AMERICAN CARDINALS Wednesday backed a proposed Ecumenical Council declaration on man's right to freedom of conscience in worship. Archbishop Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York and Richard James Cardinal Cushing of Boston asserted that religious liberty is "the truth on which all human rights and society are founded." The opposed conservative Spanish and Italian position was stated by Archbishop Cardinal de Arriba y Castro, of Spain: "Only the Catholic Church has the right to preach the Gospel... (the declaration) will ruin the Catholic Church if it is put into effect in those states where Catholicism is the leading religion."

COMMUNIST CHINA Thursday threatened India with "grave consequences" unless India withdraws within three days from a Tibet-Sikkim border area which China claims is legally hers. The ultimatum followed reports of unusually heavy concentration of Chinese troops along the disputed border between India and Communist-occupied Tibet.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE Robert McNamara announced Thursday that the Defense Department will hire about 60,000 civilians to replace military personnel in noncombat jobs, thus enabling it to reduce draft calls by about 75,000 over the next 18 months. He also expressed cautious optimism over the progress of the war in Vietnam, stating that large-scale Viet Cong attacks have decreased decidedly during the last eight to ten weeks.

FIRES in northern California Friday destroyed more than 250 ranch and farm buildings, besides burning 123,000 acres of timber and grassland. Although diminishing winds Friday evening improved the situation, three towns were reported threatened by the flames as more than 20 fires roared out of control.

REPORTS of Communist Chinese troop movements through Tibetan valleys toward the Indian frontier spurred that nation today to prepare for an expected red intervention in the India-Pakistan war. New Delhi figures that early Monday India time the deadline for the Chinese ultimatum to dismantle 56 posts along the Tibet-Sikkim border or face "grave consequences." In a speech to the UN Security Council, U.S. Ambassador Goldberg said that the threat of Chinese intervention makes an immediate cease-fire and the warring nations imperative.

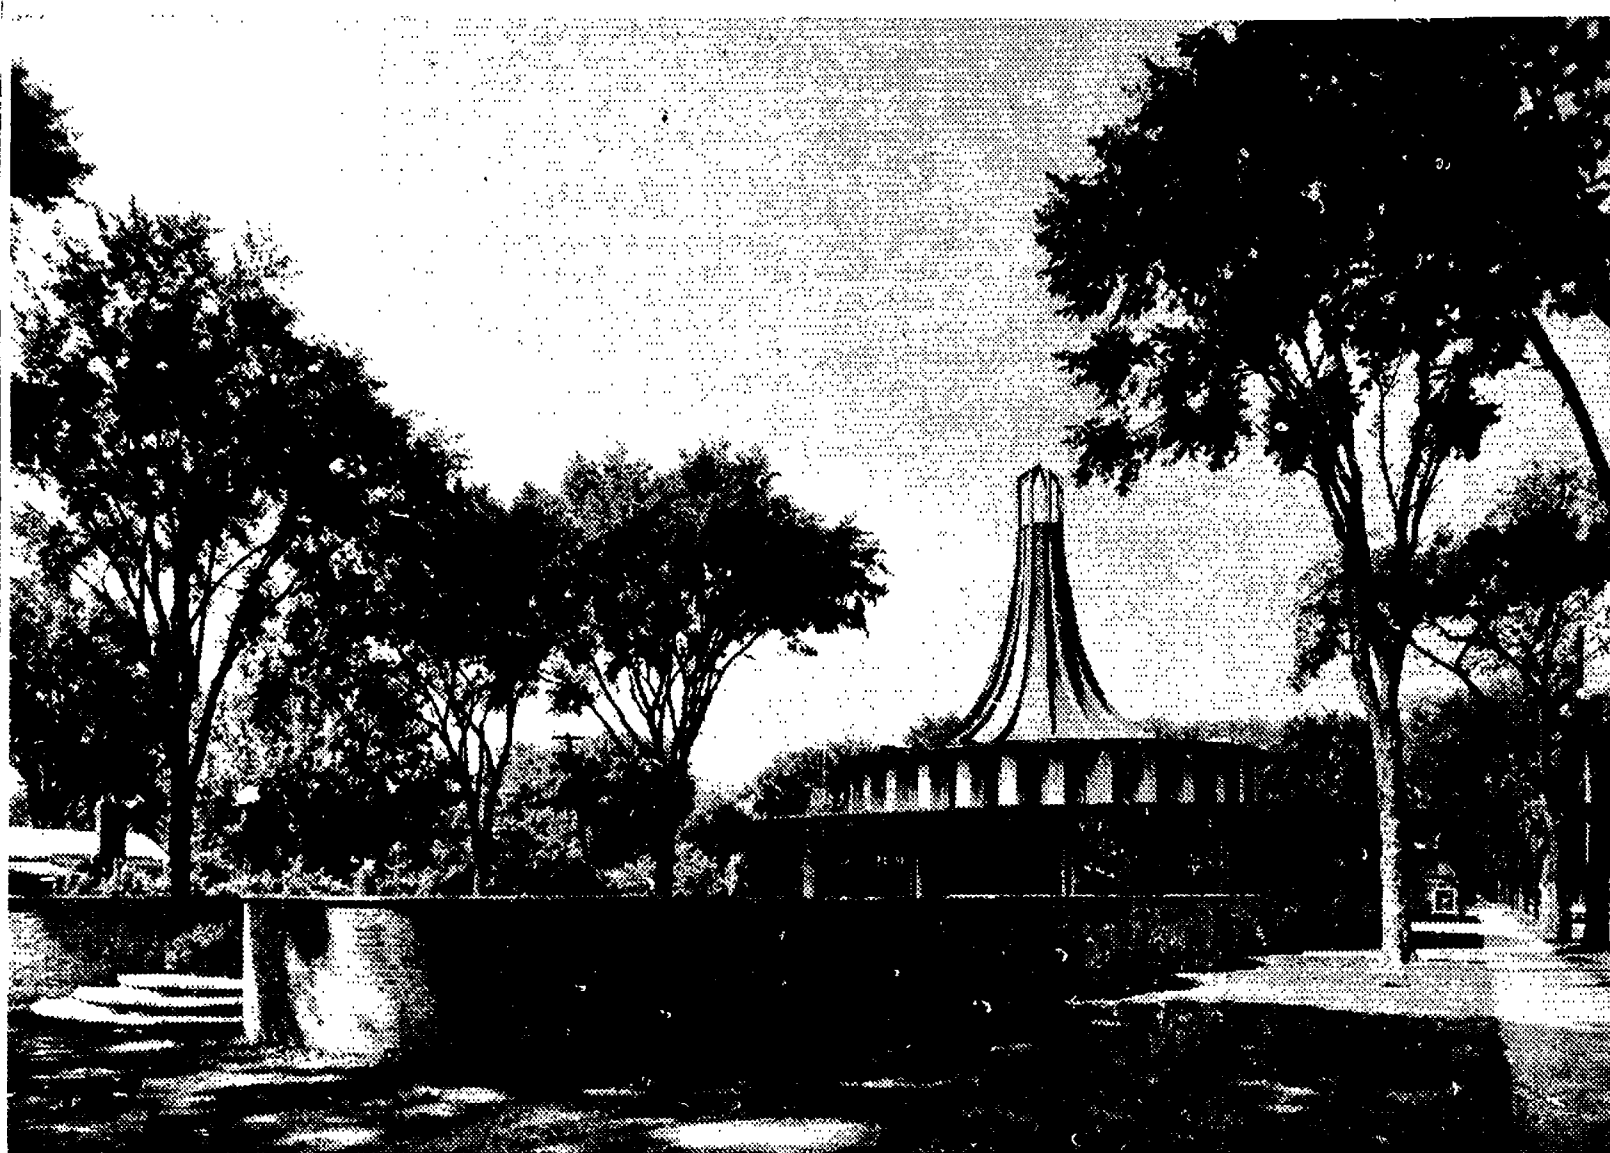

Monday, September 20

The UN Security Council today gave India and Pakistan 48 hours to end the war over Kashmir. Meeting in post-midnight emergency session, the body issued a resolution setting the deadline for the cease-fire at 2 a.m. Wednesday (Detroit time) and calling upon both governments to withdraw their troops to positions held before the outbreak of fighting, Aug. 5. UN Secretary General U Thant was asked to provide "the necessary assistance to supervise the cease-fire and withdrawal." The UN action came just hours after Red China had extended on its demand that India dismantle her bases along the Sikkim border.

Tuesday, September 21

INDIA Monday night assured the United Nations that it would honor the Security Council's cease-fire demand provided Pakistan did. The Security Council approved India's demand for a 19-hour advance notice of Pakistan's compliance with the order. So far, there has been no indication that Pakistan will agree, although her only apparent alternative is open defiance of the UN.

New Unitarian Church in Maumee Avenue

Kiwanis Club Sale to Help Needy Kids

Annual Peanut Day Drive to Finance Program to Be Conducted This Friday and Saturday

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club is having its annual National Kid's Day peanut drive on Friday and Saturday, September 24 and 25.

Members of the Kiwanis Club, who are local business and professional men, will be out on the major traffic intersections from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. both days. This is not a house-to-house campaign.

Saturday, September 25, has been declared National Kid's Day by issuance of a proclamation by Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod and approved by the City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods. This day is observed by Kiwanis Clubs nationwide.

National Kid's Day function is to raise money for underprivileged children through the sale of peanuts. Business and professional men of Grosse Pointe Woods have generously contributed toward underwriting the cost of the peanuts. All contributions go directly into the Underprivileged Children's Fund.

In the past years, contributions have aided in heart operations, purchases of eye glasses, hearing aid repairs, food for needy families, shoes for barefoot children, aids to education, and many other youth charities. Moreover, the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club purchased and maintains two buses to transport our

History-Making Meeting Held by School Leaders

Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Public School System and members of his staff made presentations during a history-making meeting on Monday afternoon with representatives of Grosse Pointe's non-public schools.

Purpose of the meeting was to explore the ramifications of Act No. 343 passed almost unanimously by the Michigan Legislature on July 23, 1965. The legislation provides for the sharing of auxiliary services with the non-public schools in the community.

The meeting was in charge of Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. He outlined the provisions of Act 343, and described the auxiliary services currently provided by the Grosse Pointe Public School Sys-

Anatomy of New Unitarian Church Reflects Insight Of Late Charles Backus

Architect of Half Million Dollar Structure in Maumee Avenue Killed in Tragic Accident Six Weeks Before Dedication

By Shirley Erickson

The anatomy of Grosse Pointe's newest and most unusual church is an interesting one. Much of it relates to the architectural insight of the late Charles Backus, killed in a tragic accident only six weeks before the dedication of his first—and only—church building.

Backus started with a circular concept for the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, now located at 17150 Maumee avenue. The circle is the Unitarian-Universalist symbol, but the circle is also symbolic of unity, friendship, and the very basic forms in our own universe—the planets and stars. The form of the building, like the Unitarian religion itself, is fresh and modern and yet rooted in the past.

As Backus once explained it, "While this may appear as a new or even futuristic approach, the circle is actually one of the oldest and most revered forms of architectural devices. Notable examples are Stonehenge near Salisbury, England, which is a Neolithic age and the Pantheon in Rome which was built in A.D. 120 and has influenced many buildings since, including our nation's Capitol."

Structure Cost $500,000
The church is actually two circles: one the chapel hall and the other the church school. Joining the two circles is an area containing the lobby and administrative sections. The church contains 15,000 square feet plus another 5,000 square feet in a church school annex behind the church. Total cost of the building is $500,000.

Topping the chapel hall is the most striking feature of the church—a copper-covered spire soaring 60 feet into the air. Backus viewed this unswerving need to reach beyond himself. In contrast to the unusual, almost jaunty, silhouette on the outside, the view inside the chapel can only be described as awe-inspiring. It is possible to look up to the tip of the spire, and there is almost a hypnotic urge to do so.

The chapel hall, accommodating about 300 adults, features a large fireplace in a gallery at the rear. The fireplace with its associations of warmth and friendship was given a prominent place in the church. Large expanses of glass around the side of the hall will overlook

Juveniles Facing Burglary Charge

Park police obtained a warrant from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, for the arrest of William D. Harder, 17, of 1368 Wayburn, who is accused of the August 24 burglary of the New Car Conditioning Shop, 15000 Charlevoix.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that the warrant was recommended and obtained on Thursday, September 16, charging Harder with breaking and entering in the nighttime, and larceny from a building.

A 15-year-old boy, who was said to have been with Harder at the time of the burglary, has been arrested and charged against him filed with Juvenile Court Authorities.

On the August date, the two teenagers, according to the charges, broke into the shop, owned by Richard Buick Company, Inc., 15103 Kercheval, and removed and took four new tires and wheels from a 1965 car, and also took a hand-type buffing machine from the shop building. Total value of the tires and buffer was set at $385.

Det. James LaPratt, who was assigned to the case, discovered the identity of one of the pair, Harder, through latent fingerprints left on the stripped automobile.

The detective said that the tires and wheels and buffer have been recovered.

Police Accuse Parolee, Pal As Prowlers

One Suspect Arrested in Car, Second Caught After Shot-Punctured Chase

A prowler suspect was arrested by Park police early Tuesday morning, September 14, while sitting in a car, and a second suspect was captured after a shot-punctured foot chase.

Arrested on suspicion of prowling were Lawrence W. Lautzenhiser, 24, of 715 Parker, and Roosevelt Carter, Jr., 19, of 2253 East Fort Street, both of Detroit.

Both suspects were arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Pelanger on Wednesday, September 15, and each entered pleas of not guilty to a charge of prowling. The judge adjourned the hearing to yesterday, September 22, and released Carter on $150 cash bond.

Halted by Shots
Lautzenhiser, a State parolee, was also required to post bond of $150, and was released to his parole officer for violation of parole. The suspect had sought to run away from police, but was arrested after two shots were fired at him.

According to information released by Police Chief Arthur Louwers, Patrolmen Rodney Wedding and Robert Saiford, while on patrol at 3:23 a.m. Tuesday, observed a car, the motor running, in the alley at the rear of Beaupre Studio, 15118 Kercheval. As they approached, the officers saw a man jump from the roof to the ground, and start running toward Kercheval.

Wedding arrested Carter, who was sitting in the automobile, and Saiford took off after Lautzenhiser on foot. The chase led north across Kercheval.

Driver, Cyclist Tell Same Story

A motorist and two motorcyclists were issued tickets for reckless driving Sunday night, September 19, after all three lodged complaints against each other with police.

Arthur W. Holler, 47, of 13215 South Oxford, was driving a 1965 Corvette when, he reported, two motorcyclists going west on Maumee tried to run him down.

The cyclists made the same charge against Holler. They were Ralph McQuaid, 28, 872 Beaconsfield, and Michael Joseph Salembier, 32, 5038 Montclair, Detroit.

All were released on $50 cash bond.

GP City Elm Loss Set at 49; Control Study Authorized

Solons Approve Ordinance Revision Giving Administration More Authority to Enforce Removal of Diseased and Dead Trees

The City council expressed concern regarding the increasing loss of elm trees in Michigan from the Dutch Elm Disease, especially the loss in the Pointe area, and ordered a study for a possible revision of its Elm Spray Ordinance.

At a regular monthly meeting on Monday, September 20, the concern was expressed by Councilman Ernest B. Kelly, Jr., who noted the appalling loss of the shade trees in the Pointe, and especially in Detroit, where the loss this year will run into the thousands.

Kelly said that losses are high throughout the State, with the battle continuing against the dread blight that is taking such a heavy toll.

A report from Robert Benzinski, City treasurer, who was acting city clerk in the absence of City Manager John Cartwell, disclosed that the City lost a total of 49 elms this year, 22 on public property, and 27 privately-owned.

Report Awaited
Benzinski said that although a complete analysis report has not been received from the Michigan Department of Agriculture, on samples of suspect trees, the total figure loss has just about been reached.

Kelly's concern was echoed by Mayor David Burgess and the other members of the council, who approved a revision in the present Elm Spray Ordinance, which would make it mandatory that property owners removed diseased or dead elms within 10 days after orders to that effect have been received.

Benzinski told the council that the ordinance does not have any provisions requiring the removal of diseased or dead elms within the 10-day period, and that the City must wait until such an order is received from the State, after which the City enforces the removal under State law.

Want Study Made
The council agreed that the 10-day removal requirement should be included in the present ordinance, and authorized a study be made on the best method of controlling the Dutch Elm Disease, and the preparation of an amendment that would give the City the authority to compel the removal of diseased elms within 10 days.

The council appointed City Manager John Cartwell and City Attorney Charles Wright, III, to meet with Lawrence Shock, president of Shock Brothers, the firm that does the City's spraying and tree removal, to study the best method of control, and report to the council at a future meeting.

FIRE SHOTS IN PARK

W. E. Blixt, 671 Washington, reported to police on September 13 that an unknown person was firing shots in the dock area of the City Park. Police who checked the area found nothing, although a car noticed earlier near Alger place had left when officers arrived.

Woods Police Seek Couple In Gem Theft

Pair Pull Switch Game, Substituting Money Diamond Ring for a Real One

Woods police are looking for two suspects, a man and a woman, who are accused of stealing an expensive wedding ring, and an inexpensive watch from the House of Gems, 19591 Mack avenue, on Tuesday, September 14.

Det. Gerald Kensora said on Monday, September 20, that the suspects are Detroiters, and have been known to use the same method of operation in other stores in the Detroit area.

The detective said that the complaint was received from the owner of the jewelry store, Joseph Mocer, 28, of 23113 Joy street, St. Clair Shores.

After an investigation of several days, sufficient evidence was obtained, for warrants for the arrest of an unknown John Doe and Mary Doe, Kensora said.

Man Attempts To Enter Home

Mrs. Marion Bancroft, of 604 Notre Dame, informed police that a suspicious looking man tried to enter her home shortly after 10 p.m. Sunday night, September 12. She said that the man came to her door and asked her if the dog bit, trying to open the screen door at the same time. He continued to try to open the door even after Mrs. Bancroft told him that the dog did bite, but it was locked.

The man then told Mrs. Bancroft that he was a paper boy, that he had lost some money and was looking for 482 Notre Dame. Mrs. Bancroft replied that she didn't know the location of the house and closed the door. She called police, but they were unable to find anyone in the neighborhood. They discovered, however, that the Notre Dame address was nonexistent.

Mrs. Bancroft described the man as about 30, thin and approximately 6 feet tall, with brown hair combed straight back. She said he was wearing a white shirt and khaki pants.

GPEA Seeks Sole Right To Bargain

Petition Filed with Labor Mediation Board to Conduct Representative Balloting

The MEA-NEA-affiliated Grosse Pointe teachers' group has petitioned the Labor Mediation Board to conduct a representative election seeking to name the Grosse Pointe Education Association as sole bargaining agent for all certificated, non-supervisory, contractual employees.

Michigan Public Act 379, signed July 23, 1965, and effective immediately, dispelled the confusion that had developed in recent years as to the legality of boards of education entering into sole bargaining agreements with teacher groups. The board must now bargain with the group elected by the teachers as a sole bargaining agent.

Dr. William Sosnowsky, GPEA president, announced, "The Grosse Pointe Education Association has long been the majority, nationally-affiliated professional group in Grosse Pointe. The officers of the GPEA decided to move as soon as possible since they could see no benefit from prolonged strife deciding whether or not to use this new legislation. Authorization signature blanks were circulated the first day the teachers arrived to test the teachers' willingness to adjust their organization to the changing times. Many more than the necessary 30 percent of the faculty signatures have been collected. Teachers have obviously been following the summer's news. They are willing to face issues now so that they can concentrate on educating the children with the least amount of distraction."

General Meeting Held
At a special general membership meeting September 15, discussions were held; and after building caucuses, the GPEA governing board voted to utilize every legal means possible to secure single negotiating rights for all Grosse Pointe certificated, non-supervisory, contracted personnel.

As the next necessary legal step, Dr. Sosnowsky, Virginia Downs, GPEA president-elect, and John Schwan, GPEA treasurer, met with Edward Pongracz, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education; Dr. Charles Wilson, Superintendent of Schools; and Thomas E. Coulter, attorney for the Board of Education, to inform the Board of Education that unless the Grosse Pointe Education Association was officially recognized as the sole bargaining agent by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the Association would petition the Labor Mediation Board for a collective bargaining election.

Other Groups Exist
The GPEA officers reported that the representatives of the Board informed them that the formal acceptance or rejection of the request would necessarily require approval from the convened Board of Education. It was apparent, however, that in good faith and in the full knowledge of the existence of other teacher organizations, the Board of Education would not be able to grant sole bargaining rights to the Grosse Pointe Education Association.

Consequently, the formal petitions for election were delivered to the Labor Mediation Board, which, as the next step, will schedule an informal hearing to secure a consent election.

Dr. Sosnowsky explained, "The Association wants a secret ballot so that we can move with a clear mandate from the teachers. It is expected by the officers that the ballot will list three choices: the Grosse Pointe Education Association, Grosse Pointe Local 819 of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), or no sole bargaining agent."

The date of the election is the next big question.

SQUIRREL SHOOT

Two boys reported shooting squirrels with cross-bow and arrow at the intersection of Cadieux and St. Paul were warned by police Tuesday evening and released.

History Making Meeting Conducted

Dr. Selmeier told the group of the problems in staffing the Department of Pupil Personnel. He said that the post of the director had been vacant from July 1 until September 20, and that the school system has been trying all summer to employ a psychologist. "The new demands for auxiliary services will cause serious demands on an already short supply of personnel," he indicated. "We also anticipate a vacancy among our visiting teachers," he added.

In order to provide the services required under the law, Dr. Selmeier said that it will probably be necessary for the public schools to reduce at least temporarily the scope of their auxiliary personnel on an equal basis. "We intend to uphold both the spirit and the letter of the law," he said.

Dr. Selmeier said that the Administrative Code which provides for the implementation of Act 343, was prepared by a committee of five representatives under rules and regulations laid down by the State Board of Education.

A public hearing on the Administrative Code occurred September 7 in Lansing. "We know of no revisions in the proposed Code resulting from that meeting," he said.

The State Board of Education passed on the proposed Code last Thursday.

The proposed Code is in the hands of the Attorney General at the present time. He is examining it to see whether it meets the spirit and the letter of the law passed in July. There seems to be little doubt that the State Attorney General will approve the Code. Then it will be sent on to the Governor and the Secretary of State who must promulgate it.

The law says that the auxiliary services must be provided as soon as possible. "The Code is not in effect the present time, however, it could be put into effect any time—tomorrow or next week," he said.

Dr. Selmeier mentioned that at the present time the full cost of the expansion of auxiliary services must be borne by the local school district. Next year there would be partial assistance from the state on speech correction and visiting teacher services but the state makes no special assistance available for nursing or remedial reading services.

Dr. Selmeier distributed to the representatives of the non-public schools at the meeting copies of documents to assist them in their use of public school auxiliary services. He provided each person with a copy of Act No. 343 and of the proposed Michigan Administrative Code from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction in Lansing.

In addition, he presented mimeographed materials on the following services of the Department of Pupil Personnel of The Grosse Pointe Public School System: speech correction; the visiting teacher service; and the criteria for the selection of students for remedial reading.

Reginald P. Sienkiewicz, newly appointed Director of Pupil Personnel, who began his duties with The Grosse Pointe Public School System on Monday, will coordinate the services offered the non-public schools.

In addition to Mr. Sienkiewicz, other staff members from the schools' Department of Pupil Personnel who assisted Dr. Selmeier were Miss Carolyn Wheel-

Gem Theft

(Continued from Page 1) girl in the establishment, name withheld, and a 15-year-old male relative of Mocerri, were questioned. The sales girl and the boy were the only persons in the store at the time of the thefts.

The girl told Kensora that she had opened the store at about 10 a.m., and as she does every morning, took jewelry out of the safe and arranged them for display.

At about 4 p.m., the sales girl said, a lone white male entered the store, asking if his wife had been seen in the establishment.

The man turned and walked out, and about five or 10 minutes later, returned with a woman, whom he identified as his wife. The smooth talking man told the sales girl that he and his wife had been married only a short time and he wanted to buy his wife a set of rings. The girl took out several rings to show the couple.

Had Ring in Purse While the couple were looking at the rings, the woman reached into her purse and took out what appeared to be an engagement ring, stating that she was looking for something with similar size stones.

The woman looked at the rings on display, and put on and took off the rings as though trying them for size. The sales girl said she went to the rear of the store to bring out other stones.

In the meantime, the woman's companion went to a counter, to look at rings and watches designed for male wear. He looked at them for a while, then returned to the side of his "wife."

After looking at the rings for a short time, the man and woman asked when the store proprietor would be in, and when informed, they said they would return to talk to him, since they did not see the size of diamond they were looking for, and they left.

Had Big Roll The sales girl said that the man pulled a roll of bills out of his pocket, and she saw a $100 bill on top.

The 15-year-old boy put away the rings that had been viewed by the couple, and when the sales girl left for home a short time later, she was unaware that a real diamond ring was missing, and a phony one was in its place.

The bogus ring was identified by the 15-year-old boy, Kensora said, as the item the man had pulled out of his pocket and shown to him. The man told the teenager that the ring was a cheap one, and he wanted to buy his wife an expensive one.

Mocerri told the officer that his young cousin had told him about the couple, when he (Mocerri) came into the store later, and that they had looked at the rings and watches.

Left 50 Cent Ring Mocerri said he became suspicious, and went to the ring counter, and found the phony ring in place of a real diamond ring, valued at $165. The phony ring is valued at 50 cents.

Later, Mocerri said, he discovered the watch, valued at about $17, missing from a men's watch display.

Warrants for a John Doe and a Mary Doe were recommended by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, charging larceny from a building.

er, visiting teacher; Mrs. Alberta Davis, registered nurse; Mrs. Blanche Keffen, elementary remedial reading teacher; and Miss Ruth Curtis, speech correctionist.

Edward J. Pongracz, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, also greeted the assembled representatives of the school district's non-public schools.

"A big challenge has been handed the educators of Michigan. Although this year may try the patience and understanding of many of us, we shall all work together for the benefit of the boys and girls of this community," he said.

The arts and furnishings were selected by a committee headed by Mrs. A. Boynton Hartz. Members include Mrs. John Herrman, Miss Jean Harris, Mrs. Allen Preiwal and Mrs. Henry Kohring.

Old furniture from the Jefferson avenue church harmonizes with the newly-purchased modern furniture. An eye-catching old table and chair made of ebony oak stand at the main entrance, along with a 14th Century Italian painting of a Madonna. In contrast there are two modern paintings by Catherine Hartley and Katherine Wolf Keir, a Grosse Pointe artist.

An exquisite gold embroidered Chinese screen, a loan from Mrs. Otto Fischer, dominates the library. Two Spanish candelabra from the William Randolph Hearst estate flank the fireplace.

Tell Man's Search All these items represent many religious search from many different times and places throughout the history of the world.

This religious search is also symbolized in the delicate, hand-fashioned aluminum screen which is a focal point of the altar. It was designed by John W. Carson, a member of the church. Backus approved the design but never lived to see the screen completed.

Incorporated into the screen are religious symbols from all over the world such as the Lotus from India and the Star of David. Also on the screen is the circle taken from the poem by Edwin Markham:

"He drew a circle that shut me out— Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout. But love and I had the wit to win: We drew a circle that took him in!"

Had Under Auto The patrolman found Lautzenhiser hiding underneath an automobile in the area, and placed him under arrest. Police Sgt. Henry Coonce, dispatched to the scene by radio, arrived to assist Wedding and Salford in taking the prisoners to the station.

At the station, it was found that Lautzenhiser was on parole from prison, and his parole officer was notified. The parole officer requested a hold on Lautzenhiser, and took him into custody after the court arraignment.

Chief Louwers said that in the absence of any evidence that the pair had committed a burglary, a charge of prowling was filed against them.

At the conclusion of the meeting a slate of nominees for new Board members will be presented for election. They include William F. Huetteman, Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, Robert H. Kanzler, Harry W. Mellen, and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer.

WINDOW BROKEN

An unknown person or persons put a quarter-inch hole in the window of McR's Service Station, 335 Fisher, between Tuesday evening, September 7, and Wednesday morning, September 8, according to information given City police by Zack Moir, the station's proprietor. Police said the hole may have been made by a projectile.

Reports Robbery Of Wallet, Watch

Robert L. Garbesi, 43, of 744 Notre Dame, was robbed of his wallet and wrist watch shortly after 1 a.m. Friday, September 3, after stepping from a bus at Mack avenue and Bluehill.

According to information released by City police, his assailants were two men about six feet tall, wearing green fatigues and driving a 1963 Pontiac or Buick convertible, colored either black or burgundy.

The wallet contained two dollars in cash, a check for $134.29, a driver's license and miscellaneous papers, police said.

Garbesi told police that he got off the bus at the intersection and crossed Mack to Notre Dame. As he did so, he noticed a car, with its lights off, parked at Mack and Cadieux.

Garbesi said he continued down Notre Dame, and as he neared number 850, the car pulled up next to him and one of the passengers asked him for directions to Warren avenue. Then both occupants got out of the car. One man made a motion with his hand and told Garbesi to give him his wallet, then ordered him to lay on the grass. After he did so, Garbesi stated, both men drove off, going south on Notre Dame.

Park police officers Rod Wedding and Robert Salford, alerted by City police, recovered the missing papers, including the check, shortly after 2 a.m. during a routine cruise.

The stolen items, apparently hastily discarded by the two men during their escape, were scattered over the block between Harvard and Bishop on Jefferson. Still missing, however, were the watch and two dollars in cash.

Several hours later, about 4 a.m., Detroit's Seventh Precinct received a similar holdup report.

Twelve New Teachers Join St. Paul's School Faculty

By Sister Marie Jude, O.P.
When St. Paul School opened last Wednesday, 12 new teachers had joined the faculty ranks.

In the grade school, Sister Marie Alphonsus, formerly principal at Sacred Heart School, New Bavaria, O., became the new grade school principal.

Sister Sean Martin, formerly a teacher at St. Peter's, Harper Woods, began teaching the second grade at St. Paul's.

John Shay and Miss Janet Rumora began teaching classes in the seventh and fourth grades respectively.

In the high school, Sister Mary Gael will now teach the junior and sophomore English classes. Sister Gael returned recently from a summer spent at the Institute of Literary Criticism for High School Teachers with the Master of Arts Degree. The institute, held at the University of the Pacific, Stockton, Cal., operates with funds obtained from an NDEA grant.

Sister Grace Loretto who spent the past six years as principal in the parish school in Conneaut, O., returns to St. Paul's after a two-decade absence. She will direct the Latin department.

Sister Jane Ellen, head of the mathematics department, transferred here from Hoban Dominican High School in Cleveland, O.

Both Sister Grace Loretto and Sister Jane Ellen spent the past summer as members of the faculty of the Institute of Theology at St. Dominic's College, St. Charles, Ill.

Miss Elsie Mallace, guidance counselor, comes to St. Paul's straight from her teaching assignment in the U.S. Air Force where she counseled junior and senior high school students in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia. Miss Mallace received her masters degree in guidance and counseling at the University of Detroit.

William McGrail, mathematics and physics instructor, is a graduate of the University of Detroit where he is continuing his work toward the masters degree.

Sister Francis Clare, the commercial instructor, came to St. Paul from Dominican High School. During August, Sister Francis Clare brushed up on the latest developments in the commercial department when she attended the Biennial Institute of the Catholic Business Education Association at St. Michael's College, Toronto, Ont.

Possibly little brush-up was necessary for Sister Francis Clare, because she is one of the winners in the Teachers' Division of the Annual International Order of Gregg Artists Short-hand Contest. The award, presented by the Gregg Division of the McGraw-Hill Company, was presented for perfection of outline in shorthand penmanship.

Mrs. Patrick Brophy, who will teach several classes in English at St. Paul's, is doing graduate work at Wayne State University.

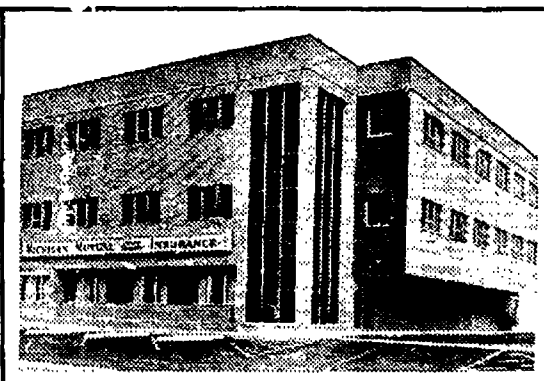

Sister Clare Patrick, senior advisor and head of the English department, taught at St. Lawrence High School, Utica, during the past year. Sister received her grade and high school education in schools in Ireland and England. Her first year of college she attended Regent Street Polytechnic in London.

Returning to the United States, she finished college and then completed graduate studies for the Master of Arts Degree in English at dePaul University in Chicago. Sister Clare Patrick's wide background in the English cradle of American culture will add greater depth and range of experience to her senior English classes.

Pointe Managers Attend Session

More than 700 city managers from Canada, United States and sections of Western Europe attended a four-day session at the 51st Annual Conference of the International City Managers' Association held in Montreal, Canada, on Sunday, September 19 through Wednesday, September 22, at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel.

The city managers from the Pointe who were at the conference, are, Robert Slone, Park; John Cantwell, City; Andrew Bremer, Jr., Farms; and Chester Petersen, Woods. Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis was unable to attend because of pressing administrative business in the Shores.

Managers were welcomed to Montreal by Mayor Jean Drapeau, George C. Ogden, Town Clerk of Leicester, England, and president of the Society of Town Clerks, presented greetings from Great Britain.

The council-manager form of local government has become very popular in North America and Western Europe since its inception approximately 50 years ago. Today there are more than 2,000 cities in North America under this plan—78 of these in Canada—and more than 1,750 in Western Europe.

Since World War II, more than 75 cities have adopted the plan, each year in North America.

HATPINS, THE SLIDE RULE, AN ABACUS AND YOU.

The Quip Is A Clever One: "Figures lie and Liar's figure." I concede statistics at times can be twisted to serve a particular purpose. It is equally true they can reveal some startling things about your Fans and your business. I recently had such an experience.

I made an appeal to Detroit Race Course fans for their views on the Twin Double. The response was amazing. I had thousands of answers. The answers were thoughtful, interesting, constructive and provocative.

The Fans indicated a 20-to-1 preference for The Twin Double.

What is the reason for the great popularity of the NEW Twin Double now operating at the DRC?

I think it is simple to explain.

Every day the NEW Twin Double gives racing fans a chance at a Once-In-A-Lifetime Thrill. It blends fictional touches with real life drama.

Who wins the Twin Double at the DRC? It may be a 23-year-old Windsor housewife who, when she returned home, couldn't convince her husband she had won $48,555 on a $2 wager. Or the 22-year-old Dearborn Heights waitress, who came to the track for the first time in her life and won $14,878. Or the unemployed truck driver who had been down on his luck, and the Flint automobile factory worker who confessed he "couldn't handicap the horses" but still picked winners.

We had THREE THOUSAND, THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-SIX (3,366) fans who held winning Twin Double tickets last season. They shared in a payoff pool in excess of $4,000,000.

There were 35 Twin Double ticket holders who collected $10,000 or more on a winning $2 wager.

It is great to be a big winner, naturally. But I know from the comments of thousands of fans, that even those who never succeeded in picking a Twin Double winner had pleasure in just matching their systems with those of other fans.

And there are as many Twin Double systems as there are players. Some make their selections by sticking a Hatpin through their programs. Others use a Slide Rule, an Abacus, a Crystal Ball, or Tea Leaves.

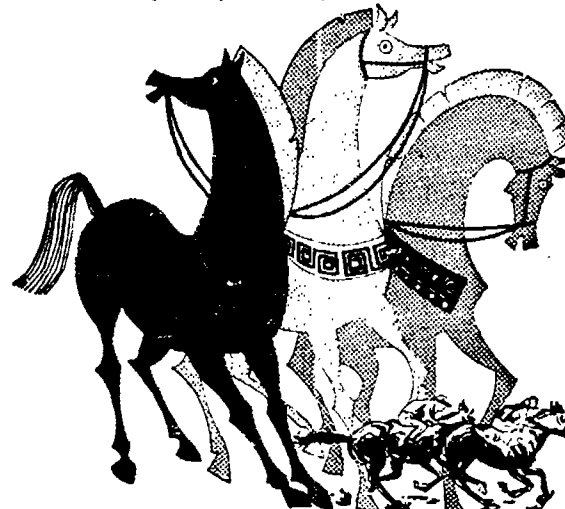

The NEW Twin Double is only one of many reasons you should visit the Detroit Race Course soon.

We have a new $3,000,000 Clubhouse, which makes the DRC one of the nation's finest sports facilities. There are outstanding restaurants, "The Winner's Circle" and "The Mile Terrace"; a picturesque old world tavern, "Ye Tired Olde Horse Pub"; the colorful French Quarter Lounge.

There is close-in parking for 12,000 cars; new entrances to speed the flow of traffic and top racing.

We invite you to visit us soon and share in Racing Pleasure.

Teachers Spend Summer Increasing Competencies

A continuing survey of the staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System reveals that many among them spent the summer of 1965 in ways designed to increase their professional competencies. Among those at Grosse Pointe High School who received scholarships for study are Mrs. Patricia Lipiski and Donald Glancy of the English department, and Jack Ford in social studies.

"Demanding" is the way Mrs. Lipiski describes her activities on the campus of Wayne State University where she was enrolled in an institute in English. She and other participants were enrolled in five classes that met four days a week on various aspects of composition. "We earned our money," she commented.

Mr. Glancy also returned to the Wayne campus for advanced work in English composition on a grant made possible under the provisions of the National Defense Education Act.

Mr. Ford's scholarship was awarded by the Michigan State Board of Alcoholism for study at the University of Detroit. He and other students delved into the social aspects of alcoholism during their workshop.

Robert G. Clark, counselor on the staff of Brownell Junior High School, has returned to his duties after a summer of study. He was selected to attend an institute in guidance at Western Michigan University under the provisions of the National Defense Education Act. He reports that his program embraced a highly concentrated block of courses in guidance training designed to facilitate his assignment in The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Miss Helen Mutton, Mrs. Mary Tyrrell, and Gerald Thorpe are among the staff members of the Grosse Pointe Public School System who engaged in a variety of professional activities related to their regular assignments.

Miss Mutton of the counseling staff of Grosse Pointe High School accepted an invitation to serve on the faculty of Berea College in Kentucky. She conducted a workshop for counsel-

Young Cyclist Struck by Car

A young cyclist was struck and knocked from his bicycle Monday evening, September 13, by a car turning into the driveway of 374 University, but the boy was thrown clear and suffered no injuries, police indicated.

Meeting Held By Villagers

Frederick J. Critchfield assumed his duties as the newly elected president of the Villagers on Sunday evening at his Fisher road home. He replaces outgoing president, Chester Kasiborski of N. Higbie road.

A warm welcome was extended to the William Hoffmans of Harvard road, the Victor W. Kitzuls of N. Rosedale court, and the Ted E. Jacobs of Fairway drive, who are new to the board this year as the Villagers embark on their eighteenth season. A vote of thanks for their fine contributions during the past three years was also extended to outgoing board members, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gillis of Lincoln road and Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. City, Shores Police Pool Clues to Nab Woman Thief

A Detroit woman who has been operating as a burglar for about two weeks, had a stumbling block placed in the path of her activities within less than 48 hours by City and Shores police, who arrested the woman at her home on Friday, September 17.

Arrested was Dorothy Taylor, 26, of 5100 Concord, who authorities said, broke into two homes in the City, one in the Shores, and made an attempt at another Shores home.

City and Shores police began to work together on Wednesday, September 15, when a burglary was reported by a resident living in Roslyn road. The name and address of the resident was not disclosed because of an incident, which resulted in the Taylor woman being allowed to leave without police being called.

Mrs. Taylor was surprised in the Roslyn road home by a member of the family, who on Friday, identified the woman in a police showup at Detroit Police Headquarters, Beaubien and St. Antoine.

Mrs. Taylor had her eight-year-old daughter with her, on the Wednesday date, when she was caught in the Roslyn home, Shores police said.

When the resident asked the woman what she and her daughter were doing in the house, Mrs. Taylor began to weep and poured out a sad story, which the gullible resident believed. After giving Mrs. Taylor a lecture, the house owner permitted her to leave.

Shores police said that Mrs. Taylor operated by first sending her daughter to the door of a house that looked as though there was no one at home. The daughter would ring the bell, and if no one answered, the woman made an entry into the house and ransacked it.

This method of operation was unsuccessful at the home of the William Killebrews, 33 Roslyn road, when Mrs. Taylor failed to force a door leading into the house from the attached garage. When she could not enter, Mrs. Taylor went to the other home in Roslyn, where she was more successful.

It was not until several hours after the resident permitted the woman to leave, that another member of the resident's family discovered his mother's mink stole wrapped up in his pajama top on the floor of the bathroom, and called his mother.

It was then, police said, that the embarrassed resident realized something was amiss, and called the authorities. A look through the house produced concrete evidence that Mrs. Taylor had gone through the bedrooms and had taken items, including the stole, from closets.

City police had had two similar burglaries, one on Wednesday, September 8, at the home of Joseph Latowski, 721 St. Clair; and another at the home of Frank Ware, 400 Washington, on Thursday, September 9. Some of the loot taken from these homes have been recovered, according to Det. Lt. Robert Van Tiem, who was assigned to the cases.

Lt. Van Tiem had no clues to work on, until a laundry serviceman, serving the Ware family, found out the home had been burglarized, and gave police a description and license number of a strange car that he spotted in the driveway alongside the house.

The laundryman, whose name was not disclosed in the interest of his safety, told Lt. Van Tiem that when he rang the bell of the house he serviced, Mrs. Taylor answered the door. He thought it odd, since he was sure that the family did not employ a domestic. He saw the car in the driveway and took down its description and license number.

Lt. Van Tiem and Patrolman Donald Fritz spent a full day trying to track down the car, but without success. The officers cruised the area of Mrs. Taylor's neighborhood.

The next day, City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert, rode with Van Tiem and after driving around the woman's neighborhood, the chief spotted the woman's car in front of her house. They could make no move until there was definite proof that Mrs. Taylor had been the driver of the vehicle. This was another unsuccessful day, as far as proving this was concerned.

When a report was received from the Shores Police Department, that a similar-type burglary was committed in the Shores, the two departments pooled their clues and information.

Within less than 48 hours after the Shores incident, Van Tiem and Shores Patrolman James Jurcak, with the plain clothes detail and assigned to the Shores case, had enough evidence to tie Mrs. Taylor to all three burglaries.

Accompanied by Detroit police, the Pointe officers went to Mrs. Taylor's home and arrested her, and took her to Detroit's Police Headquarters, where she was identified by the embarrassed Shores resident as the woman discovered in her home. Because Jurcak was able to obtain positive identification, at the moment, he obtained a warrant charging Mrs. Taylor with burglary in the daytime. The warrant was approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Mrs. Taylor was arraigned before Shores Judge George Beauchamp on the date of her arrest, and entered a plea of guilty. Bond was set at $1,000, and she was bound over to the next session of Circuit Court. She was held in the County Jail until the bond was posted.

Van Tiem said that the Prosecutor's Office adjourned the City's request for two warrants against Mrs. Taylor, without any dates being set.

Shores Police Chief Thomas Cochill and Chief Teetaert lauded the fine cooperation between the officers of their departments. They said the investigating policemen did excellent work in rounding up the evidence that brought about the arrest of Mrs. Taylor.

Driver Damages Borrowed Honda

John Hubbard, 20, of 460 Rivard, reported to police Wednesday, September 15, that a car backed into a 1964 Honda motorcycle he had borrowed, damaging the cycle slightly, then drove away without stopping.

The accident occurred while the vehicle was parked in front of 17045 Kercheval.

The car was listed as belonging to Mary Louise and Jesse C. Oseteck, 1204 Kensington. Owner of the motorcycle is Robert B. Evans, Jr., of 984 Lakeshore.

CAR BROKEN INTO
Mrs. J. Mlejnek, 16903 East Jefferson, reported to City police that her car, a 1965 Rambler, was forcibly entered between 7 and 8 p.m. Monday, September 13, while parked next to her home. Entry was made through a right front window, police said. Mrs. Mlejnek found nothing missing, although the window was damaged slightly.

He's included free when you buy a Gas dryer.

He's a Michigan Consolidated service man. And he'll connect any Gas dryer free in the areas we serve. But that'll probably be the last time you see him. Because in a survey of more than 300 families who owned their Gas dryers an average of five years, a great majority never needed a service call. And total maintenance costs averaged out to less than 20 cents per year per dryer.

A Gas dryer will dry more than five loads for the cost of doing one in an electric dryer. In fact, you save enough over an electric dryer for your Gas dryer to pay for itself in seven years. And most Gas dryers last for more than ten years.

During Gas Dryer Dividend Days, prices are reduced. So now's the time to see the latest Gas dryer models at your dealer or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showrooms.

Survey conducted by an independent research organization.*

He joined the Berkeley system in 1954 as a School Diagnostician and Coordinator of Special Education. Prior to that time he had been a School Diagnostician in Warren, and an upper grade elementary teacher in Fraser.

Mr. Sienkiewicz has worked as the psychologist for the Cleft Palate Clinic at Beaumont Hospital for the past seven years. In his private practice Mr. Sienkiewicz has received referrals from numerous medical specialists such as neurologists, pediatricians, plastic surgeons, and psychiatrists.

A 1951 graduate of the University of Detroit, Mr. Sienkiewicz, 38, holds a Master's degree from Wayne State University. NEW HOUSE DAMAGED

Ernest G. Mueller of 592 Woods lane, complained to Park police that vandals pulled down and broke the plastic paneling, and wrote obscene words on the walls of a new house he is building at 1049 Whittier road. Pupil Personnel Director Named

The appointment of Reginald P. Sienkiewicz as Director of Pupil Personnel for The Grosse Pointe Public School System has been recommended by Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Sienkiewicz has been named to the post vacated July 1 by Dr. Paul E. Mawhinney. He will join the local staff immediately.

"We are delighted to have a person of Mr. Sienkiewicz caliber to fill such an important administrative post," Dr. Wilson said. "His extensive experience in the field of special education will enable him to perform his various duties in Grosse Pointe with the utmost competence."

Mr. Sienkiewicz has been Director of Special Education for the Berkeley Public Schools for the past nine years. He joined the Berkeley system in 1954 as a School Diagnostician and Coordinator of Special Education. Prior to that time he had been a School Diagnostician in Warren, and an upper grade elementary teacher in Fraser.

Wilson to Head Drive Division

Dr. Charles H. Wilson, Superintendent of The Grosse Pointe Public School System, has agreed to serve as the chairman of the Wayne County schools during the 1965 United Foundation Torch Drive. This is the second consecutive year that he has acted in this capacity.

Collections in the amount of $108,295.10 were made under Dr. Wilson's leadership last year. Goal for the 1965 drive is expected to be at least five percent higher.

"So well-established has the Torch Drive become as a humanitarian project, that it needs introduction. I am certain that my colleagues throughout Wayne County will once again wish to participate in a most worthwhile drive for badly-needed funds," Dr. Wilson said.

As chairman, it is his responsibility to coordinate activities among the some 40 school districts of Wayne County. He will meet with representatives from the schools on Friday, September 24.

At the luncheon, paid for and sponsored by an area corporation, Dr. Wilson and United Foundation officials will reveal plans for the campaign. The timetable calls for solicitation of funds between October 12 and November 4.

Group Chairman for the Schools Unit is Dr. Hamilton Stillwell, Dean of the Division of Urban Extension at Wayne State University. Dr. Stillwell is a resident of Grosse Pointe Farms. United Foundations Unit Director is William Bouchev.

Thomas R. Reid, Chairman of the Schools and Government Unit of the 1965 United Foundation Torch Drive and Director of Civic and Governmental Affairs for the Ford Motor Company, said recently to Dr. Wilson, "I want to express to you my appreciation for your willingness to serve as Team Chairman for Wayne County Schools in this year's drive."

"I am confident that with your status and knowledge in and of the Wayne County school systems, that we will enjoy a successful campaign," he concluded.

Liggett School Awards Revealed

The opening assembly at The Liggett School, beginning its 88th year, held several exciting announcements.

After greetings from the headmaster, Frank J. Sladen, Jr. and president of the Student Council, Louise Rockwell, Mr. Sladen made known to the students and faculty that Martha Hirschfeld, a senior, has placed on the list of semifinalists for the National Merit Scholarships.

She is among the 14,000 students who will have the opportunity in the spring to become a finalist.

Also announced was the awarding of the Grace Whitney Hoff Scholarship award, this year going to Denise Carels of the senior class, for scholarship and citizenship.

Dorothy Gehrke in the Lower School, and Linda Gehrke in the Upper School, received the Jane Robbins Spitzley award for scholarship and citizenship.

Melinda Meigs is the recipient in the Lower School of the Polly Hebb award, given to the girl showing the most creative ability.

Honors Galore For Sue Lykins

By Don Ames

Sue Lykins, a senior at St. Paul High School, has again demonstrated that success is achieved only by continued effort. Since coming to the school in her freshman year, Sue has amassed a large enough scholarship rating to be on the honor roll for three years and a member of the National Honor Society.

Sue has also managed to take part in numerous school activities, including the Model United Nations, the Science Club, and the yearbook academic section head. Sportswise, she delves into basketball and baseball.

Sue's biggest achievement, however, came last March. For her high score on the National Merit Examination, she was awarded the position of semi-finalist.

She will have an opportunity to strive for the rating of finalist when she takes the Scholastic Aptitude Test later this year. Only the top one percent of graduating seniors in the entire country ever reaches this height. The purpose of the examination is to determine the top-ranking students across the country and then to assist these students with scholarships if they apply for them.

If success comes to those who strive for it, Sue will be sure to be among the winners.

Court Penalizes Law Violators

James Duncan, 29, of 1341 Beaconsfield, entered a plea of guilty in the Park Municipal Court on Wednesday, September 8, to a charge of non-support of his wife, Sadie, and their three children. The hearing was held before Judge C. Joseph Belanger.

Duncan was placed on probation for one year, and ordered to contribute $50 a week, beginning Sunday, September 12, during the period of probation. He was directed by Judge Belanger to make a weekly report to the Wayne County Probation Department.

In another matter, four 19-year-old youths were fined for illegal possession of alcoholic beverages. Three of the boys pled not guilty and were found guilty, and the fourth entered a plea of guilty.

Those who made pleas of not guilty were: Robert Stevens of 624 Roslyn road; Timothy Pawchuck of 1127 Kensington; and Craig Richards of 20443 Fleetwood, Harper Woods. Each of these youths presented the court, as directed, with a 2,000-word essay on "Why I Should Obey the Law", and any further penalties were suspended on payment of court costs of $5 each.

The fourth youth, Peter Davidson of 477 Cook road, who pled guilty, was fined $20, with the alternative of five days in the County Jail. He paid the fine.

John Vella, 19, of 1801 Leverette, Detroit, arrested for drag racing and speeding a short while earlier, before court convened, pled guilty to the charges and was fined a total of $40, or five days in jail. The fine was paid.

James Fraser, 19, of 80 South Deeplands, who has received a total of nine traffic violation tickets this summer, entered a plea of not guilty to speeding 40 miles an hour on Charlevoix, a 25-mile zone, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $30, or serve five days in jail. The fine was paid.

Judge Belanger said that he sent a notice to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, to check Fraser's driving record for possible re-examination of the youth.

The first session will be Tuesday, September 28, when Dr. Charles Wilson, Grosse Pointe's own school superintendent, will speak on "Spare the Child the Rod."

The second session, which will be November 22, will feature Ed Krattli, director of the Neighborhood Club, and Franklin Bennett, assistant clergyman at Christ Church.

PTA president Geno Cioe and his fellow members look forward to hearing Dr. William Wattenberg, professor of educational psychology, at their January meeting. The March session's speaker will be John Feikens, attorney.

Next Tuesday's activities will begin in the classrooms at 7:30 and continue in the school gymnasium at 8 o'clock.

I hope you folks who drive cars will be looking out for him.

Please stop at the stop signs in front of the school house and let him cross the street.

Please drive slowly on the streets he has to cross. He's pretty careful but once in a while he runs into the street without looking.

And please be real careful when you're driving past the school house. He might run into the street after a ball and not look to see if you are coming.

Like I said before, he's just a little guy. But he sure is a nice little guy. And I don't want him to get hurt so he can't run and play with me anymore.

Farms Recruits New Policeman

John Kraiza, 22, of 835 Mitchell, Hamtramck, resigned from the Hamtramck Police Department to become a recruit in the Farms Police Department, where he began work on Tuesday, September 27. He was with the Hamtramck force for one year.

A native of Hamtramck, the new Farms probationary officer is a 1960 graduate of St. Ladislau High School, in that city.

Kraiza is a three-year veteran of the United States Navy. During this period he served aboard the aircraft carrier, the USS Shangri-La, from its home port, Mayport, Fla. He entered the service in September 1960, and was honorably discharged as a rediam-seaman in September, 1963.

Last month, on August 14, Kraiza married the former Jacqueline Kuroski of Detroit. They are looking for a home in the Farms.

Kraiza fills a vacancy created by the resignation of John Krukowski, who left the Farms Department after more than three years of service, to work as a security division officer for a large manufacturing firm near Miami, Fla. Krukowski left August 25.

Pitts, Ph.D., Professor and Chairman, Dept. of Sociology, Oakland University, as he discusses "Strengths and Weaknesses of American Marriage"—a look at marriage in other cultures and an appraisal of developments on the American scene. Dr. Pitts will also offer his own theory concerning the basis of the marriage relationship.

Retrospect and Prospect

We are happy to devote this space to the sermon given at two services last Sunday in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the church. Dr. Frank Pitt, minister emeritus of Memorial Church, now living in Ann Arbor, delivered the sermon. Retrospect and Prospect was the title he chose. The complete sermon follows.

It is, indeed, a very deep privilege, which I appreciate, to be invited to preach in this church on this centennial Sunday. On such an occasion, of course, all of us should look back on the past with thanksgiving and forward to the future with hope. That is what I shall try to do and I shall make use of two texts, one from the Old Testament and one from the New Testament. Here is the first text, from the Ninetieth Psalm: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." The second text I will announce later.

It was on Thursday, September 7, 1865, presumably in the evening, that what is now The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church received its start. On that date a small group of men and women met in the schoolhouse of District No. 2, situated then on what is now Lake Shore road between Moran and Kerby, and organized The Protestant Evangelical Association of Grosse Pointe. Evidently this group was not at all superstitious, for it contained just 13 members, eight men and five women. It may be that none of them noticed that they totaled a supposedly unlucky number. At any rate, if they did notice it, they were not deterred in their determination to go ahead in their plans. As we think back to those eight men and five women today, we are grateful for their faith and freedom from superstition. Verily, verily, under the grace and guidance of God they wrought better than any of them could have dreamed. In 1865 the population of Detroit was slightly less than the present population of the Grosse Pointe area and in that area at that time the population was less than 1,900.

There are a considerable number of men and women and children living in this community who are descended from that small pioneer group who founded this church, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren of the original 13. One of the early beginning group was married to a Roman Catholic and his descendants are in St. Paul's parish. Another branch is connected with Christ Episcopal Church. But most of the descendants who still reside in this Grosse Pointe area, tracing themselves back to seven of the 13, are members of this parish. What a record! What a source of pride and satisfaction! It means something, surely, when a centennial anniversary comes to a church to be able to claim a family association with it from the day it began. And I have another interesting and remarkable association to announce. On March 19, 1865, a baby girl was born in Ontario, Canada. When she was four years old she moved with her family to Grosse Pointe and her father became one of the early Sunday school superintendents of the church founded soon after her birth. She joined that church as a girl and she remains a member to this very hour. One whom we greatly delight to honor on this occasion. Not long ago it was my pleasure to call on her in her home and talk with her about the early days of this church's history.

Two years after the church was founded, in 1867, a small frame house of worship was built on the northwest corner of what is now Kerby and Lake Shore road on land donated by one of the founding members. Eleven years later, in 1878, this church was altered and enlarged at a cost of one thousand dollars, and in 1889 the name was changed to The Grosse Pointe Protestant Society. Since for its first 25 years the small membership could not afford a resident, full-time minister the congregation was dependent upon some minister who would drive out from Detroit for a Sunday afternoon service. In rainy weather the membership would have to depend upon one of their own number for the plank road became impassable. Until the street cars came to Fisher and Jefferson in 1892, the constituency was made up mainly of summer residents and only in small part of all the year-around residents.

Grosse Pointe was really a summer colony where husbands active in business drove back and forth to Detroit. One small group went back and forth on a privately owned steam yacht. Over a third of a century ago one of our women members reminiscing on that period stated that the summer peak of attendance reached about 50 and the winter peak about 20 with a drop to a dozen or less on cold Sundays. Others who shared their memories of that early period all emphasized the happiness and simplicity of life here in Grosse Pointe. It was, indeed, a happier and simpler time the world over. The people enjoyed swimming and boating on the lake. They bowled and played billiards and baseball. There was considerable visiting and calling. On Saturday nights there was dancing and on Sunday nights there was hymn-singing in the homes. In a number of ways this church was a social and recreational center then as now. Then, in 1890, the people of the parish had to make a three-fold decision. They must secure a resident minister; they must build a large building; and they must erect this larger building in a more central location.

Special mention should be

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

No organization remains static, and our Library is no exception. Changes are made; staff members leave, and others replace them—and all this is quite normal.

From time to time, I feel the public will be interested to learn of some of these changes, especially when they have new faces greet them at the various desks. As of September, I can report the following new staff members.

Mrs. Mary Jane Burroughs is a clerical change at the Park Branch (replacing Mrs. Helen Nolan who has been transferred to the Processing Department at the Central Library).

Mrs. Burroughs is a native Grosse Pointer, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, and a-a-a-y back in 1951-52 worked for the system at both the Park and Woods Branches. There aren't too many of us "old timers" left who knew her then! During the intervening years, she has worked at the Notre Dame and Harkness Pharmacies. But now that her son, Tom, is grown and a teacher at Royal Oak (in social studies), and her daughter, Kay, is at Western (training to become an elementary school teacher), Mary Jane has felt the call of the Library again and has returned to the fold. She tells me she is glad to be back, and, speaking for the entire staff, we are most happy to have her. If you are a Park patron, do drop in and see her.

The Central Library has two new librarians. The first, Beatrice Adams, is a Children's Librarian and hails from Chesaning. She claims no one has ever heard of the place, but it does exist and is near Flint. She attended Albion College and then went on to Western where she received her Master's in Library Science. This is her second Library position, the first being at Niles Public Library where she was also a Children's Librarian. I've discovered that she lives only a few blocks from me, so we may very well meet bicycling or walking. Welcome to our System, Beatrice, we are happy to have you aboard!

Mrs. Margaret Irwin is the other new Professional Assistant at Central. She is a native Californian, having received both her A.B. and B.S. in L.S. at the University of California in Berkeley. Later, she did graduate work in political science at the American University in Washington (and has almost received her M.A. in this field at the University of Michigan). Her first job was in the Documents Collection at Berkeley (where, incidentally, she met her husband, Don). Thence, on to the Legislative Reference Bureau at the University of Hawaii. The next stop was Harvard, where she was Curator of the Transportation Room in Baker Library at the Business School. One begins to feel that Margaret believes in seeing America first, as her next position was in Washington, D.C., where she was chief cataloger at the Bureau of the Census.

In 1957 her husband accepted a position as a labor economist at Chrysler, so it was on to Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Irwin's next position was in the Social Sciences Department of the Detroit Public Library. In 1965, she became Assistant Librarian for Reference Services at the Library of Oakland University. Since July 1, she has been on the staff of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, and she says she is delighted to be back working in her own community. Welcome, Mrs. Margaret Irwin!

We have discovered that even spiders thirst for knowledge, and, in some cases this yearning is fatal. An over-curious one meandered into the aperture of the lens of our Recordax camera (the photo-electric charging machine) at Central recently, silently but blissfully spun a cloudy cocoon-like web and holed up for the season. Some alert eyes noted him (or her?) one day, the repairman was called, but quickly. The repairman was greatly enchanted with the event and had a fine sense of humor. In his routine service report, he entered this remark: "Spider had built web in the film unit aperture. Executed spider and cleaned lens." All in a day's work!

We hope you paused a moment to view our showcase at the Central Library this month. One exhibit was a colorful and interesting treatment of "How to Display the Flag," presented under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Grosse Pointe Farms. The point: an effort to remind us all of Constitution Week, September 17-23, celebrating the 178th anniversary of the United States Constitution.

made of the very large extension to the church house in recent years under the leadership of my able successor. How can we include all the blessings that have come? How would it be possible to call the roll of the many thousands across the last 100 years who have given of themselves, their time and thought and energy and substance, to this parish? The Sunday school superintendents, teachers and helpers, the women who have served as leaders, the men and women who have held office as elders, trustees, and deacons and acted as ushers, all who have added to the common effort, who have worshipped in prayer and praise in all sorts of capacities—how can anyone call such a roll of honor? We can only offer our gratitude to God that in this community across the decades it has been the privilege of many before us as well as ourselves to serve Him.

Looking back on the history of this church across the last 100 years there are at least three outstanding facts. The first fact is the faith and perseverance of the small company who founded this church in a very thinly populated area. And that same undaunted spirit has been shown again and again through the decades. It took an act of courage, for example, to build a large church and church house in the mid-twenties. The second fact is the readiness for change and adaptation which has characterized this congregation from its founding in 1865 to the present hour. To enlarge the original building, to move from the original site to another site, to build a new church at this site and then, three decades later, to tear down this structure and build another much larger on the same site, to change from a community to a denominational church, this and much else spelled out creative vision.

The third fact all through this time has been the service of the laity, their readiness to lead and adventure. How else can we read the meaning of the first 25 years without a resident minister? And who were the ones who had most to do with the building of the present edifice 40 years ago? A group of young men who had faith in God and visualized the growth of this community and desired to seize the opportunity. All that impresses me as I recollect my own years here, tells me that these facts remain and will bless the future as they have the past and present.

And now what of the days ahead? What of the next 100 years? Here is a text for our thought, from the Book of the Revelation: "Behold, I make all things new." Think of all that has come into our world in the last century and up to the present hour! Those pioneer founders and those who came after them for many years knew nothing of the telephone, the automobile, the motion picture, the radio, the television, the exploration of the North and South Poles and of many unknown parts of the earth and ocean and, more recently, of interstellar space. They could not have guessed at the coming of two world wars, the overthrow of kings and emperors, the passing of England as a world power, the rise of Communism and much else that matters.

We can be sure of this, that the next century will bring changes and innovations to the life of mankind as great and greater than the changes just mentioned. They may not be the same, for all of us hope that no third world war will ever come, but there will be changes, and as some of the vast changes of the past have brought untold blessing, for example, the advance in medicine and the control of disease, so we trust the blessing will continue. Meanwhile the stark and realistic phases of human experience will abide, birth and death, honor and disgrace, sin and temptation, fine character and noble resolve, and best of all, the power of the Christian gospel.

None of us will be here in 2065, but our successors in this parish will be here, their faith strengthened as they worship. From the time this church began, advance has been the order of its day. There has been no retreat, no mood of contentment with what has been accomplished, no attitude of looking back, only of looking forward. That is our call now. We have a charge to keep and a cause to glorify and we shall remain faithful to our high commission as Christians.

Explain Student Exchange Plans

An informational meeting about the Americans Abroad programs for both summer and school year sponsored by both the American Field Service and Youth for Understanding will be held Tuesday, September 28, at 3:15 o'clock in Room B61 of the Grosse Pointe High School.

The programs give an opportunity to live and study as members of carefully selected families in another country. They are open to either junior or senior high school students who are willing to accept many challenges and responsibilities to further understanding among peoples of the world.

Neither the summer or school program is merely a vacation or travel experience. Interviews for selection of Americans Abroad for both AFS and Youth for Understanding will be held the first week in October.

Dates of departure are between December and March for the school program in the Southern hemisphere and in the summer of '66 for the school program in the Northern hemisphere. The duration of the summer program is June, July and August for either hemisphere.

While the number of family placements available limits the number of students selected, funds are available so cost need not be a limitation on selection.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club is buzzing with excitement about its annual scholarship luncheon and bridge party, to be given October 6, at 12 o'clock noon, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. Robert Whiteley's Lakeland avenue home has been humming with activity for weeks in anticipation of the event.

Bridge tables in the ballroom will be centered with purses and sewing baskets made, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Speelman, by Mrs. Hilary Alles, Mrs. Alexander King, Mrs. Henry Lampman, Mrs. Harold Lee, Mrs. Stuart Micklethwaite, Mrs. Pierre Palmentier, Mrs. Thomas Pearsall, Mrs. Richard Piper, Mrs. Marvin Price, Mrs. Bewley Priestman, Mrs. Erland Reuter, Mrs. John Scales and Mrs. A. E. Tamarelli.

There'll be a Boutique Shop, too, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clifford Cardwell, of Roslyn road, assisted by Mrs. Jack Merritt, featuring hats, decoupage baskets and many other handmade articles.

The Bake Sale is the pet project of Mrs. George Funk, of Beaupre avenue. Mrs. Funk also heads a committee in charge of ticket sales, including the Mesdames Clay Baldwin, Alvin Borchardt, J. E. Hinzman, Philip Hopkins, Donald Leahy and Earl Walke.

Open House At Children's Home

Make a note RIGHT NOW not to miss the Open House at the Protestant Children's Home in Cook road next Sunday afternoon, September 26.

Grounds and cottages will be open to the public, staff and hostesses will be happy to answer any questions — and we personally guarantee that you'll find a tour of the Home a fascinating experience.

Incidentally, it's hard to believe that this very modern, in spirit and facilities, children's institution is well over 100 years old, and that the youngsters the Home is caring for at present are direct "descendants" of 11 children mentioned in the Annual Report of June 8, 1837, when it was decided to dress the girls in "uniforms of blue calico frocks and white caps, with gingham bonnets for common and light Shaker bonnets for Sun-

Provisionals Begin Junior League Year

Several Lectures Designed for Entering League Members Open to General Public; all Open Lectures to be Held at War Memorial

Thirty young women have officially begun a year of Provisional membership in the Junior League of Detroit. At an informal coke session at the home of Mrs. Don T. Galvin on Wednesday, September 8, Provisional chairman Mrs. Donald R. McPhail explained the Junior League Provisional year during which new members train for meaningful volunteer service to the Detroit community.

After the successful completion of the year-long course, "Provisional" may become "Active" members of the League.

Ten weekly lectures will begin September 15 on the varied aspects of Detroit community life, including history, education, mental health, arts and culture, senior citizens, welfare, business, labor, local government and the many volunteer opportunities therein. Top Detroit leaders will participate in the course extending through November 17.

Throughout the year, Junior League Provisionals will practice what they learn as well, by training and volunteering in one of four current League projects: Art-to-the-Schools, giving slide lectures on art at Detroit schools, working at the Poison Control Center at Children's Hospital, trouping with the Junior League Glee Club to brighten shut-ins' afternoons at hospitals and rest homes, and acting as teachers' aides and tutors at the Cooper School in Detroit.

During the winter, eight field trips to the City-County Building, Children's Hospital, Lutheran School for the Deaf, Franklin Settlement, a Symphony rehearsal, juvenile court, Western Community Action Center (TAP) and Receiving Hospital have been set up to round out Provisionals' knowledge of the community and its needs.

During the years, the Junior League Provisional Course has attracted a good deal of public interest, so much so that several of the lectures are opened to the interested public. Meetings this fall to which the public is cordially invited are:

"How Government Serves the People" with Robert Toohy, Special Assistant to the Mayor of Detroit. Wednesday, September 29.

"Education, A Tool for the Living" with Mrs. Aileen Selick, Program Administrator with the Detroit Public Schools, and Frank J. Sladen, Jr., Headmaster of the Liggett School. Wednesday, October 6.

"Detroit's Cultural Life" with Dr. Walter S. Collins, chairman of the Department of Music at Oakland University, and Donald Morris of the Donald Morris Gallery. Wednesday, October 13.

"Meeting Our Mental Health Needs" with Dr. William Grier, Instructor of Psychiatry at Wayne State University, and Dr. Douglas Sargent, Consultant at the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic. Wednesday, October 20.

"Detroit's Business Community" with Mr. E. Dawson Fisher, Vice-President and Publicity Director of the J. L. Hudson Company. Wednesday, October 27.

Ambassadors Ball
To Aid Project Hope

Members of Diplomatic Corps, U.S. Officials, Business and Civic Leaders to Gather for Gala Evening;
Mrs. Benson Ford is Ball Chairman

Among the many events listed on Detroit's social calendar this fall, one of the most elegant and elaborate activities of the season will be the Ambassadors Ball to be held on November 6 at the new Pontchartrain Hotel.

Given for the benefit of Project Hope, it is being sponsored by the Women's Division of the Greater Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of Project Hope.

General chairman for the Ball is Mrs. Benson Ford. Assisting
Mrs. Ford is Mrs. William Ger-shenson, administrative chairman.

Composing the Women's Executive committee are Mrs.
George Romney, Mrs. Jerome
Cavanagh, Mrs. Richard Cross,
Mrs. James Roche and Mrs.
Lynn Townsend.

One of the unique features of the Ambassadors Ball will include invitations to the Ambasadors and Consuls from the various countries visited by S.S.
Hope Hospital Ship during the past five years. Also in attendance will be many distinguished
U.S. officials, and Detroit business and civic leaders.

The gala evening will begin with a reception at 7 o'clock in the Pontchartrain's Mediterranean Room. Following the reception will be a gourmet dinner planned and prepared by renowned chefs.

Special floral arrangements for tables will be flown to Detroit for the occasion. Completing the evening will be dancing in the Versailles Room with music provided by the Meyer
Davis Orchestra.

The $150 per couple remittance to attend the Ball will substantially benefit Project
Hope as major expenses for the Ambassadors Ball are being underwritten by Detroit businesses and industrial firms.
Reservations for the Ball will be accepted only after formal invitations have been mailed.

Proceeds from the Ambassadors Ball will be given to the current Detroit Project Hope campaign to raise $350,000.
Since Project Hope was founded in 1958, Detroit has been a leading supporter of this activity, raising approximately $750,000.

Project Hope is the principal activity of the People-to-People Health Foundation, Inc. whose primary objective is to provide medical, dental and paramedi-cal personnel in foreign countries with the latest techniques in U.S. medical science.

Treat criticism just like charity—let it begin at home.

Frank Colombo, executive vice-president of the J. L. Hudson Company, who resides in Lakeshore road, will be principal speaker at a luncheon in the Women's City Club of Detroit on Wednesday, September 29.
Mr. Colombo will talk about "What Downtown Detroit Means To The Businessman."

Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, of Loraine road, is acting chairman of the Civic Affairs committee of the City Club that is sponsoring this all-day confer-

Mrs. Harry S. Muenker served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth L. MacDonald, another sister of the bride, Mrs. James O. Meade, II, Patricia Heffler and Judith Robertson.

They wore floor length gowns of ice-mint green crepe, and Dior headbows of pink and green embroidered ribbon. Their bouquets were fashioned of pink mums and tea roses.

James O. Meade, II, came from his home in California to act as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mrs. James O. Meade, of Barrington road, and the late Mr. Meade.

Fall Flower Show Slated At Warren's

Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, District One, 11th Annual Exhibition Opens October 14; Special Feature Is "Poetry in Crystal"

Summer months passed by at a fast clip for those of District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan responsible for initial planning for the Federation's 11th annual flower show next month.

It will be sponsored again by Charles W. Warren & Company at its galleries in Washington boulevard, in Detroit, with hours from 9:30 to 5 o'clock daily. The public is invited.

No sooner were the dates set for October 14 through 16 (the exhibit will be seen on Saturday this year), than the garden group learned that an extra special drawing card had come its way.

Opening in conjunction with the garden club show will be the magnificent Steuben Glass exhibit, "Poetry in Crystal," long overdue in Detroit, to be viewed throughout October.

The collection is the result of an experiment undertaken jointly by Steuben Glass and The Poetry Society of America with the Society inviting poets representative of contemporary American poetry to participate in the experiment.

Even the Steuben title for its elegant showing of crystal offered incentive for the quickly chosen theme, "The Magic of Poetry," selected by the flower show committee to spark imaginations of those who will create dozens of table settings and flower arrangements for the 1965 event.

Just as in the lovely Steuben collection for which Steuben's artists and designers captured in a design for crystal the theme or spirit of each poem, so, too, will garden clubbers seek to interpret poetic meanings in their creations.

Mrs. Robert C. Palmer, of Lakeshore road, the new director of District One, chairman of the three-day exhibition, has invited all garden club members of the 53 clubs federated in District One to participate. She said:

"Having Steuben's lovely crystal on exhibit concurrently with our annual flower show is a real bonus for our exhibitors, since garden club objectives are mainly the creation of beauty and continuance of education."

Mrs. John F. Hering, of Warren's, is coordinating the show as she has done each year. Mrs. Glenn Leland, of Farmington, is the District's secretary this year. Mrs. Raymond Hodgson, of Renaud road, is treasurer.

Other Federation members serving on the 1965 committee include the state president, Mrs. Donald B. Smith, Mrs. Albert F. Allmayer, Mrs. A. George Coulton, Mrs. W. W. Crebs, Mrs. Denton B. Emmert, Mrs. Jamie Johnson and Mrs. Clarence McBray.

More are Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Byron B. Phillips, Mrs. Frederick Schumann, Mrs. John Secrist, Miss Clara Snow, Mrs. Keith Willoughby and Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The Mother's Club Executive Board was launched most successfully for the coming year at a delightful luncheon and meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. G. Gordon Cook, on Monday, September 13.

Twenty-four active and dedicated mothers met, reports in hand, to prepare for a busy year ahead. Mrs. Cook's interesting report of her summer activity made all wonder why this period of time has ever been called "vacation."

Other members of the executive board are: president-elect, Mrs. Perry Tawalt; vice-president, Mrs. Walter Griffith; recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Watts, Jr.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Thom, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. William Ludwig, faculty advisor, Jerry Gerich; faculty representative, Mrs. Benson McClure; historian, Mrs. Roger Smith; hospitality, Mrs. James Wilson; membership, Mrs. William Munro; neighborhood groups, Mrs. John Fralick; program, Mrs. James Laird; publicity, Mrs. Joseph Black, Jr.; play tickets, Mrs. King Clifford; social, Mrs. Charles Adams; nominating, Mrs. Robert Clarke; bus chaperones, Mrs. Robert Barnes; Christmas tea, Mrs. Edward Fine; Halloween chairman, Mrs. John Fralick; 10th Grade chairman, Mrs. Charles Beltz; senior activity chairman, Mrs. Robert Horn; P.T.A. Council representative, Mrs. Jack Fley; Board of Education representative, Mrs. Robert Christian.

Mr. Jerry Gerich, principal of the High School and the faculty advisor to the Mother's Club, reported to members that new construction plans are underway to add additional classrooms by utilizing the old library and the balcony of the auditorium.

His statement that the breezeway is being enclosed to ward off snow and wintry winds was met with a pleased response. He also explained, through mimeographed sheets, the counseling activity design for the Sophomore class. The plan calls for dividing the 10th grade class into four units of approximately 250 students. Each "house" will be assigned a counselor—two men and two women. In addition a head counselor will be responsible to work and give leadership to counselors and students in this team effort.

Because of the size of the class it is hoped the smaller groups working together will be able to impart a feeling of "belonging" to all students. There are now 2,761 students registered in the High School, and it is expected the enrollment may reach 2,800 this year.

The vice-president, Mrs. Walter Griffith, reported that 15 college students are being given scholarship aid this fall. The regulations imposed by the Michigan Higher Education Aid have made it necessary for two students to withdraw from Mother's Club aid since they will be receiving monies elsewhere.

Mrs. George Thom, Jr., corresponding secretary, reported that two days were required to prepare the envelopes sent home with each student. The Mother's Club calendar, plus nine other separate pieces of information were included in each envelope.

The "angels" deserving our thanks for this task were the Mesdames Steiner, Tapert, Johnson, Horn, Connor, Matka, Zoufal, Clarke, McKimming, Cook, Tawalt, Sherman, McCoughlin and Zentgraf.

The Board of Education representative, Mrs. Robert Christian, reported that 156 high school seniors were elected to the National Honor Society. Enrollment for the 1965 summer school session was 1,869 students. She also proudly announced that a score of "A" has been awarded to the VIEW-POINTE by the National School Yearbook Association.

Under the New Business, a lively discussion ensued regarding the continuance of the Annual Spring Benefit Party. It was felt by all members that a new way might be tried to raise Scholarship money that would require less from such a large committee in terms of time and energy, which had become considerable in the areas of decoration, food, and prizes.

A motion was made and passed unanimously to eliminate the Spring Benefit Card Party for this year. In its place it is proposed to have two evening programs to raise funds. One evening will be presented by the American Field Service and/or Youth For Understanding students. The other will be an evening presentation of the Student Talent Assembly presented by High School students.

Both of these programs should prove of interest to the community at large, and it is hoped that there will be some card party and tea later in the spring that will involve less effort.

Camera Club Meets Sept. 28

Another season for Grosse Pointe Camera Club is underway, with the second meeting of the year to be held on Tuesday evening, September 28, at 8 o'clock, in the Fries Ballroom, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Miss Agnes Crow, one of the club's excellent photographers, will present color slides on some of the areas visited last year during her trip around the world. During the evening she will take those attending to Burma and India.

Guests of members and the public are invited to attend.

Braille Club Needs Workers

The Grosse Pointe Braille Club announces it needs volunteers for braille transcribing classes.

Mrs. Glyn (Kay) Myers, last week's Pointer of Interest, teaches sighted people to transcribe printed material into braille, in order that the world of books should not be denied to blind children.

Classes will begin September 30 at the Main Library, Fisher road and Kercheval avenue, on Thursdays from 10 to 11 o'clock. There is a small charge of approximately $5 to cover the cost of slate, stylus and paper.

Anyone interested in joining the class this fall may contact Mrs. Myers at 852-7186 or Mrs. Gerald (Emily) Fitzgerald at 881-1810. This is an unusually fine opportunity to learn to help others—in one's own home and on one's own time.

Hold Tuesday Musicales Tea

"Eighty new members in our 80th Anniversary Year": This is the goal set by the Tuesday Musicales of Detroit, to continue its anniversary celebration.

The first event of the new season was in Association Membership Tea, on Tuesday, September 21, at the home of Mrs. Philip C. Baker, in Oxford road. Greeting the guests at 1:45 o'clock were Mrs. Harry W. Taylor, president of Tuesday Musicales, and her Executive Board officers.

A short program was presented by two members of Tuesday Musicales, Evelyn Binz, pianist, and Natalie Moeckel, mezzo-soprano.

Life members and past presidents asked to pour were: Mrs. Carl Butts, Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge, Mrs. Elwin C. Greer, Mrs. Robert B. Haus, Miss Harriett Ingersoll, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mrs. B. Hjalmer Larson and Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen.

Serving on the Associate Membership committee with Mrs. John W. Nelson, as chairman, are: Mrs. Clifford V. Ammon, Mrs. Rudolph Boyce, Mrs. John H. Butcher, Mrs. Hugh M. Cameron, Mrs. John M. Chase and Mrs. Bayard A. Clark.

More are: Mrs. Ernest A. Dayhuff, Mrs. George S. Fead, Mrs. Robert B. Haus, Mrs. Fred L. Lounsbury, Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, Mrs. Oscar Onstad, Mrs. Oscar P. Pengelly, Mrs. John Popplestone and Mrs. George Zeitz.

University School Notes

The University School Day Camp and Summer School completed another successful summer. Both the camp and the school were open seven weeks from June 21 to August 7.

The summer school enrollment was 103 and several new nurses were taught. Darrel Watson taught a non-credit course on all aspects of nuclear science including biology and physics. The Baldrige Reading Program of Greenwich, Conn., was also given to 38 students. Richard Trim, the director of the summer school, said that most of the students increased their reading speed 140 percent.

The summer camp completed an especially successful third season with Miss Muriel Brock as director. A year ago the camp had 211 attending, and this year it had 251.

The camp seems to have achieved its success through its ability to give greater attention to each individual. The counselor-camper ratio was about one to ten, although this varied during the summer.

The camp also had an excellent swimming program which was enhanced this year by the addition of a heater in the pool.

Finally, the camp offered four overnights to Hayes State Park and other side trips such as Metropolitan Beach's roller skating rink, the Detroit zoo, the Coca-Cola Company, the Grosse Pointe Woods fire station, and a baseball game.

These activities were all arranged and conducted for a specific age group and seemed to have contributed to the camp's success. According to

Introducing New Teachers

Officers Elected At St. Paul High

Adjusting to the atmosphere of a high school classroom after a long summer may sometimes prove chaotic. If such was the case at St. Paul High School, it was not due to lack of cooperation on the part of student officers.

With typical senior foresight, the Student Council had made over 400 tags to identify students. This not only helped newcomers, but also refreshed the memories of fellow students and the teaching staff.

Hall guards, at first hesitant to issue violations, directed the hall traffic and struggled to avoid any congestion that would slow up classes.

Senior class officers are the following: president, Richard Jablonski; vice-president, Michael Frank; secretary, Beth Hollerbach; treasurer, George Wilson; social chairmen, Leslie Brilowski and Robert Reilly.

Freshman class officers will be elected later in the school year.

"The addition of Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Parchem and Mr. Thompson to our staff has given us three exceptionally well-qualified replacements for the 1965-1966 year. I am confident that each will make many outstanding contributions to the welfare of our boys and girls this year," Principal Millard D. Grell of Monteith said at the close of school on Friday. Barbara L. Gage and John R. Thompson have sixth grade assignments, while Dorothy V. Parchem will work in special education.

Mr. Grell and the three educators have revealed necessary biographical information to enable the Grosse Pointe News to introduce to the community these newcomers to the professional staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. This is the third in the weekly series of articles.

Mrs. Gage is a Californian. She completed her secondary education at Dorsey High School in Los Angeles and holds a degree from the University of Southern California. On campus she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega. The Monteith newcomer spent her junior year at the University of Vienna where she studied German and political science. She has done graduate work at the University of California in Berkeley.

Taught in La Mirada An experienced teacher of fifth and sixth graders, Mrs. Gage taught in the Los Angeles suburb of La Mirada before coming to Grosse Pointe. Among professional memberships she claims the National Education Association, the Michigan Education Association and the Grosse Pointe Education Association.

Mrs. Gage's hobby is making hooked rugs, and she maintains an interest in golf, bridge, and sailing. Photography claims another portion of her leisure time, a natural avocation since her husband is an advertising photographer. Mrs. Gage has toured extensively in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. She visited twenty-two European countries during her year in Vienna.

"We formerly lived in Newport Beach, Cal., and have always lived in the Los Angeles area. We are looking forward with great anticipation to our first snowfall here in Michigan; we have never before experienced one. We are very much impressed by the friendliness and helpfulness shown to us by the people in Grosse Pointe," she commented.

Born in Detroit Mrs. Parchem, a Detroit native, is a graduate of St. Ambrose High School. Mrs. Parchem received her bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University, and her master's degree from the University of the Americas in Mexico City. Mrs. Parchem has also attended St. Mary's College in Notre Dame, Ind.

An experienced teacher, she held assignments in special education, in language and history, and in second grade in South Bend, Ind.

Her deep interest in Latin American affairs stem from two years of residence in Mexico City.

One of her daughters, 18-year-old Ann Christine, is currently studying anthropology at the University of the Americas, while 19-year-old Johanna Marie is at the San Francisco Art Institute. Sewing, swimming and golf are among the Monteith teacher's main out-of-school interests. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi.

Tennessee Graduate Mr. Thompson is a graduate of the University of Tennessee in his native state. Awarded a master's degree from George Peabody College, he has also attended Berea College.

A teacher of ten years' experience, his most recent assignment was a sixth grade position in Madison Heights. His professional affiliations include memberships in the Michigan Education Association and the National Education Association.

Mr. Thompson's hobbies include refinishing furniture, hunting and fishing. He spent a summer as a test car driver. He speaks of a great desire to visit Mexico and Latin America and he would like to work in an anti-poverty program some summer.

DICK GRABOWSKI, of Muir road, DAVE SCHULTE, of Westwind road, and JOHN EMERY, of Lakeland avenue, were among the 40 students remaining at Holy Cross High School, New Orleans, La., during Hurricane Betsy. The boys helped care for some 5,500 evacuees during the hurricane.

Junior League Meeting

Junior League of Detroit members will gather at the Country Club of Detroit next Tuesday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, for their general membership meeting.

The Reverend Bertram deH. Atwood, of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, seen recently on television's "Dialogue," a Protestant-Catholic discussion series, will give the opening prayer and talk to members about their responsibilities in the community.

Mrs. Rex Sessions, of the Lansing Junior League, chairman of the Regional Nominating committee, will be the second guest speaker... and there will be a White Elephant collection for the October Senior Center Bazaar and a report on Fashionscope.

New active members who have successfully completed their Provisional year and will be introduced at Tuesday's meeting include the Mesdames Daniel Beckley, Donald F. Brosnan, Leet Edward Denton, Henry Earle, III, H. R. Fruehauf, Jr., Hugh G. Harness, Richard T. Heglin, Roger H. Oetting, Bruce McFarland Rockwell and Alfred R. Reuther, Jr.

More are Mrs. James P. Williams, Mrs. H. Dwight Wilson, Jr., Beverly Chalmers, Helen Bowen Blain, Patricia Fitzgerald, Eva M. Fuger and Phyllis Hendrie Ledyard.

A Monkey For Ferry School

It seems, sometimes, to the parents of students and the staff at Ferry School, that Ferry's classrooms are full of "monkeys"—and now Ferry has an honest and truly monkey, all its own.

Marshall Fredericks, world famous sculptor, presented an original monkey sculpture to the boys and girls at Ferry Tuesday afternoon. The monkey, unnamed as yet, (Ferry students have been invited to suggest names for the new mascot; Mr. Fredericks and a committee of mothers and teachers will select the most appropriate name from those submitted by the boys and girls), is a gift of the Ferry School PTA.

A group of interested parents and teachers known as the Friends of Ferry School is being formed to obtain funds for more art works to be given to the school.

"Monkey" committee members include mothers Mrs. Donald Mandich, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Candler, Mrs. Louis Alcora, Mrs. Thomas DeVries, Mrs. Henry M. Kuhlman and Mrs. William Klingbeil, and teachers Mrs. Mary Jane Better, Jean Harris and Wayne Bolden.

Guidance Clinic Fashion Show

An invitational fashion show, featuring designs by Teal Traina and a cocktail party on October 7, will inaugurate the second season of fashion benefits for the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic.

The special showing—with husbands as well as wives invited—will be held at 7 o'clock at Margaret Rice's. Committee members include Mrs. Conlisk Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. John Deigh, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn G. Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin D. Martin, Jr., Miss Rice and Dr. and Mrs. Calver Worrell.

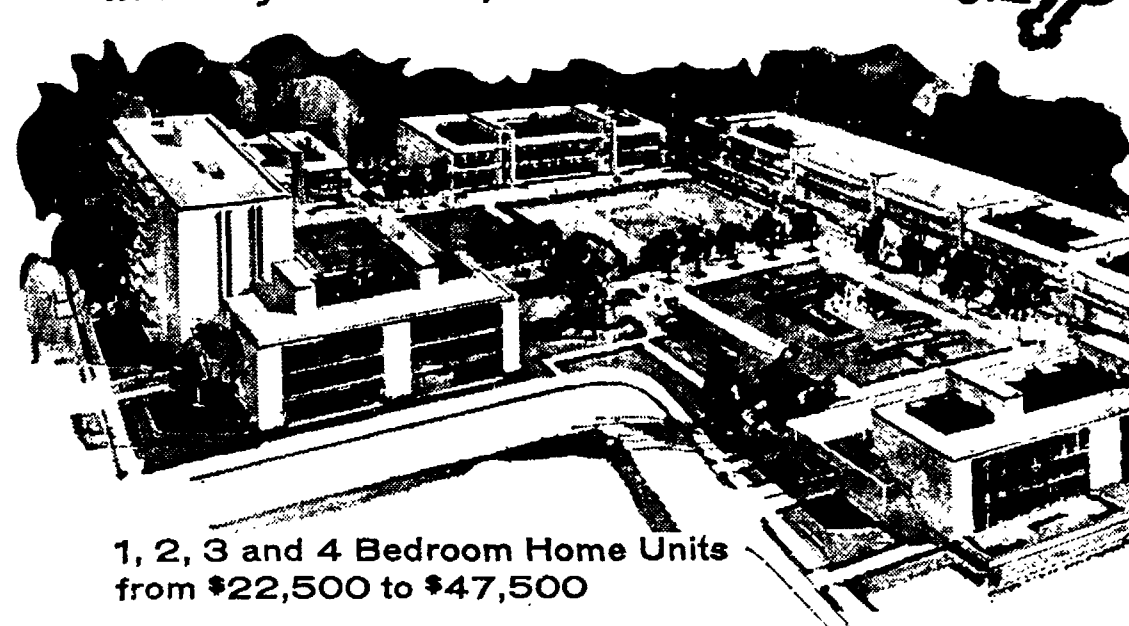

Last season's fashion show-luncheon netted several thousands of dollars for the Clinic, which has served the local area since October, 1964. The Clinic—which moves into new headquarters in East Warren avenue, Detroit, next week—provides diagnostic evaluation and psychotherapy for children with mental health problems. The Children's Center of Wayne County supplies professional personnel for the patients.

A large portion of the funds for the Clinic comes from voluntary contributions and the proceeds from benefits such as the fashion show series.

who, where and whatnot

by whouris

Edgemere road . . . may be only one block long, but it seems to be the "gardeniest" street in town. In June, Mrs. John B. Warren and the Harry Whittinghams showed their charming gardens in the Garden Tour — and more recently, at the Horticulture Show sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, Mrs. Rivard Klippel entered two of the most dazzling Begonias EVER seen — one coral, the other white . . . Incidentally, if you have any questions on how to grow miniature corn, just ask Mrs. Jerome Remick, who entered the MOST interesting miniature corn stalk in the Horticulture Show . . . Mrs. Remick's Parsley, too, was the very greenest . . .

The lady responsible for . . . the lovely fall table decorations at the tea following the Neighborhood Thrift Shop's annual fashion show Tuesday is Mrs. Theodore A. Foster, and we offer her our heartiest congratulations — the decorations were BEAUTIFUL. As a matter of fact, everything about the Show at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, from the fashions shown by Walton-Pierce to the "pourers" at the tea tables, including Mrs. Sidney T. Miller, Mrs. Hal Smith, Jr., Mrs. W. Brace Krag, (she's Thrift Shop chairman), Mrs. George N. Monro, III, Mrs. F. Rankin Weisgerber and Mrs. Edward B. Wishrope, was beautiful . . . We'd also like to pat behind-the-scenes workers Mrs. George T. McKean, Mrs. Jeremiah Jenks, Mrs. Frederick L. Colby, Jr., and Mrs. Eric Stroh, who undertook to transport the many fashion show admission "bundles" to the Thrift Shop in Waterloo avenue in time for yesterday's opening, on the backs — and to say that we think they're "beautiful" too . . .

Absolutely the most GORGEOUS . . . invitation we've ever seen is the magnificent red missive bidding guests to the Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts' "Gallerie a Go-Go" this Saturday evening.

And while we're on the subject of the Arts Institute . . . we had NO IDEA that so many local doctors are avid collectors of objets d'art, until we dropped by a unique exhibition, "The Doctors Collect Art," currently on display at the downtown museum. The show salutes the Michigan State Medical Society, holding its Centennial Session in Detroit now; MSMS members were invited to submit descriptions of their collections, and a museum committee selected items for the exhibit in the Detroit Institute of Arts ground floor galleries from the M.D.'s responses. Pointe collectors represented in the display include Dr. and Mrs. James Lofstrom, (a Karl Appel oil painting and a Lyonel Felming watercolor); Dr. Richard A. Taylor, (an Aaron Bohrod oil); Dr. and Mrs. Delmar F. Weaver, (an engraving after George Catlin and a James Smillie engraving); and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Whelan, (a Charles Burchfield watercolor and an Edward Hopper drawing).

Sharing pleasures . . . (and headaches) as owners of a bus converted into a traveling hostel for their families are Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, of Merriweather road, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen, of Moross road. Inside, the bus is fitted up to transport Williamses, Allens and their friends in comfort, but from the outside, the bus looks like a BUS, (what else?), which can result in misunderstandings . . . as was the case when Mr. Williams, pausing for a red light near St. John Hospital, tried first with gestures and head-shakings to dissuade a woman from enforcing her demands for admission with thumps on the bus door, finally opened the door and saw the woman's anger turn into astonishment as he said, "Sorry, lady — this is my home!"

That little white car . . . (it's only 36 inches high), you may have glimpsed scooting around a corner, is a custom job, created by Forbes Howard, of Mary street.

PILFERINGS

Yuri Gagarin, the Soviet cosmonaut, arrived in India during his triumphal tour and, after a reception, the showing of a film about his trip was planned for cabinet ministers and members of parliament. As soon as everyone was settled and the show started, it immediately stopped. The operator was doing his best to get the film going again, but nothing happened.

Mrs. Lakshmi Menon, deputy minister of external affairs, chided him about wasting everyone's time. But the operator had the final word, and with it he brought down the house.

"Madame," he pleaded, "the film is Russian, the projector is American, and they do not seem to coordinate."

A rich English squire, terrified at having to converse with a suave Arab diplomat at an embassy reception in London, hazarded a conversation opener: "They tell me that in your country you worship the sun."

"So would you," the Arab answered, "if you ever saw it."

Most women, like small children, enjoy saying no; and most men, like idiots, take them seriously.

The average man's idea of a good sermon is one that goes over his head and hits a neighbor.

Pointer of Interest

BERNADETTE WORTMAN, OF AUDUBON ROAD

By Anne Boynton

Leave it to Bernie Wortman to provide the first Pointer done in absentia. But in talking with her briefly over the phone, her yarns begged to be wove together, despite the fact that she was in the process of packing to go to Boston.

Miss Wortman is now teaching 8th and 9th grade English at the Waltham School in Massachusetts. What remains though, making the rather unique interview possible, are her letters and an article published in the alumnae journal of Trinity College, which spell out her three years spent teaching overseas.

The streaked blond went under the auspices of the United States Defense Department, having applied through Selfridge Air Force base. Two years of teaching in the States were required. Bernie completed that and more in Baltimore and South Redford.

Europe was not a new journeyland for the traveler. She had been twice before, with her family in 1950 and with the Chet Sampson art-history tour in 1959. Fortunately, however, she isn't of the "I've been to Europe so I've seen it" genre and she was off . . .

First in Germany

To Germany where she spent the first of her three years teaching in Tammstein Flugplatz which is southwest of Frankfurt. Her students were all children of American officers stationed on the base, which is a large NATO installation in Germany. She describes them as energetic teen-agers, who love the Twist, are slightly sophisticated from world travel, are for the most part quite bright, and usually well disciplined and polite, even if they do refer to all female teachers as 'sis'.

In the first of her Christmas letters home, Bernie describes her newly acquired homeland, in somewhat surprising and stylistically refreshing terms: "Germany is not poor. There is no unemployment. Reconstruction since the war is utterly amazing. No one is without enthusiasm for progress and industry. The cities are rebuilt, the stores are well-stocked with both quality and quantity and the German now spends his salary. As one explained, the German learned the hard way after two wars that cold cash was devalued and he now purchases an auto, a fur coat and jewelry."

Travels on Weekends

Indulging in her desire to travel, Miss Wortman spent only one weekend on the German base. The university town of Heidelberg was the first of many jaunts. She savored the medieval flavor of the town, its storybook houses and ancient castle in ruins.

On to Munich in which "the famed Oktoberfest of 'gemutlichkeit' and beer and pretzels is the Bavarian at his best." She noted that the beer is served in huge liter mugs and that the pretzels are the size of Life magazine.

The long week-end of Armistice Day was spent in Berlin, the "New York City of Europe." Here were the lights, the modern architecture, the expensive shops . . . the chic women — wealth abounding.

East Berlin was quite different. "A drive along Bernauer Strasse (along the Wall) is perhaps the most depressing sight of the Divided City. The view from the West is one of walled houses, bricked churches, and barbed-fenced cemeteries. Every doorway has a marker or wreath commemorating the death and courage of one who tried to leap to freedom or aided another in escape. The cross to the emigre who swam the Spree River only to be shot by the East soldiers is most breath-taking. This was inhumanity, grief and a picture from the page of the Barbaric Horrors.

Hard to Understand
"It is unbelievable that the anthemum leaves, gingo nuts, chestnuts, bean sprouts and seaweed.

Not Easy to Eat

As for actually eating the food, well, this was no easy matter. In the Trinity journal, Bernie reports: "Dining on the knees eventually leads to the clotting of the circulatory system, but the more comfortable crossed-legged position always invites smirks of laughter. Another breach of etiquette is readjusting the Nordic frame only to find it hampered by the big toe in the TOFU, a white glutinous square of bean paste. More clandestine giggles! The climax of the gourmet was splintering a chop-stick, an incomprehensible faux pas. Although the Oriental usually displays little amazement or emotion, the expression on the face of the boy-sen was a combination of utter shocked dismay and uncontrollable hysteria.

Transportation was another forehead wrinkler. Roads constructed for bicycles were not exactly the right size for American autos. Riding a taxi in Tokyo was something she described as a "training mission for kamikaze flights." Subways were literally packed by professional pushers with "fresh human sardines."

Despite these obvious troubles in getting around though, Bernie advises one must never look lost in the Far West. Especially in 1964 when all foreigners were Olympic athletes. The only way to contend was to sign the autographs and move on . . .

Reactions at Games

To the games . . . "Gazing internationally at the 96 fluttering flags around a lapping caudron of Grecian fire was an experience in the potential grasp of world unity. Soon the strange tones of the Japanese anthem became a familiar strain, and another foreign land became a temporarily adopted homeland. Proudly, a silent tear was shed as the Stars and Stripes rose bravely announcing a 90th medal presentation. Never does the red, white and blue wave so brilliantly as when raised on alien soil."

What Bernie most likes to recall? Her three Christmases on foreign soil. Christmas Eve of 1962 she was viewing the Egyptian pyramids and then went on to Bethlehem. In 1963, she was riding a sleigh to midnight mass in St. Anton, Austria, hearing chimes all the while playing Silent Night. Bangkok, Thailand, was the exotic setting for Christmas 1964. With temperatures in the 80's, the Thai women went to church in Chinese pajamas. The altar was heaped with gladiolas instead of poinsettias.

The past Easter Miss Wortman had the opportunity to visit the southern islands of Hiroshima and Nagasaki at cherry blossom time. The first two weeks of June, before her return home, she visited the northern island of Japan, Hokkaido. It is a predominantly primitive spot where no English is spoken. A feature of the island are the Ainu Indians who are anthropological wonders about to die out. Another feature of the island, was naturally (blond) Bernie, whose golden locks were unusual enough to cause her to be the subject of constant flash bulbs.

Coming home, Bernie had a few moments to reflect . . . "Living abroad is a mixture of fascination, delight, enchantment, the lure of the unfamiliar, the unique endeavor, an alien tongue, constant comparison, discretion of fact and fantasy, judging and being judged . . . never does a foreigner absorb all there is to learn in a country . . . yet how quickly even a foreign land becomes home as a travel-weary tourist returns to routine, to work, and to rest for the next grand tour."

MEAT PIE

Contributed by
Mrs. LeeRoy Temrowski
3 lbs. ground beef
3 medium green peppers
3 large Bermuda or Spanish onions
6 medium-sized carrots
8-10 Idaho potatoes
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper

Peel potatoes (8 to 10, depending upon how "meaty" you like your pie), and put them in cold water. Sauté remaining ingredients until mixture is a light brown.

CRUST

4 cups sifted flour
6 heaping Tbsp. shortening
1 tsp. salt
cold water (enough to keep crust together)
Roll crust and fit into two large or three small pie plates, saving enough for top crusts. Cube potatoes. Toss potatoes and meat mixture lightly together. Place filling in pie crusts. Top each pie with a large pat of butter. Add top crusts, slit to let air escape. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, for 1 hour to 1 hour and 15 minutes.
Makes 8 to 10 servings.
