SGT. HERBERT C. COOLEY, president of Pontiac's police union, urged his members to stop calling in sick and go back to work. In an appeal on a Pontiac radio station he said, "If you are not really sick, it is your responsibility to the city to be on the job. It is the position of the association to exhaust all means of settlement before a strike." Cooley and Pontiac City Manager, Joseph Warren said later that both sides had agreed to fact-finding in the three-month old salary dispute that started the "sick calls."

AN INTENSIFICATION of the bombing of North Vietnam is being drafted by Defense Department planners. President Johnson is expected by The Pentagon to approve the escalation. It was reported that the focus of the new assaults would be railroad junctions, freight yards, power plants and defense factories, particularly those in the vicinity of Hanoi. The President was unwilling to announce these plans before the Manila conference for fear of jeopardizing any chance of North Vietnam negotiating an end to the war. He also did not want to intensify bombing before the elections, lest he alienate voters.

PENDING A TRIAL board hearing into the tear gas bombing of the George Hudson home, Donald Ashcroft, a probationary lieutenant of the Highland Park police was suspended without pay. Ashcroft led officers investigating a complaint into the Hudson home on Oct. 16. The Hudsons were offered a cash settlement and given a formal apology by the city of Highland Park at a meeting with Mayor Michael Glusac. Ashcroft will be brought before a trial board on charges still to be drawn up.

A SLOWDOWN in the U. S. military buildup in South Vietnam, including lower draft calls for the next four months was announced by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. After a meeting with President Johnson at the ranch McNamara stated that the increase in American forces next year will be much less than the 200,000-man buildup of 1966.

AN ADVERTISING PROMOTION for a shorter workweek for firemen caused Fire Chief Glenn Thom to start an investigation. He said charges might be brought against a fireman and one or more officers. The Fire Commission objected to a "faked" picture of a Detroit fireman in raincoat and helmet holding a child in his arms. Thom said that "department regulations appear to have been violated." He said regulations require approval by him before any use of publicity of advertising may be made of "department uniforms and equipment."

CENTRAL AND NORTHERN ITALY have been ravaged by floods leaving a death toll of over 300. Rescue workers have been digging through layers of debris searching for more victims of the most widespread floods in centuries. The Po is once again threatening new disasters. Florence and other cities found themselves without drinking water, electricity or gas. Food was running very low. Rain continued to fall although two rivers were said to be receding. Forecasters warned that a new storm over Spain was moving east across the Mediterranean and could strike Italy.

Tuesday, November 8

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE Robert S. McNamara is in receipt of a new Air Force proposal for a bomber that would have approximately five times the nuclear punch and twice the range of the most advanced bomber now being developed. The proposed bomber would have 2 1/2 times the speed and about the same range as the B52, the mainstay of the current bomber force.

To Break Ground for New Neighborhood Club

The Neighborhood Club is ready to break ground for this new headquarters and youth center, across Waterloo from the former building, condemned as unsafe and recently razed. Funds for the new structure were obtained through the sale of the large club property to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Money for the purchase of the site was donated to the School System by the Helen Newberry Joy Fund.

Park Voters Reject Local Bond Issue

Electors Turn Down Proposal 3,154 To 1,502; City Charter Amendment Passed, 1,521 To 701

Park taxpayer-voters rejected a million-dollar bond issue by a 2-1 majority, at the general election, held on Tuesday, November 8; and City electors approved an amendment to the City Charter by more than a 2-1 vote favoring the updating of the language of provisions pertaining to the retirement system.

The Park and the City were the only Pointes to present local issues to the people. The others were merely concerned with federal, state, and county elections.

The Park bond issue, which would have given the city the go ahead to raise monies for improvements of recreational facilities at both the Waterfront and Three Mile Drive Parks, was defeated by a vote of 3,154 against, to 1,502 in favor.

In the City, the charter amendment was passed by a vote of 1,521 for, to 701 against any change.

Although it was disclosed that voting was heavy, due to the keen rivalry for the offices of governor and United States senator, only the City gave an official count of votes cast, 3,296, or approximately 75 percent of the number of people registered. The Park had not tabulated its total votes after the final ballots were counted.

The city clerks of both the Park and City, and their aides, worked well past midnight counting absentee ballots. Under a provision of the State Election Law, absentee ballots cannot be opened and counted until after 8 p.m. when all voting has ceased.

15-Year-Old Boy Admits Committing 40 Burglaries

A 15-year-old Detroit boy, an escapee from the Boys Vocational School, East Lansing, cleared up approximately 40 burglaries committed in the Park and Detroit, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers on Monday, November 7.

Questioning of the youth, who was held at the Juvenile Home, began on Monday, October 25, and with the completion of the investigation and interrogation by Det. L. Stanley Enders and Det. James LaPratt, the juvenile confessed to the breaking and entering, and malicious destruction of Trombley School, and breaking of boats docked at the Waterfront Park, at the foot of Barrington road. The crimes were all committed during the summer months,

Impossible Requirements Achieved by Architects in New High School's Design

Structure Will Conform to Surrounding Neighborhood; Acoustical Problem in Auditorium Ingeniously Solved

The design of the Grosse Pointe High School North, now under construction, meets some conflicting criteria that appeared impossible to resolve.

First, the school, which will accommodate more than 2,000 students, will not disturb the serenity of the neighborhood. Its large size will not be strikingly apparent from anywhere except the air.

Second, while the school will include 335,000 square feet of floor space, it will relate in pleasing scale to nearby houses.

Third, while a large amount of parking space will be required, few cars will be visible. They will be hidden skillfully by landscaping.

Fourth, the auditorium has been designed acoustically for presentation of music and drama — two diametrically opposed requirements — and for large and small groups, sometimes meeting simultaneously.

James E. Gibson, vice president in charge of design for Stirling, Ellington, Cowin and Hart, Inc., architects and engineers, said the building will meet a long list of "impossible" conditions.

Will Delight Eyes
"The school has been designed sensibly to delight the eye, to meet all the required uses, with concern for scale in its surroundings and to use conventional, durable materials that are reasonable in cost and easy to maintain," Gibson said.

A primary consideration, he added, was choice of a scale and architecture that would be pleasing amid the surrounding traditionally styled homes. A bulky appearance was to be avoided, yet the necessary space had to be provided, including a 55-foot-high area for the auditorium stage.

the detectives said the boy informed them.

Besides breaking into the school, the 15-year-old admitted breaking into the concession stand at the park, taking cash and candy. He also confessed to breaking into a number of boats taking whiskey, beer, fishing equipment, boat equipment, such as life preservers and light pole flag, and other items. Charges against the boy have been filed with Juvenile Court authorities, the detectives said.

RING MISSING

Mrs. John Dadds of 171 Cloverly, called Farms police on Wednesday, November 2, and reported the loss, or theft, of an $1,800 platinum-diamond ring. She said the jewelry piece was last seen on August 11.

To Lay New High School Cornerstone

Ceremonies Set for 10 a.m. Saturday at Building Site Near Vernier and Morningside

An important event in the progress of construction of Grosse Pointe High School North will be observed on Saturday, November 12. The laying of the cornerstone has been scheduled for 10 a.m. on the site of the new building, located near the intersection of Vernier road and Morningside drive in Grosse Pointe Woods.

School officials indicated that interested citizens will be most welcome to attend the ceremonies. Program participants include community and civic leaders as well as student representatives.

J. Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent of Schools, will serve as master of ceremonies. The program will begin with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," led by Herman Clein, vocal music instructor at Grosse Pointe High School.

Parcels to Speak
Dr. Frank H. Parcells, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, will speak on behalf of the school trustees.

Mayor Kenneth McLeod will represent the City of Grosse Pointe Woods and President John Huettnerman will speak for the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores at the program. Charles Parcells, president of the Grosse Pointe PTA Council, has been invited to address the gathering as representative of the Parent-Teacher Associations of the various schools in the district.

Stuart Dykstra, President of the Student Association of Grosse Pointe High School, is scheduled for remarks on behalf of the student body. Malcolm Sturton, Vice-President of Harley, Ellington, Cowin, and Sturton, will represent his architectural firm as well as the project's various contractors and suppliers.

Vietnam Service Reports Sought

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial appeals to the citizens of the five Grosse Pointes on this Veterans' Day for information on all Pointes who have served or are serving in Vietnam.

If there is or has been any immediate member of a Grosse Pointe family in Vietnam, full information as to name, rank, and service would be appreciated by the War Memorial which is currently trying to form an honor roll for Vietnam Service.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial is also endeavoring to form a group of Grosse Pointers who have in common a member who is in or has been in Vietnam.

The first meeting of this proposed group is set for Wednesday evening, December 7, at 8 o'clock at the War Memorial. The purpose of the group will be to gain and change information and discuss their common problems.

New Home Owner Takes Protests to Council in Farms

Claims Approval of Construction Should Not Have Been Granted by Building Inspector; Requests Aid and Relief from City

"Let's cut out the nonsense and stop giving me the run-around" was the charge flung at the Farms City Council Monday evening, November 7, by Edward B. Mazzotta, 26 Christine drive.

Mazzotta, who told the Council that his problems started a year and a half ago with the construction of his new home, came to protest the approval given to the construction in the final inspection by Farms Building Inspector Joe Beaupre.

Mazzotta is currently faced with a lawsuit brought against him by the builder, to collect the balance of the contract, but he maintains that the construction does not meet the City's building codes or required standards of workmanship.

Characterizing himself as a believer "in that old fashioned thing called PRINCIPLE," he is attempting to establish that the City failed "to keep a watchful eye" on the construction of his home. "By abdicating its responsibility and by permitting these things to happen, the City of Grosse Pointe Farms clothed the builder with contract compliance. This puts me in an untenable position," stated Mazzotta in a letter to City Manager Andrew Bremmer, dated May 2.

Claim Role Misconstrued
City officials maintain that Mazzotta has misconstrued the role of the City in building inspection. They feel he is talking about specification violation rather than code violation and that the specs are a matter between him and his builder.

In a letter to Farms Mayor William G. Butler, written October 12, Mazzotta stated the alleged defects in construction have already cost him $8,000, may run as high as $15,000. He signed himself as "Registered Professional Engineer."

The letter also contained

Burglar Visits Farms Store

The Farms Delicatessen, 18660 Mack, was forcibly entered shortly after midnight on Monday, October 31, and several packages of cigarettes and a sum in cash taken, it was disclosed by Farms police.

The burglary was discovered by William Nicholas of 4209 Dickerson, Detroit, owner of the Pointier Bar, who noticed a broken window of the door at the east side of the delicatessen building at 12:04 a.m. and called police.

The owner of the store, George Marshall of 10819 East Outer drive, Detroit, was called, and after taking inventory, informed police that the thief, or thieves, took five packages of cigarettes, and $57 in cash, from the place. Ten packages of cigarettes were found in the driveway alongside the building, apparently dropped by the thief.

Investigation of the break-in was assigned to Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem.

Hear Sentences in Circuit Court for Crimes in Park

Two men tried in Wayne County Circuit Court for crimes committed in the Park, were sentenced following separate hearings before Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy, Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers was notified on Friday, November 4.

Gilbert Vandermarliere, 28, of the Newport Hotel, 13115 Jefferson, Detroit, was found guilty of breaking and entering a business place. He was sentenced to two years probation, and to pay $100 court costs, plus make restitution in the amount of $316.32 to a Park bar owner. The court also recommended that he seek help for alcoholism.

Sentenced to 12 years in Jackson Prison after being found guilty of burglary in the daytime, was Jimmy Patterson,

Club Ground Breaking Set Near Old Site

Contemporary Building to House Youth Center, Club Offices and New Thrift Shop

The trustees of the Neighborhood Club have announced that they will break ground for their new youth center within the next two weeks. They have applied for and are awaiting the processing of their building permit.

The contract for the building has been given to Albert D. Thomas Inc., and the architect of this contemporary building is Arthur A. O. Schmidt.

The new "drop-in center" will cater to teenagers. The Junior and Senior High School students will each have their own well-lighted rooms featuring pool and ping pong tables, television, and the opportunity to enjoy the company of their contemporaries. Vending machines will be available for snacking. They will be adequately supervised by members of the staff of the Neighborhood Club.

The facilities will be open throughout the year. Teenagers can meet after school hours and on weekends. The recreational program will be continued in the churches and schools as carried on for the past few years by the Neighborhood Club.

The new building will house the Neighborhood club offices facing Waterloo, the two aforementioned rooms to be used by the Junior and Senior high school students, and the Thrift Shop, which, with the aid of the United Foundation, is the main support of the club. The Neighborhood Club has served this community for 55 years.

The sum of $225,000 from the sale of the old building and property is being used to finance the new building.

Vandals Attack Board Ticket Spitter

City Police Cpl. Duncan MacEachern called to report that vandals had broken into the ticket spitter at the National Garage Parking Lot Area No. 4 in The Village on November 6. Tickets were strewn all over the premises.

Officers Richard Clark and Donald Steckman cleared up the tickets and contacted Paul Ruggerello of the National Garage. Ruggerello said he would have the ticket spitter fixed immediately.

Charlevoix, McMillan Homes Hit

Bus Re-Routing Postponed Until Complete Probe of Unstable Sub-Base Is Completed

A resolution approving the re-routing of the Lake Shore Coach Lines buses from Charlevoix, between Moran and Kenwood court, onto McMillan road, was indefinitely set aside by the Farms council on Monday, November 7, until a complete study can be made of the situation.

It was brought out at the meeting that residents in McMillan have identical problems to those on Charlevoix, houses shaking and settling because of an unstable sub-base, which follows the lines of the Old Black Marsh Drain.

Complaints by residents living in Charlevoix, that tremors and house settling occur when buses and other heavy vehicles pass their homes, resulted in a study to determine the cause of the problem, which has brought about serious damage to many of the houses in the area.

Layer of Peat Moss

A report from Hubbell, Roth and Clark, consultant engineers for the Farms, revealed that a coring made by the Michigan Drilling company on Charlevoix, between Moran and Kenwood, showed that there is a layer of peat moss under the north half of Charlevoix, and an area of loose fill material with a void under the pavement at one section.

To correct this fault, it was brought out at Monday's meeting, will cost between $4,000 and $40,000, depending on conditions found.

At Monday's meeting, residents from a two-block area of McMillan who would be directly affected by the proposed route change, packed the council chambers to standing-room-only, not to protest, but to inform the city body that the same problem exists in their street.

53 Sign Petition

Richard E. Guthrie of 354 McMillan road, spokesman for the residents of his street, said that a petition bearing the signatures of residents of 53 homes on the affected blocks was presented to City Clerk Peter Caputo, and as a result, the re-routing of the bus line, which was to have taken effect on December 1, has been postponed.

A meeting, despite short notice, was held by residents of McMillan, and 81 persons attended and unanimously objected to the proposed bus route change.

Guthrie said that the Charlevoix bus has never run on McMillan, that it has run on Moran and Charlevoix for at least 30 years, and to change now would be unfair to the residents of the 77 homes in the two-block McMillan area involved. Many home owners have purchased their homes because a bus line did not operate on the street, he said.

By the same token, it was pointed out, Charlevoix residents bought their homes because they knew that a bus line operated on their street, he added.

32 Homes Involved

As of now, Guthrie said, 32 homes in his street, in the two-block area, have subsidence problems, with one resident already receiving a bid of $2,600 to repair his house, and possibly this figure would rise to $3,500. The 32 homes have been settling forward facing McMillan, and many of these homes are located on the south side of the street, where the buses will be traveling.

He pointed out that McMillan is already a major thoroughfare, and it would add to the danger if the buses are re-routed to this street, and since 1960, traffic flow on this road has been very high.

Guthrie also informed the council that there are 90 children living in the affected area, who attend Richard School, and who have been directed by school officials to avoid the Charlevoix and McMillan crossing because of danger at this

A 30-ton girder, operating like vertically-moving doors, will divide the auditorium. Despite its weight, the girder will be operated by only 100 pounds of pressure. Each portion of the auditorium will have direct entrances.

The divider will be so insulated that a band will be able to rehearse in one section of the auditorium without interfering with a lecture in another part, Gibson said.

Can Change Acoustics

Concert halls and theaters for a long time have had contradictory acoustical specifications. However, the auditorium in the new school must meet both qualifications. To accomplish this, parts of sound-absorbent material will be hidden in recesses in the walls to provide proper acoustics for music. By the push of a single button, the parts will slide out of position for dramatic performances, allowing sound to reverberate from hard surfaces.

A steel shell also will be placed above the stage loft and will be lowered electrically to transform the stage into a band shell that will help project music to the audience. A rehearsal room backstage will have the same acoustical characteristics, including sound volume, as the shell.

Another feature of the auditorium will be an orchestra pit that doubles as an elevator to lift props from basement storage to stage level.

Serves Many Purposes

Depending on its position, the elevator also can be used to form a projecting portion of the stage, as an enlarged seating area or an orchestra pit. When the elevator is at floor level 50 additional auditorium seats will slide from a storage area under the front rows.

Consulting with Harley, Elington, Cowin and Stirton on the auditorium design is George Izenour, of New Haven, Conn., among whose work has been the Loeb Drama Center at Harvard University and the restoration of the Auditorium Theater in Chicago. Izenour also designed the Grady Gammage Theater in Arizona in cooperation with the late Frank Lloyd Wright.

Acoustical consultants for the auditorium are Bolt, Beranek and Newman of Cambridge, Mass., a firm that assisted with the recently-opened Lincoln Center in New York.

Between the auditorium instructional center and the academic building will be an open area with steps wide enough for use as an amphitheatre. An open "stage" area will be adjacent to the property storage rooms of the auditorium.

Etchestedt & Grissom Associates, landscape architects, of Grosse Pointe will landscape several other courtyards and have planned parking areas that will conceal cars as much as possible behind plantings and terraces.

Richard P-TA Meets Tuesday

A meeting of the Richard School P-TA is scheduled next Tuesday, November 15, at 8 o'clock.

Following business announcements by Bill Cullingford, P-TA vice president, and school announcements by Principal Ted Jacobs, Dr. Robert Brackett, program chairman, will introduce Acting Grosse Pointe Superintendent of Schools J. Harold Husband, who will give a talk: "Your Dollar's Worth—A Report to the Stockholders."

After Mr. Husband's talk, a Reactor Panel, composed of Mrs. William R. Ludwig, Dr. Frank H. Parcells and John A. Hamilton, and the audience will be invited to ask questions.

The evening will conclude with a social hour and classroom visitation.

School authorities today revealed that through the courtesy of Reverend Paul Keppler of the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, those attending the laying of the cornerstone may park in the lot adjacent to the church at 800 Vernier road.

Two Cars Tangle At Intersection

David Hopp, 723 University place, was given a court notice to appear on a charge of reckless driving due to his involvement in an accident which occurred on November 5.

Driving south on Washington, he stopped for a stop sign at Waterloo, then proceeded forward, failing to wait for the traffic to clear and hitting the left side of George Flynn's car, which was going east on Waterloo.

Flynn, of 888 St. Clair, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital and treated for minor injuries. His car sustained considerable damage.

statements against the building inspector, the city manager and Councilman William Kirby that made free and colorful use of the adjectives shameful, disgraceful, devious, evasive, shocking, appalling, incredible. Time was requested on the agenda of this meeting to request "aid and relief by the City" and certain reports, including a resume of the qualifications of the building inspector. The request for resumes was later escalated to include the qualifications of the city manager and Public Service Director John Defoe, the NEWS learned from a city official.

Appeared Alone

Although Mazzotta's considerable correspondence with City officials and the Council apparently had been prepared with the assistance of extensive professional opinion, he appeared alone Monday night. The City building inspector and City attorney were absent.

Allegations about the irreponsibility of the City in its building surveillance were repeated to the Council, although the requests for the resumes of the qualifications of City officials was not mentioned. Mazzotta's criticism centered on a report made by the city manager to the Michigan Securities Commission, alleging it should have been prepared by someone else, although he did not say who. He alluded to documentation of building code violations that would "keep you here all night," whereupon Mayor Butler asked him to present the information to City Attorney George McKean, who will report back to the Council.

The alleged defective workmanship on the part of the builder was not brought up again before the Council, but had been stated in the letter to Bremer, dated May 2. It was described as having "taken many hours of my time, much expense, and caused both my wife and my children and myself extreme emotional distress."

Won't Become Involved

Farms officials have no desire to become involved in litigation between Mazzotta and his builder and they object to his heated written attack. Councilman Kirby has threatened a libel suit against Mazzotta unless he retracts the statements made about him.

The councilmen were informed that the final inspection, about which Mazzotta has made strenuous objection, was granted upon his request for occupancy permission before the residence was completed, and that it was done as a favor to him.

It has also been pointed out to them that the work was done without Mazzotta hiring an architect, and that changes in the plans were made during construction, which caused some of the damage claimed.

The Farms says that it cannot be expected to furnish architectural services free, especially when the municipality does not employ an architect as such.

tomers that had been locked in when the place was closed.

The officers detained the man until Park police arrived and took him into custody.

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders said that he questioned Vander-marliere and the arrested man said he saw the private policemen approaching and grabbed a bag of chips and tried to act out the part of a late staying customer, which did not fool the officers.

The lieutenant, also said, at the time, that Vander-marliere admitted breaking into the bar on a previous occasion and taking $250.

Patterson, who had been plaguing Park and Detroit police as an elusive daytime burglar who specialized in breaking into apartments while the tenants were absent, was arrested by Park Det. Lt. Arnold Hough, while Patterson was in the act of breaking into an apartment on August 5.

While on duty patrolling the area, on the lookout for the slippery thief, Hough observed Patterson exit from a four-family flat building at 1076 Beaconsfield. The detective followed the suspect.

The policeman, who enlisted the aid of a gas station attendant, who volunteered to drive the officer in his own car, to avert suspicion by Patterson, saw Patterson enter an apartment house at 942 Beaconsfield. After waiting a few minutes, both men entered the building and surprised the suspect as he was trying to force a lock on the lower north apartment with a screwdriver and a knife.

Patterson confessed to 21 burglaries and attempted break-ins in the Park and Detroit areas, it was disclosed.

Pollard Gives Paper on LSD

Prof. John C. Pollard, M.D., of the U-M Department of Psychiatry, presented a paper on LSD at the Cottage Hospital Annual Clinic Day, on Wednesday, November 9, at 1:30 p.m. at the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Dr. Pollard is Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the U-M Medical Center, a Britisher by birth, and author of the recent book, "Drugs and Phantasy (The Effects of LSD, Psilocybin, and Sernyl on College Students.)"

Dr. Pollard is a native of Lancashire, England, studied medicine at Middlesex Hospital Medical School, and was a Psychiatric Resident at the U.M. He is licensed to practice in the United Kingdom and the State of Michigan, and has progressed from Instructor in the Department of Psychiatry to Associate Professor and Research Psychiatrist at U-M Medical School and the Mental Health Research Institute.

WIFE MISPLACED

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. — A tourist, after spending the night here, appealed to the Chamber of Commerce for help in finding his wife. He couldn't remember which of the town's more than 200 motels they had checked in to.

The man had left to get gas for his car and when he headed back to pick up his wife he realized he didn't know which of the numerous places along the Ocean Highway was home base. Policemen took him from motel to motel and hours later, he finally hit the right one and was reunited with his wife.

Buses Add To Danger

Permitting buses to travel on McMillan would seriously aggravate the subsidence problem, increase the already excessive flow of traffic, increase the danger to children, and increase traffic accidents, as well as create an inequity on the owners of the 77 homes in the road, Guthrie said.

One woman, who resides in Charlevoix, said that she liked the bus route to remain on her street, that she is happy that it is there, but something should be done about correcting the problem, at whatever cost.

Charles E. Swenson of 248 Kenwood court, who was recently appointed to serve on a committee to study the Charlevoix problem, since his home is affected and damaged by the tremors, asked that another committee be appointed, comprised of Charlevoix and McMillan residents, and city officials, to give the problem further study before any action is finally taken on the re-routing of the bus line.

Comments Residents
Expressing his pleasure at the amiable manner in which the discussion was held, Mayor William Butler said such a committee would be appropriate, and appointed himself, Councilman William Kirby and Police Chief Jack F. Roh, as the city representatives, and Swenson and Guthrie to represent their respective areas. The latter two will pick their own choice of a second person, one each, from their areas to work with the group.

The council approved Kirby's motion that the committee be authorized to hire a reputable firm to conduct corings in Mc-

Millan, and further corings in Charlevoix. The authorization was given so that there will be no delay in an attempt to arrive at a solution to the problem, by having to reappear before the council.

The committee will hold its first meeting on Monday, November 14, at 8 p.m. in the Farms council chambers, it was directed.

When you lock your car doors, you want to make sure they're locked.
So do we.

Our engineers call it the passenger-guard door lock. It's on every door—front and rear—of every new Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac. When you push the lock down, the door can't be opened until you pull the lock back up—even if someone should accidentally pull back on a door handle. And we didn't stop with a better lock. We also built you a better door to go with it, including the protection of new safety latches and hinges. From little things like locks, to big things like the GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, safety is one of the ways we've made our General Motors cars even better for '67. And can you think of a better way to make cars better? Neither could we.

Fire, Explosion Hit Park Home, Damage Set at $6,000

Water entering an old 220-volt electric range outlet caused a flash that cut the gas line of a stove in the kitchen of the George Blake residence, 1375 Three Mile drive, on Monday, October 31, causing an explosion that created more than $6,000 damage.

Mrs. Blake had high praise for the personnel of the Park Fire Department who responded within minutes after the explosion and fire, and lauded the manner in which they brought the ensuing blaze under control within 10 minutes. Within 15 minutes the fire was completely out.

Mrs. Blake also praised her cleaning woman, Ruth Griggs of Detroit, who did not flee in panic, but ran next door to ask a neighbor to call in the alarm. The phone in her house was destroyed by the explosion, the house owner said.

Hot Wires Fall In City Street

The Grosse Pointe City Fire Department answered a call from W. P. Tyler of 850 Loraine, reporting that wires were down, on November 3.

Upon investigating it was discovered that a tree heavy with leaves and snow had snapped one of its branches causing it to fall on a wire.

This caused a chain reaction and the wires in the block between Charlevoix and Mack fell down. Firemen notified all residents on Loraine and Notre Dame not to touch any fencing as it might be electrically charged. They also had residents remove their cars from their garages because wires were lying on top and down the sides of garages.

One garage at 838 Loraine, the residence of Arthur Maes, burned at one corner from hot wires. Detroit Edison immediately came out and cut the wires at the transformer. They later returned and repaired the wires.

The early snow, arriving before all the leaves were gone from the trees, caused the branches to be unusually heavy.

Lost Mom Visits News Office While Waiting for Reunion

By Pepper Whitelaw

A lost mother is a rarity but that's just what the NEWS staff encountered on Tuesday, November 1. All was functioning normally until our "lost mother" walked into the office led by Ann Heck of Margaret Rice and an unidentified Wrigley's shopper.

They came into the office looking for some water to feed our "wayward mom," who incidentally is a mixture of beagle and dachshund with a beautiful black coat.

Our advertising chief, Bill Adamo, offered to keep the dog in our offices until we could locate the owners. After a while of romping and generally captivating the entire staff our "mother" indicated her desire for some fresh air. She was put out to romp in our fenced-in garden in back. At precisely this time, a handsome teenager who identified himself as Peter Dingeman explained that this was his dog. He said that "OBie" had given birth to five puppies and since that time her appetite could never be appeased.

One day she got out of the house and visited "Wrigley's Backroom" ... that's the parking area in the rear of Wrigley's ... she had such a delightful repast that she never has been able to get that meal off her mind. Consequently, every time the door was opened, off she scurried for the "Backroom."

Peter quickly added that OBie is well fed, but very lovable.

The way the James H. Dingmans came by OBie is an interesting tale ... Mrs. Dingman said that while staying in her cottage in Fort Huron she heard over a local Fort Huron radio station an advertisement for a home for a "housebroken, kind to children" type dog. Because her daughter, Mrs. Thomas J. Moran Jr. of Detroit wanted a watchdog, her mother promptly purchased the dog for her. Upon close scrutiny they discovered that the dog, at that time nameless, was expecting puppies ... thus the name OBie.

OBie went with the rest of the family to their Radnor circle home to await the arrival of the puppies. Now enters Kelly, "champion trench digger" and Shepherd dog of the Dingmans. Kelly dug a deep trench one

Immunization Clinic Planned

The Wayne County Department of Health is sponsoring an immunization clinic from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. November 18 and 19 at Eastland Shopping Center.

The event provides adults and children an opportunity to be immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, polio, whooping cough, and measles. The fee is one dollar for as many shots as are needed. However, nobody will be turned away.

Jacobson'sSecond Robbery At Alger Store

Two men robbed the Alger Party Store at 17320 Mack avenue on Wednesday, November 2, at gun point. George Flynn, owner of the store stated that two Negro males entered his place at 10:10 p.m.

One of the men walked to the rear of the store and ordered a six pack of beer. He put a $5 bill on the counter. The other man stayed at the front of the store. When Flynn opened the cash register to make change, he felt a hard object pressing against his forehead and found himself staring into a chrome snub nose revolver.

The thief scooped the money out of the cash register. He then forced Flynn into the cooler where he bound his hands with friction tape.

The loss is reported at $418.63. The direction in which the thieves fled is unknown since there were no witnesses.

Flynn managed to work himself free of the tape and called the police. Immediately responding to the call were Cpl. George Backx and Officers Edmond Benthux and Richard Clark, assisted by the Park and Farms police.

The thieves were described as both being about 5'7" tall, weighing 175 lbs., and clean shaven, wearing dark hats and short jackets. One of the men was said to have a heavily lined face.

This is the second robbery at the store within a period of two months. The previous robbery occurred on Friday, September 2, when $152 was taken.

Victor Reuther To Give Lecture

Victor G. Reuther, Director of the International Affairs Department of the United Automobile Workers, will speak at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, Wednesday, November 16, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Reuther will be the second speaker in an eight-part lecture series on the Direction of Human Development sponsored by the Adult Education Committee of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

A noted authority on world affairs, Mr. Reuther will discuss some of the major problems and opportunities that confront America in today's world.

After Mr. Reuther's talk, a panel of local people will discuss with him some of the points he brings out.

Woods Approves Fires Ordinance

The Woods Council approved a new ordinance on bonfires and outdoor rubbish fires at the Monday, November 7 meeting.

This ordinance prevents residents from kindling or maintaining any bonfire or rubbish fires or lighting any such fires upon any private land unless such fires are located outside of the Mack Avenue commercial district, and shall be kindled in permanent fireplaces or barbecue grills. This also restricts residents from burning any materials which produce an offensive smoke or obnoxious odor.

This ordinance also prohibits maintaining any bonfires or rubbish fires upon or in any public street, alley, road or other public ground except in permanently constructed fireplaces or grills, permanent or portable, in the park locations.

Building contractors have been given the right to dispose of building waste and rubbish materials if burned in an approved salamander type of container with a competent person attending the fire until it is extinguished.

This person also should have a garden hose connected to the water supply or other fire extinguishing equipment readily available for use.

During construction or demolition of buildings or structures no waste or rubbish shall be disposed of by burning on the premises or the immediate vicinity without having obtained a permit from the Department of Public Safety. A permit will be required for each job site by the general contractor. A fee of $1 will be paid to the City Clerk.

Teen Escapee Admits Thefts

Shores Patrolmen Chester Painter and James Jurcak were credited with the apprehension of a 16-year-old escapee from the Boys' Vocational School in East Lansing. The boy admitted to being responsible for 13 burglaries since his escape, including one in the Shores.

The police officers were on routine patrol at 12:10 a.m. on Thursday, November 3, when they observed a 1962 Pontiac going north on Lake Shore road. The description of the boy who escaped from the East Lansing school matched that of the driver and the policemen stopped the youth and arrested him for questioning.

The teenager, who was taking his girl friend home at the time he was stopped, was found to be the boy who escaped from the school, and he was released to Juvenile Court authorities and confined in the Juvenile Home in Forest avenue, Detroit, until it is determined what is to be done with him.

Shores Det. Frank Mustazza said that in questioning the youth, the youth confessed to breaking into a home at 35 Shoreham recently, and the break-in of eight homes in Detroit, two in East Detroit, and two in Roseville, all within the short time that he had run away from the school.

It was disclosed that the 16-year-old is the same boy who was remanded to the Boys' Vocational School by Juvenile Court Judge James Lincoln, two months ago, following his arrest by Harper Woods police.

Questioned, at the time, by Harper Woods Det. Lt. Willard Weiss, the boy confessed to more than 500 burglaries in the Detroit area, including several in the Pointe and Harper Woods. The boy, who said that sometimes he operated alone, and sometimes with other youths, said his method of operation was to drive around neighborhoods and look for homes that had an accumulation of papers and mail on the porches. He would break into these homes, he said.

Another method he used, he told police, was to ring door bells at night. If someone was coming to the door in answer, he would leave, but if no one answered, he would force his way into the house.

This led police to issue a warning not to allow newspapers and mail to accumulate, if the family is out of town. Have mail and paper deliveries stopped, or picked up by relatives or neighbors, until the family's return.

Too, before going out at night, leave at least one light burning in the house, making it appear that someone is home.

Set Mason P-TA Meeting Nov. 16

The second meeting of the Mason School P-TA will be held Wednesday evening, November 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Classroom visitation, occupying the first half hour, will be followed by an important business meeting in the auditorium. Robert Martin, this year's president, will submit the new P-TA Constitution to the members for approval.

Highlighting the evening will be a talk by J. Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent of Schools. His topic is, "Your Dollar's Worth: A Report to the Stockholders."

Mr. Husband will describe various educational programs in the school system and discuss the budget. Colored slides will be used to illustrate the presentation. Mr. Husband's talk will terminate with a question-and-answer period.

Refreshments will be served following the program by a committee headed by Mrs. Michael Mavian and Mrs. George McManus.

SWAMPED WITH REQUESTS

Grosse Pointe city offices were swamped with requests for absentee ballots. At this printing requests for over 239 ballots had reached the city office. Part of the reason for the increased number in absentee ballots was due to the ruling that persons 70 years of age or older can vote on an absentee ballot.

Veteran's Day Service Slated

The Annual Veterans' Day Service at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul will take place Sunday, November 13, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

This service is a memorial to all who gave their lives in wars of the United States, and a tribute to present members and veterans of the United States Armed Forces. Bishop Richard S. Emrich will officiate, assisted by Dean Leslie G. Warren.

All Honorary Canons of the Cathedral and many local Chaplains of the Army, Navy and Air Force will be in the procession and seated in the chancel.

The preacher will be Major General The Reverend Robert P. Taylor, Th.D., LL.D., D.D., H.H.D., director of Institutional Resources of the Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary, who retired August 31 as Chief of Chaplains of the Department of the Air Force.

Prior to entering military service in September, 1940, he served as pastor of the South Fort Worth Baptist Church. His first military assignment was as Post Chaplain at Barksdale Field, La.

He was next assigned as Regimental Chaplain of the 31st Infantry Regiment, Philippine Division, arrived in Manila in May, 1941, was cited for bravery and awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action for his services in the Battle of Bataan, survived the Bataan "Death March" and served as Chaplain in the prison camp hospital at Cabantuan in the Philippines, was later taken to Japan and Manchuria aboard one of the famous "hellships" which was bombed twice by American planes with a loss of over 1,000 lives.

His decorations and awards include the Silver Star, Bronze Star and the Presidential Unit Citation with two oak leaf clusters.

Major General Cecil Simmons of Grand Rapids, Commanding General, 46th Infantry Division, Michigan Army National Guard, will read one of the Lessons; the other will be read by the Honorable G. Mennen Williams, former Governor of Michigan, former Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, and a long-time member of the Cathedral Parish.

Among those planning to attend are Pointers Commander and Mrs. Woodrow L. Lamb, Colonel and Mrs. Gari F. King, Mr. and Mrs. E. Waterfall, Mr. and Mrs. Berrien Eaton, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Philip D. Bach, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hering, Mr. and Mrs. Morton C. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wiener and Admiral and Mrs. Leon J. Jacobi.

Also expected to attend are approximately 100 Gold Star Mothers and many Active, Reserve and Retired Armed Forces' personnel. There will be over 400 troops present.

Thirty members of the 505th Air Force Band from Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., will play the hymns and the National Anthem, and will play in the Diocesan Cathedral Center after the service for those who remain for coffee.

GARAGE LOOTED
J. W. Coe of 83 Meadow lane, informed Farms police on Tuesday, November 1, that unknown persons entered his closed garage and stole a case containing eight bottles of whiskey, worth a total of $48; and a full case of beer, valued at $4.

On this date, metropolitan Detroit was paralyzed for three days. The world's largest industrial city was stopped. Almost all industry and business was at a standstill. Why? A sudden nine-inch snowfall crippled the city. Customers of Cal Fleming Snow Removal Service had their snow removed twice within the twelve hours after the snow had stopped. You too can have dependable snow removal service. Call TU 1-6950 for free estimate.

Kids Get Break At Junior High

School officials said that the three junior high schools operated by The Grosse Pointe Public School System will close at noon on Thursday, November 17.

The change in schedule will permit members of the staff to attend a special Middle School Planning Meeting slated for 1:15 p.m. in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School. Dr. Ann Grooms, national authority on middle schools will talk to the group and will be available for questions and answers.

Dismissal time in the three buildings has been set for 11:40 or 11:45, depending on the class schedule, with arrangements for bus transportation made to fit the altered schedule.

With the opening of Grosse

Pointe High School North in the fall of 1968, it is expected that the present junior high schools will become middle schools. When both the senior high schools house students in grades 9-12, Brownell, Parcels, and Pierce will contain grades 6-8.

Men Gardeners To Hold Election

Annual election of officers will be held by the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe at their meeting Thursday evening, November 17, in Grosse Pointe War Memorial. In addition there will be a talk on early winter garden care and spring planning by Roger Watkins-Pitchford, a landscape gardener of Windsor, Ont., who also serves as commentator on CBC radio station's program "The Sunrider Gardener".

The speakers have an unusually varied background of experience, beginning with his prep school education in Scotland and public school work in modern languages at colleges in England. Beginning as a bank clerk for Lloyds, he then spent several years apprenticing in hardy plant farming before coming to Canada as a nursery propagator and landscaper.

During the depression the speaker's activities ranged from park employee and calendar selling to special constable in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and staff announcer for Canadian Broadcasting Co.

Brownell P-TA Meets Nov. 16

Father Beahan of Aquinas College in Grand Rapids will be the featured speaker at Brownell Junior High School's P-TA meeting next Wednesday evening, November 16, in the school's auditorium gym. The date of this meeting was changed so that the popular interpreter of parent-child relationship could present his topic "It's Tough to Be a Parent." An additional feature will be the Grosse Pointe singing group, the Grunions, who will entertain following the meeting.

Prior to this meeting, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., Brownell teachers will be available in their rooms from 7 to 7:50 p.m. for conferences with parents, (by previous arrangement only, please). A telephone call to the school can arrange such a conference with an individual teacher.

President Douglas Krieger will introduce the speaker, after official business has been handled by father and mother vice-presidents Ernest Baker and Mrs. James Jobbitt, secretary Mrs. Louis Alcorn and treasurer Frank Kaufman.

Following the program, refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Krieger and her committee. Teachers will also be present to confer informally with parents during the social hour.

It may be true that time is money, but it isn't so scarce.

Church Holding Evening Series

The Work of the Church is a Sunday evening series of meetings sponsored by Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. The meetings are intended to present a contemporary picture of the Christian Gospel in which the Christian is preached and lived. The three speakers are well-known in their fields, and have stimulated much thought and discussion through their writing and work.

Dr. Joseph Fletcher is Professor of Ethics at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He has written "Morals and Medicine," a guide to medical ethics, "William Temple," the biography of the great Archbishop of Canterbury during the Second World War, and "Situation Ethics — The New Morality," which has been called a manifesto of individual freedom and individual responsibility.

On November 13 he will preach at the 9:30 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services at Christ Church. That evening, at 7:30 p.m., Dr. Fletcher will open the series with "The Church and the World — Situational Ethics." The Rev. David Gracie, Rector of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, Detroit, has been deeply involved in the problems of the inner city. Many remember his role in the Northern High School crisis last year, and his participation in the W.C.O. concern with housing in Research Park. His topic, on November 20 at 7:30 p.m., is "The Church and The Community."

On Sunday, November 27, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Peggy Way, program director of the Chicago City Missionary Society, and an ordained minister, will deal with "Modern Missionary Mythologies." She has been particularly concerned with the traditional role of women in the Church, and has led the way to a new sense of responsibility for the Church and Church women in Chicago.

These meetings will be held in the Undercroft of Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard. A supper, at $1.75 a person will be held at 6:30 p.m. Reservations should be made through the Church Office, TU 5-4841. Those who wish to attend only the program are urged to attend the meetings, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Undercroft. There is no charge for the meetings.

Tuxis to Hear Talk on Draft

This week Tuxis Club will feature a topic of great interest to many of the members. Discussion will center around the draft, and what the justification for war is.

Other topics to be discussed will be Christian views on Vietnam, what is a conscientious objector, and views on draft card burners.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday in Fellowship Hall at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Refreshments will be served.

Tuxis members are reminded that Tuxis will pick up clothes at people's homes for the clothing drive on Friday, December 4, at 2 p.m. They will meet at the church later to wrap them.

Anyone wishing to contribute clothes to the drive, and would like to have them picked up by a Tuxis member on December 4, should call Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, at TU 5-3778.

Conduct Retreat At St. Paul High

By Ann Farnam
This year's retreat at St. Paul's High School, held during the week of October 24, took on a new but interesting twist. Given by Father Howard Ralenkotter, a Passionist father from the Holy Cross Monastery in Cincinnati, Ohio, the annual retreat had several features differing from retreats of previous years.

One was the presence of the seniors who will make another retreat away from school in the spring. Another difference was the length of the retreat, three days of intensive recollection with the two remaining days of the week set aside for a combination of regularly scheduled classes including time out for mass, confessions, and private conferences with Father.

Father Ralenkotter, who declares himself to be "just a Kentucky hillbilly," has been giving retreats and parish missions around the country for 25 years. Although he conducts retreats for numerous classes of people, he estimates over one-half are first teenagers.

In his first conference, Father immediately set the students at ease with his imitation of a hapless teenager. Then he outlined the three basic things he considered essential for the making of a good retreat: One, the Grace of God; two, a good retreat master; and three, co-operation of the person making the retreat.

On the first day of the retreat, Father Ralenkotter suggested that each student choose by lottery the name of a fellow classmate for whom he would pray especially during the remainder of the retreat.

May the Reward Be Paid

Blessings on the writer of the letter that follows. The News will be most willing to accept the obligation suggested, and herewith adds $50 to the reward offered for information leading to the arrest of the despicable character who is guilty of such an outrage.

Dear Sir:

The article in your Nov. 3, 1966 issue regarding the pets which were poisoned on Hampton Rd. in Grosse Pointe Woods almost tore my heart out, and I am sure that many of our readers reacted in the same manner. Likewise I feel sure that just as many of our readers will agree with me that there is no punishment bad enough for a person who would do a thing like that and that something must be done to apprehend the poisoner and see to it that the proper punishment is imposed.

With that thought in mind I do hereby pledge a reward of $25 to the person who is able to furnish information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the poisoner. I urge other people in the community to join with me in pledging additional money into the "reward fund," to the end that sufficient interest will be generated that the apprehension of this poisoner will become what one might even term as a "crusade." Please, fellow Grosse Pointe residents, join with me—whether you're an animal lover or not. Your feelings towards pets should in no way effect your recognition of the fact that a person who would be so low as to "bait" the neighborhood dogs and cats with arsenic should be removed from society.

Next may I request that The Grosse Pointe News act as the "Agent" or "Control Unit" for the pledges that come in and for the actual carrying-on of this effort. This I do not think will be difficult to persuade you to do as the tone of your article indicated that you feel as strong about this as I do.

Finally, if you do feel that you wish to publish this letter I must insist that you omit my name and address as I feel sure that the mind of the poisoner is sufficiently perverted that, upon learning of the writer of this letter, would prove sufficient reason for that individual to continuing his or her poisoning activities in my own neighborhood.

Very truly yours,
Irate Animal Lover

Students Speak Out

November 3, 1966
Dear Mr. Edgar:

As a member of the Junior Class of Grosse Pointe High School, I would like to express my views on the destruction of the Junior float.

As a member of the large number of students who worked on the float, I was sickened beyond words when I learned of the fire. When I saw that weeks of hard work had gone up in flames, it made me wonder what type of person would light the destructive match to something that meant so much to so many.

I think that these four youths should be the only ones to be blamed for their actions. They must have known what they were doing at the time so they should shoulder the responsibility for their actions. I think that they should not only repay the property damage but be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Just because three of the boys were members of the Senior class; the whole class should not be blamed for the irresponsible actions of these youths.

The three Seniors couldn't have cared about their float winning because they never helped work on it. The other person involved doesn't even go to Grosse Pointe High so he had no class interest in it at all.

I also think that the judges should be congratulated for the job that they did. They had to remain impartial even though one of the floats was only charged remains of a ship.

I firmly believe that this action against our class will stimulate us to outdo our fantastic job on this year's float when we build our float next year.

Sincerely,
John J. Southcott, III,
1906 Norwood,
Grosse Pointe
High School
Class of 1968

Dear Sir:

Homecoming 1966 at Grosse Pointe High School must be recognized as a very unique day for everyone. Many hours of detailed planning went into that day for the parade, floats, game, half-time activities and dance. No one expected everything to go exactly as planned, but the burning of the Junior Class float was a calamity no one had anticipated.

The point of our letter is not to condemn the three members of our class and the "mastermind drop-out" responsible for the crime. This will be taken care of by the courts of law. Our purpose is to praise the Junior Class and defend the integrity of the senior class.

The Junior Class of 1968 has the courage and the leadership to endure the overwhelming disappointment of a scorched, burned float. The many hours the Juniors spent working together toward a common goal is tragic, when one realizes they were denied the feeling of pride every senior and sophomore felt in seeing their float in the parade. Then, as if this weren't enough, the Senior Class won first prize in the float competition. The Juniors had every right to be bitter; however, instead, they showed the entire community that as mature individuals, they could handle a tragedy rationally. Revenge was not on their list of triumphs for the day, but rather courage, unity, pride, spirit and bold determination to participate as a class and part of the school.

It is essential for every member of our community to realize that being a contributing member of a class and being compelled to attend school are entirely different things. It is unrealistic and absolutely false to assume every student at Grosse Pointe High School takes part in class activities, just as in the adult community, every citizen is not necessarily a contributor to society.

It is therefore rash and unfair to blame 900 students for the "sick" activities of four individuals. Also, it should be emphasized that at the time of the judging, no one knew who was responsible for the burning of the Junior float. The fact that the judges were instructed to continue as planned, was only to prevent the day from being completely ruined for everyone. Too many people and hours were involved in this day to let the actions of these delinquents ruin the homecoming festivities. The judges awarded first prize to the Senior float, basing their decision on originality, craftsmanship, materials used and overall effect.

The Seniors did not triumph when the winner of the competition was announced, rather our victory had been won the night before, when the enthusiastic seniors completed their float.

The Juniors accepted this decision with the grace (some might say "moxie") as typical of their class. At G. P. H. S. it is widely accepted that the Seniors are not responsible for the culprits. We believe this is only fair. If we sincerely did not agree, we would have done something about our position last October 29th (Homecoming Day).

We can understand why some individuals were so emotionally upset that they felt compelled to write the Grosse Pointe News condemning the Senior Class and the Homecoming judges. Students at Grosse Pointe High

Letters to the Editor

November 3, 1966

Dear Sir:

As three members of Grosse Pointe High School class of 1967, we feel it necessary to reply to the November 3 "Letters to the Editor" concerning the burning of the Junior float.

First, we wish to take objection to these letters which imply that the entire Senior class was responsible for the destruction, when in actuality, only three members out of a class of 976 were involved. The fourth person is not a student of Grosse Pointe High School.

Second, the three seniors involved did not offer their assistance to the construction of the Senior float, at any time.

Third the nine impartial judges should be commended, not condemned, for their very difficult decision of selection the Senior float as the best in class competition. Before any decisions were made, the judges were notified of the burning, by members of the Student Council.

The victory should not be looked upon as a hollow one, or an unfair one, nor should the float have been withdrawn or disqualified. Many laborious hours were spent by hundreds of loyal seniors. We feel that the well constructed float was a result of good planning, and was worthy of the victorious award.

We, as seniors, express our dissatisfaction towards these boys that have disgraced the class of '67, in the eyes of the uninformed. These actions should not be looked upon as those of the entire Senior class, but of the four people involved, and ONLY the people involved.

We especially wish to thank the Van Hoek family for opening their home to the industrious class of '67, for the construction of the Senior float.

Sincerely,
Greg Thom

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

We thought you might like to know about some of our very recent book acquisitions—and on a variety of subjects. As I write this, snow is not so gently falling, and my thoughts turn to those who like to stay home with a good book on a day such as this. If this sort of weather is a bit premature, it is certainly an indication of wintry days to follow. So come in and load up with some books!

Have you run out of ideas for menus? Sunset editors have come to your rescue with two new titles: BREAKFASTS AND BRUNCHES AND QUICK AND EASY DINNERS. It would seem to me that these tasty-looking volumes would just about cover all the meals in a day. One staff member has already tried some of these recipes and heartily recommends them to those of us who are tired of all the run-of-the-mill meals.

In the field of language arts, I can offer two new titles. First there is Arthur Train's SPOKEN LIKE A FRENCHMAN, containing some seven hundred examples of colloquial French. It is a light, amusing round-up of words and phrases in current use in France. (I should be reading this myself, in an effort to cover a very long hiatus in my own education!). The other book is crisply titled, WHICH WITCH? by Julian Franklin, and deals interestingly with homonyms; s.e., words having the same sound but differing in meaning (but not necessarily in derivation).

A provocative title is MOVIES, CENSORSHIP AND THE LAW, by Ira H. Carmen. This is the story of motion-picture censorship in America, beginning in 1915 when the Supreme Court denied freedom of the press to movies. It is a fast-moving tale of court cases and behind-the-scenes skirmishes, taking movie censorship up to the present day.

If you have any curiosity about our months of the year, you can find all sorts of fascinating information about them in ALL ABOUT THE MONTHS by Maymie R. Krythe. In order to maintain a certain regime in daily living, man, from the beginning of time, has set up various systems of measuring time. Around the division of days, weeks, and months, a great many fine stories have evolved through the centuries.

Mrs. Krythe has given us a storehouse of information which could be useful in many ways. Vietnam books are still forthcoming, and will be, I'm sure for a long time. VIETNAM YESTERDAY AND TODAY by Ellen Hammer is one in the procession. This author traces Vietnamese history back to the fifteenth century, when this country proclaimed its independence from China, and carries the story up to the present. Miss Hammer is a specialist in international relations, and seems to have a fine knowledge of her subject.

Back to winter again! FLOWERS IN THE WINTER GARDEN, by M. M. Graff shows the reader that anyone with a dash of adventure and an ounce of skill can grow flowers outdoors in winter. Mrs. Graff feels that you can fill these gray months with color and drama if you know which plants and bulbs are suitable, are informed as to favorite spots for planting, and have her to direct you in the care and maintenance of your garden.

A prominent figure in politics today is France's DeGaulle. There is a new biography written about him by Alexander Werth, entitled simply, DE GAULLE, and is a lucid and comprehensive study of the political career of this man. Mr. Werth has been writing about French affairs for over thirty years, and his books are considered very perceptive and reliable sources of information about modern French political history. We recommend this book to you if your field is either political science or the affairs of this colorful nation.

Let's add just a dash of humor. The irrepressible S. J. Perelman has done it again with CHICKEN INSPECTOR NO. 23. Here we have a frenetic Perelman who is bedeviled and victimized by various aspects of the twentieth century. This is a book which is savored slowly, and is read best intermittently.

Do you remember AFRICAN GENESIS by Robert Ardrey? It caused quite a stir when published, and now the author has followed it with THE TERRITORIAL IMPERATIVE, subtitled, "A personal inquiry into the animal origins of property and nations." In this book Mr. Ardrey explores more deeply and incisively man's evolutionary nature, and threatens once again some of our most precious assumptions. If you enjoyed the first volume, you will certainly want to read this new one.

Another book to provoke discussion will probably be Martin Gross's THE DOCTORS, a penetrating analysis of the American physician and his practice of medicine. With the same directness that he brought to THE BRAIN WATCHERS, Mr. Gross delves into the doctor's competence, his practices, his personality and his medical education. It should make interesting reading.

We could continue—the shelves of new books have hardly been touched. But these evaluations should give you some idea of the scope of our recent additions. We hope you will rush through the snow, or, if it becomes balmy by the time this is published, saunter through the sunshine to our library to get some leisure reading.

Seyler Attends Dental Parley

Dr. Alfred E. Seyler of Grosse Pointe Park will play an active role in the 1966 annual meeting of the American Society of Dentistry for Children in the Sheraton-Dallas hotel, Dallas, Tex., November 11-13.

Dr. Seyler, who is professor of clinical dentistry and chairman of the pedodontics, (dentistry for children), section at the University of Detroit, is editor of the Journal of Dentistry for Children, the bi-monthly publication of A.S.D.C. He also is a member of the Executive Council of the Society, who will meet prior to the scientific meeting. Dentists who care for children in their practices, both pedodontists and general practitioners, will gather from all over the United States and several foreign countries at the three-day meeting to discuss the latest techniques to improve children's dental health.

Emphasis will be on preventive measures to insure that children today will not be dental cripples as adults. Delegates to the A.S.D.C. meeting will hear lectures on such subjects as "Treating the Whole Family to Better Dentistry by Better Treating the Child," "Visual Education of Parent and Child," "The Concept of Preventive Orthodontics" (tooth straightening), and "A Lip Exercise to Improve Function and Aid Facial Harmony."

The American Society of Dentistry for Children seeks to encourage more and better practice of dentistry for children, promote thorough education of parents the importance of their children's dental care, and inform the public of practical preventive measures.

Service Honors Mrs. Gillespie

A memorial service for Mrs. Loraine Gillespie was held at the East Congregational Church in Grand Rapids, Sunday, October 30. Mrs. Gillespie passed away at her home in Grand Rapids, Monday, October 17.

She taught French at Grosse Pointe High School for 31 years and was head of the foreign language department for 15 years. She served as a class sponsor for many years. She retired in June of 1965.

Mrs. Gillespie had her Masters degree from the University of Michigan and studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. She travelled extensively. She visited France many times and occasionally took her French students with her.

A memorial fund is being established to purchase a French painting which will be hung in the room in which she taught her students. Contributions may be sent to Miss Ester Porter at Grosse Pointe High School.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Early Christmas shoppers will be VERY pleased to know that the annual Christmas Mart, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital, is less than 10 days away.

It will be held Friday, November 18, from 10 in the morning until 9 in the evening, at the Cottage Nurses' Residence in Ridge road.

Mrs. Paul Moreland and her co-chairman Mrs. Harford Kerbaw have been working with their committees for months to ensure an interesting and excellent selection of gifts and, once again, Mrs. Arnold Davidson will transform the Residence into a multi-colored holiday fantasia.

There'll be booths featuring jewelry, men's accessories, small gifts, baby items, lingerie, china novelties and hundreds of toys.

The Christmas floral arrangements and novelties, created under the supervision of Mrs. Stanley L. Smith and Mrs. Peter O. Peterson, are, as always, breathtakingly beautiful and unique, (we've previewed some of them, so we KNOW!).

Another booth, with Mrs. Peden Meikle as chairman, will offer handmade items, including card table covers, sewing baskets, barbecue vests, aprons, Christmas tree balls and lovely holiday tablecloths with liners.

Enthusiastic Mrs. Emmet Gentleman and her committee promise many delightful "very old to very new" surprises at the White Elephant Department in the basement of the Residence.

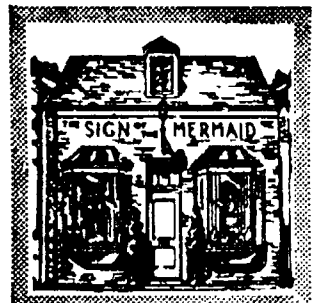

Sale guests in search of "a break" will find it in the library, where Mrs. Harry G. Hinckley will be presiding at a cookie-laden tea table.

Chairmen of the various booths are the Mesdames Paul M. Becker, Richard S. Daley, Arthur W. Hanigan, Richard F. Huegli, Henry E. Mertins, Elmer H. Schade, Frank C. Wade, Clarence J. Williams and Francis B. Van Deusen.

Prepare for Vassar President's Visit

purpose is to stimulate interest in Vassar among prospective students. This year, 11 students from the Detroit area are attending Vassar, one of the leading women's colleges in the country. Founded in 1861, it has been attended by many distinguished Detroiters, including Miss Ella Liggett, founder of The Liggett School, (member of the Class of 1869), Mrs. Archibald W. Diack, Miss Sarah Angell, Mrs. John N. Bagley, Mrs. John Wood Blodgett, Mrs. Alexander K. Gage and Mrs. George S. Hosmer.

AAUW Sponsoring Drama For Children

Traveling Playhouse Will Present Two Performances Of "The Golden Goose" At Pierce Junior High School November 19

Wings will be put on an old fairy tale, "The Golden Goose," to send the lucky children of Grosse Pointe flying through a fascinating fantasyland, when the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women brings the famous Traveling Playhouse of New York City to Grosse Pointe Saturday, November 19.

This professional adult company will present an original musical version of one of the most delightful fairy tales on record at the Pierce Junior High School in Kercheval avenue.

"The Golden Goose" will be presented in two performances, at 1 and 3 o'clock. Single tickets are 75 cents, and may be purchased now from AAUW members. AAUW representatives in the schools or the following area merchants: Peter Pan, Inc., and Doubleday's in The Village; Punch & Judy Toyland On-the-Hill; Harkness Pharmacy in Mack avenue.

Group reservations for 11 or more children may be obtained by notifying Mrs. R. D. McLaughlin (8885-8947), by Wednesday, November 16. Tickets will also be sold at the box office on the day of the play.

So popular are these professional productions that this is the seventh consecutive year AAUW has sponsored this event to provide financial assistance to college women for post-graduate studies and research.

The Traveling Playhouse is an adult professional troupe which keeps its performances to a child's imagination. A grant from the Rockefeller Foundation in 1949 inaugurated the Playhouse under the direction of Ken and Kay Rockefeller.

Color, movement and surprise as well as dance and audience participation should achieve its acme when the king pleads with his audience to "make a funny face" so that his daughter will laugh.

AAUW members of the Children's Theatre committee are Mrs. David Shrock, general chairman; Mrs. Richard J. Edin, vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert Jessup, tickets and finances; Mrs. Fred M. Lewis, ushers; Mrs. R. D. McLaughlin, group reservations; Mrs. John MacLeod, publicity; Miss Louise Rau, fellowships; Mrs. Robert H. Snyder, patronesses; and Mrs. Edward R. Dunn, box office.

Sevensma-Feikens Nuptials Celebrated

Grand Rapids' LaGrave Avenue Christian Reformed Church Is Setting For Saturday Afternoon Rites

A Princess style gown of antique white worsted silk, accented with bodice embroidery of Venetian lace, was Susan Corinne Feikens' choice for the Saturday ceremony, in LaGrave Avenue Christian Reformed Church, Grand Rapids, at which she became the bride of Norman Bruce Sevensma.

Matching lace bordered her Cathedral train, and her illusion veil fell from a lace coronet. Her flowers were miniature Calla lilies.

The Reverend Mr. George Vanderhill, of the Dearborn Christian Reformed Church, officiated at the 3 o'clock rites, which were followed by a reception at Grand Rapids' Peninsula Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Feikens, of Pemberton road. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Sevensma, of Livonia. Barbara Feikens served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Julie Feikens, another sister of the bride, Ruth Sevensma, the bridegroom's sister, Beverly Denouden, of Grand Rapids, and Nelle Westerhuis, of The Netherlands.

Satin back bows accented their dark green velvet Empire gowns. Their headpieces were pearl-trimmed, small green illusion veils, and their flowers were white chrysanthemums.

Acting as his brother's best man was David Sevensma. Ushering were Jon Feikens, brother of the bride, Charles Van Vliet, Thomas Geary, Marvin Folkertsma and Jack Stuit, all of Grand Rapids, and Charles Ransford, of Texas.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Feikens chose an aqua satin gown, featuring a soft, rolled collar with a bow.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige crepe ensemble, with a matching fur-trimmed jacket. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

The newly weds will be making their home in Grand Rapids.

Goodwill Show Preview Slated

One of the special events of Detroit's fall season will be launched at the Champagne Party and Preview of the 19th Annual Junior Group of Goodwill Industries Antiques Market and Sale on Saturday evening, November 12. The event will take place at the Goodwill Industries, Brush street and East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

It promises to be a gala affair. The scene will be an old Victorian Music Room, much like one found in old Detroit homes. The color scheme will be gold and white.

Tables will be covered with shimmering gold cloths on each a delightful golden figurine with jewels for eyes. Each figurine holds a different musical instrument.

Preview chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Altick and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frank have announced that a string ensemble, including three women from the Detroit Symphony under the direction of Mrs. Harry J. Chapman will play appropriate chamber music throughout the evening.

All the 48 dealers' booths will be open during the preview and purchases can be made during the evening.

Proceeds from the show, which will continue through November 16, will be used for the rehabilitation of handicapped men and women of Goodwill Industries.

Grosse Pointers serving on the Preview committee are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Benfield, Mr. and Mrs. Bill O. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. John Denier, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howland, Mrs. Jesse C. Hurley, Mrs. W. Thomas LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Reid, Mrs. Francis W. Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Dewey.

Mrs. Norman Sevensma

SUSAN CORINNE FEIKENS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Feikens, of Pemberton road, and Mr. Sevensma, son of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Sevensma, of Livonia, were married Saturday, in LaGrave Avenue Christian Reformed Church, Grand Rapids.

Art Institute Banquet Slated

A prize awards banquet for exhibitors, prize donors, trustees, members of the Arts Commission and museum staff members will precede the Founders Society preview and reception for the 56th Exhibition for Michigan Artists at The Detroit Institute of Arts on Thursday, November 17. The Women's Committee of the Founders Society is sponsoring the dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Woman's Club Meets Nov. 16

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will gather for tea and a monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 16, at 1 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

A program has been arranged by chairman Mrs. Richard Murvay featuring a travelogue and movies on Russia by Mrs. Ben Beyer. Mrs. Dallas Newkirk, program chairman of the day, will introduce Mrs. Beyer.

Mrs. Beyer and her husband have travelled the world over. India and Japan will also be seen in the movies taken by the Beyer's on their journeys.

Mrs. Ross Polkinghorne will preside at the tea table, this month featuring Thanksgiving and Turkey Trot decorations. Favorite Christmas arrangements will also be on display during the tea.

Co-hostess is Mrs. Otto Mann. Committee members are the Mesdames John H. Carter, Alex Kennedy, William Krieger, Vernon Landry, R. W. Lang, Donald Leahy, Arthur Lee, Kenneth Locke, Henry Loomis, L. A. Lotgering, Walter Mast,

GOP Women Meet Nov. 17

The Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe will hold its regular luncheon meeting next Thursday, November 17, at 12:30 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

George Schuyler, noted Negro columnist, will be the speaker. His address is titled: "The Future of the American Negro."

Mr. Schuyler is a staff editor of the "Pittsburgh Courier" and a widely-read columnist and author. His Courier columns have appeared in that newspaper since 1924. In addition, he is a feature writer for the North American Newspaper Alliance.

state of the Union and to many countries of the world including most of South and Central America, West Africa, Germany, Belgium, Norway, Portugal, Angola and Mozambique.

Educated in the public schools of Syracuse, N. Y., he was married in 1928, and has a daughter, also a celebrity in her own right. She is Philippa Duke Schuyler, well-known pianist-composer and author of "Who Killed the Congo?"

Mr. Schuyler has authored two novels, "Slaves Today" and "Black No More," and contributed to two symposiums, "Behold America" and "What the Negro Wants." His impressive biography has appeared in each edition of "Who's Who in America" since 1934.

The Manchester (England) "Union-Leader" said of Mr. Schuyler: "Proud of his race, he has fought all of his life for the betterment of the Negro in the United States and everywhere in the world."

Luncheon reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Milton O. Cross, III, TU 6-4538, or Mrs. Paul Gracey, 885-9275.

All interested Grosse Pointers are cordially invited.

Two Parties Slated At DYC

Two events are upcoming for Detroit Yacht Club members, a "mixed" gala and one for the distaff side.

DYC's Wheels "Patriotic Jam-boree" cocktail party is slated for November 11, in the East Lounge at 6:30 o'clock. The decor will include a giant-size American flag and red, white and blue bunting.

This gala is a get-acquainted party for new members and promises to be a gay evening. Ted Schultz and his band will play continuous music for dancing and a sing-a-long. Dinner will follow in the main dining room at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Vincent Hurst and Mrs. Edwin Reid are the co-chairmen. Their assistants are Mrs. John Trost, Mrs. David Gardiner, Mrs. Arthur Davies, Mrs. Eleanor Kornmeier and Miss Virginia Ede.

The Club's bridge luncheon and fashion show on November 15, at noon, will have "Round the World with Fashions" as its theme. DeWans will provide an array of daytime and after-five costumes.

Mrs. Erick Novak will narrate the showing and DYC members who will model the collection include Mesdames Fred Start, George Timco, Floyd Gladwin, Jack Anderholdt, R. Gerald Jordan, James Glover and Miss Jill Whitmer.

Mrs. Fred Ribits and Mrs. Donald Burgess are party co-chairmen. Their aides are Mrs. Walter Jurvis and Mrs. Austin Z. Howard.

Mrs. George W. Levette's guests for the fete will include the wives of consul generals, Lady James Easton, Great Britain, Mrs. George Von Pirch, Germany, and Mrs. Jorge Aguilar, Mexico, and the wives of consuls located in Detroit.

Among others who'll attend are Mrs. Duncan James, Mrs. Richard Daley and Mrs. Howard M. Wheeler.

Tea, Bridge Set By Garden Club

Members of the Grand Marais Garden Club will gather for a benefit tea and bridge party Monday, November 14, from 12 noon until 3:30 o'clock, at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Hospitality Center, Kercheval avenue in "The Village."

Funds raised during the afternoon will be used to finance a Christmas party for some of the children at the Brewster Housing Development.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Waldo Fellows, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Belfore, Mrs. Fred Neumann and Mrs. Elton MacDonald.

In Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Saturday, LINDA LOUISE MICKLETHWAITE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Micklethwaite, of Emory court, and Mr. Miller, son of the senior Millers, of Flint, were married.

Linda Micklethwaite Is November Bride

Newlywed Donald Earl Millers, Jr., to Make Their Home in Ypsilanti While Both Complete Studies At Eastern Michigan University

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, at a formal, double ring ceremony in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, were Linda Louise Micklethwaite and Donald Earl Miller, Jr.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Micklethwaite, of Emory court, wore a frock fashioned of candlelight ivory silk satin from her mother's wedding gown, trimmed with Venetian lace and styled with an Empire bodice, lace overblouse and lace train.

Her illusion veil fell from a lace headpiece, and she carried a single white rose.

Serving as her sister's matron of honor was Mrs. Richard Jeffries, and Maureen Clifton was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Gail Andersen, Laurene Keckhut and Kathy Miller, the bridegroom's sister.

Their floor length frocks featured dark moss green velvet Empire bodices and beige crepe skirts. They wore moss green velvet headpieces, the honor attendants' veiled in green and the bridesmaids' in beige, and carried cascades of ivy with floor length moss green velvet ribbons.

Thomas David Miller served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Earl Miller, of Flint.

Ushering were William Yerkley, of Fostoria, O., Stafford Stice, of Flint, Dennis Morrison, of Flint, and John Anderson, of Ypsilanti.

A tea reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the 2 o'clock rites, for which the bride's mother chose a beige satin and dark green velvet brocade suit.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige brocade ensemble. Both mothers carried single tea roses.

The newlyweds will make their home in Ypsilanti while both complete their senior year at Eastern Michigan University.

LaLeche League Meetings Slated

Have you ever tried to buy what you considered a useful item only to be met with a blank stare? The sales lady with arched brows informs you that it is "out of style" or "that isn't made any more."

The average mother or mother-to-be faces a similar situation when she tries to make the decision of how to feed her infant. Information on the technique of bottle feeding is readily available from baby magazines, friends and old-maid aunts. Everyone has held a bottle for a baby or at least seen one being fed.

But, when the mother asks about breast feeding she is usually met with that same blank stare and the same "it is out of style" or "nobody does that anymore." It has been so out of style that it's even hard to find people who remember the old wives' tales about the once universal way to feed a baby.

Ten years ago in Oak Park, Ill., seven young mothers found themselves in the same situation — wanting to breast feed their babies, but unable to find useful information about it. They did something about it by forming a non-profit, non-denominational organization called La Leche League. La Leche League provides mother-to-mother information: Those who have successfully nursed their children will help those who wish to.

There are now seven chapters of La Leche League in the Detroit area which meet in small, informal groups once a month to discuss every aspect of breast feeding.

Subjects covered at the meetings range from practical techniques of "How and When," "Advantages of Breast Feeding for Mothers and Children" and "The place of the new child in the family." Experienced mothers share ideas that have helped them solve the many simple problems that can worry the first-time mother.

The regular meetings of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of La Leche League are held on the second Monday of each month at 318 Fisher road at 8:15 in the evening.

A new series of four classes begins this month on November 14. Women are considering nursing are encouraged to come to the first meeting and to plan to attend all four classes, to hear "Young Wives' Tales about Successful Breast-Feeding."

La Leche League offers an added bonus of occasional meetings with professional people who are interested in breast feeding. This month Douglas Sargent, M.D., a psychiatrist who is Medical Director for the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, will discuss the psychological aspects of breast feeding. Any interested person is welcome, especially husbands and wives who are expecting first babies. This meeting will be held at the Clinic, in East Warren avenue, near the Cadieux Exit of the Freeway, at 8:45 o'clock November 21.

Kappa Kappa Gammas To Meet November 15

Quattro-Sieffert Rites Are Read

Suzanne Campbell Sieffert and Terrence Henry Quattro exchanged marriage vows Saturday, at a noon ceremony in St. Bede Church, Southfield.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sieffert, of Lathrup Village, formerly of Grosse Pointe, wore a gown of white crepe and Alencon lace, styled with a full chapel train, and carried an arrangement of white roses and stephanotis.

Marjorie Ann Connelly, of Pittsburgh, Pa., the bride's cousin, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Jean Rogers, Cheryl Graham, Mrs. Ernest Remynyder and Candace Quattro.

Their floor length frocks were fashioned of ivory crepe and green brocade, and they carried cascades of miniature gold mums.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quattro, of Dearborn, asked William Klarich to act as best man.

Seating the guests were John and Joseph Sieffert, brothers of the bride, Albert Billis and James Berish.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Northern Michigan and Miami, Fla. They plan to make their home in Warren.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John Campbell, and her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. William Connelly and Mr. and Mrs. James Bernard Sieffert, all of Pittsburgh, Pa., and the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vacca and Mrs. Frances Vacca, of New York.

Representatives from two of the "Seven Sisters," noted Eastern Women's Colleges, will be in town, and local alumnae are busily preparing to enjoy their visits.

From Smith College comes Peter D.A. Jones, Associate Professor of History, to talk on "The American Dream and U. S. Economic Growth" before a joint meeting of the Smith College Clubs of Detroit, Ann Arbor and Birmingham at the Village Woman's Club in Bloomfield Hills.

Handling lecture-luncheon arrangements for the Detroit Club are Mrs. Gerard C. Mooney, of Washington road, Mrs. James P. Williams, of Mount Vernon road, and Mrs. M. Whitney McCutcheon, of Lochmoor boulevard, who welcomes reservations, (her telephone number is 886-1869), from alumnae and interested non-alumnae.

Vassar College President Alan Simpson and Mrs. Simpson will be guests of honor at a reception and dinner Thursday evening, in the Versailles Room of the Pontchartrain Hotel, given by the Detroit and Birmingham Vassar Clubs.

Among those planning to attend are Pointers Mr. and Mrs. William G. Boales, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Cobane, (she's a local Vassar Club vice-president), Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard and Mr. and Mrs. H. James Gram.

More are Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. William C. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Trent McMath, Miss Katherine Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Bryce W. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams.

Wives To Fete Lawyers

The Grosse Pointe Branch, Lawyers' Wives of Michigan, has planned a special party for husbands Saturday, November 19: A gala dinner dance at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, beginning with cocktails at 6:30 o'clock and including a complete prime rib dinner, to be served at 8 o'clock.

The Marty Trombly Orchestra will furnish music for members and prospective-member guests. Wives are invited to contact Mrs. David Martin, of Colonial road, for reservations, (deadline is November 14; price is $15 per couple . . . but after all, ladies, isn't a pleasant evening with your husbands WORTH $15 to you? . . .).

Around The World With Libri

Libri Club members will gather at the Detroit Athletic Club—and travel around the world in an afternoon, courtesy of James T. Fitzpatrick, who has promised to show his world travel pictures—next Monday, November 14, at 12:30 o'clock.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Elmer A. Conway, Mrs. Edward C. Stark, Mrs. Claude McDonald, Mrs. Frank Samberson and Mrs. Albert B. Thomas, Jr. Mr. Fitzpatrick's program will follow luncheon.

Double The Pleasure, Double The Fun

The new Detroit League for the Handicapped building has not been completed—so, in order to accommodate an expected 400-plus guests, the Junior League of Detroit's annual Detroit League for the Handicapped Christmas Party will do a "double take."

There'll be TWO parties, December 15 and December 20, at the League's current headquarters in Ash street, Detroit, both running from noon until 4 o'clock.

Chairman of the dual festivities is Mrs. F. James Robinson, II; her committee heads include Mrs. William J. Cudlip, Mrs. Foster H. Barrows, Mrs. Walter B. Fisher and Mrs. Hilary H. Micou, Jr. The Junior League of Detroit Glee Club will make its traditional appearance both afternoons.

Church Women Slate Bus Tour

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Association has scheduled a Tuesday, November 15, Inner City Bus Tour to service centers typifying needful work in the community.

After stops at Teen-Drop Center, Plymouth United Church of Christ, Brewster Douglas Homes, Hobart Street, Virginia Park Rehabilitation Area, New Presbyterian Headquarters, Elmwood Housing Area, the groups will have a lunch at St. John's Presbyterian, served by local church women. The Reverend James C. Chambers will speak.

Mrs. Frank Raphael, chairman of the day, is taking reservations which should be made by Friday, November 11. Miss Helen I. Howe, of the National Missions section of the Detroit Presbytery will guide the tour. The bus will leave the church at 9 o'clock and return at 3 o'clock. There'll be a $1 round trip charge. Reservations for the tour may be made at the church; nursery care is available.

The Women's Association Service Guild will meet in the church Youth Lounge Tuesday, November 15, at 10 o'clock. Nursery care will be provided.

MRS. JAMES ZINN, of Dean lane, a member of the Smith College Alumnae Fund committee, attended Smith Alumnae Association's annual Council meeting on the Northampton, Mass., campus November 1 through 3.

Mrs. Kerry Schaeffner

St. Augustine's of Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii, was the setting for the October 26 wedding of SANDRA KATHRYN CHAPEL, daughter of the Howard Chapels, of Lincoln road, and Mr. Schaeffner, son of Mrs. Victor J. Schaeffner, of Harvard road, and the late Mr. Schaeffner.

Among Nomad travel-club members who've taken off in their own plane for a week of sunshine, surfing and swimming in Hawaii are MR. and MRS. GEORGE CODD, of Devonshire road.

Schaeffner-Chapel Vows Are Spoken

Newlyweds Returning to Grosse Pointe to Make Their Home After Vacation In Hawaiian Islands

Sandra Kathryn Chapel and Kerry Patrick Schaeffner exchanged marriage vows October 26, at a morning ceremony in St. Augustine's of Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Father C. A. Adrian von Tilberg officiated at the double ring ceremony and Nuptial High Mass and, following the ceremony, was present at a small party given at the Reef Towel hotel in the couple's honor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chapel, of Lincoln road. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Victor J. Schaeffner, of Harvard road, and the late Mr. Schaeffner.

Chapel chose a gown of Alencon lace over peau de soie.

Her illusion veil fell from a pearl-trimmed crown, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

After a vacation in Honolulu and the neighboring Hawaiian Islands, the couple will return to make their home in Grosse Pointe.

Knowing what to do and doing it is the difference between criticism and performance.

Miss Brilmyer Wed To Robert G. Aikins

Reception At Detroit Yacht Club Follows Rites, For Which Bride Chooses Chantilly Lace-Trimmed White Satin Empire Gown

At an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning, St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, Rosellen Brilmyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Brilmyer, of Belanger road, became the bride of Robert George Aikins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Aikins, of Suitland, Md.

The Reverend Father William J. Downie officiated at the rites, which were followed by a reception at the Detroit Yacht Club.

The bride wore a white satin empire gown, fashioned with an A line skirt and featuring a neckline appliqued with Chantilly lace. Her detachable Watteau Chapel train and the pillbox headpiece from which her silk illusion veil fell were also fashioned of Chantilly lace. She carried white roses and stephanotis, and was given in marriage by her father.

In floor length frocks of gold satin, styled with ecru lace bodices trimmed with narrow moss ribbon, were Sue Brilmyer, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and

Women's Economic Club To Hear Tony Spina Talk

Anthony Spina, K.S.G., chief photographer for the Detroit Free Press since 1951, will be the featured speaker at the November 15 meeting of the Women's Economic Club. His address will be entitled "Photographing the News," and will include examples of his prize-winning work.

The luncheon session will be held at the Statler Hilton Hotel at noon.

Good resolutions never die—they just fall by the wayside.

Mike Wallace At Town Hall

Mike Wallace, CBS TV newscaster, will appear at Detroit Town Hall fresh from broadcasting the elections, to discuss "Newsmen on the Move," Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Wallace's talk is slated for 11 a.m. in Fisher Theater, followed by luncheon at the Rathskeller, Milwaukee and John R. He will be introduced by Bob McBryde of WJBK-TV.

Wallace has been one of the most controversial newsmen on the air. He began his career as a radio news writer and broadcaster for the Chicago Sun. In 1951 he first broadcast for CBS and in the following year covered the national conventions and elections.

Later he co-hosted "Adventure" with Charles Collingwood on CBS and was host-reporter for CBS' documentary radio series, "Stagestruck." He is heard Monday-Friday on the CBS radio network's Dimension Series, "Personal Closeup" and is also host of another weekly series, "Mike Wallace at Large." Tickets are available in the Town Hall office in the Fisher Building or at the box office, day of performance.

This solid masonry dwelling of brick and stucco on hollow tile, is of an earlier vintage, but in extremely fine condition. It accordingly has many features not found in more recently constructed homes.

Rooms are exceptionally large and liveable and sufficient in number to accommodate a family with several children. For instance the living room is 30x16 and has a beamed ceiling; dining room, 18x17; den, 20x13; kitchen, 14x11, with dishwasher; and breakfast room, 13x8. On the 2nd floor are 6 above-average size bedrooms and 3 baths.

The home is nicely landscaped, has many fine old trees, and is completely carpeted.

MAY WE SHOW IT TO YOU?

We also have a very complete selection of other Grosse Pointe homes, of all types and sizes. We will gladly show them upon request.

IF YOUR HOME IS FOR SALE

We will be pleased to make an inspection of same and advise the price we feel can be obtained. You are under no obligation for this service. 90% of our listings are sold within 30 days. Why not let us sell yours?

Jose Melis To Star In DAC Floor Show

Many Pointers In Opening Night Being Hosted By Athletic Club President And Mrs. Edwin O. George

Most people know Jose Melis from his role of musical director on Jack Paar's "Tonight." Now, members of the Detroit Athletic Club will have the opportunity to get better acquainted with his talent as a "key" man when he opens Friday, November 11, at the DAC for a week's stay through November 19, (except for Sunday and Monday).

Most adaptable, Melis has tickled the ivories in nightclubs and with major symphonies, and has chalked up a count of more than 1,000 tunes that he has composed.

Also appearing in the November show will be singer Bobbie Norris, whose first album, "The Beginning," is getting raves from critics and disc jockeys across the country.

DAC President Edwin O. George and Mrs. George have invited a large party of friends to join them for dinner on opening night.

Pointers among them will include Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. M. Frank McCaffrey, the John S. Pingels, Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Tomkins, the Carl Johnsons and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Campbell. Others in the George party will be Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Prew, Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Mewhort, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Diehl, Jr., the Jervis C. Webbs, Nathan B. Goodnows, Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carey, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Gurdjian, the William B. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Bixby, the Louis C. Goads and Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Kenney.

Other Pointers with reservations for the evening include Thornton E. Waterfall, A. Richard Stanny, Frank J. Wilton, Lee R. J. Scott, H. J. Hagen and Harlow C. Stahl.

Pointe Questers To Meet Friday

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Questers will meet Friday, November 11, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Balfour road home of Mrs. Edward Gehrig. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. John Pear and Mrs. Albert Conkey.

Mrs. Edgar Hahn will present a paper on Early American Cookery.

This particular meeting could easily be sub-titled: "Presidents At Large." Mrs. Conkey was the Chapter's first president. Mrs. Pear, its second president. Mrs. Hahn was last year's Michigan Council president.

Another member who'll be attending tomorrow's meeting, Mrs. Frederick Schumann, is this year's Michigan Council president.

Slate Pear Tree Quester Meeting

The Pear Tree Chapter of Questers will meet today, Thursday, November 10, in the home of Mrs. Robert Palenchar on Wedgewood drive, at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Vayle Lorian, an authority on antique furniture and brass, will be the guest speaker.

Author of Children's Books at Jacobson's

Being the mother of seven children, Anne Marie Mahon finds time to write children's books. "The Minnows and the Shark," her new book to be released by Vantage Press, shows that she has learned to see the world through the eyes of children.

The collection of stories reflects Anne Mahon's and her husband's philosophy towards their seven children — ages 10 months to 8 years. The couple believes in eternal and loving vigilance, and the family follows this philosophy by spending much time together as a family unit.

The children even helped Mrs. Mahon with her book. She feels that they are her best critics. How do her children react to the stories?

"The all chuckled in the right places when I read my book," said Anne Marie, "so I guess I'm a success."

This mother and author will be at Jacobson's Children's Department on Saturday, November 12, to talk about her book and to autograph your new copies.

Archives Correspondents at Work

Piles of correspondence—invitations, thank-you notes, follow-up notes—are part of the necessary preparations for the Archives of American Art's annual Sale and Auction at the Detroit Institute of Arts. MRS. JAMES FLOM, of Lakeland avenue, MRS. JOHN LESENE, of Oxford road, and MRS. CHARLES ENDICOTT, of Blairmore drive, (left to right), have discovered that the letters get written faster, the envelope-addressing is less a chore, when volunteer correspondents work together... besides, it's much more fun that way! This year, the magnificent objects d'art donated by friends anxious to help the Archives continue its work of cataloging, collecting, microfilming, tape-recording and indexing materials pertaining to American art and artists will be sold at Auction Tuesday evening, November 15, beginning at 8 o'clock in the Institute of Arts' large auditorium. The sale is scheduled Friday and Saturday, November 18 and 19, from 9 in the morning until 6 in the evening each day, in Galleries 40 and 41 of the Arts Institute.

U. of D. Women Schedule Scholarship Card Party

The University of Detroit Women's Guild will sponsor its annual Father Foley Scholarship Card Party Saturday evening, November 12, at 8 o'clock in the Student Union ballroom on campus at U. of D.

This party was founded in 1952 by the late Reverend Joseph A. Foley, S.J., and since then has served as a vehicle to raise funds which have aided many worthy students to continue their studies. The present moderator is Reverend O. J. Marshall, S.J.

Mrs. Peter Montagne is chairman. Mrs. John Dunlop is co-chairman. Admission is $1.75, men and women are invited, and tickets may be obtained at the door, or in advance by calling Mrs. Montagne, (861-6425).

Pianist Gilels With Symphony

Pianist Emil Gilels will be soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday and Saturday, November 10 and 12, at the Orchestra's first home concerts following a three-week tour in New England.

Sixteen Ehring will conduct the performances, which will begin at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Two works will be heard: Mahler's Symphony No. 1 and Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 1. Since his last performance with Ehring and the Orchestra in November, 1964, Gilels has concentrated in Europe and Asia and has continued teaching as a professor at the Moscow Conservatory.

Gilels, a native of Odessa, is a recipient of the highest honor bestowed by the Soviet Union—People's Artist, an award he received in 1954. The following year he became the first major Soviet soloist to appear in the United States since Prokofiev two decades earlier.

His current American tour, his fifth, prompted the Saturday Review to comment in its October 29 issue, "Gilels to us is no longer a 'Russian Pianist' the veil of strangeness that fell between him and his audience on his first visits is gone, and he comes before us now like a Rubinstein, a Serkin, a Fleischer, a Curzon..." Gilels began to study the

Church Circles Slate Sessions

The Circle Meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, are scheduled Tuesday, November 15.

Gathering at 9:30 o'clock in the morning will be Martha Mary Circle, at the Moross road home of Mrs. Thomas Munson, and Rebecca Circle, at the Balfour road home of Mrs. S. A. Buffa.

Meeting at 12:45 o'clock in the afternoon will be Alpha Circle, at the Lakeland avenue home of Mrs. David Waggoner, Naomi Circle, at the Blairmore drive home of Mrs. Earl Penno, and Ruth Circle, at the Harbor Hill home of Mrs. Sheldon Hall.

Planning to meet at 8 o'clock in the evening are Doris White Circle, at the St. Clair Shores home of Mrs. Paul Pierron, and Susannah Wesley Circle, at the Detroit home of Miss Grace Simmons.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL

Couple the picture above with the floor plan below and decide if you would like to go through this impressive, conveniently arranged example of this fine traditional architecture.

In addition to rooms shown above, there is paneled Recreation Room in the basement with Bar, Fireplace, and Lavatory. There is a 2-car detached garage with tool and bicycle shed adjoining. The heat is Gas A.C. Convenient to schools and buses. Carpets and draperies are included in the price of $52,500. Built by Walter Mast in 1939; in excellent condition. Won't you call us for an interior inspection.

We Have Many Other Grosse Pointe Houses

Are you in the early, time consuming stages of house hunting? The Maxon Plan for sifting out the inappropriate by means of small, simplified floor plans coupled with photographs can lighten your burden (and ours) of preliminary inspections. Drop in at 83 Kercheval Avenue and go through one of our catalogs.

Footnote to Home Owners — The Maxon Plan can save you too the inconvenience of inappropriate, unnecessary interior inspections. If your house is for sale, we'd be glad to inspect it and suggest a price suitable to the current market. We usually sell our listings quite promptly at market prices.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Well, if the snow HAD to fall . . . at least it came at a "good" time for Grosse Pointe children, enjoying a long weekend with public schools closed for teachers' meetings. It was nice, wet "packing" snow, too, kind that lends itself to the making of forts and tunnels and men, (and sticks to the bottom of automobiles, finally falling off in huge chunks when the cars are safely ensconced in garages. And it WAS a pretty sight to wake up to Wednesday morning, even for an anti-winter adult. (How do you tell Michigan adults from Michigan children? The children run to the window, shouting "Snow!", when the first flakes begin to fall; the adults react with a simple "Ugh!") . . .

The snow made GETTING TO . . . Christ Church Fair a bit of a sloppy proposition, but shoppers came in droves just the same, all bundled up in high boots, warm coats, scarves and mittens Thursday morning, weather-disposed to buy armloads of Christmas gifts and ornaments . . .

Down on Lakeshore . . . the water and sky were grey, the scene more mid-January than early November. A few autumn leaves still clung to a few snow-covered tree branches . . . We blinked: It seemed only yesterday that we were admiring the flowering trees and shrubs as we walked along the drive on a warm spring day. Well . . . we'll be admiring them again in a few months; the trees and shrubs are an annual project of the Grosse Pointe Garden Council, financed via a yearly donation from each of the Council's participating Garden Clubs and the Council's traditional Shrub Sales. So Lakeshore WILL bloom again . . . some day . . . though right now that day seems VERY far away to a Michigan child-turned-adult who remembers shouting "Snow!" but finds herself muttering "Ugh!"

The snowstorm didn't stop Mrs. Carl Lanz . . . of Chalfonte avenue, from flying off to Vermont Friday, to attend the Volunteers Conference of the Experiment in International Living. Serving as volunteer representative in this area, Mrs. Lanz arranges short homestays with local families for foreign students. This past summer, the Charles A. Barlows, of Stephens road hosted Nigel Hills, of England, who is studying at the University of Michigan, and Shih-Ger Chang, of Taiwan, was welcomed into the Bishop road home of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Steinhauer before he began his graduate studies at the University of Detroit . . .

Currently, Mrs. Lanz . . . is seeking a community organization to sponsor an outstanding young person from Latin America for a two-month visit in January. This young adult, an "Incoming Ambassador," will come not to study or to attend classes, but to live for two months with families in his host community, to learn about life in the United States BY ACTUALLY LIVING IT. He'll come prepared to speak to local groups, to engage in radio and television appearances, to participate in discussions and private conversations, using all means available to bridge the gap between his own country and his temporary "home" . . .

The Organization Sponsor . . . would be asked to contribute to the Ambassador's transportation costs, covering a week's visit in New York and Washington, and provide homestays with two, three or four families during the two-month period. More than 1,000 young men and women have participated in the Experiment program since its inception in 1950. This summer, some 200 communities played host to "Incoming Ambassadors" from all over the world; 1967 will be the first year a similar program has been arranged for the winter months.

A "Heavenly" sight . . . were the swarms of "Saints" surrounding St. Ambrose School on Friday, October 27. Investigation revealed that they were First Graders, all dressed up as Good Spirits for Halloween.

Did you know that Virginia Graham . . . this morning's Celebrity Series speaker at the Esquire Theater, has single-handedly raised more funds for charity than any other woman in the country? In the past five years, Miss Graham has collected upwards of TWELVE MILLION DOLLARS for various charities in which she is interested!

And did you know that William M. Whitelaw . . . of Broadstone road, scored a hole-in-one at Key Biscayne Golf Course, Key Biscayne, Fla. — right after he'd landed a 7-foot, 3-inch sailfish during a most successful angling day on the deep sea . . . all while his family and neighbors "up north" were struggling through last week's slush, snow and sleet, it's bits of information like this that bring out our congratulations-through-clenched-teeth smile; why couldn't WE have spent last week on a Florida golf course? . . .

PILFERINGS

Clerk in Garden Store to Lady Customer: "Don't worry. It's perfectly safe if used as directed. Just don't breathe the vapor or spraymist, avoid contact with the skin, keep the mist from your eyes, do not spray near a fire or open flame, store under a hundred and twenty degrees and out of the sun's rays, keep the can out of reach of children, and do not incinerate or puncture."

Pointers of Interest

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM C. PORTER, OF HAMPTON ROAD, MATTHEW, ARMIN, PHIL AND JULIE PORTER

By Janet Mueller

Dinner hours have been a bit hectic in the William C. Porter household recently, but there's been lots more popcorn made than usual—and the young Porters are all for more popcorn!

We don't mean to imply that Lornie Porter is neglecting her family's nutritional requirements; she's cooking good, substantial meals every evening, but they're being eaten on-the-run, in relays, because Lornie, her husband, Bill, and 13-year-old Phil have a lot of after-dinner things to do.

Bill and Lornie Porter are co-producers of "Noah," first presentation of The Memorial (Church) Players, Grosse Pointe's premier theater group dedicated to the presentation of religious drama.

Phil is "The Monkey" in the play, (and THAT, according to everyone who knows Phil, is the acme of type-casting).

Almost every night, Bill, Lornie or Phil—or all three of them—dash over to Memorial Church's Fellowship Hall, where "Noah" will be presented Thursday and Friday evenings, November 17 and 18, at 8:15 o'clock, and Sunday afternoon, November 20, at 4:15 o'clock, to work on the play.

Armin Takes Over

This leaves Armin, 15, in the 10th grade at Grosse Pointe High School, in charge of Matthew, 10, a fifth grader at Ferry School, and Julie, nine, in Ferry's fourth grade, (plus the family cat, who answers to the name of Lightning, although she's "slow as sugar and molasses").

Now Armin, Matthew and Julie all love popcorn, (so does Phil, who's in the 9th grade at Parcels Junior High School—but he loves being "The Monkey" more) . . . so while the Theatrical Porters are busy whipping "Noah" into shape, the Stay-at-Home Porters are busy cooking, and eating, their favorite food.

And thriving on it . . . but, then, so are the Theatrical, (non-popcorn eating, for the duration), Porters thriving, on a steady diet of snatched dinners and "Noah." Which proves, probably, that it's difficult for a Porter NOT to thrive on anything he/she REALLY likes . . .

The list of PORTER "likes" is formidable. First off, there's Mackinac Island, where Bill and Lornie first met.

Mackinac Regulars

Her family have been Mackinac vacationers for years; Bill's father, Dr. Phil Porter, pastor of an Episcopal Church in Dayton, O., took over the Episcopal Church in Mackinac during the summers.

Now the young Porters spend THEIR summers on Mackinac, (Bill commutes weekends), roam and ride over the island, wouldn't dream of "missing a year" there.

"Downtown Mackinac IS more and more crowded each year, during the days," Lornie admits, "but behind the scenes, it never can be changed. It gets into your blood . . . We just adore it . . ."

The Porters love to ski; Lornie and Bill took up the sport three years ago, and now the children ski, too. They have a marvelous time, and all can manage very well on the slopes.

So far, they've only skied in Michigan, but Bill and Lornie have their fingers crossed, hoping to get to the Laurentians this winter.

Junior League Director

The Junior League has always meant a good deal to Lornie. She served on its Board of Directors for two years, as Provisional Training chairman and Education chairman, and last year helped make the magnificent decorations for the League's Anniversary Ball at the Country Club.

She's been a member of Tau Beta since her school days at Grosse Pointe Country Day, (now incorporated in Grosse Pointe University School).

Both the Porters are active in P-TA work, especially at Ferry, where Bill served as P-TA president and Lornie is traditionally Sixth Grade Room Mother.

"The Sixth Grade always has a class picnic," Bill explains, "and we live just a few blocks from the school, so whenever one of our children is in Sixth Grade, Lornie offers to serve as Room Mother and donates our backyard as the class picnic site."

Kenyon College Grad

Bill, a loyal alumnus of Kenyon College, represented Kenyon at the recent inauguration ceremonies honoring the University of Detroit's new president. "Very frequently, a college president will be unable to attend some function to which he has been invited, and asks a local alumnus to represent him," Bill notes. The president sends through his full academic costume, which the representative wears at the ceremony.

"I hadn't worn such regalia since I was graduated—it felt very hot!" Bill admits. His hat was a little large, too . . . but not quite so large as that of the gentleman marching ahead of him in the inaugural parade, whose 6½ head threatened constantly to lose itself in a 7½ mortarboard!

The Porters frequently return to Kenyon for graduation ceremonies, but Lornie, pregnant with Julie, missed the ceremony 10 years ago at which one of Bill's most famous classmates, Paul Newman, received an Honorary degree.

Almost Lost His Wife She finally met actor Newman two years ago, on a trip to New York, and was duly impressed: "Those blue eyes! We saw Richard Burton's 'Hamlet' from the second row one night, and the next night I met Paul Newman! Bill almost lost me!"

(Bill has continued the tradition of introducing Lornie to one "famous personality" each year, but he's taking no more Paul Newman chances: Last year, he took her to Kentucky and she met Citation!)

Bill acted with Paul Newman at Kenyon, but it was Lornie who won the first Porter dramatic laurels in Grosse Pointe.

"Two years ago, I read in the Grosse Pointe NEWS about Grosse Pointe Community Theater's tryouts for 'Cat On A Hot Tin Roof,' she recalls. 'I went, read, and got the part of 'Maggie,' the cat. I've never loved doing so much!'"

"Of course, I was a rank amateur—I'd done some Children's Theater work with the Junior League, and danced in the Junior League follies, (Lornie, who has always loved to dance, is doubling as choreographer for "Noah")—so it was terribly hard work. Bill was a WONDERFUL help . . ."

Back-Stage Husband "I became a Back-Stage Husband," Bill grins. He babysat when his schedule permitted, rehearsed cues with his wife until he knew all the parts by heart, could boast truthfully, "I've learned everything in this whole play except the page

Lornie won a Community Theater "Clarence," (Best Actress of the Year award), for her portrayal of "Maggie." Bill didn't win anything, (there's no award for Best Back-Stage Husband of the Year—maybe there should be?), but by the time he'd finished working with Lornie on "Cat," he was as "hooked" on community theatricals as his wife.

A little over a year ago, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Pastor Bertram deH. Atwood, interested in the resurgence of religious drama groups in churches throughout the United States, began tentatively to explore the possibility of forming such a group at Memorial Church.

Naturally, he contacted the Porters. They were immediately enthusiastic about the project. Big Part of Their Lives Memorial Church has figured largely in Lornie and Bill's lives. They were married there, by Pastor Emeritus Dr. Frank Pitt and Bill's father. They served as advisors for Tuxis, the Memorial Church-sponsored teen club. Bill is a Memorial Church Elder.

Last fall, Lornie and Bill spent 10 days on Mackinac Island, vacationing and reading through stacks of religious dramas, searching for just the right vehicle, a play with a message, (but neither overly pious nor overly "light"), a play with solid dramatic values, (but simple enough to be performed well by amateurs).

When they read Andre Obey's "Noah," the words "just leaped out of the pages at us—we thought it was charming, delightful . . . and good theater, besides."

It has plenty of visual color and excitement, including a rainbow at the end, (one of Stage Manager Bill Porter's special effects), and a cast of "animal" as well as human characters.

The animal costumes are works-of-art, especially the heads, funny, fuzzy, friendly faces mounted on chicken-wire frames, light enough so that they in no way cramp the animal-actors' styles.

Started from Scratch The Porters started Memorial Players literally "from scratch." Their properties were few, (only what Memorial Church happened to have on hand), their stage equipment minimal.

They had to "create" their own organization—so Lornie took to the telephone, began contacting people within the Church, people active in dramatic groups, anyone she thought might be interested in The Players. By last June, she'd managed to pull together an active, enthusiastic production staff.

She was astounded at the interest the project aroused, the talents, (scenery and poster designing, costuming, etc.), uncovered. As for Bill . . . he continues to be amazed at "the absolute cooperation of people."

"I know how busy they are," he marvels, "but, with a few very rare exceptions, I have never been turned down when I've asked someone to do a volunteer job."

Lornie, Bill claims, has done more of the "asking" for Memorial Players than he has; Bill, Lornie says proudly, has taken over the technical aspects of the production, and is doing a fabulous job.

Two To Make One "This is the first time Fellowship Hall's stage and equipment will be fully utilized," Lornie observes. "We're extending the stage, according to Mrs. Justin Giltner's design; Bill and Phil built the extension by hand, in a pro-shape—sort of symbolic, 'forward-looking' . . ."

"As co-producers, I do what Bill can't and Bill does what I can't; together, I think we make one workable producer . . ."

"We're REALLY fortunate in our director, Rae Bambas—her blocking is superb! But, when you come right down to it, we're fortunate in everyone connected with "Noah." We couldn't have asked for a more talented, more dedicated dramatic group . . . and I don't think we could

Set Pro Musica Concert Friday

Helen Vanni, mezzo-soprano, will present Pro Musica's first concert of the season at the Detroit Institute of Arts Friday evening, November 11.

This beautiful young woman combines a rich creamy voice with an amazing versatility which enables her to undertake a wide variety of operatic roles oratorios and recital programs.

Miss Vanni has been an extremely active member of the Metropolitan Opera, performing in German, Italian and French repertory. Last season she performed with the symphony or orchestras of Detroit, Minneapolis and St. Louis. She appeared recently with the Boston Symphony under Erich Leinsdorf.

As a recitalist, Miss Vanni's merits were exemplified by her Town Hall concert, which elicited this comment from the New York Herald Tribune: "Helen Vanni sang what was surely one of the most stunning vocal events that any reviewer in this town is likely to encounter."

Mrs. Mary Mannebach Lawrie, chairman of hosts and hostesses, has asked the following to assist at coffee tables in the Romanesque Room during the social hour after the program: Miss Margery Aber, Miss Rose Barton, Mrs. S. Graham Cookson, Mr. and Mrs. John Ehrlich, Mrs. Catherine Goodsell, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kondak, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander La Pointe, Dr. and Mrs. Ezra Lepkin, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Mahoney, Mrs. Mary Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Rodger and Mrs. Marion Vanicelli.

Set Park Garden Club Gathering

Following a noon luncheon, guest speaker Paul Penfield, of the Michigan Historical Commission, will tell how Garden Clubs can help with "Michigan Week."

Northeastern Women To Hear Of Police Work

Northeastern Woman's Club will meet Monday, November 14, at 1:30 o'clock, at St. Philip and St. Stephen Episcopal Church, Frankfort avenue, Newport entrance, Detroit. Mrs. R. H. Klug, Chief of Woman's Division, Detroit Police Department, will discuss "Police Work."

have found a better 'first' play than Noah. Its message is deep, but it has something for all ages . . .

Ever that most-difficult-to-please age of all, Junior High School. "You know, a lot of my friends think 'religious' drama sounds 'funny,'" says Phil, The Monkey. "But this 'Noah' is a REALLY GOOD play . . ."

Well worth missing a few bowls of popcorn for.
