JUNE GRADUATION parties in Detroit's eastern suburbs have been invaded by teenage hoodlums and gangs resulting in injury and property damage. Police warned yesterday that further incidents will be handled by stern action. Detroit Police Superintendent Eugene Reuter indicated that conspiracy warrants would be sought if any such incidents occur in Detroit. Police in the Grosse Pointes said they had had no reports of such incidents but would deal "promptly and firmly" with any outbreaks.

Friday, June 11

THE U. S. HOUSE of Representatives yesterday, in a direct challenge to President Johnson, voted to give Congress veto power over the closing of military bases. The action was viewed as Johnson's biggest Congressional setback of the year. The provision was included in a bill to authorize $1.9 billion for the construction of new military bases in the country and abroad. If passed, the provision could seriously affect the 665 shutdowns and reductions the Defense Department has ordered for military bases in the past four years.

Saturday, June 12

A 15-FOOT WALL of water struck the town of Sanderson, Tex., without warning early Friday during a cloudburst, spreading death and destruction through the canyon. At least 13 persons were killed, 250 injured, and eight were missing. More than a foot of rain had pounded the canyon sending water surging through the town like a tidal wave. The Department of Public Safety said 50 to 75 homes were destroyed in the town of 2,300 people.

Sunday, June 13

HUNDREDS OF CIVIL RIGHTS demonstrators flung themselves into the street at "the world's busiest intersection" yesterday in Chicago, and police hauled them into paddy wagons. Police estimated that at least 200 persons were arrested in the sit-in in the heart of Chicago's Loop. It was the third consecutive day of marching protests against the hiring of controversial School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis and the second day of mass arrests. Priests and nuns were among those picked up and an estimated 50 children under 10 were also carried away. Willis is blamed for alleged de facto racial segregation in Chicago schools.

Monday, June 14

A FENTON, MICH man was freed Sunday after spending about 48 hours locked in the trunk of his car while a bandit who robbed him of $8 apparently took the car joyriding for the next two days. Howard Hamilton, 61, terminal manager of Central Transport in Owosso, escaped Saturday night near midnight by removing the lock of the trunk. Hamilton, who suffers from a heart condition, fortunately had pills, which he has to take daily, in his pocket. The only "nourishment" he had during his imprisonment were two lozenges.

Tuesday, June 15

A FEDERAL COURT jury last night delivered a speedy verdict of guilty against three men charged with a plot to dynamite U.S. national shrines to press their campaign for Negro rights. The jury declared the defendants guilty on counts of conspiracy to destroy Government property and smuggling 30 sticks of dynamite into the United States. Each count carries a maximum penalty of five years in jail and a $10,000 fine. Their fantastic scheme had included plans to blow the Statue of Liberty, the Bell and the Washington Monument in resentment over the treatment of Negroes in America. The men, along with a Canadian woman, were apprehended last February 16.

Lost Painting Recovered After Ride on City Truck

A painting that might possibly be a 16th century masterpiece worth many thousands of dollars, missing for four days, was returned to the owners, Mr. and Mrs. George Simon of 211 Vendome, after it was recovered by a Farms city employee.

The painting, believed to be the work of Il Sassaferrato, a 16th century artist, and possibly worth $50,000, was recovered by Earl Trombley, 51, of 130 Kerby, amateur artist and sculpture, city dog catcher and parking meter maintenance man. He paints and sculpts as a hobby.

Simon, who is president of the United States Equipment Company, and his wife, Penny, missed the painting on Monday, June 7, and it was returned to them by Farms police on Friday, June 11.

The Simons purchased the work of art, a Madonna with hands clasped over a prayer book, when they went on a trip to Brazil earlier this year. They paid $375 for it.

Although they paid this amount for the art, the Simons believe it might be the work of Il Sassaferrato, and possibly worth about $50,000, or maybe more.

When the painting was missed, Mr. and Mrs. Simon called Farms police, who theorized that it might have been lost and just might have been picked up by an employee of the Department of Public Works.

The employee gave the painting to Trombley, who when he heard that police had been asked to search for it, released the art to them.

Trombley said that he always "the guys a couple of

Top Scholars Entertained By President

Roland Sherman Among Those Honored at White House; Only 122 in Whole Country

Roland W. Sherman, 79 Hawthorne, and one of Michigan's two 1965 Presidential Scholars, returned to Grosse Pointe on Wednesday from Washington where he received a bronze medallion from President Lyndon B. Johnson. Roland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Sherman, Jr., will graduate from Grosse Pointe High School tonight.

Roland and the 120 other Presidential Scholars received their medallions personally from President Johnson in the East Room of the White House late Tuesday afternoon.

The Presidential Scholars were guests at a buffet dinner on the south lawn of the White House, hosted by Luci Johnson. Among the celebrities with whom the guests had a chance to speak were sportsmen Bill Bradley and Stan Musial, astronaut John Glenn, scientist Dr. Jonas Salk, and actor Jason Robards. Representatives of the field of letters included Marianne Moore, John O'Hara, Paddy Chayefsky, Robert Motherwell, and John Cheever.

Varied Entertainment
Master of Ceremonies for the program that followed the dinner was David MacCallum of the TV show, "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." Featured were the Brothers Four, and pianist Andre Watts. John Updike read selections from three of his novels, and folk singers Steven Addiss and William Crofut performed.

In Roland's opinion, highlights of the trip were meetings with Justice Hugo Black of the Supreme Court and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Both officials made brief addresses to the group and answered the young scholars' questions.

During his two-day Washington stay Roland had lunch with Congressman Lucien Nedzi, visited NASA headquarters, and was a breakfast guest at the National Education Association.

Accompanied by Parents
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, who made the trip to Washington to see their son receive his citation, were among the guests at a reception for parents of the Presidential Scholars held in the White House Tuesday following the awards ceremony.

Of Roland's award, his father stated recently, "Mrs. Sherman and I wish to extend our thanks to the school staffs and to the

Teenage Cyclist Injured by Car

Donald Forsythe, 16, of 20201 Parkside, St. Clair Shores, was struck by a car while he was riding his bicycle at Moross and Lake Shore on Sunday, June 13.

The teenage cyclist told police that he was to blame for the mishap because he crossed Lake Shore, from Moross, without having the right-of-way.

Forsythe was hit by a car driven by Jean Nichols of 95 Tonnance place, who was traveling west on Lake Shore. The light had changed in her favor and she had started up, when the youth pedaled to her path. She was unable to avoid hitting the boy, and he was knocked to the pavement.

The cyclist was taken to Cottage Hospital by police, where he was treated for abrasions about the arms.

Police said no violation tickets were issued.

Woods, Park Win Awards For Safety

Two Pointe communities have been notified that they will receive Certificates of Achievement awards for 1964 on the basis of traffic inventory conducted by the National Safety Council, it was disclosed on Monday, June 14.

Woods Mayor Kenneth McLeod and Park Mayor Matthew Patterson were notified by telegram that their cities have been selected for award honors, the Woods for four awards, and the Park one.

Inventory coordinator for the Woods is Public Safety Lt. Roland Symons, traffic safety officer; and the Park inventory coordinator is Chief Arthur Lowers.

Dates Will Pending
Dates for the presentation of the awards by a representative of the National Safety Council, who is usually a member of the Michigan State Police, is still pending.

Sponsoring organizations, International Association of Chiefs of Police, will make a future enforcement awards; and the American Bar Association will announce awards, la'er, winning court awards.

Graduation Ceremonies This Evening

Traditional Program in Gymnasium Expected To Be Attended by Audience of 3,900

Approximately 3,900 people are expected to attend the graduation ceremonies this evening, June 17, of 905 Grosse Pointe High School students, the largest class ever to complete studies at the school.

Commencement exercises, which will begin at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium-gymnasium, will bring the total number of diplomas granted by the high school to 14,300.

The class has requested that "Pomp and Circumstance" be played by the Grosse Pointe High School Symphony Orchestra for the procession. The orchestra will then play "The Star Spangled Banner."

Dominic Monastiere, senior class president, will welcome the class and guests. Following the welcome, senior speakers Gregory Hykes and Kathryn Girard will deliver their speeches on the topic, "What's So Special About Us?"

Nominal About Us?
Greg and Kathy were chosen from among 10 candidates nominated by the class. All had to write speeches on the assigned topic, to be judged by the senior officers, senior home-room representatives, and senior English teachers. Peter Solenberger is alternate speaker.

Class honors will then be bestowed by Jerry J. Gerich, principal. These awards will include the Rotary Club Scholarship Award, the Grosse Pointe Women's Club Achievement Award and the Mothers' Club Honors Awards. The Mothers' Club awards, engraved thesauri, will be presented to 45 students representing the top five percent of the class scholastically.

In addition, Mr. Gerich will announce that 19 Mothers' Club Scholarships will be awarded this year to graduating seniors. The number of scholarships, the most ever awarded to one class, will be in the amount of a total near $6,000, according to Dr. Robert Hanson, guidance coordinator.

Party, Play Raise Money
Money for the scholarships is raised entirely by the Mothers' Club through their annual card party and the Pointe Players' productions throughout the year.

Most of the other awards and scholarships presented to members of the senior class were announced at the all-school honors and awards assembly two weeks ago.

Mr. Gerich will then certify that the members of the class of 1965 have met the requirements.

Jailed Man Dies In County Cell

A Detroit man, arrested by Park police officers on Saturday, June 12, and released to Detroit authorities, who wanted him on a warrant, died in a Wayne County Jail cell block the next day, of yet-unknown causes, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Lowers.

The man, Wilbur Remington, 23, of 2605 Lakewood, was arrested at the rear of 15001 East Jefferson, when he was reported to be slumped over the wheel of his car.

Police Sgt. Charles French and Patrolman Ralph Moore, dispatched to investigate, said they found Remington asleep in his automobile. When they awoke him and asked for his identification, Remington gave him the name of Frank Bommarito, Chief Lowers said.

Remington was taken to the station, when he failed to produce sufficient evidence as to his identity, or a registration for the car.

He was booked and fingerprinted, and his prints brought out, later, his true identity, and that he was wanted by Detroit police, the chief said.

The chief said that detectives of Detroit's Homicide Squad phoned on Sunday, June 13, and wanted to know more details on Remington's arrest because the man had died in the cell block in the county jail. The arrest details were sent, it was said.

Fire Chief Warns Against Tots Playing with Matches

Two bedroom fires within a week, in separate Park homes, started by little children, prompted a warning from Park Fire Chief William Graul to parents to keep matches and lighters out of the reach of young children.

The latest fire, on Wednesday, June 9, was at the home of Pat Griffith, 1151 Wayburn, that was started by children playing with a cigarette lighter in a second floor bedroom. None of the children, all under the age of five, was burned or injured, it was said.

According to information released by the chief, the children were playing with their mother's lighter, and accidentally ignited the bedclothing in their room. The fire consumed the bedclothing, mattress and bed spring, and spread to the draperies, wall baseboard and window casings, before firemen were able to put it out.

The firefighters had the blaze under control and out within 10 minutes. The entire damage was confined to the bedroom, the chief said.

A four-family fire occurred in the first floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. George Linker 860 Beaconsfield, started by their grandchildren playing with matches in their own bedroom.

The grandchildren, one four and the other five years old, were playing in their bedroom on Wednesday, June 2, while their mother, Mrs. Thelma Strong, daughter of the Linkers, was elsewhere in the house, caring for her other children.

Lost Painting

packs of cigarettes, or give them a couple of dollars for paintings and old frames that they pick up in the collections." He said he refinishes the frames and uses the canvas for his paintings.

He said when new canvas is bought by an artist for a painting, it is necessary to stretch the canvas. In the case of old paintings, artists do not need to stretch the material, and merely apply a special compound and paint over this when the compound dries.

Trombley said that he took the Madonna painting out of its frame, to make an impression of the frame, so that he can fill in worn sections and holes and restore it to its original form.

In the process of removing the painting he said, the Madonna came loose, and he discovered another painting underneath, which appeared to be another 16th century painting. The second work is of cherubs in a group.

The frame and the masterpiece were chipped slightly after being shipped around in a street-cleaning truck for several days, but otherwise was still intact.

The Simons are trying to find someone who can determine the value of the painting.

They believe that the art piece ended up on the DPW truck after it was inadvertently left on the front door steps of their home, with several other paintings, that were to have been taken by a painting restorer to be cleaned.

According to records at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Il Sassoferrato was the name used by Giovanni Battista Salvi, an Italian painter, who was born in Sassoferrato, Italy, during the early part of the 16th century.

His work are in many museums throughout the world, including one in the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Auction prices on his works have not been bringing much, but, according to Mrs. Simon, his work is now coming into recognition.

She said that her friends in Brazil contacted Dr. Lester Cook at the National Art Gallery in Washington, D.C., and were informed that the Louvre in Paris is in the second year of a three-year study of the artist's work.

Other Recipients
The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club for the past six years has selected a "Citizen of the Year" to honor. Previous recipients have included the late Norbert Neff, George Elworthy, Mrs. Plom, John Finch, and Ed Lauer.

The recipient must reside but not necessarily work in the Pointe and the basis for the award is his total contribution to society through any of the following categories: — Family and Home, Religion and Church, Community Activities, Youth Activities, Cultural Efforts, Humanitarian Work, Professional or Business, and Local Government and Education.

City fire officials doused a field fire at 347 Neff road. The fire department was summoned by Mrs. E. Rossman, owner of the property. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Fire Chief

fell on the children's bed, igniting the bed clothing and mattress. The fire shot up the walls and to the ceiling of the room.

Chief Graul said that this fire was brought under control and put out within 52 minutes. No one was burned or hurt, the chief said, but Mrs. Strong's hair was singed when she dashed into the bedroom in search of her children, who had already run to safety.

The chief said there was considerable smoke damage throughout the flat, but the fire was confined to the bedroom.

"We were fortunate in both fires, that no one was seriously burned, injured or killed, which could have easily happened," Chief Graul said. "Parents should keep matches, and cigarette lighters, far out of the reach of children to prevent occurrences of this nature."

"Parents should instill in their young children the knowledge of the danger involved with playing with matches or lighters. Better still, children should be looked in on, every so often, while playing in the house to see what they are doing."

"A child does not have to light an entire box of matches, before accidentally starting a fire. All it takes is one match, which could easily be fatal to the child, or to an entire family," the chief said.

"To be burned by fire is a painful thing, but to die in flames is something too horrible to talk about. I urge all parents to give serious consideration to this matter."

"I also urge parents to place matches and lighters in locations not easily reached by their youngsters, tell their children of the dangers involved, and keep a constant eye on where their children are, and to make doubly sure that the matches and lighters are where they, the parents, put them," the chief added.

Win Scouting's Highest Award

Boy Scouts' highest honor, the Eagle Scout award, was recently presented to TOM SHEA, left, and MARK CHANCEY, members of Troop 699, St. Clare of Montefalco Church. JAMES THOMPSON, center, is the scout master. The Court of Honor ceremony was highlighted with a talk by Edward Wolf, Director of Catholic Scout Relations, who congratulated the two scouts and invited them to try for the Pope Pius Award. Tom, of 1433 Cadieux and Mark, of 746 Grand Marais, were doubly proud as they became the first Eagle Scouts of the two-year old Troop 699. Both boys are graduated eighth grade students of St. Clare school.

Mr. John F. Staub, of 735 Fisher road, reported to City police Tuesday, June 8, that someone had shot a BB through the upper front window of his home sometime during the afternoon.

Annual Honors Assembly Held at Brownell School

The faculty of Brownell Junior High School honored 373 students in grades seven, eight, and nine in the school's sixth annual Honors Assembly on Wednesday morning, June 2.

It has been traditional to honor Brownell students annually for outstanding participation in academic classes extra-curricular activities, or services to the school by listing their names in specially prepared program booklets, (with the school's crest on the cover), and by inviting an outside speaker to address the student body on that occasion.

Especially honored were the 153 ninth graders whose names were listed, and who were each awarded an official school certificate naming his individual honors. Charles Saltzer, retiring principal, congratulated each of these.

Highly prized, however, were the 34 school pins awarded those boys and girls who have achieved in 10 or more honor areas over a period of three years. These students included: John Abrahamson, Nancy Asmus Kathleen Baird, William Bogan, Reay Brown, Linda Buck, Delle Jean Caldwell, Cynthia Clark, Margaret Colby and Catherine Curiss.

Others were: David Fernstrom, Joanne Fisher, Susan Fraser, Dianne Galda, Marjorie Jensen, Dale Johnson, Nancy Keppelman, Heidi Klein, Steven Kushman and William Laitner.

Still others named were: Christine Larsen, Gary Lehner, Margaret Lewis, Gail McCalig, Jean McIntyre, David McLaughlin, Pamela Molnar, William Montgomery, Donald Moore, William Morrison, Kurt Schmitt, Byron Stuck, Kathleen Walker and Robert Zink.

Three Dances Set for Teens

Three dances will be held for senior high school teens. This Friday night, June 18, the dance will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, from 8:30-11:30 o'clock. The "Misfits" will be featured.

The Saturday night dance, June 19, will be held at the Cellar, located at Grace Church, Lakepointe and Kercheval, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

These are the last two week-end dances. The summer schedule begins with a dance for senior high school teens on Wednesday, June 23, at the Christ Church Undercroft. The dance begins at 8:30 o'clock.

Admission to the dances is 75 cents and those attending must live in Grosse Pointe or be a senior high school student in a Grosse Pointe high school.

Car Wheel Rolls Over Boy's Legs

Earl Allard, Jr., 4, son of the Earl Allards of 19806 Edshire, suffered painful bruises on his legs, below the knees, when a driverless car rolled over him in a driveway across from his home.

According to a Woods police report, young Earl was playing in the driveway when a car parked there, suddenly rolled back, knocking the boy to the ground. The boy's legs went under the car and a wheel ran over them.

The police report disclosed that Earl was taken to Cottage Hospital by his parents. X-rays showed no broken bones, and he was treated and released.

Mr. and Mrs. Allard told police that they believe that a neighborhood child was playing in the car and accidentally released the vehicle's gear, causing the auto to roll backwards and over young Earl's legs.

Police said they were unable, at present, to obtain the name of the owner of the car because the four-year-old is not sure in which driveway he was playing.

On the evidence presented, police consider young Earl a lucky boy, in that he was not seriously injured or killed.

Purse Snatcher
Nabbed in Act

A suspicious Park policeman nabbed a 12-year-old purse snatcher on Monday, June 7, after a short foot chase. The youngster was charged and is awaiting a hearing at the next session of Juvenile Court.

Patrolman Collin LaLonde, while on patrol on Mack avenue, observed three Detroit youngsters, one 13 years old, and two 12-year-olds, walking from Detroit into the Park, at about 2 p.m.

The officer decided to follow the trio, and well that he did. One of the 12-year-olds was seen by the policeman to dash into the Verdunck Bakery, 15046 Mack, and seconds later, run out, a woman's purse clutched under his arm.

LaLonde, according to Police Chief Arthur Louwers, who had stopped to observe the boys, jumped out of his scout car, and chased the young purse snatcher on foot, and grabbed him before he had gone too far.

The purse, taken from the rear of the bakery, belonged to Irene Sharon of 17150 Cornwall, Detroit, an employee, and was later returned to her.

The 12-year-old was taken to the station, and a formal complaint against him was filed with Juvenile authorities, the chief said.

RINGS MISSING

Jerome Rocci of 471 Lexington, called Farms police on Thursday, June 10, and informed them that his wife's multi-diamond wedding band and engagement rings, were missing from his house. The rings, soldered together, are valued at a total of $450.

Milton Setzer Back in Detroit

Those attending the return engagement of the Pulitzer prize winning musical "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" at the Fisher Theatre, should take a close look at the man on the podium, whose baton keeps the orchestra and singers together. He's a native of Grosse Pointe, Milton Setzer by name, and his parents still live at 1466 Dorthen, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Mr. Setzer, one of Broadway's youngest, important conductors, is a particular favorite of Frank Loesser, and was unable to join "Succeed" until his chores on the new Loesser show were completed.

After Milton was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School he attended Wayne State University and was on the staff from 1957-60. At Wayne he conducted "The Boy Friend" and "Allegro," was piano soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra during their summer series at the State Fair Grounds.

In Detroit, Setzer studied piano with Mischa Kottler, was music director of WWJ and official pianist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He lived in Detroit or Grosse Pointe from birth until 1960 when the show biz bug bit and after a summer as musical director at the Oakdale Musical Theater in Wallingford, Conn., he made his way to Broadway, conducting a great many of the top musical shows. Last summer he returned to this area to conduct for the Joel Grey production of "Stop the World."

People with religion are folks who spend a portion of their time dealing in futures.

Farms Inspects 1,146 Bicycles

Bicycle inspection was completed in the Farms, and prizes awarded to student winners on Tuesday, June 15, according to Patrolman Joseph Miller, school safety officer. Approximately 1,146 bicycles were inspected.

Miller disclosed that Scotch light stickers for all the bikes, were donated by the General R. A. and Col. F. M. Alger Post, V.F.W., No. 995, whose members assisted in the inspection of bicycles at Gabriel Richard School.

The other two schools in the Farms, where inspections were conducted, are Kerby and St. Paul Catholic School.

The winners of bicycles at the three schools, are: Cheryl Brideau of 124 Kerby lane, Kerby; Gary Hogan of 64 Mapleton, Richard; and William Gilbride of 18 Radnor circle, St. Paul.

Other prize winners are: Billy Anderson of 721 Lincoln road; Jeff Smith of 16555 East Jefferson Dowdall of 271 Moran; Sheryl Baun of 333 Moran; Kevin Burke of 154 Cloverly; Tom Klumpp of 791 Lincoln; Debra Simon of 237 Lothrop; John Walker of 308 Cloverly.

Also, Jim Abbott of 670 Washington; Meg Lineweaver of 558 Lincoln; Carol Duncan of 705 Rivard; Sara Conway of 318 Merriweather; John McConnell of 65 Moross; Donna Carr of 218 Lakeview; John McLeod of 251 Moran; Mark Stevenson of 274 Merriweather; Arthur Majester of 432 Cloverly; and Donald Brower of 715 Washington.

Contentment is merely a matter of dividing what you have with what you want.

Schools Offer Recreation Program for Youngsters

The summer recreation program for elementary school age youngsters is scheduled to begin on June 23.

Designed as a nucleus for constructive summer recreation the program is conducted by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Activities at Barnes, Defer, Ferry, Kerby, Mason, Monteith, Poupard, Richard and Trombly begin on Wednesday, June 23 from 1 to 4 p.m., all schools continuing on this schedule through August 13. The Maire program will operate from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and will also start on June 23.

Handicraft and games, song and story periods are among the regular program activities, with special events such as picnics, costume parties, talent shows and treasure hunts included.

The instructional staff will be composed of teachers, recreation workers and college students experienced in campcraft and trained in recreation. A two day workshop is conducted for staff training previous to the opening of the program. This acquaints the supervisors with program requirements and gives them an opportunity to exchange ideas and learn new craft techniques.

No enrollment fee is charged. Craft materials chosen by the Department of Community Services are available to the children at cost.

It is not necessary for parents to register children ahead of the opening date, nor are participants obligated to attend daily. To participate in the program, youngsters must be of school age. For further information, call the Department of Community Services, Tuxedo 5-3808 or Tuxedo 5-0271.

February 12th—Lincoln's Birthday	July 4th—Independence Day
February 22nd—Washington's Birthday	August 14th—V-J Day

May 1st—Loyalty Day	November 11th—Veteran's Day
May 3rd, Saturday—Armed Forces Day	December 7th—Pearl Harbor Day
May 30th—Memorial Day	December 25th—Christmas Day

We believe every home in town should fly the flag on national holidays. We also believe more homes would fly the flag if more people knew where to get one. Failure to fly the flag, it has been found, is not due to any lack of patriotism on the part of Americans who love Old Glory as much today as Americans did when the Spirit of '76 was first born. Because of this we make this flag set available as a public service at our cost. The set is top quality through and through. It meets every standard the government sets for a flag of this type. In addition, the stripes are double stitched, a hallmark of flag quality usually found only at higher prices. We include with the big 3 x 5-foot flag... all the equipment necessary for rigging according to the rules of flag etiquette. These flags are available to all... with no other requirement than that you pay our basic cost... and fly one on your home on holidays. Fly the flag on important national holidays to come... and especially on the Birthday of American Independence, July 4th. The stars and stripes on your home show the world that the Spirit of '76 is as warm in American hearts today as it was at its birth on the first 4th of July... nearly 200 years gone by.

John S. Pingel Receives Honor

John S. Pingel, of Peach Tree Lane, was among five men to receive Distinguished Alumni Awards at Michigan State's Commencement exercises last Sunday, June 13. The men were selected by the University Alumni Advisory Council.

Pingel was graduated from MSU in 1939, where he was a football All-American. He then joined the advertising and sales promotion department of Chrysler Corporation's Dodge Division.

After serving four years in the army during World War II, he served as an administrative assistant at MSU, and then became advertising director in 1947 of Reo Motors.

He returned to Chrysler as a fleet sales representative and then joined Brooks, Smith, French and Dorrance, Inc., advertising firm, in 1949. He served successively as account executive, account supervisor, assistant to the president, and vice-president.

When the firm merged with Ross Roy, Inc., in 1960, he was named executive vice-president. Last year he became president. In 1964 he served as a member of MSU's Board of Trustees. He is a member of numerous organizations and is active in public service work.

The flowers that grow along the primrose path today have a heavy scent of gasoline.

Colorado Honors Former Pointer

Former Pointer William Stevens is one of seven Coloradans recently named by Governor Love of Colorado to the Commission on Higher Education, authorized by the State Legislature.

Stevens, son of Mrs. William P. Stevens of Stephens road, and brother of Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, of Touraine road, has been a resident of Gypsum, Colo., for a number of years. He is a lawyer.

He is one of the four named to serve four-year terms. The other three will serve two-year terms. Stevens and three others of those named are Republicans; and the other three are Democrats.

The commission, one of the governor's prime proposals, will hold major authority over all state colleges and universities. It will be the agency through which all these institutions will have to file their budgets, and it will in turn, make recommendations to the Legislature's Joint Budget Committee.

In making the appointments, Governor Love said: "The Commission on Higher Education carries the responsibility of planning and safeguarding the location, quality and quantity of our higher education effort. I am sure this great task is in good hands."

Success brings criticism—no man is accused of cheating at cards as long as he loses.

PARK

Havuz cinched the first-half championships in the majors of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League, the Cardinals in the National Division and the White Sox in the American Division, discovered that things could be quite different as the season's second half got underway.

The Cardinals found the rampaging Pirates — cellar-dwellers in the National Division for all of the season — had preempted their spot in first place. Things were less disastrous for the White Sox although they had to content themselves with sharing position number one with their traditional nemesis, the Indians.

The results through last Friday:

NATIONAL DIVISION MAJOR LEAGUES
Team	W	L	Pct.
Pirates	2	0	1.000
Cardinals	1	1	.500
Dodgers	1	1	.500
Giants	1	1	.500
Red Legs	1	1	.500
Braves	0	2	.000

The first week of the second half of the season produced results almost as startling as those which might occur if the Mets were to win the National League pennant. On top of the heap were the Pirates which had ended the first half with a 3-7 record.

The hit-happy Pirates first downed the Dodgers. Winning pitcher Don Hammond, George Luffy, Larry Meathe and Jim Moore merrily slammed the ball to pick up 10 hits and 11 base on balls. Win Knight knocked a homer out for the Dodgers, but the final score was 13 to 5.

An 11 to 8 victory over the Braves gave the Pirates their second win and first slot in the standings. Although the Braves out-hit the Pirates, two homers by Larry Meathe and a single home run by Bill Zeidler helped give the Pirates the margin needed. Winning pitcher was Tim Page. Vito Tocco led the Braves' hitting with 3 hits as teammates Jack Case, Chris Gauthier, Tim Schaafsma and Jeff Thomas all got two hits to their credit.

Home runs also proved to be the Cardinals' undoing in their 5 to 4 defeat by the Reg Legs. Bill Kennedy and John Thomas were the Red Leg players to make the round-the-bases trips. Fred Rohn added another to his lengthening list of pitching victories, and Scott Feringa tallied 2 of the Red Leg's 5 hits. Fielding honors, however, went to Paul Pokerny, George Saad and Chuck Crandall of the Cardinals for an infield double play.

After this heartening start, the Red Legs sadly had to forfeit a game to the Dodgers later in the week when they inadvertently used three 12-year-old pitchers. Rick Stein smashed a full-circuit hit for the losers as Tom DuFour of the Dodgers led the day's hitting with a double and a single.

It was a bad week for the Braves who lost to the Giants, 16 to 4, following their defeat at the hands of the Pirates. Don Palazzola was winning pitcher, and Mike Turlone hit 3 homers including 1 grand slam. Jerry Addison, Bill Brammer, Mario Coraci, Steve Katsoris, Gary Simon and Mike Stavale were other hot hitters for the Giants. John Woodcock proved to be the Braves' best hitter for the day. The Giants were on the losing end in their second game of the week. The Cardinals were back in oil form and delivered the Giants a whalloping, 11 to 2. Winning pitcher George Aad and Tom Stack each picked up 3 hits.

AMERICAN DIVISION

Team	W	L	Pct.
Indians	2	0	1.000
White Sox	2	0	1.000
Athletics	1	1	.500
Orioles	1	1	.500
Senators	0	2	.000
Yankees	0	2	.000

There were fewer surprises in the American Division of the majors although the 500 record for the Athletics (who won only one game in the first half of the season) was an unexpected development.

Their loss was a tough 8 to 7 struggle with the White Sox. The Athletics first picked up 6 runs in the 5th inning after trailing badly. Then a home run by Bill Missant with bases loaded tied up the contest. A thin run in the White Sox in extra innings dashed the A's dreams of victory. Top fielding feat of the game was accomplished by Charles Comly, Bill Missant and Carl Munaco of the Athletics.

The Senators gave the Athletics an easier time of it although again only 1 run divided the victors and losers. Brian Fielding was the winning pitcher. Bob Hummel hit a double to bring in the 2 runs which won the game. George Massu tallied a homer for the Senators.

Dave Wible got a double in the winning run when the White Sox beat the Orioles, 8 to 7, and thus insured his victory as pitcher. Gary Verkeyn hit 2 home runs for the White Sox, and Dave Ireland and Dave Kennel evened the homer record for the game for the Orioles.

The Senators took a second loss during the week — this time at the hands of the Indians, 8 to 3. Indians Paul Kokowicz was the game's leading hitter with 2 singles and 1 double. Ted Kurtz was the Senators' strongest hitter. Winning moundman was Brian Kingsley.

Despite fine fielding by Jim Owens of the Yankees who caught 3 certain hits, the Orioles defeated the Yankees 4 to 1. Stars of the game were Mark Hafer and Dave and Steve Kennel in the fielding department, and Steve Kennel and Mark Smaha in the hitting department. Chet Brown got the nod as winning pitcher.

The Yankees also lost to the Indians, 13 to 8. Jim Bolton's homer for the Yankees was not sufficient to offset the strong hitting of Bill Eppinga. Paul Kokowicz, Rich Mahon and Mark Metry for the Indians.

Iowa — first third champs — kept their record unblemished as the second week of the second round got underway. Iowa's first victim was Illinois with Tom Van Lokern continuing his brilliant work as a pitcher as well as smacking a homer for Iowa. Other strong hitters were Don Briggs and John Marshall. B. Mayshark of Illinois took fielding laurels with an unassisted double play. Iowa next sank Navy with Don Briggs on the mound. Third victim was Indiana with Tom Van Lokern returning as winning pitcher. Iowa's Joe Briggs and Bill Tocco cooperated on a double play. John Marshall was Iowa's top hitter.

Minnesota — who couldn't rise higher than 4th spot in the first third — started strong in the second section of the season. It first squeaked by Air Force, 12 to 11. Seven Minnesota players — B. Adelspenger, Jeff George, Paul Jones, George Kereiter, John Lacaria, Jake Prescott and Greg Thomas — collected 18 hits for the winning nine. Steve Schneider was Air Force's best man at bat with 2 singles, 1 double and 1 triple.

Indiana then handed Minnesota its first defeat to this third, 8 to 5. Kim Stewart was winning pitcher as teammates Tony Bologna racked up 4 hits in 4 times at bat and Bruce Kaselitz and Greg Suon got 2 hits apiece. In its meet with Illinois, Minnesota returned to its winnings ways. John Herman and Jim Hinson both hit home runs for the losers to no avail, for so did winning pitcher Pete Rodin of Minnesota.

After its narrow loss to Minnesota, Air Force soared onto 2 victories — edging Navy, 5 to 4, and bombarding Northwestern, 12 to 7. Brad Purcell of Air Force gave up only 1 walk in the Navy game. Mike O'Keefe was the hot hitter for Navy with three hits. Brad Purcell retained his pitching record in the game with Northwestern.

Northwestern got its first victory of the second third, swamping Illinois, 24 to 7. Bill Speer was the winning pitcher.

The American Division minor league champs for the first third — Michigan — still leads the pack as the second third enters its second week of play.

Homers by Ken Caramagno and Brad Vercoutere helped Michigan defeat Ohio State, 15 to 10. Brad Vercoutere was also winning pitcher. Warren Terrace hit a home run for Ohio State.

Bob DeClercq pitched Michigan to its second victory — a narrow 5 to 4 conquest of Michigan State despite the fact that the losers had 9 hits to Michigan's 6.

There was happier news for Ohio State in its game with Army which was a decided 6 to 1 win. Norb Madison was winning pitcher.

Army triumphed in its other two games: 19 to 10 over Michigan State and 7 to 3 over Purdue. Top hitters in the match with Michigan State were winning pitcher Jon Worrell (3 hits), Kurt Wilner (3 hits), Chris Martin (3 hits), Mark Simon got 3 hits for Michigan State.

Jon Worrell was winning pitcher and a hitter in the Purdue meet although Purdue — much improved — actually led Army early in the game. Jay Jeffrey hit 4 for 4 for Purdue.

Purdue also lost to the Marines, 5 to 15. Tom Wheatley was the winner on the mound as teammate John Bodeau tallied a home run.

The Marines let loose with 14 runs in the first 3 innings of its 19 to 1 contest with Wisconsin — a strong threat in the first third of the season. Tim Finan was winning pitcher and contributed to his own cause 5 hits.

Other hitters were John Bodeau, Bob Fitzgibbons, Tom Wheatley and Joe Zerilli. Frank Milano and Mark Prete recorded two hits each for Wisconsin.

Wisconsin returned to the winner's circle with a 10 to 6 victory over Michigan State. Mark Prete and John Dewey got 4 out of Wisconsin's 7 hits. Winning pitcher honors went to Kevin McKernan.

time at bat. Losing pitcher was Phil Dara. The TIGERS bowed to the GIANTS 13 to 4 as Larry Schmidt relieved by Wally Marantette was named winning pitcher. Loser was Ware relieved by Gary Meyer.

At the third game it was the DODGERS over the INDIANS in a really lopsided game 15 to 5. Winning pitcher was Gary Richardson aided by a whopping home run by Walter Cy-tacki on his first day back from Culver Academy. Losing pitcher was Keith Cunningham, relieved by Doug Dzuba. Dougie last year had real control and in this game it started to again appear. We know we'll see lots more of him. He also had a good triple but as the score shows it was to no avail.

Sunday those battling DODGERS took the PHILLIES 10 to 7 in the NATS playoff game for the first round. Rick Scavarda was winning pitcher and Dan Thompson the loser. Rick helped his own cause in the 6th with a 3-bagger with 2 runs coming in to turn the game. And so we enter the second half of the season.

Causley beat O'Brien in a tight 6-5 game. Gary Pagato was the winning pitcher while Paul Shakotko was the loser. Mike Condne and Jeff Graybiel did some fine hitting. Thirteen-year-old Don Blomquist caught for the first time and played a terrific game. Causley was behind in the seventh inning by 5-2, then the explosion occurred: Condne made first on an error, Gary Pagato got a single, Bill David got a single, Tony Girardi got a single, Bill David got a single, Tony Girardi got a single, Tim Unger was walked intentionally and Jeff Graybiel smashed in the winning runs. All of this happened with two out in the seventh.

Shalla creamed Green 12-0. Chris Malafouris continued his winning ways as he allowed only three hits and only walked three men. Bill Schleicher got two great hits which drove in two runs. Rick Shalla went two for four and drove in four runs. Greg Ulmer was the losing pitcher. Al Slowik of Shalla made a tremendous catch in the bottom of the fifth which saved two runs. Gary Dobbie and Danny Menzo were the hitters for Green. They just couldn't put the hits in the right place. They probably will next time so watch out!

Wednesday, June 9
Shalla beat Richard 6-4. Rick Shalla started the game and was relieved in the 4th by Spike O'Brien who pitched a great game. Rick Shalla went two for four in the hit department and drove in two runs with a big triple. Chris Malafouris continues to burn up the diamond as he went 2 for 4 and drove in one run. Gary Hutchinson gets credit for the loss while Bob Zink and Larry Reininger did their best to win the game for Richard. Zink had a hit and Reininger went 2 for 4 with a three base hit in the top of the seventh.

Green whipped O'Brien 6-2. Dan Menzo was the winning pitcher. He also hit a bases loaded triple. Mike Pastor gets the loss while Tom Onofrey doubled home a man.

Causley nipped Rambler 7-6 under the good pitching of Mike Leu. Gary Pagato had two hits, Don Blomquist had a good single, Tim Unger went three for four, Mike Leu had a double, Dave Reiske a single, Bill David and Bob David each had a single. Gene Barratta

The Midget League champions were Post 303. They were coached by Jim McBride and star players were Bill Elrich, Skip Louth and Mike Getz.

The Giant League championship race finished in a tie for the regular season between Parcell's Hustlers and Pierce's Bullets. In a play-off game Pierce's 9th grade Bullets won this exciting game.

The Major League championship was captured by the Cake-Esters, a team of Grosse Pointe High School seniors. They were undefeated and posted a 77 points per game average.

The team trophy for the Midget League is on display at the Central Library and the Giant League trophy at the Pierce Branch Library.

did his best to break the game wide open. He belted two of the longest home runs seen this year. They flew from the Mason homeplate to the middle of Eight Mile road. Mark Pohl isn't any slouch either; he drove in three runs in the seventh inning.

A make-up game from June 2 saw O'Brien whip Rambler 6-1. Paul Shakotko struck out thirteen men. Bruce Kegen blasted three for 4 and had two runs batted in. Jeff Mathews was the loser while Marve Larivee got two hits for Rambler.

A June 2 make-up game was played between Shalla and Causley. Shalla walloped Causley 12-1 behind the good pitching of Spike O'Brien and the three hits each by Chris Malafouris and Rick Shalla. Mike Condne and Gary Pagato got two hits each for Causley.

Another June 2 make-up game saw Richard beat Green 2-1.

Rambler and Richard game was continued on June 12. The game originally played on June 7 was called on account of darkness. The score at that time was 0-0 after eight innings - Brian Berlenbach had pitched a three-hitter with 15 strikeouts. Rambler's Marc Ranny pitched a one-hitter and had 12 strikeouts. The two boys continued the game through 10 innings - still a scoreless tie. They then had to come out of the game. Berlenbach ended with 15 strikeouts, Ranny with 14. Marve Larivee came in for Rambler and won the game 1-0.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Thursday, June 10 saw the end of an exciting first half season for the All-American league. Boutin made it a run away by winning 8 games and only losing two. All of the teams will be gunning for Boutin during the next half.

June 8 - Mutual beat Grosse Pointe No. 2, 9 to 7. Gordon Seibert was the winning pitcher and Chuck Kutcher was the losing pitcher. The game was filled with walks and errors.

Boutin continued its winning ways by beating Messenger in a close 9 to 8 game. Bob Zillman chalked up his fourth win in a row, while Brian Marone took the loss. Boutin's Dan Cohan started a rally in the fifth inning and drove in two runs. In the sixth inning Boutin tied the game with a six-run rally. In the last half of the seventh inning 13-year-old Mike Hampton singled in the winning run. Ray Assessor, catcher for Messenger, did his best to win the game by

Recommended Reading

The NEWS devotes this space this week to the publication of a speech delivered on June 8 to the teaching staff of the Pierce Junior High School by Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. We highly recommend that all our readers give it their careful attention. We are personally very grateful that our public schools are under the leadership of one as capable as Dr. Wilson.

Fellow Staff Members:

I appreciate your giving me fifteen minutes from your busy schedule. Most of us are so heavily committed with the endless chores of keeping school that we do not get to see each other too often. And as always, our communications suffer in the network of speculation and gossip that covers a school system more thoroughly than the press.

Every now and then someone asks why the central office administration is so secretive about its activities. This question really stops me. If there's anyone who operates in a public fish bowl, it's a superintendent. It sometimes seems as if my innermost thoughts are public knowledge before I know myself what they are. This is perhaps understandable when you consider the time and the number of people involved in decision making. Anyone can propose an idea—and it seems that everyone does. Once an idea is proposed, it is considered by a variety of people before it is rejected or advanced to a seven member Board of Education. Once it goes to the Board, it is accepted, rejected or returned for further consideration. Meanwhile, it passes through the hands of committees, administrators, secretaries, clerks and maintenance personnel. It's little wonder that people find it difficult to distinguish between rumor and fact.

Today I'd like to discuss one of the facts of our school situation. It is a fact that involves district-wide policy but affects Pierce School specifically. Several months ago one of our recruiters encountered an especially well qualified applicant for a vocal music position. (We had three such vacancies this year.) This young woman was a cum laude undergraduate of West Virginia State University, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, a student council member, and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. In addition to four years successful teaching experience, she had Y.W.C.A. camp experience with adolescents in New York City. She has an M.A. degree in vocal music from the University of Michigan, and has exceedingly high ratings by her professors, employers, and our own interviewer.

In the normal course of events, she was invited to visit our schools where she was interviewed in depth by two principals, the director of professional personnel and the superintendent. A good many teachers also had an opportunity to meet her. Subsequently, as one of the year's most highly qualified applicants, she was extended an invitation to join our staff. Some ten days later, she accepted the invitation; whereupon she was recommended to the Board for employment and was unanimously approved.

Now it may perplex some of you to know why I mention what may seem to be a routine matter, since you are all familiar with our employment procedures. We apply only the standard of excellence to all applicants. But the fact is that the teacher to whom I refer, Miss Harriet Marsh, is the first Negro to accept an invitation to teach in Grosse Pointe.

You will note that I said first Negro to accept an invitation. Last year we extended an invitation to an outstanding physical education teacher who declined our offer for a far more lucrative job with American Airlines. Both these candidates were identified by our own recruiting staff and were in no way urged upon us by groups or individuals inside or outside the community.

Now to any reasonable and thoughtful person, it would seem quite sufficient that we apply standards of excellence to teacher employment. But I am not naive. I am fully aware that there are some people who, despite law and morality, would apply double standards. And since you as staff members will undoubtedly be asked for judgmental opinions, it is well that I review for you the discussions which the Board of Education and I have had on this subject.

I think it is in order to say that our Board of Education includes a representative cross-section of the community on political, educational and social issues. They range from those who view the employment of minority group members as inimical to community interests, all the way to those who are impatient with administrative deliberateness. However, they are all conscious of the oath they have taken as Board members to uphold the laws of this state and nation, and they are unanimously agreed that they must support recommendations based upon standards of excellence.

Many people are unaware that public education is a state and not a local responsibility. Members of a Board of Education are state officials, not municipal officials. Local school districts are given administrative responsibilities, subject to control and supervision of the state. More than twenty per cent of the money to operate the Grosse Pointe Public Schools comes from state or federal sources.

For the past several years, members of your Board of Education and I have considered the problems inherent in Civil Rights legislation. They affect the school district in both employment and finances. This year the Board was obliged to sign compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Public Law 88-352) "to the end that no person in the School District shall, on the grounds of race, color or national origin, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits or use of the facilities and services generally made available by the school district or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity, for such reasons, for which the school district receives Federal and/or State financial assistance."

Long before the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or the Federal School Aid Bill of 1965, the school district has been under considerable pressure to comply with both the letter and spirit of Michigan Civil Rights Commission regulations. So far as employment was concerned, however, it was not an easy matter to pin-point responsibility. For one thing, it was necessary to understand the unique relationship between a Board and the administration. Under law, a superintendent of schools has the responsibility to recommend personnel for employment. All legal powers to employ or discharge, buy or spend, reside solely with the Board of Education.

This unique relationship has sometimes created an impasse that has had unfortunate consequences for school districts. To avoid any possibility of such an occurrence in Grosse Pointe, we arrived at the understanding that the administration would apply only the highest professional standards in the search for teaching personnel; in turn, the Board would approve such recommendations for employment as were made by the Superintendent and his representatives.

Few people would quarrel with the standards of excellence set by the Board and its administration. In a good educational program there is no substitute for first rate teachers. While curriculum, buildings, equipment, supplies and policy are important, they are secondary to top quality teachers and administrators.

Recruitment of teaching personnel ranks first in importance among the various activities of our administrators. No stones are left turned to identify and to attract the best qualified teachers to Grosse Pointe. In applying standards of excellence, however, we cannot as state officials or employees ignore nor refuse to obey laws applying to fair employment practices. When applicants appear who meet the standards expected of Grosse Pointe teachers, neither the administration nor the Board of Education can rightfully nor legally disqualify such persons on the grounds of race, color, creed or national origin.

Those of us in administration and on the Board of Education have long been aware of our obligations in this respect and have been prepared to accept our responsibilities. In practice, we have had little or no difficulty in our policy. There have been relatively few applicants from minority groups. The discriminatory injustices long inflicted upon the Negro community have denied fair educational opportunities to most of these people. As a consequence, there is not now nor is there expected to be soon a large number of highly qualified Negroes for leadership positions in either the commercial or professional fields.

Now it is pointed out, both in interview and in correspondence with the applicant I am discussing, that there are no Negro residents in Grosse Pointe and that none is anticipated in the immediate future. It was further pointed out that there are residents of extreme opposite persuasions—both those who are highly impatient with our slowness and those who would, if possible, stop the irrevocable sweep of history.

No one who sits in a position of public responsibility could fail to be aware of these extreme points of view. I would hope that these extremes did not exist among the members of this staff. I have never been able to understand how a teacher, committed as we are to the welfare of mankind through its children, could fail to be concerned with the American principles of equity and justice to all citizens. But again, I am not naive. I suppose it is possible that we have among us those who, if not openly prejudiced, would conveniently close their eyes to both fair employment and the realities of our times.

But to such people—if they do exist—I must advise that if you cannot find understanding in your heads and hearts, that at the very least you understand the nature of public education and the laws of the land. As state employees, you are legally obligated as a condition of employment to live within and to uphold the statutes governing public school operation.

To the overwhelming majority of you, however, I must ask more than tacit or enthusiastic acceptance of Board action. You know as well as I do that there are vocal elements within every community who would, if possible, thwart the constitutional and statutory rights of other citizens. Personally, I believe these elements are a small minority and do not represent Grosse Pointe. The vast majority of residents, although they may resent the intrusion of change upon their lives, are decent, law-abiding citizens. They love their homes, churches and schools. They desire, as we all do, to maintain Grosse Pointe's reputation as one of the nation's best residential and school communities.

It is these people—the vast majority of respectable, law-abiding citizens—who must understand the conditions of our times. The extremists of both persuasions must not be permitted to speak for the community. I think there are two questions that must be asked the extremists. First, to those who demand that the schools stampede precipitously into fair employment practices: Could they conscientiously urge that we lower the standards of our schools by employing lesser qualified candidates simply to rectify the admitted injustices of the past century? To those of the opposite persuasion, do they honestly believe they will improve the quality or image of their community with public protests against the Board of Education and the schools, or by forcing later the employment of less desirable teachers?

No one can stop change. A different administration or a different Board of Education could only postpone for a short while what rational people know is inevitable. But while we cannot halt change, we can, with patience and understanding, control it.

My plea to teachers and other citizens of this community is that they not accept nor contribute to irresponsible gossip and rumors. Within the past year ridiculously false reports have been circulated that we have employed indiscriminate number of Negroes, that we have restricted our attendance lines to encompass Negro areas, that we are bussing children into neighboring communities and vice versa. Last March when four students from Brownell Junior High exchanged classes for a day with four students from Detroit, some people called to ask if we knew that bus loads of Negroes were enrolling in our schools!

Later at Barnes and Trombly schools, we participated in an observation program for prospective student teachers with Wayne State University, a program that included both white and Negro students. From all reports, it was a completely successful program from the standpoint of the university and the public schools and will unquestionably be continued.

Moreover, there is every likelihood that among our student teachers from Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne next year there will be some Negroes. We have reached an intolerable impasse in this area. We not only have an obligation to assist in the training of future teachers, but student teaching offers by far the best opportunity to observe and detect promising teacher candidates. Yet the number sent to us from our neighboring universities is hardly a trickle. Unless and until we open the doors to all students of merit, we shall be shut off from contact with our major sources of competent teachers.

I am quite aware that the changes inherent in our times are bitter to some people. I am also aware that our slowness of change is equally bitter to others. There can be no immediate meeting of minds between these extremes. However, it seems rational to suppose that we can all meet on the common ground of mutual respect for Grosse Pointe and the schools we love. To hasten the inevitable could lessen the quality of our public schools by lowering our employment standards; to attempt to deny it would only darken the unfortunate image which sometimes glimmers throughout the state and nation.

I believe that image is false and undeserved. There are good and reasonable people from both extremes. There are, as I previously said, representatives of different persuasions on the Board of Education. But all members are primarily concerned that they have the best schools for their children and their neighbors' children. H. G. Wells said, "Civilization is a race between education and catastrophe." May all rise above wrath and impatience and together protect the educational image of Grosse Pointe. None of us wants catastrophe.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

In mentioning June, vacations, and summer reading for children last week, I found myself thinking of warm weather volumes for adults as well. This subject always creates a sort of ambivalence; i.e., whether to stress classics, older books which one might want to reread, or current books. A mélange of all types is also possible. At the risk of disappointing some, I think that this time around I'll emphasize some new titles, which might be welcome in a hammock, on the beach, at camp, in a mountain retreat, or right in your own backyard. (Just so long as you read, we don't really care where you are!)

Perhaps you might be intrigued by the title: THE BLUE HEN'S CHICK by A. E. Guthrie (author of THE BIG SKY). Here Guthrie takes us back to virgin, turn-of-the-century Montana. The book is autobiographical, telling us of his "news-paper-making" his memories of Robert Frost and Bernard de Voto, of his landlady who dubbed him the "Blue Hen's Chick," of his marriage and family life, and some tips on the craft of fiction writing.

The versatile John Updike has a new one: ASSORTED PROSE. This most gifted and prolific writer, who has already produced excellent novels, short stories and poetry, now presents non-fiction pieces: book reviews, parodies, commentaries (mostly autobiographical) on the American scene, past and present.

For a hard-bitten, hard-pressed action story we can recommend Adam Hall's QUILLER MEMORANDUM. This novel's locale is present-day Germany, where agent Quiller is in and out of enemy hands, dropped in the river (among other adventures), but finally manages to complete his mission.

One high on the best seller list is Arthur Hailey's HOTEL. The time and setting are five days at New Orleans, St. Gregory Hotel, last of the independents, and in danger of falling to a hotel chain magnate. The author takes great pains with his background details, but skims the surface with his numerous plots and personalities. It should make good summer reading.

And once again I must plug one of my favorites: UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE by Bel Kaufman. With a background of 15 years' teaching experience in the New York City Public Schools, the author, with wit, compassion and fine understanding, depicts teachers and pupils in these schools, while lampooning with deadly accuracy the pedagogue of a typical School system.

Maurice Zolotow, in STAGE-STRUCK, has given us the romance of Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne. He champions the Lunts on every page, laying before our eyes an affectionate dual portrait of these famous people, as well as giving us a half century of theater history. Here is a must for theater buffs.

I am still recovering from the impact of a tremendous collection of short stories by Flannery O'Connor—EVERYTHING THAT RISES MUST CONVERGE. These are Southern tales, giving us with brilliance of style and intensity of statement the dilemma of man, driven to a feverish struggle with his own condition. These are stark, real situations, involving people for whom the author feels little compassion, and the characters are absolutely unforgettable. It is indeed a tragedy that this gifted writer died last summer, at the early age of 38. We shall have no more stories like this from her.

In view of the civil rights movement, you may want to read David Chalmers' HOO DED AMERICANISM, which traces the development of the Ku Klux Klan, founded as a secret, night riding organization to its reflorescence after World War I. The author treats significant eras and activities in each state.

Pope John XXIII's JOURNAL OF A SOUL should have wide appeal and should be enjoyed for some time to come. He emerges from these documents as a figure of genuine innocence and great humility—truly a great man of this age.

Fletcher Knebel has a new book out: NIGHT OF CAMP DAVID. This is another push-button, panic-button story about politics from the Pentagon to the Hill. Here, the President of the United States turns out to be mentally disabled—a paranoid, but no one suspects except Jim MacVeagh, a Senator who has just been tapped as his next running mate. If you liked SEVEN DAYS IN MAY, you should pack this in your vacation luggage.

A light, dog-days volume is Daphne Du Maurier's FLIGHT OF THE FALCON. Here is a new novel by this well-known author, with a haunting atmosphere and hypnotic suspense in the vein of Mary Stewart or Victoria Holt.

We've tried to give you some varied fare. There are many others we could mention, but these may serve as leaders to get you to come to our Libraries and do some reading. Remember, we are all three air-conditioned!

A gala dinner dance honoring Commodore and Mrs. Robert M. Palmer will provide a fabulous finale to Detroit Boat Club's 71st sailing regatta, scheduled Saturday, June 26.

The Commodore's Ball is DBC's party-of-the-month, one of the biggest, most exciting and thoroughly enjoyable affairs of the summer season, with invitations extended to the Commodores, skippers and crews of all member clubs of the Detroit River Yachting Association.

The regatta begins shortly after dawn, when both powerboat and wind sailors begin readying their boats for the day's activities. In recent years, more than 200 boats have answered the starting guns for every DBC regatta.

Festivities will continue into Sunday's wee hours, following the formal cocktail and dinner party in the Club ballroom, when the last of the Commodore's guests leave for home.

Highlight of their vacation was a stop at the Villa Serbelloni, on Lake Como, a fabulous property whose history goes back to Roman times.

Bequeathed to The Rockefeller Foundation in 1959 by its last private owner, the late Ella Walker, Princess Della Torre e Tasso, the Villa is now being used as a place where scholars and scientists come to study and write, and to confer on subjects of international importance.

Grounds and rooms are maintained as they were under the Princess's direction. The household staff includes Vincenzo, the butler, footmen and maids; fur-

Lt. and Mrs. Wells At Home in Alaska

Margaret K. Waggoner Speaks Vows May 15; Reception in Fries Ballroom Follows Rites in Pointe Methodist Church

Lieutenant and Mrs. Willard L. Wells are making their home in Fairbanks, Alaska, where he is stationed with the United States Army.

They were married May 15, in Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. A reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Wells is the former Margaret K. Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Waggoner, of Lakeland avenue.

For her wedding, she chose a gown of white linen, trimmed with eyelet embroidery on the bodice and sleeves. Her train was of Chapel length, and her illusion veil fell from a flower circlet.

Her bouquet was fashioned of white roses, white snapdragons and ivy.

Rebecca Waggoner was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Martha Weston, of Milford, Conn., and Martelle Wells, of Ann Arbor.

They wore matching gowns of white pique, trimmed with Swiss embroidery and pink ribbons. Their bouquets were fashioned of pink and red Sweetheart roses, with pink and variegated carnations and ivy.

Lt. Wells, son of Mrs. Iva Wells, of Caro, Mich., and the late Lionel Wells, asked Tom Watters, of Ann Arbor, to act as best man.

Seating the guests were James W. Markel and Jack Smith, of Ann Arbor, John Elliot, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Michael Waggoner, brother of the bride, a graduate student at Duke University.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Waggoner chose a Navy blue silk shantung costume. Mrs. Wells' frock was fashioned of powder blue silk linen. Both mothers' corsages were fashioned of pink Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Johnson Heading LWV

The League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe, under the direction of its newly elected president Mrs. Lee R. Johnson, will undertake a special study on the apportionment of state legislatures in addition to continuing its studies on human resources, United Nations, public welfare, water resources and county home rule.

Mrs. Johnson, who was elected to serve a two-year term, was first vice president for 1963-65. Last year she also served as Legislative chairman of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Other officers who will serve on the League's board are Mrs. Douglas A. Sargent, first vice president and legislative chairman; Mrs. Minert Thompson, second vice president and units chairman; Mrs. James Webers, secretary; Mrs. William T. Krebs, treasurer.

Chairmen include Mrs. Kenneth Pitts, Voters Service; Mrs. Ralph Kimble, membership; Mrs. Erville Maynard, publications; Mrs. George Schemm, finance; Mrs. Hamilton Stillwell, continuing responsibilities; Mrs. Ted Beebe, arrangements; and Mrs. William Kessler, bulletin.

Chairman of national study items are Mrs. Leonard Slown, water resources; Mrs. Vernon Beitel, foreign economic policy and United Nations; and Mrs. William Phillips, human resources.

The study of apportionment of state legislatures will be conducted by all Leagues throughout the country. The study is being made because the League recognizes the serious constitutional question at stake in the proposed amendments to the U. S. Constitution that would permit one house of state legislatures to be apportioned on a basis other than population.

Under this study item Leagues will decide whether the standard of representation enunciated by the Supreme Court in June 1964 (that both houses of a state legislature must be based substantially on population), should be maintained or whether the U. S. Constitution should be changed so that state legislatures might represent other factors.

It is the League's practice to study an item and take a consensus of its members on the issue before the League takes an action on legislation.

DIVIDENDS
Cultivate the habit of converting enemies into friends—it's the best kind of investment.

Fehmer-Edwards Nuptials Celebrated

Bride Wears Appliqued Silk Organza Gown and Bouffant Veil; Attendants' Frocks Are Fashioned of Coral and White Crepe

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Otto Fehmer are making their home in East Outer drive, Detroit.

They were married May 29, in St. Paul's on the Lake-shore. Monsignor Frank McPhillips officiated at the 11 o'clock ceremony, which was followed by a reception at Allard House.

The bride, the former Beverly Ann Edwards, daughter of Mrs. Grace Edwards, of Hillcrest road, was given in marriage by her uncle, Norman M. Doyle.

She wore a gown of applied silk organza, and a three-tiered bouffant illusion veil, falling from an organza headpiece. Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of carnations, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Robert Stefani served as her sister's matron of honor, in a floor length gown of coral and white crepe.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Mrs. Jeffrey Jennings, another sister of the bride, of Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. Rosemary Butkus. The attendants carried cascades of coral-tipped white carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fehmer, of Elmwood court, St. Clair Shores, asked Robert Stefani to act as best man.

Ushers were Fred Schuessler, Bill Tremontaigne and Robert Edwards, the bride's brother.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Edwards chose a pink lace over silk shantung frock. Her flowers were shaded pink baby roses.

Mrs. Fehmer wore a gown of orchid organza and silk, and a corsage of pink baby roses.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

As Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's... 54th Annual Horse Show opens today, we thought it would be particularly appropriate to regale our readers with some fascinating facets of Hunt Club history, as recalled by long-time Club member Peg Flinn...

... the year of the first Show was 1911, location was in the same general area as the Club is now. Races were held on the race track behind Mrs. Ben Warren, Sr.'s and the Jewett property. Steeplechase races were held where the Grosse Pointe University School athletic field and the Protestant Children's Home are now located...

... over the years, the style of riding has completely changed, in hunters and jumping, from the old English seat to the balanced and forward seat...

... the Club's original stables, blacksmith and boarding house are now torn down, as are the Alger stables, originally located across from the Club in Cook road, (the property is now a subdivision). Both Fred M. and Russell A. Alger had stables across Cook road. They kept a stallion and mares there, and "in the spring the foals began to arrive," Miss Flinn recalls...

... the first Huntsman was Alec Copeland, Sr., an Englishman. Later, he was stud manager for Colonel Fred M. Alger. Alec Copeland, his son, a veterinarian, lived on the Alger property and also had a veterinary hospital...

... horses were taken annually from Grosse Pointe Hunt Club to the Chagrin Valley, O., Show. They were transported by being led or ridden to a D&C boat, on which they were shipped to Cleveland, then ridden from the boat to Chagrin Valley. The process was reversed when the Chagrin Valley horses came to the Pointe Hunt Club Show...

... the Deming horses made the Mackinac trip every summer, first by boat, later via Grand Trunk Railroad as far as Mackinac City, where they were transferred to a boat for the trip across the Straits. There were no horse vans...

... after one Gay New Year's Eve party, Charles Warren, Jr., Paul Deming, Jr., and Ned Jewett rode on the Hunt Team on New Year's Day in white tie and tails...

... a restaurant in East Grand boulevard at the corner of Jefferson avenue was a favorite rendezvous of the Grosse Pointe Riding Club, forerunner of the present Hunt Club. Members liked to dine, then ride over the old wooden bridge, (it eventually burned down), to Belle Isle, and meander along the bridal paths there...

... two horses, favorites of early Club members, are buried just north of Morningside drive, off Cook road...

... the Hunt Club colors are the inspiration of three young girls. In the late 1920's, Peg Flinn rode on the Hunt Team with the then Edith Ferry and Helen Edwards. The girls asked William Hendrie, Club president, if they could have Hunt colors. Mr. Hendrie said yes, and the Misses Flinn, Ferry and Edwards went to the Dime Store, bought their colors and sewed them on themselves. The trio also purchased men's sandwich cases—because they were too young to have flasks...

... a Club favorite is the Harrow Trophy, named for a very spirited animal who seemed to enjoy throwing riders. Anyone who achieved this distinction had his name inscribed on the trophy. It is filled with names of Old Grosse Pointers...

... there is a definite appropriateness in Fontbonne Auxiliary's sponsorship of the Horse Show. A favorite ride during the Club's early days was through the property on which St. John Hospital, which will benefit from the 54th Show, is now located.

PILFERINGS

A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!
—Shakespeare, Richard III

Animals are such agreeable friends; they ask no questions, pass no criticisms.

MRS. CLAUDE A. GREINER, OF LAKESHORE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Connie Greiner vows she'll never move again. "I've built about five houses, moved about nine times," she explains. "I'm STAYING in this house!" And the present Greiner home, a Normandy chateau directly on Lake St. Clair, just may be the family's final resting place—although Mr. and Mrs. Greiner's friends are not taking any bets on the duration of their stay there... yet.

Certainly, the house in Lakeshore road suits the Greiners perfectly. They can keep one of their boats in the backyard. Each child has his own bedroom, and there is space for grandchildren when they come to visit. Connie has plenty of room for her roses.

Her favorite French antiques—"I love Louis XIV and Louis XV..." When you get to Louis XVI, it's a little ornate," she says, wrinkling her nose on the "little" so you know just exactly what she thinks of Louis XVI—blend perfectly into the high-ceilinged, formal downstairs living quarters.

Warm and Friendly

Yet the total effect of the Greiner home is warm, friendly "informal" in the sense that "form" takes second place to friendliness.

The chair you sit down on may be a beautiful French piece, authentic Louis XV—but you are never afraid to sit down on it, to relax and enjoy yourself, to let yourself be completely at ease.

For the Greiners are an "easy" family. Five of the six children are still at home: Tony (Claude A. Greiner, Jr.), 17, a student at Grosse Pointe High School; Gretchen, 14, who goes to Grosse Pointe University School; B. J. (formal name: Brian), 12, and Chris, 9, both at St. Paul; and Jonathan, 7, at GPUS.

"Oh, the P-T-A's!" their mother exclaims after she reels off the list of children and schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Greiner's oldest child, LaFray, is now Mrs. William Gorman Taylor, mother of two little girls, Tina, 2, and one-year-old Heidi.

Mother-of-Six would seem to be a full-time job, but Connie Greiner has always had interests outside her home. "I love to work, but I hate housework," she explains.

"I'm not the type to sit home. I like to 'come home' and feel that I've done something."

Her Many Interests

Her present activities include working for the League of Catholic Women, ("I'm semi-active at the Bargain Counter"), Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, (she is a past president of that organization), the Carmelite Guild, PIME, ("That's a GOOD group; I like that one!"), and Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital.

She tends to gravitate toward hospital auxiliaries because she feels they are civic activities, benefiting the whole community.

Every Tuesday morning she is at her volunteer post at St. John's new Surgical Lounge.

The Surgical Lounge, opened last September on the hospital's second floor, is Connie Greiner's current pet project. It is staffed by some 15 volunteers, all Fontbonne Auxiliary members.

"We decided we needed it four years ago, but there was no room," Connie explains. As St. John's expansion program progressed, room was found: now families and friends of patients undergoing surgery have a place to relax during operations, a waiting room of their own, where doctors can always reach them.

"It gives everybody a marvelous feeling, including the doctors," Mrs. Greiner reports. "We volunteers introduce people, try to get everyone talking together."

"We want to make the time pass swiftly. And we claim our

Sponsors Horse Show

Today, Connie has an especially big job. Fontbonne Auxiliary is co-sponsoring the 54th annual Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Horse Show, which opened this morning and will continue through Sunday. Mrs. Greiner is today's Horse Show Chairman-of-the-Day, and must spend all her time on the Hunt Club grounds in Cook road, checking gate receipts and receipts from the Gift Shop, being run by Auxiliary members.

"We've all worked like mad on the Show," she says. "This is the first time the Auxiliary and the Club have worked together on a project; we hope it will be a great success."

Fontbonne Auxiliary members and Hunt Club members, (in many cases, they overlap), joined forces to promote the Horse Show, which will benefit the hospital. Connie Greiner is not a horsewoman herself and not a Hunt Club member, although the Greiners keep a few horses at their farm in Memphis, Mich.

But the Greiners do not go to the farm as often as they used to: "The kids would rather be here now," Mrs. Greiner explains.

The family's favorite milieu is water. Connie and her husband have both enjoyed boating since they were children. They could not imagine living away from the water. "We MUST be near the lake!"

Converts to Sailing

"We used to be 'stinkboaters' (the sailors' derogatory name for powerboaters)," Connie says, "but we got sailing now. I like the sailboat better than a powerboat; it's quieter... kind of like a tranquilizer."

"The Connie" is a powerboat, kept in their backyard. They use it mainly for fishing, or for trips to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, (it's one way to beat Sunday afternoon traffic on Lakeshore!), where they pick up their sailboat, "The Gretch." The boats are named for "the only two women left in the house"—obviously, LaFray moved out too soon!

All the Greiner children love the water, and they are all good sailors. "We'll have a fine crew for the Mackinac Race one of these years," Mrs. Greiner prophesies.

Mr. Greiner and Tony are sailing in their first Mackinac this year. They have already given Connie their list of provisions, and will probably wish she were aboard to do the cooking before the race is over. Mrs. G. is an experienced hand in a ship's galley, but the Mackinac is a men-only proposition. She'll meet her sailors on the island at the race's end.

Pointe Best Resort

The Greiners belong to that growing group of local residents who see no sense in leaving The Pointe in summer, when the weather is at its best. They spend a good part of July and August under sail, go north on weekends to visit the younger boys at camp, relax in their own backyard.

Connie, who loves gardening and has about 150 roses—"But I'm still an amateur. I do it for my own enjoyment, because I love to grow, pick and arrange"—likes to get out among her flowers and dig a little every day.

Her rose garden is a favorite spot for the nuns at St. John's, too; they often come down durscribed appropriately: "But Mother, You Don't Understand!"

She started antique-ing years ago with her father-in-law, has had fun "even when I've made mistakes," frankly finds it impossible to pass an antique shop without going inside.

The upstairs of her house is a honeycomb, rooms leading out of rooms and passages curling around other rooms, fascinating to walk through. There are seven bedrooms and six baths—and Connie Greiner's favorite—spot-of-all, her blue and white sitting room with its corner fireplace and twin windows, overlooking the lake.

The only problem visitors face when they come to call is negotiating the cobblestone courtyard to the front door. It's a bit difficult for women in high-heeled shoes, "but it's great training for anybody going to Europe," the mistress of the house maintains.

Another advantage to the courtyard is that it was built to last. It will never wear out... which is just as well, because Connie Greiner is NEVER going to move again.
