THE FEDERAL CASE against Mayor Orville L. Hubbard finally went to the jury Wednesday though no verdict was reached. Hubbard and his two aides, Public Safety Director George W. Lewis, and Police Chief Garrison Clayton, were charged with conspiring to deny equal protection of the law to Giuseppe Stanzone as part of a "policy" of excluding Negroes from Dearborn. Stanzone's house was stormed Sept. 2, 1963, by an angry crowd, in the mistaken belief that Stanzone was moving in. Victim Stanzone was thought to have sold his house to Negroes.

DEARBORN MAYOR Orville Hubbard and his two top police aides were found innocent Thursday, of charges that they violated the constitutional rights of a property owner whose home was being owned by a mob during a 1963 racial incident. The eight-woman, four-man Federal Court Jury deliberated for eight hours and 23 minutes. One juror revealed after the trial was adjourned that more than six ballots were taken but at no time was the vote close for a conviction. The juror stated that the major issue was whether there had been "evil intent" on the part of the three men being tried in the handling of the mob.

AT LEAST 31 persons were killed in a floating Saigon restaurant Friday in the bloodiest terrorist bombing of the Vietnam war. Nine Americans, including one civilian, and four other foreigners were among the dead in twin explosions at the luxurious My Canh Restaurant. At least 100 persons were wounded as one bomb hurled among the diners and the second raked survivors as they rushed down the catwalk to shore.

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY has given up plans for converting downtown Detroit's Embassy Hotel into a Job Corps training center for 250 to 400 girls. University spokesmen said it got a runaround from War on Poverty headquarters in Washington. They said they had been encouraged by Office of Economic Opportunity officials but they found out only by chance that OEO was meanwhile negotiating with a private industry on the same idea. The University sprang to "compete" with private enterprise for the Federal contract.

SOUTH VIETNAMESE troops overran a Mekong Delta village 35 miles south of Saigon Sunday and killed seven Viet Cong officials attending a meeting. U.S. military informants termed it the biggest single bag of Viet Cong officials in the war. Other government forces turned the tide in a fight 20 miles west of Saigon and forced a Viet Cong withdrawal under heavy artillery and air attacks. Sixty-eight U.S. warplanes struck inside North Viet Nam, hitting ammunition dumps, bridges, highways and military compounds. However, the Viet Cong held tight to a newly-seized provincial capital in the central highlands as bad flying weather prevented air strikes.

THE DETROIT FEDERATION of Teachers ratified Monday an agreement with the Detroit Board of Education by an overwhelming voice vote. The ratification gave teachers pay raises of $200 to $500. The school board was to vote on the agreement at a special meeting expected to be speedy. The agreement was reached Saturday after four days in intensive bargaining by a conference committee of board members, union representatives and Superintendent of Schools Samuel M. Brownell.

Hit-and-Run Driver Does $500 Damage

Flees Scene After Bashing In Side of Brand New Station Wagon in Moross Road

A hit-and-run driver crashed into the side of a brand new 1965 Ford Station Wagon, purchased only two weeks ago, and owned by Lee Allen of 71 Moross road. Damage to the entire left side of Allen's vehicle was set at $500.

The hit-run car is believed to be a white 1963 Fairlane 500, according to evidence left at the scene. Farms police said that chrome trim from a right front fender, and paint scrapings, indicated that the hit-runner was driving that make of car.

Allen's car was parked in front of his house, between Grosse Pointe boulevard and Kercheval avenue, Friday evening, June 25, and the damage was done at approximately 11:15 p.m.

Walker Saw Car
Patrolman Joseph Belanger arrived at the scene within a minute after the dispatch came over the police radio, and searched the area, but without success. He spoke to a man walking a black dog, and the man said he saw a car, answering the description of the hit-runner, turning onto the boulevard.

The witness told the officer that the right side of the car was damaged, and the right front wheel was wobbling badly. He did not know the make.

Yacht Club Sans Yachts Has Fun and Tribulations

The Fugawee Yacht Club is comprised of 24 members, 30 to 60 years of age, not a one of whom owns a boat, and they just returned from their first three-day, 50-mile Lake St. Clair cruise, June 25, 26 and 27—in rented houseboats.

The members took a round-about way to Harsens Island, and then returned to the Pointe. The Yacht Club's "home port" is the Rustic Cabins, 15209 Kercheval avenue, where it was conceived and formed last January by a group of patrons of the bar, owned by Rudy VerCruyse of 482 Touraine, one of the club's founders.

The club was organized merely for fun, and the members agreed to take one or two cruises each year. Members as-

Re-Appoint Two Members To Park Plan Commission; One Vacancy Still Exists

Council Also Agrees to Change Meeting Time in September and October to Attract Attendance By More Residents

At its regular meeting held on Monday, June 28, the Park council endorsed the re-appointment of two members of the Plan Commission, agreed to pay outstanding bills, and decided to change its meeting time on a trial basis.

With their present three-year term expiring July 1, George H. Helm of 1005 Audubon, and Dr. Michael J. Brennan of 1168 Three Mile drive, were re-appointed to serve another term which will expire on July 1, 1968. Both expressed the desire to continue serving the city in this capacity, according to Mayor Matthew Patterson, who recommended the appointments.

Plan Commission members receive no pay for their services, but do this work as a matter of civic pride.

Still One Vacancy
There is still one vacancy on the Commission, created by the recent appointment of William Hutton, as a member of the city council, to fill a vacancy left by Patterson, who was elected mayor in his own right last April. Hutton acts in the capacity of ex-officio on the Commission, until someone is named to replace him.

The Park council, on recommendation of City Manager Robert Stone, and Fire Chief William Grau, who was present at the meeting, agreed to pay the City of Detroit, $1,191.30, for standby fire service, which has been in effect since March 15, 1962.

City Comptroller Nunzio Ortisi informed the council that the payment is based on three cents per $1,000 assessed Wayne County Equalized Valuation on buildings in the Park, estimated at more than $39,000,000.

The other Pointes, it was disclosed, also have standby service with Detroit, whereby annual payments are based on county equalized valuation of property, plus a fixed fee charged for each piece of equipment dispatched to fires in extreme emergencies.

Included in Budget
Ortisi told the council that the annual fee to be paid to Detroit has been budgeted for the 1965-66 fiscal year, which begins July 1.

Also at the recommendation of the city manager and city comptroller, the Park council authorized payment of $1,715.40 to Wayne County, for the preparation of the city's tax bills, and so on, for the 1964-65 fiscal year.

Driving west on Chalfonte avenue at an undetermined speed, Lawrence Raymond Beausoleil, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Beausoleil, of Lakeland avenue, struck a tree west of Fisher road. There were no witnesses to the accident which took place at 2:45 a.m. Thursday, June 24.

Police theorized that Beausoleil became ill and lost control of the vehicle.

He was admitted to the emergency room of Bon Secours hospital in an unconscious state, and required surgery of the leg.

Hospital officials reported him to be progressing well.

Woods Boat Owner Drowned in Lake In Fall Overboard

Fred Krause Disappears After Topping Off Craft Into Rough Waters of Lake St. Clair; Body Recovered At Foot of 12th Street, Detroit

A 40-year-old Woods resident was lost overboard in the choppy waters of Lake St. Clair on Saturday, June 25, and was drowned, according to a report given to Farms police in a relayed message from the St. Clair Shores based Coast Guard.

Coast Guard authorities first dispatched a message of the tragedy to Shores police, who in turn notified Farms police.

Feared lost is Fred Krause of 1583 Bournmouth, who was standing aft on his Chris-Craft, 25-foot cruiser, when he fell overboard, one-quarter to one-half mile off the shore of the Farms Municipal Park.

Misses Tossed Line
Richard McCausland of 4717 Bedford, Detroit, who was at the helm of the boat, tossed a line to Krause, after stopping the boat, but Krause failed to grab it, according to a report made to authorities. It was 1:30 a.m., and the wind was strong and the waters choppy, the report disclosed.

McCausland said that it was too dark to see, and he shouted to Krause to find out if he was all right. Krause answered in the affirmative.

McCausland said that he turned the boat about to get close to Krause to haul him aboard, but Krause had disappeared.

Also aboard the craft were Krause's wife, Florence, and McCausland's wife, Patricia. All three said they shouted for about 10 minutes, but received no answer from the missing man. Distraught, the trio pulled into the harbor of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, and made a report of the tragedy.

The two women were below in the cruiser's cabin, when Mrs. Krause's husband fell overboard.

Steam Roller Falls Off Ramp

A tandem steam roller landed on its side as it was being backed off a truck in front of 109 Moross road, on Tuesday, June 22, throwing the driver to the pavement.

The driver, Nickala Hageson, 34, of Warren, Mich., was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Mrs. Alice C. Face of 107 Moran, who witnessed the accident. Hageson was treated for cuts about the head and face. X-rays showed no broken bones.

Gasoline firemen washed down the tanker that leaked from the toppled roller, and Farms police took care of traffic until the roller was righted with a heavy crane. The equipment is owned by the Souter Construction company, which was doing construction on Moran.

Police said that Hageson was backing the roller from the truck, when it swerved slightly and slid off the ramp, and onto its side. The roller was not damaged, and Hageson was the only one injured.

Kiwanis Club to Present Fireworks Show Monday

The Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe, incorporated, will hold its 27th annual Fireworks Display on Monday, July 5, at 9 p.m., at the Parcell's Junior High School grounds, according to Roy D. Wetling, club president.

Wetling said that because many citizens are expected to be out of town over the long July 4 weekend, the fireworks display has been postponed from Sunday night to Monday night, so that the maximum number of people can enjoy the show.

"Approximately 50,000, inside and outside the school grounds watched the display last year, and at least that number are expected to view the show on Monday," he added.

ROBERT F. WEBER, school trustee since 1954, attended his last meeting as a member of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Monday night. Mr. Weber, of 992 Lake Shore was not a candidate for a trusteeship in the June election.

Mr. Weber was presented with a citation for his services by his fellow trustees of the Board of Education.

"Because you served our boys and girls—hence, our community—through 11 challenging years as member and officer of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in its continuing quest for quality, and in so doing demonstrated intelligence, integrity, humor, dignity and courage; and because you exercised leadership as president in 1956-57 and again from 1959-60 through 1962-63 and as treasurer in 1955-56 and in 1957-58; and because you participated in the planning of the new high school and in both the planning and construction of Ferry Elementary, Barnes Elementary, the High School Auditorium, the High School Library, Brownell Junior High School, numerous other additions and improvements; and because you also devoted time to many church, civic, and service activities; and because we, your colleagues, would praise you publicly and laud you privately; we therefore present with respect and affection this Citation for Excellence in School Boardmanship."

It was signed by Edward J. Pongracz, president; Frank H. Parcells, M.D., vice-president; Alice Mary Hykes, secretary; Russell H. Peebles, treasurer; Barbara R. Thompson, trustee; and Robert K. Whiteley, M.D., trustee raise.

In his remarks of response, Mr. Weber said, "I am overwhelmed by this tribute to me tonight. Let me say that over the past 11 years it has been a great privilege and honor to serve with the distinguished (Continued on Page 2)

Big Weekend Offers Wide Choice Range

Public Ceremonies and Private Entertainment Vie for Attention; Ring Those Bells

Grosse Pointe's 26 churches will hopefully be among those in every city, town, village, and county across the State of Michigan which will ring their bells for four minutes on July Fourth. Governor Romney has proclaimed the Fourth as Let Freedom Ring Day, and has urged every citizen to organize and participate in a statewide "ringing of the bells" at exactly 1 p.m.

The Governor has personally appointed the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs in the state responsible for the ringing. However, all churches, ministers and interested groups are encouraged to participate.

Begun in 1963, the bell ringing idea was the product of two Connecticut citizens who bewailed the fact that Independence Day was becoming more of a summer holiday than a reminder of our heritage of freedom laid down in the Declaration of 1776.

Good Weather Predicted
Weather Bureau predictions for the weekend are locally favorable, with expectations of high humidity and high temperatures ranging from 75 to 80 degrees. Skies should be clear through Saturday, with 1 to 10-inch rain forecast for Sunday and Monday.

Open to all Pointe residents, the International Freedom Festival events will be sponsored jointly by Detroit and Windsor.

On Thursday, plans call for a Junior Champ Track and Field Meet in Cobo Arena sponsored by the Detroit Junior Chamber of Commerce. About 2,500 boys and girls from 9 to 18 will compete at the new indoor track. That evening, for those who enjoy good symphony music, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, with Valter Poole conducting, will present another "Music Under the Stars" concert at the State Fairgrounds Band Shell.

Friday, June 25, and returned to home port at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 27.
They rented two 37-foot houseboats for a cruise through the intriguing snys and bays of St. Clair Flats, in Lake St. Clair. The cruise went without a hitch, except both boats ran out of gas.

It was not disclosed who was the skipper, or crew member of either boat, but VerCruyse revealed that one of the houseboats ran out of gas in the middle of Mitchell Bay, and the crew of the other craft churned up the North Channel, and a short distance away from Harpers Island, they too, ran out of gas, and were forced to anchor in the channel, illegally blocking ship lanes, but they had no alternative.

The crew of the first houseboat waved and shouted to passing boats, hoping to attract attention and be rescued, but those on passing cruisers and sloops, waved back and sailed by, apparently thinking the houseboat crew was a friendly bunch of boys.

A passing cruiser owner passed the second houseboat in the North Channel, and after discovering the plight of the crew, notified the Coast Guard at Harpers Island. A CG cutter was dispatched with gas for the second houseboat, then to the first houseboat in Mitchell Bay.

The FYC had a temporary setback prior to the cruise, when on April 25, they had to stop a money raising project to accumulate funds to offset the expense of the cruise.

The members were selling raffle tickets, like other organizations, with most of the tickets purchased by the members themselves. The ticket sales, it was pointed out, were in no way connected with the Ruskie Bar.

On the April date, two men entered the bar, and one asked to buy a ticket. VerCruyse said, A ticket was sold to the man, who immediately identified himself and his companion as agents of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission. A basket of "goodies" and two books of tickets were confiscated as evidence, the bar owner said.

VerCruyse was given a violation ticket, and charged with having gambling paraphernalia on the premises. The charge was sustained by the LCC, at a hearing, and VerCruyse was fined $100, with the alternative of having his license suspended for 20 days, if the fine is not paid by July 19.

VerCruyse did not disclose whether he will appeal the LCC decision, but did say that now he will not allow anyone to sell any kind of tickets in his establishment, whether raffle, or not.

He said FYC members will not carry any tickets of chance on their persons, if they plan on coming into home port, even if the tickets are for raising funds for churches or charitable organizations.

Fugawee Yacht Club commodore is Richard L. Barnett of 475 Saddle lane; vice commodore, James Klem of St. Clair Shores; and treasurer, VerCruyse.

Early Tuesday morning, June 28, the Detroit Police Harbor-master Division at Belle Isle, recovered Krause's body at the foot of Twelfth Street, Detroit.

citizens whom the school district has elected to their school board of education. We have one past member here tonight, Franklin Dougherty, who shows the continuing interest of Board members in our great school system.

"I want to pay a tribute to this particular Board for the outstanding record it has made in working for the boys and girls of the district and I also want to thank the members of the professional staff for the cooperation they have given over the years.

"I think that during my tenure on the Board, and even before, much foresight has been shown for the welfare of boys and girls in this community. They are prepared to lead the world toward development of freedom and toward living together in some sort of peace. I would challenge those who are coming on this Board to continue the sort of leadership that will keep Grosse Pointe in the forefront educationally. This means hiring the finest of staff and continued interest in educational improvement. You realize that education is going to be responsible for the future development of this world. I am sure that with continued interest we can furnish the world the kind of leadership we all deeply need.

"I am sorry to have had to make this decision not to run, but I have a brother who has retired from the business which now needs considerable more of my time. Also I have some other commitments, and I have said when my children were through school I would look to other people to serve. It is an opportunity for service like no other, and I know all of you who will run in the future will think only of the best interest of our community. To all of you, I say a big thank you and if there is anything in the future I can do to help the superintendent or members of the Board I want to do so. My heart is always with boys and girls and the schools that serve them: It has been a great honor to serve."

Resolutions to reform come from those who've been elected.

Concluding the Freedom Festival activities will be a YWCA family theater group presentation of Hans Christian Andersen's "Red Shoes."

The main event scheduled in the Pointe is the Kiwanis Club's annual fireworks display to be held at 9 p.m. Monday at Parcell's School Field. There will be no charge and the public is invited.

Farms Has First Pool
This is the first holiday that the new Farms pool will be in use. Although no special activities are planned for the weekend, park officials expect more than 4,000 residents each day to use picnicking, boating, and swimming facilities. More than 3,200 people passed through the turnstiles last Monday, breaking Sunday records of previous years.

On to the Woods, which anticipates 14,000 sun-worshippers on Sunday, and 10,000 more on Monday. In addition to boating, swimming, and picnicking, they will be able to play tennis and shuffleboard. Because of the massive crowds expected, there are no specific events scheduled.

Officially, nothing is happening in the Shores.

City pool director Thomas Gauerke foresees a sizeable crowd Sunday exceeding 3,000 residents. A little over 2,000 people is the highest attendance for any one day yet this year. Because of the numbers expected and the size of the park, only picnicking and swimming opportunities will be had.

Fireworks in Park
The Park is offering the only special happenings over the holiday. A fireworks display is scheduled at dark Sunday night with 10-12,000 viewers planned on. In case of inclement weather, the fireworks will be rescheduled for Monday night. Ordinarily, Monday is pool cleaning day, but due to the three-day week-end, swimming facilities will be available for the entire holiday.

As usual, there will be literally thousands of backyard barbecues and family reunions throughout the holiday. With a three-day holiday to work on, it will be difficult to skip the discharge of obligations as far as home entertainment is concerned.

Many will be at their summer cottages, far and near, but more Pointers each year are finding this one of the greatest resort areas in the country. The golf courses will be jammed, the tennis courts busy from dawn till dusk, swimming pools, public, private and club properties, will be bubbling with guests and customers.

was allowed in the 1964-65 budget, for this service, and requested council permission to appropriate $615.40 from the Contingent Fund to make up the difference.

The council formally approved the appropriation, although there were unfavorable comments from the council members, who complained that the county was charging too much for this service. The 1963-64 bill from the county, it was said, was $1,315.

Change Meeting Time
Before calling an adjournment to the meeting, the council agreed to hold its meetings in September and October, at 7:30 p.m. rather than at the customary time of 5 p.m., to give residents an opportunity to find out what is going on. The council meets every second and fourth Monday of each month.

It was pointed out the switch of the meeting time had been made on previous occasions and citizens failed to show up. The September-October meeting time will be on a trial basis.

If, it was said, residents show no interest in the matters of their community by not attending the meetings during the two months, the council will again convene at the 5 p.m. time, at its first meeting in November.

The only time residents appear in force at any council meeting, it was said, is when a public hearing is called in matters that concern residents of a particular neighborhood.

why settle for 4% interest and let it go at that?

Most financial institutions in Detroit pay a 4% annual interest rate on savings. They also offer some other banking services. But at Bank of the Commonwealth you get 4% interest plus a complete range of banking services. This means you can do all of your banking at one place. Your interest is compounded and paid quarterly and deposits in by the tenth of the quarter earn from the first of the quarter. (This is a good thing to know right now because July begins a new quarter, and any savings deposits you make by the tenth of July will earn a 4% interest rate from the first of July.) At "The Commonwealth" you can also maintain a convenient low-cost personal checking account or an economical commercial checking account. You can keep a safe deposit box—bank by mail—buy Travelers Checks and government bonds. And when you want to borrow, you'll find "The Commonwealth" will make a special effort to get you the money you want quickly and easily. They'll even develop new ways just to help you if it's necessary, and it doesn't matter if you want the money for a big business enterprise or a summer vacation. You can't get all of these services at all financial institutions. So consolidate—do all of your banking at "The Commonwealth." Our 33 offices throughout the Detroit area are open from 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday through Thursday and until 6:00 P.M. on Friday.

Gets Five Days in Jail To Ponder His Problems

James Whitfield, 31, of 2188 Fairview, Detroit, arraigned before Judge Don Goodrow on Thursday, June 24, on a charge of being a disorderly person, did not know how to plead to the charge, and the judge entered a plea of innocent for him.

Whitfield, who has a long police record, dating back to 1950, was found guilty as charged and sentenced to pay a fine of $75, and to serve 90 days in the Wayne County Jail, and placed on probation for one year.

Judge Goodrow suspended the fine and the 90-day term, but ordered that Whitfield serve the first five days of the probation period in the County Jail.

Woods police said that Whitfield is awaiting trial in Oakland County Circuit Court on a charge of breaking and entering in the night time in Oak Park on April 18. He was shot and wounded by the owner of the house he invaded, and arrested by Oak Park police.

Oak Park police said that Whitfield broke into the house after dark. The house owner, who heard the noise as Whitfield broke into the house, grabbed his revolver and waited for the intruder.

Whitfield turned to run when he came face to face with the home owner, and was shot and captured.

On Wednesday, June 23, Patrolmen Jack Patterson and Theodore Hinz, received a radio dispatch to 1745 Littlestone, where an excited person's voice had claimed someone was trying to break into a home there. The officers found no such address.

Harper Woods Patrolmen Albert Markesino and David Zometsky, while passing 1795 Littlestone, stopped to assist a motorist, who had asked for help.

Patterson and Hinz, on hearing the message over the police radio to assist the Harper Woods officers, arrived and placed the driver, an 18-year-old Detroit youth under arrest.

An unknown person notified the policemen that there was another man at the rear of number 1795, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Burton, and the Harper Woods patrolmen went to the back of the house and arrested Whitfield and released him to the Woods policemen.

Whitfield and the Detroit youth were taken to the station and turned over to Det. Sgt. Allen Selby for questioning. Later, the young driver was released without charge. Whitfield, however, was detained on a charge of being a disorderly person.

The Woods officers said that

Freak Accident Injures Officer

Park Patrolman William Furtaw suffered two fractured fingers on Friday, June 25, when the door of his scout car slammed on his hand, as he stepped back from a car that was approaching too close.

According to information released by Police Lt. Gerard Kesteloot, the patrolman had stepped out of his cruiser to investigate a parked car at Mack avenue and Lakepointe.

As Furtaw stepped out of the police vehicle, he saw a motorist swerve from one lane to the one in which he was standing. The officer, his hand still on the door, stepped back because the moving car was too close, and his body slammed the scout car door on the ring and little fingers of his right hand.

Furtaw called the station on the police radio, and Patrolman Bobby McAllister was dispatched, and took Furtaw to Bon Secours Hospital, where X-rays showed that the policeman suffered contusions and minor fractures of both fingers.

Camera Club Holds Banquet

The twenty-sixth Annual Banquet and Salon of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club was held in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on the evening of June 19, with approximately 100 in attendance. Members gathered on the terrace where punch was served prior to the dinner indoors. The president, Howard Riley, welcomed guests. After the invocation, there followed an enjoyable dinner, a talk by Leonard Gordon, A.P.S.A., and the annual awards program.

Agnes Crow presented the award of Associate in the club to Lillian Luxon, Dorothy McDowell and Jack Petzoldt who had been nominated by the membership because of their loyal service to the club in various ways.

Mildred Riley, the Color Slide Director, stated that 56 color workers had entered 195 slides for the Salon. The slide entitled "Angkor Wat" took first place for Agnes Crow in her class and was also chosen as Slide of the Year.

Raymond Fagar reported for the entries in monochrome, in which Gil Leimbek's entry "Catching the Wind" was voted Print of the Year.

Raymond Hamilton, representing National Activities, announced as medal winners for their successful entries in national competitions: Betty La Rochelle for her success in color slides and Richard Fagar for his awards in monochrome.

Leonard Gordon, the guest speaker, is well known in the world of photography for his work in both color and monochrome. In his illustrated talk, entitled "Before Your Eyes", he emphasized the assortment of common objects and scenes which the successful photographer will not pass by, and which he will, with the use of different lenses, transform from ordinary shots into extraordinary ones.

5 Juvenile Car Thieves Nabbed

An alert Park police officer was responsible for the recovery of a car stolen in Detroit, and the arrest of five teenagers, seen in the car.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers revealed that Patrolman Ronald Peplowski, while on routine patrol on Mack avenue, at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, June 23, observed a 1965 Rambler, at Wayburn, with the five juveniles. He checked his stolen car list, and found that the car had been reported stolen a few hours earlier.

Peplowski called for assistance, and then took after the youngsters, who all saw the scout car bearing down on them. The driver stopped the car, and the teenagers, three boys and two girls, leaped out and started to flee on foot.

Patrolman Robert Cory arrived just as the teenagers jumped out of the stolen vehicle. He grabbed both girls, and Peplowski captured one of the boys. The other boys escaped. The boy and two girls identified themselves after which a call was made to Detroit authorities and a Detroit police crew was dispatched to Mack and Wayburn. The captured teenagers were released to them.

Chief Louwers said that Detroit police called, later, and disclosed that the boys who had escaped were identified by the boy and girls, and arrested at their homes.

Detroit authorities have filed charges against the five teenagers, Chief Louwers said he was told.

Farms Submits Building Report

The number of construction permits approved by the Farms Building Department from January 1 through May 31, of this year, is considerably less than the number issued for the same period last year, but the value of the 1965 construction is more than in 1964, according to a report received from John A. DeFoe, assistant city engineer.

The monthly report submitted to the Farms council on Monday, June 21, showed that during the first five months of 1965, the Building Department approved a total of 32 various type construction permits, valued at a total of $531,800.

By comparison, DeFoe's report disclosed, for the same period in 1964, a total of 57 permits, valued at a total of $530,350, were granted.

To date this year, one permit for nonassessable construction, for a building valued at $170,138, was okayed, whereas, no such type permit was applied for through May 31, of 1964.

From January 1 through May 31, 1964, eight permits for residential construction valued at a total of $361,000, were granted none for commercial buildings and 49 miscellaneous permits, for construction valued at a total of $169,350.

From January 1 through May 31, 1965, eight permits were approved for residences valued at a total of $430,000; one commercial building permit, valued at $45,000; and 23 miscellaneous permits, for construction valued at $56,800.

Last month, DeFoe's report showed, the Building Department approved three applications for permits for homes valued at a total of $145,000; no commercial permits; and nine permits for miscellaneous building, valued at a total of $21,800.

During May 1964, three home permits, valued at a total of $134,000, were okayed; no commercial permits; and 19 miscellaneous permits, for constructions valued at a total of $69,650.

The residential permits granted last month were for a $47,000 home at 26 Christine drive; a $53,000 home at Deming lane; and a $45,000 home at 298 Touraine road.

Since San Diego won both halves of the AAA season, they are the 1965 Grosse Pointe Farms Little League Baseball AAA CHAMPS. Congratulations to San Diego!

CLASS C
On Monday Rochester beat Richmond 10 to 5.

Tuesday saw Buffalo edge Columbus 3 to 2 behind the pitching of Thompson. Paul Gard hit a triple for Buffalo, while Coolidge had 2 for 3 for Columbus.

This was the end of the Class C season, except for a June 2 rainout game between Syracuse and Columbus, and an incomplete tie game June 19 between Rochester and Buffalo. This left the standings as follows:

Team	W	L
Rochester	9	5
Syracuse	9	5
Columbus	8	6
Buffalo	7	7
Miami	6	9
Richmond	4	11

Since the four top teams were the ones involved in the incomplete games and Buffalo having lost 7 could not possibly win the top spot, a meeting of Class C managers was called. At that meeting it was decided to have a a playoff among the 3 teams still in contention, namely Rochester, Syracuse, and Columbus for the championship. A flip of the coin gave Rochester the "Bye" and Syracuse the first of the playoff games.

This was one of the best, if not the best game, played in Class C this year. Columbus shut out Syracuse 2 to 0 with each pitcher allowing only 3 hits, all singles. Chuck Caulkins, with 14 strikeouts got the win, while Majester, the losing pitcher, struck out 12.

In the second playoff game Saturday, Rochester outscored Columbus 11 to 6 to win the playoffs and the Class C Championship. Thiede was winning pitcher, hit a double and 2 singles in 3 times at bat. His teammates, Higgins and Barrett, each hit a double and a single in 3 times at bat. Fowler hit a triple for Columbus.

Congratulations to Rochester, the 1965 CLASS C CHAMPIONS, of Grosse Pointe Farms Little League Baseball!

High flying Houston again won over both opponents. They beat Indianapolis 8-2. Bob Engelhart pitched the full game, and was the winning pitcher. Bob also had a great day at bat, hitting in two of Houston's runs. Shortstop Pat Fitzgerald had a perfect day at bat, and his teammates Kevin Palmer and Dave Kuntzler played a terrific game in the field. In their second game of the week, Houston fanned St. Paul 6-0. Chris Chamberlain pitched an excellent no-hit game for Houston.

The outstanding fielders for Houston were Kurt Bach, Pat Fitzgerald and Erik Erikson. Fourth place Dallas seems to have had a hard time winning last week. On Tuesday, Dallas and Denver tied 12-12. Later in the week, after eight more innings of play Dallas beat Denver 13-12. Andy Daul was the winning pitcher, and Tom Seifert played a terrific game at second base. Their Thursday game saw Dallas once again tied.

This time the opposing team was Omaha, this game has yet to be made up.

Minneapolis creamed Charleston 24-6. The three Charleston pitchers who tried hard for their team were Dave Treder, Sandy Smith and Larry Coals. Denver also ran by Charleston 17-7. Chris Richards was the winning pitcher. Four home runs were hit by Denver players: one by John Hayes; one by Ken Boerner and two by Frank DeLama. Brian Maddox stole six bases for the winners.

Collegiate League
The Collegiate League ended its season last week. All the boys played good ball, and the parent participation was excellent. Next year many of these Collegiate League boys will find themselves in the Minors for playing such good ball this year.

PARK LITTLE LEAGUE
By Dar Martin

The Indians retained first place in the American Division and the Cardinals regained their position as sole possessor of first place in the National Division in the Grosse Pointe Park Little League major last week.

The results through last Friday:

MAJOR LEAGUES
National Division

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cardinals	5	1	.833
Dodgers	4	2	.667
Giants	4	2	.667
Pirates	3	3	.500
Braves	1	5	.167
Red Legs	1	5	.167

The Cardinals regained their solitary hold on first place as they racked up two wins. The Pirates—who had shared the lead with the Cards in the second half of the season—slipped into third place after losing both of last week's games.

One of the Pirates' defeats came at the hands of the Cards. The game was a close affair, ending 7 to 6. Mike Getz re-dered the Cardinals a big helping hand at the plate with a home run and two singles. George Saad was the winning pitcher. Don Hammond and Marty Dulapa each received two hits for the Pirates.

Next Cardinal victims were the Red Legs who were on the losing end of a 7 to 4 contest. Despite this, Red Leg John Thomas scored two homers for the Red Legs. Winning pitcher was Tom Stack. Best batsman for the Cardinals was George Saad.

The Dodgers and Giants divided second place honors by winning two games apiece also.

The Dodgers first defeated the Braves, 9 to 6—using three pitchers. Greg Suon, Jim Bird and Tom Court. The Knight brothers—John and Win—each hit home runs for the Dodgers. Doug Prins got a homer for the Braves although the hottest hitter for his team, the Braves, was Chris Gauthier.

The Dodgers' second victory was a 12 to 4 bombardment of the Pirates. Hitting honors, however, went to Pirates Larry Meathe and Jim Moore who hit a homer each. Credit for the win went to pitcher Tom DuFour.

The Giants first paled the Red Legs, 6 to 4, in still another home run happy affair. David Canenza and Ed Michael got homers for the winners, and John Thomas got one for the Red Legs. Fielding honors went to the Giants who had two successful double plays in both the first and second innings.

Steve Katsoros added another win to his pitching record as the Giants dismantled the Braves, 5 to 2. Steve Katsoros also won the hitting laurels for the victors with two doubles. Doug Prins duplicated the deed for the Braves.

The Indians kept their perfect record for the second half of the season unsullied last week with wins over the White Sox (first half champs) and the Yankees.

The Indians' victory over the second-placed White Sox was threatened in the top of the 6th inning when Gary Verkeyn hit a homer. Relief pitcher Rick Mahon struck out the next two batters, however, to save the game—4 to 2. Brian Kingsley was recorded as winning pitcher. Bill Eppinga got two doubles for the White Sox.

Brian Kingsley was again the winning pitcher in the Indians' 13 to 3 triumph over the Yankees. Indian Paul Kokowicz hit the single homer of the game. Teammate Bill Eppinga tallied two doubles and a single.

The White Sox fought a tight contest with the Orioles with the White Sox finally emerging on the high side of the 6 to 5 score. Tom Anton (relieved in the 6th by winning pitcher Gary Verkeyn) struck out eight batters in his debut as a pitcher. Dave Kennel and Mark Smaha hit home runs for the Orioles.

The Senators took a firm grip on third place in the standings with two wins.

Senator Pete Berdayes hit a trio of homers to pace his team to a 12 to 8 conquest of the Yankees. Jim Bolton also hit a home run for the Yankees. Winning pitcher was Bill Hemovich.

Pete Berdayes was again the hero of the day in the Senators' 13 to 3 defeat of the Athletics. This time, Pete Berdayes won the Oscar for fielding honors as he made a splendid one-handed catch of a hard hit by Bob Hummel in center field. Winning pitcher Doug Graham led the hit parade with three doubles and a single.

The score—13 to 3—was identical when the Athletics met the Orioles; again, the Athletics were on the losing end. The two starring Marks of the Orioles—Hafer and Smaha—added home runs to their hitting records. Winning pitcher was Dan Ireland.

Northwestern	2	0	1.000
Air Force	1	1	.500
Illinois	0	2	.000
Indiana	0	2	.000
Navy	0	2	.000

Three teams—Iowa, Minnesota and Northwestern—shared first place in the National Division of the minors as the third and final round of the season began.

Iowa—champions of the first and second rounds—is still the only undefeated team in the Grosse Pointe Park Little League. It first defeated Illinois, 15 to 4, with Tom Von Lokern on the mound. The winning pitcher, John Marshall and Bill Tocco each got 3 hits for Iowa. Jim Poole got a double for Illinois.

Iowa next converted a mere 3 hits (plus 7 walks) into a 7 to 3 victory over Navy. Don Briggs was winning pitcher as Tom Von Lokern hit a triple and a single for the victors.

Northwestern took a chunk of first place with two wins as well. They first turned back Indiana, 8 to 2. Chip Gauthier pitched a 1-hitter until the last inning when Indiana got 2 hits. Chip Gauthier also hit a double which was stretched into a home run on an error. Bruce Kosaltz hit a home run for Indiana which was ruled invalid because he failed to touch third.

Northwestern's game with Illinois was a tighter affair ending in a 9 to 5 triumph for the former team. Chip Gauthier hit a home run for Northwestern as Bill Speer got the nod for his work on the mound. T. Waddell also a full-circuit clout for Illinois.

Minnesota won a share of the top slot with 2 victories last week as well.

A closely-fought game with Air Force ended in a 6 to 5 victory for Minnesota. George Koveiter got a triple for Minnesota as did Brad Purcell for Air Force.

Almost perfect pitching by Pete Rodin brought Minnesota a 13 to 9 win over Indiana. Indiana put up a real fight in the 5th and 6th innings to improve the then 12 to 3 score, but Northwestern's lead could not be overcome.

Air Force played a split bill with a 5 to 2 defeat of Navy to offset its loss to Minnesota. Brad Purcell was both winning pitcher and hottest hitter. Jim Addisca—with 2 singles and a double—was Navy's best batsman.

Two services teams—Army and the Marines—lead the American Division of the minors as the third of three rounds got underway.

Tom Wheatley was winning pitcher as teammate, M. Bodeau got 2 of the Marines 6 hits in its battle with Michigan, leader in the first two rounds. Alex DeClercq got 3 hits in 3 trips to the plate for losing Michigan as his twin, Bob, hit a homer. Final score: Marine, 7; Michigan, 4.

Two home runs by M. Bodeau and another by teammate Tim Finan helped the Marines edge Purdue, 7 to 6. John Wruble was the winning pitcher. Bill Carparotta and John Maurer got 2 hits each for Purdue.

Army matched the Marines' performance with 2 victories: a 17 to 5 rout of Wisconsin and a 10 to 5 defeat of Michigan State.

Paul Ciaramitaro's work on the mound in the game with Wisconsin equalled his 4 hits at the plate.

Paul Ciaramitaro—with teammates Mark Doyle and George Maloo—got 2 hits apiece in the Michigan State contest. Tom Couger was the winning pitcher. Dave Schrage and Joe Smon were credited with a trio of hits for Michigan State.

Michigan recovered from its defeat at the hands of the Marines to set back Ohio State, 7 to 5. Steve Pemberton got credit for the win as teammate Ed Staff tallied a homer and Ken Caramagno and Brad Vercountere accounted for 4 of the team's 7 hits. Tom Connel was number one man at the plate for Ohio State.

It was Brad Vercountere's turn for the credit for his work on the mound when Michigan defeated Purdue, 13 to 9. Again, Ken Caramagno was the hot hitter of the day.

Ohio State also balanced a defeat with 2 victories. Michigan State was its first foe. Mark Herrace was the winning pitcher and top hitter.

Norab Madison took pitching honors for Ohio State, and John Dewey took hitting honors for Wisconsin in a contest which ended in a 5 to 3 Ohio State win.

Shores Cyclist Hurt in Accident

Murray Gillis, 10, son of Judge and Mrs. John H. Gillis of 75 Vernier road, is considered a lucky boy by his parents.

On Sunday, June 27, young Gillis lost control of his bicycle, in front of St. Paul's Catholic Church, and wheeled into the path of an oncoming car.

The boy was knocked to the pavement by the car. He suffered abrasions, bruises and bumps about the body, and was treated at Bon Secours Hospital, where he was taken by Farms police.

The driver of the automobile, Charles M. LeBeau, 20, of 22701 Nine Mile road, St. Clair Shores, said that young Gillis was going west on Lake Shore, and swerved his bike to pass a car parked in front of the church. In swerving, the boy lost control and wheeled into the path of his car.

LeBeau, supported by a witness to the accident, said that the boy came into the path of his vehicle so suddenly he could not stop in time to avoid hitting him.

Judge Gillis said that his son was fortunate in that he was not more seriously hurt, or even killed.

There was no damage to LeBeau's auto, but police estimated damage to the boy's bike at about $30.

It was a real good "weather-week" for baseball. Wednesday's rain simply moved the Kerby game to the High School in case you, like us, missed it completely. Monday night saw the TIGERS taken by the slow-starting, but now fast-moving WHITE SOX 12 to 8. New Sox player Tom Spindler helped Danny Sutherland become a winning pitcher as Tom got 4 hits for 5. Losing pitcher was John Fralich.

Stu McMillan's TIGERS were in there, as always, fighting, and nearly came to the top, but not quite. At the other diamond it was the BRAVES ("still fighting") over the GIANTS 4 to 3. Curt Mumaw was named losing pitcher and Bobby Hayes was the winning pitcher for the BRAVES.

On Tuesday the INDIANS took the RED SOX 9 to 2 under excellent pitching by Doug Dzuiba. Phil Dara was named the losing pitcher. At the Neighborhood Club, the new scoreboard showed the DODGERS 7 and the PHILLIES 0. Ed Devine's "Gary's" took care of things as Gary Haberkorn helped with a HR. Fellow player Gary Richardson became winning pitcher. Richardson, not to be outdone, helped his own cause with 4 hits.

Wednesday found those TIGERS bouncing right back 12 to 3 over the YANKS. George Hodges was named winning pitcher, helped by two hits by Tommy Wilson and two hits also by Dave Beaufait. Mike Ferrell was named the losing pitcher. At the other diamond Bruce Hohlfeldt pitched the CARDS to a 11 to 2 win over the BRAVES. Fifteen strikeouts and 9 runs in the 5th inning did the trick. Pat Worrell was the losing pitcher.

Thursday saw the WHITE SOX under Manager Jack Gierman again move up with a thriller taken by the RED SOX 13 to 12 over the RED SOX. Bob Ritter was the winning and Mike Corbett the losing pitcher. At the opposing diamond we hear tell the PHILLIES blew a 3 to 1 lead and lost to the GIANTS 4 to 3. Wally Marante was the winning pitcher and "Beetle" Bill Bailey the losing pitcher.

Friday those INDIANS gave their 15-member-strong, parental cheering section a mild heart attack as they took the TIGERS 9 to 8 in a real cliff-hanger. From the very first inning things were see-saw back and forth. Byron Stuck was named winning pitcher after getting himself out of about 5 good holes. In the 7th his single aided by a fielder's choice brought in the tying and the winning runs. INDIAN catcher Ben Hubbard had a beaut of a triple and brought in one and Doug Dzuiba had a triple bringing in 3 that he preceded with a double.

The TIGERS weren't playing dead" by any means under losing pitcher Bill Bockstanz. Bill got a triple and brought in 2. Seth Bidwell helped with a HR and Gary Meyer and Tom Wilson had good solid triples. The game could have gone either way for sure. At the other diamond it was the DODGERS, under Rick Scavarada, 10, to the BRAVES' 6, under Dick Roth.

Saturday was full too with two games. In the Kerby game the WHITE SOX made it three wins in a row to take the YANKS 6 to 5. Tom Spindler was winning pitcher and Bill Noecker the loser. At the other diamond the GIANTS took the CARDS 11 to 6. Losing pitcher was Gerry LeDuc and Kim Smith was the winner, aided by home runs by Bill Cox, Larry Schmidt and Bill Roubie. Your writer has mentioned this before and he'll no doubt mention it again. How can 150 boys have so few parents who are interested in seeing "their boy" perform? At first we thought it was the cool May weather . . . but the past two weeks just settled that thought. It can't be dinner as the games go from 5:45 p.m. to about 8 p.m. About the only conclusion we can draw is almost mass apathy on the part of the parents. Come on parents, let's make the rest of the season a "bell-ringer" for attendance. Let's FILL THOSE STANDS.

WOODS-SHORES AUTOMOTIVE LEAGUE

By Don Blomquist

Automotive players are now entering the last half of the final games of the '65 season and it's really a close race. Shalla isn't finding this half quite as easy as the first half. Three teams are tied for first while the other three are in a tie for second place. Here are the standings:

W	L
Causley Pontiac	3
Shalla Chevrolet	3
Grosse Pte. Rambler	3
O'Brien Ford	2
Green Chrysler Plym.	2
Richard Buick	2

On Monday, June 21, Shalla whipped Green by a score of 11 to 6. Spike O'Brien pitched a terrific game as he recorded 15 strikeouts. Spike also went two for three at the plate. Chris Malafouris continued his great batting as he went 3 for 4 while Rick Shalla went 2 for 4. Dan Menzo was the losing pitcher, but he tried hard at the plate as he hit a ground rule double. Greg Ulmer also hit well as he went two for four at the plate for Green.

The up and coming Causley team ran all over O'Brien as they defeated them 10 to 4. Gary Pagato pitched a no-hitter for four innings. He was then taken out to be saved for the Thursday game and Tony Girardi came in and pitched like a pro. Mark Hodgeman rapped in three singles while pitcher Pagato hit a single and two triples. Mile Leu got a double and drove two runs in while Bob David hit a single and a double. Tony Girardi hit a single and came home on a double and Don Blomquist hit a double.

Richard took Rambler by a score of 5 to 2. The managers were short on talk so this report will be the same. Brian Berlenback was the winning pitcher while Rambler's Mark Ranney pitched a two hitter and lost.

Wednesday, June 23, was one of those rainy, in fact cloudy days so the games were canceled and played off on Saturday. Here's what happened.

Richard beat Shalla 5 to 4. Gary Hutchinson was the winning pitcher. The highlight of this game was a suicide squeeze executed by Jim Montmonecy as he bunted in Jim Shelton for the winning run in the eighth inning. Chris Malafouris pitched a great game, but lost even though he racked up 14 strikeouts. Chris also hit 2 for 4 while Rick Shalla went 2 for 4 for Shalla.

Causley and Rambler played a football game, the score was Causley 14 and Rambler 13. Mike Leu gets credit for the win, but Bob David came in and pitched 6 nice innings. It was really, 13-year-old Gary Causley with David's pitching and Larry Briske's two singles and a triple. This led drove in three runs. Blomquist also threw out a man at second in his relief role as a catcher.

Gary Pagato hit a double and two singles while Tim Unger a couple of singles. Mark Hodgeman knocked out a double and two singles. The highlight for Rambler was a tremendous homerun by Marc Ranney which drove in three runs. Marc also had a single. Gary Veitch hit a triple and two singles while Mike Boruta smashed a double and a single.

O'Brien took Green 8 to 3. Paul Shakotko was the winning pitcher. Ted Pfeiffer relieved him and did a good job. Pfeiffer also did some fine hitting as he smashed a double which drove in two runs. Paul Shakotko also went 2 for 3 at the plate. Talk about pitchers winning their own games. Mark Jorgenson made a very nice catch in left field which saved a run or two. Green's Tom Hermann went two for four while Ray Brown went two for three. Rick Burns was the losing pitcher.

On Thursday, June 24, Greg smothered Causley 9 to 1. Greg Ulmer hit a double and a single, Dan Menzo was the winning pitcher. Gary Pagato was the hitter for Causley with two nice doubles.

Rambler knocked off Shalla 6 to 1. Marc Ranney and Jeff Matheus both pitched great for Rambler. The bases were loaded against Ranney in the sixth inning with one out. He struck out the next two batters. Nice relief Marc.

Lochmoor Tank Team Winner

By Mike Granger

Television, which covers just about everything these days, will be on hand this afternoon when Lochmoor, a winner in their opener, travel to the Detroit Boat Club. According to Bill Beckenhauer, Lochmoor sports committee chairman, WKBD, channel 50, will tape this meet for showing next Wednesday.

In Lochmoor's 165-144 victory over Red Run, Lochmoor grabbed 12 individual first-place ribbons, distributed among nine different swimmers, and won six of eight relays.

The meet was much closer than the final score indicates. At the mid-point, Red Run held a slim five point lead. The margin quickly disappeared when Lochmoor's little 9-10 medley relay pulled off successive clutch wins. They never again fell behind, but with just four events remaining, less than five points separated the two clubs.

Lochmoor had three swimmers who won two individual events: Cheryl Gardner in the freestyle and the butterfly; Kitty Wilkins and Jim Godin in the backstroke and free.

In addition to their individual conquests, the trio were in victorious relays. Cheryl, in her last season of competitive swimming, anchored both the girls' freestyle, and a record breaking medley relay. Kitty Wilkins, 14, was in the same freestyle relay with Cheryl. Godin, 13, was entered in the final boys' relay.

Of Lochmoor's 165 points, 55 points were tallied by female swimmers, ages 12 and under. Lisa Beckenhauer, who can't even recall the last time she was beaten in Inter-Club competition, won her 11-12 freestyle race, plus swimming in three relays. Little Lisa swam breaststroke in both the 12 and under relay, and the record breaking medley relay, plus a freestyle leg in the freestyle relay.

Breastroker Laurie Simon, 12, swam her specialty in the medley relays as Lisa, and won the 11-12 backstroke race. Tommy Heholt, upset in an earlier backstroke event, came back strong to win his favorite race, the 50-freestyle. In keeping with family tradition, Tommy's little sister, 7-year-old Sussy Heholt, huffed and puffed her way to a 25-meter freestyle victory.

Two 10-year-olds, Carolyn Wood and D. J. Godin, notched back-to-back victories in the 50 meter backstroke. Also, Carolyn swam backstroke in the girls 9-10 medley relay, while Godin turned in a length butlerly for his relay.

The top swimmer of the afternoon was Read McCarthy of Red Run. McCarthy, 16, easily won all three individual races, and swam on one of two relays which his team won.

Following the meet, Red Run Coach Ed Weckwert, and Lochmoor's Roy Polliot both agreed that the performances turned in by their respective teams were good, but both teams still have some way to go to catch front-running Detroit Yacht Club.

Wave Lengths

By Anne Boynton

Because we hate being charged with having missed the boat, we are attempting to start up a sailing column again this summer. With all the lakefront activities of the clubs and parks in the area, there should be plenty of news for all Pointe boat enthusiasts.

As we are shorthanded, we are sending out an S.O.S. for boating news, especially from the "luffers and lubbers" who helped us out last summer. Material should be submitted to the News office or phoned in a week before publication.

Though two regattas of the 1965 season have already taken place, those of the Detroit Yacht Club and the Detroit Boat Club, there are still three more to come. Here is the schedule:

Little Club — July 3.
Grosse Pointe Yacht Club — July 10.
Grosse Pointe Sail Club — July 17.

Then, of course will be the annual Mackinac Race, scheduled to begin July 24.

GPYC Conquered In Swim Meet

When a casual observer to a Grosse Pointe Yacht Club morning workout noticed 30 youngsters between the ages of 7 and 12, he commented to newly-hired coach, John Klang, "There is surely a lot of interest among these kids." "It's a start," responded Klang, thinking ahead two or three years.

The road to success is paved with frustrations, disappointments, and defeats, and no one realizes these facts more than Coach Klang. Defeat became a reality to Klang when the Detroit Yacht Club left the Grosse Pointe swimmers at the starting block, 211-105.

Of the 20 individual events, the G.P.Y.C. swimmers captured just two first place ribbons: Juanita Storms won the 9-10 50-meter freestyle race, and 14-year-old Maureen Burke was victorious in her backstroke event.

In the boys 13-14 age-group, perennial Grosse Pointe winner Bruce Black was upset by two strong D.Y.C. swimmers, John Mathews and Ron Richards. Mathews beat Black to the wall in the backstroke race, while Richards edged him in the 50 freestyle. Richards was timed at 28.2; Black with 28.3 clocking. It has been a long time since anyone beat Black, but he will have a chance to avenge this loss August 8, the date for this year's finals.

Included in the D.Y.C.'s 18 individual triumphs were 13 first-second finishes. Of these slams, five were at the expense of the seasoned 15-16 age group. Two 16-year-old veterans, Sue Ann Stucky and Tom Mertz, were largely responsible for this age-group domination. Both swimmers won their 50-meter butterfly and freestyle races, and swam on winning relays.

The hard luck swimmer of the evening was Debbie Dodd. She finished second to Sue Stucky in both of Sue's events, and lost to Mickey Van in the backstroke race. Debbie, though, isn't worried about it. Smiling, she explained, "I still have next year to swim, and Sue won't be around." Debbie, at 15, still has next year to accumulate those first-place ribbons.

This evening, the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will travel to the Detroit Golf Club, where John Klang coached for two years.

7:15 p.m. off the Grosse Pointe dock. The club is handicapping all boats according to the "one of a kind rating" developed by Robert Bavier, Jr. Boats not of a common one design are asked to hail the committee boat before the start if they are not registered.

The GPSC will award 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes at the end of the season.

Two Paid Honor At Boys' State

Two Grosse Pointe High School delegates have been elected to office at The American Legion's 28th Wolverine Boys' State. Bruce Kefgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Kefgen, of Wicks Lane, was elected a State Representative. Elected a City Treasurer, was Bob Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lynch, of Roslyn Road.

Bruce and Bob were elected from the 1250 teenagers from all parts of the state of Michigan who are participating in the annual "51st State" which is designed to instruct and educate the boys in the principles and values of a democratic and constitutional form of government.

The two simulated political parties, Federalist and Nationalist, loudly caucused in direct imitation of national conventions at this "learn by doing" seminar in Democracy.

Youths selected to attend the one-week American Legion-sponsored conclave are chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship. The American Legion Wolverine Boys' State goes beyond politics to include glee performances, organization and operation of a newspaper, softball games, a swimming clinic, variety show and many other activities.

Michigan has the largest Boys' State program in the United States and enrollment has increased from 809 boys in 1938 to the present high of 1250. Registrations now total 25,000 boys who have participated in this unique "workshop in good citizenship training."

Governor George Romney, the American Legion State Commander Duane T. Gristock, and Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State University, addressed the Boys' State this year. They stressed Americanism, education, and personal integrity for the good of their community, the state, and the nation.

The Legion's world famous Zouaves Drill Team, of Jackson, Mich., performed for the 1250 youths who ended their eight days of training with a spectacular march to the Capitol Building in Lansing.

GPHS '56 Grads Plan Reunion

Members of the June, 1956 graduating class of Grosse Pointe High School are making plans for their 10-year reunion, to be held in the summer of 1966.

The first '56 reunion meeting is scheduled Wednesday evening, July 14, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Purpose of this meeting is to ascertain the degree of interest in the reunion, and to gather necessary information as to the whereabouts of class members.

All members of the class who reside locally are urged to attend this July meeting. Any member who cannot attend, but who has information concerning classmates, is asked to call Cindy Buell Reindel, Tuxedo 5-0286, or Joy Taylor Haires, MI 6-5258.

Books Selected For Children

Reading for Fun is the heading on two book lists prepared by the Grosse Pointe Public Library's Children's Department.

The reason for preparing lists of suggested books is to add to the summer enjoyment of all children. Vacations are a time for freedom and relaxation, when books may be freely chosen and savored.

On the back of the booklets is a list of the films to be shown in each library, for a nine week period. These have been chosen with various ages and interests in mind.

Thursday, June 24 is the first day of the program, at the Park Branch, 2 p.m. The same films will be shown on Friday, June 25, at the Woods Branch, 10 a.m., and at the Central Library.

'Sunset At The Zoo'

"Sunset at the Zoo" was unanimously acclaimed a colossal success by the more than 300 lucky persons who received invitations to attend the unique gathering last Thursday evening. So enthusiastic was the reaction of the party-goers that it seems a foregone conclusion that much new, and badly-needed support was recruited for Detroit's zoological park, one of the great ones in the world.

The fortunate guests couldn't have visited the zoo under more perfect conditions. The event was staged from 6 to 8, (after the closing hour), so they were the only ones on the spacious reservation excepting an exceptionally well-organized staff of officials and employees, and the devoted and dedicated members of the Zoo Commission. And the weather was ideal. Greeters at the gate directed cars to the parking area right at the loading station for the zoo's delightful diminutive railroad system. The little trains, (which have covered more than 20,000,000 miles since the first one was presented back in the 1920's by the Detroit News), hustled their joyful passengers to the end of the line, where they transferred to the tractor trains. These took them through a large section of the grounds on the way to the Holden House of Living Reptiles. This was the gathering point, and what better place to have a welcoming libation than in the finest snapper pit in existence?

Many clusters of balloons danced gaily in the breeze over the lawns and the atmosphere was completely festive. Suggestions of flower arrangements for the party had been indignantly rejected by the more astute members of the committee. "There are plenty of lovely flowers on the zoo grounds. This is a recall to childhood... and that mean balloons!"

Unquestioned highlight of the evening was the presence of Mr. Zoo himself, James S. Holden, who very recently celebrated his 90th birthday. The magnificent gifts of the Holdens to both the Detroit and Belle Isle zoos have brought joy to millions of all ages, added immeasurably to their education, and been major factors in the growth in stature of both of these zoological centers of learning and pleasure.

The tractor trains ran an uninterrupted schedule, taking the guests from the Holden Reptile House on a complete tour of all the exhibits the zoo offers. The train crews kept up a running commentary, identifying all the animals and birds, sometimes with much appreciated humor, and the captives themselves appeared grateful for the distinguished audience and even more grateful for the generous supplies of bread tossed to them from the trains.

This was a most delightful experience, shared with so many who had not visited a zoo for years, and with others who are not only zoo fans, but experts endowed with the gift to pass on their knowledge to others. Most of the guests were from The Pointe and the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, sections whose residents are not among the world's greatest zoo habitués. It didn't require too much imagination to read their minds. The expressions on their faces told they were having the time of their lives. Overheard conversations also revealed that in addition to their happiness at being transported back to childhood, they were aware and determined that this was something which must be preserved and developed for the enjoyment of all the generations to come.

The zoo gained a host of new supporters. We are sure the enthusiasm will spread as the ripples created by a stone tossed into a limpid lake. The word of mouth method of communication is a very potent weapon in the arsenal of propaganda. A lot of ecstatically garrulous people drove out of the zoo grounds Thursday evening. We are thankful to have been included among them. We hope it was the start of a wave of active support which will insure continued pleasure and enlightenment for millions of kids of all ages.

Her Idea Saves Hospital Money

An employee of Cottage Hospital has won a first-place award in a competition with 224 other entrants whose aggregate ideas are saving the 55 participating Michigan hospitals a documented $2.5-plus million.

Mrs. Rose Marie Schirmacher of 727 Newport, Detroit, a nurse aide in central supply at Cottage Hospital, captured the top honor for hospitals of 51-200 beds in the Seventh Search for New Hospital Achievements.

The event is co-sponsored by the Michigan Hospital Association (MHA) and Michigan Blue Cross.

Her certificate award and $500 prize were presented by William S. McNary of Detroit, president of Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross), and H. Allan Barth of Lansing, executive director of the MHA, June 25, during the association's 46th convention at Traverse City, Mich.

Mrs. Schirmacher's entry is a rack she designed for sterilizing surgical gloves in an autoclave. The metal device, built by the hospital's engineering staff, permits the processing of double the number of gloves in the same period of time. This improves efficiency through savings in personnel time and operation of the autoclave.

The rack is easily handled and stored and is inexpensive to construct. With her entry Mrs. Schirmacher submitted comparative time study and cost data on the old and new methods of handling the gloves. Construction drawings and specifications also were included.

A plaque commemorating Mrs. Schirmacher's achievement was presented to Cottage Hospital and accepted by Miss Carolyn M. Wicks, administrator. The 51 other winners and their respective hospitals also were recognized at the Blue Cross Awards luncheon.

The MHA will publish and distribute the 225 achievement entries to its 240 member hospitals so that they may benefit from the ideas. This incentive program is part of the hospital industry's attempt to hold the line on service charges in the face of rising costs of labor, supplies, equipment and construction.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

This year Detroit is proud to play host to the 84th annual American Library Association Conference at Cobo Hall from July 4-10. The Conference theme this year is "Libraries for a Great Society"—a provocative idea which seems to echo progress and all sorts of forging ahead. And term-wise, it is certainly in keeping with the times.

Sequentially, we must mention some preconference meetings. There is an American Library Trustee Association Workshop on July 3; another one from July 2-4 deals with the Art of Illustration in Children's Books (and held at Cranbrook). There is also a Library Buildings Institute covering the same period, and, interestingly enough, a Rare Books Institute on July 1 and 2, sponsored by the Rare Books Section of the Association of College and Research Libraries, and taking place both in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

The first General Session Session takes place on Sunday, July 4, when the Association will be officially welcomed by Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, with Edwin Castagna, president of ALA, presiding. A second General Session will be held later in the week (Friday, July 9), which will include award ceremonies and the installation of the incoming president.

To add a personal note, I shall be working at the registration, along with many other volunteers, on Sunday, July 4. This is a fine chance to see what is going on, meet old friends, make new ones, and get into the spirit of the whole thing. And so this will be my initiation. The following day, there are many meetings devoted to the Resources and Technical Services Division, and, this being my area of operations, I plan to spend considerable time attending these. This division deals with subjects such as cataloging and classification, copying methods and serials.

Another meeting and luncheon I look forward to is one on Wednesday, July 7. This one is of special interest since our own Director, Mr. Robert M. Orr, is Chairman of the Friends of Libraries Committee, Public Relations Section, Library Administrative Division, of the American Library Association. He tells us that Frank Slaughter will be the luncheon speaker. This should be extremely interesting as he is the well-known author of such novels as EAST SIDE GENERAL, A SAVAGE PLACE, and his most recent, THE PURPLE QUEST.

Other bright spots will include, for many, the Library School reunion dinners, various tours arranged for Wednesday afternoon, including suburban libraries, a visit to Ann Arbor, one to Canada, cultural and civic area of Detroit—and a very unique one, an Inner City tour to underline the community action against poverty.

The Children's Services Division will include business meetings, a conference emphasizing libraries in other countries, and the promotion of international understanding. The Tuesday highlight is the well-known Newbery-Caldecott-Wilder awards dinner. (In case you didn't know, the Newbery Medal went to Mia Wojciechowska Rodman for SHADOW OF A BULL, the Caldecott Medal to Beni Montresor for MAY I BRING A FRIEND?)

ALA has still other facets. There is a Junior College Libraries Section, a University Libraries Section (both under the Association of College and Research Libraries), an American Association of State Libraries, an American Association of Hospital and Institution Librarians, a Public Library Association, a Reference Services Division, a Young Adult Services Division—to mention a few.

A Program of Round Tables, also scheduled, lists such interests as an American Library History Round Table, and ones for Exhibits, International Relations, Junior Members and Library Service to the Blind. Under "Program of Committees," we find the Audio-visual group, Documentation, Membership and National Library Week. For Affiliated Organizations, we have a Music Library and a Theatre Library Association.

Something should be coming up, the first part of July, library-wise, to satisfy a diversity of interests and inclinations. There will be much hard work involved (especially for the Detroiters and suburbanites!) But also much fun, and challenging ideas to hear and absorb. Here is our chance to open our own individual professional windows on a much wider world, and to find out what other libraries are doing, saying and thinking. We hope that all who are interested will make a trip to Cobo Hall. It should be rewarding.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Fourth of July is almost here, and Grosse Pointe is moving into its midsummer mood.

Our town seems a different town in summer, lazy, relaxed, almost "resort" . . . but the advantages of city life are still available, still there to be enjoyed, periodically, all through the summer, by July and August stay-at-homes.

Of course, many people DO go away in summer. It's nice to spend weeks or weekends at cottages, traveling . . . and if you are young, it's wonderful to go away to camp.

Off To Bryn Afon

An enthusiastic group of 18 young Pointers boarded the Bryn Afon "special" Monday morning, under the official chaperonage of Miss Jean Finn, bound first for Chicago and a rendezvous with campers from all over the country, then north to Rhinelander, Wis.

After 46 years under the directorship of Miss Lotta B. Broadbridge, Camp Bryn Afon is celebrating its 47th season with Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradford Aarons at its helm.

Mrs. Aarons, the former Joan Hadley, claims she wears two hats: As chairman of the Liggett-Tomorrow Fund and director of Bryn Afon. But she delights in dividing her time between her "favorite school" and her "favorite camp."

Joanie Aarons intends to maintain all the well-established Bryn Afon traditions, and to add a new one—water skiing, as a regular sport. And Miss Broadbridge, now in Europe, will be back; she returns to her cabin on Lake Snowdon across from the camp site early this month.

Campers from The Pointe enjoying Bryn Afon this season are Kathleen Carroll, Jenny Dossin, Christine Conway, Katherine Dean, Maureen Cross, Lisa Finkenstaedt, Georgann Gardella, Jane Whitney, Barbara Howard, Amy and Susan Swantek, Susan Sorge, Julie Sibley, Julie Ingraham, Candace Lee, Lisa Moran, Mary Pat Shea and Daisy Sales.

Among local boys vacationing at Deerhorn, Bryn Afon's "brother camp," are Bruce Blain, Jamie and Peter Cioe, Chip Dickson and Jim Hirschfeld.

Emily Baker, Dean of Girls at Liggett, will spend the summer assisting the Aarons' at Bryn Afon. Counselors Kathy Barr and Maureen Moestra drove north together, stopping in Winnetka, Ill., to pick up fellow counselor Keena Dunn, formerly of Grosse Pointe.

Keena and Kathy shared honors recently at a brunch given by Keena's aunts, Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, Jr., and Mrs. David Gillis, and family friend Mrs. William D. Laurie, Jr.

Underwater Tea For Christina

Although no one was seen wearing an aqualung, guests went underwater for the Tuesday tea dance of Christina Newberry Darling. Blue-green fabric adorned the sailboat-studded pillars of the Great Hall of the Country Club for a sea-water effect, and the fireplaces were swathed in fishnet caught with jeweled sea horses.

Presented by her grandmother, Mrs. Phelps Newberry, of Cloverly road, Cindy wore a white pique dress, and held a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, gift of her father, Mrs. Newberry pinned a white orchid corsage to her blue and green silk print.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Darling, II, of Ithan, Pa., Cindy received guests with her grandmother before one of the fireplaces in the Great Hall.

Mrs. Darling wore a green silk gown with tiny sleeves and bolero top.

Serving as ushers were two of the deb's cousins, David Lord, and Thayer McMillan, and James N. Candler, Christopher Curran, Larry Gottfredson and Ned Skae.

Pat, Viki Bow At Joint Party

Double delight wound up this year's debutante season as Patricia Hefler, and her cousin, Viki, bowed together Wednesday at the Pierre Hefler home in Buckingham road.

Despite the lack of sunshine outside, the inside of the house was very summery with yellow and tangerine flowers all around.

Summery too, were Pat, in a creamy white crepe A-line dress, and Viki, in a turquoise and white linen frock.

Pat's mother, Mrs. Pierre Hefler, wore yellow while Mrs. Ben Hefler, Viki's mother, chose a print in varying shades of blue.

Pouring for the occasion were Pat's aunts, Mrs. John V. Moran and Mrs. Thomas W. Thompson; a cousin, Mrs. Hanley Dawson, Jr.; Viki's grandmother, Mrs. Edward Moinet; Mrs. Louis Dahling, Mrs. Frederick Schumann, Mrs. William J. Revoldt, Mrs. Irvin Long and Mrs. H. E. Paselk.

Miss Neipert and Mr. Perry are graduates of Michigan State University. They are planning an October 23 wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anthony Gratton Darlow will live in New York, where both will study at Columbia Law School, after a summer in Mexico.

They were married Friday afternoon, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

A reception at the East Jefferson avenue home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan, followed the ceremony.

The bride, the former Helen Julia Donovan, wore her mother's and grandmother's ivory brocaded satin and Belgian lace gown.

Her illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap, and she carried an arrangement of white roses and ivy.

Attendants, in floor length frocks of green chiffon, were matron of honor Mrs. Frank W. Donovan, Jr., of New York, and bridesmaids Jane Peirce, of Boston, Nancy Turner, of Birmingham, Susan Wilkinson, of Cambridge, Mass., Thirza Morrow, Suzanne Chichester, of Raleigh, N.C., and Mrs. David Siphon, of New York.

Susan Babich Bride Of Edmond Minihan

Candlelight Nuptial Mass Celebrated by the Reverend Hugh Uhrich for Susan Babich and Edmond Minihan Friday; They Will Live in Ann Arbor

An heirloom pin of her grandmother's, of sapphires and diamonds with delicate gold grill work, adorned the wedding dress of Susan Mary Babich, who was married to Edmond Patrick Minihan, of Ypsilanti, Friday.

The candlelight nuptial mass was celebrated by the Reverend Hugh Uhrich at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. William Babich, of Stanhope avenue, and the late Mr. Babich, wore a gown of Sata peau, with a Bishop cape of Chantilly lace. The skirt was controlled and swept into a Chapel train.

Her short triple tiered butterfly illusion veil was secured by a crown of seed pearls, and crystal. She carried a cascade bouquet of pastel spring flowers.

Matron of honor Mrs. Ken Collica, of Ann Arbor, and attendants Linda Babich, sister of the bride, and Dayle Hansen, wore floor length gowns of aqua peau de soie with Empire waists, scooped necklines and elbow length sleeves. White kid gloves and aqua and pearl head-pieces completed their ensembles. They held white stephanotis nosegays.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Patrick Minihan, of Hillsdale, asked Bruce Dwyer, of Ann Arbor, to be his best man. Ushers were Ken Collica, of Ann Arbor, Charles and Bill Minihan, brothers of the bridegroom, and Bill Babich, brother of the bride.

Also assisting were the flower girl, Carol Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon, and ring-bearer, Ricky Luckee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Luckee.

A champagne beige Chantilly lace suit with corolla brown accessories was the choice of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Minihan wore a pink crepe sheath with a lace bodice and deep pink accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchid corsages.

After the reception at the Hillcrest Country Club, the couple left for the Poconos and New York City. They will live in Ann Arbor, while Mr. Minihan completes his studies at the University of Michigan.

The bride, who is a registered nurse, and graduate of the Mercy School of Nursing, wore a traveling dress of aqua mohair with hip-length jacket, and black patent shoes.

Success and bad habits are very seldom on speaking terms.

Mrs. Edmond P. Minihan

At a double-ring ceremony at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, SUSAN MARY BABICH spoke her wedding vows Friday to Mr. Minihan, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edmond P. Minihan, of Hillsdale. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Babich, of Stanhope avenue, and the late Mr. Babich.

Mrs. William D. Barton, Jr.

LINDALEE LOCKE, daughter of the Kenneth P. Lockes, of Balfour road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Barton at an evening ceremony Saturday, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. He is the son of the senior Bartons, of Danville, Calif.

Barton-Locke Rites Celebrated Saturday

Bride Carries Heirloom Lace Handkerchief, Wears Gown of Silk Accented With Alencon Lace Pearls and Pearls

Lindalee Locke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Locke, of Balfour road, became the bride of William Dennis Barton, Jr., at a formal evening ceremony on Saturday, June 26, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The bride chose this marriage date because it is the wedding anniversary of her parents. They, too, exchanged vows in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The Reverend Ben Tallman officiated at the 8:30 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown, accented with applique of imported Alencon lace and seed pearls, fashioned with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, long, pointed sleeves trimmed in the lace and pearls, and a full Chapel train.

A Queen's crown of seed pearls and crystals held her bouffant veil. She carried an heirloom lace handkerchief, which has been carried only by brides in her family; she was the sixth generation bride to have carried the handkerchief.

Mrs. Paula Ricca was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Winifred Garner, Mary Lou Locke, Virginia Stanley and Moni Quinn. The bride's cousin, Ruth Nerlinger, of Chicago, and the bridegroom's sister, Ginger Barton, were junior bridesmaids.

The attendants wore floor length turquoise gowns with turquoise and white embroidered bodices and matching veiled rosette headpieces. The bride carried gardenias and lilies of the valley with ivy on her prayerbook, while the bridesmaids carried bouquets of turquoise flowers, matching their dresses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis Barton, of Danville, Calif., asked the bride's brother, Richard Pearce Locke, to act as best man.

In the usher corps were Storm Bradt, John Nerlinger, Paul Ricca and Bruce Elliott.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Locke wore a frock of champagne linen and lace, and matching accessories. Mrs. Barton chose an Empire gown of yellow chiffon. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchid corsages.

After a reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, the newlyweds left for Niagara Falls and the World's Fair. They will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

HOSPITAL RUN

City police took William Fisher, 15, of 394 Lakeland, to Bon Secours hospital June 17, with an injured left hand. He had been playing with firecrackers in the rear of 514 University, and one exploded in his hand.

Preview Music Festival Facility

More than 100 key members of the Rinehart S. Brights' Meadow Brook Music Festival season ticket committee were given a preview look recently at new additions to the grounds for this year's six-week concert series opening July 8-9-10 in the Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion at Oakland University.

After a luncheon in the campus Gold Room, the enthusiastic committee members were taken by bus to the Pavilion site to view building progress on Trumbull Terrace, a striking structure which will house food services, offices, the University's Scholar Shop and rest rooms. The building, costing nearly $100,000, was made possible by a gift from Mr. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull of Bloomfield Hills.

Committee members also tried out the Pavilion's new permanent seats being installed through a $50,000 grant from The Kresge Foundation.

Finding everything to their liking and encouraged by a report that more than 5,300 season tickets have been sold to date, the committees from more than 70 sections in the Metropolitan Detroit area pledged a season sell-out by opening night.

The season this year has been extended from four to six weeks of concerts featuring the full Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Sixteen Ehrling will return from Europe to conduct 15 of the 18 scheduled events with Robert Shaw, noted associate conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra, taking over the podium for the concerts of July 29-30-31.

The impressive list of soloists includes violinist Isaac Stern for the opening July 8-9-10; Shaw presenting a choral work July 29-30-31; Sylvi Lin, pianist, August 5-6-7; and Jerome Hines, bass, August 12-13-14.

Season tickets at $15 in the Pavilion and $5 for ground admission are available for six concerts with choice of evening at the Festival office, Oakland University, Rochester, Mich.

Fall Bride

Mr. and Mrs. George Georgeades, of Fisher road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, SYLVIA D. GEORGEADES, to Gary Miller Stuart, of Dearborn. Miss Georgeades attended Michigan State University. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Stuart, of Normal, Ill., is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard.

An October wedding is planned.

Festival Show Slated Today

Five Grosse Pointe women will be among the models in a world premier showing of Canadian designer Marielle Fleury's fall collection at the 1965 Detroit-Windsor International Freedom Festival Women's Luncheon today, at Cleary Auditorium in Windsor.

Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, of Lorraine road, is fashion coordinator. The local models are Mrs. John Dieters, Mrs. Emil Groh, Mrs. Jack Wheeler, Mrs. Thomas Walworth and Mrs. Emil Traut.

Special luncheon guests will be singer Harry Belafonte, actor George Hamilton, Detroit

Councilman Mary V. Beck, Windsor Alderman Mrs. Cameron H. Montrose, the mayors of Detroit and Windsor and their wives, Tom Patterson, founder of the Stratford, Ont., Shakespearean Festival, and the Motor City's 10 top working women for 1965.

The women's luncheon is only one of many Freedom Festival events.

The six-day festival, commemorating the independence birthdays of Canada and the United States, began June 30, with ceremonies on the Ambassador Bridge and a fireworks display over the Detroit River.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

PURDY & EDGAR celebrates THE GLORIOUS FOURTH by lifting the lid of its "box" of spanking new listings. Even if you deplore such pyrotechnics we believe at least one of our three new sparklers will be sure to dazzle you.

ALL THE OTHERS can't hold a Roman Candle to this colonial we are offering on Beacon Hill. Five bedrooms and four full baths on the second floor. First floor sprouts a paneled library and large family room, in addition to the living and dining rooms. Better not dally... this one has a short fuse.

LET ONE of our firecracker salespeople prance you through this painted white colonial in the Farms, which is just a skate board slide to the Farms Pier. Inside are three bedrooms, and that all important first floor den. The owner will pop for $26,500.

EVEN THOUGH we are celebrating our independence from the English, we can't but admire their fine taste in architecture as exemplified in this first offering on Buckingham. Could be for your family if you desire five bedrooms and three baths up. Large, airy rooms down with library and screened porch. Put a bomb under your husband and get him out to see this one today.

WITH DUE RESPECT for the French we are offering in commemoration of their Bastille Day, these two fine examples of French architecture. On Lakecrest Lane we will show you a petite palace with the perfect combination of the small, jewel of a house with large rooms.

ON A DEADEND street which leads to the lake is the setting for this larger house with a total of six bedrooms. If we quoted the low price here the owner would have our necks.

Back To Harbor Pointe

Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman couldn't imagine a summer away from her vacation home in Harbor Pointe, but before she heads north, she has a task to perform for her favorite organization, Planned Parenthood.

Mrs. Schlotman is honorary patron chairman of the seventh annual Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart, to be held at Detroit's Veteran's Memorial Building, October 26, 27 and 28.

The charming chateau of Stonehurst is busy already at her job, sending out patron letters to past and prospective Mart supporters.

A Minstrel Cruise

Here at home, there are plenty of summer events, calculated to keep all of us busy and amused. Heading the list of July "fun" things is a Minstrel Cruise, the annual riverboat excursion benefitting Bon Secours Hospital.

The Minstrel Boat sets sail Thursday, July 15, at 7:30 o'clock. The Bob-Lo boat has been specially chartered for the occasion, and will be specially decorated.

Buffet dinner, dancing, and a moonlight ride on the water are all included in the $10 per person donation. Ticket reservations may be obtained by contacting Mrs. John K. Busch, TUxedo 5-5803, or Mrs. L. D. Browning, TUxedo 6-2758, (more about the Cruise next week).

Becker-Smith Rites Are Read

Patricia Anne Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis John Joseph Smith, of King Richard court, Birmingham, formerly of Kenwood court, chose an Alencon lace sheath gown under a white silk peau manle for her marriage on June 19, in Kirk in the Hills, to Gordon Andrew Becker, II.

Dr. Harold De Windt officiated at the 4 o'clock rites, which were followed by a reception at the bride's parents' home.

The former Miss Smith's two-tiered silk illusion wedding veil fell from a bow of six peau and Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a shower of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Carol Louane Smith served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Loren Remilgroup are Mrs. Robert J. Priest, president; Mrs. Michael James Brennan, vice-president; and Mrs. John Burrows, secretary.

The colorful history of Fox Creek inspired the chapter's name. During the time of the early French settlers, Fox Creek was the scene of an intense conflict between the French and the Indians.

In 1715, the Mascoutins and Fox Indians, from the Green Bay area, appeared to establish themselves on the Detroit River. Their attempt to capture Fort Detroit was repulsed, and the tribes retreated, under cover of night, to the banks of Lake St. Clair.

Near Windmill Pointe, they fortified themselves behind fallen trees.

Ignoring the temptation to charge their enemy's breastworks, the French cleverly constructed steep piling along the front of the works, strategically pinning the Foxes and Mascoutins behind cover and effectively blocking them from the lakefront water supply.

Inevitably, the necessity for water compelled the Indians to break cover. Many were slaughtered and fell into the creek leading to the lake, which ran red with the blood of the Foxes.

After the battle, the rivulet was known to the French as "Coulee des Renards"—Fox Creek.

JUNE 21, 1965

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 P.M.
Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen William G. Butler, Henry E. Bodman, II, Richard C. Hudson, William G. Kirby, Mark C. Stevens and Benjamin S. Warren, Jr.
Absent: None.
Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., presided.

The minutes of the regular meeting of June 7, 1965, were approved with minor corrections.

Reports of the Police Department, Fire Department, Building Department and the Controller's Report of receipts and disbursements for the month of May, 1965, were received and ordered filed.

Further consideration of a complaint received regarding the nuisances caused by the operation of a store at 383 Kercheval Avenue was deferred to the meeting of July 19, 1965, to afford the operator of the store and the police department an opportunity to make a study of the situation.

The Council requested both the operator of the store and the Police Chief to submit a report regarding their findings at the July 19, 1965 meeting.

The request of the Beverly Road Property Owners Association to pave Beverly Road and assess the cost of the paving to the property owners, was withdrawn.

The Council approved a contribution of $300.00 to the Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club to help defray the expenses of conducting their 12th annual Regatta.

Payment of the following invoices was approved:
A. Alban G. Brinkman, $7,223.40 as partial payment for work completed on the swimming pool, bath house addition and equipment building.

B. Maryland Electric Company, $1,254.00 as payment in full for electrical work completed on the swimming pool, bath house addition and equipment building.

D. Freeman-Darling, Inc., $25,878.40 as partial payment for construction of the bath house addition and equipment building at the Pier Park.

An amendment to the City Manager Ordinance was received and laid on the table and the date of July 19, 1965, was set for a public hearing on the amendment.

The City Manager was authorized to prepare specifications and to take bids for the asphalt recapping of various streets in the City.

The appointments of Wendell R. Baker as Water Filtration Superintendent, John A. DeFoe as Public Service Director and Joseph Beaupre as Public Service Assistant were confirmed by the Council.

The Council authorized an advance of $2,000.00 to the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System.

The Council authorized the payment, after July 1, 1965, of $31,043.00 to the General Employees Retirement System for pensions and expenses during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1965 and the sum of $58,191.00 to the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System for pensions and expenses during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1965.

Due to the celebration of Independence Day falling on July 5, 1965, the date of the regular Council meeting, the meeting of that date was postponed to July 19, 1965.

Mayor Connolly was authorized to sign a memorandum of understanding between the City of Grosse Pointe Farms and the Michigan State Highway Department in regard to a comprehensive continuing transportation planning process, subject to the approval by the City Attorney.

A communication was received from Paddock Pools of Eastern Michigan, Inc., expressing appreciation to the Council for favoring their Company with the project of constructing the swimming pool at the Pier Park.

A communication was received from the Michigan Municipal League advising that the annual convention of the League will be held in Grand Rapids on September 15-17, 1965.

The City Manager was authorized to dispose of a boat owned by the City.

The Council approved the action of Councilman Kirby in purchasing chairs to be used on the deck at the swimming pool in the Pier Park.

On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:30 P.M.

The 36 members . . . of the Grosse Pointe Sail Club who signed up for a mystery ride (and dinner) hardly expected to be leaving the country one recent Friday night. But by the time they had headed up and down the river, struck out across the lake, turned back, reversed directions again, they wouldn't have been surprised if they had landed on the moon. The adventurous pleasure-seekers were first ushered aboard five G.P.S.C. powerboats, whose skippers were ordered to follow party chairman Leo Cowling in his boat. Leaving the Grosse Pointe Park dock, Cowling headed into Lake St. Clair, in the direction of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. "Aha!" thought the cruisers, "we know where we're going!" Not so, however; the leader turned around, made for Belle Isle, apparently intending to moor at the Detroit Yacht Club, then veered . . . the procession finally came to rest at the Windsor Yacht Club, where a delicious buffet dinner was waiting. After the meal, there was a song-fest, then a trip home across moonlit waters—no detours this time!—courtesy of skippers Cowling, Jay Deeds, Elmer Ertman, Richard Schott and Frank Stoneking. Sounds fun, doesn't it?

Not "fun" at all . . . was a young girl's experience at the Wood's Waterfront Park. This letter is from her mother: we hope the persons to whom it is addressed read it:

To Two Young Boys:

Attention: Their Parents:

On Monday, June 21, between 1:30 and 3 p.m., my 12-year-old daughter was at our Grosse Pointe Woods Park swimming with another little girl. My daughter forgot to leave at home her birthstone ring and also an heirloom ring which belonged to her grandmother. She put them in her blue and white checkered gingham clutch bag, along with her other belongings.

Two young boys were nice enough to turn into the office her hairbrush, hairband and park pass. But please, what happened to her little bag, the rings, her wristwatch and money? She is very unhappy and, being a young child, she still has her trust in people.

I feel very badly that such a thing could happen in a community that is spoken of so highly. WHY?????

Mrs. Robert William Hansen

Incidentally, in the same vein . . . we'd like to take this opportunity to jog the memory of the lady who walked out of Wrigley's-on-the-Hill a few weeks ago with $9.66 worth of groceries she forgot to pay for . . . She carried on a conversation with the cashier tabulating her purchases, then left without paying. The cashier hopes it was just a mental lapse on the part of both.

Since this is the vacation season . . . we thought it might be nice to include Carolyn Hubbard Lucas' poem on the "Santa Fe Trail" in our first 1965 July column:

Towering hills—small adobes and churches,
Far winding trails—nothing seeming alive—
Unending space where the turning eye searches,
Is this a place where a man may survive?
Only where civilization has ridden
Roughshod through rocks to make highways for men—
Driving machines to a destiny hidden.
Do we find turmoil—see motion again?
What do they think—infinitesimal—strange—
Gazing on works—unfathomable—strange—
Think of a moment—man's little impatience—
What do they see—unaccustomed to change?

PILFERINGS

The five-year-old was the daughter of a doctor, and she liked nothing better than to use her dolls as patients when she practiced being a doctor.

One day, as she was busy with her "patients," her mother called, "Honey, will you close the front door?" The youngster made no move to obey. Again her mother called, "Close the door." Again no response.

Finally, mother lost patience and shouted, "Close that door this minute!" The child walked over to the door and closed it.

A little while later, her mother walked over and asked, "How's your patient, dear?" Sadly the little girl replied, "She's dead. Died while I was closing that darned door!"

It was on one of those sad TV shows where people wait out their woes and get help. A woman appeared wanting a crib for her baby. "What are you using for a crib now?" asked the sympathetic emcee.

"Oh," she replied, "the box the television set came in."

By Janet Mueller

Madame Jean Le Direach needs no excuse to smile. The beautiful, vivacious wife of Detroit's new Consul General smiles as naturally as she breathes, laughs as easily as she talks. Even in repose, her eyes sparkle.

Young Jean Philippe Le Direach is another matter, however. Like five-year-olds all over the world, Philippe smiles easily when something amuses him—but cameras do NOT amuse him. He eyes a camera warily, puts on his most solemn face, stands stiff and straight and wide-eyed until his mother's laughter, and his sisters' gentle teasing, coax out an engaging small-boy grin.

The camera clicks, the family group relaxes, moves, disperses. Pascale, 11, goes back to the television set in the family room ("I shall have to do something about that television!" her mother exclaims).

Philippe straps a toy pistol around his waist, dons a red cap and sets out to capture Red Indians.

Anne, 13, in August, very much the young lady, joins her mother in the cool interior of their new home in Sunningdale drive.

Big Furnishing Job

It is a big house, one that Colette Le Direach looks forward to furnishing. M. Le Direach, who arrived at his new post six months before his wife, found the home and did some preliminary table-and-chair buying, but the bulk of the decorating is still to come, and it is Colette's responsibility.

All of her "things" have arrived from France, have been unpacked and arranged in one concentrated, working weekend.

Jean and Colette Le Direach, Anne, Pascale and Philippe, all joined forces to accomplish the unpacking-arranging detail as quickly as possible. They are a close family, enjoy each other's company and are delighted to be together again after months of separation.

A combination of circumstances, illness, school commitments for the children, domestic problems (the maid who had been with Colette for 10 years, who had come to France with her from Vietnam, had to go back to Saigon—Colette was fortunate enough to eventually find a new maid, a Vietnamese living in Paris, but there were formalities to be gotten through, passport and visa details, before the household could move en masse across the Atlantic), was responsible for the lapse between M. Le Direach's arrival in the States and Mme. Le Direach's first appearance in North America.

Boat Trip Too Short

The family was finally reunited, June 9, when the Franco-docked in New York. Colette "loved" the trip over by boat, but it was too short. When I left, I was so tired, from packing, from planning . . .

"The ship was marvelous. There was dancing every night. I liked everything about it—but four days is much too short!"

M. Le Direach met his family in Manhattan; they left immediately for The Pointe, by car, stopping overnight at Niagara Falls. Colette was enthralled by her first glimpses of the country—"It is REALLY nice"—intends to go back for a longer look at The Falls some day.

To hear Mme. Le Direach speak English, one would never guess that this is her first trip to America, her first "assignment" in an all-English speaking country.

The Le Direachs' entire previous foreign service experience has been in Vietnam.

They left Vietnam two years ago to return to France, Colette after 12 years in the Southeast Asian country, her husband after 17 years there. Their children speak fluent Vietnamese as well as French, and are beginning to add another language to their repertoire: They are starting summer classes in English.

lish, in preparation for the fall, when they will go to American schools.

Likes Languages

Mme. Le Direach knows some Vietnamese words herself, although she claims she is not proficient in the language. She learned her English in school, practiced it with friends in the diplomatic corps and on excursions with her husband to Hong Kong and Singapore.

Her other language is Spanish, but she maintains she can only speak it slowly, having had little chance to practice it; still, she is sure that if she had the chance, she would soon be rattling off Spanish at a great rate: "I like to learn foreign languages, and I—what is the expression?—do it easily."

She met her husband when they were children: "I was four, he was seven. We were living in the same street." They still have a house near the street where they lived then, some 30 kilometers from Paris.

Vietnam changed a great deal during the years she and her husband were there, Colette Le Direach recalls, but war was a constant condition. When she arrived, in 1951, war was going on; war was still going on when she left 12 years later.

"But in the towns, you didn't notice the war really. Life goes on, and it was a very pleasant life in Vietnam. My husband and I enjoyed ourselves there."

"The Vietnamese are a very intelligent people, and the country is very beautiful. I would like to go back to the Far East some day."

There were unpleasant experiences. In Hanoi, the Le Direachs lost their three-month-old first son, a victim of malaria.

Gun Under Pillow

In 1955, things were very bad. The Le Direachs were stationed in Nhatrang, the rebels had threatened to kill all the French. Colette learned to shoot; she slept with a gun under her pillow: "They didn't kill us!" she says triumphantly.

But the majority of Colette Le Direach's Vietnamese memories are good. She and her husband traveled as much as possible, visiting Hong Kong, Bangkok, Cambodia, Singapore—"but not Japan, which I regret very much"—journeying most of the time by ship, so that they could stop off and see things along their way.

They visited Angkor Wat many times, exploring the magnificent, ruined temples together. Both M. and Mme. Le Direach are interested in antiquities. They do a bit of collecting, but "we don't have very much," Colette says.

They love Vietnamese and Chinese food, and plan to introduce their new friends to the delights of Vietnamese cuisine; Colette has brought to America all the utensils she needs to conjure up an authentic, delicious Vietnamese meal.

Mme. Le Direach is very fond of sports, particularly water sports. She did a great deal of swimming and water skiing in Vietnam, now is casting longing eyes toward Lake St. Clair, where she hopes to join the sun and water-worshippers as soon as possible.

Fond of Sunbaths

She already has a fabulous tan: "I got some sun on the ship, coming over. There was no sun in France this spring; it was raining, raining, raining and very cold."

She likes to snatch a sunbath on the terrace outside her bedroom, to be outdoors as much as possible on pleasant days. "I like the sun," she says. "I couldn't live without the sun!"

But she is prepared for Michigan's climate, albeit a bit appalled at the prospect of living through a Michigan winter: "I am afraid your winter is very long!"

She used to play tennis and would like to try the sport again, plans to attempt golf with her husband, may try her hand at bridge, ("At one time, for about two years, I played all the time, in the morning, afternoon, evening . . . I played too much. Then Philippe was born, and I stopped . . .").

She does not think life in the States will prove at all difficult. "My husband has been here for six months, and everyone has been so kind! We have so many wonderful friends already."

She trusted M. Le Direach's judgment completely in the matter of the house and the furniture, arrived at her new home with no qualms, sure that she would be, as she was, delighted by his choices.

Loves New Locale

"This district, Grosse Pointe Woods, is lovely," she exclaims. "We have no similar district in France. It is like living in a large park, with the squirrels, and so many trees. And it is so silent!"

The children, too, like their new home very much. They are accustomed to travel, having been stationed all over Vietnam with their parents, and adjust to new places and people easily. Philippe already has a new friend, seven-year-old Jeff, who lives across the street.

Anne, Pascale and Philippe will keep up with their French studies via correspondence courses, while they attend school in the States. "It is not very good for their (French) studies, but what can we do?" their mother asks. "We prefer to have them with us."

"They will probably pass their exam when they are older than students in France, but we think the experiences they are having now will open their minds, will make them more able to mix with people."

Marveils at Kitchen

Colette Le Direach hopes to travel all over America before she and her husband return permanently to France. So far, she has not been able to see much of the country—but what she has seen, she has loved.

She is most astonished by her own kitchen. "It is WONDERFUL," she insists. "There is nothing like it in France! Whenever you want something, you just push a button!"

She is too busy looking ahead to be homesick. And every day brings new experiences. Even shopping, which she normally does not enjoy, is interesting, "because it is different here . . ."

Colette Le Direach smiles as she looks forward to her years in America. The few weeks she has spent here have whetted her appetite for the months to come. "It begins very well," she says, and, smiling, will do her best to make the Le Direachs' life in the United States continue very well.

Another Grosse Pointer, Mary Ellen Tappan, of Westchester road, took office as Ad Club vice-president.

Mrs. Ames, who is Advertising Direct Mail Coordinator at the J. L. Hudson Company, is a native Detroit and Eastsider. She was graduated from Southeastern High School and received a Liberal Arts degree from Wayne (State) University, with a major in English and creative writing.

The new Ad Club president has spent most of her working life at Hudson's—beginning as a package wrapper and working her way up to the advertising department through sales. She recalls being placed in the Men's Department one particular time before Father's Day, and chalking up a record selling tie racks.

She has also won several prizes for writing. One of the earliest was for a poem "My Mother," written when she was a grade school student at Carstens. The prize was a book of poems by Anne Campbell, presented on a radio program by the late Mary Humphrey, former Detroit News columnist and long-time publicist in Detroit.
