

YOUNG HIT-RUNNER CONFESSES

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 1
THE COMMITTEE investigating the Bobby Baker scandal made its final report Wednesday revealing party girls, high government officials, amorous businessmen and lobbyists as the principals in the incredible story of the glittering capital of wealth and power. The paper urged stronger remedial action by the Senate. Baker, whose salary as secretary to Senate Democrats was $19,600 and who amassed a paper fortune of more than $2 million, was considered a protégé of the then Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson. Baker resigned under fire in October, 1963.

THE CHAIRMAN of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Peter B. Spivak, reported yesterday that the commission is reviewing records of every utility doing business in Michigan and plans to negotiate for rate cuts "where earnings justify reductions." Three rate cuts have already been negotiated as a result of talks with Consumers Power Co., the Wisconsin Public Service Co., and the Indiana Michigan Power Co. Consumer Power of Jackson, second largest electrical supplier in the state, has agreed to a $3 million a year rate cutback.

DETROIT POLICE reinforcements were rushed to Belle Isle last night to quell fighting which erupted after an "Americans in Harmony" concert was disrupted by the huge crowd. Promoters of the benefit had stopped the performance when the crowd, estimated at over 12,000, became too noisy for the performers to work. The audience was breaking up in an orderly fashion until the fight broke out. Bottle-throwing teenagers caused most of the disturbance. Headlining the show were the Supremes, Marvin Gaye, Martha and the Vandellas and the Four Tops.

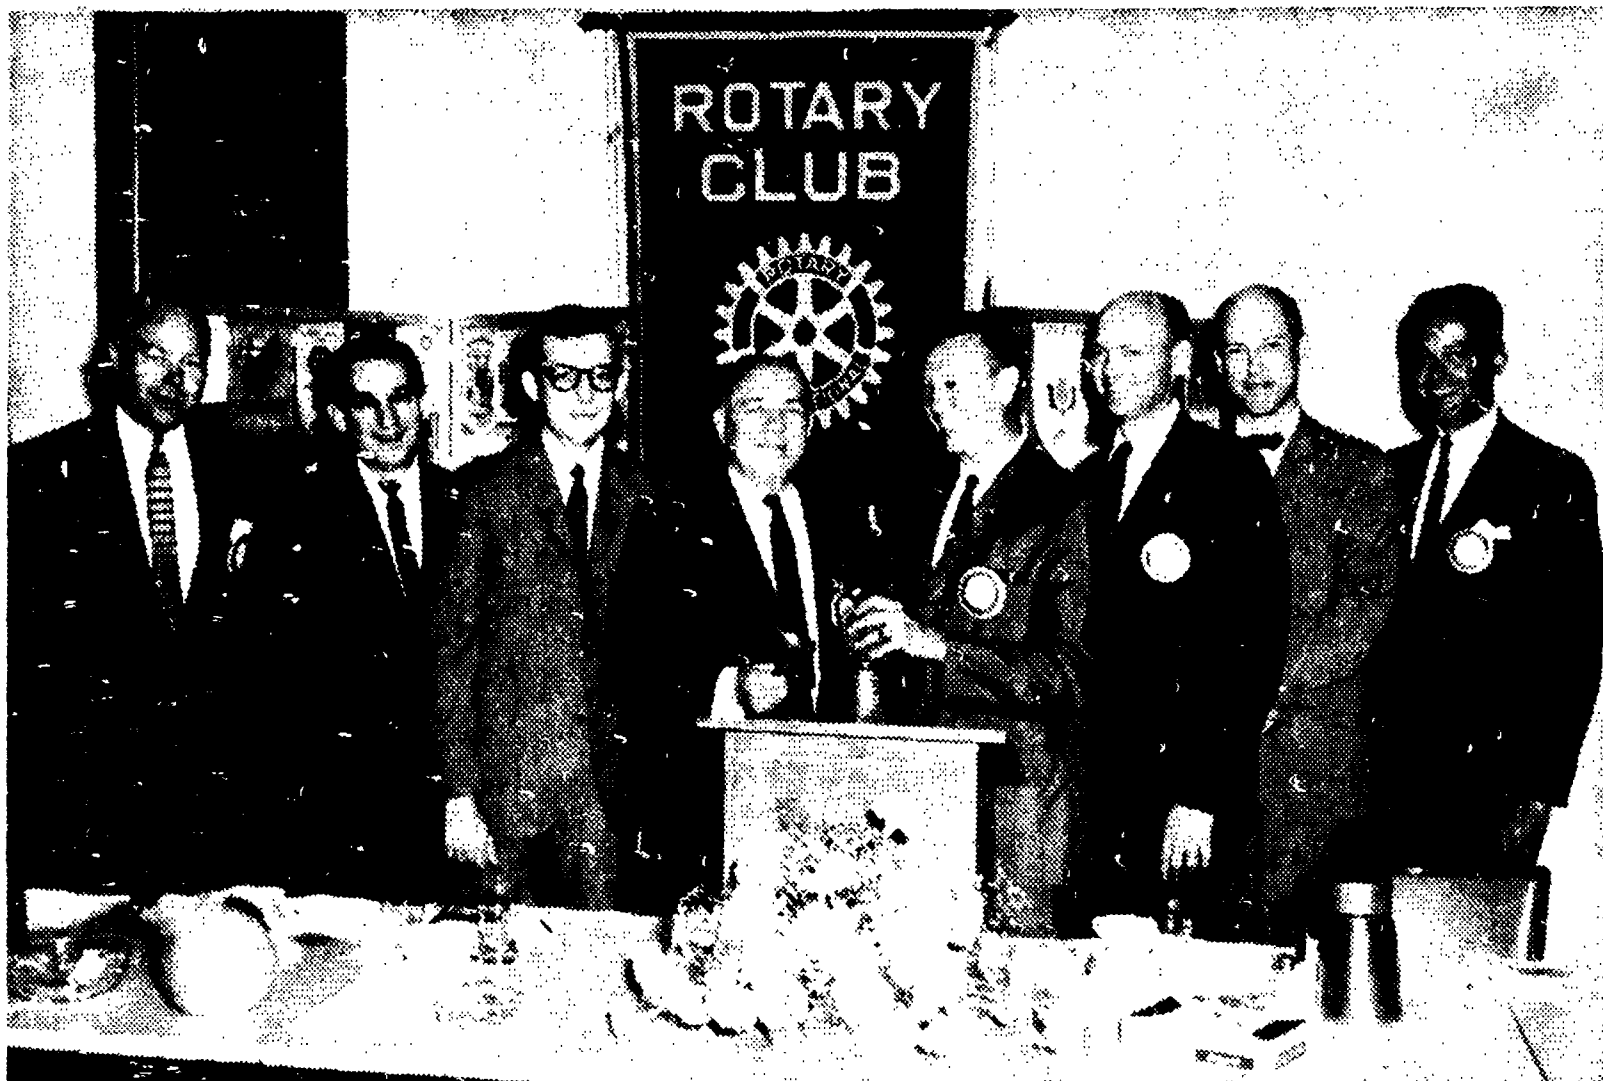

Saturday, July 3
PRESIDENT JOHNSON announced plans yesterday for a National Teachers' Corps "to enlist thousands of dedicated Americans to work along side local teachers in city slums and areas of rural poverty." Johnson said that members of the corps will be young people preparing for teaching careers as well as experienced teachers willing to give a year to places in need of their help. The president also announced a Federal campaign to help Negro teachers who have lost their jobs because of school desegregation.

THIRTY U. S. Air Force planes worked over military targets yesterday at Dien Bien Phu, striking the airfield and barracks of the jungle stronghold 185 miles west-northwest of Hanoi. Pilots reported destroying six barracks, razing 12 other buildings and cratering the runway of the airfield in two 30-minute attacks. They reported no opposition. Dien Bien Phu is the symbol of France's defeat in the Indo-China war by communist-led guerrillas. It was here that the surrender of Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries' decimated garrison on May 7, 1954 finished off the French colonial empire.

Sunday, July 4
PRESIDENT JOHNSON today ordered the withdrawal of two paratrooper battalions, a total of 1,400 men, from the Dominican Republic. The order was issued on the advice of military commanders at the scene who reported that "conditions now permit further withdrawal of U. S. military personnel from the inter-American force." This will reduce the number of troops stationed there to about 10,000, mostly Army troops but some Air Force.

THOUSANDS OF YOUTHS loaded with beer and vent on destruction fought police in four states Saturday night and early Sunday. As a result, hundreds did their Sunday repentance in local jails. The eruptions occurred in Ohio, Iowa, New York, and Missouri. Locally, a rock 'n' roll party in Southgate Sunday turned into a backyard (Continued on Page 19)

Rotary Club Installs New Officers

"Changing of the Guard" ceremonies were observed by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club at its June 28 meeting in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, when new officers and directors took over the reins. Left to right: GEORGE E. MEASEL, new director; STEPHEN A. BALOGH, new director; JAMES A. PASSANANTE, JR., new secretary; KENNETH W. SMITH, new president; ALBERT D. THOMAS, JR., outgoing president; BRUCE K. BOCKSTANZ, new first vice-president; EDWARD J. HICKEY, new second vice-president; VERNON E. GLENDENING, new treasurer.

Eight Cars Damaged at High School

Vandals Work on Equipment Used in Driver Training Program; Police Investigate

Senseless vandalism was committed on the Grosse Pointe High School grounds on Tuesday, June 29, when vandals caused damage to eight cars used in the Driver Training program, according to a complaint made to Farms police by Cecil Vogt, training instructor.

Vogt told police that the wirings of four cars were disconnected; one car's radiator was drained; its air cleaner was removed and stones placed in the carburetor; the spark plug wires of two vehicles were switched around; and the spark plug wires of another car were stolen and other wires of the car, disconnected.

The eight vehicles have since been put into operating order. The matter is being investigated by police.

Runs Into Rear Of Park Taxicab

Grosse Pointe City police officers charged Roland Dale Schultz, 18, of 1910 Lennon road, with reckless driving Wednesday, June 30, when he struck the rear of a Park Cab taxi driven by Charles Erwin Davis, 10805 Jefferson avenue.

Davis was heading west on Kercheval avenue and had stopped for the red light at Fisher road when Schultz, failing to stop in time, struck the rear of the taxi, causing damage to both vehicles.

History-Making Event; Circus Coming to Pointe

A complete three-ring circus, with all the thrills and fun, will be coming to the Pointe, under the sponsorship of the Republican Citizens of the Fourteenth District. This will be the first time in Pointe history that "the circus will come to town."

The renowned Cristiani-Walace Brother Circus will be at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club on Monday, August 2, for two performances, 2 p.m. and 8 p.m.

There will be performing elephants, gymnastic marvels, clowns, chimpanzees, horses, and sword swallowers.

A feature will be the only trained hippopotamus in the world! Over 40 arena and aerial displays will be keyed to the gala music of the Big Top Circus Band.

The Republican Citizens said that they expect to make the show the biggest, the best, most stupendous money-raising affair the Fourteenth District will ever see.

Children's tickets are $1; general admission — adults, $1.50. Adult tickets will be $1.90 at the gate on the day of the performance, but only $1.50, if purchased in advance.

The RC is looking for volunteers to sell tickets and to park cars, and for help from the general public, who are urged to attend the show with relatives, friends and neighbors.

Woods Resident Severely Burned in House Fire; Condition Called Critical

Semi-Invalid Rescued From Flames by Neighbors and Daughter After Desperate Attempt to Crawl to Safety

A 67-year-old, semi-invalid Woods resident is in St. John Hospital in critical condition, the result of severe burns about the head, arms and legs, suffered when he attempted to crawl out of his burning house on Sunday, July 4.

In the hospital is Robert E. Dickson, of 2159 Anita, who was rescued from the living room by neighbors, Frank LaGrosso, 25, of 2167 Anita, and Orio Dosmas, 50, of 2174 Anita, and Dickson's daughter, Mrs. Patricia Crice, owner of the house, with whom Dickson was living. Mr. Dickson is a semi-invalid as the result of a heart attack.

The fire originated in a sofa in the living room and ignited the carpet around it, and caused flames to shoot up a wall and ceiling, according to information released by Director of Public Safety Allen Andrews, Jr. There was extensive smoke and heat damage throughout the house, he said.

Neighbor Sounds Alarm
Firefighters and equipment were rushed to the house, when a neighbor of Mrs. Crice called in the alarm. Mrs. Crice said she was awakened by her barking dog, and smelled smoke. She fled the flames screaming for help.

LaGrosso, who answered Mrs. Crice's call for help, told public safety officers that Mrs. Crice directed him to the rear bedroom, but he was forced back because of billowing smoke.

LaGrosso and Mrs. Crice returned to the front door, where LaGrosso ripped away the screen from the front door and entered the house.

They found Dickson lying on the floor of the front room, where he had crawled from his bedroom at the rear of the building. Dickson was carried outside by LaGrosso, Dosmas and Mrs. Crice, just as the firemen and equipment arrived.

Public Safety Lt. Roland Symons, in charge of the shift, said the alarm came in at 12:27 a.m., and a few minutes later, Director Andrews arrived to take command.

Quickly Extinguished
The fire was doused within two minutes, according to official information, and was confined to the living room. Smoke and heat damage was extensive throughout the house, it was said.

Andrews said that because the sofa was totally destroyed, and the carpet around it in flames, it is believed that the fire originated in the sofa. The actual cause of the fire is not yet known.

Dickson apparently sought the shortest way out of the house, without realizing the fire was in the living room, it was assumed, and could not complete his desperate attempt to escape.

A second alarm was sounded, when the first alarm was called in, and Shores public safety officers responded with men and a truck, but the Shores personnel were not needed.

Dickson was transported to the hospital by Woods Patrolman Stephen Petrick and Shores Patrolman Melvin Yaeks. The mutual aid second alarm was cancelled at 1:04 a.m.

The family's pet parakeet died as a result of the heat and smoke, and was removed from the house by Patrolman Kenneth Metcalf.

First Concert Of Festival Next Monday

Flutist Albert Tipton Will Be Soloist in Eighth Annual Event at Memorial Center

Flutist Albert Tipton, soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Julius Chajes, composer, pianist, and Music Director for the Detroit Jewish Community Center, will appear in the first of three concerts in the Eighth Annual Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival.

The concert, to be held Monday, July 12 in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Works featured on the program will include a trio by Chajes, and selections from Mozart, Bach, Antonin and Reger.

Scheduled in the Fries Auditorium, the second concert will take place July 19. The Crystal Ballroom will be the setting for the final program a week later on July 26.

Tickets will be sold at the door at a cost of $2.50 reports Mrs. Francis E. Brossy, III, of 44 McKinley place, and may be obtained through her or at the War Memorial. Season tickets are $6.

Interesting History
Now, here is the interesting history of how the Festival was formed:

The Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival was founded in the summer of 1958 when Alexander Szezek brought together Paul Olefsky, cellist, Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge, and John W. Lake, executive director of the War Memorial to discuss the possibilities of establishing a series of summer chamber music concerts in Grosse Pointe. The goal was to feature leading musicians of the Detroit Symphony, and also from other cities, in chamber music concerts easily accessible to the residents of our community, the idea being to fill the summer gap in the musical life of our community.

As a result of the discussions, Paul Olefsky became musical director, Mrs. Coolidge accepted the post of Chairman of the committee that would promote the series, and Mr. Lake agreed to provide War Memorial sponsorship.

Held In Court Yard
The first series of three concerts was presented on the front steps of the Alger House in the Fountain Court Yard. This was necessary because the Alger house had no room large enough to accommodate the concerts. Serious problems arose at once. Alternate dates had to be provided in case of rain. The program (Continued on Page 2)

POOL CASUALTY
City police officers took Gene Murano, 24, of 1 Lafayette place, Detroit, to Bon Secours Hospital Thursday, July 1 from the city park after he had hit his nose on the bottom of the pool. He was treated and released.

SHOPPER INJURED
City Police transported Mrs. Robert Cooper, of 21232 Hunt Club drive, Harper Woods, to Bon Secours Hospital from the A&P store on Kercheval avenue where she cut her foot while shopping Friday, July 2.

Valuable Jewelry Reported Stolen From Blain Home

Farms Police Investigating Loss of Items Worth More Than $5,910 Taken from Master Bedroom Dresser Drawer During Daylight

Farms detectives are investigating the theft of thousands of dollars worth of jewelry, reported stolen from the home of the Alexander Blains, 155 Vendome, on Thursday, July 1.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tien, in charge of the investigation, disclosed that a person, or persons, yet unknown, apparently entered the Blain residence through a screen door and sliding door on the rear patio of the house. The doors were closed, but not locked, it was said.

Mrs. Blain told police that she left her home at 12 p.m. and returned at 5:30 p.m., and discovered her jewelry box, with the jewels, missing from the bureau dresser in the master bedroom. The missing pieces are valued at more than $5,910, she said.

Missing she said, are her platinum, 39-diamond bracelet, valued at $2,200; her two-strand, 247-pearl necklace, 14-carat white gold set, with 14 diamonds, valued at $1,500; a platinum diamond and pearl dinner ring, valued at $350; her 18-carat yellow gold diamond and ruby wrist watch, valued at $1,200; and her 14-carat yellow gold bracelet, with diamonds and rubies, valued at $660.

Also missing, Mrs. Blain said, were the following pieces, values of which are unknown: A yellow gold, diamond-ruby fish-shaped pin; an antique dia-

Monks Sign- Hits Cyclist

A 16-year-old Detroit youth is fortunate to be alive this week after sustaining only minor injuries in an automobile-motorcycle accident Tuesday morning, July 6.

Ricard Mathews, of 8110 St. Paul, Detroit, was riding his motorcycle east on Waterloo when he was struck from the side by a car driven by Charles Oscar Thompson, 70, of 790 Washington road. Thompson had failed to stop at a stop sign on Washington while heading north.

Mathews was thrown from his motorcycle, which possibly saved his life. The motorcycle was found nearly completely under Thompson's car when police arrived on the scene. Mathews was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by a City police ambulance where he was treated for a small fracture of the lower leg and released.

Thompson was charged with reckless driving.

YOUTHS STEAL GAS

Three young Grosse Pointe boys, two 17-year-olds and one juvenile, were charged with simple larceny by City Police officers Saturday, July 3, when they were apprehended by the police while siphoning gas from cars in the terrace garages in Roosevelt place. The boys were charged and released to their parents.

$1,000 Missing from Safe, Woods Bakery Owner Says

More than $1,000 was reported missing or stolen from the La Bonbonniere Bakery, 19487 Mack avenue, and the matter is under investigation by Woods police. The report was made on Tuesday, June 29.

The bakery owner, Nelson Galle, 42, of 15 Hampton road, said that approximately $1,000 of the week's receipts was missing from his office safe, and about $47.50 in currency and change was gone from the cash register, which was unlocked.

Galle's daughter, Dolores, 20, who resides at the Belcrest Hotel, 5440 Cass avenue, Detroit, and employed by him, told police that she left the bakery at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 26, leaving the $47.50 in the cash register, which was unlocked, and an undetermined amount of currency and checks in the safe, which she said she was sure she had locked.

She said she opened the bakery at 7:30 a.m. on Tuesday date, and discovered the money missing from the cash register, and the safe still locked.

Galle said when he opened the safe in his office, he found the money, about $1,000, gone. There is no evidence the safe had been forced open, police said.

Several employees, and other persons, were questioned about the missing money. The investigation is still in progress.

Finger Put On Juvenile By Witness

Damage to Smashed Station Wagon Estimated at $500; Informant Declines $100 Reward

Farms detectives, acting on a tip, arrested a 16-year-old Farms boy on Friday, July 2, as the hit-and-run driver, who crashed into a brand new station wagon on June 25, causing $500 in damage. The new vehicle is owned by Lee Allen of 71 Moross road.

A citizen, who read the story of the hit-and-run in last week's issue of the NEWS, called police and identified the teenager as the hit-and-run driver. Allen had offered a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the driver who damaged his station wagon.

Reward Declined
The informant, who asked that he remain nameless, declined the reward, stating that he did what he did in the interest of justice.

Det. Sgts. George Van Tien and Jack Paisley said they went to the home of the 16-year-old, and found a 1964 Fairlane, light blue in color, in the garage on the property. The car's front and the right front fender were badly damaged.

Pieces of chrome from the hit-and-run car, found at the scene of the accident, matched broken pieces on the car that was driven by the boy. The accident occurred in front of Allen's house.

Has No Explanation
The detectives said that the boy admitted driving the car at the time, and said that he was responsible for the accident. He did not explain why he left the scene, the officers said, but they assumed that he must have panicked.

The boy's father said that he will discuss the matter with Allen. In the meantime, the 16-year-old was given a ticket for leaving the scene of a property damage accident, and is scheduled to appear at the next session of Juvenile Court.

$79,038 Donated To Center Drive

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's annual Family Participation Drive has netted $79,038.58 thus far, reports John Lake, War Memorial Director.

Mr. Lake is especially pleased that of the 4,858 families which have contributed, 627 are new donors this year.

Since the drive officially began, 92 volunteers have sent out personalized letters of solicitation. This has resulted in contributions totaling $3,160. Additional donors are:

First Concert of Music Festival Set for Monday

chordist, swept bushels of the insects from his keyboard while he played. In later concerts, the stage was surrounded by mosquito netting which created an eerie setting. The wind and cool temperatures also created problems. The audience was sometimes uncomfortable and once a sudden blast of wind blew over a lamp in the middle of a song by soprano Marilyn Cotlow. She never winced and won the admiration of everyone for an outstanding performance.

Five Second Year

Five concerts made up the second season again held outdoors, ending with a chamber orchestra performance under the baton of Paul Olefsky. The third season offered four concerts. In the season the chairmanship of the committee passed to Mrs. David M. Sutter. Mrs. Coolidge became honorary chairman. This season concluded with a chamber opera performance—La Serva Padrona by Pergolesi. The orchestra was again directed by Paul Olefsky.

Judging by audience response, the optimum number of concerts was again set at three for the fourth season in 1961. In that year Mrs. William Katzenmeyer took the post of chairman with Mrs. Coolidge continuing as honorary chairman and other members of the organization remaining the same. Audiences were growing in spite of the discomforts of the outdoor situation. The appeal of the fresh air, the trees, the soft breezes through the leaves, and the elegant renaissance setting of the Alger house facade gave a perfect atmosphere for chamber music. Audiences continued to grow. From first year groups of 180 to 250, they were then averaging closer to 300.

Staples Steps In

The fifth annual festival saw a major change in personnel. Paul Olefsky left the Detroit Symphony and his post as director of the Music Festival. Gordon Staples, Associate Concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony assumed Paul's job with the festival. It was and still is a difficult job. He uses his artistic talent, musical knowledge, and organizing ability to plan the programs, schedule rehearsals, and engage his fellow artists. As a result of his untiring efforts, the programs have won respect and admiration from artists and audiences alike. On several occasions, Paul Olefsky has returned to the festival as guest artist.

A dramatic change of location marked the sixth annual festival. The new William H. Fries building was completed at the War Memorial. With the inevitable regrets on leaving the beautiful outdoor setting, the festival moved indoors. The first two concerts were given in the Banquet Ballroom of the Fries Auditorium with the musicians on a temporary platform and the audience on folding chairs. With its glass walls on three sides and the view of the lake, the ballroom provided a reminder of the outdoor setting. The last concert of the sixth season was presented in the Fries Auditorium which proved to be ideal and was heartily approved by the audience.

Mrs. Brossy Takes Over

Last year's seventh annual series saw another change of chairman. Mrs. Francis E. Brossy III accepted the post. The year also saw the addition of a particularly illustrious artist to the program when the new Musical Director and Conductor of the Detroit Symphony, Sixten Ehrling, accepted the invitation of Festival Music Director Gordon Staples to appear on one of the programs. There was still another highlight to this season. In a hall with a capacity of 500, two of the three concerts were sold out, one of them the program featuring Mr. Ehrling at the piano. This was a far cry from the 180 devoted fans who shivered bravely outdoors one night in 1959 to hear Karl Haas, pianist, Gordon Staples, violinist, and Paul Olefsky, cellist, perform a program of trios.

The fact that the Festival is now an established tradition is a credit to many people who helped to put it on and to the faithful audience that has come from the community. Special thanks are due the following individuals who made substantial donations in past years to insure financial success. These patrons were: Mr. and Mrs. Burns Henry Jr., Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole, Mrs. George C. Thrall, Mr. Charles Koebel, Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Mrs. Alan Sheldon, Mrs. Joseph B. Schlottman, Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morley, Dr. Carl R. Von Gruenigen, and Dr. Rolf Scholdager.

This summer, the festival has one of its finest programs planned for three Monday evenings in July.

Vacation School At St. Paul Ev.

"I Believe In God," a study in basic Christian belief as exemplified in the creeds, is the theme of the 1965 Vacation Church School being held at St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, which began Monday, June 28.

Approximately 100 children between the ages 3 and 11 registered for this two-week course. Class sessions run from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon each weekday morning until July 9 with the exception of July 5.

In each age group, children are instructed in lessons from the Bible. Interesting workbooks, visual aids and class activities will be a part of each day's schedule.

A tuition fee of $2.50, to cover materials was charged each student. If there is more than one student from a family, the second child was only $1.50. The school is open to all.

The teaching staff is recruited from among the members of St. Paul Church. Teachers in the Nursery department include Mrs. Alton Myers, Mrs. William Bowles, Mrs. Douglas Turnbull and Mrs. Clarence Engel. In the Primary department are Mrs. Raymond Foresman, Mrs. John Meindt, Mrs. Donald Nagel, Mrs. Walter Pach and Mrs. Harry Kall. The Junior department is stationed by Mrs. Gary Lee and Mrs. Milton Fick.

Juveniles Learn Morals of Law

Three Detroit juveniles were arrested by Park police on Saturday, July 3, when they were seen climbing down a ladder from the roof of a building at 15210 Mack. The boys had broken into an empty apartment above a store, and had stolen several bottles of liquor.

Det. Lt. Arnold Hough disclosed that Joseph Van Houtteghen of 21231 Lakeland, St. Clair Shores, called to report that a breaking and entering had occurred in the apartment in a building owned by him. He called within minutes after the crime was discovered.

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, Police Sgt. Henry Connee and Patrolmen William Crandall and George Blair responded to the dispatch. Van Houtteghen took the officers to the roof of the building, where he showed them several bottles of whiskey that had been hidden near a pigeon coop. The liquor, he said, was taken from the floor of the vacant apartment.

As Van Houtteghen was disclosing the evidence, the juveniles, one 15 years old, one 14 years old, and the third, 13 years old, were climbing down a ladder at 15210 Mack, and dropped into the arms of Patrolmen Collin LaLonde and Robert Salfyrd, who had been dispatched by radio, to that address, when a silent alarm came in.

At the station, Enders questioned the older boy, who admitted that he and his companions had climbed to the roof of the building, 15224 Mack, owned by Van Houtteghen. The 15-year-old said that he peered into the vacant apartment, and saw the whiskey bottles on the floor.

Faulty Brakes Cause Accident

Susan Elizabeth Zuehlke, 20, of 528 Hidden lane, while traveling east on Jefferson avenue, skidded into a vehicle trailer attached to a Dodge stake truck Wednesday, June 20.

The truck, driven by David Alan Holmes, 17, of 1945 Hawthorne road, had been heading north on Stratford place and failed to stop at the Jefferson intersection when his brakes did not work.

Holmes was charged with reckless driving and defective brakes. The truck he was driving was impounded until the brakes were repaired.

UP AND UP

Today the high cost of living very seldom stands still long enough to be investigated.

He said that he entered the apartment through the window, and handed the bottles to his companions, and they took the liquor to the roof and hid them. The older boy's statement was verified by the other juveniles.

Van Houtteghen, motivated by the fact that the juveniles had never been in trouble with the police before, asked Enders to be lenient, but to not let the boys feel that they can get away with what they have done.

Enders placed all three boys on one month's probation, and ordered each to write, in his own words, a 500-word essay a week, to be submitted each Saturday during the probation period.

The boys will have to write an essay on "Good Citizenship," "Traffic Laws," "Liquor Laws," and "Damage to Future Character and Job Possibilities Because of a Bad Record."

Hough said that this is common practice in his department when juveniles are first offenders. In writing essays, juveniles are impressed and tend to absorb the rudiments of the law more quickly he said.

The Neall family of Detroit like their vacations to be as worry-free as possible. Before leaving for the World's Fair, they stopped at our downtown office. They turned their cash into Traveler's Cheques (the safe way to carry money when you're traveling), picked up an extra book of regular checks (just in case), and rented a safe deposit box for the valuables they left behind. If they had wanted extra money, we'd have helped them with a vacation loan, too. If you want a worry-free vacation . . . just see us before you go.

Honor Employees At Bon Secours

The Sisters of Bon Secours honored 80 of their employees who had given 10 years service or more at a dinner on June 30.

Mother Mary Gertrude, Administrator and 25-year pioneer in the building of the hospital, presented service award pins to the employees present.

Guest speakers were Father Charles Krause, Chaplain, and Dr. Joseph Kasper, pathologist, who has been associated with the hospital since its earliest beginnings.

A delicious smorgasbord dinner was served at 7 p.m. in the Science Hall and Mother John Andrew, Superior, made the opening address.

A festive evening was enjoyed by a group of old friends who have contributed much toward the family atmosphere at Bon Secours Hospital.

Few Prisoners Use Our Cells

By Anne Boynton

If you were a Grosse Pointe jail bird (of course we realize this is next to impossible), you wouldn't be served bread and water. In our high class jails, hamburgers are the fare. And in Grosse Pointe Woods, prisoners actually get hamburgers deluxe!

As a matter of fact, making the Pointe calaboose scene is not too hard to accomplish. A traffic violation of consequence will do the job, driving without an operator's license, for instance, or reckless driving, or being under the influence of (r-s-k, t-s-k) alcohol. Occasionally the local police have held a burglar or pervert, but then this article is being written from the angle—if you were a jail bird from Grosse Pointe.

Often an offender is held if he commits a crime which requires a court appearance and is unable to post bond. Posting bond involves either putting up money, usually from $25 to $150, or signing an oath, which will guarantee his appearance. This is because the court may not be convening for two weeks or so and it would be both unnecessary and inconvenient to hold anyone until that time. If the person does appear in court, whatever he posted as bond is returned.

The local jails are used mostly for temporary confinement. Major culprits are transported to the county jail. And in the case of a serious real-live criminal, a judge is brought to the jail to place bail and then the prisoner is handed over to the county.

Estimates of the average number of persons jailed ranges from 6 every 6 months in the City to 5 a week in the Shores. The Woods reports about one a week; the Park, two; and the Farms, 30 per year.

Three of the communities each have two cells apiece. The City only has one and if they have more than one offender, the overflow is spread around to the Park or to the Farms, which has three cells.

Officials at the Woods and Shores don't recall having trouble with prisoners too often. Noise from the prisoner, at least until he sobers up, is the commonest complaint of City Police. And in the Park, those charged with an offense have been known to tear the place up, though this is rare.

Attempted escapes are also few and far between, but they do occur.

The most unusual experience, reported by a Shores patrolman, involved an escapee from Pontiac State Hospital who went into an epileptic fit. Police took him to the hospital.

Trophy To Honor Dr. Murphy

A St. Paul parish tradition will be established this year, with the first awarding of the Dr. John M. Murphy Memorial Trophy to the golfer with the low gross score in the annual St. Paul Open, at Gowan Golf Club, Tuesday, July 20.

The trophy, a large beautiful walnut and bronze symbol, will be inscribed with the name of the winning golfer. A home-sized version of the trophy will be presented each year to the low gross winner. The master trophy, listing each year's winner, will be maintained on display in the St. Paul Gymnasium.

The trophy has been donated to the St. Paul Dads Club, sponsor of the Golf Day, by Mrs. John M. Murphy, whose late husband had been associated with the annual event as a participant from its inception in 1956.

A few tickets for the Open are still available. They may be obtained by calling Chauncy DiLaura at TU 2-7277. Tee-off times should be registered as soon as possible. Call John Cushman, at TU 1-6552, to register times from 7 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. and call Dr. Stan Dziuba, at 884-1006, to register times from 11:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Tickets for the annual event are $15, covering lunch, dinner, golf and refreshments. All patrons and friends of St. Paul School are cordially invited. The annual event helps fund the St. Paul athletic program, in all sports.

Center Offers Yoga Classes

A short summer session of Yoga instruction will be preceded by a free demonstration of Yoga by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnston Jr., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Monday evening, July 12, at 8 o'clock for a fee of $5.

Beginning Tuesday evening, July 13, and continuing for five successive Tuesdays, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will teach a co-educational class from 8 to 9 o'clock for a fee of $5.

Yoga, as taught by the John-stons, consists of exercises in concentration, muscle and nerve tone and breathing. Through these, students gain control of their emotions and build body responses. Yoga classes will be held in the air conditioned beauty of the hall room of Fries Auditorium whenever possible. Enroll now. There is no upper or lower age limit.

Judge Belanger Hears Six Cases

John Addison, 17, of 817 Lakepointe, appeared before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, June 30, pled not guilty and was found guilty of two traffic violation charges, each made by different policemen. Addison paid a fine of $5 for ignoring a red traffic signal; and $6 for failing to stop for a stop street. The first charge was made by Patrolman Collin LaLonde, and second, by Patrolman George Blair.

The youth was riding a Honda motorcycle at the time the violations were committed, the policemen said.

Another Honda cyclist, who was arraigned before the judge, told the court that he had enough of the motorcycle, and sold it two weeks before. It is Larry Leo of 1106 Weyburn.

Leo, accused of reckless driving on the motorcycle, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25.

John W. Allen, 20, of 285 Riverside, Detroit, arrested June 29, was found guilty of speeding, for which he paid a fine of $15; and driving without an operator's license, for which the fine was $100.

Wendell Richie, 22, of 2536 Fifteenth street, Detroit, pled guilty to driving without a valid operator's license, and ordered to pay a fine of $25, or serve five days in the Wayne County Jail. He paid the fine.

Ronald H. Cooper, 21, of 1647 Gray, Detroit, accused of not having a valid Michigan operator's license, and reckless driving, pled guilty. He paid a fine of $50 on the first charge; and $80 on the second.

Eugene Miszak, 30, of 16708 Jefferson, paid a fine of $50, for driving with an expired driver's license.

He told the court that he was using the license, which expired one and one-half years ago, because he knew he could not get another until he paid up several outstanding traffic violation fines, including one in the Park.

Thief Surprised In Park Home

A Park resident was awakened from sleep on Saturday, June 26, by a noise, to discover a would-be burglar in his house. The intruder was frightened away when the resident got out of bed to investigate, according to Park Police Lt. Gerard Kesteloot.

Entered was the apartment of William L. Best, 15116 Kercheval avenue.

Best called police and disclosed that he had retired at about 9 p.m., and was just dropping off to sleep, when he heard a noise in the kitchen. He got up and walked into the hallway, and yelled, "Who's there?"

Best said that the frightened burglar ran out the back door, and broke the glass at the bottom of the door in his haste to escape.

Investigating officers said that the intruder had climbed the telephone guy wire at the rear of Best's apartment, walked across the flat roof of the building, and forced the screen and door.

In escaping, police said, the burglar either jumped, or slid down the guy wire to the ground, fleeing on foot.

Nothing was disturbed or taken, it was said.

BREAKS ARM IN FALL

City police transported Mrs. Elizabeth Pearce, 78, of 1000 Lincoln road, to Bon Secours Hospital Tuesday, June 22, for treatment of a broken arm. She had sustained the injury after falling down the stairs of her home.

Achieve Scouting's Highest Rank

David, Donald and Dennis, three Grosse Pointe youths who joined Troop 156 about the same time and from the same neighborhood, reached the rank of Eagle Scout at the Troop's Court of Honor held recently at Christ Church. These new, highest-ranking Scouts are, from left to right, DAVID FROMM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fromm, of 320 Belanger; DONALD MOORE, son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Moore, of 333 Belanger; and DENNIS DUKA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duka, of 314 Belanger.

Hold Symphony Board Meeting

The board of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra voted to reorganize itself at its annual meeting on Tuesday, June 8, in Ford Auditorium.

It was also announced that the Orchestra completed its 1964-65 Golden Anniversary season with a $113,000 surplus. According to Robert B. Semple, president of the Association, the surplus has already been expended to increase musicians' salaries and lengthen both summer and winter seasons.

A committee headed by William M. Day, president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company, and guided by a recent report of a management consulting firm, planned the reorganization over the past two years.

Major aspects of the reorganization include the following: creation of an "Operating Board" composed of 34 members which will meet at least quarterly to plan and formulate policy; expansion of the larger Board of Directors; and creation of six special committees to control specific segments of the Orchestra's activity.

The officers of the Orchestra Association for the 1965-66 season are John B. Ford, chairman; Robert B. Semple, president; Walker L. Cislser, vice-president; William M. Day, vice-president; Ralph T. McElvenny, vice-president; Alan E. Schwartz, vice-president; David Williams, treasurer; Charles W. Brownell, assistant-treasurer; C. Grant Barnes, secretary; and Peter P. Thurber, assistant-secretary.

New members elected to the Board of Directors are C. Grant Barnes, Lee Hills, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Ernest A. Jones, Mrs. H. Leroy Selmeier, Robert M. Surdam, and Harold G. Warner.

The six special Orchestra committees and their chairmen are the Financial committee, Andrew W. Barr; the Personnel committee, William M. Day; the Financial committee, Alan E. Schwartz; the Public Relations committee, Calvin Patterson; and the Student Ticket committee, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough.

OKAY PARKING LOT

Acting as a Board of Appeals late in May, the Park council approved the construction of a parking lot for the Richard Buick Motor Sales, at Kercheval and Lakepointe. A permit for the lot was issued on the condition that the lot will be walled and properly landscaped on the areas facing the streets. A permit to operate a parking lot must be renewed each year, under a Park ordinance.

Summer School Now Half Over

Summer school activities in the Grosse Pointe Public School System will reach the halfway mark for the six-week session tomorrow, Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent-Instruction, announced today.

Although the total number of individual students enrolled will not be available until July 30, the summer school director indicated that the total of single class enrollments for 1965 exceed those of the 1964 session by 176.

The summer school program is housed at two elementary buildings, Mason and Richard, as well as in Brownell Junior High School and Grosse Pointe High School.

The enrollment at Richard is up from 261 to 325, an increase of 64 pupils, due largely to more requests for sixth grade arithmetic. At Mason a slight drop has occurred, with a total of 342 enrollments, compared to 352 a year ago.

Dr. Selmeier attributes the increase of 50 students in single class enrollments at the junior high level (from 586 to 636) to the addition of a sewing class to the offerings. He said that for the first time since typing has been taught in the summer, the classes were not entirely filled.

The increase of enrollments at Grosse Pointe High School, from 915 a year ago to 977 at the present, reflects an interest in Spanish and marine biology, both offered for the first time.

Pair Hospitalized Following Party

A Grosse Pointe young couple on their way home from a party in Beverly Hills early Monday morning, July 5, stopped at the City Police Station to report that they thought they had been drugged.

On their way home, both began feeling sick. Names of the two are being withheld pending further investigation. The couple became nearly hysterical at the police station and were taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

Wallace Bates Set to Retire

Wallace E. Bates, of 350 Roosevelt place, manager of the Chicago Tribune's Detroit advertising office for 31 years, retired July 1.

Bates, a native of Chicago, has been with the Tribune for 42 years. He joined the newspaper's classified advertising department in June, 1923, shortly after his graduation from the University of Chicago, where he had been a sprinter and quarter miler on A. A. Stagg's varsity track team.

Bates went from the Tribune's classified to its retail advertising division, and in 1927 was transferred to the New York advertising office where he handled accounts in the Philadelphia and Baltimore territories. In the fall of 1934 he opened the Detroit office.

In mid-1942, Bates was commissioned as a naval officer, serving at several naval stations and in a variety of assignments for the navy's bureau of aeronautics. Upon his release from active duty in 1945, he returned to Detroit and reopened the Detroit office.

Bates has been active in advertising circles during his career with the Tribune. He has served as president of the Detroit chapter of the American Association of Newspaper Representatives, and as a director of the national organization.

At the 1965 Chicago auto show he was awarded a gold lifetime pass by the Chicago Auto Trade Association in recognition of his promotional activities on behalf of the show throughout the years. Only four such lifetime passes had been awarded previously. He also holds a silver life membership card in the Adercraft Club of Detroit, awarded to mark 30 years of membership in that organization.

He and his wife, Ada, who have lived in Grosse Pointe during most of their years in Michigan, will move to Ridgefield, Conn., where they have spent their summer vacations for the last 20 years.

Lt. Col. Sherwood Takes Army Course

Army Reserve Lt. Col. Orville F. Sherwood, whose wife, Jeanette, lives at 743 Lakepointe, completed the final two-week phase of the U.S. Army Reserve School associate command and general staff course at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., June 13-26.

While there Colonel Sherwood received instruction in the duties and responsibilities of commanders and general staff officers of divisions and logistical commands.

Instruction in the course is phased over a five-year period, with much of the training taking place in the student's home area.

Colonel Sherwood is a member of Headquarters, 70th Division, an Army Reserve unit in Detroit.

The colonel was graduated from Wayne State University, in 1938 and 1940. He is a lawyer in Detroit.

Save useless worry—live one day at a time and the future will take care of itself.

Election Slated By School Board

The annual meeting of the trustees of The Grosse Pointe Public School System has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Monday, July 12. High on the agenda will be the election of officers for the 1965-1966 fiscal year. The four officers to be selected from among seven trustees are a president, vice-president, treasurer, and secretary.

Members of the Board of Education are Mrs. Paul G. Hykes (Alice Mary), Dr. Frank H. Parcells, Russell H. Peebles, Edward J. Pongracz, Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson (Barbara), John T. Short, and Dr. Robert K. Whitley.

Other matters to be taken care of include the designation of banks for commercial and savings deposit accounts, as well as the establishment of procedures for auditing and paying vouchers.

Another item on the agenda will include designating a time for regular meetings of the Board of Education during the next fiscal year.

'Dog-in-Basket' Takes Last Ride

Pointe residents living in Lake Shore road, and other thoroughfares, who have daily watched an eight-pound bundle of fur riding in a saddle basket, have already missed the familiar sight.

"Bonnie," a crossed Terrier that looked like a fox, with her sharp little ears pointed up, had to be put to sleep, and the home of her master and mistress, Woods Patrolman and Mrs. Albert Abend, 2126 Fleetwood, is not the same without her.

The Abends had the little dog for more than 13 years, and for the past two years, daily without fail, had taken Bonnie for a bike ride, pedaling more than eight miles through Pointe streets, with the dog sitting in the saddle basket, greeting everyone she passed with barks of joy.

The sight had become so familiar, that whenever Abend pedaled through the streets, people, especially children, would stop to look and say, "There goes the man on a bicycle with the dog in the basket." The phrase caught on, and residents began to look for the familiar sight. Bonnie "traveled" more than 1,200 miles in the two years that she was taken on the "trips."

On June 21, Bonnie, was taken to the veterinarian and was found to have cancer. On Wednesday, June 30, when all hope for a cure was abandoned, the furry bundle was "put to sleep."

On Thursday, July 1, Bonnie was laid to rest in the Harper Lawn Pet Cemetery, and a part of the lives of Abend, his wife, Lillian, and their daughter, Sharon, was buried with her.

Now, when they pedal through the streets, residents stop the Abends, to inquire of the whereabouts of Bonnie. They, too, feel a deep loss when informed that Bonnie is gone.

Corporal Martin
Quits City Force

Cpl. Blair A. Martin is the twentieth Grosse Pointe police officer to resign within the past two years. His resignation from the Grosse Pointe City police force became effective Sunday, July 4.

Martin, 42, of 468 Calvin road, started working in the City June 5, 1948. He gave as his reason for resigning, "the success of his new position with the American Automobile Association."

Chief Andrew C. Teetart praised Martin, who became a corporal April 1, 1964, by declaring him "always a good officer."

Newly-hired as a patrolman for the Grosse Pointe City police force is Donald Ludlow of Chalmers avenue in Detroit.

Ludlow, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ludlow of Augusta, Mich., was hired Thursday, July 1.

Ludlow recently was discharged from the United States Coast Guard. He had been permanently stationed in Detroit for four years.

He is married and has two children, Lori Anne, 2½ years, and Donald Jr., 15 months.

Chief Teetart said a new corporal to fill Martin's vacancy will be appointed in the near future.

GP Dems Pick
New Officers

New officers were elected and revised by-laws approved at a recent meeting of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Club at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

President of the group is Mrs. James Graves, 1304 Buckingham, who has served as acting chairman for the past year. Vice-presidents are Thomas Roach, 1312 Balfour; Mrs. Daniel Matthews, 16817 Cranford lane, and Harold Jinks, 835 Lakepointe.

Mrs. Roger McGuire, 268 McMillan, will serve as recording secretary; Mrs. Alan Henne, 765 Trombley, corresponding secretary; and Perry Lewis, 17610 Mack, treasurer.

Following the business meeting, nearly 50 members heard a "Report from Lansing" by Senator George Fitzgerald. A question and answer period followed his talk.

Mrs. Graves announced plans for a series of meetings in the fall on "The Role of Business in Politics" and "The Role of Labor in Politics" with leaders from both areas discussing various aspects of the topics.

She also told of tentative plans for a pilot project political census, to be conducted during the summer.

Delmar Buttrey
New Lions Prexy

Delmar L. Buttrey, of 646 Fairfield, was installed as president of the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club on Wednesday, June 23. Mr. Buttrey is Manufacturing Manager for the Udyllite Corporation of Warren, Mich.

Mr. Buttrey: John Housley, secretary, 19242 Lenville avenue, and Ianace Marcello, treasurer, 14946 Coram, were honored at the Lions Club President's Ball held at their headquarters at 20916 Mack avenue.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club was chartered in 1954 and since that time has been actively engaged in humanitarian work with the sightless and other unfortunate individuals in the area.

Two great fund raising projects are carried on each year and generously supported by Woods residents. They are the Goodfellow Newspaper drive and the White Cane drive. The largest recipient of funds from the Lions as a result of these drives is the Leader Dog School located at Rochester, Mich.

Mr. Buttrey succeeds former president Robert M. Fisher who lives at 23307 Greencrest Drive, St. Clair Shores. During Mr. Fisher's tenure in office the Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club showed a substantial increase in membership and financial contributions to the causes it supports.

Students Need
Health Records

School officials today reminded residents of the policy of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education that a student entering the public schools must present a record of his personal health history and a report or a physical examination by his family doctor. The examination form must be dated within one year or less of the student's enrollment.

Michigan State Law requires that each child entering a school for the first time must submit a record of his immunizations as well as a tuberculin test recorded within one year or less. The law provides exemptions for religious reasons. Exemption statements must be signed by parents and placed on file in the school office.

The physical examination, including immunization and a tuberculin test, must be presented to school officials before a child can be formally enrolled in school.

Parents are urged to request their physicians to sign the child's immunization record, and the tuberculin test, as well as the physical examination results.

WALLET STOLEN

Jack Kelly, 17, of 1704 Hampton, called Woods police on Saturday, July 3, and disclosed that while he was playing baseball at the Community Center playground, someone stole his wallet containing six dollars in cash. He said the wallet was with his other belongings on the ground.

New Patrolman Hired in Woods

A new recruit joined the ranks of the Woods Department of Public Safety on Thursday, July 1, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of a veteran officer who left the department to enter private business.

The new probationary officer is William G. Cramer, 22, of 11161 Rossiter, Detroit, a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He was based at Camp Pendleton, Calif., for four and one-half years, and saw one year of service in Okinawa, in the South Pacific.

He joined the Marines on November 15, 1959, and was honorably discharged with the rating of sergeant, on June 6, 1965. He left Southeastern High School in Detroit, to enter service, and completed his high school education during his tour of duty.

He is married to the former Wanda Kittelson of Oceanside, Calif. They are the parents of

RED SOX	0	8

National Division
	Won	Lost
DODGERS	6	2
GIANTS	5	2
PHILLIES	4	4
BRAVES	3	4
CARDINALS	2	6

Monday saw the YANKS bow to the INDIANS, 3 to 5, with Keith Cunningham, winning pitcher, aided by a real solid triple by Doug Druha and some fancy base running by Jeff Hadden. Mark Brecht too helped Doug in this win. Losing pitcher was Mike Ferrell. Johnny Staudt's two triples were not quite enough.

At the other diamond those "fighting" DODGERS came through under winning pitcher Walt Cytaeki, 2 to 0, over the CARDS. Gary Richardson hit a real nice HR that helped Walt for sure. Losing pitcher was Bruce Hoffeldt.

Tuesday it was the TIGERS under real good pitching by George Hodges taking the RED SOX, 6 to 4. Losing pitcher was Phil Dara. At the neighborhood Club it was the PHILLIES under Dave Schnurr beating the BRaves by a really lopsided score we won't even mention. Losing pitcher was Steve Maun, relieved by Ralph Di Domenico. Sometimes you just can't take a few players on vacation at this real crucial time of the season parents!

Wednesday it was the INDIANS over the WHITE SOX, 9 to 2. Losing pitcher was Donny Sutherland and winner Doug Druha, aided by one of Kenny Rem's "way-over-the-head" catches. This game was 2 1/2 hours long. At the other diamond Wally Marantette pitched the GIANTS to a 2 to 1 win over the DODGERS. Gary Richardson was losing pitcher. Going into the sixth it was 1 and 0 for the DODGERS and then came the 2 runs.

Thursday the CARDS dropped out to the INDIANS, 3 to 16. Losing pitcher was McShane, relieved by LaDuca who was relieved by Laken. A home run was hit by Fernann. Byron Stuck was winning pitcher, aided by a real cool single that "SPEEDY" Hubbard made into a triple. The pitcher hit a solid double. At the other diamond the American Division under TIGER Bill Bockstanz, took the measure of the BRVES, 12 to 7. The BRVES tried to help losing pitcher Bobby Hayes with 5 runs in the last inning, but for naught.

Friday the WHITE SOX, via forfeit, dropped the game to the PHILLIES and at the other diamond in NINE innings Tom Tompkins and the RED SOX dropped one, 4 to 2, to the GIANTS and winning pitcher Woody Cox. No further details.

Monday, July 5, saw a "double forfeit" if that is possible, with neither the YANKS or the RED SOX able to field a team. Folks, this becomes humorous. . . in Little League it was too many parents and players and now . . . out of 15 boys per team initially we can't get 9 per team for a game. Your Board may be calling upon you for help to solve this one. Your participation and enthusiasm can solve this problem with ease. Won't you help?

At the other diamond, on a real hot July 5, it was in 8 innings, the PHILLIES, 8, with pitcher Kevin Bolton being relieved by Don Thompson who was named winning pitcher, over the CARDS, 7. Losing pitcher was Fernann in spite of two HR's by Walker that brought in a total of three runs. Thompson, incidentally, had 12 SO's, which is nothing to put away and forget about.

The standings as of July 4:

Causley	4	2
Green	3	3
Rambler	3	3
Shalla	4	4
Richards	3	4
O'Brien	2	6

Causley and Richards were to play a game on June 28. Causley and Rambler were to continue the game of July 1. It was stopped on account of darkness.

Causley Pontiac finds itself all alone in first place at this writing, although they have two games to play from last week.

Monday, June 28

Shalla whipped hapless O'Brien 10 to 5. Don Cantle pitched a good three-hitter while Al Slovik went two for four and Spike O'Brien got two hits. For O'Brien, Paul Shakotko takes the loss and Tom Grattop got two hits.

Green and Rambler played a close game as Green won by a score of 2 to 1. Dan Menzo pitched a one-hitter and had 10 strikeouts. Tom Hermann and Larry Griffin were the hitters for Green. Marc Ranney took a tough loss as he pitched a beautiful game. Marc had 12 strikeouts and pitched a two-hitter. Gene Baratta had a double as did Jeff Matheus for the losing Rambler. Causley-Richards game is yet to be played.

Lochmoor Club's Swim Team Remains Unbeaten

By Mike Granger

Lochmoor Club's swimming team, by virtue of a 191-117 victory over the Detroit Boat Club, remains deadlocked for first place with a 2-0 mark. Tonight the Detroit Golf Club, likewise conquerors in their first two outings, will travel to Lochmoor for the Battle of the Unbeaten. This meet should be both exciting and close, and it may not be decided until the final events.

In defeating Red Run and now the D.B.C., Lochmoor has had its own way, winning 14 of 16 relays and 27 of 40 individual events. Overall depth, particularly in the younger age groups, plus the definite advantage of the home pool, should be to Lochmoor's liking. If they win tonight, and they should, the only obstacle separating Lochmoor from an undefeated season is the Western Golf Club team.

The Detroit Boat Club provided Lochmoor with little opposition. They seized all eight relays and grabbed 15 individual events. Five swimmers won a pair of races: 11-year-olds, Lisa Beckenhauer and Tommy Heholt; Jim Godin and Kitty Wilkins in the 13-14 age group; and Cheryl Gardner, 16. Each swimmer collected additional blue ribbons through their relay efforts.

Mary Ambrose was involved in three relays, swimming butterfly in two relays and freestyle in another. Being twelve, she has the unfortunate task of swimming with Lisa Beckenhauer. But Mary outswam both D.B.C. girls for a second in the 50 freestyle.

Laurie Simons, 11, swam backstroke in two medley relays, but fell victim to Little Lisa's backstroke victory.

Tommy Heholt edged teammate Ken Godin in both the backstroke and freestyle events. When Lochmoor encountered Red Run in the opener, Kitty Wilkins and Jim Godin picked up two victories apiece in the freestyle and backstroke races. They repeated their fine performances at the Boat Club, as they easily defeated the D.B.C. swimmers.

Cheryl Gardner put on quite a display of versatility for the fans. She won the freestyle and butterfly races, anchored the freestyle relay, and swam breaststroke in the medley relay.

Both Sussy Heholt and D. J. Godin took home, for the second straight week, first place ribbons for their effort in freestyle.

Carron Promack, 14, beat teammate Carolyn Wood to the wall in the 50 meter backstroke race. This was just a reverse of their 1-2 finish against Red Run, as, on that occasion, Carolyn outdistanced Carron.

Two 15-year-olds, Pinky Sinclair and Jim Palenchar, notched back-to-back victories in the 50 backstroke.

Scouts label Reynolds major strength as his powerful full hitting ability. So far this season, he has collected three home runs in 20 games. John has an accurate arm, and handles himself well behind the plate. Though no sprint demon on the diamond, John does have good speed for his size.

This scouting report prompted the Braves to draft him. When he was notified that he was Braves property, Reynolds expressed the usual surprise of a youngster. But, like a 20-year veteran of the sports world, he refuses to disclose the bonus offered to him.

Before he signs any baseball contract, Reynolds will "hit the books" at Michigan where he will engage in both baseball and football. He is not sure which sport he will eventually play, but one thing is certain, whether it be baseball or football, a great future is ahead of John Reynolds.

Champs to Meet In World Series

By Cindy Tew

As the Woods-Shores Little Leagueurs wrap up their 1965 season, the World Series becomes the main concern of all the boys. This year, the Major League World Series will be decided on the best of three game series.

All of the games will be played at Ghesquiere Park at 5:45 p.m. In the event of rain, the games will be played on the following night.

Since the Major Leagueurs still have another week of play, the World Series Teams are still not officially known. However, it looks like the Tigers of the American League, and the Cardinals of the National League have the best chance of making the Series.

The Minor League World Series will consist of only one game this year. It will be played on July 11, at 5:45, at Ghesquiere.

The Minor Teams ended their season last week. However, a three way tie between Indianapolis, Louisville and Houston of the International League has left the championship in this league undecided. Two games on July 6 and 7 will determine the champ. This International League champ will meet the American League champ, Columbus.

Capt. L. H. Whitaker Assigned to Korea

Army Capt. Lewis H. Whitaker Jr., 28, whose parents live at 825 Anita, was assigned to the 7th Infantry Division in Korea, June 17.

Captain Whitaker, commanding officer of Headquarters Company, 3d Battalion of the division's 32d Infantry, entered the Army in August, 1960, and was last assigned at Fort Benning, Ga.

The captain was graduated from Edwin Denby High School, Detroit, in 1954 and received his bachelor of science degree from Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, in 1960.

John Klang would like to win this one today. There is an added incentive for the youngsters as Channel 50, WKBD, will tape the meet for showing on Tuesday, July 13.

Dressed in fine satins and laces, water-proof style, were the many yachts which took part in Bayview's "Fleet Review", an annual affair held on the Fourth. Yacht owners participated by dressing ship and joining the procession, members by attending the review.

Festivities began at 1500 hours with "flag raising" after which the Flag Officers boarded the flagship "Balquhider", and took the lead in the fleet procession. Power boats followed the larger yachts and yachts without power were towed.

Proceeding upstream 'round Rear Com. Norman Werthmann's anchored yacht Verlainne then downstream, depositing the Commodore ashore, the flagship then anchored off the Club.

The fleet under Fleet Captain John Bremer, then continued, circling Lawrence Freese's anchored yacht Skip Again, and completed the course one more time.

Finally passing the reviewing stand, the fleet was blessed by the Chaplain and saluted by cannon fire answered by the yacht dipping its ensign.

After the review, all drifted back to the Club for the customary, and very fun, party.

Pulling the largest turn-out in D.R.Y.A. (Detroit River Yachting Association) history, the Grosse Pointe Club's regatta was sailed by 247 starters last Saturday. Ideal weather, with 16-20 knot west-southwest winds, resulted in record times and a honey of a race to watch.

Churning out a 2:27:05 corrected time, the best overall, was Winsome Cal 40, sloop. Skipped by Skip Grow and Carter Sales Jr., Winsome managed its Class A win for the second time in two weeks.

Exactly a minute behind, taking second place, was Toot Greiner of the Detroit Yacht Club in Apache.

Next in line was Dauntless III, manned by Tom Hanson of Bayview, followed by Tigress and Vitesse II.

Motor III, taking many a first in Class B last year, again succeeded in coming out on top. Owned by Henry Burkard of Bayview, she had a corrected time of 2:29:08. Nabbing a second and third in the 18 mile (twice around the 9 mile triangle) course were Lee Smith in Mutiny and Randy Wood in Espiritu II.

Finishing atop a fleet of 23, Flying Buffalo pulled way out in Roulette, owned by Roy Barbier of Crescent.

The shorter course, a 5 1/2 mile trek for smaller craft, was sailed by 77 one-design vessels.

Action next week shifts to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Regatta.

University School Notes

Class Day exercises at Grosse Pointe University School took place in the school auditorium on June 9. As the seniors, who were to receive their diplomas the following day, sat on the stage, many awards were presented to students in all grades from seven through twelve.

Representing the Prosemen Society, senior Craig Jennings presented awards to new members Ripley Odell, Peter Durant, Matthew Zukowski, and Ann Wattles. A special honorary membership went to departing faculty member David Arner for his outstanding contribution to the school in the field of dramatics and music.

New members of the Student Council for the year 1965-66 were announced by Samantha Rosner of this year's council. They are the following: 9th grade: Susan Swan and Matthew Holtzmann; 10th grade: Carla Schnell and John Hoag; 11th grade: Lisa Gershenson and Earl Heenan; 12th grade: Susan Jenks and Mark Glazer.

The School Spirit Award is presented to the homeroom which has shown the greatest amount of school spirit throughout the school year. The presentation was made by student council president Cleveland Thurber to the 9th grade girls, and the award was received for the class by its president, Susan Kasle.

The senior gift to the school was presented to Headmaster Hugh Riddleberger by Laureine Cain and Lance Adams. The gift this year was an outdoor drinking fountain near the tennis courts.

Other good news for tennis was announced by Coach Henry Stone, who presented trophies to Charles Wright, III, and Cleveland Thurber, III, for being winners in the state doubles tennis championship in Class C-D schools. They in turn presented the trophies to Headmaster Hugh Riddleberger.

Citizenship Cups were presented to the 7th or 8th grade girl and to the 7th or 8th grade boy who have shown the greatest loyalty and cooperation and the finest citizenship. Principal Gilder Jackson presented one award to 8th grader Craig Dickson; principal Margaret Harvey presented the other award to 8th grader Beverly Littler.

Awards for writing for the school literary magazine, The Perscript, went in the senior division for prize-winning poetry to 10th grader Stephen Pepper and for prose to 12th grader Samantha Rosner; in the junior division prizes went to John Hoag, grade 9, for poetry, and to Paul Gupta, for prose.

The Dr. Hugh Sialker Oral Reading awards went this year in grades 7-9 to Kathleen Gordon of Grade 8 and to James Perry of Grade 7 and in grades 10-12 to 12th graders Samantha Rosner and Cleveland Thurber, III.

The Readers Digest award to the senior who has had the highest academic standing during his high-school years went to William M. Swan, III.

A Scholastic Writing Award for a national 4th place went to Jacqueline Jensen of the 9th grade for an autobiographical article she had originally written for the Detroit News Writing Contest, in which her essay had won a key award.

The Hortense S. Robinson Music award to the student who has made the most significant contribution to the musical life of the Upper School during his high-school years went to Warren D. Finke.

The Spanish Award to the student who has demonstrated the highest proficiency in oral and composition skills went to Pamela Wrigley.

French awards sponsored by the American Association of the Teachers of French in the National French Contest went to Donna Lukov (1st prize, Advanced French in Division A, Detroit Area) and to Annie Lory Bachrach (1st prize, Intermediate French in Division B, Detroit Area).

A certificate of honor went also to their teacher, Mrs. Edward Lynch, for having students placing among the first three in the National French Competition for the Detroit area.

French awards in memory of Mr. William H. Fries, who taught French and was associate headmaster of the old Detroit University School, went to the two top students at the advanced level: Donna Lukov and Samantha Rosner.

Latin awards given by the American Classical League for excellence in advanced Latin went to Sarah Elston and Gregg Watkins.

The Dr. Frank B. Bicknell History award for outstanding scholarship and interest in the field of history went to Paul Gupta, grade 9, in the junior division, and to Hilda Sabato, grade 12, in the senior division.

Mathematics awards, certificates of merit from the Mathematical Association of America, went to the following students, all of whom qualified on the 7th Annual Mathematics Prize Competition: William M. Swan, III, Warren D. Finke, Judy Peslar, David Hadden, Jr., Charles B. Howard, John F. Perkin, and Barbara Littler.

The Bausch-Lomb award in recognition of scientific scholarship went to Warren D. Finke. The Rensselaer Medal given by the Alumni Association of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute to the young man who has done outstanding work in mathematics and science went to William M. Swan, III.

The Harvard Book Prize, presented by the Harvard Club of Eastern Michigan, goes to a member of the Junior Class of high scholastic attainment who has made a distinct contribution in the extra-curricular activities of the school. It was awarded to Gregg Watkins.

The Williams Alumni Association award to a member of the Junior class who has demonstrated leadership, service, and academic achievement went to Charles Wright, III.

The University of Michigan Regents-Alumni award for a fine academic record, high scores on competitive tests, and a record of excellent citizenship went to Donna Lukov.

The Chrysler Corporation Merit Scholarship Fund award is in recognition of outstanding performance and promise in the National Merit Scholarship program in 1965. The award went to William M. Swan, III.

The Terrill Newman Certificate to the students ranking in the top tenth of their class in academic achievement in grades 7-12 went to the students whose names follow. (12th graders receive their Terrill Newman awards at commencement exercises.)

7th grade girls: 1. Julia Rivkin, 2. Gertrude Gage, 3. Kathryn McGraw; 7th grade boys: 1. Thomas Campbell, 2. Eric Keydel, and William Marcus.

8th grade girls: 1. Christina Zukowski, 2. Susan Swan, 3. Kathleen Gordon; 8th grade boys: 1. Irving Ingraham, Jr., 2. Ralph Nicholas, 3. Craig Dickson; 9th grade: 1. Jane Lord, 2. Laura Norman, 3. Paul Gupta and Deborah Markey; 4. Mary Candler, 5. Rebecca Coates and Bernardine McEvoy; 10th grade: 1. Stephen Pepper, 2. Charles Sims, 3. Thomas Deneau, 4. Matthew Zukowski; 11th grade: 1. Gregg Watkins, 2. Susan Jenks, 3. Lynn McNaughton, 4. Martha Jones, 5. Charles Gorey and Tracy Heenan.

The Helen d'Avignon Book given in memory of Miss d'Avignon who taught English at Grosse Pointe Country Day School from 1926 until her death in 1948, is presented to the girl with the highest scholastic record, one in grades 7, 8, 9 and the other in grades 10, 11, 12. Winner in 7-9 was Julia Rivkin, with an average of 94.4; in grades 10-12 the winner was Donna Lukov, with an average of 89.0.

The Daniel H. Fletch Book is given in memory of Mr. Fletcher, Headmaster of the Detroit University School, 1916-1939. It is awarded to the two boys, one in 7-9 and the other in 10-12, who have the highest academic records. The 7-9 winner was Thomas Campbell, with an average of 94.0; in 10-12 Stephen Pepper won, with an average of 94.0.

The Scholarship Cup goes to the class with the highest academic average for the school year. Its winner this year was grade 10. The cup was received by the class presidents, Lauren Kogan and Matthew Zukowski.

The Class Day program was concluded with the singing of the School Song.

Two books, The Modern Tradition: Backgrounds of Modern Literature edited by Richard Ellman and Charles Feidelson, Jr., and The Modern Theatre by Robert W. Corrigan have been added to the Grosse Pointe University School Library collection.

They are given in the name of Wellington V. Grimes, Executive Secretary of the National Association of Independent Schools and former Principal of Upper School, by Leonard F. Rachmiel.

Yankees	9	9	.526
Indians	9	10	.474
Braves	6	13	.316
Athletes	4	15	.211

In the second to last week of the Little League baseball, the Tigers are showing their strength. They won their seventh game in a row by clobbering both the Athletics and the second place Red Sox. In their Athletic game, Jim Ney pitched 13 strikeouts to win the game 12-3. Tom Keller and Doug Perry were the two main sluggers for the Tigers. In their Red Sox game, the Tigers made short work of their opponent, beating them 7-1. Tom Keller was the winning pitcher and he helped his own cause by slugging a three run homer.
 All the other teams in this league have a one loss record for the week. The Yankees lost to the Senators 4-2, with Terry Buda as the winning pitcher. Later in the week, the Yankees won over the Cardinals 7-1, at the hands of the Indians. Gary Rader was the winning pitcher, and his teammates Ed Ahee and Jim Perry were the sluggers for the Indians.
 The Red Sox sneaked by the White Sox 3-2. The Red Sox hitting attack was led by Tom Fabbri and Paul VanHollebeke. Mike Fricke picked up his sixth win of the season for the Reds. In their second game the pale horses team picked up a win against the Athletics 3-2.
 The Orioles picked up a close win from the Indians 1-0. Dick Cnehl pitched a no hitter while striking out 12 for the win. Later in the week, the Orioles went down at the hands of the Senators 6-5. John Mathew was the winning pitcher, and his teammate Ed Doyle drove in the winning run.

Pirates	6	13	.316
Phillies	3	16	.158
Red Legs	2	17	.105

The Cards won their 14th straight game by trouncing both the Red Legs and the Pirates. In their Red Leg game, the Cards gave up only one run to win the game 9-1. Tom Clem was the winning pitcher, and his brother Dan slammed a well placed homer. In their second game of the week, the Pirates lost to the Cardinals 3-0. The Cards shut them out 5-0. Danny Clem was the winning pitcher.
 The second place Giants matched both of their opponents, and ran all over the Dodgers 14-1. Gary Bennett was the winning pitcher. The Giants also skipped by the Phillies 8-2. Steve Schleicher pitched for the win.
 The Braves piled up 39 runs in both of their games. They skinned the Phillies 15-5. Dennis Menzo was the winning pitcher. The Braves also trounced the Dodgers 24-4. Russ Schurr pitched a good game for the win.
 The Cubs defeated the Red Sox 10-7 in a heart-breaker for the Reds. Even though the Red Sox were hitting the ball, the pitching of Tom Herron cinched the game for the Cubs. Later in the week, the Pirates shaved the Cubs 2-0. Bob Haas pitched a no hitter for the Pirates, and his teammates John Rose hit a long home run.

Wichita	7	11	.389
Charleston	2	16	.111

The Houston team, one of the three teams tied for first place, ended their 1965 season with a bang. In their first game Houston snowed out Louisville under 13-2. Bob Engelhart pitched a one hitter for the win. Bob also whacked a grand slam home run. Chris Chamberlain and Curt Brown also lead the hitting attack for Houston. In their second game, Houston blasted Dallas 17-4. Pat Fitzgerald pitched a two-hit ball game for the win. Kurt Bach and Mark Stevens both had a perfect day at bat.
 Indianapolis also ended their season in form. On Tuesday Indianapolis overpowered the Charleston 16-2. Duane Bender struck out 13 Charleston players for the win. The sluggers for the winners were John Kopacka, Gary Pavicic and Tom Brennan. In their last game, the Indianapolis team shut out Omaha 4-0. Bob A-hur pitched a no hitter for the win. Duane Bender went two for two, John Kopacka blasted a triple and Gary Pavicic hit a double.
 Second to last place Wichita ended their season in a blaze of glory. The Wichita team piled up 40 runs to clobber both Charleston and Dallas. In their Charleston game, Phil D'Onofri pitched a terrific game for the win. His teammate Mike Gill of the game went to Mark Simon of Michigan State for an unassisted double play.

 Paul O'Dell was the hero of the day — on the mound and at the plate — as Wisconsin upset the Marines, 7 to 3.
 Michigan won its only contest of the week — a 10 to 3 game with Michigan State. Steve Pemberton added another pitching win to his fine season record, and Michigan's hitting was sparked by the young winning pitcher and Alex De Clercq and Brad Vercountere.
 Wisconsin racked up a .500 record with a narrow 10 to 9 triumph over Michigan State before defeating the Marines. Winning pitcher was M. Prece, but Michigan State boasted the best hitters of the game: Mark Simon (4 for 4), Joe Simon (homer) and Chris Dakoske (a triple and a single).

 After struggling through 16 tough ball games this season, only to lose them all, Richmond won both of their games last week. Richmond, 8-11, past Tampa 9-7, for their first win of the season. Richard Russell, pitched for the win. Rich, Al, Corta went three for four at the plate. The best fielders for Richmond were Denny Brys at first base, Joe Knoth at second base, and Dave Alcora at short stop. In their last game of the season, Richmond clobbered Rochester 14-7. Howard Cline was the winning pitcher. The hitters for Richmond included Gerald Schmidt, Jeff Couillard and Dave Alcora. Outstanding fielders were Gene and Dan Jamroz, Joe Barratta at third, Doug Krieger and Mike Tittertoning.
 Buffalo gathered 32 runs last week, to end their season in style. Buffalo smeared Hollywood 24-2. George Nehra pitched for the win. Jim Fenton hit a home run. Other sluggers for Buffalo were Greg Johnston, Mark Nehra and Joe Oskin. In their second and last game this season, Buffalo beat Toronto 9-8.
 Second place Montreal beat both Columbus and Hollywood. Paul Nehra pitched against Columbus to beat them 5-4. Bill Wybo pitched against Hollywood in their last game of the season to defeat them 7-3.
 Miami bested Toronto 7-0. Joe Sproder was the winning pitcher, and his team mate Bob Wheeler hit a grand slam home run.
 First place Columbus won the championship by running over Rochester 24-3. Alan Abbott was the winning pitcher, and Paul Abbott and Phil Porter hit homers.

PARK
By Dar Martin
 The real excitement as the Grosse Pointe Park Little League enters its final week of play centers on the minor leagues where three-way ties for top positions exist in both the American and National Divisions.
 Army, Marines and Michigan are battling for the third round crown in the American Division, and, in the National Division, the trio of hopeful teams consists of Iowa, Minnesota and Northwestern.
 Statistically, the Indians in the American Division of the majors and the Cardinals in the National Division face a play-off at the worst and have the second half championships sewn up at the best.
 The results through last Friday:

MINOR LEAGUES

White Sox	3	2	.750
Orioles	3	5	.375
Senators	3	5	.375
Yankees	3	5	.375
Athletics	1	7	.125

The Indians virtually cinched the championship in the American Division of the majors for the second half by remaining undefeated last week. They first blanked the Senators, 3 to 0. Winning pitcher Brian Kingsley (with help from Rick Mahon) yielding only 1 hit. Fielding honors went to Brian Kingsley also — this time backed up by Doug Mann — who converted a hard-hit ball by Bill Hemovich of the Senators into a simple out at first base. Chris Comlossy robbed Mike Torina of the winning team of a sure hit later in the game.
 Brian Kingsley also got credit for the Indians' defeat of the Athletics. Chris Mahon, Rick Mahon and Mike Torina got 3 hits each for the Indians.
 The White Sox held firmly onto their second place position (a come-down from their place as first-half champs in the American League) with 2 victories. Tom Bailey and Dave Wible got 3 hits apiece for the White Sox in their defeat of the Athletics. Bob Hummel, Carl Monaco and Mike Nivison got credit for a fine double play for the A's. Winning pitcher was Louie Bruno.
 Later in the week the White Sox turned 10 hits and 4 walks into an 11 to 1 suppression of the Yankees. Dave Wible was winning pitcher as teammates

Louie Bruno, Gary Verkeyn and Dave Wible contributed 6 of the 10 hits recorded by the White Sox.
 The Yankees did better earlier in the week when they took the high end of a narrow 6 to 5 game from the Orioles. Two homers were hit by Jim Bolton of the Yankees who pitched the first 3 innings. Dennis Setzer actually got credit for the win.
 The Orioles rebounded later in the week with a 14 to 1 defeat of the Senators. The Kennel brothers — Dave and Steve — each got a home run, both with 2 men on. Dave Kennel got credit for the win. Ted Kurtz topped the Senators' batters with 3 hits.
NATIONAL DIVISION

TEAM	W	L	PCT.
Cardinals	7	1	.875
Dodgers	5	3	.625
Pirates	5	3	.625
Giants	4	4	.500
Red Legs	2	6	.250
Braves	1	7	.125

 The Cardinals continued to dominate the National Division of the majors with 2 victories. Despite a slight edge in hits, the Giants lost to the Cards, 2 to 1. Tom Stack was the winning pitcher, but Mario Coraci was the day's best hitter.
 Mike Getz pitched the Cardinals to a 3 to 1 win over the Braves later in the week. Chuck Getz and Jan Sands cooperated on a double play — top fielding feat of the game. Vito Tocco got the Braves' only hit.
 The Red Legs won the second place Dodgers, 7 to 2. Fred Rohn not only pitched a winning game but added a homer to the Red Legs' string of hits. Other strong sluggers for the winning team were Bill Kennedy and Mark Jenkins. Terry Griffin also recorded a home run for the Dodgers.
 The Dodgers battered the Giants with 18 hits to win their second game of the week, 19 to 6. John Bell, Tom DuFour and John and Win Knight each got 3 hits for the Dodgers. Winning pitcher was Jim Hanley. The Giants recorded 2 homers — 1 each by Steve Katsaros and Mike Torlone.
 The Pirates also won 2 games last week to hook onto a share of second place in the National Division.
 They first squeaked by the Braves, 4 to 3. Don Hammond was winning pitcher and Larry Meathe, Jim Moore and Tim Page each got 2 hits in the contest.
 The Pirates' victory over the Red Legs was a more decisive 13 to 6. Winning pitcher was Marty Dulapa. Young Marty joined his teammates, Larry Meathe and Jim Moore, in getting 2 hits. Jeff Thomas hit two home runs for the Red Legs.

 Tuesday the Reds beat the Red Sox in a real squeaker, 4 to 3, with the winning run scored on a close play at the plate. Jim Parker was the winning pitcher, giving up only 3 hits and striking out 14. Two of the three hits were by Jim Van Eman, the Red Sox pitcher, a homer and a double. Van Eman struck out 12, but a homer by Lee Scott and a double by Jim Buda were the big blows for the Reds. In the other game the Yankees ran past the Tigers 15 to 12 with Jay Imsch the winning pitcher. John Schraush hit a homerun for the Yankees.
 Monday's rain-out games were played Wednesday with the Pirates edging the Indians 7 to 6. Tom Cameron, the winning pitcher, pitched his first complete major game and hit a double. Gary Hanks and Frank Kamper combined pitching duties for the Indians, and hitting as well with Hicks getting 3 hits, including 2 doubles and Kamper a homerun. Lindsey Trimm hit a double for the Pirates. In the other game, the Giants beat the Phils.
 Thursday the Red Sox defeated the Tigers 12 to 5 with Mike Gutfredson the winning pitcher. VanEman hit a grand slam home, while Wiley Campbell and Merta all hit doubles for the Red Sox. Tiger hitters were George Hubbard, a triple, and Allan Backman and Pete Bowers each a double. In the other game the Indians beat the Yankees 5 to 3 in seven innings with Frank Kamper getting the win. The Yanks scored a run in the sixth to tie the game at 2 to 2, but the Indians came back with 3 runs in the seventh to win the game.

REPORTS VANDALISM
 John Thord of 1701 East Jefferson, called Farms police on Thursday, July 1, and informed them that an unknown person kicked in the spokes of his bicycle wheels and let the air out of the bike tires. He said the two-wheeler was in the rack at the Richard School grounds when the incident occurred.

NO SOLUTION
 Pessimists spend their time looking for sympathy instead of trying to figure a way out.

Jeffrey G. Lorentz
At Camp Pendleton
 Marine Private First Class Jeffrey G. Lorentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lorentz, of 1985 Norwood drive, a member of the 1st Battalion 5th Marine Regiment of the 1st Marine Division, completed advanced combat training with his battalion May 6. The training was in preparation for his unit's displacement overseas to the 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa.
 Entire battalions in the transplacement system move as units from California to the Far East as part of a continuous training and replacement cycle. While in the Orient, the battalion will undergo mountain warfare and cold weather training in Japan, counterinsurgency warfare training on Okinawa and in the Republic of the Philippines and take part in amphibious operations throughout the Western Pacific.
 After approximately 12 months in the Far East, the battalion will return to Camp Pendleton for advanced mountain, desert and amphibious training.

Navy Lt. Ziolkowski
Awarded AF Medal
 Navy Lieutenant Junior Grade Gerald J. Ziolkowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Ziolkowski of 697 St. Clair avenue, has been awarded the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal for service off the coast of Viet Nam while serving aboard the U.S. Seventh Fleet's attack aircraft carrier USS Midway.
 Midway pilots have been making daily air strikes against communist military installations in North Viet Nam and Viet Cong concentrations in South Viet Nam.
 The Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal is awarded to servicemen in an area of operations for 30 or more consecutive days.

A SOB STORY
 At a Farms council meeting held on May 3, City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., was authorized to contract for the sodding of the area adjacent to the new swimming pool at a cost of $1,000. The contractor found he was unable to do the job for that amount. On Monday, May 24, the council approved the sodding of the area at a cost of $1,700.

RESPONSIBILITY
 Unless he holds a key position no man can expect to open the door to opportunity.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Do you remember our famous Carnival of Books last May 17? And do you particularly remember our many, many, heli-um-filled balloons? Chris Hughes (son of Mrs. Sue Hughes of our Processing Department) and a buddy, Gary Lehner, decided to launch theirs into outer space, with a message attached. They were especially interested in knowing how far one of these balloons could travel, and if the finder would communicate. And she did! All the way from McDonald, Pennsylvania (the re-entry point!) came a letter from 17-year-old Carol Zarnick whose father had found one of our gas-filled Grosse Pointe Public Library spheres resting in the hay field, somewhat more jaded than when released but still bearing its identification and message. Chris and Gary are elated at the success of their venture. They may have no romantic notions (as yet) towards 17-year-old girls, but they each have older brothers, so all sorts of interesting corollaries may yet develop! And think of the publicity our Library received!

We should have warned you that this Column was going to be a portmouir of this and that—mostly bordering on human interest. Recently one of the girls in our Circulation Department suggested that I remind all readers of our Lost and Found "Department." Many unusual things appear all year long, and so many of them are never claimed. It has occurred to us that many of you don't realize that we do set aside all lost articles for quite a long period of time, with the hope that the owners will come in and ask about them.

What sort of things do we amass? You name it—we have it (or have had it at one time or another). Eye glasses, toys, notebooks, school books, purses (we have one right now filled with many interesting objects—better look around and see if yours is missing!) And in the realm of clothing we list mittens (especially during the winter season) and gloves (rights and lefts, and in variety of colors), jewelry, coats, boots (how do people get home without them on a snowy day?)

One of my colleagues urges me, as long as I'm having this many non sequiturs, to remind all patrons using the DocuStat to be sure to remove their original copy of the material being duplicated from the machine before leaving. It is easy to forget—I've almost done it several times. But we imagine that the original is usually just as important as the docuStat copy, so please take it with you when you leave.

Two new (to me) amusing requests came to us recently. A breathless, hot-faced junior high youngster rushed in and asked one of our Assistants for "The Scarlet Pumpernickel." Another, with a more classical, but misguided, urge, wanted Homer's "Idiot." You see? Never a dull moment!

From Another Pointe of View

Now, as we promised you last week, here's more about the Minstrel Cruise benefiting Bon Secours Hospital:

General chairman of the July 15 party is Mrs. John K. Busch, of Lochmoor boulevard. Assistant chairman is Mrs. Russell Van Houten, and committee members include the Mesdames Hamilton Kotcher, L. D. Browning and Toby David.

You'll be able to tell the husbands of these lovely ladies, and of other party workers, by their Cruise-night "costumes." The men will be all decked out in sailor straw hats and red and white vests, as befits a Minstrel evening.

This is the fourth year for the Cruise, the first year it has had a Minstrel theme, (the three previous summer parties were Calypso Cruises—but after three years, the committee ladies decided a change in tempo was in order).

Not everything is "different" this year, however. The complimentary champagne Bon Voyage toast will still be served on the Bob-Lo dock, sailing time is still 7:30 o'clock, a buffet dinner will be served during the moonlight ride, and of course there will be dancing.

But instead of limbo and calypso entertainment, guests will be invited to sing along with banjo-playing Father Joseph Dustin, (if they'd rather just listen, Father Dustin is quite capable of holding forth on his own).

Among those with early reservations for next Thursday's party are Dr. and Mrs. Richard Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. John Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Don T. Galvin, Jr.

Pamela Waterman Married To Mr. Gale

Newlyweds Canoeing in Minnesota and Canada; Bride Wears Traditional Gown of Ivory Peau de Soie and Lace and Tulle Mantilla

At an afternoon ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday, Pamela Whitney Waterman was married to Christopher Gale.

The Reverend Bertram deHeus Atwood officiated at the 4:30 o'clock rites.

A reception, at the Touraine road home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, followed the marriage service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, fashioned with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and Chapel train.

Tiny pearls and crystal beads frosted her midriff band, and her mantilla veil was formed of Alencon lace and tulle. She carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. David B. Bingham, of New York, was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids were two other sisters, Mary Stevens Waterman and Sallie Cameron Waterman, and Mary Dickinson Gale, sister of the bridegroom.

They wore blue linen sleeveless dresses, styled with scoop necklines, fitted bodices and floor length A-line skirts, and carried bouquets of shasta daisies and lily.

Flower girl Lisa B. Vandervee wore a white organdy dress, appliqued with white organdy flowers, and a blue headband, matching the color of the attendants' frocks.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Bryant T. Gale, of Crabapple

Island, Fox Lake, Ill., and the late Mr. Gale, asked Robert C. MacLaurin, of Lincoln, Mass., to act as best man.

Seating the guests were David B. Gale, Jon E. M. Jacoby, Irving H. LaValle, of Brighton, Mass., Alfred H. Gray, of Brookline, Mass., and David B. Bingham.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of turquoise silk piped in lavender, and a matching hat, while the bridegroom's mother chose a pink linen dress. After a canoe trip in Minnesota and Canada, the couple will be at home in Wellesley, Mass.

The bride attended Miss Hall's School, Connecticut College and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. She was presented to society at a ball at the Little Club.

Her husband's schools are John Burroughs, in St. Louis, Mo., Harvard College and Harvard Business School, where he is presently a research associate and is completing requirements for the degree of Doctor of Business Administration.

He is a member of the permanent class committee and class treasurer for his class at Harvard College, and was awarded the National Merit, Harvard National Honorary and Harvard College scholarships.

Jones-Jensen Rites Celebrated Sunday

Home in Shawnee Mission, Kans., Awaits Newlyweds Upon Their Return from Bermuda; Country Club Reception Follows Rites

Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Karen Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Murray Jensen, of Stonehurst road, and Randal McGregor Jones.

Reverend Richard Knight officiated at the 2:30 o'clock rites.

The bride wore a gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace, fashioned with an inserted yoke of lace forming a portrait neckline, elbow length sleeves and a lace-frosted sheath skirt accented by bouffant draped side folds flowing into a chapel train.

Her short illusion veil fell from a pillbox made from a four-generation heirloom lace handkerchief, and she carried a bouquet of daisies and ivy on an heirloom prayerbook.

A farthing in her shoe completed the "something borrowed, something blue" tradition.

Carol A. Condon, of Arlington Heights, Ill., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederik W. Jensen and Mrs. Milton B. Lambert, of Cincinnati, O., the bridegroom's sister.

They wore floor length Empire frocks of yellow linen trimmed with flower braid and piped with moss green satin.

and matching linen pillbox hats. Their bouquets were arrangements of daisies and ivy.

Mr. Jones, son of Mrs. E. Craig Lovett, of Indian Hills, Cincinnati, O., and the late Edwin McGregor Jones, asked Robert M. McNaughten, of Columbus, O., to serve as best man.

Seating the guests were Wendell C. McCullough, of Toledo, O., Dr. Milton B. Lambert and Douglas C. Lovett, of Cincinnati, and the bride's twin brothers, Frederik W. Jensen, of Neenah, Wis., and Nels M. Jensen, of Grand Rapids.

A reception at the Country Club of Detroit followed the ceremony. The mother of the bride wore a green Italian silk sheath with a matching jacket, while the bridegroom's mother chose a gown of champagne peau de soie trimmed with Alencon lace, and a matching pillbox hat.

The newlyweds will live in Shawnee Mission, Kans., when they return from a Bermuda holiday.

Mrs. Randal M. Jones

KAREN JENSEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Murray Jensen, of Stonehurst road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Jones at a Saturday ceremony in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. He is the son of Mrs. E. Craig Lovett, of Indian Hills, Cincinnati, O., and the late Edwin McGregor Jones.

Mrs. Dennis J. Perkins

BONNIE SUZANNE WILLINGHAM, daughter of the Donald Willinghams, of Fairway avenue, became the bride of Mr. Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Perkins, of Ballantyne road, at a Saturday service in Christ Methodist Church.

Bonnie Willingham Marries Mr. Perkins

Couple to Reside in Kettering, O., upon Their Return from Northern Michigan; Bride Wears White Peau de Soie Gown

A reception at the Detroit Yacht Club followed the noon service Saturday, in Christ Methodist Church, at which Bonnie Suzanne Willingham spoke her marriage vows to Dennis James Perkins.

Dr. Verner S. Mumblock officiated at the 12 o'clock rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Willingham, of Fairway avenue, wore an antique white peau de soie gown, accented with seed pearls and Alencon lace. Her bell-shaped skirt swept into a chapel train.

A pearl-encrusted crown held her silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of stephanotis, white orchids and ivy.

Judith Willingham, of Passaic Park, N.J., was her sister's honor attendant, in a long Empire sheath dress of ice-mint beausais crepe.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Judy Perkins, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. James Blacketter and Sue Sellheim.

Their headpieces were petal-veiled Dior bows, and they carried cascades of miniature Fuji mums and ivy.

David Perkins served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Perkins, of Ballantyne road.

Head usher was the bride's brother, Donald G. Willingham, of San Gabriel, Calif., assisted by James Blacketter, Douglas Martin, Craig Schley and William Kaake.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Willingham chose a draped, printed chiffon sheath in blue and green shades, and a large veiled marine hat with a bouffant crown. She pinned green cymbidium orchids to her white, beaded bag.

Mrs. Perkins wore a pink silk linen sheath with a jeweled neckline and a small flowered hat. She pinned a white orchid to her handbag.

The newlyweds will live in Kettering, O., when they return from a Northern Michigan vacation.

To Marry

Dances Planned By 'Other Side'

Grosse Pointe's teen age dance-a-drome "The Other Side" will open its air-conditioned ballroom overlooking Lake St. Clair, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial twice during July. The first date is Tuesday, July 13, the second, Saturday, July 17. The hours will be from 8:30 to 11:30.

Those coming to "The Other Side" must be Grosse Pointers who in September will be in grades 10 through 12 or those who just have graduated in June from grade 12. They must be able to prove this by Student Association Card or other identification.

The parties will be chaperoned by parents of the Center's Youth Council assisted by Grosse Pointe Police.

Admission is 75 cents a person, whether guests come stag or in dating couples. Drinks and chips will be served for 10 cents. Dress is summer casual. Smoking will be permitted—but only in the lobby to prevent damaging the dance floor. The limit which can be accommodated is 500. Doors will not open until 8 p.m.

Carlo Cignani Born Bologna, 1628
THE FIVE SENSES
Original Oil Painting
Size Inc. Frame, 6'7" x 5'8"

Carlo Cignani, a distinguished painter of noble birth. Entered the Academy of Francesco Albani, and became his most celebrated disciple. Employed by Cardinal Farnese to paint for the great Palace of Bologna, where he painted "Entry of Pope Paul III into Bologna", and "Passage of Francis". He was knighted by The Duke of Ranuccio II for his fine works. He painted "Hagar and Ishmael" for the King of Poland and "The Descent from the Cross" for Louis XIV. Berlin, Copenhagen, Florence, Vienna, Hampton Court, etc., are represented by his paintings. This is an extremely fine old master painting, and very desirable and speculative.

Miss Phillips Says Vows In St. Paul's

Newlyweds Sailing to Europe, where they will Cruise through the Greek Islands; to Make their Home in Birmingham

Gail Ann Phillips chose a gown of crystal white dulcette satin and Alencon lace, accented with seed pearls and iridescent crystal clusters, for her marriage
Saturday, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, to Jay James Jodway.

The Reverend Andrew Nieckarz officiated at the 12:30 o'clock double ring ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast at Little Harry's Restaurant and an evening reception at the Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Diamond T. Phillips, of Lakeshore road. Her gown featured a crescent-curved decolletage, underscored with a garland of Alencon flowers and a Court train.

A double diadem of aurora crystals, inlaid with satin leaves, held her tiered veil of silk illusion.

She carried a small bouquet of white roses and trailing ivy, centered with a cut crystal rosary which she had had blessed by the Pope during a visit to Rome.

Mrs. Eugene Stys was matron of honor, in an opaline pink cock of sheer mousseline de sine over taffeta, combined with point de Venise lace.

In identical gowns, satin banding defining their Empire waistlines, were the bridesmaids, Joyce Jodway, the bridegroom's sister, Betty Crown, Barbara
Boyd, Lee Hayes and Bobbi Shugley. Terry Wishman was flower girl.

The attendants wore crowns of aurora crystals circled with satin veils and carried deep red happiness roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Victor H. Jodway, of Three Mile drive, Detroit, asked William H. Fuller, Jr., to act as best man.

Ushering were James Jodway, brother of the bridegroom, Douglas Phillips, brother of the bride, Lawrence Miller, Donald Eland and Sal Saputo.

Mrs. Diamond Phillips chose a yellow floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace with matching accessories. Mrs. Victor Jodway wore a floor length blue gown accented with seed pearls and light blue sequins, and matching accessories.

For traveling, the bride chose a white Chanel summer suit embrodered with gold thread, and white accessories.

The newlyweds are traveling to Europe aboard the S.S. Anna Maria. After a holiday there, including a cruise in the Greek Islands, they will return to make their home in Birmingham,
Mich.

THIEF TAKES SADDLES

Two English saddles, valued at $200 each, were stolen from the stable of James A. Reynolds of Warrenton, Va., at the Hunt Club. Woods police were informed by Richard Martin, also of Warrenton. Martin told police that he went to the clubhouse for breakfast, and when he returned to the stable, discovered the saddles, gone.

Police are investigating.

The golden rule is something one-half the people think the other half should observe.

Mrs. J. J. Jodway

At a Saturday ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, GAIL ANN PHILLIPS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Diamond T. Phillips, of Lakeshore road, became the bride of Mr. Jodway, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Victor H. Jodway, of Three Mile drive, Detroit.

Mrs. John Critton Bell

MARION LUCILLE BAILEY and Mr. Bell exchanged marriage vows June 25, in Bethany Christian Church, Detroit. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert W. Bailey, of Brys drive. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, of Algonac.

Bell-Bailey Nuptials Celebrated June 25

Couple to Live in Big Rapids while they Complete Studies at Ferris State College; Travel to Upper Peninsula

A gown of organza and Chantilly lace, styled with a Sabrina neckline, long, pointed sleeves and a Chapel train, was Marion Lucille Bailey's choice for her June 25 wedding.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Bailey, of Brys drive, became the bride of John Critton Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, of Algonac, Mich., at a 7 o'clock service in Bethany Christian Church, Detroit.

Reverend Kenneth Brady, of Wabash, Ind., officiated at the evening rites. A reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the ceremony.

A crown of organza and crystals secured the bride's bouffant silk illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of white orchids and white carnations.

Mrs. John Oldencamp was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Margie Ballentyne, of Bad AX, Mich., and Linda Bell, the bridegroom's sister, Renee Oldencamp, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

The attendants wore light blue floor length gowns, and horsehair and lily of the valley caplets, with bouffant veils.

Their flowers were blue and white chrysanthemums.

Don Nelson, of Iron Mountain, Mich., served as best man.
Ushering were Wayne Kratch, of Port Huron, and James Bell,
the bridegroom's cousin.

For her daughter's wedding,
Mrs. Bailey chose an embroidered pink organza sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Bell wore a pink silk sheath, with matching accessories.

Both mothers wore corsages of pink and white roses.
After a trip through Michigan's Upper Peninsula, the newlyweds will make their home in Big Rapids, Mich., while completing their studies at Ferris State College.

Meadow Brook Presents Stern

The great violinist Isaac Stern will be soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under Sixteen Ehrling's direction for Oakland University's opening Meadow Brook Festival concerts Thursday, Friday and Saturday (July 8-9-10), at 8:30 p.m. in the Howard C. Baldwin
Memorial Pavilion.

Stern will play the Dvorak

Concerto in A minor on the Thursday-Friday program and the Brahms Concerto in D major Saturday night.

Ehrling's program Thursday and Friday will include Beethoven's Overture "Leonore" No.
3, Alcantara's Symphony No. 39 in E flat major (K 543), and Ravel's Suite No. 2 from the Ballet "Daphnis et Chloe."

Saturday's orchestral offerings will include Tchaikovsky's
Symphony No. 6 in B minor ("Pathétique").

Concertgoers to this year's six week 18-concert Festival series will be able to enjoy buffet service in the newly finished Trumbull Terrace, gift of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull of Bloomfield Hills. Permanent seats have been installed in the Pavilion with a grant from The Kresge Foundation.

Ehrling, who returned from an extensive tour of Europe as guest conductor last Thursday, will begin rehearsals for the Festival this week. He will serve both as music director of the Festival this summer and as director of Oakland's new Meadow Brook School of Music which opens July 6 to a capacity enrollment of 400 students.
Robert Shaw, noted associate conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra, will serve as head of the schools Institute for Choral Studies.

Grounds admission tickets for the Festival's opening concerts are available at the University at $1. A few Pavilion seats at $3 are also available.

Miss Taylor Speaks Vows To Mr. Buyan

Papal Blessing Bestowed Upon Couple During Rites in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore Saturday; Country Club Reception Follows Ceremony

Jill Ann Taylor was the eighth bride in her family to wear, mantilla style, an heirloom Cathedral length veil of Battenberg lace.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Taylor, of Dean Lane, chose an Empire gown of ecru peau de soie, fashioned with a portrait neckline, long sleeves and a Chapel train, for her marriage Saturday morning, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, to Jon Robert Buyan.

Award Degrees At Marygrove

Among those receiving their bachelor's degrees from Marygrove College June 6 were nine young women from Grosse Pointe.

Marie Pierre Wayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Wayne, of Woods Lane, was one of five students to graduate "Magna cum laude," and was thereby among the seven top students in the entire graduating class. The "Magna cum laude" honor required that a student obtain an average grade of at least 2.75 out of a possible perfect 3.00.

Miss Wayne majored in Mathematics and also received her teaching certificate. A member of the campus mathematics club, she worked with orphanage book and drama and missions groups as part of the Marygrove Social Action Program.

She was social chairman on the Student Council, and was elected to Iota Gamma Alpha, the Marygrove leadership honor society. Miss Wayne is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, the national undergraduate honor society.

Miss Wayne expects to teach elementary school during the coming year, and work part time on an advanced degree in Educational Psychology at Wayne State University. She is a graduate of Dominican High School, Detroit.

Mrs. Jon Robert Buyan

In St. Paul's on the Lakeshore Saturday morning, JILL ANN TAYLOR, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Taylor, of Dean Lane, was married to Mr. Buyan. He is the son of the John Buysans, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moran and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arner.

Also on board will be the Joseph McQuillens, who have done yeoman party-planning service, Mr. McQuillen especially. He's Cruise cashier.

Off for San Mateo

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Collins and their children, Susan, 3½, and Martha, 1, will be at home in San Mateo, Calif., near San Francisco, at the end of this month, and our own emotions are mixed: We are sad, (for ourselves), and delighted, (for them).

Bob Collins, transferred to the West Coast, left The Pointe several weeks ago. Betty and the children and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alvin Collins, who came from her home in St. Simon's Island, Ga., to help with the packing and transporting, depart next Thursday.

"We're going by Wagon Train," Betty laughs. Actually, the two Mrs. Collinses and the girls will make the cross-country trip by car, (with a three-and-a-half and a one-year-old along, Wagon Train might be easier!).

For Betty, our favorite "stand-in," (she worked regularly at the NEWS before Susan was born, and has written this column herself many times during our vacations), going to San Francisco is like "coming home."

Her first post-college job was on a San Francisco newspaper. She has always loved the City by the Bay, and has many friends there. She is anxious to see Bob, and the house that he picked out—but she is sorry to be leaving her house in McKinley Avenue, and her good friends in The Pointe.

She'll be back, though, as often as she can, to visit her mother, Mrs. Paul Giffin, and Mr. Giffin, of Moran Road, and to check on everyone and everything in Grosse Pointe.

News from Huron City

Reverend Paul F. Ketchum, former Assistant Minister of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, now Minister of Mt. Eliot Presbyterian Church, Lowell, Mass., will preach at the Hubbard Phelps Memorial Chapel, Huron City, Mich., on Sunday, July 18, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Ketchum will arrive Friday, July 16, in Huron City, where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Lucas, of East Jefferson Avenue, in "Seven Gables," the summer home for 40 years of Professor and Mrs. William Lyon Phelps.

Mrs. Phelps was the daughter of Langdon Hubbard, pioneer settler in Huron City, and the sister of the late Frank W. Hubbard, of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Lucas is Langdon Hubbard's granddaughter.

She has been instrumental in restoring the City as it was during her parents' and grandparents' days.

Mr. Ketchum was one of the first guest preachers at the Chapel, (made famous years ago by Yale Professor Phelps), after it was reopened by the William Lyon Phelps Foundation some 10 years ago.

He has returned to Huron City each summer when he has not been travelling abroad.

Last summer, Mr. Ketchum was in Japan, the summer before that in Norway . . . and this summer he will be off across the ocean again; he leaves Monday, July 19, for Portugal.

Barbara Jean Nienstedt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nienstedt, of Mt. Vernon Road, received her B.A. degree with a major in Psychology. Miss Nienstedt also took her teaching certificate. She was a member of the campus psychology club, and served as president of the Student Education Association.

Miss Nienstedt intends to teach kindergarten during the coming year. She is a graduate of St. Paul High School, Grosse Pointe.

Janet Carol Rumora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew G. Rumora, of Moran Road, was awarded her B.A. degree with a major in Art.

A member of the campus Art Club, Miss Rumora also served as club secretary. She plans to work as an interior designer. She is a graduate of St. Paul High School, Grosse Pointe.

Phyllis Ann Stemmelen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stemmelen, of Hampton Road, received her B.A. with a major in psychology. Miss Stemmelen also was granted her teaching certificate.

She was a member of the campus psychology club, and served as secretary and vice-chairman of the Marygrove Social Action Program. She was a secretary of the Sodality, and worked in the Social Action Program with catechism and book and drama society. She is a graduate of Regina High School, Harper Woods.

Miss Stemmelen was elected to Iota Gamma Alpha, the Marygrove leadership honor group.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frazzitta, of Warren, Mich., announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Donald Bruce Straith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Straith, of Audubon Road.

Mr. Straith is a graduate of the University of Michigan. An early September wedding is planned.

Seek Founders Society Patrons

Two members of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts Patron Membership committee, MRS. GAYLORD W. GILLIS, JR., of Merriweather Road, met in the museum's Kresge Court recently to plan the first in a series of invitational events for Patron Members of the Founders Society. From 6 until 8 o'clock next Thursday evening, July 15, Patrons will be invited to see highlights of the museum's collection, enjoy cocktails in the Rivera Court and watch demonstrations of graphics, ceramics and mixed media by prominent local artists. The committee hopes to enroll a number of new Patrons, who contribute $100 annual membership dues to the Founders Society, before July 15 to make them eligible to attend this event.

Newlywed Lafers Travel To Bermuda

Reception in Bishop Road Home of Bride's Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Bradshaw, follows Saturday Marriage Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. William Buttolph Lafer will make their home in St. Clair Shores upon their return from a Bermuda wedding trip.

They were married Saturday, at an evening ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Reverend Bertram deH. Atwood officiated at the 8:30 o'clock rites.

Mrs. Lafer is the former Harriett Foster Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Bradshaw, of Bishop road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lafer, of Oxford road.

For her marriage, the former Miss Bradshaw chose an Empire gown of ivory peau de soie, styled with a scoop neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and bow-accented waist.

She wore her mother's veil of heirloom silk Belgian lace, and carried a bouquet of phloxes, anemones, stephanotis and ivy.

Matron of honor Mrs. Pau Decker wore a floor length gown of yellow linen, with moss green velvet ribbon accenting her Empire waist, and a matching velvet bow headpiece.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Mrs. Robert Piper, Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Frederick Rhodes, of Short Hills, N.J.

They carried cascade bouquets of ivy, smilax and assorted greens, with an accent of yellow roses in the honor attendant's arrangement.

John E. Lafer was best man, and ushering were James A. Lafer, Jr., Frederick W. Bissinger, Charles R. Brooks, Edgar

Slate Preview For 'Art: USA'

A champagne reception from 8 to 9 o'clock Friday, July 9, will give members of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts and their friends a preview of "Art: USA," the S. C. Johnson collection of 102 paintings by contemporary artists, which will be open to the public at the museum from July 10 through August 1.

Mrs. Graham John Graham, of Bloomfield Hills, is chairman of the reception, sponsored by the Women's Committee of the Founders Society. She will be assisted by Mrs. James H. Carmel, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Allan Sheldon, III, of Provençal road.

A special guest at the reception will be Joseph B. Messing, curator of "Art: USA." Since the fall of 1962, when the collection was organized, Messing has traveled with the exhibition to London, Athens, Rome, Munich, Monaco, Berlin, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Milan, Brussels, Dublin, Lucerne, Paris and Vienna.

This tour, which drew more than 300,000 visitors, was under the auspices of the United States Information Agency.

During the Johnson collection's Detroit appearance, Messing will present a study series of three coordinated weekly gallery talks and will also conduct general tours of the exhibition. The collection began its American tour in December, 1964, at the Corcoran Gallery, of Art, Washington, D.C.

July Activities Slated At DYC

The's no such thing as "Summer Slump" at the Detroit Yacht Club, where things will be happening every week in July and August.

Club juniors are invited to jerk and drag on the Club's outdoor dance floor, Starlite Circle, tomorrow evening, July 9, from 9 o'clock until midnight. Music-makers will be The Underdogs.

Frank Sidney's big seven-piece orchestra will be featured at Starlite Circle Saturday evening, July 24. Dancing will begin at 8:30 o'clock, and formal summer dress is the suggested attire.

The Wheel's all-Club Hawaiian Hukilau cocktail party is scheduled Saturday, July 31, from 6 until 8 o'clock, around the DYC pool. Entertainment will include Hawaiian dancers.

DYC's biggest nights of the year, Venetian Nights, are planned for August 13 and 14, and many members already have made reservations for these midsummer festivities.

Questers Form New Chapter

The organizational meeting of the newly formed "Grand Marais" chapter of The Questers was held June 7 at the East Jefferson avenue home of Mrs. John McKay.

The membership, including the 17 charter members, selected Mrs. Urban Borech, president; Mrs. F. M. Tousey, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Merrill, vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. Mark Littler, secretary; and Mrs. Edward Bunn, program chairman.

Mrs. William Krebs was appointed club historian; Mrs. C. G. Egan, By-Laws chairman; and Mrs. John MacKay, publicity chairman.

The purpose of The Questers is to further a knowledge and appreciation of antiques of all types, and the chapter's name "Grand Marais" was selected because of its local historical interest.

The Grand Marais area was called "Grand Marais" or "Big Swamp," by early French settlers.

Strive to be a winner and you'll never find fault with the referee's decisions.

265 BEAUPRE, a four-bedroom colonial which effervesces with charm from every nook and cranny. Paneled living room and library, and old barn beams. Why not see for yourself?

Purdy & Edgar

100 KERCHEVAL TU 4-2228

EXECUTIVE home on Lake St. Clair. Large lot. Close to transportation, yet secluded. 6 bedrooms and servant's quarters on second floor. Store room and 2 bedrooms on 3rd floor. Apartment size elevator. By owner. Tuxedo 2-6513.

FIRST ADVERTISED

IF YOU HAVE always had a penchant for a sparkling white colonial with a center hall, plan, then this could fill the bill. This three bedroom charmer sits on a comfortable lot of 75 feet frontage. There is a large covered and screened porch which stretches across the rear of the house and is entered from both the kitchen and the living room. Centrally located in the heart of the Farms.

ENJOY THE EASE of first floor living yet have those extra rooms up if ever needed. This new offering is on Cook Road, within a few minutes walk to four schools. The house has a total of four bedrooms with full bathrooms on both floors. There is a large family room which ties in with the "living kitchen". This one is so spit and polish you'll have only the movers to blame if you find any flaws.

NEAR WINDMILL POINTE DRIVE is the setting for this larger English house which boasts five bedrooms on the second floor. In this area most of the neighboring homes are priced or have sold for thousands more than the $49,500 we are quoting. First floor features a step-down living room, modern kitchen, and family room plus library.

THE FRENCH had a flair for many things including architecture. We are now offering a larger home with six bedrooms and nestled on a dead end street which leads to the lake. The interesting floor plan calls for a large gallery, from which all the social rooms enter. Recently completely redone in light, airy tones.

TOWN HOUSE living in the center of the suburbs. Kiss goodbye the time consuming chores of lawn care and snow shoveling, yet truly own a "house" of your own. For $32,500 you can purchase such a place, with a total of five bedrooms and 3 1/2 baths. There is also an extra first floor den with its fireplace.

LEWISTON ROAD, long gone are the present owners of this charming house which rests on a double lot. Its five family rooms haven't had anyone overnight in several months. In the paneled, step-down dining room no man has come to dinner. The tremendous cocktail-party-sized terrace hasn't had a drink spilled on it since last summer. Give us the opportunity to show you the many details of this fine house... you might just want to stay a while.

Feature Page

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

The Grosse Pointe Theater's . . . annual awards dinner-dance was as delightful this year as it has been in the past. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Porter, of Hampton road, entertained a few friends in their home at cocktails before proceeding to Lochmoor Club for the party, where Mrs. Porter, lovely in an oyster satin gown with a jeweled bodice, was honored with a "Clarence" for her performance as Maggie in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" . . .

"Clarences," presented each year, were named in honor of Grosse Pointe Theater's first production, "Clarence," in 1948. This year's presentations included two extra awards for outstanding members. A life membership was given to Robert Koebel, of Hampton road, and Dr. John Pericin, of Ballantyne road, received a tributary award for his contribution as musical conductor of all the Theater's musical shows . . .

"Clarence" winners included Dean Erskine, of St. Clair Shores, best director; Mrs. Porter, best actress; Henry Houston, of East Jefferson avenue, best actor; James Fielding, of Three Mile drive, best supporting actor; Mrs. Raymond Trudel, of Frazier, best supporting actress; Tom Stein, of Kenmore drive, best non-featured actor; Mrs. Donald Meier, of St. Clair Shores, best non-featured actress; Mrs. Don Franklin, of St. Clair Shores, best producer; and David Hadden, of Meadow lane, and Mrs. Joseph Kinney, of Belanger road, best stage managers . . .

others winning "Clarences" were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Brownell, of Washington road, and Charles Chrisman, of Anita avenue, workers of the year. Mr. Chrisman was also cited as the year's best technical director for his work in "See How They Run." He began set construction on "Run" early in September and worked without pause in a wide variety of theatrical endeavors through June, when he operated lights at the Season Review for Grosse Pointe Theater members and guests. At the awards party, Chuck was heard to comment on his double honor: "Now I have 'Clarences' in stereo . . . one for each speaker" . . .

more "Clarence" winners were Carol Kennedy, of McKinley avenue, best set dressing; Howard Rochte, of Roslyn road, best lighting; Margaret Reed, of Ridge road, and Jean Schrader, of South Oxford road, best make-up; and Robert Yeager, of Yorkshire road, best properties . . .

but the very best award, (and reward), went to the entire membership for their successful season—the first season when a majority of the performances were sold out. Next season's play bill is to be announced soon. For the first time, Grosse Pointe Theater will present two musical comedies, the first scheduled for November, (inquiries regarding the season may be addressed to 32 Lakeshore road) . . .

the final award was Dean Erskine's presentation of the gavel to the Theater's newly elected president, Mrs. Robert Shepard, of Van Antwerp road. Serving on next season's Board of Directors are Ronald Freiderich, of Rivard boulevard, vice-president; Ann Young, of St. Clair avenue, secretary; Arthur Brownell, of Washington road, treasurer; John Diebel, of Wellington place, public relations; Mrs. Don Franklin, of St. Clair Shores, house; Margaret Reed, of Ridge road, membership; Mrs. Georgia Harrison, of Detroit, workshop; and Larry Marco, of East Emory court, production . . .

incidentally, we'd like to nominate Mrs. Jack Petz, of Lakeshore avenue, for a special award. Mrs. Petz was social chairman and vice-president of the past season and coordinator of the Lochmoor Club party. She and Mrs. Robert Yeager presented a dramatically beautiful picture as they chatted together at the awards dinner. Mrs. Petz in an Empire gown of mocha damask. Mrs. Yeager in a sheath of flame raw silk.

League Plans Fashionscope

Everyone is invited to purchase tickets now for Fashionscope, Fall '65, the 13th annual Junior League Fashion Show, scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday, September 14 and 15, at 7:30 o'clock, at the J. L. Hudson Company's downtown auditorium.

Chairman of this year's Fashionscope committee is Mrs. Theodore H. Mecke, Jr. Her assistant chairman is Mrs. Raymond R. White, Jr.

Other committee members are Mrs. Thomas A. Garred, patroness tickets; Mrs. Charles L. Taylor, general tickets; Mrs. Charles E. Slough, Junior League tickets; Mrs. E. Lloyd Ecclestone, Jr., arrangements; and Mrs. Frederick F. Fardon, publicity.

As always, Fashionscope will be a Detroit fall fashion "first," a showing of the Motor City's most comprehensive collection of new fashions co-sponsored by the J. L. Hudson Company and the Junior League of Detroit.

Madelyn Coe, Hudson's Fashion Co-ordinator, will co-ordinate and commentate the show. Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., president of the Junior League of Detroit, and Mrs. Mecke will be present to introduce Miss Coe. Tea will follow the fashion presentation.

Patroness tickets, at $10 each, may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Garred at 885-5859. Mrs. Taylor, at 882-9112, is the lady to contact for general tickets, at $3 each. Mrs. Mecke will also be happy to send out tickets; her number is 885-2835.

Money raised from the community through Fashionscope and other Junior League fund-raising events is always returned to the community through a Junior League project or activity.

Among current Junior League of Detroit projects and activities is the Poison Control Center; the League is helping to extend the existing facilities of the Poison Control Center at Children's Hospital of Michigan and is providing an educational program geared around "poison prevention" for all of metropolitan Detroit.

Other activities are the School Volunteer Project, (the League provides volunteers who work directly with teachers to supplement the students' academic and cultural experiences), Art to the Schools, (the League provides Art Institute slides and lectures for school children), the Glee Club, which sings in nursing homes, hospitals and schools, and Young People's Concerts, (the League provides money to buy tickets for children who otherwise would be unable to attend).

Pointers of Interest

MR. AND MRS. FRANK J. SLADEN, JR., OF BRIARCLIFF DR.

By Anne Boynton

For Betty and Frank Sladen, happiness is spontaneity, and they certainly can't hide the evidence. And that the new Headmaster of The Liggett School and his wife have not let exhaustion undo their termless enthusiasm is beyond reason considering what they have accomplished this past year.

Besides making the personal adjustments involved in moving back to Grosse Pointe, (they lived here until 1956 when they were beckoned to Harrisburg, Pa.), they have had to endure the problems connected with the moving of Liggett, from its old Indian Village location in Burns avenue, to its present placement in Briarcliff drive, Grosse Pointe Woods.

As a couple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sladen, Jr., ideally complement each other, especially with respect to the unique situation they have implemented at Liggett. For as they will tell you, they hope Liggett will provide not only independent education via the classroom, but also a homey and social atmosphere that is often lost in education today. "One problem," Frank offered, "is social activities at an all-girls' school."

Their Home Explains

Just how Headmaster Sladen meant that originally off-the-record comment is indicated in the Sladens' spacious home, and especially in the recreation room. This particular room, with its pool and ping-pong tables, its cozy bench and chair arrangement over the braided rug in front of the fireplace, and its soda-pop stocked bar complete with about 60 matching mugs, would delight any girl's date. "And the rug can easily be rolled up for dancing when the boys come," (the lights dim, too girls), said the lovely gray-haired Mrs. Sladen. At the Sladens' invitation also, the senior girls bring their lunches over to the house twice a week, and the other three days are devoted to the rest of the Upper School.

The Sladens, not having children of their own, feel somewhat "predestined" as Mrs. S. put it, to take care of others' youngsters. Therefore, neither Frank or Betty's interest is limited to the classroom.

Residence Is Memorial

It extends to their personal home, given by Ernest Kanzler in memory of Josephine Clay Kanzler. The house, which is directly adjacent to the school, is a copy of the George Wythe house found on the palace green in Williamsburg. It was built so that every room opens up onto another in order to accommodate the girls and faculty who are welcome at any time, and the crowds of up to 150, for which Mrs. Sladen often finds herself preparing. The decorating was done in true Williamsburg fashion, also at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Sladen.

The importance of a homey atmosphere, found throughout both their home and the school, (they are trying to grow pink geranium trees in the front windows), is revealed in Mr. Sladen's view of family life, stated in a pamphlet put out by the Liggett Tomorrow Fund. "There has never been any other social unit devised that can compare with the home. Here children can develop with the courage to meet the principal emergencies of life bravely and intelligently, and with the personal integrity required for active and aggressive leadership in both meeting and solving these problems."

It is obvious that family and background are important to both the Sladens. Mr. S. was born in Detroit, and moved to the Pointe in 1945 with his parents. Both Dr. and Mrs. Sladen Sr. are active residents of Lincoln road. Dr. Sladen, former Physician-in-Chief of the Henry Ford Hospital, still serves in the capacity of medical consultant. His wife keeps up her interest in the District Nursing Society and both are active in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Their two daughters, Mrs. Rowland L. Hall, of Winnetka, Ill., and Mrs. John H. Wardwell, of Midland, Mich., are both Liggett graduates.

Native of Maine

Born in Maine, Mrs. Sladen grew up in Iowa. She attended Cornell College, Boston University and the Teachers College of Columbia University, and was a pupil of Richard McClanahan in New York City. Director of Music in the public schools of Bucksport and Brewer, Maine, she soon decided that the rural school children should be exposed to some music education. She bought a Model A Ford which was the only car which could handle the roads in the area. As it was, she could only make it to the rural schools during the fall and spring because in the winter the roads disappeared! She later directed music at the Riverside Country School for Girls in N.Y.

Frank, Jr. received his secondary education at Detroit University School where he was a member of the Bi-county Basketball Team, and a class C and D state tennis champ.

Lost Leg in War

He continued his education at Yale, where he sang in the Glee Club and with the original Gounyns, but the war interrupted and he soon found himself in France. It was at the Battle of the Bulge as the result of an enemy land-mine, that Mr. Sladen lost his right leg, and according to the Tomorrow Fund pamphlet, this had a profound effect on his life thereafter. "I had planned to enter medicine after the War," he said. "Afterwards, I began to feel that there must be some way to help children, so that they would never be subjected to another war like this one. I determined to enter education."

After his marriage to Betty, he picked up his studies at Yale and Temple Universities, finally completing requirements for his master's degree in secondary education at the University of Michigan just last year.

Helped on First Carnival

His first job was in public relations at his old alma mater, the Detroit University School and Grosse Pointe Country Day School. Here he assisted in organizing the Parents' Association and re-activated the Alumni Association. Mr. Sladen also helped start the now famous Carnival as a PR venture. "No one believed it was worth a thing," he said, but those involved were thrilled to death because it brought in $2,000 and established the first alumni scholarships.

Finally in 1950, Mr. Sladen went into teaching and taught fourth graders until 1956 when he accepted the position of Headmaster at the Harrisburg Academy in Pennsylvania.

The Academy was a co-ed day school for nursery through ninth grades when the new appointee arrived. When he left in '63, the school had succeeded in adding the top grades, thus achieving college preparatory status. Then, too, the school moved into new facilities. In addition, he somehow found time in Harrisburg to serve as an elder of the Pine Street United Presbyterian Church, as an officer of the Child Guidance Center, and as a member of the Harrisburg Hospital Advisory Council, the Rotary and Torch Clubs.

Happy To Come Home

Both the Sladens were very happy at the thought of moving back to the Pointe, and Mr. S. was especially pleased with the Liggett appointment because of his long association with the school. He prefers a small school the size of Liggett, as he likes to know the students and faculty personally and feels that one can better challenge students academically in small classes.

Mr. Sladen spoke of the belief he shares with Hugh Riddleberger, Headmaster at GPUS, that parents have the freedom to choose the right school for their children. Therefore, there is a good relationship between the schools as they are unique operations which stand independently. The main point of similarity in the thinking of the two Headmasters, is that they must work hand-in-hand to inform Grosse Pointers as to just exactly what independent education is.

Liggett's transition to a new administration plus the change to new facilities at times proved trying. Pushing contractors all the while, the move was finally completed over Spring vacation with the voluntary help of the faculty and staff. "For the last two months of school, we had workmen over and under us," said Mr. Sladen, but the results are obviously worth it. "And it is a compliment to the students and faculty that it was done with so little trouble."

Much Camp Experience

Mr. Sladen also gave much of the credit to his wife whom he met while working at Camp Mowglis in New Hampshire. They have done camp work half their lives and originally intended to start a camp of their own. But they abandoned the idea when Mr. Sladen happened into administration. They presently have an interest in Camp Bryn Afon in Rhineland, Wis., at which Mr. S. will lead a Sunday service during its Regatta week-end in early August.

Another interest the Sladens share is antiques. Two little melodons and a pine rope bed from Betty's family are recent acquisitions and throughout the house is evidence of Frank's pewter and wood carving collections.

The Civil War is another love of Mr. Sladen's, in part the result of moving to Harrisburg which was the northern limit of Confederate action. His interest is also familial. His family was an army family and his paternal grandfather, Joseph A. Sladen, was a member of the 33rd Massachusetts Regiment. Major Sladen was decorated with the Medal of Honor for his service in Rasaca, Ga., and then became an Aide-de-camp to General O. O. Howard during the Indian wars. General Fred W. Sladen, Frank's uncle, was Commandant and Superintendent at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point.

Have Canine Treasure

We can't forget still another treasure of the Sladens—their dog, Sandy Magregor of Bayberry, a cairn terrier.

Activities of Mr. S's include seven years as a member of the local Grunyons. He was active in the Fine Arts Society, Yale Club of Michigan, and was an elder of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church where he headed the Junior High and Senior High church school departments.

Mrs. Sladen's activities center mostly on music. A professional accompanist, she plays for the Madrigal Club of Detroit. She directed and accompanied the Junior League Glee Club for five years. She has served as chairman of youth auditions for the Detroit Symphony and was a member of the board of the Harrisburg Symphony Association. Both Sladens were charter members of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus and sang in the Detroit Oratorio Society. Mrs. S. is a member of Tuesday Musicals and Morning Music Club. Always busy, Mr. Sladen returned two weeks ago from a non-denominational religious

THIEF TAKES DRILL

John Slavko, 47, of 1844 Kenmore, complained to Woods police on Thursday, July 1, that while his car was parked in front of his home, someone had broken the right vent window to enter the vehicle, and had stolen his quarter-in drill, valued at $30.

conference in Lake Forest for junior class girls. He spent last week in Exeter, N.H. at an administrative seminar sponsored by the National Association for Independent Schools. Next on the Sladens' agenda is a short vacation in Germany.

The trip was planned so that Mr. Sladen could serve as best man in the marriage of their friend Robert O. Meadors. The wedding will take place in Nuremberg but the Sladens will also tour Switzerland and Austria before returning home. Then, hopefully they will play hockey for a few days before the school bell rings again in September. But we seriously doubt it. . . .

Students Urged To Enroll Early

Newcomers to the community who plan to attend Grosse Pointe High School as a student in grade 10, 11 or 12 in September are urged by school officials to enroll their children during the summer.

They are requested to call TUxedo 4-3200 for an appointment. Parents are expected to attend the initial interview at the time of entry.

Roy O. Solterisch In Marine Training

Marine Private Roy O. Solterisch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Solterisch of 1170 Maryland, was scheduled to graduate May 11 from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C.

Parris Island is the recruit training center for Marines who enlist east of the Mississippi river.

During his 11 weeks of recruit training under veteran non-commissioned officer Drill Instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection, as well as receiving instruction in military drill, history and traditions of the Marine Corps, and other academic subjects.

He will now be assigned to Camp Lejeune, N. C., for at least four weeks of advanced infantry combat training before being assigned to a school or to a Marine combat or support unit.
