RED CHINA was barred again Wednesday from the United Nations by a tie vote, the closest victory margin on record for foes of Peking. The 117-member General Assembly split 47 for 47 on a proposal to admit Communist China and expel the Chinese Nationalists. Two nations did not answer the roll call, and one was absent. The Assembly had upheld the U.S. contention that the issue was an important one requiring a two-thirds majority. Britain, France, and the Soviet Union joined with Afro-Asian and Communist nations in voting to admit Peking.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE Robert F. McNamara Wednesday announced a four-point attack on rising copper prices just one week after the Johnson Administration forced cancellation of what it called inflationary aluminum price hikes. McNamara told newsmen the Government will sell 200,000 tons of copper from the national stockpile. The Defense chief would not predict whether the move would force down copper price increases less than a month old, but repeated his view that any commodity price raises are unjustified during the Vietnam war. The copper will sell at between 36 and 38 cents a pound, as much as 34 cents below current speculative prices in London and New York.

MAYOR CAVANAGH placed 500 patrolmen on overtime duty and asked for a State law to allow police to stop and search citizens on reasonable suspicion. The steps were the result of four attacks on near East side woman within 24 hours this week. Cavanagh said he believes the proposed search law would not conflict with U.S. Supreme Court rulings and would not infringe civil liberties. It is based on a New York law recently upheld by that state's Court of Appeals.

HENRY AGARD WALLACE, former U.S. Vice President, died Thursday in Danbury Hospital, Danbury, Conn. He was 77. Hospital officials traced death to lateral sclerosis, a muscular ailment. Wallace was Vice President under Franklin D. Roosevelt from 1940 to 1944, and later ran for president on a platform of peaceful coexistence with Russia. He served earlier as Secretary of Agriculture and Secretary of Commerce, and suggested the policy which later developed into our foreign aid program.

NAY VOTES by three Common Council members Friday scuttled a proposed ordinance to put 500 police officers on overtime for the next 30 days. The trio—Mary Beck, Thomas Pindexter and Anthony Wierzbicki—insisted a city ordinance required Police Commissioner Ray Girardin to declare an "emergency" crime situation to make approval of overtime legal. The four-to-three vote would have been enough to pass an ordinance without an immediate effect clause, which would take effect after 30 days. But the overtime measure was part of an anti-crime program announced Thursday by Mayor Cavanagh and contained an immediate effect clause. This required six-vote approval for the measure to pass. Council President Ed Carey called the trio's action "a play on words and a dip into politics."

JUDGE WILLIAM B. JONES fined the American Communist Party $230,000—the maximum penalty—after it was convicted Friday night for failing to register with the government as an agent of the Soviet Union. Defense attorneys said they would appeal the verdict to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which reversed the Party's 1962 conviction on the same charge. The Washington jury returned the guilty decision after two hours and 35 minutes of debate following a three week trial.

Indoor Tennis Facility to Open Soon

The Lake Shore Tennis House, with four indoor courts, is nearing completion in Marter road, adjacent to the Lake Shore Shopping Center in St. Clair Shores. The semi-private club will serve residents of the Pointes and other nearby communities. This picture was taken in the Birmingham-Bloomfield clubhouse of the same organization, which was opened last year. The local club is practically a duplicate of this one.

GPEA Wins In Balloting By Teachers

Grosse Pointe Education Association Selected as Sole Bargaining Agent With School Board

The Grosse Pointe Education Association was named the winner in the election to decide which of two groups would be named collective bargaining agent between The Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the local teachers.

The Grosse Pointe Education Association polled 318 votes while the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers garnered 195 in the election held on Thursday, November 18.

Five teachers chose neither organization, one ballot was challenged and one was spoiled. With 530 professional staff members eligible to vote, 520 cast ballots in Thursday's election.

Those eligible to vote were all certified teachers, excluding the administrative staff of 35, nurses, public librarians, first assistant-instructional specialists, and all personnel on leave other than paid sabbatical.

The election was called by the State Labor Mediation Board, and two polling places were set aside for the purpose, the Wickling Library in Grosse Pointe High School, Fisher and Grosse Pointe boulevard, and the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, Mack and Vernier road. The Mediation Board decided to take a hand in the matter when it received a petition from the MCA-NEA-affiliated Grosse Pointe Teachers Association to conduct a representative election to pick a sole bargaining agent.

Mystery Shot Hits Car In Parking Lot at Club

Farms police are investigating the mysterious firing of a bullet through a rear window of a convertible parked in the lot of the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, on Monday, November 22. No one was in the vehicle at the time, and no one was hurt.

The bullet was fired at 5:10 p.m., through the window of a 1964 Cadillac, owned by Paul Marco of 44 Oxford, who told police that he was approximately 100 feet away, when he heard the sound of the shot, but was not in view of his car, or the unknown gunman.

Traffic Violation Traps Girl Using License 'Lost' By Dearborn Acquaintance

Admits Appropriating Driver's Permit After Renewal Of Her Own Was Refused by State for Ducking Previous Summons

A summons sent to a Dearborn girl for failing to appear in the Grosse Pointe Woods court for a traffic violation, tripped up a Woods girl who was using the former's operator's license, without the former's knowledge, according to a report released by Woods authorities.

Patrolman Bernard Kelly, in charge of records, said that a notification was sent to Miss Shirley Fay Sellers, 22, of 7034 Payne, Dearborn, citing her for failing to appear in Woods court to answer for ignoring a stop street sign.

Miss Seller called the Woods station on Monday, November 15, to demand an explanation for the summons, stating that she had been in the Woods at the time, and further, she had lost her operator's license last June 16, and reported the loss to Detroit police.

Kelly said that a check of the

Youngster Lucky When Hit by Car

A six-year-old boy was injured slightly when he ran out from behind a parked car onto Washington road Wednesday afternoon and was knocked down by an auto traveling south on the street.

David Kienle, 749 Washington, rushed into the path of the car driven by Mrs. William F. Watson, of 840 Washington, after he jumped from a car parked at the curb and ran behind it into the street.

The boy jumped up immediately and Mrs. Watson took him home.

No ticket was issued.

Fine Had Been Paid

Records showed that the fine for the traffic violation was paid on Saturday, November 13, after the summons was sent to Miss Seller. It was while checking the records, that it was found that Miss Kasper apparently was the driver of the vehicle at the time the violation was committed.

A call to Miss Kasper's home, brought out a confession from the young woman that she had been using Miss Seller's operator's license for approximately five months, Kelly disclosed. The girls know each other, the officer said.

Miss Kasper, Kelly said, took the license from Miss Seller, without the latter's knowledge. Thinking she had lost it, Miss Seller reported the incident to Detroit police.

Expired in 1964

According to information revealed by Kelly, Miss Kasper's operator's license expired in 1964, and she was unable to obtain another because Detroit authorities have placed a hold with the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, to prevent her obtaining another until she answered a summons for a traffic violation, for which a warrant was sworn out against her.

Miss Kasper was issued a ticket for unauthorized use of an operator's license, and is scheduled to appear before Woods Municipal Judge Don Goodrow on December 11.

Kelly said he sent a letter to the Secretary of State to clear Miss Seller of the ignoring a stop street charge, and putting this on Miss Kasper's record. The charge carries three points, under the Michigan conviction "Point" System.

RECOVERS CAR

Park Patrolman Robert Saiford was credited with recovering a stolen car in front of 1428 Grayton on Thursday, November 18. The vehicle was stolen from 4814 Woodhall, Detroit, the previous day. The Detroit Police Auto Squad was notified of the recovery and the car was released to them.

Chorus Gives Yule Concert December 5

Carols Written By Late Alfred Burt To Be Featured in Parcels School

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will include several outstanding features in its annual Christmas program on Sunday afternoon, December 5 at 3:30 in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School. This group is directed by Richard Johns with Jerry Hughes as accompanist.

Several years ago the chorus helped to introduce the beautiful Alfred Burt carols, at that time singing them from the original, handwritten manuscripts. Since then these carols have been published, recorded many times, made into a Choral Pageant and become a familiar part of Christmas.

The Community Chorus is singing some of them again this year. They are "The Star Carol," "Caroling, Caroling," and "Bright, Bright the Holly Berries." These carols are modern in harmony but leave the listener with the feeling he is on familiar and well loved ground. They were written as part of a family tradition.

Wrote One Each Year

One of the carols was written each year and sent as the family Christmas greeting by the late Rev. Bates G. Burt, who was rector of All Saints Episcopal Church of Pontiac, Mich., from 1922-1947. When young Alfred showed ability as a composer, the tradition grew and it became a father-son project.

Alfred Burt began his musical career in the Pontiac schools, and continued through the University of Michigan and even when he was in the Armed Forces. For a time he was with the American Theater Wing in New York City and went on to radio and television work in California.

Continued Till Death

After the death of his father in 1948, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Burt carried on the family carol tradition and asked Miss Wilma Hutson, long a family friend and the organist and choir director at the Church of the Redeemer in Detroit, to write the lyrics for Alfred's melodies. This lovely Christmas custom continued until the untimely death of the young composer.

Tickets for this year's concert are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. They are available from members, from the Book Shelf or at the door at the time of the program. For any further information, call 886-0710.

Contract Awarded For Foundation of New High School

Redesigning of Pilings by Architects Shaves $134,300 Off Costs of First Low Bid; Expect to Break Ground Within Few Weeks

At a special meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education held at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, November 17, bids were opened for the installation of the foundation of the proposed Grosse Pointe High School North. Contract for the $339,700 job was awarded to Candler-Rusche.

The recent meeting marked the second time that the Board of Education has taken bids on pilings for the proposed high school. On September 22 the low bid for the project was $474,000. Since then, the architectural firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Stirtan has redesigned the plans to use 20 ton timber friction piling under the one-story sections of the buildings and 70-ton load-bearing piling under the two and three story parts.

The redesigned plans have resulted in a cost differential of $134,300. The architects' estimate on the redesigned piling came to within $1,300 of the bid submitted by Candler-Rusche.

Edward J. Pongracz, President of the Board of Education, said that the architects expect to have working drawings on the entire project available to bidders by January 21. He indicated that the Board of Education will open bids on February 21, 1966.

School officials said that they hope to schedule a groundbreaking ceremony within the next few weeks.

Young Motorist Triple Offender

Arnold J. Kocsis, 17, of 96 Mapleton, was charged with two traffic violations on Saturday, November 20, for which he was given tickets by Farms police.

According to a report by Patrolman Otto Glanert, Kocsis was observed traveling east on Kercheval, and going through a red light at Kerby at high speed. The officer said he gave chase, and saw the youth make a left turn on Ridgemoor without giving the proper signal.

Kocsis was stopped on Ridgemoor. The patrolman said he found that Kocsis had never acquired a valid Michigan operator's license, had no car registration on his person, and that the car the youth was driving had license plates registered to another automobile.

The youth was taken to the station where he was given a ticket for driving without having acquired a license, and another for ignoring a red traffic signal.

STICKY SITUATION

Mrs. Edward Heglin, 773 Rivard, told police that a group of boys stuck bubble gum on all the valves of her car wheels while it was parked on Kercheval in front of Kresge's on Friday, November 19, and milled around the car when she returned from shopping, making it difficult for her to enter the auto.

Rotary Club Has Funds To Help Needy Students

The local Grosse Pointe Rotary announced that it again has funds available for scholarship grants and for loans to students going to college next fall and for students now enrolled in college.

According to Dr. Robert E. Maunz, Club Student Awards, Loans and Scholarships chairman, these funds come from the proceeds of the Club Antique Show and are available to any student whose legal address is in one of the Pointes. The student need not be attending a school in the Pointes. The scholarships are usually awarded to promising seniors in high school; however, the loans are also available to students from the Pointes now enrolled in college.

Check Artists' Spree Halted In Indiana

Trio Arrested On Information Given FBI By Woods Detective Sergeant

Pointe area show owners and professional businessmen can rest easy as far as a phoney check passer who called himself Robert C. Bender is concerned, according to information released by Woods Det. Sgt. Jack Mast on Monday, November 22.

Mast disclosed that Adam Foster, 29, alias Robert C. Bender, alias Robert C. Baer, was recently arrested by Indianapolis, Ind., police. Arrested with Foster, was Joseph Romano, 39, and his wife, Sherri, 27. Indianapolis police announced in a bulletin sent to the Woods Department of Public Safety.

The three partners, who have no known address, were taken into custody, after a nationwide alert sent out by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on information supplied by Mast. The alert notified law enforcement agencies that the trio were on a bad check cashing spree, going from state to state.

Confiscate Equipment

When arrested in Indianapolis, police confiscated a large number of blank checks on banks from other states, and a check certifying machine. Foster was using the name of Robert C. Baer, when taken into custody.

On October 5, Foster, alias Bender, alias Baer, came to the attention of Woods authorities, when a check he had written

Woods Shoppers Receive Present

Christmas shoppers in Grosse Pointe Woods will again be able to park free in on-street and off-street parking lots, the Woods City Council decided at its regular meeting November 15, 1965.

As in the past, City parking meters will be covered from December 10 through December 26.

The Council also gave the Volunteers of America permission to solicit door-to-door, weekdays and Sundays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., from November 26 through December 24.

WHEELS, TIRES STOLEN

Officers Virgil Beaupre and Thomas Nankervis reported that the two front wheels and tires were removed from a '65 Cadillac while it was parked in the lot next to O'Leary Cadillac, 17153 East Jefferson, sometime before 11 a.m. Sunday, November 21.

School Board To Purchase Large Tract

Gift By Helen Newberry Joy Fund Makes Transfer of Neighborhood Club Site Possible

The Circuit Court of Wayne County approved the sale of Neighborhood Club's main property to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Friday, November 19. This was made possible by a generous gift of $125,000 from the Helen Newberry Joy Fund to the School Board.

Neighborhood Club will now go ahead with its plans for the future. A detailed copy of these plans must be sent to the Circuit Court within the next six months.

To Relocate Shop

First, Neighborhood Club will relocate the Thrift Shop. Then it will expand its teen services and will provide a center for the youth of the Grosse Pointes and vicinity — a place where they may meet after school, on Saturdays, and during vacations.

In June 1963 when the building was declared unsafe, the Grosse Pointe School Board voted to the club, space in Pierce Junior High School for Day Camp and in the fall, space in Brownell Junior High on Saturdays. Through growth and expansion Neighborhood Club now has programs in the War Memorial, five churches, and 12 different schools on Mondays through Saturdays. The success of this decentralization is due to the excellent cooperation of these organizations and of the whole community.

To Continue Programs

The current recreational and social service programs will be continued in their present locations. By using many facilities in different areas Neighborhood Club will be able to serve many more families.

The one service carried on in the old building that Neighborhood Club has not been able to duplicate is a meeting place for the young people during their leisure hours. Neighborhood Club intends to lease, buy, or build an adequate facility to house offices and to provide a center for youth activities.

By selling this property to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the Board of Trustees of the Neighborhood Club points out that it is assuring the citizens of the community that land for recreation will always be available. And with the proceeds from this sale Neighborhood Club hopes to expand its present services and continue to meet the needs of this growing community.

Police Arrest Fast Drivers

Two 24-year-old motorists, arrested by Woods police at 3:15 a.m. on Saturday, November 20, for reckless driving, are scheduled to appear before Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow on December 11.

Accused are Mark L. Sillman of 695 St. Clair, and Roland W. Hughes of 23011 Greater Mack, St. Clair Shores.

The arresting officers, Patrolmen Charles Hamel and Thomas Kerving, said they were patrolling on Mack avenue, when they saw two cars traveling north on the avenue at high speed. Both cars stopped for a red traffic signal at the Vernier intersection, and when the light turned green, both drivers drove off at high speed.

Hamel and Kerving said they paced the cars at more than 70 miles an hour. Sillman was stopped at Mack and St. Joan, in St. Clair Shores, where Kerving remained with him, while Hamel continued pursuit of Hughes.

Hamel said Hughes made a left turn onto Alger, traveling west to Harper, made a right turn onto Harper to Gaultier, where he was brought to a stop.

Sillman and Hughes were taken to the Woods station where they were issued tickets for reckless driving and informed of their court date.

Check Artists

in the amount of $180, "bounced."

The check was passed at the Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Association, 19307 Mack avenue.

Mast said that the method of operation used by Foster, and his partners, was that one would enter a bank, identify himself as a resident and requested the opening of a check account. After filling out the necessary information, the "new account" deposited a sum of $10, with the pay-by-check department.

Second And Last Call
The next day, the check artist would appear at the bank, making sure he reappeared at the cage of the teller who waited on him the previous day, and presented a cashier check in the amount of $180, and after endorsing the check in the presence of the teller, requested that $30 be placed in his account, and the remaining $150 be given to him in cash, and then he would leave, never returning again.

Several banks and business places in the Detroit area have been victimized by Foster and his partners, Mast said.

The sergeant said that a request for funds to extradite the trio from Indianapolis was denied by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office because it was felt that Indianapolis authorities have enough evidence to prosecute the accused, for the alleged passing of bad checks in their city.

EXPENSIVE SPORT

Two 11-year-old boys smashed two rear windows of the Lake Shore Coach Lines bus as it passed Charlevoix and Rivard on Tuesday, November 16 and again on Wednesday, November 17, police reports indicate. The boys' parents were required to pay $84.50 to replace the windows.

Forum to Hear Melvin Glasser

Melvin A. Glasser, Director of the U.A.W. Social Security Department, will speak on November 28 to the Adult Forum of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church on the subject "New Directions in Medical Care—Two Approaches". The Sunday evening session will begin at 8 o'clock in the Gallery of the Church.

Mr. Glasser, a Grosse Pointe resident, recently came to the U.A.W. from Brandeis University where he served as Dean of University Resources and Visiting Professor at the Graduate School for Advanced Studies in Social Welfare. Prior to his appointment at Brandeis University, he was Executive Vice-President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

While he was with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Mr. Glasser served as administrative director of the nationwide Salk poliomyelitis field trials and directed the studies which led to the organization's expanded activities in medical research and care of arthritis and birth defects.

Mr. Glasser was also appointed by both President Eisenhower and President Truman to the White House Conference on Children and Youth.

Park Approves Goodfellow Sale

The Park council approved a request for the sale of Goodfellow papers on December 13, but only during daylight hours.

This regulation was imposed because a Goodfellow salesman was killed in traffic during the sale in 1964 in the early morning hours of darkness.

The council also approved the use of the recreation building at the waterfront park for the preparation of Goodfellow baskets on December 23, for Pointe needy families. These actions were taken on Monday, November 22.

Woods Police Accuse Man Of Larceny by Conversion

Woods police arrested a Roseville resident on a warrant charging him with larceny by conversion. The man, Clarence (alias Bud) Hucel, was arraigned before Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow, and released on bond, pending a scheduled appearance for examination.

Hucel, who is accused of accepting a $600 down payment for work on two homes, and not finishing the job, gave two addresses as his place of residence, 28263 Essex, Roseville, which he wrote on the back of the down payment check, when he endorsed and cashed it, police said.

The accused man was arrested on Saturday, November 6 and was arraigned before Judge Goodrow. Hucel stood mute and a plea of innocent was entered for him. Hucel demanded an examination, the date for which was set for yesterday, November 24. He was released on $1,000 bond.

The warrant for Hucel's arrest was recommended by Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor William N. Fritz, on a charge of larceny by conversion. The warrant was signed by the judge.

The warrant was issued on complaint of Mrs. Stella Woodhouse, 54, of 2120 Vernier road, who told Woods Detective Everett Plumb, that she had seen an advertisement in one of the Detroit daily papers, placed by Hucel, which indicated that he installed aluminum siding, roofing, tinning, and so on. The advertisement was worded to show that Hucel had excellent references and did the work himself.

Mrs. Woodhouse said that she called the phone number listed in the advertisement, and arranged to have someone come to her house to give an estimate on work she wanted done.

On October 13, the woman said, Hucel stopped at her house and gave her written agreements on work to be done to two homes that she owns, the one in which she resides, and the other 2065 Vernier. The completion date on both houses was to have been October 24, according to the agreements.

Hucel, it was disclosed by Plumb, agreed to install aluminum siding, baked enamel gutters and downspouts, etc., on both houses for a total of $824, including material and labor.

Mrs. Woodhouse gave Hucel a check in the amount of $600 as a down payment, the detective said.

After the agreement was signed, Mrs. Woodhouse accompanied Hucel to the bank, where Hucel had difficulty cashing the check because the woman did not have an account with the bank. However, when Mrs. Woodhouse identified herself, the check, endorsed by Hucel, was cashed and he received the money.

Mrs. Woodhouse told Plumb that it was disclosed that her home at 2120 Vernier needed 244 feet of gutter, but only 48 feet were delivered. She tried to contact Hucel on several occasions, but could not reach him. The number she called was an answering service to which Hucel subscribed.

Plumb said that he contacted Hucel's former wife in Roseville who said that she would inform Hucel that he was wanted by Woods authorities.

Hucel contacted Woods police on Saturday, November 6, and was informed that a felony warrant had been issued for his arrest. Hucel, a few hours later, arrived at the Woods station to surrender himself and was immediately placed under arrest, and after being booked and fingerprinted, appeared before Judge Goodrow.

Prior to his arraignment, Hucel was asked about his activities in the matter, and he stated that he had delivered the materials to the home, but had not completed the job.

Plumb said that Roseville police are acquainted with Hucel, and that he had been engaged in similar activities in their community.

Farms Union Recognized

The Farms council officially recognized, by resolution, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, and in effect Local No. 522, as representative of full time non-supervisory employees of the city. The council approved the resolution on Monday, November 15.

The council acted in accordance with Act No. 379, which the Michigan Legislature passed during its 1965 legislative session. The act provides that public employees may become members of a union and that the employer shall recognize and bargain with such a union.

Not only on this basis did the council approve recognition, but also it has been officially notified by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, that 37 of the 39 employees of the city's Public Works Department, Sewage Pumping Station, Water Filtration and Pier-Park, indicated that they want to be represented by the union. The employees comprise Local No. 522.

The resolution authorizes City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., to act as the Farms' representative, to confer and negotiate with the union, with the assistance of City Attorney George McKean, but with full official action to rest in the hands of the Farms council.

Cottage Hospital Completes Project

One of Cottage Hospital's new electric beds is demonstrated by a nurse, MRS. MARJORIE RYAN, to MRS. CLIFFORD B. LORANGER, right, president of the hospital's auxiliary which helped provide money for the beds. In the bed is MRS. JOSEPH CEHULA, a Cottage Hospital nurse who was a patient when this photo was taken.

The Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe has announced that it has completed the equipment of the patient rooms with all-electric beds.

The hospital purchased its first electric beds in 1957 and with the receipt of the final 53 this month has completed the conversion project. Funds for the beds, which cost about $500 each, came from memorial gifts to the hospital and from the Women's Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Clifford B. Loranger, of 888 Lakeshore road.

Miss Carolyn M. Wicks, Cottage Hospital administrator, said the purchase of the beds was a phase of the continual program of modernization under way at the hospital.

She said, "I am especially grateful that gifts to the hospital's memorial fund have permitted us to complete this improvement in our facilities. Memorial gifts are a fitting way to remember a loved one and at the same time help to provide excellent hospital service for the community."

The electric beds were selected to increase the comfort and safety of the hospital's patients. Each patient can raise or lower his bed or change its position by using an electric control. This enables him to lower the bed so that he can get in and out safely unaided, yet the bed can be raised so that doctors and nurses can examine the patient at a convenient height.

Hit-Run Car Thief Eludes Pursuing Teenage Drivers

An elusive hit-and-run driver in a stolen car escaped two 17-year-old motorists who chased and sought to trap him by setting up their vehicles in a blockade on Saturday, November 20, according to a Woods police report.

The stolen car, owned by Walter Barry of 271 Mt. Vernon, was taken from the parking lot of a Detroit motel at 13613 East Jefferson. The theft was reported to police of Detroit Headquarters, First Precinct.

Barry's car, somewhat damaged, was returned to him, after its recovery was made known to Detroit authorities by Woods police.

Woods police received a call to southbound Mack, between Beaufait and Fleetwood, where a hit-and-run motorist was reported to have hit a moving vehicle and two parked cars.

John A. Carr, 17, of 18856 Springer, East Detroit, an employee of a gas station at 21003 Harper, St. Clair Shores, and Gerald Wiedyk, 17, of 20852 Hampton, Harper Woods, witnessed the hit-and-run, in a 1959 Pontiac convertible, run into a car south bound on Mack.

They told police that the hit-and-run, backed up at high speed, slammed into a parked automobile, pushing it into a second one at the curb, then sped south on Mack.

Carr, driving a service panel truck, and Wiedyk, in his own car, gave chase. They said they saw the hit-run motorist make a left turn from Fleetwood onto southbound Jackson. Carr sped ahead and attempted to block the hit-and-run's escape. The elusive motorist hit the right front fender of the truck, drove over the curb and backed up into Fleetwood and then sped to Mack, north on Mack to Vernier, east on Vernier to Wicks lane.

Carr again used his truck to block the hit-and-run's escape at Wicks lane, but the escaping driver again drove over the curb and around Carr back to Vernier and Carr lost him.

Wiedyk, still in pursuit, saw the Pontiac elude Carr, with the driver going east on Vernier. He continued his pursuit, and the chase led on to Marter road, into St. Clair Shores, where the hit-and-run escaped. Wiedyk returned to the scene of the accident, and after making a statement to police, returned to the area where he had lost sight of the hit-and-run driver. He found the wanted car at the rear of 22925 Edgewood, St. Clair Shores, and called Woods police.

Patrolmen Donald Sable and James Farrell were dispatched to the Edgewood address. On arrival, they were met by two St. Clair Shores patrolmen, who had been summoned by Robert Waldeck, of that address.

Waldeck told the officers that a neighbor had wakened him and informed him that a strange car was in the rear section of the driveway alongside his house. Waldeck said he called police immediately.

The hit-and-run car thief made good his escape.

TAKE WHEEL COVER

George Raveschat, 1420 Harvard, informed city police that on Tuesday, November 16, someone stole the left front wheel cover from his car during the half hour it was parked behind Krogers, 16919 Kercheval. Raveschat placed the value at $5.

Burglar Visits Home in Park

The home of the LaMar Creegers, 1416 Balfour, was discovered forcibly entered and ransacked on Monday, November 15. The discovery was made by the Creegers' son, Gordon, 27, who called Park police.

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders said that no one was home from 7:15 p.m. to 8:55 p.m., during which time the burglar entered the house by prying open a door at the rear of the building with a pry bar.

The detective said that when the family left their residence, the house was in darkness, and when the son returned home, he found almost every light in the house had been left on. The burglar searched the basement and the first and second floor of the house, the lieutenant said. The front door was unlocked, leading to the assumption that the thief left the house that way, the officer added.

The younger Creeger said he came home to find assorted coins, from a collection, scattered all over the floor. Missing, he said, were several coin proof sets valued at about $150, a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver, and a .22 caliber automatic Colt.

Enders said that neighbors told him that on two separate occasions, suspicious persons were seen in the neighborhood looking at homes, but no one called police.

"We have lost count of the number of times we have asked residents to call police when they notice suspicious persons in their neighborhood," the lieutenant said. "We have asked that if any noise is heard, in or around homes in any of our neighborhoods, that we be notified without delay."

"It is simply ridiculous to think that such matters are trivial, and it is not worth calling the police. Our chief, Arthur Louwers, has constantly advised residents, that it is better to have police officers investigate suspicious looking persons, or suspicious noises and find nothing wrong, than not receive a call, and later find that a crime has been committed.

"We need the help of the citizens. Our police cars are so situated that any single car, or all cars, can reach any point in the Park within less than two minutes. We ask the cooperation of the public," Enders said.

Woman Fined Second Time For Violating Ordinances

A Woods woman was fined and was placed on probation on Friday, November 19, by Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow, who found her guilty of conducting a business in her home, and harboring and possessing more than the legal number of dogs. Both offenses are in violation of city ordinances.

Charged and found guilty was Mrs. June Mathews of 1170 Hawthorne, who was fined $75 for the first offense, and $25 for the second. She was placed on probation for six months and ordered to stop conducting the business from her home within 30 days, and to have the dogs removed from the premises within that length of time.

Judge Goodrow warned the woman, who has been in violation of the ordinances on previous occasions, that if she did not comply with the court order, or if she persisted in continuing her occupation in her home, the next time she appeared in court, she would receive a jail term.

Det. Sgt. Jack Mast and Det. Gerald Kensora, the arresting officers, said they went to the home of Mrs. Mathews when a complaint was received that the woman had a large number of dogs on the premises.

At the residence, the officers said, they were invited in by Mrs. Mathews, when she was informed of the complaint. While looking over the premises, Mast and Kensora said they observed a total of 23 dogs, 17 in the basement, three in the living room and three in the back yard.

In addition, the detectives said, they saw an employee of Mrs. Mathews trimming and caring for some of the dogs, and also saw dog trimming equipment and a display counter with all types of pet accessories.

Mast said that Mrs. Mathews has been in violation of the ordinances on previous occasions, the latest occurring in April, 1964, at which time the woman was caring for 40 dogs. On June 1, 1964, she was fined $100, which she paid rather than serve a 10-day jail term.

Conducting a business in a residence is in violation of a Zoning Ordinance regulating trades and industries; and the harboring and possession of more than two dogs at one time, not applicable to puppies under 12 weeks old, is in violation of the Dog Ordinance, it was pointed out.

The present sections of the ordinances were adopted in 1961.

THIEF OR VANDAL?

An employee of Mundry Cleaners, 369 Fisher, reported to police that an unknown person unscrewed a piece of plywood from a window at the rear of the building between Saturday evening, November 20, and Monday morning, November 22. A 12x8 pane of glass was also broken, the employee said, but nothing in the building was disturbed.

Brownell Plans Advice Sessions

High school may still be 10 months away by the calendar for Brownell Junior High School's ninth grade students, but planning for future study is beginning right now. Next Thursday evening, December 2, at 8 o'clock, all ninth graders and their parents are invited to an informational meeting with counselors to learn of basic course requirements for graduation from Grosse Pointe High School.

Counselor Mary Warnet will meet her counselees in the boys' gym, Robert Clark in the cafeteria, and Otto Leu in the girls' gym. They will be assisted by three high school counselors, who will answer questions on high school courses as well as college and university requirements. Prior to the meeting, the film "Days of Confusion" dealing with the problems facing parents and high school students today when planning for additional education, will be screened in the boys' gym, beginning at seven o'clock.

Basic preparation for the three-year plan of high school studies is being made in Brownell's ninth grade guidance classes, using profiles of the recently administered Kuder Interest Inventory and percentile scores from the Differential Aptitude Tests, which were taken last year. In addition, achievement test scores in math and reading will be furnished students by their counselors, enabling them to plan realistically with parents for specific high school courses.

Individual appointments will be made during January and February so that parents, stu-

Three Scouts Attain Highest Rank

At their Annual Recognition Dinner on November 15, Richard Troop 74 honored the three boys who had received, during the year, scouting's highest honor—the coveted Eagle Award. ROBERT KNUDTSON, 14, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Knudtson of Hall place received his award the evening of the banquet. WILLIAM SPAIN, left, and JOHN JENSEN, right, had earned their Eagles in June.

Injection Futile For Elm Disease

The highly publicized material, Bidrin, injected into Elm trees to control the Elm Bark Beetle, which spreads Dutch Elm Disease, has been declared ineffective. Bidrin, after injection into trees in the Spring, was supposed to kill the beetle as he fed.

In test areas in four metropolitan centers in the mid-west—Cleveland, Toledo, Molino, Illinois, and here in Wayne County—the incidence of disease in treated trees was in some instances greater than untreated trees.

The tests in Wayne County on 500 trees—250 treated and 250 untreated check trees—showed 60 per cent of the treated diseased while only 40 per cent of the untreated trees were diseased. The tests in southern Wayne County along the Wayne County roads were conducted by the Wayne County Road Commission in cooperation with the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Office of Michigan State University and the U.S. Forest Service Central States Forest Experiment Station at Delaware, Ohio.

In addition, and probably contributing to the loss of treated trees, was the damage to the growing tissue under the bark caused by the Bidrin injection. Although all the data is not compiled on the experiment at this time, the material is not considered to be effective in preventing Dutch Elm Disease infection.

He has served Troop 74 as a Den Chief, Patrol Leader and currently is the Quartermaster. Bob is one of the few boys to have the special award of Scout Lifeguard. He has attended sessions at the Charles Howell Scout Reservation for the past two summers.

Bob's favorite merit badge, of the 21 he earned for the Eagle award, was First-Aid. He is very interested in medicine and hopes to become a doctor. His hobbies include hunting, cycling, and reading.

Bill Spain, 14, is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Spain of Washington road to have achieved the Eagle Rank.

He is a 9th grade student at Brownell Junior High School and is a member of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. Bill has also served his troop as Den Chief and Patrol Leader and now is the Junior Assistant Advisor, instructing the younger boys.

Bill's hobby is animals and his free time is spent taking care of his own interesting and varied collection.

His favorite merit badge was Reptile Study and he hopes to someday be the Herpetologist for either a zoo or museum. In school, Bill's favorite subject is science, especially when it is the study of animals!

Bill agrees with Bob that his four summers at the Howell Scout Reservation were a great help in accumulating his 21 badges.

Roscoe Drummond Next Speaker at Fries Forum

One of America's foremost journalists, columnists and lecturers, Roscoe Drummond, will be the second speaker on the Fries Forum on Foreign Policy. He will be presented in Fries Auditorium the evening of Monday, December 6, at 8:15 o'clock, when he will discuss "Emerging Africa."

A few single lecture tickets may be obtained from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial office, and season tickets at $7 are still available for the series of six lectures.

Mr. Drummond was graduated from Syracuse University's famed School of Journalism. He then obtained the degree of Doctor of Literature at Dartmouth, and has been honored with the degree of D. H. L. by the Principia College.

In 1924 Mr. Drummond began a long association with the Christian Science Monitor, where he rose rapidly from reporter to assistant to the city and executive editors. Later he became the chief editorial writer, manager of the European edition, member of the editorial board and chief of the Washington News Bureau. The Christian Science Monitor has for years been recognized as a top source of international news.

During World War II, Mr. Drummond served as chief of the Economic Cooperation Administration, now the Council of Economic Advisers. After the war he became associated with the New York Herald Tribune and headed its Washington Bureau before becoming what he is now—syndicated columnist for the Herald Tribune whose column is carried daily in the Detroit Free Press.

Winner of many journalistic, editorial and lecture awards, Mr. Drummond has recently turned his attention to Africa. He has just completed an extensive survey of the continent through travel observation and interviews, and his speech Monday will include many of the insights he gained during the trip.

Other speakers to follow on the Forum are: Baron Sigismund Von Braun, Permanent Observer to the United Nations from the Federal Republic of Germany; General Maxwell Taylor, Special Assistant to the President of the United States; John Scott, Assistant to Henry Luce of Time-Life, Inc., and Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek.

The lectures are being given this year under the joint sponsorship of the School of Government, Inc., and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

Speakers for the series were chosen this year by Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker, wife of Michigan's former Governor and Secretary of the Army, and Mrs. Paul Bagwell, president of the School of Government. The Forum is offered as a public service and patrons are invited to contribute to the School and to help underwrite expenses with their ticket purchases.

Donald M. D. Thurber will be Forum Moderator for the lecture and will invite and direct questions, comments and remarks at the conclusion of Mr. Drummond's talk.

Library Offers Family Movies

The third program of the 1965-66 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, December 3, at 7:30 o'clock (and also a special Saturday showing December 4 at 10 a.m. and 11:30 a.m.) in the Central Library Meeting Room of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Family Film Nights are held the first Friday night in each month. Each program has been designed to include something of interest and enrichment for both boys and girls as well as adults. The program for December 3 (and Saturday, December 4) will be a Christmas Special for the entire family.

Films to be shown include: A CHRISTMAS FANTASY—this film captures the magic of a northern Christmas, when fresh snow lies on the pine trees and roof tops, and multi-colored lights cast an ephemeral glow on the surfaces of the purest white snow. Delightful for all ages. 8 minutes, color.

A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS IN WALES—a beautiful and sensitive visual accompaniment to Dylan Thomas' reading of this moving Christmas story. 26 minutes, black and white.

THE CHRISTMAS VISITOR—Santa Claus drives his team of reindeer across the midnight sky to a house where he knows he will be received with hospitality. While he settles down to eat a feast prepared for him, the toys break free and join in a fantastic adventure.

SANTA CLAUS SUIT—the story of one who would not believe in Santa Claus without seeing him in person. A surprising climax awakens him to the true Christmas spirit. 16 minutes, color.

HOW THE ANIMALS DISCOVERED CHRISTMAS—the animals of Cozy Valley discover the Christmas spirit in helping a bluebird with a broken wing. 12 minutes, color.

Adults and children accompanied by adults are cordially invited to the Christmas Family Film Night.

Physical Fitness Program Explained to PTA Council

"Physical Fitness and What the Grosse Pointe Public Schools Are Doing About It" was the topic at the November meeting of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council.

PTA at Ferry To Hear Guest

Father vice-president Don Bain has planned a fine program for the parents of the Ferry School P.T.A. On hand to speak to the group Tuesday, December 7, will be the "sunny side of the street man," Edgar "Bud" Guest, Jr.

Mr. Guest, son of the late poet-philosopher, Edgar A. Guest, is no stranger to many Grosse Pointers, who enjoy his daily radio program on WJR.

Following his graduation from the University of Michigan in June, 1934, Bud worked in the newspaper and radio business. From October, 1934, until he entered the Navy in 1943, Bud was a reporter, radio editor, assistant city editor, and feature-writer... also an early-morning newscaster for WJR from 6:30-7:30 a.m. Upon his release from the Navy in December, 1945, Bud decided to concentrate on radio work. It was at this time that ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF THE STREET came into being.

Prior to Mr. Guest speaking at 8:45 p.m., there will be room-visit for parents from 7:30-8:30, a short business meeting at 8:30. At the close of the evening, refreshments will be served in the Activity Area. Chairmen for the social hour are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anney and their committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Neil Severn, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Theobald and Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Johnson.

The Ways and Means Committee will also have Ferry School sweatshirts and pen-nants for sale after the meeting in the gym.

Thomas Bambas Wins Art Award

An Interlochen Arts Academy metalsmithing instructor has captured a top award in nationwide creative metal design competition of the Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation of New York.

A large cash award went to Thomas Bambas for two pincers and a decanter which he submitted in the competition. Judging also covered the areas of painting, sculpture, graphic arts and ceramics.

Bambas, a native of Grosse Pointe Woods and graduate of the Cranbrook Academy of Art in the Detroit suburb of Bloomfield Hills, joined the Interlochen faculty in September 1964.

The Tiffany Foundation, established in 1918, helps and encourages talented young American artists and craftsmen. Bambas will use his prize money for further creation of silver hollow ware.

Bambas is the son of Mrs. Louis L. Bambas, 1058 Roslyn Road.

Burglar Loots Home of Coins

A burglar forcibly entered the home of the W. R. Reeses, 374 Ridgmont, and made off with a number of coins, some old and some new, according to information given to Farms police on Tuesday, November 16.

Entry into the house was made between 1:30 p.m. and 8:52 p.m., while the family was absent. The burglar or burglars broke the glass of the rear door between the porch and a bedroom, to get into the building. The family returned home to find the dresser and a chest of drawers in the master bedroom, and desk drawers in the living room ransacked.

Jet Day Given Cub Scouts of Pack 74

Climbing aboard an American Airlines Astrojet, Northwest's Jet Electra, Air National Guards RF84 photo reconnaissance jets, visiting the pilots briefing room and weather station, watching landings and takeoffs being controlled from the Metro Control Tower, eating lunch in the airlines employees' cafeteria, a lesson in parachute packing at the Air National Guard Base were all a part of "Jet Day" activities for 37 Cub Scouts and their dads who spent the day at Detroit Metropolitan Airport on Saturday, November 20.

Cubs and their parents commenced the "lift-off" for Jet Day at the monthly meeting of Pack 74 held on November 17 at Gabriel Richard School. Together they saw the recently released NASA film in color covering the Gemini-Titan 4 mission of Astronauts McDivitt and White. The film covered a color sequence of pre-launch and launch activities, Astronaut White's spectacular "space walk," and many other experiments conducted on the four day mission.

Another highlight of the monthly meeting was a trip by cubs and parents through a 12-station Achievement Trail conducted by the Den Mothers. Parents were given awards for their completed scout achievements at each station. Inspection of the Pack was made by committee members. Neighborhood Commissioner Karl Sims was present at the meeting and presented the inspection award to the winning Dens 1 and 10. The attendance award was won by Den 10.

MOTORS CORPORATION

If you want to see the new Chrysler at the Auto Show, better come early. Or bring a ladder.

Illustrated above, the 300 2-Door Hardtop

Considering what the 1966 Chrysler has to show, you're going to need some way to beat the crowds.

The look is young. Vital. Right. Inside every Chrysler you travel first-class.

There's even an optional reclining bucket seat on the passenger's side, complete with headway headrest.

There's also a muscular lineup of V-8s to "ooo" and "ahhh" about. They start in at 383 cubic inches and go up to a 440 TNT V-8 with twin exhausts and twin snorkels. (What's a snorkel? See us at the exhibit, we'll explain.)

In fact, we'll do more. We'll show you the entire Chrysler lineup. Including our famous Newports, the full-size Chryslers priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped.

So we'll see you where there's the most to see. Under the sign that says, "Move up to Chrysler... it's easy."

PTA Plans Sale Of Sweatshirts

At the PTA meeting of the Dexter M. Ferry School, on December 7, parents will have the opportunity of purchasing a sweatshirt and pennant for their children.

The Ways and Means committee, Dave Fairless, chairman, Walt Bertschinger and Mrs. Thomas DeVries have stacks, and stacks of white sweatshirts with red emblems and lettering all ready for sale.

Many parents hearing of this sale have expressed a desire that the committee would hold sweatshirts for them, but this cannot be done. The items will be sold on a first come basis. To make sure your child can join the crowd, attend the PTA meeting and make your purchase.

Santa to Come By Helicopter

Don't listen for sleigh bells, because you won't hear any. Our modern jet age Santa will arrive to the hum of helicopter blades when he invades the Pointe tomorrow, November 26.

Touchdown time is tentatively set at 3 p.m. in the parking lot behind Kresge's in "The Village." From there the worthy gentleman will stroll to the Hospitality Center, 16006 Kercheval, where he'll greet visitors every afternoon until Christmas.

William Cashman of Kresge's tells us that Santa's arrival officially transforms Kercheval in the Village into "Christmas Street." The avenue will sprout lighted trees tomorrow in his honor, and a "Village Bell Tree" filled with 36 large red ones will ring an accompaniment to the carols shoppers will hear as they view goodies laid up by Village merchants for Christmas giving.

Gentlemen shoppers will be specially welcomed there Monday evening, December 6, "Men's Night," when from 7 to 10 o'clock they will be able to buy gifts for family and friends, without female competition and get special advice on presents that are certain to please.

Further up the avenue, every door on "The Hill" will wear a blue-and-green lighted tear drop to greet the season, and make-believe lighted trees will brighten lamp posts. Hill merchants assure us they are well stocked with Christmas items and extend a hearty "Everybody Welcome!"

Thief Collects Silver Dollars

A newsboy who found addressed documents and papers scattered around the Marvin Malow residence, 983 Lincoln, on Friday evening, November 12, started police on a search for the unknown person who broke into the home while Malow was away on business and stole an envelope containing 15 silver dollars.

City Police Lieutenant Robert Van Tiem said officers sent to investigate found two back windows open and the three bedrooms in the house ransacked, but Mrs. Malow reported that only the money was missing.

After searching the house, Van Tiem said, the thief left by the front door.

An Uncounted Blessing?

So numerous are the blessings for which we should be thankful that a complete list would not only be too space-consuming, but quite probably boring. In taking annual inventory at this Thanksgiving holiday, it occurs to us that one gift for which we should be especially grateful is the capacity to help others.

In this time of unprecedented prosperity we have also achieved new abilities in the constant struggle to give assistance to the less fortunate. The Share-the-Wealth dream may not be shared by all, but whether we like it or not, the very large proportion of the population is actively participating in this altruistic program. Taxes, high pressure charitable campaigns, etc. make us members of the team, willing or not. Graciously giving is an attribute to be greatly admired, but if all the causes which require help had to rely on this source alone, the battle to banish poverty, hunger, disease and suffering would be hopelessly lost.

We may not feel in complete sympathy with all the methods our governments discover and invent to get rid of the funds they extract from us, but we can be thankful that we live under a system which grants us freedom to express our views for or against the program. And being definite and important cogs in the machine which takes care of the distribution of the largesse, we are entitled to share the pride which such charity engenders.

Take time out to attempt to enumerate the myriad services which have been provided during the last year through your personal ability to earn enough so that you can share a considerable portion with those less privileged. Such a survey should generate a feeling that can be added to the endless blessing we enjoy on this Thanksgiving Day.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

As we prepare for Thanksgiving day, we, the members of the Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children, wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the many individuals and organizations who have contributed so significantly to the welfare of the mentally retarded.

Particularly, we are thankful for the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc., who, for so many years, has provided the only local training facilities for retarded children. We are thankful for the interest, concern and action taken by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in providing special classes for the slow learners and for the newly established classes at Pulaski School in Hamtramck for the more severely retarded.

We are thankful for the interest of the many churches and religious organizations who have provided religious training classes, physical facilities, and moral support. We are thankful for the financial support tendered by the Vismara Council, Knights of Columbus.

We also express our thanks to the Neighborhood Club and particularly its director, Mr. Krattli, for providing recreational facilities and program guidance. We are thankful for the League of Women Voters who have contributed directly and indirectly to the welfare of the mentally retarded and the Grosse Pointe High School volunteers and Junior League members who render invaluable assistance at the Foundation for Exceptional Children.

Indeed, we are thankful. Sincerely,
Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children
D. E. Hyde, President

To the Editor:
With ever increasing crescendo these days, it seems that the chorus of complaints against the teenager is arising. The exemplary actions of many teens are often hidden under the barrage of complaints raised against the few who offend.

It seems to me that often adults are committing the very offense about which they complain of in the teen. A case in point:
In our recent Paulite (year-book) ads campaign, my students received a letter from one of our respected advertisers. He complained, and justly I believe, of the lack of finesse on the part of one of the student ads collectors. Of course, we were grateful for the criticism, realizing that it is only through constructive criticism that we can correct our mistakes. Accordingly, we had an announcement given to the student body, informing them of the courtesy expected of any Paulite who expected to sell ads in the business community; next, we "corralled" the younger members of the school and graphically explained how they should present themselves to our advertisers; lastly, the editor wrote a letter of apology to the advertiser.

A few weeks later, another advertiser let a student ads collector cool his heels in the waiting room on three separate days, because the advertiser was "too busy to see a high school student just then." It did not seem to be important to this advertiser that he had made, and broken, three appointments with this student, that the student had had to go to considerable effort to keep these appointments. My letter of complaint to this advertiser was met with cold, stony silence.

Perhaps some part of teen difficulty lies with the adult world.

Sincerely yours,
Sister Marie Jude, O.P.
Paulite Adviser,
St. Paul School,
170 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

November 22, 1965

Dear Mr. Edgar:
We would like to extend our thanks to all the individuals and merchants who by their gifts of time, money, and effort made possible our Community Halloween party this year.

Now that our accounts are tallied we realize that the parties were attended by nearly 4,000 Grosse Pointe teens. It is a tribute to the cooperative effort of school officials, community leaders, parents, students, police, and many others that such an affair can be staged. Our thanks to all!

Sincerely yours,
FORREST GEARY,
MRS. KENNARD JONES,
ARTHUR DANNECKER,
for the Halloween Party Committee.

Crash Blamed On Pedestrian

Edward L. Craft, 62, of 4633 Nottingham in Detroit, drove into the rear of the car ahead of him Thursday, November 18, on Mack avenue, when the car stopped to avoid hitting a woman pedestrian, according to information received from police.

The driver of the other auto was James Edward Killmar, 34, of 5904 Hurlbut in Detroit.

Neither motorist was injured, and both cars were driven from the scene. The front end of Craft's vehicle was damaged, however.

Police recorded no violations.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Once upon a time, in the seventeenth century, a group of people in England raised VOICES IN DISSENT (Eckirch) in an effort to gain UNITY IN FREEDOM (Bea) to worship. AN AMERICAN DREAM (Mail-er) was born, and these people decided to immigrate to our country. BRAVE SHIP, BRAVE MEN (Lott) — we must give them credit, for ocean travel was hazardous in those days. HE WHO HESITATES (McBain) is lost, was their philosophy. THE ONLY THING WORTH FINDING (Pound) was A START IN FREEDOM (Foot), and so they set out on their perilous voyage. Little did they know that IN A FEW HANDS (Kefauver) was entrusted the future of the United States and its subsequent generations.

These were, of course, MEN OF PEACE (Smith) but at the same time they were possessed with A KIND OF ANGER (Ambler) at not being allowed to follow their dictates of their consciences. If, to their neighbors and their king, it was a QUESTION OF LOYALTY (Freeling) they paid no heed, but made the long hard trip regardless.

"AMERICA AT LAST" (White) was the cry, finally, after many a weary day and night. THE FASHIONABLE SAVAGES (Fairchild) who met them were indeed frightening. SMALL WONDER (Nelson) that they felt it prudent at times TO FEAR A PAINTED DEVIL (Rendell). They made every effort to keep peace with the Indians. CALL ME NEIGHBOR, CALL ME FRIEND (Johnson) was their slogan; they did not want to appear to be THE PALE BETRAYER (Davis) in any sense of the word.

THE STRATEGY OF PERSUASION (Meyerhoff) was certainly tried during the first year. But at many times it seemed a WINTER OF MADNESS (Walker). OUTSIDE THERE, SOMEWHERE (Kallen) they knew the savages lurked, often hostile. There was SNOW IN THE RIVER (Brink), food was scarce; THE ART OF SURVIVAL (Troebst) became an important one to the Pilgrims. They could not always be sure that THE BRIGHT FEATHERS (Culp) represented friendship. THE GIFTS THEY BRING (Buck), they told themselves, do not always mean peace, and so THE POWER BARREL (Haggard) was always close at hand. I WILL TRY (Kayira), each weary pioneer told himself, to play THE WAITING GAME (Wayland). They tried to tell each other that there was NO CAUSE FOR PANIC (Baker), for THE CASE FOR LIBERTY (Miller) was a strong one within each and every one. Their very existence became much like ONE SMALL CANDLE (Fleming) which they knew well that they were usurping a country which heretofore had belonged to the Red Man, and that the latter could be as CUNNING AS A FOX (Hunt). THE SOURCE (Michener) of the natives' discontent was certainly understandable. The Pilgrims' argument: THIS IS MY COUNTRY TOO (Williams) was not too well received. There was no need TO BORROW TRUBLE (Borgenicht) — our forefathers had all they could cope with!

And so these HEROES WITH-OUT GLORY (Schaefer), who wanted so badly to be THE WINNERS (Cortazar) battled valiantly through the first year. Often it was a case of GUNS AT THE FORKS (O'Meara), burned villages, scalplings, and bloody battles. It was a bitter period; on at least SEVEN OCCASIONS (Summers) they were ready, I am sure, to call it quits. But EVEN IN THE DEPTHS (Wilkinson) they never gave up. Wearily, as they looked ACROSS THE COMMON (Berridge), and visualized a SECOND SPRING AND TWO POTATOES (Chase), each one said to himself: YES I CAN! (Davis).

We all know the end of the story. There was finally AN END TO ARMS (Mills) — a cessation of hostilities — a time of celebration — a time of Thanksgiving. "COME OUT, COME OUT," (Malcolm-Smith) they called to each other joyfully, "and let us have a feast to celebrate." THE COOK'S BLESSINGS (Taylor) were bestowed, and Pilgrim and Indian alike broke bread together. WITH BLOOD AND IRON (Reeman), with gun and arrow, with anger and strife, the Red Man and the Englishman had fought it out, and now it was over. Our ancestors must always be remembered — THEY SHOWED THE WAY (Rollins), and became, so to speak, THE HARD WINNERS (Quirk). Today, in remembrance, we, too, celebrate our various Thanksgivings. With most of our creature comforts TAKEN CARE OF (Stiwell), we may tend to forget that first Thanksgiving of 1621. Thanks to these brave men and women, and those who followed as WANDERERS EASTWARD, WEST (Winsor), today we have the fine and wonderful country of these United States, in all of its power and glory.

Note: I wasn't at all sure it could be done! But here it is — the story of Thanksgiving, done with fifty new 1965 book titles. We hope you've survived it! HAPPY THANKSGIVING! (not a book title).

Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Five marks the 12th year for the White Christmas Ball, one of our town's MOST beautiful holiday charity parties.

The Ball, benefitting St. John Hospital, is scheduled for Saturday, December 11, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, to be transformed into a winter wonderland especially for the occasion.

Glimmering Christmas trees will line the club's foyer, and the main attraction—a huge maline Christmas tree, dripping gold and white ornaments—will be displayed in the ballroom.

General chairman of this year's White Christmas Ball is Mrs. James N. Motschall. Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., serves as general co-chairman.

Mrs. Homer Potts is president of the Fontbonne Auxiliary, which sponsors the party. Committee heads include Mrs. James A. Herrington, publicity; Mrs. Ronald Rinke, invitations; Mrs. James A. Danforth, reservations; and Mrs. Charles J. Burke, patrons.

Decorations, in the traditional gold and white theme, are the responsibility of Mrs. Roger Rinke.

Heading the program committee is Mrs. A. Joseph Hoski. Mrs. Thomas Baumgarten and Mrs. Philip Marco are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Franklin G. Quinkert is financial secretary and Mrs. Benson Ford is planning entertainment for the evening.

Ball proceeds will be donated to St. John's planned Intensive Care Unit, "a nursing unit that is staffed and equipped to handle seriously ill patients, requiring extraordinary care."

St. Paul's on the Lakeshore is Setting for Evening Ceremony; Newlyweds to Make their Home in Somerset Road

George Jeffrey Brett, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Charles Brett, of Lincoln road, claimed Marilyn Elizabeth Neesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peter Neesley, of McLean avenue, Detroit, as his bride Friday evening.

A reception at The Whittier Hotel followed the 8 o'clock ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore.

The bride chose a gown of came ivory peau de soie and embroidered Alencon lace. The rose-patterned lace formed her bodice, designed with a crescent decolletage and long, tapered sleeves, and trimmed her Court length Watteau train.

Her tiered silk illusion veil fell from an Elizabethan coif bow, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Douglas McLeod Breck was her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Anne Mather Brett and Patricia Ann Dalton.

Their gowns, fashioned of two-toned gold satin, were similar in style to that of the bride. Their headpieces were petal-veiled double circlets of matching satin, and their flower were gold and yellow-toned fall mums.

Donald Dauphin served as the bridegroom's best man. Seating the guests were Christopher Finlayson Brett, Leslie L. Neesley, Marcel S. Greenia and Ernest Joseph DuMouchelle.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Neesley chose a floor length gown of beige brocade. The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of Autumn haze delustered satin, with a long brown velvet coat lined to match the dress.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Brett will be making their home in Somerset road.

Just back from Palm Springs, Calif., is MRS. PHILIP O'CONNELL, of Wellington place, who has a special cause for rejoicing today. Mrs. O'Connell and her partner, MRS. E. R. JENNINGS, of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., formerly of Moross road, were winners in the Women's Thunderbird Invitational Golf Tournament, with a 135 low net score. Before the Women's competition started, Mrs. O'Connell teamed with DR. JENNINGS in another competition — naturally, they emerged the low net score winners in that one, too.

Hootenanny's Program Set

The annual fall Thanksgiving "Hoot" to be given at Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium this Friday evening, November 26, at 8:15 p.m. has finished rounding out its program.

The list of talent is impressive. Included are Pat Rabaut of Dominican High School, Leslie Tilly, Cathy Champion, Sue Radcliffe, Ellen Te Walt, Meg McIntosh, Linda Kahle, Sandy Forrest, Robin Wright, Sue Asmus, Jeanne Russell, Gari Mans, Jim Foresman, and Dick Stillwell and the Jug Band—all from Grosse Pointe High; Doug Dover, Brownell Junior High, Debby Renaud, Grosse Pointe University School; and Randy Wright of the University of Michigan.

A specialty sure to amuse the audience is the Draft Dodgers Rag to be presented by brothers Robin and Randy Wright. The girl trio of Sue Radcliffe, Ellen Te Walt and Meg McIntosh will do songs such as "Maria" and "I'll Never Find Another You." The biggest folk music hit ever produced on television "Puff, the Magic Dragon," will be presented by Linda Kahle and Sandy Forrest.

A change of pace will be effected by Gary Mann and Jim Foresman who display a

Offer Students Many Parties

In the next month the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and its Youth Council will offer three evening "Other Sides" and three Tuesday afternoon "Discotheques" to Grosse Pointe students in grades 9-12.

The "Night Crawlers" band will alternate every other week with other student bands at the Discotheque where beginning November 30 there will be an admission charge of 25 cents, which will include the contribution to the band and helps pay for clean-up and wear and tear.

The first evening "Other Side" in December will be on Saturday the fourth, in Fries Ballroom, from 8:30 to 11:30. "The Liberators" will provide the music for the evening.

Admission to the evening

"Other Sides" is 75 cents by tickets purchased in advance at the Center's office up until 7 p.m. only of the evening of the dance. Everyone purchasing a ticket must prove Grosse Pointe residency and attendance in school between grade 9 and 12. Student Association cards or school library cards are suggested as identification. All guests are required to register in advance and the Center retains the right to refuse entrance to anyone with a record of disorderly conduct.

Additional "Other Side" dates are December 18 and 28.

Ready For White Xmas Ball

Bundled up in anticipation of a snowy holiday season, MRS. FRED KOLOWICH, (left), and MRS. WILLIAM SIGSWORTH, JR., will trade their warm, fur-lined jackets, wool suits and boots for dazzling ball gowns Saturday, December 11. The ladies will join merrymakers at the 12th annual White Christmas Ball, benefitting St. John Hospital. Party scene is to be the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

College Women Plan Yule Party

The College Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party on Friday evening, December 3, in the home of Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann in Devonshire road, Grosse Pointe.

The highlight of the gathering will be Christmas readings, both serious and humorous, by Dr. Eugene Bohn, Professor of Speech at Wayne State University, who is currently writing a book on Oral Interpretations.

An interesting evening is assured because of the varied background of Dr. Bohn, which includes nine years abroad during which time he served with the State Department in Germany; served as Dean of Anatolia College in Greece; worked as Chief Historian for the American Red Cross; taught at Marburg University in Germany, and edited one of the first volumes of verse written by American soldiers and published in London.

During the summer of 1965 Dr. Bohn was director of the Oral Reading Symposium at the University of Denver.

SET PHONE FIRE

The management of Notre Dame Pharmacy, 17000 Kercheval, reported to police Sunday afternoon, November 14 that a group of boys had just set a fire to the phone book in the booth at Notre Dame and Kercheval. The boys had gone when officers arrived and the fire was out.

Junior League Plans Concert

The Junior League Glee Club headed by Mrs. Robert Tobin, and directed by Edward King, ins of operatic fame, will present two concerts of Christmas music both religious and popular, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in Alger House.

The first concert will be presented at 1:30 on December 8 for the Memorial's Senior Ladies group whom they will join for tea following the singing.

On Sunday, December 5, at 4:00 in the afternoon, the Glee Club will give a concert for their families, friends and the general public. Both concerts will be presented before the centuries old fireplace of the Great Hall of Alger House. In addition to the lovely and lively singing of the chorus, Mr. King-ins will sing several baritone solos.

And Fontaine Zipf, the accompanist who is a concert pianist in her own right, will offer several selections at the piano. There is of course no charge for these concerts, as they are offered in the spirit of Christmas.

MRS. FREDERICK E. UHL-LEIN entertained at a cocktail party Saturday evening in her home in Earl court.

Center Offers Travel Movies

The bridge from Asia to the States will be traversed Tuesday night, November 30, by Mr. and Mrs. Rip Zwickley when they show and comment on their color travel films in Fries Auditorium at 8 o'clock. The Grosse Pointe public and their guests are cordially invited free of charge.

In timely fashion the film begins in Saigon, Viet Nam, where the U.S. headquarters will be shown as well as the colorful features of this war-threatened but cosmopolitan capital including bicycle taxi cabs, the house boat dwellings, the floating restaurants, the vendors and the flower markets.

A Hongkong visit includes great harbor concentrations of junks, water buffalo, outdoor on-the-job cooking, modern architecture ranging from skyscrapers to box shanties used as refugee housing, and pictures of the Territory bordering Communist China.

Stopping in Taiwan the audience will be shown push cart railways, an oriental funeral procession, a wedding dance, an aborigine village, and be received in a grand hotel owned by Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek.

The Imperial Hotel in Tokyo is the next stop with its unusual Frank Lloyd Wright annex. In Japan the buildings of the National Government are shown, the shopping centers and the elevated trains. In the country Japan's great natural beauty is captured—her mountains, water falls and the national preserves. Both the centers of religion and night life and entertainment are depicted.

From highly civilized Japan to Alaska is quite a transition—lonely glaciers replace cultivated parks and skinboats, but Nome and Fairbanks have their charm as everyone who comes to the Center will see.

Girl Scout Tea Set for Nov. 30

The Annual Christmas Tea for Grosse Pointe District Girl Scout directors, leaders, and mothers will once again be held at The Hospitality House in The Village on Tuesday, November 30, from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Those interested in Scouts are invited to drop in and have a cup of tea with a grand group of ladies.

Kids' Culture Class Planned

In the European tradition, a candlemas term will be offered for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial pre-school set. The pre-school culture classes will begin a new term on Wednesday morning December 1. The hours are 9:30 to 11:30 each Wednesday for 10 weeks with vacation over the holidays.

Enrollment is limited to 35 three to five-year-olds. Three trained teachers Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Doelle and Mrs. Peters initiate the boys and girls into the world of music, art and literature.

Classes are held in the Center's recreation room where the sound of the phonograph mingles with the smell of paint and rhythm of recitation. Each child is encouraged to bring his favorite things and the teachers fit them into the budding cultural patterns they are fashioning.

Those interested in enrolling their children are encouraged to do so in advance in the Center's office. The fee is $25 for the term.

DRC To Mark 74th Birthday

One of the oldest clubs in the area, the Detroit Review Club, is celebrating its 74th birthday Monday, November 29, at the Women's City Club, with a President's Day Tea honoring life members and past presidents.

Mrs. Marvin C. Dahnke, of Roslyn road, president of DRC, will act as official hostess, with Mrs. Wayne Garrett, of Farmington, acting as chairman of the day.

Born in 1891, on November 30, the Review Club has printed programs since its first club year, programs which indicate the many changes in club programming and club activities since the "Gay Nineties."

Started as a strictly cultural club, with emphasis on music, art and literature, the club became a pioneer in 1895 in creating social changes. With no organized social welfare at the turn of the century, club women united to serve the welfare needs of the community.

A charter member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Michigan Federation and the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, the Detroit Review Club became active in helping to change the social structure of Detroit.

An active member in 1908-1910 was the late Delphine Dodge Ashbaugh, DRC club president, who helped found the Salvation Army Auxiliary and went on to become president of the Detroit Federation and Michigan Federation, which were actively creating social and cultural changes.

At one time Mrs. Ashbaugh was quoted as saying: "In spite of the Alladin-like changes wrought during the last half of the 19th Century, in my estimation, the greatest gift the 20th Century will inherit, will be the remedying of the ills of our social structure, by dedicated club women!"

DRC has contributed funds throughout the years to scholarships, student loans, children's camp, CARE, Girlstown, the

Hospital Board Changes Name

The Board of Directors of Woman's Hospital has voted to change the name from Woman's to Hutzel Hospital.

Changing the name of Woman's Hospital is not a new idea. In fact, Woman's Hospital has been a general hospital since 1918, when patients were admitted for abdominal surgery other than gynecology, and the first male patient was admitted the same year.

There are many reasons why the name should be changed. Residents, except for obstetrics, and interns could not be attracted to the hospital because they thought of it as an OB hospital for women only, and others would also think so after the resident went into practice.

At present the medical and surgical patients are three to one over the obstetrical patients.

The hospital will continue as a general hospital in the Medical Center complex even though all the obstetrics for the Medical Center will be located at Woman's Hospital.

The medical staff have from time to time urged the Board to consider changing the name of the hospital since it was difficult to get male patients to accept admission to an institution where the name designation appeared to make it for women only.

Mrs. Leonore Hutzel, a graduate of the Farrand School of Nursing at Harper Hospital and the University of Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy. She returned to Detroit in 1915 to join the staff of the "Woman's Hospital and Infants Home" as Director of the Social Service Department.

She held that position until 1922, when she was recruited by William Norton, then head of the "Detroit Community Chest," to take over the newly organized Women's Division of the Detroit Police Department.

At that time she became a member of the Board of Managers of Woman's Hospital and Administrative Committee, which later became the Social Service Committee. She became chairman of the Social Service Committee in January, 1943, and she still chairs this committee most effectively.

Miss Hutzel also has had long association with the Budget Committee, which was organized in 1937. She served as its secretary until the committee was dissolved in December, 1954. The Finance Planning

Lawyers' Wives Plan Seminar December 8

Lawyers' Wives of Michigan will hold a Public Relations seminar for Metropolitan Detroit Auxiliaries on December 8 at the Women's City Club.

In a continuing effort to promote a better relationship and understanding between the general public and lawyers, officers and delegates from the following auxiliaries have been invited to participate: Lawyers' Wives of Dearborn, Detroit, St. Clair, Macomb County, Washenaw County, Grosse Pointe, Oakland County, Italian-American Lawyers' Wives and Advocates of Detroit.

Moderators of the seminar will be Mrs. Floyd Wetmore, president of Lawyers' Wives of Michigan, and Mrs. John J. Pollina, Association Public Relations chairman.

Committee was then organized, and she became a member of that.

Miss Hutzel was appointed to the Board of Trustees in 1939. She served as Third Vice President from 1960 to date. Miss Hutzel also has been Chairman of the Joint Conference Committee, which is a committee made up of Trustees and physicians, since June, 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Butler, of Indianapolis, Ind., former residents of Cloverly road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lou Butler, to David L. Wilmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilmer, of Indianapolis.

Miss Butler was graduated from Purdue University where she is completing her master's degree. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and Angel Flight honorary.

Opera Auditions Slated Dec. 4, 6

Robert Blafeld, artistic director of the Berkshire Opera Association and musical director of the Berkshire Play House, will serve as the sole judge for the preliminary auditions for the Grinnell Foundation of Music $2,500 opera scholarship and other awards given through the Metropolitan Opera National Council Regional Audition program.

The preliminary auditions will be held in the Masonic Temple in Detroit, Saturday, December 4, and Monday, December 6. Final auditions will take place on Thursday, February 10.

According to Mrs. Sab B. Williams, Scholarship chairman, Detroit Grand Opera Association, the arrangement to bring Mr. Blafeld to Detroit is a departure from past custom. Previously, the preliminary auditions have been heard by a panel of local judges. Now, for the first time, the judge will be one individual, imported from beyond the audition area.

Mr. Blafeld is a graduate of the Robert Shaw Chorale and is prominent in the New York and Massachusetts areas as a conductor, opera coach and vocal teacher.

Applications for the 1965-66 auditions are now being accepted by Mrs. Williams through the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Ford Auditorium, Detroit 48226.

St. Paul High Has Hag Dance

St. Paul's annual Hag Dance was held on Wednesday, November 24, from 8-11:30 p.m. in the high school's all-purpose room. To this one dance in the school's social year, the girls treated the boys. The obligation of paying, however, was accompanied by the privilege given each girl of choosing her own date.

The Junior class is traditionally responsible for the traditionally popular dance. This year, so that every Junior might participate, the class was divided into committees for decorations, refreshments, refreshments, etc. under the direction of Julie Phillip and Doug DiLaura, class social chairman.

quite naturally on Dogpatch's own Sadie Hawkins' day. Giant-sized murals of famed Dogpatch characters, the Yokums, designed by Christine Hyde, watched Paulites and their dates monkey, frog, and jerk to the beat of The Other Guys, a neighborhood group. Chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Desmet, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Phillip, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Zens, Mr. and Mrs. David Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevens. With the proceeds from this dance and future Junior class projects, the Juniors will treat the Senior class to the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet in May.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Western Michigan University School of Education.

Mr. Whitton, of Columbus, O., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Herbert Whitton, formerly of Grosse Pointe, and now of Topanga, Cal. He was graduated from the School of Business Administration at Western Michigan University where he was affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon and Pi Sigma Epsilon.

Triple Threat At Town Hall

Tom Ewell, star of stage, screen and radio, will be Detroit Town Hall's final guest before the holiday recess when he appears at the Fisher Theater December 1 in "The Many Faces of Laughter."

The 11 a.m. show will be followed by a luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Ewell has continued his speaking tour following a quick opening and close on Broadway in "Xmas in Las Vegas." Perhaps he is best known for his leading roles in the long-running hits "John Loves Mary" and "The Seven Year Itch." He also made the movie version of the former play with co-star Marilyn Monroe.

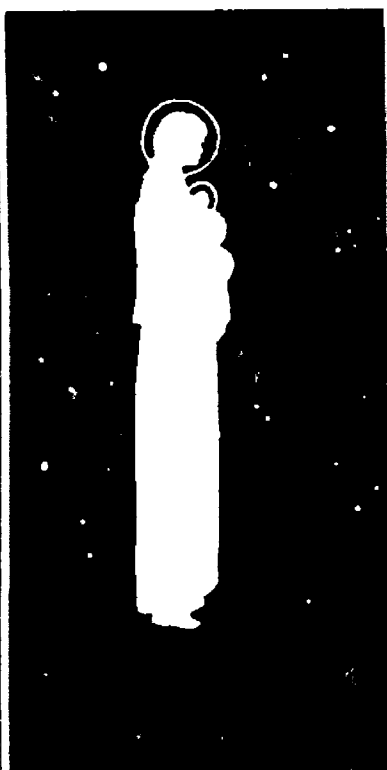

Ewell and his wife, Marjorie, have a daily Mr. and Mrs. radio show in New York which is zany and informative enough to catch a large audience.

At Town Hall Ewell will do sketches and stories from the works of America's great humorists, including Robert Benchley, James Thurber, Fred Allen, Will Rogers W. C. Fields, Mark Twain, Ogden Nash, Stephen Leacock, E. B. White and Ring Lardner.

Special arrangements for student groups may be made by contacting the Detroit Town Hall office.

College Dance This Saturday

"The Yardsmen" will play for the Collegians Thanksgiving weekend party at Grosse Pointe War Memorial this Saturday evening at 8:30, billed as "Turkey A-Go-Go." "Turkey A-Go-Go" is open only to Grosse Pointers who are collegians or are high school graduates of college age. Admission is 75 cents per person, either date or non date.

Dress will be informal, but sweaters and slacks for the Picture a walnut-paneled office with leather upholstered chairs, copy transmitter-receiver, dictating machine, two telephones, conference table, typewriter, reading lamp, air conditioner, television set —and a 440 cu. in. V8 under it.

Or, see the Imperial Mobile Executive at the Detroit Auto Show. There's never been an automobile like this before. It's an executive suite on wheels, equipped with almost every conceivable convenience. For business en route, the front passenger seat swivels 180° to face a conference table, two telephones, dictating machine and copy transmitter-receiver. Rear seating is no less distinctive. Twin bucket seats are equipped with recliner backs and lift-up headrests. Detachable pillows add still more comfort to moments of relaxation. Western steerhide upholstery and 100-year-old claro walnut paneling further enrich the private office atmosphere. The Imperial Mobile Executive is an original. There are no copies. But the rest of the Imperials do share many of the same luxuries—all the more reason not to miss the Imperial exhibit at the Detroit Auto Show.

Introduce Skiers To Plastic SNOW

Approximately 2,000 skiers visited Silverbell Village Ski Area, near Lake Orion, recently to witness a professional demonstration on plastic "snow." It is believed to be the first of its type in this area.

A team of five professional instructors from the U.S. Ski Assn. (Central Division) and major Michigan ski resorts inaugurated the all-weather slope. Included were Nubs Nob, Boyne Highland, Caberfae, Sylvan Nob, Sugar Loaf and Silverbell. The public also skied on the plastic, with donations going to the USSA fund for the 1966 world championships and junior racing programs throughout the Midwest.

Trophies were awarded by Danforth Holley, developer of Holley plastic snow, to the professional and amateur with the fastest times in downhill racing.

The result of three years of research by Holley Plastics Co., Warren, Michigan, the light, clear plastic flakes make skiing possible year around. Plastic snow is now undergoing tests for possible use for training of the U.S. Olympic Ski Team. It is also recommended for fall ski schools, beginner's slopes, and at the top and bottom of lift areas where it is difficult to maintain good coverage with real snow.

On beginner's slopes crushed ice is used in conjunction with the plastic to slightly increase speed. On steeper inclines, ice is not needed.

Plastic snow is inexpensive, compared to the cost of as much as $1,000 per day for making artificial snow, and acts as a natural insulator for real snow.

Expect 250,000 at Auto Show

The Detroit Auto Dealers Association is gearing for the biggest production in its history in observance of the Detroit Auto Show's 50th anniversary—November 27 through December 5.

Approximately 250,000 visitors are expected to see the new models as the show moves to mammoth Cobo Hall for the first time. Attendance at the 1965 model show was 150,000 in the Detroit Artillery Armory where it was held in recent years.

This year's dates are the earliest for any Detroit dealer show since 1958.

The show will occupy the entire main floor of Cobo Hall where visitors will be able to see and compare in comfort all of the new domestic cars, as well as the imports, under one big roof.

The National Automobile Shows of 1960 and 1962 were the only ones previously held in Cobo Hall. Success of these shows contributed to the DADA's decision to move this year.

New chairman of the Detroit Auto Show is Harry Tenyson. Boyce Tope, DADA executive vice-president, is show manager for the ninth year.

or Come as You Are! Due to requests from new members who wish to participate in the annual party, and because this event is limited to 40 persons, or one busload, anyone interested should make reservations not later than Wednesday, December 1, Olden-camp and Schultz said.

For reservations, or more information, contact Arthur Schultz at TU5-0237.

The first home to be visited will be that of George P. Johnson, 1034 Whittier road; second, Don Cherry, 4 Stratford place; third, Hamilton Kothner, 21 Carmel lane; and fourth, Anthony Mutschall, 66 Webber place.

Following the tour, the bus will return to the Shore Club House, 1300 Shore Club drive, St. Clair Shores where parking is ample.

Ski Instruction Offered to Club

Round the world Grosse Pointe skier, Rex Clavola, who has run the ski clinics at many places, will give free ski instruction, show a training film, and lead getting-in-shape exercises at Grosse Pointe War Memorial for the Ski Hi Club, Sunday afternoon, December 5, at 2 o'clock in Fries Auditorium.

All Ski-Hi members and prospective members are invited to attend this ski clinic and training session. Ski or very casual clothes should be worn, and all who have ski equipment are urged to bring it along so they may be shown how best to adjust it and use it. The Ski Hi Club is open to all Grosse Pointe students in grades 9-12.

Rex is known to many of the young people not only through his ski patrol work, but also through his connection with the Tuxis organization at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Ski Hi members are urged to come prepared to sign up and make a $20 deposit (non-refundable) on the Christmas vacation ski trip which will be four days staying at their own lodge at Wolverine, and skiing at Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob, and Thunder Mt. with all transportation, meals, lodging, insurance, ski insurance, entertainment and chaperonage included for $36.50 between December 26 and 29.

Basketball Loop Being Formed

Boys, 16 to 19 years old, who are interested in playing basketball in an organized league at Pierce Junior High School on Wednesday and Thursday nights can do the following things:

(1) Form a team of at least seven players.

(2) Register the team and team name with the Neighborhood Club, TU 5-4600, by December 1.

(3) Be prepared to pay a $5 Neighborhood Club membership fee before your first game.

Club Forming Basketball Loop

A basketball league for males 19 and older is being formed by the Neighborhood Club, at Pierce Junior High School, to provide good recreation and enjoyment for all participants.

Professional style basketball is not the aim but the elimination of midriff bulge. If you are interested in playing basketball under game conditions in an organized league you can do one of two things. You can form a team and pay a $50 team membership, or you can register your name at the Neighborhood Club, TU 5-4600, and we will try to form a team for you.

Registration deadline is December 8. All games will be played on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday nights at Pierce Junior High School.

Top Guitarist Giving Concert

One of the foremost classical guitarists of Mexico will make his debut performance in Detroit next week under the sponsorship of the Classical Guitar Society of Michigan. He is Gonzalo Torres, 29-year-old prodigy from Guanajuato and Mexico City, who is including Detroit on his U. S. itinerary for the first time.

He will present a program of guitar music on Friday, December 3 at 8:30 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts. Tickets are $2 and will be available at the door.

Mr. Torres' program will include music by Tarrega, Bach, Croppin, and Villa Lobos, as well as one of the artist's own compositions and some Flamenco. He will conclude the evening with his own arrangements of popular pieces such as Laura, the theme from Black Orpheus, and Girl from Ipanema.

As a part of its sponsorship, the guitar society has arranged to have Mr. Torres offer master classes and private lessons during the 10 day period following his concert. Any guitarist interested may apply at the concert ticket desk or through Alex Sucek at his Wednesday night guitar classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Though youthful, Mr. Torres already has 20 years experience on the guitar. He began playing at the age of nine and gave his first concert when he was 13. He attended the Mexico Conservatory before he was 20 and has won the praise of the world's number one guitarist, Andres Segovia.

At present, he is a permanent member of Mexico's internationally famed Dona-Dio Quartet, the only group of its kind in the world presenting classically styled arrangements of music of every type from folk tunes and Bossa Nova to music of the masters.

Kalamazoo College's freshmen will receive $244,825 in scholarships, campus employment and college loans this year.

Babe Ruth Loop Holds Election

Last Monday night the Board of Governors of the Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League held the election of officers and the following were selected—president, Dave Marstiller; vice-presidents, Don Blomquist and Bud Uhalik; treasurer, Mike Pastor; secretary, Jerry Addy.

The following men were elected to act as chairman of these committees—Equipment, Hal Zink; sponsors, Bob Palmer; player's agent, Joe Hughes; fields and umpires, Chuck Bolton; special events, George Dereere.

The league has added a new plan into the program this year in an effort to provide closer relationship between the two divisions of the league and the Board.

For this reason there are now two vice-presidents. For the All-American League the vice-president is Bud Uhalik and for the Automotive, Don Blomquist. These men will be responsible for all activities of their respective leagues.

The Board is still in need of a few members and if any father of a boy in the league or coming into the league, would be interested in helping on the Board, please contact Dave Marstiller at 884-5056.

Youth Injured In Car Crackup

Jerome P. Crandall, Jr., 17, of 973 Westchester, lost control of a car he was driving on Sunday, November 21, and crashed into a parked station wagon in front of 77 Vernier road. He suffered two broken ribs.

According to a Shores police report, Crandall was traveling east on Vernier road, when he lost control of his car, and crashed into the station wagon, which belonged to the Shell Manufacturing company of Warren, and assigned to Eugene Mischak of the Vernier address.

Crandall was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Patrolman Donald Fronczak in the Shores police ambulance. The officer said he was assisted by James T. Browe, 26, of 14001 Gratiot, Detroit, who happened by after the accident.

The amount of damage was not disclosed, but a report showed that the front of the station wagon was damaged, and the front and right side of Crandall's car.

Fails to Yield Right of Way

A car driven by Patrick Ross Webb, 17, of 405 Rivard, struck another auto in the right side Tuesday morning, November 15, when Webb failed to yield the right of way while driving south on University at Kercheval.

The driver of the other car, Dr. Soo-Ning Ho, 30, of 1346 Chalmers in Detroit, was traveling east on Kercheval at the time of the collision, 7:45 a.m.

In the car with Webb at the time of the crash were Peggy O'Neal, 17, of 828 University, and Phyllis Weber, 17, of 463 McKinley. Owner of the car is Read Hartz, 208 North Shore drive, St. Clair Shores.

Webb was ticketed for reckless driving resulting in an accident.

Both cars had to be towed away.

21R—CEMENT WORK

University School Notes

Dr. Mark Van Doren addressed the Upper School on Thursday, November 18. He was introduced by Dr. Hugh Riddleberger, Headmaster of the University School.

Dr. Van Doren is a graduate of the University of Illinois and Columbia University where he received his Ph.D. in English. Prior to 1960 he served for about 20 years on the Columbia University faculty. In 1939 he was the Pulitzer Prize winner in poetry.

Dr. Van Doren began his informal talk to the student body by telling them a story about himself. He said he was in a dome car heading for Knox College when a man asked him if he was a preacher. He replied that he was not. "Well," the other man said, "I saw you had a book."

With this introduction Dr. Van Doren talked about whether writing poetry or doing anything artistic was difficult. He said that work involves conscious effort over any period of time with the details in mind of what has to be achieved. As an example he used the violin. No one has played the violin the right way the first time. We therefore have to learn how to do things. The same is true of all the arts. If we did not have the arts, we would not be human. An animal is not inferior to us but different in that it does not have to be taught. We spend all our lives trying to find out what it means to be human. In other words, according to Dr. Van Doren, everything about a human being is artificial or a product of art.

Men tend to be excessive. We are supposed to admire moderation, according to Dr. Van Doren, but no one he knows does everything in moderation. We do not sleep enough, and we eat too much. It is hard to be temperate.

Like all the arts, it is hard to succeed in poetry. Things that are done easily are probably not successful. Any poem is hard to write. It should sound easy and seem easy to read. The difference between a good poet and a great poet is constant practice. Dr. Van Doren said. One of the disciplines the poet must master is the ability to write about something that does not interest him.

Dr. Van Doren finished his talk by reading two poems from a group of his called "Dunce Songs."

Mrs. Robert Versichele spoke to Mrs. Olga Doherty's third grade class at Mason School on Tuesday, November 9. The class had extended an invitation to Mrs. Versichele through her daughter, Christine, to report on her experience and knowledge of rural life in Switzerland.

She graciously accepted this assignment to serve as a resource person for the class.

The speaker enriched the children's study of food by presenting a vivid, comprehensive, and detailed description of

How would YOU feel . . . if you'd spent two years working on a Big Project, then moved out of town just DAYS before the Project was scheduled to "come off?" Annette (Mrs. Stanley R.) Tucker, who faithfully and competently handled publicity assignments for the recent Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Christmas Fair, may not have been able to make the Fair in person — but she was certainly present in spirit. We were very glad to hear that the Tuckers have settled into their new home in Clearwater, Fla., and are thoroughly enjoying the warm sunshine and blue water right outside their windows . . . Lucky people!

The Shores Room . . . at Stouffers' Eastland was the scene of a family gathering Sunday, as the EIGHTY-EIGHT members of Margaret Carnaghi's immediate family met to celebrate Mrs. C's 75th birthday. Present were her 12 children and their families, including her three sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carnaghi, of Cadieux road, Mr. and Mrs. John Carnaghi, of Lake Shore lane, and Mr. and Mrs. James Carnaghi, of St. Clair Shores, (Mrs. Carnaghi had another son, the late Joseph Carnaghi, Jr.), and her nine daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bonamy, of Kensington road, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chancey, of Grand Marais boulevard, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coulson, of East Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas DeCorte, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Einheuser, of Saddle lane, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hays, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kramer, of Three Mile drive, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Rene Russette, of St. Clair Shores. Mrs. Carnaghi, wife of the late Joseph P. Carnaghi and a resident of Grosse Pointe since 1929, (she makes her home in Three Mile drive), was also pleased to see her 49 grandchildren — the married ones brought along their wives or husbands — and her seven great-grandchildren, none of whom would willingly miss the birthday dinner, a yearly event which serves the double purpose of honoring The Lady-Who-Started-It-All and bringing the entire family together for a gala celebration just before the Holiday Season.

Prize for the best "cast-hider" of the century . . . goes to Mrs. Willard Worcester, of Ridge road, who accidentally broke her collar bone last month, cleverly chose her clothes and accessories to conceal the plaster on her shoulders, succeeded so well that we'd defy ANYONE to detect the cast's existence!

Dr. Harry C. Meserve's note on The Affluent Society . . . printed in a recent issue of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church newsletter, is so delightful we feel it bears repeating: It seems that Dr. Meserve was standing in the Church foyer one day when he noticed a man taking pictures of the building's exterior. This didn't bother Dr. Meserve, (the new Unitarian Church is an interesting building, and many people take pictures of it), but he was a bit nonplussed when the photographer explained that his pictures were for presentation to Cadillac salesmen, and could the Minister please remove "those old cars by the door — I guess they belong to some workmen." "Those old cars" happened to be the Church secretary's Plymouth and Dr. Meserve's own Volkswagen. After a short conversation, the Minister complied with the photographer's request. But the incident set him to musing . . . "We hope by now that the pictures of our Church minus the 'old cars' is inspiring the Cadillac people to new and greater efforts in behalf of the American Dream. We're not so sure though. The other day, the furnace man came to our house to put a new switch on our heater — and he was driving a Mercedes Benz!"

Those Mr. McCourt balloons . . . do get around! One bobbed all the way to Jamestown, N.Y., recently, where Newton Beadle, RFD No. 4, Shadyside road, found it in his garden, read the stamped-on name and address, and sent a post card to the shoe store in The Village, informing Mr. McCourt's staff that one of their green balloons, with a short string attached, had managed to cross Canada.

PILFERINGS

A woman who had just completed a Red Cross course in artificial respiration was crossing the street one day. She found a man lying face-down in a flooded gutter. Quickly she rushed to his aid. She turned him over on his back and began to apply the so-called "kiss of life," breathing into his mouth. The man suddenly sat up and pushed the woman away from him.

TOP BOOT SLASHED
Dolores C. Krause, 17580 Mack, Apt. 17, reported to police that she parked her car at the rear of her apartment at 6 p.m. Friday, November 5, and found the boot that covers the convertible top slashed at 12 p.m. Friday, November 6. Nothing was missing from the trunk, she said.

WINDOWS SHATTERED
H. R. Kreider of 70 Kerby road, reported to Farms police on Saturday, November 13, that unknown persons threw two rocks through the 3x3-foot storm window, and 10x12-inch house window of his house, shattering the glass. He said he was unable to describe the vandals who committed the act.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. DOUGLAS L. PATERSON AND "GINGER," OF NOTRE DAME AVENUE.

By Janet Mueller

A few lucky ladies — like Geraldine Paterson — manage to be completely feminine, and at the same time to be completely "capable," expert in handling executive duties, details and arrangements with quiet aplomb.

There's nothing Gerry Paterson likes more than a personal gift from her husband, a lovely decorated sweater, for instance.

"There isn't a pretty sweater I have that he hasn't bought me," she claims, adding with a smile, "His taste is better than mine!"

Question of whose-taste-is-better aside, we can't help thinking that it must be easy for a husband to buy pretty things for a pretty wife, a petite, blue-eyed blond who loves people, parties, bright colors . . . in short, a woman who likes being a woman.

But Mrs. Paterson is a woman who also likes being a person in her own right, someone who enjoys activities and responsibilities.

Gerry Paterson, who worked as a secretary before her marriage and is familiar with office routine, frankly looks forward to occasional sessions "helping out" in her husband's law office, "if he needs me."

Invaluable Training
And she considers her secretarial training invaluable in her present position as president of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the Lawyers' Wives of Michigan, a statewide organization whose branches carry out, at the local level, a triple purpose: To promote a better relationship and understanding between the general public and lawyers, to cooperate with local and state Bar Associations, and to promote good fellowship among families of members of the legal profession.

The Patersons have lived in Grosse Pointe, in their present home in Notre Dame avenue, since 1948. Twelve years ago, they acquired the third member of their family, a "Michigan Careless," (the veterinarian refers to him as a "scocker"), named Ginger.

Mr. Paterson has been an attorney since 1934, and a judge in Grosse Pointe City's Justice, (now Municipal), Court since 1952, a job which keeps him busy every second and fourth Tuesday night every other month, on a regular basis. He's also "on call" for emergencies, except, of course, when he and Gerry are traveling.

The Patersons like to travel, although they haven't had many opportunities to tour outside North America. Normally, because of time limitations, they travel by plane rather than car.

Likes Jamaica Best

They've visited New York, Banff, Lake Louise and Jasper, and to Florida many times, and fell in love with Jamaica, which is — so far! — Gerry Paterson's favorite place in all the world.

She'd "love to go back to Jamaica," sometimes plays calypso records in her Pointe home, sets a mood, and "thinks" herself onto the Caribbean Island.

The Patersons' traveling companions for the past 15 years have been Kay and Harry Reich, former Pointers who now make their home in St. Clair Shores.

Gerry admits it's a bit unusual for two unrelated couples to be as compatible as the Reichs and the Patersons, but facts speak for themselves: Mr. and Mrs. Reich and Mr. and Mrs. Paterson have spent at least two weeks per year traveling together since 1951 — and they've enjoyed every minute of their "shared" vacations! A favorite Paterson "refresher" is a spur-of-the-moment long weekend. Gerry and her husband believe several of these short breaks in a 12-month period are great tonics and morale builders.

"They break the monotony," Gerry explains, "I sometimes feel a long weekend does a person just as much good as a long vacation . . . maybe even more good!"

Has Eyes on Orient

Still, she's hoping for a long, (several weeks'), vacation next year, has her fingers crossed and her eyes on The Orient.

Temperamentally, she's more interested in "people" than "things," prefers activities to sedentary hobbies. She likes to golf and to bowl, and does both with enthusiastic skill.

Since 1958, she's been a Red Cross hospital volunteer, donating one day a week to the patients at Bon Secours. She was the first co-chairman of Bon Secours' Red Cross Volunteers.

"Volunteer work is different in different hospitals," she explains. "At Bon Secours, the Red Cross Volunteers help with admitting procedures, take patients to laboratory and X-ray departments, for their initial tests, distribute mail, keep the Chaplain's Book, run medication errands, do miscellaneous filing, help out with the patients in general . . . I enjoy this volunteer work very much."

"Enjoying what she does very much" is the key to Gerry Paterson's personality. In a Really Big job, such as her presidency of The Grosse Pointe Branch of the Lawyers' Wives of Michigan, she functions beautifully — because she knows what has to be done, knows how to do it, and loves every minute of her work.

Keeps Plans Secret

She's already looking ahead to Law Day, May 1. "We have a marvelous plan for Law Day, but our program's not complete yet, so I won't say anything about it . . . except that we'll offer something new and different for the whole community, in Fries Auditorium."

To "promote a better relationship between the general public and lawyers," the Pointe Branch of Lawyer's Wives sponsors a table at the annual January War Memorial exhibit designed to acquaint newcomers to the area with the functions and aims of local organizations.

Twelve of the 140 members of the Grosse Pointe Branch helped staff the State Bar of Michigan's booth at the State Fair last year; Grosse Pointe Branch members were on the booth staff the year before last, too, and plan to help out at the State Fair display again next year.

In December, the Pointe Branch is having a tea for members and prospective members, to which members have been asked to bring gifts for neglected and underprivileged children, to be distributed at the discretion of the Wayne County Probate Court, Juvenile Division.

Judge Lincoln To Appear

Judge James H. Lincoln, head of the Juvenile Division, has accepted the Pointe Branch's invitation to be present at this tea, December 15.

"I wish I could tell you how many gifts were brought to last year's tea!" Gerry Paterson exults. "There were too many to count — and this year, we anticipate even more!"

The Grosse Pointe Branch of Lawyers' Wives of Michigan has only one fund-raising activity each year, a spring luncheon and fashion show, scheduled in April, at Lochmoor Club.

Proceeds from past luncheon-fashion show parties have been used for various purposes. The Pointe Lawyers' Wives have sponsored lay school scholarships and assisted the Juvenile Court Camp Fund.

Last year, they raised $775 dollars, turned into "frosting" for Wayne County's juvenile charges. "By 'frosting,' we mean things you and I would call absolute necessities," Gerry explains, "dentures . . . eyeglasses . . . hearing aids . . . all the things these children don't have."

Pointe Branch Young

The Grosse Pointe Branch of Lawyers' Wives of Michigan is a fairly young organization. It was formed in '59, (the state organization, incidentally, is fairly young itself; it recently celebrated its eighth birthday).

Gerry has been a member of the Branch since 1961, began her one-year term as president last May.

She admits the presidency keeps her busy — "It's a lot of work" — but she enjoys being busy — "I like activity." Her first big task was laying out the organization's schedule for the year; since then, she's been "finalizing plans as I go along."

Her Lawyers' Wives agenda includes three general membership meetings a year, plus a Board meeting every month, (including the winter holiday season, but excluding summer).

So far, her busiest month has been September, when she served as vice-chairman of Lawyers' Wives' three-day state convention in Detroit, a job she describes as "very, very interesting."

She is also a delegate to the state Lawyers' Wives, (a two-year office), representing the Grosse Pointe Branch at state meetings, one-day sessions scheduled two or three times a year in Lansing.

She's impressed with the enthusiasm of her own Branch members: "Those members who are active are very enthusiastic. And they are hard workers — they really put forth a TREMENDOUS amount of effort!"

Want New Members

But, like all "presidents," she wouldn't mind enrolling a few more active, enthusiastic, hard-working members in her organization, mentions that any wife or widow of an attorney, faculty member or dean of a law school is eligible to join Lawyers' Wives.

Gerry Paterson loves living in Grosse Pointe, wouldn't want to live anywhere else . . . "except, maybe, Jamaica, if we were retired . . ."

"But I wouldn't want really to be 'in a retired state' — I can't even sit on a beach for more than two hours without getting restless! And my husband is the same sort of person; I couldn't imagine him as 'retired' . . ."

As long as there are things to do, places to go, people to see, Gerry Paterson is a happy woman. "I like to be doing something — and I like to do most everything," she says with a smile.

As always, she smiles with her eyes as well as her lips. Gerry's is a particularly feminine smile, honest but ever-so-slightly impish.

Rotarians Hear Reverend Rauth

Grosse Pointe Rotary Club members heard Reverend Andrew F. Rauth in his traditional Thanksgiving season message, Monday, this, Reverend "Andy's" 22nd talk before the club in the past 19 years was entitled "A Reasonable Thanksgiving." He elaborated on the many things a person might be thankful for at this time. Through history we have had many days of thanksgiving in many countries including our own going back to the Fall of 1620 with the Pilgrim Fathers.

We must be of a responsible mind and must have humility in this, our Thanksgiving Season. Reverend Rauth asked, "How does one conceive of a reasonable Thanksgiving?" He then gave at least three guide lines — One must be grateful in humility for the many things tangible and intangible. Thanks must be directed to someone, be it a parent, a wife, a child, etc. We must stand and be thankful and grateful for the present defenders of democracy.

We must also include in this reasonable approach to Thanksgiving thanks to a Supreme Being. Reverend "Andy" here quoted Psalm 118, 1st Verse, "Oh give thanks unto the Lord for He is good because His mercy endureth forever."

Reverend Rauth, pastor at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church since 1943, has been most active in the local Rotary since 1943 including serving as club president in 1960-61. In these 19 years he has maintained a perfect attendance record of weekly attending Rotary wherever he may have been.
