A car driven by Walter F. Woodrow of 6150 Lodewyck, Detroit, was struck from behind by one driven by Frank Arthur Ransier of 18922 Roscommon, Harper Woods when Woodrow slowed down to make a left turn onto Hereford from Mack avenue. The mishap occurred on Thursday, February 18. No tickets were issued.

Shakespeare is the world's most widely read author, according to a survey recently conducted by the United Nations.

Helicopters on scheduled passenger runs carried a total of 2,370,000 people over 39,423,000 miles between 1954 and 1963.

and an auditorium, will be passed.

Husband said that when people asked him when was the second high school needed, he told them that it was needed last year. The proposed new high school will continue to uphold the quality of the Grosse Pointe education system, now known throughout the country, he said.

Councilman William Kessler, following a discussion of the endorsement and moral support, said that a discussion in the matter is not needed any more. Everyone is familiar with the proposed plans for a new high school, and the need for such a school is very apparent.

Need Self-Evident

Councilman William Oddy, mayor-pro-tem, who presided at the council meeting in the absence of Mayor Matthew Patterson, said that the need for this (school) is self evident. The ones to be reached, and whose help is needed, are the taxpayers whose children attend parochial schools, the people who pay tuition to educate their children in the schools of their choice, and who also pay taxes in support of public schools.

Pongracz disclosed that 20,000 brochures have been printed and will be mailed out to resident taxpayers, including "our parochial friends," who he is confident will support the bond issues for the school and auditorium.

He said that the bond issues for the proposed new school and the auditorium will be presented as separate propositions.

The Board of Education president said that Proposition One will authorize the borrowing of $7,600,000 to finance the construction and equipping of a new high school and to renovate and remodel the existing high school.

More Than Auditorium

Proposition Two, he said, will authorize the borrowing of $750,000, to finance the construction and equipping of an auditorium with facilities for classes in speech, radio and television, dramatics, vocal and instrumental music on the campus of the proposed new high school.

He said that the bond issues will add only 1.66 mills, or $1.66 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation. The bonds will be over a 30-year period, with the millage decreasing as the debt is lowered, it was said.

Mayor-Pro-tem Oddy said that as an individual and a resident of the Pointe, he heartily endorsed the bond issues, but he felt that it was not proper for the Park to officially endorse the matter.

However, the council agreed to study the matter further, and authorized City Manager Robert Stone to meet with the Board of Education officials, to discuss what is actually expected of the Park council, and to submit his findings and recommendations at the next council meeting on March 8. This was considered sufficient time before the March 22 election, it was said.

ly ajar. Mr. Howard closed the door and returned to bed.

When the family awoke later in the morning, Mrs. Howard discovered her black purse missing from atop the kitchen sink. The purse contained $36, she said.

Police disclosed that entry into the house was accomplished by the thief who twisted the door lock open with some kind of device.

Nothing appeared to be missing at the Booker residence, according to Mr. Booker.

He told police that when he got up in the morning, he went to the front porch to get his daily paper, and discovered that someone had jammed the door lock. He found pry marks on the door knob. It is believed that no entry was made into the house.

Mrs. Booker told police that she had heard a suspicious noise outside of the house at about 4 a.m. The police report did not elaborate.

The gas station owner called police at about 6:30 a.m., when he arrived to open for business and discovered that someone had entered the station by breaking a window pane in a rest room on the north side of the building, and reaching in and unlocking the window latch.

Less said that whoever entered the station took four rolls of quarters and an unknown amount of loose nickles, from a cigar box in a filing cabinet located in the front office. Nothing else appeared to be missing, he said.

that many more may submit their resignations, before too long, lured by offers made by a Detroit firm seeking plant protection guards with police experience. Some officers have already investigated the offer, and are debating whether or not to file applications for the positions.

The lure is a substantially higher starting annual pay than the maximum pay the officers are receiving now. Besides this, many fringe benefits are offered, including overtime pay, paid up hospitalization and life insurance, and a pension after so many years of service.

Church Juniors Set Discussions

An exciting new program is being planned for the Junior-Highers of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. It is a discussion series entitled "Unitarians In Action". The People Who Are Our Church and the Values They Try to Live By and Work With.

This is a series in which Unitarians from different walks of life will come and discuss with the Junior-Highers, their professions and the values which they believe are meaningful to them and to their lives.

These discussions will be held at 7 o'clock Sunday evenings in the homes of the Junior-Highers.

The program is as follows:
February 28—Federal Judge Wade H. McCree, Jr.—on problems of law and order and values needed, at the home of Steve Marston, 660 Middlesex.

March 14—Dr. Eli Rubin—on psychology as a profession and its role in society, at the home of Ken Sorenson, 984 Lincoln.

April 11—Mr. Andrew Brown—on labor unions and the place they have in our lives and the values they inculcate in our society and individual lives, at the home of Paul and Frank Calcaterra, 803 Lakepointe.

May 9—Mr. Jack Hamann—on management, the place of management in our lives and the values management inculcates in our society and individual lives at the home of George Mandich, 1636 Blairmoor court.

This series was planned by a committee of parents with the Junior-High advisor, Mrs. Gordon R. Sorenson as chairman.

Scaffold Pole Fells Worker

Anthony J. Simmons, 48, of 28314 Manhattan, St. Clair Shores, was knocked unconscious for several minutes on Tuesday, February 9, when a metal scaffold pole he was erecting, slipped and struck him on the head.

Simmons, who regained consciousness before a Woods police ambulance arrived, was conveyed to St. John Hospital by police, and held for observation. X-rays showed no serious injuries, and he was released.

According to information given to police, Simmons was putting up a scaffold against a new house under construction at 858 Woods lane, to work on the roof of the building. He leaned a pole against the house, and bent over to pick up other equipment.

The pole slipped alongside the building and struck Simmons on the head. Simmons was unconscious for about two minutes, or more, a co-worker, Robert Wagner, 38, of 3671 Woodhall, Detroit, said. Wagner called police for assistance.

Heads Chorus

RICHARD JOHNS has been named conductor of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus by its board of directors. He succeeds Dr. D. W. Simmons who conducted the chorus since 1957. The chorus was founded by Malcolm MacLean Johns in 1953.

Johns has directed church choirs and glee clubs for over 20 years.

Now living in Vernier circle, Mr. and Mrs. Johns came to Michigan from Massachusetts. They have two children.

Mr. Johns, a graduate of Boston University, studied violin for 13 years. Five of these were at the New England Conservatory of Music with Harrison Keller. He also played with the N.Y.A. Symphony under the direction of Arthur Fiedler. While at the Conservatory he studied voice with Mme. Marie Sundelius, a member of the Metropolitan Opera.

Mr. and Mrs. Johns have been members of the Board of Directors of the Community Chorus.

Pierce Slates Night of Plays

The annual spring dramatics' productions at Pierce school are being performed earlier than usual this year. The important evening is Friday, March 26, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The atmosphere of the theater is set by some members of the Pierce orchestra seated in the pit. They will play before the curtains open on the stage productions.

Dr. James Thomas Moore has selected "Jolly Coppersmith" by Peters as well as Strauss's "Vienna Life" for the following musicians: Lucy Agnone, Sue Aulsebrook, Christine Friedl, Linda Hoyt, Margrid McIntosh, Terry Pratt, Theresa Socia, Sue Ackerson, Karen Beutson, Martha Berger, Gail Gieseking, Emily Lindner, Linda Prins, Lynn Sheridan and Michael Waddell, all members of the violin selection.

Robert Howes and Johanne Kanney play viola while Martha Hutton and Diana Sieger handle the cello and Deborah Spry the bass. Christine Haddad will be seated at the piano.

Mr. John Mason is producing "Tommy in the Dark" by Joseph Carlton. This play has eighth and ninth graders among the cast members. Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger characterizations will be done by Mike Maun and Lynne Cooper. Tommy is being performed by Rick Anderman, Debbie Spry, Bridget Oliver, Pam Evans, John Miller, Doug Robbins, Bill Stedman and Tom Ludwig complete the cast. Kyle Kinsey and Heather Hogue will serve as prompters.

Donald Payton's favorite comedy "Life O' the Party" for seventh grade students is being directed by Mrs. Judith Gallo. This concerns the antics of the Maxwell family and the friends of the Maxwell's teenage children. Leigh Daniels and Pat Voigt are cast in the roles of the parents. The other members of the Maxwell family are: Wilbur, Dick McLaughlin; Betty Lou, Chris Snyder; and Connie, Chris Riddering. Their friends are being portrayed by Phyllis Gore, Penny Blank, Ann Hadden, Steve Falk, Ed Wells, Rick Chirnside and John Thomas.

Ray Phebus is stage manager and he is being assisted by Tom Fischer, Pat Haley and Douglas Prins. Props are being handled by Gale McNeff and Pam Hogue. Reed Wilson and Chuck Burgess are serving as prompters as well as understudies along with Gale McNeff. The art classes under Mr. Robert Rathbun's guidance are taking care of publicity.

The tickets are being sold at the school but will also be available at the box office before the Friday evening's performance.

Breakfast Club Holds Annual Meeting

At first glance the agenda for the 1964 annual meeting of the Farms Grill Breakfast Club looks like the typical sort—minutes, financial report, old business, new business, adjournment.

Another look, though, makes one wonder. Monkey business on the program of an annual meeting? Explanation of coma-raderie?

But why not? After all, the Breakfast Club is a group of local businessmen who have been meeting for several years each morning with the sole purpose of enjoying a pleasant breakfast.

Meeting Late, Naturally
Recently members gathered at the usual hour of 7:30 in the morning to hold their annual meeting and to make a special presentation to the chair man of the board, Hugh Delfs.

The 1964 annual meeting was held in 1965, naturally, because so many members were out of town in December. The gift to Mr. Delfs was a portrait of the chairman of the board which the members hope to keep in a prominent spot at their meeting place so they may still view his "incomparable countenance" during his absences.

Minutes of the 1963 annual meeting, which were read at yesterday's gathering, reveal the serious and dedicated approach the members take in their efforts to enjoy breakfast.

Reject Whiskey Plea
The club soundly rejected a motion to flavor its coffee with Irish whiskey and one to revamp the lighting in grill, at an estimated cost of $27,500, in order that a closer inspection of the food could be made.

Ray Snay of the Farms Fire Department suggested that the breakfast club's hours be revised so that the daily work schedule at the department not be interrupted. The membership felt, however, that the Fire Department should change its hours instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Ruel, owners of the Farms Grill, moved that the breakfast clubbers not request eggs scrambled so light that they have to be consumed with a straw. They pointed out that there was no compensation in their charges.

for straws for this use. The motion was approved.

Financial Report Simple
Chairman Mel Duffy in his financial report for 1964 said the club's balance sheet "indicates we have no assets, no liabilities and no cash on hand." He also pointed out that his statement had been prepared from memory and had not been examined by independent public accountants.

Under the chairmanship of Bob Cunningham, the Forward Planning committee reported that it had "spent considerable time during the past year making future plans." But due to all sorts of things, like business, vacations, lack of interest and other unusual circumstances, nothing had materialized. The report, however, ended on an optimistic note by saying, "We certainly hope to be more productive during 1965."

In addition to Mr. Delfs, Mr. Snay, Mr. Duffy, Mr. Cunningham and the Ruels, the roster of members include: Al Baumann, Carl Fromm, Ralph Disser, Clarence Tibbitt, Chuck Herrick, Bob Koebel, Mary Yeager, Bill Ludwig, and Mary Hult, waitress.

The only requirements for membership in this distinctive and distinguished club is the consuming desire to eat breakfast—and a wife who prefers not to fix it for you.

Once again many Long Distance rates are reduced

Low Evening Rates now apply to daytime calls on Saturday. Low Night Rates now in effect anytime on Sunday and one hour earlier on other nights.

Here's what it now costs you to make a 3-minute station call from Michigan:

	To Anywhere in Continental U.S. (except Alaska)	To Anywhere in Michigan
Mon.-Fri. 4:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. (Day Rates)	$2.10 or less	$1.00 or less
Saturday 4:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mon.-Fri. 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. (Evening Rates)	$1.40 or less	$ .70 or less
Sunday anytime Mon.-Sat. 8 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. (Night Rates)	$1.00 or less	$ .50 or less

The above rates apply only to station calls. They do not include the 10% Federal excise tax which applies to all calls, or the 4% State sales tax which applies only to calls within Michigan. Rates for "collect" station calls between points in Michigan are somewhat higher.

Comptroller

FREDERICK G. HORNFISHER, JR., chosen from a field of 19 applicants, was named the new Woods City Controller, and will assume this office on Monday, March 1. The appointment was approved by the Woods council.

The city has been without a comptroller since Russell Macneely resigned last October to become city manager of Harper Woods.

The new city official, who presently lives in Birmingham, leaves a job as finance director and treasurer of the City of Inkster. He is a former Woods resident and is the brother of Mrs. Gerald Schroeder of the Shores. He is married and the father of a teenage daughter.

Safety Chief

THOMAS R. COCHILL, 50, who retired as Chief of Detectives of the Detroit Police Department, became the Pointe's newest police chief on February 1, succeeding Fred Duemling, who retired after more than 40 years of service with the department.

Cochill also assumes the post of fire chief of the Village's integrated police and fire department. A third generation Detroit, the new chief spent more than 27 years with the Detroit department, 20 years of which were with the Detective Bureau. He retired from Detroit about the middle of January. He and his family will move to the Shores in the near future.

with the wingless Kiwi bird and felt awe at the sight of Rotorua, the thermal area and the Norwegian-like fiords.

Kathy's pictures cover formal occasions such as tea with Ambassador Powell, and dramatic shots of glaciers melting into tropical forests.

Student to Tell Of New Zealand

Grosse Pointers are invited to see New Zealand through the eyes of Grosse Pointe High School exchange student Kathy Jens, who spent the complete year of 1964 there as a representative of the American Field Service Exchange program. She will bring her color slides and tell of her experiences Sunday evening, March 7, at 8 o'clock in Fries Auditorium.

Kathy first spent time with a Chinese family, friends of her parents, in San Francisco. Then Kathy, who had been selected from many applicants on the basis of essays and interviews, winged her way to New Zealand with a colorful stop in Fiji.

In New Zealand she was a guest of Christ Church Girls School, which she attended. She stayed with two families who had been selected because of their similarity to her own family and because they had young people of Kathy's age. Her first foster parents had to move unexpectedly.

Kathy got to know New Zealand well. On week-ends and school vacations she covered the interest places of both islands. She went on bicycle tours, camping and sailing trips. She visited the beaches, studied the glaciers, and became acquainted with the Maoris. She visited the sheep farms and watched the shearing. She skied on the glaciers of Mount Cook. She fell in love

Takes New Look At New Babies

Businessmen who welcome every new baby as a new customer need to revise their economics, according to John B. Fansler, Minneapolis executive and national Planned Parenthood board member.

Fansler discussed industry's stake in family planning before a group of businessmen from Wayne and Oakland counties Friday, February 19, at Carl's Chop House. Emory M. Ford and members of the Planned Parenthood League hosted the luncheon.

"The baby boom may not mean a boom in our economy," Fansler declared. "Beyond a certain point," he stated, "that isn't so. For the first 16 or 25 years an addition to our population is not a customer. He is a consumer and it costs you and me about $1,100 per year to provide him with the basic services he needs. He then becomes a customer only if he can find a productive place in our economy."

Already, he said, 15 percent of the teenage labor force entering the labor market can find no work. With automation eliminating over one million unskilled jobs a year and an uncontrolled population explosion that figure is bound to go up.

Even though government officials throughout the country are beginning to recognize what Planned Parenthood has maintained for 40 years—that birth control is an essential part of any public health program, Fansler stressed that public agency clinics would serve only the medically indigent, leaving a whole area of the population still to be helped by Planned Parenthood centers.

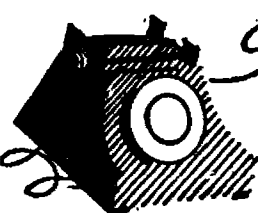

Mr. Fansler was introduced by Mr. Ford, Detroit Planned Parenthood League's new chairman, Robert H. Kanzler, presided at the luncheon.

Hudson Mead reviewed needs

Flower Show At Cobo Hall

The place to get a breath of spring is Cobo Hall. Detroiters and visitors from outside the city — a half million of them, according to estimates — will visit the 1965 Home and Flower Show at Detroit's $56-million Cobo Hall before it closes February 28.

There are full-size gardens in bloom, and smaller spots of greenery and color in the cut-flower section and in the areas where florists, growers, organizations like the Florists Telegraph Delivery, landscaping companies, the Michigan Horticultural Society and the Department of Parks and Recreation are putting forth their best efforts to chase winter clear out of Detroit for the duration of the big and colorful exhibition of a million flowers.

While stress this year is definitely on flowers and gardening, there is much for the non-gardener to see and do at Cobo Hall. One thing that attracts those who are good at arithmetic is the nail-estimating contest which will determine the winner of the $20,000 Ideal Home or that much money toward its purchase if the good estimator prefers the cash. Each show ticket entitles the holder to one estimate on the number of nails in the plastic model, which is on display in Cobo Hall.

Some 300 booths are at this show, the greatest number of exhibitors of things for the home ever displayed in Detroit.

Taxi operators in Paris must know how to read, write and add, under the provisions of legislation recently enacted in that city.

They Furnish Special Services

Staff replacements during the 1964-1965 year in the Department of Pupil Personnel of The Grosse Pointe Public School System are highlighted this week. Dr. Paul E. Mawhinney, who directs the special education services through the department, expressed pleasure over the newcomers to his staff.

Speaking of the school nurses, he said, "Mrs. Dorothy Wendt replaced the High School nurse, Miss Viola Elson, who resigned last spring because of illness. Mrs. Wendt brings considerable experience in both public health nursing and private practice. Service at the High School has also been strengthened by the addition of Mrs. Dorothy Albright, who works half-days. Mrs. Albright is very able and experienced."

"Mrs. Dorothy Kelly, who retired last June, was replaced by Mrs. Becky Sheridan, a bright young nurse. She comes highly recommended," Dr. Mawhinney said.

Of the two new speech correctionists, who replaced Mrs. Verna Hart and Miss Mary Ann Karp, Dr. Mawhinney concluded, "Although regretful over the resignation of these two experienced and serious staffers, we were fortunate in attracting a promising young man, Rodger Yeck, and an alert young woman, Mrs. Patricia Templeton."

Mrs. Templeton, speech correctionist who serves Monteth and Barnes, is a native of Warren, Ohio. She holds a BA from the University of Miami, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta, as well as Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Prior assignments in the field of speech correction have taken her to Youngstown, Ohio, and Dearborn, Mich. Golf and reading occupy part of her off-duty hours.

Mrs. Wendt spent her early life in Wisconsin and completed the requirements for her R.N. at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. She attended Marquette University in Milwaukee for additional training.

The Wendts, residents of Hampton road in Grosse Pointe Woods, are the parents of Susan, 15, and Cathy, 12. Mrs. Wendt manages time for bridge, oil painting, knitting, and copper-enameling.

Mr. Yeck, speech correctionist at Mason and Maire, attended Ferris Institute and received his degree from Central Michigan University. His hobbies include skindiving, bridge and journalism. A veteran, Mr. Yeck served in the Army in Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Yeck make their home in Detroit.

Mrs. Sheridan, whose assignment as nurse embraces Pierce, Deier and Trombly, spent her early years in Ohio, and received her degree from Capital University. She is a member of Kappa Sigma Theta.

Camera Club Meets March 2

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will hold its next meeting in the Fries Ballroom at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, on Tuesday, March 2, at 8 p.m.

This is a competition meeting at which each member may submit three slides and three prints—monochrome or color—two of each to be analyzed.

During the intermission, M. G. Whittingham will give a short demonstration talk on "The Use of Strobe Lighting in Close-up Photography."

Visitors are always welcome.

Knitting and bicycle hiking. In addition, Mrs. Sheridan is a member of the Mt. Zion Lutheran Church. Travel, another interest, has taken her to Europe.

Mrs. Albright has resided mainly in the metropolitan area. A native of Detroit, she attended high school in Utica, then completed her professional training at Wayne State University. Her wide range of experience includes a post as campus nurse at Bob Jones University, a stint at Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing, and service on the staff of the Wayne County Health Department.

The Albrights, who live in East Detroit, are the parents of Tracy, 15, Jacqueline, 12, and Harry, 9. Aside from her family responsibilities, Mrs. Albright finds time to pursue her interests in music, medieval history, and reading. In addition, she teaches a girls' class in Sunday School.

St. James Sets Lenten Services

With the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday, March 3, St. James Lutheran Church will hold Lenten services for spiritual enrichment using the theme, "The Abundant Life." The weekly subjects, including Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, will cover confession, repentance, acceptance, faith, charity, suffering, communion and heaven.

Pastor George E. Kurz announces that the Lenten Vespers this year will begin at 7:30 p.m., instead of the customary 7:45 p.m. of previous years, thus enabling and encouraging parents to bring their children.

Another innovation this Lenten season is the celebration of the Lord's Supper at the first vesper service on Ash Wednesday.

Blue Devil Tankers Beat Wyandotte in Home Meet

By Ric Hendee

A skinny, wide-eyed Wyandotte tanker looked out from amid a Devil locker room victory party last Friday and murmured, "Boy, you guys have really got the spirit."

He waited until the keyed-up Grosse Pointe boys finished another set of cheers before adding, "It's fun to win, isn't it?" Then he, whose fate had been to have a locker smack-dab in the middle of the other team's celebration, buttoned his shirt, grabbed his tank suit, and moved to a position where he could view the wet towel baseball game in safety. (His locker was situated near third base.)

This was the Grosse Pointe locker room after the Blue Devils' last home swimming meet... a 73-32 trouncing of the Wyandotte Bears.

A week before Monroe had broken a seven-meet winning streak and, since then, things had been different around the Grosse Pointe pool. Coach Robert Kinnear was conditioning a new way, the attitudes were different and, on Friday, even the line-up was something changed.

Captains Named

Before the first relay set the season's official captains, as elected by their teammates, were announced: Sandy MacDonald '65 and Tom Mertz '65.

Then the first relay set Jim Shirilla, MacDonald, Dale DeMeulemeester and Herm Bliss to the blocks. Six weeks before, the Bear medley relay zipped out an easy victory against the Devils but this time it wasn't quite so simple. Wyandotte's state champion breast stroker, Larry Sprunk gave his teammates the edge but Bliss sprinted home with a 1:24.2 clocking for Grosse Pointe, the winner by one-tenth of a second.

Next Mertz and senior Ted Pratt, swimming his last race in the Devil pool, churned out a slam in the 10-length 200-yd. 4 freestyle. So far a perfect meet for the Devils.

John Rentenbach '66, usually the Grosse Pointe relay boy, joined Craig Dever '65 in the 60-yard freestyle. Dever tied his varsity record of 28.7 in winning the event and Rentenbach staged a last second spurt in his bid for 2nd place but lost in a touch-out.

As if a 22-8 lead after only three events wasn't enough, Grosse Pointe dug in deeper with slams in the next two events. John Swegles and Charlie Russell, both '66, smashed the Individual Medley, then Dick Green '65 and Mark Gibson '66 showed what a new diving board (borrowed from the City Park and installed last week) can do and placed one-two in the diving.

Loop Sets Date For Registering

By Bill Stuck

Grosse Pointe Babe Ruth Baseball Inc. president Minard Mumaw announced the following information concerning Babe Ruth registration for the coming season. The League, comprising the Farms-City-Park boys now 13 to 15, announces that registration will be held at the High School Tuesday, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. A program to get the boys and their fathers attending, into the "baseball spirit" will include two excellent films, on the 1964 World Series and "The Tiger Wins His Stripes."

Boys who were 13 and 14 AND played last year NEED NOT bring their birth certificates as the League Secretary, Carl Cumberly now has a record of the required information. NEW 13 year olds and those new in the area or who have not previously played MUST BRING THEIR BIRTH CERTIFICATE for registration purposes. Unfortunately, according to National Babe Ruth Rules, church certificates, etc. are not satisfactory.

As mentioned in an earlier article, registration this year will also include a payment of a fee at the time of registration of $10. per family.

President Mumaw also announced that plans are being formalized for a true clinic outdoors in mid-May for all coaches, managers and players on some of the basics of baseball. The clinic will be conducted on the High School grounds. Further details will be announced later.

Little Leaguers Must Register

The board of directors of Grosse Pointe Farms Baseball, Inc. have set the dates of Monday, March 1 and Tuesday, March 2, for registration for the 1965 Little League Baseball Season.

All boys who were born on or between the dates of August 1, 1952 and September 31, 1956 are eligible to play in this program. Registration forms for all boys will be available at the school they attend.

All boys interested in playing, together with one parent, should be at Brownell Junior High School between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. on this days.

This baseball program is for the boys. They are given the chance to learn and play baseball, participate in team effort, engage in a healthy outdoor activity and develop their qualities of leadership, sportsmanship and citizenship.

Remember—Registration at Brownell Junior High School from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on March 1 and 2.

Anyone wishing additional information may call Bob Goffredson at 881-4131 or Art Wittstock at 882-7222.

George E. Wilson, Jr. Takes Basic Training

Seaman Recruit George E. Wilson Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilson of 463 Calvin, began nine weeks of basic training December 31, at the Recruit Training Center, Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

During his early days of training he will receive a series of aptitude examinations to determine which of the Navy's 65 specialty fields he will enter on completion of recruit training.

Physical fitness training, drill, naval customs and courtesies, water survival, first aid, personal hygiene, marlin-spike seamanship and general naval orientation will highlight the first three weeks of his transition from civilian to military life.

The large-scale instruction program at Recruit Training Command features both live instructors and closed circuit television.

University School Notes

Representing Grosse Pointe University School at the annual conference of the National Association of Independent Schools at Chicago on the week-end of March 5 will be the following faculty members: David Arner, Jean Diekoff, Elizabeth Ferguson, William Hindle, Principal Gilder Jackson, Clare Lockhart, Robert Page, Headmaster Hugh Riddleberger, Henry Stone, Kathryn Trim, Richard Trim, and Robert Caillancourt all from the Upper School and Anne Aaron, William Harris, Clara Kimber, and Principal Bertram P. Shover all from the Lower School. Mr. Hindle is president of the Independent School Association from the Detroit area.

Miss Ferguson is a member of the N.A.I.S. Latin committee. Mr. Page and Mr. Vaillancourt will be members of panels at the conference.

This is the first time that this annual get-together of the representatives of private schools has been held in Chicago. The conference has been held for years in New York. The move to Chicago indicates, of course, the increasing number of independent schools in the central and western parts of the United States. (The National Association of Independent Schools incidentally, is the organization of which Wellington Grimes, formerly Upper School principal at G.P.U.S., is an executive secretary.)

Indians Showed White Men How to Fish Through Ice

When Michigan's lakes and rivers freeze over and the ice becomes thick enough to hold the weight of a man, an increasing band of hardy fishermen follow an example set by area Indian tribes many years ago, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

The Indians were motivated by the need to survive during the winter months. Most of them hacked a hole in the ice to spear their dinner but there were those who used handlines much as today's fishermen.

From these, the Indians developed the first crude tip-ups, a device which allowed one person to tend several fishing holes at the same time and relieved the tedium of long, unproductive waits in sub-freezing temperatures.

The tip-up is essentially two crossed sticks resting above the fishing hole with one acting as a balance or axis. The fishline is attached to one end of the other stick and a signal device such as a small flag is fastened on the other end.

When the fish strikes, the axis stick turns, popping the signal device into the air and the fisherman scrambles to set his hook.

Tip-ups have become much more sophisticated over the years and many fishermen now use bells, lights, underwater reels and other gadgets designed to improve efficiency.

The Tourist Council points out that the rules for ice fishing are simple and it is up to the fisherman how much comfort he wants.

There are as many ice fishing rigs as there are fishermen, but one thing that all agree on is the need for warm clothing.

Arctic research conducted by the U. S. Defense Department has produced a wide variety of lightweight, wind-resistant, insulated clothing, boots and other cold-fighting devices. With this equipment the fisherman can brave zero temperatures in relative comfort.

Windbreaks are handy, too, as an added protection against the frigid breezes that sweep the stretches of frozen lakes. These may be either a single or multiple wall or a small, enclosed portable structure known familiarly and fondly as a fishing shanty.

This is home for the winter fisherman and, depending on his budget can be outfitted as elaborately as he may want.

Portable heaters or stoves, with the bases off the ice, provide home-like warmth that makes for pleasant fishing.

Most shanties are about five feet square and about six feet high. A half-floor is constructed which supports the fisherman, keeping his feet off the ice, and the opening in the floor is placed over the hole through which he can fish or spear.

For cutting through the ice, spuds, awls, chisels and axes are still used, but this process is time consuming especially when the ice is thick. Hand operated augers have reduced the cutting time, but now the quickest method of getting to clear water is with a powered ice drill. With such a machine a 24-inch hole can be drilled in a few seconds.

Even though a potential ice fisherman may not own the proper gear, it costs relatively little for a trial. Many boat liveries on popular ice fishing lakes maintain shanties and the necessary equipment may be rented. Ice drilling service is also available.

Winter fishermen coming to Michigan have a wide variety of fishing sites from which to choose. More than 11,000 inland lakes as well as over 3,000 miles of Great Lakes off-shore sites offer great winter sport.

The current Michigan Fish Law Digest includes information for ice fishermen and is available free of charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, Michigan.

Pierce Students Win Art Awards

Fifteen students from Pierce Junior High School have won 17 awards in the Scholastic Art Exhibition which opened recently at Crowley's.

Two of the students won the top awards in this regional contest for all of southeastern Michigan and their work will be sent to the national contest in New York in May.

Pam Ryde won the gold key and blue ribbon in the jewelry category, and Clyde Thomson won the gold key and blue ribbon for sculpture.

One additional gold key award was given to Richard Probert for a drawing in mixed media.

Certificates were awarded to the following: Patricia Defever and Barbara Fetter in chalk and charcoal drawing; Laura Pott-hoff in mixed media; Patty Domzalski, Michelle Vandresche, and Patricia Voigt in block printing; Betty Belanger in jewelry; James Horvath and Heather Hogue in photography; and Ed Smith in sculpture.

Two boys won two certificates each: Don Vertregt in sculpture and Ronald Mann in jewelry.

The art teachers at Pierce at Robert Rathbun and Charles Jorgensen.

The exhibit in Crowley's seventh floor auditorium will end on March 6. The quality of work in this show, representing the work submitted by 122 junior and senior high schools, is truly impressive and would be well worth a visit by anyone.

Hockey League Closes Season

After a short season beset with cancellations and lack of skating, the Pee Wee Hockey League season came to a close last week.

The Bruins-Leafs, coached by Randy Sides, ended up as the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association champs with a league record of three wins, one loss and one tie.

Mike Kelly, center of the Bruins, was the leading scorer and was ably assisted by Skip Lauth and the defensive work of Rick Jahn.

Unfortunately the entire Christmas holiday was lost because of long thaws and frequent rain storms, which points out the desperate need for an artificial ice rink in Grosse Pointe. It would be used not only for the 100-odd hockey players but by the many people who just enjoy skating.

The fine cooperation of the Neighborhood Club and the City of Grosse Pointe was appreciated by the G.P.H.A. Without their help there would have been no skating at all.

Let's all hope for better weather next winter!

No Excuses, Please

With the special school election scheduled for March 22, just three weeks from next Monday, it would seem appropriate to suggest that if there are any qualified voters who are not thoroughly familiar with the issues at stake... time's awasting. There can be no excuse for anyone pleading ignorance of the aspects of the proposals being put before the electors.

Since the Board of Education announced, many months ago, that a second high school was urgently needed in the district, the publicity has been unceasing and voluminous. Never before has a group of public officials made such a determined effort to acquaint the electorate with every facet of the arguments, both pro and con. For a long time members of the School Board, administrative officers and others have been appearing before organizations and attending all kinds of meetings, telling their story and answering all questions raised. Many more appearances are slated before Election Day and the Board of Education has announced that if any group wishes more information or a speaker on the subject of the March 22 referendum, this can be easily arranged by a call to Extension 56 at TUXedo 5-2000, the school's administration building.

It is a fairly common thing in elections such as this, for opposition groups to wait until the last minute before the polls open, to come forth with obscure and misleading objections in an attempt to throw a monkey wrench into the proceedings. Sometimes these efforts create enough confusion to bring about rejection of very necessary and worthwhile proposed projects. It is to be hoped that no such sneak attacks will be launched on the eve of this balloting. It would appear that most of the opposition to the proposals has been stilled through the united efforts of the school officials to conscientiously furnish answers to every question raised. If there are those who have unvoiced or unanswered objections, it would be most unfair to the community and especially to the students our school system serves, to keep them hidden until it was too late for an answer to be provided.

More than 20,000 brochures have been printed and distributed, containing facts, figures, questions and answers on this school bond election. There can be no excuse other than laziness or stupidity for being insufficiently informed. We hope every qualified elector gets to the polls on March 22, and we wholeheartedly urge support for these proposals which would solve the problems which threaten to lower the standards of the school system we have so jealously guarded through the years, and of which we have been so justly proud.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

If there were one conclusion that I could draw from my 25 years of association with the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, first as a teacher and then for eleven years as a member of the Board of Education, it is the thoroughness with which the administration analyzes its needs and plans any possible expansion.

For the present Board of Education to conclude that Grosse Pointe needs a second high school and to ask for the support of the community in the election to be held on March 22, means that many long months of study have gone into the recommendation, and that the Board believes strongly that it is in the best interests of our boys and girls, and indirectly those of us who are property owners in the community, that approval be granted to the request.

Grosse Pointe's national recognition as one of the very finest school systems in the country did not just happen. It is the result of many decades of similar study and action on the part of many school administrations and the cooperation of several generations of citizens.

I have studied the proposal on which we vote in March, and discussed the alternatives with the members of the present Board. I join them in urging approval of the proposition, so that we can continue to offer the finest possible educational facilities and program to our children.

Sincerely yours,
Chet Sampson

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

This is American History Month; also, February is filled to the brim with birthdays of illustrious men and women. Two which are particularly outstanding are those of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. And so our two display areas at the Central Library, in honoring these men, are able to present the feeling of American history with emphasis on a pair of its famous leaders.

One of our show cases has a very tasteful and colorful arrangement by the Daughters of the American Revolution, Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, much of it from the collection of Mrs. Glenn Curtis. Here we find specimens of Confederate currency, two fine portraits of Lincoln and Washington, flags of the period, and pictures relating to colonial life in America. We are grateful to this Chapter for the loan of these items during the month of February.

As you enter our Library from the parking lot, you will see on your left two other reminders of our nation's history. One, consists of book jackets relating to the Civil War, reminding you of the number of volumes in all three of our Libraries, covering this exciting and important period of our history. The other exhibit case is filled with a large picture of Abraham Lincoln, as well as a drum, cap, gun, flags and other accoutrements of the period, all on loan to us from Dr. Paul Mahoney, Director of the Department of Pupil Personnel.

To round out our observance of American History month, each of our Branches has a tasteful display of material pertinent to this subject, and entitled "Our American Heritage."

In these days of cold war, atomic might and fear, it is indeed well to underline in some small way our country's struggles, wars and leaders. With personal and national freedom threatened, it is expedient to spell out the perils and triumphs of our past. We have a heritage of which we can be proud.

We are a bit late in the month in mentioning this field of American History, but it is a subject to be considered, not only during February, but during the other eleven months of the year as well.

Another topic of interest this week is the fast-growing collection of tapes in our Library. One interesting group is the Grosse Pointe War Memorial lecture series at the William Fries Auditorium. The first year, this was known as the Inaugural series; last year it was called: Politics, 1964. This year it was a Forum concerning professional football.

Another facet of this collection consists of taped presentations of Mr. Robert M. Orr's book reviews: "Books America is Reading — and Why." If you had the misfortune of not attending these reviews (and this year is the twelfth class since 1959!), you may still have the opportunity of hearing some of those from last year and all of this year on tape. These are chosen, for the most part, from current best sellers, both fiction and non-fiction.

With the Lenten season fast approaching, it is fitting that we should once again remind you that we have tapes of Sacred Music, as well as the Lenten Lecture Series, 1960, which consists of sermons delivered by local ministers, Marcus Johnson, Bertram de Heus Atwood, William Hammond, Msgr. Frank J. McPhillips, Erville Maynard, Hugh C. White and Charles W. Sandrock.

In an effort to give some service to the blind as well as to our other patrons, we are currently adding a new type of attraction — book records (16 RPM). A partial listing of these new titles, and authors, will give you some idea of the sort of thing we mean.

We can offer W. R. Anderson's NAUTILUS 90 NORTH, THE GREAT GATSBY by F. Scott Fitzgerald, A MAN CALLED PETER by Catherine Marshall, AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS by Jules Verne, or H. G. Wells' THE TIME MACHINE and THE WAR OF THE WORLDS. Or perhaps you would prefer Stephen Crane's THE RED BADGE OF COURAGE, Charles Dickens' A TALE OF TWO CITIES and LOST HORIZON by James Hilton, or Edgar Allan Poe's TALES OF TERROR. For a change of pace, you might even enjoy an EVENING WITH DOROTHY PARKER. Just think, now the busy housewife can wash dishes, do the ironing, or clean the family silver, and have a talking book running at the same time! And I'm sure you can think of other situations where two birds can be killed with one stone.

We hope you will come in and look at our history exhibits, take out our tapes (there is no charge for the latter!) and widen your cultural and intellectual horizons. A library is certainly one place that this can be done — and easily.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

A shining, fresh Lochmoor Club will welcome members again Saturday, after its traditional clean-up, paint-up, spruce-up month hiatus.

To celebrate The New Season, the club has planned an informal dinner dance the following Saturday, March 6.

Guests will gather in a tropical setting at "The Last Resort," an island of sun and fun in the sea of Michigan's cold winter.

Mood and attire will be informal as cocktails are served at 7:30 o'clock in the little grass shack. Dinner is scheduled at 8:30, and Jack Qualey's Orchestra will play dancing, relaxing music far into the balmy night.

Heading the party-planners' committee are the Bob Crawfords, assisted by the James Kearneys, Wilton Hendersons, Bill Sheas, Chuck Flemions and Harold Jenzens. Other committee members are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peters, the Carl Larsons, the Rupert Atkins and the Stanton Crawfords.

Reciprocal Agreement

While their club is closed, Lochmoor members traditionally are invited to use the facilities of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

GPYC closes during March for refurbishing, and Yacht Clubbers dine during this month overlooking Lochmoor's golf course instead of Lake St. Clair.

The reciprocal agreement has been in force for years. GPYC and Lochmoor members usually make a point of going out to "the other clubhouse" at least once during their club's vacation month.

Eastwood Gardens At GPYC

But before the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club shuts its doors this March, Eastwood Gardens will live again in the Grand Ballroom.

The "Gardens" party is a repeat, brought back by popular demand of the 313 "Pre-War Dancers" (pre-World War II, that is) who gathered last year to enjoy the music of The Big Bands.

Festivities begin at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow, with

Newlywed Browns Travel To Jamaica

Suzanne Buhl Mitchell Wears Grandmother's Heirloom Lace Veil; Reception at Grosse Pointe Club Follows Saturday Rites

Vacationing in Jamaica are Mr. and Mrs. Neil Towner Brown, who were married Saturday, at a 12:30 o'clock ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

The bride is the former Suzanne Buhl Mitchell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Mitchell, of Cloverly road.

Her husband, who has been making his home in St. Clair avenue, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman B. Brown, of Naples, Fla., and Harbor Beach, Mich.

For her marriage, the former Miss Mitchell chose an Empire gown of deep ivory peau de soie, styled with a jewel neckline and short sleeves, and a Chapel length train.

Her handsome heirloom lace veil was first worn by her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. L. D. Buhl. She carried an arrangement of stephanotis and small white orchids.

Her attendants wore long Empire frocks of Paris pink chiffon, with details of tiny pleated panels down their backs, and matching chiffon pill box hats. Their flowers were small bouquets of white carnations and ivy.

Anne Ford was maid of honor, and Mrs. R. Patrick Duffy served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Hurley Ryan, of Chicago, Ill., Sheila Smith, of Washington, D.C., Diana Brown, Mrs. John Widans and Denise Tracy.

Peter T. Brown served as his brother's best man. Ushering were John C. Moore, III, of New York, Lloyd A. Semple, John H. French, III, Michael Mitchell, Henry C. Cashen and Jeffery Hudson.

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Club followed the ceremony. Mrs. Mitchell wore a Princess line coat of Russian Jade brocade over an Empire dress of the same fabric, and matching accessories.

Mrs. Brown chose a pale blue linen suit, with cocoa colored accessories.

For traveling to the West Indies, the bride chose a Navy blue raw silk costume, with Navy blue accessories.

For Liberia on February 5. They will teach in elementary schools, replacing a group of Peace Corps Volunteers who completed their two-year assignments in December. Several of them will replace Liberian teachers to free them for further education.

The Volunteers trained for six weeks at San Francisco State College. After two weeks of home leave at Christmas, they spent four weeks training in the Virgin Islands.

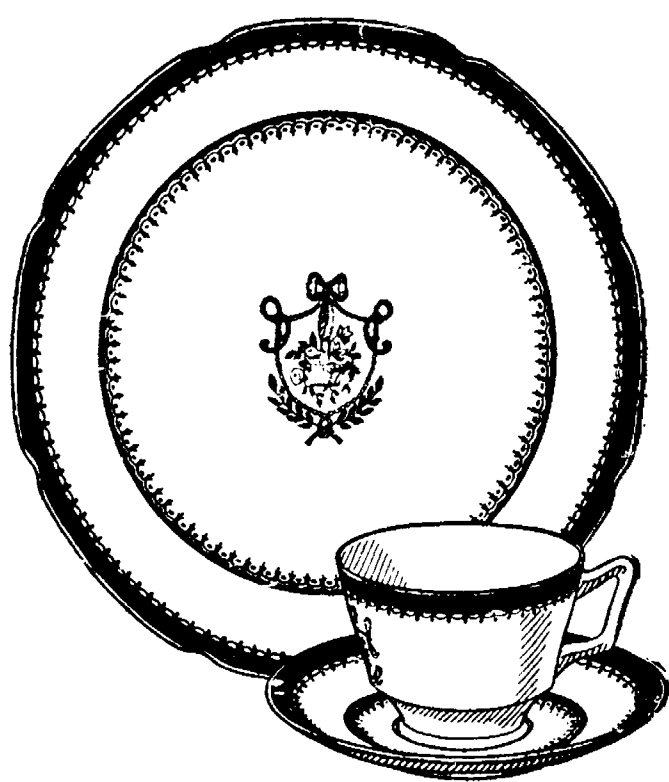

JOHN T. CALLAGHAN, son of MR. and MRS. JOHN F. CALLAGHAN, of Cranford lane, has been named to the Dean's List at Bellarmine College, a Catholic college of liberal arts and sciences in Louisville, Ky.

REV. JAMES NIXON, minister of the GROSSE POINTE Methodist Church, was among more than 60 Methodist ministers from all over Michigan who converged upon the Methodist Center adjacent to the Michigan State University on Wednesday, February 17, to participate in a three-day "Mission-to-the-Campus." Led by Michigan Area Bishop, Dwight E. Loder, the corps of Michigan clergymen interviewed hundreds of the some 5,000 Michigan State University students who are registered with a Methodist preference.

The Eta Chapter of the Chi Omega sorority of the University of Michigan has announced the pledge of JUDITH ANN ALTMAN and KATHLEEN JO KLICK, daughter of MR. and MRS. HARRY E. ALTMAN, of Broadstone road, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, presently enrolled as a freshman in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts at the U. of M. Kathy, daughter of MR. and MRS. ALBERT JAMES KLICK, of Fontana lane, is also a graduate of GPHS, presently enrolled as a freshman in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, and has recently been elected treasurer of her pledge class.

Visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. CAVANAGH, in St. Petersburg, Fla., is MRS. CLARK T. WELLS, of Handy road, who will be joined in the

Diane Long Speaks Vows To Mr. Perez

Newlyweds to Live in Mexico City; Bride Wears White Satin Gown and Coat, with Seed Pearl and Crystal Detailing

At a candlelight ceremony in her home January 30, Diane Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Earl Long, of Lothrop road, became the bride of Michael Perez.

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club followed the 6:30 o'clock ceremony.

For her marriage, the former Miss Long chose a white sheath gown with crystal beads and seed pearl detailing on the bottom of her skirt. Her full length satin coat featured sleeves encrusted with the crystals and seed pearls.

A flower circlet held her short, bouffant illusion veil, and she carried white baby roses.

Maid of honor Sandra Anton wore a floor length frock of soft pink and burgundy satin. Her flowers were pink baby roses.

Cathleen Carr, the bride's three-year-old cousin, came from Chicago, Ill., to act as flower girl.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Perez, of Dearborn, asked Robert Perez to serve as best man.

Mrs. Long wore a floor length gown of ashes of roses satin, with a crystal beaded jacket. Her flowers were pink orchids. Mrs. Perez wore a beige lace and taffeta frock, with a pink orchid corsage.

Donald Smith To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Raymond, of Pontiac, Mich., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Susan Elizabeth, to Donald Hugh Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hugh Smith, of Hampton road.

Miss Raymond is attending Alma College. Her fiancé, a graduate of Alma College, is teaching in the Leslie High School.

An August wedding is planned.

DYC Schedules Showboat Party

DYC members who are in the Detroit area will enjoy the atmosphere of New Orleans and the Showboat era in the transformed ballroom of their own beautiful clubhouse Saturday evening, February 27.

After dinner, they will walk through a realistic showboat into New Orleans. Nine-foot-tall streetlights will illuminate the wrought iron balconies and the cabaret style tables which will surround the dance floor area.

Entertainment will be continuous. The Tailgate Ramblers will provide real Dixieland style music. There will be dancing and juggling acts, and songs by the DYC Barbershoppers' Yachtsmen Chorus.

Dinner will start at 7 o'clock, and the ballroom fun will begin at 9. Because of the interest shown in the party, members have been asked to call in their reservations as soon as possible.

The entertainment committee is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lapham. Other members of the committee are the Tracy Dions, Paul Erickson, Harvey Gardner, Alex Mathieson, James Millars and Merle Van Normans.

SUSAN DAVIES, daughter of MR. and MRS. KARL DAVIES, of Ridge road, was recently initiated into Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority at Albion College. Susan, who is a member of the cabinet of the Albion Republican Club, was also elected state board representative for Albion College to the Michigan Federation of College Republicans, as well as a delegate to the annual convention of the Federation which will be held in Lansing on February 26 and 27.

Pointer Heads UF Campaigns

Mrs. Perry TeWalt, of Lincoln road, has been named 1965 Torch Drive co-chairman for Community Campaigns. Her appointment was the first official action of Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., drive general chairman.

Mrs. TeWalt, mother of two teen-age daughters, is the wife of an executive of the Automobile Manufacturers Association. She will head a force of 50,000 volunteers who will solicit homes and businesses on a geographical basis during the 17th annual Torch Drive which starts October 12.

Said Hudson: "It is fitting that Mrs. TeWalt's appointment as co-chairman is the first that we are announcing."

"Certainly, her position in the Torch Drive and the efforts of the thousands of women who will work with her are unequalled in importance."

The new co-chairman has been active in Torch Drive work for the past 10 years, starting as a solicitor in Grosse Pointe. For the past three years, she has been chairman of the Eastern Wayne Unit, which raised $445,792 last year.

In addition to her Torch Drive work, Mrs. TeWalt is member of the board of directors of Women for the United Foundation (WUF) and of the Advisory Board of the United Foundation. She is a director of Travelers Aid Society Organization, and a member of International Institute and the Salvation Army Auxiliary.

She has also served as a Red Cross Blood Bank volunteer and a Girl Scout leader.

Besides working with the Torch Drive and its agencies, Mrs. TeWalt is a past president of the Smith College Club of Detroit and a member of the Founders Society of the Arts Institute, the Seven College Scholarship Fund, Alliance Francaise, Detroit Artists' Market, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Board, the Parent-Teachers Association and the League of Women Voters.

"I am in Torch Drive work because I am most interested in our community," Mrs. TeWalt said, in accepting the co-chairmanship of the 1965 Torch Drive.

"I am sympathetic with its aims because of my experience with the agencies it supports and the many people it benefits."

She added that volunteer work, such as that offered by the Torch Drive and its agencies, is essential to an understanding of the community.

The first task before Mrs. TeWalt is the naming of chairmen for each of the six geographical units into which the tri-county area is divided. Then will come the recruiting and training of volunteers who will carry the story of the needs of the 204 Torch Drive agencies into every home and business place.

Ford-Austin Rites Revealed

Mrs. Maria Cristina Vettore Austin and Henry Ford, II, were married Friday evening in Washington, D.C.

The Honorable Milton S. Kronheim, Jr., Judge of the District of the Columbia Court of General Sessions, officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the Shoreham Hotel.

There was no reception. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ford left for a European vacation.

They will return to the United States late next month, to make their home in Lakeshore road.

Mrs. Henry Ford, II, formerly Maria Cristina Vettore Austin, was born in Vicenza, Italy, November 27, 1929. She attended primary and secondary schools in Milan where she has lived most of her life.

She is the daughter of Signore and Signora Edoardo G. Vettore. Mrs. Ford's father, a wounded veteran of service in the Italian Army in World War I, died during her childhood. Her mother, the former Lavina Ferron, is a resident of Milan.

Mrs. Ford has one sister, Dina Tanziani, who lives in Rome, and a brother, Giovanni Vettore, of Milan.

Mrs. Ford has been a British subject for 17 years. She was married to Robin W. M. Austin of Montreal, Canada, in 1947. They were divorced in Quebec in 1955.

An amateur sculptress, Mrs. Ford is interested in art.

Susan Duffy Feted Before Her Wedding

More Gatherings Planned This Summer, When Newlyweds Return from Their Home in Washington, D. C., to Visit Pointe

Pre-nuptial luncheons and parties have kept bride-elect Susan Duffy busy these past few weeks.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Duffy, Jr., of Handy road, will speak her marriage vows to Frank Stanton, II, this Saturday, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Her first fete was a lovely luncheon and linen shower, given by Mrs. Victor Breidenbach, Mrs. Victor Radcliffe and Mrs. John Cooley at Mrs. Breidenbach's home in Grand Marais boulevard.

Mrs. Henry Petri, Mrs. William Scott and Peggy Scott joined forces to honor Miss Duffy at a luncheon and personal shower in Mrs. Petri's Handy road home.

Co-hostesses at a Valentine tea and kitchen shower were Mrs. Donald C. Currier and Mrs. David Turner.

Mrs. Carl Mueller, of Berkshire road, also entertained the bride-elect, at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy and Susan journeyed to Painesville, O., home of the bridegroom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanton. The Stantons entertained at a cocktail party, to introduce their son's future bride and her family to friends.

Several other luncheons and parties have been postponed 'til summer, when Susan and her bridegroom plan to return to The Pointe for a visit from Washington, D. C., where they will make their home.

Menus were originally posted on walls of eating places, listed on animal skins, or written on slates. Menus, as we know them today in printed form, first appeared in 1835.

Feted Wedding

Annette Trombley Wed In St. Paul's

Mrs. Bruce H. Marone

Honor Miss Gibson At Pre-Nuptial Fetes

Daughter of Earl Trombleys Speaks Vows to Bruce H. Marone Saturday; Newlyweds Travel to Niagara Falls

Shows, Luncheons and Buffet Supper on Busy Agenda of Bride-Elect; Dr. and Mrs. Duncan Pirie to Entertain Saturday

Annette C. Trombley chose a Chantilly lace and peau de soie gown for her marriage Saturday, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, to Bruce H. Marone.

A cluster of peau de soie roses and lilies of the valley held her bouffant illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Trombley, of Kerby road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marone, of Roslyn road.

Maid of honor Margaret Dwainy and bridesmaids Janet Cross, Roberta Reno and Mrs. Martin Trombley wore floor length kelly green satin frocks. Their bouquets were fashioned of white and kelly-green-tinted carnations.

Richard Caloia served as the bridegroom's best man. In the usher corps were Terry Chapman, Jack Cairns, Thomas and Martin Trombley, brothers of the bride, and Brian Marone, the bridegroom's brother.

Flower girl Rene Trombley, the bride's niece, wore a gown similar to those of the adult attendants. Her brother, Michael T. Trombley, was ring bearer.

A reception at Allard House followed the ceremony. Mrs. Trombley greeted her guests, wearing a soft pink silk linen suit, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Marone chose a tourquoise crepe dress, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds traveled to Niagara Falls after the ceremony and reception.

The shift from farm to non-farm occupations is shown in a recent Census Bureau study. Among men whose fathers were farmers, 4 in 10 ages 55 to 64 were farmers, as compared with 2 in 10 young men 25 to 34.

The Bill Parrish Four, a band especially popular with the young crowd, will play. Tables will be placed around the dance floor in night club fashion and refreshments which are covered by the price of admission will be served from a buffet table.

Decorations are in the hands of Toni Trusdale of the University School. She had charge of decorating for their prom and turned the ballroom into a Grecian Garden on that occasion. Everyone is anxious to see what she will come up with for this event.

While this dance will not be formal or even dressy, it will not be so casual as the Casino nights. The party is open to any Grosse Pointers in grades 10 through 12 whether they are attending private, parochial or public school.

In St. Paul's on the Lakeshore Saturday, ANNETTE C. TROMBLEY became the bride of Mr. Marone. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Trombley, of Kerby road, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marone, of Roslyn road.

Discuss Role Of Institution

"The Changing Role of the Institution" was the topic discussed at the February 17 meeting of the Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children.

Speaker for the 8 o'clock meeting was Frederick J. Campbell, Community Relations Director of Lapeer State Home and Training School.

Mr. Campbell stated that whereas formerly many of the patients, who range in age from one to 81 years, were only mildly retarded, the majority now are severely handicapped, necessitating different approaches to education and care.

Progress is being made in fields of corrective surgery, recreation (which is the only physical energy outlet for most of these "children"), and the Out-Patient Department.

There are still many forward steps to be taken at Lapeer, where many buildings were constructed during the "gaslight era" of 1895.

The Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children holds open-to-the-public meetings each month at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Refreshments are served during the social hour.

Youth Council Having Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Youth Council is using the Center's Crystal Ballroom for their next Senior High and Prep Party on Saturday evening, February 27, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. This will be a couples only party—a type of event that hasn't occurred at the Memorial since the Christmas holidays.

St. Paul Ladies Meet March 1

The regular meeting of the St. Paul Altar Society will be held Monday, March 1, in the Parish house at 1:30 o'clock.

Missionary Sisters of Mary Immaculate from West Bengal, India, will present colored slides depicting the many facets of their work. They are engaged in the spiritual, moral, social and material welfare of women, girls and children among all classes of people.

Following the program, Mrs. John Clifford will be hostess for the tea hour. Assisting will be Mrs. Ralph Burke, Mrs. Harold Jarvis, Mrs. Edward Kleffuss, Mrs. Paul Truba and Mrs. John Verbiest.

Woman's Club Slates Sessions

The Bridge Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will meet on Wednesday, March 3, for luncheon at 12 o'clock and bridge at 12:30 in the dining room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. E. F. Wambold and Mrs. Clay Baldwin.

Albion Alumni Dinner Sunday

Albion College alumni will launch a campaign of the Detroit area on Sunday, February 28, in behalf of projects included in the institution's 10-year, $20 million "Action Program for Excellence." Approximately 500 Albion graduates responsible for conducting the drive will attend kick-off meetings, Sunday, in 10 different Detroit area locations.

A dinner meeting of Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods and Detroit Zone 24 alumni is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Sunday, at the Village Manor, 685 St. Clair. The session will be headed by area chairmen, Barbara D. Hyde, 746 Neff road; Frederic W. Steiner, 1931 Beaufait; and Thomas G. Walter, 14233 Promenade. Highlighting the program will be an Albion student presentation detailing the need for a new Student Center. Also participating will be a member of the institution's College Relations staff.

Plea Issued By Pilot Club

With the hope that metropolitan Detroit homemakers have old, worn white goods on hand after January White Sales, Pilot Club of Detroit is issuing a plea for materials for cancer pads.

Pilot, an international business women's service club, has contributed hundreds of hours in making cancer pads for use through Detroit societies.

The homes and business offices of Pilot Club members have been named as collection depots for white and pastel-tinted sheets and pillow cases.

Materials can be taken to Mrs. George Lang, 465 Kerby road, and Miss Martha Bachers, 1003 Maryland.

Anyone who has a sizable load and cannot make it to one of the collection points may call Mrs. Lang at 884-6688 to arrange for a pickup.

Children Are Invited To View Fairy Tale

Performances Scheduled at 1 and 3 o'clock this Saturday; Program Sponsored by Pointe Branch of AAUW

"Rumpelstiltskin" will be presented in play form this Saturday, February 27, at Pierce Junior High School Auditorium, by New York City's Traveling Playhouse.

Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women is bringing the professional troupe here to help raise monies for the AAUW Fellowship Fund, which gives financial aid to college women for post-graduate study and research, and to give children of the community an opportunity to see live professional theater.

There will be two performances of the play, at 1 and 3 o'clock. Mrs. David Howell, Children's Theater chairman, has announced that tickets are 75c.

Tickets can be purchased from AAUW representatives in the schools or from the following area merchants: Punch and Judy Toyland, Kercheval "on the Hill," Peter Pan, Inc., and Doubleday's Book Store, Kercheval "in the Village," and Harkness Pharmacy in Mack avenue.

Tickets will also be on sale at the door the day of the performance.

The Traveling Playhouse, an adult professional company performing especially for children, is now in its 16th year of touring throughout the eastern half of the United States.

A grant from the Rockefeller Foundation originally enabled the Playhouse to initiate its current program of presenting plays for children from five to 12 years of age.

This Saturday's production, "Rumpelstiltskin," will highlight the magic spinning wheel which produces gold. There will be songs and colorful costumes, all used to enhance the telling of this well-known fairy tale.

Birthday parties, cub scouts, brownies, nursery school and other groups are especially invited to attend one of the performances.

Owners of securities have tripled in the past 10 years. Currently one out of six adults owns some type of stock.

Verbal Preview Of 'Rumpelstiltskin'

ELLEN and DONALD DAVIS are enthralled as mother, MRS. M. LLOYD DAVIS, reads them Grimm's classic story, "Rumpelstiltskin." The children already have made plans to attend a performance of the famous fairy tale, to be presented by the Traveling Playhouse of New York City this Saturday, at 1 and 3 o'clock, in Pierce Junior High School Auditorium. The play is being sponsored

AAUW Includes Many Activities

Women interested in AAUW are asked to call membership chairman Mrs. Urban Boesch, 886-4692, for information. Women graduates of qualified colleges and universities are eligible for membership.

The AAUW is an 83-year-old organization which was formed to open the doors of education to women and to unite alumnae of different institutions for "practical educational work."

Its program enables members to continue their intellectual growth, furthers the advancement of women and helps members discharge their responsibility to society.

More than 300 women are members of the Grosse Pointe Branch, one of 1,500 branches in the 50 states. Internationally, AAUW is a member of the International Federation of University Women which unites associations in 52 countries.

The AAUW fosters international understanding, provides contacts with university women of many countries and provides opportunities for united action on common goals.

Nationally, AAUW develops a study-action program built around four basic areas of interest: community problems, cultural interests, education and world problems. The specific topics studied within these broad areas are selected because they reflect the increasing complexity of knowledge in today's changing world. They are timely, have importance to society and are worthy of the attention of educated women.

During the 1963-65 biennium the topics studied included "The American Family in a Changing World," "Bridging the Gap Between Science and the Layman," "Expectations for Education" and the "Occident and Orient."

In the 1965-67 biennium the topics will be "Education: An Antidote to Poverty," "Revolution in Modern China," "The Law and the Citizen" and "Science: A Creative Discipline." The Grosse Pointe Branch

Seeking Funds For Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra has kicked off its 1965 Maintenance Fund Campaign with a renewed pledge from the board of directors which contributed $115,000 in 1964.

Ralph T. McElvenny, general chairman of the campaign and president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., announced the goal for the drive, $650,000—the same as the amount received last year during the Symphony's golden anniversary.

McElvenny and his entire cabinet were reappointed to second terms in the same capacity as they served in 1964.

Others on the team are Wallace E. Wilson, vice-president, General Motors; William M. Day, president, Michigan Bell Telephone Co.; Raymond T. Perrin, chairman, Detroit Bank & Trust Co.; Edwin O. George, vice-president, Detroit Edison Co.; William A. Mayberry, chairman, Manufacturers National Bank; Mrs. C. Henry Buhl; Alan E. Schwartz, partner, Honigman, Miller, Schwartz and Cohn; Andrew W. Barr, senior partner, Price Waterhouse & Co.; Mark D. Littler, senior partner, Arthur Anderson & Co.; David L. Gamble, and David D. Williams, vice-president, National Bank of Detroit.

John B. Ford, chairman of the Symphony's board of directors, is honorary chairman of the drive and Robert B. Semple, president of Wyandotte Chemicals Corp. and of the orchestra, will serve as deputy chairman.

"We're proud of the people of Metropolitan Detroit area who have shown us through their generous giving that they feel the Symphony is a leading force in the cultural growth of our city," commented McElvenny.

"We expect to continue to build the orchestra and cement its financial base, but costs are constantly rising because of the expansion of the orchestra's services. We are hopeful these increased costs will be absorbed by continuation of a strong annual giving program, improved box office receipts and a full year's income from our Endowment Fund."

At last Thursday's meeting, Semple outlined the Symphony's chief goals.

They are: providing one of the world's leading symphony orchestras for the City of Detroit; expanding both winter and summer seasons as box office demands; supporting an exceptional summer festival at Oakland University's Meadowbrook series (expanded from four to six weeks in this its second year); improving and eventually expanding the popular Cabaret Concerts as support and time permits; and maintaining a program of sponsored free concerts in metropolitan areas during times of the year not devoted to other activities.

Included in the first phase of the campaign, according to McElvenny, will be a letter of solicitation to all previous givers, requesting they continue support at the same level as that of the golden anniversary season.

More than 2,000 individuals, corporations and foundations were Symphony contributors last year.

Funds to support the Fellowships Program come from members' donations and from the proceeds of special projects conducted by the branches.

To Be Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Jarrett, of Kerby road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, MARGARET ANN, to William S. Wiczorek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wiczorek, of Detroit.

Mr. Wiczorek is a graduate of Walsh Institute of Accounting.

A September 11 wedding is planned.

Gina Bachauer With Symphony

Pianist Gina Bachauer will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock on Thursday, February 25, and Saturday, February 27, at Ford Auditorium. Sixteen Ehrling will conduct.

TODAY'S TEEN GETS NEW HELP FOR ACNE

The 'on-the-go' teenager has a new ally in defeating the problems of Acne.

TASC — a new product on the drugists' shelves — will help the teenage group help themselves to rid their skin of the blotches and bumps caused by Acne. It's a simple program for a complex situation.

Acne — a common condition known professionally as Acne Vulgaris — responds readily to practical and conservative treatment.

Physicians specializing in skin problems emphasize 4 easy principals to follow: (1) Keep the skin reasonably clean and free of excess oiliness. (2) Rid the pores of plugs (blackheads). (3) Use appropriate agents to dry the fatty skin glands and remove dead skin. (4) Prevent recurrence.

All of the steps are available to the teenager in TASC. The booklet on Teen Age Skin Care in each package outlines a step by step program followed in the home.

TASC is a two-way program that multiplies itself to be effective in all 4 of the above mentioned principles. It's easy to clear your skin of unsightly blemishes — get TASC at your neighborhood drugstore and start today.

If you are suffering facial blemishes due to Acne, request a TASC instruction booklet from S. J. Tutag and Company, 19180 Mt. Elliot, Detroit, Michigan. 48234 — a manufacturers special discount coupon worth 25c on your first purchase of "TASC" will be included. Act now!

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Holt, of Miami, Fla., and Detroit, have announced the engagement of their daughter, LETHA RAE HOLT, of Kercheval avenue, to W. Magruder Jones, Jr., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Magruder Jones, of St. Clair avenue.

The bride-elect is an executive secretary at The Stroh Brewery Company. Mr. Jones was graduated from the Kiskiminetus Springs School, Salisbury, Pa., and Hillsdale College, where he affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

A June 12 wedding is planned.

Betrothed

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Bryce Stearns, of Hampton road, announce the engagement of their daughter, CAROLYN LOUISE, to Ensign Timothy William Hagedorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick Hagedorn, of Edsel Ford court.

The bride-elect is studying at Albion College, where she is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Her fiancé is a graduate of Albion College, where he affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He is presently stationed in Norfolk, Va.

The couple plans a July wedding.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Manford Gould Whittingham, of Kenwood court, announce the engagement of their daughter, SARAH CATHERINE, to Robert Scott Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eugene Barrett, of Clayton, Mo.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and Smith College.

Her fiancé was graduated from Country Day School, St. Louis, Mo., and Amherst College, where he affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity. He has recently returned from Tokyo, where he was engaged in newspaper work.

A March 27 wedding is planned.

Village Plans Fashion Show

The Grosse Pointe Village Merchants will present their annual "Suddenly It's Spring" Fashion Show, Tuesday evening, March 2, at 8 o'clock in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial located at 32 Lakeshore.

As always, the show will feature the latest in spring fashions for the entire family, from the toddler to grandfather, in all price ranges.

The Fashion Show will be sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association and president Al Helmer says that he and his committee are anticipating another record crowd. Grosse Pointe residents will not only be able to see fashionable spring clothes, but there will be prizes given by the various Village merchants and immediately following the show, The Village Manor will offer refreshments to those in attendance. Admission is free and Mrs. Jackie Crampton, prominent local commentator and television personality, will narrate the show and fashions will be modeled by many Grosse Pointe residents.

Teens Enjoying Center Casino

The War Memorial's Casino which has proved so popular with the Senior High and Prep School group will open its doors at 32 Lake Shore again on Friday night, March 5, from 8:30 to 11:30.

The Casino, beginning March 5, due to popular demand, will have at least two bands playing constantly throughout the evening in addition to the games room which will operate in the basement and the snack and drink bar which will be open continuously.

The Casino will cater to only 500 nightly. The admission is 75c. House money is given to each patron at the door. Checking is free and drinks and snacks are available for 10c. Those wishing to be sure of admission may purchase key cards at the Center's office in advance.

Benefit Concert Slated March 5

A Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra benefit concert, sponsored by the Detroit Women's Symphony Auxiliary, will be presented Friday, March 5, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Lecture Hall, Detroit Institute of Arts.

The concert will feature Lucille Zocharski, violinist, with Camella Ehrlich at the piano, and Leslie Eitzen, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Alice Haidostian.

The varied program will include works of Rachmaninoff, and Sonata II in E by Bach, Paul Paray's Sonata and other works of important composers.

Party Staged By MSU Grads

More than 200 East Side Michigan State University Alumni from Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods, East Detroit and St. Clair Shores, gathered on February 13 for the club's annual Valentine dinner dance at the Detroit Yacht Club.

Couples danced to the music of Leo Marchionni and his orchestra. Decorations were highlighted by two giant hearts suspended from the ceiling with cupid aiming arrows.

Co-chairmen for the event were John Strongman of Vernier road and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly of Lincoln road. Sponsors were the William Fiscuses of Balfour road.

Proceeds from the affair went to the Michigan State University Development Fund.

Miss Schneider To Say Vows

Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Schneider, of McMillan road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Susan Elizabeth, to Leo G. Steine, of Birmingham.

Miss Schneider was graduated from Barry College, Miami, Fla., where she majored in nursing.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Steine, of Bloomington, Wis., is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, where he majored in engineering.

A June 26 wedding is planned, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Mardi Gras Party

The Servite Foreign Mission Guild, organized in May of 1963 at St. Juliana Parish, will sponsor a Mardi Gras Supper Card Party this Sunday, February 28, at St. Juliana School, Chalmers at Longview. Festivities begin at 6 o'clock. Donation is $1.50.

Garden Center Summit Meeting

Miami Beach Party Calls DAC Members

Many Pointers Have Made Reservations For Southern Extravaganza; "Roulette" Dancing To Be Featured Again This Year

With plans for the Detroit Athletic Club's annual "Miami Beach Party" well underway, the DAC's Richard H. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell are departing today for the Southland to be assured that every facet of the March 1 gala at the Indian Creek Country Club, Bal Harbour, is ship-shape.

But with DAC Member George Cavanaugh on hand locally, as in other years, to check on the elaborate party arrangements and accept reservations in Florida—there is little need for worry.

Everyone knows that attendance is limited to 50 for the posh affair. So early reservations have been a must for those lucky ones who'll be in Florida or journey down especially for the BIG evening.

Festivities will begin with a cocktail reception at 6:30 o'clock to be followed by dinner at 8. Entertainment will follow and part of the fun will be a repeat on "roulette" dancing.

Among the many Pointers already in Florida or on their way there for the DAC fete, are the Robert B. Gottfredsons who will have Mr. and Mrs. L. White at their table; Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Smith whose guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schoenith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kemp, the George Root, Robert Artner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf, the Tom Newtons and Mr. and Mrs. Chick Rutan.

The H. F. Verbiests will be a foursome as will the Thornton E. Waterfalls, and Judge Joseph A. Murphy and Mrs. Murphy will have Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweikart as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Allmand will have places marked for 12 and Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Fitzpatrick will have a table for 10. The C. Wesley Eblings have invited eight guests and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schoenith will be a six-some.

Others with early reservations are Mrs. J. Donald Christian, W. H. Harold Lightbody, R. F. Little, Walter Crow, George H. Zimmerman and Wesley J. Peoples.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club has scheduled a meeting next Tuesday, March 2, at 11:30 o'clock, at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Hospitality House in Kercheval avenue.

Hostesses will be the club's board members. Mrs. Thomas Brown will give an illustrated talk, entitled "Anyone Can Grow Orchids."

Suburbia Club Session Slated

Anne Hebert, fourth grade teacher at Mason School, will be guest speaker at the next meeting of Suburbia Garden Club, scheduled Tuesday, March 2, at the Grand Marais boulevard home of Mrs. Victor Briedenbach.

Miss Hebert was one of five Grosse Pointe school teachers who attended the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan Conservation School at Higgins Lake last summer. She will give a brief report on her experiences at the school.

Presiding at the meeting will be the club's new Board of Directors, headed by president Mrs. Robert Bersback. Other officers are Mrs. Emory Wickline, vice president, Mrs. Victor Radcliffe, treasurer, Mrs. Henry M. Donzalski, recording secretary, and Mrs. Herbert Epstein, corresponding secretary.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

Circle Day for the women of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is Tuesday, March 2, with the following hostesses opening their homes:

Circle One, Mrs. Bertram de H. Atwood, of Beverly road; Circle Two, Mrs. William Bokram, of Birch lane; Circle Three, Mrs. Richard S. Edwards, of Chalfonte avenue; Circle Four, Mrs. J. Ross Bush, of Pemberton road; Circle Five, Mrs. Harvey Burr, of Shoreham road; and Circle Six, Mrs. William Kreidler, of North Brys drive.

More are: Circle Seven, Mrs. Robert Kaiser, of Merriweather road; Circle Eight, Mrs. Thomas J. Little, III, of Fisher road; Circle Nine, Mrs. Konrad L. Jones, of Buckingham road; Circle Eleven, Mrs. Frank E. Werneken, of McKinley place; and Circle Twelve, Mrs. William T. Walsh, of Washington road.

Church Schools Aid to Be Aired

The question, "Should Schools Receive Tax Assistance?" will be discussed on Sunday, February 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. The public is invited to hear speakers review this emotion-packed question of the church-state relationship which is currently being debated in Congress. The program opens with coffee and dessert.

Two key speakers, a Detroit Lutheran official and a Washington attorney, will offer a dialogue-type program which will be moderated by Ralph Heikinen, active member of the host church. The speakers are: Dr. John F. Choitz, Superintendent of Lutheran High Schools of Greater Detroit and Deputy Superintendent of Schools of the Michigan District; and Franklin C. Salisbury, Washington, D.C. attorney and author, and General Counsel for Americans United.

Dr. Choitz was graduated from St. John's College, Winfield, Kan., and Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo. He received his Masters Degree at Iowa. He has taught at Detroit Lutheran High School, at Bazine High School, Kansas and at Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill. He has also served as Pastor of the Bazine St. Luke's Church, and at St. Paul's Lutheran Chapel, a student congregation at the State University of Iowa.

Dr. Choitz is chairman of the Curriculum Commission, Association of Lutheran Secondary Schools, and of the Advisory Committee on School Programs, United Community Services. He is on the Mayor's Advisory Committee for Total Action Against Poverty, a Board Member of Junior Achievement, Vice Chairman of the Michigan Board of Citizens for Educational Freedom, and also holds membership in the Economic Club of Detroit; Lutheran Luncheon Club; American Association for Higher Education; American Association of School Administrators; Lutheran Education Association, Phi Delta Kappa.

Franklin Salisbury is a well known writer and authority on government relations. He authored "Speaking of Politics" which is a basic review of the meanings of words used in discussing political and social relations.

Mr. Salisbury was born in Cleveland, Ohio where he attended public schools; he graduated from Yale University and Western Reserve University Law School. He also attended graduate schools at Georgetown University and George Washington University. He has had extensive government experience as a staff attorney of the Federal Communications Commission and the Ordnance Department of the U.S. Army. He was legal director of Foreign Liquidation Commission and more recently Assistant Solicitor, Department of Interior, American Indian Legal Activities.

He served as a major in the United States Army on active duty during World War II. Mr. Salisbury is founder of the Latin American Institute in Washington, a member of the District of Columbia and Federal Bar Associations, Order of Coif, Gamma Delta Psi and Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, and the University, Army-Navy Country and National Lawyers Clubs of Washington, D.C.

Alpha Gamma Deltas To Meet Next Tuesday

The afternoon group of Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae will gather next Tuesday, March 2, at 12:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George Rogers in Cloverly road.

After lunch and a business meeting, Mrs. Rogers will show slides of the Rogers' family's 1964 European trip.

From Another Pointe of View

cocktails. Dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock, at tables scattered around the "Gardens" dance floor.

Taped performers include Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman, Glen Gray, Wayne King, Jimmy Dorsey, Bunny Berigan, Henry Busse, Xavier Cugat et al.

Party committee chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Roney, Jr., assisted by Vice Commodore and Mrs. John W. Paynter.

Serving with them are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Quello, Mr. and Mrs. David DeMers, Commodore and Mrs. Edward J. Schoenherr, the Frank L. Gofranks, Richard Shallas, Daniel Holecas and William H. Sigsworths.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Maghielse, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wetzel, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Ranger, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simmerer and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Stack, Jr.

Sea Food Extravaganza

While we're on the subject of clubs... we MUST mention the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's annual winter seafood party, scheduled tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

This gourmet extravaganza is the sort of feast one ought to fast in preparation for: the menu features fancy hors d'oeuvres from the sea, lobster, king crab and shrimp creole.

After dinner, members and guests will dance to the music of Herb Ross and his orchestra, and there will be a Very Special Event: The Fish Bowl Derby.

Hosts for the evening are the Joseph R. Martins and the Willard S. Smiths.

Mount Holyoke Coast-To-Coast

Mount Holyoke graduates will gather in 50 cities throughout the United States this Sunday for a special birthday celebration honoring the college's founder, Mary Lyon.

Between 2,500 and 3,000 alumnae and guests are expected to hear a nationwide commemorative broadcast direct from the South Hadley, Mass., campus.

Gathering point for Detroit-area alumnae will be the Don A. Cargill home in Birmingham.

Traveling across-town for the event are the first and second vice-presidents of Detroit's Mount Holyoke Club, Mrs. Leonard L. Winter, of Lennon road, and Mrs. Kenneth McCoy, of Merriweather road.

Other Pointe alumnae who have made plans to attend the party are Mrs. H. E. Clouthier, Mrs. Howard Hush, Mrs. Lee Kitchen, Mrs. W. T. Kriehoff, Mrs. C. S. Livingood, Mrs. E. P. MacKenzie, Mrs. Elliott Phillips, Mrs. S. W. Utley, Mary Weaver and Mrs. Frederick Whitney.

Incidentally, Mount Holyoke is well over 100 years old; the Mount Holyoke "Female Seminary," first institution in the United States designed exclusively for the higher education of women, was opened by Mary Lyon in 1837.

Farm and Garden Club

Mrs. John S. Albert, III, will open her Elm court home to members of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club Monday afternoon, March 8.

Speaker Gurden Dennis will discuss "New Chemical Magic for Your Garden." Assisting Mrs. Albert as hostesses will be Mrs. William H. Ledyard and Mrs. J. Crawford Frost.

Miss Grasser Speaks Vows

Patricia Ann Grasser and David G. Schroeder exchanged marriage vows February 13, at a noon ceremony in St. Matthew Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grasser, of Macomb Township, formerly of Manchester road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schroeder, of Allard Avenue.

For her marriage, the former Miss Grasser chose a classically simple floor length white satin gown. A pearl-encrusted cinelt held her bouffant illusion veil, and she carried a large cluster of freesia and greens.

In floor length red satin gowns were the attendants, maid of honor Donna Grasser, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Fran Grasser, another sister, and Holly Stephens. Dennis Schroeder served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Fred Bellamy and Trent Stephens.

Henry Ford RN Alumnae Schedule Card Party

The Alumnae Association of the Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing has scheduled a card party next Monday, March 1, at 8 o'clock in the evening, in the 17th floor cafeteria, clinic building, Henry Ford Hospital. Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased by contacting Jean Bolthouse at Logan 1-4547.

Garden Club Plans Meeting

Mrs. Ralph Dewey, of Lakeland avenue, will hostess the March 3 meeting of the Windmill Pointe Garden Club.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock. The afternoon program will consist of slides of "A Touch of Ceremony," the Charles W. Warren Co.'s recent exhibition. Mrs. Frank Wilton will provide the commentary.

U. of D. Women's Guild

The University of Detroit Women's Guild will gather next Tuesday, March 2, at 1:30 o'clock, in the Student Union Building, to hear the Reverend James Caine, S.J., director of U. of D. theater, speak on "Theater in the University." Mrs. James Caraher will serve as hostess for the afternoon.

Feb. 25 Opening
For Tuxis Show

Over 200 students are taking part in this year's Tuxis show to raise money for charity. The student-written production, entitled "The Tube and Eye" is a parody on some of the more well-known television shows.

The proceeds will go to four charities: a foster child, the Presbyterian Child Welfare Agency in Buckhorn, Ky., the Miraj Medical Center in India, and a just-initiated Tuxis Scholarship Fund for a college-bound Tuxis member.

The show will be presented on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, February 25, 26, 27 in the auditorium of Charles A. Parcels Junior High School.

Tickets may be obtained at the Campus Shop in "The Village", the Village Store "on-the-Hill", or by calling the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church office, TU 5-3773.

Prices are $1.50 for all reserved seats, $1.25 for adult unreserved seats, and $1 for student seats.

Library Offers
Family Films

The sixth program of the 1964-1965 Family Film night Series will be presented Friday, March 5, at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. The films that night are designed for everyone in the family to enjoy.

The program will be outstanding. Two of the films were produced by Walt Disney. One offering is "Pigs is Pigs" (16 minutes, color)—the story of a railroad station master, who becomes the custodian of two guinea pigs. While the station master waits for instructions, the guinea pigs multiply at a fantastic rate, and soon overflow the entire station. "Far East" (20 minutes, color) will take you to Thailand, Bangkok, Angkor-Vat Phom, Pehn, Hong Kong, and Oberdeen, city of 100,000 sampans. This will be a trip into the exotic sights of the Far East. "Ben and Me" (16 minutes, color) tells of the exploits of Amos, the mouse, who becomes Ben Franklin's chief assistant. (A Walt Disney production).

Adults, and children accompanied by adults, are cordially invited.

Check Passer
Hears Sentence

George Wickman, 25, no known address, sought by police of five communities for passing phony checks, was arrested by Woods police on Monday, February 15, and arraigned before Woods Judge Don Goodrow the same evening.

Wickman entered a plea of guilty to a Woods charge of uttering and publishing, and sentenced to one year probation, with the first 10 days to be spent in the Wayne County Jail. He was ordered to make restitution of $12 to Food Fair Supermarket in Mack avenue, where he passed a check in that amount, and to pay $20 court costs.

Wickman was also fined $15 after pleading guilty to two counts of traffic violation, for which the Woods had warrants outstanding. Judge Goodrow decreed that Wickman arrange to pay all the money before being released from jail, or serve an additional 90 days.

The convicted man had been sought by authorities of St. Clair Shores, Warren, East Detroit, for more than a month. Woods detectives searched for one week and arrested Wickman, when the manager of the supermarket signed a complaint against him.

Det. Sgt. Jack Mast and Det. Donald Sabel traced Wickman to a Warren firm, with the aid of Michigan Employment Security Commission officials, who disclosed that they recently placed the man on a job with the tool company.

Accompanied by two Warren policemen, Mast and Sabel went to the Warren firm, the Wolverine Tool company, 14208 Nine Mile road, and arrested Wickman, and took him to the Warren station, where officers there fingerprinted and booked him.

Mast and Sabel then took Wickman to their station, where the man was again fingerprinted and booked on a charge of uttering and publishing.

Mast said Wickman admitted purchasing two books of blank checks from a bank, and cashed all but five of them. Wickman also confessed that he had cashed many other phony checks, the detective said.

According to the records, officers of the other four communities, compiled their complaints with that of the Woods, and turned over checks cashed by Wickman totaling $309.49.

Schools Free of Epidemics
Despite Many Illnesses

Parents of students in the Grosse Pointe Public School System will be glad to know that in spite of rumors there are no epidemics in the area's schools.

Although pupil and teacher absenteeism is slightly higher than is normal for this time of year, statistics compiled by the Department of Pupil Personnel reveal no sign of anything alarming.

A spot check of schools in the system for Monday and Tuesday, February 22 and 23, showed that at Barnes School, out of 467 students, 47 were absent on Monday and 56 on Tuesday; at Defer School 73 were out on Monday and 80 on Tuesday, from a total enrollment of 648.

At two other elementary schools, figures also revealed that absenteeism was not out of line. On Monday and Tuesday there were 45 pupils absent from Ferry School whose students number 848 and at Montclair, 50 were out on the 22nd and 52 on the 23rd.

Parcels Junior High School reported 94 students out of 1,000 were not in school on Monday and Tuesday. From the 874 enrolled at Brownell Junior High School, 70 were absent on Monday and 80 on Tuesday. The Department of Pupil Personnel said at Pierce on Monday and Tuesday there were respectively 61 and 71 not attending that school which has 856 pupils.

On both Monday and Tuesday, the Grosse Pointe High School counted 370 students absent. Its enrollment is 2,685.

The elementary teachers who were absent on the 22nd and 23rd numbered 27 and 22 respectively. The secondary schools, both junior and senior high schools, counted 9 out on Monday and 8 on Tuesday. There are 236 teachers in the elementary system and 261 in the secondary.

Mrs. Alberta Davis, chairman of nurses in the school system, said, "Some of the absentees are winter vacationers, and skiing casualties who cannot fall in the classification of those absent because of a communicable disease."

Another health authority added, "We are in good shape in Grosse Pointe. There is not an epidemic of any kind despite a variety of ailments going around which include flu, colds, measles and echo virus."

Lt. Clifford P. Kuhl
At Fort Benning, Ga.

Army 2d Lt. Clifford P. Kuhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford P. Kuhl, 2045 Marford court, completed an infantry officer orientation course at Fort Benning, Ga., February 16.

During the nine-week course Lieutenant Kuhl received instruction in military leadership responsibilities, tactics of small infantry units, map and aerial photograph reading and Army administrative procedures.

The 22-year-old officer is a 1959 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and is a 1964 graduate of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

The City Attorney was requested to prepare an amendment to the City's Platting Ordinance requiring that utility lines be installed underground in future subdivisions.

The National Bank of Detroit was designated as depository for the Pier Park Improvement Bond Fund.

The Council authorized the investment of Pier Park Improvement Bond monies in certificates of deposit issued by the Detroit Bank and Trust Company, the National Bank of Detroit and the Manufacturer's National Bank.

Communications received from the City of Grosse Pointe Woods and Mr. Mark C. Stevens of 260 Moross Road, commending the Police Department for services rendered, were received and ordered filed.

A report prepared by the City Attorney summarizing the activities of the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority was received and ordered filed.

The proposed revised Fire Department rules and regulations compiled by the City Attorney and the Chief of the Fire Department were approved as amended.

On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:15 P.M.

Kindergarteners with imagination . . . are Tammy and Terri Taylor, two identical twins who traded classes at Mason School recently because each wanted to see what the other's class was like! Teachers Mrs. Betty Maynard and Mrs. Frances Rislov did not discover the Great Impersonation until mid-afternoon, then magnanimously allowed the small spys to stay where they were for the remainder of the day.

Our favorite brochure . . . (so far this year), is the Episcopal Mardi Gras Benefit folder, with its wonderfully whimsical ice-skating clergyman on the cover—his quietly gleeful smile is a pure delight. Why the skates and the smile? Reverend X is going to the Ice Capades March 2, and proceeds from his ticket purchase will be used to further the work of the Episcopal Church in Detroit's "inner-city."

And while we're on the subject of brochures . . . we'd like to mention the Overture to Opera IV booklet, just about the most beautiful piece of promotion material we've ever seen, a work of art in itself.

A current . . . and possibly apocryphal story concerns a local real estate agent, trapped for the day by that bane of all real estate agents, the little old lady who has no intention of buying but wants to see everything available. After a whole morning and half-an-afternoon of showing the woman most of the houses in town (she managed to find something wrong with even the best-constructed, best-laid-out buildings), he finally took her to The Perfect House. The lady searched high and low for something to criticize, but to no avail—the house was faultless. Finally, persistence won out; she turned to her long-suffering companion and exclaimed in triumph, "This house has no laundry chute." The agent shrugged, "Madame," he explained wearily, "in Grosse Pointe we don't throw the dirty laundry down a chute . . . we burn it!"

Space is News this week . . . and Carolyn Hubbard Lucas has some thoughts on the subject:

"STAR LIGHT, STAR BRIGHT"

Searching stratospheric places
(Satellites in outer spaces)
Men make moon and Mars the basis
For the answer to the dream.
And the Atom separating
Sets this puzzled world debating
If all this we're over-rating
And if things are what they seem?

Yet with doubled population
And the troubles of inflation
This just may be jubilation—
The solution that we seek.
I'm the older generation
And have little preparation
For this astral integration
So I'm not the one to speak.

PILFERINGS

An English spiritualist once persuaded Charles Dickens to attend one of her seances and summon any spirit.

The author considered whom to call and suddenly thought of a celebrated grammarian who had died when he was a youth.

"Summon Lindley Murray," he suggested. Soon he was told that Lindley Murray was in the room.

"Are you Lindley Murray?" asked the doubting Dickens.

"I am," came the ghostly reply.

Pointer of Interest

JOE PEHRSON, OF BALLANTYNE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Joe Pehrson's neighbors know now that he is NOT a mad scientist. For a while, Ballantyne road wondered if the Fehrsons were building a rocket launching pad in their backyard.

As the "thing" behind the Pehrson home grew and wooden sides appeared, enclosing a concrete floor slab, the neighbors continued to speculate.

Were the Pehrsons building the world's biggest doghouse? . . . and if so, were they planning to acquire the world's biggest dog? (Mothers of young children held their breath and hoped not . . .)

Had Joe decided to go into the chicken raising for fun and profit business? (EVERYBODY held their breath and hoped not . . .)

Finally, the dome went up—and the neighbors' curiosity was satisfied. The structure in the Pehrson backyard took on the obvious characteristics of an astronomical observatory.

Sighs of Relief
Ballantyne road let out a collective sigh of relief, followed by a round of applause for the observatory builders, Joe and his father, Ralph S. Pehrson, and a second round of applause for Mrs. Pehrson, who never wavered in her support of the project.

The neighbors relaxed. Joe might be a scientist, but he was definitely not mad, certainly not dangerous. Everybody's curiosity was satisfied, nobody was nervous any more. Or so Joe thought.

Until one day, when he was working in "The Coop," (the name is a holdover from "Is-he-planning-to-raise-chickens-or-what" days), a little girl appeared and asked the 14-year-old astronomer, quite seriously: "Are you a spy from the moon?"

"I told her 'No,'" Joe laughs. Technically, his answer was correct. Joe Pehrson is not a spy FROM the moon. But he is a spy ON the moon, and the stars, and the planets, and all sorts of heavenly bodies.

Astronomers are all spies, watching and waiting to find out the secrets of the skies.

Joe is also a ninth grade student at Grosse Pointe University School, taking a standard academic course, studying Math, English, French, History and Science. "The Science," he explains, "is really Physics."

Is Excellent Pianist
He is an excellent pianist, currently practicing Chopin's Polonaises in preparation for a recital. He has taken music lessons for four years and never has to be urged to sit down at a piano.

"I like to play very much," he declares, "but I don't think it's good to tell someone who doesn't like music he HAS to play."

"If a person doesn't want to do a thing, he may as well not attempt it—of course, you have to try things to find out if you like them or not, and do the best you can even at things you don't like, but you always do best at the things you like."

Joe's interest in astronomy began when he was in kindergarten. His father read him stories about astronomy, and he became quite interested in the science.

His first telescope was a refractor type—"Galileo's kind"—which uses a lens for forming an image.

Has Many Advantages
His present instrument, mounted inside the observatory, is a reflecting-type telescope, which uses mirrors. Joe prefers the reflecting telescope because he can get a larger aperture and, consequently, more light-gathering power, important features to the amateur astrophotographer.

A reflecting telescope is less expensive, too . . . Joe mentions that amateurs can learn to make their own mirrors, something he hasn't attempted as yet.

His first telescope had an altazimuth, (up and down), mounting. His present telescope has an Equatorial Mount; it points directly to Polaris, the North Star, and can revolve around and follow all stars as the earth spins on its axis.

The model also has Setting Circles, to simplify pinpointing specific stars, and a Clock Driver, which keeps the telescope aimed on a star despite the movement of the earth. (The stars seem to move through the heavens, but it is really the earth that is moving . . . Remember?)

The Clock Driver is a "must" for astrophotography, taking pictures of heavenly bodies.

Joe received his first Equatorial Mount three years ago. Last year, using this Equatorial Mount and his old telescope, he took pictures of the moons of Jupiter for a GPUS science project.

Pictures Won Prizes
His pictures won second prize at GPUS and were exhibited at the Cobo Hall Science Fair, where they earned Joe an Honorable Mention.

After the Fair Joe went shopping for a new telescope, an instrument suited specifically to his purposes. He wrote to 15 companies before selecting his present model, an eight-inch aperture reflecting telescope which has proved "a great help because I can get more clarity."

"For the amateur, I would recommend a reflector," Joe says. "You can even build one your self. It does need some maintenance, but if you have enough gumption, you can get good results. And as far as I'm concerned, the extra tinkering around is part of the fun."

Next obvious step after acquiring the telescope was an observatory.

Ralph Pehrson, a certified public accountant, had been bitten by the astronomy bug himself as he watched his son's interest develop.

Joe persuaded Mr. Pehrson to agree to build the observatory. Father and son wrote for and received plans from equipment manufacturers, then proceeded to translate the directions from paper to wood and aluminum—a task that looks much easier than it is.

Father Big Help
Mr. Pehrson cut wood for the side walls and built the dome, aluminum on a wooden frame, in the garage. The day before the dome was to go on the observatory, he informed his wife and son that, if it didn't fit he would take the whole structure and break it up into fire wood! (Fortunately, this wasn't necessary.)

"The doors (in the dome) were the toughest part," Joe reminisces. "They are curved to certain angles, and have to fit along the curve 'just so,' or the roof will leak."

Joe helped in the construction of the observatory, and paid for his share of the materials' cost by doing yard work. But he gives his father most of the credit: "He spent long, hard hours every night, and whole weekends working on the observatory."

There are four main reasons why Joe felt an observatory was desirable. Wind, Light, Warmth and Storage.

Wind shakes an exposed telescope; the larger the telescope, the more it shakes. On a windy night, accuracy is difficult and astrophotography almost impossible.

Street lights and the lights from neighbors' windows can distract the astronomer and register on his photographic plates.

Some Good in Winter

Winter nights are clear but cold, ("The only thing good about winter is that the nights are longer," Joe believes). Shelter of some sort is imperative if a long session at the telescope is planned. The observatory cuts the edge of the cold, and Joe has placed an electric heater on the floor inside, "but whether it does any good with both the top doors and the sides open, I don't know!"

Without a permanent place for his instrument, Joe was forced to lug the disassembled telescope, in three or four pieces, each weighing 50 pounds or so, from the family room to the backyard, where he had to set it up and orient it to the North Pole before he could begin viewing.

This long and exhausting process is unnecessary now, and Mrs. Pehrson has her family room back. "Mother didn't object to the telescope, really; it was sort of a conversation piece," her son claims.

The observatory project was started in June and finished about a month ago, but Joe still has some improvements in mind, notably a motor to turn the dome he now turns by hand, "if I'm really lucky."

Professionals poured the concrete floor slab, but all of the other work was done by Joe and Ralph Pehrson.

Wants Special Camera
Joe's next major purchase will be a special camera. He hopes to continue astrophotography, to have an exhibit ready for next year's Science Fair.

He has never taken a course specifically in astronomy. "My Physics class has included astronomy," he says. "The school program gives a sufficient amount of astronomy, but it must be supplemented by outside reading."

Joe subscribes to professional journals, "a necessity, because so much happens in the sky," and believes "if you know what you are looking for and read up on it, you can really appreciate it."

He cautions budding astronomers to look THROUGH a telescope instead of AT it, to realize that serious study is necessary if one is to enjoy the science, and not to expect to find Big Bears or Little Bears in the sky. "Some of those mythological figures stretch the imagination, to say the least. If you look through a telescope, all you'll see is stars."

Part of the lure of astronomy is the fact that it demands participation. Joe feels. The only way to become accustomed to the heavens is by observing them oneself; the experience must be first-hand.

Fraternizing Important
He believes in Astronomical Societies, in organizations of people interested in a particular subject who meet regularly to discuss that subject.

Recently, he invited four friends who also are interested in astronomy to join him in the observatory during an eclipse of the moon. He terms the experience "enjoyable and educational," (what better kind of experience can there be?)

Joe hopes the coming summer nights will be calm and clear, so he can really get out and look at the stars. This winter was a disappointment; most of the nights were "bad."

But even bad nights are not a total loss. Joe can always get out his model planetarium and project the sky on the ceiling in his room—and plan what he will look for tomorrow evening, when the skies are clear.

To Show Film Of Holy Lands

Charles Forbes Taylor, minister and prize-winning photographer, will bring his new color film, "The Holy Lands," to Detroit Town Hall on Wednesday, March 3.

He will narrate the film, to be presented at 11 a.m. in the Fisher Theater. It is a unique presentation representing a lifetime of work, evoking scenes from the life of the Man from Nazareth.

Scenes will include Damascus and the coming of Abraham; places of the Patriarchs; Judges, Kings, and Prophets; the route of Moses as he led the children of Israel up the River Jordan, through the desert of the Hashomite Kingdoms, to Moab, Ammon and Gilead; the Sea of Galilee, Jacob's Well, Mt. Zion, and many more.

Taylor spent part of his youth in England where he traveled with his father, an itinerant preacher. The boy became a preacher also, and when he emigrated to the United States his comments on sensational murder cases were featured by the Hearst newspaper chain.

Library Friends To See Films

Two unusually interesting art films, created by Clifford B. West, will be shown at the third special program sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library next Wednesday evening, March 3, at the Central Library at 8 o'clock.

The two films are titled "Florentine Architecture of the Renaissance" and "Florentine Workshop of the Pietre Dure" and have won critical acclaim from audiences internationally.

Mr. West is an artist and teacher of art, much of whose career has centered in the Detroit area. He has taught at Cranbrook, has had many shows in Detroit, and has painted murals which are in the Veterans' Memorial and City National Bank's main office.

Mr. West has transferred his artistic skills and training to the production and photography of his films with great success.

After Mr. West presents his films, there will be an informal reception in the main reading room of the Library.
