HEADLINES

of the
WEEK
As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, August 19
Some 90 officers raided and cracked an inter-city numbers racket combine Wednesday, exposing an operation which reportedly grosses $3.5 million annually. The raid on the Detroit area numbers stations uncovered tapes which indicated a daily gross of $11,300. Louis Ruggiero, 32, of Orchard Lake, and Mrs. Arnette Harper Jameson, of Flint, were named by U. S. Attorney Lawrence Gubow as suspect ringleaders. Included in the arrests were nine Detroit persons and eight Flint suspects. Gubow conjectured that the ring is possibly an offshoot of the huge syndicate which was discovered by Internal Revenue Service agents and local police in 1963.

Friday, August 20
The President's antipoverty bill was given a one-year extension by the Senate Thursday to the tune of $1.65 billion. A vote of 61 to 29 will effect more liberal financing of community projects, and increased emphasis on neighborhood planning. In the final accounting, 20 Republicans and nine Democrats voted against the bill, and 52 Democrats and nine Republicans for it. Michigan Senator Philip A. Hart voted yes. Though the Democrats blocked Republican attempts to restore the veto power of governors over their respective state's antipoverty projects, the bill does allow governors to conduct informal public hearings when objections to certain projects arise. Illinois Senator Everett M. Dirksen, a Republican, denounced the bill as "the acme of waste, extravagance and disorganization, and a colossal disgrace and in some cases an absolute fraud on the taxpayers."

Saturday, August 21
FOLLOWING a week-long silence, Wayne County Road Patrol Sgt. Paul Paciorek admitted voiding "thousands" of tickets during the past four years, but said that had been ordered to do so in "95 to 98 per cent" of the cases by his superior, Road Patrol Inspector Dan D. Martin. He also implicated Sheriff Peter L. Buback and Undersheriff James Bommarito.

Sunday, August 22
AN ELECTRICAL power shortage threatened the success of the Gemini 5 space flight, but space agency officials hoped the shortage would correct itself. The difficulty followed Saturday's perfect 9 a.m. launch.

Monday, August 23
BLUE CROSS is expected to ask the State for a hike in rates today which will affect about 650,000 Michigan residents. The rate adjustment, an increase of 3.8 percent, will apply to approximately a quarter of those who subscribe to the hospital insurance plan as a member of a group of 150 people or more. Not affected are rates for senior citizens and smaller groups. The requested new rates which would go into effect January 1, 1966, are a result of the experienced rated system that took effect for Blue Cross on July 1. A spokesman for Blue Cross noted that the hike represents an average of all changes in the affected group.

Tuesday, August 24
CALLING the county investigation "inadequate," Governor Romney asserted that a grand jury should be called to inquire into wholesale ticket fixing by the Wayne County Road Patrol. He promised to make his own probe if this is not done. Romney said that the grand jury was necessary because suspended Road Patrol Sgt. Paul Paciorek, who has admitted voiding thousands of tickets during the past four years, "has expressed publicly a lack of confidence in the persons presently conducting the investigation." Wayne County Sheriff Peter L. Buback has ordered a county examination, to be conducted by the Prosecutor's Office.

Clowns Make Ready for Field Day

This Saturday's the day for the annual Pointe Metropolitan Club Field Day at the Neighborhood Club field. And these clowns—all of them Pointe police and firemen in their non-clowning hours—will be on hand to outdo last year's performance. The "civilian" in the center is Metro Club president Dave Taylor.

Metro Club Field Day Saturday

Ponies, Trains, Prizes and Food for All Pointe Youngsters; 3,000 Expected

The Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club is bringing out a big bag of fun for its 24th annual Field Day, to be held Saturday, August 28, at the Neighborhood Club field.

The festivities—from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.—are open to all Pointe youngsters. They need only to show a park permit for identification and join the fun.

There will be 15 ponies making the rounds, along with the very popular American Legion "40 and 8" train. And the clowns will be everywhere.

Last year the Metropolitan Club hosted more than 3,000 children. And that was in the rain! With fair weather this year, they expect to exceed that mark.

At last year's shindig the kids consumed some 5,000 hot dogs, 30 gigantic bags of pop corn and 5,000 cups of soft drinks.

Special prizes to be given away this year include bicycles, fishing rods, reels, toys and games. These prizes and indeed the entire success of the field day were made possible through the cooperation of Pointe merchants.

Entertainment will be provided by the rock 'n' rolling "Aristocrats." The field day is just one of many service projects undertaken by the Metropolitan Club, an organization of Pointe police and firemen.

Pointe Clubs Play Host To High-Calibre Entrants In Two Golf Tournaments

Mrs. Robert Gamble Wins Womens' Title at CCD; Bens-Green Team Victorious at Lochmoor Invitational

Golf-conscious Grosse Pointe played host to two major tournaments in the past week. At the Country Club of Detroit, Mrs. Robert Gamble of Lochmoor captured first place in the Women's District Tournament. Meanwhile, Lochmoor had a tournament of its own.

In an extra-inning affair at Lochmoor, a team of Fred Bens and Peter Green won the Lochmoor Invitational in a thrilling finish Sunday.

Mrs. Gamble putted her way to victory Friday afternoon, after surviving preliminary bouts that started Monday. Her putting was so good, in fact, that Country Club assistant pro Harvey Hayes called it, "Fantastic—to say the least."

Natalie Gamble wrapped up the title with a 3-1 final victory over Mrs. Anthony Koustas of Dearborn. She drove consistently and putted spectacularly.

At the end of nine holes, Mrs. Gamble was two up in the match play tourney. At the twelfth hole, Mrs. Koustas brought the match back to one down but on the next hole Mrs. Gamble took a par to go two up again.

At 14 she parred to go three up and virtually clinched the crown.

Hot Putter
And what a putter! Mrs. Gamble holed an eight-footer on the tenth, a six-footer on the 11th and an eight-footer on the 14th. These were the crucial ones—but there were scores of other astounding shots.

The presentation by the Automobile Club of Michigan took place at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee, at a luncheon at the Gowan Golf Club, Mt. Clemens.

Pointe Cities Cited for Safety

The Farms, Woods and City received official recognition yesterday for their outstanding achievement in the 1964 A.A.A. National Pedestrian Safety Program.

Pedestrian safety plaques, recognizing the City and the Farms for a one year period without a pedestrian fatality, and a special citation for pedestrian protection activities for the Woods, were presented.

The presentation by the Automobile Club of Michigan took place at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee, at a luncheon at the Gowan Golf Club, Mt. Clemens.

George Measel, manager of the Auto Club's Grosse Pointe division office, made the official presentation. Joseph Zabalski, safety consultant from the club's safety and traffic division, explained the plaques significance.

Pointes Near Top
Grosse Pointe communities were among 26 Michigan cities cited in the national contest for pedestrian safety records ranging from one to 19 years. Altogether, 1,871 cities from 34 states competed in their respective classes.

The Woods was in competition with 628 other cities in the 10,000 to 25,000 population group. Their award is equivalent to a fourth place national award in their class.

Youth Flees Police; One Officer Hurt

19-Year-Old Boy and Girlfriend Caught After 65-m.p.h. Chase

A Farms police officer was injured and another narrowly escaped being hurt Sunday when a motorist stepped on the gas pedal in a bid to get away from the officers. The motorist was charged with reckless driving.

Patrolmen Charles Bingham and William Fowler noticed a car parked in front of 30 Preston, and stopped to check the driver's identity and license.

The driver, Robert McSherry Binge, 19, of 423 Westmorland, Lansing, turned on the car motor as the officers approached. Bingham opened the driver side of the vehicle to reach in and turn off the ignition, and Binge stepped on the gas pedal and sped away.

Bingham was thrown into the side of the police car eight feet away, injuring his right side, arm and shoulder. Fowler, who was at the right of Binge's car, escaped injury by scant inches, as the youth's car shot ahead.

Police Give Chase
Bingham and Fowler got into their cruiser and gave chase. The chase went north on Preston to Kercheval, where Binge turned right, then left into a circled driveway at 481 Kercheval, the officers close behind.

Binge drove around the circle, back to Kercheval, turned east, then made a U turn and drove west, turned south onto Poncival to Lake Shore, ran a stop street sign and turned east on the road.

Bingham and Fowler said when they attempted to get in front of Binge, the youth tried to ram the scout car. The policemen radioed ahead for assistance and warned other units not to get in front of the youth because he might be desperate enough to try to ram.

At the crossover in front of 485 Lake Shore, Shores Patrolman Donald Fronczak was waiting in a Shores car, when Binge made a U turn there, and headed west on Lake Shore. The patrolmen said they paced Binge at 65 miles an hour.

At the Moross intersection, Binge skidded through a red light, nearly hitting two cars as he slid through the traffic signal. He continued west on the road, and at number 227, made another U turn at high speed.

At 365 Lake Shore, Binge turned left, jumped the curb and drove over the front lawn and to the rear of the property. Binge and a female passenger (Continued on Page 2)

Park Approves $56,140 Street Resurfacing Job

Program, Which Includes Improvement of Several Alleys, Already Begun; Project to Be Finished In About Four Weeks

The Park council at its regular meeting held on Monday, August 23, approved the awarding of a $56,140 street resurfacing contract to the Cooke Contracting company, the low bidder for the job.

The project, which began yesterday, August 25, is expected to be completed within three to four weeks, according to City Manager Robert Slone.

He informed the council that the price of bituminous asphaltic concrete for the resurfacing of streets, $9.70 a ton, and bituminous asphaltic concrete for the resurfacing of alleys, $11.70 a ton, offered by the low bidder, are good prices for the material, he pointed out.

Slone said that the contracting company will resurface the alleys, before tackling the resurfacing of the streets.

The streets and alleys to be resurfaced (two courses), are the following:

Charlevoix — between Buckingham and Cadieux; Nottingham — between Jefferson and Hally place, and Hally place — between Beaconsfield and alley to alley east.

One course resurfacing: Lakepointe—300 feet north of Jefferson to Kercheval; Beaconsfield—Essex to 200 feet north; Bedford—between Jefferson and Essex; Bedford — between Kercheval and Vernon; Belfour — between Charlevoix and Mack; and the Municipal parking lot at the rear of the Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson.

Alleys south of Mack: Wayburn to Maryland; Maryland to Lakepointe; Lakepointe to Beaconsfield; Beaconsfield to Nottingham; Nottingham to Somerset; and Somerset to east easement.

Maryland-Lakepointe alley; Vernon to Charlevoix; and Charlevoix to Mack. Lakepointe-Beaconsfield alley; Essex to Fairfax plus "T" at south end. Maryland-Lakepointe alley; Jefferson to St. Paul; and St. Paul to Kercheval.

Hit-Run Youth Fined in Shores

A 17-year-old Park boy, who sought to avoid arrest in a hit-and-run Shores accident by claiming his car had been stolen, pled guilty before Shores Judge George Beauchamp on Monday, August 22. The youth was fined $60, which he paid rather than serve five days in the Wayne County Jail.

Convicted was Michael L. McDonald, of 1388 Somerset, who struck a car, owned by Gerald Pollet of 13130 Hampshire, Detroit, parked on Lochmoor, near Lake Shore road.

A witness, Fred Mueller, 24, of 1001 Berkshire, told Shores police that he heard squealing tires as he was traveling on Lake Shore at about 11:52 p.m., Friday, August 20. He said he observed a late model car make a wide turn from southbound (Continued on Page 2)

School Officials Announce Fall Registration Schedule

With the beginning of classes in The Grosse Pointe Public School System two weeks off, school officials have urged compliance with a number of routine procedures to facilitate the beginning of the 1965-1966 year.

Registration of all elementary and junior high pupils new to The Grosse Pointe Public School System will be held in the girls' gymnasium of Grosse Pointe High School at 1:30 on Wednesday, September 8.

The bookstore at Pierce Junior High School will be open on Friday morning, September 3, for ninth graders only to purchase texts for the coming year. Classes at all levels of instruction throughout The Grosse Pointe Public School system are scheduled to begin on Thursday morning, Sept. 9.

Park Firemen Election Set For Sept. 8

Firefighters to Pick Agency to Bargain for Them; State to Conduct Proceedings

The Park Fire Department will be the first in Michigan to take advantage of a new law recently signed by Governor Romney, giving firemen the right to organize into unions and to pick their bargaining agent to represent them in talks with local public officials.

The Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association, Local 533, AFL-CIO, is asking department personnel to choose the Association as the department's bargaining agent.

The State Labor Mediation Board has set the election for Wednesday, September 8, to be held in the Fire Department Building, Maryland and Jefferson, by secret ballot.

A representative of the Labor Mediation Board will be on hand to conduct the proceeding. A city representative and an Association representative will also be present to act as challengers.

The election is open to all departmental personnel, excluding the fire chief. There are 24 members of the Park Fire Department, not counting the chief.

Although permitted to organize into unions, firefighters, under the law, are not allowed to strike, for any reason. However, they can pick a union to represent them at the bargaining table, to negotiate differences and grievances with local public officials.

Several members of the Park fire department have played important roles in organization of the bargaining force. The present president of the Park Association is William Hunt, and the secretary is Lee Follers.

Although the new law will force the Park to recognize the union as a bargaining agent, the union was in effect already recognized in informal discussions of wage and working conditions issues.

Until the law took effect, the Park did not permit fire department officers to be union members. Under the new law, all department members except the chief may be members.

The association has been negotiating with Park officials for recognition for more than 20 years.

Team Holds Illegal Early Practice

Coach Mike Rhodes Dismissed by School; Offers Simultaneous Resignation

The Executive Committee of the Catholic High School League Monday barred Austin Catholic High School from all interscholastic football. The action was taken after it was learned Austin's football team had held a secret pre-season practice session in Sarnia, Ontario.

Austin coach Mike Rhodes was dismissed Monday by school officials shortly after they learned of the Executive Committee's actions.

Catholic league director Ralph Owen himself observed the pre-season session, which was in violation of both league and state association rules.

The state association rule reads, in part: "Allow no football practice between Dec. 1 of one year and Monday the week preceding Labor Day of the following year."

Rhodes, 42, has been a high school and college coach for over 20 years. It was reported Monday that he had already mailed his resignation to the high school.

Other Sports Continue

The suspension will not affect Austin's competition in any other sports. They have had traditionally strong teams in basketball, swimming and golf, although their football record has not equaled these performance.

Although Austin Catholic High School is located on East Warren avenue in Detroit, it has always drawn a large section of its enrollment from the Pointes.

The school's athletic record has been studied with strong teams in recent years. In 1958, the Friars marched to a state Class A basketball title.

In making its ruling, the Executive Committee stated that it had acted with the knowledge and cooperation of the school's administration. The action was directed against the coach and his staff, rather than the school, the committee noted.

Officials of the school commented Tuesday that it was their understanding that the ban would be for one season.

GP City Council News Corrected

In a story in last week's issue of the NEWS it was erroneously reported that City voters will ballot on a charter amendment, to create municipal judgeships, at a special primary election to be held on September 14. This is not the case.

The City approved an amendment to the City Charter on Monday, August 16, which would abolish the offices of justice of the peace, and create the post of municipal judge, as required by the new State Constitution.

The council took this action because it would be too late to have the ballots printed by deadline time, before the next council meeting, September 13, for the City's regular election in November. The amendment, as approved by Attorney General Frank Kelly, must be presented to the Wayne County Clerk's office before the September date.

The special question on the proposed charter amendment will, if approved by the voters, provide for a municipal court and court officers, and provide for two bonded municipal judges, to be elected every four years beginning with the election in November of 1967.

A provision in the amendment provides that the two incumbent justices of the peace shall be constituted municipal judges for the remainder of their present term of office.

The present justices are Douglas Patterson and Malcolm Sutherland.

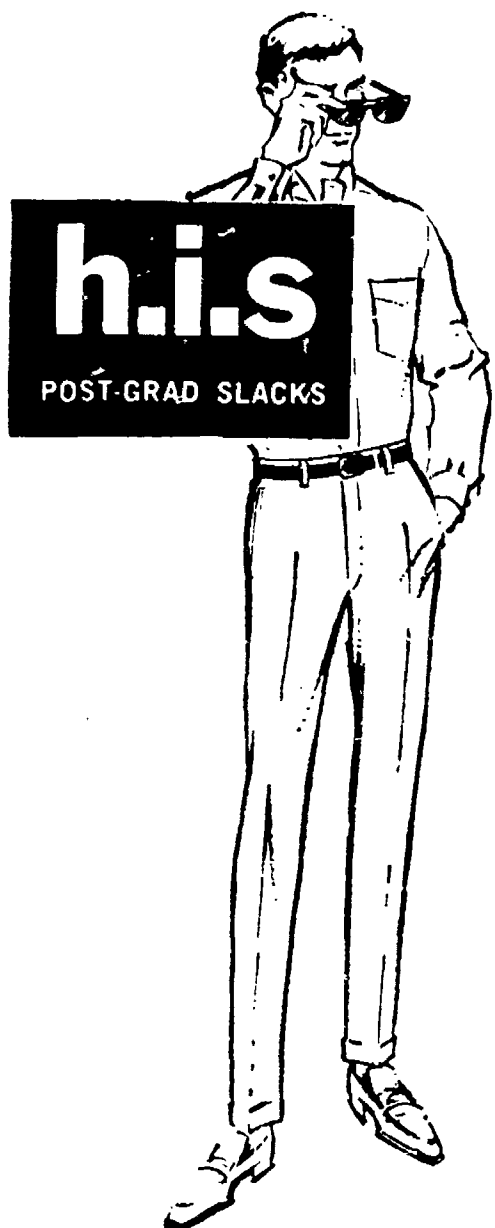

In the Bon Secours Hospital proposed expansion controversy, a typographical error attributed Mayor David Burgess as stating that if a compromise is reached between City and hospital officials, a referendum will be presented to the City voters, for an advisory decision. The word NOT was omitted, and the statement should have read "a referendum will not be presented to the City voters."

SWIMMER INJURED
Officer John Krukowski, of the Farms police, was summoned to the Municipal Pier Thursday, July 22, to convey Gene Doyle, of 19175 Rolandale, Detroit, to St. John's Hospital. Doyle had suffered a cut on the head while swimming in the new pool, and required stitches.

Fowler found the girl hiding behind a clump of bushes on the property. The youth was captured by Fronczak a short distance away.

Binge and his companion were taken to the Farms station, where Binge was issued a violation ticket for reckless driving, and another for having a fictitious operator's license. The car driven by Binge is registered in the name of the girl's parents, with whom she lives, in St. Clair Shores.

Bingham was sent home, and later went to St. John Hospital for X-rays, when large bruises appeared on his right arm, shoulder and hand. The X-rays showed no broken bones, but he will require treatment for several torn ligaments in his shoulder.

Binge posted bond of $100, pending an appearance before Farms Judge Grant E. Armstrong.

Mueller said he gave chase. He saw two young men in the car, he told police. Mueller took down the license number of the hit-and-run car.

At 12:27 a.m. Saturday, the Shores police said, McDonald called Park police to report his automobile had been stolen from Brownie's Marina, in Jefferson avenue, St. Clair Shores, setting the time about an hour and a half prior to the time the accident had taken place.

At 12:28 a.m. Saturday, the "stolen" car was recovered by Woods police at Fairholme road and Fairford, and released to Shores officers.

On Sunday, August 22, St. Clair Shores police called Grosse Pointe Shores authorities, and disclosed that they had taken a report from McDonald, in which the youth stated that his car had been stolen from the marina.

McDonald was picked up from the St. Clair Shores marina by Shores Patrolmen William Marshall and James Jurek, and taken to the Grosse Pointe Shores station, where the youth was questioned by the Pointe officers.

When informed that there is a stiff penalty for making a false report of a stolen car, the stealing of which is a felony, McDonald confessed that he was the driver of the hit-and-run car, and that another youth was with him at the time, but the second boy left him because he did not wish to be involved.

St. Clair Shores police were notified of the confession. They said detectives from their station will question McDonald, and will determine what course of action will be taken because of the false report.

Dine At DAC Before Benefit

With a choice block of some 200 tickets snagged for the meeting of the Detroit Lions in the game that benefitted Children's Hospital of Michigan, Detroit Athletic Club members made it a big evening with dinner at the club before the game and a ride to the stadium by chartered bus.

Tickets were snapped up like mad, and among Pointers who made early reservations were the E. O. Bodkins, who had 10 in their party. Mrs. Bodkin was ticket chairman for the game. Another Pointer, Hugh C. Daly served as co-chairman of ticket sales.

Other area couples who dined at the club were Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Slatery, who had places marked for 10; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Weckler, whose table sat six; the Arnold Malows with eight; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cody, who were a foursome, as were former Grosse Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hart.

Officers and board members of the DAC who dined at the club included President Frank E. Kenney, William A. Prew, Harold W. Scott, Dr. E. S. Gurdjian, William B. Crawford, Edwin O. George and Nathan B. Goodnow.

Other area people who had reservations were Homer Pharis, Theodore Sweeney, Dr. E. A. Wishrope, Dr. W. B. McIntyre, W. D. Cohan, Harold Lightbody and Dr. R. C. Kingswood.

Errant Driver Pays Penalty

Bobby Lee Reese, 25, of 2240 Erskine, Detroit, arrested on Tuesday, August 17, and charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, was arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger the next day. Reese was detained in the local cell overnight.

At his arraignment, Reese entered a plea of guilty as charged, and was ordered to pay a fine of $85, with the alternative of serving 10 days in the Wayne County Jail. The fine was paid.

Besides the fine, Judge Belanger suspended Reese's driving privileges for three months and took away the man's operating license for that period.

Reese was arrested on the evening of August 17, when officers observed his car speeding on Jefferson avenue and weaving back and forth over traffic lanes.

Pointe Banker Offers Cure for Ailing Dollar

One of the most influential voices in Detroit business circles, Grosse Pointe banker T. Bodman, has prescribed a cure for the ailments of the U. S. dollar.

Bodman chairman of the National Bank of Detroit, suggested:

• We must attack the basic causes of the balance-of-payments problem, a problem which "will not be solved by palliatives."

• The immense federal budget and accompanying debt "are the real barriers to growing economic achievement."

• A decreed raise in the minimum wage level would, at this time, generate "additional pressures . . . for uneconomic wage increases across the board."

Bodman, who lives in Lake Shore Road, made his comments in a guest editorial written in the August 10 issue of the American Banker.

He observed that: "True economic growth in the United States depends on the performance of the private economy, not on the performance of government. Government investment is, in large degree, a substitute for, not an addition to, private investment. The motives and incentives of the private enterprise system are vastly superior to federal government planning as a means of effectively allocating productive resources."

Bodman called persistent government deficits an important source of serious inflationary problems.

Another inflationary pressure has been uneconomically high minimum wage levels, which have, he said, "priced tens of thousands of potential workers out of job opportunities."

He added: "Raising farm prices supports, and at the same time restricting farm output, is equally irresponsible because it boosts the cost of living and promotes a misallocation of finite resources."

VANDAL AT WORK

Charles Sullivan, of 72 Morris road, called Farms police Monday, July 19, to report that the side view mirror was broken off his car and that a sticky substance was evident on one side of the vehicle. He also notified police that he has had three gas caps stolen in the last month.

Woods Buying 3 New Trucks

Woods councilmen awarded a bid for three DPW trucks to Stark Hickey East, a Ford dealer, at their regular council meeting, on Monday, August 16. Lowest of six bidders, Stark Hickey submitted a net bid of $23,149.55, which included a $2,200 trade-in deduction for three trucks being used presently.

The next lowest bidders were Don Uphoff Ford with $24,136.76, and Johnson Murphy Ford, with $24,431.12.

All but one of the bidders was a Ford dealer. The other was Dodge.

Council members also approved an easement agreement covering the driveway of the Grosse Pointe Corporation property on Vernier road. This is to provide adequate room for fire trucks passing through.

In addition, they considered three proposed ordinances: one to amend Ordinance No. 239 (Parking lots), one to amend Ordinance No. 223 (Elm trees), and one to license the rental of motorcycles.

Cinderella Ball Set In October

Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr., president of the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society, has announced that Mrs. Horace E. Dodge will serve as honorary chairman of the Cinderella Ball.

The Ball will be given on October 2 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. Mrs. Jesse P. Judd is general chairman for this outstanding social event.

Invitations to the Fourteenth Annual Ball will be in the mail within the next few weeks. In the meantime, the task of addressing the 1,500 invitations, (reservations are limited to 400 persons), has been undertaken by volunteer workers of the society.

Mrs. John B. Olson is chairman and Mrs. C. D. Smith co-chairman of the invitation committee.

Among those assisting Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Smith with the addressing of envelopes are Mesdames Fred B. Hillger, Joseph P. Kaiser, Edmund M. Brady, Thomas J. Burke and Troy W. Maschmeyer, of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Ernest A. Jones, chairman of the program committee, gave a luncheon meeting at her Bloomfield Hills home. Serving on her committee were Mesdames John Z. De Lorean, Edgar B. Flint, William E. Johnston, Henry De Segur Lauve, Harold W. Lightbody, Julian McIntosh and A. R. Pfannenschmidt.

CUT HAND

Park police transported Mary Ann Vezina, 12, of 1011 Wabash road, to Bon Secours Hospital Friday, July 23, for treatment of a large gash on the palm of her right hand. She received the injury while washing dishes.

CONFESSIONS OF A RACE TRACK OWNER

I Want To Give You A Tip.
It is NOT on a horse, but rather on PEOPLE.

The horses are running at the Detroit Race Course (nine races Monday through Friday, with a post parade at 3:20 P.M. and a big 10 race program on Saturdays starting at 2 P.M.).

The thoroughbreds are competing for the biggest purses in our 17-year history and the caliber of racing is high. I am proud of this, but prouder still of the fans who are turning out in record numbers to see our new, modernized plant that makes the Detroit Race Course one of the finest sports facilities in the United States.

A year ago, we inaugurated a V.I.F. Program.

V.I.F. stands for Very Important Fan.

I said at the time, I regard each person who passes through our gates as a Very Important Fan. I mean it sincerely.

As a result of the VIF Program, I have had an opportunity to meet and talk each week with fans selected at random to represent all our patrons.

It has been one of the most pleasant and rewarding experiences of my many years in racing.

The Fans have given me a multitude of TIPS . . . tips on the things they like and dislike about our operation and on their views on racing in general.

Our VIFS have shown themselves to be informed and understanding. Their views have been sound and well presented. I have welcomed their comments, whether critical or favorable.

When I say YOUR PLEASURE IS OUR BUSINESS, I am not merely voicing a slogan. This is the key to our entire operational philosophy. We want you to enjoy the thrills and excitement of top racing in pleasant surroundings and a congenial "It's-fun-to-be-here" atmosphere.

The response to our VIF Program last season was overwhelming. In order that more fans may have the opportunity of being selected as VIFS, we have enlarged the scope of the plan this season.

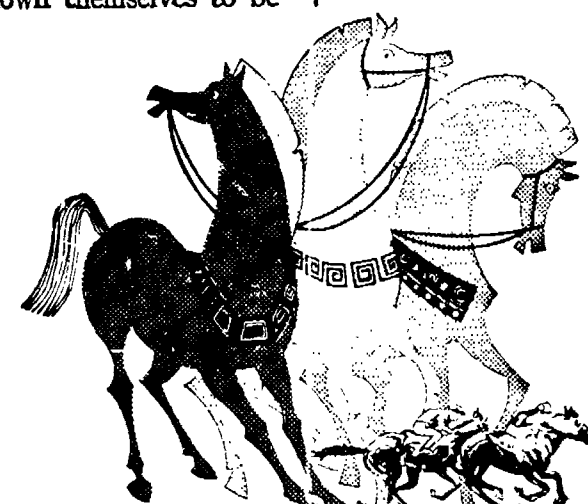

It is simple to become a participant. Merely fill out a coupon in the daily racing program and drop it in one of the VIF boxes, which are located conveniently throughout the grandstand and clubhouse areas.

If you are selected . . . and I hope you are . . . I think you will find the racing experience ahead a memorable one.

So enthusiastic was the support of our VIFS last season, we are forming a VIF Alumni Club this year so we may continue our pleasant association.

Take a tip from me . . . DRC fans are tops. Why not join their ranks and get in on the fun? Come out soon and see us.

Austin Players At Convention

Twenty-three members of the Austin Prep. Players left Saturday, August 21, for the Annual National Catholic Theatre Convention held in New York City through August 26. An extra day has been added to the trip by going to Washington, D.C., before returning home on August 28.

According to Thomas E. Bailey, vice principal and moderator of the Players, the group will stay in the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel in the heart of the theatre district. Besides the numerous special plays, guest appearances and lectures in the convention hotel, the students have tickets for such Broadway hits as "Funny Girl," "Golden Boy," "The Fantasticks," "Odds On," and "The Roar of the Greasepaint and the Smell of the Crowd." Days have been reserved for trips to the World's Fair, the United Nations Building and Radio City.

While in Washington, the students will attend a White House Reception and visit the Kennedy grave. Tours through the Capitol buildings have been scheduled.

Those Pointers attending the convention are Anthony Cimino, Thomas DelGiorno, Louis Linde, Robert Bavinger, Anthony Nehra, Richard Merritt, Ralph DeFour, Steven Schaefer, Arthur Kirschner, William Remick, Jay Bartush, John Gruber, Dick Gehlert, Leo Marx, Peter Wayne and Brian DeFour.

Mr. Thomas Bailey and Reverend Donald Bates, O.S.A., are the faculty members on the trip.

Pointe Sailor Ready For Astronaut Landing

Radman Second Class Raymond N. Rapalee, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Rapalee of Neff Lane, is one of more than 10,000 men now on station around the world in the Department of Defense's recovery force for the eight-day flight of astronaut L. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad, Jr.

He is aboard the destroyer USS George K. Mackenzie, a unit of Task Force 130, the Pacific recovery force.

Although the mission has been programmed to end in the Western Atlantic, the Pacific recovery force will be on station to assist the astronauts in the event that a Pacific landing is implemented.

Since Mackenzie's selection as a recovery ship, her crew has been undergoing extensive training in spacecraft recovery techniques. Normally operating out of Yokosuka, Japan, as part of the U.S. Seventh Fleet, Mackenzie will resume normal fleet operation, following the mission.

Center Holding Teeners' Dance

"The Underdogs," most popular of the students bands in the area, will say goodbye to the dog days of August when on the 31st (Tuesday) they play for the last "Other Side" of the summer at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road.

This teen nightery for the senior high set offers the best place in Grosse Pointe to frug, jerk, swim, etc.

Dates aren't necessary and the dress is very casual (bermudas, etc.). While the band takes breaks, dancing goes on to records. Of course, it's air conditioned and there is a stand up bar where cool soft drinks are served.

Patrons of "The Other Side" are requested to show proof of Grosse Pointe residency and where they go to school and in what grade. The club is chaperoned by the parents of Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth Council members and the Grosse Pointe Farms police are on duty.

WALLET FOUND

Police received a call from the William Moenart residence on Belanger road. Mrs. Moenart had found a billfold belonging to Jerome Croul Du Charme, of Westwind lane, in her bushes. The wallet was returned to its owner, everything intact.

Sue Schemansky Contest Winner

Susan Schemansky, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schemansky, of Harbor Hill, was the recent winner of the use of a pale blue 1965 GTO for a week.

Sue won the use of the car from radio station CKLW when she accurately reported the number of times "Go, Tiger, Go" was repeated in a record. She also had to write, in 25 words or less, why she wanted a GTO.

It all started last May at the University of Michigan, where Sue will be a sophomore this fall. She and several other girls in her dormitory decided to enter the contest just for fun. She signed her name Slim, feeling that only a boy would win the car. When her name was announced as the winner, the radio disc jockeys all thought she was a boy, and her father received innumerable calls of congratulations.

The car was presented to Sue at the Detroit Zoo in front of the tiger cage Saturday, July 31. Sue drove around Grosse Pointe in her car until Saturday, August 7, when she had to return it.

She said that it was the first thing she had ever won.

A graduate of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Sue is a French major at the University of Michigan.

Drew Smith Ends 32 Years As Chrysler 'Ambassador'

After 32 years with Chrysler Corporation, "that big fellow with the cigar" has retired.

And if one wonders what a man ponders as the final day nears, Drew Smith had the answer.

"I've been so busy lately I haven't been able to give it much thought!"

Smith, 65, has been Chrysler-Plymouth Division manager of dealer relations since 1959 and is the company's "ambassador" to dealers throughout the 50 states he "touched down" for the final time July 30, after logging more than 2,000,000 air miles on behalf of Chrysler-Plymouth.

"I received the 1,000,000 mile certificate from United Airlines in 1953," Smith recalls. "I reached the 2,000,000 mark in 1964. That adds up to one million miles in eight years. So you can see why I say I've been too busy to think about retirement."

Smith estimates he knows most of the Chrysler-Plymouth dealers in the 50 states. "I have spent about 65 percent of my time on the road."

Most of the dealers know Smith. "He's that big fellow over there with the cigar."

In Smith's judgment, this bond between the factory and the dealer has "resulted in a substantial contribution to the corporation's progress."

"The National Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer Council has made many fine contributions," Smith said. "They have a truly fine record of accomplishment. I've been happy to have been a part of this interchange of ideas."

Smith was honored July 30 at a party given in his honor at the Detroit Athletic Club by Mr. and Mrs. P.N. Buckminster. Mr. Buckminster is general manager and vice president of Chrysler-Plymouth Division. As manager of dealer relations, Smith attributes his success in the position to knowing "both sides."

"I've had experience in most areas of a retail dealership. I know the dealer's problems; I understand his motives; I am aware of his incentives. On the other hand, I've been at the factory level long enough to know how the various departments work."

Smith's experience in dealing with "both sides" of a problem traces to his experience as a procurement and materials officer during World War II. As a lieutenant commander in the United States Navy, Smith was concerned with scheduling and expediting for the Navy landing craft shipbuilding programs. He was officer-in-charge of these programs.

He proudly recalled that this shipbuilding project had "the highest priority outside of the Manhattan project during the war."

The tour of duty was Smith's second. He served briefly in the Navy during the final six months of World War I, despite being under age.

Smith was born in Port Townsend, Washington, grew up in Seattle and received his degree in Business Engineering from the University of Washington.

He recalls one Navy incident that drew a chuckle.

"We built some destroyer escorts for the British Navy," he recalls. "When they came to take command of the ships they protested that the ships had (1) no bathtubs and (2) no wine lockers for the officers mess. The ships all had showers. They didn't like that," he laughed.

Who won?

"The British did," Smith said. "We had to take the ships back to the Brooklyn Navy Yard and refit them with bathtubs and wine lockers."

Smith, who has been manager of dealer relations since 1959, has been in the automotive industry since 1923.

He served two years (1957-59) as dealer placement manager; two years (1955-57) as market analysis manager; 10 years (1945-55) as Philadelphia regional manager and from 1936-42 with the Chrysler-Plymouth Division in various field assignments in the corporate wholesale operation.

From 1923 to 1936, he worked in various automotive positions on both the wholesale and retail level before joining Chrysler-Plymouth.

Since announcement of his retirement, Smith has received many letters and telegrams from dealers throughout the country.

Smith and his wife, Frances, live at 715 Harcourt, in Grosse Pointe Park.

Business Notes

Carter Van Lopik, a veteran Detroit newspaperman was appointed Public Relations Director for the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners.

Van Lopik, 34, of 1239 Whit-tier, Grosse Pointe Park, will act as liaison between the Commission with its many activities and the news media.

Van Lopik received a bachelor's degree in journalism from Wayne State University in 1952 while employed at the Detroit Free Press as a copy boy. After Army service during the Korean War, he returned to the Free Press as a staff writer and later a staff re-write man. During this period he covered major governmental and political areas including City, County and State Government.

In his new job, Van Lopik assumed the duties of Joseph N. Hartmann who is now the Commission's Assistant Director of Administration. The three-member Commission has jurisdiction over the County's roads and freeways, parks, water and sewers, flood control and Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport.

D. E. Mitchelson, vice-president - treasurer of Parke, Davis & Company, recently celebrated 45 years of service with the pharmaceutical firm.

He joined the company in 1920 after answering a Parke-Davis classified ad calling for a "boy who enjoys figures" to begin work as a junior accountant.

Mitchelson was promoted to assistant auditor and assistant comptroller in 1934 and assigned to the firm's London Branch for six years. Returning to Detroit in 1940 he was made assistant to the treasurer; in 1945 assistant treasurer; and in 1946 treasurer. He was elected a vice-president in 1957.

Mitchelson was honored with a luncheon attended by company executives, including Warren W. Ament, assistant treasurer, who was one of the first to greet Mitchelson when he joined Parke-Davis 45 years ago.

Mitchelson, 64, resides with his wife in Whittier road.

Choir Seeks Singers For Year's Concerts

The Rackham Symphony Choir has begun rehearsals for performances of the Beethoven Symphony No. 9 with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra on Thursday, September 30, and Saturday, October 2.

A large choir of 250 voices is needed and has to be prepared within six weeks of the concert dates.

The Rackham Choir invites all with choral or solo singing experience to join. Auditions are held at each Tuesday evening rehearsal at 7:15 p.m., in the Rackham Educational Memorial.

The Rackham Symphony Choir is a course sponsored by the University Center for Adult Education. Besides the opening Detroit Symphony Orchestra performances, the Choir will perform Handel's Messiah at the Masonic Temple on December 12, and Verdi's Requiem with the Detroit Symphony on March 31 and April 2. There are also plans for some out-state concerts in the Spring.

Maynard Klein, professor of Music and Director of University Choirs at the University of Michigan, returns as director of the Choir this fall.

Rhetoric Rises in Civil War

As the Centennial for the Civil War reaches its conclusion, our sympathies revolve towards those who lived through it. The men of Company "E," Michigan State Normal School, (Eastern Michigan University), who luckily survived the war left records of their memories. Nearly all of them have in common a high-blown style to express heightened feelings developed by war.

A few of the boys who had offered their lives returned to school to resume studies: Captain Campbell was one of those who graduated with the "literary class" of 1865. Like many others who returned to school after a vacation in the army, he could think vividly on past adventures. In a poem on "class day" he recited:

"At length the voice of Withington
Makes every heart enlarge,
Up-springing at the welcome word.
We rally for the charge.
A wild, unearthly yell.
As on the foremost rebel line,
Like maddened volutes we fell."
The spirit of rhetoric had not died, evidently, during the war. It seemed to be a tone of sorrow, and determination, building up into reckless enthusiasm, starting from the earliest days of the conflict.

In 1862, after the firing upon Fort Sumter, the literary society of Michigan State Normal met for the purpose of framing resolutions. Evidently, they wished to infuse a little rhetoric into the supply muscles of war. They decided, first of all, to censure the south. There was a debate, described in the minutes: "... the discussion was of much interest, gentlemen on the affirmative producing unanswerable statistics, which were overborne by patriotic enthusiasm and Union sentiment. The question on being referred to committee was lost."

"Then followed the magnificent Marseillaise Hymn, stirring deeper depths than the discussion had agitated. Miscellaneous business being taken up, this question was selected for the next discussion: 'Resolved, that the South has no right to secede.' A quartet, the Red, White, and Blue, was then sung, and after a chorus of real live cheers, the society adjourned."

Whenever a fellow died in war, the Literary Society did not shirk any duty to be decorative in reporting the tragedy. "Painful intelligence again reaches us from the battlefield that another associate and Normal graduate has fallen. James S. Lane is no more among the living. His friendly face will be missed at the campfire, his calm courage will never again inspire his comrades to deeds of valor on the fields of strife ... in his last moments he was resigned to fate and died a willing martyr at the shrine of freedom."

"Today, he reposes in no hireling's grave, but reclines loved and honored in a soldier's

One aspect of the many-faceted Experiment program provides home-stays for foreign college students so that they may adjust more easily to American life and enjoy a "home away from home" before they enter the American university of their choice.

While students are learning from their American families, the families also learn from their students in a friendly experience of mutual growth and understanding which is the fundamental purpose of all Experiment programs.

Home-stays for the current group of students are being provided by families in Grosse Ile, Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Livonia and Pontiac, according to Mrs. Carl Lanz, of Chalfonte avenue, area representative.

Pointer Savors Old-Time Fire-fighters

Fire Engines Kindle Unique Hobby

One of Pointe's First . . .

. . . And One of the Latest

BY BOB WELLS

Clarence C. Woodard, of Briarcliff drive, digs fire trucks, old and new.

But especially the old ones. "It used to be more of a thrill to watch fire engines work than it is today," Woodard explained. "There's so little action in today's equipment. It's like the difference between watching an old steam locomotive and today's diesels. The romance is gone."

For most of us, living in the age of the shiny, efficient fire truck (like the new Woods unit pictured at right), the drama is gone. But not for Woodard.

Ever since high school days, he has amassed pictures and models of fire trucks. The picture at left is one of his favorites: a fire pumper delivered to the Village of Lochmoor in 1936. The hearty old beast served the Grosse Pointes until 1956.

The above are just two of the more than 1,000 pictures and drawings in Woodard's collection. Some of them are ancient history — like the 1778 hand pumper which was sent all the way from London to become the first piece in the Detroit fire department.

Even more exciting than Woodard's pictures are his models — some 50 of them — which he has hand-crafted from wood and metal. They take an average of four months to build, and some have over 1,000 separate parts.

Woodard, who works for the Federal Housing Administration, still chases a fire truck now and then. He's been thoroughly impressed by both the equipment and the ability of Pointe firemen. "Most of the Pointes were reliant on Detroit for protection in the early days," he recalls. "Put today Grosse Pointe's equipment is of the highest calibre. Residents can be proud of the fine equipment in use here."

An audible sigh came from Woodard's direction last year when the Shores fire department passed along its 1924 Seagrave to the Henry Ford Museum. For Woodard, that was the end of an era. The old unit, which was "in mint condition" when it went to the museum, was the last of the grandes dames of Pointe firefighting.

Their descendants are much more efficient than the old clunkers. "But the new one's just sort of leave you cold, that's all," Woodard mused.

Univ. Women Choose Officers

At a recent dinner meeting held at the Women's City Club, the Detroit Association of University Women elected the following officers for their new year: president, Mrs. Robert R. Gerity; vice-president, Mrs. George R. Snider; recording secretary, Miss Pansy Blake, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Berli H. Hadjostian; treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Reid.

Assuming positions on the board of directors for three year terms are Mrs. M. Alfred Darling, Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marks, Mrs. George Snider, Mrs. Ercell R. Carley, and Mrs. Lloyd Mosher. Mrs. Elizabeth Clark was elected for a two-year term.

Elected councillors are Mrs. Frederick H. Stussy, Mrs. Gaylord H. Todd, Mrs. John Feikens, Mrs. C. E. Frazer Clark, and Miss Dorothy Roehn.

Also at the meeting, Mrs. Snider announced plans for the Association's annual Theater Party to be held Sunday evening, November 14 at the Fisher Theater where "Carousel" will be presented. Proceeds from the affair will be used to further the Vera Baits scholarship fund.

Open Sundays 10:00 to 4:00
Thurs. and Fri. Till 9:00 P.M.

BM3/c Owen Murray Completes CG School

YORKTOWN, VA. (FHTNC). Boatswain's Mate Third Class Owen S. Murray, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Murray of 2028 Hollywood, Grosse Pointe, Mich., graduated August 13 from Boatswain's Mate School at the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve Training Center, Yorktown, Va.

A reserve, he attended the two-week school to fulfill his annual active duty obligation. He studied line-handling, knots, canvas work, boat compasses, log writing, firing the .45 caliber pistol, cargo handling and boat handling.

CART PARTS STOLEN

A wheel, tire, drum and bearings were reported stolen sometime between Saturday, July 24 and Monday, July 26, from a new car owned by Grosse Pointe Plymouth Auto Sales and Service, at the Park police station. The car was jacked up in order for the thief or thieves to take the articles.

Fruits and Vegetables

Careful packaging of fruits and vegetables will prevent their drying out and will preserve flavor, color, nutrients, and natural texture.

Mrs. Karen Van Hine, Home Economics Agent in Wayne County, says that packaging material should (1) be moisture-vapor-resistant or moisture-vapor-proof to prevent evaporation; (2) not impart a flavor of its own; (3) be clean and durable.

SHOPPER'S CAR 'BORROWED'

Mrs. Ann M. Lubian, 45, of 21460 Bournmouth, Harper Woods, parked her '64 Ford in front of 466 Moran on July 19 and went to shop on Mack. When she returned in the middle of the afternoon her car was missing. She had the keys with her and the car was locked. Farms police put out an all station broadcast. Later, while checking the side streets, Patrolman William Fowler found the auto in the middle of the block on Madison. The side vent window was opened all the way, but there was no apparent damage.

Should Be Well Packed

Glass, metal, and rigid plastic are moisture-vapor-proof packaging materials. Most bags, sheets, and waxed cartons for freezing are moisture-vapor-resistant.

The rigid containers, (aluminum, glass, plastic, tin, heavily waxed cardboard), are suitable for all packs and especially good for liquid packs. Glass canning jars may be used in freezers, but are not recommended for fruits and vegetables packed in water.

Mrs. Van Hine advises that they be packed only to jar shoulder to prevent breakage from expansion and that they be handled carefully to prevent breakage.

The rigid plastic containers when used for fruits need to be stored upright in freezer to guard against leakage. Lids may be pushed off if not taped with freezer tape.

The waxed cartons are suitable for vegetables, but if used for fruits, need to be kept upright in the freezer.

The non-rigid, moisture-vapor resistant materials, bags and sheets of cellophane, heavy freezer-type aluminum foil, flil-film, plastic, or laminated papers and duplex bags), are suitable for dry-packed vegetables and fruits. Bags can be used for liquid freezer space.

Some of the 2,061,223 reasons people came to us for INSTALOANS during the past twenty years.

This is a special year for us at the National Bank of Detroit. It marks the 20th anniversary of our Instaloan Department—20 years of helping people get the things they need and want.

We've enjoyed every minute of it.

Originally, the department had 11 employees. Today we have more than 250 people in the Instaloan Department in our Main Office alone and nearly as many more in our branch offices. During our first 20 years, the National Bank of Detroit Instaloan Department has become the largest of its kind in the state. As of June 30 we had loaned $2,864,238,759 for 2,061,223 good reasons. Some of these reasons are shown above.

As we start our 21st year, we look forward to hearing about many more ways we can help people get the things they want. We'd like to hear from you.

Wave Lengths

By Anne Boynton

Hopefully the sailing will get closer to home one of these days, either that or the Pointe area sailors should go farther. Perhaps our seamen are still recovering from the Mackinac treks!

At any rate, SOME of our hardy enthusiasts made it to the Ford Yacht Club regatta which was held two week-ends back, and did fairly well to boot. The course was a three-legged, 12 1/2-mile jaunt, used primarily by the Ford and Grosse Ile Yacht Clubs.

Winds were out of the south, and gentle, varying from five to ten miles per hour. It was hazy and HOT (Saturday was a trifle warmer than warm, don't you think?).

Gerald A. White and Earl Zuehlke, both of Crescent were the only Pointers who claimed places as their prizes. White placed second in Cruising D, and Zuehlke came in seventh in the Crescent Class.

One unusual note . . . crewing on Curlew, in the Polar Class—on her husband's boat—was one lone Pointer lady, Mrs. Max F. Homfeld. The Homfelds are from Crescent Sail Yacht Club. Scooping the best time of the 48 starters was Dr. Douglas Wake, in Cruising D.

Some updating is in order in these here tales of the high seas. We've been besieged with so many brides of late, that something had to go.

We're on to last weekend's Edison Regatta, the club's 51st annual affair. Pulling no surprises was Tom Gmeiner's Apache which blazed its seafaring trail with the best corrected time of the day—3:20.13. Apache, as usual, scalped her rivals. She beat second place Vitesse II, sailed by Norb Taylor, by nearly six minutes. But more about Apache's winning ways next week; Mr. Gmeiner will be featured as the Pointer of Interest.

The next three slots in the Class A contention were filled by Dauntless, Winsome, and Falcon, skipped, respectively, by Tom Hanson, Carter Sales-Skip Grow, and Clare Jacobs.

Cruising B found Hank Burkard's Meteor first across the finish line with a corrected time of 3:29.21. Burkard, who has chalked up many a sail race to his credit this summer, was followed by Guy McNaron in Vashit, Lee Smith in Mutiny, and Charles Bowers in Maia. Stealing a sure first in Class C were Karl Ness and Maurice DeClercq in their almost unbeatable Flying Buffalo. It was close though. The flying machine actually placed second to Ed Brown's Pauline, but won on corrected time. Pauline, a new 35-foot glass Pilot sloop, sails out of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

That's it for now and barring either a press breakdown or a barrage of more (could there be? Who's left?) of those beautiful brides, we'll be able to bring you the results of the Crescent Sail Club Regatta next week.

The interest in last week's big tournaments is only part of what Lochmoor pro "Chick" Rutan sees as a new surge of interest in the game of golf.

Golf a Good Bargain
While other sports become more and more expensive, golf continues to be a good buy for the recreation-seeker. "Even the neophytes that are playing can pick up clubs at a reasonable price," Rutan noted. "The cost of playing this game isn't as great as that of a lot of other entertainments."

Lochmoor boasts one of the Pointe's busiest golf courses—with about 425 members.

And the ladies really make their presence felt at Lochmoor. The Ladies' Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph P. Giroux, ladies golf championship every Friday. Rutan reported, as you might expect, is Mrs. Gamble.

Other big names in ladies
The Detroit Yacht Club swim team defeated Dearborn Country Club in a thrilling meet by one point, 158-157, recently. Both teams were undefeated before this victory in which several Grosse Pointe youngsters swam.

Helping accumulate the winning points were Kathy Wyboriski, first in the girls 8-under freestyle; Mary Beth Ryan, first in the girls 11-12 backstroke; Mickey Van, first in the girls 15-16 backstroke; Debbie Huster first in the girls 13-14 backstroke; and Tom Mertz first in the boys 15-16 freestyle and butterfly.

Other Grosse Pointe youngsters who swam were Tracy Van, Cleo and Alexis Valour, Janice and Steve Wyboriski, Debbie and Bob Dodd, Mike Ryan, John Weaver, Dale DeMeulemeester, Ron Richards, and John Swagles.

Mrs. Sidney R. Sinclair and Mrs. Donald E. VanHook were captors of the Ladies' Shot-gun Tourney. Mrs. Edward M. Muldoon defeated Mrs. Glenn W. Carpenter for the Chick Rutan Trophy in a month-long competition.

The Kay McCornell trophy went to Mrs. Joseph P. Giroux. The overall golf program at Lochmoor is directed by men's golf committee director Donald A. Dykstra, assistant director Frederick D. Bens and golf committee chairman Fred Wolf.

After charting a record 39,500 rounds last year, "in all probability, we'll go ten per cent above that in 1965, in spite of a bad start," Rutan stated. The bad start, incidentally, was inclement weather in the months of March and early April.

On an average Sunday at Lochmoor over 300 shots resound off the first tee.

And the balls will keep flying until the first snowstorm sweeps in from the north.

PP & K to Draw 1,000,000 Boys

Fourteen small boys from St. Francis Home assisted Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh during the close of the annual convention of the National League of Cities which elected him president.

The NLC represents city officials from 13,000 communities and 50 states.

Mayor Cavanagh and city officials from 14 National Football League cities signed a proclamation lauding the Fifth Annual Punt, Pass and Kick Competition, the largest youth program of its kind in the nation. Last year about 670,000 registered for the competition. This year, more than one million boys are expected to register.

PP&K registration begins on Wednesday, September 1 and closes Friday, October 8.

Said Mayor Cavanagh: "There is nothing better for our young boys than competitive sports that instill in them a sense of determination to win and succeed. It is my sincere wish that this PP&K competition will grow and assist our youngsters in getting their first taste of life's victories and defeats."

Each of the 14 St. Francis boys were dressed in uniforms representing the 14 NFL teams and the city officials from those areas participated in the ceremonies. Led by their coach, Chuck Longo, the boys had their pictures taken with the NLC officers, had a big steak luncheon as tokens of appreciation from the Ford Dealers of America, which sponsors this competition, in cooperation with the NFL, for boys 8 through 13 years of age.

The PP&K program also received vigorous endorsement from Stan Musial, consultant to President Johnson on physical fitness. "As responsible citizens, we have an obligation to see that all American youngsters have an opportunity to develop the strong bodies and hardy spirits which are so important to their happiness and success. We can meet this challenge by providing good physical education programs in our schools and by supporting such programs as Punt, Pass and Kick," Musial stated.

Swimming Club Holds Banquet

The victorious and undefeated Grosse Pointe Farms Swim Club held its annual awards banquet on Tuesday, Aug. 17. Over 70 kids turned out for the dinner.

A large cake was presented to the team by coach Les Roddis which read: "Congratulations Farms Swim Team." This was in honor of the Farms winning the Inter-City Meet last week-end and having an undefeated dual meet record.

After the dinner four alternating trophies were presented to Farms swimmers who have participated in the past season. The Best Attendance Award was presented to Mary Fountain who is 11 years old. Coach Les Roddis feels that good attendance at practice is an important part of becoming a good swimmer. Also the desire to improve her swimming through constant practice helped Mary win this award.

The Most Valuable Swimmer Award in the Inter-City was awarded to the person who had scored the most points in the Inter-City meet, had kept the team working together as a unit and took the greatest interest in the individual members of the team. Attitude was the most important factor in determining who should win this award.

The award was presented to Jill Wieland, who is only 13 years old. She took a first place in the 50-meter back and the 50-meter breast, and took a second in the mixed relay. Both of Jill's individual wins were against some of the best swimmers in the state.

The Bideau-Noll Award is for the Most Improved Swimmer on the team. This award was presented to Mark Rentenbach, a 14-year-old, who improved his time in the 60-meter freestyle by over 20 seconds to become one of the best 14 and under in the Pointes. This was Mark's first year to swim competitively. Also taken into consideration for this award is the person's attendance at practice, his attitude towards the team and individual progress in swimming, and how much he has helped the team by scoring points.

The award for the Most Valuable Swimmer of the Grosse Pointe Farms Swim Team is the most important to be awarded to a member of the team. This award honors the person who has scored the most points in the dual meets and in the Inter-City competition, the person who has helped other members of the team improve their swimming, the person who takes an active part in developing his swimming through practice, and the person who has an attitude of being part of a working unit and not just an individual swimmer.

This award was presented to Pete Maxon who swims in the boys 14 and under. Pete averaged six points a meet and scored two firsts and a second in the Inter-City meet. Pete has worked very hard not only to improve his own swimming but the swimming of his team members too. His positive attitude towards winning has made the Farms victorious in every way. He has been the main leader of the team and has become a model for all.

After the awards were presented the team presented a card and a gift to coach Les Roddis. Movies were then shown and a dance was held outside to the music of the Us, a five-piece rock band. Dancing continued until 11 o'clock and the banquet finally came to an end. As the team looks back over this past season it will have many favorable moments to remember, for it was truly a victorious season.

To Change Long Distance Dialing

A new dialing method to safeguard Detroit telephone users against accidentally making long distance calls will go into effect September 19.

On that date, customers first must dial the numeral "1" to become connected with the long distance network — then dial the distant telephone number exactly as they do now.

The new procedure will apply only to calls dialed to long distance points. Local and message unit calls will not be affected.

"Except for dialing '1' before each direct dialed long distance call, nothing is changed," said William M. Day, president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company. "Local and message unit calls will be dialed as they are now by just dialing the telephone number."

"The purpose of the change is to provide a safeguard against an accidentally misdialed local or message unit call becoming a wrong-number long distance call," Day said. "Having to dial the numeral '1' first signals the caller and the dial equipment that a long distance call is being made. With this change, a mistake in dialing a Detroit number no longer can ring a telephone in Flint or some other long distance point in south-eastern Michigan."

The new procedure will not apply to calls dialed from one Detroit number to another or to message unit calls to the following exchanges — Birmingham, Center Line, Farmington, Livonia, Mayfair, Romulus, Roseville, Royal Oak, Southfield, Trenton, Troy, Warren, Wayne and Wyandotte.

Calls dialed from Detroit to points beyond these exchanges will not go through after September 19 unless the numeral "1" safeguard is used.

"Day said the dial '1' safeguard is being adopted throughout Michigan and eventually will become standard throughout the nation."

Football Coach Calls Practice

The call is out for varsity and reserve football squads of Grosse Pointe High School to report for practice at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, August 30, according to information released by Edward Wernet, head coach of the high school.

The coach said that those interested in playing with either the varsity or the reserve, must undergo a physical examination by the school physician. A physical by a family physician will not be accepted, Wernet said.

The varsity and reserve squads will work out together, the coach said, and with the staffs of both squads.

All incoming 10th graders from Brownell, Parcells and Pierce Junior High Schools, entering the senior high school this fall, are eligible for the try-outs, as are students new to the high school, enrolled in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades.

Eligible players, whether presently on vacation or not, who are unable to be present on August 30, should make every effort to report for practice as soon as possible. These boys, too, must receive a physical examination by the school physician, Wernet said.

Examinations will be on August 30, and other days will be designated for those who are unable to take one on this day, he added.

An Athlete's Victory

The surprise announcement Monday that Austin High School has been suspended from football competition for holding illegal pre-season practices is disturbing indeed. No matter what arguments may be proffered in defense of coach Mike Rhode or of the school's administrators, it is unfortunate when any coach, especially a coach in a school that espouses a strong Christian commitment, seems to overlook the moral responsibility he has to teach his team the value of winning fair and square.

But to tsk-tsk these participants for this "indiscretion" would be only to half state an issue. An important question involved here is simply this: How seriously should a school — or a society — take its athletics?

We recall with some amusement and uneasiness the last Little League game we watched. Oh, the pitcher was a mighty man! So mighty, in fact, that he delivered a one-hitter by breezing the ball past opponents who seemed for all the world to be standing in timorous trepidation. Strike-out after strike-out, with an occasional walk just to show that the young Hercules on the mound was human. And on the sidelines, a smooth-speaking public address announcer cooed the name of each trembling batter.

No, we offer no specific objection to the Little League and — needless to say — no harsh words against high school athletics per se. But it seems a shame to try to force a World Series gravity onto what might have been a nice sandlot game of ball. And in high school, it is regrettable when a coach feels compelled to risk moral censure in order to squeeze in a few more hours of practice.

Sure, it's important to win, and it's important to work hard to develop the will and the skill to be a winner. But the athlete's mind should be clean with the pride of personal achievement. Let him feel for himself the satisfaction of being part of a winning team. Secret practice sessions, just like secret weapons in the prizefighter's fist, couldn't help but deaden the excitement of an athlete's victory.

Letters to the Editor

To the editor:

It's a long way from Grosse Pointe, Michigan, to Watts, California, when you measure the distance in miles. But in another sense, the two communities are very close together. Watts, California, happened to be the spot where a nation's malaise finally came to the surface, exploding into five days of fiery turmoil and hostility. But the illness is not restricted to the miserable landscape of Watts, a squatters town inhabited by bitter Negroes who went to California in search of a new start and found themselves once more trapped in a world that refuses to grant them a fair chance.

As disturbing and dangerous as the Negro's economic position is, this is not the real lesson to be learned from the Watts rioting.

The basic problem at Watts was not that of the Negro without a job; it was the problem of a society without a leader.

Nationwide Problem

And this is a nationwide problem — a problem in Grosse Pointe, Michigan. The two traditional moral rallying points of American society have always been the Church and Government. Both have their own laws—laws which men have accepted through faith or through belief in "higher laws of society" as the only feasible alternative to moral anarchy.

The sad fact is that the concept of law has been dealt a crushing blow as our society has matured. Fighting for the rights of man through civil rights, wars on poverty or other crusades has brought a large element of society to a new awareness of self—and a new disinterest in social and moral traditions. (And religion, we must remember, is a strong traditional force in spite of its intensely personal significance to the individual.)

Hence it is that laws may be broken in the pursuit of that abstract idea, freedom, and corruption may be allowed to appear like a fungus in a program designed to liberate the poor. In short, the ends justify the means. From the White House to the street demonstration, this idea seems to be developing a new appeal.

Growing Pains

These are the growing pains of a society coming of age. And the oft-overlooked truth is that the dark and disturbing reports of America's new lawlessness may well be a prelude to a new dawn, a new light. Hopefully, these incidents reflect the inner struggle of a nation's conscience: an uneasy transition from severe, majoritarian morality to a new morality which emerges from the prudence and reason of the individual mind. The civil rights struggle, in its pure form, is an example of this self-wrought awareness of fellow men; but when it becomes an organized force, a stiff and insensitive institution, it takes on a new danger, and even a horror, as we learned at Watts. The moral conviction is gone, and all that remains is raw boldness.

It is a comfort to know that church and government at all levels seem ready to assert themselves against this new urge for lawlessness. It will continue to be the function of laws—both of God and of man—to prevent pure thoughts from stiffening under human organization and corruption. And if the Age of Unrest resolves itself, society should mold for itself a more vivid, more personal morality.

—M. WALTER AUBURN

To the Editor:

A "community" organization or enterprise is entitled to use the name of the community and to be recognized as a part of that community so long as it continues to serve the needs and desires of the individual and collective members of that community.

If this is true, then the organization calling itself "THE GROSSE POINTE COMMUNITY THEATRE" should be forced to discontinue its use of either the word Grosse Pointe or the word Community in its name. It should also be prevented from gaining special treatment or consideration from other true community-backed enterprises, including the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

To completely disregard the interests of individual season ticket holders of past years in favor of organizations purchasing blocks of 20, 50 and 70 seats in the most desirable locations for the Saturday evening performances—or any other performance for that matter—is certainly not in the community interest — defined by Webster as "... a body of persons having common rights, interests, and privileges."

While the desire to obtain pre-paid subscriptions is certainly understandable, the method used and the complete disregard for any principles of fair play is outrageous. To turn one's back upon those who supported them "before" they became successful is hardly the practice of an organization worthy to continue using the name of this community.

If these blocks of seats were sold to vendors seeking to gain favor with customers then I rather imagine that those who do attend will find themselves attending the plays with those who also attend the "Free" college football and basketball games.

For the first time in several years, none of these with whom I usually attend the plays nor I will be seeing the plays. Frankly, I'm hurt, disgusted — and ashamed.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ Donald J. Parsons

To the editor:

Government is taking to task the auto-makers for lack of progress in safety features in the automobiles we drive. It's time the citizens gave the same prod to local government.

Granted that the greatest improvement in driving safety rests with the person behind the steering-wheel, this factor is limited by human frailty and all other means of eliminating accidents should be pursued. There is a vast increase in the numbers of cars on the streets; and there is the tremendously increased psychological factor of the complicated tempo of our lives. Who today can drive serenely down the avenue with no other problem on his mind than steering the family vehicle on its course. It is the duty of local governments to make accidents hard to happen. The system of harsh penalties after an accident happens has been helpful—but only after the accident.

Room for Improvement

There is room for improvement where stop street meets stop street. Human mental frailty being what it is, the secure feeling of driving on a thru street causes a decrease in alertness and a tin Stop sign is no longer an adequate warning for such an intersection. The cost of blinker-lights at these corners is no longer a consideration and the citizenry should be up in arms to support their installation.

With insurance rates going sky-high after an accident, the modern community has long outgrown the presence of trees, shrubs, fences, mail-boxes, and bus waiting stations at stop street intersections — and all these are present in the Farms.

Please start with the Kerby-Beaure corner.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist:
Peggy Schmitz

The way of the eagle has been the envy of mankind from the beginning of history. The yearning for wings has been constant and intense — our mythologies are full of tales of magic carpets and flying horses, and writers of every century have dealt with the subject of flight. But it is our own age which has produced that great hollow metal dart that has chastened time and flung man toward the stars. I leave the rockets and missiles and outer space to others — I speak here of the airplane.

The story of aviation is one of the most brilliant in the records of human achievement. On the library shelves are numerous histories of the long and difficult struggle against, not only the immutable laws of nature, but superstition, ignorance and prejudice. S. P. Johnston's "HORIZONS UNLIMITED" is one such graphic account of the men and events that have figured prominently in aviation history. TRIUMPH, by Hy Steinman, and THEY FLEW THE ATLANTIC, by Robert de la Croix, bring alive the saga of pioneering Atlantic flight, when men set off in small machines never knowing if they would arrive.

The beginnings and development of the airline industry fill many books. Among the best is Byron Moore's THE FIRST FIVE MILLION MILES, a frank account by a veteran pilot. We even have the biography of an airplane in BIG FLIGHT—the DC8, which R.G. Hubler considers the last of the "true" airplanes.

Sells Safety

To those who are afraid to fly (in spite of the fact that the modern airplane is the most forbearing of any mechanical vehicle) I recommend R. J. Serling's THE PROBABLE CAUSE, a book which examines the fantastic accomplishments toward greater air safety.

The air is, however, and uncompromising element. As C. R. Smith, one of the pioneering giants of commercial aviation, is fond of saying, "The air is not inherently dangerous, but like the sea, terribly unforgiving of any carelessness or neglect." It is this that is a very part of the challenge that keeps men flying. The discipline and demands made on a pilot combine with a feeling that he has tasted freedom beyond compare. And even as a passenger in a jetliner, one looks out on corridors of clouds, and feels that here are all the answers if one could only grasp them. In the many personal narratives that have come out of the air age, there are constant musings on the importance of the individual, the comradeship of air crews and the closeness of man to God in vast space.

Percy Knauth in WIND ON

MY WINGS tells an intensely personal story of his discovery of what flying is. Guy Murchie's SONG OF THE SKY describes the experiences of an air navigator and explores the nature of the sky itself. Such memoirs as Dean Smith's BY THE SEAT OF MY PANTS, Gordon Taylor's THE SKY BEYOND, Sakuro Sakai's SAMURAI, Pappy Boyington's BAA BAA BLACK SHEEP and R. E. Byrd's SKYWARD make exciting reading.

STRANGER TO THE GROUND, by Richard Bach, describes a memorable mission of a young fighter pilot, and is a vivid portrait of an airman and his philosophy. BEST FOOT FORWARD, by Colin Hodgkinson, is the absorbing autobiography of an RAF pilot who lost both legs and came back to fly again. A legendary figure of World War II is portrayed in FLYING TIGER by R. L. Scott, the story of Gen. Claire Chennault and how he trained his "Tigers" in that dazzling aerial precision that became their trademark.

Workings of Fate

If you want a book without a dull word in it, take the splendid and many faceted memoir of Ernest Gann, FATE IS THE HUNTER. This is an articulate and purely wonderful autobiography that seizes the imagination and makes the work of airline pilots fully understandable. A story in essence, of all the men who fly, Gann constantly probes here the strange workings of fate in his life and the life of a plane.

Unequaled in the blending of factual realism and poetic vision is that hero and philosopher, Antoine de Saint-Exupery. His descriptions of flying are lyrical, thrilling, haunting, magnificent. WIND, SAND AND STARS is a philosophical essay on flights and fliers and an exciting story of adventure, a great, permanent and beautiful book. FLIGHT TO ARRAS, written during his reconnaissance flights over the German lines in 1940, is the credo of a fighting man to whom the ordinary reasons for fighting have proved unsatisfactory.

Finally, I must mention a most distinguished anthology of air age literature, THE SOUND OF WINGS, by J. B. Roberts and P. L. Briand. This is a really fine collection, edited with unusual grace.

These books are written almost without exception by men who fly. They reflect man's struggle to rise above the clinging bonds of earth and stand with the gods. They comprise a literature, which, like fliers' talk, intermingles the beautiful and the utilitarian, the spiritual and the practical, the sunset and the sparkplug. Here, for a few brief moments, we too can soar and wheel in halls of air and "dance the sky on laughter-silvered wings." We can forget that we are earth-bound.

From Another Pointe of View

By Anne Boynton

Talent scout Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair, of North Renaud road, has made a discovery! She submits:

The Rockettes of Radio City Music Hall had better look to their laurels! Their place in the spotlight is being challenged by a talented group of young ladies from Lochmoor Club. Precision is also their specialty, but, in a swimming pool as members of the club's synchronized water ballet group. Known also as the "Rockettes," the local girls feel no qualms whatsoever in assuming this title. They were prompted in their selection as an expression of their affection for the man who trains and directs them. His name—Ed Rocket.

All daughters of club members, the girls range in age from nine to 15. Like their counterparts, they strive for the ultimate in perfection in their routines through long hours of practice in the club's pool.

Perfection in the Making

For some of the girls, every waking hour this summer has been spent in the water. In addition to the synchronized Dolphins, Barracudas (sure that isn't Bacarudas, Mrs. S?) and Shark figure eights which they were learning, they also met the demands of a rigid training schedule with the club's swim team which began in the early morning hours. The swim team, by the way, went on to victory as champions in the Michigan Inter-Club Swimming Association.

Show Is Goal

On Thursday, September 2, at 8:30 p.m., the Rockettes will climax the months of concentrated rehearsals by presenting the fifth annual Concentrated Show at Lochmoor Club, titled "There's Nothing Like A Dame." Since the first show was presented five years ago with a cast of three, interest and enthusiasm for the precision art has grown. This summer the cast numbers 18.

longer strictly confined to the local area. Their reputation has spread and on occasion, Coach Rocket has trouped his girls to pools in and around the city where they perform at special functions.

Look Forward to Opening Night

Uppermost in their minds, though, is always the show which they prepare for doting parents and club members. Music, spotlights, dazzling costumes (designed and sewn by the girls and their mothers), solos and group routines suggest the glamour of a Broadway production.

"There's Nothing Like A Dame" will feature such numbers as "Hello Dolly," "Mathilda," "I Feel Pretty," and "Geisha A Go-Go," all dedicated to the alluring female.

Star Cast

Members of the up and coming troupe are Linda and Sandy Colombo, Chris Brink, Nancy Wood, Pinky Sinclair, and Mary, Ginny and Liz Ambrose. More are Dawn, Mary, Cheryl and Jane Lynch, Sharon Grob, Linda Kahle, Joyce Davidson, Kitty Wilkins, Mary Beth Vaughn and Carron Promack.

An added attraction of the show will be a dance routine at the pool's edge by the A Go-Go girls, Carolyn Wood, Janet Zurschmiede and Lucy Moran.

Travelling Teens

What could be more fun than a first European tour in the company of a dozen or so peers?

Not much in the eyes of several Pointe teens who just returned August 6 from three weeks abroad. Mary Comly, Mary Walker, Jean Hagman, Mike Cooper, Terry Elkiss, Karen Kimball, Roy Madsen, Sheila Sweeney, Peggy Murray, Sue Cowling, Cindy Sherman, and Mary Ann Griffin are still talking . . .

About the beautiful student center they stayed at in Rome that was built for the Olympics . . .

About swimming in the Mediterranean near Nice . . .

About riding a steamer down the Nile . . .

About the folk sing fests in Heidelberg . . .

About the bus that broke down in Germany . . .

And about Switzerland, generally conceded to be the favorite spot. * * *

From London the itinerary was as follows: Brussels, Amsterdam, Koblenz, Heidelberg, Lucerne, Milan, Florence, Venice, Rome, Nice, Paris, London, Detroit!

The idea for the trip sprouted when a representative from BOAC came to Miss Mutton and asked whether she would sponsor it. She hesitated, but agreed when Mrs. Pohlman said she'd join forces.

From Another Pointe of View

Impressions

Especially impressed because everyone was "so nice on the trip" was Mary Comly, daughter of the Hunter Comlys of Lakepointe avenue. Mary brought back a Swiss watch and sweater, a beer mug, some Italian leather, and glass.

Another Mary... Walker... daughter of the Donald Walkers of University place... let out an enthusiastic "great, fantastic" when asked how she felt. "Everybody took everything in stride," said she, and implied that some of the unscheduled mishaps made the trip. Among Miss Walker's souvenirs were sweaters, Venetian glass, and a street scene water-color from the Left Bank.

Miss Mutton, who's made the trip twice before but never with teen-agers, said "I could never have hoped to have such a nice group of young people. They were cooperative, cheerful, and gay."

They certainly had every reason to be!!!!

Guess what—The Grosse Pointe Garden Center, in dividing the iris in the trial gardens has a number to give away, but not too many. Any member is welcome to help herself if she will come down to the gardens this Friday morning at 9:30. Don't forget. First come, first served.

The Poets Speak

Don Marquis: "Publishing a volume of verse is like dropping a rose petal down the Grand Canyon and waiting for the echo."

Ogden Nash's congratulatory message to Phyllis McGinley, the first light-verse poet ever to win the Pulitzer award:

*A toast to Phyllis I'll now imbibe
In my favorite imbibery:
Light verse has been officially moved
From the game room to the library.*

American Patina Colonial Group

Smartly functional . . . yet so charmingly traditional the design is well suited to Early American and Colonial decor. The deep-sculptured, raised-panel doors and beveled drawer fronts present a classically simple facade. This styling is dramatically heightened by American Patina wiping stain finishes. You'll feel as though you have a full staff of servants, the way Mutschler pampers you . . . Storage near each work center saves bending, reaching and running about. ## who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

The Old Club is always a columnist's haven. Because of the nature of the club, and its predominantly Pointe membership, there is invariably something going on that will wind its way into the typewriter.

No exception was the weekend two weeks gone which uncovered the following. It's just TOO noteworthy to bypass.

Here's the word: The male genre of the Harsens Island enthusiasts have far outdone the ladies in their fashion choices. Honestly, Mr. Picard or Mr. Hickey or Mr. Steer or Mr. Stein or Mr. Shannon (and heaven help us if we've overlooked an advertiser) would have beamed at the fashion parade. In fact, the plumage of each old bird (that's only a phrase, friends, for youngsters over 21) at the party Saturday night would have knocked a peacock off his talons.

Off course, there was the usual array of batiks and seersucker shirts, but that was obviously not the look of this summer's "In Crowd." Needless to say, a dark suit or even gray slacks with navy blue blazer is definitely a gone-gone.

First of the unware models was H. R. Fruehauf, Jr., of Middlesex boulevard, who was gay, gay in the former popular madras. But his sport coat was apart from the usual, done in sumptuously lively shades of maroon, yellow and blue.

Looking good enough to eat was Joseph H. Spitzley, of Oxford road, in a sport coat in one of the yummiest shades we've seen . . . tomato.

Attired in a bow tie, a navy blazer complete with gold crest, and bright red slacks, appearing very dapper and fit, was A. Griswold Herreschoff, of Lincoln road.

Jack Combrinck-Olive, of Notre Dame avenue, was distinctive in an olive green jacket.

In a black and white checked sport coat which could not be termed bold, though neither could it be described as minutely conservative, was James Vernon Davis, of Beacon Hill.

Then there's Clarence D. Blessed, of Moran road, whose dark blue suit was relieved by a bright aqua tie, a great color!

Joseph H. Parsons, of Lakeview court, who is often dubbed the Old Club's most eligible bachelor, indeed stole the show. He was jacketed in what we'd call "confused madras" of the patchwork variety, and to go with it, some PLUM trousers. To complete the costume, he wore an arm sling, the result of a recent accident. (We must confess, however, that the sling was definitely out. It was white.)

This column would not be complete without having mentioned two gentlemen who will have to remain unidentified. Distinguished, yet somehow very grandfatherly looking, was one who sported a smashing jacket of pink denim. Very different and very smart. With him, at the same table, was another gray haired gent in an equally unusual combination . . . rust trousers topped with a beige raw silk shirt coat.

Quite a show it was!

Those concerned are still chuckling about an incident which occurred On-the-Hill on Monday, August 16.

Mrs. F. H. Kross, of 266 Moran road, had parked her green '65 Mustang in front of Wrigley's to do some shopping.

Upon returning, she hopped into the car, put the keys in the ignition, and started the motor. Only when she noticed a foreign litter bag in the back seat did she realize that the car, a green '65 Mustang, was not hers.

Mrs. K. called Farms police who checked out the license number and found the car to be registered to H. Gordon Wood, of Touraine road.

Seems Mrs. Kross and Mrs. Woods are friends and they decided they'd rather switch than fight.

Bride-Elect

To Be Bride

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, HELEN LOUISE, are Dr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Plopa, of Washington road, Miss Plopa's fiancé is Mark W. Hardwick, son of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Hardwick, of Rutherford road, Detroit.

The bride-elect attended Grosse Pointe High School, and is a junior at Michigan State University where she is affiliated with Chi Omega. Mr. Hardwick also attends Michigan State University where he will be graduated in June. He is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta.

Photo by Bill Williams. At a dinner party Sunday, August 22, at the Detroit Boat Club, Mr. and Mrs. Max Frederick Brown, of Merriweather road, announced the engagement of their daughter, BETTY BENDEK, to Charles Francis Loehrer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loehrer, of Alaine drive.

Miss Brown is a graduate of the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Mr. Loehrer, also a graduate of the University of Michigan, received an engineering degree. His fraternity is Alpha Sigma Phi. The wedding is planned for next summer.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. FREDERICK FORDON, OF MT. VERNON ROAD

By Anne Boynton

As a junior in college, Martha Fordon was one of those people who you can imagine would have the time of her life at a Moorish wedding. Even though she may not have known what was happening or why. And now, as a young wife and mother, she's still got that sparkle, though it may be channeled in slightly less novel directions.

Back to that Moorish wedding though, to which the then Miss Smith was invited while spending a year in Spain for her junior year abroad. Substituting a year's studies at Smith College, she attended private classes given by professors at the University of Madrid in Spanish art, history, literature, phonetics, geography and philosophy.

The wedding actually took place in Tetuan, the capital of Spanish Morocco, and is what Mrs. Fordon recalls as the most unusual of her experiences away from the States. She described the event which went on amid a background of typically Moorish music, the musicians playing violins which they held upright in their laps, like cellos.

There was really no ceremony as we think of a wedding, she said. It was more like a reception. In customary fashion, that of secluding Moorish women, the only females present were European or American. The bride did appear, but it was impossible to see her as she was completely veiled.

After the marriage, a meal was served of cuscus and tea (in place of alcohol which the Moors never touch). The tea was drunk boiling hot, sorghum with mint, and sweetened with heaps of sugar. A bowl, pitcher and bar of soap were brought around before and after the meal, "because you ate with your fingers," Mrs. F. chuckled.

Though England, France, Germany, and Italy are probably more popular as stamping grounds for American students, Spain was a natural choice for Senora Fordon. Her father speaks Spanish, and she had had four years of the language by the time she decided to make the trip. Despite adequate preparation, however, she admits that it took her a full three months before she began to feel familiar in a foreign tongue. "The true test," she says, "is being able to converse over the telephone."

This she must have passed, for when she completed her last term at Smith, she went on to obtain her master's in Romance Languages and Literature at the University of Michigan.

She was happy to move on to teaching, where she could indulge in and share her knowledge of Spanish. A willingness to pass on experience gained in the country about which she was teaching must certainly have helped establish a rapport between the very young teacher and her students at Ann Arbor High School. Despite the relatively small age difference though ("Some of those boys just towered over me"), Mrs. Fordon soon learned that students don't want to be "real chummy." She believes this to be an important realization and considers it equally true of raising children.

Mrs. Fordon appreciated the high standards at Ann Arbor High. The proximity of the University made for an education-conscious atmosphere and she respected the town immensely for it. However, home was Detroit to this gal who had always lived here, and she soon found herself wanting to come back.

Naturally, the thought of something new and different was appealing, and this time it was office work. She stayed two years at the Buhl Land Co., starting as a receptionist and telephone operator, and ending up as a bookkeeper. Romance soon bloomed when Martha and her future husband met at their old stamping she said. She admitted however, that Mr. F., who is a book lover, confines his interest to "liking to watch me garden."

Knitting takes up still more of Martha's time. Her handwork was evident in the green lattice cable she had casually thrown over her shoulders and the green chain link cable she was working on. She recalled that she began this hobby in World War II knitting squares for Red Cross afghans.

Then there's sewing which she first took up as a young girl. "Mother (Mrs. Harold R. Smith, of Merriweather road) was frustrated," she smiled knowingly. "It was raining at the cottage and there was nothing for me to do." She started with embroidery, then to dalt clothes, then her own. The shift which she had on, a polished cotton print in yummy fruit shades of yellow, orange, and green, she made herself. She has recently finished three outfits for Ann also: a pink corduroy overall-overshoe set, a yellow seersucker shift applied with a flower in a pot, and a hand smocked dress of pale aqua. The draperies in the living room and a bedspread upstairs are some of her projects, and she also admitted a weakness for needle point and tatting.

Spanish is an avocation which Martha has always tried to keep up. As a substitute teacher, she hoped to get a chance to use it, but she laughingly recalls that she never got one call for Spanish. Chorus, yes, English, certainly, but never Spanish. Now, however, she is involved in the activities of a group which meets at the War Memorial the first Monday every month. It has had as its guest, the Nicaraguan consul, for instance, and often features movies with Spanish sound tracks at its meetings.

Fashionscope, the Junior League's fall showing and tea for the benefit of its Community Fund, is Mrs. Fordon's current project. Although she hasn't been in the organization quite a year, she has taken on the responsibilities of publicity chairman. This has involved with writing releases and notifying papers, and the sending out of invitations. Most of Martha's efforts (she has no committee) were proudly displayed at the August 10 press luncheon. She then released a press kit which tells not only of the show, but of Junior League policy and projects.

GARDEN CASSEROLE

Contributed by
Mrs. F. F. Lang, Jr.

- 4 tomatoes
- 2 green peppers
- 1/2 lb. green beans
- 1 small summer squash
- 1/4 cup raw rice
- 6 green onions
- Salt and pepper to taste

Peel tomatoes, remove the seeds from green peppers, and quarter them. Remove tips from green beans. Slice onions and summer squash. Put all vegetables in large casserole, sprinkle raw rice over them (to gather up the succulent juices), season with salt and pepper, and bake covered for about 1 hour at 350 degrees. Serves 4.

scrumptious designer costumes, many of which will be featured in the show, will give commentary. Members of the League will model.

And if this isn't enough, Mrs. F. is on Junior League's finance committee, is sewing for the Children's Booth, and is past secretary of the Smith College Club of Detroit and present Membership Chairman. Also, she is a member of the Women's Hospital Volunteer League, having worked weekly as a volunteer for three years, and was recently elected its secretary.

Who knows what tomorrow's project will be?

New residents of the Pointe consider our salon at 117 Kercheval-on-the-Hill a delightful discovery. They like the attitude of my expert staff in giving them the hair styles that they prefer—way out high fashions—or casual classic designs—Jumbo-Curl Perms and personalized beauty service at far less than one would expect to pay.

They like the relaxed friendly atmosphere—and our convenient location with a direct entrance from the large parking area at the rear of the building. Call TUxedo 1-6833 and discover new beauty for your tired tresses.

My own discovery of the week is a fine new restaurant—in a beautiful location only minutes away from the Pointe—"The Breakers" in The River House. If you like a table with a view—a wide selection of out-of-the-world food at down-to-earth prices—go to "The Breakers"—Phil Skilman at the piano bar adds up to a fun evening.
