GENERAL MOTORS announced price reductions Wednesday averaging $72 per car on its new models. The statement came unexpectedly just two days after Chrysler Corp. announced increases of up to $60 per unit on its '66 models, touching off demands in Washington for Congressional investigation of new car prices. Board Chairman Frederic Donner and President James Roche said the reductions are on prices before excise tax cut.

PAKISTAN and India halted their border warfare before the UN cease-fire deadline Wednesday, but not before over 80 Indian civilians were reported killed in two separate bombing raids by Pakistani jets. The attacks, on Jodhpur and the Sikh holy city of Amritsar, came four hours after Pakistan had ordered its forces to halt the fighting, but well before the 5 p.m. UN deadline.

Friday, September 24

INDIAN PRIME MINISTER Shastri has expressed hope that President of the UAR Gamal Abdel Nasser can mediate the India-Pakistan border dispute, Cairo sources said. Nasser has close diplomatic relations with both countries, and has reportedly urged Chinese Premier Chou-En Lai to ease military border tensions in preparation for peace talks Nasser would moderate. Meanwhile, observers reported China building "a Himalayan version of the Berlin Wall" in the Jelep Pass.

TWO NEW DRUGS to prevent influenza and German measles were reported Thursday at the Michigan State Medical Society Convention, while delegates were told by a U of M medical researcher that progress in preventing virus-caused diseases may conquer the common cold "in a couple of years" and hepatitis after that.

Saturday, September 25

NEW FIGHTING broke up the India-Pakistan cease-fire Friday night as both nations reported a flareup in the area of Lahore, Pakistan's largest city and the scene of the heaviest battles of the Kashmir war. An Indian official's report of "fairly heavy" fighting involving both artillery and small arms followed mutual charges of truce violation by the rival nations. The pronouncements from both sides indicated that they will ignore for a while the UN Security Council's demand that they pull back to prewar positions.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON announced Friday that the United States and Panama are negotiating a new treaty which will make the Canal Zone a part of the Republic of Panama. Observers noted, however, that the proposed treaty left unspecified Panamanian control of the Canal itself, although it offers Panama a share in the management and profits of the waterway.

A major Viet Cong political official has disclosed that Communist forces have encountered "certain difficulties" as a result of US military efforts there, but estimated that a winning effort against them would require 1,500,000 troops if, as US strategists estimate, a ten to one proportion of troops to guerrillas is needed to win.

Sunday, September 26

AN INDIAN DEFENSE ministry spokesman announced late Saturday that Communist China has withdrawn its troops "from potential offensive posts on or inside the Indian border." The move apparently ended this latest confrontation crisis. But Indian President Radhakrishnan ruled out Pakistan's chief requirement for a lasting peace between those two nations by declaring in a radio speech that India will not permit a plebiscite in Kashmir.

FORMER PRESIDENT Juan Bosch returned to the Dominican Republic from two years' exile today and greeted cheering crowds with the demand that the U. S. pay $1 billion in reparations.

Wrong-Way Driver Runs Six Lights

Park Police Nab Speeder
Going East On Jefferson to Get Home to Allen Park

Lawrence Salliotte, 18, of 14861 Belmont, Allen Park, not only was headed the wrong way on his way home, but he drove through several red traffic signals in his hurry to (not) get there.

The youth was stopped and arrested by Park Police Sgt. Charles French at 4:20 a.m. Sunday, September 26, who saw Salliotte driving east on Jefferson at a high rate of speed.

The officer, cruising west on the avenue, turned and gave chase, starting from the Wayburn intersection. The young driver sped through red lights at Barrington, Maryland, Pemberton, and Beaconsfield, at between 60 and 70 miles an hour, the sergeant said.

Salliotte also ignored a red light at the Jefferson-Bedford intersection, swerving to the right to pass an automobile stopped for the light, and raced through another stop light signal at Cadieux.

French said he paced Salliotte at 70 miles an hour between Cadieux and Fisher roads. Salliotte was stopped at Fisher by the officer.

When questioned as to his reason for the speeding Salliotte told the policeman that he lived in Allen Park and that he was on his way home. Salliotte was taken to the station and issued a ticket for reckless driving.

Sidewalk Driver Seeking 'Kicks' Posts $150 Bond

A Detroit motorist who drove his automobile on the sidewalks of Buckingham road at high speed "just for kicks," was arrested by Park police and charged with reckless driving.

Accused of the offense is Joseph F. Ewald, 23, of 16078 State Fair, who posted a bond of $150 before he was released, to appear in Park municipal court on November 3.

The arresting officer, Sgt. Charles French said he was patrolling Cherlevoix avenue at 1:30 a.m., and as he neared Buckingham, he observed a small car being driven in an erratic manner. The driver was swerving the vehicle from one side of the street to the other, the policeman said.

French said that he witnessed the car, driven by Ewald, leave

20 Seniors at GPHS Win Semifinalist Rating in Scholarship Competition

Results of National Merit Qualifying Tests Show More Than 14,000 Survivors in Country; Face Second Examination

Principal Jerry J. Gerich announced on Wednesday, September 22, that 20 seniors at Grosse Pointe High School have been named Semifinalists in the 1965-66 Merit Scholarship competition.

The students cited for their high achievement are Jim M. Balcerski, son of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Balcerski 590 Barrington; Stephen W. Bowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowles, 77 Meadow lane; John E. Chosy, son of Mr. Eugene Chosy, 364 Fisher road; Carol J. Curtiss, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Curtiss, 60 Sunningdale; Robert Edmondson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Edmondson, 35 Whitcomb drive; Paul M. Grams, son of Dr. and Mrs. Armin Grams, 621 Washington road; Walter L. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffith, 1201 S. Renaud.

Others were, Mary Alice Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harmon, 663 Barrington; Mary L. Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jennings, 289 Mt. Vernon; James W. Laird, son of Rev. and Mrs. James Laird, 1117 Bishop; Richard Ludwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig, 722 Rivard; Catherine Munkolm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Munkolm, 1127 Whittier; Joel M. Penoyar, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Penoyar, 1339 Nottingham; Cameron H. Piggott, son of Mr. Albert Piggott, 1035 Cadieux.

Also, Pamela J. Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Seymour, 1239 Aline drive; John E. Sipe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sipe, 1931 Van Antwerp, Susan Soleberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Soleberger, 821 Barrington; Gail A. Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thomas, 486 St. Clair; Arthur Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters, 802 Lakeland; and Roger A. Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wayne, 2236 Stanhope.

They were among the highest-achieving students in the country.

The first theft was reported by Mrs. Albert Dwyer of 2170 East Jefferson, Detroit, an employee of the Virginia Williams Shop, 79 Kercheval, who told investigating officers that a well-dressed man, about 40 years old, entered the store and began looking around.

Mrs. Dwyer said the man informed her that he was waiting for his wife. The man even helped her to water the plants in the shop, the woman added.

About 12:45 p.m., Mrs. Dwyer told police, she went to the back of the store, and when she returned almost immediately, she saw the man, his arm clutched tightly to his side, walk out of the store.

Later, she said, she discovered her straw, gold-handled handbag missing. It contained $23 in cash, identification papers, keys and other personal items.

On September 24, Mrs. William G. Kirby of 61 Moross, personally reported at the police station, that her wallet was stolen from her purse at Dantes, 78 Kercheval. Her description of the possible suspect fitted that of the man who is believed to have taken Mrs. Dwyer's handbag.

Mrs. Kirby said that the man was in the store for about half an hour, claiming he was waiting for his wife. She said her wallet did not contain any cash, but did have in it a check in the amount of $30, personal papers and her operator's license.

Theft Charge Being Faced By Juveniles

Youngsters Confess to Taking Money From Woman After Making Threat; Also Admit Car Thefts

Woods police have filed charges against two juveniles with Juvenile Court authorities, for unarmed robbery and car theft. The juveniles, both boys, were arrested by Detroit police, who noticed the boys in a car that had been reported stolen in Harper Woods.

The boys were arrested on Monday, September 20, shortly after Marion Saelens, 52, of 22113 Sunningdale, St. Clair Shores, called Woods police to report that she was robbed under threat.

The woman said she was waiting in a car parked in the lot at the rear of a supermarket at Mack and Moross, when two youngsters in another car pulled up in front of her.

A 16-year-old boy, who appeared big for his age, approached her, Mrs. Saelens said, and asked for directions to Vernier and Lake Shore roads.

Demands Money
As she started giving directions, Mrs. Saelens said, the Woman Scared By Hungry Man

Mrs. Jean Duncan of 846 Beaconfield, arrived home at 12:39 a.m. on Thursday, September 23, and surprised a bare-chested man in the house, who demanded that he be fed.

Mrs. Duncan told Park police that when she arrived home, she made herself comfortable and turned on the television set in the living room, when suddenly she was confronted by the man, who insisted that he be given something to eat.

The frightened woman placed food on the kitchen table, which the intruder consumed partly, and then left the house in a hurry, leaving the unconsumed food. He took nothing with him, Mrs. Duncan said.

She described the man as being a Negro, between five feet seven inches and five feet nine inches tall, and being between 25 and 29 years old.

All police units were dispatched to the area, but a search for the intruder was unsuccessful. Police said that entry into the house was gained by removing the screen from a rear window. Nothing appeared to be missing from the house, Mrs. Duncan said.

PTA Council Gets Progress Report On New School

Artists' Renderings Shown; Spiraling Costs And Shortage of Skilled Labor Likely to Delay Completion of Structure

The first meeting of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council for the 1965-1966 school year was held Monday evening at the Central Library. Walter J. Seyffert, president, chaired the hour-long session that began at 8 p.m.

Main item on the agenda was a progress report on Grosse Pointe High School North. In his remarks, J. Harold Husband, Assistant Superintendent-Administrative Services, summarized recent events. He and Robert J. Domke, project administrator for the architectural firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Sturton, were featured speakers.

Mr. Domke showed three artist's renderings of the proposed building. The first showed the access route from Vernier road, the second depicted the court between the service areas and the academic wing. The last picture exhibited was of the eastern side of the auditorium-instructional center as seen from Morningside drive.

Neighbors Considered
"The design concept that guided the thinking of those who planned the building was to be a good neighbor," Mr. Domke said. "The mass of the building has been broken into smaller units to be in scale with the residential surroundings," he mentioned.

The architect described a number of the structure's features: passageways linking the school's three main sections, tree-shaded court areas, porcelain-enamelled copper-colored steel of the roof sections. The brick building will contain 310,000 square feet, he said.

During the question and answer period, it was revealed that the trustees of the Board of Education are studying carefully the recently-opened bids on piling for the building.

Costs Spiraling
The trustees expressed serious concern that spiraling costs coupled with an anticipated shortage of skilled labor could delay the opening of Grosse Pointe High School North. These factors might postpone the hoped-for opening of the building from September, 1967, until some time later in the 1967-1968 school year.

PTA Council President Seyffert conducted a brief business meeting at the close of the discussion.

Molester Chases Two Young Girls

Two 13-year-old girls told police Saturday evening, September 25, that a man about 50 tried to talk them into entering his car while they were walking on St. Paul at Lincoln.

The girls said they were walking their dog when a car drove up, containing the man and three older women. The girls described him as balding and fat, wearing a checked shirt and sport coat.

They stated that he got out of the car and talked to them, then chased them east on St. Paul when they refused to get into the car.

After that the man walked back and reentered the car, which one of the women drove away on Lincoln.

War Memorial Association Elects Five New Directors

At its seventeenth annual meeting on Monday, September 27, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association elected five members to its Board of Directors to serve for a three-year term. They are William F. Huettman, Grosse Pointe Woods; Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, City of Grosse Pointe; Robert H. Kandler, Grosse Pointe Farms; Harry W. Mellen, Grosse Pointe Park; and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer, Grosse Pointe Shores.

Theodore M. Mecke, Jr., retiring Board President, chaired the meeting which was preceded by dinner in the Crystal Ballroom and entertainment by the Grosse Pointe Theater. Mr. Mecke called upon George Munro III to review the statement of the Center's finances which showed sufficient revenues from operations to offset expenses and to cover also some much needed capital improvements.

Alger Sheldon, chairman of the Investment Committee, called attention to that committee's policy of balancing purchases of shares of stock with the buying of bonds. He also pointed out the growth of the fund since the Center's inception.

Mr. Mecke in his farewell address noted the continued daily use of the Center by large numbers of community groups and the excellent support received in the Family Participation Campaign as proof of the Memorial's secure and valued place in the community. He stressed the scope of the Center's finances which

Federation Also Favors An Election

Minority Organizations Promises Battle to Obtain Sole Bargaining Authority

The Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers has asked for and is herewith granted an opportunity to paint its side of the picture in the struggle between teaching groups to be granted sole bargaining rights for all certificated, non-supervisory, contractual employees.

Last week it was announced that the MEA-NEA-affiliated Grosse Pointe Teachers Association has petitioned the Labor Mediation Board to conduct a representative election to pick a sole bargaining agent.

Now the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers, Local 819, has issued the following release, stating its position in the battle for power.

The officers and members of the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers welcome the forthcoming election for sole bargaining rights in Grosse Pointe. Indeed, it was with knowledge that Public Act 379 was in the making and that both professional organizations would be forced to conduct such an election campaign that the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers made the only decision possible under the circumstances—to withdraw from Grosse Pointe Teachers Association, made up of members from both organizations of teaching professionals—the Grosse Pointe Education Association (NEA-MEA affiliate and the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers, Local 819, AFL-CIO. Federation of Teachers members feel that the combined organization, the GPFA, could hardly hope to serve teachers effectively as "collective bargaining" for teachers becomes a reality under state law.

The Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers views the election for "collective bargaining" rights as a mandate to both professional organizations to speak to the issues. Being a substantial, if minority, organization in Grosse Pointe, the GPFT has long felt obligated to provide effective and courageous leadership, often in the face of apathy and unconcern on the part of some teachers. As an organization, it is proud of what its leadership has accomplished in the past and of the influence for good it has exerted far out of proportion to its numerical strength.

The GPFT is proud of having supported almost every major advance teachers in Grosse Pointe have made long before its rival organization has recognized the need for action. Long time teachers in Grosse Pointe recognize the key contribution the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers has made in securing past salary improvements, in urging tenure, in pushing hospitalization benefits, and working towards an orderly grievance procedure.

Federation members fear placing bargaining responsibilities in the hands of a Grosse Pointe Education Association which has often been more conservative than its parent state and national organizations. Here Grosse Pointe teachers may recall that the GPFA failed to support tenure actively, some years ago, fearing voter resistance, when the NEA and MEA both urged all local organizations to campaign for it.

Readers of the September, 1965, Grosse Pointe Education Association Newsletter noted reference to the slogan—"the new image of the MEA." Federation members view this slogan as implying an "old image." Thus far, Grosse Pointe Federation members have not seen tangible evidence of what this "new image" means. In the weeks ahead, before the voting, Grosse Pointe teachers must ask themselves what it is that any group representing them aims to bargain for. Grosse Pointe teachers have recently received a copy of GPFT bargaining goals. If elected bargaining representative for the teachers of Grosse Pointe, these are the things GPFT officers will actively strive for:

1. Teacher salaries which are scoring students in the state of Michigan on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, administered last March in over 17,600 schools nationwide. More than 14,000 Semifinalists were appointed across the country. To become Finalists, the students must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination, submit recommendations by their schools, and fulfill routine requirements. All Merit Scholars for 1966 will then be selected from the Finalist group.

"Much of our future leadership will come from these young people," said John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. "Semifinalists are representative of our country's most intellectually able young people."

"In honoring them, we should remember that others have contributed significantly to their success by encouraging the characteristics which produce high achievement, including energy and hard work. The Semifinalists bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities."

Get Financial Aid
To increase their opportunities for financial assistance if they need it, NMSC sends the names of semifinalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to other scholarship-granting agencies and sources of financial aid. Studies show that about half of the Semifinalists in former years have obtained financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program.

At least 97 percent of past Semifinalists have become Finalists. Each Finalist receives a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his outstanding performance in the program. Finalists are eligible for the scholarships sponsored by NMSC and over 280 corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations, and individuals. Names of the Merit Scholars chosen from among the Finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966. The exact number will depend on the extent of sponsor support. In 1965, over 2,000 Merit Scholarships were awarded.

Many Things Evaluated
High school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities, and school citizenship of the students are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholars. Winners of sponsored awards also meet sponsor criteria.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award covering the undergraduate college years. The winner's stipend is tailored to his need, up to a maximum of $6,000 for the four years in most cases. For the student already financially able to attend the college of his choice, the award is $400 for the four years. Winners choose their own colleges and courses of study.

In many cases, the colleges attended by Merit Scholars also receive supplementary grants, which was founded in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. About $42 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expanded or committed through the program thus far.

at least comparable with top paying neighboring districts.

2. Full hospitalization coverage for subscriber and dependents.

3. Duty-free lunch period of at least one hour for each and every teacher.

4. A Board-financed meaningful physical examination.

5. Payment of one-half of all accumulated sick days at retirement.

6. Salary increment granted to those on leave of absence for study.

7. Improved sabbatical benefits.

8. Released time for all essential committee work.

Bargaining elections elsewhere have demonstrated several truths, among them:

1. Majority organizations, on paper, have not always won. Fears of union affiliation often disappear in the privacy of the voting booth.

2. Organizations which do not produce tangible results do not win subsequent bargaining elections.

Regardless of which organization wins the bargaining election in Grosse Pointe, there will be an opportunity to discuss significant issues, to outline specific problems, and to establish a set of goals against which future bargaining performance may be measured. Whichever group wins the election, a single bargaining agent will be forced to shoulder the sole responsibility for improvement of teacher salaries and working conditions in Grosse Pointe. The GPPT has long stood for the principle of having a single bargaining agent at the bargaining table, and it does so now, win or lose.

Teachers undoubtedly will listen to the programs and arguments of both organizations with the greatest of care. They will undoubtedly also look back to the past performances of both groups. In the last analysis, all the teachers of Grosse Pointe can only hope to gain because of recent developments.

ter's varied programs and services to the community and the increased response to these activities. He thanked the many Grosse Pointers whose gifts of time, effort and money made all this possible.

Particularly, Mr. Mecke thanked retiring Board members, George C. Cossaboom, Walter B. Ford, II, H. Lynn Pierson and Mrs. Frank W. Wyllie for their excellent leadership and he paid tribute to the work of the Center's staff.

Mr. Mecke, who has served both as the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's president and as chairman of its Family Participation Campaign, was given a much deserved rising vote of thanks at the conclusion of the evening.

THIEF TAKES DRILL

Jerome Fitzgibbons of 1235 Cadieux road, told Park police on Sunday, September 26, that he was working in his back yard on the storm windows for his house, and left for a short time. When he returned to continue his work, he discovered that someone had stolen his electric drill, valued at $20.

Juveniles Face Charges

youth interrupted and said "I need money for gas; give me your money or I'll club you." She gave the teenager a dollar bill, stating that that was all she had.

The youth demanded money from another purse on the seat of the car, but she showed him that it was empty, the woman said.

The woman reported the incident to Woods police, who put the description of the boys and their car on the police radio to all points.

It was disclosed by Harper Woods police, that the two juveniles had stolen the car in which they were riding, from a location in their city. The 13-year-old was driving the vehicle, it was said.

A few hours later, Harper

Woods police called Woods authorities to disclose that Detroit police had arrested four teenagers in the car reported stolen from their community. The other two juveniles were not involved in any of the crimes of which the original two are accused, the police said.

Second Pair Picked Up

Police said that the second pair had just been picked up by the first two only a few minutes before Detroit authorities arrested the four for questioning, before releasing them to Harper Woods police.

The Harper Woods police informed Woods police that the 13-year-old and the 16-year-old boys confessed to stealing the car in Harper Woods, and also admitted the unarmed robbery of Mrs. Staelens.

The juveniles also confessed to stealing another car in the St. Clair Shores, police said.

Judge Belanger Hears 5 Cases

Louis Stanko, 23, of 466 Chalmers, Detroit, told Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, September 22, that he had no excuse for ignoring three red signal lights and driving through a stop street without stopping, while trying to elude pursuing policemen the previous day.

Stanko plead guilty to the charges, and also to speeding 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone. He was assessed a fine of $25.

Four minors were found guilty of illegal possession of alcoholic beverages. They are, Kirk Strehler, 17, of 19258 Linville; Jonathan McKenzie, 17, of 535 Lakepointe; Gary Phromm, 17, 1083 Maryland; and George Smale, 18, of 181 Lakeview. They were arrested on July 10.

Strehler was fined $35, or five days in the Wayne County Jail; McKenzie, charged with two counts of illegal possession, was ordered to pay court costs of $10 each count; Phromm was fined $35, or five days; and Smale, court costs of $10. Fines and costs were paid.

Two other minors, also accused in two separate cases were found guilty of illegal possession of alcoholic beverages, were Eugene Binder, Jr., 18, of 437 Chalfonte, who was fined $35 or five days in jail; and Robert France, 18, of 838 Berkshire, who received a similar sentence. Both paid their fines.

HOW RACE HORSES GET THOSE FANCY NAMES

I Have Named A Thousand Babies... baby horses, that is... during my years in thoroughbred racing.

It is a fascinating part of the Sport. Every day when I go over the Detroit Race Course program, I find it a delight to check the names of the horses and to think of the stories or the possible reasons behind the choice of their names.

How do you name a race horse? Well, it isn't as easy as you might think.

The Jockey Club, which is the governing body of racing in the United States, exercises strict supervision over the choice of the names. All names must be submitted to The Jockey Club, and approved by it, before they can be used.

Names are limited to 16 letters and not more than three words. No name used in the previous 15 years can be duplicated. Names of famous horses of the past, trade names or anything hinting of advertising are not permitted. A horse can be named for a living person only if his written consent is filed.

I think over, recent years Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt has exercised greater originality, coupled with a pixish humor, than most owners.

Vanderbilt's brilliant Native Dancer was by Polynesian-Geisha. He caused many a chuckle, and a few Jockey Club blushes, with Social Outcast, a star who took part in our 1954 Michigan Mile. Social Outcast was by Shut Out-Pansy.

Sometimes there can be humorous political connotations to thoroughbred names. Isidor Bieber had a succession of fine foals from the mare, Maaja, and in order, he named them: Russian Valor, Russian Action, Empty

Noose, Appease Not and Champion Liar.

I once knew a cantankerous old Kentucky owner who hated to have women hunch players bet on his horses because they liked their names. So he deliberately gave his color-bearers unattractive names like Ugly Mary and Losing Clon.

In years past, when the late Col. E. R. Bradley was the Master of the famed Idle Hour Farm, all his horses had names beginning with the letter "B"... Behave Yourself, Bubbling Over, Burgoo King, Broker's Tip, Bimelech.

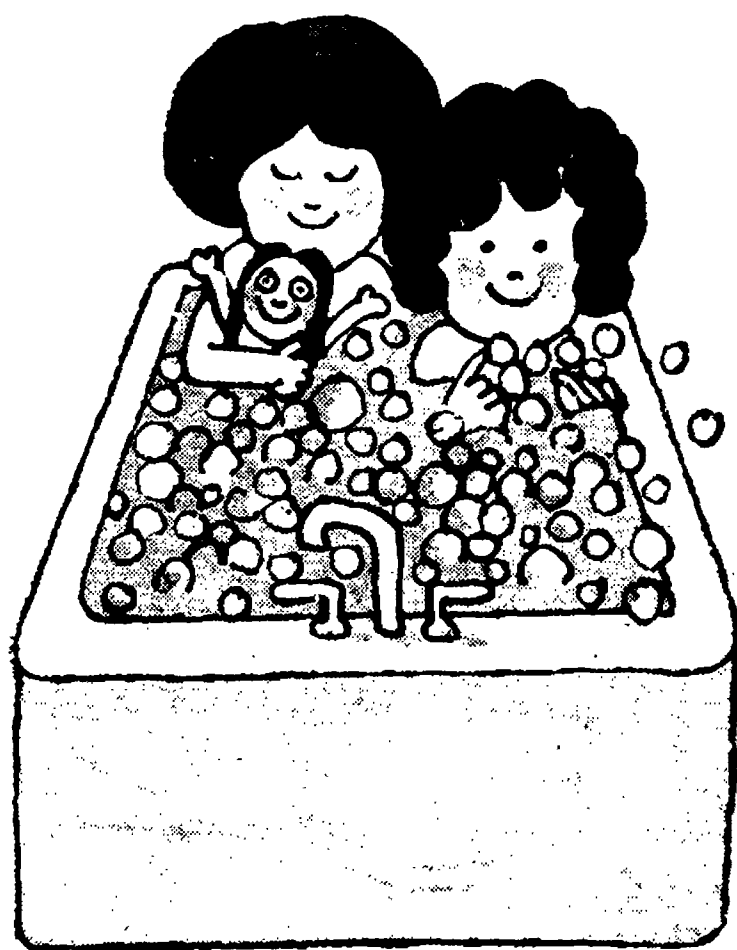

James Edwards, owner of the Audley Farm, who raced with us last season, has a horse named Bag of Ice. He selected it to commemorate the purchase of a sizeable number of uncut diamonds from a famed movie star.

The next time you come to the Detroit Race Course, and I hope it will be soon, spend a few minutes studying the names of the horses racing that day. You will find it just another of the little things which will add to your Racing Pleasure.

Our new Clubhouse is one of the Show-places of Sports. We invite you to visit the beautiful "Winner's Circle" dining terrace; the colorful old world tavern, "Ye Olde Tired Horse Pub"; the gay French Quarter Lounge, or just take a leisurely stroll about the Clubhouse and view the 30 exciting thoroughbred paintings in the DRC's Corridor Of The Stars by Fay Moore.

Allen Park Couple Accused In Woods Jewelry Theft

An Allen Park couple was arrested by Woods police on Monday, September 28, on a warrant charging them with larceny of more than $100, which constitutes a felony. The couple is accused in the September 14 theft of a diamond ring from the House of Gems, 18591 Mack avenue.

Arrested were Joseph Cauchon, 40, of 14941 Keppen, and his wife, Dorothy, 20. They were arraigned for examination before Woods Judge Don Goodrow yesterday, September 29, the outcome of which was too late for this issue of the NEWS.

The pair was arrested by Det. Sgt. Allen Selby and Det. Robert Setchell, accompanied by Detroit officers from the Woodward Station, Thirteenth Precinct. Cauchon was traced to a hotel at Willis and Fourth street, where he was taken into custody; and Mrs. Cauchon was found and arrested in a Third avenue bar.

The Woods officers said that Cauchon has a long criminal record dating back to 1940, and Mrs. Cauchon has a record dating back to 1962.

The couple is accused of switching a 50-cent ring for a diamond ring valued at $165, and also taking a $17 watch from a tray.

The owner of the House of Gems, Joseph Mocer, 28, of 23113 Joy street, St. Clair Shores, signed the complaint, and a larceny warrant was recommended by Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Dale Devlin.

On the September 14 date, according to the charges against Cauchon and his wife, both entered the jewelry store and looked at several expensive rings on the pretext that Mrs. Cauchon wanted a better one than was given to her on her wedding day.

A salesgirl, and a 15-year-old male cousin of Mocer, names withheld, told police that Cauchon told them that he and his wife had been married only a short time and he wanted to buy her a set of rings.

The woman took what appeared to be an engagement ring from her purse, stating that she was looking for something with similar size stones. The salesgirl arranged a display.

While Mrs. Cauchon was looking at the rings and trying them on, it was said, the salesgirl went to the rear of the store to bring out more rings. Cauchon, in the meantime, it was also said, went to another counter to look at rings and watches designed for males, and then returned to his wife's side.

The salesgirl said that Cauchon appeared to have plenty of cash because he pulled out a roll of bills and she saw a $100 bill on top.

When Mocer returned to the store, and the unsuspecting salesgirl had gone home, Mocer's young cousin informed him of the couple who had been in to look at the rings. Mocer became suspicious and looked at the ring tray.

Mocer said he discovered the money ring in one of the trays, and the $165 ring gone. The bogus ring was identified by the 15-year-old as one he said was shown to him by Cauchon. The jeweler also went to the watch counter and found a watch missing from a display. The accused pair were identified as the couple that entered the jewelry store and looked at the rings and watches. Selby and Setchell said the Cauchons did not have the items they are accused of taking on their persons or at their home, at the time they were arrested.

cussion on the proposed school. The trustees expressed concern that spiraling construction costs could delay the opening of Grosse Pointe High School North. For example, the lowest bid on the piling came to $474,000, $130,000 over the estimated figure for the three units of the proposed building.

CONSIDER ALTERNATES

The possibility that bids in all areas may be higher than the estimates has caused the members of the Board of Education to consider space alternates. The architectural firm has been asked by the school trustees to furnish them with a "quantity take-off," a full comparison between estimates and possible future costs of all the features to be included in the proposed structure. The study would be based upon general business conditions now and in the foreseeable future.

The Board trustees also cited an anticipated shortage of skilled labor as an additional factor that could delay the opening of the building in September, 1967. The hoped-for date could be postponed until some time later in the 1967-1968 school year.

PTA Council President Seyfert conducted a brief business meeting at the close of the discussion on the proposed senior high school.

Pvt. W. R. Cote Takes Army Finance Course

Pvt. William R. Cote, son of Mrs. Grace Huhyn, 1645 Newcastle, completed a five-week finance procedures course at the Army Finance School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., September 4.

During the course Cote received instruction in Army finance procedures for use in the field and the garrison.

Cote entered the Army last May and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 21-year-old soldier was graduated from Ferndale High School in 1962 and attended South Macomb Junior College.

Parents Invited To Go to School

Parents of Brownell Junior High School students will have an opportunity to attend their children's classes at the annual "School-on-Schedule Night" on October 4.

After gathering at 7:30 in the boys' gym (Home Room period) for a brief PTA meeting presided over by president Burke Fosses each parent will follow his child's daily schedule for Monday. In each class of 15 minutes, teachers will explain the general course of study, class routines, home work procedures, and the methods of evaluating pupil progress.

Coffee will be served in A-22, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Elias, for those scheduled for "study hall" any period, as well as for a general pick-up at the completion of the evening's program.

To help bewildered adults locate class rooms, a group of ninth grade students will act as guides. These include: Gigi Graham, Sara Via, Becky Lake, Mary McLeod, Candy Swanson, Mary Bruno, Denise Farquhar, Debby Werthmann, Sally Hayes, Pam Davis, Cheryl Roy, Lori Heglin, Debbie Angel, Janet Shaw, and Ellen-Clarke Buckminster.

Treasurer Frank Kaufman has also arranged to set up stations for collection of dues.

St. Paul Student Council Bubbles Over with Ideas

By Deborah Hoben

Rumor has it that St. Paul's new Student Council members are bubbling over with all sorts of new and unique ideas for the coming school year. Aiming for greater participation on the part of the entire student body, the Student Council stresses their motto: Involvement through Responsibility.

Although academic development is an important part of school life at St. Paul's, the Student Council points out that extra-curricular activities won't be neglected in the curriculum of the 1965-66 school year. In fact, the fuse has already been lit and the flames rose high at a most spirited and successful bonfire held in St. Paul's school parking lot on Friday, September 17, preceding Sunday's football game.

St. Paul's first Go-Cart race, held last Saturday, September 25, proved to be exciting for participants and spectators alike. Held in the school parking lot, the race began at 12:30 p.m. and came to a close at 4 p.m. A 50-cent contribution per contestant was required for each heat. Chairman of the race, Robert Kotz, allowed experienced and non-experienced drivers alike to participate in each of the 10 heats.

The "Powder-Puff race" was the highlight of the day as four St. Paul girls proved that "anything boys can do girls can do better—or equally as well."

In an effort to bring each Paulite into a closer and more personal union the Student Council officers suggest and urge attendance at Student Council meetings. The meetings will be held every Monday night directly after school in Room 121.

Students of St. Paul who wish to submit ideas or suggestions to the Student Council but cannot personally attend are asked to present their ideas to their newly elected Homeroom Representatives who will submit these ideas to the Student Council for discussion and debate.

PRY TRY

Joseph Farrie, an employee of the Standard Service station at 17800 Mack, called police Thursday, September 23, to report pry marks on the station's front door frame.

Curtis Kuenning Fatally Injured

A former Grosse Pointe boy was killed in a football accident that occurred Friday, September 24, at a high school game in Middleton, Wis., according to information supplied by a family friend, Mrs. Ralph Raymond of 317 Bedford road. Mrs. Raymond reports that Curtis Kuenning, 17, was carried from the field unconscious following the accident, and never regained consciousness. He died Saturday morning.

The youth was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kuenning, formerly of 820 Bedford road, who moved to Wisconsin a year ago. He had been a student at Pierce and Grosse Pointe High School. Other children in the family are Craig, 15, Jeffrey, 11, Janice, 7, and Carleton, 6.

Police Sergeant Envy of Hunters

Park Police Sgt. Gordon Duncan is the envy of all his Pointe colleagues who are avid hunters, and the possible envy of approximately 34,700 other hunters who had lost out in their petitions to the State Conservation Department in Lansing, for a coveted elk hunting license.

Duncan's name was among 300 picked in a drawing by the Conservation Department, from a field of about 35,000 hunters who had applied for a license to hunt elk.

The sergeant recently received a congratulatory message from the Conservation Department, informing him that his name had been drawn, and that he will be among the 300 hunters who will be permitted to hunt elk when the season opens in December. The elk hunting season will be the second in Michigan, since the Department has allowed limited shooting of the game animals.

Hunting of the large beasts was prohibited in Michigan for many years, prior to the first season in 1964.

The fellow who is advised to pay as he goes doesn't need to be advised to go slow.

Steel Mesh in Plaster Foils Would-Be Burglar

Steel mesh wiring in the plaster ceiling of Rosemary's Dress Shop prevented a burglar from entering through the roof of the building over the weekend, according to information released by Woods police.

Entry into the shop, located at 20419 Mack avenue, was attempted after the would-be thief broke into the Kraimer Plumbing and Heating company store at the rear of the dress shop. The owner of the company and the entire building is Martin Kraimer, 58, of 1854 Lancaster road.

Rosemary Lambert, 40, of 28525 Kimberly lane, St. Clair Shores, told police that she had locked the store at 6:10 p.m. on Saturday, September 18. Kraimer said he was in his shop early Sunday morning and nothing appeared to be amiss.

Det. Sgt. Allen Selby and Det. Robert Setchell said that the burglar had used a half-inch hand drill to drill several holes in the roof over the plumbing shop, then pried up two large planks, making an opening big enough to wriggle through.

The burglar crawled through a crawl area above the dress shop, and began chipping away the plaster, but was thwarted in his attempt to enter the store when he encountered steel wire mesh-type lath, the detectives said.

The hole in the roof above the plumbing shop was discovered by Kraimer's wife, Blanche, who immediately notified her husband. Nothing appeared to be missing from the shop.

Miss Lambert called authorities when she discovered plaster on the floor of her store, and noticed the hole in the ceiling of her place.

An investigation is still under way, the detectives said.

Another accident involving a child on a bicycle occurred at 5 p.m. Saturday, September 25, when 11-year-old Dorothy McClain, of 1238 Whittier, rode her bike from a driveway into Cadieux and hit the side of an oncoming car.

Police indicated that the car, driven by Constance Rogers, 21, of 324 Rivard, had just turned right from Kercheval onto Cadieux. Miss Rogers told police that she was going only 15 m.p.h., but said that there were five or six cars lined up for the light facing south on Cadieux, and that these apparently blocked the cyclist's vision when she entered the street.

The child was taken to Bon Secours hospital with minor injuries. No tickets were issued, police said.

REAL BOMB
Mrs. R. M. Mills, 801 Washington road, reported to police shortly after 5 p.m. Thursday, September 23, that an older model pink Ford convertible was speeding from Goethe to Chalfonte on Washington, with riders throwing firecrackers from the windows as they drove along.

Mr. Upstill, originally from Cleveland, O., began his musical career with a professional dance band in Ohio. He has been with the Grosse Pointe Symphony for five years and has also played with the Oak Park Symphony.

Lois Lawrence and Margery Connell will play the Brahms Sonata in A major, opus 100 for violin and piano.

Concluding the program, Lucille Zocharski, violin James Upstill, clarinet, and Camella Ehrlich, piano will play Pastoral opus 8 by Daniel Gregory Mason. Mason, a comparatively unknown American composer, was the son of Lowell Mason, one of those responsible for bringing music into the public schools and also associated with the Mason and Hamlin piano.

A coffee hour will follow the program.

It's 1966. Rise up with Dodge. Get with the swinging cars of the year!

JOIN THE DODGE REBELLION

Why wait, when your year is here? The year to snap tired old ties, to break old buying habits. The year to really express yourself... with the '66 swingers from Dodge. Differently, exciting cars for people with different, exciting tastes. Rally 'round Dodge for '66. Dart, Coronet, Polara, Monaco... cars made to help you kick the dull driving habit. There are lots of Dodges for you to hang your personal rebellion on.

Every one backed by a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty.* Every one with these features that used to cost extra but now come standard: Outside mirror. Padded dash. Variable-speed electric windshield wipers and washers. Backup lights. Turn signals. Seat belts, two front and two rear. And lots more with Dodge... the beautiful Rebellion on wheels. Stir up your spirit and march to headquarters.

Stamp out cramped compacts; get with man-sized Dart.

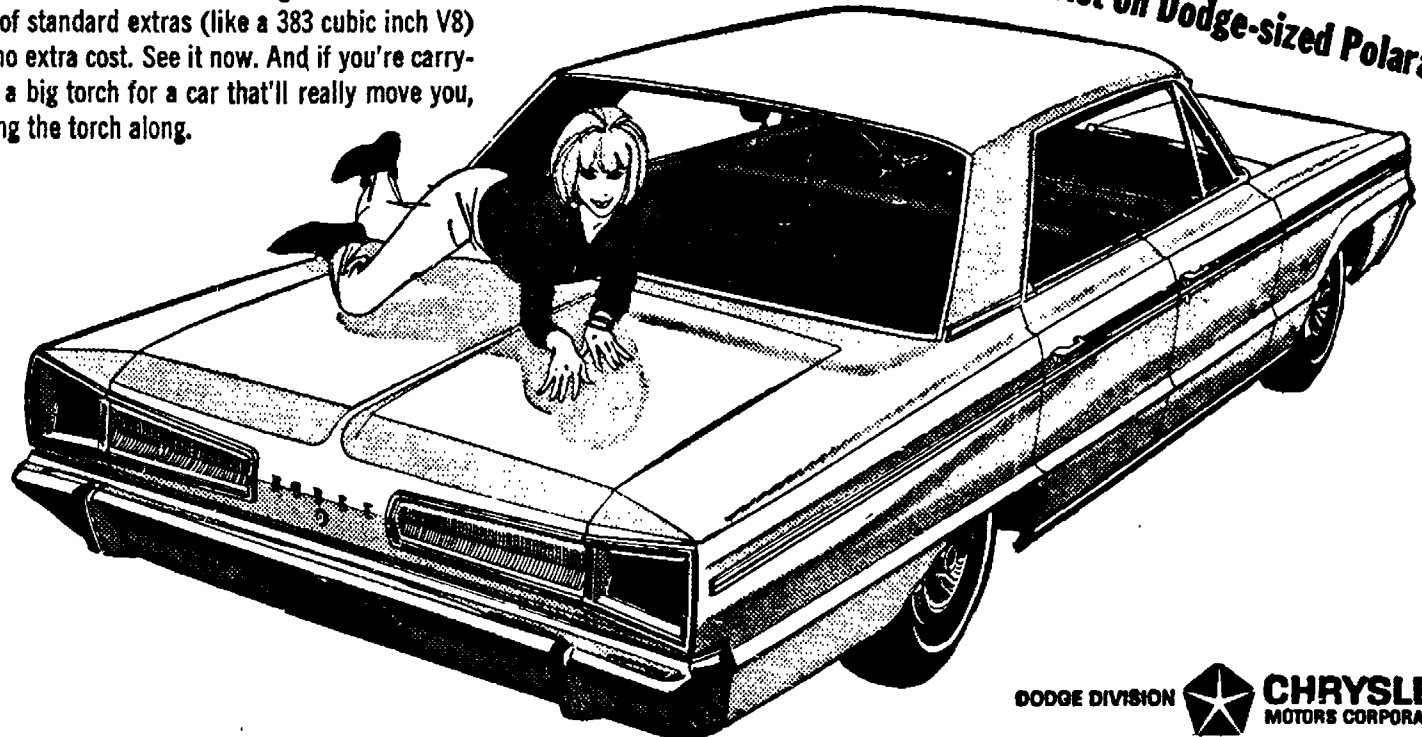

Dullsville falls, Coronet rises in '66.

'66 Dodge Polara Snap, crackle, pop, go the ties that bind. You're up and out of the rut with Polara. More "big." More "hot." A lot of standard extras (like a 383 cubic inch V8) at no extra cost. See it now. And if you're carrying a big torch for a car that'll really move you, bring the torch along.

Demand more "big" in your big car; insist on Dodge-sized Polara.

DODGE DIVISION CHRYSLER MOTORS CORPORATION

*HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1966 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Introducing New Teachers

Pictured examining paperback volumes in the book store of Parcels Junior High School are the principal and five newcomers to the professional staff. The books on the counter were used for the first time this year instead of the traditional anthology in ninth grade classes.

"This fall the staff of our building has been strengthened by the presence of five excellent candidates for our opening in English, vocal music and mathematics. They have the youth, the vigor, the enthusiasm and the understanding so necessary to successful teaching at the junior high level," Principal Vincent Peterson said on Friday.

This week the Grosse Pointe News presents the fourth feature in its series on teachers new to The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Replacements to the professional staff of Parcels Junior High School for the 1965-1966 year include the Misses Sheila Anderson, Jane Rex and Nancy Huesinkveld in English, Leonard Riccinto in vocal music, and James Haskell in mathematics.

Likes Living Here

"Just plain living in this area is interesting to me. I'm from a city with a population of 4,000. Detroit has provided me with my first experience on the free ways," Miss Anderson said last week.

An honor student for five of her semesters at an undergraduate, Miss Anderson holds two degrees from Indiana University. On campus she tutored football players in English and economics.

Experienced, Miss Anderson taught English at the senior high level in Columbus, Ohio, prior to accepting her assignment with The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Her professional affiliations include the National Education Association, the Indiana State Teachers Association, the National Council of Teachers of English, and the Indiana Council of Teachers of English.

She enjoys collecting phonograph records and words to folk ballads, as well as folk instruments. Of her teaching philosophy, Miss Anderson has said, "I hope to provide the kind of atmosphere for the student in which he can mature socially as well as mentally."

On National Council
Miss Jane Rex, an Ohioan, is a graduate of the University of Michigan. She is a member of the National Council of English Teachers.

Reading, swimming, sketching, theater and writing are among her out-of-school interests.

"I worked as a city counselor for Waverline Girls' State during the summer. I also worked as a county advisor for Girls' State. Directing twenty-two 17 year olds for twenty-four hours every day was an unusual and challenging experience," she said.

"I believe that individual work with students is an indispensable element in effective total instruction. In order to encourage and enable each child to fulfill his potential, a teacher must know the capabilities of all his students," Miss Rex added.

Wisconsin Graduate
Miss Nancy Huesinkveld was born in Western Springs, Ill. A graduate of Lyons Township High School, she holds a degree from the University of Wisconsin, where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta. Her hobbies include sewing, knitting, sketching, piano. Other extracurricular interests are choral singing and swimming. "Language is the key to a treasury of the world's ideas. I hope to help my students to become more successful users of their language and to enjoy the study of this many-faceted, intrinsically interesting subject," she said a few days ago.

Leonard Riccinto is a native of Detroit. A graduate of East Detroit High School, he earned bachelor of arts and master of music degrees from the University of Michigan. He was the recipient of a Theodore Frexer Scholarship and a University of Michigan General Scholarship. Mr. Riccinto was elected president of the Music Senior Class.

Took European Tour

Mr. Riccinto was assistant director of the Michigan Youth Chorale of Youth for Understanding. His group toured Europe for eight weeks this past summer. He will travel to South America with the same group next summer.

An experienced teacher, he taught at Lakeshore High School last year.

An Ohioan, Mr. Haskell is a graduate of Bowling Green State University where he held an honor scholarship for four years. On campus he was affiliated with Kappa Delta Pi and Kappa Mu Epsilon.

His out-of-school interests embrace all athletics. His favorites are swimming, skiing and boating. He and his wife are residents of St. Clair Shores.

Cub Pack 74 Holds Picnic

Approximately 60 cub scouts including 30 new cubs attended the annual Cub Scout Pack 74 picnic at the Farms Pier on Saturday morning, September 18.

Committee chairman William Cullingford welcomed the new cubs and their parents and introduced members of the Pack Committee.

Awards chairman Roger McCagi entertained the cubs with a series of lively games that worked up appetites for lots of hot dogs and cokes.

After the picnic, Cub Master Keith Leibbrand and Assistant Cub Master Donald Jones held a short meeting which was opened by presentation of the colors and a short discussion of the objectives of cub scouting.

Mrs. Robert Cullingford, Den Mother Representative was present to talk with future Den Mothers about the activities for the coming year.

Ferry School Has New Pupil

"It is nice to see all of you boys and girls and to have the opportunity to unveil the portrait of one of my children," Marshall Fredericks said as the green covering cloth fell from the statue. "Here is Ferry School's newest pupil," the internationally-known artist said.

Following the formal presentation of the bronze baboon to Dexter M. Ferry Elementary School, 748 Roslyn Road last week, a gift of the building's PTA, the statue was placed temporarily on the first floor of the school near the stairs. By the end of the week, so much affection had been lavished on the animal by pats on the head by admiring youngsters, that it was shiny.

The children had been well-prepared for the presentation of the baboon and for the remarks of Mr. Fredericks. In addition to the explanation provided by their teachers, the boys and girls had all seen a movie on sculpture in which Mr. Fredericks appeared. Therefore, they had much of the background necessary for a full understanding of Mr. Fredericks' profession.

The youngsters were anxious to know how the art work had been put together, how long it took to make, how much it weighed, and how it was attached to the base. The children were especially intrigued when they learned that he was responsible for the mouse and the lion at Eastland Shopping Center.

Among those members of the PTA who were most active in acquiring the novel work of art and who worked under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Mandich were Mrs. Thomas Candler, Mrs. Louis Alcorn, Mrs. Thomas DeVries, Mrs. Henry Kuhlman, Mrs. William Klingbeil, Mrs. Joseph Spagnoli. Ferry School staff members participating in the project included Miss Jean Harris, Mrs. Mary Better, and Wayne Bolden.

Dexter M. Ferry School's baboon is described by art instructor Donald Schrom as "an appealing, small study. The eye level is suitable for elementary school children," he added. The small bronze art work is mounted on a base of Italian marble.

Michigan Autumn Season
Enchants State Travelers

There was a time, not too many years ago, when Labor Day marked the end of the Michigan vacation season.

Today the holiday marks the beginning of an appealing time for the many people who have vacation time left and are not affected by the school bell.

Michigan in autumn is a perfect vacation spot for the sight-seer, the photographer, the camper, the fisherman and hunter.

Float trips or canoe trips down some of the state's 3,000 miles of rivers and streams take on an added flavor as the tree-lined shores turn from green to gold, red, brown and scarlet.

Fall foliage, of course, adds to the enjoyment of the season but there are many reasons why the months of September, October and November have a great deal to offer Michigan vacationers and weekend visitors.

Warm days and cool nights combine with attractions that are less crowded and accommodations which often offer lower rates to make the season a valuable extension of summer.

Sight-seeing in the famous Keweenaw Peninsula of Michigan's Upper Peninsula is a major autumn attraction as travelers along Brockway Mountain Drive gaze out over thousands of acres of lake-dotted forest lands. A similar view awaits the visitor to the Porcupine Mountains a short drive to the south.

Crossing the famous Mackinac Bridge, headed south, the autumn visitor can add to his Michigan vacation enjoyment by taking one of the many side trips the northern lower peninsula has to offer. A particularly popular trip leads from the village of Levering on U. S. 31 to Cross Village and then on Michigan 131 around the western curve of northwest lower Michigan to Petoskey.

During much of the drive the traveler will be passing under multi-colored leafy arches which turn the road into a tunnel of lights.

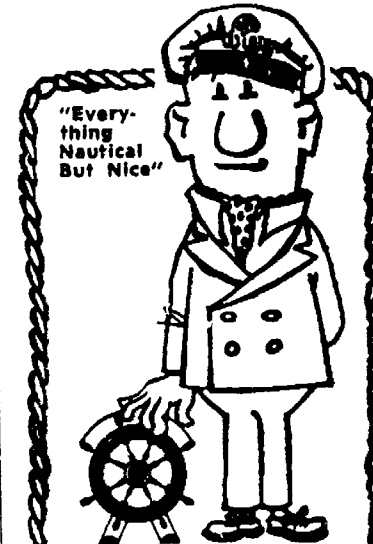

Another popular tour, farther south, takes visitors along Michigan 72 down the beautiful Au Sable River Valley from Grayling to the Lake Huron shore. Along the way there are side trips to such attractions as the famous Mason Chapel, the shrine of Our Lady of the Woods at Mio and the Lumberman's Monument.

In southeastern Michigan visitors in autumn have a variety of tours radiating from the Detroit area including a drive along Michigan 29 which follows the St. Clair River, one of the world's most active waterways, north to Port Huron or a trip to the history-rich Irish Hills area on the old post road between Detroit and Chicago.

Delta Zeta Alumnae Plan Dinner Meeting

The East Side chapter of Metropolitan Detroit Alumnae of Delta Zeta Sorority will hold its annual dinner meeting on Tuesday, October 5, at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. M. Gilewicz, Allard road.

Members from this area planning to attend include Mrs. William Kamm of Huntington road, Miss Carol Degan of Allard road, Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson of Radnor circle, and Mrs. Allen Schaedel of Fairholm road.

Students Attend Bard's Festival

Nearly 300 Grosse Pointe High School students are attending the Shakespearean Festival today, Thursday, September 30, in Stratford, Ontario, to see "Julius Caesar."

Last Tuesday after school Dr. Stanley Cook, chairman of the High School English Department, presented a briefing about the play. As part of the ninth grade English curriculum all ninth grade students study "Julius Caesar" and during the tenth grade world history students study Caesar from an historical point of view. All Latin II students, furthermore, read Caesar's Commentaries. The majority of the students attending are members of the sophomore class.

Accompanying the students are Mr. Gilbert Gray of Pierce Junior High, Mr. James L. Webers of Parcels, and Mrs. Laura Gregory of Brownell. Teachers from the Grosse Pointe High School assisting the student in the eight buses are: Dr. Stanley S. Cook, Mr. John Cox, Miss Nancy Poff, Mr. Richard M. Amberg, and Mrs. Thomas Hyslop.

Scholarship Contest Semifinalists

University School Notes

Principal Gilder D. Jackson announced on September twenty-second that three seniors at the University School have been named Semifinalists in the 1965-66 Merit Scholarship competition.

The students cited for their especially fine scholarship are Peter Durant, Lynn McNaughton, and Gregg Watkins. They are among the highest-scoring students in the state of Michigan on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, administered last March in over 17,600 schools nationwide. About fourteen thousand Semifinalists were appointed across the country.

High school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities, and school citizenship of the students are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholars.

Names of the Merit Scholars chosen from among the Finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966. The exact number will depend upon the extent of sponsor support. In 1965 over two thousand Merit Scholarships were awarded. Following is a resume of the students' activities and honors.

Peter Durant of Lincoln road won his letter in football and basketball as a junior. He has worked on the school newspaper and is a member of the Drama Club and the Proscenium Society in addition to being his class treasurer for the past three years. He was given a commendation award in the Scholastic Magazine Writing Contest.

Lynn McNaughton of Edgemont Park earned his letter in football and baseball and was awarded the Coach's Cup in football for being the most valuable player. He has worked for the school yearbook and the Service Club. While a freshman he was elected to the Student Council and the Athletic Council. In the last two years he has been a class president and a Terrill Newman Scholar.

While the other two boys entered the University School in 1960 or earlier, Gregg Watkins of Grosse Pointe boulevard entered in the fall of 1963. As a sophomore and junior Gregg has served on the staff of the school newspaper and been in two winter shows. Last year he took the lead part in the Proscenium Society's production of "Nuts in May." For the last two years he has been a Terrill Newman Scholar, and during the last academic year he was elected to the Student Council and the Cum Laude Honor Society.

Camera Club Meets Oct. 5

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet on Tuesday evening, October 5, at 8 o'clock, in the Fries Ballroom, Grosse Pointe War Memorial. This will be the first competition session of the month, for both monochrome prints and color slides. Each member may submit three entries in each category with two in each to be analyzed.

During the intermission Roman Walliko, one of the capable and versatile photographers in our membership, will give a talk on making enlarged color prints from color slides.

If you are interested in learning more about the technique involved in this procedure, plan to attend this meeting. Guests are always welcome.

Woods Residents Rap Rented Cycles

The operation of a motorcycle rental business at Mack and Roslyn brought strong protests from several Woods residents Monday night, September 13, when Woods council members debated passage of an ordinance regulating such activities. Complainants called the cycles loud and dangerous, and said they conflicted with efforts of local businessmen to improve the appearance of the area. The business, owned by Michael Quatro, 1101 Torrey, and Leo Fenn, 31158 Fairview, is located at Connolly Brothers' Service Station, and has been in operation "a couple of months," according to Leona

Liddle, Woods City Clerk. Following debate, council members voted to pass the ordinance, but insisted it specify that parents of minors must be present to give their written consent at the time a motorcycle is rented. The ordinance also requires that cycles be stored inside when not in use.

To America with love... The 1966 Chrysler

Could be we're getting too emotional. But it isn't very often you get a chance to follow an all-time sales record year with a new Chrysler like this one.

Sure, our '65 was great. But the '66 is even better.

It looks better. Moves quicker. It's got a beautiful new front end and a very dramatic new rear.

It's got a bigger and more zesty group of V-8 engines. From a 383 cubic inch to a 440 TNT with twin exhausts and twin snorkels. (A "snorkel" is an air intake horn for the carburetor — does great things for performance.)

The interiors, all up and down the line, are more luxurious and comforting. Take our new shell bucket seats, for example. It's almost as if they had been custom-fitted for you.

One thing we didn't even think about changing. It has to do with money. Five of our Newport models (real Chryslers — not junior editions) are priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars with the same equipment. This includes features like power steering, power brakes, a 383 cubic inch V-8, automatic transmission, radio and many standard items like safety door handles and seat belts.

Move up to Chrysler ... it's getting easier by the minute.

Beauty Is Good Business

Real estate editors of the Detroit Free Press did a disservice to The Village, one of the Pointe's most important shopping districts, in a recent Sunday issue, while at the same time paying a compliment to the Kercheval-on-the-Hill area. Pictures were used to illustrate what the Free Press considers good and bad in the esthetic development of such business property. A most favorable 'shot' of The Hill, showing flower boxes, shrubs and trees in front of the business establishments, was used to convey the good message. Presumably it was the same photographer who chose one of the most unfortunate pictures procurable in The Village to tell the other side of the story.

Interesting and most satisfying were the reactions of a number of the merchants and businessmen and women who have their headquarters on The Hill. While naturally pleased with the compliment which had been paid their district, they were distressed to see the unfair deal which had been handed The Village.

The commercial area further down Kercheval has accomplished much, through the joint efforts of the property owners, to make their bawliwick attractive. An outstanding job has been done at the Kercheval-St. Clair intersection where Jacobson's, Walton-Pierce, Kresge's and Wright-Kay have all made great contributions to ward the goal of beauty. Extensive planting has been done to augment the architectural attributes, and from early spring to frost, flowers bloom amid the evergreens in well-trimmed beds. The individual effort and expense would seem to us to surpass anything which has been done on The Hill and we consider it a low blow to give that district a black eye by deliberately selecting an unattractive illustration. The Village could have provided a scene every bit as pleasant as the one chosen in our domain.

The reaction of The Hill has another interesting aspect. It shows that the business people have a far wider outlook than the extreme provincialism which would confine their perspective to their own small areas. All the business districts of The Pointe are important to them. Every commercial property owner should pay attention to the esthetic possibilities, for these too draw customers and clients from beyond our limits. And those who come to do business in one of the areas may well take time to pay a visit to another. An attractive setting does much to attract a shopper.

Congratulations to all who are pursuing this course of beautifying their properties. May the concrete examples they have provided inspire the rest to follow the lead.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As one voluntary voice for the community of the Pointes, I wonder why you cannot waken the public in regard to the building formerly used by the Neighborhood Club, now presently closed and doomed to be wrecked. I remember back to your crusade to save Alger Memorial for the Pointe, back to closer budgets when certain city fathers could see no benefit and "probable" burden. I feel sure you would have something to say now about wrecking 90 per cent of a good very much needed building to save both of restoring one had corner.

I have seen . . . and you, too many old buildings preserved and restored in the east which were far older and often not so much needed as this building. From my walks about it and exterior findings, it seems that the southeast corner . . . or the left front as you face it, is the only problem spot. I cannot believe the other areas are hazardous from the excellent and unsagging condition of the bricks.

Rumor has it that the present High School building had five contractors and five foundations before the engineering was approved and the erection could be termed useful. Quite obviously, a faulting condition must exist under this one corner. Do serious minds actually declare that the whole must be wrecked . . . or is someone just bent on spending money for something shiny new on the spot there? I cannot see how the Joy trustees, if they still have say, or the Board of Education can be so "wreckless" as to condemn the whole for a small part.

Groups are desperate for space in this cluster of Pointes. I am sure that the Grosse Pointe Theatre, for instance, might be glad to underwrite restoration for an almost good building for permanent rehearsals and storage use. Why not poll public opinion, and see if the general practical tax paying owner would not vote for 1,000's to save instead of 100,000's to wreck and rebuild anew?

To the Editor:
Insuring the family automobile has reached a state where the cost to a family with three children has become a formidable budgetary problem. Once the teen-agers start crumpling fenders in corner accidents the extra risk insurance jumps another $220 per year. This means an increase of about $3,000 in extra insurance before the children reach maturity and get off the family policy. Granted that the largest safety factor in driving is the person behind the wheel, there is a considerable community responsibility which has arisen since the large increase in the number of automobiles now crowding the streets. Clear vision as a corner is approached has become important to self protection. In our community it is necessary to climb a ladder to see over bushes, trees, fences, mail boxes, and waiting stations. Buses and mail trucks should do their loading in the middle of the block — to unclutter the corner. Where two stop streets intersect there should be a blinking warning light; not a tin sign at the curb. We need these changes to keep insurance rates down, to decrease bodily injury, and to decrease the frightening sound of clashing steel. Recently a single wrecker removed six crumpled cars in one week-end.

Some candidate in approaching elections should run on a slate of: Clear Vision Corners, and Blinking Lights At Crossing Stop Streets.

Why these letters to the editor? Because our City Fathers have to drag their heels until community interest is aroused before they can request corner property owners to provide clear vision for approaching cars. Many Pointers are adamant about keeping the Pointe unchanged — like Mackinac Island. No interest? Take a look at your corners.

Church Offering Marriage Series

Dr. Jesse R. Pitts, professor and chairman of the Department of Sociology, Oakland University, will be the opening speaker in the "Challenge of Modern Marriage" series to begin at 8 p.m. next Tuesday, October 5, at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee.

Marriage in other cultures will be considered and Dr. Pitts will make an appraisal of developments on the American scene. He will also present his own theory as to the basis of the marriage relationship. The title of his talk will be "Strengths and Weaknesses of American Marriage."

All members of the community are welcome to attend any or all of the programs. A charge of 50c will be made for each program or a series ticket may be purchased for $1.50. For information or reservations, call 881-0420.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Recently, I reported to you at some length my impressions of the Grosse Pointe Public School System Planning Conference speaker, Dr. Dean F. Berkley. I would now like to give you some highlights of our own Grosse Pointe Public Library "kick-off" speaker, Mr. Gilmore C. Aarestad, Librarian at the Great Neck Library, New York, who spoke on September 15 to an assemblage of Grosse Pointe Public Library Staff, Grosse Pointe Public School System Administrative Staff members, Board of Education members, Friends Board representatives, and Book Selection "out-state" members.

Mr. Aarestad was born in Hanford, North Dakota, received his BA at the University of Minnesota, his M.A. at the University of Wyoming, and his B.S. in L.S. at the University of Wisconsin. He has a teaching career behind him at Menominee, Wisconsin, University of Wisconsin, the United States Navy, Wisconsin State Teachers' College; he was the Assistant Librarian at Johns Hopkins, and has held his present position since 1952.

Our speaker, Mr. Aarestad, was articulate, witty, clear-sighted, and immensely interesting. He said that he knew he was supposed to spur us all on to Herculean efforts during the next 12 months, but that his most practical suggestions in that direction would be a large bottle of aspirin and one of multi-vitamin pills.

The Great Neck, New York, area is similar to Grosse Pointe. It is a highly literate community, roughly similar in size and interests. And many of their problems are our problems.

How to give the most efficient service—how to foresee problems and solve them before they occur—how to keep the children, high school students, college students, and adults all happy and still stay within the necessary budget. And the more a library does for its community, the more it is expected to do; the mediocre library doesn't have to cope with this problem, for its public doesn't expect it to have a good collection or efficient service. However, we must not try to be everything to all people, and go overboard to meet all research needs; to do so would be at the expense of our overall collection and service.

As Librarians we can take pride in the fact that public libraries today are receiving such tremendous use from our many publics. Our collections have increased, services have been extended, new buildings erected, staff salaries are better than ever. In general we can conclude that the public seems sold on the Public Library idea.

But budgets must be carefully watched, and our community must be kept informed as to what it costs to give good library service. Mr. Aarestad doubted if the general public as a whole realized how very demanding library work is today. He felt the old image still held—that of a timid, self-effacing Librarian who entered the profession to find a sheltered nook where he could read undisturbed to his heart's content! Here certainly is an area where our patrons needs some re-evaluation.

"All Librarians," continued our speaker, "that I have ever known have very high ideals, and are sincerely interested in the kind of library that will have an excellent today as well as tomorrow." It is up to us to build a quality collection of books and other materials; give the best possible service (because we insist on first-class personnel); to make our physical facilities as attractive and as well located as possible; to set up and maintain a sound administrative and financial program; to continue constantly to educate and inform our public through an efficient public relations program. If we do all this to the best of our ability, claims Mr. Aarestad, "we're in"—"we've got it made."

In conclusion, said our Great Neck Librarian, because of the unusual, stimulating and even unique conditions which confront our profession today, we should occasionally recall a line from Tennyson's poem, ULYSSES—"To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

And what better admonishment could anyone, poet or Librarian, give us? In our day-to-day contacts, duties, frustrations, and triumphs, we many times lose sight of the forest for the trees. It is good to invite a speaker such as Mr. Aarestad, to address us, to inspire us, to guide us. He speaks our language, lives a life similar to ours, services a community much like Grosse Pointe. Let us profit from his experience.

demerit for intervening in the April revolt that was intended to put him back in power.

Monday, September 27
THE VIET CONG announced that they executed two American prisoners Sunday. The action was apparently in retaliation for the South Vietnamese government's recent execution of three anti-American terrorists. The U.S. Defense Department identified the Americans from a Radio Hanoi broadcast as Captain Humbert R. Versace, of Baltimore, and Sgt. Kenneth M. Rorabeck of Fayetteville, N.C. Both were captured in the fall of 1963.

MRS. VICTOR THORNE, the mother of 13-year-old "mystery boy" Richard Thorne who was found mute and alone in a Miami airport, appeared in the southern city today and told authorities that she had abandoned the mentally retarded boy there when her problems with him "had reached a point where it was unendurable."

Mrs. Thorne, of 2435 Dalesford, Troy, said she had planned since last summer to abandon her son, but her husband had made her return to Miami and "tell the truth" when he read about the case in a Chicago paper. Mrs. Thorne had told her husband that she had placed the boy in a Florida institution.

Library Offers Family Movies

The first program of the 1965-1966 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, October 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Library meeting room. Family Film Nights are held on the first Friday night in each month, October through April. Families are urged to attend these showings as a group. Each program has been designed to include something of interest and enrichment for boys and girls as well as adults.

The program for October 1, follows: THE CALIPH STORK (10 minutes) is a Lotte Reiniger Silhouette film with a story that will delight all; CINDERELLA (10 minutes) is an animated fairy tale of one of the classic stories, told in a most unique way; BEAVER VALLEY (27 minutes, color) — nature's drama of the beaver as provider and family man. Also seen is the fun-loving otter, prowling coyotes, and other inhabitants of the woodland. A delightful Walt Disney production; FROG WENT A-COURTIN (12 minutes, color) — an old Scottish ballad as retold by John Langstaff, with illustrations by Rojankovsky.

Adults, and children accompanied by adults, are cordially invited. Come early for a good seat.

The new 1965-1966 Audio-Visual Catalog is ready, describing details of new and expanded services available for audio-visual needs.

For information call James Titterton, Audio-Visual Counselor at the Central Library, TU 4-2200, extension 51.

"Think Ahead for Christmas" is the motto of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's Book Fair, featuring 300 NEW books for children and adults.

The Fair opens Monday, October 18, and closes Wednesday, October 20. Sale hours are 10 to 5 o'clock Monday and Tuesday, 10 to 1 o'clock Wednesday.

Of special interest to young adults will be the appearance of two of Memorial Church's own authors, Josephine Wunsch and Elizabeth Howard Mizner.

Mrs. Wunsch will be autographing copies of her teen novels, "Flying Skis," written in 1962, and her just-out "Passport to Russia," on October 18.

Miss Mizner, who writes under the name "Elizabeth Howard," will autograph copies of her novels on October 19. She has written many books for teenagers, most with Michigan backgrounds; her latest opus, "Verity's Voyage," is about the West Indies.

Holiday gift books for adults will be especially interesting too, according to Book Fair co-chairmen Mrs. J. Norman Gilmore and Mrs. Ralph B. Netting.

Bundle Tea

The annual Bundle Tea to benefit the Bargain Counter of the League of Catholic Women in Mack avenue, Detroit, is being held at the Fair Acres drive home of Mrs. John M. Murphy, next Wednesday, October 6, from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

This year, the Bundle emphasis is on Attic Treasures. There is a great demand at the shop for all kinds of household articles—china, glass, kitchen utensils—and the tea committee is hoping friends and supporters of the Bargain Counter may be induced to part with a few antiques.

Recently, one of the volunteers brought in an old coffee grinder and some molds, which were sold immediately to a gentleman who runs a rival store in Jefferson avenue.

He also purchased a floor length Victorian gold mirror, donated by the League from its Parsons Street Residence Home for Girls.

As always, bundles of saleable clothing will be most gratefully accepted by League Board members, including Mrs. Sherman J. Fitzsimons, Jr., Mrs. G. P. O'Connell, Mrs. Frederick K. Cody, Mrs. John C. Cook, Mrs. Edward P. Hammond and Miss Charlotte Dey, chairman of the shop.

Money received from the Bargain Counter is used

Morning Musicales Resume In Pointe

First Program of '65-'66 Season Scheduled November 4; Other Programs Planned December 2 and January 13

Charles Rosen, young American piano virtuoso, will open the 1965-66 season of The Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales with a recital at the Country Club of Detroit on Thursday morning, November 4, at 11 o'clock.

The famous Loewenguth Quartet of Paris is scheduled for December 2, and Kenneth Smith, distinguished bass-baritone with the Metropolitan Opera, will appear on January 13.

Twenty years ago the Morning Musicales were founded by a group of dedicated music lovers. Now, top-ranking artists enjoy coming here as much as the subscribers appreciate having them.

The artists like performing for a small and discriminating group of listeners. They like being entertained at luncheon where they meet members and have an informal question and answer period. Also, they appreciate being house guests of one director or another during their stay in the Pointe. Often they remain for a concert by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Charles Rosen will be making his first visit here. After receiving both M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in French literature and graduating summa cum laude from Princeton with Phi Beta Kappa, he held an assistant professorship in Humanities at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology before resigning to devote full time to music. He has started a brilliant football team at Sewanee, Tenn. Callahan, a 5'11", 185 pounder, was a two year letterman at Grosse Pointe High School where he compiled an outstanding record. Callahan is competing for a starting tackle assignment.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS J. RENO, JR., and their sons, career as a concert pianist and recording artist. Critics have given him glowing reviews.

"The Four Greats," another name for the artists who comprise the Loewenguth Quartet of Paris, are renowned in their own individual rights. One critic has called them "...the best in existence." They have played all over the world since their last appearance here and their return is heralded with great enthusiasm.

Kenneth Smith has been given top reviews by music critics wherever he has sung. One comment was "As with good wine, time has added excellence, clarity, and distinction to his performing art." He sang in New York many times last year, three times with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Directors of the Musicales, responsible for the recitals and luncheons, include Mrs. Ferdinand H. Cinelli, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Mrs. Ward A. Detwiler, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Frank W. Goldie, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey, Mrs. James A. Lafer, Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr., Mrs. Allan Shelden, Mrs. Richard K. Simonds, Miss Christine Symington, Mrs. Burt Eddy Taylor, Jr., and Mrs. Richard E. Williams.

MICHAEL and PETER, are moving back to The Pointe, and will make their home in Neff road, after three years in Schenectady, N.Y. Reno is the former PATRICIA MCCORMICK, daughter of the JOHN F. MCCORMICKS, of South Oxford road.

Miss Orlando Wed To James Conahan

Re-embroidered Alencon Lace Accents Bride's Peau de Soie Gown; Attendants' Frocks are Fashioned of Coral Crepe

A reception at the Gourmet House followed the September 20 wedding, in St. Ambrose Church, of Sandra Ann Orlando and James John Conahan.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Orlando, of Westchester road. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Conahan, of Beaconsfield avenue.

For the 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie. Re-embroidered Alencon lace banded her sheath skirt and accented her fitted bodice, and her pleated train fell to Chapel length.

A double-tiered crown of matching Alencon lace and pearls held her tiered illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and orchids.

Carol Giroux was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Bonnie Chopp, Kathleen Torina, Carol Conahan, Andrea Reeder, and Carolyn Furstenau. Karen George was flower girl.

The attendants' floor length sheath gowns were fashioned of coral crepe. The honor attendant carried an arrangement of coral roses, while the bridesmaids' bouquets featured white roses.

Kenneth Kosmol served as Mr. Conahan's best man. Ushering were Fred Schulte, David Brozo, Dennis Pasqual, Gari Michaels, Creighton Thoma, Vince Taormino and Joseph Clark. Martin Karam was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Orlando chose a floor length, pale yellow sheath gown with white beading. Mrs. Conahan's floor length pale pink sheath featured a matching coat.

The newlyweds are making their home in Los Angeles, Calif.

Myers-Ruppe Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Ruppe, of Hampton road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Dianne, to David Myers, son of Mrs. Hugh Thomson, of Jackson, and the late Ronald Myers.

Miss Ruppe was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and Michigan State University. She is presently at Henry Ford Hospital, where she is a dietetic intern.

A fall wedding is planned.

Speaks Vows to Robert James Lewandowski at Saturday Ceremony; Pair Travel to Niagara Falls; to Live in Seattle

Barbara Eileen Zientowski, of Harcourt road, chose a gown of silk organza accented with Venise lace appliques for her marriage Saturday, in St. Jude Church, to Robert James Lewandowski.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Frederick McGraw, of Harcourt road, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Zientowski. Mr. Zientowski is currently serving as a civilian employee with the United States Air Force in Germany.

The former Miss Zientowski's wedding gown featured a Chapel train. Her silk illusion veil fell from a seed pearl crown, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Maid of honor Eva Maria Obst and bridesmaid Mrs. Gary Gigg, the bridegroom's cousin, were gowned alike in floor length Empire frocks of hyacinth blue silk. Their flowers were yellow spider mums.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lewandowski, of Eastburn road, Detroit, asked the bride's brother, Lieutenant George A. Zientowski, Jr., USMC, to act as best man.

Seating the guests were Robert Kobel, of Port Huron, and Arthur Wroble.

After a reception at Huck's Lakeshore Inn, the newlyweds left for Niagara Falls. They will make their home in Seattle, Wash.

Invite Ladies To Join Group

The Women's Discussion Group of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Club has resumed its series of weekly meetings, open to all interested women in the Grosse Pointe area as well as Detroit and St. Clair Shores.

The group meets weekly, from 9:15 to 11:15 o'clock Wednesdays, at the home of Mrs. Jean Zytewick in Westchester road.

Mrs. Helen Graves, president of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Club, serves as discussion leader of the group.

The first hour of each session is generally spent reviewing significant news events. "The New York Times" is considered basic source material, but many other publications, both local and national, are consistently used.

The second hour of the meetings usually involves a concentration on one specific subject of wide interest.

This same group met from September through May of last year, attracting a total of some 40 women with a nucleus of 15 to 20 attending each weekly session.

To Show Styles At Clinic Benefit

"I am certain, from experience, that most husbands want to know more about what their wives are wearing and why. The problem is that many women do not fully realize this and unintentionally drop an 'iron curtain' around their wardrobes until the time comes for their husbands to pay the bill."

So says Margaret Rice, explaining why the first in a series of fashion benefits for the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic this season on October 7 will be an evening affair, designed to interest husbands as well as wives.

Miss Rice, in whose shop "On-the-Hill" the benefit will take place at 7 o'clock, will feature the current collection of Teal Trains.

The invitational fashion show will be followed by a cocktail party, proceeds from which will go to the Clinic which opened its new headquarters at 17000

East Warren avenue in Detroit this week.

More than 2,500 invitations to the premiere fashion show of the season have been mailed this week to patrons and others interested in the work of the Clinic. This is the second year that Miss Rice has volunteered to serve as coordinator of the series of fashion show benefits.

The Clinic provides diagnostic evaluation and psychotherapy for children in the east side of Detroit, the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods with mental health problems.

Additional information about the fashion shows and invitations is available by calling 821-9134.

Elizabeth Cass DAR To Meet on Oct. 4

Mrs. Robert Artner, of East Doyle court, will be the speaker at the October 4 meeting of Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the Women's City Club. "Motion Pictures and What the Public Contributes to Them" will be the subject of her talk.

Mrs. Artner is active on the local, state and national level of the DAR. She is a past regent of Louisa St. Clair Chapter, a former state director and national vice chairman of Motion Pictures.

Currently, she is serving as national vice chairman of Program.

Emphasis at the October meeting will be given to observing the National Society's Diamond Jubilee.

Miss Douglas Is Engaged

The engagement of Juanita Ruth Douglas and Gilbert Joel Sears has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Douglas, of Berkshire road.

Miss Douglas attended Central Michigan University and Maclean College of Secretarial Science.

Mr. Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Sears, of Birmingham, Mich., attended the University of Missouri and will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in December from Wayne State University.

A January 29 wedding is planned.

James Newmans Travel To Colorado

Linda Ann Worboys Speaks Vows at September 18 Ceremony in Memorial Church; Reception at Whittier follows Service

Motoring to their new home in Aurora, Colo., by way of Wisconsin, Minneapolis-St. Paul and Grand Teton National Park in Wyoming, are Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper Newman.

They were married September 18, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Reverend Richard Mitchell officiated at the 4 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception at The Whittier Hotel.

The bride is the former Linda Ann Worboys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse V. Worboys, of Whittier road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Newman, of Denver, Colo.

For her marriage, the former Miss Worboys chose an Empire gown of candlelight peau de soie accented with Alencon lace, fashioned with a Chapel train and long sleeves.

A peau de soie and lace petal headpiece held her bouffant illusion veil, and she carried a stephanotis bouquet, centered with a white orchid.

In an Empire frock with a bodice of moss green lace and a skirt of candlelight crepe was Mrs. Michael A. Moon, of Gibraltar, Mich., who served as her sister's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jarvis D. Littlefield, of Farmington, Conn., and Mrs. Gunther H. Burkert, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant.

and their headpieces were fashioned of moss green satin. They carried arrangements of green Fuji mums and trailing ivy.

Honorary bridesmaid Mrs. Richard K. Neil wore a white knit suit, a white lace mantilla and a corsage of pink shattered carnations and Sweetheart roses.

Duane Matrang, of Franksville, Wis., acted as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Michael A. Moon and Ralph C. Pedersen, of Denver, Colo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Worboys chose a champagne slipper satin dress with a flowered green velvet hat, and a corsage of green orchids.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John B. Koster, of Racine, Wis., wore a royal blue silk dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

Auxiliary Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Fontbonne Auxiliary, St. John Hospital, will be held on Wednesday, October 6, at 2 p.m.

Miss Poxson Bride Of John R. Sparks

Reception in Gallery and Library of New Unitarian Church follows Saturday Afternoon Ceremony; Pair to Live in Ann Arbor

Dr. Harry Meserve officiated at the September 25 ceremony, in the new Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, at which Anne Elizabeth Poxson spoke her marriage vows to John Robert Sparks.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah G. Poxson, Jr., of Lakeland avenue, wore her mother's wedding gown of white taffeta, fashioned with an Empire bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline and leg-of-mutton sleeves, and a full train.

Her multi-layered silk illusion veil fell from a delustered satin head bow, and she carried a cluster of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Judith Mary Poxson was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Oscar Marx, III, and Susan Sparks.

They wore floor-length Empire frocks, fashioned of wool crepe, in blending fall colors, with matching head bows. Miss Poxson's gown was antique gold, Mrs. Marx wore Persian blue, and Miss Sparks wore yellow-green.

They carried chrysanthemums in fall shades.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sparks, of Lakeland avenue, asked John Nicholson to act as best man. Seating the guests were Oscar Marx, III, and Stephen Peter Muller, of Ann Arbor.

The reception following the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony was held in the gallery and library of the Unitarian Church.

The mother of the bride wore a Jacques Griffe costume of skipper blue wool crepe, with accents of blue satin, and pinned a white Amazon lily to her blue satin handbag.

Mrs. Sparks' light brown gown featured a pink, beaded bodice. Her flowers were pink chrysanthemums.

The newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Carnes-Taylor Rites are Read

Jean Doron Taylor and Thomas Earle Carnes exchanged marriage vows Saturday, September 25, at a 12:30 o'clock ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore. Father William Downey officiated at the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Urban Taylor of Evanston, Ill., and the late Mr. Taylor, wore an ivory satin gown, styled with a Chapel length train, three-quarter length sleeves and an imported Belgian lace bodice, accented with seed pearls.

Her shoulder-length veil of candlelight illusion fell from a satin Juliette cap, and she carried a bouquet of white pom-poms and ivy, and a handsome lace handkerchief carried by the bridegroom's maternal grandmother and his mother at their weddings.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Daniel F. Jourla, of Toronto, and Jane Urban Taylor, the bride's twin sister. Judith Elizabeth Carnes, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid.

They wore floor length, Empire gowns of green satin, and carried yellow mums and ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Earle Carnes, of Lafayette Towers East, formerly of Lincoln road, asked George Edward Dickey, of Washington, D.C., to act as best man.

Ushers were Thomas J. Schriber, of Ann Arbor, Roland Summers, of Chicago, Paul Boukouris, of New York City, Frank Granger, of Detroit, and Anthony J. J. Rourke, of Ann Arbor.

Catherine Duker was flower girl, and Robert Duker was ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Duker, of Lincoln road.

After a reception at the Whittier Hotel, the newlyweds left for a vacation in Ontario, with a stop at Niagara Falls. They will make their home in Ann Arbor, where both will continue their studies at the University of Michigan.

The new Mrs. Carnes earned her B.A. at Northwestern University, her M.A. at the U. of M., and is presently a doctoral candidate in French Literature at the U. of M.

Her husband was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School, received his B.A. degree from Johns Hopkins University, and is presently a fourth year medical student at the U. of M. He is a member of Phi Chi medical fraternity.

Valparaiso Guild To Meet Oct. 4

The Detroit East Chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild is opening its fall season with a luncheon and meeting at Charity Lutheran Church, Kelly road and Morang, on Monday, October 4, at 11:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been planned, and activities of the coming year will be presented to the members.

New Guild officers, installed during the meeting in June, are: President, Mrs. Harvey Groch, first-vice-president, Mrs. W. Ralph Jewell; second-vice-president, Mrs. Otto Auch; recording secretary, Mrs. Marvin Ortwine; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Sturgeon; financial secretary, Mrs. Mildred Becker; treasurer, Mrs. Erwin Sattelmeyer and directors, Mrs. Fred Nordlie and Mrs. Harold J. Meinke.

The following were appointed heads of standing committees: Way and Means, Mrs. Otto Auch; Membership, Mrs. Hugh Phillips; Program, Mrs. Harold Graumiller; Tickets, Mrs. Hattie Dornier; Hospitality, Mrs. Roy Allen; Keywomen, Mrs. W. Ralph Jewell.

Publicity, Mrs. Harold J. Meinke; Person to person, Mrs. Ernest Dossin; Federation representative, Mrs. Robert Marowski; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. Calvin Gauss.

The Chapter president, Mrs. Groch, was toastmistress at the banquet held during the 34th annual Convention of the National Guild at Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Ind., September 24, 25 and 26.

Over 125 Chapters throughout the United States form the National Guild, and they are an integral part of the organization which creates and develops a greater interest in the University as a Lutheran school of Christian higher learning, gives financial assistance to the University, assists in increasing student enrollment, and provides facilities necessary for students' physical welfare.

CARTER W. HALL, son of Mrs. HARRISON SADLER, of Belvedere, Calif., formerly of Grosse Pointe, is a member of the senior class at Maine Central Institute, Pittsfield, Me.

Holding Holiday Tea At Detroit Boat Club

Traditional Event Scheduled for October 6; To Demonstrate Decorations for Christmas, Other Fall Occasions

The Flower Committee is having its traditional Holiday Tea on October 6 at 2 p.m. in the ballroom of the Detroit Boat Club. The group decided to present this event early in the fall instead of the usual time in December and it is hoped the chill autumn air and color will help set the mood.

Holiday decorating plans will get under way before one gets too involved with shopping, entertaining, etc. No more regrets of, "Oh, these last minute deadlines. Next year I'm going to start early."

Paul DePatis who previously operated one of the largest floral shops in the city and enjoyed a particular talent for teaching and demonstrating flower arrangements, has now retired to devote his time exclusively to teaching. He conducted classes at the Boat Club last spring and has been enthusiastically drafted to present a series of classes in October.

Mr. DePatis will present ideas for Christmas decoration and other fall holidays in the use of fall flowers. To augment this, several talented Boat Club members will present tables decorated for special occasions.

These include: Mrs. Leland Foster, The Christmas Table; Mrs. Taylor Seebor, Thanksgiving Table; Mrs. Watson Beach, Sunday Brunch; Mrs. Charles Eades, After the Theater; Mrs. Edward Oetting, Football Buffet; Mrs. Walter Wilson and Mrs. Emil Heinrich, Birthday Dinner.

The traditional festive tea will be served in the dining room, following the program.

The charge for the afternoon is $1.75. The public is cordially invited. Reservations must be made with the Boat Club by calling LO 7-5460, or Mrs. Albert Law, 823-3238, who is chairman for the day.

Shores Garden Club To Meet

The Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club will meet tomorrow, Friday, October 1, in the Hidden lane home of Mrs. Kenneth Strang. Edmund Boell, senior Floriculturist of the City of Detroit, will give the program.

Gilson-Coughter Rites Are Read

Mrs. Charles Martin Coughter, of Hillcrest road, and Charles David Gilson, of Pittsfield, Mass., were married Saturday morning, September 25, in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

Monsignor Frank McPhillips officiated at the rites. Attendants were Mary Beth Gilson and Christopher Peter Gilson, daughter and son of the bridegroom.

After a small wedding reception, the couple left for a vacation in Northern Michigan. They will make their home in Pittsfield.

Kenneth Stanley Weds In East

Linda Schuyler Deist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Adam Deist, Jr., of Glen Ridge, N.J., and Kenneth Bishop Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter Stanley, II, of Merriweather road, exchanged marriage vows September 4, in The Glen Ridge Congregational Church.

Reverend J. Mark Odenwelder, superintendent of the Western District of the Northern New Jersey Conference of the Methodist Church, officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the Women's Club of Glen Ridge.

Barbara Deist was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert Zuehlke was bridesmaid. The bridegroom's brothers, Dwight D. Stanley and Edward C. Stanley, III, served as best men. Ushering were the bride's brother, Peter B. Deist, and David Stanley, the bridegroom's cousin.

Presenting New Collection

Mrs. William Rust Pierce is currently presenting her 1965 Made-To-Order Collection, at her salon at Kercheval and St. Clair. The coat and ball gown pictured are designed by Clara Ray.

District Nursing Society To Meet Next Wednesday

The regular meeting of the District Nursing Society will be held next Wednesday morning, October 6, at 11 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Bride-Elect

At a family dinner party at the Detroit Boat Club Saturday, September 25, Mr. and Mrs. Burt T. Weyhing, Jr., of University place, announced the engagement of their daughter, MARJORIE MARSHA, to Michael E. Reynolds.

Miss Weyhing, who attended Ferris State College, is the granddaughter of Ben R. Marsh, of Irvine lane.

Mr. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth G. Reynolds, of Oxford road, is a senior at Michigan State University.

The couple plans a June wedding.

Club to Watch Live TV Show

WWJ's "Living Show," starring Carol Duval, Ed Allen and Lorene Babcock, will be presented 'live' at the Women's City Club on October 4 for members and guests of the Detroit Review Club.

Tom Montgomery will furnish the music for the show, and the producer of the show, Burt Wright, will be on hand to see that everything runs smoothly.

In charge of the program are Grosse Pointers Mrs. Robert G. Kailes, vice-president, who is doubling as program chairman this year, and the chairmen for the day, Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, past president.

Mrs. Marvin C. Dahneke, president, will hold a board meeting in the morning, act as official hostess at the noon luncheon, and preside at the afternoon meeting at 1:30 o'clock.

The "Living Show" will be presented promptly at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Harold Kahl, social activities chairman, will have charge of the luncheon.

Of special interest to the members of DRC will be the women who will be modeling in the Fashion Show, which is part of the format of the "Living Show," with Carol Duval acting as commentator.

The models are either daughters of DRC members or new members and in three cases they are both.

Among the nine models, will be Mrs. John Dietz, of Barrington road, Mrs. Emil Traut, of Harvard road, Mrs. Jack Wheeler, of La Belle circle, and Mrs. Thomas Walworth, of Moross road.

Club modeling seems to be a popular hobby of these four Grosse Pointers—all have modeled at various private clubs and this summer they all modeled in the Freedom Festival Fashion Show in Windsor, Canada.

Following the Fashion Show, Ed Allen will present his popular and lively exercise program, with Lorene Babcock winding up the show with her philosophical and humorous commentary on "Letters to Lorene."

Grosse Pointe members who will be receiving invitations to bring guests to the program are Mrs. Raymond Berry, Mrs. Charles Fred Brundie, Mrs. William Bundesen, Mrs. Henry Burkhardt, Mrs. Curtis Chandler, Mrs. Louis Clark, Mrs. Louis Charvat, Mrs. Beulah Crockett, Mrs. L. W. Forrester, Mrs. Lewis King, Mrs. Harold Knoff, Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner, Mrs. William Lehmann, Mrs. W. H. Meredith and Mrs. William Nixon.

More are Mrs. William Oddy, Mrs. Samuel Pence, Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin, Mrs. W. Richard Ralph, Mrs. Herbert D. Ralph, Mrs. Ernest Ray, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Lyle Ritchie, Mrs. George Rommel, Mrs. Karl V. Schwartz, Mrs. Richard Stebbins, Mrs. C. William Sullivan, Mrs. Earl Walke, Mrs. Rudolph Walter, Mrs. G. P. Goodson, Mrs. R. B. Koehler and Mrs. Theodore Trefzer.

Symphony Juniors Set Special Program

Afterglow at Detroit Boat Club to follow "Evening with Karl Haas" October 30; Junior Symphony Members and Fiancés to Usher in Ford Auditorium

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present "An Evening With Karl Haas" on Saturday, October 30, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. Proceeds will be donated to the Orchestra's Maintenance Fund.

Chairmen of the event are Mrs. Robert R. Shannon and Mrs. Frederick C. Weiss.

Mr. Haas, internationally acclaimed authority on cultural affairs, is in constant demand as a recitalist and lecturer in the field of music and fine arts.

He was the recipient of the Peabody Award for his weekday morning broadcasts of "Adventures in Good Music," heard not only locally but around the world at the request of the United States Armed Forces Radio Network. This award is designed to recognize the most distinguished and meritorious public service rendered each year by radio and television.

In 1962, Mr. Haas accepted an appointment as consultant to the Ford Foundation in New York in the fields of arts and humanities, mass communications and international affairs.

He has served as Resident Director in Berlin, Germany, of the Ford Foundation's elaborate cultural activities in that city during the 1963-64 season. In August of 1963, he was appointed chairman of the new State Council of the Arts by Governor George Romney.

Having acquired some two years experience in ushering at the Meadowbrook Concerts, Junior Symphony members and their husbands will serve as ushers for the evening.

Taking over from the regular staff will be the Kenneth Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Winnie, Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Nicholas, the Henry Whittings, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carrick, the Charles F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roesch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Miller, the Paul M. Kochs, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Frost and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick E. Hackett.

Tickets for the program, priced at $3 and $2, may be purchased through Junior Women's Association members, the Ford Auditorium box office and the J. L. Hudson Company Ticket Service, downtown, Northland, Eastland and Westland.

To complete the evening, Mr. Arthur O. Morgan, Jr., is arranging an Afterglow at the Detroit Boat Club for Junior Women's Association members and their guests. Cocktails and a buffet supper will be available.

Symphony Helpers Meet on October 7

Annual Autumn Luncheon Being Held in Lochmoor Club Combined with General Business Meeting; Portrait Exhibit Planned

The Women's Committee for the Grosse Pointe Symphony will assemble in the Lochmoor Club on October 7 for their autumn luncheon and first general business meeting.

Greeting the members and their guests will be social chairman, Mrs. Gerald L. Stoetzer, and her committee, Mrs. Edwin D. Rose, Mrs. Alfred D. Moran and Mrs. Bernard Whitley.

The beautiful invitations sent out last week are the personal handiwork of Mrs. Moran.

To acquaint those attending with the purpose and accomplishments of the group, the social committee has prepared an exhibit of portraits of all of the artists who have performed with the Grosse Pointe Symphony, along with colored photographs made by Mrs. Harold D. Gumpert, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mrs. Alfred D. Moran and Mrs. John W. Nelson at the charter tea in the home of Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, last June.

Also on display will be a scrap book of pictures and events thus far, in the life of the Women's Committee. This was prepared by Mrs. Bernard Whitley.

Mums in orchid and gold tones in pedestal milk glass vases, flanked by tall candles, will grace the luncheon tables. The flowers are the special pride of social chairman, Mrs. Stoetzer, who grew them from tiny slips.

A music hour will follow the luncheon. Program chairman, Mrs. Hixie Hatten and her committee, Mrs. Robert L. Crossen and Mrs. Philip C. Baker will present Grosse Pointe's newest concert pianist, the talented Evelyn Binz. Mrs. Binz has chosen for her program the Mozart Fantasy in D Minor, Little Elf, by Rudolph Ganz and the first movement of the Brahms F Sharp Minor Sonata. Mrs. Binz is to solo with the Grosse Pointe Symphony on Sunday afternoon, February 13th, 1966.

The business meeting will be called to order by Women's Committee general chairman, Mrs. John W. Nelson. She will report on the immediate project of the committee, which is the promotion of the 1965-66 concert series.

Reporting from their respective bailiwicks, will be Mrs. Robert Armstrong, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence J. Williams for Mrs. Robert L. Kaiser who is on vacation, ticket sales; Mrs. M. D. Dimitrievich, mailing; Mrs. Daniel J. Knoth, publicity, and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., membership.

Detroit Sorosis Slates Meeting

Members of Detroit Sorosis will gather next Tuesday, October 5, at 12:30 o'clock, for a luncheon meeting at the Hampton road home of Mrs. M. P. Graham. The program will be "Vacation Reminiscences."

Colonial Dames To Fete Visitor

A distinguished visitor will be in Grosse Pointe on October 6 and 7 when the national president of The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America, Mrs. James I. Wendell, of Applebrook Farm, Pottstown, Pa., will be the guest of the Michigan Society. This is a special event for the Michigan members as it has been 20-odd years since a national president has been their guest.

The State president, Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, will be Mrs. Wendell's official hostess and the hospitality chairman Mrs. William H. Ledyard and her committee, consisting of Mrs. Berrien C. Eaton, Mrs. Walter M. Meek, Mrs. Frederick L. Colby, Jr., Mrs. James W. Standart and Mrs. John G. Garlinghouse have planned a delightful round of entertainment.

A dinner party is being given in honor of Mrs. Wendell on Wednesday evening, October 6, when the guests will be the members of the state board, Thursday morning, October 7, the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village directors have invited the visitor and Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, national recording secretary of the Society, Mrs. Alfred C. Moore, chairman of the Historic Activities Committee, and Mrs. G. Bretnell Williams, member of the committee, for a specially conducted tour of the Village and the Museum.

Mrs. Marquis and Mrs. Moore will entertain at luncheon following the tour. Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, III, have invited the entire membership and their husbands to cocktails at their home in

Dominican High 25 Years Old

Dominican High School is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary this fall and the Alumnae Association is giving a tea to be held on Sunday, October 24, from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m. at the school, 9740 McKinney.

All graduates are invited to attend and a $3.00 reservation will guarantee a grand reunion of all classes of both Sisters and former students.

Reservations can be made until October 4 by calling 521-8593.

Grand Marais Questers Meet

The opening meeting of the fall season of the Grand Marais chapter of Questers was held September 10 at the home of Mrs. Elton Anderson in Whittier road.

The hostess discussed the decorative aspects of antique collecting, and the members toured her idea-fitted Early American home.

Mrs. Anderson illustrated how many inexpensive "old" pieces can be painted or refinished and used in today's home as whimsical, yet practical additions.

Several board members concluded the program by discussing Old Canton and Meisner China.

The October 8 meeting will be held at the Harbor Island home of Mrs. A. T. Bersey, and all members will present small antique items of interest.

LWV Sponsors MSU Workshop

A workshop on apportionment, human resources, public welfare, legislative, finance and voters' service is being held at Michigan State University in East Lansing on September 30. Members from the 37 local Leagues of Women Voters in Michigan are attending this meeting.

Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters' members planning to attend the six meetings include Mrs. Lee B. Johnson, president; Mrs. J. Robert Jessup, Mrs. James Surbrook, Mrs. Robert Erwin, Mrs. William E. Hawkins, Mrs. William R. Phillips, Mrs. George J. Brown, Mrs. James Webbers and Mrs. Kenneth Pitts.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. Max Sievers, of Lochmoor boulevard, announce the marriage of their daughter, KAREN, to Bernd Erdmann, September 17, in Bensheim, West Germany.

Mr. Erdmann is the son of Mrs. B. W. Erdmann, of West Germany, and the late Mr. Erdmann.

The newlyweds are making their home in Benstein, near Heidelberg, Germany.

Woods Garden Club To Gather

A meeting of the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club has been scheduled Tuesday, October 5, at the Holiday road home of Mrs. L. A. Lotgering, Co-hostess will be Mrs. Julian Broughton.

Following the business session, Mrs. Charles Brownell will present a program on Porecelain Flowers.

Trip Scheduled By Questers

Delegations from the four Grosse Pointe area Quester chapters will travel to Marshall, Mich., on Wednesday, October 6, to attend the fall council meeting of the Michigan federation at Win Schuler's English inn.

Arriving by private car and chartered bus, the local Questers will join other delegations from the 33 chapters of the national antique study society presently chartered in Michigan.

On board an early bus leaving from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will be Mrs. Edgar Hahn, of McKinley avenue, president of the state federation, who will officiate at the day's events.

Accompanying her will be Mrs. Ivan Kirilin, of Renaud road, national corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Edward Gehrig, of Balfour road, member of the state nominating committee.

Chapter presidents heading their own contingents will be Mrs. Robert Priest, of Devonshire road, Fox Creek chapter; Mrs. Urban Borech, of Kercheval avenue, Grand Marais chapter; Mrs. Harry Hauschild, of Lakeshore road, Grosse Pointe chapter; and Mrs. Oscar Teeg, of Rivard boulevard, The Pear Tree chapter.

The day-long session, opening with a mid-morning coffee hour hosted by members of the Jackson chapter, will include a business meeting and a special luncheon in the Centennial room.

The afternoon program will also include a tour of Honolulu House, Marshall's museum, and time for browsing in the local antiqueries.

Newcomers To Play Bridge

Grosse Pointe Newcomers will start a season full of activities October 2 at 8 o'clock with their first progressive bridge party of the fall season.

Bridge will be played in Grosse Pointe Woods at the homes of the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Haller, chairman; Dr. and Mrs. Norman Carstens, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hush, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuly and Mr. and Mrs. John Rillo.

It's always fun to be a winning couple, because the winning couples move on to the next house.

Following several rounds of bridge, there will be a Victory Breakfast in the Pompei Room of the Whittier Hotel.

Interested couples who have recently moved to Grosse Pointe from outside the Detroit area may contact Mr. and Mrs. Carey Lettler at 886-3779.

Mr. Galloway To Wed Texan

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Curtis Jeffords, of San Antonio, Tex., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Carol, to Edgar Blackman Galloway, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Blackman Galloway, of Beacon Hill road.

Miss Jeffords is a graduate of MacArthur High School and attended San Antonio College.

Mr. Galloway was graduated from the Westminster School, Simsbury, Conn., attended Alma College and received his degree from Texas Christian University, where he affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

A November 6 wedding is planned, in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton Clark, of South Renard road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, SUSAN ELAINE, to John Guillaumin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jules Guillaumin, of Yorkshire road.

Miss Clark, a graduate of Dominican High School, is presently pursuing a business career. Her fiancé attends Michigan Technological Institute, where he is affiliated with Phi Tau fraternity.

The wedding will take place early next September.

Clark Women's Club To Visit Fairlane

Clark Women's Club will have its first fall meeting on Monday, October 4. Members will go by chartered bus to Dearborn for a tour of Fairlane.

Following the tour, members will have lunch at Dearborn Inn.

to operate a camp program for children from St. Peter Claver and Casa Maria settlement houses, operated by the League.

House Tours

Announcements of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's 1965 Tour of Houses are in the mail, and we can hardly wait to "go visiting" the homes on this year's list.

Tour dates are Saturday and Sunday, October 16 and 17. Hours are 1 until 5 o'clock both days. Tickets, at $3 each, are available at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center or the Grosse Pointe War Memorial office.

The outstanding houses featured this fall include Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Merkel's Georgian home and Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Kimbrough's newly constructed English Tudor residence, both in East Jefferson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gibson will open their home in Lincoln road at Jefferson avenue and W. Hawkins Ferry will open his home in Lakeshore road, on the shores of Lake St. Clair.

The Pennsylvania Farm House residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Sherer, in Ridge road, as well as Mrs. Chauncey Richard Pelton's New Orleans style house are also included in the '65 Tour.

And we've just this minute learned there'll be a "bonus" house, (more about this later), making a grand total of seven homes in what sounds like a frankly fabulous line-up.

Clothing Drive

Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, III, is chairman of Sigma Gamma Association's fall clothing drive for the benefit of the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic. The drive will begin October 4 and terminate October 15.

There is a special need for warm clothing for boys and girls, sizes two through 12. Donations are welcome, too; they will be used to furnish a new mother's waiting room.

Depot chairmen for the Pointe area are Mrs. Robert Benkert, Mrs. W. Gerald Warren, Mrs. William Boydell, Mrs. Muir Snow, III, and Mrs. Glancy.

Incidentally, if you'd like to see how the Clinic operates, why not visit the facility? Sigma Gamma members are currently serving as guides for Torch Drive Tours through the Agency, which was founded and is sponsored by the Association.

Smith Picnic

Mrs. Albert C. Dickson, Jr., is opening her Ridge road home, (and, weather permitting, her gardens), for the Detroit Smith College Club's fall picnic buffet today.

Hostesses will be club officers and board members, including president Mrs. Gerard C. Mooney, and the Mesdames James P. Williams, M. Whitney McCutcheon, Harold Bay, William Savage and Charles E. Slough. Committee chairmen who are providing the luncheon are Mrs. John B. Guba, Mrs. Donald B. Stewart, Mrs. Frederick Fordon, Mrs. C. Allison Monroe, Mrs. Stanley Tucker, Mrs. Jonathan T. Walton and Mrs. George Nicholson, III.

Lawyers' Wives Plan Busy Year

Grosse Pointe Branch, Lawyers' Wives of Michigan, is planning a full schedule of business and social events for the coming season.

The wives promote a better relationship and understanding between the general public and lawyers and promote good fellowship among families of members of the legal profession.

Wayne County Juvenile Court Summer Camp Fund, Law Schoolships to the three Wayne County law schools, (University of Detroit, Wayne State University Law School and Detroit College of Law), and most recently Neglected and Dependent Children, Juvenile Division, Wayne County Probate Court, have been the recipients of their fund raising projects.

Plans are being completed for the annual husband and wife dinner dance, to be held in November, and a showing of precious gems.

The newly elected officers, who will preside over the first general luncheon meeting on October 14, to be held at the Lochmoor Club are: president, Mrs. Douglas Paterson; vice-president and program chairman, Mrs. Richard A. Harvey; recording secretary, Mrs. James Daoust; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Philip Dickinson; treasurer, Mrs. John Feikens; delegates, Mrs. Douglas Paterson, Mrs. Edward S. Piggins, Mrs. David Martin and Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen.

Nominating chairman is Mrs. Edward S. Piggins; membership chairman is Mrs. Paul Gracey; publicity chairman is Mrs. George W. Cotichio; public relations chairman, Mrs. William Fritz; and project chairman is Mrs. Richard J. Langs.

The group welcomes new members. Interested wives can obtain more information by calling Mrs. Paul Gracey, TU 5-9275, membership chairman.

The engagement of SUZANNE CAROL BIEN, daughter of Mrs. Edward R. Bien, of Hillcrest road, and the late Dr. Bien, to Glenn Wesley House, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Wesley House, of Greenville, was announced at a family dinner party Sunday evening, September 26, at the Balfour road home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Chargo, grandparents of the bride-elect.

Miss Bien is a graduate of Albion College, where she majored in Biology and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education. She affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. House, also a graduate of Albion College, is presently attending Wayne State University Law School. His fraternity is Delta Tau Delta.

A summer wedding is planned.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

The October 5 Circle meetings for the women of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will be held at the following homes:

Circle One, at the Lakeland avenue home of Mr. Henry A. Bokram; Circle Two at the Kensington road home of Mrs. Thomas Blakely; Circle Three at the Cloverly road home of Mrs. John A. Dadds; Circle Four at the Kenwood road home of Mrs. Cyril Barrett.

Circle Five at the Lexington road home of Mrs. Gordon C. Liesmer; Circle Six at the Bishop road home of Mrs. Robert Prince; Circle Seven at the Lakeshore lane home of Mrs. Logan Wood; Circle Eight at the Kingsville street, Detroit, home of Mrs. A. A. Beardslee.

Circle Nine at the Merriweather road home of Mrs. Glen Fortinberry; Circle Eleven at the Audubon road home of Mrs. Thomas Larkin; and Circle Twelve at the Moran road home of Mrs. William Carleton.

Hostessing the October 8 meeting of the Elizabeth Ketchum Group will be Mrs. Fred W. Adams, of Rivard boulevard. Mrs. Samuel B. Brooks will lead the devotions. Members are asked to call Mrs. Adams, TU 1-3716, if they are unable to attend the meeting.

Farm-Garden Club To Meet

The October meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club will be held at the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Donald Flintermann Monday, October 11, at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Sattelmair To Claim Bride

Engaged to be married next spring are Lorraine B. Schwab, daughter of Walter Schwab, of Bay City, and the late Mrs. Schwab, and Reverend Glenn O. Sattelmair, of Oak Hill, N.Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sattelmair, of Ridgemont road.

Reverend Sattelmair is a graduate of Michigan State University and Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Ill.

AAUW Groups Begin Programs

Modern art is the subject selected for study this year by the Art Appreciation group of the Grosse Pointe branch of American Association of University Women. The study group's first meeting of the year will be held Friday morning, October 1 at 9:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. N. McConnell, in Moross road. New members are welcome.

The Recent Graduates group, made up of A. A. U. W. members graduated from college within the past 10 years, begins the year's program Tuesday evening, October 5, at 8 o'clock, with a panel discussion of opportunities for viewing art in the Detroit area.

Panel members are Mrs. Michael Hoey, of Brys drive, Mrs. John MacLeod, of Roland road, and prospective member Mrs. John P. Rhodes, of Grayton road, Detroit.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Maghielse in Lakeland avenue. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Alexander McNeill, of Newcastle road, and Mrs. David Shrock, of Roslyn road.

The Creative Writing group will bring their manuscripts to be read for criticism to the Moran road home of Mrs. Charles Oaklan on October 6, Wednesday, at 12:45 o'clock.

This group is bidding goodbye to one of its most active members, Mrs. R. W. Cunningham, who is returning with her family to her native Winnipeg. Mrs. Cunningham recently placed 33rd in a field of 5,000 entries in a "Writer's Digest" short, short story contest.

Looking ahead a number of weeks, A. A. U. W. members are collecting books now from friends, neighbors and any one who would like to donate books to the A. A. U. W. Book Sale to be held October 14 and 15 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The annual event, co-directed by Mrs. Arthur Neef, of Stonehurst road, and Mrs. Oswald Robbins, of Balfour road, benefits a number of fellowships which allow outstanding women to further their studies.

Collection centers for books are at the home of Mrs. Albert Conkey, 802 Pemberton road; Mrs. Paul Hykes, 439 Rivard boulevard; and Mrs. Ralph Kimble, 557 Fisher road. For pickup service, phone Mrs. Robbins at 886-5519 or Mrs. Robert Bogan at 882-5268.

Anyone interested in joining the American Association of University Women may call Mrs. David Coolidge, 882-8978.

The engagement of PAMELA DIANE OLEKSIK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Oleksik, of Lochmoor boulevard, and Patrick George Currier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Currier of Stanton lane, was announced recently at a family dinner party.

An August wedding is planned.

Miss Oleksik, a graduate of St. Paul's High School, is presently a junior at the University of Detroit, where she is affiliated with Sigma Sigma Sigma.

The couple will reside in New York City.

R. B. MacDonald Weds In East

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Andrews, Jr., of Houston, Tex., formerly of Upper Montclair, N. J., announce the marriage of their daughter, Lynne Cameron, to Ross Banks Macdonald, of New York, son of the late Chisholm Nicholson Macdonald, of Grosse Pointe, and the late Mrs. Charles Lorenzo Woody, Jr., of New York City and East Hampton, L.I.

The wedding and small reception took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Crane, Jr., of Syosset, L.I. The Reverend James Moffett officiated at the rites. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Crane, and Mrs. Crane's daughters, Carroll and Mary Stuart, and Mr. Macdonald's daughter, Laura, were flower girls.

Charles Lorenzo Woody, Jr., served as his step-brother's best man.

The new Mrs. Macdonald attended the Montclair schools and has been associated with an advertising firm.

Mr. Macdonald was graduated from St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H., and Yale University. He also attended the graduate school of the University of Texas, Austin.

The couple will reside in New York City.

To Select Michigan Lucia Queen Nov. 27

Mrs. Sixten Ehrling is Chairman of Committee which Will Determine who is to be Named Local Queen of Light

The first Lucia Queen of Michigan will be selected at the Whittier Hotel during the Lucia banquet held by Detroit Swedish Council on Saturday, November 27.

The event is creating tremendous interest in all those of Scandinavian descent throughout Michigan not only because it is a "first" but because it is such a charming tie to the traditional Lucia Day in Sweden.

Lucia is known as the Queen of Light and, on December 13, the day of her martyrdom, she is celebrated throughout Sweden... in homes, hospitals, offices, plants, wherever people gather. Lucia Day is the beginning of the Swedish Christmas season.

Here in Michigan, all girls of Scandinavian descent, between the ages of 18 and 23, are being asked to enter the Lucia contest. Six will be chosen to appear at the Lucia Banquet.

These will be judged by a jury of prominent Michigan citizens on the basis of personality, character and poise. They will each be asked to give a two-minute talk on "The meaning of light to me."

The winner will be crowned as Lucia Queen of Michigan with the five remaining girls becoming her Court of Honor.

She will be flown by the Scandinavian Airlines System for a two-week visit to Norway, Denmark and Finland culminating in her appearance for the annual Lucia Day Banquet on December 13 in Stockholm. Here she will appear with all the other Lucia Queens of Sweden.

W. J. Denler, II To Wed Ohioan

At a cocktail party at their home in Rocky River, O., September 25, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ogden announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to William John Denler, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Denler, of Cloverly road.

Miss Ogden attended Miami University, and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. Mr. Denler prepared at Ridley College, St. Catharines, Ont., and was graduated from Parsons College, Fairfield, Ia.

A January wedding is planned.

den and Lucia Queens of Scandinavian descent throughout the world.

On her return home, she will appear several times before service clubs or children's hospitals to carry on the Lucia tradition of goodwill to all.

Applications are available from committee members or by calling Detroit-Swedish Council, 822-9669, or the Scandinavian Airlines, 963-8870.

Glen A. Carlson, president of the Council has this message, "We are more than delighted to inaugurate a Michigan Lucia Queen because the meaning of light is of no less importance in America than in Sweden. As Americans, we are pleased to make this lovely tradition of Sweden a part of Michigan's own."

The contest ends midnight, Saturday, October 30.

Chairmen of the Lucia committee are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Anderson, of Deeplands road, Mrs. Sixten Ehrling, of Trombley road, is chairman of the jury committee.

Committee members include Dr. and Mrs. George J. Baer, of Balfour road, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Cassman, of Kensington road, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Dahlen, of Devonshire road and Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Erickson, of Audubon road.

More are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hadley, of Yorkshire road, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, of Windmill Pointe drive, Mrs. Otto Lundell, of Lochmoor boulevard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wood, of Renaud road, and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Olson, of The Towers.

Checking Rummage for Their Sale

The "Lost Horizon" lampshade is nothing to make light of — or so think these members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Women's Association Rummage Sale committee, (left to right), MRS. FRANK KAUFMAN, chairman, MRS. RICHARD FERNSTRUM and MRS. MELVILLE OSBORNE, co-chairmen. The ladies are taking stock of just a very few of the vast store of bargains that will go on sale at the annual event at the Church, Mack avenue and Torrey road, Friday, October 8, and Saturday, October 9. Rummage for the sale will be gratefully accepted, and can be taken directly to the Church the week of the sale. Heavy items will be picked up; this service may be obtained by calling TUXedo 1-9326, EDgewater 1-8382 or TUXedo 1-8921.

Zoar Society Holding Party

A luncheon and card party will begin the observance of the 87th year for the Zoar Society. This will be held on Monday, October 4th at 12:30 p.m. at the Evangelical Home for Children and Aged, 6700 West Outer Drive. The Home is also marking the beginning of its 87th year this fall.

Mrs. George Born, chairman of this benefit party being given for the Home, announces that there will be many lovely door prizes as well as table prizes.

Assisting Mrs. Born on the committee of arrangements are the following members: Mrs. Frederick Peppers, in charge of tickets and Miss Edna Hack (ED 1-3320) in charge of reservations.

St. Clair Shores Nursery School Is 10 Years Old

The St. Clair Shores Cooperative Nursery School is observing its 10th anniversary this fall. Many of its graduates are from the Grosse Pointes as well as from St. Clair Shores.

Sixty children are enrolled for the three classes that started September 15 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mack Avenue at Colony street in St. Clair Shores.

The three-year-olds will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Boardman, of Lennon road, is the teacher. She has a life certificate from Wayne State University and has 15 years teaching experience in nursery school, kindergarten and first grade.

FAIR, AND WARMER—Flames boil around autos and trucks during that big fire at the Tennessee State Fair in Nashville. It destroyed a grandstand and exhibition buildings with damage estimated at more than $12 million.

THESE ILLUSTRATIONS of the Soviet Cosmos, which they have been launching since 1962 for space research and, it is believed, surveillance of U.S. space endeavors, comes from Thompson-Ramo-Wooldridge's quarterly Space Log. The Soviet launched an average of one a week in the first three months of this year, and launched more than 90 since 1962.

BOTH COEDS, NOW—Lynda Bird Johnson (left) strolls by the University of Texas Tower in Austin, where she is a senior this year, and sister Luci Baines Johnson gets into her car at the White House to drive to Georgetown University in Washington, where she is a freshman. Lynda is taking two courses in government, one in history, one in English and a language. Luci is taking a nursing course.

ANOTHER "UFO"—Here is another of those "unidentified flying objects," photographed by Rex Heflin, an Orange County Highway Department employee, near Santa Ana, Calif., with a Polaroid camera. He estimated it at 30 feet in diameter, 8 thick, and said it was visible for about 15 seconds. He made the photo Aug. 3, when there was a small rash of sightings in the West. He said a ray of light rotated underneath. He also said he does not believe in flying saucers. There is a Marine base nearby.

ONE IS ADOPTED—Jane, a crossbred Labrador, looks complacent in London as she sets the table for her six pups and one tiger cub. The cub's mother was indifferent, so the London Zoological Society found Jane.

TRAFFIC SNARLED IN SUMMER SNOWSTORM—Skidding off a new, four-lane section of Interstate 15 north of Helena, Mont., a few minutes after the section was opened in a heavy summer snowstorm, a big grain truck snarls traffic. The six-state storm stranded hundreds of motorists, left at least three persons dead, and crop losses began to soar across the Great Plains.

UNHAPPY LANDING—The single-engine Cessna 175 sheared off a wing against a lemon grove wind machine and came to crashing rest in this house in Upland, Calif. All three passengers were killed, and one resident of the home was burned seriously when the plane's gasoline tanks exploded, setting a fire.

"PEYTON PLACE" star and Academy Award winning actress Dorothy Malone, 37, is in serious condition in Hollywood following an eight-hour operation to remove blood clots from lung.

GOING THEM ONE BETTER—Kathy McCallister, unicycling to junior high in Elyria, O., draws some seemingly unappreciative stares from lads who need two wheels to get by.

WOMAN TRAPPED IN CAR BY CEMENT TRUCK—A cutting torch is used by firemen and other rescue workers to free Mrs. Alva Walker, 48, from the front seat of her car, smashed when a cement truck overturned on it in West Los Angeles. She was freed after nearly an hour, and her injuries reportedly were minor.

THIS IS WAR IN VIET NAM—Wounded seriously in their hut in Son Thuy Ap, South Viet Nam, during an attack on Communist Viet Cong guerrillas 15 miles south of Da Nang, an aged Vietnamese woman and her baby are treated by unidentified U.S. Marines.

RUB-A-DUB-DUB, two men in two tubs of light silicone oil in Douglas Aircraft's Missile and Space Division in Santa Monica, Calif. They had a 10-day stint in the oil, which simulates weightlessness of outer space. Scientists are trying to duplicate physiological "deconditioning" such weightlessness seems to cause.

PREVIEW of NEW MODELS

The 1966 Oldsmobile Toronado, with front-wheel drive, is the most unique automobile in many years. A six-passenger hardtop coupe, it is available in a standard or deluxe model. Driving ease and handling under every conceivable road condition are only two of the outstanding characteristics of this car. In styling, too, the Toronado is distinctive and unique. A specially-modified 425-cubic-inch Toronado V-8 and Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission deliver power to the front wheels. Inside, the Toronado provides full 6-passenger space and features a flat floor.

1966 Chrysler Is New Front To Rear

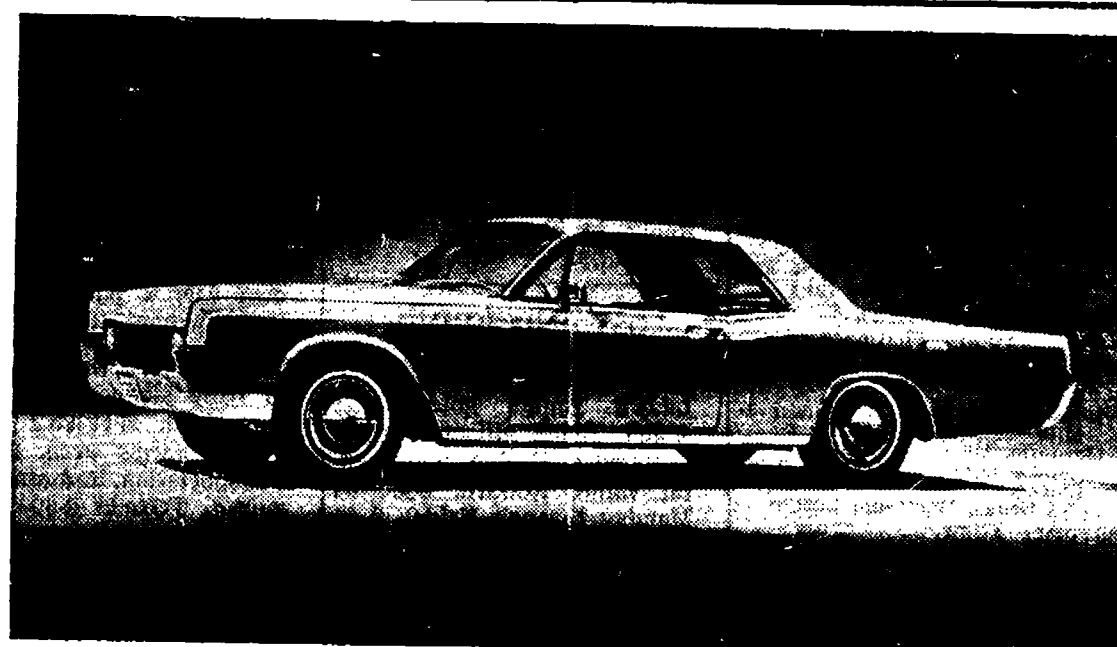

The Chrysler cars for 1966 are new from front to rear with more powerful engine options, new interior, seating arrangements and equipment options. There is a stronger separate styling identity for the four series which make up the Chrysler line — the luxury New Yorkers, the sporty 300s, the economical Newports and the new Town and Country series of station wagons. Most changed in appearance for 1966 is the distinctive 300 series. The 300 two-door hardtop, shown above, has a new roof line with a restyled rear window, a new hood, new front bumper and wrap-around taillights. Standard engines range from the 383-cubic inch V-8 using regular fuel in the Newport and Town and Country cars to the 440 cubic inch V-8 with a four-barrel carburetor in the New Yorker. New equipment options and features include power front wheel disc brakes, an adjustable tilting and telescoping steering wheel, and safety-type inside door handles.

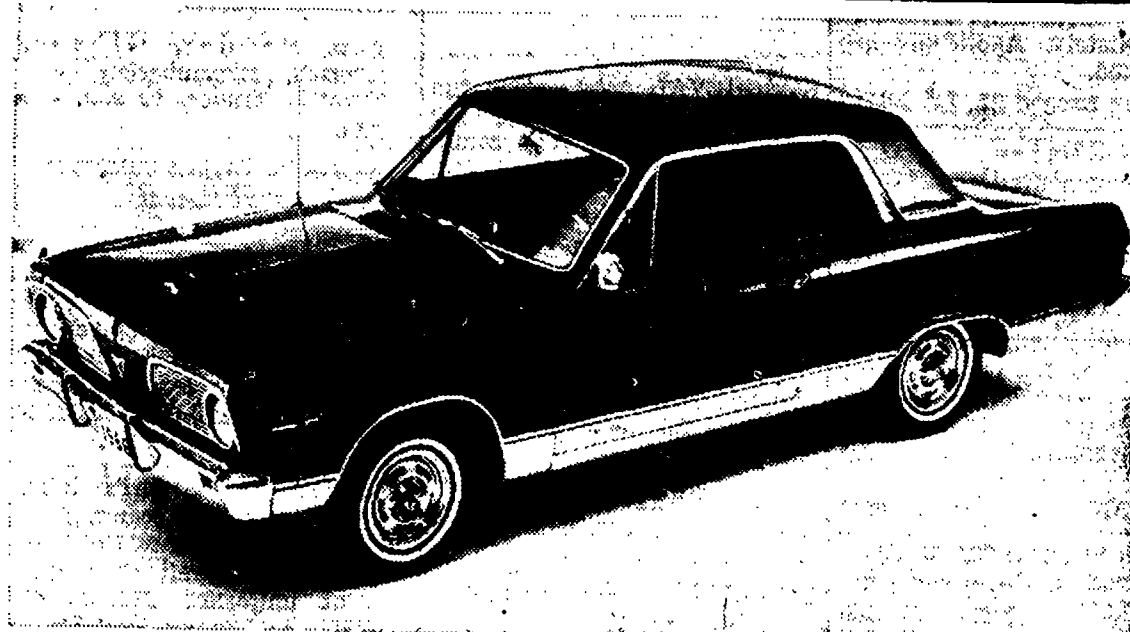

Mercury for 1966 again moves forward as a premium car in the medium-price field with tasteful styling changes, new engines and important additions to the option list, including disc brakes. Standard in top-of-the-line Park Lane series (above) and optional in other Mercurys is an exclusive new 410-cubic-inch 330-horsepower engine. The new Mercurys will go on sale in dealer showrooms October 1.

Lincoln Continental

The 1966 Lincoln Continental is a totally different car from prior models yet retains its traditional classic flavor. A two-door hardtop coupe (above) is added to the line and a new, larger body and new 462-cubic-inch engine are featured. The new Continental, which goes on sale October 1, is nearly five inches longer than before, but retains its 126-inch wheelbase and beautiful proportions.

1966 Valiant Has Lower, Wider Look

New styling changes create a wider, lower-looking Plymouth Valiant for 1966. There is a new hood, new front fenders, new roof and rear deck upper and lower panels on all 14 models of the 106-inch wheelbase Valiant. This marks the sixth model year of the Plymouth Valiant as an entry in the compact field. A complete line of 6- and 8-cylinder models is available in three series—V-100, V-200 and Signet, and includes two- and four-door sedans, two-door hardtops, convertibles, and four-door, two-seat station wagons. Valiant's traditional circular-shaped instrument panel has been replaced by a rectangular-shaped cluster of gauges, and the longer console for Signet models is completely new. The 1966 Valiant is offered in 17 different solid exterior colors. Shown is the Signet two-door hardtop.

New V I P Is Top Of 1966 Plymouth Line

A new luxury type four-door hardtop called the VIP is introduced by Plymouth in its line of cars for 1966. Designed for those who ask the finest in equipment and interior appointments in a standard size automobile with distinctive exterior trim and identification, the VIP has the same 119-inch wheelbase and length of 209.8 inches as other standard size Plymouth cars. Exterior appearance features, exclusive to the VIP, are body side moldings with wood-grain inserts, a new charcoal metallic paint, and chromed VIP nameplates on the grille, lower deck panels and C-pillars. The new model is also available with standard Plymouth exterior colors. Interior features include recessed pull-down center arm rests for both front and rear seats, special door closing pull handles, and reading lamps in the rear. Interior trim colors of the VIP are black, red or blue. Fender skirts, wheel covers and hood-mounted turn indicators are standard. A vinyl covered roof is optional.

Belvedere Is Completely New For 1966

The intermediate size Plymouth Belvedere for 1966 has a wholly new appearance, major chassis improvements and a wide range of optional equipment. A production version of the famous 426-cubic inch hemispherical head V-8 engine will be offered in 1966. There are six Belvedere body types and 18 models. Shown here is the Satellite two-door hardtop. Sedans, hardtops and convertibles will have a 116-inch wheelbase, and station wagons a 117-inch wheelbase. Fully unitized bodies with curved glass windows and fresh body lines make the new Belvedere look longer and lower than its 1965 counterpart. The standard V-8 engine in the Belvedere series has 273 cubic inch displacement with a two-barrel carburetor. Other engine options besides the 426 "hemi" are the 318 and 361-cubic inch V-8s using regular fuel, and a high performance version of the 383-cubic inch V-8. Safety features include a new type of inside door handle, and new power brake boosters.

Rich styling, luxury prevail in 1966 Caprice and Chevelle Coupes

Two of Chevrolet's newest additions for 1966 are the luxurious Caprice Custom Coupe (below) and the stylish Chevelle Super Sport 396 Coupe. The Caprice Coupe is destined to be the style leader among regular size cars and the Chevelle Super Sport is distinguished by a new roof line with recessed rear window and a '396 SS' identification in grille and rear cove area. Caprice models feature distinctive wraparound rear lamps. Along with these two models, Chevrolet will offer 48 other models for 1966. Dealers will show the new cars for the first time Oct. 7.

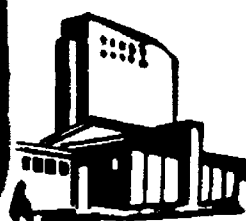

1966 Barracuda Has Performance Appeal

The Plymouth Barracuda, the sporty fastback entry in the compact car market, has new styling features and a wide range of performance equipment for 1966. Exclusively a two-door hardtop fastback, it has a new, bold grille design, new instrument panel cluster, new medallions depicting the aggressive salt water fish for which it was named, and new shell-like bucket seats. Optional performance equipment includes front wheel disc brakes, with or without a power booster, fast ratio manual steering, and the Formula S package consisting of the Commando 273 cubic inch V-8 engine with four-barrel carburetor, heavy duty suspension system, tachometer and heavy gauge wide rim 14-inch wheels with Blue Streak competition tires. There is a new console in the Barracuda which extends from the back of the front seat to the instrument panel. It is available with four-speed manual or automatic transmission. The standard 273 cubic inch V-8 engine is now equipped with a non-silenced air cleaner. Interior trim style is exclusive to the Barracuda.

who, where and whatnot

by uboozit

We're happy to report . . . that we've managed to track down the fantastic "homemade" car mentioned in a recent column. It belongs to Harry Hayes, assistant golf pro at the Country Club, was built by Harry's father, and may be viewed most any time, parked at the Club. Staring is perfectly permissible — the car's used to it.

If you've never . . . seen one of Goodwill Industries' retrospective fashion shows, you've missed a real experience! We predict everyone viewing "Vanity Fair," a production of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit, to be presented for the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church next Thursday, October 7, at 8 o'clock, will have a whale of a good time. "Vanity Fair," a unique fashion show featuring authentic dresses that were fashionable 50 to 100 years ago, covers major periods of transition in women's styles, including 1870, 1900, 1912, 1920 and 1965, (we understand the audience will also be permitted a glimpse of the Woman of the Future). The performance is being sponsored by the Church's Hope Circle, Mrs. Allyn Gerds, of Moorland drive, is chairman. Incidentally, the clothing in "Vanity Fair" was donated in the same manner as all materials used in the daily operation of Goodwill workshops.

Sure to arouse STRONG feelings . . . especially as Detroit faces a November 2 referendum affecting the public water supply, is a new book, "A Struggle with Titans," released by Carlton Press of New York City September 15. Author George L. Waldbott, M.D., of Balfour road, does not hesitate to use strong language in expressing his opinions on fluoridation of drinking water (no, we're not going to tell you which "side" Dr. Waldbott is on — read the book and find out!).

And speaking of books . . . We hear that a first edition of photographs by famed Yousuf Karsh will be among items offered to shoppers at the Used Book Sale sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women October 14 and 15. Sheet music, paperbacks, back issues of the National Geographic and other magazines will also be available — and at VERY modest prices, too. Sale hours at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial are 1 to 9 o'clock on the 14th, (Thursday), 10 to 4 o'clock on the 15th, (Friday), but we advise local bibliophiles to come as early as they can: The Best Bargains are usually snapped up by the First Buyers.

Still speaking of books . . . We were delighted to receive recently, from the Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, a copy of "In Washington," the DAR's truly beautiful Diamond Anniversary album, featuring the most magnificent photographs of treasures in the DAR Memorial Continental Hall. The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, organized as a service group on October 11, 1890, for the purpose of providing and promoting historical, educational and patriotic service, has grown to 185,000 members divided among some 3,000 Chapters, in the United States and abroad. In the 75-year period, nearly a half million descendants of Revolutionary patriots have been active in the Society. The organization appropriates close to a quarter of a million dollars annually toward education, maintaining two schools in remote areas of the southern Appalachians and contributing aid in the form of money, awards and scholarships to needy students. American Indian Schools received $100,000 in 1964.

We're always pleased . . . to receive news of our far-flung subscribers, and we're happy to announce that Marine PFC James Cunningham, son of the Robert Cunninghams, of Torrey road, has been promoted to Lance Corporal. Jim is stationed in Vietnam with the First Amtrak Battalion, Third Marine Division, (his letters home state that "A" Company is doing a great job over there). He is 20 years old, has two years of service behind him and two more to go, and is one of our VERY loyal readers. His subscription to the NEWS has followed him from California, to Hawaii, to Okinawa, to Vietnam — making him certainly one of our most "mobile" regular customers. Jim writes that he likes to read the latest news on the friends he grew up with; we know his friends will be happy to read some news about him . . .

PILFERINGS

It is the part of a wise man to feed himself with moderate pleasant food and drink, and to take pleasure with perfumes, with the beauty of growing plants, dress, music, sports, and theaters and other places of this kind which a man may use without any hurt to his fellows. —Spinoza

Medicare Kits Being Mailed

Some 2½ million Medicare information kits were mailed August 31 to the nation's elderly social security and railroad retirement beneficiaries, according to the Social Security Administration, U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Social Security Commissioner Robert M. Ball said that each week following, from September through November, there will be additional mailings until all 15½ million beneficiaries 65 or over have been sent the information about their new health insurance protection.

With the mailing is an enrollment card. It is a punch card with the name and social security number of the person on it, and according to Commissioner Ball, an extremely simple form. The beneficiary will be asked to mail it back in a postage free envelope — indicating whether the supplementary medical insurance that will cover doctor bills and other medical services is desired. This can all be done by mail.

People over 65 who are not now drawing social security benefits — who haven't applied because they are still working — should go to the nearest social security district office and file as soon as possible, the Social Security Commissioner noted. Even if they can't collect monthly social security benefits, because their earnings are too high, they will be eligible for hospital benefits.

People who have never worked under social security — or who have not worked long enough to qualify for social security benefits will need to apply for both hospital insurance and the voluntary medical insurance. However, those who are on old-age assistance will get information on how to sign up from their welfare agencies.

People who will be 65 or over before the end of the year will have until March 31 to apply for the voluntary medical insurance.

Next spring, Commissioner Ball said the Social Security Administration will mail to each person on the rolls, a health insurance card which he can use like a Blue Cross card when he must go to the hospital.

FRANCIS J. McCANN, OF GROSSE POINTE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL

By Janet Mueller

"I've often said that I think this is the finest school in the country." The speaker is Francis J. McCann, "Coach" McCann to all his students, the school is Grosse Pointe University School.

Coach McCann is starting his 47th year at the same school . . . well, perhaps not precisely the SAME school: Coach McCann came to Detroit in September, 1919, to teach at Detroit University School, (for boys only), stayed on when DUS merged with Grosse Pointe Country Day School, (for girls only), in the early 1950's to form the co-educational GPUS.

Since September, 1919, many fine teachers have added personal footnotes to the DUS and GPUS history, but few have been so loved, admired, respected and remembered as Francis J. McCann. Coach McCann is no DUS or GPUS footnote; he's a whole chapter.

That Boston Accent

He was born in Boston, Mass., (after almost 50 years in the mid-west, his accent is still a dead giveaway), attended public grammar and high schools, earned his A.B. degree at Boston College.

He spent a full year in residence at Bridgewater Normal School — "the oldest normal school in America" — and taught for a year in Randolph, Mass.

When World War I broke out, he enlisted in the Navy, in November, 1917. He went in as a seaman, received a commission in the Supply Corps and was sent to the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania, to study government insurance for enlisted personnel.

After Wharton, he operated at the Boston Navy Yard, talking to personnel about the government's insurance programs. He was assigned eventually to the Board of Examiners for Enlisted Personnel, First Naval District.

The First Naval District stretched all the way from the northernmost boundaries of Maine to Newport, R.I. The Armistice had been signed by the time Coach McCann began working on the Board of Examiners. His assignment was to travel through the District, explaining the advantages of retaining their government insurance to enlisted personnel about to leave the service.

Back To Teaching

Coach McCann enjoyed his job with the Navy, but he had no intention of making the Navy his life's career. He wanted to get back to teaching.

He had just returned to his home outside of Boston after a trip to Bar Harbor, Me., and was beginning to think seriously of his future outside the Navy, when his mother mentioned that a man from Detroit, visiting at his brother's home in Marlborough, Mass., had expressed a desire to talk to the young teacher turned Naval officer.

The "man from Detroit" was D. H. Fletcher, headmaster of Detroit University School. Francis J. McCann met Mr. Fletcher, who "was such a fine gentleman that he hit it off right away," in June, 1919. Mr. McCann agreed to come to Detroit the following September.

"I liked the school from the very beginning," he says. DUS had recently moved into a brick home in Parkview avenue, Detroit, "and that's where it was when I came. The school was small in numbers, but the most friendly place imaginable, and the boys were of a very high caliber."

The new teacher had an extremely full schedule. Besides teaching Latin, Ancient History and Eighth and Ninth Grade Mathematics, he was pressed into service as coach of the football and baseball teams.

Nickname Stuck

He continued coaching the football team for 10 years, and the baseball team for 20 years, then confined himself to work within the building — but 25 years after he stopped directing athletics, he is still known as "Coach" McCann.

"The boys called me 'coach' when I came, and the name stuck."

As demands on the Latin Department increased, Coach McCann was forced to drop his classes in History and Math and confine himself to Latin. He teaches Latin only now.

"I used to be able to handle all the Latin classes from the Seventh Grade through Virgil. Now I concentrate to a great extent on building a good foundation for the younger students. I carry them through Caesar."

"We use the Docket System, enabling a student to move ahead at the pace dictated by his ability and ambition. As a result of this method, many boys finish Caesar at the end of the Ninth Grade; they are through Cicero and Virgil at the end of the Eleventh Grade."

The only place available for DUS football and baseball squad practice during Coach McCann's first years at the school was a hard clay recreation yard about 50 yards long and 50 yards wide.

Played on Belle Isle

DUS played its "home" games on one of two public fields at nearby Belle Isle. Spectators included DUS parents, staff, alumni and supporters — and a group Coach McCann affectionately refers to as the "Bridge" alumni.

"People who used Belle Isle as their recreation area on a regular basis adopted us as their 'home' team. They became our loyal followers . . . so prejudiced on our behalf, in fact, that their antics when they didn't like an umpire's decision sometimes embarrassed us!"

Squads were small, but Detroit University School produced good teams. DUS was undefeated in football in 1923 and 1924, ("And we played some strong schools, too," Coach McCann recalls, "River Rouge, Algonac, Ford Trade School, Farmington . . .").

Through the years, the school kept increasing in numbers and strength. Friends of DUS raised funds for a modern school building, in Cook road, and "in the fall of 1928, we moved out to this new building, (now the 'old' building in the heart of the GPUS complex), with its fine fields and country surroundings."

Used Four Buses

Cook road was rather "in the sticks" in 1928. The school ran four buses from various locations in Detroit to the "country" campus.

Gradually, over a period of years, the "country campus" changed to a suburban campus. DUS' next Great Change was its merger, in 1954, with Grosse Pointe Country Day School.

"I had been teaching boys for years and years," Coach McCann says, "and I'll admit I was a bit apprehensive about teaching boys and girls together."

But after the first few days, I realized that teaching would be a lot of fun with girls included. They turned out to be good sports. . . . Having girls here has proved a very satisfactory arrangement. In fact, it's just possible that boys study BETTER in a coeducational system!"

Omega Eta Tau, (Megate), a private high school fraternity, is Coach McCann's favorite extra-curricular activity. He has been Megate's faculty advisor since 1932.

"It has been a pleasure to see these young men make real sacrifices, give their time and effort to do something for underprivileged children. It shows a deep consideration on the part of the boys for the underprivileged, a sense of responsibility and involvement . . ."

Annual Wreath Sales

Megate members sell Christmas wreaths every year, donating every penny of their profits, between $700 and $1,000 annually, to the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic. They meet every two weeks, enjoy social activities and field trips. After graduation from high school, they automatically become members of Megate Alumni.

"I'm very proud of these boys," Coach McCann declares. "I have always felt they are 'real gentlemen,' gentlemen not only in their manners, but in their hearts, in their consideration for others."

The boys are proud of Coach McCann, too, and are delighted that the University School's new skating rink, to be opened around the first of the year, is to be named in his honor.

Francis J. and Ida F. McCann moved from an Indian Village apartment to an apartment near Eastland two years ago. They were excited about the move, reserved their apartment before it was built, took pictures of it while it was being built and are very pleased with their new neighbors.

Their son, Francis J. McCann, Jr., and his family live in Framingham, Mass. The fourth-generation members of the McCann clan are Francis J., III, a sophomore at Purdue, Robert H., a senior at Admiral Farragut Academy in New Jersey, Ann and George, both still in grammar school.

Like To Travel

The McCanns visited their son this summer. They like to go back to Framingham, Coach McCann's hometown, and go back "rather frequently" — which probably accounts for Coach McCann's ability to maintain his Eastern accent almost unimpaired after years of teaching school in Michigan. ("The boys had a good time with my accent when I first arrived!" he laughs).

The McCanns still recall with pleasure their trip to Europe in 1933: "The banks closed, but we managed to get some money out, enough to take us across the Atlantic and back."

Mr. and Mrs. McCann's "hobby" is "saving up our pennies to go to Honolulu each summer." They were there for 10 summers, 1951 through 1962, leaving the Mainland as soon as school ended and coming back "at the last gun," as close to the opening of school as they could manage.

"It is a pleasure to attend lectures at the University of Hawaii," Coach McCann says. "I enjoy the opportunity to get to know Oriental people and to understand them. Honolulu is fascinating: The beginning of the Oriental world as far as the Occidental people are concerned, and the beginning of the Occidental world as far as the Oriental people are concerned. 'We plan to go back there, but not in summer. There are so many tourists in Honolulu now; the character of the place has changed. We want to go back after the summer tourists have left.'"

Proud of School

Coach McCann admits there have been many "outward" changes in the student body since he first began teaching at DUS. "But the changes, changes in dress, for instance, are all in things that don't really amount to much."

"The good character of our students is the same as it was when I arrived; they still are considerate of others, and consideration is the mark of a gentleman or a gentlewoman."

"I am proud of the high caliber of men — and women — this school has graduated. I am particularly proud of the outstanding men this school has produced for the business and professional worlds."

"No matter where I go in this country, I meet alumni — I've met several on the beach at

APPLESAUCE CAKE

Contributed by

Mrs. LeeRoy Temrowski

1 cup sugar
½ cup lard
½ tsp. salt
1 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. allspice
½ tsp. cloves
1 cup unsweetened applesauce
2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1½ tsp. baking soda
1 lb. pitless dates
1 cup chopped nuts

Blend sugar, lard and salt together. Add nutmeg, cinnamon, allspice and cloves to sugar-lard-salt mixture. Blend together. Dissolve baking soda in 2 Tbsp. boiling water; add to applesauce. Sift baking powder and flour together. Alternately add applesauce mixture and flour mixture to sugar-lard-spices mixture. When one-half of the applesauce and flour mixtures have been used up, add 1-pound package of pitless dates, cut in pieces, and chopped nuts. Add remaining applesauce and flour and mix together.

Bake at 300 degrees for an hour to an hour and a half in three generously greased and floured loaf pans.

Note: This cake keeps fresh for weeks, but changes in the atmosphere sometimes make the addition of more flour necessary. To be absolutely sure, make a "try-cake" in an individual tart tin before making the three loaf cakes. It is also a good idea to put a cookie sheet underneath the loaf pans to prevent the cake from scorching.

"I have often said that I would enjoy the privilege of starting my teaching career again, because it has been such a labor of love, so much fun . . . I have derived so much satisfaction from my association with DUS and GPUS, from seeing the results of the work of our school . . .

"There's nothing I'd rather do than teach at this school."
