.
The goal represents an increase of $60,000 over last year's total raised.

Birth defects kill and cripple more American children than any other human disorder. The March of Dimes is leading the fight against birth defects because it believes the people are ready to join in an all-out campaign against this tragic waste of human life.

Certain birth defects are perpetual epidemics since they are relentlessly transmitted from generation to generation. More than 250,000 birth defect babies are born each year, thousands of them doomed to a lifetime of mental or physical disability.

It is estimated that in Wayne County alone there are approximately 3,900 children born each year with a significant birth defect—or approximately 7 per cent of all live births. Of this number, approximately 310 will die as a result of birth defects.

The March of Dimes in the past six years has made important advances in the fight against birth defects. Through the 50 March of Dimes-financed centers and clinics across the country, including one in Ann Arbor, trained medical teams are providing the best medical care available for birth defect children and working to develop new techniques which will enable many more of them to live a useful life.

Scientists supported by March of Dimes grants are also at work in a great number of university laboratories, including the University of Michigan, in this country and abroad, seeking the causes of these fearful conditions and ways of preventing them.

It's the day before Christmas — the gifts are wrapped and the greeting
cards have been mailed.
The stores and salons are closing early — the tempo slows as we pause and take time to recall the Miracle of that first Christmas — and give thanks to God for the Light that has given hope
