EX-KING FAROUK of Egypt, sometimes known as the "regal roue" of Europe, died in a Rome cabaret today. The portly, goateed ex-monarch collapsed while dining with a female companion in the luxurious Ile de France restaurant, Farouk, who was forced to abdicate his throne in a military coup in 1952, was reputed to have an estimated fortune of $250 million. He was a celebrity in the gay life of Rome, where he lived many of his 12 years of exile.

A SOVIET COSMONAUT stepped out of his orbiting space capsule for a ten-minute swim in the sky, in a feat that left the United States at least a year behind the Russians in the space race to the moon. Television cameras inside Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov's two-man Voskhod 2 satellite flashed pictures of the event back to earth as the cosmonaut took pictures, stood on his head, and turned somersaults while connected to the capsule by a long life-line. As a result of the flight, a top Soviet space official, Vasily Seleznev, told Russian reporters that the next Soviet target was the moon, which they hoped to reach in the near future.

THE MICHIGAN HOUSE of Representatives, led by its Democratic majority, passed a tax-relief bill for elderly citizens over the strong opposition of Republicans and a veto threat by Gov. Romney. The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would provide tax exemptions for elderly citizens and cost the state of Michigan between $21 and $30 million a year. Republicans called the action "irresponsible" and Gov. Romney announced that he would veto the bill in its present form to protect Michigan's newly-won solvency.

Sunday, March 21

PRESIDENT JOHNSON announced that he was sending 4000 men—including some Federal troops—to protect civil rights workers on their march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama. Calling up the Alabama National Guard, the President accused Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace of shirking his responsibility by doing nothing to protect the marchers. He also explained that extensive medical facilities were being readied to provide marchers on the fifty-mile, five-day trip, with medical care.

Monday, March 22

5,000 CIVIL RIGHTS DEMONSTRATORS, led by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and heavily guarded by rifle-carrying soldiers, marched to a cow pasture eight miles out of Selma on the first leg of a five-day march to Montgomery. Military Police and National Guardsmen, federalized by President Johnson, formed a defensive barrier around the grassy field where about 300 of the marchers spent the night. The rest of the marchers were taken back to Selma by truck relays and a special train.

Tuesday, March 23

THE FIRST UNITED STATES two-man Gemini capsule was launched at 9:25 a.m. (Detroit time) after U.S. space officials declared the weather over Cape Kennedy clear enough for the orbital flight. Aboard the world's first maneuverable space ship were veteran spaceman Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom and rookie astronaut John W. Young. Massive recovery forces all over the world made ready to pick up the Gemini 3 capsule, nicknamed "Molly Brown," which landed in the Atlantic after a three orbit flight, a complete success.

DETROIT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

were sharply criticized at a meeting of the Detroit Common Council, by the director of the Youth Employment Agency, who said many high school graduates could not even read their own diplomas. The council requested a report from the school board on this problem.

Their Pleas Were Answered at the Polls

"We don't want any money for pushing you out of the snow. But we'd sure appreciate it if you'll vote 'yes' for the proposed new high school and auditorium-instructional center on March 22." This was the plea of the group of students pictured here who spent a large portion of their unexpected recent "vacation" from Grosse Pointe High School helping stranded

Concert Set For March 28 By Symphony

Harpist Edward Druzinski
Of Chicago to Be Soloist
At Event in Parcels

Concert-goers in the Grosse Pointe communities have their fingers crossed, but hopefully expect the lamb-like look of March to put in an appearance in time for the third concert of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra on Sunday, March 28.

Sunday's concert will be at 3:30 p.m. in the Parcels School Auditorium, Eight-Mile road at Mack avenue. A reception and coffee hour will be held immediately following the concert.

Now in its twelfth season of presenting fine musical performances for the community, the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra, under the skillful direction of Conductor Felix Resnick, has achieved recognition as one of the outstanding community orchestras in the Metropolitan Detroit area.

Top Guest Soloists

Through the years the orchestra has consistently presented top-ranking performers as guest soloists at its Sunday afternoon concerts and this week's soloist is no exception to that tradition. He is Edward Druzinski, harpist, formerly a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and now Principal Harp with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Druzinski will play Handel's "Concerto for Harp and String Orchestra."

The orchestral portion of the program will include: Overture to "Anacreon" — Cherubini;

GP Park to Be Completely Free of Debt by Nov. 1969

The Park's finances are in excellent shape, the debt service levy is no more, and barring an unexpected bond issue in the future, the city should be completely out of debt by 1969. The Park's total debt, at present, is $37,851, according to a 1963-64 annual report mailed to all citizens in the community.

The financial statements of the several funds of the Park, for the year ending June 30, 1964, recently completed by Ernst and Ernst, certified public accountants, hired by the city, showed that the total net long term debt amounted to $37,851 as of the end of the fiscal year, 1963-64.

During the year, the annual report showed, the debt was

Driver Appeals Sentence For Hitting Pedestrian On Kercheval Last Year

Robert Cadden Seeks to Avoid Paying Fine, Serving 10 Days in Jail and No Driving for Year; Victim Critically Injured

Robert P. Cadden, 25, of 12265 Riad, Detroit, appeared before Judge Grant E. Armstrong on Wednesday, March 17, for sentencing following a Wayne County Probation Department report, and Cadden immediately announced he would appeal, and posted $100 bond pending a hearing in circuit court.

Cadden, accused of failing to have his car under control and causing a personal injury accident, was found guilty January 13, and the case was referred to the County Probation Department for a pre-sentence report.

On the Wednesday date, Judge Armstrong, after study of the report, sentenced Cadden to pay a fine of $100, serve 10 days in the County Jail, and placed him on probation for one year, no driving.

Victim's Dog Killed

On March 25, 1964, Cadden, while driving on Kercheval avenue, struck and critically injured Frank A. Posselius, 44, of 125 Meadow lane, who was walking his pet dog on a leash. Posselius was hit, across from 107 Kercheval, as he was crossing from the south to the north curb, and was carried about 65 feet on the hood of Cadden's car. Posselius' dog was killed.

Posselius suffered a head concussion, smashed left cheek bone, compound fracture of the left arm and leg, a broken right leg, and a dislocated shoulder. He has since mended, but still requires medical treatment, after months of being bedridden in Cottage Hospital and at home.

License Was Revoked

Cadden, who has an extensive traffic record, was driving his car, at the time, while his oper-

Driver to Appeal Court Sentence

Thomas M. Ellis, 21, of 4131 Audubon, Detroit, posted bond of $50, pending an appeal hearing in Wayne County Circuit Court, where he hopes to reverse a ruling of Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, made on Wednesday, March 17.

The judge found Ellis guilty of entering an intersection without due care and caution and causing an accident, and levied a fine of $35, or five days in the County Jail. Ellis had entered a plea of not guilty.

The traffic offense of which Ellis is accused, is reported to have occurred last December 24.

In another case, Judge Belanger found two young motorists guilty of drag racing on Jefferson avenue, after they pled not guilty, and sentenced them to pay $40 each. The fines were paid.

Guilty were, Samuel Marble, 20, of 5308 Maryland; and Bernard Anderson, 22, of 641 Clairpointe, both of Detroit.

Candidates Get Chance To Be Heard

League of Women Voters Schedules Rallies For Municipal Office Speakers

Voters and the candidates seeking election to posts in Grosse Pointe Woods, Park, and Farms in the April 5 election will have an opportunity to get acquainted at three rallies being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters.

The rallies will be held Thursday, April 1, from 8 to 10 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building, Pierce Junior High School and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

At each rally the candidates will give brief talks outlining their qualifications for office and discussing what they would like to see accomplished during their terms of office. Question and answer periods will follow their speeches.

First for League

This is the first time the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters has sponsored rallies for candidates for municipal offices. Similar rallies have been held in the past for candidates running from Grosse Pointe districts for state and Congressional offices. Rallies have also been held for candidates seeking election to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The rally for candidates seeking election to the Woods Council will be held at the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building's Council Hall. The candidates are Marvin R. Boutin, Lathrop P. Morse, William S. Huettnerman, Robert D. Wandersneider, Edmund D. Tropp and Mrs. Dwight Hendricks.

Mrs. Lawrence Haller will serve as moderator. Mrs. Kirt Haller is chairman of the Woods rally and her co-chairman is Mrs. Dorothy Erwin.

Rally at Pierce

Candidates seeking office in the Park will meet voters in the Pierce Junior High School auditorium. Those running for Park Council are Thomas J. Bolton, John A. Doelle, Charles F. Ives, Barry M. Quinn, William Kessler and George J. Verdoneck. Candidates for mayor are M. C. Patterson, incumbent, and William N. Fritz. C. Joseph Belanger, incumbent, and Phillip J. Mabarak are candidates for municipal judge.

County to Operate Boat Patrol Along Pointe Lakeshore

Sheriff Granted Permission to Moor 22-Foot Craft At Farms Pier-Park; Nine-Mile Stretch to Be Patrolled This Summer

A request by Wayne County Sheriff Peter L. Buback, for mooring space at the Municipal Pier-Park, for a 22-foot county patrol boat, was approved by the Farms council on Monday, March 22, contingent on the number of applications, or cancellations, received from Farms boat owners for boat wells.

In a letter to the Farms council, the sheriff disclosed that the Wayne County Sheriff's Water Patrol will be patrolling a nine-mile long water strip, from Alter road to the Edsel Ford estate in the Shores, from May 30 to about a week after Labor day. He asked for mooring space at the park because the Farms is ideally and centrally located, he stated.

This will be the first time that such a service will be put into operation in the Pointe area, Sheriff Buback disclosed on Tuesday, March 23. There are four other areas in the county getting water patrol service by his department, he said.

Met With Police Chiefs

He said that shortly after he took office as sheriff, more than two years ago, he called a meeting of all the police chiefs in the county, to inquire about what help his department can give to their communities.

He said that at the time, Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling, now retired, suggested that since the Sheriff's Road Patrol was not operating along Jefferson and Lake Shore, that a county water patrol be placed in operation, to curb careless and reckless boaters on Lake St. Clair.

Buback said that acting on this suggestion, he tried twice to obtain funds from the County Board of Supervisors, to purchase a boat and handle the cost of patrol operations, but was rebuffed both times. Finally, the supervisors consented to such an operation.

State Pays Two-Thirds

He said that the annual cost of patrolling the nine-mile long strip will be $30,000, of which the State pays two-thirds, or $20,000, as provided by State statute.

The sheriff said that present plans call for patrolling of the lake on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, from either 12 noon to 8 p.m., or 1 p.m. to 9 p.m., depending on what the demand might be.

He said that he is hoping that not too long in the future, his department will patrol the area seven days a week during the boat seasons.

He said that the patrol boat will be fully equipped and manned, and that there will be skindivers in the event of emergencies including rescue work, or for the recovery of bodies of persons who drown.

To Police Boaters

He said that the nine-mile long area comes under county jurisdiction, and boaters ignoring boating laws, or who operate their boats in disregard of the safety of others, will be arrested and prosecuted by the county.

Buback said that he is happy that the Farms council ap-

Second High School Given Green Light

Auditorium - Instructional Center Also Sanctioned; Present Building to Be Improved

By a smashing two-to-one margin, property owners in the Grosse Pointe school district on Monday authorized funds for the construction of a second high school and the remodeling of the present high school plant. By a smaller majority they also approved an auditorium-instructional center to be built adjacent to the proposed new high school facilities.

"We are grateful for the tremendous vote of confidence accorded our public schools by the property-owning votes of the Grosse Pointe school district," Edward J. Pongracz, President of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education said Monday night when the results of the special school election were known.

"We on the Board of Education are pleased that our well-thought-out decision has received such widespread support throughout the entire community. We shall begin immediately to work toward our goal of the opening of the complete facilities of Grosse Pointe North High School in September, 1967, and the updating of Grosse Pointe South High School as soon as possible.

8,900 Cast Ballots

Ballots cast for both propositions number 8,900, the second highest total ever recorded in school elections in Grosse Pointe. At the district's last school millage election, held October 28, 1963, 9,885 ballots passed the referendum by a ratio of more than three to one.

At last Monday's special school election, 6,009 votes were cast in favor of proposition #1, (high school) and 2,826 against, with 65 spoiled ballots, for a margin of 3,183.

Proposition #2, (auditorium-instructional center), passed with 4,514 votes in favor and 4,318 against.

Registered voters in the Grosse Pointe school district number approximately 46,000. Ray MacArthur, Director of School Elections, states. Of these, he estimates that 90 percent are property owners, and eligible to vote on Monday.

In the last annual school election, held in June, 1964, 3,728 voters cast ballots when three candidates sought two posts. Totals for other recent annual elections follow: June, 1963, 3,049; June, 1962, 1,375; June, 1961, 5,703.

Low Debt Rate

Of 40 Wayne County school districts, Grosse Pointe ranks 30th for debt rates levied in 1964 on state equalized valuation. An addition of 1.66 mills required to finance both propositions will bring Grosse Pointe's total indebtedness to 2.47 — or approximately 31st among Wayne County schools.

Total school tax rates in 1964 (debt and operation) among these 40 schools ranged from 13.90 in Hamtramck to 37.80 in Nankin Mills. Grosse Pointe ranked 22nd with 23.71 mills. An increase of 1.66 mills on state equalized valuation bringing Grosse Pointe to 25.37 mills, will raise the school district's ranking to 20th in Wayne County.

Tax increases to cover the high school will be reflected in bills mailed in December, 1965.

The exact wording of both ballot proposals and the official totals by precincts are shown below:

HIGH SCHOOL BONDING

Shall The Grosse Pointe Public School System, Wayne County, Michigan, borrow the sum of not exceeding Seven Million Six Hundred Thousand ($7,600,000.00) Dollars and issue its bonds thereof, for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping a new senior high school in the School District, and remodeling and improving the existing Grosse Pointe High School buildings?

Chorus to Give Concert April 4 to Salute Spring

Through the wintry days, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus has been preparing a salute to spring in song. These busy men and women are in the final rehearsals for this year's program to be presented in Parcels Junior High School Auditorium, Mack at Vernier, on April 4, at 3:30 p.m.

The program promises to be of interest to young and old alike as it ranges from Mendelssohn to Mancini. The women of the chorus are singing "Lift Thine Eyes" from Mendelssohn's Oratorio "Elijah" and will be directed in this number by Sue Hughes, the assistant conductor of the chorus. The full chorus will sing Henry Mancini's "Moon River." The choral arrangement for this was made by Grosse Pointe's talented Bill Gard.

Soloists featured in the program will be Nancy Williams, soprano and Carl Angellilli, tenor. A special feature will be pianist Jerry Hughes. He will play the "Prelude" by Scriabin and a "Paraphrase on Strauss' 'Blue Danube'" by Schultze-Evler.

The chorus is under direction of Richard Johns, who is also Director of Music at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Tickets are available now from all members of the chorus or they may be purchased at The Book Shelf. Tickets will be available at the door. Prices are $1.00 for adults, 50c for children and students.

proved his request for a mooring space, and felt sure that knowledge that a Sheriff's Water Patrol in the area, would be a deterrent to speeding and reckless boaters.

The prime purpose of the patrol, he added, is for the protection of the people who use the area for fun and enjoyment.

Pointe League of Women Voters, will be moderator. Mrs. Kenneth Pitts is chairman of the rally.

The rally for Farms candidates and voters will be in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Those seeking election to the Farms Council are Mayor William F. Connolly Jr., Richard C. Hudson, William G. Kirby, Charles A. J. Kotcher, John E. Lizza, Irvin A. Steiner, and Mark C. Stevens. Judge Grant E. Armstrong and Philip H. Dawson seek election as municipal judges.

Mrs. Donald L. McConachie is chairman of the rally and her assistant chairman is Mrs. Hamilton Stillwell.

$300 DONATED

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council was granted $300, as the Farms' contribution in continuing the Lake Shore plantings started last spring. The Farms council approved the donation on Monday, March 22.

Mr. Druzinsky has performed extensively both in the United States and abroad, including many transcontinental tours as a member of the NBC Orchestra under Arturo Toscanini. He received his early musical training in his native city of St. Louis, Mo., and later continued his studies at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia.

Reception Follows

Members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society will welcome guests at the Coffee Hour and reception after the concert.

Mrs. Gerald L. Stoetzer, chairman, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Arnold W. Langershausen have invited as hostesses for the afternoon, Miss Christine Edwards, Mrs. Edward P. Frohlich, Mrs. Pierre V. Hekler and Mrs. Kurt Keydel.

Others include Mrs. Gilbert Meyer, Mrs. William A. Niemetta, Mrs. Don Nigro and Mrs. James M. Odell.

Junior members of the Society who will serve as ushers for the concert are Jackie Delaney, Gail Garceau, Caryn Haas, Karen Meyer, Theresa Petersen and Laura Weinberg.

Center Offers Siberian Film

Dr. E. S. Smyd will continue his series of commentaries and movie showings of lands and peoples seldom visited by American tourists, on April 1 at 8 p.m. when he will present his film on "Siberia and Central Asia" at the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

This show was deferred from the original scheduling because of the blizzard which struck Detroit on Thursday, February 25.

The film takes in Siberia from the east to west beginning at the Pacific coastal port of Nakhodka to Khabarovsk, Irkutsk, Alma Ata, Samarkand, Bukhara. The history of a part of Eastern U.S.S.R. is as recent as the 19th century but the history of Central Asia is as ancient as recorded history itself.

Bukhara and Samarkand were thriving caravan stops in the days of the China silk trade and documented history of this part of the world goes back to the time of Alexander the Great. This part affected the culture of European man and through him American life.

Most of us think of Siberia as a place of ice and snow and tundra. While a small part of Siberia is like this, the film reveals that vast stretches of Siberia are much like Canada, particularly Newfoundland. The rural, village and city life of Siberia is shown in the film and all of this is reminiscent of American frontier days. There are the immense tracts of virgin timber, the unspoiled beauty of field, stream and meadow, log cabins, the early European settlers, and the indigenous Siberian Indian. Candid portraits of the Siberian Indians show them to be spitting images of their distant cousins, the American Indian and Eskimo. Culturally, too, they resemble the American Indian.

Siberia is fast losing its original appearance. The rivers now bear industrial cargo, hydroelectric projects light the cities with electricity, railroads and airlines cut across the wilderness, farm and industry unite east and west across Siberia.

The all Kodachrome film is supplemented by music authenticated to the regions shown. Come early and hear the preliminary remarks which will provide historical and ethnographic perspective.

GPHS Band and Orchestra Receive Superior Ratings

The Grosse Pointe High School Symphony Band and Orchestra received first division "superior" ratings from all their judges in the recent district festival competition for the seventh straight year, Richard H. Snook, director, reports.

Competition for the symphony band was held in Ann Arbor on March 6 and in Lincoln Park for the symphony orchestra on March 13. The concert band also entered competition in Class A for the first time and received a rating of "excellent" from the judges in Inkster on March 6.

Judges for the symphony band were: Larry Teal, University of Michigan; Rex Hewlett, Central Michigan University; Charles E. Osborne, Western Michigan University; and Clifford P. Lillya, University of Michigan.

Judges for the symphony orchestra were: Louis Potter, Michigan State University; Clifford Cook, Oberlin Conservatory; Robert Ritsema, University of Michigan; and Romeo Tata, Michigan State University.

Judges for the concert band were: Edgar Ross, Central Michigan University; John J. Schuster, Eastern Illinois University; Merrill L. Sherburn, Michigan State University; and Stanley Bauman, Elkton, Michigan.

Mr. Teal said of the symphony band: "A real great performance and a great high school band. Congratulations!"

Mr. Potter summed up his comments by saying: "An ambitious and challenging assignment for a high school orchestra, but one fulfilled and impressively achieved. A splendid young symphony orchestra in the best traditions."

Mr. Ross commented on the concert band: "Obviously an inexperienced group but one with a good sound and above-average musicianship. I enjoyed hearing your performance."

The Grosse Pointe High School Symphony Band and Orchestra will now enter State Festival Competition in Ypsilanti on April 10.

Hudson Leader Of Torch Drive

Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., of Washington road, has been named general chairman of the 1965 United Foundation Torch Drive.

The announcement was made by Max M. Fisher, UF president, who said:

"The officers and directors of the United Foundation are delighted to announce that Mr. Hudson has accepted this extremely important civic assignment."

"Mr. Hudson has worked his way up through the campaign structure and has demonstrated enthusiasm and dedication in each Torch Drive position he has held. He has, in addition, been a director and officer of the United Foundation, so that his knowledge and experience thoroughly equip him to do an outstanding job as general chairman."

Hudson, president of the J. L. Hudson Co., served as co-chairman for chapter campaigns in last year's Torch Drive which raised a record $23,701,000 for the support of 204 health and community services.

Units under Hudson's direction last year raised $22 million, or more than 90 percent of the total.

Before being named co-chairman of the campaign last year, Hudson had served in lesser posts for six years. For three years prior to 1961 he had been chairman of the campaign's retail group. In 1961, he became an associate unit chairman and in 1962 and 1963 he was chairman of the Major Commerce Unit. He has been a director of the United Foundation since 1958 and a vice-president since 1960.

The new general chairman is a native of Buffalo, N.Y., and a 1933 graduate (B.A. Economics) of Yale University. His grandfather, William H. Hudson, was a brother of Joseph Lowthian Hudson, who founded the Hudson store in Detroit in 1881. His father, Joseph L. Hudson, is treasurer of Adam, Meldrum and Anderson Co., a Buffalo department store.

The younger Hudson—who at 33 is the youngest Torch Drive chairman ever—succeeds Thomas F. Morrow, of Vendome road, Chrysler group vice president, defense, space and diversified products, in the post.

He will lead Greater Detroit's 17th annual "Give One for All" campaign. Previous drives have collected a total of $258,000,000 for the agencies which battle disease, delinquency, family breakdowns and the troubles of the aging.

This year's drive, for a goal yet to be determined, will be held October 12 through November 4.

In 1950 and 1951, while still at Yale, Hudson worked summers in the J. L. Hudson store. From 1954 to 1956, he served as an artillery officer with the U.S. Army in Germany.

He returned to Detroit and became assistant to the general manager of the J. L. Hudson Co. He was named a vice-president in 1957 and the same year became vice president and general manager. He was elected president on April 18, 1961.

As Torch Drive general chairman, Hudson is already hard at work on the organizational tasks and planning. His first job is to enlist top community leaders for the important co-chairmanship positions in the drive.

In addition to his duties with his firm, Hudson's other business interests are as a director of the National Bank of Detroit, the Detroit Edison Co. and William H. Miller and Co. He is a director of the Michigan Retailers Association and the Retail Merchants Association.

His other civic activities include service as a trustee of Harper Hospital and the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts, and as a director of the Citizens Research Council of Michigan, the Committee on Michigan's Economic Future, the Detroit Symphony.

Robert A. Foster Trains at Dallas

Airman Robert A. Foster, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan D. Foster of 906 Lake Shore Drive, is undergoing two weeks of active duty training with Naval Air Reserve Transport Squadron 733 at the Naval Air Station, Dallas, Tex.

He departed his home Naval Reserve Unit at Grosse Ile, Mich., for the training March 7, and returned for continued reserve service following the training at Dallas.

During the training period, he received instructions on new equipment and its maintenance which will be needed if he is called to active duty.

VOTE APRIL 5th FOR ALL THREE

Partial payment totaling $47,712.60, for work already done on improvements at the Pier Park was approved by the Farms council on Monday, March 22. Alban G. Brinkman company was paid $6,492.80 for electrical work completed in the new bathhouse and around the swimming pool, and Paddock Pools of Eastern Michigan was paid $41,220, for work already done on the new swimming pool under construction in the park.

Fifth Burglary Reported in City

The fifth burglary in less than two weeks in the City, was reported to City police on Tuesday, March 16, by Del Chalmers of 616 Cadieux road.

Chalmers said that he left home at about 11:45 a.m., and returned at about 3:45 p.m., to find the inside doors of his house had been pried open with a screw driver. Police surmised that entry was made through the front door, which had a faulty lock.

The thief took a total of $24 in currency from a bedroom dresser drawer. A boy's piggy bank was also pried open, but it was not disclosed if its contents had been taken, if any.

On March 3, the residences of Carson Grunewald, 777 Lakeland, and John Lynch, 772 Lakeland, on opposite sides of the street, were forcibly entered. The thief took $2 from the Grunewald home.

The George Booth residence, 770 Notre Dame, was burglarized on March 10; and on March 13, a burglary occurred at the home of Mrs. William Grasse, 692 Washington road.

The burglars ransacked both houses and escaped with considerable loot.

The incidents prompted Police Chief Andrew Teestaert to triple the number of road patrols on City streets, and to ask residents to report any suspicious persons, or suspicious noise, promptly.

The chief said that such calls would not be classed as nuisances, but would be extremely helpful in making sure that nothing is amiss.

Nine times out of 10, he said, nothing will develop from the investigation, but the tenth might be just the one to aid police in the apprehension of a probable burglar, and thereby save residents anguish and worry.

The upkeep of a high social position is the downfall of many a modern family.

Club Launches Parent Talks

In April, the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club will offer to interested persons the opportunity to meet together in evening discussion groups regarding problems of child development.

In order that the groups may be small enough to permit free exchange of ideas, parents are asked to telephone the Neighborhood Club during March for advance registration. The series will extend for four weekly sessions in April and May and is open to all parents in the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods.

The services of Mrs. Lois Pettit, a psychiatric social worker with wide experience in family relations, have been obtained to lead the discussion series. Mrs. Pettit, a resident of Grosse Pointe, was educated in the Grosse Pointe school system and obtained a master's degree in sociology from the University of Michigan and a master's degree in social work from the University of Chicago.

She has had recent experience in marriage counseling and in child guidance work in the metropolitan area of Detroit.

Ed Krattli, director of the Neighborhood Club, will participate with Mrs. Pettit in the group sessions.

For information about registration call the Neighborhood Club, TU 5-4600.

Opera Overture At High School

A special performance of Overture to Opera IV, for students at Grosse Pointe High School, is scheduled next Monday afternoon, March 29, at 2:30 o'clock, at the High School.

Heading the GPHS Overture committee is Mrs. John Garlinghouse, of Merriweather road, assisted by Mrs. Benjamin H. Paddock, III, of Lincoln road, and Mrs. John Lesesne, of Oxford road.

Purpose of the program is to foster interest in opera among the high school students. Tickets are allotted to GPHS students in music, music appreciation and related classes.

The Overture singers will present excerpts from some of the operas to be performed by the Metropolitan Company during its spring visit to Detroit, and from some of the operas scheduled by the newly formed Metropolitan National Company, due in Detroit next October.

Plumber Loses Items to Thief

Michael Satmary, 48, of 1849 Hampton road, a plumber, lost $290 worth of tools and materials to an unknown thief, or thieves, who broke into his car on Sunday, March 21.

Satmary told Woods police that he parked his automobile in the lot at the rear of the Woods Recreation and Bowling, in Mack avenue, at 9 p.m., and when he returned at 11:20 p.m., discovered the right front vent window broken and the tools and items gone.

Missing, he said, are a Bunsen burner and kit with three tips, valued at $25; a khaki bag with an assortment of tools, valued at $200; and an assortment of plumbing fixtures, valued at $65.

Introducing New Teachers

Newcomers to the staff of Kerby Elementary School in Grosse Pointe Farms this year number five well-trained, personable and highly competent instructors. Dr. Custer Homeier, the building's principal announced recently, "Considering the competition for talented teachers these days, I am most gratified that our search for top quality replacements was not in vain," he concluded.

The brief biographies of the newcomers show these men and women to be possessors of training in depth. Each has been schooled in several colleges and universities, each has brought with him a wealth of valuable experience in other school systems, and each has gained additional insights through wide travel and a variety of experiences.

Miss Dolores Rayburn holds two degrees from Wayne State University and has completed additional graduate training at the University of Colorado and Michigan State University. Miss Rayburn's experience, which began in Detroit, includes a stint of overseas teaching. This provided her the opportunity to tour Europe and the Holy Land.

Her out-of-school interests range from skiing to knitting, from reading to square dancing.

Mrs. Jeanette Smith is an experienced teacher who has taught the middle grades in San Rafael, California, and in Birmingham, Michigan. A graduate of Michigan State University, where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa, she has continued her education at the University of Colorado, Mexico City College, and the University of Michigan.

Her professional membership include the National Education Association, the Michigan Education Association, and the Grosse Pointe Education Association.

One of Mrs. Smith's interests is traveling. She has toured Mexico and Europe, and has visited National Parks on a cross-country camping trip.

Miss Theda Lewis holds degrees from Clarion State College and Northwestern University. She has taught the early elementary grades in Warren, Pennsylvania, and in Skokie, Illinois before she came to Grosse Pointe.

Her professional memberships include the National Education Association and its state and local affiliate. Out-of-school interests center on travel (she has spent a summer in Europe), dramatics, and reading.

Marvin L. Rants taught previously in Nebraska. He has attended the University of Omaha and holds a degree from Hastings College. Mr. Rants is currently working on a graduate degree in elementary education at the University of Nebraska.

Mr. Rants, who has flown as a commercial pilot and flight instructor, was an exchange cadet to Sweden in 1953 for the years he served in the Counter Intelligence Corps of the U. S. Army.

Lake Shore Tennis House To Offer Year-Round Play

Tennis will become a year-round sport in the Grosse Pointe area next fall with the opening of the Lake Shore Tennis House, a new, semi-private club sponsored by a group of Detroit area tennis enthusiasts and two Milwaukee sportsmen and real estate developers.

Construction of the new clubhouse, which will contain four, standard-sized, cork composition indoor courts, will begin about mid-April on a site adjacent to the Lake Shore Shopping Center in Marter road about a half block west of Jefferson avenue. The clubhouse will be situated in St. Clair Shores, practically on the border of Grosse Pointe Shores and Grosse Pointe Woods.

The new, all-steel clubhouse will be completed by October 1, when club members can begin using its facilities.

Associated in organization and operation of the new club are Joe Kristufek, of Grosse Pointe, one of the Detroit area's best-known amateur tennis players; Glenn H. Friedt, Jr., Detroit industrialist and tennis enthusiast; Wyndham F. Gary, Milwaukee sportsman; and Chester Schneider, also of Milwaukee.

The same group recently opened a similar indoor tennis club, the Bloomfield Tennis House, in E. Maple road, in Troy on the outskirts of Birmingham.

Kristufek, who has accumulated more than 200 trophies in both singles and doubles competition in his native Pennsylvania and the Detroit area, will serve as general manager of both clubs.

Kristufek also revealed that the group is studying plans for construction of at least one other indoor tennis club in the Detroit area, possibly in downtown Detroit.

Members of each club are allowed guest privileges at the other clubs.

In addition to four tennis courts, the Lake Shore Tennis House will contain shower rooms for ladies and gentlemen, a sauna bath, private lockers and a lounge room. The lounge room, furnished with sofas and chairs, will be for the convenience of club members waiting their turn on the courts and for children of members who are using the courts. A "Kiddy Corner" in the lounge will be equipped with television, play tables and toys.

The huge clubhouse, 120 feet by 235 feet, will have a height of 40 feet over the nets and will be built on landscaped grounds with ample, paved parking areas. It will feature colonial style architecture.

Kristufek said the clubhouse could easily be expanded to double the size to eight courts if interest is sufficient.

The building can be heated up to 85 degrees with infrared gas heat, and powerful overhead lights will provide lighting equivalent to daylight.

Sponsors of the Lake Shore Tennis House also said they were considering bringing in top tennis pros, such as Pancho Gonzales, for exhibitions or regular matches on the pro touring circuit.

To accommodate spectators for such matches, provisions are being made for installation of temporary seating facilities.

Membership in the club will be limited to 400 and members will pay an annual membership fee in addition to court charges each time they play.

While the club is being organized primarily for the purpose of providing tennis facilities from October 1 through April 30 each year, arrangements can be made by members to use the courts during the summer when inclement weather makes outdoor play impossible.

"THE LOBSTER HEADQUARTERS OF MICHIGAN"

The Lone Ranger

In February, we (The Detroit Area Chrysler Dealers) started an advertising campaign featuring segments of the original Lone Ranger radio show.

Our logic was this: The Lone Ranger was a Hometown product, Chrysler is Detroit's Hometown Car.

We felt there was no one better suited to be our spokesman than Brace Beemer, the voice of the Lone Ranger.

Brace talking about Chrysler was as natural as a Detroiters talking about automobiles.

Brace, the man, is no longer with us. Brace, the Lone Ranger, is.

As Brace himself said, the Lone Ranger was more than a radio character.

He was a symbol of a way of conduct, of goodness, justice, and of a deep concern for others.

As you may know, we had planned to offer an LP album of two Lone Ranger episodes originally recorded directly off the air.

So great has been the public interest in this album, we are reinstating the offer.

The Lone Ranger was a classic of American folklore, the likes of which can never be repeated.

With genuine pride and humility we take this opportunity to do something very few people are ever privileged to do.

To help preserve a legend.

A collector's item. Two complete, recorded-off-the-air episodes of "The Lone Ranger." These are not re-creations but shows as they were originally broadcast.

You can get this LP album at cost ($1.00) at any Detroit Area Chrysler Dealer.

As you might expect, the supply of these records is limited. So act now.

GOPs to Hear Mrs. Peterson

Mrs. Elly Peterson will speak to east side Republicans Thursday, March 25. The meeting sponsored by Republican Citizens-14th District will be held at Stapleton Hall, 10820 Whittier at 8 o'clock. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Mrs. Peterson was elected Republican State Chairman at the February State Convention. Previously she held numerous state offices and was Assistant Chairman of the National Committee, the highest party post held by a woman.

Last November Elly waged a vigorous campaign against Phil Hart, for United States Senator. Mrs. Peterson will discuss "Party Plans for the Future" at the Thursday meeting.

Al Thorburn, Chairman of Republican Citizens-14th District states that his group plans a series of monthly meetings featuring prominent Republican speakers. He hopes that people not previously active in politics will feel welcome to attend the series so that they will become better acquainted with the Republican Party and its goals.

Slate Tryouts For Hootenanny

Grosse Pointers are asked please to "give a hoot" if they have talent in the folk singing or instrumental field at the tryouts being held Saturday, March 27 at 1 o'clock in Fries Auditorium for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's forthcoming Hootenanny.

The Hootenanny itself will be under the direction of Center guitar teacher Alex Sucek and will take place Friday evening, April 23. Alex is anxious that it be an evening of the best Grosse Pointe can offer. He urges young people and adults alike to try out for this community program.

As an added inducement, a small honorarium will go to each person chosen to appear on the program. No one need hide his light under a bushel. Whether you are a junior high group or a seasoned adult solo performer, there is a place for you and a lot of fun in the process.

Whaley Accepts Missouri Post

Dr. Randall M. Whaley, vice president for graduate studies and research at Wayne State University, was named Chancellor of the University of Missouri-Kansas City on Monday, March 22. He will assume his new duties on or about July 1.

Vice President Whaley came to WSU in September of 1960 from Purdue University where he was Associate Dean of the School of Science, Education and Humanities. Born in Hastings, Nebraska, Dr. Whaley received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in physics from the University of Colorado and his Ph.D. from Purdue University. He first joined the Purdue faculty in 1942.

He was a member of the original research group at Purdue University whose basic work led to the development and use of solid state devices and ultimately to transistors by industry.

At Wayne State, his responsibilities extended over the Office for Graduate Studies, Office for Research Administration, Office for Institutional Research, Office for International Studies, Delinquency Control Training Center, Computing and Data Processing Center, Institute for Regional Urban Studies, Institute for Educational Sciences and the Center for Application of Sciences and Technology.

Vice President Whaley was executive director of the Advisory Board on Education for the National Academy of Sciences, National Research Council, Washington, D.C., from 1957 to 1959 and served as a consultant to the Organization for European Economic Cooperation, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the State Department.

He currently is serving on the boards of the Michigan Heart Association, the Cranbrook Institute of Science, the Board of Directors and Executive Committee, Metropolitan Fund Incorporated, Community Action for Detroit Youth and the Mayor's Committee on a Research Park in Detroit. He is also President of the International Scientific Film Association and the American Science Film Association.

WSU President Clarence B. Hilberry, commenting on Dr. Whaley's resignation said, "During his five years at Wayne State University, Dr. Whaley has contributed greatly to the University and the State of Michigan on both the research and academic fronts. His departure will leave a void that cannot be easily filled. My colleagues join with me in wishing him much success and happiness in his new post at the University of Missouri-Kansas City."

Vice President Whaley and Mrs. Whaley live at 921 Berkshire, Grosse Pointe Park.

Music Festival Gift Revealed

News of a $50,000 building fund gift to Oakland University's Meadow Brook Festival and the appointment of new general chairmen was made public recently to 300 key leaders of the exciting Michigan project meeting on campus to plan the second year's effort.

The gift from Mr. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull of Bloomfield Hills was announced by Festival chairman Semon E. Knudsen, General Motors Corporation vice-president and general manager of Chevrolet Motor Division. Knudsen and his wife launched the new performing arts project in February, 1964.

Rinehart S. Bright, vice-president of operations staff, Chrysler Corporation, and his wife will serve as Festival chairmen in the year ahead.

By any standard, last summer's Festival was a resounding success, a major contribution to the American cultural scene. In less than five months funds were raised to build the first phase of the majestic Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion, an acoustical marvel, to present the full Detroit Symphony Orchestra in a month-long series of 12 concerts under Sixten Ehrling's direction.

Husband and wife committees from every area of Metropolitan Detroit rallied to develop an audience for the series. An average concert attendance of 4,100 brought 49,200 to the Oakland campus between July 23 and August 15.

It was revealed last night that the expanded 1965 Festival will offer a six-week series of 18 concerts by the Detroit Orchestra to be presented on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings July 8 through August 14. Ehrling will conduct five weeks with Robert Shaw, Cleveland Orchestra associate conductor, directing major choral works on July 10-11-12. Ehrling will be guest conducting in Chicago during the period.

Shaw, Ehrling, the Knudsens, Brights, and Chancellor D. B. Varner of Oakland and his wife joined Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, Festival honorary chairman, to receive the guests Tuesday evening in her stately home, Meadow Brook Hall.

Guests were taken by bus to the Oakland campus for dinner where the Knudsens were presented with a tiny gold replica of the Pavilion "to mark their outstanding leadership in launching the Meadow Brook Festival, first goal in the creation of a complete performing arts center for Southeast Michigan."

Albert Tipton and principals of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concluded the evening with a short chamber music program, a preview of Oakland University's newly created Meadow Brook Woodwind Quintet.

Water Accidents Take 290 Lives

Michigan's 605 water accidents in 1964 claimed 290 lives and injured 228 persons, the worst water toll in five years, according to State Police provisional figures.

Only in 1959 were there more drownings but the 325 deaths charged to that year included 37 suicides, a classification dropped in 1961 as an accident category.

The number of accidents set a new official record and tops the previous high of 560 in 1961. The State Police in 1958 in accordance with a new law began official compilation of Michigan water accident statistics reported by all police agencies.

Last year's number of injured was second only to the high mark of 231, also set in 1961.

Of the accidents, 281 caused fatalities while 173 resulted in personal injury and 171 were property damage only.

Compared with 1963, deaths were increased by 46 or 19 percent over 244, injuries were up 12 or six percent from 216 and accidents showed a rise of 65 or 12 percent over 540.

In the breakdown of the deaths, the 144 involving swimmers or waders was an increase of 49 or 50 percent over 95 in 1963.

The breakdown included 41 who fell from bridges, banks, docks or piers, 40 boat operators, 38 boat passengers, 13 who fell through ice, nine who attempted to rescue others, three skin or scuba divers, one water skier and one who fell into a tank or well.

Library Offers Family Movies

The last program of the 1964-65 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. The film program is designed for everyone in the family. The 1965-66 Series will start in October.

There will be four films—three are for the children, and one is designed for both adults and children. The titles are as follows:

SUPERJET TO ISRAEL (25 minutes, color)—Historic Israel, the birthplace of the Christian and Moslem religions, now the Jewish homeland. In this film you will be able to view the natural beauty and historical scenes of this vibrant, young country: THE DOUGHNUTS (26 minutes, color)—Homer Price, citizen of Centerberg, U. S. A., and America's favorite ten-year-old, is up to his ears in doughnuts, thanks to a doughnut machine with a mind of its own.

The world of Homer Price is recreation for the youngster for the first time on film; EASTER YEGGS—(11 minutes, color)—A charming film especially for tots; MADELINE (9 minutes, color)—Ludwig Bemelmans' immortal miss, "Madeline," is the story of a little girl attending school in Paris. She is the youngest of 12 little girls who "Smiled at the good, and frowned at the bad." This is outstanding in the children's film field.

Adults and children accompanied by adults are cordially invited. Come early for a good seat.

Ens. Nick Cameron Serves on Navy Ship

Navy Ensign Nick Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon N. Cameron of 1322 Hampton road, participated January 6-15 in an amphibious landing operation called MEDLANDEX 1-65 while serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Oglethorpe.

The exercise, which took place on the beaches of Porto Scudo and Cape Teulada, Sardinia, was conducted to give both Marine and fleet units training in conducting full scale amphibious operations.

During the live firing exercise, Marines landed from ships and helicopters. In the helicopter landing phase, called vertical envelopment, Marines are flown over and behind enemy lines to cut off enemy supplies and reinforcements.

Training operations of this type are conducted periodically by units of the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean to insure the combat readiness of all elements of the Navy-Marine Corps team.

St. James Gets New Pipe Organ

St. James Lutheran Church will dedicate to the Glory of God their new Moller pipe organ at the worship services on Sunday, April 4. Carl Munzel is organist and choir director.

The new organ was custom built and installed by the M. P. Moller Company of Hagerstown, Maryland. It consists of over 780 pipes and organ chamber couplings involving over 6,000 feet of metal and wood pipes; the console has been enamelled white to match the interior decor of the church.

Monies for the purchase of the organ have come from many sources: receipts from concerts given by the choir, large gifts from the Women's Guild and other church organizations, memorials, and individual gifts. The organ investment is $24,000.

Installation of the organ is part of the 25th Anniversary Celebration which St. James will enjoy with dual festivities on May 8 and May 9, a congregational banquet at the Fries Auditorium on Saturday, May 8, and special worship services on Sunday, May 9.

The guest speaker on Sunday will be world-famous Dr. Oswald Hoffman, the regular minister on the Lutheran Hour Radio Broadcasts which are beamed to more than 120 lands in 40 different languages, with an estimated weekly audience of 30 million persons.

Pointe Business Notes

Robert H. Gathman, of Harbor Hill, vice-president of General Motors and general manager of Fisher Body Division has been appointed chairman of the GM Detroit Plant City Committee for 1965 by John F. Gordon, president of General Motors.

The committee is responsible for guiding and coordinating GM's community relations activities in the Detroit area, including Warren, Mich., where the GM Technical Center is located. There are 57 such committees across the nation in cities where General Motors has facilities.

Charles J. Benner, chief engineer for automotive sales, United States Rubber Co. tire division, received a 25-year service award from Walter F. Brown, tire division vice-president for automotive sales.

Benner joined the rubber company in December 1939 as a test wheel operator. In a series of promotions he has been assigned to field and manufacturing sales engineering, and governmental sales. He was appointed chief engineer for automotive sales in 1959.

A native of Burrows, Ind., Benner graduated with a B.S. in chemical engineering from Purdue University. A World War II veteran, he is married, has five children and resides at 1377 Devonshire, Grosse Pointe.

Detroit Public Library Observing 100th Birthday

EDITOR'S NOTE: The 100 years of the Detroit Public Library is an event of significance to the entire Detroit metropolitan area; for such a valued institution is pace-setter, cooperator, model and servant not only to the central city but to the adjacent suburbs. In token of the Detroit Public Library's centennial on March 25, this newspaper herewith presents the Library's story, written by a Wayne State University Journalism student.

By Daniel Ewald
It takes plenty of growing pains for any organism—human or otherwise—to mature into a smooth operating and effective being.

It takes time, help, and a little luck for any institution to mellow into an efficient operation.

Now in its centennial year, the Detroit Public Library has experienced many growing pains as it has successfully grown from a one-room Public Library in the old State Capitol building, at Griswold and State, opened on March 25, 1865; to a multi-million dollar 3,200,000 cubic foot Main Library, 5201 Woodward, and 28 subsidiary branches.

This does not mean, however, that growth of the Public Library has ceased. For by April, the completed construction of an addition and remodeling of the original Main Library building, will produce an additional 3,530,000 cubic feet, bringing the total size of the expanded Main Library to about 6,730,000 cubic feet.

This will be done at a cost of about $10.5 million.

Michigan's first constitution in 1835 stated, "The legislature shall provide for libraries," and directed that penal fines be devoted to library support.

When the Detroit Public Library opened in 1865, it was with this charge from the Library Committee of the Board of Education:

"The library must be a public one. It must be free, under certain safeguards. It must be extensive. Books must be pure, both in morals and religion. The library should be capable of use by the largest number of readers, and in distinction from libraries useful only to scholars, should be a popular library. . . . It should be a repository of the best learning upon every subject of intellectual inquiry and of the best literature of our own and other languages and times; distinguished rather for the excellence than the extent of its treasures. It should be a circulating reference library, but should combine the best features of both."

When the Detroit Public Library began in 1865, 5,000 books were available to the public.

Now, in the Main Library alone is a collection of over two million volumes.

The Main Library has made only two major moves since the founding of the Detroit Public Library: the first, in 1877, from shared quarters in the Capitol Building to a building of its own on the site now occupied by the Downtown Library; the second, in 1921 to its present site in the Cultural Center.

Growth and progress marked the Detroit Public Library from the beginning. By 1869, four years after its birth, the Library ranked fourth in size in the United States.

It became apparent that the Library's growth required more attention so, in 1880, its management was transferred from the Board of Education to a separate Library Commission appointed by the Board of Education.

Robert J. Fannon, Jr. Aboard CG Cutter

Seaman Yeoman Robert J. Fannon Jr., USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fannon Sr., of 786 Lakepointe avenue, is serving aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Willow operating from Yerba Buena Island, San Francisco, Calif.

The Willow, a 189-foot seagoing buoy tender, is responsible for maintenance of aids to navigation from the San Francisco Bay area south as far as San Luis Obispo.

Besides buoy tending, the Willow transports supplies for several light stations in the Bay area and is used in search and rescue by the Coast Guard Rescue Coordination Center in San Francisco.

NEW SCOUT CARS

At a meeting held on Monday, March 22, the Farms council accepted the low bid of Stotts and Murphy Ford, in the amount of $3,577, the price asked for five scout cars, with power steering. The firm submitted the lowest of five bids. Delivery is promised within four weeks.

This Commission still manages the Library system and is currently headed by its President, Dr. Harvey Merker, and directed by its Director (since 1941), Ralph A. Ulveling.

Three library branches opened in 1900, but only in temporary locations.

June 1, 1906, however, marked the opening of the Gray Branch, first one erected by the Library Commission.

And in 1910, the Common Council accepted a gift of $750,000 from Andrew Carnegie for the erection of library buildings.

In June, 1963, the Cass Avenue addition to the Main Library was dedicated, more than doubling the square footage, seating capacity and book capacity of the main facility. The addition consists of two four-story wings, connected by a 288 foot concourse, with a 375 seat auditorium below ground.

Most important year in the Library's one hundred year history, however, may prove to be 1965 which marks the centennial reopening of renovated Woodward Avenue building in April.

The Detroit Public Library is supported by four principal incomes:

- 1) State aid from the Legislature.
- 2) Appropriations from Detroit.
- 3) All penal fines collected in Wayne County for breach of state laws. Last year this totaled about $190,000, less than one-third the total operating budget.
- 4) Private donations.

Besides its 5,036,504 circulating books, the Detroit Public Library offers many other valuable services.

The Rare Book Room in the Main Library has examples of book rarities which until a few years ago could not be viewed by Detroiters without traveling to other cities.

The Library possesses the largest map collection in the state, totaling 110,000.

A world-wide recognized Automotive History Collection includes American and European sections.

More than 500,000 pictures are available for use.

A collection of more than 20,000 phonograph records is available. This includes speeches by famous persons, instructional records for learning foreign languages, for practicing Morse Code and improving stenographic skills, tribal music from around the world, poetry readings and classical and folk music.

The Foreign Language Collection, at the Downtown branch, has books for the general reader in 29 languages.

The Library also makes available the use of several films. This service began after World War II.

Today, the Detroit Public Library, with its 28 branches, two bookmobiles and 400 deposit collections in schools, hospitals, day nurseries, homes for the aged, and community centers, circulates over five million books yearly.

The Library's adult education activities include discussion groups, lectures, concerts, film programs, and educational radio and television programs.

Perhaps the inscription over the $40,000 16-by-40 foot colored glass mosaic mural, designed by Millard Sheets, over the Cass Avenue entrance of the Main Library, best depicts the service of a library. The inscription reads:

Like a river flowing through the ages uniting distant men, knowledge and thought into a community of ideas of the world and of time is the accumulated record of mankind. From this river one may drink and fill himself with beauty, with reverence for life, with knowledge for his mind's new adventures and the understanding to control his undertakings. From this river man's spirit comes refreshed, for here he has had communion with the spirits of other men.

The Detroit Public Library seems to have successfully gone through its early growing pains, though being a one hundred year old body.

Airport Project Report Received

The Wayne County Road Commission held a public breakfast meeting with community leaders recently at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel to detail the $44 million expansion program now in progress at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport.

Featured speaker at the meeting was John R. Wiley, Director of Aviation for the Port of New York Authority. Wiley has the responsibility for the planning, development and operation of the four air terminals operated by the Port Authority—John F. Kennedy International, LaGuardia, Newark and Teterboro airports.

Wiley detailed to the meeting the problems confronting an operating major airport in the process of expansion.

The breakfast program was arranged to inform the public of a major airport expansion program was conceived and how it is being executed. William E. Greger, R. ad Commission chairman said.

The meeting also featured presentations by commission Chairman Al Barbour, Commissioner Philip J. Neulack and Managing Director James M. Davey.

Barbour told of the economic impact an airport has on its surrounding community.

A major airport means jobs in industrial and commercial with to a community," Barbour said.

"While we are going through our growing pains we want to make certain that the public understands what we are doing and why we are doing it."

We want the public to get a full and complete story of this major development program," Kregler said.

The airport expansion program will more than double the of the present facilities. It will add a new ultra-modern terminal building, an addition to the present terminal building and a Central Services building.

The new Central Services building will house a deluxe restaurant, shops and 175 motel rooms. The program includes a double-deck parking garage, airline cargo hangars, hangers and an in-flight kitchen.

All this is being done at no cost to the general tax fund," Neulack said.

"The airport is a revenue producing facility that is self supporting."

Davey said, "When the expansion program is completed Metropolitan Airport, an international port of entry, will rank in the top ten list of airports in the country."

The expansion program is scheduled for completion in November of 1965 when the airlines operating at Willow Run will move to Metropolitan Airport. They are: United, Eastern, TWA, North Central and Mohawk Airlines.

The airlines currently operating at Metropolitan Airport are: American, Delta, Northwest, Pan American, BOAC and Allegheny Airlines.

Policeman Nabs Reckless Driver

City Patrolman Richard Lenski was off duty and on his way home Saturday, March 22, when a motorist drove past him at high speed. The motorist will appear in Farms court, with the officer as the complaining witness.

According to a Farms police report, Lenski was traveling east on Mack, after getting off work, when Michael L. Bett, 24, of 27832 Shock, St. Clair Shores, whizzed by at between 60 and 70 miles an hour, cutting in and out of traffic.

Lenski, in his private car, gave chase and stopped Bett at Mack and Moross, where the officer demanded the motorist's operator's license and car registration. Bett could not produce a registration.

The officer asked Bett for the keys to his car, but Bett insisted he throw them away. Bett was intoxicated, Lenski said.

Farms police were called and Bett and was taken into custody. At the Farms station, the arrested man produced his car keys. He was then locked in a cell until he sobered up.

Before he was released, Bett posted bond of $40, but not until he was given a violation ticket for reckless driving (drinking), and another ticket for no registration on his person. He is scheduled to appear in court on Wednesday, March 31.

St. Paul Lakers Defeated in State Basketball Finals

By Jim Brunson

The St. Paul Lakers were beaten last Saturday by a Muskegon Christian team 54-51 in the state Class A finals in Jenison Field House in East Lansing.

The two well-drilled teams tied at an 11-11 tie at the end of the first quarter. Muskegon led 25-22 at half-time and 33-29 at the end of the third period margin of 17 points.

In the final period, Bill Bigg kept the Lakers alive with driving layups, but the Muskegon Warriors iced game and the title with two shots in the closing minutes. Bigg had all scorers 27 points.

In the semi-finals Friday, St. Paul defeated Conant 27-21 in the crowded Civic Center. The Lakers were in full control as they led in the first two periods by margins of 18-13 and 28-17.

St. Paul ended the trip to Lansing by beating Flint St. Agnes last Wednesday in the quarter-finals 62-50. The Lakers edged out a 13-12 first quarter lead before taking third and fourth period margins of 30-18 and 42-29. The game was played at Rochester High School.

The St. Paul team surprised everyone this year. After being defeated three times by St. Florian, the Lakers, under the excellent coaching of Ed Lauer, became red-hot in the state tournament by winning both the district and the regional crowns. St. Paul losses Mike Kerby, Dave Letscher and Mike Hourigan through graduation, but 11 varsity members will be back next year.

To Honor GPHS Athletes At Spring Sports Banquet

The championship swimming team of Grosse Pointe High School and other athletes will be honored at the Spring Sports Banquet next Tuesday evening, March 30, at 6:30 o'clock, in the High School Cafeteria.

Grosse Pointe High finished first in Border League Swimming competition this year. Varsity and Reserve basketball squads, as well as intramural squads will also be honored. A star swimmer from the University of Michigan team, whose name as yet is unannounced, will speak.

Letters in varsity swimming and varsity basketball, according to Dads' Club president Ed Bann, will be awarded at the evening affair. Honored guests include Bob Kinneer, varsity swimming coach, and reserve coach John Chase, varsity basketball coach. Chuck Helloski, reserve coach John Helloski, cheerleader director, Miss M. Mulkon and her squad, as well as the fathers and mothers of all athletes.

Officials of Grosse Pointe Dads' Club, according to Ed Bann, are vice president Henry Kinzie, secretary

Mr. Robinson stressed that to be eligible to play in the major league this year, each boy must be at least two of the announced tryout dates.

Ed Chase, Registration Director, announced that those boys who had failed to register could do so by calling the following: Ed Chase, TU 1-7539, (boys born from first to fifteenth of month); Lynn Perry, TU 1-8135, (boys born from 16th to 31st of month); Tom Clark, TU 2-5761, (boys 8 or will be 8 by August 1965).

Schools Offer Golf Classes

While many Grosse Pointers prepare to "take to the Greens," community services has already started a hole-in-one by securing a former Michigan PGA champion to instruct their classes in Golfing for Adults, to be offered by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Ben Lula, Michigan PGA Champ (1962) is currently a golf instructor at Hillcrest Country Club, second instructor, Ron Fox, Michigan PGA Champ (1960), is the owner of a private golf school in Detroit.

For the convenience of both business men and families, the classes will be scheduled in three different groups, beginning Monday, April 5, through Wednesday, April 7, from 7:45 to 9:30 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe High School field room.

All interested persons are asked to call the Department of Community Services, TU 5-3808, or TU 5-0271 for further information and class enrollment. Students will be given their choice of nights in the order of reservations received.

Dr. Robert Swanson, and treasurer Frank Banach, who is also Director of Physical Education and Athletics at Grosse Pointe High School.

Expenses for the Spring Sports Banquet at Grosse Pointe High to honor varsity, reserve and intramural athletes will be paid by donations from parents and friends. Cost of the dinner and the trophies will be about $3.50 per person. It is expected that donations at the door next Tuesday evening will be generous. The roast beef dinner will start promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

Fathers and mothers of athletes have been invited to attend but all parents of Grosse Pointe High students are cordially welcomed.

Needs Managers For Ruth Loop

By Bill Stuck

Pointe National Division Commissioner Bill Pankhurst announced that the following have agreed to act as managers in the 1965 season, for the Park-Farms Babe Ruth League.

Jack Griffith is again returning with Jack Beck as his coach. Beck, after eight years in Park Little League is coming into Babe Ruth.

Ed Devine is again returning to manage the DODGERS. His coaches will be Tommy Thompson, Lyman Moody and Peter Devine.

Handling the GIANTS will be Larry Schmidt following four years of Little League in Illinois and two years in the Park. He has not as yet named his coach.

As is apparent the five teams have but three managers. This is the first time this far along in the program without succeeding in finding managers among the parents of the boys desiring to play. This program, as with most all other youth programs, is operated entirely by volunteer help from the parents.

The league will be reduced by two teams and a number of boys wanting to play baseball will not. Parents, how about doing a little soul searching and give Bill Pankhurst, 884-5392 a ring or call any of the board members and help get the season off to a good start.

Tryouts are set to begin April 3 at 10 a.m. American Division includes boys living from the east Farms limits to the east side of Rivard and plays at Kerby Field. National Division boys are those living from the west side of Rivard to the west Park limits and tryout at the Neighborhood Club.

This and the 1964 dates are almost identical and let us hope the weatherman starts cooperating with good baseball weather.

Babe Ruth Loop Tryouts Slated

Tryouts for the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League will be held at Parcels School on Saturday, April 3, and Saturday, April 10. Boys who did not register last Monday or Saturday, still can do so by calling John Condre, 881-3315, before the first tryout.

All the managers have been selected and they include: Auto motive: Dave Marsteller, Roy O'Brien Ford; G. Sinning, Dick Shalla Chevrolet; J. Law, Jim Causley Pontiac; S. Loeffler, Richard Buick; N. Blohm, Grosse Pointe Rambler; J. Burns and B. Brown, Dick Green Chrysler-Plymouth.

All-American: Mike Shannon, Bud Uhalik, Roy Bradley, Ted Alexander, J. Addy and Bob Stoetzer. These men will be waiting to greet the boys Saturday, April 3. Check the hour on the slip you received when registered.

The fellow without character has to depend on his reputation to pull him through.

Howe Honored Guest at Hockey Banquet

A sellout crowd of over 250 young hockey players, coaches, fathers and mothers jammed the Fellowship Hall of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church for the first annual Awards Banquet of the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association.

All-time great of the Detroit Red Wings, Gordie Howe, was the guest of honor and speaker, and kept the crowd entertained with stories of his youth and his long career in the N. H. L. Jack Hoag, president of the Association, presided and was assisted by Cy Edwards, vice-president; and Jack Cudlip, who introduced the various coaches and managers of Grosse Pointe Hockey teams from Squirts to Midgets.

All of the boys who participated were given arm patches and autographed pictures of Gordie Howe, and the championship teams were given trophies.

With the tremendous show of enthusiasm by all present, hopes were rekindled again for an artificial skating and hockey rink for the Grosse Pointes.

It was a delightful evening for players and guests, and if the crowd reaction was any yardstick, this will become an annual affair.

League Extends Registration

Grosse Pointe City Little League is extending registration one more week. All boys interested in playing baseball in the Little League program, and who have not as yet signed up, must do so on Saturday morning, March 27, between 9:30 and 12 noon.

Registration will take place at Mair School. As one parent must sign the registration application, it is suggested a parent accompany his or her boy when he registers at Mair School.

To be eligible to play, a boy must have been born between August 1, 1952 and July 31, 1957 (both dates are inclusive). Also, he must register in order to play, including boys who were on teams last year, either in the Major or the Minor League program.

Boat Launching Guide Issued

Wayne County has 34 public boat launching sites and marinas listed in a first-of-its-kind guide just published for Michigan's boatmen by Automobile Club of Michigan.

Title of the 108-page booklet is "Michigan Boat Launching Site and Marina Guide."

"Information on boat facilities throughout Michigan and Ontario is provided in this publication," says George Measel, manager of the Auto Club's Grosse Pointe Division.

"This is the first time that travel information on a statewide scale has ever been compiled in such detail for boatmen," he added.

The guide lists 1,634 sites by towns, under the counties in which they are located. By scanning the charted information, boatmen can tell if a site has a shore, timber, steel, gravel or paved launch ramp. At the same time, they will be knowledgeable of facilities available from dockage to restaurants.

Wayne County towns with launch sites mentioned in the guide are Belleville, Detroit, Ecorse, Gibraltar, Rockwood, Trenton and Wyandotte.

"Boat owners will find this guide as handy on the water as the automobilist finds his AAA Touring Book on the land," says Measel.

A summary of Michigan's motorboat laws, tips for those who trailer their boats and the unwritten laws of the waterways under a section titled "Courtesy Afloat," are included in the booklet.

Auto Club members may obtain this guide at their Club division office.

PARK DONATES
The Park council approved a $400-donation to the Babe Ruth League on Monday, March 22, but specified that the money can only be used for umpire salaries. The fund was donated because a large number of Park boys participate in the League. City Charter prohibits using public funds for purchase of equipment for private groups.

Mistakes, recognized and analyzed, pay the highest dividends in the world.

Business Notes

George H. Fenger has been promoted to second vice-president at Manufacturers National Bank, it was announced by Roland A. Mewhorst, president.

Currently with the Bank's Building Department, Mr. Fenger came to Manufacturers in 1936, and has had extensive experience in several departments of the Bank. His banking career was interrupted during World War II when he served with the U. S. Army Medical Corps. He is a director and secretary-treasurer of the Building Owners and Managers Association and a member of the Detroit Power Squadron and the Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenger live in Woods Lane.

William Cullingford has rejoined the broadcast time-buying staff of D. P. Brother & Co., national advertising agency. Cullingford, 34 and a native of England, was previously with D. P. Brother & Co. from 1958-63 as a media buyer and as a member of the agency's market research department. In 1963 he became a sales representative for The Farm Journal, and more recently was associate director for George F. Pierrot Productions here.

Earlier, he held media buying and market research positions at Maxon Advertising. Cullingford and his wife, Margaret, live at 777 Fisher road. They have two children, William, Jr., 9, and Patricia, 8.

Jean Youngblood of Grosse Pointe Park has been appointed general supervisor of the relay division of Detroit Edison's electrical system department.

A native Detroit, Mr. Youngblood attended Eastern and U-D high schools and received a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering at the University of Detroit in 1926.

He joined Detroit Edison in 1922 as a student engineer while attending the University of Detroit. Shortly after graduation he was assigned to the company's construction department for a brief period. He has been associated with the group he now heads since 1928.

Mr. Youngblood and his wife, Catharine, live at 1253 Cadieux. They have four children and five grandchildren.

Gerald E. Warren, vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit, has been elected 1965 president of the Michigan Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

Warren, 40, of 211 McKinley avenue, served as vice-president of the chapter during 1964.

Other PRSA officers for 1965 are Arthur R. Gloster, public relations counselor, vice-president; William F. Grimshaw, director of public affairs and special services for the Burroughs Corp., secretary; and Frank X. Touhey, director of university relations, Wayne State University, treasurer.

Warren is a native of Bay City and a graduate of Bay City Central High School and Michigan State University. He has been associated with the marketing division of the National Bank of Detroit since 1959.

Michigan Bell Telephone Company announces the appointment of William M. Hawkins as customer relations manager for its Valley district, succeeding Thomas M. Digby, who retired recently.

A 20-year-veteran with Michigan Bell, Hawkins has spent his career in the Detroit area except for four years in Lansing. His new assignment includes customer contact work for the East Side, Harper Woods and the Grosse Pointes. His office is located at 18992 Kelly road, Harper Woods.

Appointment of John R. Hamann of 441 Rivard boulevard, as general superintendent of production for Detroit Edison has been announced.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Mr. Hamann was graduated from Hartford (Michigan) High School and later attended Michigan State University where he earned a mechanical engineering degree in 1937. In the same year, he joined Detroit Edison as a junior engineer at the company's Conners Creek Power Plant in Detroit.

He rose through several supervisory posts at the Conners Creek plant to become superintendent in 1956 and, in 1960, he was given additional responsibilities as assistant general superintendent of production.

He served as superintendent of Edison's St. Clair Power Plant from 1962 until March of 1964 when he was transferred to the company's general offices in Detroit in order to devote full time to his responsibilities as assistant general superintendent.

He is a veteran of World War II in which he served with the United States Army Anti-Aircraft Artillery Corps.

Richard Lehmann of the Village Manor restaurant, 685 St. Clair avenue, has been awarded the Silver Spoon emblem by the National Restaurant Association. The local restaurateur is one of only 50 food service operators in the country to be selected as charter members of this society. He was honored in special ceremonies in Chicago during the NRA Board of Directors meeting.

Another Step Forward

Much satisfaction should be derived from the fact that once again a majority of Pointe voters have expressed their determination to preserve and improve the standard of excellence of the community's public education system. Approval of the two bonding proposals at the polls Monday prevented a great setback to the system. Overcrowding in a number of our schools, and particularly at the High School, created a situation that had to be remedied.

While approval of the proposed second high school and remodeling of the present one was granted by a margin of two to one, fewer voters were inclined to accept the proposition of building an auditorium-instructional center on the campus of the new school at a cost of $750,000. This proposition squeaked through by less than 200 votes.

We believe that as time passes, the Pointe is going to be very happy and proud that this second proposal also was approved. It was probably unfortunate that the word auditorium had to be used in connection with this planned structure. Many residents are of the opinion that the community already has plenty of auditoriums and felt that the creation of this center was a frill which could easily be passed up. It will become increasingly clear that the new facility will provide many advantages which do not now exist in our public educational plant, which are highly desirable and will contribute greatly toward the preparation of our students for well-rounded lives. There will also be many ways in which the adult population can use and enjoy the new facility.

A great vote of thanks is due the members of the Board of Education and the system's administrative staff for the immense amount of work they put into the job of selling these proposals to the public. We can't recall any project which was pushed with a greater supply of information afforded. It is a grueling, and for the most part, thankless task. And the work is far from over now. The selling stage must be followed by the long period of planning and carrying through to completion the program which has been approved.

During the campaign preceding Monday's vote these dedicated people have been subjected to much criticism and abuse by those opposed to the proposals. They serve for a pittance and labor endless hours toward the end of providing the very best facilities and programs possible for the education of the young especially, but also for the adults of the community. They deserve all the appreciation and cooperation we can offer.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

With the fast pace, the hustle and bustle of every day living we sometimes overlook being courteous to each other. However, although certainly some days have been trying, there are two people who sincerely deserve honorable mention for never losing sight of this thought. Their attitudes are always pleasant, especially on the telephone. (for I know of them in no other way), not having ever met them personally. These two people are Mrs. Defer and Mrs. Vivianne of Pierce Junior High School, office staff.

I just thought someone should thank them and mention how very helpful and pleasant they always are.

Dear Sir:

Your vote for the meanest man in town may have had some merit if the man did in fact sit in the window smugly watching the struggling youngster shovel snow.

The main point, however, seemed to be that the "so-and-so" held the poor kid to the contract. You should have congratulated the "so-and-so" for setting the proper example and not escaping down the less difficult path of permissiveness that generally leads to a morass of immorality.

It would have been more constructive to praise this little vignette as a latter-day example of responsibility and the old fashioned idea that a man's word is his bond and an agreement is an agreement.

The young man should have been applauded for keeping his difficult part of the bargain. He probably derived considerable satisfaction from performing according to his word and though underpaid monetarily, the lesson learned about negotiating contracts will probably prove to be a valuable one.

It the Grosse Pointe News had been published around 1100 BC what would you have voted for?

Jephthah who slew his only and beloved daughter merely because of a promise he had made to God?

Edward A. Proctor, Jr.

Dear Editor:

Through an unintentional error in figuring the score of the St. Paul-Star of the Sea swim meet, a misunderstanding resulted.

As coach of the Star of the Sea swimmers I would like to clear up the issue regarding the score.

St. Paul defeated Star of the Sea by the score of 44 to 39. It did not end in a tie.

I would like to extend my apology to John Chase, coach of St. Paul, and the entire swim team for this confusion.

Sincerely,

Ed Rockett, Coach

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

The March 10, 1965 issue of the NEW YORK TIMES carried the listing of the winners of this year's National Book Awards—"the most distinguished books written by Americans and published in the United States in 1964." (Each award is accompanied by a $1,000 prize.)

I was delighted to find that the fiction award went to Saul Bellow's "HERZOG"—at the top of the Best Seller list and one of my favorite works of current fiction. Mr. Bellow can well be proud, as this is his second National Book Award; in 1954 the fiction choice was his "THE ADVENTURES OF AUGIE MARCH."

If you haven't read "HERZOG" and like a psychological novel, you have a treat in store for you. Here the author superbly portrays today's neurotic, absurd man. Moses Herzog firmly believes in the brotherhood of man; yet he has failed in life successively as father, lover, husband, writer and teacher. His inner odyssey is excessive, at times rambling, and constantly filled with letters which he writes (but never sends) to friends and enemies, rivals, colleagues, Eisenhower, Nietzsche—people both living and dead. This is a sort of catharsis, which he finally abandons at the end of the book.

In the field of history and biography, Louis Fischer's "THE LIFE OF LENIN" came in first. It is interesting to note that three biographies of Lenin appeared this year, but Fischer's seemed to be superior to the other two. (One of the others, written by Robert Payne, can also be found in our library.) One of the critics seems to feel that this winning biography was the ripest, most carefully thought through, the best organized and the best written.

Mr. Fischer visited Russia for the first time in 1922, when he met Lenin and watched that country in the throes of revolution. In his book one sees the background of Tsarist Russia and the first World War, then as the architect of the first communist state.

The arts and letters award went to Eleanor Clark's (Mrs. Robert Penn Warren) "THE OYSTERS OF LORMARIAQUER." On the Northwest coast of France, just around the corner from the English Channel, is a ragged little inlet—called the little town of Lormariaquer. Here, their special responsibility to the world is to supply "Ostrea edulis" (oysters to you!). In addition to dealing with this industry, Miss Clark has depicted admirably the people who cultivate the oysters, their beliefs and customs—their sufferings and joys. The citation for her book read: "Humor, history, local color, landscape, romance, melodrama, are all summoned out of oystering."

For poetry, Theodore Roethke's "THE FAR FIELD" was saluted. This constitutes a collection of the author's poems since his last collected verse, and is divided into four headings: North American sequence; Love poems; Mixed sequence; Sequence, sometimes metaphysical. All have appeared in the periodicals such as the ATLANTIC MONTHLY, HARPER'S, and NEW YORKER. These are for discriminating readers and should certainly be in any public, college and high school library. This award, was, of course, made posthumously, as Theodore Roethke died in August, 1963. Stanley Kunitz, Pulitzer prize-winning poet, made the acceptance speech, saying: "The work of Theodore Roethke is one of the landmarks of the American imagination."

Another posthumous award was made to Norbert Wiener (who died in March, 1964) in the field of science, philosophy and religion, for his "GOD AND GOLEM, INC." (currently on order at our library). The subtitle is more revealing: "a comment on certain points where cybernetics impinges on religion." Here the author concerns himself with major points in cybernetics which are relevant to religious issues. Dr. Jerome Wiesner, dean of the School of Science at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, spoke for Dr. Wiener's book, saying that "as God can in no way be threatened by his creation, man, so man need not be threatened by the machine, is reassuring, coming as it did from one who worried more than most about this problem."

Donald H. McGannon, president of the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company and Chairman of the National Book Committee, presided over the award ceremony, which brought together 1,000 book industry figures, authors, reviewers and librarians at the Hilton Hotel in New York City.

It is heartening to a librarian to see public recognition given to authors for their labors, and deservedly so. If one measures and assesses their influence on their millions of readers, one is tempted to quote, aptly, from Roethke's winning book: "A ripple widening from a single stone Winding around the waters of the world."

From Another Pointe of View

Yes, every cloud DOES have a silver lining . . . in proof of which we offer the case of Roberta Rodger, daughter of the Robert M. Rodgers, of Lakecrest lane.

"Bertie" skied for 14 years before she finally ran afoul of the slopes this season, winding up with her fractured leg in a walking cast for 10 weeks.

She couldn't go back to Endicott Junior College, where her room was three flights up and her classes were spread between various buildings.

It looked very much as if Miss Rodger would have to resign herself to several months of reading Good Books, watching television and knitting—until her sister, Carole, heard of the accident.

Carole, who left her University of Michigan classes to study at the University of Vienna last June, had transferred to Paris, to The Sorbonne, where she was (and is) learning all about the glories of French language, literature and art.

As soon as Bertie is 'mobile' enough, Carole wrote her parents, why doesn't she come over here, to live with me and study in France?

Why not, indeed? Bertie's mobility increased almost immediately, and off she flew to the City of Lights, to register for classes at Alliance Francaise—with her leg still in its cast!

So now both Rodger sisters are in Paris, until this summer, when Carole plans to return to U. of M.'s School of Architecture and Design.

Bertie, thinking seriously of school in Switzerland, may stay on in Europe; after all, no skier would pass up a chance to traverse Alpine slopes.

AAUW Slates Plans For Teaching Grant

Pointe Woman to Be Picked for $700 Fellowship Gift; Local Branch Also Contributing to National Fund

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women has announced plans to award a $700 Fellowship Grant this spring to a Grosse Pointe woman teacher.

The Branch also is honoring one of its members, Mrs. C. G. Turrell, by contributing $500 to AAUW's national Fellowships Fund in her name. An additional $500 is being contributed to the Fellowships Fund in the name of the Grosse Pointe Branch.

In the past, the Branch has made gifts to the AAUW Fellowships Fund, which provides grants for graduate study to women throughout the country and from abroad. This is the first year the Branch has awarded a fellowship of its own to a Grosse Pointe woman.

This fellowship is to be used by the recipient for graduate study this year. Elementary and secondary teachers in the Grosse Pointe schools are eligible. Applications, which are available from all principals of Grosse Pointe schools, are due April 1. The recipient will be selected by April 15 by an AAUW committee and Superintendent of Schools Charles Wilson.

Contributing a gift to the national Fellowships Fund in her name is the highest honor an AAUW branch can bestow upon a member. Mrs. Turrell is being recognized for her contribution to education, to the AAUW state office, and to the entire program and functioning of the Grosse Pointe Branch.

Mrs. Turrell, a University of Michigan graduate, was a history teacher at Eastern High School in Detroit for 19 years. In her service to AAUW, she has been chairman of the Branch's Legislative Committee, vice chairman of the International Relations group, chairman of the Contemporary Literature group, chairman of the Status of Women group, vice president in charge of program, and chairman of the finance committee. She also served on the State board.

Mrs. Turrell has been an active member of the College Club and vice president of the College Division of the Detroit Teachers Association. She is vice president of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters.

At the annual meeting at Lochmoor Country Club on March 18, Mrs. Turrell received a certificate stating that $500 had been given in her name to the Fellowships Fund for 1965-66. The gift will be used for an American women scholar. The $500 gift made in the name of the Grosse Pointe Branch will be an international grant.

Aiding gifted women scholars is one of the main projects of the American Association of University Women. Fellowships are awarded to women who have achieved distinction or show promise of first-rate achievement as creative scholars and teachers.

Last year Fellowships for graduate study were awarded 52 American women and 35 women from other countries who wished to study in the United States. The fellowships, ranging from $3,000 to $5,000, are made possible by than $300,000 in gifts each year from AAUW branches from throughout the country. An endowment fund supplements these contributions.

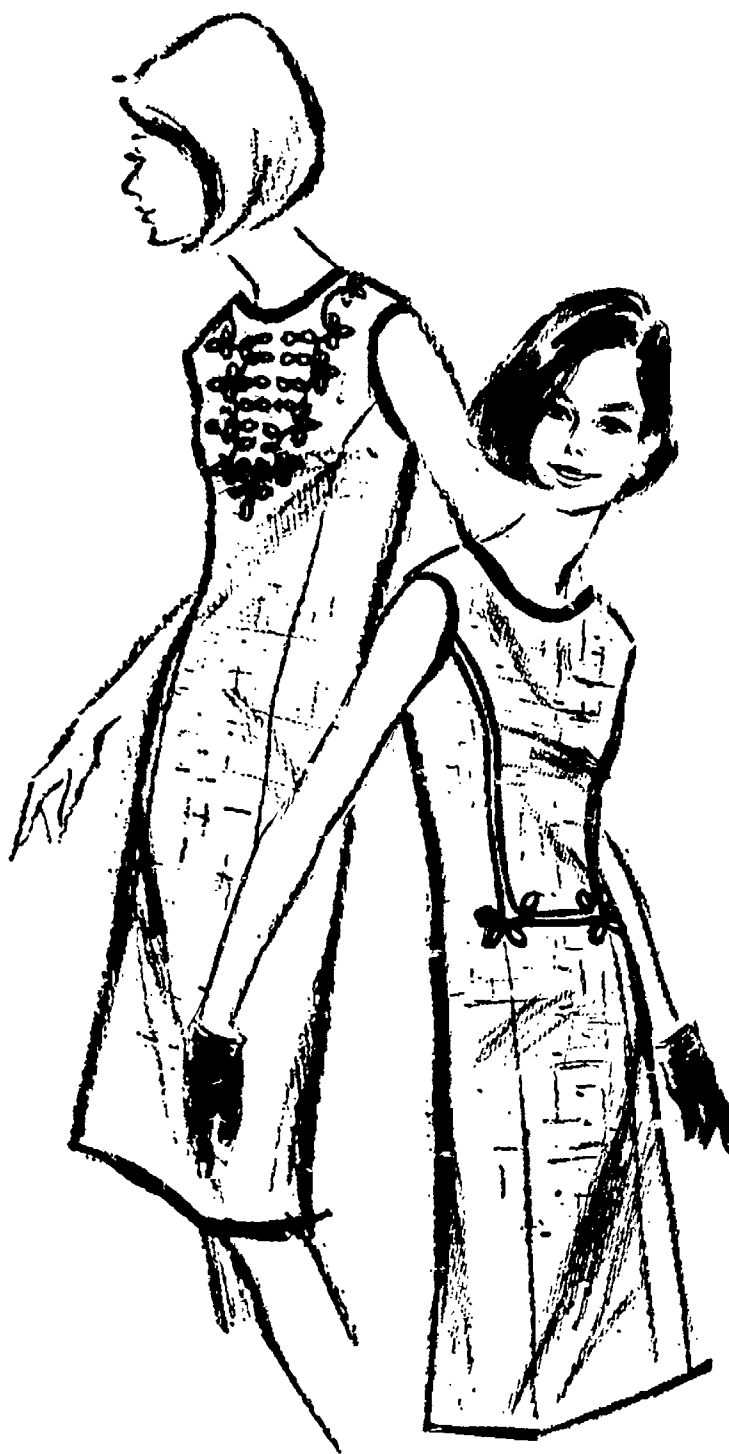

Mrs. Abram L. Brown is chairman of the Fellowships committee, which includes Mrs. Charles Leavitt, Mrs. Edward Bunn, Mrs. Albert D. Conkey, Mrs. Edgar Hahn, Mrs. David Howell and Mrs. Robert Snyder, Branch president.

Sally Whittington Feted Before Rites

Showers and Festivities Scheduled Throughout Month; Brunches and Post-Reception Supper Planned Saturday

Parties for Sally Whittingham, daughter of the Manfred Gould Whittinghams, of Kenwood court, who will speak her marriage vows to Robert Scott Barrett, son of the Lester Eugene Barretts, of Clayton, Mo., this Saturday, began early in the month.

Hostess at the first party, a kitchen shower March 6, was Mrs. Edwin Ross, of Kenwood court.

The bride-elect was honored March 9 at a crystal shower, given by Mrs. Miles McKee, of Pemberton road, and on March 14 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whittingham, of Edgemere road, entertained at a family dinner at the Country Club of Detroit.

Hostesses at a linen shower March 16 were Mrs. Watson Beach, of Kenwood court, and Mrs. C. G. Browne, of McKinley avenue. Party scene was Mrs. Beach's home.

A morning coffee and recipe shower was scheduled March 18 by Mrs. Alexander Leete, of Lakeshore lane, and Mrs. Herbert Schmitz, of Radnor circle.

Mrs. Norman Gilmore, of Balantyne court, entertained at a miscellaneous shower March 19.

This Saturday, before the afternoon ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, brunches will be given by Mrs.

Remington Purdy, of Kenwood court, and Mrs. Reginald MacArthur and her daughter, Mary, of Stanton lane.

A supper party for out-of-town guests is planned after the Country Club of Detroit reception. Supper hostesses will be Mrs. Arthur A. O. Schmidt, of Lakecrest lane, and her daughter, Mrs. Richard Zuehlke.

YWCA Wives Workshop

A busload, (some 35 or 40), young wives and mothers will leave the Downtown Branch YWCA at 7 o'clock Friday morning, April 2, for Kalamazoo, Mich., to spend the day there discussing what the Young Women's Christian Association means in their lives. With other young women from YWCA's throughout the state, they will attend the Michigan All State YWCA Wives Workshop at the Kalamazoo YW from 10 until 3 o'clock.

Girl Scouts Are Honored

80th Birthday Concert Slated

The Tuesday Musicales of Detroit will celebrate its 80th birthday March 30, with a special Artist Concert at 8:30 o'clock, in the Detroit Institute of Arts' main auditorium.

Performers will be duopianists Joyce and Joanne Weintraub, former Tuesday Musicales Student League Members, (purpose of the Student League is to develop young talent).

Tuesday Musicales was born in 1885, when 12 ladies of Detroit Society began to meet regularly in their own parlors, to perform on the piano for each other's enjoyment.

The founders were Elizabeth Stridiron, Josie Lewis (Mrs. Clarence Carpenter), Charlotte O'Flynn (Mrs. Herman Dey), Harriet Nichols (Mrs. Allan Atterbury), Elizabeth Wetmore (Mrs. C. H. Hodges), Hannah Hammond (Mrs. William J. Gray), Grace McMillan (Mrs. W. F. Jarvis), Mary Andrus (Mrs. Stafford Delano), Virginia Ferguson (Mrs. James Cosslett Smith), Clara Trowbridge (Mrs. C. M. Swift), Alexandrine Sibley and Winifred Poe.

Through the years, Tuesday Musicales was responsible for bringing many of the world's greatest musicians to Detroit audiences. It maintains a varied program to encourage the talented.

In 1948, it organized the Detroit Women's Symphony, (there are only six other all-woman symphonies in the entire world).

Pointers serving on the 80th anniversary committee include Mrs. John Ehrlich, chairman of the "Prelude" subscription dinner before next Tuesday's concert; Mrs. Alfred D. Moran, Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr.

Mrs. Coolidge is a past president of the Musicales, as are two other Pointers, Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen and Mrs. Abraham Bodycombe.

Chi Omega Alumnae Slate April 10 Session

The alumnae of Chi Omega from Michigan's five chapters, Michigan State, University of Michigan, Hillsdale, Adrian and Western College, will have their State Day at Hillsdale Saturday, April 10.

This meeting is scheduled every two years. Actives of the five Michigan chapters and all Michigan alumnae are invited to attend.

Festivities will begin with a 10 o'clock coffee hour in the chapter house, to be followed by a meeting and tour of the campus.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Lola J. Hanavan will be the speaker.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. James McGurk, of St. Clair Shores, 772-8738, and Mrs. Harold Altman, of Broadstone road, 831-8001.

Mrs. Altman is the president of the Detroit Alumnae chapter of Chi Omega. Reservations must be in by April 1.

MR. and MRS. W. RALPH JEWELL, of Lakeshore road, returned Tuesday from a cruise on the Nieuw Amsterdam to Jamaica, St. Thomas and Bermuda.

Molly Granger To Say Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Granger, Jr., of Litchfield, Ill., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ross (Molly) to Harry Orson Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Cole, of Downers Grove, Ill.

Miss Granger, granddaughter of Mrs. B. I. Yeager, of Litchfield, and the late Mr. Yeager, and of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Granger, of Rivard boulevard, was graduated from Litchfield High School and St. Louis Barnes Hospital School of Nursing. She has been employed by the Burr Unit at Barnes since her graduation in August, 1964.

Mr. Cole, a graduate of West Plains (Mo.) High School and Drury College, Springfield, Mo., will be graduated from Washington University School of Medicine in June. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

A June 12 wedding is planned, in First Presbyterian Church, Litchfield.

Mischa Kottler With Symphony

Detroit pianist Mischa Kottler will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 o'clock on Thursday, March 25, and Friday, March 26, at Ford Auditorium. Sixteen Ehrlich will conduct.

Kottler will perform Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini. The orchestral portions of the program will include a Detroit premiere performance of Sessions' Suite from "The Black Maskers" and Beethoven's Symphony No. 6 (Pastorale).

Mr. Kottler was born in Kiev, Russia, of a musical family, his uncle being a Professor of Piano at the Petrograd Conservatory and also Conductor of the Imperial Opera of that city.

Commencing his musical studies on the violin at the age of four, he changed to piano at the age of five under the supervision of his uncle. At the age of seven he was entered at the Imperial Conservatory of Kiev and at the age of nine made a concert tour of the major cities of the Ukraine.

He continued his studies in Paris and Vienna under Felix Weingartner and Emil Von Sauer, spending six years with Von Sauer, who was one of the famous pupils of Liszt.

Mr. Kottler has concertized extensively, both in this country and abroad, and has appeared as soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra on many occasions.

Tickets at all prices are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office and at Grinnell's.

Hamilton Choir Sets Sunday Concert Date

Many Parties Planned In Pointe Before Appearance Of Nationally Known Singing Group In Duo Auditorium

The Hamilton College, (Clinton, N.Y.), Choir will appear in concert in The Pointe this Sunday evening, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock, at Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

This appearance of the 65-voice nationally known singing group is sponsored by Hamilton's Lower Michigan Alumni Association.

Among Pointe families planning dinner parties before the concert are the Howard M. Bingham, of Chalfonte avenue, who will entertain 12 friends, and the John S. Kerrs, of Yorkshire road, who will host a group of six.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Williams, Jr., of Merriweather road, have invited 25 friends to join them before the concert.

A party of 12 will gather at the Chalfonte avenue home of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Riddleberger, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard T. Snyder, of Hillcrest road, are expecting their son, John, a student at Hamilton, to arrive home from college in time to plan a get-together for some members of the choir.

Concert hostesses will include Monty Newcomb, Jane Johnson, Barbara Kennedy and Mary Jane Kerr.

Tickets, available at the door, are priced at $2 for adults, $1 for children and high school and college students.

The Hamilton Choir, founded in 1875, primarily as an adjunct to the daily morning Chapel service, has recently engaged in extensive concert tours, traveling approximately 5,000 miles a year and making an average of 20 appearances in addition to two or three radio or TV shows annually.

Its present acting director is R. Douglas Sheldon, a '63 Hamilton graduate and an advanced degree candidate at Brown University. Appearing with the Choir will be the Brass Choir, under the direction of Professor Stephen Bonta, and the Buffers, an undergraduate octet.

Brownell P-TA To View Play

When the curtains go up at 8 o'clock tonight on this year's Talent Show, parents of Brownell Junior High's ninth grade class will be seeing the fruits of two months' cooperative effort in producing a truly original entertainment.

Entitled "Penny to Riches! or Where Is the Heir?" the production was written by 17 girls: Nancy Asmus, Cindy Clark, Judy D'Arcy, Joanne Fisher, Janet Hooper, Margie Jensen, Linda Jensen, Nancy Keppelman, Linda Lake, Chris Larsen, JoAnn Majester, Linda Seifulla, Kathy Walker and Eileen Wetering.

Penelope Peters, (played by Missie Lewis), has finally earned enough money to go on a camping trip to New York. However, unknown to her, she has inherited a large sum of money which she must claim by August 31. Legal Larry Law, (Bill Montgomery), takes it upon himself to find her and goes on a merry chase through the World's Fair and the woods.

Interspersed with the story line are numerous student acts featuring instrumental performers, tap dancing, choral groups, folk music and a ballet, even unicycles.

Student directors for this hour-long show are Kathy Walker and Bill Nimz, while Don Bamberger and Dan Evola are faculty directors. Mrs. Susan Schultz is coordinator of the various phases of production.

MUTSCHLER

American Patina Colonial Group

Smartly functional... yet so charmingly traditional the design is well suited to Early American and Colonial decor. The deep-sculptured, raised-panel doors and beveled drawer fronts present a classically simple facade. This styling is dramatically heightened by American Patina wiping stain finishes. You'll feel as though you have a full staff of servants, the way Mutschler pampers you... Storage near each work center saves bending, reaching and running about. A kitchen that's planned to fit your way of doing things. Just one of many distinctive style interpretations.

At a ceremony yesterday in Barbour Chapel of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Carol Kincheloe was married to John Clemer Allison.

Reverend Ben L. Tallman officiated at the 4:30 o'clock rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Kincheloe, of Roslyn road, wore a costume suit of vanilla brocade.

Her headpiece was fashioned of champagne-colored tulle and seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of cream-colored roses and ivy.

Maid of honor Carolyn Stearns chose a street length, lettuce green silk shantung Princess-line frock, and carried an arrangement of pink camellias and ivy.

Mr. Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison, of Sunningdale drive, asked Carol

Plan Ski Trip To New Mexico

Pointe families, both teens and adults, are offered a wonderful chance for a spring skiing expedition to the high Rocky Mountains of the far West above Taos, New Mexico. The trip will be under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Ski Club and the Ski-Hi Club both sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Dates of the trip are during the public school spring vacation April 16 through April 25. This is just about the only place in the United States where one can still ski to late in the season.

The trip package is all inclusive. The party will travel by charter bus to Chicago where they will board the Santa Fe's crack express which will take them overnight to Raton Pass between Colorado and New Mexico. Here another charter bus will take the group up to the Taos Ski Area.

Seven full days of skiing will be enjoyed, and, as on the train, meals are included. All tow fees, ski lessons and lodging, four to a private room will be provided as well as nightly entertainment.

The Grosse Pointe group will stay in the St. Bernard Lodge just at the foot of the chair lifts. Chaperonage is included for young people traveling without their parents. Cost of the 10 day tour is $194. Only 20 places are still available and will be given to those who first get in their $100 deposits.

Ibex Members Meet March 26

A slide film trip to New Zealand will entertain Ibex members at their next general meeting tomorrow, March 26.

Mrs. Edward J. Tutag, of Radnor circle, long-time member of Ibex and a native of New Zealand, will show slides of her recent trip to her homeland.

Mrs. Tutag is currently a teacher and counselor in the Humanities Division of Detroit's Montclair College. Husbands of members have been invited to join the audience.

Looking ahead, Ibex members are already planning their spring dance, to be held Saturday, May 8, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mrs. John C. Allison

In Barbour Chapel of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church yesterday afternoon, CAROL KINCHELOE, daughter of the William M. Kincheleos, of Roslyn road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Allison, son of the Ellsworth W. Allison, of Sunningdale drive.

Dem Women Meet April 3

Michigan Democratic women will hear discussions on the provocative question, "How Can We LIFT Michigan?", at their annual Democratic Women's Day meeting, Saturday, April 3, in the Michigan State University Student Union, East Lansing.

The state-wide meeting, sponsored by the Michigan Federation of Democratic Women, is scheduled from 9 to 4 o'clock.

Dr. Ernest O. Melby, distinguished professor of education at Michigan State, will discuss Michigan's educational needs at the luncheon, with Dr. Lynn Bartlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, presiding.

Activities during the day will include the debut performance of Mrs. Burnette Staebler's drama, "Have Program, Will Travel," reports on LIFT (Legislative Information For Teamwork), and discussions by Michigan legislators on the LIFT program. The luncheon and all discussions are open to the public and men are urged to attend with their wives.

Reservations should be mailed to: Michigan Federation of Democratic Women, 947 Book Building, Detroit 26. Tickets are $3. Arrangements for automobile transportation to East Lansing are being handled by Mrs. Virginia Palazzola, Harper Woods, TU 1-2364, and Mrs. Lillian Kulma, Detroit, LA 7-1053. Deadline for luncheon reservations and car transportation is Monday, March 29.

Miss Irene Gawronski, Detroit, is in charge of fourteenth district promotion. Mrs. Pat McGuire, Grosse Pointe Farms, is handling publicity for the event.

LARCENY REPORTED
Woods police received a complaint from H. J. Christenson of 2088 Anita, on Saturday, March 20, in which he disclosed that a thief broke into his garage and stole two wheels and tires from his 1965 Pontiac. The value of the loss was not given.

Library Reception Engrosses Pointers

Detroit Public Library Celebrating Centennial Year; Mr. and Mrs. John N. McNaughton Are Co-Chairmen of Anniversary Party

A score of Grosse Pointe families have helped complete plans for the March 28 reception of the Friends of the Detroit Public Library to mark the opening of the Library's Centennial Year.

During the 4 to 7 o'clock event in Detroit Main Library, Friends will dedicate two gifts: the John S. Coppin murals in Adam Strohm Hall, and copies of the history "Parnassus on Main Street," by Frank B. Woodford.

Pointer John N. McNaughton, president of Friends, and Mrs. McNaughton, co-chairman of the reception, called on many Pointe residents for help.

Mrs. Edward J. Posselius recruited 35 hostesses, including her daughter, Mrs. William B. Gilbride, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank A. Posselius.

Others who will preside at tea tables are Mrs. Thomas A. Boyd, Mrs. Walker Cislser, Mrs. Richard Durant, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Mrs. C. Henry Haberkorn, Jr., Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Mrs. John W. McEachren, Mrs. William Tousey and Mrs. James K. Watkins.

No use trying to change the past—just don't ruin the present by worrying about the future.

San Francisco Ballet Coming

One of America's most distinctive and exuberant classical dance companies, the San Francisco Ballet, comes to Detroit on Saturday, April 3, for a single performance at Masonic Auditorium.

Recently completing its third international tour under the sponsorship of the American National Theatre and Academy, in conjunction with the State Department, their most recent trek as "ambassadors of good will" for the United States included triumphant performances in the Middle Eastern countries as well as in Central and North Africa.

Under the highly creative direction of choreographer Lew Christensen, the company has also won critical and audience acclaim in the Orient, Latin America and North America.

In commenting on its performance in the Orient, the critic for the Singapore Tiger Standard said, "Electrifying brilliance and rhythmic mobility—superb technique and undeviating precision. An evening with the San Francisco Ballet is an experience which no one should miss."

United States critics similarly acclaimed the company. New York Times' Allen Hughes noted, "As contemporary as they are laudable," while Walter Terry of the New York Herald Tribune commented, "One does not have to be a balletomane to understand and enjoy the spectacular entertainment put together by director Lew Christensen."

Tickets for the Detroit performance of the company may be obtained either at Masonic Auditorium or at downtown Grinnell's.

Many an argument against a civic project is knocked down and run over by progress.

Young People's Concert Slated

The final Young People's Concert of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra for the current season will be given at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 27, at Ford Auditorium. Valter Poole will conduct the performance of Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals," which will be illustrated on stage by cartoonist Stuart Hamble.

There will be a special showing Saturday in the lobby of Ford Auditorium of art work by sixth graders of the Poupard School in Grosse Pointe. The 150 pieces of art to be shown were done while the young students listened to recordings of "The Carnival of the Animals." The project was made possible through the combined efforts of the Music and Arts departments of the Birmingham and Grosse Pointe school systems and the Junior Women's Association for The Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Tickets for both performances at $1.50 and $2.50 are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 962-4615.

GPHS Mothers Club Tea Date Announced

Traditional Spring Party Scheduled April 9; Mrs. Thomas Munson's Paintings of Local Landmarks to Adorn Auditorium

When women gather in groups "Merrily Around the Pointe" on April 9, the chances are they're on the way to a Pink Tea at the Grosse Pointe High School.

This is the date of the Mothers Club Spring Tea for Scholarships, a specialty each year, held in the school auditorium.

Merrily Around the Pointe, this year's theme, takes the guests into the heart of the community. Overhead and adorning the walls of the auditorium will be a fluffy pink sky, featuring pink steeds. From the balcony will hang four by six foot sketches of familiar landmarks of the Pointes.

Mrs. Thomas Munson's tempera and watercolors, specially done for the occasion, feature the High School, Alger House, the Yacht Club, a sailboat on Lake St. Clair, Christ Church, the War Memorial from the lake, the Punch and Judy Theatre, and the Isadore Cadieux house.

On the stage, there's to be a merry round of spring ensembles, all in shades of pink, loaned by eight Grosse Pointe shops from the Village and Hill areas. Costumes will be labeled for easy identification.

At 1 o'clock, tea is to be served to all attending, and those who wish may enjoy bridge. In the tea lounge, tables are to be centered with pink and white carousels set upon table covers of pink and moss green.

One hundred prizes will be awarded during the afternoon. Prizes are being donated by merchants of the community. A printed list, giving the merchants' names and items, will be handed to each guest.

Mrs. H. T. Munson and a committee have been busy obtaining the gifts. Members are Mesdames Donald Bamberger, Robert Becker, Stanton Crawford, Wm. Hotchkiss, Hal Jensen, Fred Jahn, Merrill Liebhold, Tom Marantette, H. W. Purdy, Ellisworth Reynolds, Allan Scheldhammer, Walter Schmitt, C. A. Scott, Fred Steiner, William Swor, W. J. Walker and D. F. Waggoner.

Mrs. William D. Munro, Jr., ticket chairman, had six grade chairmen with 20 or more women on their committees, ringing phones to sell tickets. Tickets are still available through: Mrs. Charles R. Beltz, TU 2-8234, or Mrs. William Munro Jr., TU 5-1550.

Committee chairmen are Mesdames Clayton Lindhurst, George Roumell, Richard Durand, Michael Madorsz, E. M. Southern, Helmut Gronbach.

Others are Mesdames F. P. Thompson, R. D. Wiegand, H. D. Bliss, G. W. Wing, L. M. Slater, N. W. Grey, B. K. Bockstanz, J. H. Allen Sr., P. Duika.

Bride-Elect

Paul Harvey Deming, Jr., of Nefl, announces the engagement of his daughter, Lynda, to Edward C. Parker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Parker, of Metamora.

Miss Deming, who is also the daughter of the late Mrs. Deming, is a grand-daughter of Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell, of Merriweather road, and the late Mr. Mitchell, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Deming, of Lakeshore road.

She was graduated from Miss Hall's School, Pittsfield, Mass., and is presently in her senior year at Vassar College, where she is majoring in Political Science. She spent her junior year in Switzerland, studying at the University of Geneva.

Mr. Parker, an automotive stylist at General Motors Technical Center, is a graduate of Pomfret School, Pomfret, Conn., attended the University of Michigan, and sailed on the seventh round-the-world voyage of the brigantine "Yankee," under Captain Irving Johnson.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Bridge Classes Being Formed

Spring Bridge Classes, offered by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, are bound to be filled to capacity, as many Grosse Pointe ladies (and gentlemen, too) prepare for the flurry of spring and summer bridge parties which seem to be a tradition in this area.

Taught by Mrs. Carrie Kiley, seven bridge classes will be offered this coming term. They are as follows:

Beginners' Bridge: Tuesday, April 6, at 1 p.m.; Wednesday, April 7, at 7:45 p.m.; and Thursday, April 8, at 7:45 p.m. These classes will acquaint the acknowledged beginner with basic terms and bidding rules.

Refreshers' Bridge: Tuesday, April 6, at 7:45 p.m. and Wednesday, April 7, at 1 p.m. This course will review all general rules of bridge.

Players' Bridge: Monday, April 5, at 1 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. This course, designed for the more seasoned bridge player, will cover the finer points and more advanced strategies.

Mrs. Kiley will base all classes on the Goren method, and recent revisions to this method will be covered. Each class will include eight weeks of instruction as well as supervised play, for two hours each class period.

For further information and class reservations, call the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Kappa Alpha Theta

The Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta will hold a dinner meeting Monday, March 29, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Fredric Keppen, of Dearborn.

U. of M. Club To Hold Dance

The University of Michigan Club of Detroit's 148th birthday party spring dance is scheduled to tomorrow evening, Friday, March 26, at the Glen Oaks Country Club in Farmington.

The menu will include a choice of lobster or roast beef dinner, and dancing will be to the music of Mark Otis.

Ticket information may be obtained by telephoning the U. of M. Club of Detroit, TE 1-4638.

Bedroll Parley Held by Scouts

Twenty-Six Senior Scouts and four adults in Grosse Pointe had a "Bedroll Conference" under the guise of a pajama party. The conference dealt with the promotion and encouraging of Girl Scouting in Grosse Pointe, especially on the Senior level, so more girls will benefit by this very worthwhile program.

One of the highlights of the evening was when Kathy Jens, an AFS exchange student last year, showed beautiful slides of her New Zealand home.

Those who attended the conference are: Senior Scouts Berdian Buffa, Lois Burlingame, Chris Camburn, Joan Eldridge, Corinne Florek, Rosemary Haerens, Susan Halvorsen, Joyce Hoerauf, Kathy Jens, Julie Kirby, Silvia Krawchuk, Lyn Nofft, Lisa Phebus, Meg Phebus, Liz Reichling, Cornelia Snyder, Mary Stewart, Pam Thompson, Nancy Watkins and Thea Werner.

More were Bequie Blackburn, Nancy Gajewski, Carolyn Gast, Beth Keller, Sue McLuckie and Pan Rapalee.

Adults were Mrs. Earl, Mrs. Lawrence Hope, Mrs. Paul Blackburn and Mrs. Edward Kay.

MR. and MRS. HOWARD H. WILLIAMS, III, of Rye, N.Y., announce the birth of a son, HUNTER BARR WILLIAMS, March 19. Mrs. Williams is the former ELSA BARR, daughter of MR. and MRS. ANDREW BARR, of Merriweather road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. H. HUNTER WILLIAMS, of Rye, formerly of The Pointe.

Vacationing on the slopes at Vail, Colo., are MR. and MRS. CYRIL J. EDWARDS, JR., of McKinley place, and their five children, CHARLES, KENNETH, PHILIP, STANLEY and JANET.

MR. and MRS. ALLAN SHELDEN, III, wintering in Delray Beach, Fla., plan to return to Provincetown road next month.

CHARLES B. JOHNSON, 22, plans to enroll in the University of Michigan Medical School in September, 1965. Johnson, a June, 1961 graduate of Kent School, Kent, Conn., is presently attending the University of Michigan. He is the son of MR. and MRS. CHARLES B. JOHNSON, JR., of 471 Rivard boulevard.

Members of the Eastside Workshop division of the Mayor's Committee to Keep Detroit Beautiful include MRS. EDWARD F. GEHRIG, of Balfour road, chairman of finance; MRS. CHARLES DAWOOD, of Berkshire road, schools chairman; and MRS. G. SAM ZILLY, of Merriweather road, past president and program chairman. The eighth annual workshop is scheduled next Tuesday evening, in Detroit's Veterans Memorial Building, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT M.

FRASER, of Robert John road, and MR. and MRS. WALTER L. VAN GOETHEM, JR., of Peartree lane, have returned from a two-week vacation on the West Coast. The two couples stopped off in Las Vegas for a few days before going on to Palm Springs and Palm Desert, Calif., where they stayed at Indian Wells Hotel and played golf on the beautiful courses of Indian Wells, Bermuda Dunes and La Quinta.

Pointer Frank Adams told them not to miss the "Tirol" restaurant, owned and operated by a one-time Buddhist Monk, and the travelers agreed that dinner in the clouds is a most romantic experience, one they would recommend "highly." (Tirol's elevation is 6,000 feet.)

DARYL SHANCK, daughter of MR. and MRS. DONALD L. SHANCK, of McKinley avenue, has pledged Beta Epsilon chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Michigan State University. Daryl, home now for semester break, has as her houseguest Karen Virgil, of East Lansing.

SUSAN DAVIES, daughter of MR. and MRS. K. A. DAVIES, of Ridge road, a student at Albion College, will be attending a two-day seminar in Lansing and Detroit sponsored by the Michigan Center for Education in Politics.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES UNGER, of Broadstone road, and MR. and MRS. CARL HORNYAK, of Anita avenue, recently returned from a cruise to Nassau in the Bahamas.

STEPHEN M. GILLIS, son of MR. and MRS. GEORGE M. GILLIS, of Lincoln road, a freshman at the University of Michigan, has been awarded a William J. Branstrom prize, an annual award made to full-time freshmen students whose academic achievement during their first semester on campus places them in the upper seven per cent of their college class. Through an oversight, Stephen's name was omitted from the original list of Branstrom winners from Grosse Pointe. He and the other winners will receive their awards at a special convocation Friday afternoon, April 9, in the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater, Michigan League.

MISS SANDY JOYNER, daughter of MR. and MRS. CARL JOYNER of Hawthorne road, has pledged Alpha Phi Fraternity at Western Michigan University.

An expense-paid week in New York City has been awarded JOANNE HEDGE, of Hawthorne road, by the Wayne State University mass communications department and television stations WXYZ, WWJ, and WJBK. Miss Hedge received an award in the Divisional Awards category from the International Radio and Television Society, and was nominated by a WSU selecting committee for outstanding scholastic achievement. She specializes in the areas of continuity writing and performance.

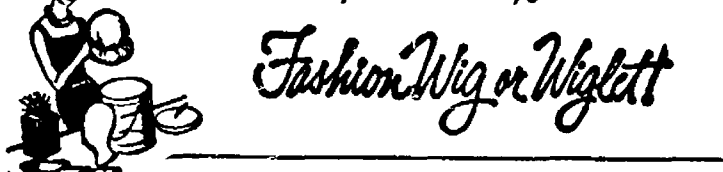

She will attend conferences and special events with seven other WSU communications students. Miss Hedge will be a June graduate with majors in communications and journalism. Before making the trip to New York in April, she will spend the 10-day term break in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., with KAREN VAN VOORHEES, of Vernier road.

GROSSE POINTE NEWS
Police-Fire Officials Issue Warning on Cleaning Fluid
The NEWS has been asked to publish a warning prepared by the National Safety Council of Chicago, as a public service to residents of the Pointe who patronize coin-operated dry cleaning centers. The request was made by Pointe police and fire officials.
The warning reads: "Perchloroethylene is the 'perchloroethylene' most widely utilized in coin-operated dry cleaning centers. It has been selected because it is relatively non-inflammable and not nearly as toxic as carbon tetrachloride. Despite its comparative safety, it must still be handled with respect."
"Recently, two children were overcome by perchloroethylene vapors when they were left for a few minutes in a closed automobile, in which a newly-cleaned six-pound wool rug had been placed. The rug had not been dried properly, and the solvent fumes immediately filled the car. Luckily, the children were revived and no permanent injury could be detected."
"Not so fortunate was a 16-year-old boy on a camping trip to Canada. Before leaving the United States, his sleeping bag had been dry-cleaned and an amount of solvent was still in the bag when he first had occasion to use it many hours and miles later."
"During the night his father awoke to find the boy in convulsions, but was not able to get medical help soon enough and the boy died."
"The old rule-of-thumb which industrial health people use for carbon tetrachloride concentrations might well be applicable here: 'If you can smell it, you're breathing too much of it.'"

tional singing, are very much concerned with The Sound of Music.

They wish they could all hit the high notes like Julie Andrews, (so does St. Paul's choir director, we'd wager) . . . but if they can't sing like Miss Andrews, they can at least listen to her—and to The Sound of Music.

The Altar Society is sponsoring a special post-Lenten performance of the movie, "Sound of Music," at the Madison Theater Wednesday evening, April 21, at 8 o'clock.

General chairman of this worthy project, proceeds from which will be used to renovate the Sisters' chapel at St. Paul's Convent, is Mrs. Ambrose Singer, of Ridgemont road.

Her co-chairmen are Mrs. Theodore Trefzer, of Kenwood court, and Mrs. Leo Kulka, Jr., of McKinley avenue.

A few of the many women assisting with the project are the Mesdames Edward Kleefuss, Frank J. Feely, Leo F. Covey, Raymond J. Peters, John G. Crowley, Charles Kotcher, Phil Phillip and Edward Kotz.

More are Miss Charlotte Dey, Mrs. Bernard Cornillie, Mrs. Carl Fromm and Mrs. John P. Cushman. Mrs. William L. Hurley is treasurer, Mrs. Alton Schick, assistant treasurer.

Ticket prices range from $5 to $10. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Singer, TUXedo 1-3332, Mrs. Trefzer, TUXedo 2-3243, Mrs. Kulka, TUXedo 1-7403, Mrs. Stephen Bradley, TUXedo 5-6732, or Mrs. Joseph Wright, TUXedo 2-9536.

A Ra-THER Exciting Event

It's time for the State Society Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan's meeting and luncheon. The 45th annual get-together is scheduled this Saturday, at Oakland Country Club.

Mrs. Arthur B. Hillegas, of Washington road, State Society president, will preside.

Among those attending will be regents from three Pointe chapters: Mrs. A. French Lippitt, Princess Beatrice Chapter; Mrs. C. W. Todd, Vincent Massey Chapter; and Mrs. Eric O. Melmer, St. Lawrence Seaway Chapter.

State officers who plan to be present include recording secretary Mrs. Fred Cousins, of Vernier road.

Honored guests will include British Consul Mr. L. J. P. J. Craig and Mrs. Craig, The Honorable K. D. Taylor, Consul of Canada, and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. R. L. Miller, Regent, Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, Windsor, and the Reverend Michael Nesbitt, Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Mr. Nesbitt, born in London, will be the principal luncheon speaker. His topic is "An Englishman Becomes an American" (it's not as easy as it sounds).

There will be entertainment, by Canadian tenor Douglas Marsden—the program calls for "traditional English music"—and much discussion of one of D.B.E.'s current projects, sale of "To Set Before A Queen," a book of recipes and reminiscences by a former cook to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Pointe chapter members who plan to cross town for the Great Event include Mrs. Selwyn E. Andrews, Mrs. John R. Birch, Mrs. Louis Blauman, Mrs. James L. Blean, Mrs. Harry Breitenbach, Mrs. Clifford Cardwell and Mrs. Leslie D'Ath.

More are the Mesdames L. G. DeSpelder, F. W. Evans, Theodore A. Foster, David Gardiner, Vernon P. Johnson, S. M. Huestis, W. R. Jeeves, George S. Knuff, William J. Lehmann, L. A. Lotgering, Harold Lumley and W. W. LeRoy.

Still more are Mrs. G. L. Lowry, Mrs. John W. Mackenzie, Mrs. Colin B. Neal, past state president Mrs. Paul Preuthun, Mrs. William H. Ramsay, Mrs. I. B. Swegles and Mrs. W. J. Watkins.

Ray Fleming, Mercy College art instructor, will hold a spring session of classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Tuesday afternoon and evening beginning April 6.

Both: afternoon and evening sessions are offered in a series of 12 weekly two and one-half hour classes for a fee of $30. Afternoon hours are 1:30 to 4; evening classes are 7:30 to 10.

Teaching of drawing will be integrated with painting and the accent will be more on figurative painting than still life.

Afternoon classes will also study landscape painting as the weather moderates and they can set their easels up on the terrace by the lake or in the gardens.

Streamlined for Service...

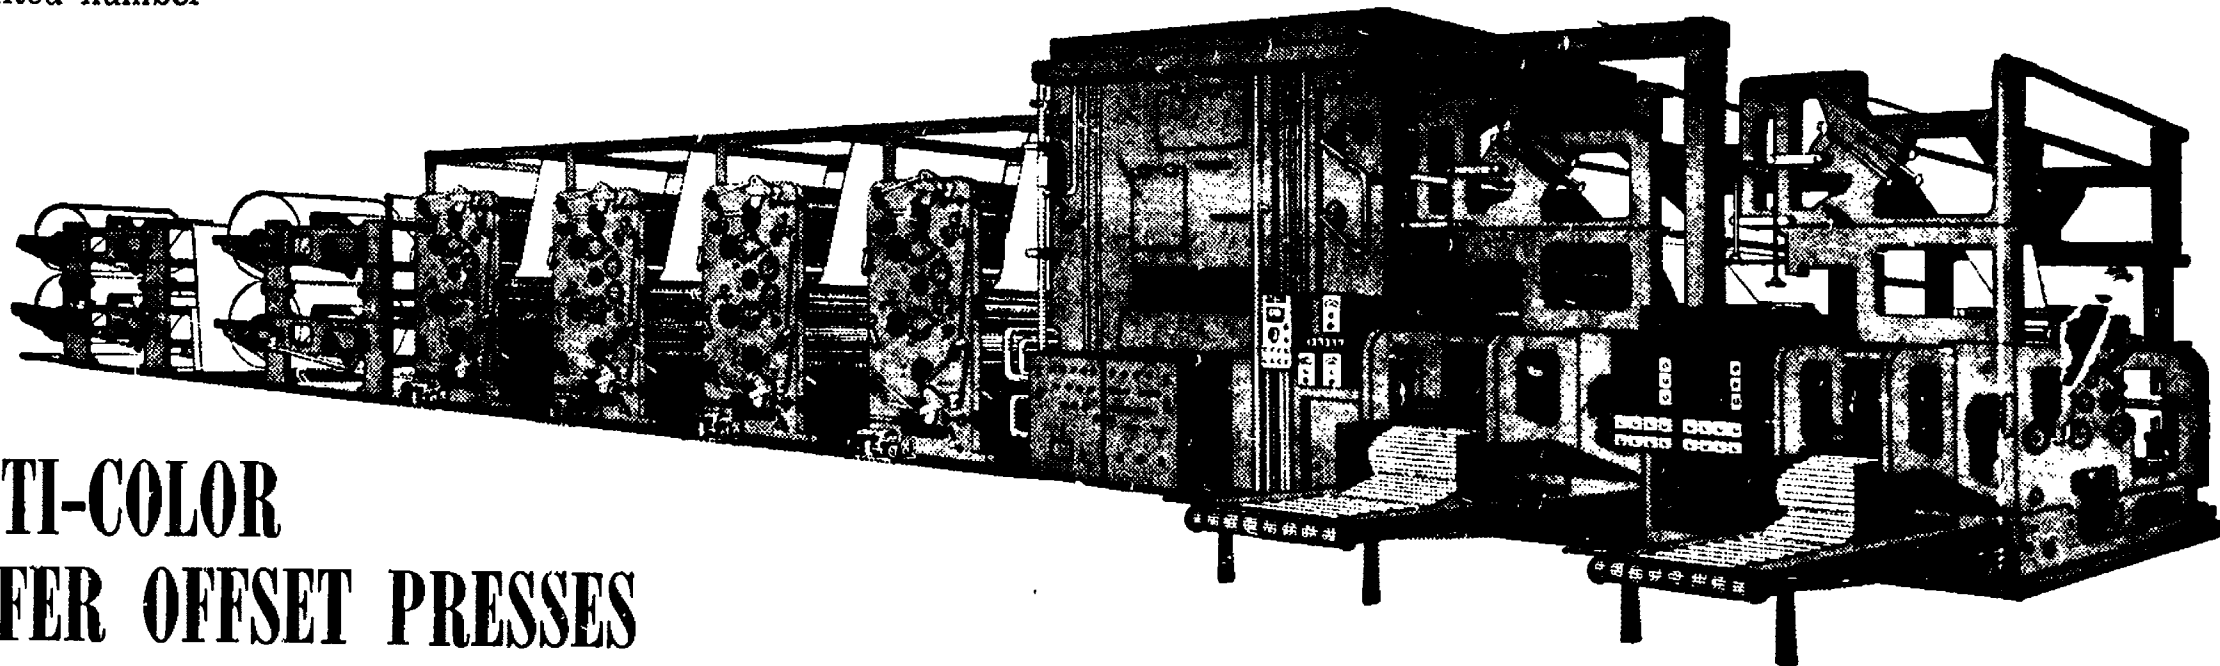

SOME PRINTING PLANTS are geared to produce only large runs, others small runs. By contrast, "PAK" is flexible enough to handle both . . . because "PAK" has equipment best suited for the job. The very high speeds of the web offset and web letterpress presses are employed whenever quantities exceed 10,000. For smaller quantities, Kramer's smaller sheet-fed presses are used. This versatility allows a run of only 200 to be handled as efficiently as a run of a million. A high standard of quality is retained in both!

PAK'S Hi-Speed Universal Rotary Newspaper Presses

Capable of producing 40 full-size newspaper pages or 80 tabloid-size newspaper pages with one additional color on each page. Press speed 36,000 per hour. Almost an unlimited number of colors on one web.

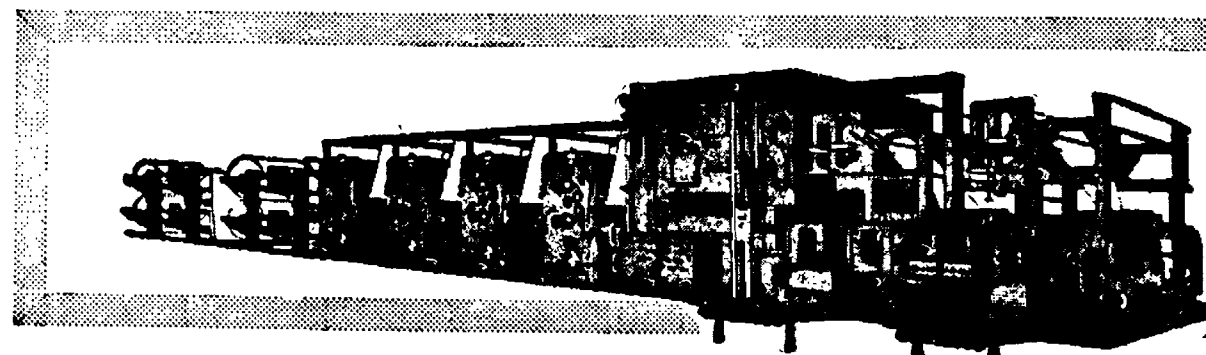

5 UNIT GOSS UNIVERSAL

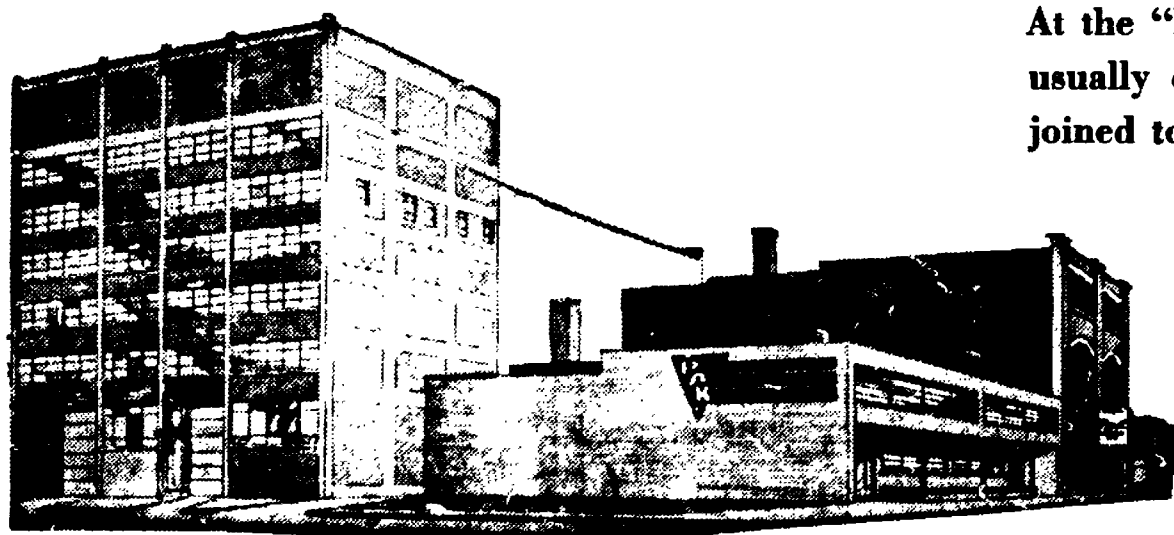

PAK'S MULTI-COLOR WEBENDORFER OFFSET PRESSES

Geared to produce 50,000 high-quality "signatures" per hour on the finest of papers, these presses are of the very latest blanket-to-blanket design.

In this 20th century world of color these presses have the rhythm and speed of the "jet" age. Combined with craftsmanship this means a fine product for less cost.

To the Qualified Electors of the City of

Grosse Pointe Woods Michigan

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that at the Regular City Election to be held in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan on Monday, April 5, 1965, there will be submitted to the electors of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, the following amendments to the City Charter thereof, to-wit:

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 4.2 OF CHAPTER 4 OF THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Compensation of the Mayor and Councilmen:
SECTION 4.2 Effective April 5, 1965 each Councilman shall receive as compensation the sum of $30.00 for each Regular Meeting and Special Meeting and Executive Committee Meeting of the Council which he attends, but the compensation shall not exceed $1,500.00 in any year, and the Mayor shall receive as compensation the sum of $40.00 for each Regular Meeting and Special Meeting and Executive Committee Meeting which he attends, but the compensation so paid shall not exceed $2,000.00 in any year. A year shall be determined as commencing on the Monday following the Regular City Election.

Such salaries shall be paid monthly and except as otherwise provided in this Charter shall constitute the only compensation which may be paid the Mayor or Councilmen for the discharge of any official duty for or in behalf of the City during their term of office. However, the Mayor and Councilmen may, upon order of the Council, be paid such necessary bonafide expenses incurred in service in behalf of the City as are authorized and itemized.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 5.11 OF CHAPTER 5 OF THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Employee Welfare Benefits.
SECTION 5.11 The Council shall have the power to finance and provide group life, health and accident, and hospitalization and surgical benefit insurance for the administrative officers and employees of the City and its departments and boards, and the dependents of such administrative officers and employees, by the adoption of any recognized standard plan of group life, health and accident, or hospitalization and surgical benefit insurance.

The existing provisions of the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods proposed to be amended are as follows:

CHAPTER 4, SECTION 4.2 OF THE CITY CHARTER OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS as amended by the electors on April 2, 1956:

Compensation of Mayor and Councilmen
SECTION 4.2 Each Councilman and the Mayor shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars ($15.00) for each Regular/Special meeting of the Council which he attends but the compensation so paid shall not exceed four hundred dollars ($400.00) in any year, such year to be determined as commencing as of the Monday following the Regular City Election. The Mayor shall, in addition, receive the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) per year for each year of his term of office served.

Such salaries shall be paid monthly and except as otherwise provided in this Charter shall constitute the only compensation which may be paid the Mayor or Councilmen for the discharge of any official duty for or in behalf of the City during their term of office. However, the Mayor and Councilmen may, upon order of the Council, be paid such necessary bonafide expenses incurred in service in behalf of the City as are authorized and itemized.

CHAPTER 5, SECTION 5.11 OF THE CITY CHARTER OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS

Employee Welfare Benefits
SECTION 5.11 The Council shall have the power to adopt and make available to the administrative officers and employees of the city and its departments and boards, any recognized standard plan of group life, hospital, health or accident insurance.

Beauty
By Line

Radiant, healthy hair is rapidly taking its place as a status symbol... as much or even more to be desired than an elaborate Roman size bathtub and indoor swimming pools. It has been said that Otto Preminger has two tubs in one bathroom of his fabulous house in Manhattan's East Sixties... along with paintings by Picasso and Chagall. Not everyone can afford or find pleasure in such far-out luxuries.

Fashion-wise women know that there isn't an adequate substitute for beautiful manageable hair—or the scientific approach to hairdressing. Limp, lifeless, dull tresses are "out"—and repairs should be under way by revitalizing the hair with a series of Natural Organic Protein Polypeptide Treatments.

Of course such care takes time—but lucky is the woman who has the time to give her crowning glory the care worthy of her finest possessions. The cost? Not nearly as much as you might think.

Church Exhibits Oriental Art

A few weeks ago, there was a unique exhibit of Oriental Christian Art at the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Among entries were 15 stencils on hand-made paper by Sado Watanabe, the print-maker of Tokyo, Japan, and a group of prints on the Life of Christ by Chinese artists.

At the opening of the exhibit,

In And About Music Club to Meet April 3

The spring meeting of the In And About Music Educators Club is scheduled at 12 o'clock Saturday, April 3, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. Punch will be served from 11:30 until noon.

The program will be sung by the Ken Jewell Choral. Community singing will be led by Eric Freudigmann, of Cooley High School, Detroit.

All who enjoy fine music, whether music educators or not, are invited to attend the meeting.

Engineering Society Wives Plan Party, Fashion Show

Planning an evening of pleasure with a "benefit" in mind, the Engineering Society of Detroit Junior Wives will sponsor a card party and fashion show at 8 o'clock March 31, in the Rackham Building ballroom.

Proceeds from the annual benefit will send to summer camp children from Pilgrim's Project, a day care center for needy mentally retarded children. Tickets are $1.75 each and may be purchased from chairman Mrs. Bruno Boelstler, (Tel. 791-3544).

Childbirth Association Having Spring Bazaar

The Childbirth Without Pain Education Association announces its forthcoming Spring "Mother-Baby" Bazaar, to be held at the Northwest Y.W.C.A., in Grand River avenue, on Monday and Tuesday, March 29 and 30, from 9:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

William A. Bostick, of the Detroit Institute of Arts, gave an illustrated address on "Religion and the Creative Arts."

These fascinating pieces will be on display again at a coffee hour at the church, following the morning service this Sunday.

Chairmen of the exhibit are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neff, of Fisher road, with Dr. Allan A. Zaun, of Westchester road, Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church Minister, serving as ex officio chairman.

Committee members include William Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aird.

Delta Zeta Alumnae Assist Hearing Center

A giant step was taken in the Detroit Hearing Center's testing program when a check for purchase of a new audiometer was presented to the Center's acting president, Dr. Ralph Rupp, by Mrs. John Lay, of Livonia, philanthropic chairman, and Mrs. L. M. Gilewicki, of Allard road, president of the Metropolitan Delta Zeta Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta.

This additional piece of equipment will allow the Center to continue its screening program at headquarters in Ash street, Detroit, while conducting case finding projects throughout the metropolitan area by expanding the program begun last spring.

At that time, the Center's only audiometer was housed in a mobile trailer and placed at shopping centers and public squares, where the public was invited to stop by and get a free hearing test. Over 3,000 persons took advantage of this opportunity.

The Detroit Hearing Center, a Torch Drive agency, is affiliated with the American Hearing Society, one of Delta Zeta's national philanthropic projects.

The sorority, both nationally and locally, has always been concerned with problems of the deaf and hard-of-hearing. Philanthropic contributions in the past have included purchase of hearing aids for needy children, furnishing the library at Galaudet College, (only accredited college for the deaf in the United States), and, more recently, the Detroit Alumnae's purchase of equipment for the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Wayne State University.

Current fund-raising project is a theater party, sponsored by the East Side Group, scheduled March 26 and 27. Sorority members and friends will attend performances of "Sunday in New York," staged by the Grosse Pointe Community Theater in Fries Auditorium. For tickets, contact Mrs. William Kamm, TUXedo 4-5542.

GOP Women Visit Lansing

For its monthly meeting, the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe had a field trip to Lansing on March 16.

Arriving by chartered bus at 10:30 o'clock, the club first visited the monthly board meeting of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Republican Clubs. First vice president Mrs. George L. Panches, of Bridgeport, presided over the meeting in the absence of the State Federation president, Mrs. A. E. Benton, of Battle Creek.

Four of the Grosse Pointe club's members hold offices on the State Federation board: Mrs. Albert Blixt, of Hawthorne road, is fourth vice president and legislative chairman; Mrs. Francis Congdon, of Barclay road, is co-membership chairman; Mrs. John Lynch, of Lakeland avenue, is Ways and Means chairman; and Mrs. G. Sam Zilly, of Merriweather road, is second vice president and program chairman.

Guests at the board meeting included Republican National Committeewomen Mrs. Albert S. Koeze, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Wendell Hobbs, of Ann Arbor, assistant to the Republican state chairman, in charge of the women's division.

Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr., president of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe, conducted the business meeting during luncheon in Lansing, with the State Federation board members sitting in attendance as guests.

Representative Clifford H. Smart, of Walled Lake, 60th Legislative District, was guest speaker. Representative Smart is a member of the Education Committee of the Michigan House of Representatives and in his address, outlined the procedures which must be taken to introduce a new bill and get it passed.

He also spoke briefly on House Bill 2122, concerning the reorganization of school districts, which was being discussed in the Education committee.

Visiting the House of Representatives, club members heard the debate on a bill which would require citizens to re-register after a four year period if they had not voted during this time, instead of after a two-year period, which is now Michigan law. The bill was passed, despite the opposition of Representative Robert Waldron, of Grosse Pointe, and many other Republican legislators.

In the State Senate, Grosse Pointers heard the debate on a resolution which was written to chastise a group of University of Michigan professors who had announced plans to cancel classes on March 24 and hold meetings in opposition to U.S. policy in Vietnam.

Palm Sunday Brunch Planned

The Bon Secours Hospital Guild is sponsoring a Palm Sunday Brunch April 11, from 11 until 2 o'clock, at Eddie Pawl's in East Warren avenue.

Tickets are $2.50 for adults, $1.25 for children under 12, and may be purchased in advance by contacting Mrs. E. Wood Wachter, TUXedo 2-6209, or Mrs. Louis Decker, TUXedo 2-6677.

Brunch chairmen are Mrs. M. M. Sepic, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, and Mrs. T. R. Colliard, of Moran road.

Plan Bake Sale At St. Ambrose

A spring fair and annual bake sale is scheduled Saturday, April 3, from 8 until 4 o'clock, at St. Ambrose Parish Hall, Maryland and Hampton roads.

Dartmouth Grads To Meet At DGC

Plans have been completed for the annual meeting of the Dartmouth Alumni Association, scheduled tomorrow, Friday, March 26, at the Detroit Golf Club.

Dinner and dancing will follow the meeting. President of the college John Sloan Dickey, himself an alumnus, will address the group.

U of D Women's Guild To Gather on April 6

The University of Detroit Women's Guild will hold its meeting in U. of D.'s Student Union Building on Tuesday, April 6, at 1:30 o'clock.

The Reverend J. Richard Dempsey, S.J., associate professor of Economics and Management, will speak on "Social Responsibility." Mrs. Joseph Dumochelle will be tea hostess for the afternoon.

To the Qualified Electors of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, County of Wayne:

Notice is hereby given that the Spring Election will be held in the City of Grosse Pointe Park, Wayne County, Michigan on April 5, 1965. Polls will be open from 7:00 A.M. until 8:00 P.M. for the purpose of electing the following:

NON-PARTISAN CITY

- 1 Mayor
- 3 Councilmen
- 1 Municipal Judge

NON-PARTISAN

- 1 Judge of the Circuit Court, 3rd Judicial Circuit and for the purpose of voting on these following

PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENTS

The purpose of these amendments is to fix in the City's Charter work hours and vacations of firemen, thereby removing from the Fire Chief, City Manager and Council their present functions of determining such matters in the light of the City's finances and policies as to all personnel. Proposal 1 would require that, over an eight week cycle of 56 days, the firemen would be at work 19 days (of 24 hours each) and off work 37 days (of 24 hours each). Proposal 2 would require that each fireman (regardless of length of service) receive the same 20 day vacation.

The text of these amendments is:

An amendment to the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, as amended, to add a new section thereto, to be designated as Section 5.14, entitled "Firemen's Work Week" as follows:

It is hereby ordained and established by the people of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, Wayne County, Michigan, that the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, as amended, be amended by the addition of a new section thereto, as follows:

Section 5.14 Firemen's Work Week.

(a) Hereafter, the leave of absence of uniformed members of the Fire Department shall be for each member, one (1) day of twenty-four (24) hours off duty in every forty-eight (48) hours and an additional twenty-four (24) consecutive hours off duty in each six (6) day period (said additional twenty-four (24) consecutive hours to be joined with proximate regular leave days so as to afford a leave period of seventy-two (72) consecutive hours).

(b) Hereafter, the furlough for uniformed members of the Fire Department shall be for each member twenty (20) days in each year, of which at least ten (10) days shall be consecutive.

(c) All charter provisions, or parts thereof, and all ordinances, or parts thereof, in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

(d) This amendment is declared to be severable, and should any word, phrase, sentence, provision or sub-section hereof be hereafter declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, or be disapproved by referendum, the remainder of this amendment shall not thereby be affected, but shall remain valid and in full force and effect for all intents and purposes.

(e) This amendment shall be effective July 1, 1965.

The questions on the ballot will be stated as follows:

PROPOSAL NO. 1

Firemen's 56 Hour Work Week Charter Amendment
Shall the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Park be amended to reduce the average work week of fire fighters of the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Department from 63 hours per week to 56 hours per week and to designate the arrangement of leave days?

PROPOSAL NO. 2

Shall the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Park be amended to provide for fire fighters of the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Department a furlough of 20 days in each year, of which at least 10 days shall be consecutive?

Parley Planned By Sigma Nus

The High Council, Board of Trustees, and the Executive Secretary of Sigma Nu fraternity, national social fraternity founded January 1, 1869, at Virginia Military Institute and headquartered at Lexington, Va., composed of 135 chapters in 36 regional divisions, convenes at Dearborn Inn April 2 and 3 to conduct its annual affairs.

A quarter of a century ago on March 29, the Detroit Alumni Association were hosts to its distinguished officers at the Detroit Leland Hotel.

Plans jointly include a workshop Saturday at 1 p.m. for undergraduate members of Michigan chapters of the 15th Division—Albion, U. of M., Michigan State, and G. M. Institute.

At 5 p.m. Saturday, a hospitality hour followed by a banquet will provide opportunity for all members to join in fraternal fellowship and hear from the Executive Secretary Dick Fletcher.

Invitations have been mailed to all Detroit Alumni addresses of record. Newcomers are also welcome. For information, please call U. G. Palmer, LO 1-8836, William H. Goddington, WO 1-2108, or write Willard Sanders, 2186 Penobscott Bldg., WO 1-1840.

Panhellenic Association To Hold Open Meeting

The Detroit Area Professional Panhellenic Association is holding its next open meeting, theme of which is "Getting To Know You," on Sunday, March 28, at 3 o'clock at the Wayne State University Alumnae House.

Participating will be the national leaders, who live in the Detroit Area, of the nine professional fraternities for women which are members of the national Professional Panhellenic Association.

Member fraternities located in the Detroit area are: Alpha Delta Delta (medical technology); Delta Omicron (music); Kappa Beta Pi (law); Lambda Kappa Sigma (pharmacy); Mu Phi Epsilon (music); Phi Chi Theta (business and economics); Phi Gamma Nu (commerce); Sigma Alpha Iota (music); and Theta Sigma Phi (journalism and communications).

There are 24 chapters of these fraternities located in the Detroit area on the campuses of Wayne State University, Detroit Conservatory of Music, University of Detroit, Mercy College, Institute of Musical Art and Detroit College of Law, as well as alumnae groups.

Serving as chairman of the event is Mrs. William F. Pishalski, of Ridgmont road, national vice-president of the Professional Panhellenic Association, as well as president of the local group.

Flower Fixing Class Starting

A spring flower arrangement class will begin at Grosse Pointe War Memorial tomorrow, Friday, March 26, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Taught by Mrs. Richard T. Gerathy, the 10-week course will make use of all the bulbs and blossoms soon to be bursting forth.

Mrs. Gerathy will emphasize the many beautiful and effective ways branches of spring blossoms can be used.

Another art which Mrs. Gerathy teaches which the ladies find fascinating is the making of "boutique baskets," which, with original party ideas is one of the most popular features of the course.

Mrs. Gerathy also stresses the use of accessories in flower arrangements. Figurines, candles, etc., can be added to the effectiveness of many floral arrangements.

Those wishing to enroll in the spring flower arranging course are asked to come to the Center by 9:45 this Friday morning, so registrations may be accomplished without interfering with class time.

Classes Are Offered At Downtown YWCA

Wonderful things are happening at the Downtown YWCA. For five consecutive Tuesdays, starting March 23, a special class called Just Desserts is being offered.

In this laboratory class, taught by Mrs. Dorothy Covert, class participants will first learn to make basic pie and pastry dough and the basic cake batters such as butter and sponge.

Then they will go on to create such delicacies as Savarin Rings, Baba au Rhum, Crepe Suzettes, Seven Layer Rum Torte, Baked Alaska, Nesselrode Pie, Chocolate eclairs and cream puffs.

The regular spring term of classes at the Downtown YWCA begins the week of April 5. Over sixty classes are offered. Among the new classes is Opera Preview. This seven week class will study, hear and discuss the music and librettos, the composers and performers of the Detroit Opera series to be given here by the New York Metropolitan Opera Company during the last week of May. Tickets to some of the operas will also be available to class members.

Ladies who want to make part of or all of their Easter wardrobes will find classes in Dressmaking, Advanced Tailoring, and Millinery. A special sewing workshop is offered for those who are interested in children's spring and summer clothes or in alterations and repairs. For those who are concerned about those all important matching accessories, a class will also be given in Bags and Shoes.

Couples are welcome in many classes. These include Bridge for Beginners, Intermediate Bridge and Supervised Play, and several of the professionally staffed and taught sports classes such as golf and tennis. Special couple prices are available for the Opera Preview, German, French and Spanish language classes and for English as a Second Language.

To receive the complete spring program booklet, call the Downtown YWCA at WO 1-9220.

Social Security Advice Offered

If a worker in your family dies, some member of the family should inquire at the social security office to see if survivors benefits are payable. Francis L. Pendergast, social security district manager of the Detroit-East office, advises.

Death in the family, especially where there are young children, can mean the shattering of dreams and hopes for the children's future. Social Security benefits can mean the difference between the shattered dreams and the security of a continuing income and a happy home life.

According to Pendergast, 9 out of every 10 young children and their mothers can count on the survivors' benefits to keep the family together. Survivors benefits may be payable to young children when the mother, who has been working, dies, even though the father is the family's primary source of support.

Nearly 4 1/2 million survivors of deceased workers are receiving monthly benefits. The average benefit paid to a widowed mother with two children is about $190 per month.

Visit, write or telephone your social security office at 17731 E. Warren. The people there will be glad to give you any information or assistance you need.

Alpha Sigma Alpha
To Meet April 10

Alpha Sigma Alpha, group one, will convene for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon on April 10 at the McMillan road home of Mrs. William Buchinger. Mrs. Charles Jorgenson, of Berkshire road, will assist.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
Fries Auditorium
The conversion and baptism of Saul of Tarsus, as told in the Acts of the Apostles, plays an important part in the Bible Lesson on "Reality" which will be heard at Christian Science churches Sunday.

Also included will be these lines from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (pp. 324-5): "When the truth first appeared to him in Science, Paul was made blind, and his blindness was felt; but spiritual light soon enabled him to follow the example and teachings of Jesus, healing the sick and preaching Christianity throughout Asia Minor, Greece, and even in imperial Rome. He who has the true idea of good loses all sense of evil, and by reason of this is being ushered into the undying realities of Spirit."

THIS NORTH AMERICAN AIR DEFENSE COMMAND map of our radar defenses shows the four U.S. Navy manned bases being phased out this year as obsolete and unnecessary. They are the Pacific Barrier, the Greenland-United Kingdom Barrier and the two Offshore Barriers in the Pacific and Atlantic. USAF planes will replace the radar ships and Navy plane surveillance. Other radar screens—the Ballistic Missile Early Warning System (BMEWS), The Distant Early Warning Line (DEW), and Mid-Canada Line will stay.

ASKS $8,000 MONTH—Actor Lee Marvin, 41, and estranged wife Betty Marie, 36, are shown in Santa Monica, Calif., court, where she asks $8,000 a month—$5,000 alimony and $3,000 support for their four children. She said he caused her "great anguish and mental suffering" and also "made her ill and unhappy." They wed 14 years ago.

IRELAND, FROM 450 MILES UP—NASA comes out with this photo showing all of Ireland, sent to Earth by the weather satellite Nimbus 1 from 450 miles. At upper right is the coast of Scotland, at lower right, Wales.

TESTING, TESTING—Astronauts John Young (left) and Gus Grissom walk away from Pad 19 at Cape Kennedy, Fla., after a series of flight tests and medical checks for their Gemini flight. Beyond are the pad and gantry housing the Titan rocket that will whosh them into space.

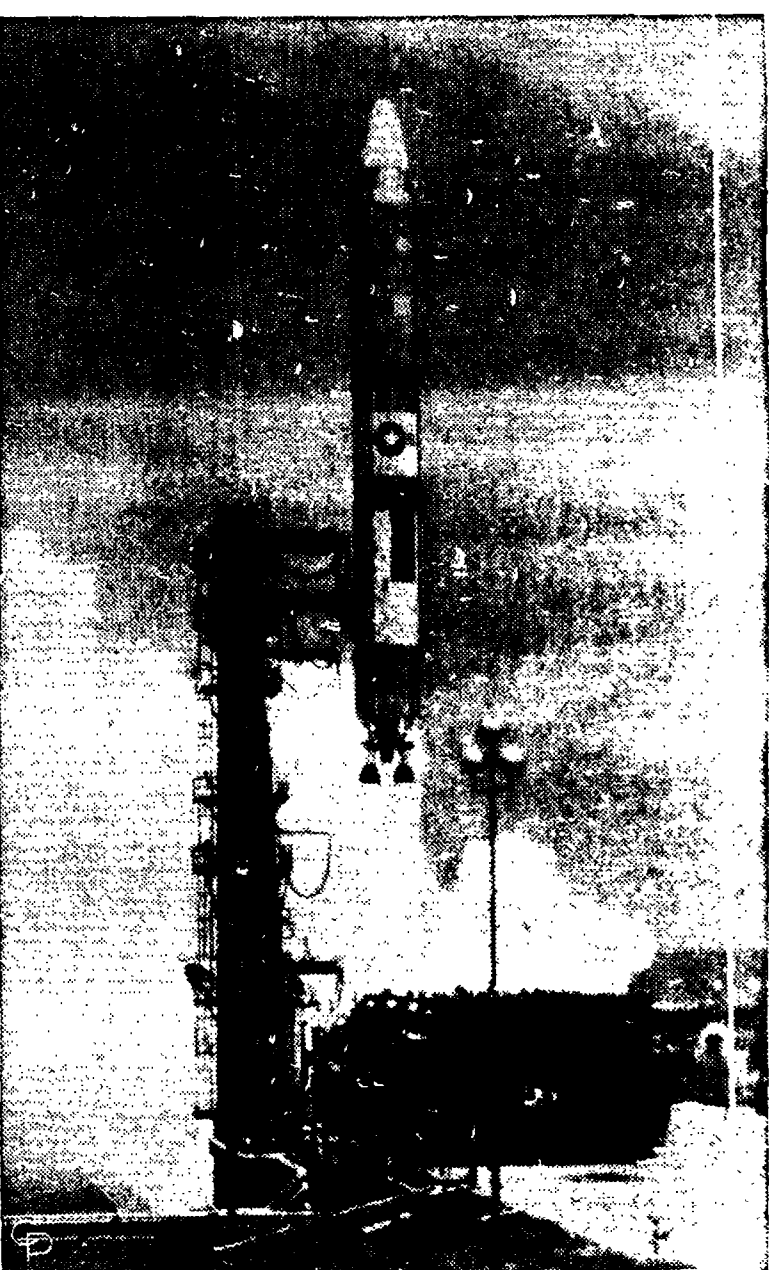

A RAPPROCHMENT, as they say in diplomatic circles, is underway in London with the meeting arranged between Queen Elizabeth and the wife of "Uncle David," the Duchess of Windsor. It comes about because of the duke's third eye operation in a London hospital. Elizabeth was 11 years old nearly three decades ago when the duke, then King Edward, abdicated to marry the former Wallis Warfield, a divorcee. And the royal family proceeded to ignore her.

NEW MONEY MAN—Henry H. Fowler is congratulated by President Johnson in the White House on his appointment to succeed C. Douglas Dillon as secretary of the Treasury. Fowler, 56, a Virginian, resigned as undersecretary last year.

GUERRILLA HUNT—The helicopters soar away after discharging their human cargo as the cargo, South Vietnamese Rangers, fans out in guerrilla hunt at Bao Lieu, South Viet Nam.

THIS IS THE TITAN-2 rocket used to orbit the Gemini astronauts. It is 90 feet high, has two stages, and has nearly half again as much thrust as the Atlas that orbited the Project Mercury astronauts.

HAZARD OF SMOKING—James A. Farrer, 28, holds what looks like an exploding cigar in Los Angeles. It was a .22-caliber bullet in it. Farrer, a University of Southern California medical student, told police he bought a packet of five at the USC bookstore and this was the fourth he smoked. The police notified the FBI about the case.

SHE'S 21—Lynda Bird Johnson, the President's oldest daughter, reads some of her birthday cards in the White House. She was 21 March 19.

POTATO SACK—Model Suzanne Markell wears designer Clive's simple potato sack frock at a charity showing in London. Get a load of that cross ventilation.

EX-FROGMAN NAMED—Rear Adm. Draper L. Kauffman (above), who won the Navy Cross and Legion of Merit commanding underwater demolitions at Saipan, Iwo Jima and Okinawa in World War II, has been named superintendent of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Kauffman, 53, was graduated there in 1929.

"DEAR... FRIEND"—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, at his vacation place at Indio, Calif., says the world has lost one of its great men and he is a "dear and close friend" in death of Sir Winston Churchill.

Prize for the most startling pet . . . in The Pointe goes to Mrs. Robert F. Weber, of Lakeshore road, whose mina bird likes to greet visitors with the provocative admonition: "Watch out! I'm an eagle!"

It makes you think twice: . . . A sign in the dental offices of Dr. Frank J. Orleman, of Merriweather road, next to a particularly luscious box of peanut brittle: "Try it. Help yourself. It's good for my business."

Rosario Maria De Borro, of Montevideo, Uruguay . . . has announced her marriage plans through her "American parents," Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Bolton, of Three Mile drive. Rosario, called Rose by her fellow students at Grosse Pointe High School, was graduated from GPHS in 1963 . . .

. . . Living in The Pointe for 11 months with the Bolton family, Rosario "fell in love with the United States," and expressed her desire to return some day. This fall, the 20-year-old senorita's wish comes true. Back home, in Uruguay, she fell in love with an American, Peter Stewart, a Marine stationed at the United States Embassy in Montevideo . . .

. . . In September, Peter will bring his bride to Boston, Mass., where they will make their home. He plans to finish work on his engineering degree at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The 24-year-old Marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stewart, Sr., of Boston, is the oldest of five brothers . . .

. . . Rosario's year at the High School was sponsored by the "Youth for Understanding" program of the Michigan Council of Churches. Upon her return to Uruguay, she became a Spanish-English translator for an American concern in Montevideo and appeared on local television as a translator in educational programs . . .

. . . She was extremely active in promoting the "Youth for Understanding" program in her native city, and has kept in close touch with her American mother and father via frequent letters. She remembers the holidays here—Valentine's, St. Patrick's and Columbus Day—the pizzas and pancakes, varsity games at the High, Lake St. Clair and "West Side Story's" musical album . . .

. . . She recalls her personal meeting with Governor Romney, asks about the inner-city tutorial program in which she participated, (she taught an eight-year-old Maltese to read and write English), asks to be remembered to neighbors and classmates who helped her make the transition from one culture to another "an exciting and wonderful experience" . . .

. . . She looks forward to returning to the States, with her husband. There will be nothing frightening about the experience, nothing shocking . . . but Rosario will be excited, of course. You're always excited when you're Coming Home.

That Very Talented Pointer . . . Mike Quatro, of Torrey road, has a new record out, "On The Go Go," you can hear it and see Mike this Saturday, at 4 o'clock, on the television program Teen Town.

Yoga Classes Being Offered

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnston, Jr. will give a free demonstration of Yoga at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial

Monday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock. It is patently designed to interest folks in taking the spring series of Yoga Classes which immediately follow at the Center.

On Tuesday nights beginning March 30, Mrs. Johnston will teach yoga exercises mental and physical to women. The beginners group will meet at 7:30, the advanced group at 8:30. On Wednesday nights Mr. Johnston will teach a mixed class.

Everyone may study Yoga and reap the rewards of physical and mental relaxation for $1 a lesson. Those who have tried it swear by it. It seems to have an answer for present day tensions.

MRS. LEO MARX, OF YORKSHIRE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Anne Marx is one of those women who know how to get things done. Faced with chairmanship of the 1965-66 Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series, sponsored annually by Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, she neither panicked nor plunged, but set about calmly to do the job at hand.

It is not a particularly easy job. Mrs. Marx must form a talent committee, take into consideration the tastes and attitudes of all members of the audience, (not necessarily her own tastes and attitudes), check with agents, consider lecturers' schedules, put together a varied and stimulating program.

And then she must sell the Celebrity Series tickets—not too difficult a task, as Pointe matrons are usually standing in line to snap up the $12 ticket books even before a final lecture slate is announced.

Mrs. Marx has help, of course. Her committee members are dedicated, efficient . . . and they frankly enjoy their jobs. (It's fun to meet with talent agents and "book" celebrities).

Much Work Required But the organization aspect of any big project, even a "glamorous" project, still involves a considerable amount of plain, plodding, routine work.

Anne Marx knows how to tackle plain, plodding, routine work. She is a mother, skilled in dealing with the chronic crises inherent in raising two sons and a daughter.

Lee (Leo Marx, Jr.), 18, is a freshman at the College of St. Thomas. St. Paul Minn. Owen, 17, will be graduated from Austin Catholic Prep this June, and Katy, 13, is in the eighth grade at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road.

The Marx family, "old Detroiters," are relatively "new Pointers." They moved here four years ago, primarily because of the schools.

Anne Marx, born in New Bedford, Mass., and educated in New England, (she earned her M.A. at Boston University), came to Michigan as a bride, settling in Wyandotte, where her husband had many ties.

Her mother was a member of the Beaubien clan, his father's family had been prominent in the downriver area since the mid-19th century.

Marx girls were traditionally educated at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, however, boarding during the week because of the distance between home and school. Mr. Marx wanted his daughter to continue this tradition and he wanted his sons to be educated in all-boy schools.

Obvious Solution Anne "couldn't see Katy as a boarder at the convent" . . . and she didn't want Lee and Owen sent away for high school. The obvious solution was a move, to the Pointe, where Austin and Sacred Heart Academy were right around the corner.

Anne and Leo Marx were not exactly strangers here; they had many friends in The Pointe. But for a Marx to move after one hundred years downriver . . .

"A friend of ours said, 'The Marxes leaving Wyandotte is like the Pope leaving Rome,'" Anne laughs.

Nonetheless, move they did, after first adding a family room and bedroom to their newly purchased house in Yorkshire road.

They built the family room, with its beamed ceiling and enclosed fireplace, around a rug they had first spotted five years ago in a local art store, and had "kept their eyes on."

Knowing they wanted to move, they waited, debating whether or not to leave Wyandotte, "until it looked like the rug was going to be sold—then we made up our minds to go to The Pointe."

to do during the summer, and family vacations are shorter.

Wants to See Europe But there is more time and more opportunity for Anne and Leo Marx to vacation together.

Anne loved Palm Springs, Calif. She has never left the Western Hemisphere, but hopes some day to spend a month or two touring Europe with her husband.

Leo Marx traveled in Europe when he was in the service, and returned a few years ago on a business-pleasure trip. Anne stayed home, to see that the children got safely off to camp.

Actually, she had no desire to do Europe "on the run" — "When I finally go, I want TIME there!"

The Marxes' favorite family get-together time is Sunday morning, when they all generally go somewhere for brunch. They have not completely severed their downriver ties; there are many family gatherings during the year, with Wyandotte and Trenton relatives.

But Anne Marx feels there is one aspect of life in The Pointe only residents can understand.

"When I lived in Wyandotte, I used to visit here (in The Pointe) a great deal. A lot of my Pointe friends would say, 'I never go downtown.' I really thought it was sort of an affection."

"But it's true — we're self-contained here. Of course, you're bound to see more if you go downtown . . . but somehow, you just don't go; everything you need is here."

Even celebrities . . . brought to The Pointe's Esquire Theatre six times a year via Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League-sponsored Celebrity Series.

"The agents have acquired a real desire to work with the people at Bon Secours," Anne notes. "They seem to love all the chairmen they have dealt with before."

GEEAKKEN KIP MET CHAMPIGNONS

(Breast of Chicken with Pate of Chicken Livers Served with Truffles and Mushroom Sauce) Contributed by Helen Blair

- 2 chicken breasts
- 7 oz. pate de foie gras salt and pepper flour
- 1 egg
- bread crumbs (very fine)
- ¼ cup butter

Be firm with your butcher about giving you chicken breasts with the skin intact. With a flat knife or thin spatula, spread the pate between the skin and meat of the breasts. Salt and pepper them. Dip into flour, or sprinkle lightly with flour. Dip into egg white and then bread crumbs. Fry in butter, skin side down first, until golden. Reduce heat and cook covered, gently, for about 20 minutes, adding more butter if necessary. Serves four.

- 2 lbs. chicken livers
- ½ lb. fresh fat bacon
- 1 small can mushrooms
- 2 Tbsp. Madeira
- ½ lb. butter
- 10 slices smoked fat bacon
- 1 tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. pepper
- ½ tsp. marjoram or oregano
- ½ tsp. ground cloves

Wash chicken livers in cold water. Put the liver, with ½ lb. fresh fat bacon, through a meat chopper twice. Soak the mushrooms in the Madeira. Melt the butter and add all the spices, the mushrooms, and the Madeira to the liver mixture. Mix well. Cover the bottom and sides of a pudding mold with slices of bacon, put the mixture in, and cover with the rest of the slices of bacon. Cover the pudding mold well and put in a pan of hot water. Steam in a moderate oven, (350°) for three hours. Makes eight servings.

you send out letters, explaining that you will be making arrangements for next year's Series—almost before I got the letters in the mail, the agents were asking to see the talent committee."

The Marx home was the scene of many meetings between talent committee members and various agents before the final 1965-66 program was decided upon—and then rearranged, when the ladies learned that Winston Churchill II, planned a speaking tour in the States. He will open next season's Celebrity Series, October 14.

The other speakers, (in order of appearance), are Robert Q. Lewis, Betty Furness, Eddie Fredericks, Edward Weeks and Count Sarni.

of the Series (Mr. Sampson will take on Mr. Orr's assignment as "fill-in" moderator).

Through ticket sales, and ad sales in the big Series program, mailed at the beginning of each season, the Assistance League annually raises about $10,000 for the hospital.

Each lecture is followed by a Celebrity subscription luncheon, at Al Green's, with a dessert and coffee question-and-answer period.

The only "bad" thing about the Series is that there are never enough tickets to go around. Ticket books, (no single tickets are sold), may be obtained by contacting the hospital or ticket chairman Mrs. Donald G. Cherry, of Stratford place, 881-1350.

This year, Celebrity Series gift certificates are available for the first time—but they must be turned in for ticket books as quickly as possible, to avoid disappointments.

Even Anne Marx, who "knows how to get things done" can't think of a way to fit 100 extra seats or so into the Esquire Theatre.

Decor Is Renovated At Detroit Golf Club

The many Pointers who regularly play and party at the Detroit Golf Club are excited over DGC's "New Look."

The interior has been redesigned and up-dated, with the clubhouse's mellow traditional architecture providing a perfect background for its new furnishings and decorations.

The foyer and corridors have been painted a soft, iridescent white. Filmy off-white casement curtains, tone-on-tone white embossed damask draperies, trimmed with white and gold braid, new crimson and gold carpet of and Georgian Lambrequins are featured at the windows overlooking the terrace.

A new, wide arch makes the library, where walnut panelling has been inserted between the reeded columns, accessible from the foyer.

The furnishings are 18th century English, in tones of meadow green and gold. The new crimson and gold carpet of the foyer extends into the redesigned ladies card room.

Here, walls are panelled with floored variegated gold-shaded coverings, and the draperies and Georgian cornices are coin gold damask. Each of the panels is accented by a hand-carved, illuminated wall sconce.

The furniture is finished in crimson, geometrically designed damask. Highlight of the decor is an antique, overscaled English Empire sideboard, standing below an elegantly carved mirror.

The ladies powder room is done in derivative shades of raspberry, pink and watermelon. Draperies and festoons are fashioned of raspberry velvet, trimmed with cascading white fringe.

The two west auxiliary dining rooms, facing the golf course, have been finished with simulated metal leaf, gold-glazed blocks, accented by unlined casement curtains, overdraperies and soft valances, in aqua, natural and gold fabric.

Among DGC members from the Pointe area currently enjoying their club's new decor are the Frederick A. Kaisers, the Herbert G. Henchels, the Willis M. Carpenters, the Jack Simmerers and the Robert C. Webers.

More are the William J. Athansons, the Harold Burtons, the Donald Jennings, the Harold Lightbodies, the William E. Snethkamps, the J. Edward Van Horns, the Robert E. Burchetts, the Harry E. Foulkrods, the Gordon L. Ginters and the Erwin H. Grahams.

Still more are Harry J. Loynd, the Angus C. MacLeods, the Harding H. MacDonas, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fouts, the Bernard F. Fountains, the Ernest L. Rushmers, the Willard E. Slaters and Mr. and Mrs. Alter Gross.

13,000 Volunteers Ready For Easter Seal Parade

More than 13,000 volunteers will march in a family-to family Easter Seal "Parade" on Tuesday, March 30, to rally support, personal and financial, for rehabilitation services for the community's crippled children and adults.

Area volunteers will be working throughout the day until 8:30 p.m. under guidance of 1965 Campaign Chairman Paul J. Abele, to deliver Easter Seals to friends and neighbors.

The volunteers will explain the services made available to crippled persons in many Detroit areas, Harper Woods and the five Grosse Pointes, at the Therapy Center of the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., 17330 Schaefer, through Easter Seal contributions.

The Easter Seal "Parade," scheduled as the high point in the 1965 Easter Seal campaign, March 15 through Easter Sunday, April 18, will give the residents of these communities an opportunity to help in the fight against crippling.

With 19 million crippled persons in America, one family in every five, each year, is affected by some form of crippling. Many of these persons require care and treatment to overcome handicaps caused by birth, by accident or as the result of illness.

The 1965 Easter Seal appeal, marks 44 years of service to the for Crippled Children and Adults, of which the local Society is an affiliate.

Rummage Sale To Aid Hospital

The Fonthome Auxiliary of St. John Hospital is once again sponsoring its famous spring rummage sale.

The event is scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 1, 2 and 3, at 11851-11853 Joseph Campau avenue, Hamtramck, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening.

With spring just around the corner, and ladies just beginning to plunge into traditional housecleaning, the Auxiliary is asking for rummage sale donations.

Furniture, dishes, clothing, toys . . . anything and everything is welcome. A call to St. John Hospital, TUxedo, 1-8200, extension 214 or 237, will arrange a pickup by one of the members of the sale committee.

Merchandise, plainly marked "Rummage Sale," may also be delivered directly to the hospital in Moross road.

THE PROOF

The actuality of the present seldom looks as good as the theory of the past.
