EAST GERMAN COMMUNIST leader Walter Ulbricht, who arrived in the United Arab Republic yesterday, was greeted by thousands and a 21-gun salute. Meantime in Bonn, West Germany announced that all aid to Egypt was cut off at the moment Ulbricht landed on the Arab Republic's soil. The decision to cut off loans to Egypt means a loss of $25 million to Cairo and the loss of financial help for that country's five-year development plan which starts next May.

THE UNITED STATES EMBASSY in Saigon said Wednesday that U.S. jet aircraft have been sent during the past week on several air strikes against the Viet Cong guerrillas. At the same time the Johnson Administration verified that the U.S. had changed the rules of our involvement in the Asian war. It cited congressional authority for the change from "advising and assisting" the South Vietnamese and fighting only in self defense to more aggressive measures. The administration also said that it had received "no meaningful proposals" for negotiation in spite of continuing appeals from abroad.

DETROIT AND ITS SUBURBS experienced last night and today the worst blizzard it has had since 1929. Absenteeism at offices was high because of the inability of workers to find transportation. Cars were stalled on all thoroughfares. Telephone lines were overloaded due to the heavy snowfall and calls for advice and aid.

Friday, February 26
DETROIT AREA RESIDENTS today began the gigantic task of digging out from under the heaviest snowfall it has endured in 35 years. More than 11 inches of snow fell during yesterday's blizzard which halted businesses and schools. The few hardy souls who managed to find their way to work found downtown Detroit deserted, except for stalled cars and snow removal crews who were hampered in their work by winds that reached 35-miles-an-hour force. Children, however, who discovered they had an unexpected vacation, enjoyed both their freedom and their play in drifts of snow that often were as high as four feet.

THE WEATHER also hampered what to many Detroiters is the first sign of approaching spring—the official opening of the Tigers' spring training season in Lakeland, Fla. Temperatures dipping into the middle 30s forced the baseball players into an airplane hangar where they tried to run through the drills to get them in shape for the coming season.

TWENTY-SIX NEW CARDINALS were installed yesterday by Pope Paul VI in a ceremony which was altered to match the Roman Catholic Church's modernization. During the three-hour ritual, Pope Paul focused on the spiritual side of the investiture rather than on the traditional pomp.

Saturday, February 27
THE WORK OF recovering from Thursday's massive snow storm continued today as members of the Departments of Public Works in Detroit and the suburbs labored round-the-clock to clear the snow-laden streets and sidewalks. Mayor Jerome Cavanagh said it will cost the City of Detroit a half-million dollars to get the city back into normal operation. The State Highway Department also said it would spend a half-million dollars clearing State trunk lines.

IN SPITE OF the area's paralyzing snow, the outside world still made news. Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in Moscow yesterday again demanded that the United States withdraw its troops from Vietnam and South Korea. He said that unless the U.S. stops its "aggressive actions" the war in Vietnam "will inevitably transcend its original boundaries." Observers interpret his statements as meaning that

Parking Plot Plowing Provides Playground

The youngsters had a field day Friday after Farms crews finished the preliminary clearing of the big parking lot in the Kercheval On-The-Hill business district. Mountains of snow were created as the plows made it possible for many cars to get off the streets and their drivers to do their shopping in comfort and without worry. William Adamo, advertising manager of the NEWS, doubled as a photographer and came up with a fine set of pictures, of which this is one.

City Seeks Permit to Sell Bonds

Applications Being Filed With State Commission Following Approval By Voters

At a special meeting called by Mayor David E. Burgess, the City Council of Grosse Pointe City passed a resolution authorizing City Manager John M. Cantwell to file application with the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission to advertise and accept bids to finance the recent voter-approved General Obligation bond issue.

The $1.32 million bond issue will be used to improve and update the City's sanitary and storm drainage sewer system.

The council also passed a formal resolution urging voters to approve the financing of a new high school and 800-seat auditorium-instructional center. The endorsement of such a millage proposal is unique. Members of the council, however, felt that the need for passage was so urgent and vital to the city that such a resolution was proper.

Officials Tell Need
Endorsement of the $7.6 million issue for the high school and $750,000 for the auditorium followed an indepth and detailed report on the need by Edward J. Pongracz, president of the Board of Education and J. Harold Husband, assistant superintendent of administrative services for the school system. The presentation included costs and methods of financing. Both

Auditorium-Instructional Center Needed at Proposed New School, Say Educators

Dual-Purpose Facility Very Important in Opinion of Officials; Hope for Approval of Bond Issue Proposals on March 22

How important is an auditorium-instructional center to a first-class high school? Property-owning residents of Grosse Pointe are asking the question before they vote in the March 22 school election.

Members of the Board of Education indicate that there is no facility in the Grosse Pointe area that equals the auditorium-instructional center planned for the site of Grosse Pointe North High School.

"We envision complete stage facilities so equipped that both school and adult groups will be

P. C. Dickinson On Merit Board

At its regular meeting on Monday, February 22, the Park City Council approved the appointment of a new member to the Park Merit Board.

Appointed was Philip C. Dickinson of 1374 Grayton, who was nominated for the post by four other members of the Board, who recommended to the council that Dickinson be made the fifth member.

The other members of the Board are, John F. Dodge of 1235 Yorkshire; Kenneth Hollidge of 1051 Audubon; D. Charles Marsten of 660 Middlesex; and Farrand Vyse of 15216 St. Paul.

The Merit Board, as defined under the Merit System of the Park City Charter, protects the rights of city employees, in such matters as promotions, transfers, disciplinary action, layoffs, etc.

Could Not Be Added

"We have been asked whether the auditorium could be added in later years: in the form suggested, it could not. A large room with lecture platform would be built in the area designated for the auditorium.

"It is hard to picture the taxpayer public of the future assuming the rather staggering cost of tearing out these rooms to fit in the auditorium if it doesn't pass now at a cost of 16 cents per thousand assessed valuation. The proposed auditorium would not duplicate either the Parcels or Fries," Mrs. Thompson concluded.

School authorities have emphasized the importance of the March 22 election. The decision to construct additional secondary school facilities is one that will affect the community's educational program for the next 60 years.

The present high school structure, almost 40 years old, is in good condition for its age. With continued proper maintenance it will serve approximately one half the students in grades 9 through 12 for many decades to come.

When property-owning residents of the school district go to the polls on Monday, March 22, they will ballot on two propositions.

The first will authorize funds for the construction of a second high school and the renovation and modernization of the present high school.

Woods Shop Owners Ask Parking Aid

Council Orders Paving of Additional Area on Both Sides of Severn in Response to Request

Additional off street parking in Grosse Pointe Woods will be created this spring as a result of action taken by the Woods Council at its meeting Monday night, March 1.

Chester E. Petersen, city manager, was directed by the council to include in his paving program the area on each side of Severn road from west of Mack to the alley to increase parking facilities.

The decision came after several shop owners in the block bounded by Severn and Broadstone complained to the council about the parking difficulties of their patrons. Raymond C. Pellegrino of Magic Mirror Coffins also asked the council to consider replacing one-hour meters in that block with two-hour ones. Mr. Pellegrino was told to take the problem to the Director of Public Safety, Allen Andrews, Jr.

Protest State Bill
A motion by Councilman Frederick M. Maddock, also a member of the County Board of Supervisors, to have acting city attorney Frederick Keppen draft a resolution protesting a bill now before the State Legislature and granting home rule to the counties in Michigan was passed unanimously by the council.

After approval of the proposed resolution at the next meeting, the statement will be sent on to Lansing.

Earlier in the evening a public hearing was held on a request by Mutschler Kitchens, Inc. for a deviation from the Zoning ordinance in regard to a parking area at 2077 Mack where the company plans to make an addition to a building. Following the hearing, the Council granted permission providing the rear elevation of the building and access to parking inside the building is not changed.

Amend Codes, Ordinances
In other action the council adopted amendments to the plumbing code, electrical code, fire prevention and traffic ordinances. It also received and placed on file a letter from the Governor of Michigan which approved the placing on the April 5 election ballot two amendments to the City Charter.

The amendments include a salary hike of $15 for a councilman.

Population Growth Dictates Need for Second High School

Dr. Frank Parcels, Board of Education Member, Tells Trombly PTA How Enrollments Have Exceeded Both Local and National Projections

"Our community has undergone a surprising rate of growth in recent years, and the increase in population has been felt in our public schools," Dr. Frank H. Parcels, vice-president of The Grosse Pointe Board of Education, said in his address to the Trombly School PTA Monday evening.

"Past population projections have tended to be lower than actual enrollments. For example, this fall we had 11,485 pupils when our 1960 prediction based on an average increase of 200 per year showed that we would have 11,125. And, U.S. Census Bureau projections forecast 11,457 for this year, while our enrollments exceeded that figure by 28," Dr. Parcels indicated.

"Even in built-up areas of the school district around Trombly and Defer schools for example, the population increases from 1950 to 1965 have been 63.1 percent and 74.5 percent respectively.

Population Trend Upward
Whatever the predictions indicate, Dr. Parcels said that the population trend in the Grosse Pointe schools is clearly upward.

Dr. Parcels cited factors that influenced the decision of the Board of Education to construct a second high school and to change the existing pattern of organization from 6-3-3 to a modified 5-3-4 to alleviate crowding at all levels.

The five points include: (1) a rising birth rate, with the war babies of the middle 1940's now reaching marriageable age; (2) the possibility of continued home construction; (3) change-over in home ownership as older families without children sell their property to younger families with several children; (4) the possibility of an increased percentage of the population attending the public schools; (5) and the possibility of the construction of multiple dwellings.

Dr. Parcels enumerated the features of the proposed Grosse Pointe North High School as well as the renovation of the existing high school plant.

Of the auditorium-instructional center proposed to be built adjacent to the new high school, Dr. Parcels emphasized, "This is not one more auditorium. It will provide adequate instructional facilities for instrumental and vocal music, classes in speech and drama, radio and television as well as up-to-date staging and production facilities.

"The separate ballot for the auditorium will enable the Board of Education to determine the tone of the public's sentiment and to make a choice between high school facilities that are merely excellent and those that are truly superior," he added.

During the question and answer period, Dr. Parcels made the following points: the division of the district into two high school districts will not be decided until a year prior to the opening of the new building; (2) the estimated square foot cost ($19.00) is based upon

Voluntary Tree Planting Program Begun in Woods

The second phase of a cooperative tree planting program will be undertaken in the Woods early in the spring, with the program being on a strictly voluntary basis, according to City Administrator Chester Petersen.

Letters have been mailed to residents announcing the program, Petersen said. On the reverse side of each letter is an application, which is to be filled by any resident desiring to have a tree planted between the curb and sidewalk in front of their property.

The letter points out that recently many of the city's elms have been killed by Dutch Elm Disease, and have never been replaced. Too, in some of the newly developed residential areas, the lack of a definite program for planting of the so-

Teamwork Distinguishes Great Effort

DPW Crews, Police and Firemen Pool Perseverance and Equipment to Whip Weather

The too often unsung heroes of the Pointe are the municipal employees, the DPW workers, policemen, firemen, and others, who worked long, tiring hours during the blizzard that descended on the area starting Wednesday night, February 24, and ending the next day.

No official figures of the actual cost of clearing of streets and sidewalks, snow removal, straight and overtime labor, etc., are available, since the work of clearing away huge piles of snow, was still in progress when the NEWS went to press. However, the estimate runs into many thousands of dollars.

Almost from the moment the snow ceased to fall, manpower and equipment were operating to clear streets and sidewalks. Work continued around the clock, until some resemblance of normalcy took shape.

Always Protected
During the height of the storm, which dumped more than 11 inches of snow in the area, residents of the Pointe were never without police or fire protection. Police cars "plowed" through streets, with the aid of snow tires and tire chains, and firemen and fire equipment were ready for any emergencies, fires or otherwise.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that each of the three shifts of his department worked with a full complement of men, and no off-duty officers were asked to assist those on other shifts. Auxiliary officers phoned to offer their services, but they were not needed, the chief said.

Park Fire Chief William Gural revealed that all off-duty firemen were called, and were kept busy clearing away snow drifts from around fire hydrants on each street. They used radio-control vehicles, so that they could hear and answer broadcasts in the event of emergencies.

Same in City, Farms
The same activities were recorded by the City Police and Fire Departments, except that no off-duty firemen were called to assist other shifts. No off-duty policemen were needed.

Police Chief Andrew Teetaert and Fire Chief George Poupard were proud of the way their respective personnel carried out their duties.

Farms Police Chief James Furton said that all men worked on their regular shifts, with everything, under the circumstances, working with smooth efficiency. He said no off-duty men were called, and only one man was kept over for two hours work on the following shift. All streets were under constant patrol, even during the height of the storm, he added.

Fire Chief M. William Mason said no off-duty men were needed, but all were placed on alert in the event of emergencies. Those on regular duty were kept busy clearing snow from around hydrants and the station driveway.

Woods Well Patrolled
Woods Director of Public Safety Allen Andrews, Jr., said that a total of 21 on-duty and off-duty men were kept in the station and on patrol at all times during the storm.

Public safety officers on scout car patrol had no incidents of stalling on the roads. While some officers remained in the station, ready to man firefighting equipment if needed, others drove about the city in radio-control cars and cleared snow away from hydrants.

Shores Chief Thomas Cochill revealed no incidents in his community. He also heads an integrated police and fire department.

No off-duty men were called, but those working on the second shift, were kept over to assist those on the midnight shift.

Best Essayist

KATHLEEN SULLIVAN, of 290 Merriweather road, received word Sunday that her essay on the general topic, "I am a citizen of the family, of the community, of the world," had won first prize in this area.

As a reward she will receive a $100 savings bond to be presented to her at a ceremonial dinner. She will also have the opportunity to represent Michigan in the national contest to be held in Washington, D.C.

The essay contest which aims to develop correct concepts of citizenship is sponsored by the Soroptimist Club's special committee for Citizenship Foundation Awards and is open to all students from both public and private schools.

In developing the topic, Kathy chose to give particular stress to the concept, "citizen of the world." Feeling that people are naturally aware of their duties to the family and the community because of their nearness to them, Kathy concluded: "We are only vaguely aware of those whose cry for help, distance renders inaudible."

Kathy is a senior at St. Paul High School. She is editor of the school newspaper, THE PAULIGHTS, a member of the National Honor Society and Secretary of the Student Council.

HITS CAR

City police reported that a car driven by Bert Fitch of 22425 Trombley, St. Clair Shores, struck the rear of one driven by Anthony Louis Surace of 24088 George avenue, Mt. Clemens, Mich., on Monday, February 15. Both cars were traveling east on Jefferson when the accident occurred. No violations were issued.

moving snow, was left to public personnel of the five Pointe Public Works Departments. Many of whom worked more than 12 consecutive hours before grabbing a little rest, then returning to their jobs, for another long stretch of clearance work.

City Manager Robert Slone said that plowing of the snow and removal was done around-the-clock. Streets and sidewalks were made passable within less than 48 hours.

He said that although city manpower and equipment were used, it was necessary to rent two more snow plows and a tractor from private firms, operated by other than city personnel, to help clear away the snow. In addition, he said, equipment was also borrowed from the Farms, after that community completed its work.

Had Little Sleep

John Cantwell said that all men of the DPW were called and they had to dig their way out of drifts in front of their homes, to answer the call to duty. By Friday evening, all streets and many sidewalks were passable.

The men worked around-the-clock, he said, went home at 1 a.m., Sunday, slept a few hours, and returned to work at 8 a.m. Some equipment was borrowed from the Farms, to help clear away the snow, it was said.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., also said personnel of the DPW in his community labored around the clock to clear streets and sidewalks, and municipal parking lot areas. Huge piles of snow remain to be picked up and dumped into the lake, he said.

In the Woods, the largest Pointe street and sidewalk plowing was not completed until about Sunday morning. City Administrator Chester Petersen said. Besides using City-owned equipment, the city had to rent plows and tractors to aid in the clearance.

Shores Proud of Job
Saturday morning, Shores streets and sidewalks were made passable, according to Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis. He lauded the hard working personnel of the DPW, and expressed satisfaction in the way they cleared away the snow. Village manpower and equipment were used in the task.

All the city managers stated that not only did the snow clearing crews of their respective communities clear away snow from local streets, but also cleared Jefferson, Lake Shore road (extension of Jefferson, north of Fisher road), and Mack avenue, which are county roads.

No crews from the Wayne County Road Commission were on the job to clear these thoroughfares, so local crews were instructed to do so.

Petersen, whose DPW workers were forced to salt down Mack avenue last week, to halt a five-hour rash of traffic accidents, caused by icy pavements, expressed resentment that the Woods was forced to do work for the county.

He said that the county receives gasoline tax monies for the maintenance of county roads, including Mack avenue and if the county does not want to take care of the avenue, it should relinquish jurisdiction, so that the Woods can have the tax monies to take care of the avenue.

the possibility of rising costs within the period the building is under construction; (3) some time before 1969 the voters will be asked to vote operating funds for the proposed high school; (4) if construction of the proposed high school goes according to schedule, it will open its doors in September, 1967.

On Monday, March 22, the property - owning residents of Grosse Pointe will ballot on two propositions. The first, in the amount of $7,600,000 would provide funds for the construction of the proposed high school and the renovation of the existing high school. The second, in the amount of $750,000, would provide funds for the construction of an auditorium-instructional center adjacent to the proposed high school.

Pongracz and Husband answered questions from the councilmen.

During the special meeting, the council also appointed Cantwell as street administrator, to comply with the requirements of Public Act 51 of the state of Michigan.

Permission was given to Schettler Drug Store in Fisher road to expand its facilities. Council approval was needed because the State Liquor Commission requires a municipal okay when a store which has a liquor license, wants to enlarge.

Public Hearing Set

After the meeting, the council adjourned into executive session to consider the budget for the interim fiscal year of April 1 to June 30. The budget will come up for formal approval at the council's next meeting on March 15.

A public hearing on the budget will be held this Saturday at 10 a.m. in the city offices.

Slate Lectures By Dr. Rutledge

Dr. Aaron L. Rutledge, head of the Psychotherapy Program at the Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit, will present a series of four Tuesday evening lectures on "Values in Contemporary Society" in March, under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Inter-Church Council on Religious Education.

The meetings will be held at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte road at Lotthrop, at 8 p.m. on the following dates: March 9, The Tyranny of "Capacity;" March 16, The Ethics of Responsibility; and March 30, The Emerging Sexual Ethic.

There is no admission charge.
The speaker is a Certified Consulting Psychologist, and a Fellow of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, of which he is also president.
He is a past president of the National Council on Family Relations, was chairman of the 1960 International Conference on the Family, and delivered papers at the 1963 International Council on Marriage Guidance in Milan, Italy.

Prior to accepting the appointment at Merrill-Palmer 12 years ago, Dr. Rutledge worked in mental hospitals, general hospitals, out-patient psychiatric clinics, family service agencies, universities, and in private practice as a psychotherapist and marriage counselor.

Dr. and Mrs. Rutledge and their four children have lived in Grosse Pointe since coming to Michigan.

The Grosse Pointe Inter-
Church Council on Religious Education is an association of Grosse Pointe churches interested in jointly sponsoring lectures and workshops for their members and all Pointe citizens.
It has been in existence for slightly more than a year. Other programs sponsored by the Council this year have been a lecture by Dr. Ruel L. Howe, Head of the Institute for Advanced Pastoral Studies at Cranbrook, and a series of lectures for parents and church school teachers by Dr. Armin Grams, on the elementary school-aged child.

Members of the Council who are cooperating in sponsoring Dr. Rutledge represent six different denominations. The eight churches are: Christ Episcopal,
the Grosse Pointe Congregational, the Grosse Pointe Memorial Presbyterian, the Grosse Pointe Methodist, the Grosse
Pointe Unitarian, and also St.
James Lutheran, St. Michael's Episcopal, and St. Paul's Lutheran.

All interested residents of the Pointe are welcome at these lectures.

Planting More Trees in Woods

son King Mapple, Columnar Maple, and the Sunburst Honeylocust. These will be from eight to ten feet in height, and from one and one-quarter inch to one and three-quarter inch in diameter. A city ordinance requires that trees be planted 40 feet apart.

No guarantee will be made on any trees planted in this project, it was stated, and all trees will be planted early in the spring.

Any resident interested in cooperating in this program is requested to fill in an application blank and have it in the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue, on or before Monday, March 22. A check payable to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods for an amount equal to $20 a tree, should be mailed, or taken in along with the application.

Petersen disclosed that last fall, approximately 400 trees were planted throughout the city during the first phase of the cooperative program, and hopes that this number will be equalled, or surpassed, this spring.

The goal is at least one tree for every lot within the city, Petersen said.

man for each meeting he attends, bringing his pay to $30. The mayor would receive an additional $10 for each session. Currently a councilman receives $15 a meeting and the mayor an additional $200 a year. The other charter amendment would give the council power to finance and provide employee welfare benefits.

Lutheran Church Sponsors Sings

Since the Lutheran Church has always been known as the "singing church," St. James has been conducting a Hymn Sing at the close of the 11 o'clock worship service on Sundays. Approximately 50 persons are in this group learning to sing some of the lesser known hymns in the Lutheran Hymnal.

These 15-minute sings are offered as an aid to worship and as an opportunity to grow in the musical heritage of the Lutheran Church. During these sessions, the participants become better acquainted with the hymns and liturgy so that their musical worship becomes more meaningful.

The "hymn sings" began on Sunday, January 24 and continued through Sunday, February 28, under the direction of Carl Munzel, organist and choir director, and Mrs. Alan Harre, wife of the St. James' Vicar.

Harper Auxiliary Slates Meeting

Harper Hospital Auxiliary's fourth meeting of the 1964-65 season is scheduled next Monday, March 8, at 11 o'clock, in the Hospital's Centennial Room. A subscription luncheon will follow at 12 o'clock noon.

Election of officers will be an important part of this session. Dr. John R. McDonald, chief of the Department of Pathology and Research, will speak on the Paps Smear Test.

Park Firemen Petition For More Pay, Benefits

With the 1965-66 fiscal city budget in the offing, Park firemen submitted a petition to city officials on Monday, March 1, asking that the Park Fire Department be brought to the same level as the Detroit Fire Department regarding wages, longevity, holiday pay, shift differential and pension.

Recently, Park police petitioned for a similar request, that they be raised to the same level as their counterparts in the Detroit Police Department.

The Park firemen's petition points out the base pay of a fire fighter of their department is $6,509 a year. The same annual salary is also paid to the fire fighter driver and the fire engine operator.

The present annual pay of a corporal (a newly created rank), is $6,684; sergeant, $6,825; lieutenant, $7,551; captain, $7,551; and chief, $9,183.

Detroit pays its firefighters $7,000 a year; drivers, $7,365; operators, $7,691; (Detroit has no corporal ratings); sergeants, $7,691; lieutenants, $8,040; captain, $8,995; and chief, $10,798.

Under the proposed fiscal budget, the Park firemen are asking that the firefighters' base pay be increased to $7,000; driver, $7,000; operator, $7,365; corporals, $7,365; sergeants, $7,691; lieutenant, $8,040; captain, $8,995; and chief, $10,798.

Where Detroit firemen receive two percent of their pay, or a maximum of $150, from 11 years to through the 15th year of service; and four percent of pay, or a maximum of $300, from 16 years to retirement, the Park firemen, ask the same longevity, but on a different scale.

They request that each fireman with six to 10 years of service receive $100 in longevity pay; beginning in the 11th year through the 15th year, $200; and from the 16th year through retirement, $300.

Detroit firemen are granted eight holidays a year, and paid double time for actual hours worked; the Park, seven holidays, compensated with seven days off. Requested is that double time be paid for actual hours worked, rather than the days off.

Shift differential pay received by Detroit, is 10 cents an hour for those working the 4 p.m. to 12 a.m. shift; 15 cents an hour for those working the 12 midnight to 8 a.m. shift. The same is asked by the Park.

Detroit—City funded pension, minimum of 25 years service, maximum 60 years of age; maximum pension — approximately one-half of fireman's base pay. The Park—M.E.R.S. (Act #135)), benefits depend on earnings.

The local firemen propose that the Park establish its own pension fund to supplement the

ESU Members Hold Meeting

The Detroit Branch of The English Speaking Union held a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at the Country Club of Detroit. Joe LaHart, former Detroit radio personality, presented a program on the English language as an historical bond between Great Britain and the United States.

The title of his program was "1000 Years of Our American Heritage—the Gift of English Speech." He worked with the speaking voice, visual aids and music.

The president, Otis Walker, introduced Mr. LaHart.

Others seated at the speaker's table were Mark Stevens, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, John C. Ray, Mrs. Ward Detwiler, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Osius, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Watkins, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ewing, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Maguire and Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsey.

realization that if there is to be a disparity of salaries, a firefighter should receive higher compensation than his uniform counterpart, the police patrolman.

"On a broad economic basis, it is clear that the paramount problem is to make sure that both the firefighters and policemen receive fair recompense for their services to the community—an income level that will permit both firefighters and police patrolmen to bring up their families in dignity.

"Any effort that splits the long time cooperative relationship between policemen and firemen is apt to endanger the long run economic interest of each group—and that is the danger to each firefighter, each policeman and each community services."

Farms Harbor Dredging Study Ordered by Council

City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., was instructed by the Farms council on Monday, March 1, to investigate the possibility and the cost of dredging the Pier-Park Harbor, especially at the entrance to the main harbor and the large boat spaces.

The council took this action after debating a petition signed by seven sail boat owners, who complained that since the lake water level dropped, their boats could not get over lake bottom drifts.

Philip H. Jennings of 289 Mt. Vernon, who acted as spokesman for the boat owners, said that on two or three occasions, boats had to be dragged over the bars, in order to get in or out of the harbor.

He said that although the sailboat owners, whose crafts draw up to four feet of water, signed the petition, a number of power boat owners have expressed interest in having the dredging work done.

Members of the council pointed out that the lake level is on the rise, and that possibly by the time the boating season opens, dredging would not be necessary.

Bremer disclosed that a dredging firm has been hired by the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Crescent Yacht Club, to dredge their harbors, and the firm could probably be retained to do some work for the Farms.

He said that the company informed him that no contract would be undertaken for less than $3,700, because it would not pay to bring down its equipment. However, he said, since the firm is going to do work for the two clubs, it is placed in a good position as far as moving its equipment about.

The council decreed that the matter be brought up again at its first meeting in April.

Farms Council Honors Bodman

A resolution, honoring Councilman Henry Bodman II, for achieving the distinction of being chosen Detroit's Outstanding Young Man of 1964, was approved by the Farms council on Monday, March 1, and made an official part of the council minutes.

Bodman was awarded this distinction on February 17, and given the Distinguished Service Award by the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce.

The resolution was presented by Councilman Benjamin Warren, who read it aloud. The resolution reads:

"Whereas, Henry E. Bodman II was on February 17, 1965 designated Detroit's Outstanding Young Man of 1964, and given the Distinguished Service Award by the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce, and

"Whereas, this award had been presented annually since 1940 to young men who have made great contributions to their community, and

"Whereas, this award to Henry E. Bodman II brings honor to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms and to this Council, on which he is serving his second term.

"Now therefore, be it resolved that the Council of Grosse Pointe Farms hereby recognize the honor brought to this city and to this body by Henry E. Bodman II and hereby expresses its pleasure in the award made to him.

"Be it further resolved that this resolution be made a part of the official minutes of the council meeting of March 1, 1965, and that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared, be signed by the Mayor and Councilmen, and be delivered to Councilman Bodman."

The resolution was unanimously passed, Bodman abstaining, after which he expressed his appreciation for the council's gesture.

Perfect Scores Made in Math

Four Grosse Pointe High School seniors received a perfect score of 800 on the intensive math portion of the College Board Achievement Tests taken early in January.

They are Mitch Cumberworth, Roland Sherman, Peter Solenberger and Scott Tily. In addition to their perfect scores on the intensive math exam, Mitch achieved an 800 score on the chemistry test and Peter on the English composition test.

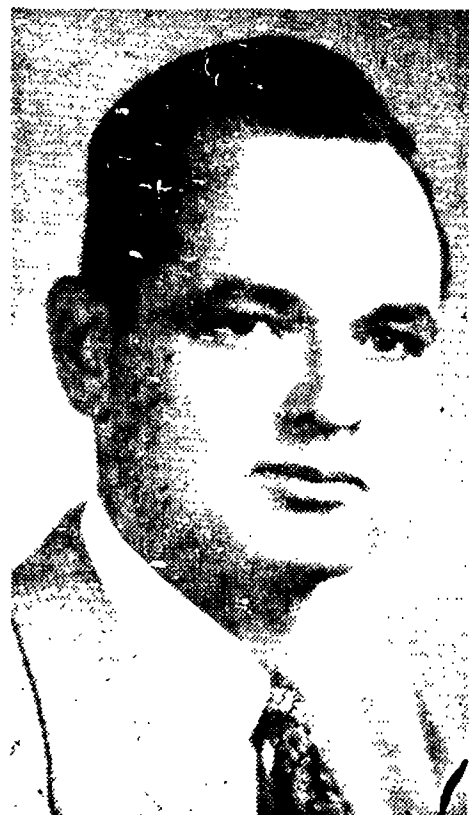

Other seniors who received a score of 750 or more in various divisions of the Achievement tests were: Richard Flagan, 756 in chemistry and 772 in math (intensive); Lee Haller, 769 in chemistry and 763 in math (intensive); Jill LePla, 779 in English composition; Richard Rhodes, 750 in chemistry; John Russell, 763 in math (intensive), and Daniel Skubick, 773 in math (standard).

In addition, Margaret Smothers achieved a 750 in American history and social studies; Robert Stanny, 773 in English composition; Kathryn Steyer, 754 in math (intensive), and Roland Sherman, 773 in English composition.

A total of 92 students took the Achievements Tests in 14 subject fields. Of that number, 54 scored 600 or more on at least one test.

Good Literature Council Meets

Mrs. Jacob Wenzel was hostess at the February meeting of the Better Literature for Youth Council, in her home in Cloverly road.

Two guests were present, Mrs. Martin Daner, and Mrs. Reginald Murphy, a former member who was returning from Hawaii, and was en route to her home in New York.

The March meeting of the executive board of the Council will be in the home of Mrs. Achiel Ames, 373 Kerby rd., on March 12, at 12:30 p.m.

Every man has a chance until he loses the value of a minute.

Parcells P-TA To Hear Panel

With the results of the voters' decisions on March 22, in mind, Parcells Junior High School P-TA is holding an important meeting in the school auditorium, Tuesday evening, March 9, at 8:15 o'clock. Although the interests of all Grosse Pointe children are involved in the outcome of this election, parents whose sons and daughters are presently attending Parcells, need no elaboration on the problems of a crowded school building.

Parents with children in school have a vested interest in future school accommodations. Many times, however, they are not as clearly informed as they desire as to just what the planning may be. Nor do they feel completely satisfied with how adequately they can meet questions of other citizens who approach them, seeking information.

To assist parents to become more completely informed about many aspects of the issues on the March 22 ballot, the Parcells P-TA executive board has planned a panel of three speakers to present and explain factors in the proposals made to the voters. Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools; Mrs. Alice M. Hykes, representing the Board of Education, and Ross A. Wagner, principal of Birmingham Sea Holm High School, constitute this panel presided over by Walter L. Griffith, Parcells' P-TA president.

Since the proposal of a second high school never has been presented to the voters, it was felt that much could be gained from Mr. Wagner's experience in Birmingham, where an overcrowding of their one senior high school necessitated a similar decision for a second high school. His background of the successful transition in Birmingham for one senior high school to two, was considered to qualify him as an excellent resource person for some areas of voters' questions.

It is expected that much of the meeting time will be used in discussion of questions which have been coming to the school and to the Board of Education, with active participation from the audience with questions from the floor.

For any parents who may wish a short conference with a staff member, teachers will be in their classrooms from 7:30 to 8:10 o'clock before the auditorium meeting.

To Review Year In New Zealand

A year in New Zealand will be reviewed and illustrated by Grosse Pointe exchange student Kathy Jens at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium this Sunday evening, March 7, at 8 o'clock.

The Grosse Pointe public is cordially invited to hear this charming young lady recount her experiences and see her excellent pictures. There is no charge.

Kathy was selected by the American Field Service to represent American youth in New Zealand from a large field of candidates. Essays and many interviews had to be hurdle before she won the chance to spend a year living in Christ Church homes and attending the girls' school there.

Kathy not only came to know Christ Church and its citizens intimately, she used every weekend and vacation to visit all parts of both the North and South Islands and study their natural beauties, their economy, and their people.

Kathy's pictures will show New Zealand's cities, her beaches, the fiords, the glaciers, and the thermal areas. The people she met and filmed include her foster families, schoolmates, distinguished persons such as the ambassador, and New Zealand's sheepherders and native Maori.

Pupils Observe Science Day

Fourteen Pointers were among the nearly 500 Detroit area students who commemorated the birthday anniversary of Thomas Alva Edison on Thursday, February 11, at a special program in Greenfield Village.

The occasion was also the 9th national Science Youth Day observance, which is timed each year to coincide with the birthday of the great inventor.

The students were selected by their schools because of their special interest in science programs. They were the guests of the Engineering Society of Detroit, Henry Ford Museum and 17 business and industrial firms during their stay at Greenfield Village.

Attending from the Grosse Pointe area were: Anne Brott of St. Paul; Patricia Day of St. Ambrose; Annette Cusack of Sacred Heart Academy; Kathleen Meico of Sacred Heart Academy; Kathleen Mooney of Our Lady Star of the Sea; Shirley Bodmer of St. Ambrose; Walter Griffith of Grosse Pointe High School; Ken Smits of Annunciation; and Sue Wyborski of Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Others were: Michael Jenkins of St. Ambrose; Wendy Geymann of Our Lady Star of the Sea; Robert Schonenberg of Grosse Pointe High School; and Daniel Wright and Nicholas Roberts, both of St. Paul.

Pvt. Claude Gonzales Takes Army Course

Library Offers Family Films

The sixth program of the 1964-1965 Family Film Night
Series will be presented Friday,
March 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. The films that night are designed for everyone in the family to enjoy.

The program will be outstanding. Two of the films were produced by Walt Disney. One offering is "Pigs is Pigs" (16 minutes, color) — the story of a railroad station master, who becomes the custodian of two guinea pigs. While the station master waits for instructions, the guinea pigs multiply at a fantastic rate, and soon overflow the entire station.

"Far East" (20 minutes, color) will take you to Thailand, Bangkok, Angkor-Vat, Phnom Penh, Hong Kong, and Oberden, city of 100,000 sampans. This will be a trip into the exotic sights of the Far East.

"Ben and Me" (16 minutes, color) tells of the exploits of Amos, the mouse, who becomes Ben Franklin's chief assistant.
(A Walt Disney production).

Adults, and children accompanied by adults, are cordially invited.

Library Friends Plan Art Series

If you would like to improve your understanding of what is good, or bad, in contemporary art — and why — you will welcome the new and exciting series of programs called "A Painter Looks at Contemporary Art," which begins Wednesday, March 17, at 8 o'clock at the Central Library.

This unusual idea was developed by the Fine Arts Committee of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, in response to much interest which has been expressed in modern art. The series will consist of four meetings on successive Wednesdays.

Robert Wilbert, assistant professor of art at Wayne State University, will lead the first three meetings. He will use slides, a movie, and his own demonstration drawings to illustrate the discussions. Mr. Wilbert is a working painter as well as a skillful teacher. He has exhibited widely, having had nine one-man shows in Michigan.

Mr. Wilbert's three discussion programs will cover representational and abstract paintings, good and bad. Works of the following artists, among others, will be examined: Wyeth, Miro,
Avery, Picasso, Du Buffet, de
Kooning, Hopper and Rothko.
Through the courtesy of the Donald Morris Gallery, original paintings by some of the artists will be on hand to give the discussions greater interest and meaning.

One of Detroit's well known art dealers will lead the fourth and final meeting in the series.
Donald Morris and his wife have dealt in 20th Century paintings in their gallery on Livernois for seven years, and his topic, "Art from the Dealer's Standpoint," will furnish a most interesting windup program. Mr. Morris will cover considerations in collecting; how you collect art; what is a collection; prices; what is high and low, and who buys art?

These programs are planned for limited attendance, since it is felt that an opportunity for questions and discussion will be important. A fee of four dollars will be charged for the series to help defray the cost of instruction and materials.

Tickets are available at the main desk at Central Library.
It is suggested that interested Grosse Pointers secure their tickets for the series well in advance of the first program,
Wednesday, March 17.

Churches Unite
For Services

Christ Church (Episcopal) and the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will unite for five Wednesday Night Lenten Meetings beginning next Wednesday.

After dinner served by the Women's Association of the Memorial Church, Dr. Lowell
Ditzen, Secretary of the National Presbyterian Church and Center, Washington D. C., will speak on "The Image of Ourselves".

Dr. Ditzon was the distinguished minister of the Bronxville (N.Y.) Reformed Church before assuming his present post in Washington. He is the author of several best-selling books on personal religion.

The question to be asked during the Wednesday night series is: "To what image of ourselves, of God, of our world, of the Church, and of our neighbor are we committed as Christians?"

Others in the series of speakers will be Dr. Hans Hoffman,
Professor of Psychology at Harvard Divinity School, Bishop Stephen F. Bayne, Dr. John Meister of the First Presbyterian Church, Fort Wayne, and William Stringfellow, distinguished lawyer and Episcopal layman.

Dinner reservations may be made through the Church office of either Church at $1.50 each. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the evening lecture will be at 7:30 with a service of prayer.

People like Earl Johnson. Married and father of a seven-year old daughter and nine-year old son. He wants them both to have a college education.

But with college costs rising every year, every dollar he saves must work harder.

At Manufacturers Bank, all savings earn 4% interest. The maxi-

SHOULDN'T HAVE BEEN THERE ANYWAY—The 14-inch snowstorm in Gary, Ind., worst in 26 years, put this little auto in an embarrassing position — parked illegally and stuck.

ONE POINT OF VIET NAM VIEW—In Chicago, Richard M. Nixon tells reporters that the administration should make full use of naval and air power—"short of atomic weapons"—to cut off all supplies from North Viet Nam to South Viet Nam, and in Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk tells reporters that the "crucial element" of any peace negotiations would be evidence that Communist North Viet Nam has decided to cease efforts to subvert and take over South Viet Nam.

FIRST WOMAN BOROUGH PRESIDENT—New York's Mayor Robert Wagner swears in Mrs. Constance Baker Motley as the first woman Manhattan Borough president at City Hall in New York. This makes her the highest paid woman public official in the nation's history at $35,000 a year. She is a former lawyer for the NAACP. Looking on are her husband Joel and son Joel Jr. Mrs. Motley was elected to the post at a special session of Manhattan's eight councilmen. She is a former state senator.

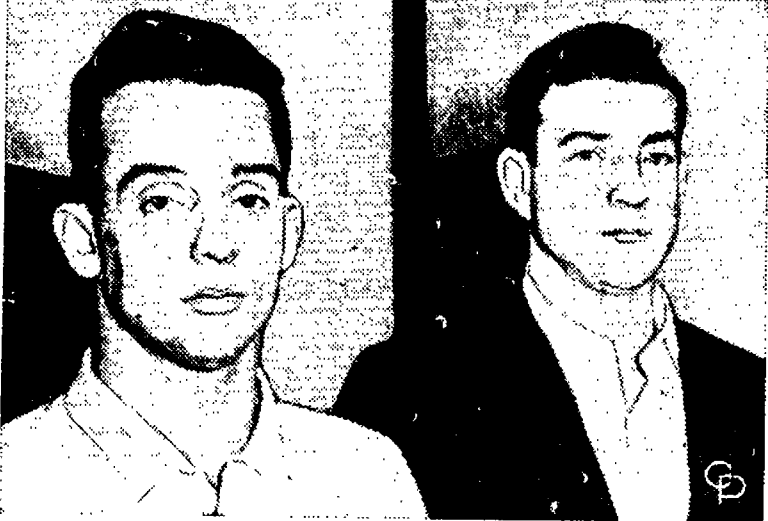

NO GOOD PARKING—Freezing rain put these cars right into the river from their parking place on the levee at Cincinnati, Ohio.

DOWN WITH UNCLE SAM, AGAIN—Steel-helmeted troops direct traffic and keep order in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia capital, following a letwing demonstration and attack on the U.S. Information Agency Library. The demonstration was a protest against U.S. air strikes in North Viet Nam. (Cablephoto)

WHAT NEXT, JOHNSON-BADER?—Sportscenter John (Fritz) Johnson, who says he cannot remember being Lawrence Bader of Akron, O., in 1957, leaves a hospital in Omaha, Neb., his wife Nancy by his side, after a week of psychiatric and medical examinations. The "Johnsons" have children, and back in Akron is his "Bader" wife with their four children, so what's next?

OOPS! SOMEBODY PHONED THE POLICE—James Daugherty (left) and Jerry Dillingham look a bit down on their luck in custody in San Francisco. All they were doing was robbing a bank, and it just happened that a teller phoned in to report she was ill, so word was whispered back that a robbery was in progress. When the pair emerged with a $27,000 haul, police were waiting. Daugherty and Dillingham escaped from the Canton City, Tex., lockup Feb. 7.

ALLERGIC TO FOOD—Kody Lynn Morris sits on her mother's lap in Kennewick, Wash., eating the only food she can—pot from Hawaii. She's allergic to everything else to eat. Kody, daughter of Marine Lt. Philip Morris, was born prematurely in Hawaii, and right away it was found that she could tolerate only poi and tea. Poi is a fermented paste made from the starchy taro root which grows in the islands.

"What's wrong with a mother wanting to have her child with her?" exclaims Anna Kashfi to friend Jim Terry on leaving Superior Court in Santa Monica. She's on probation.

WINS A ROUND—The somewhat lurid child custody battle between actor Marion Brando, shown outside Superior Court in Santa Monica, Calif., with his sister, Mrs. Frances Loving, and actress Anna Kashfi winds up for now with him having custody of 6-year-old Christian Devi for the next six months, but with the boy living with the sister on a farm, away from both parents. Miss Kashfi is on probation for that period, subject to treatment by neurology and psychology specialists. The 40-acre Loving farm is in Mundelein, Ill.

DISJOINED, DOING O.K.—The Webber twins, Karen (left) and Kimberly, born joined from chest to abdomen in Houston, Tex., are doing fine after the five and a half hour operation to separate them. Nurse is Pat Hazeiring. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Webber of Bay City, Tex.

LT. GEN. TRAN THIEN KHIEM, 40, in whose favor the latest South Viet Nam uprising came about, is shown (left) in his Washington home, where he is the troubled nation's ambassador. Target of the uprising is strongman Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh (right). Said Khiem in Washington, "I am held in high esteem in the army."

SECS APPEAL—Marni Denne, 18-year-old University of Wisconsin coed from Palos Park, Ill., holds a sheaf of photographs of men students used by Glenn Weisfeld (left) and Michael Rappaport in their date arranging business, called SECS, for Scientific Evaluation and Compatibility Service. They collect characteristic and trait information on students, and pair them off at a dollar a date in Madison.

STARTS AT TOP—Charles Lee Wigginton wears bank robbery handcuffs in Atlanta, Ga., at 18, a tender age for jobs like that. He was arrested by the FBI in Atlanta while trying to buy a car four hours after the Citizens Bank of Ball Ground, Ga., was robbed.

IN FBI NET—Leo Enrico Casale, 24, looks none too happy as he is led into federal court in Chicago for arraignment on a basketball game fix charge. The FBI says Casale offered two Seattle U. players $2,000 to shave points Jan. 22 in a game with the U. of Idaho. Players named are Peller Phillips, 23; Edwin Williams, 21.

"MASSIVE STROKES"—Academy Award winning actress Patricia Neal, shown in her role as Dr. Cartwright in "Seven Women," is in UCLA Medical Center after suffering "two massive strokes" in her home on returning from a Hollywood studio.

St. Clare Falcons Little Cage Champions

St. Clare's Falcons downed St. Matthew's Maudraiders 39-28, Saturday, to capture the Detroit Parks and Recreation Class D South Division basketball championship.

The victory qualifies the Grosse Pointe team for tonight's league championship game against North Division monarch, St. Bartholomew. Game time is 8 o'clock at Burroughs Junior High School, St. Clair at Georgia.

The Falcons led all the way in gaining the playoff victory. The two teams had ended the regular season tied with 8-2 records, forcing the extra game.

Quarter scores were: 9-7, 18-13, and 28-19, in favor of St. Clare. Joe Varty topped the winners with 12 points. Tom Rojeski and Mike Rahaim netted 10 apiece for St. Matthew.

Little League Calls Meeting

Grosse Pointe Park Little League will hold its annual pre-season meeting for players and their parents at 8 p.m., Wednesday, March 10, in the auditorium of Pierce Junior High School.

Plans for the 1965 season will be announced, including the try-out dates and opening day. A sports film will also be shown.

Boys planning to participate in this year's program are asked to bring their registration forms with them to the meeting. Parents are requested to bring their volunteer and contribution slips.

The registration forms and slips were distributed earlier this week by mail and through the cooperation of the Grosse Pointe School District.

More than 500 boys are expected to enroll in the Park's Little League this year. Two additional minor league teams will be added to accommodate the increase in players.

Boys who are residents of Grosse Pointe Park and who were born between August 1, 1952, and July 31, 1956 (both dates inclusive)—are eligible for the league.

Players and parents wishing additional information may call Arthur H. Getz, president of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League, at 821-7274.

Babe Ruth Loop Set to Register

Registration for the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth Baseball League will be held at Parcels School on Monday, March 15, from 7 to 9 p.m., and on Saturday, March 20, from 10 a.m. to noon.

Contracts for 1965 have been mailed to former players still eligible to play in the league. New boys may obtain information by calling the publicity chairman of the league, Bernard C. Scherrer, of 1948 Prestwick Road, Tuxedo 1-8326.

Farms Boaters Meet Monday

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club has scheduled its first meeting of the season next Monday, March 8, at 8:15 o'clock, in the Farms Waterfront Park at the foot of Moross road, on Lake St. Clair.

All members are urged to attend this session. Boat well applicants also are asked to attend.

Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback and members of his staff will discuss the Lake Patrol and boat owners' safety.

Banquet Given By Cub Scouts

The ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries auditorium was alive with sound and color on Thursday evening, February 11, when Cub Scouts of Pack 74 and their families celebrated the 55th anniversary of Scouting in America at the annual Blue and Gold banquet.

Highlight of the evening's entertainment was the appearance of Mel Snyder, "The Balloon Man." He delighted his audience by fashioning dozens of balloons into animals, bugs and hats. The program also included community singing and the presentation of awards for Cubbing advancements by Roger McCaig, awards chairman.

Den 6 was awarded the "Blue and Gold" trophy for the highest number of awards for the month. Doug Smith accepted the trophy for the den.

Committee chairman, Charles E. Johnson, thanked his committee for the fine job done thus far this year.

The Den Mothers were also congratulated for concluding a very successful first half of the year. They were: Mrs. William Montgomery, Mrs. G. H. Detwiler, Mrs. B. J. McLachlan, Mrs. Neil Talmage, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. Charles E. Mosher and Mrs. Edwin Peabody.

Babe Ruth Boys Will Register

Farms-City-Park Babe Ruth President Minard Mumaw again asks that all 13 through 15-year-old boys wanting to play baseball this summer come to the High School Auditorium with their parents Tuesday March 9 at 7:30 p.m. to register.

Those who played last year in this league need not bring their birth certificates. Those who are registering in this league for the first time must have their State registered birth certificates. Baptismal papers, etc., are not considered adequate by National Babe Ruth Rules.

At the registration two excellent films are scheduled. One covers the 1964 World Series and the other covers our Detroit Tigers and is called "The Tiger Wins His Stripes."

Like all organizations for young adults, parent participation is a must. If it is to have a successful season, it needs all the adult help it can get. Boys in the 13 to 15-year-old group are at the stage where parents are getting the last real chance to be close to them. Volunteers for many jobs that need doing, should call or write Minard Mumaw, Fred Critchfield, Bill Tankhurst, George Wilson or Bill Stuck.

If for any reason you do not feel you will be able to make this registration please call or see Carl Cumberly, 907 University, Tuxedo 2-0784.

Pointe Theater Offers Comedy

March 19 falls on a Friday, but it will be "Sunday In New York"—at least on the stage at Fries Auditorium where the Grosse Pointe Theater will open its third play of the season.

The delightful comedy by Norman Krassna, author of many popular Broadway and motion picture hits including the recent success, "Barefoot in the Park," was first produced on Broadway in 1961 by David Merrick, and later appeared as a popular movie starring Jane Fonda and Rod Taylor.

The GPT production, to run six performances March 19, 20, 21 and 25, 26, 27, is under the direction of Jack Petz of Lakepointe avenue. Producer is Beverly Hertz of Moross road; stage manager, Harry Stult of Rivard boulevard; costume chairman, Margaret Reed of Ridge road.

A comedy of love, youth, and the amusing problems of both, "Sunday In N.Y." deals hilariously with a boy, a girl, and a rainy Sunday afternoon in the city. A protective older brother and a fiancée from back home who turns up unexpectedly add complications to the situation.

Featured in the cast are Grosse Pointers Carole Kennedy of McKinley avenue, as Eileen Taylor; Walter Lowe of Ellair place as Mike Mitchell; and Robert Yeager of 1315 Yorkshire road as the fiancée, Russ Wilson.

Some reserved seats are still available for the Sunday and Thursday performances. Curtain time on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday is 8:30 p.m., Sunday 7:30 p.m. Ticket information may be obtained by phoning TU 4-2710.

Post-Blizzard Ruminations

Much-deserved accolades have been heaped on Grosse Pointe for the job the five municipalities did in snow-clearance following last Wednesday night's and Thursday's record-setting storm. Even radio and TV made modest salaams in our direction, saying that of all the suburban areas The Pointe did the best in freeing the public from the manacles of the blizzard. Most of the praise, as is befitting, came from the residents themselves—especially those whose occupations took them into Detroit or other areas, thus giving them a sound basis for comparisons.

It was interesting to listen to the comments...praises...criticism...during the first two or three days following the big storm. The City of Grosse Pointe came in for the initial real burst of cheers. The streets and sidewalks in The Village were completely cleared of snow, providing an unbelievable oasis of joy for shoppers in the midst of the snowy desert. Then the Farms got its roar of applause. Even though the street and walks On-The-Hill were pretty much of a mess, both Friday and Saturday, there was much appreciation for the fact that the big lot was cleared and it was possible to park in comfort before striking out on one's own. That started the argument...which is the smartest move...to clean off the parking lots or the streets and walks first?

But while all the yakking was in progress, so were the crews...making steady progress towards the goal of getting The Pointe's whole show back on the road, as quickly as possible. Before the week ended, parking lots, streets and walks in both business and residential area were in amazingly good shape. It was a remarkable accomplishment and the community is much indebted to all those who took part in the herculean task.

The big storm was not without its pathos, humor and endearment. We nominate for the saddest individual who endured the most harrowing experience, the poor soul who contracted flu during Wednesday night. When he awoke from fitful slumber and found himself completely snowbound in addition to being ill, he screwed up his courage, adjusted his thinking, and decided to make the best of things. As long as he couldn't be a hero and drag his sick self to work he might as well make life as endurable as possible. A day in bed, four or five drinks and some reading would certainly make the ordeal more endurable. He bellowed weakly for his wife and put in his pathetic plea...to be brought the first of the anticipated libations. Imagine his complete horror when he was informed there wasn't a drop of anything in the house. He had forgotten to replenish his stock, the liquor store was a mile away, he didn't know any of his close neighbors well enough to ask for help, his car was garage-bound in the blizzard and walking any distance was out of the question. He closes his sad lament with the statement: "Right then I really became desperately ill!"

And our vote for the meanest man in town goes without contest to the cheap character who had made a pre-season contract with the young son of his next-door neighbor...75 cents for shoveling a light or medium snow off his walk and garage entrance...one dollar for a heavy snow. When along came the blinger that broke all records for the last 36 years, this so-and-so held the poor kid to the contract. He is reported to have sat in the window for three and a half hours, smugly watching the struggling youngster fulfill his part of the bargain, following which he shelled out one single single. What a businessman...what a louse!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: March 1, 1965.

I wonder if anyone has called your attention to the groups of High School students who, during the two days of heavy snow and closed schools, were very active in both the lower village and on the hill. Innumerable motorists, trapped in the heavy snow at curbs, are grateful to the young people who literally "put their shoulders to the wheel" saving them both time and towing fees.

One group of nine volunteered to help a bus stuck at an intersection, others sought out friends and neighbors and shoveled their walks and driveways. In many instances payment was offered but waved off with a cheerful—"Just vote yes for the new High School."

May we be as quick to praise as to criticize?
Sincerely,
Joanne D. Zinn

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

In the January 1965 issue of TOP OF THE NEWS (published by the American Library Association) there is an interesting article by Helen Wilmott, entitled: "YASD asks the Young Adult" (YASD) meaning the Young Adult Services Division.

A simple questionnaire was submitted nationally to senior high school students who were leaders in various groups, such as sports, honor societies, etc. The purpose was to find out what books had particularly influenced them; the answers would be especially significant since these were students high in leadership qualities. (Interestingly enough, answers were also received from many "followers.")

The replies received brought out three salient points, indicating that young adults are primarily concerned with three areas: First was the individual—his growth, personality and philosophy. The second showed an interest in social problems and social responsibility. The third indicated an awareness and sense of responsibility for the world the adolescent lives in, both on national and international level. In summarizing the survey of one school, the spokesman found the predominant influences mentioned were prejudice, social justice and personal responsibility. Also, there was a growing awareness among these youngsters of the general unrest in the South.

And now what were the books mentioned by these young people? Top books selected by those in the leader groups were, in order, THE BIBLE, TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD, by Harper Lee, GONE WITH THE WIND, by Margaret Mitchell, THE UGLY AMERICAN, by William Lederer, 1984, by George Orwell, EXODUS, by Leon Uris, BLACK LIKE ME, by James Griffin, LORD OF THE FLIES, by William Golding, ANIMAL FARM, by George Orwell, BRAVE NEW WORLD, by Aldous Huxley, CATCHER IN THE RYE, by J. D. Salinger, PROFILES IN COURAGE, by John F. Kennedy, and GRAPES OF WRATH, by John Steinbeck.

In the non-leadership group many of the same titles were mentioned (with the BIBLE again being number one). Some titles included here, but not in the first group, were: THE GOOD EARTH, by Pearl Buck, DIARY OF A YOUNG GIRL, by Ann Frank, DEATH BE NOT PROUD, by John Gunther, and JANE EYRE, by Charlotte Bronte.

One boy in Wyoming felt he had been more influenced by the U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT than by any book. One girl chose WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY (and certainly a good choice for any one, at that!). A New York boy included Shakespeare's MACBETH. (We hate to admit it but one inclusion was for a Tarzan comic book, read by the West Virginia boy at the age of five!). Other interesting individual choices were: THE PROPHET, by Kahlil Gibran, THE ROBE, by Lloyd C. Douglas, NOBODY KNOWS MY NAME, by James Baldwin, RABBIT IN ARMS, by Kenneth Roberts, and UNCLE TOM'S CABIN, by Harriet Beecher Stowe.

For those of us who are librarians, especially those who deal directly with Young Adults, this article is provocative and sobering. It gives us a deeper insight into the inner workings of the adolescent mind, and makes our job of providing good books for them infinitely more challenging. They are our citizens of the future who will be controlling our world; let us do our very best not to fail them. With the multiple complexities they face, they certainly need all the help they can get!

Our two Young People's Librarians, Barbara Harrison and Ada Booth, have prepared a reading list entitled: "Turning Points" based on this article; it is available at all three of our libraries. Exhibits with colorful book jackets will also be on display at the Central Library as well as at the Park and Woods Branches. We hope that young and old alike will stop and look, pick up a copy of our list, and do some supplementary reading. You realize, of course, that these books can be read profitably by adults as well!

As for me, I've suddenly realized that there are some on this list that I've never read—and some that I would like to re-read. So here we go. I hope there's still a George Orwell on the shelf!

- 8:00 p.m.—Fine Arts Society. Rehearsal.

Parents Hear Armin Grams

Dr. Armin Grams, child psychologist and member of the staff of Merrill Palmer, was the speaker at an evening meeting at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Tuesday, February 16. The meeting, sponsored by the Memorial Cooperative Nursery, was attended by parents whose children participate in various local cooperative nurseries.

Dr. Grams explored with characteristic insight the subject: "Developing Responsibility in Children."

Dr. Grams underscored today's need for more responsible people than ever before. The increased pace in education demands a more self-reliant student; the contemporary employer seeks employees with dedication and purpose; and above all the state of world affairs, including the daily threat of "the bomb," makes manifest the pressing need for responsible handling of man's new and vast powers.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Great Blizzard kept gardeners home last Friday from the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's first Spring (HA!) Lecture.

But tomorrow, snow gone we hope, the second speaker in the series will appear as scheduled, at 11 o'clock, in Fries Auditorium.

Miss Marie Louise Anderson, who is staffing the Garden Center Room this month while Mrs. Leland Gilmore vacations in the south, will accept reservations this morning, after 10 o'clock, for the subscription luncheon following the lecture.

Friday's speaker will be Marshall Engle, greenhouse supervisor and flower arranger at Greenfield Village.

Mr. Engle will discuss "How to Start Plants in Spring." A graduate of the Ken Soules School of Design, he has been in charge of Greenfield Village flower growing and arranging for 13 years.

In the Henry Ford Museum he arranges dried and fresh flowers in period settings for the three-century decorative arts galleries, as well as plant decoration for the streets of Early American Shops and the Mechanical Arts Hall.

Herb gardens, Victorian gardens and many others all come under his jurisdiction.

Incidentally, the Garden Center Room is now open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, from 10 until 4 o'clock, and on Friday afternoons.

Debate Ends Series

For its final program of the 1964-65 lecture series at the Esquire Theater next Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock, Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League departs from precedent and presents TWO celebrities.

James A. Burkhart and Fulton Lewis, III, will debate under the general title, "Revolt on the Campus."

Assistance League members plan to gather at the hospital Monday for their monthly meeting.

Chief topic of conversation will probably be next season's Celebrity Series speaker slate, headed by a St. Paul's on the Lakeshore was the setting for the Saturday marriage of Mary Susan Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Joseph Duffy, Jr., of Handy road, and Francis Fillmore Stanton, II.

Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips officiated at the 12:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of crystal white peau de soie, styled with an Empire bodice featuring pearl-frosted Alencon lace, a controlled A line skirt and removable Court train.

Her veil of Brussels princess lace fell from an ivory silk zuchetto, blessed by the late Pope Pius XII.

She carried an arrangement of stephanotis and small white roses.

Denise Duffy served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. R. Patrick Duffy, Mrs. Wallace G. Harper, the bride's cousin, Sharon Stanton, the bridegroom's sister, Peggy Scott and Mrs. Harry Lewis.

They wore long Empire frocks of larkspur blue lace and chiffon, with matching Dior bows in their hair.

Their flowers were small bouquets of white Fuji mums and ivy. Flower girl Deborah Duffy, sister of the bride, wore a dress similar to those of the adult attendants, with a lace bonnet, and carried a basket of flowers.

Peter Stanton acted as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fillmore Stanton, of Painesville, O.

In the usher corps were R. Patrick Duffy, brother of the bride, Dennis G. Link, of Painesville, O., Patrick O'Connor, of Washington, D. C., John J. Hurley, Jr., of Mentor, O., and Thomas F. Conley, of Dayton, O.

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the rites. Mrs. Duffy greeted her guests wearing a jade green brocade coat and dress costume, with a matching hat.

Mrs. Stanton chose an azure blue brocade suit, complemented by a print, beaded challis turban. Both mothers wore white orchids.

For traveling to Nassau and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the bride donned a white costume suit with a Kelly green silk blouse.

The newlyweds will make their home in Washington, D.C., where Mr. Stanton is working as an aide to Congressman William Stanton, of Painesville, O.

Among out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's paternal grandmother, Mrs. F. M. Stanton, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Painesville, O.; the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Herr, Sr., of Lake Worth, Fla.; and Congressman William Stanton, of Washington, D.C.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. James Cochran, of Hacketts-town, N. J.; and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Drabenstott and their daughter, Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Carr, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Wey and Patricia Pohl, all of Painesville.

DR. WALTER H. SEEGERs, of Notre Dame avenue, has received a grant from the U.S. Public Health Service, National Institute of Health to continue his studies on prothrombin, a clotting factor in the blood. Dr. Seeger, a noted blood researcher, is professor and chairman of physiology and pharmacology in the School of Medicine at Wayne State University. Dr. Seeger's grant was for $52,949.

ENSIGN JAMES R. FLOWERS recently spent a few days with his parents, MR. and MRS. JAMES C. FLOWERS, of York-shire road, after receiving his commission from the U.S. Naval School, Pre-Flight N.A.S. Pensacola, Fla. Ensign Flowers is a graduate of Austin Catholic Preparatory School and John Carroll University, Cleveland, O. where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in social science.

The FRANKLIN LORENTZENs, who recently moved from Balfour road, will entertain the Musicales Art Club today, February 25, in their new home in Ida lane, east. Mrs. Lorentzen, who is active in music circles, is past president of the club and presently an officer in the Detroit Tuesday Musicales.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD C. RONEY, JR., (Peggy Couzens), of Stephens road, announce the birth of their sixth son, MARK ANDREW, January 13.

MARIANNE MORAN, daughter of MR. and MRS. FRED T. MORAN, of Hampton road, has achieved honors at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., for academic work done last semester. Marianne, a sophomore at Wells, is a graduate of the Liggett School.

Spode Valencia

Throughout history the grapevine has been an important decorative motif. Nowhere has it been treated more delicately than in the work of the late 18th Century English silversmiths and Spode artists. In old Spode blue, painted with an early green, this grape border of Valencia adds interest to the flutings and basket weave embossing of the Chelsea Wicker shape. Valencia is an 18th Century design with modern simplicity and is correct for any period.

Joy Tallerico Speaks Vows To Mr. Brady

Reception at Whittier Follows Noon Rites; Newlyweds Travel to Nassau and Caribbean; Will Live in Harper Woods

Joy Tallerico chose an Empire-waisted gown of off-white peau de soie, trimmed with Alencon lace and featuring a Watteau train, for her wedding Saturday, in St. Joan of Arc Church, to Lawrence John Joseph Brady.

A small mother-of-pearl crown held her elbow-length veil of off-white English illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of green cymbidium orchids and ivy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tallerico, of Hawthorne road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brady, of Littlefield street, Detroit.

Maid of honor Ann Versical wore a floor-length Empire-waisted moss green crepe frock with a matching pill box headpiece.

Dressed identically were the bridesmaids, Carol Kiswney, Lynn Barrie, Karen Darga and Pearl Bommarito. Their bouquets were fashioned of sansevieria and gardenias.

Patrick Brady served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Matthew Brady and Thomas Brady, brothers of the bridegroom. Louis Tallerico and John Peter Tallerico, brothers of the bride, and Brendan Doyle.

A dinner reception at The Whittier followed the noon ceremony. Mrs. Tallerico greeted her guests, wearing a gold silk faille ensemble, with matching accessories.

The bridegroom's mother chose a silver-colored three piece dress, with an embossed grey and green design, and a gardenia corsage.

For traveling to Nassau and the Caribbean, the bride chose a white wool suit with an aqua coat and accessories.

Upon their return, the newlyweds will make their home in Harper Woods.

ALWYNNE REESE has been elected secretary to the University of Detroit Evening College of Commerce and Finance Student Council. Miss Reese, who resides at 1821 Brys drive, is a senior accounting major. She is also a staff writer for the "See'n Eff", the college's newspaper.

The Council is composed of four students from each of the three U. of D. Commerce and Finance Evening Divisions organizations and four independent students appointed by the Dean.

Church Women Plan Program

Highlighting the March 9 program meeting of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will be the Rev. Merwyn W. Glandon, who is the Field Director of Christian Education in the Synod of Michigan.

Mr. Glandon has an impressive background in the field of Christian education, having served as Assistant Pastor and Director of Christian Education for the Normandy Presbyterian Church, St. Louis and for the Kennedy Heights Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati.

As the Minister of Christian Education in the Kennedy Heights Church, Mr. Glandon was especially active in the field of leadership development, establishing leadership recruiting and training for Christian Education teachers, leaders, and youth advisors, and in the expansion of Adult Education program.

Mr. Glandon served the St. Louis Presbytery as a member of the Christian Education Committee for four years. In Cincinnati, he has served as chairman of the Presbytery Camp Program Committee, and for three years, as general chairman of the Presbytery Christian Education Committee, and as a member of the General Council.

For the past eight years, Mr. Glandon has been a member of the National Association of Presbyterian Christian Educators and has participated in the Annual Conference.

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Walter R. McAdow. Leading the devotions will be Mrs. Hugh M. Brown.

Reservations for the 12:15 o'clock luncheon may be made with the church office by noon, Friday, March 5. Nursery care will be provided. Please call Mrs. Richard T. Heglin, (VA 1-9139), by noon, Monday, March 8 for reservations.

The Evening Group of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will meet for cancer pag sewing on Wednesday, March 10, at the home of Mrs. F. S. Robinson, in Lakepointe avenue, Detroit. Co-hostessing the meeting will be Mrs. R. J. Conway and Mrs. J. E. Finch.

The March 12 meeting of the Elizabeth Ketchum Group will be at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Lister in Loraine road. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Fred W. Adams. Please call Mrs. Lister at TU 5-4324 if unable to attend.

Kappa Delta Alumnae Will Meet March 10

Kappa Delta East Alumnae will gather next Wednesday evening, March 10, at 8 o'clock, at the Somerset road home of Mrs. Albert C. Tlusty.

There will be a flower arranging program, and a short business meeting, planned by vice president Mrs. E. Ward Sussex. Dessert will be served. Mrs. Tlusty's co-hostesses are to include Mrs. Lyle E. Eiserman and Mrs. John E. Washburn.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Washburn at 777-2109.

Stephens Grads To Share Talent

Members of the Lakeshore Stephens Alumnae Club will gather next Tuesday, March 9, at 8 o'clock, in the Maryland avenue home of Mrs. Louis A. Cerre, for a "Share Your Talents" evening.

All those attending have been asked to bring either a favorite recipe, (with samples), decorating tips, handicrafts, ideas on hobbies or just general house-keeping tips.

This intriguing and informative "exchange" should send everyone home with a score of new ideas and recipes to try. Co-hostess for the evening is Mrs. Thomas Coulter.

The Lakeshore group is planning an April luncheon, date and place to be announced later. Featured guest will be Margaret A. Witt, alumnae secretary of Stephens College.

AAUW Donates Library Money

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women has donated $50 to buy books for the library at the Ypsilanti State Hospital-York Woods Center, a facility for aiding mentally retarded children.

The Michigan Division of AAUW, working through the Legislative study groups of each local branch, has long concerned itself with mental health needs in the state and the York Woods Center is partly a result of this work.

Since the state appropriations supporting the Center did not provide funds for a library, Michigan AAUW undertook the project of supplying them.

In addition to the cash donation, the Grosse Pointe Branch also contributed a number of appropriate books selected prior to its Used Book Sale last fall.

In activities this week, members of the Grosse Pointe Branch will visit the "International-1965" art exhibit at the J. L. Hudson gallery at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday, March 10. This is the first year the famed exhibit of painting and sculpture from the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been shown outside of Pittsburgh.

Members and their guests who wish to visit the exhibit should call Mrs. Robert Bogan, 882-5266, to arrange for transportation.

Mrs. R. L. Shepard will provide basic instruction in the technique of painting with water color at the meeting of the Art Appreciation group at 9:30 o'clock Friday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. Lee Corless, in Roslyn road.

A new director has been obtained and the Choral group will reorganize at a meeting at 7:45 o'clock on Monday, March 8, at the home of Mrs. Emil Dauch, in Three Mile drive.

Mrs. Frank Thompson, of Fairholme road, will be hostess for the Board meeting at 9:30 o'clock Thursday, March 11.

Food Flair Course Offered at Center

War Memorial Cateress Helen Blair to Direct Classes and Give Demonstrations on Three Monday Nights Starting March 15

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's international dinners and unusual cuisine have attracted the attention of many Grosse Pointe home-makers and hostesses. For this reason, the Center is offering this month a course in unusual cookery with a distinct flair. It will be under the direction of the Center's Cateress, Helen Blair.

"Food Flair" will be offered on three successive Monday nights beginning March 15. The first evening will deal with al fresco dining where the group will receive recipes and see demonstrations of the preparation of special dishes appropriate for serving on patio, terrace, or lawn.

March 22, the subject will be "Emergency Entertaining" where tricks of advance "lay away" delicacies will be imparted. These are invaluable for wives whose husbands are known to bring home friends or business associates and their wives on the spur of the moment.

The final evening, Monday, March 29, will present favorite dishes from the international recipe book the Center has developed.

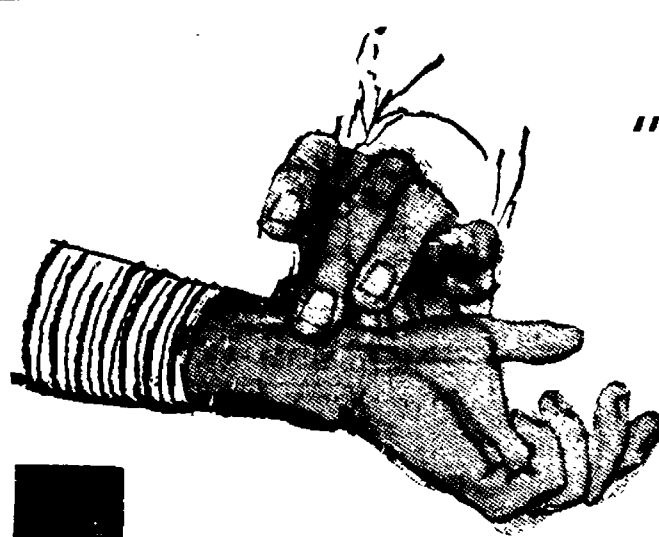

At each session class members will get recipes, see demonstrations, and in detail, have preparation of the dishes explained to them. They will also have the pleasure of tasting the principle dishes at the coffee hour afterward. The fee for the series is $7.50. Registrations are being taken at the Center office.

"DOCTOR KNOWS BEST..."

As American as pumpkin pie is the phrase, "Doctor knows best." We all remember this truism from childhood.

Yet, in this enlightened day, some people, relatively few in number, attempt to diagnose and treat their own illnesses — a dangerous practice to say the least.

Only your physician is qualified to diagnose and prescribe. When medication is required, our prescription department is equipped to serve your needs.

Lowry-Gibson Rites Celebrated Saturday

Grandmother's Pearls Used to Fashion Bride's Floral Headpiece; Pair to Live in Neff Road When They Return from North

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club followed the Saturday afternoon ceremony, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, at which Elizabeth Ann Gibson spoke her marriage vows to Samuel Newton Lowry, Jr.

Reverend George Whitney officiated at the 4 o'clock rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Reeve Gibson, of Harvard road, wore a floor length gown of ivory peau de soie, styled with a removable chapel train and a scoop-neckline, short-sleeved, pearl-embroidered Empire bodice.

TODAY'S TEEN GETS NEW HELP FOR ACNE

The 'on-the-go' teenager has a new ally in defeating the problems of Acne.

TASC — a new product on the drugstore shelves — will help the teenage group help themselves to rid their skin of the blotches and bumps caused by Acne. It's a simple program for a complex situation.

Acne — a common condition which professionally as Acne Vulgaris — responds readily to practical and conservative treatment.

Procedures specializing in skin problems emphasize 4 easy principals to follow: (1) Keep the skin reasonably clean and free of excess oiliness. (2) Rid the pores of plugs (blackheads). (3) Use appropriate agents to dry the fatty skin glands and remove dead skin. (4) Prevent recurrence.

All of the steps are available to the teenager in TASC. The booklet on Teen Age Skin Care in each package outlines a step by step program followed in the home.

TASC is a two-way program that multiplies itself to be effective in all 4 of the above mentioned principles. It's easy to clear your skin of unsightly blemishes — get TASC at your neighborhood drugstore and start today.

If you are suffering facial blemishes due to Acne, request a TASC instruction booklet from S. J. Tutag and Company, 19180 Mt. Elliot, Detroit, Michigan, 48234 — a manufacturer's special discount coupon worth 25c on your first purchase of TASC will be included. Act now!

A spray of flowers, fashioned of seed pearls which belonged to her grandmother, was pinned to the ivory silk toque which held her uncut ivory Pointe de Marguerite veil, selected in Venice.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy. Mrs. Stephen Richards served as her cousin's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Sally Lowry and Linda Lowry, sisters of the bridegroom, Bette Busby and Carol Kennedy.

They wore cameo ivory crepe-skirted gowns with moss green velvet Empire bodices, and matching pill box hats. Their flowers were yellow carnations, with ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Colonel and Mrs. Samuel Newton Lowry, of St. Petersburg, Fla., asked Jovite LaBonte to act as best man.

Ushering were Robert Flynn, David Leonard, John Evans, Antonio Tewes, Robert Daniel and Mark Cottling.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Gibson wore a seafoam green lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Lowry chose a dusty rose silk shantung costume, with matching accessories. Both mothers pinned orchid corsages to their handbags.

Upon their return from Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Neff road.

Shores WNF&G Meets Friday

Grosse Pointe Shores Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Club will meet at War Memorial Center on Friday, March 5, at 11 o'clock. After a short business meeting members and guests will attend the luncheon and lecture sponsored by the Pointe Garden Center.

WNF&G Ladies Show Exhibits

Michigan Division of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association is participating for the second year in the Flower and Garden Show of Michigan, Inc., being held at the State Fair Grounds Coliseum, February 27 through March 7.

Mrs. B. H. Bottom is the general chairman of the Flower Arrangement Exhibits, Garden Club Displays and Women's Activities of this all-horticulture show.

As a public service, Michigan Division again is displaying a garden and participating in a three-day exhibition of Flower Arrangements and Table Settings entitled, "Fun, Family and Flowers." On display are 12 exhibition tables, 12 arrangements on pedestals and 12 arrangements in large niches.

Mrs. Fred Trickey of Osage Branch is chairman of the Garden committee and chairman of the day for the Flower and Table exhibitions.

Members of four branches actively participated in creating the lovely "Garden of Today." The asymmetrically designed garden features "Jill," a beautiful fountain, placed in an elevated area surrounded by birch trees, pink azaleas and evergreens.

Bringing Spring to Michigan through their creative efforts are the following exhibitors: Mrs. L. Clancy Nanny, Mrs. Roland Postel, Mrs. Frederick Mueller, Mrs. Paul Machuga, Mrs. Guy Kola, Mrs. Wilson McClellan, Mrs. John Veech, Mrs. Byron C. Haase, Mrs. John C. Calhoun, Mrs. Earl Weston and Mrs. Lawson McKenzie.

GP Girl Scouts To Sell Cookies

The annual Girl Scout Sale, a sure sign of spring, begins tomorrow, March 5, and continues through March 14.

This year, there are five delicious cookie varieties: chocolate-coated mint, chocolate-coated peanut butter, chocolate-vanilla cream sandwich, lemon-lime cream sandwich and sugared shortbread.

Buyers who "can't decide" are urged to "Try all five in '65'." Sale proceeds go to the Girl Scout camping fund, to help maintain campsites and subsidize campers.

Pointe LWV Opposes Bill

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters opposes the county home rule bill recently introduced in the state legislature because it is too restrictive.

The Grosse Pointe League joins with five other Wayne County leagues and the League of Women Voters of Michigan in opposing the legislation which was prepared by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and introduced in the legislature on February 17.

"This bill negates the idea of 'home rule' because each county does not have the option to choose the type of government it wishes," said Mrs. Howard Hush, chairman of the Grosse Pointe League's committee studying county home rule.

The League's chief objections to the bill are that it requires a partisan election and requires the election of certain executive officials. Mrs. Hush noted that these factors limit the amount of freedom that each county has in establishing its own form of government.

When the Wayne County Board of Supervisors voted on the bill prior to presenting it to the legislature, six Grosse Pointe representatives opposed the bill because it did not allow enough flexibility for the counties. Mrs. Thomas Snelham, president of the League of Women Voters of Michigan, pointed out that the League is opposed to requiring the same form of government for all of Michigan's counties since they vary in size from 3,000 to 3,000,000 and therefore their requirements vary.

"Whatever home rule bill is adopted," she said, "should be flexible enough that any county of the state can work out the kind of government it needs to meet its individual circumstances." Mrs. Snelham cited areas in which counties would be restricted under the proposed bill. They include:

1. Counties would not be free to decide for themselves whether they wanted to elect their councils by districts or at-large.
2. Counties would not be free to choose which officials they want to elect. The bill would require them to elect six executive officials.
3. Each individual county would not be able to determine for itself whether it wanted partisan or non-partisan elections. Counties would be required to hold partisan elections.
4. Under the proposed legislation, the Charter Commission, (the body in each county which would establish the county's government structure), must be elected from districts on a partisan basis.

The new state constitution provides that people of any county may adopt a home rule charter form of government as an alternative to the traditional non-charter form. However, before any county can adopt home rule government, the state legislature must

Zonta Sponsors Spring Serenade

The Zonta Club of Detroit will present its fourth annual "Serenade to Spring" Thursday evening, March 11, at the McGregor Memorial Community Arts Auditorium of Wayne State University, at 8 o'clock.

The program being offered is divided into two parts.

The Detroit City Ballet Group, directed by Marjorie Hassard, will perform. The group is composed of local young people, and its program will feature excerpts from the popular classics.

The second part will feature the Continental Strings, conducted by Eddie Schick, in a very versatile program, consisting of a Continental Cruise, with selections representative of many foreign countries, and music from many foreign countries, and music from the more modern Broadway shows plus good old-timers from 'way back.

Proceeds from the Serenade to Spring go to Zonta's Annual Scholarship Funds, one for a woman graduate student at Wayne State University and one for the Amelia Earhart Scholarship in aeronautics, and to many other Service Projects.

Miss Margot Pearsall is chairman of the Ways and Means committee which sponsors the annual Serenade to Spring. Miss Katherine Harris is president of the Detroit Zonta Club.

Tickets are $2.50, and may be obtained by calling Geneva Shier at TA1bot 5-3737.

Student tickets at $1.25 are available to those attending college or High School.

eligible to serve on the Charter Commission: 5—that filing for election would be by petition; and 6—that salaries for commissioners should be adequate, reasonable time should be allowed for completion of their work, and adequate operation funds should be provided.

Annual Meeting Held By Visiting Nurses

The annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse Association of Metropolitan Detroit was held on Thursday, February 11, at the Association's headquarters in Downtown Detroit.

President Mrs. Robert O. Varnum and executive director Sylvia R. Peabody reported on the year's work.

New officers, elected at the session, include president, Paul R. Trigg, Jr., first vice president, Mrs. B. Courtney Rankin, second vice president, Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, and third vice president, Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard.

Thomas E. Coulter will serve as secretary. Mrs. John B. Greene as assistant secretary. E. E. Pollock as treasurer and John B. Watkins as assistant treasurer.

Re-elected to the Board of Trustees were A. W. L. Brown, Mrs. Edgar B. Flint, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Earl L. Heenan, Jr., Mrs. Gilbert B. Pingree, Mrs. B. Courtney Rankin, Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, Mrs. Gordon H. Scott, Mrs. Robert C. Varnum and Mrs. William J. Wentz. Among new trustees is Pointer Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, III.

A bull weighing about 2,000 pounds will eat as much as 200 pounds of grass a day.

Lorin Hollander With Symphony

Pianist Lorin Hollander will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock on Thursday, March 4, and Saturday, March 6, at Ford Auditorium. Sixten Ehrling will conduct.

Hollander will perform Prokofiev's Concerto for Piano and Orchestra No. 5. The orchestral portions of the program include Sibelius' En Saga, Liszt's Les Preludes, and a world premiere performance of Flanagan's Narrative for Orchestra.

Hollander, a youthful 20-year-old, is noted for his mature interpretations. He has performed with most of the major American orchestras.

Michigan-born composer William Flanagan was commissioned by The Detroit Symphony Orchestra to compose a work in honor of its Golden Anniversary. Flanagan's Narrative for Orchestra is the result.

Tickets at all prices are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office and at all Grinnell's stores.

Prepare for Basket Bazaar

MRS. ALEXANDER WESCOTT, of Devonshire road, (left), president of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of Women of Wayne, and MRS. CHARLES HUBER of Lakepointe avenue, prepare wares for a Basket Bazaar, scheduled St. Patrick's Day, March 17, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Hospitality House in Kercheval avenue. Mrs. Wescott and Mrs. Huber will demonstrate the many possible ways to use and decorate baskets. Proceeds from the evening sale will go to the Wayne State University Scholarship Fund.

Garden Club Plans Meeting

The Grand Marais Garden Club will meet next Monday, March 8, in the Devonshire road home of Mrs. Edward Harrigan.

Speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. John Veech, a member of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club, who will discuss "What a Judge Looks For" in judging arrangements at flower shows.

Assisting Mrs. Harrigan as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Edward Biederman and Mrs. Arthur O. Schmidt.

UN Benefit Premier Scheduled March 9

Mrs. Joseph Vance, Jr., is Local Project Chairman; Detroit Chapter, United Nations Association Sponsoring Film Evening

The premier of the Biblical spectacular, "The Greatest Story Ever Told," is scheduled for Tuesday, March 9, at Detroit's Cinerama Music Hall.

All ticket proceeds will be donated to the United Nations Association and the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation—organizations certainly in keeping with the spirit of the film.

National patrons are President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. National chairman is the Honorable Adlai E. Stevenson, United Nations Ambassador to the United Nations.

Locally, the benefit chairman is Mrs. Joseph Vance, Jr. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell.

Assisting them are Mesdames John W. Anderson, II, Russell Bauer, Walker Cisler, Charles A. Dean, Jr., Frank Colombo, Martin Hayden, David W. Kendall, C. Bradford Lundy, Jr., James Quello, Jack Sinclair, Victor Wertz and Wilber Brucker, Jr.

Mark Stevens, Detroit president of the United Nations Association, observes: "Promoting understanding of the United Nations, its problems and diverse programs, grows daily more vital. I urge everyone who possibly can to attend this premier to support organizations devoted to promoting peace, health and world awareness."

One of the chief reasons for the failure of the League of Nations was lack of public understanding and support. To prevent this happening again the United Nations Association was founded 20 years ago as an educational organization to fortify the United Nations.

Its purpose is to promote the widest possible support, understanding and appreciation of the problems and the programs of the UN. Also the UNA recommends policies to make the United States membership in the UN effective.

Each UNA chapter is a distribution center providing regular bulletins, speakers and information to those anxious to know about the tremendous variety of UN activities.

The UNA is the only national, non-governmental organization devoting its entire program to building strong, effective public opinion in support of the UN.

UN Associations exist in 50 other countries. Membership is $5 yearly.

Ladies And Causes

Give a lady a cause she can believe in, and NOTHING, (short of an Act of God), will stop her from shouting her cause from the rooftops.

Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, of Woodland place, is currently rousing the country-side to protect the view from George Washington's Mount Vernon mansion.

President Johnson has declared his intent to make the Potomac River a model for the nation in terms of scenic beauty and recreational use, and Piscataway Park has been authorized by Congress to preserve the view from the home of our first President.

Unfortunately, this project has languished since 1961 for lack of funds.

Mrs. Wiener and other members of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, custodians of George Washington's home for over a century, are asking all citizens to join them in urging lawmakers to provide the necessary funds.

Mrs. Donald T. Galvin, Jr., of McKinley place, reports on her favorite "cause," the Detroit Music Settlement School, at every opportunity.

The School moved from its old rented home in East Grand Boulevard to larger, more adequate quarters in East Kirby street January 29.

The move seems like "a dream come true." Fund-raising, always difficult, became an almost insurmountable obstacle when United Community Services discontinued its support in 1962, but generous benefactors saw to it that the school remained open.

When the need for a new school became apparent, a Building Drive was started.

Now the Music Settlement School, outgrowth of a program to teach music to underprivileged children in the Detroit Metropolitan area started in 1926 under the patronage of Mrs. Edsel Ford, has a new home.

But funds are still needed, for musical instruments, furniture, "a good record player," a parking lot . . . Mrs. Galvin will tell you all about it.

Colonial Dames To Meet

Mrs. William H. Herbert, Mrs. Ames W. Howlett, Mrs. William N. Miller and Mrs. George A. Nicholson will assist Mrs. James Vernor Davis in entertaining members of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in the State of Michigan at luncheon tomorrow. The group gathers at 12 o'clock, at Mrs. Davis' Beacon Hill home. Miss Mary Woodruff will act as sherry hostess.

Mrs. John G. Garlinghouse, chairman of the Patriotic Service Committee, will introduce speakers Dr. Alfred H. Kelly and James Flack.

Dr. Kelly, head of the History Department at Wayne State University, will discuss the Wayne Fellowship program. Mr. Flack, current recipient of the Society's annual History Graduate Fellowship, will speak on his special interest in American History.

Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Society president, will conduct a short business meeting at the program's conclusion. Four members of the Board of Managers will be selected, to serve from 1965 to 1968.

The engagement of HARRIET JEAN SPALDING to James Churchill Hanchett has been announced.

Miss Spalding is the daughter of Mrs. Edward D. Spalding, of South Edgewood drive, and the late Dr. Spalding. She attended Walnut Hill School and was graduated from Wellesley College. She is a member of Sigma Gamma Association. She is currently working in New York City.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold C. Hanchett, of Syracuse, N.Y., was graduated from Mount Hermon School and Cornell University, where he affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He is currently working in New York City.

A May wedding is planned, after which the couple will vacation in England. They will make their home in New York City.

Matinee Music Group To Meet

Members of Matinee Musicale will gather at the Grayton road home of Mrs. W. H. Burleigh today. Mrs. Thomas Roach is co-hostess.

Folk music is to be the program topic. Performers will include Miss Arlene Closson, Mrs. William Lyon and Mrs. Sidney Dorsey.

Some call it luck, but it's usually the man with the most push who gets the most pull.

Center's Club For Teens Open

"The Other Side," senior high and prep night club at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, will open its doors again this Friday, March 5, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Again, "Key Cards" for admission may be purchased in advance by those wishing to be sure they will get in. For, when the club gets crowded, a "full house" sign will be placed on the door and no more will be admitted.

Two bands will play continuously throughout the evening in different locations. They will be Jack Louisell and his six-piece "Underdogs" and "The Liberators," a five-piece combo. As usual, the snack and drink bar will be open continuously on the main floor of the club and the games room will be open all evening in the basement, manned by youth council personnel. Prizes will again be awarded at the end of the evening to the top winners.

YWCA to Sponsor Hawaiian Vacation

A trip to Hawaii will be sponsored this summer by the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit July 18-30.

Open to all men and women, and also teen-agers accompanied by an adult, the trip will be made by jet plane with a two-day stopover in Los Angeles, Cal., on return.

The group will be lodged at the Kaimana Hotel on Waikiki Beach, and sight-seeing excursions will include a stop at the spectacular mountain lookout, Nuuanu Pali, a cruise aboard a motor launch to Battleship Row in Pearl Harbor, and a visit to Iolani Palace, the only royal palace in the United States.

The "package plan" tour at $625 covers transportation, hotel rooms, tips, meals and sightseeing fees. Reservations are being accepted at all YWCA branches.

A luau party March 15 at Northern YW, 13130 Woodward Ave., is open to anyone interested in making the trip, she said. The party will begin at 7 o'clock and will feature, in addition to the luau, hula dancers, Hawaiian music and films.

Glamour Grans Sponsor Gayelord Hauser Lecture

Gayelord Hauser, author and lecturer, will make a special benefit appearance in Detroit, at 8 o'clock, March 10, in the Art Institute Auditorium. Proceeds from his lecture "An Evening with Gayelord Hauser," will be used for the charitable works of the Glamour Grans of Grosse Pointe and also to benefit the orphans of San Giuseppe in Taormina, Sicily.

The bride-elect and her fiancé will both be graduated in June from the University of Detroit, where she is a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau sorority and he is affiliated with Phi Alpha Theta, the national history honorary society, and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. A summer wedding is planned.

Youth Council Staging Party

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth Council is staging an "Ark Party" Saturday evening, March 13, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of Fries Auditorium. That is to say, the young people will be coming in two by two. It is a "couples only" party.

Youth Council president Craig Dykstra and his date Betty Hansen of Grosse Pointe High School will be checking couples as they come aboard. Representatives of the High School, the University School, St. Paul's, St. Ambrose, Austin, and Our Lady Star of the Sea are all expected in large numbers.

Toni Trusdale and Bill Swan of the University School are both on the committee to see that appropriate decorations are up for the occasion.

Music will be provided by the Bill Parrish Four who will keep all the males and females happy during the voyage of the Ark until the doves fly out and the Ark comes to rest on Mount Ararat.

Noah, Youth Council advisor Bill Jones from Pierce Junior High Faculty, will be in charge of the Ark and all aboard assisted by some representatives of the "more mature" Grosse Pointe Community.

All aboard the Ark will be amply supplied with food and drink which will be stowed on deck before the first couples come up the gang plank.

Guild Slates Noon Meeting

The Women's Guild of St. James Lutheran Church will hold its monthly meeting of all combined circles on Monday, March 8, at 12:30 o'clock, in the Green Room of the Church. Luncheon will be prepared and served by the Sarah Circle, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Francis Schulze.

Mrs. J. Dale Petrosky, of the program committee, has arranged to have as the speaker a member of St. James religious art committee, Mrs. Charles W. Finger, III, will talk about "Christian Art and Literature at St. James." Mrs. Finger is a member of the Miriam Circle.

Slate May 13 Fashion Lunch

Lilacs in the wintertime! In the minds of the members of the St. Joseph Auxiliary of the Little Sisters of the Poor, lilacs are already in bloom.

Plans for their 7th annual Lilac Luncheon have been developing since last November when the committee met at the home of general chairman Mrs. Hayes Johnson.

May 13 is the date for the gala fashion show party at the newly renovated Whittier Hotel. All proceeds are to benefit the Burtha Fisher Home for the Aged operated by the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Park Garden Club to Meet

Mrs. Pierre V. Heffler will open her Buckingham road home for the March 8 meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club.

Speaker for the day will be Harold Glassford, who will discuss "French Gardens of Old Detroit."

Work For Fashionscope, '65

MRS. ARTHUR L. WATTS, JR., of McKinley avenue, MRS. HENRY R. KLEIN, of Touraine road, and MRS. ROBERT B. HEALY, of Mount Vernon road, (left to right), trudged through the snow last week to work on arrangements for Fashionscope, '65, the comprehensive fashion show sponsored annually by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Two other ladies could not make the meeting: Mrs. Lawrence J. Verdier, of Cloverly road, Fashionscope '65 general chairman, snowbound in Chicago, and Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, symphony Women's Association president, snowbound in her Bloomfield Hills home. The show is scheduled March 16 and 17, at 2:30 o'clock, in the J. L. Hudson Company's Downtown Auditorium. Grosse Pointers working for Fashionscope include Mrs. Healy, the Show's treasurer, Mrs. Klein and Mrs. Sinclair, patroness chairman and co-chairman, Mrs. Watts, general ticket chairman, Mrs. Russell Bauer, Mrs. John Benfield, Mrs. John A. Callahan, Mrs. Walter Cavanaugh, Mrs. Russell Chauvin, Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Mrs. David L. Gamble, Mrs. Winfield Jewell and Mrs. Milton Volken.

Registration Set At Mason School

Parents of pre-school children attaining the age of five on or before December 1st, 1965, residing in the Mason Elementary School district of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, are requested to register their children on Wednesday, March 10, in the school library. Personnel will be on duty from 2 to 4 o'clock. Parents should bring the registration forms mailed to them and the child's birth certificate to the school.

Any new residents are asked to contact the school office, TU 4-2770, and the registration forms will be mailed to their homes. The forms should be completed in the home and brought to the school for kindergarten and registration. Parents will be free to leave as soon as the forms and birth certificates have been checked.

Announce Police Training Change

Beginning with the eleventh session of basic police recruit training on March 19, police officers attending classes will be required to attend one full day a week, instead of half a day, as has been the custom since the recruit training program was begun by the Southeastern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, several years ago.

Schools are located in Grosse Pointe Park, Royal Oak and Lincoln Park.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, director of the school in his community, disclosed on Thursday, February 18, that under a new ruling approved by the SEMACP Board of Directors, police recruits training in area schools, will have to attend eight classes of eight hours duration, one day a week for a total of 64 hours.

The police officer must attend two such sessions, and accumulate a total of 128 hours of basic training before he is awarded a certificate of graduation, the chief said.

The next basic training class will begin on March 19, and will end May 7. The second class will start sometime in September and will finish sometime in November, Chief Louwers said. Under the old system, recruits were required to attend three 44-hour classes, within an 18-month period, and must have successfully passed 132 hours of training. These classes were of half-day duration, or four hours, once a week.

The three schools, sponsored by the SEMACP, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Michigan State Police, are open to recruits of police agencies in the Detroit Metropolitan Area.

BALLOT MADE OFFICIAL
The early form of today's election ballot first came into general use in 1888. It was designated an "official ballot" because it was printed by election authorities instead of by political parties, as had been the previous custom.

4 Cases Heard In City Court

Four cases were heard by Judge Malcolm J. Sutherland in Grosse Pointe City's Justice Court on Tuesday, February 23. Avis Elizabeth Stirling of 1399 Torry road was found guilty of driving without due care and caution and fined $25. The original charge was reckless driving causing an accident. A fine of $20 was levied against Thomas Tefft Munson of 167 Morros road who was found guilty of speeding 45 m. p. h.

The case against Emma Mae Mayton of 20437 Damman, Harper Woods, was dismissed because the complainant refused to appear. She had been accused of going through a red light.

In the last case before Judge Sutherland, E. Estay Culbertson of 1433 Somerset was found not guilty of improper parking.

Paulites Attend Reading Festival

The Genesian reading festival, a subsidiary of the National Catholic Theater Conference, held its reading interpretation festival at Brother Rice and Marian High Schools on Sunday, Feb. 28.

St. Paul High School students participated in 10 of the 11 categories, as follows: Serious prose, Annette Caramitaro; Multiple reading, Julie Crowther; Mary Hoffman; Joedy Batchelor; Bible narrative, John Dwaiby; Dramatic interpretation, Kerry Luber; Humorous interpretation, Bill Del-sener; Lyric poetry, Sally Van Assche; Declaration, Gary Piche; Children's literature, Phil Gerlach; Shakespeare, Bob O'Leary; Religious poetry, Elizabeth Browning.

For her interpretation of Edna St. Vincent Millay's "Rena-scene," Sally Van Assche received an honorary plaque. Sally was eliminated when her cutting ran seconds overtime.

Elizabeth Cass DAR Cites 'Good Citizens'

Members of Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Grosse Pointe Farms, were hostesses to the chapter's "Good Citizens and their Mothers" at a tea at the Women's City Club recently.

The six senior high school girls, as outstanding young citizens, received a special pin and a citation issued by the National Society, DAR, commemorating the occasion.

A senior at Grosse Pointe High, Robyn Ranney, was one of the honor guests.

The day's program was given by American Field Service Exchange Students from Grosse Pointe High School under the direction of Mrs. Edward Hook-anson.

Students taking part in the program were Hans-George Volker of Germany, Christina Garretton of Chile, Ann-Marie Stagerlind of Sweden and Mary Zinn, a Grosse Pointer who spent last summer in Teheran.

Special Event At St. Philomena

St. Philomena's parish is sponsoring a Day of Recollection for all women in the Northeast area, including the Pointes, between 2:30 and 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 7, in the church located on Marcellus at Mack.

Fr. Raymond Ellis, associate director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of the Archdiocese of Detroit, will be the moderator.

A question and answer period will follow in the church hall and coffee will be served.

Boost in School Taxes Estimated

If the special school election called for Monday, March 22, is successful, what will the cost in additional taxes be to the individual property-owner?

School officials today provided an example. They say that if a house has a market value of approximately $25,000, it probably has a state equalized valuation of $10,000 for taxing purposes.

Based on a carefully made and conservative analysis, it is estimated that the total tax-rate increase will not exceed $1.66 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation during any year of the 30-year period.

On property with a state equalized valuation of $10,000, the additional cost would be $16.60 per year—or $1.39 per month.

The first ballot proposition seeks funds for the construction of a proposed second high school and renovation of the existing high school plant. The second proposition would furnish funds for the construction of an auditorium-instructional center adjacent to the proposed high school.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae To Gather Monday

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Grosse Pointe will meet at the home of Mrs. John Buda, in Merriweather road, on Monday, March 8, at 8 o'clock.

After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Fred J. Flom will speak of the Northeastern Child Guidance Clinic.

Mrs. John D. Owens has been appointed chairman of a rummage sale to be held April 8 at the St. Clair Shores Recreation Center in East Jefferson avenue. The profits will go toward the purchase of a television set for the North Annex Nursing Home.

OU Dean's List Names Pointers

Oakland University Dean's List for the fall semester includes 439 students, according to Donald D. O'Dowd, dean of the University, Rochester, Mich.

Twenty-four students were named University Scholars for achieving a 3.9 grade point average; 83 were named Students of Great Distinction, 3.5 to 3.99 point average; and 332 as Students of Distinction, 3.0 to 3.49 average.

The total list includes 185 freshmen, 115 sophomores, 71 juniors and 68 seniors.

Two students from the Pointe were among those listed as Students of Great Distinction. They are:

Allen G. Hyer of 2175 Van Antwerp, junior; and Mary D. Harlan of 1997 Kenmore, freshman.

Artists Show Work at Center

Two outstanding artists, William Martmer and Patricia Burnett, will place their works on view in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's second floor galleries from Saturday, March 13, through Sunday, April 4.

Because the rooms are sometimes occupied by meetings, visitors are advised to telephone the Center before coming to view.

The show will combine sculptures, portraits, and oil paintings of figures. Mr. Martmer's favorite sculpture is "Icarus" and a man falling through space. Mrs. Burnett has an interesting group of bronze angels as well as sculptures of many animals.

Both artists classify themselves as romantic realists which is particularly apparent in the paintings. Many of the portraits represent private commissions. Also included is a very fine self portrait by Mr. Martmer.

William Martmer is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Martmer of Washington road. A graduate of Cranbrook, he now instructs at the Detroit Art Institute and Wayne State University. The Center hopes to have both Mr. Martmer and Mrs. Burnett on their faculty to offer courses in sculpture and portraiture later in the Spring.

To Show Film On Hokkaido

Dr. E. S. Smyd will present his film on Hokkaido before the Grosse Pointe Cinema League on Thursday, March 11, at 8 o'clock, at Fries Auditorium.

Hokkaido is the large northern island which, with Honshu, Shikoku, Kyushu and smaller islands, makes up the Japanese Archipelago. Seldom visited by tourists, Hokkaido is even more attractive than the usual tourist stops.

It is mountainous and covered in large part by virgin timber. Much more sparsely settled than the rest of Japan, the government has set aside large tracts of the island for national parks and recreational purposes. Narrow but adequate automobile roads connect the various scenic places and excellent Japanese and western style hotel accommodations are available.

Hokkaido moves at a slower, more traditional pace than the rest of Japan. But even here the nervous tension of western life is apparent.

While the kimono seems very fitting against the quaint backdrop of the Japanese landscape, it is seldom worn in the city streets. Sapporo, the capital and major city of Hokkaido, has a fine airport, electrified transport, heavy traffic, excellent hotels, modern schools, a university, shops, cinerama theater and the other amenities of a modern city.

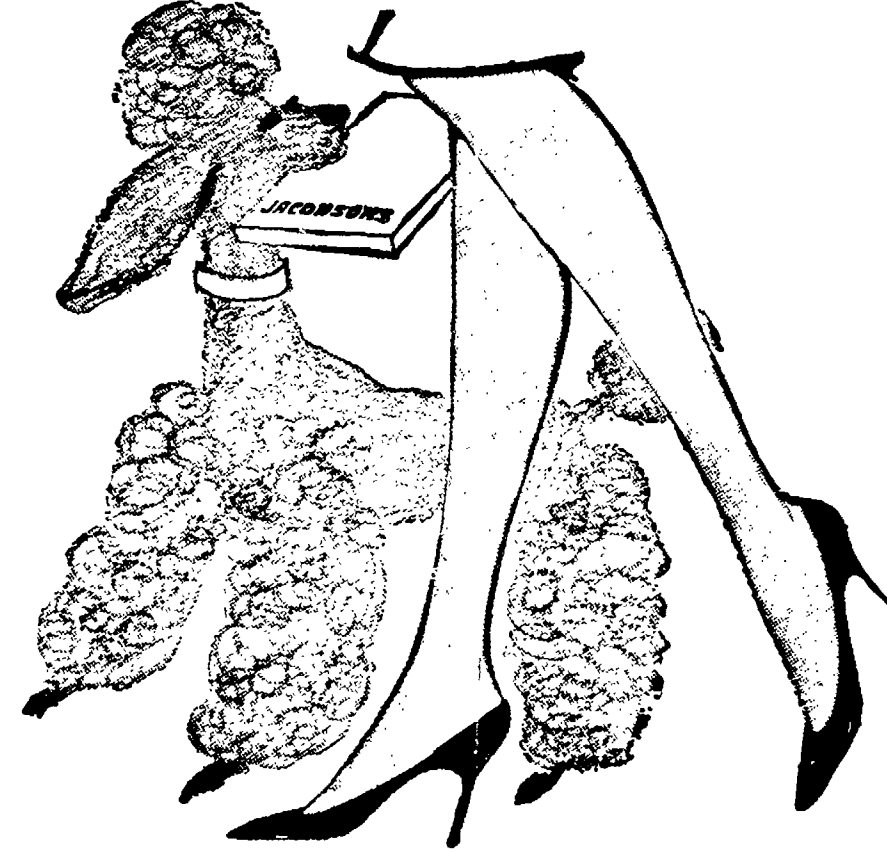

The film will take in the rural and urban life of Hokkaido. The strange indigenous Ainu people will be visited. Fishing villages along the seacoast, interspersed with industry and agriculture, will be shown. Schools are open throughout the summer season, and class-room scenes were recorded.

The film ends in Tokyo. A brief day and night sequence was made to show the changes which have occurred in the World's largest city.

Authentic Japanese music complements the film in its entirety. Cinema League members and friends are urged not to miss this fine presentation.

6% PROFIT AVERAGE
The overall average profit in small businesses is 6.1%, according to a study made of more than 64 million proprietorships and partnerships in the United States. Retail profits ranged from 2.81% for auto dealers to 10.21% for drug and proprietary stores.

AN INVITATION to President Johnson to visit Russia was extended for a second time yesterday when Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin said he thought the visit would be very pleasant. He said that he had sent a letter on the Vietnam situation to the President a few months ago and in it included an invitation to visit the Soviet Union, but he has received no reply to the letter. Kosygin said who is attending the Leipzig Fair in Germany also said the visit was extremely dangerous and that U.S. aggression against North Vietnam would go unpunished.

Now that the BIG SNOW is over . . . the children are back in school, the cars are back on the streets and our lives are back to normal, we have begun to think of last Thursday as a "fun" day, (after all, we can tell our children we lived through the blizzard of '65!).

Twelve-year-old Bobbie Brucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road, reports that her family put their snowbound hours to good use: "We cleaned up the basement."

Mrs. Charles D. La Fond, of University place, spent her enforced spare time co-ordinating clothes for her European trip; she leaves for the Continent in just a few days, and will be gone two months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., of Fair Acres drive, watched TV "and shoveled . . . and shoveled . . . and shoveled . . ."

Mrs. J. Daniel Hitchens, of Stephens road, mother of five, spent the day "putting wet clothes in front of radiators."

Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer, of Sheldon road, was busy morning and afternoon, working on artificial flower arrangements for the Bon Secours Hospital Gift Shop. "It isn't often I have a free day," Mrs. Kramer laughs, "so I rather welcomed the snow!"

While his wife worked with her flowers, Mr. Kramer and his intrepid neighbor Russell Collins, who donned his wife's father's hip boots and trudged from his South Deeplands home to the Kramers' door, enjoyed game after game of gin rummy.

Peers Henes, age eight, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Henes, of Grayton road, offers this description of his blizzard day activities: "Mostly, I shoveled. Then I played in the snow. Then I came inside to change my pants, and I painted a model dog 'cause my brother wouldn't let me play with him."

Everything that Mrs. Marshal E. Templeton, of Rivard boulevard, planned to do last Thursday was cancelled, so she stayed inside, read and watched the snow fall.

Dr. Armin Grams, of Washington road, took his enforced absence from Merrill-Palmer Institute with equanimity, turned carpenter for the day, and started putting the finishing touches on the Grams' family's newly remodeled kitchen.

Conversation with four-year-old Keith Horne, son of the Boyd Hornes, of Handy road, regarding the storm: Whoozit: "What did you do last Thursday?" Keith: "Played." Whoozit: "Where did you play?" Keith: "Outside." Whoozit: "Do you like the snow?" Keith: "No." Whoozit: "Why not?" Keith: "It's too deep and it gets deeper." Whoozit: "Do you like winter?" Keith: "Yes." Whoozit: "What do you like about winter?" Keith, (with a shout of glee): "SNOW!"

Footnote on the storm . . . A popular way of getting groceries home Friday was via toboggan, (the children, home from school, helped mothers pull sleds to and from stores).

PILFERINGS

Winter is noble in forests and solitudes, but deteriorates in cities and civilization.

—Alexander Smith

It's wonderful to have our border with Canada undefended — but sometimes we wish it were weather-stripped.

—Bill Vaughan

Little Jimmy looked out the window at the drifting snow and sighed wistfully. "You know, mother," he mused, "it makes me long for the good old days — June, July, August . . ."

Slush: Snow with all the fun melted out.

—Art Linkletter

Some years ago we entertained a friend from Ohio at our mountain cabin in the Rockies. In spite of the date, August 19, a freak storm that night left two inches of snow on the ground.

When our guest looked out the window the next morning, she exclaimed, "Good heavens! I've overslept!" —Marietta Day, Reader's Digest

Easter weather forecast: Cloudy, with occasional flowers.

—Tad Voiles

Long Trip Set By Ski Hi Club

A full weeks skiing from the top of the Rockies at Taos, New Mexico is being offered by the Grosse Pointe Ski Hi Club from April 16 through April 25. This is one of the few places in North America where they still have good snow conditions so late in the season.

The group will leave by chartered bus for Chicago where they will board the Santa Fe railroad's crack express El Capitán for an overnight run to Raton pass between Colorado and

New Mexico. Another short charter bus transfer will take them up to the St. Bernard Lodge at the very beginning of the chair lifts.

All transportation and transfers, all meals enroute and at the lodge, lodging in rooms for four, all lift charges, and daily ski instruction are included for the 10 day ski trip to the far west for $194. The first 35 who register at the War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore, will be taken.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ALLAN NEEF, OF STONEHURST ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Carol Neef has no bones to pick with life. A suburbanite, born and bred in The Pointe, she is happy in her family, active in her community, enjoys her friends and neighbors.

"There is really nothing very 'interesting' about me," she explains with a laugh. "I'm contented; I like suburban living. 'I think this is a good way of life, rewarding and emotionally satisfying.'"

Just what does this "uninteresting" life of a young suburban matron involve, anyway?

First of all, a husband: A home to make for him, interests to develop together, a sympathetic ear.

Then children: Infant and nursery care, P.T.A., scouts, swimming lessons, music lessons, making sure that they have time alone, for dreaming.

A house, (major creative outlet for the vast majority of women all over the world), a church, (spiritual sustenance for herself and for her family), a variety of organizations and projects, (in and for which she really WORKS).

Finally, herself: The things she finds time for simply because she likes to do them, sailing, gardening, knitting, decoupage, an occasional felt project.

These are the things of which Carol Neef's Good Life is composed.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arlington F. Lecklider, of Berkshire road. Her husband is the son of the Arthur F. Neefs, of Lincoln road.

Carol Lecklider and Allan Neef met when they were in the seventh grade. "We went to the same dancing school, threw our shoes into the ring and wound up with each other."

They had their first date after dancing school, went to the Punch and Judy and saw a movie.

In their teens, they dated other boys and girls. Both eventually arrived at the University of Michigan, where they "met" again before Allan entered Law School, and were married during his freshman Law School year.

She Taught School Carol taught school in Ann Arbor while Allan studied. Their first child, Nancy, who turns 13 on March 24, was born during this university period.

"It was a wonderful place to start a marriage," Carol recalls. Their neighbors were all contemporaries, all in the same age group, all in the same circumstances.

The summer before he took his Bar Exams, Allan and two other law students, (they worked together in the legal department of an automotive firm), decided to pool their intellects in after-dinner study sessions.

Their wives were requested to provide meals before the Brain Trust met.

"We prepared the most ENORMOUS meals," Mrs. Neef recalls. "So, of course, they couldn't do anything but relax after dinner!"

(One of the other wives involved in this plot-to-force-our-husbands-to-calm-down-and-pay-attention-to-us was Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr.)

The Neefs returned to The Pointe after Allan passed the Bar. They have lived here ever since, in Lincoln road, in Anita avenue and now in their brand new home in Stonehurst road.

Two Other Children They have three children. Besides Nancy, there is 11-year-old Sherrie, (she will be 12 March 27), and seven-year-old Beaver, (his real name is Arthur, but nobody ever calls him anything but Beaver).

As soon as their children entered school, the Neefs became active in P.T.A. Allan has served as president of the Ferry School Parent-Teacher Association, Carol as chairman of Ferry's Ways and Means Committee.

This year, with the children enrolled in new schools as a result of the Neef family's move from Anita to Stonehurst, Carol is a member of the Mothers Health Council at Barnes.

The children took their school transfers in stride. Sherrie is captain of Service Girls at Barnes 1—and Beaver is president for his Second Grade!

Nancy, in her first year at Brownell, especially enjoys the school-sponsored ski trips, and swimming, at Brownell and Parcels Schools, and at the Detroit Boat Club.

All the children are on swimming teams at DBC, and the whole family uses the club.

Two Current Projects Carol is working currently on two club projects: A mother-daughter fashion luncheon scheduled this May, and another big fashion show planned for next fall.

She and her husband served as co-chairman of a recent DBC dinner-dance and fashion show, and are co-chairmen of a Duplicate Bridge group at the club.

Bridge is a passion with the Neefs, whose idea of the best possible way to spend a long winter evening is a good dinner, followed by several hours of card-playing.

"Mother and daddy taught me the game when I was old enough to reach the bridge table," Carol says. Her own children are just at the learning stage now, beginning to pull their chairs up to the table and help with the bidding.

The two girls enjoy playing the piano. They are active in scouting, something their mother works at, too; she has been a Brownie leader and is presently cookie sale chairman for two Girl Scout troops.

All the Neefs enjoy sailing, (at the Boat Club, of course). What with swimming teams and sailing lessons, Carol finds herself on Belle Isle almost every summer morning.

"Last year, the DBC swimmers had a car pool, but the year before I drove the children to the club every day. I don't mind the driving."

"My motives are selfish, actually—I like being there, too!"

Loving New Home Right now, Mrs. Neef is still in the "delighted with it" stage of enjoying her new house. The Neefs designed their residence themselves, took their ideas to an architect and let the project out for bids.

They bought the first lot in just-opened Stonehurst road, began excavating a year ago last fall, and moved in last summer. Carol and Allan Neef had VERY definite ideas about their home. They wanted an "open" feeling, demanded Japanese sliding screens between living and dining rooms, insisted on one bedroom, (their own), downstairs and four bedrooms, (the children's), upstairs.

They were determined to have their kitchen face the street, their main living areas, living room, family room, master bedroom, overlook the garden in order to take full advantage of their beautiful trees.

Their family room, with its pointed ceiling rising to a solid wood center beam, features a built-in brick fireplace.

TV Prize Sets Theme Color theme in this room is warm, autumnal, built around a magnificent orange, white and gold mosaic table and chairs won by Carol on a television quiz show.

SEEK RELAXATION A second home, or vacation retreat, is rapidly becoming routine for U.S. residents. Cottages and cabins for leisure activities are being built at the rate of 100,000 a year. In addition, 155,000 mobile homes were built last year, marking an increase of 33,000 units over 1963.

Church Women Plan Meetings

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church has cancelled its usual monthly afternoon meeting Tuesday, March 9, in favor of a most interesting evening program. This was announced by Mrs. Frank Taugner, president of the women's group.

The Congregational Church of our city is playing host to a unique Lenten lecture series fulfilling the theme, "Contemporary Values in the Light of the Christian World."

The series of lectures will be held on four consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning March 9. Dr. Aaron Rutledge, head of Psychotherapy at Merrill-Palmer Institute, is scheduled as the speaker for the series. Eight other local churches are participating in this series, and the public is invited to attend at the Congregational Church, Chalfonte at Lothrop, 8 p.m.

Women's Association will also hold home meetings this month, and the following women will serve as hostesses to the women's groups: Mrs. Harry Kasabach, Mrs. Earl Soney, Mrs. E. F. Lang, Mrs. Paul Kolvoord, and Mrs. Arthur Kuechenmeister.

The home meetings will take up the theme, "Church in the New Nations," which launches the world mission study for the Congregational women in March and April. The program is designed to offer greater understanding of current problems in the world concerning new nations coming into the U.N. Studies range on countries from Africa to Vietnam, and the church's role in these countries will also be explained.

Mrs. Wayne Jens, Women's Association program chairman, reports that the members are also participating in the World Day of Prayer, Friday, March 5, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Mrs. Hughitt Moltzau and Mrs. John William Estes, Jr. will serve that day.

In addition to their Lenten activities, the Women's Association also has several of its members engaged in the planning of the church's 25th anniversary celebration in May.

William M. Adams, general chairman of the Congregational celebration, has confirmed that the following women have been appointed to serve on the anniversary committee: Mrs. James Bolles, Mrs. Donald Clark, Mrs. Lee Kitchen, Mrs. Lyndle Martin, Mrs. William C. Potter, Mrs. Albert Schlorff, Mrs. W. Colburn Staudish, and Mrs. Ernest Bauer.

They've gone to St. Clair Inn, Grand Bend, Ont. "And last Memorial Day, they all came to my house, because it was new," Carol laughs.

Mrs. Neef seldom sits down without something in her hands. She likes to knit, works in felt, has a decoupage project hanging fire.

It's all part of the "uninteresting" life of the young Pointe suburban matron. As Carol Neef admits herself, "There always seems to be more to do than I have time for."

Accents of color are used against a quiet background in the living and dining rooms. Bookshelves in the paneled library are crowded.

When summer comes, the Neefs plan to build a wall and plant an enclosed garden outside their glass-walled, sunny yellow bedroom. They can't wait to get into the yard and dig.

There is still a lot of landscape work to be done, but Allan Neef is an excellent gardener, and his wife likes to try to make things grow.

Carol Neef has served as a Deaconess at Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, where she teaches Sunday School Crib Room on a rotating basis.

She was chairman of the Church Christmas Workshop last year, and has accepted the chairmanship again this year. "It's a lot of fun to work on," she explains.

In Lawyers' Wives She has been active in Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives since the group was organized in 1960, serves as chairman of the Lawyers' Wives bridge group, which met at her home last Tuesday, attended the Lawyers' Wives-sponsored luncheon and fashion show at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Thursday.

"This year, the Lawyers' Wives has a new project," she notes. "Receipts from the February 25 benefit are to be donated to the Wayne County Probate Court's Juvenile Division for neglected and underprivileged children."

She is a member of the American Association of University Women, served as corresponding secretary for the Pointe Branch of AAUW, helped found the local Recent Graduates AAUW group, was chairman of the local AAUW Social and Economic Issues group.

She has remained active in her sorority, Alpha Phi, was president of the local Alpha Phi Alumnae Association several years ago, served as chairman of last month's Alpha Phi Alumnae-sponsored telephone bridge parties.

She was a hostess at one of the homes opened last season for the Christmas Walk, sponsored annually by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Think South . . . or at least ahead to summer! You owe yourself one of those sunny beach shifts from Walton-Pierce and a refreshing white eyelet over pink swim-suit with jacket . . . comes in blue, also! Mrs. Louise Rice reminds perfectionists that beachwear can be customized for a perfect fit.

Top Drawer Topics . . . showcased this week at 17007 Kercheval UP in the Village are beautiful gros-point bags. The designs are hand-done by the members of Christ Child Society . . . framed and lined by professional handbag finishers. P.S. . . . Varied toned mantillas are in from Spain. Shade: you've always wanted.

All Dug Out . . . now you can escape to Claire Pearone, 397 Fisher Road and wander among the tropical silk or zephyr wool ensembles. So new and spirit-lifting!

A Beautiful Way . . . to leave the low-priced field Zip away in a new Polara from Riverview Dodge, 15205 East Jefferson. Polara gives you big car room and style BUT it thrives on regular gas and family budgets.

Inside Information . . . did you know the inside of wall cabinets are completely finished in all Mutschler units? So are the outside, top and bottom. Finish is smooth and can easily be wiped clean. Just one of the many quality, work-easing features of a Mutschler Kitchen, 20489 Mack Avenue.

Getting Engaged! Of course, you'll need a photograph. Set aside a medium color dress with a simple becoming neckline . . . shine up your hair and oh, yes . . . call Paul Gach for a portrait appointment . . . TUxedo 1-0500.

Be An Artist . . . learn to wield a brush for eye beauty. Kopp's have a palette of cosmetics from which to choose . . . but we'd like to mention Scandia Brush-A-Tint for brows and shadowing . . . Dancing Eyes for a liner . . . find them at 16926 Kercheval in the Village.

Quick Rescue . . . for a sagging set . . . don't give up! Place a roller or two on top for a lift . . . then clip the line in place (using a back mirror). SPRAY SET . . . with the Notre Dame Pharmacy's own hair spray. Let dry, while dressing. Now brush lightly and raise here and there gently with a hairpin. One of the advantages of SPRAY SET is that the silcones repel moisture and hold the shape . . . even on humid days.

Sid Erwin Says . . . "Rouge is a tricky item in cosmetics. No longer do we do the apple-of-the-cheek routine, unless we are old-fashioned. Rouge should be used to emphasize the bone structure (contour lines) of the face and to bring out the eyes. Usage, as well as, a natural looking shade are vital instructions you receive at FASHION TWO TWENTY."

Be Ahead . . . of the new season with a forecast look. Start with a perfect shaping. Choose a new style that flatters and the stylists at Edward Nepi, "Parrucchieri," 19463 Mack Avenue will do the rest. TUxedo 4-8858.

Festive Fare . . . from the Pointe Wharf, 18310 Mack Avenue. The party menu features so many buffet delights . . . frog legs, shrimp, lobster a la Newburg . . . just to mention a few. Carry out and delivery . . . TUxedo 5-4453.

Career Girls . . . have been flocking to Helga's Beauty Salon, 20951 Mack Avenue because they need evening appointments. The salon styles hair for the young-at-office (and at heart). It offers all sorts of mid-week facial pick-ups for mid-week dates or mid-season slumps . . . TUxedo 4-4308.
