Center Drive Still $5,000 Short of Goal

tributors Sought By Memorial Group

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1967 Family Participation Campaign is still short of the $75,000 needed to operate in the fiscal year beginning August 1. Some $5,000 more must be received by Memorial Day.

Though the amount still needed represents a small sum in comparison to the total goal, most givers of record have already been heard from and daily campaign receipts have fallen off a great deal.

All Pointers who have been putting off writing their checks or have been out of town are urged to send their gifts in promptly. New donors among Grosse Pointe's growing population are earnestly solicited too.

Center staff and volunteers will begin a telephone follow-up this week to assist in bringing the drive to a successful conclusion.

Among donors whose checks the War Memorial has already gratefully received are:

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron L. Evans, Miss Carol Fenley, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben E. J. Fielder, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Fitch, Frederick Flemming, Mrs. Elton B. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Galda, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibbs, Claudia Gilevich, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Gofrank, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gore, Mrs. Irene Tigchon Green, Mrs. J. A. Gwathkin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Make Gathering Possible

In 1965 the voters in the Grosse Pointe Public School District made a commitment at the ballot box to build a second high school for the youth of the school district. This commitment further provided the opportunity for innovation in the schools' organizational structure and in its curriculum and various programs.

By providing room to house the ninth grade students in the high school, several possibilities for reorganization and innovation appeared at the junior high school level which in turn also provided the opportunity to alleviate some severe overcrowding in the elementary schools.

One of these possibilities which also held forth the promise of better providing for the needs of the preadolescent was the middle school concept.

The relatively new middle schools usually encompass grades 6, 7, and 8, whereas the more traditional junior high schools housed students of the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades.

Committee Formed

In order to investigate the merits and problems of the middle school organization, a committee of Grosse Pointe administrators and teachers was formed. Millard Grell, Director of Curriculum Planning, was appointed chairman of the committee. William Mogk, Principal of Pierce Junior High School, and John Rohrer, Principal of Mairie Elementary School, completed the administrative complement to the committee.

Teacher members of the committee were selected from names submitted by teacher representatives of the professional study committee with care being given to insure representation from

Lectures and Inspections
Slated At All Schools;
Parents' Cooperation Sought

All public and parochial schools in the Pointe and Harper Woods are getting ready for the annual Bicycle Safety Program sponsored by the school safety officers of the six communities.

It was disclosed that no specific date has been set for inspections at any of the schools because inspections will be conducted throughout the entire month of May.

Give Safety Lectures

The preparations are being initiated by safety lectures in schools of their respective cities by: Cpl. George Blair, Park; Cpl. Duncan MacEachern, City; Sgt. Marvin Krebs, Farms; and Patrolman William Meier, Harper Woods.

Specially prepared literature provided by the Grosse Pointe Rotary and the Lions Clubs furnish the officers with the instructional tools for this program.

Physical inspection of all bicycles at each of the schools will follow the lectures, it was said, with each officer checking pupils' bikes, to see that they are in proper condition for safe operation. Parents are urged to assist their children in any necessary repairs to bicycles, prior to the inspections.

Need Cooperation

It is only through the cooperative efforts of all, police, school and parents, that the Pointe and Harper Woods area continue to experience a low child accident rate, the safety policemen said.

They ask everyone to remember "May is bicycle safety month in all the Pointes and Harper Woods."

Farms Market Break-in Foiled

Officer Richard Clark of the City Police discovered a ringing alarm at the Farms Market, 355 Fisher, on Saturday, April 29. The proprietor was notified.

With the assistance of Virgil Beaupre, Clark investigated and found an entry attempt made by cutting a hole in the sheet metal on the skylight and breaking the inter-glass.

The would-be thieves apparently fled when the alarm went off.

Early Enrollment In Summer School Strongly Advised

Will Drop Classes That Fail To Attract Interest; Varied Program Offers Wide Opportunity To Review And Enrich

As in past years, the 1967 summer school program offered by the Grosse Pointe Public School System, provides an opportunity for students wishing to review basic skills. In addition, a wide variety of enrichment activities are available for the student wishing to pursue special interests.

Because classes which do not show sufficient enrollment may be dropped, early enrollment is strongly advised by school officials. The six-week session will begin Monday, June 19, and extend through Friday, July 28.

At the elementary level review courses for students in grades 3-6 are available in arithmetic and reading. Enrichment activities include instrumental music, art, mathematics, science, and creative writing.

The creative writing course, for example, has been designed for pupils in grades 4-6 who have a special interest in writing. The work planned is not specifically related to the improvement of mechanics. The major objective of the class will be to help and to encourage those students who have a special liking and talent for writing.

For Junior Highs

At the junior high level, review and strengthening courses are available in general reading, 7th and 8th grade language skills and arithmetic.

Ninth grade review offerings include English, algebra, civics, and Latin. Students in grades 7-9 may avail themselves of such enrichment opportunities as typing, science, mathematics, pre-algebra, art, and both intermediate and beginning sewing.

The science offering, planned for boys and girls of special ability and interest, will feature guest lecturers, field trips, laboratory experiences and special materials. This year the emphasis will be on comparative anatomy. The course will be centered around the internal and external anatomy of such organisms as the frog, crayfish, perch and other common vertebrates.

High School Classes

Review classes at Grosse Pointe High School include English II and III, first year French, and Spanish, algebra, geometry, and mathematics. World history, American history, and biology will also be offered.

Among 14 offerings for enrichment and advanced credit are reading improvement, (Continued on Page 7)

Bicycle Riders Need Licenses

City Police Chief Andrew C. Teetaert asks all youngsters who don't already have licenses for their bicycles to obtain them immediately.

They can be purchased at the City Police Station for 50 cents. In case of loss or theft this is the one sure way of locating the owner.

He adds that bicycles should always be locked when left unattended.

'Village' Promises Fun At International Festival

International Festival Days in Grosse Pointe Village have come to mean fun, color, and festivity for three days in mid-May, and this year's Festival, (May 18 through 20), promises to be the biggest and best so far.

Hailed in the past as one of the most popular events of the season, the festival transforms the entire three-block area along Kercheval between Cadieux and Neff into a miniature old world bazaar.

Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association, the festival is designed to pay tribute to the many nationalities represented among the settlers of this area and their rich contributions to its culture and background.

State Officials Reconsider Permit Denial

State, City Agents To Meet To Discuss Conditions To Allow Temporary Use Of Facility

The determination of Park officials to seek some sort of solution to enable local citizens to use the swimming pool at the Waterfront Park this summer has swayed the Michigan Department of Health officials in Lansing to reconsider their refusal to issue a permit for the purpose, it was disclosed by Mayor Matthew Patterson, on Monday, May 8.

Paul D. Hodges, chief of the Public Swimming Pool Unit, revealed in a letter to City Manager Robert Sloane, that a "conditional permit" will be granted, for this summer only, the mayor said.

The mayor revealed that city officials will meet with Hodges and other agents of the Health Department, to discuss the conditions that will lead to issuance of the permit.

It was also revealed that Hodges complimented the Park council for its efforts in exploring different solutions, so that the people of the community will not miss out on this type of recreation.

Decision Praised

The Health Department also lauded the council for its decision not to expend funds for a filtering system and equipment, to meet the minimum requirements so that the pool can be used this summer.

The praise followed a letter from Sloane to Hodges, informing the State officials that the lowest bid for the complete project of filters, plumbing and electrical work amounted to $53,345.

The city manager stated that $40,000 of the equipment and labor in the project could not be salvaged, or used in a new pool and that there is some doubt as to the delivery date. Since this would cost the city more than $40,000 to make this temporary improvement, which would be in use not more than 10 weeks, provided completion of contracts and delivery dates are met, the council rejected all bids for the project.

What apparently gave the Health Department a change of heart was the plea in Sloane's letter to Hodges, part of which follows, verbatim:

"We request your serious consideration of the following which could be made a part of the operational procedures and request from you a conditional approval to operate the Waterfront Park swimming area for the 1967 season:

Pair Accused in Marijuana Sales Bound Over for Trial

Two Pointe youths accused in the sale of marijuana, for which they were arrested on March 14, waived examination when they appeared before Farms Municipal Judge Robert H. Pytell on Wednesday, May 3.

Bound over to the Wayne County Circuit Court to await trial, are Daniel L. Moorman, 19, of 97 Moran; and George Van, Jr., 18, of 450 Moran. Their bond of $5,000 each was continued.

Chief witness against the pair is another youth, who acting for police, made three purchases from the accused pair, including a "buy" in Detroit.

Farms police had been engaged in an investigation of the sale of marijuana to high school students from both pub-your approval; 2. Eliminate swimming on the days the swimming area is being filled, giving time for the chlorine residue to build up; 3. Fencing off the deep portion of the swimming area which in your opinion due to the turbidity of the water you feel would be unsafe; and 4. Limit the number of people using the swimming area as per your recommendations.

"We would very much appreciate a conference, similar to the one held on March 1, at which time we would again inspect the swimming area and point out the operational conditions we described above.

Important Asset

"In considering this request, we hope you will keep in mind the importance of our swimming area as a recreational asset to our City. We are very much aware, and I am sure that you are, of the tension and unrest that will exist among our residents, especially the teenagers, without the use of this swimming area during the summer months.

"We have a very active Parks and Recreation Citizens Advisory Committee that is working diligently on a plan for a new pool or pools, to be submitted to the voters in August. We are sure that the proposal will be approved by the electorate of our city.

"In the meantime, your approval of the conditional operational procedures, as outlined, is of the utmost importance to us. Please inform us of your decision as soon as possible."

Meeting Scheduled

The letter, dated May 3, received a prompt reply, Slone said, and Hodges and other Health Department officials said they will come to the Park sometime this week, to discuss the conditions to be laid down before a permit will be issued. No definite date was set for the meeting, it was said.

The Park council was prepared to exhaust every means, including possible court action to force the State to grant a permit for the pool opening, if only for this summer.

If, after all legal and known means are exhausted, or should fail, the city administration thought of approaching the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for a meeting to discuss possible use of the swimming pool in Pierce Junior High School.

Bond Issue Rejected

Last November, a majority of Park voters rejected a million-dollar bond issue, that would have raised funds for the complete development of recreational facilities at both the Waterfront and Three Mile Drive Parks, including a new pool in each park.

Shortly after the beginning of the year, Park officials were notified that the State Health Department would not issue the city a permit for the opening of the pool this summer because the facility was substandard and did not meet the minimum standard requirements as set by a new law that went into effect on January 1.

A plea from the city council that the health agency reconsider its refusal to issue a permit went unheeded, until now.

Residents Present

Several persons, favoring the opening of the pool, and that it be maintained as it presently is, were in attendance at a regular council meeting held on Monday, May 8, and presented the council with a petition bearing 919 names, demanding that something be done to keep the pool open.

The petitioners were apparently unaware that the Health Department had reconsidered its decision, and they appeared pleased regarding the reversal.

Slone informed the people that the "permit" was not actually such, but merely a letter from the health officials recognizing the need of a pool, and just for this summer only, will "bend the law" slightly because of the nature of facility's structure, three walls and an opening to the sand beach, and not consider the pool as a pool. However, it was pointed out, next year will be a different story.

At the request of a person in the audience, City Attorney Richard Rohr explained the law, governing public swimming pools, and pointed out that under the present statute, as of January 1, no municipality can operate a swimming pool without a permit from the State.

Since they had been unaware that favorable steps had already been taken, the petitioners agreed that their petition need not be acted upon.

Slone Earned Praise

The audience applauded a suggestion from Councilman Charles Ives thanking Slone for the many hours the city manager spent in exhaustive efforts to seek all means to keep the waterfront facility open.

Slone told the council and the audience, that he had approached the Grosse Pointe Board of Education regarding the use of the Pierce pool, and that the Board had expressed a willingness to cooperate.

Mayor Patterson said all that remains was to have a meeting with the agents of the Health Department to iron out the conditions under which the pool would be allowed to be utilized this year.

At 7:30 a.m., Monday night, following the city council meeting, the Parks and Recreation Citizens Committee, met in the municipal chambers, to continue its diligent study of the recreational needs of the city. The committee presently is preparing a questionnaire to be sent to all of the citizens of the community, asking them for their opinions regarding this vital need.

County Heads Present

The highlight of the meeting was the presence of Glen Brown

We are deeply indebted to these loyal teachers and grateful for their many years of devoted duty as they helped educate literally thousands of Grosse Pointe youth. I know you join with me in thanking them for their fine services and in wishing them well in the years to come."

Textbook Change

Regarding textbook changes, Acting Superintendent Husband said, "In accordance with past procedures, I am submitting a list of textbook changes for the 1967-68 school year. In presenting this list to the Board of Education, I request that action be deferred upon this recommendation until the June meeting in order that Board members may have ample time to examine these books. Each of the books, together with the recommendations of the faculty committees involved, are available for inspection in the office of the Assistant Superintendent-Instruction at any time."

The trustees approved the report prepared by the Department of Business and Finance and authorized general fund disbursements, construction certificates in connection with Grosse Pointe High School North.

In other action, the school trustees approved the leasing of four re-locatable classrooms to meet the population growth of the Ferry School attendance area.

They also gave approval to a special education summer school program to be conducted by the Department of Pupil Personnel.

and I. Jack Adelson, both of the Wayne County Health Department, who reviewed for the committee, detailed plans for new swimming pools, and operational procedures as required by the State Health Department, under the new law, which must be enforced by the County Health Department.

The committee meets every Monday at 7:30 p.m., and will continue to meet until its studies have been completed and its recommendations given to the city council.

It is hoped that the group's work will be finished by at least June 15, so that the council can take further steps toward solving the problem.

Philip Wettingel of 1126 Grayton, vice chairman of the committee, was appointed to handle all publicity for the group.

Monteith School Contest Winner

Monteith School won the plaque from Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council for the cleanest school ground with Ferry and Richard running a close second and third. Kerby received fourth place and Honorable Mention went to St. Clare and Defer Schools.

William Cullingford, president of Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club, reports that the first three schools had playgrounds in such excellent condition it was extremely difficult for the judges to decide.

Men's Garden Club members who participated in judging were Marshall Collins, Charles Cooke, Hugh Foley, Bert Francis, Alex Jemel, Andrew Larkins, Harold Lee, Al Tapert, Herman Voigt and Harold Week.

The Girl Scouts from St. Clare school distributed the winning posters from the Poster Contest to public places for display.

This concludes the Annual Cleanup Drive and the Garden Club Council appeals for cooperation during the entire year on the part of adults as well as school children to continually strive to make the community beautiful and devoid of unsightly litter.

The Council wishes to thank all teachers who supervised the students in submitting hundreds of posters, parents who gave encouragement and citizens who contributed to the cleanup drive program.

The fund-raising project for the Council is conducted by Mrs. David Lowe. She has supplied catalogues to all garden clubs so that they may order tulips directly from Holland and receive a refund for replanting trees and shrubs on the Lake Shore. Bulbs planted last fall have produced superior specimens. The Council is asking all garden club members and their friends to cooperate. Garden Club representatives will take your order, closing date August 15. No payment is needed until bulbs are received.

Policemen Win Citations

The two alert police officers who saved the life of 7-year-old Constance Kienle, of Washington road, on January 27, were presented with citations for intelligent use of first aid by Police Chief ANDREW C. TEETAERT, left, at a recent City Council Meeting. The officers, VIRGIL G. BEAUPRE, right, and RICHARD LANSKI, responded to a call from the girl's mother, reporting that her daughter was trapped beneath the garage door. She had been attempting to close the ice-covered door when it fell on her and forced her to the ground.

When the officers arrived the door was pressing against her chest. They had to break the door in order to free Constance. Her heart had stopped beating and there was no pulse or respiration. The officers immediately applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, then rushed her to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

Constance's arm was broken in such a way as to necessitate an operation. She returned to her third-grade class room in late March.

The Council members joined the Police Chief in expressing their appreciation to the officers for a job well done.

On Friday evening there'll be the skirl of bagpipes as the Clan McRea Band and the Magnuson Highland Dancers bring the land of heather a wee bit closer to Grosse Pointe Village and its visitors.

Other performers will include a Czechoslovakian gymnastic club presenting a calisthenic number which scarves, a Lithuanian dance group (Silaine), Mexican senoritas and caballeros doing the bat dance and tarantella, and many other ethnic groups, all in authentic costumes of their homeland.

No festival would be complete without food, and there will be an abundance of foods, from the hearty, zesty tamale and tortilla of Latin American to the many-layered tortes or flaky pastries of central Europe.

One group of ladies from the Library Guild of St. John's Armenian Church will be demonstrating the preparation of some of their delicacies in the kitchen of the Village's Hospitality Center. Recipes will be available for those who wish to try their hand at making these delectable morsels themselves.

Handcraft demonstrations in a number of the booths will give the International Festival visitor an opportunity to learn new skills, ranging from fine needlework to the creation of Pysanky, the intricately decorated eggs for which the Ukrainians have long been famous.

And if you don't want to learn a thing, but just like to browse, nibble, look and enjoy, the International Festival is made for you. There will be chestnuts and peanuts rraasting, corn popnovations would be beneficial and suitable for adaptation in the Grosse Pointe Schools. Many ideas were gleaned by the committee and subsequently reported to the Board of Education, the faculty at various teacher's meetings and to the parents through P.T.A. meetings.

Holding Middle School Conference

Consultant Procured

Dr. Ann Grooms, of the University of Cincinnati and the Institute for Development of Educational Activities of the Charles F. Kettering Foundation, was procured as a consultant. Dr. Grooms, in cooperation with the middle school committee, made presentations to the Grosse Pointe staff concerning trends and innovations taking place in the junior high schools as they move toward the middle school concept.

Soon to be ranked high on the committee's list of priorities was the involvement of the Grosse Pointe staff. It was apparent to the committee that the success of the implementation of the middle school in Grosse Pointe would be dependent to a great extent upon the degree that the teachers became involved in the shaping of the new school. Thus the problem was to find a way in which the committee could share some of its findings and experiences with the staff rather than to merely relate them to the staff.

Conference Idea Born

While searching for a means to fulfill this objective, the idea of holding a conference on the middle school emerged.

It seemed most desirable to attempt to bring the Grosse Pointe staff and recognized authorities who are pre-eminent in understanding the needs of preadolescent youth or who are already involved in existing middle schools, together in an environment and in a situation in which the full time and energies of the participants could be focused on the matters at hand. The site finally selected for the conference was Hidden Valley near Gaylord, Mich.

The teachers were asked to make a commitment of their full attention for three days of concerted effort from May 11 through 13 that would take them well into the weekend. This commitment was asked in order to minimize the loss of instructional time for students and yet allow sufficient time to accomplish the goals set for the conference.

Supported by Board

The Board of Education has committed its support to the conference to the extent that it is releasing those teachers who might be involved in the middle school of 1968 from their teaching assignments for two of the three days that the teachers are asked to participate.

Since this is a first for a conference of this nature, financing for the conference is being provided by foundation grants (and a private donor) with the anticipation that many of the ideas resulting from this experience will not only be incorporated in the Grosse Pointe Middle Schools of 1968, but will be made available to other school systems that anticipate making the transition from a junior high school structure to a middle school.

Foundation Committee

The Kettering Foundation has already made its commitment to innovation in providing the service of Dr. Grooms.

Among these resource people will be such nationally known persons as Dr. Margaret Mead, anthropologist, who will be the keynote speaker and address the participants of the topic "Learning Vistas Unlimited." Dr. John Jenkins, Principal of Miami Springs Senior High School, Miami Springs, Fla., will speak on "Team Teaching and the Ungraded School." Dr. Martin Hamberger, Professor, College of Education, New York University, will discuss "Knowing the Middle School Student," and "Programming for the Middle School," will be topic of Dr. Emmitt Williams of the University of Florida.

Gift from Henry Ford

A personal donation from Henry Ford, II, will underwrite the remaining costs of the conference which include such items as transportation, meals, and lodging for the more than 225 staff participants. It is this donation that makes it possible to hold the conference at the Hidden Valley site under circumstances that greatly increase the conference's chances of success and eliminates the need to look to the tax paying public for revenue.

It promises to be an exciting and stimulating weekend for the Grosse Pointe teachers as all the parties concerned combine their efforts in this "Commitment to Innovation."

Correction

In last week's issue of the NEWS, it was reported that John W. Steininger of 624 Hampton, appeared before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger, in the Woods municipal court, and was found guilty of two counts of traffic violation.

It was stated that he was found guilty of reckless driving and careless driving. Instead, the reckless driving charge was changed to careless driving, and he was found guilty of the latter.

He paid a fine of $25, and was placed on probation to his father for 30 days.

Decisions by Judgement — Not by Crisis

Youths Accused In Park Robbery
Ledroit Fletcher, 17, of 3521 Holcomb, Detroit, charged with burglary, appeared before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, May 3, and through a court-appointed attorney, waived preliminary examination, and was released on $1,000 personal bond, after he was bound over to circuit court for trial.
Two 16-year-old boys who were involved in the breakin with Fletcher, have been filed against in Juvenile Court and are awaiting a hearing. They, too, are free until their case comes up before Judge James Lincoln.

Fletcher and his companions are accused of breaking into the office of Dr. John R. Pear, in the Professional Building, 15324 Jefferson, on April 26.
Credit for their arrest was given to Patrolmen Charles Slusser and Ralph Moore, who, while on patrol at 12:10 a.m., on the April date, saw the three teenagers in a car in the alley at the rear of the building. The officers took the names of the youths, after "checking them out", in the event that a crime had been committed.

Three three boys were released after questioning, when a call to the station revealed that no report of any wrong doing had been received. The names and addresses given by the trio, was recorded by Slusser and Moore for possible investigation.

At 6:05 a.m., the building janitor discovered that Dr. Pear's office had been forcibly entered, and called police.

Slusser and Moore remembered the three youths, and gave their names and addresses to Det. Lt. Stanley Enders and Det. James LaPratt.

The detectives said that in giving their names, two of the boys, including Fletcher, gave fictitious names and addresses. The third boy, apparently without thinking, gave his right name and address.

Enders and LaPratt, after extensive investigation, finally arrested the boy who gave the right answers, and through him, apprehended Fletcher and the other youth. At the station, all three signed confessions, after informed of their rights, admitting they broke into the doctor's office, from where they took $81, from a desk drawer in the front office.

Fletcher, arraigned before Judge Belanger on Saturday, April 29, pled guilty as charged, but the judge, taking note that the youth was not represented by an attorney, refused to accept the plea, and entered a plea of innocent for the teenager. Fletcher was released on $3,000 bond and examination was set for May 3.

Judge Belanger petitioned the Wayne County Circuit Court to appoint an attorney for Fletcher, and at the hearing, the attorney advised the youth to waive examination. The bond reduction followed and the teenager was bound over for trial in circuit court.

SECOND THOUGHTS
This tired old world of ours seems to be in desperate need of a little clear thinking.

Michigan Week Highlighted By Mayors' Exchange Day

Michigan Week will once again be observed in Grosse Pointe beginning on Saturday, May 20, and ending the following Saturday, May 27. Where but in the great State of Michigan could we find an eight-day week!

The main focus of attention this year, as in the past 12 years, will be Mayors' Exchange Day which is scheduled for Monday, May 22. Mayors and city officials from five Michigan cities will be the guests of the Grosse Pointes at a luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Following the luncheon, among the many plans made for the visitors, will be a boat ride along our shoreline and down the river to Detroit. City Managers Tom Kressbach, Andrew Bremer, Chester Peterson, Thomas Jefferis and Robert Sloan, have planned the day's activities with Richard Kay, Director of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools acting as co-ordinator.

The City of Grosse Pointe Park will be host to the Mayor of Ann Arbor, Wendell E. Hulcher and his wife, who will be accompanied by one of Ann Arbor's city councilmen, Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and Councilman Robert J. Hutton will be accompanied by their wives for a day in Ann Arbor as guest of that neighboring city.

The City of Grosse Pointe will receive Mayor J. Glenn Sperry and his entourage from the City of South Haven, while Mayor David Burgess and his wife will travel across the state to be the guests of South Haven. The City of Grosse Pointe Farms will have guests arriving from Traverse City. Mayor Vincent Focktman and his wife will be exchanging places with Farms Mayor William Butler, Councilman James H. Dingeman, and city clerk Peter Caputo and their wives.

Representatives of St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Chalfonte at Lothrop, will attend the annual meeting of the Michigan District of the American Lutheran Church to be held at Muskegon, Mich., from Monday, May 15, to Wednesday, May 17.

Attending from the local congregation will be Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kapilla, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Scheibner, Vicar Donald Liscum and Pastor Charles W. Sandrock.

Plan to Attend Church Meeting

Michigan Week is to be recognized throughout the State in the following manner:
Saturday, May 20—Community Pride Day.
Sunday, May 21—Spiritual Foundation Day.
Monday, May 22—Our Government Day (Mayor's Exchange Day).
Tuesday, May 23—Our Heritage Day.
Wednesday, May 24—Our Livelihood Day.
Thursday, May 25—Education Day.
Friday, May 26—Hospitality Day.
Saturday, May 27—Our Youth Day.

To Add $20,000 To Woods Budget

The Finance Committee of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods has recommended an additional $20,000 to be added to the proposed 1967-68 budget which is expected to be adopted by the City Council after conducting a Public Hearing on the budget on May 15.

The Finance Committee has felt that the City of Grosse Pointe Woods should always be on a pay-as-you-go basis, that the following year should not be charged for tax funds expended this year, and that the budget as previously presented was without any reservation for contingencies such as excessive snow removal or other emergencies.

Therefore, the Finance Committee finds it prudent to recommend to the Council the increase in the budget to provide for contingencies for emergency use.

The tax rate would be increased to 17.50 mills ($17.50 per thousand) of the City's current assessed valuation of $64,610,240. This is an increase of 2.95 mills ($2.95 per thousand) over the current City tax levy of 14.55 mills.

In comparison, and based upon the state equalized valuation of $105,914,700.00, the tax levy for the proposed budget would only require a levy of 10.675 mills or $10.68 per thousand of assessed valuation.

To Devise Plans To Aid Retarded

Robert Brown, president of the Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children, invites parents and friends of retarded children and adults to attend the annual meeting of the Association on May 17. The meeting will be held in the Grosse Pointe Public Library at 8:15 p.m.

Not only will there be elections of new officers, but goals for the coming year will be discussed and decided upon. The presence of adequate adult support for the retarded of Grosse Pointe will be the measure of success for needed new services, improved existing ones, and the ongoing role of helping each other and the community.

In gratitude of Grosse Pointers and friends away from home, the membership is pleased to announce the following contributions, made as a result of their recent Fund Drive.

One thousand dollars to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, to aid in the forthcoming establishment of a Lifetime Planning Consultant for the Retarded.

Five hundred dollars to the National Association for Retarded Children Research Fund.

Five hundred dollars to Plymouth State Home and Training School for needed special equipment for non-ambulatory patients.

Traces History Of Transfusions

Tracing the history of blood transfusions from the Middle Ages, Dr. Alexander J. Walt, Professor of Surgery and Chairman of the Department of Surgery, Wayne State University School of Medicine, stressed the increasing knowledge and improved techniques of "Massive Blood Transfusions" at the nineteenth Annual Clinic Day at Bon Secours Hospital.

Dr. Walt pointed out that a blood transfusion is actually a tissue transplant and is subject to the same hazards of rejection that organ transplant is. He discussed in detail the new factors found in blood, but pointed out that the basic tests of compatibility could be made quickly and with simple methods. The examination of a tube of blood at the bedside can reveal considerable information regarding the cause of hemorrhage.

In the afternoon scientific session members of the Attending Staff and House Staff of the hospital gave ten minute resumes of original papers which they had prepared.

In the evening the Holden Awards were distributed for the best original papers on Clinical Medicine by Interns and Residents, derived from experience with patients at the hospital.

The awards were established by the late James S. Holden.

Parcells P-TA Meets May 10

"From the Pages of Fashion" is the theme chosen by the Parcells Junior High Clothing I Class to highlight the last Parent-Teacher Association meeting to be held Wednesday, May 10, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The entire production, under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Graham, is written, designed, staged, costumed and modelled by the ninth grade clothing class. Patricia Gammichia and Lois Faust, student commentators, have written original scripts for the show.

Following the auditorium program, parents are invited to visit classroom displays of student work in Junior Homemaking, Industrial Arts, Science and Art.

Biology projects winning Blue and Red Ribbons in the Metropolitan Science Fair will be on display as well as several art pieces entered in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Student Art Show in April.

Copper and brass metal tooling will be demonstrated by Michael Atkinson, Michael Bauer, Philip Bertelson, Robert Engelhart, James Fenton, Scott Spagnoli, Robert Calka, Clifford Carberry, Richard Cochill, Chris Knapp, Don Du Castel, Leonard Constantine, Brian Nickoloff, Edward Reinbold, Duane Borkowski and Gary Hill.

The following students will be seen working at various wood, plastic, electrical and sketching projects: Robert Church, Craig Persson, Bill Ireland, Michael Conboy, Gary Marowske, Mark Whitrock, Dave Palmer, Bob Godefroi, Michael Ford, Duane Grider, Ali Ismail, Fred Bono, Dave Wallace, Douglas Nicholl and Michael Mazza.

Free-hand drawing and painting, ink sketching, manuscript lettering, sculpturing, papier mache, and ceramic work will be demonstrated by Wally Bronson, Stephanie Rasmus, Debbie Jeffrey, Margaret Maskey, Jack Barbier, Susan Okarski, Kim Krause, Debra Strandhagen, Elizabeth Bangs, Dona Selby, Tim Atkinson, Richard Prudden, Sue Baker, Betsy Cullum, Betsy Myers, Nina Azar and Sandy Tilton.

We'll help put your wife in a home

If your wife has been talking about a new home lately, maybe you'll want to know something about a mortgage. There's a lot more to it than the amount of money you borrow. Where the money comes from is just as important. And so are the things written into your mortgage.

At NBD, for example, we have the people and facilities to give you personal attention when you apply. And because we're a full-service bank, we can keep on helping you with our range of financial services long after you move in.

Our 90 offices make NBD the most convenient place in town to apply for a mortgage. There's no application fee. Closings take only thirty to forty-five minutes and are often made at the same office. This saves you a special trip downtown. And closing costs are usually less than a hundred dollars, excluding insurance.

When we write your mortgage, we spell out exactly what rate you'll be paying, what you're paying for, and what you don't have to pay for. And we'll write in pre-payment privileges that can save you hundreds of dollars if you sell your home.

Maybe you're thinking about a mortgage loan right now. If you are, be sure to think about this: we can help you.

Back To The House! It's Golf Time Again

By Pepper Whitelaw

It's that time of year again! The time of year that the heretofore conscientious housewives and mothers leave the ranges with reckless abandon for the greens. Golfing has become one of the most popular sports with Pointe gals. Much to this writer's chagrin, I just can't make it on the golf course.

Year after year, friend husband, (an avid and good golfer), suggests I take golf lessons... year after year, I dutifully take them... always with the same result... or I should say, lack of results.

Last year, feeling quite out of the swing of things, I decided that '66 was THE year! Off I trotted, looking very "golffy" in my Bermuda shorts, prescription sunglasses, Spaulding tennis shoes, (it's hard to get ladies' golf shoes in my size, cast off golf clubs and bag of my husband... ready to shout fore with delight. My only problem was that I went on to five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten—swings that is!

The pro informed me that the length of my arms should really be an asset in driving the ball. Was he surprised! The only place I drove the ball was into the ground. Of course, being nearsighted didn't help... and being vain and nearsighted really complicated matters, (I wouldn't be caught dead with my glasses on in front of all those healthy, out-doorsey looking gals.)

My big problem was that I couldn't even get the ball to sit respectfully on the tee and wait for my swing. The few times it rested on the tee, it was whooshed off by my rather inaccurate swing. If I did, by some stroke of luck, (no pun intended), hit the ball, it usually landed one giant step away from me. By that time the pro was scratching his head with bewilderment at the number of misses a Mrs. could have.

My feet created another problem on the course... it seems that before I got to the second hole, (which could be anywhere from 45 minutes to an hour), my arches had completely collapsed... not to mention the shortness of breath and double vision.

Hours later when I finally reached the ninth hole, (how do those 18-holders do it?), my only thought was that if I could switch my golfing score with my bowling score I'd have it made! Here I must add that my putting is not half bad. Why, from six inches away I only need six or seven putts to sink the ball!

When I had finally completed the game (?) I triumphantly left the green, grinning at all the other duffers, (see how quickly I picked up the language).

"How did you do?" they asked. "Great, I replied, "I finished nine holes today!"

The pro then asked with a grin if I had ever thought of playing tennis, ping pong, shuffleboard or water polo... I assured him that I was far better at golf than at any of those other sports. Stuttering a bit he then informed me that he would not be available for lessons anymore... he was going on an extended vacation. I assured him that my husband would be glad to take over where he had left off.

He then had a severe coughing spell. He sputtered something like, "didn't I like my happy home"... the rest of his remark was lost in another coughing spell. I left him thinking—If that is what happens when you are out-of-doors everyday, I will go back to the confines of the house and a good book.

So this year as the golfing season rolls around I have no feelings of nostalgia... no yearning for the great outdoors... just a feeling of middle-aged complacency as I watch the more energetic pursue "THE GAME!"

GP Student Aids Tornado Victims

Richard S. Lord, a sophomore majoring in Economics and the son of Mrs. Rhoda N. Lord of 236 Cloverly road, was among the more than 50 Lake Forest College students who responded to a call for volunteer work in clearing away the debris from the April 21 tornado in Oak Lawn, Ill.

Announcement that a work crew was being organized went out during lunch in LFC Commons that Saturday. Seven cars of young people drove down to the stricken area on Sunday and reported for work at the city hall.

The group was about evenly divided between men and women. Some of the girls assisted with the distribution of clothing to tornado victims and others helped prepare food for volunteers in the fire station. Mobile trucks delivered sandwiches and coffee to workers on the job.

The men, operating with bulldozer crews, hauled away tree trunks and limbs which had been cut up by chain saws. The students worked from about 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 until it began to snow so badly that they had to leave.

World history, American history, sociology and contemporary international relations are scheduled, as are beginning and advanced typing, shorthand, intermediate and advanced sewing.

The course on contemporary international relations is not normally taught during the regular school year. It will involve a study of selected problems of contemporary international affairs. Various instructional media will be used and much reading will be done from a wide variety of source materials.

Hear 5 Cases In City Court

The City Municipal Court convened on Tuesday, April 25, with Judge Douglas L. Pateron presiding. The following cases were heard:

Robert Schmidt, 1342 Devonshire, was charged with driving in violation of a restricted operator's license and driving without lights. He pled guilty and was found guilty. Pre-sentence probation report was requested.

Lucille Stock, 196 Cloverly, was charged with careless driving resulting in an accident. She pled not guilty and was found guilty. Sentence was suspended.

Mary Stanczyk, 817 Washington, was charged with reckless driving resulting in an accident. She stood mute. The case was dismissed due to lack of evidence.

Cynthia Kelly, 509 Lincoln, was charged with reckless driving resulting in an accident. She pled not guilty and was found not guilty.

Plan Log Boom To Trap Debris

The Woods City Council received a recommendation from the Recreation Commission that they request the Wayne County Drain Commission, in the interest of public health and elimination of water pollution, to institute some type of project across the Milk River Channel, just ahead of the Jefferson Street Bridge, which could catch any debris floating down the Milk River Channel before it enters the city's Lake Front Park and on into Lake St. Clair.

They suggested that some type of "floating logs," chained together across the Milk River Channel could be installed to catch the debris.

City Administrator Chester Petersen forwarded a letter requesting same. Action was taken on the suggestion by the Milk River Drainage Commission and a log boom of salvaged telephone poles will be installed presently.

Cottage Hospital To Give Medicare Information

Cottage Hospital has opened a special Medicare Information Service to assist residents and patients in the Grosse Pointe area.

Information concerning Medicare benefits is available, either verbal or written, simply by calling the hospital for an appointment.

"There are many agencies and a great deal of Medicare literature," said Ralph L. Wilgarde, Cottage Hospital administrator, "but they are frequently inconveniently located for local residents, especially older persons."

"Although we, as have many hospitals, have been providing Medicare information right along," he added, "we have found that the subject is much too complicated to be handled satisfactorily if people wait until they become ill to find out what their rights and benefits are."

Wilgarde said that the Cottage Hospital business office has been collecting supplies of official Medicare information brochures to distribute to local residents.

"We will not, however, be able to mail this literature," Wilgarde stated.

Instead residents who wonder about Medicare, or who because they are facing hospitalization would like further information, will be able to call the hospital between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Depending upon the complexity of their question, residents may receive answers on the telephone or by making an appointment for an interview at the hospital.

According to Wilgarde there may be instances when the question is too technical and requires the attention of Social Security specialists.

Generally speaking, however, Wilgarde stated that benefits of the Medicare program have been spelled out clearly enough in government and Blue Cross-Blue Shield pamphlets. These will be available at Cottage Hospital.

"Sometimes, oftentimes, in fact," said Wilgarde, "a person needs just a little bit of assistance and explanation, and the benefits, which are quite specific, become clear."

He added: "I hesitate to say this, but I feel I should. We are providing this information service to help our patients and residents of our area. We will not be able to judge or evaluate the program, nor become involved in the interpretation of individual cases under the Medicare Program."

The Cottage Hospital administrator concluded by saying if the people in charge of the Medicare Information Service at the hospital are unable to answer technical questions, they will, at least, take sufficient interest to direct the enquirer to the proper source.

Albert E. Nowak, 32, of 1481 Baldwin, Detroit, was arrested by Farms police on Wednesday, May 3, and charged with indecent exposure. He was arraigned before Municipal Judge Robert H. Pytell, and waived all rights to counsel.

Judge Pytell released Nowak on $500 personal bond, and referred the matter to the Wayne County Probation Department for a pre-sentence investigation report.

According to the arresting officers, Sgt. Marvin Krebs and Patrolman Earl Field, a young male witness stopped them while they were on routine patrol, and informed them of a lone man in a car in the Grosse Pointe High School area, who was exposing himself. The act was witnessed by female students who also complained to police.

Krebs and Field said they immediately drove to the area, in Fisher road, and arrested Nowak, while the man was still committing the act. The arrested man offered no explanation for the deed.

Nowak was taken to the station where he was booked and charged for the offense.

Poster Contest
Great Success

The poster contest sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council in our elementary schools had a tremendous response. Over 350 posters were submitted which showed such a quality of art and originality that the judges were in somewhat of a dilemma in making decisions for prizes. They felt that 20 to 30 more posters could have had honorable mention.

The Garden Club Council wishes to thank all teachers who supervised eager students who participated and possibly parents who gave encouragement to the project. Attracting interest at all levels should build attitudes toward making the community clean and beautiful not only during the annual Clean up Drive May 1 to May 15, but throughout the entire year.

The St. Clare Girl Scouts made their civic contribution by distributing prize posters to public places for display.

Prizes donated by Garden Club Council were presented to Colleen Webster, 6th Grade, Mason School, for first place. Second place went to Diane Dupius, 3rd Grade, Richard School. Elise Anderson, Trombly School, 6th Grade, won 3rd place. Fourth place was awarded Christine Salvaggio, Grade 5, Barnes School.

Honorable mention was given Erwin Maier, Poupard School; Robbie Voight, Maire School; Ronald Gruber, Monteith; Lindsey Hoffman, Mason School; Wendy Whitelaw Monteith.

Men Gardeners Meet May 18
Hardy plants for the average garden will be discussed in an illustrated talk by Harry Elkins at the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club meeting, Thursday evening, May 18, in the War Memorial building. Men gardeners will be welcomed.

Mr. Elkins has one of the most remarkable home gardens of Grosse Pointe, with a great variety of small conifers, Alpines, native wildflowers and flowering trees and shrubs. He was one of the lecturers at the successful recent home gardening course sponsored by the club at Grosse Pointe High School.
At the meeting, final arrangements will be made for the annual geranium sale through which the club raises funds for the various community betterment programs it sponsors or assists.
Arthur Shimmmons, committee chairman, has arranged for a record supply of several varieties of geraniums to go on sale at 8 a.m. Saturday, May 18, at the Nelson Frolund garden center, 1915 Mack avenue.

High School Presenting Spring Concert On Sunday

Russell D. Reed, instrumental music director at Grosse Pointe High School, has announced the program for the Spring Concert to be held at 4 p.m. on Sunday, May 14, in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School.
The afternoon of music will begin with the Symphony Orchestra playing "Catskill Legend" by Whear and "Elegie" from "Serenade for String Orchestra" by Tschalkowsky.
Mark Lawrence, trombone soloist, will be featured in Martin's "Ballade for Trombone," a contemporary work that stresses beauty of tonal combinations and interplay of rhythms between the soloist and the orchestra.
Mark, first chair trombone in both the band and orchestra, started playing the instrument when he was 10. In Junior High he played a solo with the Parcels band, and played in the Grosse Pointe Symphony. At Grosse Pointe High School he has received first division ratings for the last three years at the State Solo Festival.
Last year Mark was selected as one of the 10 winners in the Michigan Youth Arts Festival and performed a solo with the Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra as the only brass instrument player selected in the state. This year he again won this high honor and will perform a solo with the East Lansing High School Orchestra on May 27.
Mark also is first chair in the St. Clair Shores Orchestra and assistant first chair in the Detroit Concert Band of which he is the youngest member. He recently received a scholarship to the University of Michigan where he will major in music next fall.
Following the featured solo performance, the concert orchestra is scheduled to play "Finale" from "Symphony No. 1" by Shostakovich.
The Concert Band will conclude the first portion of the program with Grundman's "Fantasy on American Sailing Songs" and "Manhattan Tower Overture" by Jenkins.
The Symphony Band is slated for the second half of the program with Jacob's "March" from "An Original Suite" and "American Overture" by Jenkins. "The Liberty Bell March" by Sousa and Verdi's "Manzoni Requiem" will conclude the performance.
Tickets are available from band or orchestra members, or they may be purchased at the door the afternoon of the performance. Admission for adults is $1 and for students 50 cents.

Parcells School Having Concert

The Parcels Junior High Vocal Music classes will present "Say It With Music" on Wednesday, May 17, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.
Leonard L. Riccinto, vocal music teacher and director, has initiated a "first" by inviting Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent, Vincent Peterson, Principal of Parcels, and several faculty and staff members to join the student choir in the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."
Other adult voices include: Caroline Amrine, Will Arbaugh, Thomas Buyze, Alice Conway, James Haskell, Marie Knutson, Shirley Lewis, Roger McCaig, Donald McNew, Anna Michael, Harlan Minor, George Pamerleau, Ann Ransford, Frances Roach, John Wargelin, Barbara Wargelin, and Bernadette Wortman. Mrs. Leonard Riccinto will accompany the combined chorus on piano.
"Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child," selections from "Where's Charley?" and "Panis Angelicus" featuring soloist Carol Carozza, are numbers chosen by the Eighth Grade Chorus.
The Boys' Glee Club will feature "On the Street Where You Live" from "My Fair Lady," "Oklahoma," and the Academy Award winning song, "Born Free."
Diane Yoder and Lynda LeBlanc will follow with a duet version of "Moon River." "Bye, Bye Blues" and "All the Pretty Little Horses" will be offered by the trio: Carol Steketee, Lois Faust, and Lois Wilkie.
The special ninth grade vocal ensemble will present three folk songs: "Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley" with Cynthia Nyquist, soloist; "When Love Is Kind" and Irish folk song duet with Lynda LeBlanc and Andy Price; Anne Martin playing her guitar version of "Tom Dooley."
The Ninth Grade Chorus will conclude the evening of song with renditions "Surely He Hath Borne Our Grievs," "O Death, None Could Conquer Thee" with Ray Lawrence, cellist, and a nonsense medley, "Five Nursery Rhymes."

Brownell School Having Concert

Brownell Junior High School's vocal and instrumental music instructors, Daniel Evola and Dewey Kalember, will present a challenging program next Friday evening, May 19, to parents and friends of approximately 250 students in concert.

Beginning at 8 o'clock in the school's auditorium-gym, the mass chorus and orchestra will present "More" from the motion picture "Monda Cane." This melodic number is a favorite with the students, having won a Grammy award from the record industry as the best song of 1966.

Other vocal numbers will be recognized as stemming from movies and Broadway shows. "Almost Like Being in Love" (from "Brigadoon"); "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle" (from "The Forest Rangers")—both to be sung by the seventh grade chorus; and "Born Free" (from the movie of the same name, which also won the Academy Award in 1967)—to be presented by the ninth grade glee club. Other songs by the latter group include "Paul Revere's Ride," based on Longfellow's poem, and "Just Another Polka."

A select group of ninth graders, the Double Quartet, consisting of Janeen Carnaghi, Barbara Waggett, Lynne Montgomery, Sue Schim, Dave Wible,

Tom Edmundson, Dennis Uhalik, and Jim Hopper, will present the Academy Award winner of 1967 as the best song from a motion picture—"The Shadow of Your Smile," from "The Sandpipers."

Two large specialized groups which rehearse before school several mornings each week, the Girls' Ensemble and the Boys' Ensemble, will each present a series of songs with a variety of appeals: "Little David" and "Min Skol, Din Skol" by the boys; and "Yankee Doodle Boy," "I Hear a Song," "The Syncopated Clock" with Pam Hassig providing wood-block percussion, and "A Wonderful Guy," by the girls.

From each of these large invitational groups have several especially talented singers been selected for more difficult vocal numbers. The Select Boys' Ensemble has enjoyed the harmony of "The Drifter," accompanied by Jack Critchfield on guitar and Jim Knapp on string bass. These vocalists are: Dave Riddle, Dennis Uhalik, Jim Hooper, Harvey Janisse, Chris Palmer, and Thom Edmundson. Others include David Wible, Bill Kaloer, David Squibb, Dave Taylor, Allan Diedo, and Tom Withrow.

The Select Girls' Ensemble has rehearsed long and hard on such intricate harmonies as Bach's "To Spring" and "Bach, By Jove," from the Third French Suite. These girls are: Kathy Krieger, Marty Schmelz, Lynne Montgomery, Wendy Klein, Janeen Carnaghi, and Carla DiCicco. Others include Barbara Waggett, Linda Bolland, Jane Edson, Jane Shisler, Nancy Veit, and Sue Schim.

Accompanists for all vocal numbers will be Wendy Nelson, Kathy Mast, Sue Buttrey, Kathy Krieger, Marty Schmelz, and Debbie Fisher.

Orchestral selections to be played by the Brownell Symphony Orchestra of seventy players include these by several classical composers: "Air and Variation" by Handel, "Andante and Allegro" by Mozart; and two overtures from the anthems by Purcell (to be presented by the string section only). Others include Waldteufel's "Española Watz" and Holovsky's "Batslava."

The evening's music will be climaxed by a combined effort of the ensembles with orchestra in a rendition of Mozart's "Gloria" from the 12th Mass.

"This is undoubtedly one of our most challenging musical attempts in the history of Brownell," stated Dewey Kalember, instrumental music instructor since the junior high school's opening.

WSU Home Economics Alumnae Plan Luncheon

Grosse Pointe area alumnae of Wayne State University's Home Economics Department are playing an active role in the fourth annual alumni-sponsored potluck luncheon and fashion show, to be held at South Oakland YWCA on Saturday, May 13, at 1 o'clock.

Proceeds from this affair will be used to purchase a centennial Gift for the Home Economics Department in memory of Olive Goodrich, who was chairman of the Department at the time of her death last July.

GROSSE POINTE WAR MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN IS UNDER WAY

We wish we had room to list the many, many activities and benefits proceeding from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. We know you are aware of most of them and probably take part in a few yourself. That's why we are counting on a simple REMINDER of the once-a-year Family Participation Campaign to do the work of a long plea for the 1/4 of the Center's running expenses you are being asked to contribute. (The remaining 3/4 of the expenses are self-generating.)

We are counting again this year on the spontaneous generosity of the Grosse Pointe community for support of their own recreational, cultural, social and educational fountainhead. Give all you can; and remember — your contributions help the Center to serve YOU!

 Mark C. Stevens
 President

(Grosse Pointe War Memorial receives no public tax funds nor United Foundation funds. Contributions are tax-deductible.)

Hospital Host To HS Students

Students of Grosse Pointe High School interested in obtaining information about a career in the health field were invited to Cottage Hospital during National Hospital Week, May 7 to 13, to discuss their future plans with hospital department heads.

Under the auspices of the Cottage Hospital Women's Auxiliary the Career Program includes a tour of the hospital, as well as small group discussions with specialists in all areas of hospital activity.

Mrs. Clinton R. Amluxen, president of the Cottage Auxiliary, sent letters of invitation to high schools in the area, and Ralph L. Wilgarde, Administrator of the hospital, made special arrangements for the student visits.

"Although significant in itself," said Wilgarde, "hospital week gives us a special opportunity to emphasize a serious problem in the hospital field, and that is a critical shortage of trained personnel in the health fields."

He added that while people are generally aware of the need for doctors, dentists and nurses, there is an equally serious deficit of pharmacists, medical technologists, dietitians, physical therapists, nurse aids and social workers.

Refreshments will be served at Cottage Hospital after the discussion groups on Health Careers have been adjourned.

G.P.U.S. Honors Walter B. Ford

The Grosse Pointe University School Alumni Association honored Walter B. Ford II, on Wednesday, May 3.

At its annual meeting held after cocktails at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club and dinner at the school, the Association president, Lem Bowen, presented Mr. Ford with the Association's Scroll and Medallion.

The following is the text of the Scroll and Medallion:

"Member of the class of 1939, graduate of Yale University in 1943, he has become a leader in the field of industrial design. During World War II he commanded a Coast Guard frigate. In 1948 he founded the predecessor firm of Ford and Earl Design Associates. He was president until 1964 and serves as chief executive officer and account executive today."

"His imaginative work not only in Detroit, but throughout the country, has made him preeminent in his profession. As director of his own and other business institutions, he has served industry with distinction. But he may be best known for his generous response to the needs of education, philanthropy, and the arts."

"He has served the Grosse Pointe University School as a trustee since 1952 and has held every important position of leadership within the Board. He has given liberally of his time and talents to the United Foundation, the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts, and to Yale University as a member of the Yale University Council and chairman of the Committee for the Graduate School of Art and Architecture. His wisdom, his understanding, and his genuine concern for his fellowman continue to strengthen the community he serves."

In token of its respect for Walter B. Ford II, its appreciation for the example he has set as industrial designer, director of educational and business institutions, and its thanks for his devotion to the Grosse Pointe University School, the Alumni Association presents this Scroll and Medallion.

It was disclosed that the final breaking of the case that ended in the arrest of Moorman and Van, was the result of the combined efforts of the police in the Pointe area.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said that some "suspect material" confiscated from Van's home, and tested at the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory, was not marijuana.

It was stressed that the witness against Moorman and Van is not a high school student. His name was withheld.

St. Paul Seniors Presenting Play

Aristotle's conception of theater as catharsis aptly describes the experience in store for anyone who sees Jean Giraudoux's "The Mad Woman of Chailloit."

In this production, to be presented May 13 and 14 by the senior class at St. Paul High School, each character, in his own way, leads directly to the ultimate climax: the trial scene in which the cruelty, banality, fraud of today is exposed and condemned. Catharsis complete, suddenly life becomes fresh and clean again.

In the lead roles are students who have already experienced theater in the multiple reading group's prize-winning portrayal of "The Crucible"—Mary Hoyer as the Mad Woman with Mary Zens as her equally mad companion, Josephine; Brian Mullevy as the rag picker who joins the Countess in her trial of the evil people of the world; Geoffrey Browning representing a president of any corporation—drunk with power and his own importance; Thomas Meier portraying the rich prospector who is willing to sell everything, honor included, for a first lease on an oil well.

A large supporting cast helps to sustain the mood through the two acts of the play: William Truba as the selfish broker, Dan Kreske as the puffed-up baron. In his first venture in a major role, Philip Gerlach turns in a fine performance as Pierre the one character who visibly grows and thus stitches together the emptiness of evil and its final denouement.

The play which begins at 8 p.m. in St. Paul's gymnasium, is open to the public. Tickets, $1.50 for adults and $1 for students, may be purchased from any St. Paul senior.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Once again doggerel oozes from the pores. Perhaps because it's spring. At any rate, here are some samples of what I call: MOTHER GOOSE REVISITED.

"Jack Sprat could eat no fat
His wife could eat no lean;
And so betwixt them both, you see
They lick'd the platter clean."

"Which one died of ulcers?
Which one of a heart attack?
They may have belonged to the "clean plate" club,
But what dull meals—alack!"

"Little Tommy Tucker
Sings for his supper;
What shall we give him?
White bread and butter.
How shall he cut it
Without e'er a knife:
How can he marry
Without e'er a wife?"

If I were Tommy Tucker,
I wouldn't sing for my supper;
The menu's quite meager,
Only white bread and butter;
What a flimsy excuse—
They can't find a knife!
And who, at his age,
Needs a wife?

"Peter, Peter, pumpkin-eater,
Had a wife and couldn't keep her,
He put her in a pumpkin shell
And there he kept her very well."

Peter, Peter, wife-secreter,
Did you starve her, did you beat her?
Give her equal rights, you slob!
Let her go and get a job!

"There was an old woman, and what do you think?
She lived upon nothing but victuals and drink;
Victuals and drink were the chief of her diet,
Yet this little old woman could never keep quiet."

There's a masculine tone to this nursery tale,
No one but a man could possibly fail
To know that any woman, regardless of diet,
Would never for one moment dream of keeping quiet."

"As Tommy Snooks and Bessie Brooks
Were walking out one Sunday,
Says Tommy Snooks to Bessie Brooks,
Tomorrow will be Monday."

Of Snooks and Brooks I have little to say,
His comment leaves me speechless!
If young Bessie has a spark of sense
She'll see that they see each less!

"Jack be nimble,
Jack be quick,
Jack jump over
The candlestick."

If you want to be nimble
If you want to be quick,
Why jump over
A candlestick?
There are isometrics,
There are gyms of all kinds.
Why run the risk
Of igniting you—behind!

"Here am I, little Jumping Joan,
When nobody's with me,
I'm always alone."

Now here's a girl who knows the score!
With such built-in eye-reasoning,
I'd jump some more!"

During the next three weeks, three kind colleagues of mine will be spelling me out in the writing of this Column. I will be indebted to Mrs. Sermitz, Miss Helms and Mrs. Leeson, while I am touring Ireland, England, and Paris. I still can't believe I'm actually going (as you might gather, this will be my first trip abroad), and it will be doubly meaningful as my husband and I will be seeing our older son, Tom, for the first time in a year, as he has been studying at Queen's University in Belfast. I'll be giving you a report of my adventures early in June!

Park Restaurant Robbed of $800

A Park police officer, while checking doors of business places between 1 a.m. and 3 a.m. Sunday morning, May 7, discovered that a burglar, or burglars, had broken into the Westfield Restaurant, 15506 Mack avenue, and escaped with a large sum of money from a safe in the office.

According to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, the burglars broke into the restaurant by prying open the rear door with a heavy crowbar. The crime was discovered by Cpl. Bobby McAllister, who while checking doors, found the door open, and investigated.

Robert E. Kostreva of 26831 West Park, Roseville, owner of the place, was called, and arrived to take inventory. He told Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, who was assigned to the case, the thieves took approximately $800 from a small safe in the office.

The safe was small enough to be carried away, it was said, but the burglars nevertheless broke into it on the spot.

The detective lieutenant said that the culprits knocked off the dial and dial plate and used a drift pin to foul up the combination, before gaining access to the safe's contents.

Ready For GPHS Mothers' Club Benefit

To Mix Mistletoe, Geraniums May 17

A pleasant combination of geraniums and mistletoe is being readied for the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Women's Association's Geranium Tea, scheduled Wednesday, May 17, from 1 until 4 o'clock.

The tea will be held in the Church Social Hall and will preview this year's "Mistletoe Mart," the Church's Christmas Fair to be staged November 8.

During the tea the Church Men's Club will be holding an Outdoor Geranium Sale in the parking lot. The men will load cars with flower purchases.

Two firm advocates of doing one's Christmas shopping early, (or, perhaps, bride or graduate shopping), Mrs. William Potter and Mrs. W. Colburn Standish, Jr., general chairmen of the Mart, will present representative articles from nearly every Mart booth at the preview.

Orders will be taken for any of the items on display, and the articles themselves will be sold during the tea. All of these objects have been hand-crafted by the churchwomen.

Mrs. Gregory Flynn will present her papier-mache figures with sculptured heads, those familiar with Mrs. Flynn's work will be in line to view these.

Mrs. Howard Poppen and her "Palletiers" will have hand-painted pictures and epergnes. There will be decoupage too; Mrs. Robert Bogan's committee has prepared basket purses, plaques, trays, etc.

Mrs. Allan Neef and her group of felt workers have really been busy. Their tree skirts are spectacular, adorned with everything from storybook characters to snowflakes. A dozen or more different felt items will be offered.

The Christmas decorations, including made-to-order centerpieces and door hangings, were created under the direction of Mrs. Louis W. Charvat and Mrs. Robert Lake.

Five women have worked together on their special contribution, unique nativity figures in color. These are available on special order only. Mrs. James Armour is spokesman for the group.

Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler's "Top of the Mart" table will mix items for the June bride with small imported art objects plus something a famous New York store sells for $10, which she will sell for $1.50!

The Knit Wits hope you won't forget them, although it's a bit out of their season. But think of those cold nights ahead . . .

Now's the time to order sweaters and afghans for next winter. Food hasn't been forgotten. A "hot off the press" cookbook will debut, "The Congregational Kitchen." Some of the tea goodies will be made from the recipes. The cookbook is priced at $2.

Mrs. Lewis Slater will supervise a bake sale and the Pantry will feature delectable salad dressings and Dr. Joe Barkley's favorite mustard. Mrs. David Hines and party food cooks will have cheese rolls, nuts and bolts and other appetizing hors d'oeuvres.

What about an apron? Mrs. John Rillo and her crew of stitchers have turned out a real collection—frankly fussy, plainly practical and always original! There will be bar-b-que sets; perhaps you'll want to remember Dad on his day.

May 17 is preview day, and may we be the first to remind you that there are only 190 shopping days until Christmas!

Hutzel Hospital's Volunteer League Has Raised $70,000

The Hutzel Hospital Volunteer League's Annual meeting Wednesday, May 17, will mark four years to the day since members voted to raise money for two large gifts to the hospital. To raise $50,000 has taken the past three years, and the hospital will proceed at once to order the equipment for its new Heat Station Laboratory. This grand total of $70,000 has been accomplished by only 74 active volunteers and 41 associate members.

Mrs. John N. Falling, president of Hutzel Hospital Board offered her home in Three Mile drive for the League's 12th Annual Meeting, followed by a luncheon.

Awards for service hours will be made. Mrs. C. T. O'Harrow and Mrs. Robert A. Shiffer lead with 6,000 hours each. The former is head of the Gift Shop, and her report for the past year will show $10,000 net profits from the shop which is manned by a mere 12 volunteers.

As chairman of the Coffee Shop, Mrs. Guy Ireland has 37 volunteers, who continue to net $5,500 every year.

The Ways and Means Committee was chairmanned by Mrs. Fredrick W. Parker, Jr., who was assisted by Mrs. John K. Ford, Mrs. Harvey O. Dixon, Mrs. Richard G. Hanna, Mrs.

Frederick P. Heart, and Mrs. Fern Fraser.

The Heart Station will be a laboratory established to test heart and circulatory functions. There will be equipment for standard pressures, oxygenization of the blood and heart work, X-Ray motion pictures can be performed showing passage of dye through all heart chambers and valves, as well as blood vessels to the lungs and general circulation. The laboratory will serve diversified functions. First, it will help establish the diagnosis in cases of obscure heart diseases. It will also be used to evaluate whether or not the patient is likely to be helped by heart surgery, and, if so, by what particular surgical repair. In addition, it will be useful in research to advance basic knowledge of heart disease, and will serve a fourth purpose, that of medical education.

Mrs. Harvey O. Dixon, retiring League President will hand the gavel to Mrs. Sidney Hall. Other officers will be Mrs. C. Roy Brooks, First Vice President, Mrs. Richard Hanna, Second Vice President, Mrs. Sheldon Hall, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Russell Chauvin, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. Fredrick Fordon, Treasurer.

The Central Nursing Station

The Nerve Center Of Georgian East

There is a nursing station on each floor of Georgian East and it is always staffed by registered nurses. There are often practical nurses, nurses' aides and other members of the Georgian East staff on hand, too.

The nursing station is the nerve center of the meticulous nursing service that Georgian East provides 24 hours every day, seven days a week.

Located at the heart of the building, it is the center of communications of every sort—patients' calls, conversations between staff people on different floors, a paging system that provides instantaneous communications.

The central nursing station is a command post. Needs are reported here, decisions made. Patients' records are kept here, doctors' orders are on file for immediate reference.

The central nursing station is another of the service facilities that make Georgian East exceptional... That enable us to provide convalescent and geriatric care that meets only one standard—the best.

We welcome visitors. Please phone or just stop by when you are in the neighborhood.

Park and Playground Bus Tour Conducted

LWV Sponsors "Go-See" Visit to Local Recreational Facilities Plus Luncheon with Community Representatives

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, continuing its evaluation of recreation in the five Pointes, conducted a sightseeing tour on the 10th of May of the Pointes' present parks and playgrounds.

Too often one hears a married couple with grown children remark, "Kids have it too easy these days, too much leisure, too much play—they should be out working," while the shopkeepers have a meeting and comment, "Too many young people poking around at all hours. Aren't there enough recreational programs to keep them busy?"

Little League and Babe Ruth League players and officials might remark, "Wish there were more baseball diamonds, more football fields . . . those we have are always in use," while the harassed tax-payer exclaims, "No, you can't do it. It costs too much money for such improvements!"

So the League, in an effort to answer and resolve these problems, had planned a bus tour to assess parks, playgrounds and other facilities on May 10.

To find out what recreational channels will be available for local families this summer, telephone either Mrs. Paul Kolvoord, ED 1-1517, or Mrs. Leslie Pressel, TU 6-2274.

American Legion Auxiliary Urges More Flag Displays

"There is nothing prettier or more thrilling to see than the American Flag, so members of Grosse Pointe Unit 303 of the American Legion Auxiliary are urging their friends and neighbors to display their flags on all patriotic days," says Mrs. Frank Bonnier, Americanism chairman of the Unit.

"This is a good time to buy a Flag if you don't already own one and plan to fly it on the up-coming patriotic days: V-E Day, Monday, May 8; Mothers Day, Sunday, May 14; Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30 . . . and certainly a very important date is Flag Day, June 14, which is on a Wednesday this year."

"As part of the Americanism Program, many of the Units of the American Legion Auxiliary throughout the nation present American Flags to schools, churches, scout troops and camps, hoping to inspire loyalty and patriotism in our young people," Mrs. Bonnier concludes.

First Time Offered

A HOUSE for Mom at a price Dad can afford. This surprise package is in the City on Lincoln Road. It has four family bedrooms and two full baths on the second floor. There is a separate dining room and den on the first floor. Priced to sell at $39,500.

By Appointment

YOU'LL BE MAKING the catch of the year if you can pull this one in. This rangy English manor house sprawls over a ball-park-sized lot which includes swimming pool and pool house. There are enough bedrooms for each member of the team to have his own. Definitely a house for a Big Leaguer.

A NEWER colonial in the City with four bedrooms and two bathrooms on the second floor. There is a den off the living room and an extremely large kitchen and family room combination. For those who like large porches, this one has a dandy which is screened and permanently roofed.

MAY WE BE a bit presumptuous in asking if you like to revel in the luxury of large rooms decorated like an English country house. Do you picture yourself lounging in your large bedroom or by the fireplace in your dressing room? Are you one who insists on the privacy of a warmly paneled library, of course with fireplace? Must you have quarters for stay-in-help or just the rooms which you know are there for visiting family and brood? Ideal for the family which requires running room in a house on an estate-sized lot.

HEAD and shoulders above all the ranch houses for sale in the Shores. We know of no other house which offers three bedrooms and two complete bathrooms, plus a large family room, and the newest in kitchen gadgetry. Priced to be picked off at $55,000.

Rita Therese Herz . . . daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Herz, of Harcourt road, is one of 83 students from 50 American colleges and universities participating in the current session of the Junior Year in Munich program sponsored by Wayne State University. The 20-year-old Dominican High School graduate has been attending classes at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität (University of Munich) since October 1, 1966. She'll be returning to the States and resuming her studies at WSU, (she wants to be a teacher of German), some time after July 31 this year . . . Meanwhile, she's living in a Munich campus dormitory with German students, taking courses—all taught in German—in Grammar, German Classicism, History of German Literature, Child Psychology, Art History and Phonetics . . . With six months of her stay abroad behind her, Rita has naturally enough formed opinions, made observations on the German scene. Here are some of them:

Differences Perceived Between American and German Educational Systems: . . . "The main difference I perceive is the so-called 'Academic Freedom' here in Germany. The university student is left completely on his own. He can go to the lectures if and when he wants to, if he feels he is getting something out of them. Otherwise, he is responsible for the material covered. After the four, five or six years of study, he takes his exams, which consist of written and oral sections. This I feel is a disadvantage. It is possible for a student to go along for four years or so with a false idea and not find out until his exam that he has been wrong. However, lately many universities are setting up advising boards to help the student."

Differences Perceived Between Living Habits of Americans and Germans: . . . "In a large city such as Munich, the living habits are not too different from those of Americans. The German housewife however, usually buys just a day's supply of food and her mornings are filled with cleaning, shopping and preparing for the main meal at noon. For many families, coffee in the afternoon is a relaxing tradition, and then around 8 or 9 p.m., a simple dinner of sandwiches. On a sunny Sunday afternoon, if one goes out, one will see whole families and many couples enjoying the fresh air. The parks are filled, because the 'Spaziergang' is one of the favorite leisure activities of the Germans—plus, it is healthy."

Major Impressions of Attitudes or Opinions of the German People: . . . "I once asked a German acquaintance whether or not it was better to be an American or an Englishman, (in the eyes of a German). He could not or would not give me an answer. I'm afraid that the only pictures that most Germans receive of Americans are the American G.I.'s and the tourists, unfortunately. The Germans are most surprised to find an American student over here to actually study."

Schedule of Activities on a Typical Day: . . . "For me there has been no such thing as a 'typical' day in Munich. Almost everything I do reminds me that I am actually here, experiencing a dream come true. Most of the morning and afternoon is spent attending lectures and studying. I enjoy my classes, more now than ever, since I can understand almost everything that is being said. During the afternoon, if I am at home, I like to make myself coffee—a German custom I really enjoy. If I am at the university there are many cafes where one can sit over a cup of coffee, (and perhaps a piece of delicious German pastry), and discuss anything from people to politics. During the evenings I try to take advantage of the many cultural events of Munich. Every night of the week there are excellent operas, plays or concerts, (very often all three)."

Biggest Personal Impact During Her Stay in Europe: . . . "It's hard to realize that only 20 years ago Germany was beginning its attempt to restore itself after the war. In Munich everything has been restored exactly as it was before the war—beautiful and ugly alike—and they are now in the process of building the 'U-Bahn' (underground transport). It is amazing to see how the Germans have picked themselves up after a defeat."

Pointer of Interest

W. GARDNER STRAWBRIDGE, OF UNIVERSITY PLACE

By Pepper Whitelaw

As president of three corporations, an active member of Grosse Pointe Rotary Club and the father of four children, W. Gardner Strawbridge, "Doc," to his many Pointe friends, lives a busy and rewarding life.

Born in New Bedford, Mass.,

he spent most of his growing up years there. (And my, did he grow . . . he's over six feet tall.) He started attending Grosse Pointe High School in his sophomore year and proceeded to dazzle everyone with his capacity for leadership.

He was commencement speaker at his High School graduation in 1944 and chairman of the school War Bond drives in 1943-44. He entered the Navy upon graduation and served for two years, part of the time in Guam.

Gets Sociology Degree

After he was discharged from the Navy, he entered Michigan State University and received his BS degree in Sociology upon graduation. He was married while in college, to Pointer Mary Malow. "She worked my way through college," he laughingly recalls.

"Doc" and Mary were married in 1947, in the Grosse Pointe Memorial church.

Because jobs in the sociology field were difficult to find, and because "Doc" was interested in selling, he joined the Udylite Corporation. Being a thorough man, he wanted to know the corporation from the ground up, so he took a job in the factory making plating equipment and supplies. After several years with Udylite, he was ready for broader horizons. In 1952 he established the Palmer Equipment Company, which sells and rents construction and industrial equipment. He is still its president today.

Two More Companies

As the years went by, Mr. Strawbridge's businesses grew and he was ready for another challenge. It was at this point that he established the Fire Extinguisher Sales and Service Company, in Fraser, and a manufacturers firm, Gardner-Scott Corporation. He is currently president of both of these companies.

With his businesses functioning well, "Doc" began to spend time on other interests. One of these is his collection of antique tools, with which he is pictured above. The large wooden scoop is the prize of his collection. "It's made out of one piece of wood . . . entirely by hand," he exclaims.

Has Tooth Puller

Among his other antique tools are augers, used to drill holes for pegs in heavy beams. (This was before long nails were used), cement finishing trowels, axes, picks, and one particularly unusual tool, a dentist's tool, an old tooth extractor.

"This was given to me by a dentist friend of mine . . . it is shaped like a 'T' with a curved hook on the end of it . . . by applying pressure the tooth is removed . . . I'm certainly glad I wasn't having teeth extracted in those days," he muses.

One of Mr. Strawbridge's favorite activities is the Rotary Club of Grosse Pointe. He was sponsored for membership by Robert Orr, director of the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, and has been deeply involved with the club ever since.

But even before he was a Rotarian, "Doc" knew something about Rotary. He was elected to receive a Rotary Club award back in his high school days, which resulted in his attending Wolverine Boys' State in East Lansing.

Held Many Offices

During his 11 years with Rotary he has served as chairman of community affairs, club director, Antique Show chairman, second vice-president and director of club service committees, president in 1963-4, and director and chairman of past presidents committee. Currently he is vice-president of the Rotary Club Foundation and chairman of the Rotary information committee.

Presently Mr. Strawbridge is all fired up about the forthcoming Rotary Antique Show to be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial May 16, 17, 18 and 19, from 1 to 10 p.m. There will be over 35 exhibitors from New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire and Michigan. Tickets can be purchased from any Rotarian or at the door on show days.

Many Items For Sale

"All kinds of antiques will be on display including glassware, furniture, pictures, guns and jewelry. Vern Glendenning, chairman, and John Peel, co-chairman, have done a terrific job in getting this show organized," "Doc" says.

The club derives no money from the actual antique sales. Its money comes from ticket sales and contributions from local businessmen and individuals. Proceeds from the annual sales are used by the Rotary Foundation, a non-profit organization that collects and distributes money to needy Grosse Pointe families.

The club also buys hospital equipment for rental use at the War Memorial, maintains the free tool rental service at the Central Library, sponsors American Field Service exchange students, provides loans and scholarships for persons attending Grosse Pointe schools and provides the High School with band awards.

Has Four Children

Mr. Strawbridge is very proud of his children: Wendy, 17, who attends St. Ann's in Boca Raton, Fla.; Heather, 15, who attends Pinecrest School, in Fort Lauderdale; Laurie, 9, who attends Maire School; and Scott, 12, who attends Pierce Junior High.

The Strawbridges spend many vacations in their Boca Raton home, where they enjoy family recreation mixed with lots of sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Strawbridge love to travel. They spent one of their vacations in 1963 traveling through Greece, Turkey, Jerusalem, Lebanon and Egypt. In 1966 they joined the BAC group and journeyed to Hawaii, Singapore, Thailand, Taiwan and Japan.

In '68 they hope to make another trip with the LAC group, this time to the Mediterranean. Their daughter Wendy is a traveler, too . . . she spent last year living with a family in Tokyo as a participant in the Youth for Understanding program.

Other Activities

Besides his businesses Rotary and family interests, "Doc" has been on the boards of the Michigan Safety Conference and the Builders' Exchange of Detroit. Currently he is on the board of the Michigan Construction Equipment Dealers and is its vice-president. He is a member of the Detroit Executive Association and chairman of The Association of Equipment Distributors.

"Because of my busy day-time schedule, I've been known to eat three lunches without one painful groan," he laughingly admits.

He describes his University place home furnishings as "The Ours" period. "Many of the things belonged to Mary's grandmothers . . . some are the result of Mary's work . . . she loves decoupage and has done a table two feet by six feet with at least 50 coats of varnish, which has an honored place in our home. She is very versatile and loves to decorate . . . she does beautiful needlepoint too," he proudly adds.

Talking to "Doc" Strawbridge is rather like being caught in a windstorm without a hat. He is so full of energy and ideas . . . both of which he puts to use in his businesses, with his family and his hobbies.
