THE UNITED STATES RANGER 9 moon-probe, smashing into the moon's surface with spectacular accuracy, sent back thousands of television pictures of the moon's surface that indicated to U.S. scientists that the moon's surface would be hard enough to support a manned landing on the moon. The television pictures were shown live to the United States public in another space 'first.' The pictures from the Ranger 9 probe also seemed to indicate that some areas of the moon were better for landing than others.

CULMINATING a fifty-mile march on the Alabama state capital, 25,000 civil rights demonstrators stood in an intermittent rain before the Capitol building in a protest led by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and United Nations Undersecretary Ralph Bunche. Waving flags and singing freedom songs, the marchers twice sent delegations to speak to Gov. George C. Wallace, but both times Wallace refused to see them. There was no violence at the massive demonstration, although some Birmingham citizens showed open resentment at the march's impressive finish.

Saturday, March 27

FOUR MEMBERS of the Ku Klux Klan were arrested by Federal agents and accused of murdering a 39-year-old Detroit mother who had been aiding the civil rights movement in Alabama. Mrs. Viola Gregg Luizzo was helping to transfer some of the 25,000 demonstrators who protested in Montgomery on Thursday back to Selma, Alabama, when she was shot by occupants of a passing car. Three of the four men were released on $50,000 bond arranged by Robert Shelton, imperial grand wizard of the United Klans of America.

Sunday, March 28

AFTER A BITTER floor fight in which Republicans angrily protested "the White House steamroller," the United States House of Representatives passed the first comprehensive school aid bill in history. The vote, which was 263 to 153, sent the bill to the Senate totally unchanged, despite more than 20 attempts to amend it.

Monday, March 29

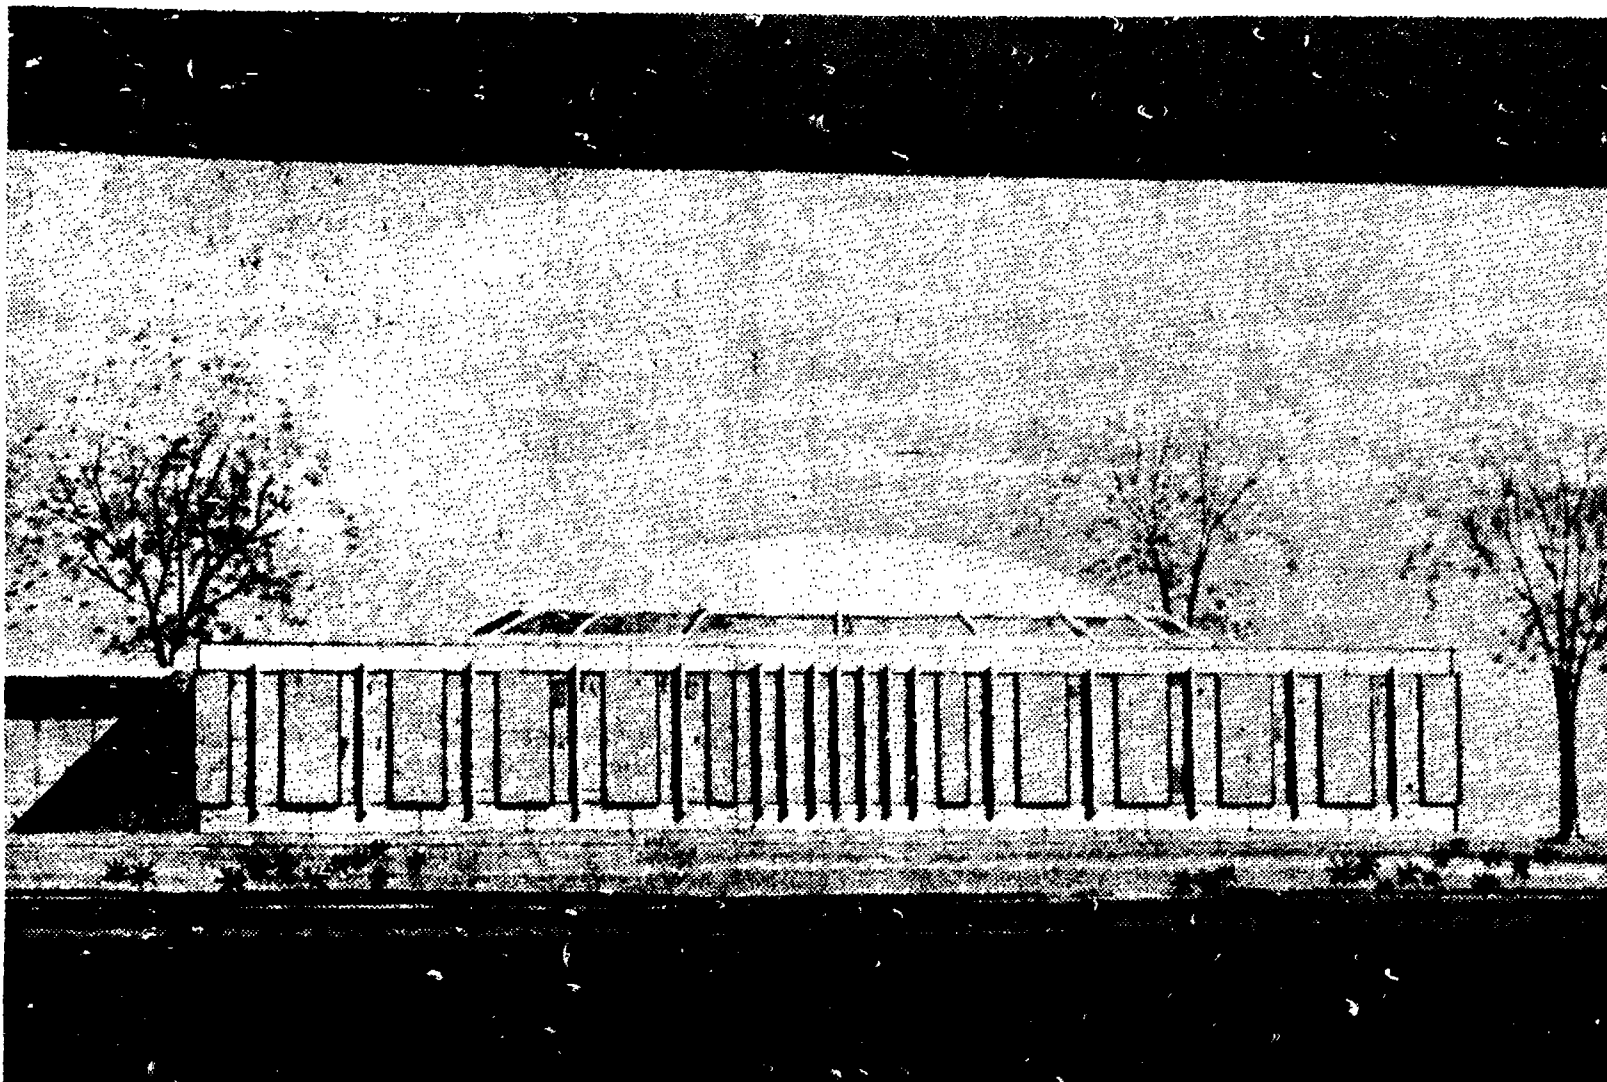

350 PERSONS were drowned when an earthquake in central Chile broke a 230-foot-high dam and flooded where they lived. The earthquake struck the area around Valparaiso and Santiago, Chile's largest cities, killing at least twenty persons in addition to the victims of the dam break, who were miners and peasants. 155 other persons were injured as the giant quake wrecked walls, sewers and slum areas.

Tuesday, March 30

A HUGE BOMB exploded at the United States Embassy in Saigon, killing and wounding more than 30 Americans and scores of Vietnamese. The bomb, which weighed more than 250 pounds, was concealed in a vehicle in the street. About 150 persons were in the embassy at the time of the blast, including the American Consul, who escaped from his destroyed office on the first floor after the bomb exploded. Reports were conflicting, but the latest information stated that 10 Americans had been seriously wounded, and perhaps two Americans killed. Most of the injuries were caused by flying glass and bricks.

ANGERED THAT Mayor Jerome Cavanagh refused to let them see a report on city operations Detroit Common Council members warned the Mayor that he was "ignoring and disregarding the undisputable right of the Council to have this information." John P. Casey, a Cavanagh aide, said that the Mayor was waiting until a few minor changes were made in the report, including the spelling of Mayor Cavanagh's name.

New Science Building Being Erected at GPUS

By September of this year, Architect Lewis G. Reastone's drawing of Grosse Pointe University School's new science building will become a reality. Construction for the addition to the school's campus was begun immediately following groundbreaking ceremonies on January 22. The new building is located in the area between the older school building and the tennis courts. Also planned for completion in September are a new library and an art room which will be created within the upper school. An artificial ice skating rink will be ready for skaters in November. Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., is chairman of the "Program for Excellence" committee which is directing the endowment drive to make the expansion of the school possible. Total cost of the improvements is $650,000. The committee is also seeking $2,000,000 for a permanent endowment to the school.

Public School Students' Art To Be Shown

Exhibit Opens Next Week At War Memorial; Official Tea Scheduled April 11

The art work of students of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools will be on display at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial beginning Tuesday, April 6, but the official opening tea will not take place until Sunday, April 11 from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

On hand to officiate at the tea tables at this occasion will be Mrs. Charles H. Wilson, wife of the Superintendent of Schools; Mrs. Jerry J. Gerich, wife of the principal of Grosse Pointe High School; Mrs. Charles E. Leavitt, wife of the principal of Grosse Pointe Junior High School; Mrs. Charles Saltzer, wife of the principal of Brown; and Mrs. Vincent L. Peterson, wife of Parcell's principal.

Under the show chairmanship of Charles Yorgenson, art work will be shown from the elementary level through the Senior High School.

Joining the art students and their teachers—Donald Schrow, Robert Pathbun, Allan Ebert, John Wargelin, Esther Meldring, Julia Meighan and Marian Lampman—at the tea will be parents of the students and other interested members of the Grosse Pointe community.

Visitors to the exhibit will find variety and excellence. The Store Manager Assaulted Trying to Keep Alleged Shoplifter from Fleeing

Six Negroes Nabbed by Police Following Altercation in Kresge's; Find $50 Bill on Lone Woman Member of Group

Six Detroiters were arrested by City and Park police within a minute after they drove away from Kresge's, 17101 Kercheval, on Monday, March 22. Four of the Detroiters were alleged to have beaten the assistant manager of the store.

Two of those arrested, Jesse J. Lamb, Jr., 17, of 3582 Willis; and James Brown, 23, of 3626 Pennsylvania, were arraigned before City Judge Douglas Patterson the next day, on charges of being disorderly persons. Both stood mute and pleas of innocent were entered for them.

Lamb was found guilty and fined $25, which he paid; and Brown was found innocent, and the charge against him dismissed.

The others arrested were released without bond, and are scheduled to appear in City Court on Tuesday, April 13. All have been charged with being disorderly persons. They are: Martha Walters, 23, of 3572 Pennsylvania; John C. Williams, Jr., 18, of 2666 Virginia Park; Richard Whitehead, 18, of 5895 Holcomb; and Richard Lee Compton, 18, of 5306 McLellan.

Police Summoned
According to information released by City Det. Lt. Robert Van Tiem, a young, unknown person called the station at 7:16 p.m. and said that there were six young Negroes in beating the assistant manager, Carmon Cisco of 21353 Littlestone, Harper Woods.

Following the altercation, the

State Senate To Probe Public Fund Misuse Charge

A resolution, spearheaded by State Senator George Fitzgerald (D. Grosse Pointe Park), to appoint a committee to investigate a charge alleging misuse of public funds by officials of governmental units to campaign "for or against certain proposals contrary to the public interest" was adopted by the Senate on Tuesday, March 23, by a vote of 17-13.

The resolution is printed, as follows:

"A resolution creating a special committee to investigate certain activities of officials of units of government in Michigan: Whereas, it is alleged that the said officials are using public funds of the governmental units to campaign for or against certain proposals contrary to the public interest as well as to promote their own desires and self interest; and

"Whereas, such charges, if true, constitute an improper use of public funds; and

"Whereas, it is in the public interest that an investigation be made of the charges in order that such legislation as is necessary may be enacted to prevent future actions of this type; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Senate, that is hereby created a special committee to consist of five members to be appointed in the same manner as standing committees are appointed, to investigate the charges of improper use of public funds by the said officials; and to report its findings and recommendations to the

Concert Set Next Sunday At Parcels

Community Chorus Program Includes Sacred, Folk and Popular Music

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present its 13th Annual Spring Program in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, at Mack and Vernier roads, Sunday afternoon, April 4, at 3:30 o'clock.

The opening sacred group includes Martin Shaw's "With a Voice of Singing," the "Celtic Hymn" by Hugh Robertson and the stirring and majestic "Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson. The Detroit organist, Gordon Young, is represented with his anthem, "Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven."

The men of the chorus join in singing the rollicking "Dry Bones." They will be assisted by a percussion group brought by Dewey Kalember, instrumental instructor at Brown Junior High School. This group of young instrumentalists consists of Missie Lewis, Rod Rose, Dale Johnson, Jim Davlantes and Mark Fossee.

Among the folk songs to be included are "The Lark in the Morn," the "May Day Carol" and "Russian Picnic." The program will close with the Simione arrangement of "Holiday" and Bill Gard's arrangement of "Moon River."

This community-sponsored chorus is under the direction of Richard Johns, director of music at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. The accompanist is Jerry Hughes.

Tickets are available from members of the chorus and will also be on sale at the door at the time of the concert. Admission is $1 for adults and 50c for students.

Immediately following the concert a reception will be held in the school gymnasium for chorus and audience.

Lawyer Closing 'Image' Series

William Stringfellow, lawyer, author, Episcopal layman, will close the "Image" Lenten lecture series, sponsored annually by Christ Church and Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, next Wednesday evening, April 7.

Mr. Stringfellow will speak at 7:30 o'clock in Memorial Church's Fellowship Hall. His topic is "Image of our Neighbor." Open discussion will follow the formal address.

Local Candidates To Meet Public Tonight at Rallies

League of Women Voters Sponsoring Sessions At Three Locations, In Woods, Farms and Park; Programs Begin at 8 O'clock

At rallies being held tonight, candidates seeking election to offices in Grosse Pointe Woods, Farms, and Park will discuss what they would hope to see accomplished during their terms of office.

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters is sponsoring the rallies at three locations from 8 to 10 p.m.

Following the candidates' brief talks, voters who will be electing councilmen, judges and a mayor on April 5 will have an opportunity to question the candidates about their background and the programs they propose.

The Woods rally will be held in the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building's Council Hall. Six candidates seek election to the Woods Council. Mrs. Lawrence Haller is moderator and Mrs. Kirt Haller is chairman.

Park Rally at Pierce
Pierce Junior High School Auditorium will be where Park candidates will meet the voters. Ten candidates seek election in the Park—six to the Park Council, two for mayor and two for municipal judge. Mrs. J. Robert Jessup, retiring president of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, is moderator. Mrs. Kenneth Pitts is chairman.

The rally for Farms candidates will be in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Seven seek election to the Farms Council and two seek election as municipal judge. Mrs. Donald L. McConachie is chairman. Mrs. Edgar Hahn is moderator, Mrs. George J. Wilson is hostess.

The rallies are a Voters Service project of the League. Mrs. George Brown is Voters Service chairman.

Goodnow Heads Family Month

Nathan B. Goodnow, of Handy road, is the general chairman of Family Affairs Month to be held in April in all communities making up the Greater Detroit Area.

Family Affairs Month is a public service program sponsored by the four fields whose daily work involves all aspects of family financial planning—law, banking, certified public accounting and insurance.

The purpose of the program is to encourage every head of a family to establish a plan for his own retirement and for his family's future financial security.

Goodnow is immediate past president of the State Bar of Michigan.

REPORTS VANDALISM

William Twomey, 19, of 11730 Evanston, Detroit, complained to Woods Police on Sunday, March 28, that while his car was parked at the rear of the Woods Theater lot, someone smashed the windshield, the left vent window, and dented the roof of the vehicle. The amount of damage was not disclosed.

Three-D Panel to Focus On Teenage Problems

"Battle of the Ages" it's being called, the open panel discussion being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, on Tuesday evening April 13 at 8 o'clock in Fries Auditorium.

The three D's—Drinking, Driving, and Dating—among the High School groups will be the principal topics. Discussion will also point out any disparities between recreational needs and recreational facilities in Grosse Pointe.

This important community meeting is being co-sponsored by Mothers Health Education Council, Inc., of Grosse Pointe, the Mothers Club of Grosse Pointe High School, the Dad's Club of Grosse Pointe High School, and the Grosse Pointe University School Parents Association.

Local Issues On Ballots In 3 Pointes

Woods and Park Electors Will Be Given Opportunity to Vote On Charter Amendments

Resident-voters of three Pointe cities will go to the polls on Monday, April 5, to vote for a county judge, (to fill a vacancy), and local officials. Two of the communities will present charter amendments to the electors.

The City and Shores voters will only vote to fill a vacancy in the Wayne County Third Judicial Circuit Court, to which John B. Swainson, former governor of Michigan, is the only candidate. The judgeship is non-partisan. The Park, Farms and Woods will also have this issue on their ballots.

All city clerks in the Pointe announced that the absolute deadline for application for absentee ballots is 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 3. No applications can be made after that time. Persons confined to their homes or hospitals, or who will be absent from their cities at election time, are urged to apply for absentee ballots before the deadline.

Woods Election

Seeking election to the Woods Council are incumbents Marvin R. Boutin and Lathrop P. Morse, and William S. Huetteman, Robert D. Wanderscheider, Edmund D. Tropp and Mrs. Dwight Hendricks. Councilman Frederick Maddox is not seeking re-election for personal reasons.

The three successful candidates will serve for one year, with terms expiring April 5, 1966, after which they can, if they wish, seek re-election, this time for a four-year term.

On April 5, 1964, Woods voters approved an amendment to the City Charter, whereby the term of office for a councilman was extended from the present two-year term, to a maximum of four years, with the new tenure to take effect following the election of April 5, 1966. The office of mayor is still for two years.

Under the present City Charter, a councilman receives $15 for each regular or special meeting he attends, not to exceed $400 a year; the mayor receives $200 more a year, for a maximum of $600.

Would Boost Pay

At the April 5 election, Woods voters will be given an opportunity to vote on two charter amendments: Proposition A—shall each councilman receive compensation of $30 for each regular, special and executive meeting attended, with the compensation not to exceed $1,500 a year; the mayor, $40 for each regular, special and executive meeting attended, not to exceed $2,000 a year.

Proposition B—will give the council power to finance and provide group life, health and accident, and hospitalization and surgical benefit insurance for dependents of city employees. At present, only the city employees receive these benefits paid for by the city.

In the Park, Mayor Matthew Fatterson, who was elected to office by his colleagues on the council last July, when Kenneth Cunningham resigned the post, is seeking election to the two-year term in his own right. He is opposed by William M. Fritz.

Three Incumbents Run

Hoping to be elected to a four-year term on the council, are incumbents Charles F. Ives, John Doelle and William Kessler (appointed to the council to fill the vacancy created when Patterson was picked as mayor). Kessler seeks the post in his own right.

Councilman Kent Zimmerman is not seeking re-election for personal reasons.

Opposing the incumbents are: Thomas J. Bolton, Barry M. Quinn, and George J. Verdonck. Neither the mayor, nor the members of the council receive compensation for their services to the city.

Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger is asking for a return to the bench for another four-year tenure. The post pays $5,200 a year. Hoping to unseat the judge is newcomer Philip J. Mabarak.

the council seats are sworn in the Monday immediately following the election; the successful candidate for judge, takes his oath of office and assumes his duties on July 4.
Park voters will also be asked to vote on two charter amendments: Proposal 1—to reduce the average work week of the Fire Department personnel from 63 hours a week to 56 hours a week and to designate the arrangement of leave days; Proposal 2—to provide the city fire fighters a furlough of 20 days each year, of which at least 10 days will be consecutive.
New Faces in Farms
At least two new faces will be seen around the council table in the Farms, since two councilmen, Ledyard Mitchell and Thomas Fisher, are not asking to be returned because of business reasons.
Asking for favorable votes are incumbents William F. Connolly, Jr. (present mayor), and William G. Kirby. The other councilman hopefuls are, Richard C. Hudson, Charles A. J. Kotcher, John B. Lizza, Irvin A. Steiner, and Mark C. Stevens.
In the municipal judge race, incumbent Grant E. Armstrong is opposed by Philip J. Dawson. The tenure of office is for four years, and pays $200 a month.
Under the Farms City Charter, the three councilman candidates receiving the highest number of votes serve for four years, the fourth, for a two-year term. Office is assumed at the first regular meeting following the election.
Also under the charter, the members of the council elect the mayor, who serves for one year only. A mayor is picked each year.
A councilman receives a salary of $50 a month, or $600 a year; the mayor's salary is $300 more a year, or a maximum of $900.
No local elections will be held in the City or Shores on April 5. The City's regular election is held in November, and the Shores will hold its regular election in May.

Parents and young people alike are urged strongly to come to this forum. It is consequential and should not be ignored.

The Junior High School exhibit will include mobiles, linoleum blocks, textile work and expanded designs. Featured will be items from Pierce Junior High School which won Scholastic Magazine awards.
The Senior High School will show both oil and water color paintings, book illustrations, figure paintings, portraits and lettering.
The public is invited to view the exhibit through April 27. It is wise to call before coming as the galleries are sometimes occupied by meetings.

2168 Allard; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roland, 1914 Oxford. The residents returned home to discover their homes in disarray, and contents of dresser drawers dumped on the floor. Police believe that the crimes were committed by different persons.
Mr. Jones told police that the family was gone from the house from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m., and returned to find that someone had entered the house by breaking the glass of the door at the rear of the building.
All that can be determined to be missing at this time, he said, was about $80 in assorted change taken from a teapot in the dining room.
A neighbor told police that he had seen two white males walking from the direction of Harper avenue, and onto the driveway of the Jones residence, and heard a screen door slam. The suspects left the house through the front door, police said.
At the Roland home, entry was gained by the burglar by smashing the glass of the rear door.
Mr. Roland informed investigating officers that he and his wife left home about 5 p.m., and returned at 10:50 p.m., to discover the break-in. The contents of drawers were found scattered on the main floor and the floors of the upstairs bedrooms, it was disclosed by police.
The burglar, or burglars, took a total of $25 in cash, two men's suits, a man's overcoat, a fishing rod and reel, a man's wrist watch, an electric razor, and a .22 caliber Winchester rifle. The value of the missing items were not given.

VOTE APRIL 5th FOR ALL THREE

During this FOOD INFORMATION WEEK, Michigan State University economists tell us that the state's farmers are big spenders. Farmers spend more than $72 million annually for feed and seed; $51 million for hired labor; $39 million for petroleum products and $40 million for fertilizers.

Local Restaurant Changes Name

Grosse Pointe's fine restaurant "On The Hill," which is located at 123 Kercheval, will now be known as "The Bronze Door." The new name comes from the beautiful Renaissance bronze door in the foyer.

It was decided to change the name as "On The Hill" applied to all the establishments in this particular area and created an element of confusion.

"The Bronze Door" remains under the same management, however, there will be significant changes in the menu and wine lists to further delight the gourmet.

To Do Publicity For Foundation

Five Grosse Pointe men were among those named to a permanent public relations committee for the United Foundation.

The chairman is Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., Ford Motor Co. vice president-public relations.

The other Grosse Pointers are: E. Dawson Fisher, vice-president and publicity director, The J. L. Hudson Co.; Gerald E. Warren, vice-president, the National Bank of Detroit; Martin S. Hayden, editor, The Detroit News; and John S. Pingel, president, Ross Roy, Inc.

Max M. Fisher, UF president, said that the new group would be a standing committee and it would function at the top level of the UF structure.

"The public relations committee will report directly to the board of directors," Fisher said. "We anticipate that it will be one of the most valuable assets the UF will have in the years to come."

Mecke said that the committee would meet at least four times a year and would have these duties:

Confer with the board and staff on matters affecting public relations and promotion; suggest courses of action; keep itself informed on all phases of UF activities; interpret public reaction to the organization; help the UF strengthen ties with other agencies, associations and governmental bodies; evaluate staff execution of year-round public relations programs and advise Torch Drive committees on campaign program and materials.

Driver Training Offered Adults

Spring classes in Adult Driver Training are being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, to begin in April.

This course will introduce non-drivers to the rules and regulations and the techniques of driving, through lectures and practical road experience, in preparation for earning a driver's license. Classes will meet twice a week for a four week period.

Advance registration must be made, as the classes are limited to three students per class. Call the Department of Community Services, TUxedo 5-3808 for further information and class reservation.

Library Offers Family Movies

The last program of the 1964-65 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. The film program is designed for everyone in the family. The 1965-66 Series will start in October.

There will be four films — three are for children, and one is designed for both adults and children. The titles are as follows:

SUPERJET TO ISRAEL (25 minutes, color) — Historic Israel, the birthplace of the Christian and Moslem religions, now the Jewish homeland. In this film you will be able to view the natural beauty and historical scenes of this vibrant, young country; THE DOUGHNUTS (28 minutes, color) — Homer Price, Citizen of Centerberg, U. S. A., and America's favorite ten year old, is up to his ears in doughnuts, thanks to a doughnut machine with a mind of its own.

The world of Homer Price is recreated for the youngster for the first time on film; EASTER YEGGS — (11 minutes, color) — A charming film especially for tots; MADELINE (9 minutes, color) — Ludwig Bemelmans' immortal miss, "Madeline," is the story of a little girl attending school in Paris. She is the youngest of 12 little girls who "Smiled at the good, and frowned at the bad." This is outstanding in the children's film field.

Adults and children accompanying by adults are cordially invited.

THE STANDARD OF AMERICA

Easter Egg Decorating Set At War Memorial

The annual Easter Egg Decorating will take place this year at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Saturday afternoon, April 10. There will be two sessions, one at 2 o'clock, the second at 3:30.

Again decorating instructions will be given free of charge by the Ukrainian Division of the International Institute, Martha Wichorik in charge. People may either bring their own eggs or buy them for 5c a piece at the Center. Designs, dyes, and beeswax will be provided free. Stylized will be sold at cost—about 30c.

"Pysanky" is the Ukrainian word for decorated eggs. And this skill is one of their foremost arts passed down from generation to generation. Their pysanky are as colorful as their traditional costumes which the instructors will wear while demonstrating to the children and their parents gathered at the Center.

Pysanky are kept sometimes over a hundred years in Ukrainian families. Usually they remain in glass cases and cabinets and are brought out for table centerpieces only on Easter or state occasions. The Ukrainians work with unboiled eggs.

The designs they use and work on with a stylus all mean something, such as a fish being the symbol of wealth. Repeated dying, drying, polishing and re-stenciling with different designs and colors results in a very colorful, intricately patterned egg.

The Ukrainian women will have some of their prize eggs on display at the Center and a few for sale if patrons should spoil their own eggs in the process. This is an ideal project for young boys and girls who often come in brownie or cub scout groups with their sponsors as well as with their parents and friends.

Pointers Serve Cancer Crusade

Five residents of Grosse Pointe have accepted district chairmanships for the American Cancer Society's educational and fund-raising crusade to be conducted in Southeastern Michigan during the month of April.

Accepting appointments were Mrs. Kittie Braman, 1377 Beaconsfield; Mrs. Charles A. Potter, 305 Rivard; Mrs. S. A. Fraser, II, 313 Beaupre; Mrs. Jerome Noytens, 74 Willison drive, and Mrs. Joseph Proctor, 1345 Aline drive.

Proclaimed Cancer Control Month by both President Johnson and Governor Romney, April will see thousands of A.C.S. crusaders distribute educational material which has already helped save the lives of more than 1.3 million Americans who have been cured of cancer.

The American Cancer Society, in addition to distributing material designed to detect and prevent the disease, provides various patient services to those already afflicted and allocates hundreds of thousands of dollars to the research of cancer, much of it going in grants to educational institutions in the Southeastern Michigan area.

During April the Society conducts its once-a-year campaign to raise funds for its programs of research, education and service. The 1965 Crusade will be climaxed by a house-to-house visit by volunteers on Tuesday, April 27.

Frozen prepared foods are real time savers. Frozen cakes can save 90 per cent of the 40 active minutes needed to make homemade cakes, but little of the total time, due to the necessary thawing.

Burglar Loots Farms Home

A burglar who ransacked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Schlaff, 84 Grosse Pointe boulevard, carried out some of his loot in a pillow case, according to information disclosed by Farms police. The crime occurred on Tuesday, March 23.

Mr. Schlaff told Det. Jack Paisley, that he and his family left the house at 7:30 p.m. and returned at 10:39 p.m., and were informed by their daughter,

Mary Jo, who had arrived home a few minutes earlier, that the house had been burglarized. The house had been thoroughly ransacked, and a number of items, including jewelry, values not given, were reported missing. Evidence show that the articles had been stuffed into a pillow case and taken out of the house.

Also taken, Schlaff said, were between $80 and $90 in currency, 40 Kennedy half dollars, and a check in the amount of $50, all taken from downstairs drawers. Nothing appeared to be missing from the upstairs bedrooms.

4-Car Accident, Damage Heavy

A Detroit woman, driving east on Kercheval, in the Hill District, lost control of her automobile, and caused a four-car accident. Farms police estimated damage at a total of $2,725.

According to an accident report, Mrs. Ethelyne Holmes, 40, of 1474 Fischer, while driving a car belonging to the Holmes Motor Sales company of Detroit, on Friday, March 26, somehow lost control of the vehicle, and crashed into a parked Welcome Wagon car, parked at the curb, opposite 107 Kercheval, by Mrs. Lucille Hutchenreuther of 145 Mapleton.

Mrs. Hutchenreuther's vehicle in turn was pushed into another parked car, owned by Earl Martin of 1668 Bates, Birmingham, which in turn, hit another parked car owned by Grace Hiler of 8300 East Jefferson, Detroit. None of the drivers were in the autos.

Mrs. Holmes suffered cuts about the face and head, but refused medical attention, according to police. She told investigating officers that she did not know what caused her to lose control. There were no witnesses, and no violation tickets were issued.

Police estimated damage to Mrs. Hutchenreuther's car at about $1,500; Martin's car, $400; and the Hiler vehicle, $125. Damage to the front end of Mrs. Holmes' car was estimated at $500.

State Senate to Probe Public Fund Misuse Charge

Senate, forthwith; and be it further

"Resolved, that the committee be authorized to subpoena witnesses, administered oaths, and examine records of any person, agency of the state or its political subdivisions and to call upon the services and personnel of any agency of the state or its political subdivisions, and is further empowered to engage any assistance it deems necessary to carry out its duties, and be it further

"Resolved, that the members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to actual travel and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, to be paid from the appropriations to the Senate."

The resolution appeared to be aimed at the Park, where it is allegedly charged by a group of citizens, that public funds were used to print material to inform signers of petitions by Park firemen, and interested citizens, the Park council's views on two proposed Charter amendments, and to urge citizens to vote "No", on the amendments, which will come up at the April 5 Special and City election.

An official denial of the misuse of public funds was made by City Manager Robert Slone, who said that the alleged charges are an attempt to smear city officials.

He said that letters were sent to citizens who signed a petition for the Charter amendments, which would cut the firemen's working hours from 63 hours a week to 56 hours a week, and allow 20 days of vacation annually, thanking them for their interest, and informing them of the council's view in the matter, and asking them to oppose any charter changes.

He said that petitioners in the Park, regardless of the issues involved, are sent letters thanking them for their interests, and expressing an official view in the issues, as has always been done.

Slone said that according to the City Charter, a quarterly newsletter, and an annual report are required to be sent to residents of the city. Also according to the Charter, the mayor is entitled to make official statements, which he believes to be in the interest of the city and to its citizens.

He said the quarterly, and annual reports, have been sent to residents of the Park for the past 15 years, in compliance with the Park Charter, and are paid for with public funds, as also stipulated by the city charter.

The city manager, in reference to sample ballots sent to city voters, in which city officials gave their explanation of what the proposed amendments to the Charter would entail, said that the explanation was approved by Attorney General Frank Kelly and Governor George Romney, according to Michigan Statute.

Under this statute, Slone said, the city is allowed to explain proposed propositions presented to electors, in no more than 100 words. This is known as a "Paragraph of Explanation", and must be approved by both the attorney general and the governor.

The paragraph on the ballot is presented verbatim:

"The purpose of these amendments is to fix in the City's Charter work hours and vacations of firemen, thereby removing from the Fire Chief, City Manager and Council their present functions of determining such matters in the light of the City's finances and policies to all personnel

"Proposal 1 would require that, over an eight-week cycle of 56 days, the firemen would be at work 19 days (of 24 hours each) and off 37 days (of 24 hours each).

Proposal 2 would require that each fireman (regardless of length of service) receive the same 20-day vacation.

The explanation, as presented on the ballot, was denounced as misleading by the members of the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association, who asked that they be given an opportunity to refute the "Paragraph of Explanation".

In a joint statement, they said:

"In a recent sample ballot mailed to the citizens by the City of Grosse Pointe Park, the following reference was made in opposition to the firefighters proposed charter amendment, 'if the amendment is passed, over an eight-week cycle of 56 days, the firemen would be at work only 19 days (of 24 hours each)'. We feel it does not fully explain the situation.

"1. Each of these 19 days (of 24 hours each) are equal to THREE eight hour days by men working a 40 hour work week. Therefore, in the 56 day period the city chooses as an example, a fire fighter would work the equivalent of 57 days.

"2. Also, these 19 days (of 24 hours) are in reality TWO separate days worked, one consisting of 16 hours from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight, the other consisting of 8 hours from 12:00 midnight to 8:00 a.m. on the following morning. This being the case, the fire fighter instead of working only 19 out of 56 days, actually works 38 days. This fact seems to have been conveniently overlooked when the City Administration attempted to enlighten the citizens as to the fire fighters proposed work schedule, and seems to imply that a firemen's lot should be one of long hours.

"At present your fire fighter works 21 days (of 24 hours each) in the above mentioned 56 day period or the equivalent of 63 eight hour days in the same 56 day period. Using the combination of 16 and eight-hours shifts previously mentioned, this would total 42 work days out of the 56 day cycle.

"The proposed charter amendment would bring about a reduction of only two work days in the 56 day cycle. We feel that this two-day reduction over this period of time is a reasonable request and does not merit the opposition directed at it by the present City Administration. The fire fighters feel confident that the citizens of Grosse Pointe Park will consider the methods by the city government in opposing this charter amendment and that they will unanimously support this amendment for a reduction of their work week.

Speedy Service For Parcel Post

Scheduled parcel post service in southern Michigan and a northwestern segment of Ohio is providing delivery at least a day sooner for more than 23,000 parcels each day, Postmaster General John A. Gronouski reported recently at a press conference.

In a progress report on the program — started here last November 23 — Mr. Gronouski said approximately 80,000 parcels daily move within the area on the average. Recent tests showed 66,240 of the 80,000 ready for delivery in destination post offices the next day.

Before the program was placed in operation, tests at that time showed the next-day delivery for only 42,800 parcels, or 23,440 less than are now getting the faster delivery, according to recent tests.

The service area includes most of southern Michigan — south of a line that includes Bay City, Mount Pleasant and Muskegon, as well as a slice of northwestern Ohio in the Toledo area.

The goal of the Scheduled Parcel Post program is to provide next-day delivery for parcels between all of the 461 post offices in the area serving 7.2 million persons and covering 22,000 square miles.

"And — as we iron the bugs out of the system — we expect to move close to a 100 per cent ratio, making exception for the ever present element of human error and the occasional occurrence of transportation delays," Mr. Gronouski added.

In addition to the recent tests for the southern Michigan — northwestern Ohio service area, a test conducted just in Detroit on parcels processed here showed a 90 per cent success ratio on next day delivery.

The scheduled parcel post program has covered 10 sections of the country since it was launched last fall by the Postmaster General. Tests in the other areas indicate the excellent results are being achieved uniformly — with success ratios on next day delivery upwards of 80 per cent in each.

So far, Mr. Gronouski observed, more than 40 million Americans living in the 10 areas are covered by the program. The Department is planning other installations of the service in additional sections which should cover a total of 70 million Americans by June.

The next-day delivery is affected to some extent by local parcel post route delivery schedules. Mr. Gronouski observed. These routes, which use trucks and deliver the heavier parcels, operate five days a week. If a heavy parcel reaches a destination post office on an "off" day for the local delivery, the parcel must be held until the following delivery day before it can be sent out to the addressee.

"Making allowances for this and occasional unavoidable delay in transit, we feel the program provides dramatically better, faster and more reliable service," he added. "It comes about as close as you can get to first-rate service for fourth class mail."

Sacred Concert Slated Sunday

Our Lady Queen of Peace Boys' Choir, Roman Catholic, will sing a sacred concert at The Grosse Pointe Memorial Presbyterian Church next Sunday, April 4, at 4 p.m.

This will be the third annual appearance of this choir during the Lenten Season at Memorial Church. George Le Blanc is the director of this outstanding choir, which has often appeared in concert.

Immediately following the concert the congregation will join with the choir in a reception in the Fellowship Hall in the Church House.

The public is cordially invited to this brief Lenten program of sacred music.

Many Pointers Work in Drive

"The Children of the World Deserve To Be Planned" is the Slogan of the 1965 Planned Parenthood League's Fund Raising Campaign, which opened this month and will continue through May.

Honorary campaign chairmen of the national drive are past Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

H. Ripley Schemm of Grosse Pointe, retired president of Huron Portland Cement Company, has been named local campaign chairman. Assistant chairman is Hudson Mead, also of Grosse Pointe, an attorney.

A budget of $242,000 has been set as the minimum required for the League to operate its seven clinics in Wayne and Oakland Counties for the coming year.

According to League Chairman, Robert H. Kanzler, "There is some feeling that private agencies, such as the League, can relax their efforts now that public welfare agencies and Boards of Health are becoming involved in the problems of family planning. But we are finding, that instead of decreasing, demands on our clinics are increasing because of recent publicity about birth control services. Requests and appointments at our clinics have increased over 50 per cent overnight."

"It will be sometime," he explained, "before administrative procedures can be set up for the public birth control clinics. In the meantime, we must fill the gap. Even when the public clinics are in operation, there will still be a whole area of the population not on welfare but unable to afford the services of a private physician."

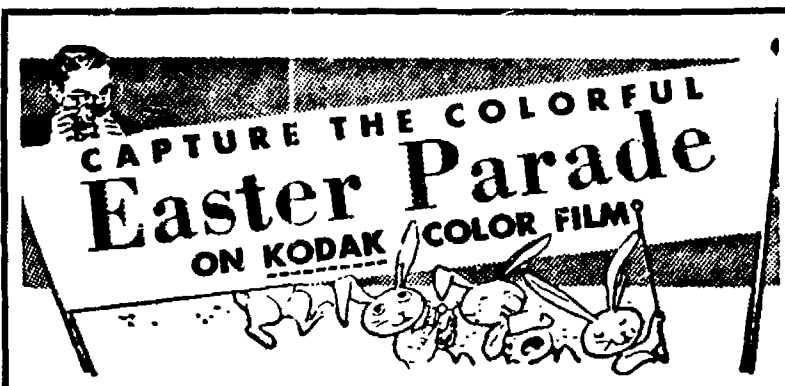

Mr. Schemm explained that the amount of money that the League is asking for operations is less than 10c per capita, which he termed a modest sum to maintain a vital service.

"The League is financed almost on voluntary contributions and receives no monies from the United Foundation. The clinics had approximately 25,000 patient visits in 1964. Patient fees are based on ability to pay. The low income families pay a token fee or none at all. With the majority of clinic patients in this later category, the increase is straining the League's finances," Mr. Schemm said.

Working with Messrs. Schemm and Mead on the fund drives are Mr. Kanzler, Mrs. J. L. Hudson, Jr., and Mrs. W. C. Tost of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Homer Sale of Lathrup Village.

Among the prominent Detroit area business leaders recruited by Mr. Mead to work as captains on the men's campaign are: Messrs. Merrill O. Bates, Joseph E. Bayne, Harold R. Boyer, Jr., T. R. Buttrick, Jr., John W. Coe, Frank D. Cotter, Emory M. Ford, Gordon T. Ford, James M. French, Louis B. Heavner, Arthur B. Hudson, John L. Kenower, Maurice Klein, Alvan Macauley, Jr., William K. Muir, Arthur P. Nauman, Dr. Harold T. Ratner, Ellis Robinson, H. Ripley Schemm, John T. Short, Peter Spender, Mark C. Stevens, Robert F. Weber, James H. Wine- man, Stanley Winkelman.

Final World Adventure Program Features Alaska

Boy scouts will enjoy a vicarious jamboree in Alaska on April 7 as they gather at Parcels Auditorium to see the World Adventure color film "Lumber Jack In Alaska," filmed and narrated personally by Don Cooper. The program, the last in this season's Grosse Pointe World Adventure Series, will start promptly at 8 p.m.

"Groups of Boy Scouts, many of them who hope to visit our 48th State soon, have swamped our office with advance reservations for this humorous and educational film," Mary Aceti, associate director, reported. "It is a tribute to the scouting movement that Detroit young people are so curious about this far Northern part of the United States."

Don Cooper takes the audience with him from Seattle through the Inside Passage of Canada which is rivaled only by Norway's fjords. His program features exciting sports fishing shots, totem poles, salmon fishing, big game hunting, and many of the nature shots taken during the seasons when Alaska is its most beautiful.

Don Cooper, who has heard the whine of a lumberjack's saw from infancy, tells the story of the wood and pulp industry which adds so much to Alaska's economy. A relative newcomer to the lecture field, his film has received enthusiastic envy of other traveling film producers and favorable notices from film critics and color photographers.

For ticket information, call the World Adventure Office, Detroit Institute of Arts, TE. 2-7676 between 1 and 5 p.m., (except on Mondays).

Sports Lessons To Be Offered

Tennis and Golf are as synonymous to Spring as the first budding crocus—and for many Grosse Pointers who have not yet become proficient at either sport but would like to be, there is an opportunity awaiting the novice in classes sponsored by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Two CLASSES IN TENNIS, taught by Stephanie Prychitko, will begin Monday, April 12, and Tuesday, April 27. These seven-week courses will be held at Grosse Pointe High School, for rank beginners and those in the "intermediate" category.

Because of the number of people DESIRING TO LEARN GOLF, a fourth section has been added to the present series; this section will begin Thursday, April 8. Ben Lula and Ron Fox, former Michigan PGA Champions, will instruct this six-week course.

WANTED COUPLE

who are having trouble selling their home in Grosse Pointe and need a company that will advertise and sell their property on TV. Call Mr. O'Driscoll TU 6-3030 at Lee Realty — your local Grosse Pointe realty company.

New Activities For Children

In addition to regularly scheduled activities the following new classes will be available through the Neighborhood Club.

Beginners Ballet Class for girls ages 6-12 will be held on Tuesdays after school at Richard School, under the instruction of Myra Halsig. Registrations are now being taken and class will start as soon as sufficient enrollment is obtained. Creative Dancing also for girls 5-10 years of age has openings.

A Club Group named the "Funsters" for boys and girls ages 6 thru 9 will meet at Brownell Junior High on Saturday afternoons from 2:30-4 p.m. This program offers a variety of activities including a gym period, arts and crafts, games and special events.

A Softball Clinic for boys ages 7-12 is now being held at Brownell Jr. High School on Tuesdays from 4-5 p.m., and when the weather settles down, will transfer to the Neighborhood Club playground. Jim McBride is the instructor.

Registrations may be made at the Neighborhood Club office or by calling TU 5-4600.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

Richard Vanderchove of 22796 Roxana, East Detroit, personally called at the Farms police station to inform authorities that while his car was parked in the municipal lot at the rear of the Hill District, someone stole two hubcaps from the vehicle. He did not give their value.

Austin Conducts Speech Festival

Austin Prep. School has just completed a month of speech activities. Realizing the importance of being able to communicate orally and to think logically before an audience, the Austin English Department, under the supervision of the Chairman Thomas E. Bailey, developed the Augustine Speech Festival.

Each student in the school was required to deliver an oration or an interpretation of a cutting from a play or poetic work before his class. Since this was a contest, the best speakers of each section then went on to the finals of that grade level.

At a speech festival assembly, certificates of excellence and trophies for the finalists were presented by the Principal Rev. John Galloway, O.S.A. The students were also able to hear at the assembly the four grade finalists of the school who were Robert Neveux, Tom Rabaut, Doug Boyer and John Monahan.

With the resource of talent found in the Augustine Speech Festival, Austin entered the Genesee Speech Festival. This annual event of speech composed of 60 Catholic schools of Michigan met at Marian and Brother Rice High Schools this year. With 530 contestants entered in many speech divisions, Austin entered speakers in 10 divisions.

Taking winning honors in this contest were Robert Alsheimer in Children's Literature, Robert Neveux in Oratory, and David Toelle, Steve Poissant, Tom Ryan and Joe Friuzi in Multiple Reading.

On March 27, Austin sent nine speakers to their divisional finals of the Michigan High School Forensic Speech Contest. This event of speech activities includes all the schools, both public and private, in the state. Winners from Austin and going on to the regional finals are Bruce Bavinger in Humorous Reading, Robert Scheible in Extempore, and Patrick Clinton in Original Oratory.

Speech contests and festivals are not the only activities of the Austin students within the communicative arts. The Austin Debate Society is in its seventh year at Austin. Also the students, who have participated in the numerous festivals, present speech demonstrations to other schools or to school organizations such as Mother's and Dad's Clubs.

The Austin Players, the dramatic society, have produced 18 plays in seven years. These productions range from Broadway comedy and musicals to Shakespearean works. The Players have also entered one-act plays in the Genesee Drama Festival each fall, with winning results.

Plan Auditions For Scholarship

Auditions for the annual Pro-Mozart Society of Detroit's scholarship for instrumentalists and singers will take place on April 8, at 1:30 p.m., in room 207 of the Music Building of Wayne State University.

This scholarship includes room, board and tuition at the famous Summer Academy of the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, during the period of the annual Summer Music Festival, starting at the end of July until August 21. Only advanced young musicians will be qualified to compete. Inquiries should be addressed to Prof. Robert Lawson, Music Department, Wayne State University, Temple 3-1400.

Prof. Lawson, who is chairman of the jury, announces that the following persons will be members of the jury: — Jay Carr, music critic of the Detroit News; Mrs. Abraham Cooper, Collins George, music critic of the Detroit Free Press; Morris Hochberg, Mrs. Sol Q. Kessler, Mrs. Alice Lungershausen and Kurtz, Chief of the Music Division, Detroit Public Library.

The Pro-Mozart Society's annual concert will take place on April 11 at 8:30 p.m., in the Community Arts Auditorium of Wayne State University.

According to Prof. Marguerite Kozenn Chajes, Executive Director of the Society, the program will feature, in the first half, works of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart from his 6th till 15th year, including sonatas for violin and harpsichord, flute and harpsichord, and organ with string ensemble. The second part of the program will be dedicated to "Mozart in Prague." Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Home in Woods Damaged by Fire

Woods public safety officers extinguished a blaze in an upstairs bedroom of the home of the Charles J. Littles, 584 Thorn Tree road, on Thursday, March 25.

Fire officials said that when firefighters and equipment arrived, the flames had destroyed two single bed-bunks, and a lamp that was between them. The window, furniture and other parts of the room were damaged, it was disclosed. The fire was confined to the bedroom at the front of the house.

The flames were discovered by the Littles' son, James, 6, who was upstairs, and, called his parents, who were downstairs. Mrs. Little attempted to douse the flames with a pail of water, while her husband was calling the fire department.

Firemen and equipment arrived within minutes, and had the fire under control and out without any trouble.

Another son, Charles, Jr., 9, was in a back bedroom, at the time his brother discovered the fire. A daughter, Michele, 7, was playing outside.

Patrolman Peter Thomas injured the third finger of his left hand while dismantling one of the beds, to carry the charred parts outside. He was treated for the wound at the scene.

To Play Lenten Folk Music

Lenten worship in folk music will be featured at two Lutheran churches of the community on Wednesday evening, April 7.

John Ylvisaker, one of the best-known folk singers in church circles, will present the service of worship in this popular form at Salem Memorial Lutheran Church in Moross road at 6:30 p.m. and at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Chalfonte at Lothrop, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Ylvisaker with his guitar, banjo and flute has become well-known throughout the United States and Europe during the past two years in his almost 400 appearances at assorted gatherings.

The worshippers are involved in informal singing as they participate with the singer who believes that "Music can be understood and pack a wallop of excitement in an age when apathy is the common state."

A recent appearance before the Lutheran Pastors of the metropolitan Detroit area brought an overwhelming ovation for this folk-singer who is singing in the Gospel.

A former music teacher in the public schools, Mr. Ylvisaker is now in the graduate school of music at the University of Minnesota.

His repertoire consists largely of original material and songs collected on his tour of Europe during the summer of 1964.

The public is invited to attend either the 6:30 service at Salem Memorial or the 8 o'clock service at St. Paul.

Club Offers Craft Corner

A new project has been added to the Games Room area at Brownell Junior High School on Saturday afternoons. The Craft Corner has been set up for boys and girls who like to make interesting handcraft projects, paint, and draw.

This corner is under the supervision of Pam Moore, who is volunteering her services. Any youngsters belonging to the Neighborhood Club are welcome to participate in this activity from 1-3 p.m. on Saturday afternoons.

Guests are welcome, but must pay a twenty-five cent guest fee.

Home Repair Survey Starts

A sample survey of residential alterations and repairs covering the first quarter of 1965 will be made among selected families in this area starting on April 1, according to Director Robert A. Yerkey of the Bureau of the Census regional office in Detroit.

The survey will require about two weeks to complete and is part of a national study following about 8,000 home owners throughout the nation. The data collected provide a statistical picture of the importance of home alterations and repairs in the U. S. economy. As government programs and policy expand the aids available for improving and conserving existing homes, the information collected in this Census survey will also become increasingly valuable for urban renewal.

It is now estimated that Americans spend $11 to $12 billion annually for alterations and repairs of their homes. More than 1 million homes are re-roofed each year and nearly 2 million water heaters are replaced annually, for example.

The survey will cover painting, pointing and plastering, plumbing repairs, central air conditioning, exterior wall and roof work, repairs to the heating plant, electrical work, and miscellaneous carpentry. The extent of the work as well as expenditures will be determined.

Although the survey has been conducted for a number of years, new procedures designed to save taxpayers' dollars are being introduced this spring. Instead of making personal visits for information in all cases, the Bureau of the Census interviewers are mailing notices to people who were contacted in January, and will telephone to obtain the information. Substantial economies may result if telephone cooperation proves good.

All information furnished to the Census Bureau is held in strict confidence as prescribed by Federal Law. Census data cannot be used for investigations, taxation, or regulation. Individuals and households taking part in Bureau surveys or censuses cannot be identified in any way in Census reports. Results of such surveys can be used for statistical purposes only.

Regardless of the time of year, you owe yourself and your family a good breakfast each morning. Eggs offer good eating to both early and late risers.

To Confirm At St. Michael's

The Right Reverend C. Kilmer Myers, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, will confirm a class of adults and children at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, on Sunday, April 4, at 7 p.m.

As is customary, the Bishop will also preach the sermon at this service. The candidates will be presented for Confirmation by the Reverend Edgar H. Yeoman, Rector of St. Michael's, and the Reverend Peter K. Groschner, Associate Priest.

A reception will take place in the Parish House following the service, at which time members and friends of the parish will have an opportunity to greet the newly confirmed and to meet Bishop Myers.

TACHOMETER STOLEN
James B. Lewis of 912 Bedford, informed Park police on Sunday, March 7, that someone broke into his garage between 1 a.m. and 1 p.m., and stole a tachometer, valued at $25, from the steering wheel post of his car.

Enough macaroni to reach 60 million miles beyond the sun was consumed in the United States last year.

University of Missouri Calls Whaley
Dr. Randall M. Whaley, vice president for graduate studies and research at Wayne State University, has been named Chancellor of the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He will assume his new duties on or about July 1.
Vice President Whaley came to WSU in September of 1960 from Purdue University where he was Associate Dean of the School of Science, Education and Humanities. Born in Hastings, Neb., Dr. Whaley received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in physics from the University of Colorado and his Ph.D. from Purdue University. He first joined the Purdue faculty in 1942.

He was a member of the original research group at Purdue University whose basic work led to the development and use of solid state devices and ultimately to transistors by industry.
At Wayne State, his responsibilities extended over the Office for Graduate Studies, Office for Research Administration, Office for Institutional Research, Office for International Studies, Delinquency Control Training Center, Computing and Data Processing Center, Institute for Regional Urban Studies, Institute for Educational Sciences and the Center for Application of Sciences and Technology.

Vice President Whaley was executive director of the Advisory Board on Education for the National Academy of Sciences - National Research Council, Washington, D.C., from 1957 to 1959 and served as a consultant to the Organization for European Economic Cooperation, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the State Department.

He is currently serving on the boards of the Michigan Heart Association, the Cranbrook Institute of Science, the Board of Directors and Executive Committee, Metropolitan Fund Incorporated, Community Action for Detroit Youth and the Mayor's Committee on a Research Park in Detroit.

Firefighters Sue To Change Ballot
The Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association filed suit on Tuesday, March 30, against the Park to enjoin it from putting on the charter amendment election ballot at the April 5 election, an "argumentative" statement "explaining" the referendum issues.

Charging a denial of voters' rights to a fair election, the Association claims that the alleged statement of the proposition's proposals "is a grossly biased, argumentative misrepresentation of the issues and not a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the amendment or question in such language as shall create no prejudice for or against" it, as required by the state election law.

This is the second time in recent weeks the Association has sued the City to submit its 56-hour firemen's work week proposal to Park voters. The City at first refused to accept the petitions, claiming deficient petition form. After minor revisions, to which the Association agreed, new petitions were circulated, filed and accepted.

Pierce Staging Concert April 8

Dr. Thomas James Moore, instrumental music instructor, will present the Pierce Junior High School Band as well as the Pierce Symphonic Orchestra, in a dual program next Thursday evening, April 8 at 8 o'clock.

The 64 members of the orchestra will open the concert with the "Grand March" from Aida. They will also include Sammartini's "Symphony in D Major" and "Concerto Grosso in G Major" by Vivaldi.

The Pierce Concert Band has 106 musicians. Ronald Bradley and John Hamann serve as the band managers.

The band personnel opens their performance with Philip Sousa's "High School Cadets." Johnson's "White Pine Overture," Grieg's "Huldigungs-marsch" and "Walters' Deep River Rhapsody" are included as well as Slavonic Dances by Dvorak, MacDowell's "Two Woodland Sketches" and Jones' "Riders in the Sky." Moussorgsky's "Great Gate of Kiev" completes the evening's repertoire.

The organizational plan of the band has the following sectional leaders: Karen Pearsall in percussion; Stephen Marr and Richard Todd, horns; Stephen Falk, David Jennings and William Priest, cornets; David Young and Gary Lauff, saxophones; Nathaniel Greene, Loraine Probst, Kenneth Badger and Ted Templeton; clarinets; Diane Hefty and Beth Johnson, flutes; Nancy Court, bassoon and Richard Comly on the oboe.

Tickets are on sale at the school and will also be available at the office before the concert. There are no reserved seats.

Cinema League Plans Program

The Grosse Pointe public will have the opportunity of viewing another film by Rip Zwickie, well known world traveler, explorer and photographer on Thursday evening, April 8, at 8 o'clock. This film will be on Russia and the Arctic.

Narration will be by Mr. Zwickie's wife Fern, who is a professor at Wayne State University and an authority on native handicrafts in all parts of the world. The program is a presentation of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League and is open to the Grosse Pointe public and their guests without charge.

In this film, the Zwickys go from Helsinki, Finland, to Leningrad, Russia, and then to Moscow, after stops in Novgorod and Kalinin. An interesting feature of this part of the trip was a visit to the home of Tchaikovsky in the town of Klin, a suburb of Moscow. It was here that Tchaikovsky composed many of his most famous works.

After spending several days in Moscow the Zwickys proceeded to Warsaw by way of Smolensk and Minsk. After stops of a few days in Warsaw, Prague, and Berlin, the Zwickys jumped to Bergen, Norway, for a trip by boat to Spitzbergen, where they obtained some very spectacular and unusual photographs of the glaciers and ice fields of this distant land, over a thousand miles north of the Arctic Circle.

From Spitzbergen they traveled north until they came to the pack ice which surrounds the north pole.

Offer Classes For 'New Look'

Whether giving the "New Spring Look" to house or wardrobe, there is a class for every Grosse Pointe homemaker, sponsored by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Three classes in Upholstery, taught by Ora Russell, will begin Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 5 through the 7, meeting at 7 p.m. These ten week courses will instruct the student in upholstering that old chair or sofa to give your livingroom the "New Look" for spring.

Mr. Thomas Avey will once again instruct a course in Chair Caning, to begin Wednesday, March 31. Mr. Avey, who has been with Goodwill Industries for many years, will instruct his students in the proper methods and procedures for giving that special antique chair a facelift in this ten week course.

A hand-knit sweater or coat is a sure key to give the "New Look" to your spring wardrobe, and such a creation is possible under the tutelage of Mrs. Pierette Gardinal; she will instruct two eight week classes, beginning Tuesday, April 6 (7:30 to 9:30 p.m.); and Wednesday, April 7 (9:15 to 11:25 a.m.).

Reservations must be made in advance for all of the above classes, by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Mrs. Irene Stonkauff of 1652 Hawthorne, fell on the sidewalk in front of her home on Wednesday, March 17, while shoveling snow, and broke her right hip. She was transported to St. John Hospital by Woods' police ambulance.

U.S. car owners drive their autos an average of 112,000 miles before buying a new vehicle.

Report Reveals Police Statistics

The City of Grosse Pointe Police report for 1964 reveals all sorts of statistics.

Most of the figures are routine—3,403 entries in the Daybook, 7,117 traffic violations issued, $10,206.50 in revenue gained from settling violations and 173 persons arrested for crimes.

Other figures, though, tucked into the pages of the report, point out the many helpful services that Chief Andrew C. Tee-taert and his force perform for the residents of the City.

In 1964, police officers assisted 210 merchants; 157 residents; settled 37 family disputes; mediated 11 disputes among neighbors; investigated 18 suspicious phone calls, three obscene phone calls.

They even investigated the case of one spoiled fish.

Arts and Crafts Courses Begin

Because of the demand for several Arts and Crafts classes, the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public School System, has expanded its program in Decoupage and Copper and Silver Enameling.

Decoupage, taught by Mrs. Louise Hoyt, will add another class to be taught Friday mornings, April 9. Mrs. Hoyt, who was recently featured in an article on Decoupage in the Detroit News, will teach this eight week course to beginners.

Purses, and various decorative articles for the home will be made by her students.

Copper and Silver Enameling will be taught in two sections; Eva Klein will teach a class beginning Tuesday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m., and Sonja Preuthun will teach a class beginning Thursday, April 8, at 7:30 p.m. Jewelry and decorative articles will be featured in these five week classes.

Information and registration for any of the above classes may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Garden Council Offers Shrubs

Pink flowering Kwansan and white flowering Mt. Fuji cherry trees, white lilacs and purple lilacs are the choices of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council for the annual shrub sale this year according to Mrs. Pierre V. Hettler, president of the Council.

The pink Kwansan cherry trees are grafted and will be six to eight feet in height. The Mt. Fuji is a shrub like tree. Both will be bare-root. The purple lilac will be double and the white one single. These will be balled.

The Council has been able to obtain limited numbers of these trees and shrubs. Gardeners have been disappointed other years in not being able to obtain the sale items. In order to avoid disappointment please place advance orders with Miss Christine Edwards, chairman of the sale, at 885-3141.

Camera Club Sets Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will devote an interesting and profitable evening to viewing a large number of outstanding color slides on Tuesday, April 6.

These are the acceptances from the many entries in the most recent Detroit Photographic Guild International Salon. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in Lakeshore road.

After the slide show there will be a social period which will provide everyone present the opportunity of meeting others interested in photography. The public is invited.

NOW HERE TO STAY

This country's first income tax law, invoked in 1862, became so increasingly unpopular it was rescinded in 1872. Another, passed in 1894, was declared unconstitutional. But the income tax law that became effective in 1913 seems to have "caught on."

Knitting Ladies Need More Yarn

If you happen to be in the process of spring cleaning and run into a bit of scrap or leftover yarn, the neighborhood Club Knitting Ladies would be most appreciative of the use of this yarn in their afghan project.

These afghans are sent to the Red Cross, Cancer Clinic, and convalescent homes. Scrap yarn will be picked up if you call TU 5-4600 or may be left at the Club's office at 710 Notre Dame avenue.

The Knitting Ladies also extend an invitation to ladies who like to knit to join them in first and third Friday of the month at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Send Old Toys To Goodwill

Santa has come and gone—and the stockpile of toys has grown considerably in the thousands of homes he visited in metropolitan Detroit.

Everywhere you hear this cry from frustrated mothers, "What shall I do with the old toys my children no longer play with? There are too many to put into drawers or toy chests, and to leave them scattered on the floor creates a safety hazard for the entire family. Some little boy might like to have that fire-engine which needs only new rubber on the wheels and a fresh coat of bright red paint to put it into action again. Any little girl would love that dolly now lying neglected on the floor, if it had a new wig and a pretty dress to make it beautiful again."

Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit offers a solution to your problem with an overabundance of toys. Upon your request, a Goodwill truck will call at your home, pick up the discarded but renewable toys (and anything else you might want to contribute, such as clothing, shoes, etc.), take them to the Goodwill plant where they will be made "like new" by handicapped workers. Then they will be sold in the Goodwill retail stores at prices that meet even the lowest of family budgets.

Why not call Goodwill Industries right now—TR 3-3600. In suburban areas, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

America's largest industry is the food industry, says Mrs. Marjorie Gibbs, Detroit Consumer Marketing Agent. Growing, processing and selling food today takes the full-time efforts of more than nine million workers.

PANCAKE HOUSE CELEBRATES THIRD ANNIVERSARY

Tomorrow, April 2nd, THE ORIGINAL PANCAKE HOUSE, at 20273 Mack Avenue, will celebrate its THIRD ANNIVERSARY. Few new ventures, in the Grosse Pointe Area, have been more enthusiastically received than THE ORIGINAL PANCAKE HOUSE.

Will Serve One Millionth Customer

A good measure of the manner in which this new business has been received, by the people of the area, is the fact that the management expects to serve its MILLIONTH customer in January 1966. When one considers that the restaurant seats only 110 people, this is an exceptional volume, in less than four years.

The management feels that the main reason for its high volume of trade is the fact that it has consistently maintained the same exceptional standards of quality and service which prevailed from the opening day.

Pledge for Future

The management of THE ORIGINAL PANCAKE HOUSE wishes to thank the thousands of customers and friends, who have made this venture so successful, and to pledge that the following high standards will be maintained in the future.

Fast and Courteous Service

Don't let the length of the line Sunday mornings scare you. Only on very rare occasions will you fail to be seated in fifteen minutes.

Gourmet Eating

In pleasant surroundings only the finest foods obtainable will be served. For instance, where else can you get, fresh squeezed orange juice, farm fresh, extra large, white, grade AA eggs, only pure butter, 93 score, used for cooking, old fashioned, dry cured, hickory smoked, hams and bacon, coffee, especially blended for THE ORIGINAL PANCAKE HOUSE, pure whipping cream, 36%, used in batters, and served with coffee and cereals, old fashioned oatmeal, just like mother used to make? Prepared mixes are not used. All batters are made from unbleached hard wheat flour.

League Extends Registration

The Farms Little League Baseball has extended registration of all boys in the Farms who will be 8 years old by August 1, 1965, but will not be 13 years old by July 31, 1965.

Any boy interested should come to Brownell Junior High School Field on April 3 or 4 between noon and 2 p.m. with one parent and proof of age.

Due to the unseasonable weather, the first tryout sessions for all Farms boys already registered will be April 3 and 4 at Brownell Junior High School Field.

Babe Ruth Loop Tryouts Delayed

By Bill Stuck

Pointe Babe Ruth Vice President Fred Critchfield announced today that tryouts previously scheduled for April 3 have been delayed one week to April 10 at 10 a.m.

Boys living west of Rivard or on the west side of Rivard to the Park west limits should report to the Neighborhood Club. Boys on the east side of Rivard to the Farms east limits should report to Kerby field. All boys not previously on a team and wanting to play Babe Ruth must tryout in order to be selected for a team.

League Secretary Carl Cuddeback again adds that any boys desiring to play including those who played last season MUST REGISTER. To date less than 30 of the 100 or so returning players have registered. Contact any of the following to register: Fred Critchfield, Bill Fankhurst, George Wilson or your old manager if he is returning this season.

Volunteers are still needed for assistance in managing, coaching, etc. I am sure we must have some ex-ball players in the area "with daughters" who would like to get back in the sport. There is no requirement that you live or work in the area.

League President Muma advises that a 13-year-old league will be in operation probably on Saturday or Sunday in case work prevents you from coming evenings. This league will play once per week and will be made up of all 13-year-olds in each league. It is being started to insure that all 13-year-olds get every opportunity to play and to show their skills in addition to the normal schedule.

An Important 'First'

We wonder how many of the well educated, well informed people in The Pointes know the names of their own mayors? Certainly, many of them do... but we invite you to ask, off-handedly, the next time in the midst of a local group, discussing important national or international issues: "by the way, who is the mayor of your city?"

We'd be surprised at the number of people who can't answer that question, and at the number of people who have to think a minute or two before they finally pull out of the musty back recesses of their minds, a Name—with nothing much in the way of information attached to it.

This lack of information regarding municipal officials seems to be a peculiarly suburban problem. The small town mayor is a Personage, the big city mayor is a Personality. To a lesser degree, small town and big city councilmen are personages and personalities respectively. But the suburban mayor and his council, constantly overshadowed by the big city government, remain semi-anonymous. The suburb's eyes are on the big city, where the big things happen and the big decisions are made by the big people.

All too often this suburban interest in the big city and its government, a good and inevitable thing in itself, has an unfortunate corollary: The suburban citizen tends to disregard his local government, to be disinterested in, and sometimes downright ignorant of his local officials and their work.

We feel there is no excuse for this lack of interest in what happens "at home." We consider next Monday's elections in the Woods, Park and Farms the concern of every citizen in these communities, and we urge every citizen in these communities to exercise his vote after an intelligent appraisal of the candidates, their records and beliefs.

The quickest and easiest way to make such an appraisal is to attend one of tonight's candidates' rallies, to meet and question and listen to those running for local office. The rallies, at the Woods Municipal Building, Pierce Junior High School and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, begin at 8 o'clock. They are sponsored by the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters.

The League has organized similar rallies in the past, for candidates running from Grosse Pointe districts for state and Congressional offices, and for candidates seeking election to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, but this is the first time it has sponsored rallies for candidates for municipal offices.

We hope it won't be the last.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Once again we are indebted to you for an inspiring and well-written editorial. As you know, we are most appreciative of your untiring efforts to tell the story of The Grosse Pointe Public School System to your readers. In your editorial of March 25, as well as those printed during the election campaign, your brilliant clarification of issues enabled the public to understand the issues and to gain much-needed perspective on the problems facing the schools.

Thank you for the generous use of your pages to advance the cause of public education in Grosse Pointe.

Sincerely yours,
Edward J. Pongracz,
President Board of Education
Charles H. Wilson
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Mr. Edgar:
This letter is to extend to you and the Grosse Pointe News our congratulations on the winning of the School Bell Award for the third time. You certainly deserved it. Also I must say that after your wonderful coverage of the 1965 campaign leading to the school election on March 22, you are well on your way to another award.

On behalf of the Grosse Pointe Education Association I wish to thank you for your fine service to the people of Grosse Pointe in keeping them informed about their school system.

Sincerely yours,
Howard Lawrence, Pres.
Grosse Pointe Educ. Ass'n.

To the Editor:
Pontiac State Hospital is still in need of supplies for the Occupational Therapy Division. Anything in the way of materials—small or large pieces, cotton, leather, plastic goods, upholstery fabrics, yarns, trimmings, is needed. Metal for metalcraft is needed, as is wood for woodcraft. Anything that can be used for handiwork is requested.

If funds were available, much needed tools and equipment could be purchased.

Please make all checks payable to Pontiac State Hospital, Occupational Therapy Division.

The patients cannot come out and make their appeal directly to you. Many of the patients have not had a visitor in years. It is a well known fact that busy hands help sick minds. If many of these people could be active in Occupational Therapy, their minds would be occupied and in many instances, cures would take place.

Won't you please help me to help the patients? I will be more than happy to give you further information you might desire. Please call or write to me directly.

To the Editor:—
On Sunday morning, February 28, 1965, I was involved in an accident at the corner of Moran and Beaupre. While driving south on Moran, the through street, I was struck by a woman driving on Beaupre who ignored the double stop sign at the corner.

My car was a complete wreck but fortunately I escaped serious injury. I suggest that the Farms make Moran and Beaupre a four way stop intersection. Moran is a through street from Chalfonte to Charlevoix and too many people exceed the speed limit while on this open stretch of road. Also, Beaupre is a through street from Kerby to Moran and again from Moran to the City Limits at Fisher. Drivers not familiar with the area are not expecting to have to stop at Moran.

This has resulted in many close calls, and in my case, an accident. This busy corner is constantly used by Kerby, Brownell, and St. Paul school children. In the interests of safety I hope the Farms takes some action before someone is more seriously hurt.

I also wish to express my appreciation for the fine service I was given by the Farms Fire and Police Departments. The Fire ambulance arrived within 3 minutes and swiftly took me to Bon Secours Hospital. The police came to the hospital and

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Over the past decade or so, it has seemed to me that Jewish writers have emerged as a dominant force in our literature. HERZOG by Saul Bellow is a best seller, and just recently won the National Book Award for fiction. In 1959, Bernard Malamud's collection of short stories, THE MAGIC BARREL won the same Award.

And so I have elected to mention some of these authors and books, and have further specialized my research to include those which deal with the Jewish world. The above-mentioned HERZOG is now so well-known that an analysis of this would be repetition on my part from previous columns. THE MAGIC BARREL stories, with the exception of three, deal with the poor Jewish world of unsuccessful delicatessens, hole-in-the-wall candy stores, bakeries and shoe-repair shops. Each tale reveals some facet or characteristic of the Jewish tradition—written with tenderness, irony, wisdom and humor.

Interestingly enough, one of the most recent novels to be mentioned is also the oldest: I refer to Henry Roth's CALL IT SLEEP, which is intensely Jewish in tone and setting. Written thirty years ago, it was even then recognized as a distinguished novel by critics and readers, but not by the general public. Recently in 1964, it appeared in paperback and is winning great acclaim. Here the central figure is David Schearl, an overwrought, imaginative little boy who has come to New York with his east European parents, and from 1911 to 1913, is exposed to the blows of slum life. Neither sentimentality nor nostalgia is overdone.

For many of us, an early point of departure would be Herman Wouk's MARJORIE MORNINGSTAR which appeared in 1955. Is there anyone who has forgotten the life of this girl, her loves (especially the dashing Noel Airman), and her final image as a standard suburban matron living in Mamaroneck with her husband and four children? As I remember, the success of this novel set many of us to reading an earlier Wouk opus, CITY BOY (which I personally enjoyed immensely). This was the story of an eleven-year old Bronx school boy, named Herbie Bookbinder, and related his adventures in public school, at home, and at summer camp. It was understandably, amusing and entertainingly presented.

Before I get too far afield, I must remind you of another Malamud title: A NEW LIFE, which seemed to be somewhat autobiographical, as the protagonist (S. Levin) was an English instructor teaching in an Oregon college.

Another author who has recently published a work of fiction is Isaac Bashevis Singer. Here again, in SHORT FRIDAY, we have a collection of stories, written originally in Yiddish and translated by the author and others. These are excellently wrought tales, variously concerned with married love, magic, ghosts and wry twists of fate. An earlier book of his, THE FAMILY MOSKAT, dealt with Hebrew family life in Warsaw from the end of the 18th century to the beginning of World War II.

I suspect by now you are wondering if I've forgotten J. D. Salinger. Being a Salinger buff, I couldn't! In his NINE STORIES, FRANNY AND ZOOEY, RAISE HIGH THE ROOF BEAM, CARPENTERS, AND SEYMOUR, AN INTRODUCTION, we are catapulted into the life of Jewish intellectuals, namely, the fantastic and unforgettable Glass family. From Another Pointe of View

By Betty Collins

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will officially reopen this Saturday evening with a gala "Soiree Francaise" which, thanks to the enthusiasm and ideas of co-chairmen Mrs. William Schmidt and Mrs. Fraser Vipond, is rapidly being projected into a really BIG evening.

Both Mrs. Schmidt, (who is the envy of everyone these days for the rich tan she acquired recently while fishing with her husband in the Keys of Florida), and Mrs. Vipond admit that the French theme for the evening "took" their imaginations right from the start. In fact, Diana Vipond wouldn't have missed Soiree Francaise for anything, even though her schedule was already full with the continuing activities of her two youngsters and the studying for midterm examinations for two courses she is taking at Mercy College. "Sociology and Art Appreciation," she explains, "and the sociology is killing me!"

Together Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Vipond started the ball rolling for their Soiree more than a month ago when they enlisted the aid of their seven committee members in painting a gigantic mural, a colorful French street-cafe scene, to be the focal point in the grill on the big night. It will fill the circular picture window which usually overlooks Lake Shore road and will be accented with flower-filled window boxes and hedgerow.

Although the club was officially closed during the month of March, the ladies painted nearly every day. They used the floor of the Board of Directors room for an easel and leaned, crawled, and dangled over their work in an effort to achieve just the right results. Then they signed their initials in nine unlikely places.

Artist-committee members include the Mesdames Theodore Berendsohn, John Bott, Thomas Burke, Erik Erickson, Fred Hillger, Joseph Kaiser and Roger Smith, in addition to the co-chairmen. Designer and mentor was Grosse Pointe War Memorial artist Ray Fleming.

Another "labor of love" for Soiree Francaise were the invitations, illustration for which came from an old print belonging to Mrs. Vipond. Two cheery-cheeked

Junior League Sets Benefit Performance

Hal Leroy, Frank Fontaine, Earl Wrightson, Lois Hunt, Others to Appear in An Evening With The Stars April 30 in Ford Auditorium

Entertainer Hal Leroy, famed as a comedian tap dancer, TV, and night club performer, will be master of ceremonies for the Junior League of Detroit's benefit program, "An Evening With The Stars," to be held on Friday evening, April 30, at 8:30 o'clock in the Ford Auditorium.

Other performers who will appear include Frank Fontaine ("Crazy Guggenheim" of the Jackie Gleason show), and the team of Earl Wrightson, and Lois Hunt, offering a program ranging from Broadway show tunes to operetta, drawing from the musical output of the theatre since 1900.

Both Mr. Wrightson and Miss Hunt are veterans of Broadway and national tours. Miss Hunt appeared recently on Broadway in Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Sound of Music" and Mr. Wrightson has been host of television's popular "American Musical Theatre." They have appeared together on the Bell Telephone Hour and the Tonight Show.

Other entertainers appearing will be Dolores Perry, a lyric soprano, who has toured with George Gobel and Liberace, and Los Trovadores de Espana, a singing and dancing group newly here from Spain.

Tickets for "An Evening With The Stars" can be obtained at Ford Auditorium or by calling the Junior League Office, TU 1-0040 or writing the Junior League office at 32 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe 36.

Admission is $25 for benefactors tickets, $12.50, patrons tickets, and $5 or $3 for general admission. Proceeds benefit the Junior League Community Fund which supports the poison control and school enrichment programs.

Project chairman is Mrs. Arthur Buhl Hudson and assistant chairman is Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr.

Others who are working on the benefit are Mrs. Palmer T. Heenan, program chairman; Mrs. Albert C. Dickson, advertising, and Mrs. Norman A. MacColl, Jr., Assistant advertising; Mrs. Henry M. Woodhouse, patron, tickets, and Mrs. John W. Coe, general, tickets.

Other committees and their chairman are arrangements, Mrs. William duPont Dahling; publicity, Mrs. William D. Byron and Mrs. Charles V. Hicks; promotion, Mrs. Edward T. Gushee and afterglow party, Mrs. Howard M. Love.

Easter vacation, Miss Gostow will visit the West Palm Beach, Fla., home of her roommate, Judith Newman, of Bradford, Conn., and New York City.

JOANNE M. HEDGE, of Hawthorne road, a senior at Wayne State University, is one of eight WSU students majoring in mass communications who has been selected by a faculty committee to attend the fourth college conference of the International Radio and Television Society, Inc., at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York City, April 8 and 9. The students were chosen on the basis of scholarship, ability, and dedication to broadcasting.

Schedule Derby Ball At Cobo Hall June 5

All Proceeds to Be Donated to Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America; Many Pointers on Party Committee

The Michigan Derby Ball Committee, under the auspices of the Hazel Park Racing Association, met at the Roostertail recently to discuss plans for this year's Derby Ball.

The annual event is scheduled Saturday evening, June 5, from 9 until 1 o'clock, in the ballroom of Cobo Hall, following Derby Trial Day at the track.

Entire proceeds from the ball, which will herald the running of the $50,000 added Michigan Derby at the Hazel Park Race Course the following Saturday, June 12, will go directly to the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc.

The Hazel Park Racing Association pays all expenses connected with the ball. Returns last year made possible the operation of the Muscular Dystrophy Association's Camp Rankin, at Lexington, Mich.

Mrs. William O. Bridge is serving as ball chairman again this year, assisted by Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, III, as co-chairman.

Grosse Pointe committee members include Mrs. John Cooley, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Mrs. Horace E. Dodge, Mrs. Charles Horne, Mrs. Carl E. Larson, Mrs. Donald D. MacFarlane, Mrs. James Quello, Mrs. Joseph Schoenith, Mrs. Gerald E. Hackey and Mrs. Raymond M. Whyte.

Gertrude Engel will assist the committee as the special coordinator for the Pointe area.

Tickets at $15 per couple may be purchased by sending checks payable to the Muscular Dystrophy Association, of America to the Michigan Derby Ball Committee, 205 Fine Arts Building, 58 West Adams, Detroit.

Dress is optional. Reserved tables for 10 people are available, if desired. There will be entertainment and a buffet supper.

Clark Women's Club Plans Tea, Social Hour

Clark Women's Club will meet on Monday, April 5, at Christ Methodist Church at 1 o'clock for a tea and social hour, followed by a business meeting.

Mrs. William Bostick will be the guest speaker and has chosen as her topic "Home and Family Living."

Creative Stitchers Admire Handiwork

right), MRS. ALFRED TAYLOR, of Handy road, MRS. HARCOURT CAVELLY, of Audubon road, MRS. CHARLES REINOWSKI, of Beaupre road, and MRS. REMINGTON PURDY, of Beaupre road. The group is sponsoring a two-day course in Creative Needlework, April 8 and 9, at the Hospitality House in The Village.

Dem Women Schedule Tea

Fourteenth Congressional District Democrats will greet spring at a card party, Tuesday, April 6, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Party Room, Local 212, Mack near Conner.

The annual event is sponsored by the Women's Activities committee of the official Fourteenth Congressional District Democratic organization.

Bridge, pinocle, poker, rummy and other card games will be featured. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served during the evening. Hostesses for the event will be the wives of district officials, with their husbands as honor guests. Men and women in the district are cordially invited to attend.

Tickets, at $1.50, may be reserved before Friday, April 2, by calling Miss Mary Jane Liddy, Detroit, VA 2-2879. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Mrs. Virginia Hetmansk, Grosse Pointe Woods, is general chairman for the party. Assisting her are Mrs. Ethel Wagnier, Detroit, refreshments; Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Grosse Pointe Farms, prizes, and Miss Mary Ann Fulton, Hamtramck, hostesses.

Soroptimist Brunch

The Soroptimist, a Business and Professional Women's Service Club, has scheduled its annual champagne brunch in the new Fountain Room of the Whittier Hotel on Sunday, April 4, from 11:30 to 1:30 o'clock. Proceeds from the brunch will go toward the Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Florence Riley is serving as chairman with co-chairman Mrs. Kathryn Gannon.

Symphony Juniors Slate Carnation Ball

Mrs. John B. Ford Is Honorary Chairman; Party Color Scheme to Be Gold, White and Royal Blue

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will hold its Carnation Ball at the Detroit Golf Club on May 1. Proceeds from the Carnation Ball will go to the Maintenance Fund for The Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Members and guests of the Junior Women's Association are in for not only a gay evening of dancing, but also for a special musical treat as six musicians from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra provide the music directed by Felix Resnick.

Cocktails will begin at 6:30 o'clock with strolling musicians present. Guests are to dine at 8 o'clock and the ball will get into full swing at 9:30 with a gala grand march.

Since this is the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the color scheme for the ball will be gold and white and royal blue. Lovely white candelabra holding white carnations with pittosporum will adorn the elegantly gold clothed tables. The Detroit Golf Club has recently been majestically redecorated in gold with royal blue draperies, (they must have known the Jr. Women would be dancing there).

Prizes will be given away. They have been donated by Boyne Mountain Ski Lodge, Mark Twain Furs, Walton Pierce and other friends of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Honorary Chairman for the Carnation Ball is Mrs. John B.

Detroit Sorosis Meets April 6

Members of Detroit Sorosis will gather for their annual meeting and luncheon in the Pemberton road home of Mrs. Albert Conkey at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday, April 6.

Assisting hostesses will be Mesdames James C. Boles, Charles Burgess and Larry Davidson. Mrs. Willie N. Leigh will serve as chairman of the day.

Speaker Dr. Harry A. Pearce will discuss "Pivotal Points in History."

Americans used enough food cans to stretch to the moon and back three times during the past year.

Festival Finale Slated At Center

This Sunday at 2 o'clock, the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium will receive eight foreign stations by way of telecast.

This program, "Televisit through Teletar," is the finale of the International Language Festival sponsored by the Detroit International Institute.

From 11 different shows at the Institute, native-speaking judges have selected eight of the most interesting acts.

In co-operation with Detroit area public, parochial, and ethnic schools, the program will consist of German, Spanish, French, Polish, Armenian, Ukrainian, Latin, and Russian skits.

The frame story, which is a take-off on the Huntley-Brinkley show, was written by Mrs. Helen Baginski from Fairlane Junior High School in Dearborn. Between acts, "commercials" explaining the problems of language teaching will be presented by Fairlane students.

Mrs. Valerie Komives and

Mrs. I. A. Schminin, producer, say all visitors are welcome. "Since there will be no tickets sold, admission will be simply a donation," explained Mrs. Schminin.

Grosse Pointe High School, winner from the Russian night, will present a reading and pantomime of a humorous poem, "Baggage," by Marshok.

While two first-year Russian students, Nancy Cary and Rick Ludwig, read the poem, a supporting cast will act it out.

The poem is about a Russian lady, (Dana Maichie), with too much luggage—a carton, a traveling case, a suitcase, a picture, a chair, and her little dog, (Kathleen Wenzel). During the course of her train trip the little dog runs away and the baggage clerks (John Montgomery, Rob Munson, and Bill Radcliffe) attempt to solve the problem by substituting a large dog, (Scotty Tilly).

The skit is directed by Ralph N. Deal, Grosse Pointe Russian teacher, and Wasyli Karpenko, student teacher.

Miss Whittingham Marries Mr. Barrett

Pair Vacationing in Honolulu; Will Make Their Home in Sydney, Australia; Bride Chooses Lace Appliqued Ivory Satin Gown

A reception at the Country Club of Detroit followed the Saturday afternoon ceremony, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, at which Sarah Catherine Whittingham spoke her marriage vows to Robert Scott Barrett.

The Reverend Bertram deHeus Atwood officiated at the 4 o'clock rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Gould Whittingham, of Kenwood court, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, with bodice appliques of Alencon lace.

Her short illusion veil fell from a band of matching lace, and she carried white roses, with ivy.

Mary Wayne MacArthur was maid of honor, and Mrs. Richard Zuehlke served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Sue Barrett, sister of the bridegroom, of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. J. Philip Kistler, of Cooperstown, N.Y.

They wore floor length linen frocks, styled with strawberry pink Empire bodices, defined by garlands of small pink flowers, and pale pink skirts. Their headpieces were strawberry and pale pink.

Guild Marks Anniversary

The Bon Secours Hospital Women's Guild will celebrate its silver anniversary on April 22 in the Fries Auditorium at 12:30 o'clock. For the occasion, a luncheon and variety show have been planned by the chairman, Mrs. Charles Dawood and her co-chairmen, Mrs. Herb Kelleher and Mrs. Jack Henders.

Among the featured stars of the variety show will be Rick Perry, from the Ed Sullivan and Jack Paar television shows; Ace Azur of the Danny Thomas Show; a lyric tenor, Enrico LaRicca; and a soprano, Joan Leaby, who is also a member of the Bon Secours Woman's Guild.

Various card games will be played and prizes will be awarded, along with mystery packages, to the winners.

Donation is $4. For reservations call Mrs. Louis Decker, TU 2-6677, or Mrs. Elwood Watcher, TU 2-6209. Members and friends of the Women's Guild are invited.

Elizabeth Cass DAR To Meet Next Monday

The Michigan Room will be the subject of Mrs. Roy V. Barnes' talk before Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the Women's City Club on April 5.

Mrs. Barnes, of Royal Oak, is a national vice chairman of the DAR and an Honorary State Regent of the Michigan unit.

The Michigan Room, housed in the National Society's Museum in Washington, D.C., is one of 27 rooms sponsored by individual states. All furnishings in the room are gifts of Michigan DAR members. All items are authentic and date back to the Revolutionary War period.

The museum proper holds some 1,000 choice antiques, such as china, glass, pewter and tools, men's, women's and children's clothing and accessories, toys, furnishings and military equipment used in the Revolutionary War—including a 13 star flag which went through some of the battles of the Revolution.

The museum, along with the National Society's famed Genealogical Research Library, is open, without charge, to the general public, Monday through Fridays.

Woman's Club Groups To Meet

The Bridge Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday, April 7, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Lunch begins at 12 o'clock, with bridge following promptly at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Leland D. Burton will be hostess for the day.

The Discussion Group will not meet on its regular day, but will combine its next meeting with the Garden Group on April 28. Announcement of this program will be made at a later date.

HUMANITY

The world is filled with all manner of men—endowed with all manner of manners.

Mrs. Robert S. Barrett

In Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday afternoon, SARAH CATHERINE WHITTIGHAM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Gould Whittingham, of Kenwood court, was married to Mr. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eugene Barrett, of Clayton, Mo.

Walter Pattee Claims Bride

Walter Emerson Pattee, Jr., son of the senior Pattees, of Kensington road, claimed Elizabeth Wolfe, of Burbank, Calif., as his bride on Saturday in a late afternoon ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in Burbank.

For her wedding, a double ring ceremony, the bride chose a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, white roses and stephanotis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Parker Wolfe, of Newark, Ohio.

Mrs. Harold B. Boker, matron of honor, wore a full-length pink gown and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Elliott Lindsey, and Mrs. Edward Bohoslav, were dressed like the honor attendant.

Following a trip to Yosemite National Park, the newlyweds will make their home at 513 Irving Avenue, Apt. G., Glendale, Calif.

The bridegroom, who was an honor student and athlete at Cornell and Michigan State Universities, is presently a service engineer with Deady Chemical Company, in Los Angeles. The new Mrs. Pattee attended Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

Experience proves that there are more cross-roads to success than straight stretches.

Church Women Plan Busy Days

The month of April will offer many activities for the women of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

The Women's Society will hold its monthly luncheon at 12:30 o'clock next Tuesday, April 6, at the Church Social Hall. Hostess circles will be Naomi and Ruth.

The Reverend Paul M. Cargio, pastor of the Cairo Methodist Church, will speak on "The Responsibilities of the United States in a World Community of New Nations." Reverend Cargio, a member of the Committee on World Peace, has traveled extensively in Europe.

There will also be a recognition ceremony for women who have given outstanding service to the Women's Society during the past two years.

All Circles will meet April 13, with the exception of Naomi and Martha Mary, whose combined meeting is scheduled April 20.

Also on April 13, four members of the Women's Society will represent the church at an International Luncheon, scheduled at Wayne State University.

A rummage sale will be held at the church April 29, beginning at 8:30 in the morning, and on Friday, April 30, there will be a Detroit District Annual Meeting at the Strathmoor Methodist Church, Detroit.

WILLIAM T. WALSH JR., sophomore at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, son of Mrs. W. Tade Walsh, of Washington road, has pledged to the Western Michigan Chapter of Delta Upsilon international social fraternity.

To Be Bride

Photo by Eddie McGrath, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Schlaff, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, announced the engagement of their daughter, MARY JO, to Gordon A. Snavely, son of the Gordon E. Snavelys, of Royal Oak, at a family gathering Sunday.

The bride-elect was graduated from St. Paul High School and is attending the University of Detroit.

Her fiancé, who was graduated from Royal Oak Kimball High School, received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Detroit, where he affiliated with Magi fraternity and Blue Key honorary fraternity. He is presently attending U. of D. Law School, and is affiliated with Gamma Eta Gamma legal fraternity.

A winter wedding is planned.

Hammel-Wallace Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wallace, of Bedford road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela L., to Godfrey J. Hammel III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey V. Hammel, of Harvard road.

Miss Wallace is a graduate of the University of Detroit school of Dental Hygiene. The future bridegroom attends Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio.

LISBETH WHALEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. E. W. WHALEY, of Berkshire road, is one of 45 dancers appearing in "Dance '65", an annual spring concert by the Department of Modern Dance at the University of Utah. It will be presented April 2 and 3.

A junior majoring in modern dance, Lisbeth has appeared in numerous University of Utah dance productions and was a solo performer in the University's annual "Nutteracker Ballet."

Chamber Music Group to Meet

The April program meeting of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe, to be held Sunday, April 4, at 3 p.m. in the ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, will be dedicated to the Crusade for Strings, a movement designed to promote and encourage the study of stringed instruments.

Introductory remarks on the Crusade for Strings will be made by Mrs. Frank Coolidge, member-at-large of the National Federation of Music Clubs and national chairman of the Crusade for Strings, which is sponsored by the Federation. Mrs. Coolidge is a founder of Pro Musica and is the first honorary member of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe.

Opening the musical portion of the program will be the Concerto Grosso in D minor, Opus 3 No. 11, by Vivaldi, played by Lois Lawrence, violin; Stephen Fuller, violin; and Helene Nordstrom, piano. Vivaldi chose to title this work a CONCERTO GROSSO even though he scored it only for two violins and klavier rather than the usual large ensemble.

Catherine Goodsell, violin, and Mildred Gardisky, piano, will play the Grieg Sonata for Violin and Piano, Opus 8 No. 1, a lyrical work composed early in Grieg's career. Both performers are music teachers in the Detroit Public School system. Mrs. Goodsell, a string teacher at four different schools and a member of Women's Symphony, has studied at Carleton College and at Eastman School of Music, and holds a master's degree from Northwestern University.

Mrs. Cardisky, a vocal instructor, is originally from Ann Arbor and holds a master's degree from the University of Michigan.

The Schubert Sonata in B flat, Opus 109, will be performed by Margery Aber, violin; James Pacifico, cello; and Cindy Ritz, piano. In this trio sonata consisting of one movement, Miss Aber, director of instrumental music at Osborne High School, will be heard with two young student musicians. James Pacifico and Cindy Ritz are students at Von Steuben Junior High School. In addition to their music studies at school, James studies cello with Arthur Bachmann and Cindy studies piano with Marjorie Schulte.

The concluding work will be the Sonata in E minor, Opus 38 No. 1 by Brahms, played by Carole Fuller, cello, and Harriet Collins, piano. Carole Fuller has studied with Margery Aber, Georges Miquelle and Thaddeus Markiewicz. In addition to teaching privately, she is a member of the Grosse Pointe Symphony, the St. Clair Shores Symphony, and the Wayne State University String Quartet. Harriet Collins, originally from St. Louis, has studied in that city with Leo Miller, and at Carleton College.

Program chairman for the April meeting is Josanne Kina. A coffee hour will follow the musical program.

GOP Women Plan Luncheon

The Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe will hold its annual membership luncheon Thursday, April 8, at the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, at 12:30 o'clock.

The price of the luncheon will be $2.50, and as Republican Women's State Federation Month is being celebrated, part of the price will go to this group. The Crystal Ballroom will be festively decorated with dozens of geranium plants, and profits from the sale of these plants will go to the State Federation.

Speaker for the day will be Mrs. John Fred Schnafly, of Alton, Ill., noted author and first vice-president of the National Federation of Republican Women, as well as area chairman for the Federation's Midwest Region.

Phyllis Schafly is the author of the 1964 best-seller, "A Choice Not An Echo," and co-author with Rear Admiral Chester Ward of "The Gravedigger," another 1964 best-seller. She was the only woman invited by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to testify regarding the Moscow Nuclear Test Ban Treaty of 1963.

The mother of six children, she is a Phi Beta Kappa with a Master's Degree in Political Science from Radcliffe College. In selecting her as 1964 "Woman of Achievement in Public Affairs," the St. Louis Globe-Democrat said: "Phyllis Schafly stands for everything that has made America great and for those things which will keep it that way."

Interested Republicans may make reservations by telephoning Mrs. Richard Emerson at TU 4-5313.

Teens' Casino Sets Programs

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's night club—casino for prep and high school students will be open again two Friday nights in a row from 8:30 to 11:30 on April 2 and April 9. New bands, "The Defenders," "Misfits" and "Monicles" will be featured along with a band that has played before — the Kakeaters.

Patrons of the club are reminded to bring their lucky number tickets which will act as identification and will also make them eligible for two outstanding door prizes.

As usual the games room will be open throughout the evening where guests can try their skill at winning when the dance floors get crowded.

While the bands will play continuously in two of the club rooms there will be an open snack and drink bar operating in another room on the main floor.

Admission will strictly be limited to 500 so it is wise to pick up admission key-card in advance. The entrance cost is 75c. Dates aren't necessary and dress is casual. Checking is free and snack and drinks are sold for 10c.

MARGARET FORTUNSKI, daughter of MR. and MRS. A. C. FORTUNSKI, of Berkshire road, and PETE FRAME, son of MR. and MRS. W. M. FRAME, of Bournmouth road, were placed on the Dean's list of Northwood Institute, Alma Extension Center, for the Winter Term. The Dean's List position was earned by obtaining a B average or better.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Henderson, of St. Clair avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, NINA MARIE, to Harlan Clark Graves, Jr., son of Mrs. Harlan Clark Graves, Sr., of Detroit, and Mrs. Virginia Thompson Graves, of St. Clair Shores.

A June 26 wedding is planned, in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, with Reverend Andrew F. Rauth officiating.

Chi Omega Alumnae To Have Meeting

Chi Omega members will gather for a dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Peter Witzky, of Clairview court, next Wednesday, April 7, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Kirwin H. Stief will be chairman for the evening, and the group will be entertained by a professional hair stylist.

AAUW Elects New Officers

Three officers were elected to the board of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women at AAUW's annual meeting recently at Lochmoor Country Club.

Mrs. David Coolidge was elected first vice president in charge of membership. Mrs. Richard Mertz was elected third vice president for program, and Mrs. Keith Leibbrand was elected treasurer.

Mrs. Coolidge is a former chairman of the Recent Graduates group and the Children's Theater project, and has served on numerous committees.

Mrs. Mertz presently serves as Hospitality chairman and has been recording secretary and a member of various committees. Mrs. Leibbrand was Studio Arts group chairman and area representative for Cultural Interests.

In AAUW activities this month, the International Relations group will hear Mrs. William Krebs discuss "Today's Trends in Latin America" at a meeting Thursday, April 1. Mrs. C. G. Turrell, of Stephens road, is hostess and co-hostess is Mrs. John P. Thomas.

Mrs. William N. McConnell, Jr., will discuss "Sculpture and Architecture in India" at the meeting of the Art Appreciation group on Friday, April 2, at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. David Pethick in Allard avenue.

The Recent Graduates group will hear a panel discussion on Southeast Asia on Tuesday, April 6, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. William Stetson, in Ridgemont road. The panel will include Mrs. John MacLeod, Mrs. Robert Cox and Mrs. Alexander Irwin, chairman.

The Creative Writing group will meet at 12:45 o'clock Wednesday, April 7, at the home of Mrs. Edgar Hahn, in McKinley avenue. Mrs. Emil Dauch, of Three Mile drive, is hostess to the Choral group at 7:45 o'clock Monday, April 12.

The Studio Arts group will continue its oil painting sessions at the home of Mrs. Lee Corless, of Roslyn road, at 9:30 o'clock April 2, 9, and 16.

District Nursing Society To Convene Wednesday

The regular meeting of the District Nursing Society is scheduled Wednesday morning, April 7, at 11 o'clock, at the University place home of Mrs. Hervely Parke.

WOODS COUNCIL

Dear Fellow Citizen,

About this time every election year these pages are full of large political ads. Since I am spending the money, I want to use this opportunity to say things I think are important.

A one year term is short. Still, with cooperation within the council and sustained interest shown by citizens, one year is long enough to do the following. To prevent as much future conflict, ill will, and suspicion as possible, we must:

1. Establish policies to help citizens know what is happening before important decisions are made, not after it is too late to influence these decisions.
2. Clarify city planning aims while we still have a choice. Should we move toward full commercial development at large expense to residential zones? Or plan now for business needs in ways that would prevent as many inroads into residential areas as could be possible.
3. Study and cut through present confusion about recreation aims before the Ciene Trombly Park and recreation building are lost. Is it really necessary to lose these, then to pay for a grand new recreation center—when the coming high school will already have the larger community facilities we can use?
4. Determine at what point in the future city spending can level off and the surpluses be returned to taxpayers.

I need your help to be elected. I believe that if elected I can help you — to save unnecessary problems that result from poor communication. — to save unnecessary use of your tax money.

monks who have been enjoying an extended wine-tasting session appear, along with the legend that "old wine and an old friend are enough provision."

The chairmen did not take these words literally, however. There will be 16 different kinds of wine for wine-testing, plus a complete French dinner menu including bouef a la bourguignonne, nouilles; poule au pot, choux de bruxelles, capis provençal, pommes de terre au four or pommes de terres frites, and other gourmet foods, ending with creme a la glace and cafe.

There'll also be dancing to the music of Jerry Fenby, European folk singers, and a caricaturist who'll make his headquarters in the Grill.

For the evening, the Grill will be renamed Chez Croix in honor of the popular commodore Dr. Harold E. Cross and Mrs. Cross.

The Crosses were the first to make their reservations for this party which will be the first since the arrival of the new club manager John J. Devers. The Commodore's guests will include Mr. and Mrs. William Howe, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barnes, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ambrose, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Riddle and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore.

Others who have made early reservations include

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Brooks, (Mrs. Brooks celebrating her birthday at the Soiree), Mr. and Mrs. George Pakin, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Parkin, Dr. and Mrs. Karl Weber, Mr. and Mrs. James Quello, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hitchens.

More are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Zabinski, Mr. and Mrs. George DeClerk, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rickel and Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly.

Brown University Chorale to Perform

Several Grosse Pointe families are opening their homes this weekend to students from Brown University and Pembroke College, members of the Brown University Chorale, who will present a concert Sunday evening, April 4, in Fries auditorium, at 8 o'clock. The students are touring major cities in the east and midwest as part of the bicentennial celebrations of Brown University. The Chorale consists of 49 voices, 29 young men and 20 women students, under the direction of Professor Erich Kunzel. They will be accompanied by the University Brass Ensemble. The Bruinaires of Brown University and the Chatterlocks of Pembroke College, the University Chorale, who will present a concert Sunday evening.

Among the local alumni hosts and hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Jenny Lind Club Benefit

Springtime in Sweden will be the theme of the Jenny Lind Club's annual spring benefit part on Tuesday, April 6, at 12 noon, in the Whittier Hotel. The program will include a luncheon and fashion show for the "young at heart." Some of the Club's members will model: Mrs. Carl G. Anderson, Mrs. James Barker, Mrs. Oscar A. Carlson, Mrs. Karl H. Carlson Jr., Miss Erickson, Mrs. Hira Herrington, Mrs. Edward Johansson, Ms. L. Linde-rose, Mrs. R. Dort Pettis, Mrs. Frank Colker, Mrs. Edward Piggins and Mrs. Walter Smith.

The theme will be Springtime in Sweden. Decorations will include handmade Swedish Maypoles which will center each table and a large Maypole under which will be dolls dressed in Swedish costumes, each costume representing the folk dress of a different province of Sweden.

Chairman for the party is Mrs. Carl Erickson and serving on the committee are Mrs. Harold Erickson, Mrs. Lawrence Nelson, Mrs. Gustav Dahlen and Mrs. Oscar Carlson.

In the past the Club has donated the proceeds from the Party to The Grosse Pointe School for Exceptional Children, Scandinavian Symphony, Wayne State University Scholarship, American-Swedish Historical Foundation, The Detroit Swedish Council and the Anchor Bay Disaster Area.

ANNETTE WIBBELMAN, a junior at Western Michigan University from Grosse Pointe, will be one of 13 candidates competing for the coveted title of Miss WMU of 1965 at the annual pageant slated for Saturday on the university campus.

The winner of the Miss WMU crown will be eligible to compete in the Miss Michigan pageant this summer where the state's entry for the Miss America contest will be made.

Miss Wibbelman, the daughter of MR. and MRS. AL WIBBELMAN, of Hall place, is a graduate of St. Paul High School. She is enrolled in elementary education, with a major in English and a minor in French. Her activities include membership on the Moore Hall House Council, Alpha Phi sorority, Standards Board and the Residence Hall Judicial Board. She is a staff assistant in Moore Hall.

Schedule Workshop In Creative Stitchery

Basic Embroidery, Needlework Design and Crewel Work Some of Topics to Be Covered At Two-Day Session

"An Adventure in Stitches," a two-day course in creative stitchery, will be held on Thursday and Friday, April 8 and 9.

Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Creative Stitchery Group, the course will be given at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's Hospitality House in Kercheval avenue.

The instructor will be Lois G. McBride, of Grand Rapids. Mrs. McBride is one of the nation's finest needlewomen. Her work in creative embroidery has been exhibited and purchased by art museums across the country.

The course will cover all phases of original creative stitchery. Among the topics covered will be: Basic Embroidery Stitches, a demonstration followed by student practice of stitches; Needlework Design; Planning your needlework, and choosing your fabric, threads, and yarns; Designs found in nature; Creating your own original designs and stitches.

The course will also provide an excellent background for those who wish to do crewel embroidery, or other forms of needlework.

The teaching sessions will be divided into four two-hour periods, with an hour for lunch. The classes will be from 10 to 12 noon, and from 1 to 3 o'clock on both days.

All interested ladies are invited to take part in the course. There is a small tuition fee. For further information, call Mrs. Alfred Taylor, at TU 2-4448. Reservations will be taken on a first-come basis.

Food shoppers are offered an even wider variety of food items in more convenient packages and in easier to use forms each year.

Permit us to caution you against the "fly-by-day" salesman. This species operates in broad daylight, but he moves on to new territory with amazing speed. He's the door-to-door fellow who peddles "therapeutic" bargains. His offerings might range from all-purpose vitamins to highly touted cure-alls. Fantastic claims pour from him in torrents. He is interested in a quick commission sale, not in your health. If you think you need medical help, consult a physician. Rely upon us to fill your prescriptions.

JOIN THE 1965 FAMILY PARTICIPATION CAMPAIGN

THE DOORS of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center open wide on a world of opportunity. Those who enter them explore many realms of interest and satisfaction.

In these community buildings we enrich our understanding of our world, our culture and ourselves. We share a chance to learn more of life, enjoy more of its pleasures, experience more of its satisfactions.

The very vitality of the Center itself provides about three-fourths of its budgetary needs. But an appreciable share of the Center's financial support necessarily must come from gifts in the annual fund drive. Our 1965 goal is $75,000.

Last year the Center was generously supported and the goal was met—by one-fourth of the families in the Grosse Pointes. The amount raised, $76,000, and the percent who gave are most gratifying. However, we are sure more families will want to share this year in support of an activity that serves all.

Please enlist your family in the 1965 Family Participation Campaign and help us keep the doors open wide.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

Spanish Night Held at Center

An "Evening In Spain" international program was held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on March 30. At seven o'clock guests were served a gourmet meal typical of the country. Then Spanish dancers took over in Fries Auditorium followed by color slides and movies of Iberia.

Featured on the Spanish dinner menu were Entremeses Variados, assorted appetizers including Spanish olives, anchovies, sardines and cheese. Chicken, Basque style, served with manzanas en dulce — honeyed apples. Judias Verdes a la Andaluza, Ensalada Verde and a dessert of figs completed the menu.

Cyril Andre led the troupe of flamenco dancers and entertainers on the stage of Fries Auditorium gathered after dining in the Crystal Ballroom. In native costume, the group captured the pulsating rhythms and flashing techniques found only in the cafes of Madrid or the caves of Granada.

The grandeur of both Moorish and Castilian Spain was shown in color film and there were prizes too for a lucky few.

Michigan and its 11 neighboring states composing the North Central Region provide a giant share of the nation's dinner table needs. These 12 states produce over 50 per cent of the nation's dairy products, says Mrs. Marjorie Gibbs, Detroit Consumer Marketing Agent.

Unless you know the federal grades for beef, you may pick cuts of the lower grades because they appear leaner. But actually, economists during the annual FOOD INFORMATION WEEK say, what appears to be a bargain price is more likely a lower grade beef.

Working For Derby Ball

Admiring a "Derby Ball" horse are MRS. GERALD RACKEY, (left), of Whitier road, and MRS. JAMES QUELLO, of Berkshire road, members of the Pointe committee for the annual Michigan Derby Ball, sponsored by the Hazel Park

Racing Association for the benefit of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc. The party date this year is June 5, place is the Cobo Hall ballroom. All Ball proceeds are donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Associations.

GP Newcomers Plan Bridge

The Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club is predicting spring with its "April Showers" theme for progressive bridge on Saturday, April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, committee chairmen, have arranged for progression in the Grosse Pointe City homes of their committee: Mr. and Mrs. Don Little, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Al Ricca, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Agne and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jones.

Following the evening of bridge, the entire group will meet at Al Green's for refreshments.

Clubs Sponsor Spring Ski Trip

Spring skiing has never been better in the high Rockies than this year. The snow is deep and the skies sunny. For this reason the Grosse Pointe Ski Club and the Grosse Pointe Ski Hi Club are joining in sponsoring a 10 day ski trip to Taos, New Mexico April 16 to April 25.

It is during public school vacation so that young people of high school age as well as adults or families with teenage sons or daughters can take advantage of the package. The trip includes everything—round trip transportation on Santa Fe's crack express "El Capitan," transfers to and from the train and all meals going and coming as well as at the area.

Lodging four to a room with bath at St. Bernard's Lodge right at the chair lift, all ski tow charges, daily ski lessons and nightly entertainment are also included. There are chaperones provided for young people travelling without their parents.

This 10 day all-expense ski trip to one of the few areas in the United States where skiing is still good at the end of April is being offered for $194 dollars. Those who are not Grosse Pointe ski club or ski hi club members are asked either to take out membership or pay a $3 guest fee. A $100 deposit is required at once at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

Northeastern Women

The annual meeting of Northeastern Woman's Club will be held April 12, in St. Philip and St. Stephen Church Parlors. Board meeting will begin at 12:45 followed by a business meeting at 1:30. Speaker, Robert Lusk, will give a talk on "Readings." A tea for new members will be held.

Center Offers Art Classes

Wayne State University's Professor Robert Wilbert, and Mercy College's Ray Fleming, are each teaching one day a week this spring at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Fleming will teach integrated drawing and painting Tuesday afternoons 1:30-4 o'clock, and evenings 7:30-10 o'clock, beginning April 6, for a 12 week period. This term, work will be centered around figurative production and landscapes (in the afternoon class) and tuition is $30 for the term.

Professor Wilbert will present oil painting classes each Friday beginning April 9, they will continue for twelve weeks. Morning sessions are from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock, afternoon classes are from 1 to 4 o'clock. Both beginners and intermediate students are welcome. The fee is $36 for the 12 three hour lessons.

Alpha Chi Omega Alum Plans Luncheon at Fairlane

The Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Alpha Chi Omega alumnae held its annual Spring Luncheon at the Ford Fairlane Home in Dearborn on Tuesday, March 30.

The installation of those officers elected in February is held at this luncheon each year. Mrs. William McDonough of Livonia, newly-elected president of the chapter, was installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt of Lakeview lane. The ceremonies also installed Mrs. T. J. Maurer of Grayton road, as vice-president.

Following the installation of officers, Mr. Wesley, curator of Fairlane, spoke about the history and interesting features of Fairlane, which was seen after the program.

Final Program For Food Fair

The Food Fair series at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center were concluded Monday evening, March 29, in the Center's Crystal Ballroom where Miss Helen Blair shared some of the intricacies of the preparation of delicacies of international cuisine.

Meat dishes were demonstrated from France, Italy, India, and Japan. Su-ki-ya-ki is a whole meal in itself. Grecian vine leaves stuffed with rice and cheese are a delicious appetizer and beans cooked in olive oil, lemon juice and cream with pimientos are a wonderful side dish as is platanos con dulces — bananas mixed with cherries, honey and butter.

Elegant international deserts which should bring any meal to a fitting climax included rose petals and pineapple and English tipsy trifle—a delightful concoction of madeira laced custard, lady fingers and strawberries.

All those who attended this final evening of food fair received recipes in addition to being instructed in preparation and witnessing the demonstration. Then all adjourned to dine on what has been prepared. Cost for the final evening was $2.75.

Parties Staged By Girl Scouts

As the children assembled at Ferry School in Roslyn road, on Friday, March 12, the music of "The Growing Up Tree" was heard through the public address system. In this way the Brownies and Junior Girl Scouts, all in uniform, were sharing Girl Scout Week with the rest of the school.

As a gesture of thanks to the Ferry School PTA which sponsors all the nine Girl Scout troops which meet at Ferry School, Nancy Giles, a Junior Girl Scout of Troop No. 327, and Chris Paton, a Brownie of Troop No. 537, presented Girl Scout cookies to Edwin A. Wendt, principal, in a short ceremony.

Girl Scout Troop No. 327 with leaders Mrs. Jack Otto and Mrs. Harvey Pickford, had a real birthday party. A flag ceremony was followed by a relay game involving patriotic symbols of the United States and a Mexican stick game. Girls of the troop provided refreshments, decorated napkins and a centerpiece made with an international flavor - dolls from foreign countries and one dressed in Girl Scout uniform.

The highlight of the birthday party held by Brownie Troop No. 537, with leader Mrs. Robert Giles, was the showing of slides of her recent trip to her home in England by co-leader Mrs. Arthur Vaughn. The Brownies of the troop are making plans to write to Girl Guides in England.

The Junior Girl Scouts of Troop No. 1277, with the assistance of the leaders Mrs. Ralph Ankney and Mrs. Thomas Candler, recently completed a project worthwhile to all concerned.

After several meetings spent on preparation, these Junior Scouts spent their lunch hour at the School for Exceptional Children, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, presenting original skits involving familiar nursery rhymes such as "Ole King Cole" and "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star." Then followed a song led by the Scouts and their new friends.

Boys To Attend AAA Patrol Rally

Two Grosse Pointe City-area school safety patrolers will take bows for 701 fellow patrolers' 126,000 hours of community service by attending the AAA National Safety Patrol Rally in Washington, D.C., May 6-9.

These youths will join about 130 other Michigan patrolers from 105 Michigan communities for the annual four-day all-expense-paid trip to the Capitol as Automobile Club of Michigan's guests. Grosse Pointe City will be represented by patrolers from Trombly and Poupard Elementary Schools. Their names will be released at a later date.

"This is the 29th consecutive year we have selected schools for the trip on the basis of a patrol group's general performance and efficiency," says Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club safety and traffic director. Schools named nominated the patrolers they wish to represent them, with Auto Club's assistance.

Davis estimates that each safety patroler from Grosse Pointe has spent 180 hours at street corners protecting classmates during the 1964-65 school year, with no reward other than satisfaction for a job well done. They are at their posts in all kinds of weather aiding students and watching traffic.

Americans spend less of their working hours to earn money for food purchases than any other nation in the world.

Speed Is Killer On Highways

If you have a traffic accident driving 65 miles per hour, you are twice as likely to be killed as if you have an accident at 55 miles per hour.

As clearly as any example can, this shows the effect of speed on the severity of an accident, according to Donald Slutz, managing director of the Traffic Safety Association.

This example is taken from several studies made by the National Safety Council and United States Bureau of Public Roads, which show that the chances of being killed in an accident increase at a faster rate than the increase in speed of the vehicle itself, he said.

"We are just starting into the spring season when drivers like to cut loose out on the highways, and on city streets, too," Slutz said. "This can be extremely hazardous not only for the speeding drivers, but for everyone else on the road."

"The Michigan State Police, in an interesting report just published, said that speed, either too fast for conditions or over the posted limits, accounted for 51 per cent of the violations contributing to fatal accidents and for 35 per cent of violations in all rural accidents," Slutz said.

Director of Traffic William H. Polkinghorne, of the Detroit Police Department, has just issued a report emphasizing the role that speed plays in Detroit accidents.

"Speed, far in excess of the legal limits, has played an important part in Detroit's 1965 traffic fatality picture," he said. "To date this year, 11 or 21.6 per cent of the fatalities recorded, have been the direct result of speed that ranged from 30 to 65 miles per hour over the posted speed limit."

Potatoes take the national popularity prize for vegetables. More potatoes are eaten than all other vegetables combined in the United States. FOOD INFORMATION WEEK is a good time to remind ourselves that one-quarter of the potatoes are eaten in such processed forms as chips, frozen french fries, instant mashed potatoes and others.

St. Paul Girls Capture Varsity Basketball Trophy

St. Paul's girls varsity basketball team entered the St. Alphonsus post-season invitational tournament and came home with the first place trophy.

The team with a limited squad of seven players consisting of Regina Hausmann, Kit Ayrault, Linda Crea, Kathy Wahlstrom, Beth Konrad, Ellen Kennedy and Sue Labadie breezed past their first opponent Mt. Carmel of Wyandotte but had to play in two dramatic overtime periods in order to beat Holy Redeemer by two points.

In the final game, the girls pulled from behind and in the last thirty seconds Regina Hausmann scored to beat St. Gabriel and give the girls the championship.

Special recognition was given to Regina Hausmann who won the trophy for the most valuable player in the tournament.

Much congratulations goes out to the whole team. They all have put forth much effort throughout the season, have overcome many obstacles, and have proven that St. Paul's girls have a winning team.

Woods Schools Get Safety Maps

Maps, indicating the safest routes to and from school, have been distributed to all public schools in the Woods, according to information released by Patrolman Jack Patterson, school safety officer.

Police Lt. Roland Symons, traffic division head, and Patterson, urge parents to go over the map with their children and to make sure that the children take the most direct, and protected, route to school.

"Make sure that you know the time that the crossings are manned by guards or patrols," the officers said. "If you send your child to school too early, he or she will not have the protection normally afforded by the Department of Public Safety and the schools.

"Make sure that your child returns directly from school—guards and patrols leave their posts at a reasonable time," they pointed out.

If parents have any questions regarding the safety route to any of the schools, they are urged to contact Patterson, 886-2800, the number at the station.

Measles Is No Minor Disease

Measles isn't minor, according to State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis, who said that the childhood disease was responsible for 11 deaths last year and 27 the year before.

"That's 39 tragic deaths which could have been prevented because vaccines to protect against measles were available," he said.

While killing and crippling diseases such as polio, diphtheria, and whooping cough were stalking the land, killing thousands of infants and children each year in Michigan, little attention was focused, on measles, which was generally considered to be more of an inconvenience than a threat to life, the Commissioner said.

"But now that immunizations have brought the main killers under control, measles can be seen in its true identity as a potential killer."

Medical science has recognized it as a disease responsible for hundreds of deaths each year in the United States as well as a suspected high incidence of hearing, vision, and mental impairment, and has taken great strides in the development of effective vaccines.

However, the public attitude towards measles is not changing as rapidly—at least not enough to prompt a demand for the vaccine similar to the rush for Salk vaccine when it was first introduced," Dr. Heustis said.

About 90 per cent of the children get the disease at one time or another before they reach 15—usually at a most inconvenient time from the parent's standpoint, according to the Commissioner. It is a leading cause of school absenteeism, primarily in the early grades.

He said that most of the cases occur around the age of four, while most of the deaths occur under two years of age. Secondary infections, such as pneumonia, occur in about 20 per cent of the cases, and encephalitis in about one case in every thousand.

"Deaths due to measles have declined markedly since the introduction of antibiotics to control secondary infections, and the use of gamma globulin to modify the effects of the disease itself," Dr. Heustis said, "but the element of risk is still present."

"The odds are about one in two thousand that your child will die if he gets measles, and the younger the child, the greater the risk."

"We are right in the middle of the measles season," Dr. Heustis said. "If your children have not had the disease yet, I urge you to consult your family physician about protecting them with measles vaccine."

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

20718 WICKS LANE
Grosse Pointe Woods
Charming home on private court; 2 bedrooms, large kitchen and dinette, new carpeting; attractive, paneled den. Convenient location and well kept. TUXEDO 4-2164.

FIRST OFFERING
COME BY SUNDAY between 2:30 and 5. You can be one of the first to see this cozy gem that sparkles at 1883 Norwood. So beautifully decorated that you'll want to sit right down and talk turkey with our salesman. We defy you to find another three bedroom house which offers as much at $23,750.

PRICE REDUCED
SPANKING NEW French Colonial with four family bedrooms is now being offered at $60,000. Large dimensions throughout, with formal living and dining rooms and a large family room for relaxing. If you insist on a new house with all the trimmings this might well be your answer.

BY APPOINTMENT
ON BEAUTIFUL LEWISTON Road we are pleased to offer this five family bedroom house which is ideal for the family that requires easy accessibility to St. Paul's and Grosse Pointe High. On 212 feet of frontage, the house actually has an "extra" lot. We might add that there are two maids' rooms and a bath over the three-car attached garage, with access to the main house. First floor "opens up" with library, living room and dining rooms each leading off from the entrance hall. Now vacant and ready for your furniture.

A HOT ITEM in 1963 and 1964 and we'll venture that this kind of house will be just as attractive a package to sell in 1965. The town house is no longer a new thing in Grosse Pointe, but in the past they have been snapped up by eager buyers within days after they have been offered. On Rivard Boulevard we will be happy to show you one of the best examples of what we are talking about. In this terrace are five bedrooms and three baths. The center hall plan provides for a comfortable den tucked behind the living room. Come see all the "house" you can buy for $28,000.

PAMPERED OVER by its particular owner, and looks every inch a prima donna. This contemporary is in the Deplands area. Could be that this is that small house with the large rooms you've been seeking? All three bedrooms have their own bath and there is a cozy den which also opens onto a secluded patio.

A CUSTOM RANCH home located in an area where many houses sell for far more than the $49,000 tag we have placed on it. Three double-sized bedrooms serviced by two full baths and a lavatory. There is a paneled den plus a family room. The basement is so commodious it accommodates a thirty-foot long recreation room with a wet bar. There is also a shop area, store rooms, and laundry. Situated on a 100-foot lot, which is attended by an underground sprinkler system.

JUST A SHORT block out of the Pointe on Outer Drive, sits this three-bedroom house with a large tile bath with tub and stall shower. There is a first floor lavatory, eating space in the kitchen, and separate dining room. The home is all brick, and has a fenced yard and two-car garage.

IF YOU'VE BEEN peeking around at four bedrooms in the Shores but can't find anything under fifty thousand dollars, then this offering might be the solution. In this Early American colonial on Duval, are all the conveniences you would expect in a newer house. There is a magnificent kitchen with a fireplace for inside barbecuing, there is also an honest-sized family room which will accommodate a family. Four bedrooms and two baths up and a first floor lavatory. Just off the kitchen is a sensibly placed laundry.

"A man's life is dyed the color of his imagination."

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

"Fund Raising Drive" seems to be an outmoded term these days, but the meaning is there as always. Private colleges need private operating capital — and loyal Grosse Pointe alumni seem happy to oblige. Most recent cause for attention is the Albion College 10-year $20 million development program known as the "Action Program for Excellence" and 143 area alumni are being asked to give, give, give.

Area co-chairmen are Barbara D. Hyde of Neff road, and Frederic W. Steiner, of Beaufait. Among the 22 local assistants are the following vice-chairmen: Mrs. R.F. Ren'ebach, David Brown, Hugh Harness, Albert Tamarelli, Cecil Sessions, Ray Johnson, Robert Maynard, and Mrs. Guy Juennemann.

Others working on the drive include Mrs. H. Thomas Kettleman, Wendell Birdsall, Bernard Whitley, Don McConachie, Mrs. Robert King, Jr., James Wyse, Mrs. Girard Smith, George Hubbard, Harvey Zens, and Ralph Surrall.

More are Richard Daley, Mrs. Charles Lightfoot, Thomas DeVries, and Mrs. Robert C. Knapp.

Daughters of the British Empire take their name — and loyalties seriously. At the group's 45th annual state meeting at Oakland Country Club last week, the ceremonies began as usual with a full-scale rendition of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" followed by an equally enthusiastic rendition of "God Save the Queen."

PILFERINGS

Her husband was an extreme hypochondriac, and she had just about reached the end of her patience. Then she decided to pretend to be ill herself, hoping he might be so concerned about her that he'd forget his own ailments.

So one evening she greeted him with a recital of how miserable she felt. He was unusually quiet during dinner, and she thought perhaps her ruse was working. But she was soon disillusioned.

"I don't know what's wrong with me," he groaned. "I think I must be coming down with what you've got."

MRS. CHARLES BELTZ OF LAKELAND AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

You young matrons, who can't wait 'til your last child is finally in school, consider Amy Beltz. There is a 19-year span between the first and the last of Mrs. Beltz's six children — which means that for 24 years, there was a pre-school age youngster at home in the Beltz household.

Now the youngest Beltz, eight-year-old Joy, is a third grader at Maize School. But the two oldest Beltzes, married, have begun to produce children of their own, three already here and a fourth due this spring.

It seems as if Amy and Chuck Beltz, both only children, are fated to spend all their adult lives surrounded by boys and girls — and the Beltzes couldn't be happier at the prospect of a continually growing family.

Bob, their oldest boy, married and a lawyer living in Flint, is the father of two girls, Cathy and Cindy.

Bonnie (Mrs. John Hatch), lives near Arlington, Va., with her husband and young son, Charles. The Hatches are expecting their second child this May.

Skip (Homer), Beltz is a junior pre-med student at Alma College. The three youngest Beltzes are still home: Tom, a junior at Grosse Pointe High School; Carol, in the ninth grade at Pierce Junior High School; and Joy.

Line Becomes Blurred But the line between who is "at home" and who is "away" tends to become blurred. Bob, his wife Sharon, and their daughters, come in for a visit every other weekend or so. Skip returns to Lakeland avenue on vacations.

Bonnie likes to visit — and to be visited. There is a considerable amount of Beltz coming and going between The Pointe and the Washington, D.C., area.

Amy Beltz is the daughter of The Honorable and Mrs. Homer Ferguson. Her father, a former United States Senator, is presently Justice of the Military Court of Appeals; the Fergusons make their home in the nation's capital.

They, too, are regular visitors in the sprawling white house at the corner of Lakeland and Kercheval avenues. It's a big place — "But not quite so big as it looks," Amy Beltz explains.

A recently added sixth bedroom is nominally Skip's property, but is used by the Fergusons, Hatches or Robert Beltzes when they are in town. "It's wonderful for small children, away from the main part of the house and close to the kitchen."

Close, Happy Family The Beltzes are a very close, and very happy family. They like to ice skate (Mr. Beltz is in the artificial ice skating rink business), and play a good deal of bridge.

"We all play bridge, right down through Carol. There are usually at least eight players around, enough for two tables."

They held a family reunion last summer. ("We moved people around; they slept on the davenport, sofa, everywhere..."), and had a marvelous time when Bonnie was married. ("All the children were in the wedding party.")

Amy Beltz's favorite recreation is needlepoint. "I pick it up when the others watch TV," she explains.

She has completed a living room chair, floral-patterned on a grey-blue background, and has been working on a matching piano bench "since before Joy was born."

She has done all but two of her dining room chairs, starting these before Bob was born. Background of the most recently completed chair is a rich, bright blue; her earliest ones have faded and mellowed 'til they match the room's soft blue carpet.

Family Pictures Galore There are family pictures everywhere: A several years' old composite photograph of all six children in the hall; pastels of five Beltzes done by an artist at a Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair, (Bob's likeness is missing because he was away at college when the artist was in The Pointe); and several original "Homer Fergusons."

Amy's father, who had never dabbled in art, picked up a paintbrush in Florida a few years ago — and found an engrossing hobby. He's good at it, too... two charming, stylized scenes, churches in winter and summer, hang in the Beltzes' foyer, proof of the artist's ability.

There is also a portrait of the Beltz home, signed Homer Ferguson, in the living room. "My father loves painting," Amy explains. "The nicest thing you can do for him is to praise his pictures." (Tip on spotting an original "Homer Ferguson": Look for a birch tree — there's one in just about every picture he's painted.)

Chuck Beltz exercises his artistic abilities by making model airplanes. An aeronautical engineer who helped design the Fairchild Packet, he and his sons have turned their library into a model air museum.

Balloon in Collection Hanging on thin wires from the library ceiling are replicas of all types of aircraft, from the Wright Brothers' first design to the latest jet. The collection even includes a zeppelin — and an "Around the World in 80 Days" type balloon!

Many of the models are fantastically intricate, all are perfectly executed... and each must be dusted individually, by hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Beltz like children of all ages, but particularly enjoy teenagers. Mr. Beltz, who played hockey as a young boy, feels a good recreation program is important for boys and girls.

Mrs. Beltz is currently doing her bit for youth as chairman of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Club Spring Tea, the annual scholarship fund-raising activity scheduled this year April 9, from 1 until 4 o'clock, in the GPHS auditorium.

"This is the first time I've done something like this in a long while," Amy Beltz says. "Actually, I have the 'nice' job: the decorating and food chairmen have a much harder time."

Through the tea, and two Pointe Players' benefit performances, the Mothers' Club provides approximately 20 scholarships (some full, some partial), for GPHS students. Forty students have applied already for Mothers' Club scholarship grants.

Big Money Raiser Most money comes from the tea. Last year, profits from this spring party amounted to about $2,000. This year, the mothers hope to do better, to sell 2,000 tickets at $1.50 each.

The tea committee started party-planning in October. Altogether, some 400 women are directly involved, telephoning, baking, selling tickets, making decorations, lining up prizes, in the spring project.

This sounds, on paper, like a lot of workers... "But we can use a lot of workers," Amy Beltz explains. "We've got a lot of work!"

Food committee chairman Mrs. Edward Fine is doing "a wonderful job," according to Mrs. Beltz, marshalling her mother-chefs to provide food that is really "out of this world."

Mrs. Thomas Munson and the decorating committee move into the High School next Wednesday night, work Thursday night and Friday morning to completely transform the auditorium.

Theme of this year's party is "Merrily Around The Pointe," decor is to combine local landmarks and springtime in a pink and white color scheme.

Mrs. Munson, who took architecture at the University of Michigan, has fashioned two series of eight paintings, giant replicas of familiar community sights, (Christ Church, Alger House, the Isadore Cadieux house... and, of course, the High School), to be hung from the auditorium balcony.

Eight pink and white carousel tea table decorations have been made by Mrs. Lou Maxon, and on stage there will be a full size Maypole, its eight pink streamers leading to eight spring costumes, provided by local merchants.

Have Cleanup Team Bleachers and ceiling will be swathed in pink. And when the last cup of tea has been drunk, the last game of cards played, the last cookie eaten, Mrs. Jack Stephenson and a group from the Key Club, one of the High School's service organizations, will move in to turn the party room back into a prosaic auditorium.

Generally, spring tea decorations remain in place until after the Junior Prom, but the Prom is later than usual this year, in May.

"There was a conflict in dates," Amy Beltz explains. "We must schedule our party on a day when there is no school. We hope, next year, that the tea and the Prom will be close together again."

The Beltz family has lived in The Pointe since 1944, and all the children have gone through Pointe Public Schools. Mrs. Beltz has nothing but praise for the local school system.

"I think the High is a wonderful school; it does an excellent job. They have marvelous teachers there, and at Pierce, too... there are many devoted teachers at Pierce. They seem to be especially close to the children."

"Parents at the High School are very active, very concerned. I think Mr. Gerich, (GPHS Principal), is a very good man — a high school principal has one of the most difficult jobs in the world, in my opinion."

"I have 'too much family' to be doing this kind of thing, (the Spring Tea chairmanship), often. But I have enjoyed working on the Mothers' Club Board, and I am very interested in the High School, in scholarships especially."

Amy Beltz admits she will have a sigh of relief when the '65 Spring Tea is finally a thing of the past.

Must Believe In It She is a good organizer, but not a "natural chairman," she must believe in a project before she agrees to work for it.

The Beltzes are all active members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. With her Spring Tea experience behind her, Amy feels she would like to go on and do something for her church, preferably in the field of family relationships.

She feels strongly about the need to strengthen family ties in the contemporary world — perhaps because she is constantly experiencing first-hand the joys of a vital, loving family unit.

Vacations in the Beltz household are always family vacations; Amy and Chuck have never, except for an occasional day, gone away by themselves. The whole family likes to visit Washington, "that beautiful city," and spends some time each summer at Lost Lake Club in northern Michigan.

Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Beltz would give up one minute of their life with their parents, children and grandchildren... but Mrs. Beltz has made Mr. Beltz a promise.

"I've told him," smiles Amy, "that some day, when Joy enters college, we will take a trip around the world — alone."

VITELLO LUCULLO ALLA PIEMONTESE

(Stuffed Baked Tender Veal Chop with Fresh Mushrooms and Cheese)

Contributed by Helen Blair

To be perfectly correct, the cheese used should be fontina, a semi-soft cheese from Piedmont. But since this is seldom found in America, substitutes must be used in this rather elegant dish. For each person, take:

- 1 veal chop, cut 1 inch thick
- salt
- pepper
- 1 thin slice prosciutto or ham
- 1 slice black or white mushroom butter
- dry white wine

Have butcher cut a pocket in each chop. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Insert ham, cheese, and mushrooms in each chop. Fasten tightly with toothpicks. Brown on both sides in butter. Pour off excess butter. Add enough wine to come three quarters of the way to top of chops. Cover pan tightly and simmer about 15 minutes, or until chops are tender. Remove to hot platter and keep hot. Boil up sauce to reduce and pour over chops. Serve very hot, and if you want to be really Italian, with a French-dressed green salad.

Detroit Garden Center Plans April Lectures

The following Monday Garden Center lectures have been scheduled at the Detroit Garden Center in East Grand River avenue, for the month of April.

Grand Hampikian will speak on "Landscaping Your Garden and Patios for Outdoor Living," on April 5.

The other three lectures are scheduled by Leland Gilmour. They are "Care of Spring Flowering Bulbs," on April 12; "Care of Spring Flowering Shrubbery," on April 19; and "Preparation of the Garden for Summer," on April 26.

All lectures begin at 1 o'clock.

What's the difference between natural and processed cheese? Process cheese is made by melting one or more natural cheeses and then pasteurizing and blending them with an emulsifying agent.

Marie Bird's Beauty By Line

Radiant, healthy hair is rapidly taking its place as a status symbol... as much or even more to be desired than an elaborate Roman swim bathtubs and indoor swimming pools. It has been said that Otto Preminger has two tubs in one bathroom of his fabulous house in Manhattan's East Sixties... along with paintings by Picasso and Chagall. Not everyone can afford or find pleasure in such far-out luxuries.

Fashion-wise women know that there isn't an adequate substitute for beautiful manageable hair — or the scientific approach to hairdressing. Limp, lifeless, dull tresses are "out" — and repairs should be under way by revitalizing the hair with a series of Natural Organic Protein Polypeptide Treatments.

Of course such care takes time — but lucky is the woman who has the time to give her crowning glory the care worthy of her finest possessions. The cost? Not nearly as much as you might think.

Drop in at our salon at 117 Kercheval or call TUxedo 1-6833. We can't put an end to this never-ending winter but we can put SPRING in your "Breeze-Line" hairdo.

Surprise Element... no one knows what Kenneth is going to present in his hair styling show in Detroit. April twenty-sixth. Will hair be long? Will it be short? Will he use hairpieces? Curls? Your guess is as good as ours. Of course, the styles will be adapted for you at Edward Nept, "Parrucchiere" as Edward will be working with Kenneth... on stage. Ticket information... TUxedo 4-8858.

WOOSH!... That's the sound of the Notre Dame Pharmacy's Athlete's Foot Spray Mat going to work. It evaporates completely, leaving feet cool, shoes and socks... bone-dry in thirty seconds. Find it at 17000 Kercheval in the Village.

The Natural... "un-made-up look" of fashion can only be achieved if the proper coloring is carefully selected to blend with milady's skin-tone, matching her arms, hands and throat. Fashion Two Twenty conducts these color tests and says, "Try before you buy."

Don't be amazed when you hear milk is a good solid food. Milk contains 13 per cent solids by weight and that's more than you can get with the same amount of onions, beets, carrots, spinach, tomatoes or lettuce. Milk's high nutritional value ranks it high on the list of good value-for-your-money foods.

The next time you want to "butter up" your family, consider peanut butter. Not only is it the favorite sandwich filling of millions of youngsters, but it's also an economical fill-in for meat in Lenten meals.
