HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the QUEEN ELIZABETH II let it be known that she intends to end the 29-year British royal boycott of the Duchess of Windsor. As the duke, her uncle, lay ill in a London hospital with the sight of one eye in danger, the queen said she intends to visit him and to meet the American-born divorcee for whom he gave up the throne in 1936. It will be the first time that the duchess will be openly received by a reigning British monarch. The queen will visit her uncle, whom she affectionately calls "Uncle David," as soon as it is permitted by his doctors.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., won a round when Federal Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., rejected a motion by Sheriff James G. Clark of Dallas County, Ala., that the leader of the massive Negro vote drive be held in contempt of court for leading a march in Selma in defiance of a court order. In the meantime, blocked from further marches by city order, Selma's Negroes adopted a new stratagem, the street sleepout. About 400 young Negroes, joined by 78 white and Negro clergymen from outside the state, slept, dozed, sat and stood in ragged columns in the street, in the war of nerves against 200 policemen blocking their way.

ROBERT S. McNAMARA, Defense Secretary, told Congress that the U. S. military aid to South Viet Nam has gone up $50 million dollars this year. He said that President Johnson was transferring $50 million dollars earmarked for economic aid to the military program because of the sharply rising costs of the Vietnam war. Aid to that country for the fiscal year ending June 30, amounts to about $700 million, for economic aid, military aid and money spent on U. S. forces there.

Friday, March 12

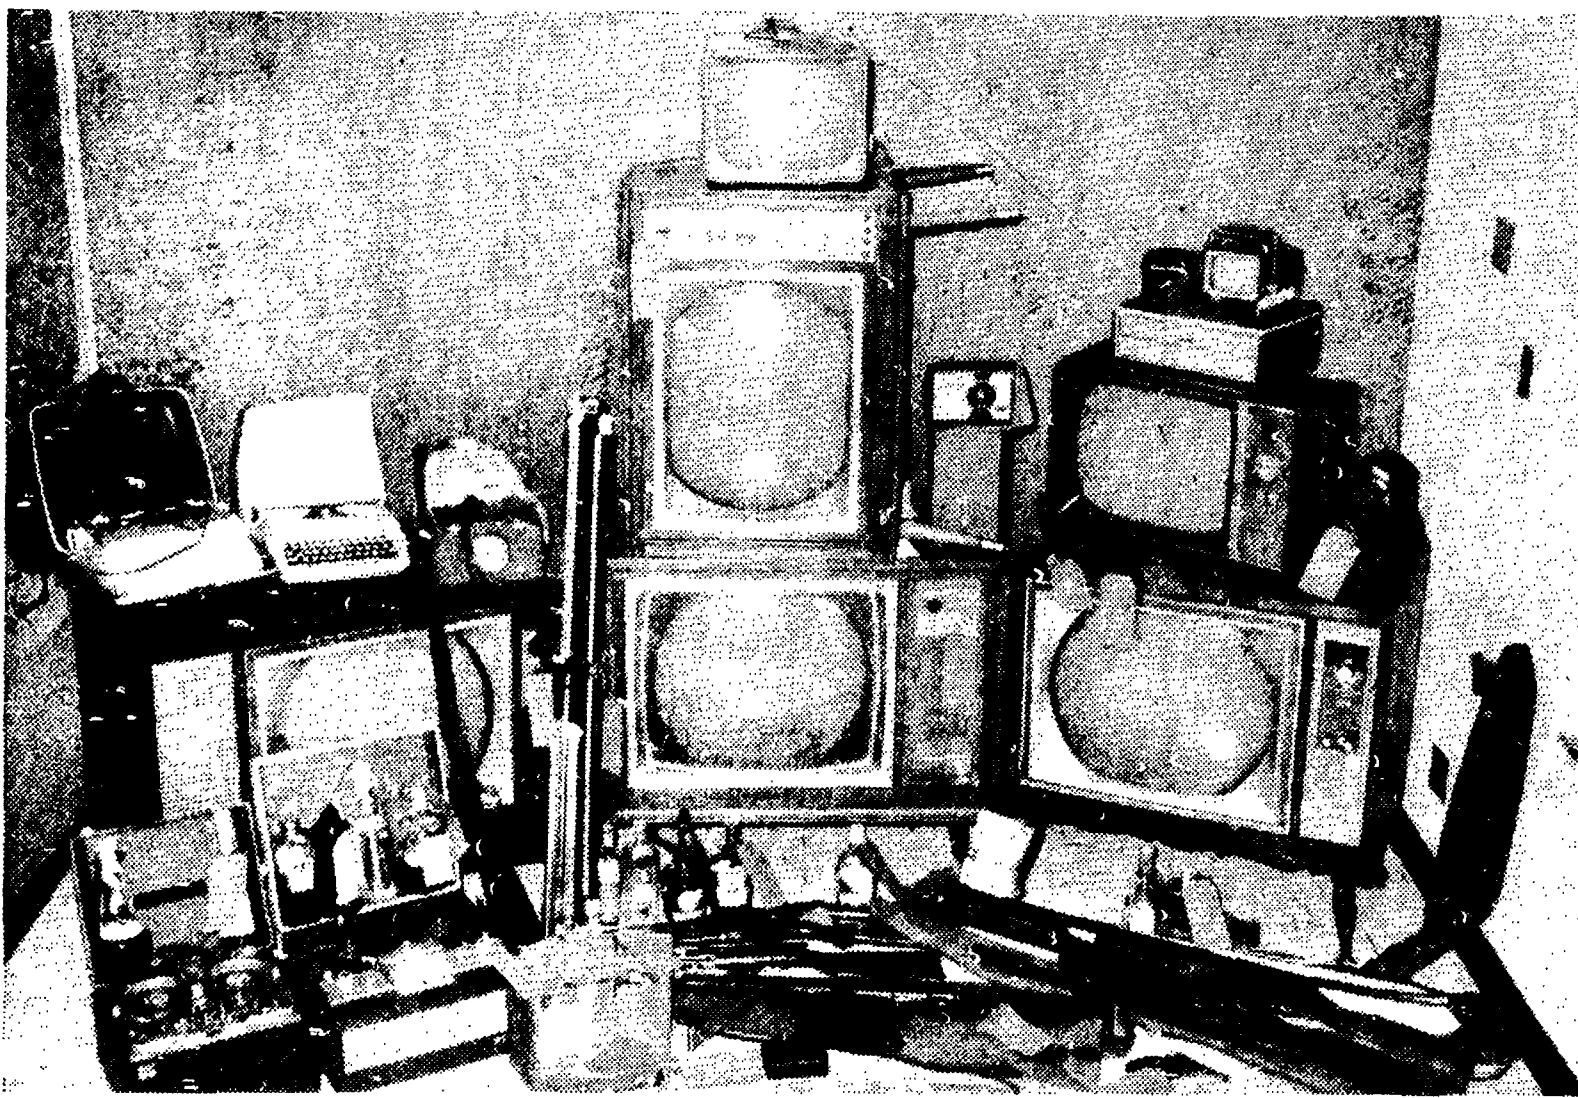

THE REV. JAMES J. REEB, 38, a white minister from Boston, died of injuries resulting from a beating by segregationists in race-torn Selma. The father of four children, he died in a Birmingham hospital. He received massive head injuries when he and two other white ministers were attacked on a dark street in Selma Tuesday night after a civil rights demonstration. In Washington, Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach said that federal charges will be brought against Alabama State troopers and others involved in the beating of Selma Negroes in Sunday's voting rights march. The specific charge will be of "totally unreasonable force, for purposes other than law enforcement."

DANIEL W. WEST, (D., Detroit), representative-elect, was denied his seat in the State Legislature in Lansing, and steps were begun to name a successor. An aide to Gov. Romney said that a special election might be held on April 5, the date of a special Wayne County election. The House members unanimously (95-0), endorsed a recommendation by a special legislative committee that West be denied his seat. An ex-convict, West is accused of assuming the identity of a prominent lawyer, now dead, to win election. He has served two years, and was re-elected in April. He is also accused on many counts of income tax fraud, by both Federal and Detroit authorities.

JET BOMBERS and fighter-bombers of the U. S. Air Force carried out secret bombing missions against Viet Cong troops, 390 miles northwest of Saigon, and Communist targets inside South Vietnam. Meanwhile, between 15 and 20 F-100 fighter-bombers, manned by South Vietnamese, roared from Da Nang to hit unannounced targets, believed to be Communist supply lines in Laos. Da Nang is the site of the Marine-guarded air base from which U. S. airmen make almost daily forays against the Viet Cong.

$10,000 Worth of Recovered Loot

Shown in the property room of the Woods Public Safety Department, is only part of the $200,000 worth of loot stolen from homes in Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties, by a three-member gang. Woods police have recovered approximately $10,000 worth of this loot, including television sets, tape recorders, typewriters, rifle shotguns, etc. The firearms seen in the picture are valued at a total of more than $2,000. The ringleader of the gang and a gang member have been arrested; a third is being sought by FBI agents on a federal warrant, charging unlawful flight.

Club Files Suit to Get Tax Rebates

Lochmoor Also Wants
State Tax Commission's Higher Assessment Reversed by Court

The Lochmoor Club, 1018 Sunningdale, has filed suit in the Wayne County Circuit Court for recovery of more than $26,000 in alleged overpayment of taxes, and filed another suit in the State Court of Appeals to reverse a higher assessment on the club property made by the State Tax Commission.

The civil action by the club to recover the monies was made known at the Woods council meeting on Monday, March 15. The council authorized City Attorney Jules Berns to represent the club in the rebate battle.

William T. Myers, of the law firm of Dykema, Wheat, Spencer, Goodnow and Trigg, attorney for the club, said that proceedings to recover the alleged overpayment, and an appeal for a reversal of the State Tax Commission's ruling, have been filed with the respective courts, but no dates have been set for the hearing as yet.

The club is seeking a refund of $26,940.94, of a total of $46,719.41 in payment for county, school, drainage taxes and the city tax addendum (added on) for the year 1964, which Gerald Kane, secretary of Lochmoor Club, in a letter to City Treasurer Helen Fox, stated was paid under protest, at the time the payments were made.

Myers said that the club is not only seeking a rebate, but

Loitering Tickets Issued When Youths Rebel Again

Once again loitering school children in the Village in Grosse Pointe City have become an acute problem.

And once again Police Chief Andrew C. Teetaert has told his police officers to issue tickets to youths who are found violating the loitering ordinance.

Saturday, March 13, three young boys were issued tickets for loitering when they failed to heed a warning by police to disperse and leave The Village shopping area. They were members of a large group of boys who were moving about the area blocking traffic and inconveniencing pedestrians.

The group broke up except for the three youths who were ticketed. According to officers, the boys became insolent and unruly. They were taken to the

GP Woods Police Smash Tri-County Burglar Ring. Nab Ringleader, Find Loot

Second Gang Member Arrested in Detroit, Another Sought by FBI; More Than $10,000 Worth of Stolen Goods Recovered, With More Expected

Woods police brought to a close the activities of a tri-county burglar ring with the arrest of the ringleader on Tuesday, March 9. The ring had looted homes of more than $200,000 worth of valuable items, of which more than $10,000 worth have been recovered to date, with more recoveries expected.

The alleged ringleader, Charles Voakes, 22, of 25964 South Gratiot, Mt. Clemens, has been released to Bloomfield Hills police, for prosecution in Oakland County for an admitted $78,000 burglary of a Bloomfield Hills home during the latter part of December.

Another member of the gang,

Car Stolen Here Found in Detroit

An automobile belonging to Robert Thomas of 20743 Marter road, r-p, stolen in the Park on Monday, March 8, was recovered the next day by police officers of Detroit's Jefferson Station, Fifth Precinct.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the car was returned to Thomas. It had been stolen from the 15200 block of Jefferson, the chief said.

He disclosed that whoever had stolen the vehicle, removed a 12-volt battery from under the hood, and replaced it with a six-volt battery. The thief also stole the four hubcaps, and two pairs of sun glasses, one prescription ground, values not given.

Detroit police recovered the car on McLellan, near Kercheval.

Charles Ayers, 24, of 12067 St. Patrick, Detroit, is being held by Detroit police for investigation of burglaries in their community. He was implicated by Voakes, and arrested by Detroit authorities on information furnished by Woods police.

FBI Seeking Third
Voakes also implicated another member of the tri-member gang, Carl Bishop, 23, also of the St. Patrick address, who left the area and is said to be in California. Federal Bureau of Investigation sources said that a federal warrant has been issued for the arrest of Bishop, and his girl friend, name and address not known, for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Bishop and his girl friend are believed to be still in possession of a $50,000 pearl necklace stolen from the Bloomfield Hills home.

Voakes was arraigned in Oakland County Circuit Court on a charge of damaging a safe, and a second charge, burglary of a dwelling, in connection with the Bloomfield Hills crime. If found guilty, he can receive up to life imprisonment for damaging the safe, according to State Law.

Get Anonymous Tip
Voakes was arrested following a stake-out by Woods police of a home at 1193 Sunningdale, when police received an anonymous tip that the house would be burglarized on March 9.

Director of Public Safety Allen Andrews, Jr., Det. Sgt. Jack Mast, and officers, working on a last minute basis, received the unanimous consent of adjoining neighbors, and one at the rear of the Sunningdale address, to place officers in rooms where the house could be watched.

Within two minutes after the policemen were set and the lights turned out in the rooms in which they were hiding, they spotted three figures forcing their way into the house which was being watched. When the entrance was recognized as a fact, the officers moved in.

Voakes, who was at the rear of the house, when he realized that he was trapped, dove head first through a rear plate glass window, onto the grounds of the Lochmoor Golf Club.

Nabbed While Down
However, his attempt to escape failed, and he was captured later permitted to go home.

Policemen Prove Very Diplomatic

Hot Chocolate Helps
Solve Problems of Disturbed Miss Fleeing Baby Sitter

By James Njaim

With the right persuasion, a female can be made to change her mind, decide not to run away from home, and to forgive the person who gave her reason for leaving home. Two Park police officers can attest to that.

The officers, Patrolmen Colin Lalonde and Ronald Pelpowski, while on routine patrol at 9:38 p.m., on Tuesday, March 9, observed a weeping 10-year-old girl at Jefferson and Bishop lane, walking north on Jefferson.

Mad at Baby Sitter

The policemen stopped to talk to the young lady, who lives in Coplin street, Detroit, who said that she became angry with her baby-sitter and so she ran away from home.

The little girl said the reason she left was because her pet hamster had gotten loose in the house and fled to the basement. The baby-sitter refused to let her enter the basement to look for the animal because the family's pet dog had given birth to a litter of pups, and the sitter did not want them to be disturbed.

Yes, ma'am, the officers agreed, this is an earth-shattering problem, but how about coming to the station, where this matter can be resolved over a cup of hot chocolate? The irate miss consented.

Still Adamant

While sipping her chocolate, the young lady still insisted she was going to run away.

Lalonde and Pelpowski begged the little miss to think it over, and finally persuaded her to find it in her heart to forgive the baby-sitter for her "meanness," and to return to her nice warm home.

She was taken home in a scout car. The baby-sitter told the policemen, she was not aware that the girl had left the house. She thought she was asleep, she said.

At the last word, everything was "hunky-dory!"

BREAKS ANKLE

Albert E. Dietz, 43, of 5214 Grayton, Detroit, fell on the sidewalk in front of 1972 Vernier road, and broke his right ankle. He was conveyed to Saratoga Hospital by Woods police ambulance, and given emergency treatment. He was later permitted to go home.

To Discuss School Bond Proposals at Big Rally Tonight

of Planned Second High School and Auditorium
in Vernier Road

Members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will discuss in detail the school bond proposals and the voters will have an opportunity to have their questions answered at a public rally tonight.

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters is sponsoring the meeting at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. The League has studied the community's school needs for the past two years and is taking this opportunity to help voters become better informed on the proposals which they will be asked to vote upon on Monday, March 22.

Members of the Board of Education who will participate include Board President Edward J. Pongracz, Dr. Frank H. Parcells, Mrs. Paul Hykes, Russell H. Feibles, Joseph P. Thompson and Robert F. Weber. A member of the administrative staff, Joseph Spagnoli, who is planning director for the proposed new high school, will also participate.

Mrs. J. Robert Jessup, president of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, has asked Mrs. Leonard Slavin, past president of the League, to serve as moderator.

Plan Complete Report
Mrs. Thompson said, "The Board seeks to give those attending the forum a complete report on their deliberations over several years, the results of which are embodied in the two ballot proposals for the March 22 referendum."

Mr. Parcells, vice-president of the Board and a life-long resident of Grosse Pointe, will discuss the population increase which has caused severe enrollment problems. Development of the school site to make it compatible with the surrounding residential community will be discussed by Mr. Peibles.

Woman Robbed Entering Church

A Detroit woman was struck on the head and robbed of her purse on Saturday, March 7, as she was about to enter St. Ambrose Church, Hampton and Wayburn.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the woman, Matilda Marcian of 1301 Alter road, was entering the west side entrance of the church at 8:40 p.m., when someone struck her on the head, felling her and knocking off her glasses. Her assailant grabbed her purse and ran to a car parked on Hampton.

A witness, who heard the woman scream, saw a young Negro run toward a 1962 white Chevrolet, jump in, and speed away east on Hampton. The speed of the getaway indicated the possibility that another person was in the vehicle, Chief Louwers said.

The purse-snatching victim told police that there was no money in the purse, only personal papers.

She did not require medical treatment, it was said.

Gardening Class Offered Adults By School System

With the first budding crocus, many Grosse Pointe families will virtually move to the outdoors for the summer months—summer patios and gardens will replace the traditional living room, and the barbecue pit will become the center of family festivities.

Because of this, "Home Gardening" should be of special interest to all outdoor minded families—whether an experienced homeowner, one who has recently acquired the responsibility of home ownership, or those anticipating such a move.

"Home Gardening" will be offered by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, in co-operation with the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe. Beginning on March 31, this Road Patrols Tripled Since Four Residence Robbed in 10-Day Period

Two successful breaking and entering cases during the past week in Grosse Pointe City have forced Chief Andrew C. Teetaert of the City Police Department to triple the size of road patrols on City streets.

The George Booth residence at 770 Notre Dame was broken into and robbed on Wednesday, March 10, sometime between the hours of 7 and 9:22 p.m. According to police, entry was gained by breaking a glass pane in a rear window and the house was completely ransacked.

Missing from the dining room were a set of sterling silver flatware, a silver cocktail shaker and a cream and sugar service.

A camera, a coin collection, whose value is unknown, and all of Mrs. Booth's jewelry were stolen from the master bedroom on the first floor. From a second floor bedroom, the thief made off with a revolver and a gold cigarette lighter with a built-in watch. A blue suitcase is also missing.

When the Booths returned home, both the front and back doors of the house were wide open. Police found footprints in the snow presumably belonging to the burglar. They indicated that he approached the house from the north side of the driveway and escaped on the south side.

The second robbery occurred Saturday, March 13, at the home of Mrs. William Grasse at 692 Washington road. This time the thief broke into the house by removing a storm door from its hinges, prying the moulding from a window on a rear door and breaking its glass. As in the Booth robbery, the residence was completely torn up.

Reported missing are a camera and a metal money box containing old coins and silver dollars. The value of the coins could not be estimated. Police said that extensive damage had been done to a buffet in the dining room.

The burglary took place in the early evening hours, sometime after 9:18 p.m. A young boy who lives nearby told police later that he saw a tall man dressed in a dark hat and long trench coat in front of the residence.

Bond Issues Needed for New School

Second Senior High Called Answer to Overcrowding Existent in Many Buildings

Property-owning residents of the Grosse Pointe school district are slated to go to the polls on Monday, March 22, to vote on two ballot propositions.

Proposition one would provide funds for constructing, equipping and furnishing a proposed second senior high school and for the renovation of the existing high school plant. Proposition two would authorize the Board of Education to build an auditorium-instructional center adjacent to the proposed high school.

Monday's election climaxes an intensive two-year study of the school housing dilemma by the officers and trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

A blue-ribbon Citizens' Advisory Committee last fall recommended that the Board of Education alleviate the overcrowding at many buildings throughout the school district by implementing the recommendations of Dr. Felix J. McCormick, consultant on the staff of Columbia University. Dr. McCormick's report of the school plant needs of the Grosse Pointe Public School District was prepared after a careful review of a large amount of statistical data, followed by several visits to Grosse Pointe to examine conditions and plant facilities at first hand.

Two Basic Areas
Dr. McCormick's recommendations cover two basic areas. The first is the school system's organizational pattern:

"The Grosse Pointe Public School District is currently organized on a K-6-3-3 plan under which pupils in grades K-6 are housed in 10 elementary schools; pupils in grades 7-9 are housed in three junior high schools; and pupils in grades 10-12 are housed in one senior high school.

"In order to relieve the growing enrollment pressure, especially at the high school level and to provide better coordination of the educational and guidance programs for ninth grade pupils, it is recommended that the Board of Education adopt a K-5-3-4 plan of organization.

"Under this plan of organization, the ninth grade pupils would be transferred to the senior high school and sixth grade pupils would be transferred to the junior high schools. The senior high school would then become a four-year high school housing grades 9-12 and the junior high schools would become intermediate schools housing grades 6-8. Under this plan, the elementary schools would care for pupils in grades K-5."

On Proposed School
The second recommendation of Dr. McCormick specifically deals with the proposed second high school:

"In order to accommodate the anticipated enrollment in grades 9-12 and to provide the facilities needed to expand and enrich the educational program, it is recommended that the district move boldly ahead and proceed with the expansion of its high school facilities by erecting a high school for about 1,800 pupils on the 31.7 acre Vanderburgh site in Grosse Pointe Woods now owned by the Board of Education.

"The erection of a new high school plant at this time seems the wisest course of action since the high school facilities are now under the greatest enrollment pressure. Furthermore, long-range high school needs can be projected much more accurately than can elementary school needs since the children who will attend high school over the next decade are already born.

"Also, it would be more economical over the long-term to build the more expensive high school facilities now rather than later when school building construction costs are almost certain to be higher. To 'build from the top down' whenever possible seems a sound and economical policy for most school districts to follow.

school plant should be moved along as quickly as practicable so that the building can be completed and occupied by September, 1967. In the initial planning, provisions should be made so that the building can be expanded to care for 2,400 pupils if such expansion should become necessary."

Most Schools Crowded

In September, 1964, the Grosse Pointe Public School System was caring for 11,485 pupils in 10 elementary schools, three junior high schools and one senior high school. Eight of the 10 elementary schools were crowded beyond their desirable capacity ratings. All the junior high school buildings were crowded and one, Parcels Junior High School was operating much above its emergency capacity rating.

As a result, many classes in the elementary, junior and senior high schools exceed the desired size of 25. For example, of 228 classes in the 10 elementary buildings, 154 have more than 25 pupils. Of a total of 684 classes in the junior highs, 524 exceed 25. At Parcels, the most overcrowded of the three buildings, 190 classes out of 229 contain more than 25. At Grosse Pointe High School, where 503 classes are scheduled, 352 exceed 25 students.

The senior high school plant, with a desirable capacity rating of 2,017 pupils and an emergency capacity rating of 2,306 pupils, was caring for an enrollment of 2,681 pupils, 375 above its emergency capacity rating. Because of crowded conditions, some desirable features of the educational program in the high school were curtailed.

Many Meetings Held

Earlier this week the latest of a series of community-wide meetings for the purpose of informing voters in the school district were held. On Monday evening Edward J. Pongracz, President of the Board of Education, addressed the PTA of Mason Elementary School. At the same time Robert F. Weber, former President and long-time trustee of the Board spoke at the Kerby PTA meeting.

On Tuesday evening Board Trustee Barbara R. Thompson, Dr. Frank H. Parcels, Vice-President, and Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools, presented a panel discussion for the PTA of Barnes Elementary School.

In all the presentations made throughout the school district, Board members and administrators have stressed the desperate need for additional school facilities now and in the future.

In addition to pointing out recent increases in the school population (29 pupils in the last month for a current total of 11,594, an increase of approximately 500 over last year at this time), they have shown several projections that indicate a future total school population of from 14,000 to 16,000 students.

Debt Rate Is Low

Board members have given comparative school tax figures among 40 Wayne County districts. These show that Grosse Pointe ranks 36th for debt rates levied in 1964 on state equalized assessed valuation. An addition of 1.66 mills would bring Grosse Pointe's total indebtedness to 2.47—or approximately 31st among Wayne County schools.

Total school tax rates in 1964 (debt and operation) among these 40 schools ranged from 13.90 in Hamtramck to 37.80 in Nankin Mills. Grosse Pointe ranked 22nd with 23.71 mills. An increase of 1.66 mills, bringing Grosse Pointe to 25.37 mills, would raise the school district's ranking to 20th in Wayne County.

A statement in Dr. McCormick's recent report summarizes his findings:

"Current enrollment data and the projections of future population and enrollment clearly show that a second high school for the Grosse Pointe Public School System is the most reasonable and logical solution to the school plant problem facing the Board of Education."

"There is also considerable evidence that the cost of the proposed building is well within the financial ability of the school district. The people of the district are indeed fortunate that they have both the willingness and the resources to provide a adequate school plant facilities for their children and youth and at the same time maintain an educational program of outstanding quality."

Polls in neighborhood public elementary schools will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday, March 22.

Boat and Camping Show Opens Friday

The Boat and Camping Show is an opportunity for all the family to see the latest boats, motors, boating accessories, tents, camping equipment and the clothes to wear with them, March 19 through 27 at the Silverwolf store, 4100 North Woodward at 13½ Mile road in Royal Oak.

Free movies will be on display all day and in the evening there will be informal modeling of boat and camping clothes.

It has often been said that the only logical substitute for a new Cadillac is one that has seen previous service. Whatever you plan to invest in your next car, above all consider Cadillac.

If you are like most people, you hope someday to own a new Cadillac motor car. For Cadillac's continuing greatness in design and engineering has made it one of the world's most desirable and sought-after possessions. But if a new Cadillac is not presently feasible, you should consider the pleasure and satisfaction that would be yours with a late model, previously-owned Cadillac. Your dealer currently offers an unusually wide selection of fine used Cadillacs at a cost in line with that of many new cars of far less stature and quality. These fine Cadillacs are all in superb condition, and many offer features not yet available on other makes. And from a standpoint of investment, remember that a Cadillac traditionally returns more of its cost at resale than any other car at or near its price. So visit your authorized Cadillac dealer—and let him show you a Cadillac that will fit your budget. Your visit will be the wisest motoring move you ever made. Make it today!

Youth Wrecks Stolen Car During Chase by Police

A 17-year-old Detroit boy wrecked a stolen car following an 85-mile-an-hour chase through Park streets, in an attempt to escape a pursuing Park police officer on Thursday, March 4. The youth ignored two warning shots fired into the air by the policeman in an ensuing foot chase.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the boy, Robert Fleming, of 4881 Twenty-fifth street, was captured a few minutes after midnight, by another officer who took part in the search for him.

Fleming was arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Saturday, March 6, on a charge of being in possession of a stolen car. Fleming entered a plea of guilty.

The judge set bond at $1,000 and remanded the youth to the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff's Office, in default of the bond, to await sentencing in circuit court. The maximum sentence for the offense can be up to 10 years in prison.

According to information released by the chief, Patrolman Collins LaLonde was patrolling south on Jefferson at 1:55 p.m. and at Bedford, saw a car with a lone occupant, who appeared to be concentrating on darkened houses on the street. The policeman followed at a distance, but was seen by the driver, Fleming, who stepped on the gas in an effort to elude LaLonde, who gave chase.

The boy sped south on Bedford, across the Essex intersection, ignoring a stop sign. He drove to Windmill Pointe drive, where he lost control. The car jumped the island curb and crashed into a tree.

Fleming leaped from the wrecked car, and LaLonde, now on foot, shouted a command to halt, but the youth paid no heed, and the officer fired two warning shots into the air. Fleming continued to run.

LaLonde raced back to his scout car and put in a radio call for help. The call brought Patrolmen William Crandall, Charles Petrie, Henry Wilson, Rodney Wedding, William Furtaw, and Walter Paton, and a scout car crew from the Farms. The officers scoured the neighborhood, after sealing off the area.

Furtaw spotted Fleming trying to hide in the snow in front of 15366 Windmill Pointe drive, and placed the youth under arrest.

At the Park station, the vehicle driven by Fleming was checked out and was found to have been stolen in Ferndale, and belonged to Edith Soldan of 1305 West Nine Mile road, of that city. Fleming confessed to stealing the car.

Pleasure, Poise, Fun and Friends

And a dozen and one other joys belong to a child when he plays the piano or organ. Why don't you start your youngster now? You can actually rent a new piano or organ for only $5.00 per month (plus cartage) with free lessons. Next to reading and writing, the most wonderful thing you can give your children is a musical education. We offer free piano or organ lessons with rental for only $5.00 per month. Naturally, if you decided to buy later, all money paid on rental will be credited toward purchase price. Don't hesitate, come in tonight. If you can't come in, phone or mail a card for free information. An aptitude test will be provided on your request—free of charge.

Loitering

and a problem to both shop-owners and shoppers. Both are inconvenienced and both are annoyed.

He intends, he said, to ticket any young people at any time who fail to follow warnings of his officers. If they are ticketed and are 17 years old, they will appear in the City's Justice Court, but if they are juveniles or under 17 they will be heard in the county's Juvenile Court.

The loitering in The Village will be cleaned up, he pointed out, but it is putting an extra and needless burden on the police department at a time when he has been forced to triple his road patrol in the City because of the rash of breaking and entering which has occurred in recent weeks.

Last November when the youth loitering in Village reached alarming proportions, Teetart began issuing loitering tickets. For a while the children obeyed to a degree the requests to keep the district a pleasant place to walk and shop.

But the lesson was short-lived, evidently. Police are again at the task of controlling youthful boys and girls for the benefit of the other citizens of the area.

LARCENY REPORTED

George DeLaura, 42, of 636 North Renaud, complained to Woods police on Sunday, March 14, that someone broke into his garage during the night and stole a full case of beer.

GP Woods Police Smash Tri-County Burglar Ring

tured before he could pick himself up. He and his companions were taken to the station for questioning.

Participating in the stake-out besides Andrews and Mast, were Police Lt. Harry Duross, Dets. Gerald Kensora, Donald Sabel and Robert Setchel; Police Sgts. Allen Selby and Thomas Kane, and Patrolmen Bernard Kelly, Jack Patterson, Leroy Tobian, Jack Eberst, Charles Hamel, Paul Titcombe and Kenneth Metcalf.

Mast, Kensora and Setchel took part in the surveillance of Ayers' home, before he was taken into custody. Ayers, it was said, was the keeper of the stolen goods, and a large quantity of the loot was recovered from his home.

Before entering the home at 1193 Sunningdale, the three burglars parked their car on Christine court, at Vernier road, and walked to rob. The car was confiscated and taken to the police pound behind the Woods station.

Much Loot Recovered
Director Andrews and Mast said that more than $10,000 worth of stolen articles, television sets, rifles, shotguns, items of jewelry, etc., have been recovered. The rifles and shotguns already recovered are valued at a total of more than $2,000, the police men said. More recoveries are expected shortly, they added.

When questioned by Mast and other officers at the station, Voakes confessed that he, Ayers and Bishop were involved in many burglaries, too many to count, but he did clear more than 40 break-ins in Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties, including the burglary of the Bloomfield Hills home.

He said that he and Ayers and Bishop frequented a Gratiot avenue bar in Detroit, where they made their plans for the burglaries. Voakes admitted to being the ringleader of the gang.

Took Advance Orders
Voakes said that they would take advance orders from anyone prior to the burglaries, for television sets, or whatever they wanted, then break into a likely home, and loot it of the ordered items.

He said that the trio often went to a city in Oklahoma, to dispose of items, especially jewelry.

At one time, he said, they had a house trailer filled with stolen goods, parked in a Detroit trailer camp, and when they returned from a sojourn to Oklahoma, they discovered that someone had broken into the trailer, and cleaned it out. "Naturally" this was not reported to police, Voakes said.

He also told questioning officers, that he and his two friends, when things got "too hot," and they were afraid police were on their trail, tossed many pieces of jewelry into garbage cans, and burned an unknown number of fur coats, including minks, so that they would not be caught with them.

Hope to Get Pearls
These jewelry pieces and the furs, of course, are lost for good, it was said, but there is hope for the recovery of the $50,000, 188-natural pearl necklace, and gems from other burglaries, said to still be in the possession of Bishop and his alleged friend, Mast said. The combined weight of the pearls is 437.24 grains.

It was disclosed that a television set, typewriter, tape recororder and other items were recovered from one home alone, leading police to believe that the home owner knew that the items had been stolen.

A comical note was added, when Kensora disclosed that as he and another officer went to a Detroit home to recover a television set, the "owner" begged that the set not be taken until a favorite program was finished. Of course, the policemen told him this was impossible because they had to go to other places to regain stolen loot.

The fine work in the apprehension of Voakes, and the closing of the identity and ensuing arrest of Ayers, and the identity of Bishop, and the clearing of the many burglaries, merited high praise from Detroit agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Michigan State Police. The Woods Department of Public Safety was congratulated for a job well done.

Proud of Department
City Administrator Chester Petersen expressed pride in the personnel of the department.

"I am very proud of the police officers who participated in the apprehension of the ringleader of this gang, and the subsequent breaking up of the gang," Petersen said.

"These officers are to be

Bishop Bayne To Give Talk

The Right Reverend Stephen Bayne, former Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion, and presently in charge of Overseas Missions for the Episcopal Church, will speak on Wednesday, March 24, at the Joint Lenten Program of Christ Church and Memorial Church.

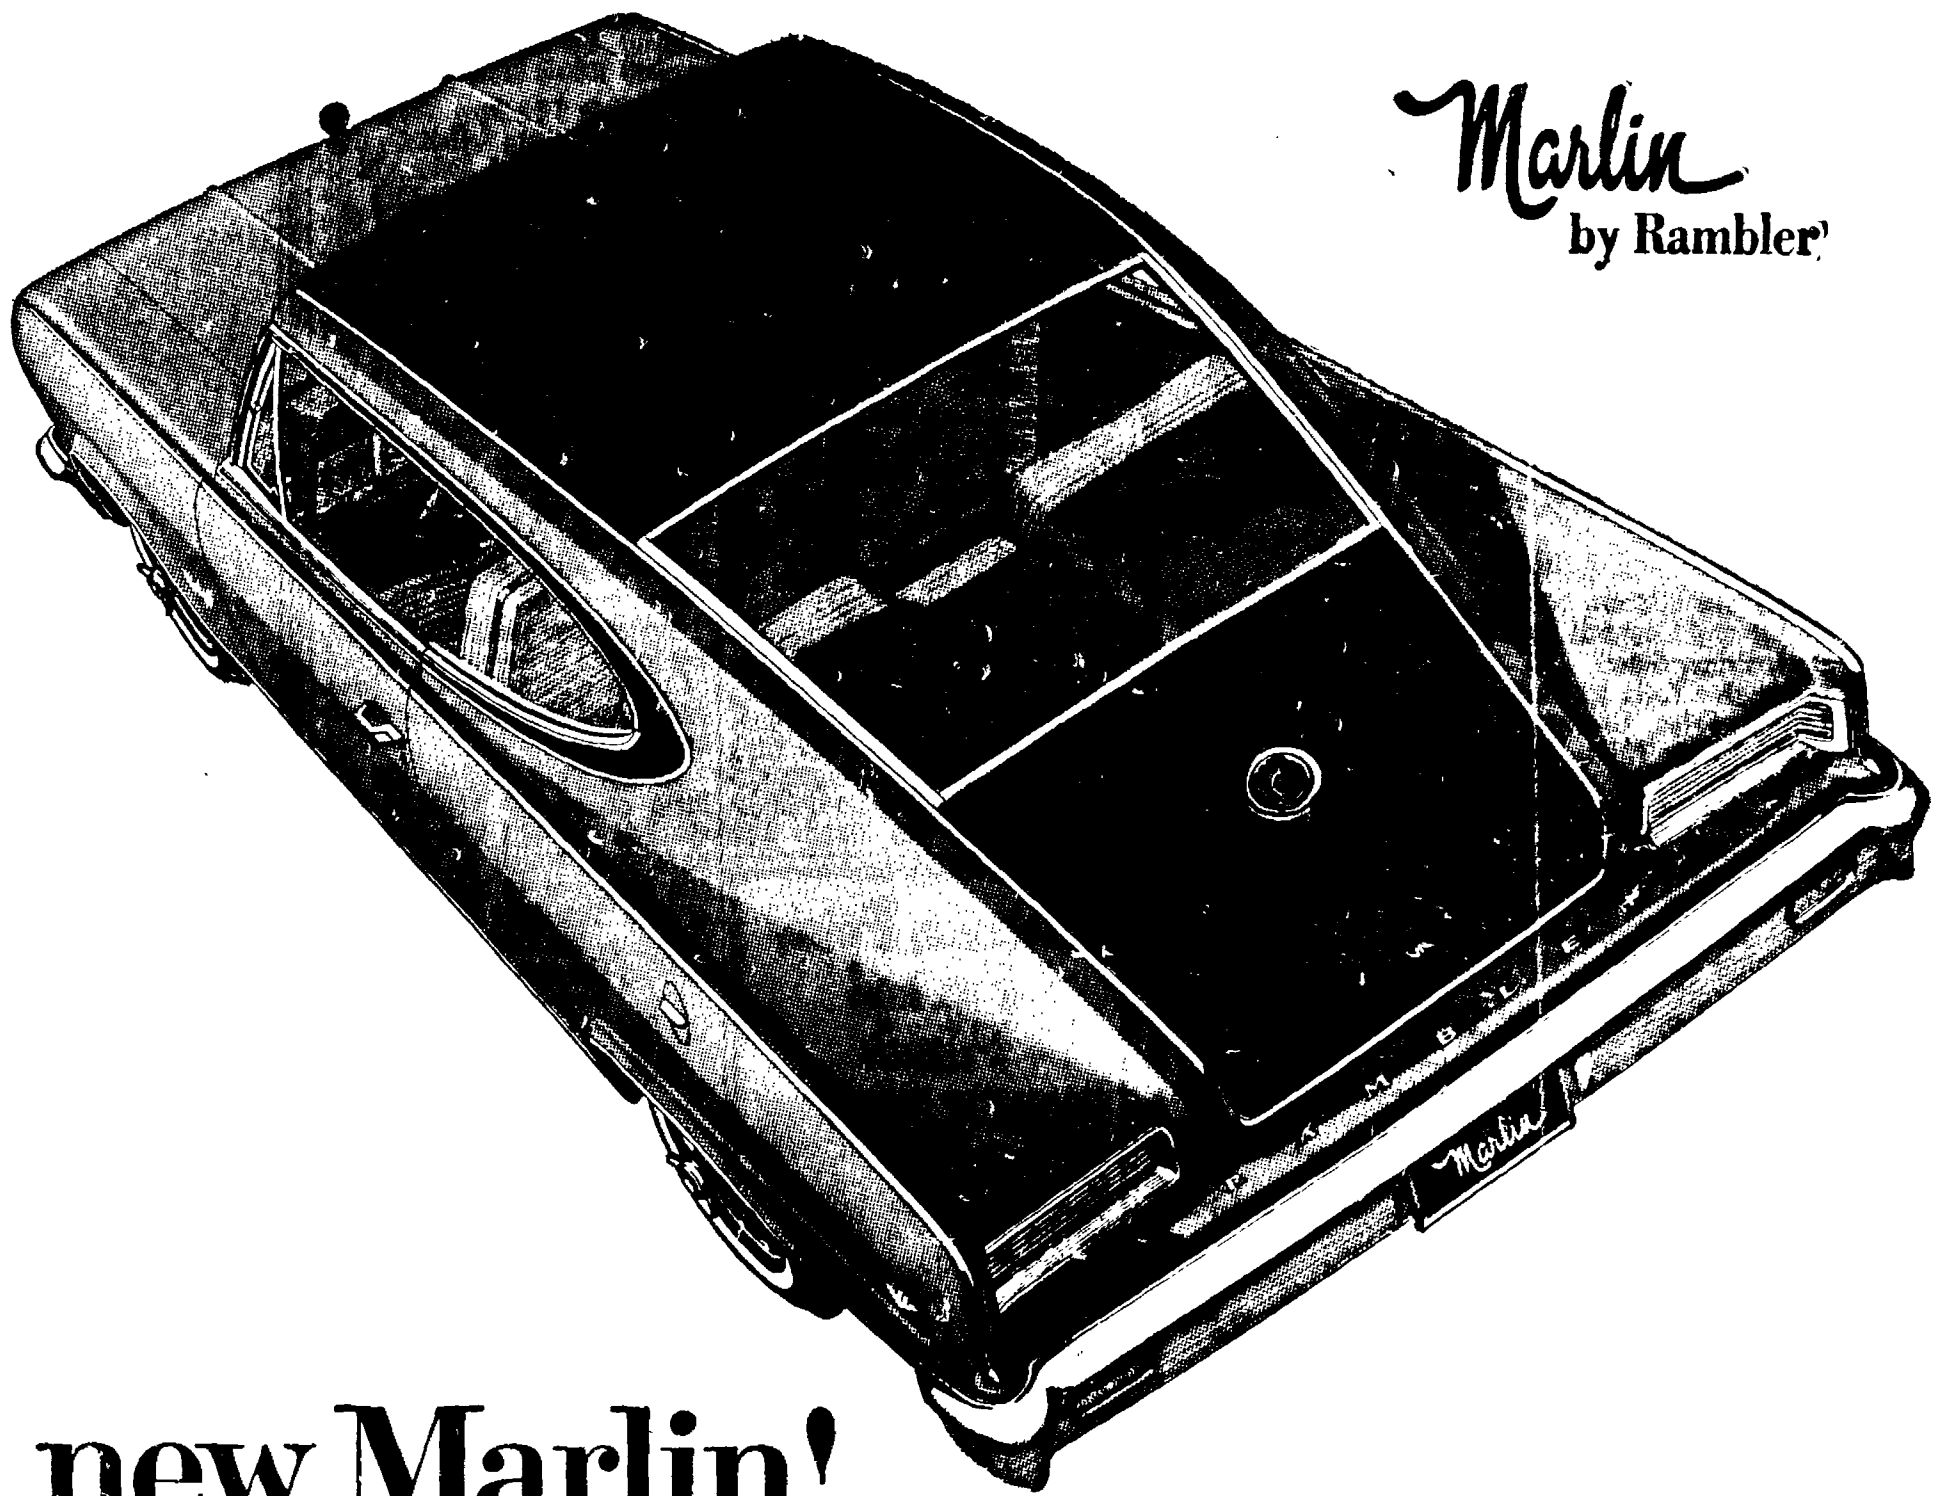

His address will begin at 7:30 o'clock at Memorial Church, on the topic "Christian Commitment and the Image of our World."

Bishop Bayne is recognized as one of the great contemporary leaders of the Christian Church, and has been deeply involved in the renewal of the churches and the ecumenical movement for many years. He recently was instrumental in developing "Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ," a document which calls for the rediscovery of commitment and mission in the Church.

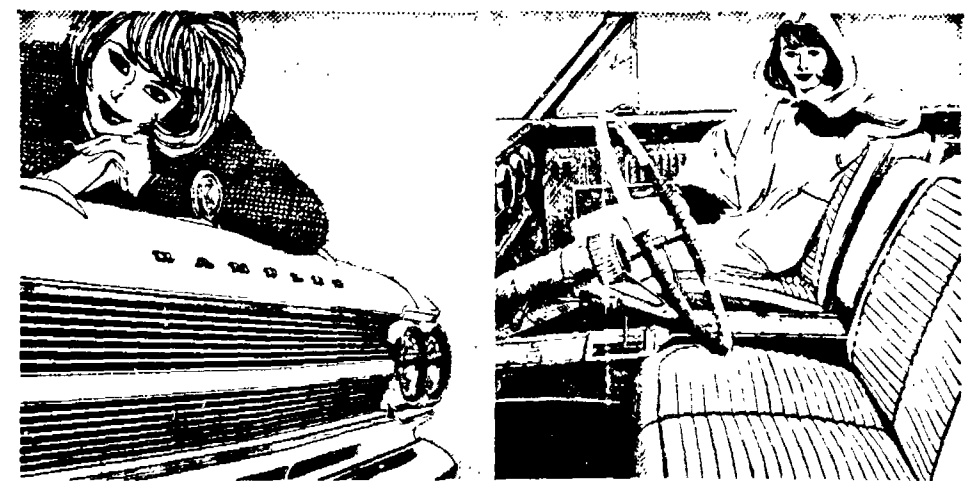

Dinner will be served in the Fellowship Hall of Memorial Church at 6:30 o'clock before the address, and reservations, at $1.50 a person, may be made at the Memorial Church Office, TU 5-3773. All are welcomed.

If you can not attend the dinner, come for the address at 7:30 o'clock.

*everybody wins

Monday, March 22!

WHERE TO

Vote at the public elementary school that serves your neighborhood.
Polls will be open 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Monday, March 22.

When you vote the YES, that lets our excellent school system borrow for construction we need right now . . . everybody wins!

A good school system is a priceless community asset. It keeps property values high . . . and protects your own investment. It also continues to make the Grosse Pointe school district one of the most admired, most desirable residential areas.

If you are a voting parent, the improved education you provide helps assure a better future for your children. If you have been educated in Grosse Pointe schools, you know the importance of your preparation in gaining college admission, in finding better employment, in advancement on the job.

These advantages deserve to be maintained. So, if you are a qualified registered voter who owns property in the Grosse Pointe school district, vote YES on both school bond proposals on Monday, March 22:

- Proposition No. 1 asks your approval to borrow $7,600,000 to build, furnish and equip a new senior high school; and to remodel and improve the existing high school.
- Proposition No. 2 asks your approval to borrow $750,000 to build, furnish and equip an auditorium-instructional center at the new high school site.

Based on today's building costs, the estimated cost for this necessary construction will be 1.66 mills. On a property assessed at $10,000.00 . . . this would mean $16.60 per year—or $1.39 per month. It is a modest increase . . . when you consider how much you gain:

- you make your good schools even better
- good schools improve your child's future
- good schools maintain property values, a protection for your own investment
- good schools make Grosse Pointe a better community

So vote YES . . . Monday, March 22! Everybody wins when you vote YES!

Association Council

HERE'S WHAT YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS SAY:

Edwin V. Larson—

Adequate schools represent the best investment we can make for the future of our youth.

Alexander Black—

Three years ago we were transferred to this area from California. We chose Grosse Pointe because of its excellent educational system. We feel another high school is vital in preserving this excellent system.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Juenemann—

We realize the urgent need for a second high school in Grosse Pointe and urge our friends and neighbors to vote affirmatively on propositions 1 and 2 on March 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schadler—

We agree with the Grosse Pointe School Board that a 1.66 mill levy is necessary for building a new high school and auditorium off Morningview Drive.

J. L. Diesing—

Surely we cannot deprive our children of the benefits to be derived from these proposals.

Mrs. Fred Adams—

Community growth is reflected in the need for a second high school. As a concerned citizen, I support the effort being made to provide adequate facilities to insure a continued program of quality education for our young people.

William J. Tate—

The new high school is vital to the maintenance of Grosse Pointe's high academic standards and will more than pay for itself by protecting our property values.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vitale—

We are in accord with the above proposals because, if passed, they will permit the continuation of the Special education classes through the 12th grade.

John T. Seiber—

If we are to maintain the high standards of education in Grosse Pointe, the new high school is urgently needed.

Art and Dorothy Sherman—

We believe we most urgently need the 800-seat auditorium along with the new high school. Present auditorium facilities are inadequate.

Shirley M. Evans—

We heartily support the proposed millage increase.

Dr. and Mrs. George Belanger—

Since the answer to the questions: Is this small tax levy needed? And, can only good come from it? is YES . . . then it is a privilege to vote YES on March 22.

Dr. and Mrs. Kennard Jones—

The proposed new high school and auditorium can greatly improve facilities for senior high instruction as well as relieve overcrowding at intermediate and elementary levels.

Barnes PTA vice-president Craig Marks—

These proposals are a reasonable request to support a demonstrated need. Our excellent school system is a major asset to our community and directly benefits each property owner whether or not he has school age children.

Patricia B. Lazo—

The new high school is a necessity to insure continuation of our fine educational system. Overcrowding diminishes the future of our children.

Frederick C. Bloy—

I strongly support the Grosse Pointe Board of Education proposals for Grosse Pointe High School North.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Seymour—

We support the Grosse Pointe School Board in the proposed 1.66 mill levy of March 22.

Gary R. O'Connor—

As an educator, I wholeheartedly endorse the proposed millage. There is no investment better than education.

Mrs. Donald Bentzen—

"A PROMISE TO KEEP"—the best educational facilities for the youth of our community.

Armin Grams, Ph. D.—

Shall we settle for anything short of the best where our children are concerned? Our job is to demonstrate leadership in education.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maynard—

Because our present high school was built to house 2,000 and now serves 2,681, we feel it vital that we all vote YES in the March 22 election. It will insure and preserve our enviable quality education for our children.

C. Jay Deeds—

Underline America, production giant, land of plenty, dedicated, loyal, hard-working people. Underline Education and you have the answer to Freedom's question. It began at the little crossroads one-room schoolhouse. For freedom's sake, vote YES!

H. E. Machamer, Richard PTA president—

I support the 1.66 mill levy for facilities necessary to continue quality education in the Grosse Pointe school system.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bushnell, Jr.—

In endorsing the proposed 1.66 mill levy, we recognize the need for both a new high school and the auditorium-instructional center. Indeed, we welcome the chance to share in the education of young people in our community.

William C. Beckenhauer—

Yes! I favor the Grosse Pointe Board of Education proposals for new facilities.

George S. Freeman—

Time is a daily miracle. We must use this time along with Education for the Future of Mankind. Let's put T.N.T. into Grosse Pointe and vote YES for today not tomorrow.

Mrs. Philip H. Dawson, Albion College Parents Association Treasurer—

Traditionally, Grosse Pointe students are better prepared for college level work. A "yes" vote on both proposals is necessary to sustain our high level of college preparation.

E. Joseph Zaccardelli—

The new high school will enable the Grosse Pointe school district to maintain its leadership in quality of education.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Tewalt—

We support the Grosse Pointe School Board's proposed 1.66 mill levy of March 22!

Robert G. Smith—

I feel that passage of this levy is necessary for our children's future and for our own future.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marantette—

We need a new high school now! Let's at least have one by 1967. Vote "yes" on March 22nd.

D. S. LaChapelle—

Marge and Doug Thomas—

Both proposals definitely worthy of our support.

Virginia Sargent—

The new high school should relieve pressures at existing elementary and junior highs. The entire community should benefit.

Mrs. Robert H. Snyder—

I am grateful for the Grosse Pointe School System. The millage proposal has my most enthusiastic support.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Vinci—

I support the Grosse Pointe School Board in the proposed 1.66 mill levy of March 22, 1965.

E. B. Kelly, Sr.—

The best possible educational facilities we can provide for our children are not luxuries, but absolute essentials. I support these proposals 100%.

Mrs. William Race—

also five percent interest rate as of January 22, together with the costs of the proceedings.

Mrs. Fox disclosed that approximately last July, the Wayne County Taxation Bureau set the assessed valuation of three pieces of club property at a total of $689,960. The club's representatives appeared before the Woods Board of Review seeking relief, which was denied.

The club appealed to the State Tax Commission, and last November, the commission, after a study, raised the club's assessed valuation to $850,110.

The club paid a total of $66,719.41 on the higher assessment for all taxes, announcing that it was being paid under protest, and that suit will be filed in Circuit Court for the rebate, and in the Appeals Court for a reversal of the Tax Commission's higher assessment.

At Monday night's meeting, the Woods council was notified that civil action proceedings have been filed against the city, under three separate suits, one for each of the properties involved.

The club is seeking to recover $5,605.90 paid on city taxes, $20,975.04, paid on county, school and drainage taxes. The sums are the total paid for the clubs three properties.

The club contends that the payment of the taxes were made under duress and protest, that the taxes were excessive, discriminatory and illegally levied under the Michigan General Property Tax Act.

REPORTS THEFT

The theft of her black leather purse was reported to Farms police on Wednesday, March 10, by Miss Sharon J. Higgins of 4885 Three Mile drive, Detroit. She said the purse was stolen from a table near the door of a Mack avenue bar, while she was in the bar. She said the purse contained five dollars in cash, charge plates and personal papers.

Bond Rally

Mrs. Hykes will tell how the Board's extensive study brought about the recommendation to build one new four-year high school instead of additions to 9 to 11 existing buildings. She will explain how the change to two four-year high schools will relieve the crowding at all age levels throughout the district.

To Explain Financing

Mr. Weber, senior member of the Board, will report on the proposed financing and cost to individual property owners. Mr. Pongracz will describe the emerging plan for repairs and minor remodeling at the present high school. The auditorium proposal will be explained by Mrs. Thompson, who will describe how this facility will serve as an instructional area during the regular school day.

Mr. Spagnoli will utilize the schematic floor plans, prepared by the Detroit architectural firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowing, and Sturton, and a model of the proposed North High School when he describes the proposals in detail. Following Mr. Spagnoli's presentation, ample time will be available for questions from the audience.

Sponsoring the rally is part of the League of Women Voters effort to help voters understand the facts concerning the school bond issues. Mrs. Minert Thompson, chairman of the League's committee which has studied school needs, and other League members have been speaking to church circle groups and other community groups to explain the bond issues and answer questions. The League also arranged tours of the High School so voters would have an opportunity to observe the present conditions there.

MEN'S CLOTHES BOOM

Sales in male apparel and accessories reached $10.2 billion in 1964, representing an increase in this area of merchandising of nearly 9% over the previous year.

To Show Color Films of Hawaii

Grosse Pointers will have an opportunity to visit our fiftieth state on Wednesday evening, March 24, when Curtis Nagel brings his unusual color films of Hawaii to the Parcels Auditorium as part of the local World Adventure Series. The presentation, which lasts about two hours, starts at 8 p.m.

"With the administration in Washington urging Americans to travel in the United States, Hawaii offers an excellent opportunity to get away from the American mainland by boat or by plane and yet stay in the U. S.," World Adventure Director George Pierrot said. "Hawaii has always offered many fascinations to people from all parts of the globe but now that it is actually one of our United States, the growth in tourist facilities and opportunities has grown unbelievably."

Curtis Nagel, besides taking vicarious travelers to Honolulu by ship, to Diamond Head, the Aloha Tower, Queen Liliuokalani's Palace, Waikiki Beach, and Pearl Harbor, also turns his color camera on hula dancers, flower leis, surfboards, orchids and outriggers. As a travel bonus, this film will even include a leisurely tour of San Francisco and a short excursion to the shops, bazaars, and restaurants of Hong Kong.

According to Mary Aceti, this year's Grosse Pointe World Adventure Course, despite the unusual winter season, has been the most successful ever. The Hawaii program is the second last of the season, which will close on April 7 with Don Cooper's film "Lumberjack in Alaska".

Curtis Nagel has made more than 65 color shorts for Hollywood producers in addition to his exciting travelogues. He has an unusual understanding of color and worked with technicians during its pioneer days. He also had much to do with perfecting that internationally-favored color process. Nagel produces a new color film each season and his symphonic and "on-the-spot" recorded musical backgrounds make his among the most outstanding films on the travel lecture circuit.

For ticket information, call the World Adventure Office, Detroit Institute of Arts, TR 2-7676 between 1 and 5 p.m. (except on Mondays).

Something to Take Away the Chill

Hot chocolate for a group of Safety Patrol Boys of Ferry School is being served by Mrs. John Chariot of 823 Hawthorne, room mother. This is a treat given to the boys after they have finished their school crossing duties, to help take the chill out of their bones after standing out in the cold and helping their schoolmates to cross streets, to and from school, every day. Mrs. Chariot is happy to pour for the boys, and they are just as happy to drink down the delicious beverage. The room mothers believe that this is the least that can be done for a group of boys doing a great job.

12 Pointers Win MSU Degrees

Degrees were awarded to 943 students at Michigan State University's winter term commencement exercises on Sunday, March 14.

The graduates included 49 candidates for the Ph. D. degree, 216 for the master's degree and 650 for the bachelor's degree. Another 23 students were candidates for the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree and 5 for Diplomas for Advanced Graduate Study.

Congressman Gerald R. Ford (R-Mich.), minority leader in the House of Representatives, was the commencement speaker and was awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

The MSU winter term closes tomorrow, March 19.

Those from the Pointe awarded degrees are: Ann C. Vangoe, 1209 Brys drive, doctor of veterinary medicine (high honors); Elaine N. Brake of 988 Washington, bachelor of arts in Social Work; James A. Culotta of 114 Beaconsfield, bachelor of arts in General Business Administration; Thomas F. Heinrichs of 1914 Hunt Club drive, bachelor of science in Microbiology; Ronald A. Heinrichs of 1914 Hunt Club drive, bachelor of science in Microbiology; Marie E. Hilbert of 65 Clairview road, bachelor of arts in Elementary Education; Michael L. Moran of 1239 Sunningdale, bachelor of arts in General Business Administration.

Also, Ann C. Nicholas of 70 Hampton, bachelor of arts in Art Practice; William K. Springett of 1318 Nottingham, bachelor of arts in Letters; Barbara K. Steyer of 1530 Fairholme, bachelor of science in Child Development; Charles P. Weiss of 477 Shelbourne, bachelor of arts in History; and Diane E. Wurst of 257 Lewison, bachelor of science in Child Development.

School Closed By Broken Main

Maire Elementary school children were treated to an afternoon of play in the recent steadily falling snow.

Not through the leniency of Principal John A. Hammel but through the cooperation of a water main. It broke.

Since all water sources were necessarily cut off, school officials decided to close down for the last half of the day.

Twenty students, however, remained at Maire under supervision because their mothers either worked or had planned to be gone from home for the day.

This is the second unscheduled half-day vacation Maire pupils have had during the school year.

If you have gas heat, let 'the Joneses'
keep up with you.

(You've got the best there is.)

You're entitled to feel snug as well as comfortable if you heat with Gas. That's why, where Gas is available, practically everyone gets it. Want the facts? In the areas we serve, some 700,000 families heat with Gas. (That's hundreds of thousands more than those who heat with electricity.)

It probably never occurred to you that anyone who had the opportunity would heat with anything but Gas. That's understandable. But there are other heating systems. Some are dirty. Some are expensive. Gas is neither, as you know.

Gas heat is filtered heat, free of dust and pollen. It's "fresh air" heat. It's circulated uniformly through your home. You're free of that stuffy "vacuum bottle" feeling. Smoke and odors slip away. So does stale, germ laden air. And Gas is healthfully humid, not bone-dry.

So much for creature comforts. Gas is easier on your budget, too. Costs up to 1/4 less than you'd pay for electric heat. And you have even comfort throughout your home—even in your basement. Besides, Gas comes to you in underground pipes. You can't run out of it. No power failure cuts it off. It's there. And mighty comforting. Maintenance? You can practically forget it. The silent blue flame of a Gas burner just can't wear out.

Pity about "the Joneses." isn't it? But they can have Gas heat, too. It takes only about four hours to convert most heating systems.

Get with it, "Joneses": Live modern... for less... with Gas.

in your design. (Mr. Alexander studied landscaping at the University of Michigan and Michigan State University, and graduated from Wayne State University. He is a landscape contractor who can take credit for many of the beautiful gardens in this area.)

II. "Lawns—Varieties and Maintenance." William Mihele, Sr. What type of grass will make the best lawn for your home. The kinds of grasses best suited for good lawns in this area. How to prepare your grounds for seeding or sodding. Amount of sunlight or shade during the growing period. How to rejuvenate old lawns. Fertilizing, watering and general lawn maintenance. (Mr. Mihele has been a turf and rose specialist for more than 30 years. He is immediate past president of the Men's Garden Club of East Detroit, a member of the Metropolitan Detroit Landscape Association, Michigan Association of Nurserymen, American Association of Nurserymen, American Rose Society and National Rose Society of England.)

III. "Use of Perennials." Leland J. Gilmour. The choosing, planting and care of perennials. Discussion will include soil preparation, and when, how and where to plant. Sunny and shady areas. Chrysanthemums will be particularly covered because of this lecturer's vast experience with them. (Leland Gilmour is one of three horticultural judges in Michigan accredited by the Men's Garden Clubs of America, and a charter member of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe. Mr. Gilmour studied chemical engineering at the University of Maryland and is now director of the Detroit Garden Center.)

IV. "Annuals—Their Place in the Garden." Vincent R. DePetris. This internationally known hybridizer will discuss a variety of plants which can be used in a beautiful, well-formed garden, flowering from spring into late fall. Specific items will include: Soil preparation, when to plant, how to plant; starting seed in a hot house, hot bed or cold frame. How to balance the different species to give maximum beauty, form, height, spread and color effect. "Formal" versus "informal" beds. (Vincent R. DePetris was educated at Rhode Island and Harvard Universities. He has worked more than 40 years in growing, cataloging and clarifying chrysanthemum species; he is a past president of the American Chrysanthemum Society and an honorary life member of the National Chrysanthemum Society. Two national medals have been presented to Mr. DePetris for his work in this area, and in 1961 he was cited by the American Association for the Advancement of Science as one of the leaders in American Science.)

V. "Roses." J. Arthur Shimm. A practical study and analysis of roses for the home garden. This lecture will cover the different types and varieties available with colored illustrations, will include the preparation of the soil, layout of beds and planting of roses. Also, choice of plants for beauty, hardiness and something of the cost involved. Care, maintenance and fertilization will be studied. Fungus diseases and insects which are encountered in the rose garden will be discussed, but these will be more thoroughly covered in the lecture on "Garden Enemies". (Mr. Shimm has served as director of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe and was president of the Club in 1963. A long-time member of the Detroit Rose Society and one of the organizers of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society in 1963, he is now serving as president of the Grosse Pointe Club.)

VI. "Bulbs, Corms and Tubers." David L. Swanney. A discussion of those species of bulbs, corms and tubers which blossom in the summer (ie: iris, lilies, peonies and dahlias). Also, tulips, daffodils, narcissus and hyacinths for spring color. Includes the lesser known small bulbs, such as Chinodoxa, Siberian squills, crocus and grape hyacinth. Soil preparation and fertilization. "Overplanting" spring bulbs with annuals. (Mr. Swanney spent five years on the Kain Park estate in West Lothian, Scotland, and two years at the Botanical Garden, Edinburgh. He left there to work at the Hillcrest estate in Swickley Heights, Penn., and from there moved to the Albert Spalding estate at Great Barrington, Mass. Mr. Swanney is now superintendent of one of the large estates in Grosse Pointe.)

VII. "Garden Enemies." Elmore W. Frank. The various insects and plant diseases common in this area will be the concern of this lecture. Colored slides will be used to help in the identification of many of the horticultural enemies. The safe use of modern chemicals will be discussed. (Elmore Frank is an accredited judge of horticulture of the Men's Garden Clubs of America. He is a charter member of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe and a past president. He is Consulting Rosarian in the Grosse Pointe area for the American Rose Society and past president of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society. He is also an amateur entomologist and does all of his own photography.)

Interim Budget Approved By City as Council Meets

The city council of Grosse Pointe City at its meeting Monday night, March 15, approved an interim fiscal year budget, which will run from April 1 through June 30.

The interim budget is necessary because the voters of the City last fall approved a charter amendment which changes the municipal government's fiscal year from July 1 through June 30. Under the old charter the financial year was on an April 1 through March 31 basis.

The budget for this three-month interval totals $202,650.
Of that, $147,000 will come from property taxes and $55,650 from other revenue sources such as sales tax diversion, Municipal Court, State weight and gas taxes and licenses and permits.

Taxpayers in the City will not receive a billing on April 1 this year as they have in the past.
Instead on July 1 when tax notices for the coming six months are mailed, they will include a separate item which covers the taxes for the interim period of April 1 through June 30.

Monies to operate during the three months will be financed by funds provided from the sale of tax anticipations.

In other action, the council authorized payment of $2,450 to law firm of Beaumont, Smith and Harris and $1,674.37 to the J. A. Broughton Company, contractors.

A request of Felix Ritter for a license to sell beer at 17898
Mack avenue was turned down by the city fathers because they considered the facilities inadequate. City manager John Cantwell was also authorized to purchase two Cushman model truck-sters at a cost of $2300 each.

Cantwell informed the council that on March 10 he formally filed application with the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission requesting permission for issuance of the $1,325, 000 general obligation sewer improvement bond. The council had authorized this action at a special meeting on March 1.

The council also decided at Monday night's meeting to hold another special session on Thursday, April 1.

At that time it will consider the sale of $70,000 of tax anticipation notes for the interim fiscal period; authorization for the city manager to apply with the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission for the sale of an additional $130,000 in tax anticipation notes; the award of a catch basin repair and replacement contract, and consider a special contract with George Jerome and Company for the purposes of completing the relief sanitary and storm sewer project.

Judges to Talk To Democrats

The Grosse Pointe Democratic Club is sponsoring a series of five meetings on the topic "Are We Coddling Criminals?" with talks on the topic by Circuit Judges George Bowles, Theodore Bohn, Joe Sullivan and Horace Gilmore and Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris.

Some 100 persons have been invited to each of the meetings, scheduled on March 25, 26, 27 and 28 and April 3.

Speakers will place special emphasis on the changing face of criminal law, involving such constitutional concepts as search and seizure, right to counsel and the use of confessions.

The public is invited to attend any of the scheduled meetings.
Interested persons are asked to contact the hostess of the meeting which they plan to attend.

Following is a schedule of the meetings and hostesses:

Thursday, March 25, 8 p.m., Judge Bowles will speak at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger McGuire, 268 McMillan, telephone 886-4298. Co-hostesses, Mesdames Norma Matthews, Peggy Craighead, Betty Sorenson and Dorothy Eckers.

Friday, March 26, 8 p.m.,
Judge Bohn, at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. John Zytewick, 703
Westchester, telephone 822-5573. Co-hostesses, Mesdames Connie Formiller, Ellen Payn-ter, Alice Fine and Affie Roumell.

Saturday, March 27, 8 p.m.,

Four Burglaries in City

Again the thief left footprints in the snow, which enabled police to surmise that he came over the side fence behind the garage and left through a gate near the house, which opened on the sidewalk at Charlevoix.

Tettaert sees a similarity in the Washington road burglary and two other breaking and entering cases that happened March 3 in homes across the street from each other. At that time the residences of Carson Grunewald of 777 Lakeland and John Lynch of 772 Lakeland were broken into. The thief, however, only managed to get $2, which was from the Grunewald house.

All three entries were made in the early evening hours and through breaking windows in rear doors. Police also indicate that they are accumulating evidence that they were committed by the same person.

Tettaert emphasized that if a resident is leaving his home unattended for even a few hours, he should take certain steps to protect his house from robbery.

Gives Good Advice

The seven steps which he outlined were: leave a light burning; do not pull down shades or close drapes; do not leave notes indicating time of return; do not leave key under a door mat; over a door or in a mail box; lock all doors and windows; close garage doors; and tell a neighbor how long you will be gone.

If you are going to be out of town for several days, Tettaert recommends, in addition to the above rules, that you stop newspapers and milk delivery; not announce your absence in newspapers; have mail held or forwarded to you; have neighbors remove advertisements from the entrance to your house; notify police of your absence and where you will be in case of emergency.

Tettaert is also asking residents to report immediately to the City police any suspicious looking person or persons in the area. It would greatly assist the department in tracking down the burglars. A call of such a nature is not a nuisance to the officers but extremely helpful.

Nine times out of 10 nothing will develop from the investigation but the tenth could be just the one to aid the police and save the City residents worry and anguish.

Pointers Take Part In Fleet Operation

Marine Private First Class T. M. Finn, son of Mrs. H. R. Finn of 888 Blairmore court, Marine Corporal Paul J. Holloway, son of Joseph C. Holloway of 1648 Renaud road, Fireman Apprentice Robert E. Newman, son of Marshall F. Newman of 974 Beaconsfield avenue, and Marine Lance Corporal Carl J. Schwarz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Schwarz, of 473 Calvin avenue, participated February 23-March 12 in a major fleet training operation called "Silver Lance" off the coast of California while serving with Headquarters Battalion, First Marine Division, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The operation, under the direction of the Commander of the First Fleet, is providing extensive training in every facet of Naval and amphibious warfare. Participating units are receiving training in strike, anti-submarine, mine and counter-mine, anti-air and electronic warfare.

"Silver Lance" involves more than 60 ships and 50,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel. During the operation, the battalion is providing administrative, communication and reconnaissance support to the sea assault force.

Army Aide

CLARENCE J. REESE, of 1231 Grayton road, will attend the 11th National Conference of Civilian Aides to the Secretary of the Army at Fort Bliss, Tex., March 22-24.

Mr. Reese, who is the Civilian Aide for Michigan, will be briefed by key Army officials on recent developments within the Army and plans for the future. The opening address will be made by the Army Chief of Staff, General Harold K. Johnson.

A highlight of this year's conference will be a demonstration of Army weapons systems at Fort Bliss and White Sands Missile Range, N.M.

The 67 Civilian Aides to the Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes represent the Army in every state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. They are appointed for two-year terms and serve without remuneration.

Mr. Reese, who has been an Aide since 1963, interprets Army policies and objectives for communities in his area of interest and advises the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of Staff on matters of mutual interest to the public and the Army.

President of the Continental Motors Corp. in Muskegon, he is director of the Lake Foundry and Machine Company of Muskegon, Wisconsin Motor Co., Gray-Marine Motors Co., Hercules-Gallion Steel Products Co., Dayton Chemical Laboratories and the Continental Aviation and Engineering Co.

Mr. Reese is a recipient of the Free Enterprise Award as one of the top 11 industrialists in the nation, a member of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce and president of the Aero and Space Club of Muskegon.

Park Policemen Given Citations

Twenty-one Park police officers have had commendations placed in their records for the apprehension of criminals whose arrests were brought about by personal initiative on the part of the policemen, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers on Thursday, March 11.

The chief said that the commendations were for actions during 1963 and 1964, and were placed in the records to bring them up to date.

The commendations cite the officers for using initiative, intuition, memory, and records to bring about the arrest of those who committed crimes, or through investigative process, pursued slim leads, eventually arriving at a conclusion that brought about an arrest.

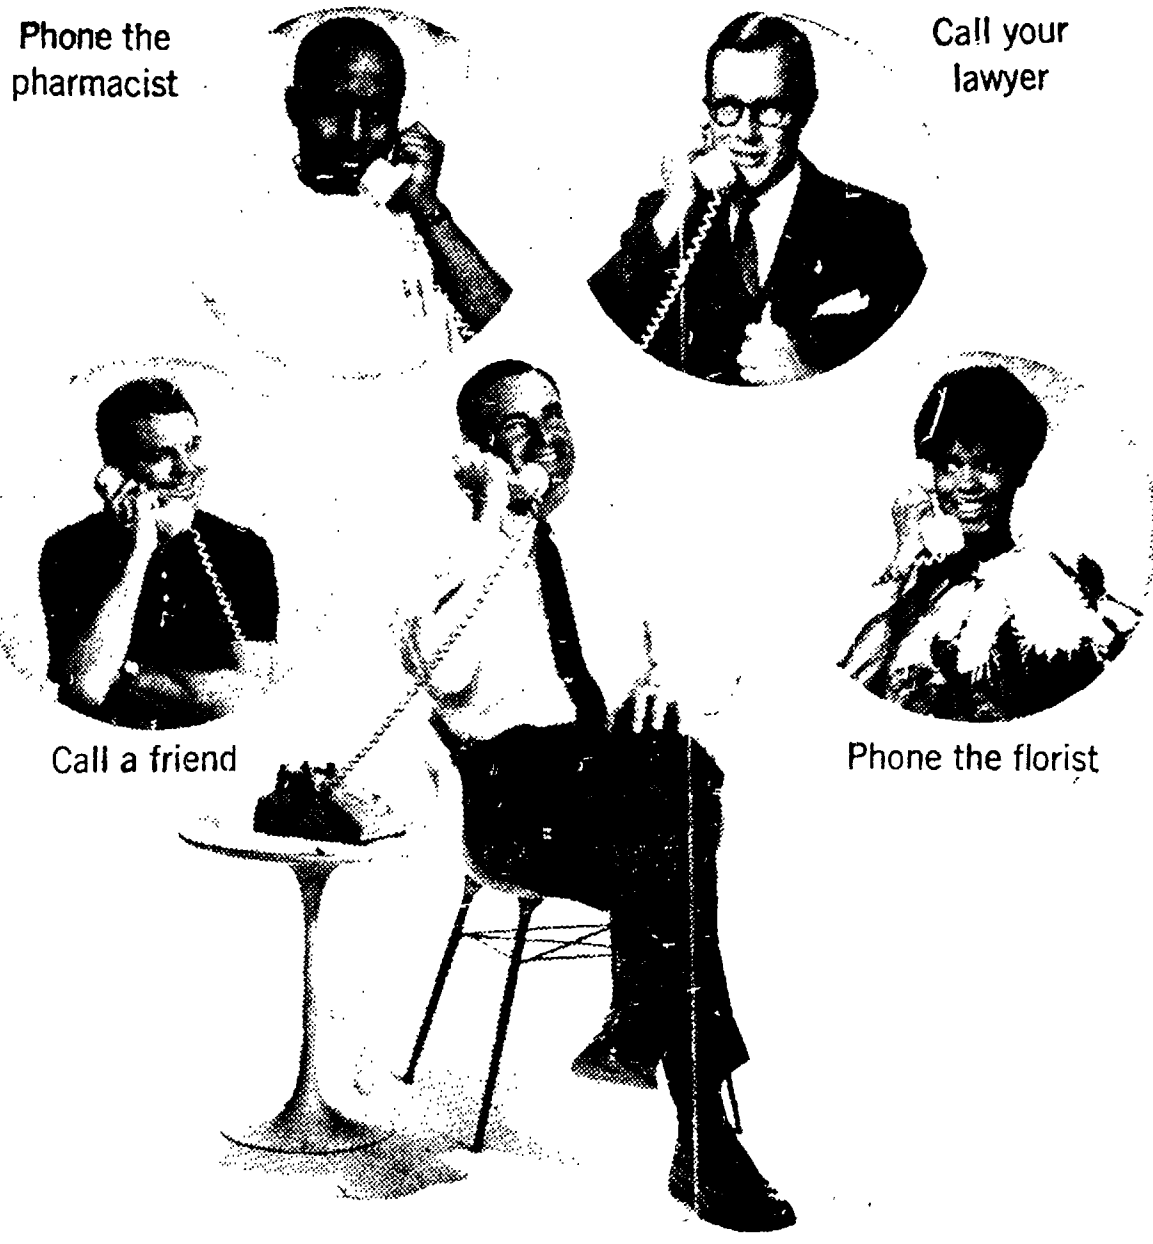

The following is a list of policemen who have been commended, and the number of commendations that have been added to their records:

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, three; Det. Lt. Arnold Hough, five; Det. James LaPratt, 15; Sgt. Henry Coonce, four; Sgt. Gordon Duncan, four; Sgt. Charles French, two; Sgt. Thomas Martin, two; Cpl. George Blair, two.

Patrolmen: Gustave Boone, one; William Crandall, five; Donald DelPlace, two; William Furtaw, eight; Rodney Wedding, three; Collin LaLonde, six; Richard Warren, one; Bobby McAlister, four; Ralph Moore, four; Gary Mitchell, six; Robert Salford, three; and Henry Wilson, eight.

An Open Letter to the Residents of the Grosse Pointes:

It has been our pride and satisfaction that the Grosse Pointe School System has long been in the top percentile of the country. This recognition would not have been merited without the combined wisdom of an excellent Board of Education, a dedicated corps of trained teachers and a well-informed Citizens Advisory Committee.

At the request of these groups, we are being asked to go to the polls on March 22 to ratify a 1.66 millage increase which will enable us to construct a second high school as well as an auditorium and instructional center.

This proposition has been endorsed, after many months of consideration, by the School Board and Advisory Committee, by the P.T.A. groups in the various elementary and junior high schools, by the Mothers Club at the existing high school, by the City Councils of the five Grosse Pointes, and by the local newspapers.

The need for the new high school is imperative. The referendum on the new auditorium, to quote Dr. Frank Parcells, will enable us "to make a choice between high school facilities that are merely excellent and those that are truly superior."

We have no choice. We must listen to the considered propositions of our educators who have provided us with an outstanding and foresighted plan to maintain the excellence of our school system.

Launch Drive To Aid Retarded

The month of March often comes in like a lion but one group of people in Grosse Pointe hopes this year it will go out with a roar. March has been designated as "Membership Month" by Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children, and with a successful drive, they hope to corral a lion's share of new members from a cross section of the community by April 1.

The Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children was formed in February 1963, to promote the welfare of the mentally retarded in the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods and to foster the development of programs in their behalf.

During the first year the Association grew to 70 members, an indication of the great and growing interest in the mentally retarded in this area. "We need the support of the whole community however," stated David E. Hyde, president of this local chapter, "if we are to improve the situation of the retarded."

Mr. Hyde emphasized the association is not conducting a fund-raising campaign but a membership drive.

The Grosse Pointe Association is one of 1,000 member associations of the National Association for Retarded Children, most of whom are conducting similar drives for new members this month. In 1964 the March drives raised the national membership figure from 85,000 to over 100,000.

Woods Council Okays Contracts

The Woods Council accepted bids on two projects, and will study a third before making a decision, it was brought out at a regular meeting held on Monday, March 15.

On recommendation of Pate, Hirn and Bogue, Inc., city engineers, the council awarded a contract to the Mac-Way Construction Company, Inc., to install approximately 1,930 lineal feet of an eight-inch and six-inch water main and appurtenances in Bramcaster, Craig and Leslie avenues. The firm offered to do the job for $17,581.10, the lowest of 11 bids submitted.

The Souter Construction Company won the council's consent to construct two tennis courts and three shuffle board courts at the lakefront park, and two shuffle board courts at Ghesquiere Park. All the courts will have asphalt topping. The company will do the entire project for a total of $20,729.52. Two other firms lost out on the bids.

None of the firms submitted a bid price for the installation of flood lighting on the tennis courts at the lakefront park, and the council authorized City Administrator Chester Petersen to seek separate bids for this program.

Bids on furnishing of labor, material and equipment for the installation of approximately 940 lineal feet of steel sheet piling, with concrete alternate, with necessary appurtenances, and for the construction of a concrete boat launching ramp, and the excavating of material from the Milk River, at the lakefront park, was tabled for further study.

The council decreed that the matter will be studied at its next executive session, and will render a decision before the expiration of a 30-day deadline, which began on March 3, the date the bids were opened and tabulated.

Eight companies have submitted bids on the projects.

Council Grading Programs on TV

The last meeting of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council were held on Monday, March 15, at the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

Each member had been asked to watch and evaluate several television programs. At the meeting a summary was made of the members' opinions. The programs that the members agree are outstanding will be recommended for family viewing. A letter expressing the members' objections to certain programs because of moral standards, violence or any other reason will be sent to the network sponsoring the programs.

A list of the programs recommended by the Television Council will be sent home with the children in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades in all the Grosse Pointe schools.

Police-Fire Officials Issue Warning on Cleaning Fluid

The NEWS has been asked to publish a warning prepared by the National Safety Council of Chicago, as a public service to residents of the Pointe who patronize coin-operated dry-cleaning centers. The request was made by Pointe police and fire officials.

The warning reads: "Perchloroethylene is the cleaning agent most widely utilized in coin-operated dry-cleaning centers. It has been selected because it is relatively non-inflammable and not nearly as toxic as carbon tetrachloride. Despite its comparative safety, it must still be handled with respect."

Recently, two children were overcome by perchloroethylene vapors when they were left for a few minutes in a closed automobile, in which a newly-cleaned six-pound wool rug had been placed. The rug had not been dried properly, and the solvent fumes immediately filled the car. Luckily, the children were revived and no permanent injury could be detected.

"Not so fortunate was a 16-year-old boy on a camping trip to Canada. Before leaving the United States, his sleeping bag had been dry-cleaned and an amount of solvent was still in the bag when he first had occasion to use it many hours and miles later.

"During the night his father awoke to find the boy in convulsions, but was not able to get medical help soon enough and the boy died."

"The old rule-of-thumb which industrial health people use for carbon tetrachloride concentrations might well be applicable here: 'If you can smell it, you're breathing too much of it.'"

Writing Contest Awards Won by Pointe Students

For the second time in two years, students in The Grosse Pointe Public School System, have won first places in both the Junior and Senior Division of the Scholastic Writing Awards sponsored by the Detroit News.

Richmond (Ric) Hendee, 17, of 488 Lakeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Hendee, is the contest's Senior Division winner with two key awards, an honorable mention and a commendation.

Christine Graves, 14, of 1304 Buckingham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Graves, an eighth-grade pupil at Pierce Junior High School, also won two keys, an honorable mention and a commendation as the Junior Division winner.

The local entries were selected from among 11,485 pieces of writing entered in the contest by students in private, public and parochial schools in Lenawee, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

The 25 writing classifications ranging from short stories to dramatic scripts were divided into two divisions. The Senior Division includes students in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. The Junior Division includes students in the 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th grades.

Of the total of 103 Senior key winners in the competition, 11, or 10.7 per cent are local public school students. Of 229 honorable mention winners, 30, or 13.1 per cent are Grosse Pointe Public School students. Among the total of 358 commendation winners, 26, or 7.3 per cent are our public school students.

There were 67 Grosse Pointe Public School winners, or 9.7 per cent of the total of 690 in the Senior classification.

The local public school system had 48 out of 309 Junior classification winners, for 15.6 per cent of the total. The breakdown shows 13 or 26.6 per cent of the Junior Key winners, 12 or 11.2 per cent of 107 in the honorable mention category, and 23, or 16.5 per cent as commendation winners from The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Schools Offer Lapidary Class

Lapidary, a craft almost as old as the rocks on which it is based, will be offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

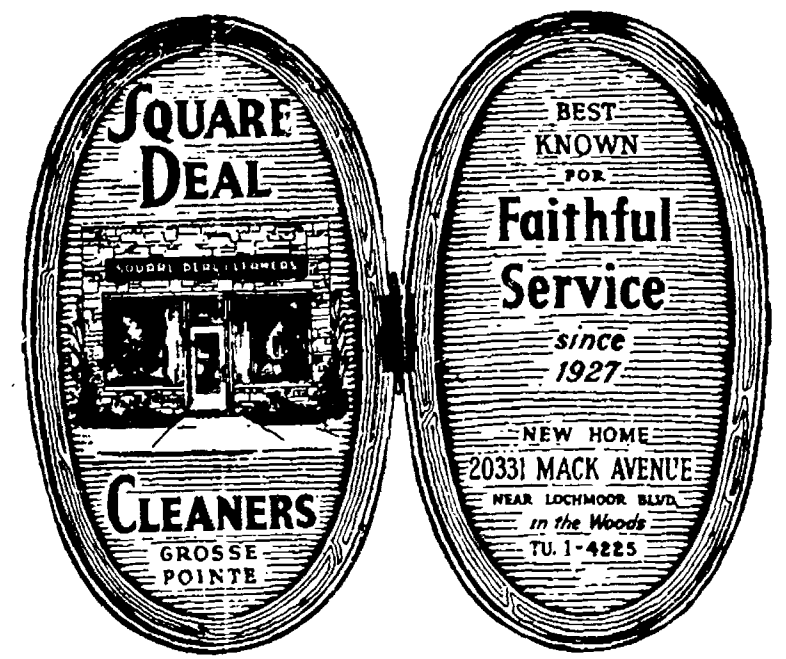

The art of cutting, polishing, mounting, collecting and identifying the common gem stones, will be taught by Joseph Devine, and is scheduled to begin on Monday, March 22. This will be a 10-week course, meeting from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

According to the instructor, this is a fascinating hobby which becomes a lifelong one with some enthusiasts, and can be pursued by anyone, as no special talent is required. The most insignificant looking stone can be cut, polished and mounted into a beautiful setting for jewelry; or simply added to a rock collection for greater knowledge and appreciation of the natural beauty it possesses. Advance enrollment is required, and additional information and registration may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services at TUxedo 5-3808 or TUxedo 5-0271.

State Record Shattered By Blue Devil Swimmers

By Ric Hendee '65
A spunked-up Grosse Pointe High School relay team of Craig Dever, Mike Neil, John Rentenbach, and Tom Mertz smashed the state record for the 200-yard freestyle in the Michigan Class A Swimming Championships last Saturday.

The relay, a stroke-for-stroke dual with a powerful Blenheim team, finished in 1:31.2, nine-hundredths of a second better than the former state mark. But a come-from-behind last-length effort by Dever, anchor-boy Tom Mertz gave Grosse Pointe the nod, the first place, and the state record. Blenheim's Seanholm won the meet, though, taking the Class A title for the third straight year. But Battle Creek Central edged out a surprised Royal Oak Kimball for the runner-up position, held by Kimball last year.

The Devils finished 7th in the meet, beating Austin by only one point. Last year Grosse Pointe took 9th in the championships.

Not quite as exciting as the freestyle relay, but still important, Devil efforts were made in Dick Green, Craig Dever, Tom Mertz, Sandy MacDonald, and the medley relay. In the diving, Green knocked off 4th of the 53 competitors to take 12th place in the finals. Dever was the only Grosse Pointe boy who qualified individually to swim in the Saturday night finals. (Only the six best make the finals). His preliminary time of 22.8 in the 50-yard freestyle tied him with Seanholm's Bill Prew for fifth. That night he finished sixth.

In the 100-yard freestyle, Tom Mertz, in the water for the first time in over a week, splashed to an eighth with a time of 51.6. A sprained arm had kept Mertz away from the pool since the day before the BCL Finals but a week of rest seems to have put it back into good shape as Mertz also swam on the record-breaking relay.

MacDonald snatched another 12th for the Devils in the 100-yard butterfly and the medley relay team of Jim Shirilla, Dale DeMuelemeester, Sandy MacDonald, and John Rentenbach, still another.

So the season is over, with Grosse Pointe as both BCL dual meet champs and league championship winners, and the ultimate award for all the months of practice and pain — letters — will be presented at a Dad's Club dinner two weeks from today.

League to Hold Coaches' Clinic

At a meeting held at Parcels Junior High School, Wednesday, March 10, the Board of Governors of the Woods-Shores Little League announced that arrangements had been completed for the annual Baseball Coaches' Clinic to be held at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Speaking to an audience composed of parents, coaches, and officials of District Six, Training Director John Mathews stated that the Woods-Shores Board was very pleased that they had been chosen to be the host of this year's clinic. "We here in the Woods-Shores area have long recognized the need for a coaching training program for our managers and coaches, and now our early registration, we can see that other areas are aware of this need."

He stated the sessions would be held under the direction of Ernest Bauer and Edward Werner at the High School on the evenings of March 24, 25, 29 and 30 and would cover all aspects of early training of the boy through the philosophy of coaching.

Mr. Mathews pointed out that although space was limited for the clinic, arrangements had been made with Mr. Bauer to increase the size of the group attending, and if anyone was interested in attending, they should contact him by calling TU 1-7407 for further details.

Laker Cagers Win Regional

By Jim Brunson
The St. Paul Lakers basketball team clinched the regional championship last Saturday, March 13, by eliminating Wyandotte Mt. Carmel 61-46.

St. Paul took a first quarter lead of 16-7, a halftime lead of 29-21 and a third period margin of 40-32. The Lakers then sent Mt. Carmel hopes down the drain by scoring 21 points in the fourth period.

Don Amezcua paced the Lakers with 16 points. Dave Letscher had 15, and Mike Hourigan and Bill Bigham each added 13.

On Thursday, March 11, St. Paul bested arch-rival St. Thomas 77-67 in a hard-fought battle. After trailing 19-12 at the end of the first period, the Bluebreaks rallied to within one point at halftime, 32-31. St. Paul kept the lead at the end of the third period, 50-47, and killed the St. Thomas hopes by scoring 27 points in the fourth quarter.

Dave Letscher had 21 points for the Lakers, Mike Hourigan 19, and Bill Bigham, 17. Mike Pulaski led St. Thomas with 24 points.

The Lakers downed St. Theresa last Tuesday, March 9, by a final score of 61-52. St. Paul came from behind a 22-21 halftime deficit to take a third quarter lead of 39-36. The red-hot Lakers then pumped in 22 points in the final period.

All three games were played at Bishop Gallagher High School.

St. Paul was to play Flint St. Agnes, the Grand Blanc Regional winner, on a neutral court Wednesday, March 17.

The winner will go to Lansing for the State "Class C" semifinals at Lansing Civic Center, Friday, March 19. Finals will be held at Michigan State University Jenison Fieldhouse, Saturday at 4:30.

Little League Meets in Park

More than 200 boys and approximately 60 adults attended the annual pre-season meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League in the auditorium of Pierce Junior High School last Wednesday night.

Arthur H. Getz, president of the League, announced the following schedule for try-outs:

All 11 and 12-year-olds, 8:30 a.m., April 3. (Rain date—1:30 p.m., April 4).
National League 9 and 10-year-olds 9:30 a.m., April 10. (Rain date—1 p.m., April 11).
American League 9 and 10-year-olds 1:30 p.m., April 10. (Rain date—3:30 p.m., April 11).

Boys born between the first and the 15th of the month are automatically assigned to the National League. Those born on the 16th or after are assigned to the American League.

The try-outs will be held on the diamonds behind Defer School.

It was stressed during the meeting that no boy who had not attended at least one try-out session would be eligible for a major league team this season.

Babe Ruthers Must Register

All 13-14-15-year-old boys who may have been busy or forgotten to register last Monday, March 15, will not be shut out of Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League. There is still time to sign up this Saturday morning, March 20, at Parcels School from 10 o'clock to 12 noon. The League has been expanded this year from 11 to 12 teams, which means all boys will get to play more. Don't forget the date — March 20.

For additional information call Mr. Gottfredson at 861-4131 or Mr. Wittstock at 882-7322.

St. Paul Girls Win City Swimming Championship

St. Paul's marvelous Mermaids kept the Catholic girls swimming championship crown in Grosse Pointe for another year as they won the title last Sunday at Patton Pool. In winning they replaced their friendly neighborhood rival defending champion Our Lady Star of the Sea as titleholder for the next year.

The narrow win brought to St. Paul its first swimming championship in the school's history. The Mermaids never led at any time throughout the meet and only managed to move ahead for the first time in the last event, the freestyle relay. The final margin over second place Rosary was one point, 60 to 59. Star of the Sea finished third with 41 points.

With three events left on the program St. Paul trailed leading Rosary by 19 points which caused the channel 50 TV announcer to comment: "In the team championship race, Rosary is making a complete runaway of this meet. Needless to add that in the final three events the Mermaids staged a sensational comeback to pull the win out of the fire."

In the 35-yard backstroke, St. Paul shaved the Rosary margin to 14 points as Linda Campbell, Mimi Kolojeski, and Marni Quinn placed 2nd, 3rd and 4th respectively to Rosary star Ann Cafferty who won the event.

Chris Collins then pulled off a monumental upset in the 25-yard butterfly as she won the event after placing third in the preliminaries. Chris was the only individual winner St. Paul had in the entire meet demonstrating that this team does not have individual stars but relies on team depth. Kathy Wahlstrum placed 4th in the butterfly for St. Paul, and Mary Ellen Ruten of Star of the Sea gave her second big assist of the afternoon to St. Paul as she edged a Rosary swimmer for 5th place.

St. Paul had gained 9 more points and trailed by only 5 with the freestyle relay remaining. Both Rosary and St. Paul had a team in this event and in order to win St. Paul knew they must finish three places better than Rosary. In a heart stopping race which was extremely close from start to finish St. Paul did exactly what they had to do as they placed 2nd to Rosary's 5th place and the meet went to St. Paul by a single point. The St. Paul swimmers in the freestyle relay were Cherie Renouf, Chris Strable, Marni Quinn and Myke Farnam. The competition between St. Paul and Rosary over the past few years has been particularly intense. Last year in the championship meet Rosary edged St. Paul for the 2nd place trophy by the margin of 1/2 point. In three dual meets this year between St. Paul and Rosary, Rosary had won all three by close margins but the fourth meeting last Sunday in the Championship meet was the one that counted the most.

The key to St. Paul's victory was the great team win in the Medley Relay wherein Rosary, St. Paul and Our Lady Star of the Sea qualified in that order. Rosary's team was undefeated in this event this season and even lowered their qualifying time more than a full second in the finals, but the St. Paul quartet of Linda Campbell, Linda Keegan, Chris Collins and Kathy Wahlstrum swam the greatest race of their careers in lowering their time 3.1 seconds to win the event.

Star of the Sea star Mary Ellen Ruten successfully defended her championship in the diving event, much to the pleasure of St. Paul fans. Mary was in 4th place as the finals began but she dove beautifully to retain her title. Her win pushed a Rosary girl, Margaret Hennessy, to 2nd place. St. Paul divers Sheila Terry and Janice Rotole did a great job as they scored important points with their 3rd and 4th place finish. The margin between Mary Ellen in first and Janice in fourth was only 3.15 points.

Ann Whyte of Star of the Sea scored a 3rd place in the 25-yard freestyle which was very helpful in the team standings as she edged a Rosary girl who had qualified higher and this cut into the Rosary team total. St. Paul's Cherie Renouf scored a big point as she placed sixth in this event.

It was appropriate that Captain Chris Strable lead the team in the city championship meet as she has done all season long. She scored the first points of the day as she placed 4th in the 50-yard freestyle barely edging Maureen Burke and Chris Whitt of Star of the Sea.

St. Paul and Star of the Sea staged a battle in the 50-yard backstroke with Ann Whyte placing 3rd and Sharon Grob taking 5th place while Mimi Kolojeski of St. Paul took 4th spot.

Congratulations to all of the Grosse Pointe swimmers and especially to the new champions from St. Paul.

The Matt Mann Memorial Swimming trophy was presented to William Reaume at the Class A State Championships, Saturday night, March 13, at Michigan State University in Lansing.

The award is made yearly to the outstanding swimming coach for performance in excellence and leadership. Mr. Reaume (Bill) was also given a handsome engraved plaque, by vote of the Michigan High School Coaches Association.

These awards were a crowning addition to Bill's Denby swim team's successful season. They recently won the Detroit East side swimming championship, the dual-meet championship and All-City Championship of Detroit public high schools.

Denby High School swimming teams, under Bill's direction have had 20 East league titles, 15 dual meet titles and 5 City Championships. He has held presidencies in various organizations, Detroit Public High School Directors Association, the National Scholastic Swimming Association and the Michigan A.A.U. He put in many years as swimming director and coach at the Detroit Boat Club summers, developing championship swim teams, and three years at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Bill has been a resident for more than 20 years in Grosse Pointe Farms and resides in Maison Road. He is Athletic Director at Denby High School.

Vote Yes Next Monday

As predicted some time ago, this last week before the School Election has produced Letters to the Editor posing questions or making assumptions that could not, in the normal course of procedure, be answered until after the election was over. We think the Board of Education and the school administrative officials have done a superlative job of informing the public of the issues at stake in this election. They have worked their heads off, appearing at countless meetings and making every possible effort to share every shred of information at their command.

When these late letters came in, a sense of fair play dictated our action in revealing their contents to the school leaders and giving them a chance to supply answers before the voters go to the polls next Monday. We are allocating whatever space is necessary to get these last-minute questions and answers before our readers.

The qualified electors of the School District will make the final decision on March 22. We hope everyone eligible will vote, and we wholeheartedly endorse approval of both proposals which will be on the ballots.

Dear Sir:

A few weeks ago, I was privileged to hear a presentation of the arguments for a new High School at a Mairie School PTA meeting. The arguments were succinct; we need it—no question. Population statistics were presented, suggestions concerning the allocation of students among the grade schools, junior high schools, and the high schools were also presented. They all made good sense; the need is evident.

As part of the presentation, we were shown proposed floor plans, dimensions, and location information. The classroom area was indicated, so was the swimming pool, the gymnasium, the faculty area, the 500-car parking lot, a description of the auditorium and attendant classrooms, and the fact that the central area of the school would be air-conditioned.

In the question-and-answer period that followed, and in the informal conversations during the ensuing coffee hour, several startling facts became apparent:

1. No funds are provided for operating the school, including instruction and maintenance, in the current proposition. This was blandly admitted by the School Board representative present, who suggested that further funds might have to be requested after about one-year's operation of the new school.

2. An architectural firm has been contacted which has furnished the floor-plan and approximate costs per square foot. But no specifications exist! The voters do not know whether the construction will be cement block, sheet metal, or plywood. We don't know whether the floors will be terrazzo or wood. Assurances have been made only that the building will conform to state fire codes and regulations.

3. The School Board does not have any suggested elevations to show the voters so that they can have some idea of possible motif or architectural features.

4. In fact, no assurance can positively be given the voters that the high school described to us can be built with the funding proposed.

5. No contract between the School Board and the architect that the building proposed can, or will, be built with the funds proposed, has been claimed.

6. No one has explained the real need for air-conditioning in the classroom and faculty area when most of the use of this area will occur during a period of the year when air-conditioning is unnecessary.

Let us not misunderstand, there is no doubt about the need, and the desirability, of a new high school. But the intelligent voters of this community have every right to ask for more details, and there seem to be no assurances, except probable size and location.

Most of your readers are glad to pay the relatively high taxes required to live in this delightful community and to maintain it in the manner to which we have become accustomed. But most of us have recently suffered an increase in assessed valuations (perhaps justifiably) and a resultant increase in our tax bills. One is inclined to ask: "Where is all this extra money going? Why can't it be used, in part, to finance our school system?"

A recent advertisement in your newspaper asked the readers to "vote YES, March 22." Frankly, I don't know what to do. There are a lot of unanswered questions—just some of them posed here.

I hope the School Board can give the voters some positive assurances about them before March 22nd.

Sincerely,
Robert S. Harper
1172 Yorkshire Road

Dear Mr. Edgar:

The foregoing letter is directed primarily at the judgment and competency of the architects selected by the Board of Education, and most properly should be answered by the firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Sturton. This firm was selected by the Board from a list of forty nationally reputable architectural and engineering firms whose performance records were carefully examined in the selection process. Any misjudgment or lack of competence on the part of this firm has certainly not been evident to the administrators and Board members who have worked closely with them for the past year.

The Board of Education has repeatedly answered the questions raised in Mr. Harper's letter, both in written and oral form. It may be "bland" to admit that operating funds will need to be approved two or three years hence, but it would be ridiculous and dishonest to ask for such funds now when they are not needed.

Mr. Harper's item 4 answers item 2. To my knowledge, there has never been a referendum in the history of American schools that specifies all the information requested in item 2. In the first place, it is virtually impossible, and second, no architect proceeds beyond the preliminary specification stage until a Board of Education is assured of building funds. Final working drawings and specifications require at least six months hard work and nearly full payment of architectural fees.

So far as "elevations" and "possible motifs," we suggest that Mr. Harper look at the front page of the Grosse Pointe News, March 11, 1965. If still dissatisfied, we suggest that he examine the scale model in the hands of Mr. Joe Spagnoli, Secondary Planning Director, 389 St. Clair Avenue. Where possible, this model has been on display at public meetings, and will again be on display Thursday night, March 18, at Fries Auditorium. Whether a building can be built with the funds provided is always a moot point. Experts say it can. One never knows for certain until contracting bids are opened and analyzed. The allowance of $19 per square foot seems a reasonable provision to all who know.

The air conditioning to be included in the academic wing of the new high school was included for various reasons. First, it seemed unthinkable to construct a building that will serve the community for the next 50 to 75 years without air conditioning. Second, it costs less than half as much to install at the time of construction rather than later. Third, school air conditioning is part of the ventilating system and will be used the year around. Fourth, it would have been necessary in any event to air condition those areas air conditioned in the present building—the administration, guidance and library areas. Finally, all of us look forward in the generation or two ahead to an extended summer school program. The question is really not why air conditioning is included. The real question is what public reaction would have been if it had been excluded.

In thirty years of teaching and administration, I have worked with many different architects and examined the records and performance of hundreds. To date, I have no reason to question either the ability or the integrity of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Sturton. Their reputation is at stake in presenting Grosse Pointe one of the finest secondary schools in the nation. The Board and administration are equally concerned with the quality of the new school. It is inconceivable that any of us should settle for less than the very best possible within the funds provided.

Sincerely yours,
Charles H. Wilson
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Since I am the individual who seems to have precipitated the current discussion about the proposed reorganization of Michigan public school districts, I should like to reply to your editorial of March 11th on this subject, as well as to the letter printed as part of your editorial which was addressed to Mr. Edward J. Pongraz, President of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and written by Dr. Lynn H. Bartlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

To begin with, I take issue with your statement that "there have been apparent attempts to confuse the reorganization issue with the proposed new high school." Any reorganization of our school district could not help but have some effect on ANY and ALL schools in the Grosse Pointe system, new or otherwise.

But my real purpose is raising the issue at a recent Ferry School PTA meeting was that it was an opportunity to bring this problem to the attention of other parents, most of whom are like my husband and myself in that they moved to Grosse Pointe because of the excellent schools here—and want to keep them that way. Like my husband and myself, I am sure they have supported all past school bond issues, because they are convinced they have been justified and that our school tax money has been carefully handled by the Grosse Pointe School administration.

But for more than two years, I have attempted—along with many others—to arouse SOMEBODY in the administration and/or on the School Board to a point of concern over the education reorganization bills in the Michigan State Legislature—with no luck. We have continually met with the same complacent attitude of "it won't affect us."

Therefore, Senate Bill 1080 passed by three votes on the last day of the last legislative session in Lansing, and became Act 289, referred to by Dr. Bartlett. He is absolutely correct when he states that this Act specifically prevents the formation of a new school district by the joining of a third class school district—which is what the Grosse Pointe school district is—with another school district, either of the same or a higher classification.

But this was NOT the point I raised! My question was, and still is, "How will the Grosse Pointe School system be affected, how will our tax base be affected, and will our children continue to go to their neighborhood schools if House Bill 2122, which is now in the Michigan State Legislature passes?"

And yet Dr. Bartlett does not even refer to this bill in his letter to Mr. Pongraz, although its passage most assuredly will affect the Grosse Pointe school system! You will see by the enclosed photocopy of this bill that it is an AMENDMENT to Act 289 which will remove the original exemption of third class school districts from the reorganization scheme. This will be done by the simple expediency of drawing a line through lines 7-11 of Section 4 of Act 289—lines which read, "In no case can an intermediate district committee plan be submitted under this act which would require the merger of 2 or more school districts of the third class or higher. There shall be created no less than 500 school districts operating 12 grades."

With this exemption removed, there is nothing to prevent a reorganization plan WHICH WOULD INCLUDE THE GROSSE POINTE SCHOOL SYSTEM from being developed.

Perhaps, if you have the space to reprint H.B. 2122 with this letter, your readers can find something which would reassure us that we can maintain local control of our school system, since Dr. Bartlett's letter doesn't seem to answer the question. And, in fact, Dr. Bartlett has expressed, in the past, the idea that larger school districts must be developed, even possibly consisting of several counties, merged into single districts.

It should also be noted that our own legislator, Mr. Robert Waldron, who is now the House Minority Leader in Lansing, has consistently opposed passage of these education reorganization bills—commonly called K-12 bills—since he is opposed to anything that would jeopardize local control of schools.

And even though Michigan may have a few small school districts which might profit by merging with adjoining school districts, I am in agreement with Mr. Waldron's previously-voiced opinion that voluntary reorganization is preferable to mandatory reorganization. I have no reason whatever to think he has changed his mind about these very basic American attitudes.

Sincerely,
Mrs. F. E. Faber

Dear Mr. Edgar:

There are several facts to keep in mind with regard to Act 289 and the Proposed amendment in House Bill 2122:

1. Public Act 289 and its proposed amendment have nothing whatsoever to do with the needs of the Grosse Pointe School District and the referendum next Monday, March 22.

2. Public education is, and always has been, a State responsibility, as witness the fact that members of a Board of Education are State officials, not municipal officials. It has always been within the Power of the State to reorganize or even abandon local school districts.

3. Reorganization of school districts has been going on in Michigan and other states ever since the invention of the school bus. Reorganization of school districts, eliminating inefficient and uneconomically operated districts, is in the best interests of all citizens in state, including the citizens of Grosse Pointe.

4. The reorganization proposed in section 4 of Act 289 could not be clearer in intention. It calls for state policies, principles and procedures of reorganization "so that all areas may become part of a school district operating or designed to operate at least 12 grades."

That Act 289 or its proposed amendment is directed at school districts like Grosse Pointe, Dearborn, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, East Lansing, Ann Arbor or hundreds of other fine school systems in the State of Michigan calls for an incomprehensible process of thought. Act 289 and its proposed amendment is directed at small, inefficient and uneconomical districts whose continued existence drains tax money from larger and efficiently managed districts.

Sincerely yours,
President
Edward J. Pongraz,
Board of Education

Dear Sir:

Is another high school really the best solution to the school crowding problem?

Dr. Felix McCormick of Columbia University predicts no increase in the Grosse Pointe school population in the next decade, with an actual decline in the coming five years.

This means that we should carefully examine the School Board's contrary statement that the school population will continue rapid expansion and that a new high school now is the best solution.

The McCormick report considers population increases, new dwellings, population age cycling, parochial school transfers and grade-to-grade retention ratios. It assumes that the Grosse Pointe birthrate will stop declining and, instead, rise 50 per cent and also that some zoning changes will permit high rise apartments.

It notes, on the other hand, that the recent lower birthrate (9.8 per 1000 in 1963) provides a reduced preschool child population for the next five years at least. Hence, a period of fairly stable enrollment in the next decade.

It is not best practice, as the school system has done, to use National Census population projections for as tiny and specialized a population sample as Grosse Pointe. Why then does "Education in Our Town" estimate enrollment on this basis, and emphasize high birthrates, when the Grosse Pointe trend is to the contrary?

Why does "Education in Our Town" call our attention to the nonexistent problem of high rise apartment house construction? It is recognized that none are permitted and none are likely to be.

Cycling of home ownership is also emphasized. It may increase or decrease enrollment rates, and predictions of net increases or decreases depend on interpretation of complex statistical data. "Education in Our Town" suggests a future expansion of enrollment in the school system on the basis of enrollment increases in Troy and Defer. Why draw broad conclusions from such a small sample? It may be noted that over half the stated increases occurred before 1955 and since then the combined average yearly increase is only 15 students.

For future use, a first-class statistical study and projection of such questions should be made and published. The public should be provided a complete, detailed, documented, quantitative study of projected school population and the need for new facilities on a separate site.

This might include imaginative reexamination of alternate approaches, each adequately and quantitatively documented. A restudy is also needed of whether the plans for the new high school accurately represent true value-judgments of the community and the school administration. For example, should the floor area assignment for physics be substantially smaller than for home economics; should chemistry be one third the size of the shop; and should the gymnasium be five times larger than the library?

Stress should be on substance rather than appearance in education. It is important that no hurried financial misjudgments in building spending be made now which could decrease our future ability to finance improved teacher salaries and other contributions to excellence in education.

Robert O. Teeg
22 Waverly Lane

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Informed voters will recognize the purpose of Mr. Teeg's letter, submitted at the last moment to mislead and confuse citizens. The Board of Education has consistently solicited questions on the proposed bond referendum in dozens of public meetings over the past two months. All of the questions asked by Mr. Teeg have been answered many times.

Trombly and Defer are cited simply because these schools are located in areas where new home construction has been minimal and enrollment increases unexpected. In the time these schools have grown 63 per cent and 74 per cent respectively, the entire Grosse Pointe School enrollment has increased nearly 140 per cent!

So far as the space allocations in the new high school are concerned, I should like to point out that the plans were developed by teachers and administrators whom the Board of Education considers among the best in the nation. The plans conform to the highest state and national standards.

With respect to Dr. McCormick's long and thorough report, perhaps the following direct quotation is most appropriate: "It is recommended that the district move boldly ahead and proceed with the expansion of its high school facilities by erecting a high school for about 1,800 pupils on the 31.7 acre Vanderbusch site in Grosse Pointe Woods."

On behalf of the Board of Education and thousands of boys and girls whom we try to represent intelligently and in good faith, we solicit that voters not be misled by last minute appeals filled with innuendo and half truths. We ask that people with lingering doubts re-read the lengthy document, "Education in Our Town," referred to by Mr. Teeg.

Sincerely yours,
Frank H. Parcels, M.D.

Other Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

It is time for the quieter, but no less concerned, citizens to be heard; and I therefore join my voice to the thousands who in the past few days have protested the kind of oppression that occurred in Selma, Alabama, on Sunday. We have been drowned out too long by the rabble who cheer while their fellow human beings are brutally, basely and unforgivably mistreated.

It is appalling to me that a citizen of this country can be denied his privilege to vote without just cause. It is inconceivable that his peaceful petition can be suppressed with tear gas and clubs, in this, the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I suspect that many of us have been insensitive to the newspaper accounts of similar police-state tactics in the past. It took a newsreel with sound effects to arouse us to the very real horror of it.

Sympathy and concern must prevail—for the Negro cause and the white man's fear of it. Education, not oppression, is the answer. No matter what the underlying, century-old cause, there is no excuse for such misuse of authority as took place in Selma, Alabama.

The basic issue here is a moral one. I have heard expressions of concern in the past few years over our image abroad as a result of our racial problem. That is only one of the many side issues—the primary consideration of every individual in this country must be his own conscience.

Very truly yours,
Patricia Wall Beasley

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Late Monday afternoon I received a telephone call from Mr. Saul Bernat, assistant manager of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He indicated that the Orchestra would like to play a full evening adult concert in Grosse Pointe. Mr. Bernat offered four dates in May for this marvelous cultural experience, to be offered without any admission charge.

Unfortunately, I was forced to tell Mr. Bernat that at the present time there is no stage in the entire community that will accommodate such musical organizations as the Detroit Symphony or the Symphony Band of the University of Michigan. Therefore, if an invitation is made to the world-famous orchestra to play for the residents of Grosse Pointe, the musicians will have to assemble on the floor of the gymnasium-auditorium at Grosse Pointe High School.

Surely a community of Grosse Pointe's stature and reputation can do better.

Yours truly,
Ralph N. Deal

Dear Sir:

I read the letter from the lady who was concerned over the Chene-Trombly playground. I am in my early sixties, and thought I wasn't concerned with children. But I feel that the property involved is being used for the right purpose.

The other day, I saw a child almost hit by a car. If the car had hit the child, he would be dead, particularly at the high speed the car was going.

I have passed it (playground) many times, and have seen children there playing, and now, I realize that it is important.

Let these people find some place else for their parking lot and let the playground stand. Let's hear more from our so-called citizens.

Dear Editor:

On reading your article in March 11 edition of the Grosse Pointe News, entitled "St. Paul Girls Score Big Win," the swimmers and students of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School would like to inform the readers of St. Paul's innocent error in the reporting.

Due to the mistake of the scoring procedure in the meet between St. Paul, Star of the Sea and Rosary the score reported was incorrect. The change in the scoring procedure gives points to all the swimmers as they place instead of only the first four swimmers as the dual meet procedure. This is in accord with the C.Y.O. swimming rules and has been accepted by each team coach.

The corrected results are:
Star of the Sea vs. St. Paul 48-48. Star of the Sea vs. Rosary 46-55. St. Paul vs. Rosary 41-55.

Thank you for your time and interest in our correction.

Sincerely,
Mary Ellen Rutan

IN THE PROCESS of growing up, children often have behavior and emotional problems. If these are discovered and treated in time, a normal adulthood is likely to follow. Children may be referred to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, 18420 Mack Avenue, when their behavior suggests continued unhappiness or difficulties in the home, school or the community.

Hospital Scouts Seek Recruits

The Explorer Scouts of St. John Hospital are looking for boys who are interested in the field of medicine. This is not a regular Boy Scouts activity. This is a group of boys who wish to learn something about the line of medicine.

This club offers an opportunity to meet doctors and discuss with them cases which are an everyday occurrence in the life of a doctor.

The Scouts have films and illustrations of just about any situation with which a doctor would be faced. They also have lectures by top physicians to accompany the films and illustrations. They never have the same subject twice. There is always something new to acquire in knowledge in this club.

For the remaining five weeks in this season, they are presenting the following films and lectures: March 17, "Skiing Fractures," April 7, "Missionary Medicine," April 21, "Plastic Surgery of Auto Accidents and Injuries," May 5, "Disease of the Skin," May 19, "Venereal Diseases."

Whatever field of medicine the boy would like to know about, will at one time or another be brought up in one of the meetings.

Anyone interested should call Robert Russell at LA 7-2995 or Richard Ostrowski at VE 9-8257 for further information. Parents are also more than welcomed.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

We are constantly surprised by the number and variety of "special interest groups"—organizations devoted to a particular study or project—to be found within The Pointe.

Typical of these small but lively societies is a group of ladies, or rather two groups of ladies, (membership overlaps), who meet regularly, drawn together by their love of French language, literature and culture.

The Conversational Tea group gathers Tuesday afternoons, in one of the 14 members' homes, for refreshments and talk. Entirely in French.

Mrs. Charles Bachrach, of East Jefferson avenue, is the Conversational "professor."

Conversations lists include Mrs. Lem W. Bowen, of Elm court, Mrs. John E. Williams, of Merriweather road, Mrs. Charles Blessing, of Detroit, Mrs. Perry TeWalt, of Lincoln road, Mrs. William J. Collins, of South Oxford road, and Mrs. Burt Eddy Taylor, Jr., of Kenwood road.

More are Mrs. Russell H. Axson, of Vincennes place, Mrs. Ralph A. Mayer, of Harcourt road, Mrs. William A. Evans, Jr., of Radnor circle, Mrs. J. G. Macpherson, II, of Woodland place, Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall, of Harbor Hill, Mrs. Stephen Fisher, of Fisher road, and Mrs. Stephen Forish, of South Oxford road.

The French Literature group, an outgrowth of the Conversational group but a completely separate society, meets Thursday afternoons, usually at Mrs. Axson's Vincennes place home.

The ladies in the Literature organization are serious students, engaged in reading French classics. Their current project is Stendahl's "Le Rouge et Le Noir."

Members include Mrs. Axson, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Blessing, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Forish, all also Conversational Tea participants, and Mrs. Daniel L. Wells, of Kerby road, Mrs. Hunter H. Comly, of Lakepointe avenue, Mrs. W. H. Ramsay, of Radnor circle, (Continued on Page 17)

Annual Friars Fiesta Is Scheduled May 1

Mrs. Anthony Bagnasco Serving as Chairman of This Year's Day-Long Party at Austin Catholic Prep School

The "Achilles' heel" of most every pleasure-seeking American, travel, will set the theme—"Come, fly with me" for the Ninth Annual Friars Fiesta.

Planned for Saturday, May 1, the Fiesta will be held in the gymnasium of the Austin Catholic Preparatory School in East Warren avenue.

Chairman for this year's Fiesta is Mrs. Anthony Bagnasco, assisted by Mrs. Eugene Freitas and Mrs. C. Bradford Lundy, co-chairmen.

Decorations will be handled by Mrs. George Blake and Mrs. Godfrey Hammel. A three-dimensional space ship will be the first glimpse into a world of flight.

Beautifully framed posters from all over the world will form a background for the festivities. Ascension balloons and model planes will hang from the ceiling.

Old world costumes will tie in with the posters from far-away lands.

All of the ever-popular booths will be present plus some new and intriguing additions, such as the bumper car for children run by Mrs. Michael Tusa and Mrs. Wilber Kay. Also for the younger set will be balloons and novelties handled by Mrs. C. Bradford Lundy.

The white elephant booth will be headed by Mrs. John Douglas and Mrs. Charles DeFusco, the new articles booth by Mrs. Joseph Kramer, Mrs. Leo Bonatuy and Mrs. Thomas DeCorte.

The hand knit articles booth will be run by Mrs. Lloyd Martz and Mrs. David Turner, the hand craft booth will be supervised by Mrs. Jerome DeSantis and Mrs. Lawrence Kroha, and the sporting goods booth will be run by Mrs. Arthur VanHoeck and Mrs. Robert Alshemer.

Delicacies to tempt the most discerning gourmet will be found in the baked goods booth headed by Mrs. Samuel Tocco and Mrs. Samuel Bagnasco. In the same vein will be the soda bar handled by Mrs. Francis Ryan and Mrs. Jack Piana, and food baskets planned by Mrs. Thomas Feldman.

Mrs. Vincent Vehar, Mrs. Morris DeFour, Mrs. Samuel Palazzola and Mrs. Rosemary Linde will be in charge of the kitchen. A taste-tempting spaghetti dinner straight from Italy will be served.

Mrs. Robert Whitty and Mrs. Leo Marx are arranging a prize round trip for two to New York and the World's Fair by air.

Finances will be handled by Mrs. Samuel Sfire and Mrs. Eugene Ellison, publicity by Mrs. Ralph W. Stevens.

Church Group Plans Luncheon

The St. Paul Lutheran Church Women, 375 Chalfonte at Lothrop, will have their annual spring luncheon with Luther Haven patients as guests, on Tuesday, March 21 at 12:30 p.m. "Kempbell-Espers," a zany fashion show, will be on the program.

It's Poison Prevention Week

GOVERNOR GEORGE ROMNEY presents MRS. WILBER M. BRUCKER, JR., (center), of Merriweather road, president of the Junior League of Detroit, Inc., and MRS. EDWARD HENKEL, JR., of Whittier road, chairman of the League's Poison Control Project, with a proclamation commending the Junior League of Detroit for its initiative and work in the field of Poison Prevention and proclaiming the week of March 14-20 as Poison Prevention Week in Michigan. The League is working in conjunction with Children's Hospital of Michigan on a Poison Control Project. Six hundred thousand children under the age of five are poisoned annually in the United States, and doctors all over the country agree that the "lay" public can best utilize its energies by educating the public to Poison Dangers.

Dental Wives To Enjoy Art

Members of the Detroit District Dental Auxiliary will enjoy "An Afternoon of Art" Tuesday, March 30, at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

An hour-long tour of the high-point of the museum's collection will precede luncheon at the Institute. Hostesses for the affair are Mesdames Edward Muske, Andrew Guca and Stanley McBride.

Detroit Garden Club Elects

At its annual meeting, held recently in the Women's City Club, the Detroit Garden Club elected Pointer Miss Agnes Crow president for 1965-66.

Other officers are Mrs. Robert L. Smythe, first vice-president, Mrs. Henry Wilke, second vice-president, and Mrs. Edmund J. Kenney, third vice-president.

Recording secretary is Mrs. Alford E. Johnson, Miss Rebecca Carolyn Grace will serve as treasurer, and Miss Irene McMillan as corresponding secretary.

Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Friedrich Fiesselmann.

The next meeting of the Detroit Garden Club is scheduled Wednesday, April 14, at the Women's City Club. Mrs. Bernice Englander will tell "How to Make Corsages."

Center Classes Being Formed

Among the new classes being offered this spring at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial are such diversified subjects as "Folk Guitar," "Yoga" and "Flower Arranging."

Folk Guitar, taught by Alex Sucek, will take place on Wednesday evenings beginning March 24 and continuing through June 2. Beginners meet at 8:30—the advanced section at 7:30—the fee is $15 for the entire term of 10 lessons. Since these classes are very popular and always filled, the Center suggests paid registrations in advance.

Yoga is being offered in three different sections. Women beginners will meet on Tuesday nights at 7:30 beginning March 30, followed by an advanced class for women at 8:30. These classes will be taught by Mrs. George Johnston, Jr. Wednesday evening beginning March 31, a mixed yoga class for men and women of all ages will be taught by Mr. Johnston. The fee for the classes is $10 for 10 lessons.

A free yoga demonstration is being staged on Monday evening March 29 at 8 o'clock at the Center. This demonstration preceding the opening of the classes is being staged by the Johnstons to acquaint people with yoga as they teach it, which is not as a mystic Eastern religion, but as a series of physical and mental exercises designed to relieve tensions and promote relaxation and well being. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are both qualified instructors who have taught yoga for several years.

"Flower Arranging" will be taught this spring at the Center on Friday mornings from 10 to 12 beginning March 26. Mrs. Richard T. Gerathy is the instructor. The fee is $25 for the course of 10 lessons. This is the perfect time to study "Flower Arranging" since the spring blossoms provide so many beautiful materials.

P-T-A Sponsors Theater Night

The Maire School P-T-A is sponsoring a theater night at Fries Auditorium Thursday, May 20.

The play is "Oklahoma," to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Theater. Reservations may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Thomas Braden, 886-3165, or Mrs. Philip Dickenson, 885-6239.

Inside The Mothers' Club

Twenty members of the Executive Board of the Mothers' Club of the Grosse Pointe High School attended the March 1 meeting.

Mrs. Robert Clarke, the president, told about the High School Assembly the day the Mothers' Club check for $200 was presented to the American Field Service. The president-elect, Mrs. Gordon Cook, reported the mailing of promotional material to all high school students' homes on the proposed bond issue.

Mrs. Arthur Sherman, vice-president, has sent three scholarship grantees their final checks from the Mothers' Club. Interviews with applicants for June grants will commence soon.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Zentgraf, is ready to mail 2,975 invitations for the Spring Benefit party.

Mrs. William Ludwig, treasurer, submitted her monthly report of the Mothers' Club finances.

Mrs. C. A. Nolte, historian, issued a plea for a size 47 dress to help out a resident mother. Mrs. William Munro, membership chairman, recorded the membership in the Mothers' Club at 1,350. The kick-off to the meeting for tickets to the Spring Scholarship Tea party was held in the Annex Auditorium. Thursday, March 4, at 9:30 o'clock. Grade chairmen, calling committees and various party chairmen were invited. Approximately 75 turned out.

Mrs. Robert Swanson, neighborhood groups chairman, collected $81 from groups in February for the club treasurer. Five new groups were formed. Mrs. James Laird, program chairman, outlined prospective speakers considered for the annual meeting in May. A consensus of opinion on speakers was taken.

Mrs. Thomas Petty, play tickets chairman, has arranged a telephoning committee of 125 women to promote "Stage Door," and the Mothers' Club night on March 18. These women have been given Mothers' Club sheets, tickets, stamps, envelopes and thank-you notes which have been distributed to workers.

Mrs. Richard C. Mertz, social chairman, submitted her report on Parents Night when 300 parents were served refreshments. Her committee included Mesdames Quinlan, Parker, Bockstanz, Drummond, Gajowski, Riddle, Schonenberg, Urti and Shrivilla.

Mrs. Robert Brines, bus chaparrone chairman, reported the close of the football-basketball season and to date 19 buses were provided for games. The chairman strongly urged that something be done next year to improve attendance.

Mrs. Chuck Beltz, spring benefit party chairman, said plans are well underway for the "Merrily Around the Pointes" event. Mrs. Beltz's committee includes Mesdames Edward Fine, Hal Munson, Thomas Munson, Bertram Atwood, Edward Devine and Ed Chamberlain.

P.T.A. representative, Mrs. Jack Frey, and Board of Education representative, Mrs. Robert Christian, presented reports. Mrs. Christian stated the High School library had been well attended in evenings, and that the High School symphony orchestra had given a performance at Ford Auditorium to 4,000 members of Kiwanis International.

Society Hears Mrs. Agesen

The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research presented Mrs. Nicholas S. Agesen, of Lincoln road, speaking on "Virginia Records," on Saturday, March 13, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Explorers Room, Detroit Public Library, Cass avenue wing.

Mrs. Agesen holds a Bachelor's degree from Sweet Briar College, Va., and has served as Registrar of the National Society of Colonial Dames in Michigan.

She is a member of the Michigan Society of Mayflower Descendants, the Virginia Historical Society, the Virginia Genealogical Society and the Society for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

She is presently revising "The Reads and Their Relatives," a family genealogy published in 1930 by her mother, Mrs. Shelby Rouse.

All meetings of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research are free and open to the public. The Society welcomes persons who are interested in furthering their knowledge in its field.

Interior Design Course Offered

"Period Decoration and Furniture," an advanced course in interior design, will be offered by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, in co-operation with the American Institute of Interior Designers.

This course is designed to give the student a background in the cultural influences of history as it is related to the modern concept of interior design. With the instructor, students will examine different periods of world history and the cultural influences of the many countries from which our present-day concept of "design" and "good taste" has evolved.

The course will take the form of a lecture series with each class period devoted to a particular style and period of history. Each lecture will be moderated by a well-known Detroit designer especially well versed in the topic being discussed. The lectures will be augmented with illustrations, slides and other visual material.

The first four lectures will be presented by Neal Maas. They will be as follows:

I. "Styles of Antiquity" (assisted by Edward Dolan).

II. "Styles of the Middle Ages."

III. "The Italian Renaissance."

IV. "The Arts of Mohammedan and Christian Spain."

V. "The French Periods" (presented by Martine Sauzade).

VI. "The English Periods" (presented by Roger Bracy).

VII. "The American Colonial and Federal Periods" (by Charles Klingensmith).

VIII. "The Modern Decorative Arts" (by Robert Siegal).

Reservations for this lecture series must be made in advance, as spaces are limited. Call TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271 for reservations and further information.

Mrs. Frank E. Cooper, of Merriweather road, and Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, Jr., of Radnor circle.

Meetings are conducted in French, under the leadership of Mme. Schmitz, a former professor at Wayne State University now teaching at Marygrove.

Mrs. Axsom, who belongs to both groups, explains a bit about the organizations: "One complements the other. We who have been in both wouldn't want to be without either."

"We are fortunate in that both Mrs. Bachrach and Mme. Schmitz are natives of France. And it's surprising to find so many women interested in speaking and studying French, women with strong French backgrounds."

"Of course, the Conversational Tea group is primarily concerned with the spoken language. The Literature group comes to study; we do not serve tea or coffee, and we do not do much 'socializing'—we are there to read the Great French Books."

Last night, some members from both groups journeyed to the Detroit Institute of Arts for a special treat, a performance of Claudel's "L'Annonce Faite A Marie," given in French, by a company of French actors and actresses.

Mr. Axsom came along too. The Institute thoughtfully provided earphones for instant translation, a la The United Nations, so that even those unable to understand the language could appreciate the play.

"I told him," Mrs. Axsom laughs, "Finally, there is something in French that you can enjoy!" And he did.

Theater Party In The Pointe
The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club has thought of a way to liven up the last, dull, dragging days of March: A theater party, right here at home, in The Pointe.

Club Ways and Means chairman Mrs. Harry Speelman, of Hillcrest road, has scheduled the affair for next Thursday.

The play is "Sunday in New York," to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Theater. Curtain goes up at 8:30 o'clock, in Fries Auditorium.

Proceeds from this evening entertainment will help swell the Woman's Club scholarship and gifts fund. In charge of tickets are Mrs. Henry Quinn, of Fisher road, and Mrs. Bruce Regan, of Moorland drive.

And while we're on the subject of Grosse Pointe Woman's Club activities... the Garden Group will meet next Wednesday, at 1 o'clock, in Mrs. Joseph Montecorso's Hunt Club drive home.

A speaker from the Wayne County Extension Service will discuss "Pruning of Trees and Shrubs."

Winter Weather Notes
Enjoying the last of the snow at Otsego Ski Club last week were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney L. Terry, of Moross road, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. Sturtevant, of Washington road.

The Sturtevants' teen-age son, Mark, joined the group for a final fling on the slopes over the weekend.

And the Joseph E. Baynes, back in Touraine road after a Caribbean cruise, had their "snow fling" too.

Due to depart for New York via Metropolitan Airport the day of the Big Blizzard, they finally managed to cross Canada by train, caught a plane to New York City in Buffalo, dashed to the docks... and found that their ship, late in arriving, had put back its departure time by several hours!

To Give Dinner For 'Top Ten'

Women just beginning their work careers will have an opportunity to learn secrets for achievements when they meet and hear this year's "Top Ten Women" at Downtown Branch YWCA in Witherell st. next Monday evening, March 22.

The "Top Ten" will be honored by the Downtown YW at its annual Salute to Women Who Work dinner.

The dinner speaker will be Dr. Gertrude Gass, of the Merrill Palmer Institute. Her topic will be the evening's theme: "Women—New Dimensions."

The "Top Ten" chosen from various fields, have been asked to discuss one of the following questions:

1. What are the new dimensions in your field? 2. What are the opportunities for younger women? 3. What was your greatest challenge in getting to the top? 4. What is your secret for achievement?

This year marks the 10th anniversary celebration of Detroit's Salute to Women Who Work, and women who have been honored as "Top Tens" in other years will serve as table hostesses at the YWCA dinner.

The dinner, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, is open to the public. Reservations at $3 each may be made at the Downtown YWCA. A 6 o'clock social hour will give guests the opportunity to meet the evening's celebrities.

Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, of Devonshire road, is chairman of the planning committee. Serving under her are Mrs. Don H. Bail, Mrs. Arthur Cartwright, Mrs. Amy Stafford, Mrs. Willis Turner, Mrs. W. M. Dumaux, Miss Querida Holland, Mrs. Arthur Brazos, Miss Marian Johnson, and Mrs. Hugh Har-

Navy League Ball Scheduled June 4

Party to Be Named After USS "Constellation," First United States Naval Warship to Go to Sea

The Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States has announced plans for the 15th Annual Navy League Ball, to be held June 4 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Chairman of the Ball will be Mrs. Albert Navarro, of Stephens road, assisted by Mrs. John Lavrakas as co-chairman.

Mrs. Frank B. Nair, for many years one of the Women's Council's most tireless workers, will be honorary chairman.

The 1965 Ball will be named the "Constellation Ball" after the first United States Naval warship to go to sea; she was also the first United States Navy warship to defeat an enemy man-of-war on the high seas. The Constellation now rests at Pier 4 in Baltimore, Md.

Committee chairmen aiding Mrs. Navarro and Mrs. Lavrakas will be Mrs. Frank B. Nair, Mrs. Kenneth Oxley, Mrs. Charles Giffin, Mrs. James Hannon, Mrs. Marilyn C. Knack, Mrs. Frederick C. Weiss Jr., Mrs. Theodore Foster, Mrs. Arthur Schultz and Mrs. Virgil Laine. Cocktails will be served at 7 o'clock in the Founders Room of the Sheraton Cadillac with dinner and dancing to Al Navarro's orchestra in the Grand Ballroom.

Mrs. George Weaver, president of the Women's Council, has announced that Vice-Admiral Harold T. Deuterman, USN, of New York, Chairman and Naval Representative of the United States to the United Nations Military Staff Committee, Commander of the Eastern Sea Frontier and Atlantic Reserve Fleet, will be the guest speaker.

The Navy League is the Civilian Arm of the Navy, and members need not have any affiliation with the Navy to join any of the Men's or Women's Councils. The purpose of the Navy League is to acquaint the public with the Navy.

The funds raised by the Navy League are used to help support the Sea Cadet Program, a national program for young men of high school age, which educates and familiarizes them with the Navy and encourages them to seek careers in the Navy.

Goodwill Slates Youth Program

Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit will hold its annual Youth Day on Monday, April 19, between the hours of 10 and 3 o'clock, at the Goodwill Building, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, Detroit. Parking will be available on the lot adjoining the building.

Youth groups of all ages accompanied by an adult leader are cordially invited to attend. Reservations are not necessary. Visiting groups will tour the plant to see for themselves how Goodwill Industries provides training and employment for handicapped men and women. There will be fun for all including refreshments and music selected to the liking of youngsters.

"During the Easter holiday season, leaders of youth groups will be looking for interesting places to take their youngsters, and where there is no cost except transportation. Youth Day at Goodwill Industries is the answer," said Dr. John E. Hoskins, executive director of the organization.

Pointer JAMES ADAMS MATHEWSON has been awarded a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the College of Business Administration, University of Nevada.

HENRY FRENCH, son of MR. and MRS. JOHN H. FRENCH, JR., of Merrimack road, has been awarded a varsity letter in basketball at The Winchester School, Winchester, Mass.

To Say Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walker, Sr., of Nottingham road, announce the engagement of their daughter, JANE FOLEY WALKER, to Kenneth Guy Meade, son of Mrs. James O. Meade, of Barrington road, and the late Mr. Meade.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé were graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. Mr. Meade attended the University of Hawaii while serving in the United States Marine Corps, and is studying at the University of Michigan, Detroit.

An August 28 wedding is planned, in St. Ambrose Church.

Alpha Gamma Deltas Help Crippled Children

The joys of the Easter Season will have more meaning for the Detroit Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta, who gathered at the Easter Seal Society, on Schaefer highway, Tuesday, March 16, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Rose Marie Evenheiss, director of the clinic, conducted a tour of the building and showed slides in conjunction with the clinic's work for crippled children and adults.

Alpha Gamma Delta, a national women's fraternity, has a continuing partnership with the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, and for many years has provided fellowships for a counselor training program.

At Alpha Gamma Delta's 60th Anniversary convention in 1964, announcement was made of a new program, co-sponsored with the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults: that of providing grants for education and rehabilitation training, concentrate on children with minimal brain damage-caused disabilities.

Short cuts to success often prove to be the longest route.

People who lack confidence have two strikes against them.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

The Women's Guild of St. James Lutheran Church has scheduled the following Circle meetings for March:

Meeting on Monday, March 22, at 12:30 o'clock will be members of the Ruth Circle at the home of Mrs. William Steinert in Middlesex boulevard. Their work project will be the making of tray favors for the Georgian Court Nursing home.

The compilation of the Guild newspaper, "The Sarah Circular," will be done by the Sarah Circle, whose hostess will be Mrs. Carlisle Rueger, of McKinley avenue.

The Martha and Esther Circles will meet at the church with the Martha members hemming baptismal napkins, and the Esthers having as their guest speaker, Pastor George E. Kurz, at 1 o'clock on Monday, March 22.

Mrs. David Gaden, of Beaufort road, Harper Woods, will be hostess to the Miriam Circle at 8 o'clock on Monday, March 22. The speaker will be Pastor Kurz. The Lydia Circle will meet at the church at this same hour with Mrs. Arnold Launs, of Kerby road, serving as hostess.

The Dorcas Circle meets on Tuesday, March 23, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Reising in Lakeland avenue. Mrs. Ted Augland will act as hostess to the Elizabeth Circle at 8 o'clock on Tuesday at her home in Pemberton road.

The Mary Circle has scheduled no meeting for March.

First English Lutheran Nursery Visits Library

The children of the First English Lutheran Co-Operative Nursery accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Frank Rosier, and four mothers visited the Public Library at Parcels School on March 4. The librarian read them stories and each child was given the opportunity to look through all the books.

This is just one of many trips planned for the children. The children also have many exciting projects that they work on during the year. At each holiday they have a little party, of which their most famous is the "Mexican Pinata."

The new term will start in September and applications are now being accepted. If you are interested will you please contact Mrs. Esther Jubelt, membership chairman at PR 5-1003.

Questers View Danish Plates

The Pear Tree Chapter of the Questers met at the home of their guest speaker, Mrs. Grant Hales, of Sunningdale drive, on Thursday, March 11.

There they viewed the Hales exceptional collection of Royal Copenhagen Christmas plates. Equally fascinating were Mrs. Hales' collections of lustre pitchers, antique glass and china.

Members then adjourned for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Edward K. Heglin who was assisted by Mrs. Wilfred A. Lademacher.

Soroptimists Holding Dinner

The Soroptimist International Club of Grosse Pointe has invited Harvey E. Baumgardner, assistant to the chairman of the Board of Directors of Detroit Edison company, to be guest speaker at a dinner to be held at the War Memorial on Wednesday, March 24.

Baumgardner has selected as his topic, "An Engineer looks at the World Behind the Iron Curtain—U.S.S.R., Poland, Rumania and Hungary." He will also show slides taken during his travels in these countries.

Following the dinner, a $100 U.S. Savings Bond will be presented to Miss Kathleen Sullivan, of 290 Merriweather, essay winner. The essay titled, "I Am a Citizen of the Family, of the Community, of the World" won first prize in this area.

In addition, Miss Sullivan will have the opportunity to represent Michigan in a national contest to be held in Washington, D.C.

Baumgardner was born in Indianapolis, Ind., and in 1902 living we wouldn't be shipped into it C.O.D.

The seven dollar misunderstanding

This year, a full-sized Chrysler Newport 2-Door Hardtop is priced less than $7 a month more than the most popular smaller cars.

And when you compare a Chrysler with cars that are even smaller than Ford and Chevrolet, you're really in for a surprise. Their names are the only thing big about them.

Every car compared below is a 2-door hardtop. They all have V-8 engines, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio and heater. There is only one meaningful difference: Chrysler is the only big one.

So why not see your Chrysler dealer today? Move up to Chrysler... it's easy!

Make	Wheelbase	Overall Length	V-8 Engine Cubic Inch Displacement	Base Monthly Payments	Difference Per Month
CHRYSLER NEWPORT	124"	218.2"	383	$65.67	—
FORD GALAXIE 500	119	210.0	289	58.94	$6.73
CHEVROLET IMPALA	119	213.1	283	58.94	6.73
OLDS F-85 CUTLASS	115	204.3	330	59.26	6.41
BUICK SPECIAL SKYLARK	115	203.4	300	56.65	7.02

BASIS OF COMPARISON—All models are 2-door hardtops equipped with V-8 engine, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, radio and heater. Monthly payments have been computed on manufacturers' suggested retail price, one-third down and 36 monthly payments. Not included are the extras you pay for on practically any new car: whitewall tires, deluxe wheel covers, destination charges, state and local taxes, interest, insurance and licensing fees.

Sale Planned By PP League

Every year about this time Planned Parenthood members become collectors of a sort—and then sort what they collect.

It's in preparation for their annual white elephant sale. This year's sale—the ninth the League has held—is scheduled for Thursday, May 6, at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. John M. Herrmann has been named sale chairman. Flyers announcing the sale were prepared for mailing at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Duff, Stephens road.

Proceeds from the sale go to help support the family planning clinics which the League operates in seven locations in Wayne and Oakland counties.

Among those working on preparations for the sale are: Mrs. Tost, Mrs. Ethel Prewitt, Mrs. Theodore Buttrick, Jr., Mrs. Byron Nichols, Mrs. Wilbur Elston, Mrs. Emory Ford, Mrs. Aaron Gershenson, Mrs. Louis Heavrich, Mrs. William P. Harris, III, Mrs. Andrew Barr, Mrs. Theodore Jacobowitz, Mrs. Homer Sale, Mrs. James Kilpatrick, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Glenn Wilson, Mrs. Fraser E. Pomeroy, Mrs. Frederick Kross, Mrs. Henry C. Kohring, Mrs. Charles Masenich, Mrs. William E. Baubie, Mrs. Robert J. Schneek, Mrs. Fred Cotter, Mrs. Walter Crow, Mrs. Edwin Mercer, Mrs. Frederick Comlossy and Mrs. Raymond Leonard.

Parcells Offers Night of Plays

Parcells Junior High School students will present an entertaining Night of Plays on Friday evening, March 19, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The curtain will rise with a seventh grade cast on stage presenting a comedy called "Pops Goes Dramatic." It is about a 14-year-old playwright who uses the names of her family and neighbors in her play. The plot includes poison pen letters which are accidentally mailed with uproarious results.

The director for this play is Mrs. Frances Roach. Seventh grade students in the cast include Kathy Knop, Debbie Charcot, Diane Jerger, Marilyn Jones, Gordy Spoor, Cheryl Gray, Jackie Hagelstein, Michael Munro, Lynne Foley, Pam Manos, Laura York, Fred Amrine, Cathy Wendt, and Rick Hunter. Working backstage will be Auburn Faber, Sheila Gahagan, Sue Oster, Pat Thompson, Susan Gromback, and Peggy Chargo.

While the scenery is being changed between plays Mr. Willis Brown and Miss Susie Keim will direct a group of students in a musical variety show. The performers consist of a clarinet quartet, a girls' sextet, and a guitar quintet. The two music instructors, Mrs. Helen Waindell and Mr. Donald McNew, have assisted in the coaching of these acts.

For the final performance of the evening a group of eighth and ninth grade drama enthusiasts will present "Woman in Black," a mystery in which a group of teenagers invades an old mansion, searches for ghosts, and tracks down a murderer.

Included in the cast, which is under the direction of Miss Shirley Lewis, are: Alice Sessions, Christine Polkinghorne, Lindsay Dick, David Deal, Dennis Wickline, Paul Czuby, Christine Corcoran, Barbara Broman, Sue Nelson and Fran Platz. The prompters will be Cathy Crossen and Rita Meech.

JOHN FREDERICK GAJEWSKI of Grayton road is among freshmen students in Trinity College at Duke University who have been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester.

LWV Supports Bond Issues

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters urges a "yes" vote on both school bond issues being voted upon on Monday, March 22. Mrs. J. Robert Jessup, president, has announced.

Grosse Pointe League members reached this decision as a result of an intensive two-year study of the needs of the Grosse Pointe school system, Mrs. Jessup explained.

She said, "League members feel that the proposed new high school is the best possible solution to present and projected needs. Since the proposed auditorium would be used for instructional purposes, it also should be built at this time."

Although the League of Women Voters does not support or oppose any political party or candidate for public office, it may take action on governmental measures and policies in the public interest. This is done after a thorough study of the issue involved and represents a consensus of the members' views.

In similar action in the past, the Grosse Pointe League joined with the League of Women Voters of Michigan in urging a "yes" vote on the new State Constitution.

The Grosse Pointe League also promoted the need for a child guidance clinic and supported the effort to establish the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic. This year the League has expressed support of the concept of home rule for Michigan's counties, but recently expressed opposition to the present bill in the Legislature concerning the structure of home rule counties.

All these actions were based on a consensus reached by members after a thorough study of each subject.

List Programs For Town Hall

Detroit Town Hall will open its 37 year old lecture-entertainment series Oct. 6 with singers Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt. The 12-program series is held on alternate Wednesday mornings at 11 a.m. in Fisher Theatre.

Wrightson is host of CBS-TV's "The American Music Theater." He and Miss Hunt appear frequently together on the Johnny Carson and Jack Paar Shows.

Others will be humorist-actor Tom Ewell in "The Many Faces of Laughter," December 1; Harrison Salisbury, Pulitzer Prize winning editor of the NY Times, discussing "America and the Triple Revolution," October 20; Mme. Genevieve Dariaux, directrice of Paris' Nina Ricci fashion house, November 3.

Philip Burton, foster father of Richard Burton and director of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York, will appear in "A Pageant of Kings," March 2. He will be assisted by his young protegee, Christian Alderson.

Still others are Dr. Kenneth McFarland, on education, November 17; William Oltmans, newsman, on Cuba, January 5; Woodrow Wilson Sayre, President Wilson's grandson, with movies of scaling Mt. Everest, January 19; the Medleys, husband-wife piano team, February 2; Nila Magidoff with tales of the lecture circuit, February 17; Dr. Lester Coleman, on fears and anxieties, March 16.

The series winds up March 30 with Harry Mark Petrakis, professor of Greek literature, and author of several books, speaking on values in contemporary literature.

The main function of the Council now is to teach dental care and the fluoride treatment.

Mothers' Health Council to Meet

An interesting and informative afternoon is in store for the delegates of the Mothers' Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe, when they meet at 1 o'clock, Monday, March 22, at the Main Library.

Program chairman Mrs. Todd Fredericks has asked Mrs. Frank Mann, instructor of the Effective Living Class at Grosse Pointe High School, to present a panel discussion, explaining the purpose, context and aims of this course of study.

The students participating in the panel will be Stephen Ceruti, moderator, Heidi Himmelsberger, Laura Levant, Judy Southern, Robert Bunselmeier, Ronald Kefgen and James Conboy. They will also discuss the facilities for teen-age entertainment and activities in the Pointes. This will be followed by a question and answer period.

The fluoride program, which is sponsored by the Mothers' Health Council, is now being carried on at the following schools: Richard School by Dr. John Britt, St. Clare School by Dr. Richard Knoff and St. Paul School by Dr. Edward Watko.

Fluoride treatments are available to any child in the 2nd, 5th, and 8th grades in the Grosse Pointe School system, with a minimum cost to the parents.

The Mothers' Health Education Council was founded by Mrs. Stanley Mackenzie in 1944 at the request of the Board of Education to serve as a "link" between the school and the home.

The main function of the Council now is to teach dental care and the fluoride treatment.

AAUW To Consider Community College

Luncheon and Meeting Scheduled Next Thursday, At Lochmoor Club; Other AAUW Activities Planned Next Week

"The Community College Movement in Michigan" will be discussed at the March general meeting of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. George R. Mosher, Jr., who was active in the planning of Oakland Community College, will speak at the luncheon and annual meeting at the Lochmoor Country Club at 12:30 o'clock Thursday, March 18.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. O. M. Robbins, VA 2-6304; Mrs. David Coolidge, TU 2-8978; or Mrs. James Kennary, TU 6-0412, by March 15.

The meeting is sponsored by the Branch's Legislative Study group. Mrs. Mosher is vice chairman of AAUW's Michigan State Division Legislative Committee.

She has worked on the Birmingham Community College Citizens Committee and with the

Reid-Magill Troth Told

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magill, of Van Antwerp road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Jo Anne, to Robert Leonard Reid, of Chicago.

Miss Magill holds a Bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Michigan and is news editor of "Hospitals," the journal of the American Hospital Association, with offices in Chicago.

Mr. Reid, son of Mrs. Leonard Reid, of Bellaire, Fla., and the late Judith Reid, is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Chicago's Kent College of Law. He is presently associated with a Chicago Consulting firm.

The couple plans a May 1 wedding.

In other AAUW activities, the Studio group is beginning a series of six weekly sessions in oil painting for those who have painted or those who would like to learn. The first session will be Friday, March 12, at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lee Corless in Roslyn road.

The American Family in a Changing World group will hear Mrs. Anthony W. Colett, a member of Parents Without Partners, discuss some of the problems of being a single parent. The meeting is Monday, March 15, at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Brown in Birch lane.

Joy Johnson, an exchange student from New Zealand who is presently attending Denby High School, will show slides and talk about her country for members of the Tuesday Evening group when it meets Tuesday, March 16, at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Innes in Kenwood court.

Cooperative Nursery Seeing Puppet Shows

The Grosse Pointe Shores Cooperative Nursery School is welcoming the Berry Puppets again this year, on Thursday, March 18.

Mrs. Donald Drago of 600 Vernier road, the Special Events chairman has announced that the children will see "Jack in the Beanstalk" and "Dinner Time" an original play by Mrs. Berry.

Mothers and younger brothers and sisters of children in the Nursery School are also invited to see the show.

Cut your speed, motorists — the turnover is always more costly than the upkeep.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis William Kirby, of Stanton lane, have announced the engagement of their daughter, KATHERINE STEVENS KIRBY, to Homer Ross McClure, II, son of Mrs. Homer Ross McClure, of Tulsa, Okla., and the late Mr. McClure.

Both the bride-elect, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School, and her fiancé are seniors at Michigan State University.

A June 18 wedding is planned, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Co-op Nursery Meeting Slated

Parents from four local co-operative nursery schools will meet at the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church tonight, March 18, at 8 o'clock, to hear a talk on parent-child relationships by Miss Esther Middlewood, chief of the education section of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, in Lansing.

The program is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Co-operative Nursery, Inc., which meets at the Methodist Church. Mrs. Julius J. Huebner, of University place, is president of that group.

Invitations were extended to parents from the nurseries at Christ Church, Faith Lutheran, and Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

Miss Middlewood is listed in "Who's Who of American Women" and is a member of the board of directors of many organizations, including the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries, the Michigan Child Study Association, the Michigan Council of Family Relations, and the National Council of Family Relations.

Responsible for tonight's program are Mrs. Louis Gregory, of Webber place, program chairman, and Mrs. Roy Eugenio, of Wedgewood road, and Mrs. Robert MacMillan, of Hawthorne road, committee members.

Hospitality committee chairman for the Methodist Church Nursery is Mrs. John Murray, of Bournemouth road. Her assistants are Mrs. Glen Fortinberry, of Merriweather road; Mrs. John Gould, of Bishop road; Mrs. Roy Hartmann, of Harvard road; Mrs. John Pendy, of Lochmoor boulevard, and Mrs. Neill Peters, of Woodmont road, Harper Woods.

LIFE-CYCLE
Life is a perfect circle—we all have to learn to read, and then read to learn.

Center to Hold Spanish Night

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will present the next in its series of international dinners and programs on Tuesday evening, March 30, at 7 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of Fries Auditorium. It will be an "Evening in Spain."

Contrary to some preconceived notions, Spanish food is not hot and spicy like Mexican fare. It is really rather bland and in the continental tradition. Much fish and rice are used as well as the fruits of southern Spain.

Spanish flamenco is admired the world over for its staccato rhythms. After dinner guests will be entertained by Spanish dancers complete with costumes and castanets.

Spain offers some of the most extravagant scenery and architecture in the world and these sights will be viewed by the audience in Fries Theater via color slides and films which will show both Castilian Spain and the Moorish areas, the mainland and resort islands.

Paid reservations for "An Evening in Spain" at $4.50 per person tax and service included should be at the Centers office no later than March 28.

Carmelite Auxiliary Plans 'Secret Auction'

Remember the "Telepathy Tea"—that novel fund-raising project of the Discolored Carmelite Auxiliary a few years back? And after that "Irish Coffee," where the "little men" inspired the donors to great generosity? These were clever and successful, as was the Box-Lunch Church Fair, held in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cerre's home in Rathbone place.

And now on the Auxiliary's agenda is a Secret Auction, to be held on Wednesday, March 24 from 10 to 5 o'clock at the home of the B. J. Verhovens in Lakeshore road.

The Board president, Mrs. Edward Meyer, promises a tempting display of Trinkets and Treasures which the two-chairmen, Mrs. Ralph Disser and Mrs. William Taylor, are busy assembling and secretly pricing for the sale.

Everyone will have a chance to bid, but the bid closest to the hidden price will carry the treasure home.

Wayne Eastern Deanery Meeting Set March 18

Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, Wayne Eastern Deanery, will hold its fourth quarterly meeting on Thursday, March 18, at 8 o'clock in St. Matthew Church Auditorium, Whittier at Harper avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Martin German of Balford road, Altar Society, president, will welcome the priests and ladies of the 23 member parishes.

A brief business meeting conducted by Deanery president Mrs. Sylvester Gerski, will be followed by informative workshops.

Former Wayne Eastern moderator, Rev. Robert J. Pomponi, Pastor of Patronage of St. Joseph Parish, will then show films of his recent trip to the Holy Land and India.

Also planning to attend is the newly appointed Deanery moderator, Rev. Stephen A. Rejewski, Pastor of St. Ignatius, who was introduced at the last meeting.

Camp Fire Girls Observe Fifty-Fifth Anniversary

The Camp Fire Girls of America are celebrating the 55th anniversary of their splendid organization. Camp Fire Girls was founded in 1910 by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gwilk, with assistance of a group of men and women noted for their understanding of the special needs of children.

For 55 years, Camp Fire Girls has made America a richer, finer place for girls to live, grow and find adventure. The program provides for both individual achievement and group adjustment.

Since its founding, Camp Fire Girls has been dedicated to the spiritual ideals of the home and training for family living. The founders gave first importance to the happy development of each individual.

During the following weeks, Camp Fire Girls will be extending good wishes and thanks to those who have made Camp Fire a success.

Couples Class To Hold Dinner

The wives of the Couples Class of the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church will be entertained by their husbands when the couples gather for dinner Saturday, March 20, at 6:30 o'clock in the church.

The men of the group are planning, cooking and serving the dinner for their ladies. They will also provide the entertainment for the meeting.

Tickets for the dinner may be had by calling Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Abrahamson at TU 4-3444 or Mr. and Mrs. William Stopin at TU 4-5322.

Jan Peerce With Symphony

Tenor Jan Peerce will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock on Thursday, March 18, and Saturday, March 20, at Ford Auditorium. Sixteen Ehrlich will conduct.

Peerce will sing Vaughan Williams' Four Hymns for Tenor and Three Arias by Handel. The orchestral portion of the program will include Haydn's Symphony No. 104 (London) and Reger's Variations and Fugue on a Theme by Mozart.

Peerce is generally considered the foremost American tenor of the day. He was discovered by Toscanini in the late 1930's and made his Metropolitan Opera debut as Alfredo in "La Traviata" in 1941. American born and trained, Peerce has performed all over the world and has one of the largest recorded repertoires of any artist.

Tickets are available at all prices at the Ford Auditorium Box Office and at all Grinnell's stores.

Miss Farnam To Be Bride

Dr. and Mrs. Larry M. Farnam, of St. Paul avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Elizabeth, to Thomas Joseph Culligan, son of Mrs. Thomas E. Culligan, of Oakland, Calif., formerly of Grand Rapids, and the late Mr. Culligan.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé were graduated from Michigan State University, where Miss Farnam affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. An April 24 wedding is planned, in Old St. Mary's Church, San Francisco, Calif.

Scandinavian Symphony Concert on March 20

The Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra will present its 3rd concert of the 1964-65 season on Saturday, March 20 at 8:30. As usual the concert will be held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral of the Masonic Temple.

Performing with the orchestra at this time will be the 150-voice Oakland University Chorus under the leadership of George V. Cripps.

The orchestral portion of the program will be conducted by the permanent conductor of the Scandinavian Symphony, Dr. Oren Dalley. Dr. Dalley has just returned from a tour of Finland by invitation from the Finnish Government.

MR. and MRS. RONALD R. FISHER, of Ottawa Hills, O., announce the birth of their second daughter, CHERYL MARGARET, March 13. Mrs. Fisher is the former DIANE K. CLIFFORD, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. JOHN E. CLIFFORD, of Stephens road. Paternal grandparents are the CLYDE A. FISHERS, of Ottawa Hills and Deerfield Beach, Fla.

Open 1965 Easter Seal Campaign

How Easter Seals can be put to work to tell a happy story was seen when the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., introduced the 1965 Easter Seal child at a luncheon at the Detroit Press Club.

Mary Catherine Mitchell, six years old, with twinkling eyes and long chestnut curls, was there to meet members of the press, radio and television as representative of the 1965 Easter Seal drive which opened locally on March 15 and continues through Easter Sunday, April 18.

She is one of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Mitchell, who make their home in Melvindale.

For the fourth year, Easter Seal "parades" will visit more than 400,000 homes in 25 postal zones in Detroit, the City of Harper Woods, and the five Grosse Pointes. The "parade" date is set for Tuesday, March 30.

To supplement the door-to-door campaign conducted by more than 13,000 volunteers but which is not yet carried to all homes of the cities involved, close to 100,000 letters with Easter Seals were mailed to Easter Seal supporters over the weekend to help attain the 1965 goal of $145,000.

It is this once-a-year Easter Seal sale which enables the Detroit Society to carry on its program at the Therapy Center for youngsters like our Easter Seal child, as well as adults.

So the progress of Mary Catherine, a victim of cerebral palsy, who came to the Center almost four years ago, a tiny stumbling toe walker, is a graphic example of what can be done for many Mary Catherine at the Center, supported by contributions of Detroit's communications fields and a generous community.

Treatments began for the little girl and finally braces were applied for a year. Last fall the braces were removed. In kindergarten since that time, and loving every minute of it, she now wears braces only at night to prevent a recurrent contraction.

Since she was four years old, Mary Catherine has been able to put on her shoes, even though facing the shoes was quite an ordeal.

She's delighted that she's grown tall enough to turn on the water tap in the kitchen to get a drink. And, highly imaginative, she thinks it would be "great fun to eat by candlelight."

Like any other little girl of her age she likes pretty dresses and never gets over talking about her pets—three dogs, a rabbit, a parakeet named Prince and a turtle, called Roy.

The outlook for Mary Catherine is good. And her future will be a happy one, too, as she continues to develop a good functional gait to carry her through life—without braces.

Patients come to the Therapy Center, 17330 Schaefer, on recommendation of doctors who know of the excellent work being done there. The work, involving both children and adults, has the over-all objective of rehabilitation of the handicapped person to the activities of daily living.

Its scope is the conditioning of parents or relatives to a role in the rehabilitation and, more difficult, the conditioning of the individual patient to achieve his greatest potential despite his handicap.

It may involve as small a thing as learning to pick up a fork—or put on a shirt. This may seem insignificant. But it is as important as life itself to the psychologically beaten adult.

In a specific sense, this area of "living with a handicap" involves the child or adult with cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy or multiple sclerosis.

It involves the person rehabilitating from a cardiac seizure, the youth or adult with arthritis and rheumatism, and the person incapacitated from an accident or an amputation, the most difficult mental battle.

The Detroit Society also supports a summer camp program for crippled children and provides orthopedic aids for children and adults alike, where needed.

This is the sixth successive year Paul J. Abele will serve as Easter Seal campaign chairman. Speaking at the luncheon he said:

"The Detroit Society for Crippled Children and its Therapy Center cannot exist without the sale of Easter Seals and we need you all to help us tell our story. More than that, there are thousands of handicapped children and adults who could use our services. Will you help us find them?"

Honorary chairmen named by Detroit Society President Alfred H. McKeown to serve in the campaign are Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell, of Devonshire Road; Detroit Councilman Mary Beck; Judge Charles S. Farmer, and Ted Lindsay, of the Detroit Red Wings.

Other fund raising committee members are L. George Bott, C. Harry Chisholm, William J. Davis, Fred W. Sanders and Frank J. Tschirhart. Mrs. Rose Marie Evenhuis is acting executive director of the Detroit Society.

To Stage Show At Hunt Club

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club will conduct its final Schooling Show on March 20.

Captain John H. Fritz, from South Orange, N.J., will be on hand to judge the entries. He is currently Commandant of the Junior Essex Troop of that city and previously held that post with the Black Horse Troop of Culver Military Academy of Culver, Indiana.

Mrs. Charles B. Squires is chairman of the show and will be assisted by gate stewards D. A. Olliver, Chuck Bachrach and C. B. Squires. Mrs. Keith Tandler has agreed to act as recording secretary and the ring master will be James Kahn; J. Henry Smith, Jr. is the announcer.

AAUW Group Plan Meetings

Contemporary literature and foreign economic policy are on the agendas for meetings of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women next week.

Mrs. Fred Shepherd will review Packard's "The Naked Society" at a meeting of the Book Group on Monday, March 22. Mrs. Edward Bunn, of Balfour road, is hostess for the 1 o'clock meeting. Miss Iva Hooper and Miss Pearl Hooper are co-hostesses.

The Russian contemporary short story and its reflection on Soviet life, Soviet propaganda and Soviet censorship will be discussed by the Contemporary Book Group when it meets Tuesday, March 23, at 7:45 o'clock.

Mrs. E. Dawson Fisher, of Peach Tree Lane, is hostess and Mrs. Thomas Roach and Mrs. M. Lloyd Davis will be co-hostesses.

"The 89th Congress and Foreign Policy" will be analyzed by Miss Irma Bielenberg for the Legislative Program Group Thursday, March 25, at 9:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ralph A. Kimble in Fisher road.

The AAUW's Michigan Division Legislative Program, which will be presented to the delegates to the AAUW State Convention in Grand Rapids in April, will also be discussed.

Women graduates of qualified colleges and universities are eligible for membership in AAUW. Anyone interested in the Grosse Pointe Branch may call Mrs. Urban Borsch, 886-4692.

Church Women Prepare 'Meal'

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church is planning a meeting of inspiration and dedication on Tuesday, March 23, with the serving of the "Meal of the Upper Room" in which the minister and two assistant ministers will participate.

A preparatory service entitled "Concerning the Feast," will be held in the church sanctuary at 12:30 p.m. Following a procession to the dining room, Mrs. Andrew Rauth will serve the lighting of the Passover candles.

The Reverend Andrew F. Rauth will conduct the service of the Passover thanksgiving. The "Meal of Upper Room" will duplicate as nearly as possible the food which was served at the Last Supper.

It will be eaten in silence except for music chants and the reading of excerpts from the Bible by the Reverend Paul Winchester and the Reverend Harold W. Abram. Following the meal, Mr. Rauth will preside over a communion service.

The Abigail Circle chairman, Mrs. Arthur Drummond, and the Hannah Circle chairman, Mrs. Melville Osborn will be in charge of the preparation of the meal. Mrs. Allan Bradbury is general chairman for the meeting.

There will be no business session. A nursery is available.

Henry Ford RN! Alumnae Schedule April Meeting

The Alumnae Association of the Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing will meet Monday evening, April 5, at 8 o'clock, in the Clinic Building auditorium of the hospital.

The nurses of the '65 graduating class will be the honored guests of the evening.

Following the business session, music and skits will be provided by the Kendallarks Choral Group. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Camera Club Meets Tuesday

The next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club will take the form of a "Social and Educational Evening." It will be held on Tuesday, March 23 in the Fries Ballroom, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center at 8 p.m.

For those interested in photography, this meeting will afford a fine opportunity to meet others with similar interests. In addition, the well-known and outstanding member and salon exhibitor, Gil Lehmebeck, APSA, will conduct a "Judging and Commenting Seminar." He will point out what to look for in composition and technique.

Guests of members and the general public are invited to attend.

To Hold Tryout For Hootenanny

A Hootenanny Tryout will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Saturday, March 27, at 1 o'clock. It will be under the direction of Alex Sucek who will select performers to appear in the Hootenanny itself which is scheduled under the auspices of the War Memorial Association for Friday evening, April 23, in Fries Auditorium.

All Grosse Pointers, young people and adults alike who have ability in the vocal or instrumental folk music field are urged to try out. There is a small honorarium for those who take part in the show.

Auditionists may be single acts, duos, or large groups. The Hootenanny will present people from junior high school age to mature artists.

THIEF TAKES CASH

Craig Van Sickla, 15, of 1017 South Brys drive, complained to Woods police on Saturday, March 13, that someone broke into his locker at Parcels Junior High School and stole $32 from his jacket pocket. He said the money was removed from inside a bank book, which was replaced in the jacket after the cash was taken. He said he had intended to deposit the money in a bank.

University School Notes

The English Department of Grosse Pointe University School was pleased to learn that 18 of its students have been named winners in the annual Detroit News Scholastic Writing Awards competition in southeastern Michigan. A total of 11,485 pieces of creative writing were entered in the contest from students in public, private, and parochial schools in the metropolitan Detroit area. Of that record number of entries there were 1003 winners in the various categories open to students in the senior division (grades 10-12) and the junior division (grades 6-9).

University School winners of awards (Key—1st place; Honorable Mention—2nd place; Commendation—3rd place) were the following. Senior Division:—Key: Julie Munger (12), short story; Stephen Fischer (12), formal essay; Honorable Mention: Kathy Maschmeyer (11), autobiographical article; Betsy Peabody (12), critical review. Junior Division:—Key: Deborah Markey (9), short story; Alfred Ford and Jacqueline Jensen (both 9), autobiographical article; Deborah Lynch (9), short story; Nancy Chapman (9), 9th grade essay; John Hoag, (9), poetry; Susan Sarge (9), autobiographical article; Matthew Zukowski (9), feature story. Commendation: Nancy Chapman and Mary Candler (both 9), short story; Christoph Wuersch (7), 7th grade essay; Steve Smith (9), sketch, and Deborah Markey (9), poetry.

Prizes will be awarded to Detroit News contest winners at ceremonies to be held in each winner's own school. Winning regional manuscripts will be forwarded to New York and the National Scholastic Writing Awards Contest.

On Friday, March 12, the Proseminary Society and the Music Department of the Grosse Pointe University School presented the "Seventh Grade Frolics" and Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado." In addition to the seventh grade chorus, participants in the "Frolics" were masters of ceremony Tom Campbell and Charles Shreve; monologist Bill Marcus; entertainers Pam Truesdale, Debbie Stormes, and Bonnie Thomson; magicians Eric Keydel and Jim Quinlan; jazz quartet Joanne Kaufman; singer quartet John Danaher, Keith Edwards, Doug McClure, and John Humphreys.

Lead members of the cast of "The Mikado" were L. Anderson, B. Littler, S. Ford, B. Friedberg, C. Dickson, N. Gimbel, J. Standart, T. Weller, and D. Chapin. Understudies were P. Humphreys, C. Caskey, T. Jackson, P. Riddleberger, E. Hamilton, A. Fleishman, G. Ballantyne, R. Moore, and B. Taylor.

Other credits are these: make-up: Ann Wattles, Bonnie Klein, Kathy McCarroll; costumes: Lauraine Cain, Julie Munger; stage crew: Craig Jennings; John Mabley, Jan Sekki, Ray Wattles, Ronnie Roberts, Rip Odell; director: Mrs. Mary Gramme; music director: Mr. David M. Arner; accompanist: Miss Jean Dieckoff; and ticket chairman: Gregg Watkins.

Friday, March 19, will mark the last day of the winter term at Grosse Pointe University School and the beginning of the spring vacation. School will resume on Wednesday, April 7.

The annual American Field Service assembly program was held in the school auditorium the morning of Friday, March 12. Bill Swan and Sarah Elston represented the school's AFS club and presented to the audience students from both G.P.U.S. and Grosse Pointe High School who have since September been guests in this community from other lands. Countries represented were Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Germany, Sweden, and Switzerland. Also participating were American students who had spent summers abroad in the AFS program in Finland, Iran, and New Zealand. They all described their enthusiasm for the experience of living as members of a family in a foreign country. Each one praised the gains and the growth that had come to him in the program. Mrs. Edward Lynch and Mr. Edward Mott are faculty sponsors of the AFS Club at the University School. Mr. E. Osborne Coates is AFS Chapter President and is working to further the group's success in the community.

In a somewhat similar kind of project Michelle Henry of the 11th grade has been accepted by the Michigan Council of Churches to live with a family in Europe this summer for two months in their Youth-for-Understanding Program.

Under the supervision of John Hoag some 9th grade boys are opening up a G.P.U.S. Car Wash each Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 5 p.m. in the garage area adjoining the Industrial Arts building. John assures patrons of a fine job at a reasonable price.

Miss Elizabeth Ferguson welcomed her fellow members of the Detroit Classical Association to Grosse Pointe University School last Saturday, March 13, on the occasion of the Association's meeting. Some 60 teachers from the metropolitan area and from Windsor were present to hear Dr. G. H. Forsyth, director of the Kelsey Archaeological Museum, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor and to see his slides. Dr. Forsyth has worked as a field archaeologist and architect at the Monastery of St. Catherine on Mt. Sinai, where one of the finest collections of Byzantine icons in the world is to be found as well as some very distinguished mosaics.

Invite Ladies To 'Sing Along'

The Detroit Yachtsmen, a branch of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America will "let down its hair" this Saturday evening, March 20, at the Detroit Yacht Club, and invite the ladies to "sing along."

This annual Ladies' Night is the only performance of the DYC men's Barbershop Quartet group open to women.

Performers this year will include the Treble Shotters, district champions and International semi-finalists of SPBQSQA; the Spartan Airs of Grand Rapids, the outstanding comedy quartet in Michigan; Duncan Hannah of the Clef Dwellers, the nation's best in authorities' books; and, of course, the Detroit Yachtsmen, led by Gordon Lang.

There will be community singing, too.

Last year, the audience numbered 500, and because of another anticipated record crowd, reservations are limited, and must be obtained by calling the club, LO 7-4110.

For those desiring to enjoy dinner at the DYC, coupon books are available for food and refreshments. Curtain time is 9 o'clock.

Carol Hennecke To Speak Vows

Mr. and Mrs. J. James Hennecke, of Joliet Place, Detroit, formerly of Grosse Pointe, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Susan Hennecke, to Richard John Gagnon, son of Mrs. Charles H. Billig, of Boca Raton, Fla., and the late John B. Gagnon, of Dearborn.

Miss Hennecke was graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road and attended Newton College of the Sacred Heart, Newton, Mass., and the University of Detroit. She presently resides in New York.

Mr. Gagnon is a television-radio producer with Campbell-Ewald Advertising, New York. They plan an early summer wedding in The Pointe.

CAROLE ROSENBUSCH, daughter of MRS. ROSALIND ROSENBUSCH, of Moorland drive, has transferred from Monticello College to Northwood Institute, Midland, Mich. Mrs. Rosenbusch recently returned to The Pointe after a three-week stay with friends in Holmes Beach, Fla.

AWAITING VERDICT—Mrs. Lucille Miller, 35, signals her "victory" wish while awaiting the jury's verdict at end of her trial in San Bernardino, Calif. in the burned car death of her husband.

"VERY GRAVE"—Author W. Somerset Maugham (above) is in "very grave" condition with influenza at St. Jean-Cap-Ferrat, France. He was 91 years old in January.

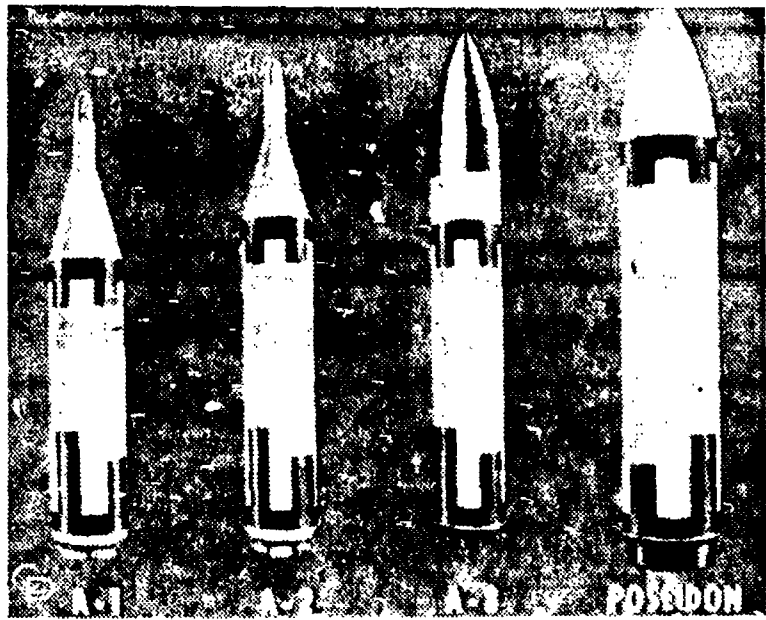

MALCOLM X ARREST—The third suspect in the Malcolm X killing in New York arrives at police headquarters for booking. He is Thomas 15X Johnson, 30. The other two are Norman 3X Butler, 26, and Talmadge Hayer, 22, who suffered a wound at the time. Thomas 15X Johnson and Norman 3X Butler also are accused of felonious assault on Benjamin 13X Brown, 31, a New York City corrections officer.

TOM FALKENBURG (above), a brother of personality Jinx Falkenburg of New York, is under arrest in Jackson, Miss., in the $4,080 robbery of the nearby Bank of Ridge. The robbery occurred Feb. 25. Falkenburg, 41, is a Mississippi sports figure.

CRASH PILOT—Pilot of the Eastern Air Lines DC-7 which crashed off Long Island, killing all 84 persons aboard, was Capt. Frederick Carson (above). He lived in Huntington, N. Y.

POLARIS HAS A DESCENDANT—These drawings from the Defense Department compare the line of Polaris submarine missiles with upcoming Poseidon, which is bigger and more powerful. The Poseidon would require only minor modifications in the subs, says Lockheed Missiles, prime contractor.

ON HIS OWN, NOW—Dick Sisler gives his Cincinnati Reds a studied onceover at training camp in Tampa, Fla., as he starts his first year "on his own" as manager. He wears No. 2. He will not wear No. 1 out of respect for Freddie Hutchinson, his predecessor who died last year.

EX-BUNNY GIRL IN NEW HUTCH—Mary Ellen Terzu of Laurel, Md., the former Playboy Club bunny girl who was going to get a job in office of Sen. Joseph Tydings, D-Md., and then didn't, pauses for the camera in the House Office Building, where she finally did get a job. She's a secretary for the House Education and Labor Committee. Chairman is Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y.

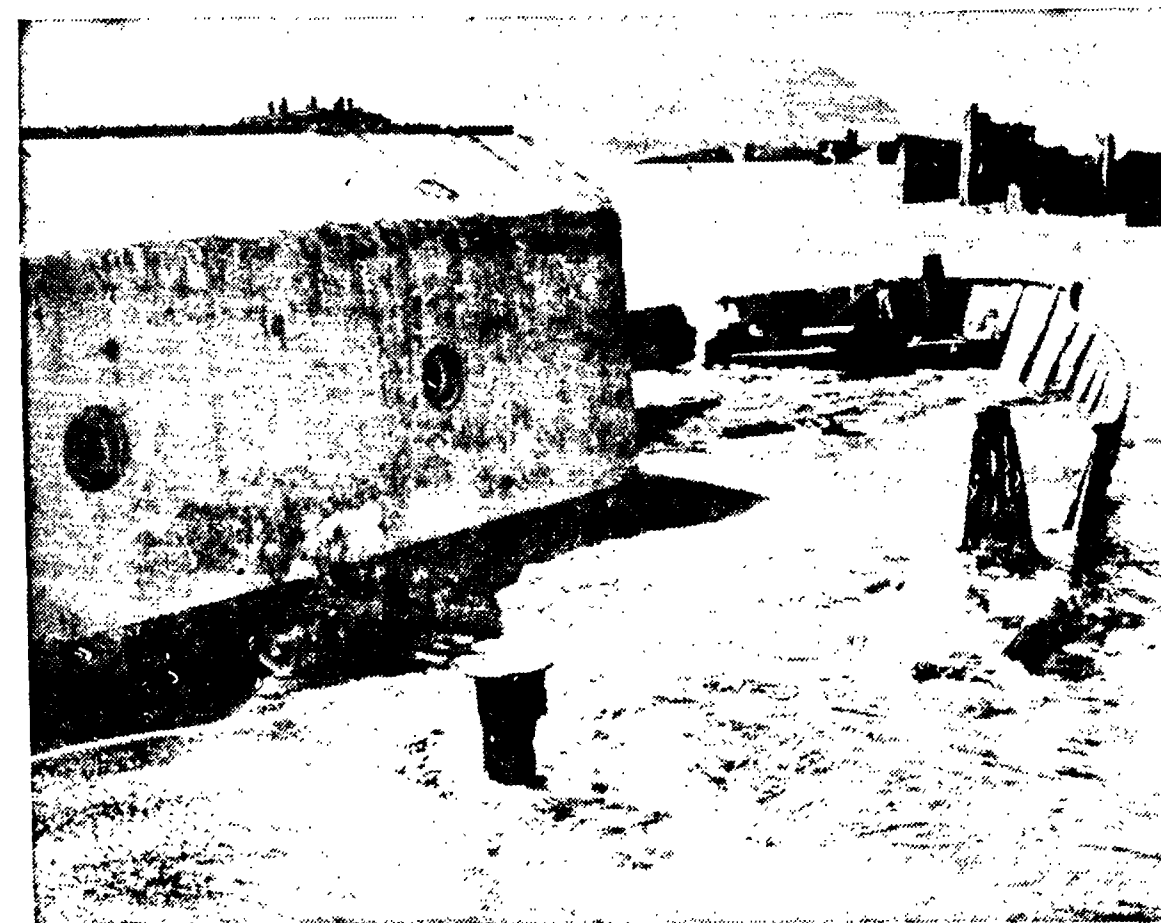

A SLAP ON THE WRIST—A Negro winces in pain after a crack across his wrist from that sheriff's deputy's club outside the Dallas County Courthouse in Selma, Ala. Another deputy carries an electric cattle prodder. It's a voter registration lineup, and got nowhere.

GOLDWATER LOST, HE'S LEAVING THE COUNTRY—Robert Ansett, 31, wife Karen and children, Ronald, 6, Sherrie, 4, and Timothy, 2, are shown on ship in San Pedro, Calif., waiting to sail away to Australia. Ansett bet his boss that Barry Goldwater would be elected president, said he would leave the country if Goldwater lost. Ansett's partner in the bet, Peter Kemmsies, and his wife and three children also are going. Ansett, who was a bakery driver in San Diego, said, "Frankly, I was sure Barry would win. Otherwise I wouldn't have added that part about going to Australia."

REAR VISION MIRROR VIEW—John de Riet shows how he had the shop name painted on his truck in St. Louis, Mo., so you can read it looking into your rear vision mirror.

IWO JIMA 20 YEARS LATER—Only rusting hulks of American warships are left on the Iwo Jima beach now, 20 years after one of World War II's bloodiest battles. Capture of the strategic speck of land in the western Pacific cost 25,000 American lives. That's Mount Suribachi in the background. The battle began raging with U.S. assault on Feb. 19, 1945.

COMPOSER ALAN JAY LERNER'S "Fair Lady"—Mrs. Michelle Lerner, and attorney Roy Cohn arrive at the State Supreme Court Building in New York for testimony in her separation suit. She said the "My Fair Lady" lyricist hired a pretty airline stewardess as his secretary, then sent her to school to learn to operate a typewriter.

SHOT HIS PARENTS—Beverly Hills, Calif. Police Capt. John Hankins and another officer lead handcuffed Gary Livingston, 22, away from home still in pajamas after he shot his songwriter father, Jerry Livingston, 53, and mother Ruth, 51, because they "bugged" him about getting out of bed at 1 p.m. The parents were hospitalized in satisfactory condition. Jerry Livingston wrote "Mairzy Doats" and "Talk of the Town," among other songs.

Form Classes In Photography

Spring classes in photography are scheduled for April 7 and 8 on Beginning and Advanced levels. In cooperation with the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, the series are being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

The Beginning Photography group will meet on Thursday evenings, starting April 8 for a five-week period. Designed to teach elementary theory and practice of photography, this course should especially appeal to those persons who feel they are not getting the results they should with the equipment they already own.

Instructors for this series are Mrs. Mildred Briggs, Gilbert Lehmbeck and Jack Fetzoldt. All three are members of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, are recognized for their photographic work; have exhibited their work; and are experienced teachers in this field.

"How to Do It" Photography course is for the Advanced camera enthusiast. This course will meet on Wednesday evenings for a six-week period, to begin April 7.

Gilbert Lehmbeck will conduct this series which will cover Portrait Lighting, Still Life, Table Tops, Copying Methods, Bas Relief and Montages, and Making Title Slides.

Both groups will be limited in enrollment. Reservations for a place in either class may be made by calling the Department of Community Services, 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard, at TU. 53808 or TU. 5-0271.

Library Forum Offers Movies

The fourth feature of the Friends Film Forum series, co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library, will be shown Friday, March 19 at 9:15 p.m. in the Main Reading Room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval. These showings are open to the general public.

This month there are four films, featuring the fine arts of writing, painting, music and acting. All these films are noted for their interesting approach to the various facets of the arts.

"A Publisher Is Known by the Company He Keeps" — Alfred A. Knopf's informal film footage, collected over 30 years of many of the authors he published, portrays a vivid sense of their personalities. (Among others: Thomas Mann, Walter de la Mare, Willa Cather, H. L. Mencken, Sigrid Undset, Kahili Gibran, and Rebecca West)—25 minutes.

Bernard Buffet — offers comprehensive view of the famous painter's works up to date, including the creation of a still-life from the original sketch to the finished painting—18 minutes, color.

"Pablo Casals Breaks His Journey" — a historic documentary, revealing insight into the heart of the internationally renowned cellist. Unique shots rehearsing and performing — 9 minutes.

"The Stratford Adventure: The Story Behind a Festival" — the delightful and informative story of a dream, translated into action and reality in a community of free people who work together — 40 minutes, color.

Spring Arrives This Saturday

Spring will begin at 3:05 p.m., Saturday (March 20).

The sun will reach the vernal equinox or cross the equator on its way north. "It will rise and set almost exactly at the east and west points, with the day and night said to be of equal lengths," University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh explains.

Contrary to what many believe, the day and night will not be exactly equal on the day of the equinox, Professor Losh adds.

"Because of the refraction or bending of the sun's rays by the earth's atmosphere, the sun may be seen a few minutes before it actually comes over the horizon." The day and night are more nearly equal about three days before the equinox date.

Spring will come nearly six hours later than last year, Professor Losh notes. "This later coming results from the difference between the number of days in our calendar (365) and the time used by the sun in its apparent yearly travel around the earth, 365.2422 days."

After the equinox, not only will the days be longer, but they will also be warmer with the sun shining more directly over the northern hemisphere, Professor Losh says.

Wednesday Book Club

Members of the Wednesday Book Club of Detroit will gather March 24 for a 12:15 o'clock luncheon at the Women's City Club, followed by a discussion of "Archaeology and the Bible" presented by Reverend Edward Lovely, S.J.

Artists Market Exhibit Slated

An exhibit of Fabrics by Glen Kaufman, and Graphics, by Barker, Broner, Pallas, Wedge and Wolf, opens next Wednesday afternoon, March 24, at the Detroit Artists Market.

The exhibit will continue through April 24. Gallery hours are 10 to 5 o'clock, weekdays.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist: Jean Taylor, Emeritus Chief of Children's Service

"What a bright note the books in their colorful jackets give to this room." A newly registered patron stopped to browse through the bookshelves in the Adult Room of the Central Library. "But," she continued, "these are children's books. How did they stray into this inner sanctum that is reserved for college and up?"

We hasten to explain. They are decorative to be sure, but that is not their primary function. They are here to be used. Some ten years ago, through the generosity of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, this collection of the best editions of children's perennial favorites came into being.

Scarcely a day goes by that the question is not put to the children's librarian "I want to buy a book for my 10-year-old niece, or my five-year-old son. What do you suggest?" The librarian is always happy to make suggestions for a child's home library, but she also likes to show the actual book to the prospective buyer, that he may see for himself what he proposes to purchase. Too often the book in question is in circulation, or has been rebound, or is worn and has less appeal than a brand new copy. The edition collection is reference only, so is always available to interested adults.

This collection brings together books suitable as gifts for children; basic books which generations have read and enjoyed. We shy away from the word "classic," because for many it has a connotation which gives it a bad odor. It is wrongly assumed to be dull, dreary and difficult. Robert Wallace points out the fallacy of this assumption in his article "Kids' Books: A Happy Few Amid the Junk." This appeared in the December 11th issue of LIFE MAGAZINE. If children and books are near to your heart, do read this expose from beginning to end. It always gives one a warm glow to stumble across a printed page which expounds some of one's own pet theories, and Mr. Wallace puts these into words better than I can.

One of our betes noires has always been the watered-down classic, so of course it cheered us mightily to have Robert Wallace take up the cudgel against this, too. If a child is not ready for TREASURE ISLAND, let him read another book, but not a redone version of Stevenson's classic yarn. Take away the descriptive passages that have moved generations of readers and those that give insight into human character, and you have little left but a skeleton of action and plot. Says Mr. Wallace, "When a bright youngster is given an eviscerated TREASURE ISLAND, he assumes ever afterward that he has read TREASURE ISLAND, and that it wasn't a good book either."

The statement is made by many, "better a youngster has some knowledge of a story in brief than none at all." To this Mr. Wallace responds, "In all literature there are exceedingly few great stories—that is to say, great plots. If one regards only the plot of HUCKLEBERRY FINN, it is impossible to find much in the book; it is how Mark Twain handled his idea that makes all the difference. If Lewis Carroll had submitted ALICE in the bald synopsis to a publisher, he might have been committed for lunacy." But enough of pilfering, we comment the article to you for your own reading.

For a well balanced home library it is agreed that book buying should be a year round proposition, not just an annual gift at Christmas time. You wish to include in your home collection some of the interesting new titles for children; however, the backbone of your child's home library will be the books which have stood the test of time and are every child's heritage.

Many factors enter into the choice of an edition. The translator, illustrator, format, the age of the recipient and the buyer's budget are all matters for consideration. Before you buy, browse through the edition collection of your Central Library.

This collection has been brought up to date as of January 1965, by Miss Harriet Helms, Chief of Children's Service. Recent editions have been added, and those out of print withdrawn. Miss Helms has prepared a list of the editions available giving publisher and price. Ask for this in the Children's Room of your Library.

School Holding Relations Day

The Junior Roundtable at Saint Paul High School will host the Human Relations Conference scheduled for March 18, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

At this conference, which is under the direction of Mrs. Foster Brown, speakers from the Human Relations Committee will present different viewpoints on the question of prejudice as it is found in the greater Detroit area.

Following these explanatory speeches, group discussions will be held. These discussion groups will be numerous in number to allow all the students at St. Paul High School to participate.

To prepare the high school for this day-long conference, the Junior Round Table presented a panel on Wednesday morning, March 10, in which the general program for the conference was outlined.

Lucinda Pollack explored the general meaning of prejudice and its harmful effects upon the individual as well as the community. She stressed in particular the concept: Prejudice violates Christian principles.

Maureen Meyers traced what occurs when prejudice becomes discrimination. She stressed this concept: Prejudice when it leads to discrimination is against the principles of democracy.

Both Geoffrey Browning and William Gough examined the Civil Rights Law. Geoffrey dealt with the aspects concerning public services; i.e. discrimination at lunch counters. William developed aspects concerned with discrimination in job hiring and suburban housing projects.

Following the speeches, Judy Demusiak chaired the discussion which gave members of the student body an opportunity to ask further questions, not only about the subject of prejudice itself, but also about the Human Relations Day to be held the following week.

Sister Francis Marie is the moderator of the St. Paul Junior Round Table.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE

City of Grosse Pointe

NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of the above notes will be received by the undersigned at the Municipal Building, 17147 Maumee, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, until 7:30 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on the 1st day of April, 1965, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated March 1, 1965, will mature on October 1, 1965, and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding four per cent (4%) per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan, qualified to act paying agent, to be designated by the purchaser. Said issue shall consist of one note of $70,000.00; Provided, However, that the purchaser may designate denominations in lesser amounts. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes may be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from April 1, 1965 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the City. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

Envelopes containing the bid should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2% of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Grosse Pointe must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Pad-dock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, the cost of which shall be paid by the City. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

John M. Cantwell

Clerk, City of Grosse Pointe

APPROVED: March 16, 1965

4 Cases Heard In City Court

Four cases were heard by Judge Douglas L. Paterson in the City's Justice Court on Tuesday, March 9.

In two of the cases the defendants were found guilty of speeding 35 m.p.h. in a 25 m.p.h. zone and each was fined $10. They were Terrance Bethell of 4576 Farmbrook, Detroit, and Frank Bommarito of 4443 Rodnar, Detroit.

Although he pled not guilty, Carl J. Anderson of 44 Harbor Hill, was found guilty of going through a red light and fined $5.

Lertie Lee West, of 703 University place was found guilty of driving without due care and caution and fined $20. The original charge was reckless driving causing an accident, to which he had pled not guilty.

Concert Slated By Symphony

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra members, under the direction of Felix Resnick, are busy in rehearsal for the third concert of the season to be presented on Sunday, afternoon, March 28, at Parcels School Auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

The first half of the program will be devoted to two orchestral works: Cherubini's Overture to "Anacreon" and Howard Hanson's Symphony No. 2 (Romantic).

After intermission, guest artist Edward Druzinsky will play the Handel Concerto for Harp and String Orchestra. The orchestra will close the program with Smetana's "The Moldau." Edward Druzinsky, former member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, is principal harpist with the Chicago Symphony. A native of St. Louis, Mr. Druzinsky received his early training in that city and later studied at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. He has been a member of the N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra and has played with the New York Philharmonic, the Pittsburgh Symphony and the St. Louis Symphony.

Well-known in Detroit and Grosse Pointe music circles, Mr. Druzinsky made his first appearance as solo artist with the Grosse Pointe Symphony in 1957, when he was a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

A reception will follow the concert where the guests will be able to meet the soloist, as well as the conductor and members of the orchestra.

Tickets are available at: Pungraz Jewelers, 91 Kercheval; Doubleday Doran Book Shop, 17116 Kercheval and Grosse Pointe Pharmacy, 1795 Mack. (Single tickets: Adult $2 and Student $1) or may be obtained at the box office on the afternoon of the concert.

Rotary Honors 30 Canadians

Last Monday the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club was host to 30 boys and girls from Essex District High School, Essex, Ontario, for the day through the High School, and for lunch at the War Memorial.

The students and the club heard an excellent talk by the Canadian Consul to Detroit, Mr. Kenneth Taylor on the subject of Canadian-American relations. This program was followed on Tuesday by a return visit to Essex by 30 students from the High School. The week of March 14-20 in Rotary is World Understanding Week. This program was the local club's effort in this area.

One of the aims of Rotary when it was founded 60 years ago this year was to develop international understanding. Today with nearly 12,000 clubs in 127 countries and over 560,000 members, this aim is beginning to become a fact.

Many are unaware that within Rotary the selection of members from different occupations is a cardinal rule.

A glimpse of Mrs. William S. Hickey . . . of Grosse Pointe boulevard, dashing down the street in a bright green, nubby wool winter coat, is enough to perk up anyone's spirits on a dull day.

A recent Pointer of Interest . . . unaware that her photograph would be taken on the same day, and at the same time, that her interview was scheduled, was appalled when she spotted our NEWS reporter coming up her front walk, accompanied by a man carrying a camera. She hadn't thought to have her hair done, and her coiffure was, (she decided), more casual than photogenic. As the reporter and photographer ambled leisurely up the walk, the lady of the house dashed to her bedroom, clapped a wig on her head, raced back to the front door, counted 10 while she caught her breath, then swung wide the portal, smiling graciously and looking most composed. The picture was taken, the interview proceeded to a happy conclusion—and only the lady in the wig knew that there WAS a wig until last week, when we learned of the incident by accident. We won't tell you the lady's name . . . but we will say that she is most attractive, with and without her wig.

The charming custom . . . of lunching or dining "a deux," even though married, (to each other, of course), is practiced frequently by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Burke, of Yorkshire road, whom we spotted enjoying each other's company in a local restaurant one recent afternoon.

Breath of Spring: . . . Mrs. John Denler, of Pine court, in a light, bright green coat, a blending green silk scarf wrapped round her neck, (she "can't stand" those heavy winter clothes a day longer!)

In case you didn't know . . . Charles Wright, III, of LaSalle place, is a "Happy Pappy." Mr. Wright accepted an invitation from his daughter, Adena, a sophomore at Skidmore College, to attend the college's annual Father-Daughter Weekend, joining 800 other "Happy Pappies," (they must be a jolly group!), participating in the two-day program at the Saratoga Springs, N.Y., campus.

Celebrating their 45th wedding anniversary . . . in a unique fashion last month, at Loch Vista Villas, Lantana, Fla., were Mr. and Mrs. Irving T. Winkler, of Merriweather road. All the Loch Vista Villas residents presented their best wishes to the Winklers in golf course parlance: "Congratulations on having played the game so well for 45 wonderful holes. May you play many more together and be able to avoid the Sand Traps and the Rough places in life—and especially that dangerous nineteenth hole, specimens of which we submit herewith so that you will be able to recognize them." A minuscule miniature golf course, complete with a tee off and warning signs, was laid out to graphically represent the "dangers" of the nineteenth hole. The party ended indoors, with everyone singing—tunes ranged from "Sweet Adeline" to "Hello, Dolly"—Mr. Winkler providing the accompaniment on his electric mandolin.

Another Churchill story . . . related by Fulton Lewis, III, at luncheon after this year's final Celebrity Series program, concerns the distinguished British statesman's dislike of afternoon tea parties. Trapped at a tea one day, Churchill was asked if he was enjoying himself. "That," that Great Man replied, "is the only thing I AM enjoying!"

Some men love truth so much that they seem in continual fear lest she should catch cold on over-exposure.

—Samuel Butler

It was the first wedding anniversary for a couple I know. To ensure the success of the dinner party, the husband had made all the arrangements by telephone the previous week. For dessert he ordered a frosted white laver cake, inscribed with "I love you" and a great big "I." When the cake was finally put before them, it was the husband's unpleasant task to explain to his wife, who was sensitive about her weight, why the inscription read: "I LOVE YOU, GREAT BIG ONE."

In an essay on Quakers, an eight-year-old wrote: "Quakers are a very meek, quiet people who never fight or answer back. My father is a Quaker but my mother is not."

HELEN BLAIR, OF THE GROSSE POINTE WAR MEMORIAL

By Janet Mueller

Dinner for 300, lunch for 150, tea for 75 . . . these are every-day affairs for Helen Blair, cateress at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. In April and May, the War Memorial's busy season, there are about 1,000 meals a week to plan and prepare.

And the food is good. Anyone who has ever eaten at the War Memorial knows that plates go back to the kitchen "clean." Miss Blair and her staff do an excellent job.

But preparing good food in quantity holds no terrors for Helen Blair, an attractive, soft-voiced southerner who started out to be a secretary, studied law—and entered food service operations casually, through a chance remark.

Miss Blair was working her way through school in a tea room in her hometown, Nashville, Tenn. The Nashville Municipal Airport had just opened, and one of her tea room customers asked if she would be interested in working at the new airport kitchen.

Miss Blair thought airports and airplanes sounded glamorous, said "Yes, I would be interested," was surprised when the customer came back the next day and explained he had set up an interview for her, was interviewed and hired to take charge of the Municipal Airport kitchen.

Not Much Traffic Then
This was 1940, when planes only carried 20 passengers per flight, (the DC sleepers carried 14), and airport traffic averaged about two flights per morning, two flights per afternoon.

Miss Blair's employer was Sky Chefs, Inc., the restaurant and catering service operated by American Airlines. American sent a woman to Nashville, to help train the new kitchen supervisors there and to give her a few tips on trouble-shooting, one of the extra duties included in her new job.

"The equipment was very primitive," Helen Blair reminisces. "We had to pre-heat large thermos containers and put food inside for flights." Food preparation was scheduled so that meals could be served within an hour or an hour-and-a-half after they were cooked, but there were other problems.

Miss Blair remembers Constance Bennett arriving at the Nashville Airport, accompanied by two French maids and two French poodles, demanding a cup of hot tea, (there was no way to keep water hot on airplanes then). The kitchen staff dashed to the rescue with Miss Bennett's tea.

She remembers other celebrities, Wallace Beery, Tyrone Power—"So handsome!"—and Randolph Scott, "the nicest of all."

Demonstrated on TV
Helen Blair continued to work with Sky Chefs until 1954. She served 10 years as manager of Sky Chefs' overall operations in Chicago, Ill., appearing on a program during the 10-inch screen days of television to cook a complete dinner for the viewers, who were astounded that TV could offer any kind of "worthwhile" entertainment.

She managed airport kitchens in Buffalo, N. Y., her "coldest" assignment, and Tucson, Ariz., "a wonderful city," accepted special managerial assignments at Denver, Colo., and the establishment and operation of the New Greater Fort Worth Airport, Fort Worth, Tex.

During World War II she coped with "meatless Tuesdays." As air travel and airport services grew, and 100 flights or more came in and out of major city airports daily, Helen Blair's responsibilities increased.

Preparation of 300 filet mignon dinners in a single evening was "nothing." Her assignment at Fort Worth is indicative of her duties with Sky Chefs in general; she co-ordinated and operated a 24-hour catering service for commercial passenger airlines, two employee cafeterias, a coffee shop, a 200-chair dining room and accommodations for banquets, teas and luncheons for 400 guests.

Glamour Faded Away

She left the airlines when the glamour of the early days had begun to fade, and has never cared to return. "It's all cut and dried now," she explains. Helen Blair, who never minded moving to a new city or a new assignment, dislikes a dull, predictable routine.

For a while, she did promotional work for a pilot operation outdoor barbecue set-up in Nashville. She returned to the food service field in February, 1958, as manager of the Nashville City Club, a private business and professional men's luncheon and dinner club, with facilities for luncheons and parties for members and their families.

Before coming to the War Memorial in 1962, she was associated with Gladioux Corporation as manager of their Fort Meigs Hotel operation in Toledo, O., consisting of a hotel, coffee shop, a private club of 100 members called the Noon Club, banquet and private party planning and the Office Lounge Bar.

She likes her work at the War Memorial very much. Her days fall into no set pattern there—"There are no two days alike at the War Memorial!" she exclaims.

Keeps Two Kitchens Busy

Some days, she is responsible for four lunches, every one a different menu. All food is pre-kitchens, one in Alger House, one in the new Fries Building, located at opposite ends of the Memorial Center.

It's not unusual to see Helen Blair running between kitchens on a busy day, pushing carts of food from one building to another.

"I have to use one kitchen as a starting point for all the food preparations," she explains. "I can't have one cook here, another cook there." Basic preparation for different meals is done in a single kitchen; the food is rushed to the kitchen nearest the party at which it is to be served for "finishing touches."

Miss Blair describes her equipment in the new kitchen as "just wonderful"—but admits she has more working space in the "old" kitchen.

Using the new kitchen's facilities, the War Memorial can serve 300 entrees in 30 minutes—after which Helen Blair and her staff heave a sigh of relief and collapse on the nearest chairs, until it's time to start clearing and serving desserts.

Has Directed Big Staffs

In her various positions in the food service field, Helen Blair has had direct supervision over six to 10 subordinate supervisors and 50 to 75 employees. At the War Memorial, the number of her staff varies.

There are maids and two cooks on call, and a permanent staff of four housemen, a stewardess and a kitchen helper.

Miss Blair's schedule varies daily, depending on functions scheduled at the War Memorial. "There are no set hours in this type of work," she explains. She lives in Harper Woods, just across the border from Grosse Pointe, arrives at the Center each morning, (the time varies according to her work assignments), leaves after the last dinner has been served.

When she is not in the kitchen, she is on the telephone, planning menus and table arrangements, or at her desk, writing specifications and instructions for her employees.

She snatches "time off" as she can, taking a weekend "once in a great while," usually making do with a half-day here and there. There are very few whole free days available to her, with something going on at the War Memorial almost every afternoon or evening, and more and more wedding receptions scheduled every year.

Likes Hunting, Fishing
She does INSIST on getting out during the pheasant season, however. She enjoys hunting, and likes to fish, too, although she finds little time for either sport.

Right now, Helen Blair is in the midst of a special project, directing "Food Flair," the War Memorial's annual cooking program series.

In previous years, "Food Flair" concentrated on unusual and exotic cuisines, on gourmet cooking in the European manner. This year, "Food Flair" is trying something different.

The first program, last Monday evening, was devoted to outdoor cooking, to barbecuing and whipping together dishes suitable for al fresco meals. The audience watched the food being prepared, and recipe brochures were distributed at the end of the demonstration.

KOTOPOULO ME PILAF
(Roast Chicken with Rice Pilaf)
Contributed by Helen Blair

1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups uncooked rice
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 1/2 tsp. salt
5 cups chicken broth
3/4 cups golden raisins
3/4 cups coarsely chopped pecans

Melt butter, add rice and onion and cook until lightly browned. Add broth and bring only to boiling point. Remove and drain any excess liquid. Add raisins and pecans. Stuff boneless breast of chicken. Place in shallow baking pan and bake at 300° until tender. Serve with rich chicken sauce.

tricks any housewife can use when her husband brings an unexpected guest home to dinner. Miss Blair, who believes most women are unaware of the possibilities of their freezers, (Did you know that you can make your own TV dinners, cook and freeze complete meals that will taste just as good as if they were prepared on-the-spot?—the "trick" is to freeze the food in airtight containers AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE after you've finished cooking it), has many special tips to give at this session.

The final program, Monday evening, March 29, will present favorite dishes from the International Dinners held at the War Memorial.

Demonstrations, the actual preparation of food, are an integral part of each "Food Flair" session. Recipes are given out at the end of each program.

Helen Blair loves to try new recipes, new menus and new food combinations. But she admits there are certain dishes people prefer, and ask for "over and over again."

Chicken Dish Favorite
Perhaps the War Memorial's most popular entree is boneless breast of chicken, served with wild rice, mushrooms, chestnuts and a rich sauce.

Miss Blair, who has tried to persuade groups to "try something new this year," knows just how popular this particular chicken entree is. She is quite willing to share the recipe—but unfortunately has not had time to reduce it to manageable proportions, (her own recipes usually begin: Take 100 chicken breasts . . .).

Instead, she offered three other recipes, one for breast of chicken with pate of chicken livers, one for roast chicken with rice pilaf, and one for a mouth-watering stuffed veal chop, highlights of past War Memorial International Dinner menus.

We are printing the first recipe today, in the "Good Taste" column. We will print the other two in successive "Good Taste" columns.

Fate Favors . . . the lucky lady who can wear models from the Walton-Pierce Custom Collection. Perhaps you've admired the exquisite jewel blue theater coat, the roseate silk theater ensemble, the long Spring green brocade ball gown, the tweed coat, flecked with ruby or the smashing black late-day dress . . . they now can be yours at a savings. Do ask to see them and make a wise investment in timeless fashion.

From Europe . . . beautiful new fashions selected by Claire Pearone and charming antiques collected by Freida Goodman are brought together for a very special showing . . . March twenty-second and twenty-third at 397 Fisher Road.

Exciting Series . . . of lectures by top AID members (really an advanced course in interior decorating) is offered. Mr. William Austin tells us it's entitled "Styles of Furniture from Antiquity to the Present Time." Visual aids will be used. The Spanish influence, so popular now will be one of the eight topics. This fabulous opportunity is under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Community Services, at the Grosse Pointe High School, started March seventeenth . . . at 7:30 p.m. . . The cost is ten dollars.

The Mutschler Story . . . is one of quality, service and growth. Curtis Mower recently joined the company as vice-president and the General Electric line has been added. New, larger headquarters and showrooms are planned. In the meantime, business progresses smoothly and creatively at 20489 Mack Avenue.

NO! . . . You can't take your vacation at Riverview Dodge. As summery and fun as the showroom seems (all full of convertibles and campers) . . . it's just to let you know that summer deals are being made NOW at 15205 East Jefferson.

The Modern Bride . . . will want to consider the new mat finish natural color wedding candids. It's one of the latest innovations and available at Paul Gach Studios, 345 Fisher Road. Ahem! We know the bride has already booked her photo appointments. TUxedo 1-0500.

Sid Erwin Says . . . "The woman who says, 'I always wear this shade of lipstick because . . . ' is defying the first rule of cosmetics . . . color coordination. There is no such thing as any one color which goes with every costume and costume determines the correct shade. Every woman should have and use at least four basic shades of lipstick." Fashion Two Twenty will help you select them.

Ring-A-Ling . . . the decorative, plug-in phones at Kopp's, 16926 Kercheval in the Village are really something to talk about. The Napoleon is drum-shaped and colorful. The Cleopatra . . . you've got to see for yourself and a little curiosity never killed a column.

KENNETH . . . the magic name in hair styling will be in Detroit to do a show on April twenty-sixth. Edward Nepi will be working with him. Can you see the show? We are happy to say you can. Call TUxedo 4-8858 for details and cost of the ticket. By the way, Edward Nepi, "Parrucchiere" will be closed that day. Everyone is going to the show. Go! Go!

"Young Touch" . . . is light and pleasant . . . just what a Rubinstein hand lotion should be. Lightly priced at one seventy-five for the two-fifty size at The Notre Dame Pharmacy.

Benfield Retires From Goodwill

Retiring from the board of directors of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit after 18 years of active service, John D. Benfield, of 755 Lake Shore drive, received an award from Bill O. Brink, 33 Edgemere road, president of the Board, at a Board luncheon at the Statler Hilton.

Benfield has been vice-president of the board since 1952, and has served on various committees which formulate the policies under which Goodwill Industries operates.

He served as chairman of the 1959 Boy Scout—Goodwill Industries "Good Turn" clothing drive.
